Policy

By law, the Voice of America, a part of the U.S. Information Agency, operates under the following directive: "The long-range interests of the United States are served by communicating directly with the peoples of the world by radio. To be effective, the Voice of America must win the attention and respect of listeners. These principles will govern VOA broadcasts:

"1. VOA will serve as a consistently reliable and authoritative source of news. VOA news will be accurate, objective and comprehensive.

"2. VOA will represent America, not any single segment of American society, and will therefore present a balanced and comprehensive projection of significant American thought and institutions.

"3. VOA will present the policies of the United States clearly and effectively, and will also present responsible discussion and opinion on these policies."

To implement this directive, these broadcasts present news and news-related items of American and world events, news analyses, commentaries, correspondents' reports, editorial roundups, and feature material such as documentaries, roundtable discussions, interviews and special events all of which provide overseas audiences with a balanced and accurate concept of the many facets of American life and clear information regarding U.S. policies.

Facilities

The Voice of America has a network of 113 transmitters, of which 41 are in the continental United States. These are short and medium wave stations ranging in power from 35 kw to 1,000 kw. The largest transmitter complex is at Greenville, N.C. There, 18 transmitters feed programs received via microwave from the Washington studios to audiences and relay stations abroad over 73 directional antennas. Total power at Greenville is 4,800 kw. Other domestic facilities are at Bethany, Ohio; Marathon, Fla. (MW); Delano and Dixon, both California.

Overseas relay stations are at: Munich, Germany; Kavala and Rhodes, Greece; Tangier, Morocco; Monrovia, Liberia; Okinawa; Tinang and Poro, The Philippines; Woolferton, England; Colombo, Sri Lanka; Bangkok, Thailand. These include short and medium wave transmitters, among which are three one-megawatt transmitters.

In addition to its network of fixed transmitters, the Voice has seven transportable transmitters. These are all 50 kw, six shortwave and one medium wave, designed to be moved quickly. The medium wave transportable transmitter is on Marathon Key, Fla., broadcasting Spanish language programs. The six shortwave transportables are in The Philippines, where they augment existing facilities in relaying Voice programs to Southeast Asia and the Far East. VOA's total power is now 23,010 kw.

Local Placement

Many VOA tapes, music recordings and script materials are furnished by U.S. Information Agency offices overseas for local distribution and broadcast. Other relays and rebroadcasts are made through arrangements with local broadcasters in West Europe, Africa, the Near East, South Asia, the Far East and Latin America. For example, VOA's Spanish-language correspondents feed of 90 minutes, Mondays-Fridays, is rebroadcast by more than 800 Latin American radio stations.

Jamming

USSR jamming of VOA vernacular language broadcasts to the USSR and East Europe began in 1948 and continued until 1963. Other East European countries began jamming in 1950. Except for Poland (which stopped jamming in 1956) and Bulgaria (which continued to jam until September 1974), Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Romania ceased jamming VOA broadcasts shortly after the USSR stopped. Coincident with the invasion of Czechoslovakia (Aug. 21, 1968), the Soviet Union resumed jamming of VOA's broadcasts in Armenian, Georgian, Russian and Ukrainian. When VOA broadcasts in Uzbek began in September 1972, jamming also was instituted on these programs. In September 1973 all Soviet jamming of VOA broadcasts again was stopped without explanation.

The People's Republic of China began jamming the VOA Chinese-language broadcasts in 1956. At the present time (September 1976) it is the only country continuously jamming VOA programs.

Radio Billings 1935-1975

Figures for the years 1935 through 1967 are net time sales by stations and networks after all frequency and promotional discounts but before deduction of commissions to agencies and representatives. Figures from 1969 on were computed under a new formula and represent total amounts paid by advertisers for the use of broadcast facilities. They include commissions paid to advertising agencies and representatives and payments for broadcast time and programs, materials, facilities and services supplied by broadcast stations and networks in connection with the sale of time. Figures are based on FCC data.

* Prior to 1971, data reflects factory sales by U.S. manufacturers plus those products imported directly by distributors or dealers for resale. All import statistics are based on average value as published by the U. S. Department of Commerce, which is F.O.B., and therefore excludes U.S. import duties, freight charged from the foreign country to the U.S. and insurance.

<sup>2</sup> Other imports reflect those products imported directly by distributors or dealers for resale.

A MAJOR GROUP IN MAJOR MARKETS

NEW YORK CITY It's America's biggest market, headquarters for some of the world's largest companies, and home of RKO General's WOR-TV, Channel 9. WOR-TV is one of the leading sports stations in the country, featuring play-by-play telecasts of the N. Y. Mets, Knicks, Rangers, Nets and Islanders. With this line up, WOR-TV has carved out a special niche with millions of sports fans in the greater New York area.

LOS ANGELES America's second largest market, entertainment capital of the world, and home of RKO General's KHJ-TV, Channel 9—the country's pioneer feature film station. Every night, Southern California viewers enjoy Million Dollar Movie, the longest running prime-time motion picture showcase in Los Angeles, and other features programmed from one of the markets' most extensive lists of major films.

BOSTON America's sixth largest market, birthplace of the revolution, and home of RKO General's WNAC-TV, Channel 7. Besides bringing the popular CBS programs to Boston viewers, WNAC-TV involves itself in answering and communicating civic needs. WNAC-TV leads the way in public affairs programming through the regular production and broadcasting of newsworthy and noteworthy shows and editorials.

MEMPHIS America's 33rd TV market, gateway to the mid-south and home of RKO General's WHBQ-TV, Channel 13. In addition to ABC's strong prime-time program line-up, WHBQ-TV has Memphis' #1 News* shows at 6pm and 10pm. Eyewitness News gives the viewers more than just hard news. It involves its people, the community and the consumer with special features in all newscasts.

*Metro & ADI rating and share. Nov. 1976 ARB. Subject to qualifications set forth by ARB.

RKO General stations are in four major markets—each with different tastes and needs. So all programming decisions are made locally, by local General Managers, to meet local needs. From market to market, our offerings vary from live sports, to major feature films, to top network programs, to outstanding local news, to award-winning editorials and public service programming.

At RKO General Television, we think of ourselves as a major group serving major markets. And we put the emphasis on *servi*ng.

NAB Television Code

Preamble

Television is seen and heard in nearly every American home. These homes include children and adults of all ages, embrace all races and all varieties of philosophic or religious conviction and reach those of every educational background. Television broadcasters must take this pluralistic audience into account in programming their stations. They are obligated to bring their positive responsibility for professionalism and reasoned judgment to bear upon all those involved in the development, production and selection of programs.

The free, competitive American system of broadcasting which offers programs of entertainment, news, general information, education and culture is supported and made possible by revenues from advertising. While television broadcasters are responsible for the programming and advertising on their stations, the advertisers who use television to convey their commercial messages also have a responsibility to the viewing audience. Their advertising messages should be presented in an honest, responsible and tasteful manner. Advertisers should also support the endeavors of broadcasters to offer a diversity of programs that meet the needs and expectations of the total viewing audience.

The viewer also has a responsibility to help broadcasters serve the public. All viewers should make their criticisms and positive suggestions about programming and advertising known to the broadcast licensee. Parents particularly should oversee the viewing habits of their children, encouraging them to watch programs that will enrich their experience and broaden their intellectual horizons.

Program Standards

I. Principles of Governing Program Content

It is in the interest of television as a vital medium to encourage programs that are innovative, reflect a high degree of creative skill, deal with significant moral and social issues and present challenging concepts and other subject matter that relate to the world in which the viewer lives.

Television programs should not only reflect the influence of the established institution that shape our values and culture, but also expose the dynamics of social change which bear upon our lives.

To achieve these goals, television broadcasters should be conversant with the general and specific needs, interests and aspirations of all the segments of the communities they serve. They should affirmatively seek out responsible representatives of all parts of their communities so that they may structure a broad range of programs that will inform, enlighten and entertain the total audience.

Broadcasters should also develop programs directed toward advancing the cultural and educational aspects of their communities.

To assure that broadcasters have the freedom to program fully and responsibly, none of the provisions of this Code should be construed as preventing or impeding broadcast of the broad range of material necessary to help broadcasters fulfill their obligations to operate in the public interest.

The challenge to the broadcaster is to determine how suitably to present the complexities of human behavior. For television, this requires exceptional awareness of considerations peculiar to the medium.

Accordingly, in selecting program subjects and themes, great care must be exercised to be sure that treatment and presentation are made in good faith and not for the purpose of sensationalism or to shock or exploit the audience or appeal to prurient interests or morbid curiosity.

Additionally, entertainment programming inappropriate for viewing by a general family audience should not be broadcast during the first hour of network entertainment programming in prime time and in the immediately preceding hour. In the occasional case when an entertainment program in this time period is deemed to be inappropriate for such an audience, advisories should be used to alert viewers. Advisories should also be used when programs in later prime time periods contain material that might be disturbing to significant segments of the audience.

These advisories should be presented in audio and video form at the beginning of the program and when deemed appropriate at a later point in the program. Advisories should also be used responsibly in promotional material in advance of the program. When using an advisory, the broadcaster should attempt to notify publishers of television program listings.

Special care should be taken with respect to the content and treatment of audience advisories so that they do not dissuade their intended purpose by containing material that is promotional, sensational or exploitative. Promotional announcements for programs that include advisories should be scheduled on a basis consistent with the purpose of the advisory.

II. Responsibility Toward Children

Broadcasters have a special responsibility to children. Programs designed primarily for children should take into account the range of interests and needs of children, from instructional and cultural material to a wide variety of entertainment material. In their totality, programs should contribute to the sound, balanced development of children to help them achieve a sense of the world at large and informed adjustments to their society.

In the course of a child's development, numerous social factors and forces, including television, affect the ability of the child to make the transition to adult society.

The child's training and experience during the formative years should include positive sets of values which will allow the child to become a responsible adult, capable of coping with the challenges of maturity.

Children should also be exposed, at the appropriate times, to a reasonable range of the realities which exist in the world sufficient to help them make the transition to adulthood.

Because children are allowed to watch programs designed primarily for adults, broadcasters should take this practice into account in the presentation of material in such programs when children may constitute a substantial segment of the audience.

All the standards set forth in this section apply to both program and commercial material designed and intended for viewing by children.

III. Community Responsibility

1. Television broadcasters and their staffs occupy positions of unique responsibility in their communities and should conscientiously endeavor to be acquainted fully with the community's needs and characteristics in order better to serve the welfare of its citizens.

2. Requests for time for the placement of public service announcements or programs should be carefully reviewed with respect to the character and reputation of the group, campaign or organization involved, the public interest content of the message, and the manner of its presentation.

