The first single from Lavigne's fourth album, "Goodbye Lullaby," due March 8, opens at No. 6 on Hot Digital Songs (163,000 downloads sold). It's also new at No. 32 on Adult Top 40 and No. 38 on Mainstream Top 40.

Beginning at No. 10 on Hot Digital Songs (125,000), the star collaboration marks Jay-Z's 63rd Hot 100 entry, tying him with Stevie Wonder for ninth-most appearances in the chart's history.

Claiming dual Greatest Gainer/Digital and Airplay honors, the second new track from "Greatest Hits... So Far!..." following former No. 1 "Raise Your Glass" (5-8), bounds 66-25 on Hot Digital Songs (70,000, up 95%) and 68-44 (27.5 million, up 54%) on Hot 100 Airplay.

The song increases by 102% in digital sales to 45,000 following the release of an EP sporting three mixes, all longer than the original two-minute, 47-second version available since November.

A portion of the Los Angeles rapper's first Hot 100 entry has appeared on the list before: The song samples Nu Shooz's 1986 No. 3-peaking "I Can't Wait."

BETWEEN THE BULLETS
BRITNEY'S 'HOLD' ON HOT 100

Britney Spears becomes the second artist in the Billboard Hot 100's 52-year history to debut multiple songs at No. 1, as "Hold It Against Me" blasts in at the summit. She previously launched at the apex with "3" in the Oct. 24, 2009, issue. Mariah Carey entered at No. 1 with "Fantasy" and "One Sweet Day" in 1995 and "Honey" in 1997. Arriving atop Hot Digital Songs with sales of 411,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan, "Hold" logs the highest debut frame by a lead female artist. On Hot 100 Airplay, Spears' fourth Hot 100 leader (prior to "3," she reigned with her debut single, "...Baby One More Time" in 1999 and "Womanizer" in 2008) begins at No. 23 with 45 million audience impressions. —Gary Trust

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Last Week, 2 Weeks Ago, Weeks on Chart, Peak Position. Includes songs like Grenade by Bruno Mars, Firework by Katy Perry, and FKIN' PERFECT by Pink.

Of the eight songs to start north of 300,000 downloads, this track logs the second-largest second-week percentage decline (411,000-183,000, down 55%). Only Taylor Swift's "Today Was a Fairytale" eroded more sharply in its second frame (325,000-100,000, down 69%). Conversely, Spears' song bounds 23-11 on Hot 100 Airplay (60.2 million in audience, up 34%).

The singer/rapper scores his third top 10 as a lead act and fifth overall. The cut changes 19-7 on Hot Digital Songs (141,000, up 55%).

The debut of the Dublin band's second album, "Science & Faith," on the Billboard 200 (No. 3, 49,000) spurs the Billboard Hot 100's greatest positional vault. The track makes the week's highest entrance on Hot Digital Songs (No. 34, 52,000).

After spending five weeks on the chart in June and July, the song (29,000 downloads, up 108%) is being re-worked to radio as an accompanying single to Bieber's 3-D documentary concert film of the same name opening in theaters Feb. 11.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart, including songs like Maybe by Sick Puppies, Someone Else Calling You Baby by Luke Bryan, and FKIN' PERFECT by Pink.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

DIGITAL, AIRPLAY GAINS POWER P!NK

Pink rockets to the doorstep of her 11th Billboard Hot 100 top 10, as "Fkin' Perfect" roars 30-11 as the chart's Greatest Gainer/Digital for a second consecutive week. The second single from "Greatest Hits... So Far!!!," following former No. 1 "Raise Your Glass" (8-8), blasts 25-6 on Hot Digital Songs (144,000, up 104%, according to Nielsen SoundScan). The release of the song's video and building radio play contribute to its vault, as the track advances 44-35 on Hot 100 Airplay (35.5 million audience impressions, up 29%, according to Nielsen BDS). The Billboard 200, "Greatest" rises 19-15 (22,000, up 20%), the set's highest rank since it debuted at No. 14 in the Dec. 4, 2010, issue. —Gary Trust

25	28	30	THE LAURIE BERKNER BAND TWO TOMATOES 23409/RAZOR & TIE (9.98)	The Best Of The Laurie Berkner Band

NPR gave Dinnerstein plenty of love pre-release, as the set streamed on its website while she was profiled on "All Things Considered" (Jan. 10). It's her third No. 1 on Traditional Classical Albums and, with a 3,000 start, her best sales week yet.

8 Title's deluxe re-issue on Jan. 18 with a bonus track and a DVD boosts the set with a 101% increase.

Album's 84% gain follows a $5 special at Amazon MP3 and the band's "Jimmy Fallon" performance (Jan. 18). It's the set's best week (almost 2,000) since its debut in April 2010.

PROGRESS REPORT

Mann Featuring 50 Cent, "Buzzin' "
The Nu Shooz-sampling song from Mann debuts at No. 40 this week on the Mainstream Top 40 airplay tally—his first hit on the list. The tune, which borrows from Nu Shooz's 1986 No. 3 Billboard Hot 100 hit "I Can't Wait," also rises 22-19 on Rhythmic.

Sale-pricing at Best Buy helps return the set to No. 1 after an eight-week vacation from the top slot (up 31%).

The group—one of Ellen DeGeneres' favorites—played the host's star-studded birthday edition of her talk show last week (up 147%). Other guests included Julia Roberts, Colin Farrell and P!nk.

As the band hit the road with Avenged Sevenfold on Jan. 20, its venue sales jump, creating an overall 776% gain.

7 After Green's Gwyneth Paltrow and Muppet-assisted performance at the Grammy Awards (Feb. 13), the song bests its previous No. 9 peak set in December. While it bounds 12-6 on Hot Digital Songs (148,000, up 55%), it's likely to sustain momentum next issue following a full week of Grammy-prompted sales.

The singer scores Greatest Gainer/Digital honors for a second consecutive week (145,000, up 93%). She also leaps past Ludacris for most top 10s (18) since 2000.

18 While the "Glee" cast, with six bows, passes Elvis Presley for most entries in the Hot 100's history with 113 (see Over the Counter, page 69), featured artist Lil Wayne ties the Beatles for sixth place (67). The track begins with 135,000 downloads sold.

Singer/songwriter previews her third studio set, as the first single starts with 130,000 downloads and rises 38-33 (up 92%) on Adult Top 40.

75 The cast member of the CW's "One Tree Hill" premiered her debut single on the series' Feb. 8 episode. The cut starts at No. 6 on Country Digital Songs (41,000).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS
GAGA'S 'BORN' TO ONE (AND 1,000)

LADY GAGA

While Lady Gaga's "Born This Way" becomes the 1,000th No. 1 in the Billboard Hot 100's 52-year history, as well as the 19th title to debut there, the artist also makes historic arrivals on Hot Digital Songs and Hot 100 Airplay. "Born" sets the opening-week sales mark for a female artist on the former chart (see Over the Counter, page 69), while rewriting the record for highest debut (No. 6) and largest first-week audience (78.5 million) on the latter list since it began incorporating all radio formats in December 1998. Janet Jackson's "All for You" in 2001 held the prior marks for highest Hot 100 Airplay entrance (No. 9) and opening-week audience (70 million). —Silvio Pietrolungo & Gary Trust

After almost three years off the charts, the singer/songwriter returns, bowing with 3,000. It also arrives at No. 48 on Rock Albums, viewable at billboard.biz/charts.

After her surprise Grammy win for best new artist (Feb. 13), her album vaults with a 243% gain. Expect a larger increase next week and a likely re-entry on the Billboard 200.

11 NPR's "Weekend Edition" profiled the artist on Feb. 12, no doubt helping the set start with 2,000 copies.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for rank, title, artist, and album. Includes entries like 'Born This Way' by Lady Gaga and 'F*ck You (Forget You)' by Cee Lo Green.

Though down 39% in digital sales (to 252,000), the song claims Greatest Gainer/Airplay honors for a second consecutive week, bounding into the top 10 (14-6) on Hot 100 Airplay (80 million in audience, up 28%).

As the song roars 12-4 on Hot Digital Songs (170,000, up 42%) and enters Hot 100 Airplay at No. 57 (20 million, up 194%), "Teenage Dream" becomes the first Capitol Records album to generate four Billboard Hot 100 top 10s since Heart's self-titled set in 1985-86.

11 The singer scores her seventh top 10 on Hot Digital Songs, where the cut charges 23-10 (129,000, up 52%).

49 & 61 Upping its count to a record-extending 120 total chart entries, the TV troupe has now charted 38 remakes of Hot 100 No. 1s.

100 All three artists return to the chart after lengthy absences: Staind frontman Lewis last charted as a solo act in 2001, Jones in 2000 and Daniels in 1982. The track bullets 16-13 on Rock Digital Songs and 18-15 on Country Digital Songs (21,000, up 6%).

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart table, including entries like 'Who Dat Girl' by Flo Rida and 'For the First Time' by The Script.

Advertisement for Jennifer Lopez's debut on American Idol. Includes the headline 'J-LO LOGS HIGHEST DEBUT' and a photo of her. Text: 'New "American Idol" judge Jennifer Lopez posts her first top 10 entry on the Billboard Hot 100, as "On the Floor," featuring Pitbull, blasts in as the Hot Shot Debut at No. 9. The song, Lopez's first top 10 as a lead artist since the four-week No. 1 "All I Have," featuring LL Cool J, in 2003, begins at No. 3 on Hot Digital Songs with 170,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. Island Def Jam withheld the song from a digital release for a month following its radio launch—it rises 40-38 on Mainstream Top 40—synching it with the premiere of its video on the March 3 "Idol" episode. —Gary Trust'

With nearly 1,000 sold, the pianist also enters at No. 6 on Traditional Jazz Albums, marking his 10th top 10, and fifth in a row, on the genre chart.

HEATSEEKERS ALBUMS: The best-selling albums by new or developing acts, defined as those who have never appeared on the top 100 of the Billboard 200 or the top 10 of Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums, Top Country Albums, Top Latin Albums, Top Christian Albums or Top Gospel Albums. If a title reaches any of those levels, it and the act's subsequent albums are then ineligible to appear on Heatseeker Albums. HEATSEEKERS SONGS: The most popular songs across all formats by new or developing acts, defined as those who have never appeared as a lead artist on the top 50 of the Billboard Hot 100 (or the top 50 of the Billboard Hot 100 for the top 50 of the Billboard Hot 100) prior to Dec. 5, 1999. If a title reaches that level, it and the act's subsequent songs are then ineligible to appear on Heatseeker Songs. Titles are ranked by radio airplay audience impressions as measured by Nielsen BDS, sales data as compiled by Nielsen SoundScan and streaming activity data provided by online music sources. © 2011, Prometheus Global Media, LLC and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. NEW ON THE CHARTS

Andy Grammer, "Keep Your Head Up"
Los Angeles natives might recall Grammer from his days on the Third Street Promenade in Santa Monica Calif., where the singer/songwriter honed his skills as a street performer. Now signed to S-Curve, he rises 27-25 on Adult Top 40 with his first Billboard chart hit.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Chart table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Producer, Imprint/Promotion, Label, Cert., Peak Position. Includes entries like 'BORN THIS WAY' by Lady Gaga, 'FK YOU (FORGET YOU)' by Cee Lo Green, 'E.T.' by Katy Perry, etc.

The song becomes her 16th top 10 (12-9) on Hot 100 Airplay, tying her with Janet Jackson for second-most among women in the chart's 21-year history. Mariah Carey leads with 23.

Five of Spears' last six singles account for half of her 10 Hot 100 top 10s. After its first full week of retail availability, her latest bounds 10-5 on Hot Digital Songs (158,000, up 36%).

The song soars to a new peak following a live performance on March 10 on "American Idol" (116,000 downloads, up 44%). With an 11-10 jump, it's Diddy's first top 10 on Mainstream Top 40 since 2007.

The highest of the troupe's four debuts (115,000 downloads) spurs sales gains for prior versions of the classic tune by Dixie Chicks (17,000, up 89%) and Fleetwood Mac (11,000, up 252%).

The first single from "Holding On to Strings Better Left to Fray," due May 17, blasts onto Rock Songs at No. 18 (5.2 million in first-week audience), while opening with 33,000 downloads sold.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart table, including entries like 'THIS' by Darius Rucker, 'DO YOU WANNA TOUCH ME (OH YEAH)' by Glee Cast, 'PRICE TAG' by Jessie J, etc.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

PERRY DOMINATES DIGITAL SONGS

Katy Perry's "Teenage Dream" becomes the first album to yield four No. 1s on Hot Digital Songs, as "E.T.," featuring Kanye West, flies 5-1 with 216,000 downloads sold (up 30%), according to Nielsen SoundScan. The song follows "California Gurls," featuring Snoop Dogg, the title cut and "Firework" to the summit. The Black Eyed Peas, Fergie, Rihanna and Justin Timberlake had each previously banked three Hot Digital Songs leaders from a single album. On the Billboard Hot 100, "E.T." charges 8-3 with Greatest Gainer/Digital honors. Also fueling its Hot 100 advance is a 38-24 vault on Hot 100 Airplay (4+ million audience impressions, up 32%, according to Nielsen BDS). —Gary Trust

1 In its sixth chart week, the track becomes her second No. 1 on Hot 100. "Paparazzi" reached the summit the week of Nov. 21, 2009, in its 10th frame.

The quartet benefits from its March 17 "American Idol" appearance, as the act's 10th top 10—and eighth in a row—bounds 18-3 on Hot Digital Songs (198,000, up 143%).

23 Though the song tumbles by 45% to 87,000 downloads, its radio run looks promising. It jumps 26-17 as the Greatest Gainer on Mainstream Top 40. On Hot 100 Airplay, it charges 47-33 (34 million audience impressions, up 32%).

Singer/actress posts her best sales week, as the song, whose video premiered March 11 on the Disney Channel, shifts 116,000 downloads. Five of her nine Hot 100 entries debuted within the top 40.

"Jar of Hearts" remains in the top 20 (No. 19) as the uptempo follow-up begins with 26,000 downloads. The singer/songwriter's debut set, "Lovestrong," arrives May 10.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS ORIGINAL 'GLEE' SONGS SCORE BIG

The cast of Fox's "Glee" registers the second-best digital sales week for any of its singles, as "Loser Like Me" roars onto the Billboard Hot 100 (No. 6) and Hot Digital Songs (No. 2) with 210,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. "Teenage Dream" represents the cast's best weekly sum (214,000 in the Nov. 27, 2010, issue). The troupe also stars at No. 16 on the Hot 100 with "Get It Right" (151,000). The tracks (plus No. 53) mark the ensemble's first recordings of songs written specifically for the series. The cast's seven new entries sold a combined 712,000 downloads in the chart's tracking week.

Indeed, the veteran band is still eligible for the Heatseekers chart, as it has yet to float above No. 100 on the Billboard 200. Its latest starts with 2,000.

Fresh off a scandalous South by Southwest performance—where the band's lead singer got into an altercation with an audience member—the act's first album in 11 years enters with fewer than 2,000.

