SAN DIEGO'S RISING STAR Following a stint as a consultant, Tracey Johnson got back into programming at San Diego's Q106, and did a number on crosstown B100. In fact, he even stole their morning show. Little did he know that two years later, he would inherit the job of rebuilding B100. Johnson rebadged the station as Star 100.7, revamped the staff, and tweaked the music. FMQB's Dave Hoefel spends quality time with Johnson this week, and explores the spark behind San Diego's rising Star 100.7. (page 14)

SAN DIEGO Star POWER

Interview with KFMB O.M./P.D. Tracy Johnson

By Dave Hoeffel

You've done the consulting thing, and returned to radio. What made you come back?

Two things. First, consulting involves a lot of travel. I have the greatest family in the world, and my two kids were getting involved in a lot of activities. I was missing a lot. They played in Little League, and I'd be on the road when they had their games. So part of my decision was personal, and had to do with family life. But secondly, there's nothing that can replace the satisfaction and sense of pride that goes with putting together a great radio station. The electricity and vibe in the halls when a station starts to come together is magical, and you don't get that with consulting. You're always on the outside. As a consultant, you do get some satisfaction in seeing things happen, but it's not the same as being a part of it, and being the conductor who gets to make it all happen. Consulting was great, and working with Alan Burns was terrific. But I really missed the feeling of being inside the radio station.

Your tenure in San Diego has been interesting, in that you've been involved with two competing stations. In a nutshell, what happened at Q106, and how did you become involved with KFMB?

I was fortunate to be recruited to become the Program Director at Q106 by the best General Manager there is, Bob Bolinger. I'd known Bob since back in the late 80s, when I was speaking with Gary Wall about coming out and programming the station once Tracy Johnson's radio roots are traced back to his hometown of Ord, Nebraska, where he first began working on air at age 15. He jocked at several stations in the Lincoln, NE market, before landing his first programming job at KFRX/ Lincoln. From there, he nabbed the A.P.D. post at Power 95/Kansas City, before moving on to program The Big Ape, WAPE/Jacksonville. Johnson's next move was to the consulting side of the biz, as he joined Alan Burns & Associates. He returned to radio as P.D. of Q106/San Diego in 1992, and segued to his present position as O.M. of KFMB-AM & FM in 1994.

before. When Kevin Weatherly left to go to KROQ, Bob called me again, and we were able to get together this time. We started re-positioning Q106 to take the station more into the mainstream, and we really enhanced our opportunity in the Spring of '93, when we lured Jeff & Jer away from what was then B100. They're one of the premier morning shows in America, and they helped us legitimize the changes that we had been making with the station. We had tremendous growth that year. We got up to a 7.5 12+, over a 10 share 18-34, and with women 25-34, we had a 14.7. We had a great '93! Late in '93, Par Broadcasting bought the station, and made some changes in personnel, and that started with me. A couple of months later, in February '94, I joined KFMB as Operations Manager, with the immediate mission of trying to revive B100 after Jeff & Jer left. We did some research, and decided to blow the station up in the Summer of '94.

You also have responsibilities at KFMB-AM. How do you divide your time between the stations?

My duties on KFMB-AM, which is Talk, are more strategic in nature. We have a day-to-day Program Director named Dave Sniff, and he runs the show. I'm more of a coach-director-consultant type. I get involved in the big picture of KFMB. I work with Dave on helping him program and position the station. I spend about 70% of my time on the FM, but with two pretty big stations to program, it makes for a full day.

Star 100.7's musical position has taken a decidedly Modern swing over the last few months, and the numbers have trended up impressively, despite lots of Modern competition in the market. Tell us about Star's new direction.

First of all, it's important to understand that Star 100.7 is a Pop music station. All we're really interested in doing is reflecting the Pop music tastes of the market. We don't look at ourselves as being a Modern or Alternative station. Having said that, Pop music has taken on a decidedly Alternative slant. What we used to call Alternative is now the center of the mainstream... at least it is in San Diego. I'll credit 91X's history in the market for having a lot to do with that. A lot of the adult women whom we target grew up listening to 91X. Our listeners grew up with 91X, MTV, and the music that goes along with them, such as Duran Duran, Adam Ant, Men At Work, and Eurythmics. All of that music is compatible with what's coming out now.

At this point, who is your main competitor? What stations are you sharing the most audience with?

We don't really look at anybody as being a main competitor. We look at our station as going out and competing for the attention of listeners. We share the most audience with Q106, mostly because of the large cume that their morning show generates. We share pretty heavily with XHRM, The Flash, and KYXY, the Soft AC. We're starting to share more and more with peripheral formats, such as Country KSON, and Oldies KBZS, K-Best 95. It's interesting that we don't share much with 91X... it's almost an entirely different format.

"The electricity and vibe in the halls when a station starts to come together is magical, and you don't get that with consulting."

It seemed to me that you steered Star 100.7 into a position already occupied by the Flash, and successfully took that position from them...

When The Flash first came on, they sounded an awful lot like we do now. It was very Pop and Mainstream, and they played a lot of 80s music. As they evolved, they ended up positioning themselves more against 91X, and they got a little bit harder. In our opinion, it created an opportunity for somebody to come in and take that position, especially as Pop music continued to go more in that direction.

The radio landscape continues to change there. How does WFLZ sound?

