the GAVIN REPORT

Jenny Sings Lenny

A close-up portrait of Jennifer Warnes. She has short, wavy, light brown hair and is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a soft expression. Her right hand is raised to her forehead, with her fingers spread. She is wearing a dark blue or black jacket over a white collared shirt. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

INSIDE TOP 40 with DAVE SHOLIN

It's always gratifying when this column generates response. Several weeks ago I wrote about the tendency for stations to be programmed aggressively at the outset, and then become conservative once they achieve ratings success. Ace San Diego programmer and personality Bobby Rich wrote to tell me he agrees but took exception to the philosophy of "Don't fix what ain't broke." While he agrees with keeping a gutsy, creative, anything-goes approach as long as it's working, Bobby stresses that that does not mean management should remain in a holding pattern. "Bottom line," he wrote, "If you don't constantly 'fix it'...it is only a matter of time before you will realize it is broken!" Though Bobby has made adjustments to formatic elements that were working, he comments, "Change simply for the sake of change is not the point. It should be done for the sake of overall improvement." Thanks to Bobby for clarifying this very important concept.

Expect to see JODY WATLEY blast into the the Top Ten next week. Tremendous HIT FACTOR increase of 32% to 55% with a slew of major gains, including KHIT 21-13, KAGO 29-14, B94 21-11, WFJA 29-20, PRO/FM 23-17, Z93 20-14, WCZY 21-12, WLXR 23-16, WDBR 21-11, Z95 13-6, Q96 29-21, etc.

Another one that 's hot on the HIT FACTOR trail is FLEETWOOD MAC making more than your average increase from 8% to 38%!! I'm amazed at the number of programmers who are surprised this record has taken off so quickly. Lindsey and crew are back in a big way..Moves into the Top Twenty at WJXQ Jackson/Lansing, WWYO Pineville, WGBQ Galesburg, WKZQ Myrtle Beach, KOZE and KMOK Lewiston KEZY Anaheim, KUBE Seattle, Q99 Burlington, etc.

27 new stations are now taking DONNA ALLEN seriously, with fulltime adds taking her over 200 reports for the first time. In Detroit, Brian Patrick and Kathy Means chart it 15-8 at Z95.5. Crosstown at WHYT, Rick Gillette and Mark Jackson log it 16-11. Currently Top Ten at B97, KITY, Y95, I94, KKOS, KMGX (#1) FM102, WPDZ, WTIC, 95XXX, WJKC, WOAY, etc.

Seems like listeners are demanding a heavier dose of POISON each week. HIT FACTOR is up to 28% with moves of 6 places or more at Z104 Madison 14-8, 93Q Houston 27-15, KIYS Boise 27-16, KWOD Sacramento 31-21, KHTZ 22-16, WTNZ Knoxville 26-13, Z93 Atlanta 17-10, Z95 Chicago 23-15, etc. BON JOVI locks up Most Added honors for a second straight week. Brian Christian debuts them at #20 with other Top Thirty debuts at KDUX, KS103, KGGI, FM104, KKTIX, 93Q, B97, WYDD, WJET, WWFX, 3WD, etc. 99 adds including WFBG, Z100, CKOC, WXKS, WPFM, WYNU, Y94, KZHR, KREO, KATD, K106, KBEQ, Y100, 92X, KGOR, KGOT, etc.

During the week of our Gavin Seminar GLEN MEDEIROS became RECORD TO WATCH with a handful of reports. He now commands a 32% HIT FACTOR and pulls in another 23 adds to bypass CHARTBOUND and make a strong debut. on the Top 40. Big gains at KAKS Amarillo 26-13, KUUB Bozeman 24-16, KDWZ Des Moines 21-13, Q105 Tampa 24-17 etc.

Another newcomer to the Top 40 slipped right by CHARTBOUND as well. ATLANTIC STARR's HIT FACTOR is a very impressive 23%. Early believer Guy Zapoleon at KZZP Phoenix takes it into his Top Five (10-4), with other moves at KWXX 23-7, KBEQ 22-16, WKXX 12-5, Y100 24-14, WKQB 18-10, etc.

Deja vu time as PAUL SIMON re-enters CHARTBOUND on his way BACK onto the chart! This time around it like looks the success he should've enjoyed initially will finally come his way. Top Thirty at KC101, B104, WNVZ, G105, WTIC, Z94, Z100, KZZP, KKOW, KKRC, Z93, KMEL, KSWB, etc.

Third time in the last year that EDDIE MONEY earns a CHARTBOUND position with another strong week of new airplay activity. 36 adds including WAGQ, KZLS, KTDR, WXXQ, WATT, WXL, KTRS, KNBQ, KSND, FM104, KDON, KYYY, WNYZ, 95XXX, etc. WWHB's Rob Poulin moves it up 30-26.

All indications are that HERB ALPERT is on his way to getting his biggest hit since "Rise." Just in case you may be confused, the single is "Diamonds," and it's already on KIIS, KMEL, B97, KITY, KQLA, WHYT, Y100, etc. 65 adds including B106, WTIC, WILI, WSPK, KNOE, Q104, WKDD, KZZU, KWSS, KFIV, KKSS, WBTS, KYYA, KZFN, KKIS, etc.

Immediate reaction to BRUCE WILLIS reported by Rich Stevens at Z103 Tallahassee. Rich says the audience is responding to the fact this release sounds like Bruce Willis more than "Respect Yourself" did. He also mentions that not only are female requests great, but "those hip male rockers" are asking for it as well. 16 adds get it closer to 100 reports.

HIT FACTOR of 7% for KENNY G looks like just the beginning. Mike Preston at KWSS San Jose takes it all the way from 29-21 and Dave Roble at KHTZ Reno has it in his Top Ten for a second week moving 10-9. New at Y95 Dallas, KS103 San Diego, WRCK and WNYZ Utica, WHYT Detroit, WBCY Charlotte, etc.

URBAN CONTEMPORARY's new number one song is this week's RECORD TO WATCH and THE SYSTEM appears ready to become a summertime hit for TOP 40 radio. Keith Naftaly lists it 25-17 at KMEL backed by 24 adds including KMGX, JLK/FM, KEYP, Y95, WPST, 92X, KZMC, KJLS, K106, WHNY, WHKW, Q99, etc.

To begin this week's column, we're turning the mike over to Kent for this Exclusive Report on the T.J. Martell Bowling & Other Sports fundraiser. In Los Angeles last week...

SET 'EM UP & ROCK 'EM DOWN

After the last pin dropped and the rosin settled, the T.J. Martell Charity Weekend--known informally as the Jon Scott Bowling Party--had raised over $200,000 to fight leukemia. Over the years, the Left Coast Martell event has evolved into a music industry triathlon of sorts, with kegling now joined by a golf tourney and softball match.

This year's event attracted more than 1,500 attendees, as radio persons (predominantly of the Album persuasion) doused themselves with Desenex alongside such luminaries as Tom Petty (and his Heartbreakers), Stevie Nicks, Mickey Thomas, Sheila E., Weird Al, Don Henley, Little Steven, Gene Simmons, Ted Nugent, Heart, Redd Kross, Autograph, Jon Anderson of Yes, Red 7, China Crisis, In Pursuit, Richard Marx, Little Feat bassist Kenny Gradney, actors Michael Keaton and Andrew McCarthy and Bob Galliani's favorite superstar, Angelene.

For you scorekeepers, Atco Records and Gregg Guiffria shared top golfing honors, while CBS's David Cohen narrowly missed the Grand Prize of $25,000 or a new Porsche when a potential hole-in-one failed to drop. In softball, Fleetwood Mac mesmerized the bawdy Motley Crue, while Chicago (the band) captured top bowling team honors. Gavin publisher Ron Fell was a threat to take the individual bowling trophy, but developed a run in his designer leotards in the eighth frame and had to retire with a 206 while a ringer from KLSX walked off with the trophy.

Congratulations to Jon Scott, Judy Libow, Kid Leo and all who pulled off the event--now it's time to gear up those budgets for next year's participation.

