Tim McGraw had such a good time making Tim McGraw And The Dancehall Doctors at a recording studio in upstate New York that he decided to go back to make his latest album, Live Like You Were Dying.

On both albums, McGraw used his road band instead of studio musicians. "Using the band on the records brings a new kind of honesty to the sound and makes what we do on stage that much purer to the vision we had originally," he says. "It is also a huge comfort being in the studio with those guys and singing to their tracks. We brought a confidence level into recording this time. We knew we could make a great record because we had the confidence of the last album. We were then able to go further, take it to another level."

It's a formula that's paying off. The title track, also the debut single, was a multiple-week No. 1 and one of the fastest chart toppers in McGraw's career. "It's just a great song," he says. "Probably anybody could have recorded it and had a big hit, but it helps that we're in a great place in our career and things just seem to keep getting better."

The 2004 Report

- 7 Label/A&R Staff/Roster
- 11 Management Companies
- 17 Booking Agencies
- 20 Publicity Companies
- 23 2004 Artist Roster
- 29 Industry Directory

Welcome to the The 11th Annual Artist Roster Report, the guide we modestly proclaim a "must have" for those who toil in Nashville's ever-changing music industry. The Artist Roster contains four company appendices—Label/A&R, Management, Booking, and Publicity—complete with client rosters for each. A fifth section, the Artist Grid, handily connects artists to their team players in each category.

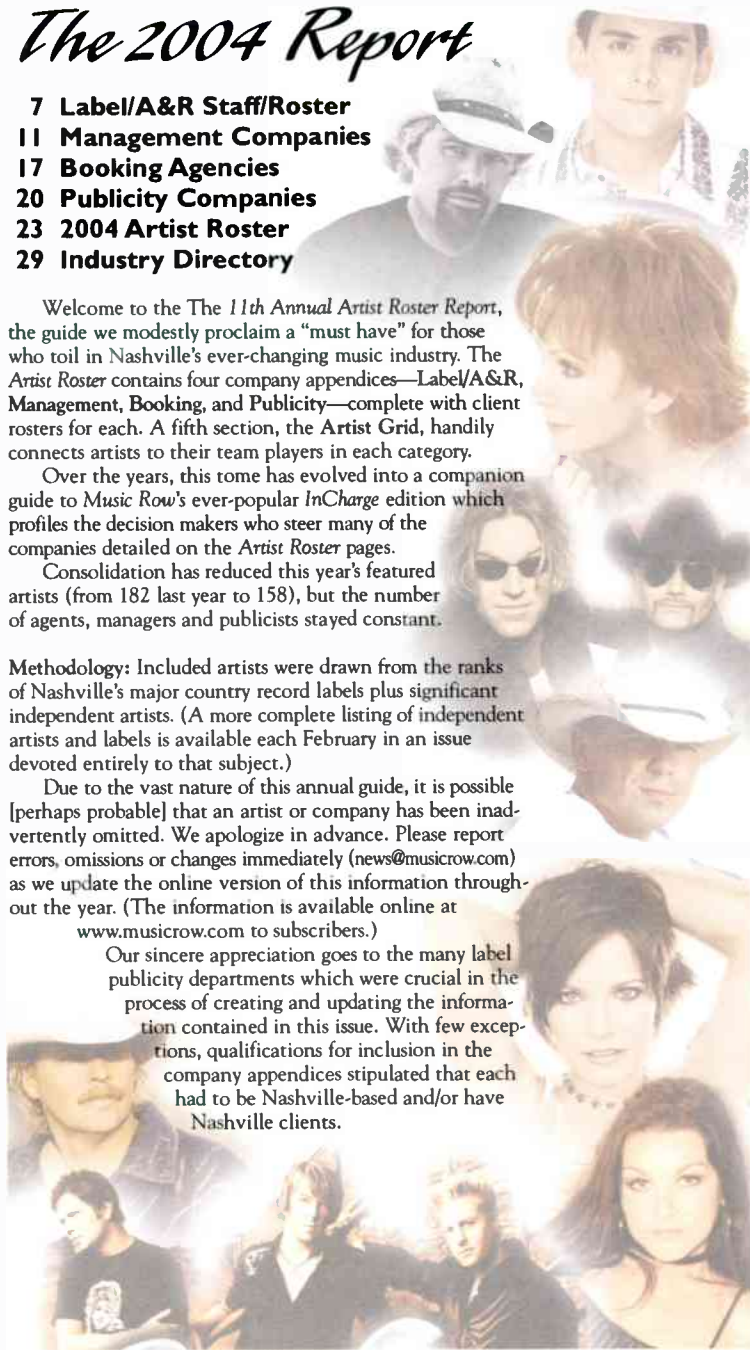

Over the years, this tome has evolved into a companion guide to Music Row's ever-popular InCharge edition which profiles the decision makers who steer many of the companies detailed on the Artist Roster pages.

