New Releases

Drivin-N-Cryin, "Smoke" Island/PLG After five releases and sales reaching 500,000 on the last album, these Southern rockers are primed and ready for some heavy action at the format. Smoke is their most focused album to date, offering the best elements from their last five albums. It kicks in with a "wake up call" and rocks with the "in-your-face rocker", "Back Against The Wall" (positively a future single). "She Doesn't Want To Go" has a very catchy and repetitious (in a good way) guitar riff. Where there's "smoke" there's trouble, and the title track kicks ass and is down right nasty! The band's roots shine through on "When You Come Back" (custom made for a David Lynch film). "Patron Lady Beautiful" starts off sweetly with a Hendrix vibe but quickly spirals into a passionate rocker with Kinnney's killer vocals. "1000 Swings" has the group's trademark groove, while "1988" gets funky in an Aerosmith kind of fashion. One of the best tracks on the album is "Whiskey Soul Woman." There are a ton of emotion and tempo changes to make it very appealing. "What's The Difference" shows the depth of DNC and "Eastern European Camy Man" is a soulful Alternative number dedicated to Marco Sunset and Soul Asylum. "All Around The World" should be a show stopper live, and "Turn It Up or Turn It Off" leads the way, as the Smoke clears and DNC burns their way into the format for good!

Big Head Todd & The Monsters, "Sister Sweetly" Giant Triple A and upper demo AORs are having a field day with the latest from Big Head Todd. "Broken Hearted Savior" is something straight from the Heartland of America, that everybody can relate too. "Sister Sweetly" shows off the tight harmonies between Todd Park Mohr, Rob Squires, and Brian Nevin. "Turn Out The Light" is one of the strongest moments on the album with a memorable hook and killer biting guitar. The Blues flavored "Tomorrow Never Comes" is emotionally haunting, while "It's Alright" will be another upper demo favorite. "Groove Thing" shows a different side of the group and takes on a funky trip. "Soul For Every Cowboy" is a shining example of their Country roots (they wear them well), with a little help from the legendary Leo Kottke. "Ellis Island" is both lyrically and musically interesting with a poignant message. "Bittersweet" is six minutes of "sweet" strumming accompanied by the cool vocal style of Todd. "Circle" rocks with a cutting, rich guitar (songs like this get a group to the big time), and filled with emotion. "Brother John" rolls along with its Bible Belt appeal and reminiscent of Died Pretty's quality material. With a solid street vibe, this "monster" can only grow bigger and stronger with every spin!

Sand Rubies, "Sand Rubies" Atlas/PLG They fit the format like your favorite pair of jeans fit. They're so familiar and so refreshing to here on the radio. David Slutes and Rich Hopkins make up the Sand Rubies and one listen will tell you their music appeals to anyone, anytown, anywhere USA. Good old fashioned, no frills, rock and roll is served up on "Goodbye" while "Santa Maria Street" takes you back to the streets you grew up on (check out the kids). "Your Life Story" is about innocence gone wild. "Interstate" shows off the darker side of the band with gripping guitar work. "Drugged" delivers its message loud and clear. "Guns In The Churchyard" is a tale from the American Southwest. "Hangman In The Noose" shows their rougher edge in a speed demon fashion. "Bar Room Light" is a harmonic bliss between Slutes And Hopkins with some killer guitar playing. "Hit The Breaks" is a complete jammer while "Never" is wonderfully written and deserves complete respect and a serious listen. "Black Eyes And Broken Noses" is about the abuse (both mentally and physically) in a relationship. Check out the whole album and give this "gem" some quality ear time.

RECORD OF THE WEEK

Sacred Reich, "Independent" Hollywood The latest addition to the growing list of COR stations (KZRQ) added the "Reich" this week. KNAC, KRXQ, WBTZ and WXZL have already been giving listeners a taste of Sacred Reich's hard driving rock and roll. Sacred Reich have been on the scene since 1986 collecting loyal fans. Politically correct and ready to rip, Sacred Reich is not for the weak but if you believe in Metallica and Megadeth, than they may be your next big act!

ONE TO WATCH

Boneclub, "Everything's On Fire" Imago KIOZ/Peg Pollard, "Great things to come from them...I look forward to the upcoming album!" WAAF/Mark Razz, "A great record for COR! People will think they are from Seattle but all I hear is good-clean rock and roll!" KRXQ, KRXX, WAZU, and WRZX are out-of-the-box.

COR-ELEMENTS

Animal Bag, "Everybody" Stardog/Mercury Look for major adds for this funky little number next week. It has the appeal of a Guns N' Roses track with more soul. It will be a phone burner! WXZL adds with WVCR, KAZY, KBPI, and WHMH reporting early play.

The The, "Dogs Of Lust" Epic Take a slice of Midnight Oil, mix in hot, wet moisture, and turn up the heat. The The have been an Alternative fave for years, and have finally hit the mainstream with an infectious tune. KRXQ and WXZL add. KQLZ-heavy rotation.

Motorhead, "I Ain't No Nice Guy" WTG The major adds come from KQLZ & WUFX. It was made for COR and continues to develop strongly. One more "sweet week" and we're in the Top 10. This dark horse may come in after all. Thanks to all who are making it happen! It's REAL!

Alice In Chains, "Rooster" Columbia Prediction: It will be one of the most successful tracks from Dirt. 14 COR stations add to the 20 already playing. (8*)

Collision, "Chains" Chaos WKLQ breaks the chains and unleashes Collision's balls-to-the-wall sound. WAAF/Mark Razz, "We kicked it into heavy. Instead of sending out gas masks, the label should have sent asbestos gloves, because it is so hot!"

Dream Theater, "Take The Time" Atco/AtLg DT pulls in KISS, KNCN, KRXX, KRZR, WAAF, WAZU, WBTZ, WNCD and WUFX. KILO reports Top 5 phones. Looks like another monster from!

Heavy Bones, "Turn It On" Reprise It picks up rotation increases at KRXQ and WVCR. WHMH, WLZR and WRZK are giving Heavy Bones a shot to the top. C'mon folks! Hooks don't get much bigger! Hear how great it sounds on the air!

Stone Temple Pilots, "Push" AtL/AtLg KISW/Cathy Faulkner, "Get over that they have the Seattle sound because they get the phones and have their own merit and identity!" 9 stations add-24 playing.

Trouble, "Rain" Def American KNCN, KRXQ, WKLL, and WHMH

know the potential of Trouble. It's a ballad, but some of the best material from Pink Floyd was too. Loaded with killer harmonies and haunting melodies, the song is too good to be missed!

Flotsam & Jetsam, "Wading Through The Darkness" MCA WUFX adds. Flotsam are a strong band for the format and continue to build a steady, loyal fanbase. 26 report play!

Hardline, "Rhythm From A Red Car" MCA KBPI, KRXQ, KRZR, WAZU, and WUFX add. If you only play one song from Hardline, make it this one!

Screaming Trees, "Shadow Of The Season" Epic KISW, KNCN, and KQLZ add. Stop using the excuse it's too Alternative. What isn't these days!

Current Oriented Rock

Guy "G-Ster" Giuliano, KZRZ/Phoenix Yo! From the Valley Of The Sun, Phoenix Arizona, one of the country's hardest rockin' towns, served by one of the hardest rockin' stations 100.3 FM, KZRZ!

Since coming aboard as PD here in August we cranked life back into the sleeping giant. We understand that the fall arbs gives us #1 18-24 with nuclear heights, men 6.8 to 18.8, men 18-34 #2 up 3.9 to 6.2. Not bad for 100,000 watts of blazing rock! Who said if it's too loud, your too old! I have cranked in Chicago at the original, now defunct "Z-Rock" WZRC-FM in 1986 and "G-Force" AM rock radio. I truly believe in the C.O.R. format, and we have proved a full fledged project can work. We have marketed a "Get Hard" promotion takin' Phoenix and Tucson by storm! It's also a rush to see the 3 upper demo A.O.R.s in town react to our strong numbers so passively. Our street presence has built big time. We present an average of 5 concerts a month, and hit the hot Phoenix streets with the "Get Hard" van, and dog tag drive. Due to our signal, we target statewide as well, shakin' up Tucson! Music wise we will play anything from Tommy Bolin to Slayer, of course dayparted, but interesting, uh! Hot currents: Green Jello, Testament, Jackyl, Suicidal Tendencies, Motorhead, Dream Theater, Megadeth, to name a few! When in Arizona, check us out! "Arizona's Rock Radio Super Station" 100.3 KZRZ!! GETHARD!

David Baerwald, "A Brand New Morning" A&M Even before David & David, Baerwald has always been unflinchingly and painfully honest in his lyrics. It's apparent that the images of Boomtown are still vivid and ongoing, and David continues to explore that darker side of life in his second solo record for A&M, Triage. The first single, "A Brand New Morning," once again forces us to face the harsh realities of life that we too often attempt to sweep under the rug, and yet, rather than leaving us depressed, the song somehow offers a ray of hope. It even left KSKE's Tony Baroni feeling, "It's the kind of stuff that makes you want to cuddle up with your sweetie in front of the fire after a hard day of skiing." Also up for Triple A consideration is "The Got No Shotgun HydraHead Octopus Blues," to take the sting out of those days when government rhetoric gets out of hand. WMMM's Sybil McGuire likes 'em both, "We're playing both of the singles. I especially love 'Hydrahead.' It's a great song. I had so much fun reading the package of lyrics that I'm really looking forward to hearing the whole album."

Gene Loves Jezebel, "Heavenly Bodies" Savage If you let this album sit at the bottom of a pile thinking that it would most likely be too hard for your station... THINK AGAIN. Gene Loves Jezebel's musical progression has definitely taken a turn toward the Adult Alternative highway with their first release on Savage. "Josephina" received heavy Triple A airplay and had a nice run up the A.A.A. chart. We now turn our full attention to the title track, as does KBCO's Ginger Havlat, "Heavenly Bodies' is perfect for Triple A. It just goes to prove you should never judge a band by the color of their hair." KFOG's Rosalie Howarth, offered, "It's real hypnotic, sophisticated modern music, without that alternative edge. We're perfectly happy with the full album version, but we understand there's an edit forthcoming for those with tighter time constraints." WKOC's Lauren McLeash added, "I really like that tune... in fact, I like the whole album. It's much different than their previous works. This particular tune works for us during the day as well as at night. It has a nice accessible sound to it. We've gotten good audience response on this tune and 'Josephina.'" Early Triple A adds come from KFOG, WNCS, KBCO, WKOC and WVGO.

Mouth Music, "Milking The Cow" Rykodisc There are so many musically and ethnically diverse styles in the songs of Mouth Music that there are too many ways to describe it — rhythm and blues, funky, rock, ethereal, folk, hip-hop, synthesized, acoustic, dance, electric — it is "world" music in the truest sense. Take some time to really explore Mo-Di, and something different will jump out at you with every listen. It's just what the musically educated Adult Alternative listener is looking for. "Milking The Cow" is receiving early Triple A airplay from WXPB, KCRW, KGSR and WNCW. WXPB's World Cafe producer Bruce Ranes commented on the first single, "As much as I loved the more traditional sound of the earlier albums, it's refreshing to hear them in English. Jackie Joyce's vocals complement Martin Swan's bag of instruments dispersed throughout the track." WNCW's Greg Hills fought bronchitis long enough to tell us, "It's funky and irresistible. It works well in just about any daypart and our specialty shows. We're getting good audience response."

Bel Canto, "Shimmering Warm & Bright" Chameleon The multi-talented Norwegian duo of Anneli Drecker and Nils Johansen combine to form an eclectic worldly sound, complete with exotic instruments and vocals that demand to be given Triple A attention. They've definitely won over WMMM's Sybil McGuire, "We've been playing 'Shimmering' for a couple of weeks. When I first heard this record, I thought it had an incredible, almost Gaelic sound. It's got a pleasing Alternative feel to it." Bruce Ranes is planning to feature the duo on the World Cafe, "...the perfect combination for a hit. Anneli's voice will blow you down. Watch for Bel Canto acoustic on the World Cafe next month. Anneli just took over when she was here in the studio. Vocally, she filled up the room. It was just incredible. It reminded me a lot of Alison Moyet." KXCI's Renee Blake makes it unanimous: "Bel Canto are very unique, with several musical variations at play. Their style is very textured. They seem to have interwoven some new age, some post modern, and maybe even a touch of jazz or classical in there. It's real interesting to listen to. It's a definite progression from their last album. They're moving up in the world." With adds from WNCS, WYEP, WCLZ, WXPB, WXRT, KIOT, KTCZ, KXCI and WMMM, look for Bel Canto on the chart in the next few weeks.

What's Cooking at The Cafe

March has been designated as studio innovators month. Throughout the month, The Cafe will feature producers, artists, musicians, and inventors who were instrumental in fusing their natural acoustic sounds with technological developments. Many have invented their own hybrid sound, instrument or piece of studio equipment.

For The Week Of March 1

Mon. 3/1: MD Mike Morrison will present a new album of the week.

Tue. 3/2: Michael Brook will perform in the Cafe studio and talk with David Dye about the "Infinite Guitar" sound that he developed which U2's The Edge has popularized.

Fri. 3/5: New singer/songwriter Chris Kowanko stops by for an in-studio performance.

Sat. 3/6: A visit from veteran singer/songwriter Eric Anderson. He'll play some old favorites and debut new material from his upcoming album.

PREVIEW: On Monday, March 8, WXPB's Michaela Majoun will host The World Cafe's annual International Women's Day Special. One of our two guests will be Shawn Colvin.

March Cafe highlights: Interview excerpts from guitar and studio innovator Les Paul (which originally broadcast last spring). Also, segments from our Robert Fripp interview. Fri. 3/19, Musician's Day with Thomas Dolby. He'll co-host our weekly feature: Lost Classics of the New Wave, talk about his recent album, Astronauts & Heretics, and he'll play DJ for an hour.

CHECKOUT TRACKS

The Rosemarys, "Wake Me Up" Continuum Even though the band members grew up in Albuquerque, they've adopted San Francisco as their home base. And there's definitely an easy California feel to the Rosemary's debut album, Providence. Tracks already receiving Triple A attention include "Wake Me Up," "Spiritualized," "Rollercoaster," and the title track. Jim Herron commented from WBOS, "They make Outstanding use of some heavy acoustic guitars. It reminds me of very early soft Genesis." KFOG's, Rosalie Howarth was a little surprised by the album, "I didn't expect to like it this much, or find as many tracks that were so sweet and appealing right off the bat. Welcome to Marin County, Rosemarys."

Jenni Muldaur, "Black Clouds" Warner Bros. Generation X is beginning to infiltrate the Triple A chart, and they are coexisting quite nicely, thank you. Jenni Muldaur's immense musical heritage helped to bring in some fairly heavy hitters to collaborate on her debut, as noted by WBOS', Jim Herron, "The production by Russ Titelman is superb. That, of course, includes the collaboration of Waddy Wachtel, Chuck Leavell and Nathan East. Jenni has a haunting voice, ironically, though, not reminiscent of Maria, but more reminiscent of a very young Stevie Nicks. It's a great start for her." OTB adds come from KFMG, KMMS and WBOS.

Michael Nesmith, "Laugh Kills Lonesome" Pacific Arts In 1973, we swore we would never again wear bellbottoms, go-go boots, false eyelashes or listen to The Monkees. But here we are, twenty years later, wearing those horrible pants and boots, and our eyelashes are so long we can lick them. The good news is, we're listening again to one very talented Monkee, Michael Nesmith. Even under the confines of the mock rock band, his singing and songwriting talents were obvious, and with the release of "Tropical Campfires," we're remembering just why we liked the guy so much. KBCO's Ginger Havlat commented, "Wonderfully quirky. 'Laugh Kills Lonesome' is what Jimmy Buffett would sound like if he traded the beach for the desert." WMMM's, Sybil McGuire tried to stump her listeners with the album, "I played it as part of my Mystery Blueplate Special and asked the listeners to call in and guess the artist. Quite a few called in and said "I can't believe it's Michael Nesmith. Boy, I like that song." KTHX's, Don Darue is a believer, "The whole album is a great body of work. Both 'Laugh Kills Lonesome' and 'I Am Not That' generate great phones for us. 'Moon Over The Rio Grand' is also a good tune for us out here in the desert. The instrumental is working well in all dayparts for us."

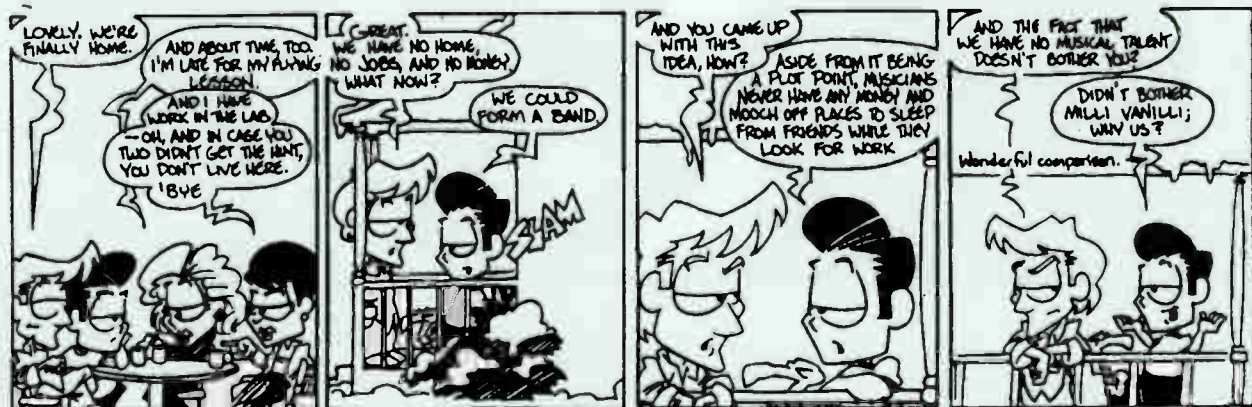

Congratulations to Jim McGuinn, Kerry Gray, and the staff at WEQX on being named one of the best radio stations in America in the current issue of Rolling Stone. "We were completely surprised," said McGuinn. "We had previously done something with the Spin Doctors for Rolling Stone, and when I got the letter, I thought they were thanking me for that. To get a letter from Rolling Stone telling me that we were voted one of the best stations in America was pretty cool. Especially since we didn't go out and ask people to vote for us, it just happened. It goes to prove that our listeners are not just listeners, they're our friends and family, and they care enough to fill in our station as the best station in America."

Impact Tracks

Collision, "Chains," Chaos (4/53) When you add up Chaos, Collision and "Chains," besides the potential for serious destruction, you get a grunge-filled, in-your-face, strange (but excellent) single. WEGR, WKLQ, WZZO, WZZR were among the new AORs to add it this week, while increased rotation came about at KRXQ and WRZX. Stations like KNAC, KRXQ, WAAF and WXZL are jamming "Chains" in their Heavy categories and you need to try this, too. Jeff Newton tells us, "I like it. I really like it! It's a great, solid AOR record with some good staying power."

Cell Mates, "You're My Obsession," Scotti Brothers (4/7) The Cell Mates have a new single and this one is even better than the first. "Obsession" rocks and these ladies do a great job of belting it out. There is a shortage of women on the AOR scene as of late and this one is clearly needed to fill the void. KBAT, WAPL, WZZL and KZGL give it a nod and a spin this week, adding to the list of early supporters who heard the single before the rest of the pack (KSKE, WUFX and WRCQ).

Disturbance, "Resolution," Zoo (4/5) Disturbance is the name of a new band. Lead singer David Fury has given his views of the new single, a song about serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer, in a letter to the industry published in this issue. Past Disturbance works have tended to be rather light, but "Resolution" is an outlet of anger for the band and listeners as well. (Please see the David Fury letter in this issue for a complete, personal explanation of the song.)

Dixie Dregs, "Medley," Capricorn (4/43) Here's a song that's guilty of a slow build. The song has been out for several weeks, each week getting more and more attention. Now, it has become a single that no one can deny. Steve Morse is truly unbelievable (as are the rest of the group members) throughout the entire album, not to mention "Medley" in particular. This stellar instrumental will fit perfectly into any on-air routine.

Brad Gillis, "Honest To God," Guitar Recordings (1/7) From the small label with the BIG EGO...Brad Gillis teams up with Gregg Allman to bring a delightful guitar rich single for all factions of the format. Triple A is just discovering its riches, while the mainstreams and even COR stations simultaneously do the same. Beaver Brown at KDJK and Marty Bender at WFBQ have already added the single and both have agreed that if AOR was told "Here's a new Gregg Allman track," it would be an automatic add, out of the box for everyone.

Saints & Sinners, "We Belong," Savage (4/10) WIYY and KIBZ are just two of the believers on "We Belong." In fact, they're rolling this one in HEAVY rotation. It's formula-fine and perfect at any time; a virtual all daypart monster. It appeals to those discriminating females without offending those grunge hungry COR males. In fact it ought to have the men and women saying "We Belong" together when we listen to Saints & Sinners on XXXX (insert your call letters here).

WALT TIBURSKI RETURNS TO THE NEST

WMMS has announced their new General Manager, and it's one of their old GMs, Walt Tiburski. He replaces Chuck Bortnick, who left for the big Metro Traggic regional sales gig a couple of weeks ago. Walt started as a salesman at the station in the late '70s, and ended up becoming General Manager in 1979, a post he held until 1984, at which time his WIN Communications bought WQAL in Cleveland. He sold the station in 1990, and has been consulting bankers and broadcasters since then. Nice gig. As you might expect, Walt's totally plugged-in around town, and given the fact that morning show lifers Jeff and Flash were at the station during his first tenure, as was the station's business manager Judy Goldberg, and even the overnight guy, B.L.F. Bash, this is quite the comfortable homecoming. In fact, things in Buzzardville should be totally cozy given WMMS's joint sales venture with WMJI, which is owned by Legacy, the head honcho of which, Carl Hirsh, was former president of Malrite. What is this, the radio equivalent of "All My Children"? It could well be, once that impending Shamrock/Malrite merger comes through. Stay Tuned.

JOHN McCRAE RETURNS TO KRQR

John McCrae

KRQR Radio alumnus John McCrae returns to the Bay Area as Program Director of The Rocker, effective March 1. Commented VP/GM Don Marion, "After carefully evaluating PDs nationwide, I decided John is the best program director to help us accomplish our current and long term goals. John is a KRQR veteran, having served as assistant program director, music director and afternoon drive personality, so we are thrilled he's coming back home to the Bay Area. His knowledge of the marketplace combined with his programming experience and true passion for the business adds up to a great hire for KRQR and CBS Radio." McCrae returns to KRQR from KSD-FM/St. Louis, where he was PD of the Gannett Broadcasting AOR outlet for the last year. Prior to that, he spent three years programming KDKB-FM/Phoenix. His radio background also includes stints with KFMF, WMET and KMEL. "This is really a dream come true for me to return home to the Bay Area with CBS Radio and program a great station like KRQR," said McCrae. "I've kept up with the market conditions while I've been away, so I'll hit the ground running from day one. It's been a pleasure working with the great group of professionals at KSD and Gannett Radio."

THE WEEK IN RADIO

FRY LIKE AN EAGLE

It looks as if Philadelphia's Eagle 106 is about to launch some sort of major format change, but no one is sure what. Last Tuesday brought word that WEGX would not be re-signing morning drive star John Lander, the station's highest rated jock, and that last Friday's show would be his final one for the station. This after taking his Nut Hut morning show from 16th to 3rd over the last two years. With that came news that Program Director Brian Phillips was also leaving as of last Friday, reportedly in partial protest over ownership's unwillingness to re-up their franchise air talent; all this on the heels of high Nut Hut sideman Danny Bonaduce's exit last week to do overnights at the Loop AM. So, what's getting ready to happen? Certainly, the impending Shamrock/Malrite merger factors into the weirdness, except that the station operates via a unique Malrite/Shearson Lehmann arrangement. Shearson actually owns controlling interest and Malrite is in charge of day to day operations. There is serious conjecture that the Nut Hut's hefty price tag, rumored to be around a mil a year, is simply way too much dough (especially given the station's mid 4s ratings of late), ditto Phillips' $250K salary. Initial industry speculation had the station flipping to Modern as of this Monday, a move that seemed to make little or no sense given WDRE/WIBF's recent entry into the market, as well as WXPB's reach and frequency in the Adult Alternative arena. Next to surface was a wacky theory about 100 investors who had pooled together to buy the station. Watch this one be true! Then the rumor that the Alternative thing was just a smokescreen and that the station had signed John Edwards to consult a Blaze type COR approach. Since station manager Dave Noll wasn't taking any calls, we called two other resident experts for their educated guesses on what's to come at 106. WYSP's Tim Sabean said that, yes, he had heard all the above rumors and more, and that he felt anything could happen, from rock to country to alternative, and that he had seen so many bizarre things happening in this business that anything was possible. Amen. From WXPB's Mike Morrison, "My uneducated opinion is that they're not really thinking very seriously about what they're going to do in terms of format. It strikes me that not to renew your #3 morning guy suggests that they're more interested in cutting costs than anything else, and that format decisions would be a lower priority. Whatever format they do, I don't think they'll do it very seriously. Something low cost and easy to do, at least for the short term, until they figure out where they really want to go. I may have egg on my face, but I'd be surprised if they lean alternative. I suspect something much more generic, perhaps some variation on Hard Rock or Country."

