VOLUME XVII—NUMBER 29

APRIL 7, 1956

Joe Turner, Atlantic Records star, is shown with Ahmet Ertegun and Jerry Wexler, Atlantic veepees, personally examining the grooves of his latest release "Corrine Corrina". Turner, one of the most consistent hitmakers in the rhythm and blues field, is in addition one of the great "names" in the history of jazz. Years ago, Turner was a jazz blues singer in the Kansas City jazz style. In the early thirties, he sang with jazz pianist Pete Johnson in Kansas City and only a couple of weeks ago, Atlantic brought Johnson in for a session along with Walter Page, Freddie Green and other K. C. stars to re-create with Joe the Kansas City blues singing style he made famous.

The Satisfied Customer!

A few years ago, the most frequent charge leveled at the record industry was that it was a "top ten business". By this the accusers meant that only records in the top ten meant anything, only those sold, only those received play on juke boxes, only those were programmed on the air. Today that charge is very seldom heard for it certainly is no longer true.

But unfortunately there are still dozens and dozens of retail record dealers who have not learned that this is no longer a "top ten business".

In most smaller stores throughout the country, it is next to impossible to buy any records outside of the best sellers and top standards. These dealers are so busy watching their inventory and buying conservatively that what they are actually doing is perpetuating the meagerness of their business and guaranteeing that it never grows.

The retail business, like all other enterprises, has its own peculiarities. One of its cardinal points is that the customer ordinarily must be sold while he's in the store. If he has to order something or come back another day, the likelihood is that the sale has been lost.

With the record business today a completely diffused one, with customers wanting pop, rhythm 'n blues, and country records all at the same time, with kids demanding disks that are not only not in the top ten but many times not yet even in the top fifty, a record dealer who doesn't make some attempt to keep up with current trends and sticks doggedly to the best sellers is dooming himself to a stagnant business.

The basis of a retail business is the satisfied customer. Certainly it may not always be profitable to carry all sorts of odd items on the possibility that they may sometimes be asked for. But in terms of building satisfied customers and eventual greater income, it is incumbent upon all record dealers to carry some of these items. In the most solidly pop sections, there are requests for country records. In areas where sales are mostly in rhythm 'n blues, there are always requests for pop disks. The dealer who can satisfy some of these demands is building himself new customers who are certainly going to return to him to buy the stock he normally carries.

Perhaps more than in most other retail business, there has been considerable shortsightedness on the part of record dealers. Successful enterprises are built by seizing current opportunities, not by sitting back and conserving what has already been accomplished.

Today the record business is becoming more and more important as a medium of entertainment. For those who have the vision to see its potentialities, there is a magnificent future ahead. The important thing is to remember this: It is the customer who counts—the satisfied customer.

JONI JAMES
(MGM 12213; K12213)

B+ "THE MAVERICK QUEEN" (2:52) [Victor Young ASCAP—Young, Washington] Joni James, who is heard singing this song on the sound track of the new Republic pic "The Maverick Queen," offers the pic's title tune as part of her latest release. A fragile song with a western flavor.

B+ "I WOKE UP CRYING" (2:31) [Tanglewood ASCAP—Insetta] This portion stars the thrush's wistful voice on a dreamy shuffle-beat ballad. Chorus assists in the backdrop. Pretty item. The kids could take to this one because of the fish-beat that lends itself to dancing.

DENNY VAUGHAN
(Kapp 143; K-143 X)

B+ "WALK HAND IN HAND" (2:59) [Republic BMI—Cowell] Kapp issues for the U.S. buyer the Denny Vaughan original recording of this beautiful love song. It's a lovely rendition that's been making big noise in Canada and the version which inspired all the covers.

C+ "JUST SING A SONG" (2:59) [Republic BMI—Mack] A catchy jump novelty with a delightful group-sing quality.

THE GAYDEN SISTERS with LEW DOUGLAS ORCH.
(Bally 1003; 7-1003)

B "HONESTLY, HONESTLY" (2:26) [Trinity BMI—Miller, Davie] The Bally label continues to turn out commercial material and on this release it introduces a talented team called the Gayden Sisters with an exciting piece of rock and roll material that the kids will get a bang out of. Girls have a good sound and really give this song a push. Could catch big.

C+ "HOW CAN YOU NOT BELIEVE" (2:22) [Hearbeat ASCAP—Seymour] A soft and sentimental waltz ballad tenderly fashioned by the larks.

RAY RIVERA
(Web 1060; 45-1060)

C+ "WILL I BE THE ONE?" [Monument BMI—Rivera, D'Agostina, Jefferson] Ray Rivera gets a simple backing as he drifts thru a pleasant up beat romancer.

C+ "HANDLE MY LOVE WITH CARE" [Alameda BMI—Rivera, D'Agostina] Another easy-going rhythm item pleasantly presented by the smooth voiced warbler.

DINAH WASHINGTON
(Mercury 70833; 70833x45)

B+ "LET'S GO AROUND TOGETHER" (2:29) [Robbins ASCAP—Wright, Ecton] Dinah Washington does an exceptionally beautiful job on a charming and fragile new romantic ballad that sounds and looks like one of her strongest sides in quite a while. It's a beautiful and refreshing top-drawer tune that could blossom into a big hit. String accompaniment by Hal Mooney is wonderful. Watch this one.

B "LET'S GET BUSY" (2:37) [Mayfair ASCAP—Oakland, Gilbert] This half features a more bluesy Dinah on an attractive and interesting rhythm ballad. Strong coupling sure to please the thrush's many fans.

THE CASH BOX

DISK OF THE WEEK

"MY LITTLE ANGEL" (3:00) "STANDING ON THE CORNER" (2:52) [Frank ASCAP—Loesser]
[Mapleleaf BMI—Jordan, Charles]

THE FOUR LADS
(Columbia 40674; 4-40674)

FOUR LADS

● The Four Lads, who have already put two million-sellers back to back with "Moments To Remember" and "No Not Much," may accomplish the near impossible feat of making it three in a row with a sensational coupling of exceptional new material. One side "My Little Angel" is a warm and beautiful romantic song which displays the quartet's classy harmony at its best. The beautiful delivery and material grow on you, and after a few listens, you really appreciate this wonderful side. For variety, the group changes the mood and lilts through a sparkling cutie "Standing On The Corner." It's a catchy item from the new Frank Loesser smash musical "The Most Happy Fella." Has an easy-going tempo and an overall excellence. Big coupling for the Lads. They've arrived.

"HONEY HAIR, SUGAR LIPS, EYES OF BLUE"

[Robert Mellin BMI—Richards, Tyler]

[Criterion ASCAP—Roth, Lubin]

THE CREWCUTS
(Mercury 70840; 70840x45)

CREWCUTS

● With "Angels In The Sky" completing its long and extremely successful run on the charts, Mercury sends across a tremendous new two-sider that should take off like a jet for the Crewcuts. "Honey Hair, Sugar Lips, Eyes Of Blue" is a cute, catchy, commercial ditty right up the teenage alley. It's a wonderful jump novelty that should have all the youngsters rockin' round the clock. Lyrics are simple and pleasing. Side has the dollar sign stamped all over it. Flip is another clever change of pace for the "flat-tops." A bright and refreshing money earner with a mambo beat, dubbed "Out Of The Picture." The boys blend wonderfully here and employ some delightful pause gimmicks that should go great with their fans. Strong pair to watch.

"LONG TALL SALLY" (2:08) [Denice BMI—Johnson]

"JUST AS LONG AS I'M WITH YOU" (2:40) [Randy Smith ASCAP—Vaughn]

PAT BOONE
(Dot 15457; 45-15457)

PAT BOONE

● Pat Boone, who has an unbroken chain of hits under his belt, continues in his winning ways on his latest release and sends forth a powerful rendition of a high flying rock and roll hit "Long Tall Sally." Pat gets an exciting ork assist and belts from the toes on this amusing novelty. The songster faces some tough competition on this side but should take a good cut of sales melon. Material is right in line with what the teenagers want today. The versatile performer changes the pace on the lower lid and croons a romantic item tagged "Just As Long As I'm With You." A good follow-up to his current smash "I'll Be Home." Could develop into the bigger side of the coupling.

NATE RUSSELL
(Noel 107; 45-107)

C+ "DEW DROP INN" [ASCAP—Easton] Nate Russell and the band glide through a groovy up-beat bopper that the teen agers should enjoy. Good rhythm novelty with a crowd at the inn whooping it up.

C "DE BEAUFORT BOAT" [ASCAP—Easton] An inviting calypso type novelty with a cute lyric and happy delivery.

ANDY WILLIAMS
(Cadence 1288; 45-1288)

B+ "WALK HAND IN HAND" (2:44) [Republic BMI—Cowell] Andy Williams familiar to millions for his work on the Steve Allen show, lends his rich and polished voice to a warm and tender romantic ballad which joins a lovely lyric with a pretty melody. Should do well for the songster.

C+ "NOT ANY MORE" (1:55) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Terry] A catchy rhythm novelty that emanates from the country field, is commercially styled by the songster.

"WHOOPEE" JOHN WILFAHRT
(Decca 29799; 9-29799)

B "LITTLE BAD BOY POLKA" (2:36) [B.I.E.M.—Kerskes] "Whoopee" John and his crew grab hold of a German novelty, give it a new title and a lively delivery and end up with one of the most delightful polka items to hit the market in some time. Colorful ditty that deserves a spot in every juke box. Should get very big play in the taverns.

C+ "IT TOOK ME ALL NIGHT TO GET HOME LAST NIGHT" (2:23) [T.V. Music ASCAP—Stoner, Stride] The group changes the tempo but retains the same colorful style as it presents a pleasant waltz item. Patrick Wilfahrt handles the humorous vocal.

LUCY ROBERTS
(Vik 0201; 4X-0201)

B+ "SUPPER ON THE TABLE" [General ASCAP—Donez, Dawson] Vik introduces a terrific talent in Lucy Roberts, a clever songstress who does a big job with a cute little novelty that could catch on like wild-fire. A great change of pace novelty to watch closely.

B "LEAP YEAR RED" [Malvern ASCAP—Reichner] The chirp bounces through another up-beat novelty. This one features the popular rock and roll rhythm.

ANDY GRIFFITH
(Capitol 3402; F-3402)

B+ "CARMEN" (Part 1 & Part 2) [Andick BMI—Griffin] Andy Griffith, the comedy sensation of Broadway with his performance in "No Time For Sergeants," employs his delightful back-woodsian drawl to describe the opera "Carmen" to his audience. A live audience is heard on the recording. Hilarious piece of wax with a few spicy lines colorfully handled. Flip side is the conclusion of the recitation. Disk should do very well over the counters.

DICK NOEL
(Fraternity 738; 45-738)

B "THE BIRDS AND THE BEES" [Gomalco ASCAP—Warren, David] Dick Noel has a strong side to watch in this clever little novelty—the title tune from George Gobel's first movie effort. Cute little ditty that could catch on and spread like hotcakes.

C+ "THE BIRTH OF THE BLUES" [Harms ASCAP—DeSylva, Brown, Henderson] The versatile crooner changes the mood and the pace and gives out with a potent rendition of a great classic. Good backing.

VOICES OF WALTER SCHUMANN
(RCA Victor 20-6487; 47-6487)

B "SHANGRI-LA" [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Lawrence, Lee, Warren] The fabulous voices of Walter Schumann dish up a magnificent rendition of the beautiful title song from the forthcoming B'way musical "Sangri-La". They recite some of the lyrics in unison and sing beautifully. Should get plenty of air play. Large group singing at its best.

B "ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF PAREE" [Mills ASCAP—Vance, Pockriss] The chorus blends beautifully on this unusual and most pleasant ballad with an exciting rhythm.

DAVID ROSE ORCH.
(MGM 30887; K30887)

B "SERENADE" (2:44) [Harms ASCAP—Brodzski, Cahn] From the Lanza flicker "Serenade" comes this beautiful melody which David Rose treats to a lush string presentation. Lovely theme beautifully handled.

B "PAM PAM" (2:57) [David Rose ASCAP—Rose] Here the maestro dances through a flighty novelty which he penned. Refreshing instrumental ditty excitingly handled.

THE CHA CHA RHYTHM BOYS
(Fiesta 063; 45-063)

B "LISBON ANTIGUA" (CHA CHA CHA) (2:29) [Southern ASCAP—Portela, Galhardo, Vale, Dupree] One of the country's top instrumentals is treated to a cha cha beat by the Cha Cha Rhythm Boys. Pretty interpretation with a good dance tempo. At mid point, tempo breaks into a merengue. Should be a good seller among the latin beat disk buyers.

C+ "CHA CHA FOR TWO" (2:30) [Pemora BMI—Morand] Another pleasant dance deck with a pretty melody.

SID FELLER ORCH. & CHORUS
(ABC-Paramount 9692; 45-9692)

B+ "I'VE GROWN ACCUSTOMED TO HER FACE" (2:45) [Chappell ASCAP—Lerner, Loewe] From the tremendous Broadway hit "My Fair Lady" comes this gorgeous love song so delightfully executed by Sid Feller's ork and chorus. A smooth and dreamy presentation that should stir up quite a bit of noise. Watch it.

B "MIDNIGHT BREEZE" (2:40) [Mills ASCAP—Beatty, Bianco] With lush and pretty instrumentals doing exceptionally well, Feller offers another such pleaser on this half. Pretty latin flavored item that could develop into a biggie. Strong coupling.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"WHO'S GONNA TAKE YOU TO THE PROM" (2:18)

[Bourne ASCAP—Silver, Alfred]

"BELLA BAMBINELLA" (2:06)

[Monument BMI—Barry]

THE GAYLORDS

(Mercury 70834; 70834x45)

THE GAYLORDS

lease and present a terrific piece of rock and roll tunestuff that should be their biggest success in quite some time. It's a super commercial novelty titled "Who's Gonna Take You To The Prom". Hugo Peretti and the ork supply a real solid backdrop for the group and the results are real groovy. The youngsters will be feedin' the jukes to hear this one. The coupling "Bella Bambinella" displays the Gaylords in their familiar and delightful Italian technique singing a lively and infectious novelty. Catchy cutie. The boys have a strong release that deserves close attention.

"WALK HAND IN HAND"

[Republic BMI—Cowell]

"FLAMENCO LOVE"

[Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Wagner, Schuman, Eaton]

TONY MARTIN

(RCA Victor 20-6493; 47-6493)

● It looks as though Tony Martin has come up with the piece of material that will send him onto the charts once again. An outstanding new love song that came out of Canada but should develop into a tremendous success here in the U.S. And it fits Tony's big voice to a "T". It's a stirring, dramatic romancer labelled "Walk Hand In Hand". A top grade performance. Watch this one. Flip "Flamenco Love" is the first vocal interpretation of a lovely theme that's currently making the rounds as an instrumental selection. Good coupling. The top half should take off quickly.

"MY HEART SAYS NO" (2:26)

[Robert Mellin BMI—Michele, Mellin]

JOEY, JOEY, JOEY" (2:46)

[Frank ASCAP—Loesser]

BILLY ECKSTINE

(RCA Victor 20-6488; 47-6488)

BILLY ECKSTINE

● Billy Eckstine is in rare form as he lends his rich and striking voice to two beautiful selections that make up his latest Victor release. On one side, Hugo Winterhalter, the ork and a chorus set up a superb backing for Billy's rich tones as he emotionally renders a dramatic love story tagged "My Heart Says No". It's a hit contender from beginning to end. The coupling is a stirring piece of special material from "The Most Happy Fella", Frank Loesser's much talked about new musical. An interesting number called "Joey Joey Joey". Top half looks like the one that should start Eckstine rolling on the Victor assembly line.

KAY CEE JONES
(American 1035; 45-1035)

B+ "HIGH SCHOOL ROMANCE" (2:59) [American Academy ASCAP—Morgan, Brandt] Talented Kay Cee Jones has a commercial contender in this touching, tearful ballad about young love. Should go well with the teen age buyers. Tender number beautifully executed.

B "SHORT'NIN' BREAD ROCK" (2:38) [Mills ASCAP—Morgan, Brandt] The old favorite "Short'nin' Bread" gets some new lyrics and a rock and roll beat and comes off as a strong dance item also aimed at the youngsters. Two hot sides for the kids.

GEORGE GOBEL
(RCA Victor 20-6483; 47-6483)

B "THE BIRDS AND THE BEES" (2:30) [Gomalco ASCAP—David, Warren] Popular TV comic George Gobel hands a pleasant performance as he fashions the light and colorful title tune from his first movie "The Birds And The Bees". Amusing delivery of a cute little novelty.

DICK ROMAN
(Double AA-119; 119x45)

B "HAVE FAITH" (2:37) [Mid-Music BMI—Vicar, Vicar] Dick Roman gets a lovely backing on this half as he introduces a touching inspirational ballad. Dick has a beautiful voice and some top notch material to work with. Could do well for the lad.

DORIS DAY

(Columbia 40673; 4-40673)

B+ "SOMEBODY SOMEWHERE" (2:50) [Frank ASCAP—Loesser] A touching romantic item which a character called Rosabella sings in the first act of the much talked about Loesser musical "The Most Happy Fella," is beautifully handled by Doris Day. Doris gives the song the delightful sparkle that her warm voice has to offer.

B "WE'LL LOVE AGAIN" (3:02) [Artists ASCAP — Livingston, Evans] This pretty ballad-in-blue stems from the Paramount flicker "The Man Who Knew Too Much." Wistful reading of a lovely mood item.

