TOP PRIORITY

Toad the Wet Sprocket, "Brother," Columbia/CRG

This one culled from the new record In Light Syrup is a dyed-in-the-wool Toad smash. It originally came to us via the So, I Married An Ax Murderer soundtrack, and now arrives as the first single from this collection of rare and unreleased tunes. This band really has a definitive sound, one which yields catchy hooks amongst waves of finely-layered lushful instrumentations and backgrounds. On this track, the rock quotient is filled enough to play the ying to "Good Intentions"'s yang. You don't need to drop that one to pick this one up, just showcase this marvelous collection of tunes and watch the register ring up the sales. Toad the Wet Sprocket is now doing great business at COR, AAA and Alternative. "Brother" will likely comply with corresponding positives for you.

CURRENT ORIENTED ROCK

Lenny Kravitz, "Circus," Virgin

With a "Dear Prudence" rhythm and tempo, Kravitz paints something close enough to a ballad to break tempo without inflicting damage on the excitement level. This one has a killer hook, and an Aerosmith-like arrangement. You'll have fun with this follow-up. X107's Steve Blatter says "I think Circus is the best song on the album. If this song doesn't work, I don't think anything else will." KLOL and WPLR picked up this week, joining KCLB, KLBJ, WLZR and others.

Bonnie Raitt, Bryan Adams, "Rock Steady," Capitol

The distinctiveness in which these two artists perform their own material makes this collaboration wholeheartedly exciting to ponder. And on the first listen, the suspicions are confirmed. This duet rocks, and is laid-back at the same time. It's a perfectly radio-worthy, mid-tempo perky rock tune that will stand steady with anything working for your upper demos, and will carry the familiarity out-of-the-box. It's a good tune, too.

Ted Nugent, "Love Jacker," Atlantic

What can you say when the Great White Buffalo calls with another track. No? Hardly. Ted's got a magical grasp of the core rocker who's paying attention to the current crop of bands, but will passionately forgive you of the lack of catalog cuts if you play something - anything Ted. The tune starts out with a guitar intro that you wouldn't assign to Nugent's repertoire in a million years. This one is probably the most pop track to come from the Motor City Madman in his entire career as a solo artist. Motown was Detroit, too. He pays close attention to that, with help of a talented young singer. It's compelling in that regard. KATP and WDRK are among the leaders.

CURRENT ORIENTED
ROCK

SELECTIONS

ROLLING STONES, "STRIPPED," VIRGIN

The CD that spawned the version of Dylan's "Like a Rolling Stone" is full of Stones classics performed live at European venues and during rehearsals in Tokyo and Lisbon. You've got some great Stones tunes that don't usually see the regular library rotation, like "Not Fade Away," "I'm Free," "Let it Bleed" and "Dead Flowers." Then there are a couple of classics, like "Angie," "Street Fighting Man" and "Wild Horses." There's interactive material surrounding this record, as well. It's all impeccably captured by Don Was, and a long list of recording pros.

LOUD LUCY, "TICKING," DGC

Here's a new band destined for bigger things. "Ticking" can play the field at both COR and Alternative without so much as a hesitation. It's a track that has two tempos - one for the chorus and bridge, one for the verses. It's very catchy.

CATHERINE WHEEL, "LITTLE MUSCLE," MERCURY

The third single from the Wheel begins with a subtle, balladeer pace, which lulls you. Then it kicks up a storm, with fierce rock guitar and textbook Wheel vocal hooks. This band really makes sense for you in 1995. You need some rock and roll that rings a modern bell. This band is very real, and this song is another example of true grit serving modern agendas. You can't find a better blending of what you need than the Wheel. WHTF and WOZN are in this week.

NEIL YOUNG, "THROW YOUR HATRED DOWN," REPRISE

The rootsy Farm Aid rocker really dictates the vibe of Mirror Ball, even though Pearl Jam acts as the backing band. This tune, lyrically, is quintessential Neil. It's a great vibe to spread around, as the political battlefield shapes up in lands far away, just in time for the holidays. WDVE's in already.

CANDLEBOX, "UNDERSTANDING," MAVERICK

The new single is much easier in the tempo department, and makes a definite contrast to "Simple Lessons," although it's still very much a rockin' track. KRXQ's Curtiss Johnson says "I think it's probably a broader appeal track (than 'Simple Lessons'). There's a little more meat as far as melody and hook. The change-up will help that record. A lot of people who liked 'Far Behind' will fall into that pocket."

STEVIE SALAS COLORCODE, "START AGAIN," PAVEMENT

There are 100,000 of these sold already in Asia, and this guitarist's second solo effort comes to radio with a modern-sounding rocker that pays some vocal homage to Hendrix while creating a territory all its own. You may recall Salas from Sass Jordan's band, and he's been a sideman and musical director for a number of other heavyweights. Pay attention to his own creative energy. He's got a great voice, and we already know his capabilities as a musician.

TESLA, "STEPPIN' OVER," GEFEN

A new track from their upcoming Greatest Hits package starts out with a "What You Give" feel, and picks up into a rocker that is as straight-ahead as you might expect. We know that there is still a place for the straight-ahead rocker on many playlists. KUFO's Dave Numme agrees, as he added it this week with the statement "They still very much matter here." Yeah, that and the fact that Bill Prescott used to jam on stage with 'em in Sacramento!

"Actually starting to pick up positive reaction. The kids seem to like the edge a little bit more."

KUFO (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Numme

"It's getting some phones. I think it's a solid record for us. Not the strongest thing they've done but worth playing."

KUPD (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD J. J. Jeffries

"We have early phones. Tailor-made song for KUPD."

WARQ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Stewart

"Not building as quickly as I thought it might. The appeal of this track, I think, is very limited. Strictly male."

WAXQ (B-37 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD Vinny Marino

"Huge response. Everybody loves it."

WBUZ (B-43 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD Matt Wilauer

"I am a huge huge fan. They can do no wrong. It's nice to hear them rockin'. The listeners are aching for more. Mad Season really helped pick up the interest."

WBZX (B-43 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Hal Fish

"Looking pretty damn good compared to what's out there right now. Hope they don't wait too long to release a track directed more toward non-fans."

WDBZ (B-47 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"A good record. Early buzz because it was Alice, but I think people are hungrier for the next track already."

WDRK (M-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"I wasn't really excited about this song, but 'Man in the Box' had to grow on me, too. It's still leaning young."

WGRX (N-27 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Brian Beddow

"I'm still committed to heavy rotation, but haven't heard a whole lot."

WHDQ (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Guy Dark

"I don't think it will be as big as the 'Jar of Flies' stuff because it's darker. I have to think there will be a 'No Excuses' somewhere on the album. Their core fans love this song though, and they are calling for it."

WHMH (B-33 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Dan Peterson

"I've got new respect for them with 'Grind.' It seems the more people hear it - myself included - the more they love it. We expect a long life."

WKLQ (B-37 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Dave Wellington

"Love it. We're all over it. I hope everything goes well with Layne. I would love to see a tour. Fans are real positive. They are a home run for us."

WKQZ (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Paul Osland

"A lot of excitement at first. It has tailed off a bit but not much. It'll do real well."

T:WRCX (N-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD Jo Robinson

"Everybody wanted to hear it initially, but reaction since hasn't been overwhelmingly positive."

WRIF (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD Mark Thompson

"Very positive response. Listeners seem to feel it complements all the former tracks, not too much of a departure."

WRUF (N-12 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott

"Favorable response. I was very against that track and I see that turning around. Good initial nighttime response."

WRZK (M-16 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Jeff Horn

"I haven't seen a lot of requests so far, but I think the song is great and people are still into it."

WVRK (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD/MD Brian Waters

"A night record at this point. Would love to be able to give more daytime play, but it doesn't really fit in with what I've got going in other dayparts."

WWBR (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Walt Brown

"An absolute smash! As soon as the album's out it'll be #1 sales. Already our #3 Most Requested song."

WZTA (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Gregg Steele

"Slower than I would have expected. The song sounds great, though. I think the fans always seem to catch up with this band a little bit later."

ZROC (N-32 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Pat Dawsey

"A great song from a group in a class with Soundgarden, Pearl Jam and maybe STP."

KEGL (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Duane Doherty

"Not much yet. I don't think it will be as strong as 'And Fools.' Very light phones."

KIBZ (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Paul Young

"Moved up to heavy. Right down our alley. Brother Cane was always big for us."

KILO (M-7 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Rich Hawk

"I'm not seeing anything."

KIOZ (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Greg Stevens

KLOL (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Cindy Bennett

"It's looking really good...not taking off as quickly as 'And Fools' but definitely gaining. It's still a little unfamiliar."

KQRC (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Doug Sorensen

"We've been on it for three weeks and we're just waiting. But they've always been a passive band. It does sound good."

KRAD (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Jay Gleason

"Not getting much on that one."

KRXQ (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Curtiss Johnson

"Not getting a lot of early response on it."

KRZZ (N-5 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Greg Bergen

"Not a lot of reaction. It's disappointing. I'm thinking about going back to '20/20 Faith.'"

KSJO (M-7 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dana Jang

"I can't say it's building yet. More of a male record than the first one."

KTYD (N) OpsDir/MD Paul Cavanagh

"More accessible for us than the last one was."

KUFO (B-7 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dave Numme

"It's getting some phones. The band came off a very successful show here and they increased awareness and attention to themselves as a result. I don't think this is the hit the first track was, based on early requests, but nonetheless it's reacting very well. A good imaging song for the band because it's a real rocker."

WBUZ (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD/MD Matt Wilauer

"Reaction is slowly increasing — they do well. But it's hard to tell what 'Breadmaker' will do."

WWBR (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Walt Brown

"Maintaining is all I can say."

WVRK (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Brian Waters

"I was a little worried in the beginning but it's just now starting to pick up."

WDBZ (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"Definitely a building record. Great sound. People aren't fully aware of this band yet, but with this they'll finally get Bro Cane ingrained in their brains."

WDRK (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"I would like to see them catch a break — I want to see more sales."

WDRZ (M-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"Not a lot of phone reaction yet, but it's a nice breath of guitar-driven rock."

WGRX (N-19 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Brian Beddow

"Actually doing surprisingly well. It seems to be picking up."

WHDQ (M-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Guy Dark

"Too early to tell, but I think it's a good song. We still get requests for 'And Fools Shine On,' but people aren't connecting the new song to Brother Cane yet."

WKLQ (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Dave Wellington

"Not seeing anything. I don't see it making leaps and bounds like the first track, but they are doing well. We are seeing some phones and sales."

WKQZ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Paul Osland

"I think it's a better tune than 'And Fools,' and we just bumped it up into heavy. We think it will work well."

WRCX (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD/MD Jo Robinson

"Nothing yet, although I personally like the sound of it. An excellent follow up."

WRUF (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Harry Guscott

"Developing...too early to tell where it's going to end up. Top 20 prediction."

WRZK (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Jeff Horn

"I think it sounds good and it's a better rock cut, but not a lot of listener reaction. The first album did real well, but this one still needs to pick up."

WTPA (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Dina Wagner

"That is finally starting to come around. We hope this track will help the sales. The phones are starting to pick up and we hope to move it into days. They're a fairly important band."

KILO (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Rob Hunter

"This consistently gets calls. It will hold steady for awhile because of the product out there. The band is heavy as hell, and not Alternative. We like that."

KIOZ (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Greg Stevens

"We opened up the dayparts, but it is still mostly reacting in the night show right now. Because of the vocal, it's got a pretty hard edge. That's gonna alienate some and polarize it a little bit."

KNCN (B-4 PPW WKS-ON:4) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"Light requests."

KRXQ (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Curtiss Johnson

"It's off to a real nice start in research. Top 10 in my testing and it definitely tends to be a rock track. It's not testing as well with my Alternative partisans."

KSJO (B-8 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dana Jang

"It's still getting some pretty good phone action. Nights only."

KUPD (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:5) APD/MD J. J. Jeffries

WDBZ (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"Not much to go on but nighttime phones. But my personal feeling is that this thing can be huge throughout all dayparts but mornings."

WRDK (N) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"That will just be a night record. We lean pretty classic, but that's a good record. Not all that heavy."

WHMH (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Dan Peterson

"It's been on for a couple of weeks and has been earning its increases. It's really been picking up on the phones as we increase the rotation."

WKLQ (N) MD Dave Wellington

"Huge underground following, and Andy's show (Outta Control Saturday Night) really helped give it a base. Instant phones and sales."

WKQZ (M-7 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Paul Osland

"That one got some good response at first, but has tailed off a bit. Will probably stay in nights."

WRCX (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD/MD Jo Robinson

"No requests yet but the sales are excellent in Chicago."

T:WRZK (N-5 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Jeff Horn

WWBR (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Walt Brown

KRZZ (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Greg Bergen

"We're getting 'Who is that band?' calls. Lyrically it's a good-sounding song, real big 25-34 record...the real meat of our audience."

WARQ (B-47 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Dave Stewart

"Not a huge reponse record, but if you ask people you won't find anyone who doesn't like it."

WDRK (M-6 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"Everyone around here likes it. It sounds good on the radio. Basically a mid-day track."

WGRX (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Brian Beddow

"Our #1 Most Requested song. It's the kind of song that people like for some reason but don't identify with Toad."

WHMH (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Dan Peterson

"A great song to tone things down in the morning coming right out of an Ozzy track. People on the phones — in the morning anyway — seem to like it."

WRUF (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Harry Guscott

"The research is starting to come back pretty solid on the record. It's another one I didn't think had legs that I've changed my mind on."

WRXK (M-15 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Greg Gillispie

"A few calls, not a lot."

WTPA (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Dina Wagner

"It's just kind of there. A good day time record. Not much interest — but nothing negative."

WVRK (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD/MD Brian Waters

"Good adult record for daytime. Out of nights for now. Not a lot of phones, but traditionally, Toad never gets many calls."

WWBR (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Walt Brown

"I think it is a multi-format hit. Their album is gonna help it."

KEGL (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Duane Doherty

"Phones are picking up, no research."

