After The '70s Gold Rush, Classic Rock Remains Poppy . . . In Some Places

by Marc Schiffman

At this time last year, just as pundits were starting to predict the demise of classic rock, the format got an influx of stations from the ranks of former '70s outlets. Now, for some stations, the line between classic rock and the popper more female-friendly classic hits format is vaguer than ever, although James Taylor cuts remain marked for death at some classic rockers. And expanding a classic rock station through personality—something that was much talked about for years, but which went on hold when the less-personality-driven Arrow classic hits outlets came into the format—is again an issue for many PDs.

WGFX Nashville, which picked up the Arrow handle and segued from a more traditional classic rock to a classic hits approach, ranks fifth 12-plus with a 6.3 share and is No. 2 25-49. "Unless there's one I don't know about, there ain't a '70s-based station in the country that's had anywhere near [our] success. I defy somebody to show me one that's been No. 2 25-54, three out of the last four books," boasts PD J.J. Dullin. "We play stuff that you wouldn't hear on a typical classic rock station. We play 'Jackie Blue' by the Ozark Mountain Daredevils."

Besides, Dullin says, "when you say classic hits, that's an industry name. To the listeners, we are the classic rock station of Nashville. I think that through the years, people who programmed classic rock stations and defined them lost sight a little bit on music that was part of that rock genre. If you look back into the early '70s, staples of album rock radio included Joni Mitchell, James Taylor, Gordon Lightfoot . . . If you remember all that, all of a sudden 'Sister Golden Hair' by America makes a lot of sense."

To Dullin, that means America and Rolling Stones were woven together into the fabric of his audience's memory. "These songs all have powerful messages to people who grew up on this music," he says. "Properly programmed classic hits or classic rock stations are going to find that their music

Philips Takes Dual Role At Pollack Media

Modern WNNX (99X) Atlanta PD Brian Philips is now OM as well as a consultant for Pollack Media Group, where he'll work with "a select number of stations." WNNX APD Leslie Fram is now PD.

FORMATS: GRAND RAPIDS TOO MODERN?

Album WKLQ Grand Rapids, Mich., shifts to become the market's second modern outlet. PD Tom Marshall remains, as does the Howard Stern syndicated feed in mornings and "Love Phones" at night. WKLQ is jockless in other dayparts. Marshall says the new format is characterized more by what's been removed (AC/DC, Van Halen, Ozzy Osbourne, Aerosmith) than what's new (Garbage, Sheryl Crow, Beck). He plans to keep the music in the rock vein, which means there'll be no Greggy Tah or Space.

KQUE Houston, currently an adult standards outlet but expected to move to something a little more contemporary, ups night host Gary Hoffman to OM. Paul Berlin retains PD. Donna McCoy joins from modern AC WPTE Norfolk, Va., as MD.

Longtime hot AC KRLB Lubbock, Texas, is now classic rock KCRM. Michael X-Ray, former midday host of mainstream rock sister KFMX, is PD.

With Spectrum Communications selling modern WNTX Kalamazoo, Mich., PD/afternoon driver Bill Walters is ready for his next challenge, before the station changes format in May. Reach him at the station at 616-341-4100.

WMXP (Mix 93.3) Peoria, Ill., drops rock AC and becomes Big Oldies 93.3.

BUSINESS: KITS SOLD

In a complex three-way swap this week, CBS gets modern KITS San Francisco, Bonneville gets N/T KPIX-FM, and Entercom gets oldies KLOU St. Louis and $39.6 million.

SFX Broadcasting picks up a second concert promoter (in the wake of its '96 acquisition of Delsener/Slater). Indianapolis-based Sunshine Promotions, with operations in four states, joins the SFX family. Sunshine will operate as a separate entity; the deal includes two amphitheaters.

Department of Justice strikes again, as Gulfstar Communications drops its attempted buy of three Fayetteville, Ark., radio outlets, including album KKEG, from Demaree Media at DOJ's behest.

The ninth annual T.J. Martell Industry Roast will be held 7 p.m. May 7 at New York's Hard Rock Cafe. As reported last week, modern WBCN Boston VP of programming Oedipus is roastee.

Westwood One has picked up syndication rights to excerpts from the HBO series "Dennis Miller Live."

Premiere Radio Networks and the National Music Critics Assn. launch "The Big Bang," a monthly series of 90-minute syndicated radio specials hosted by Walt Disney World Resort. The series features live concerts by rock and country acts and a backstage interview conducted by an NMCA journalist.

PROGRAMMING: ALEXANDER EXITS XPN

Noncommercial triple-A WXPN Philadelphia PD Kim Alexander is resigning to explore other opportunities. Call her at WXPN through May 30.

Classic rock KSEG Sacramento, Calif., APD Jay Walker becomes PD.

With PD Sean O'Mealy having recently exited triple-A WRNX Amherst, Mass., night jock Dave Withaus becomes program manager, working closely with MD Bruce Stebbins and GM Tom Davis, effectively replacing O'Mealy.