TOMMY PRISCO

(Wing 90071; 90071x45)

B+ "THIS IS WHERE I CAME IN" [Studio ASCAP—Frisch, Wayne] Tommy Prisco offers a strong contender on the Wing label as he swings thru a terrific up-beat romantic item. Good lyrics set to a solid rockin' beat. Lad has a great voice and could make the grade with this one.

B "LOVERS IN LOVE" [Melody Lane BMI—Bennett, Barnett, Thorne, Cole] The popular rock and roll fish-beat is the tempo for this tearful love affair. Commercial stuff.

BILL FARRELL

(Imperial 7001; X7001)

B+ "CHERRY LIPS" (2:08) [Lonor BMI—Scott] Bill Farrell bows on the Imperial label with a terrific pop rendition of a rock and roller that's starting to break territorially. Strong job by the songster that could send him onto the charts. Right up the alley of the teenagers.

B "SLIPPIN' AND SLIDIN'" (2:15) [Venice BMI—Penniman] Another hot piece of rock and roll material is delivered for the pop buyers by Farrell. Real swinging item that the kids will go wild about.

ART MOONEY ORCH.

(MGM 12219; K12219)

B "TALLY HO" (2:28) [Sherwin ASCAP—Sacco] With Tony Sacco and the Cloverleaves on the vocal, Art Mooney introduces a catchy and unusual novelty that could make some noise. A zany cornball cutie.

C+ "YOU ARE THE ONE" (2:45) [Hampshire House ASCAP—Tepper, Bennett] Ocie Smith and the Cloverleaves come up with a warm and tender waltz tempo ballad on this half. Pretty, melodic pleaser.

BETTY MADIGAN

(MGM 12214; K12214)

B+ "SURPRISE" (2:33) [Miller ASCAP — Malone, Jacobs] Betty Madigan comes up with a strong piece of merchandise on her latest platter as she offers a charming romantic item in her smooth and easy-going manner. Delightful piece of tune-stuff that could blossom into a king sized success.

B "I MISS THE BOY" (2:55) [Brighton ASCAP—Danzig, Dee] A touching sentimental selection is tenderly rendered in a tearful manner by the lark. Pretty music.

THE MORRISON SISTERS

(Deed 1016; 45-1016)

B "THE ROCKIN' BOOGIE SHUFFLE" (2:00) [Valley Brook ASCAP—Hayes, Freemont] The Morrison Sisters display some contagious harmony as they rock thru a catchy little swing novelty aimed at the young dancers. Swinging side that should attract attention.

C+ "TEEN AGE GUY AND GAL" (2:13) [Harper House BMI—Mascari, Wenzlaff, Zuegner] Another rockin' novelty in the "Dungaree Doll" vein. Cute bouncer. Both sides should do well in the boxes.

PETER LIND HAYES & MARY HEALY

(Kapp 141; K-141 X)

B "IF I HAD MY LIFE TO LIVE OVER" (2:19) [General ASCAP—Vincent, Tobias, Jaffe] The hubby-wife team of Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy blend their charming voices and lilt thru an infectious oldie. The team has a delightfully pleasant sound and offers a most inviting piece of wax. Good change of pace programming for any dee jay show. Could catch on.

C+ "FOR EVERY DROP OF RAIN" (2:27) [Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Ballard] A touching and sentimental waltz tempo number smoothly styled by the artists. They have a wonderful sound that makes the listener feel like reminiscing. Both sides should bring back memories.

MAE WILLIAMS

(Songbird 202; 45-202)

B "GATHERING THRILLS AND LEAVING HEARTACHES" (2:40) [Songbird BMI—Kennaston] Gifted Mae Williams lends her inviting voice to a pretty latin tempo ballad which she delivers with meaning. Stylish performance that really sells the tune.

C+ "SWEET TO BE IN LOVE" (3:03) [Songbird BMI—Pulido, Cooper] A good ballad set to the currently popular rock and roll fish beat.

DECCA records

A great triumph for our British recording artists was witnessed at the Palladium where Val Parnell is holding his record show, which is drawing capacity business. It is hard to say which of the stars shines the brightest when you have almost everybody's favourites on wax at the Big House.

London Laurels for the first time go to the Dream Weavers whose waxing of "It's Almost Tomorrow" reached the top in the Best Selling Chart. . . Mantovani just back from a sensational tour with his Orchestra in Germany, playing capacity business everywhere and turning 10,000 away at The Berlin Sports Palace. Monty is busy well into the middle of next year. He will also visit South Africa in the Fall, prior to his return visits to Canada and America.

Ambrose and his Orchestra will be leaving the Cafe de Paris for a tour of the country. . . Dorothy Squires with husband Roger Moore arrived back from the U. S. in time for premiere of her film "Stars In Your Eyes". . . Don Cornell, who opened at Finsbury Park, was again pleasing everyone with his easy style and charming personality.

Your scribe just returned from a quick visit to the Continent, and found everybody talking about the new RCA deal with the Decca Record Company of England and the Teldec Company of Germany and Switzerland. It seems that the two Companies now control one of the most important classical catalogues in the world, not forgetting the vast number of pop labels of this group.

M.C.A. is interested in Lonnie Donegan, following the success on both sides of the Atlantic of his "Rock Island Line".

Donating Blood

MILWAUKEE, WIS.—Disc jockey, Bob Drews of WRIT, Milwaukee donates a pint of blood to the Milwaukee Blood Center while doing his daily 5 to 9 A.M. program. Nurse Eleanor Behlke is in charge of the operation. The station claims that the pained expression on Bob's face is due to the blood-giving process. Nurse Behlke blames the expression on Bob's script.

Columbia Aids Cancer Society Fund

NEW YORK—Columbia Records announced that it had joined forces with the United Airlines to spur the American Cancer Society's 1956 Fund Drive.

A United Airlines flagship will ferry Dick Linke, who will act as coordinator, Tony Bennett, Mitch Miller, Percy Faith and Lu Ann Simms on a 15-city hop which will end in Los Angeles. The 15 cities will be visited in a period of four days, from April 9 to 12.

Arrangements are being set up in all the cities for the plane to be met at the airports by city dignitaries and radio personnel, the latter with equipment to broadcast on the spot. A group of musicians will accompany the artists on the trip so as to provide musical support at the airports.

The Columbia Records' and United Airlines' "Flying Crusade" will be launched on Sunday, April 8, via the Ed Sullivan TV show. Sullivan will sign a specially prepared 13 ft. by 6 ft. check dubbed the "Check Up Check". As the plane drops into the various cities on its schedule, key newspaper, political and entertainment figures will be at the airport to sign the "Check Up Check". The signer thereby promises to take a physical check up himself and send a check to the American Cancer Society to aid it to reach its goal of 26 million dollars.

Bennett & Coins Score In New Copa Show

One of the best shows to hit these parts in quite some time was unveiled last week at New York's Copacabana headlining Tony Bennett and featuring the Four Coins.

Bennett has revamped his act considerably, inserting such blues and torch tunes as "It Had To Be You", "Always" and "One For My Baby", with wonderful results. He commands attention right from the opening number—a delightful piece of special material dubbed "Why Can't I Say Hello". He follows this with exciting interpretations of such favorites as "Rags To Riches", "Without a Song", "Taking a Chance On Love", "My Baby Just Cares for Me" and "Cold Cold Heart". On the night this scribe witnessed the show, the crowd just wouldn't let Tony step off the stage. So he gratefully continued with some other record hits: "Boulevard of Broken Dreams", "Sing You Sinners" and a spiritual-type item "Lost In the Stars". He concluded with "Since My Lover Has Gone".

Tony's stature as a performer has grown considerably since his previous starring assignment at the Copa, and there is no doubt that bigger and better dates are in store for the crooner. Especially now that his latest Columbia release "Can You Find It In Your Heart" is breaking through.

The Four Coins, Epic Recording stars, who double between the upstairs lounge and the main stage of the club, came over well with driving renditions of "Shake, Rattle and Roll", "Darktown Strutters' Ball" and "Has Anybody Seen My Gal". They drew applause for their disk hit "Memories of You" and closed with the audience singing along to "I'll Be True To You".

More Movie Songs For Aces

NEW YORK—During the past two years, the Four Aces, consistently top sellers, have numbered among their biggest Decca hits many tunes from motion pictures. The Aces started their Hollywood binge with the title tune from the picture "Three Coins In the Fountain". Since then, other recordings by the group of music from movies have included the title numbers from "It's A Woman's World" and "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing"; "A Woman In Love" from the picture "Guys and Dolls"; and most recently, "If You Can Dream" and "The Gal With the Yaller Shoes" from the new film "Meet Me In Las Vegas". Now Decca announces the release of another tune from a film—the Four Aces' recording of "To Love Again", from the upcoming Columbia pic "The Eddy Duchin Story".

WNEW Program Changes

NEW YORK — New York indie, WNEW, has announced the following program changes:

Klavan and Finch will now be heard Monday through Saturday from 6 AM to 10 AM. They were originally heard from 6:00 to 9:30 AM. The half hour extension is reported based on many listener requests for extra air time for this popular pair.

William B. Williams steps into a new slot at 12 Noon joining vocalist Bill Harrington, Roy Ross and the Orchestra. This one-hour show will be known as "Harrington, Williams and Company". This all-live segment will be aired Monday through Saturday.

Dick Shepard will move into the daily segment of "Sentimental Mood" from 1:00 to 2:00 PM vacated by William B. Williams. Shepard recently subbed for Art Ford while Art was away from the microphone for two months. Dick received a tremendous amount of acclaim and was the natural choice for "Sentimental Mood".

Bob Howard, formerly one of New Orleans' top d.j.'s and now WNEW's newest addition to the staff, will host "Sunday Serenade" 5:35 to 7:30 PM, Sundays.

Manny Greenfield Signs
Lonnie Donegan For U.S. Management

NEW YORK — Manny Greenfield, manager of Don Cornell, the Goofers, the Five Demarco Sisters and others, has just signed Lonnie Donegan, the London recording artist who introduced the current chart sensation "Rock Island Line" in both the U.S. and England.

Greenfield will manage Donegan in the United States. It has not yet been decided whether Donegan will come to the U.S. for personal appearances. It all depends on the recording's success in this country.

With the signing of Donegan, an unusual situation has arisen for Greenfield. Now he has two artists who have recorded the "Rock Island Line" number. Both Donegan and Don Cornell.

Hal March Records
"64,000 Question"

NEW YORK—Hal March, emcee of "The $64,000 Question" CBS-TV program, did his first professional singing in 15 years when he recorded for Columbia Records "Love Is The $64,000 Question". Norman Leyden, musical conductor for the TV show, wrote the music; Fred Ebb, the lyrics. March, who sang in nightclubs and burlesque early in his career, has backed "The $64,000 Question" tune with a novelty song, "Do It Yourself," by Jay Livingston and Ray Evans. Norman Luboff flew in from the coast to coach, arrange and conduct the recording session. Disk was released last week.

Advance on "Fair Lady" Album Sets Col Mark

NEW YORK — Columbia Records announced this week that the advance sale on the Original Cast album of the latest Broadway sensation "My Fair Lady" starring Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews, has already exceeded the 100,000 mark, representing a gross figure of approximately a half-million dollars.

This is a new Columbia mark and may possibly be a new industry mark.

Stan Rubin Dixieland Band To Play For Grace Kelly Wedding

PRINCETON, N. J.—Stan Rubin, who attained national fame as a Dixieland band leader and clarinet player during his undergraduate days at Princeton University, and his Tigertown Five will play for the Grace Kelly-Prince Ranier III wedding festivities in Monaco next month, it was revealed this week.

Rubin, now a 22-year-old law student at Fordham University, and his band will leave here by Pan American Air Lines April 13. The band will play on several occasions during the festivities which extend from April 15 through April 19. Their first appearance will be as a featured attraction at the Gala International Ball April 15. They will be guests of the Prince during their stay in Monaco.

Rubin's group is the only American jazz band which will be present.

Rubin met Miss Kelly last May when his band played for an engagement party at Cherry Hill, New Jersey.

He later sent her an RCA Victor album of "Dixieland Comes To Carnegie Hall" which was made when he gave a concert there November 24, 1954. Miss Kelly wrote back, telling him how much she enjoyed his music at the party as well as the album. After he learned of her engagement and that the Prince also was a jazz devotee, Rubin wrote her again, offering the services of the band. The offer was accepted.

Rubin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rubin, New Rochelle, N. Y., organized the Tigertown Five in 1951 during his freshman year at Princeton. When a sophomore, the Princeton University Store advanced him $1,000 to finance production of his first record album which established the band as one of the nation's top collegiate jazz organizations.

After working their way across the Atlantic in the summer of 1953 as a ship's band for a Holland-American lines student tour, the group enjoyed great success at Maxim's on the French Riviera. Before returning to the United States the band also played in Italy and Switzerland.

In 1955 Rubin modified the band's Dixieland style to include swing. By last November, when the band gave its second Carnegie Hall concert, the group had become acclaimed as one of the most popular young jazz outfits in the country.

One of the numbers that Rubin will perform for the festivities is an original composition which he recently recorded for RCA Victor, "Eight, Nine, Ten, I'll Never Get Mad Again". Rubin performed and sang the number on NBC's Wide, Wide World television program Sunday, March 25. Other numbers to be performed all are included in his newest long play-in Victor album, "Dixieland Bash".

The group will be uniquely costumed for their Monacan appearances. At the request of Prince Ranier III, the outfit will wear the orange blazers and straw hats that were presented to the band by the Princeton Class of 1930.

Personnel of the band, other than Rubin, will include Ed Polcer, of Paterson, N. J., a Princeton sophomore, cornet; Bill Spilka, of Long Beach, N. Y., who is studying for his Master's in art at New York University, trombone; Jim Beck of Merrick, N. Y., drums; and Frank Thompson of Laurelton, N. Y., piano.

Brad Phillips Annual Show Set For April 8

NEW YORK—Brad Phillips of WINS, this city, will hold his annual Anniversary show on Sunday, April 8. The show will mark the popular jockey's entry into his 8th year with WINS.

Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodger star, and chairman of the Harlem "Y", will appear on the show, as will many top record stars. Some who have already expressed their desire to appear on the show are Sammy Davis, Jr., the Chordettes, Tony Bennett, Eydie Gorme, Betty Madigan, and Jimmie Komack.

The results of Phillips' popularity poll naming the king and queen of the "Battle Royal" and the kings and queens of the vocal groups will be announced on the program.

Kahl Appoints GPM

NEW YORK—Phil Kahl, head of the Patricia and Kahl Music Publishing Companies, announced this week the appointment of Mack Martin to the post of general professional manager of the two firms. Martin recently resigned from Dena Music.

Roberta Sherwood Signs For 4 "Stage Show" Stints

NEW YORK — Roberta Sherwood, vocalist who has recently made her Decca debut with "I Got Lost In His Arms" and "In A Strange Pair Of Arms", has been booked for four appearances on the CBS-TV "Stage Show". Miss Sherwood, currently appearing at Murray Franklin's in Miami Beach, will make her network TV debut on the March 31st stanza, and will guest on the show again on April 4th, May 12th, and May 19th.

Freed's Hartford Show Breaks Previous Mark

HARTFORD, CONN.—Alan Freed's Rock 'N' Roll Show at the State Theatre in Hartford, Connecticut, showed a gross of $19,327 for the two weekend days Saturday 3/24 and Sunday 3/25, topping his previous October mark by $1,200.

The show starred Fats Domino, Frankie Lymon and the Teenagers, the Flamingos, the Rover Boys, Dori Anne Gray, and Sam "The Man" Taylor.

Promotion plans include dealer display material, as well as a mailing to disk jockeys of the album along with a bottle of Worth's "Vers Toi". Suggested radio scripts will accompany the deejay package.

Jockey Digs Johnny

Premium Industry Makes Award To Columbia

NEW YORK—It was announced this week that The Premium Industry Club had issued a joint award to Columbia Records Transcription Division and Guild Films for the best promotion tie-in sales plan of 1955.

The award was made for the astonishingly successful Bank-Liberace record. Bank sponsors in more than 100 markets offered a free Liberace record to all new depositors of $10. or more. Currently more than 1,000,000 disks have been given away in this plan, representing deposits, according to Guild spokesmen, of $250,000,000.

Columbia Transcriptions Department is one of the most active suppliers of record premiums services, having most of the label's artists to draw upon.

Good Time Jazz Inks Pact With N.O. Jazz Group

LOS ANGELES—Good Time Jazz and the New Orleans Jazz Society have signed an agreement whereby the N.O.J.S. will record concerts, festivals, programs, private affairs, as well as the best of the Crescent City bands, and G.T.J. will release them on a royalty basis.

First to kick off the recordings was Santo Pecora & The Tailgaters with four tunes. Next up was Sharkey Bonano's Jazz Band, followed by Eddie Pearson's Creole Stompers to complete the first 12" LP for the West Coast indie.

G.T.J. has also announced that it has moved its recording equipment and audio personnel to San Francisco for a solid week of recording. Bob Scobey's Frisco Band was first on the list of contract artists to wax, with the Bay City Jazz Band, Don Ewell's Trio featuring Darnell Howard, and singer Clancy Hayes following.

If time permits, G.T.J. will also record Kidd Ory's Creole Jazz Band. Ory is currently playing the Tin Angel, popularized in the second Cinema.

POPULAR

"KATHRYN GRAYSON SINGS"—MGM E-3257 (1-12" LP)

JALOUSIE; LOVER COME BACK TO ME; YOU ARE LOVE; WILL YOU REMEMBER; LOVE IS WHERE YOU FIND IT; YESTERDAYS; ALWAYS; ALL OF A SUDDEN MY HEART SINGS; SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES; THEY DIDN'T BELIEVE ME; MY HEART STOOD STILL; WANTING YOU.

