LASKER SUCCUMBS

Industry mogul Jay Lasker died on Sunday (6/11) after a long bout with cancer. He was 65.

Lasker's colorful career began in 1945 at Decca Records. He became Branch Manager for that label in 1951 and was VP/Sales in 1956. After five years he went to Reprise Records as Vice President. He then worked for Vee Jay Records before becoming a partner in and President of Dunhill Records in 1965. When ABC bought Dunhill in 1966, Lasker became President of ABC/Dunhill. After a stint as partner in the short-lived Arriola America Records, Lasker's biggest success came when he took over the helm of Motown Records and revitalized the label and reissued catalogue material from Motown's classic library. He retired in 1987 due to illness.

BECCE SURFACES AT TOMMY BOY

On the heels of the success of De La Soul and TKA, Tommy Boy Records has expanded into the Pop promotion arena and hired promo veteran Mike Becce.

Becce, who left RCA last October after spending 14 years with the label, says he's happy to be going with a relatively new company. "It's a challenge for me," he said. "I hope to help bring them further than they've ever been before."

Tommy Boy Chairman Tom Silverman foresees his company having an enormous release of Pop records in the coming months. "Tommy Boy records is excited to have a Pop promotion person of Mike's caliber joining the staff," he said. "At this point we felt we needed to bring someone on staff to handle the enormous load on the pop side."

Silverman went on to predict that we'll see more independent labels rear their heads. "I think this is the beginning of a trend. Meanwhile I welcome Mike to Tommy Boy. Here we go!"

Arista President Clive Davis dons dark glasses to bask in the glow of his latest signing, Eurythmics. He's flanked by Dave Stewart (l) and Annie Lennox.

Within the next few weeks Enigma Records will be announcing staff additions. Two have already been made: Ron Cerrito is Director of Modern Rock and Amy Seidenwurm is manager, Modern Rock and College Promotions. Next up will be additions in Rock Promotion, Top 40 Promotion and field staff.

On the sales side, the label has promoted Maryann Earl to National Director, Single Sales. Maryann is well known in Alternative circles, having created Enigma's Alternative Marketing Department. She has been with the label for 3-1/2 years.

MENA JOINS SBK'S NEW MUSIC DEPT.

The still-new SBK has hired Mike Mena as the head of New Music Promotion and Marketing. He has already set up shop with his new company.

"It's very exciting to be at a place where there's no rules and established ways," said Mike of his new challenge. "It's great to be able to invent things on the way."

Four years ago Mena began as an intern in the mail room at A&M Records, and worked his way up to Director of Alternative Promotion. He'll be based in New York and can be reached at 212-492-1200.

WNCI'S McMAHON GOES HOME TO EL PASO

WNCI-Columbus MD Pat McMahon has resigned his position at the Nationwide station to return to Top 40 KEZB-El Paso, TX. Before spending 2-1/2 years at WNCI, McMahon was Air Talent and Research Director at KEZB.

Said McMahon of the hard choice he had to make, "I'm leaving Nationwide with mixed emotions, because this has been an absolutely wonderful company to work for. I can't say enough about them. I leave with doors open."

McMahon faces a challenge at KEZB, which also has a new GM, Bob Payton Proud. "When I started at KEZB, we had a 4.4 and when we left it had a 17.1. Now it's back in the fours again. I grew up in New Mexico and was weaned on El Paso Radio," said McMahon in closing. "To be able to program in what I consider my home market is exciting."

Zack Vaz has joined Motown Records as VP/A&R. Vaz comes to Motown after six years at Hush Productions where he was Studio Director. While at Hush, Vaz edited and mastered all of the company's singles and LPs.

PREWITT OUT AT HOT 97.7

After 2-1/2 months, "Catfish" Jim Prewitt has exited the PD position at Dance/Top 40 HOT 97.7-San Jose, CA.

Anaheim Vice President/Operations Jeff Salgo explained that both Prewitt and Anaheim realized early on that the relationship wasn't right. "I think both Jim and I realized that his style of programming and our company's were worlds apart," Salgo said. "You might say we agreed to disagree and he chose to leave the station."

Since as of now there is no one in line for the position, a hot job is open for the right programmer. Call Salgo at 714-774-9600.

Prewitt himself declined to comment, saying only that his departure was caused by "philosophical differences." He can be reached in San Jose at 408-554-1302.

DEFESI EXITS RADIO FOR TOURIST BIZ

After twenty years in radio, long time Gavin Correspondent Don DeFesi, PD of KVVN-Napa, CA is leaving radio to take a Marketing/Sales Director Position at California Visitor's Review—a magazine for wine country tourists. He is writing a column for the publication and will continue to do so.

DeFesi took KVVN from a Country format and made it into a hot A/C outlet that garnered a 20 share in the latest Arbitron—beating even San Francisco powerhouse KGO in the Napa market. Other stops in his 20 year radio tour of duty include KFRC, KNBA, KRAK, KKIS and KWUN.

Current KVVN Assistant PD and midday Air Talent Gerri McCulloh will be acting PD in the interim. "I'm going to miss Don," she said between spinning records. "It's a once in a lifetime kind of situation to have worked with someone who's been a good friend and shared so much of his knowledge and philosophies. He's made it easy for us. The transition is going to be smooth."

SHEILA ROTTEN? PIL'S John Lydon visited the Gavin Report recently and is seen here putting a body lock on Hear and There Editor Sheila Rene.

SADLE CONSULTS

Rick Sadle, who until recently was Program Director of KNBR-San Francisco, has been named Senior Vice President of the consulting firm Radio Success Services. Sadle exited KNBR shortly after the former NBC property was sold to Susquehanna Radio Corp.

"I've had the good fortune to be involved in some of the most innovative stations in America and I want to share the lessons I've learned," commented Sadle. Before he was at KNBR, Sadle worked at KGW-Portland, KLOK-San Francisco, KMET-Los Angeles and KSAN-San Francisco.

Radio Success Services counts KOAI-Dallas, KKCY-Portland and KGSR-Austin among their clients. "Anyone who tries to stick to the tried and true in this next decade has a rough road ahead," said RSS President Alan Mason. "I wanted Rick because he has blazed new trails for his whole career."

After June 25 Sadle can be reached at 503-241-3728.

MANAGEMENT: BRUCE GARFIELD

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Protest and message songs galvanized the generation that fought for social change during the Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon years. From the folksy to the funky, songs like "Blowin' In The Wind," "Eve Of Destruction," "Abraham, Martin And John," "People Gotta Be Free," and "War" were powerful statements that turned into #1 hits. Topical subject matter is certainly not the foundation of lyrical content in popular music, but under the right circumstance, a song has the potential to make a profound impact. There is no doubt now that recent events in China will turn out to be not only the most newsworthy of 1989, but the decade as well. Hopefully a songwriter can find the words and music to express the anger and sorrow felt throughout the free world for the thousands of heroic students brutally slain at Tiananmen Square. It's unlikely a song will do much to influence the morally bankrupt regime in China but in light of the latest news regarding suppression of information and reprisals against demonstrators, word of an international hit song would spread, and in its own way bolster morale by sending the message of hope to millions and assure them that their cries for freedom and democracy are being heard and supported throughout the world.

It wouldn't be a Top 40 summer without The Bobby Poe Convention which convenes next weekend and the Upper Midwest Conclave in mid-July. I'll be hangin' at both events and hope to see many of you there.

Whata year it's been for ROD STEWART, who is barreling his way up the chart once again. Z95.5 Detroit takes it 14-10 and Asst. PD/MD Mike Waite reports excellent callout results with men. TOP 40 PROFILE

93.7 KRQ

Tucson's ONLY Hit Music Station.

DOMINATING THE DESERT AIRWAVES

by Dave Sholin

Not everyone in Tucson is listening to KRQ—yet! With Program Director Clarke Ingram at the helm they have become, to say the least, the dominant outlet in this 21 station market. Arriving in October of '87, Clarke took over the reins of a station that ranked third 12+ with an 11.2 share. In his opinion, KRQ needed to clearly define its focus. "It was an A/C-leaning radio station," says Ingram, "and one of the problems I thought it had was admitting it was Top 40. The FIRST thing I pulled off-the-air was our slogan, 'Between a hard rock and a soft place.'" After market research confirmed Clarke's suspicions, KRQ's new positioning statement became "Tucson's ONLY hit music station." The results of his straightforward Top 40 approach and new jock line-up, including new morning man Mike Elliott from sister station KZZP, were amazing to Clarke. "The paradox is, not only did we gain the youngsters, but we almost immediately went #1 25-54! By defining who we were and narrowing the focus of the station, our numbers skyrocketed." Clarke says, "When people ask 'what in the heck did you do down there?'" I say, 'It doesn't take a rocket scientist to do this—you play the right records, you have fun, you say the call letters a lot, you spend some money on promotions and make sure you got the facility (signal).'" Two words Ingram peppers his thoughts with are fun and passion. "If you try not to offend anybody," he says, "you're gonna end up not pleasing a lot of people either." That injection of fun has seemed to please Tucson, where the 12+ audience has grown from an 11.2 at the time he arrived to a 23.0 (latest figure with the highest cume in the station's history—or the market for that matter).