They're a great radio station. It's fun to hear a pure CHR that plays all the hits on one station, and it's great that they can do that in Tampa Bay. They sound terrific, and B.J. Harris and his staff are doing a great job. Their morning show is very good, and they're tight, uptempo, and solid all around. I don't think that Jacor would duplicate the station as it is now if they were programming it for San Diego. But I can hear why they're so successful in Tampa. You can see how they make people talk about them. It's been fun listening to them.

In your opinion, are there any holes left in the market?

Yes, even though this is a very crowded market... one of the most competitive that I've ever been involved with. Coming in from the outside, you might think, "Gee, everything's been taken... we need to take on one of these strong competitors head on." But that's not the case. There are at least two - and probably three - format holes that we know about. It wouldn't be easy to draw big shares, but there are at least two or three good opportunities. There are also some holes that people think exist here that really don't, at least according to our research.

There are a lot of strong morning shows in San Diego... with Jeff & Jer, and now, Howard Stern. Tell us about yours.

In addition to the two that you mentioned, Dave, Shelly & Chainsaw on Rock 105.3 is a terrific morning show. Don Imus is also on here, and our AM station has Hudson & Bauer, who have been on here for over 20 years. And the KSON morning show gets big shares, too. Our morning show is the Dave Smiley morning show. Along with Dave, we have Kim Morrison, and Producer Matt. Dave and Matt were originally on in the afternoon, and became the cornerstone for the station. The station's personality and stationality was being developed around an afternoon show. Last Fall, we decided to move them to mornings, and January 1st, we added Kim, who had been doing middays. She kind of balances the testosterone level out. It's a dynamic show that's well balanced. They're heavy on the phones, they talk about real life events, and they've been great at learning how to create talk in the market. For example, in December, Smiley was frozen alive for 48 hours to raise money to grant the wish of every child in San Diego County's Make-A-Wish program. He raised over

The Star 100.7 morning show broadcasts live from the world's largest bowl of Lucky Charms.

PROGRAMMING

to WIN by Bob Michaels

The Six Things You Should Do First When The New Book Arrives

The Arbitron book sports a new look starting in Winter 1996. Programmers will have more trends for more demographics, multi-book averages in two and four survey markets, and time spent listening estimates printed right in the report.

With so much changed, a brief primer on where you should look when the redesigned report first hits your desk is in order. In six quick steps you'll be able to understand the performance of your station, your competition, radio overall in your market and even that of Arbitron.

Step 1

Compare the AQH rating for the market to the last book and to last year's book. (The "TOTALS" line at the bottom of the Target Listener Trend Section.) Is radio listening up, steady, or trending down? Check for Persons 12+ and for your target demo. Know which way the market is headed before you judge your station's performance.

Step 2

Look at your station's performance over the last few books. This task is easier than ever with the expanded demographics in the Target Listener Trend section. Check your share trend for Persons 12+ and your target demo, but don't jump to any conclusions until you've also checked AQH Persons and your cume. Also, take a close look at your competitors and at the other stations in the market before you make any conjectures about your performance. A hot station that generates a lot of new radio listening in the market can lower your share even when your average audience and cume audience have held steady.

The new, four book average that is now printed for every station gives an easy-to-use and highly reliable benchmark to judge your current performance against.

Step 3

Check your targeting. There are two places in the new report that can show you if your programming strategy is delivering the demo you are targeting: Listener Composition and the new Time Spent Listening section. Is your highest rated cell for AQH and Cume the demo you are chasing? In the Listener Composition pages, you can determine the answer quickly by scanning across the cell-by-cell estimates for your station. To find out who your strongest demographic competitor is, scan down the column of your most important demo.

In the Time Spent Listening section, double check that your target demo has the highest TSL. Remember for many stations, 30% of your cume audience can generate 70% of your quarter hours. Time Spent Listening is where this happens.

Step 4

Find out who else has your listeners. Most radio listeners spend their time with two or three stations. Do your listeners switch between you and a direct format competitor or to a complementary format (light AC and news, for example). The Cume Duplication Section will tell you what percent of your cume audience listens to the other stations. Where your audience goes when they are not listening to you is an important piece of information for your programming strategy.

Step 5

Where does my audience listen to me? We may call early morning and late afternoon "drive time" but all your listeners are not tooling down the highway with the windows rolled down and the radio turned up. The Listening Locations Section breaks out combined drive, midday, and weekend estimates. Knowing where your audience is can help you determine the importance of traffic reports or office promotions to your audience. The new report design now includes an "at work" column.

Step 6

Check Arbitron's performance. You've just spent an hour evaluating your performance. Now would be a good time to see how Arbitron did its part. On page 4, you can see how many diaries were used to tabulate your report, how the diaries are distributed across demos and how many diaries there are in your target demographic. The closer the in-tab sample % is to the population %, the better. Remember, Arbitron uses sample balancing to compensate for the inevitable variations in sample composition, so that small under-deliveries or over-deliveries are put back in balance as the results are tabulated.

We've only scratched the surface of the insights that the Arbitron Local Market Report can offer. For a more detailed look at the new Arbitron book, contact your Arbitron rep (the names are in the back of your Arbitron report.) Ask for a free, autographed copy of the Arbitron Radio Market Report Reference Guide. By the way, if you're in a Spring or Spring/Fall market, you'll be seeing many of these improvements when your Spring survey report mails in July.

Next time in these pages: The secret ratings formulas of successful programmers.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

If you could shower with anyone in the record business, who would it be, and why?

Glenn Kalina/ WIOQ: Nancy Levin from Priority Records, because the first was so good!

Justin Case/ KZIO: Bernie Powers, for obvious reasons.

