The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"WHIFFENPOOF SONG" (2:19) "BRIGHTEN THE CORNER
[Miller ASCAP—Galloway, Minnigerode, Pomeroy] WHERE YOU ARE" (1:59)
[Robbins ASCAP—Ogdon, Gabriel]

BROWNS (RCA Victor 7780)

Two chart opportunities here for the songsters. "Whiffenpoof Song" is in their familiar soft-spoken vein (i.e. "Three Bells") while "Corner" has a spirited, Salvation Army-type march quality. Team should continue their string of successes with either or both of these efforts.

"GUN TOTIN' CRITTER CALLED JACK" (2:57) [Kavelin-Maverick]
"BUG-EYE" (2:24) [Kavelin-Westfield BMI—Frazier, Mize]
HOLLYWOOD ARGYLES (Lute 5908)

Fellas who shared the "Alley-Oop" are back again with another novelty a la the "Alley" sound. Locale is the West during the eighties, and it's a sure-bet the guys will give the charts another engaging novelty presentation. "Bug-Eye" also has an "Alley" quality.

"SPEAKING OF HER" (2:27) [Winneton BMI—Samuels]
"BLACKOUT THE MOON" (2:36) [George Paxton ASCAP—Adler]
ADAM WADE (Coed 536)

"Speaking Of Her" is another standout ballad date by the songster, who won the recent deejay poll by The Cash Box as the most promising singer of 1960. In the vein of his chart successes, "Tell Her For Me," "Ruby," and "I Can't Help It," Wade eases through a number with a quality make-up. "Blackout The Moon" is a smart swinger which will get spins.

"MY DEAREST DARLING" (2:45) [Arc BMI—Bocage, Gayten]
"TOUGH MARY" (2:20) [Arc-Shelter BMI—Uto]
ETTA JAMES (Argo 5368)

The songstress, completing a big chart stand with "All I Could Do Was Cry," should have the follow-up stint in "My Dearest Darling," which, as the tag implies, is a sincere session. Its true-love theme is conveyed with a potent, sometimes wailing delivery by the performer. Strings and a percussive slap are a strong backdrop sound. Contagious blueser on the "Tough Mary" track.

"BE TRUE TO ME" (2:59) [Peer Int'l BMI—Mitchell, Carrillo]
"COME LIVE WITH ME" (3:01) [Carbaugh ASCAP—Carlyle]
KITTY KALLEN (Columbia 41769)

"Be True To Me" is a pretty Latin-American smash (under the tag of "Sabor A Mi") which could get similar U.S. reaction via the lark's solid ballad warbling. Milton DeLugg directs a lush, hint-of-the-beat ork-chorus backdrop. Another romantic turn with "Come Live With Me." Top slicing is the portrayal to eye.

"LET'S THINK ABOUT LIVING" (2:03) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant]
"YOU'VE GOT EVERYTHING" (2:25) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant]
BOB LUMAN (Warner Bros. 5172)

"Let's Think About Living" is a quick-beat "answer" to all those "death" songs (i.e. "Teen Angel," "Tell Laura I Love Her"), with Luman belting the tune's subtitle, "Let's think about the whoopin' and the hoppin' and the boppin' and the lovey, lovey dovin'." Solid sock date, and attention-getting theme. Watch it. Fine rockin' doings on the flip portion.

RUSS ALADDIN (Alpine 65)

(B+) "ANNIE ADORABLE" (2:14)
[Aldon BMI—Mann, Kolber]
Pleasing rock-a-cha romantic is nicely handled by the songster. Likeable setting from the combo-femme chorus. Deck speaks attractively to the kids.

(B+) "LITTLE MISS AMERICA" (1:45) [Zanle BMI—Levine, Brass, Zaan]
Rompin' rocker with much of the Bobby Rydell disk sound. It's lively, and should also be welcomed by the teen set.

BERT KAEMPFERT ORCH.
(Decca 31141)

(B+) "DREAMING THE BLUES" (3:00) [BIEM (AS)—Kaempfert]
Interesting instrumental import with the ork striking as it carries the title theme. Horns and softly chanting chorus are the feature. Grow-on-you theme. Could develop into something.

(B) "WONDERLAND BY NIGHT" (3:12) [BIEM (AS)—Neumann]
Easy arrangement of a tune with a suggestion of "Say It With Music." Pretty side.

LAZY LESTER (Excelllo 2182)

(B+) "BYE BYE BABY, GONNA CALL IT GONE" (2:18) [Excelllorec BMI—Johnson, West]
No laziness in Lester's approach here, raucously shouting his soulful good-byes to the chick. Strong appeal for the right areas.

(B+) "A REAL COMBINATION FOR LOVE" (2:28) [Excelllorec BMI—West]
A slowdown to a blues ballad; Lester essays this romancer with a solid feel for the idiom.

CAMMY CAROL (Warwick 574)

(B) "MY VERY FIRST KISS" (2:01) [Empress ASCAP—Pockriss, David]
Sprightly, cute rock-a-cha date from the warbler. It's a catchy date that may see some jock activity.

(B) "HAND ME DOWN HEART" (1:50) [Ludix Selma BMI—Hammer]
This bright sound is more in the straight teen-beat groove.

CARLA STEWART (Spin 967)

(C+) "LOVE ME FOREVER" [Cedar Lane BMI—Van, Warren]
Intimate styling by the songstress on the slow waltzer. She multi-tracks the release.

(C+) "LET'S DREAM" (Ethel Bert ASCAP—Magee, Oness)
This session also has a caress quality.

LES McCANN LTD.
(World Pacific 823)

(B) "FISH THIS WEEK" (2:38) [West Coast Music ASCAP—McCann]
New group that's getting much attention strikes out after a blues-based gospel theme and handles it, unlike recent similar outings by other groups, with warmth and affection, yet not hiding its basic cold character. For the more "way out" spinners.

(B) "VACUSHNA" (2:54) [West Coast Music ASCAP—McCann]
Solidly swinging affair again reveals the mild temper of the group.

DENNIE MELLO (Blue Bell 500)

(B+) "WAILIN' GUITAR" (2:10) [Blue Bell ASCAP—Mela]
As the title indicates, guitars are the sound feature here, and they do a pro teen-beat job on the intriguing theme. A commendable combo stand.

(B) "THE TURTLE" (2:10) [Blue Bell ASCAP—Mela]
More good instrumental news for the kids as the musicians provide an appropriately "heavy" rock sound.

CARMEN LEGGIO
(Golden Crest 380)

(B) "WHAT A DIFFERENCE A DAY MAKES" (1:58) [E. B. Marks BMI—Grever]
Brightly swung tenor sax improvisation of the ever-green. Leggio has a smooth, easily-listened-to-sound.

(B) "SWING WITH SML" (3:16) [CFG BMI—Leggio]
Here Leggio steps out much further than above and turns in a perceptive job in an original. Cat deserves a hearing.

JULES FARMER (Roulette 4277)

(B+) "I SHOULD HAVE LOVED HER MORE" (2:48) [Sandra ASCAP—Vance, Silver]
Talented singer nicely handled the melodic romancer. Ork-chorus accompaniment has a nice, light-bounce sound. Very likeable side.

(B) "OUT OF SIGHT, OUT OF MIND" (2:01) [Kahl BMI—Hunter, Otis]
The old blues hit returns in a good soft-beat ballad light.

FAT DADDY HOLMES (Jet 505)

(B+) "CHICKEN ROCK" (1:57) [&Pal BMI—Bartlett]
A driving instrumental with chicken-like remarks coming from the guitars. A colorful combo display which the kids will find worthwhile listening.

(B) "WHERE YO IS" (1:45) [Webster BMI—Davis, Holmes, Scherman]
Fella interjects comment while the combo offers a hard-blues, sock sound. Directed at the R&B trade. Roulette handles label.

VILLETTE SISTERS (MGM 12928)

(B+) "THE RAINBOW" (2:14) [Wemar BMI—Durante, Brandon]
Chirps state the attractive blues-flavored romancer with a nice sentimental blend. The Ray Ellis ork-chorus setting is teen-wise.

(B) "I GAVE HIM BACK HIS RING" (2:28) [Wemar BMI—Brandon, Richardson]
A teen-calyppo date in this corner.

SONNY WILSON (Sun 341)

(B) "THE GREAT PRETENDER" (2:51) [Panther ASCAP—Ram]
The old Platters' hit receives a bright, rock-a-billy stand. The Wilson vocal is accompanied by an infectious combo-chanting chorus arrangement. Stacks-up as a solid hop piece.

(B) "I'M GONNA TAKE A WALK" (2:08) [Hi Lo BMI—Dollarhyde]
This portion has a low-down country blues sound. It's effectively done.

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"TWISTIN' U.S.A." (2:24) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann]

"A THOUSAND MILES AWAY" (2:22) [Kahl BMI—Sheppard, Miller]

DANNY & THE JUNIORS (Swan 4060)

The team, which will be remembered for its "At The Hop" smash, can make an important return to the charts with "Twistin' U.S.A.," a sockin', city-by-city account of the teen-dance's success. Here's a rock product to watch. On the flip, fellas warmly revive the Heartbeats' classic.

"MARIANNE" (2:15) [Mainstem ASCAP—Saraniero, Spero, Piazza]

"GIVE ALL YOUR LOVE TO ME" (2:30)

[Foxworth BMI—Ellis, Gamble]

FIREFLIES (Canadian-American 117)

Label bow for the chart-hitting (i.e. "You Were Mine") team is an expressive true-love declaration to a gal named "Marianne." Side's got a commanding teen-ballad way, and should soon find itself a chart berth. Pretty Spanish-like theme is attractively conveyed by the songsters.

"YOU ARE THE GREATEST OF THEM ALL" (2:27)

[Sherlyn BMI—Stone, Early]

"DO YOU LOVE ME" (2:21) [Sherlyn BMI—Stone, Early]

SAM EARLY (Apt 25041)

Songster can make a chart name for himself with a first-rate teen-ballad statement, "You Are The Greatest Of Them All." His strong statement is backed by commanding effects from the combo, particularly the trumpet bits. Look out for this cut. "Do You Love Me" is a rockin' blueser.

"TELL TOMMY I LOVE HIM" (2:35)

[E. B. Marks BMI—Barry, Raleigh]

"EVERYONE WAS THERE BUT YOU" (2:25)

[Wemar BMI—Brandon, Miller]

MARILYN MICHAELS (RCA Victor 7771)

Yet another, and very effective "answer" to a hit tune ("Tell Laura I Love Her" by Victor's Ray Peterson), with the lark, niece of the late Yiddish favorite, Moishe Oysher, in a position to score the first time out for the label. Backing approximates the Peterson hit. Relaxed ballad essay on the flip portion.

"JOHN HENRY" (2:30)

[Rolyn BMI—Arr. James, Hosea]

"MISERY" (1:45)

[Rolyn P.I.O.M. BMI—Willis]

DON HOSEA (Rita 1010)

"JOHN HENRY" (2:27)

[Knox BMI—Lewis]

"HANG UP MY ROCK AND ROLL SHOES"

(2:38) [Rush BMI—Willis]

JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun 344)

"John Henry," the folk-favorite, becomes a strong rock vehicle for two songsters. Don Hosea (Rita) solidly belts-out the ditty while the musicians come-up with an exciting, Ray Charles-like sound romp. The Jerry Lee Lewis (Sun) version also carries sock color in a similar manner. Two hot chart contenders. Teeners have something of value in Hosea's busy-beat coupler outing. Lewis' flip is a pro rock-a-billy session.

FRANK FAFARA (MCI 1026)

(B+) "LOVE MAKER, LOVE-BREAKER" (2:30) [BMI—Fafara] Catchy medium-beat cut from warbler Fafara, who is supported with a good bouncy sound from the musicians. Bright-sounding affair that's worth spins.

(B) "MISS YOU, DEE" (2:20) [Desert Palms BMI—Fafara] Tender romancer has a haunting line, and the songster nicely conveys it. A grow-on-you effort.

AL "TNT" BRAGGS (Peacock 1698)

(B+) "THERE" (2:34) [Lion BMI—Braggs, Scott] Braggs turns-in a touching vocal on the lovely, sensitive ballad. Combo-chorus backing is pretty. With sufficient exposure, side could do things.

(B) "LISTEN TO ME BABY" (2:22) [Lion BMI—Braggs, Scott] Beat becomes blues-rhythmic here, and all concerned display know-how with the idiom.

GRIZ GREEN (Warner Bros. 5166)

(B) "THE BIG LITTLE MAN" (2:04) [Calaban BMI—Green] Green offers a novelty ditty and receives a typical novelty-beat sound from the combo. It's catchy and could come-up with solid spins.

(B) "AT SUNRISE I SAIL WITH THE TIDE" (2:36) [Calaban BMI—Green] Haunting waltzer about the parting of lovers.

MILDRED & QIMMIE MULCAY (Panlin 7301)

(B) "YOU CALL EVERYBODY DARLIN'" (2:25) [Mayfair ASCAP—Trace, Watts, Martinn] Tune with an old-fashioned flavor is taken for a hearty, harmonica-led instrumental ride. Catchy combo entry.

(B) "IF I DIDN'T CARE" (1:57) [Chappell ASCAP—Lawrence] Soft & smooth rock reading of the Ink Spots-associated standby.

TAFT JORDON (Mercury 71661)

(B) "INDIAN SUMMER" (2:24) [Harms ASCAP—Herbert] The beautiful Victor Herbert tune is attractively played by the vet trumpeter, who receives a fine soft & sweet ork-chorus setting. Reliable mood piece.

(B) "YOUNG MAN WITH A HORN" (2:28) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Freed, Stoll] The years-back, easy-go theme provides another nice, dreamy session.

GEORGIE TORRENCE & DIPPERS (King 5376)

(B) "(You've Been) SO GOOD TO ME" (2:10) [Stebrita BMI—Torrence] A blues-rhythmic with a sound and zest the kids will enjoy. The Torrence belt receives a contagious helping-hand from the chorus-combo. Let the youngsters hear it.

(B) "GO AWAY (Far Away)" (2:19) [Stebrita BMI—Torrence] In a ballad light, Torrence proves he can get to the blues-styled heart of a meaningful tune.

AUBREY CAGLE (Glee 1001)

(B+) "BLUE LONELY WORLD" (2:20) [Faye BMI—Hays, Cagle] Though the deck has a strong country sound, there could be reaction in the pop field. Cagle and the combo-femme chorus do a fine job on the catchy romancer. Should be eyed.

(B) "COME ALONG LITTLE GIRL" (2:10) [Faye BMI—Hays, Cagle] A rocker with a familiar sound is taken care of in good sock fashion by the singer and backing. Merits hoptime attention.

DAVID BAILEY (Banner 60202)

(C+) "TIME OUT FOR TEARS" (2:07) [Magic Circle BMI—Perry] OK teen-styling by songster Bailey and combo in this light-beat plaintive date.

(C) "MY SHARE OF HEART-ACHES" (3:30) [Magic Circle BMI—Perry] More of a wistful sound to another tale of disenchantment.

DICK NEELEE (RCA Victor 7765)

(B) "BLUE ON BLUE" (2:07) [Skidmore ASCAP—Garson] Lazy saxes are the principal ingredient in this easy-go blueser from the combo. Teeners should display interest in the sound.

(B) "BIRMINGHAM RAG" (1:55) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Garson] Catchy honky-tonk ragtime arrangement with a rock sound in mind.

PEPPERMINT HARRIS (Duke 319)

(C+) "AIN'T NO BUSINESS" (2:28) [Lion BMI—Malone] Rocking, talk-sing performance of an infectious stint reminiscent of Jimmy Witherspoon's "Ain't Nobody's Business."

(C) "ANGEL CHILD" (2:02) [Lion BMI—Malone] Bright blues rocker with a teen angle. Harris approaches it in OK vocal style.

WOODROW ADAMS (Home of the Blues 109)

(C+) "SOMETHING ON MY MIND" (3:04) [Sar-Lib BMI—Cherry] Songster turns in an engaging job on the up-tempo blues lament. Has soul in his delivery.

(C+) "SAD AND BLUE" (2:39) [Sar-Lib BMI—Cherry] Similar stint as above. Has merit for some areas.

The Cash Box Best Bets

MANTOVANI ORCH. (London 1927)

(B+) "SONG WITHOUT END" (2:26) [Columbia ASCAP—Washington, Stoloff, Duning] The Mantovani strings do a lovely, caressing stint on an adaptation of Franz Liszt's "Un Sospiro" which serves as the title tune of the composer's pic bio. Can succeed.

(B) "IN THE SPRING" (2:46) [Leeds ASCAP—Salvador] More smooth string work from the ork.

TONY BENNETT (Columbia 41770)

(B+) "TILL" (2:57) [Chappell ASCAP—Sigman, Danvers] Bennett's fine command of ballad material shows again via his understanding reading of the beautiful oldie. Lush strings & chorus are directed by Frank DeVol. Side's from songster's "To My Wonderful One," and could make a chart stand.

(B) "I AM" (2:18) [Joy ASCAP—Shuman, Edwards] A re-release of a previous Bennett success. Commanding side.

THE JAZZTET (Argo 5366)

(B+) "KILLER JOE" (3:00) [Andante ASCAP—Golson] The Jazztet's single contribution to the scene is a satirical description of a pencil-mustache "hippie." A ballad-paced, blues-oriented stint follows Benny Golson's narrated description of the cat. Already breaking territorially—can move out in fast pop company.

(B) "MOX NIX" (2:33) [Andante ASCAP—Farmer] An Art Farmer original. The upbeat rhythmic features Farmer's mellow trumpet in well-paced lead chores.

CADILLACS (Josie 883)

(B+) "THAT'S WHY" (1:55) [Benell Jess BMI—Bond] The vet rock songsters give a solid blues-rhythm account of the lively romancer. Sax and strings are the pro features of the support. Can get places.

(B) "THE BOOGIE MAN" (1:55) [Benell Jess BMI—Carroll] A deliberate-beat novelty item with good teen-beat humor.

ACE KENNEDY & CANDIES

(B+) "ARMS AROUND YOU" (2:33) [Conley ASCAP—Canady, Canady] Here's one to watch out for. It features Ace Kennedy and vocal accompaniment (the Candies) on a tender opus that has those hit qualities. Teeners'll take it quick.

(B) "YOU PROMISE" (2:17) [Conley ASCAP—Canady, Canady] The artists jump with good R&B feeling on this portion. Infectious support from the Frank Slay musicians.

SANDY NELSON (Imperial 5672)

(B+) "BOUNCY" (2:04) [Travis BMI—Nelson] The instrumentalist—involved in the "Teen-Beat" smash awhile back—is part of a strong combo attack here. As with "Teen-Beat," spotlight is on the percussions, and they do a bang-up rock job. Growling sax is also included. Might go over big.

(B) "LOST DREAMS" (2:10) [Reeve BMI—Ashby, Freeman] Effective blues moody from the musicians.

SIX TEENS (Flip 350)

(B+) "SO HAPPY" (2:24) [Limax BMI—Wells] Featuring Trudy & Jimmie, the deck has an infectious rock manner. The featured songsters are the two lovers here, and both strings and handclaps provide a first-rate upbeat setting. Watch closely.

(B) "THAT WONDERFUL SECRET OF LOVE" (2:43) [Limax BMI—Wells] Trudy solos attractively on the warm opus.

LITTLE JUNIOR PARKER (Duke 326)

(B+) "THAT'S JUST ALRIGHT" [Lion BMI—Malone] A stinging display of blues affection with Parker alternately poignantly tender and thrillingly piercing. A blues ballad performance deserving of pop recognition.

(B+) "I'LL LEARN TO LOVE AGAIN" [Lion BMI—Malone] Junior sinks into the depths of despair to reach for the anguished emotions he shows in essaying the opus here.

JACK SCOTT (Guaranteed 211)

(B+) "NO ONE WILL EVER KNOW" (2:44) [Milene ASCAP—Foree, Rose] Star teen artist, now on Top Rank, offers a strong plaintive account here. Combo and male chorus chanting is simple, but well-suited to the occasion. Could make the charts.

