NEWS from around the pop world

Bee Gees' follow-up named

With their latest smash-success "World" riding the English charts at number 8 after only four weeks, the Bee Gees have announced their next single already.

The record is to be another Gibb brothers' composition called "Swan Song" coupled with "Sinking Ships". It will be released in England in mid-January, and should come out here soon after. The Bee Gees arrive in Australia in the next few days.

Walkers want to be brothers again

The Walker Brothers, John, Scott and Gary, will tour Japan in January.

Scott and John have not done solo records since the group split but claim they are forming their own group in the Main. However, the trio are all agreed that they will set up for a return tour of Japan. They are nearly as popular there as in the States.

Another reason for their decision is that the trip promises to net them an enormous sum of money. John was quoted last week as saying the reason is "to break what they return to England, they will go their own ways again."

SEEKER KEITH A FATHER

Seeker Keith Folger became a father last Wednesday week. His wife Pam presented him with a baby son Matthew. The other Seekers left England on December 15th for their January show in Melbourne.

GOSSIP FROM THE WORLD OF POP

Mick Jagger and Marianne Faithfull to spend Christmas alone in South America.

The Beatles latest recording "Magical Mystery Tour" which is really two EP's is number 10 on the English charts last week.

The Four Tops have released their new single "Walk Away Rene" and was a week hit here last year for the American group, the Left Bank.

Four members of Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick and Tich were shot down when their plane was forced into a crash landing in the Pacific.

The Procol Harum are currently touring, they played at Opera House in January they have a new single and a new album.

• Marianne Faithfull and Mick Jagger

YARDBIRDS FOR AUSTRALIA?

The Yardbirds, a group that has been unusually quiet lately, may be coming to Australia in the new year. They begin a ten-day tour of Sweden and Norway on January 8th, and are reported to be then heading for a four-week tour of Holland. After this, they will make a month-long visit to Australia for television appearances, and live shows. Watch Go-Set for more news.

SANDIE SHAW COLLAPSES

Sandie Shaw collapsed last week at rehearsals for the BBC's television show "Christmas Night with the Stars". She was rushed to hospital, and her spot on the show was cancelled.

As soon as she completed an engagement at London night club, Talk Of The Town, she will go to hospital for an abdominal operation.

POP SPEAK OUT

JIM KEARNS (MASTERS APPRENTICES)

FANS
Most fans have never seen the group. They usually take that group, still at school. This is the fans who really appreciate the other fans. There is a minority but there are just the same.

SEX
It's alright if you know what you're doing. Very bad if you don't. I know what I'm doing.

L.S.D.
Very easy to get hold of. Consequently, the weak minded would probably have got it. Not enough is known about it yet to make one's conscience clear enough to take it.

LOVE
Something I'm not capable of. At the moment I'm too unhappy. Maybe it's best that way. I keep you out of trouble.

MARRIAGE
Very far away for me. Doesn't mean much to me. It's just a state of being. A licence of paper. I suppose it will happen to me one day. Ridiculous when you're in the business.

SYDNEY
Get too much. Sydney's been better to me than any other state in Australia. Our record went to number one and we had riots against the best state in Australia.

IDEAL GIRL
Ridiculous due to the fact that I could tie up the rest of this page with ideal girls, and the one I'd probably marry wouldn't be anything like any of them.

BIRD WATCHING
I like to look at long hair. Got a real taste for rehearsals at the moment. I like birds about 5 or 6 with very faces.

A FAREWELL TO THE GROOP

Last Tuesday night music and the sounds of a party in full swing floated around the streets of Sandringham (Vic.), when the legendary Monday to farewell the Groop. The Groop leave for England in the new year. The party was held at the house of Tony Dickstein, manager of the Masters Apprentices.

BELOW: Roy, Alan chats with Miss Ross (Groop) and manager of the Masters Apprentices, Tony Dickstein.

with Idris Jones of the Mixtures

THE MUSIC GOES ROUND MY HEAD
THE EASYBEATS (PARLOPHONE)
It's the Kinks' "No!" The Easybeats Very gas. It's different. Marvellous new sound with the clarinet. I can play the clarinet. Can't say any reason why the clarinet shouldn't come back. I'm really glad they did something different. It should really go.

SOCKIN' 123
JOHN ROBERTS (C.B.S.)
Strip, strip, the more! I don't see anything to me. Nothing new or different. It could have been released five years ago. It's not my cup of tea. Won't be much of a hit. Can't understand why people would buy this kind of record. Kids might buy it to dance to!