Mr. Ed Lambert/ KHKS: John Fagot, 'cause he has the nicest tush in the business.

Andy Shane/ WKTU: Oh my God... just thinking about the answer to that question excites me. Are you crazy? I can't answer that.

Michael St. John/ WKBQ: Pamela Jouvan of Atlantic, 'cause she's getting promoted.

J.J. Rice/ WPXY

J.J. Rice/ WPXY: If someone gives Tyra Banks a recording contract, I'm there.

Bill Mitchell/ WNDU: Oh my Lord, where would I even start. Who the hell thinks up these questions... tell me it's not Hoeffel. Please send him on vacation.

Paul Kelly/ WAYV: Dave Reynolds. He knows I want to see him naked. (Just kidding). Hey, is Pam Anderson in records?

Jordan Walsh/ WLAN: Faith Hill. She's the hottest.

Kid Stevenz/ KJMZ: Lisa from Revolution, 'cause I haven't talked to her in awhile and we could talk music in the shower.

Christine Fox/ WFHN: Charlie Walk, it's a perfect fit. (There you go Charlie, there's your shout out!)

Rich Davis/ Star 104.5: Miss April. I heard that she was thinking about singing somewhere.

Jeff McCartney/ KC101: Shania Twain. Do you have to ask?

Wookiee/ WOCQ: Interscope's Pam Grund, for obvious reasons.

Bobby DJ/ WHTO: Kelly from Interscope, 'cause I'm madly in love with her.

Dave McKay/ WPST: I think I would avoid showering with any of them. I'd rather smell bad.

Bill Thorman/ KHOM: Exactly how many adds are we talking about?

Lee Cagle/ KWMX: I'm gonna plead the Fifth. That's not fair. It can only lead to trouble.

Charlie Maxx/ KZFM: I'd pick three, because I can. Izzy Sanchez, John Strazza, and Bob Burke.

Dale Baird/ KQXY: Mariah Carey, for obvious reasons.

Becky Myers/ WSKS: Lars Linstrum, for obvious reasons.

Chuck McGee/ WAEB-FM: Alanis Morissette.

Michelle Stevens/ WPST: I can't answer that, and you can quote me on that.

Ray Kalusa/ Q106: There are so many (all female)... I couldn't just name one.

Rich E. Cunningham/ K92: Bobbie Hach at Lava.

Bill Shakespeare/ KWNZ: Dana Keil, because she's such a sweetheart.

Danny Ocean/ WBHT: I'll abstain.

Dem Jones/ WMRV: Drew Ferrante from the WORK Group, and Bill Millman from Sony... 'cause they're two fruity bastards.

Jon Anderson/ WVAQ: Do I really have to choose? It would depend on what soap they're using.

Don London/ WNVZ

Don London/ WNVZ: No one. I try not to think of record people when I'm in the shower.

Michael Martin/ Wild 107: The shower would be upstairs and on TV would be "I Love Lucy," and Mike Marino would be in the corner with a video camera in one hand, and in the other, well let's just leave it at that.

Mike Edwards/ WVSR: I plead the Fifth.

Kid Kelly/ WBHT: Mo Preskell.

Steve Lawrence/ WSKS: My owner, for obvious reasons.

Karen Rite/ WMXS: Unfortunately, I have high standards and in this industry there are slim pickins, as there aren't as many long haired skinny White males as there used to be.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Leslie Fram/ 99X

Leslie Fram/ 99X: Ever since they made Hoeffel Executive Director, these questions have gotten more and more perverted!

Bob Spencer/ WCIR: Shania Twain, because she's beautiful.

Hitman/ KBFM: Sorry John, but it would be Jo Jo from Upstairs Records. If you saw her, you'd want to too.

Jay Towers/ WAKX: Columbia's Lisa Ellis, because she looks like Idalis from MTV. She is fine!

Jammer/ KQXY: Mariah Carey, because she is the shit.

Kevin Vaughan/ WNSL: Nobody. They're all ugly.

Jeff Hughes/ KNIN: Madonna, for obvious reasons.

Dee Dee McGuire/ WIOQ: All record reps, 'cause they all need to clean up their act.

Wally B./ WXXM: Madonna, because it would call for some serious scrubbing in some serious places.

Brad Kelly/ WAEV: Tina Arena, for obvious reasons.

Jack Diamond/ X99: Janet Jackson, for obvious reasons.

Mick Fulgham/ KISX: I'd really rather not answer.

Leo Caro/ KCHX: Mariah Carey, for obvious reasons.

Jack Kahan/ WJMX: Tina Arena, for obvious reasons.

Michael Stuart/ WMXZ: In a strictly platonic way, it would be Lisa Valesquez.

Dino Hernandez/ KIXY: Janet Jackson, for obvious reasons.

Bruce St. James/ Power 106: Under the 5th Amendment Right of the U.S. Constitution, I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds I may incriminate myself.

Andrew Zepeda/ WCIL: Mariah Carey, for obvious reasons.

Geronimo/ Q99/KZHT

Geronimo/ Q99/KZHT: Bruce Reiner and Liz Montalbano. Bruce has to be in there so I can look good.

Dr. Dave Michaels/ WKFR: My wife, even though she is not in the industry, she's the safest person I know.

Craig "Mancow" Hubbard/ KKRD: I don't bathe, so it doesn't matter.

Scott Thomas/ WDJB: Madonna, because I want to see if what Dennis Rodman says is true.

Scott Robbins/ WBNQ: Michael Jackson, so I'd know for sure.

