New Stress Needed On Gift Value Of Recordings

Some years ago, any number of labels took advantage of the gift-buying season by formulating merchandising campaigns—some of them elaborate, some modest—that stressed the continuing pleasure derived by the recipient of a recording. It's true that Christmas product per se today is not stressed in view of the saturation of Holiday product over the years, save for the occasional album that features a newer recording personality.

Be that as it may, yet the industry should be telling a general catalog story during its most active period of the year. The tale has often been cited before, but it's been neglected of late. And that is that an LP or tape is still an exceptional entertainment buy and in view of an immense catalog of all kinds of music (as well as spoken-word) available, a recording can be easily obtained that will please all who own a phonograph.

That "entertainment buy" we speak of has taken on added lustre in recent years by virtue of the multiple, specially-priced album package. They consist of strong stereo-age product covering all types of music and artists. Surely, the many companies that have marketed such product should be regarding gift-giving merchandising as a perfect vehicle for such product.

We recall that years ago, the RIAA sponsored a running tag line in consumer advertising that brought the gift-giving concept across. This approach, we believe, has even greater merit today. Despite a number of factors that could be cited to justify a higher consumer price-scale for recordings, the price of recordings today do not reflect what many consider a runaway-inflation economy. The "Best Buy" in entertainment concept is truer than ever.

We realize that time is short in developing extensive gift-season campaigns for this year, but a modest start for years to come can still take place on various levels, especially on a local level. For the latter area, retailers, too, should be devising concepts of their own, stressing that they are "headquarters for your best buy in gift-giving, a recording."

In the belief that the industry has done little of late to bring home to the consumer the value inherent in the purchase of a recording for one's own use or for gift-buying, the business on all levels should be merchandising along these lines, keeping in mind that there are many gift-giving seasons in the year besides the upcoming Holiday season. And to cite a recording campaign of some years ago, recordings are the "gift that keeps on giving."

RCA Records and Tapes

Neil Young, Crazy Horse Open 'Roxy'

HOLLYWOOD — Neil Young, backed by Crazy Horse, will be the premiere attraction at Hollywood's long-awaited new music club, The Roxy Theater. Premiere night is Sept. 20, with Young headlining for two shows that night as well as on Sept. 21 and Sept. 22.

Roxy partners Lou Adler and David Geffen, assisted by Elliot Roberts of the Geffen-Roberts Management Company, are currently finalizing the club's attraction schedule for its initial months.

Although the Roxy has been the subject of many industry rumors as to its opening date and attraction, Adler and Geffen have declined to make any announcement about dates and stars until work on the club itself was completed to their satisfaction.

"We wanted to wait until our sound system and lighting were completely compatible with our thoughts and construction work and redecorating were finished to our satisfaction before we started thinking of the opening itself," they emphasized.

Both Geffen and Adler said flexible-

RCA Goes Double Inventory In Marketing Stereo/Quad LP's

NEW YORK — RCA Records is going double-inventory on stereo and 4-channel (discrete) recordings, thus replacing the company's philosophy of a single compatible stereo/4-channel release schedule when it began marketing quad disks last year.

In announcing the double inventory, RCA said its new Quadradisc releases would be priced at $6.98.

At the same time, RCA also announced immediate release of 15 new Quadradisc recordings. This release will bring to 39 the number of RCA albums available in discrete 4-channel sound.

Citing "current market conditions" in going single inventory, Rocco Laginestra, president of RCA, made the following comments:

"Ultimately, the discrete 4-channel record will be the industry standard, the Quadradisc eventually replacing the stereo disc because of its full compatibility. However, we have determined that now, too many dealers are isolating our product in 4-channel bins to the detriment of our stereo sales, and double inventory on new releases will eliminate this problem.

"We do not feel we can penalize the stereo buyer by increasing the cost of a compatible stereo-four channel record and so have decided on double inventory," Laginestra continued.

Following is a list of 15 albums being released in four channel sound:

"David Clayton-Thomas" by David Clayton-Thomas; "Neil Diamonds" by Hugo Montenegro; "#10" by The Guess Who; "And I Love You So" by Perry Como; "Sweet Country" by Charlie Pride; "Lord, Mr. Ford" by Jerry Reed; "Hair" by the Original Broadway Cast; "Caribbean Cruise" by Danny Davis; "Greatest Hits" by The Friends of Distinction; "Bubbling Over" by Dolly Parton; "Nils-son Schmilsson" by Harry Nilsson; "Volunteers" by Jefferson Airplane; "The Nutcracker" by Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra (ARDI-0027); "Swan Lake" by Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra; and "Sleeping Beauty" by Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Court Upholds Injunction In 4 Label Pirate Action

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — The North Carolina Court of Appeals has upheld a lower court decision that granted four record companies a permanent injunction and compensatory damages against Eastern Tape Corp., G & G Sales, Inc., Super Hits, Inc., and J. H. Pettus, the owner of the three companies.

Judge Frank W. Snapp of the Superior Court of Mecklenburg County had entered a summary judgment last Oct. against the defendants, enjoining the three companies and Pettus permanently from duplicating sound recordings made by the plaintiff record companies, Capitol Records, Inc.; CBS, Inc.; MCA, Inc.; and United Artists Records, Inc. He also ordered that a referee be appointed to determine the amount of monetary damages that plaintiffs should recover.

Action By Defendants

The defendant companies and Pettus appealed the decision to the North Carolina Court of Appeals. They charged that the common law rights in the sound recordings which they were held to have unlawfully appropriated is not an act of piracy on their part since those rights had been expressly abrogated or repealed by a State statute; that the musical performances that they appropriated are in the public domain; that the plaintiff companies constituted a monopoly in violation of the State constitution; that record companies, by embodying a number of performances in an album and refusing to issue them singly, were engaging in tie-in sales, and that, in refusing to deal with the defendants, the plaintiff companies were creating a trade boycott.

Firm Fined On Piracy Charge

ALBUQUERQUE — A fine of $22,500 was imposed in U. S. District Court here on Copy Rite Recording, Inc., which pleaded guilty earlier this month to 45 counts of infringing on copyrighted sound recordings.

The firm had been charged with illegally duplicating tapes by such top singers and groups as Joan Baez, The Carpenters, Johnny Cash, Alice Cooper, Neil Diamond, Three Dog Night, Nilsson, Elvis Presley, Charley Pride, Cat Stevens, Rolling Stones, Tammy Wynette, and Blood, Sweat and Tears.

Court Rejects Contentions

The Court of Appeals rejected all of the defendant's contentions. "Defendants have utilized the skills and resources of plaintiff to enrich them-

MCA's Findlater World Tour For Disco-Vision

UNIVERSAL CITY CALIF. — John W. Findlater, MCA vice president and president of MCA Disco-Vision, Inc., has departed on a world tour to attend and participate in meetings, seminars, expositions and conventions on behalf of MCA's new home entertainment and information storage and retrieval system.

Findlater, who expects to be "on the road" through early Oct., will meet with major electronics manufacturers and entertainment industry leaders in Berlin, New York, Cannes and Osaka during his six-week trip. He will attend the Berlin International Exhibition; Vid-Expo '73 and Video-Expo IV in New York; VIDCA in Cannes, and the Japan Electronics Show in Osaka.

MCA Disco-Vision is the new technology which will enable viewers to see the subjects of their choice on home TV screens by playing audio-visual disks on a relatively inexpensive player or player/changer unit, easily attached to any standard TV receiver. First publicly demonstrated here in 1972, the system was publicly shown again in June in Chicago, where an audience of some 500 electronics experts, technicians and other interested persons saw more than 21 minutes of programming from a single replicated disks.

Disco-Vision's high-density 12-inch disk—the audio-visual equivalent of an LP record—is capable of up to 40 minutes of playing time per side. It revolves at 30 revolutions per second and its microgrooves are scanned by a low-power laser beam—rather than a needle—to relay sound and pictures from the disk to the screen when the TV set is tuned to a channel not used for regular programming.

MCA anticipates marketing full-length features, documentaries and other programming for sale to the public packaged and priced similarly to LP record albums. The player unit will sell for under $400 and the player/changer for under $500.

Col To Market Diamond Single Pre 'JLS' Album

HOLLYWOOD — A decision has been made by Neil Diamond and his disk producer Tom Catalano to release a single from his "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" soundtrack album in mid-Sept. prior to the last-week-of-the-month release of the LP.

In confirming this fact to Cash Box, Diamond revealed that the decision on which of the songs from his musical narrative will be released as a single is to be made by the beginning of the week. But whichever one of the two under consideration will be chosen, it will be a long single—at least four minutes long and perhaps even closer to five.

Completes Scoring

Diamond has completed scoring sessions on the film with Catalano and conductor Lee Holdridge and the soundtrack is now being mixed. Some sections of the score are being re-recorded by Diamond for the album.

"Jonathan Livingston Seagull" will be Diamond's first release under his longterm contract with Columbia Records that was signed nearly two years ago but which did not take effect until March 19 of this year.

After the release of the album and the Oct. 24 world premiere of the film in New York, to be followed by a dozen other key cities by the end of the year, Diamond will return to working on his next album for the label, to be recorded in late-spring/early-summer. Diamond interrupted work on that project when "Seagull" materialized. He still has not formalized plans to return to the concert stage from which he temporarily retired on Oct. 21, 1972, "for a year . . . more likely two."

The show, to be titled "Saturday Night In Macon, Georgia, With The Allman Brothers Band," will be taped on Monday, Sept. 10, in Macon, Georgia at the Grand Opera House, Capricorn Sound Studios and several other locations still to be selected. This follows the first Kirshner show featuring the Rolling Stones.

93 Markets

The 90-minute nationally-syndicated show, now in 93 markets around the country, including KHJ-TV in Los Angeles and WNEW-TV in New York, is being presented by Kirshner in association with Phil Walden and is a Don Kirshner Production in a joint venture with Viacom. David Yarnell will produce the show.

Joining the Allman Brothers Band on the show, which will air in mid-Sept., will be composer-singer Martin Mull, the Marshall Tucker Band and Wet Willie, all of whom record for Capricorn.

The Allman Brothers Band recorded their first album in the summer of 1969 titled "The Allman Brothers Band." This was followed with the release of their second album "Idlewild South." Their third album, "At Fillmore East," released in July, 1971, turned out to be their first gold record. Their fourth album, "Eat A Peach," was released in Feb., 1972 and their current album "Brothers and Sisters," is currently number 2 on this week's album chart.

FRONT COVER:

Atlantic recording artist Bette Midler was a legend in her own time even before she had signed her first recording contract. Playing small clubs in and around New York City, the "Divine Miss M," as she has come to be known, got her biggest break when she performed as a regular before a towel clad audience at the Continental Baths, also in New York.

Her first Atlantic album release, "The Divine Miss M," has been certified gold by the RIAA and she has, thus far, had two equally as successful single releases from that LP, "Do You Want To Dance" and "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" with a third, "Friends" on the way.

Ms. Midler is in the process of recording her second album for the label which is expected to be released sometime this Fall.

September

September Songs Come In Many Colors.

And the Average White Band, MCA's rousing new soul group, come from Scotland, proving that you don't have to be black to play the blues. The Average White Band, "Show Your Hand."

Chér sings for all seasons — and all colors. "Half-Breed," a single, now an album, that dares to speak for itself.

Lee Clayton is a man of the road, a poet and a rambler, an artist painting portraits with his song. "Lee Clayton."

Bert Kaempfert's music is music for the good life, indigo songs for the autumn season, a tribute "To The Good Life."

Brazil is a land of brilliant color and mellow music; Antonio Carlos Jobim is his country's musical ambassador. After three years, Jobim returns to recording with an album that is a classic of its kind. Antonio Carlos Jobim, simply "Jobim."

Jerry Wallace is right back on Primrose Lane, and the future looks rosy. "Primrose Lane/Don't Give Up On Me." September is another season of hits for Jerry

NY Outlets Nix Ads On Frye's 'Watergate' LP

NEW YORK—Buddah Records says its cancelled $75,000 worth of TV-radio time buys in the New York area as a result of the refusal of three TV stations (CBS, NBC, ABC) and WNEW-AM to air commercials for the label's Watergate comedy LP by David Frye.

Also, it's understood that the Woolworth stores have decided not to stock the LP. While WNEW-FM is airing commercials for the album, it has deleted references to "impeachment" of the President.

The irony of NBC and ABC's refusal to air the commercials is that Frye has performed material from the LP on "Tonight" and "Jack Paar" shows. While "bad taste" and the seriousness of the Watergate charges were cited by spokesmen for NBC and ABC, Frye's manager, Joe Lauer, remarked: "Watergate deals with suppression and chicanery, and yet the reason these people aren't running the spots is that they're afraid of the Government."

As a mimic, Frye is well-known for his imitations of President Nixon and the late President Lyndon Johnson. Other Watergate recordings have run into airtime problems, and none of the many releases on the subject have gone on to big sales.

