Music Can Help

Music can be the message that can help soothe the social wounds that fill the summer air with madness. Especially to youth who are involved in cruel rioting—now in an ugly, contagious state of city-by-city outbreaks—music can talk plainly in a manner that no well-meaning public official can.

Music on records can do an important job. The record industry can make an invaluable contribution to the struggle against social unrest by letting music communicate, in a manner representative of the industry as a whole, the alternatives to senseless crime-in-the-streets run rampant.

The record business needs an all-important partner in this enterprise. It is radio, music on records' largest area of exposure. Work in obtaining this one-two punch against social unrest is already underway, thanks to efforts by Clyde Otis, the vet music man, to encourage record companies and radio stations to allow music to suggest, subliminally if you will, that violence is self-defeating, that answers to bigotry and social disenfranchisement lie in due process, not in the streets.

Besides the use of their art, performers can also speak directly to the nation's troubled youth through spot announcements which can be distributed to radio stations that have high listenership in the ghettos of America and/or among youth in general.

We do not by any means suggest that record industry participation is a cure-all. It can, as we state, above, "soothe wounds,"; a far greater sense of justice from people who supposedly follow the laws of their religious faiths and country is required to heal wounds. But, if recording industry activity in this area is one of understanding it might make a youngster pause and reflect on the consequences to himself and his community when he believes—or is impressed to believe—that "tearing it up" can secure a better life. We don't believe this is so; if youngsters are impressionable enough to feel they can achieve aims by lawlessness, the sounds, musically and verbally, of his favorite performers must take issue with this burn, baby, burn philosophy.

We understand that two industry organizations, the Record Industry Association of America (RIAA) and the National Association of Radio Announcers (NARA), have been cooperating with the President's Youth Opportunity Program, led by Vice President Humphrey. Coordinating the above-mentioned programs with these organizations can achieve a unified record industry front that can replace spotty endeavors with a strong drive in this direction.

Daily headlines underscore the necessity for action now.

RCA VICTOR

The most trusted name in sound

RCA Publishing Units: Arbor & Dunbar; Andy Anka & Eddie Dean Join Operation

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records' new publishing unit has a name for each of its ASCAP and BMI-cleared operations and two more exec staff members.

The world-wide operation, previously announced, is calling its ASCAP firm Arbor and its BMI affiliate, Dunbar. In addition, vet publishing figures Andy Anka and Eddie Dean will serve as manager of administration and professional manager, respectively.

According to Norman Racusin, vp and general manager of RCA Victor Records, RCA's publishing activities will function as an "autonomous operation, independently staffed and geared to meet the demands of this competitive business." Headquarters will be at 1650 Broadway, home of many an indie publishing company.

Jerry Teifer, as reported in Cash Box, will run the set-up as president. He previously was general manager of April/Blackwood Music, a subsidiary of Columbia Records.

Anka was formerly associated with Spanka & Flanka Music, owned by his son, Paul Anka. Eddie Dean recently left his post as professional manager of United Artists Music

Companies.

Teifer said that the globally-minded operation would move into "every phase of music," including pop, R&B, country, theatre, TV and motion pictures. Also, new writing talent will be developed.

Do-It-Yourself Cartridge Duplication On West Coast; Will It Spread?

HOLLYWOOD—Latest wrinkle on the brow of major label attorneys concerned with cartridge piracy are the coin operated stereo cartridge recorders introduced on the coast. First of the self servicing emporiums had its grand opening last week in Canoga Park, Calif. Units conceived by Rocketdyne engineer Louis Johnson, who owns and manages the operation, include eight coin machines which duplicate stereo sound from 8 track, 45 RPM or 33 1/3 to 4 track cartridges at costs ranging from $1.00 to $4.50, depending on whether the customer supplies his own cartridges. Cartridges, which may be purchased for $2.00 to $3.50 (based on length of tape) are fed into a 4 track unit by the customer who supplies his own disc or 8 track cartridge. Customer may bring his own records (but must bring his own records) with the original tape automatically erased by the coin operated unit. Customer gets 10 minutes of recording time for each quarter so that a 35-40 minute cartridge costs $1.00 to duplicate.

Franchise Requests

Johnson, who says he has had "numerous requests for franchised operations of this kind throughout the country," merely supplies the unit but is never physically involved in the duplication process. He also offers a 3 paged mimeo set of instructions with additional help from an attendant "cheerfully available" if needed. Johnson says he has checked "thoroughly" with a legal staff who contend there is no piracy or bootlegging manifested since "custom duplicating" is not offered by the firm. U-Tape-A-Tape, the name of the store, explains the concept—which involves record players, clocks and earphones to monitor time and sound and controls so that each customer is his own engineer.

Johnson also peddles stereo name brand 4 and 8 track cartridges, players manufactured by Lear Jet, Borg-Warner, Motorola, Terra, Muntz and Transworld as well as FM auto stereo, AM car radios and separate speakers.

Profit structure on the do-it-yourself duplicators is obviously better than selling the finished product. The possibility of piracy of the high C's is a legal technicality unanswered at this time. Since customers are lining up at the U-Tape-A-Tape store, it's likely that the concept will spread.

FRONT COVER:

With continuing expansion plans into all fields now well on their way, Dot Records and its president and founder, Randy Wood, envisions 1967 as a "Golden Age."

The recent addition to the Dot family of Acta Records, a division of Dot headed by Kenny Myers, Bob Crewe's DynoVoice Records, Jeff Barry's Steed Records and Snuff Garrett's Viva Records, has diversified the Dot company into all fields of music, especially the "teen" and "rock" areas.

With the addition of Acta, DynoVoice, Steed and Viva and their creative staffs added to that of Dot, Randy Wood predicts that Dot will not only remain as one of the leading recording companies in the world, but with these additional labels and their artists, and through future acquisitions, will grow even larger and more successful by embracing additional areas of the recording and music industries.

ABC To Market Riverside

NEW YORK—ABC Records has taken over world-wide distribution of Riverside Records and its affiliates in a deal just concluded between Larry Newton, ABC president, and Jesse Selter, president of National Mercantile Corp. Selter retains ownership of the labels, with ABC functioning and merchandiser and distributor under a long-term basis. Other Riverside labels include Jazzland and Battle.

Bob Thiele, director of artists and repertoire for ABC Records, who has guided the Impulse label for the past seven years and recently spearheaded the formation of ABC's new Blues-Way label, will work closely with Selter to re-package and release records on the Riverside label. A suggested list price of $3.79, mono and stereo has been set for the three labels.

An initial releasing schedule of ten albums per month is planned, with ABC's current distributors handling the new lines. In his announcement, Newton stated that he will appoint a sales manager whose sole function will be to concentrate on the three (Continued on page 50)

$3.50 Classics Emerge From Hotly Competitive $2.50 Re-Issues

NEW YORK—A new pricing schedule is emerging in the classical LP field. The development, already undertaken by the Elektra (see last week's issue) and the Vanguard label, is designed to provide greater elbow room in classical sales.

The new list price is $3.50. Elektra, calling its series Checkmate, and Vanguard, coming next month (Aug. 25) with a line called Cardinal, are hopeful that their new product will not compete with either the recent rash of low-end classics and the regular-priced lines, which, respectively, usually sell at $2.50 and $4.79. In addition, both lines will offer material in stereo-only.

Herb Korsack of Vanguard feels that both the low-end and regular-priced classics have suffered in recent months. With the exception of top-drawer attractions like Leonard Bernstein and "hot" composers like Ives and Nielsen, $4.79 classics have been hurt by the formation in recent years of strong re-issue classical labels. The deluge of low-priced classics, in turn, has made the $2.50 area a very competitive one. Elektra markets a $2.50 line of classics, Nonesuch, while Vanguard is represented with Everyman.

The answer of Elektra and Vanguard is their $3.50 series, which, importantly, consist of newly recorded works and cover design and packaging that compare favorably with regular-priced classical packaging. Vanguard is offering 11 sets in the introduction of its series. Both the Elektra and Vanguard series employ the use of the Dolby system of recording, said to produce a finer reproduction.

Vanguard's $2.50 line of classics, Everyman, is about to get a pop-folk look. Korsack said Everyman will soon have a series of re-issues, combining the best of a catalog by a particular group, featuring such acts as Jimmy Rushing, the Weavers, Odetta, Martha Schlamme, Cisco Houston, Alfred Deller and Alan Arkin, among others.

ABC Inks Garland

NEW YORK—Judy Garland's future disk efforts will appear on the ABC label, according to Larry Newton, label president, and Sid Luft of Group V Productions. First item in the world-wide deal is a recording of the star's current engagement at the Palace in New York. Bob Thiele of ABC is recording the event, to be called on disks "At Home at the Palace on Opening Night." Set will feature the performer's children, Lorna, 14, and Joey, 12, who perform in the show. ABC plans to have the album out in 10-days. It'll feature a crop of recent hits.

ABC Consolidates Sales; Trepel To Head Field Men

NEW YORK—Moving to realign the company's sales force, Larry Newton, president of ABC Records, has named Charlie Trepel, formerly sales manager for Command Records, an ABC subd., to supervise all field men for all labels in the ABC family.

The change in Trepel's duties at the same time consolidates ABC's entire field sales force into one division for the first time. All field men will report direct to Trepel, who, in turn, will report to Howard Stark, vice-president of the ABC disk division.

Simultaneously, Newton appointed Tom McCaffrey to head up the tape division of ABC, including tapes from all labels. McCaffrey will also report to Trepel.

Bernie Woods, premium sales manager, has been given the additional responsibility of handling all ABC owned and affiliated labels in the area of premium sales.

Wanted: Ideas To Help Ghetto Youth

NEW YORK—The record industry can play a major part in making ghetto youth think twice about participating in riots, as this week's editorial, "Music Can Help," points out. If members of the trade have other constructive suggestions other than those mentioned in the editorial, Cash Box would like to hear them and bring them to the attention of the industry.

A Reminder: MIDEM Dates—Jan. 21-27

NEW YORK—Cash Box once again reminds the trade that there has been a change in the dates for the MIDEM convention, set for Cannes, France. The meeting, the second for the organization, will take place Jan. 21-27 of next year.

Columbia Confab: 'Commitment To Sound Leadership;' Accent On Youth

HOLLYWOOD, FLA.—More than 600 guests received word of "Columbia/A Commitment to Sound Leadership" at the label's convention here last week at the Diplomat Hotel.

New LP's and audio product were unveiled (see separate story). Clive Davis, vp and general manager of CBS Records, set a down-to-earth tone to the confab in an address last Thursday (27) morning. In re-capitulating the Columbia label's activities over the past year, he emphasized the need to "stay on top of changes." This paralleled earlier remarks by Goddard Lieberson, president of the CBS/Columbia Group, that underscored the need for the company to "stay with it" and "think young" not only from a business standpoint but because of the vitality of what youth has to offer.

'State Of the Union'

Highlights of Davis' remarks, a sort of "State of the Union" affair touched on recent artist re-inkings to the label, including Bob Dylan, Andy Williams and Johnny Mathis. The acquisition of the "Funny Girl" (starring Barbra Streisand) soundtrack and the possibility of also receiving the "On A Clear Day" track, also starring Streisand; a variable pricing policy on LP's introduced via Bob Dylan and Paul Revere & Raiders product; the need for consumer education that stereo records can be played on today's mono phonos; and "cautious watchfulness" in the area of the tape cartridge field; the development of such artists as the Buckinghams, John Davidson and Peaches & Herb.

Davis also noted that the company's phono & tape business was beginning to move "in a big way."

Speaking of the accent being where-it's-at, Davis said: "It is this that we have to remain responsive if we are to meet our main objective. And what is that objective? It is simply to be with it—to be with it in every phase of our operation; most importantly creatively—wherever music is—whatever form it takes—whatever expression it leads to—Columbia must be there . . . with its own original force—with its own standards of taste and sensitivity—and with its own unique creativity.

Davis recalled that he had advocated variable pricing at the last

Gavin Talks On Radio's Ever-Changing Scene

HOLLYWOOD, FLA.—Bill Gavin, the San Francisco-based radio personality, told an audience of Columbia convention guests to expect LP programming on radio to move upward, including Top 40 stations as well. Gavin also commented on the greater competition now existing between musical and talk outlets and the gap between adult audiences and stations programming a hard rock sound. The so-called middle-of-the-road Chicken-rock outlets are able, he said, to hold on to the housewife.

Gavin also noted the growing use of telephone call-ins as a request feature. One station, KQV-Pittsburgh, has installed seven trunk lines which have handled as much as 14,000 calls in a day. The station says that 1/3 of its chart tabulations take these call-ins into account.

MGM Plans No Price Reductions For Mono

NEW YORK—MGM Records has "no intention" of lowering the price of its mono product back to the pre-mono to stereo equalization tag of $3.79. This statement, by Tom White, the label's director of business affairs, was made following a story in another trade paper that indicated such a move might be made by the company after Jan. 1.

The statement also outlined MGM's following feelings on the ramifications of the recent erasure of the price differential between mono & (Continued on page 52)

NARM convention, at which he was keynote speaker. Suggesting a $1 higher list price for Dylan, Davis said, the company launched a nationwide campaign on radio and in space to create that consumer demand. Within the first 10 weeks, the album moved over the 300,000 mark in sales, Davis claimed.

Mono & Stereo

Commenting on Columbia's lead in equalizing mono & stereo pricing, Davis said that "dealers have prematurely bought too heavily on the stereo side" and are "too far ahead of the consumer and unless prodded by you, they will not help to conduct this vital campaign" (a consumer program to inform that stereo records play with "excellent results" on today's mono equipment). "Without your help," Davis explained, "the result will be the loss of actual values to monaural record buyers who need to know the facts, and the sooner the better."

Cartridge Philosophy

While making product available in 4 and 8 track cartridges, Davis said that Columbia had adopted a policy of "watchful waiting" because "this area is too new for any bandwagon to be joined." ". . . we don't want to be hurt by exaggerated and uninformed publicity that continues to plague the industry."

Bill Gallagher, vp of Columbia A&R, Ed Mathews, of Columbia's Date label, and Tommy Noonan, Columbia national promotion, also addressed the group.

Farr: Best Confab-to-Confab Sales

The theme of the four-day Convention was "Columbia/A Commitment to Sound Leadership," as proclaimed by Bill Farr, merchandising vp & convention chairman, in his opening address. He stated: "The purpose of this Convention is to answer two questions: Where are we going, and How do we get there in the competition." (Continued on page 52)

London Intros 'Fab 25' At Fall Meet

LOS ANGELES—London Records unveiled its LP release of the fall season last week at the Century Plaza Hotel here, the first of four major regional meetings featuring previews of the label's 25 new albums, representing all facets of the London catalog.

A double theme was affirmed by national sales and distribution manager Herb Goldfarb—"music for all tastes—music for all ages" and "a fabulous 25 for a fabulous fall 67" to an audience composed of some 60 reps, including the sales and promotional staff with execs from Consolidated Record Dist. (Seattle), C. & C. Stone (San Francisco), Hart Dist. (L.A.), Sunland Supply (El Paso) and Arizona Record Dist. (Phoenix). Also on hand was a nine man team of London execs from N.Y. composed of Goldfarb, Walt Maguire (manager of single sales and A&R), Marty Wargo (director of administration), Terry McEwen (head of the classical dept.) and sales and promotional staffers Sy Warner, Jack Welfeld, Paul Livert, Lenny Meisel and Al Steckler. In addition, Dick Rowe (exec pop A&R for British Decca) and Tony D'Amato (A&R director of Phase 4) were in the audience for the 3 hour album slick slide presentation amplified with stereo cuts from the multiple release. Meeting was preceded by a cocktail reception and dinner on Monday eve (July 24) which was scheduled to be followed by similar presentations in Chicago at the Continental Plaza Hotel (July 26-27), Atlanta at the Regency Hyatt House (July 31-Aug. 1) and New York at the Summit Hotel (Aug. 2-3). The N.Y. meet will be attended by D. H. Toller-Bond, president of London Records, John Stricker, treasurer, and other members of the home office.

WB 'Turned On/Tune In' Meets; 21 New LP Releases Marketed

NEW YORK—Warner Bros. Records "Turned On/Tuned In" at its most successful series of regional (Los Angeles, Chicago, New Orleans and New York) sales meets last week, presenting 21 new album releases. LP orders, a spokesman said, were 10-to-1 in favor of stereo. He predicted the demise of mono by Jan. 1.

The two-and-a-half hour, 35 millimeter color film presentation, keyed to the company's theme this Fall, "Turn On And Tune In To Warner Bros. and Reprise" was by far the most "singularly successful meeting we have ever had", aid Mike Maitland, president.

The series of regional sales meetings, traditionally staged for Warner's distributors and their sales personnel, was again expanded this year so as to include audiences of not only the company's customers, but to include as well, many of the artists, managers, attorneys, publishers and producers with whom the company does business.

A total audience of about 600 people in the four cities viewed the Warner's presentation.

Individual discussions were held with each of the company's distributors following the film presentation.

Sales 28% Ahead

Maitland revealed that the company is currently experiencing its biggest year ever, with sales to date up approximately 28% over a like period for last year, with anticipated billings as a result of the August and September releases "very likely to further increase the latter percentage."

In explaining the company's "Turned On/Tuned In" theme, Maitland discussed "the need for distributors and their sales personnel to be as modern as the consumer audiences buying records in such large volume today."

As an exemplification of this, a large measure of the company's Fall releases deal with "Youth Quake" product, and new albums being released in this category of repertoire include the Beau Brummels, Jim Kweskin, The Kinks, Jimi Hendrix and The Electric Prunes.

In presenting the new releases, Warner's categorized its album product "tuned in" to its eventual potential consumer audiences; i.e., "Jet Set," "Transistorized," "Youth Quake," "Collegiates," "Town and Country" and "Giants."

As part of the company's plans to merchandise and promote its Fall product, Joel Friedman, vice president in charge of marketing, revealed that the company will expend in excess of $150,000, with the funds largely going towards local newspaper dealer advertising.

"It's the company's philosophy," said Friedman, "that ads in major metropolitan newspapers throughout the country by local dealers and discount stores, do more to stimulate sales and store traffic than any other similar advertising medium."

Promo Campaigns

In addition to this, planned promotional campaigns have been devised for each of the albums included in the Fall release.

New areas being utilized include extensive schedules of advertising in underground newspapers, college newspapers, the purchase of time on FM and AM, radio locally edited newspapers published by radio stations and outdoor billboards.

Dealers will receive through their distributors a large quantity of in-store point of purchase material with similar extensive campaigns being waged via fan magazines, press, entertainment media, etc.

During the course of the week long sessions, Marvin Deane, national promotion manager for Warner Bros. and Reprise, helmed meetings with his staff of fourteen field promotion men, outlining the company's program (Continued on page 52)

WB Opens Can. Branches, Sinatra Inks Long-Term

HOLLYWOOD—At the initial Warner's sales meet, held at the Century Plaza Hotel in L.A., Maitland made mention of the label's new company owned branches in Montreal and Quebec, Canada, opening in Oct. He also revealed that Frank Sinatra, contrary to unfounded rumors, had signed a long term pact with the company. Looking over the long line of the custom-Carroll blue jacketed execs, referred to as his "men in blue," he quipped, "Please note the payroll we've acquired since last year."

Chappell Has New Management Team

NEW YORK—Chappell Music has named a new management team in the aftermath of the recent death of Louis Dreyfus. President of the firm is William Worrall, who was comptroller of the British end of the Chappell operation; vp is David Oppenheim, attorney for the widow of Max Dreyfus. M. E. Ricketts remains as board chairman of the British set-up. Jean Dreyfus, the widow of Louis Dreyfus, owns the British set-up, while a partnership between the two widows owns the American unit. In addition, Nick Pirth is understood to have joined Chappell in Britain as a board member.

It's further understood that the American phase of Chappell will now take steps to produce a greater amount of teen-oriented product. A new company, New Image Productions, has been formed by the company in association of Bob Yory, the indie producer.

CORRECTION

In the Vital Statistics feature in the May 27th issue of Cash Box, the song, "New York Mining Disaster—1941," was listed as being published by Abigail Music. It has been brought to our attention that there are two music publishers named Abigail, one in England and another in Berkeley, California. The English Abigail publishes "New York Mining Disaster" in Britain. The Abigail located in California has nothing whatsoever to do with the song. Nempcor Music publishes "New York Mining Disaster" in the U.S.

Sunset To Distribute Hanna-Barbera Catalog

LOS ANGELES — Hanna-Barbera Productions and Sunset Records, a division of Liberty, have entered into an agreement for Sunset to distribute the Hanna-Barbera Records catalog throughout the world. Announcement was made of the deal last week (24) by William Hanna, Joseph Barbera and Sunset gm Ed Barsky.

In addition to distribution rights to the 38 LP catalog and assorted singles, Sunset has signed H-B to produce six to twelve albums each year for the label.

Acquisition of the H-B line establishes Liberty's economy division as one of the majors in the kiddie field since the teen and younger oriented Sunset product is now bolstered by internationally known characters such as the Flintstones, Yogi Bear and Huckleberry Hound.

Hanna-Barbera's record division was formed three years ago in order to produce and manufacture product featuring the figures of H-B's cartoon series. The studio is currently producing six network shows which are set to debut with six returning series for the 67-68 season on Saturday mornings.

Decca Officially Opens New Coast HQ This Week

HOLLYWOOD—Gil Rodin, west coast administrative Director of A & R for Decca Records, will host the formal opening this week (2) of the company's new and expanded west coast administrative facilities.

These new offices, located at 1777 North Vine Street, Hollywood, will debut with opening day festivities attended by radio-TV and press personnel and will be themed around the record company's intensified West Coast involvement. Decca's west coast activity has picked-up greatly with production deals with such figures as Greene/Stone, Koppelman-Rubin and Bones Howe.

Headquartering with Rodin at the new N. Vine Street location will be Teri Brown, the company's latest staff A & R personnel addition and promo reps Gus Savalas and Warren Lanier. Decca coast A & R staffer Bud Dant will divide his time equally between the new set-up and the company's offices on the Universal City lot.

Flying in from the company's New York executive offices to take part in the opening day festivities on August 2 will be Decca vice-president Marty Salkin and sales vice-president Sydney N. Goldberg.

Scepter Seeks Indie Producing Talent

NEW YORK—Scepter Records is taking the indie production route for most of its artists.

Through artists assigned to indie producers or via deals made with various production firms to supply talent, the label is departing from a previous policy of having its acts recorded internally.

So far, Maxine Brown will be cut by Otis Redding, Don Schroeder will produce Chuck Jackson and Snuff Garrett has been inked to cut the Kingsmen. Marv Schlachter, the label's vp, said other deals are pending.

Scepter's popular songstress, Dionne Warwick, is produced by Burt Bach-

Pick of the Week

REFLECTIONS (2:50) [Jobete, BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland]

GOING DOWN FOR THE THIRD TIME (2:30)
[Jobete, BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland]

DIANA ROSS & SUPREMES (Motown 1111)

Billing may be new for Diana Ross and the Supremes, but the trio still features the same saleability savor. Electronic effects are put to much use on this new outing from the Detroit mill, and the feedback play adds a cute appeal to the steady throbbing blues lament for an old love. Regularly splendid job with smash written all over it. Wild, happy blues on the flip.