Jeff Nelson/ Z90: Felicia from Arista. She's given me more hits than any other label.

Kevin Kollins/ WIFC: Barry Pinlac, to see if the rumors were true.

Terri McCormick/ WTWR: No one. I don't want to smell.

Craig Russell/ WKFR: Joan Osborne, to see if she has anything else pierced.

Jackie Johnson/ WIFC: Nobody, because even if I did, then everyone would know about it.

Bill Klaproth/ WDBR: Mariah Carey, for obvious reasons.

CJ Steele/ WDDJ: Faith Hill, for obvious reasons.

Maurice DeVoe/ KKBT: I'll take the Fifth.

James Coles/ Hot 104: The Viking Chuck Fields, as I heard some unbelievable stories about him the last time he was in Hawaii and I would not participate but act as a voyeur.

Greg Sims/ Star 100.7: Aggie Baghaei. I'd like to see what else she has pierced besides her nose, ears and her tongue.

Scott Shannon/ KHTQ: A sleazy indie, so they could wash my butt.

Roxy Lennox/ KGOT: Chris Isaak.

Bobby Sato/ KPSI: Janet Jackson. It's obvious! She's that ghetto booty.

Next Week's Question:

Do you have a specialty feature that tests (rates) records? What is it called, and when does it run?

TALENT TIPS

“The Sayings Of Chairman Jay” —by Jay Trachman

Always give them more than they're expecting. It makes you valuable as an employee. More important, it makes you valuable as a friend. The listener expects you to identify the songs, give the weather, do PSA's. When you entertain, you go beyond that. When you help out a caller, or get personally involved in a local cause, or Share your life, or show any sort of commitment that goes beyond the job description, you make friends. And that, after all, is a big part of what you're there for.

Emotions are the name of the game. Entertaining is enabling people to experience their emotions in a safe environment. All your personality raps should be created and delivered with this in mind. If you make someone feel something, you've satisfied them. If you don't, you're just another interchangeable voice.

Making them cry is as good as making them laugh. See above. One emotion is as good as another. Rush Limbaugh makes a good living making people angry. The Academy Awards were a festival of tears. Make your listener say, “Awww” by talking about a tender moment with your kids or your lover, and everyone listening will identify with the feeling. So much of life isn't naturally funny; it's great when you have material that makes the listener laugh — but it's deadly when you're trying to make a joke out of something, and you don't succeed. Identify your own feelings; find a way to invite your listener to Share them. They'll come back for more.

The audience wants to like you. Performers start out with a vast reserve of good will. They want you to succeed; if you fail, they've wasted their time. We fail by behaving as phonies, by being mean-spirited, mechanical, self-indulgent (as in “too wordy”) or vapid. To succeed, you don't have to be brilliant. You just have to be authentic — and have something to say worth listening to.

Having fun is good for you. You can't be an entertainer by working ten hours and then going home every night to crash in front of the TV. As performers, we have a professional obligation — to ourselves — to experience the things our listeners are experiencing, and to lead “interesting” lives. That's how we get firsthand, emotional knowledge we can Share with people, and affect them.

Live in the listener's world. You hear DJs still doing voice imitations of Henry Kissinger. You hear others saying, “Rain starting tonight,” and it's 2pm and you're out in the car and it's pouring. These jocks may be in some world, but it's not the real one. Look out the window once in awhile. Listen to what people are buzzing about today. Carpe diem!

Time matters. You haven't got all day. Most of us work in music-intensive formats. All of us work in 1996. People aren't sitting by the radio waiting for our pearls of wisdom, they're doing other things, and our hold on their consciousness is tenuous, at best. When you ramble on, your listener often doesn't have the time to pay attention — or more likely, the interest. Luckily, there's very little in life that can't be Shared in twenty or thirty seconds, if you construct your raps carefully, in advance. People who talk for longer are frequently labeled as “self-indulgent” — in simple words, a bore. Say that you've got to say, make your emotional impact, and get on with the next event.

Know who you're talking to. The One to One illusion of radio is: one friend talking to one friend. Ours is the most intimate of media, but it's impossible to sound intimate if you're talking to a crowd or, worse, not talking to anybody in particular. Identify a personal listener. Talk to that one person, all the time. Everyone who's listening and wants the illusion of companionship will fantasize that that one person you seem to be talking to is him or her.

PROMOTIONS

FROM: SHAREPOINTS
 Client newsletter of The BP Consulting Group
 Seattle

"The Timeline of an Effective Promotion"
 —by Brad Burkhart, Consultant/Programmer

• 90 DAYS PRIOR: BRAINSTORM IDEAS.

Great promotions begin with creative ideas. A "no holds barred" brainstorming session with GM, PD, sales manager, promotions director and any other creative staffers (the morning team, etc.) over all specifics.

• 75 DAYS PRIOR: WRITE OUTLINE WITH ASSIGNMENTS.

Agree on a written outline including a timeline checklist covering all of the promotional details.

• 60 DAYS PRIOR: FINALIZE SPONSORSHIP AND/OR PRIZES.

Complete all detail work at least two months before the start of the promotion's air date. If details are not finalized, put the promotion on hold until they can be fully worked out.

• 45 DAYS PRIOR: BRIEF AIRSTAFF.

Meet with your airstaff to brief them on the general framework of the promotional event and obtain their creative input and ideas.

• 30 DAYS PRIOR: BEGIN SCRIPTING AND PROMO PRODUCTION.