Epic, Col Custom Going Thru A Big Mid-Summer 'Hot' Wave

NEW YORK — Thanks to its heaviest month of radio exposure, the Epic and Columbia Custom Labels are enjoying an extensive chart run for its singles product and, in some instances, for album releases from which they were released.

According to Ron Alexenburg, vp of the division, and Don Ellis, director of Epic A&R, the July Columbia and Epic sales convention in San Francisco—placing special emphasis on meetings and seminars for Epic and Columbia Custom Labels promo and sales staffs—was the starting point for the mid-summer surge. Both execs credit the sales, promo and marketing forces for the current showing.

At the convention in San Francisco, the R&B seminar was highlighted by a speech by Kelly Isley, which sparked a special campaign by the Epic sales and promo staff, and has resulted in the Isley Brothers' single, "That Lady" (on their T-Neck label) ranking as one of the Epic/Custom Label's best selling records. As Stan Monteiro, Epic's national promo director, remarked, "This is an example of what emotion can do for a hit record, providing the music is in the grooves." In addition to the chart numbers for "That Lady," the Isley Brothers' LP "3+3," their first since bringing their label to Columbia, was released last week.

Edgar Winter, who has just come off his monster smash, "Frankenstein," has a new hit single, "Free Ride," also from his Gold LP, They Only Come Out At Night. The LP, boosted by the two singles, has now passed the million-unit mark in sales. Charlie Rich is another Epic artist with a million selling single, "Behind Closed Doors." Also taken from the album of the same name, sales of which have passed 200,000 units, is a new single, "The Most Beautiful Girl," which was released last week. And there has been renewed interest in Spirit, one of the first of the experimental rock groups, with the release of their album, The Best of Spirit and single, "Mr. Skin," which quickly became one of the best-selling records in Cleveland, and has

Picks of the Week

BILLY PRESTON (A&M 1463)

Space Race (3:21) (W.E.P., BMI—Preston)

First came "Outa Space" and then "Will It Go Round In Circles." Now Preston returns with a track that is guaranteed top 5 across the boards. Billy Preston is fast becoming one of the most popular recording artists in America—and this one follows in that same hit pattern. Flip: No info. available.

THE ROLLING STONES (Rolling Stone 19105)

Angie (4:30) (Promopub, ASCAP—Jagger Richard)

From their soon to be released album comes this bluesy ballad a la "Love In Vain" that will send kids to the stores in drooves. Jagger is at his best-slurring words by the dozens to ring out the feeling of every important line. As usual, another hit for the reigning kings of rock. Flip: No info. available.

ENGELBERT HUMPERDINCK (Parrot 40076)

Love Is All (3:49) (Felsted, BMI—Reed, Mason)

There are very few who can tear into a ballad as well as Engelbert can. But this one is going to surprise lots of people. Humperdinck has simply outdone himself here. Destined to keep his string of hits alive for a long time to come. Flip: No info. available.

DEEP PURPLE (Warner Bros. 7737)

Woman From Tokyo (2:56) (Hec, BMI—Deep Purple)

"Smoke On The Water" is the single that started it all for this British supergroup in the AM marketplace. Now that "Smoke" is gone, Label comes back with another super driving rocker that everyone will jump on immediately. This sounds like top 20 also! Flip: No info. available.

HAROLD MELVIN AND THE BLUE NOTES (Philly International 3533)

The Love I Lost (Part I) (3:39) (Mighty Three, BMI—K. Gamble, L. Huff)

Starts out slowly, but picks up steam soon enough to make this one a solid driving r&b top of the charts possibility. Once again, Gamble-Huff excel in production capacity and the group is up for the occasion. Flip: The Love I Lost (Part II) (3:05) (Mighty Three, BMI—K. Gamble, L. Huff)

JOHNNY NASH (Epic 11034)

Ooh What A Feeling (2:24) (Johnny Nash, ASCAP—J. Nash)

Johnny's back in his reggae bag of tricks and it looks as if this very smooth tune's going to come up a winner. One "Feeling" leads to another, and can the charts be far off? Flip: no info. available.

EDWIN STARR (Motown 1276)

You've Got My Soul On Fire (3:28) (Stone Diamond, BMI—Whitfield)

Edwin Starr is going to set the world on fire with this dynamite outing. Programmers are going to jump on this one immediately as Starr gets right back into the hit groove. Flip: No info. available.

THUNDERCLAP NEWMAN (MCA 60132)

Something In The Air (3:55) (Track, DMI—Keen)

Classic '60's revolutionary anthem is back and stronger than ever. Culled once again from the re-released "Hollywood Dream," it seems prime time for this one to go to the top of the charts. Great song, tremendous performance. That "Something" is gold. Flip: no info. available.

AFRIQUE (Mainstream 5547)

Kumbo Comin' (Good News) (2:55) (Lifestyle, BMI—Miller, McCoy, Mathews)

"Soul Makoosa" outfit is back again with a natural follow up. Strong rhythms with a little more accent on vocals this time make this one another strong chart contender. It won't take too long either. Flip: no info. available.

THE DRAMATICS (Volt 4099)

Fell For You (3:15) (Groovesville, BMI—Hester)

No newcomers to the charts, The Dramatics once again prove that it's all in the performance. Exquisite delivery of a soulful tune will soon find its way to new pop and r&b chart heights. This is one to pay close attention to. Flip: No info. available.

TERESA BREWER (Amsterdam 85028)

Music To The Man (2:45) (Jamarnie, BMI—Coulton, Smith)

Teresa Brewer's comeback to the recording scene was marked by her new version of the classic "Music, Music, Music." Now, the follow up looks even stronger and more positive. Don't be surprised when this one starts making its way to the top. It truly deserves to. Flip: "Another Useless Day" (2:45) (Jamarnie, BMI—Hodges)

THREE DEGREES (Phila. Int'l 3534)

Dirty Ol Man (3:14) (Mighty Three, BMI—Gamble, Huff)

From the pens of Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff comes this sensational tune that will put the three Degrees right at the top of both the pop and r&b charts. Fine arrangement by Bobby Martin adds to this spectacular disk that will soon become a giant hit! Watch it. Flip: No info. available.

HOT CHOCOLATE (Bell 45-390)

Rumours (4:30) (CCS, ASCAP—Brown, Wilson)

Groups first outing on their new American label is highlighted by the unique Mickie Most production touch and coupled with a sound very similar in style to War. A super hot group in England, this one should break them in the States. Flip: No info. available.

THE DRAGONEERS (Buddah 385)

Kung Fu (2:53) (Kama Sutra/Etude, BMI—Camillo)

Considering that the art of Kung Fu seems to have taken this country by storm, it's only right that someone immortalizes it on record. Written, produced and arranged by Tony Camillo, this exciting dance item will cause quite a stir with the kids. Flip: No info. available.

CHARLES WRIGHT (Dunhill 4364)

Doin' What Cums Naturally (3:44) (ABC/Dunhill/Music Power, BMI—Wright, Jones)

With his new label, Charles Wright is off and running in the right direction. After several hits over the past three years, he has returned to pick up where he left off-chartbound. A natural for both pop and r&b playlists. Flip: No info. available.

DAVE CRAWFORD (ABC 11388)

Bad Bad Leroy Brown (3:31) (Blendingwell/ABC, ASCAP—Croce)

Powerhouse r&b rendition of the Jim Croce classic adds new life to a great single. This one is going to explode all over again as it is headed for top 10 r&b status. Flip: No info. available.

Newcomer Picks

SHARKS (MCA 40120)

Ol' Jelly Roll (2:37) (Sharks/Upfall, ASCAP—Snips)

Debut single from Andy Fraser's group that should raise a few eyebrows and quite possibly break this group wide open. Strong blues tune with Cockeresque vocals and powerful music should start driving up the charts in no time. Flip: no info. available.

MELBA MONTGOMERY (Elektra 45866)

Wrap Your Love Around Me (Window, BMI—M. Montgomery, J. Solomon)

Beautiful outing for Ms. Montgomery, her first for the label. Tender love ballad with soft country overtone looks to be a strong chart item on both pop and country charts and should make the artist's presence known. Flip: no info. available.

JUDI PULVER (MGM 14615)

Dancing On The Moon (3:00) (24 Carrot Music & Dotted Line Music, ASCAP—Pulver)

Here's a song which will have earthlings humming along in no time. Judi makes a perfect debut with her own composition which has the same haunting feel as did "Those Were the Days." This moon shot should see bullets on the charts. Flip: no info. available.

'SHE' IN PRISON—Capitol recording artist Helen Reddy (left) celebrated Women's Right Day recently by performing for the inmates at the Federal Correctional Institute, Women's Division, at Terminal Island, California. Ms. Reddy talked freely with the prisoners (as pictured), many of them members of the Alliance for Women in Prison which sponsored her appearance, about their goals for more educational opportunities. The same day Ms. Reddy received the "Great Guts" award from the N.O.W. organization (National Organization for Women) as woman of the year. Ms. Reddy could not be present at the ceremony as she was performing for women at the federal penitentiary.

Ms. Reddy was the first female entertainer to appear at the Terminal Island women's facility. Asked what her reaction would be if the performance resulted in more concerts by other female performers, she replied, "that would be fantastic."

Thimble Sets 'Now' Sounds

NEW YORK — Thimble Records, the Audio Fidelity subsid which recently made noise with an album by Mt. Airy, is preparing a debut release by singer Marva Josie, a discovery and protege of Earl "Fatha" Hines. She will be followed by other contemporary artists and what is planned as a regular flow of product from the Thimble banner.

Marva's first release couples two tunes she penned, "Social Security" and "Can She," both from an album produced by Hines and Fred Miller. The LP will be released this fall in conjunction with her personal appearance at the New York Americana.

Audio Fidelity President Herman Gimbel plans introducing Marva to press, radio and dealer personnel in the N.Y. area during the Americana engagement and is planning press kit mailings, posters and additional promotion activity to launch her recording career.

Following the Marva Josie single and album, Thimble will release the first LP by the Irish folk/rock duo Turner & Kirwan of Wexford who have attracted attention in appearances throughout the northeast during the summer. Also planned is a new LP by Mt. Airy and a Jim Messina album recorded prior to his association in the Loggins & Messina duo.

While Audio Fidelity and its subsidiaries have for many years been primarily catalog operations, Gimbel emphasized that the company was moving toward the establishment of an active, competitive and contemporary label in Thimble. In line with this he said he was receptive to acquiring finished masters for distribution.

Buddah Signs Midnight Movers; Single Due

NEW YORK — Cecil Holmes, vice-president of The Buddah Group, announced the signing of Midnight Movers Unlimited, seven musicians who produce a sound that's a mixture of rock, jazz and pop music. The group had its beginning in 1967 as the traveling orchestra for the "Wicked Wilson Pickett" show.

In 1969, the band moved to settle in New York and began working on recordings and live appearances with The Isley Brothers—an association which continued for three years.

As a collective unit or individually, these names have appeared on recording credits with such artists as Sam & Dave, Freddie Scott, Otis Redding, Isaac Hayes, Gladys Knight & The Pips, and Robin Kenyatta, as well as on soundtracks for two music documentary films—"It's Your Thing" and "Dynamite Chicken."

The group's first single on the Buddah label, "Party With Every Muscle In Your Body," is released this week.

Black Oak's Got Busy Bus

NEW YORK — Black Oak Arkansas is cruising the concert trail in its own converted (Greyhound) passenger bus, a rig modified to serve the special wanderlust needs of the much-traveled rock-and-rollabouts.

For daytime hours, there are swivel rocking chairs in ice blue crushed velvet for band members and others in the road brigade, including personal manager, road managers, equipment men, and special friends. For nappy hours, there are comfy-cozy bunks in the back. And a trap door leads to the bus "basement" level, with its kitchen and office areas. They call the Black Oak Bus "BOB," says manager Butch Stone, explaining, "We hadda give it a name, it's like part of the family now."

Black Oak Arkansas has completed its next Ato album, "High on the Hog," plays a pair of dates (the Peace Festival on Sept. 1 and Donny Brook Raceway, Brainerd, Minn., Sept. 2), then eases off home to Heaven, Ark. before embarking Sept. 21 on a 14-city tour.

HOLLYWOOD—NED DOHENY: PROSPECTING FOR BLACK GOLD

Those who haven't meditative time for Alan Watts, or other philosophic harbingers who tell us rather thoroughly who we are, might as a matter of recourse stick to that more sophist source referred to as Who's Who in America. It manages to tell you about who is and who was in just a few short lines. The historic Californian name Doheny, however, is allotted more than just a few lines, for there at least are a few Doheny's who have been included in this voluminous vade mecum. It all began with the Doheny progenitor, Edward Lawrence, who died about 37 years ago. Edward prospected for gold and segued into becoming a petroleum producer, developer of oil districts in California and Mexico. As a result he acquired a fabulous fortune. Not bad for a man who never went higher than high school, graduating at the age of 15.

