INSIDE TOP 40 WITH DAVE SHOLIN

Ever wondered how often the term "smash" is used in a given day? Though overused it certainly applies in the case of BOSTON who debuted at #25 September 26th and promptly went 17 to 7 to 4 and now number one which is only expected at this point. Top Ten is tight with only one new member this week, CETERA AND GRANT'S duet, whose hit factor leaves no doubt...6 % to 87% on the way to a perfect 100%.

Rock n' Roll is alive and well...just ask those playing BON JOVI. Number one for Jim Martin at WOAY, Jeff Christenson KOKZ, Mark Kelly KCIL/FM, Mark McCain KKYK etc. Looks like they've got their first Top Ten entry in the Top 40 and it's going to be a big one.

It took some convincing but with each successive release OMD made believers out of wary programmers. They're moving into position to duplicate the success of "If You Leave" debuting in the Top 30 at WCLG, WBAM, WZOK, KZFN, KFMV, KNVR, KWSD, KTAG, KTRS, etc. Credit the Northwest with bringing THE BANGLES to our attention months ago. Still number one for Chuck Matheson at KHWK/FM Tri-Cities/Kennewick and Top 5 with John Langan KZZU Spokane and Wendy Christopher KUBE/FM Seattle. 48 adds bring them close to 200 reports.

Charted for the second week, ELTON JOHN locks up one of the two certified slots for the week. New believers include Z104 Madison, Q104 Gadsen, Z94 Boston, JLK/FM Asbury Park, WKAU Green Bay, KIXY San Angelo, KRZQ Reno etc. BEN E. KING was Record To Watch at the beginning of the month and with Halloween still a week away he brings his 60's classic back on the Top 40 with a 17% hit factor. Takes a 14-8 jump at B106, 24 -19 Q105, 24-14 B94, 13-6 KMEL, 14-7 KUBE, 2-1 KATD, 23-17 KWSS, 8-7 KBEQ etc. Still seems like a lot of folks are missing the boat on this one.

Barely missing the Chartbound cut but sure to be there next week is KANSAS who aren't about to let BOSTON hog the comeback spotlight. Nearly 100 adds in the first week including WQUT, KZPS, Y94, KYVA, KIYS, 100KHI WBBQ, 95INZ, WHHY, KCPW, WFFR.etc. CARLY SIMON makes it into the A/C pow trio for the second week. Moves 14-11 at Q104, 9-5 WXIK, 6-3 WEBE, 14-9 KLBQ plus adds at 94Q, WBBQ, XKS, and 3WD. The song, from the movie "Heartburn" is being re-serviced to Top 40 radio and could well put Carly alongside the other comeback stars of 1986.

95INZ: Mark Shands

"I can't believe it, single sales jumped 42-18 this week. It's going through the roof."

WXKS: Sunny Joe White

"There's so much to like about the record...gritty vocals, begging lyrics - the song's a hit! - Immediate phones!"

B97: Greg Rolling

"Excellent 18 - 24 both male and female response."

KTKS: Kevin Metheny

The 80's king of sneer sounds like the king of rock and roll (Elvis) and we like that a lot."

B106: Marty Dempsey (M/D)

"Billy gets back to the basics of rock & roll, and the way sales are developing in Washington it shows back to the basics is the right thing to do."

WMMS: Kid Leo

"Instant phones and retail requests. Absence has definitely made the heart grow fonder."

WPHD: John Hager

"Fast becoming one of the nation's top male vocalists. This record shows off his versatility and maturity."

WBEN: Roger Christian

"Sales are exploding!"

KIIS: Gene Sandbloom

"Top 15 singles sales at KIIS-FM. The stores are all waiting for the LP - a sure Top 10. A great blues jam rock record that covers every format."

Y108: Dom Testa (M/D)

"Satisfies the thirst of his hardcore fans & brings in bunches of new believers."

WKTI: Tim Fox

"Billy uses every trick in the book to provide one of the most outstanding records of the Fall."

Moments ago I received the news I didn't want to hear...NBC Trafficologist and comedienne Jane Dornacker had died in a tragic helicopter crash in New York. Jane and I spent several wonderful years together at KFRC where she began her radio career. Then News Director Vicki Liviakis and PD Gerry Cagle had an idea that traffic didn't have to be serious, and thus, Jane, whose career included singing with The Tubes, acting and performing wacky stand-up comedy routines, was hired as our resident trafficologist, teamed with Dr. Don Rose. No matter how we felt walking through the door each day, her smile, (usually accompanied by a hug and a loud... "DUKE-EE") would never fail to bring on a smile, instantly. At the moment, all of us who knew and loved her are still trying to grapple with the news of her untimely passing. Though Jane's many talents are sure to be her legacy, for me they will always be overshadowed by her qualities as a caring, insightful and brilliant human being. The impact her life had on so many will always be remembered. Dave Sholin

by Keith Zimmerman and Kent Zimmerman

Changes are allegedly a-buzz between WBCN-Boston and WXRK-New York. WBCN Music Director Bob Kranes is reportedly heading back to the New York area to take over the MD position at WXRK. It's also being whispered that Kranes' eventual replacement could be music maniac Carter Alan. You might remember that Kranes was part of the WBCN sweep at the last Gavin Awards. He walked away with Music Director of the Year for Album Radio. His return to New York would be a homecoming, since beginning at WLIR -Long Island.

Other Big Apple arrivals include a Baby Buch. That's Andrew Eric Buch born to proud parents Danny Buch and wife Sue. Danny is the National Album Director for Atlantic Records. An avid Rangers fan-to-be, Andrew is doomed the fate of either goalie or left wing. At last Danny has a son to which he can pass on that season seat.

And there's yet more hustle and bustle in the New York Atlantic nest. While there's been no official announcement, it looks like Marc Nathan will be working out of the Atlantic offices rather than exclusively with Atco. We did a little detective work and tracked Nathan down in an Atlantic office promoting Atlantic music.

Is talented album promoter Heavy Lenny Bronstein heading for big opportunities in the near future?...at a label? Meanwhile, Harvey Leeds has been officially named Vice President of Album Promotion for Epic /Portrait/Associated labels.

Should be an interesting battle in Cleveland as John Gorman of WMMS fame moves over to WGCL, soon to be WNCX. Gorman, as VP/OM, brings Denny Sanders in as PD. Sounds like a big Top Forty war is in the making.

Radi-O-Rama...Some changes at KZZP-Phoenix. Mike Elliot moves from mid-days to PM drive. Valerie Knight takes over the mid-day slot from overnights and Research Director Mike Weatherly is promoted to Music Director...C'wag mainman, Stan Main is leaving Y94-Fargo,ND to take over as PD of WCMF-Rochester,NY. Stan goes from Top Forty to Album Radio...HIT105 (WLXR) La Crosse,WI unveils a new programming team. Chris Shebel (formerly of aforementioned KZZP) is the new PD and Ric Sanders (formerly part-time at WLOL-Minneapolis) joins up as MD...Up at KSEZ -Sioux City,IA, Doug Brown has been promoted to MD...Al Springer joins KHWY-Sacramento,CA as Account Executive...William Payne, president of KTFX-Tulsa,OK journeys Down Under to speak to the Independent Broadcasters Association of New Zealand...Deacon Baker moves from KTUX -Shreveport,LA to WQID-Biloxi,MS as overnights air talent...Dick Alpert joins WISN-Milwaukee as afternoon drive/MD from crosstown WEMP...WMJJ -Birmingham,AL Asst. PD Charlie Cooper has been promoted to PD of WVAF -Charleston,WV...Randy Roadz leaves KDUX-Aberdeen,WA to take mid-days at KLYK in Longview,WA. Rhys Davis, the PD of KDUX, will assume music duties...Changes in Chico. Jeff Nelson takes over the MD slot at KNVR -Paradise/Chico,CA. Donovan Blue is still on at PD. Over at KPAY, Andy Manuel joins up as air talent from KGW-Portland,OR...Hearty congrats to Roy Williams, who after 15 years at KJOY/KJAX-Stockton,CA becomes Operations Manager. Roy's new duties will get him involved in the business and sales end of things. Bill Bishofberger is promoted to Asst. PD.

KIIS/FM in Los Angeles hosted the first of their Manic Mondays last week at the historic Hollywood Palace on Vine Street. Admission was free before 8PM and the first live act featured was, appropriately enough, The Bangles. Joining them onstage for the title tune of the night was Prince and his lovely guitar player, Wendy.

Speaking of LA, C'wag got a call from Lou Simon, the multi-talented on-air/Asst. PD from KNX/FM and former MD/AM drive personality at KKHR. Lou is looking for his next challenge and anyone interested should give him a bell--805-522-9039. Pick up dat phone!

Big changes at KTAO-Taos,NM (formerly KVNM), although their progressive Album Radio format stays intact. Program Director Brad Hockmeyer is now the principal owner of the station. He will remain PD, although he admits filling the GM position will be unique as the PD assumes the responsibilities of ownership, concentrating on programming. Hockmeyer has already moved the facilities and installed a new tower in addition to changing the call letters. "We've been an outlaw station for years. That won't change, although things might be tightened up a little bit. I've hired a full time News Director, we're an AP outlet, so news will be an important factor. As for the airstaff, I'm trying to keep it as small a group as possible. Everybody pitches in, doing extra stuff. We've got a great outfit."

