Everybody's talkin' about Power 99 Atlanta PD Rick Stacy, who is running what many call the best radio station in America. He plays rock, he plays rap, he plays knick-knack on Gilbert Gottfried's paddywack. He's breaking records, getting the numbers and showing critics that a properly orchestrated Top 40 format can succeed. What's his secret? Is it those flying lessons or the ears of his two-year-old son, Bud? Darned if we know, but it obviously ain't his looks or personality. Or this Contents appearance, for that matter.

On The Cover

Nothing's gonna make C&C Music Factory sweat or go hmmm as much as this cover appearance in the armpit of the industry.

City Of Hope Honors Al Teller At L.A. Gala

CITY OF HOPE!!

Finally, Good News

Just when you thought Minnesota was going to be the latest state to allow hardcore pornography in the bedroom VCR, but outlaw music in the record stores, the Minneapolis City Attorney has informed Attorney General Hubert H. Humphrey III that "taken as a whole," the sale of N.W.A.'s "Efil4zaggin" is not prosecutable under existing laws.

According to the official, the entire album's content did not satisfy the law's definition of "harmful to minors" and could not be prosecuted as such.

The million-or-so white, middle-class future bank executive minors who have already purchased the project would most likely agree.

In a letter to Humphrey, City Attorney Robert J. Alton stated that, while the project can't be prosecuted under Minneapolis statutes, "other municipal prosecutors may employ a less demanding charging standard or desire to attempt to make a new case law on the 'taken as a whole' issue."

In other words, the First Amendment may not protect something that some cranky rural Minnesota prosecutor finds objectionable.

Seasoned Veterans

Salt-N-Pepa: Major, heavy phones and tons of MTV.

Advertisement

Don't look for Jack Thompson to complain. Don't look for anyone to try to sticker or censor it. Subsequently, don't look for national headlines next week when the music industry raises millions of dollars (as it has done so many times in the past) for the very important City Of Hope charity as it honors MCA Music Entertainment Group Chairman Al Teller on Wednesday night September 4 at Universal Studios.

"The music industry has come alive for this event," said City Of Hope's Dir. of Music & Entertainment Industry Kirk Prais. "We've exceeded our goal of $2.5 million."

Prais also told us, "Al's great. You suck. Don't come."

Al Teller: Personally saw to it that we weren't invited.

PIC OF THE WEEK

Dave's Cat

This week sucked for photos. First we decided to run a shot of Bob Eubanks. Lenny squashed that one. Then we went for a photo of our own radio ace Angela Garcia. Murphy squashed that one. We even wanted to run a shot of Gilbert Gottfried, but Fox squashed that one. To hell with you all — here's a picture of our Vice President - Managing Editor's cat. Pity the poor creature. Will someone send us some good photos?

Quick Hits

MTV action this week includes adds on Bell Biv Devoe (MCA), Dire Straits (WB), Richie Sambora (Mercury), Joan Jett (Epic), Tom Petty (MCA), Chesney Hawkes (Chrysalis), Alice In Chains (Columbia) and Salt-N-Pepa (Next Plateau). With the MTV Awards coming next week, people are REALLY pretending to like Abbey Konowitch.

Lewinter Chills At Atlantic

Mel Lewinter "Wonderland" has been thawed out and promoted to Vice Chairman of The Atlantic Group, a Time Warner company, while retaining the title of Chief Financial Officer or "That Guy Who Signs All Our Expense Checks." The announcement was made in two-part harmony by the company's Co-Chairmen/CEO/Baritones "Open Up

And Say" Ahmet Ertegun and Doug "Less Is" Morris.

In this new post, Mr. Lewinter will continue to oversee the financial area while working closely with the various creative areas of The Atlantic Group, including Atlantic, Atco and East West Records America, as well as A*Vision Entertainment.

Lewinter joined Atlantic Records in 1970 as Comptroller, rising to VP/ Comptroller in '74, Sr. VP in '80 and Chief Financial Officer/Sr. VP in '90.

Commented Ertegun: "Mel has played an invaluable part in Atlantic's tremendous growth over the past two decades. Without him, no one would have gotten paid."

Added Morris: "Mel occupies a pivotal role in setting the course of the Atlantic Group in the '90s and beyond. I am proud to consider him my right-hand man... By the way, is that check I requested ready yet?"

WILD CARD

RUSS IRWIN (SBK)

Charles and Daniel. Daniel and Charles. Charles and Daniel. Daniel and Charles. Great road show, great new artist, great song, great cigars. Charles and Daniel. Daniel and Charles. Charles and Daniel. Daniel and Charles. Great road show, great new artist, great song, great cigars. This one's going. Watch their smoke!!!! (Ed note: Greg and Ken work there too — someone please tell Charles and Daniel.)

WILD CARD

TONY TERRY (EPIC)

This smash crossover ballad will not go away, so why not just give in right now? It's 1-1 at KMEL, 1-2 at WPGC, 9-7 KTFM, 11-8 PWR102, 16-10 KGGI, 12-10 HOT977, 13-10 KKFR, 17-13 KPRR, 17-14 WCKZ and scoring major adds like KRBE, PWR99 and WHYT. This reminds us of Luther's "Here And Now" and it's promoted by the same maniacs. They got that one. They'll get this one!

"Where did you work before this, Bob?" asked Atlantic Co-Chairman/Co-CEO Ahmet Ertegun (r) to newly appointed Atlantic Group Vice Chairman/CFO Mel Lewinter. "His name's Jim, isn't it?," queried Co-Chairman/Co-CEO Doug Morris (l). Mel is very close to these two guys.