So it must have given Asylum Recording artist Ned Doheny a solid ground when he told his family that he wanted to become a singer, reminding them that his great grandfather never went to college (although Edward did manage in his later years to study law via correspondence school). And though the world has changed considerably since Doheny first drilled his fortune, it might be said that Ned is also prospecting for a black gold that's almost as precious as oil—the certified piece of vinyl that sells a million copies. It hasn't happened yet and his debut album has already been out four months, but a very propellant Ned has the same kind of determination that must have made his great grandfather so great. He inevitably will make a name for himself in the Who's Who of the music industry.

Doheny disclosed last week that his first single called "On and On" was about to be released and that he hoped this would bring him the recognition he's after. But it was only a little after eleven in the morning, and Ned tried to convey to his interviewer that it was still awfully early to be up. Nevertheless it does appear that we live in a relatively soft society where one doesn't have to rise early like Edward did to saddle the horse or allow for sufficient walking time or hunt for food. Ned admits to growing up in the kind of comfort that Edward in his early years never knew. In fact his great grandfather was once known to have spent many nights sleeping under a foot of snow, and he once remarked, "No featherbed can compare with one made of leafy branches and pliant twigs." The featherbed has since evolved to the waterbed, and this mattress mollification further softens our society. Maybe this has something to do with making Ned Doheny's music so dulcet.

Ned started playing guitar when he was eight years old, which makes him what he terms a "lifer" or someone who has been "drilling" at some particular endeavour all of his life. He reported that the members in his group Jimmy Caleri (piano), Brian Garofalo (bass), and Gary Mallaber (drums), are also "lifers." At nine years old he remembers having a crew cut and singing before Ahmet and Nesuhi Ertegun. They didn't sign him, but then who wanted to be signed to the Turk'sh embassy?

The next ten years allowed Ned to grow a full chevelure and to study his music. At 19 he was working with Jackson Browne and doing session work. He also became involved in a factitious operation called the experimental recording ranch in Paxton, California. The ranch was supposed to be a musician's utopia but turned out instead to be a classical farce. So he got away from the farce to study classical guitar with Fred Noad. After studying classical guitar he toured with saxophonist Charles Lloyd.

Eventually Ned was led to England where he met Dave Mason and began singing with Dave and Cass Elliot. What kind of voice does Ned have? Doheny describes, "It's right between Dave's and Cass's in range." In fact there was some talk of their singing together, but the contractual aspect never reached the same kind of harmony their voices had. So Ned nixed these negotiations and went to the Beverly Hills Hotel to visit Ahmet. He played all ten of the songs he had written and was advised to see David Geffen at Asylum. That's where he was signed and where he recorded those same ten songs on an album.

Ned revealed that he doesn't write fifty songs every week but is very selective about writing material, explaining that first the spirit must move him and he has to be compelled to finish them. This doesn't mean that it will take him five years to finish material for his next album, but it does mean that each song has been laboriously crafted. For Ned it has to be black gold in the spirited tradition of the Dohenys.

He made his first television appearance with his group on the Midnight Special TV show over the weekend. Ned is looking forward to concert performing and mentioned the possibility of signing with a booking agent. He averred "I'm so road starved, I can't tell you." In the meantime there's at least one road which must be somewhat gratifying to drive on. It's called Doheny street in Beverly Hills, and who knows, you might just hap to see him driving along it in his Landrover listening to the radio and patiently waiting for "On and On" to come on.

POP PICKS

LET'S GET IT ON—Marvin Gaye—Tamla—T 329V1

When Marvin Gaye talks about getting it on, you just know it's all gonna happen. When it comes to this disk, it all does. Not only has Marvin grown to be one of the most talented performers around today, he has also grown creatively and has become a songwriter and producer without equal. This collection of songs is yet another totally dynamic representation of his talents and might very well be his most successful to date (and that includes the absolutely tremendous "What's Going On" collection). Top tracks here are "Please Don't Stay," "Come Get To This" and "Just To Keep You Satisfied." The name of the game is hits and Marvin Gaye has got the only game in town.

ANTHOLOGY

ANTHOLOGY/10TH ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL—The Temptations—Motown—M782A3

It's hard to handle the fact that the Temps have been around now on record for ten years, but one listen to the great hits they have had released proves that the years have been well spent. Every top Temptations track is in evidence from "The Way Up Do The Things You Do" all the way up to "Papa Was A Rolling Stone" in the form of this tremendous three record package. This is truly an important chapter in the Motown Story and one on which many of us have grown with over the years. Undoubtedly to become a classic collection and an overwhelming success, what else needs to be said other than, thanks Temptations for all the years and all the great sounds.

CRAZY EYES—Poco—Epic—KE 32354

Isn't it about time that Poco became the supergroup they have always promised to be? This collection might very well be the one to do the trick. In utilizing every ounce of their energy and directing that energy towards some super fine words and music, this five man country rock organization proves their talents time and time again. As singles have always been the problem child of the group, it seems that problem might be alleviated here. Listen to "Here We Go Again," "A Right Along," "Blue Water," "Let's Dance Tonight" and "Fools Gold" (a great bluegrass instrumental ala "Dueling Banjos/Grand Junction"). Poco shall be "Little" no more. A super disk.

SHIRLEY BASSEY LIVE AT CARNEGIE HALL—United Artists—UA LA111-H2

Talk about belters and try to think of anyone in the category of Shirley Bassey. This collection, recorded a few months ago shows the lady at her best. The audience response alone is enough to prove that she is a genuine superstar, but it is her performance that transcends stage and record and immediately creeps into the soul. Every track is electric, but her top powerhouse numbers, "Goldfinger," "Diamonds Are Forever," "Where Am I Going" and "The Party's Over" seem the most dynamic and most representative of her talents. If you're one of those who has been asking what's she done besides "Goldfinger," then this two record set will prove that she's got at least sixteen more. A great live set.

THE LIVING WORD/WATTSTAX 2—Various Artists—Stax—STS 2-3018

The first Wattstax collection, both record and film, were successes in that the black audience finally achieved just due recognition in two important mediums at the same time. This second Wattstax looks to have that same, if not more, impact on the public. This LP, along with including fine performances by such top r&b artists as Isaac Hayes, Little Milton, Mel & Tim, Kim Weston and the Dramatics, also includes some very fine material (occasionally off color) by Richard Pryor, one of the funniest men around today. Not a collection to be missed, this two LP set is a welcome addition and a marvelous media montage.

THE WORLD OF IKE & TINA—Ike & Tina Turner—United Artists—UA LA064-G2

The Ike and Tina Turner Revue "live" is probably the most exciting stage act in all the world, and this latest collection, a two record "live" set, recorded in nine countries proves that the show is, indeed, a universal entertainment. Naturally, the visual excitement is missing, but the music is more than enough to carry the electricity of the shows recorded and it all reaches the ear in a most stimulating way. Included are the group's amazing renditions of "Honky Tonk Women," "River Deep, Mountain High," "She Came In Through The Bathroom Window" and a very solid "I Can't Turn You Loose." All in all total entertainment from a totally stimulating entourage.

NEWCOMER PICKS

BLUE—RSO—SO 873

You say you've been searching for the heir to the throne of the Beatles? Well, Blue may have what you've been looking for. A new British triumvirate that demonstrates musical as well as vocal ability coming close to that sound generated by the Beatles, Blue debuts with this very exciting disk that should have Americans clamoring for more. "Look Around," "Someone," "Little Jody" and "Sunset Regret" are the creme de la creme of this collection, but the entire LP should delight those looking for Beatle power. Blue is the color of a true new band and just watch them rise.

PULVER RISING—Judi Pulver—MGM—SE 4904

Sit back and get ready to be Pulver-ized, cause that's exactly what this lady's gonna do to you. Possessing of a totally individual vocal quality that immediately distinguishes her from the rest of the pack, Ms. Pulver looks to break away in no time and comes out in front at race's end with all competitors left in the dust. The lady can belt, as on "Statler Hilton," get pop-sy mellow, as on "Sing For Your Supper" and camp it up, as on "Fish Eye Blues." To sum it all up, she is a versatile lady who should appeal to a wide audience. Judi Pulver's Rising, and just watch her rapid climb.

ARMED AND EXTREMELY DANGEROUS—First Choice—Philly Groove—1400

The title track of this LP sums it all up. The First Choice is ready to take the market by storm. Three attractive ladies with a ton of talent and a smash hit single already under their belts and another on the way. What else needs to be said? This disk comes off as one of the most impressive r&b outings of the year and listening to tracks such as "Smarty Pants" (their follow up single), Al Green's "Love And Happiness" and "A Boy Named Junior" proves that this trio's future is quite secure. If you've heard and liked their hit, this LP will be a total delight.

SONOMA—Dunhill—DSX 50156

This four member vocal group, a seeming '70's Mamas and The Papas, mark their debut with this terribly impressive disk that should attract immediate Top 40 attention via a good half dozen possible single releases. Sweet harmonies from the two men and two women, plus excellent production and mixing of voice and music appear strongest on "Thank You Just The Same," "Try To Reach Her," "Don't Think Twice, It's All Right" and "Good Times." One of the sweetest exports from Southern California in quite some time and one that looks to be around for a good, long time.

MICHAEL FRANKS—Brut—6005

New artist appears as one of the brightest of the year. Strong lyrics to match his equally entertaining music and a complete solid performance of such makes Michael Franks a name to watch in the future. In this case it's going to seem hard to let him slip by, anyway, because the material such as "The King Of Oklahoma," "Just Like Key Largo" and "Can't Seem To Shake This Rock And Roll," it's quite possible that this initial disk will make him a smash. If we've been looking for a new James Taylor type to lead the ever popular folk rock genre, we may very well have found him in Michael Franks. Welcome!

NORMAN FEELS—Just Sunshine—JSS 8

Gonna be a lot of "Feel-ing" going on soon, because as soon as the public is introduced to this bright new r&b merchant, it's going to be hard to let go. There's feeling in his music, in his performance and a ton of it on this debut disk. Single possibilities abound with a nothing short of brilliant cover of "My World Is Empty Without You" leading the way as top contender. As for the artist's own compositions, especially note "Something About You (Makes Me Love You)," "Today" and "Till I Found You." There's a little of Al Green, a little of Ronnie Dyson, but most of all, a lot of Norman Feels, the next major r&b superstar. You'd better believe it, too.

After three years spent composing in his native Brazil, Antonio Carlos Jobim returns to recording with his first album for MCA, "Jobim." Produced, arranged and orchestrated by Claus Ogerman, the album reflects Jobim's progression as a composer and features several vocals in Portuguese and English.

A comprehensive marketing program has already begun on behalf of these releases, according to Frio.

GRC Sets 1st Multi-LP Release

ATLANTA — The General Recording Corporation (GRC) announces a major company expansion and a comprehensive fall release of four albums scheduled for mid-Sept. as its first multiple product release since the Aware and GRC labels were initiated earlier this year. The announcement was made by Michael Thevis, president of GRC and Buz Wilburn, president of General Recording Distribution Corp. (GRDC).

The fall GRC/Aware product releases will be headed at the top of the list by Loleatta Holloway's album titled "Loleatta." This album, recorded on the Aware label, contains her single "Our Love" and its flip "Mother of Shame."

Relative to the release of her new album, Loleatta will embark on a 12-city mid-West tour beginning Sept. 10 through Oct. 1.

In readying for the major multiple LP product release, GRC expanded its staff personnel with the addition of three key executives including Freddie Mancuso, Bob Harrington and Arlinda Frazier. Mancuso will be heading the West Coast office headquarters of GRC located in Los Angeles. Prior to joining GRC Mancuso was the national promotion director for ABC-Dunhill and also served in the same capacity for Apple Records and ABKCO in L.A.

Bob Harrington has joined GRC as the east coast marketing director and will be working with the promotion of all GRC product. Harrington was formerly director of national promotion for Wes Farrell for over five years.

Arlinda Frazier joins GRC in Atlanta from the firm's L.A. headquarters. Miss Frazier is coordinating all Aware label product for the firm.

The second GRC album will be "Red White & Blue(grass)" by the country bluegrass group from Nashville. Dave Sebolt, Dave Whitcomb, Grant and Ginger Boatwright compose this talented foursome who combine banjos, mandolin and guitars in a series of fast-paced country tunes including "July, You're A Woman," "The Lovin's Over" and "Nine Years Waltz." This group is currently on a 15-city college campus tour of South Dakota, Arizona, Indiana, Ohio, Virginia and North and South Carolina.

"Heartwood" is the title of GRC's third album release. This Carolina group of singers, songwriters and musicians includes Tim Hildebrandt, Robert Hudson, Gary Johnson, Byron Paul and Joe McGlohan. All of the groups' material, including 11 compositions by songwriter Tim Hildebrandt and the featured single "Rain" were recorded at the Atlanta Sound Pit studio.

