EDITORIAL Hope For The Future

With the commencement of the 6th annual MUSEXPO international convention late last week, several positive indications for the future became apparent. Representatives of the worldwide music community, joined this year by members of the burgeoning video industry, have enough faith in the future to gather together to lay the groundwork for recovery of the business on an international scale.

In many territories throughout the world, the music industry has felt the bite of recession and inflation — less people have less money to spend on product that seems to continually get more expensive. Many companies have been driven to the brink of disaster, while others have disappeared completely.

It is thus encouraging to see so many gathered together this year to aggressively attack the problem. Instead of hiding its head in the sand and hoping for the problems to disappear, the music industry, joined by the video people, have chosen to grab the bull by the horns and turn the situation around.

With the worldwide cooperation exemplified by this year's enthusiastic participants, it is clear that the future of the industry is assured. Music is not only universal, transcending boundaries and languages, it is one of mankind's unique gifts to the world.

Cash Box applauds the enthusiasm and commitment of those who have taken the time and effort to travel to MUSEXPO this year, for it is people like this who will surely find the way back to prosperity.

Geffen Records Signs Elton John, Ex-Beatle Lennon

by Richard Imamura

LOS ANGELES — Elton John and John Lennon have signed recording contracts with Geffen Records. John's deal is a long-term, exclusive worldwide agreement; while Lennon's, unconfirmed by the label but firmly supported by published reports, has his new LP, "Double Fantasy," reportedly set for mid-November release.

John and Lennon join Donna Summer, signed earlier this year (Cash Box, June 28), on the new label founded by 37-year-old record executive David Geffen and distributed by Warner Bros.

John's agreement with Geffen Records marks the first time his records will be released on the same label throughout the world. However, John's former U.S. label, MCA Records, contends that the artist still owes "some product" before he will be free to record for Geffen.

A spokesman for MCA stated that John's contract with the label still calls for "some product," but did not reveal any specific amount. The spokesman also declined to comment on the possibility of legal action to retain John's services for the duration of his agreement as interpreted by MCA.

Geffen Records recently defeated an attempt by Casablanca Records, Summer's former label, to enjoin the singer from recording for Geffen (Cash Box, Sept. 20).

Lennon, unaffiliated with a label since his "Rock 'n' Roll" LP and "Shaved Fish" compilation on Apple Records in 1975, revealed his agreement with Geffen Records in an interview last week with a reporter from Newsweek magazine.

Geffen Records officials would neither confirm nor deny the reported signing. However, a Warner Bros. source expects the "Double Fantasy" LP, which reportedly features both Lennon and his wife, Yoko Ono, will be released in mid-November.

Commenting on the signing of Elton John, Geffen Records president Ed Rosenblatt said, "We're obviously elated and flattered that an artist of Elton John's stature has decided to join us. It is difficult to put into words exactly what Elton has meant to our industry. Suffice it to say that the word 'superstar' would have a hollow ring without Elton around to define it by his incredible achievements."

John Reid, head of John Reid Enterprises and John's manager, said future recording and touring plans will be announced in the near future. "Elton is proud and excited by this association with the Geffen Records team. It can only lead to bigger and better things for all concerned."

RCA Adopts Bar Coding

NEW YORK — RCA Records, which had been the last major label without a clearly defined position on bar coding, announced last week that it will begin bar coding its new LP releases starting in January, 1981. The announcement was made here by Jack Chudnoff, division vice president of marketing for RCA Records, at the bar coding meeting of the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA).

Commenting on the label's decision to adopt the Universal Product Code (UPC), Chudnoff said, "At optimum efficiency, bar coding will offer retailers, distributors and manufacturers substantial cost efficiencies. As the hardware comes down in price and the advantages become more apparent, bar coding will become a necessity within our industry."

The RCA move follows recent commitments to adopt bar coding made by Arista Records and MCA Records (Cash Box, Aug. 9).

Future Of Mass Merchandise Outlets To Be Explored At NARM Rack Meet

by Michael Martinez

SAN DIEGO — "The Rack Is Back" Rack Jobbers Conference sponsored by the National Assn. of Recording Merchandisers (NARM) gets under way here this week at the Sheraton Harbor Island Hotel, with a particular emphasis on the growing importance of mass merchandiser chain stores in the future growth for jobber outfits.

NARM sources also revealed last week that many of the rack accounts that will participate in the conference activities will disclose upcoming merchandising campaigns.

Of principal issue, however, will be bolstering communication and cooperation between the rack jobber, manufacturer and the chain store owner.

2,000 Expected For 6th MUSEXPO Meet

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Approximately 2,000 members of the international music community from 44 countries are convening here for the sixth annual MUSEXPO convention. The five-day conference began Friday (26) at the Americana Bal Harbour Hotel.

The presence of top executives from major labels is about the same as it was last year, according to Roddy Shashoua, president of MUSEXPO, although a number of U.S. companies are represented, including A&M, CBS, MCA, Polydor, RCA, and Warner Bros. Fred Haayen, president of Polydor Records, delivered the convention's keynote speech on Saturday (27).

While the bulk of the gathering is made up of music publishers, other participants here include record and video production companies, video retailers and distributors, performing rights organizations, radio syndicators, recording studios, advertising and public relations firms, and consumer and industry trade publications.

Panel discussions were slated for the weekend covering such topics as "Legal/International Licensing," "Video Programming and Marketing," "Radio Programming and the Record Industry," and "Marketing and Promotion." An A&R seminar is scheduled for Monday (29), while the convention concludes with a music publishing discussion on Tuesday (30).

Entertainment at the convention has included performances by Asylum artist Johnny Lee and Australian singer Kerri Adams.

Harold Okinow, president of Lieberman Enterprises and chairman of NARM's rack jobber advisory committee, said that another important issue would be tape merchandising and how space and size limitations of racked accounts affect sales of such product.

But Okinow agreed that the growth of chain store mass merchandisers will expand sales potential for rack jobbers.

Explaining more specifically how chain store mass merchandisers will play an important role in rack sales, a spokesman for Ken A. Mackie, chief executive officer for Target Stores and the conference keynote speaker, told Cash Box that experience with record sales are running contrary to conditions prevailing throughout the rest of the record industry.

The spokesman said that Target stores, as is the case with other mass merchandisers, has the built-in advantage of having steady store traffic that enhances point-of-purchase sales. The spokesman also emphasized the importance of balancing print advertisement with in-store display. He further stressed the necessity of maintaining current inventory and hits which have been identified as most popular by trade charts and radio airplay.

Both Okinow and Mackie's spokesman said that maintaining discount inventory was another issue that would be aired during the convention.

ASCAP Receipts For The First Eight Months Increase $15 Million Over '79

LOS ANGELES — ASCAP domestic receipts for the first eight months of 1980 increased by $15,524,000, to $86,417,000 from $70,893,000 during the similar period in 1979.

Domestic receipts were derived as follows: licensees including symphonic and concert, $83,486,000; interest on investments, $2,663,000, and membership dues, $268,000.

For the first eight months of 1980, monies derived from foreign societies were $11,338,000. This represents an increase of $2,411,000 over last year's total for the similar period of $8,927,000.

After deducting salaries and expenses of $17,026,000, $59,705,000 was available for distribution to membership, compared to $55,895,000 distributed in the first eight months of last year. In the first quarter of this year, ASCAP distributed $17,683,000 and $20,192,000 in the second quarter.

Additionally, ASCAP made a special distribution in August of $9,270,000

Judge Postpones Tucker Sentencing

by Richard Gold

NEW YORK — George Tucker, president of Super Dupers Inc., a tape duplicating firm that manufactures counterfeit eight-tracks which were eventually sold to Sam Goody Inc., had his sentencing on Federal counts of wire fraud, copyright infringement, perjury and obstruction of justice, postponed until Sept. 30, after an entire day of legal maneuvering on Sept. 26, the date originally slated for his sentencing (Cash Box, Sept. 27).

U.S. District Judge Thomas C. Platt of the Federal District Court in Brooklyn gave the Tucker defense until Sept. 30 to summon Raymond Brown Sr., Tucker's former attorney, to represent him for sentencing on the wire fraud and copyright infringement counts to which he pleaded guilty on Aug. 31, 1979. Tucker's current attorney, Paul Giblin, maintained that he could only represent Tucker for sentencing on his recent convictions for perjury and obstruction of justice (Cash Box, Sept. 13 and Sept. 20). Judge Platt warned that there would be no more adjournments in the Tucker case and promised to sentence him in absentia if Tucker and his attorneys failed to appear on Sept. 30. The Judge earlier rejected Giblin's motions to have Tucker's latest convictions set aside on the grounds that Henry Furst, an associate of Brown's in Tucker's original defense violated attorney-client privilege by appearing as a witness at Tucker's recent trial.

The U.S. Government's case against Goody and its executives for allegedly interstate trafficking in counterfeit tapes took a new twist on Sept. 26 with the presentation of a superseding indictment at the suggestion of Judge Platt. A key change in the new version of the 16-count indictment is the addition of the phrase "an aggregation of sounds," which the Judge suggested would define the charge more clearly as coming under interstate transportation of stolen property felony statutes. The Judge had suggested that the indictment's original wording might be interpreted as calling for prosecution under the interstate transportation of counterfeit phonorecording labels statute, which is a misdemeanor.

Because of the new indictment, the Government and the Goody defense no longer agree on a set stipulation of facts pertaining to the case, a development which could have complex legal ramifications. Goody, George Levy, its president and Samuel Stolon its vice president representing fees and interest thereon for the period April 1978 through March 1980 received from the CBS television network.

Not included in receipts and in the balance available for distribution is a total of $5,148,000, which represents 20% of ASCAP receipts from certain local TV stations that have been placed in escrow in connection with the Buffalo Broadcasting-ASCAP action. The sum in escrow now totals $8,565,000, covering the period Jan. 1, 1979 through May 31, 1980, at which time placement of receipts in the escrow account was discontinued.

On July 23, 1980, $12,560,000 was distributed to members from the following countries: England, $5,441,000; France, $3,156,000; Germany, $2,902,000; Sweden, $627,000, and South Africa, $241,000. All were 1978 payments, and the total included prior period adjustments of $193,000.

ASCAP will make a December foreign distribution of $12,300,000.

Meisel, Alexenburg Set Global Strategy For Handshake Label

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — Handshake Records has concluded licensing arrangements for the distribution of its product in South Africa, Japan, and Argentina. The label will be distributed in those areas by Gallo Records, Polydor Records, and Microfon Records, respectively. With the exception of certain territories, the label is distributed worldwide by Ariola Records. In the U.S., Handshake is distributed by CBS Records and by Quality Records in Canada.

The agreements were disclosed last week in an interview with Ron Alexenburg, president of Handshake, and Peter and Trudy Meisel, co-owners of the German-based Hansa Records. Handshake is a partnership between Alexenburg, Hansa, and the Ariola International Group (Cash Box, July 12). The principals also announced the formation of Handshake's publishing companies, Fairbanks Boulevard Music (BMI) and Bruton Music (ASCAP). The publishing rights of Urban Heroes and Revelation, two of Handshake's first signings, have been assigned to Fairbanks.

Alexenburg said that Handshake will release three albums by the end of 1980. These will include LPs by Gerald Masters, Urban Heroes, and Revelation. Last week, the label shipped new singles by Masters ("Poor Little Rich Boy") and Urban Heroes ("Headlines"). Three other singles are also planned for release in Oct. They are: "When I Fall In Love" by Revelation; "Modern Girl" by Emily, who has just been signed to the label; and "Love No Longer Has A Hold On Me" by Johnny Bristol.

Alexenburg noted that one of

FCC Takes Steps To Expedite AM Stereo Selection

by Michael Martinez

LOS ANGELES — The recently published notice of proposed rulemaking on AM stereo, released by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), stresses the FCC's desire to avoid further administrative challenges to the panel's final decision on selecting a single AM stereo system.

In a move essentially designed to gain more information from AM stereo transmitter manufacturers vying for the FCC nod as the sole system to be used, sources at the FCC's Broadcast Bureau indicated that the move was also aimed at making it clear that the procedural steps taken in selection of a single system were made public and above reproach.

The two-fold intent of the FCC's action is couched carefully in a quote from the recently published notice.

The FCC said its intent is "allowing all AM stereo proponents an additional opportunity to present evidence in any evaluation category where they feel their system may have been misrated."

What the notice refers to is the revised evaluation matrix, which instead of picking Magnavox as the outstanding selection, a system which the FCC originally adopted on a tentative basis, shows a tally indicating Motorola as the top system. The other systems include Belar Electronics, Harris Electronics Corp. and Kahn/Hazeltine.

When Magnavox was selected as the tentative system for AM stereo, pending

Spotlight To Be On Radio During This Year's Country Music Week Festivities

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — With the number of country radio stations increasing weekly, the importance of the format with advertisers also seems to be on the upswing. Noting this trend, the Country Music Assn. (CMA), WSM and the Grand Ole Opry, sponsors of the Country Music Convention (Oct. 13-18) have for the first time extended a formal invitation to country radio advertisers to participate in the upcoming event.

Hoping to further enhance country music's ever broadening appeal, radio stations are being encouraged to invite key advertisers as well as potential advertisers to accompany their representatives to the convention, where it is expected these people will accrue a better understanding of the

by Michael Martinez

LOS ANGELES — In the aftermath of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) reaching tentative accord in their ten-week-old strike against the Assn. of Motion Picture and Television Producers (AMPTP), The American Federation of Musicians (AFM) will invite the AMPTP negotiators back to the parlay table to settle their own differences.

SAGER ON THE BOARDWALK — Singer/songwriter Carole Bayer Sager has become the latest addition to the Boardwalk Entertainment Company's music division. First product is due early next year. Pictured at the signing are (l-r) Sager; Neil Bogart, Boardwalk president; and Burt Bacharach, who will collaborate on Sager's project.

Like Ford and GM, The Cars were built in the great Midwest, when, in 1972, Baltimore native Ocasek ran into Cleveland Ben Orr at an Ohio party. The two began jamming right then and there, deciding to form their first band a week later. In search of a more challenging musical scene, Ocasek moved to Beantown and Orr followed. After knocking around the club circuit for two years, they met up with Greg Hawkes (also from Baltimore) who had previously worked with Martin Mull and his Fabulous Furniture, in addition to creating experimental electronic soundtracks for Boston public TV.

The keyboardist was soon joined by southpaw guitarist and native New Yorker Elliot Easton and the four became Cap'n Swing, the prototype model for The Cars. But the band wasn't complete until David Robinson, the original drummer for both The Modern Lovers and The Pop, joined straight from a stint with local rockers DMZ. The revamped unit hit the clubs in January 1977, creating a groundswell of popular support from gigs at The Paradise club and other local venues. The group's demos were sent to Boston AOR strongholds WCOZ-FM and WBCN-FM, where "Just What I Needed" became one of the most-requested songs ever from any band, much less an unsigned one!

After a heated bidding war between Arista and Elektra/Asylum, E/A emerged victorious, and the band was immediately paired up with producer Roy Thomas Baker. The group's sonic sensibilities being a perfect match, Baker and band flew to London and recorded the first LP in just 14 days. When the LP was released, a string of hit singles ("Just What I Needed," "My Best Friend's Girl" and "Good Times Roll") erupted on the airways and the LP became an AOR staple for two years — and is still getting airplay!

Critical acclaim matched public acceptance and when the band returned to the studio to cut "Candy-O," it was a bankable entity with a Grammy nomination. "Candy-O" was equally successful, if not more so, which was no mean feat. But "Panorama" is The Cars' icing on the cake, both artistically and commercially. It hardly solves the mystery of the group, maintaining its idiosyncratic lyrical approach, while sharpening the overall sound. Like the first single relates, it's all 'touch and go' — right up the charts.

SUPER GROUP RE-OPENS EXIT/IN — After more than eight months of preparation and renovation, Nashville's premier show club, the Exit/In opened its doors to an enthusiastic crowd. Featuring a plethora of talent and an $80,000 sound and light system, the new Exit/In proved to be worth the wait. Pictured on stage following the fourth sold-out show during the Exit's grand re-opening celebration are (l-r): Mac Gayden, guitar; unidentified band member; John Komrada, trumpet, a member of the Coral Reefers; Fingers Taylor, Coral Reefers; Deborah McCall, Coral Reefers; Chris Leuzinger, guitar; Tracy Nelson; Pebble Daniel; Larry Berwald, guitar; Tim Krekel, guitar; Mel Owen, percussion; Marcia Routh, vocals; Hugh Bennett, Exit/In staff; Andy McMahon, organ; Billy Saurel, Exit/In staff; Jay Patton, saxophone; Richie Canatta, saxophone; Steve Greil, president, Exit/In Entertainment, Inc.; Owsley Manier, technical director (co-founder of Exit/In); Ted Reynolds, bandleader/bass; and Greg Barrett, keyboards. industry they support through advertising dollars.

Labeling the convention an ideal show-place for talent, Jerry Strobel, Opry House manager and head of convention registration, noted that encouraging top and potential advertisers to attend would be a decided advantage for the station. "We will be making the advertisers a part of the industry, which in fact they are. They are responsible for many of the country programs being on the air," he said.

Strobel added that not only country radio, but the medium in general is becoming a more viable advertising vehicle.

The idea of advertiser participation came about as the result of figures released by the National Assn. of Record Merchandisers (NARM) earlier this year, noting that country music was surpassed in sales only by rock. After these latest developments came to light, the CMA queried country radio stations via mailers as to their interest in including advertisers in the convention. Thus far 174 country stations in some 35 states have expressed an interest in the idea.

Bill Hudson, president of Bill Hudson and Associates, consultants to the 1980 convention, sees the inclusion of advertisers as a major step in marketing country music and making it more of a big business.

"Bringing the advertisers into the center of things will enable them to meet a lot of people in the industry and see what it is all about," Hudson said. "It is my feeling that the radio station will be the big hero — these advertisers will end up investing more money in country music, which helps everybody."

Supporting the viability of this theory is Mary Harpole, co-owner of KVOU/Uvalde, Tex., one of the first stations to express an interest in inviting key advertisers to the convention. According to Harpole, some of her advertisers had inquired about the

Four Businessmen Buying GRT Plant

NASHVILLE — Three Nashville businessmen and an Atlanta broadcast executive have purchased the GRT tape duplicating plant here and have formed the National Tape Corp., which specializes in the duplication of audio cassette and 8-track tapes.

Jerry Hutchinson, formerly the Nashville plant manager for GRT, is president of the new company; while George Buck, an owner of several radio stations in the Atlanta area, will assume the vice presidency. National Tape secretary is Charles Duncan, formerly vice president of manufacturing for GRT. Treasurer is Bill Denny, president of Cedarwood Publishing Co.

The company's current business is divided equally between cassette and 8-track duplication. The 8-track GRT master transport drives 10 slaves, and the two cassette master transports drive 15 slaves, giving the plant the capacity to duplicate 12,000 tapes per shift.

The new owners indicated that the industry's increasing utilization of cassettes provides an opportunity for future growth and expansion.

Headquarters for the National Tape Corporation are at 1110 48th Avenue North in Nashville.

Schwartz Bros. Posts Second Quarter Loss

NEW YORK — Schwartz Brothers, Inc., a leading East Coast wholesaler and retailer of music merchandise, reported a loss of $255,466 or 32 cents per share on sales of $6,580,772 in the second quarter ended July 31. This compares with a loss of $187,611 or 25 cents per share on sales of $6,720,083 in the same period last year.

For the six months ended July 31, the company had a loss of $370,490 or 46 cents per share on sales of $13,906,760 compared to a loss of $195,248 or 26 cents per share on sales of $13,331,230 in the first half of 1979.

The 1979 results were adjusted by Schwartz Brothers to reflect the company's change to the LIFO (last in-first out) method of inventory valuation.

Schwartz Brothers attributed the second quarter loss to "the continuing overall weakness in the economy and in the record industry." The company also said that prospects for improved results in the rest of 1980 are dependent upon a strong fourth quarter which, it noted, is usually the industry's most profitable quarter each year.

During the third quarter, Schwartz Brothers opened its new 93,000 square foot headquarters and distribution center in Lanham, Maryland, outside of Washington, D.C. In addition, it opened new Harmony Hut stores in the Montgomery Mall in Bethesda, Md. and in the Spotsylvania Mall in Fredricksburg, Va. At the same time, the company closed a store in Ashland, Va., its last non-mall store. By mid-October, new Harmony Hut stores are scheduled to open in the Fair Oaks Mall in Fairfax, Va. and in the Schuylkill Mall in Frackville, Pa. At the end of the third quarter there will be 24 Harmony Hut stores in operation from Virginia to New Jersey.

Company officials expressed optimism that the new distribution center and the stores will position Schwartz Brothers "to take advantage of the expected upturn in the music merchandising business."

K II Management Formed

LOS ANGELES — K II Management has been formed by Ron Kramer, former president of Beechwood Music and Amherst Records and Bruce Kramer, former Screen Gems and Gem Management executive.

K II Management can be reached at (213) 459-6282 or by writing to P.O. Box 966 Pacific Palisades, CA 90272.

Johnson, Somers Appointed As WB Vice Presidents

LOS ANGELES — Pete Johnson has been named vice president/creative director and Adam Somers has been appointed vice president/director of creative services and operations for Warner Bros. Records.

Johnson, in his new post, will oversee the label's art, editorial and advertising departments; while Somers will primarily be responsible for the merchandising, graphics, production and administrative functions of the creative services department.