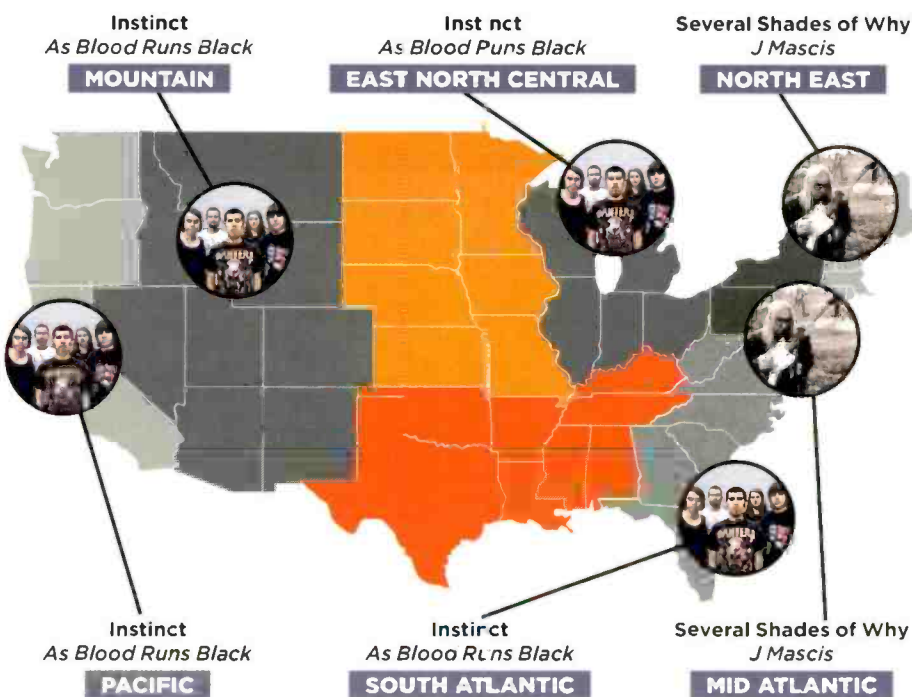

The in-the-mix set boasts tracks from the Temper Trap, LMFAO and Deadmau5. It also enters Electronic Albums at No. 8.

NEW ON THE CHARTS

Does It Offend You, Yeah?, "Don't Say . . ."
Though the British band's first album, 2008's "You Have No Idea What . . ." has sold 33,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan, it failed to make an impact on a Billboard tally. Thus its new set (No. 29 on Heatseekers Albums) gives the act its chart debut.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with 13 columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Week, Last Week, Peak, Cert. Includes top entries like 'S&M' by Rihanna, 'Just Can't Get Enough' by The Black Eyed Peas, and 'FK YOU (FORGET YOU)' by Cee Lo Green.

Spurred by the premiere of its special-effects-heavy video on March 31, song surges by 29% to 327,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. On Hot 100 Airplay, it bounds 10-6 (88 million impressions, up 20%).

The first single from "21," which has sold 941,000 copies in its first six weeks, is the soulful British singer/songwriter's first Hot 100 top 10. The track shoots 11-9 on Hot Digital Songs (122,000, up 16%) and 50-36 on Hot 100 Airplay (up 35%).

After debuting last week following four days of sales, John Lennor-referencing second single from "The Carter IV" (due on May 16) zooms 39-10 on Hot Digital Songs (116,000, up 134%).

Unlike "Grey's Anatomy" actress Sara Ramirez, who bows at No. 69 with her Brandi Carlile cover from the series' March 31 musical episode, the "Victorious" cast regularly sings on its Nickelodeon show. The song starts with 28,000 downloads sold.

Table with 13 columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Week, Last Week, Peak, Cert. Includes entries like 'YOU LIE' by The Band Perry, 'WHEN I'M GCNE' by Wiz Khalifa, and 'THE CAVE' by Mumford & Sons.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

RIHANNA WHIPS UP RECORD STREAK

As it holds at No. 2 for a second week on the Billboard Hot 100, "S&M" becomes Rihanna's record-setting fifth consecutive No. 1 (2-1) on Hot 100 Airplay (and eighth overall), besting streaks of four each by Destiny's Child (2000-01) and Usher (2004). Rihanna has linked leaders in each of her last five appearances on the list courtesy of "Rude Boy"; Eminem's "Love the Way You Lie," on which she guested; "Only Girl (In the World)"; and "What's My Name?," featuring Drake, prior to "S&M." Her eighth Hot 100 Airplay No. 1s break a tie with Usher for second-most chart-toppers after Mariah Carey (11) since the tally first appeared in the Dec. 8, 1990, issue.

Her album returns to the tally (up 102%) following an interview on NPR's "Weekend Edition" on April 2.

After a West Coast visit and a number of radio and TV interviews in local markets, the album posts a 108% sales gain.

The Missouri band, which played a number of shows at South by South-west, earns its first Billboard chart ink as its new album bows with 3,000.

His new album (1,000) follows its self-titled 2009 set, which debuted and peaked at No. 1 off a 4,000 start. It has sold 51,000 to date.

39 The former frontman for Elephant (No. 16 in 2006 with "The Black Magic Show"), Garcia enters with his debut solo release, shifting about 1,000 copies.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table of Billboard Hot 100 chart data for the week of April 30, 2011. Columns include Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, and Peak Position. Top entries include 'S&M' by Rihanna and 'Party Rock Anthem' by LMFAO.

9 The song blasts 19-10 on Hot 100 Airplay (61 million, up 14%), granting Spears her first streak of three straight top 10s on the list (following "Hold It Against Me" and "3").

10 After less than three days of sales and five days of airplay, the follow-up to the single "Born This Way" (No. 13) arrives with 162,000 downloads sold and 26 million in audience. The second single from the "Born This Way" album, due May 23, could vault next week following its first full frame.

11 Bounding 16-9 (124,000 downloads, up 42%), Mars has reached the Hot Digital Songs top 10 with all five of his radio singles. (The last three have billed him as lead act.)

31 After the pair's April 14 performance on "American Idol," the song reaches a new Hot 100 peak (59,000 downloads, up 64%) and bows at No. 39 on Adult Top 40.

The quartet includes Nash Overstreet—son of country singer Paul Overstreet and brother of "Glee" cast member Chord Overstreet.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart data, listing songs from rank 56 to 100. Includes entries like 'Party Rock Anthem', 'Roketeer', 'Sure Thing', and 'Without You'.

NEW ON THE CHARTS

The Asteroids Galaxy Tour, "Fruit"
Though it was released in 2009, the set garners its best sales week yet and first visit to a Billboard chart (No. 30 on Heatseekers Albums; 1,000) thanks to the use of the single "The Golden Age" in viral and TV commercials for Heineken.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for rank, title, artist, and album. Includes tracks like 'E.T.', 'Rolling in the Deep', 'Till the World Ends', and 'I Feel Pretty / Unpretty'.

The slim margin (roughly 500 units) between the top two titles on Hot Digital Songs marks the tightest race atop the tally since nearly 250 downloads separated Mariah Carey's 'All I Want for Christmas Is You' and Eminem's 'When I'm Gone' (each approximately 41,000) the week of Dec. 24, 2005.

As the Fox TV troupe arrives with four titles, led by its 'West Side Story'/'TLC mash-up' (112,000 downloads), its cover of dance hit 'Barbra Streisand' on the series' April 26 episode prompts a 149% spike (to 30,000) for the original by Duck Sauce (pictured).

The remake (46,000 downloads) by the contestant on NBC's 'The Voice' marks the song's third charted version, following Cyndi Lauper's 1984 original and Ino's 1998 cover (No. 6).

After peaking at No. 56 on the Hot 100 in December, the track's placement in Victoria's Secret's latest ad campaign triggers a 73-57 lift (33,000, up 14%) on Hot Digital Songs.

The trio makes its Hot 100 bow with its No. 6-ranking Alternative hit. The group releases debut set 'Torches' on May 24.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS REMIX SPURS SPEARS' DIGITAL GAIN. Britney Spears' 'Till the World Ends' blasts 11-3 on the Billboard Hot 100, besting its previous peak of No. 9. Following the release of the song's remix featuring Nicki Minaj and Ke$ha, 'World' roars 12-3 on Hot Digital Songs with 246,000 downloads sold (up 102%), according to Nielsen SoundScan. The remix accounted for 68% of the title's sales in the April 25-May 1 tracking period. 'World' marks the second high-profile remix to prompt a notable chart move (both involving Spears) in three weeks. Rihanna's 'S&M' ascended 2-1 two weeks ago following the release of its Spears-assisted remix. Similarly, the collaborative version of 'S&M' accounted for 66% of the song's overall digital sales in that frame. -Gary Trust

The most popular songs, according to all-format audience impressions, measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems, and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. Greatest Gainer/Digital and Greatest Gainer/Airplay are awarded, respectively, for the largest digital sales and airplay increases on the chart. THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table of Billboard Hot 100 chart data for week of May 21, 2011. Columns include Rank, Last Week, Weeks on Chart, Title, Artist, and Certification. Top entry is Adele's 'Rolling in the Deep' at #1.

3 & 8 "Floor" soars by 25% to 175,000 downloads sold after the "American Idol" judge and Pitbull performed on the May 4 show.

7 An "Idol" performance on May 4 likewise aids Lady Antebellum, which posts the highest debut by a country group in the chart's history.

32 Previewing his fifth studio set, the French DJ notches his highest Hot 100 debut and first No. 1 bow on Dance/Electronic Digital Songs (211,000).

32 Having reunited after more than a decade, the duo of Eminem and Royce Da 5'9" drop the EP "Hell: The Sequel" on June 14.

Fleetwood Mac charted the original versions of the songs at Nos. 45, 79 and 92 in 1977, but the "Glee" cast's remakes of these two "Rumours" album cuts mark their first Hot 100 appearances.

Continuation of Billboard Hot 100 chart data from rank 36 to 100. Includes entries like 'You Lie', 'Tonight to Tonight', and 'Glee Cast'.

Feature article: BETWEEN THE BULLETS ADELE'S 'DEEP' DOMINATES HOT 100. Text describes Adele's success with 'Rolling in the Deep' and her performance on American Idol.

PROGRESS REPORT

Natalia Kills, "Mirrors"
 Pop/dance singer Natalia Kills is making strides up the Dance Club Songs chart with her debut single, "Mirrors," as it glides 24-15 in its fifth week on the list. The song is from her first album, "Perfectionist," due out in the United States later this year.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, Peak Position. Includes songs like 'Rolling in the Deep' by Adele, 'The Edge of Glory' by Lady Gaga, 'Give Me Everything' by Pitbull, etc.

1 The song firms up its lock atop the tally with a 20% increase in digital sales to 353,000, its highest weekly sum to date, and a 19% gain to 118 million audience impressions.

28 The former Hot 100 leader becomes Perry's first No. 1 (2-1) on Adult Contemporary. The song has also topped Mainstream and Adult Top 40, Dance Club Songs and Dance Airplay.

Following the video's premiere on 'American Idol' May 12, the show's judge charts his first solo Hot 100 hit (77,000 downloads sold). He's tallied 28 entries with Aerosmith, starting with 'Dream On' in 1975.

Sparks took to the 'Idol' stage on May 12, performing the Ryan Tedder-co-written lead single (33,000 downloads) from her forthcoming third studio album.

98 As her Hot Country Songs top 10 'Mean' rises 46-37, growth on Mainstream Top 40 (31-30) spurs this single's Hot 100 return. It spent a week at No. 41 upon the release of her third set, 'Speak Now,' in November.

Table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, Peak Position. Includes songs like 'Tonight Tonight' by Hot Chelle Rae, 'Without You' by Keith Urban, 'You Lie' by The Band Perry, etc.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS LADY GAGA MAKES 'GLORY'-OUS BOW

Lady Gaga's 'The Edge of Glory' blasts in at No. 3 on the Billboard Hot 100. The third single from her May 23 album 'Born This Way' charges in as the highest new entry on the Hot Digital Songs (No. 2; 266,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan) and Hot 100 Airplay (No. 54; 20 million audience impressions, according to Nielsen BDS). 'Glory' marks Lady Gaga's 10th consecutive radio release to have reached the Hot 100's top 10, dating to her arrival with the No. 1 'Just Dance' less than three years ago. Among women in the chart's five-decade history, only Mariah Carey (11) has begun with more consecutive career-opening top 10 singles. —Gary Trust

At 21 weeks, the song completes the longest top 10 ascension since Kings of Leon's "Use Somebody" (26 weeks, 2009). The rapper bests the No. 10 peak of his sole prior top 10, 2008's "Superstar."

Ahead of her expected bow atop next week's Billboard 200 (see page 37), "Hair" whips up 147,000 in first-week digital sales.

The former Pussycat Dolls singer starts with 29,000 downloads after she and 50 Cent performed the track on "American Idol" on May 19. On tap: the release of her debut set, "Killer Love," and judging duties on Fox's "The X Factor."

Can Rihanna score a fourth consecutive No. 1 from her "Loud" album? This ballad follows leaders "Only Girl (In the World)"; "What's My Name?," featuring Drake; and "S&M."

The song samples "Banana Boat (Day-O)," a No. 5 hit for Harry Belafonte on Hot 100 predecessor the Top 100 in 1957, and Robin S.' "Show Me Love," which reached No. 5 on the Hot 100 in 1993.

LMFAO LEAPS INTO HOT 100 TOP 10

Los Angeles dance/rap duo LMFAO logs its first Billboard Hot 100 top 10, as "Party Rock Anthem," featuring Lauren Bennett and GoonRock, soars 20-8 with Greatest Gainer/Digital honors. The track charges 13-4 on Hot Digital Songs (163,000, up 68%, according to Nielsen SoundScan). The pair—Stefan Gordy (Redfoo) and Skyler Gordy (SkyBlu), the son and nephew, respectively, of Motown Records founder Berry Gordy—previously peaked as high as No. 31 last August as a featured act, with Fergie, on David Guetta and Chris Willis' "Gettin' Over You." On Dance/Electronic Digital Songs (see opposite page), "Party" becomes LMFAO's first No. 1 (2-1). —Gary Trust

1 The band barely makes the Heatseekers chart this week, as the album arrives at No. 101 on the Billboard 200. (Had it been No. 100, it would have been ineligible to chart on Heatseekers.)

Jazz saxophonist also arrives at No. 3 on Contemporary Jazz, marking his seventh charting set and sixth to claim a top 10 ranking.

Sonic Youth guitarist has charted once before on his own, with "Trees Outside the Academy" in 2007 (No. 6). His latest effort begins with nearly 1,000 sold.

The singer/songwriter notches his second straight No. 1 with his second full-length album (4,000).

The set's wide physical release prompts its 366% gain after it arrived digitally last week from downloads and early sales through brick-and-mortar indie retailers.

