SYNDIE SWORD

BY KEN TUCKER

From Adam Carolla to Wendy Williams, John Tesh to Alice Cooper, syndicated personalities are more prevalent now than ever for music-formatted radio stations. Not to say that syndicated dayparts are new—Howard Stern was in as many as 60 markets during nearly 20 years of syndication, while Tom Joyner is on more than 100 stations—but syndicated shows are now available for every daypart.

Airing syndicated talent on your station is, as one programmer calls it, a “double-edged sword.” More than likely, you are getting superior talent to what may be available locally, but there can be challenges to integrating the syndicated host into the fabric of your station.

Billboard Radio Monitor talked to programmers in a variety of formats and market sizes about the blessings and curses of carrying syndicated programming.

Clear Channel adult R&B WMXD (Mix 92.3) Detroit PD Jamillah Muhammad has two syndicated personalities on her station—Michael Baisden’s “Love, Lust and Lies,” syndicated by ABC Radio Networks, has been on in afternoons for a year, while Steve Harvey has been doing mornings since early October.

Michael Baisden

Lia

Harvey is syndicated through the joint efforts of Clear Channel’s Premiere Radio Networks and Inner City Broadcasting.

“Having the best available talent in an extremely competitive environment, local or syndicated, is a blessing,” Muhammad says. “It’s all about compelling, competitive content.”

Cromwell Radio Group active rock WBUZ (the Buzz) Nashville OM Jim Patrick, whose station has carried Premiere’s syndicated duo Bob & Tom for 10 years, says, “It’s a little of both, but it’s more of a blessing if you’re working with the right syndicated program. Bob & Tom and their folks do an excellent job of making this program extremely professional and hassle-free. It’s a challenge in that when you do a syndicated program you don’t want it to totally sound as though you’ve completely handed over the keys to the shop. It’s important to have local elements and a host who can relate to the local audience so that the end result is a perfect blend.”

Patrick says his local producer/host Dagwood “is one of the best local affiliate hosts I’ve heard. He does an excellent job of making the network/affiliate transitions flow smoothly, and he does a great job of making us sound local during the show. It sounds as if he’s part of the program—which he is, only he’s not in Indianapolis,” where the show originates from Clear Channel heritage rock WFBQ. Bob & Tom have one of the longest-running morning shows in Nashville.

Across the street, another Premiere offering, “The Big Show,” airs on Clear Channel classic rock WNRQ (the Rock). Hosted by John Boy & Billy, the show originates at similarly formatted sister WRFN (the Fox) Charlotte, N.C. “They’re so good, it’s a blessing,” WNRQ PD Mud says. “The challenge is to keep them always sounding local, which I continuously work on and implement.”

“Having syndicated dayparts is a double-edged sword,” says Fuzz Martin, PD for Bliss Communications country WBWI in suburban Milwaukee. “On one hand, you don’t have to deal with egos, light the proverbial fire or aircheck the talent,” he says. “On the other hand, there is one less warm body that is available to produce imaging, voice commercials or show up at a live broadcast.”

MAKING IT WORK

Successfully integrating syndicated personalities into a station’s programming seems to be a two-way street—both sides have to be willing to participate and communication is the key.

“The Bob & Tom folks are very accessible and accommodating,” Patrick says. “They do a great job of keeping their affiliate resource page up to date and they communicate regularly with us via e-mail, usually two times a day. We have also contributed to the program by keeping them up to date on local stories that we think they could use on the program. They recently used a local article . . . that involved the discovery of a ‘giant beaver’ in one of our surrounding counties. I’m sure you can figure out some of the punch lines used during that segment.”

Patrick says he frequently asks Bob & Tom and their team to record promos and liners “to make sure that they become part of the Buzz.” The station also recycles morning show bits into afternoon drive during its “Five O’Clock Funnies” segment.

Muhammad has had similar experiences with Harvey. “If you ask Steve Harvey how much interaction I have with him, he’d probably jokingly say, ‘Too much!’” she says. “It is imperative to be in touch daily, weekly, as often as possible with your talent and/or their staff. Knowing the direction you are headed before you get there is important. Together we plan contests, events, market visits, direction of the content, etc. They get reports from me on trends, books, my vision and anything they need to know for success.

“Communication allows you the comfort in knowing we are on the same page,” Muhammad adds.

“We make them a major part of our station by using their voices on the station 24/7," Mud says of John Boy & Billy. "I always send them fresh liners to cut, [which] makes them part of our station. To the listener it sounds like they're always on the Rock, and essentially they are."

Meanwhile, Entercom AC KUDL Kansas City PD Thom McGinty is a fan of Premiere's "Delilah" show. "KUDL's staff knows her, we cross-promote her quite a bit, and she voices her own promos, too," he says. "Her overall delivery and attitude also fits like a glove here in the Midwest."

Having worked with Delilah for a number of years, McGinty says, "Even though we don't talk every day, I wouldn't hesitate to pick up the phone and chat if I needed to." He says Delilah's former home, Jones Radio Networks, "did a pretty good job of making Delilah's reps available, and Premiere Radio has done a terrific job of delivering the nuts and bolts—liners, promos, interviews, what's coming up, Web information, Q&A, etc."

Clear Channel country WGAR Cleveland PD Meg Stevens works with a slightly different situation. Middays are voice-tracked by Michael J, APD/MD/afternoon jock at sister station WPOC Baltimore; Premiere's "After MidNite With Blair Garner" is heard in overnights.

On one hand, Stevens says she sees Garner, who the station has carried for 10 years, at the Country Music Assn. Awards and other industry functions, but does not have regular interaction with the host. "If I have a comment on the show or hear something that I loved, I let him know," she says. "He's always very open and easy to find."

As for Michael J, Stevens says, "I speak to him once a week or every other week to keep him up to date. He'll let me know if he has questions or if I've not supplied him with what he needs. We spend more time on e-mail for day-to-day station needs. The rest of the staff e-mails him as well. He is truly part of the staff."

"It is very apparent when you listen to his show the amount of show prep he does," Stevens says of the four-year WGAR veteran. "Part of the reason we asked him to join us in Cleveland was that he fits in with the rest of the staff. We needed someone who could stand shoulder to shoulder with our longtime air talent, Jim Mantel and Chuck Collier."

But another programmer says he recently changed his syndicated night jock because he was not feeling the interactive love. "One of the very reasons that we dropped [Jones'] Lia [Knight] in favor of [Superadio's] 'Country Lovin' was that her show isn't very interactive with the station itself," Martin says. "The standard for getting imaging copy turned around by Lia was two weeks ... [which] is nearly an eternity when you have to get something on the air 'today.'"

But Jones/Seattle VP/GM Susan Stephens says turnaround time is not a reflection on the show's interactivity. "In order to maintain the level of quality of our 180 localized affiliates, we request a two-week turnaround, although many times we deliver quicker than that," she says. "With the most localization options of any syndicated show—up to 14 times per hour—no show is more interactive with a station than the 'Lia' show."

Martin admits he does not send station updates to Jones overnight jock Danny Wright, whom he still carries. "With all of the talk about the number of affiliates that each personality has, it kind of seems like a fax with the latest news out of Wisconsin would just get lost in the shuffle."

So, Martin says he replaced the in-show "local" liners with others produced by the station's voice talent, which he says "worked out quite well. We weren't really fooling many people into thinking that Lia and Danny actually lived in Wisconsin. There were some believers, of course, but it's hard to fool Midwesterners into thinking that a show is local, when half of the callers have southern accents."

KEEPING UP APPEARANCES

While those in the industry would always like to portray radio listeners as folks who exclusively drive Mercedes-Benzes and qualify for MENSA, it just isn't so. Almost every programmer Billboard Radio Monitor talked to admitted that at least some listeners in their area believe that the syndicated jocks they hear on their local radio station are, well, locals.

WBWI's Martin, for example, says his station does not pretend Wright and "Country Lovin'" host Darren Tandy are in the WBWI studios, but he does not advertise that they are not either. "We have had listeners tell us things like, 'I can't believe Danny is on WBWI,'" he says. "It won't be long before he leaves you for a larger market."

Rather than try to explain the magic of satellites and 800 phone lines, "We just let those listeners believe," Martin says. "I don't believe most listeners care where they come from."

McGinty agrees and says, "Some know ['Delilah'] is a syndicated show, many don't. I don't think it matters to the fans."

"I believe the listeners only care if you are giving them the best product you can offer," Muhammad says, citing Harvey's and Baisden's rising ratings in Detroit.

WGAR's Stevens agrees. "Michael is No. 1 25-54 middays in Cleveland, so I'd say [listeners have] adapted well," she says. "He has such a great way of telling a story. I don't think they know the difference or care. Listeners just want great music presented in an entertaining way—and they get that with Michael."