One of Hollywood's most distinguished singing stars, Kathryn Grayson, applies her famous voice to the classics of light music. The set is filled with lovely melodies that have remained listenable despite the number of times they have been heard. Her fine vocal range is demonstrated dramatically in her rendition of "Love Is Where You Find It". The waxing should have heavy sales to the over-all record public.

"XII O'Clock"—Greta Keller With The Norman Paris Trio And Others—Dolphin 5 (1-12" LP)

LET ME LOVE YOU; SOMEDAY I'LL FIND YOU; THERE'S NOTHING TO DO; GUARDIAN ANGELS; MAD ABOUT THE BOY; I DON'T WANT TO BE ALONE; MY OWN TRUE LOVE; MAKE LOVE TO ME; EVERY TIME WE SAY GOODBYE; TWELVE O'CLOCK & ALL'S WELL; I'D LOVE TO FALL ASLEEP; SLEEP WELL.

Creating an atmosphere of sophistication and intimacy is the well known art of Greta Keller. And on this Dolphin release Miss Keller is faithfully captured as she interprets songs of an urban and polished nature. Such material must include Noel Coward and/or Cole Porter, thus "Someday I'll Find You", "Mad About The Boy" and "Everytime We Say Goodbye". Solid item in its sparsely populated domain. Miss Keller has an extremely loyal following that will rush to the stores for this one.

"EDDIE ALBERT AND MARGO"—Orchestras Directed By Glenn Osser, David Terry and Charles Dant—Kapp KL-1017 (1-12" LP)

SEPTEMBER SONG; EBB TIDE; JOHN HENRY; JENNY KISSED ME; LITTLE CHILD; HELLO YOUNG LOVERS; HOW DO I LOVE THEE; MI AMOR MI CORAZON; YOU BELONG TO MY HEART; JUST FOR THE BRIDE AND GROOM; VOLA COLUMBA; I'M IN FAVOR OF FRIENDSHIP.

Two people bearing sincerity and likable personalities as their main musical talent apply these qualities in highly gratifying amounts on their newest LP. Eddie Albert and his wife Margo perform the rich pieces with an obvious satisfaction in doing them. The package includes Albert's "Little Child" hit. Should enjoy a healthy sale among the adult disk buyers.

"IN A ROMANTIC MOOD"—Oscar Peterson with Strings—Verve MG V-2002 (1-12" LP)

RUBY; STARS FELL ON ALABAMA; BLACK COFFEE; LAURA; THE BOY NEXT DOOR; OUR WALTZ; TENDERLY; I THOUGHT ABOUT YOU; I ONLY HAVE EYES FOR YOU; STELLA BY STARLIGHT; A SUNDAY KIND OF LOVE; IT COULD HAPPEN TO YOU.

Oscar Peterson, so closely associated with expert jazzmanship, enters a somewhat different realm of music on this lovely release. It's the mood music field and it would appear that Oscar has found a second home. Good mood music, like jazz, requires great feeling and imagination; and Oscar has it. Supporting the pianist is a good, lush string ork and some powerful material. The waxing should catch many of Peterson's jazz following plus the horde of mood music lovers.

"EVERBODY SING"—Featuring Guy Cherney—Mercury MG 20131 (1-12" LP)

BEER BARREL POLKA; SWEET ADELIN; SHINE ON HARVEST MOON; SCHOOL DAYS; THAT OLD GANG OF MINE; LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART; YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE; MY WILD IRISH ROSE; HAIL! HAIL! THE GANG'S ALL HERE; HAPPY BIRTHDAY; FOR HE'S A JOLLY GOOD FELLOW; AULD LANG SYNE; GOODNIGHT LADIES.

When any get-together needs perking up, here's the platter that may do the trick. It's a collection of favorite cornball staples performed by an infectious group (those at the party) led by the talented Guy Cherney (the host). Every selection is so well known that there should be hardly any difficulty in either humming the tune or singing the lyrics. Good appeal to adult party throwers or just plain adults.

"MUSIC FOR SWEETHEARTS"—The Romantic Compositions Of Victor Herbert—Peter York And His Concert Orchestra—Decca DL 8242 (1-12" LP)

A KISS IN THE DARK; I'M FALLING IN LOVE WITH SOMEONE; SWEETHEARTS; THINE ALONE; WHEN ALONE; WHEN YOU'RE AWAY; ROMANY LIFE; AH! SWEET MYSTERY OF LIFE; KISS ME AGAIN; ITALIAN STREET SONG; GYPSY LOVE SONG; MOONBEAMS; MARCH OF THE TOYS.

The melodies that have endeared Victor Herbert in the hearts of people the world over are decked with all their sentiment, thanks to Peter York And His Orchestra. Certainly only a few composers of light music have contributed more entrancing melodies than Mr. Herbert. The set's obvious mood music market should be delighted with it.

"QUEEN OF THE GYPSIES"—The Rhythms Of Carmen Amaya—Carmen Amaya And Company—Sabicás, Guitarist—Decca DL 9816 (1-12" LP)

RITMO DE CARMEN AMAYA; TARANTA; SIGUIRIYA GITANA; SOLEARES; TIENTO CANASTERO; SOLEARES; SIGUIRIYA; RONDENA; SOLEA POR BULERIA; ALEGRÍAS.

Though it is not an easy task to capture on recordings what is essentially visual, this Decca disk does relate the excitement of superb Flamenco rhythms. The artists are famed dancer Carmen Amaya and her guitarist arranger Sabicás. This combination keeps the listener excited as they perform one frenzied and colorful rhythm after another. This specialized art of Miss Amaya and Sabicás should find a grateful but restricted audience.

"ORGAN REVERIES"—George Wright—Favorite Organ Solos On The Mighty New York Paramount Theater Pipe Organ—King 395-504 (1-12" LP)

JEANNINE I DREAM OF LILAC TIME; ALWAYS; MAKIN' WHOOPEE; EASTER PARADE; BODY AND SOUL; TIMES SQUARE BOOGIE; ESPANA CANI; SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES; BIRTH OF THE BLUES; TENDERLY; HONKY TONK TRAIN BLUES; FALLING IN LOVE WITH LOVE.

One of today's most successful organ artists on records, George Wright, applies his gifted talents to a number of tastefully selected pieces. Most of the material is played in a nostalgic manner as the set's title may indicate. It should be noted that nostalgia seldom gets in the way when Mr. Wright wants to give his instrument greater flexibility and fresher sounds. George's fans will find the waxing on a par with his older money-making entries.

CLASSICAL

PUCCHINI: Tosca (Opera-For-Orchestra)—Andre Kostelanetz And His Orchestra—Columbia CL 767 (1-12" LP)

Continuing his Opera-For-Orchestra Series, Andre Kostelanetz has set down the orchestral version of Puccini's "Tosca". The poignant and dramatic score lends itself well to the full and accomplished orchestra. Even those opera lovers who have the vocal performance will want to add to their collection. Undoubtedly Kostelanetz's tremendous following (aided by his pop recordings and the recent 98¢ Kostelanetz sampler) will widen the package's audience. Those who have already been injected with the superb qualities of Kostelanetz's "Carmen", "La Traviata", etc., opera-for-orchestra recording, will consider this release a must.

SCHUBERT: Sonata For Piano In B-Flat Major-Landler, Op. 171—Leon Fleisher, piano—Columbia ML 5061 (1-12" LP)

In his mere 31 years on this earth Schubert wrote a prodigious number of sensitive and compelling pieces. Leon Fleisher, an acclaimed young key board artist, performs two Schubert piano works, the "Sonata For Piano In B-Flat Major" and "Landler, Op. 171". The former is a delicate and moody opus that Mr. Fleisher plays with stirring insight. "Landler", a happy little gem, finds the pianist meeting the piece's challenge admirably. It looks like the definitive recording of the two works. Adherents of piano music will find this pressing a desirable acquisition.

VERDI: Il Trovatore—Maria Carena, Olga De Franco, Sopranos—Irene Minghini-Cattaneo, Mezzo-soprano—Aureliano Pertile, Giordano Callegari, Tenors—Apollo Granforte, Baritone—Bruno Carmassi, Antonio Gelli, Basses—With Members Of La Sala Opera Company Chorus And Orchestra, Milan—Carlo Sabajno, Conductor—Camden CAL 289 (2-12" LP)

Verdi's music to a strange and macabre plot has made "Il Trovatore" one of the favorites in the operatic catalogue. Camden, with its valuable Victor backlog, has issued the complete work on two separate biscuits that are banded together. Though the sound is not always dependable it is a worthy performance. With a price tag that is temptingly modest ($3.96) sales are sure to be impressive.

FLOTOW: Martha—Ferruccio Tagliavini, Tenor—Carlo Tagliabue, Baritone—Pia Tassinari, Contralto—Elena Rizzieri, Soprano—Symphony Orchestra And Chorus Of Radiotelevisione Italiana, Turin Conducted by Francesco Molinari Pradelli—Cetra B 1254 (2-12" LP)

Flotow's "Martha" is a light-hearted and frolicsome work that has many delightful melodies to offer the listener. This rarely recorded opus is given a sprightly run-through by a competent cast led by Elena Rizzieri as Lady Harriet and Ferruccio Tagliavini as Lionel. For its sheer melodic inventiveness there is no reason why this fragile opera shouldn't make the rounds (live and on records) more often. This Cetra waxing is a completely satisfying addition to any opera lover's library.

TCHAIKOVSKY: Symphony No. 5—BBC Symphony Orchestra, Sir Malcolm Sargent, Conducting—RCA Victor LM-1947 (1-12" LP)

Probably the most personal works Tchaikovsky ever wrote were his last two symphonies, the Fifth and Sixth. In this Victor pressing the composer's Fifth Symphony is given a highly thoughtful and delicate performance by the BBC Symphony Orchestra under noted conductor Sir Malcolm Sargent. This is just the interpretation the brooding and impassioned work must receive. Excellent addition to the many other disks of the work available.

SCHUMANN: Symphony No. 2 in C Major, Op. 61—Paul Paray Conducting The Detroit Symphony Orchestra—Mercury MG 50102 (1-12" LP)

Before one hears the third movement of Schumann's Second Symphony, the work is overwhelmingly in its almost consistent vitality. The third movement, however, is a passage of considerable lyrical beauty. The fourth movement once again repeats the over-all grandeur of the work. Paul Paray and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra give the opus a generally impressive and creditable reading. Good sound. The set's a worthy addition to the growing number of recordings of the work being made available.

JAZZ

"NOBODY ELSE BUT ME"—Betty Bennet—The Arrangements Of Shorty Rogers And Andre Previn—Atlantic 1226 (1-12" LP)

NOBODY ELSE BUT ME; YOU'RE DRIVING ME CRAZY; MY MAN'S GONE NOW; ISLAND IN THE WEST INDIES; THE NEXT TIME I CARE; TOMORROW MOUNTAIN; TREAT ME ROUGH; MOUNTAIN GREENERY; THIS IS THE MOMENT; YOU TOOK ADVANTAGE OF ME; HAVE YOURSELF A MERRY LITTLE CHRISTMAS; SIDEWALKS OF CUBA.

The voice, melodies, and the arrangements are perfectly matched in this Atlantic platter to give it a special stamp of distinction. The vocalist, Betty Bennet, sings warmly or dynamically depending upon the tune. And she has a wealth of tastefully chosen selections to work with. Shorty Rogers and Andre Previn have supplied the singer and accompaniment with zestful and sensitive arrangements. Both arrangers are also part of the accompaniment. It all adds up to a vocal-jazz disk that should receive an excellent reception.

"INTRODUCING RITA MOSS"—Epic LN 3201 (1-12" LP)

JUNGLE DRUMS; ONE HUNDRED YEARS FROM TODAY; THIS CAN'T BE LOVE; DID I REMEMBER; TAKE THE "A" TRAIN; I GOT IT BAD AND THAT AIN'T GOOD; BOPLIGATTO; EXACTLY LIKE YOU; MY ROMANCE; I ONLY HAVE EYES FOR YOU; LOVE IS HERE TO STAY; THE BLUE ROOM.

Rita Moss, a new, versatile jazz stylist, has successfully jumped all the important hurdle record-wise with a strong introductory disk. In this Epic release Miss Moss handles herself vocally and instrumentally (organ, drums, piano) with a pleasant and imaginative jazz-air. Her languid phrasing creates the intimate jazz mood that is one of the basics of her profession. She's exceedingly clever with "I Only Have Eyes For You". The latter tune typifies the set's solid material. One hopes that this platter will be Miss Moss' big break.

McKim Forms Phonodisc, New Canadian Firm

TORONTO, ONTARIO—Don McKim, general manager of Quality Records Limited, Canada, for the past five years, has resigned from that position to form a new Canadian company named Phonodisc, Limited.

Phonodisc will manufacture its own records in a plant which is now being established in the Toronto area, and has located head offices at 199 Bay Street, Toronto. A branch of the company is also being organized in Montreal, Quebec.

Phonodisc will manufacture and distribute throughout Canada for independent labels in the United States and other countries. This is a field in which McKim pioneered as general manager of Quality, enabling the Canadian firm to successfully develop its own labels by combining a number of independents under the one trade name in Canada.

Phonodisc, with McKim as president, has already commenced operations in Montreal and Toronto, the key centers for approximately 70% of the Canadian market, and is lining up independent distribution in western Canada. Currently they are working on the Willows' "Church Bells May Ring", Otis Williams' "Ivory Tower" and Little Richard's "Slippin' and Slidin'", b/w "Long Tall Sally" among others.

Before joining Quality six years ago, McKim was prominent in Canada's broadcasting field, being in charge of advertising and promotion for a national concern, All-Canada Radio Facilities Ltd.

In describing Phonodisc's operations, McKim emphasizes that he has long felt that there is a place in Canada's booming economy for a Canadian record company which is not a subsidiary of any major label and free to fully represent the independents in the American field. He feels that Canada is economically nothing more than an extension of the American market, in view of the fact that buying trends are identical, and points out that Phonodisc's operations in merchandising will be as closely coordinated with its American associates as possible.

Sales activities of Phonodisc will be directed by McKim, who will be assisted by Jack Boswell, well known in Canadian record selling, and Frank Weaver, who managed production at Quality for several years, will be in charge of Phonodisc's plant.

ABC-Paramount Signs

Don Elliott to Many Sided Contract

NEW YORK—Don Elliott, who is best known as a mellophone, vibraphone and jazz virtuoso, has been signed to an unusual contract with ABC-Paramount.

First and foremost, Don is a star performer of the jazz department. His first album on this label "A Musical Offering By Don Elliott" is to be released momentarily. Although Don Actually heads a quartet, he plays with a sextet on this album. "Our Love" from this LP is being released as a single. His next album will be with his own quartet.

Elliott's contract also reads that he must record vocally for their Pop Department. Besides this, Don will write the arrangements, for and his group will back up, several of the company's singers, beginning with Janet Brace's new LP.

ABC-Paramount also has first choice of all of Elliott's original tunes to be recorded by himself or by other artists. So far, three of Don's tunes have been used, all of which are published by D & D Publishing Company, belonging to Don and his Manager, Doris Wiss.

There is also a strong possibility that Don will lead the ABC-Paramount dance band for recordings.

Don's contract also has a non-exclusivity clause, permitting him to record for other companies as long as "By courtesy of ABC Paramount" appears under his name.

Bill Carrigan Named Manager of WHLP

NASHVILLE, TENN.—Bill Carrigan, who has been mentioned as one of the top deejays in the nation, this week accepted the position as station manager of WHLP, Centerville, Tennessee, according to J. G. Thompson, president of the station.

Carrigan outlined a plan of rapid development for WHLP and he is scheduling 4½ hours of country music here in this strong country section. The station is a daytime operation with a strong signal into surrounding cities, including Nashville.

Prior to accepting the WHLP position, Carrigan, was employed in Chattanooga, Tennessee, where he went from duties at WSM and WMAK in Nashville. While serving with the American Forces Network in Europe, he is credited with having started the European version of the Grand Ole Opry which was very successful.

Carrigan records for Dot Records with his group called "Bill Carrigan's Top Bop Band." Kirk Hansend is the feature vocalist on the first release. Carrigan's entry in the music publishing field is "Rock City Music."

Dot Covers "Ivory Tower"

With Gale Storm

NEW YORK—Randy Wood, prexy of Dote Records, had his eye on the tune "Ivory Tower" for a cover by one of his artists, for a number of weeks. As soon as he had received an indication of the song's strength, he flew to Hollywood and recorded the number with Gale Storm.

Wood states that 150,000 disks were shipped during last weekend.

Four Lads Donate $1000 To Cleveland Institute of Music

CLEVELAND, OHIO—Co-existence between the ‘long-hair’ and ‘pop’ musical camps hit a new harmonious high in Ohio, on Sunday night (March 25), when Cleveland disk jockey Bill Randall accepted a $1000 check from the Four Lads, to be presented as a gift to the Cleveland Institute of Music. The check was then given to Frank Taplin, president of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, who praised the Lads for their abiding interest in classical music, and their own contribution to good music in the popular idiom, in which “they have maintained the highest musical standards.”

The Lads' interest in classical music is no surprise, as the boys met and formed their association in a choir school where they all received the solid musical background that has skyrocketed them to stardom.

