IRAQI 'BASTARD' DOMINATES RADIO TALK

The Persian Gulf war continues as the hot radio topic, regardless of format. In New York, CHR Hot 97 held a "Get The Bastard" weekend complete with tasteful T-shirts (see Street Talk). Meanwhile, the latest R&R survey of leading Talk stations shows war-related topics occupying all ten chart positions.

Listeners Not Tired Of Coverage; 80% Of Blacks Have Friend/Relative In Gulf; West Coast Relied More On Radio In First Hours Of Fighting

A nationwide survey conducted by Rantel Research says 88% of those interviewed are comfortable with the amount of coverage radio is currently devoting to the Persian Gulf war. A separate Birch/Scarborough study concludes U.S. citizens on the West Coast used radio in far greater numbers than Easterners did during the outbreak of the war.

The Rantel figures, which were provided exclusively to R&R, were compiled from interviews with 489 radio listeners in 19 geographically diverse markets.

The study points out that Americans support some degree of war coverage on the radio, even on their favorite music stations. Among 18-54s, 43% support continuous war coverage, while 54% support short, regularly scheduled updates.

Cincinnati Judge Upholds Z-Rocker's Identity Crisis

WZRQ Loses Legal Showdown, Seeks FCC OK For New Calls WZRZ

A legal showdown between two Cincinnati stations over call letter similarity has ended with a court order barring Reams Broadcasting from using "WZRQ" to identify its Z-Rock affiliate.

Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas Judge Roger Wilson decided Monday (1/28) to grant a request from Great American Broadcasting, owner of CHR WKRQ/Cincinnati, for a preliminary injunction on grounds of trademark violations and listener confusion. WZRQ may, he ruled, temporarily use its calls for hourly station IDs required by federal law.

"It was important to protect our call letters. We've been doing what we do for 19 years, and we obviously want to keep our image clean. We're just happy that we alone have our call letters, and we now want to move on with life," commented WKRQ VP/GM Jim Bryant.

NAB Radio Board Gives Eureka DAB Plan Thumbs Up

In an effort to help broadcasters steal a march on would-be satellite DAB operators, the NAB Radio Board Tuesday (1/29) voted unanimously to push for adoption of the Eureka-147 system as the U.S. standard for digital audio broadcasting. The board also authorized NAB executives to negotiate an agreement with Eureka that would allow NAB to serve as North American distributor of the European consortium's technology.

"Andy has been a mainstay at Island for the past five years," commented founder/CEO Chris Blackwell. "Every year we have to promote him, and every year he performs his new duties with unequalled professionalism. I'm confident his expanded role will allow him to have an even greater impact upon the label."

Charisma Boosts Two To VP Posts

Bronstein Heads AOR; Moinet CHR

Al Moinet

Lenny Bronstein

Charisma has upped Lenny Bronstein and Al Moinet to VP/Album Promotion and VP/Pop Promotion, respectively. Both had been national promotion directors of their respective formats at the label since its inception in February 1990, and both are based at Charisma's Los Angeles office.

Regarding Bronstein and Moinet,

VP/Promotion Bob Catania said, "These promotions not only represent an acknowledgement of their immense contributions to Charisma, but rightfully place them among their peers in the industry."

Bronstein spent more than ten years running his own independent promotion firm before joining the label at its inception last year. Moinet segued to Charisma from Virgin, where he had been Atlanta Regional Promotion Manager since 1988.

WMMR Ups Bonadonna

Group W's WMMR/Philadelphia has promoted PD/afternoon personality Joe Bonadonna to the newly created Program Manager position. Plans call for the 13-year station vet to eventually relinquish his airshift and concentrate solely on programming the heritage AOR.

Consultant George Harris, who's been serving as interim OM since morning man John DeBella stepped down last June to become Creative Director, will gradually curtail his day-to-day duties, but will continue to work closely with Bonadonna.

"I've been hoping to get this opportunity for a long time," said Bonadonna, who first joined WMMR in 1977. He was named MD in 1981, APD in '84, and has been PD since May 1989.

Thomas Named KOY-FM PD

Edens Dance CHR KOY-FM (Y95)/Phoenix has hired Rick Thomas as its new PD. He comes from Dance CHR XHTZ (Jammin' 290)/San Diego and is replacing Jay Stevens, who recently became PD at WPGC/Washington.

Edens Chairman Gary Edens told R&R, "We've watched Rick over the years and have admired his creativity and ability. We think he's now ready for the CHR battle of the nation."

KOY-AM & FM VP/GM Nancy Reynolds added, "Rick is bright and street-smart, a combination of Picasso and the Godfather. He's the kind of guy I really need here." Thomas has been PD at WLUM/Milwaukee and KUKQ/Phoenix and on-air at KRXY/Denver and XTRA (AM)/San Diego.

FORMAT FLIP?

Strassell To Program WROR

Greg Strassell has agreed to program Atlantic Radio Hot AC WROR/Boston.

His current employer, Emmis CHR WLOL/Minneapolis, becomes Classical KSJN under Minnesota Public Radio late this month. Joining WROR amid rumors of a format change, he replaces Harry Nelson.

WROR Exec VP/GM Mark Renier told R&R, "Greg was successful in a very competitive situation at WLOL. He's coming into a market where a number of contemporary stations have a heritage of strong ratings. While I'm not prepared to say what we're up to just yet, we know Greg will do great things for us."

KLRX Taps Miller As PD

KLRX/Dallas's new PD is Chris Miller, who joins from a similar post at KQLD/New Orleans. The KLRX position has been open since Mike Wade exited in December, when the AC changed hands from Anchor Media to Cox.

VP/GM Gregg Lindahl commented, "It was critical for us to hire a person who understood not only Soft AC, but the long-term commitment Cox has made to this market. There's no question Chris is the right guy for the job."

Noted Miller, "I'll give listeners everything they've been asking for from a Soft AC. No marketing opportunity will be overlooked." His programming background includes stops at WDAE & WUSA/Tampa and KQZY (now KRSR)/Dallas.

Metheny Now PD At KXXX

Radio Group consultancy partner Kevin Metheny has been named PD at CHR KXXX (X100)/San Francisco, which Bedford Broadcasting acquired from Emmis last week (1/25). The Radio Group had been involved in market research for Bedford prior to the sale and will continue as the outlet's primary consultant.

KXXX VP/GM Brent Osborne told R&R, "I want to thank [Radio Group partners] Phil Hall and David Isenberg for allowing part of their team to become part of our team. Once Kevin gets a handle on all of our research - and with Phil Hall's input - I'll actually have two PDs. They'll have an unbeatable synergy together." Osborne declined comment on possible format adjustments.

Metheny added, "This admitted departure from my previous plans is a rare and exciting opportunity. As for changes - does Macy's tell Gimbels? Loose lips sink ships. I have no further comment."

Prior to his time with the Radio Group, Metheny was GM at WSOK & WAEB/Savannah, Station Manager at WFBC-AM & FM/Greenville, PD at KTKS/Dallas, VP/Music Programming & Production at MTV, Director/Operations for WNBC/New York, and PD at KSLQ/St. Louis, WEFM/Chicago, WXXX/Pittsburgh, WZZD/Philadelphia, KMJC/San Diego, and WNOE (AM)/New Orleans.

HOW PDs DEAL WITH THE BIG 'R'

When it comes to client promotions, "the word 'no' just doesn't exist any more," laments WAQY/Springfield, MA PD Keith Masters, one of three Northeast AOR PDs who explains how the recession affects programming.

WYSP Appoints Sabean PD

Former WCKG/Chicago PD Tim Sabean (Kelly) has been named PD at Infinity's WYSP/Philadelphia. He succeeds Andy Bloom, who took the PD job at KLSX/Los Angeles.

"Tim knows Classic Rock, and he knows how to win in a highly competitive market," remarked WYSP GM Ken Stevens. Sabean, whose programming career includes PD stints at KLOS/Los Angeles and Chicago's WLUP and WLS, was PD at WCKG for nearly four years before resigning last July to pursue station management opportunities. He continued to consult CKG through the end of the year.

Pugh Joins Atco As Nat'l AOR Director

Atco has named four-year WKLS/Atlanta PD Bill Pugh to its National Album Director post. He succeeds Matt Pollack, who was recently elevated to Sr. National Album Director.

Pollack said, "Bill's past success as a programmer speaks for itself, and he will surely be a contributing factor in the label's overall growth. Bill is another key addition to our team, and I'm thrilled to have him on board."

Prior to WKLS, Pugh programmed WKDF/Nashville for two years. He started his career in 1972 on-air at WYUD/Dayton and began programming at crosstown WTUE ten years later.

Grayson Warms Up To WRRM PD Position

WRRM/Cincinnati has boosted MD/morning drive producer Michael Grayson to PD. He'll continue as MD at least through mid-year. Grayson succeeds Pat Holiday, who left the Susquehanna AC late last year to program CKFM/Toronto.

VP/GM Joe Schildmeyer told R&R, "Mike's been with us five years. We received a load of applications for the job, but he had the inside track."

"He's already instituted a change: Our [3pm-midnight] Cincinnati After Dark program, which he brought to us in 1986, has been expanded from weekends to seven nights. It's a big hit with the advertisers, and was one of the first programs of that sort in the country. He developed it and really knows the music. We'll take his music expertise and apply it to what we do for a living."

Jeff Sydney

Sydney Presides Over Impact

Jeff Sydney has been appointed President of newly formed, MCA-partnered Impact Records, and will report to CEO Allen Kovac.

"Given Jeff's success at PolyGram Records, excellent background and reputation as a dealmaker, and impeccable expertise in structuring a record company, I couldn't think of a more qualified person to run Impact," stated Kovac.

Sydney has been Kovac's partner at Left Bank Management since June 1989. He previously served as Sr. VP/GM, West Coast at PolyGram.

"It's been exciting over the past several months assembling an artist roster about whose music we can be truly enthusiastic," said Sydney. "Under Allen's customary focused direction, we've also been working hard to put together a team with solid experience and talent."

BLACK MUSIC East West Taps Nuhn As Nat'l Dir.

Rick Nuhn

Rick Nuhn has been selected National Promotion Director/Black Music at East West Records America. He comes from Atlantic, where he served as R&B Regional Promo Manager/West Coast since 1986.

In making the announcement, East West President/CEO Sylvia Rhone said, "Rick's extensive experience with radio and his excellent track record make him a valuable asset."

East West President/COO Vince Farael commented, "Rick's a real spark plug - his energy and enthusiasm are almost boundless. This new position will give him a well-earned opportunity to apply his expertise on a national level."

Nuhn's radio experience includes PD, MD, and on-air stints at a number of Phoenix stations. He moved to Los Angeles in 1985, when he became MD/air talent at UC KGFJ before shifting to the record business.

DILLARD BACK TO WPCH

WLW Ups Phillips To OM, Wills To PD

Jaeger Full-Service AC WLW/Cincinnati has boosted APD/MD/helicopter pilot John Phillips to OM and Farm Director Bill Wills to PD. The changes follow Vance Dillard's resignation of the PD post he assumed last April. He's returning to his previous job as OM at co-owned Soft AC WPCH/Atlanta, where Steve Goss remains PD.

Phillips told R&R, "I'm still programming the music and flying the 'copter. Much of what I did before is stuff I'm doing now. The difference is that if something goes wrong, I take the blame."

He added, "Bill will deal with day-to-day programming problems, and I'll make sure we have enough money in the budget to cover things the right way." Phillips joined WLW in 1983 and was MD/traffic reporter at crosstown WKRC. Wills formerly programmed WKFI/Wilmington, OH.

Dillard was unavailable for comment at presstime. He previously was APD at WLW sister WKRC.

Goodbye, Governor

Illinois Gov. Jim Thompson (r) made his last appearance on WBBM/Chicago's "Ask The Governor" program recently and was the guest of honor at a post-show reception. Talking with Thompson are (l-r) the station's VP/GM Wayne Jefferson, afternoon anchor "Ask The Governor" host Dick Helton, and PD/News Director Chris Berry.

WYRK Dubs Christian VP/GM

Former WNBZ & WHWK/Binghamton, NY GSM Ralph Christian has returned to Stoner Broadcasting as VP/GM of the company's Country WYRK/Buffalo. He left WNBZ & WHWK a year ago for the NSM post at crosstown WBNG-TV. Now he's replacing VP/GM Kitty Boeck, who's left for a similar post at WHHR-AM & FM/Hilton Head, SC.

Stoner VP/Programming Smokey Rivers told R&R, "Ralph is a heads-up, charismatic radio man; we're glad to have him back in the Stoner fold." Prior to joining WBNG-TV last year, Christian spent ten years in sales at WNBZ & WHWK.

Sikes Blasts Multiple Ownership Rules

FCC Chairman Al Sikes on Saturday (1/26) hinted the Commission's review of its broadcasting rules will recommend a significant liberalization of the current ownership rules. But he warned such changes will meet with fierce opposition from powerful lawmakers.

Sikes, addressing the NAB's fifth annual Legislative Forum in Naples, FL, was particularly critical of the ban on ownership of multiple AM stations in the same market. "The inability to own multiple AMs is silly," he said. "It's perhaps the most ridiculous rule on the books. We allow the ownership of an AM and an FM, but not of two AMs."

Calling restrictions on broadcast ownership "increasingly dubious," Sikes also said he would support an unspecified boost in the number of stations an individual or company may own. Currently, broadcasters are limited to owning 12 stations in each of the AM, FM, and TV services.

The chairman also blasted the FCC's current cross-ownership rules, which prevent the common ownership of a daily newspaper and a broadcast outlet in the same market and bar most same-market radio and TV combos. "Years ago we told the railroads they couldn't become transportation companies. Now we're telling [newspaper and broadcasting] companies they can't be communications companies."

Formidable Opposition

Sikes told the assembled broadcast executives the road to serious revision of the ownership rules is blocked by such key members of Congress as Sens. Ernest Hollings (D-SC) and Daniel Inouye (D-HI), who believe ownership limits are essential. In order to overcome such opposition, Sikes said, broadcasters will need to educate lawmakers on the need for liberalizing the current ownership restraints.

On the subject of DAB, Sikes sought to reassure the NAB that he won't "make a [DAB-related] decision that will undermine the foundation of broadcasting."

Because the concept of broadcast localism — which the NAB said was undermined by the creation of a satellite DAB service — is often referred to as the "foundation of American broadcasting," Sikes's remark was viewed by some as an expression of opposition to satellite-based DAB superstations.

Sikes also said the FCC's upcoming report and order on AM improvement will include incentives to encourage the adoption of AM stereo. (He later hedged, however, telling R&R such incentives are not yet a definite part of the order, but that he is "very hopeful" they will be included.)

Lawmakers May Seek Tax

Broadcast industry ally Sen. Robert Packwood (R-OR) told the group last year's bruising battle to defeat a spectrum tax makes it unlikely that Congress "would go back to that well again" in 1991. But, Packwood warned, revenue-hungry lawmakers who are unfamiliar with the finances of the broadcast industry might press for a license transfer tax or a spectrum auction.

Despite Packwood's doubts about a spectrum levy, NAB Sr.

VP/Gov't Relations Jim May told the NAB Joint Board Monday (1/28) that his staff fully expects to battle a spectrum tax sometime during Congress's current session. According to May, White House and Treasury Department staffers already are formulating such proposals.

Sen. John Danforth (R-MO) — a close political ally of Sikes and champion of legislation designed to insure that political advertisers get the lowest rate a station offers — used his visit to urge broadcasters to "[Ted] Koppel-ize" political campaigns by forcing candidates to answer tough, substantive, issue-oriented questions during news interviews and public affairs programs.

The NAB group also heard from Sen. Robert Kasten (R-WI), who warned against legislation that would place so many controls on beer and wine ads that broadcast messages touting such products would no longer be feasible. Also in attendance were Rep. Norm Dicks (D-WA), who discussed the Persian Gulf situation, and Rep. Rick Boucher (D-VA), an advocate of permitting telephone companies to enter the cable television business — something the NAB fiercely opposes.

Judges Dispute Indecency Ban

Three U.S. Court of Appeals judges on Monday (1/28) were openly skeptical of FCC claims that a 24-hour ban on indecent programming protects the public interest.

"You have to protect by the narrowest possible ban. A 24-hour ban isn't very narrow, is it?" Chief Judge Abner Mikva asked FCC General Counsel Robert Pettit during arguments in Washington. Mikva said the ban "brings the level of available [programming] fare down to the lowest common denominator — kids."

The hearing was the latest skirmish in a suit brought by Action for Children's TV (ACT) and a coalition of broadcasters that challenges the constitutionality of the ban. Sen. Jesse Helms (R-NC) attached to a federal appropriations bill. The FCC has stayed enforcement until a final court ruling on the ACT case.

Pettit argued the FCC was bound by the law, which protects children who might be in the listening audience without parental supervision at any hour. While citing audience research data "sparse," he said 3.5 million children aged 12-17 listen at least briefly from midnight-6am, thus justifying a total ban. When Pettit said adults who want risque programming could turn to "alternative sources" such as cable, satellite, or videotapes, he drew a sharp rebuke from the court.

"The existence of an alternate source is irrelevant. I don't know why it's being presented," commented Judge Harry Edwards, adding he failed to see any legal precedent to support a 24-hour ban.

WLUP Fine Upheld

ACT attorney Tim Dyk argued the indecency ban should be struck down for several reasons, including a lack of concrete information on when children listen to programs or whether they're being adversely affected by the programming. He added, "The kind of sparse logic the Commission relies on doesn't come close to demonstrating the need for a ban. Just why parental supervision is increased by this blanket ban is unclear. There's nothing in ten years

PAT CLAWSON

BIA Predicts Local Market Radio Revenue Upturn

Broadcast Investments Analysts President Tom Buono is predicting a healthy 4.8% average hike in local market radio revenues for 1991 after a sharp drop in growth last year.

Buono said local revenue growth in all 262 Arbitron-rated markets averaged only 3.5% last year, the lowest reported gain in a decade. Top 10 markets averaged a 5.4% gain, with 6% growth recorded in Los Angeles.

"The problem now is more one of image. It's not so much the economics as external factors affecting how the industry is perceived. Economically, the radio industry is still pretty healthy," Buono said. Statistics from his just-released "Investing in Radio 1991" project revenues increasing 6.9% in 1992 and 7.7% by 1994.

According to Buono, 1990's top grossing markets were Los Angeles ($429.7 million), New York ($353 million), Chicago ($240.7 million), San Francisco ($188.8 million), Washington ($159 million), Philadelphia ($147 million), Dallas ($136 million), Houston ($126 million), Boston ($125 million), and Atlanta ($122 million).