KIOZ (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Greg Stevens

"Steady response. I don't know if it's increasing. I have medium expectations for it because it first reminded me of hearing 'Closer' by NIN."

KLOS (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Carey Curelop

"We're starting to get a lot of phones on that record and we're actually starting to see some early test results on it. I think this track's gonna go. I'm excited about the sales picture, too."

KRAD (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD/MD Jay Gleason

"I'm not seeing much on it yet, but I think we will spike it during the day a little bit."

KUPD (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD J. J. Jeffries

"Nothing yet. Maybe a little bit of interest, no reaction."

WAXQ (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD/MD Vinny Marino

"It moved up in rotation from being just a night record. I have a good feeling about it."

WGRX (M-8 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Brian Beddow

"I'm disappointed...not seeing much."

WKLQ (N-7 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Dave Wellington

"We are already seeing some phone action. Still too early for retail. I think it's a great record that can define who we are. It's crunchy and has that NIN or early Faith No More quality. Hard to describe. Good record."

WRIF (B-8 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD Mark Thompson

"Starting to grow. Working OK."

WZTA (N-14 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Gregg Steele

"They're doing a show here this weekend. I'm surprised that there's very little retail action."

"Doing well with 12-24 men and women. It's obviously doing better with the younger demos than 25-34, where it's just OK."

KILO (M-30 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Rich Hawk

"We're getting a little worried at this point."

KLOS (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Carey Curelop

"It's starting to test thru the roof. It's the 3rd highest testing track on our research this week. We're getting a lot of calls, and are concerned they're fairly young, but we're gonna play it."

KNCN (M-11 PPW WKS-ON:4) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"Mild calls — about what I thought."

KQRC (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Valorie Knight

"It's doing fine. It still has some room to grow, mostly hearing from the younger kids after school, though."

KRAD (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Jay Gleason

"It's still getting tons of calls with no sign of burn."

KRXQ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Curtiss Johnson

"We're actually starting to see a little bit of across-the-board artist burn with this track. It seems to be affecting some of my other tracks, too."

KSJO (M-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dana Jang

"Fair testing. No upper-end support."

WARQ (M-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dave Stewart

"Doing OK retail-wise, ditto on air."

WBUZ (M-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD/MD Matt Willuer

"It's holding steady. Performing well, just what we expected."

WDBZ (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"Very young...average age of callers: 16."

WDRK (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"Our kids are liking it. Totally a night/under 25 record. The last record opened up more, but a lot of people aren't aware yet."

WHMH (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Dan Peterson

"I love pre-selling this record, you just have to be way over the top. It kicks in and keeps kicking. It doesn't have the same sound as the past. Hey! This is a different Green Day song everybody! This is not 'Basket Case.'"

WKZQ (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Paul Osland

"Still getting some pretty good response on them. It's a cool rockin' tune. I don't think it bothers the older listeners, but seeing a young reaction so far."

WRCX (B-37 PPW WKS-ON:4) APD/MD Jo Robinson

"Doing well with lower demos. We're playing it in heavy and in all dayparts and have decided to concentrate more on evening time."

WRUF (M-12 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Harry Guscott

"Reaction: teens...no adults...young-end."

WRZK (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Jeff Horn

"This sure beats 'J.A.R.' It's picking up momentum from the first album. It had a midnight release, so we know the interest is there."

WWBR (M-34 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Walt Brown

"Still the only record I've ever heard that you can't understand anything but the title. But the kids are crazy about it and they're coming in concert, so what can I say?"

ZROC (B-31 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Pat Dawsey

WDRK (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"This fits our station perfectly. I can play it all day and all night. He's talented and the album is phenomenal. It's laid back but it's wonderful."

WKQZ (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Paul Osland

"We are playing it in days. I'm not a big fan of instrumentals, but there are probably a lot of Satch fans."

WRCX (N-7 PPW WKS-ON:5) APD/MD Jo Robinson

KRXQ (N-19 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Curtiss Johnson

"Not working well yet. I was hoping it would come around faster. Still fairly unfamiliar and not a lot of emotion one way or another."

KTYD (B WKS-ON:3) OpsDir/MD Paul Cavanagh

"Despite being 25% unfamiliar, it's testing well so far."

KIOZ (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Greg Stevens

"We're gonna start exposing some other tracks from the album now. We're leading up to a concert on the 28th."

KQRC (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Valorie Knight

"Our audience is totally into it. It's our most-requested song. 5000 people showed up at our in-store, and we had to turn away a thousand of 'em."

KRXQ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Curtiss Johnson

"A real polarized record. It's just a monster for rock partisans...#2 rock track. But it's doing abysmally with the Alternative partisans."

KUFO (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dave Numme

"Doing better on the younger end than the older end, and that's the first time we've ever seen that with Ozzy."

WBZX (B-45 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Hal Fish

"Good tests across the board."

WDBZ (B-48 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"A huge record. People won't stop requesting it. We played new LP tracks over the weekend and they're just going nuts over it. Early research is good."

WDRK (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"Ozzy is huge for us — along the lines of AC/DC — Top 5 phones. 'Tomorrow' and 'On The Other Side' are just great songs. It appeals to everybody. We did an Ozzy weekend and people just can't get enough."

WHDQ (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Guy Dark

"Still number one requests — no burn at all yet."

WKLQ (M-41 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Dave Wellington

"This is still a rock town that craves more mainstream. Ozzy stepped up to the plate and drove one into the bleachers. 'See You' and 'Thunder Underground' are good songs, too."

WOZN (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dano Amann

"I see absolutely no burn yet. It will be heavy at least until the next single. Real hard and brutal."

WRZK (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Jeff Horn

"It's an Ozzy record — no special bells or whistles — people are still into Ozzy and we're letting them hear it."

WTPA (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Dina Wagner

"Absolutely huge. We could play him 100 times a week and they couldn't get enough. The show in DC was great. He gave 110% at the show."

WZTA (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Gregg Steele

"It's not testing well with the adults, which is shocking 'cause that's where the requests are coming from. It's still not a home run."

GOLDBERG GOES FOR MERCURY PRESIDENT/CEO POST

Danny Goldberg

Ed Eckstine

Danny Goldberg has been named President and CEO of Mercury Records, effective Wednesday (11/1). Goldberg replaces Ed Eckstine, who is leaving to start his own label, which will be funded and distributed by PolyGram. From January until August 1995, Goldberg served as Chairman/CEO of Warner Bros. Records. Prior to that he spent a year as President of Atlantic Records. Prior to joining Atlantic in 1992 as Sr. VP, Goldberg was owner of Gold Mountain Entertainment, where he co-managed such artists Nirvana, Sonic Youth, Bonnie Raitt and Hole. He began his career as a music journalist writing for publications such as Billboard and Rolling Stone, and later worked as a publicist for artists including Led Zeppelin. In making the announcement, PolyGram President & CEO Alain Levy commented, "Danny Goldberg has a great track record as an artist friendly music executive with a keen feel for trends in the marketplace. I'm sure that he will fit well with the other PolyGram label presidents. I look forward to having him rebuild the existing artist roster and to have him discover and nurture new talent. I'd like to thank Ed for his contribution to Mercury. I'm thrilled he will continue working with us. He's an important executive in the PolyGram family whose creativity and insight I greatly value." Goldberg added, "It's my immense good fortune that Ed Eckstine has decided to get back to the studio at a time when Mercury is breaking several new artists. I look forward to working with the artists and the staffs at Mercury and PolyGram." Eckstine stated, "I have loved working at Mercury and I'll miss the people here. I'm very proud of the company and our artists. However, I will look forward to getting back to what I love best — working in the studio in a hands-on creative manner, directing a small number of artists. I appreciate Alain Levy's support in helping me realize that dream."

KEZE/SPOKANE FLIPS TO ROCK ALTERNATIVE

SBR Radio Company announced the addition of 14-year AOR KEZE/Spokane to its growing group of "Rock Alternative" client stations. The Citadel Communications outlet made the format change at 7:51am on Friday, October 20. They also changed the station's on-air name from "Rock 106" to "105 dot 7 The Peak." Scott Souhrada, formerly PD at KYYS/Kansas City has been named Program Director. SBR VP David Rahn commented, "Rock Alternative will be an exciting new format for rock listeners in Spokane. We have been very impressed with the energy, creativity and vision shown by the management and staff of the station." The station made the change after a week of stunting which included the "takeover" of the frequency and the launch countdown by a computer generated voice named "Web." To listeners, Web presumably invaded the stations transmitter control computer through the Internet. The switch occurred precisely as the computer counted down to one second Friday morning with an announcement by GM Steve Cody, stating that the change to Rock Alternative represents the station "Rededicating ourselves to the spirit of rock in Spokane."

CAPRICORN RECORDS AND NORML RESPOND TO ALLEGATIONS MADE BY LEE BROWN

In light of recent comments made by Dr. Lee Brown, the White House Director of Drug Policy, regarding the Hempilation recording, Capricorn Records and NORML (National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws) jointly issued a formal response. Phil Walden, President of Capricorn Records, stated: "Capricorn Records does not advocate the use or legalization of marijuana. Our involvement with this project is to establish a forum for these 17 artists to air their personal views on an issue of great social relevance in an entertaining manner. We stand firmly by our decision to bring this project to the public through our channels as a record label and distributor. It is our deepest hope that Dr. Brown's recognition of this project will leave to positive discussions on this issue." Further addressing the issue, Allen St. Pierre, Assistant Executive Director of NORML commented: "Dr. Brown's remarks to the Entertainment Industries Council will in no way create the dialog necessary to reduce the amount of cannabis that is consumed and the harm associated with its illegality. NORML has made great efforts to enjoin Dr. Brown in a public debate regarding the reform of marijuana laws and we hope that now he will honor our request."

The Hard Interview

by Bill Hard

If Alex Trebek answered, 'Top 'o the rock', we'd have to ask 'Who's Jo Robinson?' Yeah, things were good all those years she was a franchise player at WLVO, but in the year plus that Jo's been APD/MD at Evergreen's WRCX/Chicago, they literally couldn't be better. When she and Dave Richards started their station overhaul last summer, the former Blaze was in the low 2's. Check this from the Summer book: WRCX went 3.1-3.8 persons 12+, was #1 in men 18 to dead, and #2 persons 18-49. And how about these dream stats for her midday show: #1 men 18-34, #2 men 25-54, #1 persons 18-34, #1 men 18+, #1 men 18-49, etc., etc. Pretty serious stuff considering the market and the competition. But as you'll soon read, grace and performance under pressure is Ms. Robinson's middle name.

THE HARD REPORT

Jo Robinson

An hour from now you will walk into the studio to follow Mancow. What's that like?

Jo: It's a flurry of activity. He usually doesn't get off the air until 10:15, 10:30, or sometimes 10:45, so I know now to take a bunch of work upstairs with me and do a ton of show prep while I am waiting in the wings, as it were. He's got 9 or 10 people in the studio at all times, so when I go in it's just mayhem. There are still people everywhere, moving their carts, and this and that. Mancow's terminally losing his keys or his glasses, so they finally clear out of there about 11:30.

And you walked into that straight out of Columbus. Wasn't that daunting?

Jo: It was pretty darn intimidating. You just have to take a deep breath and go 'Wow. So this is what the big time is like.' I'm definitely used to it now. You just have to go with the flow.

What's the pressure to perform like when you follow such a high personality daypart?

Jo: Dave puts it best when he says, 'Jo, you follow Jerry Seinfeld.' You've got a great lead-in, so you have to be great. But it's an entirely different animal because Mancow is an entity in and of himself, and the challenge for us as a radio station is to maintain that the rest of the day - with attitude, with tempo, with great music, great personalities and great production, everything. As far as that goes I think that Mancow has made this entire station the best that it can possibly be.

Obviously, the powers that be are thrilled with everything that has transpired since he hit town.

Jo: Yes. They are. They're not thrilled with some of the aftermath of what happens.

October 27, 1995

The Stern thing, the publicity...

Jo: The publicity is fine, they have no problem with that. It's just that sometimes it can backfire. They deal with that too. It's just the name of the game. If they are going to get someone as high profile as Mancow then they are going to have to deal with some of those consequences. They fully expect to do that and handle it well.

Is there a fundamental difference in the audiences you and Mancow reach?

Jo: Yes, there definitely is. I'll get phone calls at 1:30 in the afternoon, people still calling wanting to talk to Mancow. Which is nice for me. It definitely keeps the ego in check. But on the other hand I do have listeners who wait to tune in at 10:30. That's the way it goes. His numbers were huge from day one. Our challenge was to catch up to him as far as our ratings go. Now they are much more equal.

Which is really quite rare with a giant numbers morning show, Howard in particular.

Jo: I think that Dave has once again been smart in that he uses 'Cow's show to promote the rest of the radio station. We can't expect Mancow, because he's got his own agenda, to go 'Oh by the way, Jo Robinson has this and this and this. And Lou Brutus has this coming up later on this afternoon.' The way that we combat that is we use produced promos for my show that run in 'Cow's show, and then through every daypart. I've got Lou Brutus promos in my show and so forth. All the station promos are written and recorded by our 6-10pm guy, Ned Spindle, who is just brilliant. They are hilarious. Each one is funnier than the next. People turn the radio up just to hear Ned's promos. Those run in morning drive as well.

Has coming on after Mancow fundamentally changed your on-air approach? Is there a big difference in what you are doing now and what you were doing a month before you got there?

Jo: I think that it's the entire station persona that's different. At 'LVQ we were a 25+ radio station. Here we are 18-34, we concentrate on 25-34 year olds. But at 'LVQ it was an entirely different station sound. Being sandwiched between Mancow and the best Rock afternoon guy in the country, Lou Brutus inspires me to do my best. Lou is proof-positive that the witness protection program works.

There was really kind of a sense around the industry that John Edwards did a great job of handing over what was pretty much a burn bag to Evergreen. When you and Dave got started, did you recognize that you had a major overhaul on your hands?

