Mr. Ronnie Jones
VP/Black Promotion
Capitol Records
Hollywood, CA

Dear Sir:

It goes without saying that BRE strongly supports Capitol Records and its artist roster.

Item: Capitol Records cover story (BRE, December 13, 1985); Item: Freddie Jackson on cover of year-end issue (BRE, December 27, 1985); and Item: Meli'sa Morgan, Album of the Week (BRE, February 14, 1986.)

In our conversation with you on Tuesday, February 4, 1986 at 8:42 p.m., you made it quite clear that the decision-making process for the placement of advertising of black product on Capitol Records is in your hands alone.

I must assume, therefore, that advertising for current product by Meli'sa Morgan and Freddie Jackson, which appears in other industry trades, was simply not allocated by you for BRE and Jack the Rapper.

Mr. Jones, for ten years BRE and Jack the Rapper have historically been at the forefront of efforts to insure that black record executives be given complete autonomy over those budgets which control their success or failure.

Thus, it is particularly disheartening to know that one among those who were empowered by our efforts is rewarding our competitors with the spoils of our victory.

Individually and collectively, BRE and Jack the Rapper have always sought to work out misunderstandings amiably. But overt acts of treason cannot be tolerated or forgiven.

Sincerely,

Sidney Miller

COMMENTARY

by Jerome Simmons

LITTLE RICHARD

In the news this week was the induction of members into "The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame." Among the initial inductees were legendary black performers Chuck Berry, James Brown, Ray Charles, Sam Cooke, Fats Domino and Little Richard. As time passes and the world officially recognizes the contributions of blacks to the music world, it's funny that all of a sudden new titles and designations ap-

This amusing, but nonetheless serious "name game," would suggest that the blacks now recognized were accepted in the early days by the white music world.

I can remember very distinctly, however, that those black acts that were inducted into "The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame" were called "Rhythm & Blues" acts. No more, no less.

In their heyday, they were not welcomed by an adoring public in the same venues; nor was their music played, for the most part, on the same stations as their white co-inductees.

Instead, they performed on the segregated "Chitterlin' Circuit" -- except for an occasional movie or TV appearance. They were admired and in the well-known "sincerest form of flattery," imitated. But their equal status in the rock and roll fold is a new version of music history -- black or otherwise.

So while I applaud this long overdue recognition, let's not rewrite history in the process. Changing the name of the music does not justify or ease the pain of not being accepted at the time these artists were at their best.

But it doesn't stop there. At the Grammys or The American Music Awards, why does a black record have to be a pop record to be "Record of the Year"? They start out as R&B, why not end up as R&B? Changing the name of the music also does not change the color of a person's skin or his roots.

We should demand that our music retain the name that most authentically reflects our heritage. And in the same vein, we should not let rewritten musical history allow us to ignore the struggle through which only the sheer enormity of black talent and creativity could persevere to ultimately become a part of "The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame."

Enough said.

'MELBA' SHOW PUT ON BACK BURNERS AFTER SECOND EPISODE; SET TO RETURN IN SPRING

No sooner had the media blitz to promote the show subsided than CBS-TV pulled "Melba," the sitcom starring singer Melba Moore, from the network's Tuesday night line-up.

The show was pulled after only the second show of a scheduled six-episode run, reportedly due to horrible ratings for the first show.

"Melba" was lined up against ABC's "Who's The Boss?" and NBC's perennial ratings collector, "The A-Team."

Moore's show only managed 7.9 million viewers, compared to "Who's The Boss?" accruing 20.2 million viewers, and "The A-Team" getting 14.1 million viewers.

"Melba" wasn't the only casualty in CBS's Tuesday night line-up. "Charlie & Company," the show following "Melba" at 8:30, which stars Flip Wilson with singer Gladys Knight, is also being yanked out of the schedule. Its ratings were even lower than those for "Melba."

Sources at CBS-TV said that both shows are slated to return to the air in the spring, and that "Trapper John, M.D." will be filling that Tuesday night slot starting Feb. 18.

RCA recording artist Mona Hendryx continues to frame herself in some of the most provocative music videos being produced.

The latest video culled from her current LP, The Heat, is "I Need Love," the second single from the LP and follow-up to "If Looks Could Kill."

The latest clip, directed by Storm Thorgeson and produced by Anthony Taylor for Greenback Films, was shot in London.

Like the last video, "I Need Love" employs the unusual and surreal visual image to propel the energy of the song.

Hendryx is on the prowl for love and finds other women experiencing it on all levels.

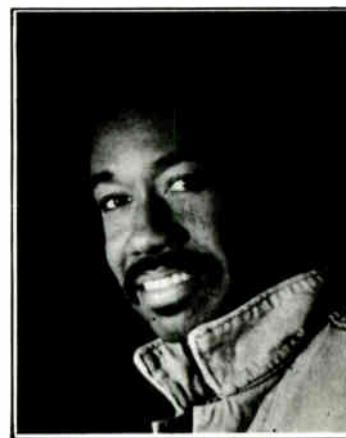

Employing a variety of settings and wardrobe changes, Hendryx epitomizes the multi-faceted dimensions of love.