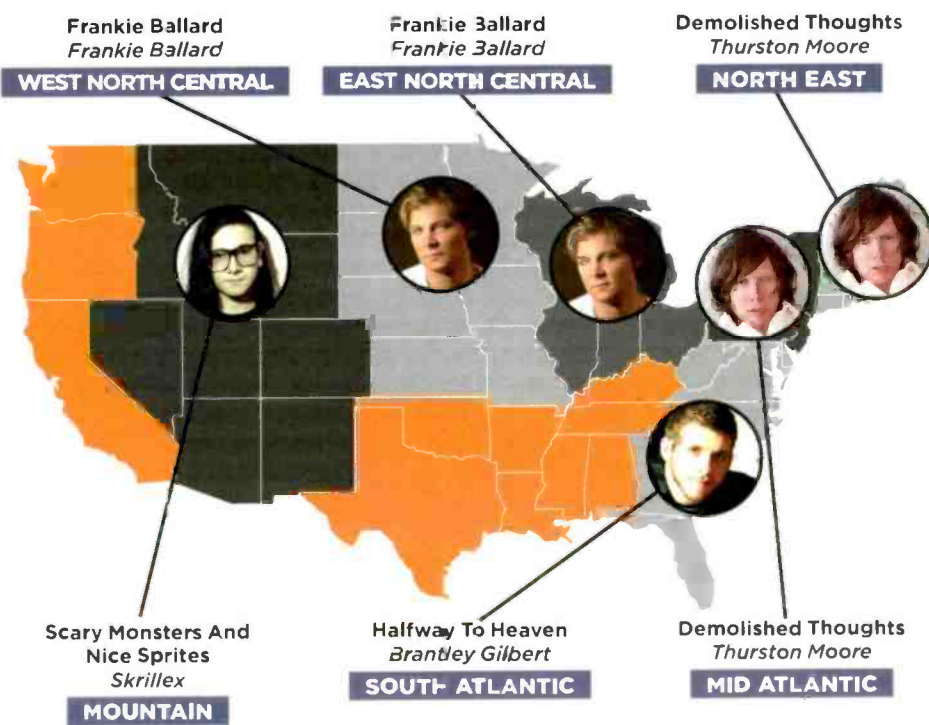

Slow and steady wins the race, right? Then kudos to Yelawolf, whose title has yet to sell less than 1,000 in a week since bowing 27 weeks ago. His to-date sales rise to 44,000.

PROGRESS REPORT

Beth Ditto, "I Wrote the Book"
While the Gossip singer has appeared on the Dance Club Songs chart with her band, Ditto sashays her way or to the list this week with the first single from her self-titled debut solo EP. "Book" begins its chart story at No. 45.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, WICED AGO, WEEKS ON CHART, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Includes songs like 'LAST FRIDAY NIGHT (T.G.I.F.)', 'PARTY ROCK ANTHEM', 'MOVES LIKE JAGGER', 'SUPER BASS', 'LIGHTERS', 'HOW TO LOVE', 'GIVE ME EVERYTHING', 'PUMPED UP KICKS', 'I WANNA GO', 'GOOD LIFE', 'TONIGHT TONIGHT', 'ROLLING IN THE DEEP', 'HEADLINES', 'THE EDGE OF GLORY', 'IF I DIE YOUNG', 'I'M ON ONE', 'REMIND ME', 'BEST THING I NEVER HAD', 'STEREO HEARTS', 'DIRT ROAD ANTHEM', 'KNEE DEEP', 'MOTIVATION', 'YOU MAKE ME FEEL...', 'JUST A KISS', 'CHEERS (DRINK TO THAT)', 'BAREFOOT BLUE JEAN NIGHT', 'COUNTRY GIRL (SHAKE IT FOR ME)', 'WHERE THEIR GIRLS AT', 'JUST CAN'T GET ENOUGH', 'RAIN OVER ME', 'SHE AIN'T YOU', 'E.T.', 'YOU AND TEQUILA', 'THE LAZY SONG', 'EVERY TEARDROP IS A WATERFALL', 'OTIS', 'ON THE FLOOR', 'HONEY BEE', 'IT GIRL', 'MARVINS ROOM', 'THE SHOW GOES ON', 'AM I THE ONLY ONE', 'OUT OF MY HEAD', 'WHO GON STOP ME', 'GOD GAVE ME YOU', 'I'M INTO YOU', 'SOMEONE LIKE YOU', 'TAKE OVER CONTROL', 'MR. SAXOBEAT', 'MADE IN AMERICA', 'LOVE YOU LIKE A LOVE SONG'.

Maroon 5 (pictured) and Aguilera can get satisfaction from notching their second and first leaders, respectively, on Hot Digital Songs (219,000, up 38%). On Hot 100 Airplay, the song surges 32-18 (47 million, 37%). Its video premiered Aug. 8.

Having topped Alternative for five weeks, the track is the chart's first leader to reach the Hot 100's top 10 since Linkin Park's 11-week Alternative No. 1 "New Divide" peaked at No. 6 on the Hot 100 in June 2009.

The lead single from the rapper's second studio album, Take Care, due this fall, launches on Hot Digital Songs at No. 6 (146,000) and Hot 100 Airplay at No. 63 (18 million, up 53%).

After charting for two weeks as an album cut, beginning when parent set Speak Now bowed atop the Billboard 200 (Nov. 13, 2010), the now-single reignites, fueled by its 23-19 lift on Hot Country Songs.

As with Swift's "Sparks," this track from Born This Way returns as a proper single. The singer's first promoted ballad begins at No. 35 on Mainstream Top 40.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS KATY PERRY MAKES HOT 100 HISTORY

Katy Perry becomes the first woman in the 53-year history of the Billboard Hot 100 to send five songs from an album to No. 1, as "Last Friday Night (T.G.I.F.)" (2-1) marks the fifth topper from Teenage Dream (see pages 8, 45). "Friday" takes over the summit by registering 156,000 downloads sold (up 14%), according to Nielsen SoundScan, and 148 million in all-format audience (up 1%), according to Nielsen BDS. Perry displaces LMFAO's "Party Rock Anthem," which reigned for six weeks. The track dips to No. 2, declining by 13% in digital sales to 160,000 and by 3% in airplay to 142 million.

The most popular songs, according to all-format audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan, are listed in the chart. REGIONAL HEATSEEKERS #1 ALBUMS

PROGRESS REPORT

Cody Simpson, "On My Mind"
While the Australian teen singer has not yet had an EP on the Heatseekers Albums chart (with 4 U), he makes his first appearance on an airplay tally this week as "On My Mind" debuts at No. 39 on the Mainstream Top 40 chart.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, etc.

Track becomes the fifth No. 1 on Hot 100 Airplay from Teenage Dream, a new one-album record surpassing Usher's four from Confessions in 2004. Her streak of five straight No. 1s matches the chart's earliest this year.

Title enters top 10 of Hot Digital Songs (13-6), hitting six figures for the first time (134,000, up 51%). Meanwhile, act's album jumps 28-20 on Billboard 200 with its best sales (17,000) since its debut 10 weeks ago.

Male half of this duet claims his first top 20 Hot 100 hit while female half enjoys her ninth top 20 trip.

Metal band finally breaks into the Hot 100 four years after first hitting a Billboard chart. New song shifts 31,000 downloads while jumping 39-27 on the radio-based Rock Songs ranking.

British singer makes her Hot 100 debut days after appearing at the Lollapalooza festival in Chicago (Aug. 6). Track shifts 31,000 (up 265%) and opens at No. 51 on Hot Digital Songs.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart, ranks 56-100.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'JAGGER' SWAGGERS BACK TO TOP 10

The NBC network helps out one of its own as 'The Voice' coach Adam Levine and his band Maroon 5 see their track 'Moves Like Jagger,' featuring fellow 'Voice' mentor Christina Aguilera, shoot back into the Billboard Hot 100 top 10 (25-8) for the first time since it debuted at No. 8 in the July 9 issue. The band performed the single on the Aug. 3 edition of NBC's 'America's Got Talent' and then two days later on 'Today,' leading to a 124% gain in downloads (159,000), the chart's best digital gain. The spike propels the track 17-3 on Hot Digital Songs.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, PEAK POSITION, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION.

10 As she debuts at No. 2 with Stronger on the Billboard 200 (see page 62), the maiden "American Idol" champion nets her ninth Hot 100 top 10; Carrie Underwood is second among the series' graduates with four top 10s.

The song surges in downloads sold (19-10 on Hot Digital Songs; 100,000, up 63%) and radio audience (57-38 on Hot 100 Airplay; 33 million, up 49%).

20 As she reigns as a lead act, Rihanna bows on the list's top new entry as a guest. Coldplay collects its third top 20 Hot 100 hit from the Billboard 200's new No. 1, Mylo Xyloto, as the song (105,000 downloads) follows radio singles "Every Teardrop Is a Waterfall" (No. 14 peak) and "Paradise" (No. 15 peak; this week at No. 49).

30 With a 158% gain in downloads (to 66,000), the rapper matches his best Hot 100 rank, achieved with his debut entry "My Last" in July.

After "Mistletoe" opened last week (with 147,000 downloads) atop Holiday Digital Songs (see billboard.biz/charts), Bieber replaces himself atop the tally, as his duet with his mentor starts with 47,000.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart table, rows 56-100.

HEATSEEKERS ALBUMS: The best-selling albums by new or developing acts, defined as those who have never appeared on the top 100 of the Billboard 200 or the top 10 of the Billboard Top Country Albums, Top Latin Albums, Top Rap Albums, Top R&B Albums, Top Soul Albums, Top Christian Albums, or Top Gospel Albums. If a title reaches any of these peaks, it and the act's subsequent albums are eligible to appear on Heatseeker Albums. Titles are ranked by radio airplay audience impressions, as measured by Nielsen SoundScan and streaming activity data, provided by online music sources. © 2011, Prometheus Global Media, LLC and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. NEW ON THE CHARTS

Joseph Calleja, The Maltese Tenor
The tenor makes his Billboard chart debut with The Maltese Tenor's arrival at No. 30 on Heatseekers Albums and No. 1 on Traditional Classical Albums. Aiding his debut was an Oct. 20 profile on NPR's "Morning Edition."

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, WEEKS ON CHART, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Top entry: 1 ROLLING IN THE DEEP Adele.

10 The rapper earns her first Hot 100 top 10 as a lead artist. She had previously ranked in the top tier as a guest on Trey Songz' "Bottoms Up" (No. 6) last year.

The song's '80s-inspired clip sports cameos from Corey Feldman, Kenny G and Debbie Gibson. For an exclusive Gibson Q&A, go to billboard.com/chartbeat.

36 With the "Transformers: Dark of the Moon" soundtrack due on next week's Billboard 200, this single starts at No. 16 on Hot Digital Songs (88,000 downloads), where it's the group's highest rank since debut hit "Misery Business" (No. 11, 2007).

After wrapping a 28-week Hot 100 run in January, the former Hot Country Songs No. 1 returns, fueled by No. 29 rankings on Mainstream Top 40 and Adult Contemporary and a No. 32 bow on Adult Top 40. The ballad rebounds 44-36 (49,000, up 21%) on Hot Digital Songs.

97 Theventura frontman's solo debut spends a fifth week—its entire chart life—atop Hot Latin Songs. The group reached the same Hot 100 slot with its sole entry, "Ella y Yo" (2005).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS ALDEAN 'ROAD'-TRIPS TO TOP 10

Jason Aldean's "Dirt Road Anthem" charges 23-9 with the Billboard Hot 100's Greatest Gainer/Digital award. As it lifts 16-4 on Hot Digital Songs with 169,000 downloads sold (up 99%), according to Nielsen SoundScan, the song nets the second-best weekly sum for a male country artist. "American Idol" champion Scotty McCreery's "I Love You This Big" began with 171,000 two weeks ago. Aldean performed "Anthem" with Ludacris on the CMT Music Awards (June 8). A new studio version with the rapper, released June 7, accounts for 44% of the title's overall weekly download total. With the vault, Aldean surpasses his previous best Hot 100 showing, reaped with "Big Green Tractor" (No. 18, 2009). —Gary Trust

Singer/songwriter's latest effort arrives with his best debut sales week (3,000), marking his third top 10 set. He's touring North America through June 30.

Best-known as lead vocalist/guitarist for Tiger Army, the frontman launches his solo career with this self-titled set (4,000).

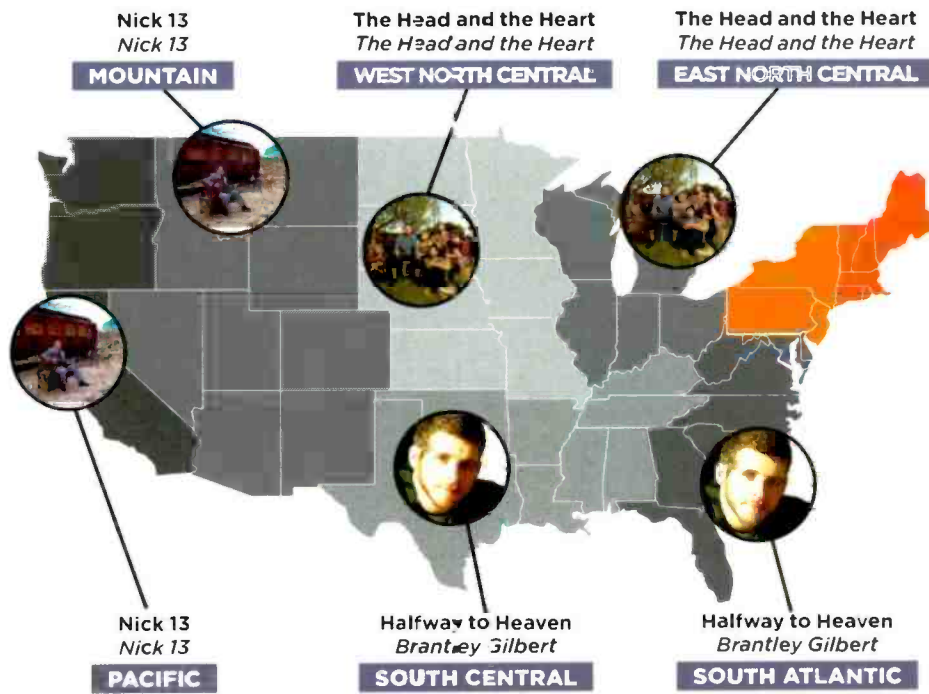

The act profits from placement of the album's song "Morning Thought" as iTunes' free Discovery Download last week and the set's $7.99 sale price at the retailer.

12 The song, which showcases the rapper's singling skills, rockets 52-5 on Hot Digital Songs (151,000, up 309%) following its first full week of retail availability.

16 Improving to 86,000 downloads sold and 32 million audience impressions, the song marks the group's highest Hot 100 rank since "Stop and Stare" reached No. 12 in 2008.

After spending a week at No. 67 the week that parent album "Teenage Dream" launched atop the Billboard 200 (Sept. 11, 2010), the song, now the set's fifth single, returns. An online teaser for the cut's video, due June 14, helped prompt a 131% digital sales spike to 31,000.

84 The new radio focus track is one of three songs on the chart from Beyoncé's forthcoming album "4," joining prior single "Run the World (Girls)" (No. 55) and "1+1" (No. 89).

The song marks the first top 10 on Adult Top 40 (No. 9 this issue) by a new male artist in his first chart appearance since Josh Kelley's "Amazing" (No. 8, 2003).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

'WATERFALL' MAKES A SPLASH

After less than a week at retail and radio, Coldplay's "Every Teardrop Is a Waterfall" charges in as the Billboard Hot 100's Hot Shot Debut at No. 29. The track, released June 3, starts on Hot Digital Songs at No. 17 with 85,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. It begins with 10 million audience impressions on 122 stations, according to Nielsen BDS, and bows on Rock Songs (No. 21), Triple A (No. 23) and Alternative (No. 28). "Waterfall" marks Coldplay's sixth top 40 Hot 100 hit. Its highest-peaking chart entry, "Viva La Vida," began a three-week reign at No. 1 this week in 2008.