Next in the series of multiple L.P.'s release in September on the Aware record label is "The Counts." This instrumental/vocal four-man group from Detroit, will see an immediate rush release on their album as GRC prepares for a sales campaign to back this product release. The group will make their concert debut at the Sheiks Supper Club in Orlando, Florida from Oct. 1 through Oct. 14. This date will be followed by a one-week performance at Atlanta's Great Southeast Music Hall from Oct. 26 through Nov. 2.

To add to GRC's increasing sales and marketing project, several of the L.P. releases will be backed by promotional campaigns such as the distribution of logo T-shirts with the Heartwood album design to key radio stations and department stores within a 12-state area. Merchandising aids are also to be made available on the Counts, Red White & Blue(grass) and Loleatta albums.

Kris, Rita To Cut LP's On A&M, Monument

HOLLYWOOD — Through mutual co-operation between labels, A&M recording artist Rita Coolidge and Monument artist Kris Kristofferson will record two albums together, the first to be released on A&M and the second on Monument Records, according to Jerry Moss, president of A&M Records.

The first album entitled "Full Moon" will be released in early Sept. by A&M and has been produced by David Anderle. Monument Records, which is based in Nashville, will release the second album sometime next year under the direction of Fred Foster, president of Monument Records.

Foster feels that both albums will benefit immensely through the interaction between labels. "I shall look forward to a well co-ordinated promotional and merchandising campaign," he says.

Gold 'Killing'

NEW YORK — Roberta Flack's latest album, "Killing Me Softly," released just two weeks ago has already been certified gold by the RIAA.

Atlantic Records will be releasing "Jesse" this week, which will be the first single from her new album.

Winfield. The theme song, "Child of Tomorrow," performed by Buddah recording artist Barbara Mason, has been released as a single.

A major project scheduled for the near future will bring Curtis Mayfield's talents back to the motion picture music field for the first time since his "Super Fly" scoring. He has signed to write and produce the score for "Claudine," a movie in production for 20th Century Fox, being directed by Ossie Davis and starring James Earl Jones. Buddah's Gladys Knight and The Pips will perform the soundtrack.

"There's some exceptional music being written for contemporary films," says Lewis Merenstein, Buddah vice president and director of marketing and creative services, "and the resulting soundtrack albums stand up very well on their own. It's no longer a case of music just being used as background filler for action on the screen. In fact, the record sales are not even necessarily dependent upon the success of the film itself as radio stations program the music on its own merits.

To date, the company's most spectacularly successful soundtrack album was Curtis Mayfield's "Super Fly," which sold more than two million units and earned a gold LP, two gold singles, a special Platinum LP, and the first 'gold tape' award from Ampex.

"We're now building up a catalog of some outstanding film music," Merenstein said, "and we're going all out with promotional campaigns for this product."

Another current soundtrack LP on release from The Buddah Group is "Super Fly T.N.T.," Sig Shore and Ron O'Neal's sequel to "Super Fly." Music for this new production was written and performed by Warner Brothers recording group, Osibisa.

Also out at the moment, on the Buddah-distributed Brut label, is the soundtrack from "A Touch Of Class," which stars George Segal and Glenda Jackson. Featuring music written by Sammy Cahn and George Barrie, the ballad theme, "All That Love Went To Waste," was sung by Madeline Bell and has been released as a single.

Another Joseph E. Levine/Brut Productions movie, "Night Watch," has a theme song written by Cahn and Barrie which is out as a Brut single—"The Night Has Many Eyes," performed by Lee Vanderbilt. Elizabeth Taylor and Lawrence Harvey star in the film.

CBS Acts Launch Euro Tour w/ Radio Veronica Promotion

HOLLAND — Top CBS International American artists, Dr. Hook & The Medicine Show, Albert Hammond and Redbone will kick off their fall European tours with a major CBS International/Radio Veronica (Holland) cooperative promo drive. The first personal appearances by these artists in Europe this fall are to be at Club Veronica, an important new rock room which is owned and operated by Radio Veronica. Also set to appear during this special grand opening festival are CBS U.K. act Colin Blunstone, CBS France's Titanic and CBS Holland's The Buffoons and Albert West.

In conjunction with Club Veronica's opening promotion and the artists' European tours, CBS Holland has created a one-of-a-kind LP which features all of the groups participating in the festival. The album, entitled "Veronica-CBS Pop Festival," has already shipped more than 100,000 copies in Holland alone. Additionally, a heavy poster campaign has been created and extensive radio

Motown's Big Campaign On Gaye's New LP

HOLLYWOOD — Motown Records is preparing a big marketing campaign to launch the new Marvin Gaye album "Let's Get It On," according to Phil Jones, director of sales, Motown Records.

Except for the soundtrack album "Trouble Man," this is Gaye's first album since the release of "What's Going On" in 1971. Motown sales execs feel that "Let's Get It On," a concept album dealing with the emotions of a love affair, has a broader range of appeal than anything previously recorded by the artist. Therefore, the company's public relations/advertising/merchandising thrust has been aimed at reaching a much greater range of consumers.

The album is scheduled to ship this week as the single preceding it is number one on the charts. One of the largest-selling singles in Motown history, "Let's Get It On" went gold within six weeks of release.

National Consumer Advertising

In addition to radio spots advertising the album, Motown will place its first wave of advertising in national publications such as the National Lampoon, Time (college edition), Essence, Jet, and Rolling Stone, and in important local publications such as the Los Angeles Times Sunday Calendar.

For further local advertising, the company has created a series of ads in various sizes. A large billboard on Sunset Boulevard will go up shortly after the album is released.

A public relations campaign for reviews of the album will begin with the release of the record. Nearly 4,000 entertainers, sports figures and other celebrities will receive copies of it.

Two posters—one 4 x 6 feet and another 22 x 33 inches will be supplied to stores and radio stations, as will "Let's Get It On" lapel buttons.

Late in Sept. "The Master: The Magic of Marvin Gaye," a 90-minute radio special documenting the recording career of the artist through the new album, will be made available to radio stations. The program will be co-produced by Motown and Watermark, Inc., producers of American Top 40 and the Elvis Special.

Planning for the campaign was handled by Mike Lushka, album sales manager; and Herb Wood, director of advertising. Dave Swaney's Company was retained by Motown to develop merchandising and public relations elements for the campaign.

spots have been running on Radio Veronica to promote the groups' arrival.

The groups' stay in Holland climaxes with their appearance at the Sportshalle in Rotterdam where they'll perform for 8,000 spectators and be televised on "Top Pops," Holland's most important scheduled TV special this fall.

Previous CBS International coordinated European tours have resulted in the shaping of these artists' European careers. Albert Hammond's first tour produced sales of half a million copies of "It Never Rains In Southern California," and is considered an important factor in the success of his current single, "Free Electric Band," now on the charts throughout Europe. Hammond will introduce his third single, "Peacemaker" in Europe shortly. Redbone's prior European trip resulted in their current "Wounded Knee" smash there. Dr. Hook is making their first visit to Europe, following up on their earlier European success with "Sylvia's Mother" and their record currently rising on the Dutch charts, "Roland The Roadie." All tours have been closely coordinated between CBS International's New York and European operations offices.

Wallichs Shows 1st Profits In Four Years

HOLLYWOOD — Wallichs Music & Entertainment Company, Inc., has reported a sales increase of 4.5% and its first profit from operations in four years for fiscal 1973, ended May 31.

Net income, before extraordinary item, was $26,507, or 2 cents per share, on revenues of $8,168,085. This compares to a net loss, before extraordinary item, of $18,857, or a loss of 1% per share on revenues of $7,840,489 for the previous fiscal year.

The extraordinary item for fiscal 1973 of $17,000 or 1 cent per share, resulted from a tax benefit operating loss carryover. In fiscal 1972, the company had an extraordinary item of $67,875, or 5 cents per share, from insurance benefits paid upon the death of Glenn Wallichs, a founder of the company.

In announcing results, Clyde O. Wallichs, president, said sales in all departments increased with gains of 5.1% in records; 5.4% in pianos and organs and 3.4% in television and stereo.

He said the gain in record sales was achieved in the second half when a switch from reliance on jobbers to direct buying improved selection.

Among other factors cited for contributing to the company's up swing in sales and return to profit were overhead reductions, reorganization of the stores and a better balanced advertising program.

ity will be the keynote of the Roxy—especially in its booking schedule. To that end, the 500-seat house might have different playing nights on different weeks to fit the schedule of an individual artist.

The theater, at 9009 Sunset Blvd., has been completely rebuilt inside and a new outside front has been added. The sound and lighting systems are the most modern in existence today. Interior design is of the Art Deco period of the 30s. And the theater building will also house a second floor bar, On the Rox, which has a Sunset Blvd. entrance as well as an entrance through the lobby.

As personal managers, both Adler and Geffen have said they envision the Roxy as the ultimate music club in the world, one that would contain every element they would like to see in clubs where their clients performed.

the East." This release coincides with the live presentation of "The Man From the East" at theatres cross-country.

Buck Owens' latest LP is called "Arms Full of Empty," and contains Buck's hit single of the same name. From Susan Raye comes a new album, "Plastic Trains, Paper Planes," titled after her own fast-rising single. Nashville artist Kenny Vernon makes his Capitol LP debut with "Kenny Vernon," and Red Steagall follows up his hit single with "If You've Got the Time, I've Got the Song." "The Legend of Sir Robert Charles Griggs" completes the country agenda for September.

"Cannonball Adderley and Friends," a two-record set, is also scheduled for Sept. 10.

since branched out to Seattle, Columbus and Louisville. Heavy action has also started for Clint Holmes with "Shiddle-lee-dee," the follow-up to his gold single, "Playground In My Mind." And Looking Glass are on their way to their first major hit since "Brandy" with "Jimmy Loves Mary-Anne," taken from their Subway Serenade LP.

On Monument, Kris Kristofferson is currently enjoying his best-selling single ever with over 500,000 in sales for "Why Me." "Why Me" is also credited for the revived interest and sales of Kristofferson's latest LP, Jesus Was A Capricorn. Also on Monument, harmonica star Charlie McCoy has two albums, both of which have sold well over 100,000 copies each.

Monteiro expects the heavy activity to continue with single releases by Rich, Johnny Nash ("Oh, What A Feeling"), Bobby Vinton ("I Can't Believe It's All Over") and, on Philadelphia International, Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes, ("Love Is Lost") as well as with a new LP, Crazy Eyes, from Poco.

Pirate Action

selves unjustly at plaintiff's expense. The appropriating of the performances recorded by plaintiff and selling them in competition with plaintiff constitutes unfair competition in North Carolina. Such unfair competition entitles plaintiff to recover damages and it is subject to injunctive restraint," the Court declared.

The Court also cited the U. S. Supreme Court decision in Goldstein v. California which, it noted, found that a statute "which bars unauthorized copying of sound recordings (is) a valid exercise of the powers of the state."

Rejecting the claim that the plaintiff record companies were asserting a monopoly in violation of the State constitution, the Court observed that "plaintiff is simply trying to prevent defendants from stealing its property. Defendants are not restricted from securing their own performers, recording these performances, and selling their own records or tapes in fair competition with the plaintiff."

As to the defendants' claim that the sale by a record company of an album with a number of different compositions constitutes a tie-in sale, the Court declared: "Upon the basis of the undisputed facts, the conduct of plaintiff in marketing its products has not been shown to be improper or contrary to public policy."

Finally, on the question of the refusal by legitimate record companies to license their material to pirates, the Court held that "the evidence shows that this action on the part of plaintiff was unilateral and not pursuant to any agreement . . . not to deal with the defendants. In the absence of conspiracy or monopoly, one may deal with whom he pleases."

War

UNIVERSAL AMPHITHEATRE, L.A. — Bracketed by an introductory and closing benediction of seemingly interminable length, War brought their explosive act before the teeming crowd that filled the giant showcase in the hills. The slightly impatient audience was immediately rewarded with a rousing fifteen-minute recital of "Gypsy Man," the hard-driving rocker from their latest United Artists LP, "Deliver the Word."

War is a highly visual act, with each of the seven members contributing to an improvised spectacle that builds to an animated frenzy. . . . The repetitious quality of their Latin-tinted music is easily offset by a series of spontaneous shouts, pirouettes and the amorphous leg movements of Lee Oskar, Danish Wizard of the harmonica.

'Our Latin Thing' Fania All Stars Manu Dibango

YANKEE STADIUM—More than 40,000 people converged on Yankee Stadium, Friday (8/24) to hear the lusty rhythms of Latin music as performed by the Fania All Stars, and special guest artists.

The lively, well-organized concert blazed on for more than four hours without incident. But . . . the inevitable did happen, and right at the highlight of the show. (Keeping a huge crowd calmly in their seats is an impossible task at best—especially when the air is reverberating with danceable music!) Ray Barretto and Mongo Santamaria, conga players par excellence, battled it out until the crowd could no longer be held back. With the force of a bursting dam, the myriads of people swept across the field . . . danced on the grass, rushed the stage, and in the interim disconnected the speakers and amplifiers. Needless to say, the concert came to an abrupt halt.