(B+) "GO WILD LITTLE SADIE" (2:25) [Starfire BMI—Scott] Deck approaches a sock sound, and has the rock goods that might also spell success.

BOBBY LONERO (Spinett 1006)

(B+) "LITTLE BROTHER TOM" (2:01) [Lou-Vin BMI—Smith, Ford, Caronna] A strong, honky-tonkish novelty item about a gal's brother who gives the boyfriend one heck of a time. This is a sound to keep tabs on.

(B) "NO MORE MONEY" (2:10) [Lou-Vin BMI—Smith, Ford, Caronna] Combo backing beat shows the influence of "Alley-Oop." Good overall sound.

BILLY LAND (Scottie 1323)

(B) "DON'T LET THESE WORDS BE TRUE" (1:50) [Joe South BMI—Land, South] Good-sounding medium-beat romancer with Land's vocal getting an effective Latin-beat sound from the instrumentalists. Male chorus offers teen-wise chants. Will get teentime spins.

(B) "LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT" (2:02) [Wonder BMI—Land, South] Singer and accompaniment ease-through the affectionate.

JOHNNY FOLKSTON (Davco 7479)

(B+) "DANCE LITTLE LEAVES" (1:53) [Dellwood BMI—Axton, Folkston] Charming ditty is rendered engagingly by the songster and combo-femme chorus accompaniment. A cheerful romantic ditty which deserves airtime.

(B) "YOU SAID I'D NEVER LOVE AGAIN" (2:31) [Tree BMI—Killen] Artist and gals have a country-sounding ballad stand here.

TOWNSEL SISTERS (Hickory 1125)

(B+) "WILL I EVER" (2:00) Acuff-Rose BMI—F.&B. Bryant] Larks—winner of last year's Pet Milk country talent contest—have a nice pop sound in this ballad date.

(B) "I KNOW" (2:03) [Alpep-Huddleson] Gals get a shuffle-beat sound as they relate the romancer with a middle-beat blend.

LOURDES (Mercury 71655)

(B+) "MY FAVORITE DREAM" (2:18) [Music Products BMI—Otis, Corso] Spanish songstress, spouse of Mercury's Eastern A&R head Clyde Otis, does a fine English-lyric job on a pretty ballad. Attractive legit romantic date.

(B) "YOURS" (2:33) [E. B. Marks BMI—Roig, Gamse, Sherr] The Latin favorite is presented in a similar manner. Both portions stem from an LP.

TRI-DELLS (Eldo 104)

(B+) "BABY I LOVE YOU SO" (2:13) [Eldorado BMI—Carlos] Vocalists make sentimental-teen sense in their portrayal of the tender statement. Cute chant blend during a telephone-ringing bit. Worth attention.

(B) "LITTLE DO I KNOW" (1:46) [Eldorado BMI—Carlos] A well-defined Latin beat backs the gals in this romancer.

TINA & MERLE (King 5393)

(B) "I CAN'T HELP YOU (I'm Falling Too)" (2:33) [Ross-Jungnickel ASCAP—Robertson, Blair] Chirps offer another "answer" to Hank Locklin's "Please Help Me, I'm Falling" click. Their backing includes a muted trumpet, unusual in teen-beat arrangements.

(C+) "POST OFFICE" (2:23) [Mar-Kay BMI—Gore] A semi-sock story about the famed kissing game.

LORI PARKER (Coral 62222)

(B) "TRY A LITTLE TENDERNESS" (2:50) [Robbins ASCAP—Wood, Campbell, Connelly] Fine standard is appealingly surveyed by the thrush. The Dick Jacobs' string have some striking statements. Pleasant teen-directed softie.

(C+) "REMEMBER ME" (2:41) [Jack Gold ASCAP—Goodman] Intimate warbling on this end. Folkish tune is not the oldie.

CARL BELL (Mohawk 171)

(B+) "LET'S LEAVE IT THAT WAY" (2:14) [Mo ASCAP—Graham] Bells states the pretty ballad sincerely, and gets an attractive rock-a-string (& chorus) setting. Deserves teen-ballad time spins.

(B) "THE GREATEST TREASURE" (2:20) [Tune-House ASCAP—Semos, Strauss, Stanton] Somewhat more of a blues nature to another sentimental stand.

CARTRELL DICKSON (Shelley 1010)

(B+) "WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME" (2:09) [CFG BMI—Dickson] A pro blues-styled romantic is given a strong essay by the vocalist. Also hep to the tune are the combo & chanting gal chorus. Could be something.

(B) "MY LITTLE GIRL" (2:07) [CFG BMI—Dickson] A quick-beat blues take from the performer and setting personnel.

WINGED VICTORY CHORUS (20th Fox 217)

(B+) "BATTLE OF ALLEY-OOP" (2:17) [Sunbeam BMI—Crier, Livert, Spencer] Alley-Oop battles with Tarzan in this colorfully displayed outing taking solid advantage of smash "Alley-Oop" ditty. Side can come-up with strong plays.

(B) "WAR OF LOVE" (2:10) [Sunbeam BMI—Crier, Livert, Spencer] The big chorus produces a lively marcher.

COOK BROS. (Arcade 158)

(C+) "ALWAYS TOGETHER" (2:39) [Valley Brook ASCAP—Cook, Haley] A soft Latinish touch to this teen-beat ballad reading by the song-tuosome. OK sound.

TURBANS (Roulette 4281)

(B+) "DIAMONDS AND PEARLS" (2:14) [Lode BMI—Tyler] Songsters, who had the years-back hit, "When You Dance," do a fine caress job on the melodic affectionate. Attractive sentimental-rock date.

(B) "BAD MAN" (2:35) [Shalimar BMI—Bans] Boys sock in pro style on the novelty ditty.

FRANKIE FORD (Imperial 5686)

(B+) "YOU TALK TOO MUCH" (2:21) [Ron BMI—Jones, Hall] Deck makes the catchy most of the ditty, which is also available via a Joe Jones outing on Ric. Should the youngsters pick-up on the tune, this slicing should figure in the sales race.

ELMER BERNSTEIN (Capitol 4426)

JUNIOR WELLS (Profile 4013)

(B+) "YOU DON'T CARE" (2:13) [Melva BMI—London] The Wells brand of enticing blues, which clicked for him on "Little By Little," is heard again here in a striking rhythmic setting surrounded by sympathetic combo-chorus action. Blues markets can get deck started.

BABY BOY JENNINGS (Savoy 1589)

(B+) "LITTLE GIRL" [Savoy BMI] Contagious finger-snapper is served up temptingly and with loads of teen appeal. Jennings' keen chanting is backed appropriately by the Satellites making a winning combination for the session. Has scoring punch.

(B+) "GOIN' HOME" [Savoy BMI] Another excursion into bright rhythm territory with the vigorous sax-led combo coming in for a healthy share of the laurels. A two-sided potential rides here.

WHEELS (Roulette 4271)

JOHNNY DUNCAN (Leader 807)

(B+) "HOT SUNSHINE" Interesting, intriguing beat entry about a guy who works in the hot-sunshine and lives just to see his gal, who treats him like the sun. Duncan's vocal catches the haunting theme while various percussive sounds and an organ form a very good-sounding backdrop. Might step-out.

JOHNNY DARROW (Sue 728)

GALAXIES (Capitol 4427)

(B) "ADVENTURES IN PARADISE" (2:45) [Robbins Ltd. London (PRS)—Newman, Cochran] TV main-title—currently hitting via Jerry Byrd's Monument dinking—receives a Martin Denny-like, Hawaiian sound from the ensemble. Haunting cut.

DICK GLASSER (Columbia 41762)

(B+) "LOVER'S DREAMLAND" (2:02) [Camarillo BMI—Glasser, Boldi] Glasser hands-in a fine teen-directed account of the solid teen affectionate. Both the femme chorus and musicians make striking statements. Can make a chart stand.

NEW YORK:

Bob Mersey, alias Spencer Ross of "Tracy's Theme" fame, thrilled with the smash chart results of Bobby Rydell's "Volare" (Cameo). Mersey arranged and conducted the deck and did likewise with Jimmy Jones' current Cub clicker, "That's When I Cried" (and also his last one, "Good Timin'"). . . . E. B. Marks' exploitation director Bob Carter tells us that the pubbery's promo man Buddy Friedlander tells him that Connie Francis has a smasher in her newest MGM outing, "Malaguena" and that things are happening with Vinnie Monte's Jubilee newie, "Trail Of Teardrops." . . . Faye Adams heading out on a cross-country junket to plug her Warwick deck, "Look Around." . . . The Paragons did an all day hit, last Saturday, at Jamaica Records, Inc. . . . Longridge Music thrilled with the interpretation of their inspirational pic title tune, "Seventy Times Seven," by Chuck Connors and the Salvation Army Chorus on Decca.

BIOS For Deejays

JEANNE BLACK

Jeanne Black's initial Capitol record started her on a lucrative disk career and also revived the once-popular "answer record." "He'll Have To Stay" became an immediate hit as an answer to Jim Reeves' "He'll Have To Go." Now "Lisa," the thrush's follow-up release which this week jumped into #55 on the Top 100, proves that Miss Black is here to stay.

Jeanne's introduction to showbiz was, oddly enough, through her younger sister Janie, a showbiz vet at 15. Janie was appearing as a regular on Cliffie Stone's "Hometown Jamboree" TV'er, when in July 1956 Jeanne accompanied her to the studio to provide the other half of a duet. Stone heard her and drafted her for a single act, having both sisters appear as regulars on the West Coast show. A Capitol recording contract then sprung the young lass into national fame.

Jeanne had never seriously considered a singing career—she had excelled in dramatics and dancing while a student at Chaffey Junior College in Upland, Calif. She still hopes and insists that she'll return to college one day—career or not.

BROOK BENTON

Brook Benton's fame can be measured in one way just by a look at this week's Top 100, where the singer is represented three times: "Kiddio" and "The Same One," his latest back-to-back hit, and "A Rockin' Good Way," his duet with Mercury label-mate Dinah Washington.

Yet Brook's success has been not only in singing but as a songwriter as well. In this capacity he has provided many top artists and himself with numerous hits. Collaborating with Clyde Otis, Mercury exec, on most of his tunes, Brook has clefted "Looking Back" and "Nothing In The World" for Nat King Cole, "A Lover's Question" for Clyde McPhatter and "Endlessly," "Thank You Pretty Baby," and "It's Just A Matter Of Time" for himself, just to name a few. A newer branch of his disk career has been the success he's had teaming with Dinah Washington. With all of this proven talent behind him, Brook can look forward to a long, rewarding career as one of America's established disk stars.

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

Broadcasting seems to be regaining some of its lost glamour, at least in Hawaii where we have received reports about the success of KNDI-Honolulu, a full-time 5000 wattter known to local audiences as "Candy." Much of the station's first month success stems from the fact that it's an all-girl operation,

KIKUE TAKE
 (KNDI—Honolulu)

LINDY SHANNON
 (WKBH—LaCrosse, Wisc.)

JOHNNY FAIRCHILD

and what a collection of female pulchritude! (Sample the photo of Kikue Taka, a Japanese-Hawaiian lovely who's one of the deejays.) The gals do everything—from sports broadcasting (handled by Patsy Bartlett) to program managing (Dotty Abbott), who presides over a staff which includes Kathy Hartley, Diane Littrell, Ann Edwards, JoAnn Algiers, Jean Fleming, Peggy Nelson, Linda Ryan, Ann Evanson, Eleanor Burrell and Lee Martin. All radio eyes are focused on the station as it promotes itself into the listening scheme of Hawaiians, wondering what place it will eventually take in the community. But even if "Candy" is successful beyond the ladies' fondest dreams, there will remain a cause for a certain smug satisfaction among males—KNDI, you see, is owned by a man. . . . And while we're on the subject of female accomplishments . . . delivered this week were: a son to Rol Hopkins of WLOB-Portland, Maine; a daughter, Nanette, to R. H. Peck, mid-morning man at KGW-Portland, Ore. . . . Studio Romance Dept. . . . Site for the surprise elopement of Joe Primm, production chief at KFVB-Hollywood, and KFVB continuity director Sue Schmidt was Carson City, Nevada. The two co-workers were married there July 25 and are now honeymooning in northern California. . . . The quote, "No greater love hath one radio station for another" came to fruition last week when WINS-New York agreed to go off the air August 9 from 12:30 AM to 5:00 AM so that WMGM-New York was able to test its new transmitter. . . . WMGM also joined with WINS in having its jockeys host NY City Youth Board dances. Jerry Marshall, Mike Laurence and Norm Stevens have volunteered in this most worthwhile battle against juvenile delinquency.

Contrary to some beliefs, the swing to good FM jazz programming is not confined to the West Coast and NY. WABQ-Cleveland is swinging with lots of cool and hot sounds. Bill Clark, who hosts the Saturday night "Blues Session" and the Monday "Killer Dillers," reports fan mail coming in from as far away as Duluth, Minn. and Ontario, Canada. . . . WWOW-Conneaut, Ohio, also reports public reaction continues strong and favorable to its weekend jazz sound. . . . Jack Armstrong, former jockey at WEEP-Pittsburgh, is now working for Cosnat as a promo man. . . . Lindy Shannon (WKBH-La Crosse, Wisc.) tells us he's elated over the success of the Fendermen's "Mule Skinner Blues" because he was fortunate in being the first jockey to break the song in the northwest. Shannon says he's not giving up a good thing and has already been leaning heavily on the group's newest entry. . . . KEX-Portland, Ore., celebrated its move to new offices and studios by giving away a 1/2 scale model replica Model "T" that actually runs on a gasoline engine. Bob Bissell, account exec for Cole & Weber Adv., drove home the winner. Contest was only open to ad agency personnel as a sales gimmick. . . . WIP-Philadelphia has initiated a listener listing service. Each day music director Joe Brooks tabulates the station's own top 15 and enters them into an automatic answering device. This information, plus notification of upward and downward moves, is available to listeners 24 hours a day just by calling a special number which connects them with an exclusive telephone answering device. The service is capable of handling up to 1500 calls per hour. WIP anticipates that 5000 calls will come in per day. . . . Stan Martin has supplemented his all-night show on WARK-Hagerstown, Md., with a daily 1/2 hour live show emanating from a local night spot. . . . Thousands of WIL-St. Louis listeners were on hand when the Forest Park Highlands amusement park celebrated its second annual WIL night Aug. 4. WIL staffers Dick Clayton, Jack Carney, Dan Ingram, Dick Kent, Bob Osborne and Reed Farrell met their faithful listeners and handed out tickets for free rides. . . . WIL was also the darling of St. Louis radio recently when three WIL men led the St. Louis Radio All-Stars to a smashing 3-1 victory over the Press All-Stars in a softball game sponsored by the Cardinals, played before a crowd of over 26,000 at Busch Stadium. Radio's three runs were scored by WIL deejay Dick Kent, WIL promo director Michael Ruppe, Jr., and WIL account exec. John Lydon. Winning pitcher was WIL deejay Dick Clayton. Looks like WIL is dominating St. Louis in every aspect.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Johnny Fairchild (KEZY-Anahein, Calif.) has completed negotiations with his old station, KELP-El Paso, and expects to be broadcasting from the Texas station by Aug. 15. . . . Al Weaver moves from WKBC-N. Wilkesboro, N. C. to WFCT-Fountain City, Tenn., a new station which debuts Aug. 15. . . . Latest addition to WJET-Erie, Pa., is Barney Pip, formerly of WWOW-Conneaut, Ohio. . . . And WWOW had added Bob Kotur to its staff. Bob comes fresh from the Ohio Univ. campus, where he earned a B.F.A. degree in radio and TV. . . . Red Robinson left KGW-Portland, Ore., Aug. 5 for a six months Army tour of duty. Moving into his time slot is Wes Lynch, and added to take up the slack is Ralph Hull. . . . Bob Mills joins KFMB-TV-San Diego after a stint with KOTV-Tulsa. Bob'll host the station's popular wakeup show, "Sunup". . . . Thomas A. Sandenaw is the new station manager of KOPR-Butte, Montana. . . . CKDM-Dauphin, Manitoba, Canada, formerly a country music station, has switched to pop programming. . . . KOKE-Austin, Texas, has three new jockeys: Eddie Schuster, Ray Knight and Jerry Lee, who returns to KOKE's afternoon slot after a stint with KICN-Denver and a six month hitch in the Army.

"Freedom" Winners Meet Columbia Stars

NEW YORK—Nine teenagers from across the country spent a weekend in New York recently as winners of an essay contest, "What Freedom Means to Me," sponsored by Columbia Records in collaboration with Freedomland, U.S.A. and Columbia singing star Johnny Horton.

Winners from various areas were flown to New York Friday, July 15, and were guests of Columbia at the Hotel Commodore. They departed for their home cities Sunday evening, July 17.

Saturday morning they were greeted at Freedomland by Horton for whom July 16 had been proclaimed "Johnny Horton Day" at Freedomland in honor of the singer's hit Columbia record, "Johnny Freedom," which is part of the official Freedomland album recorded by Columbia.

Horton was guide to the winners as they toured highlights of the amusement center—Satellite City, The Chicago Fire, San Francisco and the Pine Country of the Northwest Passage. At noon they lunched on southern fried chicken at the Southern Planation Restaurant while listening to a jazz concert by the Freedomland Dixieland Band.

Sunday was devoted to a tour of New York City and a celebrity luncheon at the Hotel Taft where the teenagers met Columbia artists Tony Bennett, Frank DeVol, Kirby Stone, Diana Trask, and Vincent Lopez as well as Jule Styne and George Weiss, composer and lyricist for the Freedomland Album. Horton again was host and the winners received autographed record albums from each of the stars.

ARMADA Reviews Its Role Against Bootlegging

NEW YORK—ARMADA's activities during the past two months to stamp out disk bootlegging and counterfeiting was summarized in a statement issued last week through ARMADA prexy Art Talmadge.

Bootlegging was a focal point in the ARMADA Convention held in Atlantic City, N.J. on June 14. Prior to that meeting, Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc. had been engaged in investigating the bootlegging situation insofar as it applied to its own "Cameo" label. Through its attorneys, Blanc, Steinberg, Balder & Steinbrook of Philadelphia, leads were run down to two major points of distribution of the bogus records. By the time the convention was held, the two alleged offenders in question, Bonus Platta-Pak and Sidney Mittelman, trading as Record Pak, of Fort Lee, N.J. and Newark, N.J. respectively, were discovered.

ARMADA acted quickly; resolutions were adopted concerning the problem, and more important, steps were taken to formulate plans for future crack-downs on the bootleggers. The membership unanimously agreed to an assessment of $250 per member to give financial support to the anti-bootlegging campaign.

Upon his election as president of ARMADA, Art Talmadge met with the executive committee, and the law firm of Blanc, Steinberg, Balder & Steinbrook was retained to prosecute bootleggers and to assist the membership in their drive against this evil.

Robert Arkin, and Milton Richman, president and secretary, respectively, of Bonus Platta-Pak as well as Brad Atwood and Atwood Enterprises of Hollywood, California were indicted by the Grand Jury of Bergen County. Arkin and Richman of the Fort Lee, N.J. Company were charged with "knowingly, wilfully and unlawfully selling counterfeit records of the Bobby Rydell recording of "Ding-a-Ling", knowing the same to be counterfeit." A second indictment was also handed down against Arkin, Richman, and Brad Atwood of Atwood Enterprises, located in California. It was from Atwood that Arkin and Richman allegedly received the bogus records. The second indictment charged Arkin, Richman and Atwood with unlawfully conspiring to knowingly and wilfully sell phonograph records bearing the forged and counterfeited labels of Cameo Records.

Sidney Mittelman, who does business as Record Pak in Newark, N.J., was indicted by the Grand Jury of Essex County, New Jersey. The indictment charged Mittelman on four counts of violation of the N.J. Penal Law regarding the counterfeiting of trade marks. In each of the Counts, Mittelman was charged with the unlawful sale of phonograph records to certain named purchasers (these phonograph records had forged and counterfeited labels purporting to be those of Cameo Records). It was further charged in the indictment that Mittelman knew that the labels were forged and counterfeited.

