VOLUME XXII—NUMBER 11

NOVEMBER 26, 1960

One of the industry's hottest vocal groups is the Drifters, shown above as they run through "Save The Last Dance For Me," their current smash which has been sitting in the number one spot on the best seller list for the past six weeks. Listening into the vocal jam session is (standing center) Jerry Wexler, executive veep of Atlantic and A&O. On right is Jerry Lieber, Atlantic record producer who, with his partner Mike Stoller, recorded "Save The Last Dance" and the boys' number one smash of a year ago "There Goes My Baby." The Drifters' latest Atlantic LP is titled "The Drifters' Greatest Hits."

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Jerry Butler

Jerry Butler's music career has always been a means to an end—the bakery business—and even with a top ten hit—"He will Break Your Heart"—the young star still professes a stronger interest in pastry baking.

Born December 8, 1939 in Sunflower, Miss., he moved to Chicago as an infant. At seven he joined a church choir as a soprano and graduated to a baritone with the Northern Jubilee Gospel Singers at twelve, remaining with that group for three years.

Music became subordinate to education during the next few years, after which he joined a group called the Impressions in 1957. Local jobs followed and then a discovery by Vi Muzinski when the group appeared at a fashion show. She brought them to Vee-Jay Records where they recorded "Precious Love," a Butler original. "He Will Break Your Heart" marks Jerry's emergence as a single act.

Bert Kaempfert

A skilled composer, arranger, conductor and musician, Bert Kaempfert is now making his mark upon the American record-buying public with his recording of "Wonderland By Night" after many years as a top name on the German market.

Kaempfert was born in Hamburg and spent his childhood becoming proficient on the saxophone, clarinet, piano and accordion. He made his professional debut with Hans Busch's orchestra on a radio program in Danzig. The war interrupted his career but after returning home he formed his own band and spent the next few years travelling through Germany creating a demand for his music. In 1950 he settled permanently in Hamburg and singled with the Polydor label. Polydor releases his records in Europe while Decca has release right to his work in the U.S.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"BLUE TANGO" (1:58) [Mills ASCAP—Anderson]
"WILLIE" (1:55) [Jec BMI—Black]
BILL BLACK'S COMBO (Hi 2027)

Black, one of the most consistent instrumental hit-makers on the wax scene today, comes thru with a hot follow-up to his current biggie, "Don't Be Cruel." This time, it's the Leroy Anderson classic, "Blue Tango," that Black and crew cha cha up-date in their inimitable manner. Coupler's a fetching blues shuffler.

"RUBBER BALL" (2:17) [Arch ASCAP—Orlowski, Schroeder]
"EVERYDAY" (2:10) [Peer Int'l BMI—Petty, Hardin]
BOBBY VEE (Liberty 55287)

Lee, who broke into the 'really big time' with his new version of "Devil Or Angel," should bounce right back into 'top tensville' with his latest for Liberty. And his bouncin' vehicle is an up beat love charmer appropriately tagged "Rubber Ball." Reverse etching's a warm revival of the Buddy Holly chart-maker, "Everyday." It too, can happen big.

"THE PUPPET SONG" (2:20) [Debmar BMI—Marcucci, DeAngelis]
"A PERFECT LOVE" (2:19) [Debmar ASCAP—Wisner, Marcucci, DeAngelis]
FRANKIE AVALON (Chancellor 1065)

The teen idol aims at both kiddie and teen markets with this delightful seasonal novelty that could continue, chart-wise, into the post-Xmas period. It's a captivating entry tagged "The Puppet Song," that Avalon (and a host of voices) tenderly pipes. More lovely sounds, at a faster pace, on the "Perfect Love" portion. Strong support by the Peter DeAngelis group.

"IF I KNEW" (2:47) "THE WORLD IN MY ARMS" (2:02)
[Frank, Rinimer BMI—Wilson] [Sweco BMI—Sherman, Keller]
NAT KING COLE (Capitol 4481)

Looks like the chanter has two more tunes to add to his long list of chart credits. Both are ballad beauts that have that expert Cole touch. They're the slow paced "If I Knew" (from the musical, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown") and subtle Latin beat affair, "The World In My Arms." Ralph Carmichael's crew grabs orchestral credits on the former while Dave Cavanaugh does likewise on the latter.

"ONE MORE CHANCE" (2:36) "BEFORE I FALL IN LOVE AGAIN" (2:28)
[Brenda BMI—Otis] [Sun-Vine BMI—Lyrics & Adapt. White]
Play BMI—Otis, Benton]
CLYDE McPHATTER (Mercury 71740)

Clyde's newest Mercury pairing has what it takes to make it up the hit listings side-by-side. One end, "One More Chance," is a beat-ballad powerhouse that has the dramatic flavor of his while-back "Without Love" click. On the other end the songster displays his stand out rhythm stylings as he zestfully belts out the up beat "Before I Fall In Love Again." Top drawer ork-choral support by the Belford Hendricks outfit.

"MISTER LIVINGSTON" (3:54) [Pattern ASCAP—Darian, DeLory, Van Winkle]
"ROLLER COASTER" (2:53) [Darian, DeLory, Van Winkle]
LARRY VERNE (Era 3034)

Verne's sick comedy, that met with tremendous success on the wax scene via his "Mr. Custer," pops up again on this offering. On this one, "Mr. Livingston," Larry plays the part of Stanley (the famed African explorer). Gimmicks and laughs galore. "Roller Coaster" is a straight recitation (plus other voices and sounds) that's also sure to split sides.

"WALK SLOW" (2:40) "YOU HURT ME" (2:59)
[Bejo BMI—John, John] [Bejo BMI—John, John]
LITTLE WILLIE JOHN (King 5428)

Little Willie John, who just added "Sleep" to his hit record collection, comes thru with two more winners here. One side's an easy-goin' romancer on which he tells his gal to "Walk Slow" (don't run away from love). On the other half a hard beat-ballad blueser he tearfully wails "You Hurt Me." Potent ork support on both lids.

THE DAPPERS (Epic 9423)

(B) "MY LOVE IS REAL" (2:18)
[Blackwood BMI—Cromwell]
The unbilled lead is the fine feature of this tender blueser. Support employs strings and other songsters with a solid teen-beat sound.

(B) "BABY YOU KNOW YOU'RE WRONG" (2:22) [Blackwood BMI—Cromwell] Spotlight songster and rest of team do a hearty blues-rock job on the basic upbeat blues item. Bright work.

DAVID ROSE ORCH. (MGM 12965)

(B+) "THEME FROM BUTTERFIELD 8" (2:56) [Robbins ASCAP—Kaper, David] The lush Rose crew does an attractive mood stint on the wistful pic theme. Handsome instrumental showcase for the number.

(B) "BONANZA" (1:37) [Livingston ASCAP—Livingston, Evans] A rollicking "western" format for the TV main-title.

SPENCER ROSS (Columbia 41877)

(B+) "THEME FROM 'MY THREE SONS'" (2:09) [Don Michael BMI—DeVol] Catchy ditty from the Fred MacMurray TV'er receives a brisk continental-like arrangement from the sax-led crew which hit awhile back with "Tracy's Theme" (from the TV version of "Philadelphia Story").

(B) "HEAVEN CAN WAIT (Mister Jordan)" (2:05) [Alsam BMI—Cobert] A lazy, bluesy theme from last week's CBS-TV spectacular.

KITTY WHITE (Dot 16157)

(B) "WINGS OF A DOVE" (2:15)
[Bee Gee BMI—Ferguson]
Ferlin Husky's current country click gets a good pop display from the lark and the Bill Vaughn ork-chorus setting. Waltzer is catchy.

(B) "WIMOWEH (The Lion Sleep)" (2:31) [Sun-Vine BMI—Lyrics & Adapt. White] The familiar "call" is colorfully handled.

THE LITTLE SISTERS (Parkway 815)

(B+) "THE TWIST" (2:15) [Jay & Cee BMI—Ballard] The Little Sisters are Chipmunk-like voices who answer Chubby Checker's big hit on the same label. In fact, Checker himself has a bit here. Might get the sound around anew.

(B) "THE PONY" (2:28) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann, Appell] The voices offer a giddy-yap rock novelty.

ART MOONEY (MGM 12957)

(B+) "I AIN'T DOWN YET" (2:44)
[Rinimer ASCAP—Willson]
Mooney's ork-chorus provides an appropriately rousing march-type treatment of the tuneful "Molly Brown" musical ditty. Fine sunny sound.

(B) "TIL TOMORROW" (2:16)
[Sunbeam BMI—Harnick, Bock] The charming waltzer from "Fiorello!" gets a light-beat production.

DEANE HAWLEY (Dore 577)

(B+) "RAINBOW" (2:06) [Robbins ASCAP—Hamilton] Songster Hawley, who shared in the recent "Look For A Star" success, revives the several seasons back hit with nice light-beat flavoring. Attractive combo-chorus support.

(B) "HEY THERE" (2:08)
[Frank ASCAP—Adler, Ross]
A shuffle-beat reading of the "Pajama Game" ballad.

THE FOUR PREPS (Capitol 4478)

(B) "BALBOA" (2:34) [Manistee BMI—Larson, Belland] Bright shuffle-beat doings by the team.

ROSEMARY CLOONEY (RCA Victor 7819)

(B) "HEY, LOOK ME OVER" (2:14) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Leigh, Coleman] Lively and tuneless march ditty from the soon-due B'way musical, "Wildcat," gets a properly bright session from the vet lark and Jimmie Haskell ork.

(B) "WHAT TAKES MY FANCY" (2:08) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Leigh, Coleman] Another sunny from the production is related with spirit. Two takes for good-time spins.

THE SWE—DANES (Warner Bros. 5182)

(B+) "HEY, LOOK ME OVER" (1:48) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Coleman, Leigh] The delightful Swedish vocal-instrumental trio get the spirit of the sunny marcher from the upcoming B'way musical, "Wildcat." Engaging sound.

(B) "WHEN YOUR TIME COMES TO GO" (2:20) [Suchan ASCAP—Asmussen, Elvin] A happy live-till-you-die effort from the crew.

DINAH SHORE (Capitol 4476)

(B) "I AIN'T DOWN YET" (2:38)
[Frank Rinimer ASCAP—Willson] Thrush chants along with the ork-chorus in this sparkling view of the engaging item from the "Molly Brown" song-and-dancer. Good for bright-spot spins.

(B) "I GOTTA LOVE YOU" (2:13) [Manchester ASCAP—Freeman, Brown] The performer vocals this sly-beat blueser.

AL TOUSAN (Seville 110)

(B) "NAOMI" (2:09) [Tideland BMI—Toussaint] Light-hearted, continental-type name-song is amiably handled.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"FOLLOW ME" (2:40) [Chappell ASCAP—Lerner, Loewe]

"RAMONA" (2:20) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Gilbert, Wayne]

TONY BENNETT (Columbia 41878)

This typically polished ballad stand by Tony Bennett can develop into the artist's strongest chart item in the past few months. It's a splendid, straight-forward vocal "Follow Me," a beautiful tune from the forthcoming Lerner-Loewe "Camelot" score. The lovely oldie, "Ramona," is done up in similar vein on the undercut.

"WHAT AM I GONNA DO" [Aldon BMI—Sedaka, Greenfield]

"AM I" [Jaycee BMI—]

JIMMY CLANTON (Ace 607)

What should easily be Clanton's next big chart showing is his waxing of "What Am I Gonna Do." Deck's an inviting, slightly up beat romantic opus that could be on its way in the weeks to come. Under half, "Am I," finds Jimmy in a warm, soft beat-ballad pose. Upper end carries all the weight.

"YOUR OTHER LOVE" (2:41) [Brittany BMI—Pomus, Shuman]

"LOVERS GOTTA CRY" (2:03) [Home Folks BMI—Pomus, Shuman]

THE FLAMINGOS (End 1081)

Artists, currently kicking up a chart fuss with the oldie, "When I Fall In Love," dish up a chart-contending newcomer this time out. Tune, tabbed "Your Other Love," is a tantalizing cha cha romancer from the "Save The Last Dance For Me" school. Can step way out. The very pretty beat-ballad "Lovers Gotta Cry" makes for a powerful companion piece.

"RUBY DUBY DU" (2:36) [Robbins ASCAP—Wolcott, Skylar]

"BOB WHITE" (2:43) [Remick ASCAP—Hanighen, Mercer]

JOANIE SOMMERS (Warner Bros. 5183)

The current instrumental click, "Ruby Duby Du" (from the "Key Witness" flick), is treated to a contagious vocal version (with hip teen lyrics). Catchy instrumental backdrop painted by the Sir Chauncey Combo. Flip's a dandy swing up-dating of the old-timer. Top half's the one to watch.

"PLEASE TELL ME" (2:24)

[Jamak BMI—Tyler, Weldon, Myers, Powers]

"BELLS RING" (2:05) [Lode-Mavarick, Sara Lee—Jamak BMI—

Tyler, Weldon, Myers, Powers, Scott]

THE PARADONS (Milestone 2005)

The Paradons can make it two-in-a-row as they follow their initial success, "Diamonds And Pearls," with another potent, teen-appealing outing. The new side, labeled "Please Tell Me," is a Latin beat romancer loaded with hit ingredients. The other end, "Bells Ring," is a heartfelt ballad-with-a-beat opus that can also come thru.

"SIGNIFYING BLUES" (2:32)

[Arc BMI—McDaniel]

BO DIDDLEY (Checker 965)

That infectious 'Bo Diddley' beat is back again and both ends here mean big r&b-pop business. One side, "Signifying Blues," is a humorous conversation piece from his "Say Man." dept. The other half brings back the original "Bo Diddley" session and dresses it up in western "Gun Slinger" garb. Two delighers.

"GUN SLINGER" (1:50)

[Arc BMI—McDaniel]

THE BLUE FLAMES (Strand 25023)

(B+) "BOWLING U.S.A." (2:07)
[Wyndham Associates BMI—Stallman, Jacobson] A rockin' novelty about a guy who says he isn't strong enough to lift the bowling ball. The boys' attack is backed now-and-then by the sound of bowling ball hitting its mark. Could get around.

(B) "POSSUM" (2:12) [Wyndham Associates BMI—Kent, Hood, Reyer] The combo takes a catchy theme for a fine pound-rock ride.

HOAGY LANDS (Judi 054)

(B) "LIGHTED WINDOWS" (2:40) [Robert Mellin BMI—Russell, Medley] Semi-emotional soft-beat blues ballad. Good teen work.

ALLEN ORANGE (Minit 615)

(B+) "JUST A LITTLE LOVE" (1:44) [Minit BMI—Nelville] An R&B-styled rock-a-string rhythmic in which Orange does a fine job on the tuneful opus. Lots of kids will go for this catchy cut. Imperial distributes the label.

(B) "FOREVER" (2:27) [Minit BMI—Orange] The artist brings a sincere romantic voice to the pretty affectionate.

CLEFTONES (Roulette 4302)

(B+) "SHADOWS OF THE VERY LAST ROW" (2:40) [Shalimar Kahl BMI—Covay, Berry] Vet rock songsters and combo come-up with an interesting Latinish about a couple who can't get to be alone. Should impress the kids.

(B) "SHE'S GONE" (2:21) [Kahl Sheldon BMI—Cox] Boys turn to a warm wistful and get the disenchanting point with feeling.

RON THOMPSON/DICK ALLISON (Dreem 2102)

(C+) "DREAM WORLD OF LOVE" (2:35) [Shelter BMI—Allison] Singer Allison does a light-beat romantic warble against a Latinish combo-chanting chorus sound.

(B) "TIKI GUITAR" (2:08) [Shelter BMI—Thompson] Thompson and The Broughams musicians drive nicely on the catchy, Latin-styled ditty. Interesting beat.