HARDLY A 21 GUN SALUTE

Phil Hardy

Sorry to hear that Phil Hardy and Tony Gates have been nixed by the Nipper, especially given that their only two real work projects in recent memory were Michael Penn (tough) and 21 Guns (tougher). Phil had been with RCA for two years, moving up from artist development into the national AOR seat a year ago. On top of losing his job mere days before his 28th birthday (March 5th), Phil fell and broke his elbow last week in the parking lot of the Newark airport, on the way to see a prospective RCA signing in Kansas. Nonetheless, he flew to Minneapolis, on to Kansas City, then drove himself forty minutes to the gig in Lawrence. He didn't miss a note of the show and finally went to an ER at 4:30AM, where he was diagnosed and casted. No lack of second effort there, eh? Call with birthday greetings at (201) 343-6692. One day after Phil's exit came word that West

Tony Gates

Coast based National Director Tony Gates was also on the street. As expected, the Toneman's closing comments were characteristically eloquent, "It is with a heavy heart that I announce my departure from RCA. At this time, they chose not to renew my contract. I would like to thank Butch Waugh for being a class act, and wish Joe Galante and the entire RCA staff and roster the best of luck in all their future endeavors. The Bruce Hornsby is an exceptional work and I'm truly sad I won't be a part of its huge success. Add it, will ya. My home number is (805) 499-5231. Call me and give me some shit." Meanwhile, no real word on who or what will come down next, but smart money has Atlanta based Jordan Zucker holding down the fort out of New York or L.A.

WKFM FORMAT FLIP FINAL

The "WKFM to Country" rumors have been rampant for a couple of months now, and this week, Country was confirmed as the new format of choice once NewCity Communications, owners of WSYR and WYYY in Syracuse, take over WKFM in April. WKFM's PD Brian Illes comments, "The good news is that we still have till April 1st to look around, to be active and to be on the radio. So, it could be a whole lot worse. Of course, if the new owners wanted to pump a lot of money into Classic Rock it could be a whole lot better." And how does Brian think this will affect arch rival WAQX? "Certainly, from a business standpoint, this is going to make things a lot more difficult for them. Say what you will about NewCity's programming, they are a very efficient sales organization. The advertising business in Syracuse is not expanding and that's why our company decided to sell. The writing was on the wall, and even regional and local dollars weren't increasing. Over the past couple of years, WYYY's ratings weren't what they once were, but NewCity managed to make their projections, selling in combo with WSYR, and I imagine they will do what they have to do to make their country station win." If you're looking to hire an entire air staff, from mornings through overnights, Mr. Illes has one available. Call him at (315) 487-1500 for particulars.

THE DAYTON GAME

This late news out of Dayton. COR reporter WAZU has been LMA'd by Dayton Top 40 WGTZ, owned by Great Trails. That group's president, Dave Macejko, was SM and GM at WEBN, and he was Jacor's resident expert when they took the Power Pig in Tampa from worst to first. WAZU Program Director Brad Hardin is the first casualty, with more changes to follow.

DEREK SHULMAN: A GIANT ONCE MORE

Mo Ostin, Derek Shulman and Irving Azoff

Derek Shulman will head a new, as yet unnamed record label, under the auspices of the Warner Bros.-distributed Giant Records. The announcement was made jointly by Giant Records Owner Irving Azoff, Warner Board Chairman Mo Ostin, and Warner President Lenny Waronker. Shulman, President of the new company, will be based in New York. Shulman began his industry career as a member of the British band Simon Deupree & The Big Sound. Subsequently, lead singer and manager of the progressive rock group Gentle Giant, Shulman joined PolyGram Records in 1982, eventually becoming Sr. VP/A&R. In '88, Shulman moved to Atco as President, and eventually Chairman of the label. Commenting on the formation of Shulman's label, Azoff said, "Derek is a man of vision, experience and boundless energy. The prospect of working closely with him in this new venture is an exciting one indeed. There is, simply, no one better suited to launch a new label and attract the kind of top-flight talent that will establish an identity both with consumers and the industry." Remarked Ostin, "Derek Shulman is firmly in the Warner Bros. tradition of artist-executives, a creative connection of which we're very proud. There is perhaps no one in the industry who understands the interface between artistry and business better than Derek, and it's with great pleasure that we announce this new company."

NOT THE WALTONS

Got an interesting fax out of Charlotte this week. The lead line: "The local media and radio industry press have reported recently on Infinity Broadcasting President Mel Karmazin's interest in hiring John Isley and Billy James, hosts of the John Boy and Billy show, for a possible Southeastern syndicated radio show based in Atlanta." The communique went on to state that WRFX's megatalented morning team would hold a press conference last Wednesday at noon at the Omni in Atlanta. Here's the deal — Karazin did pitch the duo, but Pyramid principal Richie Balsbaugh and WRFX PD Jack Daniels apparently managed to counter with a big dollar deal through 1999. The two would have been a tremendous snag for Mel. Infinity's air personality arsenal is second to none, and John Boy and Billy have the goods to be huge multi-regionally. The jury is still out on how Howard might be received in the South, and these guys would have been perfect for any market concerned about Stern's obvious baggage. The show has been beamed into WROQ/Greenville, S.C., and there have been efforts to get into several other Southeastern cities, but nothing has really developed. Now that Pyramid has made the big investment, look for the morning show network to make dramatic strides, especially given the going rate for a serious local personality.

JOE KIENER APPOINTED CEMA SR. VP

Joe Kiener has been appointed Sr. VP/Operations and Logistics, CEMA, overseeing all of EMI's US manufacturing and distribution facilities, as well as related Logistics functions. With this appointment, it was announced that all Manufacturing, Distribution and related functions will be integrated under the single umbrella of CEMA, the sales and distribution arm of EMI Records Group North America. Commented CEMA President Russ Bach, "All of us at CEMA look forward to having someone of Joe Kiener's stature join us. Joe brings with him a wealth of practical knowledge, experience and leadership that will assist us greatly on the Operations and Logistics side of our business."

Penthouse does Vanessa dirty again. Poor Vanessa Williams. She was dubbed "Vanessa The Undressa" when she had to give up her Miss America crown in 1984. It took her years to get her career on track. After dabbling as a model and actress, she finally hit it big as a pop diva last year, with platinum sales, major air-time on VH-1 and four Grammy nominations, including Best Pop Vocal Performance, Female, and Record Of The Year for "Save The Best For Last." Vanessa, who even hosts her own show, The Soul Of VH-1, is happily married, to Ramon Hervey, who is also managing her career, and they have two beautiful children. And now she's about to land on the cover of Penthouse again. The skin mag, which brought about her downfall nine years ago, also has eleven nude photos of her inside, some which show her interacting with another equally undressed woman. The photos are presumably from the same ill-advised shoot in which Vanessa participated before she was Miss America. The magazine is also publishing the model release form Vanessa signed that gave the photographer total control over the negatives. Hervey told me he wasn't expecting much of a reaction to a batch of recycled old photos. "No one is going to care," he said. Asked if he was angry with Penthouse publisher Bob Guccione, he replied, "I don't expect anything else. He's already proven what sort of person he is." ♦♦♦♦ Patty Smyth spent two years making a solo album for Columbia/Sony Music. They didn't like it. They unceremoniously dumped her. Next Al Teller, former Columbia/Sony Music biggie, now the President of MCA, scarfed her up. She went into the studio, recut one of her songs as a duet with Don Henley, "Sometimes Love Just Ain't Enough." The song hit number one and now it has been nominated for a Grammy. It totally revived her career. Made Columbia/Sony look stupid. Made Al Teller look very smart. ♦♦♦♦ There could be an immaculate conception in store for Madonna. Woody Hochswender reports to this column that Madonna was discussing her impending motherhood while she was filming her Bad Girl video in the Calvin Klein showroom in the Garment District in New York City. "The shy blond was overheard saying that 1993 is the year for her to have a baby," Hochswender says, "and she wants it to be a boy, she added, and, she thinks that it's going to be gay." Since Madonna seems to have sworn off men for the last few months, preferring female company, it's a real mystery who the future father might be. ♦♦♦♦ Eric Clapton seems to be more than serious in his romance with model Naomi Campbell. He has been staying at his home in Antigua while she has been off in Paris modeling the top designer collections that came out this month, and he has been long-distancing her steadily. Word is that Naomi is looking for a career change and wants to break into the rock n roll business. Look out Madonna! ♦♦♦♦

A note to radio:

"Resolution" is a song about Jeffrey Dahmer.

When the media first reported his crimes in such detail, everyone rushed to their T.V. sets to get a glimpse of him, expecting to see some freak of nature standing before them. But when I looked, I saw nothing but a pathetic man who stripped himself of his own humanity.

My experience began here, with Dahmer in the courtroom, listening to his crimes described in detail. While I was trying to tune out the seven steps to preparing human flesh, I watched and waited for a reaction from this man. But there was nothing - no expression, no remorse, no resolve from him at all. It felt as though he was taking a piece of my own humanity and consuming it, the way he consumed the lives and dignity of those unfortunate enough to know him.

Disturbance is known for our light-hearted approach to rock and roll, but I could find no other outlet for my anger toward Dahmer, and the sympathy that I feel for the victims and their families. Perhaps others can find value in what the song has to say. Perhaps there is no resolve for such an attack against humanity.

RADIO RUMBLE

WPYX/Albany morning gurus Mason and Sheehan recently celebrated their morning ratings with a three day event in the "Big Apple" that was loaded with star studded interviews. Talent ranging from Van Halens's Sammy Hagar to Mayor Ed Koch made the rounds to praise the morning show for holding their own against Stern. Pictured below are Mason and Sheehan in New York City getting their crowns for being "The Kings Of Capitaland Radio." Nothing like a good old fashioned radio war to make things interesting!

WMMR/Philadelphia held their fourth annual Street Beat Awards to local performers in 13 categories. Winners were determined by balloting conducted through the Philly Rock Guide. Jeffrey Gaines, local singer/songwriter, was the big winner of the night, taking all three categories in which he was nominated including Best Album, Best Single, and Best New Artist. Allentown's Zen For Primates won in two categories and was a write-in winner as well. South Jersey's Mercy River took best new artist and also won two write-in categories. Most Deserving Of A Record Deal went to the Outriders; Best Album: Spiritual, Pre-School; Best Singer/Songwriter Female: Essra Mohawk; and Best Singer/Songwriter Male: Matt Sevier.

WRFX/Charlotte 12 year market veterans John Boy & Billy put an end to rumors of their departure from WRFX and Pyramid Broadcasting. The Number One morning show in Charlotte will stay until January 1, 1999. The team inked a new deal this week, after Infinity's WZGC in Atlanta tried to lure them with plans to syndicate them throughout the Southeast. WZGC already has Stern and the Greaseman under syndication contracts. To further complicate matters, WRFX just syndicated John Boy & Billy, by signing the first affiliate, WROQ in Greenville. Jack Daniel, WRFX General Manager, said, "Of course we are delighted to resign these guys. They are not only a great morning show, but great friends and we're all committed to syndicating their morning show in as many markets as possible. We have always thought the show would work outside of Charlotte. If Mel Karmazin (Infinity) still wants them, MCI can have the lines up and running in 30 days. If Mel's no longer interested, then possibly one of his Atlanta competitors might be inclined to borrow his idea. With proper promotion and marketing, these guys could be very big in Atlanta, very quickly!" Other markets expressing interest in the "team" include Raleigh, N.C., and Columbia, S.C.

KISW/Seattle's radiothon was a complete success. An unrelenting double shot of ABBA was among the musical highlights during their 5th Annual Radiothon. Listeners made their requests and KISW played them for a price. KISW raised $17,992 for Health Care for the Homeless of Seattle- King County. Pledges were taken from 6a-6p, with auction items put on the block periodically throughout the day that included signed artwork from Jerry Garcia, boxing gloves from Riddick Bowe, and a tour jacket autographed by Aerosmith. Bidding was most heated for a Fender guitar autographed by Eric Clapton that finally went for four grand. Health Care for the Homeless of Seattle-King County is a non-profit organization that provides medical and nursing care, mental health counseling, and other programs to thousands of homeless people. They are also the local recipient of pledge money from HBO's annual Comic Relief.

KSPQ/West Plains celebrated Valentines Day in a very sweet way to help out the Special Olympics in the area. The object was to raise 17 pounds of chocolate for their Valentine celebration. Listeners donated over 27 pounds of chocolate for the event. Program Director Stacy Hicks challenged the audience by saying, "There's no way we can get that much chocolate...No Way!" She also said if they got that much, she would let the public dunk her in liquid chocolate. Pictures are worth a thousand words and you can obviously tell she lost the bet and followed through on her promise. In freezing temperatures Hicks was feverishly thrashed with Mr. Quick and Mr. "Goodbar." Music Director Jeff Newton only had one thing to say, "Turkey's Done!"

RADIO RUMBLE

KQRS/Minneapolis wed the masses. 92 couples joined the station for a mega wedding at the Mall Of America. 400 people vied for the chance to wed together. KQRS provided the judge, flowers, a Camp Snoopy reception and a two-day honeymoon trip to Mardi Gras in New Orleans. The free trip enticed many to shrug off a conventional wedding, not to mention a novel, quick, and cheap way to tie the knot. The event was broadcast live on the radio and television as Judge Richard Spicer gave some sentimental advice while the 92 couples stood shoulder to shoulder with family in the wings. After the ceremonial kiss, couples rode the Screaming Eagle at Camp Snoopy, sipped champagne and were given a large, heart-shaped cookie from the mall's merchants.

95X/Syracuse held their 3rd Annual "Pizza Playoffs." This year's contest was held over a one week period with morning mavericks, Dave & The Fatman on "The Big Show." Pizza stores from all over Syracuse entered the contest in hopes of being recognized for the best pie in Central New York. After trying a slice of every kind of pizza during the morning show, the award was presented to Little Mac's Pizzeria. Nearly 50 stores participated in honor of "National Pizza Week," Pictured left to right are Dave Coombs (mornings), pizza "I can't believe these guys get paid for this" boy and The Fatman (mornings).

WKLQ/Grand Rapids Q-Morning Zoo asked listeners to propose to their loved ones for the chance to have "Reverend Rick" perform the wedding on the eve of Valentines Day. The Q-Zoo was looking for the most outrageous proposal to make their decision on who would be the couple. Dale Hermenitt (left) filled the bill by proposing to his girlfriend dressed as Cupid high above the streets on a 'KLQ billboard. Darla Jaye (middle) and "Reverend Rick" Beckett (right) broadcasted a portion of the morning show from the billboard's location. The lucky couple got a reception, flowers and rings valued at $1,300.

CILQ/Toronto's Sports Director, John "Spike" Gallagher was a featured guest on ABC's 20/20 Friday. Gallagher was part of a special on Drs. Walter and Martin Unger, the Toronto-based hair transplant surgeons who are considered the leaders in the field. Well, guess who's a client? That's right! Rogaine just wouldn't do! Gallagher (1991 winner of The Record, Canada's radio broadcast trade publication's News, Talk Show and Sportscaster of the Year Award, and the reigning winner of the Foster Hewitt Award for Sportscaster of The Year) said, "These doctors have made advancements in the field of hair transplants that have attracted stars from around the world!" If you think being on 20/20 is lightweight, think again! It is seen by over 40 million viewers a week in both countries. Hair's looking at you!

WXTB/Tampa put the power on with a "What Would You Do For Metallica Tickets" contest. The concert was sold out for a month and WXTB was the only station to have a pair of passes to meet the group. Listeners had the opportunity to show just how dare-devil they could be, however illegal, nude, and harmful acts were not permitted. They had a ton of wild entries, but nothing could prepare anyone for what the winners did. Two dudes came to the event with a fresh bag of cow Sh*%^. One of them made a poo poo patty with fresh buns, and took some healthy bites. He then drank some milk, tossed his won cookies in a container, then his friend stepped in to take over and drank the mixture. Needless to say, they won the event. When asked for a comment they did their best Wayne and Garth imitation, "I think I'm gonna hurl!"

Interview

By Bill Hord

ANTHONY TO ST. LOUIS: THE POINT..GET IT?

Ken Anthony first came to the industry's attention in the late 70's when he rose from Middays to Music to Program Director at KSJO. After an extended enlistment in the Bay Area battles, he headed south in 1989 to program KISS/San Antonio and later that year traded up to KLOL/Houston, where he and Promo Guru Doug Harris created "Outlaw Radio." In 1991, Ken capped his AOR programming career with a move to KLOS. Now with his latest endeavor, the LMA'd combo of KPNT and KFXB, Anthony and Harris are looking to create another franchise similar to the one they honed to a razor's edge in Houston. Anthony's current job definitely falls under the heading "Taking Chances," as the two stations cover the upper and lower end of the so called "alternative" spectrum — Triple A and Modern Rock. In a Midwestern market like St. Louis one might think that running two radio stations playing music off the beaten path is a fairly high risk proposition. Or is it?

Ken: You would not believe the overwhelming response. We've gotten tons of faxes and phone calls. We even blew the phones out last week, so many people are calling about this. It's unbelievable.

That's wonderful, but I've got to tell you, Ken, that I've talked with a lot of people who are saying, 'Why the hell would he pick that format for St. Louis?'

Ken: Why don't they get it?

I think the prevailing logic is that the coasts lock into progressive media quickly, but that you're dealing with an entirely different animal in the Midwest.

Riverport Amphitheater, that's 20,000 seats. Along with that, the Cure is selling out very fast. There is a huge underground scene here. 135,000 college students. I would guess that it may be surprising to people who haven't spent time here, or who have this image of St. Louis as being kind of a conservative, meat and potatoes, rock and roll town. I think in the midst of all of this there has been an Alternative scene ready to explode for years, and now, they finally have the vehicle for it to happen.

What nurtured it along? Was it the consumer press? Was it the club scene?

the grunge stuff that's out there. We're playing Nirvana and Alice In Chains, those types of bands. We're pretty rock based in a lot of respects, and if there is indeed that large blue collar segment of the population that wants to hear meat and potatoes rock and roll, there's an element of it on our radio station. But we'll have to see come ratings time.

I was talking to another consultant last week, and I was fishing around for some loaded questions for you, and he remarked, 'You know, I just can't see how Ken and the Point can do much better than a 2.5 share, and a 3 if they do exceptionally.' Obviously, you consider that conservative.

Ken: Who knows? At this point, I'm more concerned about creating a franchise. A lot of the radio stations that do this initially may not start out with great ratings, but you have a franchise. When artists like this come to town, it's your band. The bottom line is, can we make a business out of this? With all the other options available, this was the one that made the most sense in terms of creating a business niche for a radio station.

Do you foresee the growth pattern of what you're doing will parallel to how long it takes to establish a Triple A?

Ken: I think it's quicker. We're getting immediate gratification from listeners right now. The real trick will be to grow and evolve, and keep the core happy while remaining mass appeal. Our Adult Alternative, WFXB, will take a little longer. We're trying to establish an album station, and the people we've hired will help us do that.

So, you're moving WFXB more toward a pure Triple A direction, right?

Ken: I'm moving them more in that direction. It's going to be a four step process: The first step is, working on the music, adding currents and more album depth. The second step is on-air sound, making it more of an album rock musically intensive presentation. That's where people like Vic Porcelli, who's going to work mornings for us, come into play. Our midday personality/music director Suzanne Michaels was the original midday jock at WMMO in Orlando, and she's absolutely terrific. Some of the other players on the station are Tom Kramer and Doc Johnson who've been

I would guess that it may be surprising to people who haven't spent time here, or who have this image of St. Louis as being kind of a conservative, meat and potatoes, rock and roll town. I think in the midst of all of this there has been an Alternative scene ready to explode for years, and now, they finally have the vehicle for it to happen.

Ken: Look at Chicago. And understand that St. Louis and Chicago are very similar cities in a lot of respects. Who knows? We haven't gotten any ratings back yet, but I would wager to guess that we did our homework and found out that it will indeed work here. St. Louis is very similar to Philadelphia in a way. It has more of an eastern city feel to it than you would expect. Obviously, there are elements of that straight-ahead, rock n' roll vibe. We'll see what happens.

Is there any alternative heritage in the market?

Ken: There's a guy by the name of Les Aaron, who we hired for weekends who's been doing a program called 'New Music Sunday' in the market for years. He has been kind of the liaison between the St. Louis audience and the national alternative record community. His shows have had phenomenal ratings wherever he's been. He was on the old WMRV years ago. He was on KXOK, I believe in '79. He hasn't been on the radio since October. We put him on last night for the first time, and the response was just overwhelming. Lots of phone calls and faxes, and people saying, 'It's great to have Les back on the air.' Ned's Atomic Dustbin sold out Mississippi Nights, a 1,000-seat club, a couple of weeks ago, with no noticeable airplay. Lollapoloosa sold out, and it was one of the fastest sellouts at the

Ken: It was a little of all that — the club scene, record stores, there's a magazine called The Riverfront Times, which is similar to the L.A. Weekly. They have some writers who have supported the music. For example, when Ned's comes to town, the week before there will always be a feature story on the band. Coupled with a large student population, there's always been an audience for this music. It's just that they haven't really had a station to listen to.

How do you answer the concern that college students are essentially unrated?

Ken: There are lots of people who live in this market that are college students and have addresses and get diaries. But beyond that, it's not just an 18 to 24 college thing. There are 25 to 34-year olds. There are 40-year olds that are writing us and faxing us who are doctors and lawyers, people who went to college. Anybody that graduated from high school or college in the last 15 years, this is their music. And they're living in every city in America ready to listen to this music.

St. Louis has a substantial blue collar population. Do you think you can pull that audience with what's generally considered a more white collar, college educated format approach?

Ken: Very possibly. One thing to keep in mind is that we're heavily into some of here and they'll continue. We're bringing in a bunch of new weekenders that have worked in this market at either KSD or KSHE who are real musically intensive. That's the plan there. The third step is creating TSL features on the station with listener involvement. And the fourth step, somewhere down the line is marketing the property as St. Louis' quality rock station.

How much do you envision the artist crossover thing happening? You've got the upper end of the alternative spectrum, and of course, the lower end.

Ken: Let's take San Francisco as a market for example. You have KFOG and you have Live 105 coexisting. I believe that there is a place for both stations from a qualitative standpoint to work. And there will be certain artists that cross over but it's minimal. There will be some, but I have to view both of these radio stations as separate animals. I don't go into consulting them and saying, 'Oh, I can't play this because this station is playing it.' If it works for the station and the psychographic and the demos that I'm going for, we'll play it.

Dropping back a little bit to when you come up with your direction for the market, obviously, KSHE thought you were going to come at them with a lower end approach. You did a real smart end around with the KSRC call letter application. What in the final analysis caused you not to look more seriously at that?

Ken: When I first came into the market in December, the Rivercity Broadcasting folks had done a study with Bolton Research. And they came back with a couple of areas that I was a little uncomfortable with. They originally were thinking of doing something like a Classic Rock that really rocks. They were interested in wedging themselves between KSD and KSHE, mostly because they were thinking about something that was compatible from a sales standpoint with The Fox. I was uncomfortable with it because I didn't think that it had the programming applications that an alternative format would have. Basically, it would be another radio station playing Led Zeppelin, the Who, the Rolling Stones, and bands like that. I don't see there being much of a noticeable difference between KSD and KSHE and what we would have been doing. So, I sat down with them and we discussed other options, one of which was that low end, hard rock n' roll. Our research told us that KSHE was probably a little bit harder and a little bit more current than was ideal. For us to go into this market and do something even harder and more current than KSHE would probably not create the audience base set that I would be comfortable with. About that time, the KSRC call letters were available. We had considered 'Solid Rock,' or 'Superstars of Rock,' so that's where the SRC came from. We applied for that in the middle of all of the applications, we felt those call letters would serve a two-fold purpose. It could serve as a smokescreen to everybody else in the market. And I will admit that I definitely fueled that. It was kind of nice to see KSHE continuing to heavily pound the usage of the term 'Solid Rock' on the air. And also, the Outlaw Radio monikers you saw in the newspapers, 'Outlaw Radio is coming,' things like that. When all that started happening, we knew that they were moving in a direction that was going to make it very easy for us to come in with something more mass appeal. So, the idea of doing Alternative rock came about by just doing our homework. Six out of the top ten selling records in the market were alternative based.

Did Bolton's research point you in that direction, too?

Ken: Interestingly enough, originally Larry Rosen had mentioned to Rivercity that that was the widest opening. But I think that the company was not interested in that because they felt that it wasn't going to deliver demographics that would match up with Fox. My attitude was, 'That's not the right way to go.' I think you need to look at it from what makes the most sense from a programming standpoint, and then just sell them separately. Right now, we're not even going to do combo sales. There are some sales people who will sell both, but essentially they'll have two separate sales departments. In all the research that we've done about the LMA's and duopolies, that works the best. We explored the format options based on record sales, concert tickets sales, the amount of college students, and just the overall expression of interest in this kind of format led us to go in that direction. We talked with a lot of people. We talked with research people, and folks from 91X. We arrived at this decision around mid January.

Who is the principal format architect? You?

