Hit Factor is a percentage of stations playing a record which also have it Top 20.
ie: 100 stations playing the record -- 60 stations have it in their Top 20 -- Hit Factor = 60%.

SINCE 1958

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

There we all were during the closing radio/record hot box session at last weekend's Bobby Poe convention. In attendance, a who's who of Top 40 programmers and promotions execs. No other session stirred as much interest and controversy. Joel Denver echoed the frustration of all of us at the trades when he reintroduced a subject that was briefly touched upon earlier in the meeting--accurate reporting of playlists. In addition of the recurring problem of paper adds, the policy of playing (testing) records and not reporting them is equally as baffling.

Nearly thirty years ago Bill Gavin innocently initiated the idea of a handful of stations sharing music information with each other..honest, truthful information. In this way, they could help one another discover what was--and was not--proving successful. Those were, of course, Top 40 radio's formative years and it would be an understatement to say the competitive nature of the marketplace has changed. Nevertheless the premise of honest reporting is the foundation of the charts in this publication. It's a sad commentary when we as an industry have to devote this much time and energy to get some (and I believe a minority) of programmers to accurately report what they're playing. Testing and not wanting to commit to a record for several weeks is one thing, but at some point a lengthy commitment to airplay signifies a record's success, at least in a specific market. Only you know if you are or aren't giving an accurate reflection of what records you're playing and how well they're doing. When you give any less, you shortchange yourself and your industry. Based on last weekend's heated discussion, there is plenty of room for dialog on the subject, and I welcome your feedback.

1987's been quite a year so far for new artists who connect on their first time up to bat..RICHARD MARX is the latest to join that group of heavy hitters. Bob Weil debuts it #20 at WSPK

Poughkeepsie. Huge gains noted by WKQB 29-20, WHDQ 30-20, WROQ 25-15, WNKS 24-15, WKDD 30-16, KKEZ 22-12, K-STAR 27-18, KRRG 22-16, KUBE 31-24, etc.

Though there is still significant programmer resistance to GEORGE MICHAEL, HIT FACTOR growth of 50% to 73% shows how well it's doing for those playing it. A number of stations are airing their own edits, some eliminating "that word" that seems to bother some listeners. Top Ten at Z95 Chicago 19-10, KHTZ Reno where Dave Roble takes it 3-1!, KUBE Seattle 23-9, KIIS Los Angeles 13-6, B97 New Orleans debut #18, B104 Baltimore 20-13, WTIC Hartford 13-6, WMJQ Buffalo 15-9, Z95.5 Detroit 32-11, POWER 96 Miami 10-6 with crosstown HOT105 6-3, WPHR Cleveland 14-9, KRQ Tucson 21-13 etc. Seems like those who love it far outweigh those who are offended by its lyrical content.

Took awhile but May 15th's RECORD TO WATCH is rollin' now, as DEBBIE GIBSON makes a strong entry onto the Top 40. Added by Carey Edwards KFIV, Bruce Gilbert and Don Rivers KBIU/FM, Stef Rybak KC101, Jim Richards and Lori Campbell B94, Cindy Wright G105, Steve Wall 99KG, Dave Weissman KZLS, Jim Nelly III KXGO, Jeff Ripley and Steve Cruz KZZK, etc. Moves 27-19 at KDWB, 15-8 KS103, 19-10 KMEL, 24-15 FM 96 etc.

17 more believers take OUTFIELD to over 200 total mentions. HIT FACTOR looking good in the early stages at 13% with Top 30 debuts at WWFX Bangor, WPXR Rock Island, KNVR Chico, KDUX Aberdeen, etc. New on 94Q, WRCK, Z94, Q104, KIXY, KWXX, KKBG, KITI, KRNQ, WWKZ, Z95, etc.

Looking forward to seeing La Bamba again at this year's Upper Midwest Conclave. LOS LOBOS' revival of the the Ritchie Valens classic is off and running without the help of the movie at this point. John Raymond at KIXY San Angelo jumps it 22-12, with fellow Southwestener Gordon E. Matlock at KKZO Clovis taking it up 29-19. Other strong moves include KZZU 25-19, KATD 18-10, WBIZ 34-26, KVRP 25-18, etc.

Excellent showing for ABC with comments for PD's and MD's ranging from "I love it", "Sounds great on the air," to "one of the best out there right now." Impressive list of call letters on the add column, including Z93 and PWR 99.7 Atlanta, WFBG Altoona, POWER 92 and I94 Honolulu, KMEL San Francisco, K104 Erie, CKOC Hamilton, etc.

It was also a good second week for LAURA BRANIGAN, who more than doubles her airplay stats. 41 more station's jump aboard, including 106X, Q99, WXXQ, KKEZ, KZFN, 93Q, WQLK, WAIL, WNYZ, KTAG, KLAZ, KKOS, KHSN, etc.

Heaviest airplay on WILL TO POWER at this stage is on the West Coast with Jeff Wyatt at POWER 106 taking it Top Five with an 8-4 move. Debuts in the Top Thirty in New York at HOT 103 (#29) and Z100 (#26). New on WIQQ, KAKS, WMJQ, WOAY, WKZQ, KSND, KYNO, KATD, KCPX, Y95, etc.

Mentioned THE FAT BOYS "Wipe Out" in the column several weeks ago, and it's proving to be a winner for early believers like Paul Christy at POWER 104 who charts it at #8, Mark McKay and Michael Hayes at Y106 20-13, Guy Zapoleon KZZP 15-12, and Chris Collins FM102 debut #23. Adds include Y95 Dallas, WKXX Birmingham, Q105 Tampa, KITY San Antonio, WABB Mobile, B97 New Orleans, K106 Beaumont, etc.

30 ROCKED

It's been a big week at New York's Rockefeller Center. With one out of three NBC workers on the picket line, the network confirmed plans to sell some of its radio properties and explore a "strategic alliance" with another network. In the middle of all that, NBC O&O WYNY changed formats from A/C to Country.

"Reconfiguring the portfolio" is how Radio President Randy Bongarten described the decision to sell KNBR-San Francisco, WMAQ-Chicago and WKYS-Washington. In an internal staff memo, he promised to pursue future acquisitions and operate "as competitively as possible." Urban powerhouse WKYS could bring in $60 million -- four times as much as AM stand-alones WMAQ and KNBR combined. No word on where NBC could be shopping. The net O&O roster is currently WNBC/AM & WYNY/FM in New York; WMAQ/AM & WKQX/FM in Chicago; KNBR/AM & KYUU/FM in San Francisco and WJIB/FM-Boston.

On the network front, General Electric, which bought NBC a year ago, has apparently retreated from the options of folding or selling it off entirely. What remains a mystery is the exact nature of the "alliance" cited by Bongarten as a strategic necessity for survival. When asked whether Westwood One head Norm Pattiz was a possible suitor, an NBC exec said, "I haven't seen him in the corridors, but his name is mentioned in the hallways often."

WYNY signed on July 1st as "Country 97FM," with no immediate change in call letters or on-air personnel. "We're going to be very music-intensive, playing the super hits and currents," says NBC's Cathy Lehrfeld. Taking over as PD is Michael O'Malley, former National Research Director for Metroplex and PD at WTKS AM/FM-Washington, DC (now WCPT/WCXR).

As for the strike, the 2,800 NABET workers on the bricks can expect to stay there for a while. Each day of the strike saves NBC $300,000 in payroll, while costing only $100,000 in strike compensation.

IN MEMORIAM: JOE LORIS

Joseph Loris, founder, President and Publisher of Impact Magazine, has died of a heart attack at age 44. Loris founded the weekly publication in 1977 with the motto "The USA's Leading Black/Urban Music Report."

Impact's Sylvia Davis says the publication will continue, in accordance with the wishes of Loris' family. Of Loris himself, she says, "He was a rare, warm, kind, loving person who cared about others."

G-G-G-GOD BLESS AMERICA

A 14-hour radiothon by Album rocker KSJO-San Jose June 25 raised over $25,000 for AIDS victims and their families. Listeners requested songs by making donations. GM Phil Norton paid $200 to hear Kate Smith sing "God Bless America" segueing into The Who's "My Generation." Ronnie Montrose and Neil Young were in the studio playing and taking requests. Also several AIDS experts were on hand to answer questions. "We simply wanted to provide good, factual information that people of all lifestyles can use," says PD Ken Anthony.

Across the country, Kate Smith, John Philip Sousa and other patriotic airs are slated for heavy rotation at 198-Willimantic, CT, July Fourth, as the station geared up for its annual Boom Box Parade. For the second year in a row, the station planned to sponsor floats, marchers ... but no band. WILI's Wayne Norman says all music will be provided by the station through boomboxes carried by marchers and bystanders.

BEANTOWN 'RUMBLE'

WBCN's Ninth Annual Rock N Roll Rumble has named Childhood as Boston's best new band, beating out more than twenty other groups. "They're a straight-ahead pop group from Framingham," says BCN's Steve Strick. "Not many people had heard of them before." Past Rumble victors include 'Til Tuesday (the Del Fuegos entered, but didn't win). Childhood will get a boost to stardom in the form of free studio and master time, $3,000 cash, underwriting for a music video and a chance on MTV.