Album WRXX Fort Myers, Fla., APD/afternoons Matt Mangas is now PD, replacing Greg Gillespie, who returned to Burkhart/Douglas & Associates following that firm's merger with McVay Media.

Modern KPOI Honolulu/sister crossover KQMQ LMA's free-form modern KDEO, flipping it to rhythmic AC. KPOI PD Brock Whaley and KQMQ PD Jamie Hyatt will co-program KDEO.

Evansville, Ind., gets a new classic rocker: WABX signs on as the triopoly partner of AC/oldies combo WIKY/WJPS. Trey Duncan returns to radio as PD/p.m. driver. The syndicated John Boy and Billy will do mornings. Trish Knight from WIKY will handle afternoons. Shane Cox from co-owned WIMZ Knoxville, Tenn., will do nights. WIMZ PD Jim Pemberton is consulting the station.

Classic hits WLEE-FM Richmond, Va., flips calls to WKLR.

Album WBRY Fort Wayne, Ind., gets a new sister station in classic hits WFWL. WBRY GM Bob Schutte and OM Darrin Arriens expand those titles over the new acquisition.

With last week's exit of modern WOSC Ocean City, Md., PD/mornings Bob Maxwell, APD/middays T.J. Roberts becomes PD/mornings. Night jock Paula Sangaleer moves to middays for now.

Modern WPGU Champaign, Ill., APD Naomi Adams will be PD this summer, once current PD Ben Panzio finds his next gig.

PEOPLE: FAYETTEVILLE WARS

Howard Stern picks up affiliate album WRCQ Fayetteville, N.C., replacing Alice the Psychic, who exits. It's been a busy couple of weeks in that market, as classic rocker WKQB (B107) picks up the John Boy and Billy show, replacing Jack Holiday. Mike McKinney, who produced the duo's show at WZZW Raleigh, N.C., is now morning producer. Also, Stern's producer at classic rock WNCX Cleveland, Dave Jockers, adds MD stripes at the station.

Modern WEND Charlotte, N.C., MD/afternoons Kim Monroe heads to MD/middays at modern KNDD Seattle. WEND PD/middays Jack Daniel moves to afternoons; programming assistant Rick Brewer is upped to MD. Midday applicants send T&R to Jack Daniel.

In the wake of rumors that album WYST Detroit was wooing him, crosstown album WRIF 27-year afternoon vet Arthur Penhollow has re-upped with the station in a multiyear deal that will keep him there "well into the next millennium," says PD Doug Podell. "He should be retiring from RIE."

Modern WZRH New Orleans PD Travis "Dash" Johnson adds morning co-host duties with Caryn Fulda from middays at classic rock sister WGGZ Baton Rouge, La. MD/mornings Darren Gauthier moves to middays. Dash says he's cut the list to spin his heavies up to 49 times a week.

Ex-modern WPLY (Y100) Philadelphia night jock Couzin Ed gets the same at album WYSP.

With Tim Dukes now PD, changes at album KIOZ San Diego this week include afternoon driver Todd Kelly exiting, replaced by Brian "B.C." Christopher, last in afternoons at modern sister XTRA-FM (91X). Shauna Moran, now KIOZ promotion director, comes from the same at 91X.

Elsewhere in San Diego, modern XHRM (the Flash) midday Karen K. exits to return to the same at Jacor's KKLQ (Q106).

Album KFMZ Columbia, Mo., PD Paul Maloney adds MD duties, replacing MD/middays Rick Bradford. Morning co-host Michelle Matthews gets middays. P/T Brent Glasgow gets overnights, as Marc Cetrone exits.

PD Lynn Barstow at modern KGDE Omaha, Neb., is covering MD and afternoon duties.

At classic rock WOFX Cincinnati, overnighter (on tape) Eric Page adds nights, replacing Harry Legg, now N/T WLW production director.

Former oldies WWMG Charlotte, N.C., morning man Patrick Callahan bows in mornings at crosstown classic hits WSSS.

Changes At The WB; V2 Signs Beck

After several weeks of rumblings, Warner Bros. and Reprise laid off between 70 and 100 employees last week. The cuts affected the label's offices in Burbank, Calif., New York, and Nashville.

Richard Branson's V2 imprint inks Dan Beck as president and signs a distribution deal with BMG. Beck, most recently Epic senior VP of marketing, will be based in New York.

Blair, with Geffen since 1993, has worn several hats in the rock promotion department, specializing in hard rock.

BARNESTORMING

BY KEN BARNES

The 1996 New-Artist Honor Rolls

Last column, all I had room for were general observations and stats on the number of new acts broken or crossed to new formats in '96. This time, the focus is on the acts themselves, the formats where they broke, and the labels that broke them (sounds like a tagline for the next "Oprah").

JANUARY: Top 40/rhythm led the way, as the Barrio Boyzz (EMI), Click (Jive), Denine (Metropolitan), Devone (Wing/Mercury), and Lina Santiago (Universal) debuted for the first time. Modern welcomed Salt (Island), Son Volt (WB), and Stabbing Westward (Columbia), and mainstream rock bowed Gren (IRS) and the Nixons (MCA).