"I Need You" is the second single from Earth, Wind & Fire founder Maurice White's self-titled debut LP and is also the subject of a new video by the artist.

Directed and shot by veteran music clip cinematographer Dominic Sena, the video features White sitting on a white satin curtain that blows wildly in a room that is sparsely decorated.

As White sings, the video cuts to shots of various beautiful women who represent the full range of emotion represented in "I Need You."

MAURICE WHITE

The clip cuts between black-and-white and color as the music and video build to a crescendo.

The Fat Boys have been moving from the stature of corpulent cult artists to mainstream dandies, based on their engaging videos, appearances on talk shows and, more decidedly, their roles in the Warner Bros. Pictures release of a Michael Shultz film, "Krush Groove."

A video culled from their "Krush Groove" soundtrack entry, "All You Can Eat," is a further example of how visually appetizing this trio of belly-banging rappers can truly be.

The setting is a New York City smorgasbord where (what else?) it's "All You Can Eat."

The Fat Boys come in and terrorize the establishment, nearly picking up everything on display in one passing.

It is all they can do to carry the food from the buffet to a spot of conspicuous consumption.

The Fat Boys might be considered near the middle of the pack among today's rap artists, but their Three Stooges-style visual image has attracted enough attention that they might be the centerpiece of another Michael Shultz film now in development.

It is a potent combination - The Fat Boys, rap, and food.

NATIONAL BLUES WEEK CELEBRATION SLATED

Jackson, MS: February 17-23 has been designated National Blues Week. The nationwide celebration, planned annually around Black History Month, will be observed by the Young Black Programmers Coalition, along with the National Blues Foundation, the Academy of Professional Broadcasters, the Mississippi Delta Blues Festival, and hundreds of radio stations across the country.

Organizers cite the special significance of the blues to the history and culture of black Americans as a focal point for the celebration.

Tommy Marshall, YBPC president, urges all radio programmers to actively participate in the preservation of black culture and black music by supporting National Blues Week.

MARGIE EVANS

Internationally acclaimed artist Margie Evans, known as the "Ambassador of the Blues," has been selected as the featured "Poster Artist" for National Blues Week.

Program directors of radio stations interested in running PSA tapes recorded by noted blues artists in recognition of National Blues Week may obtain the tapes by writing: National Blues Week c/o YBPC Newsletter, P.O. Box 11243, Jackson, MS 32913. The tapes are being provided by Mid-South Management headed by Robert Rosenthal.

BERKLEE HONORS ALUMNUS QUINCY JONES

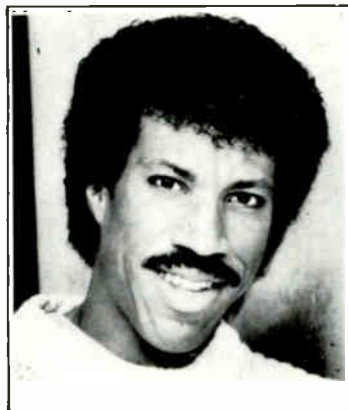

Boston: Berklee College of Music will honor illustrious alumnus Quincy Jones on Feb. 10. Dubbed "Q-Day," several activities focusing on the life and music of Jones will culminate with the debut appearance of the Quincy Jones Orchestra at the Berklee Performance Center.

Music performed will cover a ten-year perspective of Jones' music, ranging from 1976 to the present. Appearing will be several Berklee students, along with Gene Shimosato, the Downbeat Student Classical Guitarist of the Year and newly-signed Elektra/Asylum artist and Berklee faculty member, Walter Beasley, on saxophone and vocals.

"Q-Day" is part of a series designed to recognize the achievements of Jones, whom Berklee's Gregory A. McPherson, Conductor of the Quincy Jones Orchestra, describes as "a major force in the development of jazz and commercial music, having worked in practically every musical idiom."

LIONEL RICHIE IN MANAGER AND POSSIBLE LABEL SWITCH

LIONEL RICHIE

Los Angeles: Ken Kragen, longtime personal manager of popular recording superstar Lionel Richie, has resigned from that position as of Feb. 3. Unavailable for comment at press time, Kragen will reportedly make an official statement regarding this surprise move later this week.

Industry rumors persist that a change of label may also be in store for Richie - with RCA being the company most prominently mentioned as his possible new headquarters. Stay tuned.

VETERAN BROADCASTERS AT HELM OF KOKY

Little Rock: With the arrival of colorful broadcast personalities George "Boogaloo" Frazier and Bobby Earl in the Operations Manager and Music Director slots at KOKY here, the Arkansas capital city may never be the same.