Along with Warner Bros. advertising director Shelley Cooper and other key staff members, Somers and Johnson will actively participate in the restructuring of the label's creative services department within the next month.

Johnson originally joined Warner Bros. in 1969 after serving as a reporter and pop music critic with the Los Angeles Times. During the 11 years he has spent with the company, Johnson has served as publicity director, editorial director, executive producer, director of product managers, as well as creative director.

Somers joined the label in 1971, working first in the merchandising department and subsequently holding positions as director of merchandising and national operations manager.

pleaded not guilty to the new indictment. The Goody defense indicated that it would respond to the new indictment by charging that its clients' right to due process of law has been affected. The Judge set Dec. 5 as the date for oral arguments on this point.

In a related matter, the Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) filed on Sept. 24 a brief in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit to back its contention that the CIAA anti-piracy field reports being subpoenaed by the Goody defense are protected by lawyer-client privilege. The Goody defense will be filing an answering brief soon, and arguments on the subpoena are scheduled to begin in the Court of Appeals on Oct. 16.

Goldstone, Schwimmer Named At Chrysalis

LOS ANGELES — Michael Goldstone and Danae Schwimmer have been promoted to the positions of west coast tour publicist and publicity coordinator, respectively, for Chrysalis Records.

Goldstone previously served as publicity coordinator and will now be responsible for all tour publicity west of the Mississippi as well as maintaining all press and trade related clippings.

Schwimmer has been with Chrysalis for one year and will be in charge of coordinating all publicity and photographic related material.

Goldstone and Schwimmer will report directly to Toby Lubov, director of national publicity for Chrysalis.

U.A. Music Re-Inks Leigh For Publishing

NEW YORK — United Artists Music has renewed its publishing contract with songwriter Richard Leigh and his company, Lion Hearted Music. UA Music recently launched a major drive to extend the international coverage of Leigh's material with the publication of a special song and sound kit featuring some of his hits, including "Don't It Make My Brown Eyes Blue," "Your Old Cold Shoulder," and "It'll Get Over You." The company's overseas affiliates and licensees were also briefed on the impact of Leigh's recent Pan AM Airlines in-flight show and debut UA/EMI LP.

EXECUTIVES ON THE MOVE

Lewinter

Patterson

Collins

Polidor

Atlantic Names Lewinter — Melvyn R. Lewinter has been promoted to the position of senior vice president/comptroller for Atlantic Records. In his new post, Lewinter will supervise all financial aspects of the Atlantic Recording Corporation. Prior to this new appointment, he had been vice president/comptroller for Atlantic since November of 1974. He joined the company in 1970 as Comptroller.

Patterson Returns To Casablanca — Worthy Patterson has returned to Casablanca as the company's new vice president/east coast operations. Patterson previously was east coast marketing director for the company. He will now oversee all Casablanca activities, east coast, with a particular focus on marketing.

Collins Named At Rolling Stones — Atlantic Records and EMI Music have jointly announced on behalf of Rolling Stones Records that Art Collins has been named to the newly-created position of vice president in charge of Rolling Stones Records' enterprises in the U.S. and Canada. In addition, it has been announced that Colin Burn will coordinate label activities for the rest of the world. In his new position, Collins will work closely with all departments of Atlantic Records regarding the promotion, advertising, merchandising and production of all current and future product on Rolling Stones Records. He will also be assuming the duties of Rolling Stones Records president Earl McGrath, who has resigned from the company effective Oct. 1, 1980.

Polidor Named At Arista — Joe Polidor has been named to the position of midwest regional marketing director for Arista Records. In his new capacity, Polidor will be responsible for all sales and marketing related activities throughout the region, including relationships with distributors and dealers; the merchandising, selling and advertising of Arista and Arista-distributed product; and the direction of Arista's local marketing managers in the area. Prior to joining Arista, Polidor was Phonogram/Mercury's national album sales manager; he was previously the label's southern regional marketing representative.

Wolmark Promoted At Atlantic — Alan Wolmark has been promoted to the position of associate director of national AOR promotion for Atlantic Records. In his new position, Wolmark will continue to work closely with Atlantic national AOR promotion director Judy Libow. Wolmark was most recently national album promotion/special projects manager for Atlantic, a position he has held since joining the company in 1978.

Arista Names Griffith — Gerry Griffith has been appointed to the the position of director, A&R, R&B at Arista Records. Griffith, who will be based in the label's New York office, will be responsible for the acquisition and creative coordination of R&B artists for Arista, and will be involved in the selection of producers and outside material for the artists, as well as the scheduling of product. Before joining Arista, Griffith most recently held the position of director, creative division at Motown Records. Prior to that, he spent nine years at Columbia Records, as west coast director of R&B, A&R, associate director of product management, and regional promotion manager.

Shaw Named At Riva — Mike Gill, president of Riva Records, has announced the appointment of Russ Shaw to the newly created position of director of artist relations and promotion for the label. Shaw is currently on tour with Riva artist John Cougar coordinating Riva's marketing plan for Cougar at the local level. Shaw has held similar positions with Chrysalis Records, Warner Bros. and MCA.

Korman Appointed At Ovation — Ovation Records president Dick Schory announced the appointment of Lauren Korman to national AOR promotion director. She had previously worked as national secondaries pop promotion director. Korman, 25, joined Ovation in October, 1979, following three years experience in independent distribution, regional and local promotion and a background in record retail operations. She will report to Frank Giuliano, national pop promotion director, and to Judd Siegel, newly-appointed vice president/sales & marketing.

Van Hengel Named At Capitol/EMIA/Liberty — Kick Van Hengel has been appointed director of European promotions for Capitol/EMIA/Liberty Records, effective Nov. 1. Van Hengel, who will be responsible for the coordination of releases and promotional activities in the European market, will be based at the international operations offices in London where he will report to Kick Klimbie, director, international operations.

Guder Named At UA Music — Harold Seider, president of United Artists Music, has announced the appointment of Victor L. Guder as vice president, professional division, standard catalog. Guder joins the UA music publishing organization after serving as manager of the Walt Disney music publishing operations and as an entertainment division manager of Disneyland.

Hafer Named At Paradise — Jack Hafer has been appointed vice president of operations of The Paradise Group. Hafer will be responsible for the daily operations and public relations for the company. Hafer previously served as director of marketing for Spirit Records and director of promotions for Sparrow Records.

Silver Named At Long Distance — Nick Spigel, president and head of west coast operations for Long Distance Management, the newly formed personal management company, has announced the appointment of Robert Erwin Silver as vice president, east coast operations.

Friedman Promoted At Chappell — Vivien Friedman has been promoted to the position of director of public relations for Chappell Music and Intersong Music publishing companies. In her new position, Friedman is responsible for national public relations for the Polygram publishing companies, Chappell Music and Intersong Music, their rosters of writers, and the affiliated and major administered companies such as the RSO Publishing Group. Her duties also include supervision and coordination of advertising for Chappell and Intersong.

Bryant Named At DJM — Carmen LaRosa, general manager of DJM Records, announced the appointment of Roberta Bryant as his creative assistant. Bryant has worked with CBS Records and most recently Feyline Records and management out of Denver, Colo.

Sussman Appointed At Arista Music — Steve Sussman has been named as general professional manager in the New York office of the Arista Music Publishing Group.

Needleman Appointed At Concorde — Peggie Needleman has been appointed studio manager of Concorde Recording Center. For Needleman, the new position marks a return to the former ABC Records Studios where she worked for five years.

ONE STEP CLOSER — The Doobie Brothers — Warner Bros. HS 3452 — Producer: Ted Templeman — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

The Doobies' "Minute By Minute" album had to be one of the most musically trendsetting LPs of the last ten years as every band from Hollywood to Hamburg has tried to emulate the white rhythm and blues style of Michael McDonald and his magic piano. But, at last, we have the real thing once again and the Doobies don't disappoint on "One Step Closer." The band has streamlined its classic pop/R&B sound, and it's a tad more jazzy and uptempo than last time out.

GUILTY — Barbra Streisand — Columbia FC 36750 — Producers: Gibb, Galuten and Richardson — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Streisand albums are always major events, and when she enlists Bee Gee brain Barry Gibb to produce and sing on the album you know the album is going to be doubly popular. Streisand's vocals have always had the quality of sounding as though she's in the same room with the listener, and ballads such as "Woman In Love" and "The Love Inside" are her most intimate to date.

HUMANS — Bruce Cockburn — Millennium/RCA BXL1-7752 — Producer: Eugene Martynec — List: 7.98

Cockburn is a journeyman Canadian folkie to some, while others herald him as the most sincere, noteworthy voice among the newer generation of folk-rockers. From Canada, where the beat of different drummers can be even quirkier than in the U.S., Cockburn has stood alone with his deep introspective brand of folk music. Cockburn's themes are as the title implies, beautifully human.

RAY, GOODMAN AND BROWN II — Polydor PD-1-6299 — Producer: Voncent Castellana — List: 8.98

Harry, Ray and Al have improved with age. As the Moments their velvety smooth soul ballad sound led to such '60s and '70s smashes as "Love On A Two Way Street" and "Sexy Mama," but as Ray, Goodman & Brown they've embarked on a whole new era of hits. The brilliant vocal trio hit big with last year's "Special Lady," and the second LP should find them even greater success. Songs such as "My Prayer," "Happy Anniversary" and "Each Time Is Like The First Time" are destined for the top of the B/C singles chart.

VICTORY — Narada Michael Walden — Atlantic SD 19279 — Producer: Narada Michael Walden — List: 7.98

Like Lenny White and Patrice Rushen, this drummer gone front man/composer has made the successful crossover from jazz to R&B/pop. Narada expands on the sound he hit upon with the "Awakening" LP, and "Victory" is brimming with cuts that feature his distinctive horn-punctuated uptempo B/C-Top 40 style. Walden represents the new wave of black contemporary artists, as both jazz and rock are present throughout his music. A winner loaded with crossover potential.

DARKROOM — Angel City — Epic JE 36543 — Producers: Brewster/Brewster — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Angel City (aka the Angels in the land Down Under) impressed AOR with such tracks as "Take Me Away To Marseilles" and "After The Rain" last time out, and this hard touring Aussie band delivers another fine package of big beat numbers with "Darkroom." Led by enigmatic lead singer Doc Neeson, the quartet is one of the few heavy metal outfits that can create drama within the four chord genre. Mystical lyrics and hook filled head banging tells Angel City's story and AOR should love "Face The Day" and the title track.

BREAKING THROUGH THE ICE AGE — Ellen Shipley — RCA AFL1-3626 — Producer: David Tickle — List: 7.98

Ellen Shipley has the same problem as fellow New Yorker Carolyn Mas. She is putting out some of finest straight ahead rock in the city, and yet, remains undiscovered by Pop and AOR radio. Shipley's style is a little harder edged than that of Mas, but her hard charging rock rhythms and dramatic ballads are rendered with even more passion. Shipley also receives some stong guidance from English producer David Tickle, and this well crafted effort is highlighted by "Heart To Heart," "Jamie" and the brilliant "Lost Without Your Love."

GREATEST HITS — Anne Murray — Capitol SOO-12110 — A Producers: Ahern & Norman — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Murray is truly the queen of the adult contemporary song, and anyone who has any doubts should give a listen to this collection of light on the ears gems. The Canadian thrush lends her lilting vocal style to such past greats as "Snowbird," "A Love Song" and "I Just Fall In Love Again." And while she has had success in both the country and Pop/A/C arenas, these are her Top 40 classics.

NO TIME LIKE NOW — Philly Cream — WMOT Records JW 36840 — Producer: Butch Ingram — List: 7.98

This is the first album from WMOT since its recently signed distribution pact with CBS, and this soul-pop act has come up with a fine debut for the label. The group met with some warm B/C reception when it was on Fantasy, but it's improved a hundred-fold since then. "No Time Like Now" is teaming with bright up-tempo R&B numbers and shimmering ballads. Top tracks on this uplifting disc are "Cowboys To Girls" and "No Time Like Now."

TRIUMPH — The Jacksons — Epic FE 36424 — Producer: The Jacksons — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

The Jacksons don't fool around. Every album is more ambitious than the last, and "Triumph" is no exception. The album's opener is a dynamic soul-gone-opera track that will blow even the most hard core fans away. But the hits just keep on coming, as both "Lovely One" and "Your Ways" are destined for high positions on the Cash Box B/C charts. A little jazz, a dash of horn-filled funk and a great deal of percussion-oriented ultra modern R&B make this one of the most exciting LPs of the year. A pop crossover dream.

TAKING LIBERTIES — Elvis Costello — Columbia JC 36839 — Producers: Nicke Lowe and Elvis Costello — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

This collection of the new wave kingpin's rare B-sides and English album cuts is better than most artists' greatest hits packages. Elvis is indeed a rare and wondrous rocker, and while "Get Happy" contained some nice moments, the songs seemed to die just when the hook was forming. "Taking Liberties," however, is a horse of a different color and songs such as the stinging "I Don't Want To Go To Chelsea," "Girls Talk" and "Dr. Luther's Assistant" are truly vintage Costello.

WORTH THE WAIT — Peaches & Herb — Polydor PD-1-6298 — Producer: Freddie Perren — List: 8.98

This duo was paritally responsible for B/C music's trend back to the light ballad as "Reunited" dominated the charts for months. The twosome have come up with an adequate follow up to that lilting smash with "One Child Of Love." Peaches & Herb also recapture the party mood of the infectious "Shake Your Groove Thing" with two barn burners, "All-Night Celebration" and "Lovey Dovey (Girl & Guy)."

CLUES — Robert Palmer — Island ILPS 9595 — Producer: Robert Palmer — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

With each successive album Robert Palmer moves farther away from the gritty Little Feat influenced, blue eyed soul sound he became famous for in favor of a more modern techno-rock style. He has such a unique vocal power and style that he accomplishes the feat with style and grace, but fans will still long for the days of "Some People" and "Sneakin' Sally Through The Alley." The hypnotic, quirky style of "Looking For Clues" and "Johnny and Mary" and the rocking "Sulky Girl" supply the LP's best moments.

CIVILIZED EVIL — Jean-Luc Ponty — Atlantic SD 16020 — Producer: Jean-Luc Ponty — List: 8.98

The Frenchman with the hot violin is back with his latest journey through space, and he gets more avant garde and inventive on "Civilized Evil." Much of the material has a structured classical form, but his in-studio treatments make the entrancing violin-led jazz fusion ensemble sound as if it is suspended somewhere near the Milky Way. This is Ponty's most engaging and cohesive effort since his groundbreaking "Imaginary Voyage" album.

NOTHIN' MATTERS AND WHAT IF IT DID — John Cougar — Riva/Mercury RVL 7403 — Producer: Steve Cropper — List: 7.98

John Cougar grabbed for, and managed to hold onto, a sizable bit of attention with last year's "I Need A Lover..." single Pat Benatar made the song an album cut and John "Cougar" Mellencamp went up a few notches on the pop ladder accordingly. "Nothin' Matters..." goes last year's buzz one better. Cougar exhibits more confidence in himself and his band as he shoves his way through his compositions with a noticeable bravado and shag-off-creep attitude.

TIDDLYWINKS — NRBQ — Red Rooster/Rounder Records 3048 — Producer: Tom Mark — List: 7.98

Don't expect to classify NRBQ (New Rhythm And Blues Quartet). The foursome's purpose is to defy musical categorization. The band has the uncanny knack of being able to render everything from straight ahead rock to Fats Domino R&B to Randy Newman-like ballads to hep cat jazz as though it invented each of the genres. AOR should jump right on the raw popper called "Me And The Boys," which is a classic anthem of teenage freedom.

CALL ON ME — Evelyn "Champagne" King — RCA AFL1'3543 — Producer: T. Life — List: 7.98

The Champagne lady has faired well before with the million selling "Shame" and other hits like "I Don't Know If Its Right," but her progressive R&B style really comes into its own on "Call On Me." King sales through a repertoire that includes dance music, uptempo, horn filled R&B and heartfelt, soul ballads, but all songs have a rocky, almost Stevie Wonderish quality. Fine production by the inventive T. Life and strong material make this modern B/C waxing a winner.

DOC AT THE RADAR STATION — Captain Beefheart And The Magic Band — Virgin VA 13148 — Producer: Don Van Vliet — List: 7.98

It's been eons since Captain Beefheart first stretched the minds of the psychedelic generation with "Trout Mask Replica," and he remains as magical and flipped out today. AOR loved him a decade ago, but with today's tight playlists, it's doubtful he'll be cued behind the latest Foreigner track. This is lunatic music, mixing atonal rock and avant beat poetry.

Winterland Joins In Bootleggers Suit

LOS ANGELES — Winterland Prods., a major concert merchandiser, joined the Kenny Rogers organization in filing a suit in the federal district court for the Northern District of Illinois against Grand Illusion Design Co., Inc., an alleged manufacturer of unauthorized, unlicensed bootleg T-shirts. The suit also names as defendants Grand Illusion principals Lawrence and Maxine Rice.

Winterland clients named in the suit include AC/DC, Blue Oyster Cult, Bob Seger, Chicago, Doobie Brothers, Fleetwood Mac, Grateful Dead, Heart, Journey, Ted Nugent, Pablo Cruise, REO Speedwagon,

AFM Bargaining

Local 47 in Los Angeles, at press time was scheduled to contact the AMPTP negotiating team to resume talks on residual payments for musicians who work on television film or motion picture scores. The talks ceased July 31 when the AFM contract expired.

Most recently, the AFM began to actively pursue the strike through picket lines. Universal Studios was the first target, the site of more than 500 picketers. CBS Studio Center was last week's location for the more than 600 AFM picketers.

Michael Melvoin, co-chairman of the AFM strike committee, said that if the AMPTP accepts the invitation to resume talks, it is likely that negotiations will not be as lengthy as the actor's strike. He premised his comments on the fact that SAG-AFTRA members have indicated that they would support AFM pickets until the musicians settle their strike, regardless of whether or not the actors union members ratify the tentative agreement

Santana, Aerosmith and Sammy Hagar.

The legal action is the result of a joint investigation by Winterland the the Rogers Organization, which first filed its action Sept. 6 (Cash Box, Sept. 20). Rogers' organization obtained preliminary relief from Judge James E. Moran, including the right to enter Grand Illusion's factory and take a count of the silk screen and film at the site. Winterland, following the filing of its suit, obtained a temporary restraining order prohibiting Grand Illusion from making, selling or holding for sale the alleged bootleg material.

The suit is part of a series of legal steps taken by Winterland to stem the manufacture and sale of bootleg items. Last November, Winterland filed a similar suit against Plymouth Mills, aka Front Inc., The Great American Screen Design Company and other alleged manufacturers and distributors of bootleg and counterfeit merchandise.

Copyright Infringement Cited As Major Crime

LOS ANGELES — Copyright infringement has become one of the government's top priorities in its fight against white collar crime, according to Attorney General Benjamin Civiletti.

With the FBI's increased undercover operations, combined with an expanded crime prevention program, the U.S. Justice Dept. has issued a 50-page report promising a commitment to cracking down on record, tape and film piracy.

Descriptions of more than $500,000 in aggregate losses and copyright infringements involving manufacturers or distributors in three or more different states or countries are contained in the report.

THIS MUSIC OF BUSINESS — Look for Arista vice president Larkin Arnold to ankle the label and assume a high-ranking A&R position with CBS West Coast . . . Arista has terminated its Savoy reissue series. Series producer Bob Porter can be reached at (201) 385-9342 . . . Mike Pilot, ex-head of album promotion for Bearsville, has formed a production firm/record company called Another Record Company . . . Margo Knez, director of national promotion for MCA has ankleed the label and will relocate in New York as an indie.

HERE NOW THE SHMOOZ — 32 year old John Bonham, Led Zeppelin drummer, was found dead last Thursday at the home of Zeppelin guitarist Jimmy Page. Although the death was called "accidental," official statements would not be released by the group's label, Swan Song, "until after the autopsy," scheduled to take place on Sept. 26. The group's American tour was postponed indefinitely . . . The New York date for the Bruce Springsteen tour will be in late November. The boss is currently in the studio producing a self-penned tune for Gary "U.S." Bonds, whose early '60s hit, "Quarter To Three," has been a staple of Springsteen's show. The E-Street Band is the rhythm section . . . Mick Jagger and Keith Richards are in England reviewing the dozens of out-takes from "Some Girls" and "Emotional Rescue" for a possible winter album release . . . Island boss Chris Blackwell is in Jamaica, filming a sequel to "The Harder They Come," called "Countryman" . . . Will the Jim Carroll album come out on Atco instead of Rolling Stones Records? . . . TK has signed James Brown to a one-shot album deal . . . Red Star's Marty Thau is set to produce an album on one of New York's first punk-rockers, Richard Hell . . . David Geffen has actually signed two artists that are not superstars, Mac MacAnally and David Lasley . . . Columbia has dropped Gentle Giant . . . Casablanca has dropped Cindy Bullens . . . New York's finest, Jake and the Family Jewels plays Kenny's Castaways on Oct. 3-5.

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR — E/P/A has signed The Reddings, consisting of two of Otis Redding's sons, and a cousin. The group, which will be on a new custom label, B.I.D. (Believe In A Dream), is managed by Otis' widow, Zelma. Mirage Records is set to sign T.S. Monk, which includes two of Theonius Monk's children.

