Dead Hot Workshop, "A," TAG/Atlantic

There are very few records that ever hit us right between the eyes immediately at the start of a first listen. This one did. And at a time when you've cleared out most of the "Must-get-to-soon" pile, it is high time to consider some new blood. The names are right surrounding Dead Hot Workshop these days. Bill Graham Management, TAG, producer Jim Scott (AC/DC, Tom Petty, Johnny Cash, et. al.). The band has seasoned its approach since 1987, gigging in the Southwest with openers for nationals, as well as tag-team trots with their buddies in the Gin Blossoms. And while comparisons to the Blossoms can be drawn, Dead Hot Workshop have a sound so together it appears they are destined for greatness. Everything comes together - the signature vocal, the tasteful edge of dueling rhythm guitar sounds, the song, you name it. And while the heavyweights slug it out, the new breed will slide in. Here comes a band whose time may very well be now. They will be huge.

HERITAGE

Gov't Mule, "Monkey Hill," Relativity

The guitar prowess of Warren Haynes really shines through on this record, as this Southern boogie power trio goes to the mat for the fine art of record-making without the pesky overdub ritual. True, a little touch-up was called for, but for the most part this is the end result of a philosophy that less is more. That real rock and roll is alive and well, and we don't have to stand for all the new kids on the block. Which might be a reflection of your classic-based rock station listener. "Monkey Hill" is filled with Allman-like jamming, earthy Southern growler vocals, and a lot of soulful vibe. There's plenty of compatibility with your Skynyrd cuts here, as well as Allman Bros. library material.

COR

Bon Jovi, "Hey God," Mercury

The marketability and sales strength of Bon Jovi cannot be denied. Unlike most of their peers from the '80s, the band is still an incredibly viable business commodity, with projected sales in the multi millions worldwide. The frequent flyer miles on their jet must be pretty hefty considering their international touring schedule, and after hitting the Far East, they will be back for a full-on U.S. tour. "Hey God" is a reversal from the syrupy Top 40/MTV smash "Always", harkening back to their rocking roots a la "You Give Love A Bad Name." Has rock radio conceded the Bon Jovi audience to CHR? Time will tell, but if Current Rock can play any track, this is the one - it's upbeat and guitar driven. According to market research from Mercury done by Strategic Record Research, 15.5% of Bon Jovi fans listen to AOR based radio, as opposed to about 13% for CHR (and 6% at AC). In addition, as an artist, Bon Jovi is familiar to 82% of AOR listeners - the most of any format. The stats alone show that Bon Jovi has more in common with Van Halen than they do with Mariah Carey. Check it for yourself, and test out the strength of Bon Jovi, an artist that started in rock radio and has gone on to multi-platinum success.

COR CUTS

Mad Season, "I Don't Know Anything" (Columbia)

We understand that most you out there can hardly wait for the new Alice in Chains (just be patient - it's coming soon), but Mad Season has proven to be a worthy replacement. Layne's incomparable voice flows over the moody, atmospheric strains of hooky, shrieking guitar licks. The combination will satisfy the radio segment out there who were searching for something with more muscle than "River of Deceit." Ultra hip supergroup status aside, you will want to play "I Don't Know" because of its alluring, hypnotic appeal. Five new adds clocked in this week to bolster early spins at KILO, KIOZ, KUFO, KZAK, WDZR, WLZR, and Z Rock. Mimi Griswold of WKLL was "right on that track! We had great success with the first song, and after dabbling with the album a bit, this seems to be the track." Not bad for a bunch of guys who "Don't Know Anything."

Foo Fighters, "This Is A Call" (Capitol)

Any questions regarding life after Nirvana have been answered with a strong 30 adds-out-of-the-box showing for David Grohl's band Foo Fighters. The song is spirited and catchy. Plus the street level buzz is at a frenzied pace. The heaviest spins came in at KISW, KLOL, KSJO, WDZR, WXRA, and X107 (30 spins, with the CD arriving Thursday). Steve Blatter thinks that, "They're great. They are going to be a real viable artist." Jay Sisson of WIXV "likes the fact that it's not gloomy like so many Nirvana tracks were." An idea that was seconded by Rich Hawk of KILO who thinks, "The song has a good hook, and it was a good step to have a totally different sound, not Nirvana 2." For those current rock programmers looking for a modern-edged pop-laden single, then this one is more than just a call. It's a scream from the top of a mountain.

Queensryche, "Someone Else" (EMI)

This band of consummate professionals and acclaimed musicians has been impressing their fans since they first appeared on the scene in the mid-80's. Imitated but never duplicated, the soaring voice of Geoff Tate sets them apart from their peers. "Someone Else" puts that voice front and center as the song builds up its intensity. The current summer tour has been a hot ticket in many markets, and with their remarkable, theatrical performance, the interest in the band will be on the rise. Three adds this week at KEZE, KISW, and WVCR go on to join airplay at KCLB, WBAB, and WKLL whose Mimi Griswold assessed that, "I think that there are a lot of Queensryche fans out there and we know that they will be happy!" One of those fans is Dano Amman of WOZN who told us, "I'm a Queensryche fanatic, so from my point of view, they're all good songs!"

Tea Party, "Fire in the Head" (EMI)

The sensual and gliding melody of "Fire in the Head" has begun to make an impact, with seven adds this week at KEZE, KLBK, KRZZ, WKLL, WKQZ, and WXRC. Standing out of the pack because of its unique combination of Zeppelin-ish atmosphere, sharp ringing guitars, and a middle eastern rhythm, the Tea Party can be described in one word: Hypnotic. With the steady rain of pop music on the airwaves, the Tea Party provide something completely different for the listener craving a break. Some evidence to that remark comes from Rich Hawk of KILO who gets "positive calls every time we play it." Already superstars in their native Canada, it may not be too long before the Tea Party begin to enjoy similar success south of the border.

“HIGH” GOING
JUNE 27TH

Ugly
Mustard

Ugly Mustard, "High" (Real)

This Texas band may be coming to you through a smaller indie label, but don't let that deter you. With the power of a band like Pantera and the electronic-edged tinge and arctic blast of Nine Inch Nails, Ugly Mustard has been starting to make some waves of their own. On the Hard Hitters side of things, Ugly Mustard have been charting for almost two months, building consistent airplay and nabbing 130 spins this week. The production brings out the surreal ambience on "High," the musical interpretation of being locked in a cyberspace battlefield. Looking for something new and different to spice up your airwaves, pack some punch at night, or complement the success of White Zombie or Nine Inch Nails? Ugly Mustard could be just what you need to get "High."

On a recent swing through the states, Tommy Shaw and Jack Blades stopped long enough in New Jersey to pay a visit to the WDHA studios and hang with WDHA's Terrie Carr and WDHA PD Lenny Bloch.

Rock Alternative

Neil Young, "Downtown," Reprise

Six more come in, including KRRK, WEND, REV 105 and WVBR on this Neil/Pearl Jam combo that comes from a spontaneous few days in the studio early this year. And no problems listed thus far from WBCN (16-26), WMMS (15-33), 91X (9-15) and other Rock

Alternatives looking to capitalize on the fusion between past and present from this classic artist who hasn't lost a step in terms of hipness across the board. WZTA's in, too, with Gregg Steele commenting, "It's reacting well. They're just happy that it's Pearl Jam, they like that fact, dynamically speaking."

Goo Goo Dolls, "Flat Top," Warner Bros.

The listenability of this song can't be denied, but that's just half of the story. Because this one's catching on quickly at rock radio, particularly with programmers who sampled the whole album early on. KDKB's Paul Peterson sees it "Testing really well.

It's one of the best-testing of the newer records. I think it's a hit if you play it." The melody, the rhythm, and the Beatlesy/Replacements edge seem to add up to a properly-timed effort from this band.

Alanis Morissette, "You Oughta Know," Maverick

An out-and-out smash, this one leaps to Top 10 status this week, and will boldly go where few women have gone before. Straight to the top of Alternative. Alanis rides at 19* on the Rock Alternative chart with nearly 400 spins from this group. With the success that this debut offering has garnered at Alternative, and the mass-appeal nature of the track in question, it stands to reason that this one will work for the rocker who needs the edge of the modern artist without baggage, but with the sonic similarities to the great ones who have come before.

Tom Petty, "A Higher Place", Warner Bros.

Yes, that's right, another Tom Petty hit. Does this guy write any bad songs? After about a million hits that always end up on the top, Tom still hasn't stopped. "A Higher Place" from Wildflowers is huge and sure to be a success. Provocative guitar waves encircle your spirit in this piece by Petty. He keeps you listening with his fabulous vocals and his long history of always producing great music. It seems like a safe bet to head to higher ground with an established artist still writing strong radio rock.

Jeff Healey, "Stuck in the Middle With You," Arista

This cover version rocks, thanks to the fiery Healey guitar work. After all, nobody seems to be able to play like Healey, and his signature style vocal is pretty familiar to the masses thanks to earlier hits. So a vote for this classic tune done in Healey's hip fashion is a vote for a great opportunity to mix past and present. There's not much reason to play covers unless they're good covers. You won't burn out the rockhead who adores the original. The same guy had the cahoonas to cover "While My Guitar Gently Weeps," and did tremendous justice to the song. In the same vein, Healey doesn't step on the original. He works it well. WDVE, WPYX, KSFX and WKIT pick up this week, joining WFBQ and others.

Neil Young, "Downtown," Reprise

The real image monster has to be this one from Neil Young with his pals Pearl Jam as the backing band. 26 adds at Heritage indicate the potential storyline. Young is one of the few classic artists who have stayed hip over the years. And with 132 total stations in at this point (not including the Alternative counterparts), you're one of the few if you're waiting on this one. The Pearl Jam fans already know it's out there. You're probably well aware of how many they number. Add up the Neil contingent, and the math speaks louder than words.

DOUG MORRIS EXITS WARNER MUSIC

Doug Morris

The turmoil that has persisted within Time Warner's upper executive ranks over recent months has once again escalated with the news late Wednesday (6/12) that Warner Music U.S. Chairman Doug Morris had been dismissed from his position. In early May, Time Warner Chairman/Chief Executive Gerald Levin asked for the resignation of Warner Music Group Chairman/CEO Robert Morgado, reportedly as a result of a series of feuds that pitted Morgado against several executives, notably Mo Ostin and Morris. Michael J. Fuchs, who replaced Morgado as the new chairman of Warner's worldwide division, made the decision to dismiss Morris saying that the division "was not working together well." In a statement, Fuchs said, "I have made a careful but difficult decision which I strongly believe is in the best interest of the growth and stability of the entire Warner Music Group."

Over the past few weeks, Time Warner has received persistent criticism from Sen. Robert Dole and former Cabinet member William J. Bennett, who have called for the company to stop distributing gansta rap music. Morris is a staunch supporter of the genre, but Fuchs made it clear that the dismissal had nothing to do with the rap music controversy, and that the company had not yet decided how to respond to critics. At presstime, there was no official word on who would replace Morris.

IS DARRIN REALLY A COUNTRY BOY?

Darrin Arriens has turned up at Country outlet WVIC in Lansing, Michigan, as the station's new Program Director. Arriens, who officially began his programming duties in Lansing on Monday (6/19), has had an impressive career in rock radio with stations like WRIF, WLZR and WKLQ — which leads us to question whether there might not be a format flip in store for WVIC. No one at the station would confirm that possibility, but you make the call — they've brought in a PD with a history of rocking and we also hear that Pollack will be consulting. Don't think you'll need to call in Jim Rockford to solve this one.

GILLISPIE TO PROGRAM WRXK

Greg Gillispie

A month after announcing his resignation from Burkhart/Douglas & Associates, Greg Gillispie has been named PD for Beasley Broadcasting's WRXK/Ft. Myers. "Greg's vast experience in programming, research and consulting is exactly what the doctor ordered," said GM Frank DiMatteo. "Greg's skills are numerous, and his knowledge in the area of programming will only strengthen WRXK's position as Southwest Florida's best rock station." Gillispie spent the last eight years as a radio consultant at B/D & A, and his radio stints including programming duties at WDVE in Pittsburgh and KEZO/Omaha. Greg said of his new position, "Beasley Broadcasting is a great, growth-oriented company. The recently combined Ft. Myers/Naples market is very competitive, with an Arrow, Classic Rock, Hard Rock, and Country station all competing for some portion of WRXK's target audience. And Southwest Florida offers a good quality of life, plus we have family here. All of these factors met my criteria for my next challenge. I'm excited to apply some unique ideas to bring the station back to a position of market prominence."

PAM EDWARDS GOES TO WORK

Pam Edwards

Pam Edwards has officially been appointed VP/Rock Promotion for The WORK Group. In making the announcement, Sr. VP/Promotion Burt Baumgartner commented, "Many artists benefited from Pam's successful tenure at Columbia, and she has already made tremendous strides for The WORK Group. Pam's excellent blend of radio and record company experience make her the perfect person to lead this exciting phase of development at The WORK Group." Edwards has served as National Director, Album Promotion, West Coast for Columbia since 1991. She began her career in radio while still in college, as PD/on-air personality at WPGU-FM, Champaign-Urbana. For the next dozen years, she held a number of positions as MD, PD and on-air personality starting at KMET/L.A. in '83, at KGB/San Diego in '86, and KNAC in '90.

CAPRICORN PROMOTES PUCCI

Mark Pucci

25-year music industry veteran Mark Pucci has been promoted to the post of Sr. VP/GM at Capricorn. He has served as the label's VP/Publicity & Media Relations, having rejoined the company when it was revitalized in its current Nashville base in early 1991. Pucci was a principal member of the Capricorn staff in its first incarnation during the '70s, when the label was based in Macon, Georgia. During that time, he served as Publicity Director and then National Publicity Director. From 1979-'91, Pucci owned and operated his own successful independent publicity company based in Atlanta, working with a number of major label and independent label clients, as well as film, television and book projects. In making the announcement, Capricorn President Phil Walden said, "I am extremely pleased to make this appointment. Mark has repeatedly proven his invaluableness to this company, not only during the past four years, but in the early days as well. His vast experience and expertise in virtually every facet of the industry has served Capricorn immensely, and his elevation to Sr. VP/GM will undoubtedly contribute to the continued success and growth of our company." Pucci added, "I'm really honored by the confidence Phil has demonstrated in appointing me to this position. I believe that Capricorn is poised on the brink of tremendous success. With the artists on our roster and the personnel that we now have in place, I am confident that we can realize the potential we've been building up to in these past four years."

RADIO RUMBLE

MediaAmerica, Inc. kicks off Independence Day '95 weekend in grand style with two exclusive three-hour presentations centering on the unreleased music from last year's Woodstock '94 festival. The first of the two MediaAmerica holiday specials, All Access, features three hours of live, unreleased and in some cases never-before-heard presentations centering on the unreleased music (unless you were there) performances from today's hottest bands. Groups like Green Day, Collective Soul, Live, Blues Traveler, Sheryl Crow, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and The Cranberries are captured live. These performances, which launched many of these band's careers, remain unreleased and unavailable anywhere. The second of the two specials, On Stage Live, also three hours on CD, features the live unreleased performances from the heritage rockers that took the stage at Woodstock '94. Sets from Aerosmith, Peter Gabriel, Joe Cocker, The Band, The Allmans, Santana, Melissa Etheridge, and Traffic are heavily featured.

WFBQ's Bob & Tom morning show is now on in Fresno, California. Alternative station KFRR-FM tape delays the entire show and plays it back from 6:00am-10:30am pacific time. Also The 'World Calendar Awards' acknowledged the 1994 Q95/Bob & Tom Calendar as "Most Humorous" in the "Custom Corporate-Wall" category. (We couldn't make this up).

Rock legend Todd Rundgren had local favorite HUGE. open for him at The Edge nightclub in Palo Alto. HUGE. whipped a crowd of 500 into a frenzy with a powerful forty minute set of his funky alternative pop. Joined by Chris Rossbach (guitar), Joey Fabian (bass), and John Hasty (drums), HUGE. ripped through eight sets, including the hits "Delicious Heavy Petting" and "I Think I Know The Way Out." After the set, the crowd snatched up over 200 copies of HUGE's most recent release When I Was Famous as they added their names to the ever-growing HUGE. mailing list. Following on the heels of his performance at The Edge, HUGE. made a special appearance on KFOG-FM (San Francisco) this past Tuesday, June 20th and Thursday, June 22nd at 10:00pm. KFOG also aired in two segments an acoustic performance and interview recorded by HUGE. and his band in the KFOG studios earlier this month.

Jeff Carrol

by Bill Hard

KLBJ's Jeff Carrol came to KLBJ in September of '87, from the KATT in Oklahoma City. In the time since, he has worked his way up from Promotion Director to MD, to Program Director, and finally to Operations Manager last year. Why not stick around? Jeff's is perhaps one of the best programming jobs in the country, in what's arguably the coolest city in America. Just ask anyone who has ever attended Austin's annual South By Southwest music event. The climate's to die for, the food's off the scale, and the music speaks for itself. Inexorably woven into the fabric of this fascinating city is KLBJ-FM, one of the country's most successful heritage rock dynasties. And though the second fastest growing city in America probably won't recognize itself by the year 2000, and rock competition gets continually more intense, Jeff obviously feels he and the Johnson family have a master plan to go the distance...

You've had a long and very successful tenure at KLBJ. Now it seems that from every conceivable angle, Austin is totally exploding. There's a housing boom, every record guy who ever ate a burrito on 5th Street wants to move there, and now you have more direct radio competition than you can shake a stick at. How much bigger can Austin get?

Jeff: We keep hearing that the market is going to double within the next ten years, which is very possible, and if that happens, the number of stations we have here will survive. Right now, I think the ones on the bottom of the totem pole have got to be barely making it.

Has KLBJ's profit picture kept pace with all the growth?

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Jeff: They have exactly mirrored it. The last two years were record breaking.

How about the rest of the market? Is there that much more available revenue?

Jeff: Yes.

In addition to the music scene we all know about, what else is fueling the growth?

Jeff: Austin is a high tech place. We have IBM, Dell Computers, Texas Instruments — a whole bunch of computer and software industries are springing up. This is kind of the Silicon Valley of Texas.

How much different is the market from when you first hit town in the early '80s?