Having developed a love of radio at the ripe old age of eight, Clarke got hooked when his Dad gave him an early forerunner of a wireless mike. He and a friend eventually rigged up a station that broadcast to "half a neighborhood." He grew up listening to KQV-Pittsburgh in the mid-'60s and later, 13Q. Clarke also recalls hearing WFIL and WIBG battle it out in Philly and the clear channel signals from WABC and WLS. It's evident by listening to him that he believes in many of those Top 40 basics he heard early on. Today he's as excited as he's ever been about his profession. "I didn't do this for the money—I do it for the love of the business. I'm ten years in radio—I still drive to other markets to hear radio stations."

In this age of computer-generated music lists, Ingram allows his jocks the flexibility of putting together their own music logs which he checks later. "They follow the rotations and the order, but I think there's a certain pride in putting your own show together. The computer can't sit there and say, 'Wow! This is going to sound great out of the top of the hour jingle,' or 'Ooops—this is a disaster!'" He's also adamant about call letter identification. "There are no segues on KRQ. I had 'em and dropped 'em because I think in this media-cluttered world where the audience can punch in a CD, a tape or half of your competition and get a jukebox, every segue's a wasted opportunity—it's cume. We may not talk that long, but we always say (or sing if it's a jingle) the call letters. I added it up once and we say the call letters 700 times a day. That's like 5,000 times a week. I figure it's a quarter million times in '89!"

If there's one thing Clarke's learned over the years it's that from time-to-time you have to sit back and start to "think like the audience. Sometimes the audience takes me completely by surprise. Here's an example—and it's so obvious to us and it isn't obvious to them. We did a Top '88 Countdown, pick up your free souvenir copy at Peter Piper Pizza, right? People were walking in asking for the cassettes! I try to get out of this market about once a month, even if only to Phoenix, just to hear something else, clear my head and go back. I think it's real important to do that and most PD's stay cooped up in their offices, never talking to the listeners. If you sit there in your ivory tower thinking that's how you can program the radio station—it don't work that way. I'm reminded of what Tom Peters said at the Gavin and in his book. The people who win are the people who take time every day, in a million tiny little ways, to improve the franchise. I go in everyday and I say to myself, 'What am I going to do today to make this station sound better? Am I going to put a new promo on or maybe take a jingle and add something to it? Or maybe I'm going to put a new mix of a record in there—what the hell am I going to do to make the station audibly sound better, not to me, not internally, but something that the listeners are going to notice.' And if you do that, even if you just change one thing every day, you'd be just amazed at how much better your station gets."●

H.E.L.P.S. SCREENS FOR RADIO PROGRAMS WITH CONTENT

If you work with computers and software programs that contain Help Screens, you know that by pressing the F1 function key you're able to get assistance.

As you prepare your radio program (few can legitimately be called "shows"), the following can serve as your Help Screen.

In order to have interesting, relatable topics for the widest ranging demographics in your target audience, your program needs to contain subjects that, in general terms, practically everyone has at least some interest in.

Here's a H.E.L.P.S. SCREENER for your Prep file:

H. HEALTH

Every thinking person has more than a passing interest in what's healthy or unhealthy for themselves and their loved ones. That's why there's such heavy response to the news of tainted Chilean Grapes, apples covered with deadly substances and the approval of Cyclamates—which were, incredibly, banned twenty years ago. And now we find out that eggs are GOOD for us!

In today's America there's an inherent chord that responds to health information. Perhaps it's a shield against the threat of total annihilation that exists for the first time in history.

Whatever the cause, or how trivial the subject seems to you personally, most adults CRAVE more knowledge about health and health issues. Younger folks want to be in good condition in their later years and older ones want to enjoy as many quality years as they have left.

E. EMOTION

Relate stories, thoughts and events that hit people in the heart. Country music has been doing this for decades with great success. Humans respond positively to emotion, and this doesn't mean maudlin sentimentality although that, too, can be effective. I'm referring here to things that stir people—that make them FEEL. Things that convey joy, wonder, sadness, patriotism, relief, fear, power—all sorts of emotions. What doesn't stir ANYONE is time, temperature, artist and information—although listeners have been known to get upset when these items are not aired frequently enough for their taste.

L. LEISURE

Fishing, shopping, boating, tennis, swimming, gardening, sewing, movie going, tinkering with the car, TV watching, books, magazines, travel and a hundred other activities help people to relax. Refer to these things and how and where they exist in your market.

P. POCKETBOOK/PURSE

Where your treasure is, there will also be heart. Believe it. When you talk about where people can save or make money, they'll listen.

Where's the cheapest gas, the least expensive good quality meat, the bargain movie? If you don't know, have your listeners call and tell you, and then share the good news.

Stock market reports are for the elite. The everyday folks need information about saving money the everyday way. If you can help them stretch a dollar, save a garment for another year or find a great deal on furniture, then you and your station will be heroes.

S. SHOW BIZ

They can't get enough. Who's hot? Who's now? You need to know the celebrities your target audience follows. Find out, then give it all back to them. When certain TV programs, sports personalities, actors and actresses are at their apex you need to be referring to them constantly. But again, be cautious. Know what your target audience is interested in.

As you prepare, search the magazine racks, newspapers, television programs and syndication services for items that go under the H.E.L.P.S. categories. Glean from every source this kind of material and use it. Each program should contain at least one of the suggested topics.

Over the past two years I've had reason to closely monitor newsman Paul Harvey. It impressed me that virtually every report had subject matter from these categories.

When you critique your program, jot down which category the informational bits you have shared with the audience will fall under.

Finally, tell your listeners that you're giving all this information for THEIR benefit. In radio we're guilty of not saying "We're doing this for YOU" often enough.

We H.E.L.P.S. you. Bad grammar, good advice. ●

You couldn't meet a nicer guy than Michael Bolton, so say hello when he comes around on his promo tour. His fourth album for Columbia Records, Soul Provider was produced by Michael Omartian (Rod Stewart, The Jacksons), Desmond Child (Alice Cooper, Cher), Peter Dinklage and Rick Chudacoff (Kenny G, Smokey Robinson). It features ten songs co-written by Michael and some of the top songwriters in the biz: Diane Warren, who has penned Top 10 hits for Chicago, Heart and the Starship, Desmond Child (Bon Jovi, Aerosmith), and the team of Barry Mann and Cynthia Weill. P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

FORMATTING

Last week I started browsing through a notebook loaned to me by Dave Verdery of KBIG-Los Angeles, containing formats and memos from the late Gordon McLendon's organization. Although some seem to have been written by executives under McLendon, all represent the implementation of the philosophy of the most important single person in the modern history of radio—the man from whose ideas all modern formats derive. McLendon's strategy at KABL in Oakland (San Francisco) was detailed last week; he invented the "beautiful music" format for the station.

I mentioned that he clearly believed, as I always have, in preparing a detailed, explanatory format for the staff of a station. To illustrate further, for those PD's for whom this may be a new idea, let me quote portions of the notebook headed "the KABL hour":

"Follow music list EXACTLY. In the event not enough time is available for four selections [between spot clusters], always drop selection #3...It is important that the first selection following the hour and half-hour cluster be a big production-type number. The first selection following the 1/4 and 3/4 hour clusters can be more the full-orchestration type, i.e., quieter. This is further discussed under 'music policy.' Production must be as tight as humanly possible. As in any other format station, dead air must be eliminated. Every second saved in talk means that much more music on the air. You should continually strive to shorten everything in order to keep a maximum of music on the air.

"All flow period information should contain call letters, and the use of 'K-A-B-L' and 'Cable' should be approximately equal. In order to keep your sound fresh and alive, continual change is absolutely necessary. This goes for per-tune intros, features, station promos, program intros, etc.

