MINOR'S A GIANT PRESIDENT

The anticipated announcement that industry veteran Charlie Minor would leave A&M for Giant came at presstime.

Minor, who worked at A&M

pening to me right now."

During his successful career at A&M, Minor was instrumental in the careers of an impressive array of superstars including Janet Jackson, the Police, Kenny Rogers, Styx and the Carpenters. He also worked as Sr. VP Promotion for EMI and Sr. VP Promotion for ABC Records. He is a past Gavin Award winner.

Azoff enthused, "Charlie is a rock and roll Picasso. This is an historic moment at Giant Records to have one of our most creative and valued industry leaders join our team," twice for a total of 17 years, has been named President of Giant Records.

"It's always been a dream of mine to work with (label owner) Irving Azoff and my second family after A&M in the music industry has always been (label distributor) Warner Bros. especially Michael and Mo Ostin," said Minor of his decision. "So if a man could ever have a dream come true, that's what's hap-

Zoo Entertainment continued to staff its promotion department this week, announcing that Michael Prince has joined the label as National Director, Promotion.

Prince's career highlights include his start in 1976 as Regional Promotion Manager for Atlantic Records in Atlanta and a stint as Tour Manager for rocker Billy Squier. Immediately before tak-

Commercial and College Subcharts

GAVIN ALTERNATIVE COVERAGE EXPANDS

Due to popular demand from both the radio and music community, the Gavin Report will feature expanded Alternative chart coverage.

This expansion debuts in the form of two additional charts dubbed The Gavin Alternative Subcharts. One subchart will be labeled Commercial Intensive, the other College Intensive. Here's how it's done:

After the main Alternative chart is finished and logged, we are able to reach into our data base and pull out two additional sets of statistics. One set shows what the chart would look like with only a Commercial Alternative sample, the other only College. These chart supplements will become a weekly feature starting this issue.

"Both inside and outside the Gavin organization I've watched the Alternative chart and community evolve," said Alternative Editor Linda Ryan. "Since we're still in a growth mode both musically and as a radio format, we feel a need and demand for more specific, accurate information. This is an attempt to fill that need."

"This came out of many discussions with radio and industry folk, and we talked about it in depth at this year's Seminar breakout sessions," added Kent Zimmerman, who oversees the Alternative, Album, Adult Alternative and Jazz sections of Gavin. "I feel this direction incorporates most of the ideas that were presented. Plus, I think you'll be seeing our other Gavin formats following suit."

You can check out this week's Alternative Subcharts on page 54. Linda Ryan will be compiling the College Intensive subchart while Kent Zimmerman will put together the Commercial Intensive. Our first number ones were R.E.M. on the Commercial side, while Dinosaur Jr. topped the College subchart.

Martin Resigns, Talmadge Joins

RCA RECONSTRUCTS A&R

After seven years with the label, Mary Martin has resigned her position as Vice President of A&R for RCA/Nashville. During her tenure with the label, Martin brought into the RCA fold Baillie and The Boys, and worked closely with Paul Overstreet, Aaron Tippin, Lorrie Morgan and the late Keith Whitley. Martin will work with RCA as a song consultant for special projects.

Replacing Mary Martin as Vice President, A&R is Russ Talmadge, who comes to the label from Warner/Elektra/Asylum Music-Refuge Productions where he was Vice President.

"We are very fortunate to have Randy on the RCA team," said Josh Leo, Vice President and Head of A&R. "He has had many years of experience as a publisher as well as successfully discovering and developing new talent."

History was made last week as Michael Jackson signed a contract with Sony Music potentially worth $1 billion. Included in the pact will be six new Jackson albums, movies, television and short films. Jackson will start up his own label, "Nation Records." Shown passing big bucks l-r: Epic Records President Dave Glew; Columbia Pictures Entertainment Co-Chairman Jon Peters; Jackson; Sony Music President Tommy Mottola; Columbia Pictures Entertainment Co-Chairman Peter Guber.

the GAVIN REPORT

East West Records America executives got together recently to celebrate the signing of Simply Red. The band, lead by the dynamic performer Mick Hucknall, will have an album out in September. Seated l-r: Band manager Andy Dodd; Hucknall; Band manager Elliot Rashman. Standing l-r: EWA Co-presidents Vince Faraci and Sylwia Rhone; EWA U.K.'s Max Hole.

Don Burkheimer is Senior Vice President, Sony Music, West Coast.

Ron Howie is Vice President, Field Marketing at RCA Records.

Daryl Booth is Senior Director, Account Development at RCA Records.

CORRECTION:

In last week's column by Eric Norberg, answers to the F.C.C. quiz were listed incorrectly. You will recall, they corresponded with questions asked in the March 15 issue. This is how they should read: Answers 1 through 6 are correct; Number 7 = c; Number 8 should correspond with question #9 from 3/15 and the answer is c; Number 9 should correspond with #10 from 3/15 and the answer is c; Number 10 should correspond with #11 from 3/15 and the answer is b. We regret any confusion.

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Remaining sensitive to the prevailing public mood is an ongoing requirement for advertisers, politicians, entertainers and yes—broadcasters. Whatever our collective consciousness prior to January 16th, 1990, war news over the next six weeks preoccupied our lives (just ask all the music stations who took a hit in just-released Arbitrends) and made us grow weary of conflict. In the aftermath of Operation Desert Storm, the question of how listeners perceive “radio wars” is something worth pondering. Hard-fought Top 40 battles for market dominance are as old as the format itself and aren’t likely to end anytime soon. But the aggressive manner in which they are conducted needs to be re-evaluated. What was acceptable a few short months ago could have negative impact under current conditions. Taken to the extreme, consider the comments of 27 year-old Thoraya Qadiri, a resident of Kuwait City. Consultant Alan Burns, of Alan Burns and Associates, passed along her quote to stations saying little more than, “read what you will” into it. This woman says, “These seven months have been like seven years. We spent our life running after food, listening to the radio all the time. It was very depressing. It was like a war between radio stations—and in the end, we didn’t believe anything.” Alan’s feeling is that, “In an awful lot of situations, radio stations, especially Top 40 stations, are yelling at their audience in the name of being energetic or yelling at or about another radio station. The audience frankly doesn’t care. They care about what benefits them.” In checking your believability quotient, Alan notes, “You can attack other radio stations, but you need to do it in a believable fashion—explain why you’re better.” Aggressiveness, it seems, needs to be tempered with warmth, sincerity, believability and value to the customer. Also related to the subject of public mood, the patriotism Americans expressed during the Gulf War continues to thrive in this post-war period and will certainly reach a fever pitch this weekend. Nice to see the “Morning Show Monthly,” put out by the Morning Show Consulting Group, remind stations that April 7th is “Troop Appreciation Day.” They offer six suggestions on how to get involved. Examples are: “do an All-American weekend, with all American artists,” “Operation Desert Shoulder—helping families of troops who haven’t yet come home” or my favorite—“changing a street in your town to ‘Schwarzkopf Street.’” For a detailed run-down, just call (203) 459-0606 to get a copy of the newsletter.

Save a future Top Ten slot for DIVINYLS, who chalk up their best week to-date. HIT

FACTOR increases 13% to 22% on the strength of big gains at Z100 New York 15-8, POWER 99 Atlanta 11-6, KIIS Los Angeles 21-15, 104 KRBE Houston 12-9, WPST Trenton, NJ 14-7, Q105 Tampa 15-7, KDOG Mankato, MN 21-11, KRQ Tucson 27-20, KZZP Phoenix 18-13, KOZE Lewiston, ID 14-8 and KLIK Fairfield/Ottumwa, IA 22-12 “requests have doubled—no complaints.”

A better than average sales and request story continues to develop on EXTREME week after week. Kevin Kollins, APD/MD at KGLI Sioux City, IA, takes it 37-22 after four weeks of play and says it’s “top three in requests and that includes women 25 plus.” Also moving into the top twenty at WYHT 21-11, Q104 24-19, WRKY 23-18, Y94 25-18, WIXX 30-19 “Amazing sales picture—top ten at almost every outlet within a 75-mile radius and consistently top ten on the phones with all ages. One lady asked to hear the song that sounds like the Everly Brothers!!,” WPST 25-18, KKCK 27-19, KQKY 24-14, KJBR 23-18, etc.

Early indications from as far back as six weeks ago pointed to HI-FIVE scoring their first Top 40 success and that’s what has happened. Top Five at WCKZ Charlotte, KS104 Denver, FM102 Sacramento, WNVZ Norfolk, KSTN Stockton, B95 Fresno, KMEL San Francisco and KGGI San Bernardino. Thirty-nine adds including Y95 Dallas, KZZP Phoenix, FM104 Modesto/Stockton, KISS 108 Boston, KZOU Little Rock, Z100 Portland, KC101 New Haven, CT, KROC Rochester, MN, WHY Montgomery, AL, Z100 New York and POWER 106 Los Angeles.

QUEENSRYCHE is the big mover of the week at WMDM Lexington Park, MD 40-27.

MD Beverly Farmer reports, “getting tons of calls from men 18-34 and adult women with younger demos starting to respond.” Gaining in a big way at WCIL 19-14 “top ten requests,” WKPQ 18-12, WHCG 28-19, KQKY 33-24, WJJH 18-9, KHSS 11-5, KEWB 27-11, KFMW 30-22 “number one requests,” etc. Added #25 at KBQ St. Louis, MO.

Over 100 reports in only two weeks for R.E.M., who showed up in the MOST ADDED column last week. WLVY Elmira, NY makes it their hottest gainer 37-26. New on WQGN, WCIL, WWCK, Y95, KOZE, KMOK, KXKT, KTMT, KAKS, KLBQ, KC101, G105, WZZR, WHY, Q104, KKXL/FM, KQLA and OK95.

Only three reports shy of the 100 report mark, CELINE DION is making her move to enter the CHARTBOUND arena next week. Added at KLUC Las Vegas, 93Q Houston, WPST, KC101, WQID Biloxi, WKSM Pensacola, FM104, ZFUN Moscow, KZZO/FM Clovis, KIMN Ft. Collins, KKXL/FM Grand Forks, WFMF Baton Rouge, etc.

Hottest track off the “New Jack City” soundtrack comes from COLOR ME BADD. Expect this one to explode, which it’s already doing at Q106 San Diego 22-15 “number two in total requests—number one adult phones” and KMEL 20-12 “massive sales and requests.” Adds include KOY/FM, KKFR, POWER 99.9 KHI, KMQQ, HOT 97.7, Q105, WFHN/FM, WCKZ, KS104, WNVZ, KDON, KXXR, etc.