POWER PLAY IN BUZZARD'S NEST

Urban WDMT-Cleveland sheds calls and format to become Top 40 WPHR (Power 108). "We saw a hole in the market," reports Asst. PD/MD Calvin Hicks. "After WNCX went Classic Hits, there was no true Top 40. WMMS reports Top 40, but they're really still basically album." Hicks, who, with PD Jeff Kelly, got his Top 40 feet wet at WAVE104-Myrtle Beach, SC, says, "We may lean slightly Urban, but we'll play only genuine crossover artists like Cameo." The format was scheduled to debut April 9, with Kelly joining Jeff Foxx's morning show, Jimmy Hart on middays, Hicks on afternoons, Doc Reno on nights and J.J. Haley on overnights. "The start won't be real splashy. We're giving the store a little time before announcing our Grand Opening," says Hicks.

HOT, BUT SAFE

New York's HOT103 (WQHT) has joined the fight for the right to party safely with a four-week "Sexual Awareness Campaign," which includes distribution of thousands of free condoms and "Sexual Awareness Cards" at local dance clubs. PD Joel Salkowitz says, "We're taking this issue very seriously, and the response has been terrific. We've gone to gay clubs and straight clubs, and clubs for kids, and 90 to 95 percent of the people are taking time to read the literature." He says the Emmis urban/dance outlet, which has a large gay listenership, hopes to sponsor an AIDS benefit concert this summer.

RECORD ROTATIONS

Chinwag salutes fast-tracking Burt Baumgartner, moving up to fill Mark Benesch's Guccis as Director, National Singles Promotion at Columbia Records. Burt was National Album Promotions Director. We remember him back when he was just a local guy in San Francisco--way back last month...Kevin Sutter wins a promotion to Senior Director, National Album Promotion at Chrysalis Records. The company has a rare promotions opening at its Atlanta office

(also covering Miami) as Gary Tanner moves over to RCA Records. Chrysalis is looking for an "aggressive person for a tough market." If you're it, call VP/Promotion Daniel Glass at (212) 758-3555...RCA, meanwhile, promotes Butch Waugh to VP/National Promotion and hires Darryl Clark as Director of Black Music Publicity... Capitol Records names former A&M Records VP/Promotion Step Johnson as head of its newly-formed Black Music Division. Simon Potts is now Capitol Senior VP/A&R worldwide...MCA Records/Nashville promotes Katie Gillon to Vice President of Production and Don Lanier to Vice President of A&R... Arista Records promotes Lauren Korman Moran to National Sales Director, Jane Moody to Associate Director, Sales & Advertising Promotion and hires Heidi Title as Manager, Business Affairs.

YAWN PATROL

Dick Edwards is now providing Power 99FM's Morning Wakeup Service in Philadelphia. He comes from evenings on KKDA-Dallas... WRKS-New York morning guy Chuck Leonard has a new sidekick, as Carol Ford slides in from afternoons. Chuck is also hosting his own weekly two-hour syndicated Dance Party, distributed by ProMedia...POWER106-Los Angeles morning guy Jay Thomas spent a week filling in for vacationing p.m. driver Dale Dorman on KISS108-Boston. Jay, whose acting resume includes The Love Boat and being "the last man eaten in C.H.U.D.," just completed a two-episode guest shot on Cheers... WKLS (96 Rock)-Atlanta snags morning teamsters Nick Van Cleave and Jeff Jensen from WYNF-Tampa. They debut April 20...Pat O'Brian leaves PD post at KVEE-Grand Junction, CO, to enlist in wake-up corps at Q98/WQFM-Fayetteville, NC...MD B.B. Boswell and PD Martin Green (aka B) are now handling the reveille shift at 106X-Florence, SC.

GEM OF AN ERROR

The good news is that last week's Gavin Report is something of a collector's item. The bad news is that the reason is a mistake we made in an ad we designed for A&M Records' new Herb Alpert single. We had all the right call letters, but the title of his previous single instead of the latest release, "Diamonds." Our apologies to Herb, Charlie, Steve, Jon, John, Jimmy, Terry, Lisa and Janet.

BORN TO RUN

The National Enquirer (America's most reliable journalistic source) informs us that Springsteen is contemplating a run for Governor of New Jersey. In the event that a few skeptics might doubt The Enquirer's stature, this report was confirmed by the Los Angeles Herald Examiner, a real actual newspaper owned by Patty Hearst's uncle.

The Boss joins a lengthening list of entertainment and/or sports figures who've at least mulled over a switch to the REAL show business. Bill Bradley didn't fool around with any dogcatcher or alderman positions. The NBA Hall-of-Famer drove right for the basket by moving right into the U.S. Senate spot from New Jersey, a state in which he had lived not a minute. Not a bad move. The Senate has always needed guys who can drill the jumper and go to their left. You're not going to get THAT from Bella Abzug.

Steve Garvey is thinking about a senatorial bid in California. Why not? He has what counts when a crucial vote on Medicare is imminent: Great hair! Garvey's hair is right up there with Sting's and Huey Lewis'. Which makes us wonder why neither of those guys thought about public life. THEY'VE GOT THE HAIR! ISN'T THAT ENOUGH?

Ex-Shirley Temple dancing partner George

Murphy was a senator. His IQ was lower than Laverne's and/or Shirley's, yet he tap-danced his way through one rhythmic term, and the country didn't go down in flames. We hear the current Guy In The White House was also in show biz. If BEDTIME FOR BONZO can elevate someone to the highest halls of Executive Suite, what about "Born In The U.S.A."? And what better place to begin that political career than as Chief Exec of the old home-boy place?

When B.S. takes over the Garden State, he'll need some trusted assistants on his sniveling staff. We're declaring ourself available. Any flunky job will do. Who knows? It might even be more fulfilling than doing A/C promotion for a living.

About those Oscars: Were we smart enough to watch the basketball finals instead or what? Our newspaper told us the next morning that the venerated Academy Awards included such presenters/talent as Molly Ringwald (probably a skin disease), Ally Sheedy, Rob Lowe and other funnily named people. No Kirk, no Burt, no Sophia.--but Molly, Ally and Rob. We'd like to pose one irascible question: WHO ARE THESE PEOPLE? Send answers c/o Gavin.

For those who passed on the NCAA final game because you were watching Molly and Ally, we'd like to offer right here and now as a public service, some of THE BEST BRENT MUSBURGER CLICHES used during the broadcast.

"Folks, we have a dandy brewing here!"

"It's been a dandy all the way!"

"He finds the inside man! YOU CAN'T TEACH THAT!"

"Keith Smart WANTS THAT BALL!"

"Boy, has HE been a live wire the last few minutes!"

And our favorite:

"You don't see a senior do THAT very often!"

Several weeks ago, we gave you a list of potential column ideas that never made Gavin print. In reality, we made them up for alleged laughs (none of which we got, at least not in THIS house). The topic today is: The possibilities for REAL columns are even funnier than our made-up ones. How could you make up a column about Oral Roberts worrying whether God had a hit-man? Then there are Jim and Tammy, who are worried about a mascara and condom shortage. Joan Rivers is worried her unfunny 4th network show will be cancelled, and a new law has been passed banning smoking in Beverly Hills restaurants.

THAT law means that, when Johnny Carson walks into The Bistro, some waiter (who's really a "young filmmaker") will have to tell The Great Carnak (and Ed!) that smoking is illegal.

Back to real and legit column ideas: The alimony demands of Alexis Carrington's estranged 14-year-old husband; nude photos of a Cosby Show daughter and the heavily eye-make-up'd Ferdinand Marcos mistress. You'd be advised not to miss this space in coming weeks. Ron Fell won't. He's ever on the search for more big words to use in his LP reviews...and we're planning to use quite a few.

