• ROCK ROUNDUP •

by Mark Marone

The year of 1994 for the rock format unfolded to be one of its most successful ever. The ratings that stations have received and the sales of rock records were fantastic. Modern Rock strengthened its position in the arena of radio as a formidable format with new stations in major markets and quality Arbitron numbers at many of its outlets, while Album Rock radio, whose reluctance to play new artists has waned, provided unwavering support for and impacted the sales of the year's top rock acts, including Stone Temple Pilots, Pearl Jam, and Soundgarden. With Modern Rock radio embracing harder rock and Album Rock radio broadening its playlists to include new, cutting-edge artists, the lines are becoming increasingly blurred in categorizing rock artists. Who could have predicted that the perennially alternative-based Meat Puppets would have a hit that would stay in the Album Rock top ten for 16 weeks but wouldn't crack the top ten at Modern?

SHINE ON: Undoubtedly one of the year's biggest hits, Collective Soul's "Shine" took the top spot for Album Track of the year. The song, written by an almost-defeated Ed Roland, stayed at No. 1 from May 21 to July 9 for a total of 8 weeks. The summer song's broad appeal did well on both the Hot 100 chart (No. 11) and the Modern chart (No. 4) as well. The song's uplifting motif had won the early support of stations in the Southeast, but it was Atlantic's foresight that allowed the record to be able to enrapture the airwaves around the country. Even if it may hold the dubious distinction of being the only year-end No. 1 rock song to exclusively use a drum machine—that in a format inherently impassioned with inspirational individual live performances that would separate it from other formats—"Shine" had just the right groove to illuminate the charts. Congratulations to Atlantic Records for having a tremendous year at both formats, especially at Album where their artists held the No. 1 spot for 19 of the 50 weeks. "Interstate Love Song," which holds the No. 1 spot again this week for a record-breaking 15th consecutive week, follows the two-week stay at the top "Vaseline" enjoyed to account for Stone Temple Pilots holding the top rock spot from September through December.

AND WASH AWAY THE RAIN: Soundgarden's "Black Hole Sun" became the first song to close out the entire, fragmented Album Rock panel during its 7-week stay at No. 1 in July and August, but its longevity was different at Modern. While it was never actually a No. 1 song at Modern, it was fortified by an incredible 14-week stay in the top ten and managed to collect more plays than any other song during the year. A&M's tremendous year with Soundgarden started with "Superunknown" debuting at No. 1 on the Billboard 200 on March 26 and spending the next 28 weeks entrenched in the top twenty.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record which has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records which attain 800 detections (album) or 500 detections (modern) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the charts after 26 weeks.