While it may be difficult as the number of affiliates grow, local appearances by syndicated personalities go a long way toward weaving them into the station's fabric. Bob & Tom, for example, are famous for taking their band on the road. WBUZ's Patrick says the morning men have been to town on "a couple of occasions," while noting that the appearances are "actually quite a production" and that it is "quite a monumental undertaking" since as many as 35-40 musicians and comedians travel with the group. "With as many affiliates as they have, I'm sure it's more and more difficult to go on the road as much these days," he says.

Luckily, sidekicks Kristi Lee and Chick McGee regularly hit the road to host various performances of the show's touring cadre of comedians.

Meanwhile, Muhammad says Harvey and Baisden have made market appearances. "Steve Harvey definitely understands marketing and how key it is to touch those he targets," he says. "Since the launch of 'The Steve Harvey Show' Oct. 3, we are working on our fourth market visit. Detroiters love seeing him, knowing he's accessible, and it reflects in their appeal for his show." ■■■■

Blame their on-air chemistry, but many fans of radio/TV personalities Lorianne Crook and Charlie Chase believe they are married to each other. Their typical response to this observation is to laughingly point out that they get along too well to be married.

Last month, United Stations Radio Networks announced plans to launch a five-hour daily country show hosted by the duo. Professionally known as Crook & Chase, they are high-profile brand names in the country music industry who have been working together since 1983. In addition to their new show, which launches March 27, they host the long-running weekly radio program "Crook & Chase Countdown," which is also syndicated by USRN.

The duo are best-known for their 16-year stint hosting the TV show "Crook & Chase" on the Nashville Network and in syndication. In its heyday, the 90-minute show was shot live in front of a studio audience of 900-1,200 fans every day. But even after 23 years of working as a team in a variety of media—including co-authoring a book in 1995—this new program will be the duo's first foray together into daily, long-form radio.

One of the most intriguing aspects of their new program is the network will make it available to affiliates as a midday, afternoon or evening show. A primary satellite feed will be run weekdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. EST, but the show will refeed to allow stations in any time zone to pick it up in the daypart of their choice. In mid-days and afternoons, it has no significant syndicated competition.

Like USRN's "Nights With Alice Cooper" and Premiere Radio Networks' "After MidNite With Blair Garner," the Crook

& Chase show will be produced with each hour as a self-contained unit so the hours can be run in any order to accommodate stations picking it up in later dayparts.

Crook & Chase signed a multiyear deal to host the show, which will feature contemporary country music mixed with regular bits and features and the revealing and sometimes raucous celebrity interviews the hosts are known for.

In those interviews, Chase says, "we do have a tendency to find the naughty side of country artists." But not too naughty, Crook adds. Noting that fans often call to say they listen to the duo's countdown show on Sunday mornings while on their way to church, she says, "We get just a little naughty so they can pray for us, but we're not Howard Stern."

Talkers Magazine ranks Ingraham the 5th largest show in national syndication.

"This is a huge achievement in syndicated radio," says Mark Masters, CEO of TRN Enterprises. "We are ecstatic over the success of the show. The combination of Laura's brilliance, and the hard work of the team has really propelled the show to the very top of ratings performance for our stations – we are grateful that their faith in the show has been repaid with interest."

The Laura Ingraham Show has recently added WYSL, Rochester; WDEL, Wilmington; WLSS, Sarasota-Bradenton; and KBZZ, Reno to name just a few.

In addition to hosting her nationally syndicated radio program for TRN Enterprises, Laura Ingraham is an author, frequent columnist and television commentator. # SYNDICATION SPECIAL ISSUE

Among the planned new features is "Out of Context," which spotlights an odd sound bite from a celebrity. Listeners will be asked to guess what the star is talking about. For example, a snippet of Keith Urban saying "I really like 'em cheap and rough" will later be revealed as a conversation about bath towels.

As for the music, "It's going to be mainstream country," Chase says. "But because we're neighbors of all these people making the music, if we get our hands on something special that's not on the top 40 chart yet but we know is going to be, we'll spotlight it and have some fun with it."

ARTISTS LET LOOSE

Jokes about being married aside, Crook & Chase prefer to describe their on-air dynamic as a sibling relationship. "We have each other's back and protect each other," Crook says. "We don't fight as much as married people."

Chase says their chemistry is "something we've never stopped to analyze. We don't want to know what it is."

"In a way, we're really opposite," Crook says. "Charlie just has a quick wit, a really sharp mind and a great sense of humor. So, during interviews he infuses that fun, off-the-wall element. The stars just love him. They walk in and ask him for the latest joke.

"I'm kind of the person who asks the deep, uncomfortable questions. I want to know how people tick. I'm very analytical," she continues. "Once they get done laughing [with Chase] I bring it back to 'OK, what are you really like?' And I probably get in trouble more than Charlie does because of that.

"Every interview we do for radio is an embarrassing one," Crook says with a laugh. "There's something about being in a little room with no television lights, no windows, no cameras; it's kind of dark. The artists let loose with all kinds of interesting stories."

Chase adds, "We think it's an honor when artists say, 'I've never talked about this before, but here goes.' What a compliment that they believe in us [enough that] they will share something not only with us, but with the rest of the world through us."

For instance, Crook says, "Early on when Keith Urban was first making a splash and before anyone knew anything about his background, [as] Miss Deep here, I got in a conversation about his faith. He went into this whole thing about his cocaine abuse, his family turning their back on him, his girlfriend kicking him out. After the interview we said, 'Do you want us to use this? Are you sure? Because we can kind of hold back on it,' and he said, 'Nope. It's all right. It's what I've really been through. And it's where my music comes from.'"

Chase is proud of the team's on-air experience. "We have been there when so many of these people like Urban have launched their careers in country music," he says. "They come to Nashville, and we usually meet them. In a lot of cases we gave them exposure on television for the first time."

Crook adds, "It's so great to watch people's dreams come true and to see talented people [succeed]."

PLAYING ON THE EDGE

Crook & Chase laugh when they are asked, tongue-in-cheek, if they took on the new show because they were not busy enough already. In addition to the countdown show and daily short-form features for USRN, both personalities also still work in TV. Chase is up at 3 a.m. every day to host the morning show for the Nashville Fox TV affiliate. He started in radio at age 13 and will mark his 40th anniversary in broadcasting this fall. Crook does specials for the GAC network.

Crook admits that when USRN first approached them with the idea for the show, their reaction was to ask, "Are you nuts?"

"Well, we weren't doing anything between noon and six," Chase jokingly interjects.

But when network execs explained that they saw a need in the market for this kind of show, the hosts were eventually convinced.

Crook describes their plans for the show as "ambitious," but adds, "We like to play on the edge."

Chase says, "This is what we have chosen to do for the rest of our lives, because we love it so much. To be able to have this opportunity to expand on what we're already doing, hey, smile and bring it on.

"This is a fun job," Chase adds. "We're laughing all the time when we do this."

After the show was announced, they immediately felt the enthusiasm from record labels, which began sending them e-mails asking how they could help—and, of course, how they could get their artists booked on the program. "The sense is that this is a tremendous vehicle for country," Chase says, "especially since we're located right here on Music Row. They're as excited about this as we are."

The new show will originate from the Music Row offices of Jim Owens Entertainment, which co-produces both Crook & Chase radio shows with USRN. (Veteran TV producer Owens is Crook's spouse.)

Crook says the show is "servicing three really important groups that make country music spin. The record labels want exposure for their artists. This show does that. Stations want great shows from people they can depend upon. We can do that for them. And listeners want interviewers who are connected and can give some inside information."

Chase says the veteran team they assembled long ago for the weekly countdown show will give them a "big head start" in the daily radio business.

They have been doing the countdown (known as "The Nashville Record Review" in its early days) since 1989, and Crook says it is the interviews that keep the show fresh and interesting for the pair. "It's restrictive because you have to play the top 40 songs, so that's where you have to be creative and really get the interviews and get some inside information and just always have something for people to tune in to," she says.

Chase adds, "People are hungry for anything that goes on behind the scenes in country music they're not privy to. The response we want to get is for [listeners] to say, 'Man, I didn't know that. That's cool.'"

DAYPARTS: 'GOOD BUSINESS'

The new Crook & Chase show is USRN's second entree into full-daypart broadcasting. The network launched "Nights With Alice Cooper" two years ago. And with more than 2,000 available outlets, country was the format that appealed to network executives most for the launch of a new daypart product.

USRN executive VP of programming Andy Denmark says daypart shows are "good business . . . On the advertiser side, there is more demand for Monday-to-Friday business," he says. "National advertisers see [weekend shows] as a little bit inefficient. You can do better with a daily strip."

As a network, Denmark says, "our job is to fill a need for stations, and a lot of stations, we're finding, have had their local resources cut back. If they can get a free daypart filled—and hopefully they think of barter as free—there are some cost savings . . . But the No. 1 thing for us is serving stations with talent they couldn't get otherwise."