Jo: Absolutely. That was the reason I wanted to come here. I knew that we could make this frequency work and I knew that Dave would be the guy to go with to do it. When we got here there were maybe 40 CDs in the studio. That was it. Now we're very tight but we've got thousands in the studio. We've definitely honed what we're doing over the last year and a couple of months. When we first got here the Blaze played no

Jo joined by Warner Bros.' Grover, Dave Lombardi and two-thirds of the Goo Goo Dolls.

Soundgarden, no Pearl Jam, no Stone Temple Pilots. We sat and said, 'It would probably not be a bad idea to play "Fall On Black Days".'

That was an easy sell job I would assume.

Jo: Yeah. We had no problem with that. We were also playing at the time Boston, Foreigner, and Kansas. That was in August of '94. The Classic Rock station, 'CKG was a cake walk to beat so then we focused entirely on our battle with Q101. That's the point at which we sat down and decided what sounded right and what didn't, and not necessarily from auditorium tests or any other research.

Obviously your numbers are great, but do you feel like there are still some perceptual problems in listeners' minds that linger from the Blaze era?

Jo: Initially, yes. We had a lot of people calling in asking if we were the Blaze. Or 'You guys used to play Killer Dwarfs, why don't you play them now?' That happens far less now. I might get one phone call every couple of weeks with somebody going 'Hi, is this the Blaze?' Everybody pretty much knows us as 'The Rock'.

How important do you see your air shift versus all of your other programming assignments?

Jo: It is just as important as everything else that I do. Had I not been on the air during our metamorphosis, I don't think that I would have realized the direction that we needed to go. I think that I can better help the radio station by being on-air.

How many hours a week do you work?

Jo: Easily 60.

And you're still married, huh?

Jo: And I'm still married.

The Hard Interview

Your husband is in the production side of the music business. Is that good for the relationship or does it take a lot more work to keep things smooth when you are both in a high-pressure entertainment oriented environment?

Jo: We are both very good to each other. We've got a very nurturing relationship. I think that it's important that we spoil each other. To answer the question, no, we don't get home and get on each other's nerves. Ernie is the most laid back human being on the planet. I think we compliment each other that way. When we don't see a lot of each other we always reserve Sundays to make sure that we spend some time together. If I'm out of town or whatever then we look forward to the following Sunday. He's a tremendously supportive individual and loves to see me succeed and I love to see him succeed. It's a good, healthy relationship.

'RCX cast-aways Jo and Dave (in the striped sweater) take the proverbial 100 lucky listeners on a little lake cruise.

Let's talk about your relationship with all those part timers you're in charge of air checking. Would you consider yourself more of a psychologist in those sessions or more of a practical 'get those calls in every eight seconds' sort of tactician?

Jo: More of a psychologist because the name of the game here is attitude. We don't do the weather. We don't give the time. We don't do PSAs. We don't have liners in the studio. All of our promos are pre-recorded by Ned. Our main focus is on the music and station features from 10:30am on. What's important to me when I am airchecking the jocks is you've got to put your personality into the show and really talk up all of the new music because that's our bread and butter. A lot of people don't know the difference between Bush and the Toadies and they have to know the difference between those bands. We are completely anal about getting bio information in the studio. There are just volumes of bio books in there, of research books. We expect our jocks to do a lot of show prep.

How much do you do daily?

Jo: Probably about an hour to an hour and a half. But you can't make it come across like you've done show prep. You've got to make it sound completely spontaneous. You need to know what you are talking about.

You were a liner jock before you got to Chicago. How hard was it for you to make the transition to a dramatically more spontaneous approach?

Jo: Once you reach a certain level, being comfortable on the air you don't use the liners anyway. You know that they are sitting there in front of you and you've got to touch on this point at some point in your show. I do agree that there is that comfort zone where you could sit back and say 'I've got a headache today,' or 'I'm tired. I didn't get a lot of sleep so I can read the liners this one break verbatim.' You can not do that here - ever.

From an air talent perspective, you pretty much are at the pinnacle. Where do you go from there? Does New York or L.A. have any special allure to you?

Jo: Not at all. Chicago is as large a city as I ever want to live in. I like New York and L.A. to visit but I don't believe that I would ever want to live in either of those cities. A lot of that has to do with me but also with my husband. I really have to be cognizant of his wishes. We do all of this as a team. I don't think that either one of us a year and a half ago thought that I'd be in the position that I am now. Not that he didn't believe in me but this is a pretty special thing.

Were you and Dave friends before you got the call at WLVQ?

Jo: I didn't even know Dave and he called me a little over a year ago and left a message on my voice mail. I thought that he was looking for tapes of people that we had gotten at 'LVQ or whatever. I didn't even know what WRCX was when he called me. We chatted a lot. It was going to take a lot for me to move because I was happy at 'LVQ, we owned a house, my husband had a business there, family is there, the whole thing. I interviewed him as much as he interviewed me. I knew that there was a commitment there, and we clicked immediately. The funny thing was I never asked him how he found out about me, why my name came up versus everybody else. I've never really been one to promote myself. I don't do comments in the trades or send my picture to the trades, or whatever.

I have to be honest with you... Hal Fish put the deal together to get you out of town.

Jo: That's why he sent me flowers when I left, huh?

Did you have a sense that with the momentum Hal and the Blitz had that it might be a good time to get out of Dodge?

Jo: That never crossed my mind.

The Hard Interview

Insulting question, eh?

Jo: No, not at all. But, honestly, I wasn't looking to get out of Columbus.

Being a music driven person, wasn't it frustrating to have WBZX coming at you so hard with a current intensive approach when you were relegated to a much more classic intensive approach?

Jo: Me, personally, yes. It was frustrating because there were a lot of bands that I would have liked us to play when I was at 'LVQ that didn't necessarily fit. Now I think that maybe the music gods or whoever were looking after me because now I am here and have a major influence on what we play at this station.

A number of label reps have commented on the extent of your playlist power. Is that something that you had to work out with Dave over time or coming in was it clear...

Jo: That was a prerequisite for my coming in. He was hiring me for many reasons but two of them were my ears. He obviously has the final say in anything that we add, but he'll be the first to tell you he came from a Classic Rock background, and that's why he needed me here. That has not changed.

Do you run Selector yourself?

Jo: Yes. Dave doesn't have a computer in his office.

Yeah, and I'll bet his desk is a wreck.

Jo: It's a mess.

How do your responsibilities differ from the standard APD? Anything that you do that you think is unusual? Do you make Dave get coffee for you?

Jo: Yes, of course I do. And I make him make it too. I will certainly do anything that needs to get done, and as time has gone on I have accepted more responsibilities from Dave. Actually, Dave just walked in, and he just said 'She doesn't do shit.'

Isn't it just a matter of time before Dave takes out some sort of group responsibilities or goes somewhere else and you become PD? Could you do it?

Jo: Sure, I could. I think that is probably what this company has in mind for me. We talked about that a year and a half ago when I came here. It would be tough for me to give up my show because I love it so much. But it's almost impossible to do a four hour show and do everything else involved in programming a station like this. There would be no way to stay on the air.

But given the choice you'd opt for the programming?

Jo: Sure. It's the next level.

Now that you have had the chance to do the hang with mega talents like Mancow, Brandmeier, Dahl, Kevin Matthews, etc, is there any one common thing about their personalities you've observed?

Jo: That they don't let criticism affect them the way that it may affect other people. You've got to have a huge ego to do morning radio in Chicago, or afternoon radio. Whether it's only on the surface, their sense of security is exemplary. I wish I were more like that sometimes.

Talk to any national rock promotion person, and they'll tell you 'presents' battles are a major headache. How's that situation with you and Dave these days?

Afternoon driver Lou Brutus and Jo take on Rush St. during St. Patrick's Day celebrations.

Jo: It finally seems like with the great summer book and us beating Q101, that a lot more people realize how real we are. All that we have ever asked for is neutrality on shows. We don't care if we get a Presents or not because there is no question that we can out-promote anyone on any concert.

Is that because of Evergreen's promotional war chest?

Jo: Don't we wish. No, it's because of our collective vision as a radio station. Dave is an incredible programmer. He is a detail maniac. We've got the best promotion director in the country in Natalie DiPietro. The staff just gets behind everything 1000%. Because we're not liner driven, we have the freedom to truly get behind every single promotion we do, be it music or otherwise, and out promote any of the competition.

Haven't you found that a number of labels are so fixated on the Alternative format that it's going to take a lot more than a great book to turn them around?

Jo: It isn't that it has turned them around totally, obviously, but it's hopefully enough that they'll think three times instead of twice about giving the Alternative stations a co-pro. Once the national men and women come to town and hear what we do, they totally get it. Jeffrey Naumann is a perfect example. He was here for the Smashing Pumpkins free show at the Riviera on Monday night. They were blown away by how we promoted the show as ours when the competition also had tickets to give away. And that was a totally neutral show.

The Hard Interview

You hear a lot about the WRCX/Q101 battle. How does WXRT factor into the presents politics?

Jo: I don't think we really have had any battles with Presents with 'XRT. Also we have to realize that we're only a year and a half old, and 'XRT has been here twenty years. If they get a co-pro on the Goo Goo Dolls, if they have been playing the Goos since their first record we'll bow to that. We don't have a problem with that at all. If it's a new band and we're playing it as much as our competitors and the competitors get the co-pro we want to know why.

What do you like best about what they do?

Jo: I think it's enviable the variety of music that they can play. Their jocks are just so knowledgeable but they don't talk down to their listeners, they are just on a different level than a lot of mass appeal radio is. Patti Martin is just a fabulous woman and a great Music Director. Norm Weiner is a super guy too. We had dinner with them on Monday night - we get along very well with them.

That's nice. I hang with the FMQB guys every chance I get.

Jo: Yeah, I'll bet you do.

How much does the potential to do a show factor into what baby bands you decide to step out on?

Jo: Not at all with us. I can't think of an instance where that has actually happened to us where a label has said 'If you play this record you'll get the co-pro on it because Q101 isn't on it,' or something like that. Our slots are very valuable. It's darn important for us to be playing the hits. If we play a record we are going to be committed to playing that song, and it isn't just going to be for a week or two and then drop it. No. Our slots are precious to us and I think that labels realize that. There's not a lot of wheeling and dealing for baby bands for us to get the co-pro. If it's neutral, fine, we'll promote it. We'll give away tickets, and whatnot...

How about if it's not neutral?

Jo: If it isn't neutral, we'll still give away tickets. We will not ignore that band. I know that a lot of people will say, 'Well, wait a minute, you're promoting your competitor's concert,' but the perception is that it is still our show because we always out-promote them.

But at the end of the day, do the listeners really care whose show it is?

Jo: I don't think they do. I think it's all ego. As long as we get as many goodies as we can to help promote the show — tickets or t-shirts, or whatever — I don't think the listeners care who is presenting the concert. I don't think the promoters care either, they just want their venues sold out.

What's the last band that you guys broke and you can honestly say that you did things for that nobody else in the city did?

Jo takes a swing vs. Brother Cane.

Jo: Toadies.

What's the last band you feel like you went to the wall for and your efforts weren't recognized?

Jo: Bush. Same record company.

Do you think that there will come a time when most shows will be neutral?

Jo: I certainly hope so. I'd be able to sleep better at night. But it's not just us against Q101. It's us against Bill Gamble and his other Alternative stations that he consults.

How difficult does that make your task?

Jo: It makes it almost impossible, but the adversity definitely makes us better. Whereas Dave and I can say 'Okay, if we don't get this we won't support the artist', Bill can say, 'We won't support the artist in any number of cities.' That's a tough thing to go up against. There's no question about it. It's frustrating as hell. That's the excuse that we get back from the labels too. 'But Gamble will drop the record.' But you've got to wonder if that would really happen if the record is working and the people want to hear it. It's important for the labels to know when someone is crying wolf and it's important for the labels also to realize that we're in this for the long haul. We don't drop records when we don't get our way. We are very reasonable people who don't throw temper tantrums but we expect respect.

Good line, Jo.

Jo: Thanks to Rodney Dangerfield. And we deserve that respect.

What's the biggest programming modification that you and Dave made over the course of the past year?

Jo: Deciding to concentrate on being Active Rock when we didn't even know what that was at the time. Weeding out the older music even if it tested well with our listeners and going for that more current sound. It was a risk.

The Hard Interview

You dumped stuff that was testing?

Jo: Sure, we did. Things like Pink Floyd's 'Time' or 'Carry On My Wayward Son'. Both would still test through the roof here but it just sounds wrong and old. So we don't play it. We still play Pink Floyd 'Young Lust' or 'Welcome To The Machine.'

What is your favorite new track on the radio right now?

Jo: 'Bullet With Butterfly Wings'.

And your favorite baby band?

Jo: 7 Mary 3, which I hope doesn't get lost in the shuffle. I've listened to the whole disc, American Standard, and I think that it's got some real potential. 'Cumbersome' is one of those songs that seems to be ahead of the pack - it's starting to push its way through the mass of new bands and we're starting to get legitimate requests for it. It's kind of like the Toadies, they did the same thing for us.

I know that Mancow sold a ton of Popa Chubby records. Do you speak with him regularly on bands that he might get behind or does that sort of just happen?

Jo: It sort of happens although I will leave certain things for him to see if he wants to try them. 'Cow doesn't play a lot of music but if he does get behind certain artists, whether he plays them or not people think that's cool and they will go out and buy the record.

You and Buzz Knight were a formidable team. What did you learn from that association?

Jo: Buzz is a soul mate. I love him so much. He really taught me patience and how to better organize myself as far as the management thing goes. He was my mentor, he still is. He is just an exemplary programmer.

You are obviously a very successful female in what is primarily a male dominated business. What dos and don'ts would you offer to the next generation of Jo Robinsons?

Jo: I do think that young women coming up in the business still think that it's okay for them to put up with compromising themselves to get ahead. You don't have to be a rock n' roll bitch.

As defined?

Jo: As defined by trying to sound too sexy on the air or trying to be a come-on on the air. It's very important to be yourself. Have passion about the music, or just give it up — and that applies to men and women. Also, it's important to realize that nice guys don't always finish last. Try to be a good listener and to surround yourself with people with whom you share mutual respect and who will let you do your job.