For us to go into this market and do something even harder and more current than KSHE would probably not create the audience base set that I would be comfortable with. About that time, the KSRC call letters were available.

Ken: It was myself and D-Day, David Day, who is Assistant PD, and who's absolutely done brilliant work. From a marketing standpoint, Doug Harris has been brilliant, as usual, in coming up with a lot of the ideas. As a matter of fact, calling it The Point came from Doug. Because we were KFXB, we were going to fuel the KSRC, and then withdraw and just be confident and keep the KFXB and go to X105.7. But we felt that X has been over used. And believe it or not, I think it's kind of more of an '80s terms in a lot of respects.

As Q was to the '70s.

Ken: Right. We wanted to come up with something that had its own applications. Doug had mentioned The Point. We know that a lot of Rock A/C's have used The Point. But obviously, no one's used The Point in this market, so we can make it anything we want. We've had a lot of fun with that. When we found KPNT was available, it was like, 'Oh, Lord, we want those calls.'

Anybody who's ever seen Doug take off his hat knows where he got the inspiration. Are you the key guy as far as the format and the music?

Ken: Yes. It's myself and David, and we have an awful lot of people who have done Alternative radio in this market. We have Les Aaron, who's done it. We've hired four or five very knowledgeable part timers who have done college radio in this market. Based on my background and growing up in San Francisco and living in Los Angeles, the tons of radio stations that I've listened to a lot have been the Live 105's and the KROQ's and the 91X's. My learning curve has had to go up a little bit more, but I think that I've brought myself up to speed on certain bands pretty quickly. I've always been a very musically intensive person, so I'm familiar with most of the music.

Was it a challenge to redirect the format in the direction that would enable you to capitalize on KSHE's cume and away from the female dance thing that stations such as KROQ are doing?

Ken: It's interesting that you mention that because living in Los Angeles, I most recently listened to KROQ. It's obvious to me that they have reacted to 100.3. They were heading into a little bit of a dancey direction for a while. Now, they're getting back to playing the hits. And they're playing some guitar based stuff. It's very interesting for those people who are not really familiar with all the nuances of alternative. There are four or five different directions you can go just within the alternative genre. What my goal has been all along is since this is not a format that has been on in this area, we're making it as mass appeal as possible. The presentation is definitely AOR.

Do you feel like you have a little more leeway, given the fact that there's no Alternative heritage station in the market?

Ken: Absolutely.

In fact, as an Alternative, you're probably broader based than KSHE can get away with being an AOR station.

Ken: Absolutely. Q106.5, which is the CHR in town are the ones that will play Duran Duran and some of the more hit oriented Alternative stuff. In a lot of respects, we're wedging ourselves right between the two — KSHE, with the grunge, guitar-based, current stuff on one end, and Q106 with some of the hit-based, dancier stuff on the other.

You can borrow from KSHE a lot more artists and songs than they can take from you?

Ken: Absolutely.

Do you plan to be doing a lot of that? Do you sense that they may alter their approach?

Ken: We're certainly paying attention to what they're adding. For example, some of the currents that we're playing, like Masters of Reality, in a lot of respects it sounds like pretty tried and true, blues-based rock and roll. But I feel that there are records like that we can play based on KSHE's adds that send a little cume our way, and don't make us so Alternative. So, we're not afraid to play those kinds of bands.

Give me another couple of examples.

Ken: Dinosaur Jr. It's hard to describe some of these bands that come out. It's really kind of funny. Are they Alternative or are they Hard Rock? And I think that's great. It allows lots of different radio stations in the market to play it. It's all rock and roll. It's kind of the concept that 100.3 is using in Los Angeles, although, I think mixing the Pixies and Ozzy Osbourne is a little much for the audience to tolerate.

Is KSHE dealing with Dinosaur Jr.?

Ken: I'm not sure yet. But I would think that would be a band they could get a lot of mileage out of as well. It's unbelievable. We just started playing that last week, and we're getting a lot of calls for it. There's a real buzz on that band.

Somebody mentioned to me that they thought it was risky that you were playing Annie Lennox.

Ken: There's got to be a place that you start. Understand that this is kind of like a wide open road. We're going to drive all over it for a bit, until we find the exact lane that we need to be in, to use a driving analogy. So, on occasion, we're going to drive into a lane that plays some Annie Lennox or Eurythmics, and on occasion, we'll be driving in the lanes that play Helmet and Nine Inch Nails. As I said, being the only 'Alternative' station in the market gives us that kind of leeway. I certainly don't want to be in a position where I am pigeonholing my station to such a respect that I am not allowing logical cume to sample the radio station and become a part of its audience.

Ken: Absolutely. Then, there's also bands like the Tragically Hip, which will get a fair amount of AOR airplay. Then, on the other side, you've got Ned's Atomic Dustbin and Belly, which neither KSHE or Q106 will probably touch at this point. They're just purely Alternative, and outstanding bands, too.

Do you think KSHE's done an adequate job of protecting their lower end? I'd say Jim Owen has done a good job of beefing up the station's lower end appeal in the past year and a half.

Ken: I think he's done a better job than he has to, to be quite honest with you. After programming stations like KLOL and KLOS, it was my assumption before I even came to St. Louis that they were going to be another basic mass appeal AOR, which for all intents and purposes is a Classic Rock station that plays some currents. But nothing could be further from the truth. When I came to this market, I was quite surprised to hear them pounding bands like Jackyl in morning drive. I think Jim's smart in doing that. But at the same time, I don't think they need to go as far as they do. It's kind of the same analogy that I'm drawing about the Alternative audience. The core of our audience, where else are they going to go to hear some of this stuff? Understand that it is a business, and that the artistic side needs to match up with the business side. Sometimes, I listen to KSHE, and I'm an AOR kind of guy in my mid-30's, and I grew up with AOR, and when I hear Metallica into Megadeth — and I've heard that on that radio station before — I'm saying, 'Wow! If I'm listening to KSHE to hear my favorite classics over the last 20 years, I'm getting hit over the head. I'm just surprised at how far they go sometimes.'

Have they gone far enough that there's no room in the market for a lower end rock station? Everybody was stunned when KAZY came after KBPI with an even lower approach.

Ken: I don't equate KSHE to KBPI in terms of their hard, low end appeal. To answer that question, if someone could go in and try and undercut KBPI, certainly, someone could come and undercut KSHE. But I think, at this point, they've done a very good job of holding onto that particular area of the audience and satisfying them. I think it can be done, but how successful it would be in the face of KSHE's heritage and history remains to be seen. It's kind of like somebody trying to do the same thing to a KLOL or to a WDVE. There are certain mass appeal, mainstream radio stations out there that still have a terrific street image because they've never lost sight of that. And those are the stations that are the most difficult to dislodge. They're not conservative and sleepy and complacent, like some other mainstream AORs we all know about.

KSHE doesn't really consider you their primary competition.

Ken: As well they shouldn't.

Do you consider them yours?

Ken: Not really. We'll compete with them as far as being involved with the streets and the concert scene, and ticket give-aways and all that kind of stuff. But there's a whole list of artists that they'll play that we won't play, and vice versa.

Speaking of the concert tickets and the streets, Doug is a tremendous marketer, and widely recognized as such. Yet, at the same time, from Jim Marchysyn to Abigail Polly, KSHE is a marketing mutha that has clothed half the industry for years and years. And they're extremely aggressive in terms of what they get done in the local community. How do you do battle with guys like that?

Ken: We've got lots of ideas, which will not be revealed necessarily in this interview because some of them are future ideas. But suffice it to say that some of the things that we've already discussed that we'll be doing in this market are pretty unprecedented. Like the 30 minute television show that helped to launch the Point. It was produced by the Rivercity Broadcasting television people here. It is outstanding. They pulled about a 6 share on the night that we debuted, and it was in about 70,000 homes. That's a nice little cushion to have to launch your format. We have the luxury of a television station that runs Fox TV programming, which is probably the hippest network around. We're doing a lot of promotional stuff with them. You'll just have to see in the weeks and months ahead some of the stuff that we do. Doug and I were the programming and marketing partners in the launch of Outlaw Radio, which some consultants call risk taking. We looked at it as being something that was viable and needed to be done in that market in Houston back in late '89. And you see it today, there's lots of copiers and imitators. We're hoping the same will happen here.

You worked at KLOL, and you worked in the Bay Area, and certainly spent quality time in Los Angeles. How are you feeling about the future of mainstream AOR radio?

Mainstream AOR radio is starting to encounter some of the problems that mainstream CHR radio has. From a musical standpoint, they're getting hit in all directions. Let's just call a spade a spade — mainstream AOR today, in 1993, is nothing more than a Classic Rock station that plays some currents.

Ken: I have a lot of opinions about that. Mainstream AOR radio is starting to encounter some of the problems that mainstream CHR radio has. From a musical standpoint, they're getting hit in all directions. Let's just call a spade a spade — mainstream AOR today, in 1993, is nothing more than a Classic Rock station that plays some currents. When you are a station that is primarily 60 to 70% gold or library, compared to 30%, how can you consider yourself as musically viable current-wise as some of these other radio stations? Keep in mind the primary audience for mainstream AOR radio went to high school and college in the '70s. The primary audience for Alternative music stations went to high school or college in the '80s. Not to say that there aren't 40-year old Alternative radio listeners. But just the term 'Alternative' was used 10, 15 years ago because at the time, it was alternative to the Rolling Stones and the Who and Led Zeppelin. But today, you can't really call it Alternative. I call it mass appeal music. Mainstream AOR, as it continues to grow, will have to decide to go either one of two directions — and I mentioned this when I was on the panel at the NAB back in October — either take the high road or the low road. To just stay in the middle and hope that everybody is going to like you because you are the total rock and roll experience is a difficult task. That was the term that I used when I was programming KLOS. I felt that was the only handle that could adequately describe what we were trying to accomplish. But in the face of competition from KNAC and Pirate on one hand, KLSX on the other hand, and KROQ and Mars, at one point, from the Alternative side, despite our heritage, the only way that we would be able to continue to garner a large audience was with one of several things: the mass appeal mother morning show, which we had with Mark & Brian; and a community conscious effort that 20 years or more of heritage brought. KLOS was behind the blood drives, all the charitable functions, very community conscious. Plus, the fact that we had the luxury of having a majority of our audience who had spent ten plus years of listening with us. Those are hard habits to break. But as the format continues to move into the '90s, I can't imagine some of these radio stations four, five years from now, being current and musically viable as some of these other stations that are sprouting up around it. You cannot continue to be all things to all people and have huge audiences, unless you have one of the three things I mentioned.

Do you consider yourselves an Alternative station that leans rock, or a rock station that leans Alternative?

Ken: Good question, Bill. I would say that we are more of an Alternative station that leans rock on 105.7. I would say on 101, we're obviously moving more Triple A.

Having programmed that for as many years as you have, do you think that mainstream AOR, COR, and Triple A are the three AOR formatic flavors what will endure?

Ken: And let's not discount Alternative Rock and Classic Rock. I really feel that there's five areas when you group them all together. Interestingly enough, if you look at mainstream AOR stations, they're fed by basically those four groups that you just mentioned. There's Classic Rock, there's some Alternative based stuff, there's some low end hard rock, and there's 'Triple A'. My point in all of this is, when you have four viable stations in a market — if you have a great Triple A over here, and you have a great Alternative station, and you have a great low end, hard rock and roll station, you have a great Classic rock and roll station — where's the meat, so to speak, for the mainstream station? There was a book written several years ago called 'Three Blind Mice,' that was about the proliferation of cable television, and all the choices in the midst of what network television was throwing out. The book was called 'Three Blind Mice' because the technology became available maybe fifteen years ago, and ABC and NBC and CBS figured that, 'Our television is free. Why would anybody want to pay for all these other weird fringe channels?' Well, you've seen how over the last ten or fifteen years, network television viewing has gone down at a consistent rate. The same thing is happening with mainstream AOR as viable flanker positions become available in the market. People have specific tastes, musically, that they'll want to be fed on a regular basis, and they'll go to one of those four. And the things that are going to make mainstream continue to be viable are things like personalities.

Do you use the word 'Alternative'?

Ken: No.

What do you use?

Ken: We don't use any word to describe the music. On 105.7, our main slogan on the air is '105.7 The Point. Get It.' It's by design because I think radio stations spend too much time categorizing themselves on the air. The audience is not stupid. The main thing we're using is, 'Either you get The Point, or you don't.' There are a lot of fun marketing advertising slogans that we can use. But for a radio station to come on and say, 'We're your classic rock station,' and then play 17 classic rock songs in a row, do you think the audience is going, 'Gee, I'm glad they told me it's a classic rock station.'

Do you think the world 'Alternative' is a liability in a market like St. Louis?

Ken: That's one of the reasons why the term 'Alternative' or 'Modern' is not being used on the air. I think that it could be a liability. Interestingly enough, that's what most of the faxes and callers are calling it. They love it, and they don't seem to have a problem with it. But we didn't want to make a conscious effort to go on the air and say, 'We're your modern rock, we're your alternative station.' We wanted people to be able to define it for themselves, without us categorizing it.

Their phrase of choice is "Alternative"?

Ken: It has been.

Let's talk about San Francisco for a minute. I know that you had some interest in that job having programmed in the Bay Area previously. But don't you think that for John McCrae or anyone else, that the KRQR PD job is one of the steepest uphill ratings battles anyone could face anywhere?

Ken: I've had some conversations with Don Merrion over the last few months. They have been real casual conversations. He knows that my family and friends are primarily based in the Bay Area, and that I would have had some interest there. In fact, we were speaking based on my track record of success in some major markets, and the fact that I know the market, it might have been a nice marriage there. But one of the main reasons that I would be interested in a job like that would be a chance to go home and program in San Francisco.

I'm terrifically excited about being involved with two of what I call the growth formats for the '90s, and that is the Alternative Rock side, and also the Triple A side. The answer to your question is that is indeed a very difficult job.

But after watching Chris Miller bang his head against the wall for years for a three share and tracking Larry Snider's struggles of late...

Ken: I was going to answer that second part of it and say that my reasons for wanting a job like that would not necessarily be the right reasons. So, I am concurring with you. That is a very difficult situation. For the reasons that I mentioned to you about just the recurring problems that mainstream AOR. I'm terrifically excited about being involved with two of what I call the growth formats for the '90s, and that is the Alternative Rock side, and also the Triple A side. The answer to your question is that is indeed a very difficult job. All of the hurdles, so to speak, are there. You have a market with way too many signals. You have way too many rock stations. And KRQR has not effectively imaged themselves very strongly in the market. Try as they must, stations like KSJO and KOME still kick butt. The biggest problem is that one of the large counties that makes up San Francisco's metro is San Jose. That County is effectively served by KSJO and KOME. When you go to the other counties, when you're in the East Bay, which is primarily black in certain areas you can't compete with KSOL or the KMEL. In the city itself for Live 105 and stations like that, there's a large gay and ethnic population. Basically, your base of audience is just a handful of counties. If you're not effectively doing the job there, there's not much. I would say that if there was no KSJO or KOME, and KRQR was out there rocking their socks off, it would be very easy for them to pull three, and maybe even a three and a half share. But as long as KSJO and KOME are effectively serving that South Bay, it's going to be real difficult for KRQR to crack a 3 share.

Speculate on this. I've heard rumblings in formal conversations that, for instance, at CBS, that there's a corporate bias against harder rock. Do you believe that to be the case?

Ken: A corporate bias? I don't know. I understand where a bias can come from. It's not an easy thing to sell. We've explored that very heavily here for about a week or so before we decided to do the modern or Alternative thing. It just continues to be a difficult thing to sell. That is the bottom line. Sure, there's an audience for it. But when you're a company that's sales driven, as most of the companies in America are, it's a tough thing to sell.

Except when you talk to a Great American. They don't appear to be having a lot of problems.

Ken: Maybe it takes someone like a Great American or a company like that to get into the Bay Area and find a competent signal and do it, and I think it would be very successful.

Do you think there's room for a grungy alternative there? I know that Live 105 leans toward dance.

Ken: Possibly. I think you're really starting to split up the pie a lot. My basic feeling is that there's too many rock stations. You've got KFOG, KRQR and Live 105 to a certain extent in San Francisco, and in San Jose, you've got KOME, KSJO and you have the Fox, not to mention what KDBK is doing in San Francisco. Actually, you can throw seven stations into the ring, and I would wager to guess that would be most the competitive marketplace for rock oriented music.

How is KSD doing at this point?

Ken: KSD is about the wimpiest Classic Rock station I've heard in America. It's interesting because they're running a liner on the air that says, 'Classic Rock without the hard rock,' which is about the stupidest thing I've heard for a Classic Rock station. Classic Rock, to me, is Led Zeppelin and Aerosmith, and AC/DC — stuff from the '70s. If I'm in their shoes, I wouldn't be afraid to say, 'We're just a Classic Rock station,' and just rock out. At this point, with KSHE going as hard and heavy as they are, they could be blowing off some of these 25 to 34-year olds who want to hear tried and true Classic Rock. And they go over to KSD and they're hearing Elton John and Billy Joel songs.

And now, McCrae's out of there.

Ken: Yeah.

Well, it's Gannett and I hear the money's great there. You could find yourself facing a much different KSD in the very near future. Have to be someone with a high tolerance for all those burned out "classics" I suppose.

Ken: I think whoever takes that job will have to look themselves in the face and realize that there are some challenges ahead in the next few years. How many mainstream AOR program directors, who are real musically intensive, and who are really passionate about music, can look themselves in the mirror every morning and say that they're real vividly excited about the music they're playing on the radio station? It's really interesting. It's become kind of the antithesis. Twenty years ago, you got into mainstream AOR radio because this was the station that played all this cool Album Rock music. Now, twenty years later, you're going home and you're listening to the Triple A station or the Alternative station.

It's pretty scary when, as a program director, what you're listening for are your liners, your jocks breaks, and your spot clusters.

Ken: Right. And how much burn on that Led Zeppelin or Who record. That's essentially what's going on. I'm not sounding the death knell on mainstream. It's still probably the most viable. It still makes probably the most money of all of these areas. All I saying is, from a guy that's been there at some of the biggest one in America, it's going to continue to be a tough challenge ahead musically.

Who do you consider the Alternative formats newest and most salable success stories?

Ken: 91X.

Can you get newer than that?

Ken: Apparently, Las Vegas is doing well. That's been about a year. That's been a real home run, from what I understand. Beyond that, I don't know. It's really just starting to happen in the last year or so.

Have you had a chance to hear what Fred Jacobs is doing?

Ken: I've heard the Edge formats. My personal opinion has been that it sounds a little cookie cutter to me. Maybe it's because it's just being placed in certain markets. Maybe I need to hear a more evolved version of it.

My sources tell me that Fred does a lot of his testing in Detroit, and then plugs it in wherever. Is this a fairly localized thing you're doing?

Ken: Oh, yes.

And you've done what could be characterized as extensive local research?

Ken: I would not characterize it as extensive local research at this point. I would say that what we've done is we've gathered very representative lists from a lot of the big alternative stations. And we've also got a lot of opinions from people who have been in this market and worked here. But we're looking to do a music test within the next couple of months, relatively quickly. But for now, we're keeping it pretty mass appeal, tried and true, straight down the middle, and we're letting it evolve from there.

What stations does The Point most closely resemble?

Ken: In order to describe what The Point is doing I'm hoping it's the kind of thing where you're going to have to listen to it. But it's very different than anything else. It's very different. It's by design. When people ask me what is it like — it's the same thing like when R.E.M. first came out. 'What do they sound like?' 'Well, they sound a little bit like this band here and this band here.' Now, they're just R.E.M. That would be the biggest compliment that I can have about either one of these stations is that regardless of where my involvement begins, ends or whatever — because I'm going to be consulting them in one form or another over the next year — I'll love it a year from now when people say, 'Oh, it's like the Fox in St. Louis, or it's like The Point in St. Louis.' But, even more importantly, that it's working in these markets specifically. And who knows? What I'm trying to do is just trying to put two quality stations on in a market that has an oasis of mediocrity.

You said that the buzz word at the Pollack convention was risk taking, and you don't know why you should have to pay someone to take risks.

Ken: Doug Harris and I work together well because we've been taking risks throughout our entire radio careers. We even 'invented' some of these things. I would rather be the guy that's inventing the new, exciting things. That's what makes this job fun.

Heavy Hitters

Sacred Reich, "Independent", Hollywood....

It's been a long six years for these predominantly thrash oriented Arizona rockers; ones full of many ups and downs. Their's has been a career marked by struggle, endurance and perseverance. Ultimately though, it seems all that hard work and determination are about to pay off. The band (Phil Rind, Jason Rainey, Wiley Arnett and new drummer Dave McClain), survived the crash of Enigma, continued to weather the indie ranks on Metal Blade (spawning three strong works: "Ignorance", "Surf Nicaragua" and "The American Way"), and upon signing to Hollywood, felt the sting of a personnel shift. They have also now found themselves, via Hollywood, the subject of a major promotional push the likes of which they've never seen. And as Phil was quick to point out when I spoke with him recently, all their "excuses" for not making it, have now been taken away. If they don't make it, it's because the music isn't right, the fans don't "get" it or they just aren't cutting it. A rather sobering realization I'm sure, but from all indications the band have little to worry about on that score. The label has done a tremendous job keeping up their profile on the metal scene, first by releasing the "A Question" EP last year, to whet fans appetites. Then they had the band play at CMJ, sent out unforgettable "organic growth" promo items that were certainly all the rage (they make great vases), and a barrage of creative, in your face advertising campaigns. The lead single out was also timed to coincide (whether it was intended to or not) with the administration changes in the White House. Not surprisingly, "Independent" (a meaningful song for the band in more ways than one), has swept the metal ranks, and taken control of the charts. The song is sitting impatiently at 4*/#1 Most Requested, just waiting for the LP's release to launch them towards #1. The Dave Jerden produced record is as you would assume, the strongest of their career, revealing musical and personal growth throughout all 11 songs. While still pointed lyrically, the focus has less to do with politics than the strength and power of individuals. A song like "I Never Said Goodbye" is poignant, while "Supremacy", "Do It", "Crawling", "Just Like That", "Pressure" and "Free" cut right to the chase—documenting frustration while encouraging a move away from apathy. Musically, the album is as heavy as ever, though tempered with well cut grooves, melody and more expressive song structure. The guitars are thick and cut into the songs like chainsaws, and Rind's vocals are as throaty and attitudinal as ever before. No doubt, there's a little something to satisfy their old fans as well as the new. Certainly a new chapter has opened for the band, but they remain defiantly "Independent", strong, honest and determined. So "Do It" and watch the top of the charts for the rise of the Reich... Sacred that is.

MORE Hard Rock/Heavy Metal

Living Colour, "Stain" LP, Epic... As folks on this side of the fence are really just beginning to jam to the catchy grinds of "Leave It Alone", the full CD has begun its trek to radio

America. And a fabulous piece of work it is. Reflecting throughout its 13 tracks, a heavier slice of Living Colour, the album promises to pull back in a good proportion of the metallic population, while still storming AOR/COR fronts. The album cracks open with the deliberately cranky, "Go Away" — a spitting, clawing, angry bite of a song. It falls tumbling into the unavoidably catchy rumble of "Ignorance Is Bliss" and eventually the infectious tones of "Leave It Alone". This is the Living Colour we first met when "Cult Of Personality" came crashing into our otherwise routine lives. Splashing us with technicolor riffs and fresh perspectives, while raising our racial/social consciousness, they were a genuine, undisputed breakthrough band. Now with two successful albums under their belt, they bucked the natural tendencies to play it safe, and have delivered another heavy and adventurous album. That's not to say the offbeat humor that rocked to the surface with songs like "Funny Vibe" or "Elvis Is Dead", has dissipated with time, nor has their edgy accessibility ("Nothingness" is a very cool song). It's highly visible on "Bi" and "Never Satisfied". There is an edgy abrasive texture to many of the songs on "Stain" though, a brazen guitar heavy sound that blasts your face. Check out "Auslander", "Postman", "This Little Pig" or "The Wall" if you need further confirmation of it. It's great to hear that Living Colour haven't lost their intensity, issue oriented nature or musicality, and have instead flourished along a harder more timely edge. Live it up, "Stain" your brain or "Go Away", "Leave It Alone", "Mind Your Own Business"... "Never Satisfied" are you? "Bi".

... Well, never fear the single (the title track) has already been sneaking onto playlists everywhere, thus its debut this past week at 43* and the #3 Most Added showing. Now, the full album from the long enduring Nuclear Assault is about to unfold before your very eyes. And in doing so, will reveal 10 more equally aggressive and dark new songs, sure to stoke the fires of imagination in even the most jaded metalhead (COR folks seem to be clicking on to 'em). Nuclear Assault (John Connelly, Glenn Evans and new additions Dave DiPietro and Scott Metaxas), have been slamming around since 1984 (they boasted a different line-up then of course — former bassist Danny Lilker is now wreaking all kinds of havoc in the extreme ranks of Brutal Truth and guitarist Anthony Bramante has been working with an early 80's power metal band called Phantom), when they first unleashed their vicious speed assaults upon us. It wasn't long before they stampeded onto the charts, amassing a following who, to this day, still revel in the heavy barrage of material offered up from "The Plague" and "Survive" on through "Handle With Care" and "Out of Order". They will find "Something Wicked" a different beast altogether then. The riffs are still heavy and the production thick, but the speed has lessened to more discernable rates and the vocals much clearer and less guttural (they really remind me a lot of Blackie Lawless actually). Don't worry it's brutal enough. Try out "Madness Descends", the ear splitting "Poetic Justice", "Another Violent End", "Chaos" or "The Other End".