Stay tuned, have a good week, write if you get work...and to Tim West, Jack Kulp and Gary Greenberg, all of who wanted to see their names in print: There they are, and Big Deal. No one reads this stuff, guys! ●

JENNIFER JWARNES

LEONARD COHEN
BY RON FELL AND DIANE RUFER

ne of my favorite albums of 1986 was "Famous Blue Raincoat," Jennifer Warnes's collection of classic and soon-to-be-classic songs written by Leonard Cohen.

Cohen's poetic license and Jennifer's lyrical delivery culminate a professional relationship dating back to the early 70s, when Jennifer was back-up singer for Cohen's tours and records. The highlights of Jennifer's career included performances in the groundbreaking musical "Hair" and the equally adventurous Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour on television.

Neither Jennifer nor Leonard had been very prolific in this decade. Jennifer made ends meet with commercials and movie themes, two of them Oscar winners. In the meantime, Jennifer pursued a developing fascination with African folk and pop music.

Leonard, whose poetry and performance have made him an international cult figure, played an active role in the execution of "Famous Blue Raincoat." An obvious labor of love, it can't help but revitalize the careers of both.

--Ron Fell

RF: Where have you been these past seven years?

JW: It seems I've been doing an awful lot. Just before the Leonard Cohen project, I was in the studio doing a digital production of my own compositions. Before that I spent about two and a half years on MCA trying to get a record made. That was very frustrating. I had one magnificent supporter by the name of Kathleen Carey. She and I liked (South African singing group) Ladysmith Black Mambazo. I signed to her and she signed me to MCA. It looked like we were going to have a really great, unusual album, but she kept getting resistance from the people at MCA. The pop division said, "Nope. We don't know what to do with her." Then we went to Nashville, and they said no. Finally she just threw up her hands and said, "You'd better go do something else, because I can't help you."

RF: What kind of project would it have been?

JW: I was translating African music and finding out what they were saying. Then I was going over to my friend Sharon Robinson's house. She's this magnificent black singer that Leonard and I toured Europe with. She and I would layer female English versions of African chants on 24-track. It was an experiment in taking the undulating warmth of the African beat and putting English lyrics to it. I was really in love with that idea, but we couldn't get past the executives.

RF: What did you think of Paul Simon's "Graceland"?

JW: First of all, I was very glad that he did it because he was probably the only artist who would do it in such an honorable fashion. He really brought those musicians the respect they desperately needed. I think he did very well by them. I saw the show. He was pretty much stepping back and presenting them rather than himself. He might have been doing an appropriate thing because it's possible that the uniqueness of the African music needed to be given absolute full attention.

RF: Was it just pursuing that dream with MCA that consumed you for all that time?

JW: I did a couple of commercials and a couple of films. "Norma Rae" won an Oscar. "Ragtime" with Randy Newman was nominated and didn't win. Then "Officer and A Gentleman" was nominated and won. That was all between 1979 and 1983. I did two or three other films, "Twilight Zone" and "All The Right Moves"--records people probably won't hear.

RF: You recently did the theme from "Growing Pains" with B.J. Thomas as well.

JW: That's the act of survival for a singer who doesn't write. Yes, I've done a lot of whatever I could to pay the rent.

RF: I want to talk about the Beauty and the Beast for a moment. How and why did the "Up Where We Belong" project with Joe Cocker come about?

JW: We work with the same producer, Jim Price. I thought I was going to sing with him a lot, actually. Then I bumped into him at a Bonnie Raitt concert and asked him, "Do you want to sing together?" He said, "Sure." A couple of days later, I was offered a contract to do the theme song and I thought, "Why don't I sing it with Joe Cocker?"

RF: Is it possible to be comfortable singing next to a man who seems to be going through an epileptic fit?

JW: (laughs) It's damned exciting. You never know what's going to happen next.

RF: I would imagine he's also that way when not behind a microphone.

JW: The nice thing about Joe is that he will only sing live so there is absolutely no predicting what will happen. Any artist will tell you that brings out the best in anyone.

RF: Were you actually looking at him while you were singing the song?

JW: Yes, most of the time, just trying to get inside the song and find out where he was going to place his foot.

RF: Who wrote that song?

JW: Will Jennings. He wrote most of the lyrics to Stevie Winwood's records. Jack Nitzsche and Buffy St. Marie wrote the music.

RF: How did your musical career begin? I keep reading about how you used to sing at the Troubadour in Los Angeles. What was going on before that?

JW: I auditioned for the Mousketeers when I was seven. I didn't win, thank goodness. I did county fairs and a lot of singing when I was quite young. I had an extremely low voice for a child and I think it worked because I got a lot of work. Then I laid off until I was fifteen and joined Equity. I did a lot of musical theater from the ages of fifteen to twenty. After that I did the folk circuit for four or five years. That is where I met Jackson Browne and all my folkie friends. That led to a record contract and the Smothers Brothers Show.

RF: That show was incredibly progressive for its time. Did you get caught up in the censorship issues?

JW: No, Tommy took that entirely on his shoulders. He was really a warrior in that respect. Maybe some of my "Come on guys, why not?" attitude comes from them.

RF: What led to your professional involvement with Leonard Cohen?

JW: I was just a fan like everyone else about the time of his first album and novel.

I'm not sure what year, maybe 1967. I sang his songs at the Troubadour before I met him. When I had a little success with my first record, I went on tour and I met him in Hartford--he doesn't remember it. Then I was in Nashville singing with Waylon Jennings and John Stewart. That was in 1971 and someone said (producer) Bob Johnston was looking for a background singer for Leonard Cohen's tour. I had never sung background before. I didn't know it was an art unto itself—not just anyone can get up and sing background if they sing lead. Since I knew all of his songs, I guess they thought I knew what I was doing. So they hired me.

RF: You ended up recording with him, too.

JW: Yes, for about three more albums.

RF: You know him a lot better than anyone who listens to his music. What do you think are his most enduring qualities as a poet and musician?

JW: The well-written word. I think he can turn a phrase better than anyone else. Back in the 20s, 30s and 40s, a lyricist was a real artist. We've gotten a little bit lazy, I think, about the things we're willing to say and how we're willing to say them.

RF: I'm a little confused as to how you shopped "The Famous Blue Raincoat" to the labels. Did it exist in any demo form at this point?

JW: Oh, no. I hadn't much luck in describing things to people on record. The best luck I have is with people who really believe in the stuff I do. The record could not have happened without Roscoe Beck, my co-producer, because he is really capable of bringing my ideas to solutions. I have a lot of ideas brewing all the time—my house is a pile of little pieces of paper tacked all over the walls. I was at Amigo Studios with him, producing some work of my own. Craig Sussman of Cypress Records, who was starting a label and hadn't signed anyone yet, heard about what we were doing. We sat down and he said, "What kind of things do you want to do in your career?" I told him I wanted to do a complete album of Leonard Cohen's work. He said, "That will give a real good definition for my label. If I put that record out as the first record on my label, it will say 'I want to make records like this.'" He also said it would help establish some trust with the buying public. No one had ever asked me for a record that obscure in my whole career. As it turned out, it was not all that obscure in execution. It is only strange in context of what the industry is able to tolerate. Here was a record executive who was asking for it and agreeing to pay for it. I dropped my other project in mid-stream and started this one. I learned timing is just about everything in the marketing world, and that my intuitions were right all along—they just weren't ripe all along.

RF: We want to talk about the new album. One of Leonard's more famous songs, "Suzanne," was not included.

JW: No. I didn't want to touch it because it has a special place in people's memories. I don't think you should mess with that too much.

RF: Who is Bernadette in "Song Of Bernadette"?

JW: It is really hard to say, precisely. When I was born, I was named Bernadette. My brothers and sisters, whose names all start with the letter J, said, "That's not right." So I was Bernadette for only a couple of days. When I wrote the song, I was in recovery from a very bad experience. My boyfriend was killed, and I went on tour with Leonard to get back my flying feet. I wrote a series of letters to myself, Jennifer to Bernadette and back from Bernadette to Jennifer, because I was going from the acquired cultural self to the original self. I was talking from a hothouse plant to a someone that's wild. That was what I did on the buses. Leonard read some of it and said, "There is a song in here. Let's write a song about Bernadette." We were in France at the time. Obviously, Saint Bernadette Soubirous, who died early on in her years, was a visionary in France. Then the story complicates from this point on, in that Jennifer Jones, whom I was named after, won her Oscar on my birthday for a movie called "Song For Bernadette." So I think this is a perfect example and how a song gets written. Which is, nobody knows.