In a telephone interview with BRE, "Boogaloo" -- a longtime powerhouse on the Houston airwaves -- said that he plans to bring distinctively "black" programming to the station. Experience and demonstrated air flair should weigh heavily in his favor toward achieving this goal.

Other KOKY staffers include GM Wayne Courtney and PD Dave Felder.

TISDALE DIRECTS BUSINESS AFFAIRS AT CAPITOL

RAPHAEL TISDALE

Hollywood: The appointment of Raphael E. Tisdale to the position of director of Business Affairs for Capitol Records was announced recently by Robert Young, the label's vice president, Administration and Business Affairs.

Along with co-director Kevin Breen, Tisdale will be responsible for the negotiation and administration of all contracts for Capitol Records, as well as the business affairs needs of Angel Records and Record Group Services.

Well known in the L.A. entertainment community through his previous association with CBS as a staff attorney and in private practice, Tisdale joins Capitol following a partnership in the Washington, D.C. firm of Davenport and Seay.

MCA RELEASES ALL-STAR ANTI-DRUG SINGLE

Los Angeles: Another industry all-star recording effort has now been focused on an increasingly serious problem in this country -- drug abuse among young people.

MCA Records has released an anti-drug anthem, "Stop

The Madness," with the royalties going to the "Stop The Madness" Foundation, which will fund anti-substance abuse rehabilitation and educational campaigns. Nancy Reagan's "First Lady's Fund" will also receive support from the royalties.

Produced and arranged by Michael Stokes, the recording features vocals by New Edition, Whitney Houston, Herb Alpert, Latoya Jackson, Steve Arrington, Tata Vega, Andrae and Sandra Crouch, among others.

The accompanying video recently debuted on NBC-TV's "Friday Night Videos" and featured a cameo appearance by Mrs. Reagan, as well as well known entertainment and sports personalities.

"Stop the Madness" was the brainchild of actor Tim Reid ("WKRP in Cincinnati" and "Simon and Simon") who heads the Foundation and also co-wrote the song.

ATLANTIC ROBERTA FLACK RELEASES BLACK ANTHEM ON ATLANTIC

Los Angeles: The release of a new Roberta Flack single, "We Shall Overcome," has been announced by Atlantic Records. The recording of this new version of the great anthem of the civil rights movement celebrates both the first official observance of Dr. King's birthday and the declaration of February as Black History Month.

All royalties from "We Shall Overcome" will be donated to the Medger Evers College Foundation.

Flack's version of "We Shall Overcome" features all-star musical backing from Luther Vandross, James Ingram, George Duke, Grover Washington, Jr. and Ralph McDonald.

MCA REUNION PLANNED

Los Angeles: Calling all former employees of MCA Records! A reunion is being planned here around the time of the NARM Convention (March 7-11) that you won't want to miss.

Joan Bullard, now with Rogers and Cowan, is putting out an "A.P.B." for all ex-MCA staffers -- wherever you are. And that means YOU Wendell Bates, Jerry Boulding, Myra Lebo, Jan Barnes, John Smith, Hillary Johnson, Mike Abbott, Elmer Hill and the list goes on...

So come on, guys. Give Joan a call at (213) 201-8800.

NBMC REPORT

Editor's Note: BRE is pleased to announce the initiation in this issue of a regular column from the National Black Media Coalition. In conjunction with the celebration of Black History Month, the first NBMC Report outlines the background and provides an overview of the organization's current activities.

The National Black Media Coalition (NBMC), a non-profit civil rights organization, has been active in increasing opportunities for blacks and minorities in the broadcast industry. It is the most successful civil rights organization in the U.S. that works exclusively on a full-time basis in mass communications.

The NBMC has come a long way since its inception in 1973. Events that led to its establishment include the 1969 formation of Black Efforts for Soul Television (BEST) in Washington, DC. The following year, under the leadership of president Bill Wright, BEST linked up black media activities in 80 cities, and in 1971 BEST testimony persuaded Senator John Pastore, chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Communications, to withdraw a pro-industry license renewal bill. In 1972, BEST also persuaded President Nixon to name Rev. Benjamin Hooks as the first black FCC commissioner.

In 1973 Bill Wright retired and the groundwork was laid, under the leadership of Jim McCuller, to form what would become the National Black Media Coalition. The organization was officially formed on Nov. 11 of that year.

Its subsequent victories included a NBMC negotiation with CBS in 1974 that led to a black male being used as a lead character on "Good Times," along with negotiations with ABC in the following year that resulted in the upgrading of that network's news coverage of Africa and the establishment of a bureau there.

Today, under the leadership of chairperson Pluria Marshall, NBMC has gained the experience, strength and credibility to negotiate as equals across the table with the largest corporations in America. NBMC has obtained affirmative action agreements with corporations that include Evening News Association, Post-Newsweek Stations, Post Corporation, Ziff-Davis Broadcasting, Gannett Corporation, General Electric, Times Mirror Company, Albritton Communications and Turner Broadcasting.

