VOLUME XVIII—NUMBER 38

JUNE 8, 1957

"Start Movin'" says Sal Mineo, teenage idol, Arnold Maxim, A&R head of Epic Records, and Bill Nielsen, national sales director—and that's just what happened to the hit disk of the same name. On the market only a few weeks, the record has already become a national best seller. This is a triumph for all three since it is Mineo's first release, a smash hit for Maxim who has been holding Epic's A&R reins only a couple of months, and it means lots of sales for Nielsen, who guides the destiny of the label.

Teenage Market Points Way To New Prosperity Heights!

It's an acknowledged fact that teenagers buy a great many of the pop records produced in this country. And as the record industry has come to realize the potency of this teenage market and to cater to it, sales of records have expanded beyond all expectations, and indications point to an even brighter future.

It is obvious, for instance, from the age of the audiences that it attracts that the entire Rock and Roll movement, which is today the dominant force in the pop record field is almost exclusively devoted to teenagers. It provides a beat to which teenagers in particular enjoy dancing and the lyrics of most of the songs with that beat are aimed at subjects which have meaning to the teenage level. Yet despite the fact that Rock and Roll has been limited for the most part to this age group, record sales in general have continued to mount, indicating that today the teenage market is so important in the entire pop single picture, that this age level alone is capable of increasing sales.

It is not hard to understand this when we examine some of the figures available to us. Statistics reveal that teenagers' earnings and allowances last year amounted to over nine billion dollars. The average U.S. teenager is reported to have either from earnings or allowances or both $10.55 a week. He or she saves $4.05 of this and spends the other $6.50. And if you want to look ahead, the sixteen million teenagers will increase to twenty-four million by 1965, and their income will then be fourteen billion dollars.

For the record industry, this is an extremely encouraging picture. As teenagers increase in numbers and their income goes up, it can only mean that they will purchase more and more of the records to which they are so attracted.

It means also that the record industry in general will have to keep paying special attention to teenagers' needs. This age group is buying records in large quantities today because the record firms are producing records which are in many ways specifically designed for them. But we must never lose sight of the fact that tastes change and that what a teenager likes today, he may not necessarily like next month. We must constantly be on the lookout therefore for indications of taste changes and hints of new likes and dislikes.

Fortunately, the record industry has shown itself to be attuned to the needs of the public of all ages, able to adjust to changing conditions and desires and to meet the needs of the day. We are certain that the industry will be able to meet the challenge of an increasing teenage population and provide the kind of music wanted by that age group in order for them to enjoy the records they want and in order for the record industry to go on to new heights of prosperity.

ALAN DALE
(ABC-Paramount 9828)

B+ "HEARTLESS HEART" (2:22) [Hawthorne ASCAP — Tobias, Altman] A sure-handed heavy beat delivery by Alan Dale gives this wailing rocker an interpretation highly qualified for strong juke play, and overall sales reaction. Don Costa adds greatly to the sturdy Dale reading. Keep tabs on the side. It's a great first showing for Dale on ABC-Paramount.

B "CRY, CRY, CRY" (2:53) [Golden State BMI—Shuler, Willridge, Guidry] Dale is blues-inclined in this doleful item expressively related by the artist. Top half has the commercial edge.

LENNY PERNA
(Dot 15582)

B "CALYPSO GIRL" (2:30) [Debmar ASCAP—Marcucci, Angeles] For customers still stuck on calypso items, they'll find a typically colorful and rhythmic calypso number in this pressing featuring to good advantage Lenny Perna with male chorus and ork accompaniment. The waxing grows on the listener.

B "I HOPE YOU FIND A SWEET-HEART" (1:48) [Debmar ASCAP — Marcucci, De Angeles] A bouncy hint of old fashioned harmony is imaginatively conceived by Perna, the ork and chorus. Easy-going effort.

DOLORES VENTURA
(President 1016)

B "PORTO FINO" (2:35) [Piccadilly BMI—Edwards] Miss Ventura is the lead voice in this lush chorus and ork production dressed up in a delightful latin environment. Vivid display of an attractive melody.

C+ "THE HANDY MAN FROM PERU" (2:30) [Dorchester BMI —Martinelli] A calypso-flavored creation is fashioned in sparkling style by the same members as on the top deck.

CLEVE LYONS AND HIS TRIO
(Vik 0276)

B "OUT OF THE CLOSET" (2:17) [Raleigh BMI—Jackson] A driving combo piece presented by the Cleve Lyons Trio makes snappy use out of Lyons' lively organ work, and Al Dobbins' unrelenting sax antics. High-flying jumper.

C+ "FANTASTIC MOOD" (2:07) [Raleigh BMI—Lyons] A mellow organ from Lyons leads the crew in this provocative, easy-going mood number.

JO STAFFORD
(Columbia 40926)

B+ "I'LL BE THERE (WHEN YOU GET LONELY)" (2:48) [Golden West BMI—Burgess] Few female vocalists command the warmth and sincerity of Jo Stafford, and her way with this melody bringing back memories of "You Belong To Me". Jo gets to the heart of the matter with ease and conviction. Fine deejay disk.

B "UNDERNEATH THE OVERPASS" (1:56) [Paramount ASCAP —David, Burt, Bacharach] A train-tempo ditty is invitingly performed by the lark in this multiple-racking feat. Swinging side.

The Cash Box Disk of the Week

"WORDS OF LOVE" [Nor-Va-Jak BMI—Halley]

"DON'T SAY GOODBYE" [Pure BMI—Stevens, Goodman, Stone]

THE DIAMONDS (Mercury 71128)

● The sensational Diamonds, well over the million mark with their current smasheroo "Little Darlin'", follow-up with a fabulous new side that stands a great chance of extending their string to two gold disks in a row. The tune is titled "Words Of Love" and features many of the hit characteristics present in "Little Darlin'". Great latin beat, wonderfully commercial harmony, a recitation that the kids'll be wild about and some ace guitar work. All out hit for the rock and roll market. Flip, "Don't Say Goodbye" is a jumpin' R & R item that makes your toes tap. Strong coupling that could be a big chart rider too.

"SWEET STUFF" (2:13) [Hawthorne ASCAP—Schroeder, Weisman]

"IN THE MIDDLE OF A DARK, DARK NIGHT" (2:22)
[Oxford ASCAP—Merrill]

GUY MITCHELL (Columbia 40940)

● Guy Mitchell, with three consecutive smashes under his belt ("Singing The Blues," "Knee Deep In The Blues," and his current hit "Rock-A-Billy") should have no trouble making it 4-in-a-row with the two excellent sides coupled on his latest platter. "Sweet Stuff" is a potent rocker with a torrid beat and a great teenage lyric. Guy is in top vocal form and should thrill his fans both here and abroad with this one. Equally delighting is the companion deck "In The Middle Of A Dark, Dark Night". Charming shuffler with a beautiful melody. Smooth, easy listening. This half could win out in the long run. Another double-decker for the Guy.

"SOMETHING WONDERFUL HAPPENS"
[Sands ASCAP—Bushkin, DeVries]

"YOU'RE CHEATIN' YOURSELF" [Barton ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning]

FRANK SINATRA (Capitol 3744)

● The amazing Mr. Sinatra, who zoomed into the number one spot on the album best seller list in a matter of days with his great new "Swingin' Affair" LP, has a fabulous new single that should enjoy the same reaction. Titled "Something Wonderful Happens", the tune is one of the best legit ballads to hit the wax scene in many months. It's a tender and melodic song about summer romance penetratingly presented in Sinatra's inimitable manner. Frankie's best romantic deck since "Young At Heart". Dee jays will wear the grooves off of this one. Great song with standard qualities. Flip is a free swinging love opus dubbed "You're Cheatin' Yourself". Keep an eye on the top portion. It'll climb at a steady pace.

"FALLEN STAR" (2:21) [Tree BMI—Joiner]

"PRIZE POSSESSION" (2:20) [Geronimo BMI—Hill]

FERLIN HUSKY (Capitol 3742)

● Ferlin Husky, the high riding country star who became a prominent figure in the pop recording field with his tremendous waxing of "Gone", follows-up with another big song out of the country market that could repeat the success "Gone" achieved. The tune is titled "Fallen Star" and features the ace vocalist with a heart-felt delivery of a tender romantic lyric. Husky has a natural tear in his voice that gives a special meaning to whatever he sings. The coupling "Prize Possession" is a rhythmic jumper that should have the youngster's hoppin'. Good rock-a-billy deck. Husky has a hot coupling for his millions of new admirers.

"JENNY, JENNY" (2:00) [Venice BMI—Johnson, Penniman]

"MISS ANN" (2:05) [Venice BMI—Johnson, Penniman]

LITTLE RICHARD (Specialty 606)

● Little Richard has another powerful coupler that should have no difficulty in racking up a huge sale in the pop dept. (See R & B Reviews).

THE SECRETS
(Decca 30350)

B "QUEEN BEE" (2:00) [Monument BMI—Hunter, Fisher, Johnson] This is a fast-moving "calypso-rock," a combination of both a calypso and rock 'n roll styling, performed infectiously by a new group labeled the Secrets. Cute buzz of the bee gimmick is used throughout the snappy session. Solid debut. Group has potential.

C+ "SEE YOU NEXT YEAR" (2:43) [Kahl BMI—Briggs, Ray-sor] A conventional rock 'n roll ballad number is presented with polish by the group.

THE NORMAN PETTY TRIO
(Columbia 40929)

B+ "THE FIRST KISS" (2:42) [Dominion BMI—Petty] Norman Petty and His Trio may have pulled another "Almost Paradise" out of the hat with this beautiful melody played and sung by the group. The theme of a first kiss makes the pressing extremely applicable to the teen market as well as the adults. En-trancing presentation of a first-class song. Watch this carefully.

B+ "THE FIRST KISS" (2:45) [Dominion BMI — Petty] The same Petty melody is strictly an instrumental on this side. The number still retains its melodic pull power, and will probably vie for sales honors with the top deck.

JACKIE AND ROY
(ABC-Paramount 9821)

B "I'M FOREVER BLOWING BUBBLES" (2:13) [Remick ASCAP—Kenbrovin, Kелlette] This new outlook on an old favorite is from a new album by the jazz-inspired vocal team of Jackie and Roy. The two seem to have great vocal jazz invention fun, as they rollic through the tune. The listener will also enjoy the refreshing Jackie and Roy atmosphere. Great disk jockey platter.

B "WHISPER NOT" (2:51) [Silhouette ASCAP—Goldson] The two play the role of "instruments" as they imaginatively react to a bluesy opus. Slick side.

LOU STEIN
(RKO Unique 403)

B+ "THE LITTLE SPINET" (2:17) [Veronique A S C A P — Leahy] Piano ace Lou Stein, who clicked recently with "Almost Paradise", should have another big money-maker in this contagious bounce instrumental. Light and colorful piano novelty with a most inviting melody. Watch this sleeper. It's loaded with potential.

B "SONG OF THE EAST" (2:53) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Stein] Here the artist fashions one of his own compositions. A haunting, moody item set against a slow, steady beat. Side builds in intensity and a chorus joins in making the side extremely exciting. Strong coupling.

FRANKIE AVALON with
ROCCO & HIS SAINTS
(Chancellor 1004)

B "CUPID" (2:28) [Debmar ASCAP — Marcucci, DeAngelis] Frankie Avalon makes a strong first showing on Chancellor as he shuffles thru a catchy rock and roll romancer. Lad has the kind of voice the kids want. Good arrangement, delivery and material.

C+ "JIVIN' WITH THE SAINTS" (1:58) [Ram-Bed BMI—Chesler, Kekalos] Frankie and the boys go instrumental on this half and belt out a torrid rocker that'll keep the kids hoppin'. Strong jumper in the "Honky Tonk" category.

THE RHYTHMETTES

(Brunswick 55012)

B+ "MIND READER" (2:02) [Larry Spier ASCAP—Wayne, Frisch] This is a "Mr. Sandman"—flavored piece all done up in a happily inventive harmonic blend by the rhythmettes assisted by a deep-voiced bu-boom-bu-bu boom male. A catchy novelty. Could break wide open.

C+ "MISTER LOVE" (2:45) [Acuff-Rose BMI—R&D Kershaw] A pop version of the hit country and western wailer is convincingly read by the girl group and the bass gentleman.

SID GOULD

(Coral 61841)

B "SID GOULD'S INITIAL GAME" [Opus BMI—D. Jacobs] A "game" that involves audience participation results in a hilarious side by comedian Sid Gould. Gould's request for the initials of silent film stars gives the comic lots of room for wild guesses and side comments sure to provide many howls. Excellent comedy platter.

C+ "MORRIS" [Monmar ASCAP—Bass] A comedy sketch in song and rhyme is good for several laughs from Gould.

LES BAXTER ORCH.

(Capitol 3728)

B "RUBY LIPS" (2:31) [Fred Raphael ASCAP—Thompson] A string filled latin mood item is attractively styled by Les Baxter and the ork. Pretty theme with voices neatly woven into the string presentation.

C+ "THE LONELY WHISTLER" (2:18) [Leeds ASCAP—Norman, Baxter] A blues theme combining whistling and strings is interestingly fashioned on this end. Heavy theme from the Swedish flicker, "The Vicious Breed."

BARBARA GORMAN & SISTER VIV

(Arrow 715)

B "WAS IT JUST FOR FUN" (2:32) [Abe Olman ASCAP—Dyess, Parnum] The Arrow label could have a big money-maker in this commercial rock and roll ballad introduced by the Gorman Sisters, ages 12 and 6. Gals have a feel for the music teenagers want and could do big things with this love tune.

B "8 O'CLOCK DATE" (2:17) [Twin EE Music BMI—Zane] Another excellent commercial ditty by the gals. Strong rock and roller with a slightly faster tempo than the top side. Good lyric with great teen appeal. If these sides get a fair share of the play, they'll make noise.

JACK HANSEN

(Plaza 5007)

B "CALYPSO HORN" (2:08) [Darl BMI—Hansen, Hansen] The label introduced the recent noise-maker, "Seven Days In Barcelona." This is a tuneful calypso inspired item making very effective use out of a trumpet, string instruments and a chorus. It's one of those novel things that could catch on.

B "SWEET CHACOUN" (2:07) [Calypso BMI—Attaway] Another calypso side, a tenderly pretty melody, is fashioned with warmth by Jack Hansen backed by a chorus and ork. Good calypso attraction.

The Cash Box Sleeper of the Week

"SEND FOR ME" (2:35)

[Winneton BMI—Jones]

"PERSONAL POSSESSION" (2:56)

[Roosevelt BMI—Singleton, McCoy]

NAT "KING" COLE (Capitol 3737)

● The "King," Nat Cole, currently enjoying tremendous success with his fabulous album "Love Is The Thing," should meet with the same good fortune on his latest single. One side, "Send For Me" features Nat in the rock and roll idiom. Terrific reading of a smooth sailing romantic jumper the youngsters will find tailor-made for their dancing needs. Commercial stuff for today's market. Equally delighting is the companion deck "Personal Possession." Here the ace lends his dulcet tones to a superbly written romancer with class. Rich and rewarding performance that should enjoy a long and successful run on the charts. Big money-making coupler.

"SHENANDOAH ROSE" (2:05)

[Planetary ASCAP—Webster, Livingston]

"SHENANDOAH ROSE" (2:18)

[Planetary ASCAP—Webster, Livingston]

"ROCKABILLY PARTY" (2:28)

[Planetary ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning]

"CONSIDERATION"

(2:17)

[Desmo ASCAP—Desmond]

HUGO & LUIGI (Roulette 4012)

JOHNNY DESMOND (Coral 61846)

● A few years ago "Yellow Rose Of Texas" sent the music business on a recording spree of Civil War tunes. Two great new recordings of another thrilling marcher dubbed "Shenandoah Rose" could turn the trick again. The two powerful waxings feature Hugo & Luigi on Roulette and Johnny Desmond on Coral.

Hugo & Luigi work with a spirited chorus and come up with an inspiring recording featuring flutes, share drums and the works. The Coral disk features Desmond's voice in the spotlight, also neatly showcased by a full choral accompaniment. The time is ripe for a new march hit and both of these should make the grade.

Roulette teams its version with a commercial novelty that could also step out. It's a rockin' ditty loaded with teen appeal and titled "Rockabilly Party." Clever item with lyrics that mention the name of many of today's prominent recording stars. Desmo's companion piece is a contagious calypso ditty with a rockin' beat.

"GRADUATION RING" (2:41)

"YOU, YOU ROMEO" (2:23)

[Planetary ASCAP—Elton]

JAYE P. MORGAN (RCA Victor 6938)

● Jaye P. Morgan bounces back into the disk spotlight with two great new sides that'll splash her name all over the charts in the coming weeks. They're both outstanding and both will keep the jockeys' turn tables spinning. "Graduation Ring" is a wonderful romantic ballad with a beat, perfectly timed for the current graduation season. Lyrics have great teen appeal and Jaye's delivery is from the heart. "You, You Romeo" is a very clever novelty with a brilliant arrangement and orchestration by Hugo Winterhalter. Unusual romancer with a great beat. Superb change of pace number for any jock's daily programming. Two money-making sides for dealers and ops. Take your pick.

"SUSIE-Q" (2:08) [Arc BMI—Hawkins, Lewis, Broadwater]

"SUCH A SHAME" (2:30) [Meridian BMI—Hill, Stevenson]

THE CREW-CUTS (Mercury 71125)

● The Crew-Cuts put two exciting sides back-to-back for their most powerful release in quite some time. Both items are aimed directly at the younger set and should meet with great approval in this area. "Susie-Q" is a fast-rising rock and roller treated to an exciting pop reading by the quartet. Swinging arrangement with heaps of guitar and rhythm to keep the side swinging from beginning to end. The coupler is a fascinating new tune called "Such A Shame." An emotional love song with an exciting galloping tempo backdrop. Here again the boys excell. Upper half has the edge.

LU ANN SIMMS

(Columbia 40937)

B "RUN, DON'T WALK" (2:20) [Hecht-Lancaster & Buzzell ASCAP—Roberts, Jacobson] After a short "Here Comes The Bride" opening, Lu Ann Simms gives out with a bright, hillbilly-flavored composition in bubbling style. Jimmy Carroll, the ork and chorus trace Miss Simms' vocales technics with enthusiasm. Happy effort.

B "THE STILL SMALL VOICE" (2:46) [Blackwood BMI—Walker] The lark is on a straight ballad here, and does a distinctively soft vocal performance on the listenable melody. A pressing deejays will find solid programming.

VIVIENNE

(Vip 1003)

B+ "LOVE LETTERS IN THE SAND" [Bourne ASCAP—N. & C. Kenny] This is Vivienne's second effort for Vip, a version of the Nick Kenny oldie, which is currently enjoying great popularity on the charts. After the warm opening, the thrush offers a swinging approach. Delightful side worthy of a share in the song's sales prize.

B "LIGHT A CANDLE" [Scherer BMI—Oneil, Howe] A strong inspirational number is handled with conviction by the artist.

VIC STEVENS

(Styletone 101)

C+ "LOVE ME BABY" (2:15) [J. B. L.&V. BMI—Wellington, Cobb] Vic Stevens gets a group assist as he drives thru a powerful rocker that really moves. Swinging dance item aimed at the teenage market.