Jeff: When I first came here, it was a very small town, but it had a great feel to it. It was very liberal and progressive in a number of ways. There's still the small town feel, especially because of the way it's laid out. When you fly into Austin, it seems like a pretty small town, but it's really spread out over a lot of miles and hidden by the hill country, so you can't tell how much things have expanded.

You're not at all concerned that Austin is headed for the kind of urban sprawl that characterizes, say, Houston?

Jeff: No, not at all. I think the quality of life in Austin is going to be here for a long time. The way the city government is set up, they are so slow and protective of their environment.

Do you actually have contact with Ladybird Johnson yourself?

Jeff: Sure, from time to time. She just celebrated her 82nd birthday and is devoting much of her time to the Wildflower projects and things like that. Now Luci Johnson and Ian Turpin are running the LBJ company, which controls the broadcast side and their other holdings.

What else are they involved in besides broadcasting?

Jeff: They have been in real estate, they have had cable holdings, operated banks, operate a company called Business Suites, among other things.

Has KLBJ always been a solid revenue producer for them?

Jeff: KLBJ-FM has. KLBJ-AM wasn't necessarily, when it went through the lean years about ten years ago. It was pretty difficult because we had high overhead with a full news staff, and to make that station successful, it needed the ratings to go with it and be packaged it better for the sales department.

Now that they're news/talk/sports they're very successful. What turned it around?

Jeff: I have to credit for the revenues growth to Jim Gustafson with a lot of that. He is the GM that just left for WCCO in Minneapolis.

How did KLBJ get off the ground?

Jeff: The story that I have is that, back when FM was just starting up, Mr. Johnson hired all of these college kids to work at KLBJ-FM and play his favorite records for him so he could listen to them when he was on the ranch. When he died, the story goes the AM paid a tribute to him by playing his favorite music for a day. It got such a great response the AM carried it on for an entire week, literally

Jeff: It's increased our revenue.

Other than saving those consultant fees, why did you decide to go it alone?

Jeff: We had a great relationship with Pollack, but I think it was just becoming a little stagnant and we needed some fresh ideas. We did an intensive search to find a new consultant and finally decided that we had a pretty good feel of what is happening here ourselves and can do the same just by networking with a number of people in similar situations.

Now that you have a second big-signal alternative in town, how much more competitive will things get?

Jeff: The rock arena that had a Classic Rock, a Z-Rock, Alternative, a Triple A, and an AC that plays a lot of rock was already crowded. Now, with this last entry, it seems leaving the college kids with no records to play. So, they went back to the dorm to get their own records, and that was kind of the beginning of it. Then, Steve Smith and his wife kind of formulated a rock program and presented it to the owners and they went for it. From what I understand, back then, there were about ten to twelve stations in town, and they were the only station playing rock.

Is Jeff Pollack still involved with the station?

Jeff: We have been consulted by Pollack in the past, but we haven't been with a consultant for about three years now.

Has that made any sort of difference in your ratings or revenue picture?

apparent to me that somebody is going to have to disappear.

How does the Z-Rock perform?

Jeff: Like all Z-Rocks, it came out with a bang and has been falling ever since.

Do you see Austin offering less low end audience than other markets might?

Jeff: Yes, I don't think there really is a market for that low end. The college kids are obviously influential, and with Arbitron changing the way they are doing their surveys, it is going to be increasingly more important. But the advertisers and the attitude here has been more 25-34 than 12-24.

What is the state of CHR in the marketplace?

Jeff: There is basically one CHR radio station at the moment, KHFI. There is another one trying to take them on called 'The Party,' but so far they haven't done anything in the book. They just got done running what must have been a $200,000 television campaign, based on the amount of times I have seen the commercial.

There is conjecture that the signal strength that KROX brings to the table will put the big hurt on KNNC. What do you think?

Jeff: Obviously, if you have two stations that are very similar competing, signal strength is one of the tools that win numbers. They will be able to reach more counties and have a clearer signal into offices where people can get more time spent listening. But whether or not KNNC will disappear, I'm not so sure, because having heard 101X, they are not as close to KNNC as I thought they were going to be, or as they could have been, to finish them off. KNNC never had huge numbers to begin with, they have always been down in the 2s or 3s, so even if they lose half, that's isn't a lot of people shifted. I always hope when a station comes into a market like this, that they're going to be good because that makes everybody else that much better. So far, I have been kind of disappointed.

What would you have expected differently?

Jeff: Better talent, a more focused playlist, a bigger marketing campaign.

How long have they been on the air?

Jeff: About a week and a half.

Do you think they have yet to roll out their major dog and pony show or is word of mouth getting the job done?

Jeff: So far, it has been word of mouth. I have a feeling they are trying to get their ducks in a row and when the college kids come back or get into the next book, they will do something. They almost have to because it was a frequency that was dark up until now. It isn't like they have people that have that position on their dial programmed.

Is there a fairly vibrant Alternative scene under the surface that isn't heard about as much due to all the talk about the whole Southwest-tinged stuff — the Ian Moores, Chris Duarte, and such?

Jeff: There's a big Alternative scene, but most of it's not generating from Austin yet. The R&B and other stuff you hear about — the Arc Angels, Ian Moores, Eric Johnsons — those kinds of artists are still probably the most dominant rock force in Austin. There still are a lot of singer/songwriters in Country music coming from Austin.

With as many artists as are moving to the town, there's a question of how much do you open KLBJ to the city of Austin. Do you play Bob Mould just because he lives there?

Jeff: My guideline has always been whether it's the right song for the radio station or not. There's a lot of great music out there and a lot of people that are in bands, some of which are even my friends, but I won't play them just because of that. The music has to be right for KLBJ. There are a lot of stations who have tried to increase their local image by playing a lot of local music, but I'm not so sure that's the right move.

You're ex-partner in crime, Jody Denberg at KGSR, has a pretty widely known reputation for hanging out with artists, and frequently, the Charlie Sextons of the world might be caught with KGSR on in their homes. Do you think that 'hang thing' contributes to any measurable degree to your success?

Jeff: You mean if I would hang out with the bands I might get better numbers?

Let's not get catty, Jeff...

Jeff: Obviously, being a part of what is happening in any town helps get ratings. If you are in a market that has a lot of naval bases, if you're involvement with them is good, that's going to help with the ratings. Along the same line, since Austin has a big music scene, being involved is important. Hobnobbing with the stars helps to some degree. You want to be a part of the community. Whatever is big in the community, you should be connected to.

Hey, Redbeard made a career out of it.

Jeff: Exactly. But I'm not so sure that always translates into numbers. The numbers come from the average listeners and not just the rock stars who are listeners, but I just hang with them because I like them as people.

With over 35 clubs in town, how much do you personally get out?

Jeff: I get out as often as I can, probably not as much as I used to, but it is important to stay in touch and get a good feel for what is happening. SXSW is a lot of fun, you can hear a lot of bands from out of town. But it is better to go out during a normal week to hear some local bands and see what people are getting turned onto here.

Loris actually plays in a band, I'm told. Is it logical to assume that ties you into the street to an even greater degree?

Jeff: I don't know about that. Just about everybody in Austin plays the guitar or something at one point. Obviously, it helps make her a great Music Director because she is in touch with the music, and knows what's going on in the streets and is respected by people.

How does her band sound?

Jeff: Pretty good. I think you'd like it.

Who would you compare it to?

Jeff: No one. They have a very distinct sound. Her husband is in the band, Loris plays bass, and they have a unique sound.

How heavily do you tie into SXSW?

Jeff: We control it. We're the only radio station sponsor of it.

And I'm sure others have tried?

Jeff: Oh yeah.

How do you keep a lock on that event?

Jeff: We've been doing it for ten years.

It's certainly the country's premiere A&R driven event. I had a hard time finding a rental car two weeks in front of the actual function.

Jeff: Unfortunately, I wonder if it has gotten too big. So many people come in from out of town to experience it — which is great because that brings a ton of money into the city and we get a lot of press from it — but it kind of excludes the people who live in Austin from being able to get into the clubs to see these bands. There are so many industry types participating that it's become a very tough ticket.

With Austin being the state capitol, how heavily do those stuffy bureaucrats tie into such a laid-back scene?

Jeff: I think Austin has always been a very casual place. If Willie Nelson can walk into the most fancy restaurant in blue jeans and a T-shirt, just about anybody can. That's one of the great appeals of Austin, Texas. The politicians are aware of that, and enjoy it the same way, and they do get out and see music. In the last five years, they have kind of jumped on the bandwagon. We could have used a lot more support from the government ten years ago, to help with creating actual music districts and being a little more lenient as far as sound goes and street restrictions — the loading in and unloading of equipment, stuff like that.

Are you and Jody on good terms?

Jeff: Oh yeah. You mention sushi, and Jody and I will be there.

The record folks who work the market say the presents scene there is actually quite civilized, especially as pertains to your two stations.

Jeff: Jody's station and KLBJ are pretty diverse. We don't have much of a problem with that. It only happens a few times, and if we're that close on a record — for example, if both stations are playing Big Head Todd and the Monsters — then we usually just do a co-pro. For the most part, it is pretty obvious which station is having the impact on a record. I think that is all going to change, of course.

How much more intense do you expect that situation to get now that there's another rock based signal in the mix?

Jeff: These new guys are going to be scrambling for everything they can get, get all the visibility that they can. It's going to be a tough battle. When any new station comes on, it hardly matters what format they are, it is going to have an effect on a lot of different radio stations. I'm sure we are going to have a big battle with these guys. It's not as if KLBJ has leaned classic and now we've switched since this new Alternative station has signed on. We've been a leader in the music from day one. So it's not such a drastic change for us, and I believe that record support is going to be with us anyway.

You have leaned classic in the past, particularly when challenged by KPEZ. Were numbers the reason you reversed course? Or did the street tell you that wasn't the right move for future growth?

Jeff: At some point, all mainstream stations are going to have to decide which way to go because they are getting farther and farther apart from the two ends. Things just weren't meshing where we could play a Pearl Jam or some of the new stuff next to some of the Classic artists. The audience was diversified too much, split down the middle. When you are in that situation of getting picked at from all sides, you can only deliver one side or the other. That's when you don't get any P1 listeners, and are left with P2's. We had to make a conscious decision to claim our ground, figure out who KLBJ was, and find the core sound for the radio station. Fortunately, part of that sound is because of our history, and part of it is because of the town we live in. KLBJ's core encompasses a little bit of that Austin sound — the Ian Moores, the ZZ Tops, kind of that rootsy R&B stuff — which is still acceptable back to back with the Pearl Jams, the Oasis', and U2s.

It's interesting that you made the move about a year before most heritage stations are being forced to choose a path. How did that thought process work?

Jeff: Basically, it was just because of the competitive edge in this market. I think that Phoenix and Austin were the two most rock competitive markets early on, so for a couple of years now we have been having to make the decisions most mainstreams are making today. We had to decide which of these babies we're going to follow, which is going to become KLBJ. It was just too broad for us to be playing all of these different types of music. If you try and break it down, there were probably twenty different core music types that KLBJ had been playing, and that is just too many. We weren't satisfying any one person for any long period of time. We needed to narrow it in and find out what was the common thread that runs through all the KLBJ listeners, and do that while we still had huge cumes so that we didn't have to totally rebuild this radio station. I guess the most conscious effort was when we realized that KLBJ was still successful, but it was P2 listening that was making us successful, and if enough of these niche radio stations came along and we started to lose our P2s, we would be dead. We had to start coming back to those P1s.

Was research the driving wheel in your changes or were your formatic decisions more gut based?

Jeff: It was a gut feeling that we checked with research and it proved to be right.

Did you think seriously about calling in outside help at that point, or was that the furthest thing from your mind?

Jeff: We called in outside help to do the research. Once we got that back and analyzed what that said, it was very obvious what to do.

How much does the new competitive climate affect the considerations that you were drawing at that point?

Jeff: I think any radio station needs to do the best job of being who they are, all the time. Because this new station signs on, I'm not automatically going, as they predicted, to become more classic and fade away, or become more current and take them on head-to-head. That is not necessarily what I want to do. I know who my listeners are, I know what they want, and I am going to serve it to them the best that I can. That is how we have continued to win for so long.

A lot of programmers talk about the need to be more current intensive, but in fact, what many have done is to just simply slide alternative leaning tracks into those same slots formerly occupied by the newer mainstream acts they were playing before. Do you have any thoughts on that tactic?

Jeff: I think that most of it is image, what you want the station to be. You don't necessarily have to play a lot more modern music to be perceived that way. It depends on what you have been doing in the past and how you present it on the air — whether you tie in with these artists and are there at the concerts and use their music in your IDs and liners and have the artists coming by. You can do it a little with smoke and mirrors if you feel you have to hang onto some of that old library. We really dumped a lot of our old library. Most of the '60s sounding stuff is gone, most of the '80s corporate rock is gone. We just cleaned it all out and got down to an '80s and '90s base.

Give me an example of some bands you see getting played around the country that you absolutely don't deal with.

Jeff: Boston, Bad Company, Foreigner, Kinks, Fleetwood Mac, Elton John.

How much listener sharing do you think you have with KGSR at this point?

Jeff: About 20%.

Do you see any advantage in cherry picking Triple A crossover stuff? Is that something you make an effort to do?

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Jeff and his Wife
Barbra with the Man In Black.

Jeff: I really don't make an effort to listen to what KGSR is playing and go, 'If I played a little bit of that, I could steal some of their listeners away.' It is more of a conscious effort as to whether a particular song fits with what KLBJ is trying to do. Generally, I play it for that reason alone.

By reputation, you tend to do less wheeling and dealing for airplay than just about any station on the map. Is that something you have strong feelings about?

Jeff: No. In some ways, it's one way that you can set your station apart. I've consulted a station in Abilene and one in Baton Rouge, and I'm not saying that they'd wheel and deal like that, but when you have no budget to work with, having record companies help you can be the thing that puts you over the top. If you are giving away guitars and trips, and it makes you sound like a bigger market station, that's great. I would say don't add records just for that reason, but if they are going to give you a promotion and you are going to play the record anyway, take advantage of it. It hurts everybody when we have those paper adds, when you put records on the air that don't fit. One of the things that can hurt you the most is by playing the wrong records. You never want to do that. You never want to put a record on if you don't believe in it.

Does being in Austin put undue pressure on you with music that you wouldn't ordinarily deal with?

Jeff: We are hit up by all the local labels and bands, which I think is fantastic. I would love to be an outlet for all of them, but I still use the same criteria as I would for any record that comes through the door — it has to be right for KLBJ to be played. I would admit that it probably has a better chance because it is from Austin. That is one more little point as to why we should play it, but I won't play a record just because it's from Austin.

How has Classic Rock in general fared in that market?

Jeff: They are usually around a 4 or a 5.

Who is the best known — and this may well be you — air personality in town?

Jeff: First, would probably be the country guys, Bob Cole and his partner. However, our morning team is number one amongst our target audience and all the rock stations.

How long has your morning show been on?

Jeff: Dale's been here over seven years, Bob has been here three years, and we just added Debra Cole about a year ago.

That was your last staff change. What is the average age of your staff?

Jeff: Probably 35. We don't have much of a turnover here. I have been here 13 years, my morning show guy has been here seven, my midday girl has been here fourteen years, the night-time guy, who we hired from the Classic Rock station, has been here probably five years now.

It would seem that working for the Johnsons is pretty much as good as it gets. Is there anything about the corporate situation that you'd like to see different? Or is it totally sunshine, lollipops and rainbows?

Jeff: They are very nice to the people. It's a great city to live in to begin with, and they have created a facility here that is probably the best radio station in the United States.

I'm told the facility is breathtaking.

Jeff: It's the most expensive free-standing radio station in the United States. We have four production rooms, four on-air studios, an auditorium that seats 60 people that we have bands play live in.

One label VP, who will go unnamed, said I should ask you if all the high altitude ballooning you do has affected your brain. Is that something you do often?

Jeff: Yeah. I just did some yesterday and today. I'm a licensed instructor, and we've taken Pink Floyd and Joe Walsh up as our student pilots.

How did you first get involved?

Jeff: It started out as a radio thing. A friend of mine was learning how to fly the balloon and I came out and watched him. Then we decided to put a banner on the side of the balloon with our call letters on it and set it up at an outdoor concert, which led to some broadcasts from the balloons, and I just worked toward my license.

Is it a lengthy procedure to get it?

Jeff: No, it takes about a year. It's just like any pilot license, you take a written test and do a check ride.

You have your own balloon?

Jeff: I fly for Austin Aeronauts.

And you went up just this morning?

Jeff: We got up at 4:30 and launched at sunrise. We usually stay up for about an hour.

Have you had any close calls?

Jeff: Oh yeah! There have been situations where the winds really picked up and we had to make landings going about 35 mph, which can be fun if you are prepared for it. There was one time when I was becalmed over a wooded area and had to land down through the trees.

Would you consider the sport high risk?

Jeff: Oh, no. It's one of the safest forms of aviation.

Safest forms of near death, if you ask me. Let's talk about your promotional philosophy. Where do you spend your money?

Jeff: We don't do any billboards, because of Ladybird's project, so most of our marketing is done with TV, and print, bumper stickers and the street presence we get from banners and the like.

You do a lot of charity driven sort of things. For instance, you lived in a tent on the sidewalk for a week to raise money.

Jeff: We raised money for Give Kids The World, which is a foundation that works with Make A Wish for terminally ill children. Last year we raised $50,000 and paid off a duplex. We had built a duplex specifically for a Texas family.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

How exhausting was that experience? Especially not bathing for a week?

Jeff: It was grueling, and I'll tell you why — I get up and broadcast with the morning show to get some people down there. I'm up, on the air all day, people are checking in with me, then the restaurant finally closes and all the employees want to party, so we stay up until 2 or 3. Around 4 or 5 o'clock the trucks pull in with produce, basically, you don't get much sleep.

Sounds kind of like my job, Jeff.

Jeff: You are tired, dirty, and at the end of the week you are completely drained because you don't know if you are going to make the goal or not. You hope to raise the amount of money so you can go home before the end of the week. When it is finally announced that you reach it, the feeling is just overwhelming.

I just got some photos in from WEBN in Cincinnati of their pregnant bikini contest and nude volleyball outing. How would your listeners react to those promotions.

Jeff: Our listeners would love that kind of stuff.

How would the Johnsons feel about it?

Jeff: The Johnsons are smart as far as radio goes. If they believe it is effective for the radio station, they don't have a problem with it, so long as it doesn't injure anybody or cause a lawsuit or make us lose our license. They've been very good about letting us have control over the radio station.

