KITCHENS OF DISTINCTION

Strange Free World

(A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

Strange Free World is the first great album out of the U.K. in 1991, and as wholly fulfilling an LP as we're likely to hear from her majesty's voice during this or any other year. In a time dominated by quick and easy singles, often based on nothing more than gimmicky slogans or well-worn ideas, the Kitchens have crafted a fully realized collection that, while crammed with potential singles, feels like an album. Their past singles and EPs (collected in the U.S. by Rough Trade on Love Is Hell) only hinted at the emotional expanse and depth found on Strange Free World—producer Hugh Jones (Echo & The Bunnymen, Ultra Vivid Scene) has taken the Kitchens' waves of glistening feedback and shaped their sound into a vast, layered throbbing pulse. It's almost too easy to liken the Kitchens to renowned Brit swirl-pop like the Smiths, Bunnymen, Chameleons or Cocteau Twins; while there's no denying the textural similarities, especially when it comes to the wash of guitars, the welcome lack of vocal flamboyance and the constant melodic bursts of brilliance help not only to distance the Kitchens from knee-jerk comparisons, but also to propel them into heights few bands ever approach. Begin with the dazzling initial single, "Drive That Fast," and then proceed to "Gorgeous," "Railwayed," "Quick As Rainbows" and "Polaroids."

HYPNOLOVEWHEEL

Space Mountain

(Alias, 374 Brannan St., San Francisco, CA 94107/415-546-1863)

Three LPs, three years and Hypnolovewheel keeps getting that much bigger and stronger and better with each, attaining tip-top levels of pop mastery without attracting much undue commotion (the Sneetches are the same way). Through it all, they've retained their sense of humility, a trait that allows them a penetrating perspective on an encyclopedic range of pop—Hypnolovewheel is the closest thing to a musical interpretation of the Trouser Press Guide one's likely to come by, and not because they do Cowboys International covers. From New Jersey/Brooklyn, the band epitomizes the New England geek stylings that sprouted in Boston and Hoboken around 1980 and haven't gone away yet, pulling magically likable choruses out of their baggy Levi's pockets, and although they're not afraid of complexity, clunkiness is prohibited. Each song leaves us scratching our heads with different recollections of old Mirrors, Great Plains, Green and Big Dipper tunes, and of more recent ones of Dinosaur Jr. and Velvet Monkeys, and since most of those bands broke up, it's a good thing Hypnolovewheel do more than their share to keep the spirit going. Top cuts: "Kiss Big," "Pleasant Valley," "Mescalito," "Cosmic Cube" and "Cactus."

JOHN WESLEY HARDING

The Name Above The Title

(Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)

Blessed with a truckload of talent, a great band, a smooth voice and a fine sense of humor, J.W. Harding embarks boldly into that netherworld known as "The Dreaded Follow Up Album"—an album which he says is "better than the last one and not quite as good as the next one." It's definitely less folksy than Here Comes The Groom, with horns through a few of the 15 songs like the high gear "The World (And All Its Problems)," the moody "Driving In The Rain" and "Save A Little Room For Me," lending the proceedings a bit of a Van Morrison feel. Once again on this album, the comparisons to Costello are inevitable (Elvis that is, not Lou). Coy and clever pop is the standard, made even brighter by the hard-to-match playing of the Good Liars, featuring ex-Attractions Pete and Bruce Thomas. Lest we forget whose name is above the title, these are Wes' songs; the slow, melodic "The Movie Of Your Life" and the confident "Fifty Fifty Split" weren't traced from Elvis' songsheets. An almost note-for-note cover of Tommy James' classic "Crystal Blue Persuasion" is a nice treat, especially the cheesy nightclub outro to close the album, featuring a bigger-than-Manchester Hammond organ sound. Other fine clips: "The Person You Are," "Bridegroom Blues," the tiny "Anonymous 1916" and "Long Dead Gone."

SANOUGUE KOUYATE

Balendala Djibe

(Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)

Meet Sanougue Kouyate, a singer from a family of singers, who began her life as a startlingly gifted child progeny, and who today has become a true celebrity, even in Kela, Mali—a town whose population is filled with some of the world's finest singers and performers. Building tension through layers of hand percussion, nimbly picked guitar fills and call-and-response vocals, Kouyate sings with an indescribable match of tenderness and force, her voice either rising high over the instrumental bed or becoming so quiet and subdued that it is nearly enveloped in hypnotic, pulsing ripples of sound. One story has it that these musical tracks were originally earmarked for possible use for an album by African music titan Salif Keita, but that he bequeathed these haunting instrumental beds to Kouyate, who then layered and overdubbed her own spellbinding vocals on top of the already completed musical tracks. It's just about as pure as music can get, with no Parisian synths or drum tracks to meddle with the natural, unadulterated sound of Kouyate's stirring voice; as a result, even lengthy pieces with intimidating titles like "Balendala Djibe," "Yllafondo Made Silla" or "Karam Domba" seem easy, breathing with life and resonance all their own.

"Let's talk about the way I feel.
The whole wide world's become unreal!"

The Godfathers. "Unreal World." No bullshit rock 'n' roll. Epic.

GIBSON BROS. The Man Who Loved Couch Dancing (Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—The Gibson Bros. have introduced a few newfangled appliances and a couple city slickers to their otherwise staunchly traditional rock. The result is the musical equivalent of an ecstasy-ridden downtown NY club plunked down via tornado in the center of Beale St. Just a few months behind Punk Rock Truck Drivin' Song Of A Gun, their rock-operatic collaboration with the Workdogs, the amok-in-the-basement tapes comprising the first half of Couch Dancing are about as cynical as '50s rockabilly revivalism gets. Innocent classics like "HipShake" and "Kansas City" turn up riddled with N.W.A. samples and B-movie highlights, while on "Louis Collins" and "Are U Lonesome 2-Nite?" the intrusion of '80s-fashionable harsh realism into these escapist chestnuts reaches almost disturbing levels of improbability. The Bros. flail through reliable standards without a whit of respect, mangling, distorting and desecrating before suddenly rushing on to some other inspiration, all in authentic home studio fidelity. The other half of the disc features Gibson nuclei Jeff Evans and Don Howland with Boss Hog's Jon Spencer and Cristina in a live setting, traipsing through old LP cuts, the two New Yorkers redirecting the tunes into slower, sootier paths. The more leering, swaggering moments of "Broke Down Engine" and "Walkin' Bum" especially, are substantially different than the more restrained, arid studio treatments.

KASSE MADY Kela Tradition (Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648)—Imagine a town where almost everyone who lives there is a singer, musician, storyteller or dancer; not just a few individuals here and there, mind you, but whole families, geneologies and neighborhoods given over to the performance of ancient musical traditions that have themselves stood as long as the village itself. This isn't too far from the truth in describing the town of Kela in Mali, a centuries-old city that could well claim to be hometown to the overwhelming bulk of that country's revered griots, or culturally oriented musicians. From this village comes Kasse Mady, a member of the Diabate family, one of the most revered of the hereditary griot clans, and though you won't see him recording any soft drink commercials or showing up on any Paul Simon albums, he's possibly one of the world's greatest vocalists. This music is deeply Malian and deeply traditional; Mady's commanding, dynamic vocals soar over the music like high clouds far off on a broad horizon, while a percussive, interlocking bed of guitars, clip-clop percussion and response vocals teems meditatively behind him. What Nashville is to country or L.A. is to glam metal, the village of Kela has been to most of Mali's greatest musicians and culture since well before the 13th century. As one of the strongest heirs to the deep traditions of Mali, Kasse Mady Diabate could well be the keeper of the keys.

HORSE FLIES Gravity Dance (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—With titles like "I Need A Plastic Bag (To Keep My Brains In)" and "Life Is A Rubber Rope," you know you are not dealing with any ordinary band. Ithaca, NY's Horse Flies live up to the expectations of their song titles, playing off-kilter pop tunes on this, their second release. (Their debut Human Fly, originally out independently in 1987, was reissued by MCA last fall.) Like an East Coast Camper Van Beethoven with more of a backwoods influence, the Horse Flies combine an art-rock intellect with compelling lyrics and bewitching musicianship for a sound that borders on the surreal and the sublime. A prevalent violin and funky banjo give a distinctive breath to these tunes, the ballads shining a bit more than their uptempo counterparts. Producer Hilton Rosenthal (Johnny Clegg & Savuka) lithely ties all of the pieces together, from the wealth of instruments to the vast influences of the members of this sextet, who easily move from a rousing hoedown to an energetic ballad with noteworthy patience. Gravity Dance buzzes like this combo's namesake; after one listen, you won't forget that it is there. Fly these to the moon: "Sally Ann," "Roadkill," "Your Eyes Are Elevators" and "What Does Family Mean?"

FRANK MORGAN A Love Something (Antilles, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—This follow-up to Frank Morgan's debut release on Antilles, Mood Indigo, delves deeper into a romantic/sentimental/melancholic mood only hinted at on last year's release. Frank Morgan's choice of standards for A Love Something act as ideal vehicles for his lyrical and bluesy alto exclamations. All nine tunes on this 55-minute release reveal Morgan's deep embodiment of the jazz tradition and his sublime understanding of the jazz continuum from its blues roots to what is happening here and now. Accompanying Morgan are pianist George Cables, bassist David Williams, drummer

Lewis Nash and special guest appearances by superb jazz vocalist Abbey Lincoln and young trumpet sensation Roy Hargrove. Abbey Lincoln's expressive and committed vocals can be heard on Rodgers and Hart's "Ten Cents A Dance" and her original "Whole Earth." A Love Something is further distinguished by Morgan's superb treatment of Wayne Shorter's "Footprints" and Monk's "Pannonica," with a special mention to pianist Cables for his challenging, argumentative and extremely dynamic piano work. A Love Something, though rooted in jazz's harmonic and structural conventions, offers new and heartfelt ways to listen to beautiful ballads. In Morgan's playing, heart and mind become all in one.

ENIGMA MCMXC a.D. (Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—Imagine if monks had spent more time working on new ways to groove instead of just copying books, inventing pretzels and playing with peas. Well, this German team has, and the result is MCMXC a.D. (1990 for us non-Romans). From the opening introduction called "The Voice Of Enigma"—which takes you into the world of music, spirit and meditation as it promises—to "The Rivers Of Belief," Enigma lets the rhythm be the eternal force behind its mystery. Gregorian chants and mostly French spoken-word provide ancient accompaniment to the modern Soul II Soul-like beats, keyboard sounds and experimental wizardry. Follow the opening instructions, close your eyes and let the rhythm take your body and soul into other worldly dimensions—one that glows by candlelight, one with a spiritual warmth, one that floats through the clouds and cleanses your subconscious mind—for a dance/new age hybrid that's worlds beyond the realm of what we have experienced. Put on "Sadness," an homage to 18th century French libertine Marquis de Sade, "Mea Culpa," "Knocking On Forbidden Doors" or "The Rivers Of Belief" and prepare for the Reformation of dance music beyond its Dark Ages of unimaginative sampling.

BLACKHOUSE Material World (Ladd-Frith Music, P.O. Box 967, Eureka, CA 95502/707-443-5366)—After a one-year hiatus, the Ladd-Frith label comes out in full force, adding to the multitude of recordings by the premier Christian industrial band. Blackhouse—Ivo Cutler and Sterling Cross—is joined by the guitar and programming of Brian Ladd, who also co-produced the record with Cutler. Blackhouse isn't preaching their doctrine to all that will listen; their approach to life, which is reflected in the lyrics, comes naturally from their Christian perspective. The title track is light, bright and catchy—industrial pop with a recurrent musical theme laced throughout the piece. Then the mysterious "Chains Of Love" puts you in a musty cave with the relentless pound-pound-pound of the chain gang's hammer against metal spikes, as organ music drifts over the excavation from the background. Blackhouse mixes noises normally associated with the Art Of Noise along with some demented take-off on rap sampling in "Word." They take you on a "Journey To The Son," uplifting your musical spirits over a 21-minute piece that moves in and out of ideas and pumps your heart with higher aspirations. Being original is sometimes difficult in music that is loosely based on changing and twisting the ideas of others into a new form—such as in rap or industrial—yet Blackhouse seems to accomplish this and compose an accessible masterpiece to be enjoyed by all.

LAST POETS Freedom Express (CellulOID, 330 Hudson St., New York, NY 10013/212-741-8310)—Before there was a Run-D.M.C., before there was a KRS-One or Chuck D, there were the Last Poets. Throughout the late '60s and early '70s, they combined dense, rhythmic street poetry with ultra-cool funk and jazz grooves, employing elements of African call-and-response techniques, protesting injustice, attacking prejudice and bigotry, and generally hiping the African-American citizenry to the richness and legacy of his or her background. Unrelenting in their attack, the Last Poets lash out both at oppressors and those who sit idly by and take what they're given with complacency—all over a backdrop of some of the most amazing, rock-solid funk we've heard in years. Given the general difficulty in sustaining an active and aggressive artistic posture for over two decades, it's probably a bit of a miracle that the Poets are still around today, but it's also testimony to their tenacity and persistence, and of their commitment to their hard-hitting beliefs. "Tough Enough" moves far beyond the mere bravado the title suggests, grappling with real sociological and political issues over its burning, insistent beat, while "Woodshed Walk" has to be one of the most vivid portrayals of pensive, artistic desperation ever attempted. Before you go spinning the latest preachings some gold-chained rapper tosses off on his way to the bank, you'd better listen up to what the Last Poets have to say.

VARIOUS ARTISTS This Is Acid Jazz—Volume One (Acid Jazz, c/o Instinct, 222 W. 14th St., New York, NY 10011/212-727-1360)—Jazz fusion might have been worn to a techno-frazzle in the '70s, but London's underground artists in the late '80s added a dancier, more percolating rhythm that gave the fusion of old a new sparkle, and a new name: acid jazz. Many in-the-know U.S. DJs went to local 12" record stores to pick up import copies of much of the Acid Jazz label's singles of the moments. Now Delicious Vinyl has picked up the Brand New Heavies, and Instinct Records of New York has the rights to the rest of the groovy, mainly instrumental Acid Jazz catalog. This Is Acid Jazz—Volume One is a selection from that ambient collection, with simple club beats or Latin percussion; jazzy flute, horns or piano layered on top; and perhaps a soulful female vocal to pump it up. While this is a compilation of various artists, the sound remains relatively constant, with Break 4 Jazz's "Pick Up The Pieces"-like opener sliding into the percolating rhythm of A Man Called Adam's "Earthy Powers" chugging into the brassy Night Trains' "The Killer" and stopping cold on the amazing slow-down groove of IZIT's "Stories." Side two's only variation is a hip-hop fusion with Home Boy's "Control Yourself Cousin." If you're unfamiliar with the acid jazz sound, this sampler will give you an excellent introduction while also funk'ing up a lazy afternoon.

STEVE REICH The Four Sections—Music For Mallet Instruments, Voices And Organs (Nonesuch, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Steve Reich's compelling and constantly evolving body of work has made him one of America's premier classical composers. Whether working with such diverse artists as the Kronos Quartet or jazz guitarist Pat Metheny, or composing for orchestras, chamber groups or choreographers, Reich's music revels in sounds that both soothe and challenge, giving listeners thought-provoking sonic pieces which never numb, and always exhilarate. This new release is certainly no exception. The Four Sections (referring to the four pieces of an orchestra: strings, woodwinds, brass and percussion) is a concerto for orchestra presented in a new fashion, forsaking the usual soloist-versus-orchestra approach for a combination of instrumental usage within each orchestral section. Conducted by Michael Tilson Thomas with the London Symphony Orchestra, The Four Sections spins out effortless melodies and impeccably communicative craft and musicianship. Music for Mallet Instruments . . . builds up from a simple marimba pattern to a propelling rhythmic apex. In Reich's most capable hands, the ambient, the abrasive, the new and the old all combine to give a sense of continuity and contemplative construct.

MARVA WRIGHT Heartbreakin' Woman (Tipitina's, 1033 Pleasant St., Suite C, New Orleans, LA 70115)—New Orleans has for decades been a town known for raising a streak of female blues belters—the city that care forgot has produced a steady stream of legendary blues, R&B and gospel vocalists for decades, some more widely known like Irma Thomas, and others underheard and underacclaimed like Annie Laurie or Barbara George. Gospel-diva-turned-blues-belter Marva Wright is currently of the latter type of singer, but Heartbreakin' Woman manages to capture her beautifully in the process of transforming into a blues talent of the first order. Among her most impressive credentials are a 12-year string of New Orleans Jazz Fest appearances, a key track on the local Tipitina's Live In Person compilation last year and guesting all over the Neville Brothers' latest opus, the stunning Brother's Keeper LP. Producer Mark Howard (engineer for Daniel Lanois) makes things sound just the way they should—no drum machines, frills, distractions or pointless overdubs, just some fine blues musicians plugged into the nucleus of Wright's own roadworthy touring band. The relatively stripped down, economic approach to the arrangements and sound manages to give this album the same feel as classic, timeless recordings from the past by such legendary female singers and shouters as Koko Taylor, Thomas or Ruth Brown. Tops: "Born Under A Bad Sign," "The Sky Is Crying," "St. James Infirmary," "Bluesiana Mama" and the title cut.

SPIN DOCTORS Up For Grabs... Live (Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—What better way to capture an artist than in their strongest element—on stage. That's what we have here—the debut from NYC's Spin Doctors in the setting that got them to where they are today. These six jams are packed with funky, bluesy celebrations of live energy and intensity, kinda like a Grateful Dead meets the Chili Peppers doing the James Brown covers thang (with some Steppenwolf "Magic Carpet Ride" and Warren Zevon "Werewolves Of London" influence on "Little Miss Can't Be Wrong," and a nod to the oft-remade "Ain't She Sweet" on "Yo Mamas A Pajama"). From the endless thump-a-thump of the rhythm section, the ever-wailing presence of the guitar and the sometimes rapping, sometimes paradoxically calm vocals of Christopher Barron (like James Spader if he was a singer instead of an actor) giving voice to the party, the Spin Doctors write out a sweaty prescription that will get you shakin' your booty and revelin' in the power of live music. They're currently recording a full-length studio album, with the help of members of Blues Traveler and of the New Bohemians, so expect a funky house call by the end of the year.

WAYNE TOUPS & ZYDECAJUN Fish Out Of Water (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—When it comes to Louisiana's zydeco music, Wayne Toups and his Zydecajuns have got to be one of the hottest bands on the national touring circuit, having already made the jump from local and regional star to national and even international prominence. Fish Out Of Water pits the traditional roots of zydeco against the modern sounds of the mainstream; while these two schools of music often clash, in Toups' capable hands they mix like fine spices in a delicate gumbo roux. Unlike many zydeco stylists, Toups' strongest suit is probably his powerful and ample vocals—kind of like a cajun John Cougar Mellencamp—as his voice rises to the fore of the music and propels each song with his throaty frontmanship. It's interesting to hear Toups and his men imbue traditional zydeco sounds with newer, more modern approaches (like his contemporary, Buckwheat Zydeco, he occasionally replaces the traditional button accordion sound with a larger, fuller electric organ or even synthesizers), to move this music into the future while not losing its past to high technology. While some of the cuts tread deeply into rock and album radio territory, Toups' snapbean heart shines through 100% on "Sweet Stoup Shuffle," "Ooh La La," "Please Explain" and the stomping title track.