HEATSEEKERS ALBUMS: The best-selling albums by new or developing acts, defined as those who have never appeared on the top 100 of the Billboard 200 or the top 10 of Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums, Top Country Albums, Top Latin Albums, Top Gospel Albums, Top Christian Albums or Top Jazz Albums. If a title reaches any of those levels, it and the act's subsequent albums are then ineligible to appear on Heatseeker Albums. HEATSEEKERS SONGS: The most popular songs across all formats by new or developing acts, as measured by Nielsen BDS, sales data as compiled by Nielsen SoundScan and streaming activity data provided by online music sources. © 2011, Prometheus Global Media, LLC and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. 55	60	-	TAKE OVER CONTROL	Afrojack Featuring Eva Simons		55

1 The track tops Hot 100 Airplay (2-1) with a 2% gain to 146 million in all-format audience, 2 million more than Perry's "Friday" (up 11%) at No. 2. In download sales, "Party" leads "Friday," 202,000 to 151,000.

12 The cut charges 40-9 on Hot Digital Songs (113,000, up 158%) following its first full week at retail. On Hot 100 Airplay, the ode to Redding (pictured) lifts 50-47 (25 million, up 17%).

21 A dose of good news for Anthony, following the recent announcement of his separation from wife Jennifer Lopez: He returns to the top 40 for the first time since his "You Sang to Me" reached No. 2 in 2000.

91 As "California King Bed" drops to No. 54 from its No. 37 peak last week, the follow-up and fifth pop radio single from Rihanna's album Loud arrives, fueled by a No. 35 start on Mainstream Top 40.

96 Adele's former triple A No. 1 is one of four tracks from 27 gracing the Hot 100. In addition to "Rolling in the Deep" (No. 6), new pop/adult radio single "Someone Like You" rises 85-73, and "Set Fire to the Rain" re-enters at No. 84.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS
1, 2, 3: BRITNEY'S BACK IN THE TOP 10

Femme Fatale becomes Britney Spears' first album to generate a trio of Billboard Hot 100 top 10s, as "I Wanna Go" lifts 11-9. The cut, which jumps 13-9 on Hot 100 Airplay (76 million audience impressions, up 22%, according to Nielsen BDS), follows "Hold It Against Me," the set's lead single, which debuted at No. 2 in the Jan. 29 issue, and "Till the World Ends," which reached No. 3 in May. Spears had previously banked two Hot 100 top 10s each from her debut album, ... Baby One More Time (1999), and Circus (2008). "Go" marks Spears' 12th career Hot 100 top 10 and her fifth in a row.

The former husband-and-wife duo of Ivan Howard and Kelly Crisp sees its fifth album (and first after breaking up) re-enter (up 372%) after Amazon MP3 offered it as a $3.99 Daily Deal on July 27.

While fans waited nine years for his 2009 album Plays Blues, it only took a year for him to issue its sequel. The new one also bows at No. 3 on Blues Albums.

A July 26 performance on "Jimmy Kimmel Live!" helps the Tennessee rock band return to the chart for the first time since 2004. Its third full-length bows with 1,000.

NEW ON THE CHARTS

Cobra Starship Featuring Sabi, "You Make Me Feel . . ."
For featured artist Sabi, the single—w/ric r climbs 24-20 on Mainstream Top 40—marks her first Billboard chart appearance. The pop singer can also be heard on Britney Spears' Femme Fatale album on the song "(Drop Dead) Beautiful."

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for rank, title, artist, and album.

2 The song scores Greatest Gainer/Airplay honors for the fourth time in five weeks, pushing Perry closer to potential history: Should "Friday" reach No. 1, parent album Teenage Dream would become the second album to generate five Hot 100 leaders, following Michael Jackson's Bad in 1987-88.

The cut tops its prior best rank, established upon its debut at No. 16 five weeks ago, as it blasts 12-5 on Hot 100 Airplay (47 million, up 35%).

15 Also at No. 15 on Mainstream Top 40, Adult Contemporary and Adult Top 40, the former Hot Country Songs No. 1 reaches a new peak in its 35th week, marking the longest climb to the Hot 100's top 15. The ballad previously rose as high as No. 19 in October.

37 Though it's dropping on Mainstream Top 40 (20-21, after peaking at No. 18 two weeks ago), the song registers its best sales week (55,000, up 26%) and becomes her 20th single as a lead act and promoted to pop radio—her entire career output—to reach the Hot 100's top 40.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart table, showing ranks 56 through 100.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS CHILI PEPPERS RETURN TO 'HOT' 100

Red Hot Chili Peppers score the Billboard Hot 100's Hot Shot Debut, as "The Adventures of Rain Dance Maggie" bows at No. 38. The song starts on Hot Digital Songs at No. 26 with 57,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan, and enters Hot 100 Airplay at No. 74 with 15 million in audience (up 56%), according to Nielsen BDS. Fueling its rise at radio is the song's 23-1 blast on Rock Songs (see page 44). "Adventures" previews Red Hot Chili Peppers' 10th studio album, I'm With You, due Aug. 30. The track marks the band's 13th Hot 100 hit and its first since the No. 22-peaking "Snow (Hey Baby)" in 2007.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, 2 WEEKS AGO, WEEKS ON CHART, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Includes songs like 'PARTY ROCK ANTHEM', 'GIVE ME EVERYTHING', 'LAST FRIDAY NIGHT (T.G.I.F.)', 'ROLLING IN THE DEEP', 'SUPER BASS', 'HOW TO LOVE', 'THE EDGE OF GLORY', 'GOOD LIFE', 'TONIGHT TONIGHT', 'SKYSCRAPER', 'DIRT ROAD ANTHEM', 'E.T.', 'I WANNA GO', 'I'M ON ONE', 'THE LAZY SONG', 'THE SHOW GOES ON', 'LIGHTERS', 'DON'T WANNA GO HOME', 'JUST CAN'T GET ENOUGH', 'MOTIVATION', 'HONEY BEE', 'KNEE DEEP', 'IF I DIE YOUNG', 'JUST A KISS', 'BEST THING I NEVER HAD', 'ON THE FLOOR', 'REMIND ME', 'SHE AIN'T YOU', 'TILL THE WORLD ENDS', 'BAREFOOT BLUE JEAN NIGHT', 'COUNTRY GIRL (SHAKE IT FOR ME)', 'WHERE THEN GIRLS AT', 'LOOK AT ME NOW', 'MY LAST', 'YOU AND TEQUILA', 'TOMORROW', 'LOVE YOU LIKE A LOVE SONG', 'PUMPED UP KICKS', 'RIGHT THERE', 'SURE THING', 'FKIN' PERFECT', 'OUT OF MY HEAD', 'BLOW', 'BOOTY WURK (ONE CHEEK AT A TIME)', 'FIREWORK', 'FOR THE FIRST TIME', 'CALIFORNIA KING BED', 'DON'T YOU WANNA STAY', 'BEST LOVE SONG', 'FK YOU (FORGET YOU)', 'IF HEAVEN WASN'T SO FAR AWAY', 'WHO SAYS', 'CRAZY GIRL', 'EVERY TEARDROP IS A WATERFALL', 'MEAN'.

After four weeks at No. 4, the song lifts with Greatest Gainer/Airplay honors for the third time in four weeks. On Hot 100 Airplay, it rises 6-4 (114 million audience impressions, up 18%).

The ballad arrives with 176,000 downloads, marking her highest Hot 100 rank. (For more on the Disney star, see page 54).

The song charges 25-12 on Hot Digital Songs with 92,000 (up 51%), its best weekly total since it launched with 132,000. The song blasts 56-35 on Hot 100 Airplay ($4 million, up 69%).

Building pop airplay (3.6 million in mainstream top 40 audience, up 38%) spurs the Romanian's former seven-week Dance Airplay No. 1's Hot 100 bow.

The pop and adult radio follow-up to "Rolling in the Deep" spent a week at No. 65 in the March 12 issue when parent album "21" stormed in atop the Billboard 200. ("Rumor Has It" followed "Deep" at rock radio, reaching No. 2 on Triple A.)

BETWEEN THE BULLETS
ALDEAN, CLARKSON EXTEND 'STAY'

Jason Aldean's "Don't You Wanna Stay," with Kelly Clarkson, re-enters the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 48 after peaking at No. 31 in a 26-week run from November through May. The song first charted on the strength of its support from country audiences, as it spent three weeks atop Hot Country Songs in March. It returns to the Hot 100 as it scales Adult Contemporary (10-8) and Adult Top 40 (11-9) as the chart's Greatest Gainer. Of the collaboration's 35 million in audience in the chart's July 13-19 tracking week, 21 million stems from its crossover airplay at pop and adult radio, according to Nielsen BDS. The song has sold 1.5 million downloads, according to Nielsen SoundScan. —Gary Trust

The most popular songs, according to all-format audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. Greatest Gainer/Airplay are awarded, respectively, for the largest digital sales and airplay increases on the chart. The band's newest slides in with 4,000 sold and also takes a bow at No. 39 on Hard Rock Albums (see billboard.biz/charts).

The hip-hop act's delayed first album arrives, selling just 3,000 copies. The "Teach Me How to Dougie" group was reduced to a trio after member Montae Talbert was killed in May.

Worship duo (David Leonard and Leslie Jordan) enters with a little more than 1,000 copies sold.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns for Rank, Title, Artist, and other details. Includes tracks like 'Party Rock Anthem' by LMFAO and 'GIVE ME EVERYTHING' by Pitbull.

Up 13-9 on Hot 100 Airplay (74 million in audience, up 27%, according to Nielsen BDS), the song is Lil Wayne's 14th top 10 on the survey and first as a lead since "Mrs. Officer" (No. 6) in October 2008.

The group scores its third top 10 on Hot Digital Songs (137,000 downloads sold, up 23%, according to Nielsen SoundScan), following "Stop and Stare" (No. 8, 2008) and the two-week No. 1 "Apologize," on which it assisted Timbaland (2007).

With NBC's "The Voice" having wrapped its first season, the song that premiered on the series June 21 plummets by 50% in digital sales to 45,000. Still, airplay is building, as the track enters Adult Top 40 at No. 33 (up 84%).

The second single from "Wasting Light" charges 4-3 as the Greatest Gainer on Rock Songs (11 million, up 20%). The cut could dethrone prior hit "Rope," which has ruled Rock Songs for all 20 of its chart weeks.

Continuation of the Hot 100 chart, showing tracks 56 through 100. Includes tracks like 'Crazy Girl' by Eli Young Band and 'I Smile' by Kirk Franklin.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS LMFAO'S LATEST HEATSEEKERS MISSILE

In the two years since its launch (in the July 18, 2009, issue), the Heatseekers Songs chart (see page 37) has proved a valuable indicator of rising talent's Hot 100-topping prospects. LMFAO's "Party Rock Anthem," atop the Hot 100 for a second week, is the fifth former Heatseekers Songs No. 1 to subsequently lead the Hot 100. "Party" follows four prior No. 1s on both surveys by one-time newcomers: Ke$ha's "TiK ToK," B.o.B's "Nothin' on You," Taio Cruz's "Break Your Heart" and Wiz Khalifa's "Black and Yellow." Other acts to graduate from No. 1 ranks on Heatseekers Songs to the Hot 100's top 20 include country trio the Band Perry, rapper Nicki Minaj and pop/rock act the Script. —Gary Trust

NEW ON THE CHARTS

The Wanted, "All Time Low"
While the all-male vocal pop group has already made waves in its native United Kingdom, "All Time Low" marks its first appearance on a U.S. Billboard chart. The former Official U.K. Charts No. 1 single arrives at No. 44 on Dance Club Songs this week.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, WEEKS ON CHART, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Includes #1 'GIVE ME EVERYTHING' by Pitbull.

1 While the song's other three artists enjoy their first views from the summit, Ne-Yo previously reigned with debut Hot 100 entry "So Sick" for two weeks in March 2006.

The track charges 21-11 on Hot 100 Airplay (63 million, up 42%). It drops by 4% to 226,000 downloads sold after experiencing a 259% digital gain last issue following the June 13 premiere of its video.

As the song, unveiled in a June 21 performance on NBC's "The Voice," starts with 213,000 downloads, Maroon 5 (pictured) and Agullera notch their first top 10 placements since 2007 and 2008, respectively.

29 As with Perry's "Friday" last issue, the June 21 arrival of this song's video spurs a 282% gain to 67,000 downloads and a No. 7 re-entry on Hot Digital Songs.

"The Voice" viewers have become consumers. Songs from the series' coaches and contestants at Nos. 8, 52 (pictured), 54, 68 and 92 sold a combined 421,000 downloads.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart, including entries like 'NEVER GONNA LEAVE THIS BED' by Maroon 5 and 'BORN THIS WAY' by Lady Gaga.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS PITBULL ENDS WAIT FOR FIRST NO. 1

Pitbull unleashes his first No. 1 on the Billboard Hot 100, as "Give Me Everything," featuring Ne-Yo, Afrojack and Nayer, rises 2-1. "Give" dips by 7% to 187,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan (3-4 on Hot Digital Songs), although it gains by 6% to 147 million audience impressions, according to Nielsen BDS (2-2 on Hot 100 Airplay). The Miami rapper claims his first Hot 100 leader seven years, two months and two weeks after his first chart appearance the week of April 24, 2004. It marks the longest span between a male artist's first entry and first No. 1 since Lil Wayne, who waited eight years, nine months and three weeks before reigning with "Lollipop" in 2008. —Gary Trust

The most popular songs, according to all-format audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan, Greatest Gainer/Airplay and Greatest Gainer/Digital are awarded, respectively, for the largest digital sales and airplay increases on the chart. THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, etc. Includes entries like 'Rolling in the Deep' by Adele and 'Last Friday Night (T.G.I.F.)' by Katy Perry.

After the rapper-assisted version accounted for 44% of the title's downloads last issue, the percentage jumps to 60% (of 189,000 total). Because the edit sporting his contribution accounts for more than half the song's sales figure this week, Ludacris gains featured artist billing.

Four songs heard on NBC's 'The Voice' bow, at Nos. 64, 76, 90 and 99. Frampton's song gains by 54% to 57,000 in its second chart week after she scored the highest public vote of contestants on 'Voice' coach Blake Shelton's team.

'Voice' coach Adam Levine makes his second Hot 100 appearance apart from Maroon 5. He sang on Kanye West's No. 26-peaking 'Heard 'Em Say' in 2005.

The third single from 'Femme Fatale' starts at No. 37 on Mainstream Top 40. The song's June 22 video premiere should prompt sales gains next issue.

Dutch producer/DJ—who is featured on the chart's No. 2 title—bows as a lead artist with his 2010 six-week Dance Airplay No. 1.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart, including entries like 'Born This Way' by Lady Gaga and 'Heartless' by Dia Frampton.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS GIRL 'FRIDAY': PERRY SOARS TO TOP 5

Katy Perry's 'Last Friday Night (T.G.I.F.)' flies 31-4 as the Billboard Hot 100's Greatest Gainer/Digital. Following the June 13 premiere of its star-studded '80s-themed video, which has netted 29 million YouTube views, the song blasts 28-1 on Hot Digital Songs (235,000 downloads sold, up 259%, according to Nielsen SoundScan). As Perry's album 'Teenage Dream' had become the only album to generate four Hot Digital Songs No. 1s—'California Gurls,' featuring Snoop Dogg; the title cut, 'Firework'; and 'E.T.,' featuring Kanye West—the set makes further history as the only release to yield a quintet of toppers. —Gary Trust

NEW ON THE CHARTS

Stephen Jerzak, "Miles and Miles"
 The 19-year-old singer/songwriter's debut effort arrives at No. 22 on Heatseekers Albums, exceeding 1,000 copies in its first week. The Universal Republic artist will be on the road with the Vans Warped tour through August.