POE CONVENTION REPORT

Tyson's Corner, Virginia, site of this year's Bobby Poe Convention, is a $15 cab ride from Dulles Airport and a long way from the front gates of the White House. Nevertheless, it was a festive couple of days, and the hotel bar was filled with a happy cast of characters. The highlights, as recorded by Keith Zimmerman:

Keynote speaker was CBS Records President Al Teller, who entered the music biz after studying mathematics at Columbia University and obtaining an MBA at Harvard. Always respectful of the music -- even in today's bottom line, belt-tightening times -- Teller warned that programmers who don't share his love for music will be doomed to be imitators instead of innovators. Noting that hit radio stations now have a wider musical mainstream to draw from, he

MAKING WAVES

In a dream marriage of call letters and format, Washington's WBMW is going New Age. EOR guru John Sebastian, who takes over as PD July 7th, is exultant: "It's going to be my format, in its purest, most wonderful form -- and with the perfect call letters -- 'The Holy Beemer from Washington, DC!' The two most important things are that it's going to be wonderful, ethereal, atmospheric -- and it's going to be unique -- music you can't hear elsewhere on the dial." Sebastian admits the station will sound a lot like LA's KTWV, but adds, "'The Wave' is my format -- I originated the concept in late 1982. They ripped me off." Unlike its West Coast counterpart, WBMW will have live announcers and "very, very credible" news staff, says Sebastian. "You need a warm, real person telling you what day it is. 'The Wave' sounds automated."

Claiming that KTWV's impressive early numbers demonstrate that his programming concept "is so strong that you don't even have to do it right to succeed," Sebastian predicts New Age soon will be the number-one format for adults 25-54 in every market. As for Washington, Sebastian says the market is "made to order for this concept. It has the most yuppified audience in America -- five times the national average for upscale, white-collar workers." He's not worried that a Democratic victory in '88 will change all that. "This format crosses all political boundaries. Blacks like it.

People with lower socio-economic backgrounds like it. This format is going to uplift people and make them feel good about themselves."

ROTATIONS

Charlie Prevost has resigned as VP/Marketing & Creative Services at Chrysalis Records ... PolyGram Records announces the appointment of Patricia Droisins as Senior Director/Advertising and Creative Services and Michael Bays as Director/Creative Services ... Hilare takes over as National College Radio Promotion Director at Big Time Records, replacing Nancy McCoy.

said it's imperative for PDs to hit the streets, clubs and stores.

A major-market PD panel discussed the void in new air talent. KIIS-LA's Steve Rivers lamented the lack of quality tapes or reliable farm system. Charlie Quinn of WEGX-Philadelphia put the blame on too many binding contracts and said he nearly resorted to a headhunter to find his morning team.

Mark Driscoll of Y95-Dallas predicted that tomorrow's production room will look more like a recording studio. The razor blade and two-track tape recorder will give way to a digital console complete with sampling capabilities. But Bob Case of Z93-Atlanta interjected that, without well-written copy, quality production will be out of reach.

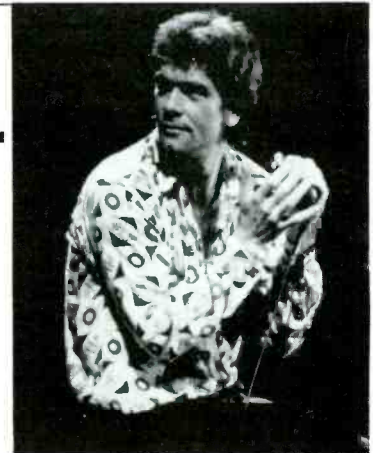

The PD's role during a station sale was a hot topic. Dave Anthony of KDWB-Minneapolis reflected that sometimes it can take a full

READY WHEN YOU ARE, C.D.

Clive Davis is going Hollywood. The Arista Records chief has signed a movie development contract with Tri-Star Pictures. Initially, he will concentrate on music-oriented projects, but Triad Artists, which put together the deal, says, "Anything that strikes a chord to Clive's tastes, from dramatic to comedic, will be considered."

HUEY DE MILLE

Look for an epic video to accompany the new Huey Lewis single, "Doing It All For My Baby." Produced by Jeff Stein, there were on-the-set visits by Bruce Hornsby, Kenny Loggins, and the Breakfast Club and actress Demy Moore. Plot of the mini-epic is based on "The Bride of Frankenstein." The monstrous production cost a reported 300 grand.

year of rumors and transitions before the other shoe drops. Yet a PD must serve as a cool, levelheaded example to his staff and even the competition. Finally, if you can weather the new regime, a new point of view and fresh resources can supply a happy ending.

WBCY-Charlotte's Jack Daniels told the medium-market PD panel how Country Radio can be a formidable foe in blue-collar markets where young adults can become bored with Top 40. Hitman McKay of 100KHI-Ocean City, MD, reported one of his biggest frustrations is dealing with losing great air talents to bigger markets. Tom Taylor of WPST-Trenton observed philosophically that you have to be ready to lose good staff members, even to the point of helping talented jocks move on for the sake of believing in their own potential.

stage right, while frustrations volleyed back and forth. KBEQ-Kansas City's Steve Perun and FM102-Sacramento's Chris Collins raised a major pet peeve for many busy PDs -- being carelessly promoted on records that are obviously not part of their station's sound. On the other side, the national promotion staffers questioned radio's hesitation to accept top-selling new artists like LL Cool J or Whitesnake.

As the discussion neared its climax, members of the audience (included representatives of trade publications) castigated the record industry for not reacting loudly to the practice of paper adds. Conversely, radio was singled out for a tendency to "test" records for weeks on end without reporting them as adds. The debate raged right up until the awards banquet. It was a lively Poe Convention -- we'll see you all next year.

SOUND OF LOS ANGELES RECORDS

SLAMS and DUNKS

This column may not seem to be concerned with our assigned subjects--records and radio--unless you immediately skip to items #7 and #8, but it is a story about one annually frustrated record guy.

We're writing this on Sunday, June 21st (Father's Day), the first Sunday in some eight months on which there's been no televised basketball, college or pro. This presents a severe culture shock and withdrawal problem--not to our bride, who now has the availability of yours truly for various and sundry family errands, dog-walking, window-washing and in-law visits--but to us, as televised roundball is our only couch-potato hobby.

Hoop season goes on forever. Just as the highly-paid "student-athletes" wind down, the highly-paid pros begin gearing up for their two-month playoffs. We gain astonishing amounts of body fat, as all weekend exercise is eliminated. We've been known to watch as many as 20 or 30 local, network and cable games on a weekend. We're not sure why, but we're hooked.

At any rate, today, Father's Day, is the first Sunday of no hoops, and our daughters arrived with 50 or 60 tapes of games for us to re-watch in the off-season. We courageously filed these great gifts, swearing to spend a Sunday getting in some jogging and helping around the house. We figured we owed that to our health our wife, and our un-walked dogs. We did all of the above in about an hour and then addressed the question of just what we do in our spare Sunday time now that Magic, Bird, Akeem and the rest are gone for a while. We stared at the wall, pulled ourself together and drew up a list of alternative activities, into which we immediately plunged. If there's anyone out there like us, you might want to note what to do on Father's Day afternoon:

1. We watched "Andy Hardy Meets A Debutante" on local TV. It featured Mickey Rooney and Liza Minelli's mom. It was a nice un-colored distraction, and during its 90 minutes we never once thought about give-and-go's, picks-and-rolls or baseline jumpers. In this classic film, Andy, played by Mickey, THINKS he's in love with Daphne Fowler, a snooty student who's supposed to be 17 but looks 40. He can't get next to her and enlists the aid of Betsy Booth, played by Judy. Mickey, you see, treats Judy like a buddy, not realizing that it's HER he's really got the crush on. But when Miss Garland gets up to sing at the debutante ball, he comes to his senses, and Mickey and Judy end up together, hopefully practicing safe sex, in this 1940 masterpiece.

2. We opened a slew of Father's Day gifts from our progeny (after the progeny left, our kids came over with their gifts) and we dutifully oohed and ahhed at ties with pictures of trouts, middle-aged levis with 44 waists and just a scoche more room than David Bowie's jeans. Our daughters roared when we referred to the 50's as "dungarees." Because no playoff game was being interrupted we were able to spend plenty of time fussing about the authentic Martina Navratilova tennis shoes which they also presented us with.

3. We rented a tape of the highly touted "PeeWee's Big Adventure" down at Safeway and, with the aid of a professional technician and our wife, inserted it in our rarely used VCR. We lasted 12 minutes and decided that, when it comes to humor, PeeWee is no Charlie Chaplin --nor Charlie Minor, for that matter. Maybe we're weird, but when it comes to humor, we're real partial to Reverend Ike, Jane Pauley and William F. Buckley.