TRIPLE ACE

John Hiatt, "Walk On," Capitol Bruce Ranes/WXPB
 John Hiatt with Walk On delivers a rock solid performance as one would only expect from the prevailing king of singer/songwriters. We expect the album to be on our current shelf for quite some time." Jon Peterson/WRLT, "Hiatt's back in fine form and causing our phones to ring off the hook. Not surprising, the Hiatt legions are phoning in droves, but also noteworthy are the number of calls from people that don't know that it's John Hiatt, who are calling and saying, "Who is that? Where can I get it?"

Zeb Norris/WXLE, "This is a good album with plenty of depth. Don't miss 'Good As She Could Be.'" Shawn Taylor/WVAY, "We added 'Cry Love,' and it kicks butt." Dan Reed/WNCW, "We have come to expect great things from John Hiatt, and he has not disappointed us yet. The songs on Walk On are very catchy and powerful. Hiatt is one of our great American songwriting treasures, and this is a great album. The first single, 'Cry Love,' was a no-brainer." Kim Rowe/WCLZ, "I think that John Hiatt gets better with every CD he puts out. We featured the entire album all week-end long. Walk On is a great album." Don Ferrell/KRVM, "This album is simply incredible. This guy should be HUGE — there should be billboards of him in every major city in the country thanking him for being in the music business. This is one of the best albums of the year and the most anticipated as well. Hiatt is a great musician and a snappy dresser. Even though he stood us up in Constantine's suite at Gavin, I forgive him because this album is so good."

THE HOT CORNER

Mike Scott, "Bring 'Em All In," Chrysalis/EMI
Dan Reed/WNCW, "Your audience remembers The Waterboys. They have always been an intelligent alternative band that sold a lot of records, and the upper demos really liked them. Scott was a mature songwriter back then and still is, but now his songs are more subdued. Mike Scott has an unmistakable voice that is dramatic. I think people are looking for that, especially in this format. He has not lost his touch." Stacy Owen/WNKU, "We just put Mike Scott in heavy rotation. We are on four tracks off the album for starters. We've always been fans of The Waterboys, and Mike Scott is The Waterboys. He is kind of grounded with this new stuff. He went back to Ireland and put himself together and he is headed in the right direction. This album sounds great." Don Ferrell/KRVM, "I love the single, 'Bring 'Em All In,' and the album was not a disappointment. We are going to go three or four deep on this. The entire album is great. Very excitable stuff from Mike Scott." Greg Roberts/KFXD, "This is a solid record with great songwriting. It was a real surprise, Mike Scott holds his own."

Robben Ford & The Blue Line, "Handful Of Blues," Stretch/Blue Thumb This is one racy and riffy Handful Of Blues. Robben Ford is not your ordinary blues guitarist. His less traditional, more linear style of playing is certainly his John Hancock of sound. The allure of his songwriting should help attract as much attention towards this great musician as his playing has in the past. Dig deep on this one because you don't want your listeners miss out. Greg Roberts/KFXD, "I urge programmers to look deep into this album and find a true artist to call our own. It's a strong album song for song. He's not just the blues anymore." Tom Krumm/KLRF, "Robben Ford sounds as great as ever and we're getting a tremendous response on 'Good Thing.'" Ian Taylor/WKVT, "We added it and we like it and we're going to keep playing it."

Celinda Pink, "Unchained," SOR

Was Celinda Unchained or did she just bust out with that voice? That voice! Man she's solid soul with pipes as big as a mountain. Fans of blues will adore her, country enthusiasts will embrace her and AAA can't resist her charm. Free your listeners from the shackles of everyday life with this well produced, horn and Hammond packed Celinda Pink release. By the way, she really smokes on her Janis Joplin cover of "Me And Bobby McGee." Stacy Owen/WNKU, "Celinda has paid her dues in Nashville over the years. She's got a cool voice — sounds like Bonnie Raitt a bit. She is roots oriented with soulful vocals, and I'm sure we will find something we can use on this album." Mary Ramirez/KPFT, "I love this album. It was an automatic add. Celinda Pink is real popular here. She's got a very touching and soulful voice. This album is irresistible, check it out."

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

Bonnie Raitt with Bryan Adams, "Rock Steady," Capitol

Jon Peterson/WRLT, "It doesn't sound live, but it sounds great! Bonnie's back with a fine roots rocking duet, co-written by Nashville's own Gretchen Peters. Sounds like another winner from the Queen of Blues Rock." Kim Rowe/WCLZ, "We added it this week and it's a great tune. When I first listened to it, I didn't realize that it was Bryan Adams singing. It's a wonderful duet." Zeb Norris/WXLE, "I know that some programmers are worried about the Bryan Adams half, but he does have female credibility. This duet sure isn't one of his wimpy ballads and I'm always looking to play Bonnie." Shawn Taylor/WVAY, "This single is great — immediate add! Tim Tobin/WUVR, "What she's got here is a record that will be accepted not only at Triple A, but AOR and AC formats as well. This is pretty clever what they've done — it rocks and it's Bonnie Raitt." Louise Coogan/WKZE, "I was there when it was recorded at Paramount. I was surprised when Bonnie said she had a friend with her and it turned out to be Bryan Adams. But Bryan is an adult artist and a good writer. It was a dynamic performance and this is a fabulous song." Mike Mullaney/WXRV, "People seem to think that Bryan Adams is sort of a wimpy character, but he can still rock and you can't fault Bonnie's judgment. This is a fun, rockin' tune — and that's what music is all about. It's one of the big no-brainers of the fall."

Stevie Ray Vaughan, "Taxman," Epic

Louise Coogan/WKZE, "Stevie Ray Vaughan has a place in the format and so do the Beatles. The combination of him doing a Beatles song is a win-win situation. It's a little rockin', but it would work in some day-parts." Dan Reed/WNCW, "Don't be stupid — play this. People are really hungry for Stevie Ray Vaughan stuff that hasn't yet been released. He is a big request item and he transcends the blues. This Beatles cover tune is a great version and he brings life to it. People expect to hear Stevie Ray Vaughan and they deserve to hear him." Tom Krumm/KLRF, "This is one of my all time favorite George Harrison tunes and Stevie Ray Vaughan does a bang up version of it." Greg Roberts/KFXD, "This just proves what a great loss it really was when we lost Stevie Ray Vaughan." Mary Ramirez/KPFT, "I really like the song. We played it on the air and Stevie really puts a kick into it. I love the echoing in the song, it brings more meaning to it. I've always liked this Beatles song, but Stevie Ray puts more of a groove to it." Kim Rowe/WCLZ, "Stevie Ray Vaughan did the Beatles justice with 'Taxman.' When we got it, we put it right on."

Okeh/Epic artist G. Love drew a crowd of more than 500 fans for his in-store solo acoustic performance at Tower Records in Philadelphia, where his new album, Coast To Coast Motel, went on sale at midnight, 10/19.

Bonnie Raitt

By now I'm sure you had a chance to hear "Rock Steady," the lead track from Bonnie Raitt's new live album, Road Tested (Capitol). Bryan Adams notwithstanding, this song is signature Bonnie, with oodles of slide guitar and her distinctive vocals.

Dog's Eye View

You should have received an album called Happy Nowhere (Columbia) from the band Dog's Eye View. The leader of the band Peter Stuart, was taken under the wing of Counting Crow Adam Duritz, who took Peter out on tour with his band, and then Tori Amos, who also took him on tour. I saw both of these tours, and Stuart totally blew me away. His songs are great, his energy level is out of control, and he is one of the truly nice guys in the business. Backed by his band on the album, Stuart's songs shine. Columbia is not going to work this album until after the first of the year, but I wanted to make you aware of it now because I love it! "Everything Falls Apart" is a good introduction to Stuart and Co., and may be the first single. My favorite is "The Prince's Favorite Son," which is one of the highlights of the live show. Also check out "Small Wonders," "Speed Of Silence" and the beautiful "Haywire."

Urge Overkill

Urge Overkill is having a nice run at Alternative Radio with their album Exit The Dragon (Geffen). The album has a few songs that are adult-appealing, and will work well as crossover songs. Give a listen to "View Of The Rain," "Monopoly," "Somebody Else's Body," "The Mistake," and "Digital Black Epilogue."

Joe Grushecky

Joe Grushecky has garnered quite a following on the East Coast and with his new album American Babylon (Razor & Tie), which is produced by Bruce Springsteen, he hopes to take his act to a national level. You will immediately hear the Springsteen influence on songs like "Labor Of Love," "Talk Show," "Never Enough Time" and the title track.

She Thing

Ain't Nothing But A She Thing (London) is an album and MTV special featuring some of today's hottest female artists doing covers of other women's songs. On the 4 track CDPro, Check out Annie Lennox's take on the Bjork tune "Mama."

Oasis

Following closely on the heels of their wildly successful debut Definitely Maybe comes (What's The Story) Morning Glory? (Epic) from Oasis. This British phenom has a huge following, which we can tap into with songs like "Wonderwall," my favorite, as well as "Don't Look Back In Anger," "Cast No Shadow," and "She's Electric." With the title track quickly climbing the Alternative charts, now's the time to feature this band.

Toad The Wet Sprocket

Toad The Wet Sprocket's In Light Syrup (Columbia) is as Leo put it, their Odds and Sods. It is a collection of B-sides, rarities and songs that have appeared on soundtracks over the years. Lead by "Good Intentions," which everyone is playing from the Friends OST, the CD also features "Brother," a great song that was buried on the So I Married An Axe Murderer OST. "Little Heaven" from the Buffy The Vampire Slayer OST, as well as "Hobbit On The Rocks" (with a nod to Andy Partridge) and "All Right," an outtake from the Dulcinea sessions.

Mike Scott

Former Waterboy Mike Scott has released his first solo album, called Bring Em' All In (EMI). The songs are wonderful, but hard to deal with on the radio. Try "I Know She's In The Building," "Edinburgh Castle," "Building The City Of Light" and "Sensitive Children." Any fan of The Waterboys will certainly appreciate the writing on this album.

Joe Satriani

If you're having success with "You're My World" from Joe Satriani's new self-titled album, there are some follow-up tracks that should also work well for you. "Cool #9" is a funky piece with some frenetic playing by Catering. "Look My Way" and "Sittin' Round" are nice blues tracks, and "Home" and "Moroccan Sunset" are standard Catering instruments.

The winner will be announced on the air on Wednesday, November 15th on Chris Douridas' nationally acclaimed Morning Becomes Electric. KCRW GM Ruth Seymour commented, "This is a terrific opportunity for listeners to our music service. Since we see ourselves as a viable outlet for breaking new ground with diverse musical artists, we are happy to work with Restless and actually be a part of one of the world's most exciting music festivals. Importantly, I can see this production perhaps starting a trend. It is a great way to reach out to NPR's dynamic audience." Restless VP/Marketing & Promotion Rich Schmidt emphasized the importance of KCRW and other NPR stations around the country in establishing new artists, stating, "KCRW has been very supportive of many of the Restless artists, including The Golden Palominos, Lori Carson, and most recently Spain. This is just one way we can thank them for their support."

Evidence Records out of Pennsylvania took a deep breath when they signed Melvin Taylor to their label as their first living blues artist. Evidence, you see, has been doing the blues world an enormous favor by licensing and distributing heretofore unavailable European blues releases, including two previously recorded Taylor sessions. Well, I've got news for Jerry at Evidence — You can breath again! The decision to sign Taylor was a lucky stroke indeed. This release, titled simply Melvin Taylor And The Slack Band (composed of Taylor, bassist Willie Smith and drummer Steve Potts), is sure to make Taylor, long a staple on Tuesday nights at Rosa's Lounge in Chicago, an independent blues artist of major importance — his playing is that good! Covering guitar slingers like Aaron "T-Bone" Walker with "T-Bone Shuffle", Otis Rush's "All Your Love" and Albert King's "Don't Throw Your Love

On Me So Strong". Taylor doesn't just copy these artists, he puts his own magical spin on these well known tunes and makes them sound Taylor unique. He's even got a scary rendition of Jimi Hendrix's "Voodoo Chile" — right down to sounding like Hendrix in the flesh. There are more than just covers included in this release, Taylor also re-acquaints us with his blues-jazz inspired "Talking With Anna Mae," a rousing "Grooving in New Orleans," and his take on "Depression Blues," each composition fresh and flavorful. Okay, he can play but what about his singing? Taylor shines here too, being able to convincingly bring passion, emotion, and confidence to his vocals that help wrap up the entire package of Melvin Taylor & the Slack Band. Make no mistake, this is no "slack" recording and is serious notice to the blues community that Melvin Taylor & Company are a modern blues force to be reckoned with.

COVER PICK

Wicker Man, Wicker Man (Hollywood)

This four piece have blasted like a tornado out of the Windy City with their crushing and churning brand of high volume rock. After one listen, if your hand hasn't reached for the volume knob then you aren't truly able to appreciate their feedback laced dissonance. Wicker Man quickly became a fixture on the City club scene not only opening for the likes of White Zombie, the Melvins, and KMFDM, but also on their own right, for they provided a powerful change from the pop metal of the suburbs and the Alternative stranglehold of Wicker Park, all while pulling in fans from each camp. "You Annoy Me" has already found airplay at 37 stations, but their Stephen Haigler (Pixies, Quicksand) produced debut will grab you by the throat right out of the box with the barrage of "Party Grrr!", and doesn't stop for a break. Highlights include the pounding "Sugarfoot", "Shit Kicker", which features White Zombie's Jay Yuenger on guitar (this song is well worth the trip to production), and the thick groove of "Brainfreeze". Their live show is equally potent, and if you missed them at Foundations, they will be joining the Machine Head/Stuck Mojo tour in November and then will be hooking up with White Zombie after the first of the year. So turn it up loud, Wicker Man is prepared to alter the musical landscape with their furious and formidable rock.