You're still doing your rock n' roll auction?

Jeff: Yeah, we've done our rock n' roll auction for about four years. We try and have a community event every month, in one type or another for the community, whether it's a blood drive, the auction or toy drive parade.

How have your trends been of late?

Jeff: Our trends have been up, up, up.

And your most recent book?

Jeff: 12+ we have a 7.0, 18-34 we have a 9.8.

You are a bit unique in that you are an Ops Manager that still does an air shift. Do you think by the year 2000 most programmer/OM types will be on the air?

Jeff: I hope not.

Is it something that you find you still enjoy, or is it difficult to play the hits four hours a day and still accomplish your managerial functions?

Jeff: I've been in the Ops position for just about a year, and I think I am going to have to lose one of my duties. I'm not sure what that's going to be yet.

But you still enjoy the shift?

Jeff: There are days when I get kind of bored with it, but it's probably the most rewarding part of the radio station. I still enjoy the contact with the listeners, creating the theater, the music, the stuff that goes in between it.

In general, how many total hours a week do you think you put in?

Jeff: 60, and that's at the office. It's really tough to say if you count going to the concerts and the promotions, and stuff like that.

Do you do any specific sales calls yourself?

Jeff: Appearances and remotes, yes, but I don't do any sales at all.

KLBJ has historically been an award winning radio station. You seem to win all sorts of accolades all the time.

Jeff: Billboard, Rolling Stone...

Is it that you prep for those things and you package yourself specifically, or is it the allure of Austin?

Jeff: I don't know. Early on when we started winning these awards, it just kind of happened. Now that we have won a number of them, it's kind of become expected of us, so we do make a conscious effort as far as the Crystal awards. But I don't know that we are out to win the award. We do know that if we remember all of the things that we have done in the past year and present them in a nice package, it can help. I don't think we alter what we do in order to gain recognition. I know a lot of record people use us as a lead to get other stations to add records probably because Austin is so well known for its music scene. So they probably have heard about KLBJ more than some other stations in markets this size.

Yours are certainly magic call letters. You are fortunate that you haven't had to reinvent the radio station, or revitalize sagging call letters, or attempt to hang them on an all new format. It seems that most stations have been down that road.

Jeff: We have consciously kept the radio station flexible, so that we can fine tune it as things happen, as the market changes. We've been broad enough to not keep us in one little keyhole, yet fine tuned enough that we're successful.

TRIPLE ACE

Blue Mountain, "Dog Days," Roadrunner If you're thinking that this band is going to sound like other bands that have the words "Blue" or "Mountain" in their name, you'll be pleasantly surprised when you listen to Dog Days. With a sound more in keeping with other roots rock bands like The Jayhawks and Wilco, the Mississippi-based trio (singer/guitarist Cary Hudson, bassist/vocalist Laurie Stirrat and drummer Frank Couch) has released a debut with Triple A written all over it. Our favorites include "Blue Canoe," "ZZQ" and "Soul Sister." With Dog Days coming on the heels of Kevin Salem's album, it appears that our brothers at Roadrunner are determined to make a serious impact at this format — we don't doubt for a second that they will. Steve Cole/KSPN, "The sounds of the road house are "on your desk now." This charming Mississippi band has a blend reminiscent of early Pure Prairie League (if Neil Young played rhythm guitar), or a bit like the Courage Brothers, (shame on anyone who didn't play the Courage Bros. latest). Friendly and unhurried, this could easily fill a slot in your rotation. Off the bat fave is "ZZQ" with "Blue Canoe" and "Let's Go Running" also strong."

THE HOT CORNER

Phish, "A Live One," Elektra/EEG With Phish fast approaching legendary status for their bizarre and unpredictable live shows, it makes perfect sense to capture some of the exciting and entertaining elements of that environment for the legions of Phishheads to take home and worship. The band took a 32-track mobile recording facility on the road with them in '94, and recorded every performance — 550 songs in all. They then spent two months carefully selecting the best takes for. The 2-CD package contains Phish classics like "Chalkdust Torture," as well as six previously unreleased tracks, including "Bouncing Around The Room," which debuted at 23* on the AAA chart. Colter Langan/KMMS, "We put this one on immediately and our phone reaction is still growing. For a band that supposedly are not all that huge — they are HUGE! This is immediate summer gratification for any and all Triple A stations." Dean Carlson/KMTT, "It's fun. We like it and the fans like it. There's always a demand for Phish here. We're playing it on our New Music Show now. Killer logo." Brad Hockmeyer/KTAO, "Even our regular listeners like it!" Jon Peterson/WCBE "Live albums can be risky propositions when only those who've already seen the show can make sense out of the different sound and concert setting. But Phish are always at home in front of a crowd, and this CD sounds perfect, combining a fantastic clear mix with the magic of the audience clapping and singing along. For those of you who've had success with Freddy Jones, Blues Traveler, and Widespread Panic, this should go immediately to heavy rotation."

Big Sugar, "500 Pounds," Silvertone Who is the man behind that nasty voice? Who is that vicious guitarist? Who is responsible for the energetic, mean and down-right filthy raw material on this record? Gordie Johnson, Gordie Johnson, Gordie Johnson — the sweetness in the Canadian based quartet Big Sugar. Completely stacked, this record has an awful lot to offer. Bluesy and bruisy on the hard hitter "Ride Like Hell," classy on the Al Green cover "I'm A Ram," spaced out on "Wild Ox Man" and shufflin' on the Triple A ready track "All Over Now." So come on, drop that summer diet and chow down on 500 Pounds of Big Sugar.

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

James McMurtry, "Levelland," Columbia

The full album should be at radio by this time next week, but the 4-song EP released last week has the Triple A community buzzing: Steve Cole/KSPN, "James McMurtry's return to his Triple A homeland is nothing short of terrific, once again painting himself as a fish out of water lost in a vast cultural wasteland. The four selections on the Levelland sampler represent some of the strongest tunes from the full CD, so programmers can dig right in. Compelling, exciting, provocative, essential!" Jon Peterson/WCBE, "James McMurtry is back with a very cool, alternative midwestern sound that would fit perfectly next to Wilco, The Jayhawks and the Bottlerockets. 'Levelland' is a great jangly, hook-filled gem, while 'Fuller Brush Man' is just soooo funky with it's great wah-wah guitar fills. Don Dixon's productions sparkle throughout, with a big fat bottom and a bright crisp high-end." Colter Langan/KMMS, "We received the 4-song EP and look forward to getting it on the air for all the McMurtry fans that will be enthusiastic to hear this. This is a different sound for him, but it adds to his musical abilities. We're looking forward to hearing the rest of the album." Brad Hockmeyer/KTAO, "Few artists define the format like James McMurtry. I love this guy and 'Levelland' is a great song!" Greg Roberts/KFMU, "James McMurtry's sampler is a winner!" Tom Krumm/KLRF, "We really like the album. James McMurtry is a perfect fit at KLRF." Jim Herron/WBOS, "Just got it in this morning and I like what I heard."

Bruce Hornsby, "Cruise Control," RCA

We received this single from the forthcoming Hot House shortly before going to press — just in time for a coupla meaningful listens and to let you know that "Cruise Control" officially goes for adds on 6/26. The track is energetic and bouncy, and laden with the pop sensibilities that ignited Hornsby's success. Jerry Garcia once again lends his legendary fluid guitar sound to the mix, which is complemented by a sprinkling of harmonies, horns and organ.

Neil Young/Pearl Jam

It's too bad Pearl Jam is already Pearl Jam, since this release would be great grounds for anointing them the new Crazy Horse. Neil, who turns 50 this year(!), finds a great infusion of energy in his writing working with Pearl Jam on Mirrorball (Reprise). Recommended cuts besides the single "Downtown" are "Song X," "Big Green Country," the moody "Truth Be Known," and the companion pieces "What Happened Yesterday" (:45) and "Peace & Love." Also of note is "I'm The Ocean" (even at a daunting 6:56 length), which introduces us to the melody that will be heard again on "Fallen Angel," the minute-long reprise that closes out the CD. (James Dann)

Patty Larkin

Patty Larkin is back with another stunning release on High St. Records. Strangers World once again proves Patty to be one of the best songwriters and guitarists on the folk scene today. "Johnny Was A Pyro" is the lead track and features Patty's characteristically witty lyrics and funky guitar hooks. I saw Patty perform this song last week at the PRC in Washington D.C. and she blew everyone away. With John Leventhal at the production helm and backup vocals from Bruce Cockburn, Shawn Colvin and The Story, the album holds many tracks to focus on, including "Dear Diary," "Open Arms (Don't Explain)" and "Me And That Train."

Blue Mountain

Blue Mountain's 5 Songs From Dog Days (Roadrunner) EP was a pleasant surprise. The buzz is flying about this band, and I'm pleased to say that they live up to all the pre-release hype. "Blue Canoe" is the first track and points to the band's Uncle Tupelo/Wilco type sound (in fact, they are on tour with Wilco as we speak). The other four songs on the EP are in a similar vein. We like "ZZQ," an ode to a now defunct AOR station in Jackson, MS, and "Wink."

James McMurtry

One of the highlights in our mail this week was the four-song EP by James McMurtry, a preview of his forthcoming release Where'd You Hide The Body? (Columbia). We witnessed his captivating solo versions of a couple of these numbers, including the emphasis track "Levelland," at our McCabe's showcase in April. It's as refreshing to hear the fully produced versions as it is to reacquaint ourselves with his fine, wry songwriting. The title song, along with "Rachel's Song" and the funkified "Fuller Brush Man" all deserve a home on the radio. (James Dann)

Dish

Dish is a band to be reckoned with. After releasing an EP last year, they are set to take the world by storm with their first full-length album Boneyard Beach (Interscope). Dish is a band built on opposites: the beautiful and the harsh, the happy and the melancholy, the male and the female. Vocalist, pianist and songwriter Dana Kletter's songs reflect the search for synthesis in an otherwise chaotic life. She is equally at home with classical and punk music, soft pianos and loud guitars, happy songs and sad, and feels music should bring opposites together to satisfy the need for life to make sense. "Headlights" is the standout track, but it is not a one listen song. Spend some time with it, and you'll begin to feel the intensity of the band. Also listen to "Wading," "Sad Figure," and "How Could Anyone."

The Last Libertines

Despite the fact that we can't stop referring to them as "The Lost Libertarians," this eponymous debut on the IRS Gai Saber imprint managed to catch our attention. "Love Wears A White Stetson," "Big Indian," "Watching The Big Sea," "Don't Be A Stranger," "Reality & Rumour," "Safety Zone," and "St. Patrick's Day" all contain a lilting charm and frequently clever lyrics, with a mix of vocals and instrumentation reminiscent of the Proclaimers or the group Danny Wilson. (James Dann)

Burning Spear

Taking its rightful place alongside the new collection and new LP from the senior and junior Marleys respectively comes Rasta Business (Heartbeat), the latest from 25 year-plus Reggae veteran Winston "Burning Spear" Rodney. The tracks "This Man," "Not Stupid," and "Hello Rastaman" are all worth a listen, as is the title song, which appears to address whether those who adopt reggae for its fashion fads and music grooves are in tune with the music's spiritual aspects which the Rastafan hold dear. (James Dann)

Abra Moore

Abra Moore's debut album Sing (Bohemia Beat) is a beautiful piece of work. Her voice is sweet without being waif-like, and her songs have the power to really touch the listener. Many of the songs are soft ballads that are wonderful, but not so radio friendly, but the songs that the label has stickered the album with are the ones to focus on for airplay. Our favorites are, "Half Step And A Tumble" and "Sweet Chariot."

Shane MacGowan

Former Pogues frontman Shane MacGowan's solo debut The Snake (Warner Bros.) sounds more like The Pogues than the last Pogues album! MacGowan's throaty vocals combined with the Celtic infused music of his new band The Popes should make old Pogues fans very happy. The single is "Haunted," a duet with Sinead O'Connor which is notable in that Sinead's is the first voice you hear. If you're looking for that bar-band sound, check out "Nancy Whiskey," "The Song With No Name," and "Roddy McCorley."

Phish

A Live One (Elektra/EEG) from Phish arrived this week, and James found himself looking for the flashing red light on the spine! While the package bears some resemblance to another current live album, the contents couldn't be more different. If you've ever seen Phish live (which many in your audience have done), this is the album you've been waiting for. "Bouncing Around The Room" is the lead track, but don't stop there. Try "Stash" (my favorite Phish song), "Gumbo," a brand new song not on any of their albums, and "Chalkdust Torture," the track that thrust Phish into the Progressive spotlight.

Bruce Hornsby

Bruce Hornsby's forthcoming album is preceded by the single "Cruise Control" which you'll find on the latest FMB Aircheck CD if you haven't received the CDPro from RCA. The song is an upbeat, tightly produced pop song that should do well at multiple formats. Jerry Garcia's familiar guitar sound graces this song, and really gives it the adult appeal. While the song is a return to Hornsby's pre-Harbor Lights pop sound, it has enough character that saves it from becoming just another pop song.

Keri Leigh Arrival (Waldoxy)

Review by Scott Miner, host of The Blues Blowout
 WIVI-FM, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands

When the Waldoxy rep called and asked if I'd received the new Keri Leigh release, Arrival, my first question was, "Keri WHO?" Then I remembered a couple of ads I had read in one of the trades, raving about Keri Leigh and the Blue Devils. So I listened. Each time I listen, I like what I hear more and more. Keri has a great blues voice, whether she's belting out an uptempo number like Koko Taylor's "Voodoo Woman" or the self-penned "New Thang," or whether she's quietly authenticating Delta blues songs like, "Here's Your Mop, Mr. Johnson" or "Hobo Train". She even does some jazzy crooning on the CD's last cut, a cool tune called "Florida Sunset". The songs are evenly divided between originals and tasty covers - I really like her take on Gregg Allman's "Please Don't Keep Me Wondering", Keri's cohort from the Blue Devils and songwriting partner on all the originals, guitarist Mike Lyon, plays one mean slide! Listen to his playing on "Hobo Train" (that's a National Steel); this cat knows his blues. The whole recording uses a righteous amount of horns, never obtusive, but filling in dynamical-ly in just the right spots. I like this CD!

Programmer Spotlight

Randi Anglin

Photojournalist and

Sometimes Host of

Crossroads

WVBR, Ithaca, NY

(607)347-4745

You are a man with two titles. One reads "Randi Anglin — Sometime Host of Crossroads" and one reads "Randi Anglin — Photojournalist." What exactly are your claims to fame?

I started the show "Crossroads" at WVBR in Ithaca, NY around 4 or 5 years ago. After several months, a 50,000 watt station (WQNY) said, "We want to add a blues show to our station and we want you to do it." I reinvented myself and called the show "Nothing But The Blues." I hosted and produced NBTB for 3 1/2 years, playing the best in blues and doing interviews with Johnny Winter, Lonnie Brooks, Johnny Clyde Copeland, and others. When the station changed format, cut the show's length by half and moved its broadcast time to a less desirable slot, the show stopped being fun and I resigned. Frank James, the regular host of "Crossroads" these days, asked if I'd like to do the show from time to time, and I said yes. That's why I'm "Sometime Host."

And the "Photojournalist" part?

I've been a photojournalist for years. The radio thing has always been a fun thing. Don't get me wrong, I'm very serious about radio and how I conduct myself on the radio, but when you have to photograph burning babies and other unfun stuff for a newspaper, then you pick your outside interests with pleasure in mind. Fortunately, I'm not doing as much of the hard news these days, and I can concentrate on what I really enjoy, which is photographing live music.

You were just in Chicago to shoot players at the Blues Fest. Any good stories from that?

The Chicago Blues Fest is such a good time. This was my fourth year and I always have fun schmoozing with record people, radio people and the artists. This year I was photographing for Guitar Player and a monthly photo feature I have, called "Hand Jive." Each month, the magazine runs two photos of mine that feature the hands of a guitarist with his or her guitar. The first photo is a close-up of just hand and guitar. Readers are encouraged to guess the identity of the mystery performer. The answer is revealed when the reader turns the page to find a full-length photo of performer and guitar. The series started in the May issue with Ron Wood. I had made arrangements to photograph Luther Allison and Otis Rush backstage at the fest, but my plans had to be cancelled because of a snag with the Mayor's Office of Special Events in Chicago. It was a bum deal, but I was able to make some decent performance shots that will have to do.

What are some other opportunities you've had to travel and see great shows in the name of photojournalism?

I shoot most of the music for a newspaper in Syracuse where I work. For them I shot Pearl Jam, Buddy Guy, Robert Plant, Jerry Garcia, the Allman Brothers, Michael Bolton (ugh), Michael Hedges and tons of others. I'm also shooting for Blues Revue these days, and in April shot the Jacksonville Blues Festival (not a bad place to be when there's still snow on the ground in New York). For the last seven years, I've been photographing Steve Morse of the Dixie Dregs (my photos are on the 1992 Grammy-nominated live album "Bring Em' Back Alive") and the Steve Morse Band (I shot the cover and the inside shots for the new one, "Structural Damage").

What about "Crossroads?" Do you still try to be active with the blues show?

Because of my work schedule these days, I'm limited to how many Saturdays I can devote to radio. But I still do shows whenever I can, and I really miss not doing it every week.

What do you like most about photographing musicians? And what do you like least?

I like meeting them and finding out that they're real people. When I met Eddie Van Halen recently, it was a great thrill to meet the man who has launched the career of many a guitarist, but it was interesting to see him as a normal guy who loves his family and has a lot of fun at work. The worst thing about the job would have to be waiting around. Sometimes I have to answer stupid questions by drunk people who have come to see the band. But other than that, it's still bunches of fun.

What's next for you?

Tomorrow I leave for a photo workshop with Lynn Goldsmith. She has shot lots of album covers and done work for Rolling Stone and magazines like that. I'm hoping to learn more about the business end of music photography. I have a few photo book ideas that I'd like to explore, including a book of my "Hand Jive" shots.

It came as no surprise to anyone that Morbid Angel appeared onto the metal scene with arguably the most brutal releases of the year. With the unforgiving Domination, they have burrowed up into the Top 10 as the band is gearing up for a summer tour with Grip, Inc. in tow. Guitarist Trey Azagthoth checked in with us as the album was released and the only word that can describe the conversation is "intense". The man has more determination and focus than a heat seeking missile, but we will let his words speak for themselves.