"General style: Announcers must create an effect of dignity, preciseness, and above all correctness in enunciation and pronunciation. The effect must be obtained without giving delivery an affected sound. The announcer must deliver copy as though that were the way he spoke normally. In order to effect tight production, the announcer must always audition the last few bars of music and recorded commercials. There is to be NO DEAD AIR. NEVER read a piece of copy that you have not checked out before it goes on the air. If there is any doubt about pronunciation, check in advance. Know in advance what you are going to say before you open your mike. Never ad lib. News should be handled directly and precisely with a slightly faster pace than normal delivery for commercials, etc. Punctuate each news story with a chime. Keep them short; read in advance; and strike unnecessary words. Keep emphasis on local news. Insert call letters where possible. Make your reading extremely authoritative. Check the wire at least twice each half-hour for bulletins and other important items."

The format has a special section on how to handle bulletins, and how to handle time checks and weather—both in Morning Drive and at other times. Also how to pull the music, how to keep the log, what material to check before going on the air. There are even general admonitions, such as "never discuss station affairs outside the radio station; do not take any phone calls while you are on the air unless they are on the unlisted station line; be on the lookout for new ideas all the time...when you come up with what you believe is a good one, write it out and submit it to the PD—a station like this demands new ideas and fresh copy all the time."

Nothing is overlooked. That's the way to write a format! Next week, I'll quote from an introductory memo written by Gordon McLendon himself describing the philosophy that led to the concept of KABL Oakland/San Francisco as you've seen it described in this column and the last one.●

A WEDDING PRESENT TO REMEMBER▶

Jon Bon Jovi made a rare early morning appearance at Z100-Portland recently. Z100 was so excited they spared no expense in giving the bridegroom a matching set of towels as a belated wedding gift! Making the presentation to Jon were members of the "Morning Zoo": Brooke Belson, Tony Martinez (with the moustache) and John Murphy.

A FANTASTIC EXTRAVAGANZA!▲

KMEL-San Francisco's staff turned out in force to host their annual Spring Extravaganza. One of this year's special guests was none other than Capitol recording artist Donny Osmond. Smiling for the cameras are KMEL PD Keith Naftaly, VP/GM Paulette Williams and the "Soldier Of Love" himself, Donny Osmond.

SA-FIRE's SENSATIONAL ◀

Hot listing this week goes to PRINCE's "Batdance," the debut single from the soundtrack to the movie debuting next Friday (6/23). We're told this hip-hop, funky psychodrama features Vicki Vale, Batman, the Joker, and a character that Prince created called "Gemini." Be prepared for Prince's nine-song "Batman Motion Picture Soundtrack" on June 20th, which also features a cut called "The Arms of Orion," co-written by Prince and Sheena Easton, who performs on the track. "1999" and "Baby I'm A Star" were chosen as temporary music for specific scenes and the songs worked so well that the producers asked Prince if he would redo them for the movie. He flew to London to take a look at the rushes and had three ideas right on the spot. Says Mark Canton, VP/Music at Warner Bros. Pictures, "There was no stopping him. He had a vision for what this music should sound like and once we heard what he had in mind, we knew he had captured the mood of the film perfectly—dark, edgy and a lot of fun." Prince was so enthused by what he'd seen in London that he wrote nine songs in two weeks, getting into the characters, thinking about motivations and personalities and creating a musical equivalent of the film.

FOSTER & McELROY, who appeared on the Gavin cover February 10th, had a strong week, making them our Record To Watch. Added at WNHC, WWKX, KRNB, KWTD, WBLX, WLOU, WQIS, WTMP, WWDM, WCKX, WTLC, and WTLZ. David Dickenson, WNHC-New Haven, says "Now they've got a better way to get the message out through their music." This dynamic production team is debuting their first single, after producing such acts as Tony! Toni! Tone!, Club Nouveau, Lia, Alexander O'Neal, Timex Social Club and Channel 2. DAVID PEASTON is still on the lips of many programmers this week: "One great tune that's in Luther's league," says Darryl Henry, KWTD-Little Rock. Chuck Harrison, KFXZ-Lafayette, says, "It's a sure shot for the summer." Frank Barrow, KRIZ-Seattle, wants to go on record picking the SHARON BRYANT, "Glad to hear the good sounds of the lady from Atlantic Starr again." Earl Boston, WMGL-Charleston, likes the new GEORGE CLINTON, "Why Should I Dog U Out?" and says "With all the success De La Soul had using George's music track, it should help George resurface. This is a funky sound." Ciao for now, Betty.

NEW RELEASES by Betty Hollars and Brian Samson

ERIC GABLE

ERIC GABLE - Remember (The First Time) (Orpheus/EMI)

If you're in need of something soft, smooth, soulful and sophisticated from a male vocalist take a shot at this offering, too. Initial response from Urban radio is good, with thirteen stations already showing interest.

BABYFACE - It's No Crime (Epic)

This package is from the upcoming sophomore release, Tender Love. The multi-talented Babyface and his production sidekick L.A. Reid add an element of non-abrasive funk to give this single a solid debut. Programmers should find no felony in this track.

WHAT'S UP

TYREN PERRY - What's Up (Columbia)

What's up is the tempo of this very obvious club record, which should receive a broad welcome, especially with three mixes on the twelve-inch to choose from. The debut release from the Don't Rush It album shows strong vocals from someone who looks like a very promising young artist.

HAKIM with LADY DIANNA - Sacred Emotion (Curb)

If you're in need of something soft, smooth, soulful and sophisticated take a shot at this offering from Hakim with Lady DiAnna, from the forthcoming album Hot N' Happenin'.

ARETHA FRANKLIN & WHITNEY HOUSTON - It Isn't, It Wasn't, It Ain't Never Gonna Be (Arista)

It will, it should, it is already getting airplay. (We've been listing it as an LP cut in the Urban Contemporary section since the release of the album.) As we mentioned back in April, this unedited version from the LP featured the scat singing followed by a back-and-forth rap (they're fighting over a man), and is just what our format will love. Good variety!

RONALD ISLEY - Spend The Night (Warner Bros.)

A typical Isley production with the always appealing sound that Ronald Isley is distinguished for. A perfect ballad for those stations targeting the newly blossoming Urban Adult Contemporary listener.

URBAN PROFILE

BE BE

WINANS
TAKE YOU HIGHER

By John Martinucci

Be Be & Ce Ce Winans sing songs that touch the heart and uplift the soul. I should know because I'm a recent convert.

I have to confess, as I did to Be Be & Ce Ce, that when I was first approached to do this interview I gave the publicist the old "Well, you know, I'm not sure." At the time I hadn't really spent a lot of time listening to their music. I'm seldom in the mood for "How Great Thou Art." I run home and listen to Bobby Brown, Ice-T, Madonna, De La Soul and others.

The day the advance of the Be Be & Ce Ce "Heaven" cassette appeared on my desk, I thought I'd listen to the title track only, but then I decided to play the tape through and now I'm hooked. I immediately called the publicist and asked if Be Be & Ce Ce were still available for interviews.

The following is a conversation I had with the Winans while they were in the midst of headlining their North American tour.

John Martinucci: How does being out on a 40 city tour affect you and your family?

Ce Ce Winans: It's hard for me because I have two little ones. They meet us every so often, like in California when we tour there they will be with us. I talk to them everyday—I've got phone bills for days.

JM: At what age did you start singing at Detroit's Shalom Temple?

Be Be Winans: I guess around five or six years old.

JM: Is there a difference between singing and performing in church and on stage?

BW: When you're young and you sing before fifty people that's just as frightening as it is singing in front of thousands. Church helps you learn how to deal with the fear of standing right there in front of people. It's good training.

JM: Do you approach the performances differently?

CW: On tour you obviously have to be more professional. But we sing with all we have whether we're singing in a small church or in a stadium. In front of a crowd you have to be a lot more professional than you have to be in when you're in a choir at church. But basically you prepare the same.

JM: Are you two the youngest members of the family?

CW: Younger members, not the youngest. Be Be is number seven. My mom had seven boys straight and I'm number eight. I'm the first girl and I have two younger. There are ten of us.

JM: What made you two branch out and become a duo?

CW: It wasn't really planned. We've always had to have separate groups in the family because if we didn't we would be a choir. (laughs) Be Be and I got an opportunity to sing on television. We took that opportunity and from there we started getting bookings as a duet. People would see and hear us together. We've been a duo ever since.

JM: You got your start doing television shows?

CW: Yes on the PTL Network. Even then we were singing in a group of about eight, but because we started leading songs people would just pair us off.

JM: Are there difficulties working with your sibling?

CW: Not really. People always ask us if we compete and you can't help but compete. But we feel if one wins we all win, that's the way we were brought up. It's always a joy to work with one another. Hopefully we will be able to tour and do more things with the family.