Berry Blasts Book

Motown founder Berry Gordy has filed a $100 million law suit against author J. Randy Taraborrelli and publisher Carol Communications for libel and invasion of privacy for remarks made in the unauthorized biography, "Michael Jackson: The Magic and the Madness," published last May. Gordy objected to Taraborrelli's characterization of him as a "pimp" and the writer's reference to the former Motown head's "questionable business practices" at the label.

At an L.A. press conference last week that featured insufficient amounts of danish and coffee, Gordy insisted the book was filled with "cruel and injurious lies that are unleashed like unguided scud missiles, not caring who or how much they hurt."

Carol Publishing Group and Taraborrelli announced their intention to file a countersuit for both libel and defamation against Gordy for the same amount. Said the author: "I have been carefully chronicling Motown's and Berry Gordy's history for the last 20 years. As a Motown fan, my reporting has always been absolutely balanced and fair. Because I have such great respect and admiration for Mr. Gordy, I loathe the idea of suing him... However, he has left me no alternative."

In addition, both parties announced they're suing HITS for $6.00 "to get back the money we wasted on buying this issue."

Whatta Shame

Wouldn't it be cool if (l-r) Giant's Bill Rusch, B-96's Dave Shakes, WTIC's Steve Jordon and SBK's Gary Triozzi were stuffed and mounted on the wall while those three animals were standing in the forefront smiling? Whoa big guys, just asking. The three dead animals currently have more personality than these four clowns ever will.

Posing With Steve

"Golly, Mr. Shannon, TV sure does make you look different," said always-tuned-in Atco sensation Corina (l) to Z100 Ruler Steve Kingston. Added Corina, "When do I get to meet Joel Salkowitz?" That's Atco's Val DeLong (r) thinking she's at a P3 in Abilene, and looking to buy a drink for anyone who has ever spoken to Joel Denver. (Ed Note: Shadow Steele is not pictured kissing Steve's butt, trying to get him to add a Firehouse record.)

Grant Surrenders

Eddy Grant has withdrawn his $13.5 million offer for the Bob Marley estate, leaving only Rita Marley's Chris Blackwell-backed bid of $15.3 million and MCA's Japanese-backed tender of $15.2 million. Marley supporters fear MCA would use the reggae great's songs in commercials. Said Marley's long-time publicist Charles Comer: "'I Shot The Sheriff' would be a natural for a Japanese camera commercial." And "Get Up, Stand Up" would be perfect for a hemorrhoid spot.

Run Run

Joseph Simmons, better known as Run of the rap group Run DMC, has been charged with raping a 22-year-old woman in his hotel room after a concert in Cleveland August 9. The 25-year-old rapper was indicted on three counts of rape and one count each of kidnapping and sexual imposition for the alleged attack.

Negotiating Sony Style

Sony legal eagle/Senior Vice President and key player in the Aerosmith deal Michele Anthony subtly explains to Steven Tyler that if he bitches one more time about his new royalty rate, she's gonna jam her knee into his so-often-gazed-at crotch. And you wonder why she makes the big bucks. (Ed Note: Not the least bit entertaining, but at least it gave us the opportunity to refer to "Steven Tyler's so-often-gazed-at crotch." Thank you for your understanding.)

Naturally, the band had to have the plaques read to them. The three youngsters in the front were forced to kneel since they mistakenly forgot their trouser stuffing for the photo shoot.

Grammy Date

The date for the 1992 Grammy Awards is Tuesday, February 25, 1992. It will be broadcast live from Radio City Music Hall in New York. Yeah, we couldn't give a damn either, but it sure helps fill space.

Art or Poop?

Notorious performance artist Kevin Michael Allin, known as G.G. Allin of the defunct group Toilet Rockers, was convicted of disorderly conduct in Milwaukee when he took defecated on-stage and tossed the results at the audience. A jury rejected the argument that he was exercising his artistic freedom. Allin could be sentenced to 90 days in jail and fined $1,000. No shit.

Don't Bill Russell

Incredibly talented chanteuse Brenda Russell comes to the conclusion that despite the fact her Manager has yet to master the art of using silverware, he makes her feel good by instilling the feeling she's helping the less fortunate. Brenda (c) is shown inking with new label EMI as the following label gunslingers razzle and dazzle her. # Jimmy Jams At Motown

James "Hitch" Cochran has been picked up by his bootstraps and elevated to Vice President R&B Promotion at Motown, it was announced by Paris "Is Burning" Eley, Sr. VP of R&B Promotion at the label.

Cochran was previously Co-National R&B Promotion Director at the label. The 11-year industry and Motown veteran will continue to be based out of Chicago, where he held numerous positions, including Midwest Regional, East Coast Co-National and Someone Who Really Doesn't Like Graham Armstrong.

Said Eley: "During his tenure at Motown, James Cochran has constantly performed at a level of excellence that identifies him as a major contributor to Motown's success. But the real reason for this promotion is those courtsides to the Bulls he lays on me whenever I'm in town."

Added Cochran: "When Jheryl Busby brought me over from the old Motown with Eric Thrasher, we assembled the team that is helping write Chapter II of the Motown story. And the way this quote is going, I'm a prime candidate to author the chapter on 'butt kissing your boss.'"