Which explains why the network tapped Crook & Chase for its new country product. Denmark says, "Everyone wants [brand name] talent right now. Almost everything is driven by some kind of big national star roster . . . Within country, Crook & Chase are . . . a beloved brand. I have seen artists fawn over them."

At press time, Denmark says he has verbal commitments from a couple of stations planning to pick up the show, but no signed contracts.

After successfully launching Cooper's show, Denmark admits he briefly thought about using the same model and signing an artist to host the new country show, but quickly realized the star power of Crook & Chase was available and already part of the company's roster. As an added bonus, he notes with a laugh, "I don't have to teach them anything about radio." ■■■

JERRY DOYLE

SHOWING STRONG RATINGS COAST TO COAST ADDING CLEAR CHANNEL SAN FRANCISCO, MIDDAYS

Las Vegas, NV – Jerry Doyle continues to reign as the fastest growing show in TRN Enterprises history, surpassing the 225 station mark, including 23 FM stations, in just under two years. Mark Masters, TRN Enterprises CEO, couldn't be more pleased saying, "Jerry's emotional and intellectual range is often breathtaking. Jerry is just amazing. He's a natural talker, and deserves the success he is attaining."

Clear Channel's KNEW, San Francisco just added The Jerry Doyle Show live Monday through Friday, Noon to 3 p.m. KNEW Program Director, Bob Agnew says, "Jerry Doyle will be a great compliment and addition to Talk 910 KNEW," said Agnew. "He is no longer a registered Republican but a real independent thinker who is in line with 910AM KNEW's top ranked host Michael Savage. Savage brings the 'Independent Conservative' theme to KNEW airwaves, Doyle backs it up."

Mirroring his incredible affiliate growth is the fact that The Jerry Doyle Show is now ranked the 9th largest syndicated radio talk show in America, according to Talkers Magazine. From Boston Harbor to the bays of California, Jerry Doyle's ratings are also on the rise.

Doyle continues his dominance in Dallas, where ABC's WBAP ranked as the #1 talker in Jerry's daypart. In Men 35+ Jerry was not only on top in AQH with a 3.2 share, but had almost twice the Cume as his nearest competitor. In Persons 35/64 Doyle scored a 3.3 share in the talk demo. WBAP Program Director Bob Shomper had this to say about The Jerry Doyle Show, "From Hollywood conservative to congressional candidate...

Jerry's perspective is right on target with our WBAP listeners."

America's Finest City, San Diego, is also one of America's most competitive talk radio markets. With five different AM stations competing, Doyle's 2nd book in the market on powerhouse station KFMB showed great consistent growth from Summer to Fall. KFMB saw their 12+ demo skyrocket 59% to a 2.7 share with Doyle. The Jerry Doyle Show took KFMB Men 35+ from a 3.1 to a 4.3 share (an increase of 39%)

In Men 25/54, he beat out heritage flamethrower KOGO by a half a share point; Doyle's AQH growth was up 6% while competitor KOGO dropped almost 57% in that key male demo. In Men 12+ from Summer to Fall, Doyle grew from a 1.8 to a 2.6, and in Men 25/44, Doyle saw huge gains going from a 0.6 to a 2.3, (up 283% from book to book, over 660% from one year ago.)

In Orlando it is high velocity ratings for WDBO, where Doyle dominates. Doyle rated a 4.5 share in Persons 12+, a 4.4 Persons 35/64 and a 3.6 share Men 35/64.

In his debut book The Jerry Doyle Show on Clear Channel's KHBZ Honolulu took Persons 25/54 from 0.8 last Fall to a 2.9 (up over 200%). Since then, Jerry has continued to score high marks on KHBZ. In the latest survey, Jerry Doyle increased his Men 25/54 from 0.0 to a 2.3 share, and in his debut book, in Men 35/64, Jerry grew from a 0.9 one year ago to a 3.1 share. In the Fall '05 Survey with Men 25/54, Jerry remains consistent with a 2.7 share, up 200% from one year ago.

At Citadel's 50,000 watt talker KBOI in Boise, Doyle saw huge gains in audience share, starting from virtually zero at his debut and going to an amazing 5.5 share in Adults 25/54, and a 4.7 share in Adults 35/64. "We appreciate the awesome programming that you provide KBOI," says Andrew Paul, Program Director, KBOI.

Minneapolis' WWTC saw strong growth in all demos with a 3.2 share Men 35/64, a solid 150% increase in Persons 35/64, and a 43% increase 25/54. On Spokane's 50,000 watt blow torch, Citadel's powerhouse talker continues to reign supreme with Doyle, who has been dominant in the market for well over a year. In Men 25/54, Jerry took the station from a 2.5 to 7.6 share (up over 200%) in the Spring book, and from Summer to Fall, Doyle increased his Men 35+ going from a 1.2 to 3.1 share (Up 158%).

Citadel Talker KWQW, Des Moines is going head-to-head with heritage talker WHO, and The Jerry Doyle Show has tied WHO for the #1 talk show slot in Men 25/54 after just two books. On WQSC, Charleston, The Jerry Doyle Show increased Cume audience 275% with Men 25/54, and 43% with Men 35/64.

The Jerry Doyle Show is a mix of politics, pop culture and current events. Prior to his burgeoning career in talk radio, Doyle's distinctive repertoire included Fighter Pilot, Wall Street Insider for over 10 years and TV Star. He has starred in many made for TV movies, but is best known as the character of Michael Garibaldi on the Emmy winning Sci-fi television series Babylon 5 which ran for five years.

The Jerry Doyle Show airs Live M-F 12 to 3 Pacific (3 p.m. to 6 p.m. EST) with secondary feeds 7 to 10 Pacific (10 p.m. to 1 a.m. EST). Doyle is syndicated by TRN Enterprises.

PODCASTING SHAKEOUT LEAVES THE PROS STANDING

BY TONY SANDERS

Podcasting is a technology trend in search of a business plan. The freewheeling, everyone's-a-broadcaster mentality is still part of the action. Home-grown podcasts continue to garner a real following, but there is a change happening. Podcasting is going through commercialization and an industry shakeout, just like any other new business generally does in its early years, and it is separating the dedicated pioneers and the professionals from the part-time wannabes.

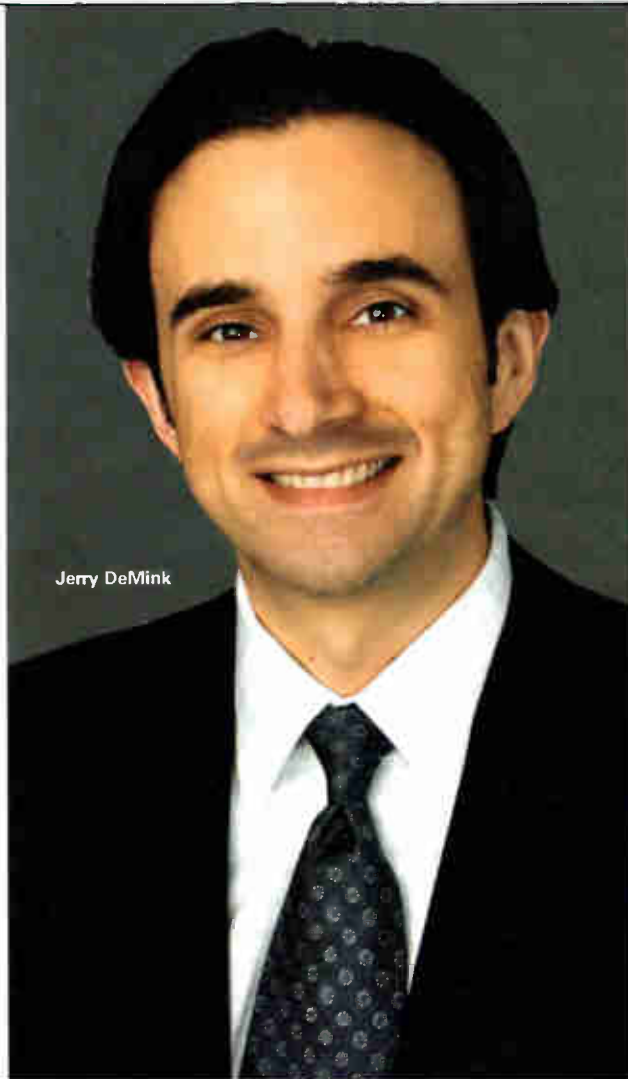

Previous Billboard Radio Monitor reports on podcasting focused on the work done by various radio networks, such as the BBC, the CBC and NPR, or by station groups such as CBS Radio's all-news outlets. Those efforts continue to expand, but a Feb. 7 Wired magazine news report used the term "podfading" to describe what happens when podcasters lose interest in creating a regularly scheduled program.

Podcasters cease operations either because they find the effort too daunting or because they are not generating enough listenership, according to the article. It also cited estimates that about 20% of all podcasters "don't make it past their 10th show."