Crossing from R&B to top 40/rhythm for the first time were Deborah Cox (Arista) and Yvette Michelle (Loud/RCA), while adult top 40 embraced Jann Arden (A&M), who'd charted AC previously, and the Tony Rich Project (LaFace). The Badlees (Polydor/A&M) made it to triple-A, and Folk Implosion (London/Island) crossed from modern to mainstream rock.

FEBRUARY: The pace slowed a bit, but not in modern, where Gravity Kills (TVT), Jars Of Clay (Silvertone), Ruby (Work), and 3 lb. Thrill (550 Music) all debuted. Dog's eye view (Columbia) and Rust (Atlantic) bowed in mainstream rock, and J'son (Hollywood) hit top 40/rhythm.

Dog's eye view immediately crossed to triple-A and modern; Son Volt and Stabbing Westward made quick transitions to mainstream rock (the former also hitting triple-A, which made its Monitor debut in mid-January). After some time charting elsewhere, Oasis (Epic) joined the adult top 40 ranks, as did the BoDeans (Reprise), who'd charted in other formats years ago. Same for Joe (Mercury), who made his top 40/rhythm debut.

MARCH: More rock action: Ammonia (Epic), Tracy Bonham (Island), and Verve Pipe (RCA) joined modern rock; Dishwalla (A&M) and Hog (DGC/Geffen) hit mainstream rock. Tina Arena (Epic) pulled a double debut at mainstream and adult top 40, while Angelina (Upstairs) and Quad City DJ's (Atlantic) arrived at top 40/rhythm.

The Fugees (Columbia) and Busta Rhymes (Elektra) crossed from R&B to top 40/rhythm, Dishwalla and the Nixons sealed rock success at modern; Arden moved to mainstream top 40.

Album KNCN Corpus Christi, Texas, MD/morning co-host Matt Vaughan exits.

Modern KNRK Portland, Ore., taps new night jock/image director Jeff "Woody" Fife from modern WPST Trenton, N.J. PD Mark Hamilton assumes MD duties at KNRK.

Former album WTKX Pensacola, Fla., night jock Ricker joins album WXTB (98 Rock) Tampa, Fla., for 10 p.m.-2 a.m., replacing Marla Stone, now in nights at classic rock sister WTBT. Former WTBT night jock Anita Wadd is now doing news on Bubba the Love Sponge's syndicated show.

Currently heard on modern WZAZ Columbus, Ohio, as that station firms up its talent roster, are two holdovers from the pre-Jacor days: Classic rock WAKS production director Dave Starkey is in afternoons, with '70s oldies WAHC morning man Ben Williams holding down evenings.

Modern WLIR Long Island, N.Y., evening jock Lynda Lopez becomes music coordinator.

Album KEGL Dallas promotions assistant Heather McVay gets the shiny new title programming/promotions assistant.

Album KBER Salt Lake City hires Russ Winters for promotions director. Winters was assistant promotion director at country sister KUBL.

APRIL: A highly active month. Buffy (Velocity), Delinquent Habits (Loud/RCA), Puff Johnson (Work), and Billie Ray Martin (Elektra) were new to top 40/rhythm. Goldfinger (Universal), Rage Against The Machine (Epic), the Refreshments (Mercury), and Sparklehorse (Capitol) hit modern; Jewel (Atlantic) bowed at modern and triple-A. Howlin' Maggie (Columbia), Into Another (Hollywood), and Marilyn Manson (Interscope) were mainstream rock's first-timers. Triple-A recruited Patti Rothberg (EMI) and the Subdudes (High Street), who may have charted on earlier sets had a format existed to house them.

Top 40/rhythm snagged Junior M.A.F.I.A. (Atlantic) and Nonchalant (MCA) from R&B and got on Alanis Morissette's (Maverick/Reprise) bandwagon. Tracy Bonham and Verve Pipe crossed to rock. Fugees found a top 40/mainstream beach-head; 3T (Epic) went to adult top 40. Marilyn Manson went modern; the Foo Fighters (Capitol) hit at adult and mainstream top 40 and triple-A.

MAY: Rock month again, with modern bowing Imperial Drag (Work), Primitive Radio Gods (Columbia), and Solution AD (Atlantic). Mainstream rock debuted Jerry Cantrell (Work), temporarily freed from his Chains on a side project, plus Hazies (EMI) and the Hunger (Universal). Triple-A earned initial credit for the Wallflowers (Interscope) and the Why Store (MCA). Lone nonrock debut Robert Miles (Arista), memorably hit in all three top 40 formats the same week.

Lots of crossover, with multi-format hits by Jars Of Clay (mainstream rock, adult top 40), Los Del Rio (RCA) and Jewel (adult and mainstream top 40), and Puff Johnson (Epic; reverse-crossing to adult and mainstream R&B from top 40/rhythm). Case (Def Jam/Mercury) went from R&B to top 40/rhythm. Brandy (Arista this time) earned adult top 40 credentials, as did La Bouche (RCA) and Fugees. Gravity Kills moved to rock and Howlin' Maggie to modern. Paul Westerberg (Reprise) formally bowed in triple-A, although his earlier set probably would have done the trick at that time.