TOP PICKS

The Replicants, The Replicants (Zoo)

Some musical projects are put together for the sheer fun of it all, and the Replicants are a key example of this. Comprised of Paul D'Amour of Tool, plus Failure members Ken Andrew and Greg Edwards with Chris Pittman rounding out the bunch, this familiar line-up are dishing out their own off-kilter renditions of equally familiar songs. Be sure to check out their version of the Cars'

"Just What I Needed", Neil Young's "Cinnamon Girl", their techno laced cover of Missing Persons' "Destination Unknown", and Steely Dan's "Dirty Work". A special appearance is also made by Tool singer Maynard Keenan on a seven minute plus take on McCartney's "Silly Love Songs". As the name alludes, the Replicants instill a futuristic and distorted slant on the tunes, keeping their identity but bringing them up into a new era. Kind of like they turned the Starship Enterprise into a whacked out progressive underground club. While the mail is abounding with all-star projects and tribute records, the Replicants find a new twist with this time work journey through some songs that we may have forgotten about, but as soon as the lyrics kick in, it will all come rushing back...

Therapy?, "Misery" (A&M)

This Irish group has been blitzing our senses with their frenzied rock — which is both ambient and melodic, warped and frank. On both their debut and the follow up, Troublegum, heavy radio found themselves drawn toward the noisy, demented side of the band found on songs like "Knives", which is featured as a live track on this EP, and "Teethgrinder". Their third release,

Infernal Love, is due out in January but the five song sampler (sent exclusively to Metal and College) features the first single "Misery" and is ready for airplay now. The song is hooky enough to grab the ear of programmers, and has a furious element to prime those underground fans. Also included is a demo of the unreleased Ramones-ish "Evil Elvis", a live version of "Stories" which will be on the upcoming album, and an updated remix of "Isolation". Already superstars in Europe, they are taking more steps to notoriety here in the states by spreading their "Misery".

Savatage, Dead Winter Dead (Atlantic)

It has been a long haul for Savatage, but even after all these years, all these changes, and many obstacles, they have always been able to focus their creative energies on music. The Tage are back with what is actually their second concept album - the first was the 1991 Streets, A Rock Opera - but Dead Winter Dead takes it's setting right from the headlines in Sarajevo and the gut wrenching Bosnian Civil War. The album is best interpreted as an entire piece, but as you peer into each song, a chapter in the story is played out with atmosphere and intensity provided by the majestic and almost orchestral musicianship (you can hear shades of Queen's over the top power here) along with the vocal diversity brought in by Zak Stevens and Jon Oliva. The single has already brought enough airplay to chart at #37, but if you are looking to expand on that stop at the celebratory "This Is The Time", the haunting pound of "I Am", or the uptempo "Doesn't Matter Anyway". With a strong fanbase that has stuck with this band through thick and thin, a touch of progressive experimentation and a metallic edge, Savatage have a staying power of over twelve years that will take them another step toward a lively holiday season with Dead Winter Dead for hard rock fans.

Smashing Pumpkins, Mellon Collie and the Infinite Sadness (Virgin)

The title of the latest from the Smashing Pumpkins may seem extravagant, but it only hints at the grandiose spectacle on this offering, both in the size and artistic achievement. From lilting introspective dirges to full-on sonic blasts of fury, it's all here. Very few artists have the creative stamina (or the freedom from their label) to pursue a double CD of all new material, but the Pumpkins are no ordinary band. While they are typically shelved amongst the many so-called Alternative bands out today, the musical expanse they travel far exceeds that pigeon hole. While "Bullet with Butterfly Wings" continues to draw raves at both mainstream and Hard Hitters stations, any programmers looking to delve further will find surging guitars, walls of riffs, dissonance, melody, and chunky rhythmic foundations. Be sure to sample "Jelly Belly" (furious demented explosion), "Zero" (just try and sit still for this one), and "(Fuck You) An Ode To No One" (this really is radio friendly) from the first CD. If that isn't enough the second CD offers "Where the Boys Fear to Tread" (churning dirge), "Tales of a Scorched Earth" (distortion fury), and "X.Y.U." (KoRn-like cathartic release). There is plenty to explore, and Mellon Collie and the Infinite Sadness is a world that any music lover would crave to find themselves in.

7th Omen, Majestic (Septagram)

Those Alternative indie rock types think that they have the corner on the DIY (do it yourself) market, but with an impressive 34 adds this week, 7th Omen show on their first nationally distributed release (they have had an album out in Europe) that they can have an impact from the grass roots level as well. That should be no surprise for their progressive brand of metal has been missing from the Hard Hitters airwaves lately and the initial response to Majestic shows that it has been missed. It's hard to pinpoint exactly the style of 7th Omen, but they combine the technical aspects of Dream Theater and Queensryche with the intricate speed metal of Megadeth. This Chicago-based four piece pride themselves on walking the fine line between powerful and melodic, skilled and approachable. If you are nostalgic for the furious picking and clean meticulous care poured into metallic musical arrangements, rather than the slacker brand of rock, then Majestic will be a good omen for you.

on the cover

The Smashing Pumpkins, Mellon Collie and the Infinite Sadness, Virgin

This double CD is so freakin' cool that we can't stop listening to it here. The first listen of the masterpiece brought to our attention many tracks which are now surfacing as the next opportunities for airplay on the Pumpkins. We tend to lean toward "Tonight Tonight," partly because it is so heavily injected with the emotion and drama that lies within the whole CD set. In one track, you have the majestic arrangement, the tortured vocal, the kindred lyrical touchstones and the added flourishes of excitement that come when elements of greatness combine to near perfection. This one feels like it will be a monster song for The Smashing Pumpkins. It provoked X107's Steve Blatter to comment "I think that's a hit record." There are plenty of other good ones. "1979" is also seeing some play, and rightly so, as is the rocker "Zero."

choices

Toad the Wet Sprocket, "Brother," Columbia/CRG

From the In Light Syrup CD comes this gem, which originally appeared on the soundtrack to the movie So I Married an Ax Murderer. It's a mid-tempo rock track that sounds like a Dulcinea record, and feels very solid in that monster album's wake. In Light Syrup is chock full of glorious music, and this track will act as a huge gateway.

Oasis, "Wonderwall," Epic

This one caught our ears on the first listen to the full-length, and now that it's the next single from that very same full-length, we can officially glow about it. Everything about Gallagher's voice works on this track, a laid-back ballad that is crystal-clear and haunting at the same time. Take the tempo break. It could be a very big song for this band, and for you. WMRQ's Gina Crash says "I've worn this one out on my CD player. I just love this one. It makes you forget about their self-destructive natures - it's hard to imagine them tossing TV sets out hotel windows or something at the same time you're listening to this song."

"You Were Meant For Me"

The new single from the critically-acclaimed album Pieces of You

She will be featured on the TNT-produced "The Wizard of Oz," airing on 11/22

Also scheduled for a VH-1 appearance with Melissa Etheridge in November.

more choices

Jill Sobule, "Good Person Inside," Lava/Atlantic

Combining the skilled strength of songwriting with the up-tempo pop touch usually errs in the favor of the superficial. Jill Sobule's understanding on this track is both a literal and figurative reach inside that results in a savvy blend of sass and song well worth your ears.

Bush, "Glycerine," Trauma/Interscope

#1 Most Added awards were handed out to Bush again this week, with this feisty track culled from Sixteen Stone (the album that wouldn't go away). They certainly deserve a fourth single, and probably more. KMYZ's Paul Kriegler says "Hit. H-I-T." And Brian James at WCYY states the case. "It's Bush. You can't have too much Bush."

Mr. Miraiinga, "Burnin' Rubber," Way Cool/MCA

The first release from the upcoming Ace Ventura movie features this brand new band, and a bouncy track that's already seeing the air at WHTG. Rob Acampora says "I think the strength of Ace Ventura will take it very far. There seems to be a buzz on this tune."

Rusted Root, "Ecstasy," Mercury

In the past 12 months, Rusted Root have enjoyed a somewhat unsung tour through playlists and Soundscan reports, considering the facts. They are well on their way to platinum, selling 15,000 units a week and figures near 700,000 already. With their headlining tour in motion and the extended format coverage of "Send Me On My Way," you may find this track an exciting way to own your piece of this unique modern act, and showcase your adventurous charm by presenting album depth.

No Doubt, "Just a Girl," Trauma/Interscope

This playful track features the strength and charisma of vocalist Gwen Stefani, who co-writes this and most of the other songs on this record. There is a very salient edge to her that can't help but attract a crowd. There's a bit of a nod toward the '80s pop/rock flavor going on here, but it never feels like you're being pulled back into it all.

Lenny Kravitz, "Circus," Virgin

The next single from Lenny comes with the notion that "Rock and Roll is Dead" is still very much alive in some places, particularly at WEND, where it performed Top 5 in call-out. This one's a tempo departure, and very hooky.

KoRn, "Shoots and Ladders," Epic

Perhaps this testimonial from WCHZ's Todd Haller will attest to the value inherent within these grooves. "We tested it last week, the phones have not stopped as of our add date.

We got more calls on that song than we did with 'Blind.' When we tested it on the '10 O'Clock News,' phones would not stop for an hour and a half afterward."

Stevie Salas Colorcode, "Start Again," Pavement

This record has already sold a heavyweight 100,000 units in Asia. Stevie Salas is the guitarist behind Sass Jordan and others, and comes to the party dressed for Alternative with this cut. He's an artist in his own right, to be sure.

Rancid, "Ruby Soho," Epitaph

No ska to be found here. The addictive hookiness still is, though, preceded by the playful punk bounce that echoes every major pop/punk influence that has hit the radio in the last 20 years. There's even a dash of Rush in the intro.

Dramarama, "Box Office Bomb," Cinema Verite, Rhino

The re-release of these two records means some serious nostalgia-tripping for us Jersey faithful who have been needing a fix. WHTG's Rob Acampora told us that he recently talked to singer John Easdale, who mentioned that he is shopping demos at the present time. These two albums come in reissued form with bonus tracks. Cinema Verite was originally released as the band's first album in 1985. You can get a hold of "Anything, Anything (I'll Give You)" on this one, which KROQ's Rodney Bingenheimer picked up and made a hit when the record first came out.

WHTG (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Rob Acampora
"The sales at CD World has been Top 10 in the last 3 weeks. This has really started moving units around the word of the Rusted Root tour. Reaction has been young and old - not just an upper-demo record."
WUNX (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:14) MD Steve Binder
"It's huge. I got a call from a father, who said 'I'm trying to get my younger daughter to appreciate the quality of the music on your station. There's one song that will convince her, and it's this one.' Calls are coming in all across the demo board on this."
WMRQ (M-21 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Gina Crash

311, "DON'T STAY HOME" CAPRICORN

WDRE (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Andre Ferro

"It's goin' up, and we love it. 311 is actually 312 this week."

KKEY (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Chris Geanneret

"We've stuck with it through some tough times, but it certainly is catching on. We're still seeing good phones. Slow growth."

KMYZ (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:13) PD Paul Kriegler

"We're still getting requests for this. It's not a big sales item. I want them to come and play a show here."

WUNX (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Steve Binder

WHTG (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:11) MD Rob Acampora

WOXY (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Julie Forman

"It's doing really well, selling well, and starting to request. It took us a long time to come around to it, and I'm happy that we're on it."

7 MARY 3, "CUMBERSOME" MAMMOTH/AG

WMRQ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:11) MD Gina Crash

"Still happening."

WOXY (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Julie Forman

"The song is definitely growing on me, and relevant to the format without being grunge overkill. We're opening up the day-part."

WUNX (M-10 PPW WKS-ON:10) MD Steve Binder

"It's holding its own. It has more of an AOR slant, so we don't hit it heavy since we have a couple of AOR's in the market, but we don't want to ignore it."

X107 (M-24 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Steve Blatter

"I think eventually it will be a power record, but it isn't right now."

ALANIS MORISSETTE, "ALL I REALLY WANT" MAVERICK

WCYY (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Brian James

"Not seeing much yet, but I think it sounds great, and it will obviously move right in once we're done with 'Hand.'"

WDRE (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Andre Ferro

"I definitely see this as the likely successor. It doesn't have that quick burn factor. It takes 4 or 5 listens before you really get a hold of it."

WUNX (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Steve Binder

"We haven't finished with 'Hand,' so the other one hasn't picked up. We didn't have to edit this one. Plenty of phones on her."

WMRQ (M- 6 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Gina Crash

"'Hand' is still one of the most requested tunes for us. This is the likely successor."

MOMENTUM KEY

WDRE (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Andre Ferro
 "It really isn't going either way. Holding steady. It's catchy."
WUNX (B- 7 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Steve Binder
 "It's a fun track. It's new, but the response is starting to pick up."

WOXY (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Julie Forman
 "Still kind of slow, but it sounds great in the mix. Sales are a little slow, but it's cool. When you're looking for a purely British song, this is it. It gives us balance."

COLLECTIVE SOUL,
 "WORLD I KNOW"
 ATLANTIC

KMYZ (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Paul Kriegler
 "It's gonna be a smash. Kind of passive on the phones. This has a feel of being another hit for them. It's the next big single, no doubt in my mind."

X107 (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Steve Blatter
 "Developing slowly."
WMRQ (D- 6 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Gina Crash
 "It's very orchestrated for them, and it takes awhile for it to kick in. 'December' got 20 spins for us, and that's in recurrent now."

EVERCLEAR,
 "SANTA MONICA"
 CAPITOL

WOXY (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:10) MD Julie Forman
 "We were probably the first in the country on this. We were looking for an all-day song from this band. We got solid Top 10 phones for awhile once we started playing it, then it dropped off. The phones have now returned. It's awesome."
WDRE (N) MD Andre Ferro
 "Too new to tell."
WMRQ (N) MD Gina Crash
 "I love that band. I think they're a great little trio."
WEQX (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Gary Schoenwetter

WUNX (N) PD Steve Binder
 "We're giving that spikes around the satellite feed, to usher in the network. We just added it this week."
KPNT (B-16 PPW) MD Eric Schmidt
 "We have been on it for awhile. It took awhile for the phones to kick in, and now it's just starting to sink in."
WTKS (B- 4 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Rich Boerner
 "The phones are just now starting to show up. People are taking this better than the first one."