IV. Special Program Standards

1. Violence, physical or psychological, may only be projected in responsibly handled contexts, not used exploitatively. Programs involving violence should present the consequences of it to its victims and perpetrators.

Presentation of the details of violence should avoid the excessive, the gratuitous and the instructional.

The use of violence for its own sake and the detailed dwelling upon brutality or physical agony, by sight or by sound, are not permissible.

The depiction of conflict, when presented in programs designed primarily for children, should be handled with sensitivity.

2. The treatment of criminal activities should always convey their social and human effects.

The presentation of techniques of crime in such detail as to be instructional or invite imitation shall be avoided.

3. Narcotics addiction shall not be presented except as a destructive habit. The use of illegal drugs or the abuse of legal drugs shall not be encouraged or shown as socially acceptable.

4. The use of gambling devices or scenes necessary to the development of plot or as appropriate background is acceptable only when presented with discretion and in moderation, and in a manner which would not excite interest in, or foster, betting nor be instructional in nature.

5. Telecasts of actual sports programs at which on-the-scene betting is permitted by law shall be presented in a manner in keeping with Federal, state and local laws, and should concentrate on the subject as a public sporting event.

6. Special precautions must be taken to avoid demeaning or ridiculing members of the audience who suffer from physical or mental affliction or deformities.

7. Special sensitivity is necessary in the use of material relating to sex, race, color, creed, religious functionaries or rites, or national or ethnic derivation.

8. Obscene, indecent or profane matter, as proscribed by law, is unacceptable.

9. The presentation of marriage, the family and similarly important human relationships, and material with sexual connotations, shall not be treated exploitatively or irresponsibly, but with sensitivity. Costuming and movements of all performers shall be handled in a similar fashion.

10. The use of liquor and the depiction of smoking in program content shall be deemphasized. When shown, they should be consistent with plot and character development.

11. The creation of a state of hypnosis by act or detailed demonstration on camera is prohibited and hypnosis as a form of "parlor game" antics to create humorous situations within a comedy setting is forbidden.

12. Program material pertaining to fortune-telling, occultism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, numerology, mind-reading, character-reading, and the like is unacceptable if it encourages people to regard such fields as providing commonly accepted appraisals of life.

13. Professional advice, diagnosis and treatment will be presented in conformity with law and recognized professional standards.

14. Any technique whereby an attempt is made to convey information to the viewer by transmitting messages below the threshold of normal awareness is not permitted.

15. The use of animals, consistent with plot and character delineation, shall be in conformity with accepted standards of humane treatment.

16. Quiz and similar programs that are presented as contests of knowledge, information, skill or luck, must, in fact, be genuine contests; and the results must not be controlled by collusion with or between contestants, or by any other action which will favor one contestant against any other.

17. The broadcaster shall be constantly alert to prevent inclusion of elements within a program dictated by factors other than the requirements of the program itself. The acceptance of cash payments or other considerations in return for including scenic properties, the choice and identification of prizes, the selection of music and other creative program elements and inclusion of any identification of commercial products or services, their trade names or advertising slogan within the program are prohibited except in accordance with Sections 317 and 508 of the Communications Act.

18. Contests may not constitute a lottery.

19. No program shall be presented in a manner which through artifice or simulation would mislead the audience as to any material fact. Each broadcaster must exercise reasonable judgment to determine whether a particular method of presentation would constitute a material deception, or would be accepted by the audience as normal theatrical illusion.

20. A television broadcaster should not present fictional events or other non-news material as authentic news telecasts or announcements, nor should he permit dramatizations in any program which would give the false impression that the dramatized material constitutes news.

21. The standards of this Code covering program content are also understood to include, wherever applicable, the standards contained in the advertising section of the Code.

V. Treatment of News and Public Events

General

Television Code standards relating to the treatment of news and public events are, because of constitutional consideration, intended to be exhortatory. The standards set forth hereunder encourage high standards of professionalism in broadcast journalism. They are not to be interpreted as turning over to others the broadcaster's responsibility as to judgments necessary in news and public events programming.

News

1. A television station's news schedule should be adequate and well-balanced.

2. News reporting should be factual, fair and without bias.

3. A television broadcaster should exercise particular discrimination in the acceptance, placement and presentation of advertising in news programs so that such advertising should be clearly distinguishable from the news content.

4. At all times, pictorial and verbal material for both news and comment should conform to other sections of these standards, wherever such sections are reasonably applicable.

5. Good taste should prevail in the selection and handling of news:

Morbid, sensational or alarming details not essential to the factual report, especially in connection with stories of crime or sex, should be avoided. News should be telecast in such a manner as to avoid panic and unnecessary alarm.

6. Commentary and analysis should be clearly identified as such.

7. Pictorial material should be chosen with care and not presented in a misleading manner.

8. All news interview programs should be governed by accepted standards of ethical journalism, under which the interviewer selects the questions to be asked. Where there is advance agreement materially restricting an important or newsworthy area of questioning, the interviewer will state on the program that such limitation has been agreed upon. Such disclosure should be made if the person being interviewed requires that questions be submitted in advance or if he participates in editing a recording of the interview prior to its use on the air.

9. A television broadcaster should exercise due care in his supervision of content, format, and presentation of newscasts originated by his/her station, and in the selection of newscasters, commentators, and analysts.

Public Events

1. A television broadcaster has an affirmative responsibility at all times to be informed of public events, and to provide coverage consonant with the ends of an informed and enlightened citizenry.

2. The treatment of such events by a television broadcaster should provide adequate and informed coverage.

VI. Controversial Public Issues

1. Television provides a valuable forum for the expression of responsible views on public issues of a controversial nature. The television broadcaster should seek out and develop with accountable individuals, groups and organizations, programs relating to controversial public issues of import to his/her fellow citizens; and to give fair representation to opposing sides of issues which materially affect the life or welfare of a substantial segment of the public.

2. Requests by individuals, groups or organizations for time to discuss their views on controversial public issues, should be considered on the basis of their individual merits, and in the light of the contribution which the use requested would make to the public interest, and to a well-balanced program structure.

3. Programs devoted to the discussion of controversial public issues should be identified as such. They should not be presented in a manner which would mislead listeners or viewers to believe that the program is purely of an entertainment, news or other character.

4. Broadcasts in which stations express their own opinions about issues of general public interest should be clearly identified as editorials. They should be unmistakably identified as statements of station opinion and should be appropriately distinguished from news and other program material.

VII. Political Telecasts

1. Political telecasts should be clearly identified as such. They should not be presented by a television broadcaster in a manner which would mislead listeners or viewers to believe that the program is of any other character.

(Ref.: Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Secs. 315 and 317, and FCC Rules and Regulations, Secs. 3.654, 3.657, 3.663, as discussed in NAB's "Political Broadcast Catechism & The Fairness Doctrine.")

VIII. Religious Programs

1. It is the responsibility of a television broadcaster to make available to the community appropriate opportunity for religious presentations.

2. Programs reach audiences of all creeds simultaneously. Therefore, both the advocates of broad or ecumenical religious precepts, and the exponents of specific doctrines, are urged to present their positions in a manner conducive to viewer enlightenment on the role of religion in society.

3. In the allocation of time for telecasts of religious programs the television station should use its best efforts to apportion such time fairly among responsible individuals, groups and organizations.

IX. General Advertising Standards

1. This code establishes basic standards for all television broadcasting. The principles of acceptability and good taste within the program standards section govern the presentation of advertising where applicable. In addition, the code establishes in this section special standards which apply to television advertising.

2. Commercial television broadcasters make their facilities available for the advertising of products and services and accepts commercial presentations for such advertising. However, television broadcasters should, in recognition of their responsibility to the public, refuse the facilities of their station to an advertiser where they have good reason to doubt the integrity of the advertiser, the truth of the advertising representations, or the compliance of the advertiser with the spirit and purpose of all applicable legal requirements.

3. Identification of sponsorship must be made in all sponsored programs in accordance with the requirements of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission.

4. Representations which disregard normal safety precautions shall be avoided.

Children shall not be represented, except under proper adult supervision, as being in contact with, or demonstrating a product recognized as potentially dangerous to them.

5. In consideration of the customs and attitudes of the communities served, each television broadcaster should refuse his/her facilities to the advertisement of products and services, or the use of advertising scripts, which the station has good reason to believe would be objectionable to a substantial and responsible segment of the community. These standards should be applied with judgment and flexibility, taking into consideration the characteristics of the medium, its home and family audience, and the form and content of the particular presentation.

6. The advertising of hard liquor (distilled spirits) is not acceptable.

7. The advertising of beer and wine is acceptable only when presented in the best of good taste and discretion, and is acceptable only subject to federal and local laws (See Television Code Interpretation No. 4).

8. Advertising by institutions or enterprises which in their offers of instruction imply promises of employment or make exaggerated claims for the opportunities awaiting those who enroll for courses is generally unacceptable.

9. The advertising of firearms/ammunition is acceptable only when presented in the best of good taste and discretion, and conforms to recognized standards of safety as well as all applicable laws and regulations. Advertisements of firearms/ammunition by mail order are unacceptable. The advertising of fireworks is unacceptable.

10. The advertising of fortune-telling, occultism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, numerology, mind-reading, character reading or subjects of a like nature is not permitted.

11. Because all products of a personal nature create special problems, acceptability of such products should be determined with special emphasis on ethics and the canons of good taste. Such advertising of personal products as is accepted must be presented in a restrained and obviously inoffensive manner.

12. The advertising of tip sheets and other publications seeking to advertise for the purpose of giving odds or promoting betting is unacceptable.

The lawful advertising of government organizations which conduct legalized lotteries is acceptable provided such advertising does not unduly exhort the public to bet.

The advertising of private or governmental organizations which conduct legalized betting on sporting contests is acceptable provided such advertising is limited to institutional type announcements which do not exhort the public to bet.

13. An advertiser who markets more than one product should not be permitted to use advertising copy devoted to an acceptable product for purposes of publicizing the brand name or other identification of a product which is not acceptable.

14. "Bait-switch" advertising, whereby goods or services which the advertiser has no intention of selling are offered merely to lure the customer into purchasing higher-priced substitutes, is not acceptable.

15. Personal endorsements (testimonials) shall be genuine and reflect personal experience. They shall contain no statement that cannot be supported if presented in the advertiser's own words.

X. Presentation of Advertising

1. Advertising messages should be presented with courtesy and good taste; disturbing or annoying material should be avoided; every effort should be made to keep the advertising message in harmony with the content and general tone of the program in which it appears.

2. The role and capability of television to market sponsors' products are well recognized. In turn, this fact dictates that great care be exercised by the broadcaster to prevent the presentation of false, misleading or deceptive advertising. While it is entirely appropriate to present a product in a favorable light and atmosphere, the presentation must not, by copy or demonstration, involve a material deception as to the characteristics, performance or appearance of the product.