Proper Grounds, "Jezebel", Maverick... Some of you may recall receiving a four song sampler of songs lifted from this band's forthcoming LP ("Downtown Circus Gang") back in November of last year. If so, then you'll know to check out "Jezebel" right away. If you still aren't familiar with Proper Grounds, what you need to know is that they are the first release from Maverick Records (yup, Madonna's label), and they're a challenging, format crossing kind of outfit. Rap, metal, funk, hardcore, hip/hop... whatever. Proper Grounds are an amalgamation of all of the above and then some. Meaning, some of you will adore their extreme often bizarre musical antics, while others may take some convincing. Less hardcore influenced than the likes of Body Count, the band (Sandman-vocals, Devin Huph-guitar, Javier Mosley-guitar, Jon Brooks-drums, Caine-bass, Slang-DJ and dancers Scarecrow, Frank X and Madball), are a bit more twisted musically. The first track out of the shoot is the melodic bump and grind of "Jezebel". Rap driven, but still catchy in its song format, the song moves along freely, not loaded down with solos or vocal effects. The CD offers up not only two versions of "Jezebel" but also "The Nature Song" (also from the album). The lyrics careen through more of a carnivalish atmosphere and low riding vocals and a maze-like musical bed. If you're getting the idea that Proper Grounds are not your typical, run-of-the-mill rap/metal band... you're absolutely right. Check it out, the full album's a couple weeks away, and we hear their live show is the real ticket.

Quick Picks

Enuff Z'Nuff, "Animals With Human Intelligence", Arista... You may be thinking that Enuff Z'Nuff are way too poppy for metal radio to play around with... well, obviously you haven't listened to their new album yet. Maybe you should ring one of the 10 stations who helped make them #4 Most Added this past week. Yeah, this is the band that gave us the English pop sounding "New Thing" and the lovely "Fly High Michelle" (which many of you have admitted to liking a lot — myself included), but the band has been progressing toward a slightly harder sound for some time now. "Animals With Human Intelligence" (their Arista debut) finally captures and combines the band's sparkling songwriting abilities with a harder guitar fueled edge. The Enuff Z'Nuff of the nineties (Donnie Vie, Chip Z'nuff, Derek Frigo and new drummer Ricky Parent) may surprise all of those of more metallic tastes. Of course the flowing melodies and great vocal harmonies remain on songs like "Right By Your Side" or "Innocence" (which should be a huge hit at AOR or CHR or MTV), but do yourselves a favor and really listen to the full bodied and heavier "Black Rain", the mean and nasty "Master Of Pain", "Bring It On Home", "These Daze" or "Rock n World" and see if you don't agree that this is a band we can all get behind (the Hard Chicks, Jenni & Jodie didn't even know it was Enuff Z'Nuff when I was playing it in the office.... hmmm). There are bucketfuls of great guitar licks, strong vocals and the production (by Ritchie Zito and the band) is pretty damn fine as well. This really is a very cool album, so at least check it out when you get the chance.

The God Machine, "Scenes From The Second Storey", Fiction/Polydor/PLG... I'm writing about this band, just because I'm hoping some of you will feel inspired to seek out their new album. I'm quite infatuated with it and I really think a lot of you will be as impressed as I was the first time I heard it (Bill Fischer at AIM really digs it too). I was intrigued by the name and the knowledge that Fiction (they also have The Cure) signs a select few groups of usually very high quality. The God Machine are an innovative trio of artists, who combine raging power with absolute melodic beauty — carving and molding songs out of their instruments. Together, Robin Proper-Sheppard-vocals/guitar, Ron Austin-drums/piano and Jimmy Fernandez-bass (three Californians who relocated to London a couple of years ago), weave songs of cathartic intensity. Swirling guitars drill away within an almost ethereal setting, while the voice wails along on top, sometimes seductive or meditative, other times tortured (on occasion they've been compared to Perry Farrell/Jane's Addiction — especially on the song "Home"). Every song creates a different emotion or mood and exists within its own little walls. As you might expect, the lyrics draw out a poetic, almost surreal imagery as well. Their record offers up moments of blasting intensity, ripe for college radio works ("Temptation", "Ego", "She Said", "Out"), while at other times they pine away into a mesmerizing trance-like blur ("Desert Song", the 17 minute long "Seven", the cello/strings accented "Purity" and the Cure-like "It's All Over"). Obviously, they are not for everyone, but for those of you who like to stretch the boundaries and experiment, expand your consciousness or just experience new music... explore The God Machine and you may get sucked in like I did. Here's hoping so.

Leatherface, "Mush", Seed... If you're looking for a bit more muscle in your mettle, look no further than Leatherface. One of Britain's remaining punk rock survivors, the band provide a charge like that from Motorhead of ol'. Angry and fierce, they bulldoze their way through songs loaded with meaty guitars, grainy rasped out vocals, and powerful rhythms. The band has been praised nearly to heaven by the British press and are steadily acquiring a fan base that includes a ton of our own l'ave alterna/metal/punk bands (like Mudhoney and Babes In Toyland). Now, the American masses get to sample a bit of "Mush" too, thanks to Seed Records (who licensed the band from Fire/Roughneck Records). The band, (singer/guitarist Frankie Stubbs, Steve Charlton-bass, Andrew Laing-drums/vocals and Richie Hammond-guitars/vocals), grind out the kind of punkish gristle that's long been missing on these shores, but they never lose sight of the song. There's a small dose of melody tucked in there somewhere and the songs therefore, are as memorable and catchy as they are aggressive and rowdy. The fifteen tracks included on "Mush" ravage through a host of angry tirades that often belie their fresh faced titles. There is also a way cool, high speed cover of the Police's "Message In A Bottle". Outside of that you might want to claw your way through to find "Not A Day Goes By", the rage of "Springtime", "In The Real World" or "Baked Potato" (cool tune).

Chart ~~A~~shun

In the land of Hard Hitters, the Top 3 remain the same this week, with Biohazard, Flotsam & Jetsam and Pro-Pain, all holding tight to their respective slots. Coming up fast and furious however (on the single) is Hollywood's mighty Sacred Reich, up 2 from 6-4* and now up to #1 Most Requested. Helping to boost them were 20 (count 'em) hefty increases. With the full album scheduled to hit even as you read this, you can bet your britches, they'll be ripping into the Top 3 faster than you can breathe. Watch 'em rise with "Independent".... There's currently still a bit of a log jam happening in the lower half of the Top Ten, where Spread Eagle, Therapy?, Uncle Slam and Dream Theater (they're second tour of duty in the Top Ten), are all jockeying for position. The latter three all locked in another notch higher (they are all bringing in strong increases), while the great slide downward began for a host of other longtime mainstays.... The sky is still the limit however for a bunch of newcomers, like Energy's Piece Dogs, who managed to slam past 10 of their competitors to cinch a slot just outside of the Top 15 from 26-16*. This accomplished with the aid of 10 increases (including WKLL, WVBR, WWVU, WPSU) and 5 moves into rotation and 3 new adds. Requests are on the rise as well for this one.... Our biggest mover of the week, we are proud to say, was New Jersey and Megaforce's own, Nudeswirl. Apparently, their sonic twister of guitars, vocals and melody are winning folks over by the landslide, certainly to the tune of a 21 spot leap from 43-21*. And it's all just beginning! Watch for the band on the road with Flotsam & Jetsam in mid-March.... Almost landing in a tie for our biggest move of the week, was Epic's wild and wacky bunch, known far and wide as Infectious Grooves. Their chart week was nothing to sniffle about however, as they managed to nail down the #1 Most Added position (with 42 stations jumping on the full LP), besides their 20 spot hike from 42-22* on Hard Hitters. Not a bad set of numbers to send home to the folks, ya gotta admit. They are of course supporting the incomparable Suicidal Tendencies, in what should prove to be one of the most entertaining and schizophrenic double bills ever. Don't miss 'em.... Columbia was still givin' everyone "Heaven & Hell" at press time, but by this time you should all be rockin' steadily to the wonderful "Magic & Madness" LP. Loaded with creative, hooky radio naturals, the album will surprise many fans of ol' and those not so familiar with Circus Of Power. This week with anticipation rising, the single womped up 14 from 40-26* on the chart with 7 increases, 3 moves into rotation and 2 new adds, to their credit. And their game's just getting underway.... And what would the charts be without something a little Seattle to lighten up your day... Still pounding effectively upwards, was the inyourface and undeniable magnetism of Sub Pop's Tad. With five increases kicking in, the three song CD managed to topple ten more, gliding 39-29* here at Hard.... Also keeping the heavier quotient satisfied and fulfilled, were Century Media's death growlers, Samael. Chomping on 4 nice moves into rotation and a few increases, the band are really just beginning to infiltrate. Their move from 47-40* however, makes them one to keep an eye on for sure.... And my oh my, the lower rungs of the chart were splattered with a chaotic mixture of artists, the kinds of which you would never, ever picture together.... IRS' Nuclear Assault managed to slot in at 43* and it was a potpourri of weirdness from there. Landing were Century Media's unbelievably heavy, Eyehategod (47*), Zoo's clay-mation and novelty phone burners Green Jello (48*), Capitol's eccentric power gurus the Butthole Surfers (49*) and last but certainly not least, Epic's Living Colour (50*). Of course, in the case of the Surfers and L. Colour, their album's have not yet been unwrapped before the masses so you can bet as soon as they do, it'll be a mad dash for the upper regions of Hard Hitterdom.... Up and coming are CMC's The Style Monkees, Imago's Bone Club, Polydor's Quicksand, Atlantic's Overkill (they should hit high), Arista's Enuff Z'Nuff (especially if they continue drawing in adds like they have been - it's a cool record folks), Red Decibel's Bloodstar and Mas Optica, and Relativity's Contagious. We'll keep ya posted... as always.

Metal Filings

To kick off the first week of March why not tell all you metal types that the Leatherface (Seed) "Mush" LP is in your face and going for adds today, March 1st that is. The suggested first track is "In The Real World", why not just go for it... With the month of March upon us, the time has come for us all to receive and hear new material from Kreator (Futurist/Noise). It arrived in shrink wrap with the title "Renewal" emblazoned on the front and is going for adds March 8th/9th. Take note that the emphasis track is the title track "Renewal"... The Proper Grounds (Maverick) single "Jezebel" is going for adds at metal radio March 2nd. The single comes to you from the album "Downtown Circus Gang" which has been given a street date of March 9th and goes for adds March 16th... The add date for the Mighty Mighty Bosstones (Mercury) EP, "Ska-Core, The Devil And More", is March 8th. Don't forget... The street date for the Contagious (Relativity) LP "Another Human Interest Story" is March 9th... As reported before, Danzig (Def American) have a 7 song EP headed your way. "The Sin And The Sweat" EP, which was co-produced by Glenn Danzig and Def's own Rick Rubin, contains four live tracks ("Snakes Of Christ", "Am I Demon", "How The Gods Kill" and "Mother") found on the Sweat side of the EP, along with new trax "I'm Coming Down" and "The Violet Fire". By the way the third track on the Sin side is a Danzig version of the Elvis Presley tune "Trouble"... There is a new Gruntruck (Roadrunner) single heading your way. "Crazy Love" is gonna go for adds March 22nd/23rd... The Mind Bomb (Mercury) single "Segue" has a March 29th work date with the full self-titled album arriving on your desk April 20th... I am so excited! Mind Funk have been picked up by the Megaforce family and will be releasing their Terry Date produced album "Dropped" on April 20th. Remember now that Jason Everman has joined the band on guitar and Sean Johnson has taken over the stix work... The Def American debut from Raging Slab is slated to be in stores across the country April 27th. The album, "Dynamite Monster Boogie Concert", is a Brendan O'Brien produced piece of work and contains songs like "Weatherman", "So Help Me" and "Lynn" (which features a string arrangement by Led Zeppelin's John Paul Jones). Watch for it... Sick Of It All (Relativity) are gonna be back in action with the release of "Violent Generation" on May 11th. F.Y.I. the new bassist in SOIA is Craig Setari (formerly of Agnostic Front fame)... Tribe After Tribe (Megaforce) will be bringing their South African bongo rock to the metal ranks in May with the release of their Jim Scott produced album "Love Under Will"... The fourteen track Type O Negative (Roadrunner) album "Bloody Kisses" will be out in May. Included on the album is the track "We Hate Everyone" dedicated to all those people in Europe who put death threats on the heads of band members. Also on the album is a Type O version of the Seals and Croft tune "Summer Breeze" now with the title changed to "Summer Girl" and different lyrics... Also on the horizon is a new Urge Overkill (Geffen) LP. The release date for the record has been set for May 11th... Sensing your anticipation to find out what will be on the upcoming KISS (Mercury) "Alive III" LP. The following tracks "Creatures Of The Night", "Unholy", "Watchin' You" and "I Love It Loud" may (or may not) be included on the record but I will tell you that the CD runs for 75 minutes (you can guess the exact number of tracks). Remember the live album from Gene, Paul, Bruce and Eric is set for a May 18th release... Tyketto (Geffen) will have an album out on May 25th. No title has been given as of yet... Yes folks, it has happened. Monster guitarist Steve Vai has formed his own band and appropriately enough is calling it VAI. Upon the formation of the band, Vai has added a singer Devin Townsend to the rank rounded out with bassist T.M. Stevens and drummer Terry Bozzio. The relatively unknown frontman Townsend will make his debut on VAI's upcoming release "Light Without Heat" that is expected to hit the metal streets in late May. Around the 25th to be more precise... Also hitting the metal streets the 25th of May is "Last Warning" from Agnostic Front (Relativity)... The new songs from Anthrax (Elektra) will be out on May 25th under the name "Sound Of White Noise". The album was produced by Dave Jerden. Take note that as always Anthrax will be doing the B-side thang covering the likes of KISS' "Love Her All I Can", Thin Lizzy's "Cowboy Song" and The Beastie Boys' "Looking Down The Barrel Of a Gun"... In the summer month of June, Death (Relativity) will come and deliver the Scott Burns produced LP "Individual Thought Patterns"... Watch for the Revolting Cocks (Wax Trax) single "Crackin' Up" to be out soon... Cathedral (Earache/Columbia) have finished their album and have decided to throw it out to metal types everywhere sometime in late May or early June. The Dave Bianco produced album is as of yet untitled... There is a possibility that Lita Ford fans will get their hot little hands on a new album this summer. Ford has been working with the likes of Michael Dan Ehmig, Jim Vallance and Glen Burtnick on new material. ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ Moving on to video news, Proper Grounds (Maverick) just completed work on a video clip for "Jezebel" with director Jon Reiss (the dude who was responsible for the "Happiness In Slavery" meat grinder vid for Nine Inch Nails - Interscope)... There is talk of a video for "Crazy Love" from Gruntruck (Roadrunner)... As of this week, the Flotsam and Jetsam (MCA) interactive video clip for "Wading Through The Darkness" has been added into active rotation. Remember that by turning the brightness knobs on your television you can change the images on the screen especially in the shadows... Stone Temple Pilots (Atlantic) have done the video thang for their next single "Plush". The clip was directed by Josh Taft. Keep your eyes glued to Music Television to catch it... And speaking of MTV, the featured artists on Rock Day of MTV's Spring Break '93 are Living Colour (Epic), The Black Crowes (Def American), Stone Temple Pilots (Atlantic) and Soul Asylum (Columbia). The coverage will be in Daytona, FL on March 16th. ♦♦♦♦♦ Have you heard? The Unleashed (Century Media) are on the road with Cannibal Corpse (Metal Blade). The metal assault began February 23rd in Houston, TX and continues to spread across the country until March 25th where the bands stop at the Agora in Cleveland, OH. You have been warned!... Blind Melon (Capitol) have been doing the rock 'n roll stroll since February 17th and will continue on their headlining club tour until the 31st of March where the band take the stage at the 930 Club in Washington, DC. Check out the Hard Tour Guide for dates and catch the band when they come to a town near you... As of March 3rd, Sacred Reich (Hollywood) will be busy, very busy out on tour with Pantera (Atco). Phil Rind and Co. will be joining Phil Anselmo and the crew on a cross country trek that takes them to Toronto, Philadelphia (Yes! A good dose of stomp rockin' just when I needed it!), New York and Chicago. Dates for the tour have been booked thru' March 31st (the Milwaukee, Wisconsin date) with more dates to follow... Contagious (Relativity) dates to keep in mind include the March 14th gig at the Limelight in NYC (with Spread Eagle - MCA) and the March 24th show at Axis in Boston, MA... Nudeswirl (Megaforce) are gonna be warming up the crowds on the upcoming Flotsam and Jetsam (MCA) tour that kicks off March 17th... Beginning March 18th Ugly Kid Joe (Stardog/Mercury) and Animal Bag (Mercury) will be sharing the stage on a club and college tour that runs through April 14th... In more Ugly Kid Joe (Stardog/Mercury) tour news, the Kids will be the show openers on the Def Leppard (Mercury) European tour this spring. This tour kicks off April 30th in Stockholm, Sweden... Gruntruck (Roadrunner) will be out on the rock road this April on a co-headlining tour with Kyuss (Dali/Chameleon). How psyched am I for this tour!.. The Disincarnate (Roadrunner) and Bolt Thrower (Earache/Relativity) tour is scheduled to kick off April 22nd in Long Island, NY... Stay tuned here for more info. ♦♦♦♦♦ Get this! Lita Ford, the femme fatale rocker, has been sharpening her acting (yes, acting) skills and will make her dramatic debut (okay, not dramatic but a television debut none-the-less) on Fox's "Herman's Head". The episode, which is entitled "Love Me Two Timer", features Lita portraying herself at a post concert party where she picks up Herman (played by William Ragsdale) and has a romantic rendezvous. Here is a sneak peek at the rock vixen in the spotlight showing her pearly whites (along with William Ragsdale) for the Fox camera man... The show has been scheduled to air Sunday May 16th at 9:30 p.m. (ET/PT)... In a bit more Lita Ford news, this busy rocker will also have her own comic book available at various record stores and comic book stores later this summer. Ford will be the heroine in the full color heavy metal comic book that is to be published by Rock-it Comix. You may want to know that the first 1,000 copies will be autographed and offered to the buying public as a limited collector's edition... Since I'm filling you in on what Lita Ford is doing, I will also tell you that Ford also has a new line of guitars in the works. The guitars will bear Lita's name and will be manufactured by St. Louis Music for Alvarez Guitars. ♦♦♦♦♦ So comes an end to our time together. Peace.

Ahhhhhhh. The love between a father and son is captured so well here in this shot of Sepultura screamer Max Cavalera with his unbelievably cute infant Zyon. It looks like Max and Gloria did good work, huh.

Those radio promotion folks over the Concrete way have resorted to medieval type torture tactics to keep label promotion types in line. Here are Concrete's Steve Prue, "Toxic" Tommy Delaney and Russ Gerrior applying their force to Epic's Michael Schnapp.

Okay, so this is the Sacred Reich issue here at the Hard Hut. I can deal with it. Pictured here snarling for the camera are Reich types along with my favorite Brazilians - Sepultura. Saying cheese L to R are: Wiley Arnett (Sacred), Max Cavalera (Sepultura's daddy), Dave McClarin (Sacred), Palo Jr. (Sepultura), Phil Rind (Sacred), Andreas Kissan and Igor Cavalera (Sepultura).

Seen here catching KNAC's Laurie Free, after she attempted to fly after one too many (or is it not enough) at the KNAC/Aversion Valentine's Day party, are Aversion members Mick Palmezano, Christian Fuhrer, Shelly Cason and Dash.

PICK

Springhouse, "Postcards From The Arctic," Caroline

You know Springhouse as its separate parts: off-Broadway performance hit Blue Man Group band member Larry Heinemann, avant rock sessionist Josh Friedland, journalist/editor Jack Rabid; what seems less apparent, and equally relevant, is their collective musical insight. While so many are busy dissecting intangibles, looking for the one element that is the window to the soul of the universe, it's another train of discipline to accept an entity for its own sake. Especially such a tantalizing one. Following their debut in '91, Land Falls, is another dose of Cocteau featuring Bob Mould and Dean Wareham inspired haze. Springhouse's debut single on the Singles Only Label caused quite a stir within the usually jaded NYC area, and their first record was a big college hit. This time, there's more than enough standout songs to bring in the commercial signals as well — "Enslave Me," "Asphalt Angels," "Ghosts," "Alley Parks," to mention a few. Inspiring images of the harsh spaces in both the city and in the polar desert, Postcards From The Arctic lives up to its name. Drummer Rabid sings on "Time To Go," bracingly melancholy as are much of the songs, sung by guitarist Friedland. Medicine, Curve and Swallow are all bands with sonorous inklings, but Springhouse carve its songs out of a impressive block and melting it into liquid frigidty one track at a time. This record develops like a winter sunrise in slow motion — magnificent and startling — a beautiful sight for those who care to make the effort, and just as accessible.

AUTOMATICS

Lenny Kravitz, "Are You Gonna Go My Way," Virgin

Lenny does his best Bon Scott on this new tune from his forthcoming album of the same name. Quite frankly our answer to his question is "yes." Sure we flashed back to our second grade fascination with BTO records after hearing this tune, but that just proves it's the perfect anthem for the 90s. That great lifestyle thing, MTV, is already hammering this puppy so it's a microwave ready add. Don't be afraid of rock and roll, it's our friend. Just look into the light, it's beautiful, man. Has Lenny lost that whole hippy thing? Maybe, maybe not. This selection is kind of in between. While we want to paint our bodies, we'd rather drive a pickup. The answer — very 70s. And we all know the 70s are back with a vengeance. Who'da thunk it? It must've been all that Brady Bunch stuff last year. Not to mention the fact that Susan Dey is on TV every week. We'd still like to meet David Cassidy, but not Danny Bonaduce. Actually we wouldn't mind that, and we actually wonder what his reaction to The Crying Game would be. Don't worry, we won't reveal its secrets. But we will implore you to play Lenny.

Lulabox, "I Believe," Radioactive

This British/American band has been a real dark horse in the past eight months with their The Full Bleed EP, which has been a solid performer at commercial and college signals. The syrupy blast of "Ride On" spread dreamy waves around in massive elliptical helpings. So the first single from the forthcoming self-titled album is not an unknown quantity — in other words, it's worth your while. "I Believe" is available in two lengths, a regular and minute-longer Below The Belt Mix, the latter co-produced by Ray Shulman (Sundays). The shivering quality of Mary Cassidy's voice (listing a seemingly incongruous list, a la Bono's "I Believe In Love") on top of the warm, droning music of Stephen Ferrera and Mike Cozzi gives us a distinct vision of Lush with Madonna, and consequently avoiding that electronic phallus shtick. With such features, it doesn't take a Ph.D in physics to figure that this would do well in any daypart. Most added next week? Definitely, and keep an eye out for a comeback on the Top 50, as it's been maintaining under the chart for several weeks.

Living Colour, "Stain," Epic

You already know and love the lead track, "Leave It Alone." As that track rockets up the Cutting Edge Radio Top 50, the full album arrives on our desk. Hmm. What's the deal with this "Bi" song? Everybody loves you when you're Bi! This whole The Crying Game thing is just going a little too far. But there's nothing wrong with that. Vernon Reid stretches out on "Mind Your Business." New bass player Doug Wimbish gets to flash his chops on "Auslander." "This Little Pig" could be about Clarence Thomas, but we've been too busy blowing the pubes off our Coke can to think about it. In other news, we all know that there's been some changes in the band. Hey Muzz, we don't miss ya! Actually, we always miss those who leave us and we wish him the best in his future endeavors. Now back to the big review. Stain features the bonus track, Prince's "17 Days," which we've already been treated to on the CD pro of "Leave It Alone." As a package, Stain, marks the return of Living Colour to full form. This one is large. So large, it's PHAT.

Frank Black, "Los Angeles," Elektra

Nobody in their right mind would want to spend more than twenty-five minutes in Los Angeles. There we said it. It's out. L.A. sucks. Oh, this a song. Sorry. Black Francis is on the short list of our musical heros. He's joined here by Eric Drew Feldman producer of Pixies records and frequent Captain Beefheart co-hort. You should be playing this as often as possible. It's right up there with all your fave Pixies cuts and we think it slams the City Of Angels. Or maybe it doesn't. We've never been good at that decipher lyrics stuff. But then again who could write a happy a city that pours bug spray on its citizens? Or that totally falls apart when it rains? But ol' Frank really does a great job on this song. But why does he keep saying Los AnGuhles? Maybe that's the right way. We never pretended to be geniuses or anything. And why doesn't he mention the greatest thing in that hellhole of a city — The LaBrea Tar pits? Oh, the sad plight of LaBrea Woman! Did she really know that the pits meant certain death? Time for a closing line — If you dig the Pixies, you'll love this track.

