JOSE FELICIANO: RE-KINDLING AN OLD FLAME

Int'l. Section Begins Pg. 64

Everybody's listening to music by Cordell and Gentry, but it's the first time they've been heard.

Ritchie Cordell and Bo Gentry have written and produced 11 chart records in the past year and a half.

That's their gig.
Writing and producing.
Now Cordell and Gentry have added another dimension to that passion gig.
Performing!
It's the first time!

And for openers they've come up with a single—

"Love Is Here." 4-44635

Written, produced and sung by them, of course.
"Love Is Here" is more than just another
"young sound"; it speaks of originality and authority.
Kind of a theme for the love experience.
Eleven times on the charts in a year
and a half?
Make it 12.
"Love Is Here" is also a hit.

A Big Kahoona Production.

NATRA Postscript

As the NATRA convention in Miami underscored so dramatically, the association of black disk jockeys is not a music business trade group in the traditional sense. It cannot be, for, of necessity, it inherits all the controversy and conflict of the greatest social problem of our time: the role of the black man in the mainstream of American life. It would certainly be a grave injustice to its membership and the black race as a whole if the organization did not reflect and reflect upon the role of the black man in the music industry.

There is no getting away from the fact that NATRA is confronted with controversy and conflict, two elements of social revolution, since, to borrow a phrase from "Death of A Salesman," this all "comes with the territory." There is no escape; there should be no escape.

There should be no quarrel over NATRA's obligation to speak out, to "pick at the conscience" of the business, as we stated in our Aug. 24 editorial, "Soul Searching at NATRA Meet." The point is, however, that NATRA must speak with a strong, responsible voice. If its internal structure lacks cohesiveness—a distressingly apparent weakness shown at the convention—then it fails at commanding the kind of tight ship that can get things going. What's the point of stirring industry attention and action to its goals when NATRA itself is handicapped with administrative disunity? Will the industry continue to support NATRA and attend its conventions if its annual meetings are conducted in an atmosphere of tension and poor organization?

We feel that NATRA must look into itself in order to find itself. We feel it can still capture the imagination and commitment of the industry it serves. This can only be accomplished by greater unity of purpose and effective direction.

The music industry, too, can help revitalize NATRA. Not merely by means of financial support, but through a recognition of NATRA's own need to be associated with the struggle for racial equality. It means that the music industry must accept NATRA's inherent qualities of controversy and conflict—if and when these elements can be conveyed in responsible terms.

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! To the Great New Sound of Today!

King Fund, NATRA Receive 'Soul' Net

NEW YORK—Atlantic's June "Soul Together" show in Madison Square Garden netted $72,971.40. Of that sum, $51,079.98 was given to Coretta King, widow of the late Martin Luther King, Jr., on behalf of the Martin Luther King Memorial Fund and $21,891.48 was given to NATRA, the deejay association. Both presentations were made at the recent NATRA meet in Miami, Fla. "Soul Together" show, featuring top Atlantic acts, grossed $136,881.28, of which $63,909.88 went for various expenses, including rental of the Garden, security, advertisements, etc.

Rascals' Gold Rush: 6 RIAA Disks In Aug.

NEW YORK — August has been a gold-rush for the Rascals. The star Atlantic group came with six RIAA-certified gold disks for singles and albums. Presentation of the awards was made by the label last week (22) at a party held at the St. Regis Hotel in New York.

The two certified million selling Atlantic singles by the Rascals include their current hit, "People Got To Be Free", currently No. 1 in the nation, and their previous No. 1 single smash, "A Beautiful Morning."

The Rascals' albums that earned gold records for sales of over $1,000,000 each include their current best-selling album "Time Peace—The Rascals' Greatest Hits" plus "Groovin'", "Collections", and "The Young Rascals."

Prior to this sextet of gold records, the Rascals last year had won an RIAA certified gold record for their hit single "Groovin'," last year.

FRONT COVER:

Jose Feliciano was discovered four years ago when an RCA A&R man stopped by a small Greenwich Village folk club called Gerde's Folk City to catch another act on the bill. He was so thoroughly entranced with the blind Puerto Rican talent that all thoughts of another artist immediately vanished. Audiences throughout the world have since been entertained by this unusual singer on records and in person. Now, the Feliciano magnetism is sweeping across the country propelling both his RCA single "Light My Fire" and album "Feliciano!" to the top of the best-selling charts.

NATRA Meet: Telling It Like It Was

MIAMI—"Tell it like it is" was the unofficial theme of the 13th annual convention of the National Association of Television and Radio Announcers (formerly the National Association of Radio Announcers) held in Miami this month (14-18). And this is "like it was":

A more complete and well-rounded turnout than the NATRA meet has ever attracted poured into Miami to witness a multitude of good intentions overshadowed by confusion, lack of cohesion and a series of distressing rumors that sent an undercurrent of tension and speculation throbbing throughout the 5-day affair.

As in many conventions, confusion, resulting from what appeared to be poor planning, ranked high on the NATRA agenda. At times, scheduled meetings didn't come off, while, at other times, unscheduled meetings did (with almost no advance warning). Meeting rooms were changed, as were a good many of the meeting times and topics to be discussed.

Cm'w'lth-Seeburg Merger?TM Deal Firmed

NEW YORK—The next major merger involving the music business may be a consolidation of the Seeburg Corp., the jukebox-vending machine company, into Commonwealth United Corp. It's understood that negotiations between the two companies are at a "most serious" stage.

Seeburg is no stranger to the merger game, having recently offered to buy-out Warner Bros.-Seven Arts, among other companies. However, WB/7 and National General Corp., a theatre-chain unit, have already announced intentions to merge (the boards of both companies last approved the merger plan as devised by their executive committees).

Wall Street talk, as reported in the Wall Street Journal, had it that CU would offer to buy all of Seeburg's 2.5 million shares outstanding. CU just recently entered into the music business phase of its diversified operation by purchasing the Koppelman-Rubin complex of music companies. And, as reported in the Cash Box issue of August 17, it has finalized the purchase of Bobby Darin's TM Music (see below).

Both Seeburg's and CU's financial situations have been on the upgrade. CU reported net income of $474,000,

There were times when one wondered if there were, in fact, any business meetings at all, or if perhaps there were just a few scattered get-togethers strewn in among several days of hand-shaking and party-going.

In fairness to NATRA, it should be noted that many of the meetings proved highly interesting and that some of the events flowed extremely smoothly. And there was a lot of good coming out of the convention. However, an air of unease, radiating from the persistent rumors of violence and dissension, cast a dark pall on the convention site, minimizing whatever worthwhile activities were produced by the event.

Possible Rift

One of the more popular topics of conversation among conventioners was once again the possible rift developing between different factions in the NATRA assemblage. Grumblings from a good many disk jockeys led to the speculation that the Southern membership was strongly considering secession from the NATRA union. Such speculation stemmed partly from the complaint that the Southern jockey was not as well paid as his Northern brother, and that NATRA was not using enough of its influence to remedy the situation.

CU Music Formed

The purchase of TM Music also signals the announcement of the formation of Commonwealth United Music, to be run by Charles Koppelman as president and Don Rubin as vp. The TM deal is said to have cost CU an amount well within seven-figures. Ed Burton, head of the company and manager of Darin, is leaving the set-up. However, two professional staffers, Gary Kannon and Eddie Lambert, are staying on. Darin's publishing units includes BMI and ASCAP affiliates, specializing in contemporary copyrights plus kiddie and film music. Deal also involves TM's 50% stake in some overseas firms. CU is also believed to be in negotiating the purchase of a studio in New York, Brooks Arthur's Century Sound. Deal, however, was not finalized at presstime.

Pye Loses Court Round In MGM Bid

LONDON—Despite dismissal of its application for interim injunctions against MGM and EMI, Pye Records will continue to press in the courts for the restoration of its July 18 distribution agreement with MGM.

Justice Fisher in Chambers on Wednesday, Aug. 14, dismissed Pye's claim for a interim injunction against MGM from marketing its disks in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland through any organization other than Pye, and one against EMI from "inducing a breach of or interfering with its contractual relationship with MGM."

However, Pye said that it would continue with its action for breach of contract against MGM and will seek a permanent injunction against MGM and damages. The label conceded that until the trial MGM is "free to distribute and sell its records through EMI."

While Pye acknowledges that its July 18 agreement with MGM was oral, the company contends that a "large percentage" of the contracts over the years were initially implemented under such agreements.

Will Soviets OK Prague 'Beat' Fest

NEW YORK—Will there be a 2nd Czechoslovak Beat Festival in Prague Nov. 2-5 in Prague? The likelihood was thrown in doubt last week as the armies of the Soviet Union and its East German, Polish and Hungarian allies invaded the country in a military answer to the country's recent liberalization moves. The question is whether the establishment of a new "hardline" Government, handpicked by the Soviet Union, would allow such an event to take place.

Since the Soviet Union frowns upon the "howling" music of the west (see last week's Record Rambling column), it may not want to go along with the stated aim of the festival, "to show results achieved in our country in the beat music field."

Ironically, an invitation to attend the festival was received by Cash Box last week. "We want to create a friendly atmosphere for discussions about artistic problems," the letter said," the musical and social background of beat music and its cultural position today and in the future."

Helfer Upped At Dunhill

HOLLYWOOD — Marv Helfer has been elevated to the post of general sales and promotion manager of Dunhill Records, according to Jay Lasker, general manager.

With Dunhill for the past 1½ as national promo director, Helfer has been heavily involved in sales and promotion since he joined the disk business in 1956. Working out of the midwest, he spent five years with Roulette as midwest sales and promo head and the next five years as an indie promo and publicity man.

NATRA Lauds 2 CB Editorials

MIAMI — NATRA has made a special award to Cash Box for two previous editorials published by the magazine, "Newbreed" and "Soul Searching at NATRA Meet." A plaque presented to Cash Box at NATRA's convention states that the award was made "in appreciation" for the two editorials that "signaled the industry to our intention."

one of the general business meetings, Chicago's well-known Lucky Cordell voiced a similar plea to the Southern group. He pointed out that much of the difference between Northern and Southern deejays was a matter of relativity and showed that, while the average Northern jockey may earn a higher income, his cost of living is also a great deal higher.

"I am not saying that you are not underpaid," he stated, "or that you should not strive to be better compensated, and more fairly, compensated. What I am saying is this: 'Don't base your demands on what the deejay in Chicago or New York is earning, (Continued on Page 55)

Capitol Industries '68 Net Down 70% From '67

LOS ANGELES—A 70% drop in net earnings in the fiscal year ended June 30 from fiscal 1967 pro forma earnings has been reported by Capitol Industries. The downturn occurred despite the fact that sales increased to $111.6 million, from $106.9 million in 1967. The 1968 net was $1.4 million, or 34 cents a share, down from $4.6 million, or $1.20 a share, a year earlier.

According to Glenn E. Wallich, president, the earnings decline was the result of several nonrecurring costs, including the changeover from monaural to stereo record production, expenses incurred in relocating certain company facilities from Scranton, Pa., to a computerized center in Thousand Oaks, Calif., and a decline in the price of computerized tapes produced by subsidiaries of Capitol.

Most of the factors precipitating the drop in earnings, said Wallich, had been resolved. He predicted that profit for the fiscal 1969 first quarter will exceed the $847,000 achieved in the similar 1968 period.

Electric & Musical Industries in London said its net in the fiscal year ended June 30 was "maintained" at the 1967 level, despite the decline in earnings of Capitol Industries, the firm's U.S. subsidiary. Fiscal 1968 profit from its U.K. and overseas activities, outside the U.S., were "substantially higher" than in 1967, Electric & Musical added.

The diversified British record and electronic company earned the equivalent of $12.5 million in fiscal 1967, a drop from $13.2 million in 1966.

'You Are What You Eat': 'A New Concept In Film And Disk' Says Peter Yarrow

NEW YORK—"The unusual approach to the use of music on the soundtrack of 'You Are What You Eat' typifies our approach to the movie as a whole—unconventional," said Peter Yarrow (of Peter, Paul and Mary), making his entry into the film field as co-producer of the flick.

At a press conference last week (21), Yarrow and Michael Butler (producer of the Broadway hit, "Hair") laid the groundwork to prepare the public for their first cooperative venture, an off-beat 75 minute psychodocumentary on the explosive youth scene. "It's more than a movie," Yarrow said, "It's part of a radical change taking place in America today—the search for an alternative identity. It has less plot than 'Hair' and is mostly a series of montages." The music, which is in the foreground of 95% of the film, is a radical departure from conventional style. Rather than complementing the action, it provides "a counterpoint similar to the closing scene in 'Dr. Strangelove,' where a love song, 'We'll Meet Again,' is playing as an H-bomb drops through the air."

Right Handers Hurls For Chart Hitters

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records has pacted Detroit Tigers' pitching ace Denny McLain to a recording contract, it was disclosed last week by A&R exec Dave Dexter Jr.

Single and album were cut in Detroit (Aug. 12) with McLain featured at a new Hammond organ, the X-77, which is being introduced to the public this week.

"Lonely Is The Name" is the name of the single. The album will be titled "Denny McLain At The Organ." Both are scheduled to be released on Sept. 15th, about two weeks prior to the start of the world series. McLain, already a 25 game winner, has a chance to beat "Lefty" Grove's 1931 record (31-4). He is skedded to pitch 13 more games.

Session also utilized trumpet, tenor sax, string bass and drums. As a result of the record date Ed Sullivan has booked him to play on his Oct. 7th show and McLain will open in mid-October at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas.

Dexter told Cash Box last week that he had heard about McLain playing organ about two years back. "I telephoned him a month ago and met him down in Anaheim. I'm a baseball nut . . . McLain surprised me. He's a great 205 pound right hander, but he's also an awfully good two handed organist."

soundtrack, which features Tiny Tim, the Electric Flag, Paul Butterfield, Rosko, Hamsa El Din, Yarrow and producer John Simon, who, along with Yarrow, composed the original music for the film. One song, "My Name Is Jack," composed and sung by Simon in the flick, has already seen chart action through a Manfred Mann deck. Also singing in the film, but not on the soundtrack are Harper's Bizarre. The Beatles and Barry McGuire make guest appearances in YAWYE.

Butler stressed that while the film pulls no punches, "it is not exploitative of the subject matter it treats, and we do not expect any censorship problems."

YAWYE is skedded for a New York debut in late September. Yarrow and Butler (and their two firms, Cerberus and Natoma) are handling distribution themselves outside of normal channels.

The flick was produced by Yarrow and Barry Feinstein, with Feinstein personally handling camera work and directorial chores.

Rusty Warren: Jubilee's Secret Seller

NEW YORK—"Rusty Warren is our 'secret seller,'" claims Elliot Blaine, director of album marketing for Jubilee Records, Miss Warren's exclusive disk outlet for the past 10 years. "Because most people in the industry tend to think of comedy albums as having a three to six month sales span (Bill Cosby excepted), after which they're put on the market as cut-outs, they can't conceive of an album which has had a 10 year history of steady sales."

Rusty, who's played almost every major club in the U.S., makes her Broadway debut on Sept. 11 in a two-week engagement at New York's Latin Quarter. She's just finishing a four week gig at the Aladdin Hotel in Las Vegas and in the course of her career has played such spots as the Eden Roc, Miami; Mr. Kelly's, Chicago; Bimbo's, San Francisco; and the Copa, Atlanta.

Blaine credits Rusty's timeless humor, which, although risqué, is never offensive, for the fact that 6 of her 9 albums (one each year) have earned RIAA certification for sales of one million dollars each. Minimum sale for a Rusty Warren album has been 100,000 copies and her albums continue to sell strongly, with total sales for 1967 in excess of 300,000 units.

Truisms, Not Sex

"Rusty's humor is women-oriented, a point of view shared by few comedians," said Blaine. "She deals in truisms, facts and situations that most

Archie & His Pals Rock On Calendar; Massive RCA Promo To Support Them

NEW YORK—Archie Andrews, who began his teenage escapades in the comic strips during the Swing Era days of 1940, finds himself rockin' to the beat of the 60's, thanks to Don Kirshner.

Kirshner's latest project, first revealed some months ago, is a new group called the Archies. Far from just a disk entity for Kirshner's Calendar label through RCA, the group will be heard and seen—in animated form—on the new weekly CBS-TV cartoon series based on the red-haired, freckled-faced character and his friends. The series kicks off Saturday, Sept. 14, but the first Archies disk is already out. Sides are "Bang Shang A Lang" and "Truck Driver," written and produced by Jeff Barry. An LP, including the single, is due next month.

Of course, the TV'er, expected to reach 12 to 15 million kids each week, is not the only thing the Archies have going. There's a series of Archie comic books read by more than 50 million; strips in over 600 newspapers with readership around 100 million; and one of the biggest promotion campaigns ever launched by RCA.

The group, by the way, is Kirshner's first team venture since his association with the Monkees (he is also currently working on a new group that will debut in a film venture between Kirshner and Harry Saltzman). RCA also handles the Monkees via its association with Columbia Pictures' Colgems label.

Although Kirshner says he spent months recruiting talent to comprise the Archies, there is little likelihood that they will be seen "live" in the near future. Kirshner, who operates his various music and other leisure-time activities through his Kirshner Entertainment Corp., says that only the animated version of the group—representing Archie and his pals—will be on view to the public. The Archies will offer two new tunes each week. In addition there'll be a 50-second dance segment in which various novelty steps will be introduced for viewers to dance-along to. Kirshner also expects a giant series of merchandising tie-ins.

RCA Campaign

The RCA "Archie Campaign" has already been thrown into full swing with a series of teaser mailings to John Goldwater, (left) creator and publisher of Archie comic books, and Don Kirshner, who as music supervisor of the upcoming Archie CBS-network television series has given them a new contemporary dimension.

deejays, distribs and members of the press of Archie comic books, as well as of individual pieces of artwork of the Archie characters captioned with the words of the theme song of the TV show, "Everything's Archie." The single's release will be announced in the trade press in a two-color two page spread. The single, which will ship in a four-color sleeve, will be mailed with a title strip to one-stops and coin operators throughout the country.

Distrib record managers, fieldmen and promotion men will receive individual personal letters from Don Kirshner giving the background of the "Archie" music.

Consumer advertising of the Archie product will include TV Guide, Eye Magazine, Go Magazine, Archie comic books as well as various other teen-oriented publications. Ad mats in various sizes and point-of-sale material including two color streamers; four color Archie window displays; "Everything's Archie" decals; stickers, buttons and balloons of the Archie characters; as well as 20, 30 and 60 second radio commercials will all be made available for use at the local level. An extensive press and promo kit will also be mailed to deejays and reviewers and will include among other things a biography of Archie.

A radio station Archie look-alike contest is being planned and a special airplane promotion has been scheduled for the Labor Day weekend, when the "Everything's Archie" theme will be flown over beaches in the New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and Miami areas. During the months of August and September all RCA locations will use a special "Everything's Archie" postage slug on all mail.

A press/dealer reception will be held to coincide with the debut of the television show.

RITCHIE CORDELL & BO GENTRY will be making a Columbia debut as recording artists under a deal negotiated between the label and Kasenetz & Katz, the management firm representing Cordell & Gentry in all their music activities. The two are shown above with CBS Records' president Clive Davis, who has stated that their first single, "Love is Here" will be released this week. The song was co-written by Cordell (right) and Bobby Bloom. Cordell and Gentry are noted as producers as well as composers, and are responsible for records which have sold nearly five million copies. Among the songs that have come from them are "Mony Mony" and "I Think We're Alone Now" for Tommy James & the Shondells and nine other singles that have hit top 50. In addition to artist work with Columbia, discussions are now considering the team to produce other contemporary artists for the label.

New B'way Team: Lane & Harnick

NEW YORK—The first time teaming of Broadway writers Burton Lane and Sheldon Harnick will bear fruit in a musical adaptation of Herbert Tarr's "Heaven Help Us!"

Burton is the veteran composer of such scores as "Finian's Rainbow" (with E.Y. Harburg) and "On a Clear Day" (with Alan Jay Lerner) and Harnick has written the lyrics (with music by Jerry Bock) to such scores as "Fiorello!" and "Fiddler on the Roof," among others.

Tarr's best-selling novel is about a young rabbi and his first congregation. Tarr, who will adapt the book for the stage, is himself an ordained rabbi, although he no longer serves a congregation. Production is set for the fall of 1969.

Meanwhile, the team of Bock & Harnick intends to continue their association via a musical version of "The Rothschilds" and "Trafalgar."

A letter of introduction

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
DON KIRSHNER

This is the sleeve of the first single from a new entertainment package, "The Archies." It's the opening event in a project that is total entertainment.

Here's what's happening:

"The Archies," a brand new half-hour animated TV show produced by Norm Prescott, Lou Scheimer, and Hal Sutherland of Filmation, reaching an estimated audience of twelve million families, goes on the air Saturday, September 14th on the full CBS network. CBS has shown its enthusiasm by contracting now for two full years of "The Archies" program.

Every episode features two different songs including an original dance of the week. Of course, there will be singles and albums of the music from the show.

Archie comic books, created by John Goldwater, reach a world-wide audience of fifty million annually and they will tie in with the records and dances on the show.

The syndicated comic strip is now in more than 600 newspapers with a circulation of more than seventy-five million.

Featuring Archie, Betty, Veronica, Jughead, Reggie, and introducing Hot Dog, "The Archies" provide music for all ages. A generation has grown up with Archie, and now for the first time, they and their children will enjoy "The Archies" on records. In addition, a complete line of Archie products will be licensed and marketed to consumers.

I believe that after hearing the great variety of music, you will agree that "Everything's Archie."

CLASSICAL PIANIST HILDE SOMER has signed a recording contract with Mercury Records with her first recording session scheduled this week and two disks planned during the '68-69 season. She is shown (above) with Joe Bott, director of the corporation's classical division. Miss Somer made her debut at ten in Vienna, and first performed in the U.S. two years afterward with the New York Philharmonic. Noted for her interest in contemporary composers, she has presented premieres of works by Prokofiev, Ravel, Poulenc, Ginastera and Juan Jose Castro. During the past season, she was the soloist in two premieres: John Corigliano's Piano Concerto with the San Antonio Symphony at the opening concert of HemisFair, and Antonio Tauriello's Piano Concerto with the Washington National Symphony at the 1968 Inter-American Music Festival. More recently, the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra has commissioned Ginastera to compose a piano concerto for Miss Somer which she will premiere and perform in New York during her forthcoming March engagement at Carnegie Hall.

Columbia Releases 'Funny Girl' Track

NEW YORK—The original soundtrack album of the Broadway musical hit, "Funny Girl," has been released by Columbia Records. In addition to Barbra Streisand the film stars Omar Sharif, Kay Medford, Anne Francis and Walter Pidgeon. Jule Styne and Bob Merrill, writers of the play's original score, composed three new songs expressly for the film: "The Swan," "Roller Skate Rag" and the title song, "Funny Girl."

Isobel Lennart, writer of the story and book, fashioned the movie screenplay, while William Wyler, three-time Academy Award winner, directed the film version of "Funny Girl." Ray Stark, "Funny Girl" producer, was also the originator of the Broadway play, based on the life of his mother-in-law, Fanny Brice.

In addition to the three songs specially written for the motion picture, Columbia's original soundtrack recording also includes "I'm the Greatest Star," "If a Girl Isn't Pretty," "I'd Rather Be Blue Over You," "His Love Makes Me Beautiful," "People," "You Are Woman, I Am Man" (a duet with Omar Sharif), "Don't Rain On My Parade," "Sadie, Sadie" and "My Man."

On the basis of advance sales, Columbia executives are predicting that the original sound track recording of "Funny Girl" will bring Barbra Streisand her eighth RIAA-certified gold record. Previously, Miss Streisand has achieved million-dollar sales for her Columbia LP's "The Barbra Streisand Album," "The Second Barbra Streisand Album," "Barbra Streisand/The Third Album," "People," "My Name Is Barbra," "My Name Is Barbra, Two . . ." and "Color Me Barbra."

In addition to the original sound track recording of "Funny Girl," Columbia announced last week the release of a new single version of the title song of "Funny Girl" performed by Miss Streisand.

The "Funny Girl" album and single were produced for Columbia Records under the supervision of Jack Gold, Columbia A&R v.p.