The Ladder

a rundown of executives on the move

Carvello Dorothy "Everyday Is Sunday At" Carvello has been named A&R Manager for RCA Records by Ric "Statue of" Aliberte, VP A&R East Coast for the label. Before joining RCA, Dorothy visited Oz, where she signed the Cowardly Lion, the Tin Man and the head of the Lollipop Guild to record deals... Meanwhile, at Jive, which does not refer to Barry Weiss' wardrobe or contract terms, Tom "Ay!" Carrabba has come aboard as Director of Marketing and Julia Lipari "Suction" has been promoted to Product Manager for the Jive and Silvertone labels by Record Group Sr. VP/GM "Edel" Weiss. Carrabba was previously Product Manager at RCA in charge of housetraining Nipper while Julia was Manager of Marketing/International for Jive and Silvertone, where she learned to smuggle opium from Hong Kong in Hi-Five CDs... "Don't Let Her Try To Sell You The Brooklyn" Bridget Roy has been promoted to Associate Director Rock/Metal Marketing and Promotion for Columbia Records by Fred Ehrlich "My Boots," VP for the label. Roy's parents are still wondering when she's going to get a "real" job... Also at Columbia, where it doesn't hurt to be Burt, Joshua

Lipari Roy "Fought The Battle At Jericho" Sarubin emerged from the belly of the whale to be appointed Manager Rock/Metal Retail by Fred Ehrlich "Bird Catches The Worm," VP for the label. Joshua is in charge of making sure Jani Lane's new wife stays far from the Warrant tour bus... Nanci "Me Feel Me Touch Me Heal Me" M. Walker has been named West Coast Director of Creative Services at Peermusic. Prior to her appointment, Nanci played Madge the Bounty Paper Picker-Upper on TV commercials and directed the classic disco flick, "Can't Stop The Music" with Bruce Jenner... Tammy Skripek "That Stuff Off The Bottom of Your Shoe" has been promoted to Northeast Regional Promotion Manager for EMI Records USA, by "New" Jack Satter, Sr. VP Promotion for the label. Said Satter: "I would have promoted her sooner, but I just figured out how to pronounce her name..." Darryl "The Lord is My" Shepherd was appointed Manager of A&R and Song Acquisition for Ear Candy Records by Budd Tunick "Or Not To Nick, That Is The Question," Director of A&R. Shepherd likes the feel of freshly sheared wool on his naked body.

NEAR TRUTHS

By I. B. Bad, Los Angeles

Chattermongers are chattering in overdrive about the Motown situation, which has suddenly turned into the Motown/ Very Aggressive Poly situation, with many saying this one is virtually a done deal. Muckrakers are putting this distribution deal at $100 million guarantee with a $50 million advance. If this deal does go down in early September, what will MCA's move be? They've already sued. Will they seek a restraining order? Will they wait for a court decision? MCA continues to try to settle the matter, but the Motown camp maintains that no settlement is possible until it's released from its current agreement.... The action surrounding Nine Inch Nails continues to heat up as an angry Steve Gottleib and his TVT label claim their contract with the band is binding. Inducement to breach letters are reportedly being sent to a number of labels who've expressed interest in the band, which is maintaining it will not deliver a new project to the New York-based indie. Some majors are expressing interest in a buyout of the label in order to bring the band, which has sold around 300,000 units to date, under their wing. Action to come? Bet on it.... Look for Virgin attack hamster Michael Plen to score his Sr. VP stripes. Said move will also spell a bump up for Jeffrey Naumann.... Jermaine Jackson reportedly in the hunt for management as his new LA & Babyface project is being delivered to Arista. Joel Katz handling legal chores on that one.... Joe Cocker and manager Michael Lange have parted ways. Looks like Allen Kovac, Bill Graham and Roger Davies have the early hoof.... Will Nick Caris land at either William Morris or Jerry Ade?... Rumors over who will head Intertalent's music division surround Ian Copeland, who would bring his FBI stable with him, or ICM's Alex Kochan. If Kochan makes the move, will Guns N' Roses go with him?... Speaking of the Guns, is a pay-per-view from Tokyo in the works for January?... Word that the concert biz's cruel summer may have claimed yet another promoter as Chuck Chao's Creative Concerts in Syracuse may be in trouble.... One tour not suffering is Rod Stewart's, which did three Meadowlands and two Nassau Coliseum dates in New York.... Rumbblings of one former frontman less than enthused over his management's massive attention to an upcoming rock combo.... Huge buzz over the forthcoming John Mellencamp project.... George Michael's forthcoming project will be titled "Listen Without Prejudice II" and will feature cover songs recorded live in England along with five new tunes.... Names in the Rumor Mill this week: John Baruck, John Malm, Lee Phillips, Glen Brunman and Brenda Romano.... and the beat goes on.

