A Little Bundle Of Dynamite

The new three-inch CD has burst upon the scene with a very large bang. A&M, Columbia and the WEA companies all seem to be committed to making this format a leader in future projects. Sony will be introducing the combination 3"/5" CD player in the near future.

The format is undergoing a great deal of scrutiny for it's real niche in the marketplace. A three-inch compact disc can include up to twenty minutes of music. Will the format be the successor to the 7" vinyl single? It is a maxi-single? Is it an EP? Should it contain bonus tracks not available in any other format? Should it have three cuts, four, even five? We believe that the answer to all these questions should be yes. It should be all these things and more - each 3" CD should be customized to the act and marketing plan. So should the price.

Will it be $3.49, $5.98, $2.98? With a manufacturing price in the neighborhood of $1.00, it will be difficult for the manufacturers to view the 3" CD as strictly a singles vehicle. Manufacturers are going to have to be creative in both usage and pricing of this exciting new development.

Portability is another consumer benefit - with a player that fits in the palm of your hands. A disc containing up to twenty minutes of perfect sound quality music that is so small you can fit twenty or so in a shirt pocket: it's party time anytime.

The 3" CD, we like it a lot.

CEMA To Distribute Chameleon

LOS ANGELES - Capitol/EMI-Manhattan/Angel (CEMA) has signed an exclusive long-term distribution and manufacturing agreement with the Chameleon Music Group. The announcement was made by Dennis White, President of CEMA.

The agreement with CEMA will primarily involve the Chameleon Records Label, although CEMA will have the option to distribute top-sellers from any of Chameleons 17 self-distributed labels. The first release through CEMA will be the Bonedaddy's "A-Koo-De-A" and the Buddy System's debut LP, both to be released March 29th.

Chameleon is headed by President Stephen Powers, who was formerly Manager of A&R at Capitol Records assuming his current position in 1987. "We have our own in-house distribution, and we believe in independent distribution, but there are certain things that the majors can do that we can't. We're starting to record much more commercial records, possible CHR hits - more mainstream music. AOR and CHR radio, particularly on the rock side, do not give enough credibility to the independents."

Powers was responsible for bringing in and signing Rhino to Capitol while he was there, as well as Cinema and DB.

"I was pleased that Capitol had set up the Distributed labels department, headed by Dan Davis, the Vice President of that area. I saw they had an understanding of what it took to make it work for an independent label in the marketplace."

Scorpions To Rock U.S.S.R.

NEW YORK - German heavy metal band The Scorpions will have a very busy spring and summer. With a new album, Savage Amusement, due shortly for PolyGram, they're set for a heavy tour schedule that includes this summer's headbanger's Woodstock roadshow, the Van Halen Monsters of Rock nine hour extravaganza. But first they'll play ten concerts in the Soviet Union, five in Leningrad and five in Moscow, April 16 to April 29. Lead singer Klaus Meine says, "It's a new adventure. And that's what rock and roll is all about."

The Scorpions, who have three platinum and two gold albums in the U.S., will be the first major hard rock act to play the Soviet Union, where a heavy metal underground that has flourished for years has recently won governmental sanction. With the advent of glasnot, several native Soviet hard rock groups have gone on the government payroll (the ultimate in corporate sponsorship), and in Moscow the authorities have approved the establishment of an official heavy metal fan club.

The Monsters of Rock festival, on which the Scorpions receive second billing, will begin a month after the Scorpions' U.S.S.R. tour is completed, on May 27. The nine hour show includes Dokken, Metallica, and hot youngbloods Kingdom Come.

Definitive Clapton Set Due April 18

NEW YORK - Crossroads, a 73-track retrospective of Eric Clapton's 25-year recording career, is set for April 18 release by PolyGram in a six-LP, four-CD/cassette package. The set features digitally-remastered music from every phase of Clapton's career: the Yardbirds, John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, Cream, Blind Faith, Derek & The Dominos and his solo work, including previously-unreleased tracks. The package, which has been in the works for two years, will carry a suggested list of $44.95 for the LPs and cassettes and $59.95 for the CDs.

LESS TWIST AGAIN - That's Chubby Checker himself (dressed in the checkered outfit, natch) showing the Fat Boys how to do the twist. The Fat Boys' rap remake of Chubby's 1960 (and 1962) hit will be released Memorial Day. Expect the fifth Fat Boys LP from Tin Pan Apple/PolyGram this June. ## Sundance Hosts Movie Music Fest

LOS ANGELES - At a star-studded event at UCLA's Royce Hall on March 22nd, the Sundance Institute presented "A Night Of Great Movie Music" honoring some of the greatest film composers in the history of film scoring. This was the first LA event for Sundance, an arts organization founded by Robert Redford. It was co-sponsored by ASCAP, BMI, and UCLA Extension. The concert raised money to benefit the preservation of motion picture music, a service of the Sundance Foundation.

The program featured a wide range of selections from films from Spartacus, to Star Trek. A 90-member symphony orchestra was conducted by a variety of esteemed composers and conductors. Those conducting their own featured compositions included Georges Delerue (Day For Night), Maurice Jarre (Witness), Henry Mancini (Touch Of Evil), and David Raksin (Laura). Other selections were conducted by David Newman.

Compositions were often played in juxtaposition to the actual footage shown on a screen overhead. This was done to especially good effect with Alex North's title theme for Spartacus and with Bernard Herrmann's music to a fox hunt scene in Hitchcock's Marnie.

On hand to introduce the selection and conductors were Robert Redford, Kirk Douglas, Tippi Hedren, Charlton Heston and Kathleen Turner. Redford, President of the Sundance Foundation said, "When composers want to perform their film works, it's often not possible. Many printed scores have been improperly stored, and in some cases tossed out. Of course the music will always remain as part of the film itself, but as I think we're seeing tonight, there's a very deserving place for this music in a concert hall."

The first score reconstructed by Sundance is Max Steiner's music for The Searchers, which was performed as the finale to the concert.

LEONARD COHEN WINS DUSTIN HOFFMAN LOOKALIKE CONTEST - Only joking. What Leonard actually won was a CBS Records International Crystal Globe Award, which signifies overseas sales of his albums in excess of 5 million units. ## Sylvia Rhone Named Senior VP Of Atlantic

LOS ANGELES – Atlantic Records Vice Chairman Sheldon Vogel announced that Sylvia Rhone has been promoted to Senior Vice President Of Atlantic Records. Rhone had been Vice President/General Manager of Black Music Operations for the company since August 1986. She joined Atlantic in June 1985 as Director of National Black Music Promotion.

Atlantic Chairman Ahmet M. Ertegün said, "Since joining the Atlantic family less than three years ago, Sylvia has proved to be a tremendously valuable member of our executive team. Under her expert guidance, our commitment to black music has seen a revitalization marked by innovation, imagination, and freshness. This is a well-deserved promotion for a most gifted woman."

Also commenting on her appointment was Doug Morris, Atlantic President. "Sylvia brings to her new post a rare combination of talents, from A&R to promotion to marketing. Her recent success with such artists as LeVert, The System, Miki Howard, Gerald Albright, and others, heralds the beginning of a new wave of Atlantic achievements in black music, with artist development as the keystone. I heartily congratulate Sylvia on her new appointment."

Sylvia Rhone

Irving Berlin's 100th Birthday Gala

NEW YORK – ASCAP and Carnegie Hall are joining forces to honor American pop composer Irving Berlin on his 100th birthday, May 11, 1988. The event, which will be televised later on CBS TV, will feature Leonard Bernstein, Willie Nelson, Frank Sinatra and Isaac Stern, among others.

The concert will be followed by a dinner-dance at the New York Hilton. Tickets are priced at $1,000 for the concert and dance, and $250 – $75 for the concert only. Proceeds go to benefit the ASCAP Foundation and Carnegie Hall. Tickets go on sale Easter Sunday, April 3.

Berlin was a founding member of ASCAP in 1914. He wrote the words and music to a score of standards including "White Christmas," "God Bless America," and "There's No Business Like Show Business." Berlin has officially authorized the tribute concert.

Jane Fonda, Lorimar Set Record

LOS ANGELES – Start Up With Jane Fonda, a new light-workout tape, has set the all-time record for initial video shipments at a whopping 281,659 units. The announcement was made by Jerry Gottlieb, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Lorimar Home Video. The previous record was held by another Fonda video, Jane Fonda's Low Impact Workout at 320,000 units.

The video was designed to be more than a warm-up and less than a full workout. It is for those who are reluctant to invest in the regular library tapes, or for those who want a light exercise, stretch or stress reduction program. This is an extra video, not a part of the regular Fonda Fitness Library.

Lorimar carefully designed the video and marketing strategy to attain this wholesale record. The video itself satisfies a niche for a toning, body awareness, flexibility, balance and posture video that Fonda's line did not have. It differs from the library enough so as not too conflict with it, yet at the same time promotes and introduces it. It has a lower price ($19.95) that gives many more retailers a chance to carry a Jane Fonda workout video. "Start Up..." offers a $5 rebate towards any one of the full workout tapes in the Fonda Fitness Library. Additionally, there is a $2 proof of purchase rebate offer that allows the company to notify the consumer directly about new tapes in the Library. And finally, Lorimar instituted a time limit on wholesale orders, as well as a no-return policy.

Noel Gimbel, President and Chief Operating Officer, Lorimar Home Video said, "It's a tribute to Fonda's

Start-Up With Jane Fonda – This is a special limited edition exercise routine created by consumer demand which offers two rebates: $2 back on "Start Up" and $5 back on the purchase any one of the regular 7 Jane Fonda Fitness videos.

popularity, the quality of her product, the 'sell-through power' of the line and the sales/marketing efforts that even with a no-return policy we can far outdistance the direct competition."

Lorimar is planning to support the video with a national ad and promotion campaign that ties in with distributors at the regional and local level.

Man In The Mirror's Autobiog Due April 20

NEW YORK – Moonwalk, the much-anticipated autobiography of Michael Jackson, is set for an April 20 publication date by Doubleday. The 304-page book will carry a price tag of $15.95 and an introduction by Jacqueline Onassis, the Doubleday editor who, along with editor Shaye Areheart, acquired the book in 1984. Areheart worked on the book with Jackson.