Our sincere regrets over the tragic death of WNBC radio/traffic personality Jane Dornacker last Wednesday afternoon. Jane was tragically killed when the helicopter she was in crashed in Manhattan. For a tribute from Dave Sholin, see the previous page.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST ▶

On September 18th WFIL-Philadelphia celebrated its 20th Anniversary. To mark the occasion, the station brought back 14 of its "boss jocks" who made the station #1 in the country in 1971. For one magical day, Philadelphia was treated to a solid-gold blast from the past. The old jingles were pulled from the archives, and there were celebrities phoning in and stopping by to say hello. Philadelphia Mayor Wilson Goode issued a Mayoral Proclamation, and for 18 hours, Philadelphians had a chance to return to the good old days when AM was king and WFIL was Boss. ■

WATCHING THE STARS UNDER THE STARS

WBCN-Boston got together with Coca-Cola to celebrate summer's end with a special rock n roll "WBCN Night At The Drive-In." The station allowed free admission to any car with a WBCN bumpersticker and six empty cans of any Coca-Cola product. Proceeds from the empties' refunds were given to the Jimmy Fund, a local children's cancer research charity. All patrons received Coca-Cola/Max Headroom sunglasses and t-shirts, and "Catch The Wave" beach towels. With nearly 700 cars in attendance, the drive-in had its busiest night in nearly 20 years. ■

BOARDWALK IS WNEW'S HOT SPOT

The weather was perfect - warm but not sweltering - as WNEW/FM - New York invited their listening audience to the New Jersey Boardwalk at Asbury Park for a day at the beach. A record crowd turned out to have a great time with on-air personalities Richard Neer, Mark McEwen, Dave Herman and Dennis Elsas. Live concert performances were provided by Bricklin, John Eddie and LaBamba. To top off the day, WNEW/FM got the perfect gift: a proclamation from New Jersey Governor Thomas Kean declaring "August 29, 1986 as New Jersey and WNEW/FM Perfect Day Together In The Garden State". Who could ask for anything more? ■

WINNERS GO ◀ BANANAS FOR MONKEES

94 WKTI-Milwaukee held a promotion to welcome The Monkees to the Wisconsin State Fair. Five lucky winners and their guests went "bananas" and got to go backstage to meet Mickey, Davy and Peter. Tim Fox, P.D. of the station and Jim "Lips" LaBelle, promotion director, were included in the backstage festivities and gave the whole event rave reviews. ■

A/C ANALYSIS

For the entire month of July, Peter Cetera held on to the number one slot with "Glory Of Love." His stay at the top may be a tad shorter this time as Lionel Richie is just moments away with momentum and Motown on his side.

Bruce Hornsby & The Range are now home free with a whopping 201 stations and a seven week HIT FACTOR of 90%.

Look at that triple A&M debut on the chart. OMD does it on 91 stations and a HIT FACTOR of 62%. Sergio Mendes does it on 111 stations in three weeks and Double via 94 stations and a HIT FACTOR of 65%.

Mover of the week, though, must go to Billy Ocean who charts in only two weeks, scoring 129 stations in that brief time. Whew!

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Crowded House's "Don't Dream It's Over" picks up 17 adds and now includes the following A/C's: WNLC, WCHV, WQHQ, WSKY, KROC, KKLV, KMWX, KGY, WIOU and WALG.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, Howard Hewett's "I'm for Real" is fulfilling its title with the likes of: WABZ, WCHV, WGSV, WQHW, WSKY, WMT/FM, WJON, WMGN, KTYL, KKLK, KHYL/FM, KALE and KTIM/FM. R&D

RECOMMENDED FOR A/C RADIO

El DeBarge

Someone (Gordy/Motown)

Complete with the music signature of producer/arranger/writer Jay Graydon, this track can't miss with A/C radio. Note that one of the song's writers is Manhattan's Robbie Nevil.

Paul Simon

Graceland (Warner Bros.)

Paul re-decorates the mansion into a metaphor. The lyrics are a tribute to the dreams of a building and the building of a dream.

Chicago

Will You Still Love Me (Full Moon/Warner Bros.)

Having dispensed with their reprise of 25 Or 6 To 4, they can now get back to fresh tracks and everything else we'll hear from the 18th album will have a home in A/C radio. It all begins with this one.

George Benson

Shiver (Warner Bros.)

The song's strong chorus and plucky rhythm track are the foundations upon which GB builds his strongest single in recent years. He may be Shiverin', but it ain't chillin'.

Billy Vera and The Beaters

At This Moment (Rhino)

This song debuted in last season's Family Ties sitcom and it's amazing what one play will do to your listeners.

Journey

I'll Be Alright Without You (Columbia)

Less intense than the first three singles, this one really plays on Steve Perry's ballad strengths. Should be their biggest A/C track on the album.

Bob Geldof

This Is The World Calling (Atlantic)

It has been his vision rather than his vocal chords which has given the popular music world its proudest moments. But now, it's back to making music and this re-entry, fortunately for A/C radio, bares no resemblance to anything released under his group banner, The Boomtown Rats.

HIT FACTOR

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation, ie: 100 stations playing the record - 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation - Hit Factor = 60%

THE ALICE COOPER STORY:

BACK FROM THE # NIGHTMARE

by Keith and Kent Zimmerman
Special assistance by Victor Janflone

By his own admission, Alice Cooper's success was a product of media manipulation and conceptually artistic thought. Despite all the myths, the strangest aspects of the Alice Cooper Story are in fact true. Alice did watch twenty television sets simultaneously. He was addicted to games shows and later, alcohol. Some of the early half-truths concocted during the Frank Zappa years on Straight Records were just as bizarre. The press promoting the first albums suggested, according to legend, that Alice had no facial hair. At best, the band's sexuality was ambiguous. But Alice and the band blossomed, evolving into Motor City rockers who preferred Bud to drugs. They became much more than a band. They were an act. They toured worldwide, crisscrossing the Heartland, outweirding the West Coast and conquering the East Coast. After a severe bout with alcoholism, Alice Cooper withdrew from show business. During the four years of inactivity, constantly alive was the wanton spark for re-entering rock n roll's atmosphere. At first look, Alice's appearance is still quite shocking. His arms are rail thin. His face is gaunt. His cheeks are hollow, topped with an odd dab of facial hair. The man has absolutely no chin. As a conversationalist, he is fascinating with a flair for the macabre, a connoisseur of horror. His strangest trait by far is occasionally referring to his creation, Alice Cooper, in the third person. Alice is currently preparing to put the legend of Alice back on the road. The tour officially starts Halloween night in Detroit, the original band's street turf. How will the modern world react to the return of Alice? Fifteen thousand tickets in Detroit were snapped up in four hours.

"PMRC is funny because their worst punishment is that you have to write your lyrics on the album. What kind of punishment is that?"

KZ: How does it feel to see Alice Cooper's name spinning on an MCA label?

AC: The weirdest thing for me is the rainbow on the label. I asked them if they could have the rainbow bleeding.

KZ: The first single sure doesn't sound like the rest of the album. "He's Back" (from Friday the 13th Part VI) stands out.

AC: When they contacted me for the single, the studio said (sarcastically), "It's about a psycho killer." Everybody else gets Top Gun or Ruthless People. I get Jason the psychopathic killer. Now make him commercial.

KZ: Did anyone furnish you with a script?

AC: No. They came to me and asked if I wanted to see it as a movie. Why? Did something amazingly different happen as opposed to the other four? That's really going to change my idea of Jason! I like the combination between Jason and me since I'm a splatter movie fan.

KZ: What's the scariest movie you could recommend to our readers' on Halloween?

AC: I like the "Evil Dead." That's the ultimate. It was made about 10 years ago. Really disgusting.

KZ: Who was in it?

AC: Nobody! I wouldn't have rented it if there was anybody I knew in it. It's absolutely great, made by some students from Michigan. They're doing a big budget sequel right now. I don't recommend it for novice splatter watchers. That's where I got a lot of inspiration for the upcoming stage show. In fact, for the stage show, we're going to be doing some things from cinema.

KZ: Can you tell us who's on the new album?

AC: It was produced by Beau Hill who did Ratt. I heard a Ratt song on the radio and it sounded so much like Alice Cooper that I said, "This guy does a good impersonation." Just kidding. It sounded very good, so I wanted to get Beau Hill to get it on tape in New York. Then we took it to LA from there and we worked with Michael Wagener who remixed it. We added extra guitars and gave it the heavy edge that it has now. It think it's the heaviest album we've ever done.

KZ: Who was your collaborator?

AC: Kane Roberts is my co-writer. He's this guy I found in a New York City bar. Somebody told me, "You've got to go see this guitar player." He's built like... (Alice flexes his skinny arms). We've been working for two years now. He's going to be in my band. He just played on the Berlin album, also. This guy's such a good player, he can play anything, but his heart is in this kind of thing.

KZ: I take it the new Alice Cooper roadshow will be quite elaborate.

AC: This show is going to be a refresher course for everybody who hasn't seen the legend of Alice. Bands like Motley Crue talk about being influenced by Alice Cooper. People keep hearing about Alice Cooper yet they've never seen Alice Cooper. I figure it's time to go back and show them what Alice Cooper really is. I would hate to see a generation go by without at least experiencing one decapitation Alice Cooper style! So we're putting this new show together and it's gonna be pretty disgusting.

KZ: After being out for a long time, aren't you going to be a little nervous about climbing back onstage?

AC: I haven't done it for about 3 or 4 years, but I'm in better shape now than I was 10 years ago. I'm in better physical shape and mentally my hair's longer. But at the end of the Nightmare tour and at the end of Madhouse Rock, I was getting real tired of it. We toured 13 years straight. I just got to the point where I needed a break.

KZ: Did you ever have the thought of going on stage?