Maybe that is why professional broadcasters were happy to adopt a wait-and-see approach before fully committing to this new technology. In fact, the earliest ventures by professional broadcasters into on-demand talk streaming have been as paid subscription services. Those services are still up and running—and only recently have these existing services added podcasting as a new form of delivery for paying subscribers.

NETS ENTER THE POD ZONE

"Podcasting was the biggest feature we added last year to our existing subscription Web sites," says Amir Forester, spokeswoman for Premiere Radio Networks. Currently, Premiere offers subscriptions to seven personalities: Rush Limbaugh, Jim Rome, Dr. Laura Schlessinger, Phil Hendrie, Glenn Beck, George Noory ("Coast to Coast") and Bob & Tom. In addition, Premiere has developed a free, sponsored podcast version of "American Top 40 With Ryan Seacrest." Forester says her network believes adding podcasts was "a big reason" Premiere has seen major growth in subscribers.

Marc Horine, GM for new media at Disney/ABC's ESPN and ESPN Deportes Radio, previously worked in new media for ABC News Radio and was responsible, in part, for establishing ABC Radio Networks' subscription-based, audio-on-demand Web site for talk host Sean Hannity, which launched in November 2004.

ESPN programming was first available as a podcast on Apple's iTunes Web site in July 2005. Horine says podcasting is a "great distribution platform for us," one that opens ESPN to a different audience and, in many cases, a younger audience. "It gets the ESPN brand out there to people who might not necessarily tune in to ESPN Radio or listen through espnradio.com," he says.

From a marketing standpoint, Horine is happy with how ESPN podcasts stack up against other sports-oriented programming listed on Apple's iTunes pages. "We're not podcasting two-hour shows," he says. "We're giving people snippets. We hope they like what they hear and that they'll come back for more" by tuning in a terrestrial or satellite radio or logging on to ESPN's own Web site.

From an advertising standpoint, Horine is also happy. He will not disclose specifics about listenership levels, downloads or advertising revenue. "It's profitable for us," he says. "If you look at iTunes, we've been consistently in the top 10 and top 20" lists of popular podcasts. "We wouldn't be expanding" the variety of ESPN offerings "if it didn't make good business sense."

Last month, ESPN launched two more podcasts, abbreviated versions of "The Big Show With Dan Patrick and Keith Olberman" and "SportsCenter." Horine says that "as advertiser demand continues to grow, and we've seen a lot of demand out there, we'll continue to add products." He says all ESPN podcasts have sponsored advertising. "People see this as a growing medium," he says, "and if the numbers continue to grow the way that we're seeing them grow, we see this as a phenomenal business for us over the next five years."

Horine points to the many advantages established broadcasters and networks have over independent podcasters: "We're very fortunate to have these cross-platform promotional vehicles. We've got the talent, the reporters, the analysts, the technology, so we can create great content and put it together so that our consumers can have a great experience with it."

CNN Radio recently increased its involvement in podcasting. In the last few weeks, VP of CNN news services Jerry DeMink ing to serve our affiliates at the same time we're able to expand our distribution. From our perspective, we're moving exactly on the timeline we had created for ourselves."

A quick tour of the ABC News Web site turns up dozens of different podcast offerings, including some from ABC TV stations. The ABC News Radio podcasts include two that are news-oriented and updated daily: "Brian Ross Investigates" and "CyberShake." The other two podcasts are entertainment news-oriented and focus on weekly TV shows "Desperate Housewives" and "Lost."

Jones says his network also plans to deliver long-form audio on demand to its affiliates on a regular basis later this year. By the end of this summer, he says, ABC News Radio affiliates should be able to receive all the network's audio content on demand. "So, as soon as we have the audio, our affiliates will have the audio. What this will allow us to do is every piece of audio we generate will be automatically encoded as an audio file." That means all of that audio could be distributed "anywhere we want" and transformed into podcasts if desired, Jones says.

TOP MARKET FMs NOW INTO PODCASTING

One year ago, only a few commercial radio stations offered any podcasts and those were primarily news and news/talk outlets. Now, a Billboard Radio Monitor survey of FM radio stations in the top markets has turned up 19 stations in New York and Los Angeles that offer some level of podcasting or downloadable audio content. Stations offering streaming audio were not included in the survey. CBS Radio's remodeled "Free FM" FM talkers all offer podcasts of key personalities and dayparts.

The most engaging new entry into podcasting is Entravision's KDDL/KDLE Los Angeles, the rock FM simulcast known as "Indie 103.1." The FM offers various podcasts for download as well as its weekly "Smash Mix" mash-up show. ●●● says, his network has introduced three weekly podcasts at the CNN Web site: "A Digital Life," hosted by CNN Headline News anchor Renay San Miguel; "You Can't Make This Up," which looks at the unusual side of the news, hosted by CNN Radio's Jim Ribble; and a weekly NASCAR racing report hosted by CNN's Michael Jones and TNT analyst Benny Parsons. Two other regular podcasts from CNN Radio include top-of-the-hour newscasts and a twice-daily business newscast. The radio network also reworks a wide range of monthly, single-topic, hourlong special reports into podcasts.

DeMink says that some of CNN Radio's podcasts include advertising, notably the top-of-the-hour newscasts and the marketplace reports. "We have banner advertising on the page," he says, "and, as you might expect, with a lot of [CNN] cross-platform deals, podcasts are in the mix."

ABC News Radio VP Steve Jones says his network has moved into podcasting slowly because a higher priority has been given to developing and installing a new editing and delivery system that will, ultimately, make all of ABC News Radio's audio content available online for station affiliates on demand.

"I have a real appreciation for the opportunities that technology offers," Jones says, "but my focus has been on bringing value to our affiliates by getting them what they need as quickly as possible and in the most manageable form. That's why we've focused on getting all of our audio online for them. So, we're try-

STORMING THE MORNING

'GMA' CRUISES FOR WOMEN IN A.M. ON XM

BY CHUCK TAYLOR PHOTOGRAPH BY J. SCOTT WYNN / RETNA LTD.

WITH A MIX OF ORIGINAL CONTENT and news and interviews from its TV namesake, "Good Morning America Radio" offers listeners the best of both worlds.

Actually, make that all worlds. The recently launched four-hour show, which airs Monday through Saturday on XM Satellite Radio's Take Five talk channel for women, is a smorgasbord of information and entertainment, along with in-depth follow-up interviews with "Good Morning America" guests, listener call-ins and the panache and inviting personality of its anchor, broadcasting veteran Hilarie Barsky.

Airing from 8 a.m. to noon EST, "Good Morning America Radio" harkens the burgeoning and vastly underserved market for female-targeted talk programming while capitalizing on the trend of extending popular brands to new national media.

XM and Sirius Satellite Radio champion the concept of adapting household calling cards to individual channels. ESPN; NASCAR; the NBA, NFL and MLB; and other sports entities served as a primary battle cry to attract male listeners to satellite radio, furthering its popularity while introducing a new product with built-in appeal.

As the latest chapter in on-air brand extensions, "Good Morning America Radio" is intended to bring women to the party, joining marquee names like Oprah Winfrey, Martha Stewart and Ellen DeGeneres, who have all cut deals with the satcasters. The TV version draws 215 million viewers per month, while XM has more than 6 million subscribers.

"There's really been nothing for women to listen to—just wacky morning shows, sports and smut talk," Barsky says. "We're a hybrid, not only presenting news and issues of the day, but the kinds of topics you and a friend would talk about over lunch."

Hilarie Barsky

"There is not a lot of content for females certainly in local markets and more so nationally," XM executive VP of programming Eric Logan adds. "We have an opportunity to galvanize a base of potential subscribers by mining fans to their favorite personalities. For us, it's about selling subscriptions and listeners discovering great content."

LAUNCHING PAD

"Good Morning America Radio" launched Jan. 23, gathering its TV counterpart's anchors Diane Sawyer, Charlie Gibson and Robin Roberts from the show's vibrant Times Square studios with Barsky, who sits in a more modest but equally frenetic studio one floor above.

All TV content that airs is routed in real time to the radio studio, where a staff of producers and engineers then tames the cyclone of information for broadcast to XM's audience.

"It's mind-boggling what they're doing," says Andrew Kalb, executive director of programming for ABC News Radio. "They start with a grid that shows all of the features airing on 'Good Morning America' and choose what makes sense for radio. Lineups and rundowns are always being updated. Obviously, no one knows about the breaking news."

"Good Morning America Radio" devoted extensive coverage to Mardi Gras and the six-month anniversary of Hurricane Katrina, offering 50% original content. It's a nice mix, and we have a great relationship with 'Good Morning America.' We've successfully extended the brand."

For example, a recent seven-minute TV report featuring a cardiologist from the American Heart Assn. discussing women's health turned interactive for "Good Morning America Radio" when the physician went on-air with Barsky, took listeners' questions and gave advice. A female truck driver called in concerned about her sedentary lifestyle.