Every effective promotion has tease, education, participation, winning and follow-up phases. Script/produce all in advance. Don't let sponsor needs or poor preparation force you away from what's necessary to achieve station's goals.

• 14 DAYS PRIOR: BEGIN TEASE CAMPAIGN.

Pre-recorded tease promos can be one-line drop-ins, or more fully-produced 30s that paint a picture without resolving precisely how the listener can enter the picture.

• 7 DAYS PRIOR: BEGIN EDUCATION PHASE.

Tell listeners what's going to happen, what will be given away and how they can participate. Keep promos and live liners simple. The greater the listener "buy-in" at this point, the more effective the promotion will be.

• PROMOTION ACTUALLY BEGINS ON THE AIR.

Keep it short and FUN! Remember the majority of radio listeners dislike hype and won't participate, so it must be entertaining (or unobtrusive) enough for them, too.

• FOLLOWING PROMOTION: REAL PEOPLE VOICES IN POST-PROMO.

First, run tape of the excited winner. Then, get new tape when they claim the prize. Then, freshen the promos again by calling to ask, "What did you do with your prize?"

EDITORIAL

"Using Interns Wisely"
 —by Bob Lowry, Pres.
 R.M. Lowry & Company, Inc.
 Scottsdale, AZ

Most radio stations have at one time or another used interns. Whether it's to help out on a special project or give budding broadcasters the chance to gain real world experience, these often unpaid helpers can be a valuable addition to your staff.

A recent issue of Home Office Computing Magazine had an article by Linda Stern on getting the most from your intern program. Her thoughts are well worth passing on:

- Be prepared to teach. Never forget that the intern is trying to learn something from this experience. Take the time to instruct.
- Let them do more than just junk work. If you just need filing help, hire an office temp. Be sure your intern has the chance to be creative, and to contribute something of value to the organization.
- Design projects that can be completed during a normal semester. In most cases the intern will be earning credit at school. Be sure you accommodate that schedule or the intern will be left hanging.
- Work within the school schedule. Be sensitive to exam periods and vacation breaks.
- Be explicit. Set a firm work schedule and hold the intern to it. Lay out the terms of the job, the work-load, and exactly what is expected. Detail the responsibilities, the order of work, and the projected completion date. Remember, part of your job is to teach good work skills.
- Resolve the pay issue, first. Some employees aren't comfortable with getting free work. Others see the learning experience and classroom credit as a fair trade for unpaid work. Whatever agreement you reach with the intern, remember that many students are on a tight budget, so some help with transportation or meals would be appreciated.
- Check your liability. Accidents and injuries happen to anyone. Be sure you have adequate insurance. Also, if you do pay the student, be sure to withhold the appropriate taxes and make worker's compensation payments.
- Make the work space workable. At the very least, give the intern his or her own desk and chair. Productivity is directly linked to creating a workable environment.
- When one intern leaves, ask him or her to find you another. Someone who just finished a stint with you is in the best position to suggest finding someone else. Ask the intern to help you improve or modify your program.

Interns are god-sends for many radio stations. Ms. Stern's ideas are excellent building blocks to make the most of the opportunity.

ROCK
REPORT

One of Rock's most legendary bands, The Who, are set to reunite in late June in London's Hyde Park for a special outdoor charity performance of Quadrophenia. Founding members Pete Townshend, Roger Daltrey and John Entwistle will play together for the first time since 1989's 25th Anniversary tour. Eric Clapton is the special guest. Proceeds will go to The Prince's Trust. In other related news, Pete Townshend will be performing two intimate club gigs on May 3rd & 4th at New York's Supper Club. These shows will feature Townshend solo in an acoustic setting, playing both guitar and piano.

It's finally official! On Tuesday, April 16th, Kiss will hold a press conference in their hometown of New York City on the USS Intrepid battleship. Wearing full make-up and costumes, Kiss will announce tour dates for their "reunion" trek kicking off on June 28th in Detroit, Michigan at Tiger Stadium. Opening for Kiss on this show only are Stone Temple Pilots. STP are such big fans of the band that several years ago they performed a show wearing full Kiss make-up. Meanwhile, fans wanting a taste of the Kiss magic a little early should head out to the 10th Annual New York Kiss Expo held on Sunday, April 21, at the Rothman Center in Hackensack, New Jersey from 11:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m. A huge dealer's room packed with vendors from around the world offering rare Kiss memorabilia, an all-day video show, and tribute bands Hotter Than Hell and Fractured Mirror are among the exciting festivities planned. Special guests include Kiss road manager/producer/songwriter Sean Delaney and drummer Anton Fig (drummer on Kiss' Dynasty and Unmasked albums). Tickets are available for $15 in advance, $17 at the door. For more information contact 201-387-9019. Lastly, Kiss' postponed Rockline appearance has been rescheduled for April 22nd.

Reunion fever is contagious, just ask The Who, Kiss, and the Sex Pistols. And now Styx, the popular '70s supergroup has reunited and embark on a 55-city U.S. tour kicking off on May 21st in Cedar Rapids, Idaho. Dubbed "Return To Paradise Theatre," the tour features the original Styx line-up including Tommy Shaw. The show will find Styx playing a wealth of gems including such favorites as

"Babe," "Come Sail Away," "Too Much Time On My Hands," "Blue Collar Man," "Miss America," "Renegade," "Fooling Yourself," "The Best Of Times," and "Lady" - plus several new tunes. Meanwhile, a new Styx Greatest Hits Volume 2 is penciled for release on June 11th and includes three newly recorded songs: "While There's Still Time" and "It Takes Loves To Make Love" by Dennis De Young, and Tommy Shaw's "Little Suzie." Opening for Styx is Kansas featuring original members Steve Walsh on lead vocals, guitarist Rich Williams, and drummer Phil Ehart. As for future Styx plans, Rock Report correspondent Ken Sharp spoke to lead guitarist James Young who said, "We want to make another full studio album. Tommy Shaw has committed to that. We're co-existing wonderfully. We picked up right where we left off."