NIGHTS IN WHITE SATIN
MOODY BLUES (DERAM)
It's very old English! Sounds like Scott MacKenzie. Good lead singer. It's America for sure. Not the Vanilla Fudge. Very well produced record. Will be a hit if the group has had a hit record before. Moody Blues. No, it won't be a hit. Quite like it, but much too long. Not commercial enough. As a group, good music. Technically good.

DON'T LOOK BACK
JOHNNY MANN SINGERS (LIBERTY)
They are going in for the big sound. Bass voice fabulous. It's a good record, but not commercial enough. Bit too country and western. Sounds like Serendipity Singers or New Christy Minstrels. Quite like it, but doesn't really do anything to me. Won't be a big hit.

YICK! CAR!
Yes. It's alright, she is a good singer. She should have released something just as a follow up to "I Must Be Here in a Minute". Might just make it, write girls like songs records. Whole song seems to have been written with "I Must Be Here" in mind. She should try to get to last season's go showing power.

IT'S WONDERFUL
YOUNG RASCALS (ATLANTIC)
It's good. Won't be a hit. You can't sing along with it. Good drummer. Is a group. Sounds like the Young Rascals. Too gimmicky. Disappointed with record. Buying public if it sells. It will only sell on the name. Trying to do a "Mothers of Invention" bit. Tunes not bad up to the gimmick part. Not the type of record I'd buy. Big let down for them. Trying to keep up with the times, but they don't have to go too far.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO EVERYONE OF OUR READERS FROM GO-SET, AND THANKS FOR YOUR INTEREST DURING 1967! WE HOPE 1968 IS A GREAT YEAR FOR EVERYONE, AND A PEACEFUL ONE

Hendrix sound explodes

The real "experience" sound of Jimi was felt when the new "DYNACORD" range of sound equipment was demonstrated in Sydney last week.

Although designed for live performances, E.P. records showed the potential of the German-made amplifiers and echoboxes, during the demonstration.

Each instrument was blasted through three huge speakers and made even more wild by feeding the sound back through the fantastic new echobox.

The effect was tremendous, with the sound exploding out into a real "experience".

We guess it won't be too long before some local groups get on to this great new gear.

THOSE 2UW SPECTACULARS ARE REALLY WILD!!

Of all Australian pop big-shows, the 2UW spectaculars in Sydney's Trocadero have earned the reputation as the wildest.

At these gas turnouts, Australia's top groups always create an incredibly exciting atmosphere, and at least one star ends up in the crowd — with girls screaming, scratching, tearing, weeping and going out of their minds. The Troc show two Sundays ago was no exception. And here are the racy pics to prove it. Go-Set's Grant Mudford took the shots, by the way.

The amazing Glenn Shorrick does his Superman act and finds the crowds just go crazy for (that's right) his pants!

Flower-bedecked Lynne Randell croons (soulfully) to the front row of the Troc audience... she got a frantic reception.

Would you believe Huggy-bear Burns? That's Ronnie underneath the furry gift from fans called Yogi.

Frantic bouncers attempt to recover the fabled head (and body) of Ronnie Burns lost in the crowd.

Newfound star Johnny (Sadie) Farnham belting out his "Cleaning Lady" tune to a rapt crowd.

Doug Parkinson (left) of the Questions tunes up the boys for an even wilder performance at the Troc.

Just a few of the tearful girls who were knocked right out by the whole mind-bending scene.

The Cherokees twist and shout on stage in their act that could become known in the U.S. shortly.

11:00 Man John Melbourne introduces the fabulous Cherokees in the grand finale of the show.

WHAT THE STARS WISH FOR IN

THE NEW YEAR • THEIR INNER SECRET

BEFORE PUBLISHED INFORMATION

BY DOUG UPPE IN BRISBANE

Have you ever wondered what your fabled favourite pop star would wish for himself or others this hippy new year (besides a full page pinup in Go-Set that is)?

Go-Set's Brisbane office wondered enough to ask many of the interstate and local artists appearing in Brisbane during December what they would like to give and receive if money were no object.

Bywaters — In control Brisbane cops.

CENSORED!!

John Bywaters put his bass down for long enough to say he would like some thing which we must censor. Lead guitarist Terry Britten is searching for a book on How to Control Crows to present to the Brisbane Police Force and would like his own personal towel to travel everywhere with him. Peter Bradshaw's rhythm of the group would like a 72-page orchestra with conductor to accompany him while he sings in the shower and in return is prepared to supply them each with a shower stall so he can accompany them while they sing in the shower.

Blazers — A baby polar bear.

RONNIE BURNS

Ronnie Burns would like a Danish antique fireplace (and, we presume, a cold New Year).