JM: Do you write your own music?

BW: On the past two albums I've done more writing than I've ever done. Our producer Keith Thomas and I collaborate a lot and I do some of my own. On this last album, Heaven, I had my hands in nine of the songs. There is a lot of me and Keith on it.

JM: How do you draw inspiration?

BW: As you live, each day is another adventure and inspiration is needed every day. I'm not the kind of writer that sits down and says "let me write a song." I feel when a song is coming—either from an experience I've gone through or just being in church and the preacher says something that sticks with me. I never can pinpoint it. I write songs when I'm on a tennis court or wherever it hits me. I think that because there are songs that I can relate to that are from the heart, other people find inspiration in them.

JM: Do you find it easier to do more contemporary music?

BW: I'm a contemporary music lover and I've written some traditional songs as well. But I'm more of a contemporary listener. Because I'm young, I'm more in tune to young sounds.

JM: Gospel/Inspirational music often typecasts the artists. How do you get across that you're people who just happen to have deep faith?

BW: First thing, which is important, is to do the very best that we can. The rest we put in the hands of God, knowing that people need to hear what we have to say and as someone once said "Where there's a will, there's a way."

CW: When we're in the studio it's not like we go in trying to be something we're not. We just do music that we love, the type of music we can relate to. So, I believe that if I can feel what I'm singing then the people are going to feel it too.

JM: How has Gospel music changed over the years?

BW: I think the only thing that has changed has been production. I think we've grown to know a little more about technology and different things that producers create in the studio. The delivery has changed, but the message is still the same.

CW: Now everybody looks at us as artists not just Gospel singers. Our music is played on mainstream as well as Gospel radio stations. Gospel music is getting more attention than ever before.

JM: What is your outlook on life?

BW: To do the best that we can do. Being played on R&B stations encourages us because we believe that the people who need to hear what we have to say are listening to R&B stations. A lot of them are not going to go to church or tune in to a Gospel station. So our philosophy is to do our best and to relay a message through our music.

JM: Over the years, what one lesson have you learned that has made an impression on you?

BW: I learned that there is a great amount of responsibility when you're successful. The more successful you become the more open you must be. People are depending on you and they look up to you.

CW: What ever you do give it your all. Music as a tool—it can either put a smile or a frown on your face. It can lift you up or bring you down. That's what I appreciate about the music that I do, and I don't take it lightly because of the effect that it can have on people. ●

By Brian Samson

Straight To The Sky. That's the title of Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam's current album, and a description of their rise to the top of the musical world.

When she was still a teenager, Lisa Lisa met, and became a part of, the producing-writing-performing Full Force Family. Since then she and Cult Jam band members Mike Hughes and Spanador have experienced non-stop success. Her first album "Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam with Full Force," released in 1985, produced three hit singles with two of them, "I Wonder If I Take You Home" and "All Cried Out," crossing over to the Top 40 chart and reaching gold status.

After the first blush of success, the talented trio was determined to convince the general public that Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam were no "one-hit band." Their 1987 sophomore effort, "Spanish Fly," soared to platinum with the help of two more crossover singles, "Head To Toe" and "Lost In Emotion."

Lisa Lisa gives a lot of the credit for her success to the support of the Full Force Family, which includes hitmakers Cheryl Pepsii Riley, UTFO and producer Bow-Legged Lou. Also part of the Cult Jam hitmaking formula is the Columbia Records' Black Music Department. Senior VP, Black Music Ruben Rodriguez says the band is "really tuned into each other and to what's happening on the street. The confidence and effort this company has put forth created a megastar we're extremely proud of. The best is yet to come!"

And so it is. Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam's third album "Straight To The Sky" has already yielded a hit single, "Little Jackie (Wants To Be A Star)." The material symbolizes the group's growth and diversification. The new single "Just Git It Together" is a clever, vibrant production package.

I recently spoke to Lisa Lisa and she talked about the new album and her life in New York City's Hell's Kitchen, the place she still calls home. I found Lisa Lisa to be an artist whose character presents a warmth and ethnicity that has remained with her on the path to success.

BRIAN SAMSON: How did Lisa Lisa & Cult Jam evolve?

LISA LISA: I met Mike Hughes at a New York club called the Fun House. Mike, who had been a roadie with Full Force since the age of twelve, told me that they were looking for a female vocalist for a group they planned to produce and manage. I wanted a start in music so bad I told Mike that I was interested in an audition. So Mike set up an audition for me at Full Force studios, which was actually their basement. I was the seventeenth girl auditioned and I was really nervous. That evening they had me sing "I Wonder If I Take You Home." That was the song that Cheryl Pepsii Riley turned down. They were so impressed with my voice that they decided that very evening that they wanted me to do the song. Within the next three days we were in the studios recording "I Wonder If I Take You Home" and "Can You Feel The Beat." Mike knew Spanador from around the local area and also knew that he had an interest and background in music. Spanador had the kind of talent that Full Force was looking for, so Mike invited Spanador to create Cult Jam.

BS: What were you feeling the night of the audition?

LL: I was scared! I didn't know what I was getting myself in to. I had to take the train across town alone and I didn't even tell my mother what I was doing. But I knew music was my life and that this was an opportunity. When I got to the studios I was really nervous because I had seen a picture of Full Force on the wall and I said to myself, "Oh no, these guys are seriously big—who knows what can happen!" When they walked into the studio Paul Robison (Full Force member) was the first person to approach me. He said, "Well let's hear you sing 'I Wonder If I Take You Home.'" I didn't have a chance to rehearse, but I sang for them anyway. From that moment on I was really calm, and we developed a great friendship.

"... we never ever thought that we'd reach this point so fast."

BS: Was a recording career your first choice?

LL: I don't know if it was a recording career, but I knew that I wanted to do something that involved singing and I knew that with the gift that God gave me I was halfway toward my dreams.

BS: When did you first become involved with music?

LL: I first started singing in the church choir at the age of nine. It was then that I realized that I had a voice good enough to make a career with. Also, I come from a musical family—my mother and father are both vocally talented, although they never pursued a professional career. My older sister performed in a lot of off-Broadway operas, and my older brother plays in a Latin band.

BS: I understand that you come from a large family?

LL: There's brothers and sisters—seven girls and three boys, and I'm the baby.

BS: Were you actively involved with music before you met Full Force?

LL: Definitely. When I was in high school I held down two jobs at the same time. Besides that, I was performing with a traveling troupe that consisted of student dancers, singers, and musicians. We performed at local schools, convalescent homes, hospitals and Special Olympic events. We performed a lot of Broadway musicals, doo-wops and Motown reviews. I would also play in rinky dink clubs in Hell's Kitchen just to get the exposure and the contacts.

BS: Growing up in Hell's Kitchen, how did you avoid staying out of trouble and hanging around with the wrong crowd?

LL: I come from a very close knit family. There's nothing like having brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, and parents who are close. If anything would happen to any of us we'd all know about it.

BS: What kind of background did Spanador come from?

LL: Spanador was a wild kid! He was involved in anything and everything—from gangs to you name it. He got himself out of that scene. And Mike was the same, but all that changed when he started working with Full Force.

BS: How did you finally decide on signing with Columbia?

LL: Full Force had a lot of offers but Columbia took a big interest in us and had a good understanding of what we were about.

BS: When you signed with Columbia were you aware that you'd hit the big time?

LL: Not really. We were kids and didn't expect it to go this far. We said "Oh okay, we'll release this song, get a contract, make a little money here and there," but we never ever thought that we'd reach this point so fast. I knew at some point in my life that I would establish a music career but I didn't know it would be when I was still so young. It all happened very fast.

BS: What's it like being a member of the Full Force family?

LL: Full Force is like your family. They're like brothers to me. If something goes wrong

INSIDE A/C by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

The SIMPLY RED might be able to hold on to number one until the Fourth of July with the kind of stat advantage it currently enjoys. It has more HEAVY rotation reports than any other record has total stations.

A healthy growth story in rotations gives BARRY MANILOW number two with an underline, but unless MICK HUCKNALL is found to have been on steroids when he recorded "If You Don't Know Me By Now," ole BARRY will have to settle for a silver medal.

PAUL McCARTNEY, after two weeks as A/C's HOTTEST, leaps into the top ten with a 90% HIT FACTOR. "My Brave Face," only five weeks out-of-the-box, may be new enough to survive the wait for SIMPLY RED to give it up.

MICA PARIS scores a top ten in A/C with her first American release, "My One Temptation." She could be in for quite a crunch next week, however, as four underlines behind her have major momentum.