SAMMY BENSKIN (Clock 1032)

(B+) "THIRD MAN THEME" (2:25) [Chappell ASCAP—Karas] The years-back Anton Karas hit gets a good-sounding teen combo outing, with a keyboard heading the cheerful approach. Could make noise. Karas has a new version on London.

(B) "ROUND 'N ROUND" (2:45) [Mecca ASCAP—Benskin] Another affable rock stint. Tune is not the old Perry Como click.

TRINI LOPEZ (King 5418)

(B) "THEN YOU KNOW (You've Been In Love)" (2:19) [Lois BMI—Carrell] Vocal brings an expressive touch to the tender romantic. Combo-chorus backing plays a nice soft-beat game. Kids will feel for the take.

(C+) "DON'T TREAT ME THAT WAY" (2:03) [Lois BMI—Lopez, Sheffield] A rockin' blueser for the teen-trade.

BILL BAKER (Vim 515)

(B) "THANK HEAVEN" (2:16) [Lowell BMI—Baker] Performer does a reliable beat-ballad job on the found-love item.

(B) "THE PRICE OF LOVE" (2:20) [Lowell BMI—Baker] Good jump sound to this survey by songster Baker and the zestful combo-chanting chorus.

FERRANTE & TEICHER (ABC-Paramount 10,165)

(B) "LIDA ROSE" (2:39) [Frank ASCAP—Willson] The duopianists—currently hit artists with UA ("Apartment," "Exodus")—offer a sprightly account of the catchy "early 1900's" romantic from "Music Man." Amiable sound.

(C+) "TAKE ME ALONG" (2:22) [Valyr ASCAP—Merrill] The show main-title is given a bouncy arrangement.

VERN MACK (Eldo 109)

(B) "POOR BOY" [Eldorado BMI—McEntire] Mostly overdubbed, Mack does a good job on the intriguing folk-type romancer. Effective guitar-percussion performance in the background.

(C+) "SWEET SUMMER KISSES" [Eldorado BMI—McEntire, Otis] Busy-beat vocal-combo chore, with Mack mostly multi-tracked again. OK drive-beat attraction.

THE FOUR KINGS (Cee-Jay 580)

(B) "I DON'T WANT NOBODY BUT YOU" (2:44) [Garnet—Little, Johnson] Lead nicely leads the way in this light blues jumper. Agreeable rock stuff.

(C+) "GUESS WHO" (2:40) [Lois BMI—Hunter] Same unbilled fella is the feature of the wistful date.

SYLVIA LARAMORE (Miller 1142)

(C+) "MY CONSCIENCE" (2:40) [Miller Song-Kraft BMI—Miller, Lardina] Thrush and Miller Sisters warmly handle the plaintive. Some of the team's setting statements are good.

(C+) "I'LL TELL YOU WHY" (2:35) [Miller Song-Kraft BMI—Miller, Segars] Thrush and gals tell this tale in easy upbeat fashion.

"I LAUGHED SO HARD I CRIED" (2:18) [Arch ASCAP—Schroeder,
Orlowski]

GENE PITNEY (Musicor 1002)

The talented young tunesmith, who has cleffed a number of chart items, makes his debut as a vocalist—and what a powerful debut it is! Side, tabbed "(I Wanna) Love My Life Away," is an exciting double-tracked rocker that could establish Pitney as an overnight sensation. Flip's a touching beat-ballad stint. Great new teen find.

"THE SLIDE (PART 2)" (2:35) [Recordo BMI—Vikki]

"THE SLIDE (PART 1)" (2:40) [Recordo BMI—Vikki]

GOOGIE RENE (Rendezvous 134)

A new dance, "The Slide," can be taking hold in the weeks to come. Reason is Googie Rene's slidin', deliberate beat instrumental (the part 2 side) performance. Teeners'll love it. Artist runs thru the instructions on the vocal (part 1) portion. It's the instrumental half all the way.

The Cash Box Best Bets

TOMMY EDWARDS (MGM 12959)

(B+) "ANGEL BABY" (2:45) [Figure BMI—Ponci] Here's one that's sure to make the teeners sit up and take notice. It's an infectious rock-a-ballad (with Rosie in the lead) romancer from the old r&b (and currently popular) school. It's got the sound the kids'll go for. Watch it.

(C+) "GIVE ME LOVE" (3:00) [Elpe BMI—Ponci] Under lid's an up beat rhythm pleader with a male lead featured.

(C) "ELLEN" (1:54) [Famous ASCAP—Cobbs] Cheerful straight romantic.

WEBSTER WEBFOOT/
TEEN ROCKERS (Del-Tone 5015)

(B) "WHO WILL TAKE ME HOME FOR CHRISTMAS" (2:08) [Aut-Winston ASCAP—Colonna, Hoffman, Motola] Webster Webfoot, a Donald Duck-sounding character played by Jimmy Weldon, offers a cute tune about a pet-shop duck who wants to be taken home for Xmas, is finally purchased. The little-ones will like the sound.

(B) "RINKY - DINK - BLUES" (2:00) [Aut ASCAP—Freeman] The Teen Rockers do a solid job of combining the "rinky-dink-blues" with the big-beat.

DONALD DRUMS (Challenge 59099)

(B) "MERRY CHRISTMAS WINDOW" (1:51) [Jat BMI—Reed, Bancino, O'Connor] Chipmunk like voices are the feature of this amiable seasonal session aimed at the moppet trade.

(B) "(There's Something About A) HOMETOWN BAND" (2:10) [Duchess BMI—Nagy, Lance, Canton] The gimmick voices plus a regular chorus and band convey the marcher with proper zest.

RAMSEY LEWIS TRIO (Argo 5377)

(B) "WINTER WONDERLAND" (2:08) [Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Bernard, Smith] The seasonal sturdy is a brightly swinging instrumental offering in the hands of pianist Lewis. And since he hardly strays from the basic melodic line the slice could wrangle considerable pop programming.

(C) "SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN" (2:24) [Feist ASCAP—Coots, Gillespie] A languid, almost laborious, heavy blues-like take of the Christmas tune.

EDDIE "LOCKJAW" DAVIS

(B+) "SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN" [Feist ASCAP—Coots, Gillespie] Delightfully enjoyable jazz turn on the mainstay. Davis' tenor smoothly caresses the sprightly offering and he has Shirley Scott's able organ backing to rely upon. Should get heavy spins.

(B+) "CHRISTMAS SONG" Again it's a pretty Davis tone which means so much to the enjoyment of this lovely ballad. Both sides are melodious and have good pop chances.

THE MODERN JAZZ QUARTET
(Atlantic 2085)

(B) "ENGLAND'S CAROL" (Part 1) (3:04) [MJQ Music BMI—Lewis] John Lewis' fascinating jazz composition uses "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" as a take-off point. The MJQ is featured in front of a large ork conducted by Gunther Schuller. It's a melding of jazz and classical music and its chamber music sound might be beyond the usual range of many.

(B) "ENGLAND'S CAROL" (Part 2) (3:21) [MJQ Music BMI—Lewis] Continuation of the above.

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

George LaZotte long-distanced with us from WTRY-Troy, N.Y. to discuss his ideas on Christmas programming. In his capacity as program manager of the 5,000 watt, 24 hour station, George decided to experiment this year by starting to play Christmas records earlier than the arbitrary Thanksgiving commencement point. He said that since it takes longer to break a hit they would try to stimulate earlier than usual response to Christmas singles and get the season rolling early. "Besides," said George, "who set that Thanksgiving precedent anyway?" The station kicked off its Christmas programming on Nov. 14, scheduling one or two per four hour show. They're not playing hymns—just pop singles such as Bobby Darin's. As of this writing (16) they have eight or nine things which qualify for airing, and this includes three or four left over from previous years. George noted that he's received excellent cooperation from local businessmen, who have come in early with Christmas ad copy. Even the studio windows are all decked out with the usual decorations. When we spoke to George he was enthusiastic over the acceptance since he's had no listener objection. Banking on the premise that people call mainly to complain, the station has received only one objection to its new policy. Otherwise listeners have sat tight on voicing their opinions. In an honest appraisal of the schedule, George closed the conversation by commenting that he doesn't yet know whether the thing will be successful—but it's worth a try; and since ads have come in paralleling the programming, it looks good. From where we sit we wonder if any other stations have gone ahead with early Christmas programming?

FLYIN' EDDIE GALE (WPLG—Atlanta)

LARRY GAR (WLBG—Laurens, S.C.)

PETER TRIPP (KYA—San Francisco)

Not all blind dates turn out bad says Frank Ferrell (of WDAS-Philadelphia). We think Frank was coerced into making this imposing statement since a blind date Frank had last April turned out to be with the future Mrs. Ferrell. He will be wed in March to Miss Janet Gurk, of Main Line tennis fame. . . . Larry Gar, who rarely gets excited about anything (?), has literally flipped his wig over a recording of "The Bells of St. Mary's" by Terry & The Mellows (on Amy). His listeners concur, so says the vociferous man from WLBG-Laurens, S.C. . . . John Eustace phoned in from WPDM-Pottdsam, N.Y. to reveal that his station is relying more and more on Top 50 programming but is being prohibited from an all-out push on all the pop singles by a lack of the latest disks. In other words, they need service! WPDM is an affiliate of WNDR-Syracuse. . . . A prime example of disk jockeying's fringe benefits is Eddie Gale's adoption by Delta Airline Stewardesses as the man they would like most to "come fly with them." And that's just what the WPLG-Atlanta deejay did. Why not? Most guys are in high cotton with a couple of chicks on the string, but Gale now has a whole list of "flyin' little darlin's" (as he refers to them) to choose from. Gale was officially taken under wing by the Delta Stewardess at the Atlanta International Airport with ceremonies beyond the dreams of any red-blooded American male. Arm in arm with his new admirers, Gale's parting remark was "Man, like if you're not flying, you're not with it." . . . And Eddie's really flying high now!

Jerry and Jimma Strong, WMAL-Washington's husband and wife airtime team, are taping a half hour portion of their show to fill an unusual request from Korea. The Strong's received a package from a Navy Lt. Commander in Korea containing a half hour blank recording tape with a letter asking them to fill it with part of their show. Seems the officer and his wife were stationed in Washington last year and the Jerry & Jimma show became their favorite. The Commander's wedding anniversary is coming up and he would like to surprise his wife with a tape of the show, which they can't pick up on Korean radio. The importance of radio personalities in the personal lives of people never ceases. . . . The three Crowell-Collier stations—KEWB-San Francisco, KFWB-Los Angeles, KDWB-Minneapolis—unveiled last week a completely new series of ID jingles. Johnny Mann, Liberty ork & chorus artist, was commissioned to create a new chain sound. Working on it for the past six months he has incorporated every known musical style into the new library of jingles, including the familiar sounds of Glenn Miller, Perez Prado, Jonah Jones, and others. Looks like a swinging operation.

VITAL STATISTICS:

The West Coast, here specifically San Francisco, continues to be the recipient of D.J.'s (Displaced Jockies). Last week Al "Jazzbo" Collins went to KFSD from WINS-New York, and Peter Tripp moved to KYA from his post at WMGM. . . . Crowell-Collier expands its radio empire with the purchase of WMGM-New York (for a reported sum of $10,950,000) and WGMS-Washington, D.C. Both deals are subject to FCC approval. Crowell-Collier already owns KFWB-Los Angeles, KEWB-San Francisco and KDWB-Minneapolis. . . . WBIC-Bay Shore, L.I. has added Dick Noel to its staff to do a wake-up show. Noel comes from a popular spot with WCBS-New York. . . . The resignation of Howard Eicher as VP and general manager of WSAI-Cincinnati and the appointment of Chick Doty as station director was announced by the station. Before coming to WSAI, Doty was with WCPO-Cincinnati. . . . Brad Lacey of WMYR-Fort Myers, Fla., becomes program director of that station while WMYR staffer Mark Brooks moves to sister station WHEW-Palm Beach as its program director. Jockey Joe Buery takes on added duties as sales manager of WMYR and Brad Lacey continues as music director for both stations. . . . WNTA moved into its new "Golden" studios located at 36 Green Street, Newark, N.J.

LAST CHANCE TO VOTE IN CB's 15th POLL

NEW YORK—The 1960 Juke Box Operator poll will soon be in the record books as the tallying enters its final week. The keen interest indicated by operators is evident in the large total of votes that have come into the New York office of The Cash Box each week since the poll began.

The results of the poll, to be published in next week's issue (Dec. 3) will determine the top money-making recordings and artists on the juke boxes in the pop and country fields during 1960, and will also show which artists juke box operators consider most promising.

Voting is limited to juke box operators and is tallied on the basis of one vote for each machine an operator owns. Voting will cover a five week period. Absolute deadline for ballots is November 22nd.

To aid the operator in voting, an alphabetically arranged list of 1960's top favorites is shown below. To cast your vote, simply fill out the special form which appears below, and mail directly to The Cash Box, 1721 Broadway, New York 19. Vote now, there are only a few days left.

Touring U.S.

NEW YORK—Yaffa Yarkoni, popular Israeli singing star, was recently welcomed to this country by Mitch Miller. Miss Yarkoni is currently on a cross-country concert tour in behalf of Israel bonds and is doing concurrent promotion on her Columbia album, "Sabra! Yaffa Yarkoni."

Victor & Columbia Cut Richter During Tour

NEW YORK—Both RCA Victor and Columbia Records are taking full advantage of much-acclaimed pianist Sviatoslav Richter's current tour of the U.S.

Victor has already released a Richter LP of the Brahms' piano concerto, and label Red Seal A&R head Alan Kayes announced last week that Richter had cut Beethoven's first piano concerto with Charles Munch and The Boston Symphony.

It was also announced last week by Columbia Masterworks director Schuyler G. Chapin that Richter would record for the label during his tour. He will be backed by Eugene Ormandy & The Philadelphia Orchestra. Richter played with Ormandy and The Philadelphia during the orchestra's visit to Russia in 1958. Although this will be Richter's first made-in-America recording for Columbia, the diskery previously released a recording of Richter performances of Liszt and Schubert that originated in a concert in Bulgaria in 1958.

Richter's made-in-Russia recordings are released here by Artia. The Monitor label also has a Richter LP out here.

Vaughn Monroe & Others Added To MGM Line-Up

NEW YORK—Vet songster Vaughn Monroe is among three attractions just added to the MGM Records roster, according to label head Arnold Maxin.

Monroe's debut—"The Song Of The Skier" and "Learn To Ski"—is being released for the time being in just Boston, Hartford, Albany, Minneapolis and Chicago.

The other performers are Armando, a singer who bows with "Transistor" and "Wonderful Time Of The Year" and a song duo, Hank & David, who cut "Lop-sided, Over-loaded."

AmPar Declares Extra 2% Stock Dividend

NEW YORK—An extra stock dividend of 2 percent on the common stock in addition to the regular fourth quarterly cash dividend of 25 cents on the common and preferred stock were declared last week by the directors of ABC-Paramount Theatres.

ABC-Paramount head Leonard Goldenson said the extra dividend reflected the 44 percent increase in nine-month earnings to a record of $7,552,000 from $5,226 in the '59 period.

The cash dividends are payable Dec. 15 to holders of record of Nov. 25. The stock dividend is payable on Dec. 28 to common stockholders of record of Nov. 25. No extra dividend was distributed last year.

Atlantic Issues 7 LP Lomax Folk Series

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records last week released "The Southern Folk Heritage Series," a seven-LP survey of Southern folk music collected and recorded by famed folklorist Alan Lomax. The LP's can be purchased as individual volumes or as a complete set, boxed in a special sleeve. Purchase of the complete set at $29.95 (stereo: $35.45) gives the buyer the seventh LP free.

With Atlantic's portable recording equipment at his disposal, Lomax was able to record in both monaural and stereo.

Each of the LP's contains a booklet describing the music being heard.