Buono projects the hottest markets for overall economic growth over the next five years will be Las Vegas (11.3%), Colorado Springs (11.1%); Naples, FL (11%); Florida's Fort Myers, Fort Pierce, Melbourne-Titusville-Cocoa, Orlando, and West Palm Beach (10.9%); and Fort Walton Beach, FL; Myrtle Beach, SC; and Austin (10.8%).

UN: Six Firms Will Dominate World Media

The International Labor Organization, an agency of the United Nations, predicts a wave of mergers and acquisitions will result in six multinational media giants dominating the world media market by the year 2000. The kingpins: Time-Warner, Bertelsmann, Hachette, News Corp., Thomson, and Maxwell.

The concentration of media enterprises' economic power will be spurred by an emerging global market for advertising, the ILO said in a report issued Tuesday (1/29).

"To describe the relationship in a less than delicate way, the information and news/entertainment content of the media industry is just wrapping for the advertising, which ultimately pays the bills. Thus advertising plays a pivotal and catalytic role in the evolution of the media industry."

The ultimate result: a global village and the development of societies in which the media "challenge, or even supplant, other major institutions of socialization."

UPI Talks Under Way; Pay Cuts To Stay

UPI said sale talks are under way with several "very substantive parties," but it can't restore full pay to its employees on February 14 as planned because a sale of the wire service and radio network isn't imminent.

"We are certainly not at a point where we could go forward and restore pay to the 100% level and still be able to operate long-term," commented UPI executive Milt Capps. He said an agreement within the next few days is "highly unlikely," so the company is trying to conserve cash.

Last November, UPI employees took a 35% pay cut to help the company stay open. Wire Service Guild officials will meet next week with UPI brass to review the company's future.

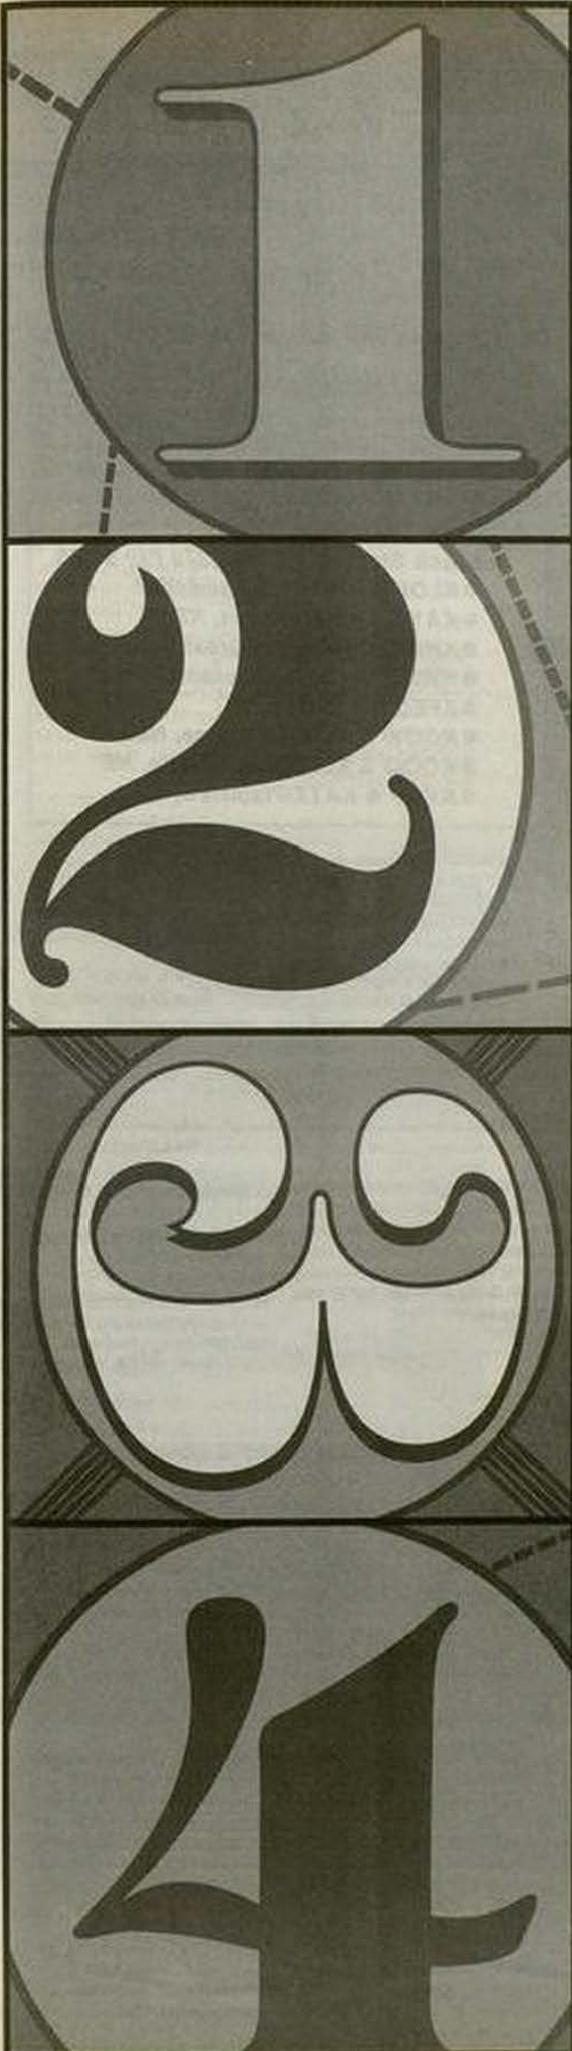

In other deal action this week:

- Bedford Broadcasting has closed its $18.5 million purchase of Emis Broadcasting's KXXX/San Francisco. The company is still waiting for FCC clearance to buy an AM powerhouse in the same market, RKO's KFRC.

- Great American Communications has agreed to acquire another $27 million face value of its 14 3/8% junk bonds for $11 million in cash and 762,650 shares of common stock. So far, the company has agreements to acquire $83 million of its bonds, with a voting power of 45%. Another $8 million of bonds remain to be acquired to complete a financial restructuring.

- WAVG & WLRS/Louisville have been forced into receivership after Greyhound Financial Corp. complained to a Jefferson County, KY judge that licensee Radio One Inc. defaulted on its loans. Thomas Duddy will operate the stations as receiver until a buyer can be found.

- Veteran programmer-turned-owner Rick Torcasso has lost his dream as a Sedgewick County, KS judge has allowed Central Trust Co. to foreclose on KQAM & KEYN/Wichita after a loan default. Radio Management Services CEO Steven Evans has been named receiver and was ordered to sell the combo.

Manning Manages Music City FM Trio

WSIX-FM/Nashville GM David Manning isn't out to run every FM station in his market — he only “wants four of them.” He's managing three now and told R&R he's in discussions with number four.

“The economy has almost dictated this to radio,” said Manning. By operating multiple FMs in the same market, he said he'll “show owners how to decrease their overhead by 40% and increase cash flow dramatically.” So in addition to top-rated Country outlet WSIX-FM, owned by Capstar Communications, Manning is also overseeing:

- WRMX/Murfreesboro, TN — Manning and Capstar signed an agreement last week (1/23) to manage the Gold station for Dick Oppenheimer's Signature Broadcasting.

- WWTN/Manchester, TN — Owned by Dickerson Associates, the market's first News/Talk FM signed on Monday (1/28) and is housed in the same Music Row building as WSIX-FM.

Unlike situations in other markets where one station's programming is simulcast on another station with a different owner, Manning's trio is separately programmed. He supervises the programming and sales staffs, but each station has a GM who sets rates and has ultimate authority over operations. Manning's WSIX sales force is now selling spots on WWTN, separately or in combo. WRMX has its own sales force, which will also sell the fourth station once papers are signed.

In truth, Manning already manages a fourth station. WSIX (AM) is simulcasting its FM sister while awaiting closing of the former's sale to the Bible Broadcasting Network.

Judges Dispute Indecency Ban

of safe harbor experience to suggest one is necessary.”

Pacific Foundation attorney Eric Lieberman warned the court the FCC's indecency policy intimidates small broadcasters and would lead to self-censorship by those who can't afford a legal fight. As an example, Pacifica spent more than 40 hours determining whether John Steinbeck's “The Grapes of Wrath” was suitable for broadcast. “The evil is in the impact on speech,” Lieberman said. “Even if the FCC acts responsibly, the problem is most of the censorship already will have occurred.”

In other developments this week:

- The FCC upheld a $6000 fine against WLUP/Chicago. In rejecting the station's appeal, the Mass Media Bureau said a broadcast by morning personality Steve Dahl “fit squarely within our definition of indecency” because it included “explicit, graphic, and vulgar language.”

- The FCC refused to cite National Public Radio for an “All Things Considered” news broadcast that featured excerpts from wiretapped conversations of reputed New York Mafia boss John Gotti. While the wiretaps repeatedly used the word “fuck,” the FCC concluded that “use of such words in a legitimate news report” was “not actionably indecent.”

Religious Broadcasters Support Bush In Gulf War

President George Bush received support for his Persian Gulf War policy from Religious broadcasters and FCC Chairman Al Sikes as both officials addressed the National Religious Broadcasters on Monday (1/28) in Washington.

Despite Iraq President Saddam Hussein's efforts to cast the conflict as an Islamic holy war, Bush said “it has nothing to do with religion per se, [but] everything to do with what religion embodies — good vs. evil, right vs. wrong, human dignity and freedom vs. tyranny and oppression.”

The Religious broadcasters applauded the president when he declared the battle with Iraq “a just war in which good will prevail.” Before hearing Bush, NRB delegates had adopted a resolution “to wholeheartedly stand in prayer and in support of [the] president” in his Middle East policy.

Sikes praised the president for building “an unparalleled coalition to fight a virulent strain of evil in the Middle East.” The FCC chairman said Bush, in his effort to liberate Kuwait, “has led the free world to help the oppressed.”

President Elected

On broadcasting issues, Sikes told the NRB:

• Digital audio broadcasting shouldn't be feared because “all the commissioners are looking at it so it will be complementary to broadcasting,” and assured delegates DAB is still some time away.

• The FCC has made progress on AM improvement and “will be in a position this spring to issue a report and order.”

• License renewal reforms have eliminated any incentive to “liberally hold up broadcasters for the sake of trying to make money.”

Delegates elected David Clark of Regent University to succeed WCFC-TV/Chicago President Jerry Rose as NRB president. They also endorsed Rose's proposal to fill two vacancies on the nine-member EFICOM commission with non-NRB members to enhance its accountability and integrity. EFICOM was established in 1986 to audit religious broadcasters.

MANAGEMENT

AMAZING, BUT TRUE

Job Candidates Or Comedians?

While some people may agonize over what to wear, say, and do at a job interview, others may not. When the Menlo Park, CA-based Accountemps temporary employment firm recently asked executives from 200 U.S. companies to list the most unusual things they'd witnessed — or heard of happening — during a job interview, responses ranged from the bizarre to the ridiculous.

Here are R&R's ten favorites (drum roll, please...):

10) "Wanted to borrow the fax machine to send out some personal letters."

9) "Left his dry cleaner tag on his jacket and said he wanted to show he was a clean individual."

8) "Shortly after sitting down, she brought out a line of cosmetics and started a strong sales pitch."

7) "Apologized for being late, said he accidentally locked his clothes in his closet."

6) "Man brought in his five children and a cat."

5) "Took three cellular phone calls. Said she had a similar business on the side."

4) "After a difficult question, she wanted to leave the room momentarily to meditate."

3) "Arrived with a snake

around her neck. Said she took her pet everywhere."

2) "When asked about loyalty, showed a tattoo of his girlfriend's name."

1) "Said that if I hired him, I'd soon learn to regret it."

Keeping Cool When Tempers Flare

You've just told the morning team they didn't get the raise they asked for. Words are flying, voices are rising, and tempers are flaring — until you take control of the situation and manage to calm down the dynamic duo.

Easier said than done, you say? Try these six tips on coping with other people's anger from "The Official Guide To Success" (Champion Press) by Tom Hopkins:

• Acknowledge their anger quickly. Listen closely and never ignore or laugh off the anger.

• Let them know you're concerned. Say, for example, "I don't blame you for being upset — this is an important matter."

• Don't hurry them. Never try to rush them or shut them up. Often all they need is an opportunity to express their anger.

• Remain calm. Some people communicate their anger emotionally and say things they don't really mean. If you must react to such statements, do it after the immediate problem is resolved.

• Encourage them to solve the problem. If you've been calm, courteous, and concerned, the anger should have subsided. If they're still too upset to discuss solutions, find an excuse to postpone action.

• Propose a specific solution. If you can talk reasonably with them, offer a remedy and try to agree on a schedule to implement it.

Sound Effects Package Debuts

The "Edge Edition" — a sound effects package containing more than 800 effects edited from more than 2000 hours of digital field and studio recordings — is now available from Hollywood Edge.

The $295 package, available on CD, was recorded primarily on DAT and is fully cross-referenced and indexed. For more info or a free demo CD, call the Hollywood, CA-based company at (800) 292-3755 or (213) 466-6723.

National Spot Radio Scoreboard

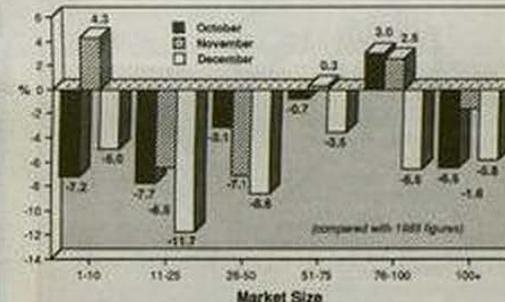

Total national spot radio expenditures for the month of December topped $94 million — a 7.1% decrease from 1989 figures. While the figures reflect total billings as reported by America's leading national rep organizations, they are not typical of any specific market. Furthermore, spot billing in individual markets, market groups, or geographic areas may differ substantially.

Take Air Talents To TV

Three major market morning men — WLUP-AM & FM/Chicago's Jonathon Brandmeier and KROQ/Los Angeles's Kevin & Bean — soon will be adding television hosting responsibilities to their wakeup duties.

Viacom Enterprises plans to debut "Johnny B... On The Loose" in June. The syndicated half-hour show is described as "an outrageous blend of comedy, audience interaction, and remotes from offbeat Chicago locations."

In addition to this new series, Brandmeier has a non-exclusive contract with NBC Entertainment that includes a commitment to Jonathon Brandmeier prime-time and late-night specials as well as made-for-TV movies. In his spare time, he heads the band Johnny & The Leisure Suits.

Meanwhile, Kevin Ryder and Bean (Gene) Baxter will join E! Entertainment Television as co-hosts beginning February 13. The 24-hour cable network's Sr. VP/Programming Fran Shea described the duo as "unique and spontaneous and very E!" adding, "Radio is an untapped market — there are scores of incredibly talented people in radio."

'ZINE SCENEVanilla Ice Going For Bill Wyman's Record!

Although only 22 years old, Vanilla Ice says he has slept with nearly 300 women! What's more, he claims to possess a written record of his sexual conquests. "I call it my little black book," says the imaginative rapper, who puts stars next to the names of those who are "really fine."

Ice also boasts in this week's Star that many of his female fans send him nude photos and X-plicit letters "about nasty sexual things they'd like to do to me that even I couldn't think of." Somewhere, Bill Wyman must be smiling . . .

Rod Deals

Kip Winger has bet a buddy $200 that Rod Stewart and Rachel Hunter's marriage won't last too long (Globe). Could the rocker, whom Hunter dumped for Stewart, have sour grapes?

Meanwhile, the sour grapes that Stewart's ex-wife, Alana Hamilton, apparently harvested have turned into a whine for more money. This week's Star says Hamilton wants Rockin' Rod to cough up $500,000 — in addition to the $25,000 per month alimony payments he already makes!

Kid About It

After going unrecognized (!) at several Disney World-area rite-spots, the New Kids On The Block repaired to their posh hotel and promptly got up the other guests' noses by LOUDLY frolicking with "several high-spirited gals" during a 2am pool party (Star).

However, the Beantown badboys didn't go unnoticed by the editors of Seventeen magazine, who published a list of "ten good reasons" to hate the group. Our faves:

- Their pick-up lines are lame.
- They inspire whining little children to write poorly written hate mail to MTV.
- Stupid hair.

DOWN & OUT IN BEVERLY HILLS

A well-dressed woman recently spotted Betty Midler waiting outside a Beverly Hills deli and handed the actress a dollar bill! According to the National Enquirer, the Good Samaritan mistook Midler — "clad in a baggy old smock, torn jeans, and frazzled hair" — for a bag lady!

NEEDLE & THE DAMAGE WON — Mötley Crüe bassist Nikki Sixx displays the artwork that helped him earn a Golden Disc for Best Tattoos in Circus magazine's 1990 readers poll. The Crue picked up a pack-leading nine awards in all. However, the holy contested Biggest Mouth award went to Aerosmith's Steven Tyler . . .

• After they disband, they'll make a bunch of solo albums that will clog the airwaves.

Let Them All Talk

• "It's an honor for me to be here to induct anybody" — Bobby Brown, who inducted Wilson Pickett into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame (People).

• "They do the dinner to congratulate themselves. The hype for this is worth $1200 a plate" — Elvis Presley and John Lennon biographer Albert Goldman's take on the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame ceremonies (People).

• "You don't need a college degree to be successful. What's important is getting educated in the business you want to pursue" — high school dropout Russell Solomon, whose $500 million, 141-store Tower Records empire earned him a place on this year's Forbes 400 list (National Enquirer).