"The cardiologist told her to get out of the truck every day when she was getting gas and walk around it three times," ABC News Radio VP Steve Jones says. "We had the opportunity to take what you see on TV and bring it to a level of intimacy that is only possible on radio."

SYMBIOTIC RELATIONSHIP

For ABC, the symbiotic relationship allows the network to gain share in an increasingly fractured marketplace.

"The whole thrust here strategically for ABC is that, as we say, more Americans get their news from ABC News than any other source—and the only way to continue to achieve that in this day of diminished consumption of traditional media is to be in as many places as consumers are able to get consumer media," Jones says. "The strategy of ABC News has been to develop abc.com,

September, while DeGeneres, Tyra Banks, HGTV and the Food Network are all familiar segments of the broadcast day. Other programming includes "The Judith Warner Show" (author of "Perfect Madness: Motherhood in the Age of Anxiety"), "Broadminded" (three friends bringing a real-life "Sex and the City" sensibility to nighttimes), "For Heaven's Sake With Beverly Burke" (spirituality and faith), magazine show "Pulse" and "Satellite Sisters" (five siblings living in three cities and two continents discuss current events and issues).

"This being a channel that's targeted to women, we're able to reach a younger demographic that's now able to take it all with them," Jones says.

XM senior VP of corporate communications Nathaniel Brown adds, "The early adopters of satellite radio were men. Women are the next important frontier for us as we move to the mainstream."

In addition to attracting new subscribers, who will pay $12.95 per month for XM service, "Good Morning America Radio" provides revenue opportunities with three stopsets per hour, for a total of 12 minutes of commercial inventory. XM sells the spots, with ABC taking a cut.

OLD SCHOOL

For a show that is barely a month old, it certainly feels nothing like a startup.

'There's really been nothing for women to listen to—just wacky morning shows, sports and smut talk. We're a hybrid, not only presenting news and issues of the day, but the kinds of topics you and a friend would talk about over lunch.'

—HILARIE BARSKY

"so we have some set events and have booked our team to come on the radio show," Kalb says. "Some things may be a little too visual, while other things make more sense for radio. So, we'll clean up the show, making it friendly for radio without hurting the integrity of the stories."

While other content is airing, Barsky can conduct a live interview in the studio, tape an interview or work the phones with audience members from across the country. With such career stops as talk and/or news outlets KLIP Dallas; WPHT, WCAU-AM and WWDB Philadelphia; and WKXW Trenton, N.J., on her résumé, she is in her element.

"We're able to do four things at once," Kalb says. "So we're getting access to everyone and everything we'd want, but still deals with many of the cable companies to offer video on demand, streaming ABC News over terrestrial radio, cell phones and now, satellite radio. So, it is exposing the brand out there to as many people as possible. Satellite radio is very important to that."

Jones adds, "You can watch the show on your TV and then get in your car and listen on the radio; or, as a radio listener, next time you're in front of the TV, instead of switching on the 'Today' show, you're more familiar with 'Good Morning America.' It really creates a circular experience."

CALLING ALL WOMEN

Additional programming on XM's Take Five channel also targets an adult female audience. "Oprah & Friends" will launch in

"When we open up the call center, the phones just light up with intelligent callers who tell us that they're so happy that they can take 'Good Morning America' with them now," Kalb says. "This is validating everything we thought would happen, and it's happening sooner than we thought, in that sense. People are jumping onboard and enjoying everything about it."

From the business standpoint, Barsky adds, "It feels like we're already intertwined with the TV show. We're working very well with the producers here, and I'm attending meetings to discuss what's happening the next day. Anchors and reporters are coming in to talk to us, so it's a very cohesive unit. We feel like we're part of the family, and we're all playing nicely together."

PRODUCE THIS!

THE WILD, WACKY WORLD OF PRODUCING SYNDICATED RADIO

BY MIKE BOYLE

Marty Bender

LOOK UP THE WORD “producer” in the dictionary and you will not find any mentions of multitasking, technical expertise, handling temperamental guests and hosts or wiping noses. Yet those are among the chores of a typical producer cranking out a successful radio show, whether syndicated nationwide or broadcast locally.

What does it take to produce one of radio’s most-listened-to syndicated shows? Executive producers and hands-on show producers claim their jobs are as different as the shows they produce. The role of producer holds great promise for those with the right chops for the gig, says Marty Bender, executive producer of Premiere Radio Networks’ Bob & Tom show.

“It’s not a diminishing role in the radio station, it’s one of the growth areas in radio,” Bender says. “It’s ironic that with the advent of technology, you actually need a few more people around. You archive things, take material and recycle it, put it into ‘best of’ shows, build extra hours with it and produce ‘best of’ CDs.”

Anything about growing radio job opportunities is welcome news nowadays, but before we initiate a stampede of résumés, let’s first explore exactly what the role of a producer entails.

THE PRODUCER’S ROLE

Peter Welpton, managing director/executive producer of the Lex & Terry show, sees his day-to-day role as much different than that of other producers.

“The bulk of the show is Lex & Terry’s relationship with the listeners and their communicating with the listeners,” says Welpton, who has been with the morning duo since 1997. Syndicated by Envision Radio Networks and heard in 26 markets, Lex & Terry are relocating from their longtime base in Jacksonville, Fla., to Dallas. “We don’t do any parody songs, we don’t do any prerecorded bits, and there aren’t character voices, so a lot of typical production things or executive producer things don’t apply here. We obviously still book guests, but the bulk of my role is just managing the administrative and day-to-day operations of the network.

“When people think producer,” Welpton adds, “they think a lot of production and editing and things like that. While we have our fair share of that, we also have a producer on the show that is also the board op.”

That producer is Scott Richards, who Welpton has dubbed “master of the delay/dump button.” His responsibilities include working with the talent, keeping the show flowing and “keeping them on time because we’re not a hard-break show,” Welpton says. “The breaks tend to come as the flow of the show goes. He does a really good job of trying to keep that mix of what’s going on and [keeping] the guys on track and on time while also trying to not break the flow of the show.”

Patrick Thomas, executive producer of Premiere’s Big D & Bubba show, also says his producer’s role is different from others. Based at Clear Channel country WSIX Nashville, the program is carried in 25 markets.

“We pretape our show. We’re all about taping and editing,” Thomas says. “We’re the antithesis of live and local because we’re not live and we’re not local. We make it sound like we’re both.

“Doing that requires not only doing more work as a producer, but a different kind of work, not just for me, but for the hosts as well,” adds Thomas, who has produced the show for seven years. “Most other radio people think we’re crazy, but this is normal to me. Some parts of the show are taped the day before; other parts are taped two minutes before they’re aired.

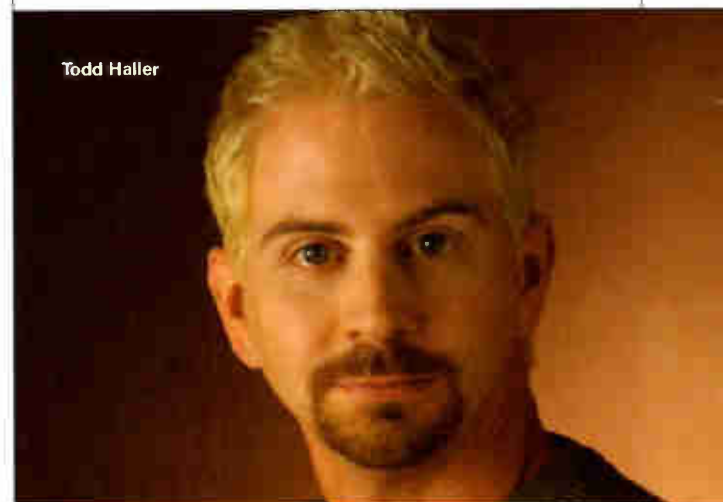

“This is all about how to piece it all together,” Thomas says. “That’s the tough part and uncommon to most radio shows. I’m not saying I’m better than other producers; I just do it differently.”

Bender, who in addition to serving as Bob & Tom’s executive producer pulls double duty as Clear Channel OM in Indianapolis, says he is the program’s first and final contact.

“I oversee all the operations of the program. That includes everything from the loopy to the legal,” he notes.

While Bender acknowledges Dean Metcalf as Bob & Tom’s main on-air producer, he considers everyone who works on the show to be a producer one way or another.

“We’ve got a great staff here,” Bender says. “They are all required to ‘produce.’ For the line item on the budget you have to call what the support staff does, so we call them producers. We all do a part, we all help out, and we all have our own little expertise because not everybody can do everything. When you have 150 affiliates and millions of listeners you need to gather up as many elements of society as possible in order to reflect that back over the radio.”