"I don't really do interviews," says Jackson, "and this book is my way of speaking to the world. It's my story: the way I feel about things, the way I see life, the way I see what has happened to me and how things have affect me."

"Moonwalk will give Michael's many fans and admirers a chance to understand the inspirational genius behind one of the most popular entertainers of our time," says Doubleday president and publisher Nancy Evans. "What's most appealing about Michael's book is the warmth, professionalism, and intelligence that comes through so strongly on every page."

According to Doubleday, Jackson, in the book, "talks openly about the crushing isolation of his fame, his plastic surgery, and the bizarre and unfair rumors that surround him."

FEATURE SPOTLIGHT

Tonio K.

By Tom De Savia

LOS ANGELES – He has been called everything from "the angriest young man in rock" to "the funniest serious songwriter in America." He has had albums top critic's lists everywhere, yet, until now, the mainstream audience had failed to discover his talent. He has been responsible for the most misunderstood song on the radio ("I'm Supposed To Have Sex With You"). He is an inspirational artist who can write incredibly infectious tunes filled with sarcasm and humor. He is Tonio K., and it looks like he's here to stay.

A&M/What have recently released Tonio K.'s (a.k.a. Steve Krikorian) latest album, Notes From The Lost Civilization, and it is quickly proving successful at both radio and retail levels. Mysteriously long ignored by mainstream radio, Tonio K. is finally receiving sufficient recognition due to both the LP and its first single, "Without Love."

"I really consider my music, on this record in particular, literate urban surf music [laughs]," Tonio K. recently told Cash Box when asked to describe his sound. "It's got a pretty gritty bottom and a lot of jangly non-professional guitars over the top and it tends to be smarter rather than dumb."

During the early 1970's, Tonio K. began his career performing with an incarnation of Buddy Holly's Crickets (which boasted an impressive alumni that included guitarist Albert

TALENT ON STAGE

ASCAP Celebrates Frederick Loewe

SHUBERT THEATRE, N.Y.C. – "He was very lyric, he was driving, he had pace, he had an animal ferocity, he had robustness; and it was all in the melody." So said legendary choreographer Agnes DeMille about composer Frederick Loewe, who died in February at the age of 83, and who was the subject, on a clear, crisp spring afternoon of a celebration – free and open to the public – at New York's Shubert Theatre. Loewe, who, along with his partner, lyricist Alan Jay Lerner, wrote such Broadway hits as My Fair Lady, Gigi, Camelot, Brigadoon and Paint Your Wagon – was celebrated with warm reminiscences and anecdotes but, most of all, was celebrated with his beautiful music.

Julie Andrews, who starred in the Broadway versions of My Fair Lady and Camelot, sang "Say a Little Prayer Tonight," a song from Gigi that was originally written for Eliza Doolittle and cut out-of-town from My Fair Lady. Richard Harris, the King Arthur of the screen version of Camelot, delivered a hilarious account of his travails in getting to the Shubert, and then half-spoke/half-sang a moving version of "Camelot."

Skitch Henderson played the original, music-boxlike waltz-time version of "I Could Have Danced All Night," which became a two-step by the time it reached the stage. Richard Kiley belted "They Called the Wind Maria," Jack Jones sang "On the Street Where You Lived," Robert Goulet – after depositing a wad of gum on the piano – sang "If Ever I Would Leave You," his hit from Camelot. And Betty Buckley sang a beautiful version of "Almost Like

Being in Love."

Chatting about Loewe's famed Viennese warmth and genility were Herman Levin, an original producer of My Fair Lady; Kitty Carlisle Hart, the widow of Moss Hart, who directed My Fair Lady and Camelot, and a long-time friend of Loewe's; the ageless DeMille, who choreographed Brigadoon; and ASCAP president Morton Gould, who called Loewe "an American treasure" and "a genius."

ASCAP was responsible for the tribute, as they have been for similar tributes to other departed musical giants from their roster, and it was a lovely hour-and-a-half on Broadway. The best that can be said about it, and about the music of Frederick Loewe, is that the audience left the theatre humming. With Lerner and Loewe, of course, the audience always left the theatre humming.

BIG HAIR WAS EVERYWHERE!!! - We were suspicious when Epic's Hanna Bolte and Ivan Bodley invited us down to a mystery reception at Antonio's, a stylish Mexican restaurant located on L.A.'s stylish Melrose Ave. Our curiosities grew when, amongst the crowd of inquisitive reporters, there stood members of Roxanne, Fifth Angel, Lion and Quiet Riot. The scent of metal was definitely in the air...

We were informed that a special announcement would be made sometime during the evening... the crowd grew relentless with anticipation. The night rolled on, then, after a brief announcement of current and upcoming Epic product, in walked Ozzy Osbourne and new guitarist Zakk Wylde. Points West soon discovered that Osbourne is currently recording in L.A. with an album predicted for September release: In addition, the madman plans to announce tour dates soon for this summer.

Upon exiting the eatery, everyone in attendance received a grab-bag of rockin' goodies which included several cassette tapes, a gen-u-ine Quiet Riot mask, a Sanctuary T-shirt, a couple 'o albums and several Epic band press photos suitable for framing. I love my job.

GONNA WASH THAT BAND RIGHT OUT OF MY HAIR - No, the guys surrounding Epic's Jean Johnson are not relatives of Cousin It of "Adams Family" fame... in reality, they are members of the label's recording act Sanctuary. Rumor has it that if the band's newly released debut album, Refuge Denied, goes gold, Johnson will get hair extensions. Said Johnson, "Mike Bone is crazy for thinking about shaving his head... hair is a beautiful thing to have, and besides my metal men are much better looking than Sinéad."

THINGS... - Caught Enigma recording artists and New York natives The Broadcasters during their first-ever L.A. appearance at North Hollywood's Palomino the other night thanks to a suggestion from the label's Tom Cording. ### GAR ROBERTSON

MÁS

Gar Robertson

GAR ROBERTSON - Points West recently received a copy of Gar Robertson's self-released 12" EP, MÁS, and found it quite good. We caught up with Robertson to discuss the EP and his band: "We put [the EP] out in January. 'Putting it out' is kind of a misnomer in a way, because it's not on a label... it's functioning as a demo more than anything else. It's worked well, I think there's a real good chance of it being picked up by an independent label. So far the response has been really great, people really like it. It represents the sound of the band real well."

Robertson's band is comprised of: Robertson, vocals, guitars; Carl Byron, keyboards; Jean McClain, vocals; Wally Ingram, drums, percussion; and Tad Wadhams, bass. MÁS was entirely written and produced by Gar Robertson, engineered by Guy Roche and mastered by Bernie Grundman.

You can see the band perform live at Madame Wong's on Friday, April 15. For more information on the band, contact (213) 394-5959. Stay tuned.

BE STILL MY BEATING HEART, DEPT. - ...What is this we hear about Nick Lowe inking a deal with Warner Bros. records and recording an entire album with Dave Edmunds producing?

HEY!!! - Let's hear it for my "rocker pal," Doomer, who recently landed a gig as Robbie Robertson's personal assistant. Kudos, Doomer.

Until next week.

Jesse Johnson

By Julius Robinson

LOS ANGELES - "When you sell an album, you should give a part of yourself, something real," says A&M recording artist Jesse Johnson. And real he is, spurning sequencers, playing down parts live on to tape. His new album Every Shade Of Love is a spirited dance oriented record with a human feel, replete with Johnson's creative funk and distinctive vocals.

Jesse Johnson, guitarist, singer, writer and busy producer is an alumnus of that great Minneapolis band, The Time, which yielded such talents as Morris Day, the production team of Jam and Lewis, and Prince. Johnson went on to make three albums for A&M, his debut album Jesse Johnson's Revue was the 4th debut gold album in A&M's history.

As a producer and songwriter, Johnson has made quite a splash, writing songs creating sounds for Da Krash, Sue Ann, Clarence Clemons, Vanity, Debbie Allen and many others. For all his production skills, Johnson still believes in spontaneity on record, especially for his solo efforts.

"On my new album we went for a lot of one-take stuff. I didn't want to get it perfect, where you'd say 'well produced album' but it left you cold. I did a lot of one take vocals, cause when your not thinking you sometimes get your best results. My first two albums didn't have enough emotion. This is also refreshing because I'm actually playing."

"Love Struck", the single and first cut off the album is a funky gem featuring Johnson's searing guitar work. Johnson is heavily influenced by Jimi Hendrix in his playing and writing. "One of the reasons I don't play a lot of notes is because of Jimi. He was interested in playing a few notes well, with a unique sound over the top."

The album is a collection of love songs. Says Jesse, "Each song is a different phase of love. Each song is a page in one book. For example 'Love Struck' is about the first phases of love. 'So Misunderstood', it's about how sometimes it's better if people don't try so hard to understand love. People will watch a color TV and enjoy it without knowing how it works. Love and relationships should be looked at like that."

In "Color Shock" Johnson touches on racial suspicion in the US. "When I tour I see all kinds of people that are into my music, all races, colors. The song is about all those who say that other races are moving them out of their spot, that job opportunities are lost. But people have the right to try to make it. That's what the song's about."

Jesse Johnson feels that it is unfair to create categories in music. "To me AC/DC is more soulful than almost anything! I've always been an AC/DC fan, I've always thought their grooves were just as funky as anything I'm doing today."

In light of his diverse influences, Johnson remains uncompromising in aesthetic approach to his LP's. "I never go into the studio and say I want this to be a top 40 smash. If you do that you're being a serious phony, you're trying to fool people with your music. If I get on pop radio with so-called black music, fine."

"I'll never do the same thing twice," says Johnson. "People say give me a song like 'Crazy', it was a real hot song. But I'll never do that 'cause I don't want to be on stage playing three songs that sound exactly the same. The one thing about the sixties is that if you pull out 20 albums and play them, none of them would sound the same. We don't ask people to people to be individuals anymore."