MONIE LOVE closes in on the top twenty at KISS 108 Boston 29-23 and HOT 97 New York 29-24.

By now, programmers can pretty much count on never counting out a UB40 release. The band’s latest moves back onto UP & COMING with Top Ten stats in Houston at MIX 96.5 and #1 listings for 104 KRBE 2-1 and 3-1 for 93Q. Also Top Ten at KBQ 10-8 and KMQQ Honolulu 17-10, with PD Kimo Akane and MD Kriss Hart noting, “The group always does well here—their concerts are sell-outs. A top ten track at retail for us.” Top fifteen at KYRK Las Vegas 16-14 and added at KLUC, WCIL, POWER 99, KPSI, KISN, KS104 and Y108.

THERE IS

A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE

■ You need someone to objectively monitor your station's music but you don't know where to begin.

■ Or, you have a vexing question about Arbitron or Birch, but don't know where to turn.

■ Perhaps it's a market research project you'd like to conduct, but need guidance on how to do it (or have it done). Is there a guru to help you with that challenge?

Look no further. The Gavin Report to the rescue!

The above are just several examples of the kinds of questions yours truly has fielded in the almost two and one-half years I've been writing for Gavin. We're here to help and we enjoy the give-and-take with stations.

However, a call came in recently that made us sit up and take notice. Perhaps, it occurred to us, some of you weren't fully utilizing our services as ratings/research doctor for a simple reason—you don't know who Jhan (pronounced John) Hiber is and what his background consists of. Let's clear that up. Then maybe we can help (no charge) more of you.

WHO ARE YOU?

This whole topic came into my consciousness recently when a reader from a medium-sized market in Missouri called. He wanted his free consultation. The more I got into his situation, the more I was able to help, and he wondered aloud, "Who are you? All I know is what I read in the Gavin."

Born in a log cabin—(no, I guess that's been done). I was born in a radio station—that's closer to the truth. My parents were both broadcasters. Dad owned and managed stations, Mom was on the air, created wonderful promotions—not to mention doing traffic and continuity. Heck of a gene pool, eh? Designer genes, you might say. My baby pictures show me playing in the transmitter room of my Dad's station, WJOL in Joliet, Illinois (outside of Chicago).

Without going into gory details about the early years of my career—when, maybe like many of you, I bounced around a bit, here are some background items that have come in handy in my years of consulting (and writing):

- on air with radio and TV news
 - sold radio and TV time
 - managed radio and TV stations (at 28, became GM of a radio/TV combo)
 - had some ad agency experience as media buyer and copywriter
- ...so my varied background prepared me for the ultimate challenge: Arbitron!

FATHER OF QUARTERLY MEASUREMENT

The career stop that has, in my ways, shaped my future indelibly (and allows me to offer you some informed perspectives) took place in 1977. During a two-year span, yours truly was Manager, Syndicated Radio Market Reports and Services for Arbitron. In English that means I had the challenging chore of producing the radio ratings books for over 250 markets surveyed on a regular basis by Arbitron. Worked my @#% off!

During my tenure in Beltsville (Laurel HQ didn't exist then), lots was going on the the radio ratings business. Among the major changes made or begun during my time were:

- Beginning to measure homes in which the telephone number was not listed
 - Switching from surveys that were four weeks in length to the current 12-week cycle
 - Starting to research different ways of measuring ethnic populations (Blacks, Hispanics)
- The fact that these three major modifications respectively—Expanded Sample Frame, Quarterly Measurement and Differential Survey Treatment—took place or were begun while yours truly was there kept me hopping. Talk about being in the right place at the right time! It was obvious to me that these revisions were going to have huge impacts on the future of the radio biz and I had a great seat to watch it all happen. Ever since, especially beginning when my consultancy opened in 1979, my mission in life has been to help broadcasters understand the Arbitron system—and suggest ways to do well in it.

By the way, those of you who need help with Birch need not be frustrated either. Birch was kind enough to have me serve on their Technical Advisory Board for an extended period in the '80s—and Birch president Bill Livek is an old ex-Arbitron colleague of mine. It's just that since Arbitron is still the biggest fish in the ratings pond—and since we had an interesting role there—most people still think of me as the diary expert. In fact, we work internationally consulting stations and trade groups on ratings and marketing.

WROTS OF WRITINGS

As you've hopefully noticed, Gavin has allowed me to use this space for almost two and one-half years. It's been a labor of love, not to mention convenient since they're in San Francisco and we're just down the coast in Carmel (where Clint Eastwood was mayor). So why did Gavin ask me to join their fine family? Because key people like Ron Fell and Dave Sholin knew of my background (and despite that decided to hire me—just kidding). Seriously, my writing history may have had some impact. Some of you may know that from 1979-87 I wrote the "Ratings and Research" column weekly for R&R. Also, I have been a guest contributor to Broadcasting. And I will soon be writing for the leading European trade publication Music & Media.

If you'd like an in-depth dose of our successful philosophy and suggestions on how you can succeed, there are books. The most recent, Winning Radio Research, was published by and is available from the NAB. They've also had me collaborate recently on a new handbook on market research—available in April at and after the Vegas convention—in case you'd like to know how to do some of this homework yourself.

RATINGS ARE US

I hope this gives you a little background into the experience and knowledge you can tap through yours truly and the Gavin Report. The doctor is in—and we're always glad to help. Heck, I learn a lot from you too. At any rate, if you'd like to get some free consulting (worth every penny you pay for it) just give us a call (PST) at (408) 626-3660, or fax us at (408) 626-3632.

Now, tell me all about you...■

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

DE LA SOUL - RING RING RING (HA HA HEY) (TOMMY BOY) The brothers of the Daisy Age community return to the airwaves with a comical Hip Hop story that all industry heads and artists are familiar with-groupies and demo shoppers. Laid over an appetizing music bed at 106 BPMs, De La accents their native tongue with a catchy refrain and a tasty acoustic riff. Producer Prince Paul puts the finishing touch on the debut release from the upcoming De La Soul Is Dead album.

BRAND NUBIAN - SLOW DOWN (ELEKTRA) At 100,000 retail units sold, Grand Puba and boyz have the best Hip Hop album of '91, "One For All." Unfortunately most of the country slept on the debut single "Wake Up." This two track CD packs pure excitement. Cunningly looping the music and hook from Edie Brickel and New Bohemians, "What I Am," the Nubians have perfectly sculptured an appeal that should easily lap into the Urban and College Alternative Radio formats. Peek out "Pete Rock's Newromix" for some mixshow hypeness. The second track, "To The Right," provides a club-jeep beat feel that'll have b-boys chanting from beginning to end-slammin'... Contact the newly appointed National Director Of Rap Promotion Mike Jones (congrats) at (212) 484-7322.

YOYO-YOU CAN'T PLAY WITH MY YOYO (ATLANTIC STREET) Ice Cube's exclusive Hip Hop project drops the bomb. Camouflaging a melodic loop from Earth, Wind and Fire's "Devotion" with a hardcore-feminist melic, YoYo takes steps higher into the singer-songwriter arena. With guidance from producer Sir Jinx, this single carries an appealing element of percussion and melody that should spark immediate response at retail and radio. Keep a peek out for her upcoming album "Make Way For The Motherlode," in stores this week. Contact Eric Skinner(212) 484-7620.

Congrats to Mike Jones, new Elektra Records National Director of Rap Marketing. Mike comes from Columbia Records where he was their SouthWest Regional Promotion Director.

Congrats to KUCR's Barry Benson, as he takes up the position of National Director Of Rap Retail and Alternative Marketing.

Congrats to Richard "Qbert" Quitevis of Livestyle Productions, San Francisco, CA. Qbert won the West Coast Regional D.M.C. Semi-finals, qualifying him for the United States National Finals in Chicago. Qbert won the decision of judges, making him the United States representative for the World D.J. Mixoff Competition to be in London on April 6. This is the first time in Hip Hop history a Bay Area artist has qualified and captured the national title for the D.M.C. Second runner up DJ Rectangle from San Diego, CA also qualified for the World Competition. A&R reps; keep your eye and pens on two slammin' jocks no hype here! INSIDE URBAN

RUDE KISS

JOHNNY GILL wraps up another one, getting "Wrap My Body Tight" all the way to number one in ten easy weeks. That's number four from this solo album. FREDDIE JACKSON's "Do Me Again" isn't giving Johnny much breathing room, crowding him at number two and still gaining. Then, as if that wasn't enough, N.E. buddy, RALPH TRESVANT, with "Stone Cold Gentleman" is moving into the number three spot, also underlined, crowding him even more. Next week, may the best man win! (Anyone notice the male vocal dominance in the top ten, with the exception of the duet by Al B. Sure! and Diana Ross: Gill, Jackson, Tresvant, Guy, TTT's, Digital U., Hi-Five, Alston, Whispers?) Dwayne Landers, WUFO-Buffalo, chooses COLIN ENGLAND's "I Got What You Need," as his RTW, saying, "Here's a real danceable, uptempo, listener grabber." Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, likes Colin England, too, saying, "It's my pick-to-click." Chase Thomas, WJDY-Salisbury, likes WOOTEN BROS.' "Tell Me," saying, "These guys from Virginia have delivered one of my favorites, nice smooth jam, really smooth, and we're getting all demos." Thomas Bacote, V103-Atlanta, wants KEITH WASHINGTON and MARIAH CAREY to be his RTW's. "Monsters! Both of them! Keith Washington is a nice blend of Luther, Freddie, and Will Downing...very strong vocals, and this artist is highly marketable to women." Casey McMichaels, WVOI-Toledo, likes THE DELLS' "A Heart Is A House For Love," saying, "It's good to see the Dells back on the scene again and you can tell that they still have it—this is just the tip of the iceberg. Can't wait for the album." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, picks JEFFREY OSBORNE's "If My Brother's In Trouble," saying, "He should have no trouble climbing the charts." Jimmy Mack, WDXZ-Charleston, wants COLOR ME BAD's "Wanna Sex You Up," saying, "Instant phones, outrageous phones!" Kim Monroe, WNRB-Youngstown, likes BLACK BOX's "Strike It Up." Shesays, "Give it a listen—great radio song!" Morgan Sinclair, WBLX-Mobile, likes YO-YO's "Don't Mess With My Yoyo," because "It's hot, fresh, something the teens can relate to, going to be a strong teen record." Kelly Karson, WJFX-Fort Wayne, likes the FAZE, saying, "We've tested this several times, and we're getting positive phones from teen demos." Edward Sargent, WICB/FM-Ithaca, likes DE LA

NEW RELEASES by John Martinucci

QUINCY JONES - Wee B. Dooinit (Qwest/Warner Bros.)