RF: There is obvious Ladysmith Black Mambazo influence on your version of "Bird On The Wire."

JW: It's really not stolen from Ladysmith Black Mambazo, but the concept of men, warm and happy to be together, in a chant style and in a feeling of contentment, is a sound that I like to have on my records. It makes me feel comforted.

RF: And who is Roscoe Beck?

JW: He heads a band from Austin, Texas, called Passenger. It's sort of multi-talented—I guess you could call it jazz/fusion when it first came out of Texas. They worked for Leonard for three or four tours. That band was already inside Leonard's music pretty clearly.

RF: Did Roscoe play a major role in bringing Stevie Ray Vaughan into the project?

JW: Yes. He has a blues background from Austin. He has incredible friends that come into town and jams with them whenever they're here and Stevie's among those.

RF: When I reviewed your single, I made reference to the fact that not only was there a great employment of lyric in that solo, but Stevie's guitar has a duet feel. You really trade off well.

JW: I actually was singing into his ear. I would sing a line and then he'd play a line, then I'd sing a line. That's how it came down.

RF: Did you sit down with Leonard and play him the whole project?

JW: Leonard was there during the making of it. He stayed with us for three or four months. His presence was very important to the project because he was rewriting lyrics as I was singing them. "Famous Blue Raincoat" got rewritten right then and there. His singing on the record was accidental. We weren't planning on that. Leonard participated wholeheartedly in the making of the record. I think he was more curious than sure of us. I think he hoped we would succeed but he wanted to see what the process was, why I was so passionate about his work, and what happened when someone else got inside of his work.

RF: Since he's been for the most part away from the process of recording for quite a long time, I would think a lot of this was an eye-opener for him as well.

JW: He has made quite a few albums that no one in America knows about. Europeans know a lot about "Various Positions," "Recent Songs" and "New Skin For The Old Ceremony." There are some incredible albums from which I got these songs.

RF: You talked about the frustration with a project that didn't come to be. Do you find that you're intimidated by the business side of music?

JW: I think to blame the business entirely for my problems is ridiculous, because it's also a matter of personal growth—being able to stand before God and man and say, "This is what I am passionate about." In the past, I instinctively had to play into their hands enough to keep going, to make survival moves. That was really necessary at some point, so I do forgive myself for digressing from pure passion from time to time. I think the mere fact that I have been able to stay afloat is unusual. But for my personal growth, it's been a big difference for me to stand up and say, "Hey, wait a minute. I love this stuff." Leonard tells me the only thing he can write about is what he's really moved by. That's all I can sing, really. ●

I learned timing is just about everything in the marketing world, and that my intuitions were right all along--they just weren't ripe all along.

A/C ANALYSIS

Six records dominate the format, and they are the top six on the chart. The worst HEAVY to MEDIUM ratio is 3 to 1 and some are better than 10 to 1.

Poor Anita Baker leaps 22 to 15 to 7 on the chart and now must convert a healthy portion of her non-HEAVIES to score her third POWER TRIO ribbon.

Atlantic Starr is now top ten on the strength of 23 more adds (fifth MOST ADDED). So many adds, in fact, that their HIT FACTOR drops because adds are not a contributing part of HIT FACTOR until they convert to HEAVY or MEDIUM rotation.

Speaking of statistical flukes, Kenny Loggins gets 16 adds and drops in ranking. It ain't over the top or over yet. Lionel, Madonna and Chicago just had phenomenal weeks. Kenny will be top fifteen by next week, with a HIT FACTOR well into the 80s.

Gino Vannelli is now HIT FACTORED at 73% of his stations, Cyndi Lauper at 65%, this week's cover girl Jennifer Warnes at 62%, up from 53% and The Bangles are now at 78%.

We wonder out loud how many playlists have shrunk as the result of the spring Arbitron, how many stations agree on the same records and how much from the lack of inspirational new music. We can't believe it's the latter. But when the total number of adds for our three most added records is under 100, we gotta wonder.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Always The Sun by The Stranglers, debuts in our NEW section. Eight adds this week KLKC, KASY, KAZM, KBMG, WABZ, WHIZ, KVMT and KPTL. HEAVY rotation from KTIM/FM, WALG and KTBC.

Of all the records on our page which were originally successful in 1986 and are back again, the Chris De Burgh single, Lady In Red, looks to be repeating its initial success. Twenty-three adds this week in A/C and a 37 to 31 chart move in Top 40.

RECOMMENDED FOR A/C RADIO

GENESIS

In Too Deep (Atlantic)

Should be huge with A/C radio. This Phil Collins ballad of a breakup in progress is a first-person account of a man who gave too little, too late and now sees the object of his affection pulling the plug on his amps.

DAN HILL

Can't We Try (Columbia)

Two people of different worlds fighting to maintain or improve a loving relationship in the eye of public opinion. The song builds to an emotional climax and fades slowly into the proverbial sunset with both protagonist asking the musical question.

THE NYLONS

Kiss Him Goodbye (Open Air/Windham Hill)

This record is fun. Not only is it a re-make of the novelty by Steam in 1969, The Nylons' acapella approach gives it a new life - a new vitality.

RUSSELL HITCHCOCK

The River Cried (Arista)

If the voice sounds familiar, it's because he's from Air Supply. What isn't expected is the arrangement's intensity, a healthy divergence from the sometimes limp Air Supply ballad style.

HIT FACTOR

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation. ie: 100 stations playing the record - 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation - Hit Factor = 60%

DIGITAL AUDIO TAPE -- AND BEYOND

The record industry has been fighting a plucky, but so far losing battle to keep DAT (digital audio tape) out of the hands of consumers. House and Senate committees are considering legislation to ban DAT recording devices, or at least require copy-code scanners to prevent dubbing from protected recordings. But these remarkable machines may be on the market as soon as the end of the year, before Congress can act.

Even before DAT cassette machines make their debut, something even more exciting to the consumer and broadcaster--and more appalling to the record industry--is on the horizon. A company called CompuSonics in Palo Alto, California, is marketing a computer, the DSP 1000, which can be used to record and play back digitally any music from any source onto double-sided, 5 1/4-inch, two-hour optical laser discs. Such discs will far outlast magnetic tape, and are considerably more versatile.

The price for this machine is still quite steep--upwards of $40,000--but a mass-market model can be obtained for about $7,000. Presumably, as the machine is accepted and more are sold, the price will drop--perhaps to $1,000 or less by 1990. The discs aren't cheap, either--over $150 each--but they too will drop with mass production.

The record industry increasingly resembles the legendary little Dutch boy who tried to plug the leak in the dike with his finger. Although I am not inclined to believe that recording technology exists solely to pirate the products of the recording industry, there undoubtedly is a major leak in the dike, and shortly there will be no dike.

There is certainly cause for concern, not only for the record companies, but for radio as well. If the record business cannot realize a profit on its product, it will cease producing the product. Since some 80 percent of all radio listening is for music, radio always had and always will have a stake in the success of the record business.

If, as it appears, the record business is unsuccessful in imposing an anti-dubbing copy-code on the new generation of recorders, it will have to search for a solution elsewhere. The most obvious answer is to make taping economically unattractive. Record companies say their high prices are necessary, at least in part, to make up for the millions lost in various forms of piracy, both commercial and individual. Perhaps there would be less reason for private dubbing of borrowed records and tapes if record companies reduced their prices instead of constantly increasing them!

As for radio, I have always opposed any presentation of music in such a way as to encourage home taping. Overlapping music with other music or DJ comments effectively degrades any recording efforts, while enhancing the presentation for radio listeners.