After a long absence from the music scene, Def Leppard triumphantly returns with a new album, Slang, set to hit stores on May 14th. The first single, "Work It Out," due April 29th, marks a new and welcome stylistic change for the group that places them firmly in the '90s with a cutting edge sound. Other tracks on the record, the band's first in many years not produced by Mutt Lange, include "Truth," "Turn to Dust," "All I Want Is Everything" (championed as a killer power ballad), "Breathe A Sigh," "Deliver Me," "Gift Of Flesh," "Blood Runs Cold," "Where Does Love Go When It Dies," "Pearl Of Euphoria," and the title cut.

The name Henry Mancini certainly doesn't come to mind when thinking of musical giants in the Rock and Roll pantheon. Yet Mancini's profound influence on music has penetrated the Rock world. Shots In The Dark (Del-Fi Records) is the name of a new collection of Rock acts performing innovative instrumental renditions of a select grouping of Mancini masterpieces. And surprisingly enough, it works. For the uninitiated, Mancini's film and television scores often flirted in the Rock arena, juxtaposing tasty bossa-nova grooves with adventurous, almost psychedelic touches. Standout cuts on this unique and worthy collection include "The Tiki Gods" led by ex-Cars guitarist Elliot Easton with "Mr. Lucky" (a knockout track which

A press release issued by the remaining members of the Stone Roses last week hints that they may continue without John Squire. Ian Brown, Mani, Robbie Maddix and Nigel Ipinson said of Squire's departure: "We feel as cheated as everyone else who's heard the news. We are in the middle of recording the next LP.

We're disgusted yet feel strong and more optimistic than ever." Since then, a new rumour surfaced suggesting that Slash of Guns N' Roses is keen to collaborate with the band. Squire, meanwhile, said in his statement: "After lengthy deliberation, it is with great regret that I feel compelled to announce my decision to leave the Stone Roses. I believe all concerned will benefit from a parting of the ways at this point and I see this as the inevitable conclusion to the gradual social and musical separation we have undergone in the last few years. I wish them every success and hope they go onto greater things. My intentions are to continue writing whilst looking for partners in a new band and to begin working again as soon as possible."

The Roses' replacements as Manchester's most-written about band, Oasis, were courting controversy again last week after an interview with Noel Gallagher in which he allegedly discussed his and brother Liam's life of petty crime before the band formed. Police are now investigating claims that the pair burgled houses and stole car stereos as youths. In more musical Oasis news, Cast and Ocean Colour Scene have been confirmed as guests at their April 27/28 stadium shows at Manchester City's Maine Road soccer ground.

Babylon Zoo's "Animal Army," the follow-up to the worldwide smash "Spaceman," is out next week in a new mix featuring elephant, lion and leopard sound effects. A 12-inch version coming on April 22 will include the Kiss and Capital radio mixes of "Spaceman," the song which has now been #1 in 14 coun-

ALL-STAR, SECOND SWEET RELIEF ALBUM SET FOR JUNE 25: The second album to benefit the Sweet Relief Musician's Fund is scheduled for release on Capitol Records on June 25. R.E.M., Smashing Pumpkins, Soul Asylum, Cracker, Dog's Eye View, Garbage, Indigo Girls, Sparklehorse, Kristen Hersh, and Mary Margaret O'Hara have all contributed tracks. The album also features some interesting duets: Madonna with Joe Henry and Nanci Griffith with Hootie & The Blowfish. All the songs were written by Vic Chestnutt who duets with Victoria Willians on one track, "God Is Good." Chestnutt will open the East Coast leg of the Cowboy Junkies tour beginning in Philadelphia on April 14. A title for the new Sweet Relief disc hasn't been finalized yet. The organization provides financial assistance to musicians facing medical crisis and financial hardship.

Smashing Pumpkins

PUMPKINS TIED WITH JACKSON FOR BIGGEST SELLING DOUBLE CD: The Smashing Pumpkins are now tied with Michael Jackson for the best-selling double CD in history. Mellon Collie And The Infinite Sadness has now sold six million copies since its release last year. During the month of March, 15 records went platinum and 39 went gold, according to the Recording Industry Association of America. Among the 23 multiplatinum releases were Shania Twain's "The Woman In Me" at six million; Robert Palmer's 1985 album Riptide with "Addicted To Love" on it at two million; The Presidents Of The U.S.A. and Oasis are also at two million each.

NEW LIZ PHAIR SONG IS FROM BERTOLUCCI FILM: Liz Phair's next release will be from the soundtrack to the new Bernardo Bertolucci movie, Stealing Beauty. The soundtrack marks the first time that the renowned filmmaker has used contemporary music in a film. Stealing Beauty will premiere at the Cannes Film Festival on May 16, and it will be released in the U.S. by Fox Searchlight shortly thereafter. Phair's "Rocket Boy" will be released to radio on May 27, and the soundtrack will be released the next day. Along with Phair, Mazzy Star and the Cocteau Twins have contributed newly recorded songs. The soundtrack also has Portishead, Lori Carson, and Sam Phillips. But it's not entirely made up of contemporary artists. Nina Simone's "My Baby Just Cares For Me" and "I'll Be Seeing You" are also on it.