STICKER SHOCK.

frazier CHORUS

FRAZIER CHORUS CLOUD 8
FROM THE FORTHCOMING ALBUM "RAY." PRODUCED BY IAN BROUDIE.

JACKPOT EXTRA!

EMF "Unbelievable" (12") (EMI, 810 Seventh Ave., New York, NY 10019)—After Big Label Exec heard EMF: "Hold all my calls, Myra! Get me on the phone with Mr. Big right away... Sir, you're not gonna believe this incredible, nay, unbelievable song I just heard from this British group EMF... No, sir, don't worry about what it stands for... It has an Andrew Dice Clay sample, that beat from Eric B. & Rakim that Milli Vanilli stole, a big fat piano/synth hook, some silly Brit-boy lyrics, even some sort of twisted guitar solo. It's already hit huge in the U.K. and there's five great mixes... Sir, if they want to know what EMF stands for, we'll have to put a warning sticker on it..."

FINGER "Everywhere" (7") (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—

Merge Records is coming to be known as a fine purveyor of small records empowered with enough spunk to keep you smiling for weeks and weeks—witness Superchunk's "Slack Motherfucker" and Erectus Monotone's "Vertigogo." So now get ready for Finger's "Everywhere" with a careening melody that rides up and down the slopes of your spine, tingling all those nerve endings and making you wanna flail yr body like Kim Gordon. On the flip is

"Awful Truth," which has a slow, wandering groove that makes for one of those rare, successful power ballads that builds up to a heady guitar jam, reminding you that there really were fireballs in rock 'n roll in the '70s.

THINKING FELLERS UNION LOCAL 282 The Natural Finger (7" EP) (Ajax, P.O. Box 146882, Chicago, IL 60614/312-929-2935)—These S.F.

scraggle-heads spat out their debut just about a year ago, and none of the tunes included much resemble their past. "Hell Rules" is their hippie-dippy Surrealistic Pillow side; "Narlus Spectre" is the Eleventh Dream Day or Walkabouts up all night on a caffiene jag; "Leaky Bag" is a fine study of 100 Flowers-ish tension release; "Misfit's Park" sports a great stink-metal guitar solo; and none of these songs are too long, all of them further testimony to how the Fellers can expand their sound in so many different ways.

MASTERS OF THE OBVIOUS "She's Not Ready" (7") (Feel Good All Over, P.O. Box 8428, Chicago, IL 60614/312-486-2594)—Get a jolt of sicko pop and wander with MOTO through life's simpler problems, like love and other bodily functions. With the help of "Mr. Man" Albini production, this single showcases the whining, sometimes straining, but always cute vocals of Paul Caporino. MOTO's warm guitars twang out hauntingly familiar riffs on "Badger" (listen to Cream's "Badge" as a reference), then smoothly strum a happy-baby-baby tune "Germ Inside."

POLVO "Can I Ride" (7") (Kitchen Puff, 696 North Columbia St., Chapel Hill, NC 27514)—Adding to the stack of Chapel Hill gems, Polvo maneuvers with pop-rock sincerity. Comparisons to Superchunk are hard to avoid, for Polvo has the same strong catchiness about their tunes with just enough weirdness to hold the more sophisticated listener. With perky J Mascis-like vocals, they change their guitar distortion rapidly from frenzied fuzz to stretching metallic battles. "Can I Ride" is sweet, aggressive, simple, complex, direct and befuddled—Polvo is a band absorbed in subtle contradictions.

VARIOUS ARTISTS If I Could Hear You I Would Hit You (7" EP) (Baby Huey, c/o Bill Chen, 8732 E. Ardenale, San Gabriel, CA 91775)—

Four SoCal bands, and only one (Nothing Pointed Blue) has any recorded history. NPB's track, "Go To Waste," is a lot more insistent and scratchy than their LP, though they're still about the bounciest Cali band we can think of since the demise of Sweet Baby. Shoeface's "Can't You See" inserts a big squeaky guitar solo into an otherwise head-on case of punk-rock amplifier abuse; the Primordial Undermind, with secret ingredients Nick Saloman and Martin Crowley (of Bevis Frond), takes a gooey-rich psychedelic sound and indelicately drags it through the mud; and the Bux's "Chicken Wire Teeth" is a dirge somewhere between Beefheart and Caroliner in terms of coherency.

FUTURES

JACKPOT!

FUNKY KNIGHTS Too (Funky Knights, c/o Randy Pratt, 20 Desbrosses St., New York, NY 10013/212-226-2258)—Crossed by the stars, cursed by bad luck, you are about to enter the strange nocturnal world of the Funky Knights, a no-holds-barred town that's as mindlessly off-color as nude talk shows on Manhattan cable, as obnoxious as the Cookie Puss-era Beastie Boys, and as rude as a subway door slammed in the face. Steeped in the stickiest motor city sounds of the Parliament/Funkadelic axis, the Knights are if nothing else the dark and evil twin to KC & The Sunshine Band, beamed in from a parallel, sinister alternate universe, pounding out butt-busting rhythms and killer funk riffs all night long, blurring out lewdness with little concern for manners, propriety or making enemies. Frontman Wild Bill is one of the unsung legends of underground performance, as nasty as he wants to be, with his leering countenance driving the Knights behind him to unparalleled heights and states of funk. Live, their sets are often three-and-four hour Bachannalian orgies of unabashed funk jamming and Rick James/early Prince/Parliament-styled nastiness: sure it's libidinous and gross—but what about New York isn't that way? If the Funky Knights might happen to offend just about every person and thing in sight, well, they said the same things about James Brown back in the '50s and George Clinton in the '70s, and that sort of flattery doesn't bother the Knights one bit.

F.Y.I.

The JOY SCOUTS pursue an untrendy course rarefied among their Bay Area kin: big-hearted and rough-hewn plebian rock, the sort of thing people play whilst collapsing in their (domestic, not imported) beer, strummed as though every relationship in the country depended on the next note. Five songs, one cassette (c/o W.J.S., 2010 Lawton St., San Francisco, CA/415-661-9287) and lots of twang and thunder but no trash, since this demo is impeccably produced. Tim Harrington's vocals are just the right blend of rustic croak and pop-star smoothie, crooning along with tunes that can't decide whether they like Gram Parsons ("She'll Be Here") or John Cougar Mellencamp ("Bridges Instead Of Walls") better. Either way, the tape has a haystack of oak-solid playing and memorable, manly choruses, and we cotton best to stuff like "Millions And Me" with its fiddle and salt o' the earth refrain... ALTIMETER is definitely angled towards the glamorous world of AOR radio/video; the three songs on How, Hi Are You? are notable not for their arrangements or for instrumental dexterity, but for the presentability of the writing (call them at 212-221-8418). Although this a full five-piece band, the arrangement is sparse and so professional as to be occasionally cheesy, and the production is germicidally clean. However, the vocals (Alam Houghton and Timothy Topalian) successfully balance street-smarminess and humor in a smirking Coati Mundi way, and all three songs could be monster-huge without offending anyone.

CURRENT 93

CURRENT 93 Looney Runes (Durtro, c/o Wayward, Unit 401, 444 Brixton Road, London SW9 8EJ/071-978-8611)

Of all the early industrial harbingers of the apocalypse to spread the gospel Not According To The Testament, Death In June and Nurse With Wound were the most infamous, respectively the work of David Tibet and Steven Stapleton. Current 93 is their joint venture, joined here by Rose McDowall (of mid-'80s cutesy-duo Strawberry Switchblade fame) and Tony Wakeford. From their resident pixie-devil in Bugs Bunny's place on the cover to the adapted "Merry Malaise" sign-off note on the back—from "Tunes" to "Runes," from "singalonga-song" to mystic symbol, spell or song—C93's emphasis is on reinterpretation, with a streak of coal-black, even malevolent humor. With more commercial zeal than before and Tibet's perennial interest in magik/power—Psychic TV territory, if you need help—Looney Runes is a cache of literal nursery rhymes/crimes, from pop through to traditional English folk song. "Panzer Ruins (In The Hands Of Gillespie)" "That's All Folks" sets the scene, where Tibet/McDowall's wailing trials and tribulations are chanted, echoed and varisped over electronic fizzle, the usual descent into Dante's Inferno, but from here on in, the noise-fest takes a back seat to six tracks recorded in Tokyo in 1988, leaving a carpet of electro-acoustic guitar peals and a stark, thudding bass drum. "Invocation" and "The Birds Have Stopped Singing" are archetypal, fatalistic folk dirges sung a capella; "Black Flowers Please" revamps the X-Mas carol "Silent Night" ("menstrual night, when red turns black...") before flowering into an almost mid-'60s folk-pop anthem, like an English Elevators/Seeds trip; "Farewell" blends both trad-folk and folk-pop ideals with vengeful vocals. And what should be made of Blue Oyster Cult's "This Ain't The Summer Of Love," retitled "Happy Birthday" here? Looney Runes is ripe for investigation; a different, three-dimensional take on English Psychedelik that has no time for retro notions. A merry malaise indeed.

BOURBONESE QUALK Bo'Qu (New International Recordings, P.O. Box 244, London SE1 5AZ/071-232-2682)

A retrospective, so Bo'Qu doesn't make the Jackpot!. This scans the life and times of the seriously neglected Bourbonese Qualk—a.k.a. Simon Crabb and a variety of passing ships—but then they did abandon the U.K. for Europe (west and east), where their conceptual charge and diversive electro-attitude originally took its lead. Bo'Qu inhabits the same post-punk, avant-funk world of 23 Skidoo, ACR, 400 Blows, early Cabaret Voltaire—of rhythmic grids, loops and stuck grooves, of flanged bass and vocal distortions, of wayward dance-aerobics and global village dynamics—except BQ veered closer to Can and Jon Hassell's masterful ethno-forgeries, soldering the links set by Eno/Byrne's My Life In The Bush Of Ghosts. The majority of tracks date from '82-'86, given that BQ didn't record from '86-'89; each track pursues a tangent of—what one journalist described as—their "heavy free improvised ethnodub," taking in frost-funk ("Gag"), underwater dub ("Glassworks"), Oriental symmetry ("Petit Mal," the unreleased "Under The Influence"), trance-dance hip-hop mantra ("Let It Go") and urban tribe-delia ("God With Us" and "Lukunzi"). As Crabb readily admits, rather than give in to electro-funk commercialism, BQ "took the radical path doomed to obscurity." This sublime compilation deserves to reverse that trend.

YARGO Yargo Live! (Prickly But Sweet) (Body Beat, c/o Hall Or Nothing, Broadway House, 35 Harwood Road, London SW6 4QP/071-371-5633)

A precocious beginning, like a rare bird in flight, before major label apathy clipped their wings; by the time they'd recovered, the musical diversity that lifted their spirit had torn them apart. That's the story of Yargo, intuitive interpreters of Manchester's Moss Side scene for the last five years; of all-night blues parties, dub/reggae sound systems, lyrical jazz/funk/soul injections (no hip-hop/rap axis for a change)—music that's prickly but sweet, as they say themselves, to which I'll add "cool-but-deadly," both of which go for Basil Clarke's luminous voice too, a wounded Marvin Gaye with a pack-a-day problem. Live! is Yargo's defiant swan song after 1988's Bodybeat and 1990's Communication, with eight new songs recorded live (March 1990) and a studio version of "The Love Revolution," with its come-together fervor and train-kept-a-rollin' rhythm. "Stay" is the kind of acid blues Bob Marley might have written; "Break My Spirit" is vaguely anthemic, a gospel-spun tale sung a capella; "Riding High" is Chess blues in Mancunian Babylon; "When She's There" is lugubrious, flexible funk (Tai-Chi funk?); "What I Got" is Yargo at their most stretched-out, blissed-out midnight blue. OK, Yargo had it; what will they do with it now?

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

It would be hard not to add to the stockpile of Gulf reverberations. Of U.K. acts under pressure, BOMB THE BASS has changed its name to Tim Simenon—who is BOB after all—and Massive Attack to just Massive, for obvious reasons. KLF, currently at #1 with "3AM Eternal," have edited out the salvos of gunfire that open the track; meanwhile, an "unofficial" blacklist of 67 records has been circulating radio stations, including not just The Cure's "Killing An Arab" and The Clash's "Rock The Casbah," but the Bangles' "Walk Like An Egyptian," Maria Muldaur's "Midnight At The Oasis" and Roberta Flack's "Killing Me Softly." Now that's what I call potential provocation. As yet, no U.K. response to "Give Peace A Chance" has materialized. Neither has anyone started calculating the cultural loss of tour cancellations by Donny Osmond, Winger and M.C. Hammer (for starters)—if it can ever be. It's even been rumored (stop whispering there now!) that the BUTTHOLE SURFERS, politically sensitive reactionaries to a man/woman, are thinking of not turning up in April. Gossipmongering, what can we say? At least we won't have to endure the Buttholes' brand of chemical warfare... Otherwise, the only news is that the REVOLTING COCKS finally played the U.K., without being barred, locked up, castrated. The Conservative MP Teddy Taylor, who engineered the initial ban before X-Mas, probably wasn't there—despite being invited, how rude—but he would have appreciated Al Jourgensen in a towel, plastic breasts, a mask of the Queen and a policeman's helmet, squeezing a floor-long plastic penis, or Chris Connelly with his trousers down, in oral combat, during the 15-minute "Get Down" encore. We did, Al, we did...

SINGLES

Singles of the fortnight: INTO PARADISE, claimed one journalist, was more overwhelming, in a majestic, manic-depressive way, than Joy Division. Which is like saying an amp can turn up to 11. No, in short. After their Under The Water album (on Setana), "Burns My Skin" is their European Ensign debut, a caustic roller-ride—guitars peal, drums pummel—reminiscent of Great British Raincoat Rock, circa 1980—the Bunynymen/Sound/Magazine—with a thrilling, Pixie-ish abandon. The Irishmen know it too—Sound mentor Adrian Borland co-produces the equally aggrieved "On And On" ("Low" makes three). A respectable but faintly redundant cover of Magazine's "Shot By Both Sides" makes four (Ensign, Bramley Road, London W19 6SP/071-221-2213)... Ecstasy for noisemongers; Clawfist's fifth doubleback is their best yet—TERMINAL CHEESECAKE's version of God's "Meathead" is an unhealthy-sounding maelstrom, a collapsing black hole of a song and twice as magnetic. Truly the work of Satan. Likewise, GOD's version of TC's "Car First," a slow, majestic grind to counteract TC's freneticism. The best of U.K. noisecore lives in here (subscription only—the dollar equivalent to 27 pounds per six releases—to Clawfist, 20 Hanway St., London W1)... Missed from late last year but never too late: WELFARE HEROINE's "Cry Blood" is an ultra-vivid dub-shuffle halfway between resilient anger—in a world where the Ku Klux Klan lives and breathes—and mournful resignation, streaked by a glowing xylophone and guitar. Spread the word (Non-Fiction, Charlotte House, 97 Charlotte St., London W1P 1LB/071-323-5555)... Lastly, the SCREECH OWLS, who are American-in-London vocalist Debbie Skrow and ex-Virgin Prune guitarist Richard Evans. "Desert"/"Hey Toreodor" is their debut, a disarmingly simple, elegant slice of poetic pop. I keep thinking Patti Smith and Tom Verlaine, in a Blue Aeroplanes and Pretenders kinda way, which is hardly fair. But it's that kind of record (Girl, 3 Parfrey St., Hammersmith, London W6 9EW/081-741-9278).

Elsewhere, the MILLTOWN BROTHERS' "Why Way Should I Jump" is the absolutely, why-are-you-asking? acceptable face of timeless retro-pop, being full-throated, joyous Merseybeat. Clang, clang, go the pop corporation doors! And so on (A&M, 136-144 New King's Road, London SW6 4LZ/071-736-3311)... Less timeless, but as deft a distillation of neo-'60s memorabilia, the DYLAN's "Godlike" debut isn't, but as post-modern pop goes, it's not far short of label-mates Charlatans UK—in other words, beat-friendly Hammond organ/guitar motor sprayed with Byrdian harmonies (Situation Two, 17/19 Alma Road, London SW18/081-870-9912).

RADIO BREAKTHROUGHS

Greatest Upward Chart Movement

BOB MARLEY & THE WAILERS Talkin' Blues (Tuff Gong-Island)
A Christmas Carol opens with the line "Marley was dead." But Dickens underestimated the power of his music and his devoted followers. Full of great unreleased live material, interviews and studio tracks from the mid-70s, Talkin' Blues is a resurrected tribute to the undisputed king of reggae past.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. . . PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

Screaming Trees

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Eleventh Dream Day: Going to the top?

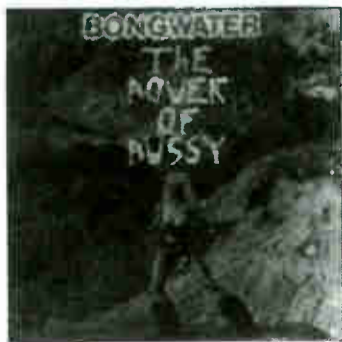

Ambitious Lovers: Lust for art

If I Had a Nickel for Every Report . . . : Get Guinness on the phone, cuz CMJ has yet another record-breaking report total this issue: 1,120! That massive number reflects all reports over the Feb. 11-12 period—Top 35s, Beat Box, Loud Rock, Retail, etc. Important reporting note: If you're faxing in a report, it must be clearly typed or written with a full 35 (not 34 or 33) records (not songs), the station name, phone number, and must arrive by 6 p.m. EST. Otherwise you won't see it in that issue. Call or fax early on Monday and you won't have any problems.

JEEEEEEZUS: The PWEIsters could only hold the top spot for one week (1-2), as Jesus Jonesarooni (4-1; #1 Audience again!) barely edges them out, giving the SBK-skies their first CMJ crown. Meanwhile, the Ashster . . . (urgggghhhhhh!!!! I must exorcise this terrible habit) . . . stays pat at #3 and the Screaming Trees join the Top 5 (16-5), finally bringing one American artist into the Top 10. Once again, the regionals are in major disarray with four different #1s—Pop Will Eat Itself in the East (#6 in South); Screaming Trees in the West (#11 in the Midwest); Drivin' N' Cryin' in the South (#18 in the West); and Jesus Jones in the Midwest (#7 in the West). Oh, Front 242 (18-9) and Hollow Men (11-10) join the Top 10 this week.

Still Shimmy-ing: The story, as far as independents go, still is the Shimmy-Disc domination, with Rutles Highway Revisited (57-39) leading, Naked City not far behind (71-41) and Bongwater sure to go much higher (104-45; see below for more details). Also making gains in the indie realm: Communion-Skyclad's Heaven & Hell comp (86-61) and Bitch Magnet (116-78); Dali-Chameleon's Spooner; Strange Fruit-Dutch East India's Manchester comp (#105 debut); and Ringers Lactate's wonderful Smashing Orange 7" (#133 debut). Special mention must be made of the amazing debut of the late Bob Marley & The Wailers (#80; #1 Breakthrough!) and the #1 Adventure Pick for Enigma (118-65; #5 Breakthrough).