Broadcast advertisers are responsible for making available, at the request of the Code Authority, documentation adequate to support the validity and truthfulness of claims, demonstrations and testimonials contained in their commercial messages.

3. The broadcaster and the advertiser should exercise special caution with the content and presentation of television commercials placed in or near programs designed for children. Exploitation of children should be avoided. Commercials directed to children should in no way mislead as to the product's performance and usefulness.

Commercials, whether live, film or tape, within programs initially designed primarily for children under 12 years of age shall be clearly separated from program material by an appropriate device.

Trade name identification or other merchandising practices involving the gratuitous naming of products is discouraged in programs designed primarily for children.

Appeals involving matters of health which should be determined by physicians should not be directed primarily to children.

4. No children's program personality or cartoon characters shall be utilized to deliver commercial messages within or adjacent to the programs in which such a personality or cartoon character regularly appears. This provision shall also apply to lead-ins to commercials when such lead-ins contain sell copy or imply endorsement of the product by program personalities or cartoon character.

5. Appeals to help fictitious characters in television programs by purchasing the advertiser's product or service or sending for a premium should not be permitted, and such fictitious characters should not be introduced into the advertising message for such purposes.

6. Commercials for services or over-the-counter products involving health considerations are of intimate and far-reaching importance to the consumer. The following principles should apply to such advertising:

a. Physicians, dentists or nurses or actors representing physicians, dentists or nurses, shall not be employed directly or by implication. These restrictions also apply to persons professionally engaged in medical services (e.g., physical therapists, pharmacists, dental assistants, nurses' aides).

b. Visual representation of laboratory settings may be employed, provided they bear a direct relationship to bona fide research which has been conducted for the product or service. (See Television Code, X,11) In such cases, laboratory technicians shall be identified as such and shall not be employed as spokespersons or in any other way speak on behalf of the product.

c. Institutional announcements not intended to sell a specific product or service to the consumer and public service announcements by non-profit organizations may be presented by accredited physicians, dentists or nurses, subject to approval by the broadcaster. An accredited professional is one who has met required qualifications and has been licensed in his/her resident state.

7. Advertising should offer a product or service on its positive merits and refrain from discrediting, disparaging or unfairly attacking competitors, competing products, other industries, professions or institutions.

8. A sponsor's advertising messages should be confined within the framework of the sponsor's program structure. A television broadcaster should avoid the use of commercial announcements which are divorced from the program either by preceding the introduction of the program (as in the case of so-called "cow-catcher" announcements) or by following the apparent sign-off of the program (as in the case of so-called "trailer" or "hitchhike" announcements). To this end, the program itself should be announced and clearly identified, both audio and video, before the sponsor's advertising material is first used, and should be signed off, both audio and video, after the sponsor's advertising material is last used.

9. Since advertising by television is a dynamic technique, a television broadcaster should keep under surveillance new advertising devices so that the spirit and purpose of these standards are fulfilled.

10. A charge for television time to churches and religious bodies is not recommended.

11. References to the results of bona fide research, surveys or tests relating to the product to be advertised shall not be presented in a manner so as to create an impression of fact beyond that established by the work that has been conducted.

Advertising Standards

XI. Advertising of Medical Products

1. The advertising of medical products presents considerations of intimate and far-reaching importance to consumers because of the direct bearing on their health.

2. Because of the personal nature of the advertising of medical products, claims that a product will effect a cure and the indiscriminate use of such words as "safe", "without risk", "harmless", or terms of similar meaning should not be accepted in the advertising of medical products on television stations.

3. A television broadcaster should not accept advertising material which in his/her opinion offensively describes or dramatizes distress or morbid situations involving ailments, by spoken word, sound or visual effects.

XII. Contests

1. Contests shall be conducted with fairness to all entrants, and shall comply with all pertinent laws and regulations. Care should be taken to avoid the concurrent use of the three elements which together constitute a lottery-prize, chance and consideration.

2. All contest details, including rules, eligibility requirements, opening and termination dates should be clearly and completely announced and/or shown, or easily accessible to the viewing public, and the winners' names should be released and prizes awarded as soon as possible after the close of the contest.

3. When advertising is accepted which requests contestants to submit items of product identification or other evidence of purchase of products, reasonable facsimiles thereof should be made acceptable unless the award is based upon skill and not upon chance.

4. All copy pertaining to any contest (except that which is required by law) associated with the exploitation or sale of the sponsor's product or service, and all references to prizes or gifts offered in such connection should be considered a part of and included in the total time allowances as herein provided. (See Television Code, XIV)

XIII. Premiums and Offers

1. Full details of proposed offers should be required by the television broadcaster for investigation and approved before the first announcement of the offer is made to the public.

2. A final date for the termination of an offer should be announced as far in advance as possible.

3. Before accepting for telecast offers involving a monetary consideration, a television broadcaster should be satisfied as to the integrity of the advertiser and the advertiser's willingness to honor complaints indicating dissatisfaction with the premium by returning the monetary consideration.

4. There should be no misleading descriptions or visual representations of any premiums or gifts which would distort or enlarge their value in the minds of the viewers.

5. Assurances should be obtained from the advertiser that premiums offered are not harmful to person or property.

6. Premiums should not be approved which appeal to superstition on the basis of "luck-bearing" powers or otherwise.

XIV. Time Standards for Non-Program Material

In order that the time for non-program material and its placement shall best serve the viewer, the following standards are set forth in accordance with sound television practice:

1. Non-Program Material Definition:

Non-program material, in both prime time and all other time, includes billboards, commercials, promotional announcements and all credits in excess of 30 seconds per program, except in feature films. In no event should credits exceed 40 seconds per program. The 40-second limitation on credits shall not apply, however, in any situation governed by a contract entered into before October 1, 1971. Public service announcements and promotional announcements for the same program are excluded from this definition.

2. Allowable Time for Non-Program Material.

a. In prime time on network affiliated stations, non-program material shall not exceed nine minutes 30 seconds in any 60-minute period.

Prime time is a continuous period of not less than three consecutive hours per broadcast day as designated by the station between the hours of 6:00 PM and Midnight.

b. In all other time, non-program material shall not exceed 16 minutes in any 60-minute period.

c. Children's Programming Time—Defined as those hours other than prime time in which programs initially designed primarily for children under 12 years of age are scheduled.

Within this time period on Saturday and Sunday, non-program material shall not exceed nine minutes 30 seconds in any 60-minute period.

Within this time period on Monday through Friday, non-program material shall not exceed 12 minutes in any 60-minute period.

3. Program Interruptions.

a. Definition: A program interruption is any occurrence of non-program material within the main body of the program.

b. In prime time, the number of program interruptions shall not exceed two within any 30-minute program, or four within any 60-minute program.

Programs longer than 60 minutes shall be pro-rated at two interruptions per half-hour.

The number of interruptions in 60-minute variety shows shall not exceed five.

c. In all other time, the number of interruptions shall not exceed four within any 30-minute program period.

d. In children's weekend programming time, as above defined in 2c, the number of program interruptions shall not exceed two within any 30-minute program or four within any 60-minute program.

e. In both prime time and all other time, the following interruption standard shall apply within programs of 15 minutes or less in length:

5-minute program—1 interruption;

10-minute program—2 interruptions;

15-minute program—2 interruptions.

f. News, weather, sports and special events programs are exempt from the interruption standard because of the nature of such programs.

4. No more than four non-program material announcements shall be scheduled consecutively within programs, and no more than three non-program material announcements shall be scheduled consecutively during station breaks. The consecutive non-program material limitation shall not apply to a single sponsor who wishes to further reduce the number of interruptions in the program.

5. A multiple product announcement is one in which two or more products or services are presented within the framework of a single announcement. A multiple product announcement shall not be scheduled in a unit of time less than 60 seconds, except where integrated so as to appear to the viewer as a single message. A multiple product announcement shall be considered integrated and counted as a single announcement if:

a. the products or services are related and interwoven within the framework of the announcement (related products or services shall be defined as those having a common character, purpose and use); and

b. the voice(s), setting, background and continuity are used consistently throughout so as to appear to the viewer as a single message.

Multiple product announcements of 60 seconds in length or longer not meeting this definition of integration shall be counted as two or more announcements under this section of the code. This provision shall not apply to retail or service establishment.

6. The use of billboards, in prime time and all other time, shall be confined to programs sponsored by a single or alternate week advertiser and shall be limited to the products advertised in the program.

7. Reasonable and limited identification of prizes and donors' names where the presentation of contest awards or prizes in a necessary part of program content shall not be included as non-program material as defined above.

8. Programs presenting women's/men's service features, shopping guides, fashion shows, demonstrations and similar material provide a special service to the public in which certain material normally classified as non-program is an informative and necessary part of the program content. Because of this, the time standards may be waived by the Code Authority to a reasonable extent on a case-by-case basis.

9. Gratuitous references in a program to non-sponsor's product or service should be avoided except for normal guest identification.

10. Stationary backdrops or properties in television presentations showing the sponsor's name or product, the name of the sponsor's product, his trade-mark or slogan should be used only incidentally and should not obtrude on program interest or entertainment.

Note: From time to time the Code Authority issues advertising guidelines and clarifications expanding on provisions of the Code. Among areas covered are acne, alcoholic beverages, arthritis and rheumatism remedies, bronchitis, comparative advertising, children's premiums and offers, children's TV advertising, disparagement, hallucinogens, hypnosis, men-in-white, non-prescription medications, personal products, testimonials, time standards, toys, vegetable oils and margarine, and weight reducing products/services. Copies may be obtained from any NAB Code Authority office.

Time Standards for Independent Stations

1. Non-program elements shall be considered as all-inclusive, with the exception of required credits, legally required station identifications, and "bumbers". Promotion spots and public service announcements, as well as commercials, are to be considered non-program elements.

2. The allowed time for non-program elements, as defined above, shall not exceed seven minutes in a 30-minute period or multiples thereof in prime time (prime time is defined as any three contiguous hours between 6 p.m. and midnight, local time), or eight minutes in a 30-minute period or multiples thereof during all other times.

3. Where a station does not carry a commercial in a station break between programs, the number of program interruptions shall not exceed four within any 30-minute program, or seven within any 60-minute program, or 10 within any 90-minute program, or 13 in any 120-minute program. Stations which do carry commercials in station breaks between programs shall limit the number of program interruptions to three within any 30-minute program, or six within any 60-minute program, or nine within any 90-minute program, or 12 in any 120-minute program. News, weather, sports, and special events are exempted because of format.