C+ "100 CUPS OF COFFEE" (2:37) [Hill & Range BMI—Tepper, Bennett] Another enthusiastic vocal effort by Stevens on a solid jumper for the rock and roll market.

MITZI MASON

(Vik 0278)

B+ "FOR THE LAST TIME" (2:03) [Peer Int'l BMI—Heather] Mitzi Mason hands in a dynamic delivery on a tune with a big melody and a good lyric that contrasts the past with the present thanks to her new love. Elliot Lawrence with his ork and chorus do a bang-up job. This one bears watching.

B "HICKORY DICKORY DOCK" (2:04) [E. B. Marks BMI—Ebb, Klein] An inviting play on the familiar children's rhyme gets a rock 'n roll fling from Miss Mason. The thrush gives the tune a bright run-through.

BERT CONVY

(Mercury 71100)

B "TWO HEARTS" (2:29) [Argo BMI—Convy, Emenegger] A sentimental romancer set to a quick shuffle beat is performed with admirable vitality by Bert Convy and the Cheers. Catchy number, performed with zest.

C+ "YOU NEVER HAVE TIME" (2:05) [Argo BMI—Williams] A hand clappin' affair is read with authority by Convy and the Cheers. A rock 'n roll romp.

London Lowdown

Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds arrive in London on June 4. She'll depart a few days before Eddie starts his week's appearance at the London Palladium. Heading the bill at the moment is Howard Keel.

Week-end TV was highlighted by appearances by Frankie Laine on the Palladium Show and Les Compagnons de la Chanson on the BBC's Winifred Atwell show. The Goofers are to be one of the main attractions in the new summer Palladium show starting June 17th and will probably stay for a minimum of twelve weeks. Although this act has played the Lido in Paris, this is the first time they appear in London.

At long last that talented thrush Peggy Lee makes her appearance in the best sellers over here with her waxing of "Mr. Wonderful" and my guess is that Jeri Southern may very well make a surprise entry in the charts with her recording of "Fire Down Below". It is a pleasure to see these two girls at last in the top sellers where they rightly deserve to be.

The Cash Box Sleeper of the Week

"EIGHTEEN" (2:12) [Meridian BMI—Boobis, Nephew]
 "FADED ORCHID" (2:15) [Roosevelt BMI—Stone]
 CONNIE FRANCIS (MGM 12490)

● Connie Francis, a talented lark destined for stardom, has hit upon the piece of material that should send her over the top. The number that should establish her as a big name is tagged "Eighteen." It's an exciting rock and roller describing the thoughts and feelings of young lady who's just turned eighteen. Extremely unusual side presented with great emotion against a stirring R & R rhythm accompaniment excellently supplied by a chorus and Sid Bass' Orchestra. Potent side sure to have a special meaning to millions of teenagers. Flip, "Faded Orchid" is a lovely romancer displaying the lark's outstanding multiple voicing.

"SOMEBODY'S BEEN ROCKING MY BABY" (2:02)
 [Smash BMI—Thompson]
 "OLD MAN MOSE" (2:27) [Santly-Joy ASCAP—Randolph, Armstrong]
 ROD WILLIS (Chic 1010)

● The Chic label, which introduced "Freight Train" and Nancy Whiskey, has an exciting new talent in Rod Willis—a thrilling rock-a-billy songster who could zoom into the spotlight with his waxing of "Somebody's Been Rocking My Baby." It's a swinging affair chock-full of all the gimmicks that have started the kids dancing again. And the melody sticks after just one listen. Rod has a bright future to look forward to and this waxing should start him on the road. Bottom deck "Old Man Mose" is another rhythmic jumper handled with verve. Solid oldie brought up to date. Keep an eye on the "Baby" side.

"AT OUR HOUSE" (2:06) [Monument BMI—Regney, Regney]
 "JOHNNY COME KISS ME" (2:45) [Melody Lane BMI—Gilbertson, Harrison]
 CLARE NELSON (Epic 9220)

● Epic Records has hit upon a charming and versatile new songstress who can sing along with the best of 'em. Her name is Clare Nelson and she debuts with a wonderful new two-sider that could establish her as a name to be reckoned with. One half "At Our House" displays the songstress with a pert, little girlish novelty about a teenager who's thrilled with the fact that her boy friend is coming for dinner at her house. Refreshing ditty with clickability. Miss Nelson sings in a more mature romantic vein on the equally outstanding companion deck "Johnny Come Kiss Me." Beautiful arrangement of an excellently written romancer. Both sides are standout and both could make big noise for Clare.

"NEXT STOP PARADISE" (1:48) [Prentice ASCAP—Dreyer, Diamond]
 "HOW COULD YOU KNOW?" (2:14) [Regent BMI—Randazzo, Colacrai]
 TEDDY RANDAZZO (Vik 0277)

● Teddy Randazzo, who's become a teenage idol as the lead voice of the Three Chuckles, makes his debut on Vik as a soloist, and from the sound of his first solo effort, it looks as tho he'll have a big hit. The lad is right in line with the best of the rock and rollers as he belts out a torrid swinger tagged "Next Stop Paradise." Great performance that'll have the kids flippin'. Watch this lad, he's headed for the big time. The coupling features the tender tones of Teddy on a touching love tune dubbed "How Could You Know?" Lovely romancer with great teenappeal. Big debut disk.

"WHOLE LOT OF SHAKIN' GOING ON" [Marlyn BMI—Williams, David]
 "I'LL BE ME" [Knox BMI—Clement]
 JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun 267)

● Jerry Lee Lewis, who indicated that he's of star calibre with his rockin' record of "Crazy Arms," has in his latest release the material that will skyrocket him into the spotlight in the pop, country and rhythm & blues fields. The lad is a sensational performer out of the rock-a-billy school. He hands in an ultra commercial job as he belts out a house-rockin' side tagged "Whole Lot Of Shakin' Going On." Side has a great beat. It should be on the charts in all fields. Flip is another exciting side presented against a skiffle beat. Lewis has a great style the kids'll love.

JERI JORDON

(Bally 1037)
B "SEA SHELLS" (2:25) [Tannen BMI—Long, Russell] A slow-paced waltzer reminiscent of "Tennessee Waltz" is touchingly caressed by thrush Jeri Jordan. The chorus and ork under Lew Douglas softly back Miss Jordan effectively. Very listenable side.
C+ "THE ARCHITECT" (2:05) [Valleydale BMI—Menziez, Gettinger] A powerful, semi-inspirational composition is performed with authority by Miss Jordan and Lew Douglas' chorus and ork.

THE BLOCKBUSTERS/ EDDIE BEAL COMBO

(Antler 4006)
B "FULLTIME BABY" (2:35) [Argo BMI—Miles] The top side of the deck is a rocker from a pic., "Carnival Rock," and features the Blockbusters in a torrid instrumental touch with a solo voice plying the lyrics. Pro R&R issue the kids will find solid listening.
B "TONI'S TUNE" (1:56) [AMC ASCAP—Ram] The Eddie Beal combo takes over things on the bottom half with a novel change-of-pace. "Toni's Tune" is neat little melody the group plays with a clean, and class touch. Easy-going disk fare.

THE MADHATTANS

(Atlantic 1142)
B "WOWIE" (2:14) [Progressive BMI—Hester, Shaw] The Madhattans bow on Atlantic with a delightful pop novelty that brings the listener back to the roaring '20's. Lively charleston cornballer tailor-made for the juke boxes. Happy item easy-on-the-ears. Excellent change-of-pace side for jockeys.
C+ "A BASKETFUL OF BLUE-BERRIES" (2:14) [Progressive BMI—Hester, Apolinar, Parker] This half is a contagious calypso ditty pleasantly handled by the crew. Group has a good sound.

SAM BUTERA

(Prep 105)
B+ "TEN LITTLE WOMEN" (2:09) [Southern ASCAP — Noland] Sam Butera and his boys tear thru an exciting rock and roller loaded with teenappeal. Exciting hard-driver with a strong vocal and ace sax work by Butera. Commercial side to watch closely.
B "LOVE CHARM" (2:26) [Sherman BMI—Stanley] Another exciting arrangement of a rock and roller that's starting to show some action. When tune clicks, this rhythmic treatment will bite off a good share of the sales.

CAROL RICHARDS

(RCA Victor 6940)
B "COME TO MAMA, PAPA DO" (2:50) [Peer International BMI—Gaze, Gordon] The song has a tender touch, and with sweet voiced Carol Richards at the vocal helm it comes across nicely. Part of the lyrics are sung in German. Warm side.
C+ "DADDY" (2:10) [Republic BMI—Troup] Miss Richards, in a totally opposite approach from the top half, purrs through the oldie with intimate charm.

LEE YOUNG

(Par 231)
B+ "AFRAID" (2:14) [Robert Mel-lin BMI—Johnston, Johnston] A dramatic ballad with a heavy rock 'n roll beat is unleashed with formidable vocal emotion by Lee backed by a male chorus, and rockin' ork. The stint and the melody linger on. Excellent juke-box side. Watch this side.
C+ "I'M PLEADING" (2:22) [Al Dexter BMI — Dexter] Young takes the rock 'n roll path again, this time in the more exciting rockin' vein. Good work-out for teen dancers.

RAY COLEMAN

(Arcade 147)
B "ROCK, CHICKEN ROCK" (2:40) [Valley Brook ASCAP—Keefer, Keefer, Haley] A sizzling rocker is energetically belted by Ray Coleman and the Skyrockets. This no-holds barred release is tailor-made for the kids.
C+ "JUKEBOX ROCK AND ROLL" (1:50) [Jack Howard BMI—Coleman, Zario, Costello, Roccia] Just as the title implies, this is a wide open juke box creation done with lots of vigor by Coleman and the combo.

ELLA FITZGERALD

(Verve 10050)
B "MANHATTAN" (2:47) [E. B. Marks ASCAP—Rodgers, Hart] Taken from her 2 LP package devoted to the songs of Rodgers and Hart, Ella Fitzgerald offers a sprightly vocal on the witty classic about New York. Sure to keep deejay turntables very active.
B "LET'S FALL IN LOVE" (3:00) [Harms ASCAP—Porter] Ella Slyly recites the extraordinarily clever lyrics of Cole Porter's "Let's Do It." The side is taken from another 2 disk set, the music of Porter.

NEW YORK:

Guy Lombardo has broken the all-time Roseland Dance City record. In a two week engagement, just ended, Lombardo grossed slightly over $80,000. . . . Bernie Nee and the Four Voices performed at the Ambassador's Ball in honor of Abba Eban last Sunday at the Essex House Hotel in Newark. Art Ford acted as emcee. . . . CBS Radio is preparing a weekly nighttime half-hour program to star Stan Freberg. . . . Joe Reisman will conduct and perform on the "RCA Victor Galaxy Of Stars" to be telecast over NBC Saturday night June 15. . . . Joe Candullo and his orchestra are supplying the music at Guy Lombardo's East Point House restaurant in Freeport, Long Island this summer. . . . English publisher Jack Heath picked up European rights to several songs while he was here. They included "Shenandoah Rose" and "You, You, Romeo" from Phil Kahl, "Graduation Ring" from Compton Music, and "Shish-Kebab" from Pure Music. He plans to return to the States at least once every year. . . . The music theme from the motion picture "Saint Joan," recorded by Capitol, employs a most unusual instrument—a shepherd's pipe. . . . The Richard Maltby Orchestra, currently on a nationwide tour, was two years old on May 27. . . . Judy Scott into the Mapes Hotel in Reno for two weeks starting June 27. . . . Fred Waring returns to television on a regular basis, after a three year absence, as the summer replacement of "The Garry Moore Show." . . . Irv Jerome, president of Prexy Records, is taking to the road to visit all his Southern distribbers. He's kicking off the new Al Berry release, "King Of The Blues" in that area and stimulating action of the Cues' "Crazy, Crazy Party." . . . Louise Carlyle expects to become a mother in a couple of days. She also has a new record out on the MOSS label, "The Real McCoy" and "Welcome Back Into My Heart." . . . The Versatones on RCA Victor are currently crowding them in at the Gothic Room of the Hotel Duane in Manhattan.

CHICAGO:

This past week saw the '56-'57 season of Chi Automatic Phonograph Bowling League draw to a rousing close as ops and record distribbers met at annual banquet. Distrib, Tony Galgano, received the winning trophy from Cash Box' Bill Gersh for his team while Coral's Ed Walker collected the last place booby prizes. . . . Dauntless International's Audio Fidelity starting to beat the big drum with lotts promotion via Galgano Record Distribbers for Duks Of Dixieland LP just out. . . . Reports in that Buddy DeFranco Casino Ballroom concert netted profitable gate. . . . Epic teen sensation, Sal Mineo, had his deejay tour cut short by an eye infection. "But it didn't cut his record short," advises United Distrib's Ernie Leaner. "Start Movin' has really taken off," he added. . . . Salem's Shirley Forwood (like in golf) stopped by with a big Michigan Howdy for Ray Rayner's teen TV audience. Kids seemed to go for Shir's "Good Night." . . . Jim Lewis, WEMP, Cream City deejay, writes about a rising talent out his way, Bobby Dean. "Kid promises to be one of the biggest record talents to come," advises Lewis. . . . Our deepest condolences to Midwest Mercury's Henry Freidman on the passing of his father. . . . Says Joe "Singer" Sipiora, Singer One-Stop, "Except for a cloud now and then, business has been great." . . . Thanks to Chuck Miller for the card and lyrics to "tender" "Rang Tang Ding Dong." So that's what you've been saying all this time? . . . Standard Radio Transcription Service's Milton Blink planed into NYC for ten-day stay and session of recordings for SRTS's standard collection. . . . Howard Miller to present another big show from stage of Opera House. Bill to include Tab Hunter. . . . Columbia's Jerry Mazzara still keeping after Don Cherry's (fore) "April Age" and beginning to see success with Johnny Mathis' "It's Not For Me To Say." By the way, the speed at which this Mazzara rushes around makes us think someone spiked his Wheaties. . . . Stan Pat all excited over his bosses' first Roulette recording, Hugo and Luigi's big surprise release. . . . Forster's Phil Miller on the road with "Cattle Call" by Dinah Shore. Busy guy has been thru Chi, Cleveland, Detroit, and Philly.

HOLLYWOOD:

Dot Records going all out on a promotion campaign with the release of their original sound track album of "The Ten Commandments." Tom Mack, who produced the album, and Bob Wilhem will supervise the campaign. . . . Frank Evans of KDAY acting as master of ceremonies for the Friday night dance contests held at the Hollywood Palladium during Harry James' four week stand. Winners receive copies of James' Capitol albums. . . . Dot Records artist Molly Bee has been signed to play the Evansville Indiana Fair in August. . . . WMGM Tests Single Band Transmission

NEW YORK—With permission from the Federal Communications Commission, Station WMGM is testing and introducing a new system of broadcasting which makes possible improved fidelity with average-priced receivers, it was announced last week by Arthur Tolchin, Vice President and Director of the 50,000-watt Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer facilities.

Both the Federal Communications Commission and radio engineers throughout the country are watching closely the experimental single band tests. Should the reports be of an encouraging nature, it is possible the Federal Communications Commission might then authorize the single side band system on a more extensive basis so that further public reaction could be obtained.

Known technically as the Kahn System of Compatible Single Side Band Transmission, it is the development of Leonard R. Kahn, president of the Kahn Research Laboratories, Freeport, L.I. Kohn's system, it is reported, can reduce the effects of both interference and fading, without the listener having to adapt his receiver in anyway whatever.

20 To 25 Welk Albums Planned For This Year

HOLLYWOOD—This may be the most successful recording year in the history of Lawrence Welk and his Champagne Music Makers, with an all-time total of 20 to 25 LP Welk Albums scheduled to be released during 1957 under the Coral and Brunswick labels.

Credited with more than 4,700,000 individual record sales during the past two years according to Coral, three new Welk albums have been released by Coral so far during 1957, with two more, "Champagne And Roses," and "World's Greatest Music" scheduled for nationwide distribution within the next 90 days. Also, a special album of Dixieland music, highlighting jazz clarinetist Pete Fountain, enlisted from New Orleans and now a regular in the Champagne Music aggregation, is being readied for July release.

"Waltzing with Lawrence Welk," "Show Time," and "Madison Square Garden," the latter a recording of the special one-night performance in New York by the Champagne Music Makers before a full house, are currently enjoying record album sales nationally, it is reported by Sam J. Lutz, Welk's personal manager.

Planned are Brunswick-label solo albums of 12 tunes each for Alice "Champagne Lady" Lon, Tiny Little, Jr., Pete Fountain, Larry Dean, Larry Hooper, Dick Dale, Jerry Burke and Dick Kesner, plus a special album featuring Miss Lon and Dale in 12 duoharmony numbers. Additional albums by Aladdin and Bob Lido also are under consideration.

The Lennon Sisters, now firmly established as one of the mainstays of the Welk television group, will record a minimum of three Brunswick albums this year totaling 36 numbers.

"World's Greatest Music," a selection of 12 of the most popular semi-classical melodies, has been completed, for which Welk helms a full orchestra of 80 pieces, emphasizing the use of string instruments. Coral plans to release this as a "special" in late July or early August.

To keep abreast of the 1957 recording plans, Welk's present schedule of two television programs weekly (Saturdays and Mondays—ABC-TV Network) plus weekend appearances (Fri.-Sat.-Sun.) at the Aragon Ballroom, has now been augmented by Welk-men weekly recording sessions each Tuesday afternoon and Thursday night.

Ernie Ford Magazine Out

HOLLYWOOD—A 100-page "one shot" magazine, called "Tennessee Ernie Ford" by the Hollywood writer, Ted Hilgenstuhler, was being distributed to the nation's news-stands last week.

Ford's recording activities at Capitol are covered in a section called "16 Tons' of Recording Success" which appears on pages 58 through 65 of the illustrated book.

Mineo Starts Fans Movin'

DETROIT—18 year old Movie Star, Sal Mineo was mobbed by wildly enthusiastic fans Saturday May 18th at Edgewater Park in Detroit.

Mineo appeared on the "Bobbin' with Robin" show on WKMH. Robin Seymour told reporters Mineo was due to arrive at 4:00 P.M.—the crowd arrived at three. "I returned to the broadcast trailer just before the Tiger baseball game went off the air," said Seymour, "and it took me about ten minutes to get from the edge of the crowd to the door of the trailer.

I must say there was no intentional violence or vandalism in the crowd, everyone was in a holiday mood. The trouble came because those in the rear were pressing forward to get a better look. It took 16 policemen, a dozen park employees and several volunteers from the crowd almost an hour to clear a path fifteen feet from Mineo's car door to the trailer door. In the meantime the pressure from the crowd knocked us off the air twice, broke two windows in the trailer, broke the tail lights on the trailer. Several teen-agers had their friends boost them atop the trailer. About a half dozen were forced into the trailer itself by the pressure of the crowd—there was no way possible to get them out so we let them stay—it was like canoing in a sieve. Several times I was sure the trailer was going to get tipped over. All this time we were on the air. Each time the crowd snapped our broadcast lines Russ Betz, our engineer, would plunge into the crowd, find the trouble and fix it. He did a terrific job—he kept us on the air with spit and baling wire. It was hilarious. It was raining off and on all afternoon and everyone was drenched but happy.