HEATSEEKERS ALBUMS: The best-selling albums by new or developing acts, defined as those who have never appeared on the top 100 of the Billboard 200 or the top 10 of Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums, Top Country Albums, Top Latin Albums, Top Christian Albums or Top Gospel Albums. If a title reaches any of these charts, it and the act's subsequent albums are then eligible to appear on Heatseeker Albums. HEATSEEKERS SONGS: The most popular songs across all formats by new or developing acts, defined as those who have never appeared as a lead artist in the top 50 of the Billboard Hot 100 (or the top 50 of Hot 100 Airplay prior to Dec. 5, 1998). If a title reaches any of these charts, it and the act's subsequent songs are then eligible to appear on Heatseeker Songs. These are ranked by radio airplay audience impressions as measured by Nielsen BDS, sales data as compiled by Nielsen SoundScan and streaming activity data provided by online music sources. © 2011 Prometheus Global Media, LLC and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with columns: Rank, Last Week, Weeks on Chart, Title, Artist, Peak Position, Cert. Includes tracks like Grenade by Bruno Mars, Firework by Katy Perry, and I Like It by Enrique Iglesias.

1 He becomes the first male artist in 13-plus years to take his first two charting radio singles as a lead act to No. 1 on the list since Diddy, then known as Puff Daddy, did so in 1997 with "Can't Hold Nobody Down" and "I'll Be Missing You."

7 Singer has now posted back-to-back top 10 English-language tracks for the first time in his career as "Tonight" follows "I Like It" (No. 4 peak in August) into the upper tier.

Comedy troupe reaches a career-best chart peak with song featured in a skit on the Dec. 18 episode of "Saturday Night Live" (Lonely Island includes "SNL" cast member Andy Samberg). The track shifts 152,000 downloads to easily top Comedy Digital Songs.

Rapper's song is the featured track in ESPN's TV promos for its college football Bowl Week and sells 43,000 downloads in its initial sales frame.

99 Here's another song benefiting from TV exposure (and the holiday season). Featured in this season's Coke TV campaign, the track shifts 34,000 (up 106%).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS
MARS MOVES TO TOP OF HOT 100
Bruno Mars posts consecutive No. 1 singles on the Billboard Hot 100 as "Grenade" jumps 2-1 to displace Katy Perry's three-week run at the top with "Firework" (1-2). Mars reigned for four weeks in October with "Just the Way You Are." "Grenade" shifts a near-record 559,000 downloads (up 212,000) in this holiday sales week, according to Nielsen SoundScan. The track tops Hot Digital Songs a rung above "Firework," which moves 509,000 (up 165%). Those sums move "Grenade" and "Firework" into the Nos. 3 and 4 slots among the biggest single-week sales frames behind Flo Rida's "Right Round" (636,000) on the Feb. 23, 2009, chart and Ke$ha's "TiK ToK," which sold 610,000 exactly a year ago this week. —Silvio Pietrolungo

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for Rank, Title, Artist, and various performance metrics.

16 As singer enters the top five on R&B/Hip-Hop Songs with "No BS" (91-75 on this list), his pop-centric effort continues its Hot 100 climb while soaring 16-10 on Hot 100 Airplay, his 12th top 10 on that chart. Since he first charted in 2005, only T-Pain (16) and Rihanna (15) have had more top 10s.

Track is the only title that was on the 75-position Hot Digital Songs chart last week to post a sales increase this frame (up 6% to 63,000). Only other actual increases come from debuts and re-entries.

Singer sprints back onto the chart as pop radio play for the track (No. 29 on Mainstream Top 40) prompts an 85% digital spike to 36,000, 42% of which is of the radio-friendly edited version.

Actress charts a third title with track from motion picture "Country Strong," in which she stars. Paltrow previously placed two tracks on the list in December from her guest-starring turn on "Glee." She's now not too far behind hubby Chris Martin, who's appeared 10 times on the Hot 100 (nine with Coldplay) since 2001.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart table from rank 56 to 100.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS MARS CONTINUES NO. 1 ROTATION

Bruno Mars returns to the top of the Billboard Hot 100 as "Grenade" once again replaces Katy Perry's "Firework" at No. 1. "Grenade" supplanted "Firework" two weeks ago, only to have Perry's track reclaim the summit for a fourth cumulative week last issue. It's the first time two songs have alternated holds at No. 1 over four weeks since T.I.'s "Live Your Life" traded spots with Beyonc's "Single Ladies (Put a Ring on It)" in December 2008. "Grenade" sits atop Hot Digital Songs for a fourth straight week with 275,000 downloads (down 35%), according to Nielsen SoundScan. —Silvio Pietroluongo

The ukulele-playing Hawaiian musician earns his best sales week yet (2,000) and claims his first No. 1 on Top World Albums after five earlier entries in the past six years.

The Black Keys' Jan. 8 "SNL" appearance bleeds over into this side project the duo concocted with a gaggle of hip-hop acts, as it re-enters with a 94% gain.

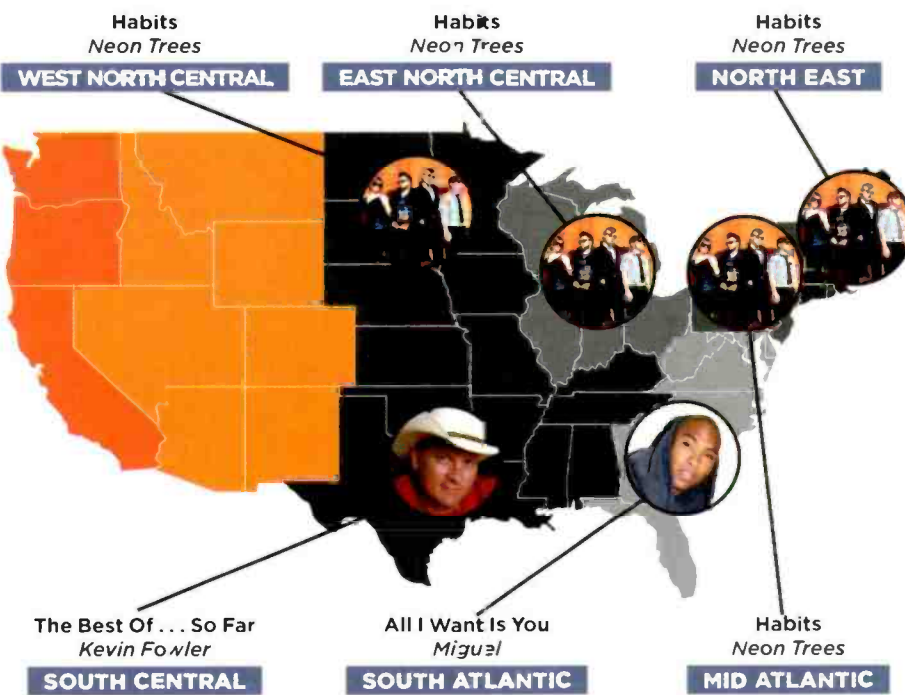

Down below on the Heatseeker Songs chart at No. 11, Rockmafia's "The Big Bang" re-enters. Last week, Howard Stern repeatedly mentioned on his Sirius XM show how much he liked the tune, which no doubt led to its 77% jump in downloads (28,000).

PROGRESS REPORT

Dev Featuring the Cataracs, "Bass Down Low"
Everyone has heard of Dev (the vocalist behind "poppin' bottles in the ice" on Far*East Movement's "Like a G6"), but now she's charting for the first time as a lead artist with "Bass Down Low." The single steps one slot to No. 39 this week on Mainstream Top 40.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, WEEKS ON CHART, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Includes top entries like 'STRONGER (WHAT DOESN'T KILL YOU)' by Kelly Clarkson and 'GIVE ME ALL YOUR LUVIN'' by Madonna.

13 With her 56th Hot 100 hit, Madonna ties Dionne Warwick for the second-most visits among women. Only the Queen of Soul, Aretha Franklin (73 entries), outdistances the Queen of Pop and Warwick in the category.

Led by its remake of "Smooth Criminal," the "Glee" cast sold 284,000 downloads of its five debuting remakes of Michael Jackson hits, two of which—"Black or White" (1991) and "Bad" (1987)—originally topped the Hot 100.

41 Following its usage in Chevrolet's Sonic Super Bowl ad, the song surges by 66% to 68,000 downloads. With a full tracking week of sales after the exposure, the cut should soar on next week's chart.

57 After its video premiered on Vevo on Jan. 31, the track returns, spurred by a 218% improvement to 53,000 downloads.

The lead single from the singer/songwriter's forthcoming fourth album bullets for the first time since its debut at No. 8, when it opened atop Hot Digital Songs, four weeks ago. The ballad gains in digital sales (to 32,000) and shoots 28-22 on the Adult Top 40 airplay chart.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart, listing songs from rank 56 to 100, including 'HUMAN NATURE', 'MIRROR', 'HOME', 'A WOMAN LIKE YOU', etc.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS CLARKSON DRIVES 'STRONGER' TO NO. 1

In what an RCA Records representative describes as a "perfect storm" of radio airplay, digital sales and pop culture prominence, Kelly Clarkson's "Stronger (What Doesn't Kill You)" rises 2-1 on the Billboard Hot 100. The song claims Greatest Gainer/Airplay honors, charging 33-15 on Hot 100 Airplay (58 million audience impressions, up 49%, according to Nielsen BDS). On Hot Digital Songs, "Stronger" spends a second week at No. 1 (2:7,000 downloads, up 6%, according to Nielsen SoundScan). Clarkson performed the national anthem before the Super Bowl on Feb. 5, while "Stronger" also serves as the soundtrack to a Toyota Camry TV spot, in which Clarkson leads a singalong of the song. —Gary Trust

Blush, "Dance On"
The Pan-Asian female vocal group shimmies up to No. 2 on the Dance Club Songs chart, surpassing the No. 3 peak of its first hit, last year's "Undivided." The act comprises singers from the Philippines, India, China, Japan and South Korea.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, Peak Position, and Certification.

Getting to the bottom of why the song surges, it jumps 19-14 on Hot Digital Songs (87,000 downloads sold, up 7%) and 34-29 on Hot 100 Airplay (41 million audience impressions, up 15%).

The track blasts 36-18 on Hot Digital Songs (72,000, up 29%) and rises 7-5 on Rock Songs. On Jan. 29, the singer tweeted his approval of a "clever" YouTube cover of the song by Right the Stars featuring Karmina that incorporates a portion of the Police's "King of Pain."

The song roars 70-33 on Hot Digital Songs (50,000, up 73%) and arrives as the highest debut on Hot 100 Airplay at No. 61 (22 million, up 36%).

Tempo-driven pop radio accepts a rare ballad, as the song enters Mainstream Top 40 at No. 40. See page 39 for programmers' views on slow songs' current chances at the format.

The follow-up to two Hot 100 No. 1s (at Nos. 7 and 20) and the title cut from the pair's second album becomes the duo's fourth top 10 on Dance/Electronic Digital Songs (viewable at billboard.biz/charts), where it lifts 12-9.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS CLARKSON GETS 'STRONGER' AT NO. 2

Kelly Clarkson's "Stronger (What Doesn't Kill You)" is aptly titled, as the single vaults 8-2 with Greatest Gainer/Digital honors on the Billboard Hot 100. The song surges by 29% to 225,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan, and ascends 3-1 on Hot Digital Songs, marking Clarkson's second leader on the sales ranking. Her "My Life Would Suck Without You" spent two weeks at No. 1 on Hot Digital Songs three years ago this month. Radio support is likewise swelling for "Stronger," as the track charges 44-33 on Hot 100 Airplay (39 million, up 32%, according to Nielsen BDS), aided by advances on the Mainstream Top 40 (24-20) and Adult Top 40 (16-14) radio format charts. —Gary Trust

PROGRESS REPORT

Jana Kramer, "Why Ya Wanna" The singer/actress ("One Tree Hill," "Friday Night Lights") scoots 50-44 on Hot Country Songs with the tune, her first to reach the tally. Collectively, her four songs that are available at digital retailers have sold 202,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan.

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, PEAK POSITION, TITLE, PRODUCER, ARTIST, CERT. PEAK POSITION.

The song matches Ke$ha's "TiK ToK" in early 2010 for the most weeks spent atop the Hot 100 since the Black Eyed Peas' "I Gotta Feeling" racked 14 frames in charge in summer 2009.

Adele's third top five hit from her album 21—at No. 1 on the Billboard 200 for a 15th week (see page 34)—bounds 17-12 on Hot 100 Airplay, up by 35% to 73 million audience impressions.

As the track surges 35-13 on Hot Digital Songs (113,000 downloads sold, up 20%), radio support continues to build (21 million, up 26%).

The song (96,000 downloads, up 42%) is one of just eight on the 75-position Hot Digital Songs chart to post a gain, as most titles' totals tumble after bustling holiday activity. (Bullets on the tally were awarded primarily to songs registering the smallest decreases.)

Following her Jan. 7 performance on NBC's "Saturday Night Live," the track improves by 58% to 53,000 in digital sales. After tallying two weeks on the list as an album cut, the song is now being promoted as the second single from her album Stronger.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS START HIM 'UP': JASON MRAZ DEBUTS

Jason Mraz blasts onto the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 8 with "I Won't Give Up," courtesy of a No. 1 debut on Hot Digital Songs. The track arrives with 229,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan, and marks Mraz's first No. 1 on the latter tally. "Won't," which previews the singer/songwriter's as-yet-untitled fourth studio album, due May 8, first drew attention when Mraz performed it in concert last year, while its official lyrics video has racked 2.5 million views since its upload to Mraz's YouTube channel on Jan. 2. Expected next: a proper video and promotion of the song to adult top 40 and triple A radio. —Gary Trust

The most popular songs, according to all-format audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan, Greatest Gainer/Digital and Greatest Airplay/Airplay are awarded respectively for the largest digital sales and airplay increases on the chart. THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for rank, title, artist, and album. Includes songs like 'Sexy and I Know It' by LMFAO, 'We Found Love' by Rihanna, and 'Rolling in the Deep' by Adele.

1 & 6 With 417,000 downloads sold in the chart's tracking week, "Sexy and I Know It" passes 3 million in digital sales release-to-date. "Party Rock Anthem" (296,000, up 38%), meanwhile, logs a 28th week in the top 10, tying Jewel's "You Were Meant for Me"/"Foolish Games" (which spanned the radio runs of each side) for the third-longest top 10 stay in the chart's history.

The rapper notches his first top 40 placement as a lead act, as the cut jumps by 23% to 94,000 downloads sold. In 2010, he reached No. 14 as a featured act (with Kevin McCall) on Chris Brown's "Deuces."

Released digitally on Dec. 20 as a promotion for ESPN's coverage of college football bowl games, the track arrives with 57,000 downloads sold.

The act's first Hot 100 entry becomes one of just seven titles ever to spend 20 weeks on the chart but rise no higher than No. 82. With steady support from alternative and active rock radio, the song scored a No. 10 peak in a 37-week run on Rock Songs. Its best digital sales week (35,000, up 20%) ups its total to 746,000.

As the song rises 11-10 on Hot 100 Airplay (76 million audience impressions, up 20%), joining "Party Rock Anthem" in the top 10 (5-6), LMFAO is the first duo or group to double up in that chart's top tier since the Black Eyed Peas two years and three months ago.