4. Not more than four non-program material announcements as defined above shall be scheduled consecutively. An exception may be made only in the case of a program 60 minutes or more in length, when no more than seven non-program elements may be scheduled consecutively by stations who wish to reduce the number of program interruptions.

5. The conditions of paragraphs three and four shall not apply to live sports programs where the program format dictates and limits the number of program interruptions.

Interpretations

Interpretation No. 1

June 7, 1956, Revised June 9, 1958
"Pitch" Programs

The "pitchman" technique of advertising on television is inconsistent with good broadcast practice and generally damages the reputation of the industry and the advertising profession.

Sponsored program-length segments consisting substantially of continuous demonstrations or sales presentation, violate not only the time standards established in the Code, but the broad philosophy of improvement implicit in the voluntary Code operation and are not acceptable.

Interpretation No. 2

June 7, 1956
Hollywood Film Promotion

The presentation of commentary or film excerpts from current theatrical releases in some instances may constitute commercial material under the Time Standards for Non-Program Material. Specifically, for example, when such presentation, directly or by inference, urges viewers to attend, it shall be counted against the commercial allowance for the program of which it is a part.

Interpretation No. 3

January 23, 1959
Prize Identification

Aural and/or visual prize identification of up to ten seconds duration may be deemed "reasonable and limited" under the language of Paragraph 7 of the Time Standards for Non-Program Material. Where such identification is longer than ten seconds, the entire announcement or visual presentation will be charged against the total commercial time for the program period.

Interpretation No. 4

March 4, 1965
Drinking on Camera

Paragraph 7, Section IX, General Advertising Standards, states that the "advertising of beer and wine is acceptable only when presented in the best of good taste and discretion." This requires that commercials involving beer and wine avoid any representation of on-camera drinking.

Interpretation No. 5

April 8, 1975

The scheduling provisions of Section I (Principles Governing Program Content) shall not apply to programs under contract to a station as of April 8, 1975, all episodes of which were then in existence, if such station is unable, despite reasonable good faith efforts, to edit such programs to make them appropriate for family viewing or to reschedule them so as not to occupy family viewing periods. This exception shall in no event apply after Sept. 1, 1977. Any such programs excepted from scheduling provisions shall, of course, bear the required advisory notices.

Regulations and Procedures

The following regulations and procedures shall obtain as an integral part of the Television Code of the National Association of Broadcasters:

I. Name

The name of this code shall be The Television Code of the National Association of Broadcasters.

II. Purpose of the Code

The purpose of this code is cooperatively to maintain a level of television programming which gives full consideration to the educational, informational, cultural, economic, moral and entertainment needs of the American public to the end that more and more people will be better served.

III. Subscribers

Section 1. Eligibility

Any individual, firm or corporation which is engaged in the operation of a television broadcast station or network or which holds a construction permit for a television broadcast station within the United States or its dependencies, shall, subject to the approval of the Television Board of Directors as hereinafter provided, be eligible to subscribe to the Television Code of the NAB to the extent of one subscription for each such station and/or network which it operates or for which it holds a construction permit; provided, that a non-television member of NAB shall not become eligible via code subscription to receive any of the member services or to exercise any of the voting privileges of a member.

Section 2. Certification of Subscription

Upon subscribing to the code, subject to the approval of the Television Board of Directors, there shall be granted forthwith to each such subscribing station authority to use the "NAB Television Seal of Good Practice," a copyrighted and registered seal to be provided in the form of a certificate, a slide and/or a film, signifying that the recipient thereof is a subscriber in good standing to the Television Code of the NAB. The seal and its significance shall be appropriately publicized by the NAB.

Section 3. Duration of Subscription

Subscription shall continue in full force and effect until thirty days after the first of the month following receipt of notice of written resignation. Subscription to the Code shall be effective from the date of application subject to the approval of the Television Board of Directors; provided, that the subscription of a television station going on the air for the first time shall, for the first six months of such subscription, be probationary, during which time its subscription can be summarily revoked by an affirmative two-thirds vote of the Television Board of Directors -without the usual process specified below.

Section 4. Suspension of Subscription

Any subscription, and/or the authority to utilize and show the above-noted seal, may be voided, revoked or temporarily suspended for television programming, including commercial copy, which, by theme, treatment or incident, in the judgment of the Television Board constitutes a continuing, willfull or gross violation of any of the provision of the Television Code, by an affirmative two-thirds vote of the Television Board of Directors at a regular or special meeting; provided, however, that the following conditions and procedures shall apply:

A. Preferring of Charges—Conditions Precedent:

Prior to the preferring of charges to the Television Board of Directors concerning violation of the Code by a subscriber, the Television Code Review Board (hereinafter provided for) (1) Shall have appropriately, and in good time, informed and advised such subscriber of any and all complaints and information coming to the attention of the Television Code Review Board and relating to the programing of said subscriber, (2) Shall have reported to, and advised, said subscriber by analysis, interpretation, recommendation or otherwise, of the possibility of a violation or breach of the television code by the subscriber, and (3) Shall have served upon the subscriber, by registered Mail a Notice of Intent to prefer charges, at least 20 days prior to the filing of any such charges with the Television Board of Directors. During this period the television code review board may, within its sole discretion, reconsider its proposed action based upon such written reply as the subscriber may care to make, or upon such action as the subscriber may care to take program-wise, in conformance with the analysis, interpretation, or recommendation of the Television Code Review Board.

(i) Notice of intent

The Notice of intent shall include a statement of the grounds and reasons for the proposed charges, including appropriate references to the television code.

(ii) Time

In the event that the nature of the program in question is such that time is of the essence, the Television Code Review Board may prefer charges within less than the 20 days above specified, provided that a time certain in which reply may be made is included in its Notice of Intent, and provided that its reasons therefor must be specified in its statement of charges preferred.

B. The Charges:

The subscriber shall be advised in writing by Registered Mail of the charges preferred. The charges preferred by the Television Code Review board to the Television Board of Directors shall include the grounds and reasons therefor, together with specific references to the Television Code. The charges shall contain a statement that the conditions precedent, herein before described, have been met.

C. Hearing:

The subscriber shall have the right to a hearing and may exercise same by filing an answer within 10 days of the date of such notification.

D. Waiver:

Failure to request a hearing shall be deemed a waiver of the subscriber's right thereto.

E. Designation:

If hearing is requested by the subscriber, it shall be designated as promptly as possible and at such time and place as the Television Board may specify:

F. Confidential Status:

Hearings shall be closed; and all correspondence between a subscriber and the Television Code Review Board and/or the Television Board of Directors concerning specific programming shall be confidential; provided, however, that the confidential status of these procedures may be waived by a subscriber.

G. Presentation; Representation:

A subscriber against whom charges have been preferred, and who has exercised his/her right to a hearing, shall be entitled to effect presentation of his/her case personally, by agent, by attorney, or by deposition and interrogatory.

H. Intervention:

Upon request by the subscriber-respondent or the Television Code Review Board, the Television Board of Directors, in its discretion, may permit the intervention of one or more other subscribers as parties-in-interest.

I. Transcript:

A Stenographic transcript record shall be taken and shall be certified by the chairperson of the Television Board of Directors to the office of the Secretary of the National Association of Broadcasters, where it shall be maintained. The transcript shall not be open to inspection unless otherwise provided by the party respondent in the proceeding.

J. Television Code Review Board; Counsel:

The Television Code Review Board may, at its discretion, utilize the services of an attorney from the staff of the NAB for the purpose of effecting its presentation in a hearing matter.

K. Order of Procedure:

At hearings the Television Code Review Board shall open and close.

L. Cross-Examination:

The right of cross-examination shall specifically obtain. Where procedure has been by deposition or interrogatory, the use of cross-interrogatories shall satisfy this right.

M. Presentation:

Oral and written evidence may be introduced by the subscriber and by the Television Code Review Board. Oral argument may be had at the hearing and written memoranda or briefs may be submitted by the subscriber and by the Television Code Review Board. The Television Board of Directors may admit such evidence as it deems relevant, material and competent, and may determine the nature and length of the oral argument and the written argument or briefs.

N. Authority of Presiding Officer; of Television Board of Directors:

The Presiding Officer shall rule upon all interlocutory matters, such as, but not limited to, the admissibility of evidence, the qualifications of witnesses, etc. On all other matters, authority to act shall be vested in a majority of the Television Board unless otherwise provided.

O. Films, Transcriptions, etc.:

Films, kinescopes, records, transcriptions, or other mechanical reproductions of television programs, properly identified, shall be accepted into evidence when relevant.

P. Continuances and Extensions:

Continuance and extension of any proceeding or for the time of filing or performing any act required or allowed to be done within a specific time may be granted upon request, for a good cause shown. The

NAB TV, Radio Code

Board or the Presiding Officer may recess or adjourn a hearing for such time as may be deemed necessary, and may change the place thereof.

Q. Findings and Conclusions:

The Television Board of Directors shall decide the case as expeditiously as possible and shall notify the subscriber and the Television Code Review Board, in writing, of the decision. The decision of the Television Board of Directors shall contain findings of fact with conclusions, as well as the reasons or bases therefor. Findings of fact shall set out in detail and with particularity all basic evidentiary facts developed on the record (with appropriate citations to the transcript of record or exhibit relied on for each evidentiary fact) supporting the conclusion reached.

R. Reconsideration or Rehearing:

A request for reconsideration or rehearing may be filed by parties to the hearing. Requests for reconsideration or rehearing shall state with particularity in what respect the decision or any matter determined therein is claimed to be unjust, unwarranted, or erroneous, and with respect to any finding of fact shall specify the pages of record relied on. If the existence of any newly-discovered evidence is claimed, the request shall be accompanied by a verified statement of the facts together with the facts relied on to show that the party, with due diligence, could not have known or discovered such facts at the time of the hearing. The request for rehearing may seek:

- a. Reconsideration
- b. Additional oral argument
- c. Reopening of the proceedings
- d. Amendment of any findings, or
- e. Other relief.

S. Time for Filing:

Requests for reconsideration or rehearing shall be filed within 10 days after receipt by the respondent of the decision. Opposition thereto may be filed within five (5) days after the filing of the request.

T. Penalty, Suspension of:

At the discretion of the Television Board, application of any penalty provided for in the decision may be suspended until the Board makes final disposition of the request for reconsideration or rehearing.

U. Disqualification:

Any member of the Television Board may disqualify himself/herself, or upon good cause shown by any interested party, may be disqualified by a majority vote of the Television Board.