FOCUS

at #1: KSPC (CA), WBCR (WI), WFCS (CT), WNUR (IL), WORT (WI), WPRB (NJ), WSIA (NY), WTSR (NJ) and WUJC (OH).

This week, the spotlight is on Shimmy-Disc's Bongwater LP called The Power Of Pussy, which takes Ann Magnuson and Kramer where the Playboy channel could only dream. It's the #3 Radio Breakthrough on the strength of a 104-45 move; six cuts are being reported, with the title track leading the way. Of the 45 stations reporting Pussy, 30 have the record in their Top 10, with the following stations spilling it

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

Sting, whose Soul Cages (#1) has gone platinum within one week of its release, still hovers over Epic's Front 242 (#2) by quite a margin. While there are no new entries into the elite Top 10 this week, notable surges were made by Food-SBK's Jesus Jones (9-6) and Sire-Reprise's Ride (10-8) at the expense of Chrysalis' Red Hot + Blue (6-9) and Elektra's Sisters Of Mercy (8-10).

Edging ever closer to the top notches are Epic's Screaming Trees (14-12), RCA's Pop Will Eat Itself (19-13) and Mute-Elektra's Meat Beat Manifesto (18-14). Also making great leaps upward are Virgin's sexy Divinyls (48-20), Alternative Tentacles' Jello Biafra 7"/cassingle (60-23), Atlantic's Eleventh Dream Day (37-30), Charisma's Enigma (69-40) and Rough Trade's reissue of Galaxie 500's Today (66-47).

Only two albums debuted on the chart this week: Hollywood's new Queen LP (#26) and Tuff Gong-Island's Bob Marley & The Wailers (#35). The other debuts were all singles, mostly imports. Fire (UK)'s Spacemen 3 single jumps in at #51 (domestic LP out at the end of March); Blanco Y Negro (UK)'s Dinosaur Jr. single crawls into the #55 spot (domestic LP nearly out); Creation (UK)'s My Bloody Valentine single starts off Valentine's Day week at #72 and Wax Trax's Coil single worms its way in at #74.

And thanks to the addition of some new reporters—and the faithful reporting of our other stores—we had more retail reports than ever this week—163! New this week are: Bebop, Ridgeland, MS; Bleeker Bob's, Hollywood, CA; Bleeker Bob's, New York; Bow Wow, Albuquerque, NM; Eastside, Tempe, AZ; Fallout, Seattle, WA; Flipside, St. Paul, MN; Middle Earth, Downey, CA; Rebop, Ithaca, NY; Record Runner, New York, NY; Rhino, New Paltz, NY; Sound Exchange, Austin, TX; and Tower, Hollywood, CA. Welcome aboard! (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

JACKPOT!

GARY BARTZ QUINTET West 42nd Street (Candid, c/o DA Music, 362 Pinehurst Lane, Marietta, GA 30068)—Another in the series of Mark Morganelli-produced live recordings from Birdland in Manhattan, West 42nd Street is a worthy successor to Candid's earlier winning effort, The Crawl, featuring drummer Louis Hayes' sextet. Gary Bartz, who in recent years has recorded for overseas labels, has been misperceived, and partly devalued, by the jazz public. Is he a mainstreamer? A free-thinking avant-gardeist? A fusioner? Well, yes. The alto and soprano-playing Bartz, at one time or another, has been all three. (Check out his work on Columbia Special Products' brand-new two-CD reissue of Miles Davis' Big Fun.) Captured live in March 1990, by Britain's Candid company, Bartz revels in the close-knit presence of an ad-hoc quartet of seasoned pros who adjust as one to the musical needs of the moment: trumpeter Claudio Roditi, pianist John Hicks, bassist Ray Drummond and drummer Al Foster. The quintet proceeds straight ahead for 68 minutes, playing deftly with time and form as they range from the standards "Speak Low" and "It's Easy To Remember" to the leader's original blues, "Cousins." In spots the swing is tenacious, while in others the intensity gives way to lustrous beauty, yet, through it all, the fivesome emerges as a balanced, cooperative ensemble, not merely as Bartz's back-up band. Each of the five selections here, save for the title track, exceeds 10 minutes, but it's the tightness, not the time, that counts.

JOE HENDERSON Think On Me (SteepleChase, c/o Rick Ballard Imports, P.O. Box 5063, Berkeley, CA 94705)/KIRK LIGHTSEY Temptation (Timeless, 157 Bleeker St., New York, NY 10012)—Why is it that the best recordings seem to be the hardest ones to come by? The reasons are manifold, but space precludes an in-depth analysis. These two recordings, issued by Denmark's SteepleChase and Holland's Timeless label, respectively, are well worth hunting down. Both are sterling neo-bop quintet encounters featuring commanding trumpeters with rhythm sections supplemented by additional percussion. Think On Me, a December 1989 studio date, finds the underrated trumpeter Eddie Henderson's steely lines framed, but not restrained, for 69 minutes by the top-flight rhythm team of pianist Kenny Barron, drummer Billy Hart and bassist Wayne Dockery; rounding out the crew is Joe Locke, whose vibraphone punctuations are dollops of pure color with subtle pontillistic impact (his occasional DX-7 stylings, thankfully, do not clash with the straight-ahead thrust of the ensemble). Henderson, who is once again gigging actively on the Big Apple scene, shines on Duke Ellington's "Come Sunday" and

ON THE CHART

What a busy week! Not only did we have our largest amount of reporters (81), we also have one of the tightest races in some time. Holding on at #1 for the second straight week is Marcus Roberts, who proves how commanding he can be on his new effort (#1 at CKWR, KRCC, KUCL, KUWS, WARG, WBMB and WNUR). In fact, all of the Top 5 remain static this week. The second half of the top 10 is just as competitive—Barbara Dennerlein (12-6), Rahsaan Roland Kirk (15-7), Cannonball Adderley (16-8) and Ray Obiedo (19-9) are all closing in. Top debut goes to Eddie Harris (#12), whose Night release joins the label's other three initial releases in the Top 25 (Les McCann enters at #24). Quality reigns throughout, so look for debuts at the bottom of the chart (Frank Morgan (#18) and Steve Lacy/Mal Waldron (#25)), among others, to make their presence known in the coming weeks. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) fellow brassman Lee Morgan's "Ceora." Temptation, a 1987 quintet offering from pianist Kirk Lightsey, a Detroit-bred lyricist with New York-learned pluck, presents trumpet whiz Freddie Hubbard at his relaxed best, spewing out long, spearing lines (muted on Thelonious Monk's "Evidence") when he isn't spitting, slurring and mashing notes with gleefully perverse shorthand ("Gibraltar"). Hubbard wrote three of the six numbers and performs as if this were his date, a testimonial to his respect for leader Lightsey, and vice versa. Drummer Eddie Gladden, bassist Santi Debriano and congero Jerry Gonzalez provide lively, expertly timed accompaniment that beautifully complements Hubbard's alternately erudite and entertaining blowing. Lightsey, for his part, chimes in with effortless swing and unceasing melodicism. Two top-shelf CDs.

RHYTHMSTICK Rhythmstick (CTI, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—This splendid-sounding 60-minute CD has presence, depth, color and variety in abundance. What it doesn't have is a focused artist identification. Whose album is it, anyway? The leader and featured soloist, it turns out, is trumpet legend Dizzy Gillespie, and the title refers to the walking stick (bedecked with flattened bottle caps) on which he's known to bounce, kick and bang out an array of uncanny rhythms. This 24-track super-session, recorded and videotaped at Rudy Van Gelder's studio, is the opening salvo by Creed Taylor's reactivated CTI label, which flourished in the pop/jazz market during the '70s. Most projects aim for one slice of the jazz market or another—traditional or contemporary—but this one could attract both, despite its murky packaging. Be as it may, Gillespie is flanked by a glittering cast comprising heavy-hitters from the mainstream (Phil Woods, Art Farmer, Charlie Haden, Smitty Smith), fusion (John Scofield, Jim Beard, Randy Brecker, Anthony Jackson) and Latin/Brazilian (Tito Puente, Romero Lubambo, Flora Purim and Airto) camps. Performance takes precedence over polish on Rhythmstick, but the sonics are superb and the idiomatic scope is vast. Many contemporary-jazz records, owing to their labored layering, come off sounding like a prelude to nothingness, but Rhythmstick is a playing record that should enjoy a long shelf-life as a catalogue piece. What remains to be seen is whether DJs will suss out the motivation behind this spirited production in time for Rhythmstick to make a dent on the jazz charts.

J.J. BOPS BACK

The first new album in 10 years from J.J. JOHNSON, the first name in bebop trombone, is Quintergy (Antilles, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012), a quintet date recorded live at Gotham's Village Vanguard in July 1988. Since his week at the Vanguard more than two years ago, Johnson has again faded from the scene, so this CD doesn't necessarily betoken a full-scale, full-time comeback for the limberest of long-lined, legato 'bone players, such as the career upturn under way by label-mate Frank Morgan. But until later this year, when a follow-up is expected, this will suffice. Six of the 12 offerings here (including the oft-played "Lament") are Johnson originals and all are performed with smart execution and esprit by Ralph Moore (tenor), Stanley Cowell (piano), Rufus Reid (bass) and Victor Lewis (drums).

FRESH!

VARIOUS ARTISTS This Is Acid Jazz—Volume One (Acid Jazz, c/o Instinct, 222 W. 14th St., New York, NY 10011/212-727-1360)—Just what is acid jazz, you ask? Coming to life in London's Acid Summer of 1987 along with acid house music, acid jazz is a sultry fusion of jazz, hip-hop, R&B and rare groove. It uses live instruments (most notably horns and percussion) in producing funky, free-spirited danceable jams that are bound by a single groove. This compilation of underground talent is culled from the finest tracks of a four-volume Acid Jazz U.K.-only compilation. It brings together a wide array of groups that give a well-defined cross-section of different hybrids of the genre. Opening with Break 4 Jazz's "Break 4 Jazz," you get a taste of hot, steamy sax improvisation over a solid hip-hop groove, while A Man Called Adam's (who is signed to Big Life Records) "Earthy Powers" shows off a rich, bass-heavy funk attack with flute overlays and jazzy female vocals. Also for the soul is Izit's "Stories," which opens with vocal samples and a cavernous groove and later incorporates guitar, keyboards, sax and woodwinds. More R&B/funk vibes are on the Hip Joints' "Rock Hopper," while the Cool Beats' "Trinkets And Trash" is more vocally entertaining with rich horn sections and a Latin-flavored beat. The LP ends with a cut by Home Boy called "Control Yourself Cousin" that is a mesmerizing fusion of a jazzy sax slipped around a hip-hop beat. Acid Jazz satisfies many tastes while providing listeners with something new to provoke their dancing feet.

PROFESSOR X Years Of The 9, On The Blackhand Side (4th & Broadway, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—For anyone who has heard the line, "Vainglorious... this is protected by the red, the black and the green with a key, sisseeee!" will know Professor X and the Blackwatch Movement. But if not, Professor X (son of black activist Sonny Carson) has been the overseer/member of X Clan, Isis and Queen Mother Rage, adding his conspicuous voice to their works, and is the founder of the Brooklyn-based Blackwatch Movement which promotes black culture, unity and nationalism. Following the successful X Clan and Isis, Professor X steps to the forefront with his own project (timed perfectly for Black History Month), Years Of The 9, On The Blackhand Side, which is simply Professor X and his unmistakable mystique speaking over funky '70s grooves and occasional house rhythms ("The Sleeper Has Awakened," "Vainglorious Crib"). His delivery is more preach/narrative than rhythmic rhyming while he does bring in guests such as X Clan's Brother J, Afrika Bambaataa on "Pull Up To The Bumper" and Traedonya Taylor on the title track to add soulful background melodies or to add spice to his messages. This release is purely to educate and promote the Blackwatch Movement, which is a positive motive, but does little in the way of entertaining those not completely in tune with the movement.

ENIGMA MCMXC a.D. (Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—The sweeping keyboards and soft mystifying voice heard on the opening

ON THE CHART

EPMD (1-1) is still makin' mucho dollars as Erick and Parrish keep a firm grip on the top spot, while Digital Underground (3-2) sneaks a little bit closer to the front line on the strength of "Same Song." Ice Cube's EP makes a respectable climb (9-3) and L.L. Cool J slides down two to #4—just wait till "Mama Said Knock You Out" gets released. SOUL-MCA's Son Of Bazerk finally gets into the Top 5 (6-5). Artists waiting in the wings of the Top 10 include Stetsasonic (17-11) who should crack it by next week, Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs (18-12) who's '12" is making all kinds of noise, and the commercially geared

Father M.C. who moves up three more to #13. Highest debut this week goes to the Young Black Teenagers (#20) and their long-awaited self-titled debut. Other newcomers: Professor X (#22), B.M.W. (#25) and Profile's DJ Quik (#29). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Lifers Group; 2) Young Black Teenagers; 3) EPMD; 4) DJ Quik; 5) Stetsasonic; 6) Eric B. & Rakim; 7) Son Of Bazerk; 8) B.M.W.; 9) Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs; 10) Professor X. (BEAT BOX REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) cut, "The Voice of Enigma," probably sets the mood of this record best when it tells you to "turn off the light, take a deep breath and relax" as you are taken into a world of "music, spirit and meditation." Dance music for the mind probably best describes what German producer Michael Cretu has manifested in the worldwide hit, "Sadness Part 1," and the rest of the mysterious grooves on MCMXC a.D. Just what is it about this record that is creating all of the hoopla? Enigma stimulates the spirit and imagination with an expressive combination of sophisticated and sexy dance rhythms, background sound effects with stimulating Gregorian chanting and soothing spoken word, translating into a captivating journey for club-goers through new, untraveled paths. You can dance to this, meditate to it or just sit back and enjoy the ride of your life. Spiritual uplifters: "Principles Of Lust," "Mea Culpa," "Knocking On Forbidden Doors" and "Back To The Rivers Of Belief."

York, NY 10019—This big, fuzzy dancefloor monster packs quite the punch for those looking to do some serious bumping and grinding. With the better mixes on the A-side, "Unbelievable" pounds out a slammin' beat and piano with a thick-as-molasses bass-line and screaming distorted guitar. The "Cin City Sex Mix" stands out the most with its Andrew Dice Clay sample (his trademarked "oohh!") and ecstasy-induced, Brit white boy vocals. The B-side contains a "House" and a pseudo-"Hip-Hop" mix that lacks creativity. Also featured is a supercharged live ("EMF (Live At The Bilson)") track that comes with a warning sticker.

JACKPOT!

KUYSI ERGUNER Sufi Music Of Turkey (CMP, 155 W. 72nd St., New York, NY 10023)—This is the last of the CMP series that I have gotten to, not for anything the music lacks, but because in some ways, it is the simplest, and therefore, the hardest to write about. Kuysi Erguner and his brother Suleyman play the ney, an end-blown flute, and the frame drum. From these two basic, non-mechanical instruments they wrest eight hundred years of Islamic tradition and melody. Sufism is a devout and ecstatic branch of Islam, dedicated to the arts of music and dance as a means of expression and religious liberation. It's leaders have always encouraged the development of poetry and music, making a favorable climate for artists of ensuing centuries. The end result is highly complex forms from structural and instrumental simplicity that has grown from generation to generation. All that said, what happens on this recording is mystical. Not really songs in a European sense, these pieces are excursions on drum and flute. The diversity of sounds that these two master musicians make is amazing; there are so many tones, so many colors. The swirling music is beyond words, so I'll spare you any more. I highly recommend you listen.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Les Mystere Des Voix Bulgares, Vol. 3 (Fontana, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Maybe they're not as much of a mystery as they were a few years ago, but they are still mysterious. A strange blend of popular classical music and a highly complex, yet rural folk style, the choirs of Bulgaria create melodies and chords that cut right through you, almost vibrating your diaphragm in harmony with theirs. (Listen to this music at LOUD volumes and you'll feel it.) The vocal folk music of Bulgaria is highly refined, passed from generation to generation, producing a nation of singers, men and women, who possess great skill. Philip Koutev first brought these singers together in the late '50s to form his choir. Taking the natural passion and rhythm of this traditional music, he welded it to a more formal staging, encouraged young writers to adapt their heritage to the theatre and produced a semi-classical music that soared. On volume three (the first two are on Nonesuch) the mystery unfolds further. There are a number of different groups here, including the RTVB Choir who will be touring the U.S. this spring. Their "Zlato Mori" is a brief minute and a half of echoing rounds, jarring chords, and odd beauty. There is a particularly stunning "Dva Shopski Dueta" done by enigmatically identified "four soloists." My personal favorite is the percussive Choir Traika's "Sedi Mama," whose "domm-taka-taka-taka" has a familiar Motown ring. (Say it four times fast.)... A note on "authenticity." I read an article after volume two came out, that complained about the formality of these recordings. The reviewer's basic premise was that these songs of work and history were perverted by their setting, that genuine "folk" music could only be found at the sewing bee and thresher, and not on record. (This last, from a record reviewer!) Music like this is not

ON THE CHART

There's no real surprise here in our Top 2 this week—with Bob Marley and Bunny Wailer up at the top, all we'd need is an album from Peter Tosh to really complete the picture. Anyway, further down we find Sly & Robbie gaining steadily, as do tenacious albums from Copacetic and Burning

Spear. Look for further action in the coming weeks from the likes of Foday Musa Suso, Juluka, Ali Farka Toure and a spectacular album by the Muungano National Choir Of Kenya. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

"folk." It is theater art, a performance, and it strives to expand on tradition, not be a slave to it. Like Ives, Kodaly, or Bernstein, it is the artists' view of a living heritage. If field recordings are what you are after, I highly recommend I Heard Two Girls Singing, an excellent collection on Rounder.

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Heart of Steel (Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614)—Many cultures have developed instruments out of the debris of their oppressors, but few more curious pieces of hardware have been made than the steel drum of Trinidad. Part balafon, part drum, made of an oil can left behind during the twentieth century's black gold rush, the groups attracted at first the "punks" of Trinidad, hell bent on expressing their frustration through music and fighting. Of course, any good authority figure knows to channel that kind of thing, and in the fifties and sixties, you found teams with names like "Aamoco" and "Esso" attached to them, playing top forty for the tourists. But as always, through it all, the real music survived, and you can hear some spirited, and sometimes completely whacked examples on Heart Of Steel. How about the Mat Securities Merrytones doing Mendelssohn's "Hebrides Overture?" (You'll recognize it in an instant.) Maybe Tchaikovsky is more to your liking. (The Finale from the Symphony #4, by the Aamoco Renegades.) But there are also some kicking Caribbean tunes as well, best of all Sparrow's "Do Back Back" by Birdsong. All the cuts are recorded live at a festival, so you get a little of the sweat that goes into pounding a steel can non-stop, and a feel of the personality of the players that was always missing from those records with the hotel and airline ads on the back.