ARMADA has been assisting the prosecutors of the two counties above named in assembling information and data which will be needed at the trial of these cases.

Arkin, Richman, and Atwood as well as Mittelman have been arraigned and are all awaiting trial; they were released after arraignment by virtue of their having posted the substantial bail set by the Courts.

Further investigating work is being done by other law enforcement agencies operating with the cooperation of ARMADA.

One result of the crackdown, has been that the two places of business, one in Newark and the other in Fort Lee, N.J. have closed their doors.

"The impact of bootlegging can best be understood by the fact that the companies whose records were being counterfeited reported immediate increase in the volume of their sales as soon as Bonus Platta-Pak and Record-Pak were put out of the bootlegging business," an ARMADA statement said.

Civil actions have already been commenced against two companies involved in the distribution of bootlegging records, Bonus Platta-Pak and Record-Pak. These suits involve demands for $50,000 each as well as injunction, accountings, and statutory penalties. Suits are now being prepared against certain large one-stops and Dealers. The suits in question are being supported and financed by ARMADA in accordance with the resolution passed by the membership at the convention.

In addition to the above activities, Talmadge has instructed Blanc, Steinberg, Balder & Steinbrook to render its "expert assistance and practical 'know how' to aid all record manufacturers and distributors to stamp out the practice of counterfeiting wherever and whenever it occurs." To date, several companies have availed themselves of the opportunity to consult with ARMADA's attorneys.

4 New Command LP's

NEW YORK—Command Records is now shipping to distributors for new fall LP's, including pianist Dick Hyman's bow on label, "Provocative Piano," Command topper Enoch Light said that 4-track stereo tape versions of these new albums are now being prepared and will be shipped out later this month.

The other albums include: "Enoch Light And The Light Brigade Play Percussion Cha-Chas"; "Bongos/Flutes/Guitars"—Los Admiradores; "Two Pianos And Twenty Voices"—Lew Davies.

Merchandising for the new LP's will include streamers, easel-backed album covers for dealer display, a stereo demonstration disk for distributor salesmen and dealers, and ads in consumer publications in the fall.

Light stated that the advance orders he has received so far will make this the biggest release, in dollar volume of merchandise ordered, in the combined histories of Grand Award and Command.

Jensen Summer Promo Shows
46% Sales Increase

CHICAGO—The "SAS—Sell All Summer" campaign launched in May by Jensen Industries, the phono accessory manufacturer, has brought a 46% increase in sales of phono needles and cartridges, sales manager Mike Remund reported last week.

The Jensen firm is expanding its lines and diversifying into many phono parts other than needles and cartridges. Remund said the firm has added 169 different items since May.

Jubilee "One-Cent" Program

NEW YORK—Jubilee Records, a division of Jay-Gee Record Corp., has announced a special "One-Cent" promotion to "beat the competition of any record club." Deal runs from August 15 to September 15.

Jubilee's #1000 LP series, monaural & stereo, is being offered in two categories: with the purchase of an album in column "A," the consumer, and dealer as well, can purchase any album in column "B" for 1¢.

Dana Records, the big polka label, in conjunction with Jay-Gee, is also offering the same deal.

Jay-Gee claims to have over 250 LP titles in the promotion.

First Clock LP By Cortez; Backed By Distrib Deal

NEW YORK—Clock Records has just released its first LP, "Dave 'Baby' Cortez." The release—which contains such successes as "Happy Organ" and "Catnip"—was based on "insistent" distrib demands for a Cortez album, according to the label. The LP is being merchandised by a deal which gives the distributors two free LP's for every twelve purchased.

August marks Clock's first year of operation. Headed by a father-and-son combination, Walter Moody, former A&R manager for England's EMI, and Doug Moody, the label and its associated publishing companies have shared the success of twelve pop singles which have appeared on the Top 100, with BMI awards for three which made the top ten.

Having established Clock nationally, the Moodys are now working on putting their Vim (Variety In Music) label across. Vim is currently represented with singles by the Buddy Lucas Band ("Night Train" and "Begin The Beguine"), and a new songster, Sterling Harrison. Talent signed included Bill Baker, former lead singer of the Five Satins, writer-artist Billy Myles, currently an A&R member at King Records; New York deejay Bruce Morrow; the Sammy Beskin Jazz Group.

Ram To Score Pic

NEW YORK—Cleffer-manager Buck Ram has been signed as the musical director for an upcoming flick, "Night Of The Key." This will be the first effort for New York's Lancer Films. Cameras are expected to start grinding November 1 in Italy.

Design Ups "Compatible" Price; Backs Line With Big Program; 20 New LP's

NEW YORK—A price raise of Design's "Compatible" albums from $1.98 to $2.98; a major advertising campaign, a special 3-for-1 offer direct to consumers and the release of twenty new "Compatible" LP's were announced last week by Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick Sales Corporation. The entire program—with an ad budget tagged at $200,000—was described by Leslie as "Phase II" of his campaign to introduce the "compatible" record.

Effective immediately, all Design "Compatible" albums will sell for $2.98 rather than $1.98. The packages will no longer have the price marked on by the factory. The sets will have a cellophane shrink-wrap over the album covers on which will be imprinted the Design "Compatible" Records logo and the lines, "New! The two-way stereo and hi-fi record. It plays on every phonograph." It was explained that these sentences are intended to clarify any doubt in the minds of potential purchasers as to the exact meaning of the word "compatibility."

Leslie said, "We knew that we would not be able to hold our initial price of $1.98 for long because of the cost of maintaining high quality standards on a record that is both stereophonic and monaural." Leslie added that the purpose of "Phase 1" (the first six months of the program) was to make "compatible" stereo available to as many people as possible so they could hear for themselves that Design's claims were "completely accurate." A half-million LP's, including a 99¢ sampler were sold during the first six months of the "compatible" line, according to Leslie.

The advertising agency of Lee-Myles Associates has been retained by Pickwick Sales to handle advertising for the Design "Compatible" line. Look, New York Times Sunday Magazine section, Saturday Evening Post and Reader's Digest have already been selected and additional consumer publications and local radio spots will be added later on. The ads will appear during the last week in October and the first week in November. Space will consist of full and double page spreads and will be in color. A co-op budget that includes forty major cities is available for local newspaper advertising in conjunction with participating retailers.

The offer, as outlined by Leslie, benefits Design's ultimate purchasers as well as dealers and distributors. A coupon has been inserted in every "compatible" LP package. Three coupons are redeemable for one free album. In addition, the coupon has a place for the name and address of the store that carried the LP.

In order to take advantage of the offer, the consumer must mail the coupons to Pickwick Sales, Pickwick Bldg., Long Island City, N.Y. in threes or multiples thereof. The coupons have a place for the name and address of the retailer and this must also be filled out. For every three coupons received, Pickwick will send, free-of-charge, any "compatible" LP the buyer requests.

The offer starts Sept. 1 and will be mentioned in all of Design's advertising. In addition, the label will supply co-op ad budgets to participating stores and will give them ample supplies of display material on the offer, buttons for store personnel, counter cards, streamers and window kits specially created by world-famed designer, Eino Dahlstrom. In order for a store to qualify for the co-op ad budget and for the dealer aids, the retailer must have a "compatible" window for at least seven days, minimum inventory, and good inside display space.

Leslie announced a special dealer and distributor contest to tie in with the offer. The dealer who is mentioned most often on the coupons mailed into Pickwick Sales Corp., will be eligible for an all-expenses paid, two week trip to Mexico for two or a custom built Fairchild, stereo-hi-fi unit valued at $2,000. Second and third prizes are an 8 mm Fairchild Cinephonic Sound Camera and Projector. The distributor who services the winning dealers will get duplicate prizes.

The twenty new Design "Compatible" albums being released by Pickwick Sales are "Americana" by The Idlers; "TV Themes" by Jimmy and Marian McPartland; "The Twin Strings Orchestra Plays George Gershwin"; "From Hawaii" by Johnny Pineapple; "Piano Roll Music" by Phantom Foley—Plus Two; "Swingin' Pretty And All That Jazz" by Mat Matthews; "The World's Greatest Ballets"; "Arias From The World's Great Operas" by The Milan Symphony Orchestra; "Holiday In Havana" by Noro Morales; "The New Sound of the Ink Spots"; "Golden Era Of Glen Miller—Vol. II"; "Waltz Time In Vienna" by The Symphony of The Air; "Hi Fi Harmonica Over Broadway" by Stan Fisher; "Sacred Country And Western Songs" by Texas Jim Robertson; "Holiday In Manhattan" by Addison Bailey; "Flamenco Festival in Hi Fi" by Nino de Alicante; "Red Head" by Rex Stewart; "Marches Of John Philip Sousa" by 99 Men In Brass; "Songs Of Faith" by Alan Dean and "Annie Get Your Gun" b/w "Call Me Madam."

Mercury Sets Planning Meets In West; Mid-West, East

CHICAGO—Mercury Records this week begins a series of planning meets to be held in the West, Mid-West and East. Successively scheduled are conclaves at Los Angeles (19 & 20); Chicago (21 & 22); and New York (26 & 27).

In attendance at all of the meets will be Irving Green, president; Irwin H. Steinberg, vice-president & treasurer; Kenneth Myers, vice-president in charge of sales; David Carroll, who heads the Chicago division of Mercury's recording staff, and Clyde Otis, who heads Mercury's New York pop division. Representing the classical division will be Wilma Cozart, vice-president in charge of development of the Mercury classical catalog.

Charles Fach, Mercury's singles sales & production manager, will attend the Mid-West and East as well as Merle Chirado, director of the label's art & merchandising departments. Marvin Wolfberg, Mercury's controller, will participate in the Mid-West meet. John Woolford, who is in charge of sales for classical product, will be in attendance at the Eastern and Mid-Western meets. The classical department will also be supported at the Eastern meets by Clair Van Ausdall. Harold Belford Hendricks of Mercury's New York pop department will give support to Otis at the Eastern meet.

Mercury has, over its 15-year existence, strongly believed in the attendance of salesmen at planning meets. The forums are specifically designed so that salesmen, distributor, regional field deejay man, and the field deejay men meet in conference on situations most closely related to their location. Says Green, "Mercury relies very heavily upon the observation and opinions of the salesman in the field."

Meet format encompasses the use of slide film, display material and other visual aids which serve to develop data as it concerns the growth of the industry. The day's agenda will be devoted to a recording program, the support to be given product by advertising and merchandising departments, and the presentation of a "strong" fall sales program. Second day is devoted to individual conferences with distributors and promotion men dealing with their specific problems in the field and their regional participation in the fall selling plan.

Mercury announced it would put increased emphasis in its album product. This will be done through the introduction of a new international series and through the development of a "completely new type of sound series."

Burgess Meredith Among
 3 New Epic Pactees
NEW YORK—Epic Records, in a move to expand and strengthen its overall catalog, last week signed three artists in as many categories, according to Al Shulman, general manager for the label.

Key signing involved noted actor Burgess Meredith and represents Epic's "recognition of the growing importance of spoken word albums," Shulman said. Meredith's first album is presently being written by Dickson Hall, American author and composer of folk songs, who wrote the album, "And God Said," recorded for Epic by Dana Andrews. Aside from his role as narrator, Meredith will sing on the album.

Remaining artists were signed in New Orleans by Jim Fogelsong, Popular A&R producer for the label. They include a folk group, The Dauphin Trio, recently formed on the campus at Mississippi Southern College, and currently playing its first professional engagement at Place Elegante in New Orleans, and Morgus the Magnificent, local television favorite in New Orleans, who will record comedy albums featuring some of his routines.

Randall's Island Convenes
 For Fifth Annual Jazz Fest
NEW YORK—The jazz eyes and ears of the world will be focused upon New York this weekend as the Randall's Island Jazz Festival enters its fifth annual session. Now that the future of the Newport Festival is uncertain, even more emphasis is being placed upon the success of the New York fest. Producer Franklin Geltman has gone all-out to secure the finest lineup of talent to present to the convening thousands.

Aside from the normal complement of top jazz names present, the festival will once again present new, deserving talent to the public at its "twilight jazz" session, just preceding each evening's concert. Chosen for public display this year are the George Braithwaite Quartet, a two-year-old group which has scored many successes in Paris and Germany; the Gap Mangione Sextet from Rochester, N.Y., which just completed a national tour, and the Bob Dorough Trio, led by a versatile vocalist-pianist-arranger-composer-lyricist.

These three groups will begin playing 7:30 PM on Friday and Saturday, and at 6:30 PM on Sunday. The finalized lineup for the three evening concerts are as follows: Friday—Count Basie featuring Joe Williams, Dizzy Gillespie Quintet, Horace Silver Quintet, Chris Connor, Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers, the Jazztet and Herbie Mann's Afro-Jazz Sextet.

Saturday: Duke Ellington Orch., Thelonius Monk Quintet, Dakota Staton, Modern Jazz Quartet, Cannonball Adderley Quintet, Chico Hamilton Quintet, John Coltrane Quartet. Sunday: Miles Davis Quintet, Dinah Washington, Dave Brubeck Quartet, Lambert-Hendricks-Ross, Less McCann Trio and Maynard Ferguson Orch.

Expect Anti-Payola Bill In Current Senate Session
 After Subcommittee Halts Hearings

WASHINGTON—Passage by the Senate of an anti-payola bill is a strong likelihood in this special session of Congress. This was the indication after hearings by the Senate Commerce Communications Subcommittee ended after just one day, evidently to get Senate and White House OK for the bill before Congress adjourns. The bill would make payola a Federal crime.

At presstime, representatives of the FCC and the American Bar Association were working on revisions which were scheduled to be ready at 5 PM, Friday (12).

Subcommittee chairman John O. Pastore, Democrat of Rhode Island, objected to the bill's provision which empowers the FCC to suspend broadcasting licenses up to ten days for violation of the FCC code. Pastore felt that this would mean an unnecessary penalty against the communities which the stations serve.

Present to endorse the bill, FCC

Chairman Frederick W. Ford said the suspension provision would give the agency needed "flexibility." He felt, however, that he would rather have the suspension provision eliminated than have no bill at all.

Witnesses who attacked the suspension provision included National Association of Broadcasters' vice-president for government relations Vincent Wasilewski, who said that the FCC's power to issue cease-and-desist orders—which if violated can lead to criminal fines—gave the FCC sufficient power against violations. Wasilewski also put a finger on the provision for fines, which involve up to a $1,000 a day for violations. He said that fines could be imposed on outlets for "intangibilities." The suspension provision was also hit by the testimony of station execs.

The bill was supported by the American Civil Liberties Union and Stanley Ballard, secretary of the American Federation of Musicians.

Capitol "Musical Cruise" LP Tied-In With Navigation Co.

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records will release in October "Ports of Paradise," an album inspired by and dedicated to some of the most beautiful pieces of land in the world—Tahiti, New Zealand, Fiji, Samoa, and Hawaii. The album spotlights the combined talents of composer-conductor Alfred Newman, winner of eight Academy Awards, and choral director and arranger Ken Darby, who has one "Oscar" to his credit. Featured on two tracks is Capitol's popular singer, Samoa-born Mavis Rivers.

"Paradise" was produced by Capitol in association with the Matson Navigation Company, which invested a substantial amount of money in the production of the album. Capitol and Matson executives are currently mapping an extensive joint promotional campaign, details of which will be revealed within a few weeks.

In addition to the interpretations of Newman and Darby, the album offers a 15-page booklet containing a description of the musical voyage, plus 19 full-color photographs.

"Paradise" is the second Newman-Darby collaboration in an album of Polynesian music. Several years ago, the pair conceived "The Magic Islands," a very successful album of Hawaiian songs released by Decca Records nearly three years ago.

Newman and Darby first worked together in 1950 when Newman, then musical director at 20th Century-Fox, sent Darby to Hawaii to gather material for the film "Bird of Paradise." They since have collaborated on music for the film versions of "Carousel," "The King And I," and "South Pacific."

Capitol Reveals Slight Decline; Competition, Strike Cited

HOLLYWOOD—As a result of "increased competitive conditions and an extended work stoppage at the company's Scranton (Pa.) manufacturing plant," a slight decline in net sales for the fiscal year ending July 30, 1960, has been reported by Capitol Records, Inc., in its annual report issued last week.

In a letter to Capitol's shareholders, dated June 29, 1960, Capitol's president and co-founder, Glenn E. Wallich, revealed that Capitol's net sales for the fiscal year just ended totaled $46,868,096, down approximately six per cent from the $49,266,860 reported for the 1959 fiscal year. Sales for the 1960 fiscal year represented an increase of approximately six per cent over sales for the fiscal year 1958.

According to Wallich, "Both sales and profits were adversely affected by the first work stoppage at the company's principal plant at Scranton, Pennsylvania, in the fourteen years since its acquisition." The Scranton work stoppage was in effect for over seventy days early in the fiscal year.

The decline marked the first time in six years that the company's net sales have not registered an increase over those of a preceding year.

Net income for the 1960 fiscal year was $1,796,233, equivalent to $3.77 a share on the average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the year. This compared with a net of $2,756,770 ($5.79 a share) for the fiscal year 1959.

"The company's financial position continues strong," said the president, "with cash and marketable securities, alone, substantially equal to all current liabilities. Its ultra modern, new West Coast plant, officially opened at Los Angeles on January 22, 1960, was established entirely out of current funds without borrowing.

"Our company is well staffed and has an efficient production organization. With our modern plants and over $12,500,000 working capital, we are in a strong position to meet the existing highly competitive situation," the president's report continued.

In his letter to shareholders, Wallich reviewed highlights of the Company's operations for the fiscal year just closed:

"Capitol released the original cast albums of the Pulitzer prize-winning musical, 'Fiorello!' and the season's most successful off-Broadway show, 'Little Mary Sunshine,' and original soundtrack albums from the great music comedy motion pictures 'Can-Can' and 'Bells Are Ringing.'

"Three great new operatic recordings of significance throughout the musical world were released: Victoria de Los Angeles in Bizet's 'Carmen' on the Capitol-EMI label and Maria Callas in Donizetti's 'Lucia di Lammermoor' and Puccini's 'Manon Lescaut' on the Angel label.

"Capitol albums 'The Music Man,' 'The Kingston Trio' and 'The Kingston Trio at Large' qualified for the Record Industry Association of America Gold Record award for sales in excess of $1,000,000 each.

"Financing for Meredith Willson's sequel to his Broadway hit, 'The Music Man,' was arranged by Capitol, which will release the original cast album late this year—the title, 'The Unsinkable Molly Brown.'

"The National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences ('NARAS') presented its top 'Grammy' awards to Nat King Cole, Jonah Jones, The Kingston Trio, Billy May and Frank Sinatra, and to the Angel album 'Peter and the Wolf' featuring Peter Ustinov."

DeCastros Swing

LOS ANGELES—The DeCastro Sisters are caught whooping it up in their nitery act to entertain the crowds of Angelenos who turned out to great them at the Interlude. King Bows Int'l Label

CINCINNATI—King Records' prexy Syd Nathan has announced the addition of an International Series to the label. During his trip to Europe last February, Nathan made many deals for the exclusive release here by King of albums from many countries. Five albums have already been released.

In order to "acquaint" the trade with King International, the label is offering this month a deal whereby a distrib receives one LP free for every four he purchases.

Ace Sues Fire Over Marchan; Injunction Issued Against Hit

NEW YORK—A full injunction has been issued against the sale and distribution of Fire Records' Bobby Marchan hit, "There's Something On Your Mind." The injunction—issued August 5 by Judge Alexander Bicks of the Federal District Court of New York City—is a result of a $1,000,000 suit against Fire by Ace Records, which claims to have Marchan under contract. According to Ace, Marchan signed a one-year pact with the diskery on August 10, 1959, including four options.

Publisher Correction

NEW YORK—Last week's ad on behalf of Connie Francis' "Malaguena" single incorrectly spelled the publisher's name. It should have read Edward B. Marks Music Corporation.

Maverick Riding High

HOLLYWOOD—Gary 'Flip' Paxton and Kim Fowley, owners of Maverick Music announced last week that their newly formed publishing, management and production firm is enjoying its most successful endeavors to date.