It's a very serious problem, and we all have a stake in finding a satisfactory solution. I personally regret that Stan Cornyn's mind-boggling presentation at the 1986 Gavin Seminar was not heeded more fully by the record industry. Stan, who is deeply involved in the development of the compact disc for interactive video and data storage, boldly told the industry he once led that, if it didn't act fast, the future of the compact disc would be lost to the computer industry. Fair warning, but so far, only Philips and PolyGram have attempted to stake out territory in the new field. It is worth noting in passing that, had the record business moved boldly into the new, exponentially-expanding future of the compact disc, it would not only be in a position to profit from the sale of future hardware, but also be able to apply some direction to the development of the compact disc as a recording medium for the consumer. ●

'The record industry increasingly resembles the legendary little Dutch boy who tried to plug the leak in the dike with his finger. Although I am not inclined to believe that recording technology exists solely to pirate the products of the recording industry, there undoubtedly is a major leak in the dike, and shortly there will be no dike.'

BIO FEEDBACK

by RON FELL

NEVILLE BROTHERS

Brothers Aaron, Cyril and Charles are led by keyboardist Art Neville, a founding member of The Meters, the famed New Orleans instrumental group of the sixties and seventies.

CARLY SIMON

The original working title for her huge hit "You're So Vain" was "Bless You, Ben." Only after it had been re-written did Carly decide it could have been about Warren Beatty.

THE CULT

The Cult's name is actually derived from their original name, Southern Death Cult. Their new album, "Electric," was produced by Def Jam founder and Beastie Boys/Run DMC producer, Rick Rubin.

RAINY DAVIS

She toured in the seventies as part of the group, Musique, whose big hit was "Push Push In The Bush."

BEASTIE BOYS

Beastie Adam Horowitz's father is New York playwright Israel Horovitz.

T. GRAHAM BROWN

He has a part as a hotel clerk in the upcoming movie, "The Farm."

HERB ALPERT

His first single with the Tijuana Brass, "The Lonely Bull," was released in the fall of 1962. His first number one record was a vocal of Burt Bacharach and Hal David's, "This Guy's In Love With You," in 1968.

GARY MOORE

Besides cultivating his solo career, Gary Moore has served as lead guitarist once for the Skids and twice for Thin Lizzy.

JEFFERSON AIRPLANE

Grace Slick says her most famous song, "White Rabbit," was inspired not only by the works of Lewis Carroll but also by Ravel's Bolero.

BRUCE WILLIS

Being a spokesman for Seagram's Golden Wine Cooler will net Bruce an even cooler $5 million over the next three years.

BON JOVI

Their latest album, "Slippery When Wet," has passed the six million unit mark in certified sales.

PAUL SIMON

In his current world tour with Ladysmith Black Mambazo, Hugh Masakela and Miriam Makeba, the only song Simon performs from his pre- Graceland days is a revised version of "Mother And Child Reunion."

JIMMY PAGE

The celebrated guitarist is at work finishing up a double solo album. Robert Plant sings lead on a pair of songs.

FOUR TOPS

They've left the Motown fold after more than twenty-two years to sign with Arista.

KIM WILDE

The song, "You Keep Me Hangin' On," has been a top ten hit twice already. The Supremes did it in 1966 and Vanilla Fudge followed two years later. Between those two, Joe Simon had another song with the same title do well also.

DAVID BOWIE

His headmaster in school was Peter Frampton's father.

SMOKEY ROBINSON

When he and The Miracles (originally known as The Matadors) were first hired by Berry Gordy at Motown, they sang demos of songs for other acts to record.

TOM PETTY & THE HEARTBREAKERS

THE CULT

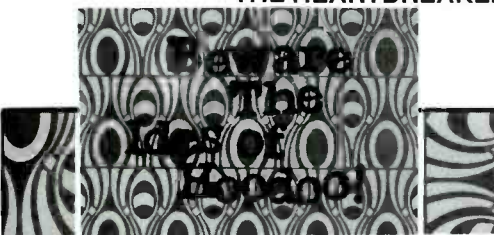

THE SMITHS

THE SAINTS

CHRIS ISAAK

Blow Your Cool-Hoodoo Gurus (Big Time/Elektra)

Rock n roll that surpasses the art of alienation. The Hoodoos' sound expands without the risk of letting Blow Your Cool blow their core. From the opening strums of "Out That Door" to the last beats of "Where Nowhere Is," side one plants the Hoodoos right on the front steps of Album Radio. Hoodoo Gurus have shown big promise even before the Batman and Robin teaming of Big Time and Elektra. They have yet to release an album that hasn't already invaded the Gavin Alternative Top Five. This is one band that isn't afraid of hard work. They've seen the USA at least thrice before through the windows of Econolines. Based on the aural strength of the single "Good Times," "I Was The One," "Out That Door" and "Hell For Leather," I'd say the Hoodoos are well on their way toward seeing the USA in a shiny Chevy. Chalk me up as a side one fan.

Bedrock Vice-Thrashing Doves (A&M)

Thrashing Doves, certainly a strong album of great songs, has some of the oddest sequencing of 1987. Everything starts strongly with the opening single, "Beautiful Imbalance," but my favorites are the last few trax on the disc. "Tinderbox Man" and two steamers, "Northern Civil War Party" and "Jesus On The Payroll" display a dry wit at work. Don't overlook "Bibi's Basement," produced by Jimmy Iovine and mixed by Bob Clearmountain. Bedrock Vice goes way out of its way to be likable. I found myself tripping over great tunes and clever instrumentation. Hardly a dull moment, to be sure.

"Friend Of The Flag"-Bernie Taupin (RCA)

I dare you to blindfold-test a friend on this one. Obviously the lyrics, Bernie Taupin's forte, are excellent. Remember that Taupin has had his thumb in on a couple of recent hits by the Starship and Heart.

SUZANNE VEGA "LUKA"

"Luka"-Suzanne Vega (A&M)
In his superior interview with Audio Magazine, Chris Blackwell stated a philosophy that debut albums should be on the raw and stark side, spared of overproduction, allowing an artist to naturally gain credibility. A good example could be Suzanne Vega's first LP. Though I found it perhaps a bit plain, I now appreciate its subtlety. This new album has earned the added dimension more production expense adds to a more mature sound. Meanwhile, that first album did snare 200,000 buyers. Imagine what they'll do when they hear this one. "Luka" is a warm first introduction, and Suzanne Vega is an artist who won't be looking back.

Happy Hour-Ted Hawkins (Rounder)

A solid example of "less is more." Ted Hawkins, virtually a Venice, California street singer, has gained notoriety on both sides of the Atlantic with a voice that combines an experienced blues feel with a soulful sensibility closely reminiscent of Sam Cooke on a street corner. Produced and engineered by Bruce Bromberg, Dennis Walker and Bill Dashiell (the team that brought us the Robert Cray LPs), Happy Hour is an extraordinary LP in that its cool feel is dredged from a well of hard luck, humanity and roots. As they did with Cray, the English have already elevated Ted Hawkins to deified cult status. I defy you to audition "My Last Goodbye," "Happy Hour," "California Song" and "Revenge Of Scorpio" and not feel the twinge you feel when someone whispers you a secret.

"You're The Voice"-John Farnham (RCA)

John Farnham spent three months on a vacation of sorts. That is, his "You're The Voice" single topped the Australian charts for over twelve weeks. A refugee of the Little River Band, Farnham combines technology with "Mull Of Kintyre" to come up with some unique production.

Made In U.S.A. Soundtrack (Chrysalis)

Made In U.S.A. stars Christopher Penn. Just before his brother Sean ripped my tonearm to smithereens, I got in a few listens much to the delight of those occupying surrounding work stations. "In The Wait" is encouraging news from Tito Larriva/Chalo Quintana--both members of the Cruzaos. Timbuk 3's "Life Is Hard" still reminds me of fellow Texan T-Bone Burnett. "The Ballad Of Little Man" was pulled from the redoubtable World Party debut. Side two spotlights independent soothsayers Mojo Nixon and Skid Roper. My God, I do believe their "I Hate Banks" just stole the show. Mojo's wit is in full razor sharp force. This is not your run-of-the-mill soundtrack album. In fact, who cares what the movie is like?