JUNE: Summer's approach plunged new acts to a low. Nada Surf and Superdrag gave Elektra a modern double, while the Ghost Town DJ's and Nas earned Columbia the same honors in top 40/rhythm. Donna Lewis (Atlantic) got her start at adult top 40, then immediately hit top 40/mainstream, as did Dishwalla, which also added triple-A to its laurels, along with Primitive Radio Gods. The Wallflowers swept into mainstream rock, and Ghost Town DJ's, Quad City DJ's, and Nas (not a DJ) all reverse-crossed into R&B.

JULY: Another rocktacular month, with I Mother Earth (Capitol), Tonic (Polydor/A&M), and Zakk Wylde (Geffen) hitting in mainstream rock and Republika (RCA) and Reacharound (Trauma/Interscope) hitting in modern. Keb' Mo' (Epic) charted triple-A, which he had done on earlier charts of this sort. This was Amber's (Tommy Boy) month for top 40/rhythm, while No Mercy (Arista), notably, debuted in top 40/mainstream. The latter quickly emerged on top 40/rhythm, as did Donna Lewis, Crucial Conflict (Universal), and 112 (Bad Boy/Arista). Primitive Radio Gods, having completed its rock sweep, collected adult and mainstream top 40 numbers, as did the Badlees. Dishwalla added adult top 40 status; the Wallflowers snagged modern honors. The Why Store hit mainstream rock; Garbage (Almo Sounds/Geffen) finally hit at top 40/mainstream.

AUGUST: The big one for new acts. In modern, the roster was eels (DreamWorks/Geffen), Fun Lovin' Criminals (EMI), Geggy Tah (WB), Sebadoh (Sub Pop), and Sublime (MCA). Triple-A boasted Jackopierce (A&M), Eleanor McEvoy (Columbia), Duncan Sheik (Atlantic), and Ugly Americans (Capricorn/Mercury). The Neurotic Outsiders (Maverick/WB) joined the crowd at mainstream rock. Adult top 40 popped Merril Bainbridge (Universal), Amanda Marshall (Epic), and even the veteran Specials (Virgin). Top 40/rhythm contributed Ginuwine (550 Music), Ricky Martin (Columbia), and Shades (Motown).

Bainbridge quickly added top 40/mainstream. No Mercy added adult top 40; Garbage covered mainstream rock, as did the Why Store and Reacharound. Az Yet (LaFace/Arista) went to top 40/rhythm; Shades crossed back to R&B.

SEPTEMBER: A return to relative inactivity, except for "farm" acts. Mainstream rock added Expanding Man (Work), Local H (Island) (which simultaneously debuted in modern), and Chalk Farm (Columbia) (which broke the same week in triple-A). Soul Coughing (WB) hacked into modern, while the Braids (Atlantic) and, confusingly, Charm Farm (Mercury) bowed in top 40/rhythm.

Crossing were Amber, Marshall, and the Wallflowers to top 40/mainstream, with the latter adding adult top 40 to complete a quintet of format conquests. Dru Hill (Island) and Maxwell (Columbia) roved from R&B to top 40/rhythm; Ginuwine moved in the opposite direction.

OCTOBER: New acts heated up, with three bowing at adult top 40: Fiona Apple (Work), dc Talk (Virgin), and the Wonders (Epic). Mo' Thugs Family (Relativity) and Westside Connection (Priority) wrapped up top 40/rhythm; Qlumba Zoo (Arista) joined top 40/mainstream's menagerie. Darla Hood (Reprise) and Matchbox 20 (Atlantic) hit mainstream rock, Kula Shaker (Columbia) hit modern; Paula Cole (WB) hit triple-A.

The least-active crossover month, but the Wonders and dc Talk speeded to top 40/mainstream, Mo' Thugs Family crossed to R&B, and Chalk Farm connected the rock dots with modern.

NOVEMBER: Deep in the year, new acts still broke in large numbers. Modern spawned Leah Andreone (RCA), Failure (WB), and Fountains Of Wayne (Atlantic); Ashley MacIsaac (A&M) sawed away at triple-A; and Stir (Capitol) debuted in mainstream rock. Gina G doubled up debuts in rhythm and mainstream top 40; debuting strictly rhythm were Nate Dogg (Death Row/Interscope), the Original (Next Plateau), and Rockell (Robbins). And the Cardigans sewed up adult top 40.

Top 40s were busy adding crossovers: Merril Bainbridge, Foxy Brown (Def Jam/Mercury), and Do Or Die (Virgin) to rhythm; Republika, Az Yet, and BLACKstreet (Interscope) to mainstream; and Amber to adult. Ginuwine emerged at adult, Fiona Apple was seeded in triple-A and modern.