Section 5. Additional Procedures

When necessary to the proper administration of the Code, additional rules of procedure will be established from time to time as authorized by the By-Laws of the NAB; in keeping therewith, special consideration shall be given to the procedures for receipt and processing of complaints and to necessary rules to be adopted from time to time, taking into account the source and nature of such complaints; such rules to include precautionary measures such as the posting of bonds to cover costs and expenses of processing same; and further provided that special consideration will be given to procedures insuring the confidential status of proceedings relating to Code observance.

Section 6. Amendment and Review

Because of the new and dynamic aspects inherent in television broadcast, the Television Code, as a living, flexible and continuing document, may be amended from time to time by the Television Board of Directors; provided that said board is specifically charged with review and reconsideration of the entire Code, its appendices and procedures, at least once each year.

Section 7. Termination of Contracts

All subscribers on the air at the time of subscription to the Code shall be permitted that period prior to and including the earliest legal cancellation date to terminate any contracts, then outstanding, calling for program presentations which would not be in conformity with the Television Code, provided, however, that in no event shall such period be longer than 52 weeks.

IV. Affiliate Subscribers

Section 1. Eligibility

Any individual, firm or corporation, which is engaged in the production or distribution, lease, or sale of recorded programs for television presentation, subject to the approval of the Television Code Review Board as hereinafter provided, shall be eligible to become an affiliate subscriber to the Television Code of the NAB.

Section 2. Certification of Subscription

Upon becoming an affiliate subscriber to the code, subject to the approval of the Television Code Review Board, there shall be granted forthwith to each such affiliate subscriber authority to use a copyrighted and registered seal and declaration, in a manner approved by the Television Code Review Board, identifying the individual firm or corporation as an affiliate subscriber to the Television Code of the NAB. Such authority shall not constitute formal clearance or approval by the Television Code Review Board of specific films, programs or other recorded material.

Section 3. Duration of Affiliate Subscription

The affiliate subscription shall continue in full force and effect until 30 days after the first of the month following receipt of a written notice or resignation. The affiliate subscription to the code shall be effective from the date of application subject to the approval of the Television Code Review Board.

Section 4. Suspension of Affiliate Subscription

Any affiliate subscription and the authority to utilize and show the above-noted seal may be voided, revoked, or temporarily suspended for the sale or distribution for television presentation of any film or other recorded material which by theme, treatment, or incident, in the judgment of the Television Code Review Board, constitutes a continuing, willful or gross violation of any of the provisions of the Television Code, by a majority vote of the Television Code Review Board at any regular or special meeting. The conditions and procedures applicable to subscribers shall not apply to affiliate subscribers.

Section 5. Representation of Affiliate Subscribers

Any affiliate subscriber or group of affiliate subscribers may authorize an individual or association to act for them in connection with their relations with the Television Code Review Board by filing a written notice of such representation with the Board. Such representation, however, in no way will limit the right of the Television Code Review Board to suspend individual affiliate subscribers in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.

V. Rates

Each subscriber and affiliate subscriber shall pay "administrative" rates in accordance with such schedule, at such time, and under such conditions as may be determined from time to time by the Television Board (see Article VI, section 8, C. Television Board [3] and [4], By-Laws of the NAB); provided, that appropriate credit shall be afforded to a television member of the NAB against the regular dues paid to NAB.

VI. The Television Code Review Board

Section 1. Composition

There shall be a continuing committee entitled the Television Code Review Board to be composed of not more than nine members, all of whom shall be from subscribers to the Television Code. They shall be appointed by the President of NAB, subject to confirmation by the Television Board, and may include one member from each of the subscribing nationwide television networks. Members of the Television Board shall not be eligible to serve on the Review Board. Due consideration shall be given, in making the appointments, to factors of diversification of geographical location, market size, company representation and network affiliation.

No person shall continue as a member of the Television Code Review Board if the station or entity he/she represents ceases to subscribe to the Television Code. In such case a vacancy occurs in the office immediately, and a successor may be appointed to serve out the unexpired term.

All terms shall be for two years, commencing at the close of the annual meeting of the membership following appointment.

A. Limitation of Service:

No person shall serve for more than two terms of two years each, consecutively, as a member of the Television Code Review Board; provided, however, this limitation shall not apply to network representatives.

Serving out the unexpired term of a former member shall not constitute a term within the meaning of this section.

B. Meetings:

The Television Code Review Board shall meet at least twice in each calendar year on a date to be determined by the Chairperson. The chairperson, or the Code Authority Director, may, at any time, on at least five days written notice, call a special meeting of the Board.

C. Quorum:

For all purposes, a majority of the members of the Television Code Review Board shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. Authority and Responsibilities

The Television Code Review Board is authorized and directed:

(1) To recommend to the Television Board of Directors amendments to the Television Code; (2) to consider, in its discretion, any appeal from any decision made by the Code Authority Director with respect to any matter which has arisen under the Code, and to suspend, reverse, or modify any such decision; (3) to prefer formal charges, looking toward the suspension or revocation of the authority to show the Code seal, to the Television Board of Directors concerning violations and breaches of the Television Code by a subscriber; (4) to be available to the Code Authority Director for consultation on any and all matters affecting the Television Code.

VII. Code Authority Director

Section 1. Director

There shall be a position designated as the Code Authority Director. This position shall be filled by appointment of the President of NAB, subject to approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Authority and Responsibilities.

The Code Authority Director is authorized and directed: (1) to maintain a continuing review of all programming and advertising material presented over television, especially that of subscribers to the Television Code of NAB; (2) to receive, screen and clear complaints concerning television programming; (3) to define and interpret words and phrases in the Television Code; (4) to develop and maintain appropriate liaison with governmental agencies and with responsible and accountable organizations and institutions; (5) to inform, expeditiously and properly, a subscriber to the Television Code of complaints or commendations, as well as to advise all subscribers concerning the attitudes and desires program-wise of accountable organizations and institutions, and of the American public in general; (6) to review and monitor, if necessary, any certain series of programs, daily programming, or any other program presentations of a subscriber, as well as to request recorded material, or script and copy, with regard to certain program presented by a subscriber; (7) to reach conclusions and make recommendations or prefer charges to the Television Code Review Board concerning violations and breaches of the Television Code by a subscriber; (8) to recommend to the Code Review Board amendments to the Television Code.

A. Delegation of Powers and Responsibilities:

The Code Authority Director shall appoint such executive staff as is needed, consistent with resources, to carry out the above described functions, and may delegate to this staff such responsibilities as he/she may deem necessary.

NAB Radio Code

Preamble

In 1937 a major segment of U.S. commercial radio broadcasters first adopted industry-wide standards of practice. The purpose of such standards, then, as now, is to establish guideposts and professional tenets for performance in the areas of programing and advertising content.

Admittedly, such standards for broadcasting can never be final or complete, because broadcasting is a creative art, always seeking new ways to achieve maximum appeal and service. Therefore, its standards are subject to periodic revision to reasonably reflect changing attitudes in our society.

In 1945 after two years devoted to reviewing and revising the 1937 document, new standards were promulgated. Further revisions were made in subsequent years when deemed necessary. The objectives behind them have been to assure that advertising messages be presented in an honest, responsible and tasteful manner and that broadcasters, in their programing, tailor their content to meet the needs and expectations of that particular audience to which their programing is directed.

The growth of broadcasting as a medium of entertainment, education and information has been made possible by its commercial underpinning. This aspect of commercial broadcasting as it has developed in the United States has enabled the industry to grow as a free medium in the tradition of American enterprise. The extent of this freedom is underscored by those laws which prohibit censorship of broadcast material. Rather, those who own the nation's radio broadcasting stations operate them—pursuant to this self-adopted Radio Code—in recognition of the needs of the American people and the reasonable self-interests of broadcasters and broadcast advertisers.

The Radio Broadcaster's Creed

We Believe:

That Radio Broadcasting in the United States of America is a living symbol of democracy; a significant and necessary instrument for maintaining freedom of expression, as established by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States;

That its contributions to the arts, to science, to education, to commerce, and therefore to the public welfare have the potential of influencing the common good achievements of our society as a whole;

That it is our obligation to serve the people in such manner as to reflect credit upon our profession and to encourage aspiration toward a better estate for our audiences. This entails making available to them through all phases of the broadcasting art such programming as will convey the traditional strivings of the U.S. towards goals beneficial to the populace;

That we should make full and ingenious use of the many sources of knowledge, talents and skills and exercise critical and discerning judgment concerning all broadcasting operations to the end that we may, intelligently and sympathetically:

Observe both existing principles and developing concepts affecting our society;

Respect and advance the rights and the dignity of all people;

Enrich the daily life of the people through the factual reporting and analysis of news, and through programming of education, entertainment, and information;

Provide for the fair discussion of matters of public concern; engage in works directed toward the common good; and volunteer our aid and comfort in times of stress and emergency;

Contribute to the economic welfare of all by expanding the channels of trade, by encouraging the development and conservation of natural resources, and by bringing together the buyer and seller through the broadcasting of information pertaining to goods and services.

Toward the achievement of these purposes we agree to observe the following:

I. Program Standards

A. News

Radio is unique in its capacity to reach the largest number of people first with reports on current events. This competitive advantage bespeaks caution—being first is not as important as being accurate. The radio code standards relating to the treatment of news and public events are, because of constitutional considerations intended to be exhortatory. The standards set forth hereunder encourage high standards of professionalism in broadcast journalism. They are not to be interpreted as turning over to others the broadcaster's responsibility as to judgments necessary in news and public events programming.

1. News Sources. Those responsible for news on radio should exercise constant professional care in the selection of sources—on the premise that the integrity of the news and the consequent good reputation of radio as a dominant well-balanced news medium depend largely upon the reliability of such sources.

2. News Reporting. News reporting should be factual, fair and without bias. Good taste should prevail in the selection and handling of news. Morbid, sensational, or alarming details not essential to factual reporting should be avoided. News should be broadcast in such a manner as to avoid creation of panic and unnecessary alarm. Broadcasters should be diligent in their supervision of content, format, and presentation of news broadcasts. Equal diligence should be exercised in selection of editors and reporters who direct news gathering and dissemination, since the station's performance in this vital informational field depends largely upon them.

3. Commentaries and Analyses. Special obligations devolve upon those who analyze and/or comment upon news developments, and management should be satisfied completely that the task is to be performed in the best interest of the listening public. Programs of news analysis and commentary should be clearly identified as such, distinguishing them from straight news reporting.

4. Editorializing. Broadcasts in which stations express their own opinions about issues of general public interest should be clearly identified as editorials.

5. Coverage of News and Public Events. In the coverage of news and public events broadcasters should exercise their judgments consonant with the accepted standards of ethical journalism and should provide accurate, informed and adequate coverage.

6. Placement of Advertising. Broadcasters should exercise particular discrimination in the acceptance, placement and presentation of advertising in news programs so that such advertising is clearly distinguishable from the news content.