"Very little advance promotion was given—we mentioned it on the air several times a day beginning Tuesday. It seems to me that this demonstrates a very important fact—radio is bigger today than it ever was. It is obvious that if you want to reach the people of America you've got to use radio".

Above, the cameraman catches some of the afternoon's action. Mineo's first Epic disk "Start Movin'" is currently in the nation's top ten.

POPULAR

"FRANKIE AND JOHNNY" — An American Legend In Two Acts—MGM E3499 (1-12" LP)

"Frankie And Johnny" is a musical drama with a score and book by Robert Cobert, and lyrics by Dion McGregor. Based on the classic he-done-her-wrong tale, the score contains both the techniques of musical comedy and opera. It is effectively performed by a cast headed by Mary Mayo (Frankie); Danny Scholl (Johnny); Joan Coburn (Nelly Bly) and Nathaniel Frey (Bartender). The show music coterie is the big market here.

"ALICE IN WONDERLAND" — "MANY MOONS" — "THE EAGER PIANO"—Jane Powell—Columbia CL 986 (1-12" LP)

Jane Powell is heard in a musical-narrative presentation of Lewis Carroll's classic "Alice In Wonderland." Miss Powell warmly relates Alice's adventures nicely aided by Carmen Dragon's delicate musical score and a supporting cast. Two other children's tales, previously available on a Columbia 10 inch disk, on the set are James Thurber's delightful "Many Moons" and Michael Morris' clever adventures of a piano, "The Eager Piano." Outstanding presentation for youngsters.

"FRANCES FAYE SINGS FOLK SONGS" — Bethlehem BCP 6017 (1-12" LP)

Miss Faye displayed an adventurous singing spirit in the unique, and in this corner well-done, Bethlehem "Porgy And Bess" package. Many folk songs lend themselves admirably to a jazz treatment, and the stylist proves it in this fine release. "Frankie And Johnny," "St. James Infirmary" and "Lonesome Road" are more obvious examples on disk; but listeners can marvel at the sensitivity (and jazz sensitivity) Miss Faye imparts on such items as "Greensleeves" and "Johnny Has Gone For A Soldier" with throaty conviction. Bethlehem and Frances Faye have another interesting, and successful experiment.

"SONGS BY MARVIN RAINWATER" — MGM E3534 (1-12" LP)

Rainwater's C&W and pop stock rose considerably with his current smash, "Gonna Find Me A Bluebird," and this collection of his single stints for MGM (including "Bluebird") ought to be eyed with enthusiasm by dealers facing both a country and/or pop market. Rainwater has a soothing, and highly versatile delivery with a warmth and sparkle of considerable means. Notable examples from talented artist.

"DESIGNED FOR DANCING"—Jan Garber And His Orchestra—Decca DL 8484 (1-12" LP)

Garber has been dishing up the sentimental fox-trot beat for many years, and this experience is brought out in every bounce and sax solo. The tunes include a list of unchallenged evergreens ("All The Things You Are," "Pagan Love Song," "Love Walked In"). This is reliable work for the more mature folks from Decca.

"LUSH LIFE" — Joe Mooney's Songs—Atlantic 1255 (1-12" LP)

This Atlantic release features singer-organist Joe Mooney in a collection of rare items ("Polka Dots And Moonbeams," "Lush Life," "Have You Met Miss Jones") sung and played with a distinguished taste for describing the "plot" of each tune with conviction, and understanding. Milt Hinton on bass and Osie Johnson on drums are the bright backing. Unusually fine disk appearance.

"BITS AND PIECES"—Jackie And Roy—ABC-Paramount ABC 163 (1-12" LP)

Jackie and Roy, the delightful jazz-inspired vocal team, are at their inventive best in their second LP effort for ABC-Paramount. On a program of 8 originals and 2 evergreens ("Darn That Dream" and "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles"), the team romps through most of them with sometimes only a boop-pah-doo against the snappy ork support ("Aura"). Smart, gay and totally delectable vocal jazz waxing.

"THE GILDED HAWK" — Coleman Hawkins, Tenor Sax—Capitol T 819 (1-12" LP)

This could be just good mood music, but with Coleman Hawkins doing the solo tenor sax work here, there is purpose and good mood music. Hawkins, on a program of indestructables ("I Didn't Know What Time It Was," "Autumn Leaves," "Every Thing Happens To Me") sensitively caresses the melodic strains of each selection. Glenn Osser directs the lush string backing. Excellent jazz-mood attraction.

"WE'RE NOT STRANGERS"—Enzo Stuarti — Jubilee JLP 1041 (1-12" LP)

Stuarti is the Italian-born singer making his first LP appearance in a program nicely flavored with melodies suggesting Italian foundations ("I Have But One Heart," "Santa Lucia," "O' Sole Mio"). The artist is perfectly at home in the warmth and soaring quality of the material, which he sings in both Italian and English. Fine vocal efforts.

"MEYER DAVIS CORDIALLY INVITES YOU..." — Meyer Davis And His Orchestra — ABC-Paramount ABC-176 (1-12" LP)

The Davis crew is one of the leading orks specializing on "society" functions, and disks utilizing the efforts of such an outfit usually fare very well, sales-wise. The 9 bands contain a total of 25 melodies ("This Can't Be Love," "Blue Skies," "Just In Time"), including "full-length" versions of such favorites as "Blue Danube" and "Siboney," all dressed up in a skillful, familiar society beat. This is strong chart potential.

"BAMBI"—Music From The Original Motion Picture Sound Track—Disneyland WDL-4010 (1-12" LP)

"DUMBO"—Music From The Original Motion Picture Sound Track — Disneyland WDL-4013 (1-12" LP)

Two further charming LP sound-tracks from Disneyland, the memorable "Bambi," and "Dumbo," are now available, and dealers are advised to make lots of room for them on their kiddy shelf. The "Bambi" pressing is highlighted by 2 lovely songs, "Love Is A Song" and "I Bring You A Song" plus witty scoring. A circus atmosphere is expertly caught in "Dumbo" with such delights as "Look Out For Mr. Stork" and "Pink Elephants On Parade" plus, once again, a sparkling orchestral score. Major childrens' stock.

"HAWAIIAN MEMORIES" — The Hawaiian Troubadors—Mercury MG 20217 (1-12" LP)

This is Hawaiian music, played by Frenchmen for American consumption. On the collection of exotic Hawaiian melodies ("The Hawaiian Serenade," "Song Of The Islands," and "Pagan Love Song"), the boys, on guitars and celeste, whip through them with a fine touch for authenticity and affection. Good mood stuff for those caught in the lure of the islands.

"CALYPSO FOR DANCING"—JC. Heard—Epic LN 3348 (1-12" LP)

For those still hep to calypso, this Epic issue ought to fill the bill. Singer-drummer JC. Heard, one time performer for Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, and Benny Goodman and others, has cut 12 easy-going, slickly portrayed calypso compositions designed for a dance step, but, as most of the set's purchasers will regard as more important, also very listenable. Good calypso fun.

"NEARER MY GOD TO THEE"—The Louvin Brothers—Capitol T 825 (1-12" LP)

The Louvin Brothers are one of the most familiar, and accomplished interpreters of religious music in the country and western field. With warmth, rhythm and sincerity, the team presents 12 inspirational songs, half of them written by the boys. Selections from the program: "Nearer My God To Thee," "Praying," "Last Chance To Pray," and "Wait A Little Longer, Please Jesus." Must C&W stock.

Album Reviews

"NOSTALGIA IN HI-FI" — Golden Crest CR 4002 (1-12" LP)

From Golden Crest's "Lab Series" comes this hi-fi collection of sounds from the musical machine of yesteryear. The brassy tinkle of these mechanical music makers is quaint, and so are the tunes ("Dark Town Strutters Ball," "Peg O' My Heart,"). Accurately recorded sound. Hi-Fi buffs will be this set's most enthusiastic market.

"JOE LOCO PLAYS THE CLASSICS" — Joe Loco And His Orchestra—Seeco CELP 406 (1-12" LP)

Latin ork leader Joe Loco, in somewhat of a recess from his cha-cha-cha and mambo doings, has transcribed 12 classical selections to an up tempo and frothy South-Of-The-Border beat. The material includes such familiar pieces as Chopin's "Polonaise Op. 35"; Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Song Of India"; and Schubert's "Serenade." Classy renditions of melodic numbers.

JAZZ

"ORGY IN RHYTHM"—Art Blakey, Drums — Blue Note 1554 (1-12" LP)

This is one of the most ambitious and creative steps into the afro-jazz relationship. First-rate drummer Art Blakey, working with a number of percussion instruments (conga, timbales, tree logs), formal jazz devices (piano, flute, bass) plus occasional chants by one Sabu and Blakey himself, has created 7 penetrating and quite striking sessions that have an unrelenting vitality and expressiveness. Excellent sound. An always interesting waxing.

"THE AUSTRALIAN JAZZ QUINTET + 1" — Bethlehem 6015 (1-12" LP)

The group is a prime source of dealer jazz revenue. One side of the disk is devoted to a 3 movement jazz opus by Bill Holman, "Jazz In D Minor," a smartly swinging work with a haunting middle movement. The flip side, on standards ("I'll Be Around,") and originals ("Cubano Chant"), is highlighted by the skillful touch of Dick Healey on flute and Jack Broken-sha on vibes. Excellent jazz material.

"PIANO AFTER MIDNIGHT"—Joe Bushkin — Epic LN 3345 (1-12" LP)

Bushkin is a blend of society and jazz pianist with the latter approach usually, and effectively, getting the upper hand. The set features Bushkin, assisted at times by Buck Clayton (trumpet), Jo Jo Jones (drums) and either Eddie Safranski and Sid Weiss on bass, on 10 standards ("Here In My Arms," "Once In A While") and 2 Bushkin originals ("High Cotton," "Everyday Is Christmas") played with a light, relaxed attack. Slick artistry for jazz or mood listening.

"DOING THE TOWN"—Bobby Crocker Quartet — Piv 5000 (1-12" LP)

As the group is doing New York town, its urban and polished approach to the bill ("42nd Street," "Lullabye Of B'way," "Street Of Dreams") fits neatly into the general atmosphere associated with the place. The big guns in the Crocker (drums) are pianist Ray Rasch and guitarist Howard Roberts. Some fine sophisticated jazz punches here.

"JAZZ MESSAGE #2"—Featuring Hank Mobley (Tenor Sax)—Savoy MG-12092 (1-12" LP)

The disk is divided into 2 groups, with Mobley and bassist Doug Watkins the only musicians on both sides of the pressing. Though Mobley's effervescent tenor does most of the featured playing here, greatly aiding the flighty and happy mood of the affair are such stellar performers as Lee Morgan (trumpet); Donald Byrd (trumpet); Kenny Clark and Art Taylor on drums; and Hank Jones and Barry Harris on piano. Original pieces. Terrific show of names, and they perform beautifully. Fine sessions.

"LATIN KICK"—Cal Tjader — Fantasy 3250 (1-12" LP)

There is a growing disk relationship between Latin rhythms and jazz, and previous to this Fantasy release, jazz vibist Cal Tjader turned a similar trick with an issue labeled, "Mambo With Tjader." This package cover the Latin beat with smoothness, directing itself, at times, to the cha cha beat ("Moonlight In Vermont") or to more formal jazz ("Will You Still Be Mine"). Brew Moore on tenor does some of the neatest jazz tricks. Relaxed Jazz-Latin offering.

"NICE DAY WITH BUDDY COLLETTE" — Featuring Collette Playing Clarinet, Alto Sax, Flute And Tenor Sax — Contemporary C3531 (1-12" LP)

This is Collette's second pressing for Contemporary, the first being a similar approach. The 10 sessions feature Collette in 1 of 4 instruments (clarinet, flute, alto and tenor sax) on several evergreens ("Over The Rainbow," "I'll Remember April") and Collette compositions ("A Nice Day," "Fall Winds"), playing briskly with 2 exceptions: the haunting and tender flute work on "Over The Rainbow" and "Fall Winds."

CLASSICAL

MOZART: Concerto No. 21 In C Major For Piano And Orchestra (K. 467)—Concerto No. 27 In B-Flat Major For Piano And Orchestra (K. 595)—Rudolf Serkin — The Columbia Symphony Orchestra Under The Direction of Alexander Schneider—Columbia ML 5013 (1-12" LP)

Pianist Rudolf Serkin measures up beautifully to these two brilliant Mozart concertos, each of whom is fairly well represented in the LP catalogue. Serkin's command of both the colorful Concerto No. 21 and the contrasting soul-searching of the Concerto No. 27 is one of great virtuosity and insight. Excellent orchestral support from Alexander Schneider and the Columbia Symphony Orchestra. Here's the versions of the two works the classical coterie will want.

SURINACH: Second Symphony—TURINA: Rapsodia Sinfonica For Piano And Orchestra—Sondra Bianca, Piano—With Arthur Winograd Conducting The Philharmonia Orchestra Of Hamburg—MGM E3510 (1-12" LP)

Composer-conductor Carlos Surinach's "Second Symphony" is highly rhythmic orchestral composition strongly associated with the musical qualities of his native Spain, and Joaquin Turina's "Rapsodia Sinfonica" evokes with a fiery passion and tenderness the composer's own Seville. Sondra Bianca provides the commendable keyboard artistry on the latter work. Fine disk.

ROSSINI: William Tell Overture — Barber Of Seville Overture — DONIZETTI: Daughter Of The Regiment Overture — SCHUBERT: Marche Militaire, Op. 51. N. 1—TCHAIKOVSKY: Marche Slave, Op. 31—STRAUSS, SR: Radetsky March, Op. 228 Paul Van Kempen conducting The Orchestre Des Concerts Lamoureux And The Concertgebouw Orchestra Of Amsterdam—Epic LC 3349 (1-12" LP)

The rousing and melodic nature of these familiar overtures and marches make them convenient companion pieces for a hi-fi treat. This is just what the listener receives from conductor Paul Van Kempen.

FRANCAIX: Symphony For Strings—IBERT: Divertissement—Carlos Surinach Conducting The MGM Orchestra—MGM E 3514 (1-12" LP)

This MGM release provides an abundance of musical laughs, one from Jean Francaix and his adroit and clever "Symphony For Strings," the other from Jacques Ibert, who goes even further than Francaix's work in its delightful kidding of musical conventions. Carlos Surinach, whose work for MGM has most often been on rarely recorded items, does a sparkling orchestral stint with the MGM orchestra. Fine sound. Two witty orchestral creations, well performed.

J. S. BACH: 12 Chorale Preludes From The Orgelbuchlein Toccata, Adagio And Fugue In C Major—Andre Marchal — Zodiac LP-335 (1-12" LP)

Marchal is the sightless organist of the Church of St. Eustache in Paris, and in this Zodiac release Marchal performs 12 lovely religious Chorale preludes from Bach's "Orgelbuchlein" on one side, and Bach's famed "Toccata, Adagio, And Fugue In C Major." The performance on both counts is organ work of the first order, wonderfully expressive in feeling, astonishingly skillful in its technical attack. Superb sound. Outstanding Bach reading.

Dot Records Ships "Ten Commandments" Albums

HOLLYWOOD—Dot Records' prexy Randy Wood last week announced that first shipments of the label's deluxe LP of Elmer Bernstein's original music score from Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments" already were being received by retail outlets.

"The Ten Commandments" album is the culmination of four months of preparation by Dot album chief Tom Mack, represents his first assignment since joining Dot Records in February, and is the label's first LP from a motion picture sound track.

The original music score for "The Ten Commandments" was considered by DeMille as an important, integral part of the picture, and came under his close personal supervision. It was composed by Elmer Bernstein, who considered it his "challenge of a lifetime", and required a year and a half to write.

An ancient, unusual musical instrument, the sistrum, in use over three thousand years ago and re-created by modern experts with detailed correctness according to thorough museum research, was employed by Bernstein to achieve a musical framework of Biblical times, along with the shofar or ram's horn, equally ancient but still used today. Certain modern but rare instruments such as the theremin and novachord, tiple, Indian drum, finger cymbals, and bass flute were used by Bernstein for musical effects related to the Biblical period. One of Bernstein's minor problems was to teach a modern musician how to play the sistrum.

By working out possible tonal ranges and likely combinations of sounds and notes which could come from these odd instruments, Elmer Bernstein's score includes fanfares, processions and ballet music, as well as music for awesome sequences like Moses before the Burning Bush on Mount Sinai; the Exodus to freedom of the Children of Israel; the parting of the Red Sea; the destruction of the Pharaoh's chariots; the wild worship of the Golden Calf; and the giving of the Commandments.

The two-pocket cover of "The Ten Commandments" album, designed by Jerome Gould and Associates, winner of many national awards in all fields of design, features multi-color photographs of actual scenes from the picture, with captions of authentic Biblical reference. The editorial liner contains copy written by Cecil B. DeMille, a brief biography of Elmer Bernstein, with direct quotes from the composer concerning the complexities of the problems in scoring a picture of the magnitude of "The Ten Commandments", a listing of the unusual musical instruments used, and titles of the musical excerpts from the score. With the final approval of Cecil B. DeMille, who remained personally interested in the album, Dot's album chief Tom Mack, working closely with Randy Wood, selected 18 pieces from the wealth of available material as being most representative musically of the scope and meaning of the picture itself.

Side 1 of the album contains four bands: 1. Prelude; 2. In the Bulrushes; 3. The Bitter Life; 4. Love and Ambition. Side 2 has six bands: 1. The Hard Bondage; 2. Egyptian Dance; 3. The Crucible of God; 4. And Moses Watered Jethro's Flock; 5. Bedouin Dance; 6. I Am That Am. Side 3's four bands are: 1. Overture; 2. Thus Says The Lord; 3. The Plagues; 4. The Exodus. The final Side 4 is composed of four pieces: 1. The Pillar of Fire; 2. The Red Sea; 3. The Ten Commandments; and 4. Go, Proclaim Liberty!

Active public interest in the music from "The Ten Commandments" is evidenced by advance orders which began to come in before actual work on the album even started the diskery reported.

Columbia Announces Winners Of Mozart Contest

NEW YORK—Winners have been announced for Columbia Records' National Mozart Bicentennial Contest.

The objective of the contest was to stimulate student interest in the music of Mozart, and provide incentive for teachers to develop a creative study unit. During 1956-57, the year marking the 200th anniversary of Mozart's birth, eighth-graders across the country were delving into encyclopedias, dictionaries and music libraries, producing scrapbooks, radio scripts and even color sound films.

First prize (100 LP records and a high fidelity phonograph equipped with headset earphones for classroom use) was awarded to St. Edwards School, Waterloo, Iowa. This ambitious group of eighth-graders filmed in color and with sound their conception of the life of Mozart. Entitled "Mozart the Wonder Boy", the film was written, produced, staged and dramatized by the youngsters themselves.