FOOD REVIEWS

3 MUSTAPHAS 3

Got to hear the 3 MUSTAPHAS 3 in the rotten apple last week. What a scene. The Wetlands is a sort of neo-hippie hangout, with just enough pseudo bohemian touches to seem sort of appropriate for the boys from Sregerely. High praise goes to Drum Mustapha, who played some outrageous rhythms for the rest of the band to tell their stories of pasta, pain and progress in appliances. Personal highlight of the night was Hijaz "Diblo-san" Mustaphas, working out a soukous groove on a distorted, over-trebled bouzouki. Sheer madness! Take it to the freezer . . . Flying Fish has sent another big school of shiners your way, and I direct you to Steel String Stories by guitarist CHRIS PROCTOR. Proctor is one of the much sung, but little heard heroes of the acoustic guitar, and here he explores the acoustic and electric possibilities of six strings, two hands, processing, pounding and plucking with a small supporting cast on percussion and occasional bass. Note-worthy cuts would include a lovely "From L.A. To Zaire" and the opener, "Interstate," both of which exhibit taste, prowess and awareness. . . . So much hammered dulcimer music ends up as Aquarian brain pudding these days, which is a shame, because in the hands of a good band, it can be a varied and powerful instrument. While some of the material falls short of exciting, the better half of The Titan (Turquoise, Box 947, Whitesburg, KY 41858), by Maryland band HELICON provides grace, beauty and a few thrills. Flutes, whistles, fiddles and guitars add color and fat and a hefty dose of musical protein comes from guest cellist Freyda Epstein (from one of the other great h.d. bands, Trapezoid). Appalachia, the Limousin of France, Hungary and a host of Celtic ports are all visited. For pure fire, listen to their version of Bill Monroe's "Jerusalem Ridge." . . . Coming soon: Boukman Experyens (Mango) is a hot Haitian group that welds the drum beats of voodoo with contemporary instruments and hard-hitting lyrical themes. . . Raggadubbin' UK (ROIR) is my kinda reggae: a little crazy, a little confused. This collection rocks from Trenchtown to Tunis, via Balham. "Tubular Ragga" indeed!

IDIOTIC PRACTICES AWARD

I am instituting a new occasional section, one I hope you will contribute to. I want to note the stupidities performed by radio, record companies and the press that come my way regularly. Today? Congratulations to Elektra Records. A few weeks ago I got the all-time ridiculous promo package, a combination of waste and stupidity that certainly merits first prize this month. I opened the 12" cardboard box. I took out the photos. I took out the many single-sided sheets of "information." I took out the CD package. I took off the shrink wrap. I opened the valuable jewel box. I looked at the CD. It was a single (my favorite!). It was one minute long. I thank you. My trash man thanks you. The New Haven city dump thanks you. . . . If you have a tale to recount, send it to us. No oil for singles.

CRUCIAL!

BOB MARLEY & THE WAILERS Talkin' Blues (Tuff Gang, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—The prospect of previously unreleased live and studio Bob Marley recordings culled from the vaults is enough to make one shudder; hearing them now, nearly 10 years since his passing, the music and impact of the Wailers is still indelible and undeniable. These tapes of 1973 live-in-the-studio radio broadcasts from California radio station KSAN are interspersed with other studio outtakes and excerpts from a Jamaican radio interview from 1975—the pairing of words and music underscores the missionary, visionary quality of Marley's best work. Closing out this excellent set is an absolutely glorious live rendition of "I Shot The Sheriff" taken from the same concerts that were documented on the celebrated Live! album, but this is a version which has never been heard before. As wondrous as these Marley recordings are in themselves, their message also has tremendous relevance and impact upon the current musical scene, even over 15 years later. Let it be considered by all reggae musicians, new and established, that Marley came to command the greatest empire ever built in reggae music, owning his own record label, headquarters and thousands—no, millions—of followers around the world, and he did it not by following the latest trends or cashing in on market dictates and tastes. He was true to himself, and he became the guiding light of a whole generation and genre of music, all without a single computer-program, synthesizer or rhythm track, without slackness, boasting or attacking his competition. He did it by staying true, watchful and mindful of the roots, heritage and religion that first spawned his music and formed the fire that burned at its core.

like is a wine cooler jingle or a bad Police track. Fortunately, Englishman (who actually is based in the Washington, DC, area) knows how to utilize new sounds and high technology to augment his own musical statements without being eaten alive by the machines—even a song called "Computerize" rings true with emotion and feeling. Check For The Best ends up sounding surprisingly "authentic"—for lack of a better term—compared to much of the synthesized, overprogrammed and canned-sounding stuff that many musicians (even Jamaican ones) pass off as reggae these days, proving one of the eternal axioms of this column: Reggae music isn't tied to any one group of people in a particular place or places, but that rather, it's a music of the people, and if your heart is in what you do and it shows, it doesn't matter where you may be from or headed to.

ENGLISHMAN Check For The Best (Mad Dawg, c/o Rizenstar Productions, P.O. Box 2500, Kensington, MD 20895)—Usually, these days, it seems I cringe more and more every time as I sit down to listen to an album and I see words like "sampler," "Emulator" and

"sequencing" in the musician credits. It's not that I don't like technology or new sounds, it's just that so many of these tools of production end up overpowering the performers who fall prey to relying upon them, swallowing them up in their quest to sound fresh and new, until all they sound

News from a Loud World

The ARGH!!! Blackmail Contest #3: The first caller to identify this by now scandalized rocker will win something cool! Hint: He may be just a "hunk" now, but three years ago this self-proclaimed "Rambo Of Rock" played a custom-made "Automatic M-60 Guitar," toured with Alice Cooper, and vied with Danzig in the steroid stakes. (Congrats to last week's winner, Woody from Caroline—again.)

ABOUT THAT EUROPEAN TOUR . . .

American bands cancelling overseas tours in the wake of the very popular Gulf War include Slaughter, Cinderella, Winger and Circus Of Power, and although openers Warrant have backed out, Diamond David Lee Roth's European tour will kick off as planned on Feb. 22nd. At least, as of now. . .

POMO SUMMER TOUR A LOLLAPALOOZA

Plans are currently underway for "Lollapalooza," a massive summer tour featuring headliners Jane's Addiction with six or seven other bands hitting 15-35,000-capacity venues. The plan is to have the all-day shows start at noon (with a mid-afternoon break), with local bands playing on a separate stage while the main acts tear down. Scads of names are being bandied about, but at press-time only Siouxsie & The Banshees had confirmed. Details are still sketchy, but plans call for the tour to start on July 19th in Phoenix and finish August 20th in Dallas. Ambitious as this sounds, bear in mind that last month Jane's sold 32,000 tickets in one day for their five shows at LA's Universal Amphitheatre, and are headlining Madison Square Garden on April 24th.

PEPPERS PLAY HOT POTATO

Contrary to the reports from which we took our report a couple of months back, it looks like the Red Hot Chili Peppers will be signing with Warner Bros. instead of Epic (reportedly, some legal loophole nixed what apparently was a done deal). The band may be forced to record another album for EMI before they're free.

HAMMER OF THE DOGS

The Seattle all-star grouping previously referred to as "Bonegarden" or "Lovegarden" is actually called Temple Of The Dog, and their self-titled LP will be released on A&M on April 16th. The album was recorded over weekends last fall by vocalist Chris Cornell and drummer Matt Cameron of Soundgarden with members of Mother Love Bone, and is intended as a tribute to deceased Love Bone vocalist Andrew Wood. Much rootsier than anything either band has done previously (Hendrix often springs to mind), the album finds Cornell freed from his confining lovegod-head image, exposing more sides to his musical talent than his past work even suggested — he spends a lot more time singing than shrieking. Sympathetic but laden with some harsh drug imagery, the album manages to evoke its inspiration without ever getting corny or tasteless, which is a hell of an achievement in itself. Not to worry: Soundgarden is set to begin recording its third LP in March (again with producer Terry Date) for an August release; the Temple suggests that it'll tear Louder Than Love to shreds.

FAITH FULFILLED

Finally off tour, Faith No More has been nominated for its second-ever Grammy (this time for the "Epic" single), and has been nominated for seven awards at the Bay Area Music Awards. The band recently released a live mini-LP in the U.K., containing eight live tracks (from the gold You Fat Bastards video); the CD and cassette add two long-lost songs, "The Cowboy Song" and "The Grade" (a smokin' acoustic slide showcase from Big Jim Martin) that were on the B-side of "From Out Of Nowhere." Martin will make his celluloid debut when Bill And Ted Go To Hell (yes, it's the sequel; oddly enough, Jim plays a musician) is released this summer, and although vocalist Mike Patton has recently been bouncing around with his other band Mr. Bungle (watch for an LP later this year), FNM will soon begin recording its fourth studio LP for release this fall.

FLESH WOUNDS IMMINENT

Godflesh will release a 7" through Sub Pop's single's club later this spring, and is currently at work on a four-song EP entitled Slavestate, due after the band's stint on the North American "Grind Crusher" tour next month. The Flesh will begin work on its third LP possibly during the tour, as sessions with Ministry/Wax Trax domo Al Jourgensen are planned for the tour's stop in Chicago. Check out "Wounds" (a monster bonus track on the CD of the band's first LP) and tell us that pairing won't be bustin' woofers worldwide.

ALBUM TITLE OF THE YEAR

Painkiller is a new project featuring jazzcore saxophonist John Zorn (Naked City), producer/bassist Bill Laswell (who produced Motorhead's Orgasmatron) and drummer Mike "Blast Beat" Harris (Napalm Death). As reported earlier, this evil session was laid down last month while Harris was vacationing in New York, and all three members sing. The LP Guts Of A Virgin will be released through Earache in Europe and more than likely come out through Combat this summer.

OH YEAH! GUESS WHAT . . .

Kiss will reportedly record its next album with hotshot producer Bob Ezrin, who produced the band's classic Destroyer, as well as Pink Floyd's The Wall and countless others. . . It looks like Enigma refugees Flaming Lips have signed with Warner Bros. . . Cycle Sluts From Hell and The Almighty are the opening acts on Motorhead's European tour. First date: the Hammersmith Odeon. That's a long way from the Lismar Lounge. . . Mind Funk shot a video for "Big House Burning" in Chicago with H-GUNN (Ministry), Louie Svitek of Mindfunk is playing guitar on the new Ministry single, and perhaps the whole album. . . Kreator will begin their tour March 8 at Sundance. . . Boston's Nuclear Assault's John Connelly has been signed to In-Effect for a solo project called John Connelly's Theory, making Anthony Bramante the only Nuke not to release a solo project (the Yes of thrash? Could be. . .) Some might remember Megaforce's 1985 retrospective compilation From The Megavault, which featured lots of rare tracks and even rarer photos that could provide us with years of Blackmail contests. Deeper Into The Vault will be out later this month, and features tracks from the first album, as well as lots of new surprises: the original version of Blitzkrieg's "Blitzkrieg" (much covered by Metallica), an early version of Testament's "Burnt Offerings" (recorded when the band was still called the Legacy and featured Steve "Zet" Souza on vocals), an M.O.D. Gross Misconduct outtake, a rap tune from the Lone Rager (Johnny Z. in disguise), super-rare B-sides from Mercyful Fate and Venom, and lots more. . . Tad has been chosen for a role in the next film from Cameron Crowe (Fast Times At Ridgemont High, Say Anything), to be called Singles and — God help us — set in the midst of the Seattle music scene. The film will star

Ex-Rush producer Terry Brown will produce the next Fates Warning LP. ... Morbid Angel begins a U.S. tour on Feb. 23; Cyclone Temple next month... Death, or shall I call them Charlie's Angels, are set to enter the studio to record their next LP Human with Chuck, Cynic drummer Sean Reinert and Sados bassist Steve DiGiorgio... In a strange turn of events, James Murphy has left Obituary. Original founding guitarist Adam West reportedly is back in the fold as the band is preparing for their next LP... Sick Of It All is at work on their second LP, due this summer... The record division of Torrid Records has ceased operation; the company will restructure and pursue management (Gothic Slam is among their clients). Torrid's bands will be going to other labels; perhaps of more concern to our readers, Motley Stewart Morales is currently back at WRTN, but has "other fires cookin'" in his inimitable phraseology (see his dialogue in the back for further details)... Metallica's next LP — produced by Bob Rock and reportedly more back-to-basics than the elephantine Justice — has a tentative June release date... Nuclear Death are set to record their new LP for Wild Rags, due late in the spring... The new Last Crack record is titled Burning Time and should be out in April... Caroline has signed the amazing Henry Rollins, as well as Chicago's highly touted Smashing Pumpkins, who are currently recording their debut LP Cish with producer Butch Vig for release this spring... Black Sabbath's criminally underrated 1983 Born Again LP will soon be reissued through Metal Blade-WB... Produced by Scott Burns, it's a monster and should be out in late spring through Roadracer... Immolation will record their debut Dawn Of

Possession with producer Harris Johns (Voivod, Celtic Frost)... Roadracer has signed a deal with Nuclear Blast for Atrocity's Hallucinations LP. The album has been remastered with lots of bottom end for the domestic release... Vio-lence is releasing "Torture Tactics" as a single with two non-LP B-sides: "Gutterslut" and a goof song called "Dicks of Death" that features each member singing a verse... Industrial grind freaks O.L.D. seem close to re-inking their deal with Earache. Once resolved the band will immediately begin recording their new LP... The new Forced Entry LP As Above, So Below will be released through Combat on May 21. The album was produced by Tom Soares at Normandy Studios and is a major improvement over their debut — possibly the most innovative thrash record this year!!!... Sanctuary are currently touring with Forced Entry guitarist? and are still seeking a full-time replacement. Interested parties should send a tape, bio and photo to Sanctuary at P.O. Box 1511, Renton, WA 98057. As usual, no bozos... Overkill are currently in pre-production for their new LP with new guitarists Rob Cannavino and Merit Gant (ex-Faith Or Fear). The album is tentatively titled Overkill V: Bare To The Bone and due through Megaforce this summer... NWOBHM semi-legends Praying Mantis have finished recording Predator In Disguise, their first new studio LP in years. (Last year they released a live album in Japan.) ## Mind Funk "Metallic Alchemy"

By Kevin Sharp

"Chello Sharp!" Promo whiz-kid Jackie Farry grins her patented wide-mouthed smirk as I arrive on the thirteenth floor of the CBS building. I return the sarcastic greeting by chattering in Spanish, "Buenos dias! Como estas Miss Farry? Que pasa!" Ah! Sarcasm, the root of all friendship.

At this point, LA transplant Pat Dubar strolls around the corner. "Yo' dude! What's going on bro'?" I continue the friendly exchange of bad humor, "How's the pool-side LA rocker scene? Sucked, didn't! I can tell you missed the stench of the city—come on, liberate it!" A day in the company of Mr. Dubar should be considered a good one in any book, but this one was compounded by the excitement of not seeing him since he left to record the dandy LP that brought us both to the house of Epic that day.

Together we walked down the hall into some kind of conference room, and that's when the real sideshow began. All of Mind Funk was present (except the ever-handsome Reed St. Mark), and since I'd been assigned the absolute last slot in an ugly two-day interview marathon, I knew what to expect: Guitarist Jason Cappola woke up long enough to spew some negative comments on the latest Jean-Claude Van Damm movie (actually, I can't blame him—that couch was quite a pleasant thing for napping), while guitarist Louis Svitek announced in his best game-show host voice, "Hello and welcome! This is the Kevin Sharp interview with Mind Funk! Today, he'll be speaking with Pat Dubar and John Monte, formerly of Uniform Choice and M.O.D.!" Let the show begin.

Indeed, we are talking about a band that most will agree is the first to exceed its hype—don't believe it, 'cause Mind Funk is even bigger than people say. The story has been told at least a hundred times, but here's one more: vocalist Pat Dubar (former bald screamer of Uniform Choice), John Monte (ex-M.O.D.), drummer Reed St. Mark (ex-Celtic Frost), and guitarists Louis Svitek (ex-M.O.D. and Zoetrope) and Jason Cappola (ex-Chemical Waste) finalized their line-up last year, played less than ten shows, enjoyed a bidding war matched only by the likes of a Red Hot Chili Peppers, and were shipped off to a Denmark studio to record their debut so fast that it seemed like a hit-and-run dream.

As Jason nodded back out on the couch, Louis scatted off to tend to some prior engagement, while Pat and John stayed to discuss Mind Funk's hard reality trip. "I couldn't see M.O.D. doing this type of music," John reflects on his former band. "There was like a wall for us to experiment musically, we wanted to do things but of course M.O.D. was Bill's band. When we wanted to present new music and progress, everything was 'no.' We just realized that it was time for us to move on, we just had too much inside us that we couldn't hold in anymore. I see a lot of the riffs we were coming up with towards the end might have been on the M.O.D. record, but not as progressive as they've come out to be." Pat adds, "I think all of the individuals in the band have been progressing towards this, but because of the musical situations that we've been in in the past, we were unable to do it. I think now we're getting a chance to do what we really want to do."

"We're not a thrash band—save your money!"

What they've progressed into could easily be tossed into that grey area of alternative metal, yet that would be a cop-out. The sounds of just about every type of rock genre comes through at any given moment. Where some bands take short-cuts and say, "Here's the power metal song, that's the retro one and that one over there is the punk number," Mind Funk combine their influences at all times, creating a style that's so accessible it should be obvious, yet it's not. Although that may sound a little too cerebral or complex, the combination of all members' explosive input is dangerously simple—excellent musicianship, ideas and songwriting (most really good bands only tag on two—or less).

"Basically, what we are doing now," Pat offers, "is five individuals that have their own unique styles, ways of playing and influences, and it comes together like a melting pot. The result is Mind Funk. Musically, we all wanted to write stuff that's real heavy, has a lot of balls, a lot of guts and still comes from the soul and is real honest, but at the same time, have something that people can grab onto—it has hooks and it's accessible 'cause we want to drive our ideas home this time. We have the ability so we're gonna do it. I think basically it's due to the musicianship that this is more accessible, but I don't think it's lost any of the heaviness at all, it's just been perfected a lot more." John adds, "When you say 'commercial,' I don't believe that. . . I don't believe our music has become commercial. It's very accessible, but we kept the heaviness. When we first started this, because of the heaviness in our past, there was no way we could wimp out and lose that edge.

"We're not a thrash band—I've said this before and I'm sure a lot of people are expecting us to be Celtic Frost, M.O.D. and Uniform Choice combined into one and they're not gonna get that." "Save your money!" Pat interrupts. John continues, "They are gonna get something very heavy, but very musical, very accessible and more listenable than that. We could have very easily written a record like that but we didn't want to."