SIXTEEN TONS (3:05) [American-Noma/Presley, BMI—Travis]

THINGS I WANNA DO (2:28) [MCA, ASCAP—Mills]

TOM JONES (Parrot 40016)

Currently catching a lot of sales and spins with tunes popped out of the country bag, Tom Jones looks like a big winner with his latest offering culled from the Nashville archives. Slow, steady blues handling of the way-back hit "Sixteen Tons" should keep Jones up on top. Flip is a booming voiced ballad with very fine potential as well.

THERE IS A MOUNTAIN (2:38)

[Peer International, Hi-Count, BMI—Leitch]

SAND AND FOAM (3:17) [Peer International, Hi-Count, BMI—Leitch]

DONOVAN (Epic 10212)

Donovan sheds his skein of complexities for a far simpler sounding masked meaning in his latest Epic offering "There is a Mountain." Catching all the gaiety of a calypso beat, the folkster should have no obstacles with this joyous outburst celebrating gardens and an inner beauty. Flip is a more familiar Donovan imagery collection.

THINGS I SHOULD HAVE SAID (2:30)

[Trousdale, BMI—Sloan, Barri]

TIP OF MY TONGUE (2:29) [Trousdale, BMI—Sloan, Barri]

GRASS ROOTS (Dunhill 4094)

Glistening harmony and a solid rock number flavored with a bit of folk spice should send the Grass Roots heading well back on the biggie track. "Things I Should Have Said" presents a sparkling outing that looks like a high chart rider. Mid-tempo coupler that could catch some air exposure to boot. Both sides penned by the winning team of Sloan and Barri.

LAURA (WHAT'S HE GOT THAT I AIN'T GOT) (2:40)

[Al Gallico, BMI—Ashley, Singleton]

SOMETIMES (I JUST CAN'T STAND YOU) (2:45)

[E.H. Morris, ASCAP—Spina]

FRANKIE LAINE (ABC 10967)

Two chestnuts join forces on a single that should catch a chunk of sales action. "Laura (What's He Got That I Ain't Got)" has scored heavily on the c&w charts, and is rendered in grand pop style with life and love by red-hot Frankie Laine. Suited to pop and plenty of good music spins, this is a deck that should keep the crooner's string very much alive.

ZIP CODE (2:23) [Jetstar, BMI—Rabon, Ezell, Durrill]

SWEET BIRD OF YOUTH (2:05)

[Jetstar, BMI—Rabon, Ezell, Durrill]

FIVE AMERICANS (Abnak 123)

Getting back on the "public service" track that has already provided the Five Americans with a hit, the team carries on in high style with a follow-up that should zoom into the teensville hit bag. Throbbing ork sounds, fine vocal outpourings and unusual organ and harmony effects could make "Zip Code" the third straight chart entry from the crew. Light shade of blue on the flip.

TURN ON YOUR LOVE LIGHT (2:20) [Don, BMI—Malone, Scott]

ANY DAY NOW (3:23) [Plan Two, ASCAP—Bacharach, Hilliard]

OSCAR TONEY, JR. (Bell 681)

Coming off a name-maker, Oscar Toney, Jr. will have no difficulty in satisfying his new found fans with this solid pounding mid-tempo version of the rock and blues favorite "Turn On Your Love Light." Big bouncing beat and plenty of fine vocal entertainment is crammed into this goodie. Should sail. Beautiful ballad could catch fire from the flip.

Pick of the Week

FUNKY BROADWAY (2:33) [Routine-Drive In, BMI—Christian]

I'M SORRY ABOUT THAT (3:03) [Pronto-Traceback, BMI—Womack]

WILSON PICKETT (Atlantic 2430)

Wilson Pickett's spectacular vocal techniques and soul-wailing are beautifully highlighted by slightly underplayed orking that builds as the song drives higher and higher in emotional impact. Sales should follow that building pattern in their own smashing manner for this version of "Funky Broadway." Flip features a low-down slow cry.

(WE'LL MEET IN THE) YELLOW FOREST (2:17)

[Chardon, Shelby Singleton, BMI—Carl, Whitelaw]

GOT HUNG UP ALONG THE WAY (2:04) [New Life, BMI—Sanders]

JAY & AMERICANS (United Artists 50196)

Big pounding sound, typically stunning vocal showings and a solid song spotlight Jay and the Americans in their finest form on "(We'll Meet in the) Yellow Forest." Look for this deck to put the crew high in the pop picture via grand build and zest. Bouncy ballad backing makes for added pleasure in a good music vein.

BE NOT TOO HARD (2:49)

[Peer International, BMI—Logue, Donovan]

NORTH (2:47) [Robbins, Chandos, ASCAP—Dusheck, Baez]

JOAN BAEZ (Vanguard 35055)

Booming guitar support and the bell-clear purity of Joan Baez' vocal are immediate ear-catchers for the folk ballad "Be Not Too Hard," which can be expected to take root in the college markets and spread through the pop system. Bright, undercutting soft protest statements in the Donovan-penned lyrics. Pretty lament on the bottom.

PRIVILEGE (2:55) [Shamley, ASCAP—Jones, Leander]

FREE ME (2:45) [Shamley, ASCAP—Leander, London]

PAUL JONES (Capitol 5970)

Stunning reviews for the bright British film "Privilege" should provide a big door-opener for Paul Jones who steps out of the Manfred Mann group into the spotlight via this movie title ballad with high pop probabilities. As the star of the flick, Jones spotlights "Free Me," the flip side, and this attention stealing song could turn the deck into a double-play hit.

ANYTHING GOES (2:00) [Harms, ASCAP—Porter]

MALIBU U. (2:20) [Tamerlane, BMI—Addrisi, Addrisi]

HARPERS BIZARRE (Warner Bros 7063)

Classy vocals, cute counterpoint and humorous musical play turn the familiar Cole Porter classic "Anything Goes" into a delightfully new tidbit of delirium that should make a welcome addition to many programming schedules at pop and aware good music stations. Should find a welcome sales response. Flip is a snappy tv theme.

DON'T FORGET ABOUT ME (2:35)

[Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Goffin, King]

SHORT SKIRTS (2:27) [Yugoth, BMI—Loizzo, Colbert]

AMERICAN BREED (Acta 808)

Happy harmonies and bright beat have set the American Breed high in the rock field before, and their new outing features more of the bounce and verve that has served them well. Good group build in delivery and bold ork drive make "Don't Forget About Me" a tune that should be planted firmly in the pop memory. Flip is a mod revamping of "Short Shorts."

TURN THE WORLD AROUND (2:26) [Fingerlake, BMI—Peters]

THE LONG RIDE HOME (2:43)

[Colgems, ASCAP—Washington, Alexander]

EDDY ARNOLD (RCA Victor 9265)

If Eddy Arnold hasn't cornered the market on apologies, "Turn the World Around" will at least strengthen his hold on the title of Mr. Forgive-Me with the collection of fans that have flocked for his ballads in the past. The chanter's pleas are frocked in a lovely good music and pop sound that will find lots of action. Pretty ballad for the coupler.

I WANNA BE THERE (2:42) [Ananga-Range, BMI—Thielhelm, Scala]

SUMMER IS THE MAN (2:56)

[Ananga-Range, BMI—Gilbert, Esposito]

BLUES MAGOOS (Mercury 72707)

Bust-out instrumental tactics and a wailing vocal tinged with blues make up this new offering from the Blues Magoos, and it's likely to put the team back up in the pop perspective. Lots of dance potential makes it a spinner's choice, and the exposure should put "I Wanna Be There" in the sales running. Flip features a pretty ballad.

Pick of the Week

LAURA (TELL ME WHAT HE'S GOT THAT I AIN'T GOT) (3:15)
[Al Gallico, BMI—Ashley, Singleton]

YOU'RE THE REASON I'M LIVING (2:30) [T.M., BMI—Darin]

BROOK BENTON (Reprise 0611)

Gaining a new lease on things with his first outing under the Reprise banner, Brook Benton should find a warm welcome from his fans and many new listeners who will be attracted by the beauty of "Laura," and the warm rendering offered by the chanter's massive voice. Benton's version will garner a large piece of the action on this competitively issued title.

Newcomer Picks

I JUST MADE UP MY MIND (3:00 [Al Gallico, BMI—Hawkshaw])

NOW IT'S MY TURN (2:25) [Home Folks, BMI—Fletcher, Flett]

JON GUNN (Deram 85013)

Off-beat ork sound with a hypnotically repeated chord for rhythmic effect and an out-going vocal job from Jon Gunn should send this newcomer's entry soaring toward the winner's circle. Lively import with plenty of potential to tear its way up the Stateside charts. More bright sounds on the coupler, which is a bluer tune.

I DON'T KNOW WHERE YOU ARE (2:13)
[Portable, BMI—Frischberg]

LOOKING AT THE WORLD THROUGH
ROSE COLORED GLASSES (3:11)
[Calm, BMI—Lobel]

SPLIT LEVEL (Dot 17036)

Fresh vocal brilliance and saucy arrangements should serve as a powerful springboard in sending "I Don't Know Where You Are" hurtling high into the hitsville category. Pseudo-brass vocal breaks put a sparkling icing on this delectable rendering from the Split Level. Delightful track with a big future. Oriental psyche trip on the lid.

POPCORN DOUBLE FEATURE (3:03)
[Helious, BMI—English, Weiss]

TOO MANY QUESTIONS (2:13) [Tattersall, BMI—Wayne, Barkhan]

TIM WILDE (Tower 353)

Taking lyrics that involve the circus aspect of city life, and backing them with arrangements that capture the panoramic changing scene makes "Popcorn Double Feature" a fine artistic showing, and also a song that should break wide open on the sales front. Excellent side by a rising star. Lover's complaint on the coupler.

A KISS TO BUILD A DREAM ON (2:50)
[Miller, ASCAP—Kalmer, Ruby, Hammerstein II]

IT COMES AND GOES (2:45) [Gil/Moss Rose, BMI—Anderson]

BENNY GORDON & SOUL BROTHERS (RCA Victor 9270)

Walloping with its opening Dragnet-plus-soul notes, and maintaining a high paced feverish rock, "A Kiss to Build a Dream On" will grab the teen stations and r&b outlets by storm. Expect this deck to blaze its way up the pop charts through dance and soul appeal. Tension filled biggie. Magnetic blues chant makes up the coupling selection.

JOHNNY B. GOODE (2:30) [Arc, BMI—Berry]
SHOOK ME DOWN (2:00) [Greyhound, BMI—Feldman]

CORONADOS (Parliament 750)

Spinners who have heard Chuck Berry's hit done and redone will find this version something of a surprise, and a pleasant one. Retaining a pleasant punch to put the tune across, and adding polish that might go so far as to make "Johnny B. Goode" a smooth listening selection, the Coronados could break this tune wide open. Good mid-paced ballad flip.

Best Bets

Columbia Audio Products Achieve 20% Of Label's Volume In 5 Years

HOLLYWOOD — Columbia Records' Masterworks audio products account for 20% of the label's volume, it was learned at last week's sales meet in Hollywood, Fla. In revealing this figure, Bill Farr, merchandising vp, said this percentage had been achieved in a period of just five years. In addition, J. J. Harris, director of audio products and accessories, said that the division's sales so far were 32% ahead of 1966.

Dick Smith, audio exec, also told the gathering, that the label would make a concentrated drive in the stringed-instrument field, currently represented with 9,900,000 who play such musical instruments.

New Cartridge Players
Masterwork Audio Products department introduced its new 4 and 8-track stereo tape cartridge playback equipment at the label's national sales conference.

Keeping in line with the label's recent announcement to release 4-track stereo tape cartridges, the Audio department developed a unique player to retail at a suggested price of $99.95. This is the M-4400, a self contained unit encased in vinyl-covered wood cabinet. It is a three-way unit playing on batteries, A/C current or auto and boat batteries through a special auto-lighter adapter cord.

Other features also include a change-over channel switch and electronic battery indicator.

Harris also showed a completely new line of 8-track stereo equipment to replace last year's models. He noted that the new playback equipment "not only features advanced design, but is attractively priced for volume sales."

Among the 8-track playback models are Model M-8002, priced at $59.95, $20.00 less than last year's. Program-selector key, automatic program changer with four-color indicator lamps and a brushed-aluminum control panel with cartridge slot door are among the features of the M-8002.

A $20.00 reduction in price was also shown in the M-8502 (replacing the M-8500) with a four-speaker system and adapters to accept input from record changers, tape decks or an FM stereo tuner. Suggested retail price will be $119.95.

Completing the line-up is the M-8600, a table model unit with similar input-acceptance features and larger speakers than the previously mentioned model. This unit is to market at $139.95.

A special changer attachment at $49.95 was introduced which will make it possible to convert the M-8600 into a complete music system.

All products are scheduled for delivery on September 15.

Labels Help Rebuild Disk Library Of Destroyed Station

NEW YORK—Record labels are responding to a call to rebuild the record collection of a radio station believed to have been destroyed in the aftermath of racial riots in Newark. Radio station WRKL - Rockland County, N.Y., established three years ago by Albert Spiro, a former engineer at radio station WNEW-New York, was burned to the ground after the station had invited a militant civil rights figure to present his views. His appearance was met with a number of threatening and insulting telephone calls to the studio, operating out of two trailers.

To date, the Capitol, Decca, RCA, MGM, A&M and United Artists labels will help establish a new record collection, replacing one that went up in flames along with $25,000 worth of equipment. The station, with equipment borrowed from WJZ-Hackensack, N. J. and a new transmitter being flown in from Quincy, Ill., was expected to be back on the air this Tues. (Aug. 1).

Time Spotlights Atlantic

NEW YORK—In its July 28th issue, Time Magazine ran a story on Atlantic Records' success in the soul field. Entitled "The Turkish Tycoons Of Soul" (Atlantic execs Ahmet and Nesuhi Ertegun are the Turkish Tycoons), the article covered Atlantic's roster of soul artists, including Aretha Franklin, Wilson Pickett, Percy Sledge and Stax-Volt performers Otis Redding, Sam & Dave, and Carla Thomas. Ahmet Ertegun, Atlantic's president, and VPs Nesuhi Ertegun and Jerry Wexler were profiled in the story, which also included their picture.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTERN

WQXR-New York, returned this week (30) to a classical format after a seven month period of programming light music. The move came as a result of an audience polling of over 7000 listeners, the majority of whom were in favor of the return of the classics. The outlet has originally switched away from classical music on Jan. 1, and, under FCC regulations, began separate programming from its affiliated station WQXR-FM, during half of the broadcasting day. While the AM station shifted to light music, the FM outlet continued to keep up a heavy lineup of classics. According to WQXR executive vice president Norman S. McGee, "We tried to attract an audience of an entirely different nature. But the plan did not succeed. It was like prohibition—a noble experiment, but it did not work." He added, "Beginning July 30 we will combine the best features of the AM and FM separated schedule." As a result the station's audience will once again hear the Cleveland and Chicago Symphony Orchestras on Sunday afternoons. Those hours when the two stations are separated in programming are slated for a revamping in order to handle the new schedule.

STILL 'COUPED UP'—Here's a picture of WQAM-Miami's "Chicken Coupe," which we mentioned in last week's column. "Couped up" in the coupe is Dorsie Harrell, who refuses to leave (he may have left by now, but the last we heard he was still there) until WQAM listeners raise $500.00 for Variety Children's Hospital. Originally, Harrell was to remain in the car until a listener guessed the contents of the 300-pound egg the car was setting on, atop a nest in the 163rd Street Shopping Center. When the contents of the egg were guessed, however, Harrell refused, for charitable reasons, to move. Good setting, Dorsie!

"Stand up and be counted" goes the saying, and WCFL-Chicago spinner Barney Pip did just that as he stood recently for 12½ hours in front of and in the lobby of the Chicago Theatre on State St. as part of a promo gimmick to prompt the rest of the stations deejays to play his Smash deck, "You Can't Sit Down." Since Pip's colleagues at the station had refused to play the record for one reason or another, the enterprising young man sent out an appeal to listeners to petition the station on his behalf. It was eventually decided that the other WCFL staffers would air the single (which features Barney on trumpet), if our hero would make the grand-stand play which was mapped out for him. Morale support during the stint was lent by young listeners who formed a picket line in front of the theatre in favor of Pip, while support of a more substantial nature was lent by the record label's national promo director Rory Bourke, who kept the spinner supplied with vittles throughout the day and evening. Needless to say, the campaign was a success and all of the WCFL spinners hopped on the bandwagon.

In Motor City, WJBK has just concluded its "I've Got Your Number" Contest, wherein telephone numbers were chosen at random from phone books in the Detroit area and announced several times an hour. Those people whose numbers were aired were given two minutes in which to call the station to qualify for the grand drawing. In this case, a local insurance exec, Clarence Warren, was Johnny-on-the-spot when his number was announced, both in the qualifying round and in the grand drawing, and wound up the winner of his choice from 15 of the nation's most desired automobiles, Warren's choice was a brand new Cadillac Eldorado.

As part of a special promo stint for the new film, "The Family Way," KPOJ-Portland air personality Dick Klinger (Klinger's Koffee Klub) hosted 25 women—all in "the family way"—to a special preview of the film, presenting them all with bibs for their expected arrivals. All the soon-to-be mothers were allowed to invite the equally soon-to-be dads along since, in Klinger's estimation, it is sometimes a while before parents can get out of the town after the birth of a new baby.

SPUTTERS: XERB - Hollywood wailer "Wolfman Jack" has just been re-signed to the station for a three-year deal calling for $65,000 per annum. General manager Robert Smith claims that the new pact makes the spinner the highest paid R&B personality in radio. . . . Armed Forces Radio morning man John Robert Garland, whose show has been emanating from Anchorage, Alaska, has just been re-booked, courtesy of the U.S. Army, to a tour in Viet Nam. . . . KEX-Portland spinner Bob Swanson took to the longbow earlier this month as he joined the roster of participants in the Sherwood Forked Tongue (sic) Showdown at the sea wall, opposite the old battleship Oregon mast, in Portland. The Forked Tongue, in which Swanson and other members of Robin's Radio Hoods competed for awards and trophies, was a kick-off promotion to publicize the Sherwood, Ore. Robin Hood Festival which began on July 22. . . . WIP-Philadelphia's Ken Garland, who hosts the "Music For A Summer Evening" series of concerts at the Cherry Hill Mall in N.J., pulled in a crowd of 2500 for the second show of the series, which featured the Cherry Hill Symphonic Band, conducted by Max Culpepper. The show was produced by the Cherry Hill Merchants Assoc.

VITAL STATISTICS: Nick Bolton, general manager of WDAF-Kansas City, Mo. has been elected vice president of Taft Broadcasting. A ten-year veteran of radio, Bolton held down the post of general manager of WKRC-Cincinnati before joining WDAF. . . . Michael Ludgate, former sales manager of WBNF-FM-Binghamton, has joined KFRE-FM-Fresno as station manager, replacing Robert Oxarat. . . . Murray Lang, formerly with the McLendon chain, has been named program director with XERB-Hollywood, while at the same station, Rick Larence has taken over as music director and Dick Hugg has been signed to join the air staff. . . . Bob Kelly, a former radio operations executive from KTHH-Houston, takes over as operations manager with KOY-Phoenix. . . . Gene Packard, ex-staffer with WIBC-Indianapolis, signs on with the air roster at WLW-Cincinnati. . . . E. Morgan Skinner has been named news and public affairs director with multi-lingual stations WNYW and WRFM-New York. . . . George Thomas gets the nod as news director with KOY-Phoenix.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Tremeloes

Originally a back-up group for Brian Poole, the three original Tremeloes (Alan Blakely, Rick West, and Dave Munden) split that union in 1964 to go out on their own, spending most of their time on the road throughout England and Scotland. In rounding out the group, Chip (a former carpenter's mate, hence the name) Hawkes was hired to pick the base guitar. He had begun his career at the tender age of 15 by singing in the local pubs and had then gone on to play with some very funky rock outfits in brawling German seaports.

Fortune smiled on the Tremeloes when they cut "Here Comes My Baby," which did very well in England before coming to the United States via the Epic label. Their latest Epic single is "Silence Is Golden" and is sitting at the number 11 slot on the Top 100, this week.

Rick West, the lead guitarist for the Tremeloes, started out as a classical guitarist but switched to jazz after hearing some old Django Reinhardt disks. Dave Munden is the drumming Tremmie while Alan Blakely bangs out rhythm guitar with a touch of piano or organ on the side.

Van Morrison

Van Morrison was born in Belfast, Ireland on Aug. 31st, 1945. He attended the Orange Field Boys Secondary School, from which he dropped out at the age of 15, to become a professional musician. His first pro gig had come when he was but 5-years-old when an aunt (from Detroit) gave him $5 for singing "Money Is The Root Of All Evil."

In 1964, Morrison opened an R&B club in Belfast and shortly thereafter formed a group called Them. Among the decks recorded by Them was, "Gloria" which stirred up a bit of activity among west coast hippies. The tune, which was penned by Morrison, rose to the upper reaches of the charts in a version done by the Shadows of Knight. On his list of compositions are such tunes as "Sad Eyes," "Bring 'Em On In," "One Two," "Mystic Eyes" and his Bang outing of "Brown Eyed Girl," which is number 63 on this week's Top 100.

Cy Coleman Steps-Up Producing Venture

NEW YORK—Cy Coleman, one of Broadway's bright spots among newer writing talents, is stepping-up his activities as a disk producer.

Through his production company, Marvel Productions, Coleman is about to deliver two albums to MGM/Verve Records. One of them features Coleman himself in an instrumental project he is keeping under wraps for the time being. The other set features vocalist Clair Hogan. Another LP project about to be completed is a package featuring an orchestra known as Yorko & the Greek Strings.

Besides Marvel, which is run by Eric Kolodny, general manager of the firm, Coleman operates two publishing units, Notable (ASCAP) and Portable (ASCAP). Notable has published Coleman three Broadway scores to date, "Wildcat," "Little Me" and "Sweet Charity." His newest Broadway assignment is set in New York's East Village, and will feature lyrics by Dorothy Fields, his collaborator on "Charity." A spring debut on Broadway is planned. He will also publish an Off-Broadway production based on "New York Unexpurgated," a popular where-to-go guide. Murray Grand will write the music and lyrics. Among Portable's copyrights is the recent hit, "Sunny."

Coleman, by the way, takes exception to those who feel that the sound of Top 40 should be used extensively on Broadway. He contends that present-day theatre construction and limitations of the pit are not compatible with the Big Beat. The theatre could go practically all-electronic in achieving such a sound, he adds, but it would encroach on the theatre's maintaining its status as "the last vestige of the human voice." Some of the orchestrations in "Charity" employed a bass guitar for a semi-rock effect.

NARM Meet To Greet 22 New Members

PHILADELPHIA—The largest number of new members ever to affiliate with the National Association of Record Merchandisers, (NARM), in the first two week period of its new fiscal year (which began July 1) has been announced by NARM exec director Jules Malamud. The tape cartridge companies are: General Recorded Tape of Sunnyvale, California; and Stereodyne, Inc. of Troy, Michigan.

All new member companies will join in the new format for the NARM Mid Year Meeting, which will include a series of seminar sessions on the following topics: "Your Business In Today's Economy"; "Warehouse Security"; "The Tape Cartridge"; and "Electronic Data Processing; a Survey of Systems Currently Used in the Record Industry." Seaboard Dist. Creates Separate Sales-Promo Dept. For Mercury Line

CHICAGO—Mercury Records has turned over its East Hartford, Connecticut area territory to East Hartford's Seaboard Distributors, which in turn is devoting a separate sales and promo staff to the Mercury family of labels.