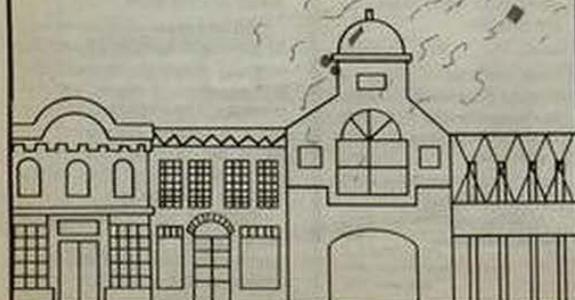

With A Bullet

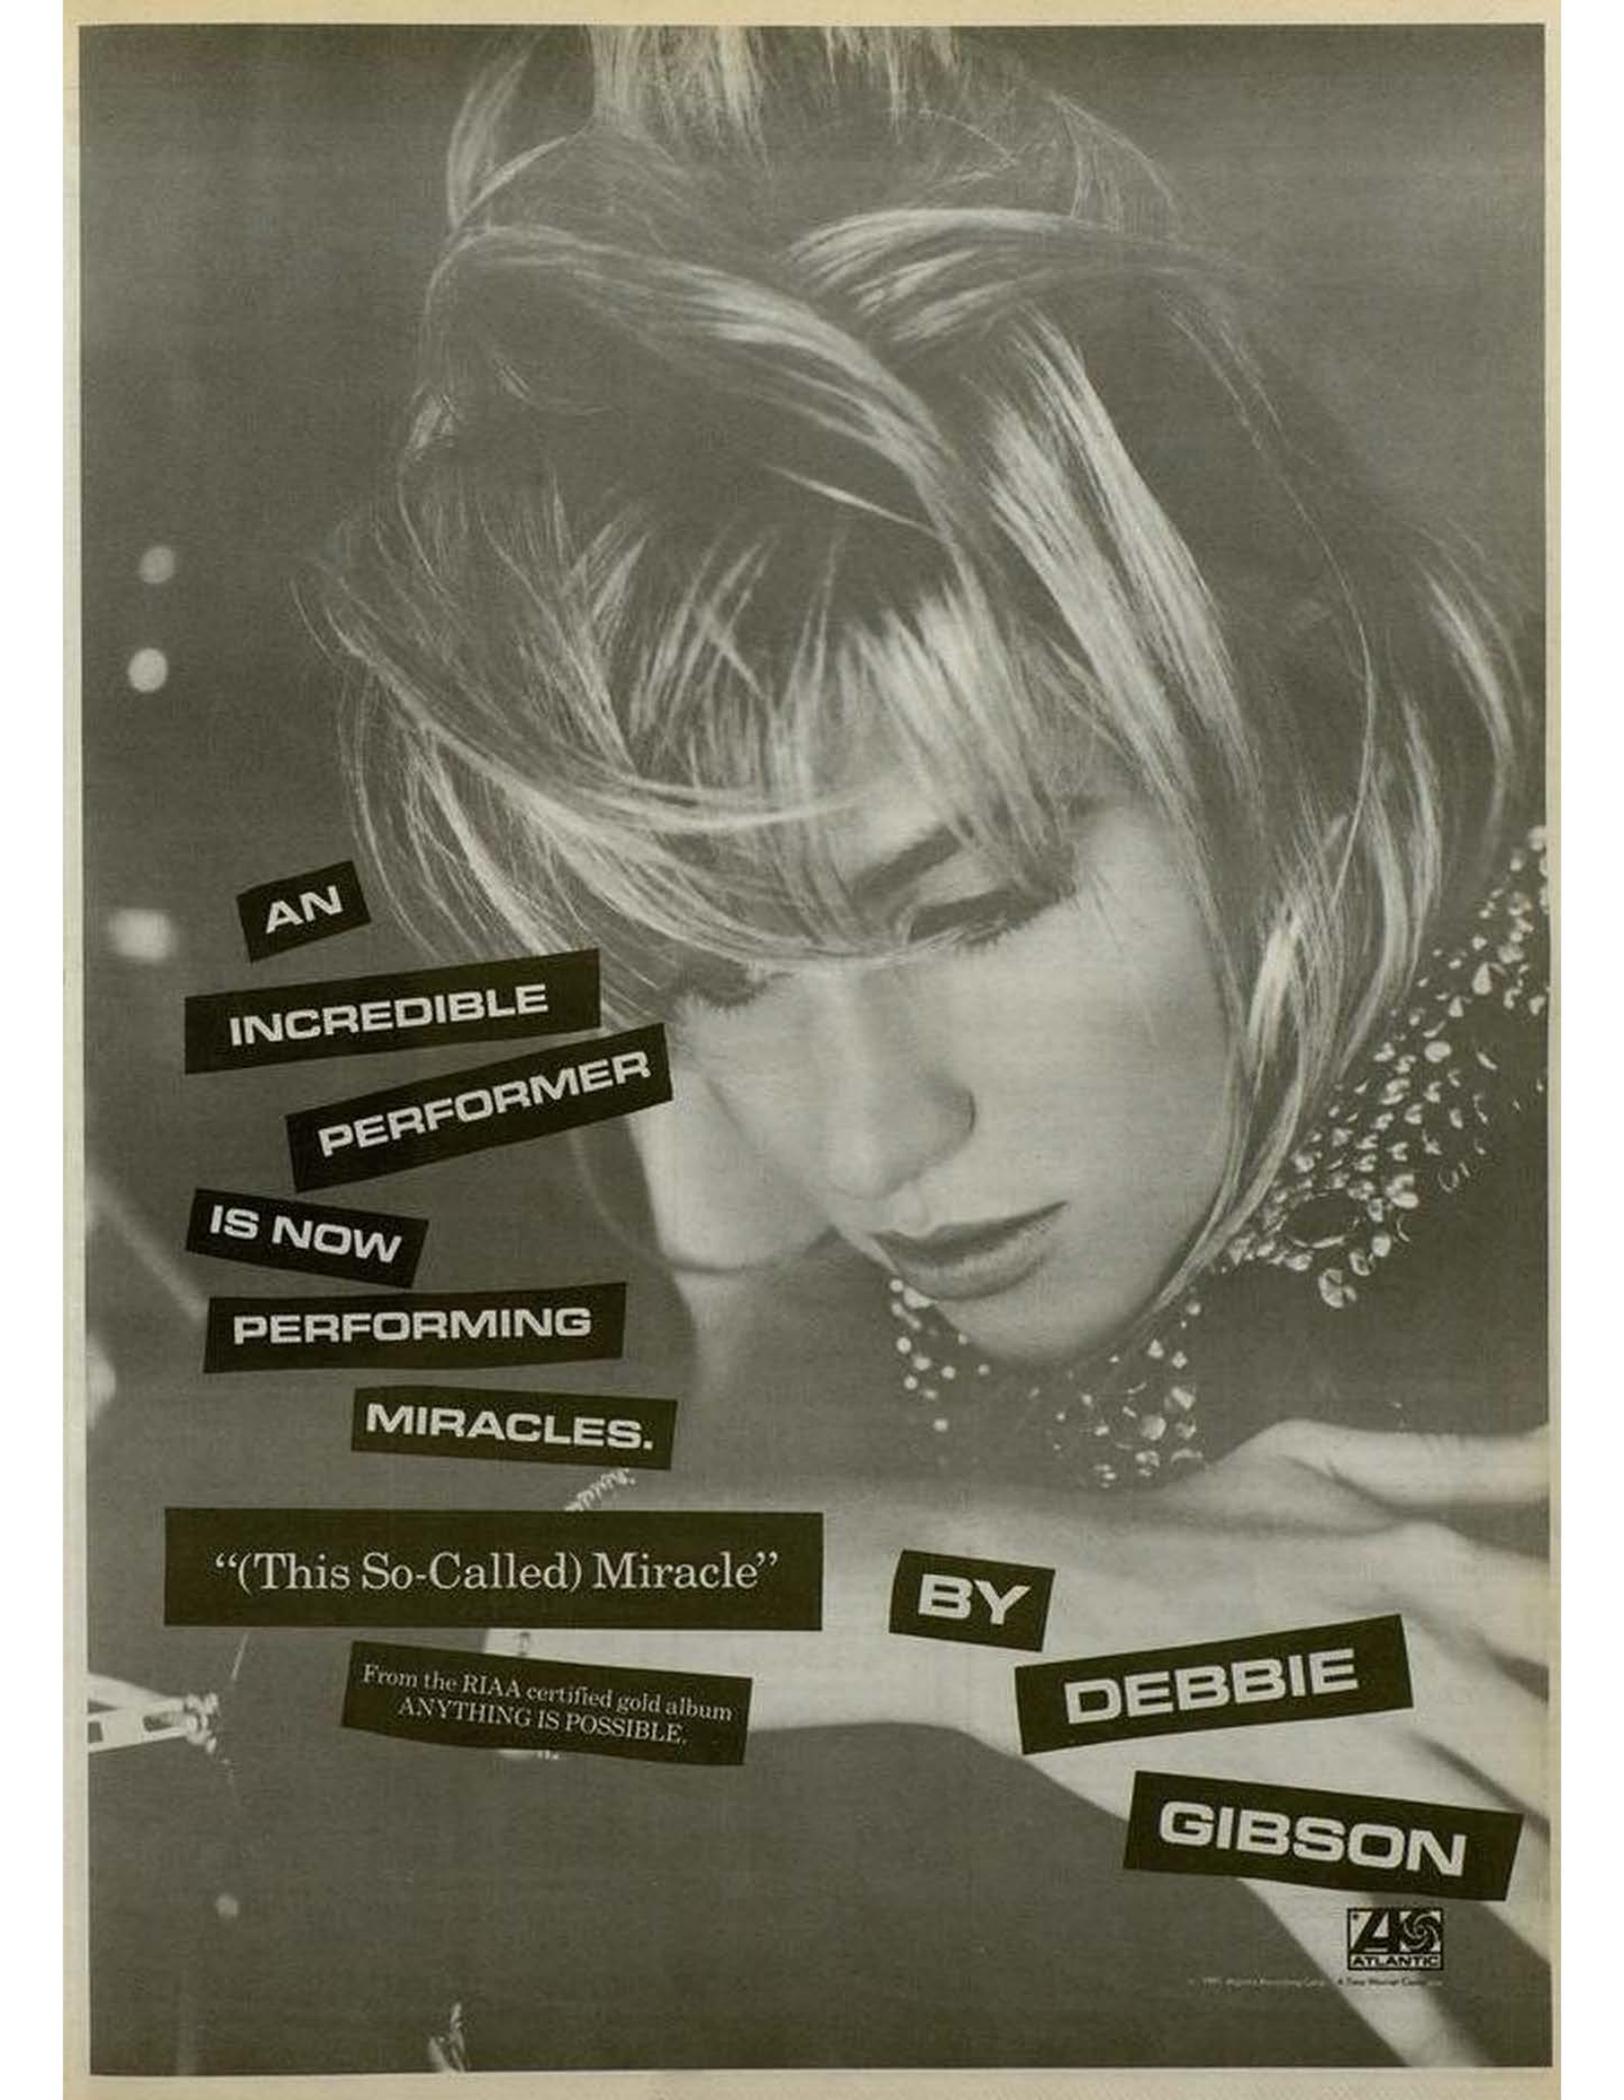

• Quincy Jones, Jellybean Benitez, and MTV founder Bob Pittman were spotted wearing women's clothes at a recent party. The cross-dressing was a prerequisite for all guests, ya understand (Globe).

• Donald Trump's well-publicized fling with Maria Maples inspired Dolly Parton to pen the single, "May The Best Woman Win" (National Enquirer).

SCREEN SCENE

Jagger Jumps At Flashy 'Free-Jack' Role

Mick Jagger returns to the silver screen in Morgan Creek's forthcoming action-adventure, "Free-Jack." The singer plays Vacendak — a charmingly ruthless bounty hunter who uses a vast array of high-tech gadgetry to track and capture his prey.

It's Jagger's first dramatic role since 1970's "Performance" and "Ned Kelly."

Set in the year 2008, the film co-stars Emilio Estevez as a race car driver who's transported into the future, where he's forced to match wits against Vacendak and other bounty hunters (known as "bone-jackers").

Anthony Hopkins also stars in the film, which is currently shooting in Atlanta. Geoff Murphy ("Young Guns II") directs from a script penned by "Aliens" and "Total Recall" creator Ron Shusett.

Mick Jagger — first film in 21 years?

writer Dan Waters is scripting the project, and Warner Bros. reportedly is negotiating with Michael Keaton to reprise his leading role.

Meanwhile, Burton is busy producing an animated feature for Disney (the studio where he got his professional start). "The Nightmare Before Christmas" is about a skeleton who wants to take over Christmas because it's more popular than his favorite holiday, Halloween.

And... don't be surprised if Disney releases Burton's long-shelved live-action short, "Frankenweenie" — about a kid who brings his dog back to life after it was hit by a car.

Like A Hurricane

Singer/actress Cynda Williams — most recently seen in Spike Lee's "Mo' Better Blues" — will make a cameo appearance in "Jungle Fever," Lee's forthcoming film about interracial romance. Coincidentally, Williams has landed a starring role in the soon-to-shoot "Hurricane," which also deals with interracial relationships.

Travolta To 'Shake It Up'

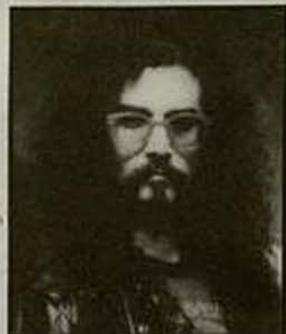

John Travolta will play a substitute music teacher who introduces the students of his boys-only school to the seductive sounds of rock 'n' roll in Universal's forthcoming "Shake It Up."

Set in Texas during the '50s, the dance musical co-stars newcomer Jamie Walters as Jesse Tucker, a rebellious youth who falls for a college-age knockout. Travolta's character helps the kid deal with the relationship by channeling his frustrations through the "new" sounds of rock music.

"Flashdance" choreographer Jeffrey Hornaday makes his directorial debut with the film, which is set for a springtime release.

'Batman II' Gets Wings

Tim Burton has signed to direct the sequel to his 1989 box office smash, "Batman." Photography could get under way as early as this summer, with a worldwide release set for 1992. "Heathers"

FNM's Jim Martin — Greatest Guitar Player in The World?

Bill & Ted & FNM

Faith No More guitarist Jim Martin will make his big-screen debut as the Greatest Guitar Player in The World in Orson's forthcoming sequel, "Bill & Ted Go To Hell."

Keanu Reeves, Alex Winter, and George Carlin reprise their roles in the excellent adventure, which finds the dynamic duo trying to escape from Hell after having been killed by evil twin robots!

Trailers

• Look for Reggie Hudlin ("House Party") to direct a flick based on Parliament, Funkadelic, and the entire Mothership connection. Could this be the untitled Hudlin Brothers musical — described as a blend of sci-fi, drama, and fiction — on Tri-Star's 1991 schedule?

• Commenting on ZZ Top's cameo as a western trio in "Back To The Future: Part III," drummer Frank Beard says, "We don't want to be typecast so we're holding out for a role as a symphony orchestra in the next one" (New Music Express).

Top Ten Talk Topics

January '91

What's on Americans' minds? Each month R&R surveys leading Talk radio stations across the nation to determine the ten topics that have generated the greatest amount of listener phone response over the past four weeks. The current list follows:

1. Persian Gulf War
2. Media Coverage Of War
3. Anti-War Protests
4. Israel's Role In War
5. Treatment Of U.S. POWs
6. Threat Of Chemical/Nuclear Weapons
7. War's Effect On The Economy
8. Plight Of Military Families
9. Congressional Debate On War
10. Psychological Effects Of War On Public

Five-month chart champ "The Persian Gulf Crisis" stormed into January as a bona fide "War," retaining the top spot and engulfing the remaining slots in war-related topics. Only perennial chart fave "The Economy" survived the barrage of change, falling 2-7 as attention shifted from recession to the war's impact on the nation's pocketbook.

TECHNOLOGY

PIN TWEAKS

Enhancing Your CD Listening Pleasure

From marking CDs with green felt-tip pens to freezing them in liquid nitrogen (R&R, 10/5/90), audiophiles have been trying to improve on the digital discs' sound quality ever since CD players were introduced in the early '80s.

But can anything really boost a CD player's performance? In a recent issue of Business Week, some audio experts said "yes." A list of their suggestions and techniques follows:

- Replace cables. Poor-quality cables connecting your CD player and receiver can cause distortion and sound dropout. Replace such cables with ones made from low-resistance and high-purity metals for the best results (approximate cost: $50). Also, try hooking up your player with a silver extension cord ($100).

- Pad the player. You can eliminate the sound decay caused by excess vibration and electrical energy by installing a set of shock absorber-like rubbery "feet" to the bottom of your player ($30 for set of four).

- Add weights to disc. A disc that wobbles in the tray can also diminish sound quality. To reduce wobbling, try attaching CD stabilizer rings (adhesive loops) to the edge of your favorite CD ($1 each).

- Anchor the player. Clamps, such as the Simply Physics Iso-drive clamp, can be attached directly to a player's CD mechanism. These devices not only ensure the laser will read musical data more accurately, but also reduce demands on the unit's power supply ($100).

- Disc coloration. There are a variety of paints and sprays available that claim to improve CD sound. Most operate on the premise that by coloring the disc's edge, you reduce refractions that cause the laser to misread audio data ($15).

New Devices Ring Changes In Phone Call Screening

If you're tired of being disturbed by unwanted, annoying, and sometime obscene phone calls, or if you're shopping for some primo promo prizes, check out the various caller-identification devices profiled below:

User Friendly

The "Friends Only" (pictured) from KES Communications screens calls before the phone rings. A built-in voice chip tells callers you have a protected line, then asks them to enter your assigned three-digit security code. If they don't do it, the line goes dead.

The Friends Only can be deactivated (allowing all calls through) by simply flicking a switch. List price: $99.95. For more information, call the Midland, TX-based company at (800) 877-0607.

Feel Like A Number

Universal Electronic Technology's "Private Secretary" provides two phone-screening functions: a name and number display of incoming calls and a programmable call blocker. The unit also doubles as a standard answering machine, speed dialer, and telephone directory.

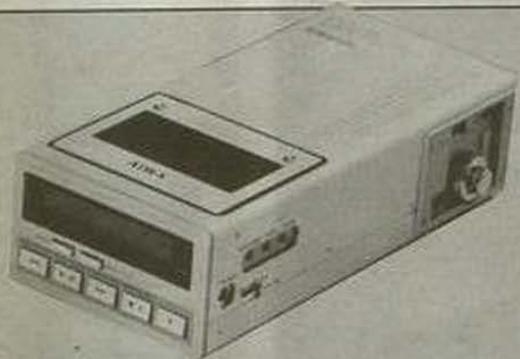

Friends Only

Here's how it works: Before your phone rings, a caller is greeted by a prerecorded message (your voice) and instructed to enter his or her phone number. Once done, the number flashes on your screen. If it matches any of the 100 or less priority numbers that you've programmed into the machine's memory, the phone rings.

If you're not there (or choose not to answer), the machine tells the caller that his or her number, date, and time of call have been recorded. The machine then logs the information and disconnects the call.

Additional features include search and scroll capability and hands-free speed dialing. List price: $199. Call the NYC-based firm at (212) 262-7200 for more info.