Portraying Mozart in his amazing childhood, the script required a juvenile thespian to perform on the piano, organ and violin, as well as trip over the feet of a suspiciously youthful looking Austrian Emperor. In his untimely death scene, Mozart was shown frantically composing his last major work, coughing dramatically, adjusting his cotton wig and finally slumping lifelessly in his chair, his right hand remembering to drop a quill pen to the floor. The group's teacher is Sister Mary Lolita, O. S. F. Principal at St. Edwards School is Sister Mary lone.

Second prize (75 LP records and a high fidelity phonograph) went to Akiba Jewish Day School, Chicago, Illinois, for its film version of Mozart's life, handled with the use of flashback incidents, and ending with a segment of the Mozart Requiem. Teacher-Supervisor was Abraham Buchman.

Third prize (50 LP records and a high fidelity phonograph) was awarded to St. Vincent De Paul School, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for their entry: a complete Mozart puppet show, as well as a scrapbook filled with research information, mobiles and wallpaper designs. Their teacher is Sister Mary Josette. Principal at St. Vincent De Paul is Sister Mary Simonetta.

Fourth prize (50 LP records) went to Jack Yates School, Houston, Texas. The 29 students of this eighth grade class wrote and taped an original play titled "Much Ado About Mozart". Within this dramatization were performances of Mozart songs and arias, as well as some of his keyboard music. Teacher: Mrs. Gloria Duke. Principal at Jack Yates: William S. Holland.

Fifth prize (25 LP records) was awarded to Lincoln Jr. High, Meriden, Conn. These 20th Century Mozart fans chose to use the modern medium of radio, and with fine technique produced an adaptation of the CBS Television program "You Are There." They set up inquiring microphones at the site of the premiere performance of Mozart's "Don Giovanni." Among the opening-night celebrities in attendance were Beethoven, who confided to the reporter that "the performance was terrible; the music was superb", Benjamin Franklin, who when asked what he thought of the work, said: "... better to ask me what I thought of 'Don Giovanni'. There was a man! As to the music, I have a tin ear". Their teacher is Miss P. McLaughlin. Principal at Lincoln Jr. High is T. Mason Brown.

Other prizes were awarded for Runners-up, Honorable Mention, and Special Mention.

Everly Brothers Join Grand Ole Opry

NASHVILLE—Riding high on the wings of their hit Cadence record, "Bye, Bye Love," the Everly Brothers became Grand Ole Opry "regulars" Saturday night, June 1.

Grand Ole Opry Director W. D. Kilpatrick signed Don Everly, 20, and Phil Everly, 18, to a contract May 29. Signing came 10 days after the boys staged a sensational guest debut that brought thunderous applause from jampacked Ryman Auditorium.

"It means fulfillment of our life's ambition," said Don. He recalled his father, Ike Everly, and two uncles, Leonard and Charlie had hoped to reach these heights in their careers—and had passed on to the boys a similar goal.

Don and Phil began singing with their parents 12 years ago in a family group, appearing all over the nation on tour and on radio. Their parents retired from the music profession two years ago and the boys began to work on their own.

Don graduated from West High School in Knoxville, Tenn., and Phil is finishing high school by correspondence.

The brothers are also song writers. When Don was 16 they turned out "Thou Shalt Not Steal," recorded by Kitty Wells. They also wrote "Here We Are Again," recorded by Anita Carter; and "It Takes A Lot of Heart" and "That's The Life I Have To Live," sung by Justin Tubb.

Both boys were born in Brownie, Ky., near Central City. Their parents live in Hammond, Ind. but plan to move to Nashville soon. Wesley Rose of Acuff-Rose signed them to exclusive songwriting contracts 4 months ago.

Hold 5th Jimmie Rodgers Memorial Festival

MERIDIAN, MISS. — As the strains of Jimmie Rodgers' matchless yodel lingered in the still, sunshiny air—hundreds of devoted followers bowed their heads in prayer for the most lasting feature of the Fifth Annual Jimmie Rodgers' Memorial Festival here May 21-22.

Other events, a daytime parade, a dance, and a night of song, drew greater crowds. But no event was so meaningful as the priceless memorial moment—when wreaths were placed at the foot of the marble rest under which rests the body of the founder of modern Country music.

Mississippi Lieut. Gov. Lynn Gardin gave a brief address—paying tribute to Rodgers for his most lasting memorial—songs in the hearts of mankind—establishing more firmly a "great tradition" for America.

Mrs. Rodgers, the widow, Mrs. Anita B. Court of Corpus Christie, Tex., his only surviving daughter, and Mrs. Lottie Mixon of York, Ala., a sister, were present.

An hour-long concert of Rodgers' records preceded the brief ritual during which tribute was paid to Ernest Tubb and Hank Snow as founders and moving spirits for the occasion.

Both Tubb and Snow received the Jimmy Rodgers Achievement Awards, top honors of the celebration, at the Night of Song in Ray Stadium, attended by 11,000 — concluding the festival.

Marty Robbins was awarded the "Country Music's Man of the Year" trophy and Kitty Wells was acclaimed "Queen of Country Music" for the festival. These awards were made by Tennessee Gov. Frank G. Clement, special guest.

Mississippi Gov. J. P. Coleman, who led the daytime parade, presented the Ralph Peer trophy to Jim Denny of Nashville for his contribution to country music, on a radio broadcast preceding the memorial day program.

Singing on the stadium program, opened by Tubb and Snow with their band members, were Johnny & Jack and Kitty Wells, Justin Tubb, Gordon Terry, Billy Walker, the Wilburn Brothers (Teddy and Doyle), Porter Wagoner, Sleepy McDaniel, Jim Reeves, Johnny Cash, Melvin Endsley, Jimmy Newman, Carl Smith, Mimi Roman, Ronnie Self, Goldie Hill, Jimmy Swann, Rod Brasfield, Hawkshaw Hawkins, Jean Shepard, Audrey Williams, Carl Perkins, Jimmie Rodgers Snow, Jerry Jericho, Curtis Gordon and others.

Emceeding was Eddie Hill, assisted by Bob Gallion and C. R. Smith.

Columbia Reports 50,000 "Bergen Sings Morgan" LP's Sold In 1st Week

NEW YORK — Columbia Records reports record-shattering sales of 50,000 of the "Bergen Sings Morgan" LP in the first week following the "Playhouse 90" production of "The Helen Morgan Story." Columbia Album Sales Manager Stan Kavan cited the coordinated, "extra-TV" promotion saturation as a forceful factor responsible for the album's success.

In the months before the release of the album, promotion plans of Columbia, CBS-TV, and MCA were coordinated to mount steadily toward a culmination the night of the TV performance plug. In addition to easel figures of Polly Bergen prepared for in-store display, Columbia produced special "now in stock" posters, accorded full disk jockey service prior to the show, and prepared dealers and field salesmen with a running account of the promotional tools being forged for their use. Miss Bergen devoted unusual time and energy in cooperation with an intensive magazine and newspaper publicity campaign designed to continue unsubsidized for a period after the TV presentation.

This is the third TV originated album Columbia has recently released and in each of the three, the elements have been significantly different. "Cinderella," the first Rodgers and Hammerstein TV spectacular original, was executed as other TV and Show albums have been in the past, being a "record version" of the enormously successful program. "Drum Is A Woman" was the first instance of a TV show based on an album creation, the album having been on sale in stores before the final U.S. Steel Hour script was completed. In this case, Irv Townsend was armed with nothing more than the Columbia Record when he presented the TV idea to the show's Producer Marshall Jamieson, who was convinced on this evidence. The Bergen album, on the other hand, did not undertake to reproduce the TV show at all. It was conceived and produced as an arresting idea, irrespective of the TV connection. That the television program offered exciting possibilities for attention for the star's debut on Columbia Records was, as the promotion campaign reveals, a subject of lively awareness.

Desmond In 2nd Film

NEW YORK—Coral recording star Johnny Desmond, who recently completed his motion picture debut in a starring role in the Columbia musical "Calypso Heat Wave", starts shooting another film for Columbia on June 4th. Producer Sam Katzman signed the vocalist for a starring role in a dramatic film this time. The picture, "Escape From San Quentin," is based on an actual incident of a San Quentin break several years ago. Coral, incidentally, reports excellent initial reaction to Desmond's latest album, "Johnny Desmond Goes Calypso," which includes tunes from his first Columbia film.

Fields Forms Flack Firm

CHICAGO—Barney Fields, Chicago promoter, last week announced his resignation from Bally Records to head up his own public relations and record promotion office to be located at 54 W. Randolph St.

Fields, who for some time has been handling Tony Bennett's p.r. and record promotion along with his Bally position, says he will now be in a position to give artists heavy concentration.

Chancellor Signs Avalon

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — Frankie Avalon, young trumpet star, has signed a long term pact with Chancellor Records, according to the company's presidents, Marcucci and DeAngelis.

Avalon, who at one time was a trumpet protege of Jackie Gleason and Paul Whiteman, performs as a vocalist on his first Chancellor recording "Cupid".

For the past five years, Avalon has been devoting his time to studying trumpet and has been playing with a local group known as Rocco and his Saints. It has been only in the past few months that he has been taking singing lessons.

Raymond Scott Develops New Electronic Musical Instrumental

NEW YORK—Composer-conductor Raymond Scott has obvious reasons for smiling proudly as his 2½ year old daughter Debbie assumes a Helen Morgan-esque pose atop the Scott Clavivox, a new electronic musical instrument he has just developed.

The Clavivox is a keyboard instrument (Piano-type keyboard) that has two unusual features: first, its ability to slide smoothly in pitch from any note on the keyboard to any other without a break and without hesitation, slowly or quickly, as interpretation may require. Second, the use of two foot pedals makes possible a human-like vibrato control. One pedal varies the speed of the vibrato; the other the depth of pitch of the vibrato.

This is the first time that this combination of effects has been accomplished on a keyboard-type instrument. The sound of the Scott Clavivox is especially close to that of the human voice, hence the name.

Raymond Scott, currently musical director of NBC's "Your Hit Parade", is, in addition to being a composer-conductor, well known for his interest along creative musical engineering lines. He has a number of patents on other electronic devices.

He is also known for the Raymond Scott Quintet, which recorded many of his own compositions. He has composed a number of works for the Broadway stage, including "Lute Song".

Capitol To Add HMV Classics To Release Schedule Next Fall

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records will, in the near future, add to its line of classical recordings selections from prominent international artists now appearing on "His Master's Voice", or HMV, the label of England's Electric and Musical Industries, Limited. The announcement was made by Glenn E. Wallichs, Capitol's president.

In recent years, "His Master's Voice" recordings have been released in this country by RCA Victor.

Scheduled for late fall release by Capitol will be recorded performances by the world renowned violinist, Yehudi Menuhin. High ranking artists to follow include Artur Rodzinski, Louis Kentner, Shura Cherkassky and many others.

Wallichs further stated that Capitol would augment its program of FDS domestic recording of classical artists, with Fall releases of Leopold Stokowski, Nathan Milstein, the Hollywood Bowl Symphony and other leading artists and orchestras scheduled.

Additions To Production Staff of Mitchell Show

NEW YORK — Additions to the production staff of Guy Mitchell's show over ABC-TV next fall were announced last week.

Kevin Joe Johnson will direct, Earl Sheldon will be the musical director and Ted Cappy, formerly with the Sid Caesar Show, will handle the choreography. Phil Cohan was previously announced as the producer.

Writers for the show are now being screened, and it is expected that a top team of two will be signed shortly.

The entire package is under the supervision of Edward Joy Productions, with Eddie Joy the executive producer.

The program will make its debut on Saturday, September 21, 10-10:30 P.M., E.S.T., following the Lawrence Welk Show.

Meeting The Bye Bye Boys

WORCESTER, MASS.—The Everly Brothers, Phil (left) and Don (right) currently the proud possessors of one of the hottest singles in the record business, "Bye, Bye Love," visited with Worcester dee jay Jack O'Rourke (WNEB) while passing through the city. "Bye, Bye Love," the brothers' first Cadence waxing was originally issued as a country disk but instantaneously hit in both pop and country. The tune is #9 in the pop best seller list and #8 in country.

E. B. Marks Buys Cugat's Alameda Music Catalog

NEW YORK — The entire catalog of Alameda Music, Inc., Xavier Cugat's Latin-American music publishing firm, has been purchased by the Edward B. Marks Music Corporation. It will be operated by Marks as a separate concern and it will be affiliated as regards performing rights with BMI, as is Marks. Alameda has published a number of Latin-American popular compositions; new ones will be added from time to time.

At the same time, Cugat, as a writer, entered into a publication agreement with Marks Music, which has published his still popular theme song, "My Shawl," as well as such compositions of his as "Nightingale," "Mambo Ay Ay," "Night Must Fall" and many others. The first three songs to be published under the new agreement which is one entirely aside from the Alameda purchase, are "Learning," which Cugat adapted from a theme by Tchaikovsky and for which Ben Raleigh has written English lyrics, "Very, Very Satisfied," and "Pan Amor Cha Cha." The last named is the title and theme song of a new Italian film and is to be the name, as well, of a new Cugat album.

Cugat and his wife, Abbe Lane, leave shortly for Europe where they will continue to make foreign films. They will return here early in September, at which time they will resume their television and recording activities, Cugat for Columbia Records and Miss Lane for Victor Records.

Special Gleason EP

HOLLYWOOD — A new EP by Jackie Gleason called "To A Sleeping Beauty", was released by Capitol Records on May 27.

The new album spotlights Gleason in a new role, a dramatic presentation of emotional monologues with instrumental accompaniment, "To A Sleeping Beauty" and "Apology At Bedtime." "To A Sleeping Beauty," written by Gleason and Larry Markes, was introduced by Gleason on his CBS-TV program June 1. "Apology At Bedtime" was co-authored by Gleason and Harlan Miller.

The Princess And The Dee Jay

CHICAGO—Dee jay Jim Lounsbury, who recently joined Chicago's ABC-TV station WBKB-TV, meets "Little Princess Blue Echo," a young Cherokee lass who visited local jockeys to promote Dot Records' waxing of the tune "Blue Echo" cut by Danny Welton.

R & B Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Everyone in New York still talking MOA and now settling down to a more active selling period. Whether it was the MOA meeting that started things going again, or a natural surge in business is hard to determine, but the general consensus is that sales have shown a decided increase and the Spring slack seems to be over. . . . Lots of good records now springing forth—and one that should provide a good hypo is the new Little Richard platter, "Jenny, Jenny" and "Miss Ann." Both sides were taken from his album after a reaction showed they were getting tremendous acceptance. . . . Morty Palitz, Jubilee Records, keeping his fingers crossed as he talks about the new Cadillacs "My Girl Friend." "This will be a great seller in pop and r & b," says Palitz. . . . Don Robey, Duke and Peacock, speaks of his labels as "rhythm headquarters." He is especially high on his new twosome, Brooks and Brown. Robey says, "Their debut dinking, "They Call Her Rosie Lee" and "Sleeping On An Ocean Of Tears," is really creating a heat-wave around the offices as orders keep coming in." Another the Duke fellas are excited about is Leo Baxter's "No Longer Wanted." . . . Otis Williams and his Charms have a new one out on DeLuxe, "Talking to Myself" and "One Kind

SENSATIONS

Word From You." . . . Jerry Winston Mardi Gras Records, announces the signing of Joe Cuba, formerly with Rainbow Records, to his Latin label. Jerry also in high spirits as he tells of two great sessions this week with The Pearls and The Velours for his Onyx label. . . . Mel Turoff, Roulette, Rama, Gee and Tico promotion chief, takes to the road this Monday for two weeks in the mid-west. Mel will primarily work on the newest Roulette single, "Shenandoah Rose" by Hugo and Luigi. The Roulette bunch are really flipping about this plate 'cause they feel they could have one of the big disks of year. . . . Turoff, discussing the new LP line, tells of the great reaction the distribbers have given its introduction—just from the portfolios sent out. . . . Sol Rabinowitz, Baton Records, in with the next Ann Cole release. The gal has two great sides which could make her a big star. . . . Apollo Records continues to build in new areas with The Cellos' "Rang Tang Ding Dong." Already in the Top Sixty, a little push could make this a biggie. . . . Al Silver, Herald Records, happily exclaims about the upsurge in business and says he has three great decks to take advantage of it. His "Tonight, Tonight" by the Mello-Kings has taken off in the local New York-New Jersey area; the new 5 Satins' "To The Aisle" and "Wish I Had My Baby," just going out, has excited the distributors who have heard it; and the current Charlie and Ray, "Sweet Thing," is building very nicely. . . . Woody Hinderling of Candlelight excitedly tells of the action on "So Young" by Clyde Stacey in Buffalo. George Lorenz (Hound Dog) has started a contest—"How Old is Clyde Stacey and How Young is Hound Dog?" Woody's one of the young fellas in the record biz, but his unassuming, modest approach is so refreshingly different that we think a lot of jockeys are likely to pitch in and help. . . . George Goldner's Gone label out with three new disks. He introduces three newcomers in Gary Dale with "Pretty Baby" and "Love Is Dynamite"; Al Wood and The Wanderers with "My Lady Chou Coumme" and "Mask Off"; and Jackie Dee with "I'll Be True" and "How Wrong I Was." "I'll Be True" is the old Faye Adams hit. . . . The Mesners at Aladdin Records have issued a special release of the Kent Cigarette commercial, titled "The Kent Song." The Mesners are pretty high on this deck as they feel that the publicity that the record will get should be big. They plan to send thousands of sample records to the deejays around the country with a package of Kent Cigarettes enclosed. The release features "For Love," the vocal version of the jingle, and "The Kent Song" which is an instrumental version.

LITTLE RICHARD

THE PEARLS

Three Beas and A Beep handle the vocal and Buddy Weed and Orchestra the instrumental. The Sensations' "You Made Me Love You" on Atco getting scattered reaction in several areas, and could break out soon.