Seaboard, a division of Roskin Distributors, had in the past handled the Mercury, Philips and Limelight labels while Trinity Records distributed Smash and Fontana.

"With a separate sales and promotion set-up just for Mercury, Seaboard will be able to do the 'maximum jobs in sales and promotion,'" said Marv Ginsburg, manager of the Seaboard outlet.

Ginsburg's sentiments were echoed by Irwin H. Steinberg, executive vice president of Mercury, who also emphasized that one of the "salient features" of the program is that an entirely separate sales and promotion force will be maintained by Seaboard Mercury.

According to Joel Roskin, owner of the firm, the staff will be composed of Ed O'Keefe, who will handle promotion for Mercury, Philips, Smash, Fontana, and Limelight, and Herb Eddy and Lester Deuel, who will share the sales responsibilities.

Eddy and O'Keefe were recently hired because of the new operational set-up, according to Roskin, while Deuel has been with the company for more than two years.

Skolnick Named Unart's National Sales Manager

NEW YORK—Mike Lipton, VP and director of marketing for United Artists Records, last week announced that David Skolnick has been named national sales manager for Unart Records. Unart is United Artists' soon-to-be released economy line.

DAVID SKOLNICK

Besides heading up Unart's sales force, Skolnick will also be in charge of the sales machinery for United Artists' line of cartridge tapes.

Skolnick was formerly with Marnel Distributors of Philadelphia, where, in his post as sales manager for the firm, he handled the lines of United Artists and its subsidiary labels. He had been with Marnel two years. Prior to that he was sales manager for Cosnat Distributors of Philadelphia for eight years.

Skolnick will work out of UA's main office here in N.Y., reporting directly to Mike Lipton.

Concentric Label Arrives

NEW YORK—Concentric Productions is a new disk company under the aegis of Jack Lonshein, with sales and promotion under the direction of Lenny Lewis. First release by the firm is an LP called "A Point Of View," featuring singer-composer Bobby Cole. A headliner at Jilly's, the New York eatery, for the past few years, he will arrange and conduct Judy Garland's upcoming Palace Theater engagement here. The label will concentrate on developing individual talents with catalog potential. National distribution has been set, Lewis said. Company is located 148 East 53rd St., this city.

IT'S YAMA YAMA TIME—George Segal poses in front of one of Alexander's 3rd Ave. (New York) windows, which was decorated with a 20's theme tying together his latest film, "The St. Valentine's Day Massacre," and Philips LP, "The Yama Yama Man."

New Artists At ESP-Disk; Subsid Has First Release

NEW YORK—Ten new artists have been signed to the recording roster at ESP-Disk during the last few weeks. Nine of the performers are individuals involved with what ESP head Bernard Stallman terms the "new music," and the latest is a pop-rock entertainer, Jeffrey Comanor.

In the jazz-plus "new music" field, the pactees are: Karl Berger, Gunter Hampel, Marzette Watts, Alan Sondheim, Gato Barbieri, James Zitro, Peter Lemer, Steve Lacy and Jacques Coursil.

Also announced through ESP-Disk last week was the completion of two albums to comprise the first release under the subsidiary banner CJA. Titled from the Esperanto word for "all kinds," the label will feature a variety of product, but the first two LP's are both in the satire bag. One album is by comic-satirist Hugh Romney and the other stars Britain's Tony Snell.

Sunny Skylar Transferred To Peer-Southern LA Office

Sunny Skylar, long-time Peer-Southern New York staffer, is being transferred to work with the firm's West Coast professional manager Billy Walters.

Skylar has served in various capacities in New York since he joined the firm in 1960, working with the A&R department, the production section and more recently was the American rep in Brazil. He is also a well-known songwriter whose most famous compositions include "Besame Mucho," "Amor," "Love Me With All Your Heart," and "You're Breaking My Heart." His L.A. duties will include contacting A&R men and film companies, screening new material and continuing his fruitful Brazilian business trips for Peer-Southern.

AL MARTINO

NEW YORK—Al Martino, singing from the heart and, admittedly, particularly to the ladies, is sentimentalizing at the Americana Hotel's Royal Box, where he started an engagement last week (25). His 18-number act is a tribute to the more recent love-letters, including a batch of faithful recreations of his now healthy string of singles hits (e.g. "I Love You Because," "Painted Tainted Rose," "Spanish Eyes," "Mary In The Morning." With little banter, but frequent handshake gestures to ringsiders, Martino croons and sings, giving a well-rounded portrait of his fine, uncluttered vocal style. Brightly, he smoothly warbles such items as "You Better Love Me," "Mame" and "This Little Girl Of Mine," a rhythmic paean reminiscent of Ray Charles' "Hallelujah, I Love Her So." He displays a strong big-voiced style on "Born Free" and "Al Di La." Another highlight is an intimate (piano accompaniment only) rendition of "Fly Me To The Moon." Performing with the songster are the Martino Singers, a group of two female and three male voices who are helpful, yet make one feel he is attending a Martino disk session. Sincerity and an obvious let-me-sing-for-you manner has made Al Martino a Capitol disk star, and these qualities shine also when he's on-stage.

TERRY KNIGHT

NEW YORK—Fred Weintraub's Bitter End was the scene of a one-night powerhouse gig by Cameo recording artist Terry Knight. The songster, backed by his usual rhythm and brass accompaniment, played to an audience comprised mainly of music business and TV notables.

Now divorced from his hard-rock backing (you remember Terry Knight and the Pack), the Michigan-born songster prefers the stand-up, mike in hand, move around the room technique. From the beginning, Terry Knight had the house right where he wanted it, changing mood and pace frequently and filling the space between numbers with witty, honest, and delightful patter. Aside from his latest Cameo single, "Come On Home," the high spots of the show were: a strong reading of his "I Who Have Nothing" while-backer; and a wailing, driving, soulful venture into the world of "Midnight Hour."

Terry Knight has proved once again that he is a particularly fine and versatile artist, destined for the top.

CARNIVAL CONNECTION

NEW YORK—As of this writing, the Carnival Connection does not have a recording contract, but judging from the proliferation of label execs and indie producers digging their show at the Rolling Stone disko last Wed. night, it shouldn't be long now. The group (formerly known as the JB's) is extremely well knit and delivers a pulsing, driving sound marked by strong vocal harmonies. Most of the material is self-penned by members of the five-man outfit and exudes a refreshing individuality in addition to its being interesting and timely. The Carnival Connection, based in Montreal, looks to have a burgeoning future on the international rock scene.

PLENTY OF GOLD — Dave Kapp, president of Kapp Records, is shown with Roger Williams (left) on the west-coast as he makes a special presentation of five golden LP's, certified by the RIAA. Each gold album, now RIAA certified, represents a million dollars in sales. Roger already has 10-goldies in his possession; he used to get one for each million LP's sold, before today's industry basis of reckoning was established. Williams received RIAA awards for the following five LP's: "Born Free," "Till," "Roger Williams' Greatest Hits," "Songs Of The Fabulous Fifties, Pt. 1," and

"Songs Of The Fabulous Fifties, Pt. 2." When asked why he hadn't picked them up before this, the artist said that he had never thought of it.

Judy Clay Inked By Stax

NEW YORK—Songstress Judy Clay, formerly a member of the Drinkard Family Singers, has been inked to a long-term, exclusive contract by Stax Records. Her first single for Stax is entitled "You Can't Run Away From Your Heart" and will be released next week.

Monterey Pop Fest Sets Planning Meet

HOLLYWOOD — Board members of the Monterey International Pop Festival will be meeting within the next ten days in L.A. at which time they'll view the film of the three day musical cycle as well as discuss allocation of the proceeds from the event.

According to publicity director Derek Taylor, net should exceed $200,000. A financial statement will be made at that time. It was estimated that about $500,000 was grossed by the non-profit organization. Board members will be allocating funds according to majority vote. According to co-director Lou Adler, artists who performed will also have a voice in the allocation.

Fifty thousand will be set aside as expenses for next year's event. Which should leave, according to Taylor, more than $150,000 available for "good causes."

Taylor informed Cash Box that "although we have a dozen ideas already submitted, we could do with more" suggesting that interested parties contact members of the board with additional proposals regarding possible use of the monies derived from the festival.

Taylor added that it's very likely that a portion of the money will be spent in "some ghetto cause." Atlantic's Jerry Wexler has suggested a contribution to the Negro College Fund. Suggestions may be submitted to Lou Adler, Derek Taylor or co-director John Phillips at the International Pop Festival Headquarters, 8428 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif. 90069.

No date has been set for the national showing of the film. But time and date of the ABC-TV color special should be announced at the meeting.

Super K Complex Expands

NEW YORK—After two years in business, Super K, entailing production, management and publishing units, is sporting a million-seller production and general growth in its operations.

The million-seller, certified by the RIAA, is the Music Explosion's "Little Bit O' Soul," heard on the Laurie label. Besides the Music Explosion, the managerial end of Super K, Kasenetz-Katz Associates (Jerry Kasenetz is president of Super K, Jeff Katz is secretary-treasurer), also handles the Groove (Scepter-Wand), the Ohio Express (Cameo-Parkway), the Spice of Life (Scepter-Wand), 1910 Fruit Gum

Co. (Cameo-Parkway), Christine Cooper (Caemo-Parkway), who was one of the initial successes for Super K with her dishing of "S.O.S." This management dept. is headed by Stuart Badler, currently touring with the Music Explosion.

While spending a recent honeymoon in England, Kasenetz also inked two acts for representation here, The British Attack and the Music Factory, both acts of which are about to be placed with labels.

Kaskat Music is Super K's publishing arm. It's headed by Elliot Chiprut, co-producer of "Little Bit O' Soul." The catalog includes 30 songs written by Ritchie Cordell, writer of "S.O.S." and nine songs penned by Chiprut for a new Music Explosion LP.

GOING FAR OUT—Albert Ayler, avant-garde tenor sax man, discusses his new Impulse recording contract with Bob Theile (left), director of A&R for ABC Records. Theile guides ABC's jazz subsidiary, Impulse, among his other duties. Ayler's first Impulse set is due out in Oct.

to offer the fastest and best service in the industry."

Classics and Opera

Managing classical director Terry McEwen covered the second segment of the meeting noting that closer liaison with the firm's European producers is giving the N.Y. office an articulate voice in the selection of artists included in classical efforts. "We can now offer names that even those casually interested in the classics are familiar with—a symphonic catalog without peer and with more famous conductors than any label in the world." Regarding the label's coup (announced at last year's San Francisco meet) of pacting Leonard Bernstein for a number of LP's, McEwen expressed the hope for a "long and fruitful association" with him adding that, through a reciprocal agreement with Columbia Records, it might be possible to arrange for Eugene Ormandy to also be available on London conducting the Vienna Philharmonic in the near future. It's understood that the Columbia label is particularly interested in obtaining the services of Renata Tebaldi for several LP's and that its classical dept. has been holding talks with McEwen regarding an interchange if the artists are willing.

Pop Scene

London's A&R director of pop produce Walt Maguire recited the

TALENT ON STAGE

MARILYN MAYE

NEW YORK—If there was a formula behind the planning of Marilyn Maye's act on opening night at the Copacabana (27) it might have read: "Put on a happy face; invite the audience to share your excitement; be yourself and knock them dead!"

Well, that is what she did! Opening her act with a collection of happiness tunes, the RCA Victor recording artist crackled and charmed her way into the lightened hearts of viewers. Having expressed her joy, Miss Maye capped the gambit with a seemingly tailor-made explanation in the lyrics of "If My Friends Could See Me Now."

At the conclusion of this song, she had the audience won over with the sympathy that everyone feels for a performer who has finally hit a new plateau and overcome the first jitters. She kept the crowd in her palm for the remainder of her act through spectacular readings of some excellent in-between songs.

Departing from the somewhat accepted pattern of building to a higher level with each song, Miss Maye jumped right to a peak early in the evening and just maintained the tension for almost half an hour before easing into some relaxed material.

Topping off the string of stirring stingers was the songstress' recent single "You've Got To Be There."

Easing off, she continued with "Sherry" from her latest LP ("A Taste of Sherry") and a medley of trouble tunes strung together via "You've Got Your Troubles." In the second half of her act, lovely arrangements warranted nearly as much attention as the quality of the vocals. "The Shadow Of Your Smile" received unusual handling, as did Steve Allan's "I Love You Today," "Cabaret" and a splendid pairing of "What Now My Love" and "I Will Wait For You." Credit for the arrangements as well as a fine piano showing go to Sammy Tucker.

New arrivals at the Copa generally have an exciting appeal, as do all openings; but Marilyn Maye's ability to draw the viewers into her own emotional gaiety and relief made her performance especially worthwhile. If she can retain the freshness and exuberance, and if she continues to invite viewers to feel her own exhilaration over a hard-earned success, she will find a following that should grow far beyond her modest aspirations.

In Town For 'Trip'

Peter Fonda (left) was recently in N.Y. to promote his soon-to-open latest cinema effort, "The Trip." An American International picture, "The Trip" will have a soundtrack LP out on the Tower label. Fonda is basically responsible for the music in the flick as he got the Mike Bloomfield/Barry Goldberg group to work up the music and Paul Beaver to synthesise the sounds. Larry Steinfield, of the American International New York office, stands at the right in this photo.

long list of indie produced singles and artists which have been chart successes over the past year noting that London's first international label, Deram, had made amazing strides since its recent introduction with such artists as Whistling Jack Smith, Cat Stevens and Procol Harum. Chiding some of the west coasters for not helping to "break" or substantially contribute to some of their chart items he forcefully stated that "no format says that you have to sell only a California or west coast sound here. I won't believe it." Adding that "more single hits will give us more 'greatest hits' LP's."

In introducing the Procol Harum LP, bouncing off the top ten single "A Whiter Shade of Pale," Maguire announced that the single had already passed the 500,000 figure while Goldfarb added that the LP will be shipped within ten days "even though it's so new we don't as yet have a catalog number."

Phase 4

The fourth phase of the meet was devoted to London's strong Phase 4 series which Goldfarb emphasized was "not just a catch phrase but the result of dedicated and meticulous direction by A&R exec Tony D'Amato who chooses every title and arrange-Meistersinger" with the Vienna Philharmonic.

Pop Product

London's Fall "Pops" include: The Bachelors' "Golden All Time Hits," John Mayall's Bluesbreakers "A Hard Road," "The Many Sides of Val Doonican," "The Piano Genius of Günter Noris," Deram label's "David Bowie," "Fly Me to the Sun" with the Les Reed Orch. and the 1st Procol Harum LP. And, issued in conjunction with Mantovani's 11th annual U.S. tour beginning this fall, is "Mantovani/Hollywood" featuring main themes from "Born Free," "Doctor Zhivago," "Goldfinger" and 9 other movie titles.

London enters its 21st year with, probably, the strongest sales streak of singles and LP's in its history. With the SP-67 Program, announced during the company's 20th anniversary sales meetings in London, England last January, its labels reportedly received the highest sales record since the firm introduced its initial 78 RPM album with Camarata in the fall of '47.

In last week's Ramblings we erroneously stated that "the Texas Songbird," Carolyn Hester, had been signed to Wes Farrell's Senate label. In reality, Farrell had said that he would not sign her to Senate if it was not the best label for her. Festival as of their performances of July 19th. The Four Seasons drew 11,000 people in 2-shows.

The Blades of Grass taped a Hy Lit TV'er this past Sat. and then bent over to the Steel Pier Ed Hurst TV'er. The boys are hard at work promoting their current Jubilee deck, "Happy."

We witnessed a very excited Micky Wallach this week as he informed us that: Oliver Nelson's "The Kennedy Dream" LP on Impulse is getting lots of play and sales; the Young Americans' LP on ABC is doing very well; the Free Spirits' LP (which features Larry Coryell on guitar) has broken wide open in San Francisco; there is strong singles reaction on the Shakors' "One Wonderful Moment," Peter DeAngelis' "When Your Wedding Ring Was New;" the Tams' "Mary Mary Row Your Boat" (all on ABC) and "Believe In Me" by Jesse James on 20th Century Fox.

The Baron, Micky J. Addy, got in touch with us this week and said: "It looks like Bonnie Guitar has a winner on Dot called, "A Woman In Love," which is a record worthy of any station format. . . . On Acta Records, the American Breed, has a successor to its first release that will be a springboard into the ranks of the top singing groups. It's a "Whammy" as Mammy Yokum would say. . . . the Rich Kids on Jeff Barry's Steed label, have an entry called "Plastic Flowers." This record can bloom into a "Top 10." . . . Viva Records has another giant in their Volume II of the "Rhapsodies For Young Lovers" by the Midnight String Quartet and (as a reminder) Marjorie McCoy's LP, "I Am Marjorie McCoy," can be a possibility for her to win the title of "Most Promising Girl Vocalist" . . . thus sayeth Der Cherman Baron of Brenerhaven.

Tower's Sal Licata has brought to our attention that "Try It" by the Standells is following the same breaking pattern as "Dirty Water" and is now catching on in Florida. The Vagrants' manager, Frank Scinarlo, tells us that producer Felix Pappalardi has just completed the Vagrants' new Atco single. The title is set at "Sunny Rain." Frank has also signed a local R&B act known as Rocky & His Friends. Bob Gallo has cut the first single by the Donuts, Scinarlo's new group.

Elektra hosted a party last week to introduce their new concept of Classical recording out of the producers of Elektra and Nonesuch Records.

Indie record promoter and publicist Morty Wax has announced the addi-copyrights.

Bob Stone notes breakouts in Nashville and New England on Billy Bud's "The Love Generation."

Al Altman is really in the game room with a monster deck by the Cyrkle called "Penny Arcade." He has big expectations for Terry Knight's latest Cameo effort, "Come Home Baby." Al notes that the Tokens' "It's A Happening World" is stepping out on its own.

RCA Victor songster, Rufus Lumly, is currently packing 'em into the Miramar in Columbus, Ohio.

The big three according to Merrec's Jerry Ross are: "I Wanna Be There," Blues Magoos; "Locked In Your Love," Dee Dee Warwick; and "Hold On," the Mauds.

Nanette is doing very well with her first Canusa outing. . . . the front cover of Esquire mag. is none other than Charlie Larkey, the bass player for the Myddle Class.

The Yardbirds have broken all over the west coast with "Ha Ha The Clown" and the deck is spreading eastward.

The current Fannie Flagg LP is starting to move in LA, S.F., and Atlanta. Looks like it could be a big one for the lass.

HOLLYWOOD:

We've said it before. But as Schopenhauer reminds "wisdom never put into practice is like a double rose; its color and perfume are delightful, but it withers away and leaves no seed." Seed is a particularly apt word in this instance since these words of wisdom are directed to the damsels of the flower generation.

Another old sage once said that the trouble with the music business is that there are too many musicians in it.

A musician has two arms and two legs. He has eyes, ears, nose and a mouth. He is, all things considered, not unlike most of us. We only wish he could remember that.

Back in the thirties Ozzie Nelson, the leader of a swing band, sang a ditty titled "She Left Me For The Leader Of A Swing Band." Fred Astaire reprised Irving Berlin's "I'd Rather Lead A Band" and Cole Porter wrote "if you're longing to subject her—become a big band director."

So, as you can see, the world hasn't changed much in 30 years. Except that today there are more musicians than ever. And girls now go for anything holding a paid up card in the AF of M.

A musician is merely a guy with a

Mary Mobeys. Such gals, we're told, have been known to be aberrantly attracted to D.J.'s. But that's next week's column. What really bothers us is this.

When are these gorgeous but misguided maidens ever going to learn? When, if ever, will these tinker belles realize that the tangle heroes of our industry, the guys with the deep and abiding talents are, by all standards, the fascinating fellows who represent the trade press?

Our "West Coast Girl of the Week" is Mary Grover whose Julie Jordan captured Robert Goulet's heart (and our) in the ABC-TV special "Carousel." The blonde, blue-green eyed enchantress is a UCLA grad, appeared in every Valley Music Theater production for two years and was Miss California in the Miss America pageant a few years back (losing the crown but winning the judges' first place votes in the talent division). You may be soon seeing her as Maid Marion in the projected TV special of "Robin Hood" and/or as Irene Malloy in the film version of "Hello Dolly." So far she has managed to elude label bids. . . . Former "West Coast Girl of the Week" Bobbie Gentry played us an advance dub of "Ode To Billy Joe" just about six months back. It's now overnight one of the nation's most potent platters. Lee Hazlewood, who covered the Capitol disk for Reprise, considers it "the finest song I've heard in the past five years," a haunting verse on death set to the rhythm of life. Gentry created the poeticism and tune—also co-produced the record.

Threats of litigation subsided, Roy Head is heading for Memphis this week to cut his first Mercury session in 9 months. . . . Vikki Carr, who makes her Greek Theater debut this week (with the Smothers Bros.) currently boasts one of the top three singles in England. "It Must Be Him," arranged by Ernie Freeman, was released here late last year. A new Liberty push is on in the states which might yet riddle the record with chart bullets.

Canterbury's V.P. in charge of sales and distribution Bobby Crawford tied the knot with artist Robin Lavigne — currently honeymooning. On a Yellow Balloon?

Gene Simmons, gm of Original Sound, reminds us that "Funky Broadway" by Dyke and the Blazers has topped 700,000, one of the most recorded R&B titles of the year. The OS record has been on and off the CB Top 100 chart four times in the past six months.

Angel Broadcasts at night are slightly ahead of KHJ's Hooper. But overall, with only these two exceptions, KHJ leads in all time segments. They're also ahead of the pack in Pulse, A.R.B. and Media-Stat.

CHICAGO:

One-derful topper George Leaner got the good word that Otis Clay's "That's How It Is When You're In Love" is starting to break nationally after chalking up a nice score on the local charts. Also, the diskery is enjoying a bit of two-sided action with the current Alvin Cash deck "The Charge" b/w "Different Folks Have Different Strokes" . . . Local group the Shadows of Knight hope to get in some vacation time following their upcoming 3-day stint in Minneapolis. . . . It was nice meeting Barry Richards, who was in town last week exposing his new UNI deck "Two For The Road", from the Audrey Hepburn-Albert Finney flicker. . . . Barrington topper Bill Simonini is rush releasing the new Just Rita single "The Best Thing You Ever Had" b/w "Root Of Love". Lark departs shortly on an extensive national tour to plug the deck. . . . Lee Dale Associates hosted a cocktail bash for Chess star Little Milton, who just wrapped up a weekend stint in The Club. . . . Local cleffer Fred Arquilla conferred last week with Mahalia Jackson about her upcoming album session which will include two of his tunes. Mahalia, meanwhile, has a full p.a. schedule ahead of her with appearances in Denver, a benefit at DuSable here and a 6-weeks concert tour of Europe! . . . Sig Sakowicz will emcee Ike Cole's opening in the College Inn 8/1. . . . Newies in the fore at United Record Dist. include Dionne Warwick's "The Windows Of The World" (Scepter), "A Tear And A Smile" by The Romeos (Mark II) and "Take Care" by June Conquest (Windy C). . . . The Rush St.-Old Town districts are swingin' as usual with Della Reese at the Scotch Mist, Marvin Gaye in the Whiskey A Go Go and Lionel Hampton in the Plugged Nickel! . . . Congrats to polka maestro Marion Lush (Dyno) who weds Nancy Patak 8/13. Reception will be held in the Manor Ballroom! . . . Bobby Garmisa gave us a call to tout The Grassroots' follow-up "Things I Should Have Said" (Dunhill), "Yellow Forrest" by Jay & The Americans (UA) and "Try Try Try" by Jim Valley (Dunhill). . . . WLS' Art Roberts voted "most popular disk jockey in midwest" by Scene Magazine.