Portable DAT Recorder

Weighing a mere 31 ounces, Alwa America's recently unveiled "HD-X3000" portable DAT recorder — purportedly the world's smallest — promises to deliver the same sound quality as larger rack-mount DAT models.

Designed for electronic news gathering and other nonstudio environments, the rectangular unit records in 16-bit linear digital audio.

Other features include an AES/EBU-type digital interface, a "cannon connector," and built-in rechargeable batteries that provide up to three hours and 40 minutes of operation power.

Call the Mahwah, NJ-based company at (201) 512-3600 for price and information regarding the product's availability.

BIODEGRADABLE 'ECO-FOAM'

Environmentally Safe Packing

Bubble packing and polystyrene "peanuts" may be fun to play with, but they're nonbiodegradable — which means they add to the nation's garbage crisis. But with "Eco-Foam," you get all of the fun... and none of the problems.

Eco-Foam, manufactured by the Chicago-based American Excelsior Co., is basically a batch of cylindrical pellets that look and feel like their plastic counterparts — but they're made of 95% cornstarch, which means they disintegrate when you add water.

The resulting material can be disposed of in a variety of environmentally sound ways, such as rinsed down the drain or put in a compost pile. (The other 5% is a water-soluble organic polymer.)

Price is a bit of a drawback: Eco-Foam costs up to $1.50 per cubic foot, compared with 85 cents a foot for the polystyrene peanuts. National Starch & Chemical Corp. — which invented the substance — also plans to use it for other types of packaging, such as the end caps that cushion stereos.

Battery-Operated Newsracks

Battery-operated newsracks containing issues of USA Today were recently introduced in the Washington, DC area. The newsracks accept dollar bills as well as coins, and can make change.

The Gannett paper said it plans to roll out 200 of the high-tech newsracks in major markets this year, and is seeking a patent for its invention.

Gilligan Skips To WNRJ VP/GM Berth

Tom Gilligan, who'd been PD at CHR WXGT (92X)/Columbus until its recent metamorphosis to Gold WCOL-FM, has now accepted the VP/GM post at crosstown suburban CHR WNRJ/Marysville-Columbus. He replaces VP/GM Chris Forgy, who had been managing WNLI and co-owned Contemporary Christian outlet WTLT/Cireleville-Columbus. Forgy will now concentrate on running WTLT but will temporarily oversee sales for both FMs.

Gilligan told R&R, "WNRJ has not achieved its potential as a Class A+ 6kw signal yet. While we don't expect to beat [crosstown CHR] WNLI, we want to achieve a decent 12+ share and increase our revenues. For the moment, I'll act as PD to get the station sounding better. Once things are under way I'll hire a fulltime programmer. Meanwhile, I'm searching for air talent to fill some openings."

Prior to programming 92X, Gilligan was PD at KHMV/Phoenix, WVIC/Lansing, and WHHY/Montgomery. He was also MD at WBSB (B104)/Baltimore and held on-air positions at KITS/San Francisco, KKBQ/Houston, and WINZ-FM (105)/Miami.

Michael Scurlock

IRS Names Scurlock Nat'l Dir./Field Promo

Michael Scurlock has been appointed National Director/Field Promotion at IRS. He joins the label from Columbia, where he handled promotion in Dallas for the past ten years.

"The experience and savvy Michael has acquired over the years make him a natural for this position," said IRS VP/Promotion Barry Lyons. "Plus, I needed a vacation."

Scurlock's responsibilities include direction of the field staff and promotion at the CHR and AOR formats.

Cassidy Boosted To KRJY PD

KRJY/St. Louis has promoted morning man Greg Cassidy to PD. He succeeds Johnny Quinn, who has exited the AC.

KRJY has also flipped from Unistar's Format 41 to its Special Blend. The station is live mornings and afternoons and uses satellite programming the other dayparts.

Cassidy told R&R, "We're going for an older demo and want to be the softest FM in the market. We'll target women 35-54. We're doing a $10,000 Gold Card promotion at the moment, and that's keeping us busy. This isn't a high-profile, personality-oriented station."

Cassidy, who arrived at KRJY last August from on-air work at crosstown WSNL, previously was APD at WMQX/Greensboro and PD for WBFJ/Greensboro.

COMBO OM/WHIO PD

WHIO & WHKO Up Wright

At Cox Talk/Country combo WHIO & WHKO/Dayton, acting OM/WHIO PD Keith Wright has assumed those duties officially. The boost follows OM Chuck Browning's promotion to combo VP/GM (R&R, 1/25). Gerry McCraeken remains WHKO PD.

Browning told R&R, "We believe in the people we hire, and Cox believes in promoting from within. Keith knows the marketplace and this station - he's perfect for the job."

Wright has been at WHIO for the last seven years as MD/air talent. Prior to that he programmed crosstown then-AOR WVUD.

Sobel-Silver Rises At Geffen

Karen Sobel-Silver has been upped to National CHR Promotion Manager at Geffen Records, relinquishing her National Video Promotion duties to Peter Baron.

Geffen National Director/CHR Promotion Peter Napolitano said, "Karen's total commitment to CHR will strongly enhance [our] department. Her expertise and well-rounded approach to promotion are something we're pleased to be able to use fulltime."

Sobel-Silver joined Geffen in 1985 from the Al Coury-founded Network Records, where she held AOR promotion, A&R, and publishing duties. Before that, she was a national CHR promotion assistant at RCA and Elektra.

Zoo Sr. VP/GM George Gerrity said, "Jayne has class, style, experience, and energy. What more could you ask for? Only that her relationships with accounts, both national and local, are unparalleled." Prior to Enigma, Simon was A&M Regional Sales Manager/West Coast.

"This is an historic day for radio," said Radio Board Chairman David Hicks, owner of WKFR & WKMI/Kalamazoo, MI. "We're on the way to bringing DAB — the right DAB technology — to the U.S."

By aggressively backing the Eureka system at the FCC and in other regulatory arenas, NAB hopes to "take control of the DAB [implementation] process." Such control, the group believes, will allow it to help minimize DAB's potentially disruptive economic effects on current broadcasters, while ensuring the survival of AM and FM services.

NAB Exec. VP John Abel noted that if an NAB-backed Eureka technology is chosen as the U.S. standard over such potential competitors as the Stanford Telecom system (which is backed by Satellite CD Radio), terrestrial broadcasters would gain a possibly insurmountable jump over satellite operators in providing service to the public.

"How many satellites are there [currently equipped for Eureka] — none," said Abel. "How many terrestrial towers [could easily be converted to Eureka] — thousands."

(If NAB does become the North American distributor of the Eureka system, it would be required by antitrust laws to provide the technology to satellite DAB operators at a reasonable price.)

Doubts Remain

Although the 35-member board, which met this week in Naples, FL, was unanimous in its support for Eureka, some radio group operators apparently still have doubts about committing the industry to the fledgling technology.

After a five-hour Saturday (1/26) DAB briefing for members of the Radio Operators Caucus, ROC chief and Emmis Broadcasting President Steve Crane said, "A lot of broadcasters would like to see the board . . . study [Eureka] a little longer. [Eureka] could become outdated, and if the board endorses it, that could make it harder to backtrack if we have to."

Abel countered that argument, saying neither the board's decision nor NAB's agreement with Eureka is "cast in stone." He added Eureka is the only currently workable DAB system, and that without the support of a group like NAB, the Eureka consortium would have little incentive to continue improving the North American version of its technology.

NAB officials said they'll continue to make presentations to groups like the ROC in an effort to build industry consensus on the DAB issue.

NAB's Royalties

The board's approval of an NAB-Eureka partnership — which could net NAB a significant amount of royalty revenue through its for-profit NAB Technologies subsidiary — was made contingent upon certification by the association's DAB Technical Advisory Group that the Eureka system is indeed as good as it seems.

That group's planned visit to the Eureka test site in Rennes, France last month was canceled by the outbreak of war in the Persian Gulf. Hicks said he hopes the trip can be rescheduled for sometime this month.

Eight-Point Plan

Lodish outlined an eight-point plan to "essentially make radio a new media option for national advertisers." Key elements include the use of "customized, brand-specific [unwired] radio networks," created through matching of Arbitron and Birch audience data with zip code-specific consumer databases. He also envisions an electronic distribution, verification, and invoicing system to make radio easier for national advertisers to buy.

Technology will play a key role in measuring results. "Using state-of-the-art supermarket scanner data, [advertisers will] be able to tell in six months to a year if the markets with the new addition of radio are showing increased sales," he said.

To spur interest at advertising agencies, Radio 2000 will include awards for exceptional radio campaigns, although details are yet to be worked out. "These should serve as incentives for agency creative teams," said Lodish.

National advertisers, he said, "are relatively untapped and represent a high potential market for radio." While local radio claims 11.6% of local advertising revenues, or $6.7 billion annually, he noted that only 2.9% of national advertising expenditures — $2.1 billion — goes to radio. "Clearly, there's much more potential money in the national market for radio."

Interop President Les Goldberg emphasized that Radio 2000 is "a work in progress." He said the marketing plan "addresses the strengths and weaknesses of radio" as revealed in two studies of the advertising community that Interop commissioned in 1989 and '90.

Guild said he'll be traveling across the nation this year to hear input on the marketing plan from local stations "so we can collaborate on how to implement it on a local, regional, and national basis." Radio 2000, he said, "calls for everyone in the industry — stations, syndicators, networks, and rep firms — to unite, to become allies, and to take responsibility for improving radio's image and increasing its usage."

The judge's order followed two days of testimony from consultant Dwight Douglas and Z-Rock Managing Director Lee Abrams. Reams was also fined $200 for contempt of court for disobeying a temporary restraining order barring use of the calls.

Reams says it has applied for FCC permission to adopt new calls, WZRZ, and plans no further legal action. "As Kenny Rogers says, you've got to know when to hold 'em and know when to fold 'em," commented Reams COO Peter Cavanaugh.

Pretty In Platinum

War News

Americans have used radio favorably, says the survey. Nearly 44% of the respondents said they changed their radio listening habits once the war erupted. Of that group, 57% increased their listening. Eighty-one percent of the group using radio differently found themselves using News stations much more than they would otherwise.

Hitting Home

According to the study, 70% of Americans either know someone stationed in the Persian Gulf or expect themselves or someone they know to be sent there eventually. When broken down by skin color, 50% of whites know someone currently in the Gulf area, but that figure rises to almost 80% among blacks interviewed.

West Coast
Used Radio More

In a separate survey of 5735 listeners in 105 markets, Birch/Scarborough released updated figures of radio listening habits in the first hours of the war. Broken out by time zones, about twice as many listeners in the Western U.S. kept up with the war on the radio as did on the East Coast (see chart, Page 1).

Although news of the war broke on network newscasts on the East Coast (about 6:45pm EST), it was only 3:45pm on the West Coast, and 1:45pm in Honolulu.

Strassell

Strassell also declined to speculate on a format shift, saying, "Whatever it is, we plan to make a lot of noise. All I can say is that the word 'contemporary' will be involved in our direction. For me, this is a ground floor opportunity to join Atlantic Radio. They have a lot of ambition to move into other markets, which is a nice enticement for me."

Prior to joining WL0L, Strassell was OM at WROK & WZOK/Rockford, IL. Before that, he was MD at WEAG/Indianapolis and at WSTO/Evansville, IN.

COMIC RELIEF

Finding Joy In Adversity

By C.W. Metcalf

"Station Adopts New Format, Realigns Staff." "Broadcast Company Pulls Plug On Radio Network." "Spot Radio Battle Intensifies."

Do these mock headlines sound familiar? For 40 years, careers in radio were fairly stable. But recently mergers and takeovers have riddled the industry, creating job uncertainty, increased competition, and rampant job turnover. Working in radio shouldn't be a battle, but how can you thrive and survive in these difficult times? Developing a sense of humor can help — no joke!

Three years ago, the FCC relaxed its restrictions on move-ins and Class A radio, allowing stations in smaller markets to increase their wattage and directly compete with stations in nearby larger markets. In some areas that comfortably supported seven radio stations, the number has doubled, resulting in an oversaturation of stations in markets that cannot support them.

Competition for advertising revenues has become fierce, allowing only two or three stations to be successful. Many advertising reps are under pressure to increase revenues. They may be rejected 25 times before making a single sale. Those who can't handle such rejection may change jobs several times a year. And stations struggling to stay afloat find they can't afford to have a bad ratings period. If they do, they're history.

"The truth is, being too serious can kill you."

Terminal Professionalism

The threat of takeovers and mergers by broadcasting conglomerates and venture capitalists also leaves many station employees wondering about impending format changes and the future of their jobs. Airstaffers may exhibit "show and go" attitudes — "When's the latest I can be there? When's the earliest I can leave?" Personalities may not stay at one job for more than three months.

We're creatures of habit. We hate change, whether it occurs in a personal relationship or on the job. Both breed stress. Unfortunately, many of us tend to think a change in our job or career is the worst thing that can happen. The pressure has created uptight professionals who constantly worry about their job status.

Saying "when the going gets tough, the tough get going" no longer works. It's alright to tough it out once a month. But when difficulties occur on an everyday basis, this kind of attitude will not help you develop an innovative sales plan or create a new morning show that will boost your ratings.

"Saying 'when the going gets tough, the tough get going' no longer works. It will not help you develop an innovative sales plan or create a new morning show that will boost your ratings."

Unfortunately, some employees have become afflicted with dreaded "terminal professionalism." How many times have you found yourself or someone you know saying, "Listen to me, I'm dead serious!" The truth is, being too serious can kill you. The misconception is that if you're a professional, you're hardworking, hardheaded, and hardhearted. If you act silly, you're an airhead; someone not qualified for leadership.

These ideas couldn't be further from the truth. The fact is, those who lighten up and act silly are the ones who may well succeed. A combative, warlike work environment can erode productivity, creativity, and morale. It's hard to maintain a positive attitude under these conditions. But humor skills can help.

Fluid And Loose

Humor comes from the Latin umor, meaning fluid. Having a sense of humor allows you to be fluid and loose, instead of uptight and brittle when you're stressed.

You may be saying to yourself, "Hey, I've got a great sense of humor. I know lots of jokes." But humor is not joke telling. Humor is a set of developed skills that allows you to create a positive perspective and be creative when adversity arises. It's a way of seeing; a way of looking at a situation that allows you to realize your problem isn't the biggest problem on earth. You are not the center of the universe.

Let's say an advertiser pulls his ad in favor of a competing radio station. As a result, you feel stressed. You say, "How can this be happening to me? I must be the unluckiest person." Humor skills allow you to take a step back and look at the problem. They allow you to develop a new perspective that lets you say, "Whoa, my job is in big trouble, but I'm okay."

Changing how you perceive a situation is just about the only thing you can control about your life. Think about it. You can't directly control the economy or work problems. Too many factors are involved. But you do have choices. You can either become stressed, get bent out of shape, become brittle, and break. Or you can become loose and find the absurd in the situation so you can effectively deal with the problem and find creative solutions. You can develop umor, you can learn to be water, and you can learn to flow uphill.

Overcoming Fear Of Foolishness

One of the first steps is to overcome Fear of Foolishness — the fear that we're literally going to die when we make a mistake or do something silly. How many times have you said, "I was so embarrassed I could have died!" That's a severe reaction.

The fact is the brain cannot distinguish between a threat to your physical life (someone pointing a gun to your head) and a threat to your ego (doing something silly like dancing to M.C. Hammer in your office and being embarrassed when someone sees you). Both situations initiate the fight-or-flight mechanism and cause adrenaline to rush through your body.

"Having a sense of humor allows you to be fluid and loose, instead of uptight and brittle when you're stressed."

So how do you overcome Fear of Foolishness? First allow yourself to do silly things and learn you won't die if you do something silly. Humor exercises (aka "Humero-bics") teach you that it's okay to make a fool of yourself and make mistakes. For instance:

- Stand, Breathe, And Smile involves standing, taking a big breath, and making the silliest smile you can.

- To Howl for Joy, think about something that makes you feel good — a sunset, a walk in the park, or soaking up the sun on the beach. Then stand up and let out a howl (yeah, just like a wolf).

- The American Bat Face involves reaching down the front of your face and pulling up the tip of your nose with your index finger and wagging your tongue like a bat.

Do the exercises in front of the mirror after you wake up. When you see yourself doing these silly things, you'll think, "Hey, that's definitely not the center of the

Stress Busters

Here are some tips for developing a sense of joy in being alive and nurturing humor in the workplace:

- Go to an instant photo booth (i.e., four poses for $2) and take funny pictures of yourself. Be creative. Stick your finger up your nose, pull your lower lip up over your forehead, wag your tongue at the camera. Then put the pictures in your desk drawer or in your wallet and pull them out when you feel stressed. It's hard to think of yourself as the center of the universe when you have your finger up your nose.

- Collect objects from a dream vacation or a vacation you're planning and put them in a special desk drawer. They can be seashells, photos, sand — anything that will stimulate memories of a certain place. Take the objects out when the stress gets too intense and spend some time relaxing and enjoying your "special" place.

- Celebrate the end of the day with a ritual. Learn to say, "This is my time. I've got to do something for myself. I deserve it." The ritual can involve writing down all of the things you have to do the next day and locking them in a drawer. Then tell the list to "stay!" Several companies even offer humor rooms where employees can relax and lighten up by reading comic books or playing with fun toys for the last 15 minutes of the day.

universe. If it is, we're all in big trouble."

If these exercises are too risky for you at first, try wearing Mickey Mouse underwear to work — something that's a little more discreet but still silly.

Remember that being lighthearted is not being lightheaded — it's not the opposite of professional behavior. It's a way of preserving it. I'm not saying you should ignore your job and skip merrily down the street singing "Don't worry, be happy." I am saying take your job seriously but yourself lightly.

Jump For Joy

Another way to cope with difficulty is to access joy in the face of problems. You're going to laugh and smile more in your lifetime while looking at a sunset, watching young couples hug, or playing with a pet than listening to jokes. It's important to learn how to get in touch with these "feel good" sensations at critical times of stress and difficulty.

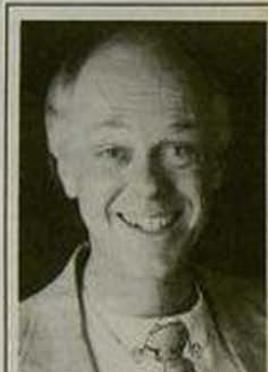

Write down several activities or thoughts that bring you joy: watching movies, running, sex. When you feel overwhelmed because you can't pull off a great promotion or land a big advertising account, read the joy list so you can regain

Developing a sense of joy in being alive is important. If you aren't enjoying the journey, why are you on it? You've got to realize that you're not your job. Your job doesn't go hiking, see movies, or play with the dog. You do, and it's important to take time out for yourself. Enjoy being alive. If you don't care about being here, how can you care about the environment, the homeless, or doing your best work?