SNIFFS 'N' SKIN POPS — Like we told ya before they denied it, Peter Tosh has parted ways with Rolling Stones Records and signed with EMI/Liberty. Tosh's "Legalize It" has been banned in West Germany . . . Quick Fox Publications has set a mid-October release for the "History of Sun Records," by Colin Escott and Martin Hawkins . . . doo-wop masters, The Persuasions, are on the verge of a deal by which they will record with instrumental accompaniment for Planet and acapella for Flying Fish.

EAST COASTINGS EATS IT — A.R.S.E.-head Allen Frye called to let us know that Graham Parker's Hamburg performance will not mark his retirement, nor is it his wife's wish that he do so. Melba Moore's manager, Rand Stoll, called to report that Epic has not "dropped" Moore, rather they are "negotiating". Our apologies to Stoll for any inconveniences caused him.

LESTER BANGS BACK — We touched base with writer-critic Lester Bangs in Austin, Tex., where he is researching his next book, "Rock Gomorrah." Bangs, whose unauthorized biography of Blondie (Delilah Press) elicited a press release by the group's Deborah Harry and Chris Stein, (accusing Bangs of a "condescending" attitude and distorting the facts), feels the charges are unwarranted. "The real reason Chris is pissed," said Bangs, "and he told me this, is because they're not going to make any money from the book. When I was putting the book together they called up people I was interviewing all over town, telling them not to talk to me. When the book came out, they invited me over to dinner to tell me how pleasantly surprised they were with the book. A month later they told a Sounds reporter it was a ripoff. Their problem is that they want to control everything that's put out about them, but Stein just looks like a sophomoric version of a Warhol-type media manipulator. It's too bad," concludes Bangs, "because at their best, they're a fine little group."

TRAMPS GOT SOUL — One of the most breathtaking lists of coming attractions passed across our desks when we saw the Oct. lineup for Tramps, the blues club on 125 East 15th st. While the club has gained its share of attention for its blues-mostly policy, its increased commitment to sixties soul music, which began last month with bookings of Rufus and Carla Thomas, and Syl Johnson, will reach its zenith with bookings scheduled for Solomon Burke (Oct. 7 through 9), Otis Clay (Oct. 14 through 16), and O.V. Wright (Oct. 21 through 23). Each of these men have made towering contribution to the spare, more countrified and raw gospel-derived rhythm and blues that evolved into "soul" in the mid-'60s through very early '70s. Burke is a godfather. His recording for Apollo and Atlantic in the late '50s and early '60s are equalled only by those of James Brown for introducing the harsh, gospelic vocal style into an R&B idiom dominated by sweet doo-woppers and he became the senior member of what loosely became the Atlantic "soul clan" (which included Wilson Pickett, Don Covay and Joe Tex). The great body of Burke's work, which include "If You Need Me," "Everybody Needs Somebody To Love," and "Just Out Of Reach" to "Proud Mary" has made for some of soul's most enduring music. Otis Clay's work, mostly for the One-der-ful label often reached the same peaks of excellence with tunes like "Got to Find A Way," and "Easier Said Than Done" but his success was hampered by the insularity of Southside Chicago's soul scene of the '60s (much as its blues scene was a decade earlier) but Clay kept the flame

NEW AND DEVELOPING ARTISTS

FEATURE PICKS

NEW AND DEVELOPING ARTISTS

NIGEL OLSSON (Bang ZS9 4814)
Saturday Night (3:18) (Red Admiral Music, Inc. — BMI) (E. Troyer, D. Brown)

Olsson seems to be bucking the present radio trend towards soft rock and ballads with his first single from the "Changing Tides" LP, a startlingly powerful pop/rocker with exhilarating percussion effects and keyboard arrangements. The lyrical hook may be nothing new, but Olsson delivers it with an endearing sense of pop panache. Hard rockin' guitar work is also a plus.

LARRY GRAHAM (Warner Bros. WBS 49581)
When We Get Married (3:37) (Big Seven Music Corp. — BMI) (D. Hogan)

Let's go back to the fabulous '50s, the era of doo-wop, the vocal croon, Frankie Lymon and the Teenagers — because that's the musical setting to Graham's follow-up to his recent B/C chart topper, "One In A Million You." Bell chimes, naturally, are included in the instrumentals, along with synthesized strings, while a mixed chorus lends harmony support. Multi-format appeal.

IRON CITY HOUSEROCKERS (MCA MCA-51002)

Junior's Bar (3:49) (Cleveland International Music/Brick Alley Music — ASCAP) (E. Britt, G. Snyder, J. Grushecky)

Guitar notes bend and scratch with a steady, almost resolute rhythm on this ringing pop/rocker from MCA's best kept secret and most overlooked (by radio) band of this year. These guys play with an intense determination and their lyrics have a gritty realism. Play it, pop and AOR.

BENNY MARDONES (Polydor PD 2131)

Hometown Girls (3:13) (Papa Jack Pub., Inc./Inner Sanctum — BMI) (B. Mardones, D.L. Byron)

Mardones shifts straight from his Top 10 pop ballad, "Into The Night," to this electric pop/rocker, with its overdrive rhythm and catchy, ultra-melodic hook. The Maryland native takes hold of the lyrics with a vocal grip that won't give an inch, while layered harmonies ring with the guitars. Songs like this give Top 40 a good name.

PHILIPPE WYNNE (Uncle Jam ZS9 9900)
Never Gonna Tell It (Part 1) (4:10) (Malbiz Music, Inc. — BMI) (G. Clinton, B. Worrell)

On paper, it appeared to be a pretty heady pairing — Wynne, the smokey voiced former lead singer of The Spinners, and the father of P-Funk himself, George Clinton. The first single from Clinton's Uncle Jam label and Wynne's debut LP, "Wynne Jammin'," is actually an adventurous blend of Wynne's straight-ahead pop/R&B vocal style and restrained jam elements.

SOUTHSIDE JOHNNY & THE ASBURY JUKES (Mercury 76081)

Restless Heart (3:34) (Amundo Music/Dangerous Music/Doppler Shist Music — ASCAP) (B. Rush, J. Lyon)

Southside strikes up the band for a fast-paced, fiery rock workout from the "Love Is A Sacrifice" LP, as the rhythm section is prodded on by co-author Billy Rush's economical, to-the-point lead guitar refrain.

BLACKFOOT (Atco 7313)
Gimme, Gimme, Gimme (3:24) (Bobnal Music — BMI) (R. Medlocke, J. Spires)

Put the top down and turn that radio up for some good old southern fried rock 'n' roll from Ricky Medlocke and the Blackfoot folks. A cruising, balls out rocker, the song owes an obvious debt to Lynyrd Skynyrd and Blackfoot's Jacksonville roots, and fans of that music will delight in the stripped down style here. Unabashed guitar boogie, this is for AOR and pop.

CRAIG MIRIJANIAN (Warner Bros. WBS 49553)
After Hours (3:38) (Unichappell Music, Inc. — BMI) (C. Mirijanian, K. Cotter)

Producer Richard Orshoff imbues this track from Mirijanian's "A Perfect Fit" LP, with a slick, throbbing R&B feeling (much like Gino Vannelli's best work) that is balanced by the singer/songwriter's breathless vocals. Airy backup vocals, swirling guitar notes and a prominent sax blend right into the vocal with a hint of jazz. Try it out.

SINGLES TO WATCH

HITS • OUT OF THE BOX

UTOPIA (Bearsville BSS 49579)
I Just Want To Touch You (1:59) (Unearthly Music/Fiction Music, Inc. — BMI) (Utopia)

Ah, for those days again when songs were under two minutes. This tune may remind you of a particular group that burst on the scene circa 1964 from Liverpool. And like anything that Rundgren and Co. do, the sound is intentional. Have fun with this.

IMPERIALS (Day Spring D-614)
Eagle Song (2:49) (Norman Clayton Pub. Co. — SESAC) (T. Taff, R. Taff)

The rich lead vocal tones are perhaps the most striking aspect of this tune from gospel vocalists the Imperials. Producer Michael Omartian, who most recently produced Christopher Cross, does a fine job in capturing the soaring and dipping harmonies. Right for A/C, pop lists.

CON FUNK SHUN (Mercury 76079)
Happy Face (3:51) (Val-ie-Joe Music — BMI) (M. Cooper)

Con Funk Shun lets the keyboards create the rhythm and bottom on this track from the "Spirit Of Love" LP, with a good dose of horns and flute to create a, well, happy feel. The vocals are delivered with an easy sing-song style. A good crossover effort.

SCOTT JARRETT (GRP/Arista GS 2509)
I Was A Fool (3:21) (Potamus Ltd./Roaring Fork Music — BMI) (S. Jarrett)

Scott Jarrett, Keith's younger brother, presents a well-scrubbed, upbeat but nonetheless inviting pop style that's dominated by a zesty acoustic guitar pickin' and a pungent bass line. This is a sleeper pop chart contender.

TORONTO (A&M 2273)
5035 (3:21) (Solid Gold Publishing — ASCAP) (B. Allen)

Like City Boy's "5705," this is a tune about a phone number, sort of, but the twist here is that a girl is imploring a guy to call her. The melody is dramatic with a spunky, not punky, pop/rock edge. Made for AOR play.

STARPOINT (Chocolate City CC 3213)
Get Ready, Get Down (3:48) (Harrindur Publishing Co. — BMI) (K. Adeyemo, E. Phillips)

This ain't nothin' but a party — a funk party to be exact, with a repetitious vocal chant that maintains the groove with great male falsetto harmonies and a sensuous female vocal sliding in. This is excellent B/C, dance material. Take a listen.

DANDY & THE DOOLITTLE BAND (Columbia 1-11355)
Who Were You Thinkin' Of (2:45) (INMY Music — BMI) (J. Glaser, P. Gauvin, C. Pelletier)

The name of the band may be childlike, but the theme of this country-pop tune is certainly adult in nature, with a line like "Who were you thinkin' of/When we were makin' love/Last night." Already gaining pop adds, this is perfect for country too.

THE REDDINGS (Believe In A Dream ZS9 5600)
Remote Control (3:58) (Last Colony Music/Band Of Angels, Inc. — BMI) (N. Mann, B. Beard, C. Fortune)

A big brass opening, a la EW&F and the Gap Band, kicks off this well-executed mix of funk, R&B and pop from a band led by some of Otis Redding's kin. A made for radio tune that's about radio as well, the presentation is fresh, vibrant and danceable.

MARTY COOPER (Unlimited Gold ZS9 1419)
A Little Bit Country, A Little Bit Rock 'n' Roll (2:52) (Martin Cooper Music — ASCAP) (M. Cooper)

Cooper's style is reminiscent of Jerry Reed in its mixture of Bayou country guitar with a rock edge, while the tune borrows a bit from Loretta Lynn's "You're Looking At Country." It's got both forms covered, with more of a country orientation.

AMERICAN NOISE (Planet P-47919)
Anyone With A Heart (3:49) (Radio Dreams Music/Bad Boy Music/Braintree Music — BMI) (C. Balzer, K. Fowley)

The Clevelanders sing and play with a studied urban angst and gritty energy that bears a close resemblance to John Cougar and other young mainstream rockers. This has heartland pop simplicity that is very appealing.

KENNY ROGERS (Liberty UA-X1380-Y)
Lady (3:51) (Brockman Music — ASCAP) (L. Richie, Jr.)

SMOKEY ROBINSON featuring CLAUDETTE ROBINSON (Tamla/Motown 54318)
Wine, Women And Song (3:22) (Bertam — ASCAP) (Tarpplin, Moffett, Robinson)

GEORGE BENSON (Warner Bros./Qwest WBS 49570)
Love X Love (3:48) (Rodsongs) (R. Temperton)

MICKEY GILLEY (Epic 9-50940)
That's All That Matters (2:37) (Tree Publishing Co. — BMI) (H. Cochran)

RAY CHARLES (Atlantic 3762)
Compared To What (4:20) (Lampert Music — BMI) (G. McDaniels)

A TASTE OF HONEY (Capitol 4932)

L.A. NARM Cites Retail Upturn

by Marc Cetner

LOS ANGELES — Buoyed by the National Assn. of Record Merchandisers' (NARM) announcement that record sales are up more than 15% in the L.A. market than last year and running about 2% higher nationally, west coast retailers expressed a renewed feeling of optimism about the record business at the retail level at NARM's 4th Annual Regional Meeting held at the AMFAC Hotel Sept. 18.

Some of the reasons for the recent upswing in local sales, according to NARM special projects director Pat Gorlick, are L.A.'s healthy economy, which wasn't hit by the recession as badly as the midwest where sales are down 2%, and innovative and aggressive merchandising approaches by area retailers.

"The recession was talked about a little too much and had a negative effect on everyone's mental attitude," said Tower Record store manager Bob Delaney, who along with Licorice Pizza vice president of merchandising John Bosshard and Music Plus advertising director Alan Schwartz headed up a panel discussion entitled, "Your Marketplace; Your Industry; Your Future." Delaney succinctly expressed the thoughts of his retailing neighbors by saying, "I think we're in a healthy situation now. The recession has had a positive effect in that our marketing people are more efficient and aggressive now. I think the media blew the whole recession thing out of proportion, but we've maintained a healthy attitude and a nice sales trend seems to be developing as we move toward Christmas."

Positive Changes

The chain representatives also agreed that positive changes such as the institution of the midline ($5.98) series and a more timely and practical use of store advertising have developed since the label cutbacks came and the ad dollars were held back.

And on the store level, the retail spokesman noted that a more customer service-oriented sales attitude and resourceful and creative tack toward in-store promotions and displays have materialized since the marketing materials stopped coming in such abundance.

However, several smaller retailers maintained that they had been cut off completely from merchandising tools and ad support. One chain representative sympathized with the problem and urged greater communication between the labels and the stores. "When you can't get the materials or a radio promotion on an artist's new record to coincide with your promotion, the whole package suffers," he said. "In many cases, someone far removed from the system is making the decision as to who is allotted what. The systems have to be perfected."

Other topics discussed during the meeting which drew about 100 area retailers were the growing obscurity of the 8-track tape configuration (cassette sales now outnumber them 4 to 1), improved cassette packaging, cross promotion between record stores and movie theatres with the trend toward soundtracks and retail's cautious approach to the home video market.

The business of NARM was also thoroughly discussed at the day long meeting. Foremost in the organization's plans for the upcoming year is the continued promotion of the "Give The Gift Of Music" campaign. According to Gorlick, the association has hired a national public relations firm to help promote the drive, is presently readying a song and jingle for the slogan and preparing a 5-second video spot for television.

The campaign will also include creation of special gift wrap materials and displays for use in record shops and tie-ins with greeting card manufacturers. The cam-aggregation of young jazzists displayed considerable technical acumen through old jazz standards, including a medley of Fats Waller tunes.

Following the spirited high schoolers, Cal Tjader kicked off the line-up that was to embody the theme, "Scenes Like Old Times." Tjader's sextet warmed the cool night air of the peninsula with a blend of Latin-tinged jazz, which was made most profound near the conclusion of the Tjader set when the outfit was joined by percussionist Pancho Sanchez. Sanchez' tightly syncopated conga work and Tjader's salsa-sauced vibe runs were the first indications that the night would be surrounded with enthusiasm.

Top Act

But it was sassy Sarah's entry to the night air that seemed to make all else that followed anti-climatic. Her vocal interpretation, as always, was most personable, and her range in the open-air arena seemed to transcend that adverse condition. So, on a song she has come to own, "Send In The Clowns," Sarah allowed her voice to purr and roar. And then roaring applause followed.

Though Sarah seemed to encourage the audience the most, Dave Brubeck, joined by his son Chris on bass, came out to deliver some energetic licks, but preserved a sensitivity that made his rendition of "In Your Own Sweet Way" infinitely engaging.

Closing out the Friday night set was the Monterey Jazz All-Stars band put together by Jimmy Lyons, general manager of the event. Featuring the play of Clark Terry, Slide Hampton, Richie Cole, Bill Berry, Bob Brookmeyer, Buddy Tate, Connie Kay, Michael Moore, Mundell Lowe and the old master of the piano, John Lewis, musical coordinator for the event, musicians during this set swapped articulate solos and revived energies that made swing and bebop a most exciting commodity during their heydays.

Saturday's matinee show was quickly transformed into an old-fashioned house party hoe-down.

From Margie Evans soulful "Twenty-nine Ways To Get To My Baby's Door" to the spirited medley by Big Joe Turner, the blues set covered a spectrum of R&B-flavored music galvanizing the audience into honest-to-God participation.

While Hollywood Fats and his outfit tickled the crowd to attention, Eddie "Cleanhead" Vinson and company proceeded to clear the air for dancin' in the aisles, which came to a head during the James Cotton Band's set. Cotton, complete with mouth organ and whiskey scathed vocals, tore into a seemingly unending set of blues scorchers that made the entire audience stand up and take notice.

Showing how gut-bucket blues and more sophisticated concoctions of the same can be equally as tasteful and exciting, pianist vocalist Jay McShann and Claude "Fiddler" Williams played with as much wit as grit.

Evening Program

As night set upon the Monterey Peninsula, Saturday's evening program sported the most appetizing innovation of this year's fest, the mass importation of a Japanese jazz band, the Tokyo Union Orchestra. While the festival has treated audiences to performances by individual jazz artists from other countries, this marked the first time a major foreign jazz act has been booked at the festival.

BOTTOMS UP — If you always thought that backstage parties were wild affairs with mountains of food and drink, hordes of groupies and celebrities, tales of wild sexual exploits and hotel damage and topless waitresses, then you should have been at Van Halen's 1980 world tour homecoming party at the Sports Arena Sept. 18. The Pasadena (California not Texas)-based band, which hosted a party for about 300 friends and associates, has always had a great flair for on and off stage sensationalism, and both the show and the fete were brought off in the quartet's trademark "party hearty" style. Of course, the show featured lion maned lead singer David Lee Roth constantly tugging on a Jack Daniels bottle and flailing about the stage like Chuck Norris gone wrong. Of course, Eddie Van Halen used every guitar fingering trick in the riff rocker's handbook. Of course, the dry ice and blinding spotlights were employed throughout the show, and of course, the band ran through every hard rock cliché that has been invented since Blue Cheer first walked on the stage. Indeed, rock 'n' roll bombast is high on the list of Van Halen's favorite things. But the quartet's almost painfully teenage sense of fun and frolic makes the whole charade seem fresh. It can be said that the Sports Arena took on the atmosphere of a house party rather than a cavernous concert hall. The "bottoms up" spirit was taken backstage after the show, where tales of the band's drunken, paternity suit-filled past continued to circulate. Suspicious looking cocktail waitresses floated through the crowd, and the whiskey toting wenches began to lose pieces of their clothing as the night wore on. The exhibitionism was dismissed as "just another Van Halen blow out." While many religious sects might term the thunder lizard of a band as a textbook example of what's sinful about rock 'n' roll, the heathen devil mystique is what makes the band so amusing. The feigned orgiastic presence causes one to rephrase the familiar Jagger/Richards line to "I know it's only rock 'n' roll trappings but I like it" . . . The waitresses at the Van Halen party weren't the only ones who have been having trouble keeping their clothes on lately. During a late show at the Roxy recently, John Klemmer's sax was blowing so strongly that it caused one horny lass to remove her top. Possessed by the "Magnificent Madness" theme of Klemmer's tour, she proceeded to toss her blouse onto the sax fiend's tenor. Unblinded, the Chicago-born jazz man continued to play. The shirt was later returned to the zealous fan by Klemmer's manager.

WESTWORDS — Anyone want a club with an illustrious past and a profitable future? Doug Weston wants to know. He's selling his internationally famous venue, The Troubadour, for a reported $500,000. Folks like Elton John, Carole King, Jackson Browne, Tom Waits, the Eagles, and Ricki Lee Jones got their starts at the Troub . . . Look for a Todd Rundgren/Daryl Hall collaboration within the next six months . . . A 1½ hour video that features Joni Mitchell in concert during her "Mingus/Shadow And Light" tour, as well as some footage shot by Mitchell and several pieces of her artwork will air on Showtime in 150 markets in November and on Select and ON-TV in December. It will also be shown as a special on the CBC broadcasting system in Canada and BBC 1 in London . . . Rossington Collins Band has nixed the rest of its national tour and the upcoming tour of Europe due to a death in Allen Collins' family . . . Sorry to hear about the death of Mike Chapman's father as well . . . Capitol has signed Delbert McClinton. The South's version of Robert Palmer will have his new album, "The Jealous King," released on Oct. 13 . . . Cuddly Japanese singing duo Pink Lady has announced that they will shelve the act as of March 1981. Mie will continue with a solo singing career, while Kei will leave music to become a television actress . . . Keyboardist Desmond Brown and bassist Charlie Anderson have left The Selecter . . . Tom Petersson, who recently left Cheap Trick, is now recording a new LP with wife Dagmar at El Dorado Studios in L.A.

NEW WAVE FEST UPDATE — The intrepid coalition of Bay Area artists that goes by the name of the Western Front has finally set the date for its second annual Festival of New Wave Arts. The event will be held Oct. 17-26, and artists scheduled to appear at various counterculture venues throughout San Francisco include Cabaret Voltaire, Young Marble Giants, D.O.A. and Stiff Little Fingers. Emerging artists from the fields of dance, graphics, video, film, photography, sculpture and literary arts will also be highlighted. For more info call the Western Front Festival at (415) 861-0469.