Lee). "That's a little misleading, it's not like I was in The Crickets when they were really The Crickets," he explained. "When I first came to L.A. my first pro gig when I was a kid was with them. It was a trip being in that band, it was like being in this four or five-dimensional rock history lesson. Those guys have been around forever, they know everyone in the music business and all kinds of people have been in that band. The point of me being in the band was that I was supposed to be the hot young singer/songwriter; all these guys were seasoned vets and I was 'the kid.'" Some years after leaving the band, he found himself with a publishing deal that later evolved into a recording contract.

Many may not be aware of the fact that Tonio K. has released four albums previous to Notes, beginning with 1979's Life In The Foodchain (Fu Moon/Epic) and continuing with Amerika (Arista), La Bomba (Capitol) and Romeo Unchained, the later h

Blue Rodeo

By Joe Levy

HIMNO POPI - Coati Mundi (r), the former 12 year old genius and former Kid Creole cohort, is shown with his producer Hubert Eaves III celebrating the release of his Sire 12-inch "El Coco Loco (So So Bad)" at Manhattan's Tunnel. Mundi is the music consultant for the Cinemax special A Reggae Session, which will feature Grace Jones, Sly & Robbie, Chrissie Hynde, and Mr. Mundi himself.

NEW YORK - Blue Rodeo's debut album, Outskirts, is an awfully listenable collection of country-garage pop songs. Back home in Canada, Outskirts has gone platinum, and the single "Try," a smooth soul ballad, was a #3 hit. Last month Atlantic released the record in the U.S., and last week Cash Box got to talk with Greg Keelor who shares songwriting, singing, and guitar chores with Jim Cuddy.

Cuddy and Keelor met in back in high school. "I didn't play the guitar in those days. Jim did a bit, but not too much. It wasn't 'til after high school that he started playing a lot more. And then the circle of friends that he was in, you know, everybody was playing guitar and drinking tequila, and I thought that looked like a pretty good lifestyle." So Keelor learned a few chords, and when he and Cuddy got their first electric guitars they also formed their first band, The Hi-Fi's.

In 1977 The Hi-Fi's released an independent single which got some airplay in Toronto. It was successful enough that Keelor and Cuddy decided to move to New York City to seek fame and fortune. "The reason why we wanted to go to New York was sort of because of all the rock mythology. Or not even rock. Everyone from Leonard Cohen to Dylan Thomas to Sid Vicious has puked in the streets of New York City. We just wanted to go through that sort of thing; you hope the muse will talk to you in the same sort of way. That's always sort of there about New York."

"It was in New York that Keelor and Cuddy honed their craft. Experience is the best teacher and all that, and it was the city around them and the songwriters it produced that opened them up to the poetry of the quotidian: "New York was so important because I heard so many songwriters who were just writing about things very real and not necessarily, you know, huge events. But with closer inspection of something that is considered everyday, it becomes universal. So I think that it just inspired us to be a little more true in our songwriting, rather than trying to pop-i-cise everything or trying to write hooks. Instead of writing hooks, we started writing songs."

Keelor and Cuddy moved back to Toronto in '84 ("New York's a great place if you've got lots of money," say Keelor, "but if you're poor in New York, you're really poor"). They started working with drummer Cleave Anderson and bassist Brazil Donovan, the rhythm section from the Sharks, a Toronto band. Keyboard player Bobby Wiseman, the brother of a New York friend and an accomplished jazz improviser, completed the Blue Rodeo lineup with the warm sound of ancient acetone organ.

Outskirts leads off "Heart Like Mine," a compelling rocker that mixes the Everly Brothers with an organ riff as ear catching as, say, the one from "Double Shot Of My Baby's Love." It's a familiar but fresh sound. "We're sort of all over the place," says Keelor. "One reviewer said it was kind of like a head-on collision between Elvis Costello and the Byrds, and I thought that was pretty apt. Not that we sound like that, but we draw on those two schools a bit." By turns charming and gritty, Outskirts is the sort of joyful, clever record that has depth. It's an auspicious debut from a talented band.

first for A&M/What. He also made some impressive noise at Top 40 radio last year via "I'm Supposed To Have Sex With You," a tune found on the Chrysalis soundtrack to the film Summer School. "The song was incredibly popular last summer," Tonio recalled. "It was top ten and top five in various areas around the country." The song, a tongue-in-cheek ode to teen peer pressure, gained the artist an audience previously unfamiliar with his work.

His music is all at once filled with humor and inspiration, sarcasm and conviction. He is open about his spirituality, but by no means is a 'gospel artist' in the traditional sense of the term, and by no means is his music inaccessible. "I've made this joke before: I'm not in the least ashamed of the gospel, but I am ashamed of almost all gospel music [laughs]. There's some real garbage out there. I mean there's a big demographic - there's garbage everywhere, from new age to gospel to country to pop. There's plenty of garbage to go around.

"I've actually done okay in spite of the fact that everyone seems to see me as an underdog and very culty and everything," he concluded. "I would love to see [my career] be a lot more successful for two reasons: first of all because that would mean I'm having this dialog with more people and, secondly, it would be nice to be financially secure into the future... everyone wants to be successful. I mean, we don't do this to continually fail or be frustrated. Or maybe some people do - I just don't know them [laughs]."

FIRST AMMENDMENT UPDATE - Billy Idol, Run-DMC, Lou Reed, Public Enemy, and LL Cool J have all made music that in one way or another relates to violence and its effects on the soul, and all have recently moved to maintain their right to do so by declaring their support for Music In Action. MIA is the self-described music industry anti-censorship group that lobbies against the PMRC. The anti-censorship petition Music In Action has been circulating has attracted over 12,000 signatures. No word on when it will be delivered to the FCC and PMRC; MIA is still busy collecting signatures.

CAPITAL GETS DEF - Afrika Bambaataa, hip hop innovator and Zulu Nation leader, has been signed by Capitol. BAM follows Mantronix as the label's second hip-hop signing. His new album, The Light, features guest shots by George Clinton, Nona Hendryx, and Boy George. Watch for a June release.

NOISE NEWS - New York's greatest contribution to recent music history may be hip hop, but the noisemongers who reside in the dark scum infested back alleyways (yeah, sure) of the East Village continue to vie for the crown. The anti-aesthetic that is noise rock can be more immediately soul satisfying than anything on earth. In general, the stuff substitutes a cacophonous blare for pop pleasure and catharsis for enjoyment. I like it as much as the dance music many folks call "mindless," and for some of the same reasons: it reminds me I'm alive, it reminds me there are other people in the world, it makes me want to move around.

In his liner notes to The End Of Music - As We Know It, a new cassette from RIOR featuring 11 bands of varying degrees of genius, Steve Albini (Big Black axeman and Forced Exposure contributor) describes noise rock as, "Guitar overload stretched over indulgent meandering sometimes netting an interesting result." The End Of Music features great tracks from N.Y.C.'s Honeymoon Killers, and three members of the now defunct Live Skull calling themselves Needlenose and covering the Rolling Stones. This is mind expanding stuff that insists nothing is a dead end if there's a way to make it louder, more chaotic, or aggressively exploratory.

Sonic Youth, current drums and wires buzz champs, never really wanted to be known as a "noise" band, even though they make symphonic white noise guitar howl that often recalls the sound of a truck moving from over metal plates at high speed. Maybe their new 12-inch single (on SST) is intended to show us just how bad they would be if they were the noise band pud-heads like me think they are. The A side, "Master - Dik," is kinda a rap (not as good as Anthrax), and the B side, "Beat On The Brat," is a Ramones song (not as good as the original). But the Youths score big points by printing a condemnation of themselves, their record label, and the entire noise aesthetic on the sleeve.

Meanwhile, Caroline Records' impending Pussy Galore CD (five extra tracks and a booklet with "amazing artwork") brings out the general contradiction of noise as a way of life (or music): when we stop listening to the grinding of gears in factories or busted transistor radios blaring Ted Nugent songs and start listening to bands actively trying to make similar noises we're elevating an environmental entropy to the level of art. Which is a little like trying to orchestrate an automobile accident. I mean, a Pussy Galore CD? I can't wait. The clarity. The Clarity. The CLARITY.

ZOUK UPDATE - Kassav, masters of Zouk (relentless dance music from the French Antilles), appear on the soundtrack to the film Sweet Lies on Island. Will CBS International ever issue the new Kassav LP (on French CBS, available at Tower Records in New York as a high priced import) in the U.S.? Gosh, I hope so.

TIDBITS - Hoboken popsters and Profile recording artists The Cucumbers will be on the New Jersey talk show People Are Talking, Friday, April 8. The program, which is broadcast live, airs from 11am-12pm on WWOR TV, Channel 9. This should help the Cucumbers land that spot on the prestigious Joe Franklin Show...Graham Parker's next record will be on RCA. It's called The Mona Lisa's Sister, and Parker produced with long time associate Brinsley Schwarz...Big Dipper, the Boston band whose LP Heavens had the manic charmer "She's Fetching," have a new 12-inch out on Homestead featuring two previously unreleased songs on the B-Side, "He Is God," and "Which Would You Rather?"...Next Plateau will release a 12-inch remix of Antoinette's "Hit 'Em With This," which was featured on the Hurby's Machine sampler. The single will be backed with "Unfinished Business," a previously unreleased cut from hip-hop's baddest lady...Kurtis Blow will do a rap called "Air Jordan" with help from the Sky King himself. Michael Jordan and Kurtis hit the studio in April...Robert Fripp will be a guest VJ on VH-1, Sunday, April 3, to promote his tour with the League of Crafty Guitarists. This is no joke. The League plays the Washington Square Church in NYC on April 11 and 12.

THE BEAT

WOMACK LEAVES ??? - One of the hot rumors on the streets concerns veteran entertainer The Preacher, Bobby Womack. Rumor has it that Bobby will leave the MCA Records roster. He recently completed a successful SRO tour in Europe. Bobby's name on a record company's (??) contract = sales dollars. Don't miss signing a proven P-R-O!

HEAVY TALENT - Jean Beauvoir is one of the most startling rock personalities to have emerged in the 80's. A much sought-after musician, songwriter and producer, his career as a solo artist was eagerly anticipated. Having scored major success with Feel The Heat, his debut single and the defacto theme of Sylvester Stallone's summer blockbuster, Corba, Beauvoir's career is now rolling.