B. Controversial Public Issues

1. Radio provides a valuable forum for the expression of responsible views on public issues of a controversial nature. Controversial public issues of importance to fellow citizens should give fair representation to opposing sides of issues.

2. Requests by individuals, groups or organizations for time to discuss their views on controversial public issues should be considered on the basis of their individual merits, and in the light of the contributions which the use requested would make to the public interest.

3. Discussion of controversial public issues should not be presented in a manner which would create the impression that the program is other than one dealing with a public issue.

C. Community Responsibility

1. Broadcasters and their staffs occupy a position of responsibility in the community and should conscientiously endeavor to be acquainted with its needs and characteristics to best serve the welfare of its citizens.

2. Requests for time for the placement of public service announcements or programs should be carefully reviewed with respect to the character and reputation of the group, campaign or organization involved, the public interest content of the message, and the manner of its presentation.

D. Political Broadcasts

1. Political broadcasts, or the dramatization of political issues designed to influence voters, shall be properly identified as such.

2. Political broadcasts should not be presented in a manner which would mislead listeners to believe that they are of any other character.

3. Because of the unique character of political broadcasts and the necessity to retain broad freedoms of policy void of restrictive interference, it is incumbent upon all political candidates and all political parties to observe the canons of good taste and political ethics, keeping in mind the intimacy of broadcasting in the American home.

E. Advancement of Education and Culture

1. Because radio is an integral part of American life, there is inherent in radio broadcasting a continuing opportunity to enrich the experience of living through the advancement of education and culture.

2. Radio broadcasters, in augmenting the educational and cultural influences of the home, schools, religious institutions and institutions of higher education and other entities should:

(a) be thoroughly conversant with the educational and cultural needs and aspirations of the community served;

(b) develop programming consonant with the stations particular target audience.

F. Religion and Religious Programming

1. Religious programming shall be presented by responsible individuals, groups or organizations.

2. Radio broadcasting reaches audiences of all creeds simultaneously. Therefore, both the advocates of broad or ecumenical religious precepts, and the exponents of specific doctrines, are urged to present their positions in a manner conducive to listener enlightenment on the role of religion in society.

G. Responsibility Toward Children

Broadcasters have a special responsibility to children. Programming which might reasonably be expected to hold the attention of children should be presented with due regard for its effect on children.

1. Programming should be based upon sound social concepts and should include positive sets of values which will allow children to become responsible adults capable of coping with the challenges of maturity.

2. Programming should convey a reasonable range of the realities which exist in the world to help children make the transition to adulthood.

3. Programming should contribute to the healthy development of personality and character.

4. Programming should afford opportunities for cultural growth as well as for wholesome entertainment.

5. Programming should be consistent with integrity of realistic production, but should avoid material of extreme nature which might create undesirable emotional reaction in children.

6. Programming should avoid appeals urging children to purchase the product specifically for the purpose of keeping the program on the air or which, for any reason, encourage children to enter inappropriate places.

7. Programming should present such subjects as violence and sex without undue emphasis and only as required by plot development or character delineation.

Violence, physical or psychological, should only be projected in responsibly handled contexts, not used to excess or exploitatively. Programs involving violence should present the consequences of it to its victims and perpetrators.

The depiction of conflict, and of material reflective of sexual considerations, when presented in programs designed primarily for children, should be handled with sensitivity.

8. The treatment of criminal activities should always convey their social and human effects.

H. Dramatic Programming

1. In the design of dramatic programs it is in the interest of radio as a vital medium to encourage those that are innovative, reflect a high degree of creative skill, deal with significant moral and social issues and present challenging concepts and other subject matter that relate to the world in which the listener lives.

2. Radio programming should not only reflect the influence of the established institutions that shape our values and culture, but also expose the dynamics of social change which bear upon our lives.

3. To achieve these goals, radio broadcasters should be conversant with the general and specific needs, interests and aspirations of all the segments of the communities they serve.

4. Radio should reflect realistically the experience of living, in both its pleasant and tragic aspects, if it is to serve the listener honestly. Nevertheless, it holds a concurrent obligation to provide programming which will encourage positive adjustments to life.

In selecting program subjects and themes, great care must be exercised to be sure that treatment and presentation are made in good faith and not for the purpose of sensationalism or to shock or exploit the audience or appeal to prurient interests or morbid curiosity.

5. In determining the acceptability of any dramatic program, especially those containing elements of crime, mystery, or horror, consideration should be given to the possible effect on all members of the listening audience.

In addition, without sacrificing integrity of presentation, dramatic programs on radio shall avoid:

(a) the presentation of techniques of crime in such detail as to be instructional or invite imitation;

(b) presentation of the details of violence involving the excessive, the gratuitous and the instructional.

I. General

1. The intimacy and confidence placed in radio demand of the broadcaster, the networks and other program sources that they be vigilant in protecting the audience from deceptive broadcast practices.

2. Sound effects and expressions characteristically associated with news broadcasts (such as "bulletin," "flash," "we interrupt this program to bring you," etc.) shall be reserved for announcement of news, and the use of any deceptive techniques in connection with fictional events and non-news programming shall not be employed.

3. The broadcasters shall be constantly alert to prevent inclusion of elements within programming dictated by factors other than the requirements of the programming itself. The acceptance of cash payments or other considerations in return for including the choice and identification of prizes, the selection of music and other creative programming elements and inclusion of any identification of commercial products or services, trade names or advertising slogans within the programming are prohibited unless consideration for such inclusion is revealed to the listeners in accordance with Sections 317 and 508 of the Communications Act.

4. Special precautions should be taken to avoid demeaning or ridiculing members of the audience who suffer from physical or mental afflictions or deformities.

5. The broadcast of gambling sequences deemed necessary to the development of plot or as appropriate background is acceptable only when presented with discretion and in moderation, and in a manner which would not excite interest in, or foster, betting nor be instructional in nature.

NAB Radio Code

6. Quiz and similar programing that is presented as a contest of knowledge, information, skill or luck, must in fact, be a genuine contest and the results must not be controlled by collusion with or between contestants, or by any other action which will favor one contestant against any other.

7. Contests may not constitute a lottery.

8. Listener contests should not mislead as to the nature or value of prizes, likelihood of winning, nor encourage thoughtless or unsafe acts.

9. No programing shall be presented in a manner which through artifice or simulation would mislead the audience as to any material fact. Each broadcast must exercise reasonable judgment to determine whether a particular method of presentation would constitute a material deception, or would be accepted by the audience as normal theatrical illusion.

10. Legal, medical and other professional advice will be permitted only in conformity with law and recognized ethical and professional standards.

11. Narcotic addiction shall not be presented except as a destructive habit. The use of illegal drugs or the abuse of legal drugs shall not be encouraged or be presented as desirable or socially acceptable.

12. Material pertaining to fortune-telling, occultism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, numerology, mind-reading, character-reading, or subjects of a like nature is unacceptable if it encourages people to regard such fields as providing commonly accepted appraisals of life.

13. Representations of liquor and smoking shall be de-emphasized. When represented, they should be consistent with plot and character development.

14. Obscene, indecent or profane matter, as proscribed by law, is unacceptable.

15. Special sensitivity is necessary in the use of material relating to sex, race, color, age, creed, religious functionaries, or rites, or national or ethnic derivation.

16. The presentation of marriage, the family and similarly important human relationships, and material with sexual connotations, should not be treated exploitatively or irresponsibly, but with sensitivity.

17. Broadcasts of actual sporting events at which on-the-scene betting is permitted by law should be presented in a manner in keeping with federal, state and local laws, and should concentrate on the subject as a public sporting event.

18. Detailed exposition of hypnosis or material capable of having an hypnotic effect on listeners is forbidden.

19. Any technique whereby an attempt is made to convey information to the listener by transmitting messages below the threshold of normal awareness is not permitted.

20. The commonly accepted standards of humane animal treatment should be adhered to as applicable in programing.

21. Broadcasters are responsible for making good faith determinations on the acceptability of lyrics under applicable Radio Code standards.

22. Guests on discussion/interview programs and members of the public who participate in phone-in programs shall be treated with due respect by the program host/hostess.

23. The standards of this code covering programing content are also understood to include, wherever applicable, the standards contained in the advertising section of the Code.

24. To assure that broadcasters have the freedom to program fully and responsibly, none of the provisions of this Code should be construed as preventing or impeding broadcasts of the broad range of material necessary to help broadcasters fulfill their obligations to operate in the public interest.

II. Advertising Standards

Advertising is the principal source of revenue of the free, competitive American system of radio broadcasting. It makes possible the presentation of all American people of the finest programs of entertainment, education, and information.

Since the great strength of American radio broadcasting derives from the public respect for and the public approval of its programs, it must be the purpose of each broadcaster to establish and maintain high standards of performance, not only in the selection and production of all programs, but also in the presentation of advertising.

This Code establishes basic standards for all radio broadcasting. The principles of acceptability and good taste within the Program Standards section govern the presentation of advertising where applicable. In addition, the Code establishes in this section special standards which apply to radio advertising.

A. General Advertising Standards

1. Commercial radio broadcasters make their facilities available for the advertising of products and services and accept commercial presentations for such advertising. However, he shall, in recognition of his responsibility to the public, refuse the facilities of his station to an advertiser where he has good reason to doubt the integrity of the advertiser, the truth of the advertising representations, or the compliance of the advertiser with the spirit and purpose of all applicable legal requirements.

2. In consideration of the customs and attitudes of the communities served, each radio broadcaster should refuse his/her facilities to the advertisement of products and services, or the use of advertising scripts, which the station has good reason to believe would be objectionable to a substantial and responsible segment of the community. These standards should be applied with judgment and flexibility, taking into consideration the characteristics of the medium, its home and family audience, and the format and content of the particular presentation.

B. Presentation of Advertising

1. The advancing techniques of the broadcast art have shown that the quality and proper integration of advertising copy are just as important as measurement in time. The measure of a station's service to its audience is determined by its overall performance.

2. The final measurement of any commercial broadcast service is quality. To this, every broadcaster shall dedicate his/her best effort.

3. Great care shall be exercised by the broadcaster to prevent the presentation of false, misleading or deceptive advertising. While it is entirely appropriate to present a product in a favorable light and atmosphere, the presentation must not, by copy or demonstration, involve a material deception as to the characteristics or performance of a product.

4. The broadcaster and the advertiser should exercise special caution with the content and presentation of commercials placed in or near programs designed for children. Exploitation of children should be avoided. Commercials directed to children should in no way mislead as to the product's performance and usefulness. Appeals involving matters of health which should be determined by physicians should be avoided.