4. Late in the day, and out of sheer desperation, we tried an Angels/Yankee game. Problem is, the sight of all those fat grown men spitting tobacco juice on nicely manicured grass ruined our appetite, so that we were unable to eat any of the California-style BBQ our wife had prepared. If any of you would be interested in some unused BBQ'd quiche-burgers and sushi-stuffed weiners, contact us at Gavin.

5. We gathered up four years of Ron Fell album reviews and had several UCLA English students come over to translate them into language which Pat McCoy, Billy Brill, Brian Lee and other American-speaking types would understand. One of the students, a Rhodes scholar, had difficulty with Ron's John Hiatt review of several weeks ago. In that piece, our esteemed publisher referred to "a picnic feast of ribs," "peppered chili," and "slices of Ry Cooder." He also mentioned a (hopefully symbolic) "tossed salad" and "corn on the cob." We're working on RF to institute a Gavin restaurant review section. This will work everywhere but Yankton, where the finest French cafe in town has an outdoor sign reading, "Over Eight Served"

6. A number of our associates have answering machines with unlimited message time. You know the sort that say, "You'll have as long as you want to leave your comments." We had fun with a few of these this Father's Day, calling some of our friends and playing Brahms' Fourth Symphony into the phone, so that when the poor guy got home, he had to listen to 45 minutes of the N.Y. Philharmonic before getting the rest of his calls. We love this prank as it gives us just one more thing to do before we get to see Kareem strolling up the court and not going for rebounds in his 19th season.

7. We listened to all our Gary Lewis and The Playboys records and were astonished at how hook-filled they all are. Leon "Later To Be Hip" Russell was the arranger on these little gems, and Snuff Garrett produced. "This Diamond Ring" and "Count on Me" are right up there with anything Goldsboro or Vee ever did, and Gary wasn't just trading on his dad's notoriety. Martin and Lewis notwithstanding, Gary was the star in THAT family. Drag 'em out and see.

8. We listened to a lot of L.A. radio today, and a lot of it is real good, we think. We heard KISS-FM, POWER 106, KOST, and even THE WAVE, among others, and there's only one thing that continues to burn us...NOT ENOUGH BACK-ANNOUNCING GUYS! And when we called the station on a Father's Day trying to find out whether we just heard the new Klymaxx or an old Dickey Doo and the Don'ts, we got recordings giving us numbers for news scoops. Come on, fellas, we can't buy 'em if we don't know what they are...oops, wait a minute, you're in the radio business and NOT in the business of selling records. We almost forgot.

Hope we've been of service, and if there's anyone we haven't offended, give a shout and we'll work you in. Gotta go...there's a four-hour NBA Draft panel discussion commencing on ESPN. ●

INSIDE A/C

Al Jarreau makes a strong move on the existing top trio of the chart. He's already the most mentioned artist with 213 reports and just needs to convert about 60% of his remaining non-HEAVIES to cop the top slot.

Danny Wilson, now HIT FACTORED at 81% of its 151 stations, has shown 27 to 20 to 15 ranking move the past two weeks. Similarly, Fleetwood Mac closes in on 80% in HIT FACTOR, doing so in just five weeks!! And Suzanne Vega has moved 12 ranking points during the past two issues, while moving 40% to 56% to 74% in HIT FACTOR and picking up 83 adds in that time.

With 132 stations, Jonathan Butler is now getting airplay from a little over half our A/C stations, including KKO, WMYX, KSTP, WEZC, KEZR, B100, WHTX, WMT/FM and WSNI.

Not much hesitation from A/C's on the new Chris DeBurgh, Fatal Hesitation. It has been among the top five MOST ADDED each week since release and already has a 56% HIT FACTOR.

Jennifer Rush & Elton John's duet, Flames Of Paradise, picks up a consistent ten or more adds each week. This week's new torch carriers are KBOI, WZNY, WRMF, WGOL, KMQ, U102, WLGN, KLZS, WSTU, KMCQ and WCZX.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Don't Disturb This Groove by The System, only shows 37 stations, but its HIT FACTOR of 54% proves a bigger point to those playing it. Calls include KWAV, WSNI, KDES, WMYX, B100 and KEZR.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, Rosanne Cash's The Way We Make A Broken Heart, has 47 stations in its first two weeks, but once she overcomes the unjustifiable prejudice of being "too Country for Pop," the record will happen for us. Key calls already include KGLO, WIBA, WMT AM&FM, KFOR, KGY, KIT, WTRX, WMON, KNOX, KCRG, WALG and KLOV.

Rockers REO Speedwagon have given us a good ballad, and we've given them 27 ADDS out of the box including KKL, WQHQ, KATW, KYJC, WGSV, WDND, and KBRC.

Ron & Diane look forward to meeting many of our A/C reporters at next week's Conclave in Minneapolis. See ya there.

REVIEWS

by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

SMOKEY ROBINSON

One Heartbeat (Motown)

His timeless phrasing of a graceful love song is enchanted by the sweet sax of Kenny G. This is a multi-format winner.

PAUL SIMON

Diamonds On The Soles Of Her Shoes (Warner Bros.)

If you've seen his Graceland tour, you'll remember this song. The interplay between the horn section, Ladysmith Black Mambazo and Paul Simon is a visual treat. Lyrically, Paul is one step beyond us as he paints a big picture with a small brush.

BOY GEORGE

Everything I Own (Virgin)

This David Gates hit in '72 for Bread gets a plucky reggae arrangement and a singular vocal treatment from a boy who's been everywhere except the radio since his last hit. Welcome back, BG....

HERB ALPERT

Making Love In The Rain (A&M)

Lisa Keith takes the lead vocal as she sings to Herb's muted trumpet and a Jam/Lewis arrangement reminiscent of their recent work with Human League.

DAN FOGELBERG

Lonely In Love (Epic/Full Moon)

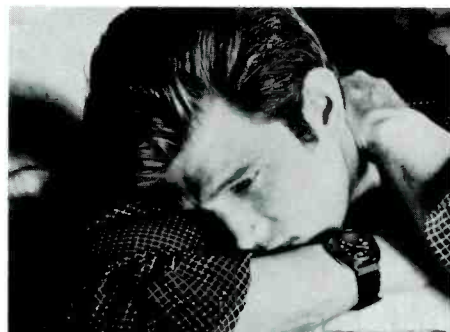

After recent flirtations with Country and Rock 'n' Roll, Dan's back making pop records with delightful a melody line and thoughtful words.

BRUCE COCKBURN

Waiting For A Miracle (Gold Castle)

Bruce writes of hopes to be dashed for those with lives in the balance.

Not for stations that describe themselves at Musak-intensive.

CHRIS ISAAK

Blue Hotel (Warner Bros.)

Chris is probably the hottest ticket in San Francisco's club scene. He's a unique and charismatic performer, bound to become a national favorite in time. Blue Hotel, without reservation, is one to check out.

PROMOTIONS

SPOTLIGHT PROMOTION OF THE WEEK

◀ MAKING A PESTO HIMSELF

What wine goes best with pasta? KOIL-Omaha's "Real Don" Glaze had plenty of time to ponder that question. He spent 30 hours sitting in a tub of spaghetti placed in the back of a pickup and lifted by a crane 30 feet above the ground. The "Pasta Pickup Plunge" was Don's annual stunt to raise money for the Easter Seals Association, and pledges topped $6,500.

included Golden Girl Betty White, Tom Poston of The Newhart Show and Dynasty's Emma Samms, as well as Bob Barker and Richard Simmons. Cost of getting the programming back home: $50 a day. "We produced everything on reel-to-reel and air-expressed it back for broadcast 24 hours later," Wilson says. "If we'd used a satellite, the cost would have been prohibitive."

THREE-RING CEREMONY

In a promotion that would make P.T. Barnum proud, Power 99FM-Philadelphia hosted a "Blind Date Circus Night." When the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus came to town, the station bought tickets to an entire section of first-level seats and gave them away on the air. Male contest winners were told to bring a male friend, and female contest winners were instructed to bring a female friend. The guys received even-numbered seat tickets, and women received odd-numbered tickets. So what happened if you were seated next to a clown? "Change seats," said Power 99FM morning man Dick Edwards, who served as celebrity ringmaster.

I WANT MY KSND!

Top 40 KSND-Eugene, OR, now has its own Saturday night television show on KLSR "Laser 25." The two-and-a-half hour countdown program features KSND's Top 25 videos of the week. VJs include KSND's Bwana Johnny, Joan Murray, Dan Michaels, Jonni Erickson and PD Dave Shakes, with a different host every week.

(ALMOST) LIVE FROM L.A.

Using a little sleight-of-ear, Top 40 KJQ-Ogden gave Utah listeners a week of nearly-live round-the-clock remotes from Los Angeles. "We sent our entire air staff," says PD Paul Wilson. "They were all over--Venice Beach, Disneyland, Hollywood, the Hard Rock Cafe--even late-night window shopping on Rodeo Drive." Guests

TIGER GIVES TRUCKS ▶

KTGR-Columbia, MO, PD Tom Bradley congratulates the winner of an $8,000 Nissan Sport Truck given away by the station June 6. Contestants registered at participating sponsors, and then had one minute and 58 seconds to call the station when they heard their names on the air. More than 50 finalists gathered for the final lucky key drawing. Contestant number 17 turned her back to the fishbowl, picked one, started the truck and drove it away.