FAR TRUTHS

By Danny Fields, New York

Beloved "Dreamgirl" Jennifer Holliday, newly svelte after shedding over 100 lbs., came to town from Detroit for a frantic three-day press/promo stint to mark the release of her Arista bow, "I'm On Your Side," with title-track single out this week!! Among the highlights of her visit were 1) an ecstatic, huggy encounter with Clive Davis in his stately executive suite, 2) all that "Good Morning America," "ET" and CNN jazz, and 3) a lunch in her honor at Chez Josephine on re-emergent West 42nd, where she sang three songs (her first performance in N.Y.C. since the label's 15th Anniversary at Radio City in March '90) while media mighties dined on Napoleon of wild mushrooms, cold salmon with dill, sherbet with fresh raspberries, and several vintage wines. Aristarchs on-hand included Melani Rogers, Audrey Lacatis, Kathi Moore, Tammy Gibson and Vicky Charles... Everyone is talking about the thoughtfulness of Manhattan Transfer, just back from a triumphant, SRO tour of the continent, where they arranged in Rome with Donnie Jenner's fave bistro in that city, Trattoria d'Alfredo, to air express a week's worth of shrink-wrapped dinners to his N.Y.C. office. The Donman, of course, is very much involved these days in the launch of the great vocal group's first Columbia album, "The Offbeat of Avenues," shipping as we speak... Brilliant weather complemented SBK's Second Annual SpaFest, held once again at chieftan Charles Koppelman's vast estate on L.I.'s Gatsby-esque North Shore. It was a day of competition and teamwork to gladden the hearts of all those who retain any memory, however dim, of the boys of summer camp, and the always-thrilling "Color Wars," which climaxed those happy childhood summers, where kids learned to swim and screw and fall in love with college-aged people (Ed. Note: Sigh). Guests were divided into four teams: Koppelman's own Royal Blue; Martin Bandier's Solid Gold; Daniel Glass' Groovy Green and Terry Santisi's Rockin' Raspberries. Athletes, and we use the term loosely, competed at basketball, tennis, volleyball, water polo, music trivia, balloon toss and tug-o-war. Sunset performances by the Barrio Boys and Billy Dean enchanted partygoers, and much whooping was heard from the lawns eading down to the wine-dark Sound as a seaplane, hired by Wilson Phillips, flew above bearing a banner which read "Happy 2nd SBK from Wendy, Carnie & Chynna." Funning the August day away were label-rajahs Don Rubin, Nancy Brennan, Ken Baumstein, Larry Katz, Jimmy Gilmer, Eliot Hubbard, Gary Klein, Michael Leon, Bob Cahill and Bruce Theriot; EMI Music's Jim Fifield and Philip Rowley, SBK Mgt.'s Arma Andon, publicity doyenne Susan Blond, and artistes Francesca Baghe, Phoebe Snow, Kingofthehill, Russ Irwin and Riff. The day ended with a dinner at DaFino in Roslyn, where trophies were awarded and most guests opted for sauteed seafood after a long day of deep BBQ.

EARPICKS

Current favorites as chosen by members of all segments of the music industry

The new Rythm Syndicate single comes out strong and could be a repeat performance of the first cut. Stevie Nicks is back with an original cut from her forthcoming greatest hits project. The second Crowded House cut gets mucho mentions from Top 40 and should do well. Last week's Wildcard Curtis Stigers should exceed everyone's expectations, don't overlook it. Two Pomo hits ready to crossover are B.A.D. with big sales and the Farm with big MTV.

J.T. JAMMS!!

James "JT" Taylor's "Long Hot Summer Nights" brings about visions of sweating profusely, re-runs of "227" and tense moments hoping that someone, anyone, would come over and visit.

Then again, we're losers.

The rest of the world is pumpin' this potential smash HARD! Tommy Hudson of Smogtown's Delicious Records even goes as far as calling his performance, "better than his work with Kool & the Gang."

The public loves this track. They're voting with their wallets at the registers, and droppin' crazy dimes to call and request it, causing Jordan-size jumps like 17-12 WYLD, 25-15 WPLZ, 5-3 HOT105, 13-9 KMJM and 23-18 at Memphis' KJMS, where music goddess Toni St. James says the silky JAM is "seducing upper demos, while the groove is attracting 12-18s."

Unfortunately, we can't attract anything. Not even flies.

*M*s. Flack is Back.

THE 411

By Graham Armstrong

mer down and climbing rapidly towards the throne.... FAB FOUR: Naughty by Nature, Jennifer Holliday, Mariah Carey and Stevie Wonder have "bogarted" debuts in the Top 30 this week, and all look like they're in it to win it all.... JACK BE NIMBLE, JACK BE RICH: In my mind, the highlights of the recent Family Affair convention had to be Prince's monster JAM, the La Face party, smokin' performances by rappers Tim Dog and Naughty by Nature, the always-classy Phil Perry and talented diva Phyllis Hyman showin' 'em how it's done, the Godfather James Brown's red-hot comeback, the Luke party (we were good boys and girls), the President's Awards presentation (Frankie Darcell and Vaughn Harper were excellent hosts) and the Sadie Awards. LIGHTS! CAMERA! ACTION!: Major rumblings in Atlanta about high-level changes at a major power. Stay tuned! This could be B-I-G.... TURN UP THE RADIO!: Lots of action across the dial this week, with WJLB Detroit leading the way with an airstaff shake-up. P.M. drive king Michael "The Doc" Lynn exits, causing PD Steve Hegwood to slide Mike Shannon from his 6-10 slot into Lynn's old post, while young turk Reggie "Reg" Davis takes on the late evening duties.... ROUGHER AND TOUGHER: Look for D.C. adult powerhouse WHUR to pump up the hyped beats in an effort to capture the city's large 25-34 market.... KINDER AND GENTLER: Taking the opposite approach, WVKO Columbus will smooth things out to try and reel in the older folks.... Carolina ruler WIKS New Bern will have new competition next week, as new Black Adult challenger WZZY hits the air.... Ken Flemings is the new GM at KMZX Little Rock.... A MAN OF INTEGRITY: Congratulations to WJTT PD