DECEMBER: Its annual hibernation beginning, radio admitted one new act: Bloodhound Gang (Geffen) in modern. A few more crossovers took place—No Doubt crossed to triple-A, the Cardigans snagged top 40/mainstream and modern, Ginuwine collected top 40/mainstream honors, Eleanor McEvoy broke into adult top 40, and Failure succeeded in mainstream rock.

Next column: How the labels scored.

He's The Mann

CHEET SHEET

BY MARK MARONE

Never Mind Electronica, Here's Moby

No one's ever accused Moby of not taking risks. With his latest album, "Animal Rights," the one-time poster boy of electronic music has been accused of a full-scale revolt against a genre he helped popularize by segueing from New York club jock to indie artist to remixer for a host of modern rock, dance, pop, and electronic luminaries since 1990.

But Moby hasn't completely jumped ship on the genre he helped to spread. Almost all of the remixes he's worked on recently have been dance/electronic records, including one by Voodoo Child, the exclusively electronic record currently available only as an import that is actually Moby under one of a few aliases he's used over the course of his recording career.

Meanwhile, if you're expecting him to make apologies for "Animal Rights" and its dive into heavy guitar rock with elements of speed punk and grunge/metal, you can forget about it. "I've made peace with the fact that there may be quite a lot of people who might've liked the last record but aren't going to like this one," claims Moby, whose real name is Richard Melville Hall; he is a direct descendant, he's been told, of author Herman Melville. "But that's the risk you take when you do something different."

The move to heavy rock shouldn't come as such a shock. After all, Moby has toured the U.K. with Soundgarden, remixed for Smashing Pumpkins, Metallica, and Aerosmith, among others, and has worked as a producer on a track for Ozzy Osbourne. He's a multi-instrumentalist who started out playing guitar in a punk band while growing up in suburban Connecticut in the '80s. But none of these past associations with the big league of heavy rock seem to have prepared him for this one. "I just had the strangest request of my entire life the other day. My manager got a call from Axl Rose's lawyer," says the noted vegan and animal-rights proponent. "They want me to produce the next Guns N' Roses record."

But perhaps it's Moby's recent comments about electronic music that caused the most ripples. Just when the much ballyhoed movement is being carefully cultivated in the media, Moby's 180 has caused some "to question my marketing savvy," he jokes. While he still has an affinity for the format, Moby feels there are inherent problems with the electronic genre that will inevitably prevent it from getting too far from the starting gate.

"If there were radio programmers who were thinking of getting involved with the electronic revolution, I would say, 'Hold off, because it's not happening,'" he says. Among the problems he cites are the shortage of commercially viable artists. Unlike the modern rock format, which sprouted from Nirvana's breakthrough, there isn't a proliferation or tradition of music available to buoy the supposed electronic revolution. "Suddenly, this new format was started, alternative rock radio, and there were enough artists and enough great songs to fill up the format," says Moby.

A big part of modern's success, he says, is that the music of its biggest stars is personality-driven, which presents a major obstacle for electronic artists, who are usually thought of anonymous knob twiddlers. "You have the Prodigy and Chemical Brothers, and maybe Underworld and Orbital, but beyond that, the artists just aren't there," he continues. Throw in the live-show element, and you've got real problems. "All of these bands except for the Prodigy suck live. I've seen all of them." In addition to the lack of compelling public figures, Moby claims a lack of good songs with captivating vocals and melody will set the genre back. "There aren't any Kurt Cobains in the electronic dance world . . . 'Firestarter' is a great song. It's a really cool piece of pop music, but that's about the only one," he says with a laugh.

Electronic's place in the mainstream, Moby says, will be as a textural expansion for existing acts, rather than a wholesale change in the predominant music. Pointing out that with more and more conventional acts like the Butthole Surfers, Beck, and U2 experimenting with samplers and electronics, Moby thinks "it's certainly going to be a much more subtle revolution."

In the grand scheme of things, Moby would probably prefer to talk more about the relationship of man to fellow man, of man to the earth, and of man to animals, as expressed in the essays on his last couple of albums. A self-described follower of Christ's teachings, though adamantly opposed to the conservatism of organized right-wing Christianity, Moby doesn't want to squander the opportunity to reach masses of people that comes with being part of a major-label roster. "I want the world to be a different place, and I'd like to help make it that place by whatever means I have available." Basically, he says, it's possible to try and recognize that every individual's actions have broad ramifications. "When you turn on your car, or go to McDonald's, when you avail yourself of consumer goods and services, there's always an implication. We need to be more aware and responsible about that."