THE CASH BOX RHYTHM N' BLUES Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Newspaper reports (and all the local papers carried the story) tell of the approximately 22,000 teenagers who flooded into the State Theatre in Hartford, tied up traffic, and ended with a number of arrests and fines ranging from drunkenness and breach of peace. The cause of it all was a three day Alan Freed show. It was reported that Hartford was "hopping mad" and that the acting city manager called a conference of the police, fire, building and license departments to discuss the revocation of the State Theatre's vaudeville license. Psychiatrist Dr. Francis Braceland of the Institute of Living called the music "a communicable disease . . . its music appeals to the adolescent insecurity and drives teenagers to do outlandish things . . . like wearing zoot suits. . . . It's cannibalistic and tribalistic." It seems to us that the answer is in the fact that 22,000 kids literally poured themselves into the theatre as against the half dozen or so that were hauled into court and fined. Can you get 22,000 kids anyplace and not run into a few bad pennies. And even the bad few can be controlled with the proper supervision. When 22,000 people attend a ball game at Ebbetts Field, the Yankee Stadium, or the Polo Grounds, the city assigns special policemen, the management puts special patrolmen in every section, the traffic departments assign extra policemen to control the heavier influx of cars, and the city transportation department puts on more trains to handle the heavier passenger traffic. And the spectators are adults, for the main part, not kids. We've witnessed any number of fights break out in the stands but the flareups are quelled in seconds and no one ever dreams of suggesting that the licenses of the ball clubs be revoked. It's true that the 22,000 kids in Hartford were spread out over a period of three days, not one show, but the point is that proper supervision and foresight are the answers, not banning. Remember raccoon coats and flasks; waterhose fights in the towns after a football game, panty raids, tearing up the insides of trains on the way to some event? How do you explain these wild escapades when they can't be blamed on rock and roll? The management of the theatres involved are making more money on these rock and roll shows than they have made in many, many years. Let them spend some of it on more ushers and special policemen and there will be no repercussions later to kill the goose that laid the golden guldens. . . . Atlantic Records expects big things from its newest releases. All four items on Atlantic, Joe Turner's "Corrine-Corrina"; Ruth Brown's "Sweet Baby of Mine"; The Drifters' "You Promise To Be Mine"; and The Cardinals' "Off Shore" and "Choo Choo" promise to be best sellers according to the diskery's board of strategy. They also are high on the new Sensations' "Ain't He Sweet" on Atco. The artist loaded firm also announced the grand coup of the week when they signed Chuck Willis, vocalist-song writer. Chuck will be in town this week to go over material and possibly into a session. . . . George Goldner, Rama and Gee Records, tells us he is doing a great business with four disks doing verreee nicely for him. "Why Do Fools Fall In Love" by the Teenagers; "Little Girl of Mine" by The Clefftones; "Completely Yours" by the 4 Chaps; and "The Woo Woo Train" by the Valentines. . . . Bea Kaslin, Hull Records, tells us William Miller and Billy Dawn, on the road plugging the latest Hull plotters and playing some future releases for the distribs and jockeys, report that they have been given wonderful treatment by all they've visited and that the reaction has been exciting. . . . Jerry Winston thinks he has a big-big item in Mardi Gras' new LaPlaya release "The Laughing Cha Cha Cha". . . . Hy Siegel, Apollo Records, reports "I'm Wise", Eddie Bo, keeps building and spreading into new territories each week. "It looks like a real big one for us", says Hy. . . . Ray Clark, Groove Records, announces the appointment of two more distribs this week. Essex Distributors, Newark, N. J., and Universal Record Distributors, Philadelphia, Penna. Ray received a phone call from Piano Red who excitedly told him that "I Ain't Nobody's Fool" is the number one request tune at WAOK-Atlanta, Ga. . . . Bob Rosen, Herald Records, reports the diskery has three tunes that are selling very well and on the verge of breaking out into the hit category. They are "Sister Sookey", The Turbans; "Dear Diary", The Smoothtones on Ember; and "Little Fool" by the Charlie and Ray. Rosen advises the Herald jazz lp line will be expanded by two in about ten days. They are Reg Wilson's "All By Himself" and Mickey Sheen's "Have Swing Will Travel". . . . In his advance work, Delaney found the record distribs, one stops operators, dealers and deejays enthusiastic and 100% cooperative. Everyone, dealers included, has joined in the promotion of the records of the artists involved. Each day will find deejays acting as MC's with co-op ads combining theater and station plugs. Some of the jockeys who have agreed to work with the Rock-A-Rama are Danny Fusco, Carl Swanson, Bruce Rector (WRUN), Nick Dardano, Stan Sanders, Ed Hickey, Bob Stanley, Carl Fimmano (WGAT), Sherm Brodey (WRUC), Ernie Anderson, Paul Flanagan, Jack Dugan (WTRY), Bill Pope, Marty Ross, Alix Blake, Geo.

Sammy Kaye Disputes Rock 'n Roll Critic

NEW YORK—"Thoughtless and in bad taste!" said bandleader Sammy Kaye today in lashing out at Dr. Francis J. Braceland, of the Institute of Living in Hartford, Connecticut concerning the psychiatrist's comments about rock and roll music and teenagers.

Dr. Braceland, in a statement pertaining to disturbances that led to 11 arrests last weekend in a Hartford theater, had described rock-and-roll as a "communicable disease", and had condemned teenagers' "insecurity and rebellion", which, he said, impels them to affect ducktail haircuts, wear zoot suits and carry on boisterously at rock-and-roll affairs.

In a letter to Dr. Braceland, Kaye noted, "It seems . . . that you regard any person who enjoys rock-and-roll on much the same plane as you would regard a gangster."

"You most certainly have a low opinion of millions of decent well behaved teenagers," Kaye said.

Noting that he, as a bandleader, prefers to play a more gentle kind of music, Kaye told Dr. Braceland that he has nevertheless questioned hundreds of "intelligent, alert American youngsters . . . the kind you would be proud to call your own", about their liking for rock-and-roll. The most frequent reply to his queries, said the bandleader, has been "It's exciting. It's different."

"Perhaps," said Kaye, "that sums it up best. Teenagers like that which is 'different' . . . Why call them dirty names just because they are young?"

Agreeing that those youngsters who had misbehaved in the theater should be punished, Kaye admonished . . .

"But please do not injure the millions of nice, respectable youngsters who like rock-and-roll by automatically putting them in the same class as the wrongdoers."

Decca Promotes Two Movie Albums "Picnic" And "Anything Goes"

NEW YORK—Decca Records has announced joint promotions with Columbia Pictures and Paramount Pictures on the film companies' respective new releases of "Picnic" and "Anything Goes". Decca is simultaneously releasing the soundtrack albums from both of these films. Promotional plans on the albums will be directed toward dealers, for whom extensive display pieces have been prepared, and disk jockeys. The release of these two new soundtracks marks the latest in Decca's activity in this field. So far this year, in addition to "Picnic" and "Anything Goes", Decca has released the tracks from "The Benny Goodman Story," "The Man With The Golden Arm" and "The Court Jester".

"The Man With The Golden Arm," which is one of the country's biggest sellers as an album, and is racking up heavy sales via single recordings of the "Main Title" theme, now has had lyrics added to it. Danny Kaye has waxed the new number for Decca. It is the aforementioned "Main Title", now called, in its lyric version, "Delilah Jones". New lyrics were penned by Sylvia Fine. Music is by Elmer Bernstein. Flip side of the Kaye disk is "Molly-O", also from the same picture.

"Rock Around The Clock" Flic Features Haley, Freed, Platters

NEW YORK—Decca's rock and roll stars Bill Haley and his Comets; Mercury sensations, The Platters; and popular rock and roll disk jockey Alan Freed, along with a number of other tremendous rock and roll talents, made their film debut an impressive one via "Rock Around the Clock", the new Columbia pic.

The Robert Kent-James Gordon story and screen play is simple and does the job of tying all the sprightly music that's heard throughout this 77-minute flicker. Johnny Johnston, manager of a pop band, joins the ranks of the unemployed when the public interest in pop dance bands dwindles. He discovers the Haley rock and roll band in a small town, makes an agreement to handle the group, and here begins the combo's climb to stardom. A romantic twist is woven into the plot between Johnston and Lisa Gaye.

Alan Freed, an old buddy of Johnston, gets a good opportunity to display his exciting personality with some emcee chores.

But it's the music that takes the spotlight all through the pic. For it's the music that will have the kids jamming the box office. Haley lets loose with some of his classics: "Mambo Rock", "Razzle Dazzle", and "Rock A-Beatin' Boogie", and is in top form with two current chart items: "See You Later, Alligator" and his latest release "R-O-C-K". As expected, he tears down the house with his two-time hit, "Rock Around the Clock". It wouldn't be at all surprising if the latter starts hitting over again.

The Platters provide strong kid material in their two smashes: "Only You" and "The Great Pretender". And Wing's new group, Freddie Bell and the Bellboys ring out with their wild "Ding Dong."

Though low budget, this should pull plenty into the till. In addition to doing a great deal for the producers (moneywise) it will also serve as a great booster for the artists involved.

"I'M IN LOVE AGAIN" (2:00)

[Reeve BMI—Domino, Bartholomew]

"MY BLUE HEAVEN" (2:10)

[Leo Feist ASCAP—Whiting, Donaldson]

FATS DOMINO

(Imperial 964)

FATS DOMINO

● It is evident that Fats Domino, having kicked national hits into the r & b and pop charts on his last couple of releases, intends to stay in there. Fats comes along with a sizzling item, "I'm In Love Again", a middle beat rhythmic easy rocker, that has all the qualities for a fast take off into the top sellers. Stay real close to this one. The coupling, "My Blue Heaven", is a great reading of the classic oldie and will come in for its share of deejay play and sales. However, for the stronger over the counter action we lean to "I'm In Love Again".

BIG WALTER

(Peacock 1661)

● "SHIRIEY JEAN" (2:30) [Lion Publishing BMI—W. Price] Big Walter sings a slow rock set to a pretty melody. Walter handles the item effectively. It was a very catchy phrase that could help it pick up good action.

● "GAMBLIN' WOMAN" (2:42) [Lion Publishing BMI—S. Hemp-hill] Big Walter sings one for the southern markets in a middle beat jump. It's a story of his dice shaking woman who loses all the time. This side has the drive to make it a strong selling wax.

SAM (THE MAN) TAYLOR

(MGM K12218)

● "AROUND THE HORN" (2:22) [Time BMI—Taylor] Sam Taylor goes crazy on a racing ditty in which his sax blowing is featured. Taylor takes off on some astounding runs that leave the listener breathless. Wild, man, wild.

● "O'HO, OH YEAH, UH HUH" (2:38) [Overtone BMI—Wyche, McFarland] Taylor sings a mild romantic chucker that comes off a fair side, but without the excitement his horn engenders.

ROBERT & JOHNNY

(Old Town 1021)

● "I BELIEVE IN YOU" (2:41) [Maureen Music BMI—Mitchell & Carr] Robert & Johnny chant an easy swinging lilt of a slow tempo ballad. The lads come up with a wonderful sound and treatment of the melodic ditty and the deck bears every promise of making it big.

● "TRAIN TO PARADISE" (2:42) The duo does a good job on another slow rhythmic blues with sound and tempo to simulate a train. Deck is well done—but it must bow to the superior commercial possibilities of "I Believe In You".

THE GRIFFINS

(Wing 90067)

● "FOREVER MORE" (2:20) [Blossom Music BMI—] The Griffins blend smoothly on a melodic slow beat ballad with good results. It is a romantic item that makes pleasing listening. Ok deck.

● "LEAVE IT TO ME" (2:28) [Wadsworth BMI—] The Griffins back with a rhythmic quick beat that is a sprightly item. Deck has sparkle and drive. The kids can romp to it.

RED PRYSOCK

(Wing 90070)

● "FRUIT BOOTS" (2:37) [Duchess Music BMI—] Red Prysock, whose song titles have been as intriguing as the music his horn and band supply, makes this entry a modified (for Prysock) rocker that will please his fans. Excellent jump wax.

● "PLAID LACES" (2:41) [Hartsdale Music BMI—] Similar comments. A swinging, hard hitting deck with screaming horns and a big beat. Two lindy hoppin' sides.

LLOYD PRICE

(Specialty 571)

● "WOE HO HO" (2:20) [Venice BMI—L. Price] Lloyd Price pushing his comeback since his release from the armed forces with a middle beat rocker. Deck has a lot of drive and it should meet with a good reception.

● "I YI YI GOMEN-A-SAI" (2:20) [Venice BMI—L. Price] Lloyd rocks with an oriental flavor on the flip and the result is an engaging jump etching. Both decks have the drive to catch on.

THE NITECAPS

(Groove 4G-0147)

● "TOUGH MAMA" (2:37) [Patricia Music BMI—Bob Hamilton] The Nitecaps skip through a middle beat bouncer with a delightful bit of verve. Happy sounding deck that should stir up action.

● "SWEET THING" (2:20) [Arcady Music ASCAP—DeLaine, Curtis] A cute jump delivered with a lightheartedness that pleases. Deck moves nicely. Good two sider for the teeners.

THE CLIQUES

(Modern 987)

● "THE GIRL IN MY DREAMS" (2:50) [Josea, Ling, Taub, Davis] The Cliques work with an easy going delivery as they etch a slow, restrained ballad jump. Easy to take melody and reading.

● "I WANNA KNOW WHY" (2:20) [Modern BMI—Josea, Ling, Taub] The lads blend well on a middle beat rocker in which they ask "why you do me like you do". Good beat for the dance crowd, tho the deck doesn't have the real excitement the kids go for.

MEL WILLIAMS

(Dig 107)

● "TALK TO ME" (2:55) [Dig Music BMI—Otis, Kelso, Williams] Mel Williams sings a sincere reading of a slow rhythmic blues with a romantic lyric. Pop styled.

● "HERE AT MY PHONE" (2:28) [Dig Music BMI—Hal Roberts] Williams offers a tender slow paced ballad on the flip. Chanted with moving sincerity. Easy to listen to.

THE DELTONES

(Baton 223)

● "BELIEVE IT" (2:05) [Marlyn Music BMI—Scott, Taylor] The Deltones turn in an ok performance on a middle beat bouncer with a rocking beat. Teener fare.

● "MY SPECIAL LOVE" (2:46) [Dare Music BMI—Lou Sprung] The group chants a slow beat ballad blues effectively. Rhythmic, pulsating wax easy to listen to.

EARL BOSTIC

(King 4905)

● "I'LL STRING ALONG WITH YOU" (2:33) [Witmark ASCAP—Warren, Dubin] Earl Bostic, his talented sax and his combo turn in a warm and ear pleasing reading of the melodic oldie. Bostic continues to build his catalogue with material from the standard files, and as ever, turns in magnificent efforts.

● "BUGLE CALL RAG" (2:14) [Mills ASCAP—Schoebel, Meyers, Pettis] Bostic ups the tempo with a racing reading of Bugle Call Rag. Bostic's screaming horn spits out a gymnastic performance that excites.

RANDY SHIPP

(Duke 150)

● "BABY, I NEED YOU" (2:31) [Lion Publishing BMI—Robey, Washington] Randy Shipp makes his bow on the Duke label with a middle beat rhythmic bouncer that comes out a pleasant wax.

● "AM I TO BLAME" (2:46) [Lion Publishing BMI—Robey, Washington] The flip is a slow paced ballad warmly sung. Shipp's warm performance could have been strengthened with a more potent musical backing.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"YOUR PROMISE TO BE MINE" (2:35)

[Progressive BMI—Oliver]

"RUBY BABY" (2:15)

[Tiger BMI—Leiber, Stoller]

THE DRIFTERS
 (Atlantic 1089)

THE DRIFTERS

● The Drifters come up with a powerhouse follow up to their big hit, "Adorable", in a slow paced romantic mood ballad, "Your Promise To Be Mine". The group turns in an emotional performance filled with the vocal gimmicks that are currently the vogue with the kids. An intensely dramatic arrangement of the floater is stirringly performed, with the laurels going to the lead for his stirring reading. The flip, "Ruby Baby", is a middle beat jump rocked with spirit by the Drifters. It will be well received by the teeners, tho we feel it's "Your Promise To Be Mine" for the charts.

BIXIE CRAWFORD
 (Empire 102)

B "HOW BIG A FOOL" (2:27) [House of Fortune Music BMI—Motola, Brandt] Bixie Crawford handles the slow, rhythmic blues with a feeling filled vocal. Backing the thrush is Ernie Freeman currently a chart item on his own. An easy to listen to side.

B "ROCK AND ROLL WEDDING" (2:33) [Simon House BMI—Motola, Brandt] Miss Crawford has one on this side that is beginning to make noise in the top field via another reading. This is the more intriguing side to the record buyer. Real teener material.

DIMPLES HARRIS
 (Crest 1013)

B "IF YOU'LL BE TRUE" (2:28) [American Music BMI—Harris] Dimples Harris offers a deal. If he'll be true, she'll give her heart to him. It is a quick beat jump with an infectious rhythm and vocal.

C+ "THIS I DO BELIEVE" (2:33) [American Music BMI—Harris] Miss Harris changes pace on the flip, wailing a slow paced blues with warmth. Fair wax.

CHARLES BROWN
 (Aladdin 3316)

B "ONE MINUTE TO ONE" (2:39) [Leo Feist-Coots, Lewis] Charles Brown drifts laxly through a slow, delicate ballad. Brown tenders the romantic item with an intimate treatment. Low lights and a nook in the far corner.

B "PLEASE DON'T DRIVE ME AWAY" (2:20) [Aladdin BMI—Ervin, Brown] Brown wails a slow blues on the flip. His soft treatment lends authenticity to the lyric in which he begs his woman not to drive him away. Ok deck.