So, how are things going?

Trey: We just finished a video this weekend for 'Where The Slime Live', and it's gonna be phenomenal.

Tell me about the video.

Trey: The lyrics are tapping into the message of not letting oppressing factions manipulate you and steal your dreams and turn you into a puppet. Those people who try to pull the strings of the masses are the slime and they hide and they cower and they snivel and they scrape — they are the lord of the corporate scraper — that is what it is about. It's talking about the coward hunching over in some little corner, because they are sniveling cowards, and the people are beautiful, the people are all full of potential and the people have to get it together in their minds and let it come out. It's like 'Where the slime live, where are these motherfuckers that are trying to pull my strings'. It's a vicious weapon against that — not against everybody, that's stupid — but we are a vicious weapon against factions of oppression that would try and steal people's dreams and try and manipulate people into being puppets and sheep. We are a vicious attacking, dominating weapon against that.

How did it translate on film?

Trey: I played three different roles in this video. I'm a big person. I have so many faces. I'm not limited or loyal to one. I am loyal to me. In numerology, I am a three. Three is the most perfect, brilliant number, period. No other number can touch three. In the video I play the guy playing rhythm in black pants and black T-shirt. I was slugging away on the guitar. My other role was as the slug-master. I wore a poncho, in this guerilla warfare outfit. I was the slime god with the 7-string guitar being what I am. Then I was this energetic thing. It was energy and power and excitement. I got to show my many faces. I never got to do that before. The video crew, the Underground in L.A., was phenomenal. It was great, it was a team effort. We had a good talk. I told them my ideas. We got to the bottom line. I did my job, the director did his job. We did our jobs and made beauty.

In regards to the constraints that you describe in 'Slime', do you think you respond to that more because Florida is so politically conservative, or do you think it's a national problem?

Trey: I think it's a worldwide problem. I do my own thing, my world is beautiful. My little world, my house, where I live, everywhere I walk is beautiful, I have manipulated my little area to be serving me. Because my area should serve me, your area should serve you. Who knows what alignments we have or dis-alignments we have. In other words, maybe I like this and you like something else, we might like opposite things, who is right and who is wrong. I think I am right about me, and you are right you. That's the bottom line, that's what everyone should think about, there is no one right to govern all, other than maybe the laws of the land, trying to make organized society out of chaos. To me chaos is a beautiful tool, but obviously how can a country that is spewing forth chaos ever have a chance to do anything? That is going to be just crazy. You know, it takes effort to make order — chaos is natural. Just like dust, if you don't dust, you can be damn sure to know that those things are gonna be there, you can't hide from 'em. You have to make an effort to do your part. It's kind of like an analogy trying to say it takes an effort to produce order, chaos is a natural thing.

I know you guys have been around for a long time - ten years. Now you that have solidified your position within your genre, you don't need to prove yourselves, so what are you trying to do musically?

Trey: What we have always tried to do: be the best in the whole universe. Be the best and go after several titles, just like in heavyweight championships, we are going after the heaviest band title, after the fastest band title, after the most paradigm shifting title, after the most shocking band title — all of 'em. I want all of 'em, I won't be satisfied with just one. I want to be the heaviest, the deep-love my parents. Their Christianity doesn't bother me one bit. They don't try to manipulate my life, they don't try and change me. That should be Christianity. It should be something someone chooses for themselves, and they want to be that. That's beautiful. But for someone to say, 'You absolutely have to be this way, or you're going to burn in hell,' that's pathetic. That sounds dis-empowering. I'm against that. That is a dream stealer, a potential crusher.

What are your personal beliefs?

Trey: I'll share a powerful belief with you. It's not important that a belief be 100% accurate. It is most important that a belief be useful. How about that for a belief? I think a lot of people should take that to heart. That's for everybody. That's one belief everyone can share and it's full of as many different ways as there are different kinds of people or different directions. That's a belief. If you want to talk about colors, that belief has no colors. It has no shade, no tones, it is a basic neutral belief that is very powerful. I want to be everything. I want to be totally loving and caring. I also want to be able to produce hate and destruction. They are all tools. I want to be well-rounded. That's why when I am up on stage, I would cut myself and drink my blood. I'm not trying to say it's cool, not that everyone should do it. It's just what I want to do. I'm expressing myself, and I don't give a shit about people if they like it or not. It's me. The next thing, is that I give. I help. I like to help people.

Do you consider yourself a death metal band?

Trey: I define death metal as the most extreme form of music. You would probably not believe that. When the big wave of death metal came out, most had the first part down. They were extreme. They missed the second part. They don't understand music. Or maybe their music is not musical. They had the art, the extreme, and to the average listener, what is music. Music is music. It started with people like Mozart, who created incredible stuff. Pitches and harmonies and sounds and vibrations, est, the quickest, the fastest, the most aggressive, and also when I talk I want to devastate people with my intelligence. Most bands aren't that smart - 'Hey man, give me a beer, everything is cool, everything is fine' - you're not going to get that out of me. I'm gonna be positive, but I am not blind to things. I know what is going on and I think for myself. I'm not going to tell you what's cool, I am going to tell you what the bottom line is, and hopefully that will be cool. Because cool is a marketing thing somehow - it's cool to be fooled. That's what I think - it's cool to be fooled - that is meaningful, you should write that down. That's a very sarcastic expression. People can be fooled to give up what they really think about something, to fit in, to be cool, they like it because of that. They don't like it because they really like it.

From the beginning, has that been the goal of the band?

Trey: From the very beginning. I singlehandedly started this band in 1984. I developed the style, I developed the way the lyrics were going to read. I developed the sound, the riffs, the arrangements, from the beginning, and then of course as I get new team players — we all are a team now. I've selected people. I want people to join in who are going to enhance what I'm trying to do, and not just throw in a lot of slop and strip it away. You're as strong as your weakest link. The band has always been a horrible, vicious weapon against factions of conformity. I say Christianity has been one of those factions. I don't mean personal Christianity. I'm talking about when it's really messed up. When there are people saying, 'Send us money, send us money,' that's a pathetic attempt at Christianity. My parents are Christians. I that when you listen to them, it makes you feel wonderful. It brings out feeling. Our band is the most extreme form of music-period. No one is more extreme, and no one is as musical, while still being as extreme. We are not in any category. I want to say we are death metal. When I started playing guitar, I was thinking death metal was the most extreme form of music. When you are a god of death metal, you're the god of music. It just so happens, other people don't interpret death metal like that. They think death metal is 'satanism' and 'evil.' 'Kill people, burn down churches, and make a bunch of noise on your instrument.' I'm not into that. I don't burn down people's churches. I might burn down a church if they first try and burn down my house. Then they are attacking me personally. I let people live and let live. I don't believe in infringing on people's rights.

Do you study classical music? When you were growing up, what drew you into being the type of artist you are now?

Trey: I never studied music. Before I started playing guitar, I was always one of those kids who played air guitar. My favorite guitar player growing up was Eddie Van Halen. The Van Halen of the late '70s, early '80s, with David Lee Roth, was the greatest in the universe. They did new stuff. They were shocking, they were paradigm shifters all day long. They were going against the grain. They were the guys who were saying, 'I don't care if I can write this shit on paper. I've got an idea in my head. I'm going to fucking bring it out in any way, shape or form. I don't care if I have to justify it, or write it on paper or make it politically correct.' That's crazy. It's feeling. Music is art. It's something that starts in the head, it starts in the soul. You bring it out through your body, your shell. You make magic happen. I thought Eddie Van Halen was the greatest. He'll always be the greatest. It doesn't matter what style of music he plays today, no one has ever topped what he did. Jimi Hendrix is the next guy. Hendrix came out, a paradigm shifter all day long. A god. A guy who came out and played with total feeling. Those are gods in my opinion. That is godliness. I love Frank Moreno, and the Mahogany Rush. All these bands I love are definitely '70s, early '80s. Today's music doesn't appeal to me. People have lost the whole meaning of music. That doesn't mean they suck, it's just not for me. I'm just so grateful that I can buy a CD of the '79 release of Frank Moreno and Mahogany Rush, or all the Van Halen CDs. I'm so glad all of it's available. I would be so upset if people said, 'That stuff is old. You don't want to live in the past. I don't care if it's good or not. It's old. It's done. Now you have to listen to what is today.' I'll listen to video game music, then. I'll listen to Asian devotional songs. I get more feeling out of that than I do from bands today on MTV. I don't watch MTV a lot, but it does show what is big today. I'm not into those bands much. I'm not into that style. A great band today? Paw, from Kansas. You listen to them, and they make you feel good. They have rhythm, feeling. That guy is an incredible vocalist. He's not Pavarotti, but he's got feeling and he sings with conviction. He's incredible. It's not death metal. I like music that makes me feel good. Stuff that is horrible — scary, attacking stuff — that makes me feel good, too.

What are the origins of the band? Also, I understand you have a new guitarist, Erik Rutan.

Trey: That's right. He's incredible. We searched forever for a guy like this. I started the band in 1984. I grouped together with different artists, trying to get the right clique together. You're only as strong as the weakest link. My goal is stronger than just being cool and buddy-buddy with people. I don't believe in that. I don't believe in something getting in the way of me winning. My winning isn't stepping on people. If a guy can't play what I want him to play, why is he in the band. It doesn't make sense. Am I supposed to redefine what I have to play. No way. That's bullshit. It's fake. I got musicians who can do what I've got going. It's a team effort. It's not just me. I don't do everything. I do my part. My part is a big one, but I do my part. I need other people to do their part. This guitar player is a genius. He's never had any real training. He found his own instrument. And his way of playing by being one with the instrument. He was in a band called Ripping Gore. They were doing okay, but there were some problems where they weren't really booming. Some of the guys in the band weren't so enthused about the goal. Maybe they were too busy making a living and not designing a life. I design a life. I don't make a living. It's an impotent goal. If you get up every morning and say, 'God, I've got to go to work. I've got to pay the bills.' That's pathetic. How can you feel happy about that? That's not real. I'm not like that. Erik came from New Jersey. Pete, the drummer, came from L.A. and Dave Vincent, the vocalist-bass player came from North Carolina.

You've been with Dave and Pete for a long time.

Trey: Dave joined in '87, or late part of '86. Pete joined in '88. Erik first toured with us, and we thought he did an amazing job. I invited him to be a member of the band. Of course, all of us agreed, but I said, 'Erik, I want to work with you. I want us to be a guitar team,' like Judas Priest in the old days. I wanted to have him complement me and me complement him. I wanted to get something going — a team effort, a team player. That's all about being part of something. Everybody is helping each other, you're all growing and loving the process. That's where this band is at.

I understand that your name is derived from the name of an ancient spirit.

Trey: It's the ancient, Sumarian god of chaos. It seemed like something applicable to me. It was a sign of me. It's a real deep, esoteric thing. It was a force I wanted to be one with, but not limited to having only that. It's a tool. I use tools, tools don't use me. I'm the mechanic. I have a toolbox filled with the tools for me to get the job done. I am loyal to my tools. I will not use them for something they are not made to do. I won't take a hammer to bust off a nut. I won't try and knock in a screw with a hammer. That's abusing a tool. I use a wrench for a wrench. Pliers have their purpose, too. Using pliers on a nut will strip it. That's proving you're using a tool for the wrong application. Azagthoth is a tool that helps me be what I want to be. It enhances a side of me that helps me produce music. I made a new line of personalized picks. I have this company I'm working on, called Chewing Incorporated. The logo is a piranha. It's not a mean piranha, it's a fun piranha. It's a cartoon piranha that's about chewing. And what is chewing? I associate chewing with picking the guitar. That is another tool. I focus on this pick with the piranha on it, and I focus my power on that. My chewing has no boundaries.

I've heard stories about your live performance and how over the top it is. Are still as intense?

Trey: I'd say it's more intense. I believe in sustaining what you have now, and grow every day. That's success. When you're comfortable and you stop growing, you fail.

I understand Domination will be released on vinyl. Is there any collectible aspect to the LP?

Trey: There are two different covers. That's because the guy who was going to do the covers, Dan Muro, had two great ideas. We couldn't choose which one we liked more. So, we're going to do both of them. What a concept. They were both phenomenal.

What are your favorite songs on the new LP? 'Where The Slime Live' is the first one. Are there any others that are gems to you?

Trey: I love all the songs. That's what is so unique about this band. We have so much to offer. You can't listen to two songs and say you listened to the whole record. You have to listen to the whole damn record 10-15 times to even begin to absorb all the beauty in it. All the different sides and faces. I love 'Hate Work,' the last song on the record. That's something Erik wrote. It's totally different and pioneering. It's a combination of downtuned guitars and synthesizer stuff. Keyboards with cellos, violins, bells and timpanis. There are no actual drums, but drum samples. It's a classical doom, scary, horrifying kind of thing sung through a distortion box. It's the first time Dave has ever sung through a distortion box. He always produces the voice he wants naturally, because the dude is dynamic. He's got the diaphragm from hell. Just because he can do it, he's open to do all different things. It's a really neat effect, an enhancement.

He makes it that much more grinding. I didn't even play a lead in that song, so I didn't have anything to do with writing it. But I love it. I listen to it and say, 'Man, that's happening.' I've written everything for this band except for one song, 'Lion's Den,' which was on Covenant. For me to have a new guy come into the band and write a new song I'm dying over, that's a great team effort. That's success all day long. When I say success, I don't mean money. I'm saying it's winning. It's art.

A radio director wanted us to ask you, why you are such an awesome guitarist?

Trey: I play with my feelings. I've never taken any lessons. I've got potent goals in my guitar-playing. I'm very enthusiastic about what I'm trying to do. I'm trying to create another wave of new types of ideas and feelings, while making up my own techniques. My kind of guitar player was Eddie Van Halen. He changed the whole musical world. I believe that and a majority of people in guitar believe that. Maybe not everybody. Maybe some people hated him. I love him. I wanted to come out and be myself with my own techniques, like Mozart. He wrote music and people said, 'Wow, so many notes. I don't get it.' He died and then became a god. He's the greatest. Bach and Beethoven are great, too, but Mozart created more ingenious stuff than any other one composer. I play with total feeling. I don't read guitar magazines and learn the latest licks. I don't build songs around solos. I write a song, and if I can fit a solo in there, so be it. The song's integrity — the arrangement, the groove, the rhythm, the drum beat — I'm all over that. That's what I'm all about. My guitar playing is outstanding, because I want to be outstanding. I think outstanding, because I have powerful goals. I'm writing licks for myself. When we go into the studio, I'm recording something because I want to take the CD home and listen to it and get ultimate joy out of it. I get joy out of things that make me feel good. I decide and define what makes me feel good.

How about some of your playing on the new album?

Trey: Let me tell you about some of my leads - In "Caesar's Palace" I have the cichlid, gill flailer and gravel spitter lead. It's basically about an Oscar fish. And after that I have the piranha jumbo lead - and there is a big story in that. A cichlid is a kind of fish where he does these certain kinds of things. When he feels threatened, he is very territorial, he flairs. The beginning of the lead, the cichlid is in his home, and he's bugged because something is in there. So he starts flaring, and then he turns sideways and twitches his tail, and then the next step there is some chewing going on, and then he grabs a mouth full of gravel and showers it out of his mouth. That's him, going through all of that to try and spook whatever was coming into his territory, and then once it was all said and done it was all a big bluff, and when he found out his bluff didn't go over, he hauls ass. The second lead, is what was he trying to bluff. He was trying to bluff a piranha, or a school of piranhas. Well, they are all about confidence. They are confident, powerful, unyielding and unstoppable. They are chewing with a steady pace of chewing, and that's the piranha jumbo lead, and he kicks his ass. And then I have gas giant lead, that's in 'Burn With Me', that is in two sections - it's just like Jupiter, or any other gas giant planet, you got the real small core and it is surrounded by a whole bunch of atmosphere. It's beautiful. Another lead is called the Mancubus lead, that is the monster in the new computer game called Doom. I've got a lead that the Mancubus, who is so busy shoveling shit in his mouth and he is trying to speak at the same time, which means he has it dripping down his throat, and ending up out of his mouth - understand? That's a lead. A Mancubus shit eating lead. And that is in the 'Eyes to See, Ears to Hear'. Now, "Where The Slime Live", that's one of my favorites, it's starts off with the high business mind opening, and then goes into the high business prosperity thrust, and the customer welcome sweep. And those are the techniques, that's what I call my techniques. I'd much rather write a lead that is like a fish, or like a gas giant, something incredible, something much huger than some little book that says what the latest lick is.

You seem to be goal-oriented and have a positive attitude. What do you find so appealing about the darkened, 'evil' imagery?

Trey: I am The Omen. When I was a little kid and went to 'The Omen,' I said, 'This guy is a God. I want to be just like him. He's bad. He's powerful. He's shocking.' I am shocking. To be devoted to that is only one part of me, there is another that likes friendship and family and happiness and joy. To me, that is equally important. It's up to me to master it and keep it in perspective. Basically, this band's message is not 'kill Christians and burn down churches', that's pathetic. This band is about 'be yourself, and don't let these organizations to pull your strings - don't let that happen. Do what you feel is best for yourself.' I believe that human beings are incredible, and full of potential, and they have to exercise it, and feel it is okay to be an individual.

Is there an ultimate goal or are you just trying to keep striving past what you have done?

Trey: That's right, and I can say that success would be an ultimate goal. I have it right now, I am living it right now. Success, the ability to sustain what you have now, and every day be able to grow a little bit. The purpose is stronger than the outcome. Those are incredibly powerful things, that when you put that into action you'll shake the world. It is up to the individual to say what is enjoyment, to me enjoyment feels good, then I can be in a peak creative state. What a concept, I can produce so much stuff at that point. You can use different beautiful stuff in whatever way you see fit. There are no boundaries, or certain applications with it. It's just great shit.

And your channel is the band?

Trey: That is my music channel.

The most visible channel anyway.

Trey: That is going to change because I am going to be coming out from all angles probably in a couple of years.

I tell you I turned 30, and I am unstoppable now. I challenge anyone to try and stop me. I am not going to hurt anybody, but I will be unstoppable and that is something I made the decision in myself where I will be unstoppable at this point. And my direction is to enhance everybody but not take from anybody, in other words do what I want to do with whoever I want, as much as I want, whenever I want, and then hopefully benefit others. But nothing is going to stop me from achieving that, nobody has the right to do that. And I share that with everybody. Everyone should have goals like that. Something that is powerful that you are excited about, where you wake up in the morning and you say 'My God, today I feel phenomenal. What can I do today that will enhance the quality of my life?' The bottom line is do what you feel best about and that is the reason why you should do it, because you want to.