THE JAMES GANG — Paul Kennerly, who wrote and composed a film for the ear entitled "White Mansions" a few years back, has come up with a follow up to the vinyl Civil War tale. Kennerly's latest concoction is called "The Legend Of Jesse James," and the artists and their characters on the LP are as follows — Levon Helm (Jesse James), Johnny Cash (Frank James), Emmylou Harris (Zerelda James), Charlie Daniels (Cole Younger) and Albert Lee (Jim Younger). Roseanne Cash and Bernie Leadon are also featured on the Glyn Johns produced LP, which will be released Nov. 7.

WAITING FOR THE SALES — A combination of the popularity of Jim Morrison's "No One Here Gets Out Alive" biography, the longevity of Apocalypse Now on the national film circuit and the local popularity of the Ray Manzarek-produced X album are some of the reasons behind the current Doors revival, according to a spokesman at Elektra/Asylum. E/A sales director Lou Maglia has announced that all of the albums in the Doors catalog are presently selling better than they have in any one year since their original release date. As of June 3, "The Doors" (1967), "Waiting For The Sun" (1968), "L.A. Woman" (1970) were reduced from $7.98 to the midline price of $5.98, and Maglia has pointed out that since that time sales of the three albums have increased 50%. The new activity has prompted E/A to release "The Doors Greatest Hits," which will ship Oct. 17. "The Doors" is at #164 bullet on the Cash Box album chart this week.

MAL AND VAL — Those label execs who passed the Roxy on Sept. 22 and saw the unfamiliar name of headliners Mal Function and Valentine Hart shouldn't have dismissed the band as just another passing thought. The new rock band (in an almost unheard of feat) managed to sell out the Roxy without the virtue of a label deal. Mal Function is the leader of the quartet, and Valentine Hart is the name of the lyricist who phones in his parts on the pay telephone that stands center stage at all of the band's gigs. Those interested in the band that mixes humor with a tight '80s sound should call lead singer Rance Stoddard at (213) 469-2635.

CLASS AND PZAZZ — The 23rd Annual Monterey Jazz Festival featured some new and established mainstream artists. Sarah Vaughn's set featured the singer's personality as much as it did her vocal prowess. Altoist Richie Cole displayed his considerable skills in a variety of band sets, showing he could appeal to a diversified collection of tastes. ON JAZZ

Rumors, rumors everywhere. Has the recession taken its toll on jazz? If so, it's not evident by the number of clubs continuing to present jazz on a regular basis; nor by the volume of new releases (and reissues) appearing each month; nor by the number of new musicians being recorded. But there is a perceptible shift from one sector of the business towards another, vis a vis. Clearly, jazz is shifting back to the smaller labels. The roster drops from major labels are presenting small labels with any number of major artists currently without contract. It is too early to see who will pick up the slack but Concord, the fine California-based label, is one example of a label that has not been slow to move toward major artists. A decade ago, George Shearing was on Capitol, Dave Brubeck on Columbia and Carmen McRae on Atlantic, but each has recent product on Concord. Ray Brown, Bud

HOT HUBBARD — Hornblower Freddie Hubbard's hot licks trapped many an ear during Saturday night's show at the 23rd annual Monterey Jazz Festival. And the audience, as well as Hubbard, seemed to have a good time. (Photo by Mike Martinez)

Shank, Laurindo Almeida, Cal Tjader and Marian McPartland are other performers with Concord LPs on the market. (At the same time, the label has offered younger players such as Scott Hamilton, Warren Vache and John Clayton an opportunity to develop.) Where does this leave other labels who have concentrated on straight ahead jazz? Musc, Pablo, Inner City, Artist House, Contemporary, Beehive and others are in excellent positions to upgrade artist rosters and forge ahead to the prominence achieved in the '70s by labels such as CTI, Milestone and ECM. The other question is what form will the music of this decade take on? Fusion, despite the naysayers, is where the numbers are, but it is very expensive to produce. A fusion album can cost a dozen times as much as a blowing session. In recent years artists of sufficient stature in the marketplace have been able to go both ways — doing fusion dates for the major label while doing jazz dates for smaller labels. This seems likely to continue but whether or not the new breed of musician, raised in the fusion idiom, will feel the same way about a traditional studio session is something only time will tell.

SAVING JAZZ RADIO — The Committee To Save Jazz Radio is at it again. A sold out Beacon Theatre audience heard Dave Valentin, Art Blakey and others in a rousing roasting of the management of WRVR-FM. Current legal precedent would appear to make the attempt futile as the FCC has shown a marked lack of interest in programming decisions. . . . Meanwhile, National Public Radio is gearing up for its fourth year of Jazz Alive, the weekly jazz showcase. The season premiere will be "The Blues Is A Woman" featuring Sippie Wallace, Big Mama Thornton, Nell Carter and Koko Taylor recorded during the 1980 Newport Jazz Festival. Others scheduled to be heard during October broadcasts are Jaki Byard, Woody Shaw/Abbey Lincoln/Dave Burrell and a West Coast all star group with Kenny Burrell, Jerome Richardson and Conte Candoli.

VINYL PIPELINE — New from Atlantic: Ray Charles ("Brother Ray Is At It Again"), Jean-Luc Ponty ("Civilized Evil") and Narada Michael Walden ("Victory") . . . A new jazz label, Chaz Jazz, makes its debut with seven LPs, all devoted to the work of pianist Ralph Sutton. Sutton appears in a variety of contexts, with Jay McShann in piano duets, with Ruby Braff in quartets, with Kenny Davern in trios, and also as a soloist. At this point the label is mail-order only. Try the label at Box 365 North Hampton N.H. 03862 for further information. . . . RCA Bluebird hits with volume eight and nine of "The Complete Glenn Miller" and it appears as though the label will finish the complete Glenn Miller project by years end. 1981 is likely to see activity on Duke Ellington, Jelly Roll Morton, Artie Shaw and Tommy Dorsey, though no specific plans are available at this time.

JAZZ BRIEFS — Hot, new drummer Wade Barnes takes his septet, Unit Structures, into Jazz Forum on Oct. 5. . . . Clark Terry will be the guest of honor at a jazz seminar/performance on Oct. 8 at NYU's Loeb Student Center. The event, first in a series of eight, is co-sponsored by NYU, The Institute of Afro-American Affairs and the Universal Jazz Coalition. . . . Some further information on the $5.98 line (actually lines) from Fantasy. It will debut in January and product will be issued in new numerical series on Prestige, Fantasy and Stax. Jazz LPs, regardless of source, will be on Prestige while artists who have appeared in the past on Fantasy or Stax will appear on those labels.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

PASSION FLOWER — Zoot Sims — Pablo Today 2312-120 — Producer: Norman Grans — List: 8.98

Saxophonist Sims is backed by two different groups: one features a big band conducted by Benny Carter while the other is a rhythm section with Jimmy Rowles on piano. The nine tune program is all Ellington music including some splendid, seldom heard melodies. One would not generally think of Sims as an Ellington interpreter but he carries off the task with grace and assurance. A quality job all around.

SUSPICIONS — Houston Person — Muse 5199 — Producer: Houston Person — List: 7.98

A little bit of everything here as Person's big tenor sax gets into such things as "If," "Blue Monk" and the title track. Backing is by solid New York pros with trumpeter man Virgil Jones and guitarist Melvin Sparks standing out. The rhythm arrangements of Horace Ott are an additional distinctive touch. Strong airplay potential for those tracks named and an album which should garner strong reaction from jazz and R&B fans.

TOM CAT — Lee Morgan — Blue Note LT-1058 — Producer: Alfred Lion — List: 8.98

A previously unissued session from 1964 featuring Jackie McLean, Curtis Fuller, McCoy Tyner and Art Blakey. Morgan's bristling trumpet work is perhaps the highlight but his five stretched out compositions are also worthy of note. This artist has been a constant seller for Blue Note through the years and the funky sound of the title track should insure the continuation of that tradition.

WEA Int'l Sets Joint Video Venture With Filipacchi For France

LOS ANGELES — WEA International and the France-based Filipacchi Group of companies have entered into a home video manufacturing and distribution joint venture. The new company is Warner Filipacchi Video S.A.

Jacques Souplet, formerly CBS Disques France chief executive, has been named president of the new firm. Warner Filipacchi will exclusively handle the Warner Bros. and Warner Home Video film catalog, in addition to French and other foreign film libraries.

The first home videocassette product from the joint venture will include such titles as All The President's Men, Deliverance, Klute, Rebel Without A Cause, Woodstock, East Of Eden, The Exorcist, Blazing Saddles and The Summer Of '42, in addition to a Charles Chaplin series and animation films such as Bugs Bunny cartoons. The firm's product will be distributed through two main outlets, WEA Filipacchi Music (for record retailers) and Film Office Company (for cinema-photo shop outlets).

Audiofidelity To P&D Mantovani's Late Hits

NEW YORK — Audiofidelity Enterprises will manufacture and distribute a new series of records by "The Mantovani Orchestra" through Amberjack Records. The albums will feature hit copyrights of the past four years, and will be backed by a strong marketing, promotion and publicity campaign, according to Sam Goff, the new president and chief executive officer of Audiofidelity.

Fischer Upped To Senior VP Post At Warner Amex

LOS ANGELES — James L. Fischer has been promoted to senior vice president and technical director of Warner Amex Cable Communications in N.Y. Prior to his new post, Fischer was vice president of technical development and planning for Warner Amex.

In his new position, Fischer will be responsible for the company's long-range technical planning and engineering development, including business information and data processing systems.

Fischer was also in charge of technical development of Warner Amex' QUBE two-way interactive cable-TV service in Columbus, Ohio.

Video Corp.'s Income, Sales Gained In '79

NEW YORK — The Video Corp. of America, a video technology firm, reported last week that revenues for the fiscal year ended June 30 rose to $12.1 million from $9.4 million in 1979. Net income for the company increased to $606,000 from $302,000 in the same period last year.

Video Corp. of America operates videocassette duplicating laboratories in the east, midwest and southwest, and plans to construct a west coast lab in the coming fiscal year. In addition, George Gould, chairman of the board, said that new state-of-the-art systems are being installed in the company's New York video center.

CVE Relocates

LOS ANGELES — Effective Oct. 6, CBS Video Enterprises will be headquartered at 1700 Broadway, 35th Floor, New York City, N.Y. 10019. The phone number remains the same.

Jackie Krost

Krost Named As Director Of A&R At Mobile Fidelity

LOS ANGELES — Jackie Krost has been named director of A&R and special projects for Mobile Fidelity Sound Lab. In making the announcement, Herb Belkin, president of the audiophile company, said Krost will participate in the selection of artists and repertoire to be released on Original Master Recordings. Krost will also act as a liaison between the record companies, artists and Mobile Fidelity.

A&R Consultant

Krost, who had been working with the company as an independent A&R consultant, previously served as a director of BKM Personal Management, Ltd., in London and created the music department at BKM Personal Management, Inc., in Los Angeles. He has also managed Billy Cobham, producer Ken Scott and served as musical consultant to Cat Stevens.

Klinger To Head Business Affairs, RCA SelectaVision

LOS ANGELES — Richard Klinger has been appointed director of business affairs for RCA West Coast SelectaVision VideoDiscs. In his new post, Klinger will be responsible for all West Coast business affairs and program licensing negotiations. He will report directly to Thomas Kuhn, RCA staff vice president, West Coast.

Business Background

Prior to joining RCA, Klinger, an attorney, was with Paramount Television, where he served as director of business affairs, negotiating and supervising agreements with networks, individual producers, talent and production staffs. He was previously engaged in a private law practice with offices in Big Fork and Helena, Mont. and has also served as special assistant attorney general of the state of Montana from September 1974 through September 1976.

Klinger has also held the position of associate director of business affairs for the CBS Television Network and has produced television programs for Metromedia Television and the American Broadcasting Company. His posts within the music industry include: president of Sage Management; general professional manager of April/Blackwood Music, West Coast; and director of business affairs for CBS Records, West Coast.

A graduate of Harvard University, Klinger received his law degree from Columbia University.

RCA STARTING TO DEVELOP ORIGINAL DISC PROGRAMMING — RCA's SelectaVision VideoDisc system has received more press and publicity than both of the competing formats put together, as well as nearly any other technological media advance in recent memory, so it came as a bit of a surprise that RCA's latest step, to begin developing original programming specifically for the videodisc, did not receive the usual ballyhoo. "It's nothing that you'd make a big press announcement about," said Thomas G. Kuhn, vice president, programming, West Coast, RCA SelectaVision. "It's just happening a little sooner than we expected." Playing down perhaps the most adventurous step in programming the company has undertaken so far, Kuhn indicated that no deals have yet to be signed but he is actively seeking properties and talking. "It's just beginning," he continued. "There's basically three steps in programming: acquisition (of existing film or video properties), co-production and total, original production. We're pretty well covered right now in the area of acquisitions, with more than 1,000 titles to date. Right now, we're investigating co-productions and we're not limiting ourselves in any way in that area. As long as we feel a property has market value and is legal, we'll co-produce with damn near anybody." Aside from the tongue-in-cheek statement, Kuhn added that in-house productions are not too far in the offing.

ROCKIN' AMERICA TO THE VIDEO BEAT — With video-dance clubs springing up around the country, it was only a matter of time before someone started the video equivalent of a record pool. Edward Steinberg has just opened such a service, the New York-based ROCKAMERICA. For $125 per month, subscribers to ROCKAMERICA receive a one-hour color videocassette containing approximately 15 to 17 video clips, either promotional pieces or original independent productions, of popular new wave or rock-dance numbers. The programs are distributed nationally and subscribers are allowed to keep each new monthly offering for a two-month period, meaning that ROCKAMERICA members will have two tapes at all times. Steinberg promises that several musical formats will be used "to allow for regional tastes, as the demand arises." Members will also receive ROCKAMERICA's newsletter, VIDEOfILE, free-of-charge (non-subscribers can receive it for $50 per year) featuring a video/music chart and articles on additional software/hardware, club design, general video/music news and profiles, in addition to DJ and VJ (video jockey) reports, comments and news. "I track the tapes just as the better record pools do and send out reaction sheets to be filled out by the club DJs, VJs and audience on the individual selections," said Steinberg. Steinberg also stresses that ROCKAMERICA can be utilized as more than simply a video-music program for clubs. "I don't encourage playing the tapes straight through," he added. "The tapes are made to be cued up for each individual selection and sequenced between regular record spinning or any other good visual ideas a VJ might have. The clubs will have access to other material and concepts through the VIDEOfILE newsletter." Some 20 clubs around the country have already subscribed to the service, according to Steinberg, and 21 major, independent and European labels are presently supplying clips. For further info, including the list of clubs, write to Steinberg, c/o Soft Focus Productions, 41 East 20th Street, N.Y.C. 10003. The phone is (212) 475-5791.

DISNEYLAND OFFICIALLY BOWS HOME VID PRODUCT — Following a successful trial distribution deal for home video software with Fotomat in four major markets earlier this year, Walt Disney Studios will begin renting and selling selected motion picture titles and cartoons on videocassette Oct. 1, according to Jim Jimirro, president of Disney's Telecommunications and Non-Theatrical division. Among the 10 initial film titles to be made available on a nationwide basis will be Pete's Dragon, Davy Crockett, King Of The Wild Frontier, The North Avenue Irregulars, 20,000 Leagues Under The Sea and The Black Hole. Cartoons will include Kids Is Kids, with Donald Duck, On Vacation With Mickey Mouse And Friends and The Adventures of Chip 'N Dale. Among the other feature length films scheduled for release are The Apple Dumpling Gang, Bedknobs And Broomsticks, Escape To Witch Mountain, The Love Bug and Hot Lead And Cold Feet.

WHAT'S NEW IN VIDEO SOFTWARE — Warner Home Video has released five feature length film titles in both Beta and VHS videocassette formats this month, including Klute, Every Which Way But Loose, A Clockwork Orange, Gilda Live and Summer of '42. . . . Magnetic Video has released 16 new video titles during September. Among the new films are Julia, The Turning Point, Damien — Omen II and Saturn 3, which had a recent theatrical run. The new additions now bring Mag Video's library of titles to more than 800. . . . Mag Video's Alien has exceeded more than $1 million in retail sales since its June 15 release. It is now eligible for the ITA's Golden Videocassette award Home Theatre/V.C.I. has acquired exclusive distribution rights to the Sonny And Cher Show, a one-hour musical variety show originally telecast on the CBS-TV network. It will be part of the firm's Star Time series of musical specials. . . . What Collectors Will Do Dept.: A thief apparently cleaned out the window display of Broadway's Video Shack in New York, making off with 22 empty VidAmerica "Collectable Series" packages and two left-handed boxing gloves. VidAmerica president Al Markim said, "All the dummy got away with were dummies."

VIDEO CLIPS — KEEFCO, the independent video production firm, is currently in post production on a video of a Barclay James Harvest concert Sept. 2 on the steps of the Reichstags gelände in West Berlin. The free show was a "thank you" from the band to its European fans. KEEFCO is also shooting two songs from Gladys Knight & The Pips current LP, "Above Love," in L.A., including "Bourgie, Bourgie" and "Taste Of Bitter Love." The latter is being filmed for Britain's Top Of The Pops TV show. . . . The Beach Boys In Concert will be aired on Home Box Office Oct. 11 from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. EDT. The special was videotaped July 4 before an audience of some 300,000 on the mall in Washington, D.C. Howard Grossman produced. . . . WQTV, channel 68 in Boston presented VideoDisc, a one-hour rock 'n' roll show Sept. 25. The program, which featured Joan Armatrading, Fischer-Z, Flash & The Pan, Robin Lane & The Chartbusters, The Vapors, The Romantics, plus local groups Sass, Pastiche and The Shades, was hosted by WBCN's Mark Parenteau. . . . A Tribute To Jim Morrison, a 60-minute special featuring rare footage of The Doors' singer/songwriter, including concert and TV appearances, as well as interviews, is being readied for pay-TV by producers Lawrence Smith and Richard Mann, who also produce the rock-oriented Hollywood Heartbeat. The Jim Morrison special was inspired by the best-selling Morrison bio No One Here Gets Out Alive and will also include interviews with original Doors members John Densmore, Robbie Krieger and Ray Manzarek, as well as group producer Paul Rothchild and the book's authors Danny Sugerman and Jerry Hopkins. The special will be distributed by Gold Key Entertainment and is expected to be simulcast on local FM stations. . . . Elektra/Asylum has just taken delivery on a batch of new

WHAT'S IN-STORE

RECORD BAR ACTION — Numerous promotions were held throughout the chain recently. At the Atlanta, Ga. store in the Greenbriar Mall, the Commodores signed albums and autographs for their fans just prior to the group's Labor Day weekend concert . . . Also in Atlanta at the Northlake and Southlake Malls, there was a special promotion for the Dirt Band's "Make A Little Magic" LP, where the store had a master magician make an in-store appearance to do just that . . . At the Orem, Utah store, a "Cheap date to see Cheap Trick" promotion was held. The giveaway, in conjunction with KRSP-FM 103, included free concert tickets, a bus ride to the concert, lunch at McDonald's, a 10" Nu-Disc and $1.03 spending money . . . The Moline, Ill. Record Bar offered one dollar off all albums and tapes with the trade in of a playable album in the "Great Trade In Sale," in a mall-wide promotion. All trade-ins were donated to charities . . . At the Terre Haute, Ind. store, Sun recording artist Orion made an in-store appearance, met his fans and drew the winners in a contest for free tickets to his concert . . . And finally, in Savannah, Ga., a new group called Ziggurat was in town for a gig at the Bullfrog Springers and later made a visit to the Record Bar to meet fans on Sept. 6. A film clip on the group aired the night before on WSAV-TV.

KARMA OPENING — Karma Discount Records and Video, which is the retail division of Father's & Sun's One-Stop, has just opened its ninth store in West Lafayette, Ind.

SHEET MUSIC — April-Blackwood has just released the following sheet music for August and September 1980 — "Don't Ask Me Why," as recorded by Billy Joel, $1.95; "Hot Rod Hearts," as recorded by Robbie Dupree, $1.95; Xanadu, as recorded by Olivia Newton-John/ELO, $1.95 "All Over The World," as recorded by ELO, $1.95; "Bradley's Big Fifty for Simplified Piano Solos," $7.95; "Christmas Carol Combos," seasonal favorites for various instruments, $2.95; "Real Love," as recorded by the Doobie Brothers, $1.95; "Hold On," as recorded by Kansas, $1.95; "How Do I Survive," as recorded by Amy Holland, $1.95; "Billy Joel Made Easy For Piano" (updated edition), $4.95; "Today's Pop Hits" (featuring the bonus song "Longer"), $5.95 and, lastly, "Bradley's Easy Piano Collection" (37 songs) at $7.95.

WHO BE DA FOO — The Wilcox Record Store in Oklahoma has just started a new bulletin board feature. Each week an album will be awarded to a steady customer of the store, however, the album will not be of their choice. For instance, Larry Hollis, a long-time strictly jazz customer just won a disco album. See what they mean by "who be da foo."

SCARY MONSTERS — RCA field merchandisers, sales reps, branch managers and regional directors have a chance to compete for a limited edition, autographed run of David Bowie lithographs in a merchandising contest devised by RCA's manager, national field merchandising, Frank O'Donnell. The prizes will be awarded for the best merchandising presentation done on Bowie's newly released album, "Scary Monsters." The lithographs are an opened out combination of the front and back album cover artwork from "Scary Monsters," which was taken from a painting by noted British artist Edward Bell. Numbered and personally signed by Bowie, the lithographs will be awarded after Oct. 31. Besides the lithographs, a limited edition of stamps, designed by Bowie, have been manufactured at RCA. The stamps are four-color, gumbacked, perforated stock, and are being given out as souvenirs at various RCA branch listening parties for the "Scary Monsters" LP.