CHICAGO:

Our hats off to two swell guys who have won the admiration and respect of all musicdom with their rapid climb to the top in their particular field. Len and Phil Chess officially moved into swank new offices on Boul Mich this past week with darn near everyone trying to make some excuse to get in and take a tour thru the gleaming white studios and stock rooms. "Even got my hair cut for the occasion," quipped Len Chess as bro Phil supervised finishing touches. . . . Fast Domino stopping off enroute for many one-niters as he heads into Hollywood's Mocambo for extended engagement. . . . Stan Lewis, New Orleans, was in town to catch his fast travelling boy, Dale "Susy Q" Hawkins, before he took off for more deejay promo. . . . Local deejays picking up on Par recorder Lee Young and his first swinger, "I'm Pleading". WAAF's Jesse Owens says the tune has a lot of merit. . . . Over at M.S. Distribbers, things are bouncing right along with Cadence duo Everly Bros. (Don-20, Phil-18) and "Goodbye Love". Tune has taken off like a house-a-fire and promises to be really big for the Blyer crew. . . . Jim Fleming, Shaw, finding Cream City better and better for booking of weekend band dates. "We've had full houses for Charles Brown, Al Smith, Chuck Willis, B. J. McNeely and Muddy Waters," cheers Fleming. . . . Chuck Berry "knocking 'em dead" in Philly with Chess smasher "School Day". . . . Herb Kole jumping for joy over new Bill Doggett deck, "Ding Dong" and Five Royales' "Think". Herb claims these will be big-big-big for King. Still climbing for the King Distribbers happy sales mgr. is Herb Lance's "Close Your Eyes". "The thing just won't quit," Kole exclaims. . . . Ruth Brown closed a reportedly rousing two weeker at Roberts Show Club. Requests were so heavy to have her back she's skedded for return in early August. . . . Bill Doggett one-niting Fla. circuit. . . . Blue Chip's "Echo, Echo, Echo" by Dan Lee said to be one of the hottest R&B numbers to grace Garmisa Distribbers' roster in quite some time. Says Myron Schulz, "The deck is being shipped with every order." . . . Big J. McNeely collecting verra heavy applause from Detroit audiences. . . . Muddy Waters and Little Walter crossing each others paths as they one-nite thru-out south'n area. . . . The Mongloows' brand new release, "Please Send Me Someone To Love" predicted by Phil Chess to be the biggest thing group has produced to date. . . . Argo LP's, to come include another set by The Dick

CHUCK BERRY

Layne Quartet, Chubby Jackson's Band, and vocalist, John Young. . . . Vee-Jay has recently signed The Harmony 4 and released their new spiritual "All Things Are Possible". "Looks real big", promises Abner. Biggest thing around Vee-Jay camp is The Spaniels' rocker, "Everyone's Laughing" and heading right up there along side The Spaniels is Jimmy Reed's brand new opus "The Sun Is Shining". Says Ab, "Reed was never better". . . . Kae Williams stopped by to shout hello and introduce us to his boy, Solomon Burke. Burke has a new one on Apollo entitled "You Are My One Love" b/w "For You And You Alone". . . . Ace comes on the scene with blues sound, "Blow Wind Blow", by Junior Gordon. . . . Chuck Willis one-niting local area while Charles Brown heads east in preparation for quick trip back to Chi for 6/14 Crown Propellor opening. . . . Stan Pat finally got the rest he lost over MOA week and got back to his first loves, Rama-Gee-Roulette. Big for the well liked fellow is "I Want To Know" on Rama by The Heartbeats, "Ten Pairs Of Shoes" by The Clefstones on Gee and Rama's "Teenage Blues" by Roc LaRue. We've got a hot op tune on Roulette", confided Pat. "It's called '49 Juke Boxes' by Alfie Weatherbee and promises to be a top seller". . . . George and Ernie Leaner, United Distribbers, report Atco's "Young Blood" beginning to collect a lot of pop spins hereabouts. Chief spinner, "The Pajama Song", by The Serenades also promising big things. . . . Muddy Waters stopped off in Chi enroute south for one-niter tour. . . . Phil Chess planed into Detroit for weekend visit with Charlie Gray of Cosnat Distribbers. . . . WAAF deejay, Jesse Owens, running clever birthday promotion with his listeners. Jess plays a birthday request for the listner and then mails off a card and record as a little gift from him. . . . Way up on the sales and hit list of All-State Distribbers is Fats Domino's "Valley Of Tears" on Imperial, Buddy Knox's "Don't Make Me Cry" on Roulette and Jimmy Bowen's "Warm Up To Me". . . . Imperial LP "Here Stands Fats Domino", Specialty LP "Little Richard" and Atlantic LP "The Clovers" doing real well so says Paul Glass of All-State. . . . Count Basie and Joe Williams followed Woody Herman into the Blue Note. . . . Lillian Offitt in town with her new Excello swinger, "Miss You So". . . . Clifton Chenier dropped into

EARL BOSTIC
(King 5056)

B+ "SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY" (2:25) [Robbins A S C A P—Daniels, Whiting] On this side Bostic turns in his usual top-flight performance on the standard lovely. Dreamy, melodic, and beaty the way the kids demand it. The big side that should grab lots of attention.

B "EXERCISE" (2:38) [Earl's BMI—Bostic] The swinging horn specialists treats his big audience to a Bostic-written tune. A lively middle beat jumper instrumental with Bostic's big sax away out front. Happy wax that should draw action.

BROOKS AND BROWN
(Duke 172)

B+ "THEY CALL HER ROSALIE" (2:39) [Lion BMI—Brooks and Brown] Brooks and Brown wail a slow blues "about a gal called Rosalie and what she did to me". Dramatic slow beat treatment with some moving blues singing. Deck's a stopper and bears close watching.

B "SLEEPING IN AN OCEAN OF TEARS" (2:50) [Lion BMI—Brown, Brooks] Slow beat dramatic item with rolling drums and eerie feeling. Startling in mood—but definitely something you'll listen to. Good debut for the duo.

TOMMY MOSLEY
(Peacock 1678)

B "I'LL WALK WITH YOU" (2:15) [Lion BMI—Cobb, Kay] Tommy Mosley sings a pop styled pretty with good effects. His lovely vocaling, given a choral backdrop, comes through a stirring wax. Definitely for the pop market.

B "WHAT WOULD YOU DO" (2:17) [Lion BMI—Robey] Mosley turns to a middle beat bouncer and gives it a sprightly but effortless reading. Good warm weather item in its light, bouncy feeling. Happy pleaser.

THE COLONAIRS
(Ember 1017)

B+ "CAN'T STAND TO LOSE YOU" (2:45) [Angel BMI—Francis, Williamson] The Colonairs turn about with a "big" performance styled offering. Sweet, "Ink-Spot" type treatment, complete with recitation. Deck is commercial and bears close watching.

B "SANDY" (2:15) [Angel BMI—Francis, Dames] The Colonairs skip tidily about with a quick beat jumper all about a gal named Sandy. Cute peppery item with the beat, romantic interest, and the fem name, that seems so important commercially these days.

JAMES (SUGARBOY) CRAWFORD
(Imperial 5441)

B+ "MORNING STAR" (2:15) [Reeve BMI—Crawford, Bartholomew] Crawford turns tender on the flip, with a slow, rhythmic ballad. Tuneful item sold in good style. Feeling filled deck that finds a receptive ear.

B "I DON'T NEED YOU" (2:29) [Reeve BMI—Smith, Bartholomew] Quick beat honky tonk tune rocked out by Crawford with an appealing vocal. Crawford skips, in flighty style, backed with a rolling instrumental support. Ok deck.

The Cash Box Award o' the Week

"JENNY, JENNY" (2:00) [Venice BMI—Johnson, Penniman]

"MISS ANN" (2:05) [Venice BMI—Johnson, Penniman]

LITTLE RICHARD (Specialty 606)

● Here's two pre-tested items taken from Little Richard's hot selling album—"Jenny, Jenny" and "Miss Ann". Both decks are given the individualized shouting of the sensational coast singer. Tho we lean ever so lightly to "Jenny, Jenny", Little Richard rocks out both decks with his numerous vocal tricks that make any of his etchings so stand-out. "Jenny, Jenny" is reminiscent of his former hit, "Slippin' and Slidin'". It is a quick beat rocker in which the atomic shouter shows off best. The coupling, "Miss Ann", is the more restrained of the two. It is a middle beat rocker that has to get plenty of attention. It is very possible that Richard has not "one"—but "two" hits here.

"MY GIRL FRIEND" (1:55) [Benell BMI—Powell, Navarro]

"BROKEN HEART" (2:46) [Benell BMI—Powell, Navarro]

THE CADILLACS (Josie 820)

● The Cadillacs rock out what could be their strongest release yet in a quick beat racer titled, "My Girl Friend". The deck takes off from the opening note, grabs your attention immediately and keeps a head-lock on it until they sign off one minute fifty-five seconds later. An effervescent, bubbly tune—it is given a standout treatment by The Cadillacs complete with all their interjected Cadillacisms. This deck looks like a big summer hit. The coupling, "Broken Heart", is a straightaway treatment of a lovely, slow beat ballad. Delightfully and tenderly done. Pleasing and relaxing listening—but for the sales action we look to "My Girl Friend".

"WHOLE LOT OF SHAKIN' GOING ON" (2:39)
[Marlyn BMI—Williams, David]

JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun 267)

● Looks like another hit out of the Sun label. See pop reviews.

CLYDIE KING
(Specialty 605)

B+ "OUR ROMANCE" (2:30) [Venice BMI—Franklin] Clydie King does a delightful bit of vocaling, etching a slow rhythmic love ballad. Tender teen-age tune handled with one eye on the charts. Two good decks to introduce the new talent.

B "WRITTEN ON THE WALL" (2:05) [Venice BMI—Franklin] Clydie King jumps lightly through the quick beat lilter. Happy romancer told with a cute reading. Infectious item with a strong rhythmic backing. Deck could start something going.

RIFF RUFFIN
(Ebb 103)

B "IF YOU PLEASE" (2:14) [Ebb BMI—R. Ruffin] Riff Ruffin delivers a slow beat blues ballad with a cozy reading that comes through well. Ruffin sells the song well. Easy to listen to wax.

B "NO MORE" (2:20) [Ebb BMI—R. Ruffin] Ruffin about faces completely as he rocks out a quick beat jumper with an enthusiastic reading. Deck is a lively wax that gets the spirit jumping. Happy and driving wax.

TONY HARRIS
(Ebb 104)

B+ "I'LL FOREVER LOVE YOU" (2:05) [Ebb BMI—O. Harris] Harris turns in the stronger performance on a middle beat blues bouncer. Love lyric with emotion and good individual styling. Deck moves and Harris could have something here.

B "CHICKEN, BABY, CHICKEN" (2:20) [Ebb BMI—O. Harris] Gravel voiced Tony Harris shouts out a quick beat jumper with a teen-age lyric. Enthusiastic exhauster given a real swinging reading. Kids should like it.

CHARLIE SINGLETON
(Atlas 2700)

B "FRENCH SWEET SONG" (2:49) [Salvadora] Charlie Singleton and his band dish up an appealing instrumental quick beat. Flavoury item melodically. Ok programming.

C+ "PYRAMID" (2:38) [MacAvery BMI—Mahones] Oriental spiced item. Flute solo gives it the proper touch. Two interesting decks.

The Cash Box R & B Best Bets

- ★ "SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY"..... Earl Bostic..... King 5056
- ★ "THEY CALL HER ROSALIE"..... Brooks and Brown..... Duke 172
- ★ "OH SO HAPPY"..... The Midnighters..... Federal 12299

THE MIDNIGHTERS
(Federal 12299)

B+ "IS YOUR LOVE FOR REAL" (2:17) [Jay & Cee BMI—Ballard, Green] The Midnighters rock out a quick beat jump in great style. Lead is very strong and the resulting wax. Could grab lots of action.

B+ "OH SO HAPPY" (2:40) [Real McCoy BMI—Owens, McCoy, Glover] The Midnighters have another side that bears close watching. This is a middle beat bouncer with a treatment and piece of material that is different. This one is quite a hunk of wax and it could turn out to be the best the group has turned out in quite a while. Somethink to watch 'cause it has that certain something Two excellent sides, either of which could be "big"—but we think this is the stronger deck.

CRAWFORD BROTHERS
(Aladdin 3375)

B "MIDNIGHT MOVER GROOVER" (1:54) [Aladdin BMI—Crawford Bros.] The Crawford Brothers turn out a slow, rhythmic instrumental with some great sounds. Exciting dim lights blues that should grab lots of attention.

B "MIDNIGHT HAPPENINS" (2:34) [Aladdin BMI—Crawford Bros.] Similar offering with a slightly faster tempo. Dramatic, moody and exciting. Both sides offer moving music.

THE PALMS
(United 208)

B "TEAR DROPS" (2:30) [Pamlee BMI—Marshall] The Palms offer a dramatic slow beat ballad. Tenderly and emotionally told. Good lead handles his chores well. Moving treatment and story.

B "EDNA" (2:45) [Pamlee BMI—Marshall] Another dramatic ballad blues told with touching softness. Pretty melody and engaging arrangement. Strong night club material.

THE CHARTS
(Everlast 5001)

B "ZOOP" (2:21) [Everlast BMI—Cooper, Johnson] The Charts team on a sprightly quick beat bouncer. Infectious joyous bouncer with a couple of gimmicks that give the tune something extra. Deck deserves a good look. Exposure could create some action.

B "DESERIE" (2:38) [Everlast BMI—Cooper, Johnson] Slow beat, rhythm ballad on which The Charts work well. Romancer with a falsetto lead giving the number an attention getting quality. Right in the vein of what the kids want. Two effective sides that should be watched.

THE ISLEY BROTHERS
(Teenage 1004)

B "THE COW JUMPED OVER THE MOON" (2:33) [Jeepster BMI—Isley, Gordon] The Isley Brothers jump with quick beat enthusiasm as they tell of the cow that jumped over the moon. Driving, hard hitting reading that the kids can exhaust themselves to.

B "ANGELS CRIED" (2:20) [Monument BMI—Canton, Kosloff, Petrillo] The Isley's make a complete about face and blend on a slow paced ballad pretty. Tender story told against a rhythmic background.

"IT MUST BE YOU" (2:49)
 [Chappell ASCAP—Benjamin, Marcus, Gibson]

"PLEASE, HONEY, DON'T GO" (2:34)
 [Men-Lo BMI—Watkins, Bell, Mendelsohn]

ANNIE LAURIE (DeLuxe 6135)

● Annie Laurie follows "It Hurts To Be In Love" with another strong chart possibility, "It Must Be You". It is a slow beat rhythm blues ballad handled by Miss Laurie in her usullay great style. The lass gives it all the feeling and warmth she can muster and the result is a top flight wax that should be her second straight hit. The flip, "Please, Honey, Don't Go" is an intriguing slow beat bouncer blues again done in excellent manner. Good mood effort. This girl really sings these two sides. Keep an alert eye on "It Must Be You".

"HYPNOTIZED" (2:35) [Nor-va-jak Music BMI—Terry Noland]

"TEN LITTLE WOMEN" (2:38) [Nor-va-jak Music BMI—Terry Noland]
 TERRY NOLAND (Brunswick 9-55010)

● Terry Noland dishes up a rock-a-billy treatment of a Noland written quick beat jumper, "Hypnotized". An infectious beaty bouncer that swings along in happy fashion. Noland handles the cute number with a foot-tappin' arrangement and the deck comes off with real commercial strength. This is one that looks like a biggie in coming weeks. Keep close tabs on it. The coupling, "Ten Little Women", is a similar hunk of cloth dished up with an enthusiastic vocal. Quick beat jumper with a novelty arrangement. Strong backer-upper—but we think "Hypnotized" is slightly up front.

"RUN RUN LITTLE JOE" (2:10) [Excellorec BMI—M. Williams]

"COMIN' HOME TO YOU" (2:53) [Excellorec BMI—M. Williams]

THE GLADIOLAS (Excello 2110)

● The Gladiolas, who offered the original and a big selling version of "Little Darlin'", now come up with an infectious quick beat calypso item, "Run Run Little Joe". The deck seems to have all the ingredients. Happy quick beat tune with a great reading by the talented group. The tune is a delightful joyous lilter with the calypso flavor—but not the overdone melodies that have been coming out on every label. This one stands on its own merit—calypso notwithstanding. It looks like a big hit for The Gladiolas. The flip, "Comin' Home To You", is a slow beat change of pace. A lovely ballad tenderly told. Moving, pleasing but not as strong as "Run Run Little Joe".

JIMMY McCRACKLIN

(Irma 107)

B "I'M THE ONE" (2:38) [B Flat BMI—McCracklin] Jimmy McCracklin wails a slow beat blues with that down home feeling. McCracklin tells in good style his story of a successful love affair.

C+ "SAVOY'S JUMP" (2:37) [B Flat BMI—McCracklin] McCracklin backs with a quick beat wax. Deck moves with a sprightly mood. Infectious jump that'll induce foot tappin'.

JIMMY WILSON

(Irma 108)

B "OH RED" (2:31) [B Flat BMI—J. Wilson] Jimmy Wilson turns in a good reading of a quick beat bouncer with a touch of "Shake Rattle & Roll". Sprightly effort that gets you. Happy wax that should get itself some attention.

C+ "BLUES IN THE ALLEY" (2:33) [B Flat BMI—J. Wilson] Wilson gets down to a slow beat deep south blues in which he wails his tormented tale. Should get a good reception in the down home market.

SUGAR PIE & PEE WEE

(Rhythm 1007)

B+ "LET'S GET TOGETHER" (2:33) [Argee BMI—Parham, Barksdale] Sugar Pie & Pee Wee team delightfully on a quick beat skipper. Happy treatment of a light, tuneful item. Theme of the lyric is a marriage proposal. Deck is an appealing one in sound, melody and treatment. Could grab off a nice piece of action.

B "IF YOU TAKE AWAY YOUR LOVE" (2:35) [Argee BMI—Parham, Barksdale] The youthful team tries its hand at a slow, rhythmic ballad. This duo has an appealing and refreshing sound, and it comes forth on both decks. Good wax—but we like the upper waxing for the action.

IKE TURNER

(Federal 12297)

B "DO YOU MEAN IT" (2:14) [Armo BMI—Ike Turner] Ike Turner wails a rhythmic middle beat jump with a gusto filled projection. Good Lindy hopper material.

B "SHE MADE MY BLOOD RUN COLD" (2:20) [Armo BMI—Ike Turner] Novelty slow beat rocker with an air of mystery. Dramatic performance that makes for good programming. Turner handles it well.

Celestial Records In Stereo

SEATTLE, WASH.—Nelson Alexander, vocalist hailing from Vancouver, B.C., and currently at The Patio in Denver, has just recorded 12 original songs for Celestial Tapes and Celestial Records. All done in stereo, the songs include calypso, folk, rhythm numbers and ballads to show the versatility of this new song stylist. Nine of the compositions were composed by tunesmith Art Benson, and are being cleared thru Grosvenor House Music, an ASCAP affiliate.

Other new recording artists on the Celestial roster include Marge Whaley, honky-tonk pianist, and Gay Jones, piano stylist, formerly arranger for Lionel Hampton, Ernie Fields and the Freddie Slack orchestra, in addition to E'lan, Celestial's original hi-fi girl.

Distribution for Celestial for the Pacific Northwest has just been taken over by the newly-formed distributor Paramount Audio Sales, Inc.

Victor Signs Milton Allen

NEW YORK — Milton Allen is RCA Victor's newest addition to the Country roster. He is 19, and has had formal voice training. Allen recorded for the first time in Nashville with Steve Sholes on May 24th, and Sholes is very excited about him. "Milton sings straight but with a fine beat", Steve says, "and his style is very individual. With his looks and talent he is bound to be popular with the younger set".

Mayer Upped At Capitol

HOLLYWOOD—The assignment of Pery Mayer to the Promotion Department of Capitol Records in Hollywood, to coordinate album program presentation material, disk jockey album excerpt records, and all other material required to announce each release to Capitol's sales force and record dealers, was announced last week by Dick Rising, National Sales Promotion Manager.

Mayer moves to the Promotion Department from Capitol's Editorial Department. Prior to his Capitol affiliation, Mayer served several years as an account executive with the McCarty Advertising Company and Western Advertising Company (advertising agencies) in Los Angeles. Mayer reports directly to Bill Muster, who is responsible for the coordination and execution of all direct single record and album promotion.