Yes, there's still life to Quincy's "Back On The Block" album—especially after snatching six Grammys at last month's award show. "Wee B. Dooinit" is performed a capella with the exception of body part sounds. Vocalists featured: Bobby McFerrin, Siedah Garrett, Ella Fitzgerald, Al Jarreau, Take 6 and the late Sarah Vaughan.

RUBY TURNER - The Other Side (live/RCA)

Ruby's first release for 1991 is the title track from her forthcoming album. The pro-CD gives you five mixes of this smooth mid-tempo jam. Liner notes show the sample for "The Other Side" is from Chic's "I Want Your Love." Check it out.

WHITNEY HOUSTON - Miracle (Arista)

Staying in the ballad mode, Whitney comes with "Miracle," which hopes to follow her previous two releases from "I'm Your Baby Tonight" album to the top of the chart. This time the LaFace duo manage production.

LISA FISCHER - How Can I Ease The Pain (Elektra)

You may recall Ms. Fischer's vocal appearance last summer on Teddy Pendergrass' single "Glad To Be Alive." Around the same time, I had the opportunity to see Lisa perform "...ease the pain" during a spotlight segment in Luther Vandross' show. Narada Michael Walden produces this talented soloist and the production grows on you with each listen.

FAZE - The Things You Do (Bahia Entertainment/RCA)

Ready for a song to swoon and sway to? Prepare for the next Faze in music—"The Things You Do." Here is a song that establishes just the right rhythm to hook you before drawing you in for more. Backed by a contemporary Hip Hop beat, this track conquers and strides its listener with a strong vocal performance by Kyle Jason. The new Faze has begun. BDA

DEFINITION OF SOUND - Now Is Tomorrow (Cardiac)

Redefining the sound of Dance and Urban Contemporary music is this new, wonderful creation known as the Definition Of Sound. On their debut single release "Now Is Tomorrow," there is a clashing of current and past musical textures—the result being a no-holds-barred soul-filled sonic experience. The 12-inch continues the highly recommended De La Soul edit, complete with samples from Michael McDonald and Art Of Noise! If this is truly the definition of sound to come, then let tomorrow begin today. Enjoy the future! BDA

INSIDE A/C

by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

First things first. MARIAH CAREY's "I Don't Wanna Cry" had 101 first week ADDs -- the best ever performance by a female artist and tied for fifth best ever in Gavin A/C history.

RICK ASTLEY completes his comeback as "Cry For Help" takes the top of the A/C chart with a format-leading 237 stations and a 99% HIT FACTOR.

With an 85% four week HIT FACTOR, ROD STEWART is but moments away from another number one. Among the 17 newest players are WWDE, KEFM, KKLD, KWAV/FM and WKWK.

Though more than 80 stations have yet to ADD the TIMMY T. single, it scores a 19 to 12 move with 53% of all players reporting HEAVY rotation and 89% reporting at least MEDIUM play.

HARRIET's debut single, "Temple Of Love," continues to stride up the chart with never less than double-digit ADDs. This week 11 more A/C's come on board, including WQHQ/FM, WRBA/FM, WCPZ, WKDQ, KLCY/FM and KCMF. HIT FACTOR is now at 80%, up from last week's 67%.

HOTTEST track in the format at the moment is the celebratory "Voices That Care." Three-fourths of all stations on it more than a week are HIT FACTORing and 29 new ADDs include WKYE, KEZR, CKFM, WSUL, KYTE, KTID and KPAY. Moves 34 to 21 this week.

With 132 A/C's in three weeks, the DAVE KOZ featuring JOEY DIGGS debuts at number 28 with a 40% HIT FACTOR. New to the KOZ include KTHH, KSSK/FM, KQLH, WIHN, KIZZ, WFBB, WZNY, WKSJ and WELI.

The record with the biggest increase in HIT FACTOR is ROXETTE's "Joyride." Its 34% increase includes the following already committed WHAI, WVMX, WGMT, WSUL, WKYE, WAFL, J107, WDIF, KAAK, KBMG, KBLQ, KKOS, KCMJ/FM, KKIS and B100.

CELINE DION debuts at #40 in only her second week. She opens with a 29% HIT FACTOR and another 42 ADDs to go with last week's 53.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, LONDONBEAT's "I've Been Thinking About You," gathered 17 stations with WKYE, WNSR/FM, WSUL, KTDY/FM, KRDI/FM,

REVIEWS

by Diane Rufer & Ron Fell

OLETA ADAMS

Circle Of One (Fontana/Mercury)

Coming off her success from "Get Here," Oleta turns up the the energy level for this self-penned title track from her debut album.

LISA FISCHER

How Can I Ease The Pain (Elektra)

Great expectations realized in Ms. Fischer's super solo debut. She could be the diva of '91 if there's more where this came from.

WHITNEY HOUSTON

Miracle (Arista)

Written and produced by L.A. Reid and Babyface, this song deals with the sensitive Pro-Life issue, and it's treated with warmth and soul.

TERRY STEELE

Tonight's The Night (SBK)

Rod Stewart's classic gets a Steele soul workout with extra harmonies from James Ingram and Howard Hewett.

ROBBIE DUPREE

This Is Life (Gold Castle)

Sounds like the beginning of a strong comeback from Mr. Dupree. Solid song and major musicians back Robbie's re-entry.

MICHAEL FRANKS

Woman In The Waves (Warner Bros.)

The title song from last year's album, this track is rhythmic and pleasant from the very first listen.

SUSANNA HOFFS

Unconditional Love (Columbia)

Terms of endearment and wishful thinking set to music by the ex-Bangle in the middle of a triumphant solo debut.

PAUL SIMON

Born At The Right Time (Warner Bros.)

This has the hook, both musically and lyrically. The proof is in the listening. Paul thought enough of this song to name his current world tour after the track.

WFMK/FM, K103 and KEZR among them. The 17 ADDs bring its total to 59 stations and moves it into the CHARTBOUND section. For the statistic hounds please note that 88% of the stations reporting before this week are HIT FACTORing. On the Top 40 side, LONDONBEAT hits the #1 slot this issue.

GINO VANNELLI's "If I Should Lose This Love" is the current RECORD TO WATCH. Debuting with 52 A/C's out-of-the-box including WGBE, WBLG/FM, WJCL/FM, WSKY, WTCB, KFYZ, KLSI/FM, KWLO, KXLK, WQLR, KSBT, KCRE and KVYN/FM. GINO's fourth MOST ADDED, which proves it's great to have him back.

ROBERT PALMER

ALREADY ON 218 STATIONS INCLUDING:
KOST WALK KS95

"It has automatic familiarity, by the hippest artist out there today. This song transcends all contemporary formats.

Thank God for this one!"

KEZR: Jan Jeffries

"It's so exciting to be able to play Robert Palmer. Hip, energetic, nostalgic and multiformated this is a perfect song for KVIL and anyone else with a clue."

KVIL: Steve Eberhart

FROM EMI RECORDS USA

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•SHEENA EASTON

In 1981, Sheena Easton's third single, FOR YOUR EYES ONLY, was used as the opening theme for the James Bond film of the same title.

•TIMMY T.

Singer/songwriter Timmy T. has a day job to fall back on if the string of hits runs out someday; he's also a certified locksmith.

•VAN MORRISON

One of Van Morrison's earliest hit singles, BROWN EYED GIRL, is featured in the new Julia Roberts' film, Sleeping With The Enemy.

•JOHN BARRY

Before he set out on a career of Grammy Award-winning movie scores that include Midnight Cowboy, Born Free and many James Bond epics, John Barry was best known as the producer/arranger of hits for fifties English teen idol, Adam Faith.

•M.C. HAMMER

M.C. Hammer and his family have invested a princely sum of his new-found riches into thoroughbred horses. They currently own eleven race horses, including one named Rap Master and another known as Dance Floor.

•LONDONBEAT

The foursome from London—George Chandler, Jimmy Helms, Jimmy Chambers and Willy M.—may have taken their group name from the studio in which they recorded their debut album, Londonbeat.

•R.E.M.

If you have among your R.E.M. record collection a single by the group on Hib-Tone Records with RADIO FREE EUROPE on one side and SITTING STILL on the flip, some English collectors might pay up to $175 for it.

•MARIAH CAREY

In the nine months since its release, Mariah Carey's self-titled album has passed the four million unit sales mark in the U.S.

•DAVID SANBORN

After many years with Warners and Reprise Records, David Sanborn is working on his Elektra Entertainment debut album, Night Music, with producer Hal Willner.

•MICHAEL W. SMITH

For this year's Gospel Music Association Dove Awards, Michael W. Smith is nominated in three categories: "Songwriter Of The Year," "Male Vocalist Of The Year" and "Entertainer Of The Year." Winners will be announced on April 11th at the Grand Ole Opry House in Nashville.

•MADONNA

If composer Andrew Lloyd Webber has his way, Madonna will get the coveted title role of Evita, should the musical ever begin filming. Madonna would succeed Meryl Streep who bowed out of the role before production could begin.

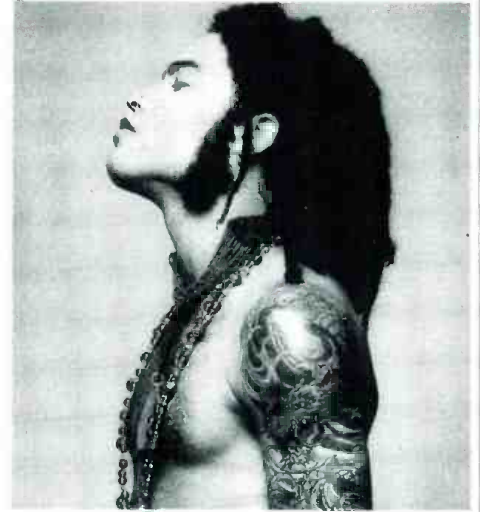

•MILTON NASCIMENTO

The title of Milton Nascimento's new album, 'Txai' is not a misspelling. It's a West Amazon Indian word meaning companion. It is pronounced "chi," which rhymes with "shy."

•NILS LOFGREN

Nils Lofgren still considers himself a member of Bruce Springsteen's E Street Band. He notes that only the press has given up on a future reunion of Bruce and his longtime bandmates. Lofgren, who replaced "Miami Steve" Van Zant as Bruce's lead guitarist in the mid-eighties, says, "Bruce never shut the door on the E Street Band."