MÖTLEY CRUE

The "Villains"

By Keith Zimmerman Editorial Assistance By Sheila Renee

I think that we have a good enough relationship through the music that kids are going to say, 'This guy's been on the streets half his life and he's telling us not to do drugs. Maybe we should listen.'

KEITH ZIMMERMAN: On the latest album, it seems like Motley Crue is levitating more on a musical level.

NIKKI SIXX: I thought we were on Theatre Of Pain and Shout At The Devil as well. I think what you're saying is what I've gotten from other people. We're levitating towards that plateau where Zeppelin and Aerosmith have been resting. We've seasoned into a very professional rock n roll band.

KZ: You guys are playing a little more in synch as a band.

NS: First of all, we were on tour for five years. You could hear the band growing. But when we took a year and a half off, it was just to create music. That's all there was to it. We weren't on the road. We weren't out to be outrageous. We weren't out to do interviews and photo sessions. It was: tour ends here, musicianship starts to improve. Everyone sat down and learned what we could learn about all of our instruments. We practiced and practiced. We rehearsed and everybody wrote together and individually. Our songwriting abilities were growing and the band really busted their butts. It was time to make a move forward.

KZ: As the principle songwriter, do you write a whole bunch of tunes?

NS: I write a song one of two ways. It could be a collaboration with the band. Tommy, Mick or myself will have a piece of music. Ninety percent of the time, it will come from piano. It will catch my ear. Then Mick will play with that. I'll add a piece that I have and Tommy will try another piece and that's how it will grow. Or I will bring in a song and say, "What do you guys think of this tune?" It will be finished musicaly. Then there's arrangement and timing that comes in after that. That has a lot to do with the feel of a song.

KZ: Do you then rehearse it real heavy before you go into the studio?

NS: We're pretty serious about our pre-production. We would rather go into the studio and lay the basic tracks down, and then get to work on sweetening the music. When we go into the

of Rock Are Back!

HARLEY DAVIDSON

A funny thing happened to Heavy Metal. A few years ago, bands like Van Halen, Twisted Sister, Ratt and Def Leppard made formidable impact on Top 40 airwaves, only to find themselves eclipsed by quality Urban crossover music which appealed to females, not just white male teens. Yet, as this year has proven, Metal can be resilient. Bon Jovi, sporting a somewhat softer image, roared into Top 40, followed by Poison, Whitesnake and most recently, Motley Crue, whose "Girls, Girls, Girls" is well on its way to double-platinum status.

As always, Motley Crue likes to think of themselves as rock's outlaws. The unavoidable targets of parent and religious groups, the Crue continue to titillate their listeners with tales of underage porn queens, strippers and leather boys and girls. Still, they're very devoted to--even a little protective of--the kids. They perform songs that warn fans against drug abuse and, since singer Vince Neil's tragic auto accident which killed one passenger, the band is publicly critical of drinking and driving under the influence.

All controversy aside, rock n roll is the Crue's biggest high. And strapping on their guitars and rocking out onstage is still the highest order of business, no matter how many millions of units they sell.

We spoke with bassist NIKKI SIXX and drummer TOMMY LEE in between rehearsals for their upcoming world tour. We started off by asking Nikki about some people's contention that Motley Crue, as a band, is sounding a little bit tighter these days.

studio, we have ten songs for a ten-song album. We've never had anything left over. As far as song context, we already know what the album is going to be like before we get in there.

KZ: Is Motley Crue gunning for musical respectability?

NS: don't know if we're gunning for anything, or asking anybody for a pat on the back musically. We're trying to satisfy ourselves. We don't give a fuck what anybody thinks about the band.

We do what WE want to do for the kids. We don't care about radio or record sales. All we care about is making the best possible Motley Crue album we can. That attitude gives us an honest approach. It's not like, "Shit, man, why don't we write a song like Van Halen on 5150? Then we'll be on radio." Why does Motley Crue want to be Van Halen? We could write a song like Eurythmics, but we've NEVER been that kind of band. That's prostitution, man. It sucks. KZ: But, listening to the latest album, you sound more rock n roll than Metal.

NS: It's really honest. We hit the nail on the head by mistake a lot. "Those chord changes won't work." Why not? Who wrote a book and said those chord changes won't work? We don't have any of those thoughts in our heads. We just go for it, and sometimes we come up with the neatest stuff by mistake. We live on feel. We get our pre-production down and go in and lay it down and get on with the show. Sometimes melody lines vary. Lyrics change a hundred percent of the time. Yet the song titles always stay. We run on instinct.

KZ: The song, "Dancing On Glass," is anti-drugs. Is it autobiographical?

NS: It was live or die. There's a lot of rock n roll junkies out there, because of the images of Keith Richards and how glamorous heroin, cocaine, crack and freebase look to the kids on the street. Johnny Thunders and The New York Dolls. The fucked-up rock star with the needle in his arm. I'm here to tell you, that ain't cool. I'm not a preacher but I don't want to be one of those

I don't know if we're asking for a pat on the back musically from anybody. We're trying to satisfy ourselves. We do what WE want to do for the kids.

SAYING 'I'M SORRY'

In my last column, I wrote about ways to turn customers into ex-customers. As an example, I used a major hotel where the poor reception at the front desk and tardy room service so lowered my opinion that I would have been prepared not to return or recommend it to other travelers. My point was that complex strategic planning efforts are often wasted when managers fail to attend to service and quality. A company's failure to perform on the so-called "little details"—like promptness and courtesy—means customers will not come back—and they'll tell others about their bad experiences. That translates into lost income, and our standard accounting practices cannot even surmise how many dollars we've lost because customers decide not to come back.

Believe it or not, there's a sequel to the story, and it's one which also has a lesson for all of us—on how NOT to deal with a dissatisfied customer.

Remember that I was in the hotel for two days, addressing a group of senior-level managers of a manufacturing company. I opened my remarks with the story of the poor service I had received at that very hotel to make the point that repeat business is often due to those little details that management often neglects in the planning process.

Late that afternoon, after the first day's session, I returned to my hotel room. On the desk was a letter from the sales director of the hotel:

Dear Mr. Harari:

The management and staff here at the (hotel name) are very pleased to have you as our guest this week. For your convenience, check-out time has been extended until 5:00 p.m. on your scheduled day of departure. I would also like to take this opportunity to extend a personal invitation for you to stay here as our guest the next time your travel plans bring you to (city).

Thank you for your patronage.

Do you know what my reaction was? I was pleased. And, even though it was not an apology for the poor service of the morning, I confess that damn little letter mollified me a bit. Totally irrational, right? But, as I pointed out in my last column, it's the little things—the lack of courtesy, speed, attention, caring, quality—that anger us. Likewise, even a little letter of courtesy can "irrationally" make us feel better.

Early the next morning, I read the letter to the managers as an example of how even dissatisfied customers can be appeased by a small gesture of courtesy and caring. I was quite surprised when one of the managers spoke up and said the letter was in response to the poor service, and that it was an apology. Apparently, after my remarks the previous day, this manager had gone to the hotel director and told her what I'd said.

I re-read the letter. I could see no sign of apology—or even acknowledgement—that I had received rude treatment from room service or the front desk. To make my surprise even greater, this same manager then went on to suggest that the invitation for me "to stay here as our guest the next time" meant that the hotel director felt so bad about my negative experience that she was inviting me to stay free of charge next time. I thought that was preposterous. I mean, when you see those ads from Disney World or Jamaica inviting you to "be our guest," do you assume they mean you can stay free of charge? The manager in my audience said he would check it out during the break, and he did.

Can you believe it? It really was an invitation to stay in the hotel for free the next time I was in town! And yet, after all this, I felt less positive about the hotel than when I first received the letter. Here's why:

If you or your company does something to upset a customer, then please do apologize. The research is clear: Your odds of maintaining that customer increase dramatically if you apologize sincerely and quickly. In fact, many customers become even more loyal after a sincere apology because they're so unaccustomed to receiving one. Yet most companies seem to prefer marshaling all their assets to prove it was the customer's fault that anything bad happened.

But for heaven's sake, if you're going to apologize, then let the customer know you're apologizing—and that you understand why the apology is necessary! This was certainly not done in the letter I received. Had the manager in my group not taken the initiative, I would never have known that the letter was an apology, and I certainly would never have considered that I was being offered free lodging in the future. While I had first thought the letter was a nice little courtesy, after learning it was supposed to be an apology, my reaction was that it was tacky and wishy-washy. Would it have been so difficult to be clear and up-front? That would have been really impressive and professional. Instead, I was left with a sour taste and a somewhat tarnished perception of the hotel.