Jackknifed, Jean's latest release on Columbia Records contains a musically enjoyable compilation of rock, funk & roll, raggaie and R&B. The first single entitled Jimmy features a smooth, scintillating syncopated track that embraces Jean's melodious tones. Look for multi format exposure on Jackknifed.

He was thirteen years old when he formed his first band, Topaz. He spent the next three years performing regularly at Dick Clark's oldies shows, playing bass and the guitar with Gary "U.S." Bonds. At sixteen, Jean was fronting The Flamings, and spent his next year touring around the country supporting such rock 'n roll giants as Bo Diddley and The Platters.

Soon afterwards, he met Bruce Springsteen's guitarist and co-producer Steve Van Zandt and together formed Little Steven And The Disciples Of Soul at the end of 1982.

JEAN BEAUVOIR

After The Disciples of Soul, Jean became a hot property, making a series of guest appearances with an astonishing diverse cast of artists. He took some time off to focus on material for his latest LP on Columbia Records entitled Jackknifed. This talented young man is destined for stardom!

IMAGINATION - The sophisticated seductive sound, the haberdashorial splendor, and the unabashed sexy charisma of Lee John and Ashley Ingram work in delirious conjunction to make Imagination one of the premiere soul ensembles in all of England, most of Europe, and most of the rest of the world. With the release of Closer their seventh album in as many years and their first for RCA Records, Imagination finally enters the American popular music consciousness. With global record sales in the aerial range of millions, Imagination is hardly an international secret.

Taking their name as a tribute to John Lennon and Imagine, Imagination quickly became one of the most sought-after acts in Great Britain and the continent. Their impeccable blend of sardorial flash and cosmopolitan soul made them great favorites on British TV and with the Royal Family.

IMAGINATION

With Closer, the international sound of Imagination coalesces into a new and happy maturity. Part of this comes from Imagination's leap into a bold new territory using numerous producers: Nick Martinelli, Preston Glass, Arthur Baker, Robert Kraft, Ron Kersey and Randy Goodrum. The future looks bright for Imagination.

L.A.'S HOUSTON - Rudy Houston is a true artist in every sense of the word, believing all the arts are connected. Through his painting he discovered his flowing talent which led him to venture into the rest of the arts, dancing, acting, singing and modeling.

His studies have taken him into dance, where he is most noted for his work with Janet Jackson in her videos What Have You Done For Me Lately and When I Think Of You. Other video work includes Pebbles, Girlfriend and Mercedes Boy, Natalie Cole, I Live For Your Love and Sting, We'll Be Together Tonight, just to mention a few.

RUDY HOUSTON

Rudy's career has also allowed him to perform in such national commercials as Orange Crush, Coca Cola and McDonald's. He has been seen in such popular television shows as Fame and in theatre on Broadway in Dreamgirls and Los Angeles in The Wiz and Dreamgirls. He has just been chosen for the male lead of C.C. in the Long Beach Convention Center production of Dreamgirls.

Rudy is about to approach record labels, with his equally talented voice, in pursuit of a recording contract. Companies looking for that versatile package of talent, look to Rudy Houston.

HAM-SEM'S HIT - Los Angeles based Ham-Sem Records headed by industry veteran Bill Campbell has released a hit album entitled Motivation by The Motivation. The first single is a remake of The DeBarge hit There Will Never Be. The single is receiving good exposure in the south and midwest. Look for great things from Ham-Sem Records in 1988.

DENISE DEBUT - Up and coming talent Denise is cutting her debut album at Bijou Studios with Jimmy Mayweather and Ed Crawley producing.

LEGEND RETURNS - Veteran radio programmer Mike Payne, who scored many successes as a ratings leader in Pittsburgh and Cleveland, returns to the airwaves next week at KYEA in West Monroe, La.

RAPPIN' With the Retailers

Indie Groove

This week's question posed to various retailers across the country was the result of Billy DePasquale's (Tower Records/New York) comment that he may be phasing out the handling of cassettes and maxi-cassettes due to the price variation and lack of uniform packaging problems. As Cash Box talked to other retailers we asked: "Are you having problems dealing with cassettes and/or maxi-cassettes?" The responses are as follows:

SCOTTS / Indianapolis, IN

Reporting: Cheryl Gregory

"Well, we are selling cassettes, but not to the extent we were at the end of last year. They are hard to stock because they come in so many configurations . . . some are cardboard rimmed, some come in standard cassette shells, some are in long, narrow packages that just won't fit anywhere. Now there's been a price increase, so what we used to discount back from $1.98 now is discounted from $2.49, and then there are some maxi-cassettes at $3.98 and $4.98. The maxies are not selling well at all. I wouldn't feel hurt if they stopped making them. As far as our best selling independent product goes, the new Byrds reissue on Rounder is doing well, we've sold over 75 units in the last few days, and we expect it to do great once its exposed. Salt-N-Pepa is still moving; in new releases we like Sir Mix-A-Lot's "Swass," on the Nasty Mix label, Gucci Crew 2 on Gucci Records and Ghetto Boy on Rap-A-Lot."

RECORD BAR / Durham, N.C.

Reporting: Kevin Hawkins

"The single cassette is still selling pretty well, the maxi-single is a little off and also a little unnecessary when the 12" vinyl is still so incredibly hot. Salt-N-Pepa has been in our top 15 for eight weeks. World Class Wreckin' Cru's "Turn On The Lights" will probably be a big pop cross-over; in fact, World Class Wreckin' Cru could go a long way. Also hot right now is Vision's "MC Cool Rock & Chezzy Chez," which we got three calls on before we even had it in the store. The MCADE record is doing well, too, and Select's new Whistle 12" single is moving out.

HARMONY HOUSE / Detroit, MI

Reporting: Sandy Bean

"We haven't decided to phase cassettes and maxi-cassettes out yet, but we have moved all the cassettes to $2.49; they'll all get bumped up anyway in the industries usual follow-the-leader fashion. We pick and choose the maxi-cassettes we carry and try to order only those that will move out fast. The lack of standard packaging is really a nightmare. We've just been taking them as they come, and that can be anything from cardboard without even shrink-wrapping, to laminated bubbles. We do very well with 12" vinyl. Salt-N-Pepa's Hot, Cool & Vicious is still No. 3 in our Top 20; Surfing With The Alien is on our Top 50 LP chart and moving up; M/A/R/R/S' "Pump Up The Volume" is 15th on our Top 20 singles chart.

SPEC'S RECORDS / Miami, FL

Reporting: Cindy Barr

"We do well with the single cassettes, but we built new fixtures, and we educated our customers to the different price configurations. We've got just about all of them at $2.49 now. We only bring in a few maxi titles; the maxi-cassettes just do not sell well. We do very well with 12" vinyl. The independent artists who are hot for us are M/A/R/R/S; Trenier, Salt-N-Pepa; MC Cool Rock; Eric B & Rakim; Noel; then there is the JCI "Dolce Vita" which is very strong. We don't do much New Age, and as far as 3" CDs go, I don't know if we'll carry them. We have a big independent label business here."

STRAWBERRIES / Boston, MA

Reporting: Tracy Waxler

"Our cassettes are doing okay. We have a whole floor designated to Dance Singles and, of course, the 12" vinyl is the biggest mover. We are heavy in R&B, we're located in downtown Boston. We have a lot of regular customers. Salt-N-Pepa is our hottest independent act. The 12" single "Tramp/Push It" is still in our Top Ten. Our customers know what they are buying and they know the difference between the cassettes and the maxi-cassettes. The different prices do not seem to bother them much, but it does make it hard on the retailer."

MUSIC PEOPLE / Oakland, CA

Reporting: Bobby Weeks

"We still like the 12" vinyl, but we do big cassette business with dance product. The Force MDs are slacking off now. So is TKA's "Tears May Fall." Hot for me right now is Ca$h Money, MPMD, and Mantronix. I've also already handled over 100 units of Mother Wit and it's just starting, so that one looks big." (continued on pg. 20)

Wonderful response to our new "Rappin' With The Retailers" column. Many thanks to all the store managers and buyers who give so freely of their time to chat with us about independent product every week.

Also many thanks for all the phone calls, letters and product for review which flooded in following the debut of our College/AOR page. The albums and EPs selected for review, and for Album of the Month honors, are the result of the voting of a listening panel made up of young adults between the ages of 20 and 26. The next College page will appear in our April 23rd issue, with an advertising deadline of April 12. Reserve your space now.

Item: Holly Cass of NAIRD called to let us know that the registration for this year's convention in New Orleans already surpasses that of a year ago. Those of you who have not registered and wish to do so, may contact Holly at (609) 665-6636. In what is probably a first, the IAC Committee, which recently chose to be formally under the NARM umbrella, will meet prior to the official opening of the NAIRD convention on May 12 at the Monteleone Hotel in the French Quarter. Despite the IAC's official NARM status, the NAIRD folks have been most kind in providing meeting rooms and the ancillary equipment required. That's the kind of cooperation that is making the independent record industry stronger and healthier. Excuse me while I go drink to that.

Item: I'm back.

Item: Okay all you distributors, it's reporting time again. Remember, a record must be reported by two or more distributors to make the chart. There's a lot of hot, new product out there, so we should be seeing quite a change from the last reports.

Item: Hub Records, one of the up-and-coming West Coast Country music labels, has followed their successful debut LP, Sarah/ Breakin' Rules, which contained the two charted singles, "Lyn' Eyes" and "Who's Gonna Love You," with the release of a second album, Sarah, Too scheduled for mid-May. Already off the presses and on the street is the first single from the LP, "You Can't Hurt Me." Bob Summers continues to produce strong product that does not rely on any formula, but comes across as fresh and new as spring itself. Listening copies are available by calling Hub Records at (818) 762-1710, or Levinson Associates at (213) 460-4545.