TIM SCOTT

The High Lonesome Sound-Tim Scott (Geffen)

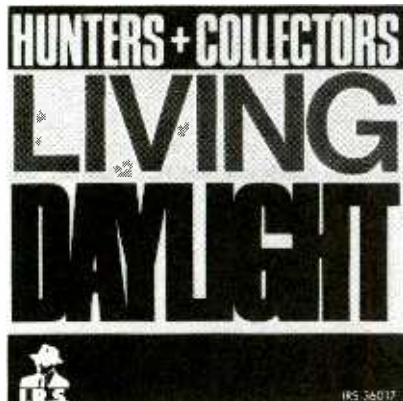

The state of unabashed American artistry as displayed by Springsteen, Bruce Hornsby, Peter Case and a whole string of T-Bone Burnett -piloted projects is alive and well. Perhaps Tim Scott has unconsciously named the genre with this album title. Produced by Mitchell Froom, the LP is a string of various tempos and temperments anchored by an acoustic-guitar base. On this LP, quick judgment will get you nowhere. This one takes time and careful appreciation. While most major label releases go for the jet-set splash, a record like Scott's is a car trip, weaving through various united states of mind and mood. "I Could Be Anything" and "Sound Of Thunder" head the list of favorites.

Gone To Earth-David Sylvian (Virgin)

Atmospheric music (the kind commonly pigeon-holed as "New Age") needn't be as vapid as the music it was designed to be an alternative to. David Sylvian's Gone To Earth shows that a different time and space consciousness can be riveting, relaxing and important. A pioneer of sonic alternatives, Sylvian's work with Japan was renowned and respected worldwide. Eventually the volatility forced Sylvian down a more tranquil path. The opener "Taking The Veil" is a raucous as things get, but I dig the input of contributors like Robert Fripp and Bill Nelson. KZ

My 2 cents

It's shoehorn time for this week's Top Five. Each and every entry is incredibly strong and getting stronger. U2 has been selling at a brisk pace. At this point in time, it is going gold every ten days. Bryan Adams, though he didn't move numerically, had another sharp week, cutting its way onto playlists with heavy action on four trax, while more wait in the wings. Tom Petty's new single debuts this week with the triple punch. Debuting at #12, Tom can also be found on this week's Frontline as well as Certified and Most Added. Not that I'm a fan of Eddie Murphy, but I wonder what prompted TP to unload his wrath on Murphy and Piscopo. I assume Vanessa Redgrave's Palestinian sympathies put her on the TP hit list. Nevertheless, it's a thought-provoking song, maybe even a little controversial. Long live controversy. The Top 15 is still riddled with new bands making big waves while introducing themselves on the airwaves. Cutting Crew has gained incredible steam and remains on course, underlined this week at #7. You'd better keep watch on Jon Butcher as track emphasis changes to "Holy Wars." After that is the title track, "Wishes." Frozen Ghost is very much still in the game at #11. If the Top Ten had been softer and less competitive, it would have charted even higher. Next is the Cult at #13, pioneering a psychedelic image laced with aggressive hard guitar work. At #15, Rock & Hyde take the opposite direction with a textured, modern approach. The Thompson Twins at #16 are appealing to our sample of Gavin Album tastemakers. Eddie Money's album, starting with his first hit single, is taking on the Gavin Album Chart track by track. As a matter of fact, this track is the one best suited for Album Radio airplay and as a result has shown the hottest growth. Eddie gets serious by jumping 13 places, 31-18. Just beneath Eddie, is a fellow Bay Area band having its best week, Wire Train. Like the Thompson Twins, this is music well suited to our reporting stations.

They enter this week's 20 jumping 40-29-19. Chris Isaak remains at #23. He retains his line, although it may be time to consider a different push track. "Heartful Of Soul" is an easy call. "Lie To Me" is the album's sleeper. A bevy of debuts took numbers this week. The Other Ones' "We Are What We Are" gives the album a push start at #31. Hoodoo Gurus prepare things for the album by debuting at #33 as a twelve inch. Last week's big jump proved to be no fluke after this week's stats were tallied--the Saints debut at #34. The Crowded House rush is back with the band re-debating at #36 as "Something So Strong" continues the story. While "The Final Countdown" was the promotional theme for the Hagler/Leonard fight, Album Radio is hot on "Rock The Night," which jumps to #35. Two monosyllabic bands are on the move this week. The Damned debut at #39 while the Truth can be found at #40. Next week's Atomic Chart Debut is an easy call. Record to Watch this week is definitely Gary Moore. He rests at the top of Chartbound waiting for his chance to pounce. My guess is that next week, Gary will be wearing a number from the high 20's...perhaps #29. Maybe you shouldn't be listening to me, I thought Hagler was going to murder Sugar Ray. Stay well XO KZ.

Q: Is THE SMITHS' New Album Out?

A: Louder Than Bombs Is Not Only Out, It's A Double Album With 24 Songs.

A perennial favorite with adventure radio, The Smiths continue to top alternative charts and dance club playlists. With their previous albums Meat Is Murder and The Queen Is Dead, The Smiths are also fast becoming a retail success story.

Last year, NME voted The Smiths Best Single, Best LP and Best Group. Morrissey received honors for Best Male Singer and Most Wonderful Human Being.

With seven brand new songs, Louder Than Bombs makes the biggest explosion yet for The Smiths.

That type of information is very helpful to those of us outside the market.

SPOTLIGHT LP

The Killer Inside Me GREEN ON RED (Mercury UK)

Green On Red now have more in tune with Country and drinkin' beer 'round the afternoon barbecue than their original late night underground club scene. On their past few albums, Dan Stuart reined back on the Green On Red pace of music. Don't be misled by the conservative good ol' boy image, Dan just appreciates the proletariat wherever he finds it. Backed by underrated guitarist Chuck Prophet's licks, Dan's witty and cynical lyrics knife through on "Mighty Gun" and the single, "Clarksville." "Sorry Naomi," "No Man's Land" and the best cut, "Track You Down," elevates Green On Red to higher plains with powerful gospel-rooted background vocals a la Ry Cooder (with whom producer Jim Dickinson has worked extensively).

Always There THE ROSE OF AVALANCHE (Fire UK)

The market has been flooded by doom & gloom/glam-rock bands the past few years, but Rose Of Avalanche expands the field explored by The Sisters Of Mercy/Mission UK, Bauhaus/Love & Rockets, March Violets/Batfish Boys, etc. Songs, like "Stick In The Woods" and the largo-paced "Velveteen" are submerged in a sea of vocal echo, heavily reverberated drums and layered acoustic & electric guitars. Phillip Morris' biting vocal timing punctuates the powerful rhythm sentences, particularly on my favorite cuts "Always There" and "Too Many Castles In The Sky." I haven't heard a better import record this year. Peter

COUNTRY SUMMARY

While many spent Monday night glued to the Marvin Hagler/Sugar Ray Leonard fight, all of us Country Music loyalists were tuned into the Academy Of Country Music Awards.

The BIG winner of the evening was Randy Travis, who raked in four awards, including Best Male Vocalist, Best Album (Storms Of Life), Single Of The Year (On The Other Hand) and Song Of The Year (On The Other Hand). Reba McEntire was a double winner, as she captured the Female Vocalist Of The Year Award along with the Video Of The Year (Whoever's In New England). Other winners included The Judds (Duo Of The Year), The Forester Sisters

Of The Year), Holly Dunn (Best New Female Vocalist) and our guy Dwight Yoakam (Best New Male Vocalist).