INSIDE DOPE

Keith Landecker, who earned the "Community Commitment" award at the recent Family Affair. Too bad they didn't give one out for "Best Effort in Scamming Free Food & Drinks" — we would have been in there.... MANAGE TO HAVE A GOOD TIME: Bobby Brown handler Juanita Stephens has taken on young Motown hopeful Dee Harvey. Expect sparks.... "In Living Color"'s ace choreographer Rosie Perez is representing new Smogtown girl group 5A.M., who are on the verge of hooking up with a West Coast power.... Kudos go out to the folks at Capitol, who look to enjoy a long and fruitful relationship with new signings Full Force.... "Pump It Up" host Dee Barnes and MC Hammer will host Pepsi's "Rap Up The Summer" contest, to be aired nationally on Sept. 23.... OWW!: Vonny Hilton-Sweeney has been named President of J.B. West, Inc., where she will handle the Godfather Of Soul's Left Coast affairs. Give her a ring at (213) 871-2237.

SOFT & WARM

STORM WATCH: This week, we've decided to abandon our usual hilarity to talk about an artist! You know, the people who make the music, not the folks who aspire to reach the executive heights of Graham Armstrong has (poor fools). Valley View's Gary Taylor (pictured) is a singer that we feel will be ruling Quiet Storm for a LONG time. His new single, "Take Control," is boomin' out-of-the-box, causing KDIA PD Jeff Harrison to enthuse, "One of today's most listenable songs, by one of tomorrow's most exciting artists." (The guy's a poet!). First week action includes WJFX, KFXZ, KDIA, KBUZ, WMVP, WEAS, WTLC, KJMS, WNOV, WXOK and K98, with new recruits poppin' up daily. Programmers are also going deep into the LP, rotating "In And Out Of Love" and "I Live 4U" until the lasers melt.

MOVIN', MOVIN', MOVIN' & SHAKIN' IT: Lots of folks are makin' power moves this week, with label-hoppin' the name of the game. After a long residency at Columbia, Full Force has taken the goods straight to Capitol, while Samoan giants Boo-ya Tribe look set to chill in the CEMA system as well.... Doug E. Fresh is ready to come correct, blowin' into the Bust It! Management stable armed with a fat stage show and over 40 new songs. He'll lay them to tape for the company's label as well.... Ward White has filled the slot vacated by Derek Caldwell at Warner Bros..... NEED SOME BANK?: Then get a job, fool. If you're good enough to sell a dukey rope to De La Soul, or a pair of British Knights to anyone, then you might want to shoot your resumé to Ed Locke at Nastymix, who is looking for a new sales manager.... Look for Kid 'N Play to live crazy large now that Select has hooked up with Elektra. Krasnow's posse are putting the stoopid priority status on their next project.... Are there changes in store for Tabu/A&M New Jacks African Unity?... Prince's funky beats have been WORKIN' in the hip-hop world. Call Warner at (800) 395-7439 for more... JACKIN' FOR BEATS: Keep your retinas burnin' for a number of fat new releases, including Tommy Boy's Gold Money, Priority's W.C. & The M.A.A.D. Company, PWL's Silk Smoov and A&M's new reggae JAMmie by the legendary Wailers, featuring the rhyming talents of Microphone Mic... WE KNOW JACK!: The Omni rap showcase during the Family Affair was all that, with Ice Cube rockin' the joint kinda' lovely, Chubb Rock droppin' serious science, and Yo-Yo gettin' big ranks from the large crowd. Naughty By Nature got over like a bulldozer with their signature jam, "O.P.P." (the 12" just went cold gold), but the Willie bo-bo must go out to Tim Dog, who's puttin' out contrary vibes, defending Dee Barnes while callin' Michel'le a bitch. 'Nuff respect must be given to all sistas. Peace.

POST TOASTED By Ivana B. Adored

WHO'S THE SASSY-EST?: At the First International Pop Underground Conventlon this past weekend in Olympia, WA., lots of attention was paid to Dischord recording artists Nation of Ulysses, who were voted by SASSY magazine to be the "sassy-est" boys in the country.....Not that I necessarily disagree with what makes an adolescent girl's heart flutter, especially since Nation of Ulysses is "punk rock" to these trained ears, but

Do You Remember:

The First Time You Had Crabs?

Sherl Hood, Geffen's Kim White and I definitely agree that the "Sassy-est" Boy Award goes to Calvin Johnson from Beat Happening.....What fun! Establishing a criteria to judge PoMo-city, based totally on "babe factor!" Let's continue with this line of thought....In Ivana's "humble" opinion: Calvin, as previously stated, is the "sassy-est" frontman in PoMo-land, Ken Stringfellow from the incredibly god-like Posles is the "sassy-est" guitarist, Jim Tillman from Love Battery is the "sassy-est" bassist, Mark Pickerel from Truly definitely takes the "sassy-est" drummer award, hands down and Sub Pop, overall, is the "sassy-est" label.....Who can argue about Kevin Stapleford as the "sassy-est" commercial programmer? Or KUNI's Al Schares as the "sassy-est" non-commercial programmer?.....Who do YOU think takes the prize in these categories? What about "sassy-est" label geek? My vote goes to Capitol's Amiel Morris or Paul V. , who do think? Any "sassy" retailers out there? This could be even more annoying than PLAYBOY's "Girls Of The Ivy League." YAY! Results of this poll will be printed in an upcoming issue.....Have I mentioned that the Posies are completely awesome? Thank you.....Even with Leshay on vacation, and Amy Seidenwurm crossing the street to Virgin, Billy Bragg's new single "Sexuality" on Elektra was "Most Added" this week, with the Smithereens, Lloyd Cole (tres sassy), and House of Freaks in close pursuit. "Sexuality" was co-written by the ever-sassy Johnny Marr.....Look for Mudhoney to enter the Top 5 in the next week, furthering the trend of indie bands with "cred" outselling the PoMo "flavor of the week." At least half the records on the PoMo chart are crap. Not Massive Attack, though. I adore this record.....I hope you're at least playing American Music Club, The Innocence Mission and House of Freaks.....Kirsty MacColl is requesting up-the-butt, but where are the sales? Guess the sales are all going to Metallica. Bitchin' ....Lenny IS Sassy!