In contrast, consider another story about a different hotel in a different city. Same scenario: I'm addressing a group of managers. During a break, one of them says to me, "You know, this place is supposed to be so terrific. Well, I'll never stay here again if I can help it. I checked in early this morning and there were no towels in the bathroom, so I couldn't take a shower. Room service promised they'd be right up, but they never showed up before I had to leave for this meeting. Boy, am I steamed—and I told the front desk exactly how I feel!"

That evening, the same manager came up to me with a dazed look in his eye. "You know," he said, "when I got back to my room this afternoon, there were towels in the bathroom. But there was also a handwritten note of apology about the towel problem...along with a big bouquet of flowers and a lovely bottle of wine!"

"How do you feel about the hotel now?" I asked.

He looked at me with an embarrassed grin. "I think it's great." ●

BY REQUEST

I've received a letter from a program director in the South saying, "You have been doing some very interesting columns lately, and we have found many of them helpful to us. You often request thoughts and ideas, so I have come up with several topics I would enjoy seeing you write on."

I thank him for the compliment, and this week I will begin tackling his suggested topics. I encourage you to jump in with your own comments on any of these, for a future column!

The first question he posed was, "How do syndicated programs help or hurt radio stations?"

My feeling is that they can help, if used strategically. AM stations have difficulty circulating audience from weekdays into weekends, when the lifestyle encourages more in-home listening to FM. So placing attractive and promotable "special" programming on the weekends--and promoting it well and consistently on Thursdays and Fridays--can bring up the weekend ratings, while giving the station an air of presenting interesting and special material on a regular basis. Since this programming is usually available on a barter basis, it can be obtained for no extra cost.

I think countdown shows can work better than "music specials," but I advocate both types. I do not recommend programming A/C countdowns, because A/C appeals particularly to adults who liked Top 40 radio when they were growing up. Even if they don't like today's hits, they still have an awareness of what is--and isn't--a hit. However, I feel there is no necessary conflict in running a true Top 40 countdown on a modern A/C station, since the principle is to present the hits of the day regardless of what they are. A/C listeners can understand and relate to that principle in a featured show, feeling no conflict with the rest of the programming.

However, a Top 40 countdown works for adults only when they can relate to the host and the style of presentation.

The Casey Kasem "American Top 40" has enormous adult appeal, and the "Countdown USA" Top 40 Show hosted by Dave Sholin also is very acceptable and enjoyable to today's adult. I was upset when Dick Clark stopped doing the Top 40 "Countdown America" because he had great credibility and appeal for today's A/C listener. But his A/C countdown (still offered) is essentially useless to the goals of the stations most likely to use it, since the audience that is most into Clark, and his tradition in American broadcasting, is the audience most likely to recognize that the music presented in the countdown is inaccurate in terms of what today's hits really are.

The second question posed by my correspondent was whether talk shows help or hurt AM stations with weak nighttime signals. My response was: Splitting the format has a long-range bad effect on a station's under-40 audience potential because it blurs the format image. However, for some stations with negligible nighttime numbers, it may be worth the tradeoff to build some nighttime shares by using programming that lengthens the listening span. Every station has to decide for itself. But they should be aware that higher shares for a nighttime talk block could eventually lead to lower shares in the other time periods because of the lack of a consistent day-and-night format.

The third question dealt with how promotions, large and small, can help a radio station. Promotions can be an effective sales vehicle, but I feel most strongly that programming should not be compromised by doing so. If a client has a need which a station promotion can serve, work with the client to come up with a promotion that also serves the programming needs of the station. If the station has no budget for a decent promotion, this approach can serve a programmer well.

But any promotion, regardless of source, should always help the station build or maintain its audience! Audience

Splitting the format has a long-range bad effect on a station's under-40 audience potential because it blurs the format image. However, for some stations with negligible nighttime numbers, it may be worth the tradeoff to build some nighttime shares appeal is the only "product" the station can sell its advertisers, and a promotion's audience appeal must be maintained, or sales will fall too--in the long run.

There are two types of promotions: cume-building, which seek to enlarge the station's audience; and listening-span-building, which attempt to build the share within the existing cume. A contest promoted by a TV, billboard, newspaper or mass mail campaign is cume-building (and usually more expensive). An audience call-in contest stimulates longer listening, and more repeat listening, thus building share. Weekend specials are share-building, but unless they're big enough to warrant outside advertising, they don't build cume.

I'll continue down his list of subjects next week. ●

THAT PETROL EMOTION

In The Dark-Grateful Dead (Arista)

What a long strange trip it's been indeed. I spent the greater part of Monday blinking at the photo spread inside the gatefold cover of In The Dark. Flashing back to the first drive down Haight Street in the summer of '67, the sight of a Safeway seemed as strange as a gas station on Mars. Now, Haight Street has its quota of cookie stores, McDonalds and Gaps. But believe it or not, brothers and sisters, an aura of outcast still exists. Joining the hippies are skateboard punks and neo-Nazi skinheads. Somehow the original spirit survives, as symbolized by the musical direction and integrity the Grateful Dead maintain on this, their first recorded output in seven years. Like Kesey and Kubrick, they avoid mindlessly joining the conga-line of disposable, on-line 80's culture. The Dead operate on their own terms, recording and performing for the Zen satisfaction of themselves and their fans, a trait I personally admire deeply. The Grateful aren't really 60's, 70's or 80's. They just are. In The Dark is virtually a live album plus overdubs and sweetening. Captured is their inimitable essence--the solos and the communal co-existence of looseness and tightness. Trax include "Touch Of Grey," "West LA Fadeaway," "Hell In A Bucket," "When Push Comes to Shove" and "Black Muddy River."

"I'm Supposed To Have Sex With You"-Tonio K (Chrysalis)

Song of the week! Tonio K, a hero of these pages, pulls out yet another couch classic from the cluttered furniture crowding his satirical brain. This could be the most misunderstood track of the year. It's the antithesis of George Michael's "I Want Your Sex." In a bass-ackward way, Tonio seems to be mourning the tenderness missing during the act of seduction. At least that's my interpretation. What's yours?

"Johnny B"-Hooters (Columbia)

Mixing recorders and mandolins with a big boss beat makes for an unusual combination, carving a niche for the Hooters. The wild guitar on the last verse gives Album Radio one leg up.

NEW

After Dark-Cruzsados (Arista)

Cruzsados, like the Oakland A's batting line-up, have a mini-Murderers Row in the middle of side one. "Bed Of Lies" into "Road Of Truth" into "Last Ride" are Cruzsados at their best. After Dark is a guitar album, autobiographical in a sense, rock n roll all the way. They are a band in the strictest, united definition of the word. In fact all four individual shots have another member out of focus in the back- or foreground. A subliminal message of brotherhood?

Love Is For Suckers-Twisted Sister (Atlantic)

"Rock Soldiers"-Ace Frehley (Megaforce/Atlantic)
Here's a guy who knows one or two things about armies. I gotta credit John Marshall at WZON for turning me on to this track. Week after week, he calls in a hot rockin' report which includes a generous sampling of Ace Frehley's music. Meanwhile Twisted Sister are awake after a cold shower of reality. Without the 3-D manhole cover art, T. Sister bear back down on the music, rockin' and rollin' with nuclear force.

La Bamba Soundtrack (Slash/W.B.)

Los Lobos fans unite. This is your and their year. The long talked about Ritchie Valens docu-drama finally hits the screens in mid-July with this a viable soundtrack album companion. Recorded during the making of Light Of The Moon, the covers on this album display a shoes-off looseness that is part of Los Lobos' talent as American Dream interpreters. Digitally recorded, Brian Setzer's "Summertime Blues" is a bonus. Check out "La Bamba," "Come On Let's Go" and "Donna," all Valens immortals. Where's the Santana music?

Love And War-Robert Vaughn & The Shadows (Island)

Love and War is a record with conscience and songs that inspire celebration and consternation. I guess a recording studio can be a computerized battlefield. Robert Vaughn and his Shadows and Little Steven take a similar view of the world. There's love of the relationship kind and love of mankind, humanity and fairness. Both derive from the same source of heart. I guess it depends on the level of awareness and how open artists are to their world environment. I like "Spanish Rebel" and "Justice" for starters. Give this one a priority listen.

Life-Neil Young & Crazy Horse (Geffen)

Neil Young compiles another puzzling, unpredictable blend of wooden and microchip Crazy Horse rock n roll. Stations are already drawn toward side two's "Too Lonely" and the indicting "Prisoners Of Rock N Roll." Neil in denims backed with computerized moon shots give you an idea of the contradictions you are about to encounter. "Inca Queen" is the track that perked my ears the highest.

Dancing On The Couch-Go West (Chrysalis) Living In A Box (Chrysalis)

Two crisp modern pop bands in one cardboard box. Go West, on this LP, are inseparable from their battered red couch and their sense of tight synth pop R&B. Living In A Box are equally invigorating. Like Go West or Robbie Nevil, Living In A Box dabble in the not-so-unusual combination of synth and soul. Hey, Chrysalis has got a new butterfly.