PRIMA DONNA 101

Dealing with sometimes temperamental, difficult egos is part and parcel of the producer’s job. “The best people in this job are people with giant personalities and talent,” Welpton explains. “We’re extremely lucky that Lex & Terry are not an act. They are the exact same people in real life as they are on the air. When we’re getting lambasted on the air for something we’ve done wrong, and they give us some crap on the air about it, it happens in real life too. It’s not an act.

“So, I think as a producer in general, you just know the job is

Peter Welpton

Sheri show heard on more than 60 stations, claims one has to be a “fluffer” when dealing with the talent.

“You have to be the talent’s cheerleader,” he says, “their reassurance that something was really funny. A lot of times talent can doubt themselves. Remember, everybody has a bad day, and you, as a producer, have to have the ability to know when to step up so [the talent] don’t have to carry the whole weight.”

For Big D & Bubba’s Thomas, the bottom line when dealing with talent is to not sweat the small stuff. “Find a balance between knowing that you work for these people, but also know that they don’t want to replace you,” he says. “Have some confidence in your own ability and stand your ground on things that are important, but pick your battles. Don’t argue with the talent over silly things and don’t have too much pride. Hey, I’m not below going out to get coffee if there’s no one else around to do it.”

ing for also has attention to detail in all aspects, whether it be live on the air or post-show production.”

So, maybe you are wondering if you have the right stuff to be a producer. Perhaps you are thinking it is a good time to try something new and different. What other qualities and skills will you need to take the plunge?

“You have to be funny, and you have to be able to get along or at least understand the complexities of dealing with people whose job it is to exaggerate their own personalities,” Bender dangerous when you take it,” Welpton adds. “In my experience of witnessing morning talent, the more successful the talent is, the more temperamental, particular and picky they are.”

Bender, who cops to zero temperamental issues on the Bob & Tom show, says that if there are talent issues, the best time to confront them is immediately after the show.

“If it’s important, if it’s a legal issue that needs immediate attention, I step in right away,” he says. “You can’t let a whole lot of your emotion, interests and desires get in the way of what you need to do because it’s essentially your job to provide for a complex group of people. It takes a pretty thick skin; you have to grow a couple of extra layers.”

Todd Haller, executive producer of Jefferson-Pilot’s Bob &

HELP WANTED

What is the most important qualification when filling a producer opening? “The first thing you look for is a fan of the show,” Bender says. “There are lots of them out there. Everybody here that we’ve hired as a producer grew up listening to the show or really liked the show and even kept archived tapes of the show; they were fans before they even got here.”

Outside of being a fan, Welpton says his second qualification is that the candidate eat, sleep and breathe radio.

“I need somebody who is a radio person,” he says, “somebody that understands the fundamental elements of how to get in and out of breaks, how to produce stuff and how to make it sound right when we’re doing post-show audio. The person I’d be look-says. “Remember, you’re not dealing with normal people because we’re not doing normal jobs.”

A well-rounded radio professional is best-suited to be a producer, Welpton notes.

“The most important thing anybody can do in this business that will get them further along is to not specialize yourself into any one thing, but have a working knowledge of all aspects of the radio station. Those types of people tend to go farther in their careers and will make the best producers,” he says.

Who ultimately becomes the best producer? “The one that gets it so well that they become part of the show, they’re part of the performance,” Bender says. “There has to be a natural personality there.”

ETHNIC

THE NEXT FRONTIER?

Lee Michaels

LEE MICHAELS AND HIS CREW at Radio One's new talk network reached an unofficial milestone when none other than Aretha Franklin phoned in on the 800 line. The Queen of Soul called Michael Eric Dyson, the author who hosts the net's midday show, to congratulate him and register her approval as a fan. "It was explosive," says Michaels, the veteran PD recruited to program the fledgling network. "It blew him away."

Franklin is not the only one giving a shout-out to the first black talk radio network. Although there are more than 1,200 radio talk shows, few target the African-American audience with a daily dose of ideas, issues, analysis and information.

Similarly, music radio choices for Hispanics are exploding, but limited long-form news, talk and opinion are specifically geared to Latin listeners. Some industry experts see a considerable opportunity for ethnic talk formats and point to Radio One as leading the charge.

Darryl Brown, executive VP of ABC Radio Networks' multi-cultural division, sees a "great opportunity" for ethnic talk. "Both the Hispanic and African-American populations have an intimate relationship with radio, more so than the general population," he says. "It wasn't so long ago that there was no Univision, Telemundo or BET serving these audiences on television. They weren't being spoken to by television," and advertisers reached minority populations by default, Brown contends.

Before TV tailored specific programming for minorities, blacks and Hispanics satiated their media jones with radio. "That was the only place where the Hispanic population could hear their language, and that was the only place where black people could hear black people talk to them," Brown adds. "There was a trust factor there. African-Americans traditionally got their news and information and their community services from the radio. The disc jockeys on legendary black AM stations were friends and neighbors."

Brown believes general-market news/talk stations likely have a large proportion of African-American and Hispanic listeners simply because they have "nowhere else to go" on the dial for news, information and discussion. "Music can't be the only thing for them. They're going to gravitate toward something that speaks to them."

MORE THAN 20 AFFILIATES IN ONE MONTH

Radio One is betting that something is its newest syndication venture. On Jan. 30, the company, along with Reach Media, lifted the curtain on the new talk network. Launching on seven stations, including three in the top 10 African-American radio markets, it features three nationally syndicated radio shows hosted by the Rev. Al Sharpton (1 p.m.-4 p.m.), Dyson (10 a.m.-1 p.m.) and sports talk hosts Doug and Ryan Stewart, best-known as the 2 Live Stews (3 p.m.-7 p.m.).

Initial affiliates for the network are Radio One's WILD-AM Boston; WOL-AM Washington, D.C.; WVCG-AM Miami; WERE-AM Cleveland; WCHB-AM Detroit; and WROU-AM Richmond, Va.

During the company's fourth-quarter financial results call Feb. 24, Radio One president/CEO Alfred Liggins said the network is likely to lose money during its first year. "We blew up a brokered talk station in Miami that made $1 million a year," he said, referring to WVCG. Liggins said the company will "bite the bullet" and expects to make WVCG more profitable with black talk.

In less than a month, the ranks swelled to more than 20 affiliates—mostly AMs in markets including Seattle; Orlando, Fla.; Pittsburgh; and Hartford, Conn.—with another 10-12 set to launch in coming weeks. Among the affiliates are stations owned by Citadel, Cumulus, Cox, Sheridan and Kris Bennett Broadcasting.

"It's been a very good response, and we're just in the beginning of it," Michaels says.

In contrast to right-wing-dominated talk shows, "we believe you can be more open and give people an opportunity to express themselves," he says. Sharpton's and Dyson's shows tend to lean to the left politically, "because the majority of the audience gravitating toward the shows tend to be that way. We have people from the right, we have people from the left. We've got some diversity in our programming."

While Sharpton and Dyson are likely to tackle Vice President Dick Cheney's hunting accident or the latest President Bush misfire, the 2 Live Stews mine sports and lifestyle topics. "It's not your straight-up, ESPN-type sports," Michaels says of 2 Live Stews. "They're two guys having fun on the radio, appealing to the hip-hop generation."

"We've created a platform that has made it comfortable for anyone to come on and express their views," he continues. Though designed for black listeners, Michaels says there are a "significant number" of non-African-American listeners calling in. The target demo is 25-54, though 2 Live Stews appeal to younger listeners.

Not all affiliates have cleared the three shows. Each airs its own local, live morning shows. After 7 p.m., stations air local talk or music, often gospel. Michaels says Radio One is developing more programming to help fill out the day.

Affiliate relations are handled by Reach Media, which is 51% owned by Radio One. Stations, which air three network spots per hour, carry the shows on a barter basis. Michaels says the network is already sold out.

A self-proclaimed "news/talk junkie," Michaels raised his hand when Radio One launched the network as part of its new Syndication One division. No stranger to Radio One, Michaels served as the company's VP of programming when it bowed with two stations in the early '90s. He has programmed some of the most successful African-American stations, including WBLS New York, KJLH Los Angeles and WGCI Chicago.

While Radio One has the first black talk network, the format is not new to radio airwaves. Radio One-owned WOL-AM Washington, D.C., programs a local version of the format, as does Access.1's WWRL-AM New York. "The key to our success has to be the recognition by advertisers that there is more to the black community than shaking your booty and entertainment," WOL morning host Joe Madison says. "Like the general population, the African-American population is getting older, and baby boomers want to know what's going on in the world."

HISPANIC OPPORTUNITIES, EVOLUTION

While America's Spanish-speaking population has seen an explosion in music radio choices, 24/7 Spanish news and talk formats are limited. Univision Radio, the country's largest Spanish-language radio broadcaster, has a handful of news/talk/sports stations. It also owns RadioCadena Univision, a news/talk/sports network, offering talk programs from Dr. Isabel, Julie Stav, Armando Perez-Roura, Dr. Aliza Lifshitz, Ocaso Haza and others. RadioCadena programs a daily sports show and daily news programming.