THE CARDINALS
 (Atlantic 1090)

B+ "OFF SHORE" (2:40) [Hanover ASCAP—Diamond, Graham] The Cardinals drift through the delicate melody with a whispering softness and haunting quality. It is a beautiful wax that deserves attention. It is perhaps just a shade too fragile for the wants of our teenagers, tho there should be sufficiently large enough market to sell plenty of this etching. Given enough exposure it could make its biggest dent in the pop field.

B+ "CHOO CHOO" (2:46) [Progressive BMI—Winfield Scott] The Cardinals back with a strong quick beat, performed with excellent harmony and teamwork. This deck has the beat that should appeal to the teeners. Should do well saleswise.

LARRY EVANS
 (Fabar 4009)

B "WHAT ABOUT ME" (2:30) [Quintet BMI—Stoller, Leiber] Larry Evans rocks out an appealing jump in good style. Deck is a spirited one and Evans gives the chuckley tale of woe a strong reading.

B "JUNCO RETURNS" (2:21) [Dandelion BMI—Larry Evans] Evans reads a middle beat calypso type ditty with an easy charm. Ok two sider.

SONNY BOY WILLIAMSON
 (Checker 834)

B+ "YOUR IMAGINATION" (2:39) [Arc Music BMI—Williamson] Sonny Boy Williamson sings a southern middle beat blues bemoaning the treatment he is accorded by his baby. It is a wailing blues given a strong vocal treatment by the chanter. Should rack up a goodly sale.

B "LET ME EXPLAIN" (2:39) [Arc BMI—Williamson] Williamson backs with another middle beat southern blues. A strong rocking beat is accompanied by a lyric in which Williamson begs for the opportunity to explain. Two good sides.

THE CASH BOX Country Roundup

Grandpa Jones and Stringbean recently bought a large farm on the outskirts of Nashville. The farm has two homes on it and Grandpa and Stringbean plan to move in sometime in the late spring.

WSM has been receiving many queries about how to arrange for an appearance on Mr. Dee Jay, USA. Mr. Dee Jay, USA is open to any country music disk jockey who asks for a place on the show and is willing to wait his turn, for reservations are usually filled several weeks in advance. Any deejay who has not yet appeared on the show and wishes to do so should write to William R. McDaniel, Director of Public Relations, WSM, and ask for a reservation and give WSM some idea of the date on which he prefers to appear. The program has now been operating almost three years. In that time the disk jockeys who have appeared on it have come from 36 states and Canada. No one has ever appeared twice on the program, for requests for an initial appearance are so heavy we have not felt justified in permitting those who have already been on once to come back for a second appearance.

GRANDPA JONES

Little Jimmy Dickens starred on the March 24th Prince Albert portion of the Grand Ole Opry and Red Sovine was special guest. Carl Smith held the spotlight on the March 31st show and Goldie Hill was special guest on that evening.

Webb Pierce (Decca) is now back on the 'Opry' with his own show. Pierce returned with the 'Opry' broadcast of March 17th.

Audrey Williams is reported to be getting top attention and mention with her latest MGM record "Ain't Nothing Gonna Be Allright" and "Livin' It Up, And Havin' A Ball". Nice newsletter and Fan Club Journal from Del Wood's Fan Club prexy, Pat Boyd, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Herbert Shucher, personal manager of Jim Reeves, types that Reeves is set for the Prince Albert portion of the Grand Ole Opry on April 7th. April 1st, Reeves worked the State Theatre in Niagara Falls, N. Y. with Ramblin' Lou promoting the date.

George and Earl (Mercury) into Nashville recently for a Mercury recording session with Dee Kilpatrick, Mercury's A&R topper. Also visiting Nashville was Rocky Bill Ford and Wayne Walker, songwriters of Houston, Texas.

Carl Stuart, WVOM, Boston, Mass., debuts on the Starday label with his first recording of "Let 'Em Talk" and "I Did Care, I Do Care."

Sheriff Tex Davis of Norfolk, Va. and Country Music promoter, reports that he recently featured the following artists in a 'package show' which drew some 3,500 paid admissions: On the bill were Marty Robbins, Jim Reeves, Wilburn Brothers, Don Reno and Red Smiley, Don Winters, Frankie Starr, Giner and Hal Willis and special guest Cy Coben, songwriter.

CARL SMITH

Ray Godwin WFJX, Ft. Jackson, S. C. continues to do his part of the C&W dinking, doing several hours of C&W music on his record shows each week.

Good to hear from deejay friend Walt Gaines of WCSS, Amsterdam, N. Y. who holds forth with his C&W record shows over WCSS and also WLFH in Little Falls, New York.

Word from Art Barrett informs us that Willie Phelps' newest release is out on the Dixie label with a boy named Biddy Meredith. Title of the song is "Moon Song," placed by Gabe Tucker of the Ernest Tubb office. Reports from "Meet Me In The Chapel" are still good, and encouraging, Barrett says. Also, the Virginia Rounders have an upcoming release on the Cactus label soon! Watch for this one.

The Blackwood Brothers Quartet (RCA Victor) are currently engaged in a series of personal appearances that includes dates in the states of Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, Alabama and end their current schedule of appearances in Memphis, Tenn., their home town, on April 28th.

Carl Perkins, who guested on the Jubilee on March 17th from Springfield, Mo. with Red Foley, was recently involved in an auto accident that will sideline the rapidly rising Sun artist for a few days. Reports from Dallas say Perkins will be back strong in a few days, working his schedule.

Jim Coleman has been added to the staff of Red Foley Enterprises, handling publicity and promotion.

Maxine, Jim Edward and Bonnie Brown debut with their first RCA Victor recording that looks like a real clicker. "Goo-Goo-Dada", is the title and is now top promotion from Earl Barton Music, publishers of the sng. Dee Kilpatrick of Mercury has also released it on Mercury with the Carlises.

Georgie Riddle, 20-year-old country entertainer and D. J. has joined the staff at WRHC in Jacksonville, Florida and will do from two to four hours of record spinning each day. W. O. Fleener of Sage and Sand Records notes that Eddie Dean appeared in "Buck Smith's Barn", Medford, Oregon, Mar. 17th. Eddie also appears on "Western Varieties", KTLA-Los Angeles, Calif. each Friday, and on Fri. and Sat. with Tex Williams at the Riverside Rancho. Fleener says that Dean's waxing of "Look Homeward, Angel" and "Downgrade" is moving in Los Angeles, Chicago and Cincinnati and that it looks as if it might top "Hillbilly Heaven". Phil Gray has the first of the pop covers of "Look Homeward, Angel" on the Ridgeway label.

The Frontiersmen, Sage & Sand, just returned from a 30-day tour with Rex Allen through Tex., Ariz., and New Mexico. The boys also appear with Dean, each week, when not on tour. They have two new decks out tagged "Whitlin' Kind Of Love" backed with "Cold Gray Dawn" and "The Baby On The Doorstep" paired with "All Alone". . . Sheriff "Tex" Davis, WCMS-Norfolk, Va., reports that he had Carl Perkins and The Buckskins, winners of Arthur Godfrey's "Talent Scouts", for the March 21st show, just previous to Perkins' bad auto crash.

MARTY ROBBINS

"Uncle" Len Ellis (WJOB-Hammond, Ind.) now has a special program every afternoon which he programs from the "Top Twenty" in The Cash Box.

Ray Anderson, WCHO-Washington Court House, reports that he's opened a new record shop in town, Friday, March 30th on South Fayette Street . . . called "Ray's Record Shop" . . . and in dire need of records on all labels. He's only going to handle Hillbilly and Sacred and would like to hear from anyone who handles records of this type on any label . . . and also would like any artist who happens to be in his area at anytime to stop by the shop and visit with him. He has 2½ hours per day on the air right from the shop, 2:00 P. M. till 4:30 P. M. and is adding an extra hour every evening.

But above all . . . he needs records in the worst way . . . and a little help from some distributors who handle country-western-sacred records . . . and also country and sacred song books. In addition, he'll be glad to handle fan club magazines.

Wes Rose just back in Nashville after a visit throughout the South on a promotion trip for the Acuff-Rose pubbery, according to word received from Wes' office and Joe Lucus. Wiley Barkdull's recording on Hickory of "You're Always On My Mind" is reported to be doing very well. Flip is "Me, You And My Heart".

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE OF THE WEEK

"MY DREAM OF THE OLD RUGGED CROSS" (2:13)
[Driftwood BMI—C. Smith, Organ]

"ANSWERS" (2:38)
[Cedarwood BMI—W. Walker]

CARL SMITH (Sacred)
(Columbia 21507; 4-21507)

● Carl Smith takes one of the top spots in the new release field this week as he comes up with a power-packed platter that oughta make a huge dent in the sacred market as well as appealing to his vast legion of fans. The chanter regrets a lifetime of sin as he, along with a chorus, movingly projects a stand-out, moderate paced item tagged "My Dream Of That Old Rugged Cross". The flip portion, "Answers", is a heartfelt, middle beat deck that finds Smith asking for guidance from above.

"ROCK ISLAND LINE" (3:00)
[Hollis BMI—L. Donegan]

"THAT'S THE WAY IT'S GONNA BE" (3:00)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—J. Work]

JIMMY WORK
(Dot 1279; 45-1279)

● Jimmy Work steps into the vocal spotlight once again and comes through with another first quality performance on a deck that should mean money in the bank for all concerned. It's a terrific cover, at a bit slower tempo, of the Lonnie Donegan pop hit "Rock Island Line". And Work's slicing should be in there battling for top honors. The under half, "That's The Way It's Gonna Be", is a feelingful, up beat, rhythmic piece that Work spins in most appealing style.

"I'M RAGGED BUT I'M RIGHT" (2:12) [Starrite BMI—G. Jones]

"YOUR HEART" (2:40) [Starrite BMI—L. Henderson, G. Jones]

GEORGE JONES
(Starday 234; 45-234)

● George Jones, whose waxings of "Why, Baby, Why" and "What Am I Worth" have helped him climb way up the ladder of success comes through with a new two-sider that should push him up another few rungs. One end, "I'm Ragged But I'm Right", is an infectious, quick beat tale of a 'split-personality' guy that Jones grooves in wonderful style. On "Your Heart" the warbler convincingly delivers a touching, moderate paced weeper. Strong pairing with the edge going to the top half.

"ROCK ISLAND LINE" (2:42)
[Hollis BMI—L. Donegan]

"HELLO BLUES" (2:03)
[Mar Kay BMI—L. M. Jones]

GRANDPA JONES
(King 4918; 45-4918)

● Grandpa Jones comes up with a top-drawer biscuit that labels him contender all the way. The talented artist returns to the King fold on this release and knocks out a splendid country version of the current pop smash "Rock Island Line". Although there's heavy competition on this side Jones should grab off a large slice of the sales melon. The coupling, "Hello Blues", is a catchy, up-tempo, novelty-blues item that Jones delivers in real pleasing manner. However, it's the upper end for quick action.

DON RENO, RED SMILEY

(King 4907; 45-4907)

B "LET'S LIVE FOR TONIGHT" (2:18) [Lois BMI—D. Reno] Don Reno and Red Smiley sparkle vocally, and instrumentally, as they send up a tantalizing bit of harmony on a quick paced, romantic pleaser. Top notch assist by the Tennessee Cutups.

B "LIMEHOUSE BLUES" (2:08) [Harms ASCAP—Braham, Furger] Here the entire crew sends up a bright instrumental version of the high-flying, old-time favorite. Should win spins aplenty.

JIM EANES

(Decca 29841; 9-29841)

B "DON'T GO LOOKIN' FOR TROUBLE" (2:11) [Cedarwood BMI—J. Eanes] Jim Eanes applies his smooth tones to a catchy, quick tempo, moral-type novelty. A light-hearted entry that should do well in the boxes and over the airwaves.

B "IT'S A SHAME" (2:28) [Copar BMI—J. Eanes] On the reverse portion Eanes convincingly waxes a meaningful, middle beat weeper. Two good sides.

MERRILL MOORE

(Capitol 3397; F3397)

B+ "ROCK ISLAND LINE" [Hollis BMI—L. Donegan] Merrill Moore tosses his hat into the race for top honors as he comes up with a swinging arrangement of the current pop click. Excellent side. Should share heavily in the final take.

B "KING PORTER STOMP" [Melrose ASCAP—Morton, Burke, Robbins] Moore's fetching vocal version of the rockin' old-timer, currently being revived via the Benny Goodman flick, is sure to kick up a heap of dust. Socko instrumental support on both ends.

JOEY GILLS

(Mercury 70832; 70832x45)

B "MY NAME IS JOE" (2:09) [Acuff-Rose BMI—J. Miller] Joey Gills introduces himself to a new gal, and to the public, via his Mercury debut, as he engagingly spins an easy-on-the-ears, quick beat, romantic ditty. Bears close watching. Could step out.

B "POOR CRYING HEART" (2:27) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Miller, Lyles] Here Gills sings 'right from the heart' on a persuasive, middle beat weeper. Two strong entries. Gills has loads of potential.

BILLY WALLACE

(Republic 7127; 7127-F)

B "THAT OLD LOVE OF YOURS" (2:34) [Green Hills BMI—Garret] Billy Wallace comes up with a soft, sincere vocal effort on a sad, moderate paced romantic opus.

C+ "I CAN'T RUN AWAY" (2:27) [Murray Nash BMI—Garret, Wallace] On the bottom side Wallace waxes a middle beat, sentimental piece in distinctive style. Adequate string support on both ends.

JESSE COATES

(Headline 102; 45-102)

C+ "A TALK WITH MY SON" [Heart BMI—J. Coates] A slow moving, heartbreaker is capably handled by Jesse Coates as the Dixie Playboys warmly assist. Penetrating mid-deck recitation.

C "TOOK" [Al Kennedy ASCAP—Al Kennedy] On the under lid Coates sings a cute, middle beat romantic ditty.

LEFTY FRIZZELL

(Columbia 21506; 4-21506)

B+ "TODAY IS THAT TOMORROW" (2:10) [Golden West BMI—J. Johnson] The time for parting that Lefty Frizzell had regretfully expected, arrives and he tells about it in emotion-packed fashion. A powerful, middle beat, crying-towel deck.

B+ "PROMISES" (2:02) [J. Tucker] Here Frizzell refreshingly etches a bouncy, love novelty in a manner that should make the boxes jingle. Keep your eye on both ends.

MINNIE PEARL & GRANDPA JONES

(RCA Victor 20-6474; 47-6474)

B+ "KISSIN' GAMES" (2:20) [Tree BMI—M. Pearl, L. Jones] Minnie and Grandpa Jones combine their delectable vocal stylings on an enticing, quick beat novelty that bounces merrily along in gay style. A musical-pick-me-up.

B "I'M GETTIN' GRAY HAIR" (2:21) [Tunesmiths—V. Whitehurst] Here Jones takes the solo spotlight as he bemoans the fact that his gal's been away so long. An interesting, middle beat piece that Jones nasalizes in effective fashion.

SMOKEY MAC

(ABC-Paramount 9682; 45-9682)

B "SECOND CHANCE" (2:27) [Cedarwood BMI—Pierce, Wilburn] Smokey Mac's voice comes across with the utmost of sincerity on this poignant, moderate paced lover's lament. First class debut platter for Mac.

B "BE FAITHFUL" (2:03) [Cedarwood BMI—Pierce] Mac's mellow tones make for pleasant listening on this middle beat deck as he warmly projects his plea for true love.

HOLLY LANE

(4 Star 1690; 45-1690)

C+ "ALL BECAUSE OF MY JEALOUS HEART" (2:11) [4 Star BMI—K. Adelman] Holly Lane sings in warm and tender fashion on a heart rending, moderate paced romantic opus. Soft, pleasing choral and instrumental support by the Buckskins.

C+ "THE GIRL ON THE CALICO HORSE" (2:37) [4 Star BMI—J. Reagan, S. Stevenson] This end the chirp, ably supported once again by the Buckskins, etches a cute, quick beat ditty with sprightly lyrics.

LEON PAYNE

(Starday 232; 45-232)

B+ "TWO BY FOUR" (2:25) [Starrite BMI—Patterson] Leon Payne and an unbilled gal singer do a most inviting take-off on the Kitty Wells-Red Foley click "One By One." It's an amusing, middle beat, romantic delighter that could develop into a hit deck. Watch it.

B "YOU CAN'T LEAN ON ME" (2:28) [Starrite BMI—Patterson] Here Payne solos on a moderate paced ballad as he tells his unfaithful ex-gal that he now has a true love to take her place. Grade "A" two-sider.

BUDDY THOMPSON

(RCA Victor 20-6485; 47-6485)

B+ "SWEET DREAMS" (2:14) [Acuff-Rose BMI—D. Gibson] The polished vocal stylings of Buddy Thompson are a treat to the ear as he waxes an expressive, middle beat lover's lament in stellar style.

B "STUFF LIKE THAT THERE" (2:05) [Cedarwood BMI—J. Hicks] On the under half Thompson tastefully vocals a dandy, rhythmic novelty bouncer with a rock'n roll flavor and an echo chamber effect. Two solid coin-catchers.

The Big D Jamboree continues to be excited over the three-field new comer, Carl Perkins, who has upstaged the music industry with the bombastic "cat and country" tune, "Blue Suede Shoes". Last week Perkins had many in the trade on their tip-toes when it was reported that he was involved in an auto crash enroute to New York City for an appearance on the Perry Como show. Everyone is happy now that Perkins' injuries were only slight.

through PROPER PROGRAMMING

45 RPM SINGLES FOR ALL
CURRENT POPULAR RELEASES

Proper programming, of course, requires all current record releases—hit tunes, popularity poll leaders, disc jockey favorites. All this music is widely available on 45 RPM Single Records. The Seeburg V-200 provides the opportunity to program a diversified menu of "singles" under appropriate musical classifications.