•LENNY KRAVITZ

We don't know how much influence Lenny Kravitz's mother may have had in the titling of his new album, "Mama Said," but his mother is actress Rosie Rocker of "The Jefferson's" sitcom.

•ENIGMA

Enigma is actually German writer/producer Michael Cretu who prefers to remain as anonymous as possible and swears never to perform live or otherwise promote his music.

•CELINE DION

At the recent Juno Awards in Canada, Celine Dion received two awards: her album "Unison" won "Album Of The Year," and she was also named "Female Vocalist Of The Year."

•GREGG ALLMAN

Allman brother Gregg is set to play a feature role in a new film, Rush, starring Jennifer Jason Leigh and Sam Elliott.

Singing in c o l o r s

L A L A H H A T H A W A Y

By Beverly Mire

uestion: What would you expect Lalah Hathaway to be like? She's Donny's daughter. Her Mother Eulaulah is a classical singer. She grew up around dynamic people like Roberta Flack.

Answer: Show-biz kid. Talkative. Maybe a little overconfident.

Nope. None of the above.

Over the phone and in person, Lalah Hathaway is unassuming and shy. If you didn't know who she was, you'd think, "smart, sweet, beautiful smile, awfully quiet." She's like the little sister you want to protect.

But—wait a second! This "little sister" is on the verge of being a big star. Her recent eponymous album received rave reviews from three Gavin Report formats—A/C, Urban and Jazz, and the first single, "Heaven Knows," reached #2 on our Urban Contemporary chart.

She grew up in the most musical of households. "We studied music," she says of her family, which includes sister Kenya. "We played and ate and slept it." Lalah never resisted the family legacy. "I've wanted to sing professionally for a long time," she told us.

Lalah's home town is Chicago. After finishing high school, she could have easily coasted into the music business on her father's name. Even though Donny Hathaway had died tragically many years earlier, his name still carried a lot of weight—does to this day. Instead, Lalah decided to learn about her chosen profession, and went to the prestigious Berklee School of Music in Boston.

After completing her studies, Lalah decided to stay in Boston, where she resides now. "It's a great place to live because there's so much to do. There are so many clubs, so many musicians."

Now, just two short years after college graduation, Lalah is enjoying critical acclaim for an album that shows off her natural talent and diversity. Her music defies a single "format." That's probably because of the musical influences she absorbed. "I grew up listening to Gershwin, Chaka Kahn, Parliament," she smiles. "Miles Davis, Bootsy, Heatwave—so many great bands, so many great musicians."

"But my natural inclination is to lean toward Jazz," she said. "It's too bad society and the industry aren't more open minded. An artist that can sing Rock and Roll, Country, Rap—even Gregorian Chant—can't put all that on one album."

How did she rein in her urge to cover all the bases? "I tried to reach different people musically while being consistent in musicianship."

On Lalah Hathaway, the album, Lalah pursued her quest to please different musical palates by working with six different producers: Andre Fischer, Derek Bramble, Craig T. Cooper, Gary Taylor, Chuckii Booker and Angela Winbush. "I was really lucky," she says of being able to shift gears so frequently. "The people I worked with are musicians, so they came to me from a musician's point of view and we worked it that way."

"It's unbelievable to me even now, seeing how records are made, that I could go into the studio and get a vibe from somebody who'd say, 'I want this kind of mood, or this sort of color.'" Color? Music as color? "Music is very visual to me," she said, her naturally husky voice becoming so lyrical you could almost picture it. "There are some sounds I'm certain everyone associates with color to some degree. So I do that quite a bit."

The artist didn't like sculpting videos. "It's unfortunate that you have to do videos," she lamented. "You know, things like 'After The Love Is Gone' by Earth, Wind And Fire was a great song and it didn't have a video."

She backs off from making too harsh a judgement though. "Videos are fun to a certain degree," Lalah relented—but just a bit. "It would be nice if you could just put records out and people could listen to them and see if they liked the songs before they saw a video."

"It's Somethin'," Lalah's third single is starting to gather airplay on A/C radio. At the same time, she's heading out on a national tour with Gerald Albright and one of the most respected, admired and loved names in Jazz, Joe Sample. Not bad for a shy young lady in her early twenties.

As our conversation drew to a close, Lalah talked about what she desires in the long run. "I'm very serious about the music and about longevity," she said. "I want people to look at me and see someone that they can keep listening to and be refreshed by in twenty years. You know, you can listen to a Dinah Washington record now and a Sarah Vaughan record now—and you'll still be able to fifty years from now. That's what I want." ●

Carlene

CARTER

E A S Y F R O M N O W O N

By Cyndi Hoelzle

When the first strains of "I Fell In Love" come jumping out of the radio, it's easy to see why so many have fallen for this beautiful songbird with the tight-fitting genes. Helped along by one of the most irresistible videos in ages, Carlene's latest effort for Warner Bros./Nashville has provided the recognition and Country radio airplay that has eluded her for years.

With her steel blue eyes sparkling, Carlene talks of her years in London married to Nick Lowe and making music with him and his mate Dave Edmunds; she smiles when she remembers singing with her mom, and speaks of her grandmother with a mixture of love and awe. Carlene Carter is kin to the most influential clan in Country music. Her grandmother, Maybelle Carter, was a founding member of the Carter Family. June Carter is her mother, Carl Smith her father, and Johnny Cash her stepfather. The extended family includes Helen and Anita Carter, Rosanne Cash, Rodney Crowell, and Carlene's sister Rosey Carter to name a few.

To many, the "I Fell In Love" video was an introduction to Carlene Carter. Others have loved her for years, and are jumping for joy that she's come home to her roots, to record the album that Rolling Stone says, "She's always had in her."

The album, which made many pop and country critics "best of" lists for 1990 was produced by Howie Epstein, bass player in Tom Petty's Heartbreakers. "Working with Howie, it all just fell into place exactly right," says Carlene. "We work so well together. He has all the qualities that I lack and I have some that he lacks. He has a lot of focus and he can stay with something. I'm really flighty and I want things done quick," she laughs. "Howie will actually sit there and spend a long time on backing vocals. I've never worked with anyone before that had ever done it that way, so I didn't know the advantages of doing it that way," she explains.

"Nick Lowe produced two of my early records, and one was produced by the guys in (Graham Parker's) Rumour," Carlene continues. "We always had the attitude of going in there and banging it down—we used to do a record in a month. Howie and I spent a year and a half working on I Fell In Love," she says almost sheepishly, but then turns serious, "we wanted it to be

When Carlene first went to London, she was surprised at how many people loved and worshiped the Carter Family music. "I was very surprised," she says. "In fact, (Dave) Edmunds wanted me to sing all these George Jones songs and I wanted to sing 'I Heard It Through The Grapevine!' Edmunds got me into George Jones and the fact that he is such a great singer. (Before that) I took vocalists for granted because I was always into the song. Edmunds changed my mind."

Was it hard for Carlene to get used to the English treating her like musical royalty? "Yes! I was like, 'what are you talking about, what's the big deal?' Edmunds was really impressed with it, saying (puts on English accent) 'ooh, she sings like a bird!' He and Billy Bremner, the guitarist in Rockpile, called me a 'Bird Singer,'" she laughs.

"They were how I met Nick Lowe. It was a real exciting time then—musically and personally—going to England and being young and meeting all these really cool people—Elvis Costello, Graham Parker, Chrissy Hynde...I was really having a great time. So I spent a lot of years having a really good time, enjoying music and doing whatever I wanted to do." While living in London Carlene released a few albums including 1980's critical success, Musical Shapes. Her music seemed to fall between the cracks of Pop and Country, however, and she remained a critic's darling.

Carlene admits that she picked up a lot from the power pop musicians she hung with in the U.K. "Nick taught me a whole lot about crafting my songs, and about practicing my craft. I try to not make (a song) too much like a ditty, which I can do. I could sit down and write a song that people will sing along to, but it doesn't move me and it won't move them," she explains. "It's a craft, and you have to learn how to do it while finding a balance to be true to yourself where you're still a human being and not a writing machine. So I've learned not to write those songs that come out of my head, but to write the ones that come from the heart."

About five years ago, Carlene joined her mother June and her aunts Helen and Anita for a one night Carter Family performance in London, and ended up staying on the tour for two years. Carlene, who had left home at an early age to marry, hadn't really spent time with her mom since her teens. She says the Carter Family Tour came up at the right time. "They came over when I was in London. It was at a time when I was really down, musically and emotionally. My marriage had broken up. My daughter had gone to live with my sister in America and my son was living with his dad. I had no job and you can only live on royalties for so long," Carlene says frankly.

"It wasn't that I didn't like music anymore, it was just that I didn't know what to do, and I was really frustrated and confused. I was just kind of wandering around and trying to find my way, and they just happened to be there. I went and sang with them one night and it felt so good to sing with them that I actually felt good about music again. I started working with them; I wanted them to have a record deal, so that became my quest, that was my new fire and it got me going."

"We got a record deal, recorded a record and went on tour," she says with enthusiasm, then adds, "I got to be with my mom. I left home when I was 15, I've been gone for twenty years now. I needed to spend that time with her, I had never really spent any time with her since I'd been a little bitty kid."

Something about that tour made Carlene find her focus again—made her realize she was part of a larger circle. "I would stand up there at night and sing those songs and go, 'God, these songs are so old.' It was a pretty cool thing and I'm really proud of it." As she later explained, there's a special timeless sound that her family achieves when they are singing together that none of them can capture when singing alone.

The sound echos back to 1927 in Bristol, Tennessee, when Maybelle, Sara and A.P. Carter cut their first songs, and altered the course of Country music. Maybelle created a whole new style of guitar playing on those records, which caused folks to consider guitar a lead instrument for the first time in Country music. "I want my family to be proud of what I'm doing," Carlene says, "because basically I'm carrying on the Carter Family in my way, and my songs are new Carter Family songs. And what I'm doing is totally natural to me. It feels right."

Growing up in such a creative environment, did Carlene ever think her life was other than normal? She says that she always loved the fact that her mom, aunts and

"My grandmother taught me all the important things—

how to fish,

how to play cards,

HEAR AND THERE

Holy Smoke! Anthrax and Iron Maiden packed them in for two nights at San Francisco's Cow Palace. No Prayer For the Dying is Iron Maiden's debut album for Epic and it features one helluva band, including new guitarist Janick Gers. The band took two years off, Adrian Smith moved on and Bruce Dickinson began a solo career, but despite the changes they've never sounded better. They're touring with only the basics—stage and lights—choosing instead to put the energy into the music. It's no wonder they wanted Anthrax to open for them. From the first note until the last the floor never stopped moving from the moshing. It was absolutely the best show in town!...