The firm's biggest money maker is "Alley Oop" by the Hollywood Argyles, which was produced and co-published by the 21 year old musical and promotion team. The firm's latest production, "Honest I Do" on Indigo Records by the Innocents, is showing regional reaction, according to the firm. Paxton and Fowley published the song, produced the disk, and set up national distribution for the label.

Paxton also doubles as lead singer of the Hollywood Argyles and Flip of the Skip and Flip duo whose latest release of "Teenage Honeymoon" is published by Maverick Music. Paxton and Fowley also have in release, "Walk Right In" by Richard Berry on Warner Bros. records and "The FBI Story" by Red West on Jaro records.

Maverick is currently gathering together some of the top artists in the country in the formation of a rock and roll package to be booked by the Artist's Management Bureau, which works closely with Maverick Music in promotion, exploitation and booking.

New Glad Offices

NEW YORK—Sidney Schwartz, president of Glad Records, this city, has announced the removal of the Glad offices from 11 West 42nd St. to larger quarters at 560 Fifth Ave.

Beer Belles

NEW YORK — The six contestants for Miss Rheingold 1961 made their annual pilgrimage to WGM to record station breaks and electioneering announcements for airing over the station.

Seated at the table are Robert Weenolson and Walter Reed of Foote, Cone & Belding advertising agency, and Arthur Tolchin, exec veepee and director of WGM. The six pretties are Peggy Jacobsen, Linda Bromley, Liz Gardner, Janet Mick, Barbara Weingarh and Annette Cash.

Nash A Smash

NEW YORK—Following his July smash three-nighter at Basin Street East, Johnny Nash is being brought back to the N.Y. jazz spot for two weeks, beginning August 11. Above, the ABC-Paramount artist is pictured at a rehearsal for the opening. Am-Par is tying-in with the songster's club date by rush-releasing a single coupling, "Looks Like The End Of The World" and "We Kissed."

Presley Signs For Mirisch Pic

NEW YORK—Elvis Presley has been signed by the Mirisch Company to star in "Pioneer, Go Home," a family comedy flick set in Florida, indie filmmaker's topper Harold J. Mirisch announced last week. Based on a novel by Richard Powell, the vehicle will be filmed sometime next year. Special songs will be written. United Artists will release the film.

The RCA Victor star made his film debut in 1958 with "Love Me Tender," and has since starred in "Loving You," "King Creole," and "Jailhouse Rock," and most recently, "G.I. Blues."

Newport Fest Asks $450,000 From City

NEW YORK—The Newport Jazz Festival has filed a $450,000 damage suit against the city for the cancellation of its license for a jazz festival over the July 4th weekend. The City Council cancelled the concerts after rioting by youngsters.

A notice of claim was filed with the City Clerk, and if not answered in two weeks a suit may be brought against the City Treasurer.

The notice said the City Council move was "premature, illadvised, illegal, and unjustified." Also alleged is that the festival, unable to fulfill contracts with artists and ticket holders, suffered a financial loss, and its world-wide fame and reputation was damaged.

The festival's directors originally voted a $4,000,000 suit against the city.

Roulette Teams Sarah, Williams, Basie On Disk

NEW YORK—Sarah Vaughan, Joe Williams and The Count Basie Orchestra have been teamed for the first time on disks in a Roulette single issued last week, "If I Were A Bell." Idea for the session came about a few months ago when the two singers appeared together at a jazz concert in Madison Square Garden, and got a big response to their duet of "Teach Me Tonight." The label's distribs previewed the deck at the recent Miami meet. The label reports a heavy initial order response to the side.

Alias Seville

LOS ANGELES—Ross Bagdasarian, known to novelty record fans throughout the country as "David Seville," creator and solo performer on the popular Chipmunk disks, records for Liberty Records under his own name for the first time with a new single "Lazy Lovers" and "One Finger Waltz."

Columbia's Raggedy Rag-Timers

Pre-Historic Promo

NEW YORK—A new Capitol single, "Brontosaurus Stomp" by the Pilt-down Men, is getting the novelty promotion treatment. In Seattle, a radio station with a TV affiliate is asking teeners to come-up with a dance to be tagged to "The Brontosaurus Stomp." At the end of the month, all the contestants will appear on a TV show for judging, and the winning couple will receive a quantity of Capitol LP's. The TV show will be kinscoped and sent to Capitol in Hollywood, and the diskery will consider using or making another film of the winning couple and their dance for distribution around the country. Record hops in Grand Rapids and Lansing, Mich. are expected to enter the contest too.

In Cincinnati, dejas are receiving live lizards as a "baby brontosaurus" gimmick, and key stations in Detroit are receiving miniature dinosaurs.

Roulette Buys 2 Masters

NEW YORK—Roulette Records has acquired two West Coast masters from Jet Records. "Where Yo Is," an instrumental by Fat Daddy Holmes, will remain on the Jet label, but will now be distributed through the network of Roulette distributors. "No More," by Lucia and Johnny, has been transferred to the Roulette label.

Coast Pub Rep Retires

HOLLYWOOD — Gerri Green, with Joy Music for over seventeen years and serving as West Coast rep for the firm since 1951, has announced her retirement. "I would like more time to devote to my family," was the reason she gave. Miss Green regards herself as the first female song-plugger in the business.

Disk List Addition

NEW YORK—The following label should be added to the list of disk manufacturers which appeared in the 18th Anniversary issue (July 30):
 Rodeo Records of Canada Ltd.,
 135 Granville St.,
 Halifax, Nova Scotia

Correct Cosnat Chi Site

NEW YORK—Cosnat Distributing has noted that the address of its new Chicago branch should have been reported as 1414 So. Michigan Ave.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

Great Golden Hits

"GREAT GOLDEN HITS"—Billy Vaughn and his Orchestra—Dot DLP 3288

A complete change from the Vaughn diet of shimmering sax's and teen beats. Here the immensely popular orkster pays his dues to the great swing era bands in arrangements which emulate the original sounds which floated off the bandstands in the 30's and 40's. Selections include "Stardust" (Shaw), "Cherokee" (Barnett), "The Elks Parade" (Sherwood), "Tippin' In" (Hawkins) and others. No originality but lots of saleability.

"MORE ENCORE OF GOLDEN HITS"—The Platters—Mercury SR 60252

Followup to the group's recent "Encore" hit album includes such recent singles hits as "Where," "Harbor Lights" and "Sleepy Lagoon" (the latter two originally came from their "Reflections" LP). Other fine selections include "That Old Feeling," "Don't Blame Me" and "To Each His Own." Powerful pop merchandise.

"THE BEST OF PEGGY LEE"—Decca DXB 164

This two disk album compiled from the lark's days with Decca include her superb, unforgettable performances of "Where Can I Go Without You," "Black Coffee," "Lover," "Baubles and Beads," "My Heart Belongs To Daddy" and "I'm Glad There Is You." An attractive, exciting concert by one of the most artistic of singers on the scene. Probable chart material.

"THIS AND THAT"—Pat Boone—Dot DLP 3285

Title refers to the songster's versatility and session goes all out to prove it with a selection of tunes that take Boone through the ropes of ballads, bounce, blue moods. Listed among them are "Didn't It Rain," "Bewildered," "It's Been A Long, Long Time," "Jimmy Brown The Newsboy" and "Heart Full Of Happiness." The Boone name marks it for sure stardom.

"MY GOLDEN FAVORITES"—Jackie Wilson—Brunswick BL 54058

The frantic Wilson hits of the past are reviewed in this collection with the peppery songster offering such chart toppers as "Talk That Talk," "I'll Be Satisfied," "Lonely Teardrops," "To Be Loved" and "That's Why," plus others of lesser hit status. Has scorability for the teen mart.

"MARTIN DENNY'S EXOTIC SOUNDS VISIT BROADWAY"—Liberty LRP 3163

After visiting the "Silver Screen" successfully, the Denny Group jaunts to B'way for material for its unique "exotic" stylings. On the Great White Way Denny finds pickings good, coming up with "My Funny Valentine," "Strike Up The Band," "Carousel Waltz," "September Song" and "Clap Yo' Hands," all rendered in the subtle, sultry Denny manner. Denny's chart-bound again.

"TONIGHT!"—Roger Williams At Town Hall—Kapp KXL-5008

Two-pocket LP contains selections in the Williams repertoire which he put on display at NY's Town Hall earlier this year. The program is all-encompassing, comprising selections in the classical, semi-classical, pop and folk catalogs. Performances are of course done with the familiar Williams flourish and should provide his fans with another listening treat.

"SOLID AND RAUNCHY"—Bill Black's Combo—Hi HL 12003

The organ-sax-teen beat sound of the combo is heard to good rocking advantage on past pop hits "Blueberry Hill," "Don't Be Cruel," "Mack The Knife," "Tequila" and eight others. Definitely "solid and raunchy"; big potential on the teen scene.

"ALONE TOGETHER"—Tony Bennett—Columbia CL 1471

The song stylist trolls a deliciously fragrant mood of romantica, using as his vehicles "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," "It's Magic," "Sophisticated Lady," "This Is All I Ask" and eight others. His sensitive, personal portrayals are engulfed in effective ork-chorus stagings set up by Frank DeVol. Superb addition to the songster's Columbia collection.

"HARRY JAMES... TODAY!"—MGM E3848

The new James ork is a full-throated ensemble with a driving punch, accented by a handful of capable soloists. Much thanks for the ork's critical success must go to arranger Ernie Wilkins, who shares the duties here with Bob Florence, offering pungent charts of oldies "Undecided," "Lester Leaps In," "King Porter Stomp" and "Jersey Bounce." Rates a fine reception from the more swing-minded jockeys.

"THE MAGIC OF EARL GRANT"—Decca DL 74044

Romantic ballad roundup by the songster reveals his capacity to invest such material with genuine feelings. His mature vocal approach does honorable justice to "Try A Little Tenderness," "The Folks Who Live On The Hill," "Not One Minute More" and "It's Magic." Jack Pleis' soft-light arrangements are truly collaborative, giving Grant a sturdy mood foundation upon which to build excitingly. Excellent vocal session.

"MURDER, INC."—Original Film Soundtrack—Canadian-American CALP 1003

This soundtrack scores a triumph on several points. The presence of Sarah Vaughan on a ballad and a full-bodied swinger ("The Awakening" and "Fan My Brow") is of first importance. The score as a whole is diverse, offering dramatic jazz, lighthearted bright spots in the style of the Thirties (the setting of the flick), and even a vocal with chorus by star May Britt. Film's popularity can reflect in disk sales.

"BRAZEN BRASS"—Henry Jerome and his Orchestra—Decca DL 74056

By using two distinct brass sections, one open, one muted, orkster Jerome has produced an interesting "sound" album. Open brass to the left, muted to the right, in call-and-response action or woven together in ensemble, and tied up neatly by the rhythm section in the middle. This is the ork setup from which comes soundsational readings of "Stompin' At The Savoy," "Bugle Call Waltz," "Over The Rainbow" and "One O'Clock Jump." Merits attention from the audio buffs.

"THE NEW SOUND AMERICA LOVES BEST"—John Klein-Sid Ramin—RCA Victor LSP-2237

Titled after the label's promo theme, this set is Victor's entry into the "sound" sweepstakes. Collaborationists John Klein, carillonner, and orkster Sid Ramin have put together a fascinating music whirl of "The 3rd Man Theme," "In The Still Of The Night," "Around The World," "Blue Tango" and "Whistle While You Work." Ramin's arrangements really swing vigorously and Klein's chimes are delightful additions to the entire fabric. Solid choice for the hi-finatics.

Album Reviews

"THE MUSICAL WORLD OF COLE PORTER"
—The Starlight Symphony conducted by Cyril Ornadel—MGM E3843

Porter's musical world is the most adult of all, especially lyric-wise. In Ornadel's latest musical tribute to the great pop composers in his series, Porter's unforgettably lilting melodies take hold in an entrancing orchestral settings. The package embraces 19 Porter tunes, among which are "Night And Day," "Let's Do It," "Begin The Beguine," "My Heart Belongs To Daddy," "All Of You" and "You're The Top." A happy assemblage of instrumentals.

"THE MELODIES OF ROBERT STOLZ"—MGM E3851

Stolz directs his work in a program of his own works. The modern day waltz king, Stolz is responsible for an amazing output of material—all in the familiar Viennese idiom. Selections, played with a charming romantic lilt, here include the famous "Two Hearts In 3/4 Time" plus "When April Sings," "The Woods Of Vienna Are Calling," "Your Eyes" and "Don't Ask Me Why." Fine mood enchantress.

"THE TROUBADORS TAKE YOU DANCING"
—Kapp KL-1198

A roundup of continental lovelies romantically played for dancing. The group's shimmering string-accordion touch is the mood feature on "Beyond The Sea," "Fascination," "Harbor Lights," "Three Coins In The Fountain" and "Friendly Persuasion." Pleasant listening/dancing set.

"LIKE SOUL!"—Gloria Smyth—World Pacific WP 1293

This first album by Miss Smyth marks her as a promising new jazz-oriented singer. Working through a warmly personal delivery—somewhat like Dinah Washington's—she wraps her throaty voice intimately around the ballads ("Time After Time," "Motherless Child") and is a crafty, clever surveyor of the swingers ("Running Wild," "Sometimes I'm Happy," "Imagination"). Backing is alternately by four West Coast jazz combos, which fits her style admirably. Give her room.

"INTRODUCING LINDA LAWSON"—Chancellor CHLS-5010

TV actress ("Adventures in Paradise") Lawson makes her vocal debut and proves a capable songstress. She has Marty Paich's valuable arranging talents, which have surrounded her with top musicians playing sensible orchestrations. Her repertoire runs to such diverse material as "Easy to Love," "Mood Indigo," "Me And My Shadow" and "Hi-lili-Hi-Lo."

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

"MAKE EVERYBODY HAPPY"—The MJT plus 3—Vee Jay LP 3008

The group's first Vee Jay LP made jazz people everywhere sit up and take notice of it—it had something definite to say and said it in exciting, convincing jazz terms. Now with some recognition under its belt, the Chicago-based quintet reels off another delicious session which includes penetrating performances of "The Trolley Song," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "Sweet Silver" and 4 more. This "close-in" group moves as a single unit, an individual one, and speaks strongly of fame.

"MORE PARTY TIME"—Arnett Cobb—Prestige 7175

A more swinging Cobb horn hasn't been heard in years. Teamed with the more modern minds of Tommy Flanagan, Arthur Taylor, Sam Jones, Bobby Timmons (one track), and others, Cobb emerges on this disk with a modern outlook of his own. His tenor cuts a fine figure on stalwarts "Down By The Riverside," "Lover Come Back to Me" and bluesers "Blue Lou," "Blue Me." The presence of conga drummer Buddy Clark adds a colorful rhythmic spark to the date. A new, vigorous Cobb.

"JAZZ SONG BOOK"—Les Brown—Coral CRL 757311

This is nothing like the Les Brown band of late. It's a new pungent outfit, made so by the arranging pen of Bill Holman. Holman has written a set of charts which swing madly and has used as soloists Zoot Sims, Terry Gibbs, Buddy DeFranco, Ronnie Lang, Don Fagerquist and Frank Rosolino. These are the men that carry the weight of the date, speaking vibrantly on "Chelsea Bridge," "Apple Honey," "S'Wonderful," "Let's Get Away From It All" and "I Remember You." Rip-snorting big band date with lots to recommend it for the jazz counter.

"EARLY IN THE MORNING"—Lorez Alexandria with the Ramsey Lewis Trio—Argo LP 663

Miss Alexandria is that rare blues singer who doesn't reply on shouts and growls to get her message across. Rather, a deep-seated warmth and deft musicianship in phrasing and timing enables her to reach out and engulf the listener in a blue enchantment few attain. Instrumentally she leans here on the rhythmic Lewis trio plus Basieites Joe Newman, Frank Wess, Frank Foster, Al Grey and the indomitable Freddie Green. Her selections comprise the best blues ballads available—"Good Morning Heartache," "Rocks In My Bed," "Trouble Is a Man," "I Almost Lost My Mind" and the superb title tune. A major new voice on the jazz scene.

"THE BEAT FOR THIS GENERATION"—Sal Salvador and his Orchestra—Decca DL 74026

One of the original basic tenets of jazz—the dancing beat—is an important ingredient in the Salvador sound. Yet it doesn't prevent him from achieving an ultra-modern sound that is "way-out" but also colorful, warm, appealing and good! The leader's guitar is the main solo instrument, weaving a many-hued jazz fabric on "That Old Feeling," "But Beautiful," "I'm Glad There Is You," "The Continental" and 8 others. Salvador preaches a beat sermon that many could learn from.

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

PUCCHINI: "Turandot"—Brigit Nilsson, Renata Tebaldi, Jussi Bjoerling, Giorgio Tozzi, Rome Opera House Orchestra and Chorus conducted by Erich Leinsdorf—RCA Victor LM-6149

An outstanding cast has been assembled for Victor's first waxing of the great Puccini opera. Under Leinsdorf's perceptive direction the opera jells into a compelling disk performance. Stereo directionality is used admirably, creating the illusion of stage movement throughout the three disk set. Rivals the best of previous releases.

PROKOFIEFF: "Peter and the Wolf," Jose Ferrer, narrator; KHACHATURIAN: "Masquerade Suite"—The Vienna State Opera Orchestra, Sir Eugene Goossens, conducting—Kapp 6002

The ever-popular Prokofieff children's tale is in capable narrating hands in Jose Ferrer, who lends his own characteristic warmth to the telling of the charming story. Children will also be delighted by the bristling, bright Kachaturian melodies which occupy side two in the five part "Masquerade Suite." Perennial favorites.

GRIEG: Concerto in A Minor for Piano and Orch; SCHUMANN: Concerto in A Minor for Piano and Orch.—Leon Fleisher, pianist, George Szell conducting the Cleveland Orch.—Epic LC 3689

Again Szell and Fleisher have collaborated to provide classical fans with another meritorious performance. The coupling of these two works on the same disk is commonplace but still shows up the remarkable similarities and differences in them, and Fleisher's calculating efficiency accents them even more. Takes its place in illustrious disk company.

ENGLAND

The "to be or not to be released" decision by Decca regarding the controversial stateside hit "Tell Laura I Love Her" by Ray Peterson has again been under review. A spokesman for Decca last week told The Cash Box that: "Resulting from a meeting of the board of directors a final decision has now been reached cancelling its release altogether in this country as unsuitable from both a taste and timing point of view." There are, however, two releases of the number here one by Ricky Valance on Columbia and another by John Leyton on Top Rank. Published in England by Lawrence Wright and in Italy, France, Belgium and Switzerland by Ivan Mogull.

Now in its fifth week the "Teen and Twenty Disc Club," one of the most original ventures to be tried on radio and the only club of its kind on the air, has already attracted 10,000 members with some 1,500 new recruits joining every week. The program goes out every Wednesday on Radio Luxembourg with deejay Jimmy Savile in charge. Man behind the idea, S.A. Beecher-Stevens, general sales manager for Decca, which sponsors the program, told The Cash Box that the club aims to forge a common link between record listeners throughout the world. Members receive a membership card and a badge and added facilities are planned for the future, including regular news sheets and special privileges. Initial response has been most encouraging not only from listeners in this country but from France, Italy, Germany and Scandinavia. Although sponsored by Decca, disks representing all labels are played in the program, which also features requests, competitions and prizes. Plans are under way for the show to tour the nation making recordings in various youth clubs etc.

In the classical field, Decca this month recorded in Vienna an all star album of "Die Fledermaus" for November release. Singers include Eberhard Waechter, Erika Koth, Walter Berry, Hilde Gueden, Erich Kunz, Regina Resnik, and Giuseppe Zampieri with The Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Herbert Von Karajan on two 12" LP's. The album will also contain a third LP specially recorded by guest artists as a cabaret for the ballroom scene. Among the famous artists who will be heard singing numbers not usually associated with them and of a predominately lighter nature will be Jussi Bjorling, Birgit Nilsson, Teresa Berganza, Mario Del Monaco, Joan Sutherland, Ljuba Welitsch and Renata Tebaldi.