Creating a similar—but not disruptive—wild enthusiasm earlier in the show was a special guest artist from Africa, Manu Dibango, (Atlantic Records). In his first major concert appearance in this country, Dibango created a wave of pulsating rhythms that brought the entire crowd to its feet. Manu plays a soulful sax, and performed many soulful tunes backed by the driving funky beat. The outstanding number, of course, was "Soul Makossa"—the number that earned him instant recognition across the nation. No introduction was necessary as he moved into the number. The first note instigated dancing in the aisles, atop the dug-out and sang the song's refrain in unison.

Mongo Santamaria and his Septet enticed the crowd with sophisticated jazz tunes highlighted by Mongo's Afro-Cuban conga rhythms.

The All-Stars, a coming together of top Latin musicians—Colon, Harlow, congo player Ray Barretto, pianist Ricardo Ray—all leaders—joined forces with other musicians and singers to form 'Our Latin Thing'. Most of the arrangements, for the All-Star thing, were written by Johnny Pacheco, flutist and bassist Bobby Valentin. Noteworthy was an instrumental featuring Larry Harlow on piano, Willie Colon, trombone and climaxed by G. Malo Santan's guitar solo.

Among the other artists were Tipica '73, Felipe Luciano, Cheo Feliciano, El Gran Combo, Ishmael Miranda and Bobby Cruz. The "soneros" (improvising vocals) added an exciting dimension. Its not unlike a running commentary on life, love, Puerto Rico and myriad subjects.

The dress was colorful and the show was also flavored with the comedic offerings of well-known Puerto Rican personalities as Symphony Sid, Polita Vega and Izzy Sanabria.

This was the second "Our Latin Thing" and it must be described as an historic event. d.d.

The group devoted the bulk of their performance to their many established hits, "Cisco Kid," "The World is A Ghetto" and "Slippin in the Darkness" (with great saxophone by Charles Miller) being the stand-out numbers. Interwoven throughout was the intermittent politically oriented banter that has become a trademark of their stage performances.

Shivering in the unusually cool night air, the audience responded enthusiastically to both the music and the chatter, so much so that the din of the crowd at times out-decibed the excellent sound system on-stage. The noise was not unappropriate, for War is an act that precludes a merely polite form of applause. e.s.

An Evening With The Flasher

BEACON THEATER, NYC — "An Evening With The Flasher" is a pioneering effort to answer contemporary audiences' needs for entertainment that provokes thought rather than merely raising giggles—or anything else for that matter.

The premier performance of this collection of rock songs, film clips and variety acts—with sex as the central theme—may not have set the world ablaze, but it was an indication of how ideas can be expanded beyond the context of a rock song, into a film clip and live act, and then back again into song.

"The Flasher" opened with a film clip that looked humorously at an ever-increasing social phenomena (at least in cities)—men who "expose themselves" with an accompanying flash of their overcoats, usually to the horror and disgust of young ladies. In this performance, however, the ladies attack him, laugh derisively and generally don't take him seriously. This filmic theme is repeated throughout the show, although other clips show girls being covered with dessert topping, among other things.

Music is supplied by the rock group Pool-Pah, which delivers Beatleish melodies that show lots of promise. All the members of the group proved highly capable performers who managed to overcome technical difficulties to hold the evening together.

With considerable tightening up, the show could be a winner on the college circuit. A soundtrack album is available on Greene Bottle Records, distributed by Famous Music. r.n.

Buffey Ste. Marie Chip Taylor

SCHAEFER FESTIVAL, CENTRAL PARK, NYC — It is a rare performer who can totally enrapture the whole audience but Buffey Ste Marie did just that this past Monday. What a fantastic, marvelous show she gave to the several thousand people who attended on this hot, humid night. Not having seen Buffey in some time, I didn't know that she has now also become a rock and roll singer complete with a band and strings. Let me say though that it is excellent. Looking resplendent, she opened with a big blast on "Jeremia." Two female singers handled background singing whilst the band rocked along and Buffey danced around the stage reminding many people of Tina Turner. It was dynamite. With the audience amazed and on its feet, she performed just by herself using an amplified acoustic guitar on "I Got My Own." Buffey's voice seems to have improved if that is possible as it was so fine in years past. Her set of 18 songs was so well balanced in terms of sound reproduction and in presentation that words are hard to find. Interchanging between rock and roll tunes such as "Sweet Little Vera" and classic folk songs like "Universal Soldier," it was a perfect show. Buffey performed

Jackson Five Buddy Miles Express Sisters Love

FORUM, L.A. — If reviewing is a quest for adjectives, reviewing a Jackson Five concert is a matter of superlatives. Little can be said about the performance of these Motown Artists that doesn't sound as exaggerated as a sales pitch for off-brand vacuum cleaners. Consummate showmen, their act has the precision of ballet, the novelty and variety of a Barnum and Bailey extravaganza.

Screams, shrieks, the usual ho-hum hysteria of the gum-chewing set greeted their entry. Fresh from an Asian tour that included New Zealand and Australia, the eight-member band bounded on stage displaying all the exuberance of heavy-weight contenders entering the ring. They proceeded to sing, dance and gracefully gesticulate through some 14 songs with a spit-shine polish that continued non-stop for the duration of the show. The songs included a medley of Motown classics—"Ain't That Peculiar," "Superstition" and "Papa Was a Rolling Stone," but the most impressive numbers were the Jackson Five's own—"Bill," "Got To Be There" and their new Motown single, "Get It Together." Jermaine Jackson also introduced a new single from his solo al-

Delaney Bramlett

TROUBADOUR, L.A.—Histrionics in a rock band can take many forms. The affairs of state of Yes, Alice Cooper and Edwin Starr are well-known. Delaney Bramlett's approach is one done within the context of the music itself. Namely, his curious intertwining of the arrangements and vocals in his eight-piece group. Stretching a sax, trombone, trumpet and an organ over the usually building blocks of three guitars and a drummer is not terribly unusual. In this case, however, full linear lines of the brass breaking like a wind out of Chicago before being replaced with shrieking, staccato stops perked-up even the most inert among us. Or when a brassy boogie would blues in, the "Rat Race" ritual reappeared. And when a slow-driving rhythm routine would suddenly scramble into a hard-pushing vocal, it became a teasing treat to try and figure out what was coming up next. But these were inroads made without an overall investment into the matter of always solidifying the show on other levels as well. He is a good entertainer who was determined to hold the show together. He did. b.m.

bum, "Come Into My Life."

Appearing at the Forum in addition was Columbia Records' Buddy Miles Express, who poured out their hard-rock sound energetically before an indifferent audience. Miles is an excellent musician, but ill-suited to a second place on the bill. He sat, rhinestone and top-hatted before his drums, making every futile attempt to get the apathetic crowd into his act. The set closed with his best-known song, "Them Changes," which finally did elicit a response from the Jackson faithful, a tribute, perhaps, to perseverance.

Opening the show were the Sisters Love, a gospel-rock act also out of Motown. The girls performed such songs as "Oh Happy Day" with Biblical animation and made up in energy what they lacked in coordination. e.s.

Mark/Almond Joe Walsh Robin Trower

SANTA MONICA CIVIC — There wasn't any floundering around in uncharted, choppy waters for any of these acts. All streamlined three of them moved with full sail, the first two rocking hard, wide and deliriously before the headliner, Mark/Almond, anchored with their terrific jazz juices which flowed intoxicatingly throughout the set.

So taken in order of billing, Mark/Almond—a seven-piece Columbia group—set the mood required for their rich rhythms and vivid variations by immediately preceding themselves with films on waves, clouds and surfers. As the screen was raised, they were already into it. Into the delicate but ruffling interplay of saxes, trumpets and guitars, acoustic and electric, which were dazzlingly drummed-out in prowling, exploring riffs, meted-out in flute blues, and worked-out in the luxurious escorting of the vocals. Their current super-seller, "The City," bloomed for a good twenty or twenty-five minutes, expiring only then because it was either it or them. It was a rushing, rousing number with a two-way traffic alternating lead-singer Jon Mark's choruses and various band-member solos. This is a band of foxes—you'll never find them doing anything that doesn't belong right on top. It is much the same way for their current LP, "Mark/Almond '73," which belongs on the top of the record stack.

The hard rock habitues had no complaints, either. ABC's Joe Walsh seconded the billing, and there was certainly none of that meek-shall-inherit-everything posture in his music. It was, hard-driving, substantial music that accrued a mesmeric momentum with each succeeding number. The design was to use the piano in broad, minor chords before the terrific vocals and lead-guitar work (sometimes steel) took over, retreating to the piano just as a full-fledged climax threatened to occur. There were three of these sojourns, in a show that came to a crashing end with Joe Vitale's kettle drums.

Robin Trower (Chrysalis), former lead-guitarist for Procul Harum, stunningly opened the show with his super-charged, dynamic trio. Undiluted as two hundred proof, they were able perfectly to purvey what was being pursued—a massive affirmation of what great, hard-rock should sound like. The excellent drummer and rhythm guitarist provided the backbone for much of the interesting metric variations, which moved from the iambic 4/4 and 6/8 forms to one or two of indeterminate origin. And the complexity of Trower's superb guitar work often coincided with some expert clowning on same. b.m.

ASCAP Annual Awards Due; War, John Cage Among Winners

NEW YORK — The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, has announced the completion of the 13th annual meetings of the Special Awards Panels. Society president, Stanley Adams, advised that $629,000 in cash awards, in addition to the normal royalty distributions, will be distributed this year to the Society's writers to offer financial encouragement and in recognition of their important role in American music.

Since the inception of this program, in 1960, the Society has distributed some 6 million dollars in awards to its composer and author members. The program was devised and sums set aside to encourage and foster the contribution of ASCAP members to American music. Its purpose is to give recognition to those writers whose unique contribution may not be sufficiently rewarded through normal earned royalties. In volunteering to allocate a share of their earnings in this way, the members of the Society give tangible evidence of their continuing support of contemporary music.

The awards recipients represent the complete spectrum in contemporary composition. Among them are such writers of international renown as Gian-Carlo Menotti whose Spoleto festival draws thousands of music lovers every year, Broadway figures Warren Casey and Jim Jacobs with the longest running musical "Grease" and the "Purlie" team, Gary Geld and Peter Udell, who have a new show coming up this season "All The Comforts Of Home"; John Gage, a seminal figure in American music; Nashville country writer Buzz Cason; Joe Raposo, the chief writer for Sesame Street; rock groups such as "War," "Steeley Dan" and the "J. Geils Band"; and Richard Feliciano, pioneer in new religious liturgies.

Young ASCAP writers are carrying on the tradition of such early members as Jerome Kern and Victor Herbert with contributions to the On and Off Broadway Theatre. Steven Schwartz has two shows running "Pippin" and "Godspell" (now also a movie), co-written with Michael Tebelak. Paul Jacobs and Christopher Guest's "Lemmings" continues at the Village Gate and Richard Weinstock, whose show "Magic Show Of Dr. Magico" received an Obie nomination, is a regular contributor to such established Off Broadway Theatres as La Mama and the WPA Theatre. Al Carmichael is again represented with his new show, "The Faggot," at the Truck and Warehouse Theatre. Obie Award winning playwright Rochelle Owens, as well as Barbara Bonfigli and Cathy MacDonald, who are providing the music for the Lincoln Center's "A Street Car Named Desire," are welcome new members to the Society who promise a bright future for Broadway Theatre.

Among the other writers of pop music receiving awards for their continuing contributions to America's musical traditions are: soul writer Jerry Butler; rising new star Chi Coltrane; jazz giant Ornette Coleman; "Oscar" winner Al Kasha; country star Webb Pierce.

Also among those recognized for their work were such other well known pop writers as Herb Alpert, Joan Baez, Richard Carpenter, Vaughn Horton, Randy Newman and Phil Ochs.

The Popular Awards Panel consists of T. Edward Hambleton, Managing Director of APA-Phoenix; Father Norman O'Connor, of the Paulist Fathers Community, a noted jazz expert and First Vice President of NARAS; Associate Justice Haydn Proctor of the Supreme Court of New Jersey; and William B. Williams, WNEW radio personality and noted jazz/pop music authority.

Recipients whose contribution is to the Serious Music field, include, among others, Dominick Argento, Robert Russell Bennett, Warren Frank Benson, Carlos Chavez, Paul Creston, David Leo Diamond, Ross Lee Finney, Carlisle Floyd, Lukas Foss, Alberto Ginastera, Ezra Laderman, Benjamin Lees, Peter Mennin, Vincent Persichetti, George Rochberg, Ned Rorem, Elie Siegmeister, Robert Starer, Randall Thompson and Virgil Thomson.