GRAND OPENING — Oasis Record & Tape Superstores, the Pittsburgh-based chain, has just opened its fourth store in Bethel Park. All Oasis stores are participating in a massive 20% off everything to help celebrate. The stores are doing some very heavy advertising in both radio and print. There are ongoing entry blank drawings for Oasis T-shirts, buttons, autographed Supertramp albums and catalog giveaways on Chicago, Rush, Kansas and Lynyrd Skynyrd. Also, a special Shogun drawing, which entitled the winner to a dinner for six at a Japanese steak house, was offered . . . There is also a limited edition lithograph of David Bowie's latest LP "Scary Monsters" and a Bowie catalog . . . And lastly, there was a drawing on Sept. 30 for free tickets and backstage passes for four people to the AC/DC concert in Pittsburgh.

RADIO DOCTORS DRAWING — Radio Doctors and Mainstream have a contest going with the new Kansas LP, "Audio Visions." Each store will be giving away a pair of headphones in the drawing . . . Also, for its upcoming Street Festival, Radio Doctors has announced that the proceeds from the sales will go to the Milwaukee Children's Hospital.

A NEW ARRIVAL — Licorice Pizza has just announced plans for the grand opening of store #28 in Chula Vista, Calif. for October 1980. Buzz Buchanan has been named manager for this store.

REGIONAL BREAKOUTS — Steve Forbert and NRBQ in the East . . . Bob Welch in the West, Midwest and South . . . Brick and Jerry Lee Lewis in the South . . . X and Oingo Boingo in the West . . . and the Psychedelic Furs are starting to break out everywhere.

FOR QUICK COVERAGE — Send items and photos for What's In-Store to Cash Box, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Suite 930, Los Angeles, Calif. 90028.

LOS ANGELES — Jose Feliciano recently completed his first symphonic composition, "Concerto de Paulinho," which he is set to perform with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Oct. 3 and Oct. 5, at the Ford Auditorium. The guest conductor will be Richard Hayman. Dedicated to the late Brazilian percussionist Paulinho Magalhaes, with whom Feliciano performed with for nine years, the concerto has been four years in the making and was dedicated to the late musician when he died in 1979. Magalhaes was a well-travelled artist, having performed with Frank Sinatra, Sergio Mendes, Stan Getz, Astrid Gilberto and Antonio Carlos Jobim, to name a few. Feliciano, noted as a pop musician, has been recognized for his compositions and guitar playing with two Grammy Awards and several music poll kudos . . . ASCAP's first Symphonic and Concert Workshop recently started under the sponsorship of the ASCAP Foundation. Panelists on hand for the initial workshops included Louis Brunelli, David Del Tredici, Lukas Foss, Morton Gould, Thea Musgrave, W. Stuart Pope, Elie Siegmeister, Virgil Thomson and Vincent Persichetti. About 40 composers and musicians were scheduled to be on hand at the workshop sessions, which were held at ASCAP's New York City headquarters. Each session was moderated by Martin Bookspan, ASCAP coordinator of symphonic and concert activities. The workshops were free of charge and open to all applicants. The ASCAP Symphonic and Concert Workshop is part of a series of workshops devoted to film/TV scoring, jazz, theatre and disco music . . . Music to nine of flutist James Galway's most outstanding pieces have been compiled into an anthology called "Songs For Annie" by G. Schirmer, Inc. Some of the collections include "La Plus Que Lente" by Debussy; "Berceuse" from the "Dolly" suite by Gabriel Faure; "Tambouring" by J.A. Hasse; "Le Basque" by Marin Marais; the first movement of Mozart's "Piano Sonata In C"; "Annie's Song" by John Denver; and traditional Irish and Spanish songs. The collection is accompanied by a full-color cover and contains text material in three languages — English, French and German . . . Auditions for the Musical Encounters Program will be held Oct. 4 in Schoenberg Hall at UCLA by the Young Musicians Foundation, underwritten by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce. Instrumentalists not more than 16 years old who are interested should make an appointment and be prepared to present a half-hour program. The music hopefuls will also go through a personality screening. Program participants have presented the performances throughout Los Angeles County the last four years. Further information can be obtained from the Young Musicians Foundation at (213) 659-3766, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. . . . Elliot Carter's "Symphony of Three Orchestras," with Pierre Boulez and the New York Philharmonic, was recently released by CBS Masterworks along with a voice and chamber ensemble piece, "A Mirror On Which To Dwell," with the Speculum Musicae and soprano Susan Davenny Wyner. The symphony was commissioned by the New York Philharmonic for the Bicentennial under a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts and has been premiered by Boulez in New York, Paris, London, Italy, Germany and Denmark. The work is set for performances in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles. "A Mirror On Which To Dwell" marks Carter's first vocal work in 28 years . . . An expanded artist repertoire, more frequent product releases, more aggressive marketing and promotion and a substantial distribution organization were the factors leading to Nonesuch Records' net billing jump of 80% over the same period a year ago, according to Bill Berger, Nonesuch sales and marketing director. "Nonesuch Records now has a high visibility and no longer is relegated to the budget bins at the back of the store," Berger explains. "We're up front because we've been recording and releasing the kind of classical music people want to buy, and we're reaching those people via advertising, in-store displays and in-store airplay." During September, the label bowed its first digital releases and plans to more aggressively enter the audiophile market with such releases . . . Students in the Los Angeles Philharmonic's Orchestral Training Program will be featured in instrumental ensembles and as soloists during a series of four free concerts presented at the William Grant Still Community Arts Center, beginning Nov. 22. The other performances are scheduled for Dec. 6 and 13 and Jan. 10. The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestral Training Program for minority students is also accepting new applicants for the program. Students from the program have been awarded positions with seven symphony orchestras, including the Mexico City Symphony, New Haven Symphony, New York Philharmonic, Pittsburgh Symphony, San Diego Symphony, San Francisco Symphony and the Toronto Symphony. Most students in the program already hold positions in high school, college and community orchestras.

CLASSICAL ALBUM REVIEWS

MUSIC FROM THE GALAXIES: The London Symphony Orchestra; Ettore Stratta, conductor. CBS Mastersound IC35876 — List: 8.98 — Digitally Recorded

Space is the last unlimited, dynamic frontier, and on this crystal clear reproduction of some of the most familiar space movie soundtracks, the London Symphony under Stratta's direction captures some of those dynamics which surely must have been inspired by the vastness of the dark frontier. From the moody, brooding theme of Alien, to the adventuresome zeniths from Star Wars, the sound is flawless, musically and technically.

C.P.E. BACH'S FLUTE CONCERTO IN D MINOR, FRANZ HOFFMEISTER'S FLUTE CONCERTO NO. 8 IN D MAJOR: Ingrid Dingfelder and the English Chamber Orchestra; Sir Charles Mackerras, conductor. Nonesuch — H-71388 — List: 5.98

Smooth, swooning chord structures undulate through C.P.E. Bach's flute concerto, without biting or plodding tempos. Ingrid Dingfelder's deft control of harmonic elements is astute and aptly complemented by the English Chamber Orchestra. On the Hoffmeister piece, more contrapuntal instrumental dialog is indulged creating whimsical conversations in varying tones, both harmonically and atonally. Dingfelder again displays the proper verve.

RADIO

AIR PLAY

THOUGHTS ON TRENDINESS — With the current popularity that country music and the country scene is enjoying these days, and further promoted by a number of radio stations in major markets switching formats to that of country music, many people have been reminded of last year's disco explosion (R.I.P.) and the bandwagon fad of stations that switched to disco based on the then incredible and sudden success of WKTU/New York. Is it a fad or just coincidence that radio has gotten to be more countryfied following the bootheels of Urban Cowboy? Georgla Twitty, director of the Federation of International Country Artists and Personalities (FICAP) feels, "It is a trendy movement brought on by the Urban Cowboy film. Any station that wasn't making money doing what they were doing will likely change format. But if they were badly managed in rock or whatever, they will be badly managed in country as well. They should change management as well." Twitty also pointed out that country music sales were not up equivalent with the number of stations jumping to country. Disagreeing with Twitty was Ed Salamon, PD at WHN/New York. He was not surprised at all about the stations that were making the switch. "WRVR/New York comes as no surprise when you realize that parent company Viacom has had enormous success with a country format at WMZQ/Washington, D.C., and KIKK/Houston. Nell Rockoff, the GM at KHJ/Los Angeles, which will go country soon, wanted to turn KTNQ (10Q)/Los Angeles into a country station two years ago. "I think that it is just a coincidence." Bob Sherwood, president of Phonogram/Mercury Records tended to agree with Salamon. "I feel that this swing to country is part of a natural growth of contemporary radio. It's an adjustment period for everybody. It only justifies those people who were considering making the change anyway."

DROP BACK AND PUNT — It's fortunate for Iran that they did not capture a pro football team to hold hostage because football fans are apparently more intense than the army, and definitely more aggressive than the President. On Sept. 8, frustrated and livid at having WVFK/WKWF's powerful 100,000 watt signal interfering with the Monday Night Football broadcasts on TV, some irate fans firebombed the radio station's transmitter, completely destroying it and the building that housed it, knocking the station off the air. A spokesman at the city's Key West Citizen newspaper said that it was definitely an arson attack and that the FBI was on the case with local and state officials. He hinted the FBI knew who the culprits were, but further investigation was necessary. WKWF had only been on the air for a couple of weeks. Work has begun already to construct a new building and transmitter with the station expected back on the air in 30 days.

PIRATES COVER KLOS — KLOS/Los Angeles music director Ruth Pineoos (c) is captivated by Pacific Arts Records vice president David Bean and The Pirates' album cover girl Bea Marr. Bean and Marr visited the station to present The Pirates' new album, "Hard Ride."

"THE RIVER" FLOWETH OVER — Don't touch that dial! Springsteenmania is back, and when that happens, radio reacts with a zeal that is probably unsurpassed by any other artist, as well as being a bit mischievous. Recently, radio station personnel from a number of stations on the east coast went to see the No Nukes film and "somehow" obtained a tape of Bruce Springsteen's "The River," which many agree is the strongest performance of the movie. You know the rest — "The River" started getting airplay at these stations and Springsteen's manager, Jon Landau, obtained cease and desist orders against stations for playing the tape. In addition, some tapes from The Boss' sessions for his soon to be released LP "The River," also 'somehow' found their way on to the air waves. These tapes contained some material that hadn't been fully mixed or were not included on the album. A Columbia Records spokesman said "that the label appreciates the loyal enthusiasm and love radio displays for Springsteen, but that incidents like this can hurt the artist. He asked that if you love the man, please don't play anything expect his records."

RAT OF A RODENT PERSUASION — Frank Zappa's old tune "Hot Rats" took on a new and quite literal translation in Los Angeles on Sept. 17. A rather large rat was poking about the Southern California Edison power transformers outside the building that houses KFI and, somehow, at 2:57 p.m., the rat stepped on the wrong piece of equipment and blew out three transformers as well as KFI's emergency power transfer switch. An unusually high current of energy followed causing a ground fire in the neighboring fields. KFI was off the air for nearly four hours while Edison workmen replaced three 1,700 pound transformers and station engineers repaired their equipment. While the giant rat created temporary inconvenience for KFI and its listeners and advertisers, this episode could be viewed as a more immediate way of gauging various quarter hour shares than waiting for the book to arrive. The station's 20 telephone lines were steadily busy until 8:00 p.m., with curious and/or upset people wanting to know where their station was. Needless to say, the inimitable morning duo of Lohman and Barkley had a field day with comic routines about the mischievous visitor on the following morning show.

FOR THE TIMES, THEY ARE A . . . — It was 10 years ago, Sept. 18, that Rock 'n' Roll lost one of its greatest and most innovative guitarists when Jimi Hendrix died. Hendrix was born and raised in Seattle and many people there have surely not forgotten him. KZOK-FM is currently promoting a drive to have one of the city's public parks or facilities named after Hendrix or to have a statue or a work of art erected in his honor. With a "conservative initial goal of raising $20,000" to present to city officials to confirm the legitimacy and seriousness of the project, PD Nils Von Veh said that "response and support from listeners and fans has been unbelievable." Right now two dollar buttons are being sold, however, Von Veh added that depending on official response and legalities, concerts or other means may be employed. While naming a public place after a rock star hero who died from a drug overdose has some Seattle city officials apprehensive, Von Veh hopes that positive response will be so overwhelming that a memorial tribute to Jimi Hendrix will become reality. If people's attitudes have changed with the times, perhaps it will.

FCC Implements Further Action To Expedite AM Dial Stereo Selection

submission by the Broadcast Bureau of the FCC of a report and order document, proponents of the competing systems challenged the criteria upon which the FCC panel made its decision.

Also, broadcasters joined with such proponents in filing 16 petitions requesting disclosure of the original evaluation matrix.

Instead of the Broadcast Bureau returning to the panel with the report and order document, the Bureau recommended gathering of further data which would ultimately justify a final selection of a single

'Times Square' Promos To Stress Radio Ads

LOS ANGELES — Radio has been given virtual exclusivity in a $1.5 million dollar budget by RSO Records and Associated Film Distribution (AFD) for the advertising and promotion of the Robert Stigwood motion picture Times Square.

In marking what could be the first time that radio has been used as the sole medium to help market a film, RSO will be working with AFD to determine which stations in each market that will most effectively promote Times Square.

The major thrust of the radio campaign is expected to be launched 10 days prior to the films nationwide opening on Oct. 17 in more than 600 theatres.

Commenting on the campaign, RSO president Al Coury said, "Usually a film uses a multi-media campaign with the emphasis on television advertising. RSO and AFD have taken a unique approach because we feel that the best way to reach our target audience is through radio. Because of the role that radio plays in the theme of Times Square and the extraordinary rock music which underscores the message of the film, radio is the most effective medium we can use to market this motion picture."

TM Introduces New Production Library

LOS ANGELES — TM Productions, a leading radio commercial production company, has developed "The System," a comprehensive production library of generic versions of radio ad jingles and musical concept promotions (MCP). Designed as a sales support package for the radio station, "The System" provides the average station with the sound and quality of nationally produced commercials," according to a TM spokesman.

"The System" was officially unveiled at the recent National Assn. of Broadcasters (NAB) Radio Programming Conference in New Orleans and a Fall advertising blitz has been planned in support of the new production library by TM. TM also developed "The Producer" and "Master Plan" production libraries. The firm is based in Dallas.

system (Cash Box, Aug. 9).

Jeff Baumann, chief of the commission's policy and rules division of the Broadcast Bureau, told Cash Box that more complete information might also stem court action taken to force reconsideration of a final decision by the FCC on AM stereo.

Some of those opposing the FCC's tentative selection of Magnavox, most notably Leonard Kahn, president of Kahn Communications, warned that court challenges may be forthcoming if the FCC does not employ the marketplace approach in implementing AM stereo.

The Broadcast Bureau continues to support the marketplace decision, while the FCC's office of technology recommends the single system approach, which the FCC panel has endorsed.

Comments on the further notice of proposed rulemaking are due by Dec. 9 and reply comments are due by Jan. 8, 1981.

RKO Radio Network Expands Its Program Offerings For 1981

LOS ANGELES — "Night-Time America" heads a number of programming endeavors to be undertaken by the RKO Radio Network beginning the week of Jan. 1, 1981.

Recognizing that the midnight to 5 a.m. time slot is usually void of any special programming, RKO's "Night-Time America" will be a totally self-contained, personality hosted, five-hour music program.

Incorporating pre-taped or live interviews with personalities and contemporary music, the new venture also features a once-a-week Top 10 Countdown, as well as other, shorter programming vignettes.

"Weekend America" will focus on the eight-to-15 hours per weekend that Americans spend on leisure activities via 10 90-second features broadcast on Saturday and Sunday.

Other additions to the RKO Radio Network programming line-up for 1981 are "Washington, D.C.," a 24-minute public affairs program; "Music With A Message," which will feature contemporary music with messages of a religious nature; and "Sports 1981," a two-minute program combining commentary and sports scores, to be broadcast Monday through Friday during morning and afternoon drive times.

Finally, the Network has subscribed to Broadcast Co-Opportunities, a comprehensive, co-operative advertising program developed by the Broadcast Marketing Company (BMC).

Individual stations are offered revenue producing potential through co-operative advertising which represents 50% of the average retailers media budget. RKO has subscribed to this service on a group basis, and will offer it to stations at no charge.

possibility of attending the week of festivities before the mailer from the CMA arrived. She added that she is confident that advertiser participation in the convention will enable radio stations to secure more advertisers.

Hudson pointed out that in addition to advertisers, more radio station managers will be attending the convention this year.

Label Showcases

Taking advantage of this captive audience, record labels will be hosting a variety of showcases featuring a plethora of artists. RCA's showcase, set for Oct. 15, will feature artists Razy Bailey, Alabama and Tom T. Hall. The Capitol-EMIA/Liberty showcase, also slated for the 15th, will feature Billy Crash Craddock, Mel McDaniel, Diane Pfeifer, Kenny Dale, Deborah Allen, Richard Leigh, Keith Stegall, Billie Jo Spears, David Wills, Jim Chesnut, Susie Allanson, Cristy Lane and Dottie West.

Closing the showcases slated for the Opry House on the 15th will be CBS, with a line-up featuring Mickey Gilley, Moe Bandy, Joe Stampley, Slim Whitman, Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers Band, Johnny Rodriguez, Lacy J. Dalton, Janie Fricke, Ronnie McDowell, Crystal Gayle and Johnny Cash.

On Oct. 16, Dimension Records has scheduled Kenny Price, Marty Haggard, Tommy Jennings, L.E. White and Lola Jean Dillon, Dave Kirby, Eddy Raven and Peggy Forman for an evening showcase. MCA Records also has a showcase scheduled for the 16th, featuring Brenda Lee, Bill Anderson, Ed Bruce, Loretta Lynn, Barbara Mandrell, the Oak Ridge Boys, John

Gelfand, Coleman And Bryant Speak To Nashville Producers Gathering

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — The importance of specific contractual clauses and the importance of periodic record company auditing were two of the topics covered when a panel consisting of Marshall Gelfand, Wayne Coleman and Micky Bryant of the CPA firm Gelfand, Breslauer, Rennert and Feldman spoke to a gathering of some 60-plus Nashville publishers, songwriters and interested parties.

Sponsored by the Nashville Music Publishers Forum and hosted by Broadcast Music, Incorporated (BMI), the two-hour meeting covered issues relevant to auditing procedures, potential claim areas, foreign royalties and contract interpretation.

Following a brief introductory speech by Micky Bryant, head of the firm's Nashville office, Wayne Coleman, partner in charge of the royalty department, spoke on the subject of domestic royalties, covering such sub-topics as potential claim areas, auditing feasibility, contract interpretation and internal accounting.

Foreign Royalties

Managing partner Marshall Gelfand spoke to the issue of foreign royalties, citing the substantial growth of record sales outside the United States in the last few years. Some years ago, Gelfand said, world wide record sales were dominated by the United States, which made up approximately 95% of total sales, with the rest of the world kicking in about five percent. Those figures have changed dramatically in recent years, with worldwide sales running about even with U.S. sales, according to Gelfand.

One of the most important issues concerning foreign royalties is the suggested retail price, which is non-existent in Germany and rapidly approaching that status in England. Gelfand stressed the need for Wesley Ryles and Don Williams.

In addition to these showcases at Opryland, various labels will be featuring talent at other venues here, including the Exit/In and Cajun's Wharf.

On Oct. 15, Warner Bros. will host two shows featuring the Bellamy Brothers and John Anderson at the Exit/In, the second of which will be broadcast live via satellite to hundreds of country radio stations. On Oct. 16, MDJ Records will host a convention party featuring David Smith, Stephany Samone, Kenny Saratt, Sweet Lips II, Little Willie and Alabama.

The week of events will close Oct. 18 with a birthday salute to the Grand Ole Opry and its stars, which will enable advertisers to sample traditional country music that sometimes gets lost in the shuffle of the Top 40 country programming theory.

Advertiser participation will be an important aspect of the convention, but the primary emphasis will remain on the radio stations.

This year's convention has devised a new broadcast service for stations, a hot-line report on convention happenings. A radio station can receive the reports by dialing a special hot-line number that will feed a news tape three times a day. The reports will be produced by Opryland Radio Productions Division and will be edited by a roving reporter covering the convention. Reports will be available for airing Monday, October 13 through Friday, Oct. 17. Due to telephone company limitations, only 160 stations can be serviced, and arrangements will be made on a first come basis. Country radio stations should contact Opryland Radio Productions at (615) 883-6197.

publishers to fight for a suggested retail price in all countries.

Gelfand also discussed the importance of covering all countries, no matter how small, with sub-publishers, and the inclusion of certain provisions in contracts, such as an audit clause.

Following the panel discussion, panel members fielded questions from the audience.

ROCK AND ROLL WITH BERRY — BMI Nashville hosted a pre-grand opening party at Nashville's premier show club, the Exit/In Sept. 18 that starred the father of rock 'n' roll, Chuck Berry. At the first of the two shows Berry performed that evening, he was awarded a precedent shattering four of the BMI Commendations of Excellence by BMI vice president Frances Preston and the organization's public relations head Russ Sanjek. The plaques recognized Berry's contributions to rock 'n' roll, rhythm and blues, country and popular music. Pictured following the concert, front row are (l-r): Phil Graham, BMI; Preston; Berry; and Sanjek. Pictured in the back row are (l-r): Del Bryant, Patsy Bradley and Joe Moscheo, BMI.