Item: Gene Norman's St. Louis outfit continues to put out 45's worthy of R&B radio attention. This month's batch includes a couple of really nice singles. Especially recommended: "Back Up Train," a re-make of the old Al Green hit done by Charles Beverly. Tell ya what, it sounded better to me than the original. Then there's "The Older I Get," by Ross and Hunt (who also co-wrote this one), which is already on about twenty stations and picking up more, and Barbara Carr singing George Jackson and Teeny Hodges' "What's Wrong." For those MDs, PDs and DJs who like to have a little miscellaneous background information about the writers, George Jackson was a staff writer at Rick Hall's immortal Fame Recording Studios in Muscle Shoals and Teeny Hodges was (and maybe still is) one of Memphis' hottest studio musicians, cutting for Willie Mitchell at Hi/Royal Studios where he put those famous Memphis guitar licks on such hits as Al Green's "Let's Stay Together," etc., Ann Peebles' "I Can't Stand The Rain," and about a zillion other R&B standards. Teeny also co-wrote "Funkier Than A Misquiter's Tweeter" for Ike and Tina Turner. Now if that ain't enough trivia ... I can't help ya. Anyway, give this 45 a spin. Barbara Carr has one of the most unique voices around, but you'll never know if you don't listen. Get your copies from G. Norman, Scorpio Productions, (314) 382-7222.

Till next time - stay Indie Groove.

POP/ROCK

Andrea
FALLEN ANGEL
 Cartoon Records/SOS

This happy sock-hop set starts out with a vivacious rock 'n roll tribute to the early days of Elvis, Chuck Berry and Danny and The Juniors as Andrea breathes new life into such solid gold oldies as "Hound Dog," "Maybelline," and "At The Hop." Producer Joe Messina thoughtfully provides a background of party noises, complete with chit-chat, clinking glasses and laughter under the medley, which ought to make party people feel right at home. Side B ends with Andrea's appealing version of the Beatle's classic, "I Saw Him Standing There." Other recommended cuts: "Getting Looser," on Side A, and the playful "Will You Be My Love" on Side B. For you trivia people, Andrea was one of the original members of The Flirts, and fronted her own group, Andrea and Hot Mink before stepping out as a solo artist.

JAZZ

Samoa
NO BAND IS AN ISLAND
 ProJazz (645)

Get ready to hear something as hot and exciting as a sexual fantasy on a tropical beach. Everything moves . . . sways, throbs, pounds . . . the rhythms are exotic, playful, intense; the melodies tease, moving in and out of pulsing bass lines. The album is funk, fusion, jazz and joy. David Marden's breathy flute is captivating, guest trumpet player Bernie Edstrom encapsulates the spirit of the album in a thoughtfully conceived muted solo, and Mike Hurley's creative and inspired percussion work is the super glue that holds everything together. Other Samoa members are Phil Kadidio, keyboards; Alan Tosel, bass guitar and Dan Thayer, guitar. The group hails from Minneapolis - St. Paul, where they must be often hired to melt the snow.

Michael Pedicin, Jr.
CITY SONG
 Optimism, Inc. (OP-3106)

In the liner credits, Michael Pedicin, Jr. thanks "my friend and colleague Micki Rossi for his devotion and music." Rossi earned that special recognition through the contribution of seven of the ten songs on the album, as well as through his enlightened performance on the acoustic piano, synthesizer, recorder, synthesizer bass and percussion instruments, electronic and otherwise. He also co-produced the album. And what a slick album it is. Michael Pedicin, Jr. is an expansive horn player who surrounds himself with clouds of melodic riffs played against innovative percussion and esoteric bass lines, and then cuts through to the heart of the song like a laser beam. Through it all, Pedicin maintains an urban stance, a New York feel. In Rossi's "City Song" Pedicin wraps up the whole town in a soprano ribbon. Our jazz pollster indicates that this album is getting reported across the country and should soon hit the jazz charts. There is a video available on "Out Of Line." Pedicin epitomizes the re-emergence of bebop as close kin to electronic jazz. Special cuts: "She's Out Of My Life"; "Free Fall," and the title tune, "City Song."

Chet Baker
THE IMPROVISER
 Cadence Jazz (CJR 1019)

This compilation of live performance tapes, first released in 1984, captures the trumpet virtuoso gigging in Scandinavia with pick up sidemen and even two pick up horns. The ambience is great, the rooms must have had fans hanging from the rafters. Chet Baker plays exuberant, free-fall solos that showcase his amazing control and his fine, creative and melodic concepts. Imagine yourself in the audience as the band cooks for thirteen and a quarter minutes on "Night Bird," featuring a long (7 minutes) and complex Baker solo, with Per Husby on piano, Bjorn Kjellemyr on bass and Espen Rud on drums. The club was called Hot House, and it had to have been that this night. Tadd Dameron's "Gnid" gets a ten minute work-out. The A side features another Galper tune, "Margarine," as well as the familiar and plaintive "Polkadots and Moonbeams," taped at Club 7 in Oslo with Per still owning the piano chair and Terje Venaas, bass and Ole Jacob Hansen, drums, rounding out the rhythm section. Sam Rivers' "Beatrice" swings the A side to a mellow close. Any serious jazz buff should order this one. Radio copies from Cadence Jazz Records, Redwood, NY 13679, (315) 287-2852.

CLASSICAL

Gerard Schwarz
 The Seattle Symphony Orchestra
STRAUSS/ THUS SPAKE ZARATHUSTRA
 Delos D/CD 3052
 Eliahu Inbal
 The Frankfurt Radio Orchestra
MAHLER/ SYMPHONY No. 5
 Denon 33CO-1088

The one aspect of this CD recording of Zarathustra that's noticed immediately is the extreme range of highs and lows that are distinctly audible. Particularly impressive is the opening passage in the basses; it is felt as well as heard. In light of the fact that this Strauss standard is recorded and performed all too frequently, Gerard Schwarz, the Seattle Symphony, and the engineers at Delos achieve truly refreshing and impressive results. The transparent sound of this disc allows all the subtle shadings and orchestral textures to come through with extreme clarity and balance. Coupled with Zarathustra is the ~"Dance of the Seven Veils" from Salome and the rarely heard "Four Symphonic Interludes" from Intermezzo. These light orchestral vignettes are in marked contrast to the preceding works, indeed the first interlude, entitled "Travel Fever and Waltz Scene" transports the listener to the heart of old Vienna.

This recording of the Mahler's Fifth Symphony represents the middle of Eliahu Inbal's monumental Mahler cycle, recently completed with the release of the Eighth Symphony (Denon 6OCO - 1564 - 65). Throughout the recording process Inbal and the Frankfurt Radio Orchestra have maintained the highest performance standards resulting in a collection that is essential for the serious student of the late German Romantic Period. The Fifth Symphony marks the beginning of Mahler's 'middle period' and is described as "musique pure or absolute music in the purest sense." This entire cycle is an impressive achievement for all who participated in its realization.

Rebirth of The Egyptian Empire

LOS ANGELES, CA - Egyptian Empire Records, Kru-Cut Records, Dream Team Records and Techno-Hop Records, united since February under the umbrella of West Coast Record Distributors, have already made inroads in developing more visibility for their labels. Since pulling away from their former alliance with Macola Records, Inc., the companies have developed their own distribution system by combining their own energies with those of the existing independent distribution network.

Thus far, they have succeeded in breaking World Class Wreckin' Kru's "Turn Off The Lights" on the Kru-Cut Label; and J.J. Fad's superhot "Supersonic," along with L.A. Dream Team "Is In The House," both on Dream Team Records. Rodney O., on Egyptian Empire Records, is also getting airplay and is currently being promoted in major markets across the country. So three on the independent distributors' top-movers reports and one breaking out . . . all in a short six weeks. Those numbers even a major would envy.

The principals of the new company, Rudy Pardee of Dream Team; Egyptian Lover of Egyptian Empire; Alonzo Williams of Kru-Cut and Andre Manuel of Techno-Hop, indicate that they anticipate bringing other small labels into the fold. "We're going to stay independent . . . to do everything the independent way, including how we produce our videos. We'll be approaching other labels and artists as we expand and succeed, but we're not out to rip anybody off . . . never to rip anybody off . . . we've been there, and we know what that feels like."

Andre Manuel (The Unknown DJ) of Techno-Hop

"This is the year for west coast dance-oriented rap. Sure it's hip-hop but its got a softer edge. They've picked up on it in Miami, but they don't put it together the same way we do in L.A. We can capture two different crowds," so says Lisa as the discussion continues. Rudy Pardee, in talking about promotion of new product said "Everybody does their part . . . it's a total group effort. If we've got a song breaking on, say, Alonzo's label (Kru-Cut, ed.), we're all going to get behind it. Nobody is alone here. We're like a family."

Rodney O., General Jeff & Joe Cooley

And it's a well-traveled family, too. All the acts do the club scene, especially in Europe and Hawaii, in an effort to expand the impact of their product on the world's dance music industry.

Future projects include the upcoming release of a new Dream Team label discovery, Sugar & Spice, and continuing to build on the new visibility and wide acceptance of World Class Wreckin' Cru on the Kru-Cut label, and J.J. Fad on Dream Team.

Egyptian Lover himself, now signed to record for Priority Records, continues to work with both Egyptian Empire and West Coast Record Distributors in the sale and promotion of his extensive catalog. He also assured this writer that, although some Priority product is distributed through branches, his contract calls for any future Egyptian Lover releases to be distributed through the independent network. My kind of guy.

The Egyptian Lover

Ron Pardee of Dream Team

Not that Egyptian Empire was not successful in the past. Quite the contrary, as the label home of Egyptian Lover, they racked up sales in the hundreds of thousands in 1987 alone. However, they became unhappy with their Macola relationship over the five years it lasted. According to Lisa (public relations person and spokesman for West Coast Record Distributors), and the group's long-time manager, Jerry Heller, Egyptian Empire stuck with Macola, "long after it really made sense. In a way, we were forced to do it (leave Macola, ed.), we did not feel we were realizing the fruit of our labor."

RAPPIN'

CIRCLES / Phoenix, AZ

Reporting: Al Bennett

"The cassingle situation is a mess. The prices jump from $2.49 to $4.44, they're in every conceivable kind of box. They don't fit anywhere, they're a security problem if I try to keep them on the floor, and if I keep them behind the counter I have to rack them so you can just read the spine, you can't see the artwork or the cover or anything, so I have to think I'm probably losing good product. The 12" vinyl is still selling well and so are some LPs. The Bobby Bland album is blowing out of here. Gary B.B. Coleman is doing well, too. Salt-N-Pepa just keeps on selling. Clarence Carter is getting some action with Hooked On Love."