Mission: Hit Product was this year's theme and the audio-visual presentation is augmented by the Long Beach Marching Band (second photo) heralding Polydor's ten album fall release. Banners out of camera range are for Millie Jackson, James Last, John Mayall, Roy Ayers and Edwin Birdsong. In attendance were (C) (l. to r.) NARM Sets Scholarship Drive

BALA CYNWYD, PA. — Applications for the 1974 NARM Scholarship Awards are now being accepted by the office of the National Association of Recording Merchandisers. NARM Scholarships are in the amount of $4,000—$1,000 for each academic year. Students who are eligible for these scholarships are employees and children of employees of NARM member companies. Both Regular and Associate Member company employees or their children are eligible. Students who may apply must be planning to graduate from high school in June, 1974, and/or planning to enter college in September, 1974.

Scholarship applications are available to the employee himself, or may be requested by any company member executive for his employees. Applications must be filed no later than Oct. 31, and since certain forms and credentials must be gathered, NARM members are urged to request applications immediately.

Scholarship winners are selected on the basis of academic achievement and ability, coupled with financial need. Because of the rising costs of a college education, and the growing number of children in each family seeking a higher education, many employees of NARM member companies could qualify on the basis of need.

Applications for the NARM Scholarships are reviewed by the NARM Scholarship Committee, under the guidance of William G. Owen, Secretary of the University of Pennsylvania, who has served as educational consultant to the NARM Scholarship Foundation since its inception. Members of the 1974 NARM Scholarship Committee are Jack Silverman, Chairman of the Committee (ABC Record and Tape Sales, Des Moines, Iowa); William Hall (Transcontinental Music, Burlingame, Calif.); Albert Melnick (A&L Distributors, Philadelphia, Pa.); Anthony Galgano (Galgano Distributing Co., Chicago, Illinois); Stanley Lewis (Stan's Record Service, Shreveport, La.); Allan Wolk (United Record and Tape Ind., Hialeah Gardens, Fla.); Alfred Chotin (J. Roger Durham, of Bloodstone, Dies at 27

NEW YORK — Roger Lee Durham, member of London Records' group Bloodstone, died recently in Kansas City at the age of 27 after a lengthy illness.

Durham toured with Bloodstone until February when his illness forced him to return to Kansas City.

Durham is survived by his parents and a half brother who live in Kansas City and a sister who lives in Los Angeles.

POP PICKS

MONSTER MASH—Bobby 'Boris' Pickett And The Crypt Kickers—London—XPAS 71603

The title track of this LP proves that anything and everything can and will happen in the '70's. Although this disk was originally released back in 1962, the entertainment value still runs high and the importance of this disk as a novelty cannot be denied. Along with "Monster Mash," material such as "Monster Mash Party," "Monster Holiday," "Me And My Mummy" and "Transylvania Twist" is included to make this LP one that is entertaining with each listening. Also, listen closely. Some of those "Crypt Kickers" supplying background music and vocals names that are now of the rock household variety. A real "monster."

SOUL CLASSICS, VOL. II—James Brown—Polydor—SC 5402

The "Godfather Of Soul" has more "gold" to his credit than one could ever imagine and this "Greatest Hits" collection has got a great deal of it, of the Volume 2 variety. Included are his great "Get On The Good Foot, Part I," "Think," "I Got Ants In My Pants, Part I" and his now classic, "King Heroin," all performed as only James Brown can perform his material. When it comes to soul, James Brown invented it, it seems, and this album is yet another good and heavy dose.

SIMON COUNTRY—Joe Simon—Spring—SPR 5705

Who said there's not enough room for more than one Charlie Pride? Certainly not Joe Simon who has gone to great lengths to record this LP of top country material performed as only he can. This disk will undoubtedly receive both r&b and pop attention, but just watch those country ears perk up from just one spin. Highlighting here are great covers of "Kiss An Angel Good Morning," "You Don't Know Me," "Before The Next Teardrop Falls" and "Five Hundred Miles," any of which could easily be pulled as a single. Take a trip to "Simon Country." The vacation will do you some good.

PANDORA'S BOX—Jonathan King—U.K.—UKS 53104

It's been a long time since he's gone to the moon and he's gone through a lot of changes, but Jonathan King, now heading his own label, seems to have weathered the storm well. This reappearance shows that his music has changed as well. Needless to say, the change seems to be for the better. What highlights this disk is the satirical nature of many of the tracks with "Be Gay," "S*P*RSH*T," and "Colloquial Sex" leading the way in that direction. The artist's vocals are as strong as ever as is his production. His career, both as executive and performer seems to be picking up steam as a result of this disk. Lots of good things to be popping from this "Pandora's Box."

THE SOPWITH CAMEL IN HELLO HELLO—Kama Sutra—KCBS 2063

If there was ever a group misplaced in time, the Sopwith Camel was that group. Caught in the confusion of the sixties, they got lost in the shuffle and a lot of fine music went down the drain. This collection has now been re-released and better timing would be difficult to achieve. Included here is the group's great "Hello, Hello," but the rest of the Dan Hicks /Lovin Spoonful type material is well worth listening closely to. Of special note are "Maybe In A Dream," "Little Orphan Annie" and "Postcard From Jamaica." A re-issue of monumental note and one that should score heavily this time around. Definitely a resounding "Hello, Hello."

SUNDAY MORNING COMING DOWN—Johnny Cash—Columbia—C 32240

When Johnny Cash picks up his guitar and steps up to the microphone, you just know that greatness is about to be displayed. What this collection is, is the artist's greatest recorded performances, all previously released, but all enjoyable as can be. Highlighted here are "Folsom Prison Blues," "Orange Blossom Special," "Green Green Grass Of Home" and the mesmerizing title track. This one will not only appeal to John's natural country audience, but to also that vast market known as the world, filled with all of us who have grown with and been entertained by one of the great ones—Johnny Cash.

Country Music Report

Capitol Country Promo Continues In The Fall

HOLLYWOOD — An extensive product merchandising campaign has been created by Capitol over the summer, under the theme "This Is Capitol Country."

July saw a four-disc release, from Merle Haggard, Buck Owens and Susan Raye, Freddie Hart, and Tennessee Ernie Ford. August brought a continuation of the highly successful campaign with the release of LPs by Dorsey Burnette, Tony Booth, Dick Curless and Brush Arbor.

In September, Capitol country expands with new release albums by Buck Owens "Arms Full of Empty," Susan Raye "Plastic Trains, Paper Planes," Kenny Vernon "Kenny Vernon," Red Steagall "If You've Got The Time, I've Got The Song," and "The Legend of Sir Robert Charles Griggs."

"This Is Capitol Country" highlights the three-month collection and is being supported by a comprehensive array of merchandising and advertising aids. A special country product consumer's catalog has been created for in-store giveaway. A deluxe floor merchandiser reading "Welcome to Capitol Country" has been produced, as well as eight individual-artist posters. Special divider cards are available for in-store use. Television advertising has been placed in selected markets, and an extensive radio campaign carries out the "This Is Capitol Country" theme. A dealer discount program is part of the package, and artist appearances are set cross-country in markets featuring "Capitol Country."

UA Inks Louvin

NASHVILLE — Charlie Louvin, veteran country music artist, has resigned from Capitol Records after 22 years with the label, and signed a five year pact with United Artist Records that has reunited him with Kelso Hurston, who was responsible for a number of Louvins records that hit the top of the charts.

JMI Releases 'Nashville Coyote' Soundtrack LP

NASHVILLE — J-M-I Records has released its fifth album, the score and story of "Nashville Coyote," a program in the NBC-TV series "Wonderful World of Disney."

The show was first telecast last October and aired again Sunday night, Aug. 26. The production was one of the most popular shows of the whole year. The series in itself has become an American Sunday night television tradition.

Disney Studios veteran Jack Speirs wrote the screenplay and supervised the filming, which was done in and around Nashville two years ago. He also co-produced the J-M-I album with Jack Clement.

Four songs not heard in the original television production were added to the album.

The Country Music Association gave a Certificate of Special Award to the Disney Studios "for outstanding contribution to country music in producing 'The Nashville Coyote.'"

Maryland Gets New Publisher

DEER PARK — The formulation of a new Maryland-based BMI affiliated firm, Folkstone Music Publishing Company, has been announced by the owner, I. Lynn Beckman. The new firm will specialize in country, gospel and bluegrass music. However, future plans include the development of a rock and pop catalog.

Beckman, who will actively manage and spearhead the new company, brings with him a background of broadcasting and public relations knowledge. He was formerly a disc-jockey and news director at WMSG in Oakland, Md., and served as assistant manager of WCST in Berkeley Springs, West Virginia.

Beckman said the new company already has had material recorded and the first release is scheduled for September. To date, the company has only listed works which Beckman has written, but materials from other writers will be accepted.

Headquarters for Folkstone Music Publishing Company have been established at Route 4, Box 802, Deer Park, Maryland, 21550.

Country Artist of the Week:

JEANNIE SEELY

COMPUTERIZED TALENT—In her home in Hendersonville, just outside of Nashville, there are plaques and awards lining the walls that are proof that Jeannie Seely not only does an awful lot of things—she does them well. Besides performing and recording, Jeannie writes songs and knows music publishing in addition to commercial law, economics, public relations and banking and finance.

Fans have long since accepted the hip style and mod manner Jeannie brought to country music when she exploded into the national spotlight on the wings of a hit record titled "Don't Touch Me" while she was recording for Monument Records. The song was written by her husband Hank Cochran, one of today's top writers in country music, and the record won Jeannie the 1966 Grammy award for the Best Country Female Vocalist.

Born in a tiny Pennsylvania town of 350 persons, Jeannie officially started into the music business with her own weekly radio show. Since then she was hostess of her own show for two years on the Armed Forces Radio Network, appeared on most of the major television and radio shows, auditoriums, clubs, and parks all over the world—including a command performance before the 11th Annual United Nations Concert and Banquet which was requested from the White House.

She has been a member of the Grand Ole Opry since 1967. In 1969, in conjunction with her move to MCA Records, she began to also record with Jack Greene as a duet. Their first release "I Wish I Didn't Have To Miss You" reached No. 1 nationally and was the beginning of what has proven to be a very successful duet and show relationship.

Jeannie Seely's current chart climbing single "Can I Sleep In Your Arms Tonight Mister" on MCA Records was produced by Walter Haynes. Booking is by Top Billing Inc.

Johnny Cash To Host CMA Awards; Kraft Sponsoring Network Airing

NASHVILLE — Johnny Cash, who won five out of 10 award categories in the 1969 CMA Awards (sharing one with wife June Carter), will host CMA's Oct. 15 Awards Show, to be broadcast live and in color over CBS-TV at 9:00 p.m. (CDT). Kraft Foods will again sponsor the event.

All nominations and winners in the 10 categories of achievements in CMA's Awards are determined by vote of the CMA membership. The certified public accounting firm of Touche Ross and Company is responsible for all tallies, with the winners not known to anyone outside the accounting firm until the envelopes are opened.

Categories for the Awards include Entertainer of the Year, Song of the Year, Single of the Year, Male Vocalist of the Year, Female Vocalist of the Year, Top Album of the Year, Instrumentalist of the Year, Instrumental Group of Band of the Year, Vocal Duo of the Year and Vocal Group of the Year.

Highlighting the Awards presentation will be the announcement of the two new members to the Country Music Hall of Fame, the top accolade in Country Music.

Admission to the Awards Show is restricted to CMA members who have purchased tickets to the CMA Anniversary Banquet and Show to be held Friday, October 19, but can be viewed by anyone across the U.S. on their local CBS-TV affiliate. The Awards Show was first telecast in 1968, with the first live broadcast in 1969 from the stage of the Grand Ole Opry House, where it has been held ever since.

Freddie Weller (Columbia 45902)
(Roadmaster—BMI) | 41 | | | |

Billy Sherrill's secrets for making hits.

1. Start with the most talented singers you can find. People like Freddy Weller, Barbara Mandrell and Johnny Duncan will do just fine.

2. Use the best musicians in Nashville (who happen to be the best musicians in the world).

3. Record the best songs you can find. If an artist like Freddy Weller writes songs as good as "The Perfect Stranger," use that. If you find a song that seems to have been written especially for an artist (like "The Midnight Oil" by Barbara Mandrell) you're ahead of the game. After all, Record World said Barbara's new single was going to number one. And when you're following up a hit as big as Johnny Duncan's "Sweet Country Woman," follow it up with something even better: "Talkin' With My Lady." Billboard called that new Johnny Duncan single "probably his best yet."

4. Trust your own judgment.

C&W Singles Reviews

Picks of the Week

JOHNNY CASH & JUNE CARTER (Columbia 4-45929)

Allegheny (3:27) (Combine, BMI—C. Gantry)

Superb production and an intriguing story line plus John's vocals and June's shouted responses are up to the couple's usual high standards. Which means we're talking about a chart-topping disk. A sound investment. Flip: No info available.