AC: About the last 2 weeks, it got to the point where it was sooo hard. I was not having fun anymore. I was drinking 2 bottles of whiskey a day. I wasn't drunk. I was just drinking to maintain.

KZ: For his book, Billion Dollar Babies, columnist Bob Greene joined you for an entire tour. What kind of effect did that book have on you and the band? It was, at times, harsh and critical.

AC: It's interesting because Greene took everything so literally. He came on the tour and he was wide-eyed and innocent about rock n roll. Originally he wanted to come on as a journalist. He wanted to see the tour and what it actually was like. For instance, if (drummer) Neal (Smith) would come into the room and I would throw an ashtray at him and say, "Get the fuck out of here," he knew we were kidding. That's tour talk. Greene would take that very seriously and write it all down. After awhile, we said, "Let's really take this guy for a ride." I think I read the book. I can't even remember if I did or not. I lived the tour so why should I read the book?

KZ: What happened to the original guys in the band? Are they now minding their income properties?

AC: They're doing okay. (Bassist) Dennis Dunaway and Neal are up in Connecticut working with guys from Blue Oyster Cult. (Guitarist) Glen (Buxton) has a band in Phoenix called Virgin.

KZ: Who was the one guy in Greene's book who was always wasted?

AC: That was Glen. He's really back together now. Nobody died or anything when the band broke up. We didn't break up with any problems. I see those guys all the time.

KZ: I remember the first records you guys put out on Straight Records, Frank Zappa's label in 1969. That was a strange campaign.

AC: Weird records.

KZ: Radical records.

AC: At the time, we didn't have anything to lose. That's the kind of music we wrote. "Pretties For You" and "Easy Action" were weird. They were pre-Devo. Zappa was the only one who figured we had any reason to be on record. He wanted it as a comedy thing. He had the GTO's and Wild Man (Fischer). He wanted to collect a series of circus freaks and he figured that everyone was worth one or two albums. But we felt we actually had a career. We were very serious about our music. We thought that those silly little songs represented what nobody else wrote. So we figured we were viable. We did the first two albums with Zappa and then hooked up with (producer) Bob Ezrin. Then everybody in LA wanted to like Alice Cooper. There was this new thing. Everybody else was peace and love. It was out of bounds for everybody. We were the stake in the heart of the flower generation, back to reality. Ezrin saw this and said, "All we need is a handle." So we worked with Bob for months on rehearsing our material, coming out with "Love It To Death" that had "18" on it. It was something you could latch on to.

KZ: So you went from Straight right onto Warners.

AC: They were a subsidiary of Warners. When we started working with Ezrin, who was a new producer under Jack Richardson, he had nothing to lose. He had all these great ideas we didn't understand. He would say, "Let's double the bass line and double the piano." We were used to free form kind of stuff until we heard his results. If anybody was responsible for the Alice Cooper sound after "Love It To Death", it was Bob Ezrin. He was the one who really shaped our music. We wrote everything, but he put it into a form that could be played on the radio.

KZ: Rod Stewart said he fought a lot with Ezrin.

AC: Bob is headstrong about what he does, but he's usually right. It's hard because Bob will sit there and you'll have an idea and Bob will go (shakes his head, folds his arms). You'll get so mad at him, but he's already got it. He's already hearing it against what the idea is and he's usually right. It's amazing.

KZ: The next plateau was the "Killer" album.

AC: We worked with Ezrin on that one, too. The writing was getting better all the time. After that we had "School's Out" and "Billion Dollar Babies." During all those albums, we were writing quite a lot.

KZ: Whose idea was it to put the "School's Out" record in panties rather than inside a sleeve?

AC: All that was just perfect. Especially when they got banned because they were flammable. I thought, who's going to be lighting a cigarette down there? That got great national negative press. That's the best thing that could have happened. Ban the panties!

KZ: Are you from Detroit?

AC: Yes. I was born in Detroit and raised in Phoenix. The band was born in Phoenix but the band actually grew up in Detroit.

KZ: Why?

AC: Because Detroit was where our hearts were. We played a hundred shows with Iggy, the MC5 and all those guys. We were definitely a Detroit band. LA was a lot more groovy than we were. So we went to Detroit where we were appreciated. A lot of LA bands were mellow—cool, marijuana music. We were much more into drinking and turning up. Detroit is still the best rock n roll city in the country.

KZ: Who invented Alice?

AC: It started with the idea that there was nobody using the stage. Everybody played great. They looked great. I saw the Stones when I was a kid and I said, "That's great." My parents saw the Beatles and they abhorred the Beatles. They hated the idea of the hair. Then they saw the Rolling Stones and the Beatles were okay. At that point, I thought we should put together a band that would make the Rolling Stones cringe. That was the idea even back then—to take it to the edge.

KZ: Weren't you afraid of people

"Groucho Marx made me look sane. He came to the show and it didn't even phase him."

misunderstanding your sexuality?

AC: There was nothing to lose. At the same time, we were sure about our sexuality. We figured this was going to be a total attack. At the time, we were competing with the Doors, Love and all those bands. We felt we were going to have to do something. If anybody was going to stop and look at us, then we had to have the music to back it up. It changed everything. To this day, it's as if we designed this whole new generation. Look at the bands now. There's not one original thing. A lot has been taken from Alice Cooper, from the ripped clothes to the eye make-up. There's not one glam band or metal band that hasn't borrowed an attitude or look from Alice Cooper, which is great. I don't frown on that at all. That's a compliment.

KZ: Who do you think has carried it off the best while you were gone?

AC: Kiss. They make good records. They worked with Ezrin. They even went with Ezrin! They didn't stop.

KZ: Gene Simmons is a very smart guy.

AC: Sure! They were very smart to do what they did. If one Alice with make-up worked, then four guys with make-up would. It sounds very smart.

KZ: Buying dog collars at pet shops.

AC: When we first went out to do our shopping, we would go to Fredericks of Hollywood. We'd buy lingerie and rip it to pieces, put blood on it and wear it with black leather pants. Then, it wasn't feminine. It was really sort of sick. None of the guys in the band were gay and the music was certainly not gay. The music was monstrous. All of those dichotomies contradicted each other. Alice wasn't a drug addict. Alice drank all-American Budweiser beer. But he drank two cases a day.

KZ: I take it that was true.

AC: Absolutely. Everything that people expected to hear next, they never heard. They got something else. Instead of sitting around listening to his music, Alice had 20 television sets and watched game shows all day.

KZ: Was that true?

AC: Yes it was. Not everything you heard was true because we fed a lot of stuff to the press. A lot of things that were rumors, we just didn't deny.

KZ: What kind of mind would go to Fredericks of Hollywood, tear up lady's lingerie and splash it with blood—a creative mind or one that wants to make money?

AC: I think it's because three of the guys in the original band, myself included, were art majors.

KZ: Which college?

AC: Glendale Community in Arizona. But also in high school, it was real easy for us to step in and make the kind of art Yoko does. What's it called?

KZ: Conceptual art.

AC: Alice Cooper was like a piece of conceptual art. We were like the Enquirer—Boy Born With Dog's Head. If I saw two newspapers—Reagan Cuts Tax Budget or Boy Born With Dog's Head, I know what I would go for.

KZ: Andy Warhol turned regular household products into art, mixing art and music creating pop culture. But could Alice Cooper be considered conceptual art?

AC: Most of our props were things that we found backstage—pillows and brooms. We couldn't afford much. We just found things backstage. Yet when you brought them onstage with lights and held, say, a crutch up in the air, that crutch was worth more than 5,000 props that you could get. Suddenly it was something that meant something else. At the same time it was so revolutionary that even hippies hated us. It was hard to get hippies to hate you back then because they loved everybody!

KZ: What about the period when Alice was singing ballads?

AC: The ballads came as a reaction to disco. At that point nobody was playing anything with guitars. Nobody was playing anything that was hard rock at all. Everything went disco and in order to keep my hand in the game, we did two or three ballads. The ballads did really well.

KZ: They were some of your biggest hits.

AC: Eventually it kind of backfired. Everybody thought Alice was going mellow, but we couldn't get our hard rock played.

KZ: One of our favorite Alice songs is a ballad, "I'll Never Cry."

AC: A lot of people liked that and "Only Women Bleed."

KZ: Our founder, the late Bill Gavin, loved that song.

AC: That song did real well. We'll do that in the show because it's such a popular record.

KZ: Can we be corny and assume those songs were about you? Were they harder to write?

AC: "I'll Never Cry" and all those songs were easier to write than the rock songs. (Guitarist) Dick Wagner and I did all those ballads together. For some reason, we could sit down and in ten minutes write a ballad like that. That was the simplest kind of writing for us. Writing a song like "Billion Dollar Babies," on the other hand was a harder song to do. But for a ballad, Dick Wagner would sit down and start playing a chord structure. He was such a good player, he knew lines that I would never use.

KZ: How aware are you of the different categories of metal being produced these days?

AC: Well, there's thrash metal and there's pop metal. I think Dokken is pop metal and commercial sounding. What they mean by metal is guitars. Nobody will ever play a heavy metal single on the radio because if you're talking about real metal, that's three chords and as much screaming as possible. I know metal. But you'll hear pop metal and it's really just a good hard rock single.

KZ: Do you think hard rock n roll is getting a fair shake with radio?

AC: I don't see why Alice Cooper should have to compete with Whitney Houston when we don't appeal to the same audience. Neither does Metallica, nor does Motley Crue. Twisted Sister really shouldn't have to compete with Lionel Richie because we don't play the same music. Why are we on the same charts? We don't play the same music as Conway Twitty and he's not on the same charts. We should have our own chart. Now, we're all lumped together and we don't have a chance. Most radio is geared toward 25-35 year olds.