It has been revealed that as a result of discussions between Eddie Pola, Granada TV Variety director and Bob Weiss, international director of Warner Bros. Records, negotiations are under way to bring America's latest comedian Bob Newhart (whose LP "The Button Down Mind of Bob Newhart" is currently topping The Cash Box best selling LP list) to London for appearances with Granada TV in October. Weiss has been in transatlantic communication with Warner Bros. Record president James B. Conkling in California regarding the offer and a decision is expected shortly. Meantime, Weiss has left for Scandinavia and Germany. Newhart's LP is due for release here at the end of August.

Less than a month after the Newport Jazz Festival disaster, similar disturbances brought chaos to last Saturday's opening night of this year's Fifth Beaulieu Jazz Festival, organized by Lord Montagu on the grounds of his Hampshire home and attended by 10,000 jazz enthusiasts. The rioting, believed to have been planned by some 100 dissenting teenagers, broke out during a BBC TV broadcast of the festival, bringing the transmission to an untimely end, as trouble-makers climbed the scaffolding carrying arc lamps, cameras and equipment bringing them crashing to the ground. Others stormed the bandstand wrecking and stealing instruments and music. Extra police were called to restore order while firemen fought a fire which broke out in nearby buildings. Several people were injured during the melee and at least five were taken to hospital. Determined to see the three-day festival through, Lord Montagu enlisted the help of volunteers who spent Sunday morning clearing up the debris and although there was no further trouble it is certain that this will be the last Jazz Festival in its present form ever to be held at Beaulieu.

Manufacturers sales of records in May this year were valued at £942,000, which was 4% more than in May 1959. However, export sales were 13% less than a year ago. Total sales for the first five months of this year were 17% more than in 1959 reaching £5.6 million. During this time 40% more 45 disks and 20% more 33 disks were produced than in the same period last year. Production of 78's singles fell by 60%.

Following its highly successful Trade Exhibition held for the first time last year, Thompson Diamond and Butcher Ltd. one of this country's leading record factors, will again be having a similar exhibition this year at London's Trocadero Restaurant, Piccadilly Circus, from August 23 to September 1, coinciding with the Radio Show scheduled for the same period at Earls Court. This is the only event of its kind to be held by a manufacturer and distributor and all the many retail products handled by T.D. & B. will be exhibited and demonstrated including record reproducers, hi-fi equipment, tape recorders, radios, television and radiograms, phonos and record component items plus domestic household appliances. In addition to the exhibition, other facilities include telephones in all rooms, refreshments, a private bar, discussion room etc. with T.D. & B. Technical and sales staff in attendance to deal with visitors' enquiries.

Ivan Mogull flew into London last week for discussions with executives of various publishing houses including Ben Nisbet of Feldmans, sole selling agents for "Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polkadot Bikini" for which Mogull has the foreign rights in this country, France, Italy, Holland and Luxembourg. He will also confer with Bob Kingston of Southern Music and David Platz of Essex. Mogull also plans to discuss the release of his Continental hit, "Oh, Oh, Rosie." The original Rocco Granata version will be released here on Oriole with an instrumental by Perez Prado on RCA. Other versions by Marino Mariani on Durium and Lou Monte on Columbia. English cover disks are also planned. Mogull has another Continental hit "Mustapha" with lyrics by Bob Merrill retitled "The Sheik of Chicago," released in the States by The Four Lads on Columbia and for release here on Philips together with an instrumental by Archie Bleyer on Cadence in America and London in this country. He also plans to promote for the first time in England an elementary piano tutor "Trichord" successfully published in the States by Charles Hansen—including "Running Bear," "Itsy Bitsy Yellow Polkadot Bikini" and several other Mogull hits. During his visit to London, Mogull met up with Nat "King" Cole and his family and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cavenagh of Capitol Records in Hollywood who are accompanying Cole to Cannes for his appearance there on August 5 at an Annual Gala Charity Show. Mogull left last weekend for Rome where he will join Vic Damone holidaying in that city, afterwards visiting Germany and France.

Harold Shampan of Filmusic delighted with the success of the title song from the film "Doctor In Love" recorded by Richard Allan on Parlophone. Shampan in conjunction with Paul Cave (Manager for Richard Allan) has arranged for the singer to appear in a series of one night stands at all Rank cinemas in the London area a week before the film's release in each particular locality. Richard will climax his appearance with "Doctor In Love" and the trailer of the film will be shown immediately afterwards. Shampan hopes the song will complete a hat trick for Filmusic who already have two film successes in the charts "Look For A Star" by Garry Mills on Top Rank from "Circus of Horrors" and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" by Adam Faith on Parlophone from "Never Let Go".

Evelyn Taylor, manager for Adam Faith, told The Cash Box on her return from New York that negotiations are under way for Faith to make a film in Hollywood. Executives of MGM were most impressed by extracts shown them by Miss Taylor of his British picture, "Never Let Go". A deal was also set for agent, Irving Chezar to represent Faith in the States. Both sides of his latest disk "Made You" and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" are in the British charts.

Paying her first visit to this country star Mercury artist Ernestine Anderson flew into London last week from Sweden, where she has toured with Rolf Ericson's American All Stars and made an LP for a Swedish label. The star was warmly and enthusiastically welcomed at a reception hosted by Mercury at EMI's Manchester Square headquarters. Ernestine is here for cabaret appearances in Manchester and at London's Society Restaurant plus radio and television spots. Her latest single "A Kiss To Build A Dream On" backed with "Come On Baby Lets Go" is selling well.

Breaking away from his company's general policy of releasing only 12" LP's Sidney Frey, president of the American Audio Fidelity Incorporated, New York, and managing director of Audio Fidelity (England) Ltd. has given the all clear for the English company to issue 45 extended play monaural and stereo disks for the British and European markets. Like the LP's in the current English catalog, these will be mastered in New York and pressed in this country. Frey considers that this combination of American and British techniques is responsible for the high standard of his products. Retail price of these EP's has not yet been fixed but is expected to be in the region of 14/- or 15-. Repeat orders for Volume III of the Dukes of Dixieland "Marching Along" issued in July this year are the highest yet for any Audio Fidelity LP releases. In October, Audio Fidelity will distribute in this country records from the catalog of American independent company, Elektra. Initial release will include albums of Sabicas, The Limelites, Josh White, Theodore Bikel and a stereo flamenco LP "Cuadro Flamenco." These also will be pressed here from imported masters.

Owing to the continued rise in production costs EMI has increased the retail price of single and EP releases on the Columbia, H.M.V., MGM and Parlophone labels. Singles go up from 6/- to 6/4d as for Capitol and Mercury singles and EP's are stepped up from 10/7½d to 10/11½d. On the classical side price reductions have been made and the Columbia SEL EP series now sell at 13/3d including tax (old price 14/7d) and the same applies to the HMV 7 ER series. New York agent and publisher, Lee Magid, making his fifth visit to this country called the Cash Box office. Purpose of his visit is to open a new music publishing company here, Alexis Music, to be handled by Noel Rogers of Dominion Music. Magid is very pleased with the success of Della Reese's "Every Day" and "No Two Ways About It" on the RCA label. He is also promoting her latest disk, "You Are My Love," written by Ray Bloch, music director for the Ed Sullivan Show. Negotiations are also taking place with impresario Harold Davidson for Della Reese to do a series of one night stands in and around London early next year. Magid is also anxious to set up deals for British recording stars Anthony Newley and Lita Rosa to visit the States next year.

Things are really beginning to move for 17 year old Decca artist Mark Wynter. Since his discovery a year ago by manager Ray Mackender, Mark has undergone a course of intensive grooming including lessons in singing and

ITALY

The confused way that Italian festivals are organized was at last called to the attention of an official institution, the S.I.A.E. (Societa Italiana Autori Editori—Authors Publishers Italian Society), who decided as follows: From August 1st, all members of S.I.A.E. (all Italian composers and publishers) must give up the participation of new unpublished songs, music and lyrics, in public shows, nationwide, at the end of which a final list of winning tunes is voted and officially announced (nationwide shows are considered those aired on radio and TV)—for instance, the San Remo Festival and Naples Festival. If a member disregards this decision, S.I.A.E. will stop paying him the money gathered for his copyright.

The winning tunes at the Pesaro International Festival were, "E' Ritornato Il Sole" (Sun Came Back), Italian song penned by Strati-Roccella, performed by Flo Sandons and by Lia Scutari, "Hoppa Hey," Israelitic song written by Naomi Shemer and De Lorenzo, sung by Zimra Ornat and by Gino Latilla. Second winner was a Swiss song by Robbiani-Connella sung by Anita Traversi and Elda Bianchi called "Country Of Love." Umberto Bindi participated with his latest composition, "Se Ci Sei" (If You Are Here). Twelve countries were represented—Belguim, France, Germany, Holland, Hungary, Israel, Jugoslavia, Poland, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Italy. For the number of countries represented and for the fact that part of the show was aired on television, we acknowledge that the festival has reached remarkable importance.

I paid a visit to Mr. Casetta, young dynamic director of the Bluebell Recording Company and listened to the details of the company's history. Bluebell is one of the youngest Italian recording companies, established in Milan in February, 1959. The Bluebell introduction on the Italian market with "Venus" by Frankie Avalon, followed by several hits, the most important of which were "Tiger," by Fabian, "Forever" by Joe Damiano, no. 1 on Italian charts for three months, "Bobby Socks to Stockings" by Frankie Avalon, "Sleepwalk" by Santo & Johnny, "Coccinella" by Ghigo, most played in Italian juke boxes, "Marina" by Rocco Granata, and "Why" by Frankie Avalon. Just a fortnight ago, Blue bell signed a contract with Tony Dallara, the number one Italian singer known by most of the world as the "Come Prima" star. He also won the 1960 San Remo Song Festival, the most important song contest, with "Romantica." Two records by Tony Dallara have just been issued by Bluebell—"Cynzia" b/w "Verde Amore" and "Madonnina" b/w "Se Bacio La Tua Bocca," and both records have obtained an immediate reaction, particularly "Madonnina" looks like a future Italian hit. Bluebell artists, besides Tony Dallara are, Niki Davis, Carmen Villani, Paolo ed I Nordisti and Gehrardo Romanini, all new talents. The foreign repertoire is formed by the following labels: Chancellor (Frankie Avalon, Fabian and Joe Damiano); Canadian American (Santo & Johnny); 20th Fox (Al Martino); Colpix (Jimmy Darren), for the pop line. The jazz line is formed by the Sonet, Debut and Storyville labels, obtained in exclusive representation through Dansk Grammofon of Copenhagen, and Riverside, GGJ and Contemporary in exclusive distribution through Interdisc S.A. of Lugano, Switzerland.

EMI Takes Over Rank Records, England; Rank U.S. - Rank Int'l Co-op To Continue

LONDON—In a sensational development last week, Rank Records Ltd., a division of the Rank International Co-op, has withdrawn from the British disk scene. In a statement issued here jointly by the Rank Organization and EMI, it was announced that in the future the Top Rank label of Rank Records Ltd. would be handled in the United Kingdom by EMI.

Rank's American companies, Rank Records of America and Rank Records International, will continue in full operation and the U.S. disks of Rank's catalogs will continue to be released in England under the Top Rank label.

Neither company would elaborate, but a spokesman for EMI told The Cash Box that finance was not involved in the deal, but that EMI would take over all the liabilities and assets of Rank Records Ltd.

The first new releases by EMI on Top Rank will not take place until after September 1. The future of existing contracts of Top Rank artists is under negotiation.

Rank officials stated that the promotional facilities of the Rank Organization, which includes radio, television and ballrooms, will add to those of EMI.

L. G. Wood, general manager of EMI Records, was said to consider the prospect of representing the Co-Op in England to be one of the most "exciting" opportunities in the firm's history.

Direction of the Rank International Co-op will continue from the New York law offices of Paul G. Marshall under the aegis of Marshall and Vicki Rohrbach.

In another announcement, RCA Mexico, RCA Chile, Music Box in Greece and M. Kovalsky & Son Ltd. in Israel have been designated to distribute the Co-op product in those countries.

Among the artists who cut for the Co-op are such hit-makers as Jack Scott, Dee Clark, Jimmy Clanton, Freddie Cannon, Dion & The Belmonts, The Fleetwoods, and The Flamingos.

AUSTRALIA

While the present record market for singles is causing quite a deal of concern to record manufacturers throughout the nation, most companies report a slight increase in album sales. This increase, which is developing in both monaural and stereo products, is some compensation for the sharp decline in single sales.

Johnny O'Keefe has returned to the hospital for plastic surgery to the facial injuries received in his recent auto accident. As a result of a couple of benefit concerts, Johnny Grennan and his wife Jan—who were seriously injured in the accident with O'Keefe—will receive close to $1,000 in cash to help them to meet heavy medical and hospital expenses.

Paul Turner, manager of the Victorian branch of Philips Records, says that his company is delighted with their new locally recorded stereo and monaural album of the R.A.A.F. (Royal Australian Air Force) Central Band, set for release in the not too distant future under the possible title of "Marching In Hi-Fi" vol. II. Other disks by this famous band have been taken up by the American Epic label and one has been promoted to the Columbia LP Record Club. Paul Turner and Philips believe they can arrange to have this new album released throughout the world.

Mercury Records has already released Clyde McPhatters' hot new single, "Ta Ta." This one is very hot on The Cash Box Top 100 chart at the moment. Another new single on Mercury is Johnny Preston's "Feel So Fine," and the way this is shaping it could easily be bigger than Preston's previous big single in this country. "Feel So Fine" is so catchy and is receiving such tremendous disk-jockey attention that the Mercury manager, Neville Smith, is confident that it will become one of the best sellers of the year.

The top hit across the nation is "Clap Your Hands" by The Beau Marks, which is released here under the New Zealand controlled Viking label. "Clap Your Hands" is the first single to be released in Australia by Viking and naturally they are very happy with their debut on the Australian market.

To celebrate the first birthday of the Sydney vocal group, The Graduates, Rex Records—a Festival offshoot—have released a 12" album of the group simply entitled "The Graduates." The group consists of Peter Paige, Nancy Eichorn and Pat McLuskey.

W & G Records are holding a strong hand of singles at the moment: Ray Charles' "Sticks And Stones"; "Question" by Lloyd Price; JoAnn Campbell's "A Kookie Little Paradise"; "Why Why Why" by Steve Lawrence; "How Will It End" by Barry Darvell and no less than three currently hot singles by Paul Anka "My Home Town"; "Train Of Love" and "Hello Young Lovers."

The Top Rank label is more solidly represented here by a whole flock of new singles and albums that should go well. Among their singles are "Bongo Bongo Bongo" by Preston Epps; "Alley Oop" by Dante and The Evergreens; "Mule Skinner Blues" by The Fendermen; "Jump Over" by Freddy Cannon and "Down The Aisle" by Ike Clanton. In the album field, the diskery has steady items by Jack Scott and Freddy Cannon and its latest pop album, "When You Wish Upon A Star" by Dion and The Belmonts should get off the ground here.

Some promising new singles on RCA include Johnny Restivo's "That's Good That's Bad" c/w "I Can't Take It"; The Browns' "Lonely Little Robin" c/w "Margo"; Jim Reeves' "I'm Getting Better" c/w "I Know One"; Isley Bros. with "Gypsy Love Song" c/w "Open Up Your Heart" and Rosemary Clooney's "Many A Wonderful Moment" c/w "Vaya Vaya." In contrast to most other major labels here who market their singles at 10/., RCA singles still retail at the old price of 9/3d.

Everything is set for the Harry Belafonte visit to the leading cities of Australia for a rather lengthy concert tour. RCA is making a major promotional drive on the many Belafonte albums that it has available here. Because of Belafonte's popularity through films and a batch of highly successful singles, it would not be surprising to see his show create box office figures that will be hard to match.

An interesting new single from Teen Records is the German version of "A Pub With No Beer" by Bobbejan und Seine Gitarre. This number, an Australian composition, was a sensational nationwide hit here several months back.

Pye Records are stacking up a heavy promotion campaign behind their single release of young Sydney star Rob E. G. doing "Whiplash." The Pye boys predict big things for this single, the first with this young artist.

Even though he has gone across to the Coronet label, a new release by Johnny Rebb has been issued on the Lee Gordon label; it carries "Lonesome Road" and "We Belong Together." Rebb's first single for the Coronet label is the current chart contender, "How Will It End."

Lucky Starr has a new single out on Festival which looks as though it could make the grade. Top side is "Oy Yeah, That's How" and the coupler is "Sweet Georgia Brown." Starr recently enjoyed some success with a song called "Wrong" which reached many hit parades.

Joe Halford, recently appointed acting-manager of Castle Music operating from headquarters in Sydney, reports that a new EP by The Manhattan Quartet entitled "Cool Spell" looks set for stardom.

presentation. Currently appearing in a summer show at Blackpool for Harold Fielding, Mark is also lined up for broadcasting, television and a film test. Top song writer Lionel Bart, who forecasts a great future for the boy, is writing a song for him to record. Meantime his debut disk for Decca of the Stateside hit "Image Of A Girl" is getting plenty of attention.

"Image Of A Girl" is also the debut disk for Nelson Keene this time on the HMV label. Keene was recently signed by agent and manager Larry Parnes and is currently appearing at a summer show in Blackpool. The original version of "Image Of A Girl" by The Safaris is released here on Top Rank.

GERMANY

The German Air Force has named its newest jet plane after pop songstress Angele Duran. She's married to top German record producer Nils Nobach. Nils is currently readying for the German speaking wax debut of England's top teenbeater, Cliff Richard. Cliff is hot here with his latest single, "Please Don't Tease" and the EP from his new film, "Bongo Express." American trumpet man Nelson Williams had great success with a jazz concert in Stuttgart.

Will Glahe who hit the American charts with "Beer Barrel Polka" many seasons ago, has waxed a "sing-along" album for London Records. The album contains 16 standards and is set for early stateside release. Herbert Beckh, who leads the dance orchestra for Munich's South-German radio station, is vacationing in the U.S.

Buster Keaton is visiting Germany selling his old films for theatres here. Due to the great success of the Charlie Chaplin silent flicks here, distribs are hot after the Keaton series.

New York Voice of America man, Fred Jay who penned "What Am I Living For" and other top hits for the U.S. and Germany, is on vacation here, and stopped to visit V.O.A. Munich Chief Al Julia, who also had a million seller last year with "I Cried A. Tear." Both song writers are exchanging material for the U.S. and the continent, and are collaborating on several tunes for future release.

Classical music in stereo seems to be catching on here. Electrola has announced that they will release over 50 LP's featuring operetta and classical material during the month of August alone.

English songstress Maureen Renee who smashed in Moscow with Germany's Max Gregor orchestra, has turned out her first platter in German. It's a vocal version of "Theme From A Summer Place."

American and British musical comedies are again getting a big play in Germany. The trend started in "56" with "Kiss Me Kate" in Munich and Vienna, and was followed by Leonard Bernstein's "Wonderful Town." Then came "Annie Get Your Gun" which had a poor translation and was a huge flop. Bad casting was also responsible for the washout. Musical production then came to a sudden halt. Recently however, "Bells Are Ringing" starring Vico Torriani has been translated, and is now playing in Berlin and the English musical "The Crooked Mile" is set for an August 16 opening in Munich. Walter Brandin, who did the "Porgy And Bess" translation is responsible for the German lyrics.

The European Music Youth Organization has been quite active this summer. They are having a classical music conclave in Berlin, where an International youth symphony orchestra is being formed, as well as a jazz workshop in Bavaria. At present, a workshop in Electronic music is being held in Munich at the new Siemens studios here Jazz is also active in schools here. In Cologne, Dr. Dietrich Schulze-Kohn is leading a full time course in jazz history and musical theory. Members of the Kurt Edelhagen orchestra take an active part in this course.