Let out a howl. Remember to have fun. Drawing on a sense of humor can make it all bearable and enjoyable. When the going gets tough, the tough get loose.

STREET TALK.

¿Oye Como Va, Z95?

At 8pm Monday (1/28), Cap Cities/ABC mainstream CHR WYTZ (Z95) Chicago dropped virtually all its rock 'n' pop discs in favor of a Dance CHR presentation, featuring recorded liners in Spanish slotted between four-record sweeps!

Listeners who habla español understand the liners are, in fact, insults directed at crosstown Dance CHR B96 and its staffers. Sample translations: "[B96 PD] Dave Shakes is a weenie," "[B96 morning team] Eddie & Jo Bo sound stupid," and "B96 is for buttheads." (The latter liner actually translated to "shitheads" and was subsequently spiked.)

Considering consultant Randy Michaels's involvement, one can't help wonder if Z95's new music mix isn't just a psychological dance. OM Ric Lippincott denies another change is coming, telling ST, "We're here to liberate B96's Hispanic cume and build from there."

As ST went to press, Z95 and B96 each were touting they'd be making special Wednesday morning (1/30) announcements. ST learned that B96 planned to tell listeners it'd be going commercial-free for 96 minutes every day during afternoon drive. As for Z95, Lippincott and Michaels were waiting to hear what B96 had to say before picking from plans one, two, or nine.

Rumors

- Spike the talk about WAVA/Washington dropping CHR when a new GM is named sometime in early March.

- And the loose talk concerning the format future of Hot AC WROR/Boston just keeps on comin'. Will "POR" move in a mainstream CHR direction? Or will it take more of a dance stance? Regardless, look for the station to have it all figured out in the next couple of weeks.

- Is ex-92X/Columbus afternoon driver Blake Thunder about to strike a deal at Z95/Chicago?

- Is KKQB/Houston morning zoo dude Mark Landis about to be the new PD at KZZB/Beaumont?

- Is former KRBE/Houston PD Adam Cook headed to WSSX/Charleston? Will he replace PD Walt Speck? Or will Cook become OM?

And while we're doin' the Charleston market... When new ownership takes over CHR WKQB in April, will there be a format flip? And will current PD Rodger Galther pursue another radio gig? Or will he explore a record offer?

- Is WPGC/Washington MD/night jammer Able D. set to ink a new two-year deal?

New Breakthrough
On Monitor Front

Starting in April, most Japanese CDs will feature an inaudible subcode that will allow radio stations to track every song they play with absolute accuracy. The system will be used in Japan for broadcast royalty payments, and — when it's inevitably introduced in the U.S. — is the obvious way to go for ASCAP and BMI to collect airplay data.

And... U.S. radio stations will be able to provide detailed monitors with this technology — endorsed by the International Federation of Phonographic Industries — and record labels will be able to obtain truly accurate tracking of radio airplay on their releases. Should be interesting.

But before we exit this brewin' brouhaha, word has it that Z95's music was put together by Jacor's Power Pig/Tampa. ST hears that if the musical strategy at Z95 is successful, Michaels's next stop in the Cap Cities/ABC chain could be WPLJ/NY. Keep your ears open on this caper.

Nuke Kids On The Rock

Many KSHE/St. Louis listeners were startled Tuesday morning (1/29) when they heard what sounded like an EBS-style announcement warning of a nuclear attack. Turns out morning man John Ulett, in an attempt to make a political point about the absurdity of "nuking Iraq" — a sentiment apparently voiced by more than a few listeners — had just played a Don Pardo-voiced '50s hoax broadcast of a nuclear alert.

The incident caused, ahem, quite a stir, and — after consulting with the station's FCC attorney — KSHE GM John Beck soon took to the airwaves with an explanation/apology that ran the rest of the day.

Speaking of explosive situations, there were some tense moments last Saturday afternoon (1/26) at WKJY/Long Island. Someone called the station claiming a bomb had been planted at the AC outlet. Local authorities were dispatched, but no destructive devices were found.

Precious nanoseconds prior to presstime, ST learned that Peter Takiff had officially been named Exec. VP/GM at Mercury Records, while Tony Anderson has become Exec. VP/GM of the label's black music division.

STREET TALK.

HOT 97's GET THAT BASTARD WEEKEND — Hot 97/NYC offered listeners a chance to support U.S. troops in the Persian Gulf as well as help raise money for the USO through the right-left combination of the station's Operation Oasis program AND a special "Get That Bastard Weekend" (1/25-27). Listeners were encouraged to phone in dedications to our troops and win a "Get That Bastard" T-shirt. (The respective front and back sides of the shirt are pictured above.) Hot 97 also sold the shirts for $15 each, with $5 of the purchase price earmarked for the USO.

WOIK-AM & FM/Jacksonville Production Dir. John Richards has been named PD at crosstown WCRJ.

RCA/Nashville VP/Mktg. Ron Howie will be joining Joe Galante at Nipper's NY offices in an as-yet-unspecified marketing position.

Morgan Creek Records will name former Orpheus VP/GM and ex-Capitol VP/Mktg. & Promo Walter Lee as its VP/Promo. Lee immediately will begin assembling a full promo staff for CHR, AOR, and Alternative. Expect him to gear up an Urban promo department as summer approaches as well.

Now that XHTZ (Jammin' 290)/San Diego PD Rick Thomas has hitched himself to the PD post at KOY-FM/Phoenix (see Page 3), early names under consideration for the vacancy include Z90 APD/Promotion Dir. Jacko Adams, Power 92/Phoenix APD Paco Lopez, and ex-FM102/Sacramento PD Brian White.

Dale Parsons, PD at Viacom AC WLTW/NY, resigned unexpectedly last week. The parting's amicable, and Parsons will stay on until a replacement is hired, at which time he'll leave the Big Apple for an ownership opportunity wayay cross-country.

Longtime programmer/consultant John Sebastian, one of the founding fathers of NAC, has abandoned that format at his own station. Last Wednesday (1/23), KLSK/Santa Fe-Albuquerque, which Sebastian co-owns, segued from NAC to Classic Rock.

"I still love NAC, but I'm a businessman too, and this market wasn't sophisticated enough for us to do really well with the format," explained Sebastian, who also serves as the station's GM.

KLSK kicked off its new format by spinning "Stairway To Heaven" for 24 hours straight, prompting two visits from the local police, who reportedly were concerned that "Iraqi terrorists" might have commandeered the station.

Is WEGX/Philly now talking to KKBQ/Houston morning man John Lander about a dual OM/mornings role? If that deal goes down, would EGX hire a day-to-day PD to assist Lander? Might WKSS/Hartford PD Jefferson Ward have the early pole position for the Eagle PD post?

In any event, talks also continue between EGX and WHYT/Detroit PD Rick Gillette. And... ST hears Pirate Radio/LA's Shadow Steele did fly into Philly this past weekend for a chat — even though he just closed on a new home on the beach in Malibu. Hmmm.

Word has it that A&M is hammering out a major deal to keep Charlie Minor in the fold with a new title... Exec. VP. However, ST also hears other parties are eyeing Minor for a presidential post.

Look for Zoo Entertainment to start taking its music to the streets at the end of February. Also look for Sr. VP/GM George Gerrity to finalize a deal with former WTG and Atco AOR maven Michael Prince to head Zoo's AOR efforts, and to name national CHR honchos within the next two or three weeks.

KQKS/Denver GSM Bart Gilliom is the new GM at AOR KILO/Colorado Springs. Fifteen-year KILO staffer Rich Hawk, who was upped to GM last April, remains as Station Manager/OM/PD.

Rumbles

- With three weeks to go on their two-year contract, KBP/Denver morning men the O' Brothers (Garry O'Neal & Mike Olson) have exited the Great American AOR. O'Neal told ST the split was mutual.

- Big Band WOKY/Milwaukee LSM Donna Bemberek has been promoted to GSM for OKY and Country sister WMIL. She replaces Johnathan Crawford, who exits.

- KISW/Seattle has promoted John Keithan to GSM. He replaces Spade Cooley, who exits the Nationwide AOR to pursue other interests.

- Wildman Juan Rivera exits the PD slot at Urban XHRM/SD, MD midday personality Bailey Coleman adds acting PD duties.

- Q105 (AM)/Tampa morning man Cleveland Wheeler has been released from his contract and has exited. The AM is now simulcasting its FM sister's morning team of Mike Elliott & Ken Voss.

- KKBB/Bakersfield officially switches from AOR to Classic Rock.

- CHR WANS/Greenville, SC flips to AC WWMM ("Magic 107.3").

- WJMK (Magic 104)/Chicago morning man Fred Winston is out.

- KNEW & KSAN/SF ten-year morning vet John Wallin exits.

- Former KITY/San Antonio PD Rick Upton takes the same post at Narragansett CHR KAY107/Tulsa; Jan Dean exits.

- KRMD-AM & FM/Shreveport PD Dave Block has been named PD at WCOS-AM & FM/Columbia, SC.

- KHTT/Santa Rosa picks Tim Watts as PD. He replaces Jeff Cochran, now PD at KIOC/Beaumont.

- WDBK/DeKalb, IL PD Bill McCown lends the PD gig at WMMZ/Gainesville; Kemoabi Joe splits.

- Ex-KCPX/SLC afternoon driver Gary Zane grabs the PD post at Dance CHR WBPR/Myrtle Beach, SC. Meanwhile, CPX Promotion Dir. (and former APD) Bob LaBorde is out.

- Steve Wilson — PD at Gold WXLE/Columbus, OH — has been named PD at CHR WRFY (102)/Reading, PA.

- Y95/Dallas APD J.J. McKay heads to afternoons at WYXR/Star 104.5/Philly; Barbara Somers moves to mornings.

- KFTZ/Idaho Falls ups morning man Jay Stevens to PD; MD Brent O'Brien adds APD duties.

- Alles lead singer Freddie Curci has cancelled all tour and promotion engagements for the next five weeks, owing to throat surgery.

- Isn't that R&R Urban Contemporary Editor Walt Love doing the announcing work on Nia Peeples's new syndicated TV show, "The Party Machine"?

Whet Dreams

The deviled eggheads in Warner Bros. marketing department fensidly combined cigarette papers, matches, a condom, a cigar, a mini-bottle of demon alcohol, and a shot glass (depicted) in a specially-created cardboard box — and customized each element with a particularly Luciferian logo — to whet programmers' appetites for David Lee Roth's latest long-player, "A Little Ain't Enough."

Remembering Slim Pickens's immortal words upon opening his "Dr. Strangelove" survival kit, the Satanic Majesties responsible for awarding Promo Item O' The Week noted: "Hell, a feller could have a purty good weekend in Vegas with that!" Well, maybe a night in Bastow...

Across the street, the market's poor economy has claimed KIKX OM/PD Bobby Christian's job. VP/GM John Dantzer is now wearing the PD hat and doing middays.

Full-Service AC WBZ/Boston PD David Bernstein has taken all music off the air. Station personalities are discussing the war as well as other topics. No word yet on when (or if) the tunes will return.

Guess we'd better start referring to Pirate Radio as KQLZ, hearing how the L.A. station has been emphasizing its true calls several times an hour these days. Now that the initial urgency of the Gulf War has begun to taper off a tad, can a format alteration be too far down the road?

Nothin' Butt The Truth

Jest in case you were wonderin' what the #*% was cut out of Monday's (1/28) American Music Awards telecast — the show was tape-delayed to avoid last year's Guns N' Roses incident — here's the hot poop from ST's ear-to-the-podium:

After receiving a round of boos when introduced, New Kids On The Block's Donnie Wahlberg lashed out at "all the jealous knuckleheads out there that have been trying to keep us down. They can kiss my butt."

Vanilla Ice got snipped when he remarked, "The people that wanna talk down to me can kiss my white butt." That prompted a comment by host Keenen Ivory Wayans as to the "color of Vanilla Ice's butt," which also got turfed.

Interestingly, while the boos that came out of the audience were real, more than a little of the intense screaming you heard on TV was dubbed.

There's been slight delay in the negotiations between EZ Communications and Mark Driscoll concerning his new role as Creative Services Dir. Hence, Driscoll is back at WIOQ (Q102j/Philly) as OM.

Still no official word on the WZOU/Boston PD gig... but the freshest rap has acting PD Cadillac Jack McCartney clearly in the driver's seat.

As for the Y95/Dallas PD gig, look for the station to make a decision sometime in February. VP/GM John Martin tells ST, "Serious talks are just now getting under way. No one has the lead yet."

MTV is searching for two new VJs. VHS tapes, plx, and resumes to Lisa Berger at the cable net's Universal City offices ASAP.

The American Comedy Network has produced a humorous radio ad campaign touting the virtues of recycling. The six PSAs, created for the Environmental Defense Fund, are available from the NYC-based Advertising Council.

A hearty tip o' the ten-gallon hat to Epic/Nashville, which made R&R Country history by achieving first week Breaker status with an LP cut — Waylon Jennings's "The Eagle." And congratulations to MCA/Nashville, which posted its best year ever in 1990!

Gotta Z-Rock In Your Docket?

When Z-Rock maven Lee Abrams testified in a Cincinnati courtroom in the WKRQ vs. WZRO call letter dispute (see Page 1), he was asked to characterize the difference between the jock presentations of the two formats.

Abrams did a stereotypical "CHR" break for the court, then began to bellow so loudly into the mike in his attempt to imitate a Z-Rock jock that armed guards came flying into the courtroom to see what in the blue blazes was happening.

AC Adds To ARB Lead; N/T New Runner-Up

Country Biggest Gainer; AOR, CHR, UC Slide

Despite as flat a book as could be imagined, AC boosted its lead in the Top 30 markets to more than 200 shares in the Fall '90 Arbitron, according to R&R's exclusive Format Performance Index. News/Talk, riding a rising tide of global concern and profiting from a continuing CHR plunge, surged into the No. 2 format slot with 335 total shares compared to CHR's 328.

Ranking The Formats

AC continued to dominate the Top 30 markets, its 537 total shares amounting to 21.2% of the radio listening. But in a dramatic move reflecting the current global state of affairs, the slump of CHR, or both, News/Talk nipped CHR to take over as the second most popular major market format in the fall Arbitron.

The other big move was Country's: the format not only broke the 10% total barrier, but surpassed AOR to become the No. 4 format in the Top 30. Format standings follow, with Fall '90 Birch percentages in parentheses for purposes of comparison.

| Format | (Arbitron) | (Birch) |
|--------------|------------|---------|
| AC | 21.2% | (17.0%) |
| News/Talk | 13.2% | (11.5%) |
| CHR | 12.9% | (16.6%) |
| Country | 10.2% | (9.5%) |
| AOR | 9.7% | (13.0%) |
| UC | 6.9% | (9.1%) |
| Gold | 6.5% | (5.7%) |
| Classic Rock | 4.1% | (4.1%) |
| Big Band | 3.6% | (2.2%) |
| B/EZ | 3.0% | (1.5%) |
| Spanish | 2.3% | (1.7%) |
| NAC/Jazz | 2.1% | (2.6%) |
| Classical | 2.1% | (2.4%) |
| New Rock | 1.1% | (1.4%) |
| Rel/CC | 0.9% | (1.6%) |

In book-to-book news, Country was the biggest winner, its 23-share increase (almost eight-tenths of a share per market) almost double News/Talk's runner-up 12.7-share boost.

Over the past year, AC emerged as by far the strongest gainer, picking up 53 shares since last fall.

AC Reigns In 20 Markets

Another measure of AC's Arbitron dominance: it's the leading format in 20 of the Top 30 markets and is in double figures in all but four while topping the 20-share mark in nine. In only two other instances did another format top 20 shares (Country's winning totals in Dallas and Kansas City). Here are the non-AC winning formats:

• News/Talk: 4 (New York, Providence, St. Louis, San Francisco)

• Country: 3 (Dallas, Kansas City, Houston)

• Spanish: 2 (Miami and, for the first time in memory, Los Angeles)

• CHR: 1 (Milwaukee)

Following are summaries of key format performances.

AC: The Arbitron Colossus

Since Fall '89, AC has averaged almost a two-share gain per market, and is light years ahead of any format competitor in the Top 30 markets. Its 202-share lead on runner-up N/T contrasts radically

Fast Fall Facts

• AC's edge over #2 format N/T is more than 200 shares

• N/T has overtaken CHR to rank second

• Country topped AOR thanks to biggest fall gains with the Birch figures for the same period, which show AC edging CHR by a mere 11.5 shares.

Much of the AC bulge this past year has come from B/EZ defections, and it's interesting to note that AC's flat fall (it's up one-tenth of a share over Summer '90) corresponds with B/EZ's tournament book — the latter format seems to have stopped the bleeding, losing just four-tenths of a share in fall.

AOR: Bad Book, Good Year

Dropping nearly a full share a market, AOR fell from fourth to fifth in the Top 30 market format rankings. Only the fall book marred a fine 12 months; even with the 28-share fall dropoff, AOR was up 12 shares since Fall '89 — nearly as big a gain as its 14.7-share Birch yearlong gain.

B/EZ: The Worst May Be Over

Perhaps all the Beautiful Music/EZ Listening stations considering a format switch have already pulled the plug. B/EZ lost an incredible 114 shares since last fall (an average of almost four shares per market and 60% of its Fall '89 total). But this book the format was flat in Arbitron, although Birch still showed some (10 shares) erosion.

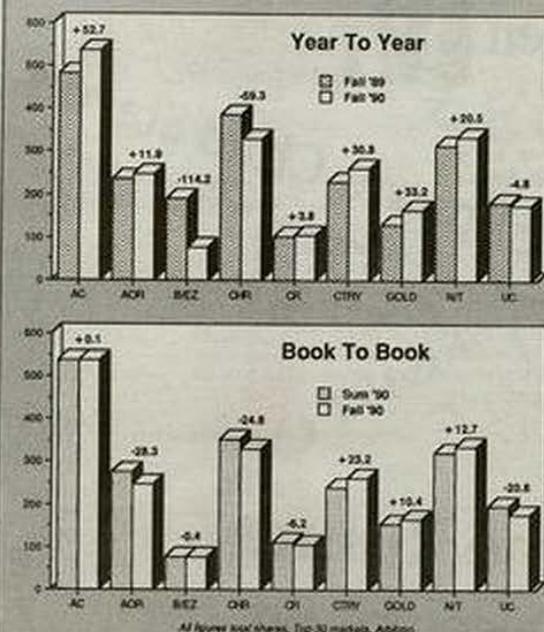

CHR: 15% Loss In 1990

Not a good year for CHR — almost 60 shares (two full shares per market) down for the year and 25 of them vanishing in just this book. The news was comparably bad in Birch (66 shares down for the year, 21 for the book), and the format lost its No. 1 ranking in Birch and its No. 2 slot in Arbitron.