Rory Gallagher is finally back touring the U.S.A. After several years of only playing the U.K. and Europe, I.R.S. Records has brought him into the '90s with a great new album called Fresh Evidence. While visiting the Gavin with his brother/manager Donal, we learned that I.R.S. is about to release 14 albums from Rory's rich catalog, including Juice and Photo Finish. Gallagher said, "It'll be nice to get a second crack at some of those cuts." At a recent show in Los Angeles, a full house was treated to Rory's jam with Guns 'N Roses' Slash. Rory's still the intellect, and a journeyman who won't be compromised. One of his latest tunes—my current favorite—"Slumming Angel" comes from a Raymond Chandler book. When he visits your town, get out and see one of the guitar masters...

Capitol recording artist Bob Seger, who actually wrote about Katmandu in the early '70s, finally visited Nepal's capital city for the Special Olympic games held in February. Seger first became involved with the Michigan Special Olympics several years ago. His travels to meet the king (Birendra Bir Bikram Shah Dev) is only one of the adventures that will be chronicled as part of an ABC-TV special airing in August. Capitol is planning to release a new album this summer...

Bits & Pieces: Virgin Records is set to release Joe Jackson's new album, Laughter And Lust in April...Grammy winner (his fourth) Tito Puente has released his 100th recording on Concord Picante, a division of Concord Jazz, Inc. Out Of This World will be released on CD and cassette by this 40-year Latin/Jazz music pioneer/veteran. Puente is currently busy with projects involving movies (he's Musical Director for and appears in "The Mambo Kings Play Songs of Love"), television and touring...Last year The Tragically Hip won a Juno award for Most Promising Group of the Year (as voted by the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences) and this year won Entertainer of the Year at the 20th Annual awards ceremony. This award is decided by public ballot. TH's new MCA album, Road Apples, took only ten days to go platinum in Canada. Look for their tour as they zig-zag across the U.S. through May 11...I got calls, so not to lead you astray, the Randy Jackson mentioned here last week with a new Atlantic debut called Bed of Nails and a band called China Rain used to be with Zebra. The album is scheduled for an April 15 release, and features ex-Dio bassist Teddy Cook (who also has a great voice), guitarist Ronnie Snow and drummer Brian Tichy...Charisma Records brought their "1991 Pointblank Revue" into Slim's recently, featuring Larry McCray with the Uptown Horns, The Kinsey Report and Albert Collins. The Kinsey Report—Ralph, Ronaly and Kenny—were joined onstage by their Dad, Albert, for a family jam. The other Albert, Mr. King, had the sold-out house stomping for more, especially after all the bands came out to join in. What a great way to celebrate anything!..Simple Minds is about to release their new A&M album, Real Life in April. That's exciting enough, but their first U.S.

tour dates in five years are even more exciting. The dates commence in early May and will be followed by more summer dates in the U.S. and Europe...REO Speedwagon, according to Kevin Cronin, is all set to jump on a bus and head for Kansas and beyond. Remembering why they got together in the first place—playing music and touring—the band will simply play where they can across the U.S. through the summer. Great idea! Don't forget California, boys...

Winterland Productions and Pro-Set, Inc. of Dallas have come up with another way for the rock and roll collectors to spend their money. Pro-Set manufactures and markets the official trading cards for the NFL, as well as for the NHL and the PGA Tour. Distribution of a 265-card series of musical stars in Pop, Hip-Hot/Rap, Heavy Metal and Hall of Fame categories kicked off March 21. No other music trading cards will be able to feature any of the 185 artists in the inaugural collection which includes M. C. Hammer, Living Colour, Kool Moe Dee, Alannah Myles and Eric Clapton. The MusiCard packets will contain 10 cards that feature a photo of the artist on the front and a second photo plus key biographical info on the reverse. Music fans will have the opportunity to win authentic concert memorabilia as well as all-expense-paid trips to concerts. The cards sell for between 50 and 69 cents. What a great promotion gimmick! I'll trade you an M.C. Hammer for a Living Colour...

Capitol guitar artist Eric Johnson was awarded "The Les Paul Horizon Award" (Most Promising New Guitarist) by Les Paul himself at the First Annual Orville H. Gibson Guitar Awards. Other awards handed out at New York's Hard Rock Cafe went to Bonnie Raitt (Best Rock Guitarist, Female; Best Acoustic Guitarist, Female), Richard Thompson (Best Acoustic Guitarist) and Paul McCartney (Best Bass Guitarist, Male).... ■

by Moon Mullins

We often compare radio stations to restaurants, particularly when we are discussing start-up stations, or a change in format. I recently had the pleasure of dining in Charlotte where I read about Barley & Rye, a South Park restaurant that has been extremely successful since it opened in 1979.

"Eighty per cent of all new independent restaurants fail during the first two years," says T. Jerry Williams, Executive Vice President of the North Carolina Restaurant Association. He listed the reasons for failure as:

1. Poor management and organization
2. Indifference toward employees
3. Failure to maintain a price/value relationship
4. Failure to advertise and promote
5. Failure to be part of the community

Do you recognize any similarities between the reasons restaurants fail and radio stations, in various format attempts, don't make it?

Barley & Rye has withstood the test of time and consistently offers guests a unique dining experience. Barley & Rye provides guests with casual surroundings where they are catered to by a professional staff.

All potential employees are placed in a two-week training program and tested before they are hired to ensure their knowledge of Barley & Rye and the hospitality business. "Service is our number one goal," said Andrew L. Toshie, General Manager of Barley & Rye. "Barley & Rye is oriented to our guests. Everyone should come into the restaurant and have a pleasant and satisfying experience."

VLADIMIR POZNER SPEAKS

In what I consider quite a coup for this publication, the keynote speaker for this year's Gavin Seminar, held last month in San Francisco, was the Soviet Union's leading media figure, Vladimir Pozner, who flew directly from Moscow to address the seminar.

To the best of my knowledge, members of the news media (other than seminar attendees) were not present, and in this relatively private atmosphere, Pozner felt exceptionally unconstrained and spoke with a frankness that proved amazing to many of those who were there.

Many were astonished by his command of American English and his understanding of American thought. Pozner spent a number of years in this country while a child, before his family moved to East Germany and then to the Soviet Union—something detailed in his best-selling autobiography Parting With Illusions.

I think most seminar registrants would have assumed Pozner would feel obliged to give the current Soviet perspective on things, and would have anticipated that a recent retreat from some aspects of Perestroika there would complicate this task. Nothing proved further from the truth. At the outset, he stated that he is not a spokesman for President Gorbachev or the Soviet government, and began by relating how he had been asked by Gorbachev after the latter's U.S. visit (shortened, you recall, by the Armenian earthquake emergency) how the American people perceived him and his country. His answer was that in the U.S. there was a new, very friendly attitude, in response to Glasnost; but that this new attitude was fragile, and would rapidly evaporate if his policies in the USSR were to backslide. Pozner said that he feels this prediction is born out by the new American skepticism about Soviet reforms, in the wake of the repression in the Baltics (which he said was only a part of a pattern of repressions within the last year, but the event that attracted the most Western attention. Americans have not yet given up their new warmth toward Gorbachev and the Soviet Union, he said, but the atmosphere here has quickly grown much more cynical and wary.

Pozner warned that in the USSR now, there is a strong shift to the right—not just by the government, but by the people themselves, "which makes it all the more serious." Most of the peoples in the Soviet Union have never experienced democracy in their whole history, he explained—for them it's just a word, and not a reality. And, he reminded us that even the Russian Orthodox Church has a history of being the most reactionary and repressive branch of Christianity. I think he stunned us all when he went on to explain that we in the West have a mistaken understanding of the Soviet peoples' feelings toward Josef Stalin, whose crimes against humanity are comparable, in world history, only to Adolf Hitler's: "You must understand, Stalin was supported by the Soviet people. He was beloved" for this apparent actions to "defend the [Communist] Revolution."

Pozner explained that the broad mass of Soviet citizenry now find themselves seeing the beliefs to which they dedicated their lives sacrificed for new "freedoms"—about which "the promises have largely not been kept." An open expression of views did occur, but the move toward free enterprise has so far not made life itself better. "Six years later it's much worse; it was better before." This explains the popular movement toward the right, when things seemed better than they are now. And as Gorbachev has lost support as his reforms have only brought about worsening conditions, he too has swung to the right: "He's not a man to give up power; he's a politician"; and he is moving toward his only remaining constituency ("he couldn't get elected dogcatcher now"): The party bureaucracy, the military and the military-industrial complex. Does this mean he's giving up his reforms? No, said Pozner; he thinks he'll be able to continue to force them through via the right wing: "I think he thinks that the right will still dance to his tune—but I think he's making a big mistake; if they see a chance to get him they will. He's engaging in a very difficult balancing act."

Pozner said his special concern is what's happening in the Soviet media; the recent freedom of expression in the USSR has been dampened; since the start of 1991, several TV shows have been taken off the air due to their content, and the price of newsprint to independent newspapers has soared, effectively repressing them, and putting many of them out of business.

Pozner warns that the Soviet military, and military industrial complex, would like nothing better than a return to the old "confrontation" psychology—which will be enhanced if the West cuts off monetary credits and economic development programs. "Avoid simplistic thinking and watch for major change in the Soviet Union in the next three to five years."

All of this clearly will not promote and end to the Cold War, nor the new "world order" President Bush has called for.

That was the bad news. But Pozner also had good news, on this most important of international subjects, and I'll bring you that part of his address in this space next week! ■

"The attitude of our employees is the significant factor in determining how our guests perceive Barley & Rye," says owner Stuart Smith. "We want our customers to remember the personalized service they receive here and feel they are the most important factor in our success. Management indifference toward employees is one of the significant reasons independent restaurants have such a high mortality rate. Only a proud, confident employee can display the quality service your find at Barley & Rye."

Servers greet each table with personalized attention. No standard greetings or generic welcomes plague the dining room. All employees have a comprehensive knowledge of the menu and varieties of cooking styles. Not only do waiters know the 24 varieties of fresh fish that are available daily but they can describe each selection in such detail that even a meat and potatoes person will know what to expect from Blackened Walleye Pike.

Wouldn't it be beneficial for radio stations' employees to know as much about their station as these servers know about their menus? I've been to radio stations where the sales staff didn't know who was on the radio. I have met air personalities who don't know the difference between ROS and morning drive-only buys. I have known newscasters who don't know what Arbitron is. I even remember one General Manager asking me, his Program Director, if the person he had just spoken to in the hall was an employee.