45 RPM E.P.'S FOR ALL STANDARD MUSIC

Proper programming also demands standard music—show tunes, all-time favorites, light classics and varieties. This 45 RPM music is gradually becoming available only on Extended Play Records. To profitably program E.P. Records, the operator must be compensated for the additional playing time required to play E.P. Records.

THE V-200 PLAYS
BOTH KINDS OF RECORDS
—PROFITABLY!

The Seeburg V-200 does far more than only play both 45 RPM Single and E.P. Records. The V-200 permits programming 45 RPM Single Records at one price and 45 RPM E.P. Records at a proportionately higher price. This is the BIG PLUS of the Seeburg V-200—the World's First Dual Music System.

Industry Acclaims:

“TEENAGE CANTEENS”

Here and There

WASHINGTON, D. C.—An optimistic report was issued this week by the Department of Agriculture in its “Demand and Price Situation” bulletin. The general level of business activity in the early months of this year has changed little from the record rate of the fourth quarter of 1955, it said. Average prices of farm products have remained steady at levels a little above December. Sizable cuts in auto output and sales and some further decline in residential building were offset by an expansion in business investment outlays and government expenditures for goods and services. According to the Department, there are few indications pointing to a decline in business activity and some current trends suggest renewed strength.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Diversification of operations is today becoming more and more a fact. Whereas at one time several years ago, most operators specialized in certain types of equipment, today these firms are now operating every type of machine feasible to the success of their business. This trend, it is interesting to note, is becoming more and more apparent in general business. Reports state that “emphasis on research is a theme that currently is running strongly thru all corporation reports. It is clearly apparent that new and improved products are being sought, not only to win new markets, but to protect existing ones. Intimately related to research is the continued effort to cut costs by new investments in more modern tools for production.”

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Secretary of Labor Mitchell said this week that employers in most major job areas look for a “relative brisk pickup” in employment this Spring. He stated that employment this January and February already is running more than 2.5 million ahead of the same months of 1955. “Therefore”, he stated, “the general optimistic employment outlook for this Spring may indicate Summer job totals ahead of last year’s high level.” Employment reached a record 65,489,000 last August.

NEW YORK—As we go to press, an Associated Press report released a survey of shopping trends in 23 major cities which indicated that, despite the snow and storms, American families are spending more money this year than ever before for Easter, and that retail sales are heading for another all-time high.

Industry’s Mothers and Fathers Urge All Get Together to Create “Teenage Canteens” in Communities Everywhere in the Nation. Agree “Teenage Canteens” Will Definitely Help to Eliminate Juvenile Delinquency. See “Teenage Canteens” as Finest Cause That Can be Adopted by the Industry.

ACCLAIM “THE CASH BOX” FOR PROPOSING THIS GREAT CAUSE AS INDUSTRY’S MOST OUTSTANDING GOOD WILL WINNING PROGRAM.

Mothers and fathers thruout the industry nationwide acclaim The Cash Box for presenting the cause to be adopted by all in the trade as its good will winning program, “Teenage Canteens”.

These mothers and fathers are strong in their belief that “Teenage Canteens”, attractively presented and properly conducted, can be of absolutely tremendous value in helping to eliminate juvenile delinquency wherever it exists thruout the nation.

They urge all members of the industry to immediately join in this cause. Many have already offered to “supply the phonographs and all the necessary recordings”.

Just as many agree that disk jockeys, to act as masters of ceremonies; recording artists to entertain; noted athletes and outstanding personalities in communities to speak; will be more than happy to cooperate at the “Teenage Canteens”.

These mothers and fathers feel that this is the great purpose, the true cause for the industry. They urge one and all, music, vending and amusement operators, their wives, teenage and even older children, to help create and immediately put into action in all communities everywhere in the nation, “Teenage Canteens”.

Wives of music, vending and amusement operators, especially mothers of teenage children, acclaim the purpose of the “Teenage Canteens” as much more than a good will winning campaign to bring the industry favorable public opinion.

They acclaim the “Teenage Canteens” as the shining and outstanding cause for all in the industry. They call it a great crusade. They believe this is the truly great purpose for all engaged in the coin machines industry.

The industry’s mothers and fathers are enthusiastic in their acclamation of the “Teenage Canteens”.

They are definite in their belief that the “Teenage Canteens” can help to eliminate juvenile delinquency.

They even foresee greater development of the “Teenage Canteens” into outstanding organizations of American youth.

This, then, they feel is the great and shining cause of all engaged in the industry.

With the creation of “Teenage Canteens” nationwide will come the heartwarming satisfaction of grand accomplishment to help make this nation greater than ever.

Ops Agree:

DIME PLAY IS THE ONLY ANSWER TO THE HIGHER MUSIC INVESTMENT

CHICAGO—Operators of automatic music are in agreement that one answer to bring them better returns, to match the higher investment they have to make in equipment at this time, is dime play.

These men believe that the dime play may not be the "complete answer" to their problems, it still is the one and only way in which they can arrange to receive returns which will make it worthwhile to invest as much as they have to invest at the present time in new equipment.

Said one well know operator:

"Dime play answers most of the problems the operators have to contend with at this time.

"In view of the fact that most taverns are undergoing an adjustment of patronage, with fewer patrons resulting in almost every other case, and the same for diners, restaurants and other locations, the one and only way that an operator can make his music somehow keep up with the overhead with which he is faced at this time, is by dime play."

Others claim that "front money guarantees" as well as "legal lease contracts" and other methods have to go hand in hand with dime play in most areas to assure the operator of maintaining his locations and retaining his income on a more or less equalized level.

"But there is no doubt", one well known operators' association leader said, "that those music operators who aren't yet charging dimes for their music are going to find the going ever rougher.

"The average music operator can only continue in business on dime play", he emphatically concluded.

Like most other operators he recommends taking complete advantage of each and every location.

He believes that wall and bar boxes should be used efficiently and intelligently in locations where they can bring better returns.

He also believes that every method for promoting and increasing play should also be put into practise by the operators.

He says, "After all is said and done, music is still the mainstay, the backbone of present day operating.

"The operators must do everything in their power to assure themselves that this is a strong and durable backbone. One on which they can base their future."

Chi Music Ops to Elect Officers at Mass Meeting on April 10

Bismarck Hotel Chosen For Big Election Meet of Recorded Music Service Association

PHIL LEVIN

CHICAGO—Chicago's music operators will meet at the Bismarck Hotel here on April 10, to choose new officers for their organization.

The association is officially known as the Recorded Music Service Association. Its headquarters address is 188 West Randolph Street.

Phil Levin, president of the association, called this annual election mass meet after discussion with the Board of Directors.

The belief here is that the present officers have proved themselves among the very best the organization has ever had.

Music operators here are of the opinion that Phil Levin should be retained as President of the organization.

His long experience and outstanding, commendable efforts in regard to the general welfare and betterment of all conditions here for the music operators has won the praise of the membership.

Other officers are considered in much the same fashion by the music operators.

They have been discussing the forthcoming election all over town and the general consensus seems to be to retain the present officers. It is expected that election night will bring a turnout of all the Chicago music operators.

Music Distribs Will Drive to Clear Away Old Clunkers

CHICAGO — Once again, as the weather warms, leading music distributors are taking up the crusade started by this publication two years ago, that of clearing away old, worn-out, dirty, vermin-infested, wartime clunkers from locations everywhere.

The drive started by The Cash Box about three years ago, to rid the industry of "prewar clunkers", was highly successful.

Distributors offered such tempting trades that the greater majority of these prewar phonos were removed from locations within months of this crusade coming into being.

There are still on locations and in actual operation an estimated 35,000 wartime phonographs.

These machines were created from all sorts of parts. They have all types of cabinets, along with makeshift plastic replacements and much worn turntables and mechanisms.

It isn't only the fact that these phonos do not give the public greater selectivity, finer tone quality, beauty and attractiveness, but, what hurts the industry most, is the adverse publicity which results from the operation of such machines.

These phonos, in the greater majority, are dirty, vermin-infested, toneless, ugly and almost completely worn in every regard.

As one noted music operator stated sometime ago:

"They are held together with string and prayers."

These machines hurt every progressive operator in the country and, especially, have a very bad effect on the trade in the communities where they are located.

The public judges all by the adverse publicity that appears in the press regarding this type of equipment.

It is up to the operators, themselves, to rid the industry of these terrible emergency machines that came into being during the wartime period when new equipment was unobtainable.

Distributors plan to have their salesmen beat the bushes in an all-out effort to replace this sort of equipment.

Not only does this mean better business for the distributors, but also means better operating conditions for all the progressive music operators in any community where such old, worn-out, ugly, dirty, vermin-infested, toneless machines are still operating.

Bally Mfg. Announces New Automatic Scoring "Booster Pool"

JACK NELSON

CHICAGO—"Booster-Pool" Bally's new automatic-scoring pool game, is now on display at all Bally distributors, according to an announcement this week by Jack Nelson, general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city.

The new game is designed to permit players to play for position, block opponent's balls, maneuver balls from ends of table around center-pins into scoring pockets at opposite ends of the table. One of the new features contained in "Booster-Pool" is known as the "Color-Detector Totalizer with Automatic Referee". This new device automatically registers each and every ball sunk in matching color-pocket. For example: when player sinks a red ball in red pocket, correct totalizer immediately credits the shot to the correct color. If ball drops into wrong-color pocket, totalizers ignore the shot, but the "Automatic Referee" signals penalty for that player.

A new Progressive Score feature also introduced in the new game is described as follows by Nelson: "First ball sunk by a player in matching-color pocket scores 1. If second ball is sunk in matching-color pocket, before opponent scores, play is worth 5, and Totalizer credits player with total of 6. Third successful shot, before opponent sinks a ball, scores 9. Progressive score-values are plainly displayed on light-up scoreboard. Last-lit value remain lit, from turn to turn, until opponent scores—then re-sets to 1. Winner is first player scoring 21 or more.

"Booster-Pool" is available in 52 in. by 36 in. size. Deliveries are immediate, according to Nelson.

America's Slogan For The Juke Box Industry:

"E PLURIBUS UNUM"

The One and Only Way to Defeat ASCAP Sponsored Legislation, Now Awaiting Public Hearings in the Senate and House Judiciary Sub-Committees, is by Complete Unification of All Divisions of the Automatic Music Industry so as to Present a Single, Solid, Strong Battlefront.

The slogan of America must become the slogan of the juke box industry.

This is a trying period. A time when nerves can be greatly irritated by the need for patient waiting.

But it is also a period of respite. Sufficient time is being given to all music operators, distributors, manufacturers and all their friends, to carefully and sincerely talk things over. To win favorable public opinion. To prepare for the big battles ahead.

Open public hearings are expected in the Senate and the House Judiciary Sub-Committees sometime this coming May on the four pending ASCAP sponsored bills.

These are the most dangerous four bills the industry has yet had to face.

Should they ever get out of the Judiciary Committees of the Senate and the House, there is no doubt whatsoever that the Rules Committees of the Senate and the House will order them out on the floor of the Congress and the Senate for debate.

That mean's they'll pass! They'll be signed into law! And that will forever absolutely smash the automatic music industry!!!

There's only one thing to be done right now. Every single person, in any fashion whatsoever connected with the automatic music business, as well as his employees and all others allied to him, must talk to friends, to location owners, politicians, civic, social and spiritual leaders, fraternal and business organizations, and everyone else with whom he is acquainted, or with whom he does business in his community.

He simply must gain favorable public opinion, especially during this election year, to help in his defense.

The four bills absolutely must be defeated right where they are at the present time—in the Senate and House Judiciary Sub-Committees.

No one man, no one organization, must act now. Everyone must await the moment when he'll be notified to proceed and told just what is expected of him.

The one and only thing all can do now is to keep up and intensify a good will winning campaign to gain favorable public opinion.

Everyone must be prepared for the time when all will have to act as one to battle ASCAP and defeat ASCAP as ASCAP has been defeated time and time again for years past.

This year this can only be accomplished in but one way. That way is for every single person engaged in, or in any fashion whatsoever allied to the automatic music industry, to indelibly impress on his mind and in his heart the great American slogan:

"E PLURIBUS UNUM."

Refreshments, Entertainment and Prizes to Be Presented

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. — Birmingham Vending Company, this city, is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in the Coin Machine business with an open house party on Sunday, April 8, from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M.

Max and Harry Hurvich, founders of the company, have invited all of their friends in the business to attend, and partake of some real Southern hospitality, including refreshments, entertainment, and maybe take home a door prize.

Max and Harry, together with their wives, Rebecca and Rosalie, started Birmingham Vending Company on April 1, 1931. Max and Harry were in the candy jobbing business, which suffered losses along with many other businesses during the depression, and was liquidated in the early part of 1931.

Looking thru a coin machine trade journal, these men saw an ad for Columbus Vendors. They ordered a few machines, and from this modest beginning, soon branched into the distributing business. From that time on, Birmingham Vending Company has represented most of the leading coin machine manufacturers.

"In the beginning," recall Max and Harry, "we worked from our homes. In 1933 we rented a small store. Shortly thereafter, Rock-Ola's 'World Series' was introduced. Thru the sale of this machine thruout the South, Birmingham Vending Company established contact with operators, who have been our customers and friends since.

"From there, we moved into a larger building and in 1949 purchased our own building, which we now occupy.

In these spacious quarters we have facilities for a large display room, a modern up-to-date shop and paint room. Because of our downtown location, operators thruout our territory make it their business to drop in and visit with us when they come to town."

Both of the Hurvich Brothers are active in communal affairs. Max has served as president of many local organizations, and now is on several boards of directors. He is a former board member of the National Vendors Association, and at present a member of the board of directors of the Music Operators of America. Harry is a member of the board of directors of the National Coin Machine Distributors Association, and on the board of many organizations in Birmingham.

Celebrating 25 years in the business, the brothers look toward the future with great optimism. "We feel that with the technical ability and knowledge of the executives and engineers heading our coin machine factories, there will always be new, ingenious and money-making machines produced."

At present, Birmingham Vending Company represents the following manufacturers: AML, Inc., Exhibit Supply Co., Chicago Coin Machine Co., J. H. Keeney & Co., United Manufacturing Co., Genco Mfg. & Sales Co., D. Gottlieb & Co., Victor Vending Corp., Northwestern Corp., Pfanstiehl Chemical Co., Wrigley Gum Co., Beech Nut Packing Co., American Chiclé Co., Leaf Brands, Inc., Ferrara Candy Co., Guggenheim, Inc., Paul Price & Co., Eppy & Co., Hardfield & Co., and Plastic Processes Corp.

To our good friends Harry and Max:

Need Grows For: "National Tax Council"

Cities, Counties, States Hike License Fees in Frantic Search For More Revenue

CHICAGO—Once again operators are advising this publication that its proposal of over 12 years ago, that there be created a "National Tax Council", is now more important than ever.

For example, a proposed law in Alabama would impose an annual fee of $37.50 on juke boxes in places serving alcoholic beverages. In any other place the fee would be $15 per year.

In many other cities, counties and states, clear across the nation, similar type proposals are being made in a constant search for more revenue needed to handle the many expenses governments are now faced with.

Lycoming County, Pa. now collects 10% of the gross receipts from all equipment. This, it is feared, may spread thruout the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In South Carolina, amusement machine taxes upped from $25 to $37.50.

In some small communities all around the nation, license fees are being hiked to $100 per game and more and $50 per phono.

Operators, when faced with such excessive demands are, usually, at a loss when it comes to presenting precedents and other legal material necessary to offset these fee hikes.

The Cash Box originally proposed that there come into being a "National Tax Council" where all legal precedents, all data, and all necessary information, could be gathered together in one spit for the benefit of the entire industry.

Tho some now defunct associations made such attempts, these did not reach the proportions required to be of any national help of a very definite and outstanding nature.

The time has come when all operators' associations clear across the nation should collect all possible license data from every community in their state and classify this information.

A "National Tax Council" will grow in importance as more and more cities, counties and states continue their all-out drive to obtain increased revenues to maintain themselves.

NEW YORK—Runyon Sales Company, with offices in this city and Newark, N. J., played hosts to amusement machine operators, who were invited to attend a showing of the new Bally "Booster Pool" game.

The showing in New York was held on Wednesday and Thursday, March 28 and 29. Operators kept dropping in at all hours during these two days, and Paul Calamari, Bally's field engineer, demonstrated the mechanical and playing features of this new pool game thruout both days.

The same type showing took place in Newark on Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31. Paul Calamari was Comments from operators at both offices were similar. Morris Rood, New York, and Ed Burg, Newark, said that operators were extremely enthusiastic over the money-making potential of this Bally "Booster Pool" game.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE EASTERN FLASHES

Easter was a welcome sight to coinmen here. For two reasons. It ends the Lenten season, which always affects business adversely when in force. And secondly, the weather is bound to warm up. After the recent seige of snow and cold weather, cutting collections severely, ops are now looking forward to increased business. Wholesalers also expect biz to improve considerably with ops getting ready to make the usual Spring changes—both in the city and for country locations.