GENE WATSON SIGNS WITH MCA — Country artist Gene Watson has signed a recording contract with MCA Records. Among those on hand for signing ceremonies are (l-r): Tony Tanburano, MCA manager of field promotion; Jim Foglesong, MCA Nashville president; Watson; Russ Reeder, Watson's manager and producer; and Chic Doherty, MCA marketing vice president. Watson is currently recording his first MCA album at Nashville's Sound Emporium.

Nominees Announced For CMA Board; Election Is Scheduled For October 16

NASHVILLE — The Country Music Assn.'s (CMA) annual membership meeting will take place Oct. 16 at the Opryland Hotel here, beginning at 9:30 a.m. During the meeting, CMA directors for the upcoming year will be elected. One director will be chosen in each of 12 membership categories (one director currently on the board in each of these categories will remain another year, serving out the second year of a two-year term). Three directors-at-large will also be elected.

Proxy forms have been sent to all CMA members. Those unable to attend the membership meeting are requested to fill out their proxies, assigning their votes to some other member who will attend the meeting to vote on their behalf. Proxy forms must be returned as soon as possible to the national accounting firm Deloitte Haskins and Sells.

According to the CMA's bylaws, no fewer than two, nor more than four names (nominated by the board) may appear on the printed ballot for each vacancy. However, additional nominations may be made from the floor at the membership meeting by any member. The following is a list of those nominated for the CMA board of directors for 1980-81:

Advertising Agent — John Boden, John Blair and Company, New York; William Burton, Eastman Radio, New York; and Katie

Coke, John F. Murray Advertising, New York.

Barbara Mandrell Will Perform At Benefit Concert

NASHVILLE — Singer Barbara Mandrell will host her third Benefit for the Alabama Sheriffs Boys and Girls Ranches Oct. 3-5 at Still Waters Resort near Dadeville, Ala. Efforts to top last year's $160,000 in donations and pledges will include a concert at Auburn's Memorial Coliseum Oct. 3, a tennis tournament at Still Waters Oct. 4 and the annual golf tournament Oct. 5, also at Still Waters.

The kick-off Oct. 3 concert will feature Mandrell and premier Las Vegas performer Wayne Newton, who will be making a rare appearance outside the Nevada club circuit. The concert is scheduled to begin at 8:00 p.m.

The golf event is expected to attract some 160 golfers from across the country who will compete for prizes donated by various businesses in Alabama.

Additional monies will be raised through registration fees for the various tournaments and admission fees, as well as the Fun-Run, which is a new addition to the benefit weekend. Scheduled for Oct. 4, the two running events, a 10,000 meter Pepsi Challenge Run and the two-mile Fun Run will be open to the public. The entry fee of four dollars will also go to the Alabama Sheriffs Boys and Girls Ranches. These ranches provide homes to approximately 200 neglected children.

CARLENE CARTER (with DAVE EDMUNDS) (Warner Eros. WBS 49572)

Baby Ride Easy (3:17) (Sea Three Music — BMI) (Richard Dobson)

How can we go wrong with a song that teams Carlene Carter, Dave Edmunds and Nick Lowe? This country-tinted duet is a flavorful combination of the sparse, new sound production compliments of Lowe and tasty vocal trade-offs between Carter and Edmunds. It looks like maybe Carlene Carter's time has come.

REBA McENTIRE (Mercury 57034)

I Can See Forever In Your Eyes (2:41) (Combine Music Corp. — BMI) (Bob Dipiero)

The diminutive girl with the incredibly powerful voice is allowed to soar on this fiery love song. Soft strings and a heavy drum beat lay the groundwork for this number. The country/pop arrangement makes it a prime candidate for pop crossover.

LEON EVERETTE (RCA PB-12111)

Giving Up Easy (2:51) (April Music Inc. — ASCAP) (Jerry Foster and Bill Rice)

Everette's debut single for RCA features an almost Charlie Rich-ish piano arrangement and a mournful fiddle, which nicely confirm that his roots are still firmly entrenched in solid country soil. Country radio and jukebox should program this one immediately.

FRED KNOBLOCK (Scotti Brothers SB 607)

Let Me Love You (3:05) (Flowering Stone Music — ASCAP) (Fred Knoblock)

Knoblock cracked the country and pop charts with his last single, "Why Not Me." His latest offering is much like the first in its soft, slightly country sound. Now that his name is a bit more familiar to the public, programmers should give this ballad a shot.

ALBUM REVIEWS

HELP YOURSELF — Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers Band — Columbia JC 36582 — Producers: Larry Gatlin, Steve Gatlin and Rudy Gatlin — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

When you look up the term "harmony" in the dictionary, it reads "see Larry, Rudy and Steve Gatlin." Over the years, this trio has developed one of the tightest, clearest harmonies in the business. This album should put the Brothers in the Most Likely to Crossover category in anyone's polls. Particularly note the crystalline vocals on "Until She Said Goodbye," "Songwriter's Trilogy" and the current single, "Take Me To Your Lovin' Place."

TEXAS IN MY REAR VIEW MIRROR — Mac Davis — Casablanca NBLP 7239 — Producer: Rick Hall — List: 8.98

Mac Davis is like a well-rounded chef — he can serve up just about anything ordered. His latest album is a menu that features everything from grits and eggs to filet mignon, with a side order of black-eyed peas and cornbread thrown in for good measure. And what ties the diverse banquet neatly together is Davis' immediately recognizable vocals and top-notch performance.

TOGETHER AGAIN — George Jones and Tammy Wynette — Epic JE 36764 — Producer: Billy Sherrill — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

The duo that enthralled America for so many years is together again on vinyl, and sounding better than ever. There's still quite a large number of old Jones and Wynette fans out there, as well as a whole new crop just wondering what the legend is all about. With this 10-song collection, they will certainly find out. Though the sound has been updated a bit, the magical feel is still there, brilliantly showcased in such songs as "A Pair Of Old Sneakers," "We'll Talk About It Later" and their latest chart topper, "Two Story House."

LIVIN' ON HONKY TONK TIME — Joe Sun — Ovation OV 1735 — Producer: Brien Fisher — List: 8.98

Those of us who have been following Sun from club to club can only say it's about time he recorded "Ready For The Times To Get Better" and "Knockin' On Heaven's Door," two songs that have drawn tremendous response from his live shows. Another added attraction is the appearance of Shotgun, Sun's above average band. In years to come, Sun's gritty, bluesy vocals will most likely be cited as a major influence on tomorrow's music superstars.

ROCKABILLY BLUES — Johnny Cash — Columbia JC 36779 — Producers: Earle Poole Ball, Jack Clement and Nick Lowe — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Rockabilly music is enjoying a healthy resurgence of popularity lately, and who better to carry the rockabilly banner than Johnny Cash, one of the first proponents of this genre. Join Cash, and producers Earl Poole Ball, Jack Clement and Nick Lowe, a cast of excellent musicians, as well as guest vocalist June Carter Cash on this prime Cash waxing, and you'll see what this rockabilly thing is all about. Particularly note "Without Love," with guest musicians Lowe, Dave Edmunds and Martin Belmont and the Carter-Cash duet "One Way Rider."

SONGS I LOVE TO SING — Slim Whitman — Epic/Cleveland International JE 36768 — Producer: Pete Drake — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

There are those who would argue that Slim Whitman is not making a comeback. They would, in fact, say he never left. Whatever the case may be, Whitman's latest product should more than please all those die-hard Whitman fans who are purchasing his TV record packages like they were bricks of gold. Whitman gives his unique treatment to 10 songs, including "Secret Love," "The Last Farewell" and "Beautiful Dreamer."

TROUBLE IN PARADISE — Deborah Allen — Capitol ST-12104 — Producer: Steve Gibson — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Allen has already gained a good bit of notoriety as the harmony behind all those Jim Reeves re-releases. That notoriety should turn into full-fledged stardom with the release of her first album. Allen's vocals are wispy and clean, solid and sure, at times as pop as Stevie Nicks, at times as country as Tammy Wynette. She may be based in Nashville, but her songs should break out on a variety of formats.

THE CHASE IS ON — Carol Chase — Casablanca NBLP 7237 — Producer: Norbert Putnam — List: 8.98

Chase made a fine debut last year with her "Sexy Songs," and is obviously determined to carry on the tradition with this second release. There is more than one entendre behind the title of this LP. The album features a healthy dosage of country/pop songs suited to Chase's strong vocal abilities. She does a wonderful job on James Taylor's "Carolina," as well as "If You Don't Know Me By Now" and "It's All I Can Do."

THE BEST OF — Tommy Overstreet — Elektra 6E-292 — Producers: Bob Milsap and Mike Poston — List: 8.98

Overstreet's best of package spans almost a decade of music for the singer, who seems to have a penchant for songs titled after women. The songs have been recut for this special waxing, and sound just as good the second time around. "Gwen Congratulations," "Send Me No Roses" and "Mississippi (Why You Bayou)" are just a few of the chestnuts included.

DRIVIN' MY LIFE AWAY — Eddie Rabbitt is going to take a brief respite from the road Oct. 9 when he begins a multi-night appearance at the Roxy in Los Angeles. On the third night of his concert series (Oct. 11) Rabbitt's second show will be televised live via ON-TV, a pay-TV station in Los Angeles. This television airing will mark a first in that it will be the first concert ever to be televised live from the Roxy. Additionally, the show will be carried live on KHJ Radio in Los Angeles, which will be the station's first simulcast under its new country/rock banner.

GAY COWBOY? — Though you'd never guess it from the success of the soundtrack, the Urban Cowboy flick wasn't doing nearly so well as experts predicted it would. Theater managers have offered a number of theories as to the disappointing turn-out for the movie, especially so far as the summer out-of-school teenager is concerned. One California theater manager reportedly queried dozens of teens as to the problem with the movie, and found that the malady lies in the title. Many of the kids were under the impression that "urban" means gay or homosexual. And, he concluded, who wants to see a movie about a gay cowboy?

Eddie Rabbitt been Kenny Rogers.

Be sure and catch George Burns' upcoming special, "George Burns In Nashville???" when it airs Nov. 22 (check local listings). It's hard to say if it's his quick wit or singing abilities that make him so appealing to the ladies. Whatever the reason, he had more women flocking around him following his taping at Opryland than if he had Soap opera star Wayne Massey (from One Life To Live) is in Nashville working on a new album at Columbia Studios. Joel Diamond is handling production, with Bill Justis arranging. Massey currently has a single out, named after his soap opera. We also hear that Massey's co-star Mary Murray, who portrays Becky Lee Abbott, will be making an appearance with Massey on his album.

Nashville's wealth of songwriters now have another place to go to show their wares — Opryland's Saloon. The small club will be featuring "Writer's Night" every Thursday. Any songwriter/performer interested should contact Danny Matousek at the Saloon.

NOTABLE SIGNINGS — Buddy Lee has signed Stoney Edwards and Ronnie Baron to booking agreements with his Buddy Lee Attractions... Floyd Tillman has signed with Points West Publishing Co.

ANOTHER J.R.? — Not to be outdone by Texas, Jerry Clower has fashioned his own Dallas in the form of "Belle Meade," one of Nashville's more prestigious areas. Part of the upcoming television special, Nashville Palace, "Belle Meade" will be a lampoon look at life through the eyes of the fictitious "Julip" family, headed by patriarch I.M. Julip, wonderfully portrayed by Clower. Stay tuned for the exciting developments.

When Joe Stampley played The Cowboy in Lake Charles, La., recently, who should jump on stage for a couple of impromptu duets but Lynn Anderson. The latest in duets had the cowboys dancing on the tabletops as they performed together for the first time.

The Rangers were at Island Studio in Nashville recently laying tracks for a new album. Following the recording session, the group headed to Decatur, Ill. for a return engagement at D's Country Lounge, Sept. 14-21. They proved to be so popular, the club manager added two days to the original six-night engagement.

Charly McClain is currently on what she has named her "Southwest Scouting Tour," a 14-day jaunt in support of her current single, "Women Get Lonely." McClain's got a pretty good reason for dubbing the tour the "scouting" expedition, but we'll let her say why... "Although I'd like to know more about the game, I really enjoy watching football and this tour is placing me in some major markets, so to speak, for good football teams. I was recently in Houston and just missed seeing the Oiler's quarterback, Ken Stabler. I've got some great cities and teams coming up and I hope to get to see some play... And besides, on tour, 'Women Get Lonely.'"

Ed Bruce and his Tennessee Cowboy Band appeared on the Grand Ole Opry Sept. 19, which marked Bruce's first appearance on the Opry since it moved from the old Ryman Auditorium.

The Lone Star in Pomona, Calif. opened its doors Sept. 26 with special guest Hoyt Axton. Artists scheduled for October appearances include Gail Davies and Charly McClain.

Deadly Earnest and the Honky Tonk Heroes have split from the Pacific Arts label for United States distribution. Wheeler Recording will handle American distribution of Earnest recordings, while Pacific Arts will license the product in Brazil, Holland, and possibly New Zealand and Australia.

Tom T. Hall will be the honored guest of the Broadcasters' Assn. of Kentucky Oct. 15 when that organization confers on Hall the prestigious "Outstanding Kentucky Award." The Awards dinner will be held in Lexington.

LISTENERS' CHOICE AWARDS — New York area listeners went to the phones recently to cast their votes for the 5th Annual WHN Listeners' Choice Awards. Since everyone in the WHN listening area is eligible to vote over one and a half million people — the annual event is believed to be the largest radio poll of its kind. As in the past, WHN asked listeners to select their five favorites in each of five different categories. The five top vote getters were winners. Results are as follows: Male Vocalist of the Year (in alphabetical order) — Willie Nelson, Elvis Presley, Eddie Rabbitt, Kenny Rogers and Don Williams. Female Vocalist of the Year — Crystal Gayle, Loretta Lynn, Barbara Mandrell, Anne Murray and Dolly Parton. Group or Duo of the Year — Charlie Daniels Band, Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers, the Oak Ridge Boys, the Statler Brothers and Conway Twitty & Loretta Lynn. Entertainer of the Year — Larry Gatlin, Crystal Gayle, Willie Nelson, Elvis Presley and Kenny Rogers. Song of the Year — "In America," Charlie Daniels Band; "It's Like We Never Said Goodbye," Crystal Gayle; "Lookin' For Love," Johnny Lee; "Love The World Away," Kenny Rogers, and "There's A Honky Tonk Angel (Who Will Take Me Back In)," Elvis Presley.

PERSONALITY PROFILE — Fordham University was the birth place of Paul O'Brien's radio career. While studying communications arts at the New York University provided a great deal of basic knowledge, practical experience came by "hanging out" at the University radio station. Upon graduation, O'Brien returned to his home town of Rochester, N.Y. and began doing air shifts at WNYR, his first experience with country radio. After a short stint at WNYR, O'Brien found other opportunities were available, especially with WWOL/Bufalo. With enough experience and initiative behind him, O'Brien worked his way up to the music director position. Then, in 1972 opportunity came knocking again; this time with WUBE/Cincinnati. Paul O'Brien has been with WUBE for more than eight years now. One and a half years ago he was appointed program director for the country station. O'Brien is glad he has stayed with country music and has no plans to change. Not only is the music more viable, "Country is where all the action is today," he says.

Metromedia Radio, Los Angeles, has announced the establishment of the KLAC/Dick Haynes Scholarship Fund for Radio Broadcasting in honor of 35-year veteran air personality Dick Haynes. The United Negro College Fund, NOSOTROS and the Service For Asian American Youth, three community service organizations involved, have designated ten scholarship recipients who will have the opportunity to attend a twelve week broadcasting course at UCLA beginning Sept. 23. The course, entitled An Introduction to the Radio Broadcast Business, will be conducted by radio station executives and Southern California Broadcasters Association members, and attended by scholarship winners: Lisa Tom, Brian Wong, Michelle Johnson, Rose Swalwell, Paula Dixon, Jimmy Espinoza, Lupe Ramos, David Madrano, James Wong and Shelly Harada.

Ernie Ashworth, recognized celebrity at the Grand Ole Opry, recently signed an agreement to purchase WTCB/Flomation, Ala. The Opry star is also co-owner of WNBG/Waynesboro, Tenn.

The Timber Bowl, near Portland, Ore. was the site for the Sept. 7 Free-Day Country Music Jamboree. The KYTE sponsored event attracted a crowd of over 30,000 country music fans who witnessed performances by Nat Stuckey and Ed Bruce.

Jack Gardiner, of Jack Gardiner Consultants died on Aug. 26 in Atlanta. Gardiner was instrumental in establishing the current programming formats for KBOX/Dallas and WPLO/Atlanta. He is survived by sons Brad, 11, and David, 7.

KLLL/Lubbock has found a new program director according to MD, Mike Corbin. John Steele will not only assume that position, but will also take on the afternoon drive shift. KLLL is still looking for a morning drive DJ. Call: (806) 763-2929. country mike

Gosewich Of CBS Canada Looks To Solve Industry Problems In The '80s

You've been a strong advocate of strict anti-piracy measures in years before the issue came to the broad attention on the industry. Have you been satisfied with the industry's performance of recent in joining to combat tape piracy?

I don't think you can ever be satisfied... until the problem no longer affects your business. People don't usually react to something unless they feel it affects their business directly. It's like people living in a residential community who aren't too concerned about the need for a traffic light in their area until there's an unfortunate accident. All of a sudden, everyone's up in arms. It's only been recently, due to the fact

Langley Named To Head CRIA Anti-Piracy Unit

TORONTO — John Langley has been named to the position of director of anti-piracy operations for the Canadian Recording Industry Assn. (CRIA). In his new position, Langley will head up the CRIA's new anti-piracy unit.

Prior to his appointment, Langley served for six years with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and was the officer in charge of the bootleg seizures in Canada earlier this year (Cash Box, March 8). The bootleg seizures, the largest in Canadian history, were part of a cooperative effort between the Mounties and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) to break up a ring allegedly operating in Ontario, Canada and Georgia in the U.S.

Langley will be based in Toronto.

that business conditions have deteriorated, that people are looking around and asking themselves why things are going bad. And, along with the bad economic times, the industry is becoming aware that (piracy) is a factor, one of the things that's causing slow business. Counterfeiting, for instance, has grown dramatically in recent years. On that particular activity, to be quite frank, I think the industry has a long, long way to go. We haven't really done anything concrete, mainly because we've had our blinders on.

We are doing work on anti-counterfeiting devices. But the pity of it all has been the industry's failure — and I find this incredible — to get together to develop a common detection device. I think that through CRIA (the Canadian Recording Industry Assn.), a committee of industry leaders should collectively decide to adopt one device, and go for it.

One area the company has shored up in the past year has been its domestic artist and repertoire division. What has been the new approach?

About a year ago, we realized we couldn't pursue that direction. We were unsuccessful in breaking Canadian acts, either here or in foreign territories. We had to trim down the roster and bring in fresh blood. More importantly, I think we now have to anticipate recouping our costs with an act in the Canadian market exclusively, and look at any international deal as gravy. That may mean the end of the big recording budget, and we may lose acts because we can't bid for them. But we can't sign an artist and hope another CBS affiliate will make them a success. From a quality standpoint,

INTERNATIONAL DATELINE

Argentina

BUENOS AIRES — The arrival of French pianist Richard Clayderman was the news of the week, with a press conference at the Sheraton and performances at the same hotel and ATC. Tonodisc, the label releasing Clayderman's waxings here, staged a giant promo campaign for the artist, one of the biggest — and certainly most unusual sellers in the past three years in this market.

Dr. Werner Vogelsang, vice president of Polygram International, and Henk Hoksbergen, vice president of Phonogram International, came to Buenos Aires for talks with the local branch's managing director, John Lear. They also met Nelida Lopez French, manager of Korn-Intersong, the publishing branch of the organization.

Luis Aguado, head of EMI-Odeon, jetted to the States to attend the WEA convention and business talks with the execs of EMI in the U.S. EMI recently closed its pressing factory here, and its singles and albums are being pressed now by CBS. Also, EMI's tape duplicating plant has been enlarged, reflecting the turning tide of local customers from discs to cassettes.

Mario Kaminsky, president of Microfon, traveled also to the States, in this case to attend the Arista Convention in New York. He planned to also visit Miami, where his company has offices, and probably Rio de Janeiro, before returning to Argentina.

RCA signed a new three-year contract with chanteur and composer Mathias, who has been developing a steady but strong career in the difficult local pop market. He is finishing an album that will be released in several other Spanish-speaking countries, whose interest in the artist increased after he was unveiled, some months ago, at the RCA International convention here.

CBS artist Maria Marta Serra Lima offered an SRO concert at a Buenos Aires downtown theater as part of a series of personal appearances through the country. Maria Marta has sold more than 20,000 copies of her latest album for a total of more than 100,000 units for her three LPs, which is very high by current standards for local artists.

Sicamericana's Mari Trini — who records for Hispavox in Spain — will come soon for another visit and TV appearances. The Spanish lark has been very successful with "Ayudame," a song included in one of the Channel 7 highly-rated soap opera programs.