SELF,
 "CANNON"
 ZOO ENTERTAINMENT

WHTG (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Rob Acampora
 "It's building quickly. Top 10 phones at the station. Good initial response for the song."
WCYY (N-12 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Brian James
 "Seeing nothing more than in-house approval - too new yet. Great hook, nice melody."

KCXX (N) Chuck Summers
 "It's a good night record. It's gonna have to prove itself. Response to the show has been great."

REPORT CARD

GARBAGE, "QUEER" ALMO

KCXX (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Chuck Summers

WDRE (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Andre Ferro

"It's a hip, hit Alternative record."

WMRQ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Gina Crash

"Oh, man. I am starting to get phones on that. They are connecting the band name with the song 'Queer' now, which is good. The fact that they're named Garbage amuses them. And the name of the song, in our oh-so-conservative Nutmeg state draws some attention."

WEND (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Kim Monroe

"It's still hanging in there for us."

WOXY (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Julie Forman

"Great phones. It's an awesome record all the way through. This is a great, great band."

WUNX (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Steve Binder

"It's huge. Sales story is magnificent. We have 8 retail outlets that we monitor, and it's selling outstandingly at all 8."

WHTG (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Rob Acampora

"I think we were so out in front on that one. It is keeping some momentum. We're waiting for the next single."

HEATHER NOVA, "WALK THIS WORLD" WORK/CRG

KCXX (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Chuck Summers

"Beautiful. It's a great reaction record. It's one of the hottest songs on the radio."

WCYY (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Brian James

"It's near time to put it into power recurrent."

WDRE (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Andre Ferro

"I think the listeners like that one. It will be a very active recurrent."

KMYZ (M-21 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Paul Kriegler

"Still gets decent phones, tapering off a bit."

WMRQ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Gina Crash

"She's exploding with this song, maybe after some of the Alanis hype has died down. The song is great, and she has an awesome voice. And also, any kind of sexual innuendo is fine by me."

WUNX (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:12) MD Steve Binder

"From the moment we put it on, people were calling. It's a great breakthrough for a new artist."

CKEY (M-16 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Chris Geanneret

"Maintaining. We do get some reaction."

JOAN OSBORNE, "ONE OF US" MERCURY

X107 (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Steve Blatter

"I don't have call-out back yet, but there seems to be a bit of a buzz on the phone, mainly during the day."

WDRE (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:11) MD Andre Ferro

"Holding its own."

KMYZ (N-14 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Paul Kriegler

"We just put it in, and it's already pulling great phones from females, and some surprising male calls, too."

KCXX (B-33 PPW WKS-ON:12) PD Chuck Summers

"This is our number one record. Great phones, no call-out yet. She's selling well out here."

WCYY (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:8) MD Brian James

"#1 phones this week. This is massive."

WHTG (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Rob Acampora

"The sales at CD World has been Top 10 in the last 3 weeks. This has really started moving units around the word of the Rusted Root tour. Reaction has been young and old - not just an upper-demo record."

WUNX (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:14) MD Steve Binder

"It's huge. I got a call from a father, who said 'I'm trying to get my younger daughter to appreciate the quality of the music on your station. There's one song that will convince her, and it's this one.' Calls are coming in all across the demo board on this."

WMRQ (M-21 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Gina Crash

"Into recurrent status for us."

THE NIXONS,
"HAPPY SONG"
MCA

KMYZ (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Paul Kriegler

"They're from here, the record has sold 1200 copies here, and it's still a good current for us. 'Sister' is a huge song here. It's their 'Daughter.' That's the best track. When the label releases this one, they will break this band."

WCYY (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Brian James

"What a great song, we love that one."

WHTG (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Rob Acampora

"Building slightly, starting to show some phones after four weeks. Upcoming show will tell the tale."

WUNX (M- 8 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Steve Binder

"Holding its own. I would have liked to see more reaction."

X107 (M-17 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Steve Blatter

"Just there."

WEDG (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Rich Wall

"The Nixons are one of those bands in that void like 7 May 3. We'll see what happens in research."

KPNT (N-16 PPW) MD Eric Schmidt

"We had really good success with 'Wire,' and we were holding on to it. We just got on this one."

KROX (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Sara Trexler

"This is great. I'm getting requests during the day. The younger kids seem to be more readily into The Nixons, and it's taking awhile for their elders to catch up."

THE RENTALS,
"FRIENDS OF P"
MAVERICK

WHTG (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Rob Acampora

"Exploding is the best word for it. Top 10 phones with very limited airplay. Look for increased spins next week. This song will be a smash here."

WDRE (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Andre Ferro

"It's very active on the phones."

WEND (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Kim Monroe

"It's too new to tell."

KMYZ (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Paul Kriegler

"Knockin' 'em dead. Good phones right out of the chute."

WCYY (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Brian James

"A fun little song. No phones yet."

WMRQ (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Gina Crash

"Noticeable upswing in phones, and they're putting two and two together. They're asking for it by the name 'Friends of Pete.'"

WOXY (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Julie Forman

"Mega. Top 5 phones. That's a great song. That's an obvious no-brainer, as they say."

WUNX (B- 7 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Steve Binder

"A little bit of younger-demo reaction out of the box."

RUTH RUTH,
"UNINVITED"
AMERICAN

KMYZ (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Paul Kriegler

"This is a great night record for us, and going up in spins. Doing very well."

KCXX (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Chuck Summers

"Doing alright, not as well as I thought."

WCYY (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Brian James

"I love that, and I hope it crosses to Rock radio."

WHTG (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Rob Acampora

"That reaction has been flying. I had to listen to it a few times."

X107 (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Steve Blatter

"Building slowly, no call-out yet."

WMRQ (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Gina Crash

"We're doing the Everclear promotion. The tune seems to work. That's always been a fun record for us."

WOXY (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Julie Forman

"It's growing on me. The more I hear it, the more I like it. I see possibly opening the dayparts on it soon."

WUNX (B- 7 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Steve Binder

"My afternoon guy absolutely loves it. He's in his mid-20's. A little bit of mid-20 male response from the audience, too."

In the wake of this past weekend's news about Shannon Hoon, we must take a minute to think. Obviously we are saddened by the loss, and sad for friends and family. It is truly a tragedy. From family to fans, this loss is undoubtedly hurtful. Our condolences to all of them.

The rest of the story on this man's passing remains to be written. What happens now? How do we go about our day? What gets said or done about this event at this point? I think these are valid points to ponder.

Perhaps Shannon Hoon's name doesn't ring as familiar with mainstream America as do Garcia's and Cobain's. Some will know, some won't. In all likelihood, this man's passing will go comparatively unnoticed in that regard. It won't to the Alternative audience, however.

The truth here is that we really must do something. We are all creatures in pain, to a certain degree. I think it is safe to say that this format gathers this country's youth with a greater social consistency and "birds of a feather" mentality than any other around. We know our listeners. Many of them look to darker tunes as a way of relating. It's catharsis. I did it (still do, to a certain extent), and you probably did, too.

If your station hasn't already been providing some PSA time to some sort of detox line or clinic, maybe it is a good time to begin. True, many of those places and organizations have presentations that truly suck. Radio stations in this format have mastered the art of presentation, of marketing. You can find a way to hippen a stance.

I'm not advocating soap-box methods or confrontational announcements or proclamations. I'm certainly not suggesting you talk around Blind Melon tunes in this way. Don't be uncool. Be cool, and helpful, and laid-back. We've all done drugs and alcohol, and managed to skate through alive. Maybe we can be a little more responsible for outreach to our fans on a subtle scale. Just a thought.

As for the label side, the NBA and NFL both have drug treatment programs. I'm sure there are counseling services of one kind or another afforded to labels for their artists. Perhaps if there aren't those options available at this time, you can quietly pursue something in that regard.

It just seems like we've gone a little too easy on the needle lately. It's a shame that it's so addicting that you want to take more than you can handle. Let's not let it become cool again.

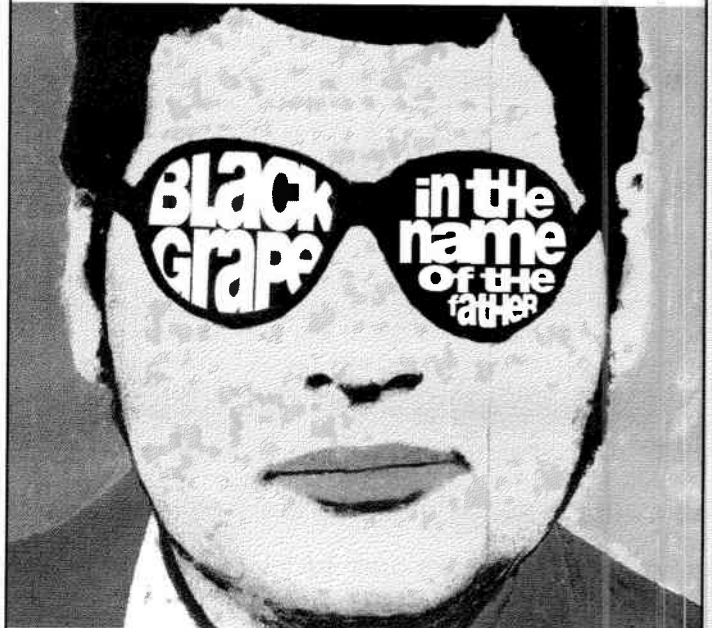

At the request of the family, any donations should be made to the educational fund that has been set up for Shannon's baby daughter, Nico Blue. Send the donations to Nico Blue Hoon, c/o SHAPIRO & CO 9229 Sunset Blvd., Suite 607 Los Angeles, CA 90069.

Word back from the Neurotic Boy Outsiders show in Philly was strong, with a crowd ranging from 60 year-olds to 20-somethings. If you're not hip to the story, they are a temporary thing, made up of Billy Idol, John Taylor (Duran Duran), Duff McKagan (Guns N' Roses), Matt Sorum (GN'R) and Steve Jones (Sex Pistols). They were rockin' to some punk classics.... Did you catch the Geraldine Fibbers add at KROQ?... The Pretenders' latest record The Isle of View comes to retail with an accompanying home video and laser disc. You can catch the video on your local public television station, as it will be part of Public Television's annual fall pledge drive in December... X107's Freak Night is gonna feature D Generation, 1,000 Mona Lisas and a guest appearance by none other than Eddie Munster (the real Eddie Munster), at 7 Willow St. in Port Chester... WDRE will again host its on-air Halloween Seance at midnight on Tuesday...

Blind Melon canceled their current tour after the apparent overdose death of lead singer Shannon Hoon at age 28. He was found dead by the band's sound engineer on the group's tour bus on Saturday, October 21, in New Orleans. Funeral services were held October 25 in Hoon's hometown of Lafayette, Indiana. The band's manager says that Hoon died from an accidental drug overdose, but a coroner said toxicology reports would be needed to confirm this. The owner of the Houston nightclub where Blind Melon had played the night before said Hoon seemed fine at the time. Hoon had recently told interviewers that he was cutting back on drugs and alcohol. "I'm going to be a father longer than I'm going to be a singer," he said in one recent interview. Hoon's family has asked that memorial donations be made to an educational fund established for Hoon's baby daughter, Nico Blue. (Nico Blue Hoon, c/o Shapiro & Company, 9229 Sunset Blvd, Suite 607, Los Angeles CA 90069.)

Oasis had to cancel their last three U.S. concert dates after replacement bass player Scott MacLeod suddenly quit the band saying he "wasn't enjoying it." MacLeod was temporarily replacing Paul McGuigan, who had taken time off because of "nervous exhaustion." MacLeod's departure is not said to have been because of any disagreements with the band. The band is now looking for a third bass player and plans to play upcoming U.K. dates. Earlier this year, the band replaced original drummer Tony McCarroll with Alan White.

Bob Seger says the title track to his new album "It's A Mystery" is about "stupid media in general." Seger says the track "sort of set the tone" for his new album. "I've done the down-the-middle stuff. Now I want to go out on the edges," he says. "I do like fringe stuff. I'm more that way than I am mainstream. I always have been, really, but now I'm really expressing it. I'm fascinated by records by Leonard Cohen and all the Tom Waits records. These are really fringe records that most people can't even stand to listen to for one reason or another because they're so out there."

Heavy metal guitarist and Juilliard graduate the Great Kat is releasing a CD-ROM (through the Bureau of Electronic Publishing) at the beginning of November called "Digital Beethoven On Cyberspeed." It's described as combining "classical music and rock music, along with wildly entertaining computer graphics and outrageous video to entertain users about the history of music." The CD-ROM is also playable on a CD player. "This CD-ROM is an interactive preview into the music of the 21st Century," Kat says. The CD-ROM includes five previously-unreleased Kat soundtracks, a gallery of famous classical composers with Kat's comments and a chance to play virtual instruments in an orchestra. There's also a "Lifestyles Of The Psychotic & Neurotic Musical Geniuses Test" and "The Great Kat IQ Test." "Digital Beethoven On Cyberspeed" is available for Windows and Mac.

Paula Yates, the former wife of Bob Geldof and the current girlfriend of Michael Hutchence of INXS, says she's surprised her mother has criticized her new autobiography as a "work of fiction." At a London book signing, Yates declined to comment about the remarks by her mother, Helene Thornton. Yates writes about her affair with Hutchence in the book and describes how she took heroin at age 12. One London tabloid newspaper columnist described Yates as "immature and desperate for attention."

Lee Brown, director of the Office of National Drug Control Policy, has criticized the "Hempilation" album as "irresponsible." "What kind of people would coax children down this road to destruction when our hospital emergency rooms and prisons are jammed at record numbers from drug related cases?" Brown asked. Brown made the comments while in Hollywood to attend a "Drug Violence & Youth" seminar sponsored by the Entertainment Industries Council. Brown said recent surveys have shown increased use of marijuana and other drugs by high school students, with young people increasingly believing that drugs are not harmful.