Benefits from these agreements have led to the sale of four radio stations and a major market VHF network-affiliated TV station to blacks (at aggregate savings of about $10,000,000 below market price); the creation of a minority ownership investment fund capitalized at $750,000; the placement of $500,000 worth of accounts in black banks; grants, scholarships and educational internships valued at over $1,000,000 for black colleges (Clark College, Texas Southern University and Howard University); and, specific affirmative action commitments resulting in new hirings and promotions of blacks at all levels of the industry, plus contracts for minority businesses.

NBMC also helped create the CPB minority task force which filed the first petition for rule-making that requested the adoption of permanent regulatory policies for direct-to-home broadcasting.

The organization has provided leadership in the battle for a 9 khz channel band which holds the promise of 300 to 1400 new radio stations (resulting in greater opportunities for black ownership). NBMC has worked to expand the AM band from its current boundaries of 535-1605 khz, thus permitting the addition of 11 or 12 new channels and hundreds of new stations for which minorities can compete for ownership.

The Coalition's influence at the FCC also helped bring about the distress sale and tax certificate policies which have resulted in the sale of more than 50 radio and TV stations to minorities.

NBMC provides ongoing programs and services that monitor and help blacks in the broadcast industry. Currently, several major corporations routinely list employment opportunities with NBMC as a demonstration of their good faith efforts to locate and hire competent black media professionals.

Additionally, an advertising program is being developed to correct a major problem in the black media: the lack of advertising dollars to support the broadcast and publishing systems that provide quality service to the community.

The Black Radio Resource Center will address the concerns of black-owned and formatted radio stations across the country. This program covers the following areas directly related to black radio: community involvement, programmatic practices, job referral services and general information networks. Vida Smith, that organization's director, urges those stations contacted to return survey information as soon as possible for the fastest and most effective results.

Contact Ms. Smith or Darryl Greene at 38 New York Avenue, N.E., Washington, DC, (202) 387-8155 for additional information.

Media Line, a monthly publication published by NBMC, focuses on the communications industry with information of interest to black and minority Americans. NBMC periodically publishes Action Bulletin, which concentrates on one main topic in the broadcast industry per issue. These publications are distributed to NBMC affiliates and supporters.

Remember: Black History Month is a time to count our blessings and forge ahead, because there is still work to be done.

WHILE CHICAGO CELEBRATED...

WGCI hosted an invitation-only Superbowl Party at a local restaurant. An enthusiastic capacity crowd of over 300 dined on chili, while watching the Bears' thrilling victory.

Chicago honored its heroes on Monday with a ticker tape parade down the financial district. An estimated 700,000 persons braved sub-zero temperatures during the half-mile route ending in a ceremony presided over by Mayor Harold Washington.

...THE "SUPERBOWL SHUFFLE" SHUFFLES INTO TROUBLE

In the wake of the super success of its "Superbowl Shuffle" record, Red Label Records now finds itself in serious trouble with the Attorney General of the State of Illinois.

Red Label President Dick Meyer publicly pledged to donate 50 percent of the net profits (after expenses) from the "Shuffle" to Chicago charities serving the needy. The Bears, who comprise the "Shuffle Crew" on the popular record and video, likewise agreed to give 50 percent of their royalties to charity.

According to the Attorney General, 50 percent will not suffice because the "Shuffle" falls under the state's Charitable Trusts and Solicitation Act. Under the terms of the Act, no more than 25 percent of the net receipts from the "Shuffle" may be used for administration and expenses, and no less than 75 percent of the net profits should go to charity -- a full 25 percent more than Meyer proposes.

The Attorney General has written to Capitol Records (Red Label's distributor) and MPI Home Video to withhold payment of all monies until the legal issues are cleared up.

There are two versions of the recording which sell for $1.99 and $4.98, respectively. Over one million copies of the record and over 220,000 videocassettes (retailing at $29.95) have been shipped. Red Label says it owes over $700,000 in expenses and all the bills are not in.

Because it was a charitable cause, the record received much more promotion (including widespread radio, TV and newspaper coverage) than it would have had it been just a commercial project. In fact, the project got the kind of coverage that money cannot buy.

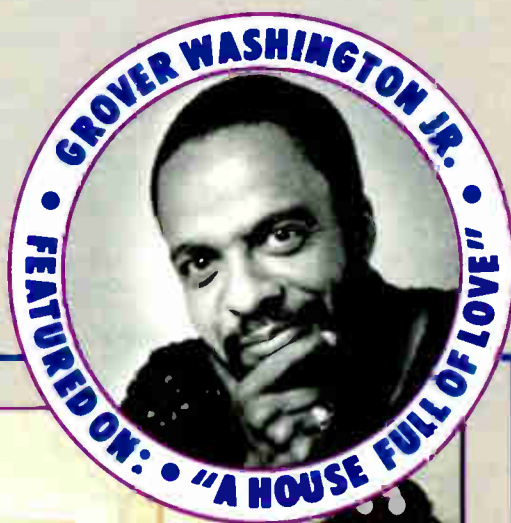

AMERICAN MUSIC AWARDS REFLECTIONS
Teddy Pendergrass received a standing ovation from the AMA audience, which seemed to be good medicine for him. I think we will be seeing a lot more of Teddy, who has been off the scene far too long. I found myself forgetting his affliction during his moving performance. The charisma is still there.