Song Plugging Cowgirl

NEW YORK—Paramount Pictures undertook to focus disk jockeys' attention on Frankie Laine's Columbia "45" recording of the Dmitri Tiomkin-Ned Washington ballad, "Gunfight at the O. K. Corral," by having cowgirl Barbara Adkins call on the gentlemen at their respective stations. Each jockey received a badge signifying his appointment as a deputy sheriff of O. K. Corral where, according to the songsmiths, the Earps and Clantons shot it out in them thar outlaw days. Toy guns and a pressing of the disk completed the presents the gal had for the fellers. Paramount's angle? It's the title song of upcoming rough Western saga starring Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas.

Jack Lacy of WINS didn't scare Barbara one bit with that toy gun.

A BULLSEYE B VERY GOOD C FAIR
B+ EXCELLENT C+ GOOD D MIEDIOCRE

NEWCOMB-RAYNER CANNONBALLERS
 (Co-Ed 049-094)

B "JEANIE" [Sorority-Fraternity BMI—Mayhams] Here's a mighty catchy tale in which many country wax stars are asked to help locate a lost gal dancer who loves c&w music. It's a fetching, up tempo ditty that the Newcomb-Rayner Cannonballers fashion in ear-pleasing style.

C+ "RUN AWAY HEART" [Sorority Fraternity BMI—Mayhams] Here the group, Eddie, Bill and Mac, appealingly grooves a tearful, quick beat love affair.

BAILIN' WIRE BOB
 (Fee Bee 208)

B "HILLBILLY LOVIN'" (2:18) [Fee Bee BMI—E. Morris] The label that introduced Del-Vikings with "Come Go With Me" debuts KIMO-Independence, Mo. deejay, Balin' Wire Bob on two tunes already kicking up some dust on the jocks' turntables. This half is an engaging, quick beat refresher that Bob decks out in spirited style.

B "ANYPLACE I HANG MY HAT" (2:20) [Fee Bee BMI—Strack, Linn, Dallas] Here the chanter spins a moderate paced, sentimental affair in warm, sincere fashion. Two good showings.

JIMMY DEAN
 (Mercury-Starday 71120)

B+ "LOSING GAME" (2:35) [Starrite BMI—J. O'Gwynn] Jimmy Dean, star of his own CBS-TV show, sends up a penetrating vocal performance on a poignant, moderate paced lover's weeper. Powerful wax. Could step out and climb way up the sales ladder.

B "HAPPY CHILD" (2:10) [Starrite BMI—R. Miller] Under lid is happy-go-lucky, up beat novelty that Dean wraps up in most attractive style. Strong coupling.

RUSTY WELLINGTON
 (Arcade 144)

B "I AIN'T A-MOVIN' ON NO MORE" (2:00) [Valley Brook ASCAP—A. R. Keefer] Rusty Wellington steps up to bat out a tantalizing, fast moving ditty that's gonna latch on to a heap of sales and spins.

C+ "CONVICT AND THE ROSE" (2:25) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP—Chapin, King] Wellington displays his persuasive vocal-yodel style on this quick paced, Latin-flavored, prisoner's lament.

LEON McAULIFFE
 (Cimarron 4282)

B "LITTLE GIRL GO AND ASK YOUR MAMA" [Hill & Range BMI—McAuliffe] Here's a two-sided instrumental treat that the deejays should find to their liking. The swinging music is supplied by "Take It Away Leon" McAuliffe and his Cimarron Boys.

B "CARROL COUNTY" [Cimarron Pub. BMI—Arr: McAuliffe] This half is the wonderful old-timer done up anew with a sparkling McAuliffe arrangement.

DICK HART
 (Cowtown Hoedown 778)

B "EVERYBODY'S SWEET-HEART, NOBODY'S FOOL" (2:49) [Cowtown Hoedown BMI—Hart] Dick Hart comes through in first class style as he intros on the label with an expressive portrayal of a slightly up tempo romantic affair.

B "TIME OUT FOR THE BLUES" (2:28) [Cowtown Hoedown BMI—Hart] Under biscuit is a toe-tappin' lover's lament that Hart projects convincingly. The Cowtown Hoedowners ably back up both sides.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"SWEET INNOCENCE" (2:30) [Amber ASCAP—D. Lampert, J. Gluck, Jr.]

"WHY ASK FOR THE MOON" (1:47)
 [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—L. Martin, W. Myers]

RED FOLEY (Decca 30334)

● The "Old Redhead," Red Foley, who certainly needs no introduction to ops, dealers or deejays sends across a great new coupling that could very well develop into a double-barreled smash. And the chanter's readily recognizable vocal stylings are pleasingly evident as he brightly knocks out the delightful, quick beat love cutie "Why Ask For The Moon" and "Sweet Innocence," a beautiful, slow paced romantic lament that he renders with the utmost sincerity. Superb choral assist by the Anita Kerr Singers on this twin-threat for the pop-country market.

"MINE ALL MINE" (2:15) [Starrite BMI—B. Barnes, M. Singleton]

"NICKEL'S WORTH OF DREAMS" (2:20)
 [Starrite BMI—B. Barnes, E. Aycock]

BENNY BARNES (Mercury-Starday 71119)

● Benny Barnes, who took "Poor Man's Riches" and turned it into a click, comes up with two more potent items, either of which can follow suit. On the top lid the nasal-voiced songster distinctively styles an up tempo, sentimental waltzer labeled "Nickel's Worth Of Dreams." On the under portion he engagingly romps over a most appealing, fast paced romantic entry tagged "Mine All Mine." Splendid instrumental backdrop on this two-sided winner.

"BOP BOP BABY" [Knox BMI—W. Moore, D. Penner]

"DON'T NEED YOUR LOVIN' BABY" [Knox BMI—W. Moore, P. Penner]

WADE & DICK (Sun 269)

● The rockin' Sun label continues to keep in step with the teen-age demands as it turns out another solid pair of chart contenders tailor-made for the dancin' set. The stars, this time, are two talented newcomers Wade & Dick, "The College Kids." On one side they belt out an exciting house-rocker labeled "Bop Bop Baby." On the flip they infectiously spin a rockin' Latin beat, blues item titled "Don't Need Your Lovin' Baby." Sensational background and beat on both ends. Take your pick.

"A FALLEN STAR" [Tree BMI—Joiner]

"PRIZE POSSESSION" [Geronimo BMI—Hill]

FERLIN HUSKY (Capitol 3742)

● Ferlin Husky follows up his gold waxing of "Gone" with a thrilling pairing that should easily find its way into the 'magic circle'. (See Pop reviews).

"SOMEBODY'S BEEN ROCKING MY BABY" [Smash BMI—C. Thompson]

ROD WILLIS (Chic 1010)

● Rod Willis, another great Chic talent, serves up one with the potential to develop into a smash pop and country disk. (See Pop reviews).

"WHOLE LOT OF SHAKIN' GOING ON" [Marlyn BMI—Williams, David]

JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun 267)

● Jerry Lee Lewis has a sensational all-market pile-driver. (See Pop reviews).

THE WINTERS BROTHERS

(Columbia 40913)

B+ "NO ONE BUT YOU" (2:10) [Cedarwood BMI—F. Robinson] A potent, quick paced love ditty with a South-of-the-border flavoring is excellently executed by the Winters Brothers, Don & Floyd. Stellar mountain harmony and instrumental work on a deck with hit potential.

B "WHAT DO YOU SEE IN HIM" (2:30) [Golden West BMI—D. Winters, E. Hill, J. Winters] Another grade "A" reading, this time on a tear-compelling, moderate beat opus.

DAVE RICH

(RCA Victor 6926)

B+ "RED SWEATER" (2:12) [Gaylord BMI—D. Rich] Dave Rich's polished tones are heard to full advantage as he races over this pop-styled fast paced, teenage weeper with a "White Sport Coat" flavoring. Socko choral and ork assist.

B "THE KEY TO MY HEART" (2:14) [Tree BMI—G. Vandell, P. Strecker] This end Rich and chorus prettily lilt over a heartfelt romantic opus. Both sides are aimed at the pop-country market.

THE FARMER BOYS

(Capitol 3732)

B+ "FLASH, CRASH AND THUNDER" (2:06) [Central Songs BMI—A. Owens, R. Weber] A clever, fast paced, crying-towel opus is treated to a fabulous 'pure country' vocal effort by the Farmer Boys. It's by far their best side to date. Could be a smash.

B+ "SOMEONE TO LOVE" (2:36) [Beechwood Music BMI—A. Owens, J. Simpson] Lower slicing, a touching middle beat weeper, features some more expert 'down home' vocal and instrumental sounds. Tremendous double-decker for the ops, dealers and deejays.

WILEY BARKDULL

(Hickory 1065)

B+ "TOO MANY" (2:14) [Acuff Rose Pub. BMI—F. & B. Bryant] A rockin' musical backdrop showcases Wiley Barkdull's captivating rendition of a hard-hitting blues item that can hit hard on the popularity lists. Watch it.

B "NO ONE WILL EVER KNOW" (2:30) [Milene Music ASCAP—Rose, Foree] This end spotlights Barkdull's intriguing vocal mannerisms on a middle beat, romantic tear-jerker. Two strong contenders for the charts.

BILL HALL

(Mar-Vel 1001)

B "LET ME LOVE YOU" (1:56) [Hits of Tomorrow BMI—D. Sims, B. Hall, J. Mattingly] A light and appeling romantic ditty that gallops along at top speed is delivered with gusto by the smooth-voiced Bill Hall. Sparkling musical support for the chanter's initial performance.

C+ "WHAT HAPPENED TO YOUR HEART" (2:22) [Hits of Tomorrow BMI—D. Sims, B. Hall, D. Coleman] Hall sings right from the heart on this easy-goin' tearful love affair. An easy-on-the-ears offering that merits the airplay.

KING STERLING

(Starday 298)

B "WHAT WILL YOUR ANSWER BE" (2:15) [Starrite BMI—Sterling, Jenkins] King Sterling pours his heart out on this dramatic, middle beat lover's opus. A highly effective reading that could stir up a heap of attention.

B "NOT MUCH" (2:15) [Starrite BMI—D. Marais] Sterling's mel-low tones come across with telling effect on this moderate paced romantic heartbreaker. Top notch offerings.

Here and There

NEW YORK—Charles M. Sievert, financial editor and columnist of the New York World Telegram and Sun, in a column last week, wrote about the wide assortment of appraisals and predictions for the nation's economy which continually flows across his desk. He's puzzled by the number of pessimistic viewpoints injected. "What puzzles us," he writes, "is that with basically the same set of facts, and reliable sources of information, the outlook can be painted with either somber or bright hues. The answer seems to lie in who does the painting." Sievert refers to a professor of economics of a Midwestern university who seems to have gotten into a rut. "He begins every year with a forecast that we're headed for a depression," reports Sievert. "... it seems there are some in this era who feel some kind of fame can be obtained if the wheel stops on their blue note . . . Anyway, the odds are awfully heavy against the pessimist winning this year." To strengthen this claim, Sievert quotes Prentice-Hall's latest bulletin which begins with "underlying strength of the boom continues to confound the pessimists" and then continues with "there are no signs of actual or impending decline in the final take of the customers of industry and trade—particularly when services as well as goods are considered."

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.—In his annual report to stockholders, R. C. Roling, president, The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, this city, made a very interesting and pertinent statement. Looking ahead at prospects for 1957-1958, Roling said: "As we consider the year ahead it seems to be the general opinion of the Government and most informed business men and economists that, barring some unfavorable international situation, business generally should be good. Favorable factors are: constantly rising personal incomes and the desire of people everywhere to have products such as we make. The unfavorable factors are: rising labor and material costs and our inability, in many cases, to pass these costs on to our customers because of the highly competitive situation in the music industry. Since we are an organization for profit it is imperative for the future welfare of Wurlitzer that we make a reasonable profit on our sales. This we hope to accomplish by an aggressive and forward-looking program."

GET UP! GET OUT! GET DOING!

Get up!

Get out of that nice, big, soft, easy, pillowy office chair.

Get back into real, honest-to-goodness, aggressive, promotional, showmanship action once again.

Get out of that beautiful, modern office.

Get away from that cool, relaxing air-conditioner and that tempting bar.

Get out and meet your customers face to face once again.

Get doing.

It's a lot later than you think.

The time has arrived when no operator, regardless of how well he thinks he has his established and recognized business in hand and, further, regardless of how well he thinks he has his employees trained, and regardless of how loyal his employees are to him, can afford to spend his time in a luxurious, air-conditioned office, seated 'way deep down in a soft, pillowy, comfortable office chair and believe, by so doing, that he is overcoming the kind of fierce competition he is faced with today.

The fact remains that, unless the operator who built up the business he now prides himself on being his, gets up, gets out and gets doing, he's going to find that inflation, plus the fiercest competition in all the history of American business, can make him one of the abnormal and continually growing number of bankruptcies being reported every week.

There isn't an operator, today, who can afford to do anything else but—get up—get out—get doing!

The employees who comprise the operator's organization, if he's a big operator, will tell him this is the truth.

If he's a small operator, he absolutely needs every single ounce of energy, intelligence and business acumen he can summon unto his aid, just to remain in business on a somewhat profitable basis.

These are the facts:

1) Machines featuring nickel play are actually bringing their owners but 2½¢ per play.

2) Machines featuring dime play are actually bringing their owners but 5¢ per play.

This is due to constant, creeping inflation. Inflation that has already downed the value of the American dollar this year of 1957 to but 50.8¢. Just half of what the dollar was worth in 1939.

And what's happened these past 18 years? Overhead expenses have zoomed up over 450%. Cost of new equipment is up over 350%. All this since 1939 when the U. S. dollar was worth a full, honest-to-goodness 100 American cents.

What does this mean to the average operator? The operator who is paying 350% more for an amusement machine, and charging only a nickel per play, is actually obtaining but 2½¢ per play, compared to what he used to get 18 years ago, in 1939 and, at the same time, is paying 450% more for overhead expense.

The operator who buys a brand new juke box and is still charging only a nickel per play, well, in his case only the Good Lord can help him to remain in business. Unless, of course, there's no TV, radio, or any other sort of amusement or music in his area. Or unless he has so much money he can afford to lose great, big chunks of it daily.

Operators agree that The Cash Box' "10¢ Play Plus" plan is the answer. They admit that The Cash Box is a million percent right when it urges them to obtain an equitable return from the gross intake of all their equipment.

They also agree that the average location owner is an understanding human being. He isn't an ogre. Or a man from Mars. He is enough of a businessman and enough of an understanding human being to accept facts. Especially when these facts are clearly, calmly and correctly presented to him.

The operator, today, must arrange for a separation of expenses from gross intake between himself and his locations. Then, and only then, can he divide what is actually profit. The operator will then be in a position to, once again, enjoy a decent return on his investment in new equipment as well as in his business generally.

The average operator is an intelligent and astute businessman. He is a supersalesman of a very definite sort. Or else how could he ever have climbed to his present exalted position in the toughest of all industries—the entertainment field?

The operator will admit that he, and only he, the owner of his business, the man who made his business what it is today, the man who worked so hard each daylight hour and practically every night to instill loyalty and respect and understanding in his employees and to, at the same time, stimulate his employees with the need to protect their livelihood so as to be able to continue their lucrative positions and their futures with his firm. He is still the one, and only the one man who can assure himself, as well as his employees, continued future success.

There is only one way in which he can do this.

Get out and, once again, meet his location owners face to face.

Get better acquainted with them. Especially the new locations whom he hasn't yet met and whom he doesn't even yet know.

Sell them all over again on himself and his organization. The way he used to sell when he started. When he was fighting to just break even. When he wanted that little, extra slice of bacon with his eggs.

He must immediately get doing these things because, unless he does so, he is going to find himself among the losers. The losers who are facing the roughest, toughest, fiercest competition that this industry, and all American industry for that matter, has yet had to face.

He, the operator . . . the one man who built his business . . . the one man who caused his business to become so well recognized and so well accepted by all the public . . . the one man who gained so fine a standing in his community—this one man, the operator, must get doing again!

"Already", Miller concluded, "and for the first time in our history, twelve booths have been sold for next year's (1958) convention which will again be held here in Chicago."

Services Locations Via Airplane

GREENFIELD, MASS.—Servicing by plane is the unusual type operation of Mohawk Music Service, this city, and is in keeping with trend to speed up in business methods, which may soon be commonplace among music ops throughout the country. As it stands now, Arthur K. Strahan is the only op in New England who services his customers by airplane. However, some of the other coinmen in Mass., taking a tip from Arthur, are looking into the feasibility and some are already taking lessons in flying, among them Dick Mandell, gen. mgr., Associated Amusements, Boston.

Strahan covers his 80-mile territory with a Luscomb airplane, and if a customer some 25 miles away calls, Arthur may walk into his location 20 minutes later.

Besides the airplane, this high speed op, uses two Thunderbirds and a Volkswagon for his ground operations.

Operating a six man outfit in an area with widely separated towns, Strahan gets around by air and land transportation in unique fashion. The Thunderbird is used to carry tools, disks and spare parts. The plane is used to pick up phonos and parts from distrib in Boston a 35 minute trip by air, but a two and one-half hour drive by auto.

Using his systems of transportation alternatively, he can hop in and out of locations at such a rapid rate that he's cut service calls in-coming down to less than one per month per location. By making the location calls in rapidity, he prevents locations from cluttering up service calls in a sort of preventive service technique.

Use of sports cars has cut gasoline costs and some $1,300 has been saved in using the speedy little wagons in the course of a year, he estimates. Besides the time saving factors, the advertising and sales promotion of the airplane gimmick accounts for much

24 Hour Hot Water Test For J. H. Keeney Venders

PAUL HUEBSCH

CHICAGO—"We know of only one sure way to make certain that our hot coffee and combination coffee-hot chocolate venders will operate perfectly on location," reported Paul Huebsch, general sales manager of J. H. Keeney & Company.

fectly on location," reported Paul Huebsch, general sales manager of J. H. Keeney & Company. "That is to put the machine thru the very same operation as if it were on location. "One of the final testing procedures we use at the end of the production line is time-consuming," Huebsch explained "It takes an extra twenty four hours. "What's more, we don't merely spot-check the Keeney hot drink machines. Every single vender coming off the line is checked thoroly from an electro-mechanical standpoint. "Results prove this one test to be well worth the extra twenty four hours." Huebsch continued to describe the test as starting with pumping pre-heated water into the tanks of the hot coffee and the coffee-hot chocolate venders. Temperature of the water is noted every hour for 24 hours to make sure the heating elements keep temperatures constant, as set on the thermostat. If there is any variation in temperature during the 24 hours, the machine is rejected. A new tank or new thermostat, or both, are installed. Coincident with the hot water test, inspectors check inlet and outlet solenoids, which let water in and out of the tank. Huebsch pointed out that the 24-hour hot water test is one of a series to which each vender is subjected before being packed for shipment. "We want every Keeney vending machine to operate consistently and constantly on location," he concluded.

new business and keeping old customers satisfied. He takes prospective location spot operators up for a plane ride to discuss business, and who can say "no" up in the clouds? Then, there is the unique method of collections, based on the telephone company's collection system. Money is picked up once every 30 days, with the customer receiving a monthly statement. Majority of location owners get their commissions once a year, with a few on a six months' basis. This saves money on bookkeeping, too. Mohawk operates music, pins, arcade equipment and around 40 cigarette vending machines. All locations are on 10¢ play, even in areas where nickel play is still in evidence.