"Senator" Al Bodkin happier than usual (if that's possible) now that he's been chosen as the "Guest of Honor" for the forthcoming UJA-Coin Machine Industry dinner being held Wednesday night, June 13, at the Sheraton Astor Hotel. With this "Smiling Irishman" at the helm, it's "our" bet that more money will be obtained in 1956 than in any previous year. . . . Runyon Sales Co., New York office, ran a showing of the new Bally "Booster Pool" game on Wednesday and Thursday, Mar. 28 and 29. Hosting visiting ops for Runyon were Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Irv (Kempy) Kempner, Morris Rood, Lou Wolberg and Jackie Prigoff. Demonstrating the game for Bally was Paul Calamari. The Newark offices of Runyon held a two day showing, Friday and Saturday, Mar. 30 and 31. Calamari spent these two days in Newark. On hand for the distributor were Felix Fleischman and Ed Burg. Abe Green was away at Hot Springs, Ark., vacationing. . . . Bennie Koepfel, brother of Harry and Hymie Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing, in from Santa Clara, Calif. for a visit, will stay around some three weeks. Bennie, out of the coin machine biz now, spent some time on coinrow visiting the distribs he used to know. . . . Jerry Lambert, C. L. Amusement, Stamford, Conn., calls on the distribs. Jerry's partner, Herb Chicon, in Ft. Lauderdale, vacationing. Jerry takes his vacation during the summer, and heads for the cool breezes of Maine. . . . Lorenzo Pack, former heavyweight title contender, and a songwriter, now operating juke boxes here. . . . Hank Peteet, Wurlitzer field engineer, visits Joe Young and Abe Lipsky at Young Distributing this week. Hank previously spent some time with the Wurlitzer distribs in Baltimore and Phila. He's not sure where he'll go from New York. Another visitor at Young's was Claude L. Hopkins of Galion, O.

Jerry Koci, ChiCoin's chief engineer, spent a few days here with the firm's distributor, Al Simon of Albert Simon, Inc. Which reminds us, we just received a wonderful "8 Ball" from ChiCoin. It's a paperweight, and a horoscope, as well. You ask a question, then turn the ball upside down. An answer appears. Quite a novel attention getter. . . . Jersey cig ops have a problem to solve by Apr. 16. State Legislature passed a bill increasing tax from 3 to 5 cents per pack, effective at above date. . . . Mike Munves happy over the arrival of Williams' "Crane" and "4-Bagger" baseball game. "Arcade men looking for good new machines" smiled Mike, "and these two are great." . . . Jack Gordon, Seeburg regional representative, at Atlantic New York Corp. visiting Meyer Parkoff, when we called. Jack demonstrates Seeburg's new record library for industrial installation for us. Seeburg player holds 200 records—each record has 6 standard type tunes (3 on a side)—giving operator 600 tunes to play. Program is to change 25 records a month for location—150 tunes. . . . Marvin Liebowitz back from a Key West, Fla. vacation. All tanned and healthy looking Marvin tells us he took the ferryboat to Havana, Cuba (See item in "Here and There" column, Mar. 31 issue). Ferry takes on passengers and automobiles. . . . George Ponser, George Ponser Co., Newark, N. J., reports he's doing a very consistent business, with prospects great for the coming months. . . . Harry Rosen, Atlantic Penna. Corp., Philadelphia, Pa., expected back from Florida after the Easter holidays. . . . Penna. ops concerned over the recent decision (Mar. 15) by the Penna. Supreme Court upholding the constitutionality of the city of Williamsport's 10% gross receipts tax on amusement machines. Report is that other Penna. cities, seeking new sources of local revenue, had awaited this decision. The Williamsport amusement machine tax ordinance went into effect Apr. 19, 1954.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE HOUSTON HAPPENINGS

H. M. Crowe sold his interest in Humming Bird Records and about March 15 opened a new business, Acme Record Distributing Co., 1018 McGowen Ave., with himself as sole owner. Wilson Boone, former outside sales representative for Humming Bird Records, is sa'es manager of the new concern. Crowe, just back from New York, said he had arranged for several new lines to add to his starters which include: Riverside, Good Time Jazz, Contemporary, Imperial, Bethlehem and Fantasy. . . . Operator Bill Gates well pleased with his new Chevrolet fourdoor. . . . J. Q. Chadwick bolstering his music operating with a strictly cash basis home appliance brokerage sales business. . . . Seasonal opening of Houston Playland Park Arcade on March 23 was marked by overflow crowds and very satisfactory cash receipts. The Arcade is owned by Harry Cox with Joe Young as manager and Ruth Joles the cashier. Several new games have been added, wornout equipment replaced with new and the whole shebang rearranged and tuned up in anticipation of the greatest year yet.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE CHICAGO CHATTER

Continued rapid growth of over 60 age group of men and women opens three paths to coinbiz. 1) Amusements and music to be especially created for this fast growing big part of the nation's population. 2) Equipment that can be sold to these older men that will bring them a good livelihood and keep them active as the majority of them desire. 3) Employ them in offices, factories and on routes, where they can add great respectability and long business experience. In all three instances the coinbiz can profit from the over 60 age group now becoming an ever greater problem in the U.S. and, due to great forward strides of modern medicine, will continue to grow larger each year. . . . J. A. (Art) Weinand of Williams just talking along and telling what a tremendous success their new baseball game has become this past week when, to give definite proof to his statements, the long distance phones began to clang with distribs ordering ever more and still more. . . . Al S. Levy back in Dayton, O. where his two sons handling his operating biz. Al's been in the coinbiz for over 53 years.

What a letter from "Hit-'Em-Hard" Art Garvey to Bill O'Donnell. Art a native of Holyoke, Mass writes while visiting there that in all his life, he's never seen so much snow in this area. And while writing, bingo, another snow-storm gets under way. So Art finishes his letter to Bill with, "I'm on my way back to Chicago". . . . Lycoming County, Pa. decided on 10% of the gross from equip't. This puts the county in the operating biz. And as "partner" to ops and location owners, wonder if the county will have to make a "partnership return" to Uncle Sam? . . . Bill DeSelm telling about the reruns at United's factory. Second rerun for "High Score Pool". Third rerun for "Regulation Shuffle Alley". "And", adds Bill, "you can mention we're delivering our new baseball game, 'Star Slugger' as fast as we can." Then dashes on to state, "And don't forget our 'Stardust', it's sensational". . . . Dave Simon in town busy arranging for ever larger and faster shipments. . . . "Texas Phil" pulls into Chicago to discuss ways and means to get more and still more shipments down to his territory. "Texas Phil" being Phil Weinberg of Dallas, in case you didn't know.

It would probably surprise a great many in the industry to learn how many now engaged in the coinbiz are also tremendously outstanding in other lines of endeavor. For example, trio of well known ciggie machine ops in east own largest U.S. birdseed factory. Some own and are partners in noted resort and commercial hotels. Two midwest ops own largest ballroom in their state featuring top name bands. Others own oil wells. Large number engaged in real estate and own apartment and commercial buildings. Some are beer and soft drink distribs. Others own franchised auto agencies. One op has part of stock brokerage. As for taverns, restaurants, record stores, diners, etc., too many to mention. Well known amuse parks and scenic spots owned by ops, Garages, tool shops, factories, also have ops at head. One well known eastern op has successful dress making biz. Makes dresses for dolls. This list can go on and on. Suffice it to state the coinbiz has been but plenty good to lots of people and is still their best and favorite biz—ask them.

Exhibit's Frank Mercuri reports, "I'm putting on too much weight". And after all this weight-worry talk learned Frank had gained 160 ounces. By the way, almost impossible to get in touch with Chet Gore over at Exhibit. This is his busy season. "And Sam Lewis likes F.S.", according to Frank. . . . National Vendor show, following MOA meet at Morrison, will have some games mfrs displaying. . . . Late model used music becoming ever more scarce. . . . Seattle's Johnny Michaels spinning about the town. . . . Jack Nelson busier than ever trying to handle a zillion and one details while greeting all visitors and planning advance trips. . . . Al Thoeke with Budge Wright in Portland. Al tells how much he likes Oregon. . . . Joe Robbins, Jerry Bremner, Jody McFarland, Helen Zochowski, Shirley Rubilino, Caroline Weintraub and boss, Gil Kitt, getting ready to give Empire's roadman, Jack Burns, a one year celebration party. . . . Vince Shay cracks, "I enjoyed the Seders". . . . Ralph Sheffield of Genco reports in with, "I never got down as far as Florida on this last trip." Seems all Ralph could make was Washington, Baltimore and Richmond before he was called back to the busy Genco plant.

Bill facing brewers in Judiciary Sub-Committee in Washington places the Brewers' Foundation in similar spot as juke box biz vs ASCAP. Brewers Foundation urges members to use their radio, TV time, as well as their newspaper and magazine ads, to appeal to public to help kill interstate ad ban. Brewers, too, urge all their members to await the word to "go". . . . Avron and Nancy Gensburg trek to Noo Yawk to enjoy the shows and a few days of rest. . . . Johnny Casola postcards up from Lake Charles, La. . . . Plenty pool games in Detroit awaiting approval. . . . Fred Minter and Bud Kottke trying their bestest to get set in their new Gateway Distrib quarters. . . . Tried to get thru to Ed Levin at ChiCoin and, after waiting and waiting, learned the following calls ahead: Al Calderon from Indianapolis. Sam Solomons from Columbus, Si Lazar from Pittsburgh and Roy Monroe from Cleveland. Tried again in afternoon and five more long distance calls waiting. Man, oh, man, what business going on at ChiCoin. . . . That Williams "Crane" has many, many ops all hepped.

Tom McCormick back from western trip, where he conducted Keeney Service Schools, telling Paul Huebsch all about the big crowds that attended. Chester Biezd phones in from Michigan thrilled over great pool game state this is. Bill Bolles, covering New England, wired in for snow shoes, reports Paul. . . . John Frantz lets everyone know that his firm now has the "ABT Rifle Sport", "Challenger", "Scale" and also "Baker Kicker & Catcher" as well as "Pace Aristo Scales". . . . Quite a circular Herb Jones mailed featuring all the latest Bally Records. . . . 100% of the "20 Year Club" members acknowledged and acclaim "The Cash Box Price Lists". . . . Interesting to recall how the old game of bowling, "Nine Pins", was banned as a gambling game. Bowling would have died. There would not now be over 20 million bowlers in the U.S. if someone hadn't tho't of adding just one more pin. Proving again that unpopular laws are best cir-cumvented. 20 million bowlers now skidding those hard rubber balls down alleys to knock down maple pins are proof of the unpopularity of what was termed "a gambling game" by city fathers who had decided they were the rulers of the people's morals, too.

Just in case you've forgotten—April 8 is "Nat'l Mother-In-Law Day". Don't fret, April 13 is "Nat'l Fun Day". One compensates the other. . . . Vel Allbritten advises from New Orleans that he and Nick Carbajal busier than ever with "some big deals working". . . . Night of April 10 a big one for all Chi's music ops. This is election night. Meeting will be at the Bismarck Hotel that evening to elect officers for Recorded Music Service Assn. . . . Joe Kline took his charming missus, Isobel, to the movies the other eve, and guess what? Joe fell fast asleep during the entire show. Then, to make up for this, Joe drove Isobel over to meet movie star Jeff Chandler. He and Jeff closeted themselves in a room and gassed about the old days when they both served in the Aleutians while Isobel just sat and sat and waited. (Aside: Joe the best way to repay is a mink stole). . . . Everyone 'round town getting a kick out of those fortune telling 8-Balls Chicago Coin mailed around. . . . Mothers and fathers all over the nation urge one and all to join in and create "Teenage Canteens". . . . It's always interesting to note how closely coinbiz parallels nation's economy. Yet, greatest growth ever enjoyed by coinbiz, came during the nation's worst depression, in the '30's. This created theory that where there are an abnormal number of used book stores in any town, it's a good operating town. Means people have more time to enjoy coingames and music. Which is exactly opposite to all economist's theories.

his father—or will he go into the publication field?

At this time Nate is business manager of "Touche", Bucknell's "Literary-Humor" magazine, published quarterly. The editor of "Touche" labels Nate as the man "who balances our books and writes our checks". (Ed. comment: A very exemplary foundation for anyone entering the coin machine business).

In describing Nate's talents, the editor writes: "Nate will be graduating from Bucknell in June with a B.S. degree in Commerce and Finance. As an alumnus, he would like to have a business of his own and specialize in 'making money'. Nate is full of ideas for future business ventures."

The article concludes with "If his plans are successful, he says that he will give his first million to Bucknell for a new building to house the C & F department. Nate is also thinking about going to Columbia Graduate School and living in Greenwich Village."

(Ed. note: So, Nate, hurry up. Make up your mind. Is it journalism or coin machines? Shugy is anxiously awaiting your decision.)

THRU THE COIN CHUTE MIAMI MURMURS

Sam Taran, who it's reported has sold practically all of his operations, and opened a new arcade called "Las Vegas", is now devoting almost all of his time to his distributing end of the business. . . . The Bert Lane plant a real bee-hive of activity, with peak production of amusement machines set for the 3 assembly lines. . . . Charlie Lichtman of Newark, N. J. and New York City, at the fights at the Miami Beach Auditorium with the local coinmen. Says he's retired. . . . Ted Bush and Ozzie Trupman claim the Wurlitzer model "1900" is the best ever produced by Wurlitzer, and that they are selling plenty. . . . Al Schlesinger, bus. mgr. of NCMDA, Chicago, back here for a short vacation. . . . Charlie Aronson, former Brooklyn distributor and operator, was thinking of buying a home here so that he could take it easy, but due to the illness of Mrs. Aronson, decided to return to New York.

Joe Mangone, Gottlieb's rep here, trying to arrange his business matters so that Eloise can stay at home and rear some little Mangones. Mrs. Mangone now expecting her first. . . . Harry Pearl, now with The Bert Lane Co., has moved his family here for permanent residence, and very happy about it. So are his coin friends here. . . . Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt has arranged a complete summer vacation schedule which will take about 6 weeks, he estimates. First step is to drive to the Gensburg brothers' Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas (Willie claims Meyer, when visiting in Miami Beach, invited him to be his guest, but to bring plenty of moola so that he can try his luck. "Who wants to miss a free vacation?" asks Willie). He and Sydelle will then drive to Los Angeles and San Francisco, and then head toward North Tonawanda, N. Y. thru the Northern route. He'll stop off at the Wurlitzer plant for the three day "Centennial Club" party. (Another cuff, says Willie). Then home. Willie is now looking for someone to pay for his gas and oil, and he'll be happy.

MIAMI, FLA.—Justin J. Goldsmith, executive vice president of The Bert Lane Company, Inc., this city, has been guiding the sales of the firm since its inception as Director of Sales.

The team of Goldsmith and Harry Pearl, working under the leadership of the dynamic Bert Lane, will soon be bringing the industry several new coin operated amusement machines.

THERE wasn't any way to stop the newcomer, it seemed. Everyone had tried. The newcomer came into the area with used machines. Fixed them expertly. Shined, polished and repainted them. Also made some mechanical and playing changes here and there. From all indications they just could not be distinguished from new machines by the location owners.

It wasn't too long, because of cut commissions and these unusual revamped machines, before the newcomer had taken almost every good location. The newcomer didn't stop there. More and more used machines continued to roll into his operating store headquarters and just as many suddenly appeared on various locations looking like entirely different machines than what they were originally intended to be.

The newcomer was a genius alright with screw driver, hammer, saw, file and paint brush. Those operators who, by accident or on purpose, passed by the newcomer's store late in the evening saw the lights blazing. The longer the lights blazed, the surer someone was that he'd lose a location, or two, or more.

This went on for sometime before the operators in the area got together for their own self preservation. Whereby, in the past, leaders among them had tried to get them together into an ethical organization and had failed, this damaging hurt to their pocketbooks brought them together of their own free will.

The first meeting was jammed. Every operator in the area was present. Everyone had one, two, or more complaints to register against the newcomer, who seemed to be finding his way into all the best locations in the area while, at the same time, ousting other operators of long standing. All the complaints resolved themselves down to two significant facts.

First, that the newcomer had taken locations away from just about everyone present. Second, that he was ruining the business because of the commissions he was paying.

The first decision, as usually is always the first decision at such meetings, was to arrange for a committee to meet with the distributors in the area. This committee was to point out to the distributors that the operators could no longer afford to purchase new machines and compete with this newcomer. At the same time, point out to the distributors that this newcomer was not purchasing new machines himself but was, instead, revamping old machines.

Another committee was also appointed to visit with those locations that had already switched over to the newcomer. These committeemen would point out that these locations were formerly brought new machines. Now they were getting revamped old machines. These could not stand up very much longer from a mechanical standpoint, they would explain. They would point out to the locations the players had tired of these machines long ago and would soon catch on to the fact that these were old machines, once the glamour of the new paint disappeared.

So the two committees quickly went to work. The fact remains that, regardless of all the talk and all the statements these committeemen made, in anger and otherwise, the newcomer continued right ahead obtaining more locations and getting the location owners' backing in every instance.

It now became quite apparent that there was a lot more to it than just the revamping of old machines. As one thoughtful committeeman pointed out, perhaps the old machines with which play action the players were familiar and, further, because the new paint job and revamping caused the players to think these were new machines, and also because the players found the play easier and they could score better, appealed to them to such an extent that they insisted the location owners retain them.

Another committeeman believed that, even if there was some truth in the fact that familiarity with the machines pleased the players, the bigger factor was that the location owners were actually promoting the play on these machines, because they found their promotional efforts proved extremely profitable, especially compared to the commission they used to receive in the past. The theories ran from fact to fiction. All were at their wits' end in an effort to stop the newcomer from what they most sincerely believed was the ruination of their operating businesses.