Although most "super-group" situations tend to have some kind of dominating musical force, due to egos or whatever, Mind Funk have a sort of copacetic understanding. "There's definitely no star-trip in the band," explains Pat. "We're all equally good musicians. We write in such a way that everyone gets to shine here and there—everyone has their moment in the sun on the album. Everybody does their own thing and nobody's asked to change their style. We don't tell each other, 'You can't have that many leads in a song, you can't put a bass lead there, you can't do this or that 'cause you're stepping on my toes.' A lot of times you may have to cut out a part because you're stepping on somebody else's part

ON THE CHARTS

Yawn. Megadeth continues to lead the pack at the Loud 100 and College while recapturing the Commercial chart, and Slayer holds at #2 and also takes the Audience chart. Wrathchild America scores the #1 Adventure pick for the second week in a row, with Saigon Kick and Fear Of God hot on its heels. Elsewhere, Alice In Chains continue its slow climb (9-8), as well as AC/DC moving back up (11-9). Down the road we find important movement from Agony Column (16-12), Godflesh (21-19) and Spinal Tap (37-31). The ever-mighty and ever-manly Motorhead single enters at #44 (just wait'll you hear the LP), while other important jumps include Queen (44-32), Exhorder (46-33) and Obituary (43-34). Keep your eyes peeled for Spinal Tap, Motorhead and the Steve Morse Band. Smell the glove...

LOUD ROCK PICKS!!!

MOTORHEAD 1916 (WTG, c/o Epic, P.O. Box 4455, New York, NY 10101-4455/ 212-445-4321)—Despite a career filled with bad timing and even worse luck, few would grudge Motorhead their place in the Hall Of Fame. They're burned and pillaged for over fifteen years, and one would have assumed that they would have kept on touring and making albums as dull as Rock N' Roll (their last studio effort) until there wasn't a single Motorhead fan left alive. WRONG! After fifteen albums on eight different record labels, Motorhead has finally made the album that nobody suspected they could. Until now, they'd never had the budget or the time to spend several months in the studio, which is why their sound had never really "progressed" (not that it needed to). But 1916 finds the band at last reaching its full recording potential, crystallizing their traditional style on several scalding new tracks, yet also exploring musical terrains that their previous work never even suggested. The chilling "Nightmare" is a menacing desert soundscape that's the most experimental song they've ever done, "Ramones" is an explosive 1:25 tribute to the three-chord kings of Queens, and the album's title track (ladies and gentlemen, Motorhead's first ballad) is a devastating tale of World War I's meaningless slaughter, reminiscent of Pink Floyd's The Wall (musically) and All Quiet On The Western Front (lyrically)—its bleak, dare-we-say "moving" lyrics are perhaps the best of Lemmy's career. As one longtime observer remarked upon hearing the album, "I never knew they could write 'real songs!'" Against all odds, Motorhead's time has finally come. Let no one deny them! (JA)

TREPONEM PAL Aggravation (RC-Roadracer, 225 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10012/ 212-219-0077)—Unusual and utterly unique, France's TreponeM Pal released their debut in '89, and although it received praise in our mag as well as many others, it passed almost unnoticed. An uncomfortable album (lyrical topics include rape and violence), it was far too much for radio, and I personally never saw a copy in any chain store. If the lyrics had people on edge, the music pushed most over it, with a complex industrial thrash blend that finally has come to light in recent years (Godflesh, Prong, Voivod). Aggravation finds the band stepping out even further musically, becoming less rock and more blunt, with heavy repetitive riffs and tribal rhythms that crush in quantity. Lyrically, TreponeM Pal are as vile—if not more so—as the last record, yet they somehow do it more justifiably than others; it seems to serve more of a purpose. The lyrics depict visions of perversions that lie in most of us, but because they're presented in such a loud and ugly reality, it makes most people uncomfortable, if not repulsed. TreponeM Pal are cerebral, not shock-rock. In the end, they trigger more of a response than than 110% of the bland cock-rock that has been spoon-fed to the masses for the past decade. After all, isn't it better to feel something—happy or sad, negative or positive, detached or tense—than nothing? Aggravate "Love," "Out With No Flag," "Fugitive Soul," "Sweet Coma" and the cover of Kraftwerk's "Radioactivity." (KS)

MORDRED In This Life (Noise-RCA, 5 Crosby St., New York, NY 10013/212-334-9268) While there's no question that "funk metal" as a direction has long past its peak, bands able to fuse their starting point into their own thang emerge from every "movement": Faith No More and Primus are the most obvious examples here, but damned if Mordred might not turn out to be one of 'em as well. Along with loads of other influences, the band uses its funkiness as icing on a straightforward but effective Bay Area-thrash base, and although we rolled our eyes when we found out that the DJ is now a full-time member of the band, he's tasteful as all hell, keeping the tricks short and sweet and often reminding us of Urban Dance Squad's DJ DNA—whether he's adding a sampled voice or scratching or just throwing in some weird disorienting shit, he's used as a musician. Likewise, bassist Art Liboon (the only remaining member of the band's original 1985 lineup) uses a funk-ish treble and tacful slapping to drive the lurching riffs which at times recall Anthrax's best. While vocalist Scott Holderby's sometimes just a bit too much like Mike Patton, and the band seldomly but sometimes falls head-first into cliché, Mordred manages to walk an incredibly fine line with their heads high. This album's not terribly original, but it's good—an essential listen for fans of Bay Area thrash and Anthrax as well as those of funkier persuasions. Flop "The Strain," "High Potency," "Esse Quam Videri" and especially the wild "Beginning." (JA)

KATMANDU Katmandu (Epic, P.O. Box 4455, New York, NY 10101-4455/212-445-4321)

—When Dublin-born singer Dave King first surfaced in Fastway at the tender age of 19, something about him stood out—I knew his strong vocals would mature and he would find his potential. Well, after two albums and more frustration from this business, he has struck his most consonant chord to date. Hooking up ex-Krokus/Asia guitarist Mandy Meyer, this combination has produced what could be one of the most successful hard rock debuts of the year—with a little help from MTV they could be on their way to the top. Strong songwriting and clever arrangements set them apart in an otherwise dim commercial rock market—variety is usually what debut artists forget, and things like a capella chorus effects break up the straight ahead ideas. Although the band is nowhere near filling its potential, this album is an artistic success, and deserves to be a commercial one as well. Dig "The Way You Make Me Feel," "Sometime Again" and the U2 cover "God Part II" (weird—that's the second metal U2 cover this month!) (RJ)

HALL AFLAME Guaranteed Forever (I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Suite #901, New York, NY 10012/ 212-334-2170)—Hall Aflame was formed spontaneously in an Aberdeen, Washington tavern last year when ex-Metal Church guitarist Kurt Vanderhoof and some friends "realized that none of us were in bands anymore!" Aberdeen is the home of legendary

Northwest titans Nirvana and the Melvins, but Hall Aflame sounds nothing like them, nor Metal Church, for that matter: this is straight-no-chaser early '70s rocker heaven (Montrose, Nazareth) with a hell of a commercial edge. Ron Lowd's (who, clever!) vocals are actually kinda like David Wayne's, but translate more easily the more basic format than Wayne's doom-and-destruction screech. Hall Aflame sounds like a band that's rediscovered playing just for the fun of it, and although comparisons are unfair, we think this the best album that Kurt's worked on since MC's debut. Ignite "Cold Wind," "No How," "Pray To God" and especially the single, "Shake The Pain." (JA)

STEVE MORSE Southern Steel (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608/ 818-777-4000)—Within the sea of guitar heroes of the past twenty years, few have the versatility and compositional skill of Steve Morse. This true master of the guitar brings yet another soon-to-be legendary album, and if this album doesn't catapult him to the commercial success that others in this genre of rock instrumentals (via MTV) have, there's no justice. Southern Steel brings a more fiery, harder and more accessible style to the masses—it's commercial but fierce. Morse is joined by bassist Dave LaRue and drummer Van Romaine, and those who have followed his career through the Dixie Dregs and the Dregs won't be disappointed: the melodic nature, adventure and edge are still there, but with a harder edge.

What sets Morse apart from the others is not only his playing (every damn note picked), but his ever-present classical feel (Bach is watching over his shoulder!). He does not merely write tunes, but pieces of such depth and longevity that one always finds new ways of listening to the music. These tunes have more drive than any other guitar record out there, or any rock record for that matter. Since there's not a weak spot on the record, it's tough to pick and choose, but there are a few pieces that stand out. If you doubt this genre then listen to "Cut To The Chase" (joined by guest guitarist Jeff Watson), "Sleaze Factor," "Arena Rock" and "Weekend Overdrive" and feel the genius. (RJ)

DINOSAUR JR. Green Mind (Sire-WB, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510/818-846-9090)—Long one of this fine nation's best and most esteemed indie rock bands, in 1987 Dinosaur Jr.'s awesome You're Living All Over Me was one of the first "alternative" albums ever reviewed in these pages: to this day, it's one of the loudest and nastiest records I've ever heard, and it'll strip the paint off of 90% of the "metal" albums out there. Back after an absence of almost three years, Dino '91 sounds more interested in writing lasting songs than having neighbors committed to mental hospitals, and although J's thin, reedy voice will scare away a large percentage of programmers, there's plenty of punch and grind: jolt "How'd You Pin That One On Me," the title track and especially "Thumb." (JA)

FEAR OF GOD Within The Veil (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510/818-846-9090)—Several years back, Dawn Crosby of Detente was one of the only full-on female metal singers of that or any time. The band released an album in 1987 and then... nothing. Well, Dawn's back with some of the most evil hellfire ever spat onto wax, an intriguing but patchy fusion of Jane's Addiction/Warrior Soul "art" and totally over-the-top evil-ness—Dawn makes Dio sound like Dondi. While the approach is actually pretty fascinating and Dawn's wild lyrics and ambitious multi-layered vocals sound like the hounds of hell, to me the elements just don't come together. Still, like Treponem Pal, they inevitably summon a violent reaction, and love 'em or hate 'em, Fear Of God is hard to ignore. (JA)

KING OF THE HILL King Of The Hill (SBK, 1290 Avenue The Americas, New York, NY 10104/212-492-1200)—Not unlike Extreme and others, St. Louis' King Of The Hill blend funk, rock, top-40 and latin influences into a strong commercial album. With a little help from producer Howard Benson (Bang Tango) creating a commercial edge, this album has a very high potential for crossing over into AOR and even CHR charts. If one of this album's elements stands out, it's the spontaneity of the songs: a live and raw feel shines through the clean sound, while lyrically we have all those important funky party themes ("Funk Me Boys" would be a good title for this album). If you like well-written songs with an eclectic, funky feel, check 'em out. Try "I Do U," "Party In My Pocket" and "Electric Riot." (RJ)

IGNORANCE The Confident Rat (Metal Blade-WB, 18653 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana, CA 91356/818-981-9050)—Hailing from the Nottingham area of England, Ignorance mix pop, thrash and funk into an at times dynamic fusion that is considerably weakened by this album's flat sound. The band sounds really young, and although there are some pretty bright flashes in the songwriting and the musicianship, Neil Duthie's vocals are crushed in the mix. However, Ignorance sounds like they're a good live band and there's potential aplenty here. (JA)

NAKED CITY Torture Garden (Shimmy Disc, JAF Box 1187, New York, NY 10116/212-334-4134)—The master of chaos and champion of improvisation, John Zorn has finally released material that didn't quite make Naked City's self-titled debut on Elektra (and by mutual agreement has been released here through Shimmy Disc and on Earache in Europe). While Naked City is nothing more than various shifting musicians adapted to all genres (with the only constant member Yamatsuka Eye of the Boredoms) focused around the wizardry of Zorn, Torture Garden squeals, reels and hurts more than any hybrid around today — I can assure you that this is THE ULTIMATE extremity, and it's also funny as shit. Although the band is almost destined never to tour, they do play sporadic shows here and there (last time in New York with the Ruins rhythm section). You'd be a fool not to catch this Naked City live, but beware of the mild-mannered NYC glam band of the same name. There are 42 songs—play it by ear! (PS to vinyl survivors: be sure it's on 45 rpm!) (KS)

SPINAL TAP This Is Spinal Tap (reissue) (Polymer-PG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-333-8000)—Finally available on CD (a mere eight years after its initial release), owning this album is almost as good as owning a video of This Is Spinal Tap—if you're like us, you'll probably have remembered every line in the movie before the CD has run its thirty-seven-plus minutes. The playing, songwriting, production (or maybe it's the mastering) and especially the lyrics are brilliantly retarded and archaic, which makes the album sound even better—this'll wrench yer ears more than Saxon's first LPI. Just in case anyone doesn't already know the songs, we recommend "Hell Hole," "Heavy Duty," "Big Bottom," "Sex Farm," "Stonehenge" and especially their legendary set-opener, "Tonight I'm Gonna Rock You Tonight." And just in case anyone didn't see it, we did an awesome interview with the band two issues back. (JA)

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

Kathie Reed, Relativity/Combat/
In-Effect, Torrance, CA (213)

212-0801 What a great season! The breeze is blowing, the wonderful smell of GRINDCRUSHER in the air! Ah, Combat/Earache what a maaarvelous week we have had! GODFLESH is making a beautiful chart impact—keep it up kids! The tour will blow you away, Godflesh, NAPALM DEATH and NOCTURNUS—it will be delightful, it will be devastating, it will rule supreme. Don't forget the rest of the current Earache support coming in, WE NEED YOUR HELP!

As a matter of fact, my boss, Cheryl "Anything for an add" Valentine has suggested that I stick myself in a large "ziplock" sandwich bag, with no food or water, until Godflesh is top 10. I don't have to tell you guys, frankly, the woman frightens me. So go, go, go! Keep the home fires burning for the MEGADETH crew as well. These boys have a Grammy Nomination for Rust In Peace and a killer thing going on metal radio!!! Thanks and let's not stop! Cool things the world should know. . . DARK ANGEL has recorded a godlike record Time Does Not Heal, watch for it, listen to it. Come February 15, you will become loyal followers. The new Chicago Metal Gods CYCLONE TEMPLE will be coming your way with their debut I Hate Therefore I Am, sure to please your wildest metal appetite!!!

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade
Records, New York, NY (212)

921-4370 I have returned from L.A. in the best of spirits! I got a sneak listen to the ARMORED SAINT record. I don't curse often, yet I will say that it's fucking amazing! I also saw our new AOR rock band JOHNNY LAW play two shows. What a great record! I listen to it constantly, as everyone in my office will agree. It heads your way in March. LETHAL continues to get added to great radio stations. This record has tested incredibly. Why don't you give it a try!!! Keep playing THE NEW WAVE OF BRITISH HEAVY METAL. Educate your listener on where today's metal came from. CANDLEMASS and ATHEIST are still touring and you should still be playing their records. The RHINO BUCKET story continues. a listen. Coming soon to you are IGNORANCE—these guys are amazing! Also be on the lookout for the FEAR OF GOD! You have been warned!

Jane Gulick, Taang! Records, Auburndale, MA (617) 965-5673

Me and Wendy had a really fun (and highway filled) weekend. . . Maiden and Anthrax in Providence was great (thanks Brian!) . . . Then we headed across town to catch Wargasm at the Campus Club where they were their awesome selves. . . Stayed up too late and searched for hot-dogs at 5:00 a.m., settled for a doughnut (ick) . . . Thought about coming in to the office on Sunday to catch up on some stuff, decided to go see Biohazard and Mucky Pup instead (the story of my life) . . . good decision (not the story of my life) . . . SLAPSHOT's van died in Connecticut so they had to bag their south-east dates (sorry!) . . . The MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES are taking their crazy ass show on the road so keep an eye out, they are legendarily fun. . . MAELSTROM's debut record is doing well. Play it if you're not, you've got great taste if you are. . . New TAANG! stuff in '91: the adrenaline rush debut record Get High from SEKA . . . DYS Fire & Ice (re-issue) . . . There is a strong possibility of a DYS reunion tour! . . . A brand new live DICKIES record . . . Re-issues of awesome currently unavailable POISON IDEA material . . . Take care of your bad selves and play a lot of Maelstrom!

Dot Roy, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 484-8200 Dear metal radio gods and goddesses, thanks a million for making WRATHCHILD AMERICA 3 Songs From 3-D the #1 Most Added Record its first week out! You know a hit when you hear it! And this is only a small sampling of what the full album has to offer. Yes, "Surrounded By Idiots," "Desert Grins," and "Draintime" are killer tunes, but you can also look forward to "Spy," "///" ("Parallel") and "Another Nameless Face." Wait! There's more!!! The CD bonus track of legendary Albert King's "I Ain't Drunk, I'm Just Drinkin'" is the perfect party anthem. The ever so amazing and huge Wrathchild America 3-D will be at your station by February 11. Another album destined for hugeness is SAIGON KICK. Their sound is so new and refreshing! No one seems to be able to describe this band. Check out their new single "New World" at your station now. Expect to see the Saigon Kick CD in its entirety on February 18!

Clarissa Garcia, Def American Recordings, Los Angeles, CA (213) 278-6699 MTV News just aired a story on SLAYER and how they filmed their latest video "Seasons In The Abyss" in Egypt. Filming in front of the pyramids is illegal, so the guards were bribed with bottles of scotch and porno magazines, which are forbidden in Egypt. Hey, whatever it takes, ya know? Speaking of video, as I write this, Def American is the site for DANZIG video auditions. The video to be shot is for "I'm The One" from Danzig II—Lucifuge. Danzig may be touring this March or April. I'll keep you informed. Slayer is on tour now, BULLETBOYS go out with Cinderella in March, and the FOUR HORSEMEN are playing at Gavin Convention. I can't wait. . . In less than two weeks, two major events will take place: KNAC's anniversary party/mega-show (with Ozzy Osbourne) and Frank Sinatra in one weekend, in one location: the Long Beach Arena. Hmm. . . should I wear a Slayer t-shirt to the Sinatra concert.

Ann Boleyn, New Renaissance Entertainment, Burbank, CA (213) 465-9777 Since we are temporarily without a radio promotions person, I'm taking the opportunity to do this dialogue myself. First of all, I'd like to voice my personal support for the troops in the gulf. I know that this is not "radio chat" but the subject is heavily on our minds here at New Renaissance. Many of our band members and staffers have friends and relatives in the gulf. We're behind you guys 110%. Aside from that, though, our minds are also busy with lots of new releases. TERRASPERE's debut LP Third In Order Of The Sun will be out in February as will the debut from WILDER. If you are into really fast, really heavy, really original thrash, then Terrasphere is for you. If you like the more melodic side of things, Wilder will probably do the trick. As many of you know, we have three new releases which were set to come out through Restless/Enigma on the Colossal or Medusa labels. These new releases were HELLION's The Black Book, KILLJOY's Compelled by Fear and the compilation LP entitled Search And Destroy. Unfortunately the release dates for these LP's have once again been put back, pending the reorganization of Enigma Records. However, we will notify you as soon as a release date is rescheduled. Currently THE UNSANE are finishing up their new LP The Slap Of Reality at Island Media Studio and AT WAR are in preproduction for Calculated Risk which will be produced and engineered by Valeri Gaina of the Soviet Union. IRON CHRIST is currently on tour and doing some dates with F.U.C.T.. Check them out if they come to your town.