Distributors Initiate Conference Call System

ELK GROVE, IL - March 24, 1988 was more than just the third day of spring. It was the day that John Salstone's IAC Promotion Subcommittee initiated their conference call system. Twenty-one promotion professionals representing fourteen distributors shared information about the independent product they were working in their individual market areas. They spoke for 45 minutes on such topics as instructions for the labels as to the development of promotional game plans for each release; on initiating a universal independent tracking sheet, not necessarily utilizing the reporting stations, but built around the stations that impact independent product sales in the marketplace. Also discussed were means of supporting mass promotional efforts on breaking product, and an "early warning system" that might help identify strong product before multi-market breakouts. Salstone indicated, "This conference surpassed our expectations. It not only proved that we are all working hard in our individual market areas, but that we have compadres out there, we're not alone and we all share in the benefits reaped from successfully breaking product and bringing it home. Our labels now will have a method of contact much more satisfying than they have ever had before . . . we'll both (the distributor and the label) have faster, better information and a true networking of effort, up, down and across the country."

The next conference call is scheduled for Friday, April 8th at 3 PM Central Time. The IAC Committees will meet on May 12th prior to the NAIRD Annual Convention.

Life After Blood, Sweat & Tears

Steve Katz Joins Green Linnet

What is former Blood, Sweat & Tears' guitarist Steve Katz doing as Chief Executive Officer of a label specializing in traditional Celtic music? Well, to quote Katz, who is also the former head of A&R for Mercury records and the producer of such varying artists as Lou Reed and the Horslips, "Independent labels are where one can be truly creative and have a lot of fun!"

This statement reflects the entire independent industry at this time. As Katz' vision brings Green Linnet Records forward in terms of distribution, marketing and increased national exposure, the label will be facing exciting new challenges. Green Linnet is now broadening its eclectic roster of artists but intends to remain true to its commitment to the Celtic music idiom.

UK BUZZ

TWIN BILL - A couple of months ago Bros asked the question, "When Will I Be Famous"? Twins Luke and Matt Goss claim that they have always known the answer. They knew it would be very soon.

Their debut CBS single that posed the question was pipped to the Number One spot by Tiffany's "I Think We're Alone Now." But the 19-year-old Goss twins, and their guitarist Craig Logan, are certain their second release, "Drop the Boy," will make it all the way to the top. Expertly-managed by the Pet Shop Boys management team headed by Tom Watkins, and guided by veteran producer Nicky Graham, and a debut album Push that sounds like ten hit singles, they are THE pop act of '88.

The group's singer, Michael Jackson-soundalike Matthew Goss, explains that they have several rites and rituals which they strictly observe. "For instance, if you see a magpie you have to salute it. And every time you see the back of an ambulance you have to hold your breath and hold your collar. If you break a mirror you must break it again to reverse the bad luck to good luck. We are so strict about observing our superstitions I believe that's why we are so successful." Their success could also have something to do with the fact that these boys are not ugly.

They already have some overzealous female fans; the house they live in in South London is permanently surrounded by 150 of them.

"We have had the fence pulled down a couple of times and we have just had to pay 650 pounds to repair it. It's just part-and-parcel of being famous, I suppose," says drummer Luke.

In a few short months they have had to radically alter their lifestyles. They can no longer go anywhere without personal bodyguards.

Previous to this, they were attacked and mugged. When the tension is too much for them, all three attend a spiritual healer named Harry Reid.

LEAVING EUROPE - John Noram was a co-founding member of supergroup Europe who split with the band last year just at the peak of their success.

"I was becoming an outsider. Joey Tempest and I had gone to school together. It's obvious that we weren't the same people as we were when we met at the age of 14. I like raw guitars and they were for a more commercial synthesizer sound. They even looked different to me. They tried to get me into designer jackets and color my hair, but that's just not my style. I've never been interested in image or clothes," Noram confesses to Cash Box.

"For a long time, we were on tour and leading completely separate lives. In the studio, the sound of my guitar would be drowned out. It got to the point where we had no similar interests. They never believed my threats to leave and they were shocked when I did."

Since then, Noram has become a number one smash in Sweden and he now releases his album, Total Control, in the UK. The debut single, "Love is Meant to Last Forever" (Epic), has just been released. It contains sensational guitar solos and stylish songs, with a less-obvious commercial appeal than Europe.

But Noram insists, "Europe's music used to be more like mine. Even though I felt very repressed, and I am a success in my own right now, I still miss them. I've had no contact since I left, except for once with the bass player. And sometimes, without realizing why, sort of subconsciously, I get sad and I feel like a whole piece of my life is missing. You can't spend eight years with somebody and not miss them. But I have no regrets. I'll never fit into that rock star bag."

Randy Howard: It's Been A Long, Tough Road

1983, Randy was playing at the Whiskey River Club in Macon. Paul Hornsby, a producer for Capricorn, heard about him and came to one of his shows.

"I had a song I had written called 'All-American Redneck.' Paul took me in the studio to cut that one song, and we wound up doing an album. Paul shopped it, and I got a deal with Warner/Viva. I was on the label with David Frizzell, Shelley West, Ray Price and Porter Wagoner.

My album was kind of a cult album, but it went to #41 on the charts, and the single tore up the jukeboxes and charted strictly on sales. It got me a lot of attention in major press because it was controversial. But, shortly after, the label folded. So, I moved back to Nashville in '84. I had made some good contacts by that time. I figured it should be easier this time."

Again, he smiled. "It only took three more years! I hung around Nelson Larkin's office a lot, because my good friend, Bruce Burch, was writing for Famous Music. It was a year and a half before Nelson got to know my name. But, after two years, I caught him at a weak moment and he consented to record me!"

The rest of the story...is recent Nashville history!

Joe Henderson

Like the old song begins, "I was born in Macon, Georgia." So, too, was Atlantic America recording star Randy Howard. Randy's current single, "I Make A Motion," has just been released as the follow-up to his label debut, "Ring Of Fire," which made an impressive showing on the charts. Likewise, his self-titled debut LP is selling consistently and gaining considerable critical acclaim.

Randy sat in our Nashville office and related the long, tough road that led to his current major label contract. "I cut my first record in '68, when I was a senior in high school. I was playing local gigs, in Macon, six nights a week. I'd get out of school at one in the afternoon, go bag groceries until 6 or 7 o'clock, then, go play music until one or two a.m.!"

I got a job with The Buddy Knox Band. We had a local TV show in Macon. Through that exposure, some "backers" sent me to Nashville to cut that first record." Randy smiled and continued, "It was a big hit...in Macon and surrounding counties! In fact, it was the #1 record in Cochran, Georgia!"

My parents insisted I go to college. So, I borrowed some government money and enrolled at Macon Junior College. I didn't even finish the first quarter. I took the remainder of the money, bought a guitar, and moved to Nashville!"

Randy Howard sold shoes when he arrived here. He pitched his songs on his lunch hours. He had seven different jobs and five different apartments during his first year in Music City. In stretching it to two and a half years, his biggest musical "break" was a substitute pickin' job in John Wesley Ryles' band for one weekend. So, after that length of time, he moved back to Georgia. But, he never quit or gave up his dream!

He worked as a deejay, picked at night, got a local TV show, formed his own record label, released 3 or 4 singles and an album, and worked clubs for the next eight years! In

ALBUM REVIEW

RAY PRICE-Just Enough Love-Step One, SOR-0033

This is, without question, the best Ray Price album since his "For The Good Times" product! The master of country music gives us not only a variety of songs and tempos, but a variety of pure listening beauty. Two hit singles, "Big Ole Teardrops," and the title cut, have already been successfully pulled from this LP. And, if they choose, any of the others are singles material. However, the first cut on the album is the now classic "Wind Beneath My Wings"...if you appreciate classic country beauty, just you listen to this one!

ALBUM REVIEW

MICHAEL MARTIN MURPHEY-River Of Time-Warner Bros., 1-25644

Themes of love and American heritage combine to make an easy-going record for Murphey's 15th LP release. The production is so clear and crisp, letting the listener sit back and soak up the sounds. Side one moves to a paced tempo with highlights like "Vanishing Breed" and duet with talented son Ryan, "Talkin' To The Wrong Man." Murphey picks up the momentum on side two with cuts like "What Am I Doin' Hangin' 'Round?" and "Still Got The Fire," shining brightly. Excellent choice for Murphey fans!

OUT OF THE BOX

ROBIN LEE (Atlantic America, 7-99353) This Old Flame (3:16) (Ensign-BMI) (P. Wolfe, B. Borchers) (Producer: N. Larkin)

Robin Lee has a new major label contract, and what sounds to us like a major hit for her first release on Atlantic America. This lady sings as pretty as she looks. She has an exceptionally well-written song to promote a strong, but relaxing, performance. The lyric content should find its way straight into country hearts. "Warm your cold heart on this old flame," Robin sings...well, our review panel did just that! Great first release!

FEATURE PICKS

JOHN ANDERSON (MCA, MCA-53307) It's Hard To Keep This Ship Together (2:50) (John Anderson, Sweedie-BMI) (J. Anderson, F. Carter, Jr.) (Producers: J. Bowen, J. Anderson)

We smiled at the title, but the song has a mysterious sound to it, which is created by the minor keys in the composition. Markedly different product for Anderson but, perhaps, that is what caught our fancies.

MICHAEL MARTIN MURPHEY/RYAN MURPHEY (Warner Bros., 7-27947-A) Talkin' To The Wrong Man (3:26) (Timberwolf-BMI) (M. M. Murphey) (Producers: S. Gibson, J. E. Norman)

Very unique! Ryan does a super job and, of course, Daddy does an expected great job. This is a father/son "talk" ending up with what every man has always known...we really never know how to impress a woman. We predict a very popular response from the listeners!

LORETTA LYNN (MCA, MCA-53320) Who Was That Stranger (2:08) (Tree-BMI; Cross Keys-ASCAP) (C. Putman, M. D. Barnes, D. Cook) (Producers: J. Bowen, C. Hardy)

At last! Loretta returns with a great single and on the MCA label. This mid-tempo release features pure country lyrics for the purest female country singer in the business. Welcome back to the charts, Loretta! We love it!