In recording more than eighty hours of material—involving more than a hundred different individuals and groups—Lomax ranged over the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Ozarks and the foothills of Alabama and Mississippi. He went into prisons to record convicts singing at their labor, and he went to the Georgia Sea Islands for his materials.

The packages are: "Sounds Of The South"—Survey and general intro to the series; "Blue Ridge Mountain Music"—Featuring the Mountain Ramblers of Galax, Va.; "Roots Of The Blues"—Negro country blues, field holders, and levee camp songs from Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas; "White Spirituals"—Sacred songs and hymns of white backwoods people of the South, some of them dating back to frontier times; "American Folk Songs For Children"—Including twenty-one songs that make-up "The People's Mother Goose"; "Negro Church Music"; "The Blues Roll On"—Supplements "Roots Of The Blues" volume.

Atlantic said it would conduct a "heavy" advertising and promotion campaign of the series. Besides trade paper advertising, the set is being advertised in High Fidelity, The New York Times, Down Beat, The Saturday Review, Little Sandy Review, Journal of American Folklore and "Sing Out" and other publications.

A special effort is being made to interest libraries, music schools and universities in the educational and cultural values of the set.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"THE UNSINKABLE MOLLY BROWN"—Original Broadway Cast—Capitol WAO-1509

Meredith Willson's new musical view of Americana is a delectable, delicious vehicle for the irresistible impish cavortings of Tammy Grimes. As on stage of the hit show Miss Grimes dominates the disk with her brassy brashness, and she gets excellent support from Harve Presnell's operatic voice. The music is delightful—the overwhelming, catchy opening march, "I Ain't Down Yet," the rowdy "Belly Up To The Bar Boys," the touching simplicity of "My Own Brass Bed," the cleverly comical envy of "Beautiful People of Denver" and many other attractive songs. Should be a hit disk.

"FIRST ANNUAL MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE B-I-T-O-A CLUB"—Woody Woodbury—BITOA B-1

Woodbury, self-ordained president of the "Booze Is The Only Answer" club who has triumphed resoundingly with his Steroddities LP's cut "live" from his nightly performances at Ft. Lauderdale's Bahama Hotel, presides here over a spontaneous tete-a-tete with his guests, discussing with them, to hilarious results, their marital status, sex, liquor, etc. Package, promoting Woodbury's "club," contains a paperback size handbook detailing the club's rules of conduct, aims and ideals and parliamentary procedure. Will be welcomed heartily.

"MUSIC FROM 'EXODUS' AND OTHER GREAT THEMES"—Mantovani—London LL 3231

The grandiloquent Ernest Gold main theme from "Exodus" is the spotlight track here and is followed by "Karen," a tender, touching opus from the same flick. To these, other popular pic themes are added—"A Summer Place," "The Sundowners," plus, what could be considered the high points of the album, such fine melodies as "The Carousel Waltz," "Mr. Wonderful" and "Irma La Douce." Solid, stable Mantovani fare.

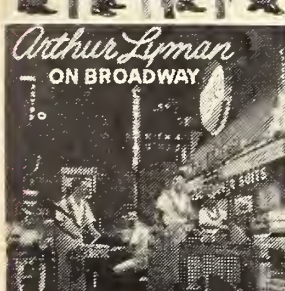

"CAMELOT"—Arranged & Conducted by Hugo Montenegro—Time S/2022

In the first LP account of Lerner & Loewe's melodies for their upcoming "Camelot," the Montenegro ork offers lush, but melody-first renditions of thirteen numbers from the show. The melodies are elegant and the score should rank among the team's best. Good sound is a plus quality.

"ONE BY ONE"—The Coasters—Atco 33-123

A departure from the usual Coasters' fare. This album is designed to show off each member's solo vocal talents, so each of the quartet gives out with the legit sound on such items as "But Beautiful," "Satin Doll," "Moonglow," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" and "Autumn Leaves." Breakdown includes four by Carl Gardner, three each by Will Jones and Cornel Gunter and two bluesy things by Billy Guy.

"ARTHUR LYMAN ON BROADWAY"—HiFi R 818

Eventually every instrumentalist goes "on Broadway" for an LP but at least Lyman has spiced his trip there with originality and inventiveness. This LP features but four tracks, each one devoted to the music from a particular show. The songs are tops (from "My Fair Lady," "The King and I," "South Pacific," "Porgy & Bess") the arrangements imaginative, the Lyman sound-effectively dramatic for wide pop tastes. An excellent instrumental date.

"A BUNCH OF BONGOS"—Willie Rodriguez and the International Stars—Grand Award GA 253 SD

Rodriguez, beefed up by such able percussionists as Ray Barreto, Johnny Pacheco, has the advantage of Grand Award's outstanding engineering to showcase his Latin excursions. The vital urgency of the rhythms and melodies of "Tico, Tico," "Tropical Merengue," "Mambo Loco," "Cuban Mambo" and "Brazilia" are heard in exciting danceable performances by the Rodriguez group. Highly saleable merchandise.

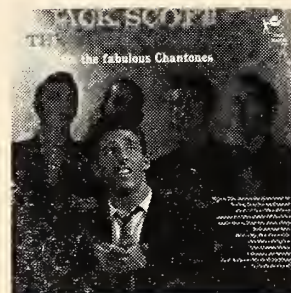

"BLAZING LATIN BRASS"—Nick Perito and His Orchestra—Ultra Audio WWS 8502

Perito's Latinization of classical and pop tunes and original Latin items is basically for the audiophiles, though many can be danced to. Somehow, the Latin sound is more conducive to stereo sound effects and it is played up strong here. The tracks feature the usual blazing trumpets and pulsating percussion, woven into solidly effective orchestrations. Selections include "Malaguena," "Miserlou," "The Continental," "Anna" and "The Donkey Serenade." Commercial release from the new United Artists affiliate.

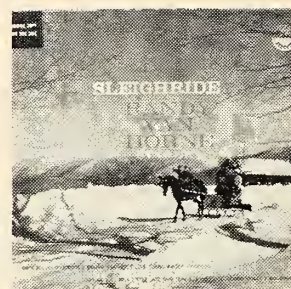

"THE AUTHENTIC SOUND OF THE NEW GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA—TODAY"—Ray McKinley—RCA Victor LSP-2270; "THE AUTHENTIC SOUND OF GLENN MILLER YESTERDAY"—RCA Victor SP-33-90

A gimmick package deal by Victor offers two LP's, one stereo, one mono, for $5.98. The gimmick is coupling the reissue of twelve vintage Miller tracks (i.e. "American Patrol," "In the Mood," "Moonlight Serenade") with the new Ray McKinley-directed Miller ork playing the same tunes, even the exact arrangements (except for some stereo updating). Only noticeable difference between the two is the sound quality. Should make a good gift item for that rare someone without original Miller tracks.

"THE SPIRIT MOVES ME"—Jack Scott with the Chantones—Top Rank RM 348

Scott turns to spirituals and gospel songs for his latest LP outing and he provides these standards with the vigorous, heartwarming performances they demand. The gospel quartet sound is achieved through use of the Chantones with Scott. The outlook is basically rhythmic and contagious for such tracks as "Little David Play On Your Harp," "Just A Closer Walk With Thee," "The Gospel Train" and "Down By the Riverside."

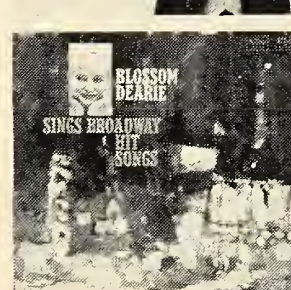

"SLEIGHRIDE"—The Randy Van Horne Singers—Everest SDBR 1112

A swinging tribute to the season by the finely blended voices of the Van Horne choir. This is an all pop program and, thankfully, the overdone tunes have been eliminated for the refreshing likes of "It Happened In Sun Valley," "What Are You Doing New Year's Eve," "Let It Snow, Let It Snow," "Spring Will Be A Little Late This Year" and 8 others. Merits much attention.

"THE HITS OF MICKEY KATZ AND HIS ORCHESTRA"—Capitol T 298

Mickey Katz's whacky yiddish interpolations of popular hits has always been a precious commodity on the Yiddish disk market. Here, on Capitol's "Star Line," are packaged a dozen of the comic's most famous satirizations, among them "Herring Boats," "Kiss Of Meyer," "Bagle Call Rag," "David Crockett" and "Borscht Riders In the Sky." Looms as a big seller in its field.

"BLOSSOM DEARIE, SOUBRETTE, SINGS BROADWAY HIT SONGS"—Verve MG V-2133

Miss Dearie, ideally suited through her voice as a soubrette, here lends her coquettish musical personality to a collection of impishly coy and somewhat naughty songs from the Broadway stage. Russ Garcia's arrangements are eloquent examples of how true collaboration can advance the mood. The songs are "Confession," "Always True To You In My Fashion," "Life Upon the Wicked Stage," "Love Is The Reason" and "To Keep My Love Alive." A delightful album.

"PRESENTING THE CROSBY BROS."—MGM E3873

The Crosby brothers—minus Gary—are growing into a strong show biz act. The vocal talents of the group are presented for the first time on disk with the boys offering harmonious performances of "You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby," "Limehouse Blues," "Singin' In the Rain" and "Magic Is The Moonlight." A new group for future disk contention.

Album Reviews

STEREO

The thrush's last LP outing was a collection of gospel songs, some of which she performed in the "Elmer Gantry" flick. Here she is concerned with spirituals which have been arranged to fit into her vocal style—soft and gentle. With full chorus and soloists in accord with her, Miss Page offers stirring readings of "Steal Away," "Little David," "Great Gettin' Up Mornin'," "It's Me Oh Lord" and "Were You There."

"AN AMERICAN IN ROME"—Phil Brito—Warwick W 2017

A sightseeing visit to this Italian city is tied up in the liner notes with Brito's performances of a dozen American pops. The singer translates such sturdies as "Cherokee," "Jersey Bounce," "Perdido," "Misty" and "Undecided" into Italian language vehicles. He has a warm, pleasing voice and accounts nicely for the bi-lingual etchings here.

"THE AMAZING PAUL RENARD PLAYS THE ALL AMERICAN MUSIC OF GEORGE M. COHAN ON THE WURLITZER PIPE ORGAN"—Riverside RLP 845

Somehow the endearingly cornball music of George M. Cohan seems so much at home being played on an organ. And Renard's masterful technique on the huge Wurlitzer is matched with an affection for the beloved music, resulting in an enjoyable LP. Among the selections are "Har-rigan," "Forty Five Minutes From Broadway," "Mary's A Grand Old Name," "Nellie Kelly, I Love You" and "Give My Regards To Broadway."

"DANCES OF PORT SAID"—Mohammed El Bakkar & His Oriental Ensemble—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5922

The late El Bakkar reigned in the U.S. as the foremost interpreter of the pulsating, sensuous music of the Middle East. This fifth album for AF contains a dozen tracks featuring El Bakkar's forceful tenor voice over a chorus of strident voices and the contagious music spilled out energetically by the instrumentalists. He has a faithful following.

"LET'S GO LATIN"—Herb Zane and his Orchestra—Tico SLP 1073

A happy album of cha cha chas for dancing. Zane uses a pleasing mixture of brass and percussion instruments entwined in imaginative but uncomplicated arrangements, with the sole purpose of providing easy-to-follow Latin danceables. Stereo is used effectively but not religiously so as to diverge from the primary purpose of musicality. The tune program is a mixture of American pops, classical themes and authentic Latin songs—"Frenesi," "España Cani," "The Speak Up Mambo" and "Sentimental Journey," among them.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"ART BLAKEY AND THE JAZZ MESSENGERS AT THE JAZZ CORNER OF THE WORLD"—Blue Note 4016

This is the second volume of Blakey performances cut at Birdland earlier this year. This is one of the hardest striking groups in jazz, propelled by Blakey's relentless rhythmic drive. Lee Morgan, Hanks Mobley, Bobby Timmons and Jymie Merritt, all disciples of the funky Blakey school, complete the picture. Selections include "Chicken An' Dumplin's," "Hi-Fly" and "Art's Revelation." This is strong stuff.

"THESAURUS OF CLASSIC JAZZ"—Columbia C4L 18

Columbia has scoured its jazz catalog of recordings from the Twenties and has found enough interesting material in the archives of the Harmony, Perfect, Okeh, Domino, Actuelle, Pathe and Velvet Tone labels for four disks of music from this "classic jazz" era. Groups represented include Red Nichols and the Charleston Chasers, the Redheads, Arkansas Travelers (never before available) and individuals such as the Dorsey Brothers, Frankie Trumbauer, Miff Mole, Joe Venuti, Eddie Lang, Adrian Rollini, Wingy Manone and many others. Of immense historical interest!

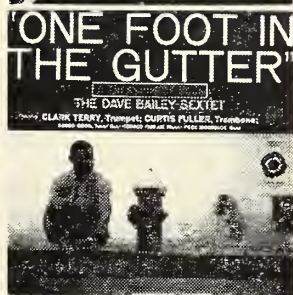

"PHILLY JOE'S BEAT"—Philly Joe Jones—Atlantic 1340

Jones' beat is the most articulate in modern jazz drumming. A master of polyrhythmic solos, he is also most reliable and consistent in laying down a strong rhythmic line which can't fail in propelling the most lethargic member of his current group. Working the rhythm section with Jones here is Paul Chambers and Walter Davis, while newcomers cornetist Michael Downs and tenorman Bill Barron work the horn line. Of course lots of solo space is given to Jones. Selections include "Salt Peanuts," "Two Bass Hit," "Dear Old Stockholm" and four others.

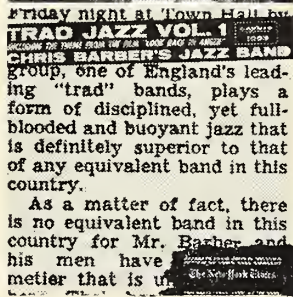

"BE MY GUEST"—Rolf Kuhn—Panorama PLPS-2008

Kuhn, a young German clarinetist now making his indelible mark on the American jazz scene, is surrounded by several outstanding American jazzmen here for a musical trip to distant lands. With Kuhn for performances of such items as "Istanbul," "South of the Border," "Atlanta, Ga.," and "Chicago," are Don Lammond (or Ray Mosca), Jim Hall (or Chuck Wayne) and others, each adding to the total; but it is the tasteful, melodic, inventive (in a Buddy De Franco style) and relaxed work of Kuhn that is up for scrutiny. He passes this test with flying colors.

"ONE FOOT IN THE GUTTER"—A Treasury Of Soul—The Dave Bailey Sextet—Epic LA 16008

Drummer Bailey heads up an ensemble consisting of Junior Cook, Curtis Fuller, Clark Terry, Horace Parlan and Peck Morrison in what is termed "a treasury of soul," three extended tracks played in the down home, return-to-roots blues school. This is solid blues jazz meat, of the kind so prominent with many popular groups today. The "live" takes permit an atmosphere of relaxation and unhurriedness which shows to advantage in the final results.

"TRAD JAZZ" Volume 1—Chris Barber's Jazz Band—Laurie 1903

Barber, of "Petite Fleur" fame, heads one of England's leading traditional jazz bands. His group has been recorded here in a mixture of vintage tunes, pop items and some originals. Each is handled in the New Orleans style regardless of their origin, but there can be detected traces of more recent jazz leanings in the band's playing. Clarinetist Monty Sunshine takes the most solo time and he has a pleasant, melodious tone. Among the tunes are "Swanee River," "Golden Striker," "I Remember When" and "Creole Song."