COVER PICK

Motorhead - "Sacrifice" (CMC International)

When it comes to consistency and longevity, nobody can match the expedition of Motorhead. After a career of legal problems, personnel changes, and label switches, it is clear that a nuclear explosion couldn't sway Lemmy and company from travelling the grooved musical path that they have dredged out after 20 years (yes, you read that correctly) and 18 albums. Trends have come and gone - many bands have come and gone - but their bass driven groove and their determination to perform are as certain as death and taxes. After working their last offering Bastards through the tiny ZYX Records (and still received just as much radio airplay), the band is back with the greater distribution at CMC International and have slimmed down to the efficient trio that they started as with longtime member Phil Campbell on guitars and well known drummer Mikkey Dee (King Diamond/Dan Dokken) back for his third release with the band. When you think of classic Motorhead, songs like "Iron Fist", "Ace of Spades", and "Orgasmatron" quickly come to mind, but the music on the upcoming Sacrifice album is not a watered down version of early material. It exhibits that rebellious spark that Lemmy always manages to conjure up, even after all of these years. "Sacrifice" is the prototypical Motorhead jam, with a popping rhythmic groove that illustrates how they boogie like no other metal band can. On the other hand, "Fade to Black" is a more dirgy track, squeezing out riffs in a bludgeoning fashion and then speeding things up like a charging locomotive before coming back to the original grinding pace. Lemmy is truly a legend, achieving more without a commercial "hit", such as a memorable appearance on The Tonight Show and a Grammy nomination, than any band could ever hope. The original grunge band, they have never felt the need to modernize their sound or create an image, they always just wanted to sound like Motorhead. Which is what they do best.

Circle Jerks, Oddities, Abnormalities, & Curiosities (Mercury)

With the explosion of the Southern California punk scene, it's understandable that one would grow weary of all the groups jumping on the bandwagon. The Circle Jerks, on the other hand are not only ahead of the trend, they are part of the wood that makes up the wagon that everybody is leaping onto. Their career began back in the early days, developing with and respected on the same level as, the now classic Black Flag and Fear. Featuring founding members Keith Morris and guitarist Greg Heston (who is also a member of Bad Religion), Oddities, Abnormalities, and Curiosities is jam packed with twelve examples of pure punk energy. Losing no intensity in the past fifteen years, the entertainment is especially high on initial focus track "I Wanna Destroy You", which features background vocals from none other than teeny-bopper Debbie Gibson and L7's Suzi Gardner. Some early airplay came in at WCDB, WDBM, WNHU, and WVBR from the 7" release, but with a collection of new Circle Jerk material it won't be odd, abnormal or curious to see them climbing up the Hard Hitters chart.

TOP PICKS

Eleven, "Why" (Hollywood)

Some bands skyrocket their way onto the scene with a hit song on their debut release and sell a kajillion copies. Which is nice, but after an album or two they tend to disappear. Eleven falls into another category of successful bands, laying down brick by brick until they have a strong foundation to build from. Their last album pulled in rave reviews as the band hit the road with Pearl Jam - who liked their talents enough to snag drummer Jack Irons - Candlebox, and Soundgarden.

"Why" is a perfect sample of Eleven's musical personality, featuring a folksy rhythm, acoustic guitars and powerful, walloping bass (reinforced by the drums of Soundgarden's Matt Cameron) that are diverse, and at the same time, robust and aggressive. Eleven have enjoyed a strong following at Hard Hitters - the last release charted for the good part of a year. With the current radio environment searching out new and eclectic yet potent styles, the next year could be a productive one for Eleven.

Shihad, Killjoy (Noise)

One of the most exciting aspects of music is being turned onto new artists and new sounds. To most of us, New Zealand is completely foreign and fairly unreachable, but after checking out Killjoy, the first U.S. distributed offering from New Zealand natives Shihad, the chasm doesn't seem quite as large. They have already enjoyed a taste of success at home - the single "I Only Said" hit #3 on the charts - and in Europe, where they have appeared in festivals like the Reading and Dynamo along with touring with Faith No More. With a fan club consisting of Killing Joke's Jaz Coleman, Pantera's Vinnie Paul, Metallica's Kirk Hammett, and FNM's Mike Bordin, the members of Shihad are hoping to find some enthusiastic fans at radio as well. Sonic guitar blasts, that hit with the force of concrete, explode into a supernova of industrial tinged sounds and melodies. Despite the growing popularity of this sound, Shihad manage to carve out their own significance by virtue of their ability to be powerful without being overwhelming. Airplay is already showing up at WKLL, KMSA, KUNV, and XEQC adding to the positive early forecast for success.

Silverchair, Frogstomp (Epic)

Recognize the name? Does it sound familiar? It should, it belongs to the Aussie trio who virtually came out of nowhere to invade the airwaves of many a format with their melodic, hook laden single, "Tomorrow". Now, the metal masses have been serviced with the full length that sired the magnificent track, and even though you may have your doubts about this band, we don't. Having offered a turbulent album - ranging from tracks that are caustically heavy and fueled by a torrent of drum beats to those that are richly textured with fluent guitar lines. They have proven they can rock just as hard as the rest of 'em, but have added that magical ingredient - incurable catchiness - to come up with material that will have your listeners demanding more. Interested in hearing more? Then pop in the disc and cue up the first track "Israel's Song", one that begins with the most bruising of bass lines; or move on to "Faultline", whose strength lies in layers of crunchy guitars. The aggressive musical style of "Madman" or the Sabbath-esque grooves of "Leave Me Out" also make them standouts. Need more encouragement? Then ask those at WKNC or WSOU who added the album early, joining the fifteen others (5 of which - KMSA, KZRQ, WGLS, WMHB, and WXZR - reported increases) who helped make the single one of the Hard Hitters Top Movers of the week.

24-7 Spyz, Temporarily Disconnected (Enemy)

When the 'Spyz first appeared back in 1989, there wasn't any Rage Against the Machine or Downset on the scene - there were one of only a handful of multi-racial, multi-format hard rockin' artists. Their Relativity debut Harder Than You, and the follow up Gumbo Millennium, established their talent as both songwriters and musicians. After a long break (their last offering was 1992's Strength in Numbers) 24-7 Spyz are back with Temporarily Disconnected, which features their chunky metallic guitar riffs coupled with funkified melodies and ska-influenced vocals. Now that their long time style of music has become in vogue, maybe their second trip around will bring even greater rewards for their hard work.

Queensryche, "Someone Else?" (EMI)

As their tour continues to enthrall fans throughout the U.S. of A, reminding anyone who may have forgotten just why they are so beloved, Queensryche bring more of their studio work to the radio with the delivery of the "Someone Else?" CD-pro. The musicianship and talents of this five-man band are unsurpassed, with Geoff Tate's vocals second to none. Which then, leads us to believe that is exactly why the vocal work is the focal point of this intense track. While the magnificent simplicity of the album version is compelling enough as a finale to the Promised Land, the 7 minute and 2 second, full band version adds an entire new dimension and dexterity to the song, giving true 'Ryche fans even more of a reason to play them. Five adds were reported last week at WCWP, WGLS, WKLL, WKNC, and WMHB with plenty of increased spin action around the corner. Don't wait for "Someone Else" to tell you, bring more Queensryche to your listener's awaiting ears now.

Flotsam and Jetsam, "Blindside" (MCA)

The Arizona-based chronicle began with the delivery of the "Smoked Out" single and continued with the arrival of the full length Drift album. Now, the Flotsam and Jetsam story heads into a new chapter, one that is centered around the tightly woven "Blindside" CD-pro. Succinct, crisp percussion are the driving force behind the song, but it's the unusual rhythm and the off-beats that give the song a metallic personality of it's own. Erik AK's vocals are perfectly complimented by the blend of contrasting guitar lines courtesy of Mike Gilbert and Edward Carlson, Kelly Smith's quick footwork on the bass drum and Jason Ward's quavering bass maneuvering. A radio edit has been offered along side the album's original, with the Flotsam version of "Fairies Wear Boots" thrown in to give programmers a bit more variety. Early reaction from KNDI, WMHB, and WUNH, who came on "Blindside" a week early, was nothing but positive leading us to believe that many more Hard Reporters will be making space on their air-waves for the third verse of the Flotsam fable.

TOP PICKS

Po' Boy Swing, "Why Bother" (Royalty)

Just when you thought that the corporate web was too strong for a smaller indie band to penetrate, a band like Po' Boy Swing comes along and proves that good songs and hard work can pay off. Earlier this year Po' Boy Swing landed at hard rock radio, and collected enough support to climb onto the charts on the strength of songs like "Not Fade Away" and "Both Ways", along with a national tour alongside Dangerous Toys. Well, it's not time to put the CD away yet with the emphatic force of "Why Bother" ready to impact your show. The grinding and churning guitar rhythms kindle the energy, but it is the sharp croon of vocalist Mark DiCarlo that captures your attention. Also included is the brooding, musical saga of "Peace of Mind". KZAK, WKNC, WNHU, KXFX, and WXZR have already found reasons to bother with Po' Boy Swing, adding "Why Bother" into their rotations.

Bad Seed, "Numb" (Rockworld)

Bad Seed, who have been seen on the Hard Hitters Impact Chart for quite awhile now, are looking to rejuvenate the sounds coming from the radio waves by delivering another single for metal radio mass consumption. Smooth whiskey soaked vocals and harmonies smothered over layers of guitar grooves help give this four piece (Louie Leeman - vocals/guitar; Dante Scioscia - vocals/bass; Jason Trenczer - guitar; and Ron Colandrea - drums) create a sound distinctly their own. Culling their alterna-rock sound from a variety of influences, Bad Seed are able to offer a track that is subtle at times and a bit brash at others. A yielding, guitar driven track seasoned by musical tangents that rise and fall in indignant waves of ferocity. 7 early adds came in on "Numb", with spins reported on KUNV, WCWP, WKTA, WMHB and WUNH. With early stats like that, the official add week should help increase their current 202 spin count. Look for Bad Seed to take their sounds out on the rock road with the Organization beginning July 5th.

FILINGS

Of utmost importance, and relating to this week's add list, is the full length disc from Shi-had (Noise). The record, Killjoy, should be a one of your June 26th and 27th adds, and is rumored to sound good on the air cuz it comes complete with grinding riffs a la Helmet and pumping percussion. If you have any doubts, follow in the lead of KMSA, KUNV, WKLL, and XEQC who have already cued up the record with reported spins last week... Motorhead (CMC International) return once again (they have notched nearly 20 years in the bell of their musical career) with their newest single, "Sacrifice". Three Hard Reporters (KNDI, WBGU and WDBM) jumped on the track early, now the rest of you should add the track today. Then mark the July 17th/18th boxes on your calendar as a reminder when the full length of the same name is scheduled to arrive. Those of you attending the July 10th Motorhead/Black Sabbath gig at NYC's Roseland will be treated to the filming of the concert and release party footage by ABC's "In Concert". The clip will then air late in September... Those from the old-school of punk rockers, the Circle Jerks (Mercury) are back in music-land, this time with Oddities, Abnormalities and Curiosities album, that arrives complete with "I Wanna Destroy You" the metal radio focus track... The Hollywood Records trio known as Eleven return to the metal masses with the "Why" CD-single. KNDI, KQAL, and WMHB has already given the disc some spinage, in anticipation of the full length Thunk arrival in mid-July... The funksters in 24-7 Spyz (Enemy) have returned to metal radio armed with the eleven track Temporarily Disconnected album. Add the Jimi Hazel produced album now. P.S. KUSF already dropped them into rotation... Po' Boy Swing (Royalty) aren't strangers to the metal radio waves after a successful chart jaunt with the arrival of Lite & Sweet, and now want to continue their stay with the release of the "Why Bother" CD-single, album version, special radio mix and the album version of "Peace of Mind"... KNDI, WSDU and WXZR have already discovered the texture of The Tea Party (EMI) sound, now with the official add date of "Fire In The Head" the rest of you can turn your listeners onto their mesmerizing music by putting one of the two versions found on the CD-pro on the air... The trio known to the metal community as Collision (Chaos/Columbia), return with their sophomore effort, the Coarse EP. Once you add it, you have four tracks to choose for your show... Flotsam and Jetsam (MCA) find themselves firmly planted among the top artists on the Impact chart, and have been so for a number of weeks now. To keep the momentum going, a new CD-pro has been serviced to metal-heads far and wide. June 26th/27th received the nod as the official add date(s) for the "Blindside" CD-single - which contains a radio edit and an album version of "Blindside", along with the album version of "Fairies Wear Boots". Go ahead, join KNDI, WMHB and WUNH and give it some spins... Bad Seed (Rockworld) are gearing up for a national tour with The Organization (Metal Blade), so to help make your audience more familiar with the band drop the new single, "Numb", in for adds and spins beginning June 26th and 27th. Seven reporters have already become part of the trend, with a handful of spins reported on the likes of KUNV, WCWP, WKTA, WMHB and WUNH... An add on your official list for the first week of July should go to the new product delivered by Philly's own, Dandelion (Ruthhouse)... Sheer Terror (MCA/Blackout) are headed back to the metal front with the July 11th and 12th add dates for "Not Waving, Drowning", the first single to arrive from the band's upcoming release, Love Songs For The Unloved. The rest of the record is scheduled for mass consumption July 31st/August 1st... The New York based band Warrior Soul have found a new home on the Futurist label, and will be heading back to the metal waves with the July 31st/August 1st arrival/add date of the Spaceage Playboys album... Word from the Amorphis (Nuclear Blast/Relapse) camp is that the band will be entering the studio to record their follow-up to last year's Tales From The Thousand Lakes. This is the first release featuring the vocal work of Ville Tuomi... My Dying Bride (Futurist) will deliver brand new material, to be found on the Angel In The Dark River disc, sometime in September... From now until the week of September 26th, you will read about the upcoming Cathedral (Earache) release, The Carnival Bizarre. Rumor has it, this is the band's best record yet. The final shows on the current KoRn (Epic/Immortal) and Sugar Ray double billing are June 27th in New York, New York; June 26th in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; on the 28th in Washington, DC; on the 30th in Savannah, Georgia; and finally, on July 1st in Atlanta, Georgia. After which the boys in KoRn will be climbing aboard this summer's mega-tour consisting of Megadeth (Capitol), Flotsam and Jetsam (MCA) and Fear Factory (Roadrunner). The four-some will be begin their trek July 12th with a show in Providence, Rhode Island. Turn to the Hard Tour Guide for more specifics... Warrant (CMC International) wrap up their current Ultraphobic tour with shows June 28th in Wilmington, Delaware; on the 29th in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; on the 30th in Baltimore, Maryland; on July 1st in Alexandria, Virginia; on the 3rd in Orlando, Florida; and on the 5th in Tampa, Florida. Then Jani and Co. will be heading over Japan for a string of shows... For those of you into the sounds of the Goo Goo Dolls (Warner Bros.), the trio are back out on the road in support of A Boy Named Goo. Shows are scheduled through July and into August... Bunches and bunches of dates have been slated for the Souls At Zero (Energy) and Life Of Agony (Roadrunner) double billing. The duo will begin their jaunt July 5th (in Washington, DC) with plans of running amuck through such states as Virginia, North Carolina, New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont, before performing their finale on July 27th (in Detroit, Michigan)... Die Warzau (Wax Trax!/TVT) and Sister Machine Gun (TVT) have booked two weeks worth of dates together. The string of dates will run from a July 13th gig in Grand Rapids, Michigan until a July 28th stop in Chicago, Illinois. Take note that Die Warzau will be performing material off their current disc, Engine; while Sister Machine Gun will be preparing the audience for their new album, Burn, to be released in September... Thought Industry (Metal Blade) and Crawl (Pavement) are sharing the stage for five shows booked in Scottsdale, Arizona; El Paso, Texas; Austin, Texas; Dallas, Texas; Houston, Texas; and San Antonio, Texas; July 10th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, and 16th respectively... Malevolent Creation (Pavement) will accompany the release of their album, Eternal, with a whole bunch of shows booked in the states, the first of which is on July 27th in Detroit, Michigan. The shows tentatively wrap up September 4th with a show in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania... Gwen Mars (Hollywood) take to the road in support of Magnosheen, with nine gigs booked between their July 8th outing in Salt Lake City, Utah and a July 19th stop in New York, New York... Even though this summer's Noizefest tour has been cancelled, never fear cuz Crowbar (Pavement) will still take to the road later on in the summer. Look for them to share the stage with Suffocation (Roadrunner) in August. Get well wishes go out to Po' Boy Swing (Royalty) drummer Paul DiCarlo, who was seriously injured in a recent automobile accident. The drummer was injured when the car he had just parked on the top of a steep driveway slipped out of gear and began moving backwards. DiCarlo was behind the car as it began moving and was pushed along with the car until the car crashed into another vehicle at the bottom of the hill, pinning him between the bumpers of the vehicles. Sustaining serious injury, the sixman is currently recuperating in the ICU at Stony Brook University Hospital in Long Island. The band won't be on the upcoming Sweaty Nipples tour as originally planned and have put other tour plans on hold indefinitely. Cards and get well messages can be sent in care of Royalty Records, 176 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10016 (fax 212-779-3255). Just so you know, Chainsaw is looking for an intern to help him out in the Futurist Metal Department. If you are interested or want more info give the guy a call at (212) 2226-7272... The Galactic Cowboys have signed on the Metal Blade Records dotted line, thus joining the label's artist roster officially to begin recording their label debut early on in August. The band previously released to albums on Golden Records, as well as toured with Overkill, Dream Theater, King's X, and Savatage, and are looking to early '96 for the arrival of their new material... F.Y.I., Type D Negative's Peter Steele has been named to Playgirl's 10 Sexiest Men in Rock n' Roll list (he joins the likes of Richard Bona, Slash, Glenn Danzig, Curt Kirkwood, etc) in the August 1995 issue. Not only that, but Steele can also be seen in various stages of undress gracing a multi-page layout, as well as being the subject of the issue's centerfold. Yes folks, that's right, he's naked. In sum, the issue left most of the women in the Hard hut with the only word, one syllable response of 'Wow'. Enough said.