LORETTA LYNN SALUTES ROY ACUFF'S ANNIVERSARY ON 'GRAND OLE OPRY LIVE' Loretta Lynn salutes King of Country Music Roy Acuff during a special one-hour tribute to him on "Grand Old Opry Live," TNN's televised portion of the world's oldest continuous running radio show The Grand Ole Opry. Acuff, celebrating his 50th anniversary with the Grand Ole Opry, was honored by a host of stars including Lynn, Dolly Parton, Porter Wagoner, Minnie Pearl, Chet Atkins, Pee Wee King, The Crook Brothers and the Stony Mountain Cloggers and Brother Oswald.

IT'S A DEAL! Jack McFadden & Associates will be booking duo dates on David Frizzell and Shelly West for the 1988 season. On hand to seal the agreement at a recent press conference were Jack McFadden, Chairman of McFadden & Assoc., Stan Barnett, vice-president, David Frizzell, Shelly West, Reggie Mac, president of McFadden & Assoc. and agent Debbie Schwartz. ## NASHVILLE NOTE-ABLES

The Kendalls... Talented, Charming And Positive!

It was a delightful afternoon at our Nashville office. The weather was beautiful and everyone was looking forward to the approaching outdoor season with big smiles and good moods. What really topped off the day for us, however, was the appearance of Royce and Jeannie...The Kendalls!

As usual, they were charming and positive as they greeted each of our Cash Box employees and expressed their appreciation for past publicity and attention. We, in turn, expressed the same for their outstanding talents and products from Step One Records.

Immediately, the interview turned toward their new single "The Rhythm Of Romance," which has been out for just a couple of weeks, and has already captured Indie Spotlight and Dark Horse Consensus features from Cash Box. The up-tempo product is getting great response and acceptance from radio stations across the nation. We knew it would. It is a very strong product across the board.

The Kendalls, in their sincere modesty, gave much of the credit to producer Ray Pennington. Jeannie said, "Ray is very easy to work with as a producer. First of all, he gives us a lot of freedom in choosing our songs to record."

Royce added, "Ray does something I really like when he produces. He doesn't sit in the control room behind the board. He comes right out into the studio with everybody. It gives us (singers, musicians and producer) a chance to communicate by glances and motions. He can simply look at us and we understand. We have never before had a producer so easy to work with."

The Kendalls have been signed with Step One Records for a year, now. They love their new-found home. I suppose the label "Indie" is still sticking to Step One but, believe me, if there is such a thing as a "major Indie"...Step One is a leader in that category. The Kendalls are enthusiastic in their agreement about independent record companies. "Independents are good for country music!" said Royce. "They give a lot of artists the chances they need and deserve."

With an earnest look, Jeannie reinforced her father's words. "We feel we have done better on an indie label. We thoroughly enjoy the working relationship with the people involved...and, they give us a chance to put a lot of our personal thoughts and feelings into each project."

World Class Talent is the booking agent for The Kendalls, and Royce and Jeannie commented that they had a good winter "on the road." They play 125 to 150 road dates each year. They are extremely popular with the fans who attend their concerts. There is an easy explanation for their live show acceptance. They "sound" the same at a live performance as they do on a record! As The Kendalls explained, "We record live. We don't like the overdubs, the 'stacks', etc.. We make a determined effort to sound, live, like we do on our recordings. That's the way we do it."

It sounds simple enough, doesn't it? Well, my friends, there is a lot of deception in the simplicity. It requires extreme talent on everyone's part..The Kendalls, the producer, the musicians and the engineer. And, when you attend a Kendall's concert, you will appreciate the talents even more!

Joe Henderson

BMI announced that Harry Warner, formerly Director of Writer Administration, Nashville, has been promoted to Assistant Vice President, Writer/Publisher Relations, Nashville. Warner served with BMI from 1967 to 1972, leaving the company to take a job as manager for Jerry Reed Entertainment Company. He rejoined BMI in 1981, representing the company in 15 southern states, and plays an active role in professional music development in important regional music centers such as Memphis, Austin and Atlanta.

INDIE SPOTLIGHT

DAVID JONES (Half Hour Glass, HHG-087-7) At The Drop Of A Hat (2:41) (Vogue, Partner-BMI) (R. Scaife) (Producers: J. Kelton, D. Jones)

Not to be confused with David Lynn Jones... but, this David Jones is also an extremely talented new vocalist on the Nashville scene. In fact, he impressed our review panel so much that he earned this Spotlight honor, and we'd do it again "at the drop of a hat!" Positive country lyrics set to a country-boogie melody, with some fine bass guitar work. Jones is smooth and comfortable with his delivery. The song theme deals with the fact that he is satisfied with what he has done with his life. He should be!

INDIE FEATURE PICKS

WESS COOKE (Door Knob, DK 88-298) The Wind Keeps Whistlin' Dixie (3:53) (Vogue, Partner-BMI) (R. Scaife, M. Collie) (Producer: unlisted)

Yeah...a real country boy tellin' how he misses Dixie (the place and the lady)...and, he tells us in a convincing manner! The producer gave Wess his chance on this release, and Wess "Cookees"! Hoo-ray for Wess Cooke and Dixie!

THE FAMILY BAND (Playback, P-1308) Alabama Shines (2:24) (Trackshoe, Roliram-BMI) (J. Fuller) (Producers: J. Gale, J. Pierce)

Here is a true sample of America's music, as you might hear it, live, from any stage. It's a true country presentation that hasn't been "fiddled" with. We loved the family harmony and the enjoyable country lyrics. Break out the old banjo and join-in!

LYNNE TYNDALL (Evergreen, EV 1071) This Is Me Leaving (3:29) (Alabama Band, AMR-ASCAP) (K. Staley, J. Gerrard) (Producer: P. McMakin)

Pretty things happen here...the singer, the production, and the song! Lynne surely knows how to sing a country ballad, and this one proves it. Look for eye-opening results from the radio reports on this one. It's a "stand tall" product.

DARK HORSE CONSENSUS

KIM GRAYSON-Missin' Texas-Soundwaves, SW-4800-NSD

Kim Grayson has captured the Dark Horse Consensus, this week, with her performance of this tightly-written country song. She has, no doubt, captured the hearts and fancies of the majority of radio listeners as is evidenced by the reports of many stations across the country. To name a few: KWRE, KVOO, WMTZ, WHPY, KFRD, WASP, KSO AND WAGI.

RAPPIN' WITH THE WRITERS:

LARRY CORDLE

Larry Cordle was born in Cordell, KY where he was raised on a small farm. He was raised in a country music family. His grandfather, played the fiddle, and his parents sang in church. Coincidentally, Larry was a close neighbor of the now famed Ricky Skaggs. Larry and Ricky grew up together playing front porches for entertainment on weekend nights.

After high school, Larry moved to Columbus, Ohio and worked in a factory until joining the Navy in '68. After service, he enrolled at Morehead State University in 1972. That's when he first began to experiment with songwriting, while performing with his own band. He found the opportunity to play some of his material to Ricky, who liked what he heard and told Larry he would call for some songs if he ever got a record deal.

After graduating college, Larry went to work for a CPA firm and performed three nights each week. Three years later music won out. He hooked up with Skaggs, again, to cut an album which Ricky produced. The album was never released, but one song, "Highway 40 Blues," became a #1 hit for Skaggs in 1983. This was Larry Cordle's first cut!

Larry signed with Ricky's publishing company, Amanda-Lin Music and Jack and Bill Music, when Ricky entered a co-publishing and writing agreement with the Welk Music Group in 1984. Since then, he has had cuts by many of Nashville's finest artists: Exile, Mel McDaniel, George Strait, Moe Bandy, John Anderson, Charley McClain and Reba McEntire.

AROUND THE ROUTE

Kasey Hasegawa Is New President Of Taito Corp.

First off, heartiest congratulations to Phil Bernstein, owner of Ricar in Skokie, IL, who won the Jaguar that was raffled off during ACME '88. And get this - Taito America's Ben Rochetti sold him the winning ticket! Since Skokie is only a stone's throw away, Ben, you should be entitled to take the car out for a spin now and then! Better make it a long spin, though - to escape the multiple ticket purchasers who had to walk home!... Getting back to business, Taito America is about ready to wrap up production on "Double Dragon" after a historic run! As for "Operation Wolf", just as it did at last year's AMOA Expo, this piece was a stand-out at ACME '88, and was declared by many as a definite "hit of the show!" Yes indeed, it will remain in production! Look for initial production to begin in mid-April at the Grand Products factory in Elk Grove Village, IL, on Taito's new "Top Shooter" gun game (with redemption capabilities), which was another big attraction at ACME. As you saw at the show, this is a sizeable piece of equipment where the player shoots plastic pellets at cardboard targets, which are then delivered to the player by conveyor. It's being completely outfitted for the American market and will be featured (along with Taito's new "Twin Eagle" kit) at the firm's upcoming distributors meeting in Chicago.

members, representatives of the jukebox manufacturing companies, record people, local dignitaries, members of the Nashville music community, along with press and media people. With this function, and others that are planned, AMOA is pulling out all stops to get the record industry and the music/entertainment people involved in this giant effort!

A moneymaker! The new "Blackwater 100" pin from Bally Midway attracted a lot of attention at ACME '88 for its entire make-up, but also for the optional dollar acceptor, which could translate into increased earnings. As one operator put it, "I can get three plays for a dollar, and that's definitely a plus factor." We spoke with Bally Midway prexy Joe Dillon who is pleased with acceptance thusfar, and strassed that the factory's intent is to provide maximum flexibility for the operator and a means to keep the price per play on an upward trend. "More dollar acceptors are being used today than ever before," he noted. "The public is getting accustomed to using them...the operators are understanding their benefits...so the time is now to push the dollar acceptor on pinball machines." Joe explained that the Bally distributor can install the dollar acceptor for the operator and he was quick to point out that the acceptor is adaptable to other Bally Midway games - so it's a good deal all the way!...Incidentally, "Blackwater100" will be introduced to the World of Racing via a press conference, scheduled for April 7 in Newport Beach, California, with editors from the top moto-cross magazines as well as Larry Maiers, announcer for MotoWorld on hand to view the game and conduct interviews with Bally representatives.