CBS Int'l Conducts 'Farmer's Market' Meet At Convention

HOLLYWOOD, FLA. — A two-day 'Farmer's Market' conference was held at the Columbia sales convention by Harvey L. Schein, vice president and general manager, CBS International, for the world-wide representatives from foreign subsidiaries and affiliates.

The problems of coordinating and attaining maximum exploitation of product and talent all over the world were examined. Examples of this International "Farmer's Market" approach: French representatives revealed new product designed for French Canadians; German delegates met with Japanese on selling new German recordings for release in Japan; Italians met with corresponding people from Latin America to explore the market for Italian recordings in South America.

Clive Davis visited the Tuesday meeting and entered into the informal discussion that followed. The conferences ended on a note calling for more active cooperation and interchange between all parties in CBS International and its subsidiaries and CBS Records America.

Columbia Team Sets Up Inventive Film Shows

HOLLYWOOD, FLA.—Columbia Records creative team developed the film presentations used during the label's 1967 national sales convention in Hollywood, Florida.

The presentations were the result of the efforts of Robert Cato, director of creative services (his seventh convention assignment); Maida Schwartz, manager of creative services administration, who served as the audio-visual coordinator; John Berg, art director, packaging design; Don Hunstein, director of photography; and Sandy Speiser, photographer. In addition, Warren Vincent, manager of editing, served as the A&R editor, and Ed Michalski, recording engineer, worked as tape editor on the presentation.

This year, nearly 2,000 slides were used in the ten hours of visual presentations, which were shown over a period of three days. The Aug. product presentation reprise is the result of three days' photographing on location at Expo '67 in Montreal. Among the devices used in screening these films were Carousel and Twin-Carousel projectors and DuKane film strips.

Columbia Masterminds Mass McLuhan 'Massage' Message

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has launched a massive promotional campaign to advertise and promote the label's recently released LP "The Medium Is The Massage" featuring media expert and culture commentator Professor Marshall McLuhan. The recording, although based on the best-selling book of the same title co-authored by McLuhan and Quentin Fiore, is an original and creative audio departure from the norm, using many new sound techniques to demonstrate McLuhan's theories concerning the effects of the electronic age.

Commenting upon the unique build-up the company plans for the album, Clive J. Davis, vice president and general manager of CBS Records, stated: "The Medium Is The Massage" is an innovation in recording. It is both informative and humorous and could be described as a fun package which offers a new way of learning or as the first happening ever released on records. We plan to advertise and promote the album in keeping with this concept."

Accordingly, a diversified advertising campaign is underway, with ads scheduled to appear in such varied publications as the New York Times, Evergreen Review, Advertising Age and Saturday Review. Times ads, which will run this week will feature provocative phrases culled from the album as well as quotes from critics on McLuhan's works. Ads will also be placed in several other press outlets, including special advertising publications.

In addition, the label has already staged a special promotion wherein mini-skirted misses paraded through the broadcasting and advertising centers of New York and other major cities carrying advertising posters featuring the album's cover. Complimentary copies of the LP were also handed out to passers-by.

Acosta To Helm Crewe Film Co.

HOLLYWOOD—Armand Acosta will direct the newly formed Crewe Company Films, Inc., reports Bob Crewe, chairman of the board of the Crewe Group of Companies.

The new production company which will have offices in New York and in Hollywood at Paramount Studios and at 9000 Sunset Blvd., marks the Crewe Group's emergence into the field of motion pictures.

An experienced producer/director/writer, Acosta has most recently been the principal director of Filmfare (New York & Hollywood). Previously he has been associated as designer/director with such motion pictures and television shows as "Experiment In Terror," "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane," "The Danny Thomas Show," "The Lively Ones" and "The Soldier," the latter, a documentary starring William Shatner that won the Bronze Medal Award at the Venice Film Festival.

Under Acosta's supervision, Crewe Company Films, Inc., is now developing several properties for Paramount Pictures. Among them is a drama that will star recording idol Mitch Ryder.

Acosta also plans to make Crewe Company Films, Inc., available for exclusive television commercial production.

mentary copies of the LP were also handed out to passers-by.

Based on a special script derived from the McLuhan book, "The Medium is the Massage" features the reading interspersed with electronic effects, some puzzling, and many humorous. Members of the press actually participated in the recording session. LP was produced by John Simon, conceived and coordinated by Jerome Agel.

Corrections

Credit lacking in the Pick review of "Army Bound" in last week's issue omitted to state that the song is property of Columbia-Screen Gems Music.

In the information given for Lou Christie's "Gina" the publisher should have been Captain Marvel, BMI.

The group's first engagement will be at the Fillmore Auditorium, commencing August 22. They are also set for two weeks at the Cross Town Bus Club in Boston immediately after their Fillmore fortnight. After Boston they will play NY for two weeks at an as yet unnamed club. They will wind up their tour with two weeks of one nighters.

The Cream's first LP on Atco Records, "Fresh Cream", is currently on the Top 100 Albums chart. The group's 2nd LP will be issued while the boys are on tour in the U. S.

Capitol's Bobby Gentry On The Road With 'Ode'

NEW YORK—Bobbie Gentry's "Ode To Billy Joe," topping sales of over 500,000 in less than two-weeks since release, is one of the fastest rising decks in the history of Capitol Records. Originally produced and penned by the lass, the dub was offered to Capitol through producer Kelly Gordon, last Mar. Re-cut at Capitol (with strings added by arranger Jimmie Haskell) "Ode To Billy Joe" was released to the public on July 17th.

Voile Gilmore, Capitol A&R chief, notes that . . . "it's the fastest breaking female record since Peggy Lee's 'Fever,' released almost a decade ago." The first indication of "Ode"'s potential was from country outlets in the south, particularly in Atlanta. There were some early fears that the deck, which runs over 4-minutes, might be too long for general acceptance but the overwhelming success of the lid seems to leave these fears groundless.

Following a surprise birthday party held for the lark (She's now 23-years-old) at Hollywood's Villa Capri, she and "Ode To Billy Joe" hit the road for an 11-city tour. Traveling with Capitol's national singles merchandising manager Ken Mansfield, Gentry begins the promo jaunt in Chicago on July 31st. The venture will be completed with whirlwind stops in Cleveland (8/2,) Boston (8/3,) New York (8/5,) Wash., D. C. (8/7,) Baltimore (8/8,) Philadelphia (8/9-10,) New York again (8/11-12-13,) Detroit (8/14-15,) Cincinnati (8/16,) and Pittsburgh (8-17.)

Gentry is currently completing her first Capitol LP, with no release date set as of this writing.

Classroom Canning Of Cuts Collects Cash For Ascher

NEW YORK—Canning music for classroom use has turned into a healthy business for Emil Ascher, Inc. world's largest distributor of background music, which has been selling material for use in film production training programs.

Clients who have accepted the product for use as background by students of film making include UCLA, USC, Iowa and Purdue. Educational arms of the government have also bought musical rights according to the company's secretary-treasurer Everett Ascher.

Canned music has been well accepted since film production students must have this part of the material to work with; and due to the expense of live music and the difficulties involved, this variety is more manageable. It can be listened to beforehand, and selected for each scene. Trainees are able to score, mix and edit the music relatively easily.

Ascher offers clients over 300 hours of music from which to choose, on records or tape. All of the music is catalogued, and has been bringing in cash in an area most distributors have not noted.

Norelco Tape Recorders Sets Quarterly Sales Record

NEW YORK — North American Philips Company, has disclosed that sales of Norelco tape recorders in the second quarter of this year were the highest in the company's history.

Volume was more than 25 per cent above that of the comparable period last year, according to Wybo Semmelink, assistant vice president and manager of the Norelco high fidelity products department which markets a full line of Norelco cassette and reel-to-reel tape recorders.

"The impressive growth and acceptance of the cassette system, which Norelco introduced less than three years ago, is largely responsible for this sharp rise," he said. "For example, at the Consumer Electronics Show we received firm orders which were nearly double the orders written at any previous show."

Semmelink recently voiced the expectation that the cassette system will be the industry standard for cartridge equipment within two years.

A FILM STAR NOW—MGM Records has re-inked Sam the Sham to a new recording contract which also calls for him to star in MGM films. The agreement was signed by proxy Mort Nasatir, who was out of town at the time the above photo was taken due to his presence at the opening of the MGM offices in England. Shown above as they finalize the agreement, are: (seated, left to right) Len Stogel, Sam the Sham's manager; Sam the Sham; and Tom White, director of business affairs; (standing, from the left) Watson James, assistant to Mort Nasatir; and Harold Streibich, a Memphis attorney. Andy Feinman, not shown, handled legal negotiations for Stogel.

'Intimate' Disko Opens In NY; Called 'Salvation'

NEW YORK—Greenwich Village has a brand-new discotheque that swings with enough bodies to spark conviviality, yet is a joyfully intimate retreat from the mob scene. Salvation, which is what Jerry Schatzberg and Bradley Pierce call their place at 1 Sheridan Square, formerly the site of the Downtown nitery, is a magnet for pace setters. Now open nightly to the previewing public, Salvation will sock it to you officially on Tuesday, Aug. 8.

A big-name pop-rock group will be announced shortly as a premiere bandstand attraction at Salvation, to join the San Francisco group called the Poor, playing currently for previewers.

A Huckleberry Tatu party will be a highlight of opening night festivities with club guests showing each other their etchings via temporary skin tattoos provided gratis by the management. Mutual tattooing is expected to break down any communication hang-ups between revelers, even to coling the generation gap.

Psychedelic lighting created by Joshua W. White of Senefex, will add to the relaxed mod decor by fashion photographer William Bell, and the one-piece multi-colored micro sheaths designed by Kiki Byrne combine to provide the intine but up environment sought by Schatzberg and Pierce. The former is a high fashion photographer, the latter has managed Ondine, Lincoln Center's Opera Restaurant, Stroller's Theatre Club and the Right Bank, plus stints as maitre d' at P. J. Clarke's and assistant manager at Luchow's.

A dozen long-stemmed beauties from the flower generation never lose the beat as they dance the over-sized drinks to your plywood tables, brightly aglow with paint that has been baked into the wood. Above the deeply sunken dance floor, 140 people can watch the action or make their own from long, pillow-draped banquettes that completely encircle the main area on several levels. Stereo-presented records of infinite variety and constantly-changing moods spell the live music, programmed perceptively from a corner of the main room by Terry Noel, who also operates the intricate lighting system.

On a still higher level, another 75 people can chat easily at a bar or tables. They are separated from the main area by panels of two-way mirrors which give them a panoramic view of the other room without being seen themselves.

Salvation is open every night from 8 P.M. until 4 A.M. A $4.00 minimum prevails. Dress runs the gamut from expensive chic to wild costumes.

New Recording Studio Opens In Santa Ana

SANTA ANA, CALIF.—A new professional recording studio has just been opened here in Santa Ana. Clel Skidmore, president of United Audio Corporation, 1519 South Grand Avenue, Santa Ana, said the firm will cater to artists wishing to record, producers, musical publishers and advertising agencies for commercials.

Designed by Hal Halvorsen, Hollywood studio consultant, United Audio features the latest in solid state electronic recording equipment. New Ampex 4-track recorders are featured, and there are 21 channels of input from the studio to a custom-built control board. The studio can accommodate up to 35 musicians during a recording session.

George J. Fernandez is chief recording engineer. He has worked with recording studios in Hollywood for the past ten years.

Skidmore said that there are many musicians available for studio back-up work if required by artists wishing to record.

ESP Acts On Film

NEW YORK—A film series featuring artists with the ESP-Disk Record label is now under way according to Chester Fox.

Three 16-mm. shorts are already completed featuring the Fugs, the Godz and Giuseppe Verdi. The films run 13, 6 and 8 minutes respectively.

Incorporating what Fox terms "a total concept," the clips are made at live appearances with shots of the group and audiences attending their shows at the Bags End in Pittsburgh and Mixed Media in Detroit.

Negotiations are now in progress to do filming at the Cafe Wha in New York's Greenwich Village and other clubs.

Colleges and clubs are being contacted for showings of the movies now in distribution.

Bell To Distrib Sunburst

HOLLYWOOD—The Atterack Corp. and Bell Records of New York have signed an agreement whereby Bell will be the exclusive U.S. distributor for Sunburst Records. Sunburst is a division of Grammy, Inc., in which Atterack owns the controlling stock. Sunburst will immediately terminate all its previous distribution agreements.

Green Grass Productions is in the process of creating new product to be released on Sunburst under the new agreement. Scheduled Greengrass releases include "Can't Help But Love You," by the Standells and "Big City," by the E Types, a new San Francisco group.

Sunburst also plans to acquire new product through outside master purchase arrangements with independent producers. The label recently acquired a new pop rock group, the Emporium of Sound, from record producer Boris Vannoff and arranger Jack Walker. Meetings have been held with Bill Lowery of Lowery Music and other indie producers in a quest for production tie-ups.

Sunbursts' first disk to be distributed by Bell will be "The Pleasure Of Your Company," the debut single by Stark Naked and the Car Thieves. The single was written by Ed Cobb and recorded in Nashville. It will be released next week. Second release will be "She Was Mine," by the Emporium of Sound.

Duotone Gives Annual Awards

MIAMI—The Duotone Company of Miami, Florida, one of the largest U.S. producers of phonograph needles and accessories, presented its annual best sales and best effort awards at a luncheon during the recent Chicago Electronics Parts Show.

Stephen Nester, Duotone's President presented the Best Sales of 1966-67 Award to winners, Michael Ross and Art Szerlip, Duotone's California-Nevada representatives.

The Best Effort of 1966-67 winners are members of Paul Haden & Associates, Duotone's representatives for Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, North and South Carolina.

Gear Adds To Roster

NEW YORK—Gear Artists Management has signed Eric Burdon and the Animals, the Jimmy Hendrix Experience, Allen Price, and the Soft Machine for exclusive representation in the United States. International management of these artists is handled by the Yameta Company, with whom Gear made an agreement for the signing.

Gear Artists was originally formed by Gene Simmons and Ken Deverich to handle the Music Machine.

Also handled by Gear are Dyke and the Blazers, Eternity's Children, and Robert Baker, a new "psychedelic" comic.

Secunda Finds Harum Swamped By Fan Clubs

NEW YORK—Tony Secunda, new manager of the international hit group, Procol Harum, has discovered that there are five independent Procol Harum fan clubs, each operating from a different British city, and each with members from throughout Great Britain. Some of the more zealous fans are members of all five.

While Secunda's office sorts out their affairs, Procol Harum plan to spend the next few weeks polishing their act in preparation for a series of concerts and appearances in France during August, to be followed by British radio, TV, and concert appearances.

ABC Takes On Riverside

labels, reporting directly to Howard Stark, vice president of the ABC Records Division.

Although the albums will be repackaged, the Riverside name will be retained because in Newton's opinion, "Riverside is a major name in the record world, and is a tremendous asset to the ABC organization."

The Riverside label was founded in 1954 and solidly established itself as an important factor in the world of recorded jazz. The company has been operated for the past several years by Orpheum Productions, Inc.

Stellar jazz names in the Riverside catalog include Thelonius Monk, Wild Bill Davison, Bill Evans, Coleman Hawkins, Wes Montgomery, and Charlie Byrd, as well as other names in the jazz field.

SMILING TRIO—Imperial's Johnny Rivers (center), currently riding high with his "Tracks Of My Tears" and "Rewind" LP's, triumphantly returned to the Whiskey A Go-Go (where it all began) in LA last week. A large crowd, that included key Liberty execs and celebs, was on hand to help him kick off the limited engagement. In this photo, Liberty proxy Al Bennett stands at the left while Bud Dain, the firm's sales promotion head, stands at the right. Soul City's 5th Dimension, a Rivers discovery, is sharing the spotlight at the A Go-Go.

Steinberg, executive vice president of Mercury Record Corp.

The agreement will make available for duplicating and distribution for cassettes over 1,300 albums now in the combined catalogs of United Artists, Solid State, Veep and Ascot labels.

Opening Wider

Rheingold Park Fest Makes Date Changes

NEW YORK—Rescheduling of the rained-out opener and an added show for the quickly sold out Blues Project concert have slightly altered the dating and show time line-up of the Rheingold Central Park Music Festival in New York.

Originally slated to open the series, the program starring Louis Armstrong and Flip Wilson was postponed because of rain and has been reset for 6 p.m. Aug. 15. Rainchecks were issued at the show and will be honored.

Additional alteration in the Festival lineup was called for when the Aug. 9 concert of the Blues Project was quickly sold out. Instead of the single show, the 8 o'clock performance will be augmented by a 10:30 date. John Lee Hooker is included on the bill for that night.

As it stands now, the following bookings are ready for presentation in the coming weeks: Arthur Prysock and Richard "Groove" Holmes on Aug. 7 (8 p.m.); two shows with the Blues Project and John Lee Hooker on Aug. 9; Theodore Bikel and the Pennywhistlers in two shows on the 11th; a double showing on the 12th by the Ramsey Lewis Trio and Morgana King; Dionne Warwick headlines the two show Aug. 14 program; Louis Armstrong and Flip Wilson are rescheduled to 6 on the 15th; Jerry Butler and Maxine Brown share the bill at 8 on the 16th; Carlos Montoya is the sole star of Aug. 18 at 8 p.m.; and Lou Rawls double-dates on the 19th with Flip Wilson.

All concerts in the series are produced by Ron Delsener and underwritten by the Rheingold Breweries. Tickets for the 5,500 seats at Wollman Memorial Rink in Central Park all sell for $1.00.

stereo:

The consumer is the one who will make the final decision regarding the move to an all or practically all stereo market. If the industry forces the consumer's decision by exposing only stereo product, then they unfortunately will have not considered all of the ramifications of their move. The major ramification would be a backup of mono product, at all levels of the distribution chain. This is where the marketing knowledge of the industry must come into play, so as to allow for a "phase out" rather than a "knock out" of mono.

Jolley Signing

Gil Friesen, vice president and general manager of A&M Records, has signed Pete Jolley to a long-term contract with A&M. Jolley is a jazz pianist, formerly with Columbia Records. Herb Alpert (right) will produce all of Jolley's (left) recording sessions.

Columbia Confab

...tive year of 1967/68? A Commitment to Sound Leadership demands your best participation as a member of a high-speed, highly skilled, highly motivated team." He continued: "Reality continually demands fresh commitments and new approaches. This year's Convention format is a reflection of those needs. This year, each individual will have an opportunity to share actively in this convention." Farr also noted that the convention-to-convention sales year was the best in the company's history, and the label would attempt to increase its share of market even further.

He summed up his talk by stating, "We are aiming for an increasing share of the market; we are aiming at increasing our efficiency; we are aiming at more dollars for the company and more dollars for you; we are aiming at a continuation of leadership; we are pledging Columbia/A Commitment to Sound Leadership."

Seminar Contact

In an effort to bring the Convention delegates into close, two-way contact with Columbia's staff personnel, a series of seminars was held with the hope that the meetings would increase each participant's knowledge, skill and enthusiasm for selling, promoting, merchandising and advertising Columbia product.

The Masterwork Audio Products presentation included new 4- and 8-track stereo tape cartridge playback equipment and a comprehensive new four-color accessory catalog for salesmen.

Among the special highlights of the convention was a guest appearance by Bill Gavin. Based in San Francisco, Gavin operates a programming service for radio stations. (See separate story.) Gavin was special guest speaker for a singles presentation directed by Tom Noonan.

A highpoint of the four-day conclave was the announcement on Thursday of winners in the competitive Sales Aces incentive contest. Prizes included all-expense-paid trips to the Caribbean and valuable prize points which may be used in selecting a wide array of handsome merchandise.

Among the social activities during the Convention was a Thursday dinner and show featuring many of Columbia's artists. On Friday, an international cocktail party and reception was hosted by Harvey Schein, vice president and general manager of CBS international.

On Saturday, the gala awards banquet was held, and a number of special presentations were made. Following these award presentations, the delegates were again entertained by a blockbusting line-up of Columbia artists.

Among the Columbia stars who visited or performed at the Convention were John Barry, Anita Bryant, The Buckingham, The Chambers Brothers, Ray Conniff, The Cryan' Shames, Phyllis Diller, Hines, Hines and Dad, Peaches and Herb, Ray Price, Paul Revere and The Raiders, Marty Robbins, O. C. Smith and Smokey and His Sister & The Tropics.

Dick Sherman, national sales manager, revealed that the product will ship to distributors on July 28. An extensive allocation of twelve inch divider cards for retail use is being made as well as will be made with seven inch divider cards; the latter in conjunction with the firm's new "Back-to-Back" singles hits program. The new "Back-to-Back" label couples only those key blockbusters by the company's best selling artists. For example, Nancy Sinatra's recording of "Boots" has been re-coupled with "Love Eyes;" Dean Martin's recording of "I Will" has been re-coupled with "Houston;" and Pet Clark's "Color My World" with "Round Every Corner."

New albums included in the release are: Peter, Paul & Mary—"Album 1700"; The Tokens—"It's A Happening World"; The Beau Brummels—"Triangle"; Petula Clark—"These Are My Songs"; Antonio C. Jobim—"A Certain Mr. Jobim"; San Sebastian Strings—"The Earth"; Chad Mitchell—"Love, A Feeling Of"; Anita Kerr Singers—"Bert Kaempfert Turns Us On!"; Everly Bros.—"Everly Bros. Sing"; Bill Cosby—"Silver Throat"; the motion picture soundtrack, "The Bobo".

Reprise will be releasing two new Christmas albums later this year—"The Sinatra Christmas Album" and "The Don Ho Christmas Album".

Additionally, Warner's revealed rather extensive plans for the release of the motion picture sound track album, "Camelot", scheduled to be issued October 1 in conjunction with the release of the film on October 26. A rather ambitious and expansive sales and merchandising program for "Camelot" was unveiled for distributors.

Present at each of the meetings were J. K. (Mike) Maitland, president; Mo Ostin, vice president and general manager of Reprise; Joe Smith, vice president and general manager of Warner Bros.; Joel Friedman, vice president and director of merchandising; Dick Sherman, national sales manager; Marvin Deane, national promotion manager; Ed West, vice president and treasurer; George Lee, vice president and director of eastern operations; Phil Rose, international director; Don Schmitzerle, publicity and public relations manager; Stan Cornyn, editorial director; Ed Thrasher, art director; Jules Seder, credit manager; Ted Ponseti, western district sales manager and Marty Hirsch, mid-western district sales manager.

REACH OUT—Four Tops—Motown 660
The top of the charts is the place for this powerhouse album by the Four Tops. Set features the group's smash hits "Reach Out I'll Be There," "7-Rooms Of Gloom" and "Standing In The Shadows Of Love," in addition to numerous other groovy songs such as "Last Train To Clarksville" and "Wonderful Baby". Stock as much as you can get of this one.