KZ: The older demos have the spending cash.

AC: That's right, but that really isn't representative of what rock n roll is. Madonna is not playing rock music. Bring rock n roll back to the kids.

KZ: Tell us about why you came back and how you ended up on MCA?

AC: For a while, I wasn't signed with anybody, which was great. I felt really free about that. I almost signed with Elektra. I almost signed with Island. We decided to go with MCA because Irving (Azoff) said, "I don't care how much it costs, let's have fun." That was the greatest thing anybody had said to me in a long time. (Manager) Shep (Gordon) and I said, "Let's do it. Let's go back and do a section from Nightmare. We'll do a section of this and this and this. I said, "I've got 40 songs ready." It was a real simple process.

KZ: How was life temporarily retired?

AC: It was okay. I always knew that all I needed was a nudge to get back into the business. I sat there and I watched it, especially when a lot that I read had my name in it. I was getting more popular by not being around, right? I really did miss the studio. I missed recording. I love the studio. I really do.

KZ: What are you going to do differently if you have to start living out on the road?

AC: Well, I don't drink anymore. That's a big thing. That was heavy for me. I made it a big part of the image. Alice Cooper always had a beer and we were always into alcohol, always having a good time. It was always a good time.

KZ: Did the drinking thing gradually suck you in?

AC: I was a total alcoholic—addicted to alcohol. I had to have it. It started out that I didn't have to have it.

KZ: Was it just beer or whiskey?

AC: Whiskey at the end. I was drinking the last five or six years. I was drinking two bottles of VO a day.

KZ: When did you finally decide to clean up?

AC: I stopped about four years ago.

KZ: Was it you or somebody in your life who helped you stop?

AC: It was just everything. It was either stop or die. I really didn't have too much of a choice. I would have stopped anyway because I didn't like it anymore. I was drinking out of habit. I didn't even like the taste of it. I realized I couldn't walk across the room without something, a glass or a bottle, in my hand.

KZ: Didn't you check into the Betty Ford Clinic?

AC: No. I went to Camelback in Arizona. It was easy. The day I stopped, the very day afterwards, everybody was saying, "You're going to need a lot of support." Just give me a TV and Nutrasweet. I really didn't miss it at all. I didn't go through DT's. I didn't go through any of that. The doctors were so surprised. I had so much alcohol in my blood system! I'm sure for three months after I stopped drinking, I still was legally drunk (laughs). But it was all part of the tour. I started out having a beer, then two or three beers. It was a real trap because I didn't know I was an alcoholic. It's about four years now, so I'm totally clean. That's why I feel so good. I think I look a lot better now, too. I can just about eat anything. I run two miles a day in Arizona. I'm training for the tour now. I really get out and train.

KZ: Were you really a track star as a student and is your father really a minister?

AC: My dad's a minister and I've held the 24 mile record in Arizona since I was 17. I was in cross-country and track, a four year letterman. I was very dedicated to running.

KZ: Did being an athlete have anything to do with becoming Alice Cooper, rock n roller?

AC: That had a lot to do with being Alice. To be Alice you had to be an athlete. It's a very physical show. The show was the heaviest workout imaginable. I'd come off just drained. So it's going to be interesting to go back out there.

KZ: What's it like living in Arizona?

AC: I love it. Scottsdale is like Beverly Hills. I live right next door to Barry Goldwater. He's my next door neighbor. Occasionally I go over and borrow a cup of diamonds.

KZ: Speaking of right wing, what about these parent groups? They must be pretty old news to someone like you.

AC: I've seen a couple of those shows where they've taken the Alice Goes To Hell and Nightmare albums and they throw them across the stage. The say, "I hope he's watching right now because I hope he sues me for this."

KZ: Were you watching?

AC: Sure I was watching and I said, "That's great!" "Judge thee not lest ye be judged." That's what the Bible says. PMRC is funny because their worst punishment is that they force you to write your lyrics on the album. I insist on writing my lyrics on the album. In fact, I'm surprised they let you write your lyrics on the album. What kind of punishment is that?

KZ: Why hasn't Alice gone out of style?

AC: Alice is timeless. That's the great thing. When you see this character with make up and everything, he doesn't have an age. He's like a phantom, he's a creature. I'm 38, but it doesn't really matter. I also realize I'm not as old as 50% of the people that are out touring right now. Bowie and Jagger...all those guys are older than me.

KZ: Do you think punk and new wave made your act seem a little tame during the late 70's?

AC: Punk didn't get commercial enough to affect us. Maybe the image did but you see, nobody ever did a show that was so involved with production. Nobody ever cut their head off onstage except Alice. Nobody brought a snake out and actually involved the audience with the snake. Nobody threw money into the audience. Things like that involved the audience. A lot of people go in and they trap their stage and they decorate it and they do their songs. They don't fight with it. You have to work with your props.

KZ: What was it like working with Vincent Price?

AC: He was great because he'll do anything. He really loves the part of the evil guy. He's a very very elegant guy. I liked working with him.

KZ: Didn't Alice go from rock n roller to hobnobber-with-the-stars?

AC: Yes, but look who I was hobnobbing with—outrageous people who made me look sane! Groucho Marx made me look sane! He was much crazier than I. He came to see the show and it didn't even phase him. You were talking about Oral Roberts and all those guys. Groucho could be outrageous! He'd chase my wife around the room and things like that! The people I got involved with were all certifiable.

KZ: You hung out with Salvador Dali.

AC: He did the first moving hologram with Alice Cooper. It's in a museum in Florida. These were people that I wanted to meet.

KZ: What about the George Burns and Bob Hope?

AC: I bumped into those guys by meeting Groucho, but I never played golf with Bob Hope. I'd never go out and play golf with George Burns or Johnny Mathis or anybody like that. Just happened to have bumped into people who appreciated the show, which was weird because you have to remember, these are show biz people. They've seen everything.

KZ: But you're a show biz person, too.

AC: Anybody in rock n roll is in show biz. They just don't want to admit it. You get these guys who are so holy as to say they're not in show biz. They want to change the world. That's bullshit. They're in it because they're in show business. They might not like the idea, but they're doing the radio shows. They're going around.

KZ: What does your family think about all this? Are they supportive? I mean, you've got little kids.

AC: Yes, I have two kids. I have a little boy age one and a little girl five. When they see Alice on TV or video, they couldn't care less. They would rather watch cartoons. They call me Daddy, so there's no sort of confusion in that. They know Daddy goes out to work and that Daddy puts all his leather stuff on and that he puts make-up on and they go, "Oh! Daddy's going to work!" I come home and there's blood all over my mouth. "So did daddy have a nice day today?"

KZ: Do you recommend temporary retirement?

AC: I needed to stop because I had my drinking problem. In that whole time when I was out of the public eye, I signed 50 autographs a day. Absolutely every day! I went to the (Seattle) Mariners game the other night and got mobbed. Somebody gave me a baseball to sign. I felt like Al Kaline! Wow! I'm putting my name on a baseball! I signed it, "All my blood, Alice Cooper."

KZ: Can you go grocery shopping without attracting chaos?

AC: I refuse not to live just because I'm Alice Cooper. I think it's great that I go into a grocery store and I sign ten autographs. I get my Diet Coke and leave. I look forward to that. People go home and say, "Wow, I went to the grocery store and there was Alice Cooper." I believe I have an image and I don't think I let the image down just because I'm not wearing make-up all the time. I do think people can live their image too hard and try to become their image. Jim Morrison tried to be Jim Morrison on and off the stage. That killed him. Keith Moon did the same thing. I think people have died while trying too hard to live up to their stage image.

KZ: Were you like that?

AC: I was: I caught myself before I died. But I knew these people! I got drunk with these people! We all thought that late 60's, 70's mentality—"This is the way we are and we want everybody to think we're like this all the time." It's deadly. You can't do it. I love the idea that I can be like this. Alice would never give anybody an interview because Alice doesn't talk to anybody. I realized a lot of things about Alice. Alice never drank. He was on stage for an hour and a half. He didn't have time to drink! I was the one that was drinking.

KZ: So you were going through the nightmare for him.

AC: I was creating him and I was going through all this torture because of this character, but it wasn't his fault! (laughs) He was working! I was the one sitting around getting drunk and pretending I was somebody other than who I really was. ●

HOLLOWEEN

by Tony Witchland

Last week this department was instructed by Gavin San Francisco Headquarters to write a Halloween ghost story column...or at least SOMETHING about the boring semi-holiday which drearily pops up every October 31st. We think Halloween is the most over-rated 'holiday' on the books. It's not a day off from the work station, it inspires total strangers to ring our doorbell during CHEERS and HILL STREET BLUES, and is made even more depressing by the tradition of bank tellers, Burger King clerks and mailroom employees coming to work in cutesy costumes. It stinks, and should be phased out once and for all. The doorbell ringing by your whiny sugar-logged children is the most irritating part, but we think we've licked that for the future, because of what we handed out last year. We're lining the same stuff up at the door for THIS 10/31. You MAY want to ring our bell, but consider yourselves warned. Here's the list:

1. A slew of rancid Three Musketeers Bars donated by Larry Lujack, who received them when HE was trick or treating back in the forties.
2. 100 warped Joe Dolce 'Shudduppa You Face' singles returned to Billy Brill by stations from Yankton to Kuala Lumpur.
3. A basket of photos of Lou Galliani's baby, all of which have mustaches drawn on by her Uncle Bob.