MUSIC FROM THE BILL COSBY SHOW DEBUTS ON COLUMBIA RECORDS

by Michael Martinez

It is an established fact that the soundtrack of a movie can help advance its box office fortunes and, on occasion, enhance the film's critical and popular acclaim.

Last year, NBC-TV's slick cop series, "Miami Vice," attracted even more attention with Jan Hammer's weekly scores adding color to the visual quality of that show.

For the number one-rated "The Bill Cosby Show" -- the flagship of NBC-TV's network dominance this season -- the special music created for the series has often been overlooked by TV critics. But each week the musical sounds seem to slide smoothly around each scene of this half-hour sitcom.

This comfortable musical fit is due in no small part to the sensuous, often bouyant saxophone soloing of "Mr. Magic" himself, Grover Washington, Jr., which is the focal point of these scene lead-ins and -outs.

It is the belief of Bill Cosby himself that the music is an important component to the overall tone of the show, and along with the show's musical supervisor, Stu Gardner, Cosby is actually a key contributor to the music played on the show.

Music from the show's last two seasons has been expanded into full song and put on an album that has just been released by Columbia Records.

Titled "Stu Gardner Presents 'A House Full Of Love': Music from The Bill Cosby Show," this musical excursion virtually exudes the qualities that have framed the visual image and distinctive personality of the show.

Unlike network-mate "Miami

Vice," the music isn't of the MTV pop hit here-today, gone-tomorrow variety.

Like "The Bill Cosby Show," the music on this LP appeals to the more wholesome, family-oriented sensibilities which America has embraced so enthusiastically on Thursday nights.

And Gardner explained that each of the musicians who are credited with work on this LP "put forth a real, genuine effort to contribute to the music on this LP."

Although Gardner and Cosby are listed as the principal songwriters on much of the material, Gardner said, "I have to give credit to everybody on the album, because each person contributed something of their own ideas to the music."

The most evident contributor is Washington, who shares Cosby's Philadelphia roots and is listed as coproducer on this project.

Both Gardner and Washington said that the show's producers gave them the green light to follow their own instincts with the music.

Columbia Records has developed an extensive marketing and promotion program for this record, starting with the initial release of a double-sided single, "Look At This" b/w "Love In Its Proper Place."

The track, a rap ode by Cosby, was performed on the December 12th show, which was reportedly viewed by an audience of 70 million. The performance elicited an overwhelming response from viewers, who will no doubt be pleased to note its inclusion on the new LP.

A video of "Look At This," which will feature Cosby with Washington, will be distributed to several outlets as radio airplay devel-

EXECUTIVE CHANGES
AT SLEEPING BAG/
FRESH RECORDS

There has been quite a bit of executive turntabling at Sleeping Bag/Fresh Records: Michael A. Scott was recently promoted to vice president, dance music marketing and promotion; Murray Elias and Chris Williams have been promoted to co-directors, retail promotion; and Lloyd Sykes was named assistant director of promotion and marketing for the label.

Scott, coming from a post as director of dance music marketing, first joined Sleeping Bag/Fresh in October of 1984. He is also a staff writer and a member of the record review board of DANCE MUSIC REPORT and has been a contributor to several other music trade publications.

Elias was formerly director of marketing and promotion for Mango and Antilles Records and vice president of U.S. operations for Joe Gibbs Records. He has also served as an independent marketing consultant for Rockpool Promotions and was their Afro/Reggae editor.

Williams has spent three years working as a studio and field engineer for NBC-TV, working on "Saturday Night Live," football games and soap operas. His experience in music comes from a stint as promotions director for Powerhouse Records.

Sykes is a former club jock who continues to spin around the New York area.

These newly-appointed or promoted execs have been charged with promoting and marketing Sleeping Bag/Fresh vinyl work such as "Man-tronix: The Album," "Johnny The Fox" by Tricky Tee, "All and All" by Joyce Sims, and 12:41's "Success Is The Word."

Richmond-based R&B group Tiffany recently signed an exclusive artist's agreement with Teddy Pendergrass' new label, Top Priority Records, which will be distributed by CBS Records.

The seven piece, self-contained vocal and instrumental group's first single, "On My Way," has been culled from their self-titled debut LP due out this month.