The Twilight's co-starred with Ronnie in the recent ABC Dance Spectacular in Brisbane. Vocalist Paddy McCartney is presenting Ronnie with a roll of celotape and hopes somebody will give him a new set of blood capsules. Drummer Laurie Pryor would like one sound-proof practice room and wants to give a set of ear muffs to everyone he knows. Vocalist Glen Shorrick's wish is to give Australia a good TV show the Twilight's own of course and if anyone has a spare Fountain of Youth, Glenn wants it please (poor chap's 23 already so hurry!).

Charlene — 18-year-old blonde millionaire.

Twilight — In control Brisbane cops.

DRAIN-PIPE!!

Just before they headed south again after a successful Brisbane season, the Mystery Attractions gave their thoughts. Lead singer Jim Keane would like to give someone seven bottles of extra strength pipe and wants a baby polar bear. Tony Summers is giving someone a picture of the Queen with a moustache and is hoping to receive an Emmy Award for being the best guitarist in the world. Drummer Steve Hopwood would like a broken drumstick and a lot of attention to someone very... (from anyone) a couple of sticky tape from anyone. Rhythmic Peter Tildesley would like three... (from anyone) a couple of sticky tape from anyone. Vocalist... (from anyone) a couple of sticky tape from anyone.

A DRAUGHT HORSE

Melbourne's Kevin Smith has some great ideas. Peter Eberts would like to give happiness and wants a pair of unbreakable vitamins. He intends to give seven (three months so the best is there). Kevin Smith would like a draught horse to take on stage to make a... (from anyone) a couple of sticky tape from anyone. Vocalist... (from anyone) a couple of sticky tape from anyone.

18-YEAR-OLD BLONDE

Doug Trevor (rhythm) wants to give Ronnie Burns a moustache and is searching for his own Symphony Orchestra so he can play around with some arrangements. Lead Murr's Lonsdale is awaiting patiently for a blonde of about 18 who has a million in the bank and will give her a warm welcome!

I imagine most blondes of 18 with a million in the bank would get a warm welcome. New Year of the New Year! We hope everyone's New Year wishes come true but we have our doubts about some of these ones.

NEVER REVEALED WISHES

Leslie Pixio

GOING OLD SECRETS!

How Leslie Pixio... I am going steady with a girl I like very much but she is not supposed to go out with boys. She lives with her grandmother who is very old-fashioned. We do go out as they do in secrecy. What about it, don't I have thought of going to see her, but I am frightened of making a mess of things. Would like to see her. Secret Love.

Your city chases her in showing her grandmother that a good friend you are and how lucky her grandmother is in having you for a friend. Do go to see them both at home and have your girlfriend introduce you, just as a casual friend there is no point in revealing that you have been going out secretly. But I think you might not go out until you have permission from her grandmother. When you visit take a bunch of flowers of a magazine occasionally and don't go obviously to see your girlfriend talk to her grandmother. Don't push in and try to do everything at once. Be very casual and when you think the time is right ask the grandmother if she would like to see you. Take her granddaughter and arrange the place where to talk. But if she doesn't agree continue to visit them both as usual and if you decide to go out secretly consider what the consequences will be if she finds out.

GO-SET POP AWARDS FOR 1967

Each year, as the new year approaches, we all begin to sum up the past twelve months. In the pop world, it is nearly always a turbulent period, with spectacular success stories (like the Bee Gees, Procol Harum, Johnny Farnham, Somebody's Image) and with enormous collapses (like the Loved Ones, the Walker Brothers and countless lesser names). Half-way through each year Go-Set asks you, the readers, to have your say as to who are the TOPS in the pop world. This is our annual POP POLL. Columnist, at the end of the year we have our say. A panel of Go-Set writers, columnists, editors and statisticians has decided on these awards. We hope you agree with at least some of them. Let us know.

INTERNATIONAL

BEST INTERNATIONAL GROUP THE BEATLES

Who else but the Beatles could win this award. Their music and influence once again led the field of pop music throughout the world. "Get Back" brought a revolutionary new sound in the industry.

BEST INTERNATIONAL MALE SOLO CLIFF RICHARD

This may come as a surprise, but in Go-Set's opinion Cliff is the best. Cliff has been on the pop scene for many years, yet he still retains the warmth and understanding of teenagers. "The Day I Met Marie" undoubtedly put Cliff in this winning position.

Cliff with Terry

BEST INTERNATIONAL FEMALE SOLO PETULA CLARKE

Petula, whatever she does, spells "HIT". Popular with the oldies and the youngies, Petula has had a string of hits — making this a unanimous award. Although Petula has been around for years, there are no signs of her popularity waning.

BEST INTERNATIONAL NEW GROUP BEE GEES

With pride we award the Australian Bee Gees the title of the "Best International New Group". They left Australia at the beginning of the year, arrived in London unknown, saw the scene and then conquered it. Over the past year, their talent as songwriters and recording artists has all but surpassed the Beatles.