Continues Toshie, "It is very important for us to give something back to the community.

The public is ultimately responsible for our success, and we want to do everything in our power to nurture that relationship."

In 1991, the era of super-serving the client base (advertisers and listeners), we ought to set as our goals:

1. Enhancing the management and organization of our stations to match those of the finest restaurants.
2. Indifference toward employees should be eliminated. Get all of the folks involved in the station. You have to win in the halls!
3. Hold the line on rate value. Be accommodating during the economically hard times, but maintain price/value relationships.
4. Advertise and promote more than ever.
5. Be a dominant player in the community. Success follows leadership. ■

THE JUDDS - One Hundred And Two (Curb/RCA)

Wynonna's sultry voice continues to captivate on this bluesy number. It's a great change of pace follow up to "Love Can Build A Bridge."

MARTY STUART - Till I Found You (MCA)

Stuart slows it down with a declaration of love—it's good to know the Rockabilly Man can be so-tender.

HIGHWAY 101 - Bing Bang Boom (Warner Bros.)

Oooh, baby! Highway's new vocalist Nikki Nelson debuts with a big bad boom. It's a wonderful, swingin' number that will put a smile on the sourest faces.

ROB CROSBY - She's A Natural (Arista)

This beautiful Crosby-penned song was an overwhelming programmers' pick from his debut album. Along with lighting up the phone lines, it should convert many listeners into die-hard Rob Crosby fans.

SAWYER BROWN - Mama's Little Baby Loves Me (Curb/Capitol)

These boys have been rockin' across the nation for ten years, and thanks to high-energy songs like this one, they're finally getting their fair share of radio play.

JOHN ANDREW PARKS - Daddy On The Radio (Curb/Capitol)

Parks does his best Springsteen, building this song up from a spare beginning to a sing-along raver. It's a great story-song that Parks throws his heart into.

PROGRAMMER'S PICK

DAVIS DANIEL - Picture Me (Mercury)

Strong production, an extra strong song and a great debut for a superb new talent. The song has great structure, the vocalist nails the effort and the production brings it all together. Should be a big hit. Eric Marshall, PD, WSIX-Nashville, Gavin's Large Market Program Director of the Year happy to announce that Dave Barrett, aka "Tom Bigbee," from WBVE-Cincinnati and Bill McKay from crosstown A/C WYSE both join the air staff at WWZD. hit songs, "You Are The One," which was a number one song the week Carlene was born. She has convinced Smith to come out of retirement to duet with her, and hopes to include it on her next project.

says that when Emmylou recorded it, Carlene finally started to consider herself a songwriter.

Carlene has gone through many changes, musically and professionally, in her career. Thrice divorced, she jokingly calls her road band the "Better Than A Husband Band" ("Because they don't give me no shit!"). It's obvious that the thirtysomethin' singer is having the time of her life. So just one last question: Do blondes really have more fun? "Hell yes!" laughs Carlene. "You oughta try it honey!" ●

The current single, "The Sweetest Thing," is Carlene's divorce song. "I thought it was about time someone wrote a positive end-of-relationship song," she says.

The album ends with "Easy From Now On," a song Carlene wrote with Susanna Clark that Emmylou Harris made famous on her Quarter Moon In A Ten Cent Town album. Carlene tells the story of auditioning the song for Emmy, her voice quivering, so scared that she could hardly stand up. She grandmother sang all the time, and it wasn't until "mom married Big John" when she was 12 and they moved to "the big house" where Kris Kristofferson and Willie Nelson and other Nashville cats would stop by, that she realized that her family was famous.

Carlene included the autobiographical song "Me and The Wildwood Rose" on I Fell In Love, which chronicles some of the joy she felt travelling with her singing family.

"In my grandma's house her children would sing Guitars a twangin' their laughter would ring I was little but I was the biggest kid I wanted to do what the grown-ups did."

Carlene plays autoharp on the song, in the style of Maybelle, who died in 1978. Carlene lights up when she talks of the legendary figure, who had so much influence on her life. "She taught me all the important things," draws Carlene, "how to fish, how to play cards, how to play guitar. She gave me my first cup of coffee when I was just a little girl— course it was all milk and sugar." Carlene remembers how Maybelle used to take her out gambling when they where in Las Vegas, sneaking the small child into the casinos, saying, "Ah, it's all right, honey, you're with me!"

"If I could change a thing in this world I'd go back to the days when grandma and her girls were singing sweet and low for me and the wildwood rose."

Along with "Me and the Wildwood Rose," and the old Carter Family song, "My Dixie Darling," (which features backing vocals by June Carter Cash) Carlene further reclaims her heritage by singing one of her father's

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

LIVE AT THE ROYAL FESTIVAL HALL - DIZZY GILLESPIE & THE UNITED NATION ORCHESTRA (ENJA)

Dizzy Gillespie, who's just recovering from cataract surgery, has never had any shortage of musical vision, and he's now entering his sixth decade of playing Jazz. Diz's all-star United Nation Orchestra is a sampling of genres, including Bop, Afro-Cuban, Big Band and modern improvisation. Beginning with his ground-breaking days with Charlie Parker, Diz always had eyes for big band experiments with big name comrades. Pacquitos Rivera, James Moody, Airto and Flora, Steve Turre and Claudio Roditi lend support. There are heaping helpings of screaming trumpets, busy Latin-fueled percussion and fat big band call and response riffs.

STRANGE CARGO 2 - WILLIAM ORBIT (IRS/ NO SPEAK)

UNDER THE SOFT - DARRYL WAY (IRS/NO SPEAK)

IRS releases William Orbit and Darryl Way's latest projects to radio in a nifty two pack that encourages us to take on both in one sitting. William Orbit uses Germanic space-flight sequencing and synth-rock back-beats. Each tune is rudimentary in structure. How much roots rock you choose to acknowledge in your programming will influence the tracks you might like. "Dark Eyed Kid" and "Atom Dream" are rock-tinged stealths that fly a few hundred feet above the surface. On "El Santo" Orbit throws in a dash of single note guitar twangs a la Hank Marvin. If you prefer exoticism, try "Dia Del Muerto" or "Ruby Heart." The farther into Strange Cargo 2, the more mystical and lunar it becomes. "777" is even darker. "Thief And The Serpent" is darker still with its Arabic scales. Darryl Way delivers something more triumphant and uplifting. In the past, Way pioneered progressive electric violin in rock with his bands Curved Air and Wolf. Drummer Stewart Copeland and former Climax Blues Band guitarist Peter Haycock provide solid support. Alternative Adult stations who worry about sounding too square and need some hip edge to their playlist should seriously consider Under The Soft. The title cut weeps with force and spirit. "Vapour Highway" is an exhilarating power trio tour de force. "Crocodile Tears" is a fine textural ballad. UTS is a splendid wide screen recording. If Paganini were alive today, his two favorite violinists would be Darryl Way and Steve Kindler. Both explore the vastness of their instruments. If we had to choose, we'd send William to Orbit and groove on the Darryl Way.

ART OF THE BIG BAND - BOB MINTZER (DMP) GENE HARRIS and the PHILIP MORRIS SUPERBAND (CONCORD)

Here it is. Big ensemble heaven. In his affectionate notes, Bob Mintzer brings up a solid point. During the days of Ellington and Glenn Miller, big bands played every day, becoming tack sharp and well-oiled units. Current economics dictate the opposite. Large outfits like those conducted and led by Illinois Jacquette and Carla Bley are rare birds who must generally rely on rehearsal halls and scattered gigs to maintain their flexibility. Still, both Mintzer and Gene Harris revive most of the monster acoustic bounce that recall the days of swing and sway past. On Art Of The Big Band, exhibit A, the title track (#5) is a balance between the small ensemble days ahead of Mintzer (since replacing Marc Russo in Yellowjackets), and the big band days of the past. After all, it was none other than Buddy Rich who first squeezed compositions out of Mintzer, who was serving in Rich's sax section before Mr. Personality passed on to the big bandstand in the sky. Art Of The Big Band is an easy bet, meaning it's hard to find a dim moment anywhere. What's particularly impressive is that most of AOTBB is stocked with Mintzer originals.

Not far off the mark is Gene Harris' new super effort, recorded in one day last October in Australia. While not recorded as warm and cozy as Mintzer's effort, Harris' arsenal is nonetheless well stocked with standards and roof blowing group paws and individual solos. No less than Ray Brown, Kenny Burrell, Ralph Moore, Robin Eubanks, Sweets Edison and more make up this multi-generational rave up. If indeed the roof did fall down, Jazz would be minus a lot of its past and future masters. Fortunately the plaster stayed together for such bluesy moments as "A Child Is Born" and "Lonely Bottles." "Air Mail Special," the Brown bass-laden "Tricotism," "Buhaina, Buhaina" and the perennial "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," (one of the best renditions since the smoky seventies version featuring R. Roland Kirk and Al Hibbler) are the rockers of a gonerby era. Again, it's hard to lose on any of fourteen (!) trax heaped onto one digital biscuit. Both collections are a must for those who thrive on the feeling of having your hair blown back by blasts of brass. While Mintzer's version is the superior in terms of fidelity, Harris' collection is a stone walking gas in terms of performance. I call it a draw, with the winners being those of us lucky enough to audition both endangered species.

FRIENDS - STEVE MASAKOWSKI (NEBULA)

Steve Masakowski plays conventional Jazz guitar with a rather unconventional seven string electric. Recorded back in 1984 in New Orleans, Friends features pianist Ellis Marsalis and a young Rick Margitza on tenor. "S'not Blues" may not be, but Margitza and Masakowski get in some hot licks anyway. Five of the eight are Masakowski originals unearthed with mainstream clarity.

STEPPING OUT - STEVE LAURY (DENON)

Fattburger guitarist Steve Laury tries a solo stint with Stepping Out. Originally available only in Japan, Laury moves a little closer to the Jazz spectrum with this smooth quartet recording. The listener senses Laury's nod toward his influences, possibly Wes Montgomery, Kenny Burrell and Lee Ritenour. When slimmed down to a smaller band, Laury's playing has a plucky style. Take, for example, the bluesy "All Because Of You." He uses generous helpings of octave notes and seems to tug on the strings, grabbing the notes by the fistful. Alternative Adult will find solace with tracks like the melodious "Kiss Me Goodbye" or the spacious, moody closer "The Day She Went Away." Laury's best polished Jazz licks appear on the tuneful "Just Like An Angel." The remainder of Stepping Out has Quiet Storm potential.