At last it was decided among them that an entirely new committee be formed. This committee was to go right to the basic source of their problem. That is, visit with this newcomer. The person who was ruining their routes.

Few wanted to be appointed to this committee. They felt they wouldn't be able to talk to the newcomer in a friendly and unbiased fashion. It was therefore decided to elect a committee by secret vote. All present would write the name of the men they wanted to represent them on a square of paper and drop it in a box set up for this purpose.

In this fashion a committee was at last elected. This committee sat up in the front of the room with the temporary chairman. They listened to what those present believed should be told the newcomer. To say the very least it would have taken volumes of notes on the part of the temporary secretary to gather together all the arguments that were presented that evening. But these were resolved down to as few as possible and the committeemen agreed to call on the newcomer and present the views expressed at the meeting.

The committeemen met at a favorite coffee shop the next morning and talked things over. After which they drove over only to find the newcomer's place locked. They waited and waited. But the newcomer never did show up. In the meantime they had their own businesses to conduct. They split up and went their various ways after deciding that they would meet that evening and again try to catch the newcomer in his place of business.

That evening they again met and went over to the newcomer's store. This time they saw the lights blazing. The place seemed to be occupied. They decided, among themselves and before entering, which one would start the conversation. They agreed not to cut in, regardless of how angry they might become, until this one man signaled them to do so.

They went to the door and tried to open it. It was locked. They knocked. They pushed. They kicked at it. No answer. They were very much upset. They were sure the newcomer would return to, at the very least, turn off the lights. They figured that a service call must have lured the newcomer away from his place and that, when finished with the call, the newcomer would return.

They found a restaurant open a little way down and across the street and decided to wait there. They would have some coffee and, in the meantime, talk things over. Perhaps they would be able to compose some new ideas. Maybe even formulate some new plan to win the newcomer over to their side.

It was agreed among all present that the organization, which had been so rapidly formed, and which seemed to meet with the approval of all the operators in the area, should be continued. It would prove of great value to all concerned, they decided.

It was also suggested, after this decision was reached, that the newcomer be offered membership only on the basis of future, ethical business procedure. It short, whatever locations the newcomer now had, would remain his for as long as he could hold onto them. But in the future he would have to proceed along the lines of more ethical business.

It was also decided that one man would do all the talking. He would welcome the newcomer into the organization. He would point out all the advantages which would accrue to the newcomer who would actually become a charter member of the organization right along with all the men who had worked in this area for so many, many years.

"To tell you the truth", said one of the group, "I sure hate to offer this upstart such advantages.

"He's cleaned me out of ten top locations and, take it from me, this has hurt me, but real bad."

Others had similar statements to make. But the older heads prevailed and all agreed to go along with the oldsters. They realized, as these older men pointed out, that this was the time for cool and calm procedure. They also said that, perhaps, the newcomer wouldn't last long once he had agreed to enter on an equal competitive basis.

They felt certain that, in a little while, locations would recall their former operators for they wouldn't be getting the same new equipment and, perhaps, not even the same good service they used to get, or all the small, additional favors the locations always obtained from their former operators just for the asking.

After this explanation from the older heads of the group, the younger and more hot-blooded men calmed down. They were willing, they agreed with the oldsters, to take on this newcomer in a fair business battle. As long as this newcomer would stick to the rules they weren't afraid of him and his ingeniously revamped old machines one bit. They were sure they could lick the newcomer hands down in a fair business fight.

In the meantime, many hours had flown by and just as many cups of coffee had been consumed. All realized, with a start, that it was very late in the evening. As they quickly reached for their hats and coats one of the older heads remarked,

"Say, if we find this newcomer at work at this late hour, like a lot of you say you have, then", he said, "you just have to give him credit for determination, ambition and industry."

"This", he continued, "proves to me, provided that we find him working in his place at this hour, that he's a person who most definitely wants to get ahead, and for this type of man I have the highest regard."

He also stated, before any of the others had a chance to recover from his first words,

"I'll tell you right now, this is the kind of person we want in our organization. The kind of man who's really going to prove to be an asset."

"If he's this kind of worker for himself, trying so hard to get ahead, he'll prove just as good a worker for everyone else. He'll work for all to get ahead because that'll mean he, too, will progress."

This created a quiet interval. In fact, many paused with their coats only half on. At last one of the group probably answered for all the others when he said,

"I'm of the opinion that what you've just said, old timer, is very true. I'm also going to welcome this newcomer."

"In fact", he added, "I'm glad we didn't find him in the first time. This pause, and the talk that came with it, cooled me off. I'm frank to admit I was plenty hot and in the mood to punch him in the nose."

"But what you've just said sounds like very fine logic to me. I, too, agree that anyone working as hard as this newcomer and, thereby, proving himself full of ambition and industry and a great desire to get ahead, will prove an asset to this entire area", he concluded.

The rest of the group nodded in agreement. Not another word was spoken as they finished putting on their coats and hats. They left the restaurant a more quiet, calmer and thoughtful group of men. They walked down the street toward the newcomer's store. Long before they reached it they noted the still blazing lights.

They stopped while still across the street and, in absolute quiet, looked at the lighted store. They couldn't see inside because the windows were half covered with curtains. They could see the shaded lights in the back part where the door was partially open in the partition separating the front from the back.

"Well", spoke up the old timer again, "guess he's in. He must be revamping some more machines which means, unless we definitely convince him to join in with us, some of us are going to lose some more locations tomorrow."

At these words a few of the younger men again boiled over. Said one of their number,

"Yes, that may be true, but, I'm warning you, regardless of my agreeing with you in the restaurant, if this newcomer proves to be anything but a decent and reasonable person, I'm not going to hold to my promise."

Others also voiced similar sentiments. It took the old timer a goodly number of minutes to calm everyone down all over again. So amidst the growls of agreement to the old timer's calming statements they started across the street. The old timer led the way. Some of the younger men walked with very definite determination written all over their faces. Others with anger still churning inside themselves. Some clenched their fists tight in their pockets.

As they came to the door, the old timer held up his hand, and all paused. He whispered,

"Look, before I even open this door, I again want a promise from each and every single man here to let me do the talking."

"If I give up, then you men can go ahead and do all the talking and arguing you want to", he added.

"Is it agreed?", he asked in even a lower whisper.

No one answered.

"Alright, then", he concluded, "it's agreed. I'll do the talking."

With that he opened the door and they all walked in, one right after the other. Much to their surprise they found a very neat and clean office in the front part of the store. The walls were painted in a restful pastel blue. The desk and chairs were newly varnished. The curtains they'd seen from the outside were stiffly starched and very tastefully hung. The entire front part of the store was very impressive. Business ledgers were neatly stacked in a specially built case. The small safe was even painted to conform to the general color scheme.

One man after the other of the group suddenly felt more respect for this newcomer. Some even envied this newcomer, thinking of their own places as compared to this neat, clean and tastefully decorated store.

As they stood there admiring the neat and clean office, the old timer knocked on the slightly open door in the partition that separated the office from the rear quarters.

At the knock, all turned, taking their eyes from anything else they were studying and admiring. Wonderingly and questioningly they looked toward the door to see what sort of person would emerge.

Willie Blatt Suggests "Teenage Canteens" be Formed on Nat'l. Basis

MIAMI, FLA.—Since the introduction of the "Teenage Canteen" plan presented by The Cash Box in its editorial columns, many letters and phone calls have been received by this publication.

One of the most interesting was received this week from Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt of this city.

Willie writes:

"Let me compliment you for the excellent idea of 'Teenage Canteens'. It has been a long time since a publication came out with such a tremendous plan, that if followed up can do more for the Public Relations of the coin machine industry than any other plan ever presented.

"To my mind the idea is so terrific that the plan has to be planned by a committee that should embrace all phases of the coin machine industry, plus the DJ, and if possible AGVA, and any and all officials.

"This program should be discussed and a plan agreed upon, and a sort of format reached that can be followed by all people interested in same all over the United States, and in fact, all over the world—and it should be identified as a coin machine industry idea.

"The way this appears to me, is that I am just an average coin machine operator. I like the idea, but I don't know what to do and I believe it is too good a plan for me to try it and make too many mistakes and possibly bungle it."

United Mfg. Delivering New Baseball Game

BILL DeSELM

CHICAGO — "We're shipping our new baseball game, 'Star Slugger', just as fast as they come off our production lines", reported Bill DeSelm, general sales manager for United Manufacturing Company, this past week.

DeSelm also advised, "'Star Slugger' is a two-player game. We have a regular and also a replay model of this game. It is one of the most attractive we have yet produced.

"What's more", DeSelm continued, "'Star Slugger' has more new electro-mechanical improvements and more new features than any similar game we've yet presented.

"One outstanding feature that intrigues the players," DeSelm said,

"is the three-way batting speed. This is the feature that keeps 'Star Slugger' the favorite of all baseball game players."

DeSelm stated that regardless of all the sales action and heavy production schedules on all its products at this time, United has set up one of the biggest and speediest production schedules in the firm's experience for the new "Star Slugger".

The name of the baseball game follows along the lines of similar names the firm has used in the past. In '55 its game was called "Super Slugger".

DeSelm concluded, "Any operator who wants the finest baseball game he's ever placed on any of his locations should inspect and play our new 'Star Slugger'.

"He'll agree that this is the greatest baseball game he could ever place on any of his locations."

"The Newcomer"

The momentous stillness that fell over the entire group was so deep it could have been cut with a knife. It was actually that thick and velvety.

If someone would have dropped a pin it would have sounded like the explosion of an atom bomb.

All eyes were strained, looking tensely, expectantly and eagerly at the door as it began to open.

Out stepped a most attractive, most beautiful, blonde young woman.

NEW ENGLAND NIBBLES

Boston's three blizzards tied up the coin machine biz, with no shipments in or out, and set the outdoor season back by three weeks at least, according to a survey of distribs just getting ploughed out. . . . At Si Redd's, Redd Distributors (Wurlitzer), the first shipment came in Tues., Mar. 27, since the preceding Thurs. Bob Jones, sales mgr. of the Lincoln street plant, went to Springfield to check with ops and found things "not too bad," he reported. However, ops in the Worcester area were practically isolated, he said. The storms disrupted normal biz throughout Mass., R.I., and Conn. Two ops, Ed De Wolfe and Johnny Hagbert, flew in to Boston from Springfield in their own private plane to pick up badly needed equipment. Kingsize pool tables going better than ever at Redd's and Bally's new in-line game, "Night Club" is a hot new entry now being delivered to ops and looks to go over big in the territory. Jim Sisti, Redd salesman in the Conn.-R.I. area, back from Utica, N. Y., where he attended the funeral of his mother. Jerry Flatto, Boston Record Distribs, had a visit from a burglar at his one-stop the other night. Thief crashed the show windows and took a hi fi phonograph, movie camera, necklaces, earrings and tie sets.

Ed Ravreby, Associated Amusements (Rock-Ola), welcomed his new son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mandell, home Tues. night, Mar. 27, following their trip across country through the south to California and back through Chicago where they visited factories. During their trip they visited coin machine distribs along the way. Al Levine, sales, at Associated reported biz good despite the storms. . . . At Trimount Automatic Sales Corp. (Seeburg), biz was going along as usual with telephones pressed into service. Shipments were hampered by the triple storms. . . . Louis Blatt, Atlas Distribs (AMI), in Florida escaping the snow in New England, while brother Barney returned just in time for the three blizzards. Biz holding up o.k. despite the crimp put in shipments. . . . Among ops who braved the storm-swept roads to come into Boston to visit distribs were: Alex Pachilas, Ipswich; Louis Doneti, Manchester, N.H.; Jim O'Connor, Danielson, Conn.; Martin Oliver, Portland, Me.; Ed Campana, Sanford, Me.; Paul Doherty, Worcester; John Perry, Stoughton; Henry Levine, Boston; Ralph Lackey, Roxbury; Walter Adams, Woonsocket; Dave Baker, Arlington; Al Dolins, Hyannis; Ray Faini, Framingham; Ray Shea, Worcester; and Adolph Dugas, Webster. . . . Ruth Shapiro, Boston record promotion distaffer, in Washington in behalf of her clients, Frankie Laine, Joni James and Eileen Rodgers. . . . Ben Palastrant, APCO, is back from the NATD convention in Chicago, flying out and flying back. The V18 APCO "SmokeShop," new entry taking Kings, Filters, Parliaments and English Ovals, was shown and will be coming into the New England scene soon. Ben predicts great things for this number.

THE OKLAHOMA OUTPOST

Mr. & Mrs. Atkins, Atkins Novelty Co., just returned from a business and pleasure trip to Dallas, Texas. Atkins visited Cliff Wilson regarding their line of Kiddie Rides. Also, while in Dallas they attended the Cinemascope Theatre. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Bernard Boyle, Boyle Amusement Co., returned from a week's visit to Hot Springs, Arkansas. . . . Pete Kimmel, Kimmel Amusement Co., moving into a new home on N. W. 11th. . . . Mrs. Bingham, Hessel Music Co., going up and down record row buying records and equipment. . . . C. L. Clark, shop foreman for Boyle Amusement Co., happy with the nice weather we are now enjoying, as it is now possible for him to go fishing. . . . Mr. Croom, Midget Amusement Co., is really strutting these days. His daughter, Virginia Hughes gave birth to a bouncing boy. . . . Harlen Drake, AMI Distributor, gone on a business trip to Tulsa. . . . Ed Kimmel, Kimmel Amusement Co., is very busy these days setting new equipment, and also looking after their rental property. . . . Don Nadewell, Kimmel Amusement, seen along record row. . . . Operators in this week: Ike Leonard, Chickasha; Bob Lester, Duncan; Tom Riggs, Pauls Valley; Preston Abbott, Perry; C. B. Keller, Seminole; Mac Phillips, Garber; and Clay Vaughn, Cushing.

Williams Mfg. Sets New Baseball Game Sales Mark

most surprising we've ever produced from the standpoint that the very same day the greater majority of our distributors received their first sample they wired and phoned us the largest initial orders they'd ever placed for any baseball game."

According to Weinand, the phone calls and wired orders are still coming in to the Williams factory here.

In addition to all the other machines Williams is shipping at this time, the factory is working at top speed with tremendously stepped-up production schedules, in an effort to meet the orders that are starting to backlog them at this time.

Said Weinand, "We're rushing machines out just as fast as we can. We are working harder than ever to get our new 'DeLuxe 4-Bagger' baseball games out on the market, while the big leagues spring training season is as yet under way, so that the operators will be able to greet the opening of the baseball season with games on all locations."

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.

REGARDING SELLING PRICES

IMPORTANT!

Reports received indicate that, in some cases, purchasers become upset due to the fact that they cannot, many times, buy equipment listed in the lower price brackets. Sometimes sellers of machines listed at from $10.00 to $25.00 ask from $50.00 up to $75.00 and even more for these very same machines. Purchasers of such equipment must realize that machines in the very low priced categories are much worn to be priced at these low figures. To completely recondition such machines, the reconditioner must add onto his price the cost of transportation to obtain these machines, the labor, parts and supplies needed to recondition the machines, plus the cost of cartons, crates and labor for packing and shipping of the machines, in addition to a decent profit which will, in most cases, raise the price of a $10.00 to $20.00 machine to anywhere from $50.00 to $75.00 and up. In the case of arcade and kiddie ride machines these may even be higher due to the fact that many of the parts have to be made by hand or contracted for at some machinist shop, since manufacturers of many of the old arcade machines and kiddie rides are no longer in business and it is impossible to obtain parts for reconditioning. Purchasers of such equipment should take these facts into consideration and, at the same time, should also realize that many buyers today have their own repair and reconditioning departments as well as experienced mechanics, such buyers will purchase machines "as is", at prices quoted by the trade at large, and recondition the machines themselves to meet their own operating standards.

Earn biggest pool-profits with new Booster-Pool

BY

Bally®

ONLY pool-table with truly automatic scoring, BOOSTER-POOL is designed to permit players to play for position, block opponents' balls, and exercise all the cue-strategy of PIN-POOL . . . maneuvering balls from ends of table, around center-pins into scoring-pockets at opposite ends of table. Fast play and fascinating play-appeal produce biggest profits ever earned in pool-field.

52 IN. BY 36 IN. TABLE

AMAZING Color-Detector TOTALIZERS WITH AUTOMATIC REFEREE

Sink red ball in red pocket or white ball in white pocket . . . and clickety-click . . . correct totalizer immediately credits the shot to correct color. What happens when a ball drops in wrong-color pocket? Totalizers ignore the shot . . . but Automatic Referee promptly signals penalty for player who goofed. Players are mystified but delighted by the uncanny ability of the Bally Color-Detector Totalizers to register each and every ball sunk in matching-color pocket . . . and to flash penalty-light when colors are mis-matched. Result is fast word-of-mouth advertising for Bally BOOSTER-POOL tables on location, attracting patrons to spots equipped with BOOSTER-POOL . . . producing bigger profits than operators ever dreamed of earning in pool-operation.

EXCITING Progressive SCORES

First ball sunk by a player in matching-color pocket scores 1. If second ball is sunk in matching-color pocket, before opponent scores, play is worth 5, and Totalizer credits player with total of 6. Third successful shot, before opponent sinks a ball, scores 9.

Progressive score-values are plainly displayed on light-up scoreboard. Last-lit value remains lit, from turn to turn, until opponent scores—then re-sets to 1.

Winner is first player scoring 21 or more.

Double fun of boosting score, while holding down the score-value of opponent's shots is biggest skill-thrill in coin-operated pool, resulting in biggest profits in pool-operation.