DAN HILL's "Unborn Heart" has grown by 21 chart numbers in the past two weeks. In that time HIT FACTOR has increased 49% to 72%. This week's newest players include WWNK, WKMI, KLLY, KFYP, WMBA, WJMQ, WQTU, KIXK and WEBC.

NATALIE MERCHANT and 10,000 MANIACS are finding asylum in A/C radio with "Trouble Me." It moved 36 to 31 to 22 in the past two weeks and HIT FACTOR goes 36% to 56% to 71% in that time. Already HEAVY rotation reported by KYJC, KSAL, WJON, KSGT, KFIG, KOKO, J107, WSKY etc.

Our highest chart debut, MADONNA's "Express Yourself" will have cleared more than 100 A/C's by this time next week. But three-fourths of those stations on it more than a week are already HIT FACTORing including WKYE, WAFL, KOFY/FM, WWDE, K101, WEBE, WKCX, WLAM, WMT/FM, WVMT and WKIO/FM.

Last week's TOP TIP, TIM FINN's "How'm I Gonna Sleep" debuts at 36 with a 39% HIT FACTOR. Among the A/Cs helping with rotation commitments are WHAI, WJTW, WFEB, WCHV, WLIP, KTSR, KBOL, KBLQ, WBTH and KYJC.

RECORD TO WATCH last week, JULIA FORDHAM's "Comfort of Strangers" picked up new ADDs from WCHV, WEBS, WSER, KKBj, KKMk, WEBC, WELW, WHIZ, WJEH, KFIG, KASY and WDAY/AM. With 49 total reports, her single hits CHARTBOUND.

REVIEWS

DEON ESTUS

Spell (Mika/PolyGram)

This is the song on which Deon finally steps out of George Michael's shadow and asserts his talented independence. The song should do as well in A/C radio as any other format.

PHOEBE SNOW

Something Real (Elektra)

There's a desperate melancholy to the lyric made sweet by Phoebe's strumming acoustic guitar and her ability to turn a short wish list into something real.

EL DeBARGE

Somebody Loves You (Motown)

Sure sounds like his hit singles from the past. It's the kind of song even the casual listener can become comfortable with early on.

ARETHA FRANKLIN &

WHITNEY HOUSTON

It Isn't, It Wasn't, It Ain't Never Gonna Be (Arista)

It ain't likely to be for every A/C station, but for those who choose to play it, it'll pay large dividends. As an after thought: Imagine for a moment writers Albert Hammond and Diane Warren doing a demo of this song for consideration by producer Narada Michael Walden.

NYLONS

Wildlife (Windham Hill/A&M)

A do-wop novelty record for sure, but maybe this time around this quartet will score with an original. It's full of falsetto spirit, sparkle and has harmony stacked to the ceiling.

XTC

King For A Day (Geffen)

Though this group has been totally alien to A/C radio in the past they have finally lightened-up with this track. Should be an easy play.

is RECORD TO WATCH for this week. With this follow up to "Soldier Of Love," DONNY proves he's a balladeer too. With WBEC, WLAM, WDAY/AM, KBMG, KUIQ, KKIQ and KSGT among the 20 new adds. Total reports doubled this week with a prediction that DONNY has another A/C chart mover.

ADULT CONTEMPORARY PROFILE

THE WINNERS

This is the first of a two-part feature on the Gavin's 1989 Adult Contemporary Award winners. The trio selected has consistently been honored by the broadcasting and music industry. Here are brief profiles of their radio backgrounds.

By Diane Rufer

BOBBY RICH

Bobby Rich is Program Director and anchor of the Rich Brothers Morning Zoo at Gavin Adult Contemporary award winning station, B100-San Diego, CA.

Bobby's broadcasting career started at 15 when he began doing high school news at a station in his hometown of Ephrata, WA. His first programming opportunity came in 1968 when he landed a job at KSTT-Davenport, IA. Since then he has been associated with major market stations in Miami, Toledo and New Haven, and at KHJ-Los Angeles when it was Top 40. In 1975 Bobby was the Program Director at B100 when it switched to Top 40 from Beautiful Music, and he went to number one status in the Fall of 1978. He has also had broadcasting success with WXLO-New York (now WRKS), KHTZ-Los Angeles (now KLSX) and WWSH-Philadelphia (now WEGX).

After a six year absence from B100, Rich returned and switched its format to an Adult Hits format, which can be called a Hot A/C or Adult Top 40. At the same time he developed a "Zoo" type morning show along with three other announcers, Pat Gaffey, Frank Anthony and Scott Kenyon. Their show is called "The Rich Brothers".

Bobby's success has been achieved, not only as part of the Rich Brothers but as Program Director of B100-San Diego. His success has been proven by his and the station's numerous nominations and winning various awards. At the recent 1989 Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals you could see him in the lobby of the Westin St. Francis carrying two awards - - "Adult Contemporary Program Director" and "Adult Contemporary Station Of The Year."

LIZ KILEY

The broadcasting industry does not have many women that have been honored as often as Liz Kiley. She is respected and has been honored for her air talent along with being highly acclaimed Music Director of KOST-Los Angeles, CA.

Liz, a native New Yorker, graduated from Endicott College in Beverly, MA. She caught the broadcasting industry's attention by being the first female air talent at WABC-New York in 1979. Prior to her joining KOST, Liz was Program Director of WIFI-Philadelphia in 1980 and on-air personality at WPGC-Washington, DC from 1977 to 1979.

She joined KFI-Los Angeles in 1982 and stepped over to the FM, KOST, in 1983. 1984 she was both Music Director and on-air personality with the highly rated nighttime program "Love Songs On The Coast". Liz assumed the additional responsibilities of Assistant Program Director in 1988. Recently she stepped out of the nightly "Love Songs" program but still can be heard on Sundays and fills in for vacationing KOST air talent.

Jhani Kaye, Program Director of KOST, has been quoted as saying "Liz Kiley is the perfect personality for an A/C audience. She personifies Adult Contemporary. She not only understands the goals of the radio station but she lives within our target demo and keeps her hand on the pulse of the city."

Liz's winning personality and programming abilities have been noted by numerous awards. This year she has the distinction of winning her fourth consecutive Gavin award as Adult Contemporary Music Director Of The Year.

GENE KNIGHT

Gene Knight is Music Director of B100-San Diego and also does a weekday air shift from 10AM to 2PM. Gene, a California native, has spent most of his twenty year radio career in his San Diego backyard.

When Gene was a junior in high school he tuned in KOWN-Escondido, CA and didn't like the sound of the station. He decided to call KOWN and spoke with PD Mike Larson. Mike said, "If you know more about music, come and do it yourself. He did, and his internship started his fondness for broadcasting. During his career Gene has been associated with various formats. In 1969 he had an air shift at Country station KSON-San Diego, 1972 he was at Top 40 KCBQ and in 1976 his association with B100 started. At that time it was Top 40. From there, Gene went to Album station 91X-San Diego in 1978 and then in 1980 Gene was back at B100, air personality at first and in 1982 he added Music Director to his title.

B100's Program Director Bobby Rich has full confidence in Gene's music abilities. Bobby said, "At B100 Gene is the music programmer. I quite literally find out what songs we've added when I hear them on the air. I totally trust his judgment." Gene has been nominated for awards consistently in the MD and AC Air Talent categories. At the Gavin Awards last February Gene won AC Air Talent for the second consecutive year.

Gene wants to pursue a career in management and station ownership. With his success at B100 the dreams he has could be right around the corner.

INSIDE COUNTRY

This fearsome foursome from Capitol is all smiles despite getting a little wet during their Fan Fair show last week. There was a brief rain shower during the Capitol show Thursday morning and it literally left these artists "singing in the rain." The weather, however, didn't dim the crowd's enthusiasm. From left: Dan Seals, Suzy Bogguss, Capitol's Jim Fogelsohn and Garth Brooks.

DEADLINE UPDATE. It's about a month away, but we thought we'd start warning you now. Starting the week of July 10th, the deadline for Country reports will be 4PM Tuesdays. This may mean busier phone lines on Tuesdays, so Mondays will still be the best day to report.