Classic Rock: An AOR Echo

Mirroring AOR's 1990 performance on a smaller scale, Classic Rock was down six shares in the book-to-book totals, but up four shares for the year. The trends were much healthier than in Birch, where the format dropped in double figures both book-to-book and year-to-year, but Classic Rock has higher total shares in Birch. Classic Rock has more than five shares in seven of the Top 30 markets, but is still absent in five.

Key Format Trends

Classical's Fall Rise

A good fall book (5.7 shares up over summer's total) salvaged the year for Classical, which was off 3.8 shares in 1990 to finish at 52.5 total shares. Birch actually shows this older-skewing format with a better total (64 shares). Classical earned better than a three share in only five markets.

Country Comes Alive

Country's general sluggishness in the entire Arbitron picture was reversed in the Top 30 markets this year, thanks to a 31-share gain for the year (a share a market) and a whopping 23-share boost over summer's total.

Gold: No. 2 Winner Of 1990

Excepting AC, Gold's 33-share increase was the year's biggest, amounting to better than a full share a market and a 25% boost. Birch showed an even bigger year-long gain (40 shares).

How It Works

The Format Performance Index appears eight times yearly, once for each Arbitron and Birch survey. It's intended as a quick, timely guide to format trends across the nation.

To speed its publication, we take 12+ ratings figures from the Top 30 markets (since Anaheim is only a two-book-a-year Arbitron market, we substituted market #31, Cincinnati, for consistency purposes). All stations showing a 1.0 share or better are compiled into the appropriate format totals. Each market's format total shares are compiled into the national total share figures used here, and plus-or-minus changes in each format (also expressed in total shares) are calculated from year to year (in this case, Fall '89 to Fall '90) and book to book (Summer '90 to Fall '90).

stations experienced the third worst hit in 1990; although the 10.1-share dropoff was hardly in the numerical league of B/EZ and CHR's losses, it did represent a 17% erosion.

New Rock: Appreciable Gains

New Rock's Arbitron increase of 8.8 shares in 1990 means a lot more if translated into a percentage gain: the format was up a full 47% this year. Arbitron shows 27.5 total New Rock shares, compared to Birch's 37.9.

News/Talk Now No. 2

News/Talk/Sports stations now average more than 11 shares per Top 30 market, and as cited earlier the format is second only to AC in the majors. It scored double-figure gains for the year and the quarter in both Arbitron and Birch, as war tensions mounted, and the winter book should, if that theory is correct, be a monster.

Spanish: Now Leading L.A.

In one of the biggest upsets of the fall Arbitron, CHR, with three prominent Los Angeles outlets, lost its L.A. supremacy to the Hispanic stations. Spanish also tops Miami, as always, but tops five shares in only two other markets (New York and San Jose) and is absent in 19 cities.

Overall, it rose 2.6 shares for the year to 58.5 total shares, and was up .5 this book. Its Birch gains were much more dramatic (13.4 for the year, 8.0 for the book), but the Birch total is lower (44.3).

Urban: Fall Skid Mars Solid Year

Urban Contemporary stations were looking good up until the fall book, when a 21-share drop brought the year's performance to a small deficit (4.8 shares off 1989's total). Still, the format rose from seventh to sixth overall (thanks to B/EZ's nosedive), and Birch showed it gaining 16 shares in 1990.

Top Markets By Format

Cincinnati's love affair with the AC format continues, although at a slightly less fervent pace. Cincy AC stations combined for 33.1 shares in the Fall '90 Arbitron, the largest total any format racked up in the Top 30 markets. However, the Cincinnati AC total was down from summer's 35.6, and only a bit higher than the fall Birch score, 32.6.

The AC format accounted for the next six highest individual-market totals (with Minneapolis's 30 shares coming close to knocking off Cincinnati) before Country rang in with almost 22 shares in Dallas. Below are the top cities for each format:

| Format | Total Share | Market |
|----------------|-------------|---------------|
| AC | 33.1 | Cincinnati |
| Country | 21.9 | Dallas |
| News/Talk | 19.5 | New York |
| Spanish | 18.2 | Miami |
| CHR | 17.0 | Milwaukee |
| AOR | 15.6 | Denver |
| Urban | 13.3 | Atlanta |
| Gold | 11.3 | Portland |
| B/EZ | 9.8 | Miami |
| BBnd/Nostalgia | 8.8 | Tampa |
| NAC | 7.2 | Portland |
| Classic Rock | 6.7 | St. Louis |
| New Rock | 6.7 | San Diego |
| Religious/CC | 5.3 | Dallas |
| Classical | 4.6 | San Francisco |

Only one change from the summer leaders: St. Louis replaces Milwaukee (by two-tenths of a share) as the biggest market for Classic Rock.

COMPACT DATA

Lofgren's 'Valentine' Is One Boss Track

Bruce Springsteen adds backing vocals to Nils Lofgren's forthcoming Rykodisc single, "Valentine." Set to hit PD desks on February 14 (natch), it's the only track from Lofgren's forthcoming "Silver Lining" LP that'll feature the Boss.

As previously reported (R&R, 11/2/90), the album — set for release on February 22 — also packs guest appearances by Ringo Starr, Billy Preston, and Levon Helm.

Lenny's 'Mama Said'

Lenny Kravitz gets a little help from Guns N' Roses guitarist Slash and Sean Ono Lennon on his forthcoming Virgin LP, "Mama Said." Slash not only helped pen the album's first single ("Always On The Run") but also plays on the track. He also adds licks to the Kravitz composition "Fields Of Joy."

Meanwhile, Ono Lennon co-wrote and plays piano on the tune "All I Ever Wanted." Kravitz himself produced the platter.

The Great White Hook

Great White's forthcoming "Hook" LP is due from Capitol on February 18. The disc — which reunites the band with "Twice Shy" producers Alan Niven and Michael Lardie — spotlights the single, "Call It Rock 'N' Roll."

Vinyl versions of the platter — available in limited numbers — will sport eye-catching jackets featuring a naked woman sittin' on a fish hook! (Seaweed covers the, um, sensitive parts.) CD and cassette configurations will sport less titillating artwork on the outside, with the "uncensored" version tucked safely in the inside booklets.

Columbia Boxing Dylan 'Bootlegs'

Columbia is pulling together a 70-song, four-CD boxed set of previously unreleased Bob Dylan material. Title: "The Bootleg Series, Volumes 1-3 (Rare And Unreleased) 1961-1989."

Due in music stores on March 26, the package features "new," live, and alternate versions of songs spanning the prolific singer/songwriter's entire career (from the legendary "Minnesota hotel sessions" to outtakes from 1989's "Oh Mercy" LP).

As previously reported (R&R, 1/18), the first single will be "Series Of Dreams," culled from the Daniel Lanois-produced "Oh Mercy" sessions. Look for it on March 7.

Re: Morse

The Steve Morse Band will release their second MCA album, "Southern Steel," on February 5. The former Dixie Dregs lead guitarist is joined by new members Dave LaRue (bass) and Van Romaine (drums) on the rock-oriented project, which'll include such tracks as "Sleaze Factor," "Arena Rock," "Weekend Overdrive," "Wolf Song," and "Cut To The Chase."

Quick Picks

• George Thorogood & The Destroyers are set to release their first LP in three years on February 26. Titled "Boogie People," the EMI disc will be preceded by the single "If You Don't Start Drinkin' (I'm Gonna Leave)," to be released on February 11.

• Blues guitarmeister Buddy Guy has signed with RCA/Silver-tone. He's working on his label debut — and first studio album in 11 years — in London. John Porter (Eric Clapton's former guitarist) is producing.

• The Fezies have titled their next A&M platter "Time For A Witness." Due March 5, the disc was produced by the group's guitarists Bill Million and Glenn Mercer, with assistance from Gary Smith (known for his work with the Pixies and Throwing Muses). First single: "Sooner Or Later."

• The Escape Club return with their next Atlantic LP, "Dollars And Sex." On March 5. The first single — "Call It Poison" — is due February 6.

• Ex-Husker Du drummer Grant Hart's new band, Nova Mob, will release their debut Rough Trade LP ("The Last Days Of Pompeii") on February 22.

• After leaving for a five-year stint with solo artist Ozzy Osbourne, Black Sabbath co-founder Terry "Geezer" Butler has rejoined the seminal hard rock outfit. The Sabs are now writing material for their next IRS release.

New Live Stones Album Set For April

The ROLLING STONES' live album now looks set to be released in the first week of April. It's rumored that a new studio track will rest comfortably alongside the tunes recorded during the band's Steel Wheels/Urban Jungle tours. Fans will receive the official Stones tour book ("The Rolling Stones: Images Of The World Tour") with the LP.

Bjork + 808 State

The SUGARCUBES' singer BJORK has recorded two tracks with Manchester dance outfit 808 STATE for the latter's latest LP, which is due next month.

Bjork of the Sugarcubes — only tongue will tell?

The as-yet-untitled album also features guest vocals from NEW ORDER's BARNEY SUMNER, but plans to get the PET SHOP BOYS in on the act as well are now uncertain. Meanwhile, 808 will release "In Your Face" — the follow-up to their recent UK Top 10 hit "Cubik/Olympic" — on February 11.

Mondays + McCartney

Bit early for April Fools, but NME reports that HAPPY MONDAYS have been offered the chance to make a record with PAUL MCCARTNEY producing.

The song in question is "Thank U Very Much," a UK Top 5 for Liverpool's SCAFFOLD at the end of 1987. (The link lies in two members of the Scaffold trio: poet ROGER MCGOUGH, whose stepson NATHAN manages the Mondays, and MIKE MCGEAR, who is McCartney's brother.) According to the story, Happy Mondays are likely to decline the offer.

Eno + Carmel

U2 and PETER GABRIEL sideman and onetime ROXY MUSIC keyboard king BRIAN ENO is the man behind the new CARMEL single that's due out February 11. Called "And I Take It For Granted," the 45 was produced by Eno and is backed with "Lovin' Feel" and a live rendition of "Sally."

ERASURE, meanwhile, are currently in a small studio in the Pyrenees working on the follow-up to their 1989 UK No. 1 album, "Wild." The new album's expected in September, but a single should surface around April.

Hello magazine about his new 21 GUNS outfit. "This new group should surprise a lot of people. The lineup includes the former rhythm section of A-HA — LEIF JOHANNSEN and MIKE STURGIS, who are both brilliant players — and we are most definitely a rock band."

"For the first time, I'm doing a lot of the songwriting — a craft I was made aware of by [late Lizzy leader] PHIL LYNOTT. In fact, it would only be right to dedicate our first record to him."

BPI + PO

The BPI has joined forces with the Post Office in an advertising campaign for this year's Brits Awards, beginning Sunday (2/3), the week before the February 10 event will see 300 million letters franked with the message "The Magic Of British Music — The Brits 1991."

It's the first time such extensive promotion has been attempted for the awards, and BPI Chairman PAUL RUSSELL explains the move by saying, "It emphasises once again the outstanding contribution the record industry makes to the UK economy."

A 21 Guns Salute

Former THIN LIZZY guitarist SCOTT GORHAM has been telling

Scott Gorham — taking 'Dedication' to the Lynott?

Gorham and ex-Lizzy colleagues BRIAN DOWNEY and GARY MOORE have already paid tribute in the form of the "Dedication" single. This "new" Lizzy track — which was recently completed for inclusion on next week's "Dedication: The Very Best Of Thin Lizzy" LP — has given the band its first UK Top 40 appearance since 1983.

Lost In Emotions

The WEE PAPA GIRL RAPPERS' new single is "Best Of My Love," loosely covering the EMOTIONS U.S. smash of 1977. The disc's been produced by CARL

Rolling Stones — live and in the studio?

BOURELLY, who was behind BELL BIV DEVOE's "Do Me." The club remixes come courtesy of Manchester's CHAD JACKSON, who hit the UK Top 5 last year with "Hear The Drummer (Get Wicked)."

Bomb The Bass Dropped

TIM SIMENON has decided to drop the name BOMB THE BASS due to the outbreak of war in the Persian Gulf. Simenon has been using the name — which is a hip-hop term — for three years, but feels it would be "insensitive" to continue using it under the circumstances.

In the future, he'll promote his music under his own name, and his new single "Love So True" — released last week — is now available as a Tim Simenon release.

Meanwhile, Scotland's SILENCERS have pulled their single "Bullet-Proof Heart" from the UK release schedules, although it's already been issued in Europe. They're now picking another track for release sometime in March.

The KLF also have exercised a little self-censorship, deciding that the full version of their current UK hit ("Sam Eternal") could cause offence and asking Radio 1 not to play it. (The reason is the six seconds of gunfire at the beginning of the track.)

A spokesperson for the KLF said, "The band felt the situation was a bit special, and they made a seven-inch version with the machine gun taken out just for the BBC." The original version is still being sold in shops, however.

Incidentally, the next KLF single is tipped to be a track called "Last Train To Transcendal."

Crisis? What Crisis?

While it's been widely reported here and in the States that some UK radio stations were censoring their broadcasts of certain records in consideration of those with loved ones in the Gulf, reports now suggest that the song most requested by British troops in the days before the conflict began was JEFF WAYNE's "The Eye Of The War." And... when the UK troops' Top 100 favorite tracks were broadcast recently on the Gulf station based in Al Jubail, JOHN LENNON's "Imagine" and LED ZEPPELIN's "Stairway To Heaven" were among the first few selections, indicating a certain black humor about the situation.

Snap, Crackle & Pop

Smash Hits reports that TURBO B has recruited a new singer called LADY JAY to the ranks of SNAP. (PENNY FORD's swan song with the band is the track "Keep It Up" from the "Rocky V" soundtrack — released in the UK this week.)

Incidentally, SNAP's "The Power" is getting what you might call a plug as it's being used to help boost the image of the UK electricity generating company Powergen and National Power, who are using it in TV commercials. Does that make it a recurrent?

Album Title O' The Week

Finally, Album Title O' The Week goes to veteran English jazzier RONNIE SCOTT, who debuts his Jazz House label with his first LP in more than a decade. Taped at his famous Friih Street club, the disc's called "Never Put A Burning Dog." Sound advice.

KKFR, KOY-FM, KZZP PROFILED

A Fight To The Finish In Phoenix

What does Phoenix have in common with New York and Los Angeles? It's one of only three major markets playing host to three current-intensive CHR's with competitive ratings.

In the fall '90 Arbitron, KKFR (Power 92) scored 4.1-4.1, KOY-FM (Y95) posted 4.7-4.0, and KZZP moved 4.3-3.8 to rank ninth, tenth, and eleventh, respectively. The fall Birch showed KKFR (6.8-6.0) and KOY-FM (6.1-5.0) dropping, while KZZP gained (4.3-4.9). The trio ranked fourth, sixth, and seventh, respectively; KZZP tied with Country KMLE.

Last year, the third CHR in several markets (e.g., KCPX/Salt Lake City, WRQX/Washington, KROY/Sacramento) abandoned ship. And as '91 picks up steam, many programmers are predicting that markets will only be able to support one successful CHR. So how can three CHR's survive and prosper in Phoenix? Not one of these PDs thinks it's possible. Yet all three vow their stations will stay with the format.

Whatever It Takes

Power 92 PD Steve Smith declared, "Phoenix is a CHR war zone. It's the most competitive battle I've ever been in. Programming KNRJ/Houston was tough, but this is a smaller market that's being cut up more dramatically by three CHR's that'll do whatever it takes to win. To compete, we hit the streets and focus on the 12-34 dance audience, particularly females. We've brought the station to the people with concerts and free shows that reflect the tastes of our audience."

Jay Stevens

"All of us sound the same in the listeners' minds, and our research backs that up. They really don't know who they're listening to. That's why we're all virtually tied."

— Jay Stevens

Steve Smith

"While I applaud KZZP for taking a more mass-appeal route as an 18-34-targeted station, it's not our main competitor — Y95 is."

— Steve Smith

Smith pointed to the recent "Powerhouse II Concert" (12/10/90), which was held in a 300-seat theater. All tickets were free and could only be obtained by winning them on Power 92. The "Power Artist" lineup included: Tony! Toni! Tone!, Elisa Fiorillo, Snap, P.C. Quest, Guys Next Door, Hi-Five, Trinere, Candi & The Backbeat, Bobby Ross Avila, and Surface.

"We also hit the high schools every day and put people live on air on Friday and Saturday nights," Smith continued. "Afternoon guy Super Snake often does his show from the van at local events. [Night personality] Paco Lopez, who came with me from Houston, also does his show from the van and hangs in the streets with the kids. Our plan is to make as many personal impressions with the audience as possible."

"I truly believe the rest of the airstaff is the best in the market. Their strength will make us unstoppable in the future. Scott Throver from WEGX/Philadelphia was teamed with Danny Bonaduce & Kelly Boom in mornings. I acquired Tim Byrd for middays from VH-1 and brought in Mike Reynolds, who worked with me years ago at (crosstown) KUKQ, to do a Sunday night R&B show."

Without enough funds for year-round outdoor advertising, Broadcast Group-owned KKFR did launch a five-week fall TV schedule focusing on its image as "The Valley's official dance music station." Smith also dug out the "Beat The Bomb Contest" in which listeners had 9.2 seconds to name the title and artist of songs heard the previous hour. Each correct recall was worth $100; anyone who came up with eight correct answers in any order grabbed $1000.

"Power 92 is Phoenix's radio station," Smith noted. "While Y95 doesn't talk over intros, we use that time to communicate with the audience. It makes us much more relatable. While I applaud KZZP for taking a more mass-appeal route as an 18-34-targeted station, it's not our main competitor — Y95 is."

"Between Power 92 and Y95, there are at least eight and possibly more shares to win. Unfortunately, two of us are sharing much of the same audience. As far as I'm concerned, we've done the impossible and are very proud of our success. We work around the clock to win in Phoenix."