NOTE: We can't understand his coldness. WE aren't yet over-killed by the tales of her cuteness. (We're close though.)

4. A case of sushi donated by Charlie Minor before the stuff was invented. (These go to little brat-packers of Asian persuasion only...AND to Little Stevie Resnick.)
  5. Individually bagged ZZ Top beard hairs, some of which just might be inserted into Almond Joys, depending on how sadistic we feel at the time.
  6. Unlimited classic copies of Fenway Reporter, The Bob Hamilton Radio Report, Ted Randal's sheet and Things Go Betta With Mike Borchetta.
  7. Machine autographed 8 x 10's of Elma Greer standing between The Judds (whoever THEY are).
  8. Three boxes of Grecian Formula never used by Ron Fell, Pete Rose or Billy Idol.
  9. A six-pack of suicide notes written by various members of The California Angels.
- If any of the above interests you or your progeny, stop by our Hollywood digs...if not, stay the hell away, and don't even jog by our place.
- We've noticed that our local drug and department stores have hopped on the Halloween bandwagon...and even earlier than usual. Plastic pumpkins and easy-off makeup began appearing before Rosh Hashonah and were forced to compete with Christmas...read CHRISTMAS...stuff in the past few days. This is another strange Hollywood syndrome. It's a bit bizarre to see elves and holly popping up when the forecast is low clouds and local fog, burning off by noon to a high of 89. Promotion-wise, we've noticed that songs which celebrated His birth used to be on the air the day after Thanksgiving and now have a hard time getting airtime on December 23. This tells us that the time is right for an X-mas hit...It's been eons since a Yuletide blockbuster. But if any of today's artists are listening, consider this: Write one. They last forever, they come back each year to make more money, and they're instant standards. Here's a few suggestions:

1. Screaming Blue Messiahs: "Whip That Elf"
  2. Lime Spiders: "Shove That Holly Up Your Nose"
  3. Sigue Sigue Sputnik: "Hang Those Balls"
  4. General Public: "I Saw Mommy Performing Erotic Activities With Santa Claus"
- Just a thought.

Despite the fact that other alleged music/radio publications have instituted alleged sports columns, we remind you that we, in The Gavin Hollywood office, were first to incorporate stuff from this important arena of our lifestyle.

Over two years ago, we said things about sports in this publication. We used words like Infield Fly Rule, Kurt Rambis, Nose Guard, and Hockey Puck. When you reacted favorably we went on to say Back Pick, Arthroscopic Surgery, LaSorda and Hamstring. Just wanted you to know that once again Gavin was first...and one more thing about sports: You'll recall that last week we predicted that The California Angel Chokers would blow it and that's when the late Mr. October and his team-mates were up three games to one. We know our stuff...that's for sure. It's the rest of you we're worried about. We don't think you know YOUR stuff. You made The Mets heavy favorites. They'll never make it. Not if The Indiana Colts have a breath of life in them!

ADD HALLOWEEN STUFF: We were of course kidding in our denouncement of this hallowed holiday. We really like it. It's no Hanukkah, but it's close. If you don't believe us, drop by the office next Friday. We borrowed Cyndi Lauper's hair for the occasion. She's our bank teller and she's a real nice girl. And when it comes down to it, she's just like us. She just wants to have fun!

Have a nice Halloween...WE'RE in the spirit...we've dropped some orange food coloring into our chicken fat. ●

BIO FEEDBACK

by RON FELL

BOB GELDOF

His new single will be "This Is The World Calling", produced by Dave Stewart. Bob plans to showcase the new stuff on a British aircraft carrier for over one thousand sailors sometime next month.

KENNY ROGERS

"Kenny Rogers' America", is a new book containing black & white photographs of landscapes, portraits and buildings taken while touring.

SAMANTHA FOX

She has become a sensation throughout Europe following her rise to stardom as a topless "Page 3" model for the U.K. Daily Sun Newspaper.

KURTIS BLOW

Featured on his new LP, Kingdom Blow, are performances by George Clinton and a rap from Bob Dylan.

NEW EDITION

With the recent success of their re-make of "Earth Angel", the group is working with producer Freddie Perrin on an entire LP of oldie covers.

CAMEO

Their video for "Word Up" stars the New York Knicks' Bernard King and actor LeVar Burton.

GLADYS KNIGHT/BILL MEDLEY

"Loving on Borrowed Time" is from the forgettable Sylvester Stallone movie, "Cobra".

GLEN CAMPBELL

He's been working on a gospel LP for Word Records produced by Marty Paich.

ROBBIE NEVIL

Robbie actually began his music career writing for Vanity and the Pointer Sisters.

EDDIE MONEY

In the fall of 1977 he had his first hit single, "Two Tickets To Paradise".

KANSAS

The new LP, "Power" is being produced by Andrew Powell. It was recorded in London and Franklin, Tennessee.

GENERAL PUBLIC

Four members of the band have roots in other bands. Dave Wakeling and Ranking Roger come from the English Beat. Micky Billingham is a former member of Dexys Midnight Runners and Horace Panter is from The Specials.

HOUSEMARTINS

On their upcoming English tour, they'll be playing ping-pong on stage with members of the audience before some of their performances.

IGGY POP

Before beginning his recording career, Iggy worked as a stockboy at Discount Records in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He's currently shooting his first feature film, "Straight To Hell", which co-stars Harry Dean Stanton and Emilio Estevez.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

The oldest song to be included in his pending ten year retrospective set 1975-1985 will be a live acoustic version of "Thunder Road."

CHICAGO

It was ten years ago this week that their song, "If You Leave Me Now" was #1 in The Gavin Report.

SURVIVOR

Their first single, "Somewhere In America", was released in early 1980.

WILLIAM LEE GOLDEN

Because of his increasing curiosity for the history of the Civil War Era, William erected two 23 foot high teepees on his property in Sumner County, Tennessee.

SAM MOORE & LOU REED

They sing the title song on the soon-to-be released screen comedy, "Soul Man". The film, starring James Earl Jones and Rae Dawn Chong, opens October 24.

GAVIN ALBUM FRONTLINE

PRETENDERS

BILLY IDOL

BRUCE HORNSBY
& THE RANGE

NEW ORDER

LOVE & ROCKETS

GENERAL PUBLIC

Liverpool-Frankie Goes To Hollywood (ZTT/Island)

I'd put the opening track "Warriors Of The Wasteland" against any hardrockin' song you wanna drag out...bring 'em on. It all comes down to attitude. Liverpool is the follow-up movie to Welcome To The Pleasure Dome. It is a modern movie with only the finest in cinematography. It's also not as big a pain in the ass (no pun intended) to program, though each song tends to bleed conceptually into each other. But FGTH didn't get this far by cramming 10 easy ones onto two sides of vinyl or one side of plasticine. I love the thick and foggy battle scenes each song tends to unfold. For the duration of their up-to-now brief career, Frankie Goes To Hollywood have created a high standard in audio production. If you thought the band was going to fold like a fickle fashion fetish, give this one an honored mega-decibel blast. Extractable trax include "Warriors" into "Rage Hard." plus "Watching The Wildlife" and "Kill The Pain."

"Cry Cry Cry"-Two Minds Crack (Sire)

Two Minds Crack are a new outfit well worth cocking your ear toward. It's dancey but I'll bet this peculiar name gets less peculiar over the months to come. Nice pacing and texture on side B of this 45 RPM dance side. Cool basslines as well. Turn up.

Talking With The Taxman About Poetry-Billy Bragg (Elektra)

Englishman Billy Bragg has toured the world Woody Guthrie style, playing his Japanese electric guitar accompanied only by a razor wit and radical bent. Talking With The Taxman About Poetry (subtitled The Difficult Third Album) is a departure in that BB utilizes outside musicians and overdubbing. This is folk music bemoaning the breakdown of the European industrial revolution at the expense of the working man. If this guy had a hammer, he'd be dangerous. "Greetings To The New Brunette" and "Levi Stubbs' Tears."

"Some People"-Paul Young (Columbia)

A brand new groove single by Paul Young. When the switch needed to be made, he sure knew how to make it. This time Hugh Padgham takes the reins. Incidentally, this wasn't the first single in England. That piece of work is yet to surface. Meanwhile here's a first taste from a fine upcoming album.

"Smoking Gun"-Robert Cray Band (Mercury)

Long a favorite in the Gavin bunker, this is Robert Cray's first record associated with a major label. Up to now that hasn't stopped the Cray Band from releasing excellent high calibre material. Currently touted by a fat list of superstars, Cray's music speaks louder and clearer than any cheesy endorsement. If you've never heard last year's False Accusation LP, beg, borrow or steal a copy. It's a fine, soulful piece of work.

"This Is The World Calling"-Bob Geldof (Atlantic)

The first solo single from Sir Bob. I'm sure after the long haul of social work, Geldof's approach to music will never be the same. This is the title track from his very own LP. That's Annie Lennox on the chorusline, produced by fellow E'mic Dave Stewart. The remainder of the LP will feature an impressive host of guest players replacing the Rats.

"All I Wanted"-Kansas (MCA)

More than just being a Kansas comeback, "All I Wanted" is a fine radio ballad. That accounts for the strong reaction the song has received the first week out. Mushy stuff, but some of us are softies at heart.