GROOVIN'—Young Rascals—Atlantic (SD) 8148
Titled after their recent #1 single, the Young Rascals' new album is a sure bet to make a quick climb up the charts. In addition to the title track, the set includes "A Girl Like You," "How Can I Be Sure," "I Don't Love You Anymore" and seven others. The group really goes all out on this one. Should be a monster.

LET'S LIVE FOR TODAY—Grassroots—Dunhill D/DS 5020
Taking the title of their smash hit single, "Let's Live For Today," for their new album, the Grassroots have put together a dozen potent pop tunes, each one of which could stand on its own. Besides the title track, the set includes such selections as "Wake Up, Wake Up," "Out Of Touch," and "Where Were You When I Needed You." The package has unlimited potential and should have no trouble securing a high position on the charts.

LIVE IN EUROPE—Otis Redding—Volt (S) 416
A dynamic, soul-filled effort from beginning to end, Otis Redding's latest album should haul in heaps of coin for him. The package includes Redding's big hits, "Respect," "I've Been Loving You Too Long," and "Satisfaction," as well as seven other striking numbers, among them "Can't Turn You Loose" and "Day Tripper". Should be a chart spot on tap for this one.

WITH A LOT O' SOUL—Temptations—Gordy 922
Watch out for the Temptations to conquer the charts with this forceful, soul-filled set. A top-notch example of the Motown sound, the package includes "(I Know) I'm Losing You," "Ain't No Sun Since You've Been Gone," "Just One Last Look," "Now That You've Won Me" and many others. Should develop into a much sought-after item.

MR. MEL—Mel Tillis—Kapp KL 1535/KS 3535

As prolific with the tonsils as he is with the pen, Mel Tillis displays a handful of his own wares here, interspersing them with sturdy ones from a variety of other composers. Leading off with his current self-penned charter, "Goodbye Wheeling," Mel also does credit to such long-standing tunes as "Honky Tonkin" and "Tom Dooley" in this performance. An excellent LP.

SIX OF ONE, HALF A DOZEN OF THE OTHER—Del Reeves—United Artists UAL 3595/6595

COUNTRY ROUNDUP

Now that New York City has got itself a country nightclub, via Nashville at the New Yorker, isn't it about time that some plans were drawn up to get this city a new country television package? Or should we perhaps just conclude that, since several such shows have been tried in the past and have proven to have a lack of staying power, we should just tuck our tails between our legs and forget about the television media here?

Before we decide to take the latter course of action let's remember that this is one of the largest (if not the largest) market in the nation, and there is nothing, we repeat—nothing, that cannot be sold in this city, if handled properly. And that certainly applies to country music as well!

One C&W video segment that did quite well for a while in this market was the "Jimmy Dean Show," which was eventually taken off the air. In questioning approximately a dozen different people as to the reason why the show was finally scrapped by the network, we've received almost as many different answers, ranging anywhere from "political reasons" to "over-extended budgets" and "no audience response." Although we doubt very strongly the lack of audience appeal as a reason, we cannot completely rule out the possibility. We can, however, strongly suggest—or even urge—that some enterprising person or persons investigate this area and explore the possibilities of adapting a new TV package for this market. And as soon as is feasible. We've stated before that country music needs strong support and exposure if it's going to succeed in New York. To date we have two radio stations (WJRZ and WTUE) beaming toward the city and one country nightclub, which is still in its infant stages—but nothing in the way of TV exposure (with the exception of guest shots by country acts on several pop variety shows). And TV exposure is a must if this market is to be sold.

But to run blindly into a TV venture could be disastrous. It would be worthwhile, in fact necessary, to delve into the market and find the reasons for the failure of the "Jimmy Dean Show" and its predecessors in New York before even beginning any new venture along those lines.

We feel that country music, properly planned, produced and packaged, is a cinch to sell here. But the key word is "New York." Producers, planners, etc. must not forget that what appeals to Houston audiences, Peoria audiences, or even Chicago audiences, need not necessarily appeal to New Yorkers (and vice versa). If a TV show has to be hip to go over in this market, then hip it should be—why not?—we have enough country acts who can put on a hip show with the best of them. The time has come to regroup our forces and make another stab at the television viewer. If a market has enough potential then it's worth the effort necessary to groom that market for future exploitation. And we here like to feel that New York has enough potential.

Victor's ace of the axe Chet Atkins, who is a magna cum laude graduate of the school of pickin', recently received an invite to pack his bags and head for Cambridge, Mass. to give a lecture before the student body of the Southern Club of Harvard University's Graduate School of Business. If "Mr. Guitar" accepts the bid, he will mosey Northward to air his views on country music in general and, more specifically, the evolution of the guitar. The Harvard Southern Club is an organization of students, professors and friends of the Business School who share a common interest in developing, both economically and socially, several Southern states.

Word from Buddy Lee tells us Lefty Frizzell has just inked an exclusive personal appearance deal with Aud-Lee Attractions. One of the aspects of the pact calls for Frizzell, whenever possible, to hitch up with Ralph Emery and Wilma Lee & Stoney Cooper when they travel with the roadshow of Hank Williams, Jr. & the Cheatin' Hearts.

The Curtis Publishing house has scheduled Sept. as the kick-off date for a new specialized magazine, which has been designed for a promotional tie-in with country radio stations throughout the U.S. The monthly publication, which will be called WXXX Country (using the call letters of participating stations) and will feature news, info and entertainment of general interest to C&W fans. Each specific area will see the magazine sponsored by the country outlet in that area, with such outlets as WPAW-Syracuse, WYZE-Atlanta, KRAK - Fresno, WMMJ - Buffalo, WMIL-Milwaukee, WMIN-Minneapolis, WPNX - Phoenix City, Ala., WHYD-Columbus, Ga. and WMGY-Montgomery, Ala. already signed up. In those markets where there are no country outlets, other franchises for distribution will be set up and the magazine will be called "Country." The publication will be distributed by stations through record shops and newsstands, or can be given away at record hops and other station activities. Five pages of each issue will be controlled by the respective station for local editorial coverage, station promotion, or for advertising sale or tie-ins with station advertisers. Ad space will also be sold by Curtis to national advertisers.

On Aug. 12, scores of radio stations throughout the world will take part in observing Buck Owens Day, as a salute to the No. 1 C&W male vocalist over the past few years. The salute, which has the twin purpose of honoring Buck on his birthday, is the second annual such celebration and has been conceived by Eddie Briggs of Buck Enterprises. Briggs suggests that stations contact him at 403 Chester Ave. in Bakersfield, advising him of their plans to honor the Tiger. Special promotional mailings have gone out to thousands of stations across the country as a reminder concerning the upcoming event.

While on the subject of radio stations, it would be worth mentioning that the frozen north has recently seen the debut of a country music outlet, KYAK - Anchorage, which (Continued on page 62)

Hal Smith Enterprises Buys Boone Label

NASHVILLE—Hal Smith, president of Hal Smith Enterprises as well as the Pamper Music setup, made it known last week that his firm has purchased Boone Records from former owner Bobby Bobo. Smith also stated that Bobo, who brought the label into prominence by producing several hit records, will remain with the firm on a long-term contract in the role of vice president and general manager. In this position, Bobo will continue to supervise the production of records, while Pamper writer Ray Pennington will serve in an A&R function.

Bobo is responsible for producing such Boone hits as "Too Many Tigers," "Bottom Of A Mountain" and "Big Tennessee," all by Tex Williams, while some of the label's other hot properties in recent years include Buddy Starcher's "History Repeats Itself," and the current Kenny Price series, which too date has strung out "Happy Tracks," "Walking On New Grass" and "Pretty Girls, Pretty Clothes, Pretty Sad" as chart items. The latter three were all written by Ray Pennington.

In commenting on the sale, Bobo stated, "It is the greatest thing that ever happened to Boone Records. I am happy to be with the Hal Smith organization and we feel that this will put us in a position to do bigger and better things with Boone. It will allow us to expand into other fields of music and give us a wider scope of operation."

Although the purchase price was not disclosed, it was estimated that it ran well into the six figure bracket.

CMA Holds 3rd Quarterly Meeting

SAN DIEGO—On July 17 and 18, the CMA held its third quarterly meeting of the board of directors in San Diego, with an agenda covering both the projects which the association has already got in the works as well as new proposals for the remainder of the year.

Plans were announced by Roy Horton for the promotion of Country Music Month via such media as trade organs and network television, as well as special promo plans aligned with C&W radio outlets. It was also announced that the CMA would present a salute to the Armed Forces for their support and interests in Country Music Month in the fall.

As part of Country Music Month, the organization will put on a sales presentation for international radio and TV execs in New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel on Oct. 9. The confab will be highlighted by the appearance of a lineup of top country music acts, who will perform for the 600 executives expected to attend.

Bill Denny, who heads up the CMA Awards program, announced plans for the organization's first Awards presentation, scheduled for the annual CMA banquet during the country deejay convention in Oct., and also pointed up the success seen thus far by the Country Hall of Fame and Museum, which has seen more than 25,000 visitors since it officially opened in April.

Other future plans which were discussed include the expansion program, which will see the CMA participating in the upcoming MIDEM conference, as well as laying of the groundwork for the third annual Music City Golf Tourney, which will immediately precede the deejay convention.

Trustees of the Country Music Foundation held their own meetings between the regular CMA board talks, in order to review plans for the Hall of Fame and Museum.

ALL MY LOVE (2:06) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Gibson]
NO DOUBT ABOUT IT (2:17) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Gibson]
DON GIBSON (RCA Victor 9266)

Another goodie from the Don Gibson bag of self-penned tunes, this side, called "All My Love," could well be another winner for the artist. An easy paced, loping tale of perfidy, this one has a pleasant sound that makes it a good programming choice. "No Doubt About It" is a lowdown woe item.

LIKE A FOOL (2:10) [East Star BMI—DeVaney]
EVERYTHING'S A WRECK (Since You're Gone) (2:25)
[Tree BMI—B./D. West]
DOTTIE WEST (RCA Victor 9267)

"Like A Fool" should quickly turn into another coin-catching outing for Dottie West. The songstress puts a lot of feeling into the ditty, which features an alternating upbeat, slow-moving tempo. Flip, "Everything's A Wreck (Since You're Gone)" is a weeping husband-wife-penned moaner.

I DON'T WANNA PLAY HOUSE (2:35)
[Al Gallico BMI—Sherrill, Sutton]
SOAKIN' WET (2:23) [Glad BMI—Chapel]
TAMMY WYNETTE (Epic 10211)

After scoring heaps and heaps of points with "Your Good Girl's Gonna Go Bad," Tammy Wynette should blaze another fiery trail with "I Don't Wanna Play House." Strong lyric content on this goodie makes it an odds-on favorite to capture a lofty chart position. "Soakin' Wet" is a tear-soaked blues offering.

WALKING IN THE SUNSHINE (2:28) [Tree BMI—Miller]
STATLER BROS. (Columbia 44245)

As "Ruthless" falls from the Top 10, the Statler Brothers let loose with the second barrel of the shotgun with what has to be another smash for the Crew. Cute, funny and infectious, "You Can't Have Your Kate And Edith, Too" should zoom. Flip is a revamping of Roger Miller's recent biggie.

ADORABLE WOMEN (1:25) [Suma, Stuckey BMI—Stuckey]
I KNEW HER WHEN (2:30) [Sunny Brook BMI—Fault]
NAT STUCKEY (Paula 276)

Hot on the heels of his recent hit, "All My Tomorrows," Nat Stuckey offers "Adorable Women," a cute, self-penned item that tells of the benefits of joining the girl watcher's society. Looks like another winner for Nat. "I Knew Her When" is a plaintive ballad.

SUNDAY MORNING (2:18)
[Summerhouse, Harmony Hill ASCAP—Trevor, Heard]
VAN TREVOR (Date 1565)

Van Trevor has stirred up a good bit of noise with his past outings on the Band Box label and should do at least as well as a result of his new affiliation with Date. Top side on his Date debut, "You've Been So Good To Me" is a warmhearted romancer that ranks as his best effort yet. "Sunday Moring" is a joyful galloper.

ONE DAY DOWN (2:30) [Harbot SESAC—Johnson]
SHADOWS ON THE WALL (2:48) [Sure-Fire BMI—Johnson]
BOBBY LORD (Decca 32174)

Bobby Lord's latest Decca deck is a winning item that seems to have the makings of big chart action. Side to watch on this one is "One Day Down" a moaning, tear-splattered ode with a lot going for it. Songster backs the lid with another heartbreaker called "Shadows On The Wall."

JOHNNY DOLLAR (Date 1566)
Another Date debut is this Johnny Dollar outing, called "The Wheels Fell Off The Wagon," which also stands a good chance to rack up some Top 50 credits. This light-hearted novelty bouncer may go over well with loads of spinners and buyers. "Watch Me Losing You" is a tale of tears and woe.

THE BATTLE OF THE LITTLE BIG HORN (2:42)
[Plymouth ASCAP-Wilson, Jones, Stillman]

MARY IN THE MORNING (2:50) [Pamco BMI—Cymbal, Lendell]

TOMMY HUNTER (Columbia 44234)

Here's a historical saga by Tommy Hunter that could well turn into another "Battle Of New Orleans" for the songster. The lively, rousing singalong ditty stands an excellent chance to ring the bell. Flip is a rhythmic, swaying version of the recent Al Martino pop smash.

RICKY SEARS (Musicor 1255)

BOB WILLS (Kapp 842)

● NO ONE WILL KNOW (2:29)
[Glad BMI-Rhodes] Could be a lot of coin in store for Ricky Sears outing. Songster does a nice job on a woes-filled tale of lost love. May make it.

● LOOKING OVER MY SHOULDER (2:41) [Cedarwood BMI—Tillis, Peddy] Bob Wills offers an appealing lid, called "Looking Over My Shoulder," on this Kapp session. Weeper may see excellent air action.

(B+) MAKE HIM GO (2:28) [Glad BMI—Montgomery] Flips is a plaintive, haunting ballad.

(B+) I WISH I FELT THIS WAY AT HOME (2:13) Wilderness BMI—Howard Songster tells of illicit romance here.

BILLY ARMSTRONG (Toppa 1113)

HAL WAYNE (Nugget 260)

(B+) HIGH COST OF LEAVING (1:50) [Golden Valley, SESAC—Southern] Slow, poignant sobber.

(B+) HURTING ME IS ONLY HURTING YOU (2:20) [Lonzo & Oscar, BMI—Wilson, Wayne] Tear-stained love effort.

(B) BILLY'S ORANGE BLOSSOM SPECIAL (2:18)
[Mixer, BMI—Armstrong] Swinging arrangement by Armstrong of this off-cut instrumental toe-tapper.

(B) LOOKING FOR SOMEONE (1:52) [Lonzo & Oscar, BMI—Wilson, Wayne] Woes-tinged ditty for the romance-minded.

bowed in on Jul. 15. Programming consultant Bobby Wooten claims that the telephone lines were jammed with congratulatory messages, while a steady stream of visitors wound its way through the station, bearing cakes and other such goodies. Business also is booming, says Wooten, with 10-20 paid ads per hour since the first hour on the air. A 5,000-watt, non-directional outlet, KYAK plays all country music, broken down about 50-50 between albums and singles . . . Jeff Britt tells us that he has just taken over the job of music director with KBUC-San Antonio, the spot recently vacated by Don Rhea. . . . In the same vein, Paul Perry has just returned to WENO-Nashville as program director. Paul, who held that same spot for about 2½ years, shifted over to WMTS-Murfreesboro in Feb. It looks like homesickness has brought him home. . . . Another new modern country outlet, WOLF-Syracuse, has just appeared on the scene with full, 24-hour C&W setup. Lineup at the station includes Jim Sims, Johnny Gardner, Howie Castle, Rick Ryder, Tom Brannon and program director Sonny Ledet, who states he would appreciate mailings and correspondence. . . . Al "Flat Top" Daly, out at WIBM-FM in Addison, Mich. informs us that there is some confusion among record companies as to what records go where in his area. Seems WIBM plays pop music and WIBM-FM plays country, so C&W disks should be sent to Al at 35 Embassy Road in Jackson, Mich. 49220. . . . Eddy Arnold just completed another one of his super-duper appearances, this one a weekend gig in Peoria, Ill. which drew 200,000. From the same area comes word that Eddy's arranger-conductor, Bill Walker, fast becoming one of the hottest in the business, will be flying to the Coast to explore soundtrack possibilities with 20th Century-Fox.

. . . Dottie West & the Heartaches became the first country act to hit the plush Moline, Ill. night spot, the "Wells Fargo Lounge," early in July and played to back-to-back SRO crowds. So successful was the entourage that plans are already in motion for a return bout. . . . Well-known WSM air personality Ralph Emery recently filmed a TV pilot with an aim at going network. The first show features such bright stars as Johnny Cash, June Carter, Sue Thompson, Warner Mack, Junior Samples and the Jordanaires. . . . Word has it that Earl Scruggs will be back on the road with the Flatt & Scruggs Show very shortly. Scruggs, who has been recovering from an operation as a result of an auto accident, returns as the show prepares to invade Washington's Constitution Hall on Aug. 4. . . . The first couple of weeks in Jul. saw record crowds on hand for the Grand Ole Opry, as 22,000 fans visited the Nashville showcase over the first two weekends of the month. . . . Comedienne Fanny Flagg heads for Nashville shortly to promote her new LP, "Rally Round The Flagg," which is starting to drum up healthy activity on C&W outlets. Bob Lockwood, who spins 'em for WJRZ-Hackensack, held the first country "Summer Festival" out at Weissglass Stadium in Staten Island recently, with a healthy crowd on hand to see headliner Dave Dudley, as well as Johnny Dollar, Van Trevor, Smokey Warren, Dottie Mae, Elton Britt, Dick Todd, Sonny Campbell, Bobby James and Tex Barton, among others. So loyal was the crowd that approximately 1,000 hardy fans braved torrential rains so as not to miss a minute of the 6-hour show. In coming weeks Lockwood hopes to be bringing in such old-time favorites as Tex Ritter and Rex Allen to the same stadium.

Argentinian duo Barbara and Dick have enjoyed continuous chart success in their own country over the past twelve months with their RCA recordings of such hits as "Little Man" and their best seller "El Funeral del Labrador." Firmly established in Latin-America and Spanish speaking territories, they are now expanding internationally and have recorded in Italian for release in that country and are cutting a French single "Mon Amour Mon Ami." Barbara and Dick are well known television performers, their most recent shows being "Comienza en Shaw" and "Madart No. 1."

GREAT BRITAIN

Ken Glancy, Managing Director of CBS Records, accompanied by A&R Manager Derek Everett, currently in America for the Columbia Records Convention in Miami. Everett later heads for New York for meetings with CBS International seeking new material for possible release in the U.K. For Everett, who joined CBS a year ago, this will be his first Stateside visit. Press Office Rodney Burbeck is delighted with the success of Scott McKenzie's "San Francisco" which means he can now stop wearing flowers in his hair! For CBS it has been quite a year. They had a Top 5 hit with "Here Comes My Baby" by the Tremeloes who quickly followed with a No. 1 smash "Silence Is Golden." Then Topol did the impossible by reaching chart status with "If I Were A Rich Man" and the "Fiddler On The Roof" London cast album is now firmly established in the L.P. charts. American artist Scott McKenzie has emulated his American success, and British singer Anita Harris makes her debut in the charts with "Just Loving You."

Latest Board of Trade figures show that manufacturers' sales of gramophone records in April, valued at £1,753,800, were slightly higher than in April, 1966. Sales for the home market fell by nearly 15%. At 6,462,000, the total production of records in April was 3% greater than in April, 1966. This was the first time since June, 1966, that output in any month had exceeded that of a year earlier. The figure for the first four months of 1967, however, was still 4% down on production for the same period of 1966.

Gil Friesen, Vice President and General Manager of A & M Records, in London recently for talks with Louis Benjamin, Managing Director of Pye Records, regarding the A & M product which is distributed throughout the U.K. by Pye. The A & M label was launched in Britain on March 31st via Herb Alpert's "Casino Royale" single, since then seven issues have been made including Herb Alpert's latest American hit "The Happening." Friesen told Cash Box that in future releases the schedule would be stepped up and plans were in hand to bring Herb Alpert back to Britain for more concerts. Friesen later left for France, Germany and Italy.

Another visitor to London, Lee Magid, Manager of Della Reese, for talks with Roy Squires of EMI recording the future release schedule of Della Reese issued here on HMV. Whilst in London, Magid discussed plans for bringing Della to Britain for a tour in autumn which will be her first visit in two years.

Paul Rich has been appointed General Professional Manager of Carlin Music in place of Franklyn Boyd who resigned recently to start his own company. Carlin are currently scoring in the British charts with two Tamla Motown records: "The Happening" by the Supremes and "Take Me In Your Arms And Love Me" by Gladys Knight and the Pips. Carlin also have Cilla Black's "What Good Am I" (Parlophone) which, although failed to make the charts, garnered a lot of airplay.

The major movement within the Kassner Music group during the past year has been the formation of President Records which is a completely independent organization although distributed in the U.K. by Selecta. The label has also been launched in America, Canada, France, Germany, Holland, Belgium, Spain and Italy and has had hits with "The Philly Freeze" by Alvin Cash, "It May Be Winter Outside" and "I'm Under the Influence Of Love" by Felice Taylor, as well as currently scoring with "Doggin' Me Around" by Albert Washington. The company was also responsible for the hit by the Casinos' "Then You Can Tell Me Goodbye." As well as representing many American labels from which their successes have emanated, President is seeking and developing home talent. The Equals, as yet unknown in Britain, have just returned from a four-week tour of Germany where they played to capacity every night and are in the charts with "Baby Come Back." Their first album, "Unequaled Equals," is to be issued shortly in Britain, and they have signed a long term agreement to be represented in America on RCA Victor.

Ron Grainer, who penned the highly successful "Robert And Elizabeth" (now touring the provinces after a 2½ year London run), has come up with a new sound. By using 17th century instruments such as positive organ, viola damore, medieval fiddle, clavichord, harpsichord, medieval percussion and hand bells, he has created a brand new 1967 sound on his latest RCA single "All The Kings Men" which is published through his Erle Music Company. Provided it gets enough airplay, it could get off the ground. Because of a legal dispute, it is unlikely that American audiences will see the British musical "Robert And Elizabeth," but Grainer is now working on a new musical based on the life of British music hall star Marie Lloyd which, in collaboration with Caryl Brahms and Ned Sherrin, will go into production early in 1968.

Music for Pleasure is mounting a major promotion for seven weeks during August and September which will be backed by a national consumer competition with a vintage Austin 7 as first prize. The joint Paul Hamlyn/EMI company, which has sold over 6 million records since the label was launched 21 months ago, is taking advantage of the current vogue for music in the Twenties and Thirties style and promotion is to be centered around the label's "Twenties and Thirties" repertoire including nine "new" vintage releases. It is expected that 170,000 records, additional to the normal August figures, will be sold as a result of the campaign. Albums including "The Greatest Music Hall Bill Ever Assembled" with the voices of Florrie Forde and Harry Champion; Ivor Novello's "Glamorous Night And Careless Rapture"; "My Baby Loves To Charleston" as well as albums by Jack Buchanan, Elsie Randolph, Binnie Hale, Evelyn Laye, Sophie Tucker, etc. "The Desert Song"—a smash hit in 1936 and now enjoying a revival—features Gordon Macrae as The Red Shadow—the part he played in the 1953 film version.