Digital Orgasm, "It," White Lbls/Def American

This slightly mysterious dance duo finds its origins in the Belgian dance scene, which has recently been finding a more receptive audience in the U.S. due to this whole rave thing. While you certainly wouldn't find us publicly going to one of those BYOW (bring your own whistle) affairs, but it will definitely be a summer leisure activity after the new Letterman show (from the Ed Sullivan theatre) is over. One of the creative minds at work in Digital Orgasm is Praga Kahn, a D.J. who's also been involved with Lords Of Acid, who formed this band to make techno how he thought it should be done. The other half of the charm comes from the ample voice of a woman known as Jade 4U, who's also been involved in the same scene. D.O. had a series of hit singles in Europe, and due to all the general hoopla and hurrah, Def American has licensed this record from Antler-Subway. Digital Orgasm turn down the sexual overdrive of the Lords, and add some of their own flairs that set them apart in the middle of a setlist in a club or on the radio. Check out "Time To Believe" or "Guilty Of Love."

Big Head Todd And The Monsters, "Sister Sweetly," Giant

This Colorado trio was a sure bet from the word "go," but it went way beyond our dreams that "Broken Hearted Savior" would "go" so far on commercial radio. It's quickly gaining on the mainstream AOR charts, and is in the Top 5 on the A.A.A. tracks chart. Here's it's easy money to bet on further increases after this week's debut of 50*. Big Head Todd (Park Mohr, Rob Squires and Brian Nevin) has a strong resemblance to all the heritage bands (Dead, Lynyrd, Eagles, Stones, et.al.) that still rule AOR, and still have enough of their own identity to fuss with. Sister Sweetly will make the playing more tasty, now that the whole disc is available, and put big fat check marks beside "Turn The Light Out," the big fat "Groove Thing" (Gil Scott Heron would be proud) and "Soul For Every Cowboy" (featuring Leo Kottke on guitar). KBCO, ACRN and KXRK jumped on the full album this week, and stations WNCS and KGRK are reporting Heavy play. KBCO's Ginger Havlat says, "Thanks to Sister Sweetly Big Head Todd will no longer be Boulder's best kept musical secret."

Lemonheads, "My Drug Buddy," Atlantic

This song was re-titled "My Buddy" on the re-banded version of the album, but on this single/CD5, here's the original title. Not that Evan Dando is afraid of any silly controversy, he just loves his Gram Parsons shirt. "My Drug Buddy" is a slower-paced gem, not quite a torcher, but Evan is crooning nonetheless. The alterna-hunky-dory cover of "Mrs. Robinson" (which was originally recorded on a lark, later discovered by Atlantic) has been getting the heavy duty rotations at MTV. With all the exposure and sales progress, it looks like the Lemonheads' day is just around the corner (and check out that photo spread in Interview — cover story, dude!). Of course, all the action won't let us forget that old Lemonheads poster lurking somewhere in the office, in Evan's younger, rougher days. This nifty EP includes that aforementioned song, plus some extra goodies: the acoustic "Being Around," the sixties-reminiscent "Dawn Can't Decide" and "Shaky Ground" (written by bandmates Nic Dalton and Tom Morgan). A sure way to redebut on the chart, plus make all the little girls say, "aaaaahhhhh."

Paul Weller, "Bull-Rush," Go! Discs/

London/PLG The latest single from Paul Weller's self-titled solo is the latest stretch on a road that's been steady and solid. Radio support is continuing with album play at WXRT, KBCO, WYEP, KEDJ and WLZR. From the first strains of "Uh-Huh-Oh-Yeah," Paul has trod with authority and well-likedness (Willie Horton's big hangup). Plus the fact that another single is rolling off the belt in PLG-land is proof in the pudding that this former Jammer gets their vote of confidence. This single adds two songs ("Amongst Butterflies" and "Bitterness Rising") from the album done acoustically, so when is the Paul Unplugged episode coming out? Of course, the big news that will be coming out any day now, The Jam never broke up, they took a sabbatical and will have their first studio and double live albums out in the next month (kidding!). Sound a bit familiar these days — not that we have anything against our old faves doing the "Comeback" thing, but it's the rewriting of history that strikes as a bit odd. Big brother? Hey, it's only rock and roll, so why and read anything more into it?

Auteurs, "New Wave," Caroline

A well-picked debut from the discriminating Caroline bunch, this band has been available as an import for a short time and anybody listening on the office hint lines could have heard that name by now. "Showgirl" was the Auteurs' first single, and they ended up touring with extremely hip Suede in the U.K. New Wave is built around the songwriting of Luke Haines, whose influences (Beatles, Tyrannosaurus Rex, Soft Boys, Kinks) he wears proudly. The band has been around for about a year, and its working chemistry is perceptible in Glenn Collins (drums), Alice Readman (bass) and Haines (guitar), whose voice has a lilt like Scott Miller. Readman and Haines first worked together in an obscure band called the Servants, and the only way you might hear it is if Haines decides to rerelease it. New Waves combines astute and bittersweet lyrics with perky pop — aside from the first single, open up your morning to "Junk Shop Clothes," "How Could I Be Wrong," "Valet Parking" and "Idiot Brother." All in all, immediately accessible to both the college and commercial sides of the dial.

Poster Children, "Tool Of The Man," Sire/Reprise Everybody uses the phrase "poster children" as slang for cute little mascots who need the help of others, like Jerry Lewis. These punkers from Illinois are not above the assistance of others, but aren't exactly helpless. We'll call them the mouse that roared on two swell indie albums. On their first new album since Daisychain Reaction, the Poster Children have focused their energy and chops, and come up with quite a batch of perky songs that recall the Buzzcocks and Sonic Youth. Full college participation is expected — with ACRN, KGRK, KUSF, WCDB and WTSR joining KUCI, WNHU, WWVU and KCMU's play increases — and it's only a matter of seconds before commercial leaps into the fray, too. The Poster Children (Rick, Jim, Rose and Johnny) are a keen bet for this year's up and coming lists, and we're staking our claim that they'll be standing tall sooner than Billy Ray can slam dunk a quarter into a payphone. "Dynamite Chair," "Tommyhaus" and "Shotguns & Pickups" all get the thumbs up. By the way, we haven't the slightest idea what that fuzzy picture is supposed to be.

Treepeople, "Just Kidding," C/Z Boise's finest are on your doorstep. They probably brought your newspaper in from the hedges, where that darned delivery boy always throws it. The Treepeople happen to be one of the most hep indie bands around, and just because they've chosen to stay on the Seattle label C/Z does not mean that they're not serious about their music. Just Kidding is just as wonderful as last year's Something Vicious For Tomorrow, and it's ready to perform beyond our wildest dreams. We predict that this will be a big breakthrough — don't let the advance fall behind your desk. Promising reports for the radio-only promo for "Outside In" from KCPR, WUNH and full album adds from WBAU, WCDB, WFDU, WNHU and WUNH show a continuing interest in this band. Check out "Cartoon Brew," "Neil's Down," "Anything's Impossible" and the burly flavor of "Ballard Bitter." Since the record was finished, former Motor Virus's Eric Cornell joined the band, and bassist T. Dallas Reed switched to guitar to replace Dug Martsch. This band is one hot tostada on stage, and will be on the road for much of the year.

Basehead, "Do You Wanna Fuck (Or What)," Imago This one be wack, bro. In this enlightened decade we call the 90s, Basehead have found one Panic Button that was beggin' to be pushed. Forget about all those PC things you're supposed to say to the females and all, this one gets right to the point. Now you may have some troubles wit' THE MAN who won't let you spin this one because of the cursin' and shit. But the record company, obviously at the urging of THE MAN, have given us this "Radio Friendly Edit" that will keep your parole officer happy. Be advised that this CD features four different mixes of this tune with our favorite name being "Kickin' That Booty Rerecording." Of course all that talk about big booties just got us goin'. Hey, but beware of that F word 'cause you want to keep that FCC sheepskin, if you know what we mean. Equally wack is the extra track "Hair." It's downright nasty! So we'd be slappin' this one on the CD player as soon as we got the chance.

David Baerwald, "The Got No Shotgun Hydrahead Octopus Blues," A&M Davey Baerwald is best remembered as a member of that mid 80s combo, David & David. While that band really made those greedy yuppies of the time really happy with their sleek tales of excess, this solo Baerwald stuff is downright 90s. "The Got No Shotgun Hydrahead Octopus Blues" is kind of like that new Michael Douglas movie. You know, go into a McDonald's and if they don't have Strawberry shakes or aren't serving breakfast anymore, just shoot the place up kind of stuff. This song is actually kind of close to reality. Last week some wacko in Virginia, or some other place where inbreeding is popular, was booked for threatening the President. Sure that happens all the time. But how often does a song about going to D.C. and wanting to blow away bureaucrats come out at the same time? Not often. Exactly. You're still with us. That's a good sign. "The Got No Shotgun Hydrahead Octopus Blues" is a great up tempo tune that will have your audience running out of their houses looking for concealed weapons permits.

CLEARED & PRIMED

The second album from Antenna is a deeper dip into the guitar and amp experience. The lineup on Hideout (Mammoth) has changed a bit since Sway, former Blake Babies guitarist John Strohm is now playing with Jacob Smith and Patrick Spurgeon. The first song, "Shine," is a direct reference to a name they were considering for the band before deciding on Antenna. 27 Various' Ed Ackerson lends some extra guitar, and the record was produced as before by Paul Mahern (former Zeros member, he also worked on the last Blake Babies record), there's a sample of Mssr. John Coltrane on the Cope-esque "Rust." Ample noise and melody are on "Easy Listening," "Wallpaper" and "Grey St."... From two I-states, Indiana to Idaho, the second album from the Dirt Fishermen is available on C/Z Records now — Vena Cava is a spellbinding turn on the Idaho hitparade. Hey, aren't a lot of bands from that pan-handled state? I guess it's time to move on up to Coeur D'Alene and build that fortified cabin in the hills. Hmm, maybe after that little cable venture pays off, then it's off to the gun shop to pick up some... Sorry for the digression. Dirt Fishermen are pretty cool and this record was produced by man at large Jack Endino. This record has beaucoup nooks and cranies for those who enjoy craggy rawk, and enough polish to be able to be able to say "I can see myself." Find footholds in "Vena Cava," "Wrath Of Rabbit," "Caracul," "Put To Sleep" and "Fun & Games With Sylvia."... Another I-name, the state of Infectious Grooves. Their second album, Sarsippius' Ark is out and ready for reptile and mammalian consumption. If you were to dig the Suicidal Tendencies, then their scaly alter-egos will be a refreshing kick in the trousers. Infectious Grooves will be touring with Suicidal, and as Muir jokes, "Maybe we won't let them soundcheck." Along with floppy and dense covers of "Immigrant Song" and "Fame," there's originals like "Three Headed Mind Pollution" and "Slo-Motion Slam." Along with Robert Trujillo and Mike Muir are Dean Pleasants and Adam Siegel, who all were on the debut The Plague That Makes Your Booty Move. Also tagging along for the second trip are former Jane's Addiction drummer Stephen Perkins and Stephen Crago, who's toured with (eek!) Stevie Nicks.... Also from the Sony mailing monster is FIREHOSE. "Blaze" is the first peek from the Mr. Machinery Operator album. FIREHOSE are always redeemable for a hell of a hoedown, and for more live/on stage type action, watch for their upcoming tour. It's called the 48 State 'Cuda Bake,' and it starts in the west in late March and from there weaves eastward. J (great first week retail on Dinosaur Jr) Mascis did the production thang, and the FIREHOSE guys were so pleased that they let him put a bass solo into this song. There's even a mersh (or commercial type edit — for all who don't speak f-hose lingo) version that cuts a little time off. Mike Watt is still our favorite high school janitor self-styled bassist around.... For a massive blast of nitroglycerine, Def American is saving the import freaks among us some hard earned cash by shipping a new Medicine single/EP. Even for those who couldn't care less about CDs that cost way too much, this still a good opportunity to check out a happening band's new material without having to wait a few months until it's old news. "Sive" is taken directly from the album that's taken noise to new extremes, and here's some more tracks to ignite the afterburners directly on your skull cavity: "Time Baby II" (pretty vocals from Beth Thompson), "Lime Sicks" and "Wrought."... The latest CD from Emigre is by the name of Honey Barbara. Feedlotloophole is brimming with esoteric pop in the style of Captain Beefheart, Beat Happening or Ween, with songs like "Big Black Berries," "Two Birds" and "Mushroom." Comprised of Ross Marlow, James Sidlo and Terrence Orff, Honey Barbara are from San Antonio and pay homage to that town with "Down In San Antonio" and the entire south/southwest region with their spartan atmosphere that oozes dust, barren land and dry, swirling air.... Naughty By Nature's followup to their smash is out and is a grande priority. 19NaughtyIII (Tommy Boy) is already on its way to the chart heights with "Hip Hop Hooray" and one of our faves at this time is "The Only Ones," that borrows a bit of our favorite erstwhile Portland, Oregon, white bread dance band, Nu Shooz's "I Can't Wait." There's also guest appearances from Queen Latifah, Heavy D, and Freddie Foxxx.... Another followup, but of a more up and coming status is from Citrus Groove. This San Luis Obispo, California, ensemble released a first 7" last year, and an EP called Sunswayed is out now on Honeychain Records. Like a more northerly California band, Overwhelming Colorfast, Citrus Groove twist brightly colored pop juice into their Soul Asylum-ish punk energy — the end result a rock n' roll smart drink. Take a sip of "Angel," "Mesmerized" and Everything."... A final note, keep your eye out for Green Apple Quick Step, whose three song advance on Giant/Reprise is a smoker. It was recorded at the Rckndy in Seattle, and after hearing "Pay The Rent" and "Shifting," it's with great anticipation that I wait for further stuff. They'll be playing small clubs through March, in the midwest and west.

Mitch Easter, record producer and former leader of Let's Active, is battling with city officials in his hometown of Kernersville, North Carolina, who want to put a new highway through his house. Easter and his father, Ken Edwards, bought the house in 1987 and have spent more fixing up the house than they paid for it. "We could have built something for a lot less money, but we wanted to mess around with this old house," Easter says. But the Kernersville Board of Alderman has voted to put a connector road through the property, which would require demolishing the house which was built in 1880. The property has been a farm, a dairy and a brick-making facility, and Easter's father was born in the house in 1917. Even if the Forsyth Historic Properties Commission designates the house a local historic landmark, that won't change plans to put the road segment through the property. Easter's wife, Angie Carlson Easter, says the road will only help developers who want to build on the land. "I'm not just going to roll over and play dead, but I'm not sure that we have the money to fight the developers," Mitch Easter says.

Steve Morse of the Dixie Dregs says the band's "Take It Off The Top" medley wasn't intended to get a lot of airplay for the album "Bring 'Em Back Alive." "It was done totally for humor value. Now a lot of radio stations are playing it," Morse says. "But on the positive side, now, when somebody stands up in the back row and yells, 'Free Bird,' we're ready."

The principal of Bluefield High School in Hampshire, Prince Edward Island, has rejected the students' choice of John Lennon's "Imagine" as the theme to their graduation ceremonies this year. The Canadian students overwhelmingly voted in favor of the song in two separate votes, but school administrators and teachers objected to the song's "no religion" line. Principal Adelberg Roach says he won't back down on the issue. "It's open to various interpretations and, depending on how you interpret the song, you may or may not be offended by it. If it can be a source of offense to some people, then I don't think it is appropriate to have it at our graduation exercises," Roach says. "As leaders within the school, we have an obligation to have our students make a sincere effort not to offend other students or their parents."

"People Get Ready" is the name of an album of cover versions of Curtis Mayfield songs coming out in March (on Shanachie Records). Huey Lewis & The News cover "It's Alright," Delbert McClinton does a version of "He Will Break Your Heart," and Vernon Reid of Living Colour performs "We People Who Are Darker Than Blue." There are also tracks by Bunny Wailer, Steve Cropper and Kim Wilson. Half of the royalties from the album will go to Mayfield, who has been in a wheelchair since being injured onstage in an accident.

Jett Williams, the daughter of country singer Hank Williams, visited the Georgia General Assembly where a resolution honoring her was read in the state House and Senate. House Speaker Tom Murphy said her visit was "proof that a young lady can make an old man think young again." Williams had played at a party for state legislators the night before and sang a dozen songs including her father's "Your Cheatin' Heart," which is Murphy's favorite song.

Michael Jackson will help former U.S. President Jimmy Carter with his Atlanta Project as it begins an effort to immunize pre-school children this spring. But he's not likely to perform, despite initial comments by Carter that Jackson would play a concert in May. "One option under discussion is to hold a public ceremony to recognize the families who have immunized their children and to raise awareness of other critical issues affecting children in Atlanta and other communities," Carter said later. Carter met with officials in Los Angeles recently to discuss a collaboration between the Atlanta Project and Jackson's "Heal L.A." program.

Cheap Trick begin recording a new album in March for release (on Warner Brothers Records) this fall.

Danny Gatton has recorded a new album in Memphis featuring Delbert McClinton. The LP, tentatively entitled "Better Than New," should be out later this year (on Elektra Records).

Julian Cope is releasing an instrumental album with his guitarist, Donald Ross Skinner. Cope describes the 70-minute album as "the perfect length for a good meditation." Cope is releasing the album on his own, having been dropped by his British record label Island. Copies are only available by mail-order in Britain.

The common belief that country music is all about drinking, cheating and guns doesn't hold true, according to a survey of a recent country top 20 by Country America magazine. The magazine found that love was the most frequently mentioned topic in the songs, with some form of the word mentioned 46 times. Other popular words included "free," "no," "out" and "gone," all mentioned over 20 times. Of the 20 songs surveyed, there was only one reference to a bar, a railroad or a guitar. There were no mentions of prisons, trucks, guns, cheating or trains.

EPMD have broken up, citing "personal differences." The head of the rappers' record label, Russell Simmons, is hoping that members Parrish Smith and Erick Sermon will get "back to business" soon. EPMD released four albums, the most recent being "Business Never Personal."

The Grateful Dead have made some errors in printing tickets to their concerts this winter, raising the possibility those tickets will become collectors items. Orange ink was used instead of green ink on tickets for a St. Patrick's Day concert in Washington, and tickets for the band's Atlanta shows mention the wrong concert promoter.

Country singer Travis Tritt says there are two non-country albums he wants to record. "One is a blues album," Tritt says. "And the other would be a sort of a 'Will The Circle Be Unbroken' album with Southern rockers like the Allman Brothers and Lynyrd Skynyrd, while these guys are still around."

A Tennessee sculptor says he doesn't plan to sell a life-size Elvis Presley that he carved from a 40-foot cedar tree that had been struck by lightning. Tommy Rieben had hoped to finish the sculpture by the time Presley's commemorative stamp was issued in January, but it took him 2 1/2 months to finish it, using a chainsaw, chisels and a mallet. "I had to kind of think about it, so I put the tree in the yard and studied it awhile," Rieben says. "I had some old album covers with Elvis's picture on them and I used them as models. Then I turned on a radio station that plays a lot of Elvis songs and went to work."

Stephane Sednaoui, who won an MTV award for a video for the Red Hot Chili Peppers, is photographing a fashion spread for Mademoiselle being put together by model Naomi Campbell in her role as a contributing editor to the magazine.

Cajun rocker Sonny Landreth has released a new solo album, called "Outward Bound." The LP includes guest vocals from John Hiatt.

Buddy Guy releases a new album in early March, called "Feels Like Rain." It includes his versions of songs by Muddy Waters, Guitar Slim, James Brown, John Fogerty, Marvin Gaye and John Hiatt. Paul Rodgers, John Mayall and Bonnie Raitt make guest appearances on the LP.

Aerosmith have filmed a video in Los Angeles for "Living On The Edge," the first single from their "Get A Grip" album coming out in April. The band will go on a world tour for a year and a half beginning in early June.

Glenn Danzig explores the writings of the French poet Charles Baudelaire on the new Danzig album "Godless." "I was very intrigued with Baudelaire's vision of Satan as more of a rebel than this totally evil, dark guy, which may or may not be the case," Danzig says. One of the tracks on the LP, "Sistinas," is based on poems in Baudelaire's collection of poems, "Les fleurs du mal" ("The Flowers Of Evil"). Danzig says the song is "totally about isolation, depression, love."

Nicolette Larson is releasing an album of lullabies this spring that will include a song written by Neil Young called "Barefoot Floors." Fifteen years ago, Larson charted with a cover of Young's "Lotta Love." Larson sang backing vocals on Young's recent "Harvest Moon" album but has been taking time out to raise her 2 1/2-year-old daughter, Elsie May.

A single from a motion picture or television soundtrack has now topped the Billboard Hot 100 chart for 29 weeks, more than double the previous record established in 1981. The current run began with Madonna's "This Used To Be My Playground" from the film "A League Of Their Own," and has continued with songs by Boyz II Men, the Heights, and Whitney Houston.

Rich Gilbert, formerly of Human Sexual Response and the Zulus, has formed a new band called United States, featuring two former members of the Boston band Bags.

Barrence Whitfield is releasing an album with Texas country singer Tom Russell, called "Hillbilly Voodoo." "There are no screams on it," Whitfield says. "It's just 100 percent Whitfield vocals." The LP includes covers of Bob Dylan's "Blind Willie McTell," Jesse Winchester's "Mississippi You're On My Mind," and Van Morrison's "Cleaning Windows."

Former Band guitarist Robbie Robertson is producing Eric Clapton's next album.

Former Squeeze keyboardist Jools Holland has released his third solo album, "The A-Z Geographers' Guide To The Piano." On the album cover, Holland lists over 40 pianists he says have influenced him, including Fats Domino, Nina Simone and Ray Charles. Holland still plays out with his 10-piece Jools Holland Big Band.

Amy Jones, executive director of the National Vitiligo Foundation of Tyler, Texas, says that if Michael Jackson actually has the skin disorder, she'd like him to serve as a spokesman for the group. "It's not contagious, it's not fatal, it's not physically harmful. You just look funny. That's it," Jones says.

Mickey Hart of the Grateful Dead, will launch a new album, "The Spirit Cries," with a party at the Library of Congress on March 15. The LP uses Library of Congress archive tapes of tribal music from Central America and the Caribbean. U.S. Vice-President Albert Gore and all of the members of the Dead are expected to attend the event.

Guitarist Peter Holsapple is touring with a new version of the '60s group the Cowsills. Holsapple, who's toured with R.E.M. and was a member of the dB's, says playing with the Cowsills is "a lot more interesting than seeing Warrant or Slaughter." "This beats the heck out of playing with R.E.M.," Holsapple says. "This has more integrity. This is where my heart is."

Neckties based on pen-and-ink drawings by John Lennon sold quickly once they were put on sale at Saks Fifth Avenue in New York. Three thousand of the ties, priced at $35, sold in the first ten days they were available. Each tie comes with a sketchbook of Lennon's art, including the drawings that form the basis of the tie patterns.

Extreme drummer Paul Geary married his long-time girlfriend, Laurie Perry, at a church in East Boston, then the couple went on honeymoon in St. Thomas, in the Caribbean. "It was great to get away," Geary says. "I've been on the road full time, so it was great to spend time together alone for a change."

Isaac Tigrett, founder of the Hard Rock Cafe and House of Blues chains, wants to stimulate development of a high-school curriculum based on blues music and related issues. Tigrett says teaching the blues is something "that is hip and cool and fun for the kids." He says his House of Blues chain is spending several hundred thousand dollars to staff a non-profit corporation to raise money for the program. He'd like to introduce the program this fall in a few public school systems. "Our research shows that it will cost $500,000 to $800,000 to introduce a new curriculum into a school system," Tigrett says. "Music and art...have been neglected in the public schools due to budgetary cuts over the last 10 years. I think this gives us an opportunity to put that back in the schools in a very exciting way."

A 1987 rap record by Anquette called "Janet Reno" is being re-issued (on Luke Records) now that the Florida prosecutor has been nominated for U.S. Attorney General. The record praised Reno for her efforts to go after fathers who were not making their child-support payments.

The U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration is increasingly targeting fans of the Grateful Dead. Four years ago, there were less than a hundred Deadheads jailed on LSD charges. Now, there are up to 2,000, mostly young, middle-class white men, serving prison sentences on drug charges, the agency says. "We've opened a vein here," says Gene Haislip, head of LSD enforcement at the DEA. "We're going to mine this until this whole thing turns around."

A state representative in Illinois has proposed a specialty license plate featuring Elvis Presley. Representative Clem Balanoff says the money raised through selling the plate would add funding to various state programs. "A license plate with an Elvis design would provide countless millions for drug and alcohol abuse treatment programs," Balanoff says. "Dead or alive, it's time for Elvis to ride the roads of Illinois and help raise badly needed funds for drug abuse and alcohol prevention and treatment, environmental cleanup and education."

Keith Strickland of the B-52's concedes that the band's latest album, "Good Stuff," hasn't been as successful as "Cosmic Thing." "It's done well," Strickland says. "It's almost platinum, so that's not too bad. But we'll just keep going. I'm feeling very creative. I can't wait to get home and start writing some more."

Former Soft Cell singer Marc Almond releases a live album, "Twelve Years Of Tears," in March. It includes a cover of Charles Aznavour's "What Makes A Man A Man." "I'm an unashamed sentimentalist," Almond says. "It's a moving song. It is appealing to the lowest common denominators in a way, but I think sometimes in pop music you have to do that to reach an audience."