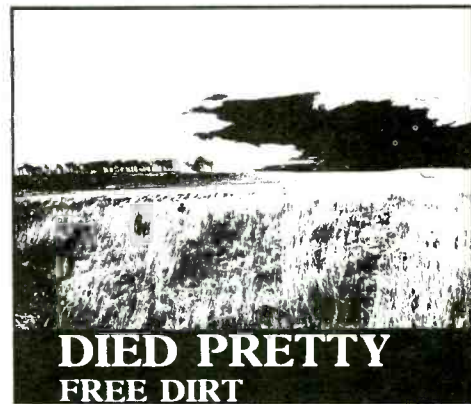

The Color Of Money (MCA)

A ton of interest out-of-the-box on Don Henley's "Who Owns This Place" and Clapton's "It's In The Way You Use It" (co-written by Robbie Robertson). Plus there's even more out-of-the-can interest in the film. Filmmakers like Martin Scorsese and Francis Coppola are going for the commercial jugular with boffo results. This is a good film for Album Radio to get behind.

"The Living Kind"-Ups And Downs (What Goes On)

The Ups and Downs are mostly "up" on this one, a single entitled "The Living Kind." It's a splendid song out of the same package that the Died Pretty album came in. Call the same number. Say hey.

Free Dirt-Died Pretty (What Goes On)

Hey...I think we just may have uncovered something interesting. Died Pretty are an Australian five piece. They may play ragged rock n roll, but between the lines are glimpses of huge promise and vision. Alternative Radio will take them just as they are. Yet an imaginative ear may hear bigger sounds for future days. Side one is the easier of the two, though side two is the more artistically satisfying. A lot of the gruffness may have more impact live. Then again, it may be their demise. Either way, there are intriguing possibilities at work. Do you remember the first couple of pre-glitter Mott The Hoople LPs? I think that's a fair starting point comparison. Contact Jim Barber at 617-625-7330. KZ

MY 2 CENTS

In honor of the Red Sox it should have been Boston, but lo and behold, look at the Pretenders go! At first I thought it was an experimental, transitional album that could be met with lukewarm response by staunch fans, but no! Response has been heavy, deep and wide. A phenomenal five track deep debut at number one is certainly nothing to sneeze at. A total surprise, I must admit...Billy Idol's Whiplash Smile slides in at #7. Lots of reaction to side two's "Don't Need A Gun." The hard rock stuff on side one bears close Album Radio scrutiny...A couple of underlines awarded to two lateral sideways shimmies. I'm talking about Timbuk 3 and Til Tuesday, whose impact is definitely not over yet. They are bonafide Top Ten albums...Ditto Bruce Hornsby & The Range who has recently picked up action on three more trax in addition to his hit single, "The Way It Is." We caught up with Hornsby recently and will let you in on our conversation in a couple of weeks...Don't be fooled by the mere two point jump made by the Kantner, Balin & Casady band who move 14 - 12. Figure this. They virtually debuted last week at #14. There is action on the track "Song For America" that rivals the twelve inch "It's Not You It's Not Me." Plus the top 12 albums on this chart represents some heavy point getters. KBC is on fire. Many are commenting that they sound much more like the Jefferson Starship than the Starship. ...Another two point jumper, Iggy Pop, is hotter than one might suspect. Iggy's on the road. Don't miss him...Though REM's "Fall On Me" was responsible for a Top Five push, I have the feeling that the real track that's going to distinguish this LP is one of the few songs not written by the band. I'm talking about

"Superman," an obscure song REM covered that was originally an independent single by a band called The Click. With the band currently on tour, "Superman" has been going over to wild audience response. Apparently such response was enough to warrant the attention of IRS who were ready with a different track altogether. If you haven't given "Superman" a serious listen, do so. Lots of you were hip to this track from the start...Big moves this week for The Police, Benjamin Orr and General Public. If you're troubled by the General Public single, go for either "Faults And All" or the ambiguous "Come Again"...Steve Miller had a tremendous week. Miller went toe to toe with the Pretenders and Billy Idol on the Adds column. His debut earned him out-of-the-box Certified status. A little farther down the line at #39 is the Color Of Money soundtrack. This was indeed a hard call. I choose to debut it as the soundtrack album on MCA even though I received add reports on the Geffen twelve inch. Response on the Clapton, Knopfler and Zevon gave it much more of an album profile...Heavy hitters in the Chartbound section include Lone Justice (who had a good Add week), Kansas (making a strong comeback) and World Party. Lots of kind words for the new Johnny Winter on Alligator as well. Stay cool. XO KZ

ALTERNATIVE ACTION

The Talking Heads' stay at number one is a brief, one-week, visit. New Order sweeps everyone aside in three weeks, but their lead over Iggy Pop is less than 5%. Love & Rockets continue to increase their airplay and rotations, and could mount a serious challenge for number one. General Public is on a rampage behind outstanding commercial radio play. The most dramatic gain this week is from The Housemartins who increase their chart points by 50%! College radio is leading the way here but there's an increasing contingent of commercial stations like: KJET, KTAO, KZAM, KVRE, KEYX, WOXY, KABL, WHFS, WLIR, WXXP, WMDK, etc. Don't underestimate The Pretenders and Chameleons UK who have top five potential. Big Audio Dynamite is Certified with 66% of those on the album already playing it in Maximum rotation. This was a big week for debuts as The Georgia

SPOTLIGHT LP

Most Of The Girls Like To Dance But Only Some Of The Boys Do- DON DIXON (Enigma)

Don Dixon has an established track record for engineering and/or producing a growing roster of emerging bands including, R.E.M., The Smithereens, Marti Jones, Guadalcanal Diary, Let's Active, Dumptruck, Fetchin' Bones, etc. So how does a producer of his caliber expand his horizons? He records his own album, of course! Not surprisingly, Dixon's debut album is well produced, delivering an unclouded sound. "Praying Mantis" is a simple and appealing pop song with a vigorous hook. This was originally available on The Dolphin Records More Mondo compilation album. "Girls L.T.D.", "You're A Big Girl Now" and "Southside Girl" are other keen and concise pop pieces.

688 PRESENTS-Compilation (688)

This is one of the most compelling independent compilation records to be released since The Dolphin Records More Mondo album (see above review) or The Radio Tokyo Tapes. It's the first album from 688 Records, which is an offshoot of the well-known 688 Club in Atlanta. The showcase music here is two songs by Drivin' N Cryin'. They display intense emotional firepower seldom found today, except in the form of a Paul Westerberg or Billy Bragg. There's an element of wrecklessness and abandonment that makes Drivin' N Cryin' exciting to listen to. The Vinyliners, "Behavioral Problems" has a tense vocal style combined with a dominant guitar mix. Dash Rip Rock declares that their neighborhood is a DMZ in the rockabilly inspired song "DMZ." The first new songs from the Fleshtones in three years are also included here. Peter

Gene Loves Jezebel is fronted by identical twins J. and Michael Aston.

the twin power of gene loves jezebel

by Keith Zimmerman

In 1983, twin brothers J. and Michael Aston migrated down to London from their hometown in Wales. It was only 180 miles south, but J. Aston compares it to, "someone going from the Midwest to New York."

The Aston brothers formed Gene Loves Jezebel that year and naively sent around demo tapes—like most young bands eager to break into the fast paced London scene. In storybook fashion, the progressive label Beggars Banquet responded to the tape, signing the band. Not long after, their first album, Promises, was on the street.

Gene Loves Jezebel enjoyed their initial UK buzz through the Independent/Alternative charts in Britain. These charts, as featured in Melody Maker and New Musical Express, focus in on a more alternative line-up of bands, a bit to the left of BBC One's mainstream diet of pop hits. As a result, labels like Beggars Banquet, Rough Trade and 4AD can co-exist with major labels and also use the Independent charts as a training ground for up and coming acts.

It was from these charts that Gene Loves Jezebel first gathered steam. Singles like "Screaming For Emmalene", "Bruises" and "Punch Drunk" plus albums Promise and Immigrant placed reasonably well. When the Astons arrived in London, music was heavily synthesized and guitar bands in the underground scene "were very gray." Gene Loves Jezebel had a different perspective, being "more into joy, color and live performance." Aston figures they were "kicking against the grain" with a more exhilarating musical outlook as opposed to a gloom and doom posture.

Another clue that GLJ was evolving out of the Independent scene came in late 1985 when "Desire" made the Radio One playlist. The band's path seems natural to J., citing that GLJ has "always aimed at writing commercial songs" and being more into "songs as opposed to acts." So with three years under their belts, J. feels they've progressed well on their own. They continue their emphasis towards writing great tunes and becoming more articulate as musicians. They've attracted their own following and J. feels that as long as they gradually pick up momentum, as they have in the UK, the band doesn't have the feeling that "they're being shoved down people's throats."

At this early stage, the band has reached at least the halfway point to success without all the breaks and exposure afforded to other groups. Slugging it out on the road, the band has yet to make any of the usual television pitstops in Britain, like Top Of The Pops or The Old Grey Whistle Test. Citing The Smiths and The Cult as examples, J. points out that those bands have "had all of the exposure you can get in England and that's as far as they can go unless they come up with a hit tune."

As Gene Love Jezebel enters phase two of their career, the band's line-up is set. With Michael and J. as frontmen/vocalists, they're augmented by three more players. Bassist Peter Rizzo hails from Yorkshire and Londoners James Stevenson (guitar) who once played with Generation X and drummer Chris Bell joined up after a stint with Spear Of Destiny.

Enter Geffen Records. After the label noticed GLJ's significant self-made following in Britain, they decided to take a chance on signing the band stateside. After reaching a licensing agreement with Beggars Banquet, Gene Love Jezebel now has major label punch in the States. According to J., the band still likes the convenience they have in Britain with Beggars Banquet, mostly because of its absence of a departmentalized mentality.