Rickie Lee Jones pulled out of an Irish television appearance after Ireland's RTE-TV network refused to let her sing the song "The Altar Boy" because of a recent series of cases of sex abuse involving Catholic clergy and altar boys. Jones was to have appeared on the "Kenny Live" program, but she says the television channel rejected the song "based on current news and not on the lyrical content of my work." Jones says the song, written about three years ago, is about "a chaste man who strived to maintain his commitment to the pure faith in the face of tremendous temptation." She says she refused to perform another song in place of "The Altar Boy" because that would have condoned censorship. Program producers said the decision was made "purely on a programming basis."

There will be an "MTV Unplugged" CD-ROM coming out later this year with extra footage from programs aired by the cable channel.

Chrissie Hynde of the Pretenders makes a cameo appearance on "Friends" (on NBC-TV) on November 2. She plays a folk singer and will sing an acoustic version of "Angel Of The Morning," which is included on the "Friends" soundtrack LP. A Pretenders documentary called "No Turn Unstoned" is slated to air on PBS, MTV and VH-1 in the next two months.

An Elvis Presley Mastercard is being offered by the Leader Federal Bank in Memphis. The limited-edition credit card features three pictures of Elvis from 1968 and 1969. A portion of proceeds from card purchases and annual fees will go to the Elvis Presley Memorial Foundation. The card also offers a 10 percent discount on merchandise sold at Graceland and through its mail order catalog. (To apply, call 800-213-9577.)

Debbie Gibson plays a teacher at a Manhattan girls boarding school in a pilot (for ABC-TV) called "Queens Of The Big Time." The television show, which will be shot in New York, is likely to air on a Friday evening.

Isaac Hayes, Al Green, Rufus Thomas, Willie Nelson, Slash of Guns N' Roses and Boz Scaggs were among the musicians scheduled to perform at the Orpheum Theater in Memphis to celebrate B.B. King's 70th birthday.

Charlie Daniels has been getting on political talk shows to promote his new album "Same Ol' Me." He's appeared on "Politically Incorrect," "The Oliver North Show," "G. Gordon Liddy," "Equal Time with Mary Matalin & Dee Dee Myers," the "Alan Colmes Show," the "Michael Reagan Show," "C-Span Call-In" and many others. His record label has also sent flyers and copies of the album to radio talk show hosts throughout the country.

Cliff Richard has been knighted by Queen Elizabeth for his charity work. Richard, who has had 13 number one hits in Britain, gives 10 percent of his time and earnings to charities through a trust he's established.

Sloan drummer Andrew Scott briefly appears playing bass in Matt Dillon's band in the film "To Die For." The band plays a few seconds of "Susie Q" in the movie. Scott also gave Dillon drumming lessons for the film, though it's Scott's drumming that is heard on the movie soundtrack. Meanwhile, Scott has a new band called Maker's Mark.

k.d. lang denies the rumor that singer Anne Murray was the inspiration for her 1992 album "Ingenué." "I've always had a crush on Anne Murray, since I was like nine years old," Lang says. "But no, it's not her." Lang adds that she's moved back to Vancouver, Canada, from Los Angeles because of the O.J. Simpson trial. "I think that I am less liked in Canada than any other country in the world, because I think I'm controversial here," Lang says. "Also, young people (in Canada) don't think I'm cool, because they've seen the whole country thing, and (because) their mothers like me. In America, young people kind of like me. But here, because they've seen my whole career, they think their parents listen to me and they don't want to listen to me. So I think I'm most unpopular in Canada."

Ann Wilson says she's been "refreshed" since adopting her daughter, who is now five years of age. "When you watch a newborn develop, metaphorically, it's a total renaissance. It's life renewing itself and slowly unfolding," she says. "It's just the most inspiring thing to me in my songwriting and in the way I feel about everything." Wilson also says she took time off from touring because she was having problems with stage fright. "We were having some intergroup strife....I felt overwhelmed by the hugeness of it all....(Now) I've got no further trouble with stage fright. I just needed a breath and some reinvention."

Congressman Sonny Bono of California says his ex-wife Cher's infomercials for beauty products have ruined her career. "She over marketed her beauty. I think it's bye-bye showbiz for her now," he says.

Stevie Wonder says the Million Man March in Washington earlier this month was a success. "I'm not that blind. There were more than a million," the Rio de Janeiro newspaper Jornal do Brasil quotes Wonder as saying.

A survey of 25 record company executives by the Los Angeles Times newspaper found that Pearl Jam was considered the band most likely to succeed and continue to sell records over the next seven years. REM ranked second and U2 placed third, while Janet Jackson was at number four. Michael Jackson, Madonna and Prince didn't make the top 20 list.

A 19-foot Elvis Presley drawing promoting a local production of "Elvis: The Man, The Music, The Legend" was stolen in Stockholm, Sweden. When the American who's directing the show saw some young people taking the banner down from its pole, they told him they took it down every night "because of the risk of theft."

Rod Stewart, East 17, Eternal and Diana Ross are to headline a five days of concerts planned in Birmingham, England, in December. The Big Twix Mix concerts will also feature Des'ree, Curtis Stiger, Diana King, Shaggy, Eternal, Boyzone, MN8, D:Ream and Soul II Soul.

Miramax Films has obtained all film, television and home video rights to the autobiography of the late guitarist Stevie Ray Vaughan, "Caught In The Crossfire."

Jury selection has begun in Los Angeles in the murder trial of Snoop Doggy Dogg and two co-defendants. The jurors have been told by the judge to expect the "high profile case" to last about two months.

Robson Green & Jerome Flynn's single "Unchained Melody/White Cliffs Of Dover" has been declared Britain's best-selling single of the 1990s, having sold 1.82 million copies. The single, which was number one in Britain for seven weeks this spring, surpassed a mark set by Wet Wet Wet with 1994's "Love Is All Around." Pre-orders for Green & Flynn's follow-up, "I Believe/Up On The Roof" are already at 600,000.

Gloria Estefan is performing with a 62-musician orchestra in a live television program called "The Greatest Love" to be broadcast from the Vatican's Paul VI Audience Hall. Pope John Paul II will participate in the program, which honors priests 30 years after the Second Vatican Council.

Lena Horne's 1981 concert album "The Lady And Her Music" will be released on CD for the first time.

Salt-N-Pepa, Melissa Etheridge, Vanessa Williams, Patti Smith, Sinead O'Connor, Come, Annie Lennox, Queen Latifah, Luscious Jackson and Andi Oliver have contributed tracks to the new album "Ain't Nuthin' But A She Thing," which benefits the Shirley Divers Foundation.

Tone Loc has been given three years' probation after pleading no contest to a charge of stealing $80 from a Southern California pizza parlor. Loc, whose real name is Anthony Smith, was charged with taking the money from the pizza joint's cash register in October 1994 after complaining about the pizza he was served. Under the terms of the plea, he's agreed to pay the money back to the restaurant, take an anger management class and perform 100 hours of community service.

Suede drummer Simon Gilbert had to be taken to the hospital on October 7th, after he was attacked because of his homosexuality. The attack occurred in Stratford-Upon-Avon in the Midlands of England and a friend of Gilbert's also needed hospital treatment. The drummer had spent the evening drinking in a local pub and was walking home at around midnight when the incident happened. Gilbert told the New Musical Express that he was surrounded by about a dozen men who shouted, "You fucking queers." He was then struck on the head and passed out for a few seconds. When he came to, he could see his friend being beaten up. He was then kicked by six or seven of the men for around four or five minutes. Eventually, police in plain clothes with dogs chased the gang, but nobody was caught. Gilbert also says, "They actually did it because they thought we were (gay) probably, which is scary. I've never had anything like that for being either gay or being in Suede or whatever. I was always surprised that I didn't get any trouble after I came out, there was no name calling or anything, and all of a sudden it hit home. A few years ago when I first came out I was really worried about it, but for it to happen five years later when things are socially more acceptable is more frightening. It's frightening that people are so stupid." Elsewhere, Suede has begun work on a new album. The band has been recording demos in north London... Oasis' record company Creation say they do not know why temporary bass player Scott MacLeod walked out of the band on their recent tour. A statement reads: "He gave no apparent reason for leaving, other than he was unhappy and didn't feel he fitted in. No amount of persuasion from the band's tour manager or manager could persuade him to stay — he refused to discuss the matter with any band members." MacLeod was drafted into the band after regular bassist Paul "Guigys" McGuigan was ordered to rest by doctors. Oasis are now looking for another temporary replacement. Finally, Melody Maker reports that MacLeod has had an "amicable" talk with the band about his departure... Black Grape could be sued by Intastella in a dispute over royalties. Intastella guitarists Martin Wright and Martin Mittler say they co-wrote Black Grape's hit singles "In the Name of the Father" and "Reverend Black Grape," along with a forthcoming single "Kelly's Heroes." They have claimed royalties for the songs. Speaking to the New Musical Express, a spokesman for Intastella said, "When Shaun (Ryder) got the first idea for Black Grape he enlisted Martin Wright and Martin Mittler. They demoed early stuff but then Shaun decided to work with the other people who are now in Black Grape and there seems to have been a falling out about it. They feel he relaunched his career off their backs." No spokesman for Black Grape has yet commenced on the dispute. Shaun Ryder recorded a single with Intastella in 1993. Black Grape will play UK dates in December... Elastica have recruited the stalker who joined them on stage at this year's Glastonbury Festival as their new keyboard player. Anthony Genn, a friend of the band, will join on a temporary basis for Elastica's forthcoming American tour. According to a spokesman for Elastica, "Genn has been trying to live down the streaking incident ever since it occurred."... Police have been criticized after a high profile drugs raid on a London nightclub. 800 people were in Club UK, a south London venue, when 150 officers burst in. All customers were searched for drugs. However, critics of the authorities have labelled the raid as a PR stunt. Police were accompanied by camera crews from the BBC and ITV networks. Although a police spokesperson claimed the club had been causing concern to local residents for some time, and that the decision to film the raid was taken to let the community know something was being done, others have linked the filming to the death of an 18-year old a fortnight ago. The youth's death in Blackpool, north England was the latest in a service drug-related deaths at clubs. Many campaigners, though, doubt how effective a police clampdown can be. They point out that similar tactics have been tried before and that people still take drugs in clubs. Instead, they argue the answer lies in better education to prevent tragedies. One of the biggest problems with ecstasy is people overheating as they dance. Drinking a lot of fluids can prevent this. As a result, the dance magazine Muzik has been running a "Thirst Aid" campaign, trying to persuade promoters to leave cold taps running in cloakrooms. At the moment, many turn them off, forcing customers to buy soft drinks at over $2.00 each... Suggs, former singer with Madness, says he did not base his single in Camden, north London because the area is currently fashionable. The area has been the focus of the recent Britpop movement, but Suggs says, "I wrote it because I've been sitting here for the last eight years when no one wanted to know, looking out of this window. Part of the song is about this old drunken busker I saw fall over and trip up these tourists who dropped their hot dogs. You see a lot of strange stuff here. My songs have mentioned Camden before; there's a line about Arlington House in "One Better Day." Camden Town has just been released via WEA... Pulp's Jarvis Cocker has told The Guardian newspaper how his songs were partly inspired by attending art college. Cocker says his class at St. Mortins, London contained "every minority group" amongst its 20 members: "It was great, it really focussed me on what I was. Before I left Sheffield (north England) I thought maybe the whole world was like that. I didn't believe that the class system existed. Suddenly you had to think about everything again, and what was important to you and how you saw things. That's what made the band really, gave us material." Pulp's new album Different Class is released this week via Island. The LP's lyrics focus on London and deal with the familiar Pulp themes of sex, drugs and voyeurism... William Orbit, composer and remixer for such artists as Prince and Madonna, wants to release an album of reinterpretations of pieces by such twentieth century composers as Arvo Part and Philip Glass. However, his album Pieces In A Modern Style may never see the light of day due to copyright problems. Some publishers have threatened legal action if the album is ever released, apparently angry that someone associated with the dance scene might want to work on the material... Erasure's new album is released this month via Mute. Erasure was recorded in Vince