THE CRAZY WORLD OF ARTHUR BROWN

ON TRACK RECORDS

DISTRIBUTED BY ATLANTIC RECORDS

Picks of the Week

COWSILLS (MGM 13981)

Poor Baby (2:57) [Pocket Full of Tunes, Akbestal, BMI-Romeo]

A little of the "Indian Lake" lingers on with the new Cowsills outing, but the camp overtones are dropped in favor of a straight pop-rock approach that should have the side booming up the sales charts. Snappy dance rhythm and a grand team vocal showing give the track the sales spark to start things rolling upward. Flip: "Meet Me at the Wishing Well" (2:48) [Same pubs, BMI-Cowsill, Cowsill]

ROLLING STONES (London 909)

Street Fighting Man (3:16) [Gideon, BMI-Jagger, Richards]

Sticking with the sound that has brought the Stones back into the number one slot, the team pours on their blues-rock power in a follow-up to "Jumping Jack Flash" which should prove another monster. Group throbs and drives solidly through a pop session with built in fan appeal and explosive prospects. Flip: "No Expectations" (3:56) [Same credits.]

BOX TOPS (Mala 12017)

I Met Her in Church (2:40) [Press, BMI-Penn, Oldham]

Departure from the Box Tops style of their up-tempo million sellers, and even the softer in-between material, gives the team a new outlook on this revamping of the "Amen" melody with enough of the revival meeting spirit to stir up teen action of monster proportions. Standout side with strength to spare. Flip: "People Gonna Talk" (4:09) [Same credits.]

DUSTY SPRINGFIELD (Philips 40553)

I Close My Eyes & Count to Ten (3:15) [Anne-Rachel, ASCAP-Westlake]

Classical orchestration and a brilliant performance from Dusty Springfield give "I Close My Eyes & Count to Ten" the outstanding appeal which should bring it into the winner's circle saleswise. Exceptional lovesong with arrangements that should excite listener response on pop and middle-of-the-road channels leading to explosive sales results. Flip: "La Bamba" (2:37) [MRC, BMI-Arr: Springfield]

JAMES BROWN (King 6187)

Say It Loud—I'm Black & I'm Proud (Pts 1 & 2) (2:45/2:30) [Golo, BMI-Brown]

Speaking in the personage of Mister-average, James Brown lays down the beef and aspiration of the black people in a side that will jump into the r&b favorite spotlight with sympathetic attention spurring pop exposure. The latest from "Soul Brother #1" is a solid statement with excellent prospects.

MAMAS & PAPAS (Dunhill 4150)

For the Love of Ivy (3:40) [Wingate, Honest John, ASCAP—Phillips, Doherty]

Cute love song (not the movie title theme) presented in the M-P manner returns the Mamas & Papas to the familiar groove that has created a string of hits. Easy-moving rhythm line and impeccable vocal performance are in the older tradition of the team which predates their recent "Safe in My Garden." Flip: "Strange Young Girls" (2:45) [Trousdale, BMI-Phillips] Strange atmospheric side to contrast with the light lid.

VOGUES (Reprise 0766)

My Special Angel (2:57) [Viva, BMI-Duncan]

Bobby Helms classic comes back with the special touch that has made the Vogues leaders in the rival camp. Stunning vocal performance and the standout material offer a romantic selection that should soon be breaking along the hit route that brought "Turn Around" into the top five picture. Flip: "I Keep It Hid" (4:12) [Hanbo, BMI-Webb]

IMPRESSIONS (Curtom 1932)

Fool for You (2:43) [Camad, BMI-Mayfield]

Stronger than ever, the Impressions add muscle to the backup on their first for the Curtom label, and click with a track that should excite new attention to the trio. Scintillating vocals, as always, are launched to the front with a thrust from vibrant orchestral work that adds icing to a big slice of sales cake. Flip: "I'm Loving Nothing" (2:23) [Same credits.]

STATUS QUO (Cadet Concept 7006)

Ice in the Sun (2:10) [Duchess, BMI-Wilde, Scott]

The Status Quo might have been listening to vintage '65 Beatles material with "Pictures of Matchstick Men" in the back of their heads when they worked on this follow up. Added rhythm power and a contemporary love message in out-of-the-ordinary terms give the crew a teen side with plenty of sales power. Expect action. Flip: "When My Mind is Not Live" (2:47) [Duchess, BMI-Parfitt] More unique sound that could become the progressive choice.

LEMON PIPERS (Buddah 63)

Lonely Atmosphere (2:59) [Kama Sutra, BMI-Leka, Pinz]

Out of tiny-bopper character, the Lemon Pipers take a breather with some softer, slower material on this melancholy ballad. Track is nicely arranged and very well performed with teen appeal that should see solid response from the wide following already firmly behind the team. Strong sales can be expected. Flip: "Wine & Violet" (3:08) [Kama Sutra, BMI-Lemon Pipers]

CLIFF NOBLES & CO. (Phil-L.A. of Soul 318)

Horse Fever (2:35) [Dandelion, James Boy, BMI-James]

Cliff Nobles canters back with another rhythmic track that moves along the route that "The Horse" has just galloped. More polished effort with back-drop vocal effects ala Sly Stone for impact. Dynamic workout which has plenty of blues and pop market appeal. Should become another Nobles Prize winner. Flip: "Judge Baby, I'm Back" (2:42) [Same credits.]

Picks of the Week

VIVIAN REED (Epic 10382)

You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling/Soul & Inspiration (3:07) [Screen Gems/Columbia, BMI-Mann, Weil, Spector]

Back from a name-making entry with "Yours Until Tomorrow," Vivian Reed continues with a strong bid to climb even higher on the national sales charts with this medley of Righteous Brothers hit. Towering vocal performance is matched by a splendid arrangement that strikes responses for pop-blues and middle-of-the-road potential. Should breakout. Flip: "Mama Open the Door" (3:29) [Caddy, BMI-Marks, Wayne]

DAVE CLARK FIVE (Epic 10375)

The Red Balloon (2:59) [Edwin H. Morris, ASCAP-Froggatt]

Originally "Callow-La-Vita," Raymond Froggatt's song has become a powerhouse side which should pick up the momentum of a Dave Clark Five following to explode across the pop scene. Lively tempo, dance-aimed orchestral drive and nonsensical humor-filled lyrics will score a comeback blast for the crew. Flip: "Maze of Love" (2:37) [Big Five, BMI-Clark, Smith]

JAY & THE TECHNIQUES (Smash 2185)

Hey Diddle Diddle (2:35) [Jobete, BMI-Fuqua, Bristol, Gaye]

Booming back into the bright bag that has given Jay & the Techniques the team's biggest hits, they hit the up-tempo trail on a venture that should have things popping once again. Stunning dance track with a fine vocal showing that is bound to meet with best seller response from pop and rhythm fans. [No flip information available.]

RONNIE DOVE (Diamond 249)

Tomboy (2:39) [Melrose, ASCAP-Stanton, Segal]

Ronnie Dove tackles a taste-of-"Honey" type material on his new ballad offering. The song itself is a bitter-sweet sort of love ballad with a twist ending along the country-pop manner of "Laura" and "Honey." As usual, the Dove vocal is mixed with warmth and charm, but is made outstanding by the melancholy that adds dramatic impact to the lyric. Flip: "Tell Me Tomorrow" (3:00) [Wren, BMI-Raleigh]

RUFUS THOMAS (Stax 0010)

Funky Mississippi (2:55) [East, BMI-Floyd]

A bit of Funky Broadway and Funky North Philly with the home touch and outstanding vocal work of Rufus Thomas on this outing gives the blues star a strong bid for breakout action that should carry him well through the sales ranks of r&b and pop charts. Side is a powerful dance effort with a little extra on the personal line to insure hit activity. No flip information.

STAPLE SINGERS (Stax 0007)

Long Walk to D.C. (2:34) [East, BMI-Banks]

With material springing straight from the Staple Singers' gospel background, the team shoots out a blues rhythm track loaded with r&b and pop commercial appeal. Arrangements highlight the gospel sound with a hearty helping of Memphis bass for top dance appeal and listening dynamite. Flip: [No information available.]

VIKKI CARR (Liberty 56062)

A Dissatisfied Man (2:41) [United Artists, ASCAP-Harvey]

Excellent showing from Vikki Carr and a very strong bit of material give the songstress that magic combination that could crack the pop sales market once more. Song has outstanding prospects for easy listening and middle-of-the-road exposure and the little extra that should turn the trick sales wise. Flip: "Happy Together" (2:48) [Chardon, BMI-Gordon, Bonner]

ARTISTICS (Brunswick 55384)

You Left Me (2:30) [BRC, Jalyne, BMI-Butler, Smith, Jackson]

NEW YORK

In-Decibel-Cribably Delicious

Not too long ago rock effects were attacked on the basis that dance step patterns were injurious to the spine, legs, muscles and heart. Publicity of injuries, dislocations and incapacitations almost brought about a regulation that all discotheques display a label reading: Caution, dance athletics may be hazardous to your health."

However, a counter-wave pointing up the benefits of exercise from the then-new dance steps; emotional release, etc. turned the tide, and since then very little criticism has been offered.

Now, a Tennessee researcher reports that tests on a guinea pig have shown damage to the cochlear cells in the ear as a result of exposure to rock music played at a level of 120 decibels (approximately, or slightly lower than the level of music at most clubs.)

Published results, as presented in last week's New York Times, showed considerable damage to the tissue in one of the guinea pig's ears, while a cotton-filled other ear was unharmed by the music.

Since the article ran, comments were offered to the Times by Cheetah manager Joe Caballaro (we'll conduct tests to determine if the sound levels are dangerously high), Columbia producer David Rubinson (I don't know of any group that plays loud enough to hurt anybody—The researcher considered the volume of the sound, but they didn't consider the volume of the guinea pig), Dennis Wright of the Electric Circus (we could post the decibel count outside, like the temperature-humidity discomfort index) and Steve Paul (should a major increase in guinea pig attendance occur at The Scene we'll certainly bear their comfort in mind.)

When the Cash Box singles reviewer was asked if he found his hearing impaired by rock exposure, he answered: "What?"

VIEW FROM BROADWAY: The Schaefer Music Festival wound up its Central Park series last Saturday with the most successful week of the season. All seats were sold in advance for each of the eight closing shows. Headliners for the final week included the Butterfield Blues Band & Tim Buckley; Country Joe & the Fish & Eric Anderson; Judy Collins, Herbie Mann & Cal Tjader . . . The Cowsills have joined the national "Singer Presents the Stars" promotion promenade and arranged four appearances already to be aligned with the team's current travel schedule. Others to make rounds at Singer shops for fan turnouts will be Lesley Gore, the Four Seasons, Tony Bennett and Joel Grey . . . Indie producer Paul Tannen heading for Chicago to audition new talent . . . The Sunshine Company on tour with the John Davidson summer show and about to become central figures in an Imperial promotion focused on the act's third LP, "Sunshine & Shadows." . . . Plans are in the works to bring the Status Quo to America for p.a.'s.

First Cadet-Concept LP is set for Sept. release, and a follow-up to

Kaye Stevens—Amen Corner

"Pictures of Matchstick Me" has just reached the singles scene: "Ice in the Sun." . . . Diana Ross & The Supremes to play the Baltimore Civic Center Sept. 1. James Brown and company will follow on the next Saturday (8) . . . Deram label working for both underground and pop explosion with the Amen Corner. English team has cracked the British charts, and now is represented with "Round Amen Corner," their first U.S. LP and a new single "High in the Sky." . . . In connection with the anti-volume view stressed in the Times, Glamour Magazine's latest installation of Sound examines several of the softer pop exponents. (i.e. Mike Heron, Gordon Lightfoot & David Ackles.) . . . Mike Shepherd made the altar scene last Sat. (wedded to Diane Littlefield of Nashville). He's spending the next two weeks in Europe . . . Epic's Chris Crist also married recently to the former Miss Ruth Cunningham . . . Stevie Wonder, Wilson Pickett and Sam & Dave headline the up-coming Randall's Island soul-rerun (31) with B. B. King, Arthur Conley, Big Maybelle and the Mirettes . . . New mystery act making a splash is the Natural Gas, a foursome which performs behind gas masks and features a new single, "Glad to be Alive."

The Rascals packed Hollywood Bowl in their first appearance there last week, grossing $82,000 with 18,500 tickets sold in a $2-6 range. Four thousand were turned away that night, and a station was flooded with calls asking about the group's next show, which may be planned for one of the visits that the group will be making for filming sessions soon . . . Buzz Linhart will join Mitch Ryder in early Sept. for a show at the Presidential (Continued on page 28)

That Synthesis of Classical & Psychedelic—Classedelic?

According to our Texaco Road Atlas it's about 750 miles from Wichita, Kansas to Wichita Falls, Texas. Yet it doesn't seem quite that far from "Wichita Train Whistle" to Wichita Fall.

Wichita Fall is a new group on Imperial. "Wichita Train Whistle Sings" is the album project begun more than a year ago by Monkee Mike Nesmith. With the help of arranger Shorty Rogers, Nesmith recorded this ambitious, expensive and (surprisingly) unpretentious set of contemporary big band instrumentals that Dot released a couple of months back. It was an obvious ode of affection for Nesmith, a search for the U.S. Shangri-la, far from stress and confusion. Its loosely woven themes are, it seems to us, much closer to Don Gillis' "Saga of Prairie School" and "Portrait of a Frontier Town" than to Glen Miller's "Chattanooga Choo Choo." Still there is a good deal of vitality and whimsy in the work. We're particularly partial to "Don't Cry Now," a delightful din of dissident country-rock which, incidentally, pre-dated Mason Williams' "Classical Gas." We mention this because somehow "Don't Cry Now" came to mind when we first heard the Williams' cut on his Warners LP. Rehearing, they seem less related tho' both are "classics in the mainstream" (see last week's CB editorial). Rumor has it that the project cost Nesmith about $90,000 and it's doubtful if he'll ever recoup the investment. Still some of its cuts are being aired on top 40, free form and soft listening slots. And Dot reports steady sales continuing to build.

Now along comes a new group which'll be known as Wichita Fall. Four young boys (Len Feigin, Dave Roush, Phil Black and Larry Weston—a drummer bassist and two acoustic guitarists) who, according to producer Dallas Smith, will be backed by thirty instruments and about $50,000 for production and promotion.

Projected title for the LP (planned for release in October) is "Life Is But A Dream" with arrangements by Artie Butler. There'll be thirteen titles in all—all but one originals by the foursome. That one is a Schubert melody, somewhat revamped.

"Obviously it's a concept LP," says Smith, "with each movement natural and inevitable. There'll be voices as well, treated as instruments . . . you might call its style 'classedelic.'"

Group is managed by Bernard/William/Price with Abe Hoch credited for its discovery. It is, according to Smith, the most skyspiring project he has attempted since joining Liberty.

Dallas Smith, incidentally, was not born in Dallas. The moniker is for real though his birthplace is Red Boiling Springs, Tenn. The "Dallas" handle comes from a great grandmother who was a Cherokee Indian.

Smith's first job was as a stockboy with a shoe store in Toledo. The switch from shoe to show business came after the family moved to Baltimore and Dallas spotted an opening at Zamoski Record Distributing. While he knew virtually nothing about the business, he was old enough (22) to grow a beard and fake it. He did just that by memorizing the names of every wax mogul in town and convinced Harry S. Weinman that he was the best salesman-promoter east of the Mississippi.

Later he shifted to Miami, forming his own indie production firm. In 1965 he arranged, produced and published a side titled "I'm A Nut" which Liberty grabbed, offering him a slot on their A&R staff.

Among the chart items produced by Smith—"Buy for Me the Rain" (Nitty Gritty Dirt Band) "Come Back When You Grow Up" (Bobby Vee) "On the Road Again" (Canned Heat) and their current LP "Boogie With Canned Heat." Smith's wife, Jo Beth, is also a record exec and has just left Uni Records to join Hugh Masekela's office in Beverly Hills.

The Wichita Fall group is skedded to make its debut on the Ed Sullivan Show in the fall.

Dallas Smith—Cheryl Poole

Our "West Coast Girl of the Week" is Cheryl Poole, born and raised in Tyler, Texas, who first started in the "pop" and "rock" field but fell in love with country music. A 5 ft. 3 in. beauty with brown hair and big brown eyes, her favorite hobbies are judo and karate and she admits to a weakness for collecting shoes. She has written many of the songs she's recorded for Paula Records including "There's Gotta Be A Woman Too," "Swingin' Blue," and "Heart Trouble." She was also among the "most promising country vocalists" in the recent Cash Box D.J. poll.

We finally got around to digesting "U.S. Master Producers," Walter E. Hurst's latest volume. We recommend it. Though you can undoubtedly produce a hit record without it, our guess is that you'll be in a much better position to negotiate after perusing its 400 pages. It's published by 7 Arts Press.

Bobbie Gentry signed to star at Harrah's Tahoe (Sept. 5-24) following her successful stint at Caesar's Palace . . . Winners of the "West Coast Regional Rock Music World Tea Tournament" last week were 1—For Soul's Sake 2—Rocking Horse and 3—Soul Symbol. Special attraction Eddie James & Pacific Ocean (currently at the Factory and discovered by Bill Gazzari) is the most frenetic (and still musical) U.S. group we've seen and heard since we caught the Check-mates at Gazzari's two years ago.

Phil Ochs, Liza Minelli and Merry-Go-Round producer Larry Marks has an L.A. bust-out in "L.A. Breakdown." Should be national by the time you read this.

CashBox Platter Spinner Patter

Two recent protests against radio stations came to naught with the protesters struggling mightily before going down to defeat. One protest was a one-man effort, the other was a group attempt, but the results of both bore no fruit. Dick Booth, a 27-year-old deejay at WTXL-West Springfield, Mass., was informed that he was going to be laid off in two weeks due to economic reasons. He went on the air, asking listeners to protest the firing. In the 15 hours and 40 minutes of Booth's appeal, over 1,000 calls came in on his behalf, according to the deejay. But another precinct was yet to be heard from—Booth's boss. The deejay was fired, and he ruefully recalled the old saw: "You can always tell the boss . . . but he never listens."

On another front, the massed forces of 1-2-3 Records in Atlanta blunted their swords, or at least their picket signs, against the citadel of WQXI-Atlanta. The outlet had not been airing the label's new release, "Birmingham," by the Movers, so the diskery set up a picket line in front of the building housing the station. The protest began during the noon hour on Peachtree Street, knotting Atlanta's always heavy traffic. 1-2-3 promo man Mike Clark handed out free records to motorists, and busses stopped to allow passengers to read the signs. The label's protest was extremely "heated" in that the picketers were parading on the hottest day of the year in Atlanta. Moved by the sight of the perspiring pickets, the WQXI staffers sent out ice cold drinks to the marchers. As of this writing, however, the outlet's response to 1-2-3's record has also been ice cold. The disk has not been receiving airplay on WQXI.

FOMENTING A REVOLUTION: The American Revolution, MGM's Flick Disc group, appeared recently with Art Roberts, WLS-Chicago deejay, who introduced the act and their first LP. The group has been touring the country, going on radio and TV to plug the album.

Subway Productions has been formed by Dick Summer, a deejay at WNEW-FM-New York. Summer will produce syndicated radio and TV shows through his new company, which is associated with Continental Recordings of Framingham, Mass. The first offering of Subway Productions is the new "Dick Summer's Subway" show—10 hours per week, featuring the "New Pop Music." The first sale of the show was to WHDH-FM-Boston, which is airing the show 7 to 9 a.m. with a midnight to 2 a.m. rerun. This program and others, spotlighting new music with name deejays, are available through Subway Productions, 12 Irving Street, Framingham, Mass. 01701. Besides his six-day WNEW-FM show and the "Dick Summer's Subway" show, Summer commutes weekly to Boston for his Channel 4 "Here And Now" program. He has recently been signed to write song lyrics and poems for Beechwood Publishing Company of Los Angeles.

A variety show featuring Avco Broadcasting's favorite personalities will be telecast from the Ohio State Fair on August 31 on WLWT-Cincinnati, WLWD-Dayton, and WLWC-Columbus. The program, called the "Avco Hour Of Stars," will be the highlight of 12 days and nearly 50 hours of telecasts by Avco Broadcasting from the Fair. The many activities of the Fair will serve as a background for the show. Paul Dixon, morning show host, will emcee the "Hour." Music will be provided by members of Avco Broadcasting's extensive talent line-up including: Bob Braun, Vivienne Della Chiesa, Nick Clooney, Dean Richards and the Lucky Pennies, Marian Spelman, Bonnie Lou, Colleen Sharp, Ruby Wright, Larry Kinley, the Kay Sisters, Hometowners, and a 16-piece orchestra conducted by Cliff Lash.

A new promotion has been initiated by WMCA-New York and Gentle Care hair conditioner. The promotion will award three prizewinners an evening for two at New York Copacabana this week (29) to attend the opening performance of the Temptations. WMCA Good Guy Jack Spector will host the three prizewinners and their guests throughout the evening, which will include dinner and a backstage meeting with the Temptations. Winners will be chosen by lot from postcards sent to WMCA. The contest is being promoted by a heavy Gentle Care advertising campaign on WMCA; the account is handled by Harvey & Carlson (New York).

PATTI IN PLATTER PUSH: Capitol recording artist Patti Drew dropped into the studios of WLIB-New York recently to promote her latest single, "Workin' On A Groovy Thing," which is currently on the charts. She was joined by (l. to r.) Joe Maimone, Capitol's district promotion manager; Jack Walker, WLIB's music director; and Mike Abbott, R&B promotion man for Capitol.

SPUTTERS: WMCA-New York deejay Dan Daniel was special guest commentator at a music, fashion, and beauty extravaganza last week (21) at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. The theme of the program was "The Young Expressionists."

VITAL STATISTICS: Perry Samuels, vice president of Avco Broadcasting Corp. and general manager of its Washington, D.C., outlets, WWDC and WWDC-FM, has been appointed to the newly-created position of vice president in charge of radio. . . . Michael Connors, formerly program director at WCCC-Hartford, Conn., has been named music director of WASH-FM-Washington. . . . Bill Burkett has been promoted to program-music director at WBSR-Pensacola, replacing Jerry Ray, who has become program director at WJGN-Knoxville. Also, J. Thomas is now assistant program director at WBSR. . . . Robert K. Chandler, program director at WQMR-WGAY-Washington, has been designated vice president of operations for the outlets and for the Connie B. Gay Broadcasting Corp. Bob Falcon, an announcer at WQMR-WGAY, succeeds Chandler as program director. . . . Alan Courtney, veteran radio personality and host of "Open Phone Forum" for 20 years, has moved from WINZ-Miami, Fla., to WIOD-Miami, Fla. . . . London Promos 4 Non-Rock Euro Acts

NEW YORK—A fall merchandising program based on the anticipated visits to the U.S. of four non-rock European acts is being planned by London Records.

The fall push will focus on the two-month 12th annual American concert tour by the noted British maestro Mantovani, according to Herb Goldfarb, London's national sales and distribution manager. Mantovani begins this year's tour in late September, and London will release a new album within the next fortnight to tie in with the visit.

Also in line for promotional efforts are the songstress Caterina Valente, the Jacques Lousier Trio, and the Queen's Guards.

Miss Valente, who had an engagement a few months ago at the Royal Box of New York's Americana Hotel, returns to this country for a date at the Flamingo Hotel, Las Vegas, from September 8 to October 3. London has lined up promo efforts on the artist's recently released "Sweet Beat" album and will exert an extra push on her current single, "Melodie."

The Queen's Guards, like various other official and military complements from England for which London has recording rights, have had a number of marching and band sound albums on the label. London will rush-release a new album to tie in with the Guards' fall tour, which opens with a five-day stand at the Spectrum, Philadelphia, on September 24. The troupe will appear at Madison Square Garden, New York, October 3-13, and at the Boston Garden October 15-20, with other dates to be announced shortly. London will set up promotions on the new album in each tour location.

Finally, London will tie in promotional efforts with the visit to America of the Jacques Lousier Trio, a French group which specializes in jazz and contemporary interpretations of Bach and other classical composers. A college concert tour has been set for the Trio from October 29 to November 24. London already has a catalog of the group's Bach works and will shortly issue an album of original material.

Miller To Produce Move

NEW YORK — Jimmy Miller has wrapped up his latest visit to the United States with the disclosure that he has concluded a production deal for future sessions with the Move. Plans for the first Miller produced material with the group will be made when he returns to England, but no date has been set for actual recording work.

Miller's immediate plans include the completion and release of three albums to hit the American market by the end of September. Among these are a new Traffic LP for United Artists, the forthcoming Rolling Stones set "Begger's Banquet," and a first album from the Spooky Tooth for Mala. Move product will be offered in the US on A&M.

Further studio work for the Traffic and Spooky Tooth is expected to be handled when the groups both make their new American tours beginning next month.

Vic O'Gilvie Is Willie Bobo's New Manager

NEW YORK—Verve recording artist Willie Bobo has signed a management contract with Vic O'Gilvie. O'Gilvie has scheduled a September West Coast tour for Bobo that will include stints in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Mexico City. O'Gilvie is also mapping a European tour for Bobo.