PHOTOS

In the midst of touring, Circle Of Dust were asked to host MTV Latino's Headbanger's, one of the only visual outlets for music on the heavier side of MTV. The band members, Daren Diolosa, Scott Albert, and Jason Tilton, can be seen here on the set sitting behind host Alfredo Lewin.

One of the coolest things about the McGathy weekend get together was the midnight showing of Fight at the infamous CBGB nightspot. It isn't everyday that one gets to stand five feet from rock god Rob Halford, so amateur photographer Chris Kelly braved the pit and snagged this shot of guitarist Brian Tilse and Mr. Halford.

The three smiling faces in this photo came together Friday night sometime in-between The Nixons stellar performance and the bringing on of Fight. No wonder Noise's Paula Kopka, WNYO's Chris Kelly and our very own Holly Mc are so happy.

Yet another Kodak moment captured at the now famous CBGB's performances during McGathy-fest. WNYO's Chris Kelly snuggles up with AIM's Joanne "I Never Look At The Camera" Grand.

Last but certainly not least is this very attractive photo of Pavement's Greg "Once they get a look at this photo no-one will ever compare me to Fabio or Dan Cortese ever again" Derbas. (P.S. Sorry, Greg, we had to do it!) The lovely locks of hair on the left belong to WCDB's Rob Babecki. (Sorry, Rob, had to do that, too!)

Rusty, "Wake Me,"

TAG / Atlantic Group / Handsome Boy

After listening to it on WHTG the other night, our suspicions were confirmed. While the essence of the initial minute or two really doesn't flake off too far afield from what we're already rolling on the air these days, this track has a subtle, creeping effect on the soul. Because by the time the song has finished the job, you're aware of the differences. The punkish 'tude of Rusty cuts through the standard fare with the Canadian objectivity toward the form. They are melodic, aggressive, garage, modern, clever, unpretentious, and restless. Today's Alternative mail had none of that. In fact, we rarely get to see or hear a band in which the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. And adding up this week are LIVE 105, WBRU, WFNX, WMRQ, KEDJ, DMX, KCXX and SWEM, among others. Look for the chart debut next week, as they already have 255 spins at this point.

You Am I, "Berlin Chair,"

Warner Bros/Restless/Ra

Another Australian band comes to the front of the line this week with a record that was previously released on another label. They've also opened for Soundgarden a while ago. And with that kind of rock fan exposure, You Am I made a mark in the buzz department for being heavy without avoiding the rush of that Alternative instinct they possess. Sonic

Youth's Lee Rinaldo kept the production appropriately ragged and live-sounding. This track kicks with some real rock attitude that isn't derivative of the newpunkoextraganza.

Luscious Jackson, "Here,"

Grand Royal/Capitol

Luscious Jackson's known for infectious dance grooves laced liberally with every endearing '70s confection we've grown to finally love and appreciate. Now that we no longer have to bury our heads like ostriches when anything associated with that decade is mentioned. Luckily for us Luscious Jackson conspire to smash the shiny mirrored disco balls as much as they look to preserve them. Slated as the first single from the Clueless soundtrack, the early indicators are that this one will keep the Luscious pace moving steadily ahead from "Here."

Ani DiFranco, "Worthy,"

Righteous Babe

This compelling performer is writing a whole new chapter in acoustic guitar etiquette. Or should we say, smashing the model into matchsticks. DiFranco owns and operates her own label in the Rochester/Buffalo area on which she has released six prior albums that crawl along the same underbelly of the unorthodox. At the same time, Ani is as passionate of an observer as there is in the game. The fusion created between the rancor of her pro grip on that guitar and the evocative chance-taking in the lyric department meets the needs for the adult-leaning stations looking to break through the passivity.

THE SURFING BRIDES

"Everything's Fine"

Already On at WEQX WHYT WNVE CKEY WKOC KJEE KLZR WDST WOWW WOXY WXWX

WEQX - Gary Schoenwetter "The pop hook is obvious, but it's the 90's Generation-X lyric that seem to grab the audience. Top 5 phones for more than a month."

WKOC's Dal Hunter "I'm really happy with the early response. It's lit up the phones!"

This ain't no dress rehearsal. Add It Now!

more choices

Mad Season, "I Don't Know Anything," Columbia

It's the follow-up to the highly-successful "River of Deceit" without the tempo concerns that seemed to come up in the early stages. By now, the Alice in Chains thing isn't really in the way of the story. Mad Season have held up on their own with "River" plenty strong enough to come again with this one. It's a much heavier effort, with eerie overtones, electrics on eleven. The vocal is AIC-ish without a real provocative hook. Slacker moshers all over the real rock universe will rally around this one. Show your crowd the other side of this project.

Smoking Popes, "Need You Around," Capitol

Mighty upbeat — Bosstone-like you might say — with a slight lounge-lizard campiness a la Ringo Starr, and Morrissey-ish lamentations. A strong steady throb from the rhythm section pounds away above the mildly distorted screechiness of the fuzzy guitars. Throw in some good old-fashioned crooning of the first order, and what remains is the typical drone of the possessive/obsessive love song (though not a ballad, mind you). All those elements combine for that perfect niche on any playlist. WMRQ and WPFM picked up this week, joining Q101, WHFS, KROQ, LIVE 105 and others, with a 46* debut.

Ednaswap, "Torn," EastWest/EEG

The appeal of the female singer continues its increasingly resounding popularity as another dominant raspy-voiced entrant joins the fray. Remember the time when the cry went unanswered for the presence of female performers? Hopefully we're well past factoring in gender as an issue. "Torn" portrays the courage of self-assuredness; yet conversely confronts vulnerability not as a liability, but as a strength with cathartic overtones. And this band is touring heads on the road. "Torn" has the guts to go all the way. First singles aside, this is the one that will pay off.

Natasha's Ghost, "Can't Touch Her Now," FUA Records

Meandering nomadically through a chasm of moody textures and driving beats provided by Danny de la Isla, Robert Westlind and John McKenzie, Kelly Neill complements the musicians with an effortless vocal blend. Although they can shift into a jangly gear, bordering on downright positivity, their primacy evokes a dank and dusky identity along with the catchy pop layout. A plaintive buzz whispers beneath the surface seemingly at all times throughout, and a liquid bassline weaves around the foundation. Seething density never sounded so liberating and inspiring. Take the opportunity to distance yourself from the heartless bandwagon competition.

Del Amitri, "Roll To Me," A&M

Del Amitri's new release Twisted is filled with a treasure of impressive new songs. "Roll To Me" is unique with its melodious guitar solos by Iain Harvie and Andy Alston, which perfectly accent Jason Currie's euphoric vocals. "Roll To Me" is striking and inspiring, while the rolling tempo leads you to a treasure of potential energy. This week 6 stations added this jewel to join with the ranks of station like KKNB, KXPX, and WVBR. Roll this one over a few times to feel its eclectic distinctiveness that draws you in.

Surfing Brides, "Everything's Fine," IRS

We talk to a lot of radio around here. We hear the horror stories about how many tunes come across the desk every week that you have to get to, etc. We also hear how you're looking for an edge from your competition. Use your ears. So they're not on MTV. They didn't even make a video. They're not as big as Bush. Yet. This isn't just sheer listenability. This is marketing. Listen to the song. This from WDST's Nic Harcourt: "There's a lot of lame English stuff out there right now, but this isn't one of them. The album's pretty deep. They do what all good English bands do, and that is mix in the most recent American influences with their traditional English pop sensibility. If you play Elastica, if you play Oasis, you should play Surfing Brides."

making the climb

Foo Fighters, "This is a Call," Capitol/Roswell

This is certainly a call. A runaway #1 Most Added with 42 stations on the #1 Buzz Project of the year probably means that the others just didn't get the mail in time. X107's Steve Blatter concurs. "They're great. They're going to be really viable artists."

Polara, "Counting Down," Island

With the mystical atmosphere that surrounds the guitar and drums, this song actually gives you the feeling of being right inside that space shuttle waiting to take off. Stations spinning this one include KAVC, KTCL, KEGE, REV 105, WCBR, Q101 and WFNX.

Throwing Muses, "Shimmer," Reprise

Throwing Muses latest single from the University album is a unique combination of a swelling guitar and soft vocals that equal themselves out beautifully. WDST and WQNF are both spinning this one considerably.

Tricky, "Black Steel," Island

From their new album Maxinquaye, Tricky ripped out a thunderous single called "Black Steel," where the rumbling beat of the drums stirs in your belly. Tricky is certainly going to gain speed with this punky gem that already has stations spinning the hell out of it. KNDD, WRBU, WDST, and WOXY are among those that are on it.

God Lives Underwater, "No More Love," American

After an exhausting weekend for the band, a solid week at radio can't help but heal. 39* on this one, with 467 total spins.

Matthew Sweet, "We're The Same," Zoo

Out of the box-ers this week were 99X, WHTG, WVBR and WWCD. And they were joining WDRE, KKNB, WKOC, REV 105, WEQX and KKNB at that point. Your turn.

“To really feel rock ‘n roll the way I feel it you have to burn as brightly as you can until you turn it off altogether. The turn it on again some other time. If I tried to do every tour and every album going full-out rock ‘n roll, I would die. I would burn out. So it’s just a little at a time.” -Neil Young, November, 1985

Attention Radio Station Reporters and Patriotic Citizens

Due to the 4th Of July holiday, we will take radio reports next week on Friday, June 30th until 4:00 PM EST, and Wednesday, July 5th until 1:00 PM EST. Please fax your playlist to (609) 654-6852 or (609) 654-9179, or call in your report to (609) 654-7272 during those times. If your playlist is frozen, we would also appreciate a quick call or fax. Thank you for your cooperation. Have a nice holiday.

God Bless America & Four Day Weekends!

It's hard for me to properly empathize with those individuals or groups that spend time out of their lives to alert the world about the offensive music they've heard on the radio, or seen in racks, or heard about at the bowling alley or something. I don't have children. I'm not a PTA member. I'm not doing a show in a teen-driven daypart. I don't even know what a Pog is.

They are seeing opportunities to try to steer the course of the future away from the rocky shoreline.

And thus providing more comedy for columnists. I've always thought fiction was overrated.

Take, for example, the case of WYHY/Nashville and their airplay of the new Jill Sobule tune "I Kissed a Girl." They've been on it for the past 6 weeks now, according to the PD of the CHR outlet Charlie Quinn. To say it reacted quickly is an understatement of the highest order.

"The outcry was instantaneous from the moment we played the record," said Quinn on the phone the other day. "People called, faxed, and otherwise complained that we were promoting homosexuality and other offensive behavior and were disappointed in the radio station. In the second week, we had our morning show do a listener poll. The outcome of the poll was 65% positive to continue playing the song. We did the poll as a way to market ourselves with the 'We're listening to you' kind of thing, and perhaps bow out of the thing gracefully. But the song had a much higher popularity rating than we figured. So we slowed down the rotation and pulled in out of teen-driven hours."

And then they added the recorded disclaimer to appear just before the start of the song.

"THE FOLLOWING SONG IS RATED 'R'. PARENTAL GUIDANCE IS SUGGESTED. IF YOU HAVE ANY OBJECTIONS TO THE LYRICS OF JILL SOBULE'S 'I KISSED A GIRL,' YOU SHOULD TURN THE RADIO DOWN FOR THE NEXT 3 1/2 MINUTES. THANK YOU." Followed by air-raid warning sirens and an explosion, and the start of the tune.

Now, as luck would have it, Quinn and company are hearing it from the other side, too. "Those people are saying we copped out. And asking questions like 'Would you put a disclaimer on songs with violence in them, or heterosexual sex references in it?'"

Good questions. But while the glare of the television cameras fill up the offices of WYHY, the reporters notebook pages get flipped, and the June 29th issue of Rolling Stone gets snapped up from the racks in Music City ("In The News" briefly mentions the deal), Quinn will continue to utter the quote that nobody seems to want to print:

"If someone is going to disclaim music, you'd have to pull 250 records off of a country station for their references to drinking binges, promiscuity, domestic violence and other stuff. I am being crucified for one record."

Nice try, Charlie.

Thanks to Lori Blumenthal and everyone at IRS for the dinner and show at Downtime with The Surfing Brides. You are duly directed to listen to "Everything's Fine," the single from their debut record. So what if they're not as huge as Bush right now? Use your ears, folks... And thanks to Bruce McDonald and Rob Acampora of WHTG for the entertaining eve at the Asbury Park Music Awards. Winners included the station, Acampora, The Urchins and Rotator Cuff... Bear in mind that our fabulous album chart reflects the new Bjork album as the proud owner of "Army of Me," instead of Tank Girl, and the Magnificent Bastards are still within the soundtrack family... The first major promo deal brought forth from WNVE/Rochester turned boisterous last weekend during the God Lives Underwater set, when the 4,000 or so Nervefest attendees pressed forward toward the stage, the barricades and the surprised policemen. The moshpit was 'a poppin', and the security concerns at the event were such that police quickly canceled the show, and pepper-sprayed the front row. 26 people were hospitalized (none seriously injured), and 14 people were arrested including lead singer David Riley, charged with inciting a riot. He spent the next 24 hours in jail, and had to post $1,000 bond. They played the next night in Asbury Park, NJ, where WHTG folks noticed that although the band put on a whale of a show, Riley mentioned he was a little tired for lack of sleep. Chuckie "Maids of Gravity/Verve/Trux" from Virgin was there, and in his normal camera-shy fashion spoke up about his point of view of the melee. "What an amazing event the Nerve put on. Kudos to Eric Anderson for his first-ever Modern Rock street party. The unfortunate outcome was a full-scale riot. In my opinion the cause of this mayhem was the full-on misuse of taxpaying power; the Rochester police Dept, who are under-experienced and overfed, used this Modern Rock audience as an exercise to incite a riot and learn how to stop it within 20 minutes. The scariest part of this truth, is when they shot the tear gas into the mosh pit. The mace didn't alarm me - I'm used to that. I wish I had my video camera with me to film this misuse of power for my public access cable show, Paranoid Television. I could sell it to 20/20 immediately for $2,000."... Former EMI National Alternative goddess Shanna Fischer is helping out with the "Sextasy Ball," a tour featuring The Lords of Acid, My Life with the Thrill Kill Kult, Prick, God Lives Underwater and Senser. The Sextasy Ball will reach 49 cities over a 62-day period. The event will be a Lollapalooza-like montage of slide shows, anti-censorship displays, pro-sexual awareness campaigns and a traveling art gallery. Check the tour dates in this section... WEQX kicks off the Alive at Five free summer concert series on Thursday 5/29 with Ivy, The Surfing Brides and local Michael Eck. The show is free, and starts at (you guessed it!) 5 p.m... Chris Isaak will perform live from San Francisco via satellite on Wednesday 6/28 at 8 p.m. Pacific, hosted by KFOG... Oglio Records just began a distribution deal with Navarre Corporation. On July 18th they will release the follow-up volumes to two successful compilations, Punk University and Flashback Cafe. Punk University Vol. 2 has tracks from the Toy Dolls, The Gems, The Dickies, Circle Jerks, G.B.H., The Buzzcocks, Generation X, and Iggy, among others. The Flashback Cafe has Bowie, Joe Jackson, Howard Jones, Talk Talk, and others... Type O-Negative's Peter Steele made Playgirl's 1995 Annual Line-up of the 10 Sexies: Men in Rock and Roll. Roadrunner's press release uses ajectives like "steamy", "sizzling", and "sensual."

W FNX PD Kurt St. Thomas has left the building, heading out the door for an A&R gig with Arista Records. Certainly Kurt is a music fiend of the highest order, and Arista, as would any label who chose to employ him, will reap the rewards of his understanding. No replacement was being named at press time... Also, LIVE 105's Steve Masters is leaving to pursue an opportunity with Mike Jacobs. More on that later...

A British television network has paid almost $10 million for the rights to air the Beatles documentary coming out at the end of this year. It will be on ABC-TV in the U.S.

Warren Haynes and Drivin-N-Cryin have recorded a cover of Robin Trower's "Too Rolling Stoned" for a compilation album being put together (by Capricorn Records) for the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws. The LP will also include tracks from Haynes' band Government Mule, the Black Crowes, Cracker and Cypress Hill.

Country singer Willie Nelson plans to record a reggae album later this year with the late Peter Tosh's backing band.

Authorities say Courtney Love had accidentally taken an overdose of prescription drugs when an ambulance was called to her Seattle home. A witness said Love had taken the medication on a flight from New York and was "unconscious and responsive" when she arrived home. "There was no apparent involvement of any illicit narcotics," said police spokesman Sean O'Donnell. "It appears to be at this point an apparent accidental overdose." Fire department officials found a bottle of pills believed to have caused the overdose. Love was treated at Harborview Medical Center for 12 hours and then released. Her record company says Love suffered a bad reaction to a muscle relaxant.

The new album "The Police Live!" features recordings of two concerts — one recorded in the band's early club days in Boston from 1979 and the other from an Atlanta concert on the band's last full tour.

Ozzy Osbourne refused to open the door to a 16-year-old girl who wanted help because of a traffic accident, but the former Black Sabbath singer says it's because of violent crime around his luxury mansion near the village of Jordans. The teenager pulled an accident victim from his overturned Peugeot 205. Osbourne did let the emergency medical technicians come in his house when they arrived.

Pearl Jam canceled two southern California concerts citing safety concerns by a local sheriff concerned about rowdy crowds. The two shows June 26 and 27 at the Del Mar Fairgrounds in San Diego County were called off after a newspaper reported the sheriff didn't want the shows to take place. "Not to make enemies but it seems the officials in San Diego have over-reacted creating an impossible situation. It's a shame, really," commented singer Eddie Vedder. After the cancellation, the band decided to hold shows on the same two days at the San Diego Sports Arena, which has an exclusive contract with Ticketmaster, which the band last year accused of violating anti-trust laws.

A barefoot Sinead O'Connor lashed out at two Israeli photographers who took pictures of her leaving the Holy Sepulcher Church in the Old City of Jerusalem. "How dare you follow me around the church?" she said, triggering a scuffle that ended with both photographers' cameras broken. O'Connor's bodyguards put a plastic bag over her head and took her to a waiting van. Photographer David Mizrahi says he's filed a complaint with police about the incident.