TORONTO — Mail strikes, when will they end? Having had the mail restored for four days, it now appears a nationwide strike is due by the end of September. How can I rewrite press releases with such chaos?... Hot Vinyl, a new label distributed by RCA, has lured to it Patsy Gallant, late of Attic Records, who scored heavily with "From New York To L.A." and scored a Juno a couple of years back... A&M has inked two new distribution deals. The first involves a pact with Sloth Productions for whom recent A&M artist Valdy records and manages. Another release from the label will be from the Claire Lawrence Band, formerly of the Hometown Band. The good news to Canadian folk music lovers is the confirmation this past week of a combined Valdy/Shari Ulrich (now on A&M)/Claire Lawrence Band tour, bringing back the grand days of those brilliant bills featuring the artists as part of Valdy's entourage in concert. A&M has also inked a pact with Falcon Records, which includes new releases from The Brains (not the U.S. group) and, possibly, Lydia Taylor... Promoters are going to take another crack at bringing bands to the Etobicoke Olympium, a gymnasium in a Toronto suburb. An October show with XTC and a Nov. 23 date with Dire Straits are planned. Unless new scaffolding is procured, the respective groups need leave their reverb effects at home... The Good Brothers, recently signed to Solid Gold Records, are putting the finishing touches on a double album, which will include recent live material and a handful of studio tracks... Triumph, currently back from an extensive U.S. tour, has completed work on their own studio in Mississauga. Doug and the Slugs, signed to RCA, recorded its first album there. Triumph plans an extensive British and Scottish jaunt this year, and has plans for an early 1981 album release... The Teddy Boys, WEA Canada's latest signing, have finished up their first album in L.A. Entitled "On Air," the disc is scheduled for a mid-October release. The first single, the controversial "He Only Goes Out With Boys," has been issued... Kudos to the debut album from Eddie Schwartz on A&M. A signing originally to the defunct Infinity label, it has taken a year to iron out the legalities, but the music is worth the wait. Nice, easy pop, that should establish him as a premier AM staple.

INTERNATIONAL

this label, he just released a new album, "Ci Vuole Orecchio," and collaborated on Milva's new LP, "La Rossa."

Miguel Bose, with his single "Olympic Games" on the CBS label, won the 1980 edition of Festivalbar, the song contest organized by Vittorio Salvetti. Bose received the award in Verona on Sept. 6 during a concert attended by many famous Italian and foreign artists.

Dischi Ricordi has just released an album called "Grand Amore," including a compilation of evergreens recorded by artists from various labels. Among them are Adriano Celentano, Ornella Vanoni, Fred Bongusto, Enzo Jannacci, New Trolls and others. The profits of the sales of the LP will be devolved to the Italian Association for the Research on Cancer.

HILVERSUM — Mac Kissoon's new album, produced by Eddie Ouwens for CNR, is not going to be released by this company. Production costs have risen so high that CNR paid $12,500 for release from the contract. Ouwens is now trying to sell the master to other companies and will release the album himself if such fails. Recently Kissoon scored twice on the Dutch charts.

Herman van Veen, a so-called cabaretier but also filmmaker and editor of a magazine with the same name as his multifaceted organization, Harlekijn, is writing a musical. Music is scored by Hans Vermeulen, and Anita Meljer and Barry Hay have been invited to head the cast. Hay is the lead singer of Golding Earring, a group that scored in the U.S. with single "Radar Love." The Earring is celebrating its 15th anniversary. A new album, single and tour are coming up.

Bonnie St. Clair has scored a big hit with single "Pierrot." Ironically, this song never made the semi-final selection for the Eurovision Song Contest 1980. Now the record has been released in Spanish, French, English and German. St. Clair's new single is called "Bonnie Kom Je Buiten Spelen" and deals with the blond singer's childhood.

More Luv'. After a nervous breakdown (her 19th?), Patty Brard finally seems to have left the group. With her new friend Carlo Nasi, she fled for L.A., the very place to get oneself together. Manager Ter Linde and producer Hans van Hemert, co-owners of the group, have auditioned 60 new girls, but except for stand-in Ria Thiels, nobody had enough Luv'. . . . Fleet Benelux is leaving Haarlem. To cut costs (seems to be everybody's new job nowadays), the company is concentrated in Hilversum, center of the radio, TV and film business. Rob Aartse continues to head this Hansa branch, together with staff producer Shel Schellekens and promotion manager Piet van de Zanden. Also, the old trick of making the costs variable is pursued by Aartse. He has hired free lancers Frans van de Beek and Lex Counsel for press and promotion.

Pim Koopman, Holland's hottest producer, has signed with Peer Southern Music. He's heading his own unit called Horsepower Music. One of Koopman's groups is called Diesel. . . . Mireille Mathieu, vedette Francaise, has recorded Hans van Hemert's song, "Mamy oh Mamy." Five years ago, this song made the charts sung by Mouth & McNeal. Half of this duo, Willem Duin, has just finished his first solo album, produced by Will Hoebee. Duin's new single, after his smash hit "Willem," is called "Zal Ik Een Krekel Wezen" ("I'll Be A Doggone Cricket. . .")

Dutch vedette Conny Vandebos is releasing an album with 12 Janis Ian songs, "Conny Sings Janis Ian." The translations in this Phonogram product have been worked out in accordance with the writer. . . . BZN's new album, "Green Valleys," reached the gold status within three days. For Holland, this totals up to sales of 50,000 units. By now, almost 100,000 copies have been sold. BZN stands for Band Without Name. How about that, you marketing guys?

LONDON — Following the news last week that for the first time a budget price Beatles album is to be released, comes news from Virgin Records that the first album by The Who, "My Generation," will be released by them at the special price of 2 pounds 99 pence ($7.12). The album will be released in its original artwork with only a change of logo. The record has been unavailable for some years.

Available in both VHS and BETA formats are the first video offerings from Lord Grade's Movie and TV company, ITC. Released through Precision Video, the initial catalog of 13 titles make available many recent works, including To Russia With Elton, a film record of Elton John's concerts behind the Iron Curtain; The Muppet Movie, Jesus Of Nazareth, The Return Of The Pink Panther and The Eagle Has Landed. Retailing from 29 pounds 95 pence ($71.32) to 39 pounds 95 pence ($94.17), dealers are to receive one-third trade discount and another batch of releases throughout November.

CBS's British music publishing division has announced that from Oct. 1, its MD will be James Ware. Ware joins April Music from Virgin Records, where he held the post of director of legal and business affairs. Ware left private practice as a solicitor in 1978 to join Virgin.

Ervin Veg

Veg Picked For VP Post At CRI

PARIS — Ervin R. Veg has been named to the post of vice president for CBS Records International (CRI). Headquartered here, Veg will assist CBS Masterworks vice president/general manager Joseph F. Dash in managing and coordinating all aspects of CBS Masterworks' operations throughout Europe and the U.K.

Veg will be responsible for supervising CBS Masterworks' A&R, artist relations and recording plans and programs implementation and will work closely with CRI Paris marketing, CRI Continental European affiliates and CBS U.K. in a liaison capacity.

All CBS Masterworks staff in Paris and London will report to Veg.

In addition, Veg will also be responsible for all relations with European licensees, and will report to John Dolan, CRI vice president in New York.

Veg joined CRI in 1969 and has held various positions in various areas, the most recent of which was senior director, CBS Dischi in Milan, Italy.

Garrett To Appear On German TV

LOS ANGELES — Scotti Bros. recording artist Leif Garrett is scheduled to appear on the German variety TV program Hits After School, where he will perform, among other songs, "Bits And Pieces," which will be the first single to be released in Germany from his upcoming LP.

Garrett earlier this year won Germany's Golden Otto Award as Best Male Singer of 1979, marking the second consecutive year the singer has won the award.

While in Europe, Garrett is also set to tape The Leif Garrett Special for Radio Luxembourg, a program which will focus on the artist's previous work.

Gosewich Leads CBS Into The '80s

we think we now have a good, well-rounded roster. But our philosophy has been to develop artists here. You can't hang your hat on signing an artist on a hope and a prayer on what might happen in Germany, Japan or England, because conditions there aren't swift, either. The artist, artistically and commercially, must be able to make it here.

Why did the company enter the audiophile market, given the economic conditions?

For a variety of reasons. First, we recognized that direct-to-discs, which were selling for much more money than our Mastersound series, were selling steadily and were servicing a market that demanded high quality pressings. A&M of Canada had also been successful. There was a market out there, even if for a thousand albums. Thirdly, we knew we could make better records than what we make. By all indications, the quality has been given high marks, and initial sales have been good. We have also begun to custom press for some of our customers.

How successful has the "Buck Back" marketing concept been (where consumers mail an inserted card from an album to CBS for a dollar refund)?

We wanted it primarily for Canadian artists. So far, I'm not satisfied with it. I'm not being critical of retailers, but unless they begin to help make it work, we will drop the project.

THE RHYTHM SECTION

BIGGER THAN LIFE — She has already distinguished herself as an extremely skilled and progressive keyboardist, having played with the likes of Donald Byrd, Flora Purim, Sonny Rollins, Jean-Luc Ponty, Stanley Turrentine, Hubert Laws and Raoul de Souza, among others. Her solo jazz LP efforts have firmly established her as one of the brightest young stars in contemporary jazz through work such as "Prelusion," "Before The Dawn" and "Shout It Out" (all on the Fantasy/Prestige label). But since joining Elektra's artist roster, Patrice Rushen has displayed skills that will ultimately enhance her artistry. By producing all of her Elektra product — her debut LP "Patrice," the follow up "Pzazz" and her upcoming third LP, "Posh" — Patrice may be coming closer to offering the kind of music that comprises her varied background, including, classical piano, gospel, pop and R&B music. "All of the pieces are there and now they seem to be coming together," Patrice told Cash Box. In fact, fitting the pieces together is exactly how Patrice goes about producing each album project. "I give a great deal of thought to the direction of the album, writing a lot of material that could be used on the album, playing with the ideas, living with them and then preparing myself emotionally, mentally and physically for the rush of activity that follows." The team concept is producing, utilizing the creative skills and objectivity of Reggie Andrews and Charles Mims, is used, she said, since trying to meet deadlines makes it nearly impossible to carry the whole ball of wax. "You need a sounding board sometimes, and then the creativity of someone else's ear can help the music," Patrice explained. The team concept is embodied in the newly-formed company, Class Act Productions, which is an umbrella outfit for Patrice's Baby Fingers Prods. and Mims' High Brow Prods. Commenting on her production experience with the "Posh" LP, which is set for an early November release, Patrice said that after her first tour as group leader following release of "Pzazz," she had a firmer concept of what the audience liked, what they responded to best. She said the experience was a stimulant to further growth and a boost to her confidence, allowing for a smoother handling of the forthcoming LP. Patrice said that in 1981 she may lend her production skills to other artists, especially those who "require the same production attitude that I require for my own work." If so, then those artists fortunate enough to have her produce their product will end up with a package that boosts considerable music integrity.

TV-ACTIVE — Atlantic recording group The Spinners is set to croon America via the tube on a variety of programs, including The Midnight Special (Oct. 3), The John Davidson Show (Oct. 8), The Toni Tennille Show (Oct. 20) and Don Kirshner's Rock Concert (Nov. 8). The list of songs The Spinners will perform on the programs are "Now That Your Mine Again," "Cupid," "Working My Way Back To You," "I Just Want To Love You" "Then Came You" and "Pipedreams."

FROM JUMPSTREET — A new PBS-TV program titled From Jumpstreet will premiere on most PBS stations Oct. 2 and will feature the vocal jazz stylings of Al Jarreau and Carmen McRae. Produced by WETA/26, based in Washington D.C., the 13-part series will focus on black music heritage from its African roots (henceforth the show's title) to its impact on all forms of contemporary American music. The program will be hosted by singer/songwriter/playwright Oscar Brown, Jr., who will also perform on the program. Discussions and performances by black music luminaries scheduled include Stevie Wonder, Dizzy Gillespie, Roy Eldridge, Hugh Masekela, George Benson, Bo Diddley, Willie Dixon, Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee and the Wo'se Dance Theatre. Also included in each program will be film footage or still photographs tracing the contribution particular black artists, such as Billie Holiday, Louis Armstrong and Paul Robeson, have made toward the growth of black music.

HOT CROSSOVER VINYL — Polydor's Ray, Goodman & Brown II (#131 bullet), "In Search Of Rainbow Seekers" (#163 bullet) by Epic recording artist Mtume; "Worth The Wait" (#172 bullet) by MVP/Polydor duo Peaches & Herb, and "I Heard It In A Love Song" (#179 bullet) by TSOP/CBS recording artists McFadden & Whitehead were among the top debuts on the Cash Box Top 200 Album chart. But for each record, the debut impact is doubled as this week each record also jumped on the Cash Box Black Contemporary Album chart, #48 (Ray, Goodman & Brown), #53 bullet (Peaches & Herb), #58 bullet (McFadden & Whitehead) and #62 (Mtume). Donna Summer's first Geffen Records release, the single "The Wanderer," has reached #21 bullet on the Cash Box Top 100 Singles chart, but has also debut #72 bullet on the Cash Box Black Contemporary Top 100 Singles chart. Tom Browne's GRP/Arista single, "Funkin' For Jamaica (N.Y.)," has unseated George Benson's "Give Me The Night" as the #1 single on the Cash Box Black Contemporary Singles chart. Browne's single has also popped on to the Cash Box pop singles chart #96 this week.

SHORT CUTS — Warner Bros. artist Al Jarreau will become the first jazz artist to appear on the raspy ABC-TV comedy show Fridays, Oct. 3. The legal, minority and special services departments of the National Assn. of Broadcasters (NAB) recently made available a 20-minute cassette tape for broadcasters seeking assistance in complying with equal employment opportunity procedures. With purchase of the tape, titled "It's a Lot Easier Than You Think... Living With EEO," a copy of "A Broadcaster's Guide to Designing and Implementing an EEO Program" will be included. The tapes are available to member stations for five dollars and to nonmember outlets for $15.00, and can be obtained from Judy Meehan, publications manager, NAB, 1771 N Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

AMOA Announces Jukebox Nominees But No Telecast

CHICAGO — The AMOA Jukebox Awards presentation will take place at the annual AMOA banquet on Sunday, Nov. 2, in the Conrad Hilton Hotel. This has been the customary procedure for many years but was interrupted in 1979 when, for the first time, the Awards Show was telecast on NBC. AMOA, however, will not sanction or sponsor a telecast of this year's Jukebox Awards, explaining that the "demands" of the show's producer "jeopardized the Awards Program in its present form and would change it beyond recognition." Noted Leo Droste, assistant executive vice president of the association, "We have been negotiating for the past several months with a producer but his demands were such that we were unable to reach an agreement."

In a special communique to the membership, AMOA declared that it has not authorized the jukebox awards to serve as the basis for a television show and has no connection whatsoever with a survey that was sent out this summer using the association's name.

AMOA has subsequently issued its own survey to determine the winners of the 1980 jukebox awards, which are traditionally based on records' earning power in jukeboxes. Operators are asked to vote in 15 categories and, because of the obvious delay in issuance, must expedite returns to AMOA by Oct. 3.

The nominations are as follows:

Most Promising New Talent Of The Year — Air Supply (Arista), S.O.S. Band (Tabu), Christopher Cross (Warner Bros.), Johnny Lee (Asylum) and Robbie Dupree (Elektra); Pop Record Of The Year — "Against The Wind," Bob Seger (Capitol); "Shining Star," Manhattans (Columbia); "Escape," Rupert Holmes (MCA); "Daydream Believer" Anne Murray (Capitol); "The Rose," Bette Midler (Atlantic); "On The Radio," Donna Summer (Casablanca); "You May Be Right," Billy Joel (Columbia), and "Biggest Part Of Me," Ambrosia (Warner Bros.); Pop Male Artist Of The Year — Billy Joel (Columbia), Michael Jackson (Epic), Kenny Rogers (United Artists), Ronnie Milsap (RCA) and Barry Manilow (Arista); Pop Female Artist Of The Year — Linda Ronstadt (Asylum), Barbara Mandrell (MCA), Barbra Streisand (Columbia), Anne Murray (Capitol), Donna Summer (Casablanca) and Olivia Newton-John (MCA); Country Record Of The Year — "Driving My Life Away," Eddie Rabbitt (Elektra); "I Love To Lay You Down," Conway Twitty (MCA); "Sugar Daddy," Bellamy Brothers (Warner/Curb); "Coward Of The County," Kenny Rogers (United Artists), and "It's Hard To Be Humble," Mac Davis (Casablanca).

Country Male Artist Of The Year — Kenny Rogers (United Artists), Conway Twitty (MCA), Hank Williams, Jr. (Elektra), Willie Nelson (Columbia) and Eddie Rabbitt (Elektra); Country Female Artist Of The Year — Emmylou Harris (Warner Bros.), Barbara Mandrell (MCA), Crystal Gayle (United Artists), Dolly Parton (RCA) and Dottie West (United Artists); Rock Record

Gottlieb Introduces Time Play Game Concept In New 'James Bond' Pinball

CHICAGO — "James Bond," Gottlieb's "conceptually innovative pinball which introduces the element of time into flipper play," has been released for October domestic production, according to an announcement by the company's marketing vice president George R. Simkowski.

"James Bond is Gottlieb's new time machine," Simkowski stated in detailing the features of the new model, "and beating the clock adds a fantastically exciting new dimension to the industry's basic game. Further, it's not a three-ball or five-ball — the player can shoot a virtually unlimited number of balls in relation to his skill, still keeping the time span of the game within economically sound limits.

"The celebrity theme of the game has been an unflinching attention-getter during the game test period," he continued. "There have been over fifteen James Bond movies and the series continues. The character, 007, relates in the public consciousness to fast action and great excitement, the perfect tie-in for a game of this character."

At the start of the game each player is allotted 50 time units for play. These time units (not seconds) tick away as play continues and the game ends when the timer runs out. No longer limited to a rigid number of balls, the player uses his skill to add more time units as he builds high scores.

A pulsing countdown of the timer starts as soon as the first drop target or rollover is scored. Completing any target bank or rollover series stops the timer and adds three time units; completing all banks with one ball activates a ten time unit bonus feature. A special target lights when the timer reaches zero signaling "sudden-death" play which gives the player the opportunity of adding an additional 20 time units in a brief but frenzied period.

Robert W. Bloom, Gottlieb's president, pointed out that James Bond also provides the games operator with an opportunity to improve his profit picture in another way — the reduction or elimination of excessive free play. "In the coin business," said Bloom, "every operator ultimately comes to the conclusion that he is selling time as well as entertainment — and time is money.

"It has occurred to many operators of pinball machines that with play pricing currently 25 cents, giving away one-third of the play time through game replays and match leaves him with only 18 cents per play instead of a full quarter. By introducing the concept of time play which is so well accepted in video games, and the potential of an unlimited number of balls, he can experiment with the elimination of free play. This is a matter of tailoring the game to the market and the location but, in our opinion at least, this is a perfect game with which to try to upgrade the profit potential per play."

James Bond, which is Gottlieb's third model in the Star Series 80, is currently on display at Gottlieb distributors worldwide.

Record Number Of Exhibitors Set To Show At 1980 NAMA Convention

CHICAGO — A total of 201 exhibitors, including some 35 first-timers, will set a new record when the 1980 National Convention-Exhibit Vending and Foodservice Management opens in Kansas City on Oct. 23, according to G. Richard Schreiber, president of the National Automatic Merchandising Assn. (NAMA).

"With all the news stories about the effect of the economic recession, this is a healthy sign for the vending industry and shows the faith which our manufacturers and suppliers have for the near future," Schreiber commented.

The 1979 NAMA show reached the previous high with 193 exhibitors and new participation records were achieved each year since 1976 when the number of exhibitors totaled 170 companies, noted Jack Rielley, NAMA director of sales and exhibit manager.

Rielley said total net exhibit space at the Kansas City Convention Center will exceed 56,000 square feet, compared with 54,000 last year in Chicago. This will be the first time the NAMA show is being held in Kansas City.

New Products

"It will be one of our most interesting NAMA shows because of innovations in equipment and products to be exhibited by vending machine and coin mechanism manufacturers. A variety of new vendible products on display also will be of great value to industry representatives," Rielley said.

A number of manufacturers are expected to exhibit equipment featuring microprocessors and information retrieval systems. Rielley said six exhibitors will display route service and catering trucks and the show will include at least two exhibitors from overseas.

Highlights of the business meetings include a debate on "Election '80" moderated by Paul Duke, who conducts Public Television's Week In Review program, with William Rusher of the National Review and former U.S. Senator Dick Clark (D-Iowa). Other keynote speakers will be NAMA chairman Allan P. Lucht, chairman of Servomation Corp. and Leo Cherne, economist and director of the Research Institute of America, New York City.

Other convention sessions on the mornings of Oct. 23 through 26 will cover management of the selling function, initial reports on NAMA's industrywide research study, an expert on handling management stress, a discussion on the role of frozen foods in vending sales, using effective merchandising in the sale of prepared foods and how to screen out security risks in hiring practices.

All business meetings will be held at the Kansas City Convention Center, according to G.H. Tansey, NAMA director of convenment, a rather unusual 30-minute film will be shown, titled "Robbie," which focuses on a pinball tournament for handicapped people and spotlights pinball technology in a unique way.

After a coffee break, the second portion of the program will be presented leading off with a discussion on "Grass Roots Politics..." Robert Latz, attorney for Music Operators of Minnesota, will approach the subject on the state level; U.S. Congressman Carroll Campbell of South Carolina, on the national level. Seminar Committee chairman Norman Pink will serve as moderator.