AUSTRALIAN

BEST AUSTRALIAN MALE SOLO RONNIE BURNSTON

Who else but Ronnie Burnston could win this award. His music and influence once again led the field of pop music throughout the world. "Get Back" brought a revolutionary new sound in the industry.

BEST AUSTRALIAN FEMALE SOLO LYNNIE WELLS

Lynnie won this award because she has had a string of hits — making this a unanimous award. Although Lynnie has been around for years, there are no signs of her popularity waning.

BEST AUSTRALIAN GROUP THE TWILIGHTS

Unlike other groups, The Twilight's have maintained their popularity throughout '67. The Twilight's music, created by their records has led the field in Australia. Please Note — If you have any ideas, we can't wait for you to be recorded.

It's Ronnie for King in '68

BEST AUSTRALIAN RECORD "WOMAN YOU'RE BREAKING ME" BY THE GROUP

"Woman You're Breaking Me" had every thing a hit should have. The lyrics were simple and catchy, the vital ingredients of a top hit record. The song had drive and was full of commercial value. This song stamped The Group as a top group, and gave them the reputation of being the most talented song-writers on the Australian scene.

MOST SUCCESSFUL GROUP THE MASTERS APPRENTICES

Earlier this year, The Masters Apprentices were an unknown Adelaide group. Their first record, "Undecided" took some time to sell, but eventually reached the national top ten. The Masters followed up this chart success with two more records — "Buried and Dead" and "Living in a Child's Dream". They have emerged as a riot-provoking, nationally-famous group.

MOST PROMISING GROUP SOMEBODY'S IMAGE

Somebody's Image were given this award for their phenomenal chart success with their record "Hush". In a matter of weeks, "Hush" soared into the top ten charts, and brought instant recognition of their potential. Somebody's Image had one previous record "When I Come Home" which did very little on the charts, but since the success of "Hush", they are now the hottest property on the scene today. Other groups to watch are the Executives and the Questions.

MOST PROMISING SOLO SINGER JOHNNY FARNHAM

Every one in Australia must be singing "Sadie the Cleaning Lady". This song by Johnny Farnham has become a national success. Johnny Farnham has now the potential of becoming one of the biggest names on the Australian scene for '68. Unlike Ronnie Burnston and Johnny Young, Johnny Farnham has a different image. His is one of the clean-cut, boy-next-door look.

BEST MERRITIAN MAX MERRITT AND THE METEORS

Ask any music fan who they consider to be the best group musically on the scene, and the majority will answer Max Merritt and the Meteors! Max, Bob, Yuck and Steve have been around for a long time and have gained the respect of critics and audiences alike. They have a sound of their own, and although not pure pop commercial, is a delight to listen and groove to.

Dance to the top big sound of THE VILLAGE SWINGERS. Graham Jim and Mike. Commencing at 10.35 p.m. At midnight the horror film Psychopath will be shown.

MOST ORIGINAL GROUP WILD CHERRIES

Perhaps one of the wildest and most original groups on the Australian scene was Wild Cherries. Their music is wild and was always in their records. The Wild Cherries were always experimenting with new sounds and new ideas, and the fact that they wrote their own material gives them the edge over most other groups. They are a real nutcase, but they may turn themselves into their "rebel" image.

Sherwood Studios

Can develop Your Talents!

FREE AUDITIONS

Sherwood Studios make this special offer to all students. Let us test your talent and advise you as to the best media for you to work. Television and radio stations, clubs and many other organisations are constantly asking Sherwood Studios for artists. This could be your big chance to break into the exciting world of entertaining. Why not find out more about how Sherwood Studios can help you to success?

MUSIC: Private lessons in singing, pianoforte, organ, theory of music, sight reading, composition and all orchestral instruments. (Teaching in opera, lieder and popular vocal). Sherwood teachers are highly competent artists in their own right but they were selected for our staff because of their ability to teach in a practical down-to-earth manner. Lessons at Sherwood are good fun. You learn in a friendly atmosphere and meet people with the same interests and ambitions.

ARRANGEMENTS: For professional artists. Sherwood can write and produce acts and create musical arrangements to suit your particular style.

TV, RADIO SCRIPTS: A special course in television and radio script writing has been prepared by a leading Australian TV writer and producer. You may enquire privately but this is a correspondence course student.

TALENT PROMOTIONS: Sherwood Studios are always looking for talent to promote through their own theatrical booking agency. Successful students from Sherwood are well known and command high fees for television, radio, night clubs, private parties, conventions, smoke nights, fashion parades and stage performances.