Andrew Lloyd Webber was given a $750,000 prize as he was named an international Laureate by the Japan Art Association. Webber was one of five winners of the Praemium Imperiale, said to be the world's top arts prize. Webber plans to use the money to take the National Youth Musical Theatre of Britain to Broadway.

British singer Cliff Richard has been given a knighthood by Queen Elizabeth II because of his charity work. "I'm flabbergasted. I feel incredibly proud," he told reporters. "I used to live in a council house in Hertfordshire. It feels quite unreal."

Veteran Irish rock & bluesman Rory Gallagher has died at King's College hospital in London from complications that occurred about six weeks after he underwent a liver transplant in April. Gallagher was 47. Bob Dylan and Van Morrison were among those who sent notes of sympathy to Gallagher's family. Gallagher formed a band called Taste when he was a teenager but then went on to go solo. Bono of U2 says Gallagher was one of the top ten guitarists of all time. "More importantly, he was one of the top ten good guys," Bono said.

Rod Stewart, Santana and Jeff Beck will perform together at the Gorge in George, Washington, in the only date where the Beck-Santana and Stewart tours coincide.

Adam Ant had to cancel the final portion of a 70-date tour of the U.S. and Britain because Ant and guitarist Marco Pirroni are suffering from "acute glandular fever." Doctors have ordered Ant to rest for at least two months because he has an upper respiratory infection. Pirroni has an infected left ear that has caused him to partially lose his hearing. He's being treated by doctors in New York.

American Medical Association delegates have urged record companies to develop a mandatory rating system for recordings. At a policy conference, AMA delegates passed a statement saying destructive and violent lyrics "may desensitize children to real violence without conveying to them the consequences of violent behavior." The AMA says a rating system for music videos ought to also be considered.

Soul Asylum begin a "Dimly Lit" tour in mid-August in support of the album "Let Your Dim Light Shine." The Jayhawks, Matthew Sweet and Victoria Williams will also be on Soul Asylum's first headlining tour in three years.

There's a report that Mick Jagger was the anonymous person who paid $75,000 at a London auction for an early recording he'd made with Keith Richards. The Chicago Tribune says Jagger was afraid to let his identity be known for fear the price of the 34-minute tape would rise.

Motley Crue drummer Tommy Lee Jones and his wife, Pamela Anderson, are expecting a baby next February. It would be the first child for both.

Bon Jovi played an impromptu half-hour concert at the top floor of a record store in Glasgow, Scotland, leading authorities to divert traffic for almost an hour.

A British tabloid newspaper reports that Rod Stewart's new album is being withdrawn from stores after a legal challenge over ownership of one of his songs.

311 releases a self-titled album in late July (on Capricorn Records). "We decided to call our third release '311' because we feel it's the best example of who we are as a band, and how we've evolved into a whole," says lead singer Nick Hexum. "We were able to hand-pick our producer this time around and everything just worked." The LP was produced by Ron St. Germain, who has worked with Soundgarden and Living Colour.

Elton John is continuing his work to raise money for AIDS research, throwing a party with a fashion designer. The star-studded gathering initially raised $160,000, but it's expected that sum will rise. Some of the world's top models were present and all money will go to the Elton John AIDS Foundation.

X have plans for a headlining tour this summer beginning in Washington, D.C., on July 13 and 14. Jill Sobule will open for X on the tour. The X sets will include acoustic material and a few electric tunes at some dates. The band has a new album, "Unclogged," just out.

MUSIC NOW!

By Mike Cooper

Kylie Minogue has made it into the 58th edition of the International Who's Who. Last year, editor Richard Fitzwilliams said Minogue had been excluded because she did "not have staying power in terms of international fame." "I've included her now because she's shown she has staying power and last year was a bit of a comeback for her — a hit single and album, and the movie 'Streetfighter,'" he says. "We were always keeping an eye on what she did, so now, in she goes and I hope she'll stay." About 20,000 people are included in the International Who's Who, which also reveals that David Bowie likes to listen to Polish and Chinese Communist music.

Diana Ross performed for the first time in Israel as she gave a half-hour concert at the Hapoel Games. She was reportedly paid $300,000 for the performance and stayed in the presidential suite of a five-star hotel. She then traveled to Russia for two sold-out concerts at the Kremlin in Moscow. Ross begins her first North American concert tour in over four years later this summer. While in Israel, Ross was asked to leave the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem by Orthodox Jews upset at the photographers and fans following her. Ross was going to put a message in the wall but decided that if she did, it would be stolen as soon as it was placed there. She accused the news media of ruining her visit.

Michael Jackson says he was "shocked" that people were offended that the lyrics to a new song say "Jew me" and "kike me." He said he doesn't plan to change the lyrics but will include an explanation in future copies of the album "HIStory: Past, Present & Future Book 1." To promote Jackson's new album, his British record company towed a 31-foot statue of Jackson up the Thames River in London. The river authorities opened Tower Bridge to enable the statue to be delivered to its current resting place outside the Tower of London. There are eight other statues across Europe, in Milan, Paris, Madrid, Prague, Zurich, Berlin, Vienna and Holland.

Whitney Houston has obtained a restraining order against a 38-year-old man who sends her flowers and once claimed to be her brother. A judge in Morristown, New Jersey, issued the order against Steven Marriott.

An August 1 trial date has been set for Snoop Doggy Dogg in Los Angeles. A judge has denied a defense request to drop murder charges against Dogg and two others in the August 1993 shooting. Prosecutors say the shooting was gang-related, but the three say they shot in self defense.

A judge in Atlanta has ordered rapper 2Pac Shakur to pay damages to a Georgia police officer shot during an argument at a midtown Atlanta intersection two years ago. No criminal charges were filed in the incident, but the judge ruled in favor of the Clayton County police officer, noting that Shakur never bothered to respond to the officer's lawsuit seeking medical costs and lost wages.

Luther Campbell, the former Luke of 2 Live Crew, has filed for bankruptcy protection, after having lost a $1.6 million court award to rapper MC Shy D, who claimed Campbell cheated him out of his earnings. Campbell is also being investigated by the NCAA for allegedly paying University of Miami football players to make plays.

KC & The Sunshine Band are putting out a live album (on Intersound Records) called "Get Down Live" marking the 21st anniversary of "Get Down Tonight," which is not to be confused with their hit "That's The Way (I Like It)."

A Superior Court judge has heard testimony from five former bodyguards for Michael Jackson who claim they were fired because they knew too much about Jackson's activities with young boys. An attorney for the guards says they were forced to sign releases waiving their right to sue Jackson to get their severance pay. Superior Court Judge Richard Neal is expected to rule in the case in early July.

The Stone Roses singer Ian Brown says the band wants to play one of the summer festivals after being forced to pull out of the Glastonbury Festival because guitarist John Squire has broken his collarbone.

The injury has proved worse than first thought and, last week, the bone has to be rebroken and reset. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Ian Brown commented on the possibility of playing at Reading: "If John was fit and the others were up for it, I'd do it. But if the organizers asked us to do it, we'd do it yeah. We wanted to come back with a big band and that's what was gonna be so good about Glastonbury, but Reading might be the way to do it. Start all over again." Brown also says that the Roses will play UK dates in September... Bjork's "Post" album has been withdrawn from sale. The singer's record company One Little Indian failed to secure permission for use of a sample on the track 'Possibly Maybe.' The sample, timed at 32 seconds, was taken from Scanner's "Mass Observation" CD and was the only sample included on the album.

Scanner, aka Robin Rimbaud, samples mobile phones and the noise that appears on the track is a phone ringing. According to Rimbaud, who took a writ to ensure the album was withdrawn from sale, he took his action on a matter of "principle" and is "sad" the Bjork album has been withdrawn. Rimbaud wants a percentage of the royalties. However, this looks unlikely to happen. One Little Indian boss Derek Birkett says: "Bjork and myself both object to giving away royalties for a sample. One Little Indian don't give royalties for samples; we haven't done with anyone else, not even with Nirvana and Credit To The Nation's 'Call It What You Want.'" The album is likely to be repressed without 'Possibly Maybe.'... Rory Gallagher died in London on June 14. The singer/guitarist had recently had a liver transplant, but complications set in. Born in the Republic Of Ireland, Gallagher's first success came with Taste, a blues trio. Taste split in 1970 and Gallagher then began a solo career with an eponymous album in 1971. His reputation as a blues player was strong enough to get him an audition with The Rolling Stones in 1974 as they sought to find a replacement for Mick Taylor. However, his following was mainly built for his blistering, no nonsense live show. Bob Dylan and Van Morrison were amongst those who sent messages during his final illness... S*M*A*S*H drummer Rob Hague has quit the band. The old standby of "musical and personal differences" has been brought out to explain the decision. The band are currently looking for a permanent replacement for Hague and will record a new single when someone is found... Bon Jovi played three "busking" shows in London, Cardiff and Glasgow on June 14. 9,000 people turned up for the Glasgow show (the city is not part of their current European tour) and police had to close a street when the band performed in a first floor window at a Tower Records store... The London Brixton Academy may yet be saved as a live venue. Owner Simon Parkes is to have a meeting with campaigners seeking to save the theater. Parkes has accepted an offer from the controversial Worldwide Church Of The Kingdom Of God, who are said to want to use the Academy as their global headquarters. Parkes admits he is selling for the money and also told the New Musical Express: "The Academy has certainly changed people's perception of Brixton. But we mostly serve an audience from outside Brixton. It may well be that a church is used more by the local community." Parkes says he is prepared to listen to offers from anyone who wishes to keep the Academy as a live venue... Primal Scream have been recording with '60s icon PP Arnold. The two parties have teamed up to record a version of "Understanding" for a Small Faces tribute album. Other artists featured on the album include Ride, Paul Weller, Gene, and The Black Crowes. Elsewhere, journalist Paolo Hewitt has written a book on the band. 'Small Faces: The Young Mods' Forgotten Story' goes on sale July 4... Michael Jackson floated down the Thames on June 15, or rather a 30-foot statue of the singer did. Eight other European cities were treated to a similar sight as Sony promote Jackson's 'History' album... Therapy? attracted over 1,000 fans to London's Virgin Megastore on June 12 when they signed copies of their new album "Infernal Love"... Cliff Richard has been knighted. The news made the front page of most of the tabloids with headlines such as, 'The First Knight Of Pop!'... The Beatles' forthcoming documentary series will be screened by the ITV network in the UK. The station won a bidding war with BBC and Channel 4... Oasis have settled their dispute with the clothing company of the same name. According to a spokesperson for the band, Oasis have agreed to pay the clothing company a "nominal sum" for the right to use the name Oasis on t-shirts and merchandise. Elsewhere, Noel Gallagher has been talking to the New Musical Express about new drummer Alan White: "He does it all in one fucking take, do you know what I mean?" Gallagher also says he doesn't think original Oasis drummer Tony McCarroll would have been able to play the band's new material: "People can say, 'Oh you didn't give him a chance,' and I didn't, but, well call me a cunt if you want..." Sleeper's Louise Wener says she used to deliberately undercharge people when she worked in a supermarket: "I used to work in Sainsbury's and I'd undercharge these dodderly old ladies. It was funny to see this sudden flush of realization as they get what you're doing..." PJ Harvey's new single is 'C'Mon Billy' b/w two new songs 'Darling Be There' and 'Maniac'... Jamiroquai's new single is 'Stillness In Time.' The band will play dates this summer.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW/SEATTLE

There are a couple of songs I feel compelled to tell you about/endorse/ask you to listen to/think will be huge: Tea Party's "Fire in the Head" is their best yet! Top 5 phones after one week. This band is due! Also, Sweet Water's "Superstar" from their second album Superfriends is a honest to god killer tune. We played this track in the first mix stage last year. Within 3 weeks it was the #1 requested testing record and retail was barraged with people wanting to buy the record. The album mix is even stronger! Check it out.

CARTER ALAN, WBCN-FM/BOSTON

Great show! That's what we're all raving about here in Boston about last week's three sold-out R.E.M. concerts. Back in fighting form and using it's confidence and musical prowess to carve out intriguing, yet entertaining two-hour sets, the band pulled off its best live offerings since the club days. The extra guitarists help fatten the sound, also allowing Mike Mills to give up the bass and play keyboards at times. Oh yeah - love the cowboy outfit, Mike! Especially interesting was the sneak preview of the new R.E.M. songs - including a rather spatial number pitting ethereal organ (played by Peter Buck) against a wall of guitar noise with stripe running up the middle. This leads to the hope that once this tour is over, a new R.E.M. album might be available relatively quickly. And like U2's Zooropa of a couple of summers ago, it could have that same spontaneous and immediate spirit transforming the music into a very different-sounding R.E.M. release. The Garbage song, "Vow," has proved to dazzle and impress on just an initial listen. This is our read with all of the immediate and strong request feedback from our listeners. This should be all the incentive Almo needs to get the entire album from this Butch Vig-fathered project to radio and in stores. I dig the wild alternating stereo-effect on this single, recalling the heady and purple daze of "Electric Ladyland." Good to finally see some believers on the new Belly track "Super-Connected." As BCN has watched this Boston-based band come up through the local music ranks and then explode onto the national scene, the speed and quality of Belly's growth has been astounding. What has become an automatic add in Boston should prove to work strongly around the country. Also, getting back to that Hendrix covers ever on the "Stone Free" compilation. "Are You Experienced" rocks full and hard, not only from killer guitar, but from Tanya's provocative and sensual singing. If you got stoned and missed this, get stoned and don't.

RECKLESS ERIC & JULIE HOYT

CHANNEL Z/AUGUSTA, GA.

Hi there once again from Augusta, Georgia! Hope things are fairing well in your part of the world. Did it turn into Bat-Central where you are? Batman Forever hit with a vengeance this weekend. The giveaways started on Friday with Batman Forever Soundtracks and tickets to the movie and continued all weekend long. We also had a bat-groove at our weekly dance show, Groovenation, on Saturday night. Everyone came out to explore their dark side and to take part in more CD giveaways and limited edition posters. The club was decorated like the bat-cave, and it looked creepily gorgeous. Thanks to the folks at United Artists for the movie tickets and to the fine people at Atlantic for the CDs. Friday, we were blessed with a visit from Tripping Daisy and Hagfish. Hagfish were a blast, like Green Day dressed as the Blues Brothers, and of course Tripping Daisy put on a fabulously rocking show. Thanks to everyone at Island, and especially Steve Smith for coming to town, for dinner, and for kicking Eric's butt at golf... once again. Special thanks go out to Warren Hudson for the lovely clothes he sent to our new Matt-baby. This toddler will be the hippest in town with his fine Reprise gear. We have a special benefit coming up for one of our listeners who was severely burned in an accident recently. The benefit will be at our local baseball stadium and will feature 14 great local bands. We'll update you on that next time. Until then...

DAVE DOUGLAS, WAAF/BOSTON

You no doubt have heard about Boston's Mama Kin Nightclub. It sits in the shadow of Fenway Park and it proved to be the perfect place for the 4th annual WAAF Celebrity Bartender Night. Boston Red Sox players, including third baseman Tim Lincecum, and first baseman Mo Vaughn were on hand to mix drinks for charity. Boston Bruin Adam Oates and former Bruin Lyndon Byers also contributed their time to help raise money for the Athletes Reach Out Foundation, which provides academic scholarships for kids in need. Thanks to a tremendous turnout, it was a huge success as we raised over $6,000.

JOHN LENAC & JULIE BAHRE

KTOZ-FM, CHANNEL Z

Go-Go Power Rangers! Go-Go winners to L.A. for an incredible weekend chillin' with The Red Hot Chili Peppers and Van Halen and "Uh-Oh," "A rockin' concert with Shampoo. To top that off, this bitchin' trip includes the star-studded premiere of "The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers" movie. We have made Karen Lee and everyone at IRS Records honorary members of the Power Rangers for helping us making this happen. We also made our listeners freak on the arrival of the new

Natalie Merchant CD with a win-it-before-you-can-buy-it-in-stores today. We'll be sending Tigerlilies in the mail to Brian Landau and all at E.E.G.... in appreciation for all the hoopla. It really was a fabulous, sunny weekend (finally) in the Ozarks, we started Saturday off with a VW (that's right a Bug) festival, stickin' the Channel Z-Van at the entrance and blasting the speakers to a huge parking lot filled with way cool bugs and people. Then we took off for Table Rock Lake with a butt-load of Coca-Cola products to pass out to all the hot, sweaty and almost naked people who were already jammin' to Channel Z on their boat radios and boom-boxes. This lake thing appears to be extremely popular in the Ozarks, Lake Lanier in Georgia doesn't even compare. Everybody is invited to come on over and check it out with us (we got a huge boat!)

ERIN CARMEN, WONE/AKRON

High on life and ready to rock!! This holiday weekend is the Akron Rib and Music Festival. It's big Fourth of July extended weekend bash in downtown Sunday night, and Eddie Money will be rockin' Monday. And, of course, the best fireworks display on Tuesday will be the icing on the cake! Speaking of Cake, "Rock n' Roll Lifestyle" is a sweet tune! (no pun intended). It's great to hear Dokken on the radio again! The request lines are burning up!! New product from Dream Theater?, I'll be waiting!

GUY DARK

WHIO/CLAREMONT, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Greetings, (but certainly no "megadittos," thank you very much!) from Claremont, New Hampshire, the town that hosted two fat guys with white hair named Bill & Newt a couple weekends ago. The best song to hear on hold is "Ridiculous Thoughts" by the Cranberries — "You're gonna have to hold on..." R.E.M. ruled at Great Woods Sunday Night. For me, the emotional highlight was "Man On The Moon." They truly connected with the crowd on that ditty. Next time, not so long between tours, guys! Yo, Bob Rivers: If you happen to visit you alma mater this summer, please do so between seven and midnight. I've yet to meet you. Thanks.

GREG ROBERTS, KFMU/VAIL

In last weeks rambling I ended with the question of who has the highest arbitron share for a Progressive/Triple A formatted station? The numbers are in for Steamboat and I am happy to say that KFMU has a... (drum roll here) 33 AGH! That's Monday through Sunday 12+ audience. In the Vail Market we are a strong number two. Not bad for signing on halfway through the book. Combine these Numbers with the Wilhight numbers that I averaged over the three year period of programming KKRV and my

industry comments

four year batting average for programming is 21.25 AGH in 12+. Are you looking for a program director? Anybody wanna talk? Music that deserves a tip of the hat this week... The new Burning Spear record sets my dreads a smokin'... Don't pass over the Paul Weller like I did. Check out the track "Woodcutter's Son"... James McMurtry's sampler is a winner and I have not removed the Juke Logan disc from the player in my office for two days now. That's all for now. Remember 20th Birthday greetings are being taken now. Have your artist make call or heck, pick up the phone and dial it for them. Thanks for the time and the readage.