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

BRAHMS: Concerto No. 2 in B-flat Major for Piano—Sviatoslav Richter, pianist, Erich Leinsdorf conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra—RCA Victor LSC-2466

Richter, this year's "hero" of the concert stage (since emerging from Russia for a U.S. tour under the Hurok banner), duplicates his wildly acclaimed in-person performances of the towering Brahms second on this Victor disk. He has a flawless technique, immense depth and understanding and a large new following to purchase this disk.

"KLEMPERER CONDUCTS WAGNER"—Otto Klemperer conducting the Philharmonia Orchestra—Angel 3610 B

In celebration of the distinguished conductor's 75th birthday he has recorded for this Angel release two disks of Wagnerian operatic orchestral music. The set includes readings of overtures for "Rienzi," "The Flying Dutchman," "Tannhauser," "Die Meistersinger," preludes to "Lohengrin" and a couple of other pieces, all magnificently performed in the superb Klemperer tradition. A recording milestone for the artist.

BACH: Brandenburg Concertos 1-6—Herman Scherchen conducting the Vienna State Opera Orchestra—Westminster 14114, 14115, 14116

Scherchen repeats for Westminster in stereo his three disk session of the complete Brandenburg concerti which he did for Omega monaurally. An acknowledged great interpreter of Bach, the conductor now has the facilities of stereo for even fuller appreciation of the works and he takes advantage of breadth and vividness.

Album Reviews

($1.49 thru $2.98)

"COUNTRY AND WESTERN SONGS THAT SOLD A MILLION" Marijohn and the Jacks, Harmony HS-11079, $2.98, HL-7279, $1.98
Content: "Wabash Cannon Ball," "Cold, Cold Heart," "Mexicali Rose," 7 others. Cover: All type in bright red white and blue. Standout. Performance: Marijohn is Marijohn Wilkin, of course, and the performance is top notch too. Lively brace of country sets with some of the biggest hits. Commercial Value: Extra good deck here with lots to offer the c&w lovers. Good price, good material.

"THE TWIN STRING ORCHESTRAS PLAYING GEORGE GERSHWIN" Warren Vincent, Conducting, Design DCF-1033, $2.98
Content: "Love Is Here To Stay," "I've Got Rhythm," "Strike Up The Band," 7 others. Cover: Arty type layout with script and brush strokes setting mood. Performance: Lush arrangements treat the Gershwin score to an outing via two orks. One plays melody while the other caresses. Nice flavor. Commercial Value: The Gershwin name ought to attract and the Design "compatible" feature should broaden the market (plays on either hi-fi or stereo set).

"A CHRISTMAS CAROL" Narrated by Basil Rathbone with Carols by the Lyn Murray Singers, Harmony HL-9523, $1.98
Content: Dickens' famed opus is narrated here in conjunction with some cheerful caroling by the Murray group. Cover: Very tasteful and artful reproduction of pages from the story book. Performance: Rathbone's theatrical voice was made for this type narration. The story comes off just fine with an abundance of atmosphere and Dickens flavor. Commercial Value: Good pickin's for the rack shopper at holiday time. Looks like standard material.

"JOHN McCORMACK SINGS SACRED MUSIC" RCA Camden CAL-635, $1.98
Content: "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," "The Rosary," "Ave Maria," 9 others. Cover: Portrait of the singer in a pious mood. Tasteful. Performance: RCA has offered collector's material for the hoard of McCormack lovers and the performance here is bound to satisfy even the most critical. Early recordings still reflect the genius of the McCormack voice. Commercial Value: The deck is definitely a pick on strength of collector's value and attraction to the shopper.

"REMEMBER THE ALAMO" Narrated by Claude Rains, Music by Tony Motola, Nobel NOM-102, $1.98
Content: Rains narrates five separate stories having to do with famous personalities involved in this historic period of American history and the parts they played. Cover: Color artwork of a battle scene outside the walls of the fort, tells the story with good display. Performance: Claude Rains manages in his inimitable narration to put across the feeling of great crisis and personal loss in this excellent narration. He strives for realism in a professional manner and achieves it. Score complements narration. Commercial Value: The current movie will help promote sales, although material itself is capable of standing on its own. Should score as a top flight spoken word LP with a market that might attract adults as well.

Album Reviews

CHRISTMAS

"NOEL NOEL"—Anne Phillips Choir—Stere-O-Craft 17

Though this album contains the most familiar Christmas carols, the extremely gifted arranging pen of Anne Phillips has transformed them into completely refreshed melodies. Her handling is thoroughly unorthodox in present disk terms but of the highest artistic order. They command attention as vital performances. Among the selections are "Good King Wenceslas," "Angels We Have Heard on High," "Jesus the Christ Is Born" and "We Three Kings Of Orient Are."

"CHRISTMAS DAY WITH SAMMY KAYE"—Sammy Kaye and His Orchestra—Decca DL 74070

The swing and sway sound of Kaye becomes subdued for this outing. He directs his ork plus the Kaye Choir and the Kaydets with Ray Michaels as soloist in an enjoyable program of reverent and popular Christmas music. Included are "Silver Bells," "It's Beginning To Look Like Christmas," "Christmas Child" and "A Merry Christmas."

"THE REGENSBURGER CATHEDRAL BOYS CHOIR SING CHRISTMAS SONGS"—Decca DL 74062

There is a universal appeal in Christmas music sung in a foreign language. Here many will be charmed by the program of hymns, carols and songs sung in German by this superb boys choir. Under the direction of Dr. Theobald Schrems, the choir demonstrates its superior quality in bringing a reverence to the music. Among the selections are "Oh Tender Child," "Holy Night," "From Heaven Above Ye Angels Come" and nine others.

"Molly Brown" Recorded

The recording of "I Ain't Down Yet" by Molly (Miss Grimes) and her brothers. 3. Capitol's East Coast promo exec Joe Matthews discusses release plans with Wiswell. 4. Producers Jones and Wiswell flank Mitchell Gregg, of the B'way cast. 5. Tammy Grimes in a reflective mood. 6. Cameron Prudhomme and Edith Meisner. 7. Mony Dalmes and Mitchell Gregg. 8. The Chorus.

Bongo Import Source Set Up

CHICAGO—Anthony (Tony) Galgano and Reuben Lawrence, co-heads of Record Distributors of this city, announced last week the formation of their new subsidiary corporation in Mexico City, Mexico, known as Mexicana Musicales.

The new firm will import Latin American musical instruments; such as bongo drums, maracas and guitars into this country, according to Galgano.

"We are happily right in the midst of a 'bongo craze' throughout the United States," Galgano said, "and bongo sales have been just short of phenomenal. This coupled with our heavy record album sales assures Rube and I of one of the greatest sales years in the history of Record Distributors Company.

Distributorships for Mexicana Musicales have been opened in Minneapolis, Buffalo, Miami and New York City, as well as in Chicago. Galgano just returned from a 10 day business trip to Mexico where he lined up the necessary suppliers for his import merchandise.

Tobias' 50th Anny as Cleffer

NEW YORK—Vet cleffer Harry Tobias will be celebrating his fiftieth year in the songwriting profession next year (1911-1961). He has provided stations with a plug sheet containing his tunes and available recordings. He has such evergreens as "Miss You", "Sweet And Lovely" and "Sail Along Silvery Moon."

NEW YORK—A legal complaint was issued last week, November 12th, in the Supreme Court of New York against Samuel Keenholtz individually and t/a Raymar Sales Company by Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc., alleging that Keenholtz had sold counterfeit records of the Cameo release, "Ding-A-Ling". The Cameo label is owned by Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc.

The action purports to be an outgrowth of the seizure of alleged counterfeit Cameo records by Guy W. Calissi, Prosecuting Attorney of Bergen County, New Jersey, allegedly in the possession of Bonus Platta Pak and the claimed subsequent indictments of Robert Arkin, Milton Richman, Brad Atwood and Bonus Platta Pak by the Grand Jury of Bergen County, which prosecutions are claimed to be presently pending.

The suit against Keenholtz was prepared by Blanc, Steinberg, Balder & Steinbrook, of Philadelphia, attorneys for ARMADA. They have retained Walter Hofer of New York City for purposes of this suit.

Art Talmadge, ARMADA's president, said that the plaintiff in this case is a member of ARMADA. ARMADA has been waging a campaign to stamp out counterfeiting on all levels.

In the complaint filed the plaintiff seeks judgment totalling $50,000. The sum of $25,000 is sought for losses sustained by Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc. as well as damage to the reputation of the registered trademark "Cameo" by the alleged purchase and sale of alleged bogus records bearing the Cameo trademark by Raymar. $10,000 is claimed by the plaintiff as additional damages for sales of counterfeit Cameo records by Raymar. Raymar's profits on the sale of such records are further sought by the plaintiffs and in the Complaint this amount is estimated at $15,000.

In addition to monetary damages, plaintiff is requesting an Injunction against Raymar to restrain the defendant from the future purchase or sale of spurious records bearing the Cameo trademark. Further relief in the nature of an accounting and destruction of counterfeit records in Raymar's possession are also requested by the plaintiff.

The Complaint which was filed alleges that the trademark "Cameo", owned by Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc. is a registered trademark in the Patent Office and New York State, and that by virtue of care, judgment and ability employed by the label owner the label has acquired and enjoyed a reputation of quality and excellence in the field." A subsequent allegation is that Raymar with full knowledge of Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc. registration of this trademark engaged in buying, selling and advertising for sale counterfeit records bearing the Cameo label. It is stated that Keenholtz knew that the records he purchased were in fact counterfeit records.

In the action it is claimed that Keenholtz made numerous sales of these counterfeit records in the New York area for a considerable, but unknown period of time.

Talmadge, further said, "This suit is the most recent of those which have been brought in cases alleging traffic in counterfeit records. ARMADA has been a moving force in the actions undertaken to eradicate this practice. Suits have been instituted in several states and are presently pending. Violations have also resulted, in some instances, in criminal prosecutions.

Special sales emphasis will be made to promote this release as part of the anniversary celebration and as a Christmas record. Arrangements are being made by distributors to sell the record in stores handling religious articles, in theatres and through regular dealer outlets.

Initial Ultra Audio Pressing A Sell-Out, UA Reports

NEW YORK—The entire initial pressing of 200,000 albums in United Artists' new Ultra Audio series has been sold, according to an announcement last week by UA national sales manager Andy Miele. There are five separate releases and plants are rushing additional copies to meet the "influx of orders."

"The tremendous interest in 'sound' LP's throughout the country was clearly indicated in the response to our dealer showings," Miele said. "Too, we found most dealers not only anxious to stock the Ultra Audio line, but happy to receive the merchandising package which is included. More window space was obtained nationally this past week than I have ever experienced."

With the results now in from most areas, Art Talmadge, UA's veep and general manager, reported that the second Ultra Audio series, which will be released early next year, is already underway. The "Coverama" packaging featured in the initial release will continue. Those artists "definitely set" for the second series include Eydie Gorme and Steve Lawrence, Sauter-Finnegan Orch.; Ralph Marterie Orch.; Tito Rodriguez Orch.; Nick Perito, Ferrante & Teicher and Terry Snyder.

New Woodbury LP Plays Up Comic's "BITOA" Club

NEW YORK—Stereoddities Records is merchandising its new Woody Woodbury LP under Woodbury's fan club, "Booze Is The Only Answer Club." In fact, the LP—which follows big chart-sellers, is under the Stereoddities-distributed Bitoa label and is tagged "The First Annual Message From The President To The Members Of The BITOA."

BITOA was organized several months ago by its "leader and president" and invitations were inserted in the second Woodbury album "Laughing Room," inviting the purchaser to join and receive an official membership suitable for framing at no cost to the recipient.

The response, according to label head Fletcher Smith, was "overwhelming and now BITOA is a corporation within itself with close to 1,000 members and for the record shop it means a . . . pre-sold initial market for all future Woody releases, not to mention the other releases out of the Stereoddities and Duo stable."

The LP also contains a pocketbook of Woodbury jokes and a BITOA "Booze-Nooze" paper.

Capitol Offers "Molly" LP With Purchase Of 10

NEW YORK—Capitol Records Distributing Corp. will give dealers one free copy of the new original-cast album of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" with every ten "Molly" albums purchased, it was announced last week by William B. Tallant, Jr., CRDC veep and national sales and operations manager.

The one-for-ten offer is identical to that announced on Nov. 7 for Capitol's "Tenderloin" original cast.

Dealers buying ten monaural copies of "Molly" will receive an additional monaural album free, with the same deal applying to the stereo LP.

Dealers buying mixed lots will receive a free monaural copy with each ten purchased.

The offer on both the "Molly" and "Tenderloin" applies also to jobbers, syndicate stores and distributors. The bonus offer on "Molly" is effective from the release date of the LP, Nov. 21, through Dec. 24. The "Tenderloin" deal began Nov. 28 and ends Nov. 25.

Probe Bribery Reports In N.Y. Cabaret Licenses

NEW YORK—A scandal involving purported bribes to police officials in the issuance of cabaret licenses here was in the making last week and it could have important repercussions in the music trade.

In a telegram sent to Gov. Rockefeller last Monday (13), a Citizens Emergency Committee called for a state investigation into complaints of such bribery, including a specific example of a Deputy Police Commissioner who allegedly was offered $100 by a theatrical agent to reinstate the cabaret license of the late comedian, Richard M. (Lord) Buckley, who the police say lost his license because he concealed an arrest in applying for it.

By week's end, Gov. Rockefeller requested New York City Mayor Wagner and Police Commissioner Kennedy to send him reports "on matters contained" in the Citizens Emergency Committee's charges.

Earlier in the week, Investigation Commissioner Louis I. Kaplan told the press that he intended to check 11,000 cabaret licenses to determine if any were obtained in an illegal manner. Kaplan also said he would question various entertainers. There are 1,100 establishments in the city which are termed cabarets.

Situations of instances were performers played niteries in New York without a license came to light when Frank Sinatra admitted through a spokesman that he never obtained a performer's card here and would not play New York if he had to get one. He contends the police investigation into requests for a cabaret license—which involves fingerprinting—is demeaning to the performer. Sinatra has been playing the Copacabana in recent years.

On the other hand, the Nov.-Dec. 15% discount encompasses the entire Roulette pop catalog as well as the new pop releases and all of the Tico and Roost LP's in the catalog.

Oberline's own Ultra Audio division has been manufacturing audio products under that name for a long time, and thus claimed prior usage. In the agreement, UA acknowledged Oberline's prior use and ownership and Oberline agreed not to use the name in connection with records, while UA agreed to confine its usage to them.

Ascher in addition to his publicity activities conducts a weekly column for the Chicago magazine Night Life In Chicago.

Rank Adds Noble $1.98 Kiddie Line

NEW YORK—Harold Friedman, consultant to Rank Records of America, announced last week the addition of a third line to the Top Rank and Jaro diskeries titled Noble Records. The new member of the Rank Records product is a $1.98 children's album label independently produced for the firm by Lyle Engel.

The first four albums bearing the Noble banner are "Popeye's Zoo" with Jack Mercer (who plays "Popeye" in the Paramount films) "Grimm's Fairy Tales" with Marla Ray, "Alice In Wonderland" with Mimi Benzell and "Remember The Alamo" with Claude Rains narrating and music by Tony Mottola.

Friedman stated, "... I have long been aware of its significance in the development of a fully rounded recording firm. For the past several years, gross sales in this area of the LP field have been in excess of the industry average, indicating its dynamic growth. Lyle Engel's own experience in the field as an independent producer made him ideal for us. The excellent covers of the Noble line add immeasurably to the sales value. The merchandising techniques that we have prepared with Dewey Bergman, Jr., director of album sales for Rank Records of America, should make this one of the most profitable lines our distributors have ever handled."

Crowell-Collier Buys WMGM For Near $11 Million

NEW YORK—Crowell-Collier Broadcasting Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Crowell-Collier Publishing Company, last week signed a contract to purchase radio station WMGM, New York, from Loew's Theaters Broadcasting Corporation for $10,950,000, as was previously reported. The selling company is a subsidiary of Loew's Theaters Inc.