5. Reference to the results of research, surveys or tests relating to the product to be advertised shall not be presented in a manner so as to create an impression of fact beyond that established by the study. Surveys, tests or other research results upon which claims are based must be conducted under recognized research techniques and standards.

C. Acceptability of Advertisers and Products

In general, because radio broadcasting is designed for the home and the entire family, the following principles shall govern the business classifications:

1. The advertising of hard liquor shall not be accepted.

2. The advertising of beer and wines is acceptable when presented in the best of good taste and discretion.

3. The advertising of fortune-telling, occultism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, numerology, mind-reading, character-reading, or subjects of a like nature is not acceptable.

4. Because the advertising of all products and services of a personal nature raises special problems, such advertising, when accepted, should be treated with emphasis on ethics and the canons of good taste, and presented in a restrained and inoffensive manner.

5. The advertising of tip sheets and other publications seeking to advertise for the purpose of giving odds or promoting betting is unacceptable.

The lawful advertising of government organizations which conduct legalized lotteries is acceptable provided such advertising does not unduly exhort the public to bet.

The advertising of private or governmental organizations which conduct legalized betting on sporting contests is acceptable provided such advertising is limited to institutional type announcements which do not exhort the public to bet.

6. An advertiser who markets more than one product shall not be permitted to use advertising copy devoted to an acceptable product for purposes of publicizing the brand name or other identification of a product which is not acceptable.

7. Care should be taken to avoid presentation of

"bait-switch" advertising whereby goods or services which the advertiser has no intention of selling are offered merely to lure the customer into purchasing higher-priced substitutes.

8. Advertising should offer a product or service on its positive merits and refrain from discrediting, disparaging or unfairly attacking competitors, competing products, other industries, professions or institutions.

9. Advertising testimonials should be genuine, and reflect an honest appraisal of personal experience.

10. Advertising by institutions or enterprises offering instruction with exaggerated claims for opportunities awaiting those who enroll, is unacceptable.

11. The advertising of firearms/ammunition is acceptable provided it promotes the product only as sporting equipment and conforms to recognized standards of safety as well as all applicable laws and regulations. Advertisements of firearms/ammunition by mail orders are unacceptable.

D. Advertising of Medical Products

Because advertising for over-the-counter products involving health considerations are of intimate and far-reaching importance to the consumer, the following principles should apply to such advertising:

1. When dramatized advertising material involves statements by doctors, dentists, nurses or other professional people, the material should be presented by members of such profession reciting actual experience, or it should be made apparent from the presentation itself that the portrayal is dramatized.

2. Because of the personal nature of the advertising of medical products, the indiscriminate use of such words as "safe," "without risk," "harmless," or other terms of similar meaning, either direct or implied, should not be expressed in the advertising of medical products.

3. Advertising material which offensively describes or dramatizes distress or morbid situations involving ailments is not acceptable.

E. Time Standards for Advertising Copy

1. The amount of time to be used for advertising should not exceed 18 minutes within any clock hour. The Code Authority, however, for good cause may approve advertising exceeding the above standard for special circumstances.

2. Any reference to another's products or services under any trade name, or language sufficiently descriptive to identify it, shall, except for normal guest identification, be considered as advertising copy.

3. For the purpose of determining advertising limitations, such program types as "classified," "swap shop," "shopping guides," and "farm auction" programs etc., shall be regarded as containing one and one-half minutes of advertising for each five-minute segment.

F. Contests

1. Contests shall be conducted with fairness to all entrants, and shall comply with all pertinent laws and regulations.

2. All contest details, including rules, eligibility requirements, opening and termination dates, should be clearly and completely announced or easily accessible to the listening public; and the winners' names should be released as soon as possible after the close of the contest.

3. When advertising is accepted which requests contestants to submit items of product identification or other evidence of purchase of products, reasonable facsimiles thereof should be made acceptable. However, when the award is based upon skill and not upon chance, evidence of purchase may be required.

4. All copy pertaining to any contest (except that which is required by law) associated with the exploitation or sale of the sponsor's product or service, and all references to prizes or gifts offered in such connection should be considered a part of and included in the total time limitations heretofore provided. (See Time Standards for Advertising Copy.)

G. Premiums and Offers

1. The broadcaster should require that full details of proposed offers be submitted for investigation and approval before the first announcement of the offer is made to the public.

2. A final date for the termination of an offer should be announced as far in advance as possible.

3. If a consideration is required, the advertiser should agree to honor complaints indicating dissatisfaction with the premium by returning the consideration.

4. There should be no misleading descriptions or comparisons of any premiums or gifts which will distort or enlarge their value in the minds of the listeners.

Programming on Radio Stations in the United States and Canada

Formats

Following, in alphabetical order, by city, state and call letter within each classification, is a listing of program formats and the radio stations that use them.

For convenience the editors have combined the format types indicated by the stations into logical groupings. A station using a combination of formats may appear under several classifications. Blocks of programming averaging less than some 20 hours per week are considered "special programming"; a list of stations by special programs is presented in a supplementary directory.

In many cases more specific information on format or special programming is given in individual listings in the C section station directory, including addresses for each station.

- 403. AM-FM BROADCAST STATION PLANNING GUIDE by Harry A. Etkin. A comprehensive guide to planning, building, and operating a radio broadcast facility—AM, FM, or combined operation. Based on a lifetime of experience and intimate association in broadcasting. 87 x 11". Illustrated. $12.95
- 404. THE ANATOMY OF LOCAL RADIO-TV COPY by William A. Peck. Leading station executives have called this book the one that sets the standard for radio-TV copy at the local level. Loaded with hundreds of ways to increase station billing with sales-proven copy. 146 pages. $5.95
- 405. BROADCAST STATION OPERATING GUIDE by Sol Robinson. This comprehensive reference encompasses every level of broadcasting. The secret to success in broadcasting, as in any other business, is knowing what to do and how to do it. This book tells it like-it is. 256 pages. $12.95
- 406. THE BUSINESS OF RADIO BROADCASTING by Edd Routt. How to operate a station as a profitable business and serve the public interest as well. This is the first text to deal with broadcast station operation from beginning to end. Clearly explains proven techniques to follow, and cautions to observe. 400 pages, illustrated. $12.95
- 417. GUIDE TO PROFESSIONAL RADIO & TV NEWSCASTING Robert C. Siller. A practical, self study guide for those who want to get started or get ahead in broadcast journalism. 224 pages, illustrated. $9.95
- 418. HANDBOOK OF RADIO PUBLICITY & PROMOTION by Jack Macdonald. This handbook is a virtual promotion encyclopedia—includes over 250,000 words, over 1500 on-air promo themes adaptable to any format; and over 350 contests, stunts, station and personality promos. One idea alone of the hundreds offered can be worth many times the small cost of this indispensable sourcebook. 372 pages. 8 1/2 x 11" bound in long-life 3-ring binder. $29.95
- 420. HOW TO PREPARE A PRODUCTION BUDGET FOR FILM & VIDEO TAPE by Sylvia Allen Costa. A complete guide to determining finances for any video tape or film production. From TV commercials to feature-length films. Jammed with facts covering every aspect of estimating costs. Tells how to estimate every cost associated with any size production, including the production location, cameras and accessories, sound equipment, light gear, raw film stock or video and sound recording tape, lab developing, printing and processing fees, personnel—(creative, technical, and talent), scenic elements, location expenses, surveys of remote shooting locations, film and tape editing, optical effects and animation. Plus a host of miscellaneous expenses such as writer fees, animals, special effects requirements, and insurance. Also included are typical rate listings and eight sample budgets, representing TV commercials, documentaries, and feature-length films. 192 pages. $12.95
- 421. HOW TO SELL RADIO ADVERTISING by Si Willing. The right formula for sales depends on the individual and the prospective advertiser. Therein lies the secret as Si Willing illustrates it by theory and by practice. You'll hear all sorts of objections (including a few you haven't heard!) and how they've been successfully countered. From the dialog between salesman and prospect you'll learn the approaches and the clinchers, how to use available sales tools to the best advantage and how to deal with competition. You'll learn ways to sidestep objections, how to recognize the "opportune moment," and how to convert a "No" to a "Yes". 320 pages. $12.95
- 426. MODERN RADIO BROADCASTING: Management & Operation in Small To Medium Markets by R. H. Coddington. A comprehensive guide to successful practices of radio stations in small-to-medium-sized markets. 288 pages, illustrated. $12.95
- 434. RADIO PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES by Jay Hoffer. Here's an all-round book for everyone in radio—performers, producers and directors, and sales and engineering personnel. Covers every phase of radio production from announcements to the overall station "sound"—in fact, every creative aspect of today's radio with special emphasis on sales. Tells how to produce results for an advertiser, and how to develop production expertise, and how to use the elements of pacing and timing in every production. Covers record screening, jingle use, news, on-air promotion, public service, contests, public affairs, remotes, talk and farm shows, etc. Practical data on sales includes idea development, writing, and how to create more effective commercials. 240 pages, illustrated. $12.95
- 437. RADIO STATION SALES PROMOTIONS by Jack Macdonald. 300 merchandise-moving ideas! A compendium of creative selling ideas designed exclusively for radio stations—sales tools that work. A vast supply of ready-to-use ideas for producing sales in 43 categories, from air conditioners to washing machines. 72 pages. 8 1/2 x 11". $10.00

From press box to announce booth, from studio floor to once-in-a-lifetime remote...
depend on the E-V mike system for a competitive edge in sound quality.

Variety is more than the spice of life. It's essential for top-notch audio... for the best sound in your market area ... despite the acoustic or talent problems you might face.

Granted, most pickups can be handled with our traditional dynamic or electret condenser "basics". But when you need them, we have microphones to wear on the head, around the neck, or carry in the hand. Real problem solvers.

And E-V pioneered in the design of practical "shot gun" microphones that perform so well on overhead booms and in ENG units. We round out the line with a host of accessory windscreens, filters, pads, and mounts... all the vital little extras you've asked for.

We call it the E-V System. Each model designed to best solve a particular problem... and all models designed to work together. To mix without abrupt quality changes. To be easily equalized because there are no power-robbing peaks. To work without fail, no matter what. And to provide the optimum signal-to-noise ratio (acoustic or electrical) that gives your signal a clean start.

Why worry about good sound? Because bad sound adds up. Fast! And considering all the dime store speakers, noise, and confusion at the listener's end, your audio needs all the help it can get!

Our microphone system is the place to start. Browse through our catalog. Digest our spec sheets. Try our mikes in your studio. The more you use the E-V system, the better you'll sound. Ask your E-V sound specialist for a guided tour, or write us today.

Just add four walls and you're on the air.

Presenting Collins' full line of broadcast equipment.