COURT OF APPEAL RULES IN FAVOR OF TOM WAITS AGAINST ADS: An Appeal Court in California has upheld a lower court's ruling that Tom Waits' former music publisher wrongly permitted two of the artist's songs to be used without his consent in commercials for William's Gel and Levi's. Third Story Music must "disgorge" all monies received from Waits' songs, according to the ruling. However, the Appellate Court reversed the $20,000 the lower court awarded Waits, saying that damages for emotional distress should not be awarded in breach of contract cases. Waits is no stranger to court battles. He also won a $2.5 million victory over Frito-Lay and its advertising agency in the U.S. courts - after the corn chip company used Waits impersonator to mimic his voice in a series of radio commercials in 1988. In the latest case, Waits testified that he had instructed a former manager on numerous occasions before 1977 that he opposed use of his compositions in commercials. Waits claims, "The licensing of a song for a commercial against the wishes of the artist reduces it to a meaningless jingle when it becomes fused with the product and its image."

BUSH MAKES ROSEANNE'S SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIAL: Bush members had their tongues firmly planted in their cheeks at a recent taping for Roseanne's upcoming late night show, Saturday Night Special. Before breaking into their new single, "Machinehead," the band jammed on the Sex Pistols' "Pretty Vacant" for the studio audience, with chrome-domed guitarist Nigel Pulsford sporting a long, brown hippie wig. Party Of Five star, Scott Wolf, was interrupted in his introduction of Bush when Gavin Rossdale repeatedly ran the neck of his guitar across the actor's back creating a massive wall of feedback that took audience and crew by surprise. Following the taping, the band celebrated with Courtney Love, Drew Barrymore, Mira Sorvino, and Timothy Hutton. The debut episode of Saturday Night Special featuring Bush airs on April 13.

REO READY TO RELEASE FIRST NEW MUSIC IN FIVE YEARS: Rather than turn the first new Reo Speedwagon record in five years into an Industrial/Rap disc, the band vacated Kevin Cronin's home studio when the jackhammers arrived to begin earthquake repairs. REO is now in a Burbank studio to finish the disc by the end of May. The new disc, Building The Bridge, is expected out in early July, just about the same time REO, Foreigner, and Peter Frampton open this summer's "Can't Stop Rockin'" tour. The first date is July 3 at Darien Lake, New York. Last summer's "Can't Stop Rockin'" tour featured REO, Fleetwood Mac, and Pat Benatar. Cronin attributed the long break between albums to the personnel changes in REO. After a stable line-up for over 10 years and the release of their biggest-selling albums, Alan Gratzler left in 1988 to open a restaurant in Santa Barbara. Gary Richrath soon followed. Although Dave Amato and Brian Hitt played on REO's last studio album in 1991, Cronin now feels that they rushed into the studio before they were ready to make a record. "It didn't really feel like a band yet," he recalls. "I really consider this the first record for this band - because we spent the last five years touring, playing clubs and county fairs, reintroducing ourselves to fans who were kind of wary about what was going to happen with the band." Greg Ladanyi is producing the new REO album.

MUSIC NEWS

tries. Babylon Zoo start a U.K. tour on Sunday (14) in Manchester, with a London date at Shepherds Bush Empire on the 19th.

Elvis Costello's first U.K. single from his new album with the Attractions, All This Useless Beauty, will be "It's Time," due out here on April 29. It'll be backed with "Life Shrinks," a song he wrote for the film The War Of The Buttons that was not used, and by a cover of Bruce Springsteen's "Brilliant Disguise." Costello is expected to announce U.K. tour dates for July, with live work in the U.S. and Japan in August and September.

Suggs, whose new single "Cecilia" featuring Louchie Lou and Michie One made its chart debut at 33 last weekend, has revealed that Madness are planning a new studio album. The '80s chart residents are due to reconvene for another "Madstock" live event in London's Firsbury Park in June, at which they will introduce three newly-written songs. Suggs says that the group then intend to make a new album in 1997.

Eg, whose Turn Me On I'm A Rocket Man album was released earlier in the year, will be out on tour in May as special guest of Irish singer-songwriter Sinead Lohan, whose 11-date tour starts on May 5. Eg will release "Made My Baby Cry" as the second single from his album on May 20.

Eg is not to be confused with Eggman, the new alter ego of Boo Radleys member Sice. He has the solo single "Not Bad Enough" released on May 6, with an album following later in the month. The Boo Radleys are currently working on their follow-up to the Wake Up album for release later in the year. The Eggman single also includes "We Won The War?" and "Identikit."

That's not the only single out next week sporting a Smokey Robinson cover. Ash's "Goldfinger," a new song written by the Northern Irish group's Tim Wheeler, is backed by a cover of "Get Ready." Ash's first full-length album 1977 - taking its title from the year of birth of two of the group's three members - will be out in the U.K. on May 13, also including their Top 15 hits "Girl From Mars" and "Angel Interceptor" and another Ash favourite, "Kung Fu."

Mice, the new band featuring former All About Eve frontwoman Julianne Regan, release the new single "The Milkman" on April 22. It's the follow-up to last year's "Mat's Prozac" and will feature on Mice's first album The Innocent, which is due for May 13 release on Permanent.