Station Break

WHUR/WASHINGTON D.C.-FROM GIFT TO NUMBER ONE RATED

Howard University-based station WHUR started out in 1971 as a gift to the institution from the Washington Post Co.

It became the first black-owned and operated station in the nation's capitol, known euphemistically as "Chocolate City."

Washington, DC is considered the eighth largest radio market in the country, harboring 35 outlets.

But despite such formidable odds and competition, WHUR was recently ranked number one in the ARBitron ratings, perhaps becoming the first university-owned station to capture the top spot in a major market.

According to Jeff Tillis, president of the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System, "I am not aware of any other college-based station that has achieved number one ranking in any major market."

WHUR beat out WGAY with an 8.6 to 8.0 market share of listeners, which translates to about 30,000 more tuning in to WHUR than to WGAY.

"Although many of us thought that WHUR was on top for a long time," said Dr. Owen D. Nichols, Howard's vice president of administration and overseer at the station, "this latest news removes any lingering doubt."

A number of factors could contribute to WHUR's success in a major market, not the least of which is the station having an FM operating license.

Among the more than 1,300 university and college-owned stations, WHUR is one of the few that can boast of this kind of signal.

WHUR is also considered to be broadcasting one of the more successful mixtures of urban and adult contemporary music.

But according to Michael Archie, music director at WHUR, there are several factors leading to the station's success, and they start with the attitude toward music played at WHUR.

Archie said that through the day, WHUR's "Softtones" format programs 60-70% ballads and another 20-30% jazz, with the balance made up of contemporary urban hits.

"We play soft to bouncy music during the 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. time block," he explained. "Washington DC's population is comprised primarily of federal workers, so we wanted to program something that people could take to the office with them.

"The music is meant not to disrupt their work, but rather to provide an alternative to Muzak."

Archie said that established artists like Dionne Warwick, Stevie Wonder, Luther Vandross, and Frankie Beverly and Maze are stalwart artists of this format. He added that newcomers like Rene & Angela and Whitney Houston are also successful in this format.

Lesser known artists such as BMX, Gloria Bare, and Carol DeShields also do well in this format.

Archie said that jazz cuts are programmed to "break up the monotony of just ballads and to add integrity to the format. He said artists like Roy Ayers and Bob James have provided some recent music of this ilk.

"We're not into the 'fad-dish' sounds, but music that really transcends time," Archie said.

A spokesman for Columbia said that in addition to the designated debut single, "Quiet Storm" and "Softtone" radio formats are apt to program sultry tunes like "Camille" (written by Cosby as a tribute to his real-life wife) and "Clair" (Phyllis Ayers-Allen), a song about The Cos' TV wife.

But one of the most vivid-selling points of this LP will be its talent-laden list of musical credits.

In addition to platinum-selling artist Washington, who told BRE, "I was honored to be asked to provide some of the music for this show," names like Steve Gadd, Richard Tee, Wah Wah Watson, Jeff Mironov, Marcus Miller, Randy and Michael Brecker and Jon Faddis will be familiar to music buffs and pop fans alike.

The list of vocalists is equally impressive. Patti Austin, Jocelyn Brown, Ullanda McCullough, Lani Groves, Lori Fulton, James Ingram, Michael Bolton, The Waller Family and even Gardner get in on this act.

Some of Gardner's regular musicians on "The Cosby Show" also appear on this LP -- including Scott Scheer, Paul Griffin, Gary King, Tom Barney, Cameron Brown, Gloria Agostini and Sid McGinnis.

Gardner characterized the input of these artists as "beyond the call of duty."

"I mean," he continued, "people just didn't come to do a gig. People stopped and made suggestions about the music and stayed late on the sessions to make sure the music was right."

As testament to the players' input, several of them collaborated on the smooth, uptempo dirge, "Poppin'."

Aside from having worked with Cosby on previous TV projects, Gardner has a visible track record in the TV music industry as a scorer and arranger.

He has also been at the hub of many collaborations on Cosby's previous music-oriented projects released during the '70s on Capitol Records.

Gardner said that the distinction of this show is that the producers wanted the music to be unique to each episode.

He said that in some upcoming episodes, jazz greats like Art Blakey, Tito Puente, Lionel Hampton and a host of other luminaries will be featured to provide sounds for the images of the show.

"One thing Bill wanted to do," said Gardner, "is bring more jazz and R&B to the show because he felt that there wasn't enough of it on TV."

That doesn't mean that there aren't any contemporary sounds featured on the LP.

The tune "The Huxtable Kids," expanded from music used on an episode from early last year, is a slick contempo ditty that is a foot-tapper, but still bears the unmistakable print of Cosby music.

When Gardner approached the show's producers about the Columbia album project, he coyly said, "They were a little reluctant; but they said 'sure!'"

With a number-one show that has garnered such universal appeal -- and an assembly of music and musicians that have experience on number-one records -- this LP can be "A House Full Of Love" and then some.