AMY SEIDENWURM ELEKTRA (NOT!), VIRGIN (YEP!)

I knew that Amy was special the very first time I didn't hire her. Managing to overcome the trauma, Amy has spent the last year using up Leshay's tanning card at City Tan, which brought her to the attention of her future employer. Yep, she's nabbed the highly coveted gig at like, uh, Virgin, where Amy will be thrilled to share her tapes of blood farts with her co-workers. Maybe I'll have the "inside track" to her old job.

POST MODERN

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

American Music Club, "Everclear" (Alias): It seems that in Austin, TX., musicians get together for "bummer night," where they try to out-do each other with "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry"-type songs. I guess they've never heard A.M.C., whose "Everclear" ranks even above "Engine," their classic album of woe/despair/retribution. "Rise" and "Crabwalk" are certainly radio-friendly, but it's the gut-wrenchers like "Ex-Girlfriend" and "The Dead Part Of You" that inspires me to dare you to find a better songwriter than Mark Eitzel.

Joan Jett & The Blackhearts, "Notorious" (Blackheart/Epic): Ok, so PoMo can ignore Desmond Child's name on a couple of tunes. Who the fuck deserves a hit record more than Joan Jett? Wouldn't it be awesome if it's with "Backlash," the most brilliant melding of talent (Joan and Paul Westerberg) since I met Neil Harris! "Notorious" is a god-head album from cut to cut. Joan Jett is one of the few female PoMo role-models; since "Bad Reputation," Joan has always proven that you can rock on your own terms. She rules. Totally.

the orb
adventures beyond the ultraworld the album.

The Orb, "The Orb's Adventures Beyond the Ultraworld" (Big Life/Mercury): When I think of the Orb, I think of mushrooms the size of Kansas floating in my head, swirling in pretty patterns and taunting me to experience life like I've never experienced it before. The freedom I feel is wonderful.

When the music stops, they disappear, and I want to hurt something. Real bad. So if you want to stop mindless destruction, go out and buy this record, and everything will be fine. I promise. You'll feel an overwhelming calm. Trust me. (MF)

Definition Of Sound, "Love and Life: A Journey With The Chameleons" (Cardiac): The best rap record to come out of the land of bland food, hands down. Perhaps the best rap record of 1991. They borrow and steal with finesse and imagination, mixing things together in their psychedelic lab until the pleasure factor hits 11. These songs will work at any format, and only ultra-tight grunge lovers (i.e. those who haven't got laid in over 12 months — make that 12 years) will be able to resist the charms of this wonderful record. Think rap has gotten boring? This will change your narrow little minds. (NH)

POMO MUGS

A CROWDED HOUSE? (NOT!): No fucking way. Yes kiddies, I'm a free woman. No more taxsters flying across the living room at hyperspeed! No more body parts thrust toward the garbage disposal! No more threats of little kittens "accidentally" drowning in the jacuzzi at 4AM! No more toilet seats left up, secretly inviting me to take an impromptu bath! No more long hair in the drain and a drain on my bankbook! And no more material to continue this utterly riveting plot line. In case you don't care about my personal life (which is unexcusable!), I'd like to point out: that the Finns and their pals are hanging out with the "sassy" guys and gals at Live 105. Remember, always take the weather with you.

SICK BUT SASSY: Here's PoMo legend Thurston Moore hangin' with the editorial board of Sassy, the only magazine that matters. Sonic Youth's pop culture guru loves the teen bible, which gives him a rare chance to study the psyche of a 13 year-old. He should have just called me. Since working here, my mental age has diminished to that of a 13 year-old. Unfortunately, I also have the body of a 13 year-old!

PSYCHEDELIC FUR BALLS: Who's "sassy-er," Columbia's Todd Bisson or Josh Rosenthal? Todd has the distinct advantage of being a member of the exclusive-yet-ever-expanding-ex-boyfriend club, while Josh's ability to secure advertising from Tipp just can't go unrecognized. Yep, it's Josh. The boy personifies all that is sassy. Not that Tipp isn't waw-cute....He just doesn't have that "joie de vivre" which truly makes Josh so sassy a young man.

When New Zealand pop quirksters Split Enz split up in 1984, Tim Finn went on to a bittersweet solo career while younger brother Neil Finn proceeded to form the melodiously magical Crowded House with drummer Paul Hester and bassist Nick Seymour. After two successful albums — '86's eponymously titled platinum debut and '88's deep, dark "Temple of the Low Men" — Crowded House returned with producer Mitchell Froom for their third outing, "Woodface" (French slang for a hangover, by the way), and the official re-addition of big brother Tim into the Finn fold. The new album's tuneful musical ground is luxuriously playful, lyrically eloquent and harmonically rich (check out those double-Finn'd vocals). The first single, "Chocolate Cake," is a smoothly scathing pop delight, and the second single on the plate, "Fall at Your Feet," gets a definite ten-plus as a killer lump-in-the-throat masterpiece. Down on all fours worshipping at the Altar of the Aussie Men, knee-padded HITS correspondent Shari "Down Under" Roman drank chocolate soda while Housekeepers Neil Finn and Paul Hester revealed the secret of their split-level foundation.