On his latest Verve album, Bobo leads a "Spanish Blues Band" through a series of numbers that combine Latin sounds with the sounds of American Blues. The idea for the Latin-Blues fusion was Bobo's.

JULIE BUDD looks on as the judges congratulate themselves on picking the winner of "Showcase '68's" recent talent contest. The selection committee made up of Cash Box vp Marty Ostrow (left), WMEX-Boston deejay Warren Duffy (second from right) and Joe O'Brien from WMCA-New York, chose Miss Budd the outstanding performer on the program. Since then, MGM has reserved her single, "All's Quiet on West 23d" and released a new "Child of Plenty" album.

Moody Blues

The Moody Blues had a big hit in 1965 with "Go Now." Now, after a lean period, the British group has enjoyed a resurgence of popularity. Their Deram album, "Days Of Future Passed," is number 42 on the Top 100 Albums this week, and a cut from that LP, "Nights In White Satin" was recently a chart item. This week, another tune from the set, "Tuesday Afternoon," is number 34 on the charts. Justin Hayward, the Moodys' vocalist, entered show business at 13 as an actor, touring with a repertory company during his school holidays, Graeme Edge, the drummer, formed the R&B Preachers, from which the Moody Blues sprang. Mike Pinder, who plays the mellotron, was 12 when the skiffle craze swept England, and he toured local clubs and pubs with a group. Ray Thomas, the flautist, joined Mike in Germany with the Crew Cats and joined the Moody Blues at the same time. John Lodge, the latest addition to the group, turned in a versatile performance on the Moody's chart album, playing bass guitar, cello, tambourine, snare drum, acoustic guitar, and singing.

Jeff Beck Group

The Jeff Beck Group is comprised of Jeff Beck, lead guitar; Rod Stewart, lead singer; Mick Waller, drums; and Ron Wood, bass guitar and harmonica. "Truth," the Group's debut Epic album, is number 70 on the charts this week. Jeff Beck, 24, is a former member of the Yardbirds. He attended Wimbledon Art College in London for four years before deciding to become a professional musician. Stewart, 23, writes many of the Group's tunes and is adept on the guitar and the five-string banjo. Waller, 23, has played with the Rolling Stones, the Animals, Little Richard, and Georgie Fame. Twenty-one-year-old Wood made his first public musical appearance as a youth "on the stage of a local cinema in England. I was ten years old and played the washboard in a skiffle group which consisted of myself and my two brothers."

Pop Picks

FUNNY GIRL—Original Soundtrack—Columbia BOS 3220

The sales bonanza that will undoubtedly follow the release of this record makes it must stock item for dealers across the nation. The film version of the hit Broadway musical by Jule Styne (music) and Bob Merrill (lyrics) retains the original star, Barbra Streisand. Omar Sharif (who has a surprisingly good voice) takes the part created by Sidney Chaplin. The original soundtrack LP should be zooming up the charts in short order.

LATE AGAIN—Peter, Paul and Mary—Warner Bros.-7 Arts 1751

Perennially excellent album sellers, Peter, Paul and Mary should have no trouble achieving chart status with their latest release. The trio of course gained fame as a folk group, but now they are doing other types of material as well. There is a rock beat to some of the songs, and there are some nice contemporary ballads. This should be a big LP.

DON'T BREAK MY PRETTY BALLOON—Vikki Carr—Liberty LST 7565

Vikki Carr is still riding on the crest of several recent singles successes and should produce good sales with her latest album effort. The lark handles such tunes as the title song, "Tears On My Pillow," "Your Heart Is Free Just Like The Wind," "Happy Together," "It's Not Unusual" and "The Glory Of Love" with feeling and finesse. Should be a lot of middle-of-the-road airplay for this LP.

NON-STOP—Box Tops—Bell 6023

The Box Tops, riding the "Choo Choo Train" to success, have come up with another strong collection of tunes for their third album. Group's distinctive sound (highlighted by lead singer Alex Chilton) is used to good advantage on "I'm Movin' On" (the country oldie), "She Shot A Hole In My Soul," "People Gonna Talk," "I Met Her In Church" (their new single), and "Yesterday Where's My Mind." Should have no difficulty in following the successful course of their previous efforts.

SOLID SOUL—Willie Mitchell—Hi SHL 32045

Trumpeter Willie Mitchell renders a sock-it-to-'em set of soul goodies, featuring his recent chart item, "Prayer Meetin'." Other powerful offerings include "Grazing In The Grass," "San-Ho-Zay," and "Strawberry Solo." Mitchell receives spirited support from a rocking, driving band. This album shapes up as a potent chart contender.

Pop Best Bets

LOVELY IS THE NAME—Sammy Davis Jr.—Reprise RS 6308

"Lonely Is The Name," a nostalgic reprise of the good old big band days, serves as title tune and lead-off item of another excellent collection from Sammy Davis Jr. The vet songster spans generations and styles as he vocalizes "Up, Up And Away," "Ev'ry Time We Say Goodbye," "Shake, Shake, Shake," "We'll Be Together Again," and an "Uptight/You've Got Your Troubles" medley, plus five other tunes. Long-range sales should prove highly profitable.

ANGEL OF THE MORNING—Merrilee Rush—Bell 6020

Coming off a Top 3 smash with "Angel Of The Morning," and just starting her chart climb with "That Kind Of Woman" (included here), Merrilee Rush looks like a good bet to join the exclusive sorority of top female rock singers. The lark's soft, sweet voice is a nice change of pace from the hard rock crop of artists currently blossoming. Some of the goodies on this set include "Billy Sunshine," "Observation From Flight 285 (In $\frac{3}{4}$ Time)," and "Sandcastles." A good bet for substantial chart action.

TURN AROUND, LOOK AT ME—Vogues—Reprise 6314

Absent from the charts for awhile, the Vogues made a triumphant return with "Turn Around, Look At Me," a Top 5 deck. The vocal quartet's overall sound has matured and should appeal to older buyers as well as to teen fans. Arrangements are tastefully done and all twelve songs have merit. Standout numbers include the title tune, "My Special Angel" (the group's new single), "I Keep It Hid," "Dream Baby (How Long Must I Dream)," and "The Impossible Dream." Should see heavy chart action.

LOVE MAKES A WOMAN—Barbara Acklin—Brunswick BL 754137

Barbara Acklin's "Love Makes A Woman" single is still bulleting up the charts and this timely album release should be able to capitalize on the single's momentum. Miss Acklin combines the best of the soul sound with a Dionne Warwick-approach to her music and the results can best be appreciated on such tunes as "The Look Of Love," "Come And See Me Baby," "What The World Needs Now Is Love," and "Yes I See The Love (I Missed)." Strong debut LP should have strong pop and R&B sales appeal.

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT—Original Soundtrack—Columbia OS 3240

This soundtrack from the soon-to-be-released flick, "You Are What You Eat," is like the film itself, a radical departure in style from the ordinary. A complete musical happening is contained herein, featuring the talents of Tiny Tim (his version of "Be My Baby" is a highlight), Peter Yarrow (of Peter, Paul and Mary), Paul Butterfield, the Electric Flag, and John Simon. Heavy FM play should complement the movie as a means of exposure for this deck and sales should blossom.

PETULIA—Original Soundtrack—Warner Bros.-Seven Arts WS 1755

Oscar Award winner John Barry, who composed the music for the films "Goldfinger" and "Born Free," has written an impressive score for the motion picture "Petulia," which stars Julie Christie and George C. Scott. Alternately brooding and pulsating, the music is striking and compelling. The success of the film, plus the excellence of the music, should result in heavy sales for this LP.

WORKIN' ON A GROOVY THING—Pattie Drew—Capitol ST 2855

Pattie Drew is currently on the charts with the title song of this set, a fact which should contribute to sales of the LP. The lark, who scored awhile back with "Tell Him" (not on this set), delivers 11 tunes in a manner which should prove highly acceptable to both the R&B and pop markets. Material varies nicely from ballad to soul and includes "I'm Indestructible," "Didn't We" (a Jim Webb tune done with a soft, jazz background), and "Sentimental Reasons (You Send Me)" (a Sam Cooke medley).

Let's run it up the flagpole, JB, and see who salutes

So everybody's saluting! Harrumph

Pop Best Bets

LOVE IS LAINIE—Lainie Kazan—MGM SE 4496

Songstress Lainie Kazan offers a selection of pop melodies, giving readings of a dramatic, sensuous, and sultry nature. Included on the album are "A House Is Not A Home," "When I Look In Your Eyes," "How Can I Be Sure," and "Windows Of The World." The artist creates a glowing, shimmering atmosphere, and this LP is worthy of acclaim.

AN ANTHOLOGY OF BRITISH BLUES—Various Artists—Immediate Z12 52 006

The door to the blues field has been opened by the recent successes of Cream, John Mayall, Jeff Beck, and Ten Years After (all English acts), and sales are reaching new heights. Immediate has gathered some early British blues cuts for this collection by such names as Eric Clapton (Cream), Jimmy Page (Yardbirds), Mayall, the Savoy Brown Blues Band, T.S. McPhee, Stone's Masonry, and Jo-Ann Kelly. Also present, as sidemen on three cuts are Mick Jagger and Bill Wyman (Rolling Stones). Should be good sales in store for this set.

HUGH MASEKELA—Mercury Wing SRW 16358

With a gold single and best selling album behind him (on Uni, his current label), Hugh Masekela could still derive substantial royalties from the sale of this collection of older material, now repackaged in budget form. This set showcases the artist in a more improvisational setting than his recent outings and will appeal to fans of Afro-jazz. Tunes on the album (all composed by members of the group) include "U-Dwi (Smallpox)," "Sharpville," "Umaningi Bona (Long River)," and "Kwa-Blaney (Town In Africa)."

UP UP AND AWAY WITH ARTHUR FIEDLER AND THE BOSTON POPS—RCA Victor LSC 3041

Veteran conductor Arthur Fiedler leads the Boston Pops Orchestra through expert readings of a series of pop biggies on this delightful set. The title tune, "Georgy Girl," "Yesterday," "Cabaret," "Michelle," "Love Is Blue," and "A Man And A Woman" are some of the offerings. Fiedler has a devoted audience, and its many members should find a great deal of pleasure in the Maestro's latest LP.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND—Vanguard VSD 6502

Notes from the Underground, a five-man rock group, sounds like it had lots of fun recording this album, and the listener should also enjoy himself thoroughly. The set includes the act's current single, "Down In The Basement," "I Wish I Was A Punk," "Where I'm At," and "Why Did You Put Me On." Gritty, bluesy, and fun-filled, this LP could generate considerable interest in Notes from the Underground.

SUGAR SHOPPE—Capitol ST 2959

The Sugar Shoppe, a new vocal quartet from Canada, has come up with a pleasant new sound which could appeal to a wide segment of the teen and college-aged market. The group blends its voices in a jazz-rock manner on a varied selection of material, some old, some original. Deserving particular mention are "Skip-A-Long Sam" (a Donovan song), "Baby Baby" (done first by the Miracles), "Let The Truth Come Out" (an original), and "Poor Papa." Could be a hot item.

ZOO PRESENTS CHOCOLATE MOOSE—Sunburst 7500

The new Sunburst label, distributed by the Bell organization, makes a strong debut with this set by the Zoo, a self-contained quintet. Group rocks its way through 10 tunes, several self-penned, displaying an interesting Los Angeles-style blues influence. Some of the better tunes on the album are "Written On The Wind," "Try Me," "Get Some Beads," and "I've Been Waiting Too Long." Should find favor with progressive rock fans.

KIND OF A HUSH: THE MUSIC OF LES REED—Geoffrey Evans Orchestra—Palette PTS 30,000

The Geoffrey Evans Orchestra pays a well deserved tribute to Les Reed, a talented English songwriter who has been responsible for numerous international hits in the last three years. Along with the title tune, other Reed-penned hits present include "The Last Waltz," "Everybody Knows," "Delilah," and "Kiss Me Goodbye." Other lesser-known, but equally as good, tunes include "No One Can Break A Heart" and "Cry A Little Longer." Strong easy-listening set should do well.

ANNA—Anna Margarida—Vault LP/SLP 118

Braslian songstress Anna Margarida is showcased on a set of highly appealing melodies. Her singing is soft, silky, and sweet. Included on the disk are "Sonho de um Carnaval," "The Fool On The Hill," "Veleiro," and "When I Look In Your Eyes." This album is a listening delight, and deserves widespread approbation.

DREAM A LITTLE DREAM OF ME—Howard Roberts Chorus and Orchestra—Kapp KS 3578

This is Howard Roberts' album debut as a conductor, and he leads his chorus and orchestra through a strong selection of chart material. The voices have a gentle sweep; the orchestra is lively and graceful. Among the tunes, besides the title effort, are "Lady Will Power," "Mrs. Robinson," and "Angel Of The Morning." There should be plentiful good music play in the cards for this set.

WINDMILLS OF MY MIND—Grady Tate—Skye SK-4D

Grady Tate, who has been working as a drummer, has turned to vocalizing recently, with a single, "The Windmills Of Your Mind," to his credit. On this LP, he sings that tune and eight others, including "And I Love Her," "Don't Fence Me In," and "All Around The World." Tate's style is attractively understated, direct, and personal. The artist's singing career would seem to be off to a most promising start.

LOOK AT ME—Talya Ferro—MGM SE 4567

Singing with sinuous grace and controlled emotion, Talya Ferro turns in a winning performance on an LP of ten pop tunes. Particularly effective are the title song, "Cuando Caliente El Sol," "After Your Love," and "The Magic Door (Les Ballons Rouge)," from the film "The Red Balloon." This disk could generate considerable interest in the lark.

Jubilee In LP Contest: 'Chart Your Future'

NEW YORK—A "Chart Your Future" distributor incentive contest spotlighting Jubilee Records' new album release package has been announced by Elliot Blaine, director of album marketing for the label.

Prize winners will receive cash awards and a "Chart Sweepstakes" ticket for the grand prize of a week's all-expense-paid trip anywhere in the United States, including Puerto Rico and Hawaii.

"Chart Your Future" began August 15 and runs to November 1. The contest is open to all Jubilee distributor executives, sales managers, salesmen, promotion men, and operations men.

Prizes and tickets are offered on each of the six new releases for all sales in excess of pre-set quotas for individual distributors and salesmen.

The contest title comes from Jubilee's "Stereo Chart Contenders 1968" release of six new LPs: "Servin' Up Some Soul," by Mary Wells (including her recent chart single, "The Doctor"); "Sounds Of Modification," the debut LP by the new underground group; "The Baltimore & Ohio Marching Band Play Music From The Comics"; Moe Kauffman's "Turned On"; "The Look of Love," by Vivian Dandridge; and "The Racket Squad".

Jubilee's extensive comedy catalog and regular commercial catalog are also included in the contest.

Cash prizes, based on percentages sold over quota and total performance, are $1,000 each for the "Number One Salesman", "Number One Promotion Man," and "Number One Distributor". A $500 prize goes to the "Number One Internal Operations Man," and a prize of $1,500 goes to the "Number One Sales Manager".

For every album that reaches the trade press charts before Monday, November 11, 1968, the grand prize of the "Anywhere U.S.A." trip will be drawn for from all qualified participants who have earned "Chart Sweepstakes" tickets based on their performances.

The contest will be individually introduced to distributors via the Jubilee executives' "Person to Person" series of distributor meetings. Steve Blaine, Jubilee Records president, will cover the midwest area with the label's midwest field sales manager, Stan Eddis. Elliot Blaine will cover the west coast along with west coast office manager Harry Goldstein. Steve Wax, Jubilee promotion pro, will cover the south.

The "Chart Your Future" contest will be backed, Blaine said, "by a coordinated advertising, merchandising and publicity program to both the trade and consumer outlets. Jubilee will match dollar for dollar all documented merchandising and advertising expenses by distributors that exceed minimum pre-set percentages."

The contest is being supported by heavy advertising, and special radio and in-store promotion.

Ray Charles LP Turns Gold

NEW YORK—Ray Charles' album, "A Man And His Soul," has been certified as a million dollar seller by the Record Industry Association of America. The 2-disk LP recently received a heavy promotion from ABC Records, and the package contains some of Charles' best known recordings.

THE MORAY EELS EAT THE HOLY MODAL ROUNDERS—Elektra EKS 74026

The Holy Modal Rounders' first Elektra album is a wild, psychedelic mindblower that just might catch on and establish the group as an aggregation to be reckoned with, especially in underground areas. The Rounders take the listener on a 13-track tour of their freaky universe, using strange electronic effects throughout to heighten the sense of eeriness that pervades the album. Give it a listen.

THE CLANCY BROTHERS AND TOMMY MAKEM SING OF THE SEA—Columbia CS 9658

Here's an album of songs of the sea performed with zest and gusto by the Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem. The spirited selections include "Congo River," "Farewell To Carlingford," "The Good Ship Calibar," and "Threescore And Ten." The quartet's enthusiasm is highly infectious, and this LP could capture the approval of a great many listeners.

Jazz Picks

PUTTIN' IT TOGETHER—New Elvin Jones Trio—Blue Note BST 84282

The New Elvin Jones Trio offers seven jazz sessions, in styles ranging from brisk and bustling to low-keyed and serene. The Trio consists of Joe Farrell, tenor sax, soprano sax, and flute; Jimmy Garrison, bass; and Jones, drums. The tunes include "Reza," "Sweet Little Maia," "Village Greene," and "For Heaven's Sake." This LP should see fast action in jazz circles.

MIDNIGHT CREEPER—Lou Donaldson—Blue Note BST 84280

Alto saxist Lou Donaldson, assisted by Blue Mitchell (trumpet), George Benson (guitar), Lonnie Smith (organ), and Leo Morris (drums), comes across with a lot of groovy sounds on this LP. "Midnight Creeper" and "Elizabeth" (both written by Donaldson) are two of the highlights. Donaldson did well with his "Alligator Boogaloo" LP, and he should do well with this one, too.

Classical Picks

MAHLER: SYMPHONY NO. 1—Frank Brieff/New Haven Symphony Orchestra—Odyssey 32 16 0286

This record has already been the subject of much discussion in classical circles. In 1899, Gustav Mahler's publisher persuaded the composer that his Symphony No. 1 was too long. Mahler removed the "Blumine" movement, a seven minute and forty second "andante allegretto." Now the movement has been unearthed, and the New Haven Orchestra, under the direction of Frank Brieff, includes it in their performance of the symphony. The "Blumine" movement is charming and may well become universally accepted.

BERLIOZ: REQUIEM—Charles Munch/Bayerischen Rundfunks Chorus and Symphony Orchestra/Peter Schrier—Deutsche Grammophon 139 264/65

Charles Munch leads the Bayerischen Rundfunks Chorus and Symphony Orchestra through an excellent rendering of Hector Berlioz' "Requiem" on this 2-record set. Peter Schrier is the featured tenor. The "Requiem" is a magnificent work, sometimes almost frightening in its grandeur. Many classical listeners will undoubtedly want to add this fine set to their collections.

One Stop Exec: Only Money-makers Seem Aware of Gospel Sales Power

MILWAUKEE—"Too many people in the trade tend to underestimate the importance of gospel record sales," commented Ruby Ginsburg, manager of the gospel department of Radio Doctors, Wisconsin's largest one stop. "Of course, certain gospel artists have made tremendous inroads into the pop and LP fields, but, for the most part, only specialty labels are involved in production and distribution of gospel product.

Some of the leading gospel labels are Savoy, Gospel, Nashboro, Crescent, Hob, Peacock, Song and Checker. Latter label, part of the Chess complex in Chicago, has recently entered the gospel field in a big way.

Radio Doctor is currently stocking over 300 LP's and 2000 singles to service 50-75% of the black-operated record stores, clubs and taverns. Ginsburg credits Michael Mower, the firm's buyer, with a keen insight into the field and a strong rapport with local dj's. The firm employs 8 full-time and 3 part-time employees at its two locations in downtown Milwaukee, with one store in the core of the black area.

Shapiro, UA Music In Pubbery Deal

NEW YORK—United Artists Music has secured rights to coordinate and administer the various worldwide publishing interests of Nat Shapiro. The deal also calls for Shapiro to act as a consultant to UA with regard to the firms involved, and to acquire new composing, writing, and production talent for the publishing firms, which include Justinian (BMI) and Beaujolais (ASCAP).

Included in the catalogs involved are the score of "Hair," the current 'off-Broadway - to-on - Broadway' smash; material from popular French composer-arranger-conductor Michel Le-Grand, whose "Theme From 'The Thomas Crown Affair' (The Windmills Of Your Mind)" is the current top UA plug song; and a number of tunes from French composer/singer Jacques Brel.

Shapiro, who headed up the international department of Columbia Records until two years ago, has been successful as a consultant to various companies, as the operator of his own publishing and production interests, and as the author of a series of books on music, records, and personalities in these fields.

Radio Doctors Customer

market, especially the Staple Singers, but on the whole, the only people aware of the gospel market are the ones making money in it." Ginsburg pointed out that there are at least 100 top artists whose latest releases are eagerly sought, both in the single

Doors Lighting Again

NEW YORK—"Light My Fire" by the Doors, which, according to Elektra Records national promotion director Steve Harris, has become a catalog single and has been 'constantly selling' since its chart topping stint last year, is seeing even heavier sales activity in recent weeks.

Apparently a reaction to the success of Jose Feliciano's version, the Doors' cut has been receiving increasing play and listener requests in several cities, especially on the West Coast and in the Southwest. Another factor may be their new "Waiting For The Sun" LP, which was a recent chart topper and has spurred sales of the first two Doors albums.

McKuen Writes 14 Songs For Sinatra LP

HOLLYWOOD—Reprise Records has set a November release date for a Frank Sinatra album comprised solely of songs by Rod McKuen. McKuen has written 14 songs for the set, which will mark the first time Sinatra has recorded a collection of one composer's material (although various labels have 'lifted' tracks to simulate a collection in the past) and the first time an album of songs has been especially written for him. The set will be recorded in Hollywood within the next few weeks under the supervision of McKuen and Sonny Burke.

'Barbarella' Track To DynoVoice

NEW YORK—Dyno Voice Records has set an October 9th release date for its deluxe soundtrack album from "Barbarella," the Jane Fonda flick based on the adult French comic strip. Bob Crewe produced the album and collaborated on the score with Charlie Fox.

This marks the first film assignment for Crewe, well-known indie producer and chairman of the board of the Crewe Group Of Companies, a diversified entertainment complex which owns DynoVoice (dist. by Dot Records) as well as another label, three publishing firms and record, film and TV production firms.

Two Crewe groups, the Glitterhouse and the Bob Crewe Generation Orchestra, provide the music and featured songs on the "Barbarella" soundtrack. Crewe himself is a featured singer on "An Angel In Love," heard over the final credits, his first vocal since his long-time-back "Wiffenpoof Song" hit single. "An Angel In Love" will be released as a single by DynoVoice, as will a disk by the Glitterhouse.

UA Music Pushing 'Hang 'Em High'

NEW YORK—United Artists Music is currently conducting an all-out drive for single and album recordings of the Dominic Frontiere-composed theme and background score for the United Artists flick, "Hang 'Em High."

"Hang 'Em High" is the fourth in a series of UA westerns starring Clint Eastwood. The music from the other flicks, "A Fistful Of Dollars," "For A Few Dollars For More" and "The Good, The Bad And The Ugly" produced lots of disk action.

Frontiere composed the themes for the successful television series "The Invaders," "The Flying Nun," and "That Girl." He is also associate producer and composer of the theme for "The Name Of The Game," a new television series. Frontiere is scheduled to be in New York soon to commence scoring background and theme material for "Popi," a new UA picture which will star Alan Arkin.

Among the new recordings of "Hang 'Em High" is Hugo Montenegro's single on RCA. Montenegro is just coming off his smash single of "Theme From 'The Good, The Bad, And The Ugly'." A new album by the maestro-arranger titled "Hang 'Em High" is currently on the charts.

United Artists Records has the original soundtrack, which is on the charts, as well as a single by composer Frontiere. Veteran music man and sound specialist Enoch Light has already cut an album version on his Project 3 label, and a single by him is due out immediately.

An upcoming single by Booker T on the Stax label is also due. In addition the artist is recording an album which will contain "Hang 'Em High."

Cy Walter Dead At 53

NEW YORK—On Sunday, August 18, cancer claimed the life of Cy Walter, cocktail pianist. Walter, who died in Mount Sinai Hospital, was 53 years old.

The pianist performed at the Drake Room of the Drake Hotel at 56th Street and Park Avenue from 1945 to 1951 and from 1959 until two weeks ago.