Their latest album, now released on Geffen in America, is entitled Discover. Immediately, the record shot its way into the top ten of the Gavin Alternative chart. Included is "Desire", their most commercial and successful single in Britain. The rest of the tunes were produced by Gary Lyons, best known for his work with Foreigner and Black Sabbath. Speaking for the whole band, J. admitted disappointment with Lyons' output, citing a difference of work habits. "(Lyons) works a different pace. He works three hours a day, we work thirty." Problems with the final product were solved when they brought in Mark Dearnley to mix the entire album.

The band is currently touring America and has even re-recorded "Desire" with Peter Walsh (whose past credits include Simple Minds) with the hope of releasing it in America as a single.

Finally, J. explains the story behind the name Gene Loves Jezebel: J. was dubbed Jezebel because of a penchant for colorful clothes, while brother Mike was called Gene "because he once broke his leg and used to hobble around and sing. People said he was like Gene Vincent. The 'Loves' part is an in-joke about our musical relationship" ●

CASTE SYSTEMS IN COMPANIES

The caste system in India, as many of you know, is based on a set of religious beliefs that certain people are born to a better or higher class than are others. I'm certainly no expert on comparative religion, so I'm sure that any description is overly brief, but you get the point. Unfortunately, too often in business we set up artificial caste systems that are totally unproductive.

I'm talking about things like executive washrooms, executive dining rooms, executives-only elevators and reserved parking spaces for managers only. I'm talking about pervasive beliefs within many organizations that some groups are more valuable, or "better", than others. For example, I've been with companies where managers are considered "better" than non-managers, where engineers are considered "better" than salespeople, where financial types are considered "better" than manufacturing types, where radio salespeople are considered "better" than programmers, where employee stockowners are considered "better" than those out in the field.

Utter, utter rubbish. Can I be any clearer than that? The best managed companies in the U.S.--both large and small--make a conscious attempt to reduce and eliminate these caste-system beliefs as much as possible. Sure, they pay managers more than non-managers, and sure, within any level some people get more pay and perks than others do (though it's based more on contribution and performance rather than being in the right "caste" group). However, I repeat: Effectively managed companies eliminate the artificial social differences between groups as much as possible. That's a fancy way of saying that effective companies recognize that everyone--receptionists, salespeople, accountants, writers, financial officers, radio production directors, forklift drivers, systems analysts, janitors etc., etc.--are all vital to the process of creating and maintaining a winning team. That means that the responsibility is on everyone's shoulders to create the winning team, and team rewards and status are spread accordingly. Otherwise, pride, zest, enthusiasm, and creativity from all hands cannot occur. And without that, few companies can thrive.

Thus, in effective companies, everyone eats in the same facilities, goes potty in the same bathrooms, calls each other by first name, shares the same conference facilities (in one thriving company, blue collar workers and clerical staff can reserve the luxurious conference rooms for business meetings), is invited to company social events and hooplah, gets credit for being a vital part of the team (in one thriving company, the picture of every employee was in the annual report), participates in profit-sharing or stock ownership plans and so on. I found it interesting that in a Japanese firm that has taken over--and turned around--an American firm, its President wears the same overalls that the production people wear. Of course the President gets more pay, benefits, and perks than their production workers do, but he's doing his best to eliminate any caste system. Similarly, as I have mentioned in other articles, effectively-run organizations share all information with all hands. And yes, I do mean that. With the exception of some highly sensitive data (e.g. certain merger/acquisition plans, potential patents, individual personnel decisions, and the like), information is the prerogative of everyone--not just for those in a favored caste. For example, in one very profitable firm I worked with, profit and loss data, sales data, customer survey data and more, was shared with warehouse-people, secretaries, the truck drivers and so on.

So what we see in effective organizations is well summarized by one effective manager: "Every person in my company must own it." This manager did not mean that literally (although in this company, like in many good ones, as many employees as possible participate in stock ownership plans). What he was referring to was psychological ownership. Similarly, one of the few super-leaders in the military told us: "You need pride. There are no poor outfits. Just poor leaders."

Check out your own organization or department. Is there any group of people which is considered "better", not because of superior performance or creativity in their jobs, but simply because that group has traditionally had more status? What are you doing about it? Effective managers do their damndest to rid their organizations of caste systems. Less effective managers do nothing, or even worse, they do their damndest to perpetuate caste systems. Which type of manager describes you? I know it's a tough question, but it's a question that you really need to look at, because it affects the current health of your organization, and ultimately, it may affect your survival. The positive side is this: Getting rid of entrenched caste systems is hard, but the payoff is more efficiency, more innovation, and a really turned-on group of people that own their jobs rather than rent them. ●

"What we see in effective organizations is well summarized by one effective manager: 'Every person in my company must own it.'"

Is there anything these leading Country Programmers can agree on?

Can they agree on Currents to Oldies Ratios, Crossovers, New Artists? Can they agree on The Format, Percentage of Talk?

Can they even agree on "What's Country?"

Well, there is one thing these leading Country Radio Programmers do agree on...American Country Countdown with Bob Kingsley. ACC is special featured programming on all their stations and another 829 radio stations around the world. They have all come to rely on American Country Countdown's special blend of quality entertainment, listenability and the 40 hottest country hits of the week.

American Country Countdown...carrying the tradition forward since 1973.

ACC may be available in your market.

COUNTRY SUMMARY

Randy Travis owns the top of the chart for the third week, and his staying power is reinforced by the fact that he's been our Most Requested record for the last seven weeks!! Not bad for a newcomer. The Marie Osmond/Paul Davis duet is still maintaining its momentum and is slugging it out with Alabama for rights to replace Randy. Speaking of Alabama, our friends at RCA informed us this week that vocalist and bass guitarist Teddy Gentry has announced a forced temporary leave of absence from his touring duties with Alabama due to the recent recurrence of a chronic back ailment. Accomplished studio guitarist Larry Paxton will be filling in for Teddy. (For all of you who were wondering why Teddy didn't appear with Alabama and Lionel Richie on the Country Music Awards, that's why!) A strong top ten keeps T.Graham Brown and the Bellamys /Foresters in the teens for one more week. Holly Dunn has a good chance of having her first Top Ten record, with a 73% Hit Factor this week. Sawyer Brown's pairing with Joe Bonsall from The Oak

Ridge Boys is proving to be a successful combination. It moves from 22-16 with 140 stations playing it. Michael Johnson is edging up on the Most Requested category - looks like there's no stopping this one! Other notable jumps include Waylon Jennings (26-20), Ricky Skaggs (27-21), Mel McDaniel (33-26), and of course our Certified's, The Judds (39-27!), and Reba McEntire (40-30). Billy Joe Royal has a nice jump from 34-29 - another one of those "a hit where played" records. Don Williams was our biggest debut, with 18 more adds taking him up to 141 reports. Our Most Added, Tanya Tucker, was one of our most played album cuts back in June. The Lionel Richie/Alabama song appears in two different places this week. It's still tops the list of album cuts, but enough stations are playing it in a single rotation to also take it into Action Sides as well. "You Can't Take It With You" by William Lee Golden is starting to get acceptance on the A/C level as well as with Country radio. Rumors are flying as to what the upcoming singles by John Anderson and Randy

Travis will be. Our reporters are betting on "Killbilly Hill" for Southern Pacific, "Countrified" for John Anderson and either "No Place Like Home" or "Send My Body" for Randy Travis. We'll find out soon!! In the "Whatever Happened To..." department, longtime Gavin friend Don Rhea, who we last heard from at KQIL-Grand Junction, CO, is now at WATZ AM&FM in Alpena, MI. Congratulations are in order for some other Gavin friends. Pete Brier at KFH-Wichita, KS has been promoted to Assistant Program Director, while maintaining his Music Director responsibilities. Chuck Manning has returned to KRAM-Las Vegas as Music Director and Air Talent. And Our Guy Bill Mayne at WBAP/KSCS/FM-Ft.Worth/Dallas is now the Operations Manager for both stations. And finally, Tony Thomas from KOLO-Reno was named "Media Person Of The Year" by the Optomist Club in Reno in recognition of his community service. Well deserved, one and all. We'll talk to you next week!! Lisa & Elma

HANDICAPPING THE HIRED

There are any number of people who have been disillusioned because they felt that all the fun disc-jockeys were supposed to have been "heaving out those heavy hits," and "talkin trash and rappin' on the radio." It just doesn't seem to happen any more. For many who had a different idea of what an air-personality's lush life was really like, the harsh reality was that it's often lots of hard work, following format and being bored. It's caused some to have second thoughts about their first choice of careers. We thought we'd take a brief look at the rash of reasons that surround this on-going dilemma.

WHO'S REALLY ON FIRST?

There's no doubt that the program director and operations manager as well as the general and sales manager, all seemingly want the same thing...some saleable demos from their program team. The question is how do you get them and then how do you continue to keep them? For a lot of GM's, the answer is written on the winds of change that blow with frequency past the program department. Think of how many PD's, OM's, MD's and air talent you've seen change in the past few years. Sometimes they change the play and the players! That often means the second baseman goes to first, the catcher moves to the outfield, etc. And often, after two down books, a new PD is brought in and told what to do. Then, if it doesn't work, he is fired and the game of musical chairs begins anew. How many times have you seen, or perhaps been directly involved with, a winning station, and in an effort to continue to improve, the talent team was told to "trim some teens?" In other words, not only does the GM want to win, but he wants his victory to be custom-tailored to his sales staff's needs. So out go the rap records and the "rapper's delights," in come the love mumblers and out go the numbers. Not only did the new format and staff fail to bring the adult numbers the format was designed to attract, but in the process they lost what they had! Now the station is up for sale, the new owners are talking satellite and nobody's on first!