MIKE ROBERTS, veteran broadcaster who has programmed WBUS-FM since it signed on the air last fall, called BRE at press time to report that all of the airstaff had been terminated as a result of a "difficult decision" by the station's management to go to automated programming via the Satellite Music Network.

Roberts stated that although "economics dictated the decision," the sad thing for him was the loss of "the best staff" that he has ever had the opportunity to be associated with. He further indicated that he would highly recommend the WBUS-FM talent for on-air positions as they are some of the "best sounding air personalities in the country."

Roberts, who is also affected by the format change, stated that he would like to remain in Atlanta and is interested in consulting or a morning slot with another outlet. He can be contacted at (404) 874-3000 or 627-7087.

The WBUS staff included B.J. TAYLOR, who was also the Music Director; CAROL BLACKMON, ROGER HENDERSON, MICHAEL GAMBLE, KEN TOBIN and KRISTA FORDHAM.

Over at the other new Atlanta FM'er, WEKS/KISS 104, ISRAEL GREENE joins the airstaff in the 7 pm-midnight slot. Greene comes to KISS following a stint at WWDW/Sumter, SC.

JERRY BOULDING, formerly OM for SMN's "Heart and Soul" urban format, exits that position.

STOP THE MADNESS

STOP THE MADNESS
MCA S45-17095

This cut has an important anti-drug message to convey, and several artists contribute vocal spots in support of this cause. The feel is high-tech with sophisticated drum and keyboard programming augmenting the hot dance beat. Demos: Young adults, dancers.

BILLY ALWAYS

I DO DON'T YOU
WAYLO 3005

Billy lays down a mid-tempo song featuring funk style bass and an Mtume style groove. The main attraction is Billy's freestyle vocal approach, here doing his best to gain the favor of the female species. Demos: Young adults.

FAT LARRY'S BAND

ZOOM
OMNI 7-99563

From the title of this cut you might expect something at the outer limits of electro funk; what you get is a pretty, mid paced composition with a warm down-to-earth feel, featuring strong male vocals. Demos: Young adults, females.

TAKE A LITTLE TIME
SUNNYVIEW SUN 3029

This successful indie label breaks out of the 12" dance record format to present a romantic love song. Swooning string arrangements underline this vocalist's extra soulful performance. All class! Demos: Females, young adults.

THE GUINN FAMILY

DREAMIN'
MOTOWN 1835MF

Produced by Donald Robinson and Michael Forte, check out this down tempo groover from the Guinns. The female lead and back up vocals come through with perfect clarity. Demos: Females, young adults.

12"

STETSASONIC
ROCK DE LA STET
TOMMY BOY TB-875

If you're looking for the baddest rap masters, the 'rockinest' grooves or just something to get the dance floor moving, here's some of the meanest, coldest, rap and scratch you'll find. Big Apple style. Watch for the super "B" side mix! Demos: Dancers, teens.