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT... Lowell Highby at KMHL-Marshall is now working mid-days, and will be taking music calls Monday through Wednesday after 3PM...They've got a new mailing address at WWZD. It's now P.O. Box 3300, Tupelo, MS 38803. They've also got a new line-up: mornings - Bob Merlyn; middays - Nikki Steele; 3-7 PM - Marc Sebastian; 7-midnight - Lee Adams; midnight-6 AM - Brad Davis; weekends: John Eric and Glen Tackett...The new Program Director at KUAD-Windsor is Ken Bosen, with Art Opperman taking over the MD position...Popular morning radio veterans D.D. Hamric and Shelley Ryker move from WAQT-Carrollton to WMBC-Columbus. The station's new line-up includes: Morning Madness with the Double D and Shelley 6-10 AM, Larry Bond on middays 10-3 PM, MD Rick Russell afternoons 3-7 PM, Doug Allen 7-midnight and Jeff Davis overnights...Steve Martin at WVMi-Biloxi will now be taking music calls on Mondays & Tuesdays from 9 AM til noon...Ken Donovan at KBMW -Wahpeton is now handling all music calls and reports...WAVV-Vero Beach just had an Open House to celebrate Trish Hennessey's second year on the morning show. According to Trish, it was an all day food feast...Our good friend Ed Paulson gave us a call this week to let us know what he's been up to. He's now the PD at WMNE-Menomonee. On the first of October, the station will be going from 19 hours a day to 24, and from 1,000 watts to 10,000. They would appreciate albums from all sources. Give Ed a call at 715-235-2112...

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

RANDY TRAVIS - Promises (Warner Bros.)
Randy Travis shows his dark side on a song he wrote about insecurity, disappointment and unsolvable character flaws. It's a somber song with a bleak ending—and it shows that Randy is human after all. It's great to hear him singing something other than forever and ever. When "Promises" was originally released as a B-side, many stations reported flooded request lines.

DESERT ROSE BAND - Hello Trouble (MCA/Curb)

Chris and the boys resurrected this 1962 Orville Couch hit for their last album and gave it a rockin' California treatment. It's a fun little song that has been pulling in requests as an LP cut for months.

BILLY HILL - Too Much Month At The End Of The Money (Reprise)

Just who is this Billy Hill? Turns out to be a collection of songwriters and studio guys including John Scott Sherrill, Bob DiPiero, Dennis Robbins, Reno Kling and Martin Parker, who got together under an assumed name for this project. They're ripping and roaring through one of the best working-class anthems we've heard in a long time.

RODNEY CROWELL - Above And Beyond (Columbia)

Here's another single from Rodney's breakthrough Diamonds And Dirt album. It's the only song on the album not written by Rodney, a Harlan Howard honky-tonk classic that comes in at 2:26. What's not to like?

k.d. lang - Full Moon Full Of Love (Sire)
Ms. lang's incredible voice never ceases to amaze. Her recently released LP, Absolute Torch And Twang, which reunites k.d. with her reclines, is an exceptional album and "Full Moon" is a fitting first single for Country radio. Don't miss the boat on this one!

ALBUM OF THE WEEK

RICKY SKAGGS - Kentucky Thunder (Epic)

1989's turning out to be a good year for Ricky. Wife Sharon White gave birth to a boy in early May, Ricky just got through producing Dolly Parton's White Limozeen LP, and now he comes out with Kentucky Thunder, which could prove to be one of his finest albums to date. The first single, "Lovin' Only Me" already went to #2 on the Gavin Country chart. "Hummingbird" (you may recognize this cut from Restless Heart's Wheels LP) contains some of the liveliest pickin' you're likely to have heard in a while. Ricky offers a great rendition of "Lonesome For You," a song released as a single earlier this year by Skaggs' sideman Chris Austin. Other highlights include "Heartbreak Hurricane," "Kentucky Thunder," and "He Was Onto Somethin' (So He Made You)."

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

IMAGES - RALPH MOORE (LANDMARK/FANTASY)

Many of us first heard Ralph Moore on Bobby Hutcherson's landmark Cruisin' The Bird LP. As a result of Hutcherson's enthusiasm, here is Londoner's Ralph Moore's first poke at fronting his own album. On Images, things swiftly get down to business on "Freeway," which turns into a real bopping freeway fly. But our favorite is a Hank Mobely song that's dusted off, beaten and shaken by Ralph and the band. On this track Moore soars and swings with both second and inner sight. Also check out "Blues For John," a joyous tribute that is "up" rather than "out." Of course there's solid support from the remainder of the crew (including Terence Blanchard) under the direction of Orrin Keepnews and Rudy Van Gelder, two guys who have heard and seen it all.

AT LAST - LOU RAWLS (BLUE NOTE)

After singing the blues, Jazz, soul, pop, Top Forty, Urban, beer spots (ouch), A/C—you name it—Lou Rawls feels the urge to return to some kind of pure Jazz/Adult sensibility. This is indicated by the company he keeps, including Diane Reeves who shares duet responsibilities on the opening title track. Produced by Billy Vera, another character who has drunk from the pop/soul/large ensemble chalice, Rawls plans his roots comeback with a hodgepodge of influences including bluesy Lyle Lovett (!) tunes like "Good Intentions" and "She's No Lady." I don't know whether it's Billy Vera the pianist or the producer that's done it, but to those who have been longing to hear Mr. Rawls' silky voice once again take on a true blues number with somebody like Ray Charles (on "That's Where It's At" written by Sam Cooke, no less)...well, at last!

AVALON SUNSET - VAN MORRISON (MERCURY)

Here's a strong consideration for Adult Alternative. It's a gem of a diversion if, as programmers and alternative adults, we're up to the challenge of incorporating a beautiful, spiritual offering by Van The Man.

Avalon Sunset features a portrait of the artist as well as his more astral self discoveries. If A/A listeners stand for anything, it's for the maturity of an artist like Van Morrison, who from a radio standpoint, is homeless and available. Most of Avalon Sunset is a gleaming success. The material ranges from a awakened pop ("Whenever God Shines His Light") to string arrangements ("Have I Told You Lately," "Coney Island" into "I'm Tired Joey Boy") to meditative compositions ("Contacting My Angel"). Morrison even manages to turn a mental block into "I'd Love To Write Another Song," an easy bluesy pleaser. Side two is the "band" side of an album full of wonder and introspection.

DID JAH MISS ME??? - TOM COSTER (HEADFIRST/K-TEL)

Tom, how can we miss you when you won't go away? Seriously, it's been a while since Tom Coster's solo efforts on Fantasy, but he's been around in spirit—especially after hearing Tuck & Patti's latest version of "Europa," a standard he co-wrote with Carlos Santana. Back in the daze when there were just pianists and organists, Coster was one of the first to graduate to the role of keyboardist. When most players were lugging their leslies and chopping their B-3's, Tom was onstage with Santana trying out every prototype synthesizer imaginable. This time around Coster is a more traditional bandleader, enlisting saxman Ernie Watts' jazzy signatures. Compositions favor woodwinds and synths and are far less fusion and guitar-oriented than past efforts. Coster's son, Tom Jr., joins in and bassist Randy Jackson and drummer Steve Smith return. The first three tracks, "Ant Dance," "It's Just A Matter Of Love" and the title track set the feel for the entire package. But don't count out "The Thang" and "Tommy" for something more edgy. Welcome back, Maltese Falcon.

CRYSTAL ECHO - EMIKO KAI (CBS-FM)

Sometimes you think, "Jeez, what more can be said in a Jazz trio configuration these days?" Maybe Tokyo club sensation Emiko Kai thought twice when she opted towards adding guitarist Kiotsugu Amano on guitar, thus adding more dimension to Crystal Echo's intentions. After repeated listenings, we retreated to "Song For Nausicaa" and "D.O.L.F.I.N." The former is a marvelous, upbeat tune with a daring, note-by-note, duet with Kai on piano and Amano on acoustic guitar. The drums are absolutely driving with a real punch-in-the-stomach kick and snare sound. "D.O.L.F.I.N." grooves more and reveals Kai's thoughtful melodic capabilities. Crystal Echo is this week's Jazz Record To Watch, but explore the dual-format possibilities.

EMIKO KAI

CRYSTAL ECHO

ELLA MENTAL (WARNER BROS.)

Ella Mental is a transplanted talent from South Africa that recently relocated to the freer streets of London. Producer Stewart Levine, fresh from breaking American ground for Ivan Lins, twiddles the knobs on this one. For the Adult Alternative, proceed directly to their version of Bob Marley's "No Woman No Cry." Its progressive instrumental fits in nicely.

MINDSCAPES - GIL MELLE (BLUE NOTE)

With the bio still in the mail, Gil Melle's Mindscales is a potential curve ball. Normally one would regard a Blue Note release as something that goes bop. Yet Melle's electronic musical topographies kinda goes hummmm and relates back to the innocence of the progressive adult, New Age days. Melle's paintings, both on the cover and within the sound bytes, will draw quick comparisons to Vangelis—mostly due to the suspected notions that both musicians take a spontaneous attitude towards composition. "Anti-Gravition" pushes the aural envelope. Spacey stuff.