Consolidation has reduced this year's featured artists (from 182 last year to 158), but the number of agents, managers and publicists stayed constant.

Methodology: Included artists were drawn from the ranks of Nashville's major country record labels plus significant independent artists. (A more complete listing of independent artists and labels is available each February in an issue devoted entirely to that subject.)

Due to the vast nature of this annual guide, it is possible [perhaps probable] that an artist or company has been inadvertently omitted. We apologize in advance. Please report errors, omissions or changes immediately (news@musicrow.com) as we update the online version of this information throughout the year. (The information is available online at www.musicrow.com to subscribers.)

Our sincere appreciation goes to the many label publicity departments which were crucial in the process of creating and updating the information contained in this issue. With few exceptions, qualifications for inclusion in the company appendices stipulated that each had to be Nashville-based and/or have Nashville clients.

“don't ever underestimate jenn-rod artists”

RanCie's... recent single “Blue Blue Tears,” released on CDX was a radio hit with DJ Bill Mack and his syndicated trucking show, plus rave reviews by call-in listeners on XM Satellite Radio. “Blue Blue Tears,” also hit Number One in numerous European markets. A Fall 2004 release is planned for her new single, 'When The Wind Blows,' a riveting true story that will chill the soul of the toughest! RanCie's delivery captures the essence of the sadness of the event proving without a doubt that the pretty blond from Kentucky has arrived as a vocally emotional powerhouse!

jenn-rod artist directions established 1991 by Rod and Jennifer Harris. Business concept: We believe integrity and quality must be first and foremost in our business and everyday life. We believe in the artists we represent as people first and talent second. We believe in planning, persistence and hard work. We have been with Terry ten years, RanCie four years, Keith three years and Grant Bennett eighteen months. AM was sent to us from Iowa eight months ago. Sumsion was a seasoned artist when we came together. We found RanCie and Bennett in talent shows. We found Keith at an auto body shop grand opening! We are very proud of them all.

Terry Sumsion... a Juno nomination, ten top-forty country hits including “Our Lovin' Place,” recently fan-voted number 12 in the top 200 all-time Canadian country classics. The only male singer to win the Canadian Open three consecutive times. The new Terry Sumsion Trio is quickly becoming the hottest act in Canada. Terry has headlined worldwide to standing room only. His newest single is “MacKenzie Sarah-Lyn,” a self-penned tune about his granddaughter. Terry's big baritone voice earnestly reaches out and touches his audience. He records for Trailstar.

Keith Cochran... puts Love, Life, Family and Fun into his music from the “reals” of daily life.

Robert K. Oermann (Music Row Magazine February 2004) said about Keith Cochran's cut of “Long Black Veil,” “Lefty Frizzell, you ain't. But when you've got ahold of one of the greatest country songs ever written, it doesn't really matter. He takes it slowly and deliberately, making you hang on every line. As you should.”

Kirk Boyer, Director, A&R, Lyric Street Records, said in part, “Keith possesses an emotional, confident and pleasing traditional Country vocal style. Furthermore, Keith delivers his material with passion, honesty and conviction.” Cochran's current CD is “Granny's Eyes”.

jenn-rod's artists record in Nashville's Merit Studio (615-327-9517) with multi-Grammy-winning engineer/producer Tom Pick (43 number one hits). Pick said, “Keith Cochran has a voice, not to the people, but for the people; the only one out there today that comes close to Cochran is Chesney!”

AM Daisy... can sing the barnacles off of a submarine. She is a multi-instrumented musician and crossover singer. She can sing classical, pop, opera, gospel, show tunes and anything else handed to her; however, her first musical love is Country. She is currently working on two projects: her first Country CD and as special guest vocalist with classical pianist/pipe organist Jennifer Harris. AM Daisy is the kindest singer a song can have. AM hails from the cornfields of Iowa.

Grant Bennett... a tall lanky nineteen year-old from Kentucky that has been singing before he was born (so he says)! Bennett has a soft smooth delivery; he is very comfortable with a slow laid-back tune or a rollicking up-tempo. His new CD is titled “Grant Bennett and Gazebo Joe”; written by Whitey Shaffer, “Gazebo Joe” is a fun tune with dual fiddles and a wonderful country flavor. The project as a whole shows the total spectrum of this young man's tal-