The purchase is subject to the approval of the Federal Communications Commission.

Signing the contract were Robert M. Purcell, president of Crowell-Collier Broadcasting Corporation, Lawrence Tisch, chairman of the board of Loew's Theaters Inc., and Arthur Tolchin, vice president and general manager of WMGM.

One of the most powerful stations in the New York Metropolitan area, the 38-year-old WMGM transmits at 50,000 watts and operates on a frequency of 1050 kilocycles. The station maintains studios at 400 Park Avenue, New York.

Crowell-Collier already owns three radio stations—KFWB Los Angeles, KEWB San Francisco-Oakland and KDWB Minneapolis-St. Paul. The company has also entered into a contract for the purchase of WGMS (AM and FM) serving the Washington, D.C. area. Besides Federal Communications Commission approval, the purchase of the Washington station is subject to the settlement of certain legal questions.

Station WMGM will be operated under the supervision of Purcell. A veteran of 30 years in the broadcasting industry, he has been with Crowell-Collier since 1956 when the company entered the radio field with the purchase of KFWB in Los Angeles.

The Crowell-Collier Publishing Company in July purchased a majority interest in The Macmillan Company, one of the nation's oldest and largest book publishing firms. A merger proposal has been approved by the boards of the two firms and will be submitted for approval to their respective stockholders in December. A wholly-owned Crowell-Collier subsidiary, P. F. Collier & Son Corporation, publishes Collier's Encyclopedia, the Harvard Classics and other reference works.

Victor Fetes Sholes, 3 Others On 25th Year On The Job

NEW YORK—Steve Sholes, RCA Victor's manager of pop A&R, was one of four record division employees feted last week (17) by the Radio Corporation of America for 25 years service with the firm.

Sholes, A. L. McClay, general plant manager; Ernest P. Ruggieri, manager of manufacturing, Rocky Plant; and F. G. Stubbs, manager of factory engineering, Rockaway Plant, joined the RCA 25-year Club at the dinner held in the penthouse of the St. Moritz.

Howard Letts, RCA vice-president and controller, was guest speaker for the occasion. John Hendrickson, New York personnel manager, served as toastmaster.

George R. Marek, vice-president and general manager of the record division, presented the four recipients engraved gold watches and scrolls commemorating their completion of a quarter century employment with RCA.

Surprise guests at the dinner were Chet Atkins, Nashville A&R director, and Victor recording star Jim Reeves. Atkins and Reeves saluted Sholes with medleys of songs the A&R man has been associated with over the years, and with some special material ribbing Sholes good-naturedly. Scores of congratulatory wires and letters were sent Sholes from divisions of RCA all over the country and from artists and music business figures.

Attending the dinner were William Bullock, vice-president of the disk division creation department, himself a member of the 25 Year Club, and Ed Tuft, personnel vice-president; Frank McClure, director of organization development; Jack Burgess, disk vice-president and manager of the sales and merchandise department; and Robert L. Yorke, vice-president of the commercial records creation department, among others.

Dealers: Stock-Up On All Disks In Dec., Nathan Says

NEW YORK—During the holiday selling season, dealers should maintain their year-round inventory as well as Christmas, merchandise, according to King Records prexy Syd Nathan.

In a recent dealer mailing, Nathan said that "for some reason, every Dec. the dealers are only interested in Christmas merchandise and the current selling singles. This always creates a vacuum right after Christmas and from our own experience and surveys . . . we feel this practice is wrong."

Citing a survey of 250 "key accounts and larger stores," 89% reported Dec. as their biggest volume month, Nathan said that "it would seem that if your greatest volume comes during Dec. then you would need your greatest inventory and stocks during that time."

By not stocking in depth much other than Xmas merchandise, "this means that in Dec. a dealer's inventory of regular catalog sellers is depleted dangerously low and "by the time he re-evaluates his stock, determines his needs, places his orders and gets the merchandise on his shelves, time has passed and sales are lost," according to Nathan.

Nathan calls for a program of "Don't be afraid to buy during December" just "good common sense." "We have proven that summer business can be good. . . . Dec. business can also be good on other than seasonal Christmas merchandise."

ENGLAND

During a recent visit to Munich, Berlin and Hamburg it was a pleasure to meet many leading personalities of the German record and music publishing scene and to find that both are sharing the general post-war boom of prosperity. The price of disks in Germany is much the same as England with the biggest sales going to pop singles and EP's which are particularly strong in the classical field. The LP market, on the other hand, is slow—the price being generally too high. LP's by one particular artist appear unprofitable and manufacturers therefore tend to issue disks of varied content featuring several artists. Apparently the possible loss in record sales and royalties resultant from the upsurge in the popularity of tape recorders and the taping programs is a matter of concern to record manufacturers. A special committee made up of representatives from major record companies and GEMAR is being formulated to investigate and, if possible, remedy the situation.

The leading record stores in the cities visited were modern, spacious and well equipped. It is interesting to note that unlike England the sleeves displayed in browseries actually contained the records. The dealers' main problem is shortage of staff although wages are relatively high. A notable difference between our two countries is that whereas in England the industry is operated primarily from one center—London—in Germany leading manufacturers and publishers are decentralized with headquarters in towns as far apart as Munich, Berlin, Hamburg, Cologne, Frankfurt and Gutersloh. Nowhere can be found the equivalent of New York or London's "Tin Pan Alley."

During a visit to D.G.G. in Hamburg I met top recording star Lolita whose English version of her No. 1 German hit "Sailor" (Kapp) is currently climbing The Cash Box Top 100. She has already waxed another title in English as a follow up. Another German artist with a new English disk for the U.S. market is Deutsche Philips star Heidi Bruhl with "Ring Of Gold" released in the States on Epic (the original German version has sold over 670,000). London manager Paul Cave is bringing Heidi to England in the New Year. Her first appearance will be in David Nixon's "Showtime" on BBC TV on January 8. Encouraged by Lolita's stateside hit, it is hoped that more and more top flight continental stars will seek to enhance their reputations in the international field by re-recording their original hits for the world market. American and British stars now recording in German include Connie Francis whose latest single release is "Robot Man" in English backed with a German version of "Everybody's Somebody's Fool (Die Liebe Ist Ein Seltsames Spiel), and Britain's Anthony Newley has a German version of his English hit "If She Should Come To You" backed with "Charmaine." Top teenage star Cliff Richard may be waxing for the German market "Nine Times Out Of Ten" and "Fall In Love With You." In Hamburg I attended the Bravo Musik-Box star concert and the 6,000 fans present reflected the popularity and drawing power of recording stars Max Greger (Polydor), Lolita (Polydor), Laurie London (Electrola), Will Brandes (Electrola), Jan and Kjeld (Ariola), Maureen Rene (Polydor), Ted Herold (Polydor), Ivo Robic (Polydor), Detlef Engel (Teldec), The Honey Twins (Polydor), Gus Backus (Polydor) and Max Kutta (Polydor).

In Berlin, accompanied by American publisher Paul Siegel of Paul Siegel Music currently riding high with "Itsy Bitsy" and "Four Little Heels," I visited top teenage star Conny, whose latest waxing for Electrola "Midi Midinette" is now on the German charts. Conny told me she is to record the flip side "Wer Wird Der Erste Sein" in English. Also visited the magnificent lakeside villa of composer Heino Gaze. Responsible for many film scores Gaze also wrote the current German chart entry "Kalcutta." Also met ace composer and A & R Manager Werner Mueller whose latest LP "Top Hits in Colour" is released in Germany on Decca and in America on London. Mueller has just completed his first single aimed at the international market "Tango Barcelono" for release in Germany and England on Decca and on RCA in the States. Another well known conductor I was fortunate enough to meet was Bert Kaempfort, whose Decca recording of "Wonderland By Night" is a stateside hit.

Back in England, Fred Jackson of Planetary Kahl and Tin Pan Alley Music has the latest release by The Shadows "Stranger" on Columbia. Published by Tin Pan Alley the disk coupled with "Man of Mystery," now in the English charts, has sold over 80,000 in its first week. The same company handle the follow up to Edith Piaf's "Milord" "C'est un Homme Terrible" retitled "Blue Eyed Boy" with English lyrics by Bunny Lewis (who also penned the English lyrics for "Milord"). English covers by Al Saxon on Fontana and Georgia Brown on Decca. Planetary Kahl publish the current hit from The Cash Box Top 100 "You Talk Too Much" by Joe Jones on Columbia, Frankie Ford on London and an English version by Johnny Carson on Fontana.

Following the first performance by Gracie Fields of her latest Columbia recording "In Jerusalem" (a French melody with American lyrics) on her BBC TV show, publisher Bert Corri of Francis Day & Hunter reports enormous reaction.

The Decca Record Company hosted a party recently for Henryk Szeryng, the world famous Polish born violinist now a Mexican citizen. Szeryng made his London debut last year. Still in the classical field Decca's all-star record of "Die Flodermaus" has received excellent reviews and sales.

Decca's top rock 'n' roll star Tommy Steele received enthusiastic notices for his performance as Tony Lumpkin in the Old Vic production of "She Stoops To Conquer." Alma Cogam currently holidaying in New York, appears in ATV's "Saturday Spectacular" on November 26th. Co-starring is Parlophone recording star Adam Faith. Danish stars Nina & Frederik and The Malcom Mitchell Quintet are among Alan Melville's guests in the BBC TV programme "Parade" on November 23. Continuing his big star policy at The Pigalle Al Burnett presents American comedy star Jack Carter for a four-week season. Also on the bill American TV singers The Barry Sisters.

ABC TV have engaged a galaxy of stars to appear in their special Christmas Day program, "Alice Through The Looking Box"—a modern version of Lewis Carroll's Alice In Wonderland where Alice played by Jeannie Carson discovers a world of wonder inside her television set. Other characters are to be played by famous names including disk stars Harry Seacombe, Adam Faith, Joe Henderson, Spike Milligan and d.j. Pete Murray.

ABC TV cameras will visit factories throughout the country for their new series "Sing Along With Joe" featuring Pye recording artiste Joe Henderson. Commencing November 20 the program will include songs old and new and a parade of pops sung by Valerie Masters, Don Rennie and The Kentones vocal group.

Following the publication by Penguin Books of D. H. Lawrence's controversial novel "Lady Chatterley's Lover" Caedman Records release an LP recording of selected readings from the book. Planned and completed some months ago the readings by Pamela Brown are mainly concerned with the character and thoughts of Lady Chatterley. Available on November 30 retailing at 39/9d.

Coinciding with the screening of the first "Ken Dodd Show," in a new BBC TV series, Decca has released the singer/comedian's second disk "Dream That I Love You."

It just doesn't take long for a new Freddy record to get off the ground here. His newest release "Weit Ist Der Weg" has only been out for 3 weeks as of this writing and has already moved over the 200,000 mark. As far as radio plays are concerned, he is in 2nd position in the Radio Luxemburg hit parade, and in Stuttgart this week, his song took 50.8 percent of all the requests or 2,692 letters. Freddy hasn't had a single here which has gone under a half a million and he is also a top film attraction. He's young, handsome and talented, and he still has yet to get a stateside hit. Watch out America, this boy has to break through sometime, and when he does, watch him climb to the top. By the way, Freddy speaks excellent English with an American accent.

Peter Kraus has a new TV show going for him December 10. The show is called simply "Your Peter Kraus."

The big ball given annually by the press was recently held and American Bill Ramsey was the feature attraction. Big Bill who sings with a great drive has been living here since he left the U. S. Army and his job as DJ on AFN. Now, he's one of Germany's top attractions and record stars. He also does a weekly DJ stint on Radio Luxemburg. Here's another attraction with great possibilities for the England-America market.

Connie Francis, who has sold over 250,000 of her first German recording which was "Everybody's Somebody's Fool" or "Die Liebe Ist Ein Seltsames Spiel," has already recorded her newest American smash, "Many Tears Ago" in German. Bobby Lueth handled the lyrics for this country, and advance reports predict another big one for Connie in this market.

Lolita, who is hitting the Top 100 with her recording of "Sailor," is back in the top ten here with her version of Anita Bryant's "My Little Corner of the World" in German.

Polydor took top honors in the radio Luxemburg hit parade last week. They took 8 of the top 12 positions.

On November 26, German TV will broadcast a big music show from Berlin called "We Make Music." There are very few new Christmas songs being cut for the new season here. All of the record firms are planning to rely on their standard catalog and the new pops being rushed out for the season.

Warner Bros. Bobby Weiss just completed a jet tour of Europe. Bob covered Hamburg, Germany, Helsinki, Finland, Stockholm, Sweden, Oslo Norway, Copenhagen Denmark, London and Paris in the record time of 5 days. Here's a few more statistics for interested parties. Germany has 850 dance schools with over 300,000 pupils. Here are the winners. The top 3 gals were Sabine Sinjen,—actress, Conny—recording star-actress, and Heidi Bruhl—recording star-actress. The three men were Peter Kraus—records-actor, Rex Gildo—records-actor, and Klaus Wilke—actor, in that order.

Germany is now full of American film stars making films here. Kirk Douglas is here for "Town Without Pity," Esther Williams and Cliff Robertson are making "The Big Show," a circus film featuring the famous German circus "Circus Krone" and Tina Louise, Howard Keel and Earl Hollyman are here for work on the film "Armoured Command." The reasons for filming here, besides the fine sets in Europe are mainly reduced production costs. Just as an example, it costs 4 dollars an hour for a musician on a session here. The powerful radio network of the U.S. Armed Forces, AFN has a new show called "Songs, Sinatra and Strings." As the name implies, Frank Sinatra is featured. The show is broadcast weekly out of Orleans, France with Robin Sunde handling the DJ chores.

A Week of "Premieres"—at the Olympia Jean-Claude Darnal (Vogue) got the big hand he deserved with "Papa O Papa." Big success. At the Alhambra a real variety show with Henri Salvador (Barclay) topping the bill, and Henri had them literally "in the aisles." In the States, the deck has been issued on the London label (see review in The Cash Box "Pick of the Week," November 5). 65,000 copies of "Ramona" have been sold within eight weeks. Other recent Fontana releases include singles by the accordion duo Sjeng Haeron, Die Zwei Caballeros, Liana and the Canaries (Oh, Be My Baby and I Can Forgive, Liana's first recordings in English) and Johnny Mathis (My Love For You). Poppy and her Pop-cats are expected to be the latest teenager sensation. Their Fontana-debut record has I Wonder If You Know c/w Please Help Me, I'm Falling. The song last mentioned is growing steadily in popularity in the low countries. A to be watched pop record.

MGM star Vera Lynn doing very well in Holland with her Accordion. Further news of Bovema's MGM staff is that Ben Hur still attracts packed houses and that the same development is expected from The Subterraneans, which will be highly promoted by the Dutch press. MGM maintains its big name in both the motion-picture and the recording field. A big chance for reaching the hit parade has Bing and Satchmo recording of Muskrat Ramble. Also the runner-up this week is Connie Francis' Senza Mamma, says Bovema's Frank Visser.

An unexpected success was the rendering of the Addy Kleynveld song Will You Stay Forever With Me by the Harmonia Sisters on the CNR label. WHAT PHONOGRAM MEANS TO HOLLAND'S RECORD INDUSTRY

STREAMLINED SERVICE

In Holland's rapidly growing disk market, Phonogram's sales - of such top labels as Decca, Philips, London, Fontana - exceed the combined turnover of its three nearest competitors.

What made Phonogram get so far ahead of every other record company? Sound salesmanship? Sure! Separate sales forces for each one of its labels? That, too. But there's more. Phonogram has the know-how and the equipment to get records, with accompanying invoice, on their way to dealers less than 20 minutes after an order comes in. Such streamlined service means bigger and faster sales, especially during the peak period around Christmas when as many as 1200 orders are processed day by day.