Walter started his career in New York in 1934 with Eddie Lane's orchestra. He began playing in supper clubs four years later. When the Ruban Bleu opened, he formed a piano team with Gil Bowers and played there. He then moved onto Number One Fifth Avenue, subsequently into the Broadway musical, "Very Warm For May."

Walter had his own radio show and his own orchestra at La Martinique, and opened his own club, Cy Walter's Night Cap.

He was a member of the American Guild of Authors and Composers and the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

Walter is survived by his mother, his widow, the former Cam Stevens, a son, Mark, two daughters, Victoria and Daphne, and a brother, Ray.

Second Soul Concert On Randall's Island

NEW YORK—On Saturday, August 31, producer Teddy Powell will present his second soul music concert of the season at Randall's Island.

In addition to headliners Stevie Wonder, Wilson Pickett and Sam & Dave, the show will feature B. B. King, Arthur Conley, Big Maybelle and the Mirettes with the Johnny K Orchestra.

Tickets for the show, which will run from 7 PM to about midnight are priced $5 for stands and $6 for field seats. Free parking is provided as is public bus transportation from 125th Street and Lexington Avenue.

Earlier this summer, Powell, who is president of the National Association of Producers and Promoters, presented a soul festival and the noted Jazz Festival at the same Downing Stadium on Randall's Island.

JERRY FULLER (left) is presented with a Viva "gold penner" award for delivering two consecutive #1 singles for the firm. Fuller wrote the Union Gap's "Young Girl" and "Lady Willpower" hits (he also produced them.) Delivering the plaque is Viva's executive vice president Ed Silvers. Commenting on the publishing firm's current hot-streak, Silvers noted that Viva had thus far scored in '68 with "Summertime Blues" via the Blue Cheer, the Union Gap's singles, "Turn Around Look at Me" from the Vogues and Ed Ames' "Apologize." This week, the Vogues have come out with their "Turn Around" followup, another Viva selection, "My Special Angel."

"What are my chances of winning? I'm trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent. That's why I probably won't win!"

A Statement from E. RODNEY JONES, President and DEL SHIELDS, Executive Secretary

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF TELEVISION AND RADIO ANNOUNCERS

As President and Executive Secretary of the National Association of Television and Radio Announcers, we wish to express our grateful thanks to members of the broadcasting and record industries who by their participation and attendance made the recently concluded Convention of NATRA in Miami, Florida, the largest and the most successful in the brief history of our organization.

There were imperfections, and we appreciate your tolerance; we did make every effort to meet the high standards and requirements of our professional industries.

We could not have accomplished any of our ambitious program without the help of those record companies who sponsored the various functions: Atlantio, Columbia, RCA, MGM/Venture, ABC Paramount, Capitol, Buddah, Decca, Chess, Minit-Veep, Duke-Peacock, Stax Volt, Motown, Uni, and their able staffs who assisted us.

The Convention staff who once again rose to the challenge and through their diligence kept the day to day machinery moving: Wally Amos, John Rosica, Herb Campbell, Phyllis Branford, Novella Smith, Bea Elmore, Effie Smith, Delta Ashby, Isadora Drayton, Greg Moses, Chuck Spellman, Jim Hunter, Mari Jo Johnson, Dolores Burrell, Bernard Drayton and Mayme Bondu of the Miami Convention Bureau.

To John Criner, Producer of the Public Show and Irene Johnson, Coordinator of the Gospel Show, we are especially thankful. Although for the first time, NATRA felt the backlash of putting on shows in an area torn by recent racial unrest, we, nonetheless, felt obligated to present the best acts, aware that our usual attendance was destined to fall far short of our average . . . which they did.

We are especially grateful to Mayme Bondu of the Miami Convention Bureau who assisted us in the selection of the Sheraton-Four Ambassadors, the Dupont Plaza and Everglades Hotels to house our Convention following the refusal of the Marco Polo Hotel to accept NATRA. If there is any validity to the American dream, it is that there are people who believe or have a sense of rightness, and it was primarily through Mrs. Bondu's efforts that NATRA was able to keep the site of the Convention in Miami.

There are many, many others we could single out for praise and grateful thanks. They are the behind-the-scenes workers who care little for the spotlight and cherish only the completion of a job well done.

We are thankful for the appearance at our Convention of such leading executive figures in our industry as Larry Newton of ABC Records, Jerry Wexler of Atlantic Records, Norman Racussin of RCA Records, Larry Utall of Amy-Mala Records, Stanley Gortikov of Capitol Records, Don Englander of Columbia Records, Dave Kapralick and Len Levy of Epic Records, Al Bell of Stax Volt Records, Don Robey of Duke-Peacock Records, Neil Bogart of Buddah Records, Lenny Salidor and Frank Mancini of Decca Records, Mort Nasiter of MGM Records and Florence Greenberg of Scepter Records. Their appearance can certainly be interpreted as support for the NATRA program.

Our sincere thanks also go to our speakers: State Representative Julian Bond of Atlanta Georgia, Congressman John Conyers (Dem.-Michigan), Andrew Carter, President and General Manager of KPRS Radio—Kansas City, FCC Commissioner Nicholas Johnson, The Hon. Stephen Clark, Mayor of Miami and Mrs. Athalie Raines, Commissioner of the City of Miami . . . as well as to our V.I.P.'s: Mrs. Coretta King, Bill Cosby, Godfrey Cambridge, Aretha Franklin, Mrs. Wes Montgomery, Nina Simone, The Four Tops, Marvin Gaye, Flip Wilson (a most welcomed surprise guest), Rev. Jesse L. Jackson, Billy Eckstine and Dr. Earl C. Jackson who made our Convention sparkle with the brilliancy of their attendance.

The purpose of the Convention is to bring together our members at an annual meeting to exchange greetings, renew friendships, take inventory, renew our pledges to re-dedicate ourselves to the purposes of our organization and to leave feeling that the four day meeting has brought us closer together as individuals dedicated to caring for the stated program.

When an organization is growing and there is an awareness of the magnitude of our goals, it is expected that when progress is being made there would be opposition. Whitney Young, Director of the National Urban League, stated earlier this year . . . "It is painful for an organization to change, but it is fatal if an organization does not change." NATRA welcomes change, but the change must come about through the orderly processes of democratic procedures. Since the inception of the New Breed, NATRA has done the following:

- a. It has become chartered as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of New York,
- b. It has been granted Tax Exemption status by the Internal Revenue Service,
- c. It has set up legal scholarship funds,
- d. It has established Group Life Insurance for each member, regular and associate, for $3,000,
- e. It has become a member and fully supports the following programs—

—President's Council On Youth Opportunity

"Stay In School"

National Entertainment Committee for Youth Opportunity [Summer Program]

—NAACP Pupil Incentive Program

—Sound Of Youth, Inc.

—Governor Nelson Rockefeller's Committee on Minority Employment Opportunities in News Media.

In addition, it has submitted a proposal to the United States Department of Labor for a program for "Job Recruitment And Placement Of Disadvantaged Youth." And finally, NATRA's concern with the future of our industries and the recruitment of qualified personnel to work in the broadcasting and record industries was proven by the proposal presented by Dr. Earl C. Jackson for a school, The NATRA Institute Of Broadcasting Science, to train and develop potentially qualified black and white personnel. The presentation of the proposal was made on Saturday morning, August 18th at the Presidents' Breakfast.

NATRA is always aware of change and is willing to listen to legal and legitimate proposals from allied organizations and as such, offered an opportunity to AFTRA (American Federation of Television and Radio Announcers) to discuss with the Board the possibility of our support to unionize NATRA members. The same courtesy extended AFTRA NATRA was willing to offer any other legitimate organization willing to abide by the rules and regulations of NATRA. Because we are a democratic organization attempting to make changes in our industries through legal democratic processes, we were unaware and totally unprepared for outside forces whose purposes may have been legitimate but who failed to observe the sophistication of change through majority rule. That these outside forces may have allegedly intimidated individual members and guests and failed to observe protocol which has led to many unfounded rumors and possible fears is most regretful. NATRA has not been taken over nor will it ever be taken over by any force that seeks change without submitting their program through the democratic process of change by majority rule. NATRA stands willing and ready to welcome investigation or inspection of its books, financial records, minutes, daily or weekly reports and all operational procedures by the Federal Communications Commission, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the National Association of Broadcasters and any other judicial or professional organization and we hope that those who seek change through intimidation and force will make their organization available for such inspection.

NATRA is a public relations service organization that seeks to promote an exchange of information and experiences to create a healthy climate of opinion among organizations and individuals who are primarily concerned with

—Communications—Phonograph Record Production—Radio and TV Stations—Advertising Agencies—News Media

NATRA's functions are wholly educational and professional. It is a non-profit organization whose revenues are derived from membership dues, promotions and other activities directly related to the industries involved.

NATRA membership is open to persons and organizations from the fields of record manufacturing, Radio and TV stations, Advertising Agencies, News Media and creative groups directly related to the field of entertainment and communications.

In an address delivered to the 1967 Convention of NATRA, Dr. Martin Luther King said . . . "I have come to appreciate the role the radio announcer plays in the life of our people. For better or for worse you are opinion makers in the community and it is important that you remain aware of the power which is potential in your vocation. The masses of Americans who have been denied and deprived educational and economic opportunity are almost totally dependent on radio as their means of relating to the society at large. They are the thousands of people who have come to feel that life is a long and desolate corridor with no exit signs."

NATRA does not intend to be intimidated or coerced or threatened but to live and grow as an organization that seeks to add a vital voice to answer the needs of blacks and concerned whites in the broadcasting and record industries.

CBS 1st Half Profit Below Last Year's

NEW YORK—First half earnings of 96 cents a share, down from $1.01 a year earlier, were reported by Columbia Broadcasting System.

1968 first half earnings were $23.0 million, falling off from 1967 first half earnings of $25.1 million. Sales were up to $448.1 million from $434.5 million.

William S. Paley, chairman, and Frank Stanton, president blamed the Federal income tax surcharge for the drop in first half profits, stating that 1968 first half earnings without allowance for the tax surcharge would have been $1.06 a share.

Start-up costs incurred in forming a division to produce movie films for theatres also hurt earnings, said Paley and Stanton. In addition, reasons cited for the decline of first half profits were the formation of another division to market electronic video recording devices, and the change of four CBS radio outlets (out of the company's total of 14 AM and FM stations) to an all-news format.

Acquisition of W. B. Saunderson Co., a medical publisher, was approved by Saunderson's directors and shareholders and by CBS directors, according to Paley and Stanton. CBS said that closing is subject to Internal Revenue Service rulings.

HOUSTON, TEXAS—Singer Joe Hinton, who recorded for Duke-Peacock Records' Backbeat label, died on August 13 at 4:00 A.M. of natural causes in the New England Deaconess Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts. Hinton is remembered for his hit recording of "Funny."

Ampex Reports Record 1st Qtr.

REDWOOD CITY, CAL.—The Ampex Corporation achieved record first quarter orders, sales and earnings in the three months ended July 27, according to William E. Roberts, president and chief executive officer.

Roberts said new orders received were up 40 percent, and earnings before taxes, amounting to $4,592,000, were up 31 percent over the first quarter of last year.

Net earnings after taxes were up 20 percent, totaling $2,485,000, or 26 cents per share on 9,638,457 average shares outstanding, compared with $2,072,000 or 22 cents per share on 9,562,368 shares. Net earnings after taxes would have increased 28 percent had the 10 percent federal surtax not been imposed.

Sales for the first quarter totaled $58,976,000, up 12 percent from $52,749,000 in the similar period last year.

Beatles Bio Book Is Covered

NEW YORK—McGraw Hill's "The Beatles: The Authorized Biography," by Hunter Davies, based on long-term conversations with the foursome, has run into competition from a G. P. Putnam "quickie," "The Beatles: The Real Story," by Julius Fast. McGraw-Hill paid out a $150,000 advance to Davies, who has an exclusive contract with the Beatles stipulating that he will be the only author to hear their stories, and has already sold paperback rights (to Dell) and book club rights (to the Literary Guild). Their 375 page book retails for $6.95, while Putnam's 252 pager goes for $5.95. The Putnam book contains several chapters analyzing the group's musical contributions, something they claim is absent from the Davies book.

Both books have gone on sale ahead of schedule and the firms claim they are already receiving reorders. McGraw expects sales over 100,000 units, while Putnam's goal is 50,000 copies.

Other VMC artists included in the GRT tape deal include Dennis Olivieri, Gene Page, the David, and Tony Harris.

RCA Ties Red Rubber Band

NEW YORK—Willie and the Red Rubber Band, a West Texas quintet discovered by Duke Niles, has been signed by RCA Records. Their debut single, cut by Niles for his D-N Productions at the Norm Petty studios in New Mexico, is "I'll Stay With You" b/w "Little Old Clockmaker," and is skedded for immediate release. An album from the group is slated for October.

OPENING THE VAULT—Brazilian songstress Anna Margarida completes the signing of a new recording contract which brings her to the Vault label as part of the label's current expansion program. She also studied harmony and composition and has written several songs, two of which are to be included in her first LP release with Vault. With her at the contract table are: v.p. Ralph Kappel (left) and Jack Lawerke, president. Lawerke also announced Vault plans to release several albums in the coming weeks featuring Sam Fletcher, the Chambers Brothers, the Mojo Men, Tikis and Beau Brummels.

Adams Joins ITCC

NEW YORK—Paul E. Adams has joined the International Tape Cartridge Corporation as director of planning and development. The announcement was made last week by James J. Elkins, the firm's president.

Prior to joining ITCC, Adams spent seven years with Capitol Records, Inc. in various executive positions, his most recent being eastern special products manager.

Adams' experience includes the presidency and partial ownership of Merrill and Cote, Inc., an auto parts distributor, and a staff management position with Lockheed Aircraft Corporation.

Adams graduated Magna Cum Laude from Boston University in 1959 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Economics. He furthered his education at Boston University Graduate School where he earned a Masters of Business Administration Degree.

Adams now resides at 60 Mountain View Road, Demarest, N. J. with his wife, Dorrance and two children, Steven (10 years) and Scott (6 years).

United Tape Corp. Going 'On The Wagon'

HOLLYWOOD—United Tape Corp. will soon be peddling tape from a fleet of trucks, fully stocked with tape product. They'll be calling on UTC's accounts, supplementing the distributor's regular service. "It'll be very much like the Good Humor Wagons," says UTC's president Ralph Kaffel. "But instead of ice cream, we'll be offering the cream of the various tape catalogs."

UTC was formed in October of 1965 as the first "ALL TAPE" distributor in Southern California. This was before the 4 & 8 track cartridge became the giant factor in the tape industry. UTC started with reel to reel product, was appointed distributor for Pete Fabri's Musietapes, Ampex, Stereotape; and acted as sub-distributor for Columbia, RCA Victor, Decca and Capitol. Reels initial volume in October and November of 1965 was approximately $15,000 monthly. UTC's first employee was tape veteran, Frank Donovan, who acted as sales manager, buyer, etc.

In December of 1965, UTC went into cartridge product, added personnel and did $35,000 in billing.

Since that time, UTC more than kept pace with the growth of the tape industry. Bob Gerstlauer, who was sales manager of California Record Distributors/Hitsville, Inc. (UTC's affiliate companies) was appointed General Manager of UTC. Tony Jacobs and Bill Metz were added to assist Frank Donovan in full time tape sales.

UTC performed multilateral functions, operating as a tape one-stop, rack-jobber, distributor, etc. performing whatever functions a specific customer required, such as providing fixtures, pre-ticketing and pre-pricing merchandise with tear-off tags, etc. UTC wound up its fiscal year ending September 1966 with sales in excess of a half-million.

October of 1966 to September of 1967 was an expansion year for UTC. Its warehouse was enlarged to handle reel-to-reel, 8 track, 4 track and cassette product. Walter Gans, a veteran of 20 years in the rack business joined UTC as operations warehouse manager. UTC's warehouse and shipping staff was expanded to four employees. UTC more than doubled its 1966 sales in fiscal 1967.

Even though the industry emphasis has largely been on 4 & 8 track cartridge product, UTC's sales of reel-to-reel & cassette product are stronger than ever. Some of UTC's customers are exclusively reel-to-reel accounts.

In 1968, UTC added more salesmen to its outside sales force, bringing the total of field salesmen to six. Warehouse & shipping personnel were increased to six.

UTC currently services record stores, tape retailers, auto radio stores, camera stores, High Fidelity Stores, lease departments in chain stores, department stores, auto supply stores, etc. UTC stresses versatility in service.

UTC projects its billing for fiscal year ending September 1968 to once more double the previous year's.

UTC's warehouse is located at 2525 W. Ninth Street in Los Angeles, a company-owned building which also houses Merit Distributing Corp., (distributors of Ateo, Atlantic, Stax/Volt and Mainstream) Hitsville, Inc., (distributors of Tamla, Motown, Gordy and Soul) California Record Distributors (distributors of Amy-Mala-Bell, Chess-Checker-Cadet, Uni-Revue, Fantasy-Galaxy, The Everest Group and Other Labels), all affiliated companies.

The warehouse has been again enlarged about six months ago and currently houses approximately $500,000 in tape inventory. UTC feels this is by far the largest and most complete stock of all configurations of tape product in Southern California.

UTC's executive personnel are Ralph Kaffel—president, Jack Lewerke—vice president, Bob Gerstlauer, executive V. P. and general manager, and Frank Donovan, sales manager. Mrs. Maxine Karrell, until recently the tape buyer for Jim Schwartz's District Records of Washington D.C. has just joined UTC as Bob Gerstlauer's assistant.

Mendelsohn Named VP At Mark Century

NEW YORK—The Mark Century Corp., a radio & TV production service firm, has added vet broadcast exec Herb Mendelsohn to the firm as vice president. In making the announcement, Milton Herson, Mark Century president stated that Mendelsohn's responsibilities will encompass all of the activities of the firm, including working in conjunction with Marvin Kempner, president of Mark Century Sales, and in new product development and station liaison. Mark Century serves more than 500 radio and TV outlets.

Mendelsohn, most recently president of Bartell Broadcasters, also served stints with WMCA—New York and WKBW—Buffalo, in both cases holding the post of vice president and general manager. As part of his new position, Mendelsohn assumes the position of president of Century Broadcasting Group, which is now operating WFEA, a 5,000 watt full-time facility in Manchester, New Hampshire.

Orlando New A/B G.P.M.

NEW YORK — April/Blackwood Music, the autonomous CBS Records publishing and production subsid, has named Tony Orlando as general professional manager. Orlando, who started his music business career as a successful singer, was most recently affiliated with Robbins-Feist-Miller as assistant to the professional manager and was associated with the firm's production company. Prior to that, he was associated with the Nevins-Kirshner operation in numerous capacities.

In making the announcement, Neil Anderson, vice president and general manager of the firm, stated "We are certain that Mr. Orlando's experience and talent will prove a great asset to April/Blackwood and Daylight Productions in continuing the remarkable success in all types of music which we have had thus far in 1968."

Daylight Productions, the newly-formed indie production wing, has scored with several disks by Billy Vera and Judy Clay (including "Storybook Children"), a solo outing by Vera, "With Pen In Hand," and is currently grooming staff writer Margo Guryan, whose first album will be released shortly by the Bell organization. In addition to the Vera-Clay disks, the pub firm itself has scored with "Sunday Morning" by Spanky & Our Gang and "Angel Of The Morning," a Top 5 smash by Merrilee Rush, among others.

Those in the April/Blackwood organization who will be reporting to Orlando include Al Kasha, West Coast professional manager; Jack Grady, Nashville and Memphis professional manager; Chip Taylor, associate professional manager; and Jim Fragale, of the New York professional staff.

Tony Orlando

Sunbury/Dunbar's 1st Yr.: 'Ahead of Sked'

NEW YORK—A combination of foreign copyrights and development of home-grown talent have been responsible for the growth of RCA's year-old Sunbury/Dunbar music publishing subsids into a force in the industry "more than a year ahead of schedule," according to Joe D'Imperio, division vice president, music publishing and talent services.

In reviewing the first full year of operation, D'Imperio said, "Gerry Teifer (S/D president) and his staff are to be congratuated on their accomplishments in such a short time."

Teifer gives much credit to the extensive catalogs of RCA's foreign based companies and to the important composers under contract to them. "Who Will Answer?," a Spanish copyright by L. E. Aute, originally known as "Aleluya No. 1," was given English lyrics by Sheila Davis and became a pop hit for Ed Ames, a C&W hit for Hank Snow (both on RCA) and an R&B hit by the Hesitations on Kapp.

From the Mexican catalog came the song "Esta Tarde Vi Llover" by Armando Manzanero which was combined with English lyrics by Gene Lees to become the Tony Bennett single, "Yesterday I Heard The Rain," now the title song of his new album on Columbia.

Nilsson Scoring

Dunbar's domestic home run at the moment is Harry Nilsson, who has had several chart successes as a writer and is now scoring as an artist with "Everybody's Talkin'" on the single charts and "Aerial Ballet" on the album charts. Nilsson's writing hits include "Ten Little Indians" by the Yardbirds; "Without Her" by Jack Jones; and "The Story Of Rock And Roll" by the Turtles. He is currently completing the scoring of the soon-to-be-released Otto Preminger film, "Skidoo," starring Jackie Gleason and Carol Channing in which he also appears as an actor and sings on the soundtrack.

Teifer stated that the signing of several important writers to exclusive contracts will be announced shortly and that the firm is actively seeking material by independent writers.

John Mahan was recently appointed to the post of associate professional manager, responsible for supervising West Coast operations and Teifer stated that he was currently studying the possibility of establishing an office in Nashville. Vet music publishing figure Eddie Deane is general professional manager of both firms.

"Experience has shown that it is good business to have a production arm," Teifer said, "and our newly-formed Sunbar Productions will be producing product for all labels."

N. Y. Confab For Int'l Music Council

NEW YORK—On September 9, the Sixth International Congress of the International Music Council and the Eighth Congress of the International Association of Music Libraries will meet in New York. Attending the gathering will be more than 400 delegates from 46 countries representing every facet of music creation, education, and performance.

Cosponsored by the National Music Council of the United States and the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO, the conference has as its theme, "Music and Communication." Its meetings will coincide with those of the Music Critics Association. Speakers and panelists representing all musical disciplines will explore the challenges that affect all aspects of music throughout the world. Various seminars will investigate such areas as: the impact of communications media on music; directions in oriental and occidental music; and future audience for serious and light music; the influence of background music on public taste; developments in the technology of recording; new techniques in electronic amplification; and the sound of things to come. The chairman of the Congress will be Luther Evans, former director-general of UNESCO.

The opening luncheon will be held at the Plaza Hotel on September 9 and, after three days of sessions in New York, the Congress will move to Washington, D.C. for the balance of the week for additional meetings at the Library of Congress. Such topics will be covered as the preservation of musical cultures, the role of the university in musical education, copyright and communications, and the role of government, foundations and business in the patronage of music.

In addition to meetings of the IMC General Assembly and the various forums and panel discussions that have been scheduled—most of which will be held at Lincoln Center and in the auditorium of the Barbizon-Plaza—the delegates will be invited to a series of concerts and receptions at the Whitney Museum, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and Philharmonic Hall. The schedule in Washington includes receptions and concerts at the Smithsonian Institution, the Library of Congress, and the Pan American Union.

Among those scheduled to speak or to preside at panel discussions are composers Peter Mennin, president of the National Music Council, Milton Babbitt, Elliott Carter, Aaron Copland, Lou Harrison, Ernst Krenek, Harry Partch, Gunther Schuller, and Ravi Shankar. Other panelists will include Dr. Mahdi Elmandjra, assistant director-general for social sciences, human sciences and culture for UNESCO; Goddard Lieberman, CBS/Columbia Group; Norman Racusin, RCA Victor; Harold Spivacke, chief of the music division of the Library of Congress; Abraham L. Kaminstein, register of copyrights; and Roger L. Stevens, chairman of the National Endowment On The Arts. Oliver Daniel, a vice-president of BMI, and a member of the National Commission for UNESCO, is chairman of the planning committee.

This is the first IMC Congress to meet in the United States. Previous meetings, held biennially, were held in Paris in 1958 and 1960; Rome in 1962; Hamburg in 1964; and Rotterdam in 1966.

The International Music Council, with headquarters in Paris, was created 19 years ago to strengthen cooperation among national organizations, to foster study of the social and economic status of musicians, to assist professional and amateur musical societies, to facilitate the dissemination of musical works and the exchange of musicians and musical groups, and to encourage international cooperation through the advancement of world culture.