British band the Sweet have reformed and have released a new album in Europe. "I think the music is still fresh," says guitarist Andy Scott. "No longer do we wear Christmas tree-type decorations," he says, referring to the costumes band members wore after the group formed in 1968.

New Order will return on April 5 with their first release for three years. "Regrets" b/w "Mixed Regrets" will be issued via the band's own Manchester label. Manchester Records will be distributed by London as part of the band's new deal with the label. May will see the release of the band's long awaited new album. Entitled "Republic," tracks so far confirmed include "Avalanche," "Chemical," "Everyone Everywhere," "Liar," "Regrets," "Techno 2" and "World (Price Of Love)." The album was recorded in Peter Gabriel's Real World Studio in Bath, south-west England. Production was handled by Stephen Hague and the sleeve's artwork has been prepared by the band's longtime designer Peter Saville. Speaking to the New Musical Express, New Order bassist Peter Hook commented on the demise of Factory Records who previously released the band's material: "It was a bit of bad timing really. If it (the new album) had been released in time, Factory probably wouldn't have gone down." The band will play live dates in June and July.

Meanwhile, other former Factory signings Happy Mondays have not been so lucky as New Order. As reported last week in The Hard Report, it looked as if the band were to sign with EMI Records. However, this deal has fallen through. Last week, the label released a statement reading, "The band will not be signing to EMI." EMI A&R chief Clive Black also told the New Musical Express, "We did have long discussions with the band but nothing was concluded. We never reached a point where legal people were talking to legal people." After his confident statement of last week that, "We have a guaranteed minimum bankroll of £1.7 million over (the) five LPs," EMI's announcement will be a major blow for Mondays manager Nathan McCough. Polygram, who were also expected to sign the band at one time appear to have pulled out of the race for their signature. Who the band may sign for now is currently a subject of much debate within the UK industry. Finally, it looks as if the defunct Factory may pay off only a fraction of its debts. The label is said to have owed £3.5 million at the time of its demise and it looks as if only secured debts such as taxes and bank loans will be repaid. Other creditors, from bands to publicity and design companies, will probably receive nothing. Receivers Leonard Curtis will update creditors on the situation this week.

North London's Town And Country Club has been bought by Vince Power's Mean Fiddler Organization and will reopen under the name of The Forum. As previously reported in The Hard Report, the venue had been due to close on March 20 after its owners Folgate Estates refused to extend the lease of Maxrose Promotions, the company currently running the club. The Mean Fiddler's move has shocked many as the company already has several other London venues: The Mean Fiddler, The Powerhaus and The Jazz Cafe in north London, The Subterania in west London and The Grand Theater in south London. However, Vince Power had previously said he would be interested in the Town And Country Club if it was placed on the "open market." Last week, the Mean Fiddler released a statement which quoted Power as saying, "I am delighted that, despite numerous offers from other interested parties, Folgate has decided to work with the Mean Fiddler Organization to help this much loved venue open and safeguard jobs in the locality. The venue will be relaunched shortly reverting to its original name, The Forum, but will continue to feature a wide range of musical styles and acts as before." However, this has not stopped many privately expressing disquiet at one company controlling so much of the London live scene.

Bloggers ITA, who recently signed to EMI, have been forced to change the artwork to their "United Colors of Bloggers ITA" album because their distributors in Europe, EFA, have refused to handle the release. The original artwork featured a swastika flag burning in a pile of rubble on the front cover and pictures of a stone swastika being blown up on the back. The band, who are prominent supporters of The Anti Nazi League, intended the cover as a comment against fascism and as a satire on the shock tactics employed in the advertising of the Benetton clothing company. However, in countries with former fascist governments Italy, Austria and Germany, the use of Nazi imagery is banned outright, even if it is used as a comment against Nazism. The band have expressed surprise at the halting of distribution, but have put together a new sleeve which will be plain white with a statement explaining the change. Part of the statement reads: "Your government believes that you cannot distinguish between anti-fascist and fascist propaganda." However, it is worth noting that racial tension in many parts of Europe is currently very high. In Germany, for instance, police have recently cracked down on a burgeoning number of new-Nazi record releases. Approximately 500 police were involved in an operation to seize around 30,000 CDs, tapes and records, mostly released by Cologne label Rock-O-Rama. The homes of several band members were also raided and police found lyric sheets for songs such as "A Nobel Prize For Adolf Hitler." Thomas Stein, who is president of the German record industry organization BPW commented, "We will not allow a few extremist rockers to do damage to the image of the whole industry."

Shakin' Stevens is being taken to court by his former backing band and manager over alleged non-payment of royalties. The Sunsets and Paul Barrett claim they are owed £40,000 for the 1978 hit "A Legend." Elsewhere on the court front, MCA look set to sue the independent Charly Records. Both parties claim they own the rights to the Chess catalogue which features classic recordings from blues legends such as Muddy Waters, John Lee Hooker and Howlin' Wolf.

Huggy Bear, who have been picking up a great deal of attention in the UK for their brand of political, feminist punk, have run into controversy after being thrown out of the studios of "The Word", a show broadcast late on Friday night by the Channel 4 television network. The band, who had earlier played their "Her Jazz" single live on the show, had joined in heckling against an item on glamour models The Barbie Twins. Huggy Bear guitarist Jo claims she was hit by a security guard. "The Word", though, say one of the band's entourage bit a member of the show's production team. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Gary Walker, who heads the band's label Wiiija, commented, "A group of girl fans, including Jo, decided to vocally protest at the direction the programme was taking, which they found extremely offensive. The security guards basically panicked, not knowing how to deal with a group of positive girls." The Word, however, say Huggy Bear were "crap" and "the worst behaved guests we've ever had on the show." Elsewhere, March 8 will see the release of a joint Huggy Bear/Bikini Kill album via the Catcall label. With each band taking one side, the album commemorates International Women's Day. The bands will also tour the UK together in March. The release is the first UK one for UK band Bikini Kill, although their six-track "Double Dare Ya" mini-album has picked up a great deal of attention on import.

Spiritualized are to headline a benefit for the housing charity Shelter at north London's Hackney Empire on April 2. The band also plan to record dates on their current UK tour for a fan club-only album. Spiritualized have begun work on the follow-up to their critically acclaimed "Lazer Guided Melodies" album.

Beggars Banquet are experimenting with a new way of marketing the cassette. The "paperback" cassette, which will retail at under £5.00 (significantly undercutting the usual rate for UK release) is meant to turn the tape into a "semi-disposable" way of purchasing music. GW McLennan, Rubicon and Carnival Art will all have albums releases at the cheaper price by the label.

Teenage Fanclub are in the studio finishing their new album and advance reports suggest it could be a 24-track double. All four members have been writing material for the release and guitarist Gerry Love's contributions are said to be country-tinged. The first single from the new album should be available via Creation in May. Also in the studio are Crowded House. The band are working in New Zealand with producer Youth and here the advance reports are somewhat bizarre. Apparently, Youth has taken on several percussion players and a Maori choir to perform on the album.

Sting's new album "Ten Summoner's Tales" will be available via A&M this week. Unusual for a "superstar" album, it was recorded in only eight weeks and features twelve tracks including "It's Probably Me" (a duet with Eric Clapton), "Seven Days" (which will be the next UK single), "Fields Of Gold," "Something The Boy Said" and "Shape Of My Heart" (featuring a harmonica solo from the legendary Larry Adler). Sting will play five dates at London's Royal Albert Hall in March.

Tasmin Archer, who picked up the Best British Newcomer Award at the Brits, is donating all artist royalties from her latest single "In Your Care" to the charity Childline. Her label EMI will also be donating their profits to the charity. Childline is a charity which runs a telephone help line for children in trouble. Archer will tour the UK in early March.

Hailing from Moseley, Birmingham in the West Midlands region of England and signed to Too Pure, the label which first released PJ Harvey, Pram are a band currently picking up rave reviews in the UK. Their "Iron Lung" EP shows influence which range from The Raincoats to Pere Ubu and is well worth tracking down on import. Also worth checking out is the "Jesus On The Television" EP from Boy Girl Soup on Boot Records. Straddling the gap between pop and alternative, the EP has already been given 9/10 by the BBC Radio 5 network DJ Liz Kershaw.

Pop diva Kylie Minogue has signed to the deConstruction label. The Australian singer had 19 top 30 UK hits, including four number ones, with her previous label PWL. However, she split from them in 1991 and deConstruction are currently said to be helping the singer work on a new image.

Drummer Mark Brzezicki is rejoining Big Country. Brzezicki didn't play on the band's latest "The Buffalo Skinners" album, but on hearing it, decided he wanted to work with them again. Brzezicki last played live with Big Country in 1989 and last recorded with them in 1991.

J.D., WONE, Akron

This past weekend WONE gave away the new double live CD Van Halen Live: Right Here, Right Now as part of a Van Halen weekend. Everyone who won the new discs were then eligible for the complete Van Halen CD catalog. Special thanks go out to Tom Biery of Warner Brothers for everything... Coming up this weekend, Lynyrd Skynyrd invades the James A. Rhodes Arena over at the University Of Akron. All week long we've been giving away tickets, along with special invitations to join us for a pre-concert party with WONE and Lynyrd Skynyrd. The Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week is Lenny Kravitz' "Are You Gonna Go My Way".

Morgan, WYNE, Tampa

For the fourth time this tour, I have seen Metallica. What an unbelievable band. I've loved them since I was 16 years old. They absolutely rule! I lost my voice and gave myself whiplash, but it was all worth it. Now if I could just get these damn knots out of my neck, I'd be almost perfect. Thanks to John Pernick of Elektra, he's the best. O.K... The Kings beat the Lightning last night 5 to 2, but it was one hell of a game, lots of blood, lots of beer and lots of action and that's what I like. Gretsky is phenomenal, and Luc Robitaille is so very hot. But I'm loyal to Tampa Bay, they're my team... New music we are loving here at 'YNF - Coverdale/Page is incredible. Can't wait to hear the rest... Spin Doctors sounds really good... Alice In Chains' "Rooster" goes on this week. This is one awesome song, one awesome band. Not much room on our playlist, 'cause everything we're playing is so very strong. We like a lot of stuff, but I won't tell you what 'cause then you'll bug the shit outta me.

Bryan Schock, WLZR, Milwaukee

Dear Sirs, when I chose to subscribe to your magazine I did so for one reason - SPORTS! (and the free NFL video). Yesterday I arrived at my mailbox expecting to find Michael Jordan on the cover of your fine publication but what I was to discover couldn't have been further from Michael and his infamous tongue. A scantily clad slut of a woman was staring back at me as if to be gesturing "take me, I'm yours". You people call this SPORTS! This was nothing short of pornography. Dare I open your scumbag magazine to see what slime was awaiting my eyes of morality. Yes, I dare. What I found was too obscene for words, but I'll try. Page after page of women with perfect bodies wearing next to nothing looking back at me as if I were the only man they could ever desire! I was expecting in-depth coverage of the NBA, NHL, PGA Tour, and the many other sports your periodical brings to life week after week throughout the year. Instead, what I got were perfectly shaped breasts of all sizes matched with the most incredible back sides I'd ever laid eyes on. To make a long story short, I was completely appalled with you, this particular issue of your magazine and all it stands for. Please renew my subscription for life!!!!

Harvey Kojan, WNOR, Norfolk

First of all, thanks to all the folks who've phoned or faxed kind words of encouragement about the new job. And apologies if I haven't responded - as you can imagine, this is quite a time-consuming transition... My prime reason for writing this is to let the record community know that WNOR APD/MD Jay Philpott, who filled in so admirably since Buzz went Classic, will continue to be your prime contact. Rest assured that he will have a very integral role in the music selection process. Unlike other so-called "music directors" who are actually little more than glorified secretaries, Jay can and will get records on the radio. (In fact, he already has). So please, direct your music calls to Jay with confidence that your message will get to me. Thanks!

Sharon Schifino, WHJY, Providence

Columbia drops us all into reality with two emotionally driven tunes that are definitely my favorite 'HJY adds this week... First off, Toad The Wet Sprocket with "Hold Her Down". The Toadster are obviously very passionate about the subject of rape. They've managed to get a strong message out that needs to be heard. And besides all the moral reasons for playing this song - it's a great tune musically that sounds killer on the air!... Next up - Alice In Chains' "Rooster". This was always my favorite track from Dirt. It's got a hypnotic quality that just automatically draws you in, and we're already getting phones on it!... Other adds this week include Jagger's "Wired All Night" and Phish's "Fast Enough For You". Phish is selling huge in Providence! There was a buzz about this band that we just couldn't ignore!

Cathy Faulkner, KISW, Seattle

Thanks to Peg Pollard of KIOZ for her vote of confidence. We here at KISW are proud to play demo tapes from local bands that deserve airplay. To update you on Bathub Gin, they are still receiving great phones at KISW, our listeners are storming into the clubs to see them live, and a long list of labels are expressing interest in the band as we speak. If you are finding that you are complaining about the musical options that are coming across your desk on Mondays, have you ever stopped to think that YOU can lead the way to a band's success? Airplay is still a VERY POWERFUL THING!!!!... Don't freak out if you don't see KISW on the add list for "Rooster" from Alice In Chains. That's because we've been playing since the beginning of December! Trust me when I say that it will be the BIGGEST Alice In Chains tune to date! There's no denying a great song.

Michael Young, WRZX, Indianapolis

Just a couple of quick notes. This Stone Temple Pilots' "Plush" is the goods! We have had great success with this band and I'm sure the story will only grow in the weeks to come... While you're piddling around the office this week, pick up the new Boneclub and give it a listen. Who said Prince was the only good thing to come out of Minneapolis!... Have a great week everyone, and pray that Clinton doesn't turn into a bigger boner in the months to come. Four years is an awful long time!

Brent Petersen, WWRX, Providence

I just purchased the John Lennon video collection on Laser Disc. Not only does it have previously released videos (John at the white piano on "Imagine"), but some never before seen videos. They've taken some John drawings and animated them for "Whatever Gets You Thru The Night". Yoko has done a fine job on this. Indispensable for any Beatle fan.

Jim Corey & Tony Baroni, KSKE, Vail

I'm tired, I'm sick, and besides that I don't feel too good. This week it's a short and sweet one... Hot phones: Sonia Dada, The Cages (why is no one paying attention to this band?!), Thomas Dolby, Big Head Todd, Kowanko, Immaculate Fools, Zachary Richard and Coverdale Page!... Hot picks: Lynyrd Skynyrd, Young Turk, Alannah Myles, Paul McCartney, Whirling Dervishes, The Cell Mates, Whipped Cream, The Rosemarie and yes we do read everyone's letters, Blue Streak. See ya when CNN reports the next avalanche!

Ken Martin, KZEL, Eugene

Now that KZEL is in the position of being the lone AOR in the Eugene market, the question arises, should we play more current music from new artists? This is a question we are now pondering and will soon be researching. It is in the best interest of all record companies to be sure we receive a timely delivery of ALL new music! And if it's available on Mini-Disk, send it. You can be sure it will receive my prompt attention.

Jamie Markley, WWCT, Peoria

It's been awhile. Where do I start? How about in Mexico, where we took 130 listeners for a week of rest, relaxation, activities, and most important, hard partyin'. This was one of the best promotions I've ever seen a radio station pull off. It was an all-inclusive trip, with all the food you can eat and all the booze you can drink for a week! It was quite an experience to be with different listeners at breakfast, lunch, on the beach, dinner, sight-seeing, golfing, putting down slammers - you name it!! We also broadcast live from the resort (just south of Cancun), with our morning team of Lytte & Lamb on for two hours each weekday, and myself on the afternoon Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. At least 75 listeners showed up for each broadcast, and every one of them was something special to say the least. If you're thinking of trying something like this, "Lord Promo Man" Rob Seligmann is the guy to talk to... On the tune scene - Skynyrd's The Last Rebel album makes me wanna throw down a few shots of good Tennessee whiskey. In other words, I love it!... It's an incredible feeling to open the mike and say, "Pagey is back" and really mean it! "Pride And Joy" has the phones begging for the answer "When can we get the whole CD!?"... I know a few people were skeptical when hearing "Sweet Thing" from Jagger, but once you put on "Wired All Night", you know the Micker still fuckin' means it... Caught the Extreme show in Bloomington-Normal last week. First time seeing Nuno. I'm still tryin' to pick myself off the ground. If they can transfer that live show to record, look out!

Frank Huang, WBRU, Providence

History was made this week - Jeff Sodikoff of Mercury was arguably the first promo man to physically witness a radio station reporting to the trades, and he didn't even bother me... In other news, Ween reacts and it's not that bad... Also like the Hothouse Flowers AND Boy George (Well, I don't really like Boy George, but I do like his song).

Mike Summers, KXRK, Provo

My thanks to those of you who make it to the X96 Ski Party in early February, Dom and I had a blast and we intend to do it again next year. Watch this space for details. As for the Gavin Convention, well, uh, you know...

Peg Pollard, KIOZ, San Diego

Hi guys - first of all, we have a new "modern" phone system here at KIOZ! We each have voice mail! How very exciting for us. You can call our business line anytime and access the voice mail! Write these down! My extension is 221. Tom's is 229 and Chris' is 224. It's all so exciting... Every other call last week was for STP's "Plush". The listeners are divided between the studio and Headbanger's Ball versions... Have you seen that Alice In Chains' "Rooster" video? A rare occasion of video making the song even more compelling. Jerry Cantrell's Dad's nickname is Rooster. Make a little more sense now?... The new Infectious Grooves is cool. One doesn't expect less from Mr. Mulr... I saw Boneclub play at a small club here last week. They sound very different live - heavier & harder than their EP. That dude has a killer voice and more importantly, the song has a huge hook! "Everything's On Fire"!! Rock On!!

Mike Luoma, WIZN, Burlington

It's always a pleasure to see a live performance by an artist whose stuff you've only heard recorded on CD or cassette when the band blows away what they were able to capture on tape. Such was the case this past Saturday when we finally got the chance to see western Massachusetts groovers, Blue Streak. I've mentioned the band before, but now having seen their goods live, I gotta say it again: These guys can wail! Blues standards and other tastefully selected covers, plus a slew of hoppin' originals, including the track we've been playing from their debut CD, Rattlesnake. The song live slithers along as a jam where each of the trio take their turn: John goes off on guitar, Jonathan on the bass and Dale on the skins, winding the snake up and snapping it out like a whip to bring it all to a crashing close. A wonderful night of smoking blues-driven rock! Blue Streak are an independent band out of western Mass, with only one CD to their name, self-recorded, produced and released. We've had great success with their stuff; if you want to check them out, contact Sharon Tracy at (508) 544-8822. Tell her I sent ya.

Mimi Griswold, WKLL, Utica

Snow isn't the only thing burying Utica-Rome this week, a virtual avalanche of great new stuff has hit!

Stone Temple Pilots, for one, a band I think tailor-made for the '90s rock stations - hard and grungy with grooves that grab you in the gluteus... Phish is perfect!... Another record, Animal Bag's "Everybody" adds an electric touch of get down funk to a seemingly familiar riff for an instant stand-up-and-get-noticed track!... Kudos to Corona for the backstage greetings for our Bon Jovi winners. Class all the way Papple!... And this "Pig Nugent" ditty is blowing our phones along with a steady stream of Megadeth support... The Sacred Reich release party has happened, The Crowes are everywhere in Central New York, but here (...again) and a nice, long wet spring rain would suit me just fine right now!... Damn! I missed the White Zombie reunion party/show.

Chris James, WTPA, Harrisburg

The 4 Non Blondes story continues. It's #2 phones this week, and if the record stores would stock enough product, it would be Top Five sales. We knew it would be big, but not this big. It's an all daypart, all demo smash... The Dream Theater is the same way. It's so nice to have a heavier record like this do so well. It makes being an AOR so much more fun. The new one by the way looks like it could be just as big. By far this band is the new band sensation in sales so far this year... The new Hothouse Flowers is the best thing they've done since their debut. It's U2 meets The Waterboys. And oh, does it sound good on the air... The Jackyl record has kicked in. Just goes to show you that they're not just a novelty act. As even I thought they may have been... The Tragically Hip is starting to gain steam as well. This looks like a candidate for rotation increase next week... In the off the air department, how can you deny Def Leppard? Here's another Top Ten... The Joe Satriani track could be the one to save this CD. Talk about a perfect midday record... And finally, Lenny Kravitz. Since "Let Love Rule", we've been talking about this guy. It's obvious on one listen he's a real talent. If you think the first release is hot, check out track #2 on the CD. Itz's a number one.

Dave Frisina, WAQX, Syracuse

Peter Gabriel is about to go 3 for 3. "Kiss That Frog" is a killer follow-up with an "I Go Swimming" groove that keeps the speakers hopping... After a skeptical first listen, Paul McCartney's "Biker..." has a time-release hook that will eventually not let go. Of course, there's no universal AOR anymore, but there's still a place for good music... A few (many) years back, I had the chance to talk with Dizzy Gillespie. When I asked his opinion on the different kinds of jazz, he smiled and said "There's only two kinds of jazz...good jazz and bad jazz." That's the bottom line, from the equal time dept... Ignorance is bliss, but it won't reduce the deficit that exploded from years of irresponsible Reaganomics. Anyone with children or an eye on the future recognizes the need for a national health program, more efficient educational system and rebuilding the cities. Don't blame the plan to fix the problems, blame the plan that caused it. Over a dozen years of denial and failed economic policies. You can't piss into the wind and then bitch about getting wet. Happy trails.

TJ Bryan, WDHA, Dover

My weekend, by TJ Bryan. Friday: The X-Pensive Winos could easily take over the title of "World's Most Dangerous Band". Keith Richards blew away the Beacon Theatre crowd last week. What an incredible show! Keith is undoubtedly the King of Cool... Saturday: Bon Jovi played a sold-out homecoming show at the Meadowlands last weekend where a good time was had by all (especially Jon)... Sunday: A big 'ol snowstorm didn't stop a great show from the Rembrandts, Blue Rodeo and the Sand Rubies... Monday: Didn't wake up until Tuesday... Tuesday: Totally digging the new Hothouse Flowers, Lenny Kravitz is absolutely brilliant, Brian Corona & Bridgette Hollenback are the hardest working people in the show business, and 4 Non Blondes are #1 phones again. As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you!

Ginger Havlat, KBCO, Boulder

Local musical heroes Big Head Todd & The Monsters celebrated the release of Sister Sweetly in style Monday night before a packed crowd of hometown friends and fans at the Boulder Theater. Talk about your hot ticket! KBCO studio phones were crazy all day with people calling up trying to get a last minute ticket for the historical "national launching" of the band. Thanks to Giant Records' KBCO broadcast the entire show - over two hours of "Monstermania". I know I sound a li'l excited, but hey, how many bands can you name from Boulder? Hopefully, Big Head Todd & The Monsters will now get the national attention and airplay their talent deserves. Check 'em out if they come to your town, cuz Todd's guitar playing is like no other. We added more tracks off Sister Sweetly this week, including the title track and my fave "When Tomorrow Comes"... Also new this week: Tasmin Archer, Lynyrd Skynyrd (never thought I'd say "new Skynyrd on KBCO", but this is radio-friendly), Martyn Joseph, Inspirational Carpels, Rosanne Cash, Bugs Henderson, The Iguanas (no promotional items please - unless barbecued) and David Grisman... Thank you to Zachary Richard for playing Studio C this week before his sold out show at The Fox Theater, and thanks also to A&M's Dick Merkel... Top phones: Tab Benoit's "Nice And Warm", Bitchin' Babes' "Bald-Headed Men" (love by our upper male demo), dada "Dorinna", Big Head Todd "Broken-hearted", and Sting.

Kyle Ironman, KMSA, Grand Junction

By the time this is in print, I'm sure most who know me will also know I have resigned duty at KMSA. The decision was a mutual and amicable one between myself and station management, and a good rapport remains to the best of my knowledge. I will be more than happy to make all transitions smooth and helpful to keep service influx regular and up to date. Any further questions can be directed to Dave Marino at (303) 248-1718... For the record, here's my side of the story: On the eve of Valentine's Day, I had Life, Sex & Death as my special Valentine's Saturday Afternoon Shootout, featuring a rare interview with heart-throb Stanley, the lead vocalist of the band. Included in the song set was "Jawohl! Asshole", deemed offensive and potentially FCC violation material by management. The "authorities" reacted by serving me with "indefinite suspension" for this incident and other "disciplinary problems" with my history at KMSA. It was then my decision to part ways before things turned ugly (-er). For the benefit of all deejays in similar positions, I hope we can uncloud the gray area that seems to find it acceptable for "obscenity" in some areas, and "violation" in others. Some of us are still in the dark about this... I feel obligated to thank a few people that made the last five years kick (edit - 3 letter word). From the start there was Cheryl V. and Dyana K-the early Metal Blade, and my favorite Republican who is still pissed at me for the radio panel, Mike Rittberg. Thanks also to Rabbi Schnapp and Aprea-true connoisseurs, to Uncle Nasty at 105.9-the mayor of Denver, the hardest working man or woman in the biz-Suzanne at McGathy, Christine, Deva, Russ and Prue, Susan G. for being incredibly cool, Eeeeeeejaaaaaaay!!!! at Columbia, Munssey, Michelle at Geffen, Zak-DGC/Denver, Tarantino, the addicts at Capitol-Hutch, Tommy, Downey (Wings CDs??), Nancy and cat at Mechanic, Melissa at McGhee and Jenni-tell Momma I'm coming home! I won't say goodbye because the phone is always open, and I might be back (somewhere else) in a couple of years! (Post grad study). Thanks again everyone! Long live rock n'roll! Go get 'em Linnea!!