NEW RELEASES

"SOME HEARTS" - MARSHALL CRENSHAW (WARNER BROS.)

Doing his best Cliff Richard impression, Marshall Crenshaw delivers his best, most introspective song of his career. Crenshaw sings about surviving the emotional rat race with contemporary flair. As the song unfolds, you'll hear a fiddle and mandolin in the music mix, something I didn't notice until the fifth play.

"JUNKYARD" - TREAT HER RIGHT (RCA)

A second entry from what Peter Standish and I dub as one of this year's tragically overlooked (so far) great releases. "Junkyard" is, quite simply, a tour of a junkyard. Of course the junkyard could mean whatever you want it to mean—a physical or emotional scrap heap. I especially like the spoken tour guide that speaks up at the three minute mark. If you ask me, this is the true "powerful stuff."

SHAKESPEARE ALABAMA - DIESEL PARK WEST (EMI)

Diesel Park West's selection of their album title halfway describes the music. DPW is very much a European band, although they incorporate an American spirit into their music, drawing influences from such obscure sixties bands as Moby Grape and Love. But their brand of rock n roll is rooted in the current tradition of passion, much the same way bands like U2 and Hothouse Flowers conjure up dramatic images of relationships, mental states or the odd political issue. Like his work with Marillion, producer Chris Kimsey captures much of the live band sound, opting to embellish later only when needed. So with a raw sound and a polished perspective (not to mention a few Bob Clearmountain mixes), Diesel Park West size up to be a force of the future.

"YOU DON'T GET MUCH" - THE BODEANS (REPRISE)

One of the finest live gigs in recent memory was when the BoDeans (between U2 gigs) played their very own club set on a day off from the arenas. It was then that a relieved BoDeans tore the place up. Ironically, "You Don't Get Much" sounds like the U2 experience rubbed off in a big way. The guitar picking patterns and vocals sound very similar.

HEART SHAPED WORLD - CHRIS ISAAK (REPRISE)

The relationship that Chris Isaak has with his band is an all-important one. His music is a reverent blend of crooning rock and rockabilized shuffle and backbeats. The mystique is a dark combination of the tears of Roy Orbison, the smoldering charm of early Elvis and the teetering vulnerability of fifties Chet Baker. So Heart Shaped World is actually the best of both worlds—that is, a strong central individual identity coupled with a very tight band sound. Guitarist Jimmy Wilsey is an important on-stage and studio foil while drummer Kenney Dale Johnson is one of the best roots drummers available. "I'm Not Waiting," "Don't Make Me Dream About You" and the low key, bluesy "Blue Spanish Sky."

BIG GAME - WHITE LION (ATLANTIC)

In the era of "perception is reality," many a band gets pegged by their haircuts. From the opening strains of "Goin' Home Tonight," White Lion has positioned themselves as more than a hard riff outfit. Guitarist Vito Bratta still utilizes familiar metal tones, yet the song structures showcase the solos in a more dramatic style. Plus the lyrics aren't subservient to a mindless metal mindset. Instead songs like "Cry For Freedom" and "Little Fighter" aspire toward more important life images. "If My Mind Is Evil" is a retaliation against metal-bashing parental groups and religious zealots. "Living On The Edge" focuses on disenfranchised youth, except that this song deals with someone who is both college-educated and on the verge of homelessness. A cover of Golden Earring's "Radar Love" is thrown in for good measure. So set aside any preconceptions you may have about White Lion. Big Game is excellent rock n roll for impressionable minds of all ages.

"ADDICTED TO THAT RUSH" - MR. BIG (ATLANTIC)

More hard rock that draws from musicianship and youthful energy. Eric Martin, Billy Sheehan, Paul Gilbert and Pat Torpey exchange a kinetic, almost fusion type fury. Stripped to the basics, Mr. Big learned their parts, walked into the studio and let it rip and fly. "Addicted To That Rush" sounds like a four ring circus of power.

ODDS AND SODS

DON HENLEY. In the Most Added dogfight this week, Don Henley barely inched past the stalwart Pete Townshend in a close match. Virtually tied with forty-five adds apiece, Henley came in a mere 31 points ahead in total rotation points, that is, the combined point totals of adds, hits, and mediums. Hence the higher debut for Don Henley, whose mellow collaboration with Bruce Hornsby is growing on programmers with each spin and pleasing listeners with request reports. The Henley/Townshend progress should be one of this year's closely watched competitions. Once the entire albums are released, infinitely more of the picture will unfold. Both albums represent multi-year projects for two modern Album Radio staples.

RETURN OF AROUND THE HORN. Here are some of the aromatic buzzes picked up off the phone this week...Dayna Steele at KLOL emphasizes her commitment to her successful air slot. Sez Steele, "Yes, I have considered the (PD) position...we have decided that it would be impossible for me to take on the duties of PD in addition to a five hour airshift. Right now I'm sitting at the #3 position 12+ in the market for middays and I ain't gonna give that up!" Dayna will once again be "acting PD" until a selection has been made...Jeff Damon wonders—and so do I—if it isn't a weird co-incidence that China Crisis (doing well at WMVY) is turning up on chroma-key slides on network TV news broadcasts. Plus there's action on "St. Saviour's Square," the lead key. Eerie...One of my favorite hard rockaholics (next to Sheila Rene, of course) is Gary Hatchell at WDNS-Bowling Green, who is on his second Queensryche trax as well as adding a new band, Bang Tango on MCA...Don Alias at KRQK and I agree on White Lion. Very big and a mucho important Album Radio band. KRQK is also high on the new Warrant track, "Heaven"...Jane Frederickson at KTCZ reports solid response to Don Henley in addition to good reaction to Sam Brown's track, "Stop." Lots of calls for Anderson, Wakeman, etc., known to KTCZ listeners as Yes, like it or not. Also co-existing at KTCZ are the Indigo Girls, a longtime staple since its release.

SHAVING THOUGHTS. It happens in the majors, both major labels and Major League baseball. Once Derek Shulman hit Atco, a trade was set up swapping Stevie Nicks and Pete Townshend to Atlantic, and in return Atco got AC/DC and Bad Company. Any future prospects thrown in for sweetening?...While Top Forty is resurrecting overlooked hits like Q Feel, UB40 and Benny Mardones, how about playing singles at the wrong speed? For starters, the Bananarama version of "Help" sounds exactly like the Moody Blues when played at 33 and a 1/

3...I got a call from Top Forty station KIQY in Albany, Oregon. Close to Oregon State University, the station features a popular Album/Alternative show twice a week called Campus Traxx. Mike Shannon is looking for more music. Send him some sounds at 743 Main Street, Lebanon, OR, 97355 or call at 503-928-9601. He's getting service, but is looking to round things out. KZ

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO by Peter Standish

Please note the new deadline for our Tuesday reports has been moved back one hour to 4:00 PM Pacific time.

It was close but the Cure finally prevailed and took over the number one position on the chart. The Darling Buds also broke free from the chart logjam. The Call made a spectacular leap as did Blue Rodeo. Phranc debuts behind the avid support of Greg Vegas-WXCI, Jim McNeill-WCDB, and Glen Booth-WXYC. Maria McKee also debuts with Sparky-KUNV and Mike Thomas-WMDK reporting heavy response. The Lemonheads were the number one Most Added and should debut next week. Although Peter Gabriel didn't make Chartbound, his soundtrack is already beyond temptation for Wyn Morris-WRFL, Amy Dermont-WSMU, and Ann Delisi-WDET. Suicide is our sleeper Record To Watch—be sure to check this one out. Roger Miller just missed IMPORT/INDIE section, but it's already attracting hot reaction from Pam Konkol-WNUR and Maggie McCabe-KCMU. Oz-91X reports that Mary's Danish won the station's "People's Choice" contest this week.

NEW RELEASES

The Gift - BULLET LAVOLTA (Taang!)