The track's 88-position vault ties for the chart's fourth-greatest among all acts and biggest by a male, equaling Akon's "Smack That," featuring Eminem (95-7, five years ago this week).

Following the Oct. 18 premiere of its video, the song flies past its previous peak (No. 16, established upon its debut), roaring 18-10 on Hot Digital Songs (109,000 downloads, up 100%).

Perry's quest for a record sixth No. 1 from Teenage Dream gains momentum, as the set's new single bounds 75-48 on Hot 100 Airplay (28 million, up 80%) and enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 73 (18,000, up 138%).

Atop Hot Latin Songs (see page 58) for a second week, the song bests the No. 97 Hot 100 peak of the former Maná frontman's first solo hit and fellow Hot Latin Songs leader, "You."

BETWEEN THE BULLETS BIEBER USHERS IN HOLIDAY SEASON

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas on the Billboard Hot 100, as Justin Bieber's "Mistletoe" jingles in at No. 11 with 164,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. It's the third-highest-charting holiday hit in the Hot 100's history, following the Chipmunks' "The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't Be Late)" (No. 1, four weeks, 1958-59) and New Kids on the Block's "This One's for the Children" (No. 7, 1983).

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for rank, title, artist, and weeks on chart.

Banking an eighth week at No. 3, the song ties LL Cool J's 'Hey Lover' (1995-96) for the second-most frames spent peaking at No. 3.

The track claims dual Greatest Gainer honors, pushing 5-3 on Hot Digital Songs (174,000 downloads, up 21%) and 23-15 on Hot 100 Airplay ($8 million impressions, up 31%).

An 11-9 advance on Hot 100 Airplay grants Usher his 15th top 10 on the tally. Dating to his first week in the chart's top tier (Nov. 8, 1997), only Lil Wayne, Ludacris, T-Pain (7 each) and Rihanna (16) have more.

The sixth Hot 100 hit from 4 arrives, fueled by its highest rank to-date (66-59) on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs (see page 55).

Gains in sales (12,000, up 39%) and airplay (No. 28 on the Mainstream Top 40 chart, up 33% in detections) land Spears her fourth Hot 100 entry, following three top 10s, from Femme Fatale.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart table, showing ranks 56 through 100.

-BETWEEN THE BULLETS SNOOP & WIZ KHALIFA'S 'WILD' RIDE

Aided by the prominence of a rap icon and one of the genre's rising stars, Snoop Dogg and Wiz Khalifa enter the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 10 with 'Young, Wild & Free,' the first single from the pair's comedic film (and soundtrack), 'Mac and Devin Go to High School,' due early next year. Starting with 159,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan, the launch marks Snoop's highest Hot 100 debut as a lead act and the 10th top 10 of his 18-year chart career. Khalifa collects his third top 10 and second-highest arrival, after 'No Sleep' soared in at No. 6 in April. Featured artist Bruno Mars makes his first top 10 entrance with his seventh career top 10. —Gary Trust

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for rank, title, artist, and album. Includes entries like 'Someone Like You' by Adele at #1 and 'I Like It Like That' by Hot Chelle Rae at #51.

30 The track (61,000 downloads, up 103%) marks featured act Allen's first Hot 100 top 40 hit. The English singer/songwriter previously rose as high as No. 49 with her debut "Smile" in 2007.

41 Lead single from band's third studio album, Here and Now, due Nov. 21, opens at No. 25 on Hot Digital Songs (47,000), while jumping 18-15 as the Greatest Gainer on Adult Top 40.

Entrances on Hot Digital Songs (No. 26, 46,000 downloads) and Mainstream Top 40 (No. 40) fuel the group's follow-up to its No. 7-peaking introductory Hot 100 hit, "Tonight Tonight."

53 Thanks to the TV ensemble's arrival with 50,000 downloads (the highest sum of the series' new season), Coldplay's original version of the ballad bounds 29-5 on Rock Digital Songs (31,000, up 314%).

The first taste of Euphoria Reloaded, due Nov. 15, features Iglesias reloading with Pitbull (26,000 in first-week digital sales). The pair reached No. 4 last year with "I Like It," the first of three top 20 hits from Euphoria.

Continuation of the Billboard Hot 100 chart from rank 56 to 100. Includes entries like 'OTIS' by Jay Z, Kanye West, and Otis Redding at #56, and 'No Sleep' by B. Blanco at #100.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS ADELE'S ADULT ADULATION

As Adele's "Someone Like You" spends a third week atop the Billboard Hot 100, it rises 2-1 on the Adult Top 40 radio chart. With previous single "Rolling in the Deep" at No. 1 on Adult Contemporary for a 17th week, Adele is just the second act to top the adult airplay tallies simultaneously with different titles...

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, Peak Position, and Certifications. Includes songs like 'Someone Like You' by Adele, 'Moves Like Jagger' by Maroon 5, and 'We Found Love' by Rihanna.

After three weeks at No. 2, the song returns to the summit with gains in digital sales (222,000, up 10%) and radio airplay (123 million, up 16%). It's also the Greatest Gainer on Mainstream Top 40 (6-3) and Adult Contemporary (13-11).

Guetta's third top 10 and Usher's 17th climbs 21-16 on Hot 100 Airplay (54 million, up 18%) and holds at No. 8 on Hot Digital Songs (125,000, up 7%).

Her landmark 20th Hot 100 top 10 (see page 46) rises 7-6 on Hot Digital Songs (147,000, up 25%) and vaults 75-38 on Hot 100 Airplay (33 million, up 129%).

The Fox TV troupe (33,000 downloads) brings the evergreen ballad from "West Side Story" to the Hot 100 for a fourth time, following versions by P.J. Proby (No. 91 peak, 1965), Len Barry (No. 26, 1966) and Barbra Streisand (No. 43, 1986).

Another TV-related bow: The 13-year-old stars in the Disney Channel's "A.M.T. Farm" and TBS' "Tyler Perry's House of Payne." The song appears on the former series' soundtrack, along with her cover of Taio Cruz's "Dynamite."

BETWEEN THE BULLETS B.o.B, BRUNO MARS BOW ON HOT 100

Having banked three Billboard Hot 100 top 10s last year from his Billboard 200 topping debut, The Adventures of Bobby Ray, rapper B.o.B previews his forthcoming second set, as title cut "Strange Clouds" starts at No. 7. The track begins at No. 7 on Hot Digital Songs with 197,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. Adventures yielded the Hot 100 No. 1 "Nothin' on You," featuring Bruno Mars; "Airplanes" with Hayley Williams (No. 2); and "Magic," with Rivers Cuomo (No. 10). Meanwhile, Mars bows at No. 28 with "It Will Rain" (80,000), from the "Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn—Part 1" soundtrack, due Nov. 8. —Gary Trust

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

The song rockets 9-2 on Hot 100 Airplay, improving by 26% to 106 million in audience. The seven-spot jump is the greatest to the No. 1 or No. 2 slot in the chart's 21-year history; only Kanye West's 'Stronger' (7-1, Oct. 6, 2007) had risen as many as six positions to the top two.

The track cracks the top 10 on Hot 100 Airplay, rising 14-10 with a 21% gain to 77 million.

'Sexy' brings the duo back to the top 10 (139,000 downloads sold, up 97%). At just four chart weeks, the song surges to the top tier in less than half the time (nine weeks) it took the pair's previous 'Party Rock Anthem' (No. 4) to reach the upper region.

With school back in session—i.e., Fox's 'Glee' having returned for a third season on Sept. 20—three titles from the episode debut, led by a remake of Tom Jones' 1965 first Hot 100 hit that bows with 40,000 downloads. By comparison, the top-selling track from last fall's premiere, the troupe's cover of Jay-Z and Alicia Keys' 'Empire State of Mind,' launched with 106,000 and opened at No. 21.

RIHANNA'S 'LOVE' SETS UP NEW ALBUM

Rihanna roars onto the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 16 with 'We Found Love' (featuring Scottish DJ Calvin Harris), the first single from her forthcoming, as-yet-untitled sixth studio album, due Nov. 21. The cut enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 7 with first-week download sales of 117,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan, and Hot 100 Airplay at No. 75 with 14 million out-of-the-box impressions, according to Nielsen BDS. As 'Love' was released digitally and to radio on Thursday, Sept. 22, next week's charts will reflect its first full week of sales and airplay activity. 'Love' ties last year's 'Stranded (Haiti Mon Amour),' with Jay-Z and Bono, for Rihanna's highest bow as a lead artist. —Gary Trust

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Main chart table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, Last Week, Peak Position, and Certifications. Includes entries like 'MOVES LIKE JAGGER' by Maroon 5 and 'SOMEONE LIKE YOU' by Adele.

1 Blasting 5-1 on Hot 100 Airplay (123 million in audience, up 14%), the song marks Maroon 5's first No. 1 on the chart and Aguilera's third, following "Genie in a Bottle" (1999) and "Lady Marmalade," with Lil' Kim, Mya and P!nk (2001).

The ballad reaches the top 10 (13-9) on Hot 100 Airplay (84 million, up 37%), fueled by its rise as the Greatest Gainer on Mainstream Top 40 (16-13) and Adult Contemporary (14-13).

15 As the club thumper roars 18-10 on Hot Digital Songs (104,000 downloads sold, up 71%), radio support is likewise swelling; the track jumps 45-32 on Hot 100 Airplay (37 million, up 37%).

The second single from Mylo Xylota, due Oct. 24, begins with 139,000 downloads. It also launches on Triple A at No. 11 and Alternative at No. 24, with Capitol poised to take the track to pop and adult radio on Oct. 3.

25 Surely helping spur the song's 66% digital gain (to 75,000)? The Sept. 15 premiere of its video on Vevo. The cheeky clip (literally, considering its abundance of Speedo-clad dancers) includes cameos from Ron Jeremy and Wilmer Valderrama.

1 The song claims Greatest Gainer/Airplay honors courtesy of its 8-5 push on Hot 100 Airplay (104 million, up 20%), while rebounding for a second week atop Hot Digital Songs (220,000, up 6%).

10 A toast to the artist with the most top 10s—19—dating to her first week in the top tier (July 16, 2005) with "Pon De Replay." Lil Wayne is second with 15 top 10s in that span.

12 Although her record streak of 69 consecutive weeks in the top 10 ends, it looks likely that Perry will soon debut a sixth single from her album Teenage Dream. "The One That Got Away" goes to pop radio next month.

34 Fourth pre-release song from Own the Night, due to soar in atop next week's Billboard 200, is the set's second No. 1 on Country Digital Songs (74,000). "Just a Kiss" bowed at the summit in May (211,000).

7 Five years ago next week, the now-20-year-old peaked at No. 3 with "Too Little Too Late." Opening with 26,000 downloads, new single previews her forthcoming third album, Jumping Trains.

CLARKSON NETS SECOND-BEST BOW

Kelly Clarkson previews her fifth studio album, Stronger (due Oct. 25), by notching the second-highest debut among her 17 Hot 100 chart entries, as "Mr. Know It All" launches as the Hot Shot Debut at No. 18. The original "American Idol" queen began at a higher rank only with "Never Again," which arrived (and peaked) at No. 8 in the May 12, 2007, issue. "Know" enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 9 with 107,000 downloads sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. The track is likewise the top new entry on Hot 100 Airplay, where it starts at No. 65 with 17 million in all-format audience (up 79%), according to Nielsen BDS. —Gary Trust

Up 7-4 on Hot 100 Airplay (103 million in audience, up 22%), the song becomes Rihanna's 16th No. 1 on Dance Club Songs (5-1) and her record-extending 10th topser on Dance/Mix Show Airplay (11-1).

Mars lands his ninth top 10, and fourth as a lead artist, on Hot Digital Songs, where it soars 17-10 (97,000 downloads sold, up 51%).

The song was added for a second week by Minaj's remix, which accounted for 80% of its 81,000 downloads sold (up 22%) in the chart's tracking week. Radio support likewise builds, as it lifts 63-50 on Hot 100 Airplay (24 million, up 33%).

Though the troupe's take outsold the original, 34,000 to 24,000, last week, Perry's rendition ranks significantly higher on the Hot 100 (No. 39) due to its long-built airplay advantage (No. 36 on Hot 100 Airplay).

The American Music Awards winner and performer (Nov. 20) soars 18-10 on Hot 100 Airplay (70 million audience impressions, up 19%, according to Nielsen BDS) and 11-5 on Hot Digital Songs (137,000 downloads, up 29%, according to Nielsen SoundScan).

The song logs a 26th week in the top 10, becoming just the fifth title in the chart's history to tally six months in the top tier. It's the first such song since Santana's "Smooth," featuring Rob Thomas, spent 30 weeks in the top 10 in 1999-2000.

The song opens with 70,000 downloads sold after Will.i.am premiered it, with Jagger and Lopez (the former via video) on the AMAs. The track marks Jagger's highest Hot 100 rank since 1985.

Lady Gaga's favorite cut on Born This Way, as she noted on her Nov. 24 ABC special, "A Very Gaga Thanksgiving," improves to 23 million in audience (up 31%) and 20,000 in digital sales (up 163%).

The Yonkers, N.Y., rapper (aka Richard Andrew) makes his maiden Hot 100 entrance, fueled by the song's 33-30 advance on Mainstream Top 40.

1 & 96 'Somebody That I Used to Know' spends a second week at No. 1, aided by the arrival of a remix by Tiësto, which accounts for 19% of the song's weekly sales. At No. 96, next single 'Eyes Wide Open' bows, fueled by a 45-34 hit on On-Demand Songs. Nicki Minaj's Golye performed both songs on 'Saturday Night Live' on April 14.

11 While parent album California 37 enters the Billboard 200 at No. 4, the first single rebounds 12-10 on Hot Digital Songs with 146,000 downloads sold (up 23%).

16 The song reaches the top 10 on Hot 100 Airplay after the first three singles from 27 hit No. 1. Climbing 13-9 in its sixth week (70 million audience impressions, up 19%), it ties 'Someone Like You' for Adele's fastest flight to the chart's top 10.

53 From his mixtape Maledic, the track bounds onto Hot Digital Songs at No. 17 (86,000, up 200%) following its first full week of availability.

65 The song soars courtesy of a No. 54 re-entry on Hot Digital Songs (35,000, up 68%) and a No. 65 debut on Hot 100 Airplay (17 million, up 35%).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'PAYPHONE' GETS GOOD RECEPTION

With digital sales of 493,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan, Maroon 5's 'Payphone,' featuring rapper Wiz Khalifa, roars onto the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 3, the band's best bow on the tally. 'Payphone' enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 1 and nets the highest digital sales week by a group, topping the 465,000 sold by the Black Eyed Peas' 'Boom Boom Pow' (April 18, 2009). Radio also gives 'Payphone' a ringing endorsement, as it storms Hot 100 Airplay at No. 36 (33 million first-week impressions, according to Nielsen BDS). The song rebounds for a third week at No. 1, earning Greatest Gainer/Airplay accolades for a fourth consecutive frame. On Hot 100 Airplay, it pushes 4-3 (110 million in audience, up 21%).

The third preview single, which is being promoted to pop and rhythmic radio, from the rapper's sophomore set Strange Clouds (due May 1), opens with 164,000 downloads sold. The title cut, featuring Lil Wayne, began at No. 7 in October and "Play the Guitar," featuring André 3000, made a two-week cameo (reaching No. 98) in January.