Clarke's home studio, a dome-shaped structure built in Clarke's garden. Clarke explains: "I built it by digging a large semi-circular hole in the ground then inflating a big balloon in it. The balloon was covered in a concrete and metal structure to get the shape. Then I topped it all off with a copper roof."... The Stone Roses' guitarist John Squire says he wants to make a big prawn out of scrap metal and then spray it with salt so that it goes rusty. Apparently, he was inspired by a garden full of rusty monster sculptures... Brian Wilson has criticized the Beach Boys. Talking to Vox and saying he won't write material for the band, Wilson calls them "assholes." Asked why, he replies: "Why? Well, there's probably five or six real reasons why they don't like me. One is they're jealous. Two; they're assholes. Three: they're too businessmen and too businesslike. And four: there's no respect. They just spit at me and kick me, no respect at all. I say, 'Well, fuck it then!'" He goes on to say he should "beat the hell out of them" before musing on whether he would get beaten up himself if he tried... k.d. Lang has been talking to Ikon about her famous Vanity Fair cover with supermodel Cindy Crawford. Lang says, "I see it broader now than I did before. I've developed a slight distaste for the perpetuation — is that a word? — of overt sexuality. In advertising, in television. Y'know, I saw this really fucked up ad the other day. There was this gorgeous woman, gorgeous straight-looking woman, in a bikini at the beach, walking toward the camera. And it said in type across her breasts, 'She's a he.' And then, at the bottom, by the bottle of tequila, it said, 'Life is harsh, your tequila shouldn't be.' I couldn't think of one group of people that wouldn't offend. And I swear I've fuckin' had it. I'm sated; that's why I called my record All You Can Eat. It's...too much. I can't find substance anywhere right now, or subtlety. I'm feeling completely isolated, like I'm livin' in this world, lonely."... Morbid Angel, the death metal band, has had to delay the release of their new Earache album Domination. The album was supposed to be contained in a see-through plastic pack containing green slime. However, 80 per cent of the slime leaked in transit to a pressing plant. One worker who got the material on a sweater found his clothing disintegrating. As a result, the slime has been labelled toxic and won't be used... Menswear have turned down the opportunity to model clothes for the London store Harvey Nichols. The band was offered around $300 each, but didn't think it was enough. The band has also rejected similar offers from Miss Selfridge and Katharine Hamnett... Ash has been banned from a Tokyo hotel. The band smashed a room at the Shibuya Creston Hotel and had to pay around 770 pounds sterling for the damage. However, bassist Mark Hamilton says the band was charged too much... Mekon, British dance artist, has recorded a song with former gangster "Mad" Frankie Fraser. Fraser found fame in the sixties as an adversary of the notorious Kray twins. Speaking to the New Musical Express, he said, "I've served over 40 years (in prison) so I've more than paid my debt back to society, they've had more than their pound of flesh. But I ain't grumbling about that. I used to be in a straitjacket or just eat bread and water in a padded cell in Broadmoor (high security mental hospital) or wherever and I used to be able to sing a song to myself. Music is very important in anyone's life, particularly so in prison. It's wonderful. Now they're allowed radios whereas years ago you wasn't." The collaboration came about when Fraser met Mekon's John Gosling at a north London bus stop. "Revenge of the Mekon" will be released via Wall Of Sound on October 30... Radiohead's Thom Yorke says he thinks people act differently when they're with someone famous. Speaking to Melody Maker, the singer says, "The thing that's really freaked me out doing a tour with a band as big as R.E.M. is seeing how being so famous can change the way that everybody, absolutely everybody, behaves towards you." Radiohead's new single "Lucky," a track from the recent Help compilation, has just been released via Go! Discs... The Shamen plan to broadcast their forthcoming UK shows live on the Internet. Enthusing about the new technology, the band's rapper Mr. C says, "We're making a lot of new friends and allies from around the world, and it's (The Internet) going to make our job as an information band a lot easier."... Echobelly are reported to have been courted by Madonna. It's alleged Ms. Ciccione has offered the band around $1.5 million to sign to her Maverick label. Echobelly currently have a contract with Fuave/Sony. A spokesperson from Echobelly said she was "not sure" about any money, but confirmed Madonna had been in contact with Echobelly's singer Sonya Aurora-Madan... Blur's new single will be The Universal, available via Food/EMJ on November 13. B-sides on different formats will be live tracks and previously unreleased studio material... Bush's next UK single will be "Comedown" released via Trauma/Interscope on November 20. The band begin a UK tour in late November... Barry Adamson, former Magazine bass player, will make his first ever solo performance at London's ICA on October 29. The show will highlight his interest in film music, pursued on such albums as Mass Side Story.

KEVIN VARGAS, KISS, SAN ANTONIO

Call-Out is the key to understanding the tastes of your listeners. It always amazes me when I hear stations talk about localization being a key to success, but they neglect to get the local opinion on the music they play. Huh? Our best testing records for the '95 have been Collective Soul "December", Bush "Everything Zen", Hootie "Only Wanna Be With You", Live "Lightning Crashes" and "All Over You." These are all huge hits from some of the most important bands currently leading the rock format. For the past month one song has not only out-performed the previously mentioned tunes but also surpassed all of their highest scores in the all important 25-29 demo. Who? You ask. Brother Cane "And Fools Shine On." Just another testimony that there is always a place for well written straight ahead rock n' roll. Even if it has no roots in the alternative format. Way to go Bro-!

MIKE RAPPAPORT, WKLC, ST. ALBANS

Well, hello and greetings from the mountains of West Virginia... I've been down here over a month and it's about time I put words on paper so no one thinks I died. After a survey of the WKLC airstaff, I've found the Rock 105 air force flying high again, and my thanks to Epic's Mike Martinovich for setting up the Ozzy phoner. Bronchitis or no, the Oz-man was a blast on the air! Also thanks to the crews at Zoo and Silvertone for letting me know how my Yankees were doing - I couldn't even watch them 'til frickin' game 5 of the playoffs - and then got to see them lose to the frickin' Mariners! Congrats to Tim Sheehan (my old boss) on doing the major market leap-frog thing. And, one quick reminder! We take music calls on Thursdays only, and only on the music line (304) 727-1884. If you need to get me any other day, make the call before I got on the air (9-10am) or once I'm off (2-5:30pm). Trust me, you'll never get through our receptionist Emma to talk with me while I'm on the air... P.S. All those West Virginia jokes I heard before I moved here from CT are only half-true!

CARTER ALAN, WBCN, BOSTON

First of all, I must thank everyone who made the Billboard Award a reality. We have some high standards here in the WBCN Music Department and one of the foremost is to maintain close contact with the industry. Although Steve Strick and myself ask you to place your promo phone calls to us on Mondays, we often can't return those calls until later in the week. We ask for your understanding since it is a bit difficult to deal with over a hundred calls and 20 visits by local label reps in one day. So, we've been making the callbacks, but sometimes it doesn't happen until Tuesday or Wednesday. I'm happy to see 311 "Don't Stay Home" bounce back into the black on the charts. This lively track has made friends on the air simply because of its uncommon hybrid flavor - is it a hippy thang like Widespread Panic or the Samples or is it more dangerous like Rancid or CIV. Well, that the song is somewhere in between makes it distinctive and loved by both camps. 1000 paid admissions to 311's last Boston show ain't bad either. We're looking forward to this band's return to the market in December. Also, talking about unique, Folk Implosion's "Natural One" is haunting and engaging in a moment every time it's played. The response has been immediate to this Lou Barlow project. Thanks to Oasis and Epic Records for allowing WBCN to broadcast the group's recent concert live from the Orpheum Theater. Highlights included an acoustic "Morning Glory" well sung and played by Noel Gallagher (while his brother - singer Liam was off soothing his cracked and tired voice) as well as a blazing "Live Forever." This show was good enough for B-sides and CD extra tracks, so maybe we'll see some of it show up in released form one of these days.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

What a big week for shows in the Northwest. A sold out show with Green Day. Two sold out shows for the Presidents of the United States of America. KISW presented Brother Cane at Rkcdy. Thanks to Brother Cane for visiting Bob's Garage and rocking our socks off at the show. It was incredible! KISW then got a busload of Candlebox fans to trek over to Yakima for the first show of their "I Love Lucy" tour in Yakima. It was a great show. Be sure to check them out on the road. "Understanding" is the next track. It's destined to be huge! Finally, to finish off our busy week, we gave away a trip for 2 to the Neil Young's Bridge School Benefit at the Shoreline Amphitheater. Before I go, I want to send my condolences to the family, friends and fans of Shannon Hoon... he'll be greatly missed.

GUY DARK, WHDQ, CLAREMONT

The new double CD from Smashing Pumpkins is killer! Melon Collie and the Infinite Sadness is an ambitious undertaking from Corgan and Company and doesn't disappoint. Bringing Flood aboard as a producer has broadened the band's sound in a big way. I bet the album will be on many end-of-the-year Top 10 lists. I had the chance to break bread last week with Beth (Bobo) Krakower from Mausoleum. What a tall drink of water! She's also a bountiful source of salacious Hollywood gossip. Where is outspoken atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair? God only knows.

MARTY BENDER, WFBQ, INDIANAPOLIS

It's over now, but did you know that last Friday, October 20th, was "Q95 Day" in both the state of Indiana and the city of Indianapolis? It was... really... we have the proclamations to prove it. On Thursday October 19th, WFBQ was delivered proclamations from both Indianapolis Mayor Steve Goldsmith and Indiana Governor Evan Bayh. Both Proclamations made mention of numerous WFBQ accomplishments including the three Marconi Awards in 1995, and "Contributions to the Community and support of worthwhile projects." These latest awards topped of another great week at Q95 including the release of the summer ratings which had WFBQ #1 in over a dozen demographic breakdowns including #1 12+

JOHN LENAC & JULIE BAHRE, KTOZ, SPRINGFIELD

What a fantastic weekend! Mid By Midwest was such a huge success we really want to thank all of the bands for kickin' so much ass! Thursday night we kicked it off with the Park Central Squares, Gwen Mars, Maids Of Gravity, and The Urge. Friday night we experienced Great Big Everything, One Violet Green, My

Blue Life, Sojourn, Bent, Run of the Mill Miracle Band, Monkey Engine, Mr. Happy, Colony, and the Psychonauts. Saturday night's party was with Hundred Year Sun, Number One Cup, Johnny Q. Public, Wakeland, Fuller's Earth, Super Genius, Mary Jane Jones, Dirt Nap, Love Janis, Rock 98, the Smarties, and Alligator Gun. Whew. And thanks to Joel Habbeshaw from Hollywood, Wendy Naylor, Tom Starr, Ken Williams from MCA, Ben Lazar from Elektra, Phil Dunscomb from Pagan/Neat Guy, Christian Unruh, Jeff McClusky and Tom Schmall and everybody else who hung out in the shadows to check out our fabulous scene. We'd also like to thank The News Leader for all the great press. They dedicated the Weekend section of Friday's edition to the bands and the event, in addition to some other articles. All of the bands really threw down. More than 1,000 listeners rocked to the original sounds of these fine bands. We broadcasted live from all four venues at the same time with walkie talkies. It sounded huge to cover all the festivities simultaneously.

ALLISON STRONG, KUKQ, PHOENIX

311 and KUKQ sold out the Party Gardens Saturday night, a 3,000 capacity venue. Consider this: for 14 months, KUKQ has been the only radio station playing anything from the band. Hundreds of people were turned away from that show! This band has legs! They have wings! They are quite frankly... Massive. (Putting bumper stickers and flyers on all the windshields on that parking lot was quite a scramble, with Larry Mac, myself, and all our jocks on the job. You know we kicked up a lot of dust in that parking lot. Phoenix is Dusty!). Later that same night... I ran over to Boston's to check out The Supersuckers and Tenderloin, another KQ show. 500 people were there, many of them sporting ten gallons and lizard skin boots. Supersuckers Rule, and Tenderloin is one of the brightest new bands on our station right now. Earlier that day, KUKQ co-sponsored an outdoor alternative sports festival. Think: Granolapalooza, and you're there. (I was on the air, giving away concert tickets and fielding phoners from Larry Mac.) We had our own stage, and tremendous support from the local bands that played on it. Needless to say, we had quite a weekend and are really looking forward to this week, with Supergrass, My Life With The Thrill Kill Cult, and The Toadies/Meat Puppets show. Thanks to everyone of you who supports the Q in your own special ways. We are having a great time, and so is our audience.

TODD HALLER & RECKLESS ERIC, CHANNEL Z, AUGUSTA

You know when I took this job in Augusta nobody ever told me I had to dress like Nanook the Eskimo. It was !@#%&*! freezing all weekend long, and yes I am being a "wimp" about it. Here are the Top Five Most Requested Songs of the Week as told to me by Pistol Pete "The Fastest Intern In the South"!!! Shooting their way to the Number One spot this week is the Smashing Pumpkins "Bullet W/ Butterfly Wings", 2. Pres. of the USA "Lump", 3. Green Day "Geek Stink Breath", 4. Toadies "Possum Kingdom", 5. KoRn "Shoots and Ladders." This weekend Channel Z rolled out more live music and a chance for the Z-heads to talk to the animals. The Z hosted the mainstage at the Aiken Jaycee County Fair, where Our Lady Peace cranked out the tunes to over three hundred Z-Heads. Thanks to Stan Gleason and everyone at Relativity Records, also Mike Fanning and the Aiken Jaycees for helping us put on a show that heated up the Z.S.R.Z.... Thanks also to Andi Turco of Virgin Records for her support on a "Pumpkins Win It Before You Can Buy It Weekend." The Z-heads got in the Halloween spirit by listening for the "Pumpkins Psycho Sounder." Caller number nine picked up their new double CD Melon Collie and the Infinite Sadness. I hate to end this letter on a sad note, but for Eric, myself and the rest of the Channel Z staff we would like to send our condolences out to the friends, family, band members, and everyone at Capitol Records for the tragic loss of Shannon Hoon. Thank you Shannon for the chance to hear and meet you. Keep smilin' and surfin' the Z!!!

THE TINK, WVUD, WILMINGTON

Why Hello there! Where to begin this week... Oh I guess I could start with years annual Philly Bombastic P.M.C.

Music Fest. I'm going are you? (it's in all the papers). The Epic posse of Cheryl/Smitty invited out to see the Skunk Anansie phenomena last week. One thing is for sure here, there is nothing at all to do with the scent of the aforementioned animal with this group. Then Will-at-wood. Let me into the Seaweed/Into Another extravaganza, again here's more of that chart topping goodness. Am I starting to fade? No, no children. The very next night the Neurotic Boy Outsiders played to a full house at the Phila. Troc. There is major attention gonna happen there. The Cherry on the top was an invite from Marnirunner to go do a fabbo in-person interview with Keith from Life of Agony (always a pleasure- I will never say "I ain't got time, no I ain't got time). Those God Lives Underwater guys warmed up the crowd quite goodly. The big surprise of the evening was En Esh of KMFDM inviting Joey Z. of L.O.A. out to do the final song of the night.

BEAVER BROWN, UNEMPLOYED

Hello to all! This is Beaver Brown, it's only been two months since I left the radio biz, I hope you haven't forgotten me. This is a plea for help from all you record company folks. For the past seven or eight years I have co-hosted a telethon for a local Boys and Girls Club. With your help I have auctioned off autographed items on the telethon and raised thousands of dollars for this worthy charity. Even though I am not on the air anymore the Boys and Girls Club still want me to host. This is where you will hopefully come in. I am in need of some autographed items from your big stars to help raise money. For example, I have auctioned off autographed items from Def Leppard, KISS, Michael Bolton, Harry Connick Jr., Richie Sambora, AC/DC, Pink Floyd and many more. I have auctioned off signed CDs, posters, flats, guitars and any other things I could get my hands on. If you have any autographed items laying around please give me a call. The telethon is November 21st. Thank you in advance for the help! My phone number is (209) 537-5932 or e-mail me at Yobeav@aol.com. My address is 3512 Georgeann Place, Ceres, CA 95307. Thank you again, the Girls and Boys club thanks you too.