CHICAGO - Effective March 17, 1988 Mr. Kasey Hasegawa, who formerly served as president of Kyocera America Inc. in the U.S., became president of Taito Corporation, headquartered in Tokyo, Japan. During his tenure with Kyocera, Hasegawa resided in the United States, where the company operates a number of factories.

The new president was officially introduced at a company held meeting which took place in Reno, during the recent ACME '88 convention, where Hasegawa addressed the members of the Taito Corporation and Taito America teams and outlined some of his plans. "Taito Corporation has had a growing position in the entertainment software industry under the outstanding business philosophy of Mr. Michael Kogan, founder of Taito Corporation, and through the dedication and leadership of Mr. Nakanishi and his staff," he said. "Today, the goal of developing new markets with new and existing technologies continues."

Stressing the importance of a good working relationship and a "strong communication chain", he stated further the "you are all aware that we are in an industry where the consumers' desires change constantly. We must all be sensitive to these changes and address them accordingly."

Taito is currently finalizing arrangements for a distributors conference and product presentation, which is tentatively scheduled for April 29 in the Chicago area. At that time, the company will reveal its new "Twin Eagle" kit and the American version of "Top Shooter", the gun game with redemption capabilities, which was introduced at the ACME show.

ACME '88 Gets Rave Reviews

CHICAGO - The 1988 American Coin Machine Exposition (3/11-13) concluded the most successful show in its three year history, at Bally's Hotel in Reno on Sunday, March 13. The three-day event featured 137 exhibitors displaying the latest coin-op products in 41,000 net square feet of space in Bally's Grand and Goldwyn Ballroom. The number of "first time" exhibitors totalled 32.

Total attendance was 4,392, representing a 19% increase from the 1987 show in New Orleans; and the climate this year reflected a very healthy coin-op industry. Show management noted that the most substantial increase was evident in arcade operator and route owner/operator attendance. Arcade operator attendance was up 31% compared to last year and route operators at the show reflected a 23% increase from 1987.

"Bally's Hotel, and Reno, contributed largely to the overwhelming success of the show," according to David Weaver, executive vice president of AAMA, co-sponsor of ACME. "The ability to self-contain the entire exposition in one facility provided a highly concentrated coin-op nucleus for three intensive show days," he continued. "A captive coin-op audience, staying and playing in the same facility allows limitless opportunities to conduct business both on and off the show floor - whether it's in the elevators, in the restaurants or at the tables - and ultimately has a positive impact on show generated sales and leads."

A dynamic seminar program attracted double the attendance compared to 1987. This year's program addressed hard-hitting topics with key speakers in their fields addressing some standing room only crowds.

As noted by Frank Ballouz, president of AAMA, "In planning the show, special attention was given to offering programs geared to specific segments of the industry, as well as the industry at large, to give them something they can't get at any other trade show today." Ballouz added, "we went to keep them coming back each year - and we want to continually look for new and innovative programs to attract an even broader operator and distributor base at the shows."

Evidence of these programs implemented at ACME '88 was the Opening Day Operators Breakfast which brought together a steady flow of operators from 8 am to 11 am; and clearly responded to the requests of operators for a meeting place to plan their strategies during the "Distributors Only" hours on the exhibit floor.

The "All-Show Complimentary Cocktail Party" on Saturday evening drew crowds in excess of 2000. A brief awards ceremony conducted by Play Meter Magazine recognized four manufacturers for excellence in service, innovation and quality, as voted upon by operators.

Another "first ever" program, "Distributors Row", allowed Acme '88 distributors the opportunity to secure conference areas on the exhibit floor where they could establish their own base of operations at the show as well as schedule meetings.

The Spouse Program was another (Continued on page 30)

50 Year Club Now Forming

CHICAGO - If you are among that select group of individuals who have devoted fifty years or more of their lives to the coin-op industry, you are invited to "join the club!" And be prepared for a sizeable membership, since there are more of you that qualify than most of us realized. If your tenure is in the upper 40's, you can look into the possibility of associate membership.

The idea for this venture came from Al Rodstein, who's had more than five decades in the coin machine business, as a distributor; and, with the cooperation of Ed Adlum of Replay Magazine, the reality began taking shape early this year. The first organizational meeting was held in (Continued on page 30)

NEW ARRIVAL! Marcio Bonilla, vice president of sales at Arachnid, Inc., and his wife, Amalia, became the proud parents of their first child, a baby boy, who arrived on March 9, 1988 at Rockford Memorial Hospital. The baby, Marcio Antonio Bonilla, named after his father, weighed in at 6 pounds, 11 ounces and was 18 1/2 inches long at birth. Leave it to Marcio to provide full specifics - and isn't he the proudest looking dad in this photo! We'd like to extend our sincere congratulations to the new parents.

Virginia Firm Sentenced In Illegal Games Case

CHICAGO - The American Amusement Machine Association advised that Stan Hunter and Hunter Vending Company of Arlington, Virginia received sentences on Friday, March 18, 1988 from Judge Claude Hilton in Alexandria, Virginia.

Hunter himself was sentenced to two years probation, 200 hours of community service and was fined $40,000. Hunter Vending Company was fined $40,000 as well. Judge Hilton ordered Hunter to pay the fines within 90 days, according to AAMA.

AAMA noted that Hunter previously plead guilty to conspiracy charges relating to the importation of non-copyrighted boards and Hunter Vending Company previously plead guilty to one count of smuggling on January 22, 1988. In addition to the sentencing, U.S. Customs agents previously recovered approximately 230 illegal boards, 89 cabinets, two trucks and approximately $5,000 cash from seized illegal games.

Robert C. Fay, director of industry affairs and enforcement for AAMA, stated that the conviction of Hunter and his company again illustrates the fact that operators who import, distribute and operate illegal video games can receive a criminal record for violating federal copyright, trademark and smuggling laws.

Merit's 'Pub Time Premier Edition'

The new "Pub Time Premier Edition" video dart machines, introduced by Merit Industries at the March 11-13 ACME convention in Reno, represent the culmination of an extensive engineering effort by the company to develop a soft-tip dart machine with every conceivable convenience and software feature. The reception given the new models was nothing short of overwhelming, according to the company.

Premier Edition is packaged in an outstanding new cabinet that comes in two decor themes: all black with yellow, red and violet trim, along with a target in yellow/red/black; and a beige-tone front with black cabinet trim and the familiar red/white/blue targets. The striking new "Authentic" dart color targets, featuring segments in red/black/green/beige were also shown for the first time and are equally appealing in either cabinet decor. All targets come with the double bullseye and target Catch-Ring.

The slim-line Premier cabinet features superior lighting with a no-shadow overhead light. The target section, unlocked at the top in front, swings down to a horizontal rest position. Total access to all components (monitor, power supply, PCB, buttons and wiring) is achieved without having to move the game at all. Service people will appreciate the fact that they will not have to contend with falling segments while doing maintenance on a target or matrix switch. An extended pedestal base adds stability to the machine, both for play and during service.

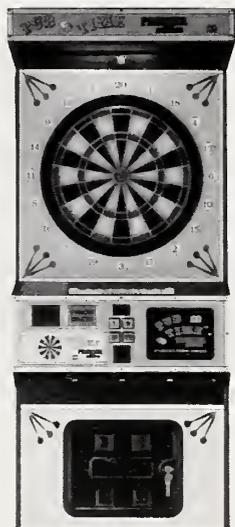

Below the top section is a wide opening dual chute coin door that can be fitted with a dollar bill unit; and the machine employs an advanced credit system. The new software allows players to deposit any amount of coins of dollars in advance, select the game they want, and push a 1,2,3 or 4 player Start Button to begin the game. All unused credits are saved for later and are displayed. Until the first dart is thrown, players can be added or deleted, and the game changed if desired.

Once a game begins, all scoring information is clearly displayed on the amber monitor screen. At the end of any ~Ol game, or Hi-Score, Merit's exclusive copyrighted STAT-PAK software takes over. It computes and displays on-screen each player's game statistics for average points per dart, tons and hat tricks. The dip-switchable feature was developed especially for league play and was enthusiastically received by league-oriented operators.

Premier Edition's game library contains twenty-five of the most popular games, including Cricket, and all ~Ol variations. More games may be added simply by replacing a game chip. Coming soon is a 4-player Cut-Throat Cricket.

Operators can select from three pre-programmed eight-game menus (with fixed pricing) or any custom select their own combination of eight games with any desired pricing.

The software includes full book-keeping for tracking game popularity, memory back-up for credit information, and complete diagnostic test modes.

Commenting on reaction to the new models, Mort Ansky, Merit's vice president, said, "The deluge of response since the show has been phenomenal. We are working closely with all our distributors to ensure that all areas of the country receive full support from the factory."

Further information may be obtained through factory distributor or by contacting Merit Industries, P.O. Box 5004, 2525 State Road, Easton, PA 19020.

Adlum's suite at the ACME convention in Reno, with a number of fifty year veterans in attendance. Al Rodstein was named president.

Sol Lipkin of American Shuffleboard, another prominent fifty year veteran - and still counting - was present at the meeting and is very enthusiastic about the club. "I think it's a great idea," he said. "There were a lot of familiar faces at the meeting and, as word got out on the convention floor, more people expressed interest in joining."

Seeburg's Bob Breither, with 56 years chalked up - and still counting - also attended and signed up for membership. Bob started out in coin-biz as a teenager, working for low wages, his goal being to earn enough money to buy a car; not realizing at the time, however, that he would be so captivated as to stay on and make the coin machine business his career. "The club will allow us to maintain communication with our colleagues and enjoy social get-togethers which can be scheduled during the trade conventions we all attend each year," said Bob. "I'm really proud to be a part of it."

Both gentlemen started naming some of the people who either attended this first meeting or would qualify for membership - such as Paul Calamari, David Rockola, Jack Gordon, John Chapin, Herb Perkins, Ron Rood, Si Redd, Lou Boasberg, Lou Ptacek - and the list goes on