Gari Calvert, WVCR, Loudonville

Yo, what's up peoples! The G-man and company (my seven metal DJs) want to say hello to all out in Metal Land! Things have gone quite smoothly these days in regards to my new position as Metal Director. I've been in this Exec position for 3 months now, and I must say it has been quite interesting! And to think, I was considering selling bonds and mutual funds when I finish my degree! NOT! The "Hire The G-Man" campaign will begin May 23rd, so watch those mailboxes!... As I compose this dialogue with all my heart (ha!), I'm moshing to the new Overkill tape that I received in the mail today from Atlantic! Somebody please feed my head! This new release is sure to take over the airwaves at The Heaviest Station In The Nation! Speed up that release. Atlantic!... Incredible requests for the new Sodom, my rotation to this date consists of "Hunting Season", along with "Reincarnation" from the release, Tapping The Vein. Yo Paula, get them touring!!!!... So we now have a new #1 at WVCR, one that I know is sure to please a hell of a lot of people, and make a small minority (do the letters FCC mean anything?) very unhappy. Yes, Rage Against The Machine has made tops in metal here this week. We'll see how long they can last. Looking forward to seeing them at the Roseland on the 27th of March... The biggest event of this year so far will be the March 12th arrival of Pantera to the Palace Theater in Albany. WOW, will this be a kick ass show - not to mention that they'll have the presence of Sacred Reich to help them get the crowd shall we say, "warmed up"?... Keep that music coming my way, it's getting incredible airtime - you never know, maybe WVCR might be the first station to be 24 hours - 7 days a week of pure heavy metal! See Ya!!

Ron "The Metal Maniac" Michels, WRZR, Columbus

WRZR Z-Rock - Busy, busy, busy! The months of February and March are jumpin' in Columbus, Ohio with some really great shows. Izzy Stradlin and The Ju Ju Hounds, My Little Funhouse, Sick Of It All, Biohazard, Sheer Terror, White Zombie, Monster Magnet, Cannibal Corpse, Epidemic, Great White, Pantera, Sacred Reich, Suicidal Tendencies, Infectious Grooves, Bon Jovi and not to mention Guns N'Roses in Cincinnati and Def Leppard in Dayton, so who said Cleveland was the capital of rock n'roll... Let's see what's out that kicks - Oh! if you haven't checked out Valentine Saloon do so! Pro-Pain and Piece Dogs kickin' ass and taking names and jeez what about Sacred Reich!... Listen to Animal Bag with your mirrored shades on, they're happenin' and I'm chompin' at the bit for Asphalt Ballet and Mind Bomb, so till next time remember, IF IT'S TOO LOUD.....TOUGH!!!!

Guy "G-Ster" Giuliano, KZRX, Phoenix

From Arizona's Rock Radio Superstation in the Valley Of The Sun, Jimmy Blade is the official seat warmer for the week day night gig... This week we are debuting an Industrial Thrash Show, with an alternative edge, "The Underground Cafe", with host Alan Summers. Alternative reps, send your industrial stuff to: KZRX Underground Cafe, 7401 West Camelback Road, Phoenix Arizona 85033... New stuff we support this week, Nuclear Assault, Spread Eagle, Infectious Grooves, Skatenigs and Uncle Slam. K.C. Doin' Music. C-YA.

Holly McCormack, WYSY, Chicago

What a crazy, insane week it has been in Chicago. We have had one of the best concert weeks in recent memory, beginning with Spread Eagle in Aurora. Despite the 30 below wind chill, many devoted Y108 rockers came out to check these guys out in their first Chicago appearance in 3 years. They were also the first rockers to stop by the Y108 studios - we will definitely be jamming those acoustic songs - you guys rule! I'm sorry that the Spread Eagle guys took ill the next day and weren't able to play to a packed China Club, but instead we had an acoustic set by Donnie and Chip from Enuff Z'Nuff for all the Y108 rockers that came out!... Plus, we had Psycho in the Windy City for an awesome weekend of Pigface in a 2 1/2 hour homecoming set from the depths of hell that completely blew my mind AND a packed, sick, sweaty, intense Biohazard/Sick Of It All show. The Thirsty Whale will never be the same. Again, big thanks go to Evan, Billy and Bobby from Biohazard for being so cool and for the hat - I wear it with pride!... It will take me all week to recover from the madness that had some profound high points AND extreme bullshit lowpoints. In closing, I would like to say that the industry political bullshit that reared its ugly head this week really made me sick. The last time I checked, we were in this business to help break bands, not screw them over. Thank you to those of you who stuck their necks out for us... Just a friendly reminder: Y108 is the REAL Rock of Chicago with 50,000 watts of power and the most loyal audience in Chicago! We have an impact and you have an option! See ya until next time!

Jessica Harley, Elektra, 212-275-4106

Another great week in the wonderful world of Metallica. Thanks to all who continue to support this incredible album. "Don't Tread On Me" moves into Heavy at KNAC and receives Top 5 phones at KAZY, WKLL and WDRK to name a few. We gain new airplay at KISS, WBZX, KRRK, KICT, WBTZ and WHTF! Sales are as usual - amazing! If you are not playing this song, what are you waiting for?!... Since we are on the subject of amazing bands, have I got a record for you!? The Sound Of White Noise has never been so good! I simply can not wait to blow your minds with new music from none other than Anthrax! I'll be hitting the road in March with tape in hand - I can't wait to see the expression on your faces! You, yes you, are going to love this record. See you soon.

Jeffrey Shane, Capitol, 213-871-5733

We are now starting to feel the sales on the Megadeth track. The video was #1 Most Requested last week at MTV and the sales are up 20%. This is due to the AOR airplay, touring, and heavy MTV play. This is a harder track than the last two, but it is a more reactive. We have 13 Top 5 phones with only 46 stations playing this cut. It is obvious that this is the track to get immediate phones... Blind Melon continues to collect some key majors. WNEW, WBAB, KXRX, KQLZ and KLOS. This is one of the artists we at Capitol are committed to break as long as it takes. This is one of those groups that radio feels falls between alternative and AOR. Let me remind radio that these are the kind of artists that have surfaced at our format and done very well. Give the audience a chance to judge this fresh sound... I am sure you are feeling McCartney mania all over the TV, as well as radio. He has announced his outdoor tour starting in April, and running through June. This is an excellent track for daytime play at radio, so please support it. I think we all know that this will be one of the most successful tours of the year. Where else can the parents and their children go to a concert and both enjoy it. Remember the last tour, when parents with their children were both crying to different songs. This is one of a few shows that this kind of reaction can happen to so many different ages... On your desk is the new Rockhead track called "Chelsea Rose". This is a straight ahead rock cut that is certainly in the pocket to start at night. Bob Rock takes his special producing talents, and transforms this track into a radio friendly cut. The edit of this track will be on the next Album Network sampler. We wanted to get you a special radio edit as soon as possible. This track is a MUST listen for nighttime airplay... On your desk now is the new Joe Cocker track "Night Calls". This track is being released off a Greatest Hits CD. This is a track that should work middays, as well as classic oriented stations. It is an excellent package this new Greatest Hits by Joe... Finally, coming out on the next Album Network sampler is the new School Of Fish called "Take Me Anywhere". There is strong interest at P1 stations already. KQLZ, KXRX, WMMS, KQRS and on at KISW. The interest in this group is still very high. This last track "Three Strange Days", is still getting strong recurrent airplay. With the tremendous sound of the new cut, AOR will have a project they can really get behind... This week we will be shipping the new Great White track "Love Is A Lie". This just may well be the best ballad the band has ever done. The track is now on the Album Network sampler on your desk. This is a track I believe will draw phones from your audience. Be very open minded when listening to this track, we at Capitol believe in this cut strongly. The band is out on tour doing radio oriented shows. The club dates are being tied to radio promotions, so let's get involved with the band at these dates when they come to your town.

Jeffrey Naumann, Virgin, 213-288-2446

From "Let Love Rule" to "Stop Draggin' Around" the Troutmaster, myself and the Virgin field staff were in what we call "Lenny Kravitz hell". We knew in our hearts that someday our hard and relentless work and of course Lenny's endless touring would pay off bigtime. Well, we were right. Lenny Kravitz' new effort is a true masterpiece that all of rock radio will embrace. "Are You Gonna Go My Way" is as automatic an add as it gets. Here's a song that rocks, it has incredible hooks and the instrumental break will send you and your listeners into pure psychedelic ecstasy. This is what rock and roll hits of the nineties are all about. It's time to blow your audience away by pounding "Are You Gonna Go My Way" by Lenny Kravitz out of the box. This one's gonna be humongous everywhere at all rock formats. That goes for you guys in the south east too. And I promise there's plenty more follow-up rockers you'll love after "Are You Gonna Go My Way". Multi-platinum is what Lenny's all about this time around... P.S. Jellyfish is on deck. Prepare for the "Ghost At Number One" March 8th.

Dave Lombardi, Warner Brothers, 818-953-3711

OK, we all know how us promotion people rant and rave about our records like they're gonna solve every problem a radio station (or the world) could ever have, but let's face it, a few times a year we're blessed to work records that we genuinely, honestly and personally like. Records that we listen to at home or in the car when the choice is all ours and we're on nobodys time but our own. Records that we'll continue to listen to long after they slip from our priority sheets. These days I'm doubly blessed, because I get to "work" Where You Been by Dinosaur Jr. and Superstar Car Wash by the Goo Goo Dolls. I'd talk about these albums if they were on Ipswitch Records, they're that good. If you haven't heard 'em yet, why are you in this business? Geez! Gotta go - there's some music I want to listen to, I'm out.

Kid Leo, Columbia, 212-833-6632

"Rooster" has been embraced by all spectrums of rock radio for what it truly is - a career song. Alice In Chains have already solidified their stature in the rock world. "Rooster" will surely lead them to new heights on a whole new scale. The video is the most compelling released in ages. It is interesting to note that it is the first statement on Vietnam made by a member of a generation that grew up after the war had ended. It is as powerful in its emotional impact as any of the classic films about the Vietnam experience (Platoon, Deer Hunter, etc.). Musically, it is Alice's most realized moment. The incredible first week is really only the start for what will be one of the dominating songs of '93... We've come to full circle with Toad The Wet Sprocket. One year ago we started the campaign with "Hold Her Down". The song went a long way in giving the band a credibility that lead to two multi-format hits and sales just under 1,000,000. While "Hold Her Down" got the band launched, it didn't really get its just due. It is the premiere rock track off of the album. Stations like WBCN, WMMR, WHJY, KFOG, WAVF and others definitely agree. Toad gets very high marks in research, recurrent play is huge, and their drawing power grows immensely every day... Soul Asylum has just completed their tour with Keith Richards, who took them under his wing and was impressed with their flat out incredible live show. Last Monday they had what has to be described as a classic rock crowd hooting, hollering and whistling at the end of the set. The Top 5 success of "Somebody To Shove" is set to be eclipsed by "Black Gold" on your desk for adds this week. We've already got 20 stations including KUPD, KISW, KQRS, WBCN, WBAB, WNEW, KFOG, WHCN, WAAF and KSHE. Consensus opinion is that "Black Gold" is more radio tight than "Shove", which didn't do too shabby. The band hits Saturday Night Live on March 20 and will be touring through the entire summer with some exciting packages being lined up now (Spin Doctors and Soul Asylum is one on the list). The Asylum's Dave Pirner is looking forward to what he calls "The Summer Of Shove". I think they'll strike "Gold" this spring. Later.

Roger Mayer, Capricorn, 818-990-8903

First of all, we just want to say "thank you" to all the stations that have lent their support to the Dixie Dregs "Take It Off The Top (Medley)". The list of supporters continues to grow with each passing week and, simply put, your station should be playing this track. It's not the timing, but the appropriateness of a decision that's important. So, get to it!.. 311 (pronounced three-eleven) is off to an incredible start. Among this week's convertees are KROQ and WDRE! Any alternative programmer who has already categorized the music of 311 into one genre or another is way too conservative and narrow-minded. Expando-O heads unite! 311 will add freshness and excitement to your playlist... There is a Widespread Panic attack on the horizon. In March, you'll be treated to new music from the world's hardest working touring band, Widespread Panic. Your audience definitely knows and loves them. It's now time for you to join in. Until next week, PEACE!

Tony Gates, RCA, 213-468-4055

Michael Luczak - PD of WMMS (you mighta heard of those call letters) - made a programming proclamation and he's stickin' to it. It goes something like this: Instead of entertaining the flavor of the month, 'MMS is going to make commitments to artists, not songs. If you make an investment (i.e., 12 weeks of airplay on a track), reap the rewards, then re-invest. We here at RCA respect Mr. Luczak for his vision and hope it pays off in spades (and ratings). WMMS hits the third track from Michael Penn, "Free Time" and joins KFOG, KXRX, WAPL, KBAT, KFMX, WEZX, KATP, KQWB, WKIT, WDHA, KRNA and KCLB. More to follow... I'm on the road for the next five weeks, sharing the brilliance of Bruce Hornsby. The first single is the title track, "Harbor Lights". Add date: March 29th. Now you know. Even though I'm traveling, my toll free number has voice mail. 1-800-666-2814. Call me and give me some shit.

Bonnie Slifkin, Atlantic, 212-275-2247

It's time for a new feature called "The Proper Response To Those Maleficent Things That Radio Guys Say To You". If you don't know what maleficent means (and your GM is too cheap to spring for a dictionary) call Lea Pisacane. The problem quote this week comes from a programmer in a rather large market on the west coast. Ready? Here it is: "Why are you calling me? I have a local guy." Nice. Very nice. May I suggest the following retorts - Option A: Say in a saccharine coated, angelic voice "I didn't mean to disturb your eminence but..." while making protrusive gestures with your middle finger toward the handset of your phone... Option B: Say "We fired our local rep last night as a practical joke. We reinstated him this morning, but we figured that he/she might be little bit too rattled to call you, so I was just checking. Glad to see that he/she called you. Thanks." Promptly hang up phone and curse said programmer out... Option C: Say "Look you unworkable monstrosity from the depths of Acheron, I was bored and I needed a break of enlightenment in my lassitudinous job. You were my fun for the day and now you just blew it. Our local guy is on the road. He forgot to make his cellular phone bill payments, so I'm it. Got it? Now tell me - how do you feel about that new Stone Temple Pilots track? While we're on the subject, how about moving that Testament record out of Light since I personally surveyed everyone that bought the record in your market and they were all above the age of enfranchisement and they stood up when they went to the bathroom. 'Daypart' is a four letter word..." Option D: You laugh and say that you called because you actually enjoy speaking with this person (not to mention that a good verbal sparring match is your favorite recreational sport). Then you write about it because you know that said radio guy does not read trade magazine comments.

Mark Tindle, A&M, 708-298-6640

It's been another great week for the Gin Blossoms. We're in the midst of breaking this band and it's time to join the party! New adds include WFBQ, KQRS, WEZX, WEGR, KDJK, WEGW, WGLF, KRCH, KQDI and KCQR. Rotation increases on "Mrs. Rita". WMMS (L-H), KCLB, KFMX, WKZQ, KFMZ, KQDS and KWHL... New from your friends at A&M, Hammerbox's "Hole" should be on your desk now. This quartet from the Pacific Northwest plays a bone-crunching brand of rock-n-roll that'll leave you breathless. Give it a listen!... Sting's "If I Ever Lose My Faith In You" continues to grow at the format. With 120 stations playing it, this track has "Smash" written all over it!... Required listening: 1) "A Brand New Morning" and "The Got No Shotgun Hydrahead Octopus Blues" from David Baerwald; 2) "Nausea" from Therapy?; 3) "Hole" from Hammerbox; 4) "Driving Aloud (Radio Storm)" from Robyn Hitchcock. I've had enough of Chicago's cold weather, I'm off to Hawaii!

Bob Ardrey and Chris B., Continuum, 908-709-0011

The first 10 music directors that haven't seen a copy of The Rosemarys Providence in their station to call Bob will receive the album in question, + an extra copy for personal purposes and an immaculate Fools t-shirt. And don't worry if you don't stumble upon this announcement right away. Call me anyway (you never know). 68 stations liked The Rosemarys enough to report them last week. Why don't you drag it out an give it another chance? Pretty please with sugar on it? Blake says hello... Red Red Groovy should be happening on red vinyl (only) at YOUR station. Get "Is This Heaven?" on the turntable this instant (I know that most of you still have these) and listen to it! The album is still a couple of months away... And now for the Chris B. portion of our dialogue: Kld Rock is out NOW!! If you don't have the new 12" "U Don't Know Me", call me. His last 12" went Beat-box Top 15 and this one will go higher. Full album The Polyfuz Method is on the way. Initial response has been excellent! Later.

Cathy Burke, W.A.R.?, 212-964-3703

If there is one thing that I hate, it's unhappy endings in the movies. Real life can be difficult enough, who needs movies that end in tragedy. The other night, I was convinced to go see this movie that shall remain nameless (Hint: Two major stars and a lot of good reviews). Prior to going, I was in a great mood. All was grand with life. By the time we exited the theater, I was looking for the nearest convenience store to buy some razor blades and cash it all in. Who needs that? Reality does not belong in the movies. I know that a lot of people are into it. And if it's non-fiction, I guess it can't always be avoided. But, who wants to spend $7.50 to see it? And the Thelma & Louise argument doesn't fly with me because I don't necessarily look at that ending as bad. In the karmic sense, it was sort of uplifting. I'm talking about outright wrist-slitting, why-go-on?, broken-hearted tragedy. Okay, maybe it's just me. My heart breaks for every hard-luck story or touching moment going. I cry at the "reach out and touch someone" commercials and don't even get me started about those "Kodak moments". It's pathetic. Okay, so maybe it is me. Forget what I said. I guess I better lock into some therapy. Go see "Somersby". You'll probably love it... Play The Samples.

Paul W. Brown, Virgin, 212-586-7700

Another week, more Keith shows. I'll say it again with the same conviction. Before there was the now-adored grunge sound, there was Keith Richards. I've witnessed 15,000 screaming, fist pumping, rabid fans howling in approval and adoration to Keith Richards. There is poetic justice in this world... And if there's enough of that poetic justice to go around, then "For No One In Particular" from Young Turk is going to turn a lot of heads before we're done. But you gotta listen to win. It's a sleeper, I know it... And we at Virgin are staring at the future and it starts today. His name is Lenny Kravitz. And the song is "Are You Gonna Go My Way". There is a fragrance in the air. And it ain't Patchouli. It ain't Egoiste. It's the future. Right there on your desk... Final news flash: The sightings of men in inflatable trousers grow in number each and every day. I'm bewildered. But forget about all that because there is something far more horrifying on the horizon. And it's called "Freeps and Sisslers". And it ain't pretty. Amazing, yes. Pretty, no.

Bruce Flohr, Thomas Westfall, Nick Bull, RCA, 1-800-888-1722

Important income tax information - Must read. As we speak, Me Phi Me is on the road, touring across America... On the new side, 700 Miles has a great new single, Family Cat has a brilliant EP and watch for upcoming releases from The Cranes, Def FX, Chapterhouse, and This Picture... Michael Penn has a new single, "Free Time", which has been remixed by Butch Vig, and is on your desk now, going for adds this week!... If you do not have, or need a copy of 700 Miles, or Family Cat, please give us a call. Thanks a lot.

Michelle Robbins, Hollywood, 818-560-5670

D.D. Wood - ok, you've been hearing me talk about her for quite some time now; if you're really lucky, you met her live and in person at the Gavin Convention, but you all have her first single, "Louie Cooper" on your desk, and everyone who's really on top of things (KBAC, X96, WDST, KFMG, WMMO, WMMM, KZON to name a few) have added it. So what's holding you up? No more 3-day weekend, just-back-from-the-convention excuses! Listen to this record and add it, dammit! 'Cause it's the right thing to do... The Fluid - swingin' show at the Gavin! Were you there or were you lame? Well, because we're that kind of people, we'll give you another chance to see them at SXSW - Saturday, March 20 - just say GO!! And if you're really extra-special-neato-keen, you'll have (any day now...keep checking that mailbox) the advance cassette (I know you'll listen to this one!). Yesiree folks, it's been a long time since we've heard from this batch of youths, but trust me, it's been worth the wait. Purplemetalfakemusik headin' your way late March, more on this and the conflict in the Middle East at 11.

Artie & Jim, Alert Records U.S., 1-800-772-7640

Trade comments - trade comments? - trade comments?! - How do you people come up something to enthuse about every week? Oh sure, I suppose we could always put something in again about Kim Mitchell "Lager And Ale" (a truly rockin' number) or how about the ever-present Rik Emmett (one of rock radios most familiar voices), or better still, how about those mysterious Pinheads? They're gonna be scattering across the country as of Friday, Feb. 26 - Oh, by the way, for you lapsed Catholics out there - this year (for old times sake) let's give up something for Lent - something like - oh I don't know - how about Voice Mail? Talk to you or your machine soon. Bye now!

Todd Bisson/Mike Webb, Columbia, 212-833-4511

With any luck, by the time you read this, Allison Moyet will be the proud recipient of this year's Grammy for Best Rock Vocal Female. I think she has it in the bag, myself, mostly because Jethro Tull wasn't nominated. Allison's new album should be out sometime in late spring or early summer... FIREHOSE, as predicted came out (umm) smokin' with "Blaze" from the band's new long player Mr. Machinery Operator. Among the throng thumbing up are: WXRT, WOXY, CIMX, KUKQ, KBAC, KTOZ, KUKQ, WCBR, WHTG - Check out the guitar solo about 2 minutes into the song, it's actually played on bass by J Mascls, who also produced the album... The Gumball single "Accelerator" should be in hand by now (super official add date: March 1)... da'Ball will be out on tour with Dinosaur Jr. (notice a pattern?) and the mighty Mercury Rev beginning late March. Speaking of the Rev, they stunned Modern Rock Live listeners this past Monday by bringing out the soft mushy side of Tom Calderone. If you want to hear for yourself the gunky lovefest of mutual admiration, give me a call and I'll send you a tape. The song to play remains "Carwash Hair". Stations on thus far include: WHFS, WDRE, WBRU, WOXY, WHTG, KBAC, WKOC, WCBR... Sunscreen's follow-up to "Love U More" is "Pressure". The band decided to re-record the song, and you will have the fruits of their labor in two weeks. KDGE couldn't wait, and added the song into Power (such a nice sounding rotation) this week... Suede's long-awaited stateside debut arrives on March 22nd. The radio song is "Metal Mickey". If you are in L.A. check out KROQ, they are already playing it... Also, due sooner than you think, is Midnight Oil. The first single is "Truganini" (add date April 5). In addition, there will be a sneak preview song for college and alternative commercial radio called "Drums Of Heaven" which will arrive two weeks earlier, no adjectives required... Lollapalooza news? Howz 'bout Alice In Chains and Fishbone... On tour: Daniel Ash makes his American live solo debut, make sure you see 'em, he's doing a mean version of "Gimme Some Lovin'"... Finally, this past Monday night, Soul Asylum played an unannounced gig in NYC at Tramps. The audience was star-studded and industry heavy, and the band ripped through 2 1/2 hours of seldom played SA tunes, and covers ranging from "That's When I Reach For My Revolver" to "Sexual Healing". If anyone needed convincing, this was the show that proved once again Soul Asylum's tag as one of the best bands ever to take it to the stage. I should be getting a board tape of the show, call me if you want a copy.

Carolyn Wolfe, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

So, this winter in New York has seen far more snow than should be allowed. I mean, nice white fluffy snow is great, but the City gets this nasty brown slushy stuff that really sucks! Let's hope winter doesn't linger too long this year! At least I've got lots of work to keep me busy so I don't have too much time to spend outside!... Things to look out for Prayer Tower (Canadian alternative/industrial dance) and The Moon Seven Times (smooth dreamy-kind of rock). Both of these should be at your stations by the time you read this... Intermix is showing the world that the techno/industrial dance thing is NOT just for the club scene. Air-waves are going crazy for Phaze Two!... Willi is also finding its way onto your playlists, and deservedly so. We appreciate everything you're doing for these guys!... Biohazard's tour is going great (and the west coast gets to see them with Fear Factory too!) Their video just got added to "The Box", so now you can see "Punishment" any time you want!... The key word for the next two months is "busy"! We have tons of releases (Skin Chamber, Fear Factory with Front Line Assembly re-mixes, Type O Negative, Treponem Pal, Dog Eat Dog, Black Train Jack - get the picture). Anyway, enough of this mindless drivel. Talk to you soon!