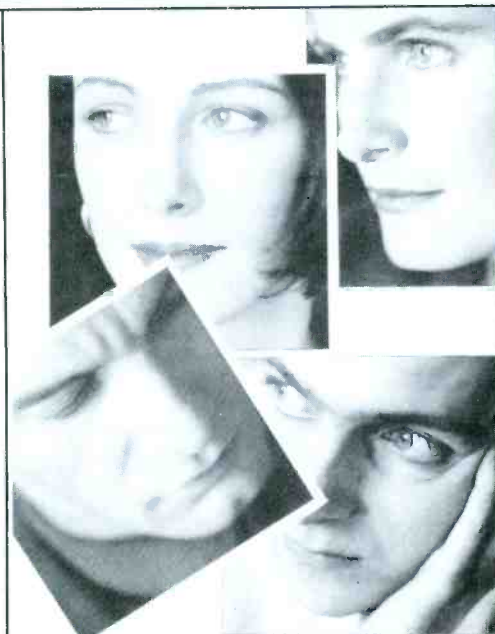

Put on your asbestos suit for raw and ranging rock. The freshly mined open-nerved guitars and vocals will make your throat sore just listening. Bullet Lavolta are one of those Alternative bands that could surely cross over into the hard rock/metal territory. Key cuts include "XFire," "Mother Messiah," "Little Tiny Pieces," "The Gift" and "One Room Down." Call Taang at (617) 965-5673. PS

ART = REALITY

London - GREATER THAN ONE (Wax Trax)

Greater Than One has a distinct industrial dance sound that combines disco/rock with classical undertones and jolting lyrics. "Now Is The Time" uses samplings of Martin Luther King's dramatic "I Have A Dream" speech. Check out "Slave," "Kunst Gleich Kapital," "Song For England" and "The Truth." I guarantee you won't be able to sit still. ROBERT BARONE

Sue - FRAZIER CHORUS (Virgin-UK)

Having released two import singles, "Sloppy Heart" (1987) and "Dream Kitchen" (1989), Frazier Chorus step forward with their import-only debut LP. Sue exposes the talents of this jazz, ambient, yet pleasantly aggressive quartet. Song's deal with love psychosis, weather and the subconscious mind. Tracks: "Storm," "Ha-ha-happiness," "Sugar High," "Forgetful" and "Ski-Head." RB they'll be there for me. It's more than just a business relationship. We have a special family type of relationship where their mom is my mom. Mrs. George is just fabulous—she and my mother get along just like sisters. She'll call me to see if I'm doing fine or if I'm away she'll check up on my husband to see if he's okay. Everyone is always concerned about each other and we always keep an open line of communication. I think the honest thing about the Full Force Family is that as fast as we climbed up that ladder we still remember where we came from.

BS: With the success of the last two albums it's evident that Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam weren't another one hit band. What do you feel has been the key to your success?

LL: Our ability to produce a different sound each time we come out. We don't like to stay the same—we like to change with the times. What we really want to bring back is the feeling of the "live" band music from the '60s and early '70s. I think that's what's kept us on the top. While everyone's doing that mainstream sound we come in from left field.

BS: How do you describe your sound?

LL: It's just Cult Jammin' (laughs).

BS: What artists influenced you musically?

LL: Well, I think when I was growing up I listened to a lot of the Jackson 5, Roberta Flack, Gladys Knight & The Pips, and the Supremes. If it was on Motown I liked it. But my idol was always Patti Labelle. To me she's like the mother of female vocalists.

BS: What's your feeling toward rap music?

LL: It's a form of expressing a personal or political message, and I think it's going to be around for a very long, long time. My favorite rap group is Public Enemy, because they're like the U2 of rap. They're socially and politically aware of what's happening today, and they really get their message across through their performance. They're a really cool group.

BS: Speaking of messages, do you incorporate your personal experiences into your material and performance?

LL: Yes, I try to make everything as real as possible. You're not just going to write a song and not put forth any emotion. That's the way it is, if you want someone to feel your song, you have to perform with feelings behind it. That's the way Full Force is. Everything they make has to be real. It's like the rappers who are out there now—they're expressing all of their thoughts and experiences by sending a message through their voice.

BS: How did the Straight To The Sky album evolve?

LL: I think the way to do an album is to just jot down everything that comes to mind. For us everything came along spontaneously. The way we worked with Full Force is that whenever they came up with a piece they would call one of us up and play it over and over, and ask us what we thought. From there they just added to it. Sometimes we'd go into a studio with just a drum machine and come up with a tune. Everyone would contribute to the whole song, and that's how we came up with our album.

BS: What are some of the contrasts between the first two albums compared to Straight To The Sky?

LL: The first album was definitely a chance for us to see what course we were taking. We based it on the dance scene. On the Spanish Fly album we went all out—we did a little bit of everything because we wanted the cross-over appeal. We added a little bit of pop, Motown, club appeal, and a little touch of Latin. On Straight To The Sky, the material demonstrates how much Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam has grown. On this album we wanted to do something different and have some fun. Listen to "Little Jackie." When we first heard it we had to sit there and let it soak in. But that's what we want our music to do, make you sit down and listen. We want it to be something you can remember and relate to.

BS: Why was "Little Jackie (Wants To Be A Star)" released as the debut single?

LL: Because it's different from what everyone else has out now. Everyone's coming out with a dance hit that sounds the same, we just wanted to be different and do something that everyone liked. Plus, Little Jackie is a true story, it's everybody's true story, every little girl out there dreams of becoming a star some day.

BS: After reading your bio I said to myself, "Little Jackie must be Lisa in disguise."

LL: Everybody thinks that Little Jackie is Lisa, but it's not. It's every little girl's dream of going for what she wants to be. We're kind of playing the role of Jackie telling people out there that if you want to be somebody go for it, but don't get yourself into anything that you can't get out of.

BS: How has success changed your life?

LL: I'm still the same person I was before I became a part of Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam. I'm not into all that starstruck stuff. Acting like you're always in the spotlight isn't me. It aggravates me when people ask me, "Where's your fur, where's your limo, where's your bodyguards?" People are surprised when they see me walking around my old neighborhood in shorts and a T-shirt listening to my Walkman. I don't wear any make-up when I'm hanging out and I wear very little make-up when I'm working. I like to be the same person that God put on this earth—this is what he's given me and I'm making the best of it.

BS: I understand that you got married in September.

LL: I married John Yulfo. I fell in love with this guy the week after I met him. John and I are very compatible—both of us have learned how to deal with the demands of my career, especially when I have to tour.

BS: What's the ultimate goal for Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam?

LL: To just keep going on forever 'til I run out of breath (laughs).

BS: What advice would you give up and coming musicians?

LL: Go for your goals and take advantage of whatever comes your way. It may take a long time or it may come fast, but if you work hard enough it'll come. ●

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

LIVING COLOUR - Open Letter (To A Landlord) (Epic)

Addressing the nation's housing problem isn't an issue most rock bands would or could tackle in a song. But Vernon Reid and Living Colour lay it all out in the mix of one smokin' track. Few groups on the street are hotter than them right now.

LIVING IN A BOX - Blow The House Down (Chrysalis)

Must be the week for "living" music. A driving rhythm powers this production that's bound to shake a foundation or two. Crank up the boom box 'cause it deserves getting played at FULL volume.

CROSSOVER PICKS

SURFACE - Shower Me With Your Love (Columbia)

As we've learned by the resurrection of old releases during the past few years, some worthy songs narrowly miss the mark nationally. That's what I feel happened to Surface's last single, "Closer Than Friends," which scored big most everywhere it got played. This entry, which explodes 15-6 on our URBAN CONTEMPORARY chart, is even stronger. An out 'n out summertime hit ballad!

SOUL II SOUL - Keep On Movin' (Virgin)

There's something for everyone on this ultra-hip blend of musical styles and influences. Not surprising that KMEL MD Hosh Gureli says, "This serious jam has across the board appeal—hot with adults, kids, in the clubs you name it." Keeps on movin' up at KMEL 8-6, Z100 15-12 and HOT97 New York 17-12 with adds at EAGLE106, WHYT, WTIC/FM and WPLJ.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

DAN HILL - Real Love (Columbia)

The sincerity of his soul and the texture of his voice make for an awesome combination of musical expression. His early tour de force, SOMETIMES WHEN WE TOUCH, created an honest-to-gosh, spontaneous wave of adult reaction when it was first played back in 1977. It read like a classic Hallmark Valentine's Day card—sentimental to the bone. And Dan's best recent tracks have been those up-close and personal, one-to-one songs. On this new album Dan continues his exploration of relationships—questioning selfishness, extolling the virtues of bonded love-ships and, in UNBORN HEART, the album's most special moment, capturing the overwhelming joy of expectant parenthood. The album's opener, WHY DO WE ALWAYS HURT THE ONES WE LOVE is a rhetorical inquisition with moments of towering ballad power production. Another title in the form of a question, WHAT DO YOU WANT, is less rhetorical and one of the LP's most comfortable moments. The title track, (CAN THIS BE) REAL LOVE is written by Dan in collaboration with the mother of the unborn child (and Dan's wife) Beverly Chapin-Hill, who coincidentally wrote CAN'T WE TRY, the big hit off the last Hill album.