These facts are worth considering if the matter of your representation in Holland should come up.

AUSTRALIA

Live television shows originating from our four major TV stations (two in Sydney and two in Melbourne) have been brought to a halt over a dispute with the Musician's Union. The Union is seeking a fee (a percentage of the original payment) for the replaying of live shows that are video-taped or filmed for later screenings. At the time of writing, there is no sign of a settlement to the dispute which has already put two leading national TV shows off the air and has also caused the cancellation of several important live shows in both Melbourne and Sydney. The trouble is between commercial television and the Musician's Union, the Government-operated outlets are not affected.

Castle Music's Joe Halford has returned to Sydney after a hectic promotion visit to Melbourne. Joe anticipates big things with the Rolf Harris song, "Six White Boomers."

The first of the locally recorded disks of the European smash, "Milord," has been rush-released by W & C Records, it features popular TV singing star Gaynor Bunning, with the new English lyric by Bunny Lewis. "Milord" is published in this country by Belinda Music, Belinda's Tony Brady believes the song will be an important hit throughout Australia and New Zealand. Tony is busy promoting the Gaynor Bunning disk of the song.

RCA Records is very quick off the mark in Australia in releasing its latest hits from the United States. They had issued Jim Reeves' "Am I Losing You" almost at the same time as it appeared in America. It is expected that they will make an immediate of Elvis Presley's "Are You Lonesome Tonight."

RCA could easily scoop the pool during the peak Christmas buying spree with its just-issued album of Mario Lanza in "The Desert Song." Lanza has been a top album artist in this country for many years, his "Student Prince" album ranks as one of the all time best-selling LPs ever to be released in Australia.

Nice to see that EMI has issued the Gene McDaniels single "Green Door" c/w "The Facts Of Life." The release is on the London label. McDaniels created a very favorable impression upon all those who caught his act on the recently completed Lee Gordon Australian Jazz Festival.

The vast EMI organization is rapidly warming up its big Christmas release campaign. They have just issued a whole flock of seasonal albums including Nat Cole's "The Magic of Christmas"; The Kingston Trio's "The Last Month Of The Year"; "Joy To The World" by the Roger Wagner Chorale and "The Music Of Christmas" by the Hollywood Bowl Symphony.

Marty Angus, spearheading the currently red hot sales team of W & G Records, announced that W & G would represent the lush professional line of the American Music Minus One Company. Angus, just back from a fact-finding tour of New South Wales, states that initial dealer reaction to the line was "encouraging." The MMO series will be handled by the W & G-owned teams in New South Wales, Victoria and Tasmania, whilst W & G's normal services will handle the line in South Australia and Queensland. Initial U. S. negotiations were handled by W & G's Jimmie Parks.

In a statement to the press, Ron Gillespie of W & G Records announced the pacting of W & G and Kem Records; following negotiations, W & G will represent Kem in Australia and New Zealand.

The Myer Music Bowl was the scene on Sunday, October 30, of "The Story Of Jazz," a two and a half hour jazz concert about the progression of jazz, employing six Melbourne groups: Les Barnard's Famous Jazz Band; The Melbourne New Orleans Jazz Band; Paul Marks Folk Singing Group—a special mainstream group—The Brian Brown Quintet and the new Bruce Clarke Big Band.

This was the first time that jazz had been allowed into The Myer Music Bowl and a crowd of 60,000 turned up to hear the story and the sounds. Myke Dyer presented the program, tracing the various sounds from Scott Joplin to Gil Evans. Clarke's Big Band climaxed the afternoon with his 18-piece band of Melbourne musicians playing compositions and arrangements of Bill Russo, Jimmy Guiffre, Gil Evans, Randy Weston, Manny Albam and Clarke himself.

Dyer also compared the recent Melbourne series of Lee Gordon's Australian Jazz Festival and has a weekly jazz session "Sound Study" from Station 3XY, this program will shortly be celebrating its sixth anniversary.

An interesting jazz release by EMI on its Columbia label is the locally produced "Jazz For Beach-Niks" Vol. 2, featuring The Australian All-Stars. This release follows closely on the heels of volume one in the series, which is reported to be a best-seller for EMI. Both disks are worthy of release to a world market.

Johnny Preston doing well here with his new Mercury single of "Charming Billy." Preston caught big sales here previously with "Running Bear," "Cradle Of Love" and "Feel So Fine."

The first release of EMI's "Concert Classics" range—a fine series of 12" albums retailing at 39/6—consists of ten previously unissued disks. A move such as this from the vast EMI group of labels could prove to be the driving force in eventually bringing about a general decrease in regular album prices. Many record company executives in this country firmly believe that retail prices must all be cut—some advocate a drastic reduction—in order to help the common cause of the record industry to further popularize records as an entertainment medium. They point out that the current popularity of EP's is a perfect illustration of their beliefs. EP's, which retail at an average of around 16/., are consistently in demand.

Latest singles from Festival's Top Rank label includes Freddy Cannon's "Humdinger"; "Hush Hush" by Jimmy Reed; "Come Back" by Jimmy Clanton and "Tonight's The Night" by The Shirelles. A Top Rank album getting a good share of air-play is "A String Of Pearls" by The Knightsbridge Strings, this LP could easily develop into a good sales item throughout Australia.

Johnny O'Keefe's latest single for the Lee Gordon label carries the wild rocker "Ready For You" which was recorded in the United States and a fine version of "Save The Last Dance For Me" which was recently cut in Sydney. O'Keefe's previous single, "Come On And Take My Hand" c/w "Don't You Know," has just finished a successful run in the Top Ten across the nation.

ITALY

At the end of 1960, Italian I.F.P.I. will vote for the posts of president and secretary. Mr. Trinelli, who heads the Cetra Record House in Turin, is presently the president, while Mr. Frachetti is the secretary. Frachetti, author of the column "Italian Record Production From 1957 To 1958" in The Cash Box Anniversary Issue, assured me that he will be able to supply me with the figures of 1959 in time to be published in the Christmas edition of The Cash Box. He did tell me that record sales dropped in 1959.

On November 19, Curci Music Publishing House will offer a dinner party at the Continental Hotel to celebrate its 100th anniversary. The only other music publishing house in existence longer than Curci is Ricordi, and it is one hundred and fifty years old.

The showing of "Can Can" in Milan goes on successfully, as well as the soundtrack LP on VCM. They have sold 10,000 albums and it is fast climbing towards the mark of VCM's strongest selling LP in the sound track field. This mark was reached with "High Society" from 1957 until now.

Her latest performances on the show were "Tintarella Di Luna," which topped the chart for several weeks, and "Folle Banderuola," included on the chart more than once. Domenico Modugno's new tune, "Si, Si, Si", after being launched in the States, has just reached Italy this month.

Juliette Greco in Milan for a six evening program of recitals in a theatre of ours. She attended a cocktail party in her honor at Terrazza Martini, organized by Italian Philips. Her recitals in Milan proved to be a real success. Terrazza Martini is the place (50th floor of a skyscraper near our Cathedral) where nearly all cocktail parties for music personalities are held, for instance, Marino Marini, Katyna Ranieri, Peppino Di Capri and Juliette Greco among the most recent ones. The parties are freely offered by Martini & Rossi, a house producing Vermouth.

A new band has been launched called The Shadows from England. Their record of "Apache" is selling very well here as well as England, according to VCM.

Mr. Velona of the Ri Fi Record Company announced a cocktail party to be held towards the end of November to introduce the recent record production to the press. Over the last month, they waxed thirty new sides. Furthermore, the cast is growing due to the signing of new talent.

The song, "Never On Sunday," is a smash here. In five weeks it climbed up the Italian chart and an extraordinary number of record versions are simultaneously available. There are twenty different record editions of this Greek tune on our market, the best selling of which are listed on the chart.

1961 San Remo Festival will be born in a red hot atmosphere, just as the others in the past. Nothing is clear and decided about it as yet, except that this world famous festival successfully built in ten years must not die.

I had an interesting conversation with Mario Haddad, who represents the following record lines in Lebanon: Festival, Bel Air, Atlantic, Music, Jolly, Verve, Errato, Kapp, and Everest, and distributes United Artists' movies throughout the area. Lebanon has 1,750,000 inhabitants, of whom 750,000 live in Beyrouth and the others in the country around the city. There are two different music markets—a Western music market and an Arabian one. Lebanon enjoys a prosperous economic position. They have two radio stations of the State, one private radio station which possibly will close soon, another radio station opens next year, and one private TV station. Here are some figures given me by Mr. Haddad to make the capacity of 45 RPM record absorption in his territory clearer: "Mustafa" by Bob Azam sold 40,000 copies, "Histoire D'Un Amour" by Dalida sold 23,000, "Shish Kebab" by Ralph Marterie on Mercury sold 18,000, "Luna Caprese" on Festival sold 17,000, "Ciao Ciao Bambina" by Domenico Modugno sold 12,000, "Diana" by Paul Anka sold 8,000, "Volare" by Modugno sold 7,000, "Guarda Che Luna" by Fred Buscaglione on Italian Cetra sold 4,000. As to LP's "The Platters" sold 1,500 copies, as well as Azam's LP.

NEW ZEALAND

Harry Miller informs us he definitely has Ella Fitzgerald with the Lou Levy Quartet appearing Auckland and Wellington December 5th and 6. Deal through James Noall of Melbourne, Australia.

Pye Records really going-out for Lonnie Donegan's visit to New Zealand. Receptions for dealers, press and radio personnel in main centres and personal appearances in record shops. Donegan's record sales have soared as a result of his visit, according to Fred Noad of Pye.

Take over here by the new Lotus Recording Company of Wellington of Norman Wright and Company, formerly distributor for the Australian W&G label and the Italian Cetra label. Wright himself will remain with them in charge of Auckland distribution.

The American Elektra label will burst upon the NZ market before Christmas under its own trademark and be represented by 8 12" LP's. Titles for initial release include Theodore Bikel, Josh White, Susan Reed, Sabicas, an album by The Jazz Messengers and "Hairy Jazz" by Shel Silverstein. Also two albums in their "bawdy" series featuring Oscar Brand and Paul Clayton plus others. Prestige Records (NZ) Ltd. tied the label up and its being distributed by Top Rank Records. Bruce Henderson of Prestige recently returned from Fiji and Tahiti where he finalized distribution for the label there and Australia will be issuing the label in January/February.

The new Warner Bros. label has got off to a flying start with their first three singles in the charts and selling big.

The prospective artists visiting New Zealand in '61 for Kerridge-Odeon look very promising. Possibles include the Polish pianist Niedzeilski, the Scottish singer Kenneth McKellar, satirist Anna Russell, The Berlin Orchestra and the fabulous pianist Mindu Katz. Also lined up is Luigi Infantino and Todd Duncan. This by the way is by no means all of the artists that will tour for Kerridge-Odeon during the '61 concert season so we shall be well catered for.

Winifred Atwell doing SRO concerts all over the country. She gave a great plug to the new Ella Fitzgerald "Mack The Knife" Verve LP when conducting the nationally broadcast hit parade with dj Selwyn Toogood.

SCANDINAVIA

Rolf Björling, son of late Jussi B., made his record debut for Joker the other day.

Bengt Sundström, formerly at Philips and Globe Musikförlag AB, will start work for Southern Music in Stockholm next week.

"Run, Sampson, Run" published here by Robert Mellin (Scandinavia) AB. A Swedish recording with Simon Brehm titled "Spring, Simson, Spring" has also been done reports Ake Gerhard, head of the publishing house.

Anders Holmstedt, head of EMI in Sweden reports that his company takes over the Swedish representation of the label Riverside from New Year. M. K. Hamilton, the former supervisor for EMI in Scandinavia is leaving the organization shortly.

P. A. Boquist, publicity head of Karusell-Joker Records told The Cash Box that American Columbia will release Lill-Babs' English recording of "Klas-Göran" in the U.S.

Nils Hellström, Swedish promoter for jazz concerts, off for New York. Among the many things he will discuss in the U.S. is a European tour of Louis Armstrong in 1961.

A new Swedish song which seems to be doing very well all over Scandinavia is "Liza Lou." It is published by Southern Music and has been recorded by Bertil Englund on Sonet in Sweden, Raquel Rastenni on HMV in Denmark and Per Aspelin on Triola in Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry (and Ingall) Branelius to London early in January for recordings and TV performances. Both are very popular singers at HMV in Sweden.

Joker will release a Christmas record by Arne Lamberth. Swedish recordings with Ojebokören and Sven-Bertil Taube will be released in the U.S. by Capitol, says EMI.

Southern Music presents "Scandinavian Dances No. 1-12" by Erland von Koch and reports great success. The compositions were originally published in Germany and this is the first time these Swedish compositions have found a Swedish publisher.

Anders Holmstedt of EMI has a busy travelling program waiting for him this month. On Nov. 12 he left for London and on the 27 he will visit Helsinki.

The first Scandinavian recording of "Tell Laura I Love Her" will be with Carli Tornehave on HMV. The title here is a word-by-word translation, "Säg Laura Jag älskar Henne." Swedish publisher is Reuter & Reuter. The Swedish recordings might find difficulties with the Swedish Radio, which has banned the original recording as "not suitable" for broadcasting.

There might be a strike among the employees at SBC (Swedish Broadcasting System), according to rumors. If it happens, it might be enough to keep the Swedish radio stations silent for the time the strike might last. "This will certainly be our big opportunity, if it happens" replies Jack Kotschack of the much discussed, so-called "pirate" radio station Radio Nord which will operate from a boat outside the three-mile border.

Color television is a possibility any day in Sweden, said Chuichirko Oka from Toshiba Television Co., now visiting Sweden. The only problem, according to Oka, is that the prices on color TV sets are so expensive at the moment that only very few if any would consider it worth the price. In his native country, Japan, Mr. Oka said that the color TV is already a reality. It might take some five to ten years before it really takes in Sweden.

Ulla-Bella and Sven-Erik Perzon will be heard together on an EP from Philips. The couple are very popular TV artists, but on records they are contracted to different companies, which now, however, have agreed to let the two artists record together. Ulla-Bella is bound to Philips, while Perzon is contracted to HMV. The latter company might come with another EP with the couple within some months.

Sixten Eriksson, head of Telefunken Försäljning AB and Grammofon AB Electra (the latter handling RCA and Warner Bros. in Sweden), back from London, where he contracted Decca as the new Swedish rep for the labels Decca and London in Sweden.

Arne Bendiksen, a member of the singing group, The Monn Keys, has composed a new song titled "Karl XII" which looks like a hit all over Scandinavia. A Swedish version sung by Lill-Babs has been reported and also from Denmark there is a great interest in the number.

Inger Jacobsen received a silver disk for the sale of 25,000 copies of her Norwegian recording of the Swedish song, "Fröken Johansen Og Jeg" on Columbia. This week the record has moved from second to the first place in the Norwegian Hit Parade. It was the eighth silver disk presented by the daily paper Arbeiderbladet since they started giving out such records early this year.

Coming up at the Norwegian Hit Parade is the German recording of "Seemann" (Sailor), this week at 10th place in a recording by Lolita on Polydor.

"The sale of records in Norway is most satisfying, and I think we are having the finest season for many years," explains Rolf Syversen of Iversen & Frogh AS, Norway's EMI representative when I met him at his office at Youngsgate.

DENMARK:

Börje Ekberg of Metronome Records in Stockholm on biz visit in Copenhagen. Karusell Grammofon AS reports new address in Copenhagen. The company is now reached at Norre Voldgade 50, Copenhagen K. New telephone is Mlnerva 1024. Head of Danish Karusell is Kåre Bennike.

Several record companies here are planning to make Danish recordings of "Save the Last Dance For Me." The song is published by Belinda (Scandinavia) AB, with headquarters in Stockholm.