DAVID FOSTER

TAP DANCE
ATLANTIC DMD 914

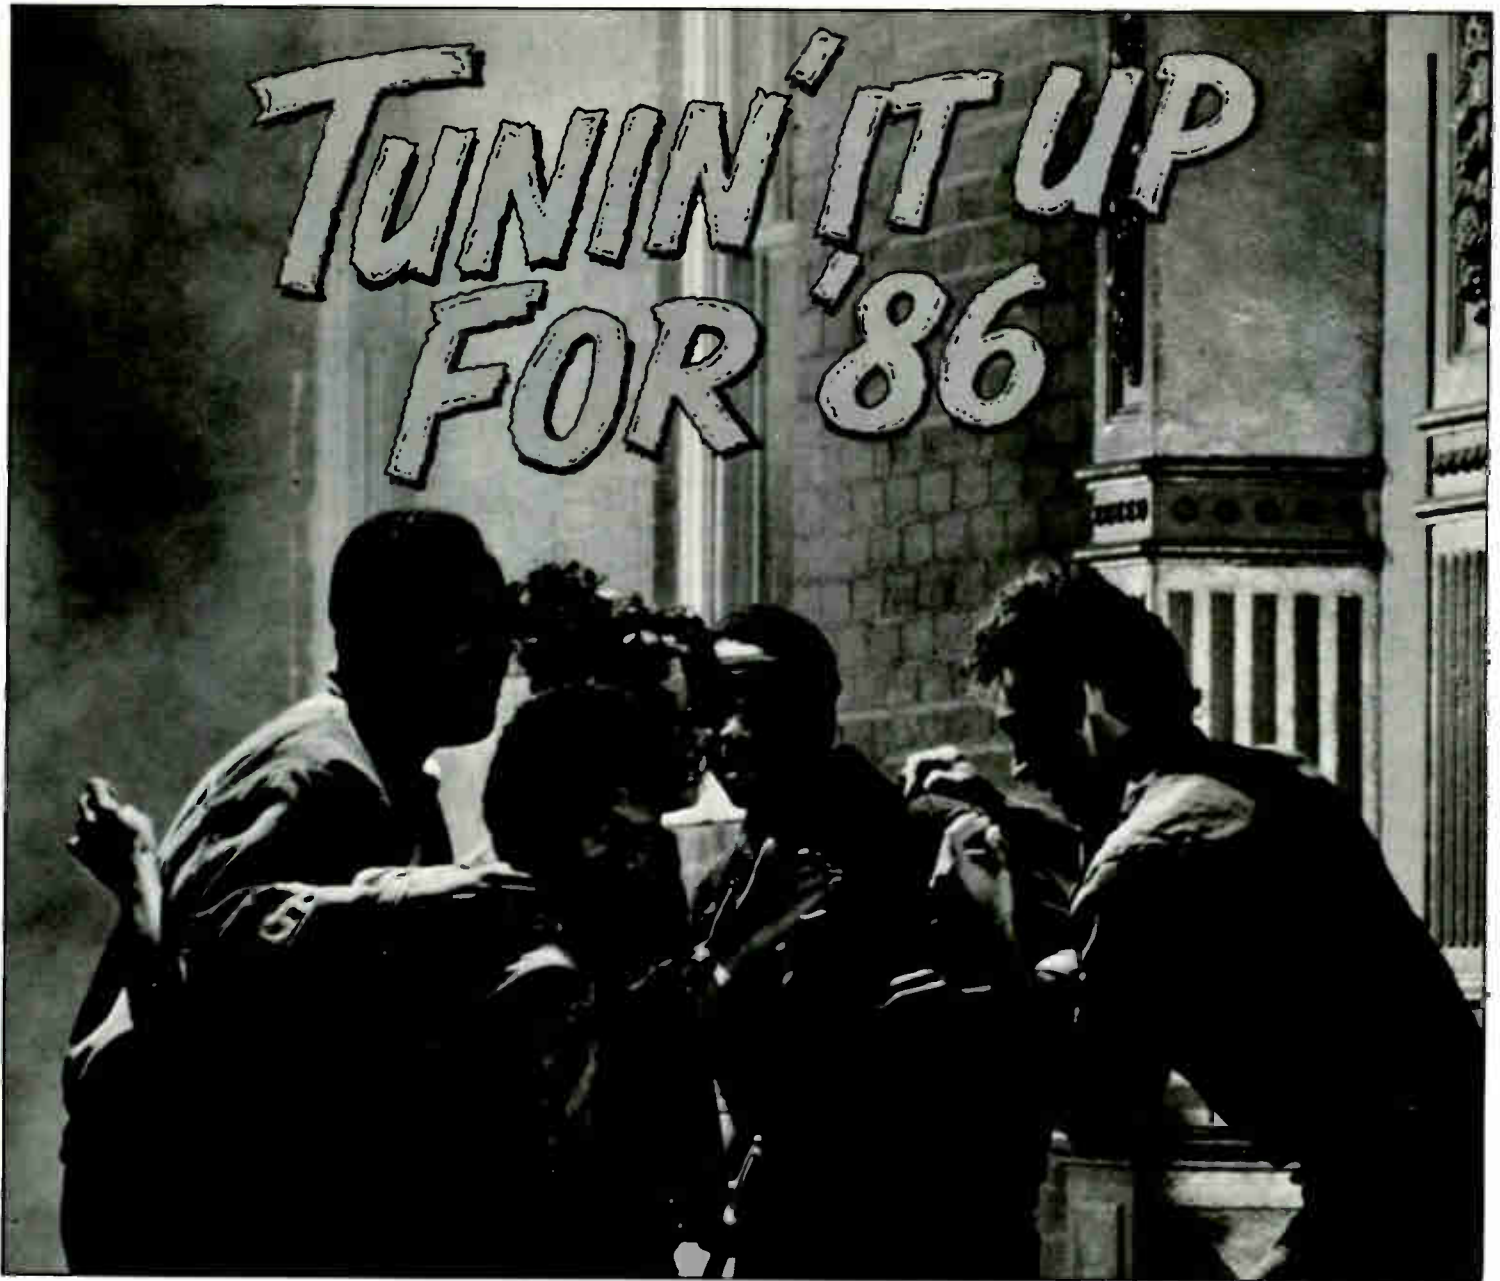

From the "White Nights" soundtrack, this cut features tap sequences by Gregory Hines. Produced and written by Foster himself, the upbeat composition has grandiose synth and horn sections. Demos: Dancers, young adults.

NU SHOOZ

I CAN'T WAIT
ATLANTIC DMD 920

This one has a sparse, haunting ambience with synth bass and minor key synth riffs punctuating the smooth female vocals. Plenty of cool drop outs expose the underlying percussion backing and render this a must for the dancers. Demos: Dancers, young adults.