LOVE IS - SHERRY WINSTON (WARLOCK)

Sherry Winston's ultra-confident style of flute playing is back. Having sat in with Herbie Mann and been a student of Hubert Laws, Winston has etched out an eclectic style. She plays with gliding velocity and her overdubbed passages are flawless. All the notes bend skillfully at the identical point. On the whirling, quick tempo fifth track entitled "Love Goes On," Winston delivers the set's high point. "Strolling" feels like an instrumental homage to the Atlantic pop/funk of the seventies. "Dolphin Dance" has a melodic burst that borders on an atmospheric, classical mode. As one of Jazz/AA's favorite flautists, Winston floats like a butterfly but stings like a bee—as evidenced on the funk closer "Tight Groove."

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

MAMA SAID -
LENNY KRAVITZ
(VIRGIN)

This one has "major release" written all over it. Lenny Kravitz is damn unique. He makes his music without distance. By that I mean the mixes are snug and warm. The vocals and instruments don't hide in a digital fog between performer and listener. This sends a subliminal message of personal commitment. I'd characterize Mama Said as a much more experimental album than Lenny's raw groundbreaking debut. His influences are still multi-colored, a relief in this age musical defacto segregation. Songs can be rockin', funky, jazzy (!) or Beatlesque. That's the Kravitz trademark. There's well over fifty-five minutes and fourteen songs to sort through from the spectacular opening "Fields Of Joy" to the soul sweet "It Ain't Over 'Til It's Over." And lots in between!

"PAYIN' THE COST TO BE THE BOSS" -
PAT BENATAR
(CHRYSALIS)

Pat Benatar's got a new musical agenda, and those expecting a formula rock song are in for a bit of shock. "Payin' The Cost To Be The Boss" is one of rock's most interesting conversions since Dylan went Christian. Pat Benatar blues singer? Well, why not? She's certainly proven her power. Plus, rock superstars do get the blues. True Love isn't a one song experiment. The whole album pays homage to a couple of decades of blues styles from Texas to electric swing. Pat Benatar does a good job meshing her rock instincts with torch singing. Additionally, the instrumental arrangements are equally full and committed.

"DANGEROUS" -
DOOBIE BROTHERS
(CAPITOL)

The Doobies execute their crucial follow-up to last year's solid comeback the old fashioned way—they rock n roll to the blues. "Dangerous" balances out a band backbeat with horn blasts and dueling slide dobros. Written by Pat Simmons, this one features guitars galore. Two edits are included. Me? I prefer the album version where the steel dobros peak back in and stick around a little longer. A repeat appearance by producer Rodney Mills, who enjoyed good chemistry with the band last time around.

RADARTOWN - MARK GERMINO AND
THE SLUGGERS
(ZOO ENTERTAINMENT)

I guess Mark Germino got tired of being subtle and sensitive, so he upped and strapped on an electric rhythm guitar, hired a hot band and shouted to the heavens. Whatever you remember about Mark's previous music, put it on bulk erase. Radartown is one of those pants-on-fire set of songs in the Mellencamp, Earle, Springsteen camp. Produced by R.S. Fields (who worked magic on Webb Wilder's legendary first album), Radartown fires the first stream-of-conscious shot of the nineties, giving social political a late twentieth century rebirth. If you think in terms of albums like Earle's Exit 0, Mellencamp's Lonesome Jubilee, Paul Brady's Hard Station, Dylan's Blood On The Tracks, The Replacements' All Shook Down, Bruce's Tunnel Of Love, you get the picture. Germino's album comes to us by way of an international recording agreement. Yes, like some of the best of American music, it's oft-times discovered overseas first. If you program the following tunes—"Let Freedom Ring," "Radartown," "Exalted Rose" into "Economics"—chances are you'll end up a lifetime fan. I know I am. P.S. For a good "radio" song try "Rex Bob Lowenstein," a song lots of you people may have already lived.

"HANG STRAIGHT UP"/
"SHE'S THE ONE/
I.N.S.E.T." -
I LOVE YOU (Geffen)

As Jeff Nolan, one half of I Love You, describes himself and their music as "on the brink of being out of control." That's a healthy sign. While I Love You adhere to some control and even less structure, it's the chance that the whole thing may fall apart that makes young rock the most interesting. Obviously label mates Guns N' Roses or Jane's Addiction come to mind. I Love You, like Guns, draws from a healthy seventies reverence. By the way, I.N.S.E.T. (I Love You at their most chaotic) stands for "It's Not Such an Easy Trip." Available on vinyl, I assume, so we can check out the backward masking.

VAGABOND HEART - ROD STEWART
(WARNER BROS.)

"Rhythm Of My Heart" is fine single because during this era of ethnic pride, it points proudly to Rod Stewart's Scottish pride, past, present and future. From there, Rod's eighteen album (Jeez, it seems like only yesterday when An Old Raincoat was first released) takes a few surprising turns, including a cover of Robbie Robertson's "Broken Arrow" and Van Morrison's "Have I Told You Lately." "It Takes Two" is a Stonesy (or should I say Facelike?) rock duet with Tina Turner. With his material selection and handful of original material, Rod Stewart abandons a strict rock profile in favor of the perfect song and situation (i.e. performing with the Temptations on "The Motown Song"). I think number eighteen turned out special.

(WTG)

Heavy metal. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Now how about the real stuff, Motorhead at their most recent and at their razor sharpest? "No Voices In The Sky" and "Going To Brazil" are the movin'-est and the groovin'-est. You've never heard Philthy so filthy. Lemmy still sings like he gargles with Comet. Motorhead rocks. I'll say it again, Motorhead rocks. Amen.

WORD OF MOUTH -
MIKE + THE MECHANICS
(ATLANTIC)

For better or worse, aggregations like Mike + The Mechanics typify the current state of rock. The songs (the opening "Get Up" is a sterling example) are crisp and sequenced, well placed and stacked together with computer accuracy. While featuring a live audience, even the single/title track shares that same precision. As on previous efforts (all of which yielded sizable turntable hits), the Mechanics rely principally on the other singing Paul Young, though Paul Carrack isn't a shabby backup to have on the bench. Both Young and Carrack, along with the rest of the band, account for an impressive line-up of talent able to transcend the precision and clarity of it all, contributing a viable ballad-laden nineties radio offering.

THE FUGITIVE DANCE -
(CHAMELEON)

Two of our favorite Madison exports are Jonathan Little and Firetown. In between, after Little and before Firetown, lurked a band called Spooner. While their legend never ventured across mid western boundaries, The Fugitive Dance marks their reunion, featuring Firetown refugees Butch Vig and Doug Erikson. Songs like "Dream My Life Away" and "Sleep Out Under the Stars" defy their eight and sixteen track originals while the title track proudly hails such simplicity.

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

Oh, what a week! It started last Tuesday with a hot double-bill in Berkeley—REDD KROSS and THE SCREAMING TREES. The show was so good it made the fact that I only got four hours sleep a little easier to deal with! Wednesday I flew down to Los Angeles to meet JULIAN COPE. His new album, Peggy Suicide, is going to be released shortly and he had some interesting ideas/motivations to share with his rapt audience. More on that when the album is released.

Thursday I saw the first-ever show in America from EMF. The guys were a little nervous, but the show itself was, er, Unbelievable?!

Friday was JESUS JONES day at the Gavin office, as MIKE MENA brought frontman MIKE EDWARDS by to show the band's new video for "International Bright Young Thing." The Jonesman seriously bonded with our ZIMMERMAN BROTHERS, who took him to the bookstore for the new WILLIAM GIBSON book, Difference Engine. The show that night was absolutely stunning! The band was so jet-lagged I didn't think they would be up to their usual effort, but I was proved wrong.

If you can believe it, Jesus Jones rocked even harder the next day at the LIVE 105 free concert. The last minute venue change due to our sudden burst of wet weather, left some fans, literally, out in the rain. Filling the club to capacity (and then some) the band took to the stage around noon and did a set that was better than the night before! There were so many fans that couldn't get into the club (and diligently waited in the pouring rain for hours) the band graciously agreed to do another set for them. Another extraordinary LIVE 105 promotion that may well go down as the highlight of my year.

You wanted it—you got it! If you haven't done so already, check out our new subset charts.

Congratulations to R.E.M. on their new number one! Get ready for a long stay at the top. 'Til next week—LINDA RYAN

RELEASESSEA STORIES - WIDE EYED AND DREAMING
(NETWERK/I.R.S.)

This Melbourne-based five-piece manages to capture the languid, hazy feel of an Australian summer. The warm breezes, the bustle of visiting tourists and oceanside nights under the stars translate perfectly into the band's moody, often wistful sound. There are a number of different sounds and styles on the album, and each one shows off the band's versatility and talent. I like the upbeat songs on the jangly-pop side—"Gone For Sure," "I Told Her So," "New Mexico," and "Wonderful Things." Having said that, there is something equally appealing about the slower, plaintive offerings such as "Christmas City," "Waterfall" and "Mill Town Flood." Something for everyone, no matter what kind of day you're having! An undiscovered gem among the many diamonds currently out now. LINDA RYAN

VIOLENT FEMMES -
"AMERICAN MUSIC"
(SLASH/REPRISE)

At long last, the new single from the long-awaited Violent Femmes album. As usual, Gordon Gano and company deliver a subversive pop song—the sugar coating disguises the sarcastic and seemingly disjointed lyrics. I mean,

I'm sure it all fits together neatly in Gordon's mind—but hell if I can figure it out! It's this sort of bizarre, twisted mystique that serves as the band's trademark and has held Femmes fan in reverent awe over the years. You only need to listen once. LR

LATOUR -
LATOUR
(SMASH/PLG)

An introductory offering of oddness and indescribable sonic psychobabble is yours for the asking. Take the complete LaTour, it's a journey that mixes the best elements of technopop and industrial dance music. Prime stops include "Amazing You," "Laurie Monster" and "Cold." The single, "People Are Still Having Sex" is a curious commentary on—you guessed it—sex! So light a candle or two, take the phone off the hook and prepare for the inevitable sexual experience that follows. You might even respect them in the morning! BRETT DURAND ATWOOD

HELEN KELLER PLAID - ONE SWELL FOOP (Mad Rover, P.O. Box 22243, Sacramento, CA 95822)