DAVE O'BRIEN, WROV/ROANOKE

Had a big week here in the "Noke. Hootie and The Blowfish kicked off their tour in town on Wednesday night. Catch it if it comes your way!! I had only seen them in clubs up until now, but they can pull it off in large halls, woo. Thanks to Johnny Diaz and Mark Fritzas from Atlantic for bringing some of the guys by the studios. Little Feat came through on Friday and blew everyone away. They are genuinely one of the nicest bands in the business. A real pleasure to talk with and even better to see on stage. Their live show is incredible! New singer Shaun Murphy really adds great texture to the classic Little Feat sound! They are a must see. RCA's Wanderlust played a showcase to about 1,000 crazed locals at our PMS Festival on Saturday. They rocked! It was great to see the crowd singing along, I think even the band was surprised by that! Thanks to Wanderlust for making the road trip and to Joe R. from RCA. It was fun! Picks of the week... Foo Fighters... It's gonna be huge... Ian Moore... Great Groove. Finally gonna take some vacation next week! Talk to you later.

SHARON SCHIFINO

WHJY/PROVIDENCE

Just a few comments for the hell of it: Dave Matthews Band "Ants Marching" - great song, there is also a live version on the single that sounds really good and was recorded at a club here in Providence. It's nice to see Monster Magnet finally making some headway. I love this and believe me, it's not slowing down! The next single "Comedown" is one of my favorites, but for right now things are sailing along nicely with "Little Things". Also, I had the pleasure of seeing Soul Asylum live a couple of weeks ago in Boston. I don't think this band is all that ready to rest on their laurels! They were as intense as ever! Lastly, a word from the personal listening pile: this Alanis Morissette record has not been out of my car tape deck. Might not be an A.O.R. record, but I think we'll be hearing a lot about this lady in the near future.

JULIE JOHNSON

WXZR/EAST LYME, CT

Thanks to everyone who was so ultra killa in NYC at McGathy!! Sud! Rules like no other. Congrats to Bill and Rose, you have the best staff! Guess what happened to me last night? I was hanging out at this shopping mall (Yeah I'm one of those cool mall kids, shaa) and I saw these really rad dudes. It turned out to be Dennis from the Organization, with Roger from the O Posse. They came back to the station and we had a great time on our radio waves. Thanks to the Organization for a great album Savor The Flavor. By the time this prints, I will have another Sugar Ray show under my wheel, you must see them as well!

DOUG KURINSKI

WMMS/CLEVELAND

Go tribe! Hopefully this isn't just a dream and the Indians really are the current top team in baseball - this season's been forty years in the making! While we're bragging about Cleveland - The Buzzards are proud to help Cleveland based "Alternative Press" celebrate their 10th anniversary!! With two days of concerts next to the Cuyahoga River at the Nautica Stage on July 29th & 30th, the A.P. will toast ten years of being on the forefront of today's music scene - acts to be announced shortly! Speaking of concerts, with the huge success of Buzzardfest '95 at Blossom this past May, the Buzzards are poised and ready for Buzzardfest II to close out the concert season at Blossom on September 9th!! What can be said about Alanis Morissette - #1 Phones and great sales - major smash! Do some digging and check out "Big Chair" by Recharound on Carport Records - Big phones after one week of air play! If you need your industrial fix, take a listen to "Animal" by Prick - they've got Cleveland roots, a kick ass sound, and it's fun to say Prick on the air.

KAPTAIN KEVIN

WRCN/LONG ISLAND

It's probably been a year or since I've written comments and there have been plenty of times I've meant to but those of you who know me know that I out in about a thousands hours a week so unfortunately I haven't been able to write... At this point I've also been up for thirty-six hours but thanks to the makers of Mountain Dew and Vivarin I remain semi-coherent... The reason I've been up so long is that last night I was fortunate enough to host one of the best shows I've ever seen, bar none... Bad Company came and played our free summer concert series and put on a show that was nothing short of stellar... New vocalist Robert Hart prowls the stage and works the crowd as well as any front man in the business while possessing a voice that ranks with the best... Mick Ralphs and Simon Kirke are as great as ever and (maybe as a result of Robert's infectious enthusiasm) seem to be enjoying this tour as if it were all brand new to them... Former Foreigner member Rick Wills was rock solid on bass, and longtime Mick Ralphs cohort Dave Bucket Colwell compliments Mick perfectly while working the stage as well as Robert, to quote my pal Munsey "These guys are the shit" and while there out there playing huge sheds with Ted they treated the 2,000 who came like 20,000. Many thanks to Bill, Rose, and Phin at McGathy, Mark Snider at Elektra Entertainment, Mary Ellen at Allied Artists, and to Mick, Simon, Robert, Rick, and David, for providing us with one of the shining moments in the 20 year history of WRCN.

RON MICHAELS

WXZR/EAST LYME, CT

A big thank you goes out to Russ "Here's some t-shirts, posters, CD's, and have you heard 'Numb' yet?" Miller (Rockworld), Dante "Double" Scioccia (Bad Seed), Lou "Let em' eat dirt" Leeman (Bad Seed) and Ron "Do you have some ice" Colandrea (Bad Seed) for giving up their Saturday to come to Connecticut and play in our "First Annual Z-Rock and Jock Softball Game" to benefit the Multiple Sclerosis Society. Thanks to you and your efforts not only did we kick the United States Marines Ass! (11-10), but we raised over $1,000 for a great cause. Thank you, thank you, thank you!! I hope you enjoyed the beach! We'll see you July 2nd at the Gee. Let's talk music. Shall we? The Nixons are a "Head" of the pack, Hum are reaching for the "Stars", Silverchair are going into heavy rotation "Tomorrow" and God Lives Under Water needs a little more help because I feel they aren't getting enough love. God! Someone save me from continuing to write this endless drivel. Till next time. Be good to yourself and each other. Stop it! Your not Jerry Springer. See ya!

ROB BABECKI, WCDB/ALBANY

O.K. here goes. I got a job doing telemarketing. If you would have told me I'd be doing telemarketing two weeks ago, I would have said, "Right, and I'll have GWAR's beeper number too, huh?" I'm trying to get a hold of those wacky X-Cops so they can pay us a visit here (I really hate phone tag). Props to Maria for hooking that up! I saw "Batman Forever" this past weekend (it was highly recommended by Burton C. Bell of Fear Factory) and it was better than the second one. Do you think they could have showed off Nicole Kidman's physical attributes anymore? In case you were wondering, yes, I am a comic book collector. You got a problem with that? I have limited fax access (finally!), so I can get faxes, but it's still better to mail things to me. The fax number is 518-442-5622. The office phone number is 518-442-5262. People have complained about unanswered phones, well here's why phones go unanswered. If I'm on the phone, the incoming calls are bumped to another extension that's in an office that 9 times out of 10 I can't get into. So if you call back in a few minutes. I keep my hours religiously and I'm usually there even on days I don't have office hours, so there's no excuse for not staying in touch with me! By now most of you should have the photos I've promised to you. If not, check with me and we'll see what's up. Thanks to Sudi for hooking up the Morbid Angel phone interview this week. I'm looking forward to seeing Sugar Ray with KoRn and the X-Cops/Tree/Brutal Juice shows this week. Call me up and ask about my waitress fetish (it's not as interesting as it sounds). Shit, I'm tired. I gotta go to sleep. Remember: You can pick your friends and you can pick your nose, but... you get the idea!

DAVE LOMBARDI

WARNER BROTHER RECORDS, 818-953-3726

Greetings from vacation in lovely southern Oregon! We had some great weeks on the Jennifer Trynin and Goo Goo Dolls records; look elsewhere in this publication and check out the amazing list of stations that added these tracks. Jen and band are playing their first L.A. date tonight, but regrettably, I'm outta state, so I'm going to miss it. That certainly sucks, as it promises to be a phenomenal show. As for the Goos, they're hitting the road again and will be joined by You Am I and the Smoking Popes in a couple of weeks. Definitely a show to catch. As for You Am I, have you listened to "Berlin Chair" yet? Why not? Can you ever have too much good music? One last thing before I officially lapse into vacation-mania: Market and Format leaders (both earned and self-appointed): Please stand up and be counted! That means going out on records early and pounding them, spinning them more than 7-10 (or less) times a week. That's where your alternative brethren have many of you beat, and that's why those demon alt. rockers have more credibility amongst the bulk of the personnel (and policy makers) at record companies. Think about it: Don't just protect yourself with an add, make a serious commitment to the record (and artist...). Take it from somebody who's been supporting your case whenever possible — playlists and PPW definitely speak louder than words. OK the soapbox is away and so am I. I'm out.

JIM DEL BALZO

COLUMBIA RECORDS, 212-833-7029

Mad Season went gold last week just as we're releasing the second track from the album "I Don't Know Anything". I know it sounds like Bob Kardashian's response to police inquiries about the missing suitcase. It's also the name of a great rock song. The research on Soul Asylum is coming back very strong. Especially from people who are testing the "Frustrated Incorporated" hook. "Misery" is also the #1 most requested rock song in America. We still are undecided about which track will be second but it seems like we still have quite a bit of time. Dokken has just begun the second leg of their U.S. tour and once again they are selling-out everywhere. "Too High To Fly" continues to do well as the research grows every week. The band will be on tour throughout the summer. Pink Floyd is the biggest double album in Soundscan history. You have to go back at least 10 years to find a multi-disc debuting at #1. This album will be around a long, long time. There's a great buzz on Dandelion's second album. WDRE and KNRX (Bryan Schock's new station) added "Weird Out" this week. This is a great song that we'll be working on July 11th. There's a cassette or CD on your desk. If you haven't heard it yet, please listen. Alice In Chains is in the studio now with a new album scheduled for release this fall. D-Generation is also beginning work on their Columbia debut this fall. Plus, as usual a few surprises.

JIM NEILL

RHINO RECORDS, 310-441-6652

The John Doe thing. What is that thing?

MARK FISCHER

ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2085

Well, I'm in shock! I just got back from seeing Hootie & The Blowfish play two sold-out shows at Jones Beach to over 25,000 people. The band was visited on stage by none other than Paul Shaeffer from David Letterman. Paul played about six tunes with the band including the smash "Hold My Hand." This week Hootie returned to the #1 slot at Sound Scan selling 170,176 pieces. This is totally out of control. If you not playing "Only Wanna Be With You" I can't say anything, because if you can't say something nice you shouldn't say anything at all. Batman The Movie exploded on to the screen this week. It officially became the largest first week grossing film. Doing 53 million in sales. The soundtrack is becoming equally successful with U2 climbing towards #1 and Offspring's "Smash It Up" starting to happen. Never The Bride's "Loser In Love" debuted at rock radio this week with 21 adds. A lot of you at radio have raved about Never The Bride's Nikki Lamborn and what an incredible rock voice she possesses. I think your audience would love to hear "Loser In Love." Bad Religion have officially begun the Pearl Jam tour, and "Incomplete" the new track from their album will be debuting on the charts soon. This week we are impacting, "The Naked Song" from The Hatters, a band who has impressed many stations on the east coast with their attention, and since it is the first week of summer why don't you give it a spin or two. Adds this week. Until next time...

MIKE SCHNAPP

EMI RECORDS, 212-492-1852

The Tea Party has arrived, and "Fire in the Head" is going for adds now. This Canadian band is poised to take the US by storm. July 11, marks the add date for "The edges of Twilight", Their second full-length release from EMI. These guys are true musicians, using over thirty different instruments in recording the album. Everytime you play it, you'll hear something new. They are also ready to tour the states this summer, so stay tuned for more info. The Dwellers are now. Don't be afraid to take a chance on this one. Queensryche are in the middle of four dates in Florida. We will have a full report from Schnapp next week. Thanks to everyone who has added "Someone Else?" this week, and of course, thanks to everyone who has continued to support Queensryche throughout the tour. Last but not least, we want to send get well wishes out to Mercury's Brian McEvoy. Hope you're feeling better, and look forward to seeing you out again soon. Until next time, call us.

TOM GATES

ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077/206

I hope all AAA lovers have a copy of Blue Mountain's Five Songs From Dog Days. Mississippi's finest have been on the road with Wilco for the past few weeks and we thought that a taste of their forthcoming record would be more than appropriate. I dare you to find a tune on the disc that isn't right for you! "Blue Canoe," which endorses the "get out of the hellish city and go fishing" philosophy is already the hands-down fave with programmers who have listened in. Dig into this one early; you'll be saying "I told you so" in a few months. Every radio format under the sun can expect Kevin Salem's second single in early July, just in time for his summer tour with Zero Hour's Grover. "Lighthouse Keeper" just plain rocks ass. Give me a ring if, for some bizarre reason, you don't have a copy of Soma City and would like to peruse the track early. "Summer Breeze" used to be such a nice song, eh? Watch your listeners' faces turn from shock to amazement as you test Type O Negative's latest single from their hand-over-fist selling album Bloody Kisses... Time to take Dayquil and attempt to breathe again.

MICHELLE KRUPKIN

VANGUARD RECORDS, 310-451-5727

I can't wait — soon I'm going to be hearing Peter Case and his band from "Torn Again" in the KSCA Music Hall with the lovely Merilee! Don't worry, even if you can't be present, I'll be sharing some warm moments via photos I'll send in. We are getting more and more action on the release as we chart at Gavin A3 and FMQB PAR this week and look to chart at Album Network and Hard next week. This record is just that strong, that it's pushed hard against all you big boys out there. I'm pleased to tell you that soon we'll have some Peter Case tour dates to share with you. Peter will be doing some select radio appearances, so call me to schedule! Ciao for now.

"Track" is my choice o'tunes however Ron Michaels at WXZR really digs "Oar." So there you have it. God forbid you try anything different! X-Cops meeting, eating, and beating everywhere. Wanna go? ## GREG DERBAS

PAVEMENT MUSIC, 708-916-1155

Well, I'm sure you all have heard by now that Noize Fest '95 has been canceled. The biggest tour of the summer and Testament has to pick this time to have an Ego trip. Well, I'm sure you all don't feel half as bad as me about this. I guess there are a few things that might make me feel better. If you really, really want to do something. Well, maybe, hum, maybe a few more spins to get my boys top 10. Like they are not kicking ass already, thanks to all our supporters. Have no fear about Crowbar hitting the road, they will be on the road with Suffocation starting late July. You'll get dates as soon as I do. Kirk is still doing interviews for the next few weeks so if your interested you better call now. How about the new Malevolent Creation. While I am typing this, I am doing back flips - Fear Factory sold over 4,000 pieces first week out!!! Why? Because of every one of you loving and playing the hell out of Demanufacture. ## JASON BRANT

R.E.X. Music, 615-370-8813

O.K. I just got back from WRAS's Sonic Saturday. It was a long day with a bunch of bands, some were good, and others... Fleming & John was the first band to actually have people standing in front of the stage waiting for them (without the offer of free stuff). After the soundman fixed a sloppy channel, and everyone could hear Fleming's beautiful voice, the crowd actually got a good representation of the band's live performance, for the last two songs. The headliner of the event was our very own Circle of Dust. As with F&J, they encountered some problems with the sound equipment, but cleared them up after the first two songs. Even after a long day of music, we managed to get a pit going, with the best action during Deviate and Onenemy. Now for the dialogue that I wrote last week, but didn't send out, so I'm adding it to this one, Hey, Hey!! The reason you haven't added Fleming & John yet is???? Thanx to WKDF, WRLT, WRLG, KJEE, KUKQ, WZOW, WRAS, and WROX for the major spins. For those who are waiting for a scene - pay attention - you ARE the scene. You know you love 'em so spin 'em, test 'em, do whatever you want, and then ADD them. Look for Circle of Dust as they play a month's worth of dates on their way back to New York from Atlanta. And here's a big Grassy-

Ass to all those spinning Argyle Park, keep it up you know what they want to hear. Remember to check out the BIG NAME guest stars on this album. Seeing as we left Atlanta at 2am to drive back to Nashville, and got here at 5am, I'm going to crash right here in this chair. G'night...

Dates to follow as soon as they are available. TAD are on tour with Clutch, see the show when it comes to your town! Sweaty Nipples will be back on the road in July, dates are now available. Don't miss this band live, it is truly a show to be seen!! Call me if there is anything you need!

GREG GURA

CONCRETE MARKETING RETAIL

212-645-1360

The buzz is starting on a great new band, Gwen Mars (Hollywood), with their first release, Magnosheen. It's all over the radio so make sure it's all over the stores. If you hated Primus (Interscope) in the past, you'll still hate them on their new release, Tales from the Punchbowl. A funny thing has been happening when stores play the new self titled release from Prick (Interscope), it sells. When it comes to white trash, middle class rock n' roll who never jumped on a bandwagon or ever followed a trend one band should come to mind. Ugly Kid Joe (Mercury). Check out their new balls out release, Menace to Sobriety. Megadeth (Capitol) - Hidden Treasures!! If you ever missed a Megadeth song on any soundtrack or compilation, it's now here. Plus unreleased tracks! World Bang (Radikal), face it, they're here to stay. We have display material for it. Motorhead - July 11, Eleven - July 18. 4th of July Reminder: Don't blow your fingers off!

MUNSEY RICCI & JOHN LAROSA

SKATEBOARD MARKETING LTD.

516-328-1103

So check this out, Black Sabbath and Kyuss are number 1 and number 2 most added across the board. Now that's a beautiful thing. Adds this week on Motorhead, who's touring with Sabbath. The Collision 4 song (EP), and the 24-7 spyz. Check out the new Sweetwater to yo, because it's real flavor full if you know what I'm saying. Clutch's tour is smoking dice, wait till the New York Show. Yo my back yard in my hood. Morbid Angel continues to rise to the top. Spin this record in the heavy of heavys for rotation. King Diamond is doing interviews the 28th, and 29th of June. Call Melody at Metal Blade on the west coast at 805-5220911 ASAP if you want one, you know you want it. The Organization, yo savor the Flavor of this band. It makes a nice single too. Till next week, Cya.