The Entertainer Of The Year was awarded to Hank Williams Jr., and the consensus among our reporters is that this was an acknowledgement long overdue. The Country Station Of The Year was awarded to KNIX in Phoenix. Congratulations to Michael Owens, Larry Daniels, Buddy Owens and the whole KNIX crew.

In conjunction with the ACM awards, KLAC/KZLA - along with the city of Los Angeles - sponsored the "L.A. Country Scene '87" on Saturday and Sunday, April 4th and 5th. Admission was free, with rides, chili cook-offs, food booths, and over 50 artists performing. KZLA's R.J. Curtis reports over 50,000 people attended on Saturday, and over 100,000 showed up Sunday. All in all, the whole weekend was a smashing success. R.J. promises more details next week.

CMA RADIO WHITE PAPER AVAILABLE

The Country Music Association's white paper for radio, "A New Look At Building Country Music Radio Audiences," is now available. The extract from the CMA-commissioned market structure study was written specifically for managers and programmers of Country Music radio stations. A copy of the radio white paper is being mailed free of charge to all current CMA members. It is available on request to other organizational members. For non-CMA members, the white paper can be obtained for $125. For further information or to order a copy, contact the CMA Membership Department, 7 Music Circle North, Nashville, TN, 37203 or phone 615-244-2840.

THE JOHN WAYNE SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

I recently read about a remarkable situation in which a national promotion director for a major record company sued the label, alleging emotional stress, harassment and physical abuse. Specifically, this individual stated he had been repeatedly insulted and humiliated by his superiors. Moreover, he stated, he had been poked by his boss more than once with an electric cattle prod.

Whether the allegations are true is not the focus of my comments here. What amazes me is that people in the industry I've spoken to about this story don't automatically deny that it could have occurred. What does that say about the radio and record industries?

Most of us can agree that using a cattle prod is not only barbaric and unethical, but could have no constructive motivational impact whatsoever. But it seems to me that many managers in many industries still believe in what I call the John Wayne School of Management: "The only way to get respect and get results around here is to kick ass." Motivation is defined in terms of fear, threats, coercion, intimidation and if necessary, humiliation.

"But Oren, you don't understand! This is a real tough, competitive industry! Maybe a cattle prod is going too far, but you have to realize the only way to shake people up and keep them on their toes in this business is to put the fear of demons into them."

Sorry, folks, I don't buy it. My colleagues and I have looked at some pretty tough industries--steel, autos, banking, retailing, semiconductors--where the competition is violent and often international as well as domestic. Let me tell you something about the winners in those industries. Management is tough as nails about standards and performance, but views its job as supporting people so they can achieve results.

We're not talking soft-head humanism here. We're talking about managers who won't compromise high standards and are perfectly prepared to get rid of people who can't cut it. But--and it's a big "but"--we're also talking about managers who see their job as developers, coaches and cheerleaders, not as cops. We're talking about managers who know the only way they can get quality results, customer service and innovation from their people is by working with their people.

Hence, effective managers will train their people, trust them, share all information with them, strategize with them, butt heads with senior brass to get those people resources, bootleg funds for them, delegate to them and reward them continuously for any and all victories.

In one steel company and one equipment manufacturing company, even the finance departments get into the act by training the blue-collar employees to read balance sheets, computer printouts, scrap loss data and other statistics. Why? So the employees can monitor their own performance and feel a sense of personal commitment to their jobs. Does it work? You bet! Both companies have a remarkable growth and profitability rate in industries characterized by waves of business failures.

If there's one thing I've learned from years of studying organizations, it is this: Only people who feel strong and powerful are truly motivated to get things done. The effective manager does whatever is necessary to empower people, to make them feel stronger, not weaker, every day.

My colleagues and I run executive retreats for some pretty tough senior managers in a variety of industries. We have them listen to a cassette tape of a speech given by a former commanding general of the Army's 101st Airborne Division. Here is one small excerpt from his speech:

"You cannot expect a soldier to be a proud soldier if you humiliate him. You cannot expect him to be brave if you abuse and cower him. You cannot expect him to be strong if you break him. You cannot ask for respect and obedience and willingness to assault hot landing zones, hump back-breaking ridges, destroy dug-in emplacements, if your soldier has not been treated with respect and dignity which fosters unit esprit and personal pride.

'If there's one thing I've learned from years of studying organizations, it is this: Only people who feel strong and powerful are truly motivated to get things done. The effective manager does whatever is necessary to empower people, to make them feel stronger, not weaker, every day.'

"The line between firmness and harshness, between strong leadership and bullying, between discipline and chicken, is a fine line. It is difficult to define, but those of us who are professionals, who have also accepted a career as leaders of men, must find that line. It is because judgment and concern for people and human relations are involved in leadership that only men can lead--not computers. I enjoin you to be ever alert to the pitfalls of too much authority. Beware that you do not fall into the category of the little man with a little job and a big head. In essence, be considerate, treat your subordinates right, and they will literally die for you."

I think that just about says it all. ●

SIGNS 'O' THE TIMES

We all know people who seemed to have gotten more of a break than they deserved--and some for whom just the opposite is true. Of our media friends and acquaintances, some succeeded in reaching their dreams; some crashed and burned; others never got off the ground. It is both interesting and frustrating that urban programmers and air talents are never offered certain opportunities because someone feels they just don't measure up to the high standards of other formats. It's true in other businesses--even sports.

Doesn't it strike you as odd that in 1987, the National Football League still does not have a black head coach? Given the number of black players and stars, one would think the league would be embarrassed. Fifty-five percent of the players in the NFL today are black. Blacks scored 81 percent of the touchdowns in 1986. Of the year's 10 playoff teams, all 20 starting cornerbacks were black.

There are black assistant coaches--34, in fact, which works out to about one per 10-man staff, a perfect tokenism. But the Atlanta Falcon's recent quest to find a replacement for the fired Dan Henning indicates there are still those who feel they're "not ready" to move up to the top job. For six weeks, the team offered the head coaching position to virtually any current or former head coach from any league who had even the remotest chance of settling in Suwanee, Georgia. Ignored were the qualifications of black candidates like Dallas's Al Lavan, Pittsburgh's Tony Dungy, San Francisco's Dennis Green and the Raiders' Willie Brown, to cite a few. Evidently blacks can pull the oars, but they can't crack the whip.

We don't mean to single out Atlanta--history indicates no other team would have acted differently. In fact, the NFL's one and only black head coach was Fritz Pollard, who led the Hammond (Indiana) Pros from 1923 to 1925, while also serving as the team's star back.

That brings up an interesting point. Maybe the way into the majors is through a player-coach situation. A radio station that wants to attract a star black performer could offer the PD job, along with some strong assistance until that person is ready to fly solo. But it does seem a shame that, with all the new hybrid formats that include black and crossover music, there would be more stations in the Top 40, A/C, Album or even Country formats that would say, "There's a guy who's done an outstanding job of guiding his team. We could use his skills in our camp."

Yes, there have been some blacks who are directing the plays in other formats. Sunny Joe White has been pulling huge numbers for Pyramid's WXKS in Boston. Lee Michaels recently made the move to Century's KMEL in San Francisco. Bill Bailey and Bill Garcia were early black pioneers who programmed Top 40 and A/C stations. That's a start, but not nearly enough.

It's often been said in NFL front offices that the first black head coach will have to be better than anybody else just to bear up under the pressure and scrutiny. The implication is that management is "protecting" aspiring black coaches from unknown terrors by refusing to hire them. Black program and music directors often encounter the same response when they attempt to cross into different formats: "Don't you think you'd feel more comfortable over at the black station? After all, you're more familiar with the music and the community." Given that attitude, who wouldn't feel more comfortable elsewhere! But that is not the point. The point is that qualified broadcasters, regardless of color, should have the same opportunities to move to other formats, just as there should be no barriers to the head coach's job in the NFL.

SUB-URBANIZING

Many agencies and advertisers are equally ignorant of the potential in today's black and urban radio. One extremely significant fact they often overlook is that black consumers exhibit "middle class" buying patterns far more often than income statistics would indicate. Advertisers need to be more concerned with actual marketplace behavior, not figures that indicate what that behavior might possibly be.