GEORGE HAMILTON IV (RCA DJAO-0084)

Second Cup of Coffee (3:07) (Moose, CAPAC—Gordon Lightfoot)

This is a back to back hit. Both sides good music. 'A' side is excellent programming choice. Flip's a cover of a lyrically interesting tune. Flip: Farmer's Song (3:15) (Oyster, ASCAP—M. McLaughlin)

TOMMY OVERSTREET (Dot DOA-17474)

I'll Never Break These Chains (2:45) (Ricci Moreno, SESAC—Barrett, Black, Mareno)

Strong ballad is enhanced with strings. Overstreet's vocals are excellent. An all-around action disk that ought to earn lots of spins. Lyrics contain strong pledge of love. Flip: No info available.

O. B. McCLINTON (Enterprise ENA 9079)

Let Me Love You Like I Want To (2:28) (Fall Creek, ASCAP—F. Rhodes)

Obie's back with what looks like a double-header hit. 'A' side is positive pick for charts, play lists and sure sales. 'B' side, a slow trad tune, could also break. Obie's gonna be big, big, big. Flip: You Don't Miss Your Water (2:46) (East Memphis—W. Bell)

KENNY PRICE (RCA DJAO-0083)

You're Wearin' Me Down (2:09) (Blue Echo, ASCAP—Ray Griff)

Hot strings repeat vocal line, brass boosts both sounds, and the result is a snappy single mix that should be welcomed on play lists. Another reason to get to know Ray Price better, too. He's developing quite a following. Flip: The Closest Thing To Me Is My Shadow (2:57) (Acclaim, BMI—Vic McAlpin)

DICKEY LEE (RCA DJHO-0082)

Sparklin' Brown Eyes (2:50) (Dixie, BMI—Cox, Mobbs)

High-pitched harmonies abound in this bluegrass-flavored tune which has strong possibilities, hit-wise. Musically it's far superior to most of the ersatz "country" sounds being programmed these days in an attempt to expand the market. Flip: No info available.

LEFTY FRIZZELL (ABC 11387)

I Can't Get Over You To Save My Life (2:57) (Blue Crest, BMI—Shafer, Frizzell)

Lefty delivers this heart-tugger in style, with an instrumental backing that serves the mood of the song well. Good, traditional country deserves air play. Flip: No info available.

BOBBY G. PRICE (Metromedia DJHO-0075)

The Whole World's Making Love Again Tonight (3:06) (Americus/Uncle Ben's, ASCAP—Riis, Rice, Fields)

Soft, even-paced ballad has a warm, pleasant feeling, which should earn lots of air play. Sounds like a mover to us. Good for jukes, too. Flip: No info available.

THE COUNTRY CAVALEERS (MGM K 14606)

Humming Bird (2:20) (Acuff-Rose, BMI—J. Wright, Jack & Jim Anglin)

Catchy, bluegrass tune features smart vocal work, excellent picking all around. Good hook, mix, make for a strong commercial sound. Should see action. Flip: Hang On To What (2:00) (Sure Fire, BMI—J. Helms)

GLENN MARTIN (Capitol P-3719)

If She Keeps Loving Me (3:02) (Tree, BMI—G. Martin)

You can bet this is gonna be a hit record. The sound is right for constant programming. Nice tempo, mellow vocals. Easy on the ears. Flip: You Ain't Missed A Thing (2:38) (Tree, BMI—G. Martin, D. Morrison)

BOBBY LEE TRAMMELL (Capitol P-3718)

Love (Don't Let Me Down) (2:29) (Jack & Bill, ASCAP—J. Foster, B. Rice)

Another traditional sounding tune that makes the most of the true country rhythms. Good shouter, steady foot-tapper should get lots of air play. Flip: I Couldn't Believe My Eyes (1:58) (Fear, BMI—B. Trammell)

TOMMY RUBLE (River R-3878)

Stingy (2:26) (Toast/Konawa BMI—W. Redden, M. Hopkins)

This has that compelling rockabilly sound that's recapturing the attention of many country artists these days. It's a top-notch sound, a bouncy love song, on the light side. Great juke tune, any playlist could use. Flip: No info available.

THE KENDALLS (Dot DOA-17473)

I Wanna Live Here In Your Love (2:48) (Window/Brougham, BMI—Tomake, ASCAP—R. Bourke, G. Barnhill)

This is a bright, up-lifting tune that seems chart-bound and highly suitable for most anyone's playlist or jukebox. The production and vocals rank with successful efforts of the past. Flip: No info available.

BOBBY BOND (Hickory HK 305)

I'll Sing For You (2:05) (Acuff-Rose, BMI—B. Bond)

Funky, Memphis-feel goes this right into the hit category. It's packed with rhythm, good lyrics, and chock-full of cross-country potential. A smart playlist add. Flip: No info available.

Country LP Reviews

SLIPPIN' AWAY—Jean Shepard—United Artists
—UA-LA144-F

This is a well selected collection of songs recorded by one of the brighter lights of the Nashville scene. "Slippin' Away," the title cut, slipped its way to the top of the charts. "The Last Thing On My Mind," written by Tom Paxton, is another outstanding cut. "It's Not Love (But It's Not Bad)" deserves air play. "Come On Phone" is an up, fast-paced tune. Jean also performs her vocal wonders on "The Teddy Bear Song," "Funny Face," and "Think I'll Go Somewhere (And Cry Myself To Sleep)." The album is a fine introduction to Jean Shepard's talent and ability to put across a country tune. It'll be welcomed by her fans and grateful program directors.

THE BEST OF BILLY CRASH CRADDOCK—
Crash Craddock—Chart—CHS-1053

"Crash" Craddock has been establishing himself as a top country singer with an all-around range of musical interests. This collection shows the many sides of Craddock, as they say on album covers. Represented are songs like "There Oughta Be A Law," and up-tempo, very catchy complaint about feminine fickleness; "Anything That's Part Of You," a soft ballad; "Two Arms Fully of Lonely," "Go On Home Girl," and several other highly playable tunes. A unique feature of the album is the inclusion of a "guest artist" on the last two cuts on each side. "There's Gonna Be Lovin'" is the heaviest of the two cuts, by the same artist—Gene Hood. It's worth a listen. A nice idea—guest artist!

'CHARLIE'—Tompall Glaser—MGM—SE-4918

Not too many years ago some cuts on this album would probably have been considered "wierd" by folks who thought they knew what "country music" was. Well, times have changed. This is country, every cut on the LP, written and sung by a man who's one of the top stars in the business. It's from the heart of a man who lives in today, and today's world is fiercer than Dodge City or any cow town of the past. The title cut should be a monster single. And "Bad, Bad, Bad Cowboy" should break big, too. Play the entire LP in one sitting, at night, alone, in the dark, with a jug. There's so many good, playable cuts there's no sense recommending any in particular. Waylon Jennings and Kinky Friedman helped Tompall produce. A fine solo debut from a great artist.

Burt Reynolds Cutting Disk In Nashville

NASHVILLE — Actor Burt Reynolds visited Nashville last week to confer with Buddy Killen, executive vice president of Tree International, about material for his first recording session scheduled for mid-September at Soundshop Studios.

Reynolds agreed to record in Nashville following meetings with Bobby Goldsboro and Killen during the filming of the movie "Deliverance" in Georgia two years ago. Killen and Goldsboro will co-produce the album, which will be distributed by Mercury Records.

Killen said Reynolds is looking for "personalized" type songs that say things about certain subjects which he is interested in. Reynolds said "none of the songs will have a message per se and I would hope perhaps one or two will be love songs, and we might even have a country tune." Reynolds will likely try his pen at writing some of the songs, according to Killen. While here he spent time with veteran Tree songwriters Curly Putman and Red Lane discussing various ideas.

Killen said Goldsboro originally suggested to Reynolds that he come to Nashville and cut some records. "Burt has a nice voice and he's going to be pleasant to work with" Killen added, "He's a real unpretentious guy".

Tom T. Hall Gets 'Boot(ed)' Out Of Texas

NASHVILLE — Shading their eyes from the sun, Tom T. Hall and his Storytellers were waiting this week as a private Lear jet swooped down on a Missouri runway. Furnished by El Paso's Tony Lama Company Inc., the plane was there to whisk Hall and the entire group off to El Paso for a "Boot In."

Partaking of the on-board luxuries, including a "flying saloon," the group disembarked in El Paso and were promptly escorted to the boot company where Lama personally outfitted all of the group with several pairs of custom boots.

Privately jetted back to Nashville, Hall was asked his opinion of his new footwear. Flexing his leather clad feet while eyeing his additional assortment of reptile and multi-colored footwear, Hall smiled and endorsed his new pediwear by quipping, "Well, you can bet your boots we got a boot out it."

HOLLYWOOD — Country music stars Bill Anderson and Conway Twitty and their bands got together on Aug. 7 to play a baseball game for charity at Nashville's Madison Park. The two artists have always had an active interest in baseball. Conway, at one time, nearly signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies. Proceeds went to the Nashville Camp Fund for the Blind Children.

Lubbock's KDAV To Celebrate 20 Country Years

LUBBOCK — The world's first full-time country music station, KDAV in Lubbock, Texas, will celebrate its 20th Anniversary with an all-day party at the Villa Inn, Sept. 19th.

On hand to join the festivities will be KDAV owner "Pappy" Dave Stone, general manager of the Dave Stone Stations; Bonnie Paris, and KDAV's general manager Bob Clark. Also expected are some of the former KDAV dee-jays and personalities from the country music industry. Two former KDAV air personalities are Waylon Jennings and Bill Mack.

The No. 1 country record when KDAV hit the airwaves on September 19, 1953 was Jean Shepard and Ferlin Husky's "Dear John Letter."

Another interesting side-note is the fact that the Dave Stone Stations total 80 years of continuous country music broadcasting: 20 years for KDAV; 19 years for KPEP-San Angelo, Texas; 18 years for KZIP-Amarillo, Texas; 16 years for KPIK-AM, and 7 years for KPIK FM, Colorado Springs, Colorado. (KPIK has also just added stereo.)

announcer and Bud Wendell, manager of the Grand Ole Opry, was the base umpire. Other personalities who contributed their time and talents were MCA Record's John Brown and recording artist L. E. White, who played on Conway's team, and singer Mary Lou Turner, who was pinch hitter for Bill Anderson.

The final score was 21-9, Bill Anderson's favor.

Canada

TORONTO — Capitol (Canada), in conjunction with Century II and producer Doug Hutton, has launched a Canadian History suite tagged "Cantata Canada." The production has been underway for several years by Hutton, who influenced investors to go along with his "Cantata" which showcased 24 significant subjects in Canadian history.

Musical backing was supplied by Privilege and members of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. The session was produced at Vancouver's Studio 3 Productions and at Century II in Edmonton. Some of the people involved were: Bob Ruzicka, Marc Jordan, Rick Neufeld, Carol Zazula, and Graeme Card.

The album is packaged attractively with a specially designed libretto (artwork) by Montreal artist Al Roberge.

Hutton had recorded the album at Studio 3 in Vancouver and had gained the support of Tommy Banks who heads up Century II Productions. Arnold Gosewich, president of Capitol (Canada) became tuned into the project while attending RPM's Communication Five meeting in Vancouver. Capitol has mustered all its nationalistic feelings into backing this project with the greatest financial and promotional muscle in the company's history.

Canada's Big Country, a Canadian record industry communication meeting is gathering steam across the country. Guest speakers include Jo Walker of the Country Music Association; Harold Moon, general manager BMI Canada; and Bill Anderson, program director of CFGM, the country giant in Toronto. Other notables, to be confirmed, will also speak. There will be a panel of industry people: record president, national sales manager, rack jobber, retailer and radio personalities. Country has come a long way in Canada which boasts more than 80% of Canadian radio playing some country. There has also been a growing trend toward full country on FM stations although the proposed new FM regulations from the CRTC may cause some changes to be made in this respect.

A&M's national promotion manager, Peter Beauchamp, could have a tiger by the tail. The label has released "Vado Via" by Drupi and initial response from the pop music stations (now fast becoming the barometer for hits) is encouraging. The single, in Italian, was picked by Herb Alpert on a recent trip to Europe. Ironically the deck is selling better in France than in Italy.

Belgium

E.M.I. BELGIUM released the albums "Innervisions" (Stevie Wonder) on Motown, "We're an American Band" (Grand Funk) on Capitol and the singles (The Allman Brothers Band), "River" (Terry Reid), "Brothers and sisters" both on Elektra, "Du gehorst zu mir" (Christian Anders), "Some kind of joker" (The Pebbles) and "Angie/Silver train" (The Rolling Stones) on the Stones label.

CBS-ARTONE released the albums "Intruders super hits," "Johnny Cash sings the ballads of the true West" (Johnny Cash) and the single "Ay no digos" (Chris Montez). Much is expected from the Bobby Vinton LP "The best of Bobby Vinton" on Epic. Bobby's "Hurt" is a big hit in Belgium.