Another Geoff Stephens composition for the New Vaudeville Band (who gave them "Winchester Cathedral," "Peek-a-Boo" and "Finchley Central") entitled "Green Street Green" just issued on Fontana and published by Meteor Music. After playing dates in Milan and a brush with an Italian promoter, the group flew to America for another tour of the States culminating in a return visit to The Tropicana, Las Vegas, for a season of cabaret. They will be back in Britain in November. Meantime a lot of air play is lined up for their new release. A new album "Finchley Central" has also been issued.

Indie producer Norman Newell has now taken over the exclusive recording of Frankie Vaughan who joins EMI's Columbia label after 11 years with Philips. Newell has just completed an album with Eddie Fisher.

SOUTH OF THE SAHARA—Horst Jankowski (right) is currently touring South Africa, covering major centers throughout the Republic. The tour has been successful in garnering rave reviews and ovations at each stop. Indications are that Jankowski will return to South Africa early in 1968. He is shown in conversation with T. Rosengarten of Trutone Distributors, Johannesburg.

TOKYO COUNTRY—Nippon Victor released an album, "Hoshi No Komoriuta," by George Hamilton IV, which contains eleven "Steel Rail Blues" compositions and the title song. "Hoshi No Komoriuta" is first Japanese song recorded by a C & W artist in Nashville. Nippon Victor has launched a special promotion for the LP in close tie-up with three C & W night spots in Tokyo, Folk Village, Blue Corner and Country, where there are live C & W shows every night and Tokyo's live-show-hungry fans flock just to share the pleasure. Every night at least one band plays "Hoshi No Komoriuta" at each place. When the show is not going, they play the album. Partly due to a huge photograph hanging on the walls of the three, "Hoshi No Komoriuta" is currently the most requested song and George Hamilton IV the most popular artist. Folk Village plans to have a "Hoshi No Komoriuta" Announcement Show sometime in July.

Wolf On Annual Trek

Directory Correction

Cash Box has been informed that Philips Phonographic Industries, sister company of Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft, is represented in South Africa by Trutone, not Gramophone Record Co., as stated in the current Directory issue.

White Whale Sets Label In Canada

HOLLYWOOD—Ted Feigin and Lee Lasseff, co-owners of White Whale Records, will set up their own label in Canada. Meetings have taken place in Ontario with George Struth, vice-president in charge of production for Quality Records, who will continue to distribute all White Whale products in Canada. ARGENTINA

French group the Swingle Singers, headed by US artist Ward Swingle, have been the visitors of the week in Buenos Aires. The ensemble has been appearing on TV 11 and gave three concerts at the Gran Rex Theater, receiving wide approval from the SRO audience and very good reviews from the critics. There are five LP's by them in this market, being released by Phonogram who distributes the Philips product here. Also visiting Argentina is Brazilian songstress Elsa Soares, considered one of the best female voices of her country, also contracted by Channel 11 for appearances on its evening programs.

Local duet Barbara & Dick seems to be strengthening their career more and more. Their recording of "Mon Amour, Mon Ami," recently released, is already strongly climbing the local charts. The group has also been invited to take part at the "Canzionissima" Italian TV program and will travel next October to Europe to fulfill this proposal.

A report from Odeon's topper Denis Dunn infos that the International Department, handling world-wide EMI repertoire as well as that of foreign licensors, has been reshuffled to give greater flexibility and depth to promotion and plugging. It is also said that Miguel Scaglia will handle the EMI group and Capitol artists, while Juan Enrique Caballero will look after British Decca and U.S. Decca, together with the Fermata label, and Alberto Dupuis will be in charge of Liberty, Deram and a number of up-and-coming labels. Dunn adds that "the new formation not only chooses repertoire but also sees that each disc gets a fair promo treatment. First big push planned by the revamped organization is soul music. There is a great potential market for R&B in Argentina, which has yet to be exploited."

Music Hall toppers Nestor Selasco and Luis Calvo report deep satisfaction regarding the development of the company whose sales volume this year is running about 20% higher than during the last period, in spite of the fact that the whole industry's volume is 10 to 20% lower. The biggest efforts at the moment are devoted to improve the technical and business operation of the company, to get better efficiency and reduction of costs. Selasco added that these reductions are allowing MH to sell its "Difusion Musical" series at the lowest price on the market (about $1.50) and still make an interesting profit on it.

CBS informs that successful group Los Cinco del Ritmo have signed a contract with this label, and that they are starting to record immediately. The diskery is also promoting the Kessler Sisters, Austrian dancers and singers currently in town, and the ninth album by Tropical music group Cuarteto Imperial who recently received their second golden record for sales of one million records in this country.

Phonogram's A&R topper Santos Lipesker infos that there will be strong promo work for the new Horst Jankowski album due this week as well as for an album by the Four Seasons: "Golden Hits." The diskery is recording a new LP by folk group Los Fronterizos, which will be ready in October, and the second volume of the "Tango History" recorded by Astor Piazzolla and his group.

Fermata Publishers inform that they are promoting "Tomorrow, Mañana" which has already been waxed by the Popsingers for CBS. There is also a Brazilian song, "El Billetito," cut by local artist Thelmo, while "Oro y Gris," one of the songs included in the "14 With The Tango" LP, has been instrumentally recorded by Mariano Mores for Odeon. The pubbery is now pushing an instrumental version of the "14 With The Tango" LP with all the songs being recorded by Alberto Di Paulo and a 33-piece orchestra.

Producciones Fermata reports the release of an album recorded by the Mysterians for Cameo in the States, as well as a Pascale Danel long play originally recorded by AZ in France, and the second volume of the Sandpipers, produced by A & M, also in the U.S.

Microfon reports the signing of a contract with Tropical music group Sonora Kalingo and the release of the first album by Yeyo El Gaitero playing Colombian-styled "cumbias." Tango artist Nestor Fabian continues his appearances on Channel 13, where he is starring the "Hotel Carrousel" program, along with songstress Violeta Rivas and other well-known artists.

BRAZIL

A very important decision of the Ordem dos Musicos do Brasil (Musicians' Union) is bringing great confusion and apprehension in the midst of all the up-to-now professionals of local teen music. For the past two years, the Union has been giving provisory permits for singers and instrumentalists to work professionally. Hence forth, those permits will be given only to those who are members in the Union and, for that, each individual has to undergo an examination. This has great repercussion in the millieu, especially in the now called MPB (Musica Jovem Brasileira), since a great many of its chanters and instrumentalists cannot read music and play only by ear but were nevertheless succeeding with much better contracts for public and TV appearances than registered members of the Union which cause the discord.

Discos CBS Do Brasil is conducting a special promotion to launch new romantic chanter Moacyr Toledo who cut his bow single for the company with two versions of top international hits: "Non Pensare A Me" and "A Man And A Woman." Also in the same promotion is the new disk by chantress Thelma. Her new "double" includes numbers by Caetano Veloso, Torquato Neto and Gilberto Gil. She is currently preparing an album for release in the States.

The internationally famous Kessler Sisters are in São Paulo where their show is being recorded in video-tape for one of the local TV Channels. They are known here through the Italian TV Show "Studio Uno" which has been presented here by TV-TUPY, Channel 4 of São Paulo.

Preparations for the "Second International Festival of Rio de Janeiro" in October are very much in evidence. Augusto Marzagão, Director of the Fest, is travelling through Europe and United States, arranging contacts. The following international artists have already agreed to participate: from Austria the famous chanter-composer Udo Jurgens; French representatives are Alain Barriere, Lucien Morisse, Francis Lai, Pierre Barouh, Anouk Aimee, Paul Misraki and Bruno Coquatrix; from Belgium, Jacques Brel and Jean Valle; while the U.S. crew includes Nelson Riddle, Quincy Jones, and Alfred Newman; Zoi Kurukli, from Greece; Marcelo De Martino, Mina and Paolo Tani, from Italy; vocal group from Portugal Duo Ouro Negro; Gerard Gray, from Switzerland; and finally Kenneth Koury, from Jamaica. Over three hundred entries are already inscribed for the national part of the contest from such popular names as Vinicius De Moraes, Catulo De Paulo, Luis Antonio and Carolina Cardoso De Menezes.

Director of Fabrica De Discos Rozenblit, Bernardo Sondermann informs us of new personnel additions to the organization in the São Paulo offices: sale manager Abraão Kosminski is being assisted by Marcos Nobili. In the promo department, head man Arcy Angrisani has collaborators Jose Mauro Pires and Amaury Mazonca. Special promotion is being concentrated on international names such as the Happenings, the Supremes, Petula Clark and the Four Tops, whose disks recently released are safely and surely heading for the charts. In the meantime, baby-voiced, chantress-composer Martinha (AU) is seeing her single with strong number "Eu Te Amo Mesmo Assim" going up in the local charts.

Discos Chantecler, famous for the promotion of the Brazilian folk music, has several disks of this type rhythm being released: third album by brothers Praião & Prainha, another by Zénilton, and still another titled "Está Na Cara" by popular twosome Flôr Da Serra & Pinheirã. One foreign release of the Fuentes label brings Chico Cervantes & Su Conjunto interpreting new popular rhythm "La Cumbia" in an LP with title "Mueve La Cintura."

From the Companhia Brasileira De Discos we receive news of another group of youngsters—Os Primitivos (Polydor)—who specialize in bringing to the yeh yeh yeh style some of the traditional Brazilian folklore numbers. Johnny Hallyday cut for Philips a "double-compact" with numbers in the new dancing rhythm "soul." Chanter-composer Edu Lobo is preparing his new album (Philips), while his recently released single is having lots of airplay; "Cordão Da Saideira" (a "frevo" which he composed in Paris) b/w "Catarina & Mariana", with lyrics by Ruy Guerra and arrangements by Maestro Gaya and Dori Caymmi.

RCA Victor has good chances to see several of the recently released disks appearing in the charts, especially the new albums of the Monkees, the Mama's & the Papa's and Johnny Rivers. Also good chances for "Guitar Freakout" cut by the Ventures.

ARGENTINA (Continued)

Disc Jockey is releasing the fifth volume of the successful "Top Hits" series which features maestro Lucio Milena and his group rendering instrumental versions of the best-selling lists in this country (incidentally, Milena uses Cash Box'!). There is also a new single by French chanter Monty singing in Spanish, and the second album by Bingo Reyna, who has been appearing lately on Channel 11 in the "Telemúsica" spot. There is also a new single by Ricardo Rey who has returned to the studios after eighteen months of absence: "Bebo."

Famous is preparing the release of the first "FP 4" Italian recordings: two singles recorded by Angela ("Surf Service") and Stanley Moore ("Casino Royale"). The diskery is promoting the version of Brazilian chanter Wilson Simonal of current chart rider "La Plaza" and expects good results soon.

TV emcee and producer Raul Matas is preparing in Buenos Aires a weekly feature for a TV program aired by Channel 13 of Santiago de Chile. Matas shoots 10 to 12-minute films featuring local artist like Marfil, Julia Elena Davalos, Ginette Acevedo, Los Tucu Tucu and others, which are afterwards included in a Sunday show prepared by local talent in Chile. Matas directs program "Telemúsica" in Buenos Aires and is also disk jockey of "Discomania," transmitted daily by Radio Splendid and a net of stations through the country.

FRANCE

France is well on the way of developing a singles market. CBS has been doing excellently the past few months with its Gemini collection. Four weeks ago, Deram (Decca Distributing) released via a 45-rpm single Procol Harum's "A Whiter Shade Of Pale." Success was fantastic and immediate. Pathe Marconi (followed by Philips and Barclay) then launched single releases. Philips presents their singles as a new label: Parade. Price, as decided by SNICOP (Phonographic Industry Syndicate) is 6,50 Francs as compared to the 10,00 Francs tag for EPs. Until recently, only American and English recordings were available as singles.

Philips—after a difficult winter period—reports an increase of 9½% through June, 1967, as compared to the comparable period through June, 1966.

The 1966-67 season has been extremely successful for the publishing companies S.E.M.I.-Meridian-Southern France. Much of this success is attributed to the discovery just one year ago of Michel Polnareff for whom Meridian is publisher and record producer. (Polnareff's records are distributed through Disc AZ.) In the past 14 months, more than 1,600,000 copies of his records have been sold throughout the world. Polnareff is considered by many here as the most qualified French composer to conquer foreign markets. Michel enjoys the enviable position of having reached the No. 1 spot on the French charts three times this year with "La Poupee qui fait non," "Love Me, Please Love Me" and "L'Amour avec toi."

In addition to Polnareff's contribution, artists who also recorded outstanding titles of the S.E.M.I.-Meridian-Southern catalog were:

Petula Clark: ("Hello Mr. Brown"), Noelle Cordier ("Il doit faire beau là bas"), Claude François ("Winchester Cathedral"), Donovan ("Sunshine Superman"), Line & Willy ("Pourquoi Pas Nous"), Sheila ("Bang Bang"), Les Parisiennes ("Le 30 Février").

Excellent trumpet player Jean Claude Naude recently left Maxim Saury's Dixieland Jazz Band to form his own big orchestra. His first album has just been released through the Tele-record label. This young company also presents a new female singer, Maria Gilis, a good author and singer named Jacques Touray and several orchestra recordings. Tele-Record is distributed by Festival.

Among the latest releases are excellent covers of Adamo's "Inch Allah" and Gilbert Becaud's "L'Important C'Est La Rose" by Portuguese songstress Amalia Rodriguez. (Amalia is cut by Columbia.) Through Philips, young artist Michèle Torr recorded a new treatment of the Platters' twelve year old hit "Only You." Excellent start through Philips of the last Serge Gainsbourg EP with "Comic Strip." From the Gemini collection we can find Washington Smith's "Fat Cat."

CANADA

Last week was Jack Jones Week in Montreal. The Kapp artist was in town for an appearance at Expo '67. Hal Ross was in Expoville to make sure that a series of radio and TV promotions centered around the singer all came off smoothly. Later in the week he was joined by Phonodisc topper, Don McKim, and two top execs from Kapp's N.Y. H.Q., Ted Shapiro and Gene Armand. Much air play for all Jack Jones product, resulting in even more sales action for one of the label's biggest guns.

Wally Sokulsky at Laurel in Winnipeg has a hot side breaking in his area. It's the outing by Vancouver's Tom Northcott, "Sunny Goodge Street." It's happening on the "Peg" pop outlet, CKRC. Wally sends word that Micky Brown, one time CHUM, CKY type, back in Winnipeg after a stint with Radio Caroline in Britain.

One of the prettiest songs of the year is finally out in Canada on United Artists. "It's Such A Pretty World Today" by Mark Dinning has been getting a large slice of air play on many of the pop formatted stations in Canada, particularly in adult-oriented periods. It could be a real left field item.

Mark down Duane Charles (Dodgson) on the personality lineup of Regina's CKCK. He exits Montreal's CFOX for a night time spin'em session on the western outlet. Reports have Russ Simpson exiting CJOE, London, for a key spot on the big boss of the border, CKLW, Windsor-Detroit. Russ Campbell has exited Edmonton's CHED as the Canadian deejay fraternity is heading for a "move now and avoid the fall rush" situation. The fact that a BBM rating was conducted recently across the Country, with results due towards the end of August, may also have a bearing on the moves in the turntable game.

Yvan Dufresne reports that French Canada's perennial top tenner, Donald Lautrec, will be representing Canada in two International music festivals. He will be appearing at the Poland International Song Festival late in August. He will also sing at the Rio Song Festival in October. In the interim, the popular star will record in France for the Barclay label and move on to England where he will cut four sides in English for release there on Decca. His Jupiter outing in Canada at the moment, "T'as Ou'a Dire Yeah," is in Quebec's top ten.

Al Mair reports that Compo will have the new rock subsid of Project 3 in Canada, Sock-O Records. Debut outing will be Kenny Preston's "It Isn't So." Bill Cosby's newest LP puts the great comic into a very different bag. He'll be wailing R&B songs in the new LP.

Bobby Vee up for a C.B. chat while playing two open-air dates at the Canadian Lakehead Exhibition. He couldn't have been happier about the debut of his latest Liberty single on C.B.'s Top 100, same day he came in, at 74 with a bullet. It's a confirmed hit at the Lakehead, even before the artist was announced as star of the C.L.E. Grandstand Show. C&W star Del Reeves followed him into the Grandstand headliner spot. "Come Back When You Grow Up" appears to be a monster for the London branches right across Canada. Smash ballad will put Bobby back on the high rungs of the chart ladder. He'll head for the coast in short order to cut the album of the same title as the current hit.

There'll shortly be a gas of an album out on B.T. Puppy through Compo, reports Al Mair. It'll be titled "Back To Back" and feature the major chart breakthroughs of the label's two red hot groups, the Tokens and the Happenings. Compo will also distribute in Canada the Jimmy Hendrix outing, "Purple Haze" and "Wind Cries Mary." It'll be on Reprise in this country. The Lords of London have a national break-out on their Apex debut, "Cornflakes And Ice Cream." The side is a big seller in the Ottawa-Montreal area as the group is currently doing club dates in that vicinity. Kingston is going on it, and Al Mair calls it to come home a big seller in no time at all. Rest of the Country should go on it soon. The Challenge line will now appear in Canada under their own logo through Compo. First such release is the Mickey Dolenz disk, "Huff Puff."

New Program Director at Vancouver's pop-oriented CFUN is Ed Farey. He takes over from Red Robinson who remains as a deejay at the west-coast pop topper.

Andy Kim is the composer of one of the new items on the Steed Label by the Rich Kids. "I've Got To Find Me A Woman" is the side Andy has a stake in. He's with the Jeff Barry team of writers in New York. Flip side of the debut disk by the new group is getting much attention from deejays, particularly those spinners caught up in the flower-power business. Andy is making it big with the flip sides, 'cause he also wrote the flip on the new Bobby Goldsboro outing on U.A.

Ron Legge has high hopes for Arc debut of Doug Crosley. It appears the handsome vet chanter will score heavily with an updating of "It's Almost Tomorrow." The Sugar Shoppe, currently tearing the nation's charts apart with "Canada," will follow it up with release to be entitled, "Think About It Now." New hit-bound-sound on the way out for the Stich In Tyme on Yorkville. It'll be "New Dawn." Good group has been conspicuous by their absence from the country's playlists, and newie should put them back in the chart game in nothing flat.

Sparton continues to expand. New man in the Maritimes for the firm is Robert Tower. He'll work out of New Brunswick and cover all of the Maritimes right through to Newfoundland for the label. Wholesale Appliances, Sparton distrib on the west coast, has stationed a man in Calgary full time. He's Richard Watt. Joe Parisilli has a big hit side on the Toronto scene of late. It's "Bring It Down Front" by the Jon & Lee Group. Joe says this one is set for a world wide chart ride. It's good R&B sounds, released through ABC Paramount, but the artists are Canadians. Both Toronto pop broadcasters are on it in a very big way. New Sparton, Toronto address is 858 Millwood Road, Toronto 17. Joe says its right in the middle of town.

Two very big records on Bang lately have been getting a large chunk of air exposure all over the country. One, "I Thank The Lord For The Night Time" by Neil Diamond, is a sure top ten outing; strong enough to nail down several key number one spots in Canada. The second release, "Brown Eyed Girl," has been a long time coming in, but Van Morrison has a national hit with the side in Canada. Another very large-type hit is the Paula outing by John Fred and the Playboy Band, "Agnes English." Side has won battles almost everywhere on the air, and strong sales, especially in the midwest, will put this one on the national best seller lists for Phonodisc.

August 5th. will be Gordon Lightfoot Day in the artist's home town, Orillia, Ontario. He'll do two concerts on that date with proceeds going to charity. Wednesday, July 26th., saw young Gordon do a live concert at Toronto's City Hall. Many thousands were there to hear him sing, and a national radio network carried the concert coast to coast. Gordon is off on a Centennial tour of concerts all the way to Newfoundland, about the middle of August.

AUSTRALIA

Australian recording star Normie Rowe, who returned home recently following a lengthy stay in London, has just completed a riotously successful national concert tour which produced some truly remarkable scenes from his thousands of fans who were determined to give Normie a solid "welcome home" treat.

EMI's local producer David McKay has been on something of a recording spree during which he cut a whole flock of sides by some of the leading local stars under contract to EMI. Assisting him on the session, David had the services of arranger/conductor Johnny Hawker and sound engineer Roger Savage at Bill Armstrong's Studios in Melbourne.

There is a wild English-produced television series running in this country at the moment called "Till Death Us Do Part". It stars a character by name of Alf Garnett which is portrayed by Warren Mitchell. CBS are cashing in on the tremendous popularity of the show with the release of a single featuring Alf Garnett with "The Writing On The Wall" c/w "Her Heart's In The Right Place, Innit." Should sell a bundle.

Chappell & Co., Ltd., have issued the sheet copies on "You Wanted Someone To Play With, I Wanted Someone To Love" (Frankie Laine); "The Olive Tree", (Judith Durham); "If I Were A Rich Man" from "Fiddler On The Roof"; and "If I Ruled The World" from Pickwick.

Mr. A.W.T. (Bill) Smith, head of Australian Record Company (the CBS, Warner Bros., etc., outlet in this country) is now overseas for conferences with the top brass of the labels they represent. In his absence, ARC are having a great run in the field of singles with "San Francisco" by Scott McKenzie, "Don't Blame The Children" by Sammy Davis, "Silence Is Golden" by the Tremeloes, and "Jackson" by Lee Hazlewood and Nancy Sinatra.

Festival records have made a rush-release of the soundtrack package from the film "Thoroughly Modern Millie." Festival are supporting the release with an extensive promotion campaign. The same company also has three singles featuring songs from the show: Pete Fountain with "Thoroughly Modern Millie" c/w "Jimmy"; Julie Andrews with "Thoroughly Modern Millie" c/w "Jimmy"; and Carol Channing with "Jazz Baby" and "Do It Again."

EMI recently chartered a plane to lift 50 retailers of the Betta Stores Group in Queensland for a three-day visit to the EMI plant and recording studios. They were shown all aspects of the production and marketing of EMI products and were given a special lecture on records by Cec Barlow, Manager of the EMI Record Division.

Kevin Ritchie, head of the promotion division of EMI, has a national promo effort planned for "Beatles' Week" which is to commence on July 31st. During the campaign the new album, "Sgt. Peppers Lonely Hearts Club Band," will be issued and will be covered by dealer displays and nation-wide T.V. and radio contests centered on the album.

Advance mail bookings are now open for the big show featuring Ray Charles and the Raeletts which is set to kick-off around the middle of August. The show is being presented in conjunction by Aztec Services Pty Ltd, Stadiums Pty. Ltd, and Pan Pacific Promotions.

New release for RCA's local girl Gita Rivera features the star with "Just Once More" and "The Streets Are Not Deserted." With this issue RCA are continuing their huge promotion campaign on Gita.

CBS recording stars, the Groop, were the outright winners in the Hoadley's/3UZ National "Battle Of The Sounds" which was finalized recently. The win means a return trip to England for each member of the Groop with some definite bookings while they are in England and a host of other prizes. This annual "Battle" which is organized by radio station 3UZ, in association with some fifty odd other station participating, has become a very important event in the local pop music calendar, and there is no doubt that it attracts the cream of the groups throughout the nation.