Releases And Notes

Peter Buck of R.E.M. hits the road with his latest projects, Tuatara, the Minus 5, and Mark Eitzel (whose upcoming Warner Bros. set the guitarist produced and played on) for a month of dates beginning May 1 in Seattle. The three-band bill will consist of a revolving set of musicians. Tuatara, the all-instrumental band featuring Buck and Screaming Trees drummer Barrett Martin, will open, then back Eitzel and evolve into the Minus 5. Tuatara's album, "Breaking The Ethers," will be released by Epic April 1; the Minus 5, which includes ex-Posies member Ken Stringfellow and band leader Scott McCaughey of Young Fresh Fellows, releases its Hollywood debut "Lonesome Death Of Buck McCoy" May 6 . . . The Jayhawks have a new album set to drop April 22, "Sound Of Lies." Though the band called it quits in late '95, the last set's lineup minus Marc Olson gathered in guitarist Gary Louris' living room in band hometown Minneapolis and soon had enough material for an album. While the soaring vocal harmonies of the band's previous albums aren't as prominent, the new set upholds the fine songwriting tradition the band is known for. Matthew Sweet and George Drakoulias guest on the set . . . In between sessions for the new Soul Asylum CD, Dave Pirner scored the soundtrack to "Chasing Amy," directed by Kevin Smith ("Clerks," "Mall Rats").

came from two formats. One is album rock, and the other is top 40. So, when you hear 'Smoke From A Distant Fire' by Sanford/Townsend Band, it is a pop rock record—it's not like we're playing an O'Jays record or 'You Light Up My Life.'

In Cincinnati, WOFX—which merged with its classic hits rival last year—has ridden the classics to ninth place, rebounding over the past year 4.0-3.6-3.2-3.4-4.2 12-plus. PD Tony Tolliver says, "We're probably still more hit-oriented than a lot of other stations. We play all the usual suspects, but our emphasis is on the hit music of the '70s, and I think the consistency of doing that for a good six months or so without any significant changes started to pay off for us."

As sister to album WEBN, Tolliver says WOFOX can send the harder-edged songs its way. "We don't play much of Led Zeppelin or Pink Floyd in particular," he says.

Cincinnati native Tolliver says there's an appetite for the hits in the market. "The people who grew up listening to rock in this market certainly accepted those types of acts and those songs as rock songs at one point in their lives . . . The market was definitely seeded with a lot of those types of things. So I think, in Cincinnati, there's an acceptance for that type of music in a classic rock format. And we've not had any complaints really. As a matter of fact, we get requests for 'Wreck Of The Edmund Fitzgerald' and 'American Pie' and those types of things. There's no negatives involved at all. They continue to test extremely well."

Regarding those classic rock stations that don't play as broad a mix, Tolliver says, "They're being very narrow."

ROD NOT SEXY FOR WNCX

On the other side, there's WNCX Cleveland PD Bill Louis, who declares, "Rod Stewart has left the format." With his station at No. 5 12-plus with a 6.4 share, Louis is one of the classic rock PDs who still emphasizes the "rock" in classic rock. What worked on a rock station in the '70s may not work on a '70s-based rock station in the '90s. "I was hearing Rod Stewart singing 'So Far Away' and thinking, 'If "Tapestry" came out now, rock stations wouldn't even touch it,'" Louis says.

Classic rock KUFX San Jose, Calif., PD Dana Jang agrees. "Back in the '70s, FM radio was not as niched as it is today. There were only a few formats on FM at the time," he says. "Because there were just a few stations on the band, you could afford to move into many genres of music. Today I think you have to be a little more focused."

Jang's seen his station on a steady 12-plus up-swing over the past year, 1.6-1.7-1.9-2.2-2.6. Musically, the station goes as far back as some '60s Beatles, Stones, Who, Kinks, Animals, and Yardbirds cuts and up to '80s-era Mellencamp, Foreigner, and Cars. But it won't go as far into AC/DC or harder Aerosmith and Led Zeppelin.

When asked why he wouldn't touch the James Taylor side of things, Jang says, "To me, that would take away from the image that you are a rock station. You'd be moving into that 'soft AC' arena. I don't know if you could call yourself a rock station then."

Louis says Cleveland was never struck by an Arrow-type classic hits outlet, and that may have something to do with rock's solidity in the market. "The Arrow never strayed into the market, so none of this straight-ahead '70s [stuff] has been played]. The light rock stations are kind of screwing with it a bit, but they haven't made a commitment to it," he says.

NO PERSONALITY CRISIS

While they may differ in their opinions about what a classic rocker should play, PDs we spoke with all brought up personality aspects of their station as key to their success.

For WOFOX, Bob and Tom have helped grow the personality aspect of the station. WGFX has the syndicated John Boy and Billy in mornings. While Dullin emphasizes that "this is not a personality-based station by any sense of the definition, the personalities that we do have here have added that necessary icing on the cake to make the station a little fresher, a little cooler to listen to."

For Dullin, it all comes down to the content his air staff provides. "Most of this music came out of the era of album sleeves," he says. "These people that listen to the station, man, they had those album sleeves out, they read the lyrics. They read the liner notes and stuff like that. That was a big deal . . . Programmers, in a group, forget that . . . I'm telling you, when you're playing 500 records, you're playing 'China Grove' all the time. 'China Grove' sounds the same all the time. The way you set it up maybe, or introduce it, needs to change over time . . . And if you have talent that understands how to get it across in 10 seconds—it can be done very easily."