Bob Weiss of Warner Bros. in town for biz talks. It is the winter releases which are being discussed. Weiss has visited all the Scandinavian capitals during his recent tour.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"MIDNIGHT IN HEAVEN" (2:15) [Starday BMI—Copas]

"SETTIN' FLAT ON READY" (2:35) [Starday BMI—Copas, Marvin]
COWBOY COPAS (Starday 528)

With "Alabam" still riding high, Cope is back in top form for another solid attack on the listings. Side that should do it first is the affectionate, soft-spoken "Midnight In Heaven" affair, yet the rollicking "Settin' Flat On Ready" date should not be underrated for it follows Cope's strummin' work on "Alabam."

"I'M A PRISONER OF LOVE" (2:51) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Butler]

"FOR THE FIRST TIME" (2:30) [Marty's Music BMI—Spurlock]

CARL BUTLER (Columbia 41869)

Butler has a sure-fire money-maker in "I'm A Prisoner of Love," a traditional weeper that's brilliantly sung by the artist. His genuinely convincing delivery leaves nothing to be desired. Watch it soar. Another good ballad is "For The First Time" on the lower portion. Could well be a sales-getter.

"JUDGE NOT" (2:10)

[Acuff-Rose BMI—

Carter, Dinning]

"ARE YOU TEASING ME" (2:15)

[Acuff-Rose BMI—Louvin Bros.]

MARGIE BOWES (Hickory 1135)

The thrush has a double opportunity to return as a chart topper with either end of this Hickory outing. The slight edge is given to "Judge Not," a ballad which the Miss wrings out in true country style, but "Are You Teasing Me," a slightly faster paced weeper, also has earmarks of a hit. Pick 'em at even odds.

GRANDPA JONES (Monument 430)

(B+) "I DON'T LOVE NOBODY" (1:45) [G-J BMI—Arr. Jones]

The oldie is given a contagious re-vamping by the lovable Grandpa and with his "Swinging Grandchildren" he gives it a rousing jubilation sendoff. Has excellent spin value.

(B+) "HIP CAT'S WEDDIN'" (2:18) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant]

This Boudeleaux Bryant ditty is ideally suited for Jones' comical style. It's a bouncy blueser; rates consideration.

LONZO & OSCAR (Starday 523)

(B+) "PUNKIN RAISER" [Starday BMI—Scarlett, Fikes]

The unmistakable harmony of the vet team is a genuine treat as they sing affectionately of their small town upbringing. They have a strong following which should mean loot here.

(B) "TAKIN' A CHANCE WITH YOU" [Lonzo & Oscar BMI—Morris, Hodges]

Romance is the subject now and they do it up in a delightfully swinging pop-like manner.

VINCE LeBEAU (Rodeo 269)

(B) "IS THERE A CHRISTMAS IN HEAVEN" (2:42) [Rodeo BMI—LeBeau]

Sentimental country Christmas offering features LeBeau's attractive warbling backed up very effectively by just one guitar. This fact is the mood clincher and could get it around.

(C+) "WALK SLOWLY STRANGER" (2:45) [Rodeo BMI—LeBeau]

Haunting warning of love is read with feeling.

PAUL WILLIAMS (Decca 31186)

(B+) "WHAT WAS I SUPPOSED TO DO" (2:40) [Champion BMI—Williams, Humphrey]

Williams makes his Decca debut and from his performance here, looks like a future contender. This end is a fairly familiar country ballad but the singer's resoundingly heartfelt delivery sets it in a favorable light. Has potential.

(B) "DEEP RIVER" (2:35) [Champion BMI—Williams, Humphrey]

More tears from Williams, though it's a swinger here. Solidly belted session with enough playability. Tune is not the same as the old spiritual.

SLIM WAKEFIELD (Walco 742)

(B+) "IT'S YOUR LIFE (YOU'RE RUINING)" (2:08) [Clay-Lick BMI—Wakefield]

A good piece of original material coupled with a fine chanting job puts this release into the "sleeper" category. Should get play.

(B+) "NEVER (IS A LONG, LONG TIME)" (2:47) [Clay-Lick BMI—Wakefield]

Again Wakefield displays a professional touch in both the writing and chanting departments. Two laudable sides.

RAY PHILLIPS (Vellez 1507)

(C+) "OUR TOMORROW ENDED TODAY" (2:10) [Velez BMI—Orr]

An ordinary country ballad is sung with feeling but without style by Phillips.

(C) "I'D BE A FOOL TO KEEP ON LOVING YOU" (2:50)

[Vellez BMI—Manship] A brisk turn in the western swing manner.

Round Up

During the recent convention, writes Slick Norris, Joe Allison, Liberty's country A&R topper, squeezed in enough time to cut four sessions at Bradley's studios. Dates were with Ray Sanders, Warren Smith, Billy Strange and Doyle O'Dell. Of course it's too soon to say anything about the Smith or Sanders sides, since both are still strong in chartsville, but Slick cautions to be on the lookout for some potent material from Liberty newcomers Strange and O'Dell. Knowing what Allison can do in a recording studio (and what Slick can do on the promo end) we're well aware of anything new from the Liberty stable—so let's have 'em Slick! . . . CONNIE "TEX" HAT

KCUL-Houston that his next disk outing is tabbed for the Mercury banner. Lawton previewed two sides for Mercury's Shelby Singleton and the genial southern rep for the label grabbed them up quick. Lawton also tells us that the "Big D Jamboree" is still going great guns. He works the show each Saturday night, emceeing a half-hour portion of the hour show over KRLD-Dallas, a big 50,000 watter. Says they have the smiling Irishman, James O'Gwynn, lined up for the Nov. 19 edition. . . . With his suitcase bulging with contract blanks, Top Talent general manager Jim McConnell heads this week for the annual Outdoor Convention (didn't we just recuperate from one convention?) in Chicago, merchandising a big new stock of "Starpower Shows" for the '61 fair season. Next month, incidentally, begins Jim's 36th year in the business end of this thing called show biz. . . . Si Siman stretched his recent Nashville visit a week beyond the end of the Festival, staying in tunetown to visit with artists in behalf of Springfield's Earl Barton Music pubbery. . . . Also from Don Richardson in Springfield is the interesting news that Charlie Brown, whose well known Nashville firm, Brown Radio Productions, introduced Eddy Arnold on his own transcribed radio series about 13 years ago, was defeated in the Ozarks while attempting to return to the U.S. Congress for a third term. Both Brown and his opponent were heavy users of country music in their campaigns.

We reprint here, without unnecessary comment, Hank Snow's open letter to disk jockies which he so kindly requested. "Dear Disk Jockies: Due to the fact that I was confined to bed with the flu and missed the entire disk jockey convention, the only one I have missed in nine years, I wanted you to know that my most sincerest thoughts and good wishes were with you every minute of the convention. May I wish for your continued success and my heartfelt thanks for what you have done throughout the year of 1960 for me and for every artist in the country field, in helping to keep country and folk music where it is in the eyes of our international public." . . . The CMA's very own Mrs. Jo Walker passes on to us a letter which Connie B. Gay received, recently, and we feel it is of vital importance to the field. The letter, from Connie "Tex" Hat in Austria, tells about Connie's introduction of the first and only nationwide (Austria) country music program in Sept. 1958. Response was so great that four radio stations in Germany have asked him to make his program available to them through the International Program Exchange. Proof is also offered by the fact that Connie was made an honorary citizen of Texas by Gov. Price Daniel. Connie's problem is that he has not been recognized by American record companies and finds it extremely difficult to get hold of country records. We think that with just a little effort on our parts, Connie's problem can easily be solved, and it would do so much to further the international reputation of country music. So let's get with it! . . . Norman Kelly writes from Franklin, Pa. that the Sandy Lake Jamboree has just entered what looks like a very successful Winter season. He's added the Jamboree Sweethearts—Sue, Nancy and Linda Wagner—to the weekly program, and reports that they've been well received by the audiences. The girls, all sisters of Jamboree headliner Junie Lou, will appear with the Pine Hedge Ranch Hands at all their park and fair dates as well as any scheduled radio programs.

The Jim Denny Artist Bureau announced that it has inked Lonzo & Oscar to a management and booking pact. The team has just completed its first bookings through the Denny office with p.a.'s in Lincoln, Omaha, St. Joe and Kansas City, Mo. . . . Bill Denny also newsnotes that Minnie Pearl will put in an appearance soon at the Waldorf Astoria in Nooo York. Unbelievable? Well Denny has her set for a banquet at the plush hotel on Nov. 23. . . . Wanda Jackson's recent sparkling two-week performance at Las Vegas' Golden Nugget has netted her an exclusive long-term contract extending through 1961. Wanda and her newly-formed group, the Party Timers, are skedded for a return to the Nugget for six weeks kicking off Dec. 15. In addition she has 20 more weeks to do there scattered throughout next year. The Nugget's Bill Greene, in commenting about Wanda's great new act, also indicated that the club's plans for '61 include the biggest array of top country personalities ever presented in Las Vegas "or anyplace in the world." He said it, not us. Anyway, some of the names already signed include Hank Thompson, Bob Willis, Pee Wee King, the Judy Lynn Show and the Miller Bros. . . . Koo-Koo the Kountry Kangaroo, who reportedly has over 40,000 world-wide fan club members, has been named ship's mascot of the S.S. Canberra, a missile carrier out of Norfolk. . . . Jimmy Simpson types that he, the wife and the baby will make the long haul from Anchorage to Nashville to spend Christmas at home. Jimmy (KFQD) plans to cut a session and then corner someone with a pitchfork to get it out. Good luck boy! . . . Dwight Gordon wants all to know that he's left WEW-St. Louis and is now with KLOE-Goodland, Kansas, so he can get in touch with the world again.

Interest In Vending Grows At All Levels

We have observed the degree to which coin machine firms have continued to enter the vending field and the move appears to have many interesting facets.

First off, the move in itself contradicts the theories of many, who as recently as ten years ago, argued that vending requires the talents of an altogether different breed of businessman, apart from the music-games type, if there is such a breed. Second, the wholesaler of coin machine equipment, with a vending line also for sale, is no longer a novelty—every Seeburg distributor in the country for instance, sells vending machines. And lo and behold, at least half of the factory giants are turning out vending machines in conjunction with coin-operated phonographs and amusement games. Quite a transition!

The reason for this change is obvious—greater income. This applies to the operator who is capable of handling vending equipment without too great an increase in overhead. It also applies to the larger operator or distributor who is equipped with the financial backing for a larger scale entry. In many instances, wholesalers have added complete vending divisions separate from their music-games business. Manufacturers of coin equipment are merging, buying, or are being absorbed by vending firms. The interest in this field is growing, with more and more coinmen carrying this interest to action. Attendance at the recent NAMA seems to have confirmed this trend. The trend will continue with more coin machine wholesalers appearing on the scene with vending equipment for sale. Exposure and further stimulation must result in the presence of a greater number of music-games people in what once was primarily a “vending industry” choice.

Vending has been typed as a business that is still in its infancy. Granted, it is still a child. But kids grow fast in this day and age. Vending has come to be an important phase of the coin machine business both in its present state and in terms of potential. It is time to look your situation over and decide if vending should be part of your future.

Rock-Ola Announces New Wall Phono

Small Size Model Features 100-Selections

CHICAGO—Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation announced a new wall phonograph last week, introducing to the trade the Rock-Ola "100" featuring a new revolving record magazine designed for the compact juke box. The machine also features 33 1/3-45 rpm intermix changer for record intermix in any sequence in any bank of records. The intermix changer is optional equipment.

The Reverba-Sound feature which is also on the firm's standard size phonographs is another optional feature of the small size unit.

The machine is designed for mounting on a wall in locations where space is limited.

Gottlieb Intros "Flipper" Pingame

1-Player Features Modern Cabinet Design

CHICAGO—Alvin Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Company, this city, announced the release last week of Gottlieb's new "Flipper" pinball amusement game, amid considerable ado and fanfare surrounding Gottlieb's new concept in cabinetry plus a host of new features.

The new cabinet brings to the trade the most radical "New Look" styling changes from the Gottlieb drawing boards in more than 20 years.

"We bring to the nation's operators 'tomorrow's design today,'" Gottlieb declared. "And in this 'new look' concept we are making it increasingly easier for the amusement game operator to bring dime play into all locations."

The Gottlieb firm introduced the new "Flipper" pinball amusement game after considerable testing in the field.

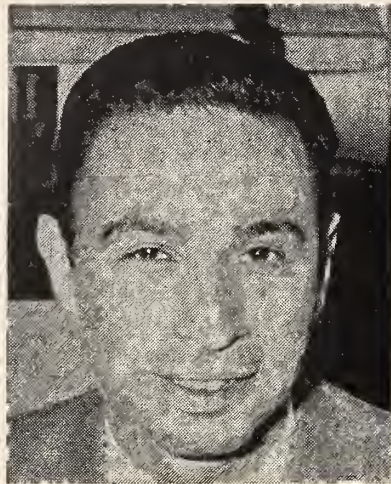

He added: "This new cabinetry puts forth a great stride forward for us in design, and carries futuristic styling up face-to-face with the player. The high, wide and handsome tapered light-box immediately attracts attention in any location. This will certainly increase incentive for dime play in locations everywhere."

"Another important attraction is the ageless beauty and durability expressed in the stainless steel moldings throughout the entire playfield area, which provides an appealing, new and scrubbed-clean appearance permanently. The game is mounted on sturdy steel, and heavily plated legs. There is a hard chrome finish corner casting on the plungers in front of the cabinet giving players a sure, clean grip."

"Flipper" offers several new plus features in conjunction with the "new look" cabinet. High on this list is the new "Hard-Cote" playboard finish which assures permanence on the playfield.

In spelling out the playing features Gottlieb stressed the importance in the Add-A-Ball" extended play innovation, which he stated is the first really new playing feature since D. Gottlieb & Co.'s introduction of the super-powered flipper. This skillful player function adds an unlimited number of balls to each game depending upon the skill of the player.

As if this lineup of pinball innovations is not enough, Gottlieb continued on to reveal another first in play appeal.

ALVIN GOTTLIEB

"We also offer a new high score panel on the lightbox which will certainly induce action and promote competitive play. This panel allows the player to insert his high score and his name with a greased pencil. This is truly personalized play! The score and name can very easily be changed each time a new high score is achieved," Gottlieb said.

In actual play "Flipper" presents a playing card sequence which makes the additional balls available to players. High score also makes additional balls available. Top rollovers determine the card selected. In this case making the card in action on the playfield awards the player an additional ball.

Two top "Joker" rollovers light alternately on the playfield. Additional balls are available to the payer if no card is selected. In the event that a card has been selected, making the lighted "Joker" turns off the lighted card.

There are two super-powered skill flippers and a host of other popular Gottlieb features. The over-all play and appearance in "Flipper" offers a great deal of excitement and play incentive, according to Gottlieb. He also pointed up the fact that preintroductory tests in several random locations created immediate acceptance, and resulted in quantity sales among Gottlieb distributorships.

Irv Ovitz Rejoins Atlas Sales Staff

CHICAGO—Edward A. Ginsburg, president of Atlas Music Company, this city, announced the appointment this past week of veteran coinman Irving Ovitz to the sales staff of the local Seeburg distributing firm.

Ovitz returns to Atlas Music Company after a lapse of many years. He first entered the coin machine industry more than 25 years ago, shortly after Eddie and the late Morrie Ginsburg founded the company.

After several years, during Atlas Music's formative years, Ovitz left for a World War II tour of duty with the United States Army. After his separation from war time duty he returned to this city and resumed his coin machine activities in his own distributorship. When this activity ultimately terminated he then spent several years with the Coven Music Company, until recently.