INSIDE ALBUM

by Kent Zimmerman

THIS CERTAINLY DOESN'T HAPPEN EVERY WEEK. Two people--willingly--going to Detroit on their vacation. I'm referring to Alan White of KILO in Colorado Springs and Michael Right of KNOX/FM -Grand Forks. Both were at Tiger Stadium the very same day, though neither bought the other a Strohs. Admit it, it is a maximum coincidence that both of these guys rhyme...John Marshall at WZON-Bangor, our hard rock barometer adds Man O'War with Orson Welles...Ty Banks singles out Omar and The Dead as hot items at KQWB/FM-Fargo...Adds at WMMR were Neil Young's "Prisoner" track, the T-Birds, John Waite and--surprise--Hooters ...Ron Garrett at KRXQ picks the Peter Bardens CD, Seen One Earth, as a winner for "Pink Floyd and Alan Parsons fans." Also on, Refugee, Paul Kelly and "welcome back" to Twisted F. Sister...Bill Webster at WJXQ-Lansing spent part of week two as PD appreciating this week's Record To Watch, "Bogged Down In Love" by Charlie Daniels...Adios amigo. Jim Heath leaves KSPN of Aspen and the radio biz to go into insurance with his brother in Missouri. Good luck Jim. I'll bet we see you back eventually. It's in your blood, don't you know that?

FIRST ON. The very first person to call in his Jesse Colin Young add was Brad Hockmeyer at KTAO-Taos, NM. The LP, Highway Is For Heroes is a progressive acoustic work--no mushy tunes...What do Bob Showacre at WHFS and Chris Bailey at WPYK-Birmingham have in common? Both are "Kicking Asphalt," Duane Eddy style...Yet another Charlie Daniels fan is Ron O'Brien at KATS/FM-Yakima. Grateful Dead is #1 phones...We got quite a few #1 Dead phone reports. Ginger Havlat at KBCO reports a huge list of Dead requests. A distant second was The Call...WBCN is giving The Bears a chance to maul their playlist. Also added are Hooters, La Bamba and Great White...Speaking of Great White, Champagne Ray Tusken of the newly repainted Capitol Tower is sending out a couple of Great White edits and edicts. Edits as in a compressed 5:12 album version and 4:12 single edit. Edicts as in, play this sucker or watch your competition beat you to it. How did Ray get his nickname? Join him for lunch and find out... WLIR's Larry The Duck is sweet on Tonio K's "I'm Supposed To Have Sex With You." Duckman is seeing monster sales on The Replacements. Screamer of the Week is the Pet Shop Boy's "It's A Sin," added at KROQ as well.

MORE DEAD KTCL-Fort Collins is getting NONSTOP Dead requests, as is KFOG-San Fran...WHTG-Asbury Park calls are for Echo & The Bunnymen's "New Direction" ...Back to the Dead. Adult rocker KTCZ-Minneapolis is getting Dead requests. "Far and away number one"...KZEL's Bill St. James is also besieged with Dead calls. "Trying To Dance" by Tom Kimmel is his pick to click. "Check this track out!" urges a frustrated Bill.

MORE UPPER DEMOS. KNX/FM adds Bernie Taupin, U2's "Running To Stand Still" along with Crowded House's "World" and Tom Petty's "Train"...KINK -Portland is one of a half-dozen adding Michael Franks out-of-the-box. ...Hottest records on WFNX-Boston are the CERTIFIED Silencers along with the #1 Gavin Album Suzanne Vega. Don't forget Depeche Mode and The Cure. ...Mike Thomas at WMDK-Peterborough is in agreement on The Silencers. "It's the record of the summer"...Ivan at CFNY-Toronto is addicted to Yello, yet to be released stateside. Also doing well with CFNY is Wall of Voodoo and Echo & The Bunnymen

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

by Peter Standish

After four weeks at the top, Suzanne Vega is displaced by a red hot Cure. Nearly every station is still reporting heavy phones for Kiss Me Kiss Me Kiss Me. X is coming on very strong with great listener response reported from Jamey Karr KACV-Amarillo, as well as Susan Kennedy WWVU -Morgantown, Mike Thomas WMDK-Peterborough, Anita Ammons WUOG-Athens, Ken Ornberg KABL-Minneapolis ("huge at retail"), Gina Mainwal KUNV-Las Vegas, Hilare KUCI-Irvine (making his last MD call before moving on to Big Time Records as Director of College Radio Promotion) and James Lien WTUL-New Orleans. That Petrol Emotion is causing quite an explosion, increasing their chart points by 80% and jumping 24 positions. Kandy Wilkens WXCI-Danbury and Bill McLaughlin KUSF-San Francisco are getting calls "right and left" for TPE. Warren Zevon is about to break the top ten while The Silencers and The Call look like mega-contenders. The Lime Spiders are Certified behind Maximum play from WPRB, KUCI, WTUL, WBNY, WUNH, KBSU, WRUV, WUSC, KXLU, etc. Other high-flying debuts include the La Bamba Soundtrack, the Young Popular & Sexy Comp., Shelleyan Orphan and the CruzaDOS. Our Record To Watch is the Young Popular and Sexy compilation album on Factory Records in the States. It's drawing Maximum play from WRAS, KUSF, WXCI, KUNV, WWVU, WRUV, KCPR, etc. and was added at WFNX, WHTG, and WRVU. Sonic Youth is another debut drawing plenty of response for Steve Balcom WXYC -Chapel Hill ("their live show is great"), Arthur Burris WPRB-Princeton ("#1 here by a mile"), and Faith Henschell KCMU-Seattle. Duane Eddy, behind the strength of Art Of Noise's assisted "Spies" track, is our Most Added record. Adam Langley WBNY-Buffalo was raving about the song and it's "fantastic production." Assorted hot records not on the chart page include: Pet Shop Boys import "It's A Sin," Screamer Of The Week for Larry The Duck WLIR-Long Island. French, Frith, Kaiser and Thompson is taking off for James Lien WTUL-New Orleans. Phillip Griffin, WRUV -Burlington, is noticing local bands the Hollywood Indians, Commodity Fetish and Screaming Broccoli are soaring at his station. Ivar Hamilton says the Carey Johnson import is going to be a summer hit record for CFNY-Toronto.

Album Continued
 ...Deb Brady at WXXP-Pittsburgh is getting Top Five phones on La Bamba after just putting into rotation... Ken Ormberg, boasting about his Minnesota Twins occupying first place, was amazed to see The Cure and X blow past hometowners The Replacements for KABL's #1 slot. Action also on The Silencers and Figures On A Beach.
 ODDS AND ADDS KFOG-San Francisco adds Silencers, Pete Bardens, Starship & Neil Young, Fab Thunderbirds and Dan Fogelberg ...KROQ adds more Private Domain, The Fat Boys with the Beach Boys along with Silencers, Tonio K and that import Pet Shop Boys disc...KBCO adds Neil Young, Alison Moyet, Simple Minds, Fab Thunderbirds, Scruffy The Cat, Koko Taylor, Jesse Colin Young, Duane Eddy, Carlos Alomar, and Joe Walsh. Besides calls on The Dead, requests are coming in for Jon Astley...Ikky at KLOL reports that KLLOL defeated Motley Crue at softball, 14-13. Actually only Vince Neil played on the opposing team. "He plays third base and hits pretty well." BoP is also reeling from seeing k.d. Lang live. In Ms. Lang's case, it's the live gig that ices it. We're getting raves from all over the United States. KZ

SPOTLIGHT LPS

You're Living All Over Me- DINOSAUR (SST)
 Like their pre-historic namesakes, Dinosaur stomp through nine songs on this new platter. Talented guitarist J. Mascis' blasting chord melodies and wailing leads (spliced with bits of feedback) are fronted by paradoxically warm vocals on "Little Fury Things," "Raisans" and "Lose." The combination maintains a soulful human element within the potential hard and cold songs, almost like the Meat Puppets vocals meet a primitive and stepped up Deep Purple. "Kracked" takes a sci-fi theme through a wood planer, shaving off the bark, leaving a core center. Originally from western Massachusetts, Dinosaur have relocated to New York City where, Mascis says, "people are more used to loud things."

Border Radio-ORIGINAL SOUNDTRACK (Enigma)
Ry Cooder may have planted the seed in more than one musician's head about recording hip soundtracks as a commercially viable alternative to the conventional pop and rock music treadmill. Blasters and X alumnus Dave Alvin performs the theme song along with five other high-caliber instrumentals. Backing him are Los Angeles extended-family members David Hidalgo and Steve Berlin of Los Lobos and D.J. Bonebrake of X. But there are more than instrumentals to chew popcorn by. The Tonys (Tony and Chip Kinman of Rank and File) take us down a dusty trail with the title cut. Lifted from their recent album is Divine Horsemens Stones - dyed "Mothers Worry." A southwestern set soundtrack wouldn't be complete without a cut from Dan Stuart and Green On Red, who chip in with "Sixteen Ways."