KUFX ended one morning-show experiment and started with a new one. "Last year, we tried Don Imus in the morning, and the radio station went down substantially, due to the fact that we made such a dramatic move from all-music to all-talk," says Jang. "We made a change in the beginning of the fall book. We moved our night jock, who is a very well-known Bay Area musician, Greg Kihn, to mornings, and we added the music back into the mix, and we're seeing that we're moving back up because of the change."

WSSS Charlotte, N.C., PD Don Schaeffer says his classic hits station is "closer to AC than it is to anything. It's comfortable. It's real." But that doesn't mean it is lifeless. "We have a lot of passion for the music, I think more so than just about any format. Every person on our air staff here has lived through that period and identifies with that music and has a passion for the music. It's one of the prerequisites of working here that you have to know the music and love it."

Musically, Schaeffer sees little difference between his and other classic rock stations. "I think that you'll see that probably there are more examples of stuff we do play that a classic rocker would play than what we don't play, or what they wouldn't play . . . I think the main difference between us and a classic rock station is not so much the music but the presentation."

He dislikes what he hears on some classic rockers, what he calls "a faux laid-back attitude . . . We are a little bit more natural." The first thing I say to my air talent when I go on is, 'I don't want you to project on the air something you think you should be. I want you to project you, because that's what I've been looking at before I hired you. I'm looking at you, and I want you to have a natural enthusiasm for the music, because if it comes off phony, people are going to see right through that.'

ROCK GODZ

KQRC's Sorensen Turns A Lemon Into Lemonade In Active Rock Paradise

KQRC PD Doug Sorensen virtually stumbled into active rock paradise in Kansas City. A veteran of rock wars from KQRS Minneapolis to WTPA Harrisburg, Pa., to KATF Colorado Springs to KATT Oklahoma City to KLAQ El Paso, he is in his fifth year at KQRC, which caught the Pearl Jam wave back in '92 and hasn't looked back. KQRC is enjoying its highest Arbitron success yet, with 12-plus numbers that grew 5.2-6.6 over the past year. Its first winter Arbitrend of 6.8 has displaced classic rock KCFX from fourth place.

When he arrived in Kansas City in February '92, KQRC was rock AC KRVK. "KQRC had five formats in seven years before I got there, and most of the locals said, 'Oh, Doug, 98.9, the frequency, is jinxed. It'll never work, no matter what you do.' Fortunately, I'm not superstitious," he says. "I think any great station can be salvaged. In fact, that's one of my biggest turn-ons."

'I like being able to maneuver to the current trend without being too narrow'

I love [turning a] lemon into lemonade."

Sorensen's strategy was to tweak the music. A month later, ownership sought something more drastic in the way of a format switch that would tap Sorensen's rock-world talents. With classic rock KCFX and album KYYS fighting on the 25-34 plane, Sorensen went for 18- to 34-year-olds. "I thought it would be a terrific opportunity to put this station on the map, by not being greedy and being satisfied with a piece of the pie, considering they had no pie before," he says.

KQRC in '92 meant Winger, Warrant, and Slaughter, and a healthy dose of such early '80s call-out hits as April Wine's "I Like To Rock," until nearby Kansas University supplied an epiphany. It was its free Day in the Hill concert. Sorensen sent a jock in a station van to cover it.

Sorensen recalls, "He came back, and I said, 'Hey, did anyone know our station?' And he said, 'Yeah, the kids were really into it.' And I said, 'Great. Who played there?' And he said, 'A band named Pearl Jam.' And I said, 'How many kids were there?' And he said, '50,000.' And I said, '50,000 kids are there, and no one's playing it!'"

From then on, Pearl Jam and Nirvana became integral to the mix. But it didn't signal a format change to Sorensen. "I didn't get into labeling, and I'm not into the categorization of current music," he says. "I just said, 'Hey, it sounds pretty good to me. I think it's great.' But more than anything, I said, '50,000 people seem to know what they're doing, considering no one was playing it.'

With the injection of the Seattle sound, "it took the station off like a rocket," Sorensen says. "So, if I was going to [answer], 'Was it all planned? Was it choreographed?' [I'd say] no. Some of this was luck and timing, because how did I know that music was going to take a direct turn in '92?"

Here's a sample afternoon hour on KQRC: Toadies, "Possum Kingdom"; AC/DC, "Dirty Deeds Done Dirt Cheap"; Dishwalla, "Counting Blue Cars"; Blue Oyster Cult, "(Don't Fear) The Reaper"; Silverchain, "Pure Massacre"; Local 11, "Fritz's Corner"; Def Leppard, "Animal"; Aerosmith, "Fallin' In Love (Is Hard On The Knees)"; Led Zeppelin, "Kashmir"; Soundgarden, "Pretty Noose"; Queensryche, "Empire"; and U2, "Staring At The Sun."