A House Can Be A Home

How did your fans react to Tim joining the band?

Neil Finn: It varied. Some people who liked Crowded House were nervous about it — that it would change things into less of a band thing and more of a Finn Brothers thing. I think most people who were really into Split Enz were actually reveling in it, though. The whole thing happened pretty naturally, so I didn't think too much about what people's reactions would be — if we had, it might have prevented us from doing it. People think Tim's an eternally dark writer — when he's solo, he's much more inclined to be that way. But Tim's much more of a band person than anybody I know. Of course, there were some reservations. As Paul eloquently put it in some other magazine, "It meant the end of Curly, Larry and Moe." But it's also the beginning of something.

I realize it's trendy to say so, but there seems to be a real awareness of the "feminine principle" in your music.

Paul Hester: We talk a lot about our feminine side — partly in jest — but we are all connected with that. All of us have been in relationships for a long time. That's what our life is about.

Neil: That comes out in the lyrics. In "Fall At Your Feet," the phrase, "slow turning pain," for instance — in many relationships, women are unable to verbalize a certain distance they feel from their man.

We don't write about boy's club things so much. We're very appreciative of and understand a great deal about women, having lived with them for a long time. We're trying to get it right — to portray a situation between a man and woman realistically. Because if we don't, we'll get our asses kicked when we get home.

Paul: If we wrote a song about bitchin' babes like Sammy Hagar, we'd have a miserable week and it's just not worth it.

Many of your songs are darkly romantic and spark a strong emotional reaction in the audience.

Neil: The ultimate compliment would be if the song touches you to the extent of where you want to cry. Of course, if it made you want to laugh, that would be equally good. When we're really delivering something on-stage, really putting it across, we can get pretty emotional. Occasionally, the odd guy will admit to crying.

I like that.

Paul: We're very popular in gay saunas in Australia. My girlfriend's father's gay and he and his boyfriend frequent this sauna in Brisbane which is like a restaurant. They were telling me everyone was just standing around ignoring one another, but when "Chocolate Cake" came on the sauna music system, they all started singing along and afterward began talking to each other. The song turned out to be a real ice breaker.

"Woodface" seems to have many outside influences — Sinatra, the Beatles, maybe even a little Crosby, Stills and Nash. Do those comparisons drive you crazy?

Paul: Our generation was really affected by a lot of those bands... the Kinks, the Beatles, '60s pop groups... it's all there.

Neil: I don't sit down and consciously think, "I'm going to write a McCartney-esque or a Lennon-esque type song." It must just be something inherent in my work. If people like the album because it reminds them of something else, fine.

Do you guys ever think about your "quote unquote" image or how the band is perceived by the public? Are you rock or pop or both?

Neil: In the context of what passes for rock music in this country — Van Halen, Skid Row, Guns N' Roses — I'm quite happy to be in a "pop band" if those are the only two broad definitions you can apply.

Paul: I read one review that described us as "handsome without really knowing it." I think we're like nerds who are slightly sexy.

Neil: We're not the Partridge Family.

Paul: We're more like the Partridge Family on serious acid.

WHEELS & DEALS

BY NEIL HARRIS

TOUGH AS NAILS: The heat in the battle for Industrial rulers Nine Inch Nails is heating up, with the list of heavies involved getting more impressive each day, as is the confusion. Almost every record company president is attempting to get in on the action, and business affairs departments galore have looked at their contract with TVT in order to find a loophole for the band to exit through. Cease-and-desist orders are flying, though that hasn't stopped some titans from jetting to the heartland to woo the boys. Meanwhile, the label is still working the act's two-year-old debut, "Pretty Hate Machine," reserving "Head Like A Hole" and taking out network TV spots while they wait for the new record that might never come. Nails

Get down on it!

Nine Inch Nails: Every-body wants some!

leader Trent Reznor has written a slew of new songs, which have been going down well live during his Lollapalooza stint, but has not entered the studio to officially record them. Perhaps the only legit contractual gripe the act has is the company's delay in licensing the record outside the U.S. (Island won that war earlier this year), though the root of the problem still seems to be the band's relationship with TVT owner Steven Gottlieb (who has the publishing as well). The latest development in this story has a pair of management kingpins getting involved in an advisory role to the band, though long-time manager John Malm (216-861-8402) is still at the helm, while Michael Turoc (212-972-1100) is on the legal tip. From this perspective, it looks like Mr. Gottlieb holds the trump card, and must be dealt with as well if you want to score the band. The only concrete fact is that the winner of this battle better have a fat checkbook — settling with both the band and Gottlieb is going to run in the healthy seven-figure range, most likely approaching the Stone Roses numbers (probably justified) when all is said and done. You can call Gottlieb at (212) 979-6410. His lawyer, Paul LiCalsi, can be reached at (212) 481-1700. We just hope that this mess gets settled soon, so that we can hear some new music from this extremely talented group.... Are some of the players in the Nine Inch Nails game about to become involved in another scenario with an act of similar stature?... LOOK KIDDIES, A JOB: The folks at Morgan Creek are looking for a young genius to work the streets of the Big Apple. If you feel the need to pitch your undeniable brilliance, give David Kershenbaum a call A.S.A.P.... WHOSE MONEY?: A Weasel Fest of the magnitude not seen in La La Land since the days of wine and Mark Curry was held last week at Blak & Bloo, where an assortment of luminaries, including Jeff, Jordan and the Virgin Boys & Girls Choir, Hale Milgrim and two thirds of the record, publishing, and booking communities in this glorious town, gathered to pray at the altar of Whose Image. Depending on who you asked, the highly-visual, purple-powered quintet was either the greatest thing since sliced bread or the next coming of Spinal Tap, but it was very entertaining to see top brass nervously singing along in mortal fear that they'd lose the war for their services if they didn't.... THE BUZZ IS ON: This Great Religion, Rick Rubin & Neil Rushton.