MÖTLEY CRÜE:

people telling kids, 'Hey man! Go jack up some heroin and you'll be cool.' That ain't what it's about. I see a lot of kids and a lot of bands falling apart at the seams when music should be the most important thing. I'm not representing an anti-drug movement. I'm not a parent, I'm a rock n roller. I'm just concerned for the kids, so I wrote 'Dancing On Glass.' It's not something I'm going to walk in and talk to kids in drug clinics about. I think that we have a good enough relationship through the music that kids are going to say, 'This guy's been on the streets half his life and he's telling us not to do it. Maybe we should listen.'

KZ: The TV show "20/20" broadcast a piece on young Heavy Metal fans. They're going through painful adolescence but they seem like good kids. Metal gives them a good emotional release.

JS: Rock n roll gets you higher than anything there is. I'm a lyricist and everything comes out. You have 'Bad Boy Boogie.' That's a humorous look at the band. You've got all these looks at the band and there's not any one dimension.

KZ: Some of your lyrics are a bit raunchy and seem sexist.

NS: Sexist lyrics? Like what?

KZ: How about a song like "All In The Name"?

NS: That's about Traci Lords, the underage porno star. She was only fifteen.

KZ: With a song like that, obviously Motley Crue doesn't care about parent groups like the PMRC.

NS: Naww.

Mother-and-daughter teams is the only reason we care about parents. (laughs)

KZ: Well how about a song like "You're All I Need"?

NS: 'You're All I Need' is a true story. I read about it on the Theatre Of Pain tour. I picked up a newspaper that said, 'Boyfriend Kills Girlfriend Out Of Jealousy.' I thought, 'What the hell is going on here?' It's about a guy who loved his girl so much, he couldn't handle seeing her with anybody else. He had to kill her to make her his. It's a true story. That's serious! That's desperation! That's the biggest kind of love. That's probably true love right there.

KZ: Looking over all the album covers, I noticed a leather image on the first album. Then it went to a more glamor look on the next two albums. Now it's back to leather with motorcycles on the new album.

NS: In the beginning what we wore on our album covers was all we had. During the second album, we wanted to bring some entertainment to it. We were doing some very entertaining things on a small level. But we really wanted to get out there and do some serious theatre. With Theatre Of Pain we took it to a real sense of old Italian theatre--you know, the look of the court jesters. Now we've gone a full circle. We're back to what we were before and we're going to go one step further again. Sometimes less is more.

KZ: Did Metal get a bad shake when AC/DC's music got associated with the Nightstalker murderer?

NS: I think Metal is always going to get a bad shake.

KZ: Do you ever want to see Metal get socially acceptable?

NS: I like being the villains of rock. If you have a choice between milk and cookies or whiskey, which are you going to pick?

KZ: I know of radio stations where Motley Crue is number one in sales and requests, yet they are hesitant to play your records. What would you say to them?

NS: If that's a radio programmer doing that, maybe he should understand where Motley is coming from. We're just out to have a good time. It's good time rock n roll. If something like 'You're All I Need' or 'Helter Skelter' is upsetting to them, we're only mirroring what's going on in society. It's no worse than them playing the five o'clock news. But that's not our main focal point. Our main focal points are like 'Looks That Kill,' 'Too Young To Fall In Love,' 'Smokin' In The Boys' Room' and 'Girls, Girls, Girls.' We're a good time, fun, rock n roll band. But we're not just one-dimensional.

KZ: The inner sleeve of the new album includes a dedication to "the scumbags and posers who didn't stand by the Crue when the chips were down." Being that you've been rated number one by many music magazines, when were the chips ever down?

TOMMY LEE: The chips were down right after Vince's accident. And the critics started hassling us about selling out when 'Home Sweet Home' came out. It started from there.

KZ: When Vince had his problems with the auto accident, was the Crue ever close to breaking up or changing bandmembers?

TL: We'd never have that happen. We were all scared thinking that Vince was going to go away for a long time and that would be the end. No chance in hell would we think about having anybody else being our front man. We'd either all go our separate ways or just not do it at all. We're a team.

KZ: Was Vince's accident a real dose of reality to you guys?

TL: I know for a fact that a lot of my rock n roll buddies don't get all fucked up and drive around. They take a cab or a limo or something. A lot of people might be able to thank Vince one day.

KZ: Do have a big tour planned after laying out for a year and a half?

TL: We're doing a world tour. The first show was Tucson, Arizona. After that, it's bye-bye. The tour looks excellent: two nights at Madison Square Garden, two nights at the Spectrum in Philly. It's amazing. Whitesnake is touring with us. What a package! You know, I'm still a fan, and to go see Whitesnake and Motley Crue, I'd lose it! This tour is going to hurt people!

KZ: When was the exact time you thought Motley Crue was really going to take off and be big?

NS: You know when it slapped everyone in the face that the band was being accepted? It was when we were opening up for Ozzy Osbourne on the Shout At The Devil tour in 1983. We were going down. We had always gone down as headliners in L.A., kind of like a big fish in a small pond. Then we ventured out slowly into the deeper waters. When we were thrown on the Ozzy tour, it was sink or swim. This is big time. It was wild. The band went down every night in front of fifteen thousand kids. We thought, 'Wow!' We hadn't been programmed to think too hard. We would strap on our guitars and go out there and rock! That's what was working and we haven't lost that primitive feel. We may have a lot of insight to new recording techniques and technology, but when it gets right down to the rock n roll, it's still primitive.

TL: Ozzy gave us a chance to play in front of thousands every night. It was amazing. I thought, 'Wow! This is it. We're here.'

KZ: What is the male/female ratio for Motley Crue Fans?

NS: I think it's about fifty-fifty.

KZ: How do you manage to keep your loyal fans and still move on?

TL: I think because we do something different every year. It's not just Motley Crue Part Two, Three or Four. Every year we dress different, we sound different. We change everything. That's one of the keys. Just keep people rockin'. Everyone likes a change. ●

We hadn't been programmed to think too hard. We would strap on our guitars and go out there and rock! That's what was working and we haven't lost that primitive feel.

INSIDE COUNTRY

Reba McEntire moves up one more spot through an extremely tight chart to number one this week. Right behind is Ronnie Milsap, who awaits his turn at the top with a 99% HIT FACTOR, while The Trio make their way into the top ten with a 94% HIT FACTOR and heavy rotation at 75 station. As for this week's CERTIFIED records, the Forester Sisters jump from a 22% HIT FACTOR to 39% this week, and the O'Kanes receive strong support from a bunch of folks including Greg Cole at WPOC/FM in Baltimore who says, "The O'Kanes continue to come on strong." Foster & Lloyd make their way into chartbound with 98 adds after only three weeks. John Gatlin at WKNZ-Hattiesburg, MS, says listeners keep calling to play "Crazy Over You" again and again, and KOLO in Reno reports requests after each play. Another song making waves with the listeners is Barbara Mandrell's "Child Support." Greg Bell at WWIC in Scottsboro, AL, says, "The single is drawing strong female phones." It's also getting excellent response for Mike Stanley at WDMV-Pocomoke City, KBUF-Garden City, KS, and Steve Green at KWHT-Pendleton, OR. This week's RECORD TO WATCH is Joe Kenyon's "Hymne," an instrumental receiving big phones whenever played. Suprisingly enough, Joe Kenyon isn't one person...it's two--veteran producer Jerry Kennedy and session man, David Briggs. They are currently working on an all-instrumental album. J.W. Ford at KTRB in Modesto, CA, reports that after just one test run, 100% were in favor of Joe Kenyon. Jim Pruett at WAAX in Gadsden, AL, dared to put the tune on the air and to his surprise, 40 calls lit up the phones--only two of them negative! More strong support comes from Coyote Calhoun at WAMZ in Louisville, KY, who added it this week, as did KROW, WOW107, KWMT WRAJ, KIMM, etc.

To err is human: Our apologies for last week's mistake on MOST ADDED. Patty Loveless was not

MOST ADDED...Foster & Lloyd were with 46 adds.

Here's to another week with no news on "Little K." Hope you all have a wonderful 4th of July. Talk to you next week! Natalie and Elma

REVIEWS

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation, i.e. 100 stations playing the record -- 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation -- Hit Factor = 60%

Highway 101 (Warner Bros.) With two successful singles already charted, lead singer Paulette Carlson does a super job conveying her vocal talents on this album. The LP is well produced by Paul Worley, who is responsible for such popular talent as Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Marie Osmond and Eddy Raven. Favorite cuts include: SOMEWHERE TONIGHT, ONE STEP CLOSER, SOMEONE BELIEVED, and CRY, CRY, CRY.

Ioni Bishop - "Heart Out Of Control" (Columbia) Legendary producer Billy Sherrill's firm hold on the controls is evident in this debut effort.

MAY FORCES BE ▶ WITH YOU

From dawn's early light to the midnight hour, radio stations in various music formats all across the country are trying to convince their listeners that they do play more music. Using production pieces designed to ride over the intro or fade of a song, they try to lure listeners into staying with them long enough to get a passing grade on their Arbitron report cards.