Mark "Psycho" Abramson, RC/Roadracer Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077 On your desk now should be the RC debut by CEREBRAL FIX, entitled Tower Of Spitel These guys crush, if you don't have it yet, call me and I'll get it to you. Trust me: if you like bands like Candlemass and Paradise Lost with a lot of OBITUARY mixed in, then Cerebral Fix is for you. Keep playing KING DIAMOND; The Eye is a killer and should have your listeners frothing at the mouth. Call me for giveaways in order to satiate them! SADUS, OBITUARY and EXORDER are heaviness incarnate. Call me for giveaways and interviews, these bands are dying to talk to people. Coming soon are TREPONEM PAL's brilliant second release Aggravation, as well as an awesome new album from SEPULTURA. Recently, we here at Roadracer have been made aware of the sacrifice that Bridget Roy of Columbia fame is making for Alice In Chains by locking herself in a box. Well, we are willing to go beyond merely sitting in a box for our bands: we (myself, Scott Givens and Steve Prue) are going to imprison ourselves on a desert island until Sepultura goes number one in all trades and goes gold in sales. All mail should be forwarded to "Dudes on the Island, St. Thomas, South Seas." Anyway, from this island we'll be sending you the new R.D.P. release Anarkaphobia as well as the new 12" from HEATHEN featuring a godly version of the Rainbow classic "Kill The King." However, since mail is slow leaving these islands, don't expect them for at least several weeks. The best thing about going to this island however, is that finally Steve "pretty boy" Prue can stop whining about the weather!

Motley Stue (Stewart Morales)/Bill Batta, Torrid Records, Scarsdale, NY (914) 664-3885 Well, all good things must eventually come to an end. So it is with my two-year tenure here at Torrid Records. As of February 1, Torrid will be closing up its shop and I will be effectively laid off. Sounds depressing, eh? Well I don't feel that way. I am not one to be intimidated by our nation's current economic downturn, thus I should resurface somewhere quite soon. Of course if anyone has any info on upcoming gigs, I'd be very happy to hear from you. I will still retain my position assisting my good friend, Matt O'Shaughnessy with WRTN's Midnite Metal show in New Rochelle, New York. Warm thanks to all the cool people and cool bands: HADES (R.I.P.), MUCKY PUP, GOthic SLAM and TRASH BROADWAY. Former interns: Chris, Bill, Rebel and Marni. Thanks. I'll be in touch soon!!! . . . [A dialogue received several days later:] Lies, lies, lies. . . it's all lies! Torrid Records is still here, Mucky Pup is still here, and I am still here. But who am I? you ask. Well, Bill Batta is the name and Mucky Pup is the game. I have inherited the vast and limitless promotional throne from Motley Stue here at Torrid. I would like to thank the Motley one for showing me the ropes! Stu, you RULE!!! On to the business at hand. NOW is the time for all REAL music directors to play Mucky Pup NOW. The Mucksters are touring in the Northeast and Midwest during Feb., and more dates will be announced soon. Call me for shows, posters, bios or just to tell me that you hate having '70s clothes back in fashion. Till next time. . .

Kelly Webb, Retail Promotions, Big Chief Records, New York, NY 800-235-2442 Released on January 15th, AGONY COLUMN's Brave Words And Bloody Knuckles delivers a blast that's a lot more fun than, well, you know what. For all those who weren't slimed the first time around, the four-headed golem death machine will be joining Gwar for a national bout of mayhem beginning the end of February. Sicker than an oil slick (but better for you?). Speaking of sick (I'm a sucker for a good segueway) enter our Agony Column "Roadkill Retail" contest and win a beautifully preserved and suitably gnarly cow skull and a hand screened denim jacket. Call for gory details, posters, in-store play copies, etc. . . We also have suitably warped comics designed by the one and only PIZ. Hours of reading pleasure only a phone call away. Peace.

Frank Ritchie, Grudge Records, Nyack, NY (914) 358-7711 Hello all you metal directors, metal people and all other industry people reading this dialogue. As I am writing this I'm listening to "My Mother The War" by 10,000 Maniacs. It just reminded me about that dude Saddam Hussein and this wonderful war we are involved in. My thoughts of this war can be heard in the following songs: "Killer Of Giants" (Ozzy), "Peace Dog" (Cult), "Dirty Weapons" (Killer Dwarfs) and of course in "Games" by Grudge artists the JERSEY DOGS. These songs also happen to be personal favorites of mine. If I haven't gotten in touch with you metal directors yet, bear with me, I will. If you're already charting the Jersey Dogs, thank you and keep it up—if you're not, here's some help: play "Games." It's a good tune and it fits well with the world events. Till next time, enjoy the music.

Cheryl Valentine, Relativity/Combat/In-Effect, Hollis, NY (718) 740-5700 The streetlight on my block is fixed, yet the road remains dismal. Maybe it's all the grind and death metal I've been listening to. Ya know, everyone keeps tellin' me and Kathie that we're going to hell because of this Combat/Earache product. So be it! We're currently conjuring up a trip to the depths of hell. Details on this devilish brew will be revealed in the coming millennium. . . Speaking of television (huh?) did you happen to catch SCATTERBRAIN's debut on Headbangers Ball? How 'bout STEVE VAI's debut on MTV with his new "For The Love Of God" video? Then again, wasn't that that MEGADETH on Arsenio Hall? Excuse me—I said MEGADETH ON ARSENIO HALL? By the way, if anyone has a tape of this, please send it to me. I forgot what day it was when I turned my timer on thus disabling the recording of the correct broadcast. . . Poor, poor Kathie. Unless GODFLESH goes #1, she's doomed to ferment in that ziplock baggy. To recap: Kathie has been put in a plastic bag (ecologically unsound to boot) without food, water and air until such a time that Godflesh goes #1 on all the trades. "lck" was my reaction when I saw a polaroid of her condition. Have you ever seen a green, yellow or red pepper that was starting to go bad? Ya know how the severed edges get coated with that slimy film? Word has it that she couldn't be smelling "fresher" though. How long do you think it'll be before she turns different colors? One week? Guess ya better hurry and make our band #1. NAPALM DEATH is huge, MORBID ANGEL's right on their tails, CARCASS is sickening everyone and ENTOMBED are radio stars—it ain't over yet! SICK OF IT ALL had the highest debut (#35) on CMJ while Megadeth broke the record number of points for the #1 spot at FMQB. GRINDCRUSHER, MORBID ANGEL and CYCLONE TEMPLE (how's the single buckos?) tour dates comin' up.

Michael Brandvold, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538 Hey! Golden Gates is a special limited mini-album by DIAMOND REXX! The six songs are the vision of REXX's insane frontman, Nasti Habits. Check out the songs "Put 'Em On Ice" and "Lady In My Pocket!" The band, which features the return of their original guitarist S. Scot Priest (formerly of D'Molls), has never sounded better! Press and radio should be receiving their copies ASAP. If you want to be sure you get a copy. . . Call me!

Kathy Dovatov, Noise International, New York, NY (212) 334-9268 We're well into February and it's spring out. I feel like I'm in high school again, everytime I go out for lunch I have to fight an overwhelming desire to get a beer and head for Washington Square Park. The reason I don't cut out is because of my overdeveloped sense of responsibility. [Hate it when that happens—ed.] We've been pretty busy here lately. We've just released the long awaited debut from D'PRIEST, Playa Del Rock which means Rock Beach. The band is on tour so give me a call for guest lists. As you're reading this, there's a hefty package full of Noise stuff pushing it's way out of your mailbox and onto your players. Y'all be familiar with BATHORY, RAGE and TANKARD, so let me tell you about MORDRED! The follow-up to their debut Fool's Game is titled In This Life and it's quite different from the first. The band is still experimenting with their sound, incorporating various styles to their ever-present "Bay Area Crunch." So, if you've got an open mind and aren't afraid to expose yourself to new things, you'll love Mordred's version of hip-hop-metal. START A TREND! Personal trivia: Bridget dragged Chris, Yana and me to Chippendale's and was a wild woman. Get back in the box! Boston's Bosstones were mighty mighty. Cat Club is a great place to be when it's non-metal. And finally, I need some help: anyone interested in interning at Noise give me a call. Whopa, whopa!

Bridget "Out of the box" Roy/Kid Leo, Columbia Records, New York, NY (212) 445-4289 You said it was crazy, stupid, brilliant, hilarious, etc... All I know is that it worked. ALICE IN CHAINS is in the top 5 of the metal radio charts (we debuted at #4 in Foundations) and a lot of people at radio, retail, press and even at this record company were reminded that WE ARE GOING TO SUPPORT THIS BAND ALL THE WAY TO THE TOP. WHAT I DID: 1) I sat in a wooden box for two days/nights talking to anyone who would listen to me about Alice In Chains. 2) I got splinters. WHAT YOU DID: 1) You called me non-stop 24 hours a day (and I mean at 3 & 4 a.m.) to check and see if I was really in a box! 2) You stuck signs to the box saying "Please don't feed the Bridget." 3) You interviewed me about Alice live on the air in over 28 cities (thank you KNAC, Z-Rock and everyone else), as well as for various publications. 4) You overlooked certain zoning laws to make this happen. 5) You sent me food (beer), toys and photos of naked men to keep me entertained. 6) You stood six inches away from the box, pointed, laughed and talked about me LIKE I COULDN'T HEAR WHAT YOU WERE SAYING! (I truly know what a zoo animal feels like now). I WANT TO THANK ALL OF YOU WHO ARE SUPPORTING ALICE IN CHAINS. Now that I'm out of the dark, scary box I'm off to L.A. for some sun and the band's performance at the sold-out KNAC Long Beach Arena show with Ozzy, LA Guns and Friends. Also, look for the video for "Man In The Box." [Leo takes over] I commend Bridget Roy and coin-flip loser (winner?) Jim Pitulski for running a great lightning-quick offensive campaign. The ease and speed at which they reached the projected goal puts Jim Kelly and the Buffalo Bills' highly vaunted two-minute offense to shame. Good thing my beloved Giants didn't have to face the Columbia metal department. In fact, it was such a quickly executed plan that I suggested Bridget remain in the box until "Man In The Box" went #1. We're still sending out for more smelling salts. I applaud Bridget and Jim and now am trying to convince one of our bands to do a metal version of the Disney Academy Award winning song, "Under The Sea." I can't wait to see the promotional stunt for that one.

Steev Riccardo, Third Stone, Los Angeles, CA (213) 280-6880 By now most of you have probably heard at least the first single from the debut SAIGON KICK release. What do ya think? Well, you ain't seen nothing yet. The band recently shot their video of "What You Say" in L.A. and when it hits MTV the rest will be history. The buzz just keeps getting bigger and bigger. Jim Faraci is just about done mixing the debut release from CRYER, also on Third Stone/Atlantic. Get ready for an awesome bluesy/hard rock assault! The NEIGHBORHOODS are heading west for dates in mid/late February to destroy L.A. and San Francisco (including a date at Gavin). I recently was exposed (no pun intended) to RAW FLOWER, L.A.'s new all girl porno hardcore punk band from hell. Although it was a jam night and the girls played only 20 minutes, it was nevertheless pure satisfaction ala the Stooges/New York Dolls. The QUEEN record release party aboard the Queen Mary was sheer brilliance on the part of Hollywood Records. Unfortunately Brian May's jam with SIRCLE OF SOUL was their best in years, even though I've heard people criticizing it. Stuff in my deck: MIND FUNK, ELEVENTH DREAM DAY.

Susan Greenwood, MCA Records, Universal City, CA (818) 777-4118 By the time you read this dialogue you will have added the STEVE MORSE record (right?). By doing that, you will have made this metal promo geek very happy. STEELHEART: the #1 tracks at Z-Rock for three weeks in a row. They are on the road with Lynch Mob and TRIXTER is on the road with the Scorpions—call me for details.

RADIO DIALOGUE

Mike Emery, Metal Programmer, KAT Radio, San Marcos, TX (512) 754-7739 It has been a while since I had the infamous post-concert ear ringing, but after SLAYER had laid waste to the stage of Austin's City Coliseum, I seriously considered taking some hard core lip reading courses. Not only was the show good and loud, but it was probably the most lethal show to come into town since the last time they played. Not to exclude opening act TESTAMENT. These dudes were killer as well and put on a show worthy of a headlining act. I must extend a special thanks to Megaforce's Dan "The Man" Pinto and Def American's Clarissa Garcia for the tickets and V.I.P. passes. Speaking of Slayer, they are still at #1 on KAT's Loud Top 10. However, AGONY COLUMN is a threatening factor with Brave Words And Bloody Knuckles. Meanwhile, those teen heartthrobs from Earache, NAPALM DEATH, have proven to have a very solid (if not twisted) following. By the way, did anyone catch POISON on the American Music Awards? What a horrible live performance! Even METALLICA's nervous rendition of "One" at the Grammy Awards blew that away. At least a real metal dude like Dave Mustaine was on hand to present the best Hard Rock/Heavy Metal Award. Until next time, later dude.

Corey Harker/Scott Bastian, MINDIMAGERY, Golden Valley, MN (612) 591-4897 Well, here I sit looking over my new glossy ARGH!!!, and I think to myself, "Why don't we write in and tell all people what the hell we do." So now behind the loaded Mac keyboard I write. First off, my name is Corey Harker, and most of you have dealt with me in the past at KAVT in Austin, MN. My show "Uncontrolled Noise" was highly successful in that area, so I joined forces with Scott Bastian and Jeromy Sell to develop a production company devoted purely to all music other than the "norm." Soon we relocated to the Twin Tundras, built a studio, and now are ready to put a new revamped version of "Uncontrolled Noise" into syndication. We are currently still airing the series on KAVT, and it is doing exceptionally well. If anyone is interested in taking a look at the series give me a call, and we'll send you a tape! S.O.S. to all applicable record types! We need your help. If we aren't on your mailing lists, please put us on quick. Thanx to everyone who has helped us out so far, especially to Kathy (Noise), Jake (Red Decibel), Judy (AIM), Bill (MCA) and Dan (Megaforce). If you've got any question about any of our programming, or just want to plain hear the show, GIVE US A CALL! Until next time. . .

Shawn "Death" Williams, WDNW, Auburn, NY (315) 255-1743 ext. 284 Oh wow! It's been so long. I saw GWAR—oh man, you have to see this band. Saw SICK OF IT ALL/AGNOSTIC FRONT three nights in a row—third nite was blessed with the godlike presence of BIOHAZARD! ANTHRAX/IRON MAIDEN: very cool day. Got to go on stage with Maiden, partied with super cool dudes Michael Schnapp and Brian Lima. Saw LIVING COLOUR/URBAN DANCE SQUAD—amazing! Just found out I'm going to be able 2 c that show again. Got a bunch of godlike demos: LAUGHING DEAD, STEEL PROPHET, FORTE, THRASH FORWARD, MORTA SKULD, THOUGHT INDUSTRY AND MANN-SLAUGHTER! That SAIGON KICK album is great. Adam needs the OVERTHROW album—anyone with a phone # or address please call. Cool HEAVY demos—call!

Jen Cardany, WSFX, Nanticoke, PA (717) 821-0933 Very interesting events are about to unfold at L.C.C.C.! The Pennsylvania Area Regional Conference, sponsored by the National Association of College Broadcasters, will be held here on Saturday, April 6th. This one-day event will feature guest speakers from the radio, television, music industries and will cater to the interests of college broadcasting students. Watch for our ad in this very publication! Those hungry for more info can call or write us, attention: me or Ron Reino. Also, for those interested in distributing promo and/or other goodies, booth space is free—arrangements must be made by February 22nd! Spread the word—y'all come! I got a bail, but before I go, I absolutely must mention the killer shows I recently attended: I was ripped by JUDAS PRIEST/MEGADETH, shredded to tiny pieces by IRON MAIDEN/ANTHRAX, pureed at the Super Bowl of Hardcore IV and turned into a doggie doo snocone by the glorious GWAR. Heaps of gratitude to Jim Pitulski, Cheryl Valentine, Mike Rittberg, Missi Calazzo, Steve Poss, and extra special thanks to Mike Schnapp for making a dream come true!

Alan "Metalan" Obermeier, Metal Director, KYMC, St. Louis, MO (314) 434-5710 I'm the new metal director (an uncompensated position) here at KYMC. Although first impressions are critical, I must risk all by beginning with a piss/moan introductory dialogue. I inherited a library containing fewer than 150 albums/singles. To make matters worse, this town hasn't attracted a real headbanging live show in several months. Providing nine hours a week of non-redundant programming is a major undertaking! On any given week, our library lacks at least 50% of the artists/titles on the charts. We need replacement servicing (both current and back-catalogue) from you radio promotion reps. If you don't sendola, I can't playola! [Kinda unfortunate choice of words, dude—ed.] We prefer CDs, but any media would be appreciated. When we play it, we do say it. Please, help. Otherwise, my next dialogue may be to advise you of a radiothon to raise money for my defense fund after being busted for shoplifting at the local record store. We play anything hard, emphasize hardcore, underground, thrash, speed and death metal. Thanks to those of you that have sent me recordings. College radio rules! S.O.S. (Save our show!) Send music. Giveaway stuff would be nice too.

that's real cool. We haven't, to this point, had to deal with a full attitude 'cause we don't come from that school of thought." John adds, "In this band, I don't think it would happen that way, because in the beginning, we always felt that things would happen based on the first impressions of how people felt. It had to come from the heart—like when we were first auditioning Reed or Jason, it had to click on first impressions or we knew it wouldn't work. We're real down-to-earth people and there is nothing phony about us, and if it wasn't like that, this wouldn't be Mind Funk."

"We're not a commodity. We want to be someone's favorite band—not just a band that someone likes."

Coming from various independent and underground projects, each member underwent a certain amount of pressure: financial, professional, or in Pat's case, the strain of simply existing for ten years without much progress. None of that could compare or prepare them for the pressure applied in the big leagues they entered. Who to sign with? Who will produce? Can you live up to the hype? All these things could and probably would have crushed most bands, yet John sees things in a different light. "It's a challenge for us. Since the beginning, they've thrown a lot of pressure on us, but I think that's what has made us a stronger band. Everything they've thrown at us we've conquered with flying colours. I mean, three weeks after Pat joined, they started bringing down major label people, important writers, throwing everything left and right and we had to rise above all of this. We chose the best label for us, we had a choice of many labels, but we also wanted to go with who was going to be the best for us. The pressure of that... in the beginning we were like, 'Wow, we're playing for all these people? Holy shit! Are we going to be able to do this?' Now we're ready to do anything. I mean, they sent us to Denmark, five guys that barely knew each other, by ourselves, to make a record. Living together—throwing five intense guys in a little apartment, in each others' faces, belching and farting! But I think all the pressure has made us a strong and powerful band. It's been more or less a challenge!"