At Knokke, Belgium, the annual "European Song Festival" was recently held. This festival concerns itself with team talent rather than individual songs and artists. Teams from Italy, France, England, Holland, Belgium and Germany were present. The German team composed of pop singers Udo Jurgens, Frank Forster, Heinz Sagner, Hannelore Auer and Inge Brandenburg took first place over the top talent from the other countries. Inge was also recently crowned Europe's number 1 female jazz singer at a competition held on the French Riviera. Will Brandes who sold 1/2 million copies of his German translation of "Marina" here, has cut his newest release entitled "Hallo Fraulein Amerika" (hello Miss America).

Top teenage teams are the newest gimmick on the German market. At present, the hottest pair is composed of Pete Kraus and Connie. The duo has made several highly successful films together, but no records were available as Peter records for Polydor and Connie for Electrola. Now the situation has been solved. Both firms have agreed to a simultaneous release of one title by the pair. The duet is from their newest film "Connie And Peter Make Music" and is titled "Sag Mir Was Du Denkst" (Tell me what you think). Since the record has huge guaranteed sales due to the popularity of the pair, both companies are working for the top "B" side. Electrola has coupled Connie with their top male teenager, Rex Gildo, in another duet thereby giving the record buyer 3 top teenage names on one single, and Polydor is releasing another song from the film with Peter Kraus alone. The song, "Va Bene" has a good chance for top honors. Both records have an August 17 release date. There's still more to be said however. Electrola has countered the Polydor move by rush releasing the same tune, "Va Bene" with Rex alone. As we mentioned before, Peter has already filmed with Connie Francis and this pair is scheduled for a big push through TV and film channels. Connie's debut will take place on a national telecast scheduled for August 18.

SCANDINAVIA

"All Swedish recordings are played over the state radio station in Sweden" declares a spokesman for the Swedish Broadcasting Company (SBC) in an interview for a Swedish trade paper. "The only possible exception is when we consider the artist or the song being of such poor quality that we decided not to play the record, but this is only an exception." The spokesman for SBC also pointed out that SBC has its own "observers" abroad, as in London, New York and Paris, etc. These "observers" are following the news in the record biz in their countries, and they buy and send to SBC all the important new releases. With the question of whether it is possible for a record company in Sweden to have a dub or test record aired before the release of the record, the spokesman pointed out that no producer can do it—if such a dub of a commercial record should be played, it calls for a decision by the board of directors at the Swedish radio. The spokesman for the Swedish radio was Sven Liljegren, handling the record library of SBC, considered as one of the greatest of its kind in the world.

Singer Anders Börje has returned to the disk scene. His new contract is with Philips-Sonora AB.

Paul Anka might come to Sweden in the near future, if anyone here can agree to pay the sum he is asking for.

Björn Fremer, publicity head of Sonet (Scandinavian Record Co.), back in town from Milan and Rome, where he was negotiating about a Scandinavian tour for Frankie Avalon in October.

Said a Soviet spokesman in an interview from East-Berlin: "We will start competing with American record companies, not in pop field, but as far as classical music is concerned. If we are successful there, it might be even a greater victory for us than our Sputniks." . . . It is reported that the Russians are planning to release some 2,500 LP's of their classical recordings in the U.S.

The Golden Gate Quartet is the head attraction at the Berns during August. They are billed together with Spanish ballet Pacita Tomas and German juggler Bob Bramson.

Monica Wahlberg, singer at the BFB label, billed at the China variety show in Stockholm during August.

Mats Olsson made an orchestration of "Mustapha Cha Cha Cha" for recording by RCA in Sweden. An American producer, who was in position to listen to it, became so enthusiastic that the company has decided to export this Swedish recording to the U.S. A Swedish paper gave the following description of "how to become a singer in America": "One has to be teenager, be able to sing so-and-so and be born with a certain amount of personal charm. To this is only added a short and easy-to-remember name and then the publicity dept. does the rest."

Bertil Englund, singer on the Sonet label in Sweden, has returned from a tour in Finland, where he went over big.

Bibi Nyström, well known to Swedish record buyers, has been pacted by Telefunken. One of the first songs she recorded for her new label was the French "Milord."

From Finland it's reported that Paul Anka and Elvis Presley recently got their own fan clubs in Finland. At the same time, it might be of interest to note that the music magazine Iskelmä recently arranged a vote among their readers to find out who is the most popular foreign singer. Elvis Presley, Paul Anka, Fabian, Pat Boone, Ricky Nelson and Cliff Richard headed the six top positions in that order.

English trumpet-player Eddie Calvert, recording on British Columbia label, clicked when he appeared at the Borgbacken outdoor amusement field in Helsinki, Finland.

In the motion picture field, the next musical film to hit Finland will be "The Gene Krupa Story."

Happy Birthday!

Lee Hartstone To Europe

NEW YORK—Lee Hartstone, London Records, vice president & general manager, has left for a several week trip to visit the London-Decca home office in England and the London-Decca affiliated companies in Germany, Belgium and France. Hartstone stated that the object of the trip was to procure material for a "rapid" expansion of the London International series.

It is reported that the success of London's "International Program" warranted an increased effort in this field.

BENELUX

Bovema's Director, Gerry M. Oord and Warner Bros. label manager A. Lamberts, went to Stockholm last week to attend the Warner Bros. convention. They discussed the many fall and winter releases of Warners with Scandinavian licensees.

Holland placed second in the recently held International Song Festival at Knokke (Belgium). The singers from Germany won first prize.

Jan van Luyk, Decca-London publicity man of L.C. Phonogram, just returned from a Vienna holiday, told The Cash Box that the records of The Blue Diamonds are getting quite popular in Germany now.

Willy Alberti, Dutch singer specializing in Italian songs, whose "Marina" was successful in the States, has a new song released on Philips that looks like a future hit: "Seranarella C'o'si e C'o'no."

Harry Finfer, president of Jamie and Guyden Records, visited Holland and had long talks with Hans Kellerman, director of Delahay Record Company L.C. Finfer was very interested in European repertoire, and will release in the U.S. a number of records, made by Benelux artists from the Delahay catalogue, a.o. the Black Dynamites recordings.

The first Rota-Print Off-set machine arrived this week at Bovema's Gramophone House. It will be used for the printing of Bovema's own record covers and for advertising purposes.

Cliff Richard's "Please don't tease," a hot seller in England, is also doing extremely well in Holland, said Robert Oeges, Columbia's label manager for Bovema. It will even be expected that the sales will beat the 75,000 figure of "Livin' Doll!"

There's also a great continued interest for Negro spirituals and Gospel songs. High on the charts in Holland are records by the Golden Gate Quartet and Mahalia Jackson. Both belong to the Gramophone House repertoire.

Jules de Corte, one of Holland's leading cabaret artists, wrote a song about the football pool, which is very factual since this subject has been discussed extensively in parliament and newspapers for the past months. He wrote it while busy in the recording studio of L.C. Phonogram cutting a new LP. The "Toto song" (Het sprookje van de toto) was immediately released on Philips.

The "My Fair Lady" LP—original cast version—was a great success in Holland. Individual songs are now obtainable on singles records, on Philips. Delahay Record Company L.C. has strong releases in their hands with "Allely Oop" by Dante & Evergreens, "Image of a Girl" by The Savaries and "Walk Don't Run" by The Ventures, all released on the Top Rank label.

At the moment there is a strong advertising campaign in all the Dutch music magazines for Duane Eddy. His records are beginning to sell intensely, especially his latest, "Because They're Young" (on London).

Good news for all Benelux Conny Froboess and Peter Kraus fans is coming from the His Masters Voice label, which is releasing the first duet of both German teenage idols: "Sag mir was du denkst." On the flipside the popular German Rex Gildo appears with Conny.

Top Rank in England will release the Delahay recordings by Cosime Gilé: "Bambina d'Amsterdam" and "Tintarella di Luna."

American singer and cabaret artist Donald Jones, popular in Holland and at present in the same Amsterdam cabaret as the Israeli duo Ha Dudaim, has an EP on Philips of new religious songs, "This World He Loves," accompanied by a modern jazz quartet, the Kees Kuyt Combo.

The popular Dutch program, "Time for Teenagers" featured Fats Domino's new recording "Walkin' to New Orleans."

Harry Jansen, formerly one of the directors of Delahay Record Company L.C. at The Hague, left the firm last week. It is not known yet if Jansen will stay in the record business.

W. Voerman, Bovema's H.M.V. label manager told us that the new record by Adam Wade, "I Can't Help It," will be released on the Dutch market very soon.

The "Sing-A-Long" LP's and EP's by Mitch Miller are becoming more and more popular in Holland. Latest release is the LP "Folk Songs—Sing-A-Long with Mitch," on Philips.

A second single record of the recently discovered Mozam Skiffle Group of Maastricht (in the south of Holland) was released: "The Ballad of the Condemned Man," backed with "Way Down in New Orleans," on Philips.

W&G Distrib Deals

MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA—W&G Records has announced two deals—with Decca (England) and Centrodisc of Montreal—for the release of special items from its catalog.

In September, Decca (England) will release in Europe three EP's by the successful Victorian Trumpet Trio. Key Records of Hollywood is handling an LP by the Trio in the States.

Centrodisc will handle, in Canada and the U.S., two W&G LP's, "Song A Minute" and "Dancing With William Flynn." Flynn is a musical arranger for W&G.

"Malaguena" Covered Again

NEW YORK—Connie Francis' new MGM single of "Malaguena" is the 547 separate disk version of the Ernesto Lecuona favorite, according to the publisher E. B. Marks. The melody was written twenty-nine years ago.

Golden Fiftieth

STOCKHOLM—Harry Brandelius has reason for the big smile. He has been awarded his first golden disk which was presented to him on the occasion of his 50th birthday.

The gold disk is for his recording of "Nordsjon," recorded by Brandelius on Sonora in the 30's and which has since become one of the all-time best-sellers in Sweden. Philips, which now owns Sonora presented the award belatedly since the gold record custom is an American idea introduced in Sweden only a few years ago.

Naples Fete In U.S.

NEW YORK—The 1960 Naples Song Festival is being brought to New York by producer Erberto Landi, who also brought the San Remo Festival here last March. Like the San Remo fete, "Naples" will be presented on three successive nights, September 16, 17, 18.

Each night unpublished Neapolitan songs will be sung by the Italian performers, and those in attendance will vote for the first, second and third place tunes.

Songsters who will appear at the event include: Aurelio Fierro, Enrico Fiume, Daisy Lumini, Miranda Martino, Tullio Pane, Maria Paris and Emilio Pericoli. Conductor Carlo Esposito will also be present.

Newley In French-German

NEW YORK—Anthony Newley, the star English songster who clicked here on London with "Do You Mind," has cut his recent hit plus his new single, "If She Should Come To You," in French and German. British Decca plans issuing both sides abroad immediately. Decca also will cut his second LP in September. Other Newley activities include four films for Warwick before his contract expires next year, and a thirteen-week radio series in September with Joyce Blair, Ronnie Barker and BBC announcer Michael Brooks.

Taped For Berlin

NEW YORK—George Shearing is shown being interviewed by Werner Baecker, German television personality, who is in the U.S. taping film interviews with American stars. The films will be shown this fall in Germany on Baecker's Saturday night show in West Berlin.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"MY BABY'S NOT HERE" (2:16)
[Four-Star BMI—Beam, Giles,
Stevenson]

"THE END OF TIME" (2:43)
[Wallace Fowler BMI—Blake,
Belew, Stevenson]

CARL BELEW (Decca 31140)

With "Too Much To Lose" running out its string Belew offers two more powerful bids for chart representation. "My Baby's Not Here" has the slight edge; a bright and brisk romp through a tearjerker with a flavorful assist from a gal chorus. The sensitive, poignant portrayal of "The End Of Time" ballad also merits attention.

"FOR THE CHILDREN'S SAKE" (2:30) [Fairway BMI—Howard]

"LONELY LITTLE WORLD" (2:17) [Pamper BMI—Howard]

JEAN SHEPARD (Capitol 4423)

Two Harlan Howard tunes provide the songstress with her latest coupling. Strongest is "For The Children's Sake," a melodious ballad bearing the Shepard stamp of sincerity and sensitivity. Mark it for a quick trip up the ladder. Flipside, "Lonely Little World," is another carefully wrought weeper. "Children's Sake" is the action side.

THE OSBORNE BROS.
(MGM 12930)

(B+) "BLAME ME" (2:04) [Tree ASCAP—Young, Young] Vet songsters put their saleability into a weeping ballad with a perceptive, comforting essay. Worth a careful look into.

(B+) "LONELY, LONELY ME" (2:06) [Acuff-Rose ASCAP—Osborne] Another fragrant Osborne harmony performance. Two tasty country dishes.

PAUL DAVIS (Doke 107)

(B+) "ONE OF HER FOOLS" (2:02) [Newkeys BMI—Stone] Feelingful display of tender affection is exhibited by the chanter on the ballad. Already kicking up a chart fuss, it bears watching.

(C+) "WHEN YOU FALL" (2:18) [Pamper BMI—Jones] More of Davis' sincere approach to a country opus, only with a multi-track highlight here.

BUDDY HUGHEY (Woodrich 1234)

(B+) "I GOT A PRETTY LITTLE GIRLIE" [Woodrich BMI—Brooks] Delightfully infectious ditty. Hughey and his Buddies (mostly femme voices) give it a happy send-off. Same tune that was recently waxed by Benny Barnes on Mercury.

(C) "I'VE GOT PLENTY OF LOVIN'" [Woodrich BMI—Richardson] Definite pop angling for this teen beat ballad session.

LORETTA LYNN (Zero 110)

(B) "NEW RAINBOW" (2:46) [Tri-Lite BMI—Lynn] Sweet and tender warbling by the chirp who's hitting the charts with "I'm A Honky Tonk Girl." Pleasant interlude.

(C+) "HEARTACHES MEET MR. BLUES" (2:03) [Tri-Lite BMI—Lynn] Hard-beat honky-tonkish lament is treated with soft-voiced care by Loretta.

JOANIE HALL (Ivory 101)

(C) "JUST BECAUSE" (2:17) [Peer Int'l. BMI—Nelson, Touchstone] The thrush, fronting Tex Williams' swing band, offers a lively western swing reading of this bright ditty. Has a pop accent.

(C) "TEARS DON'T CARE WHO CRIES THEM" (2:09) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP—Tobias, Tobias] Tender ballad warbling by Joanie here. She's in an OK pose on good material.

DEL REEVES (Peach 739)

(B) "YOU MUST BE AN ANGEL, LOST" (1:59) [Twin Oaks, Yonah BMI—Veale] Bright, infectious ditty and a smooth-voiced Reeves make for a happy combination here. Guitar pickin' is a highlight too.

(B) "I WATCHED YOU WALK AWAY" (2:20) [Yonah, Twin Oaks BMI—Anderson, Anderson] Pace is slowed to ballad tempo and Reeves slips easily into a poignant pose. Attractive essay completes a fine pairing.

BILL BROCK (Toppa 1019)

(C+) "THE WREATH" (2:30) [Mixer BMI—Brock] Man's lost his son and Brock is appropriately tearful in his telling of the sad tale. Pretty waltz melody sets the pace.

(C+) "I CAN'T COME HOME" (2:27) [Mixer BMI—Brock] With multi-track assistance, Brock warms up easily to the task of being convincing in his essay of the middle-beat weeper.

BOB WILLIAMS (Spin 989)

(C) "HOT ROD RACE" [Cedarlane BMI—Williams] Williams' raucous relating of a long distance auto jaunt might get some play.

(C) "PRECIOUS" [Cedarlane BMI—Williams] Chanter here changes his tune for an affectionate ballad.

The Saddest News . . . After 13½ fabulous years the "Louisiana Hayride" closes its doors after the August 27 performance. This bit of information was passed along by Liberty's Slick Norris. We're still waiting for an official announcement from the "Hayride" itself. Now, says Slick, country music hopes in the area rest squarely on the shoulders of "Country Opry," which debuted this weekend. . . . Carl Stuart, general manager of WESA-Charleroi, Pa., was up to the office last week with station account-exec Val Gearhart. Spent some time with Carl, who told us he's looking to buy into a radio station, pop or country, and was feeling out the New York area. Carl runs an all-day Sunday show out at Radio Park, importing talent from the WWVA-Wheeling "Jamboree." And, coincidentally with news of the "Hayride" closing, Carl informed us that he expects the same to happen soon at WWVA. . . . Hope this is not a trend, since country music never looked as strong as it does now—especially with its ever-gaining popularity in the pop markets. . . . Gabe Tucker of "D" Records signed Perk Williams to a disk contract and has already skedded the singer's first "D" release, "You Traveled Too Far." Many will remember Perk when he was on the Capitol label and scored with "Release Me". . . . Having been informed that station CKDM-Dauphin, Manitoba, Canada, was going to an all pop music format, Bev Munro, the station's country jock for the past four years, decided to pick up his stakes and head southward for the U.S., where he'll become a citizen. Bev is now in the lookout for a country deejay opening and will oblige any interested parties with audition tapes, references, etc. He can be contacted at the station. . . . Also on the look for a new turntable job is Jack Derrick, who's left his post with KRCT-Pasadena, Calif. . . . XERF-Del Rio, Texas, once again back with the all night format of sacred/country music. Paul Kallinger is still the man behind the mike. . . . Keith Krebsback is interested in locating country (or pop) artists who will be in the Sidney, Montana areas Sept. 23 and 24. Keith, spinning for KGKX, infos that the city of Sidney plans a promotion those dates and would like a name artist to tie in with. Keith can be contacted at his station. . . . Buddy Paul rising fast with his Murco waxing of "This Old Town."

HANK SNOW

BUDDY PAUL

Jack Howard, vet country music promoter who claims the distinction of bringing Hank Snow to American audiences, has started his own radio show over WCAM-Camden, N.J. Tagged "The Covered Wagon Caravan," the show is a mythical musical trip across the U.S. in the days of the old west, stopping off in a different state each week and picking up a guest star who dedicates tunes to the state. Jack emcees the show, does the promo work, and just about everything else. He tells us plans are underway to broadcast the Saturday morning show on a major network in the near future. Also, an album based upon the show is being skedded for release on the Arcade label (Philadelphia). . . . Chief Warrant Officer Charlie Brown, who has been radio-TV director at the Recruiting Publicity Center, Governors Island, N.Y., will retire from the Army October 31 and has made plans to move to Nashville where he'll concentrate on country music. Brown currently is in Nashville filming a TV series featuring top country artists to be televised by over 145 independent stations. Brown is in his eighth year at the center and currently has eight weekly radio recruiting shows going for him; among which are "Country Style, U.S.A.," "Country Music Time" and "Music in the Air." Country music welcomes Brown to its lines! . . . Red Foley has been richly rewarded over the years for his personal appearance policy of "Always leave 'em wanting more." Many are the repeat engagements that come his way: this week's second-year-in-a-row show for the National Flying Farmer's Convention, for example, when he stages the trademarked "Jubilee" brand of country music fun at Oklahoma City on the afternoon of August 16. Four hours later, FYI, Red and the gang are the grandstand attraction 500 miles distant, at the Yuma, Colo. fair. . . . Roy Acuff is set to emcee "Jubilee U.S.A." on Aug. 27. . . . Jubilee announcer Joe Slattery, commanding officer of Springfield's U.S. Air Force Reserve Unit, is due for a promotion shortly to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Joe, wife Mary and the five Slattery youngsters just moved into a handsome new house in Springfield. . . . Jubilee drummer Johnny Gailey is quite an accomplished acrobatic dancer. . . . First Mercury release by Margie Singleton, "Toss A Pebble," is a joint publication of Fred Stryker's Hollywood-based Fairway Music and the Ozarks' Earl Barton firm.

Tommy Collins back on the right trail again. The label revealed plans to back his first album, "This Is Tommy Collins," with another LP soon to come. Collins' newest single entry, released just recently, is "Summer's Almost Gone" b/w "Keep Dreaming". . . . WGUS-Augusta, Ga. celebrates its first anniversary as an all-country station Sept. 15. General manager Joe Morris says that the station will deviate from its regular program schedule that day to accept taped messages, letters, cables, etc., from artists, deejays and all friends of country music. All tapes sent to the station for the occasion will be returned, but, Morris cautions, please make sure they're 7½ ips tapes.