ESPN Deportes, ABC's 24/7 Spanish-language sports radio network, has roughly 20 affiliates. Latino Broadcasting Co. has been offering short-form talk and long-form sports programming en Español for longer than a decade and boasts more than 100 affiliate stations. The talent stable includes Jorge Ramos, considered Hispanic TV's top news correspondent. Ramos provides daily national radio commentary. The nationwide network offers AM stations long-form sports programming in Spanish, including Mexican Soccer League play-by-play, and short-form programming vignettes from its talk talent, which also includes Jesse Losado.

IBC executive VP Gustavo Pombo sees opportunities and evolution for Spanish talk radio. "The big [Hispanic] groups have gotten away from AM because they're not the moneymakers," he says. "The Hispanic market still has a difference in revenues compared with the general market. When you put those rates into FM stations that have lower costs, it works. But if you [invest a lot of money] in AM radio, it doesn't match."

"The problem with Hispanic talk is that it's geared toward AM stations, and agencies are still used to buying ratings points and they're not going to get them on AM stations," Brown says. "It's a Catch-22 in the Hispanic world."

Pombo sees a growing opportunity for bilingual talk, mainly on FM music station morning shows. "AM stations are too expensive for the billing they can get. I see a shift to bilingual radio for Hispanics, where you can [attract] some of the advertising dollars that come from the general market. The market is changing. It's going to be more bilingual and assimilated but still with Latino values."

Brown is convinced Hispanic talk will ultimately find a home on FM, but he is not buying into bilingual talk. "It's hard to get young Hispanics to listen to talk radio," he says. "It's a slightly older demo you'll go after."

Black talk on FM already exists, Brown notes, pointing to the handful of personality-driven talk shows gaining increasing traction, such as ABC Radio syndicated talkers Michael Baisden and Wendy Williams and Reach Media's Tom Joyner. American Urban Radio Networks syndicates "The Russ Parr Morning Show" to roughly 50 markets. Parr plays anywhere from four to seven songs per hour. AURN's "Bev Smith Show" offers three hours of nightly talk on key issues and includes interviews with major personalities and newsmakers.

"It's not Rush Limbaugh or Sean Hannity talk, but it is talk nonetheless," Brown says of current black talk offerings. "Talk radio for African-Americans will evolve to be more issue-oriented." Brown also sees a niche for talk targeted at African-American women, "who trust the radio, listen to it constantly and make a lot of purchasing decisions in the African-American household. There will be a talk channel geared to them."

Brown notes that while Hispanic talk already exists on AM stations, it faces revenue challenges. "There is talk already on the Hispanic side," he says. "Univision has it. [On AM] they're not making a lot of money because they don't have any ratings. It's just a matter of fate that it will migrate to the FM, it's just a matter of when."

General-market broadcasters have only recently made FM talk a priority. "Hispanic radio is a few years behind general-market radio," Brown says.

WHEN DID AC BECOME SO DAMN COOL?

CHART COMMENTARY BY JOE FLEISCHER

IS IT ME OR IS THE ADULT CONTEMPORARY chart getting really good? Alright, I guess I'm in the demo now and all, but come on! James Blunt rules the AC world, as he should (kudos to Craig Kallman, Andrea Ganis and Julie Greenwald). Nickelback proves once again it is the definition of multiformat smash, and Train plows into the top 20 with its best new track since "Calling All Angels." And, of course, the unstoppable Kelly Clarkson owns the No. 1 spot yet again. And I'm sorry, but U2 can stop reapplying for the mantle of "Best Band in the World" now—that belongs to Green Day.

MANCOW

FALL RATINGS SHOW MASSIVE GROWTH

Since the launch of Mancow's Morning Madhouse last year into national syndication, stations nationwide are ecstatic about the recent ratings coming in on "The Cow."

Erich "Mancow" Muller still reigns supreme on Emmis' WKQX, Chicago, where he ranked #1 in Cume Audience for 18/34 males, and jumped his audience size yet again going from a 7.4 Share to a 10.1 Share in AQH Men 18/34, beating out Howard Stern's final book in Chicago by more than a 2 to 1 margin. Mancow also holds an impressive 6.0 Share in Men 18/49. Mancow not only cleaned up in Cume, but AQH as well in the country's third largest radio market.

Erich "Mancow" Muller

On KCXM-FM, Kansas City, Mancow jumped the former "Planet" from 15th place to an astronomical 3rd place after just one book in Fall '05. Mancow's ratings catapulted 259% with Men 18/34, going from a 1.7 Share to an amazing 6.1 Share. In Men 18/49, Cow increased an astounding 308% from a 1.3 to a 5.3. KCXM FM also increased its AQH an equally impressive 333% in Men 25/54, (1.2 to a 5.2 Share-rarely seen in a debut book).

Ted Edwards, Operations Manager, KCXM-FM calls Mancow's Morning Madhouse "A machine gun of top of mind contemporary entertainment and topics with daily guests any national television talk show would envy. The show moves at the speed of sound - the Cow is so freaking now!"

Against a heritage morning show in Norfolk, Sinclairs' WROX-FM saw a massive 311% gain in Men 25/54, jumping from an 0.9 to a 3.7 Share, Men 18/34 went from a 7.2 Share to an even more amazing 9.0 Share, and in Men 18/49 Mancow took his show from a 3.7 to a 5.7 Share.

In Los Angeles Clear Channel XTRA's Program Director Don Martin says, "Mancow is the Superstar we were always looking for; he sets our station a part from the rest!"

In Des Moines, on Saga's active rocker KAZR-FM, Mancow ranked #1 in morning drive in the sought after male 18/34 demo, with an amazing 14.7 Share (14.0 in Cume Rating). In the male 18/49 demo Mancow is also #1 with a massive 10.0 Share (10.7 in Cume Rating), and in the male 25/54 demo, Mancow brought in a 8.2 Share (9.1 in Cume Rating). Bill Wells KAZR-FM's Vice President is ecstatic with these results saying, "Mancow had another great book! He continues to be #1 in morning drive for Persons 18/34 and by a wide margin. That means money in the bank for KAZR-FM."

In Joplin, MO, Chris Stevens from Rock Station KJML says, "What can I say about the addition of Mancow in the morning on KJML except that it's just the flippin' greatest morning show on the planet!"

In Salt Lake City, Alan Hague, Vice President of Programming of newly launched Simmons Talker KFMS-FM, says, "Mancow immediately brought us 18/34 Men numbers. He knows how to captivate an audience. Mancow's Morning Madhouse is extremely engaging radio." Mancow's morning drive Cume jumped 133% in Men 12+; 78% in Persons 12+ in Salt Lake City.

In Little Rock, Operations Manager Charlie Kendall was equally excited about Mancow's launch on his FM Rocker KKZR FM, saying "Mancow does more in thirty minutes on his show than most morning shows do in a week!" Mancow is up with Men 18/34 with a 5.1 in Cume Rating, Mancow is also up with Men 18/49 with a 4.4 in Cume Rating.

In Marion, IL, Program Director Matt Mellen of WTAO, expresses his complete satisfaction with Mancow's Morning Madhouse saying, "We brought on Cow in November and can already see an increase in both Cume and TSL. What more could we possibly ask for?"

Meanwhile, in Knoxville, Alternative Rocker WNFZ, continues to dominate with Mancow, pulling a massive 9.9 Share (10.7 in Cume Rating) in the all important Male 18/34 demo, and a 7.3 Share with Males 18/49 (8.6 in Cume Rating).

In Medford, on Clear Channel Rocker KZZE, Mancow's Morning Madhouse surged from 3rd place (with an 11.8 Share) to 1st place with a rocking 26.7 Share in the Men 18/34 demo. Also, Men 18/49 doubled from a 6.9 Share to a 12.7 Share, ranking Mancow 3rd in that demo. KZZE Program Director Rob King says "BING! BAM! BOOM! POW!! It's like 20 morning shows all wrapped up into one."

In Wausau, WMZK's Steve Resnick said, "Mancow is the most addictive, entertaining morning show out there. Our audience took to it instantly - He pleases our old listeners, brought over new listeners and reminded us all why we listen to radio."

Mark Masters, CEO of TRN-FM says "Mancow's Morning Madhouse offers the full spectrum of entertainment - movies, music and politics - which equals massive listenership. Mancow gets this business. He understands what it takes for his stations to make money."

"People have looked at my ratings dominance in the key male demos and have tried to compare my show to others, but there is simply nothing like Mancow's Morning Madhouse on the airwaves. I treat my listeners like they have brains above the waist and they respond. What we have done, with double-digit ratings in the Fall, double-digit ratings for 11 years in Chicago, is we have cracked the FM Talk code. We have figured it out. We know how to do it, make tons of money, attract all the right advertisers and be FCC-safe," said Mancow.