INELCO released the album "Farewell Andromeda" (John Denver) on RCA.

POLYDOR released the singles "Radar love" (Golden Earring), "Warum" (Chris Roberts) and the LP "Lost Horizon," the soundtrack of the film with music composed by Burt Bacharach.

FONIOR released the single hit "Minnie minnie" (Mouth & MacNeal) on Decca, and the LP "The world of the Les Humphries Singers."

PHONOGRAM reports that the company gives a reception and lunch in honour of Demis Roussos on September 5th. Demis Roussos had enormous hits with "My reason," "Forever and ever" and recently with "Goodbye my love goodbye." The company also proudly announces that it will distribute the records of the label SEON in Europe from September 1973. The SEON repertoire is dedicated to the masterpieces from the 17th and 18th century in original version.

Don McLean to visit Europe this autumn starting off in Italy mid-September and culminating in an appearance at London's Royal Albert Hall October 15th. United Artists release an album "Playin' Favourites" to coincide with his visit.

Chet Atkins will be Special Guest on several Nashville Cavalcade concert tour dates in Britain and Europe in November—his first appearance in more than five years. "Nashville Cavalcade" presented by RCA Records in conjunction with the Mervyn Conn Organization will kick off in November at Wembley and will tour the provinces ending December 2nd in Birmingham.

Joe Dayde hopes for a big international hit (his last was "Mammy Blue") with "She Didn't Remember My Name" now issued in the U.K. by RCA . . . New Wizzard single on Harvest "Angel Fingers" . . . First British signing by Fantasy Records Frank White who makes his debut on new label with "Nobody" . . . Because of the word "Wimpy" in lyric Bell Records having to make special version of "Don't Get Your Knickers in a Twist" by Johnny Reggae for BBC . . .

More Exhibitors Registered for Larger 25th Anniversary MOA Expo Nov. 9-11

CHICAGO — With two months left to go, the 1973 MOA 25th Anniversary Exposition looms as the record event the national association's key executives always hoped for. Despite the fact that some feared the Nov. 9-11 show dates might preclude a strong showing, more exhibitors have registered to show their goods than last year . . . so many more that MOA has added a second exhibition hall to the one occupied at the Hilton Hotel last year.

MOA president Harlan Wingrave feels several factors have joined together to create such popularity for the 1973 Expo—the 25th anniversary theme and the introduction of several new and important games factories to the exhibitor roster. MOA also feels that the phonographs, about to be introduced for the trade, will still be fresh in early November to add sparkle to the music room.

Many veteran operators, no longer actively associated with the industry, are also expected to join their younger trade colleagues in celebration of the 25th year for the national group; many remembering the days when, and the events that lead up to, the foundation of MOA in 1949.

Of course, a good crowd-attractor for any MOA Expo is the all-industry seminar, and this year's appears a most enjoyable and worthwhile event. The MOA seminar committee (Wayne Hesch, Gil Sonin, Norman Pink and R. J. Manolis) are planning a two-part seminar to be held opening day (Nov. 9th). Part I will be a presentation by Dr. Sal Bella of the University of Notre Dame on communications between operator and location. Dr. Bella was one of the MOA regional seminar speakers during the past two years. Part 2 will be a panel discussion by representatives of games factories on the question "What is the future of electronic games and how will operators be able to service them?"

MOA executive vice president Fred Granger and staff are doing their utmost to promote peak attendance for that show. In addition to supplying members and exhibitors with artwork and stickers promoting the 25th anniversary event, Granger has prepared a 25th Anniversary Public Relations kit, which should be in the mails this week. Says Granger:

"MOA's 25th Anniversary Public Relations kits will go in the mail within the next two weeks. The new kit is an updated version of the public relations program produced in 1969. We have had requests for this material from time to time and we think you will find it useful. Included in the kit is the "Jukebox Story" which, with the help of MOA members, has been revised, although we were careful not to make it any longer and not to revise more than necessary. We had many compliments on the first edition. Brevity and simple style made it highly readable. As a reminder of something very important, we have again included suggestions of what operators can do to improve the image of the industry. Newest addition to the kit is a colorful 25th Anniversary edition of the MOA Code of Ethics suitable for framing. Members may purchase specially framed editions from MOA for $7.00 including shipping and handling."

The Champ's mission will be to visit LaSalle's stops from time to time as an ambassador of good will (not a bad idea for other large route's to put such an idea to work for themselves).

IUC Fiscal Rises

CHICAGO — Interstate United Corp. reported substantially increased earnings and record revenues for the fiscal year ended July 1, 1973. President Wagner Van Vlack reported that net earnings rose to $3,369,000 or $1.15 per share, as compared with $1,991,000 or 68 cents per share earned from continuing operations in the prior fiscal year. After a deduction in the prior year for losses in discontinued operations and an extraordinary charge, total net income

EDITORIAL: Flourishing Games Business

The coin-op amusement games industry in this country today is flourishing, and on all three levels. Operators, thanks to such door-opening and quarter-earning units as video games and hockey tables, plus increased play-pricing on standard games, are generally reaping record collections. Distributors, again thanks to new factories with new (and profitable) merchandise entering the industry, have more to offer on the showroom floor than in recent memory. And the factories are likewise doing well supplying those firms, while serving a European market that's healthier than ever before, especially since the devaluation of the American dollar has made the prices more attractive.

The boom, however, is not universal. Many operators in the larger cities have for many years now been faced with a saturation problem that has prevented them from dramatically raising their collections, regardless of what new machines are available. There are a variety of reasons for this saturation and we feel the most insidious of them all is the prohibitive legislation that curtails open operation of amusement games in many cities. For example, there are places where an arcade license is required if more than three or four pieces are operating in any given location (and there's at least one city where no new arcade licenses are granted any longer). There's still plenty of anti-flipper and anti-free play laws on the books which likewise hurt an operator's chances of conducting his business with the same freedom as any other businessman.

We feel that when any operator's business prospects are boxed in by discriminatory laws it's every trader's business to talk about it and try to get it rectified. Games legislation is one subject we'd like seriously discussed on a national level and might very well fit in at an MOA Expo or regional seminar one day (if not this November).

in that year was $94,000 or 3 cents per share, he said.

Van Vlack pointed out that the latest year's earnings marked an all time high in operating profits before tax credits and extraordinary items. (In 1969, the company earned $1.22 per share after benefits of 9 cents in extraordinary credits and a 37 per cent tax rate due to loss carryforwards. The latest year's profits were based on a 48 per cent tax rate.)

Van Vlack also reported that sales and service income for the year rose to a record $191,455,000 as compared with $164,040,000 a year earlier.

For the fourth quarter, the 12 weeks ended July 1, 1973, Van Vlack reported, net earnings were $993,000 or 34 cents per share, up from $854,000 or 29 cents per share in the prior year quarter. Revenues for the fourth quarter were $48,469,000 vs. $40,915,000 a year earlier, he said.

Additional Promotions Announced At Wurlitzer Sales; Vaughn and Hager To Tonawanda In Key Phonograph Roles

VAUGHN

HAGER

NORTH TONAWANDA — Two additional appointments to the Wurlitzer Company's North Tonawanda Division sales staff were announced by Dick Williams, manager of domestic sales-phonographs. The promotion of Larry Vaughn to the position of sales manager for Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation and the transfer to the North Tonawanda Division of Larry Hager, operations manager for the eight company-owned branches, come as a result of Wurlitzer's recent re-alignment of sales managerial responsibilities. The changes become effective September 1 when the responsibility for Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation officially returns to North Tonawanda from the DeKalb, Illinois Division.

The appointment of Vaughn as Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation sales manager follows the opening of a new Wurlitzer distributorship in San Francisco, announced last week by North Tonawanda division manager Amile Addy. As a result of an agreement with Bally Distributing Corporation, Wurlitzer will be represented in San Francisco by Advance Automatic Sales Co., Inc., California Corporation. Vaughn was manager of the Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation branch formerly located at 1315-16th Street.

Vaughn brings to the North Tonawanda Division twenty-three years of experience in the coin machine industry. He has been involved in every phase of vending operation including work as a routeman, serviceman, route supervisor, office manager and distributorship manager. Vaughn joined Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation as a sales representative in Nashville and has since served as manager of the Atlanta and San Francisco branches. His record as an administrator of branch offices has been outstanding, Addy stated.

Larry Hager has been operations manager for Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation for the past eighteen months and will continue in that capacity, working out of North Tonawanda. His transfer will enable him to assist Williams on the same first-hand basis as in the past. Hager is chiefly responsible for coordinating all Wurlitzer Distributing Corporation business including sales training, office training and financial analysis.

Both Vaughn and Hager are expected to move into the North Tonawanda, New York area within the month. Their transfers are expected to bolster the increasing sales activity of the North Tonawanda Division. Wurlitzer spokesmen indicate that public and operator acceptance of the Americana phonograph and nostalgic 1050 Jukebox has prompted one of the company's best sales years in recent history.

EASTERN FLASHES

THE GANG'S ALL HERE—It was like old home week at the Travelers Hotel in Queens last Tuesday (28) as scores of operators and mechanics joined the brass from Atlantic New York and Seeburg for the first preview in these parts of the new Seeburg SPS-2 Matador 160-selection jukebox. The lads came early and stayed late, according to the Atlantic's genial sales manager Murray Kaye, and enjoyed food, drink, machine inspections and lots of trade talk among themselves. The new unit is an ultra glamorous machine with lots of chrome and red "Tiffany-styled" lighting—a smash for light or dark locations. Atlantic also showed off new SAVE-1 Alarm System, a PB Play Button and a Security Bar (hasp-like lock) for the traders. Other music boxes and vending equipment on display included the SL-100 Carnival 100-selection compact, the Regency console and the STC-4 Tobacco Counter cigarette vender. Murray Kaye pointed out that the new Matador marks the sixth straight Seeburg juke among which the mechanisms is interchangeable. Representing Seeburg were Bill Adair, Don Desmond and Dick Vessa. Atlantic brass included Meyer Parkoff, Jack Gordon, Murray, Gordon Howard, Mike Calland, Arnold Tripel and Tom Borcella (service manager), plus a number of the firm's technicians. Operations from the broad metropolitan area who were represented included: Mike Mulqueen, LaSalle, Miller Automatic, Casino Music, Greco Bros., Nontauk Automatic, S&L Music, Romer Vending, Lincoln Amusement, Pyramid, Harmony Music, Cornwall Automatic, Jardso Vending, Elkay Amusement, Elite Music, Al Ezrati, Beverly Vending, Misty Automatic, Patdor Vending, Silco Vending, City Music, Herald Vending, Paramount, Sterling, Regal Music, Paramous Music, Al Bodkin, R. H. Belam Co., Lido Vending, Boro Automatic, Sherry Music, A.N.T. Vending, E&S Music, and Madison Amusement. Morris Kahn and Lou Price, formerly of County Ent., showed up just to meet the guys once again. It was a lovely affair, and held not one day too soon—the very next day, Con Edison shut the whole area down on electricity (including nearby LaGuardia Airport), due to air-conditioner overload during the heat wave.

TRAVELERS—Mondial's Dick Sarkisian back from vacation this week. . . . Brian Dowdle, director of Hunter Electronics Pty., Sydney, Australia, touring the coin factories in the states for three weeks, leaving for home on Sept. 6th. Brian's firm imports ping pong, darts, and whatever amusement items he classes in the "solid state electronics field," which is their specialty. . . . Still another gamesman, Bernard Parker (of Computer Games Ltd., England), thru the states checking into current hits on location. Brian's firm makes games for the overseas market.

HERE AND THERE—That Urban Industries 'Sex Tester' is still proving out one of the hottest items on the 1973 scene. Got a note from Johnny Perreault of Culp Dist. Co. (Oklahoma City) saying: "In July of this year I purchased a Sex Tester and would like to tell you the returns from this machine have been wonderful. It has earned an average of $100 per week. The first five weeks' returns paid for the machine and am happy to say that there was no maintenance required. I believe it will be a great machine for any location where you have transient young and senior citizens. The displayed results on the tester are amusing to the players, both male and female."

CHICAGO CHATTER

Bally Mfg. Corp. announced the release, this past week, of "Nip-It," a new 4-player flipper game! It has been extensively tested for some months, according to sales manager Paul Calamari, and has proven to be a big attraction, with great earning power, on location! In pointing out the many features which contribute to the game's appeal, Calamari made special mention of the "balligator" button, which he considers an "outstanding skill feature." UA'S LOCAL PROMO REP Walter Paas said the current Bobby Goldsboro single "Summer" is a natural for ops.

AFTER TALKING TO REPRESENTATIVES of the various factories this past couple of weeks and hearing about the lineup of new equipment which will be pouring forth, we can only conclude (borrowing a phrase from network television) "have they got a Fall for you!"