Frustrating Yet Rewarding

For outgoing Y95 PD Jay Stevens, who's just about to take the PD chair at WPGC/Washington, it's been a frustrating yet rewarding stint. (Editor's note: KOY-FM's new PD is Rick Thomas.) "No one has grabbed a commanding lead, [but] it's not because Y95, Power 92, or KZZP sound bad. All of us sound the same in the listeners' minds, and our research backs that up. They really don't know who they're listening to. That's why we're all virtually tied."

Whoever succeeds Stevens will be armed with fresh research: "We're conducting another perceptual study to find out what's missing from CHR in Phoenix. Then we can more specifically pinpoint listeners' expectations. We've always been known for our outrageous presentation and attitude, but we can't get big numbers. That's been very frustrating. One of our high points was grabbing [morning man] Bruce Kelly away from KZZP. Those folks who sampled Bruce eventually leveled out, and the audience settled back into its old patterns. It seems no matter what you do with CHR in this market no one can grab the elusive eight or nine share."

For that to happen, Stevens feels one station will have to drop out of CHR. "Otherwise the remaining CHR's have no chance of becoming profitable. The economy is horrible. We're just shooting at each other and not making any headway or money in the process."

Comparing his rivals' programming postures to Y95's, Stevens said, "KZZP is a vanilla, Midwest-sounding CHR playing very little dance or Urban. We tried that when I first got here, and it didn't work. And I don't think KZZP will make it either. We call Power 92 'Thumpin' 92' because of its Hispanic/dance lean. It plays too many remixes and extended mixes. Y95 plays the best of the Hispanic music and more adult Urban crossovers in daytime to appeal to 25-34 females; at night we lean toward teens."

Taking a different promotional tack with the Edens station, Stevens opted for "smaller cash blitzes" during the fall sweep. "We'd go to street corners and hand out $5 bills to the first 1000 listeners who showed up. We did the same with T-shirts. Both promotions were effective; in fact, listeners would kill more for the shirts than the cash. In previous books we handed out Y95 refrigerator magnets. If we knocked on your door, you had a magnet, and the station was on, you'd win $1000. We had lots of winners. We even bought Paula Abdul's jeep, which she autographed, and gave that away. But there were still no big numbers to break away from the pack."

Despite Stevens' disappointment at not winning big, he looks at Y95 as a positive experience. "After two and a half years, I've learned patience. In an over-radioed market like this, success doesn't happen overnight. People are very passive about radio. And since this is such an outdoor-oriented market, radio isn't as important as in other cities where I've worked. I'm looking forward to WPGC and Washington, where the audience is more passionate about music and radio."

'Fun In '91'

After years of helming New Haven's lone CHR, WKCI (KC101), new KZZP PD Stef Rybak had only eight weeks under his belt when I asked for his market observations. "Power 92 is very rhythmic in its approach. There are few mainstream CHR records, but it has lots of Hispanic appeal and [plays] extended dance mixes. Y95 sounds much more Urban to me. That means there's a large window of opportunity for KZZP to be pop-oriented and mainstream, playing the hits they can't or won't play. We're fortunate to have great records by Nelson, Sting, Wilson Phillips, INXS, Breathe, George Michael, and Phil Collins to set us apart."

Rybak has also studied the market's recent past. "A couple of years ago, KZZP was the only real CHR in the market. Then two dance CHR's entered, KKFR and KOY-FM. They eroded our ten share to 6.0 and eventually to 2.9. The big mistake we made was to compete with our rivals on their level."

And longtime morning man Bruce Kelly's defection to Y95 spelled additional headaches for KZZP. "It was a messy divorce. But that was a year ago, and we're now showing signs of growth. It's my gut feeling that the tastes of the CHR audience have passed through the heavy dance/rap phase and are swinging back into a mainstream vibe. For that reason alone I not only think we can get a six share but can do much better down the road. Add to that our call letter recognition, the tremendous resources of Nationwide Broadcasting, and its commitment to put KZZP back on top."

Rybak believes promotions that "cut through the clutter with an exciting positive feel" will help make a difference in listeners' perception of KZZP. For example: "Every station in America did a Super Bowl contest. But KZZP held its own Super Bowl party during which a listener not only won a trip to see the game but also a trip the following week to the Pro Bowl in Hawaii. We also gave one listener a complete Super Bowl party for 25 friends at his house, complete with catered food, a big-screen TV to keep, and live halftime entertainment. We hired a local high school band to march up and down the winner's street.

"For Elvis Presley's birthday one of my morning guys, John Machay, dressed as Elvis, went to a Dunkin' Donuts, and handed out donuts stuffed with $100 bills. We also offered a $1 million reward if the real Elvis stopped by. In recognition of the January 15 United Nations deadline, we did a "Shine Your Lights For Peace" promotion. It was designed for motorists to show support for our servicemen. We even invited all the other Phoenix stations to join us. And at 7am and 10pm on the day of the deadline, we played the 'Star-Spangled Banner' and again asked other stations to join us.

"We have genuine, bright, exciting personalities who are very involved with the community. KZZP is very much a part of our listeners' active lifestyles; KZZP is very much a foreground radio station. For instance, as of January 1 seat belts became mandatory in Arizona. We tied in with public safety officials and awarded $100 to people who were spotted wearing belts. Twice an hour we run 'Phoe-

How The 'Big R' Affects Programming

In last week's column, GMs at three prominent Northeast AORs discussed the financial consequences of the current recession and the strategies they're using to handle the situation. Now it's programming's turn.

Masters: We Can't Say No

"The biggest thing I've learned in the past year and a half is that the word 'no' just doesn't exist," says WAQY/Springfield, MA PD Keith Masters. "You cannot turn down money. Where you'd normally want to say 'no' to half the sales promotions that come across your desk, just because you don't want to clutter your radio station, you don't have that option. You've got to get that business at all costs."

"So your challenge is to come up with creative ways to combine things and avoid clutter. If they come at you with a totally stupid idea, you've got to turn that idea in to something that'll at least work partially for you. That's where I try to give the salespeople suggestions before they hit the streets. That way I can try to seed a few of my ideas and accomplish some of my goals."

"The perfect world has always been one major promotion and two minor promotions. But we've had as many as four or five things going on at the same time. To deal with that, you have to look into the crystal ball and always make sure you know what's coming up. And you have to tell your salespeople. We've got a lot of activity coming up, so you're going to need to get to us quickly with what you want to do."

"We've tried to train people to know that if they don't give us a lot

"The biggest thing I've learned in the past year and a half is that the word 'no' just doesn't exist."

—Keith Masters

of lead time, they're not going to get a lot of liners. The salespeople have done a pretty good job of getting across to the clients that we have to have lead time because there's only so much space."

Even with careful planning and organization, today's "every client gets a promotion" atmosphere is bound to present scheduling problems every now and then. "All of a sudden you've got a five-gallon bucket you're trying to fit six gallons into," Masters says. "A lot of it is working with the jocks and making sure they keep the TSL goal in mind. They need to know exactly what we're up against to make sure they don't go haywire with five-minute breaks, and that they're concentrating on forward momentum to create excitement about what's coming up."

Assessing Liner Avals

How do you know when you're out of room? Masters says it all comes down to simple mathematics: "You have a finite amount of liner space available to you, based on how your clocks are set up. I look at the liners the same way the traffic department sets up the logs. If you've got three liner avals an hour and you've got 18 hours in a business day, you've got 54 liner avals a day. If you can keep track of how many you've committed to a particular promotion, then you have an idea of how much room you have."

"When I first got to Springfield I asked the acting PD, 'Where's your liner log?' And he had no idea of what I was talking about. There was a stack of liners in the studio and the jocks were just rotating them at will."

The slow economy has forced AQY to watch expenditures more closely than ever before. "You've got to go over everything you do with a microscope twice to make sure there's no fat and that you're not spending any money you can't defend 100%," Masters says. "We had hopes of doing some music research for the first time. But eventually we decided we'd just have to do without it. We'd also planned to expand the promotion and marketing budgets, but we ended up with a lot less than we'd hoped we'd have. So we had to be a lot wiser about how we spent the money we did have."

"Instead of having 20 billboards, we bought three major billboards covering all the major interstate arteries. The beauty of it was: We only had three billboards up, but they were in such good locations that after four or five months people were reacting as if we'd had 20 or 30 billboards up."

Bittens: Power Of Positive Thinking

"Our approach to this whole thing is that it's all in people's minds, and that a positive attitude is the perfect antidote," reasons WHCN/Hartford PD Bob Bittens. "These things tend to have a lemming, or domino, or snowball effect — pick your favorite metaphor. People believe there's a recession, so they spend less money. They spend less money, so the GNP goes down. It's a vicious cycle. So our attitude all along has been not to cut back. When everyone else is cutting back, the smart people do more, and we like to think of ourselves as the smart people."

"We have not increased inventory. That's something we just won't do. We run a max of nine units an hour. We haven't cut back on promotion and research budgets. We have become smarter about how we spend those dollars. We're trying to make sure that every dollar we spend on promotion is properly targeted and has a demonstrable cause-and-effect relationship. Around here belt-tightening means spending your money more smartly. It doesn't mean spending less money. We've become experts in getting our clients to give us free shit."

Avoiding Liner Hell

- Plan well in advance
- Keep salespeople informed
- Use a liner log
- Plug clients into existing features
- Use multiple clients in each promotion

Like Masters, Bittens has been bombarded with client promotions. "It's gone from, 'Hey, we're buying your station — if you can help us out we'd really appreciate it,' to, 'We have X number of dollars to spend in your market — who's going to bend over the farthest?' I've got scars on my ankles from holding on so tight."

"So what we do is treat promotional inventory much the same way sales treats commercial inventory. The clients that spend the most dollars get the most promotional commitment, and when we're sold out promotionally we're sold out. We don't overpromise. We want to be effective."

"What we also try to do is look at ourselves as the HCN promotional train. If a client's looking for some value-added promotion, we find a car for it to hop on. We try not to be driven by sales promotions; we try to fit clients to our promotional needs."

"Of course, that's not always possible. That's the ideal. Sure, we have to deal with stuff like, 'Okay, we're Budweiser. Change your call letters to WBUD and we'll give you a $50,000 buy.'"

'Liner Hell'

"I do have to admit that occasionally we get into liner hell," Bittens continues. "There's no way to avoid it. We reach maximum density a lot more than we ever did before. We used to have a 'no liner drill' to prepare for those times when there were no liners and it was up to the jocks to find interesting things to talk about. That never happens anymore."

To avoid 'liner hell,' HCN tries to plug clients into already-existing station features. "For example, our morning guys do a daily trivia feature, and we'll tie a client into that," Bittens explains. "That way we can get the client mentions out of the way while promoting station features, so it doesn't add additional baggage. We're already going to be talking about the trivia game, so we mention the client in conjunction with that."

"Sure, the state of the economy forces us to be a little more creative, but we still don't take shit. We won't do a bad promotion just for the sake of doing a promotion. We will find a way to make it interesting."

Erdahl: Gettin' Tough

"The motto we're living by right now is: Tough times don't last."

Jon Erdahl

"Tough people do," says WGIR/Manchester, NH Station Manager Jon Erdahl, who's also had to juggle an ever-increasing amount of sales promotions. He says the best way to avoid promotional clutter is to "plan your events way in advance and look for creative ways to tie in as many clients as you can with each promotion."

"We have a basic two-year plan in effect right now, and everyone always knows what's coming up. The salespeople can look at the game plan and say, 'How can we get so-and-so involved in this?' That way we can absorb all the extra stuff that comes in, rather than give each client its own separate promotion.

Another major effect of the recession, according to Erdahl, is its impact on nighttime listening patterns.

"A lot of companies have cut out their third shifts, which has had a direct impact on our 7pm-5am audience. It's affected AQH, TSL, and persons using radio. There are fewer listeners, and fewer people locking in for long periods of time. We were getting people listening for eight hours a crack. Now it's much more fragmented. And the listeners who are available tend to be younger than ever before. To try

In the last two years, the increased awareness about AOR as a mass appeal approach to radio has changed its image throughout the industry.

As AOR radio continues to attract larger listenership across the country, other contemporary formats are reevaluating everything from presentation to the amount of album tracks they need to play.

There are different styles of successful album-oriented rock, but the one thing they all have in common is targeting to more than just a small segment of the audience.

I feel the full impact of AOR radio has yet to be realized.

WEDR Triumphs With Tradition

New Tower And Power Boost Presentation, Community Focus

For two years now, Miami's two UCs have faced off in an all-out, old-fashioned radio war. Since WEDR's April tower upgrade and subsequent rise to the top of the ratings, its rivalry with WHQT has changed, but its reliance on traditional Black radio values hasn't.

New Old Attitude

WEDR VP/GM Jerry Rushin, a Miami native, has been with WEDR for 20 of its 22 years as an Urban outlet. He noted, "With playlists basically the same, give or take a couple of records, presentation is key to what's happening here."

"We were in trouble for a while, because I was hung up on thinking that the kind of Black radio I knew and loved couldn't work any more. Everyone in Black radio was doing the 'Less Talk More Music' approach that was new then, but that wasn't the kind of Black radio I knew — and it wasn't the right approach for us. At that point, with the competition getting right in and out of their records and stopsets, I decided we could do some of those things while still saying hello to folks in our community."

"We pay attention when we go to clubs, and we let people tell us what music they like."

"We went back to traditional Black radio, with certain upgrades. Now we're known as '99 Jamz,' as well as WEDR. Combined with our traditional approach, this established a difference between the two stations, even though we were basically playing the same music."

"For a while we could only be heard in a third of this market, but with our new tower and power, we're heard over the entire survey area. The rest of what's happening for both UC stations is just a result of black music's current popularity."

Homegrown Research

WEDR's music research systems reflect the station's traditional attitude. Rushin explained, "We do our own research because we're all active in the community and at different events all over the city. If we're in the park and we hear music from a boombox, we'll ask about it. We pay attention when we go to clubs, and we let people tell us what music they like."

"Because we're known, people come up to us and say, 'I love that song by so and so.' When people tell you what they like, you know they like it. We also look at phone requests, some trades, and local retail. We don't hire kids to do other types of research. Because we come in contact with so many people, we have a feel for what music should be on the air. Plus, our PD, James T., sits down with his staff and asks for feedback all the time. That's a tremendous resource. But we don't use any high-tech methods."

Forging Ties

Rushin explained how WEDR forges closer ties with its audience by its treatment of the various afflictions in the community. "In Dade County/Miami, black people constantly face struggles and battles — drugs, homelessness, police brutality, housing problems, unemployment, and on and on. You name it, it's happening here to black folks. We deal with these

RATINGS

Bigger Piece Of The Pie

Overall, UC commanded nearly 17 Birch 12+ shares in the Miami market this past fall. In Arbitron the stations were responsible for over ten shares.

In the fall '90 Arbitron, WEDR climbed 5.5-6.2 for second place overall behind B/EZ WLYF (6.8-8.1). But it was No. 1 18-34 and 25-54, while WHQT dropped to eighth overall on a 5.5-4.1 dip, coming in fourth 18-34 and thirteenth 25-54.

In Birch 12+ rankings, however, WHQT rose 7.9-8.6 for first place, while WEDR nabbed the second slot with a dramatic 5.8-8.1 improvement. WEDR came in first 18-49 and 25-54, while WHQT was first among 18-34s and second in the other two cells.

"The major difference is that we're always there for the community. It's not like we just step in for a moment — and then we're gone."

things on the air in prime time with community discussions.

"These are ongoing problems, and we deal with them in an ongoing manner. People here realize we're doing what we can to solve some of these problems and help our people in South Florida. Since there's no black television station or news outlet here, our audience appreciates us for the things we do and our involvement on their behalf. We're seen not just as a form of entertainment, but as a friend."

"I know we share some audience with 'Hot 105,' but our audience has what I call a loyalty factor. When it comes to a black person being approached by phone or through the mail, I think we have the edge because of that loyalty. The major difference is that we're always there for the community. It's not like we just step in for a moment — and then we're gone."

WHQT Welcomes An Expanding 'Urban Universe'

WHQT (Hot 105) Miami PD Keith Isley takes an upbeat view of the newly equalized contest. "This is the first time this market has had two full-signal Urban stations. Rather than one station simply taking audience from another, the entire 'Urban Universe' has become larger here. That's a real positive sign for both stations."

WEDR's been very popular here in the past, but has always suffered because its signal didn't cover the entire market. About nine months ago it gained signal parity with Miami's other major FM, which accounts for part of its ratings gains.

WEDR and WHQT employ different formats to accomplish their respective goals, Isley says. "We've always been a music-intensive radio station, but we do have a talky, high-profile morning show. The rest of our day is pretty much nonstop music with quick, brief jocks."

"WEDR is personality-oriented all day long. That's a key difference. We're kind of tight and high-tech, for lack of a better term, and they have kind of a folksy presentation. WEDR is the city's heritage Black station, and they're closely tied into South Florida's black population. They do a lot of public service things throughout their programming.

Keith Isley

"Both stations have a large common playlist, and there's a tremendous amount of sharing. The stations share around 60-70% of their cume. People clearly have a choice now, and somehow each station has made the other one better. Thanks to this hard-fought battle, if you want to keep up with what's happening in this city, you have to tune in to both stations — or you might miss something."

WHEEL TO POWER — WHQT/Miami morning co-host Isley (of Mindy & Malo) presents a lucky HOT 105 listener with a new Toyota MR-2.

Blind Faith

Handicapped Personality Overcomes Industry Short-sightedness

Bernie Eagan puts in a full week as APD/MD/PM driver for WENS/Indianapolis. He's been a fixture at the Emmis station since July 1981. The dedicated employee also enjoys movies, spending time with his wife and two sons, reading, and bike riding. Oh, one more thing: Eagan has been blind since birth.

"I didn't get into this business because I'm blind — I got into it because I liked it," he remarked. "In the summer of '67, I was ten years old. The music was great, and this industry was exciting. WLS (Chicago) and (crosstown CHR archival) WCFL were hot. I could hear them at night, and they sounded like they were having a great time. I thought, 'That's what I want to do.'"

Eagan never wavered from that desire. Able to get a taste of on-air work at Ball State University (he and David Letterman are proud alumni), Eagan was quickly introduced to employer prejudice and bias following his college graduation. "I had many promises for jobs. But after I graduated, stations didn't want to hire me. The toughest thing I went through was being rejected by people who knew what I could do. Many people really don't think you can do it. They say, 'You sound good, but I don't know if you can run our equipment.' If I were looking today, I'm sure I'd face the same thing."

One prospective employer promised Eagan a job and never followed through. "He called me several years later and apologized. It really took a lot for him to tell me he had cold feet and was sorry."