How does a station wedge AC/DC between Toadies and Dishwalla? "I don't get too caught up about, 'Well, this is too modern or too whatever,'" he says. "I do like to be open, because at the time . . . Nirvana and Pearl Jam were foreign compared to what Warrant and Guns N' Roses were doing. So that's why I think a number of stations didn't know how to handle this new stuff . . . I like the flexibility of being a rock station. I don't want to get too narrow in this world of niche programming. [I like] being able to maneuver to whatever the current trend is without necessarily being too narrow. I'm not embarrassed to play Aerosmith's new record, and I don't know why anyone would be, unless you're a modern rock station."

Sorensen recalls that openness garnering negative reaction when KQRC experimented with the Cranberries' "Zombie." While he admits that "people said, 'Get that off the air,' they didn't shoot us. They didn't throw Molotov cocktails through the window. But I think it's OK in our business to fail. There's nothing wrong with that. That doesn't mean take chances or be foolish but that we all don't know everything, and we won't know unless we try. As one person told me, 'It doesn't matter how many times you fall down. It matters how many times you get up.' You can't get too hung up on thinking you're going to pick every single record that's going to work."

When asked if KCFX's recent drop was a result of Sorensen going after it, he jokes, "No, they came after us and bought our station. So don't get them too mad." The drop was due to the end of football season—KCFX airs Chiefs games. As the stations await the deal's closing, Sorensen says, "The prototype to look at is WLZR and WKIH Milwaukee. That's the perfect scenario that active and classic rock or classic hits can go [with]. It's a great combo. Look what happened to [rival rocker] WQFM. They became a jazz station. I don't know if most stations can be that successful because of the market's changes and makeup, but active rock and classic rock are real compatible. It's a nice fit."

Sorensen cites KQRC's annual Rock Fest as the prime jewel in the station's promotional crown. "Last year, we had 22,000 people there, which was the biggest show in Kansas City, even bigger than Lollapalooza." It goes back to his teenage years on New York's Staten Island. "I'll always remember going to 12 Lakes Park," he says. "I saw the WNEW-FM Day in the Park promotion . . . There were these cool DJs with their satin WNEW jackets—Alison Steele, Pete Fornatale, Scott Muni, etc. And I go, 'Wow. This is so cool' . . . I remember that 25 years later. To this day, I don't know why stations don't do more to meet their audience. Radio's a tough medium to bond with if you don't meet people . . . Stations that tend to do more than the same old stuff can break through people's perceptions and have an impact."

While many album outlets have felt the need to go full-on modern, and others took the trip to modern and back to mainstream, Sorensen navigated a continually growing station through the '90s' changing musical waters. He says, "Most people would have said, 'Hey, this thing is going to cool down. It's going to burn out. It's going to plateau and sink back to where it should be.' And, yet, right now, the station is higher now than it's ever been."

INVASION

PHASE 1 ANTI-JINGLES
The rules went out the window a long time ago. INVASION's anti-jingles cut slide in an anti-jingle, then close it with your calls. It's that easy.

PHASE 2 MUSIC TRAX
there's no bleed-over. No wanna-be's. We just get the right people to do what men do best, and that's it. Each style works, because it's written and recorded by Bollywood's best composers. Every cut's produced in :60 and :30 lengths.

PHASE 3 SOUNDBS & STINGS
Face it. Some package's sounders and stingers can still be heard on millions of lost in space. We've come a long way from those days. Listen to the ones from INVASION. They'd really give that robot a reason to throw his arms around.

PHASE 4 SOUND EFX
Over 300 indexes. Mastered and Stereo Imaged. Real.

World Radio History

"Doug Martsch of Built To Spill makes music as powerful as that of Hendrix or Clapton." - NEW YORK TIMES

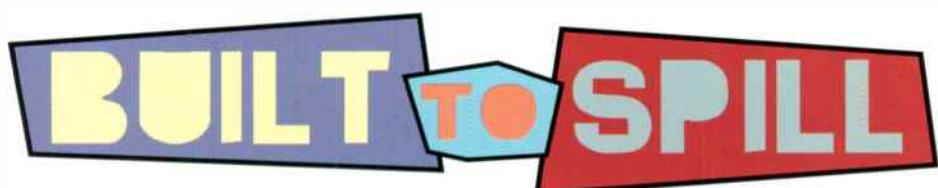

"When the fuzzy guitar lines and pinched vocal whines mysteriously mutate into recognizable songs, the band discovers beauty in its excess." - ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

"Let the pieces of this album sink in and, sure enough, you won't be able to get Martsch's sounds out of your head."

"Built To Spill dip into the psychedelic garden cultivated by guitar-based precursors, from the Beatles to the Flaming Lips."

"Long guitar solos for people who hate long guitar solos."
- VILLAGE VOICE

"File under: Pop with an eye on the heavens." - CMJ

Perfect From Now On

Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. Rankings broken down by mainstream, modern and triple-A formats (on right side of this page) correspond to charts printed in this week's Monitor and therefore rankings do not exist for recurrants and records below No. 40 (No. 20 for triple-A). Audience computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. © 1997, Billboard/BPI Communications.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record which has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records which attain 800 detections (mainstream) or 1,100 (modern) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.