Prepare Now For Coming Fall Season

It is accepted tradition and policy in the recording business for the record manufacturers to present a "Fall Program" to its distributors and the retail outlets at this time of the year. Thru years of experience, these companies know that "Fall Buying," at the consumer level, gets into full swing in September. They want their outlets to be well stocked with merchandise so that they can obtain their share of the customer's dollar.

The coin machine industry in general, like most others, slumps off a bit during the summer months. Manufacturers, at some times during these months, are completely closed for vacations, limiting production. Distributors and operators are off vacationing. While business, of course, goes on, it's almost on a part time basis. The exception is that portion of the business which caters to the summer location. Arcades are going full blast (and reports are that they're enjoying a very fine 1960 season) and summer type locations need attention and service.

Most coin machine manufacturers, during these summer months, like the recording firms, are planning for "Fall" business. Game manufacturers, in particular, have several new ideas and machines, ready for Fall release.

The market is ready for new and stimulating machines this Fall. We have every confidence that the manufacturers can meet this challenge. It is then the responsibility of the operator to set this equipment in the location, promote location play, and service the machines so that they attract the greatest play. With every segment of the industry putting "all out" this Fall, business can be as lucrative as in past flush years.

Energy - industry - and imagination is a prime requisite in getting the "Fall Program" under way. Let's start planning, thinking and preparing for it.

Expect City-Wide Games Contest To Start Sept. 15; 11 Firms Approve

NEW YORK—Martin Greenfield, Craig-Todd Agency, public relations firm here, currently bringing together games operators in the New York area for the purpose of a "King of Games" contest designed to stimulate collections and interest in coin-operated games on location, advised that eleven firms have agreed to participate in the city-wide tournament and that plans have been set for a September 15 starting date.

The initial tourney presentation was made to games operators only three weeks ago, through the efforts of Teddy Blatt, Haskell & Blatt and since that time the plan has attracted operators of approximately 1200 machines in the New York area.

Originally planning for a 2000 machine minimum before beginning the program, the Craig-Todd exec stated that 1200 machines are "enough for us to get started. The others will more than likely follow at the rate we've been getting approvals."

Al Arnold, Empire Music, hosted an operator meeting at his home on Wednesday, August 10, (The Cash Box, August 13), and the result was the approval by A&Z Music Company and Alba Vending Company, with Red Zirpoli and Harold Babestein, respective owners, agreeing to take part.

Greenfield also advised that Runyon Sales Company, Bally distributors, and Black Sales Company, United distributors, have agreed to donate a brand new game to the two operators whose locations are represented in the play-offs between the remaining two top finalists.

Basically, the games tournament amounts to a city-wide contest conducted by the Craig-Todd Agency with anyone over 18 years of age eligible to participate. (See The Cash Box, August 6 for details.) All types of games will be permitted in the contest with ten top players being chosen from each location for a start of elimination tourneys. A four-week warm-up period is expected to take place at the outset, on location, accompanied with heavy advertising and "on-location" promotion material. Eliminations will be continued until finalists play-off for the City championship.

Prizes are expected to be of the highest calibre. The cost per machine was originally set for $1.75 per machine per location providing 2000 machines participated. It is expected that the rate will now be determined by the number of machines enrolled by September 15.

Greenfield advised that the following firms have agreed to participate in the City wide tourney: A&Z Music; Alba Vending; Empire Music; Supreme Automatic; Regal Music; City Music; Jabco Music; Forest Hills Automatic; Herman Bros.; L. I. National Sales; and Lincoln Service.

British Pass Betting and Gaming Act

LONDON—The 1960 Betting and Gaming Act was officially passed by the House of Commons here permitting the coin industry to proceed with plans for gaming operations which will go into effect as soon as the law goes into force. While receiving the news enthusiastically, coinmen were unanimous in their praise for the part played by the A.T.E. and A.C.A. in helping bring about this reformation.

John Singleton, A.T.E. chairman, said, "This new legislation is totally different from any previous law and no one really knows how it will work out. We can only await the bill putting it into force and proceed accordingly."

Indiana Operators Visit Seeburg Plant

CHICAGO — Seeburg Corporation hosted a meeting at the plant Wednesday, August 3, of music operators from the Indiana region. The operators were conveyed to the plant from Indianapolis in a Greyhound bus, and then returned to the starting point after the meeting.

A highlight of the meeting was a "cook's tour" through the Seeburg plant conducted by Delbert Coleman, president of Seeburg Corp.; Jack Gordon, vice-president in charge of the phonograph division; Tom Herrick, vice-president; and Arnold Silverman. The high point in the get-together was a general briefing of Seeburg's "Artist of the Week" program, and it's rapid development and acceptance by music operators, by Jack Gordon.

Many of the operators who attended the day's session are shown above as they alighted from the bus in front of the Seeburg plant. They are: (Left to right) Dick Gunn, Ralph Hensley, Robert Brock, Alex Fall, Floyd Bush, John Hogan, Gordon Dearing, Phil Dearing, Bob Robish, Paul McCarthy, Bernie Pennington, Titus Rainey, Joe Conley, Pat Collins, John Hall, Shorty Prentice, Harold Meeker, Jack Boyd, Paul Paden, and A. N. W. Ohio Music Ops Hear Slifer Talk On Coin Council, Public Relations

CHICAGO—The Northwestern Ohio Music Operators Association held a general meeting and dinner, Monday, August 1, at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel in downtown Columbus, Ohio. Subjects for discussion on the agenda included Common Law and Tax problems which affect the coin machine industry, and further planning of a public relations program which is to be launched in the Northwestern part of Ohio this Fall.

Guest speakers were the Honorable Mark McElroy, Attorney General of the State of Ohio, and O. L. (Bob) Slifer, managing director of the National Coin Machine Distributors Association, and a member of the Coin-Machine Council, the national public relations organization for the coin-operated equipment industry.

Slifer's appearance at this session was under the auspices of the PR Council, to explain to N.O.M.O. members the progress CMC has made in its huge, nationwide membership drive.

Slifer spelled out to the Ohio operators in attendance at the affair the crying need for projecting to the general public a positive image of the industry, to combat the negative thinking about the men and women in the industry which has dominated information fed to the people by all communication media, with the exception of the can trade press. His address, which was acclaimed by the Northwestern Ohio Music Operators, is reproduced in part herewith:

"And now let's talk a little about the business that is close to our own hearts—the coin operated machine business. We are the victims, to a great degree of our own reverse public relations. We made many mistakes in years past by trying, for some unknown reason, to keep people from learning all about the coin machine business. We certainly had no reason for this action—we have absolutely nothing to hide—in fact, once you stop to think about the very nature of our business you begin to realize the more open we are with information the more customers we interest, the better everyone connected, even remotely with our business in any way, will understand our problems and what we have to offer. And, yes, what it takes on our part to provide these many services and amusements in the way of work, sweat, tears, investments, taxes, licenses, hinderances, utilities, business establishments in the way of real estate, employment, training, credit, obligations with other business men for insurance, parts, supplies, etc., the list is quite long as each of you know.

We live in the finest and greatest country in the world. We have free enterprise. I need not tell any of you what it means to be an American. My reason for putting this to you in this manner is to bring out that because we do have all of these great freedoms imposes upon each of us certain definite obligations too. We do not understand any business which we find is uncertain in the information available to us. This causes suspicion, fear and misrepresentation. Every man in this room knows that we have been greatly misunderstood in this regard by about every facet of mass communication.

Therefore, recognizing that we are partially at fault, that we are also victims of unfair and misquoted news releases, prejudices, suspicions that are really unwarranted, it is high time that we tell our story at every opportunity to the American people, the press and any other legitimate agency who makes inquiry. This we also acknowledge—that we should have been doing this from the day this business was born but surely, in this highly organized society today of highly organized communication and collective action we must be known for what we really are, not what people have been led to believe that we are—racketeers, hoodlum connected and people with unsavory reputations. Senator McClellan and his investigating committee vindicated most everyone connected with the coin machine business but paid heed to the fact that certain underworld characters had infiltrated into our field—along with many other businesses too—and he wanted to have them cleaned out so we could continue to service the American people—unafraid and in dignity.

Contrary to some beliefs, every thinking coin machine individual welcomed this investigation—and offered their support to this committee in any way they could. Senator McClellan recognized that most coin machine people are good honest, hard working, small business men, civic minded, church going and family loving parents, people who are no different than their neighbors in other businesses. People who abhor juvenile delinquency and anything that smacks of racketeering . . . who are charitable in endeavors, who support many community projects and who are respected in their communities, schools and by their peers.

Bearing all of this in mind and much, much more, which time does not permit me to discuss at this limited meeting and, I doubt very much if I could cover every facet of trial and error in this over-all problem if given the opportunity for it is too vast and complex a subject, some of us decided that we must do something constructive about this and it must be done at once.

This gave birth to The Coin Machine Council for National public relations, a year ago, whose sole purpose is outlined in our By-Laws under Corporate license in the state of Illinois: I quote: "The purpose of the Council is to compile and disseminate information about the coin-operated equipment industry and otherwise to encourage a favorable public attitude toward such industry."

Now each of you recognize that no one group on the grass-roots level, no one association or group of manufacturers could possibly fulfill these purposes themselves. It takes a concerted all out, honest effort on the part of everyone associated with our business—primarily, manufacturers, distributors and operators on all levels—no matter how small or large each may be. This also takes professional handling to utilize the massive media of communications today—the press, radio, TV, government, state and local agencies, to present the facts in their true light. We will welcome inquiries when we get our organization functioning. That is, from recognized legitimate inquirers. There will be no hold-back and, we will expect the same fair treatment and intelligent handling of our problems, public relations and presentation to the American public as any other industry or field of endeavor. This we sincerely believe we will get from all communicative media.

Such a vast program is very costly and since everyone benefits, it is expected that we shall have enrollments (Continued on next page) from every facet in the business. We expect that everyone will be willing to donate of their time, energy and finances to keep this vital and necessary program on a continuing basis—year after year.

Your Coin Machine Council is made up of a national board of directors all of whom are directly connected with our business—either as a manufacturer, a distributor, a supplier, an operator of any kind of a coin activated machine. These men, of whom I am one, know the tremendous task lying before them. We understand the intricate problems that face us now and in the months ahead. We must not be left defenseless again in the face of public opinion. We have taken far more than our share of unfair abuse and criticism—and we do not say this with a “pointed finger” at any particular group or agency. It has been a general conglomeration of misunderstandings, misquotes, sensationalistic errors of presentation, to a confused and uneducated public as to the true facts—partially our own fault—partially other peoples fault, which would be impossible to untangle at this late date. We must just see that it doesn't happen again without our being able, if untrue, to defend ourselves.

Your public relations program is in its final stages of preparation. You shall learn more in detail very soon. The most important part that each and every one in this room connected with this business can play right now is to join or enroll in the Council. Your financial support is needed now and we must have operators across this broad land of ours. We urge you to talk this over with every operator known to you, every distributor and yes, even every manufacturer to be certain they join in this all out program.

This must be a personal obligation—not an attitude of letting the “other fellow” do it—because you will benefit directly from this program. There will be grass-root level groups which we hope everyone in the country will also participate in with all he has to offer in the way of talents and time. These efforts then will centralize in the national committee under the guidance of the Executive Committee of the Council—of which I am a member. This is the “working body.” We have devoted better than a year on this program already—we have just culminated a membership drive which must still be carried on by each of you. We do not receive one cent of remuneration for this work. We are dedicated men to this high purpose for we know we have every reason in this world to be proud of the business we are in—the business where we serve the entire public and in fact, the world—for you will find coin operated machines in jungles and far off places unknown even to us.

We have just been re-elected to serve you for another year and we do so willingly even tho each of us on the committee has our own jobs to do which is more than enough for one man's time in itself. We expect no less the same cooperation from every other coin machine man in the country and we don't think you can blame us for this feeling whatsoever. We ask no one to do more than we—nor as much for that matter either. Members' names of your national organization can be found on several pieces of the literature which was sent to you in the mail. If you want more let me know before leaving tonight.

I would like to add this, however, that in my position as Managing Director of the National Coin Machine Distributors Association, better than 92% of all of our distributor members joined the Council within the first two weeks. We wish we could say as much for the operators across the country for our problem of organization would be settled overnight. . . . and this program has been clamored for with “resounding yells” from operators everywhere. This is your program!!

We must emphasize now and let it be known—that we will have nothing to do about prices, we are not a lobbying body in any sense of the word—we will not in any way try to influence legislation on any level. In regard to this last phrase we will present the facts where we feel unfair legislation is being considered so that our duly elected officials can make a fair decision. And we have faith in their fairness once they have the true bonafide facts upon which to base their judgment. We believe much will be corrected for they do have the citizen's interest at heart but, they cannot do so if they are left in the dark on any matter.

I am not a professional speaker—no one wrote this speech for me—I have spoken from my heart and from my own convictions and beliefs. I have been associated for so many years with every facet of this business, I have been an operator, I have been a distributor and, I have worked for manufacturers long enough to feel the pulse of their feelings too. We say these things in all sincerity. We want you to believe them too and I have a strong feeling that you do concur. Your hands raised at this time expressing your agreement to join and assist your public relations program's progress will give me that assurance.

What About Music Ops?

NEW YORK—Martin Greenfield, Craig-Todd Agency, advised that progress made during the past three weeks and the enthusiasm shown by games operators for his firm's “King of Games” contest idea has resulted in the Music Operators of New York, Inc. suggesting to the Craig-Todd head, that perhaps a promotional idea along the same lines could be planned for the stimulation of the juke box business in New York City.

Since the mind can only absorb what the seat can endure—I will end this talk, which truthfully and honestly only “skims the milk” of understanding the job to be done—with this thought—these words from our great President Dwight Eisenhower: “These are fast moving times. The faint-hearted and doubters who hang back today are apt to be trampled in the rush of progress. It has been the tough minded optimists who have always been right in America's history. It is true in our time.”

Runyon Celebrates 23rd Anniversary A.B.C. Supports Coin Machine Council

NEWARK, N. J.—With the celebration of its twenty-third anniversary in the coin machine industry, Runyon Sales Company, this city, phonograph and games distributors with offices in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, has expanded even further its operations and sales facilities in order that present and future sales and service programs be adequately housed. For the past ten years, Runyon has been situated in a 20,000 square foot building located at 221 Frelinghuysen Avenue, in Newark. The firm's New York office is at 593 Tenth Avenue while the Hartford, Connecticut branch is at 231 Windsor Street. The new plant, totaling 20,000 square feet and located only five blocks from the executive offices, is comprised of two buildings, both on Legal Street in Newark.

All warehousing, reconditioning, exporting, and trucking will now center from the new building.

Runyon Sales Company has been a leader in the distributing field for many years and the firm also boasts a large music and games operation. In addition to its music and games operating firm, Runyon operates cigarette and candy equipment and just recently embarked on a giant vending operation program encompassing in-plant feeding in several of New Jersey's largest industrial plants. The firm also operates a background music system throughout Northern New Jersey and an amusement center at Great Eastern Mills Super Store.

The distributing arm of the firm includes the sale of the following lines: AMI, Inc., Bally Manufacturing Corporation, Irving Kaye Company, Inc., and J. H. Keeney & Company, Inc. These lines are sold throughout all three states in its territory.

The firm's export business was revamped about two years ago and after a strong promotion and personal contact program with representatives traveling the European circuit, sales today are made in twenty-five countries around the world with a unit sale each month of approximately 200 machines. Export manager, Myron Sugerman, states that overseas customers are treated with the utmost consideration because "we are well aware of the difficulties and the aggravation experienced by our export accounts when second merchandise is combined with second hand attention and service." Sugerman advised that correspondence and inquiries are all "one day matters" with inquiries and replies being routed the same day. Literature, photos, schematics, et al, are forwarded to patrons immediately upon request. The firm retains the service of a reliable freight forwarder as part of conducting the export sales which according to Sugerman is "essential" rather than being "incidental" to the firm's base of operations. Trucking facilities are more than adequate.

The Runyon Sales Company is headed by Barnet Sugerman and Abe Green, two coin machine veterans who have successfully built the business from the bottom. The New Jersey operation is headed by Ed Burg. Burg is the anchor man of the business with Morris Mosowitz and Nathan Sugerman, oldest son of Barney, assisting him.

The sales side of the Jersey plant is headed by Myron Sugerman who also supervises the export department. New York is led by Morris Rood, veteran sales and accounting exec, and Lou Wolberg, administrative exec. The firm's Hartford outlet is headed by Irving Kempner, sales exec and veteran of many road trips through the entire territory. Kempner continues his first hand knowledge of the business and the firm's sales area with daily road trips through the States spending much of his time with the firm's operator-customers. Top salesmen on the force are Les Biebelberg in New Jersey and Perry Lowengrub in New York. The firm's New York accounting department is under the supervision of Lou Schrieber. Field representatives are Wally Zucker (NJ), Marty Dumoff and Joseph Buro (NY) and Nat Gutkin (Conn.). Harold Levine reigns supreme over the enormous parts shop recently installed. Marvin Goldstein and Jack Mills round out the New York parts crew while Gene Valley and Robert Mohn complete the Jersey parts de-

CHICAGO—"The entire membership of the Associated Buyers Club is fully aware that all of the purposes, goals and efforts expounded by the Coin-Machine Council for public relations are dedicated to a cause we firmly believe in. Therefore, we want you to accept this small token in our behalf."

So said Vincent Angeleri, president of A.B.C., and Anthony C. (Andy) Hesch, a veteran operator and member of the group, as they presented a check in the amount of $500 to Herbert L. Oettinger, treasurer; and Louis Casola, president of C-MC. (Shown here, left to right—Hesch, Angeleri, Oettinger and Casola in the presentation at the Morrison Hotel, Thursday, August 4.)

The Associated Buyers Club is a small, very progressive operators organization which embraces the greater Chicago area, including several suburbs.

Angeleri advised Casola and Oettinger that the $500 check does not constitute the final remittance to C-MC from this group, since the officers and members have—and will continue to—contribute individually to the public relations council, which is dedicated to creating a strong public relations program for the entire industry.

Hesch, who is also a director of the Coin-Machine Council, explained that the Associated Buyers Club was formed many years ago by a group of coin machine operators in Chicago and its environs who desired to improve "our business relations with each other, and to make our business operations more acceptable to the general public."

The panel of officers of the Associated Buyers Club lists Angeleri, A.A. Swingtime Music Co., Robert Lindelof, vice-president, General Music Co.; Paul M. Brown, secretary-treasurer, Western Automatic Music Co.; and Richard Gienko, assistant treasurer, Dial Music and Novelty Service.

partment. Hans van den Dop, Holland coin machine representative, recently joined the Runyon organization in the New Jersey shop. The firm employs approximately 200 employees.

Runyon's executive force is actually a cross-section of youth and experience. Officials of the firm advise that while it is far from an infant, it hasn't yet approached the final stages of growth. Pioneering many of the accepted practices in the coin machine business, today Runyon has continued on new programs of service and sales in other areas, the surfaces of which have hardly been scratched.

Univ. Match To Buy Glasco

NEW YORK—Universal Match Corp. announced plans last week for the purchase of Glasco Corporation, manufacturers of drink vending machines currently used exclusively by Coca-Cola franchised bottlers. The transaction was reported to involve close to $4 million. In addition to pre-mix vendors the Glasco firm is reported to have the only drink machine on the market vending ice cubes with each drink. Glasco also manufactures fresh milk, milk shake, hot sandwich, and coffee machines.

New Runyon plant is center of reconditioning, export and shipping activities.

Williams Ships New 4-Player Pin, "Music Man" With "Disappearing Bumper"

CHICAGO—The offices and plant at Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corporation in this city buzzed with excitement last week when Sam Lewis, vice-president in charge of sales, announced the release to the trade of Williams' new "Music Man" 4 player pinball game. This pingame comes to the operator "hot on the heels of our very successful swing to 'Styling of the 60's' in our 'Darts' pinball game, which was introduced late in June of this year," Lewis said.