New locally-recorded singles from the Festival camp feature Running Jumping Standing Still (on the Sunshine label) with "Little Girl" and "She's So Good To Me"; the Wild Cherries (Festival) come through with "Krome Plated Yabby" c/w "Everything I Do Is Wrong"; and on A.T.A., we find the Joy Boys with "San Juan" c/w "Opus."

Local artist Johnny Devlin, who recently returned to Australia after a heck of a long stay in England, has his latest single out on CBS: "Hurting" and "You Gotta Tell ME."

Leeds Music execs are wearing big smiles these days as a result of their big batch of hot items including "I Wanna Be Free" by the Monkees; "Thoroughly Modern Millie"; "Don't Sleep In The Subway" from Petula Clark; "All You Need Is Love" from the Beatles; and "My Aim Is To Please You," the highly-touted local record by the Executives which, we understand, has been picked up by United Artists for global release.

FESTIVAL LIBERTY MARCH—Here is a view of Festival's Liberty march on Sidney radio outlets to draw attention to the Liberty label now released through Festival Records in Australia and New Zealand. The advertising and public relations staff marched the outlets (in this case 2-UE) with slogans, samples, and spy make-up.

SCANDINAVIA

DENMARK

EMI just rushed out the new Beatles single including "All You Need Is Love." Other releases this week include Cliff Richard with "I'll Come Runnin'," Peter & Gordon with "The Jokers," as well as 18 new LP albums. EMI also took advantage of the Andrews Sisters, now in the Copenhagen Tivoli, with a special promotion campaign for the LP album "The Andrews Sisters In Hi-Fi" on Regal.

New sheet music from Wilhelm Hansen, Musik-Forlag includes "The Naughty Boy" by Ole Schmidt from a local movie, "Lige før forår," music by Jørgen Plaetner with lyrics by Benny Andersen. All revenue from the sale of the latter goes to the Denmark-helps-Israel foundation. Other sheet music from the same publisher includes the Swedish tune "Gungorna och Karusellen" with Danish lyrics ("Gyngerne og Karrusellen") by Ulrich Ravnbøl. Francis, Day & Hunter Scandinavia A/S is out with "24 Sycamore" by Les Reed and Barry Mason, and "Tabatha Twitchit" by the same composer-writer.

FINLAND

Coming on very strong here are Turtles on London with "Happy Together," Hep Stars on Olga with "Malaika," Who with "Pictures Of Lily" and Jimi Hendrix Experience with "Purple Haze," the latter two on Polydor, reports Osmo Ruuskanen of Finnlevy Oy.

Recent releases from Scandia Musiikki Oy include five new local singles. Ringa ja Kaksoset has done "I'm Going Out," here titled "Kun Lähden Pois" b.w. a local tune. The other singles include local tunes recorded by Annette Tuominen, Hannele Koivisto, Kari Kuuva and Humppa-Veikot.

NORWAY

Jørg-Fr. Ellertsen A/S has recorded the Swedish bestseller "Jag Tror På Sommaren" with Linn Arnold both in Norwegian and Swedish. Davy Dean is out with "Rhine Stones" and "Hello Walls." Both records are the Troll label.

Lillian Harriet has done the Swedish tune "Som Om Sommaren" on a new Triola single.

Recent releases from Norsk Phonogram A/S include Morgans on Philips with "Trouble And Tea," Manfred Mann on Fontana with "Sweet Pea," Searchers on Pye with "Western Union," as well as four new LP albums. Same company also released 13 new low-price LPs on the Wing label.

GERMANY

The 9th annual Knokke, Belgium, pop festival for the best European new talents has ended with the expected win for the strong English team led by Gerry Marsden and Rog Whittaker who ran away with the $2,000 first prize. The festival also had its first scandal as the jury was charged with unfair decisions and above all, decisions that greatly differed from one another. The teams lodging protest were the German and the Holland teams. The results were that the Holland Jury left the festival without voting and the Italian jury results were thrown out. The English team picked by Brian Epstein (who came to the festival for a few days) ran away with the festival with France winning second place, Belgium the third place and Germany finished fourth.

The results of the festival were good in another sense. Songstress Suzanne Doucet received 3 TV offers from England and France and was nominated for the single prize of the Press. Brigitt Petry received two foreign TV offers, and Rainer Mey, a folk song specialist, received a contract from a French record company.

Stefan Von Baranski, the official German team leader, had to go begging for the money needed for the German team. According to Mr. Von Baranski, the approximately $2,000 needed for expenses were not covered by the German record industry. The record industry refused to contribute for expenses to their artists. Other countries were strongly covered by expenses, press and radio-TV, but the Germans basically ignored the festival. This festival which has produced world stars such as Georgie Fame and Engelbert Humperdinck should be taken much more seriously as this is the only festival of its kind producing new talent and judging the talent instead of the songs. The German record industry (which screams for new faces and talent accepted on an international scale) should pay more attention to the chances that it has to produce such talent.

Germany's greatest TV export "The Golden Shot"—which is being shown in Switzerland and produced in England, Japan, Mexico and the U.S.A.—is looking for a new M.C. here in Germany. Holland showmaster Lou Van Burg has departed from the show. Replacement by countryman Rudy Carrell was set, but Rudy has since declined to do the show and now the hunt is on for the man who will be doing the most popular Quiz-Music program on German TV. The show was the first to showcase such international stars as Al Martino, Nancy Wilson and many others.

Nelson Riddle is in Stuttgart for recordings with the orchestra of the South German Radio Station there. Pianist for the orchestra, Horst Jankowski, was able to draw the top arranger to Germany, and the orchestra hopes that this will be the first of many situations where talents such as Nelson Riddle will come to Germany for recording.

Electrola reports that Adamo is set for winter appearances in Germany and will do concerts in December in Berlin, Hamburg, Stuttgart, Munich, Hannover and Dusseldorf.

On the administrative side of the picture, Kurt Wenzel, former head of the special projects department of Electrola, has taken over as head of public relations and marketing for the firm. His main jobs will be advertising, press, artist promotion and marketing research.

Miller International has moved into their new quarters in Quickborn close to Hamburg. The administrative offices and pressing plant are now going full swing. The new address is 2085 Quickborn (bei Hamburg), Germany, Justus von Liebig Ring 2-4, Telephone 04106/2885-9.

HOLLAND

Negram-Delta singer Andy Star had lots of success on the Knokke Song Festival. One of the songs he did on the festival was "Playgirl" which is just released as a single in Holland. Andy's record will also be released in Belgium. In Germany, Andy's discs will be released through the Hansa label.

Two weeks ago two new Kinks releases were launched on the Dutch market. An LP, called "The Kinks Live At The Kelvin Hall," and a single by Dave Davies, named "The Death Of A Clown." Advance sales of both records were overwhelming and promise quite a lot for the future. The Kinks are one of the most popular groups in Holland and are still riding high in the charts with "Mr. Pleasant" and "Waterloo Sunset."

Marjan Nobel is a great new discovery. This lark has just released her first record for the Delta label: "My Mother." Marjan is a twenty year old girl from Gorinchem and made her debut on stage, May 15. In June she was discovered by an independant producer. In July her first single with two own compositions could already be obtained in all Dutch shops. An LP is scheduled for release in September.

"The World We Knew (Over And Over)" is the title of the brand new Reprise single by Frank Sinatra. The record is to be rush-released this week. Negram is certain the song will be another strong Sinatra seller. Daughter Nancy is also doing quite well these days with "Jackson."

Because of the tremendous impact of "Del Capo" on the Dutch market, Negram-Delta also released the first LP by the American group Love. All Elektra LP's, as well as most bounty recordings, are hot material in this country.

Exclusive Basart author, Roddy Wahr made his first recording on the Delta label which has been acquired by MGM for U.S. release. Basart recording artist John "King Size" Russell will have his portrait done by the world famous Dutch painter Karel Appel, who works in Paris. The painting is planned to be reproduced on the sleeve of Russell's next album.

The new single of Jim Reeves, "The Storm," has just been released by Inelco Holland N.V. and has a real good chance to reach the Dutch Top Twenty. At the Knokke eFestival, Conny Vink had a great success. She made a new record, "Jij Bestaat" and sang this song, just as "Bossanova Boy" at the Knokke Festival. The audience was very enthusiastic. Mr. Pierre Dam, publicity manager of Inelco, and Mr. Wim Landman of Universal Songs, gave Conny Vink all the publicity she needed at Knokke which resulted in contracts and foreign performances. Monkees' "Headquarters" has just been released in Holland. The many fans of the Monkees had to wait a long time but now they can buy this fantastic album. "The Sound Of Music" was a great success here. Mr. Wim Brandsteder, director of Inelco Holland, received on his business tour to America a Golden Record for this fantastic album. Jefferson Airplane will be launched in Holland. Their album, "Surrealistic Pillow," and their single, "Somebody To Love," which is certain to be a sensation, have been released.

S. A. POLYGRAM

37, ANDERLECHTSTREET, BRUSSELS 1.

PHILIPS—MERCURY—FONTANA HAVE ALREADY TRUSTED IN POLYGRAM.

Peter Knight, Jr., of Stigwood-Yaskiel International reports that the firm has acquired for Polydor the European rights (excluding U.K.) of the hot master from the Summer Set called "Overnight Changes" and "It's A Dream." Negotiations were made by Mr. Knight and Martin Wyatt of Jamarnie Music Ltd. who owns the master in London. The group will appear in the Top Ten Club in Hamburg for the entire month of August and release is set for the beginning of August for the record.

Beginning in August, 1967, the Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft will issue new releases on its Deutsche Grammophon and Archiv Produktion labels in the U.S.A. only in the stereo version. The sales pattern of the Grammophon label in the U.S.A. in recent years has demonstrated a distinct trend in favor of stereo with the radio being as high as 10 to 1 in some areas. The factors that mainly influenced this decision is that DGG's long standing reputation in America for the high technical standard of its products, best shown through stereo recording, and the list price which has long been the same for stereo and mono ($5.79), whereas the major U.S. companies are only now readjusting their mono prices—previously $1.00 less than stereo, to conform to the stereo price. This step by the DGG and the general single price trend in the U.S.A. indicate that in the near future the mono record, with very few exceptions, will altogether disappear from the market in the U.S.A. too. Through its policy decision, DGG has now assumed the role of pacemaker for the absolute predominance of the Stereo LP in the U.S.A. It was the first record manufacturer to discontinue mono recordings in favor of stereo LP's which are also playable mono, in Germany in 1965, and in Belgium, France, Italy, Sweden and Holland in 1966, a decision which has been universally recognized as correct because of the obvious advantages it offers for manufacturers, dealers and consumers. That's it for this week in Germany.

ITALY

Top Italian singer Bobby Solo (Ricordi) will be in Berlin to take part in a TV color show. Great importance is attached to this show since it is the first color TV program to be transmitted throughout Europe (Eurovision) thus opening the color era in this continent. The choice of Bobby Solo for appearance in this top international event is a confirmation of the popularity that this artist enjoys on the continent.

Other news from Ricordi's Lucio Salvini is that Donovan, top Epic artist, will begin a singing tour in Italy August 5th. Milva, Ricordi's top female star, will be in Cannes to participate in an important French TV program.

As is known, top Italian artist Adriano Celentano (Clan) has always hampered his international career by refusing to perform abroad. Now, according to news from Clan press office, Adriano is dealing with impresarios in the U.S.A., England, France and Germany for personal performances in those countries. Adriano, in our opinion, is one of the few Italian artists most qualified to conquer the international field. He presently heads our best seller list with his "La Coppia Piu Bella Del Mondo." His name also appears on the German charts thanks to his interpretation of "Una Festa Sui Prati," a single released there by Deutsche Vogue.

Big interest cropping up in a new contest called "Oscar Della Canzone" (Song Oscar) which will commence the end of August and which will be conducted via the same formula as the "Cantagiuro." A group of artists will perform nightly in different places getting votes by a special jury. Winner is announced at the end of the contest. Much TV exposure seems to be assured so the contest will have great promotional impact. A special committee composed of top political personalities directly connected with the Ministry of Tourism has been formed, hence one of the reasons for massive intervention of State TV.

Top record firms have announced their participation in the affair. CGD/CBS artists who will take part are Tony Dallara, Vanis Rebetti, and Ferry, Franco, Rene, Danny and Gaby. Bentler Records (Guerrini) has announced their representation with their group the Rogers and Edda Ollari. Phonogram's recent pactee Anna Rita Spinaci will carry their banner. Durium will be present through their group I Balordi (winners of the Naples Festival).

The renewal of musical radio programs here is showing interesting results regarding record promotion. Italian record firms are more and more interested in these programs as the best way of introducing new releases. CGS/CBS is preparing a schedule of their most important releases this season via a program called I Cetra Dovunque (Cetra Everywhere) conducted and presented by top vocal group Cetra Quartet. This weekly program will begin

Another top radio program to which record firms are devoting their attention is Butto 4 (I Stake 4), a series conducted and presented by one of the best known Italian comic actors, Gino Bramieri. CGD and CBS banners are flying here with Thane Russell singing "Adesso E' Tardi," Marisa del Frate with "Perche' Ci Sei Tu," and I Camaleonti with "Non C'E' Niente Di Nuovo." Philips Records is conducting a great sales campaign for the Carnabeats and the Jagurs (who debuted respectively with "Sukisa, Sukisa, Sukisa," (I Love You) and "Kimi-ni Aitai" last month). The groups are currently touring Japan for a big sales push on the above records.

Mr. Izawa, president of Nippon Grammophon, has been in Europe on an investigation tour of the music tape market, forced by the demand for music tapes here. The firm announced its intention to release several open-reel music tapes in Stereo and Mono on Oct. 5. Nippon Columbia held an Audio Concert using Columbia Master tapes at Yamaha Hall in Tokyo, July 15, under the joint auspices of Nihon Gakki Co., Ltd. (Japan Music Instrument Co.) where classic, popular and local songs were introduced.

Philips Records came out with an extraordinary single of "Kezaga Naiteiru/Kimini Ageyo" (The Wind Is Crying/I'll Give It You) on July 15. Composed and written by Kuranosuke Hamaguchi, it was recorded by the Spiders who returned here recently. The tune is of go-go rhythm and is expected to become a smash hit.

Can Vending—A 12-Month Happening

Several weeks back, we editorialized on the sharp upward swing of can soda vending machine sales to music and game operators. Testimonials to the profit potential of the can machine, expressed by operators and distributors involved, point to an overwhelming "happening." Reactions from those tradesmen not involved, however, has been far less than enthusiastic with the majority agreeing that can vendors might be a summer sensation but wonder if they're a "twelve month happening" . . . will they love you in December as they do in June, so to speak.

The basic misconception, and it is a misconception, is that a profitable can soda vendor is wholly contingent upon a thirst which in turn is totally dependent upon an uncomfortably hot climate. Granted, the heat has a decided edge on churning up a thirst but does it stop there? Don't Eskimos ever get thirsty? Naturally they do as does everyone putting in a day's work . . . manual or mental, indoors or out. If you have your coffee break, why not a soft drink break . . . both offer mental relaxation and physical refreshment.

Everyone needs refreshment at various times during the day. It's also apparent that modern man appreciates convenience (how else the rise of the coin-op vending industry itself). Most people appreciate the clean sanitary look of the sealed can. Put it all together and whatdaya got? Thousands of potential can drink locations good the year round.

Outdoor soft drink locations fairly well speak for themselves, especially in the warmer climes. (If you really want to see a can route that'll knock your eye out, next vacation drop down to St. Croix in the Virgin Islands. There are well over 100 operating right on the sidewalk in the Christiansted area alone.) But for now, let's talk "indoors."

Running down the possibilities, offices and factories carry the greatest potential. Go into any large office or office building where the white collar guys spend the day stooped over the books, drawing boards and what have you, and you'll find a ready market. Industrial plants always offer profitable vending locations with workers standing over a hot punch press for eight hours—they get mighty thirsty. Most factory lunchrooms, we realize, probably have vending equipment in operation right now. We also know plenty of smaller plants that still do not.

Another possibility is the Reserve Armory where large concentrations of troopers gather for weekend training sessions. Perfect evidence for this possibility comes from Fort Carson in Colorado Springs where a company of British soldiers from the Gloucester Regiment spent three weeks training with the U.S. Fifth Infantry. Seems the British lads caught onto the 'Coke' habit from the natives and began to pump coins into the can drink vendors in the barrack blocks with such gusto, the service truck was there every day for a refill.

Without belaboring the subject, the essential thought is not to ignore can drink possibilities for fear of a cold weather slump. Look around the town—anything with a roof on it qualifies for a start. Use your operating instinct to refine the possibilities and we're sure you'll find half-a-dozen or more choice spots, here-to-fore neglected by the drink operator but ripe for the picking now with the convenient can machine.

MERCHANDISERS HANDBOOK No. 4

One of the more ambitious merchandising tips we got wind of last week is a personalized version of the principle behind AMI's Play-Me Record program. The idea requires a little time and a nominal expense (which should be shared by the location owner) but offers promotion possibilities that appear virtually endless. Step one is to latch onto a tape recorder, pay a call on each of your better locations and record some message by the owner, the bartender or the chef which would later be transcribed onto a seven-inch disk and programmed into the jukebox. This special "location commercial" could be a suggestion by the bartender to step up for the "latest drink sensation"; by the chef recommending menu specials or by the owner announcing that live entertainment will be available on Wed., Fri. and Sat. nights. A special house title strip would be inserted into the rack corresponding to the disk and played (at the drop of a coin) by an employee in the location whenever a suitable time for broadcast comes up. Transferring tape to a disk costs only a couple of bucks and the service is available in most any town where you'd find a jukebox distributor. The potential, again, is great . . . just use your imagination. The public relations and good will gained for the operator is self-evident. Give it a try and let us know how you make out.

Chi Office Changes Hands

CHICAGO—Lee Brooks, manager of the Chicago office of Cash Box for the past ten years, has announced his resignation, effective last Fri. July 21st. Brooks will shortly disclose his future plans, explaining that it is his desire and intention to continue "a long and happy association with so many friends."
Miss Camille Compasio, who has served under Brooks' direction in editorial and sales work for the past eight years, has assumed full operation of this office.
Brooks has been involved in coin machine and vending on the advertising agency level, as well as directly, for some 20 years. He has been associated with the Jones Frankel Advertising Agency and a partner in the Benson & Brooks Advertising Agency.

NAMA Prog. Ch'mn Named

CHICAGO—Charles R. Farren, the Farren Vending Co., of Tulsa, Okla., has been appointed program chairman of the 1967 NAMA Convention and Trade Show of automatic merchandising, according to James McGuire, president of the national association.
Farren will be in charge of planning four days of workshops and discussions meetings. Featured on the convention program will be: "Data Processing for Vending Companies", "How to Improve Customer Relations", "Analyzing Management Attitudes and Performance for Profit Planning", "The Potential of Convenience Foods", "The Sanitation Training Seminar for Vending Routemen and Supervisors" and "Routemen Incentive Compensation".

Ed Shaffer Puts His Support Behind NCMDA Member Drive

■ Sees Distrib Assn. Vital in Today's Biz

COLUMBUS, OHIO — Ed Shaffer, president of the Shaffer Distributing Co., and this year vice president and director of the National Coin Machine Distributors Assn., has joined with NCMDA president Norman Goldstein in attempting to increase membership and gain a broader power base for the organization headed by Bob Slifer. In a letter sent out to his fellow distributors last week, Shaffer spelled out the value and the need for NCMDA membership, revealing that a united distributor front is more than helpful in today's industry . . . it's a "necessity."

The letter read as follows:

Dear coin machine distributor:
There have been many changes in the coin machine business since the founding of the NCMDA. At the beginning, our members were interested only in games and music and the vending industry was made up of a small number of small manufacturers making candy, cigarette and various types of cold drink machines, all selling direct to the operator.

Today, due to the Johnson Bill and much local legislation, the introduction of the shuffle alleys, bowlers and pool tables and the marketing of vending equipment through distributors, our business has been upgraded considerably in the eyes of the public. There is now a real need for us to improve and expand our distributors' association like every other legitimate business and get 100% co-operation from all coin machine distributors.

The NCMDA has a most capable director in O. L. (Bob) Slifer, a veteran of many years in both the coin machine business and trade association work. We have many good distributors as members and have been able to accomplish a lot of good for the distributor's business over the years. But as our industry grows, it becomes necessary for NCMDA to have the cooperation of all distributors in the coin machine business.

Our business needs your help now in developing better public relations, fighting unfair taxes and legislation and getting new young aggressive people interested in our rapidly growing industry. We seriously solicit the cooperation of all distributors, manufacturers and suppliers interested in the sale of coin-operated equipment.

A membership application was enclosed in each letter.

Seeburg Juke Box Serves Reese Hospital As Training Aid for Cardiac Specialists

NATE FEINSTEIN

CHICAGO—Nate Feinstein, president of World Wide Distributors, advised last week that his service Dept. has added a rather unusual "location" to the "route." It seems that Michael Reese Hospital, located on this city's south side, received a Seeburg AY-160 phonograph, from New York Hospital on the east coast, programmed to be a training aid for the hospital's cardiac specialists.

Feinstein said all of the phonograph's 160 "records" are actually transcriptions of the sounds of various heart disturbances and will be used to acquaint the hospital's staff with the knowledge necessary for accurate and rapid diagnosis of patients complaints.

Mrs. Rice, a member of Reese Hospital's medical Dept. in Baumgarten Pavilion (where the Seeburg machine is located) said the title strips correspond to specific sounds of the various cardiac ailments. Samples of the strips are: "Opening Snap of Mitral Stenosis", "Aortic Valvular Disease" and "Pericardial Friction Rub".

"The clear quality and the sound reproduction coming from this machine is first rate," Mrs. Rice declared. "We're most happy to have been able to secure it from New York Hospital and also to have the assistance of World Wide's service people looking after it," she added.

The AY-160 was originally purchased from the Atlantic New York Corp., Seeburg's New York distributor. It was Atlantic which answered the request from New York Hospital for shipping the machine out to Michael Reese's Baumgarten Pavilion.

Vend Mach Pdt'n Hits High in '66 Says Census Dept.

CHICAGO—Vending machine manufacturers shipped a record $216,518,000 worth of equipment in 1966, an increase of 11 per cent from shipments of $195,843,000 in 1965, the National Automatic Merchandising Association announced last week.

For the first time, the value of machines shipped actually passed the $200 million mark. Although the 1965 total originally was announced at $200,313,000, the figure later was revised to $195,800,000 by the U.S. Bureau of Census. A total of 634,371 machines was shipped in 1966, compared with 629,067 in 1965.

The annual study is prepared by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, with the cost underwritten by NAMA.

Beverage machine shipments were valued at $141,063,000 in 1966, up 7 per cent from $131,530,000 in 1965.

Production of single-cup fresh brew hot beverage machines increased to 26,857 from 22,517 in 1965 ($23,656,000 to $27,049,000). Since 1963, the number of single-cup fresh brew coffee machines manufactured has steadily increased (18,535 in 1964 and 15,887 in 1963), while the production of the instant, liquid concentrate and batch fresh brew coffee machines has lost ground (9,389 in 1966, 11,571 in 1965, 10,958 in 1964, and 7,774 in 1963).

Canned beverage vender production reached an all-time high of 36,870 units, up from 29,086 in 1965 (12,331 in 1964). Last year nearly 21 times as many can venders were shipped as in 1962 (1,693). Other types of cold beverage venders made slight advances, while the number of bottle vending machines manufactured decreased.