Mancow's Morning Madhouse has recently added KSTN Stockton where General Manager Robert LaRue is clearly thrilled with Mancow's performance saying, "We have only been airing the show for two weeks and the response has been great - it blows the socks off any other morning show." Likewise, in Springfield, Eric Simon, Program Director for new affiliate station KZRQ says, "In less than four months we have really seen a big buzz on the streets with Mancow and it seems that every where I turn I'm hearing people spout out Chuck Norris Facts and other Mancow-isms. This Spring will surely be huge."

In Champaign, IL, Program Director John Mayotte of WEBX praises Mancow's "Winning" show saying, "Mancow has constantly been at the top of the Champaign - Urbana market with 18/34 year olds. The show finished #1 with 18/34 year old males and finished in the top three with 25/54 year old males in both the Spring and Fall Arbitron books for 2005. Not only that but the service from both TRN and Mancow's Morning Madhouse has been top notch - If you want to win with males in your market then Mancow's Morning Madhouse is the answer."

In Fresno, Vice President Jeff Negrete of KAZR says, "Mancow makes other morning shows sound lazy, I'm thankful he's on our team."

Airing on over two dozen FM stations nationwide, Mancow is leading the trend for a unique new brand of FM Talk programming. "Mancow's Morning Madhouse has become the ultimate hybrid innovation of fast-paced, sidesplitting entertainment and opinion/news," said Mark Masters CEO of TRN-FM. "Combine that with today's top newsmakers and celebrities added heavily into the mix, and you have a show that spans a spectrum that reaches beyond anything heard on FM talkers today," he added.

Mancow's Morning Madhouse airs on Emmis' Q101 in Chicago, IL; Clear Channel's XTRA, Los Angeles, CA; WROX FM, Norfolk, VA; KAZR FM, Des Moines, IA; WWCT FM, Peoria, IL; and KWKJ FM, Warrensburg, MO. Mancow recently added: KRZR, Fresno, CA; KKZR, Little Rock, AR; KQXR, Boise, ID; KCXM, Kansas City, MO; WMZK, Wausau, WI; KFMS, Salt Lake City, UT; WTAO, Marion, IL; KZZE, Medford, OR; KJML, Joplin, MO; WWRK, Florence, SC; KZRQ, Springfield, MO; WEBX, Champaign, IL; KJLL, Tucson, AZ; and KSTN, Stockton, CA.

CHARTS

THIS WEEK IN DATA. For complete charts, there's always more at www.BillboardRadioMonitor.com

LEGEND TO CHARTS

Charts are ranked by detections except for Jazz, Latin, Christian, Gospel and Country charts which are based on audience impressions, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data.

● Songs showing an increase in detections (audience for Jazz, Latin, Christian, Gospel and Country) over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections (audience for Jazz, Latin, Christian, Gospel and Country) does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. Exempting the Country chart, a song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections (audience for Jazz, Latin, Christian, Gospel and Country). Country titles which decline in audience but increase in detections will also receive a bullet if the total audience erosion for the week does not exceed 3%.

AUDIENCE TOTALS on the charts are derived, in part, using certain Arbitron Inc. copyrighted Persons 12+ audience estimates, under license.

◎ AIRPOWER: awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Airpower awards do not appear on the Latin and Christian, Gospel charts.

↑ GREATEST GAINER: awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections (audience for Jazz, Latin, Christian, Gospel and Country).

+ MOST AIRPLAY ADDS: awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week.

TIES: A song with the best detection differential (audience differential for Jazz, Latin, Christian, Gospel and Country) over the previous week is ranked first if tied with another song on the chart. If the songs are still tied at this point, the title that is being played on the most stations at that format will be ranked first.

RECURRENT RULE: Songs below the top 20 (top 15 for Adult Top 40, AC, Adult R&B, Heritage Rock, Dance, Christian and Gospel) become recurrences and are removed from the chart after 20 weeks. In addition, songs that have been on the chart for more than 52 weeks and rank below No. 10 will become recurrences and will be removed from the chart. Descending country titles move to recurrent after 20 weeks if they rank below No. 15 in either audience or detections.

⊙ Nielsen BDS certification for airplay of 100,000 detections on all monitored stations, including satellite and national networks, across the U.S. and Canada. Numeral following symbol indicates multiple level of 100,000 detections.

★ Indicates title earned Hit-Predictor status in research data provided by Promosquad.

Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys.

A+ AIRPLAY ADDS denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.

IMPACT! Songs at Airpower level and below with a gain in detections or with a percentage loss in detections equal to or better than the monitored downtime in the format.

THE SPIN

TURNER STEPS SLOWLY TO NO. 1

Josh Turner collects his first No. 1 on the Country chart with "Your Man" (MCA Nashville) and ties the Nielsen BDS-era record for the longest Country trek to top slot. Turner's single steps 2-1 in its 32nd week on the list, which ties the record set by Tim McGraw's "My Next Thirty Years" in the Dec. 8, 2000, issue.

Previously, Turner climbed as high as No. 13 with "Long Black Train" two years ago—a feat that also took some time. That single jumped 16-13 in the Feb. 6, 2004, issue in its 38th chart week, which is still a record for the slowest climb into the top 15 of the chart. Altogether, "Train" amassed 44 chart weeks.

BLIGE BASKS IN NO. 1 GLORY

Mary J. Blige earns her first No. 1 on the Rhythmic Top 40 chart in five years with "Be Without You" (Interscope). The track is Blige's first foray to the summit since "Family Affair" made it to No. 1 in the Oct. 19, 2001, issue.

Meanwhile, Blige returns to No. 1 at R&B/Hip-Hop after being dethroned by Jamie Foxx's "Unpredictable" a week ago. She is the first artist since Beyoncé, with "Baby Boy" in the Oct. 10, 2003, issue, to reclaim No. 1 after being bumped off.

BARGAIN BASEMENT SPIN COUNT

It is the most opportune time in years to chart at Mainstream Top 40. This week's No. 40 track, Eminem's "When I'm Gone" (Interscope), garners 725 spins for the week, which sets the lowest chart threshold since the July 31, 1998, issue when the Brian Setzer Orchestra's "Jump Jive An' Wail" also had 725 detections. The record low needed to reach the chart was "Somebody's Crying" by Chris Isaak, which turned in 490 detections in the Aug. 18, 1995, issue.

RAP REWARDS FOR BOYZ

Dem Franchize Boyz exact a bit of revenge upon Nelly on the Rap chart as "Lean Wit It, Rock Wit It" (Virgin) rises to No. 1. The track takes Greatest Gainer honors with a 936-spin increase and ends the 11-week reign of Nelly's "Grillz." That song knocked the Boyz' "I Think They Like Me" from the apex in the Dec. 24, 2005, issue.

POWTER BREAKS THROUGH

With some added exposure via "American Idol" a couple of weeks ago, Daniel Powter's "Bad Day" (Warner Bros.) continues its climb up the adult charts. The song takes Greatest Gainer honors at Adult Top 40 (10-5) and earns Most Airplay Adds at Adult Contemporary (10-9).

Meanwhile, two former "Idol" winners also make good at the adult formats. Kelly Clarkson earns Most Airplay Adds and Airpower honors at No. 18 on the Adult Top 40 chart with "Walk Away" (RMG), while "Because of You" is the Greatest Gainer at AC at No. 3. Carrie Underwood earns Airpower honors at AC as "Some Hearts" (RMG) jumps 22-20, while the track moves a few beats on the Adult Top 40 list (27-23).

Elsewhere on the AC chart, John Legend's "Ordinary People" (Columbia) debuts at No. 40 almost a year after hitting the top 10 at R&B/Hip-Hop and Adult R&B. The single was serviced to adult radio just before Legend's Grammy Award win for best new artist.

Universal Occurrences

In its final moments as one entity, Universal Motown Records Group becomes the second label to score three top five tracks in the same week at Active Rock as Hinder's "Get Stoned" (6-5) joins Godsmack's "Speak" (5-2) and 10 Years' "Wasteland" (3-3) in that portion of the chart. UMRG is the first label to accomplish this feat since Epic did so in the July 18, 2003, issue with Chevelle's "Send the Pain Below" (No. 1), Audioslave's "Like a Stone" (No. 4) and Revis' "Caught in the Rain" (No. 5).

Elsewhere, Foo Fighters' "No Way Back" (RMG) jumps 11-6 at Modern Rock giving the band three straight top 10 tracks from the album "In Your Honor." This marks the first time since the group's sophomore set, "The Colour and the Shape" in 1997-98, that the quartet has landed three top 10s from one album. Overall, the group now has 13 Modern Rock top 10s.

Songs are blind tested online by PromoSquad using multiple listens and a nationwide sample of carefully profiled music consumers. Songs are rated on a 1-5 scale; final results are based on weighted positives. Songs with a score of 65 or more are judged to have Hit Potential, although that benchmark number can fluctuate per format based on the strength of available music.