As the "Glee" cast's cover of "Glad You Came" (No. 90) aids the Wanted's 23-5 flight (see page 44), the TV troupe's take on "Cough Syrup" by Young the Giant (pictured) likewise spurs the Hot 100 entry of the original version, which has inhabited the Alternative Top 10 for 23 weeks. Posting its best sales week (29,000, up 233%), the original has sold 227,000 downloads.

The sultry song arrives with 31,000 downloads sold. On Mainstream R&B/Hip-Hop, it bows at No. 22, marking the third-highest of his 35 career entries on the airplay tally.

JEPSEN DIALS UP A HIT WITH 'CALL'

British Columbia native Carly Rae Jepsen's "Call Me Maybe" soars onto the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 38 with digital sales of 80,000, up 1,030%, according to Nielsen SoundScan. A video of the song—which rebounds 2-1 for a third frame atop the Billboard Canadian Hot 100 this week—featuring Jepsen singing it with Justin Bieber, Selena Gomez and Ashley Tisdale, premiered on YouTube on Feb. 18; the clip has already racked more than 13 million views. Jepsen, whom Bieber has praised to his nearly 18 million Twitter followers, announced on Feb. 22 that she had signed to Bieber manager Scooter Braun's School Boy Records imprint (with Interscope set to promote the song to U.S. pop radio). —Gary Trust

THE BILLBOARD HOT 100

Chart table with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, and Peak Position. Top entries include Kelly Clarkson's 'Stronger (What Doesn't Kill You)' at #1 and Adele's 'Set Fire to the Rain' at #2.

2, 11 & 17 Adele is the first artist to place as many as three titles as a lead artist in the Hot Digital Songs top 10 simultaneously since Michael Jackson in July 2009.

Her Majesty scores her record-extending 38th top 10 (see Hot Box, page 69), as the song gains by 44% in download sales to 165,000. The chart's sales period encompassed the first full week of release for the track and the seven days following her performance of the song at the Super Bowl on Feb. 5.

90 After reigning for 10 weeks as the featured artist on Rihanna's "We Found Love" (No. 6), the Scottish DJ previews his forthcoming third album. The track reached the top 10 on multiple international charts last year.

Although it just misses this week's chart (debuting atop the Hot 100's Bubbling Under survey), Katy Perry's "Part of Me" is set for a possible No. 1 bow on next week's Hot 100. The song, which introduces her Teenage Dream reissue, Complete Confection, is projected to sell north of 400,000 downloads in next week's tracking period.

The singer's rap cut jumps 14-9 on the list and the third from his new album "F.A.M.E." out March 22.

Minaj scores her seventh top 10 as the fifth "Pink Friday" single rises 41% to 19 million listener impressions. "Roman's Revenge" (No. 85 peak) is the only title not to hit the upper tier.

Following her No. 1 debut on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums, Ambrosius reaches her highest position yet on this chart. "Hope She Cheats On You (With a Basketball Player)" peaked at No. 22 in October.

The recent Warner Bros. signee cracks the top half of the list with his debut track. Hometown station KBXX Houston led the audience push with 1.3 million listener impressions.

The Harlem rapper posts his 14th title on the tally in his seven-year chart history. "We Fly High" (No. 4 peak in 2006) and "Pop Champagne" (No. 3, 2009) are his only top 10 hits.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

HILSON'S 'ONE' SWIFT MOVE

As Keri Hilson's No. 4-peaking "Pretty Girl Rock" falls out of the top 10 (9-11), follow-up "One Night Stand," featuring Chris Brown, catapults 98-68 with 1.9 million listener impressions (up 81%, according to Nielsen BDS). The track is the third release off sophomore set "No Boys Allowed," which remains in the top 20 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums in its 12th week after a No. 7 opening in January. WHTD Detroit led the push in the song's audience count with 320,000 listener impressions off 37 spins in the chart's tracking period.

BROWN'S CHART OUTBURST

Despite the attention surrounding his "Good Morning America" outburst, Chris Brown is having a better week on the charts as "Look at Me Now" steps 2-1 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs (33.9 million listener impressions, according to Nielsen BDS) to mark his fourth chart-topper on the list. The track, featuring Lil Wayne and Busta Rhymes, also skips 3-1 on Mainstream R&E/Hip-Hop (see opposite page) for Brown's sixth No. 1 on that tally. All three singles released so far from "F.A.M.E.," available March 29, have now reached the top of Mainstream R&B/Hip-Hop.

HOT R&B/HIP-HOP SONGS

Main chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, PEAK POSITION, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Top entry: #1 LOOK AT ME NOW Chris Brown Featuring Lil Wayne & Busta Rhymes.

As "Look at Me Now" picks up a fifth week atop the list, "She Ain't You" leaps 10 spots into the top 20, marking the crooner's 18th trip to that tier.

The third single off "No Boys Allowed" breaks into the top half of the list in its seventh week with a 30% increase to 4.9 million listener impressions.

Thanks in part to double-digit spin increases at WAKB Augusta, Ga. (up 14); WSRB Chicago (up 11); and WNEW West Palm Beach, Fla. (up 11), the cut jumps 15 positions.

The legendary act posts its highest debut since "Soldier of Love" opened at No. 49 in 2009. Its best peak on the chart remains 1988's "Paradise," which spent one week at No. 1.

The recent Maybach Music signee joins the label boss for this street anthem channeling Tupac Shakur. WQHT New York spurred its debut, accounting for 40% of its 800,000 listener impressions.

JILL SCOTT DOES DOUBLE DUTY

Jill Scott debuts two tracks on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs as "So in Love" (featuring Anthony Hamilton) opens at No. 43 and a cover of Bill Withers' "Lovely Day" bows at No. 67. "So" is from her Blues Babe/Warner Bros. debut, "The Light of the Sun," due this summer, while the later is off "Just Before Dawn," a from-the-vaults set on former label Hidden Beach, due May 31. It's the first time a lead artist has debuted two songs on the chart simultaneously since Tamela Mann's "Joy of the Lord" and "The Master Plan" debuted at Nos. 96 and 100 on June 19, 2010. "So" marks Scott's highest bow on the chart, beating the No. 61 entry by "He Loves Me (Lyzel in E Flat)" in 2001. —Raulo Ramirez

The fourth urban single from "F.A.M.E." joins its predecessors in having reached the top 10. "Deuces" began a nine-week reign last September, followed by "No BS" (No. 3 in February) and "Look at Me Now," which leads for an eighth frame.

The Detroit newcomer cracks the top 10, becoming just the second new act this year to reach the top tier as a lead artist, following YC (No. 6).

Miami's foremost MC breaks into the top half of the list for the 19th time in his nine-year chart history. While Ross has yet to post a No. 1, he has risen as high as No. 2, with "Aston Martin Music" in December.

As "music in the magic" opens at No. 3 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums (35,000 sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan; see opposite page), the second single leads 11 positions with an 82% increase to 2.6 million in audience.

With Hot Shot debut honors, Odd Future member Frank Ocean's debut, "No. 6," opens at No. 65 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs (2.7 million listener impressions, up 3=0%, according to Nielsen BDS). The standout track off his "nostalgia, Ultra" mixtape owes its debut to four stations that increased their rotation by double-digit figures last week: WPHI Philadelphia, WENZ Cleveland (both up 24%, WJPR New York (up 21) and WJMH Greensboro-Winston-Salem, N.C. (up 18). The bow beats the March debut of Big Sean's "My Last" (No. 75) for the best opening by a new artist so far this year.

HOT R&B/HIP-HOP SONGS

Chart table with columns: This Week, Last Week, 2 Weeks Ago, Weeks on Chart, Title, Artist, Cert., Peak Position. Top entry: #1 'I'M ON ONE' by DJ Khaled Feat. Drake, Rick Ross & Lil Wayne.

1, 2 & 3 Ahead of his likely crowning of the Billboard 200 next week (see page 33), Lil Wayne makes history as the first artist in the Nielsen Music era (1992-present) to concurrently lock down this chart's top three spots.

After a four-year break from the survey, during which he's padded his acting résumé ("Transformers 3: Dark of the Moon"), Tyrese is charting two titles simultaneously. The songs arrive ahead of his fifth album, Open Invitation, due Nov. 1 on his own Caroline-distributed Voltron imprint.

81 This second single from Ocean's debut album, Nostalgia, Lite, marks his second song title to chart on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. The Odd Future member's "Novacane" (No. 49) peaked at No. 17 last month. His recent work includes guesting on Jay-Z and Kanye West's Watch the Throne track "No Church in the Wild."

100 The Miami songstress' emotional ballad is her second chart entry. In summer 2009, she sent "Sunshine," featuring Ne-Yo and state mate Flo Rida, to No. 62.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

MINAJ & RIHANNA READY TO 'FLY'

Nicki Minaj's "Fly," featuring Rihanna, debuts on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, marking the former's 20th charting single. The last time Minaj teamed with Rihanna was earlier this year on the latter's "Raining Men" from her Loud set. RiRi, however, is the first female artist to be featured on any of Minaj's charting efforts. The two leading ladies teamed up for this single about empowerment and faith in oneself for Minaj's Pink Friday, which has produced five earlier hits on the tally—four of which hit the top 10.

Main chart table with columns for Rank, Song Title, Artist, Weeks on Chart, and Peak Position. #1 'I'm On One' by DJ Khaled featuring Drake, Rick Ross & Lil Wayne.

Rising singer places two tracks in the chart's top 10 as new single (12-10) joins former No. 1 "Sure Thing" (No. 3). He's now hit the top 10 with the first three singles from his debut album, All I Want Is You. Title track reached No. 7 in November.

The omnipresent rapper appears on each of the top three tracks on the Mainstream R&B/Hip-Hop chart for a fifth straight week. No other artist in the 18-year history of the airplay-based chart has laid claim to the top three slots in a single week.

Seventeen-year-old Diggy makes his solo chart debut with the list's top entry. Track is the lead single from the former MTV "Run's House" star's debut album, due tentatively this fall. The rapper also provides guest vocals on Mindless Behavior's track at No. 42.

Brown, who appears on six chart titles this week, including this fast riser, recently announced dates for his North American F.A.M.E. tour. The jaunt begins Sept. 12 in Toronto before winding up Oct. 30 in Hartford, Conn.

Drake, who appears on six chart titles this week, including this fast riser, recently announced dates for his North American F.A.M.E. tour. The jaunt begins Sept. 12 in Toronto before winding up Oct. 30 in Hartford, Conn.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'HEADLINES' MAKES HISTORIC JUMP

Drake's "Headlines," which previews his upcoming Take Care album, makes news with a 98-38 leap on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. The 60-spot jump is the chart's best-ever by a rapper and largest overall since Marvin Sapp's "The Best in Me" climbed 64 places to No. 14 in the Feb. 13, 2010, issue. In its first full week at radio, "Headlines" claims 6.1 million impressions, up 524% from last week's sum, which accounted for little more than two days of airplay. "Headlines" was released digitally on Aug. 9, and should make a strong entry next week on both the digital tracks chart and the Billboard Hot 100. —Karinah Santiago

HOT R&B/HIP-HOP SONGS

Chart table listing songs with columns: Rank, Title, Artist, and Imprint/Promotion Label. Includes songs like 'Motivation' by Kelly Rowland and Lil Wayne, 'Still in Love with You' by Sade, and 'All of the Lights' by Kanye West.

Trey Songz scores his 13th top 10 with 'Unusual.' The song previously peaked at No. 48 in March as an album track before being actively worked as a single by Atlantic.

For the third time this year, Lil Wayne cracks the top 30 in two weeks. '6 Foot 7 Foot' achieved the feat in January and DJ Khaled's 'I'm on One,' on which he's featured (No. 7), did so two weeks ago.

Kem reaches the top 10 of Adult R&B (see opposite page) for a sixth time, as the Chrissette Michele-assisted cut steps 11-10 (up 21% in plays on the radio airplay ranking).

The third single from 'Rolling Papers' breaks into the top half of the list. The set tallies its 10th week in the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums top 10 and has sold 431,000 copies, according to Nielsen SoundScan.

98

The Atlanta-based quartet places its debut single on the list after being discovered by Andre Harrell and signing with his newly formed, Atlantic-distributed Harrell Records.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

BEYONCÉ'S 'BEST' SINGLE DEBUTS

Following the recent leak of fourth studio album "4," due June 28, Beyoncé debuts at No. 53 with "Best Thing I Never Had" (4.1 million listener impressions, according to Nielsen BDS). The ballad follows the uptempo "Run the World (Girls)," which peaked at No. 30 (June 4) and drops to No. 44 this week. While it initially seemed that "1+1" was primed to be the second single, after she performed it on "American Idol" (and after a clip of her rehearsing the song went viral), Columbia promoted "Best Thing" as the set's official second single. That said, "1+1" had enough momentum to peak at No. 5 on the Bubbling Under R&B/Hip-Hop Songs (go to billboard.biz/charts).

Chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, WEEKS IN CHART, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, PEAK POSITION. Top entry: 1. MOTIVATION Kelly Rowland Featuring Lil Wayne.

With "My Last" stuck at No. 4 for a sixth week, follow-up single "Marvin Gaye & Chardonnay" shoots to No. 56 with a 38% audience spike to 3.2 million listener impressions.

18 Beyoncé breaks into the top 20 for the first time since "Ego" peaked at No. 3 in 2009. Meanwhile, latest album "4" picks up a second week at No. 1 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and the Billboard 200.

The Odd Future singer earns a top 20 hit in advance of the July 26 release of "Nostalgia, Lite," a commercial repackaging of his critically acclaimed "Nostalgia, Ultra" mixtape.

48 Wale cracks the top half of the list for the first time as a lead artist with this smooth single. He reached No. 2 with a featured turn on Waka Flocka Flame's "No Hands" in December.

71 After debuting four songs on the chart in 2010, the most she's ever placed on the list in one year during her 16-plus year career, the Atlanta songstress returns with Hot Shot Debut with a preview track for new album "New Life," due Oct. 18.

As Kelly Rowland's "Motivation" reclaims the No. 1 position on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, she also posts her ninth charting title on the list as featured artist on Lonny Bereal's debut, "Favor," which opens at No. 83. Bereal is an accomplished songwriter with two top 10 hits under his belt: Tank's "Please Don't Go" (No. 2 in 2007) and Pleasure P's "Under" (No. 5 in 2009). Bereal's debut album, "The Love Train," is scheduled to drop later this year with features from Chris Brown, Busta Rhymes and Trey Songz.

2 & 31 As "Sure Thing" spends a fifth week at No. 2—after relinquishing the No. 1 position to Kelly Rowland—new track "Quickie" catapults 21 positions into the top half of the list.

Nicki Minaj posts her eighth top 10 as "Super Bass" leaps 14 positions in its seventh week. The cut also hits the top five of the Hot 100 for the first time (see page 46).

Despite posting a voluminous 38 titles on the list in his six-year chart history, Young Jeezy scores just his 11th top 20, as the Lil Wayne-assisted track racks up 9.7 million listener impressions.

The lead single off "Planet Pit," which debuts at No. 3 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums with 55,000 copies (see opposite page), rises 13 positions with 1 million in audience.

The Los Angeles-based rapper makes his first appearance on the list as a lead artist. He appeared on Chris Brown's "Deuces," which spent nine weeks at No. 1 last year.

Weezy posts his 26th top 10 on the list, inching him closer to the Nielsen-era record (December 1992 to present) held by R. Kelly, with 32. Ludacris stands between them, with 28.