The production of vending machines for confections and foods, worth $48,522,000 in 1966 was up 32 per cent from $36,687,000 in 1965. Candy bar machine shipments in 1966 advanced to 58,321 from 51,669 machines.

Shipments of all other vending machines were valued at $26,933,000 in 1966, compared with $27,626,000 in 1965. However the number of machines in that category increased to 175,359 from 156,546 in 1965.

The Bureau of the Census did not count the number of manufacturers whose shipments totaled less than $100,000, although their production figures are included. Thirty-nine of the companies reporting were above that bracket in 1966, compared with 41 in 1965.

Represented in the Bureau of the Census report are both domestic and export shipments of new vending ma-

Fla. Law Permits Game Prize Awards

TALLAHASSEE—Julius Sturm, executive director of the F.A.M.A., announced last week that a bill to legalize the dispensation of prizes to patrons playing certain coin-operated amusement games was signed into law June 19th by Governor Claude Kirk. The bill (HB 1121) was promoted by Daytona Beach arcade operators (headed by Charlie Beyer). Sturm also advised that Leonard Pepper, former FAMA counsel, will still be available to individual members on retainer even though he resigned at the recent Tampa meeting. "Mr. Pepper's business interests keep him busy seven days a week," Sturm declared.

N.Y. Juke School Ends

NEW YORK — Ben Chicofsky, MONY's general manager, said the Manpower Development & Training Program school for developing jukebox mechanics has been discontinued due to lack of operator interest in hiring the graduates. Details next week.

More Grads From Moran

DENVER—The Institute of Coin Operations graduated another class of jukebox and games mechanics last week, according to "headmaster" Jack Moran. Operating companies wishing to sign on a competent mechanic should call Jack immediately at (303) 244-7965.

Wm's Manual Passes 5,000 Print Mark

CHICAGO — Bill DeSelm, general sales manager of Williams Electronics, Inc., revealed last week that an additional print order has been placed for Pete Sagan's 'An Introduction to Coin Operated Amusement Machines' in answer to continuing demands for the technical "how to" manual by the nation's operators.

Over 5,000 copies of the mechanic primer have already been distributed.

Sagan, a technical expert on games now in Williams' engineering department, advised that additions to the manual will be made available for each new Williams and United game produced by the firm from now on.

Over six months' effort has gone into the preparation of 'Introduction', but according to its author, "the popularity and demand for the book has made it all very much worthwhile."

SAL SPARACINO — The Accent Is On 'Service'

Sal Sparacino, the very capable technical expert who heads up the repair department of the Rowe Corporation (the Rowe Corporation, a New York based cigarette vending company is not to be confused with the Rowe Manufacturing Company of Whippany, New Jersey, they are two separate companies) was selected for top billing in this week's Cash Box Profile Series on virtue of his long experience with cigarette vending and his in-depth knowledge about trends, growth and expansion of the business over the past forty odd years.

Sal has been associated with the Rowe Corporation for thirty-seven years, and during that span has seen cigarette vending move from a thirteen-cent vend in 1930 to the present vend prices. Sparacino's technical and repair knowledge is put to good use in Rowe's service repair shop where, at one time or another, Sal has serviced or advised on the repair of every single unit used on the Rowe cigarette routes. Sal occasionally answers inquiries from operators and offers technical advice to them.

Sal and his wife, Stella, are the proud grandparents of their only son's children, a ten year old girl, and a boy aged eight. Sal is, what we call a pioneer in the coinbiz, and we're mighty proud to have him in our ranks.

Sal, what is your function with the Rowe Corporation?

I'm in charge of Rowe's repair department which consists of seventeen servicemen and seventeen trucks. There's a lot of action in this department and we manage to keep pretty busy.

How long have you been associated with Rowe?

July 1st of this year it was thirty-seven years. I was here when cigarette machines were unheard of. When I answered the advertisement, I had no idea what the job was and no idea of what I was getting into . . . but, here I am, thirty-seven years later.

What territorial boundaries does the Rowe Corporation encompass?

Our territory reaches up to Westchester County, the entire Manhattan, Brooklyn and Queens areas, and part of Suffolk County bordered by Smithtown on the North and Bay Shore on the South.

Is the Rowe Corporation affiliated with Automatic Canteen or the Rowe Manufacturing Company?

No, we're entirely separate from those companies.

Can you tell us the number of locations the Rowe Corporation operates?

There are over two thousand locations on the Rowe circuit.

Are you involved with route location sales?

No, not directly, that phase of the business is taken care of by members of the sales staff. However, I do give assistance to location owners when they call about a service problem. Many times, if it's a minor problem, they can fix it right there. If not, we send a serviceman to take care of the failure.

What type of location seems to be the most lucrative in respect to profits?

Naturally, it's the places that are open the longest . . . the all night taverns and restaurants.

What brands of cigarettes are the most popular on the routes?

This would be very difficult to determine because a certain brand might be popular at one location and be a dog at another spot.

I can give you an example of a recent survey we made with the 100 mm brands. We placed twenty-five machines, vending Benson Hedges and Pall Mall 100 mm packs, along our routes. We gave no mention to the customers that the machine contained the 100 mm sizes, the only way they had of knowing was by looking at the brands offered or by noticing them on pure chance. The result was: Benson Hedges and Pall Mall 100 mm brands accounted for six percent (6%) of total sales for those twenty-five machines, based on two (2) months figures.

Is the so called demand of the 100 mm trend a proven fact or do you think it might be a publicized myth? How do you see it?

From the machines' results, I have to say that there is definitely a demand for the longer cigarette. The 100 mm trend is a fast moving one and how long it will last . . . I cannot say.

Have you made the 100 mm conversion on most of your machines yet?

No, this a lengthy process and takes time. We make the conversion as the machines are brought in to be serviced. To make the change-over on location would be a great deal of trouble not only to us but also to the locations. It takes approximately two hours, although I've heard that some servicemen can do it in an hour and a half.

How long will it take to make the conversion to 100 mm, 100% complete?

Somewhere around two years. How much does a 100 mm conversion kit cost?

For the Rowe Riviera and the 2700 hundred series, the kit costs $45.00.

SAL SPARACINO

What is the biggest problem confronting the servicemen today?

The multiplicity of brands . . . servicemen today have to carry twenty brands of cigarettes and believe me . . . it's not as easy as it was in the old days.

Are most of your machines on a 50 cent vend?

Only the filters vend for 50¢. Regular and king-size still vend for 45¢.

Do you see the day when the 55¢ vend will become a reality?

Yes, at the present time we have three machines at the Waldorf Astoria and two at the New York Hilton vending for 55¢. I talked with the manager of the Hilton recently and he says they are being received well.

How would you compare cigarette vending today to what it was ten years ago?

That's simple enough, the one word, mechanical. Ten years ago, you had the manual machines, they were relatively simple to repair and service. Today we have the electric models, an intricate electrical system that sometimes goes on the blink . . . you must be a better informed serviceman today. Know how to use the proper tools and even more important, know the machine that you use those tools on. Yes, in the old days, it was easy . . . today . . . it's a little bit tougher.

Are all of your machines electric? About eighty percent, the rest are manual.

Sal, do you remember the very first cigarette machine you became familiar with?

Sure, it was the old Rowe 90 model. They called it the "ninety" because that's how many packs it held. The matches were glued right on the pack, they vended for a nickel and a dime and you got your change, two pennies, right in the cigarette pack. That was a long time ago . . . back in 1930 . . . times change, don't they?

Jukebox Charlie

NEW YORK—Little Darlin' Records, a New York based Country and Western record company, has released an album by Johnny Paycheck entitled "Jukebox Charlie."

According to Aubrey Mayhew, president of the company, the art work for the album cover was obtained from Buchen Advertising Agency, who handles the Rowe Manufacturing Company of Whippany, New Jersey, account. The art was taken from one of Rowe's ads.

Mayhew said, "We plan to use six of the tunes from the long playing album and cut a little LP for operators in their programming."

Some of the tunes on the new album of Paycheck's are: "Motel Time Again," "Touch My Heart," "Big Brother" and a cross section of recent hits and newer material. Watch for the little LP, it should be a big one.

Epic Records Give Ops Cameron Singles

NEW YORK—Epic Records has released an introductory package of two (2) singles from singer Robert Cameron's first Epic album, title strips are included in the package.

MOA Continues Its Push For Local Assn.'s

CHICAGO—The MOA head office in Chicago, continues to accept questions from the trade concerning the status of the jukebox royalty legislation. The bill is presently in the Senate Judiciary Committee and is expected to be acted upon either late in 1967 or early 1968. Fred Granger, executive vice president stated, "there has been no change from what has already been reported however, should there be a change, we would be in touch with the trade immediately."

Meanwhile, the MOA continues their drive toward establishing new state and local associations in those areas where there are none. Granger and President, Jim Tolisano traveled to New Orleans to appear before a meeting of operators from that state and from the state of Louisiana last week to get better acquainted with the coin people in the area.

Tolisano was also on the move out west where he attended the summer meeting of the Montana Coin Machine Operators and reports that he is extremely impressed with the Montana association and it was obvious that the Montana people are strong MOA supporters. Jim stopped in on Jack Moran and his Institute of Coin Operations in Denver, Colorado and offered favorable comments about Moran's fine training school.

August will be a busy month for both Tolisano and Granger. On August 1st., they will attend a meeting of the Missouri Coin Machine Council, to be staged at the Hilton Inn in Kansas City. Then on August 22nd., Granger will journey out to the Buckeye state for a meeting of the Northwest Ohio Music Operators Association in Sandusky, Ohio.

As in the past, Cash Box will continue to give maximum coverage to these association meetings and express upon the trade the importance of your participation.

An Apple A Day Keep The G.I.'s Healthy

WENATCHEE, WASH.—Automated refreshment, Washington State style, has come to soldiers stationed at Ft. Lewis, Washington, with the installation of Washington apple vending machines.

Of the fifty projected installations throughout the facility, 12 are in use now. When completely installed, it is estimated that 20-25 boxes of crisp Washington State apples will be dispensed each month per machine.

Installed by Stephen Balough of United Milk Service, Seattle, Washington, the "Apple Box" Vending Machine is manufactured by The Apple Box, Inc., in Walla Walla, Washington.

Alfred McVay, President of the firm, said recently: "This is the first military installation of an apple-vending machine in the country. If it works out here, the Government Exchange Service in this area may recommend use at other Armed Forces facilities in the United States."

"Of course, we are experiencing 'growing pains' with this new project," McVay said. "And, there is lots of strong competition for the soldier's money in other types of vended products. We are confident, however, this new type of refreshment will sell well."

With the limited number of machines in operation at the present time, reports already show that sales are brisk, and the servicemen are welcoming this bright, new taste treat.

ABC Votes Dividend

NEW YORK—The board of directors of ABC Consolidated, during a recent meeting, voted a regular dividend of .20¢ a share, payable August 25, to stockholders of record August 10.

This marks the 71st consecutive dividend payment for ABC.

Canteen Announces Earnings

CHICAGO—Canteen Corporation recently reported sales and operating income for the first three quarters ending June 10th., of $233,565,000, a 7.1% rise over the $218,001,000 recorded a year ago. Net earnings amounted to $6,569,000, or .95¢ per share.

New Electric Dolly From Harlan Engr.

LOS ANGELES—A new mechanical dolly that will carry loads of 1500 pounds, up or down flights of stairs has been announced by the Harlan Engineering Co., Los Angeles.

The new device called "Powr-Krawlr", is now available after a two-year period of testing by the factory and major firms under actual field conditions. All of the test users purchased additional machines.

Powr-Krawlr is powered by any 110 V circuit and is provided with a remote control switch for forward or reverse operation as standard equipment.

The device is used for moving heavy office equipment, appliances, furniture, pianos, machinery, air conditioning equipment and safes; it can also be used by brickmasons to lift cement mix or bricks by remote control. Recent tests demonstrate the unusual strength of the machine with a 1500 lb. draw-bar pull.

Powr-Krawlr is now available for demonstration through the New Haven Moving Equipment Co. of Los Angeles, Dallas, and East Haven Conn., or write Harlan Engr. Co., 15731 Paramount Blvd, Paramount, Calif. for nearest dealer.

THE TROUBLE SPREADS — Sitting in the New York editorial offices of Cash Box, you have occasion to talk to many tradesmen across the country via the phone each week. Was a rather strange sensation to talk to Jack Gallagher up at Miller-Newmark's Grand Rapids office last Tuesday and hear him describe the riot that was gathering its momentum right outside his front window. Miller-Newmark's Detroit office was hit pretty hard, says Jack. The looters went so far as to carry the locked safe right out the front door. It goes without saying that any operator or distributor headquartered in any potential trouble spot do whatever he can now to safeguard the store and get as much cash and account info as possible to a safe place every night. If at all possible, operators in potentially vulnerable locations can at least make sure to make their collections as often as possible, just in case a heavy hit should come. It also goes without saying that whatever any of us can do in dealing with location customers and anyone we contact, down to the kids in the street, to help avert any possible trouble in our individual areas, is vital!

VACATION TIME—Bob Bear, A.D. Palmer and the rest of Wurlitzer's executive staff, joined the factory force for a three week vacation. The plant's shut down till Aug. 15th. . . . Old buddy Sol Lipkin at American Shuffleboard off last week for Jersey shore vacation. We suppose Marge Lipkin got more than her fair share of fishing. . . . Fred Pollak, former marketing veep at Rowe AMI, enjoying first vacation in nearly three years out at his beautiful home in Mountainside, N.J. will announce future plans by September. . . . Bert, Miz Betti and the kids off to the Cape for their vacation. Progress on new summer house in the Mass. resort coming along super-fine, says the Eastern Novelty exec.

ASSOCIATION DOINGS — Next scheduled dinner meeting for Mike Mulqueen's New York State Ops Guild will be held at Hotel Washington, Newburgh, N.Y. on Aug. 16th. Meet gets underway at 7:30 P.M. . . . MONY's Ben Chicofsky hard at work on the Sept. Convention Journal. In addition to helping George Holtzman push on reservations for the Laurels outing, Ben says it's still business as usual at the association office on 57th St. and reminds operators he's available to advise on any legal problems they might be having. Ben's gal-Friday Sophie Selinger spent the previous week vacationing. Missed her friendly voice on the phone. . . . Shaffer Distributing chief Ed Shaffer made a strong plea for a broader power base for the NCMDA by calling for increased membership. Ed's letter to the nation's distributors can be found on the front news page.

HERE AND THERE—Bob Taran, president of Jupiter Sales of America, mighty pleased to have Arnold Taksen of D & L Coin Machine of Harrisburg, Pa. in the distrib fold. Likewise proud that Joe DiSalvo of the 7-11 Dist. Co. will handle the line in Ohio. Another recent appointment was Bernie Garcia's Service Center Co. in Columbia, S.C. for that state. "Bernie, Joe and Arnold are sure to help immeasurably in pushing our Jupiter program along," says Taran, "and we'll be well established by show time this October." . . . Lou Wolberg down at Runyon's Tenth Ave. office says it's apparent that the trend to 100mm cig vending signal's the way of the future. "All machines will eventually roll off the assembly line with the longer column size," he forecasts. . . . Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Sarah Sherman on the passing of her husband Woolf. Woolf Sherman, a veteran of many, many years in the business, passed away Sat. July 22nd in Columbus, Ohio. Woolf, although in semi-retirement of late, was associated with his brother Sam in the long standing Central Ohio Coin Machine Exchange, located in Columbus. . . . Bob Nims and Bob Rooney will be hosting an association "freebee" in New Orleans July 29th at the Fontainebleau Motor Hotel during the Louisiana confab. Those illustrious MOA exec's Jim Tolisano and Fred Granger will address the assemblage. . . . Vendo says it's got a 16 minute, 80 slide color sales presentation available to operators as an aid toward gaining location sales. There's a 33rpm LP providing sound for the presentation and it reportedly spells out the benefits of vending in fine style. Talk to the Vendo rep in your area. . . . Wometco Enterprises, huge Florida based vending operating company, has been diversifying its interests for the past two years or so into everything from TV and movie production to the Miami Seaquarium. Latest step on their part is the expansion of their Blue Circle restaurant chain into South Carolina. They already have 31 Blue Circles "cooking" in Tenn., Virginia and Alabama. What will they think of next? . . . Spoke with Byron Campbell, president of the pool table manufacturing firm located in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Byron says he's about to break with a marketing program directed at the coin table operator, featuring his 'Carnival' line as center of attraction. Big story next week.

WURLITZER PLANT SHUTS DOWN FOR ANNUAL SUMMER VACATION — Clayton Ballard gives us the news that the factory has just closed for three weeks. Clayton tells us that if they just gave individual summer vacations it would probably take them well into the winter. The plant is scheduled to re-open on August 15th. We hear that Gary Sinclair is back in town after his six week stay in Japan. Gary will be with us for about another week before going on the road. We're told that Mr. and Mrs. Copeland of Anchorage, Alaska (wish we were there for the summer) were in shopping for equipment. He is Vice President of Action Vending Company. Naturally they were given the grand tour, which included Disneyland.

CONTINUED EXPORT ORDERS KEEP THINGS HOPPING AT SIMON DISTRIBUTING — George Muroaka informs us that he has been pretty busy with exports going to the Far East and Europe, and he is presently working on a shipment for Australia. We hear that Irving Bied donned an apron last week while his wife was in Palm Springs visiting with her family. Joe Meril spent a most enjoyable weekend down at Newport Beach with some friends.

FROM THE RECORD RACKS—Welcome home Margaret Needleman! We just heard thru the grapevine that Margaret just returned from a whirlwind tour which included such landmarks as Bozeman, Montana, Winnemucca, Nevada, Colville, Washington, Trinidad, Colorado, Alhambra, California, etc. We have to hand it to Margaret, she is a real trooper. While she is in town, she will be waxing (she really puts elbow grease into these chores) for a local label. This may at last be the turning point in Margaret's up and down career (mix about 99% down and 1% up and you come up with a Margaret Needleman). Like we have said before, they just don't make 'em like her anymore. After Margaret finishes cutting (hopefully not herself) she will again embark on another tour. We will do our best to keep you, the public, up to date on what's happening, ya! ya! . . . According to Jerry Barish of California Music, Bobbie Gentry's first single for Capitol, "Ode To Billy Joe" looks like a real big winner. For those who are interested, if you look at the Hollywood column of the Record Ramblings about six weeks ago, you can get a look at Bobbie when she was girl of the week. A new song and a new title for the Supremes. The group is now called Diana Ross and the Supremes, and the deck is entitled "Reflection" on the Motown label. Simon and Garfunkel are giving it to us on the up and up with "Fakin' It" on Columbia. "You're A Very Lovely Woman" by the Merry-Go-Round on A&M is getting some very lovely sales action.

'Round the Route

After reading and hearing of the plight of so many operators in the riot torn cities across the country, we can only hope (and a little prayin' wouldn't hurt) that the government troops and responsible leadership in the various areas can put an end to this violence and pointless destruction before it spreads even further. . . . Pressure of business at the booming Atlas Music showrooms, precluded any trips to Arlington Park race-track this week for busy Eddie Ginsburg. Seems the Rowe-AMI "Music Merchant" and "PhonoVue" audio-visual adaptor is keeping the whole Atlas crew hopping. . . . The death of Herman L. Seiden leaves many a heavy heart at the Bally plant. Mr. Seiden, 60, had been Bally's director of research and engineering for the past 35 years. . . . Eli Ross of Eli Ross Dist. in Miami, was a visitor to the Fischer plant in Tipton, Mo. last week. Eli, wife Sybil and the three children were heading for the Ozarks where they'll be guests of Fischer prexy Ewald Fischer in his luxurious cabin out there. . . . The Midway Mfg. plant will be closed for vacation starting Friday (28), to re-open August 9. However, Marc Wolverton, Hank Ross, Ross Scheer and the office force are very much on the job—and BUSY, we might add—with plans for the new fall line. . . . Good news from Marvel Mfg! Prexy Ted Rubey is back in the office, fully recovered and as chipper as ever! His lengthy convalescence, following successful major surgery last April, really paid off. Welcome home, Ted!

We made a quick call to Gottlieb Mfg., spoke briefly with Judd Weinberg, and found that things are rolling along beautifully. Vacation time is over and everyone's swingin' into action. . . . MOA prexy James Tolisano and executive v.p. Fred Granger departed for New Orleans on Saturday (29), to address the Louisiana and Mississippi operators' conclave at the Fontainebleau Motor Hotel. . . . At World Wide Dist. Frank Gumma and Jules Millman report an increase this past week in vending sales, with emphasis on candy machines as well as Seeburg cold drink and coffee machines. Divisional sales mgr. Art Wood (who just returned from a two-week vacation) took to the road to cover the Illinois and Eastern Iowa trade, while Tom Higdon and John Neville are glued to the phones contacting ops in Chi. . . . Sad note: Our Chicago Cubs dropped to second place last Tuesday (25)—but only temporarily—they'll be back on top by the time you read this (right, Leo???) Bill Perry, of the Frederic R. Kleiman ad agency is a proud pop today (27) on the occasion of daughter Debbie's 16th birthday! . . . Plenty of activity is reported at Chicago Dynamic Industries with Criss Cross Ski-ball and Riviera 6-player puck bowler. Mort Secore and the crew are as busy as ever. . . . We talked with Mort Levinson over at National Coin Machine Exchange and got the good word that there's been practically no slump at all at National during the so-called summer doldrums period. In fact, this has been quite a week for him, especially with the lush Wurlitzer line which, he tells us, is really fantastic!

Harry Schaffner, ICMOA chief and former prexy Lou Casola (the standard bearer at the successful anti-pinball legislative battle down in Springfield) asked us to make mention of all the fine operator and distrib firms who came forth with special assessments to finance the hard-won victory. It is of course our pleasure to list these responsible companies and once again add our congratulations. They are: Fulton Music Co., Canton; A.A.A. Music, Rockford; C.S. Milwaukee Mentions

With the resort season in full swing and the weekend flow of people from Chicago and the surrounding areas into the vast Wisconsin playlands, it looks like this will be quite a banner year for coin machine distributors and operators! . . . Action's been hot and heavy at United, Inc. on the Wurlitzer "Americana" phonograph. We got the word from Russ Townsend. And, speaking of Wurlitzer, firm's Bob Harding and his missus just celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

Congrats! The big date was July 25! . . . Jack Hastings, of Hastings Distributors, took off on a leisurely two week motor trip to the East with his wife and kiddies. He plans to stop off in Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Next week it's route man Pat Gaffney's turn, and the following week Roy Georke takes his annual respite—and so it goes at this time of the year. 'Course, when we asked Sam Hastings about his plans, he calmly said "nothing definite, just a day or two of fishing now and then." By the way, Hastings Dist. recently welcomed a new staffer, mechanic Donald Doeden, who joined the firm last week. . . . It's back to work for Record City's LP buyer Dave Wulfsohn, who just returned from a "scenic" trip to Denver with his family. You're right, Dave, vacations are ALWAYS too short. . . . According to Joel Kleiman of Pioneer Sales & Services, there's been a heavy demand throughout Wisconsin for the Rowe-AMI "PhonoVue" audio visual adaptor with the "Music Merchant" coin-operated phonograph. Sales have been great and he and Sam Cooper are hoping that deliveries from the factory will keep up with the acceptance and demand.