Catatonica, blanco Y negro's Welsh signings who won good reviews for their last single "Sweet Catatonica," follow it with "Lost Cat" on April 22. It's produced by Stephen Street, as is their debut album Way Beyond Blue which is due for summer release. Catatonica are currently touring the U.K.

Any doubts that the Prodigy's "Firestarter" was a fan-base-only chart-topper have now been dispelled as the single enjoys its third week at #1 in an unusually stable Top 40 that featured only six new entries, the lowest total in recent memory (barring seasonal charts). Mark Snow held at two and Mark Morrison's everlasting "Return Of The Mack" continued its steady progress, climbing one to three. 2PAC's "California Love," featuring Dr. Dre, debuted at six and Rage Against The Machine crashed in at eight with "Bulls On Parade." Longpigs made their Top 20 debut with "On And On" at 16 while Upside Down scored their second hit with "Every Time I Fall In Love" at 18. Several singles reversed their decline and moved back up the chart, such as those by Cast (16-12) and PJ & Duncan (24-20). Interactive's Europop single "Forever Young" arrived at 28, Suggs' "Cecilia" at 33 and Status Quo's version of Fleetwood Mac's "Don't Stop" at 35.

wouldn't sound out-of-place on the Beach Boys' Pet Sounds album), "The Pink Panther Theme" featuring members of Tom Waits' backing band, Cramps' member Poison Ivy with a stellar interpretation of the Peter Gunn theme, and the Wondermints' version of "The Party," a psychedelic tour de force mixing trumpets, and sitars into a nutritious musical snack. Definitely worth a spin. For more information contact Del-Fi Records a 1-800-99-DELFI.

The WORK team has one here! A great vocal performance that has multi-format smash written all over it!

The Columbia Crew is back at it again with some very HOT music! Xscape "Can't Hang" (So So Def/Columbia/CRG) grabs a nice opening week with out-of-the-box reports at: Z90; WHHH; 92Q; KZHT; KKSS; WOCQ; and, HOT 105! Single is the B-side to "Do You Want To". Video out next week! On tour now with LL Cool J and R. Kelly!... Fu-Gee-Mania still out-of-control! "Fu-Gee-La" (Ruffhouse/Columbia/CRG) is new on: KUBE and B96!... Kris Kross "Live And Die For Hip Hop" (Ruffhouse/Columbia/CRG) is building a strong base with play at: Z90; KBXX; 92Q; KIX 106; and, Z90!... Get ready for: Kino Watson; Kenny Lattimore; and, Ricky Martin.

Relativity's Joe Hetch and Phil Matagaras have Bone Thugs-N-Harmony "Tha Crossroads" (Ruthless/Relativity) on-a-roll with another solid week of reports. New: KDON; KIKI; KPRR; KSFM; KWNZ; KZFM; and, WOCQ! This record is totally for real. The remix is the KILLER! There is a buzz and a base building on Frankie Cutlass "You And You And You" (Relativity). Could this be something?

Priorty's Liz Pokora has some slammin tunes 4 U! The "Substitute" soundtrack is loaded! Mack 10 "Hoo-Bangin" (Priority) gets the early green light at: WILD 107! It's working BIG time at KKBT!... Afro-Rican "All Of Puerto Rico" (Priority) is exploding at KTFM!... New Ice T has the building buzzing!

BUSTA RHYMES IS THE BOMB!

Great Video!... Billie Ray Martin "Your Loving Arms" (Sire/EEG) is rising from the ashes! New reports: KHFI; KQMQ; KUBE; KWIN; and, KIX 106! It seems that the addition of WKTU/New York to our universe has given a whole new market to this song. It was a hit for most people who already played it and have it in recurrences or gold. The EEG staff is on a mission and is committed!

Arista's Rob Stone has another stellar week with Monica "Why I Love You So Much" (Rowdy/Arista). New: KWIN; WHHH; WJBT; and HOT 97!... Total "Kissin You" (Bad Boy/Arista) grabs some great stations: Q105; HOT 105; 92Q; WJBT; KIX 106; and, Z90! This label keeps on kickin them out!

STREET BEAT BUZZZZ...

Adam Clayton/Larry Mullen "Theme from Mission: Impossible" (Junior's Hard Mix) (Mother/Island)... A MAJOR event is about to happen here! Yes, this is the TV show theme. It's a little different than you might remember, and it's performed by U2's Adam Clayton and Larry Mullen. But, more importantly the remix is SLAMMIN! Junior Vasquez delivers an outstanding top notch production on "Junior's Hard Mix Edit." Island's Joe Riccetti and Marthe Reynolds should have fun with this! Programmers are foaming at the mouth for the edit. This is the type of record that Crossovers can really sink their teeth into it early, and gain that little extra energetic vibe that may be to radical for Mainstream. Make no mistake...this record WILL cross to Pop! It's featured in the upcoming Brian DePalma film, "Mission: Impossible" starring Tom Cruise. CD-Pro ships 4/17! Limited 12-inch vinyl is out at the mix show level. Early vibes from: Q102's Glenn Kalina; KTU's Andy Shane; and, WJJS's David Lee

Michaels. Mix shows are building the base: KTU; KIIS; KIX106; WFLZ; and, Q105!

Issy Sanchez wanted desperately to respond to our FMQB Question of the week. "If you could shower with any one in the record business, who would it be and why?" A: I would shower by myself BUT, I would like Jo Lopez; Shellie Hart; Liz Pokora; Dana Lundon; Marthe Reynolds; Desiree Schuon; Lynda Murdock; and, Valerie Delong all to watch! Thank You!