NOTABLES, Speakers and entertainers, at the recent Los Angeles full-time promotion seminar held by Decca Records are shown above in a series of photos just received from the convention. The early-August conference was keynoted by the address of MCA labels chief Bill Gallagher (left); and others who spoke to the gathered national promotion staff included Berle Adams (far left), MCA executive Herb Steinberg (center) and Frank Mancini (right), MCA promo exec. The massed promotion team is shown in the second row at the Universal City lot on one of the sightseeing ventures undertaken during the stay. Jean Peloquin, Barbara Acklin and group performers the Irish Rovers and the Poor were on hand to load the stage with talent at the meet.

FOCUS ON JAZZ

MORT FEGA

It's listed as The World Series of Jazz and it took place in New York City on the nights of August 17th and 18th on Randall's Island in the East River, just below the Triboro Bridge. The participants were Dizzy Gillespie, Miles Davis, Shirley Scott and Stanley Turrentine, Ahmad Jamal, Irene Reid, and Ray Charles. Eddie Harris was to have appeared but the report was that he was hospitalized and unable to appear. This was the line-up for the show of the 17th, which got under way about an hour and a quarter late, but, once under way, proceeded with relative smoothness, as jazz festivals have been known to go.

It grieves me to report that Dizzy's set was quite pedestrian, almost as though the guys couldn't wait to finish their set and get back downtown to The Village Gate, where they were appearing. Perhaps the apparent lack of enthusiasm was due to the fact that Diz and the guys were the opening act. The one bright spot of the set was the vigorous and imaginative playing of James Moody. Dizzy sang a ballad, something that seemed inappropriate to the setting of a jazz festival. Then, too, it's difficult for me to get used to the sound of Paul West's electric bass.

Miles came onstage looking especially slim and he and his quintet played an exciting set, flavored more with outside music than we are accustomed to hearing from Miles Davis. I was especially gassed by the drums of young Tony Williams, who has the extraordinary talent of wedding his avant-garde conception with that of the rest of the group and making it work. In essence, for those who hadn't heard Miles and his group in a little while this set must have been something of a revelation.

Shirley Scott and husband Stanley Turrentine and drummer Tony Calender were heard next and for the first time during the evening the audience began to rock and give physical evidence of being turned on. Shirley's playing is so solid and, when coupled with the sound of Stanley's tenor sets up an irresistible audience response. Nothing fancy here, just straight ahead, foot tapping, hand clapping music, the kind that makes an audience part of what's happening on stage.

Comedian Irwin Watson was next to be heard and his arrival was very well timed. He's a very funny man and his particular brand of humor fit the audience like a hand in a glove. Having someone like Watson on the program was a masterful stroke of programming.

I believe that Ahmad Jamal turned a lot of heads around with his set! The togetherness of Jamal's trio was absolutely frightening and the audience was acutely aware that they were witnessing something very special this Saturday night. Ahmad and his fellows swung so hard, and in the midst of all this swining, remained so well disciplined that it must have made many in the audience ask, "Why can't all jazz groups be this together?" Jamal, bassist Jamil Nasser and drummer Frank Gant covered themselves with glory at The New York Jazz Festival.

To come onstage after Jamal's triumph and before the arrival of the star of the evening, Ray Charles, is a very tough nut to crack and one that not too many performers could make come off. But my hat is off to Irene Reid, who, though it took her a little while to do so, finally put the audience in her pocket. The closing number of her set was an amalgamation of all the familiar blues that one could ever remember, an extended rendition that brought the audience to its feet, begging for more. Considering the fact that Irene was a late addition to the program, one who didn't enjoy the best of the advertising that heralded the concert, she really did herself proud, something that's been due her for too long a time.

Ray Charles is Ray Charles and what better way to bring an evening of jazz to a conclusion. It had been some time since I'd seen Ray perform so I was ready for him to turn me around and turn me around he did. If possible, I found him to be even greater than I had remembered him, and my recollection of Ray Charles was that he was the best, and now, in my book, he's even better than that.

An unforeseen event prevented me from attending the Sunday night show but all reports about it were first-rate. From the show I attended I was left with two very strong impressions: the performance of Ahmad Jamal and his trio and the singing of Irene Reid.

Irene Reid: Stardust All Over Her

I want to devote the balance of this column to Irene Reid, who, unless I miss my guess, is at the threshold of making it big. I fail to see how someone with a talent like Irene's can miss, even though her star has been a long time below the horizon. One would think that a tenure with Count Basie's band plus two albums, and good ones, with a major label would have brought Irene farther along the road to recognition. But here is a classic case of an artist being victimized by a lack of promotion on the part of the record company which holds her under contract. The story is that MGM-Verve, upon learning that one of Irene's sides was getting some attention of the West Coast, wanted to record her again, only to learn that she had failed to pick up Irene's option. Irene has, since the expiration of that option, signed with Hy Weiss, who did such a wonderful job of making Arthur Prysock a headliner. Irene has a brand new album on Hy Weiss' new label, Barry Records; the album is titled, "I've Been Here All The Time," which is just what I'm talking about because Irene has been here all the time and not enough people know about her. I was talking to her while she was waiting to go on last Saturday night and I asked her if she was still feeling good about making it. She hastened to assure me that she knew she was going to make it, and her tone seemed to suggest that she realized that the dues she has been paying during her wait was all part of the game and could only make her a better performer and more ready for stardom when it did come to pass. And she didn't register the slightest doubt that she was going to make it! Very enthusiastically she told me about her new record and her new affiliation with Hy Weiss, and this was told to me as an old friend; I don't think Irene knows that I write a column for a music magazine. Even if she did, she wouldn't put me on, we're that good friends.

Credit for Arranger Bert DeCoteaux

Having listened to her new Barry album, I can understand her enthusiasm. It's a groove and much of the credit for its success must go to Bert DeCoteaux, who did a masterful job of arranging for Irene. Bert's job is particularly noteworthy because he has incorporated so many colors and moods in his charts. As a consequence we're privileged to hear Miss Reid in myriad settings, each one showcasing her special brand of talent. She belts, she purrs, she cries, she tells her story! Irene has an abundance of soul, humor, warmth, tenderness, audacity and all the other characteristics that only the great ones possess.

I generally desist from making comparisons but I can't resist this time, and I'm sure that Irene will accept my comparison as the great compliment for which it is intended. The late Dinah Washington was one of my favorite singers and the void she left has been too long unfilled. Well, I believe the public should be ready for Irene Reid, who is, undoubtedly, the one to pick it up where Dinah left it off. I can't forecast that Irene's new album will be the one to pop her over, but I can promise you that it's a step in the right direction. There's a tune in the album called, "I Must Be Doing Something Right"; about Irene Reid I'd say she must be doing a lot of things right!

UNI-FIRE — Mars Bonfire (with beard) is shown completing his recently signed contract with Uni Records. Since then, his first album has been released featuring the composer-artist's most popular songs (among them the current #2 Steppenwolf hit "Born to Be Wild.") With Bonfire at the contract session was Uni's vp Russ Regan, who worked with national promo hand Pap Pipolo in making available a three minute airplay—only release of Bonfire's performance of "Ride with Me Baby" from the LP.

Columbia Issues Classical Single w/Music From '2001'

NEW YORK—Columbia Masterworks has rush-released a classical single which showcases music used in the Stanley Kubrick film, "2001: A Space Odyssey." The original soundtrack of the film is on the MGM label. The Columbia single is by Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra. One side of the single features a short electronic prelude by Morton Subotnick (not from the film) with the opening of Richard Strauss' "Also Sprach Zarathustra," the main theme of "2001." The other side of the single carries "The Blue Danube Waltz."

Columbia released the single because of the enthusiasm with which

'We Run Action Firms' Says Heritage's Ross

NEW YORK—"We're not interested in 'stockpiling' songs," commented indie producer Jerry Ross on his Legacy Music (BMI) publishing operation. "Our 'open door' policy takes new material into the studio, not the filing cabinet."

Ross' production firm and his newly formed Heritage Record label has been responsible for numerous chart decks in the last two years and is currently represented by the Cherry People's Heritage charter, "And Suddenly," as well as the group's deluxe LP.

Ross is "currently working with some of the top contemporary writers in the music business." He said "We're in the unique position of being able to guarantee recordings for material that we think has commercial value. Legacy Music and Heritage Records are action companies. If we take a song, we guarantee that it will be recorded by significant artists."

Legacy Music currently has chart contenders with the new James and Bobby Purify single "Help Yourself To All My Lovin'" on Bell and the new Showstoppers single on Heritage, "Eeny Meeny." In addition, a Ross-penned tune, "I'm Gonna Make You Love Me," already a hit vehicle for Dee Dee Warwick and Madeline Bell, is showing new action in a version by Aesop's Fables on Cadet Concept.

listeners responded to the playing of music from "2001" by KHOW, a non-contemporary rock station in Denver.

Andrew Kazdin, producer, and Thomas Frost, Columbia Masterworks executive A&R producer, produced the single.

SMOTHERS BROTHERS

PAT PAULSEN
JOHN HARTFORD

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y. — The Smothers Brothers brought their show, billed as "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour Or Two" and complete with theme music, guest stars and TV-like voice-over intros, into Madison Square Garden last week (22) and despite troubles with both mikes and lights, proved that they haven't lost the feel of 'live' entertainment.

The crowd of 10,000 only half-filled the mammoth showplace, and, in a rare move, the Brothers invited the audience (who were complaining about the poor sound) to come down from the upper reaches and sit as close as they could. After the delay, Pat Paulsen opened the show with a speech promoting his presidential candidacy, which was a series of short comedy bits and was well received. The sight of Paulsen having to turn his podium in 10 degree intervals served as another reminder to us of the shortcomings of certain types of entertainment in a theater-in-the-round setting. Paulsen followed with a pair of uncensored editorials, similar to the ones he does on the TV show, on sex education and censorship, both of which were amusing, and finished his act with some self-penned folk songs (Paulsen has written some material for the Brothers earlier LP's) and a 10 minute exit.

A LP of Paulsen's speeches is forthcoming from Mercury.

RCA's John Hartford opened the second half of the show with a short set of self-penned numbers including his Grammy-winning "Gentle On My Mind" and received a warm response from the non-country audience, showing that his appeal will not be bound by the ordinary musical restrictions.

The Smothers Brothers, who had been on stage throughout the show as MC's, opened their set with "The Cowboy Song" (also known as "The Streets Of Laredo), an old favorite. In fact, almost all the songs were old, but the Brothers comedy interchanges, which permeate almost every number, have been updated to give the material a completely fresh feel. "John Henry," "I Talk To The Trees," "My Old Man" and "Birmingham Jail (Down In The Valley)" were all familiar to this reviewer and most of the audience, but nevertheless managed to evoke considerable response. "Marching To Pretoria" was filled with topical references to the Presidential candidates and party lines seemed to be forgotten as the audience came out in solid support of Paulsen. Two new songs, Mason Williams' "Tom's Tune," written for Tom Smothers, and Glen Campbell's "A Little Less Of Me," both done essentially straight, were also well received.

SIMON & GARFUNKEL

FOREST HILLS, N.Y.—Simon & Garfunkel scored strongly before a sell-out crowd (the only two of the year) in the second of two shows at the Forest Hills Tennis Stadium last week (18) with a 90 minute performance of material culled from the best-selling Columbia catalog. Utilizing only Simon's guitar as accompaniment, the pair produced a crowd-quieting melange of material including "Mrs. Robinson," "Sounds of Silence," "Scarborough Fair," "Dangling Conversation," "At The Zoo" and many other favorites. The surprise of the evening occurred when, after being called back for several encores by the wildly enthusiastic crowd, the duo launched into "Bye Bye Love," the old Everly Brothers hit, and managed to reproduce the Brothers' early sound with uncanny accuracy.

SLY & THE FAMILY STONE

ELECTRIC CIRCUS, NYC — Recent critical discovery of the germinal nature of Sly Stones work has been in part responsible for a solid audience turnout (probably aided by word-of-mouth praise) during the team's one-week stand at the Electric Circus.

A bit too hip perhaps for soul fans, and a bit too soulful for pop listeners, the act has found a perfect setting at the Circus, where the Psyche-Soul hybrid musical style of Sly and the Family Stone is aptly complemented in sight and atmosphere. The close-up staging (with viewers on the amplifiers during at least one of the shows) gives added closeness and involvement with the tightly worked act; and Circus' decor is aptly fitted to the carnival flavor of many songs included.

Material, mainly original, and performance quality (entirely original) gave the group's appearance an immediacy which was enthusiastically received by the crowd—deservedly so!

PAT ROLLE FREDA PAYNE

PERSIAN ROOM, NEW YORK—In case you believe that good new singers went thataway, the Persian Room is doubling-up the superior voices of Pat Rolle and Freda Payne. Rolle is a 25-year-old from Nassau in the Bahamas whose voice and phrasing are astonishingly similar to the late Nat King Cole, leading one wag in the opening night audience to suggest a billing of Nat King Rolle. Perhaps it's needless or unfair to say that Rolle is no Cole; since his manner is so amiable and his singing so sincere that one tries, though in vain, to disassociate Rolle from Cole. His repertoire consists of money-in-the-bank standards, such as "But Beautiful" (nice to hear this lovely Burke-Van Heusen song again), "Shadow of Your Smile," "More,"

"Sunny" and "Ebb Tide." From his part of the world, there's a good rendition of the humorous "Shame & Scandal." Rolle is a recent pactee on Kapp Records, and is out on the market with a single, "Everybody's Got a Home But Me" (remember this Rodgers & Hammerstein number from "Pipe Dream"?), and an LP, "Introducing Pat Rolle."

Freda Payne is a pretty lass with an excitement and polish that were good enough to get her the Leslie Uggams understudy part in "Hallelujah, Baby!" She, naturally, projects well, moves with confidence. Her songs include "It Only Takes a Moment," "You Fascinate Me," "Who Am I" and "Can't Get My Eyes Off Of You." She does not have a disk contract.

LITTLE RICHARD CHAMBERS BROS.

MIKE DOUGLAS welcomes his new musical director Joe Harnell who will join the network show's regular staff Sept. 9. The Mike Douglas program is syndicated by Westinghouse Broadcasting to some 200 stations. Harnell comes to the program with musical director credits that include work with Peggy Lee, Robert Goulet, Jane Morgan and Jack Benny; and tv programs such as the "Gene Kelly Special," "Phyllis Diller Special," "Bing Crosby Special" and ABC's "On the Brink." In addition to the Douglas Show, an upcoming Joe Harnell Special and concert appearances are being planned with the Columbia artist. He is also at work on a Broadway show.

CENTRAL PARK—Some astute booking on the part of Ron Delsner, producer of the Shaefer Festival, coupled the dynamic excitement of the Chambers Brothers (reaching a new high in popularity lately) with the dynamic nostalgia of Little Richard (making his first major N.Y. appearance in years).

The Brothers had a large part of the audience dancing in the aisles and in their seats before they finished a strong set which included their current charter, "Time Has Come Today," "Uptown," "I Wish It Would Rain" and the old James Brown favorite, "Please, Please, Please." The three brothers, and their drummer, were in turn picked up by the response and each number was put forth with even more vitality.

Little Richard proved capable of picking up where the Chambers Brothers had left off, and the special police, under instructions from Delsner, let the crowd enjoy itself to the utmost and dance to their heart's content. Richard's songs, due to the tremendous beat, have a certain timeless quality, and even those unfamiliar with his work joined in the excitement. "Tutti Frutti," "Long Tall Sally," "Send Me Some Lovin'," "Ready Teddy" and a host of other songs built up the momentum until even Little Richard was caught up. Jumping on the piano, he provided a rousing closer by throwing his clothes into the audience. Amen.

Kathy Dee Benefits From Nashville Heart

WOOSTER, OHIO—A host of country stars and talent assembled last week (22) to stage a benefit performance at Jamboree Hall in Wheeling, W. Va. for country songstress Kathy Dee, who was stricken recently with total blindness as a result of a previous illness. Organized by one of country music's top female names, Dottie West, the benefit show boasted a bill that included such headline names as Bill Anderson & the Po' Boys, Hank Cochran, Jeannie Seely, Mel Tillis, Merle Travis and Kenny Roberts, in addition to Miss West.

With assistance from John Bozeman of the Lucky Moeller talent office and WWVA deejay Andy Hope, the event drew hefty response from a host of other tradespeople, including radio stations, record labels and independent businessmen in the music trade.

RCA Victor donated a bulk of LPs for sale at the performance, while Decca rush-released Kathy's brand new single, "Funny How Time Slips Away" to all stations in the area to tie-in with the publicity for the show.

Radio station WSLR-Akron, and others, in the area contributed time and promotion for the event while Denver-based publisher Thurston Moore contributed $1000 worth of premium merchandise to be sold at the show.

Several Music City firms lent their support to the benefit, including Lucky Moeller Talent and Hubert Long Talent, in addition to the Victor and Decca labels.

Loretta Lynn Gets 'Day' In Texarkana

TEXARKANA, ARK.-TEX. — Mayor W. E. Garris, Jr. of Texarkana, Ark. and Mayor A. J. Womack, Sr. of Texarkana, Tex. have jointly proclaimed September 16, the opening day of the week long Four States Fair and Rodeo, as Loretta Lynn Day in Texarkana.

Loretta's Nashville-based rodeo production company will be handling special production effects for the six nights of rodeo and Loretta will be appearing during each rodeo performance with her country music show.

The 24th annual event is running its third year under the sanction banner of the International Rodeo Association and Mrs. Alan J. Ashley, executive director of the fair and rodeo, reports that rodeo ticket sales began streaming into the Fair's office in mid-July.

In previous years rodeo tickets have not been sold before September 1st, but advance ticket calls dictated the opening ticket sales on August 7.

The rodeo will run six night performances and Mrs. Ashley further reports that maintenance crews are attempting to construct additional seating wherever possible at the 6,500 seat rodeo arena.

Dot Signs Prod. Deal With Tree's Killen

NASHVILLE—Dot Records, currently in a concerted drive to establish itself as a major country label, made another aggressive move into the country field last week with the signing of a production deal with Tree Music's Jack Stapp and Buddy Killen. The deal, handled for Dot by executive vp Dick Pierce calls for an array of young talent, including Justin Tubb, Jack Barlow, Jack Reno, Diana Trask and Bill Pursell, to join the Dot label, with Killen at production controls.

The announcement comes shortly behind Dot's recent agreement with Jim Halsey's Singin' T Productions, which brought to the label such country names as Hank Thompson, Mary Taylor, Roy Clark and newcomer Curtis Potter. It was this latter deal which saw Dot emerge as a highly competitive country label and has put the label in its most strategic position ever in that field.

Almost all of the acts brought to Dot in the new deal have displayed some hitmaking ability, and all are well-known in the field of country music. Justin Tubb, a successful writer, has seen success with such disks as "Looking Back To See" and "Hurry Mr. Peters," while deejay Jack Reno has zoomed into disk prominence with recent hits as "Repeat After Me" and "How Sweet It Is." Diana Trask, one of Australia's big disk names, is currently represented on America's country listings with "Lock, Stock and Teardrops. In addition, Pursell is one of Nashville's most well-known instrumentalists, and has been a leading pianist in that area for years.

Killen, who has produced both pop and country records for many years, has twice gained entry into the Gold Record circle, both times with Joe Tex records, "Hold What You Got" and "Skinny Legs And All." In addition to hits with Tex and Diana Trask, he is also shown on the current country charts with disks by Cheryl Poole (Paula) and Curly Putman (ABC).

He is also a successful songwriter on his own, having been responsible for both "Forever" and "Sugar Lips," among others.

Dot is currently active on the charts with Bonnie Guitar's "I Believe In Love" LP, as well as such singles as Hank Thompson's "On Tap, In The Can Or In The Bottle," Sonny Curtis' Viva deck "The Straight Life" and active sides from Mary Taylor and Roy Clark.

THE GEORGE JONES SONGBOOK—Musicor M2S 3159

A great 2-record set that should prove to be a monster with George Jones fans. The inimitable Jones stylings have been set to 20 tunes, many of which have been strong chart pieces in the past. In addition to 2 records for the price of one, merchandising is aided with the inclusion of a Jones biography and a batch of action photos, both in color and black and white. Promises to be a sales gem.

I'M EASY TO LOVE—Stan Hitchcock—Epic BN 26408

Stan Hitchcock offers his second Epic LP here in a set guaranteed to attract an even larger number of fans to his following. Good work from the songster on such while back items as "The Last Word In Lonesome Is Me," as well as his own recent recordings, "Rings" and "I'm Easy To Love." Set should help to introduce him to a good many more music buyers.

GOLDIE HILL SMITH SINGS HER FAVORITES—Epic BN 26410

Recently returning to the recording scene following scores of requests from fans, Goldie Hill (Mrs. Carl) Smith is out with her second LP here. Spiced mainly with hit material of the past, including "Wandering Mind" and "I Gotta Have My Baby Back," the set also includes some more contemporary material, the likes of "He's A Good Ole Boy" and "Sorry About That," and should prove a delight to many a listener.

Price-less

Although Ray Price is not bodily included in the picture, it was the soulful sounds of the Columbia artist and his 20 piece orchestra, performing at the ranch of Texas Governor John Connally, which lightened the burden of President Lyndon B. Johnson (c.), huddled with (l. to r.) Presidential aid Paul Glenn; talent broker Billy Deaton; Ray's agent, Billy Gray; and Bill Sinkin of Hemisfair.

Picks of the Week

JIM REEVES (RCA Victor 9614)

When You Are Gone (2:52) [Tuckahoe BMI-Manuel]

The latest in a long, long string of Jim Reeves goodies is another hit-bound stand called "When You Are Gone." As pretty as most of the late songster's performances, this one should be just one more jewel in the crown. Flip: "How Can I Write On Paper" (2:26) [Tuckahoe BMI-Reeves, Harrison, Kent, Carter]

JIM ED BROWN (RCA Victor 9616)

Jack And Jill (2:57) [Woodshed BMI-Caudell, Major]

"The Enemy" has hardly retreated and Jim Ed Brown is out with a new lid called "Jack And Jill." Blues-drenched ballad gets a highly effective treatment Brown, who should climb to a lofty chart position with one side or the other of this disk. Flip: "Honky Tonkin'" (2:02) [Fred Rose BMI-Williams]

MEL TILLIS (Kapp 941)

I Haven't Seen Mary In Years (2:30) [Sawgrass BMI-Black]

Destroyed By Man (2:16) [Sawgrass BMI-Hadli, Hayes]

It's hard to tell which side of the new Mel Tillis deck is the better, since both are strong pieces. The waltz-tempo "I Haven't Seen Mary In Years" is an excellent programming piece, as is the ballad side, "Destroyed By Man." Take your choice.

JOHNNY DARRELL (United Artists 50442)

I Ain't Buying (2:30) United Artists ASCAP-Wheeler

A somewhat different bag for Johnny Darrell in this followup to his smash, "With Pen In Hand." The rolling, low-key sound should provide another big-selling country deck for the songster. Flip: "Little Things" (3:00) [Pamper BMI-W./S. Nelson]

ARCHIE CAMPBELL & LORENE MANN (RCA Victor 9615)

Warm And Tender Love (3:04) [Pronto, Bob-Dan, Quinvy BMI-Robinson]

One more excellent country revamping of a former R&B smash by Archie and Lorene. The twosome hits home real strong as they turn to the past Percy Sledge powerhouse and come up with something strong for the country market. Undercut is also worth some close listening. Flip: "Pledging My Love" (2:46) [Lion, Wemar BMI-Robey, Washington]

BOB LUMAN (Epic 10381)

I Like Trains (2:00) [AI Gallico BMI-Sutton]

Bob Luman's followup to his big "Ain't Got To Be Unhappy" is another hard-moving number, this one called "I Like Trains." Bright flavor of the deck should be the basis for sales equal to its predecessor. Flip: "World Of Unhappiness" (2:05) [AI Gallico BMI-Welty]

STONEWALL JACKSON (Columbia 44625)

Angry Words (2:34) [Moss Rose BMI-Lewis]

The sizeable Stonewall Jackson following should be up en masse for the songster's latest Columbia deck, "Angry Words." Mid-tempo tale of trouble is bound to stand him in good stead with a lot of programmers. Flip: "Red Roses Blooming Back Home" (3:03) [Audlee BMI-W./S. Jackson]

Picks of the Week

JERRY WALLACE (Liberty 56059)

Sweet Child Of Sunshine (2:15) [Attache BMI-Price]

A good, hefty piece of ballad material in the hands of Jerry Wallace has hitsville written all over it. Tabbed "Sweet Child Of Sunshine," the pretty, island-flavored sound may spill well over into the pop market as well. No flip info available at this time.