Rarely does a blatantly derivative band show the promise of rivaling its influences. San Francisco's Helen Keller Plaid wear their Minneapolis roots on their sleeves, but they hold their own as eloquent and promising songwriters, and they're more students (of the Replacements and Soul Asylum) than thieves. HKP structure their melodic tunes like SA—"I'd Scream," "Anyway" (almost too much like "Passing Sad Daydream")—and the 'Mats ("Prince Of D," "Dress Up Day"), and they know how to meld rock with melody, but something (maybe the mediocre production? maybe an as-yet-unsharpened editorial instinct?) isn't quite developed. But Helen Keller Plaid's lyrics make up for that deficiency with Westerbegish sensitivity and self-deprecation ("My teeth don't shine and my voice ain't strong/But if you sing the words I'll hum along/Could never lead but I'll follow every time"), or Pirner's epigrammatical mutated cliches ("Used to be I was wet behind my ears/Used to be I was wise beyond my years"). My favorite cuts include: the quirky and catchy "Dancin' On The Median," "L P of B," "I'd Scream" (the hopeless cry of a drowning yuppie couched in terms of children's songs), and "Somethin'." These guys play a hot live set, and they're on tour now. Catch 'em when they come to your town. SEANA BARUTH

SIGUE SIGUE SPUTNIK - THE FIRST GENERATION (Roir c/o Rough Trade, 611 Broadway Suite 411, New York City, NY 10012)

Remember latex? Safe sex? Star Wars? Fast cars? Video games? Instant fame? YES!!! Those bad boys of glam and sham are back—sort of. The amazingly unhyped return of Sigue Sigue Sputnik will bring more than a few headaches to the unhip masses of asses. ROIR Records releases, at long last, the early demos of these Euro-super-salesmen. Sigue Sigue Sputnik is best remembered as the much hyped musical product with press to die for and music to moan about. Don't get me wrong. I like Sigue Sigue Sputnik! They were simply "it" when it came to marketing and media manipulation; a true cultural representation of the Reagan era—and they were damned proud of it! These newly released recordings are amongst the best ever recorded by these five guys and one Ya Ya. Actually, there are four new "experimental" tracks here that have never before seen the light of day—including a unique rendition of David Bowie's "Rebel Rebel." If you were weary of the hype before, here is the substance. Buy it. Consume it. Relive the joy and speed of an era past. BRETT DURAND ATWOOD

JOHANNA'S HOUSE OF GLAMOUR - FAREWELL STREET (C'est la Mort, P.O. Box 91, Baker, LA 70714)

An interesting fusion of folk-rock, house music and, um, New Age as well. Although it's got the "in daddy's garage with a drum machine" sound that seems to turn up fairly regularly with C'est la Mort bands (The Arms of Someone New, for example), Farewell Street is tight and sharp enough to stand out. Generally speaking, Johanna's House's glittery ambience borrows from the styles of Peter Gabriel and The Dream Academy. And dreams, a popular topic on Farewell Street, are a theme that's reinforced by the record's dream-like sound: as the guitar and synth dip in and out of whispered vocals amidst a wash of reverbed MIDI effects, you feel you might turn around and find the stereo floating out the window. Something about the way the different instruments are layered suggests to me that Johanna's House is probably just two musicians with an 8-track (and a lot of equipment). Anyway, they cover T. Rex's classic "Cosmic Dancer," but their best comes out in "When I Loved You," when they leave the underwater acoustics alone for a couple of minutes to lay down an optimistic pop number that's fun and smacks of sincerity. "Blue U" features a pleasant funk beat and "Blue Noon" is also worth a listen. DAVID KEENAN

BO-WEEVILS-DESTROYER OF WORLDS (Rubber Records Releases, P.O. Box 32, Hawksburn 3142, Australia)

Boll weevils are infamous for their relentless appetites for destruction, and they've been known to resort to eating paintbrushes, wine corks, and mummies. On Destroyer Of Worlds, the Bo-Weevils toast the destructive impulse with a full glass of fashion. "Palestine" parades images of little Davids clutching Goliath heads, and its haunting background vocals render these disturbing scenes beautifully. Carnage, disaster and the destruction of Dresden make guest appearances throughout, but the final two tracks calm to the composure of a candy stripper serving fishsticks. "Where Particular People Congregate" ushers in lulling vocals that bring to mind the cotton at the tops of pill jars, and "Illusions" features an organ that chirps with the charm of finches. These are CD bonus tracks that make witnessing all of the destruction worthwhile. DAVID BERAN

X-TAL

X-TAL - die monster die - (Alias Records, 374 Brannan St., San Francisco, CA 94107)

If you lean even slightly toward the left these days, you're seriously in the minority. Trying to find a whitecap of sanity in the sea of red, white and blue is a near impossibility. I'm happy to be the one to offer you some hope. X-Tal's die monster die is relentlessly political. With his Lou Reed-ish vocals, J Neo and his compatriots Mick Freeman, Allison Moseley and Demetrius Brousitis question and opine upon such newly-submerged subjects as abortion ("Domino's Theory"), selling-out ("Stepford Rockers") and parental brutality ("Captain Plus Four"). Heavy stuff I know, when all you're used to is yellow ribbons and rah-rah-rah. The musicianship is at its best (and, horror of horrors, most danceable) on (translation: my favorite track is) the African/World Beat-ish "An Old Colonial's Hard Luck Story." I like Neo's vocals the best on "Feckless,"—is that a Casio masquerading as a cheesy organ? The politics on die monster die are so upfront you might have to take a break after about seven cuts, 'cause the truth is never easy. But that's good. Groups like X-Tal will hold us until America does an Isadora Duncan with the flag. BEVERLY MIRE

BLACK SUN ENSEMBLE - ELEMENTAL FORCES (RECKLESS RECORDS)

Can you sometimes tell who's calling you by the way the phone rings? Perhaps elemental forces are at work. The sounds here are like familiar invisible rings, and this time it's Black Sun Ensemble on the line. "Leviathan Song," an instrumental homage to a sea monster, kicks things off by trudging and foraging in the wet giant tradition. The bass line in "Colloquy" runs true like an underground stream, and just about any time these guys play an instrumental you feel as if you're going somewhere and not just retreading territory. The saxophone traverses an Egyptian-tinged guitar in "Sagrado Guzano" and "Remnants Of Ice" features vocals that stroke like fingers of fleece. Who needs answering machines when phone rings sound this good?

INDEPENDENTS

THE ROOTS AND THE FUTURE

As the major players in the music industry position themselves for the shift to a decidedly global focus, more than ever, the independents represent the roots and the future of the industry.

As the only trade association representing the independents, NAIRD has the framework in place to enable its members to take full advantage of the various opportunities during this time of transition and growth. NAIRD is a fully-staffed, non-profit organization which has served the broad spectrum of the independent industry for 19 years.

CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ NEW FOR 1991! Distributor/Labels 1-On-1's - Daily sessions of brief, pre-arranged distributor/label interviews, designed to maximize time and exposure for all parties.
- ▶ The return of the INDIE Award! NAIRD has presented Award certificates for 11 years but 1990 marked the debut of the new I-shaped INDIE, designed specifically to honor the best of independent music.
- ▶ Regular features: Trade Show; panels, workshops and seminars featuring independent industry experts; exciting and unusual social functions, including the INDIE Awards Banquet and the NAIRD Hospitality Suite.

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

WHITNEY HOUSTON - Miracle (Arista)

Either shortly before or after you read this, Whitney will have sung this live from the Norfolk Naval Air Station aboard the U.S.S. Saratoga as part of her historic performance celebrating the safe return of 5,000 of our brave fighting forces from the Middle East. Seen and heard by millions, thanks to the HBO and Westwood One broadcast, "Welcome Home Heroes With Whitney Houston," it shouldn't suffer from lack of exposure. The emotional impact of her ballads can never be underrated and in the case of this L.A. and Babyface tune, the audience should be warned to keep a box of Kleenex handy while they listen. Simply an amazing talent!

THE REBEL PEBBLES - Dream Lover (I.R.S.)

A lot of Top 40 PDs looking under every nook and cranny for a hot straight-ahead Pop track can now enlist the help of The Rebel Pebbles to fill the void. Picking up where the Go-Go's left off, this foursome livens up the musical landscape with a production that spells, "H-A-P-P-Y."

LISA FISCHER - How Can I Ease The Pain (Elektra)

Anyone who caught the Rolling Stones' '89 tour should have a vivid recollection of three female vocalists who, in their back-up role, added plenty of voltage to the band's electrifying performance. Now Lisa, one of those three singers, no longer shares the spotlight, stepping out with this heart-wrenching ballad that will keep listeners transfixed. Luther Vandross, a close friend and supporter, helps out singing background vocals on this track.

SUSANNA HOFFS - Unconditional Love (Columbia)

What can best be described as "Eternal Flame '91," stands a good chance of having success similar to that sensational Bangles' hit. Susanna's phenomenal Pop sensibility is highlighted by producer David Kahane, who emphasizes all the right elements on this entry co-written by Cyndi Lauper.

BLACK BOX - Strike It Up (RCA)

Their first international hit, "Everybody Everybody," crept up and took everybody by surprise. Back in the batter's box with a dynamic Dance entry featuring the exceptional vocals of Martha Wash, they jump 24-15 at HOT 97 New York where APD/MD Kevin McCabe proclaims it, "one of our secret weapon records."

EMF - Unbelievable (EMI)

Alternative Editor Linda Ryan has been shouting EMF's praises on a daily basis. These modern rockers from England offer a fresh dimension to the genre with a fascinating musical array. Certainly worth serious Top 40 consideration.

CROSSOVER PICK

TONY! TONI! TONE! - Whatever You Want (Wing/Mercury)

Those three T's deliver the 3 S's on this effort—sweet, smooth and slick. Once again they demonstrate their ability as writers, producers and performers, entering the Top Ten on this week's Urban Contemporary chart and making the week's high debut for KMEL-San Francisco at #17.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

ROD STEWART - Vagabond Heart (Warner Bros.)

It's not merely the fact that this is Rod Stewart's eighteenth album, a feat in itself in the fragile world of popular music. It's not the fact that his gravelled voice continues to add emotion to the lyrical motion of both wide screen and close-up musical script. It's as much the texture and occasional raunch—the three dimensional spark and sensuality that sets Rod's body of work apart from other male troubadours who're lucky to have eighteen songs in their catalogue. This latest studio effort from Hot Rod opens with the already-a-hit RHYTHM OF MY HEART, complete with flourishes of bagpipes and produced by Trevor "Never Enough" Horn. Other special moments I'd hope would be extracted for singlehood include Rod's liquid hot duet with Tina Turner on the old Marvin Gaye/Kim Weston gem IT TAKES TWO, Van Morrison's recent HAVE I TOLD YOU LATELY, Robbie Robertson's BROKEN ARROW and the melancholic closer IF ONLY.