What does it mean when you set up your audience with phrases like, "Less talk, more music! Four-in-a-row next...and we lead it off with Atlantic Starr and 'Always'"? Is it better to play ten in a row--or 13? Is it effective to back up your spots, promos and contest elements into the fourth quarter-hour--where the news used to go--and kick off the sweep a few minutes before the top of the hour with a little image-building time-warp perception effort? Our studies have shown that it is effective--as long as it's combined with the other things a consistent winning station must have, like talent, signal and discipline.

SELLING THE SIZZLE

"Selling the sizzle" means making sure you take credit for everything good you can possibly take credit for--like a rain-free weekend forecast in your weekend weather report. The whole idea is to have your audience automatically associate your station with anything that is fresh, positive and jammin'. While there may be a lot of different ways to do this effectively, one common factor is planning. If you want to involve your station in something you know is going to be big with your target audience, a little preparation can pay off with amazing results.

If, for example you know a major concert is coming to town, you should try to get the artists' itineraries from your promotion people--a service they should be happy to provide.

You can plan a weekend tie-in, or a way to get your jocks on stage with some of the hottest acts in the country. That's good exposure for them and the station--and an image-builder as well.

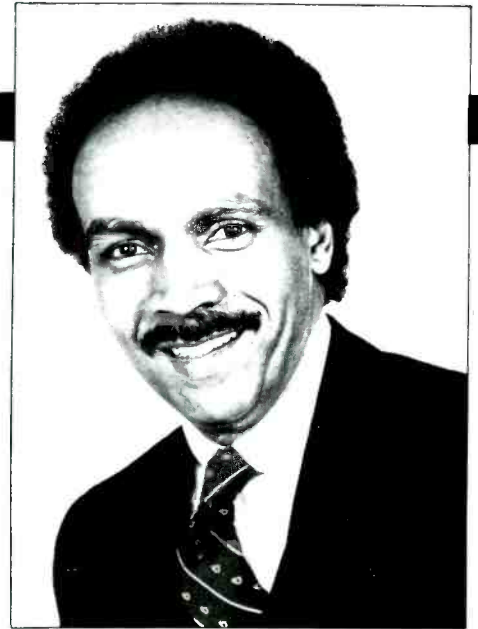

If you have a promotion director, he or she should be able to score some seats for you with a little combined effort. And it does make a difference where those seats are. If you find it's a sold-out concert with only a limited number of available seats, you can really blow your audience away by buying up a block and giving them away on the air, perhaps as part of a prize package that also includes albums, T-shirts, and backstage passes, all dressed up in a hot promo with lots of laser effects laid over it.

The whole idea is to get the audience ready for what's about to happen. Tell them how good it is going to be and reinforce that message every time you play the artist's newest hit. When it finally does come off, they will just naturally think it's a great event because you've made them part of something big. It's radio foreplay--and it works!

FUN ON THE AIR

As radio stations compete to play the most songs-in-a-row, and music becomes more and more heavily researched, the winning difference can sometimes depend on which station has the "fun" image--a place people go to be entertained beyond the music. Whether you're playing four-in-a-row or twenty-four, you still have to sound like you're having fun--fun for the air talent to present, and fun for the folks whose fingers could find another frequency featuring four-play--and fun-play!

A lot of stations have been able to do this with a successful morning team. But the rest of the day, the station is on a kind of automatic pilot, flown by computer, and, unless it runs into a (quiet) storm, it will run that way until it's time to land. The personalities don't have much time to have fun--they're too busy playing at least four-in-a-row.

But there are some stations that, when the music stops, well-prepared jocks are in there having fun, relating to the audience, to the street, to the people they know are listening. Each jock knows how to set up the rest of the dayparts, so there is carry-over and conversion.

Getting the audience ready for what follows is really the whole idea of four-play or fore-play. It's a lot like life itself--a bundle of little things--and the string is always coming untied.●

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

ALEXANDER O'NEAL and JONATHAN BUTLER are racing each other to the top of the chart - and with so many females preceeding them at that position, it will be a refreshing change to have one of them at number one. After speaking to several programmers who are being forced to add three to five female vocal releases to an already female-dominated playlist, I can hear the frustration mounting. Even trying to balance the rotation so as not to play more than two consecutive female tunes causes a vicious cycle of monotony: two females, one male, two more females, one group, and then two females. As Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk & WPDQ-Jacksonville, put it: "When my stations ask me how to deal with it, I tell them to just PRAY!"

Hottest phone action for newer product award goes, hands down, to LEVERT. Steve Hegwood, KHYS-Pt. Arthur, says young adults are calling, Licia Torres, KJLH-L.A., reports lots of calls, all demos, K.C. Jones, WVKO-Columbus, says 18-34 males love that "Casanova" tune, Danny Harris, KDKO-Denver, says that after one week of play, he's getting phones, male and female, all demos. Pam Wells, WHRK-Memphis, is getting calls for it, 18-34, and she also reported that MASON is now generating action across-the-board. Gary Weiler, WBLZ-Cincinnati, squealed on the phone that after only two plays, THE DEELE's "Can-U-Dance" caused one line to light up after another, and the male callers, 18-24, dominated. Stan Boston, WTOY-Roanoke, made the

ELLA BROOKS his "Pick It Or Stick It." He's been getting requests for it ever since. MINI CURRY seems to be a great female record. Cy Young, WQQK/FM-Nashville, has the adults calling for it after four days of play. Record To Watch RAMSEY LEWIS is one of those "be sure to audition the 12". Should see good club action and materialize on charts as a nice change of pace for the summer. Stay well. Betty

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

PATRICE RUSHEN - Anything Can Happen (Arista) And it DOES happen for Patrice. She pulls out all the stops and lets loose - returning to the style we know and like best.

THE DEELE - Can-U-Dance (Solar/Capitol) The Deele is making you an offer you can't refuse: a refreshing change, reminiscent of "Material Thangz." Credit Gary Weiler, WBLZ-Cincinnati, for bringing our attention to this funky sound.

JENNIFER HOLLIDAY - Heart On The Line (Geffen) The first single from the forthcoming album, "Get Close To My Love." From the catchy intro to the hook, you'll like this Diva's appeal.

ANITA BAKER - No One In The World (Elektra) The chorus will haunt you after the first play. Without even paying any attention to her great lyrics, there's something about this tune that keeps coming back to you.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

SMOKEY ROBINSON - One Heartbeat (Motown) Ah...just to hear him sing! Smokey doesn't miss a beat releasing a follow-up that tops "Just To See Her." And boy, Kenny G is keeping busy these days, appearing on the new Dionne & Jeffrey single and adding that sweet sound of saxcess to this release also.

HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS - Doin' It All For My Baby (Chrysalis) You can never have enough "Foreplay." Soulful sing-a-long in the tradition of their now-classic "Hope You Love Me Like You Do." Song will be supported by another in their line of exceptionally creative videos.

BASSIX - Tears Of A Clown (Epic) Seems strange to write up a new Smokey Robinson record and a cover version of this 1970 Miracles hit in the same week. But the tune, this production and the vocal approach has gotta sound hot on radio and in the clubs.

CHRIS ISAAK - Blue Hotel (Warner Bros.) Those of you who took the opportunity to see him perform during our Seminar in February know he's an artist ready to happen. Chris' musicianship and style not only live up to his press, they surpass it. It's impossible for me to resist the plaintive, haunting melody of this unusual effort.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

GRATEFUL DEAD - "In The Dark" (Arista)

The Grateful Dead are the fish who swim upstream, going about their success bass-ackwards. Contradiction flies in the face of convention as they've built an enviable reputation from their live performances. Their music is indeed for the mass of camp followers known as Dead Heads and, except for the truckloads of bootleg vinyl and tape, scarcely a trace of their music has been released in this decade. Their music has airs of spontaneity, casualness and humor, despite being, in fact, Dead serious. Phil Lesh, Bob Weir, Bill Kreutzmann and the gratefully un-dead Jerry Garcia have been performing together since 1965, yet I don't think they've ever had such a tightly bound set of songs on one album. Already embraced by Album radio as the second coming to a second generation of rock 'n' rollers, this album will also spin within pop radio's comfort zone—particularly A TOUCH OF GREY and TONS OF STEEL.

LA BAMBA - Original Motion Picture Soundtrack (Slash/W.B.)

Early reviews give thumbs up to the film which portrays the last years of teen idol Ritchie Valens in much the same way we witnessed the Buddy Holly Story. (Coincidentally, both Valens and Holly died in the same plane crash.) Los Lobos perform Valens' music faithfully to the original recordings, capturing pop's late-'50s innocence. Other music of the era, such as Eddie Cochran's SUMMERTIME BLUES and Jackie Wilson's LONELY TEARDROPS are covered by Brian Setzer and Howard Hunstberry, respectively and with the same reverence. Missing from the soundtrack album but featured prominently in the film is Santo & Johnny's "Sleepwalk." Carlos Santana is also missing in action, but his incidental ambient music does give the film subtle support.