BILLY MIZE (Columbia 44621)

Walking Through The Memories Of My Mind (2:48) [Tree BMI-Miller]

Billy Mize strikes out to carve a notch in the national charts with a sharp piece of material called "Walking Through The Memories Of My Mind." Plaintive and appealing, the tune could be just the thing Billy has been looking for to get him going. Flip: "Wind (I'll Catch Up To You)" (2:08) [Glaser BMI-Baunach]

Newcomer Picks

JO ANN STEELE (Columbia 44591)

Don't Make Me Go To School (3:02) [Southtown BMI-Crysler]

A tear-jerking ballad serves as a possible launching pad for instant attention for Jo Ann Steele. "Don't Make Me Go To School" is a highly commercial piece that could break wide open with the right exposure. Flip: "Overhurt And Underloved" (2:15) [Mariposa BMI-Mize]

Best Bets

CAL SMITH (Kapp 938)

Drinking Champagne (2:40) [Lesrie, Wycliff BMI-Mack] Cal Smith's version of the well-known ballad has good potential. Flip: "Honky Tonk Blues" (2:28) [Fred Rose BMI-Williams]

KATHY DEE (Decca 32372)

Funny How Time Slips Away (2:48) [Pamper BMI-Nelson] The popular standard is nicely handled by Kathy. Could get her national recognition. Flip: "The Shadow Of A Girl" (2:29) [Weldee BMI-Trineer]

JACK GRAY (Hilltop 3023)

Try Me And See (2:36) [Misty ASCAP-Shane] Low-key, funky sound from Jack Gray is worth a spin. Could catch on. Flip: "Ten Feet Tall" (2:34) [Misty ASCAP-Shane]

BILL TOWERS (Bell 45001)

You Still Look As Good As Ever (2:58) [Acuff-Rose BMI-Fitzgerald] Real pretty ballad served up nicely by Towers. Strong material. Flip: "Poor Man's Bouquet" (2:28) [Acuff-Rose BMI-Thomas]

HAROLD MORRISON (Epic 10374)

The Dog (2:20) [Grand Ole BMI-Morrison, Gilbreath] Lively novelty number could get some heavy play and quick sales reaction. Flip: "Dee Dee" (2:13) [Wormwood BMI-Tuttle]

LEONA WILLIAMS (Hickory 1511)

Papa's Medicine Show (2:40) [Milene BMI-Horton] Happy-flavored galloper with a highly infectious sound. Lots of appeal. Flip: "Broadminded" (2:11) [Williams, Payne]

ONIE WHEELER (K-Ark 856)

Which-A-Way, That-A-Way (2:07) [Smokey SESAC-Crow, Nelson] Skeddaddlin' effort from Wheeler could make big sales noise. Flip: "Please Don't Plant Pretty Flowers" (2:01) [Onie's BMI-Wheeler]

TED RAINS (Jack O' Diamonds 6807-021)

I'm Hopin' (2:05) [Jack O' Diamonds BMI-Rains, Zanetis] Easy-paced stand gets a nice treatment from Ted Rains. Flip: "Till I Lose You All The Way" (2:00) [Cedarwood BMI-Crutchfield, Adams]

Ride up the charts with a 4 STAR song!

The current season has been an exceptionally busy one for artist managers and impresarios in Argentina due to the many top international stars visiting this country, something that had never happened in such a scale before. Since it seems that the trend will continue throughout 1968 and possibly next year, it may be interesting to study the effect of such performances on record sales.

Some years ago, record companies feared visits from abroad, considering that in most cases the effect on sales was unfavorable. This theory was usually confirmed by the facts, and only a few artists—like Paul Anka—benefited recordwise, from public appearances here. The appearance of special programs on TV, a better knowledge of the international news through the trade papers and radio programs that aired the top records from the States, Great Britain and Europe, improved the scene for arriving talent. But only this year Buenos Aires has turned into a major center for pop artists with names like Charles Aznavour and Caterina Valente performing at the same time in two theatres, one in front of another, and dozens of other singers—among them Richard Anthony, Raphael, Adamo, the Tremeloes, Herman's Hermits—arriving practically one after another.

It is worth mentioning that the diskeries had very little to do with most of these visits, limiting their part to cocktail parties and a bit of public relations. The opinion about them, however, has changed, and now they are considered a good way for promoting records in spite of the fact that the artist usually comes without a smash single at the time. It is more frequent to see that a best-selling single develops from the tour. In most cases, independent impresarios contract the artists and make the arrangements with the TV channels, sports clubs or night clubs, and contact the labels for help on promotion and public relations matters.

The scene may change soon, but a new generation of impresarios is needed. Some of them—Leonardo Schultz, Fabian Ross, Cella—are already working closely with the diskeries, but some time will pass till the bulk of the business turns into hands more cooperative to the record industry. The labels are still somewhat reluctant to take the matter into their hands, but it seems that the need of more control over this will become imperative very soon, and that managing agencies, associated to the diskeries, will be a must in a few years. Last week, TV producer Manuel Iglesias was already developing a scheme for direct cooperation between the labels, the impresario and TV plants and night clubs.

The biggest difficulty could be the lack of talent at the record companies for the handling of such affairs. Some months ago, a top exec stated that he would start such an agency as soon as he could find the appropriate person for managing it. Since most of the impresarios work in an old and outmoded way, none of them would really qualify for the post.

Another problem usually met is the percentage received by the agents and impresarios, who in some cases resell the artist several times, with a profit in each case, or contract the artist for a low fee and afterwards market high with a strong profit, sometimes even several times the price they paid. This results in loss of prestige when the deal is publicly known, but no measures are taken, and it may even happen that the diskery will be charged for the responsibility of not advising the artist.

What could be suggested? First of all, to channel the contracts through the record companies which should advise about the best dates and combine them with the release of possible hit records. Foreign artists should sign contracts only with well-known impresarios (the Cash Box guide appearing in the Year End Issue could serve) and ask them to work in cooperation with the labels representing them. Foreign diskeries should favor the visits of these artists whose promotion may bring best results. One way of doing so is recording their hits in Spanish for use in the Latin American countries where this language is spoken. However, lyrics should be written by people knowing the differences between the idioms used in each market, preferably living in one of them. A bad version in Spanish is much worse than the original in English, Italian or French. Last, but not least, it is desirable that more companies, in South America establish associated managing agencies. Besides the additional profits, the better promotion results would strongly justify it.

CBS Records is making a fall onslaught on the singles chart here with a stellar line up of hit groups. August 30th sees the release of the Love Affair's newie "A Day Without Love," published by Dick James; followed by "My Little Lady" by the Tremeloes—an Italian tune with English lyrics by the group and published by Cyril Shane; "My World" by Cupid's Inspiration on the Nems label; and "Wait For Me Marianne" by the Marmalade, published by Southern Music. CBS also aims to broaden its influence and share of the Irish market with a September reception in Dublin to which disk retailers, press, radio and TV will be invited. Special emphasis will be laid on CBS' Irish repertoire by artists like the Clancy Brothers, the Pattersons, John McNally and Roly Daniels.

There is steady action on "I Will Wait For You," the song from the movie score for "The Umbrellas Of Cherbourg." The number is from the Allan Crawford Merit Music catalogs which were recently acquired by Dick James Music. MCA has released a Louis Armstrong version of the song, and it is on the flip side of Andy Williams' current CBS single "Sweet Memories." Some Merit master tapes acquired with the catalog have been released on Page One including Ronald Binge's "Stratford On Avon," and a ska L.P. which is selling strongly in Germany. The Cookaway Music subsidiary of Dick James connected with David and Jonathan publishes "Skyline Pigeon"—Jonathan's debut single which has also been covered by Guy Darrell for Pye. Dick James is enthusing about Sergio Mendes and Brasil 66' treatment of "The Fool On The Hill" (Northern Songs) and expects a British release on Reprise for Fats Domino's rendition of another Beatle song, "Lady Madonna."

The Tremeloes and the Marmalade have been set for a joint tour of Israel lasting two weeks from October 15th. The Marmalade will play the first half of each concert and the Tremeloes will take the second. "Helule Helule" by the Tremeloes has been a big hit in the Israeli market. Prior to the Middle East stint, the Marmalade are scheduled for ten days of appearances in Sweden from September 29th.

Big happenings for the Deep Purple—the British group whose first recording on the Tetragrammaton label is making headway in the U.S.A. It was John Coletta who first discovered the group just six months ago and formed his Hec Enterprise Management Company. Audience reaction at a try-out in Belgium confirmed his belief in the group, and their debut disk "Hush" was produced by Douglas Lawrence. A deal was negotiated with Tetragrammaton and the boys were launched at a reception at London's Mayfair Hotel attended by President Artie Mogull. Although "Hush" has not taken off in Britain, it is already in the Cash Box American charts (No. 22) and is climbing fast. Deep Purple play dates in Copenhagen (September 25th to 29th) and an eight week tour of America has been set for October. Meantime the group are busy recording their second album.

Decca is releasing the first single by the Web on its Deram label. "Hatton Mill Morning" is taken from their "Fully Interlocking" album recorded by Mike Vernon. The Web are handled by the Beatles' Apple Enterprise. A new Deram album release is "Undead" by Ten Years After—a release expedited by the fact that American copies of the album have been selling sweetly here already.

Mike Berry has returned to Sparta Music after a brief spell with Apple Music. With Hal Shaper concentrating on his new musical "Tam O'Shanter," Berry is now in charge of Sparta's pop catalog. He has great faith in the World Of Oz' new Deram single "King Croesus" as well as a new Liverpool group the Perishers making their debut on Fontana with "How Does It Feel."

Ed Preston, RCA Victor's Ontario promotion manager, recently took Johnny Nash on a promotion tour of Toronto and area radio and television stations in conjunction with the bowing of Nash's JAD Record Production of "Hold Me Tight" (RCA J-207). The single has now caught fire in Toronto with both CHUM and CKFH giving it spins. This is Nash's first single for the newly-formed JAD label, which is owned jointly by Nash and Danny Sims. An album is expected shortly. The single is also happening in Montreal where Nash appeared at RCA Victor's annual get-together.

Two RCA Victor singles making phenomenal advances up the chart are "Light My Fire" by Jose Feliciano (9550) and "Born To Be Wild" by Steppenwolf. Both recording units are experiencing solid sales with their album releases as well. Looking good on the charts is Nilsson's "Everybody's Talkin'" (9544). RCA Victor's Stereo release of the soundtrack single from the film "A Place To Stand", which won the Ontario Government (through Christopher Chapman) an Oscar, has opened many new avenues for this type of song. The Canadian Talent Library (distributed by RCA Victor) recorded an instrumental version of the theme (a Dolores Claman-Richard Morris composition) by Nat Raider, and after airing the disc on CFRB, enquiries were made from the Ontario government as to where the disc might be purchased. The single will be included on the CTL series 1102 "Man And His Trumpet" to be released September 1st. J. Lyman Potts, of the CTL, suggests a nationwide contest for professional songwriters to come up with a provincial anthem for each of the ten provinces. The CTL would consider recording any of these songs adopted by a provincial government as its official anthem.

The Mandala, considered one of the top Canadian groups in the Quality roster, have just released their latest Atlantic album, "Soul Crusade" (SD 8184). The group has become well-known in the U.S. through their tours and are particularly strong in New York and on the West Coast. Top action single at Quality is "People Got To Be Free" by the Rascals (Atlantic 2537) which has climbed into the top end of most national charts. Moving well ahead is "Alice Long" by Tommy Boyce & Bobby Hart (A&M 948). Quality's Ed Lawson is excited over the potential of the long-awaited single release of the Stampede. Their MGM single "Be A Woman" (13970) received a Cash Box "Newcomer Pick" Aug. 3 and, in view of this, there is much anticipation regarding its success across the country.

Winnipeg's Eternals are coming in for some national action with their Quality single of "The Real World Of Mary Ann" (1915). The group is currently touring Western Canada. Meddy's People, another Canadian group in the Quality camp, have just bowed their single "Yes I Will" (1918) and reaction has been encouraging for the ballad outing which is suitable for middle of the road as well as top forty stations.

Gilles Marchand, Polydor promotion chief for their Deutsche Grammophon label, will bow their new automatic album release to radio stations. The album will contain a disc with a white label with the selections and times noted. Rudy Assaly, of Polydor, is working on September as "Delgado Month." Latest release by Delgado is "Spanish Eyes." This along with his other 17 albums will be promoted on a national scale. Two Montreal recording units have just bowed initial releases for Polydor. The Sceptres with "Juicy Morning" (54004) and "Mama's Watching You" by Michelle and the Mademoiselles (54003). The latter group is made up of ten blondes, who play their own instruments and who have become a much sought-after group for appearances on the club circuit. The Julie Driscoll and Brian Auger and the Trinity album of "Open" (Marmalade 608002) is enjoying good sales.

Tony DiMaria's Goodgroove single of "Realize" by Vancouver's Raja is now picking up action throughout Ontario. The single is distributed by Arc Records. The Rajah will be appearing at Toronto's Canadian National Exhibition youth extravaganza "Time Being."

Nick Garber, manager of Murray McLauchlan, advises that they have received 4 offers from record companies to record McLauchlan. Murray made a successful appearance at the Mariposa Folk Festival in Toronto and will be appearing at New York's Bitter End Aug. 27. Also from Garber comes news of the signing by Tetragrammaton Records of folk/rock singer Elyse Weinberg. Elyse was formerly with the O.D. Bodkins groups.

Al Mair, Compo promotion manager, notes that Witness Inc. are readying a follow-up to their single "Harlem Lady" which is still enjoying Canadian chart action. The new single, to be on the Apex label, is "Visions Of Vanessa." The Irish Rovers are readying their new album release which contains their current single effort, "Whiskey On A Sunday (The Puppet Song)" (32333). The "Puppet Song" is the title of the new album. A Canadian produced single "Doing The Best We Can" by the Cat (Apex 77080) is chalking up strong regional sales. Mair is confident that this single will make a national noise as well.

John Irvine's Boo label has been picking up much change with the single release by the popular Passing Fancy of "Island" (684). Irvine's country label Rebel has been most successful with Tom Connors. His album "Northland Songs" is particularly popular in the Ontario Northland. The big success story for Connors is his release of "The Hepworth Country Music Auditorium Song" (Rebel 105) which has apparently been adopted as the theme song for the new country centre at Hepworth, Ontario. Irvine advises that the first weekend of release they sold over 2,000 copies of the single.

Adrienne Bilodeau, national sales manager of London Records, notes that London Records are now assuming exclusive Canadian distribution of Page One Records. Initial release for the new acquisition is "You Can Cry If You Want To" by the Troggs (1001) which has now soared to chart prominence across Canada. The Monument single of Ray Stevens, "Mr. Businessman" (1038) has picked up exceptional exposure from coast to coast. It now appears to be heading to the top of many Canadian charts.

Capitol's promotion manager Gord Edwards has found good national acceptance to the single release of "Skip-A-Long Sam" by the Sugar Shoppe (2233) in spite of the recent mail strike still affecting the shipment of parcelled goods. The Sugar Shoppe also have a strong album release in "The Sugar Shoppe" (ST 2959). People, who made a good showing on the charts with "I Love You" have just released what Capitol's Edwards regards as a hot new hit. The side "Apple Cider" (2251) is now making moves toward the charts. The team of Jackie Cain and Roy Kral, who have just been signed to Capitol, have left their jazz bag and gone electric. Their initial single, "Winds Of Heaven" (2229), looks good for chart action. Two Canadian country offerings from Capitol are now large-sized national items. "Applesauce" by Lynn Jones (72546) and "Calgary" by Gary Buck (72539) are now receiving top television and radio exposure in almost all of the ten provinces.

The following singles are showing early indications of top of the charts action: "This Wheel's On Fire," Julie Driscoll (Polydor 598006); "Break Out," Dave, Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mich & Tich (Fontana 15001); "Baby Come Back," the Equals (President 1007); and "You Can Cry If You Want To," the Troggs (Page One 1001).

'Don't Mirror Us,' Capitol Of Canada Told At Convention

TORONTO—At Capitol's recent Canadian Convention (7th Anniversary), held at the Constellation Hotel, in the shadow of Capitol's new Canadian headquarters (July 28 through August 1st), a taped message from Stan Gortikov, president of Capitol Records, urged the Canadian company not to be a mirror of the parent company.

In a follow-up speech, William B. Tallant Jr., Vice President, Capitol Records Inc., reiterated the president's urging and cited the success that Discos Capitol De Mexico has experienced over the past three years with domestically produced talent.

Capitol (Canada) Ltd., through its president, G. Edward Leetham, has geared itself for a national push of some of this country's top talent, which was part of a double theme for the Convention. With the talent lined up for the affair by Capitol's A&R director Paul White and national promotion chief, Gord Edwards, Tallant was confident that the Canadian company could become a supplier of top hits for the world market. Groups and artists presented during the Convention were; The Brian Browne Trio; Sugar Shoppe, and Natalie Baron. The Brian Brown Trio, first released on Capitol last year and are soon to bow their first album. Natalie Baron, who sings in both English and French, is considered a doubleheader powerhouse. The Canadian French single can sell up to 150,000 and albums have been known to top the 100,000 mark. Miss Baron is also expected to be a driving force in the English-Canadian thrust for recognition. The Sugar Shoppe, who have just released their "Skip-A-Long Sam" single (2233) and album "The Sugar Shoppe" (ST 2959) were enthusiastically received by the gathering of Capitol representatives. This group has already established itself as a potentially explosive entity on the English-Canadian market. Sadler and Young flew in for the opening festivities.

Taylor Campbell, vic president of marketing, was in charge of the presentations made over the four day get-together. Campbell introduced the taped message from Gortikov, as well as introducing William Tallant to the group. Taylor also welcomed members of the staff of Waco and Kensington, which included Jerry Hoffos, Controller of Kensington and Waco; Bud Farquharson, general manager of Waco and new salesmen; Adrien Despre, from the Maritimes; Gene LaValle of Regina and Bob Janathan, from Calgary.

The distribution rights for the Benelux of the Abnak, Moonshot and Calla labels are the first fruits of CNR activities in this sphere. In the meantime, singles have been released by Jimmy Gilmer ("Three Squares"), Tony Fox ("Lean On Me") and Jimmie Raye ("That'll Get It").

Phonogram's New Amsterdam Home: In Tune With A Growing Market

AMSTERDAM—Holland's biggest record company, N. V. Phonogram, opens its new big building on Aug. 27, which ceremony will be done by the burgomaster of Amsterdam, Dr. I. Samkal-den.

The new address of the company is: Drentestraat 11, Amsterdam-Buitenveldert, phones: 44 01 71 (sales dept.) and 44 08 88 (all other depts.), telex: 12038, postboxnumbers: 7272 (sales dept.) and 7104 (all other depts.)

History

The N. V. Phonogram originated from the N. V. Dutch Decca distribution, situated before, during and after the 2nd World War in a modest office (one room for the staff, the other room was a record warehouse) in the Van Baerlestraat in Amsterdam. The company worked with a studio, situated in an old playhouse in Hilversum, and with a primitive pressing-plant in a loft in Amsterdam.

The name was changed in 1953, when the company was taken over by Philips' Phonographic Industries, Baarn. The N. V. Phonogram offices were also established in Baarn for some time, but the staff soon returned to Amsterdam. A five-story house along one of the main canals had enough room for the time being. From the historical point of view it was also an interesting place, because around 1700 the internationally famous music publishing company Roger & Le Cène was established "on the Singel near the Tower Lock." These publishers had important works of Vivaldi, Locatelli, Albinoni and many other composers in its fund.

The interest in records increased so much (in 1946 only 4% of the Dutch families possessed a record-player, in 1968 about 50%), that the warehouses, shipping- and sales-departments had to be moved to a second building on the South Side of Amsterdam in 1958. The steady developments of the record-market however caused a new space problem. Therefore the brand new building in Buitenveldert (in the outskirts of Amsterdam) was necessary, where almost all departments will be joined again.

Activities

The many thousands of different records which N. V. Phonogram supplies are pressed for the greater part by Philips' Phonographic Industries, Baarn. Also a considerable number is imported from the several foreign record companies represented in Holland by N. V. Phonogram.

The recording of Dutch artists is usually done in the Phonogram Studios in Hilversum and Laren. In view of time and expenses (e.g. in connection with the concentration of musicians around the radio- and TV-stations in Hilversum) the recording activities will not be moved to Buitenveldert.

The greater part of the records is distributed by about 1000 record-shops in Holland. N. V. Phonogram also has a considerable production of records for special purposes—language courses, advertising messages, etc.—which are not distributed by the regular shops.

International activities go through Philips and Decca Records, featuring important foreign artists, both classical and popular, while quite a number of records by local artists were released in foreign countries.

Future

The record-market in Holland will probably rise with 15 to 20% in 1968, in which rise N. V. Phonogram will contribute an important share. Therefore, it was necessary to move to a new building with sufficient space for big stock (now already 1,500,000 records) and for the staff (now 200, while Phonogram's story started with nine). Of course, modern provisions such as electronics transport-systems, mechanical administration and air-conditioning will be employed.

Records are still the main thing for N. V. Phonogram, but new products such as musicassettes and video-tapes are getting attention. The small musicassettes are on the Dutch market for quite some time now with considerable success, the video tapes will be introduced by N. V. Phonogram in a short time.

Cash Box congratulates N. V. Phonogram with the opening of their new building and to wish the dynamic company every success.

Phonograms New Home

N. V. Phonogram started a fabulous Country & Western campaign in Holland with the release of seventeen country albums. The packet had Mercury LP's by Faron Young, Lester Flatt & Earl Scruggs, Roy Drusky, Dave Dudley, George Jones, Rusty Draper, Roger Miller, Priscilla Mitchell and a special C&W sampler; London LP's by Bill Clifton, Jim Reeves, Johnny Cash and a specially compiled album, Brunswick LP's by Bill Anderson, Kitty Wells, Ernest Tubb and Webb Pierce. Special radio hours, a four-page Country & Western newspaper, press-sheets, etc., were among the many promotion items for these albums.

Blues fans had a good week as N. V. Phonogram released a double album called "Raw Blues Now" (compiled from records by John Mayall, Eddie Boyd, Savoy Brown, Amen Corner, etc.) and the new Savoy Brown LP called "Getting To The Point." Both LP's are on Decca.

British group the World Of Oz visited Holland to perform in a TV show. The group's first record "The Muffin Man" was a smash in Holland—their new one was recently released and is titled "King Croesus" (Deram).

A big surprise from the U.S.A.: "The Sun Ain't Gonna Shine Any More" by the Fuzzy Bunnies. Though the Walker Brothers version was a big smash here some years ago, this Brunswick record should click and give the Fuzzy Bunnies a hit in Holland. The Flower Pot Men have changed their name into Friends. Though it will take some time to push this new name with the fans, their new record "Piccolo Man" (Deram) will certainly help. The record was released on August 16th and had fine reviews in the trade press.

"Hello, I Love You . . ." is a hit in Holland, a great follow up of their top-twenty item "Unknown Soldier" for the Doors. Their new LP "Waiting For The Sun" is gonna be a Sgt. Pepper-type smash. Avant-garde promoter Evert Wilbrink is already preparing intensive promotion campaign for the album, the release of which will take place at the beginning of the Negram-avant-garde-contest and probably during the European visit of the Doors. More LP's planned on Elektra: "Nico," "Tim Buckley No. 3," "Ars Nova," "Earth Opera" and "In My Own Dream" by Paul Butterfield.

From the local production field Negram is reporting two big successes. "Ups And Downs" by the Eddysons has been released now in about 15 countries including Canada, Belgium, Spain, England, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland. Their new one "A Face" is already planned by Olga for British release. The second success has been scored by the Tee-Set, who has its new single "A Rose In Your Hand" out on August 23. The item was written by Robbie van Leeuwen of international fame and presented to the Dutch public in "Puntje Puntje Puntje" of the V.A.R.A. television. In the "Puntje Puntje Puntje" broadcast August 30 by VARA-TV, Status Quo did their follow up to "Pictures Of Matchstickmen" and "Black Veils," entitled "Ice In The Sun."

In the Dutch record industry we call summertime "cucumbertime," the silly season. For CNR Records there is no silly season at all this year. Already for more than eight weeks the 12-year old boy singer Heintje is No. 1 in the Dutch charts with his "Ich Bau' Dir Ein Schloss" (I'll Build You A Castle). In Germany Heintje is also a frequent visitor of the hit parade. For about seven months he has been in the German top ten now with his song "Mama." The number one spot is also for this small boy. "Du Sollst Nicht Weinen" is the lucky title.

Another CNR summer smasher is "Ik Kan Geen Kikker Van De Kant Afduwen" (The Frog Song) by the Lowland Trio. The three boys of this group have been working together for about five years and now finally they've hit the jackpot. Also the duo Gert and Hermien Timmerman have a very good selling single, "Droombeeld."