Pat concludes, "We never really had a problem with that 'cause the music we write comes from the soul, it's what we believe in, so we had to make something that satisfied us; something where we could get up out of bed in the morning, look in the mirror and still feel good about ourselves. Personally, I've got to answer to myself and the other four in the band. If people like us, that's cool, if they don't, that's cool too. If we're huge, that's cool, if we're not, that's cool too. We didn't write songs for the radio and we don't make videos for MTV. We do this shit for us and it happens to be really good. We're not your general public band, like Vanilla Ice, Warrant, Poison, New Kids On The Block... none of those people are going to be into us and we don't expect that—we don't want that! We want to be a thinking man's band. We want to be someone's favorite band, not just a band someone likes.

"We've all paid our dues, it's like people are gonna say, 'Ah, these guys have only been at it for a year and they got it all handed to them.' That's bullshit, we're a band, not a commodity. We're not like a Warrant or Poison that's put together to make a lot of money and if you don't, fuckin' get away. We mean what we're doing and we'll do whatever it takes to make it happen. Pressure's not something that we have time to think about, because we know that if we're going to reach the levels that we want to, this is fuckin' nothing. We are going to be put in so many more stressful situations that what we've done to date is totally minor. The more you do things, the more ridiculous things seem. I mean, being nervous that Matt Wallace [Faith No More's producer] came to see us seems so ridiculous after all the other shit that has happened to us since then. But when he came to see us and we had absolutely nothing but a practice space and five or six songs, that was like the biggest thing in the world. Two months later, when Thompson and Barbiero [Producer/mixers to the stars] came to see us, it made Matt Wallace seem small—only because it was so long ago and we had done so much since then. With experience, you learn that you just can't worry about that, cause it's here now and gone tomorrow... just like a lot of things!"

One thing is for certain: Mind Funk is here today, and I'd say chances are they're gonna be here tomorrow.

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

Wendy Shlensky, College Radio Rep, Taang! Records, Auburndale, MA (617) 956-0698

Well, I just had the best weekend ever. Saw the Voodoo Dolls and Hot Box on Thursday. Went to Providence to see Iron Maiden and Wargasm on Friday and had a great time hanging out with Brian Lima and Michael Schnapp from Epic, Rich from Wargasm and Tony from Wild Child. Thanks for the fun. Decided not to go to Wargasm and Biohazard in NYC, so we went to Biohazard Sun. in Hadley and saw Mucky Pup, too. The whole show was awesome. Mucky Pup was so positive; it was really refreshing and inspiring. . . . Remember it's about helping, not hurting. Love not war extended our population. Unfortunately, we tend to forget about how great we have it, until we no longer do. Now that we are in this war, I believe that we have to finish it off. Remember Hitler, and how everyone thought he would be satisfied with every new acquisition. Now that we're there, we owe it to our brothers and sisters to support them. . . . OK, I said my piece on the war, now I want to say my ideas about what college radio is supposed to be about. Most college stations have been given the freedom to do whatever you want, why don't you truly use it? Yeah, it's cool to promote the music you really love, but every once in a while pull out something you've never heard before. And stop saying "Well, it does not fit our format," because you guys have the freedom to play everything just because it's there. You're not the new age, metal, ethnic, folk, blues or other specialty shows—you should be playing everything just because someone took the effort to find you and mail you their music. "It doesn't fit our format or I don't like it" just isn't good enough. Just give it ALL a shot, that's all I ask. I just want my music directors to portray this type of attitude to their staff. . . . And finally, news at Taang! MAELSTROM played to excited crowds in NJ and CT and are working on putting a tour together; SLAPSHOT canceled their mini-tour of the South—their van broke down in CT, but they are gearing up to brave it out to Europe. The MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES tour got shorter, but they'll have just played NYC and Boston when you read this, and I'm sure that I'll have loved the Boston show. They'll be playing at Moon in New Haven on Feb. 10, so if anyone needs to be on a list, just give a call. . . . Take care and think positive, 'cause thinking negative is just dumb and depressing.

Chancrela, Sub Pop Records, Seattle, WA (206) 441-8441

I know it's been quite a while, but unfortunately, I had my dick stuck up my asshole and it took a while to get out since it was mangled in my yummy steamy stools. . . . Anyway, we have a new single from REIN SANCTION called "Creel," but I'd prefer to think of it as fucking oiled-up folds of flab in my free time. These guys need to gain some serious weight if they want hefty chicks to huff their stuff. . . . We've got TAD's 8-Way-Santa. Listen to the boys catch a little Kris Kringle up their cracks. It'll be the best backpacking session since Todd Bisson got up Gerard Cosloy's A-hole. (Circle the "A") . . . Speaking of which, we have a HOLE single, "Dicknail," on its way out. You might want to give this one a chance when you're wishin' for a little tuna on your breath. . . . And we've got BEAT HAPPENING's Dreamy LP. Join these folds from Olympia as they dream of mammoth mammaries dangling down crying to caress their private parts. . . . Well, folks, it's time for me to go. I've got some poon platter topped with viscous, yellowish-white fluid formed in the infected tissue, which consists of leukocytes, cellular debris and liquified tissue elements to tend to and some flossin' with the pubes afterwards. So if you're in Seattle and you want a hot chocolate date, give me a ring-a-ling. If you're lucky, I'll pork you in exchange for some Godiva chocolates. After all, chocolate for chocolate is a fair deal.

Scott Campbell, Commander In Chief Of Allied Forces, Nebula Records, Detroit, MI (313) 881-8158

I'm looking forward to meeting as many of you as possible at the IBS College Radio Convention in NYC March 1-3. If you don't know about it, call IBS or even your pals at CMJ. We'll be exhibiting in our usual spot on the convention floor and will be amply supplied with airplay copies, latex novelties and plenty of Mazola Oil for the long weekend. It will be nice to see if some of you have bodies or if you're just voice synthesizers programmed to recite "GIVE US PRODUCT! GIVE US PRODUCT!" I'm guessing the first is true. IBS is a lot more concerned with college radio itself over the showbiz atmosphere of some other conventions, and it gives us all a chance to really meet and talk about non-commercial radio in a low-pressure informal setting. If you make it there, come up and say "hi" to me. We can even circumvent the postal rate increase by handing station copies of Industrial Chaos or Mirror, Mirror soundtrack CDs directly to your station MD. Frankly, we need to save money somewhere. Latex novelty prices have shot straight up.

Bob Galvin, Sheisterfest Records, Franklin Park, NY (201) 422-7964

Am I the only one who feels that the "Is College Radio Dead?" argument is a moot point? A few years back, the major labels saw something they thought that they could exploit and so they purchased it. That changed the original purposes and responsibilities of college radio but that is an inevitable trait of capitalism. Most of you are sold what is hip, told what is new and asked to play shit by a sea of marketing whores. We are hopeful that one day we too can use these tools to catapult our releases into the top ten, but we can't so we bitch and you continue to play the game. I hope this burst of wisdom will bring to an end all stupid panel discussions about the topic! With that, look for the BREATHERS' third EP, Bullet Kiss, to be in your hands late February. Also check out a new track from the band on the New Route sampler out this month. I won't be calling you because we can't afford it and I hope if you choose not to add the Breathers it is because you have 35 local bands you're playing!!!

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

I'd just like to say hi and thanks to Adam from WFPR, James at WHCS, David at KBBU, Tracy at WXLV, Terry at KUOP, Julie at KUNM, Laura at KMSA, Elizabeth at WCCX, Bob at KSCV, Trent at WLRC and Craig at WLCV. I've never spoken to any of them before, I have no idea if any of them are playing our records, and I'm pretty sure I don't even service most of them. But I thought it would be nice to just say hi.

Tom T., Mango/Antilles Records, New York, NY (212) 995-0202 ext. 223

Awww-rite-tee—yep, the Jints are World Champs and all's well in Da Apple; at least for the month of February. Did any of y'all catch Vanilla Ice (Baby) on Arsenio Hall? Now Arsenio ain't the world's hardest interrogator, but he was time enuff for Ice (Baby). Our boy came off as an evasive, insecure, carpetbaggin' weasel; jive to the max. Funny how only the most blatant phonies (Dice 'n Ice) wilt under this mental giant's probing questions... Anyway, back to the reason why I'm here—music. ASWAD's U.S. tour began on Feb. 16 in Eureka, CA, and will continue 'til the end of March and possibly beyond. Too Wicked is still rolling with the hot sauce as well as AMINA's Moroccanroll debut Yalili. (Did you catch her singing in the "Give Peace A Chance"... in tune?) Radio seems to be in to RAY LEMA's new Gala. The River by Cliff Fernald fave ALI FARKA TOURE and the right nicety Jamaica Go-Go soundtrack; muchas gracias. Also, A Lonesome Thing and Quintergy by masters FRANK MORGAN and J.J. JOHNSON respectively, are proof positive that Antilles may turn out to be the new-sure-thing dynasty of jazz and You Are There. Ceeeeeeeeee Yalili!!!

Jill Maxick, National Alternative Promotion, Chrysalis Records, New York, NY (212) 326-2337

On February 25 all my "alternative" stations, college and commercial, will have their own copy (for adds) of the GANG STARR CD Step In The Arena. Many of you already have this on your rap shows, which is why it's currently a Top 5 rap album according to Gavin. Some of you have even reported seeing their video for "Just Ta Get A Rep" on Fox's Pump It Up. Those of you attending the Gavin Convention will have the chance to see Gang Starr perform live at a Thursday night rap showcase (2/14) at Townsends. They'll also be around for the Cocktail Party and other festivities. For those of you who don't know, Gang Starr started getting increased attention after Spike Lee tapped them for Mo' Better Blues, which spawned the track "Jazz Thing." Two characteristics that distinguish Gang Starr from the rap pack: Lyrically, they replace infantile macho bragging and posturing with intelligence and positivity. Musically, they sample freely from jazz with a smooth and mellow delivery. Our next release will be Churchtown—the first Ensign album from Dublin's INTO PARADISE—due in March. New records I like: Blue Rodeo Casino LP (twangy and Beatlesque simultaneously); Drivin' N' Cryin' Fly Me Courageous LP (both of these deserve to be all over AOR radio as well as alternative); Material Issue International Pop Overthrow; and Too Much Joy's (forthcoming) LP Cereal Killers. What I didn't like: Watching my hometown lose the Super Bowl to my current home. (Sniff.)

Suzie Racho, "Flag waving not a specialty," Alias Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 546-1863

Yo. After two years of this college promo thing I'm moving into A&R and production. Effective immediately, Giana Bernardini is now the queen of radio promotion. Thanks to those who made this job more than a kick in the head day after day! Until we meet again, hope for peace.

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

I want to say a big "thanks" to Toni and Marsh at WSFX for last week's MONKEY-SPANK telephone interview. For all future interviews, we will be hiring actors to portray bandmembers... Speaking of Monkey-spunk, their CBGB show will now be on March 14, and they'll be at Beowulf on the 15th. We also got in the new pressing of Daemons Flew Out Of My Mouth, on limited edition translucent green vinyl!!! I knew I'd forget a cool MD in my list of "thank you's" a few weeks ago, Skizz at WCVT... Many thanks for charting Monkeyspank, JADE, et al., and thanks to Berserk for playing a killer set at the BUTT-STEAK CD release party!!! Keep your eyes peeled for those Buttsteak and MOON-CALVES CDs. They'll get to you eventually, if not sooner...

Jay Septoski, Alligator Records, Chicago, IL (312) 973-7736

Greetings. By the time you see this you should have your copies of the latest offerings from LITTLE CHARLIE AND THE NIGHTCATS and ELVIN BISHOP. Do yourself and your listener a favor, put them in regular rotation as soon as you can. If you're going to Gavin, keep your eyes open for myself and my counterpart, Derek Ault, the pleasure will be ours. Until then, unchain your excellence.

Marla Perlman, SRO Marketing/Promotion, Los Angeles, CA (213) 652-9002

How come JELLYFISH didn't get all the attention deserved for "That Is Why" after such fine groundwork was laid? Maybe the "build a good base" theory is dead. The entire Red Hot + Blue project is pretty great. Exceptional are the pieces done up by the JUNGLE BROTHERS and KIRSTY MACCOLL and the POGUES. INXS is on tour. Where/when?: 2/22 & 23 Philadelphia; 2/25 Worcester, MA; 2/26 Hartford, CT; 2/27 Syracuse, NY; 3/1 Landover, MD; 3/3 Lexington, KY; 3, 4 & 5 Auburn Hills, MI... To name a few. All retail peeps, it would be in your best interest (not to mention Atlantic's and the band) to partake in the festivities which surround the INXS contest. A simple display could send you to Australia (where the Chills, the Bats, The Clean and other greats don't come from) or provide you with a new CD player (which you cannot play vinyl on); if you need info or p.o.p., call me at 800-937-7687. Tell 'em Sal sent ya. Sal was my turtle. He died a few days ago. That's OK though. I still have the dogs. Andy, could you send me something nice from your label? I hear it's real feel-good type stuff.

John Butler, TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

WE MOVED!! These are our new digs: 23 E. 4th St. New York, NY 10003. New phones are (again): (212) 979-6410 and fax: (212) 979-6489. I can't wait till it gets warmer and all the NYU girls come out of hibernation. The new space is much larger and "the video arcade" atmosphere has been eliminated. I guess I won't be screaming into the phones as much! Since we're a couple of doors down from Island, I'm expecting many a water balloon fight with Glenn Boothe in the future. Until then, pegging his windows with snowballs will have to do! THREE MERRY WIDOWS is a band that you'll be hearing a lot about in the coming months. They've just finished recording their debut called Which Dreamed It? and are getting ready to tour. I cannot tell you how excited I am about this record. When you get it, go somewhere quiet and dark, put it on your stereo, sit on the floor and take a ride. I'll be asking you soon about what you hear and see! Pray for peace...

Andy Wombwell, Radio Promotion, Wax Trax Records, Chicago, IL (312) 252-1000

I realize that in this time of crisis, what with this war thing draggin' on, not to mention that nasty catfight between the Price Is Right models the other day, that talking about a record seems somehow, I don't know, insignificant. And that if I tried to use this time to shamelessly plug any of our new releases (those being the new singles from COIL, CHRIS CONNELLY, CYBERAKTIF and SKATENIGS) that might make me look somewhat shallow. And I wouldn't want that, because I do care what you all think. Let's just suffice it to say that there are a few things coming in the mail that should help you divert your attention from all the unpleasanties... And hey, by the time this is in print Anything But Love will have at last returned to the air. Now back to Dan and more Showdown In The Gulf (the making of...)

Doug Schoemer, First Warning Records, New York, NY (212) 925-7220

I am freshly returned from my maiden voyage as a member of "The Biz" to El Lay. What an impressive sight that city is, but I could live without the scornful looks I got when I asked where the subway was. I also discovered that a public bus system is definitely a creation of the L.A. Law writers. Anyway, the purpose of my visit was to greet DIVINE WEEKS, our newest roster member. I got to see the band play at some goth/metal club called God Save The Queen. Great, great show. Single by the band in April, record in September... You all should have the newest from the JOLLY BOYS by now, featuring Tipper's newest fave "My Pussin'" (we're trying to get Annie Sprinkle for the video, but she's real expensive), but I'll let my compadre at Ryko wax further poetics on this one, an if we're lucky maybe he'll go off on one of those profanity jags he's so (in)famous for... New news: We have dipped once again into the magical pool of Nashville alternative hard rock and come out with GUILT—look for their debut EP, Thru The Night, in late March... In our marketing department's most ambitious effort yet to boost sales of CLOCKHAMMER, I am revealing here for the first time that all three of guys were at one time actual ghostlovers of Demi Moore in previous lives, so if Oprah's talent coordinator is out there somewhere, our lines are open... How long before we start receiving demos from bands with names like Scud, Bouncing Betty Bomblets or Colin Powell?... Little Sister is watching.

Greg Dubrow, Sky Records Inc., Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759

I bumped into Belinda and Jane of the Go-Go's this week on the street. They were so disappointed when they found out I wasn't wearing Bugle Boys. You know, if this trend continues, don't be surprised to see Iggy Pop in a Pepsi commercial soon... Why do I get the feeling while watching the State of the Union address that George Bush seems to be worried more about the state of every other union than the one he was elected to govern? Seems to me that the real reason Saddam Hussein is mad at George Bush is because Bush keeps saying "sodom" instead of "Saddam." Might help to explain all that "devil-infidel" rhetoric he keeps spewing... I wrote it before, and I still mean it. Protests and marches are fine now, but let's see if people actually take steps to use energy wisely. How many of those protesting now will keep pressure upon elected officials to change the way this country operates? The time is now for a cohesive national energy policy with ample measures for encouraging conservation, and finding and promoting alternative energy sources. . . Music. . . The CHILDREN, CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES, SPOONER out now. FLAT DUO JETS in March. Need anything? Call me toll free (see above) or Mike Kondo at 800-442-3142.

Eric Brooks, Director of College Promotion, Luke Records, Miami, FL (305) 757-1969 ext. 342

It's a new year and with it comes new responsibilities and endeavors. First off, some informative 411—let your records reflect Luke Skywalker/Skywalker Records has been changed to Luke Records, 8400 N.E. 2nd Ave., Miami, FL 33138. Now, down to business steppin' into '91, already in your racks is the Gavin Report's "Record to Watch," "Dance All Nite" '12" from the POISON CLAN. Also, I am proud to present you with the new "Dance All Nite" house remix, it's slamin'!!! I'm still going for adds so get your playlists ready. Also taking the industry by storm is the first single from B.M.W. (Black Micaphon Weapons) called "Get A Lil' Stupid," also in your racks. So step into February with a new style called Go-Go Hop. . . "A combination of hip-hop strapped to a go-go track." This record was "made especially for those who like to swing but is dedicated to those standing with their backs against the wall. . ." For you unfortunate people that missed out on the As Nasty As They Wanna Be LP, here is your chance to get the next best thing spinning. . . Now out in the stores, the 2 LIVE CREW Live Album, that notorious Nasty Album. . . Get it before it's banned! Up and coming, several new acts for the new year as well as the new single off the banned LP, stay tuned. . .

Chuck P., Radio, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

NAKED RAYGUN appears to be ready for a South and West Coast tour. . . Make them feel at "Home" in your town! MUSSOLINI HEADKICK has just released their new "Get Out" '12" remix; if you're as concerned with the present political situation in the Middle East as MH is, play it! See Mussolini on tour with KMFDM this March! Eccentric Gregorian/industrial artist BORIS MIKULIC was denied entry into America, all interviews and appearances had to be postponed indefinitely, Boris was deeply disappointed. . . Our newest signing the SMASHING PUMPKINS are currently working on their spring release for Caroline and intend to do a small tour in the Northeast to show off their stylin' rock 'n roll, for a quick taste check out their new "Tristessa" '7" on Sub Pop. . . Chain up your garbage cans and hide your pets, Louisville's mighty KINGHORSE gets set to do a bunch of local shows. . . Coming up soon, skateboarder hero-gone-rock-god CHUCK TREECE will have a debut LP this May (produced by Ron St. Germaine!); NYC pop-rockers SPRINGHOUSE will have a debut LP, too. . . The LEGENDARY PINK DOTS will have a new LP, The Maria Dimension, this March. . . PUSSY GALORE will have a live LP soon. . . New Jersey's BLOODY STOOLS will have a record out on Rick Rubin's ILL label. . . Caroline/Megaforce will release Deeper Into The Vault, an extremely cool 14-song compilation of rare and unreleased stuff from S.O.D., M.O.D., Testament and Anthrax. . . The YOUNG GODS will have a Kurt Weill tribute album soon. . . If you have any spare change, pick up a copy of SAMHAIN's Final Descent featuring rare and unreleased treasures, the new 7"s by MONSTER MAGNET and the AC-TION SWINGERS, the Take 7 dance compilation and the BAD BRAINS' Rock For Light reissue (featuring extra tracks!). Give a yell!