Another recent development has been the subtle but steady migration of our target audience to the suburbs. For the first time in many decades, the black and minority population is growing more rapidly outside the center cities than inside. Between 1970 and 1980, the proportion of blacks and other minorities in the central cities declined from 58.2 percent to 55.7 percent. That drop, coupled with an enormous rise in black and minority college enrollment, may eventually lead to a splintering of the black consumer market, with a definitive upscale audience becoming an entity unto itself.

'Black consumers exhibit "middle class" buying patterns far more often than income statistics would indicate.'

Today, the nation's 26.5 million black consumers represent over $160 billion in buying power, making them the ninth largest market in the Western world. No wonder new radio station owners looking at format changes have made urban one of the top choices. Hopefully, the result will be more jobs for minorities in programming, sales and management, both within and outside urban-formatted stations. Opportunity lies between tomorrow's dream and yesterday's regret. But it also has an uncanny habit of favoring those who have paid--and in some cases, re-paid--their dues with years of preparation. And who really cares if the future is in the suburbs? Why, in a few years, we may even change the title of this column! ●

RECOMMENDED NEW RELEASES

LP CUTS

PHYLLIS HYMAN - Ain't You Had Enough Love (P.I.B./Manhattan)

From the first sizzle in the intro to the last, this record lets you know it's hot. A classy, sophisticated style for Phyllis, this one even has a great sax break for the jazz lover in you.

WHISPERS - Rock Steady (Solar) Impressive release - one of the best we've heard this week. On the ratings meter, it's the caliber of "And The Beat Goes On," with the potential to do even better.

SOUL CLUB - I Want Your Guy (MCA) Is it "Somebody Else's Guy" she wants or does it just sound like it? The lady singing lead vocals can hit those notes as well as the great ones on the charts today. This is an amazingly strong first outing for this "Club." JM, JM, BH

PRINCE - Adore/Housequake/Strange Relationships/Slow Love
If I Was Your Girlfriend (Paisley Park/Warner Bros.)
LILLO THOMAS - I'm In Love (Capitol)
SYSTEM - Heartbeat Of The City (Atlantic)
STARPOINT - Prove It Tonight (Elektra)
MILLIE SCOTT - Let's Talk It Over/Automatic (4th & Broadway)
SHEILA E - Koo Koo (Paisley Park/Warner Bros.)
CHERYL LYNN - If You Were Mine (Manhattan)
MASON - Pour It On (Elektra)
JOHNNIE TAYLOR - Don't Make Me Late (Malaco)
ATLANTIC STARR - All In The Name Of Love/Don't Take Me For Granted (W.B.)
BABY FACE - If We Try (Solar)
LUTHER VANDROSS - Because It's Really Love/So Amazing (Epic)
GREGORY ABBOTT - You're My Angel (Columbia)
MARVIN SEASE - You're Number One (PolyGram)

URBAN CONTEMPORARY SUMMARY

Another great week for ATLANTIC STARR on the request lines. It looks like it will be the next number one, but has to wait a week or two because SYSTEM beats it out in points, airplay and Hit Factor. SYSTEM comes in with a 97% Hit Factor and ATLANTIC STARR is close behind with a 94%. From time to time, I'm asked to explain the way Hit Factor works, so here goes: The computer takes the total number of stations reporting a record and divides that number by the total stations that have the record in heavy or medium rotation. SYSTEM got a 97% Hit Factor because 97% of all its reporting stations have it in their heavy or medium rotation. It's a very good gauge for any record you might be questioning. Looking down the "Total Reports" column you can see airplay immediately on a record. But in the later weeks (i.e. week four or week five in the history of a record), when you might begin to question the longevity of the hit, the best indicator is usually Hit Factor. We list even the marginal chart-numbered records in Hit Factor so you can make that distinction. Good news coming in the future Gavin Report. In probably our first issue in May, we're going to expand Hit Factor to 30 records, as is done in other formats now. We'll be making a few subtle changes throughout the chart pages intended to enhance our Gavin Report each week. Pop Crossover choice this week goes to HERB ALPERT's "Diamonds." It's already getting requests for Dave Allen, K94-Norfolk, Tony Scott, WJTT-Chatanooga, and Kelly Karson, WTLC-Indianapolis, who told me that his demos are "everybody" for this cut. New releases causing some reaction on the phone systems across the nation are MONET - who has that sound that appeals to the 18-34 make-up of the audience at Duff Lindsay's HOT105-Miami and Dave Allen's K94-Norfolk - picks up 11 adds this past week, debuting it in Up & Coming with 14 reports. The AL GREEN is getting calls at stations around the country and Daryl Moore, KXZZ-Lake Charles, reports heavy requests at the clubs in his area. Looks good for the chart in the coming week. WHISPERS have a new release that's already getting calls, reports Dee Perry, WEKS-Atlanta. Ray

Boyd, WVEE-Atlanta, says his most requested are WHISPERS, NORWOOD and 5 STAR. We've also had reports of calls for it at KJLH-Los Angeles, according to Licia Torres. AMORETTO is still getting great phones in Miami for both HOT105 and POWER 96, as are HAZEL DEAN and WILL TO POWER. Duff Lindsay at HOT105 says lots of calls for HAZEL form a broad spectrum of listeners and WILL TO POWER gets enormous hispanic response from the 18-34 callers. LP cuts worth noting are PRINCE's "Housequake." (You might want to edit this for daytime play, unless you're Pete Rhodes at CBLS-Minneapolis, who reports heavy requests for the hometown dude.) CLUB NOUVEAU's "Why You Treat Me So Bad" is already getting calls for Stan Tompkins, WTOY -Roanoke, Daryl Moore, KXZZ-Lake Charles and Tim Greene, WZFX -Fayetteville. ISAAC HAYES' cut, "Flashback," is "smokin' the phones," according to Pete Rhodes at CBLS. Next week. Betty

Personal Picks — SINGLES

GENESIS - In Too Deep (Atlantic) It's been such a long run that it's hard to imagine what Top 40 and A/C charts would look like without a Genesis record. Well, that's not about to happen in the near future, because here comes the perfect replacement for "Tonight, Tonight, Tonight." Has many of the same qualities as "One More Night," and most likely will have a similar track record.

TOM PETTY & THE HEARTBREAKERS - Jammin' Me (MCA) Petty's at his best when he's rockin'. What joy to hear him return to the style that first brought him stardom with songs like "Refugee," "Breakdown" and "I Need To Know." Toss in a bit of Stones raunchiness and a hip phrase like "Jammin' Me," and T.P. is back hotter than ever.

PARTLAND BROTHERS - Soul City (Manhattan) Canada's been responsible for sending us some terrific product these last few years, and this release marks a pleasing addition to the list. The Brothers' combined writing and vocal skills gives the music a quality all its own. A stunning debut.

DAN HILL - Can't We Try (Duet with Yonda Sheppard) (Columbia) Dan's best known for his number one 1978 hit "Sometimes When We Touch." This new effort utilizes the same dramatic production technique and it works beautifully in the setting of a duet. Fills a void these days for most Top 40 playlists. A love song for contemporary adults.

RON FELL'S

Personal Picks — ALBUMS

THE CULT - "Electric" (Sire/W.B.) Normally, I'd jaywalk across Times Square at rush hour to avoid heavy metal. It's usually a mindless heap of noise designed to attract fanatics with single-digit IQs whose idea of a good time is a hot woman, a cold beer and a two-color tattoo. But...I can almost warm up to this album. The Cult has become one of the genre's prime purveyors, catering to the prurient interests of its camp/Cult followers. And before I dismiss their robust efforts to the litter bag of white trash 'n' thrash, I must say these guys provide more than sonic graffiti. Frontman Ian Astbury writes in a verbal shorthand of dangling sentences and sings with macho bravado, while axeman Billy Duffy plays a tough guitar.