"We're certainly delighted to have Irv back in the Atlas fold after a lapse of so many years. He always was an asset here, and got along very well with operators," said Ginsburg.

Ovitz amply declared his happiness at being re-associated with Atlas Music. He said: "I'm extremely happy to return to Atlas Music and renew my friendly relations with operators all over the country."

"As previously," he added, "my objective will be to service our operator customers as conscientiously and expeditiously as I possibly can. The needs of the operators are of prime consideration here at Atlas Music."

Black Sales Increases Volume With Special Type Multiple Installations

Typical of the new type outlets for coin-operated equipment in New York City is Art Ford's "Bowl-A-Gallery" in Greenwich Village. The location features food, amusement machines, and oil paintings displayed throughout the plushly decorated interior. Ford, a disk jockey, promotes the location via show business contacts and attendance warrants five United "Tip-Top" bowlers and one phonograph

NEW YORK—When Irv Holzman, Black Sales Company, installed five coin-operated amusement machines in Johnny Ray's "Bowl-A-Bite" on New York's eastside he had no idea that this was the start of a new type market for his United amusement machines.

Following up the first of the "Bowl-A-Bite" installations, Holzman installed five more machines in a second Ray location in Great Neck, and the decor was just as plush as the first. On the heels of Ray's success came a new type location in Greenwich Village, owned and operated by NBC's Art Ford, nationally known disk jockey, and featuring oil paintings for the egghead patrons. "Bowl-A-Gallery" offers food and games — namely, United bowlers.

Getting away from the unique type location and returning to the solid arcade business, Holzman shipped five "Bowl-A-Rama" machines to Max Schaeffer, owner of New York's largest arcade. The coin-operated game is finding its way into the most unusual locations in New York and is reportedly meeting with success.

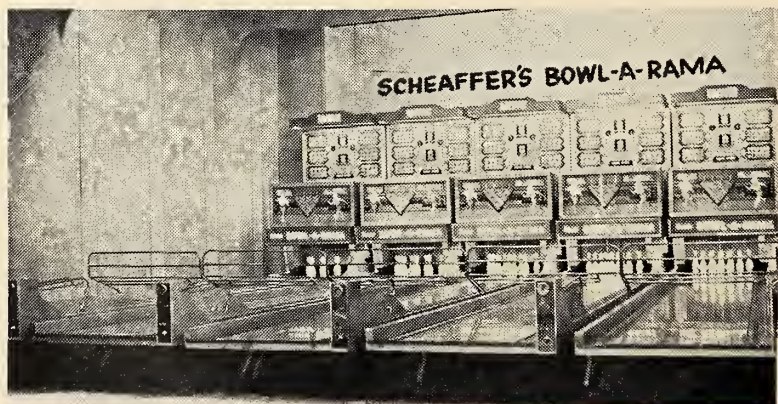

The change in setting for the coin-operated amusement game could very well be the answer to an entirely new market for coin machines. Evidently a large percentage of the population have never had the opportunity to play the games. New type locations may open the doors to this new patron.

Interior of Great Neck's "Bowl-A-Bite" offers fine foods and several bowlers and shuffles.

Bally Releases "Touchdown" Bingo

CHICAGO—Football is the theme of a new bingo-style pinball-game, "Touchdown," announced this week by Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city.

"But," O'Donnell emphasized, "the nationwide popularity of football is not the main reason 'Touchdown' is destined to be the biggest hit ever built in the bingo class. The strong player-appeal and exceptional earning-power of 'Touchdown' is based on the sensational new Magic Numbers feature.

"We've had Magic Squares, Magic Curtains and Magic Screens, but the new Magic Numbers tops them all. The card on the "Touchdown" back-glass is divided into 4 areas with 6 numbers in each area. Each area is identified by a letter—A, B, C or D—which light when coins are deposited. When any area is lit, each of the 6 numbers in the area may be shifted to any of the 6 positions in the area.

"Magic Numbers are, of course, similar to the famous Magic Squares of 'Broadway,' 'Big Time,' and other great Bally games. But, because each area contains 6 Magic Numbers, instead of only 4, 'Touchdown' gives player up to 50 per cent more number-juggling scoring-flexibility. In fact, when all letters—A, B, C or D—are lit, every number on the card, excepting the center number—16—may be shuffled around. And the stationary 16 may be 'spotted' by coin-play.

BILL O'DONNELL

"Another attractive new feature is the 4-Stars feature, which is a modernized version of the time-tested Corners feature. Triple-deck scoring—with red, yellow and green lines scoring separately—Extra Time, by coin-play or rollover, and Extra Balls are other profit-proved Bally features built into 'Touchdown!' Last but not least, Pick-a-Play push-buttons, introduced with such great success in 'Roller Derby,' are continued in 'Touchdown.'

"Bally engineers have really packed a big load of moneymaking play-appeal into 'Touchdown,'" which is why distributors and operators who previewed the game are convinced that 'Touchdown' will top all previous Bally bingo-style games in play-appeal and long-life earning-power."

EASTERN FLASHES

Another showing, another crowd, and last week the crowd was at Atlantic New York Corp., to witness the unveiling of the 1961 Seeburg phonograph line featuring Artist of The Week phonos in two models—100 and 160 selections. The 160 job features the name of the location on the top glass and the first few machines out on location have reportedly set the neighborhood on fire with enthusiasm. "Joe's Bar and Grill" is now presenting such names as Sinatra, Twitty, Como, et al, and he no doubt is very proud of this line-up in his tavern. Sounds as if this personalized feature on the Seeburg phono has many ramifications and advantages to it both from the standpoint of the operator and the location owner. In any event, it is obvious that the new feature is stirring up excitement and sales.

FIRST RAYGUN ON THE MARKET IN 7 YEARS

CHICAGO CHATTER

There seems to be a notable upsurge in interest among coinmen for the upcoming 42nd annual Parks Show, which will swing open Sunday, November 27, and run through Wednesday, November 30, at the Sherman Hotel. NAAPPB prexy Bob Plarr, executive secretary John Bowman, et al assure us that they are going all out to make this exposition and conclave the biggest ever in the organization's 42 year history. Come one! Come all!

The recent release to the trade of a rash of new amusement and music equipment coupled with a general increase in collections on the operator level are uniting to give the industry a welcome shot in the arm at this time. When the coins really start to jingle, happy smiles are generally found on more faces in coinbiz. . . . We want to take this opportunity to welcome old coinbiz friend Irv Ovitz back into the fold. Irv is now back at his old stand at Atlas Music Co., where he started in the coin machine business more than 25 years ago. Irv hardly broke in his new desk at Atlas when he started to make plans to meet all his old operator friends at the Atlas showing of the new Seeburg phono last Saturday and Sunday. It was just like old times again, eh, Irv? . . . Seeburg veepee Jack Gordon hied himself to Zurich, Switzerland where he joined with Seeburg's vice-prez in charge of Seeburg International, George Gilbert, to emcee a two day showing of Seeburg's 1961 line of vending machines, phonos and background music equipment at the Spirgarten Hotel. Stu Auer, sales manager of the background music division joined Jack on the jet flight to the Alpine paradise. Another overseas showing was held in the showrooms of Jose Negroni, Inc. in San Juan, Puerto Rico, hosted by W. S. Ven Der Hoef, assisted by Ed Blanckenbeckler on the same dates.

We got the "call" from Bob Plarr, John Bowman and Carl Hughes to give a short talk during the Shop Talk Forum at the NAAPPB conclave. Thanks, fellows, we're more than happy to help out. . . . Fine amusement games keep pouring out of the plant at Bally Manufacturing during this season at a week by week rate. Last week Bill O'Donnell, Bally's genial sales manager, announced the release of the new "Touchdown" pingame. Bill and vice prexy Herb Jones cite the new Bally designed "Magic Numbers" feature over and above the timely popularity of football as the prime selling feature. . . . Speaking of football reminds us of the purple rage noticeable on Bear fan Joe Robbins' face after Baltimore Colts meanie Lennie Moore snagged the almost impossible sudden death pass from equally mean flinger Johnny Unitas to whip the Chicago Bears in the last few seconds of the game last Sunday. Bear fans have coined a phrase hereabouts—"Unitas we stand (Unitas we fall!)."

Art Weinand, sales director for Chicago Dynamic Industries, is lining up Chicago Coin's array of amusement games for showing at the upcoming Parks Show. Mort Secore is eagerly looking forward to the show, where he feels ChiCoin games will, as usual, create a lot of attention. . . . Sam Lewis returned to his heavy laden desk early last week after a short business sojourn following the NAMA convention in Miami Beach. The first item on Sam's agenda was to release Williams Electronic's new "Black Jack" pinball amusement game, featuring an exciting playing card motif. Williams prexy Sam Stern is more than delighted with immediate response received on this game. "Black Jack" cabinetry carries a continuation of the "Styling of the 60's" appearance which has created so much interest all over the country.

Phil Moss, head of Phil Moss Distributors, Seeburg's distributor in Des Moines and environs, is so taken with the new Seeburg line that he is conducting his showings there throughout the entire week of November 12 thru 18. Phil will hold a road showing at the Paxton Hotel in Omaha, Nebraska Tuesday, November 22. . . . Empire Coin's Joe Robbins tells us Jack Burns and his lovely missus departed for their vacation to the sunny southland last week. . . . We never saw so much excitement as we encountered last week at D. Gottlieb & Co. when we dropped in to get all the facts about Gottlieb's new "Flipper" pingame. Alvin Gottlieb asserted that the new cabinet, which he calls "tomorrow's design today," is already creating a lot of activity in Gottlieb distrib outlets. A plus feature is a "hard cote" finish on the playfield which, Alvin sez, is practically impervious to wear. In scoring and play features he cites the new "Add-A-Ball" feature as a "great advancement." (It is explained more in detail in a story elsewhere in this issue.)

Keeney's vice prexy Paul Huebsch info's that Keeney's entire line of uprights is enjoying a banner season. He reminds us that the "Panoscope Viewer," which was first introduced by Keeney last February is the original version of this very popular new type of viewing equipment widely used on upright amusement games these days. . . . We find it increasingly more difficult to see Clarence Schuyler at Games, Inc. these days. Chief reason, of course, is that Clarence is too busy producing and shipping Games' new "Trail Blazer" electronic upright game. It is a very popular piece all over the country. . . . Henry Barnas, head of Standard Harvard Co., beckons visitors at the NAAPPB show to stop at booth #185 and demonstrate the Standard Harvard Metal-typer. . . . Ed Doris, George Hincker and Frank Mitchell, Rock-Ola Mfg's. busy men-in-motion, who haven't stood still for lo these many months, are finally due back in the offices at Rock-Ola Friday, Nov. 18. Recently they escorted a group of their distribs and their families to a brief vacation in exotic Acapulco, Mexico. This was a reward for the splendid job Rock-Ola's distribs accomplished in selling the new line of phonos. Les Rieck, Art Janousek and Kurt Kluever kept tabs on the sales dept. during the absence of this itinerant trio.

Joel Stern and Len Micon are simply overjoyed over their results thus far with Rock-Ola's "Regis" phono. Business is just beginning to pick up at World Wide Distributors, and Joel hopes to finish off this year of 1960 with a big smile on his face. . . . Ed Ratajack wouldn't mind it so much if he were twins. After all, he is doing two big jobs (AMI and MOA), and there is plenty to do in both camps. . . . First Coin's Joe Kline and Sam Kolber advise that the heaviest activity these days at First Coin is in foreign business. The only problem is latching on to good used amusement and music equipment to ship overseas. . . . Wico's Ed Ruber reports that he noticed a healthier, happier business outlook and general attitude during his recent nationwide business jaunt. He feels we are entering a strong business period now.

W. R. (Bill) Weikel, director of sales for Fischer Sales & Mfg. Co., departed last week to help Si Redd celebrate the Grand Opening of his new distrib outlet in East Boston, Mass. Bill tells us prexy Ekald Fischer is feeling more like his old self again. . . . United Mfg's. Bill DeSelm informs us that the "Sure-Fire" shuffle alley and "Tip Top" bowler are very popular not only in this country but overseas as well. Heaviest foreign activity is now in France, where restrictions were recently lifted for amusement equipment, according to Bill. . . . While visiting Atlas Music during the showing last Saturday we observed the expertly arranged bulletin board at the entrance to the parts dept. of miniature full color albums covers for 33-1/3 stereo album singles available for operators. Harold Schwartz was particularly pleased with this new Atlas feature for the convenience of operators. Prexy Eddie Ginsburg, Nate Feinstein, Bill Phillips, Gene Waldman and Irv Ovitz played hosts to a huge number of ops who dropped in last Saturday and Sunday to see the new Seeburg line of phonos.

Doug Opitz, head of Wisconsin Novelty in Milwaukee, recently acquired the route operation of Kendou, Inc. Doug also added the Kendou staff to his organization. Employees involved in this change are Glenn Grubb, Travis Welch, Paul Nadolny, Howard Klabunde and Pat Savasta. . . . Ted Rubey and Estell Bye, Marvel Mfg. Co., are looking forward to seeing many of their old time coinbiz chums who are due in within the next few days for the NAAPPB conclave. . . . Don't forget to pop over to the Sherman Hotel to view all the new equipment on display at the big Parks Show!

Williams Ships 1-Plyr. "Black Jack" Pin Principle Based On "21" Card Game

CHICAGO—Sam Lewis, vice-president in charge of sales for Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corporation in this city, announced last week the release of Williams' new "Black Jack" single-player pinball amusement game.

This game, which features an exciting playing card motif, carries a continuation of the firm's "Styling of the 60's" cabinetry—with an illustrated playfield and light box.

An intriguing feature in "Black Jack," according to Lewis, is based on the fact that the "Dealer's Score" lights up when the game is over to show the player how he fared in the scoring against the game.

The player tries to build up a score up to "21". If the points made exceeds "21" the player loses his game. On the other hand, if the "Dealer's Score" on the backglass exceeds "21" the player wins even if he is under the 21 point limit.

The "Black Jack" can be scored in two ways. 1—by a one card score build up; or, 2—a skill shot in the top holes or center kickouts.

In addition, "Black Jack" has a matching number feature. Matching the last number in the player's score with the lighted star on the blackglass earns a replay.

Lewis advised that sample orders have already been shipped to Williams' distributors all over the United States.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Much talk among the operators and distributors along "coin machine row" this week concerned itself with the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday. Although most plan to get together with relatives and friends, very few will travel further than the L.A. city limits, traffic conditions being what they are in So. Calif. on holidays. . . . At Leuenhagen's "record bar," singer Jerry Wallace stopped in to spin his new Challenge Records outing. Mary Solle states that they are looking forward to spending Thanksgiving at home with plans to have a few friends over. . . . Singer Rusty Draper, along with Bob Holladay of Mercury Records, dropped by with Rusty's current offering "Jealous Heart." . . . Ed Ruber with the Wico Corporation in Chicago, in town for several days on business and accompanying Manny Glass, local Wico rep, during his regular Pico visit. . . . Charlie Daniels, at Paul A. Laymon's, reports that Mr. & Mrs. Paul Laymon send word from Mexico that they kept busy in Mexico City seeing all the sights and are now on their way to Acapulco, where they plan to relax and enjoy the weather. At the Seeburg Distributing Co., Dean McMurdie, Seeburg District Mgr, informs that he will be visiting the various Seeburg distributors in the West during the showing of the "Irresistible" new Seeburg phonograph. The showing of the new model in Los Angeles has been a tremendous success with operators from all over So. Cal. stopping in, according to Leo Simone. Leo said the comments from the operators have been most enthusiastic with a surprising number of orders resulting. Bob Alexander, service department mgr., still busy revamping the service department to handle the increased business. . . . Hank Tronick, at C. A. Robinson & Co., reports that business continues good with the United "Bowl-A-Rama" and United's UPC-100 phonograph going at a steady pace. . . .