No Special Provisions

Memory, of course, plays a major factor in how Eagan executes his airshift. "I label the board with clear tape so I know where I'm going and what I'm doing. After a while, though, it's automatic. I don't want anybody at the station to make provisions for me."

Chris, Eagan's wife of nearly ten years, and midday announcer Allan Cook pitch in by reading logs. "You don't want to need help — you want to do things on your own," said Eagan. "(PD) Joel Grey is also very good about reading me memos that corporate sends. He's been great to work for and has a lot of trust in my ability."

Waiting until he'd been at WENS for three years, Eagan finally admitted to his bosses that one addition would come in quite handy. "I had no idea when the request line was ringing. They connected a buzzer that mutes when the mike is

More Gulf Gems

AC radio continues to rally support for troops stationed in the Persian Gulf:

- WCCK/Erie, PA dubbed listener greetings into Lee Greenwood's "God Bless The USA." According to GM Rich Homburg, "Several service people who were getting married requested that a copy of the song be played at their ceremonies."

- WCCK co-sponsored card-signing events at Erie Panthers hockey games and at a local department store. The station and store donated money to the USO for each signature collected.

- It took 55 hours for KSSK/Honolulu personality Mary Clark to reach Saudi Arabia, but he finally arrived. His mission: to do daily call-ins from the desert.

- KODM/Odessa, TX solicited donations for toiletries, soap, games, batteries, cassette tapes, and non-specialty food. Over 7000 items were collected and airlifted directly to the troops by the 82nd Airborne Division.

- KFMB-FM/San Diego and local merchants helped provide services (such as free car repairs and dinners) to spouses and families.

- KLSY/Seattle added the "Homefront Hotline," enabling listeners to call in and record messages to the troops. The station is also giving away American flag replicas, airing ABC "Persian Gulf Updates" every hour, and has produced a version of "What The World Needs Now" interspersed with listener comments.

- Each day WSTC/Stamford, CT plays a rendition of the National Anthem sung a cappella by the Stamford High School Choir. "It was a way to localize our anthem in this time of impending global conflicts," remarked PD Kevin Tobin.

turned on. It's worked fine."

Incidents such as the recent Persian Gulf developments don't throw many curves for Eagan. "We monitored CNN, I can write very quickly, and can listen to two things at once. I'm not distracted by things I look at — sometimes that's an advantage."

To others in similar situations, Eagan emphasized the need for self-sufficiency. "You have to assure the person making the hiring decision that you don't need a great deal of special consideration. In this business, there's always someone else who can do your job. You won't get the job if the boss has to spend extra time with you."

Charles In Charge . . . Of His Life

WDLT's Cochran Presses Forward With Bone Marrow Campaign

Six months ago, I introduced you to WDLT/Mobile PD Sam Cochran, whose blood marrow donation is credited with saving the life of a 16-year-old Minnesota youth. That young man — known to Cochran as simply "Charles" — was dying of leukemia.

When I talked to Cochran in August, he had reason to be optimistic: Charles's body was producing its own white blood cells. My recent follow-up call indicated Charles's prognosis is good, and more radio stations are getting involved in what proved to be a heartwarming story.

On The Road Again

Although disappointed that he hasn't heard from Charles or his mother, Cochran understands why there's been no communication. "I don't want them to feel like they owe me anything. They're probably not sure what to say or do. I respect their decision; I was just glad to give something back because I've been so fortunate."

Several weeks ago, bone marrow bank Heart of America (responsible for bringing Cochran and Charles together) invited Cochran to speak at a bone marrow drive in nearby Pascagoula, MS for former state legislator Pat Presley. "He's also dying of leukemia," Cochran said. "They wanted me to speak about what it's like to be a donor."

According to Cochran, organizers of Pascagoula's drive weren't aware of how to effectively utilize the media. "They called television stations and newspapers — but no radio stations. I drove to stations servicing Pascagoula. I met with WQID GM Robbie Hamilton, who was incredible. WQID spent a week hammering the event. WKNN PD Rick Mize did the same thing. It's amazing because stations were just starting their coverage on the war in the Middle East. The bone marrow drive was successful because radio stations got involved and were committed. In all honesty, I've never seen anything like it."

Registering Help

Still carrying celebrity status in Mobile, Cochran is gratified when he can use it to Heart of America's advantage. "I was renting a movie, and a lady asked if I was the person who gave the bone marrow. We talked for about five minutes and said goodbye. That woman made the hour trip to Pascagoula and was tested for the Pat Presley drive. I was quite touched. In that respect, it's been fun to have the chance to talk to people about how they can help."

While Cochran was in Pascagoula, Heart of America enlisted him for another speaking engagement in New Orleans. "I was one of four people at a press conference. One of the four had leukemia; he received a donation and is doing fine. Another person was looking for a donor. Also in attendance was Dr. Darnell Thomas, the 1990 Nobel Peace Prize winner for medicine, who's done so much to fight leukemia."

Six months ago, Cochran pointed out there were 150,000 people in Heart of America's ten-year-old national register. Now there are nearly 250,000 names. Noted Cochran, "The goal is to have one million people, and I think it's easily attainable within the next few years."

Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids

Programmers Explain Why You Should, Too

After returning from a trip to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis and settling down to write this column, I realized something. I wished I were a real writer — one who could transform raw emotion into masterful prose capable of motivating people into action.

The occasion was a gathering of more than 80 Country radio folks from over 40 stations. The purpose was to acquaint them with the hospital's work and facilities in preparation for their participation in the "Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids" radiothon.

Among the activities was a tour through the wards and outpatient care units. As I wrote last year following my tour, it's an incredibly moving experience. I found myself saying prayers of thanks for having healthy children and hardly able to wait to get home and hug them.

their PDs "don't want to break format."

Totally Flexible

I must admit this sounds a bit callous. It seems rather incongruous that something conceived to benefit children with catastrophic diseases could be subjugated to business realities. But we all know how protective PDs are of their formats.

Thus, the Memphis meeting was also designed to serve as an idea exchange. Programmers and personalities offered suggestions for making the radiothon work within the structure of a format, possibly allaying some of the fears.

One key is the flexibility of the programming provided by Houston-based Bill Young Productions. The actualities, concert segments, and clocks are designed to be fully adaptable to almost any station, despite the tightness of its format.

Before turning over the argument to a few programmers who've previously participated in this event, I'd like to remind you of something KILT-AM & FM/Houston OM Rick Candea said to me. Though he was referring to Operation Desert Storm updates, it's more than applicable here: "There are some things more important than '12 in a row.'" The Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids radiothon is one of them.

A Human Decision

WQBE/Charleston, WV has aired the radiothon twice with tremendous success in terms of money raised and station image. Explaining his involvement, OM Jeff Whitehead said, "It seems so obvious; I can't understand why somebody wouldn't want to participate. It's a decision made as a human being, not as a programmer or manager. If the prospect of helping to save a child's life doesn't do something to you, then maybe there's something wrong with you."

Whitehead, one of the speakers at the Memphis meeting, said he's frustrated with PDs who cite not wanting to deviate from normal programming as a reason not to carry the radiothon. "It's another case of PDs programming for other PDs and not for listeners. Listeners don't care if you break a sweep as long as you put something substantial in its place. And saving a child's life is more important than any record you could play."

"Country stations aren't dealing with fickle teens; our adult audience cares about what's happening in their world. They want to hear music, but they realize that some things are more important."

Whitehead noted, however, that his station doesn't sound that much different during the radiothon. "We

"Who can fault you for raising money for sick kids? Nobody can tell me it hurts your ratings."

maintain the format for about the first three-quarters of the weekend. Near the end — as listeners and staffers fully realize what we're involved in — emotion takes over, the phones don't stop ringing, and there's a greater emphasis on what we're trying to accomplish."

Whitehead said feedback on the event is phenomenal and carries on

Hopping Aboard The 'Country Cares' Caravan

The "Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids" radiothon is designed as a local event with support elements contained in a customizable package. Though the big push is for stations to air it in February, many choose to air it at other times of the year.

The radiothon began as a national event when Alabama's Randy Owen challenged Country Radio Seminar attendees two years ago. KLAC/Los Angeles PD Gene Bridges picked up the gauntlet and was instrumental in bringing together the various parties.

These stations are among the many participants (number of years each has been involved appears in parentheses): WYAI & WYAY/Atlanta (3), WKJN/Baton Rouge (5), WQBE/Charleston, WV (2), WUSY/Chattanooga (3), WUSN/Chicago (2), WSTH/Columbus, GA (6), WWWW/Detroit (2), WMSU/Jackson, MS (8), WRNS/Kinston, NC (3), WAMZ/Louisville (3), WOW/Omaha (2), WPAP/Panama City, FL (3), WIL/St. Louis (2), KSON/San Diego (3), WCHY/Savannah (3), KMPS/Seattle (3), KORK/Spokane (3), and WOYK/Tampa (3).

Among those holding radiothons for the first time this year are KGFC/Boise, WYRK/Buffalo, WCAO/Baltimore, KPLX/Dallas, KYGO/Denver, KLAC, WYYD/Lynchburg, WSIX/Nashville, KRAK/Sacramento, and KSNAN/San Francisco.

long after the radiothon is over. "People call or tell us at remotes for months afterward how touched they were by what we did. Promotions peak and are over; the radiothon peaks but never ends."

What Radio Does Best

WCXI & WWWW/Detroit OM Barry Mardit admitted he had to be talked into doing his first radiothon last year. "But as soon as it was over, there was no doubt we'd be involved on a yearly basis. This utilizes the medium for what it was designed for and what it does best: touching people."

"We spend every day telling listeners about this great thing we believe in called '12 in a row.' When we set that aside for something we believe is more important, they realize how important it is and readily accept it."

As for stations in competitive situations, Mardit said, "The station that doesn't do the radiothon is the loser. What's the competition going to say — 'They're saving kids' lives, but we're playing more music'? In a side-by-side comparison, the station with the radiothon is building an image with a long-lasting, residual 'halo' effect. Who can fault you for raising money for sick kids? Nobody can tell me it hurts your ratings."

Building Cume

Although KSON-AM & FM/San Diego is widely regarded as one of the more tightly formatted and successful Country combos, the radiothon has become a programming staple. APD/afternoon driver Mike Brady said, "For us, it's not a question of hurting the station; I can't imagine not doing it. It's become a tremendous positive; the audience is really behind it and that produces ongoing dividends."

"Rather than cost the stations audience, it works just the opposite, largely because we take the event outside the stations. Placing it in a high-visibility area, such as a mall, increases cume because people will stop by out of curiosity,

"It's a chance for our personalities to be real people and bond with the audience."

—Mike Brady

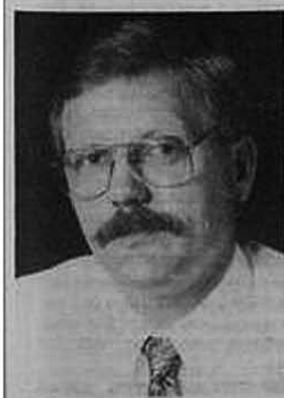

Their initial reaction is always positive; they react to the fact we're doing something good.

"Both new cumers and regular listeners also get a feel for KSON as something other than a jukebox. It's a chance for our personalities to be real people and bond with the audience."

Editor's Comments

The only other thing I can add is that the pairing of Country radio and St. Jude's kids is a natural. It takes work to smoothly integrate all the provided elements so your station's sound is consistent with your regular product. But it can be done — and you can make a difference.

If you'd like more information on how you can get involved, call St. Jude's Ouida Fulgham at (800) 877-5833.

Labels To Phase Out Vinyl Singles To Radio

Beginning next month, Arista/Nashville will be the first of what may soon be a growing number of labels to service only CD singles to Country radio.

The announcement came in a letter dated last Thursday (1/24) that stated, "Arista Records is happy to announce that as of March 1, we will begin servicing the universe with CD singles. This change is in direct response to your request for the superior sound quality available through the use of CDs. You will no longer receive vinyl singles."

Sr. Director/Promotion & Artist Development Allen Butler explained to R&R that despite vinyl service, many stations call to request CDs, resulting in cost-ineffective double mailings. Butler added, "We want to do the best thing for all the stations."

The letter asked stations that are not CD-capable to contact the label immediately. Those stations will receive vinyl "jukebox" copies, but will get them "a week to ten days after the initial radio release," according to Butler.

Here's what other major labels are doing:

• RCA/Nashville currently services about 380 stations on its "primary" radio list (trade reporters and other key stations) with both vinyl and CD singles. The "secondary" stations (nonreporters) receive vinyl only. In a few weeks, though, the label will begin phasing out vinyl service to the primary list. VP/Promotion Ed Mascolo is currently surveying stations, and a decision on vinyl's fate will be made when he gets the results.

• Capitol/Nashville is presently shipping vinyl and CD singles to its "A" list. The label's "bulk" mailing stations (about 2500 nonreporters) receive vinyl only. Within the next few months, VP/Promotion Bill Catino plans to phase out vinyl to the company's primary stations, except the few that still have vinyl-only capabilities. He'll continue to service secondary stations with vinyl.

• MCA/Nashville services its primary stations with CD singles only. Secondary stations receive vinyl singles. VP/Promotion Sheila Shipley says this practice will continue until "the cost of the CD single is no longer prohibitive." MCA has started using a thinner Jewel box as a cost-saving measure.

• Sony/Nashville has sent only CD singles to about 900 stations on its "A" list for about a year. Another 1400 stations receive vinyl only. Epic VP/Promotion Jack Lamer said he too is awaiting the results of a radio survey before a decision regarding vinyl is made. He noted that the label's New York office services no vinyl at all.

• Warner Bros./Nashville began servicing either CDs or vinyl singles, but not both, to about 2200 stations last fall. Sr. VP/Sales & Promotion Nick Hunter says about 1700 of those stations currently receive vinyl, but adds he'd "gladly" phase it out as more stations become CD-capable.

• PolyGram/Nashville sends only CD singles to about 400 stations on its primary list. About 1300 "tertiary" stations receive vinyl only. VP/Promotion Bobby Young says he'll continue to provide vinyl until he's "directed otherwise." He added he'll soon survey stations about their needs.

• Curb Country services its "A" list with both vinyl and CD singles, though the CD sometimes takes the form of a compilation sampler. Secondary stations receive vinyl only.

• Atlantic/Nashville services vinyl and CDs to its primary list and vinyl to secondary markets.

Oaks On Soundtrack

• The soundtrack for "My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys," the forthcoming movie starring Scott Glenn, Kate Capshaw, Gary Busey, and Mickey Rooney, will include the Oak Ridge Boys' "(You Are My) Soul And Inspiration." The film will also include tunes from Lorie Morgan, Paul Overstreet, Restless Heart, Clint Black, Foster & Lloyd, Keith Whitley, Alabama, Baillie & The Boys, and Willie Nelson. Nelson's song, the title track, was also part of the "Electric Horseman" soundtrack. The Oaks will perform at the movie's premiere in Oklahoma City (2/26).

Bits & Pieces

• Lee Greenwood's "God Bless The U.S.A." is being rereleased by MCA because of its surge in popularity during Operation Desert Storm. CD singles were shipped this week not only to Country stations, but to ACs and CHRs as well.

PHOTO OPRY-TUNITY — Chet Atkins (l) and Clint Black were caught killing time at the Grand Ole Opry's 65th anniversary show. Black was inducted as the 66th member of the Opry at the proceedings.

• Alan Jackson recently donated the first radio he ever listened to to the Country Music Hall Of Fame. The radio, made famous in his single "Chasin' That Neon Rainbow," was won by his father in a contest at the Pepsi plant in his hometown of Newman, GA.

• The Texas Tornados will release a Spanish version of their self-titled Reprise LP this month. The group, which was nominated for a Grammy a few weeks ago, re-recorded the project in Austin with producer Bill Halverson.

NEW ARTIST FACT FILE

Billy Dean

Born: 4/2/62 Quincy, FL

Current Single: "Only Here For A Little While"

Current Album: "Young Man"

Producers: Chuck Howard, Tom Shapiro

Label: Capitol/SBK

Booking: William Morris Agency/Ron Baird

Publishing: EMI Music

Musical Influences: Billy Dean Sr., Merle Haggard, Jim Reeves, Marty Robbins, James Taylor

• Background: Dean, who credits his father as a musical influence, says he can't ever remember not playing guitar and singing. At an early age he began performing in "kid bands" and with his father's band at VFW halls. At 15, he wrote his first song — a Christmas present to his mother after he was apprehended driving without a license. He later recorded the song, which became popular in jukeboxes around the region. He became a regular member of his father's band at 16, and went solo soon after — playing "acoustic" music in hotels and clubs along Florida, Alabama, and Georgia's Gulf Coast.

In '83, after attending college on a basketball scholarship and making it to the finals of the Wrangler Country Star Search, Dean moved his base of operation to Nashville. He formed a band and began playing clubs and military bases across the Southeast. He also began writing songs in earnest, and singing demos and jingles for local publishers. He appeared in a number of radio and TV commercials for Valvoline, McDonald's, and Chevrolet.

In '83, publisher Jimmy Gilmer signed Dean to SBK Publishing at the urging of Verlon Thompson, now Dean's labelmate. There Dean's songwriting flourished, and he scored cuts with Shelly West, Randy Travis, the Oak Ridge Boys, Ronnie Milsap, the Shooters, and Les Taylor.

• Signing: A fortunate chain of events resulted in Dean's first label deal. Publisher Chuck Howard and songwriter Tom Shapiro, for whom Dean had sung a number of demos, approached then-Universal President Jimmy Bowen about signing Dean. Bowen was impressed enough to offer him a deal. Then EMI bought SBK Publishing. Bowen moved to Capitol Records (owned by EMI), and Jimmy Gilmer segued to the new SBK production company. Dean was signed to the resulting Capitol/SBK configuration, and Howard and Shapiro were asked to produce his debut album. Dean says, "The stars lined up in my favor."

• Songs: Dean co-wrote five of the album's ten songs, including the title cut. Regarding that cut and the album's theme, he said, "We couldn't have picked a better title for the album. This is basically my philosophy of life and the stage I'm in right now. The idea came from my elders — 'Young man, take my advice... enjoy life while you can!'"

PERFORMING WHERE PLAYED is a weekly listing of those records in New & Active and Significant Action which have a total of 25 or more reports with at least 50% of the airplay converted to chart that have not lost more than 5 stations from the previous week's total airplay. Note: See Parallels for a complete picture of all station activity. New records with large add totals won't show in Performing Where Played until those adds convert to chart numbers.