I'm sure that all of us gals were just as thrilled as I was over the creation of the MOA Ladies Auxiliary and the fact that, next year, we'll have our very own Hospitality Suite and an even bigger and better Fashion Show Luncheon. . . . My sincerest thanks to Marie (Mrs. Clinton S.) Pierce my Co-Chairwoman of this year's MOA Fashion Show Luncheon. And thanks to Mrs. Wm. Hullinger, Mrs. Norman Gefke, Mrs. Howard Ellis, Mrs. Martin Britz, Mrs. Howard Freer, Mrs. Gordon Stout and Mrs. Les Montooth, who also served on the committee to help make this first MOA Fashion Show Luncheon so outstanding.

Immediately after the MOA convention I attended the big annual banquet of the Chicago Automatic Phonograph Bowling League this past Saturday night. A marvelous time was had by all. . . . Congratulations to Carol Priebe and Rene Gallet. They've just tied the knot. Carol works for Chicago Coin. Rene, of course, is with Paschke Phono Service. . . . Mrs. Ray Gallet told me she celebrated her birthday last week. Ray bought her a new car. "He had to", she said, "my old car just wouldn't run anymore". . . . Mrs. Ursula Galgano looked absolutely ravishing at the bowling banquet and proved to her hubby, Tony, how much he needed her by her great bowling skill. . . . Maggie Kraft of Decca is so tired. She planted flowers in her garden Saturday morning. "And that's hard work", quoted Maggie. (Aside: Thanks for the record, Maggie)

Saw Eve (Mrs. Nate) Feinstein. She was all excited about the new baby just born to Gail and Gene Waldman, children of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ginsburg. By the way, just have to mention how glamorous Eve looked. I'm sure her trip to California had something to do with it. This gal is just a living doll. . . . Isabel Oomens had a laughing good time this past Saturday nite. . . . Sorry to hear about that terrible accident Kathy Pieri had last March. Altho surgery was necessary it just didn't affect her beautiful looks at all.

Was so very happy to see Edith Davis at the bowling league banquet. Edith is not feeling too well these days. But a little patience and time will cure all her woes. A wonderful person like Edith has absolutely no right to be on the sick list. Not even for a day. Edith is a very sincere and charming person. I consider her one of the nicest people. She looked lovely Saturday night. . . .

Thanks to Mrs. Mildred Lynch Lillard for her very, very beautiful letter. I only hope I can live up to all the nice things she said. . . . That Nicky O'Donnell just seems to get more attractive each day. And what a lady of fashion she has become. . . . Was so happy to see Edna (Mrs. Ray T.) Moloney at the big MOA banquet. She looked her very beautiful, charming self. Soooo attractive. . . . Sylvia (Mrs. Joe) Brilliant of Detroit all upset because Joe didn't bring her in for the MOA Ladies Fashion Luncheon where she would have been happy to serve on the committee. . . . Met Mrs. David C. Rockola and learned she is a golfer par excellence. At least that's what Mr. Rockola told me. We'll just have to get together for 18 holes of golf. . . . Welcome to Chicago to Sadie (Mrs. Jack) Mitnick who has moved her home to our mid-western Windy City. I'm sure she'll like it here.

Bowling Teams Enjoy Big Night of Entertainment Closing '57 Season. 32 Entries To Compete Next Year — Double Present Teams. Look Forward to Tremendous '58 Season of Play and Double Attendance at Banquet

Edith Davis and Bob Gnarro Get Surprise Gifts for League Achievements. The Cash Box to give '58 City Bowling Champ Award

Bob Gnarro, who was elected president for the 5th time, makes opening welcome address.

Bill Gersh, publisher of THE CASH BOX, who acted as mc, presents Bob Gnarro award in honor of his being elected president for 5th straight year.

League Banquet Best Of All Time

CHICAGO—The finest party ever held by the 16 teams that comprise the Chicago Automatic Phonograph Bowling League took place this past week, Saturday evening, at Allgauer's famous restaurant in this city.

"This was without any doubt," stated Robert E. (Bob) Gnarro, president of the league, "the grandest and most entertaining banquet we have held in all our existence."

Next year's banquet will probably be double the size, due to the fact that there will be double the number of teams in action. A southside team, which will be known as the "American Team," and a northside team, which will be called the "National Team."

As Bill Gersh, publisher of The Cash Box, who emceed the banquet for the 5th straight year, ever since the league's inception, stated:

"Tho the banquet is sure to be bigger next year it is doubtful whether it will ever be homier and happier than it is today and has been for the four past years."

The Cash Box has agreed to donate the award for the Championship Team for the forthcoming 1957-1958 season.

Bill Gersh then plunged right into the activities and called up, first of all, the team captains who were awarded their prize money for the season:

Eddie Walker, Coral Records; Julius Mohill, Star Music; Paul Brown, Western Automatic Music; Morrie Minkus, Atlas Music; Joe Moss, Mercury Records; Les Taylor, ABC Music No. 2 team; Ray Gallet, Paschke Phono Service; Al Rice, ABC No. 1 team; Robert Holl, Gillette Distributing; Charles Pieri, Coven Music; Tony Ignoffo, Decca Records; Red Lossaso, Singer; Ralph Kick, M. S. Distributing; Marino Pieroni, B & B Novelty; Peter Oomens, Walter Oomens Sons and Tony Galgano, Galgano Distributors.

Following this, awards were made. High Series Scratch to Myrtle Sochacki of Star Music with a score of 527. She also had the high game for the year—205. And was also awarded the WIBC (Women's International Bowling Congress) pin to wear from now on. For the men the winner was Harry Julian of Singer One-Stop with 627.

There was a tie for High Game Scratch between Carol Gallet of Paschke and Ursa Galgano of Galgano Distribs with 201. Dick Laga won for the men with 241.

Jane Minter of Gillette Distributing won the ladies' award for High Series Handicap with 627. Bob Gnarro of

As in all past banquets, the festivities were divided into two parts—the awarding of prizes and trophies to individuals and teams; and the enjoyment of a sumptuous meal. Photographs on the preceding page picture both phases. Photos from 1 thru 27 cover the presentation of prizes, with Bill Gersh seen on most of them handing out the awards; photos from 28 thru 41 show members of the teams with their guests at the dinner tables.

ABC Team No. 1 won for the men with a total of 710.

Loretta Oomens, even tho this was her first time in the league, came up with an award for High Game Handicap with 237. Morrie Pomerantz of ABC team No. 1 won for the men with 272.

For First High Individual Average, Flo Shapman of Decca Records won with 142. For the men, Harry Julian of Singer, with a score of 170.

Second High Individual Average was awarded to Myrtle Sochacki of Star Music whose score was 141 and for the men, Ray Gallet of Paschke Phono Service, whose score was 167.

For the best increased averages during the year—Josephine Swider of ABC team No. 2 with a gain of 4 points and for Joe Moss of Mercury with 8 points.

The "last place champs" this year were George Holl, who has held this dubious honor for the past four years. Mary Ann Walker was the ladies winner.

Something new was added this year with a "Triplicate Award" going to Julie Gallet for bowling three games with identical scores of 117. She was given a chevron from WIBC for this honor and also a year's subscription to the Women's Bowling magazine by her teammates as a gift.

The last place championship team came up for their awards this year. Captain Eddie Walker and his mates: Mary Ann Walker, Dick Laga, Jack Reiling and Rudy Zelina.

Second Place Team awards went to Walter Oomens Sons. Peter Oomens, captain. Loretta, Isabel and Johnny Oomens and Cass Kalas making up this team.

The "Championship Team" was that of Galgano Distributors, captained by Tony Galgano and featuring Ursa Galgano, Charley Alesi, Ed Teske and Wally Maslo.

AMI Production Departments On Two Full Shifts, says Haddock

Through The Coin Chute

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.—John Haddock, president AMI, Inc., this city, reports that the AMI plant here is a busy place these days with production departments on two full shifts. "In this way", explains Haddock, "we hope to meet the unprecedented demand for the three new model 'H' machines."

"New production and inspection efficiencies insure a steady flow of completed units that meet every rigid standard of performance for trouble-free service in the field."

The plant photos herewith show manufacturing and inspection procedures: (Top) Assembly, testing and inspection of "H" mechanisms are performed on a conveyor line that circles one floor of the plant, past ten adjustment and inspection booths, providing a smooth, orderly flow of equipment to and from each work station. Further along the line, the decorative and functional trim is installed before the mechanisms are automatically lowered to the floor below where they join other sub-assemblies that make up the music machine; 2) Here a pulse converter is given a line run-in duplicating its actual operation in the field. Control panel lights keep the inspector constantly informed of progress and signal any adjustments which may be necessary: 3) Here on the final run-in line every precision part must fit perfectly and operate faultlessly to insure trouble-free performance in the field. This group of machines is undergoing final crediting and sound checks.

Lucille and Paul Laymon, Paul A. Laymon, Inc., report they are shipping out Bally's fourteen foot ABC "Bowling Lanes" as fast as they are received. Ed Wilkes says sales of the Rock-Ola "200" remain at a steady level. Jimmy Wilkens busy on the floor taking orders for Bally's "Show-Time" in-line game which is proving very popular with the operators. . . . Dick Hall, Oxnard operator, taking time off to enjoy some fishing in the high Sierras. . . . Norty told the girls he believed the big side of their new Coral release would be "Beginning To Miss You". Jan Graham says a record that should take off is Jodi Sands "With All My Heart" on Chancellor. Harold Goldfine reports Little Richard has another big one with "Jenny, Jenny" on Specialty. The operators are keeping Ana Martinez busy supplying them with "Old Cape Cod" by Patti Page on Mercury. . . . Before returning to St. Paul after a two week stay, Herman Pastor congratulating his partner, Bill Happel, on the efficiency of the staff at Badger Sales Company, Inc. Don Ames phoning in orders for the AMI "H-200" phonograph from the San Diego area. Frank had to take equipment out of the show windows to fill orders. Pete Ley returned from the Bakersfield-San Joaquin area to join Ed Wisler in sales in the showroom. Ed reports a great increase in sales of the "Ranger" six-pocket pool table. Jim Crosby greatly relieved to receive word that his home in Kansas City was by-passed by the tornado. . . . Bob Shuck of Bob's Music, Redondo Beach, driving to Kentucky from the MOA Convention in Chicago where he will visit relatives before returning to the Coast. . . . Tex Williams dropped in Leuenhagen's Record Bar to play his new Decca release of "Talking To The Blues" for the Solle Sisters, Mary, Kaye and Claire. The girls have completed all arrangements to attend the graduation exercises of their niece, Barbara Chandler in Marysville on June 14th. Barbara will again help out at the Bar through the summer months. Mary has had to special order The Mulcays' record of "My Happiness" and "Near You" on Cardinal because of the many requests from the operators. Kay believes "Goodnight Waltz" by Jack Pleis on Decca will take off. . . . Hank Tronick returned to his desk at C. A. Robinson & Company after a stay in San Diego and reported to Charley Robinson on how United's "Team" Bowling Alleys had taken off in that area. Charley is looking forward to the arrival of United's "UPA-100" phonograph and is hoping his new showrooms will be ready for the big showing. Al Bettelman reports two arcades are contemplating banks of four and ten United "Team" Bowling Alleys to handle the increasing play. Ray Powers says the music business is increasing more and more with used equipment arriving in the rear door and being delivered out the front.

Marvel Mfg. Provides Positive Single Ticket Dispensing For "Lucky Horoscope"

CHICAGO — Ted Rubenstein of Marvel Manufacturing Company, this city, advises that the firm's new double-thick tickets for the "Lucky Horoscope" vender provides positive dispensing of one ticket at a time.

"The heavier cardboard stock we now use for our numbered tickets", Rubenstein stated, "is double the thickness of the original.

"This assures operators of accurate, one-ticket-per-play vending for all models of 'Lucky Horoscope', and eliminates loss of revenue."

Rubenstein also reported that he is very pleased with "the outstanding repeat business we are enjoying for both horoscope venders and tickets.

"It proves beyond all doubt," he said, "that the operators are getting wonderful earnings from our horoscope machines.

"As a matter of fact", Rubenstein added, "they tell us that 'Lucky Horoscope' takes in more the first week than they pay for it. And that the second and third weeks keep going better and better."

Honeymoon Or First Prize?

CHICAGO — What's more important?

Go on a honeymoon, or— Remain in town and cinch first prize in the Chicago Phonograph Bowling League.

Such was the decision that faced Carol Priebs, pretty secretary at Chicago Coin Machine Company, when she married René Gallet.

At the time, Carol was well in the lead for first prize in "High Games Scratch".

Although torn between two loyalties, Carol chose the honeymoon.

As it turned out, Carol got the prize, too.

She tied for first place with Ursula Galgano, with a score of 201.

Genco Intros New 2-Player Roll Down Game, "Sweet Twenty One"

AVRON GENSBURG

CHICAGO—Avron Gensburg, vice-president of Genco Manufacturing & Sales Company, announced this past week that the firm is shipping a new two-player roll down game, "Sweet Twenty One", to its distributors.

"In this game", Gensburg stated, "the popularity of the card game '21' is combined with skillful handling of each ball as the player attempts to guide it into the hole that will give him the score he wants.

"In addition, we have added exciting bonus features to provide more competitive play-appeal than any other such game we have ever produced in the past."

Action on "Sweet Twenty One" starts with the "Frame Score". There are four frames. Game can be played by a single player, or two can shoot alternately as indicated on the backglass.

Players roll 2 1/2" wood balls by hand over slightly slanted formica playfield, aiming for one of the desired holes numbered 1 to 11.

By landing the balls into the numbered holes on the playfield, player attempts to tie the "Frame Score" with any lit pennant from numbers 16 to 21, adding bonus score values of 10 to 60 points.

Player gets highest total score registered automatically on the backglass as he ties the highest lit pennant score.

On the last or fourth frame, player shoots until he earns "Double Bonus" score for 21. If he goes over "21", player gets no bonus.

"Sweet Twenty One" is quickly adjustable for replay or straight novelty. It is equipped with slug rejector coin mechanism for dime play.

Avron Gensburg concluded by stating, "To become quickly convinced of the tremendous profit possibilities of this great new game of skill, we suggest to all operators that they call at their Genco distributor and play 'Sweet Twenty One'."

Great Op Reaction To Two Munves Amusement Games

Acquatic's 'Squoits' and Dale's 'Burp Gun' Highlight of Munves Display at MOA Show

NEW YORK—Joe Munves, Mike Munves Corporation, this city, back from exhibiting at the MOA Convention, reported that the two amusement machines, for which the firm is national distributors, were received enthusiastically by the visiting coinmen in Chicago.

"Both games, Acquatic's 'Squoits' and Dale's 'Burp Gun' ('Cops & Robbers')" stated Joe, "were accepted by arcade owners, and what particularly pleased us, by coinmen with regular routes covering the tavern and general location. Altho we wrote numerous orders while in Chicago, since we've returned to New York, the phone has been ringing continuously with requests for immediate shipments of both machines. Illinois' Phono Ops Plan Statewide Organization

Heads of Four Top Associations to Meet in Chicago to Discuss Plans For Forming Organization to Benefit All Ill. Music Ops

CHICAGO — Phil Levin, president of Recorded Music Service Association, this city, has agreed to meet with Lou Casola of the Illinois Amusement Association, Les Montooth of the Central Illinois Amusement Association and Bob Lindelof of the Northern Illinois Music Operators Association in his offices here in Chicago.

The association heads met with Phil Levin during the MOA convention. Levin agreed to meet with these men to discuss plans for the formulation of a statewide organization to benefit all the music operators in Illinois.

Any other organization heads who may wish to attend this meeting which, it is expected, will take place in the very near future at the Chicago offices of the Recorded Music Service Association, should contact any of the above mentioned men.

It is understood that the state organization will not, naturally, affect the efforts of the local organizations thruout the state.

Rather its purpose will be to help all the music operators thruout the state of Illinois on all state matters.

Such an organization has long been wanting, the men stated, and all are of the opinion that it can be formed and can also become very successful in helping all Illinois' music operators.

"This is something we needed for a long time", stated Louis E. Casola of Rockford, Ill., president of the Illinois Amusement Association, "and its formulation is an absolute necessity today.

"We most sincerely hope", he added, "that every music operator everywhere in the state of Illinois will join in to help us plan and form this statewide organization."

EASTERN FLASHES

Not many coinmen making personal visits to coinrow this week, but every wholesaler reported no let-up in orders. Plenty of phone business, and mail orders keep on coming in. At some wholesalers, execs and sales personnel kept glued to the phone, with customers demanding immediate action so equipment would be on location for the big holiday week-end. If it comes up sunny and warm, there'll be plenty of smiling faces.

What might look like bad news sometimes turns completely into the best possible break. Take the case of Harry and Hymie Koepfel of Koepfel Distributing Co. Because a syndicate bought up the property on 10th Ave., from 44th to 45th St., and plan to turn it into a parking lot, the Koepfels had to move out of a very desirable location on the row. They moved all their machines and equipment across the street into their other store, but the space was small and dismal. This week they were able to lease and move into a large, recently renovated, clean and modernized quarters on the corner of 44th St. and 10th Ave. And it's on the West side of the street, just what the doctor ordered. Now the Koepfels expect more biz than ever. . . . Joe Munves, who ran the MOA exhibit booth for Mike Munves in Chicago, back in the office, real excited over the reception given to Aquatic's "Squirts" and Dale's "Burp Gun" ("Cops & Robbers"), two new amusement machines. Munves is national distributor for both these items, and Joe advises distributors have been appointed thruout the nation. . . . Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic New York Corp., tells us he's relaxing this week, recuperating from the excitement of his UJA testimonial dinner. "I just didn't realize how much work I put in, and how tired I was until I relaxed" said Meyer. "After the holiday week-end I'll check with the boys to see how business is, altho I haven't anything but good news 'til now." . . . "Senator" Al Bodkin, makes the rounds on coinrow, with the usual big smile, particularly when he tells of the fun and excitement which percolated at the MOA show.

The New York State Department of Labor reported that the State Employment Service filled 50,734 jobs in New York City during April, the highest for the month since the height of the Korean War. Demand for workers was at an extremely high level, with employers here placing requests for 73,000 jobs during the month. . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman and Irv (Kempy) Kempner, Runyon Sales, paid a visit to ops in the upper area of their New York territory. "Came back with plenty of orders for both AMI's model 'H' phones, and games of Bally," smilingly reported Shugy. . . . Al Simon and Al D'Inzillo, Albert Simon, Inc., eagerly awaiting delivery of Genco's new roll-down game "Sweet Twenty One." "Stick around a few minutes" requested Simon, "it should be arriving any minute." . . . Joe Young, Abe Lipsky and Allie Goldberg, Young Distributing, all out when we dropped in. "Visiting music ops," we were informed. However, shipping dept. seemed plenty busy, preparing Wurlitzer phonos for delivery to ops. . . . We created quite a stir on the row this week when we showed the trade several old-time photos. The one which created the greatest interest was taken at an opening party of Mike Munves. Concensus was that the picture was taken around 1938, 39 or 40, and the location was on 10th Ave. and 43rd Street. In the picture were such well known men as: Mike Munves, Joe Munves and his wife; Carl Pavesi, Sol Silverstein, Hymie Budin (deceased); Sue Gasparro; Harry Koepfel; Willie Gaines (still with Munves); Jack Semel; Jack Firestone; Rosy Rosenberg (deceased); Harry Hoppe, the English coinman (deceased); Charlie Katz; Jack Fitzgibbons (deceased); Meyer Parkoff; and naturally, Bill Gersh and Joe Orleck. . . . Many here getting ready to attend the 6th Annual Dinner of the Westchester Operators Guild, being held at the Holiday Inn, Scarsdale, N. Y., on Tuesday night, June 4. The Westchester party is always a happy event, with everyone having a wonderful time.