MOVERS AND SHAKERS

Suppose you find yourself in this kind of common tender radio "trap?" What can you do? How do you develop the callousness to cope? If you're an air talent who's hired on at a station, once there, what you were hired to do, you're told not to do...do you do a "Rambo" or do you just "play the game?" Well, let's look at the facts, sad though they may be. It's unfortunate, but inevitable in our business, particularly in the medium and major markets, changes are going to be made. Sometimes they are made after the decision to hire.

Some managers who had never been mikeside just naturally assume that a good air talent can adapt and do anything asked or required. Realistic air talent and programmers know that moving around and getting terminated when a new station manager, or program director, or owner comes in, is bound to happen sometime, or many times in their career. The really good ones, who are willing to make the sacrifices, will land on their feet somewhere else.

Some top programmers and managers tend to take their teams or part of them with them. It's a little like a travelling circus with a "dog and pony speciality act." The question then becomes, is the new manager or programmer bringing some of his past mistakes with him or her? Often nobody knows until the ratings come out and often even one or two books don't tell the real story. It has been my experience with a number for music formats and even more cities, (some of them 2 or 3 times) that it takes at least three books to determine a trend. If you're in a situation where you've had it with changing formats and placement of the elements and sixteen "strong songs" in a row, think before you jump. Suppose the format and formula which you happen not to agree with, because it stifles your creativity, works? Suppose, in spite of your feelings and your frustrations, that you're about to be a part of a winning team? Maybe it is not exactly what you'd like or the way you would do it, if given a chance, but it's working. And anything that's working has some merit. Oh, it could perhaps be made better and you, as an air talent, could be given more freedom to create. After all, that's why you got into this business. But maybe, just maybe, you could learn!

STRONG SONGS SYNDROME

There are quite a few stations in both large and medium markets, "happening stations" where many of the air talent are upset because research and the program and music directors now make all of the decisions on what musical selections will be played and when they will talk and even what will be said. Is this handicapping the hired? Is this stifling creativity or discouraging superior air talent because of format restrictions? Well, maybe and maybe not. Again, if the format and system are working you have two choices. You can stay and continue to win, learn and perhaps find a way to let your talent show in spite of the format. If you only do five breaks an hour and you have done your show prep properly, there will be a way for you to let it show, your program director will know. Or, you can do as many have done, seek a new position at another station, perhaps in another town where you can "get down!" and find that you were better off back with that winning station whose restrictions you found so appalling. After all, winning stations often pay more, have better equipment and stronger staffs.

Today's black/urban radio stations not only performed well overall, according to results of the latest ARBitrends, but it's obvious the format is broadening its demographic appeal. We'd like to cite an example of a market in which there are three stations appealing to the crossover or urban market on FM. In this particular market although only one was among the top 10 stations overall, and in the latest monthlies that station placed fourth with a 4.8 share, but all three stations were among the leaders for adults in the 18-34 demo, leaning female. Urban music is still hot. From the early Motown days, which is when some people not really familiar with the format first got into the music, right down to today, black music is still very strong. And what this proves is that as people get older, they take their favorite music with them and a well-run urban outlet can score huge numbers if the blend is right.

FRESH...EXCITING

To borrow a phrase from J.T. and Kool & The Gang, "If it's fresh, and exciting, it can be sexy" and all the things we want our radio stations to be. For those who want to always play it safe, they run the risk of burning-out your audience with so-called "safe songs." And if you control the structured one-liners and promos, they too must change or your station will go from being the urban leader to be an "also-ran." We all know the story of a station that came to town and exploded and then stayed the same. They were afraid to change anything. They really didn't know what it was that made them win, so they didn't move anything. They got stale and old real quick and never recovered. So, if yours is a station where everything is controlled and you're in charge, then the obligation and the responsibility is to continue to keep everything fresh and exciting. Not only do the jocks not want to keep reading the same great one-liners over and over again and then play the same strong songs back-to-back in a 50-minute music sweep, followed by the same commercials and the same promos over and over again, the audience will soon tire of it also. There must be some new product added...some new liners put in and the feeling of always having something new and great going on. Often, an urban station's freshness, difference and variety are what sets them apart from the competition and the all-too-often model sounds of traditional Top 40's and up-tempo A/C stations.

Yes, there are still some so-called "free-form" stations where the announcers pick the songs...often they're the ones with lower 12+ shares even though they have a loyal audience and the announcers say they're having fun. The question becomes "how much more fun would they have if they were winning?" If you want a place in the sun, you will probably have to expect some blisters and often the happiest people in our business are those who are too busy to notice whether they are happy or not. ●

URBAN CONTEMPORARY SUMMARY

Two more cities checked in with winning ARBitrons: Ray Boyd, new PD at V103-Atlanta (WVEE) called in with his first (all mine) numbers...went from an 8.6 to a 11.0 in the summer book! Then, later the same day, Jimmy Smith, KRNB-Memphis called in his new numbers...he went from a 15.6 to an 18.1 and swept the ARB's in all demo's and in all major dayparts! These are two proud guys, and rightfully so...congratulations to them and their staffs, who they both give a lot of credit to when they're boasting! Certified titles went to two ladies, both well -deserved: SHIRLEY MURDOCK and ANITA BAKER. Anita's third single from this LP looks like it could be stronger than even "Sweet Love" was: according to Tony Brown, WBLX-Mobile, who's already getting adult females calling for it; Doc Foster, WQMG-Greensboro is getting calls from females, and the incredible Jay

Riley, WNOO-Chattanooga sez "that new ANITA BAKER has 'hit' written all over it!" Finally, "You Be Illin' " is a single! Joe Bullard, WANM-Tallahassee reports calls for it, again, and we logged 13 new adds on it this week. Steve Harris, WCIN -Cincinnati calls in requests "from all ages" on the ISAAC HAYES, and Jay Riley, WNOO-Chatanooga exclaimed that the requests for it were "tremendous." Looks like he's making a comeback that's creating quite a stir on the radio. Frenche Be, WQIM-Montgomery reports calls for our "Most Added" KOOL & THE GANG are "instant - out of the box!" Tony Wright, WJIZ-Albany reports immediate requests for KOOL, too, as well as for CHAKA KHAN. He says that "instant phones indicate that they should do battle for the top spot..." Fred Harvey, WFKX-Jackson agrees about the

CHAKA: it's his most requested 18+. Ray Boyd, V103-Atlanta is pleased to report that both the GENERAL KANE and the ISAAC HAYES are getting calls from his listeners...shows they're a good crowd. Licia Torres, KJLH-Los Angeles reports FULL FORCE is getting crazy on the phones...that's what they're all calling in to hear. Frank Barrow, KRIZ -Seattle reports READY FOR THE WORLD getting calls from 12-25 listeners; Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta reports "lots of teens and adults" calling for RFTW. And one last thing from Rick Thomas, KUKQ-Phoenix, remarking about the incredible LUTHER VANDROSS LP: he's found "the best love song to come along in years: "There's Nothing Better Than Love." It's already getting calls. Betty

There are cuts.
There are good cuts.
There are great cuts.
And then there are GROOVES.

DAVE SHOLIN'S Personal Picks — SINGLES

PAUL SIMON - Graceland (Warner Brothers) Not since "Rhymin' Simon" have I heard Paul in such fine form. There's no filler on this exceptional LP and this brilliant title track is destined to send even more folks into the stores to make it part of their collection.

JANET JACKSON - Control (A&M) Perfect timing once again, as Janet closes out a year she'll never forget with what some have coined "Nasty Pt.2". A care package for those looking to balance the pop/rock dominating many playlists these days.

CHICAGO - Will You Still Love Me (Full Moon/Warner Bros.) They sometimes take a knock when they rock, but on this go round it's back to basics. Peter Cetera's solo success only helps promote Chicago's familiar sound - one that's loved by millions.

NEW EDITION - Once In A Lifetime Groove (MCA) Writer/Arranger Freddie Perren has a way of uncovering just the right groove for the right artist. This foursome from Red Sox country are in scoring position again.

LATE ARRIVALS

BOB GELDOF - This Is The World Calling (Atlantic) Make that Sir Bob Geldof, please! The press has been calling attention to this debut solo effort, heightening the public's interest with good reason. A stellar performance deserving of A/C, Album and Top 40 airplay. This release requires more than 20-30 seconds of your listening time...I urge you to give it a few minutes undisturbed to let it sink in.

LUTHER VANDROSS - Stop To Love (Epic) It's remarkable that with his track record in some key markets that thus far that giant Top 40 hit has eluded him. Now all the elements are in place to make this the record that sends Luther Vandross over the top.

RON FELL'S Personal Picks — ALBUMS

KBC BAND - KBC Band (Arista)

Paul Kantner, Marty Balin and Jack Casady served in the Jefferson Airplane/Starship Army during the collective war years of rock 'n' roll. They represented the consciousness of the fun-loving, yet issue-oriented intelligencia of rock 'n' roll. They played in the bands of a great society of uppity psychedelics, flower-powered love-bombers, and they played for their peers. But that was yesterday. Well, more than yesterday. The KBC Band of 1986 is hardly radical. This album blends practically a little of the musi-political with a lotta stuff which is inclined to get us dancin' rather than marchin'. Paul Kantner likes to pin the VU meter to the right (in the danger zone), but that gives the songs their urgency and it's never too much for rock 'n' roll radio. Knowing that Marty Balin would be fronting the band, I'd hoped for a couple of Red Octopus-type ballads, but upon hearing the end result, I think their need to establish themselves as rockers was more important.