John Butler, Futurist, 212-226-7272

Green is now full-on at College and gaining speed for commercial alternative radio. Their new CD, The Pop Tarts, is a classic pop record in the always elusive Big Star mode. Jeff Lescher is God signs are popping up all over Chicago. See Green in Chi-town on March 6 at China Club... Volvod has arrived at metal with Most Added metal honors everywhere. If you had a clue you'd know that Volvod is the sound of the future. Volvod have always been known as the pioneers of Cyberpunk and now you can tap into the underground that was that was recently exposed nationally as TIME Magazine's cover story a few weeks back. How fitting that Volvod's Greatest Hits package is out now. This record will be Top 10 and alternative radio will be hard pressed not to add Volvod's cover of the immortal Pink Floyd classic "Astronomy Domine" serviced to you via CD5 this week. Adds on March 8th... Kreator's new CD, Renewal, is on your desks right now metal radio! I got two words for you, if this CD is not Top 5 at your station in 3 weeks: YOU SUCK!!! Kreator adds are on March 8th.

Paul V., Warner Brothers, 818-953-3567

Busy, busy, busy! I think I'm loving 1993 a lot! Dinosaur Jr. is becoming a house-hold word at Commercial Alternative, "Start Choppin'" is garnering Top 5 Requests in many markets and the sales explosion on this record is absolutely astounding. In its first week, these are some 5-day Soundscan piece counts: NY-2029, LA-716, Chicago-1179, Boston-1192, Detroit-847, DC-282, Seattle-514, Denver-487 and on and on and on! Where You Been has orders over 110,000 in just three weeks! Can you say nuclear? For any of you who have reservations about moving this record in to an all-daypart (or heavy, for that matter), just call any retailer and ask. The buzz on this project is absolutely real!... As if that weren't enough, The Goo Goo Dolls pull in 11 more adds this week, including WFNX, WBRU, Q-101, WWCD, 91X, KKDJ, KEDG, KRZQ. "We Are The Normal" sounds so very wonderful on the air (thank you KROQ!) and is on its way to becoming an anthem. Their tour with Soul Asylum starts on March 7 in Iowa City. Listen to Superstar Car Wash for 14 tracks pure power-chord hooks and licks... Another new group that's beginning to buzz is 311 - check this out - "Do You Right" added this week at KROQ and WDRE, and already on WBRU, X96, KBAC, KTOZ, WRLT and Live 105 (where it won their Modern Rock Challenge 5 nights in a row!). Please keep spinning this one in your music meeting - it doesn't sound like anything else you're playing and it's got a whopper hook!... You should be checking out the new St. Etienne track called "You're In A Bad Way" (Petula Clark meets Sunscreen meets Tommy James). If you had success with their last record, we ask for your consideration... Finally, we're going for adds on a song that this entire company feels could really be something special. It's called "Being Simple" from the Judybats. It's a beautiful, stunning ballad, and after you hear it a few times, it gets under your skin. I have been comparing the vibe of this song to "Under The Bridge" or "One" and while those are heavy comparisons, it's true. We go for adds this Monday, March 1.

Derek Ault, Alligator, 312-973-7736

What's with the latest approach to promoting records!?! You know what I'm talking about, the full-page ad in the trades featuring company letter head and a pseudo-serious plea to our emotions which states the "relevancy" of a particular song's lyrics to current affairs. Come on, do you as a programmer feel like you are really doing anything constructive or therapeutic for your listeners by playing "Hold Her Down" (Toad The Wet Sprocket's song about date rape) or "Resolution" (Disturbance's song about Jeffrey Dahmer)??

MORE Radio Comments

Promotion efforts like this ring about as true as some TV movie of the week. Of course, lyrics can touch someone, but how about promoting songs by their relevancy to a station's playlist instead of pimping tragedies to get airplay?... Check out tracks 1-3 on the latest from Little Charlie And The Nightcats for some hilarious and musically devastating blues rockin' boogie. Already on KBCO, KZON, MORE!! Thanks for reading!! Have a nice day!!

Starvin Marvin, Smash/Island, 312-751-0020

Great response to the debut Presence Inside CD. Their live show at the release party was awesome. Definitely a group on the rise... Shipping to you on March 1st CD5 of Sheep On Drugs, Motorbike. Ewe'll love us... Flash: News from Mars -- Seventy Five Percent Less Fat is about to land on earth. Chris Mars "Public Opinion" is the first single from Chris' second offering.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise, 818-953-3692

"How many times have you received punishment but committed no crime?" AHHH! It's with great anger that I see Kyle "Ironman" asked to leave KMSA after closing his Valentine's Day show with Life, Sex & Death's "Jawohl Asshole". What is it with this fucked-up state of Colorado???? I mean please, everywhere you turn you hear the "Asshole Song" & "Detachable Penis" - go figure!?!... On a more positive Life, Sex & Death note we are caving in and releasing some tasty live tracks including "Telephone Call", "Fuckin' Shit Ass" and "Tank". If you're a LSD fan, you will fuckin' die! Be prepared to ADD it late March just in time for Life, Sex & Death's tour kick off in Phoenix 3/25. The guys will hit the clubs until May and then on to bigger & better things through the summer (still the hardest working band in show biz! Next to the Damn Yankees who would rather tour then...well, just about anything!)... I hope my crossed fingers worked at Grammy time for Ministry (keep playing this record!) & Faith No More! I still have copies of FNM's rendition of "Easy", just call if you want a copy... Proper Grounds' "Jezebel" just landed on your desk! Spend some time with this single, add it! And anticipate their debut release Downtown Circus Gang 3/16 on Maverick/Reprise. Proper Grounds - nothing you've heard before!... Yes, Yes, Yes - The Power Trio From Hell is coming, so is the Vince Neil Band and BulletBoys - be warned!... Van Halen Live Right Here, Right Now! You are playing Right There, Right Now! Aren't you? Speaking of the Van Halen boys, it's time for one final note on the Metal World News Front. Keep those contest entries coming - remember this Van Halen contest is "Slightly rigged" so creativity may count!... I am so sorry some of your "Swingles" didn't run this issue (Dyana, Ray & Billy), but please feel free to fax us @ 818-953-3792 and we'll get them into the next issue! I'm out of here. Oh yea, have you gotten your "Telephone Call" yet?

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic, 212-275-2135

"I Hear Black", you hear black, everyone who is anyone is hearing "Black". Do up the new Overkill single! The full CD comes next week... In the mail this week are advances of Edge Of Thorns from Savatage. There's some wicked guitar tracks on this baby, so let me know what ya think!... Dream Theater has been kicking the piss out of everyone who catches them live. Play the full version of "Take The Time"... Stone Temples Pilots are off to headline dates in Europe for four weeks. Until their triumphant return, keep blasting away with "Crackerman". (Wait till ya see the video for "Push")... Hey, Pantera's on the road again! Hostile Mixes coming soon... Also new Testament, Winger and Sweet Water, so don't blink! You might miss something strange.

Anonymous, Somewhere In The Industry, 1-800-438-2583

Well, I'm sure this dialogue is going to upset a certain station - fill in the blank. (Following this G-Ster?). Here is a dose of reality. So, sit back and sip on your coffee. In most cases, a booking agent books a tour into the club that he/she normally deals with on a regular basis. Sometimes this club does not work with a particular station. Therefore, a rival station could get the promote or it might become neutral. In some cases, I will contact our band's booking agent to make sure a certain station gets a show over another station, or will arrange for a station to get the promote no matter what the club. In terms of your opinion of why one station gets the promote over another, let me offer some feedback to your ideas: 1) It helps when the station actually plays the record, it draws the fans and scills the records, which in turn gets you ratings, gets the band a career and pays my salary; 2) Supporting a new station vs. the old - I'm giving this to the station that's going to go to the wall for my band, old or new it doesn't matter; 3) Rely on band's management? Well, it depends on the manager. I don't expect a manager to know everything about every market place. It sure as hell helps, but I don't count on it. Some other thoughts on why one station might get the promote: 1) My phone calls get returned the same day; 2) MD/PD actually knows what's going on with the CDs that have been sent. Sound familiar? Look, it's a two way street. Ask anyone else and they will tell you that I don't mind going balls out to support any station who supports my bands, but don't cry wolf when all you are doing is getting upset over something that isn't going your way while not doing anything to deserve the promote or even the co-promote. Prove that your station is worth dealing with and we'll talk. That is when you return my call because I'm tired of leaving messages.

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia, 212-833-4989

Could it be that some of you out there after countless weeks are finally starting to get it? Collision! You finally get it! The guys are on tour with Ugly Kid Joe and the crowds continue to be astounded by their live performance. Maximum fucking Respect... The year of the rooster. This is the song and video of the year. Alice In Chains will finally be a household name. Back out on the road the end of March... Circus Of Power goes out on tour the end of March. I have a limited amount of CD edits of "Heaven And Hell", call me if you need it... Boy, it sure has been a long time since I heard anything from Saxon.

Clarissa Garcia, Def American, 818-973-4545

Okay, so it's been raining a lot here lately. If it were just rain, I wouldn't mind the change of scenery. I mean, it can't be 80 degrees all the time. But we're talking about saturated ground, floods, closed roads and disaster areas. I hope you're doing well... Speaking of rain (did you think I'd resist?), "Rain" by Trouble is currently being aired on KNAC, WKIT, KDBM, KFBD, KMTN, KROK, KRXQ, WHMH, WKLL, WPGU, WQLK and WRIF. Please, please, pleeeeeeazzz listen to "Rain" if you haven't already. Gregg Steele of KNAC tells us: "Another fine track from truly one of the best full records out there. 'Rain' is as reactive as any ballad we've ever played. Don't let a little 'rain' bother you"... Raging Slab, Dynamite Monster Boogie Concert April 27th... Danzig will release an EP this spring titled The Sin & The Sweat. The sin is three studio tracks ("Trouble", "The Violet Fire" and "I'm Coming Down"). The sweat is four live tracks recorded at Danzig's sold-out Irvine Meadows show on Halloween last year ("Snakes Of Christ", "Am I Demon", "How The Gods Kill" and "Mother"). I've heard The Sin & The Sweat - believe me, you can't wait for this... On the more alternative side, Supreme Love Gods opened for Ned's Atomic Dustbin on Friday night at the Palladium. Let me tell you, the Love Gods rocked!! They're much heavier live than on the record. I was very impressed. Well, dahlink, that's it in a nutshell. Have a lovely week.

Cheryl Valentine, Mercury, 212-333-TILT

When I'm out of town, the weather in New York is groovy. Now that I can go up to Hunter Mountain and revel in the beauty of my log cabin, the weather is pure crud. It is snowin' up a storm here and it's late February - what gives?... Animal Bag and Copperhead are on the road bustin' their butts, so what d'ya say we do a little work for them? They aren't goin' away anytime soon, so ignoring them is not cool - we are behind these two new bands. We will not let you get any peace until you have given them every possible chance at your station to dominate the airwaves and become firmly ingrained on the brains of your listeners... Any second now I'll have East Coast tour dates for the undeniably great Ugly Kid Joe! From March 4-18, they'll be doin' some dates in England and upon their return they will leap straight into the North-east... Friday, February 26th, your very own Metal copy of Mighty Mighty Bosstones' EP Ska-core, The Devil And More was flung through the air so that you have it in time for it's March 8 add date. Once you've received the EP, crank it in production and then let it wait on the air - you'll be so delighted that you did!... March 29 is the add date for Mind Bomb's "Segue" and Greta's "Rocking Chair". Might I be so bold as to say that Mercury RULES!?! Yee haw!

Charles Slomovitz, Virgin, 212-586-7700

Virgin has several Rock Delights headed your station's way. PLEASE keep an eye & ear for Lenny Kravitz' new single "Are You Gonna Go My Way". Guitars, guitars, guitars... And last but not most grand: Asphalt Ballet's 2nd CD - Pigs arrives real soon. The first single is "Angry Youth". Adds 3/29/93. Very tough 2nd record. You will be very happy! Cause this sucker blows the first one in two! Their first record was a Top 10 metal record for all charhounds! So beware. Asphalt is back. Stronger. Faster. Harder. They have the Technology. The album art is very sick. Almost as gross as my mind.

Rob Tarantino, Energy, 516-845-1234 PRO-PAIN. PIECE DOGS.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood, 818-560-5670

One thousand and fifty million thanks must go out to the metal music industry for embracing the new Sacred Reich release "Independent" and not letting go! We thank you, the band thanks you and I'm sure that there are more people to thank you as well but my brain is failing me today because I just got back from Phoenix (Sacred's stomping ground) for the retail kick off. Can we say huge? We can! Over 1200 maniacal Sacred Reich fans showed up at Tower Records at 40th St. and Thomas for a parking lot performance and I might add, the band smoked! Keep up the fab job on "Independent" and add the full album on March 1st and 2nd. The tour with Pantera is hitting next week and for all of your Sacred Reich needs, just dial the magic number, 818-560-5670... Now on to the Bone, Rattlebone's "X-Ray Eyes" should be on the air now! Keep it there because people like it there. The guys are winding down their tour and will be back in the studio with Dave Jerden to record their full release soon... When those lovely Fluid advances hit your desks, slide that Purplemetalflakemusie in and enjoy its brightness... Reich on metal heads!

Jesse Lombardi, Restless, 213-392-2747

AOR - Uncle Slam's "Dazed And Confused" - Just added at KZRXX. A little nighttime airplay, your late night audience would love to hear Slam consistently. Uncle Slam is kicking up the charts. Those Flots boys hit the road starting March 17th in Las Vegas with that festive band Nudeswirl opening up! Do you want to go? Call me!... Spread Eagle is fending blizzards and major snow on the road in the mid-west. You all definitely gotta see this band!... Did everyone receive The Best Kissers In The World Puddin' CD? Check this band out, they totally rule!... I'm going to the Grammy Awards for the first time ever - yippee! Life is great! See ya!

Steve Prue, Concrete, 212-645-1360

I'm late, I'm late for a very important date - not really, but it sounds pretty good... ADD CIRCUS OF POWER FULL CD AND LIVING COLOUR FULL CD RIGHT NOW, TODAY, DO IT!!!!!!... I see by the chart on the wall that the Buttthole Surfers are worming their way into y'all's heart. By now, you should have the Dpro of "Who Was In My Room" - playitplayitplayit!! Additadditaddit!! This will show you the power of the Surfers!... Spread Eagle is still soaring up the charts! Play the hell out of "Revolution Maker"... Infectious Grooves are wailing on all of y'all cute philadelphians with the boom'n' systems. Sarsippus' says "yo bay-be keep it up!" Open season on the full

CD... Style Monkees - sorta like way cool aggro musik to have a snowball fight with really big rocks inside. On really good acid. Check out "Gotta Be Heard" and "Style Lord"... Low Pop Suicide - Your God can't add my record, but you can! Get on the "Kiss My Lips" Tip... They're ugly but they rock like manly men - Dirty Looks with the new single "5 Easy Pieces"... On the Add top for next week - Quicksand "Slip" with "Phazer" and Wool "Budspawne" with "SOS"... Just remember that we are more fun than the normal radio indies. Thanks to Amy, Rob, Andy and all at Concrete Management for the White Zombie/Monster Magnet weekend. Gotta run. Peace.

Rob Jones, Motorhead/WTG, 310-449-2234

Major league call signs. Ozzy and Slash. Top 5 phones. One listen will convince you. Ripping up the charts. Heavy Rotation. Extraordinary response. A great sounding track on the air. Do you know what this spells? "I Ain't No Nice Guy". A hit. Add it.

Mark "Psycho" Abramson/Tom Gates, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

Gruntruck - "Crazy Love" single add date 3/22... Biohazard's Radio Discipline will be on your desk immediately. Use this as a continuation of Urban Discipline!... Looking for heavy push on Gorguts, Fear Factory, At Death's Door II and Delicade... Look for Disincarnate to be on your desk mid-March... Call me for Biohazard tour info! Chicago rocked even though no one in the whole damn town can give good directions. Johnny Chainsaw is Chicago's answer to Psycho... Life Of Agony... Ice-T (new single)... Brutal Truth... Bolt Thrower. See ya!

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce & Crazed Mgmt., 908-972-3456

Thanks to all for your support of Nudeswirl! The record is really picking up some steam! Look for their video on MTV in the coming weeks!... Also, Warren Haynes' Tales Of Ordinary Madness will be in stores March 23. Look for the advance cassette and give it a listen! Thanks for all! Bye!

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade, 805-522-9111

By the time this hits, Gwar will have won/lost a Grammy award. Either way, we are still ecstatic about the nomination... Desultory has begun their climb up the metal charts. Their unique brand of melodic death metal is the perfect record to bridge the gap between stations that play death and those who don't. Basically, if you don't play death metal, this is the album to test with your audience. The lead track is "The Chill Within"... Cannibal Corpse/Epidemic tour continues across the states. If you want to go, please call me asap for tickets... Skrew will be out on the road in March. I'll be in NYC for the Limelight date... New releases on the horizon include a Cannibal Corpse EP & Paradise Lost EP with previously unreleased tracks. Thanks to everyone who took the time to talk to Gregor from Paradise Lost while he visited us here in the states. Call me if you need anything... Thanks to everyone for their early support of the Junk Monkeys. If you haven't received the CD-Pro for Bliss, please give me a call. Bliss represents this power pop alternative band perfectly. Copies of the video are also available. The band will be on tour in March with the Lunachicks... Think Goo Goo Dolls! Look for the full CD anyday. Call Paul V. or Jimmy D. Catch them on the road opening for Soul Asylum... Also look for Skrew (our industrial band which SPIN called the "future of industrial music") on tour starting in March. If there is anything you need, call me.

Joanne Grand, Round The Globe, 212-947-5575

On your desk now (or within a day) - the debut EP from the band Dig, Runt. This band hails from San Diego (Cali), and will be releasing a full length CD in the latter part of the Spring. For now, enjoy the EP! The single we will be concentrating on is "I'll Stay High", though you are free to play anything you wish. The add date is March 8th! Please don't forget it, thank you. Want good phone? Call me! See ya.

Beth Krakower, Pipeline/WDCR/WFRD, 603-643-9786/Hanover

Well, Valentine Saloon kicked ass at the Limelight on Valentine's Day. What a weekend - I relived my NY life in three days. No wonder I got the flu... Biohazard also rocked Boston. I hope Danny's hand is ok. Well, speaking of the Roadrunner crew - Tom and Psycho keep threatening to get even with me, but I haven't heard a peep out of them yet... So, in the Hair Today Gone Tomorrow section of my dialogue here's the score at Roadrunner: Tom Gates-gone, Psycho-hair, Monte-gone, Scott Givens-hair. Hmmm - the metal dudes are tied evenly. Will Psycho go skin, will Tom Gates grow his hair back in an effort to emulate his mentor, or will he totally shave it all off - stay tuned for these and other late-breaking stories. God, the best defense is a good offense. And this was offensive, hey Tom!

Maria "Mom" Abril, Relativity, 718-217-3600

Good music is Contagious (and Contagious is good music). Funny how that works. Being among the Top 5 Most Added was certainly a pleasure, but I'm a greedy fucker. Gimme mondo airplay which translates into numbers! This band has got style. Finesse. Class. Well, maybe not class but just the same, "Larry" is the track to put into Heavy. Thanks... Sick Of It All are on the road at present doing a co-headlining tour with Biohazard. 3/1 - 3/14 are west coast dates. See you in L.A., San Diego and Phoenix! "The Shield" is the track that you SHOULD BE SUPPORTING. Their upcoming EP, Violent Generation will be sent to radio March/April. The remixed version of "Just Look Around" (furnished by those Jump Around gurus) is amazing!... Overwhelming Colorfast increased rotation at more stations this week. Thanks for your support. If you haven't already added "Keep Me Hanging On", then do it now. Don't be a weenie. Just do it... Bolt Thrower deserves that #1 spot more than anyone. The LY Crusade is truly brilliant and phone response from "Where Next To Conquer" is phenomenal. The tour hits in April and if you don't make them #1, I'll have Karl eat you. HA... Future releases: Death !!!, Agnostic Front, Sick Of It All, Vai, Dandelion, Vader and Clutch... Kudos to A&M for signing Monster Magnet... The MM/White Zombie show ruled... Quote of the week by Beth at WDCR: "Boyfriend disposal service...you fuck 'em, we chuck 'em." Obrigada.

Paula Hogan, Century, 818-988-3691

Thanks to everyone who interviewed Johan from Tiamat during his stay in the U.S. Limited giveaways are still available... Eyehategod will be conducting interviews March 8-12. The originally scheduled interviews for February 15-19 were cancelled. Thanks for your patience. Giveaways were sent to all who were on the list. More will be available. If you are still without a copy of Eyehategod, Samael or Sodom call me now! Promo copies are now available... Unleashed are raging at a town near you. Call if you are still without tickets or are in need of a few extra copies. Unleashed are available for interviews so don't be shy... Mucky Pup will finally play in NYC, to be specific - March 17 at the Danceteria. Those who have not seen the band should go... Coming soon: Tragic Romance, Solstice, Lemming Project, Only Living Witness and for those adventurous metal directors try out Christain Death. Call if you need anything.

Katt Fish, Rotten, 818-331-4151

Hey people, whatzz the hapssss? Life is good. Life is very good. The Imbeciles are taking over Europe as we speak. We know they are freezing their booties off. (Better than me...) Ha Ha. I hear the Pro-Pain men are doing great. Continued success to them and all at Energy Records. Thanks for a great tour and all your help. Please keep the flow going for "Acid Rain". Also "The Application" should start charting soon. Hint hint, please add this and work it as hard. Thanx for keeping the shit going. Everything helps. D.R.I. men thank you too. Peace and take care.

Greg Derbas, Red Light/Grind Core, 708-297-6538

The time has come my fellow death metal friends. Vital Remains' Let Us Pray and At The Gates The Red In The Sky Is Ours will be on your desk next week. Going for adds on March 8 & 9... And if you're really looking for something to impress your friends with, there is nothing like a rip out your heart and eat it story told by Accidental Suicide... Don't forget Pitch Shifter "Industrial". Till next week.

Mert Dunne, Megaforce & Crazed Mgmt., 908-972-3456

Top Five reasons for playing Nudeswirl - 5) Your parents would really hate them; 4) They are from New Jersey and you know how much great music has come from this state!; 3) They promise not to put out more than one box set! 2) The cover of the CD has nudity! And finally 1) I will be your best friend! Nudeswirl will be opening for Flotsam And Jetsam beginning March 17 in Las Vegas. If you want to see 'em or interview 'em call me now! They shot a video for "F-Sharp" so be looking for it to grace the airwaves soon!... M.O.D. is still doing well, stay tuned for a new single "Get Up And Dance" is going for adds March 15... Did I mention that Megaforce will be putting out the new Mind Funk album, Dropped, in April? Well, we will and it is brilliant!

Nancy Twomlow, Futurist & Mechanic, 212-226-7272

I hate being sick! I had the flu for a week and stayed home for three days and got absolutely no sympathy! Aren't people supposed to wait on you, make tea, spoon feed you chicken noodle soup, get you pillow and generally pity you? Hey, that's what I thought. All I can say is thank God for NyQuil and Halls ice blue mentho-lyptus cough drops. Enough of my ranting on that subject, let's talk about tunes... At this point, you should be jamming hard with GBII! God save the Queen! Hey, they're British I can say that! Oi! This is one CD you should not let slip by (I will not let you), no excuses! Play "Pure Greed" or "Leather Coffin"! Get with it! If you don't have it, call... You should also have in your hot little hands the multi-dimensional cyber-babble of The Best Of Voivod. Twelve more than classic tracks that you know and love. Just get on it and rediscover "Astronomy Domine" again. Also, check out "Cockroaches" if you've never heard that before... TAD!! TAD!! TAD!! TAD!! TAD!! TAD!! TAD!! TAD!! Worship them! French-kiss them! (hello WMBR!) The 3-song Sub Pop single, "Salem", "Welt" and "Lepet" - do you have it? Are you playing it like there's no tomorrow? Heavy and in your face! Watch out for a full length TAD release in May... What else is coming out you ask? Kreator, Mordred, Coroner and More on Futurist Records and Murder Inc. and TAD on Mechanic Records. Call for more info. I'm outta here.

Brian McEvoy, Grand Slamm, 212-334-2188

Grand Slamm Records is proud to announce that they will be releasing the debut recording Hell Bent And Pissed Off by the band Snakeyed Su. In a unique marketing move, Grand Slamm Records has entered into an agreement with Giant Records to release the debut EP thru their independent distribution. Giant Records will follow-up the release of the EP by releasing a full LP by the band in the fall. Snakeyed Su's music is a ballsy, gutsy mix of southern blues and hard rock. The band was originally signed to a production deal to the famous Thompson and Barbiero production team, who then signed a long term deal with Giant Records. Hell Bent And Pissed Off is slated for a May release. Snakeyed Su is managed by Andrea Starr who has worked with such bands as Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers, David Byrne and Talking Heads, Jane's Addiction and the Ramones. Look for Snakeyed Su to be on the road in the south and midwest from the middle of April thru August to support Hell Bent And Pissed Off. For more information contact: Brian McEvoy, Grand Slamm Records, 594 Broadway Suite 901, NY NY 10012 (212) 334-2188 or Andrea Starr, A. Starr Mgt., 324 E. 50th Street, NY NY 10022 (212) 838-0535.