"Mac Arthur Park" by Richard Harris is Inelco's biggest hit of the moment. Charley Pride, one of the greatest C&W singers, was to come to Holland the beginning of August, but his visit was cancelled at the last moment because of illness. Nevertheless, Inelco released a promotion single of his on the RCA label, "The Easy Part's Over." Inelco is expecting Mama Cass' "Dream A Little Dream Of Me," Four Jack And A Jill's "Master Jack" and Steppenwolf's "Born To Be Wild" to enter into the Dutch charts within a short time.

Recent CBS additions to the popular single field include Paul Revere's latest hit single "Don't Take It So Hard," the German group the Jacob Sisters with the German version of "Can't Take My Eyes Off You" and the famed bass Iwan Rebroff with "Song Of The Wolga" by the famous operetta composer Lehár. Further releases in the popular LP field include "Duke Ellington's Greatest Hits (1927-1949)," the stereo version of Mahalia Jackson's "Everytime I Feel The Spirit," Marty Robbins' "By The Time I Get To Phoenix" and an album, entitled "Greatest Hits," by "the last of the red hot mamas" Sophie Tucker. CBS additions to the classical field include the "Two String Quartets" by Charles Ives played by the Juilliard String Quartet, Schubert's "Trout Quintet" performed by Serkin, Laredo, Parnas, Naegel and Levine as well as Stravinsky's "First Symphony in E Flat" by the Columbia Symphony Orchestra conducted by the composer.

CBS best-selling singles in Holland are the Union Gap ("Lady Willpower" and "Young Girl"), Simon & Garfunkel's "Mrs. Robinson," O. C. Smith's "The Son Of Hickory Holler's Tramp" and Cupids Inspiration's "Yesterday Has Gone."

Iramac is extending its staff with the acquisition of Herre Jager, formerly with Barclay. Herre is starting his promotion work with a special drive for the SABA and Project 3 labels, concentrating on such well-praised artists as Urbie Green (and his 21 trombones), the Free Design, Baden Powell and Eugen Cicero. Iramac released a new recording by "Grand Prix Du Disque" winning Christine Deutekom. She recorded the famous "Nuns Chorus" (from Casanova) and the "Vilja-song" (from Die Lustige Witwe). Iramac is heavily promoting the new group Flash Point 6 with their hit single "Zangles." Another hit is created by Bruno and the Casanovas and their Dutch version of "Cuando Sali De Cuba" (well-known Sandpipers hit). On the Soul Sound label, Iramac released "Driftn' thru The Blues" by John Lee Hooker. This original United Records recording has been released here on the occasion of the visit of John Lee Hooker to the Folk Blues Festival in Holland in October this year.

The new Dutch Top 40 show many Basart-controlled copyrights; f.i. in 10th position entered the sensational "Crazy World Of Arthur Brown" with their first big hit in Holland: "Fire" (Essex). The song enjoys tremendous air play and is expected to reach the top three at least. Arena-Holland has a boom again here with Sam and Dave's "You Don't Know What You Mean To Me." Another great artist entered the charts, Otis Redding's "Amen" settled for the number 23 spot last week. Heintje is still building on his castle and holds the number one spot for the 8th week, with Vivace-Basart's "Ich Bau Dir Ein Schloss." Dutch top group the Cats have the biggest local hit in months with Connelly-Basart's copyrights "Times Were When" in second position. Mills-Holland reports an arrow marked fifth position for "Abergavenny" by Marty Wilde. Maintaining their chart positions are the Rolling Stones with "Jumpin Jack Flash," Blue Cheer with "Summertime Blues" and Tommy

"THEM THAT'S GOT" interview "them that ain't" in a special session to promote the latest Canned Heat single, "On the Road Again," recently released in England. For the promotion, Britain's most "with-it" deejay Stuart Henry queries the most "without-it" spinner Jeremy Pikel (in reality Liberty promotion manager Ron Bell) on a tour of the offices of BBC's visiting producers and deejays. The gimmick did bring attention, winning plenty of top 20 airplay for the side. Bell is shown below sans flower-power garb putting a gloss on the BBC plaque at Broadcasting House.

The second evening will feature chamber music and Jacqueline Pre/Daniel Barenboim, the Trio di Trieste, Gustav Leonhardt/Evans Bruegen/Anner Bylsma, Claudio Arrau and the Julliard String Quartet will perform. The final evening will be devoted to symphony music and Maurice Andre, Arthur Grumiaux, Martha Argerich and the New Philharmonic Orchestra of London under the direction of Prof. Erich Leinsdorf will perform. During the event which will be heavily televised here, the German Record Prizes of 1968 will be awarded. The Gala Evening for pop will be held again on the 5th of March next year in Berlin.

Word is going around that the American Forces Network which just celebrated its 25th birthday will soon be closing shop. If this is true, it will end an era of broadcasting which has played a vital part in the music taste of Europe and will rob the American record industry of an important outlet and promotion tool. Although the American station is there for the entertainment of troops stationed in Europe, millions of Europeans hear the programs and buy the records played by AFN.

Teldec reports many September happenings. First of all, the Flirtations are due here for their first TV show on the 2nd of September and will greet the Hamburg press at a conference on the same day. On the 3rd of September, RCA Victor's Peggy March will pick up her first Golden Record for the sale of over 3 million records here. The third event will be the release of the new Rolling Stones LP called "Beggars Banquet." The major event of September or the firm will be the Sammy Davis, Jr., tour which is now planned for the 23rd of September until the 2nd of October with Nurnberg, Karlsruhe, Essen, Hannover, Berlin, Bremen and Hamburg planned and other deals in the works. American Jeff Patterson who has dealt exclusively with U.S. bases shows is in charge of the event.

Peter Kirsten reports that his Global Music has landed "MacArthur Park" by Jim Webb with the Richard Harris record beginning to move here.

Liberty Records starlett Suzanne Doucet is not only moving as a record artist but is also heading toward a top D.J. career. The pretty lass is now doing the popular second TV teen show, "4-3-2-1—Hot And Sweet" and will also take over as D.J. for the Swiss TVer "Hits A Go Go" together with Liberty stablemate Hardy Hepp.

From Switzerland, news that Helbing & Co. are swinging with their Heco Label. The active firm just broke a Swiss record by producing 26 songs in one week which will be released on 2 singles, 3 EP's and an LP. That's a huge production by the tiny Swiss standards. Promotion and production manager for the first is Teddy Pauli.

Ralph Siegel, Jr., delighted that his "It's A Long Long Way To Georgia" is zooming up the Cash Box C&W chart with Don Gibson at the helm. Ralph wrote the song while visiting Nashville and working for a short while at the Acuff-Rose office. Another Siegel, Jr., composition-production is "Winds Of Change" moving well by the Gloomys on Electrola. Ralph is not doing badly either on the pop scene with the number one record in Sweden, a new version of "Under The Red Lantern Of St. Pauli" in Sweden sung by Anita Lindblom.

On a personal note, Trudy Meisel who has been off of the swinging scene for the past ½ year due to a skiing accident is back! The ever active Mrs. Meisel will be going to England early in September on her first major trip for the Hansa-Intro interests.

That's it for this week in Germany.

"Lowery to London"

Bill Lowery of Lowery Enterprises, left last week for a busy visit to London. He will headquarter at his English outlet, Lowery Music Ltd.

One of the more important facets of the trip will be a meeting with the EMI brass. EMI, through a Capitol Records-Lowery Enterprises contract has the exclusive distrib rights to Lowery's new 1-2-3 label. "Birmingham," by the Movers is the debut release of 1-2-3. There is, by the way, a Birmingham in England.

Also on the top of the things-to-do list is auditioning of British talent and material. Lowery has a soft spot in his heart for English singing groups, no doubt in part due to the Deep Purple whose record of "Hush," published by Lowery has bloomed into a real sweet smelling rose for him.

Brazil

It was a French (show business) invasion! One after the other, we had the presence of Herve Villard (Philips), Maurice Chevalier (CBS) and, last but not least, Richard Anthony (Pathé-Marconi/Odeon). Each of these artists was presented in television and through personal appearances and capitalized on what, from them, is known in Brazil. First, Herve Villard with the hit number "Capri, C'Est Fini," which was on the local charts a few years ago. Old-timer Maurice Chevalier admired for his endurance and for his perennial career which make him almost a legend. Finally, chanter Richard Anthony whose name became even more popular in this country through the recent best-seller "Aranjuez, Mon Amour."

Chanter-composer Chico Buarque De Hollanda, presently in the United States, will depart for an European tour where he will be met by guitarist-composer Toquinho.

An important album is being released by Philips (CBD), important for its anohologic aspect for the appearance of a new musical movement in Brazil. Tropicalia is the name of the new wave and of the LP in which all the chanters and composers responsible for it are represented such as Caetano Veloso and Gilberto Gil (who founded the movement together with vocal-instrumental group Os Mutantes), chantress Gal Costa, etc.

Discos Chantecler is releasing some good Decca originals, such as albums by Rafael Mendez & Laurindo De Almeida, another by great Ella Fitzgerald ("For Sentimental Reasons"), and "Very Warm" with Rod McKuen. Also a single with the Poor and a local recording with recently-awarded number "Lapinha" c/w "Quando A Policia Chegar" by folk group Os Crioulos Da Policia. Milton Gama, PR and press man of the company, informs us that the new Radio Cometa has a weekly program produced by deejay Celio Monteiro in which best sellers from Cash Box are presented together with a local research of national hits.

Local RCA Victor announces releases of disks by Maria Galante, a new teen chantress from Rio; old-timer (73) chanter Vicente Celestino has his "Obrigado Meu Brasil," a new album celebrating his 50 year career. Singles bring interpretations of Johnny Rivers ("Look To Your Soul" b/w "Something Strange"); Argentine idol Palito Ortega ("Todo Es Mentira" c/w "Digan Lo Que Digan"); Andrea (Cadê Você c/w "Melhor Voce Ir Para Um Museu"); Mauro Sergio ("Ingratidão" b/w "Ele Só Faz Você Sobrer"); Wilson Miranda & Os Originais Do Samba ("Lapinha" and "Canto Chorado"); Ronnie Cord ("O Jogo Do Simão" b/w "Se Voce Gosta," a version of "Gimme Little Sign"); and albums with Al Hirt, Sandy Nelson and Armando Manzanero.

Chanter-composer Martinha is preparing her South American tour, and the AU label released another single with two of the baby-voiced lark's new compositions: "Pior Pra Você, Bem Pior Pra Mim" b/w "Eu Sei O Que Quero."

In Rio de Janeiro preparations are being made for the Third International Festival Of Popular Song, and new important names are enlarging the long list of artists and personalities from all who will attend the important event, already considered as one of the most important organizations of the kind in the entire world.

We Predict That . . . the number of the year, "Viola Enluarada," penned by Marcos and Paulo Sergio Valle, will become an international hit if the French chanter Richard Anthony cuts it in French, as is his plan.

Polydor Off And Running With Canadian Releases

TORONTO—Newly formed, pop-minded Polydor Records Canada is off and running with both single and album product. Heading the singles list is "Sunshine Of Your Love," the Cream deck on its second go-round; "Hush" by Deep Purple, the initial release from the recent Polydor-Tetragrammaton pact; and "The Theme From Elvira Madigan." Lori Bruner, Ontario Promo chief for Polydor, notes that the label has just released Arthur Brown's English chart hit, "Fire." On the album front, the firm is also doing strong business with Cream's "Wheels On Fire."

On the domestic scene, Polydor has a debut deck by Montreal's Sceptres, currently scoring on the live scene throughout Eastern Canada; and an album from the Billy Van Singers, "A Canadian Achievement," a collaboration of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters and Polydor.

Australia

Norman Whiteley Holdings Pty. Ltd., has formed a publishing company in association with Sunshine Records. The company, which is jointly owned, is known as Sunshine Music Pty. Ltd. The company can look forward to copyrights being recorded by such local acts as Normie Rowe and Jonne Sands. Abigail Music, another Norman Whiteley company, is in good shape right now with the Bee Gees' "I've Gotta Get A Message To You," whilst the Planetary-Nom company has the local rights to the overseas biggie, "Mony, Mony" and a song called "Breakout" recorded locally by Normie Rowe.

April Music, the publishing subsid of Australian Record Company Limited, are having a strong run with sheet sales on "Angel Of The Morning" (a hit for Merrilee Rush) and "Hush, Not A Word To Mary" as released here on the CBS label by John Rowles. Peter Lewis, boss of the April office, says the company has high hopes for young Perth (Western Australia) boy Bill Millar with his original, "Sylvia," as recorded on CBS and publishing in the April hands. April also have the rights to "Running And Hiding" as recorded by local act the Motivation on the Ramrod label.

As part of a special promotion drive, Astor Records are scripting a series of one-hour radio programs around some of their top-selling artists. The sessions, scripted by promo head Dick Heming (himself a former radio man), give inside biographical data sprinkled in with recorded highlights from each feature artists. Those covered to date are Davy Jones, Sandie Shaw, and Petula Clark. The scripts are made available at no charge to any station interested in them.

EMI held a rather swinging reception in Melbourne recently to introduce the Adelaide (South Australia) group Zoot with their debut single for the Columbia logo, "You'd Better Get Goin' Now" and "Three Jolly Little Dwarfs." The function was hosted for EMI by Cliff Baxter and Ray Havin, and was well attended by a large cross-section of the trade.

Two new local singles on the Festival label are Eden Kane (who is now settled here from London) with "Time, Love, Hope, Life" and "It Doesn't Matter Anymore," and the Affair with "Shoeshine Boy" c/w "What Became Of Mary."

RCA are about to issue a new EP featuring local group the Twiliters. The little package is called "Good Grief! It's The Twiliters" which also is the name of the new television series that the group is doing for the government-operated ABC television network. The television series will be launched early September.

Chappell & Co. have issued the sheet copy on "Sleep Safe And Warm" which is the lullaby from the film "Rosemary's Baby." We understand that the film has run into a little censorship trouble here and will not be screened until this is cleared. Another new sheet from the Chappell office is "One More Dance" as recorded by Esther & Abi Ofarim for the Philips banner.

A committee has been formed from amongst the trade to organize the formation of the Australian Country Music Guild. Japan

A 20th Century Fox musical film "Star" featuring Julie Andrews has just been released at the first-run theatres and specialized publicity has been made by the film distributor. Tying up with the film promotion, Victor World Group Dept. is rushing the release of a de-luxe album of the original soundtrack from "Star" which is expected to be as successful as the RCA best seller "The Sound Of Music." The World Group Dept. has released a Miriam Makeba LP entitled "Golden Miriam Makeba" (Reprise) to coincide with her current tour. The album includes "Pata Pata," her initial single hit in Japan, "Mas Que Nada," "Click Song," etc. She is booked for ten concerts here in seven cities. Because of its uniqueness, much advance publicity is being made for an album released by Victor World Group, "Chants des Maquis du Vietnam," a collection of the songs sung by Viet Cong soldiers recorded live in 1965 in the jungles of Vietnam by female French journalist Madeleine Riffaut and W. Burchett, Australian journalist.

Nippon Grammophon's early September releases include "Reach Out of the Darkness b/w Time on Your Side" by Friend and Lover (Verve), "Think b/w You Send Me" by Aretha Franklin (Atlantic) and a de-luxe album of Eric Burdon and the Animals, "The Bests of Eric Burdon & The Animals." Encouraged by the success of "The Dock Of The Bay" (which seems to be sign of a rhythm and blues boom in Japan), Nippon Grammophon is releasing Otis Redding's last LP "Otis Redding In Europe," which includes "Respect," "My Girl," "Shake," etc.

"Ha, Ha, Ha" by the Mauds (Mercury) seems to be a big hit potential here. The song is receiving very favorable reactions from disc jockeys and radio producers. Philips Records-Victor, its distributor, has assigned a recording of local version to Rindo and the Rinders and is planning a big promotion for both the original and local recordings of this title.

As one of the "celebration projects" for the 15th anniversary of the London label, King Records releases for subscription sale the world's first complete recording of Wagner's "Ring Of The Nibelung" consisting of "Das Rheingold," "Die Walkure," "Siegfried" and "Götterdämmerung" in 22 LPs. The recording was accomplished in 1966 by Decca Records with first-class performers such as J. London, K. Flagstad, W. Windgassen, B. Nilsson, H. Hotter and Fischer-Dieskau with the Vienna Phil, conducted by Georg Solti.

CBS-Sony Records has currently made its initial release of pre-recorded tapes of the CBS repertoire with eight items of 4-track open reel tapes and ten music cassettes. These cassettes will attract potential buyers by their cheaper price, ¥2,000 ($5.56), compared to that of imported cassettes previously put on the market, ¥2,300 ($6.39).

The total output of records in Japan during the 6 months between January and June this year has been announced to be 57.7 million copies and 19.8 billion yen in value. The figures represent a 5% increase in quantity and a 3% increase in value over those of the second half of last year. It is noticed that the production of 25cm LP has remarkably increased, 4.8 times as much as the previous period. On the other hand the output of 17cm records is only 1% ahead.

EDITORIAL: Time for Some Answers

One of the most memorable and dramatic events in the 20 year history of MOA's annual conventions will be taking place at this year's Expo when the subject of record programming and the role of the one-stop comes up for discussion at the Industry Seminar. We say the discussion might very well turn out quite dramatic because the panel will be manned by more than a half-dozen key one-stop owners and moderated by their oft-quoted critic (and MOA president) Bill Cannon. If a little fur flies, so much the better, especially if those rather vague concepts that lie at the very heart of the matter are finally and definitively answered:

1. Does it really pay off to spend all that effort for individualized location record programming?
2. Does the one-stop help the operator or get in his way.
3. What actually is "jukebox music" and where is it different from chart tunes.

It is Cannon's firm contention that every operator who takes time to divine the tastes of each of his locations and tailors the records he selects for them will make more in the collection box; and he's got the best proof of all—his own route collections. As zealous as he is on conscientious programming, Cannon denounces those one-stops that, as he says, "sell their records by the pound" and criticizes those operators who put up with the "off hand" treatment.

While agreeing that phonographs programmed strictly from the Top 40 of the trade charts make good money, Bill condemns the loss of each operator's personal touch in his record selections. He sees a "sameness" in the title strips at many locations he visits and wonders how many jukeboxes around the country offer such trite and tired material that the customer is hard-pressed to find three selections he likes.

The panel discussion, and the question and answer period to follow, should unearth some interesting opinions. We should hear from ops who say individual location programming is a waste of time when they measure the extra few coins they earn against the time, effort and money expended in ferreting out the various tunes and artists necessary to provide that "something for everyone" on the juke. We're sure to hear praise for certain one-stops who conscientiously assist their customers in buying the best of what's available. Hopefully we'll learn from the attending record companies exactly how much of what they make available is geared for the jukebox and whether they ask one-stops to push these particular records.

Just as certain, we'll hear loud complaints against high-pressure one-stops who prefer to push records which gain them the most profit—regardless of what kind of tunes are in the grooves. Bob Nims, in charge of staging the seminar discussions, has already slated a full panel of one-stop reps for the forum but says he'll give as many more as possible an opportunity to address the conventioners.

The large one-stop attendance expected for this year's convention should appeal to the record companies who would like to talk with the people who, after all, represent them to the operator. Saying they are prepared to give the operating industry what it wants in music, this year the record people must learn what it is the industry really wants. Is there a genuine need for specialized music, as many ops have said, and if so, will the one-stops push it and the ops buy? How many times have we all heard operators ask for more and better little LP's and how many times have the record companies come back to say the ops don't buy them?

These are the questions that must be answered and the MOA Exposition (offering the top personnel of all three segments of the coin music industry) will be the place for it. As the 45rpm buying power of the music operating industry looms larger and larger each year, the industry's needs must be filled . . . if indeed there really is an unfilled need. Ya'll come to the Show and let's find out.

STOP THE MUSIC!

"ROLL FILM!"—But kill the sound. Cinema Mfg., makers of Color-Tek, a color film machine, is marketing the unit to middle-class taverns whether they have a jukebox or not. "Although Color-Tek has a sound unit, we are not featuring sound-on-film because we don't want to compete with the jukebox," says Pat Shannon, vice-president of Cinema.

The firm is offering a package of 12 Super 8 color film at a flat rate of $25.00. Film material is along the lines of "art", offering two to three minute stories such as a girl floating through space on horseback.

Cinema Mfg. is located at 10407 Liberty, St. Louis, Mo. 63132.

S. Dakota Operators Show Their Colors

INDUSTRY FIRST—Pictured above is the latest public relations project of the South Dakota Music & Vending Association. It's one of two billboards the organization placed on the S. Dakota state line to welcome incoming tourists from Wyoming. John Trucano of Blackhills Novelty and a member of the ass'n said, "The state highway dept. and news media have praised this project because the coin machine industry is the first to take an interest in the tourists passing thru our state."

The welcome sign has brought such interest that the S. Dakota boys have voted to build two more to welcome travelers going west from Minnesota. Great work, fellows, keep it up and let's hope other state associations will get the hint!

Rock-Ola Previews New Music Unit to Distribute

CHICAGO—The Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. conducted two preview showings of a brand new coin-music unit last week, exclusively for representatives of their distributing network. The new machine was first shown at a closed meeting in New York City's Plaza Hotel (Tues., August 20th) where more than half of their distributing firms were represented; the remainder of their distributors viewed the machine at a second showing held Fri. August 23rd in New Orleans.

The new unit will be released nationally the week of Sept. 21st, allowing the factory sufficient time to ship initial models to its distributors and for these distributors to stage preview demonstrations to selected operator-customers.

While a thick cloak of secrecy guards the actual details of the new machine, Rock-Ola executives revealed that the theme is definitely "modern . . . 'mod' . . . right in line with the aesthetic styles of 'today'."

Factory executives who coordinated both meetings included: Dr. David Rockola, Ed Doris, Les Rieck, Art Janicek, Hugh Gorman, Bill Findlay and George Hineker. Doris advises members of the operating trade to watch their mails for invitations to local showings.

PROFILE:

Lindy Nardone—Working Together Gets Results

"If an association fosters and protects one's business, then it certainly protects one as a member."

This week's Cash Box Profile Series features Lindy Nardone, president of A-1 Amusement of Rochester, New York. Nardone is a director of Music Operators of America, a member of the New York State association and very active in community affairs. He came into the coin machine industry in 1939 directly from high school as a part time helper. He spent nine years working for another firm and in 1948 he purchased his present firm which was operating only music and games at the time. Since, he has expanded into wholesale tobacco and candy vending, and now is involved in nearly every aspect of coin-operated equipment, operating primarily in New York's Monroe County area.

Lindy Nardone is a man of the times, he knows what it takes to make this industry click, he is very much aware of current legislative problems, not only in his home state but on the national level as well. Following are a series of quick explosive, but meaningful responses to questions asked him.

Is there any essential operating differences from area to area?

The essential operating differences for our area come in the form of the limited type of amusement equipment we are able to operate due to the city and state ordinances. Also the high rate of advance commissions and new equipment needed to meet competition which is very strong because we have no local association.

What single piece of coin-op equipment is most lucrative to operate in your area?

We have found that pool tables are the most profitable.

What in your opinion is the most important factor to take place in the business during the past five years?

The introduction of the coin-operated pool table.

In what way has it helped your business?

Pool tables have helped to increase and maintain patronage on location, therefore, responsible for an overall increase in sales.

Any of your location on 2 for 25¢ play?

Eight per cent of our music locations is on 2 for 25¢ play and hopefully, we will be able to convert 100 per cent to the more profitable price structure in the near future.

Do you find money to be tight in your area, financing?

Financing and money has become more and more difficult to acquire, however, it is still available, but at higher interest rates and points.

What makes a good piece of coin-operated equipment, its looks, its quality, serviceability?

A good piece of equipment depends upon the total combination of all three categories—serviceability, quality and looks. All three are prerequisites for an outstanding piece of equipment.

Where do you place the most importance in obtaining a new location, your talent as a salesman, the equipment, etc.?

Location public relations work and quality equipment offered go hand in hand. Then, the very fact that the location has a need for the equipment is important also.

Do you find operators in your area upgrade and rotate their routes on a regular basis?

In our territory only a small percentage of the operators do.

What is the largest legislative problem confronting the business in your area?

We have two legislative problems. A bill passing five ball and the fight to keep states sales tax from music and games.

Is your association banding together to fight this legislation?

Yes they are. As a member of the state association, I can say, they have in the past and are presently doing a commendable job on behalf of the membership.

In what way does it benefit you as a member?