NEW ARTISTS

Brand New Heavies

Title
"Brand New Heavies"

Label
Delicious Vinyl/PLG

This London-born quintet — bassist Andrew Levy, guitarist Simon Bartholomew, percussionist/guitarist Lascelles Gordon, drummer/keyboardist Jan Kincaid and saxophonist Jim Wellman — offer up a funky jazz groove that's best witnessed in one of the group's sweaty, propulsive live shows. Four of the tracks on the album feature sultry songstress N'Dea Davenport, who has provided bg vocals for the likes of Madonna and Tone Loc. The band emerged in the mid-'80s as part of the U.K.'s Rare Groove scene, playing '70s-style funk for enthusiastic club audiences. They quickly became one of the most popular live bands in England, gigging alongside the likes of Soul II Soul and the Pasadenas. The group's debut single, "Got To Give," was a hit with U.K. critics.

Suggested Cuts

"Never Stop" is precisely the kind of Brit-funk soul that could cross from Club and Black play to the Top 40.

Comments:

Guest analyst is former boxing champ Mike Tyson, who said, "The dance floor just fills up with butts to pinch when this one comes on."

Curtis Stigers

Title
"Curtis Stigers"

Label
Arista

This 25-year-old Boise, Idaho, native has a background that stretches from classical music to punk-rock, with a list of vocal influences which includes Ray Charles, Elton John and B.B. King as well as songwriting role models such as Donald Fagen, Elvis Costello and Joni Mitchell. He started out on the clarinet, then took up the sax before playing drums in a punk band and a local blues outfit while still in high school. Relocating to N.Y.C., Curtis began writing the material which ended up on his debut album, paying the rent by singing with a jazz trio on the Upper West Side. It was there he was discovered by a bevy of record labels, finally signing with Arista. The songs on his label bow — produced by Glen Ballard and Danny Kortchmar — are marked by honesty laced with bitter humor, unsparing pain and pure romantic elation.

Suggested Cuts

"I Wonder Why," with its soulful vocal and soaring sax, should kick in at Adult and Black before hitting Pop.

Comments:

Said Tyson, "I'd like to take a chunk out of this guy's tush myself. He's cute!"

SOMETHING TO TALK ABOUT

Produced by Don Was and Bonnie Raitt Management: Danny Goldberg, Ron Stone and Jeffrey Hersh for Gold Mountain Entertainment.

WAVELENGTH

by Lenny Beer & Mike Murphy

Z100 NY's Shadow Steele (or whatever name he's going by this week) makes the move to do national promotion at Epic with a projected starting date of Oct. 1, and joins a long and infamous list of names that have made the successful (not!) crossover from radio to records. Jim Collins, Charley Lake, Kid Leo, Tom Barsanti, Sean Lynch, Billy Brill, Mark St. John, John Brodey, Ken Lane, Bob Sherwood, Burt Baumgartner, Bob Pittman, Joe Smith and (of course) Scott Shannon. We expect Shadow to do somewhat better than Mr. Shannon (who brought you Mary MacGregor before scurrying back to radioland) and somewhat worse than Mr. Smith (who parlayed his payola take into awesome Lakers ducats). As for how this translates back in the Meadowlands, we look for not just one and maybe as many as three airplay changes as Steve Kingston will probably use the opportunity of ditching the bum (Ed note to Shadow: you're no longer a radio guy so forget the gratuitous stroking) to reshuffle his deck..... Speaking of crossing over, will WIOQ Philly's Pam Grund be next?..... Steve & Eydie (or is that D.C.?) sign on for mornings at WKBQ St. Louis and start Tues. 9/3..... PD Gary Waldron exits KISN Salt Lake and is replaced by Randy Rose..... Randy Street signs on as new PD at KCHX Midland..... Don & Mike are officially out at WAVA Washington and will now function as stunt doubles on the Mark & Brian show..... Has anyone noticed the awesome moves on the Jasmine Guy 45?..... Raves, but no photos, from the Talentmasters "Boot Camp"..... PD JD Gonzales exits KZFM Corpus Christi for the Ops. Mgr. slot at KBFM McAllen..... PD Scott St. John out at WPRR Altoona. Dave McCall takes over..... PD Mike St. John out at 92Q Nashville..... We're hearing Drew Bentley has the inside track for the PD slot at KG95 Sioux City..... At WGRD Grand Rapids, the names of John Ivey & Jeff Kapugi are circulating..... What was Albie D doing in Hartford hanging with his old GM?..... Jim Murphy exits WLMG New Orleans for mornings at WIXX Green Bay..... Dr. Dave exits mornings at WKSI Greensboro..... New nites at