AMOA has again scheduled two mini seminars for inclusion in this year's convention agenda. The first will take place on Nov. 1 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on the subject "Increasing Your Profits Through Promotion." Carol Kantor of Business Builders (Cupertino, Calif.) and Richard Hawkins of D & R Novelty (Rochester, Minn.) will preside over this session.

Jack Kerner of Melo-Tone Vending (Somerville, Mass.) and Len Hornstein of Steerwill Leisure Corp. (No. Bergen, N.J.) will discuss "New Techniques, Operations and Cash Control" at the second mini-seminar, which will be held Nov. 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Fred Collins, Jr., who is a member of the Seminar Committee, will moderate this session.

AMOA arranges a special ladies luncheon each year for the many women who annually attend the convention. This year's luncheon will be held at 12:30 p.m. on Oct. 31, in the Waldorf Room on the Conrad Hilton and the program to follow will feature The Pollays doing a repertoire of music and dialog including familiar songs from many different eras.

NAMA Exhibits Increase

tions and education.

Social events will include a special program for ladies and spouses each day, a reception sponsored by manufacturers on Oct. 24 and the annual NAMA banquet on Saturday at the Crown Center Hotel. Skiles and Henderson and the Sunshine Express will headline the entertainment at the banquet.

NAMA member firms may register free of charge at the convention. The fees for non-members are $25 per person for personnel of operating companies and $75 for non-member manufacturers for the first individual and $50 for each additional person from the same company.

AMOA Slates 22nd Convention

CHICAGO — The 22nd annual convention of the Amusement and Music Operators of Virginia will be underway Oct. 10-11 at Howard Johnson's Midtown Motor Lodge in Richmond, Va. This year's agenda will include a series of business meetings, a lineup of noted guest speakers, special events for the ladies, the annual AMOV formal banquet and a display of exhibits featuring the latest in music and games equipment plus a variety of parts and allied supplies.

Fred Collins of Collins Music in Greenville, S.C. will moderate a seminar on "Ways Of Increasing Income" and Walter Sampson of the Copyright Office in Washington, D.C. will show a slide presentation followed by a question and answer period explaining the Copyright Royalty Tribunal hearings. Other guests scheduled to address the convention are Bob Nims, president of AMOA, and Fred Granger, AMOA's executive vice president.

AMOV has arranged various special events for the ladies in attendance. These include a brunch on Saturday, a fashion show, followed by a shopping tour at Sycamore Square and afternoon refreshments at Chez Edovard Gourmet Shop.

A formal banquet and awards presentation will take place on Saturday evening. This year AMOV will present awards to the most outstanding distributor of equipment and the most outstanding distributor of allied supplies, as determined by a vote of the entire membership.

An added attraction once again this year will be an Atari service school to be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 9, the day preceding the opening of the convention. Sefco Distributing Co. will sponsor an Eight Ball Pool Tournament during the convention, as it did at the 1979 show, with prizes awarded at the banquet and a pool table given to the operator who sponsors the tournament winner.

Games Unlimited Sets Convention

CHICAGO — Games Unlimited, a consumer oriented show which is expected to draw between 25,000 and 30,000 people, will be held Oct. 23-26 at the Hartford Civic Center in Hartford, Conn. While the main focus will be on such popular home games as bridge, backgammon, monopoly, scrabble and the like, a sizeable arcade equipped with an assortment of coin-operated machines will also be featured at the convention.

Activities will include a World Championship Backgammon competition, a $10,000 Pinball Tournament and demonstrations of many of the latest board games.

Carol Kantor of Business Builders in Cupertino, California has been retained to handle p.r. and promotion of the event, which will be covered by such consumer publications as Sports Illustrated.

COX BOIN MACHINE CASH AND MUSIC: THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

CHICAGO CHATTER

At presstime the annual Rock-Ola New Product Introduction — themed "A Star Is Born" — was underway at the Marriott Lincolnshire Resort Hotel in suburban Lincolnshire, Ill. The official product unveiling and presentation was scheduled to begin first thing Monday morning (29).

NOTES FROM THE LOCAL AMOA OFFICE: Russ Mawdsley, a past president of AMOA, will moderate the second annual state association conference which is scheduled to begin in early afternoon on Oct. 30, the day preceding Expo's opening at the Conrad Hilton . . . The Ted Weems Orchestra under direction of Tommy Wills, and Capitol artist Gene Watson have been signed to appear at the AMOA banquet Nov. 2. An all star show is planned and the names of other artists will be announced as they become available . . . Individuals attending this year's seminar on Friday morning (Oct. 31) will be served free continental breakfast in the foyer of the International Ballroom at 8 a.m., just prior to the start of the seminar program — which is expected to be outstanding this year . . . As for Expo itself AMOA officials predict that the 1980 show will break all previous records for both exhibitors and visitors.

HAPPY TO REPORT that Tom Nieman, marketing vice president of the Bally Pinball Division, is back at his desk after a lengthy, not too pleasant confrontation with a nagging virus. While he's minus a few pounds from the ordeal his enthusiasm is very much intact relative to the upcoming Bally "Skateball" pin, which is on test in prototype and garnering some great feedback. Production is scheduled for the very near future — so, watch for it. Tom said Bally has some surprises in store come AMOA time but was very secretive about details — except to indicate that Bally is "promising new levels of excitement in pinball" . . . Incidentally, George Santa Maria, director of Bally-France, will once again (for about the third consecutive year) bring a contingent of French operators and wives, numbering more than 100 strong, into Chicago for the AMOA convention. In addition to covering the show, the itinerary will include a tour of the Bensenville facilities; this time around viewing it in its completed form (sans the dust and remnants of construction that were still in evidence last year at this time). From here the group will head for sunny Acapulco.

STERN ELECTRONICS, INC. president Gary Stern and Larry Siegel, president of the company's Seeburg division, returned from a two-week business tour of Europe on Sept. 27 which took them to England, Belgium, France, Germany and Switzerland.

EASTERN FLASHES

Attendance at the recently held Centuri, Inc. product presentation meeting in Miami (Sept. 12-14) read like a who's who in the distributing business — and this area of the country was very well represented. Rarely does one find under one roof, at one time, so many major distributors from all points across the entire country — and their response to the company, its executives, its products, et al, was nothing short of sensational. As more than one distributor commented, "it was a very professional presentation."

CENTURI, INC. was formerly known as Allied Leisure Industries, however, as observed by Ed Griffiths of Monroe Distributing-Cleveland, "My feeling at the meeting was that of seeing a new company . . . a company that will rank among the top in our industry." Ed was very impressed with the video products revealed and the "2001" phonograph which he describes as "an operator's dream."

ANOTHER ENTHUSIASTIC GUEST at the conclave was Tony Ula of Mondial-Springfield. The Centuri people were "perfect hosts", he said, "who went all out to accommodate everyone in attendance." The "2001" phono should do well in the marketplace, Tony added, for its competitive price and its many features.

AS STATED BY Centuri president Ed Miller when the company officially changed its name, the emphasis will be on "new horizons, new directions and new dimensions for Centuri in the decade to come" — and the presentation lent credence to this declaration.

STATE ASSOCIATION NEWS

The New York State Coin Machine Assn. will hold its annual meeting and election of officers on Sept. 30 at the Northway Inn in No. Syracuse, N.Y. Association president Millie McCarthy has urged all members to attend since some very pertinent legislative issues will be under discussion. In her latest membership mailing Millie expressed concern over the banning of various video games in Buffalo and a proposed bill to license cigarette operators and create a "division of cigarette control" in the Dept. of Taxation and Finance to handle the tax monies. She also advised that Art Seglin will be resuming service school classes at Newburgh . . . Hats off to the Illinois Coin Machine Operators Assn. for its strong stand against the installation and use of illegal gaming devices in the state of Illinois (Cash Box, Sept. 27). A resolution was adopted at the state group's annual convention this year. In condemning this type of equipment ICMOA stressed that the industry has spent "many years and large resources to win acceptance as a legitimate part of the amusement industry" and does not want to jeopardize what has already been accomplished in this regard . . . Here's something that might possibly apply to operators in some areas of the country and this information comes from the Amusement & Music Operators of Virginia. Richmond, Virginia's electrical inspector requires that all electrical equipment operated in that city must bear the UL (Underwriters Laboratory) seal of approval. As a membership service AMOV contacted the various manufacturers to determine whether or not equipment meets these particular specifications and the responses indicated that most equipment does meet with very strict fire codes and public safety acts. AMOV advised that if operators in other areas of the country would like further information on the subject they may contact the association at 1210 Whitby Road, Richmond, VA 23227.

23rd Annual Monterey Jazz Fest Hosts The Best In Tradition

The Japanese jazzmen covered a wide range of ideas in the music, though most of the selections leaned toward more straightforward fare. But with guest soloists Richie Cole and Slide Hampton, who led the orchestra during two of his original compositions, the orchestra took on new dimensions. The first Hampton composition, "Life Is More Precious Than Diamonds," was a smooth affair, with solid chops laid down by the entire band. "With The Force of Nature," dedicated to his two sons, was Hampton's finale with Tokyo Union. The music here featured a biting big band sound, so dynamic in parts that it conjured up visions of a trip through a dark, powerful forest.

With the air still sizzling and echoing the shrill riffing that closed the Tokyo Union set, pianist Joanne Brackeen brought out her trio and proceeded to display her considerable skills at improvisation. While she managed to sneak in a funky riff or two, her music remained ethereal and subdued the mood for all but the cerebral jazz set.

Freddie Hubbard and his sextet seemed to have shed most fusionist trappings on this night to engage the audience in some funky be-bop and sensitive horn stylings.

Hubbard's hot licks cut like a knife and showed that Hubbard could stand the test of time no matter what time signature he played in.

But, closing the evening, the Manhattan Transfer and their four-part harmony jazz vocals provided a mood stimulant for the entire audience. It was show time, and with a good backing band providing a well-contained sound, the Transfer had little trouble prying loose ovations. Climaxing the show with "Birdland," the Manhattan Transfer subdued their pop sensibilities to the delight of a raving audience.

Sunday Show

Then came Sunday, and more music from various student jazzists, including a second round of music from the California High School All-Star Jazz Band.

Joining that band on-stage were winners of the California High School band and combo contest. But with the All-Star band, Dr. Jack Wheaton returned to lead the band members through their paces along with some jazz stars like Freddie Hubbard, Clark Terry, Slide Hampton and Bob Brookmeyer. Of particular note as a guest soloist with the All-Stars was Mat Catingub, who is only two years removed from the All-Star band himself.

In addition to performing compositions by the guest soloists, the All-Stars also performed music by the Brecker Brothers that came fairly close to contemporary jazz sounds, although the groove remained easy listening, with typical big band arrangements.

The Kronos String Quartet and the high school all-stars teamed with maestro John Lewis for a touch of sophisticated jazz called "The Gates of Harvard."

Also on hand was the 12-member vocal group, The Fanfairs, which did a set of standards quite competently, but seemingly lacking verve in delivery.

The evening's performance on Sunday, billed as "Hamp's House Party," shifted gears and presented perhaps the best balance of the entire festival as John Ambercrombie and company offered up music that touched the same celestial territory Brackeen had defined the night before, but remained more earthbound rhythmically for more well-rounded results. On the other end of the spectrum, Helen Humes and Eddie Vinson teamed to belt out "Outskirts Of Town," a simmering piece of R&B/jazz music.

Richie Cole's Alto Madness, performing Cole's material and arrangements with his own artists were galvanizing in parts, but Cole had played most of the festival with other artists and had already displayed many of his fine chops.

But Cole did show that he could destroy chords he creates in an artistic manner, and that while he takes his music seriously, he has a great sense of humor with the proper touch of irreverence.

Big-band mainstream raised its powerful head through the heavy metal swing cum be bop of Louis Bellson's big band. And then the party's namesake hit the scene, and with Lionel Hampton on stage, the fireworks got brighter.

Hampton was indeed articulate with his music but allowed the spirit of the festival to prevail as he soloed with an abandon consistent with the moment — the festival finale.

While there were flashes of enthusiasm throughout the festival, there was a yearning for a fresher interpretation of the Monterey Jazz Festival spirit. One could hardly complain that the musicians did not give their sincerest performances, but it was evident that there was some music absent from the affair. But after weighing everything, Monterey Jazz Festival remains a class act.

Handshake's main goals will be to break European artists in the U.S. and Canada, a feat which he said "has not been done in a long time." Alexenburg said he was not necessarily referring to artists signed to the Hansa label, although he said that Handshake has first option on its product for the U.S. and Canada. "Our aim, of course, is to sign artists for the world. But that's not to say that we wouldn't sign an act for the U.S. and Canada if those were the only territories available."

Underscoring the "territorial flexibility" of the label's releases, Alexenburg said that Handshake was negotiating with an artist who will be signed worldwide but whose product will be released initially in Europe. "That's the beauty of my partnership with the Meisels," he commented. "Because they live in Europe and I live in the U.S., we have an international perspective when we listen to new music together. In this situation, we're able to ask ourselves, 'Is the act right for France, for Italy, for Germany, or for the U.S.?'"

Clarifying Ariola International's role in Handshake, Trudy Meisel explained that the company is "nothing more than an investor, and has nothing to do with Handshake's operations or signings." She declined to give details about Handshake's funding, but said that the figure "is very substantial, many millions more" than the previously published trade report of $2 million.

Handshake has no fiscal projection for its first year, she said, adding that "it's going to be difficult to make money unless a miracle happens." The label's first record, the "My Guy/My Girl" duet by Amii Stewart and Johnny Bristol, is positioned at #62 this week in its sixth week on the Cash Box Top 100 singles chart.

Viability of P&D Deal

Alexenburg said that Handshake never really considered the establishment of an independent distribution network for the U.S. "When we formed this label, we looked around the country to see what distribution possibilities would be available to us in the coming years. And frankly, I couldn't be sure of the future of the independent distributor, although I hope they are always successful because I love their thinking and the ideas they come up with. Our goal, then, was to strike a relationship with a major corporation wherein we could devise our own strategies, but didn't have to worry about our pressing, or getting paid. And while we were contemplating this, Dick Asher (deputy president and chief operating officer of the CBS Records Group) called to ask what our distribution plans were. We struck a deal from there."

"The concept of a pressing and distribution pact was something that attracted us," said Peter Meisel. "When somebody is funding you, as in a custom label arrangement, they take a bigger piece back. In our situation, we bear a greater risk, but we're also in the position to make more money if we're successful."

Handshake will not expand its staff of 12, said Alexenburg, "until we expand our roster, which will occur when I expand the income." Until then, the label will continue to utilize independent promotion representatives to work its releases, he said.

Copyright Tribunal Awards Bulk Of 1978 CATV Royalties To ASCAP

propriated 54% of the approximately $650,000 of the copyright royalties allocated to the music organizations by cable TV systems to ASCAP, while BMI received 43% and SESAC three percent.

Tribunal member Frances Garcia said the CRT based its decision "on the theory that the marketplace should control and that right now the market is such that ASCAP receives the largest revenues. Also, on the survey that they gave us on their performance credits that they disperse, it showed that they have about 68% of the performances that are played on local television."

The CRT, which had one year to analyze the situation, reached a decision after reviewing the following factors: (1) the total license fee revenues of the performing rights societies, (2) the performing rights societies share of 1978 local television license rates, (3) the performing rights societies share of 1978's television and rates of performance credits, (4) the performing rights societies share of 1978 jukebox royalty fees, (5) the performing rights societies share in 1978's public broadcasting proceedings of the tribunal in voluntary licenses with educational institutions.

"ASCAP is pleased that the Tribunal recognizes that the ASCAP repertoire is worth substantially more than BMI's," said ASCAP general counsel Bernard Corman. "But, we think that the minority view is much closer to the numbers than the majority. There are serious deficiencies as we view it in the majority's reasoning. There seems to be no basis for the particular numbers that they arrived at. Two of the five factors that they based their decision are clearly erroneous."

Tribunal members Clarence James and Frances Garcia, representing the minority, would have given ASCAP 60%, BMI 37% and SESAC three percent, as they felt, as did ASCAP, the evaluating factors concerning television and rates of performance credits, as well as jukebox royalty fees were irrelevant to the proceedings.

While BMI had hoped for an even split between ASCAP and themselves with a proposal of 47.5% (BMI), 47.5% (ASCAP) and five percent (SESAC), they were nevertheless pleased with the CRT's decision.

"It's less than we're entitled to, but I'm not surprised at the outcome," said Alan Smith, vice president of licensing at BMI. "However, it does represent a major move forward for BMI. It moves us a lot closer to government recognition of the fact that we are on a virtual par with ASCAP in local television."

All of the music organizations were un-animously disappointed with CRT's findings in Phase 1 (Cash Box, Aug. 23), which resulted in the formula that left the performance rights societies with 4.5% of the $650,000 available. And although ASCAP and BMI were somewhat in agreement with the outcome of Phase II (Cash Box, Aug. 30), SESAC, hoping for a 45% ASCAP, 45% BMI and 10% SESAC split, was displeased with all phases of the CRT's analysis and decision process.

"We certainly were disappointed," said SESAC attorney Al Ciancimino. "We had asked for 10% and don't think that we deserve as little as three percent. Even BMI had recommended that five percent go to SESAC. So the Tribunal has disregarded two out of the three organizations recommendations."

Pending an appeal, the five member board's decision is final.

While the Tribunal's decision applies only to 1978's statistics, many close to the situation believe that it sets a precedent for future allocations of cable TV royalties.

Optimism Prevails At L.A. NARM Meet

campaign slogan and logo in a variety of forms (decals, print ads, record jackets) are currently in use throughout Canada, Australia, Germany, Japan and the U.K. Approximately 90% of NARM's membership is participating in the drive, Gorlick said.

Another NARM priority for the upcoming year is the formulation of local chapters. John Houghton, executive vice president at Licorice Pizza, has been tapped as the director in the L.A. area.

Local Chapters

"The real challenge of the local chapter will be getting past competition and working together for common goals," said Houghton. "Communication in the industry will be vastly improved with feedback from a local group."

Houghton went on to say that the chapter's strength would be in its numbers and that it would give retailers a chance to play a part in community activities as well as alert each other to such problems as store theft and record piracy. The city chapters will also consist of "How To" sessions, and some proposed themes for meetings are "How To Take Advantage Of The Small Business Administration Loan" and "How To Lay Out And Design Newspaper and Store Ads."

Other plans that NARM will be instituting in the next year are a pending checkbook guarantee program, which will allow NARM retail members to pay a lower rate for service, and an SBA program, which will allow members to obtain loans easier.

burning in the '70s with some excellent Willie Mitchell-produced albums for Hi. Most recently, Clay has become the focus of an incredibly eclectic '60s soul revival in Japan, where no less than three album's worth of his material are currently in catalog. Finally, O.V. Wright is the most southern rooted of the three and his records for both Peacock and Hi represent some of the deepest soul of the '60s and '70s, as well as some of the best examples of Willie Mitchell's great Hi ensemble sound of the '70s. We offer our heartiest congratulations to Tramp's owner Terry Dunn for having the commitment, tenacity, and courage to pursue these acts, none of whom have a major label affiliation, or any kind of hype machine, behind them, and who can be found in few of the libraries of this town's "rock" radio stations. In fact, you may see East Coastings handing out flyers for the gigs as our measure of appreciation.

STILL SNIFFING — Portrait is set to sign Melanie... Danceteria will present Material on Oct. 2. When we last saw the group, we thought their lyrics were weak, but found the playing of guitarist Sonny Sharrock to be the most exciting we've heard this year... our own Dead Kennedys, whose Cherry Red (UK) album, "Fresh Fruit for Rotting Vegetables" has entered the British album charts at #23, have already been banned from gigs on their current UK tour because of their name... Takoma Records has signed the Duke Robillard Trio, and Dr. John's New Orleans running buddy, Ronnie Baron. The latter will record with N.O. tenor titan, Lee Allen... Beat (UK) has released 20 Elvis Costello tracks in cassette configuration only called "Ten Bloody Marys and Ten How's Your Fathers"... After sustaining the suicides of their respective lead singers, Joy Division has changed its name to New Order while the Ruts now call themselves Ruts, D.C.

promo videos, among which are Queen's "Play The Game," three tracks from the Lucifer's Friends LP, "Sneak Me In," Planet group American Noise's "Running Through The Night" and "Take It All," The Korgis' "Everybody's Got To Learn Sometime," Robbie Dupree's "Steal Away" and "Hot Rod Hearts," Joni Mitchell's "Why Do Fools Fall In Love," Sue Saad and The Next's "Prisoner" and The Pointer Sisters' "He's So Shy."

dbx DECODING — Newton, Mass.-based dbx, Inc. has released digital dbx-encoded version of the Varese Sarabande classical recording "Boy With Goldfish," in addition to a digital dbx disc of Tim Weisberg's Nautilus recording "The Tip of the Weisberg." The Weisberg LP carries a suggested retail price of $18 and both are available at selected record retail outlets and dbx hi-fi retailers.

HALF-SPEED MASTERED DOOBIES — Nautilus recordings will release its second half-speed mastered Superdisc of a Doobie Brothers LP in January. The multi-platinum and Grammy Award winning "Minute By Minute," which features the hit single, "What A Fool Believes," follows "The Captain And Me" which was released as a Nautilus Half-Speed Mastered recording in February. "Minute By Minute" will be mastered at JVC Cutting Center in Los Angeles and pressed on imported Teldec vinyl at KM Recorders in Burbank.
