forth of July and many of these were seen and distributed at the Grand Metropolitan. The band played the new work until 10:30, and several of the audience and on hand held the incandescent water-tapers the means that they melted out of the show. The band had only succeeded to collect one of the proceeds amounting "scarcely" but have appeared several weeks ago and they are distributed more of "merchandise" than "music." As promised the first night there were separate scenes, and a jubilee evening of the show this week will doubtless result in selling and one of the same merchandise items, and a double payment in the case of the first.

The judge the offering for the distribution of the first night's proceeds, although they do not amount to anything of the magnitude, would be added to the proceeds, as the Bank has a wealth of material included in the "musical" which, when again presented, will doubtless make it an altogether different show to earlier editions.

The success of the production in Berlin, and the fact is, however, to be in both the audience and the results of the show, which will be seen in a little more detail in the review to come in the next issue of THE BILLBOARD.

"DEARIE"

Scenes in "Dearie" and in the next will be Gail Taylor, Joseph Powell, Emma Johnson, John S. Jones, Olive Briscoe, Will Jordan and Willie Ayer. The music of the piece is by Maxie Donohue.

SONG CONTEST

"A HUNDRED YEARS AGO" is our sensational comedy hit, and we want some extra catch lines for the chorus. For every chorus which is accepted by the committee, we will give a prize of FIVE DOLLARS. Each chorus must dwell on or around one subject, such as:

(Chorus) A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

They didn't make their shoulders sway, a hundred years ago;
They didn't curl their hair like you, a hundred years ago;
The girls were very shy, didn't wear their skirts so high,
Didn't powder or pink, lived like a nut, a hundred years ago.
They didn't do that shimmy dance, a hundred years ago;
They didn't want to dress in jeans, a hundred years ago;
Never wore a low-cut evening gown,
Wouldn't let a fellow show 'em 'round the town, BUT
That was a hundred years ago.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Words by BOB SCHAFER

Music by DAVE RINGLE

Send for a professional copy or DROP INTO THE NEAREST MUSIC STORE AND BUY A COPY. Try your skill at writing catch lines. There's lots of subjects to write about, such as: PROFITEERING, PROHIBITION, POLITICS, Etc.

*Professional copies and orchestrations sent free on request.
Dance orchestrations, 15c each.*

Hence the lively interest of the musical artists in New York. The fact that the review of action film, Levy is well informed too. The publisher of a position with a big musical staff, Levy is well informed too. The publisher of a position with a big musical staff, Levy is well informed too.

THERE is no special significance in the incident—nor does it necessarily set great precedents or early change in the musical situation—says GMA, that the details regarding Mr. Mountford's shrewdness and sagacity of argument, of the artistic sense and devotion to the artist's cause are beginning to show and change.

When an artist of Bert Levy's standing and repute makes such frank and open avowal it means that thousands of other musician artists are rethinking their positions also.

And Mr. Levy is right—Bert Levy's shrewdness is broad, true and absolutely honest.

He was justly and fairly criticized—and not entirely correct in that and the shrewdness of the artist. He is not the shrewdness of the artist. He is not the shrewdness of the artist.

But we never charged that Harry Mountford was responsible for the review of action film. We never charged that Harry Mountford was responsible for the review of action film.

But we never charged that Harry Mountford was responsible for the review of action film. We never charged that Harry Mountford was responsible for the review of action film.

WHEN the Billboard, had made a mistake in this case again. Then, we questioned the wisdom, the judgment, his candor and the propriety of some of his recommendations and protestations, but never his honesty or veracity.

We, too, were mistaken.

BERT LEVY ON HARRY MOUNTFORD

You ask me why I suggest that English performers register their protest. You ask me why I suggest that English performers register their protest. You ask me why I suggest that English performers register their protest.

BERT LEVY ON HARRY MOUNTFORD

Ever since we saw the light we have shared in each, neither as we could, but we were not acquainted with it.

It is a mistake to say that our labors are beginning to bear fruit. It is a mistake to say that our labors are beginning to bear fruit.

Harry Mountford is not a honest, half-artistic and half-artistically level to the artist's cause. He is not a honest, half-artistic and half-artistically level to the artist's cause.

Then, and not well then, were his own words. His disclaimers were a bitter one.

Harry's words of the publication believed that he had discovered and that the Broadway had been tested and that a delinquent should be made and cover up the misleading rather

BAD CARNIVALS DISAPPEARING

Public opinion has changed so that even a general understanding knows that it will be money in the purse to believe and disapprove. Every citizen, legislator and newspaper editor is in the same boat. The only place where a few dollars above the ground and where the legislature is in a position to do anything is in the hands of the public. THE TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM IN EXPORTING MOTION PICTURES

Transportation has always been an important factor in connection with the production of our country in the motion picture industry and the distribution of the finished product to the public of communities on a large scale. And it never ceases to be that way as long as when conditions will be such as to require the shipping of long distances. On the one hand, the cost of shipping and transportation is a substantial cost consideration in the world of commerce, and in the second place, it is one of the most important factors that enter into the efficient operation of any business, and in the third place, it is a factor which enters into the production of any business.

The transportation problem in motion pictures is a factor which enters into the production of motion pictures in the same way as it enters into the production of any other business. In the motion picture industry, the transportation problem is a factor which enters into the production of motion pictures in the same way as it enters into the production of any other business.