UPPER MID-WEST MUSINGS

Twin City distributors complaining of business dropping off the past week. Very little action around Minneapolis. With fishing season opening last Saturday operators are still out after the big ones. . . . John Seglem, of Duluth, Minn., drove in to Minneapolis for the week end to visit relatives and made the rounds, picking up some parts and records for the route. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ike Sundem of Montevideo, Minn., in town for the day—Mrs. Sundem to see her doctor for a check up. . . . Forrest Dahl, of Fergus Falls, Minn., in town for the day buying equipment for his resort spots. . . . Pete Vanderhyde of Dodge Center, Minn., also in town for the day visiting the distributors looking for something new in equipment. . . . Glen Bichel and the Mrs. in town for the day, Glen making the rounds while Mrs. Bichel busy making the rounds of the department stores. (Chippewa Falls, Wisc.) . . . Harry Nold of Cambridge, Minn., in Mpls. for the day picking up his record supply for his route. . . . Bruce Windhurst, of Aberdeen, S. C., in Mpls. for the day making the rounds. Mainly to try and trade in his Cadillac for a new one. . . . Greg Wagner and Syl Wiederholt of the W. & W. Novelty Co. Miesville, Minn., in town on a hurry up trip to pick up some parts and records for their route. . . . Elmer Gredin of Winona, Minn., in town for the day making the rounds. . . . Eugen Hearth, of Harried, S. D. seen at the MOA show in Chicago having himself a good time. . . . Joe Weber of Blue Earth, Minn., in town visiting the distributors. With him was his son Darrell, who is attending the College of St. Thomas in St. Paul. Darrell is taking his pre-med, and finals next week and then home for the summer and working on the route during his vacation. . . . Operators in the resort areas in Minnesota are getting caught up, getting their equipment all set up in the resorts, before the resorts open up for the Summer. Operators in the resort areas in Wisconsin are expecting the biggest tourist business this year.

CHICAGO CHATTER

This was one Memorial holiday everyone looked forward to this year. With the MOA convention out of the way, many here felt they needed some relaxation. In fact, some were just dog-tired from entertaining the many who came to town and, as others said, "With long distance phones buzzing away and with a convention under way and one million other things to do, looks like this summer season will be the industry's greatest. A rest right now, before the summer business boom, is sure most welcome". . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ratajack and their son, Mark, thrilled to see their pictures in The Cash Box and asking for a copy. . . . Also Arthur Aloysius Garvey phones first thing this past Monday and advises, "Save that picture of me and my two grandchildren for me, please. In fact", he adds, "tell Joe Orleck I'll be in New York on Monday morning and will call around at The Cash Box offices to pick it up". . . . Zeke Wolf putting more of his time and attention to the export field. Zeke has been getting letters from all over the world for his Auto-Bell products and feels he was neglecting a big chunk of business.

Bill O'Donnell cracked, "It isn't more business. It's how are we going to fill the orders we have on hand already. And," he adds, "with more orders coming in, well, that's the problem." As someone told Bill, "Wish we had the same complaint". . . . Jack Mitnick in New York helping the movers pack his tea pot and pans and make sure that these will arrive at his new apartment in Chicago in perfect condition. "Yes", said Jack, "Sadie and I are going to become Chicagoans. We both love this town." (So welcome Jack and Sadie Mitnick to our Windy City. We know you'll love it). . . . Many a guy at the MOA show got a thrill shaking hands with Fred Mills, Jr. Looking at Fred they recalled back to the days when they used to shake hands with his late Dad. And everyone remarking afterwards about the fact that, "There's a Fred Mills in the industry again". . . . Mel Binks and Joe Beck strolling down Randolph Street arm in arm, busily and completely engaged in conversation. Mel clicked with his newest and looks like a big season ahead for him.

Pat Buckley, Jerry Haley and Fred Morris devoting themselves completely to the export market these days. . . . Talk about busy, busy men—Sam Wolberg just thrilled at the results Chicago Coin enjoyed from this MOA convention. This was one time, he remarked, when entire groups of ops were able to see their latest products attractively grouped together. And Ed Levin along with Mort Secore and Phil Robinson nod their heads in agreement. ChiCoin booth was most attractive. . . . Sam Lewis driving along the outer drive completely lost in thought. At last, awakened by persisting honking of the car alongside of his, Sam looks up, smiles, and says, "Brother, I'm so busy trying to figure how to ship 20 to 50 that I didn't even know I was driving." This can happen when a firm clicks with a new one. . . . John Frantz strutting about with his chest looking like that of a pouter pigeon and pointing to the pic in The Cash Box of himself and his two most beautiful dotters. Said John, "They're worth every minute of all the hard work". . . . Anybody seen Clarence Schuyler around? . . . That Harry Brown doing more business than ever with his advertising specialties. And some very outstanding novelties.

Avron Gensburg, Ralph Sheffield and Al Warren all talking at once. Offering one suggestion right after the other. For a new name for a grand game. The boys have come up with one that looks like a long, long run machine. . . . The Gottliebs getting ready for their summer trek up to the northwoods where the fishing is just fine. . . . Paul Huebsch phones to ask, "Say, what happened to the headline in our ad?" The only answer, Paul, rush, rush, rush will do this everytime. But, Paul so happy over biz pickup, he just smiles away and adds, "I'll call you back. I'm in conference with some buyers here and looks like we're starting off the summer at top speed". . . . Ted Rubenstein one happy guy these days as he surveys the business the firm has enjoyed so far this year. Says Ted, "Believe it or not we're moving ahead faster than we ever expected to." . . . That picture of David C. Rockola and John Watling caused a real stir with many asking for copies. "There", said one old timer, "are two real Daddies of our business. Two men who helped the industry to go places with great products".

C. T. (Mac) McKelvy and Tom Herrick plenty busy ever since the day they officially presented the new Seeburg. Both men constantly on the telephone as orders come flooding into this giant plant. . . . Jerry Kuklin said, "Well, our metal typer sure brought plenty of visitors out here to our place, even tho we didn't display at the MOA show". . . . Longdistance phone call from Habana, Cuba, Leon Sapochnik advising, "Bill, be sure to put my ad in your 15th Anniversary issue". (For which we most sincerely thank Senor Léon). . . . Herb Oettinger will play golf over the holiday weekend. Bill DeSelm will play golf over the holiday weekend. Ray Riehl, Hank Dabek and everyone else at United will probably play golf over the holiday weekend. Just to relax from the hustle and bustle and noise of these past ten days. . . . Sam Stern expected back from Paris this past week and the plant ready to double all production runs to meet the orders he's sure to return with. At least, so says Art Weinand, and Art should know.

Vince Shay and Stan Levin get into a double telephone conversation with two customers and between the yelling, sell the same machines twice over again. Laments Stan, "Now where'll we get all those machines?". . . . Maurice Ginsburg became a gran'pa for the second time. Says he, "Wait'll it happens to you. You'll find that it's all you want to live and work for." (Can this be Maurice speaking? Eddie's brother?). . . . Seems the rumor is true. There won't be a Walter Oomens Sons firm—after 24 years in Chicago's automatic music biz. . . . Two guys doing a grand job—Phil Weisman and Mike Spagnola with the new AML. . . . Ben Coven just simply beaming at the attention his charming missus, Trudy, getting from his table. . . . Joe Robbins

George A. Miller interrupts, as this column is being typed, to advise that 18 booths already sold for MOA's 1958 convention. Says he, "I'm so thrilled, I don't know how to thank all these marvelous people". . . . Nicest thing Charles (Little Jimmy) Johnson could ever have done was to bring those very important personages from Chicago's Fire Dept. to see the MOA convention. . . . Joe Schwartz highly pleased with the export biz his firm has done this year. Says he, "We've exceeded any year so far on exports. Only wish we had all the machines we need to fill orders", he added. . . . Herb Perkins still walking around in a daze because of the marvelous reception Keeney products got at his booths. Next year, Herb claims, Keeney'll have the biggest and best exhibit yet. . . . Those who met young Joel Stern of World Wide much impressed with the energy and good common sense reasoning of this son of Al Stern. And the way Joel gets that business, domestic and export, is something to truly marvel at. Keeps his whole organization on their toes all of the time. Yep, like someone said, it sure takes young blood.

6 Point Plan For Selling Dime Play

BOSTON, MASS.—One of the foremost exponents of 10¢ play, Jim Geracos, operator of National Music Company, has a 6-point plan for selling and keeping the dime on the juke box route following a location survey to be made by the op:

1. All new disks.
2. Participation in programming by owner and employees.
3. Request cards for customer participation.
4. Sound system checks and improvements.
5. Equipment rotation.
6. Location advertising within the location.

Geracos feels that "if a music op believes his phono service is good enough to warrant the dime, he'll have no trouble establishing it."

Jim Geracos has waged the battle for ten cent play in radio addresses, at meetings of the Mass. Music Operators Assn., of which he was first president, in newspaper articles and on practically every front on which he can bring the proposal to the attention of the public and the industry.

"Don't be negative," he cautions ops preparing to switch to the dime. Too many ops are "negative," he contends.

"Avoid explanations of technical details and higher costs, but concentrate on service," he advises. "Remember that the location owner is not interested in the operator's troubles—he has plenty of his own. What he wants is more profit!"

Geracos carries his program into his own operation in fine style. First he leaves cards with location owners for special platter requests, polishes the equipment, improves speaker locations, adds new records to the phono, and talks the dime switch over and over with the employees—all this is after the location owner has been sold on the conversion.

Making the employees feel they have a stake in the operation is important and they, the waitresses, etc., can do more to help the switch become a success than practically any other group, he feels. The Boston operator predicts that it will be an absolute must for all ops to get the dime in the very near future and that it is high time that all those ops still on the old time nickel deal smarten up and create a master conversion plan. He contends that too many ops feel they cannot risk going to the dime and this is holding the industry back.

George A. Miller, Pres. MOA, Expresses Appreciation To Cissie Gersh

CHICAGO — With the 1957 MOA Convention successfully written into history, George A. Miller, president of MOA had time to acknowledge his appreciation to those who assisted in making the Convention a success.

To Cissie Gersh, who co-chaired the first MOA Ladies Fashion Show Luncheon, Miller wrote:

"May I take this means of thanking you personally for your wonderful cooperation and assistance at the MOA convention and especially for the wonderful way in which you handled the Fashion Show and Sightseeing Trip.

"You ladies may not have realized it, but you took a great amount of responsibility off my shoulders right at a time when I was so busy, and I don't know how I could have handled it if it were not for you nice ladies.

"Everyone here has been so nice to me this year that there are just not words in my vocabulary to express my deep appreciation. Thanks seems so inadequate when one wants to say so very very much, but it is the only word that I can think of at this time."

4 Locations On Dime Better Than 7 on Nickel

LITTLE FALLS, MINN. — "On one trip, changing over to 10¢ play, we lost 3 out of 7 locations in one town", reports Stanley C. Woznak of Little Falls Music, this city.

"But", he adds, "that's why we recommend that operators, on losing a location on account of changing to dime play, leave the owner with a friendly feeling.

"The four spots we had now put on dime play took in more than the seven spots we had in this one town on nickel play.

"Not only that", adds Woznak, "but due to the word spreading around the locations two of the three spots we lost are back with us and are on 10¢ play.

"We get a better percentage from these spots and, what's more, we are using older equipment.

"The answer, as far as we are concerned", Woznak concludes, "is due to the service and programming we give. This is our best weapon."

"Greatest Game In Ten Years," Says Nate Gottlieb

NATE GOTTLIEB

CHICAGO — "The talk among the trade this week is that 'Royal Flush' has proved itself our most outstanding five ball game in ten years", proudly stated Nate Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb & Company.

"The only pinball that ever made a bigger hit with players was 'Humpty Dumpty', which first presented flippers to the public. The record of sales and production we set at that time has never yet been reached.

"However", Nate continued, "'Royal Flush' will come the closest to that record of any five ball game, judging from the way orders are now pouring in.

"For the first time in many years, we find ourselves forced to go beyond our limited production schedule and continue shipping 'Royal Flush' to meet the demands of all Gottlieb distributors."

Nate went on to explain how the current Gottlieb game takes full advantage of the magnetic appeal of playing cards by using two new and outstanding features.

He remarked, "One is the use of our holdover feature, which challenges the player to complete a royal flush on his very next try, or the game after.

"The other exciting new feature that stimulates repeat action at the coin chute is our 'Roto-Target' idea. The rotating targets have captured the approval of pinball players everywhere.

"But", Nate continued, "don't forget the many other fast action and scoring features that also combine to put 'Royal Flush' in a class all by itself.

"In view of the pressure put on us by our distributors, the only thing we can do this once is to help increase their sales by extending our production run of 'Royal Flush' for a few more weeks."

Nate Gottlieb concluded by saying, "It certainly is a thrilling and gratifying feeling to all of us at the fac-

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. — Teenage members of a Junior Achievement group sponsored by AMI, Incorporated, won a number of awards at a banquet, May 9, signaling completion of eight months of practical experience in business operation. The 18 members of the JAMI Novelty Company were presented with two Company awards and three individual awards, including recognition for sales excellence and a business school scholarship valued at $850.00.

The JAMI Novelty Company was one of 17 groups of teen-agers sponsored by an equal number of leading Grand Rapids firms to give first-hand experience in the American free enterprise system. The Junior Achievement program, extended to Grand Rapids for the first time this year, is a nationwide movement that permits teen-agers to participate realistically in every phase of business. The Youngsters handle details of forming and running an actual company, including formal incorporation, selling stock, keeping complete business records, manufacturing and selling a product of their choice and finally handling all phases of orderly liquidation to experience a complete business cycle in eight months.

Each JA company met on schedule one night each week throughout the season for production in a building maintained by Junior Achievement. Selling their products was done primarily door-to-door in free time after school or work. In addition to financial support necessary to carry out the program, AMI and the other companies furnished four volunteer advisers who attended the young people's meetings and work sessions and were available at all times for advice and guidance on sales, production and business matters.

The JAMI Novelty Company ended the year with a substantial net profit after paying wages, rent, operating costs and other typical Company obligations. From these profits, the Company paid stockholders a ten percent dividend, a sales bonus to each member based on hours worked and donated an arbor press to Junior Achievement of Grand Rapids for use at the JA work center in years to come.

AMI will again sponsor a group when the program is reactivated this Fall.

Make The Other Man See Your Problem

VICKSBURG, MISS.—“If you can make the other man see your problem”, says Joe Farris II of this city, “he’ll usually go along with any suggestion you have to make.”

Farris was speaking of how to get location cooperation when he made the above statement.

“Locations are people”, he continued, “and, therefore, some will be amenable to sensible suggestions. Others don’t care what the suggestion is—they’re ‘again’ it’ regardless.”

“It’s unfortunate”, Farris adds, “that we have to have the latter type, but, we do.”

“The only positive suggestion I’d care to make”, says Farris, “is that the operator do business just like he would in any other field of endeavor.”

“There are certain people’s business you seek. There are others you feel you can do without. It may hurt some to give up additional revenue but, in the long run, the anguish and uncertainty such people will cause you will outweigh what little financial good they do you, if any.”

“I have a competitor here”, Farris reports, “who’s independent as hell. I admire him for it. So I’m taking a leaf from his book. I don’t intend to let anyone play me against my competitor for his own selfish ends.”

“After all”, Farris points out, “my problems are closer aligned to those of my competitor than they are to those of the location owner and so, as far as that goes, are my interests.”

“I don’t know whether this is the proper place”, concludes Farris, “but that’s the strongest argument there is for operator cooperatives.”

BERT BENDER AT THE PIANO

WHERE DO YOU SELL YOUR MUSIC?

This is the Queen's Gambit Club in Chicago. It's a private key club. It has a custom high fidelity sound system. It has a piano bar—and live entertainment. It also has an AMI "G-200" juke box. Why? Why does this private, prestige location want the "G"? Because the "G" fits—anywhere. Because club members wanted a juke box. Because—if you have the right juke box—you can sell your music in all kinds of locations. Why should AMI advertise the "G"—now that the new "H" is out? Because every AMI juke box is designed to give operators a longer investment life . . . and a longer earning life in all kinds of locations.

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.

REGARDING SELLING PRICES

IMPORTANT!

Reports received indicate that, in some cases, purchasers become upset due to the fact that they cannot, many times, buy equipment listed in the lower price brackets. Sometimes sellers of machines listed at from $10.00 to $25.00 ask from $50.00 up to $75.00 and even more for these very same machines. Purchasers of such equipment must realize that machines in the very low priced categories are much worn to be priced at these low figures. To completely recondition such machines, the reconditioner must add onto his price the cost of transportation to obtain these machines, the labor, parts and supplies needed to recondition the machines, plus the cost of cartons, crates and labor for packing and shipping of the machines, in addition to a decent profit which will, in most cases, raise the price of a $10.00 to $20.00 machine to anywhere from $50.00 to $75.00 and up. In the case of arcade and kiddie ride machines these may even be higher due to the fact that many of the parts have to be made by hand or contracted for at some machinist shop, since manufacturers of many of the old arcade machines and kiddie rides are no longer in business and it is impossible to obtain parts for reconditioning. Purchasers of such equipment should take these facts into consideration and, at the same time, should also realize that many buyers today have their own repair and reconditioning departments as well as experienced mechanics, such buyers will purchase machines "as is", at prices quoted by the trade at large, and recondition the machines themselves to meet their own operating standards.

Gentlemen:

You will be interested to know that we are operating a battery of 21 United Bowling Alleys at the Playtime Arcade on the Pike here in Long Beach. They are doing sensational business.

We are highly pleased with the reception given these machines. I am sure that you will be interested in the story behind their installation.

About two months ago, upon the advice of the Simon Distributing Company of Los Angeles, we purchased six of the United Bowling Alleys and immediately put them on location. They attracted an unusually large number of players. It was common to see 14 or more players at the six machines. This clearly indicated that we could most profitably use more of them. Because of the tremendous popularity of the machines, we removed some older equipment. We purchased 15 additional alleys. This was all that we could fit into the remaining arcade space. We could use several more United Bowling Alleys - if the space permitted.

In addition to drawing new and repeat patronage to the arcade, the bowling alleys hold the crowds longer. We have also found that those players patronize other attractions.

We can say definitely that never before have we had a game with so much player appeal.

We are not only pleased with the United Bowling Alleys - we are elated.

Sincerely,

Al Goodman

Al Goodman,
Arcade Owner.