Ledisi breaks into the top 20 for the first time in her four-year chart history. On Adult R&B the cut moves 6-5, marking her first trip to that region of the radio-based chart.

The Philadelphia crooner cracks the top half of the list in the same week that "Anything," the first single from "musiqndamagiq," moves to recurrent status. The Swiss Beatz-featured track peaked at No. 31.

The third single from "All I Want Is You" catapults 46 spots in its second week on the list, tying Kanye West & Jay-Z's "H.A.M." for the biggest jump of the year.

With "4" set to hit stores June 28, Beyoncé makes her third appearance on the list this year. WPR New York spurred the high opening, spinning the song 26 times in the tracking period.

Main chart table with columns for week, title, artist, and chart position. Includes tracks like 'CAN'T BE FRIENDS', 'WHAT'S MY NAME?', 'ASTON MARTIN MUSIC', etc.

5 & 13

As "Deuces" halts its top 10 run after 21 weeks (8-13), the Virginia Slinger's follow-up explodes 10-5 with Greatest Gainer/Airpower honors (26 million impressions, up 31%).

"10 Seconds" keeps climbing (18-17) as the third single from "Love Me Back" opens as the Hot Shot Debut with 1.6 million in audience. Lead single "Holdin' You Down (Goin' in Circles)" peaked at No. 3 in October.

The Brooklyn MC breaks into the top 20 for the first time as a lead artist since "Throw It in the Bag" peaked at No. 4 in September 2009.

36

The prolific gospel duo garners its fifth top 10 on Adult R&B (see opposite page), as "Walking" steps 11-10. On this chart, the pair pockets its fourth top 40 hit courtesy of a 36% increase in airplay to 7.4 million impressions.

The Florida rapper lands his sixth chart entry. "Ride," featuring Trey Songz, stands as his best showing, having reached No. 27 in 2008.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

KANYE WEST & JAY-Z'S COLD CUT

With only one day of airplay in the tracking week (which ended Jan. 11), Kanye West and Jay-Z's "H*A*M" arrives at No. 94 on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart. The first single from their upcoming collaborative effort, "Watch the Throne," reached more than 1 million listeners in its first day. Leading the charge at radio were New York's WQHT and WPR, each of which spun the record six times on Jan. 11. With "H*A*M" having hit digital retailers on Jan. 12, it's sure to debut on Billboard's digital charts next week.

The Young Money rapstress notches her sixth top 10 on the list, while her "Pink Friday" reigns on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums for a third consecutive week (see opposite page).

The Young Money president breaks into the top 10 for a 22nd time. The jump makes featured Bronx newcomer Cory Gunz the first new artist to reach the upper crest in 2011.

Atlanta crooner Bobby V cracks the top half of the chart for the first time since 2006, when "Beep," featuring Yung Joc, peaked at No. 6. Debut track "Slow Down" spent four weeks atop the chart in 2005.

Gospel icon posts his best start since his debut "Lean on Me" (No. 29, 1999). Thirty-eight stations, led by WMXD Detroit (17 plays), added the track out-of-the-box.

The St. Louis rapper teams with Kelly Rowland once again for a thematic continuation of their 2002 neighbors-in-love smash "Dilemma," which spent nine weeks at No. 1.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS DRAKE TIES NIELSEN-ERA RECORD

Nicki Minaj's "Moment 4 Life," featuring Drake, leaps 11-7 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, giving Drake four singles in the top 10, a feat accomplished only once before since this chart adopted Nielsen metrics in December 1992. In the March 26, 2005, issue, 50 Cent landed four top 10s with "Candy Shop" (No. 1), "Disco Inferno" (No. 10) and his featured turns on the Game's "How We Do" (No. 6) and "Hate It or Love It" (No. 7). Unlike 50, however, Drake is the featured artist on all four of his top 10 tracks.

The New Orleans rapper notches his 17th top five. Dating to his first week in that region (Sept. 18, 1999) with "Back That Ludacris has more (18).

8 & 10 As "Can't Be Friends" plummeted after relinquishing its 13-week hold on No. 1 last week, Songz ascends to his 12th top 10 (22.2 million audience impressions, up 21%).

The singer breaks into the top 20 for the first time since his debut single, "Birthday Sex," spent two weeks at No. 1 in 2009. Banks' song, on which Jeremih guests, improves by 24% to 2 million in audience.

58 The fourth single off "Flockaveli" catapults 16 positions, thanks in part to WHTA Atlanta and WJMH Greensboro, N.C., having spun the song 57 and 51 times, respectively, in the chart's tracking period.

The Atlanta crooner charts the follow-up to last year's No. 62-peaking "Freaky You (Forget You)." Bailey, of Earth, Wind & Fire fame, makes his first solo appearance on the list since 1994.

Table with columns: RANK, LAST WEEK, WEEKS ON CHART, TITLE, ARTIST, PEAK POSITION. Top entry: #1 SHE WILL - Lil Wayne Featuring Drake.

Rapper who first graced the chart in 2008 scores his second career top 10 and second this year from his Blood, Sweat and Tears album.

While this urban Barbie doll dips to No. 22 on this list with her latest hit, she moves into the top 10 (12-7) on R&B/Hip-Hop Digital Songs (43,000, up 17%) and airplay-based Rap Songs (13-9).

Hot Shot Debut goes to this Slip-n-Slide act's second charted song from his planned fourth-quarter album release, Purple Heart.

With his long-delayed Live From the Kitchen yet to be served to the public, this song becomes the third track from that upcoming album to hit the chart. Kitchen will be Gotti's first album release since the top 10-peaking Sold Out in 2009.

This fresh face debuts a second single off his still-untitled forthcoming album. His previous track, featuring Nas, peaked at No. 50 in September.

The track jumps 11-9 on Rap Songs (see opposite page), marking Cole's first top 10 on the tally among two visits. "Who Dat" reached No. 19 last November.

47 The song springs by 20 spots, earning Greatest Gainer/Airplay honors (4.9 million audience impressions, up 121%). Helping fuel the flight are adds at WHTA Atlanta (34 first-week plays); WJMI Jackson, Miss. (22); and WUSL Philadelphia (15).

Beyoncé boasts two titles from her album 4 ascending Adult R&B, as "Best Thing I Never Had" reaches a new peak (20-18) and this cut bows at No. 36. (See billboard.biz/charts for the full list.)

77 After Prince, who established the Time in 1981, denied rights to the original group name, all seven members reappear as the Original 7ven. The Time last charted on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs in 1990, the year it scored its sole No. 1, "Jerk Out."

BETWEEN THE BULLETS MINDLESS BEHAVIOR HITS TOP 10

Tween sensation Mindless Behavior scores its first top 10 single on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs as its second release, "Mrs. Right" (featuring Diggy), moves to No. 10. With successful R&B vocal groups becoming scarce through the years, the top 10 feat is notable, as the quartet of 14-year-olds is the first non-rap group to enter the top 10 since the Pussycat Dolls' "Don't Cha" hit the region on Aug. 13, 2005. Mindless Behavior also returns male R&B vocal groups to the top 10 for the first time since 112's "U Already Know" (April 23, 2005). —Karinah Santiago

HOT R&B/HIP-HOP SONGS

Chart table with columns: THIS WEEK, LAST WEEK, 2 WEEKS AGO, WTR/DRT, TITLE, PRODUCER (SONGWRITER), Artist, IMPRINT / PROMOTION LABEL, CERT., PEAK POSITION. Top entry: #1 'I'M ON ONE' by DJ Khaled Feat. Drake, Rick Ross & Lil Wayne.

11 Title jumps 11-8 on Pap Songs, helping Wayne stretch his lead for most top 10s in the airplay-based chart's 12-year history. Now with 27 top 10s to his credit, Weezy leads Jay-Z by two and Ludacris by three.

The rap power pair receives Greatest Gainer recognition, as the fourth official single from Watch the Throne improves by 4.4 million audience impressions (up 55%), according to Nielsen BDS. WWPR (Power 105.1) New York contributes the most to the spike, providing the track with nearly 1.7 million more impressions than a week ago thanks to a 41-play jump in spins.

R&B crooner makes his first solo appearance on the chart since 2007's "Real Man." During the past 10 years he's plated four tracks accompanied by a featured artist and one as part of the trio LSG with Gerald Levert and Johnny Gill. The lattermost artist is also doing the solo thing on the chart this week, at No. 39.

97 New to the R&B scene, the Atlanta native is the latest artist signed by DJ Sense. The song appears on her recent mixtape, Confessions of a Virgo.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON R&B veteran Brian McKnight debuts on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart at No. 86 with "Temptation" featuring his son Brian McKnight Jr. This is a first for Poppa McKnight, as he has never recorded with any of his six children. The 21-year-old Brian, his oldest offspring, hadn't previously charted. The arrival follows in the footsteps of other charted father/offspring pairings like Master P and Lil' Romeo in 2002 with "Two Way" and Gerald and Eddie Levert Sr. in 1996 with "Get Your Thing Off." McKnight Sr. makes this his second song to hit the survey from his 10th and latest studio album, Just Me. —Karinah Santiago

RIGHT', 'SURETHING', 'FOOL FOR YOU', 'STAY', 'YOU THE BOSS', 'MOTIVATION', 'QUICKIE', 'TONY MONTANA', 'BEST THING I NEVER HAD', 'I'M ON ONE', 'SO IN LOVE', 'LIFE OF THE PARTY', 'ONLY WANNA GIVE IT TO YOU', 'IF IT'S LOVE', 'MAKE ME PROUD', 'HOW TO LOVE', 'YES', 'I'M FLEXIN'', 'IMA BOSS', 'TROUBLE', 'STAY TOGETHER', 'FLY', 'SHE AIN'T YOU', 'SO GONE (WHAT MY MIND SAYS)', 'UNTIL IT'S GONE', 'I SMILE', 'ROUND OF APPLAUSE', 'LOVE AFTER WAR', 'NO ONE GONNA LOVE YOU', 'MY LAST', 'COUNTDOWN', '4 AM', 'BOOTHANG', 'PIECES OF ME', 'GOOD GOOD NIGHT', 'FLY TOGETHER', 'LOVE ON TOP', 'CAN'T GET ENOUGH', 'Y.U. MAD', 'DRANK IN MY CUP'.

14 The track enters the top 10 on Mainstream R&B/Hip-Hop (see opposite page), where it's T-Pain's first top-tier placement in more than a year. Wiz Khalifa notches his third top 10 on the tally—and Allen her first.

The soulstress receives the Greatest Gainer award on the Adult R&B chart (see opposite page), where the song reaches a new peak (10-6). WYLD New Orleans and WBAY (Charlotte, N.C.), led all adult reporters with 40 plays apiece in the chart's tracking week.

The diva debuts a second song from My Life... The Journey Continues (Act I), due Nov. 21, as the track joins its album sister "25/8" at No. 45. Perhaps boding well for the future of "Wrong," Blige logs her highest debut since "I Am" (which launched at No. 46 in 2009), her most recent top 10 (No. 4 peak).

89 As the pop princess spends a second week atop the Billboard Hot 100 (see page 58) with her dance-leaning hit, R&B/hip-hop support grows for the song. Leading Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs panelists are WJHM Orlando, Fla. (46 plays last week); WPGC Washington, D.C. (32); and KBTI Shreveport, La. (24).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS COLE'S 'WORK' HITS TOP 10

J Cole earns his first top 10 as a lead artist on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs as "Work Out" moves 12-10. He previously landed in the top tier as a featured artist on Miguel's "All I Want Is You," peaking at No. 7 a year ago. "Work Out" also debuts at No. 40 on the Mainstream Top 40 airplay tally with 700 detections, perhaps due to its crossover appeal. (It interpolates Paula Abdul's "Straight Up" and samples Kanye West's "The New Workout Plan.") "Work Out" is a cut from Cole's debut and former Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums No. 1, Cole World: The Sideline Story, which has sold 369,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan. —Karinah Santiago

As the title suggests, Drake is set to make major chart news next issue as his album Take Care is likely to crown the Billboard 200 and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums charts.

The ego-pleasing track earns the Greatest Gainer tag on Mainstream R&B/Hip-Hop Songs with an increase of 520 spins. WJWZ Montgomery, Ala., contributed to the 36% increase with an added 34 spins during the tracking week.

Title tops the Adult R&B chart, giving the crooner his second No. 1 on that list and first since "How You Gonna Act Like That" in 2003. The singer first appeared on a Billboard chart in 1998.

In the week following the debut of his album Til the Morning, the set's lead single nabs the Greatest Gainer honor on the Adult R&B chart as it moves 14-7. The song is his first top 10 in three years and ninth overall.

Singer's debut album pumps out its fourth track. All previous album cuts also debuted on the chart's lower tier and subsequently peaked in the top 10.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS NICKI MINAJ 'A$$'-ISTS BIG SEAN

Big Sean's acquisition of Nicki Minaj on his "Dance (A$$)" remix proves to be a heavy return on investment. The Barbie-fied version serviced to radio last week helps moves the song up a number of tallies with Greatest Gainer honors. On Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, it becomes his third top 10, as it rises 12-10 (17.7 million in audience, up 3.1 million, according to Nielsen BDS) while also netting the Gainer nod on Rap Songs (10-7). Among all monitored R&B/hip-hop stations, KRRQ Lafayette, La., played the song the most times in the tracking week ending Nov. 15 (76 detections).

The most popular songs, according to R&B/Hip-Hop radio audience impressions, measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems, and sales data, compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. The rapper maintains his double stance in the top 20 with these two tracks as "Enough" takes the place of his featured turn on Elle Varner's "Only Wanna Give It to You" (20-21).

The crooner slips into the top 10 at R&B Adult (13-10) for the sixth time in his career. He last appeared in the upper tier with "Sex Therapy," from the album of the same name, in March 2010.

The song debuts on R&B/Hip-Hop Digital Songs at No. 17 with first-week sales of 24,000 downloads, a much better start than last single "Wet the Bed," which opened at No. 43 on that list in April with 15,000.

While "Ni*as in Paris" holds onto No. 1 for a third consecutive week, the duo places yet another Watch the Throne track on the list with this Hot Shot Debut title, its third to chart from the set.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS DRAKE'S EVEN DOZEN

Drake becomes only the second artist in the history of the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart to notch 12 simultaneously charting singles as his "HYFR (Hell Yeah Fg Right)" begins at No. 98. Only Lil Wayne, who has claimed 12 entries multiple times, has charted more concurrent singles. He posted 13 titles on Sept. 13 and 20, 2008. Meanwhile, Drake's "Make Me Proud" (featuring Nicki Minaj) moves 14-10—the former's 21st top 10. It's one of seven tracks from his Take Care album on the tally, joining Nos. 4, 20, 51, 63, 92 and 98. —Karinna Santiago

BETWEEN THE BULLETS BEYONCÉ'S BABY 'LOVE' GROWS

Beyoncé's "Love on Top" slingshots its way onto the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart as the unofficial single reaches new heights in radio airplay and digital sales. "Love" debuts at No. 85 and moves 35-2 on the R&B/Hip-Hop Digital Songs chart (113,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan; up 803%). Bey's reveal of her baby bump after performing the song during the MTV Video Music Awards on Aug. 28 set off the sudden spark of popularity. WKYD Washington, D.C., leads all chart reporters with 21 plays for the week. "Love" debuts with 1.2 million audience impressions, according to Nielsen BDS (up 452%). —Karinah Santiago