If an association fosters and protects one's business, then it certainly protects one as a member.

Have you noticed a trend towards larger operating companies buying out the smaller operator's routes. Is it healthy for the business?

Slow expansions, I feel, would be healthy if strong controls and good business practices are applied. We have purchased three routes over the past four years.

From your own point of view, what is the present state of the business?

Very healthy, but we must keep advance commissions and loans under control.

What would you like to see happen in the business during the next year or so?

A program directed towards increasing interest among the general public, so as to attract better qualified personnel and encourage more of them to join our industry. We have a tremendous shortage of qualified men and women.

What technique do you employ in programming music for your locations?

We give requests top priority and then we try to tailor music to suit the individual location. We have approximately 30,000 records on file, cross-indexed by title and artist.

Do you program any Country & Western material?

Yes we do program the C&W product and have had much success with it.

Do you feel the record industry at large pays sufficient attention to the music operator thru promotion and the type of product made available?

I think they have neglected us to a greater degree than they should, or even realize. One area where it is quite evident is in the type of music they make available to us in the cocktail lounge locations. There just doesn't seem to be enough of it.

What are your feelings on public relations?

Regarding public relations, I am sure that most operators have excellent relations with their locations. However, from a general public standpoint, a great deal of work is needed to improve the image of our industry. There are several good men doing work in this area but they can't do it by themselves. It requires the attention of everyone involved and we won't see any national results until we take it on a national level.

What about a comment on the future?

I feel the future of the coin machine business looks promising. All operators should endeavor to support their national, state and local associations. This will give the industry its unity and strength to overcome any future obstacles and to bring about better communication and relations with all segments of the industry.

Gottlieb Debuts 2-P "Paul Bunyan"

CHICAGO — Gottlieb is doing big things! It's a good bet that their latest two-player flipper "Paul Bunyan" will also do big things.

Paul Bunyan offers players "dynamic total playfield action" with four exciting features. 1) The playfield is adorned with six flippers which allow players to make "relay recovery shots" to the top of the colorful playfield. 2) The second feature comes in the form of an A-B-C rotation sequence which re-lights "running Light" rollover and target for 500 points. 3) This feature is called "bullseye targets" and when hit the rollunder lights and allows the player to shoot again. 4) A big 600 points are scored when players activate either of the two "kick out holes" when they are lighted.

The one feature that is rarely mentioned on a new amusement game of this nature is the artwork on the playfield and back glass. Paul Bunyan has a picture of the legendary woodcutter himself on the back glass, which shows several girls in the act of shaving him with an ax, combing his hair with a pitch fork, sweeping his clothes with a house broom and scrubbing his legs with a sign hanger's brush.

Another impressive feature that is certain to stimulate competition on the game is the words, "it's more fun to compete," on the back glass.

The game accepts nickels, dimes and quarters and has the traditional Gottlieb cabinet features. The game is now on display at all Gottlieb distributors.

Rowe Sponsors S. School For The Blind

WHIPPANY—Rowe International recently concluded a one week service school that dramatically illustrated the progress that vending has made in the last decade. The school was held in Kentucky and was conventional in all respects except one: the class was composed entirely of blind people.

The students, fifteen in all, were all from the Kentucky Federation for the Blind, which operates a number of manual and automatic Blind Stand vending locations throughout the state. Under the direction of Rowe service engineer Gordon Winfield, the students received a full 40 hours instruction on hot and cold drink machines, candy, pastry, cigarette, and hot canned food vendors.

And they did remarkably well, as Winfield describes. "As we explained the machines, the students followed the operation by touch. Working in teams of five, they picked up the operations very quickly and then performed them on their own.

"There were no short cuts," Winfield continued. "We covered every service point just as we would in any other school. And we ended up with well qualified service people."

Jim Abato, Rowe's director of service engineering, said, "While we continually strive for ease of serviceability on our equipment, this school had to be the acid test. The easy removal and replacement of major components in vending equipment is a must. And while the success we had in this school doesn't mean we will stop improving, it does indicate that major progress has been made in simplifying service."

The Kentucky Federation for the blind is similar to many other state organizations in that its objective is to completely integrate the sightless into society. The Federation's Blind Stand program has been a great success in that respect, and it seems destined for even greater heights considering the abilities of the blind operators.

"In fact," Winfield added, "the blind people we have instructed easily make up for their lack of sight with their highly refined sense of touch. With enough training, they can be taught to perform all the service operations necessary to maintain a full line of vending machines."

A great deal of the preparation for the school was done by Rowe's distributor, J & J Distributing in Cincinnati. Bill Watson, who manages the Cincinnati office, found the experience most gratifying of all. "Helping people to learn is always fun," says Bill. "But helping other people to help themselves is really satisfying." "We look forward to even more successful schools."

Annual Vending Study Reveals '67 Profits 4.1 Per Cent Of Sales Before Taxes

CHICAGO—Average net profits for vending service companies remained virtually unchanged in 1967 at 4.1 per cent of sales before income taxes, according to an annual study released last week by the National Automatic Merchandising Association. The 1966 figure was 4.52 per cent.

The profit data are part of the results of the 21st annual Operating Ratio Report compiled from financial reports submitted by NAMA members to Price Waterhouse & Co. The study is underwritten by the association as a service to its more than 2,000 member firms.

While the profits held steady, a change in the compilation method produced significant shifts in other figures, compared with previous years. The largest reporting companies omitted the majority of nonvending sales from their figures for the first time in recent years, creating a more accurate reflection of actual vending machine transactions. Compared to 1966, the sales reported "other than through vending machines" dropped from 26.5 per cent of total sales to 4.4 per cent in the 1967 report.

As a result, the average figure for payroll costs declined to 18.1 per cent of sales from 21.1 per cent in 1966. Commission payments to locations registered a 24 per cent increase to 10.13 per cent of sales (from 8.17 per cent in 1966), also reflecting the change in reporting methods.

Average sales per machine were generally higher in 1967 (figures for 1966 are shown in parentheses):

Cigarettes, ($1,601); Candy, nuts, gum and biscuits, $783 ($728); cold cup beverages, $2,099 ($2,009); hot cup beverages, $3,150 ($2,902); ice cream, $1,171 ($1,262); milk, $2,203 ($2,147); sandwiches, salads, pastry, $1,929 ($1,900); hot food, $1,291 ($1,131); bottled and canned soft drinks, $953 (1,092); miscellaneous products, $1,103 ($834).

Total sales volume for the 185 companies which submitted data for the report amounted to $835,801,263. The number of firms is similar to that of the 1966 report, but total sales volume dropped because a large percentage of nonvending sales by participants was excluded in 1967.

Of the participating vending service firms, 56 had annual sales of less than $250,000, while 5 reported sales of more than $10,000,000 each. The report gives detailed breakdowns by five sales volume brackets, by types of products vended and includes data on operating costs, gross margins, sales per machine, per employee and on depreciation practices.

The annual Operating Ratio Report is compiled from confidential figures submitted by NAMA member firms directed to Price Waterhouse & Co. Copies of the report are available only to members of the association, at a cost of $10 for the first copy and $1 for each additional copy.

STOMPIN' AT THE PLAZA — The lush red carpet of New York's magnificent Plaza Hotel was laid down for a goodly portion of the Rock-Ola distributor network personnel last Tuesday as the factory previewed their something brand new in music. The new machine, due for national release in September, was introduced, described and technically outlined by factory brass who included Dr. David Rockola, Ed Doris, Les Rieck, Art Janicek, George Hincker, Huge Gorman and Bill Findlay. Distribs on hand to meet their new beauty included Al Simon, Al D'Inzillo, Len Schneller, Bob Math, Dave Stern and Bert Betti from this area. Ruben Franco and his family took advantage of the New York showing by staying around town a few extra days for a vacation. Tommy and Bill Greco came down from Glasco. Brother Joe was busy counting receipts from the St. Joseph's church bazaar up in Glasco to attend. Spent a few very pleasant hours with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grillo and Mrs. and Mrs. Joe Shaw, upstate distribs. Hear Joe Shaw, Jr. has set himself up with a small route at college (Rock-Ola music, natch). Bert Betti says he's set son Peter up with a small route of his own to work during the summer vacation. "He's teaching me some new tricks," says Bert, "and bringing back a lot of points I've forgotten about operating." The rest of the Betti's are spending the summer at the country place in Cape Cod. Chatted briefly with genial Ben Conford from out Utah way. Ben, who left New York thirty-odd years ago, still retains ties with old coinbiz friends here including Abe Green. The two vets grew up in the same neighborhood here. Bob Portale, one of the finest guys in this business, flew all the way in from L.A. for the event. Says business doing just great. Enjoyed learning a lot about the business from Nelson Cadey from Globe Dist. in Boston. Nelse has quite an interesting operating philosophy. Big Larry LeStourgeon and his Missus up from Charlotte discussing some current country performers, says that since he's stopped operating, he's out of touch with the contemporary music scene. But Tammy Wynette, Larry! Harry Hoffman up from Baltimore told us good buddy Arnold Kaminkow was unable to attend due to recent surgery on the old schnozz. Arnie broke the nose playing basketball just before the last MOA Show and had to have a minor adjustment made. But how could you improve that face! Eli Ross all the way up from Florida with charming daughter Judy, says he likes the new music machine and knows his customers will also. The great Joe Ash was on hand for the meeting but had to get back to Philly by late afternoon to help son Frank hold down the busy shop. Seems sales manager Marty Brownstein is ailing. The gang adjourned that evening to the Royal Box in the Americana Hotel for some truly prime ribs and the comedy of the great Todie Fields. Good natured patter between Todie and the audience signaled the entrance of George Hincker into show business, stopping the comedienne cold with a few well place rejoinders. If he doesn't mind answering to the name of Hinkie, old George has a fine future on the stage. A great time was had by all.

GLOBETROTTERS — Jack Gordon, Cameron International prexy, just returned from three week biz trip to Europe on behalf of his Cinematic and Scopitone interests. Bill Prutting, Cameron veep, off to Bermuda for vacation. Jack will be exhibiting his audio-visual line at the MOA show this Oct. but has an extra special surprise for some close industry friends in form of a preview showing of a brand new item behind closed doors elsewhere in Convention City.

And it's not a film unit! . . . Howard Reinhart, president of BRAD, Inc. and inventor of the famous cue tip which now saves the billiard industry mucho time and expense service-wise, on a brief sales tour of the East Coast, including stopoffs in Washington, Philly and New York. Howard reveals he's about to open brand new factory quarters on Jefferson Ave. in Detroit to accommodate expanding biz on the BRAD line.

CALLING ALL RESERVATIONS— Ben Chicofsky, managing director of our MONY, urges all New York State ops to return their reservation cards promptly if they want to attend the Sept. 27-29 combined associations convention up in the Catskills. Ben says three-quarters of the rooms are already spoken for by the trade at the Homowach Lodge so let's get going, guys. Meanwhile, Ben's just about completed preparations for the association's Major Medical Plan and will be mailing details to members shortly.

DAVE AILING—Late news in from Philly that Dave Rosen has suffered a heart attack and is currently resting well at Hahnemann Hospital, located at Broad St. and Vine St. Send your get well wishes. . . . Also from Philly comes word that veteran vending trucker Mike Goldstein is expanding his most profitable Mid-City Auto Wash complex. Lots of dough in dirty cars . . . too bad our trade never got onto the coin carwash thing when it first started. Mike and the Missus are now off on an extended five-country tour of Europe. Len Schneller, of U.S. Billiards and an old buddy of Mike's, saw them off at J.F.K. Airport early next week.

HERE AND THERE—Big story on giant Trimount Automatic Golf bash in next week's issue. Reps of over 100 operating companies and allied trades are expected at the glamorous Blue Hill Country Club in Canton, Mass. Monday, Aug. 26th, according to Irv Margold. The annual event climaxes the distrib's dynamic summer promotion on music and vending equipment. . . . Urban Industries' Nat Bailen, back in the factory after short vacation with the family. . . . Tom Tarantelli, of the Syracuse one-stop, picking 'Wine and Violet' by the Lemon Pipers on Buddah Records for ops this week.

Upper Mid-West Musings

John Carlson, Nashwauk, in town for the day on a buying trip and buying records and parts . . . COOKIN' AT CHICOIN—A most delighted Mort Secore talks of the factory's brand new four-player 'Stage Coach' like it's the greatest thing since sliced bread. Indeed, Mort reports exceptionally high enthusiasm from his distributors who claim the new pin is earning their operators record—yes record collections at many spots. And it's just the beginning. "This 'Number Match' feature, I suppose, is the principle reason the customers are crazy about this game," said Mort. "Give 'em an extra way to score and win the free game and you're halfway there."
Plenty of good playfield action takes the game the rest of the way. ChiCoin has also premiered their brand new 'Starfire' big ball bowler this week and their distribs are most anxiously awaiting deliveries. Current enthusiasm for bowler tournaments on location should spark a good deal of sales for distribs on this piece.

Alvin Gottlieb's very, very big on that factory's brand new two-player pin 'Paul Bunyon'. The new Gottlieb pintable offers the customer more action than you can shake a stick at—with six flippers, two 600 point kickout holes, "shoot again" potential with bullseye targets and running light rollovers. Alvin terms it 'total playfield action' and he ain't kidding. The artwork in the backglass is also first-rate.
Colorful, and good fun. Should promise to be one of the biggest of the season. . . . Ross Scheer at Midway info's his European distributor network, set up in the last year, is doing a truly grand job, moving a most healthy percentage of their equipment models.
Ross is most gratified at the trade's initial reaction to their new 'Fantastic' shuffle. For ops who like to up the ante on the play price, Ross says there's over 37, yes 37 different coin combinations that the game accommodates as its delivered from the factory. Price converters are included. The 'Helicopter Trainer', which Midway makes and markets for the European trade, has proven out a good item on their agenda. . . . The big Rock-Ola preview showing of their new music unit at New York's Plaza Hotel took most of the factory brass out of Windy City for most of the week. After New York,
Dr. David Rockola, Ed Doris, Les Rieck, et al, were off to New Orleans and another show for the remainder of their distribs.

THAT'S WHAT YOU THINK—"I've gotten along without the association for twenty years, and I guess I can continue to get along without it now."
That's what an operator said to Fred Gain when he approached him on the matter of joining ICMOA. Gain said, "Nothing could be further from the truth, both in the past and in the future. What the operator meant was something like, 'For years, I've reaped the benefit and protection of the work done by state and national associations, but so far I've gotten by without paying my rightful share of money, time and work.'" Harry Schaffner, pres. of ICMOA said, "Association membership is the best insurance policy an operator can carry. It insures his business—from which stems everything he owns, or ever hopes to own."

TURN-AROUND—It was learned from a recent issue of the Wall Street Journal that the managements of Commonwealth United Corp. and Seeburg have been holding negotiations that could lead to Seeburg being merged into Commonwealth's growing corporate complex. In the past, Seeburg has made unsuccessful tender offers for Ray-bestos-Manhattan, Rheem Mfg. and Warner Bros.-7 Arts Ltd. Seeburg earned $3 million from operations in the nine months ended July 31, up from 1.6 million a year earlier.

COMIN' SOON—The Americom
Corp., will be in Seattle, Wash. at the Olympic Suite of the Seattle Center on August 28. (Wed.) for a dealer presentation on the entire concept of the firm's Pocketdisc 45rpm single.
Fred Hyman of Americom informed us that 22 manufacturers will be on hand to hear a presentation on the product along with rack jobbers, retail dealers and other interested companies. The agency for Americom will give details on back-up promotional support such as radio spot schedules, media data and sample promotion material. Lou Lainthal of Consolidated Dist. Inc., will give the sales presentation plan. The vending unit that will debut sometime near Oct. 16th, will also be discussed. Firms like General Electric, RCA and Panasonic will be on hand with their battery operated, transistorized, solid state 45rpm record players. The affair should start sometime around 5:30 PM on Wed.

ON THE ROAD TO S. F.—Pat Shannon, V-p is in San Francisco talking up Cinema Mfg.'s new coin-operated film unit, Color-Tek. Meanwhile Bob Portale of Portale Automatic spent a few days last week in New York City for the unveiling of Rock-Ola's new music machine. . . . Henry Leyser and the ACA staff gearing towards the MOA Expo '68 for consul 130 phonograph. . . . Johnny Weiss of American Shuffleboard Sales, reports good sales of American pool tables all summer.

Houston Happenings

Ben J. Kelly, 66, owner Southwestern Amusements, Inc., died Aug. 4th in a local hospital. Our sincerest sympathy to his widow Rose; daughter Kathy Marie and his two sisters. Kelly was a member of Episcopal Church, Arabia Temple Shrine, Scottish Rite Bodies and Elks Lodge. He also was a member of the American Merchandise Assn. and International Pressmen and Assistants Union of North America. Ben, always active in local coin-matics, participated in all the other organizations of which he was a member. He was an authority on the stock market and other forms of investments. Extremely proud of his union affiliation, he, until just recently did a stint with one of daily papers during vacation period just to keep his hand in. Local coin machine industry and community as a whole suffered a loss at his passing. . . . Conversed briefly with Alvin Rayes, free lance coin machine mechanic, as he marked time at a major shopping center while daughter did a bit of shopping.
. . . Mrs. Pauline Lemke, wife of Al
Lemke, dean of Houston musicians, recently was guest of Mrs. Harold Daily, wife of H. W. (Pappy) Daily, head of H. W. Daily, Inc. (one stop and record wholesaler and producer) at the beautiful summer home in Wimberly. Wimberly is located in midst of the famous Texas Hill Country. . . .
H. A. (Hoddy) Franz, head of H. A.
Franz & Co., Houston area Seeburg Distributorship, together with his family off for an extended vacation. . . .
Operator O. L. Waltmon, owner Rocket Music Co., inferred a slump in routine operations past two months. . . . Bud
Wright, serviceman at H. A. Franz &
Co., as usual took an early vacation and now looks sorter mournful when listening to favorable reports from someone just returned from that event.

British Operator Proves Good Publicity Pays

One of 48 delivery-service vans operated by Holmark Coin Equipment Ltd., Morecambe, England. Peeking above the famous Bally "Sir Prize" is Mr. "Omo" Harrison, who, like Mr. "Mike" Carson (rear) is a member of the staff of 35 Holmark field engineers.

Herb Jones, advertising manager of Bally Manufacturing Corporation, Chicago, thinks American operators could take lessons from Joe Holmes, Director of Holmark Coin Equipment, Ltd., Morecambe, England, and his aggressive public relations officer, K. G. W. Warren.

"Many a British pub (tavern) landlord," Jones says, "sports a handsome necktie with the initials HCE woven in a pattern so attractive and unobtrusive as to be worn on any occasion. More utilitarian is the bar-towel which Mr. Holmes supplies to his numerous locations and which replaces the pasteboard coaster common in America. In addition to the company name and, of course, a replica of a Bally bell machine, the towel reminds users that Holmark is 'from coast to coast your amusement host.'"

"Although the references are to the coasts of the North and Irish Seas, a narrow span by American standards, 48 Holmark delivery and service vans (trucks) are busy daily, bringing newest Bally equipment to sites (locations) in the area, keeping the machines in sparkling tip-top condition and fetching back collections. In addition to the Holmark slogan each van prominently displays the famous Bally emblem.

"Holmes is in constant touch with every site in the vast 'Shire' of Holmark through the work of 35 field engineers and another 30 at headquarters, together with his frequent personal inspection tours. But this is not considered enough. Every other month every landlord receives, a copy of Holmark's News and Views, a sprightly little magazine which neatly blends up-to-date information with amusing items."

"Operation Key Man" Group Set For 7-Week 10-Nation Educational Tour

This year's "Operation Key Man" staff members upon departing for a 7-week 10-nation educational trip. (l. to r.) N. Ishikawa (Quality Control), S. Shiina (Sales Advertising), T. Saito (SEGA's Osaka Regional Headquarters).

TOKYO—Sega's long established program for sending staff members on annual round-the-world training and orientation tours got underway this year with the departure from Tokyo on August 1st of three key employees.

The "Operation Key Man" itinerary during the 7-week tour of 10 countries will include visits to most of the major U.S. and European firms that Sega represents in Asia. The educational, market-oriented trips are designed to broaden the perspectives of the participants and enable them to contribute more in the course of their subsequent work.

This year's travelers are Sales & Advertising Manager S. Shiina, Quality Control Department Chief N. Ishikawa and Osaka Regional Office Head T. Saito. Some of the photographs taken by camera enthusiast Shiina will probably find their way into future Sega Calendars and promotional material.

Following tradition, more than a hundred friends of the three Sega staffers gathered at Haneda Airport to bid a good journey and a safe return.

NATION'S ONE STOPS TO GATHER FOR FIREWORKS AT MOA EXPO '68

Hirsh de La Viez (left) and Fred Granger discuss plans for the gala stage show to take place Sunday, Oct. 13th. during the last day of the grand MOA Expo '68. The Ballroom at the Sherman House, site of the Expo, will hold a crowd of 1,000 and both men expect an overflow crowd. At least everyone will be able to see the show this year. The picture at right is part of the Ballroom where dinner will be served. The convention was better in '67 than in '66 and MOA Expo '68 will be even greater, so plan to attend now! Dates: Oct. 11-13th.

CHICAGO—MOA executive vice president, Fred Granger, said in a telephone interview last week that the 1968 MOA Exposition "is enjoying a tremendous amount of interest from all facets of the industry, especially in the area of One Stops."

Because of the great interest and the planned One Stop Seminar Granger has sent out personal invitations to nearly all the nation's One Stops asking them to Come To MOA Expo! Granger also asked for volunteers to sit in on the One Stop Seminar panel which will discuss the current issues facing them and music operators. Ten prominent men and women have already agreed to be panel members. They include: George Freeman, Northern One Stop, Cleveland; Chet Kajeske, Martin & Snyder, Dearborn; Stuart Glassman, Radio Doctors, Milwaukee; Charles Chissey, Hi-Fi One Stop; John Phole, Original One Stop, St. Louis; Leonard Silver, Transcontinental One Stop, Buffalo, NY; Leroy Davidson, One Stop Phonograph Records, Kansas City; Mrs. Evelyn Dalrymple, Lieberman One Stop, Omaha; Eric Bernay, A-1 Record Sales, New York City and Bucky Buchman, Redisco of Baltimore.

Also volunteered just before press time were Tom Guardino and Sam D'Agastino both of Baton Rouge, La; Fred Sipiora of Singer One Stop, Chicago.

Granger said, "Billy Cannon and I discussed the possibility of an overflow of panel members and arrived at the decision to accept anyone who volunteers and have all those we cannot place on the dais sit around tables near the dais. This way we can get everyone's comments. We would like to have a good solid geographical representation of One Stops." The One Stop discussion could very well be the highlight of this year's Expo, with the wide variety of opinions, it should get pretty hot! Any One Stop interested in being represented is urged to get in touch with Fred Granger at MOA HQ's, 228 N. La Salle St., Chicago 60601 or call him at (312) 726-2810.

Hirsh In Chicago

Hirsh de La Viez, MOA Expo Show Producer, and Frank York, leader of Frank York's Orchestra which will accompany the artists, met in Chicago with Fred Granger on August 19 & 20, to discuss details of the stage and arrangements for the musical extravaganza, slated for Sunday evening, Oct. 13th. This is the first time Hirsh has ever presented the stage show in The Sherman House, although MOA has held the Expo there in previous years. Hirsh reports that the acoustics are great and the stage is positioned just right so everyone will have a good view of the artists. The Ballroom will hold 1,000 plus and Granger expects about that many to attend. The stage show is expected to run about three hours.

Hotel registration cards will be mailed out on Oct. 10th, and advance registration for I.D. badges soon after.

The Old Days

Memories of the old days came to mind when Granger said that several state groups were planning excursions to the Windy City. Virginia, West Virginia and Illinois have already set their plans with New York and California considering. Granger said, "if any of the state associations would like to plan meetings during the convention, we can work out arrangements so they won't conflict with exhibit hours. Illinois has their's already planned. We'll be happy to have any state plan their association meeting here, but they must let us know, so plans can be worked out."

A First

Granger reported that the first operating company to sign up for the new MOA member insurance plan was Glenn Jones of Ace Coin Amusement Co., of Kemmerer, Wyoming. "It's ironical," Fred said, "Glenn is the only MOA member in the entire great state of Wyoming and he is the first one to sign up for the new insurance plan."

From Way Up North

Vic Little of The Vic Little Co., all the way from Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, called from up North just to let Granger know that he was coming to MOA Expo '68. Vic is an operator-distributor and asked Fred if he could join MOA. "You bet," said Fred with a gleam in his eye and before he could hang up the phone he had a membership card in the mail for Vic!