"Immediate interest among our distributors everywhere, and the resultant demand, assures us that we definitely have one of our biggest sales getters in 'Music Man'."

"Considering all of the extremely desirable features operators are getting in 'Music Man', we should not be so surprised that it is creating a sensation already," he asserted. "Just consider this lineup of features, Williams' great 'Styling of the 60's' and the most exciting competitive play possible in a pinball amusement game, whereby four players can compete with each other at the same time."

"And if that isn't enough to offer—we are introducing the exciting, and exclusive 'Disappearing Bumper' feature."

Lewis further explained that all of Williams Electronic's engineering and designing facilities were spurred to the utmost for a popular pinball entry to set the pace for the approaching Fall season. It is the feelings of Sam Stern, president of Williams Electronic, and Lewis, that "Music Man" more than fills the bill.

Williams' modern design pingame cabinet has accomplished the single most important thing it was created for, according to Lewis. That was to make it possible for the nation's operators to open many new locations, as well as to create increased sales among operators.

"In fact," Lewis said, "constant reports from our distributors everywhere revealed that operators advised them that many new locations took on 'Darts' immediately upon viewing it for the first time. This action has never slackened off."

As in "Darts," "Music Man's" colorfully illustrated backglass is mounted on a pedestal to retain the continuity in high-styling of the cabinet. Dual sloping side fins at the front of the cabinet support a recessed drink and cigarette tray shelf. The trim all around the playfield and the recessed drink and cigarette tray shelf are finished in Silvertone anodized, extruded aluminum. This further enhances the beauty and styling of the cabinet.

Furthermore, the extruded aluminum trim, which folds over the top of the playfield, can be easily replaced. This eliminates the necessity of "sanding" moldings. The cabinet is supported by tapered, chromium steel (screw in) legs, which will never crack or bend.

"Operators have constantly demanded something new in amusement games to help them to increase play in their areas," Lewis stated, "and Williams Electronic is certainly doing something about it. We are definitely meeting 'the challenge of the 60's' in 'Music Man,' just as we did in 'Darts.' And we will continue to strive toward originality in our great line of amusement machines for the trade," Lewis concluded.

Sample orders of "Music Man" are being shipped to Williams' distributors this week.

O. O. Mallegg Dies

CHICAGO—Otto O. Mallegg, age 59, an internationally renowned exporter of coin machine equipment, died Monday, August 8, in Evanston Hospital after a short illness.

Mallegg was president and founder of O. O. Mallegg, Incorporated, exporters, with offices in this city.

Surviving are the widow, Ruby; a son, David; a daughter, Mary M. Mallegg; and a sister, Mrs. Ida Hochsheffen.

Funeral services were held Thursday, August 11, at the Lee and Parry Funeral Chapel in Des Plaines, Ill. Interment was in Memorial Park Cemetery.

EASTERN FLASHES

Normal summer slowdown in business at distrib outlets and mid-August temperatures combined to keep operators away from Tenth Avenue last week as most distributors had the time to sit down with visiting operators in any number of different propositions—financing, new equipment, used equipment, parts, supplies, et al—and the wholesalers were happy to spend time with every individual calling on them. Good time for ops to visit the avenue and talk about Fall plans—another week or two and it will be back to normal with everyone and his brother ordering equipment for immediate delivery. Rush!

* * * * *

It could be the warm weather but then again it could be the "Artist of the Week" program, but in any event, operators are flocking to Atlantic New York's outlet and helping themselves to an ice cold cup of their favorite soft drink from the Seeburg drink machine on display—for free! John Stuparitz, Seeburg vending rep advises that last week about 400 drinks were vended free-of-charge and the number increases with each passing week. Meyer Parkoff greeted Conway Twitty, MGM recording star, when the lad arrived to have his pic taken alongside the Seeburg Model "Q" featuring, of course, the latest Twitty LP, "Conway Twitty Sings", one of the 33 1/3 single packages currently available for Seeburg ops. Murray Kaye likes the short summer weeks with his vacation chopping off a day or two from each work week and giving him that much more time for golf. Murray spent time on export business earlier in the week and then went back to the business at hand, Seeburg Model "Q" phonographs.

New York's Grand Central Station will feature a $2 million bowling alley by June 1961. The Bowl will employ 44 lanes, a cocktail bar, a snack bar and other concessions but at press time there were no plans for coin-operated games, or at least none for publication from bowling center officials. . . . William Hooper, Hooper Automatic Ltd. dropped by The Cash Box offices here after a pleasant trip from his London offices where the English coinman operates some music "but primarily games." Hooper was on his way to the various coin centers in NYC, Philly and Newark in search of pins and other equipment for export to his home base of operations. . . . Vending continues to make headlines with ABC Vending and Continental Industries hosting a group of security analysts last week during forums which advised the finance men that "the vending industry's greatest growth is yet to come", and a look at the price quotes on vending stock certainly indicates that all of this publicity is taken to heart. Harold Roth, Continental head, told 'em that with 24,000,000 people in plants today eating up $805,000,000 in food and drink each year, "96.1% of all of the major manufacturing plants in the U.S. are still without full-line, hot food accommodations." Man, that's growth! . . . Al Denver, president, MONY, back on the job last Tuesday heading a board meeting in order to bring himself up to date on what's been happening while he was recuperating from surgery and to discuss business plans for the remainder of the year. Nash Gordon traveling along Tenth Avenue visiting with distrib soliciting advertising for the annual MONY journal which is being published in conjunction with the association's affair in November. No, it isn't too early to sell the advertising—takes time! "Thanks to all of my friends and business associates who were so kind to me during my illness. I appreciate the cards, wires, phone calls and personal visits from everyone," said Al Denver, addressing his statement to the entire trade in New York. . . . Irv Holzman, Black Sales, back from a Miami and Chi trip. United factory figures confirm success of "Sunny" shuffle alley states Irv and he expects the nation to keep buying 'em up for a time to come. While in Miami, Holzman socialized with Bobby Schwartz, B&B Vending head, exclaiming that he enjoyed himself "just fine." Lou Druckman back from vacation tells us he stayed close to home and relaxed. . . . Phil Gould does the same thing but this time he looks for arcade equipment and evidently Mike Munves supplies the answer. . . . Bill Stayback, veteran coinman, currently in the premium business, is sporting a five foot Santa Claus around Tenth Avenue pitching distrib on using it for Christmas gifts to favored patrons. The Santa stands upright and is made from a plastic—lights up and looks real. Leo Willens, Capitol Projector exec., seemed interested as did several other wholesalers visited by Stayback. Bill was using the Capitol showrooms to house the life-size St. Nick and Charlie Katz, vet coin salesman was on the job, selling.

The Runyon Sales Co. crew keeping busy as Barney "Shugy" Sugerman takes off for an out-of-town trip while Perry Lowengrub raves over the sales on AMI's "Continental" and "Lyric". "They're keeping summer business above last year's figures!", comments Perry. Miss Ann Gechtoff, a newcomer to the Runyon staff, operating the business machines in order that ops receive their invoices on time—and they all appreciate her efficiency, we're sure! Morris Rood keeping the telephone lines busy taking incoming orders reports that Irv "Kempy" Kempner is keeping the machines from gathering dust as sales on Bally's shuffles and bowlers along with the AMI phono line are holding very well. Myron Sugerman expects to announce some interesting export news shortly and his call from New Jersey indicates that the firm's foreign business is growing in leaps and bounds. . . . Irving Hahn, operator, spent a very quiet week at Lake Tarleton, in Pike, N.H., meeting with Teddy Blatt unexpectedly. "Great place but no TV!" shouted Irving. "Ball games and fights are necessary for my relaxation," comments the coinman, "on or off vacation." . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., away from the office as Al D'Inzillo advises that he should be able to take next week off for a short vacation once the staff resumes its post-vacation schedules. Meanwhile "6-Game" shuffle and "Pony Express" sales keep the ChiCoin factory execs happy—and there shouldn't be any frowns at the Rock-Ola plant either! . . . Jack Semel stops at a number of showrooms picking up parts and supplies before leaving for MONY headquarters. . . . Joe Connors, games and music op. travels along coinrow before taking part in the board meeting at MONY. . . . Harry Koepfel, Libra Distributing, back on the job assisting Abe Lipsky, after spending a week in the Florida Keys with his five month old grandchild and her parents. Abe is doing fine with the Wurlitzer line and looks for a good September-December period if the business holds as it has. Hank Peteet, Wurlitzer field rep, back from vacation on Prince Edward Island, North of Maine but East of New Brunswick. "A beautiful spot bounding with relaxation and interesting people," quotes Hankus. . . . Ben Chicofsky, Benray Music, prouder than ever over his boy's success with a singing group calling themselves the "Ping Pongs". The group released a record for United Artists last week entitled, "Summer Reverie" b/w "Zyzzle" and trade reviews incite hit potential. . . . Dave Lowy carting merchandise to his new showrooms up the street using a station wagon and lots of ambition. Dave's new place should be ready for the "Grand Opening" any day now. . . . Joe and Mike Munves happy over summer business and look to continued success with "Champ Grip Test" machine. . . . Rita and Gil Sonin (Gil's treasurer of MONY) are wearing bright smiles from here to here. Rita delivered a bouncing baby girl last week at Carson Tech Memorial Hospital, Crown St., Bklyn. Baby will be named Wendy, and she's their second daughter. . . . Otto Friedman, Red Circle Music, resting at Kings H'way Hospital, 32nd St. and Kings H'way, Bklyn. Drop Otto a card and help ease his recuperative period.

Hard working members of the executive committee of the Coin-Machine Council are at last beginning to see daylight in the quest for strong national support from operator groups, individual operators, and participating manufacturing and distributor members. You can ask any one of C-MC's diligent steerers, and they'll tell you in no uncertain terms that "cracking the top layer" was by no means a "snap." Every effort is being bent by this hard core group of devoted campaigners (and we just have to break our train of thought briefly to name a few steerers, such as Lou Casola, Herb Jones, Herb Oettinger, Sam Lewis, Bob Slifer, Ed Ratajack, Art Weinand, Clinton S. Pierce, Lester Montooth, and Andy Hesch) who are diligently striving to saturate the entire country with information regarding C-MC. They are stressing the need for a strong, comprehensive public relations program on the national and grass roots level. Now that operators fully realize that the Coin-Machine Council is here to stay, they must get the "let-George-do-it" attitudes out of their systems and "climb aboard!"

The local coinbiz scene is still in a bit of a vacation upheaval, with more staggering of vacation schedules than in previous years. It gets so at times that a body can't keep up with the "returnees" and the "departees" (if we can coin the word for posterity). . . . Deepest sympathy to the family of Otto O. Mallegg, president of O. O. Mallegg, Inc., who died in Evanston Hospital last Monday. Mallegg was an internationally renowned exporter of coin machine equipment. Many who knew Mr. Mallegg well will keep their hearts at half mast for a while. . . . Art Weinand, sales director of Chicago Dynamic Industries, waved us a temporary fond farewell as he departed for his annual vacation last Friday. He expects to return by August 22. While ChiCoin's Mort Seore was in the east recently he attended the funeral of David Rosen's mother, Mrs. Leah Katz Rosen, who passed away at the age of 85. Everyone at ChiCoin is delighted over the constant and overwhelming acceptance by operators everywhere of "6 Game Bowler" and the "Pony Express" rifle target amusement game.

United Mfg. rushing production on "Bowl-O-Rama" to be ready for Fall business, in quantities. Bill DeSelm and Herb Oettinger tell us that operators are clamoring for it in every market in the United States. . . . United Music's LeRoy Kraehmer and Glenn Johnson are delighted over the fact that sales of United's "UPC-100" phonograph have maintained a high status through the hot summer months. This, they say, is definitely a healthy sign for the normally busy Fall season. . . . Just before leaving with his lovely wife, Shirley, and his children for a vacation in Connecticut, Joe Robbins, sales manager of Empire Coin Machine Exchange, happily info'd that he received a few samples of United Mfg.'s "Bowl-A-Rama" bowlers from the factory, which were placed on location immediately. Joe and Gil Kitt, owner of Empire Coin, unhesitatingly acclaim "Bowl-A-Rama" as the greatest innovation in bowling games since the introduction of shuffle alleys. . . . Alvin and Nate Gottlieb report that D. Gottlieb & Co.'s "Captain Kidd" pinball amusement game is still harvesting huge sales figures in domestic and overseas markets.

A very healthy business attitude is, as usual, maintained by Bill O'Donnell, Bally's general sales manager. In fact, Bill happily reports that the entire lineup of Bally amusement games is keeping all production facilities strained to the utmost to keep up the heavy shipping schedules. To this fact, Herb Jones and Art Garvey happily concur. . . . We were pleased to hear from Joel Stern of World Wide Distribs that there has been a considerable increase of new phonograph sales last week over many previous weeks. Naturally, Joel assures us, the stress has been on the Rock-Ola "Tempo II" phonograph models. Based on this fact Joel, Lennie Micon and Fred Skor are eagerly looking forward to the Fall season. . . . The big news keeps popping out of Sam Lewis' busy office at Williams Electronic Manufacturing, and this week it is an exciting 4-player pinball amusement game housed in a similarly high styled cabinet as "Darts." The game, "Music Man," is being shipped this week to all of Williams Electronic's distribs; and coupled with "Space Glider" gives Williams a terrific "one-two" punch on the sales chart.

Keeney's Clayton Nemeroff delayed his proposed trip to call on the trade a few more days, awaiting the return of Paul Huebsch. Paul has been in and out of his office for the past few weeks. The big news at Keeney is tremendous action on "Red Arrow" and "DeLuxe Red Arrow" amusement games. . . . Clarence Schuyler, prexy of Games, Inc., returned last week from a pleasant vacation in the wilds of Canada. This time the big ones didn't get away. (We can't wait to hear those tall fish stories Clarence tells so well!) Frankly, from what we hear, Clarence is quite an expert with the rod 'n' reel. . . . Nate Feinstein and Harold Schwartz, Atlas Music Co., relate the good news that they are now getting the new Frank Sinatra 33 rpm records from Capitol Records Distribs for programming on the "Artist of the Week" Seeburg "Q" phonograph. The Kingston Trio 33's are due shortly. Prexy Eddie Ginsburg assures us that the "Artist of the Week" promotion is absolutely dominating the sales picture at Atlas.

Prexy Del Coleman, Jack Gordon, Tom Herrick and Arnold Silverman hosted a meeting and luncheon at the Seeburg plant August 3 for operators from Indiana. They brought them into Chi on a huge Greyhound bus, and then returned them to the starting point after the meeting adjourned. . . . First Coin's Joe Kline returned from a short, but enjoyable holiday last week to find Sam Kolber, Fred Kline and Nick Nelson hard at work on local and export biz. Joe tells us if he was sure of the same results he'd go back on vacation often (if they'd only continue to stay as busy as they are). . . . Fischer Sales' Bill Weikel just returned from a short visit with prexy Ewald Fischer at the plant in Tipton, Missouri. Only this time Bill didn't get a chance to fish the lovely, well stocked streams there. (I'm told the streams are stocked with tall tales.) Bill announced the appointment last week of D Automatic Sales in Evansville, Indiana to handle distribution of Fischer's billiard tables in Southern Indiana and Northern Kentucky. M. A. Morris is head of the firm. . . . Al Warren is somewhat elusive when we ask him what's cookin'. We couldn't tell what was under wraps, but we have ideas (??).

Ed Ruber is breathing big sighs of relief since he and Ben Kaye are just about finished with Wico Corp's new catalog. It should be ready for international distribution by the end of this month, according to Eddie. . . . Champion Distrib's Mike Detzek tells us he is entering his 15th year in coinbiz, and is busier now than ever before. He and his (lifetime) partner, Irene, consider them 15 very happy years. . . . AMI's Ed Ratajack tells us he's busier than ever—and, we ought to know, 'cause we usually have to keep trying for days just to see him for a brief moment. We sure were delighted to bump into Bill FitzGerald at Fritzel's, who was recently promoted to director of sales promotion for the parent Automatic Canteen Co. . . . Mike Spagnola, AMI Sales, is again surrounded by contractors who returned to the new building to make further alterations. He hopes they'll be finished by the end of August. . . . Marvel Mfg.'s Ted Rubey returned to the plant from a Florida vacation looking fit as a fiddle. He didn't waste any time to get back into the swing of things. . . . George Hincker info's that there hasn't been the slightest slack off in sales of Rock-Ola's "Tempo II" line of phonographs throughout the entire summer season. Edward Doris, executive vice-prexy of Rock-Ola Corp. expects a banner Fall season. . . . Modt Levinson, National Coin, tells us prexy Joe Schwartz is still vacationing in Puerto Rico and will be back sometime this week—if he can pull himself away from paradise! Mort is enjoying a big season in export.

Teenage Olympic Swimmers Relax With Juke

The New York Times (by Robert Walker)

ROSLYN, LONG ISLAND—The landscape here was treated to some additional beauty these past weeks when throngs of teenage girls trained and entered finals for the United States Olympic Swimming Squad.

Pictured above, Carolyn House and Donna De Varona, both of California, enjoy a "bit of home away from home" as they relax and play the juke box. Both girls qualified for the swimming squad and were expected to leave for Rome, Italy and the 1960 Olympics last week. While it was no surprise to the teeners to find a juke box 3000 miles from home it may be a shock for them to find one in Rome where they'll spend several weeks competing with foreign countries. Italy imports about 1000 phonographs from the U.S. each year.

The juke box has continued to play a part of mass entertainment at athletic events such as the Olympics and the recent Winter Olympics staged in California. The mere presence of a phonograph on "foreign" premises seems to stimulate the nation's news photogs with resultant publicity such as this photo as it appeared in The New York Times.

N.Y.'s Grand Central To Get $2 Million Bowl Center

NEW YORK—Bowling, the fastest growing participant sport in the United States, will come to Grand Central Terminal in New York City by June 1961, when a renovation job will be completed converting the 47-year old waiting room on the Vanderbilt Avenue side of the terminal into a 44 lane center which will be called Grand Central Bowl.

Announcements of the new bowling center included information regarding a restaurant, cocktail bar, snack bar, and other types of amusement and entertainment concessions but at press time plans for game rooms and coin-operated equipment were not set for the three-floor bowling project.

The $2 million dollar bowl is expected to attract coin operating firms capable of handling an installation of this size, with music, amusement, and vending equipment. In addition to active bowlers, viewers will be charged a $3 admission.

HEH-RE-TEH

you'll say good-bye to service problems a lot faster than it takes to say "Heh-re-teh" if you'll just simply say, "Rock-Ola" because Rock-Ola phonographs have always been known for their unexcelled dependability and the new 1960 TEMPO II the most dependable of all. When you make the "Big Switch" to Rock-Ola, the constant annoyance of service calls will become a thing of the past because the excellence of the Rock-Ola performance is so outstanding.

The Rock-Ola accumulator, for instance, is the simplest in the industry. All adjustments are mechanical. No wiring to change. No electrical connections to service. Its dependability has been proven through ten years of field use.

Why don't you say, "good-bye" to your service overhead today by saying "hello" to your local Rock-Ola Distributor. He can give you the full story on how to increase your profits in 1960.

Conway Twitty Is An "Artist Of The Week"

NEW YORK—With recording artist Conway Twitty in New York for MGM business and television appearances and the Seeburg Model "Q" on display at Atlantic New York Corporation displaying his latest album "Conway Twitty Sings," what could be more logical than a combination shot of both, especially since one really benefits the other.

The MGM performer is one of the biggest LP selling artists in the nation and was one of the original artists selected for material to be recorded in the 33 1/3 rpm packages for use on Seeburg phonos. The new speed and the new merchandising program, "Artist of the Week," permits LP selections to be programmed on phonographs for the first time through the use of the 33 1/3 7" single disk currently being manufactured by approximately 17 recording firms.

My children and I are so grateful—ever so grateful for the kind expressions of sympathy from coin machine people everywhere on the passing of my husband. I know Mac would be overwhelmed. Our children are comforted and proud that their Daddy and Mommy associated with such kind and considerate people who did so much to convey their concern for us in our hour of bereavement.