John McFadden, CORE Records, Woodland Hills, CA (708) 359-3760

VIGILANTES OF LOVE be in your sweaty little hands by now. Be listenin' and luuuuuuvin'. If anyone feels left out, call me. There are plenty of CDs in the oven. Know why? Cuz it's cookin'! ED-E ROLAND should also have arrived on your doorstep. Take him in, he won't eat much and only has to be changed once in a while. Core is making a big splash in '91 with more dope music from JET BLACK FACTORY, MAD TURKS and maybe a Vanilla Ice acoustic hee-haw bar-b-q records. Wouldn't that be a hoot? Maybe a holler. If you can't reach me, "Skippy," try my partner in crime, Emily. The lovely Emily can be reached at (818) 883-1413. Till then, Skippy's "Futures" list: Crossed Wire, Big Hat, the Waterlillies and New Model Army (demo).

RETAIL DIALOGUE

Chris MacDermott (Woody), Retail Promo, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

I'm not sure if anybody actually reads these things so I'm going to make this as short as possible. Both NAKED RAYGUN and KINGHORSE are going to be doing out-of-town shows (but not together)—I'll keep you posted. SMASHING PUMPKINS touring the Midwest and East Coast supporting their Sub Pop 7"—LP on Caroline this spring. Also coming out this spring, expect debut releases from CHUCK TREECE (yep, the ig skateboard dude) and NYC's SPRINGHOUSE. The Play It Again Sam deal is done—Caroline is now the exclusive U.S. distributor of the label. Our first Play It Again Sam release is the LEGENDARY PINK DOTS' Maria Dimension and will probably be out by the time you're reading this (March 1). Also out on March 1 is the new A SPLIT SECOND '12" "The Parallax View. Future Play It Again Sam releases coming soon include the YOUNG GODS and LA MUERTE. If you don't have the AC-TION SWINGERS "Fear. . ." or MONSTER MAGNET's "Murder" '7" you better hurry as supplies are very limited. Out on Feb. 22 is the Megaforce comp., Deeper Into The Vault, with exclusive tracks from SOD, ANTHRAX, TESTAMENT, OVERKILL, M.O.D. and more. MUSSOLINI HEADKICK on tour in Europe with Revolting Cocks, U.S. tour to follow. MTV action—Naked Raygun on 120 Minutes and FUNHOUSE on Headbanger's. The BAD BRAINS AWESOME Rock For Light reissue (extra tracks; remixed) is out. If your store wants sharp looking new Bad Brains posters, call. Beware the BLOODY STOOLS, coming soon. Not as short as I would have liked, but I'm trying.

RADIO DIALOGUE

Raymond So, General Manager, KSCR, Los Angeles, CA (213) 740-5727

Let me start off by letting you know that KSCR has a new music director, Laurie Aaronson. She was Craig Gerber's assistant and is now filling his shoes while he takes on the other duties at the station. Yes, I know this is our third music director of this school year, but let me ease any concerns about this matter. Laurie had been assistant MD since this past fall and I feel she is quite capable of dealing with both the music and record label relations. In any event, both Craig and I are still around and contribute significantly to decisions about music adds. KSCR will be hosting this year's National Association of College Broadcasters' West Coast conference on March 9. I hope to see many of you there. Does anyone know what the deal is over at Warner Bros.? We can't seem to get service despite repeated letters and phone calls to them. They keep telling us they're updating their mailing list. Come on guys, you've used the same excuse since I was music director a year ago. I've heard from other stations who have had the same problems with service. So, I am extending an invitation to Paul V. to let everyone know through these Dialogue pages just what the reason is for this problem that cannot seem to be corrected by any of these stations. The other major labels have strong college promotion departments. Is Warner Bros. just telling college radio in general they don't value or respect them unless they are big FM outlets with huge listenerships? On a totally unrelated note, can anyone tell me where Carmelita Sanchez is these days? I haven't heard from her in a while.

[Carmelita is at Poetic Groove Records in Los Angeles—Ed.]

David Milroy, Program Director, WODU, Norfolk, VA (804) 683-3441

Norfolk's very own BUTTSTEAK has a new amazing 26-song CD titled Fatty's Got More Blood on Merkin Records. "It's got beat, it's got dance, it's got humor, it's got meat." For those of you who have never heard of Buttsteak they will please you like no one has before. They will be having their CD release party this Saturday in Norfolk. Come on down! Congratulations to our own local Jeff Broadnax!!! He is the new frontman for 24-7 SPYZ who are currently playing some dates on the East Coast. Another Norfolk band, ANTIC HAY, has recently signed with Merkin and plans to record soon. I recently saw BURMA JAM from Richmond (#2 on this week's Top 35) and they did a smokin' reggae dirge set. Quite hot! Lots of cool things are a happening here! Tschau.

Craig Bechtel, Co-MD And Reptile God, WVKC, Galesburg, IL (309) 343-9940

PLEASE READ THIS! WVKC wants music! I think new music is paramount, but many want to play either classic rock or Top 40 "material" and reject open-mindedness. Here, DJs can play any style of music that they like. WVKC may be one of the few stations that still allows DJs that freedom. This term I plan to write to some of the indies and ask for cool new stuff, so I thought you'd like to know. Also, Knox is researching bands for a spring concert, and if you've any ideas (under 5Gs), tell me. You could even send me demo tapes at the station, but we can only play LPs and CDs on the air. Knox College's TRICYCLE (local frat band) won demo of the week on the TDK New Music Report a while back, and we're quite proud. I'd love to hear from you.

John Stewart, General Manager, KDUP, Portland, OR (503) 283-71721

Friday afternoon at the World Broadcast Center and it's time to let everyone know we're back for another exciting semester. Sixty-five DJs, a great staff and some great tunes: the HOLLOW MEN, local faves COMPLETELY GROCERY and the Satyricon comp., STING's new album, CHAGALL GUEVARA, "Give Peace A Chance," DEVILS WIELDING SCIMITARS. Office hours: Ann Meng, Program Director, 2-4 Monday, 11-12 Tuesday; Sabrina Fernandez, Promotions, 2-4 Monday. I'm around here most of the time, listening to my favorite band, the TRASH CAN SINATRAS, and every once in a while a little PAUL SIMON, too. If you do interviews, please call Entertainment News person Mitch Marzano between 2:30 and 3:30 Tuesday/Thursday. Metal and rap directors work nights, but please leave them a message and they'll get back to you. 'Til next time—FIGHT THE POWER!

MIND OVER MATTERS

College Stations Do Provide War News

by Glenn Gutmacher, NACB

I want to respond to Cliff Furnald's editorial in this column (#221, 2/1/91) lamenting college radio's lack of Persian Gulf War coverage and urging that stations do more. Cliff mentioned an informal New England college radio network that operated in the mid-'70s which shared information fairly well despite the lack of available technology to do so.

Well, today there is a real college broadcasting network using today's technology (which he failed to mention) and there are examples of college stations doing incredible war news coverage (which he apparently was not aware of).

The network is called University Network (U*NET), and is operated by the National Association of College Broadcasters (NACB), the trade association for college radio and TV stations nationwide. U*NET provides 9½ hours of radio and TV programming weekly by satellite (and on cassette for those without receiving dishes) to about 150 of our member stations. Appearing on one of the feeds (Feb. 1) was a documentary covering rallies, sit-ins and interviews on the campus of Indiana University-Bloomington during the first week of the war. We expect to air more such productions in the coming weeks.

On the station side, let me mention KQAL-FM, the student-staffed station at Winona State University in Winona, MN. From the moment that the station's AP machine reported the outbreak of war on January 16 until the resumption of normal programming 48 and a half hours later, KQAL represented some of the best college station news coverage in the country.

First off, one important reason they succeeded was planning. They developed a written contingency plan about a month before the war, before Christmas break: Plan A if the war happened, Plan B if Iraq retreated.

All department heads discussed preparation for war coverage at the weekly manager meetings, acquiring Middle East timetables and maps through connections at a commercial station. They even formulated scenarios anticipating the likely type and degree of coverage by the local commercial stations to determine the niche KQAL could best serve.

Second, KQAL staff weren't just going to depend on their AP feed. They knew the military's censors would have an impact on what professional journalists could let out, so they covered both possibilities: "If only hearsay, we'd say this; if fuller reports, we'd say that."

They delegated news tasks once war began: One person sat at the AP machine and ripped anything about war; another set up the reel-to-reel to record actualities off the AP Hotline audio feed; another brought copy to the person on the air; another helper in the on-air studio sorted and helped rewrite copy; another was at home watching CNN (KQAL even put a TV monitor in a room undergoing remodeling to watch broadcast news); and two people were each on a phone line.

But KQAL wanted to keep things in perspective. "Although the war is a big thing, people need to know life is going on outside the war," said KQAL news director Tina Strelau. "We said we would keep the audience up to date on what's going on here—time, weather, fires, car accidents, etc."

On the second day, KQAL started to get a handle on the crisis and began presenting more of the local side of the story. They did stories on the Red Cross asking for donations of blood and setting up families assistance for servicemen's families. A reporter got the story as he donated blood.

They also covered peace rallies on campus. Some were a little violent. One pro-peace march from Winona State University to St. Mary's College met up with adamant troop supporters who had skirmishes with the protesters all along the march route. KQAL submitted a story to AP about it that got on the wire.

KQAL had one tape recorder and two notebooks, driving back and forth between the marchers and station with tape and notes to compose installments of the story as it unfolded, conducting interviews and doing lots of "frantic editing."

The station was flooded with phone calls, their coverage pulling everyone to the station, from government to campus professors to students. "We'd walk in the dorms and hear KQAL on," said Strelau. "They weren't listening to music; they were listening to the war coverage (from KQAL). And not watching TV coverage either," she added.

Even KQAL's DJs came through. The staff was very supportive, calling in saying they'd do the overnight shifts—even though the station normally goes off the air from 2-5 a.m.

When management finally decided to ease back toward regular programming—after 48½ hours of continuous coverage—they were still running frequent war news. "If something new happened, there would be live reports every 10 minutes," said program director Rick Thiesse.

Management decided to use the resources that they had and adapt them to the format to bring in the news. They slipped special features in their normal news, including a nine-minute interview with a woman reservist on five hours' notice to be called up to serve. The station continues to look for new angles, including interviews with the local armory, veterans associations, using professors as expert commentators, and interviewing international students.

"A lot of people go into college broadcasting just to play radio," Strelau said. "But through this, they learned a station is a real thing, whether they're paid or not. They don't realize the effect the station has on its listeners. This event showed we do have some effect in Winona; we have a reason for being here."

Glenn Gutmacher is publications director for the National Association of College Broadcasters and editor of College Broadcaster magazine. For more information about NACB or U*NET, call (401) 863-2225. You are urged to respond to this or any other Mind Over Matters by contacting Carlos Tabakof at CMJ (516-466-6000) for details regarding submission.

SINEAD: HELL NO, SHE WON'T GO

Sinead O'Connor has said that she will not attend this year's Grammy Awards and will not accept an award if she wins one because she feels that the music industry has false ethics. "It's a frightening prospect that the Wilson Phillips album was declared one of the year's best artistic works. That wasn't decided on by how it has healed or inspired the human race, but on how many copies it sold. That just makes me puke." If Sinead does win an award, it will be the first time in the Grammy's 33-year history that an artist has refused to accept a Grammy.

SUIT AGAINST AC/DC OVER CHILD'S DEATH

Bruce Child, the father of one of the three teenagers trampled to death before an AC/DC show in Salt Lake City, has filed a wrongful death suit against the band, their Hard To Handle management firm, booking agency CAA, promoter the Spectacor Group, the security firm and the venue's management. Child, whose 14-year-old son Curtis was killed at the show, is suing for $8 million in damages. Salt Lake City officials are considering a ban on festival seating at the Salt Palace, and Spectacor has already begun a temporary ban since the January 18 tragedy.

HACIENDA SHUTS DOORS

Manchester's Hacienda nightclub, which is co-owned by Factory Records' Tony Wilson and New Order, has announced that it will be temporarily shutting its doors due to the threat of violence. The door staff has apparently been threatened numerous times within the last two years and many people have been caught smuggling firearms into the club. With the help of the police, the club hopes to open up again in two to four weeks. Ironically, the club's closure comes after a six-month battle the club fought to retain its license in the face of what the police called "blatant drug-taking." In January, the Hacienda had been given six more months, with the police noting "a positive change in direction."

RAP COMP PAID IN FULL

Priority Records President Bryan Turner presented Rock & Roll Confidential Editor Dave Marsh with a check for $10,000 in support of Marsh's efforts to fight censorship in the arts. The proceeds were raised from sales of Priority's compilation, Explicit Rap, featuring performances by 10 rappers. The check was presented at a press conference on January 29, where Ice Cube, Kid Frost, No Face and Yo! MTV Raps host Ed Lover all addressed the audience.

RHINO HOOKS BEN & JERRY, NABS BEARVILLE

In an effort to counteract the prefab nature of recent "live" music, RNA Records—Rhino Records' new-artist label—has joined forces with Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream to sponsor a five-week "Real Music Revue" tour featuring Exene Cervenka, Steve Wynn and Clive Grogson & Christine Collister. Rock The Vote is also participating on the tour and will have information booths set up at each concert. . . . In other Rhino news, the label has acquired the catalog of Bearsville Records, which is best known for releases by Todd Rundgren, Jesse Winchester and Foghat, but also put out records by such artists as NRBQ, dB's, Felix Cavaliere and Paul Butterfield.

RED HOT + BLOOMINGDALE'S

Bloomingdale's has opened up a Red Hot + Blue Shop in its flagship store in Manhattan. The shop features T-shirts designed by Keith Haring, Jenny Holzer, Barbara Kruger, David Wojnarowicz, Sue Coe, John Lindell and Gran Fury. The shirt designs focus on people's concern for AIDS awareness, and the proceeds from the shirt sales will be donated to AIDS research funds. The shop will also showcase the Red Hot + Blue videos.

RECORD NEWS

American Music Club has been signed by Alias Records and is currently putting the finishing touches on their new LP, Everclear, due out late this summer... 4AD Records will be soon releasing three singles by Spirea-X, a band fronted by original Primal Scream guitarist Jim Beattie. The first single, "Chlorine Dream," is set for release in April... In other 4AD news, Wolfgang Press will have a new single out on March 25 called "Question Of Time," which will feature various remixes by Colourbox's Martin Young... And finally, This Mortal Coil's new album, Blood, will be out on April 22... Triple X has signed Lethal Weapon and will be releasing titles from the band's back catalog as well as a new LP produced by founding members Kat Arthur and Brian Hansen along with Champagne, who has engineered albums by Jane's Addiction, Social Distortion and Alice In Chains... And there are four 7"ers on the way from Triple X—one each by Pygmy Love Circus, Downey Mildew, TSOL vocalist Joe Wood and DDT.

RECORD NEWS (UK)

Former Cure keyboardist Laurence Tolhurst will be releasing "In Wonder," the debut single of his new band Presence, on his own Reality Records in England... 808 State has a new single out March 16 in England called "In Yer Face," the first single from the band's forthcoming second LP... Morrissey's new single hits U.K. shops on February 25. "Our Frank" is the first Morrissey single composed with new writing partner and former Fairground Attraction guitarist Mark Nevin and was produced by Clive Langer and Alan Winstanley... The Charlatans UK reportedly have a Flood remix of "Opportunity" from the Some Friendly LP making the club rounds in England, though there don't seem to be any plans to release it commercially. The band is currently at work on a new single and has just finished a session with BBC DJ John Peel... On March 4, Creation (UK) will be releasing a four-track Ride EP called Today Forever, comprised of all new songs. A U.S. tour with Lush looks like a good possibility... Creation band Slowdive has released a second single called "Morningrise"... The Tele- scopes have a new single called "Celeste" coming out on February 25, also on Creation.

CRYSTALIZED MOVEMENTS/BEME SEED/BEWITCHED/UNREST CBGB, New York City, February 1

It's hard to cope with the idea of residing at CBGB for over four hours, but this No. 6 Records showcase, featuring bands with recent releases on the New York label (plus Caroline recording artist Unrest), was impossible to avoid. Just to spit out an idea of the constant rock experienced, wide eyes and ear-to-ear smiles were prevalent throughout the audience. Chrystalized Movements started the evening with their unpretentious mix of fast fuzz-pop and quirky seriousness. Beme Seed mystified with a strange, heavy, wondrous force that makes you want to worship the gods of the ancients. Bewitched sent grooving messages to your hips and pumped your head full of battling guitars and vibrating reverb. Then Unrest entered to blast out selections from the not-super-recent Kustom Karnal Black-exploitation and the two cuts from the soon-to-be-released single on K Records that remind one more of the sensational Malcolm X Park LP. These new songs shall catapult Unrest to an ever-lasting fame usually only achieved by dying. Frontman Mark Robinson (or Mark E., who also runs the Teenbeat label) was supported by a rhythm section that extricated intricate bass-lines and metered beats which were next to brilliant. Four headline-worthy sets in one evening, need we ask for more?

RANDY WESTON TRIO Staller Center, Stony Brook, NY, February 2

Capturing the traditional spirit of African rhythms, and incorporating that spirit into the soul of jazz and his mindful piano playing, Randy Weston created some magical moments during his enlightening two-hour set. His trio—with Talib Kibwe on soprano, alto and tenor saxes and flute, and Joe Gaynes on percussion—took the audience around the globe with some Weston originals and Duke Ellington standards (the bulk of which can be found on Weston's recent Portraits trilogy) that went from the Berkshire Mountains ("Berkshire Blues") to the Caribbean ("Limbo Jazz") to Nigeria and beyond. Weston's imposing 6'7" frame is just part of what makes him such a dynamic performer—he attacks his instrument, holds it in his command and manages to coax out a voice from his keyboard that sings out proudly. The joviality and informal communication between the musicians brought out a chemistry that hushed the room, and their passion brought ovations. Even Weston himself was up and dancing to an alto solo or percussion groove—each musician shared the floor and the spotlight unselfishly for some enchanting solos that seemingly left them in awe of each other. What was created this evening was something you could feel, something that had a heart and soul and a mystical healing quality that went far beyond the traditions of its origins. Weston, a living link to Thelonious Monk and Duke Ellington, gives renewed life to an artform with an understanding of cultures that spans centuries.