Whether you have 10 watts or 100,000 watts behind your signal, Collins has everything you need. From towers and transmission line to transmitters and test gear to turntables and tone arms . . . and all the other items in between.

Including the modular, flexible AutoPro program automation line. And featuring the Generation 4™ series of transmitters — with the exciter that has set new standards for FM broadcasting. Plus AM transmitters that our customers say sound like FM . . . and consoles with plug-in flexibility to meet your changing format requirements.

But there's much more to Collins than just breadth of line.

Every item we make is the result of an uncompromising dedication to technical superiority. The result is a difference that some customers say they can "feel". They call this difference "the Collins presence". Your listeners will notice the difference, too.

And Collins believes in after-sale support to keep you on the air. Our Product Support Staff is at your service 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. And our Service Parts Department is just a phone call away, even on weekends and holidays at 214/690-5000. Support is not just lip service at Collins. either. Our transmitters are backed up with a full two-year warranty, twice as long as the other majors.

Our quality line of broadcast products and prompt service add up to still another benefit to Collins customers — longer operating life and lower cost of ownership. We're ready to demonstrate this with action, too.

For those four walls, see a general contractor.

For everything else, see Collins, the radio specialists. Contact your local Collins salesman, or Broadcast Marketing, M.S. 406-240, Collins Radio Group, Rockwell International, Dallas, Texas 75207. Phone 214/690-5574 or -5424.

When engineering excellence creates a more reliable design, it creates the AEL FM-25KE Transmitter.

A new concept in reliable design, ease of operation and maintenance—and a new high in transmitting performance.

The Model FM-25KE is a completely self-contained 25,000W FM Broadcast Transmitter, operational at any fixed frequency between 88 and 108 MHz, in monaural or stereo, and SCA mode.

Features include: Mid-Panel Metering, Automatic Re-Cycling, Remote Control Interface, VSWR Protection, Elapsed Time Indicator, Remote Control Power Adjust.

Sophisticated, reliable technology and easy maintenance too. The metering panel folds down for easy access to most major sub-assemblies.

Let Engineering Excellence be an everyday quality at your station. Contact AEL for your Broadcast Transmitter requirements.

Inside every Revox it's all Studer

Separate spooling motors of high torque and low weight construction.

Sealed mains input section and cabinet safety link socket.

Fully electronically stabilized power supply circuit.

Capstan motor servo control board using advanced IC design to maintain speed accuracy to better than 0.2%, incorporating electronic speed change.

Plug-in power amplifiers (optional).

Capstan motor speed pick-up head.

Capstan motor of patented construction, cool running, low current consumption and wow and flutter better than international broadcast requirements.

Unique multi-bank micro-switch unit, providing on-off, speed & spool size/tension variations on one control.

Professional glass-epoxy circuit board with integral gold-plated switch contacts.

Plug-in relays with self-cleaning contacts, controlling all functions and eliminating damage from inadvertent mishandling.

Tape transport logic control circuit board.

Specially designed low distortion 120 KHz bias oscillator obviates multiplex interference.

Plug-in record relay.

Plug-in audio input/output amplifiers

Every Revox machine is Studer designed and built by Studer factories in Switzerland and Germany to Studer standards. From conception to components the Revox displays the same meticulous attention to detail and extraordinary precision that has made Studer and Revox products without equal in their respective fields. Consider the Revox A77 - a studio quality machine, compactly presented and offering features unique in its price class, with total indifference to minor fluctuations in mains supply voltage or periodicity.

With a wow and flutter level below broadcast standard requirements plus a linear response from 20-20,000 Hz at 7½ ips. ( $\pm 2$  dB) and an ultra low noise level, the Revox A77 continues to set the standard by which the rest are judged.

NEW coaxial cable

3 1/2" -50 kW -100 MHz

Copper Corrugated, Air Dielectric for High Power – Low Loss Applications, Specifically – FM Broadcasting and AM, VHF/UHF TV Antenna Feeders

This 3 1/2" air dielectric Wellflex consists of a corrugated tubular copper center conductor, unique polyethylene locked vertebrae helix dielectric, copper corrugated outer conductor and black polyethylene jacket. It is remarkably flexible, has excellent mechanical stability and extremely low attenuation.

SPECIFICATIONS:

Velocity of Propagation .....	96%
Attenuation at 100 MHz .....	0.110 dB/100 ft.
Average Power at 100 MHz .....	50.06 kW
Peak Power .....	940 kW

Send for our new 3 1/2" Coax Data Sheet and our complete catalog.

Looking for BIG SYSTEM capability in your tower supplier? Fort Worth Tower Company has it. For two decades we've been building high quality communications towers, large and small. Towers for public utilities, railroads, public safety agencies, microwave firms, and the many other communications industries where big system reliability is essential. Towers individually engineered to fit each system's unique requirements.

Fort Worth Tower Co. also offers a complete array of support equipment for your system including microwave reflectors, equipment lifts, and many other related items. You get top performance with a perfect match of equipment and accessories.

For maximum reliability, include a FORT WORTH MOBILT EQUIPMENT BUILDING in your specifications. Designed expressly to house communications electronic equipment, Fort Worth Mobilt's withstand any climate or location problem...house electronic equipment according to the most rigid standards. Your building comes with supporting I-beams. Simply drop on your site, connect the service inlet, and you're in business. Mobilt's save you time and money because complete wiring is installed at the factory. Many options are available in size, outside finish, wiring and ventilation. You'll find a Mobilt exactly suited to your needs.

We'd like to put our products and experience to work in your system. For full information and a precise quote on your project, please contact us. We'd like the opportunity to serve you.

THINKING ENG? THINK CAMERA MART

Because you want the right equipment to do the job.

With all the experience we've accumulated packaging film equipment for the broadcast and industrial fields, you'd expect Camera Mart to be leading the way in ENG. And you'd be right.

CAMART CUSTOM IKEGAMI/SONY PACKAGE

Network-quality hand-held performance at surprisingly modest cost.

The camera: Ikegami's HL-33* complete with full-function backpack. High-fidelity color in a compact, lightweight three-Plumbicon*** package. All in a single low-profile 16mm-size camera with eye-level CRT monitoring on take and playback, plus many more features you'll appreciate.

The lens: The Angenieux f/2.0 10-150mm zoom, for wider wide-angles and tighter tele's. Manual or power zoom available.

The battery pack: Frezzolini's most advanced model, which charges in only 3 hours to give you more time on the go.

The recorder: Sony's easy-to-operate VO-3800—a 30-lb. package that gives you up to 20 minutes of NTSC color on a single U-Matic® cassette which can be edited on the 2850.

*Also available with HL-35.

**Plumbicon is a trademark of N.V. Philips

OPTIONAL ACCESSORY: "VIDEO CRASH CART"

Custom-designed to make production safer and smoother, with reduced set-up and strike time, easier transport and fatigue-free shooting. Sturdy, welded construction with 2-position handle lets you transport or operate in upright "handtruck" or horizontal "dolly" position. So it can go virtually anywhere your crew can go. Holds camera backpack, recorder, AC adapter, cables—even extra cassettes.

RENTAL-LEASE-PURCHASE:

Pick the terms that suit your budget
(and tax situation) best.

OTHER PKGS.: TALK TO US ABOUT YOUR NEEDS

If we're known for anything, it's our ingenuity and flexibility. Talk to us about your needs, and we'll customize these packages to meet them—or come up with whatever else best fits your requirements, from the many major lines we carry. If you're just getting into ENG (especially from film), you'll find we speak your language. Write or call Ken Seelig or Hal Rainey for more information.

Jamieson No.1 in TV!

Why is the Jamieson Processor No. 1 in TV?

The best answer is from someone who owns one. Someone you know owns a Jamieson. Probably a lot of people you know. Why not ask them about it? The best way to get an unbiased appraisal of its performance.

Or ask us ... we'll be more than happy to tell you about the Jamieson Processors and give you references.

JAMIESON'S ADVANCED DESIGN TECHNOLOGY FEATURES

- Film advance virtually tension-free. The demand top-overdrive film transport uses no clutches, floating rollers or film sprockets.
- Smaller machines take only half the floor space.
- Solution volumes reduced 15 times over open-tank designs.
- Temperature in primary solutions is controlled to an accuracy of a few hundredths of a degree.
- The elliptical shape of the tube protects the film and provides high induced turbulence.

PEACE OF MIND.

Whether you're investing in new cameras or updating the ones you have, it pays to talk to Canon.

As an optics manufacturer who deals with all the top camera suppliers, we can put a lot of information at your disposal. As well as some helpful objective advice. Because we've no axe to grind... and the better you look, sooner or later the better we'll look to you.

When your problems have optical solutions, we can offer you the most comprehensive lens line in the business. Compatible with Ampex, Fernseh, Hitachi-Shibaden, Ikegami, IVC, Panasonic, Philips, RCA, Sony, Thomson-CSF... and just about anyone else you can name. In any standard professional format.

We can give you more flexibility, too. With the largest choice of focal lengths. Wider wide-angle shots. Tighter telephoto angles. Shorter MOD's. Larger relative apertures. More compact size. And often, more 'compact' price. In full servo or manual, for ENG/EJ, studio or field. Backed by comprehensive factory service.

Whatever your needs, before you make a move, make a phone call to Canon. It's a small price to pay for peace of mind

"ENG" Pedestal

Introducing PortaPed:

Our new lightweight pneumatic pedestal for "ENG" and hand-held cameras.

Now there's a folding pneumatic pedestal which you can set up on remote sites just about anywhere, without removing the camera, and pan and tilt head. The combination self leveling column and base has an elevation range from 27" to 55". What's more, the center column can counterbalance pneumatically your camera head and pedestal weights up to 100 lbs. Merely by pumping the center column up and down.

Truly portable, too. Unit when folded is just 27" and weighs only 25 lbs.

For complete information on our versatile new PortaPed, call or write . . .

DELTA ELECTRONICS

THE AM BROADCASTER'S SINGLE SOURCE FOR . . .

- ANTENNA MONITORING
- TRANSMITTER/ANTENNA CONTROL
- MEASUREMENT/TEST INSTRUMENTS

Antenna Monitoring

AAM-1 ANALOG ANTENNA MONITOR – FCC type approved. Provides accurate true ratio and phase readings. Easy to interface with existing control systems, or may be used with our TMCS-2 system for remote control and monitoring of both the AAM-1 and your transmitter.

DAM-1 DIGITAL ANTENNA MONITOR – FCC type approved. Provides digital readout of amplitude, ratio and phase. Also available: DAMA-1 Base Current Adapter for remote digital readout of antenna base currents; DAMX-1 to extend capacity of DAM-1 up to 12 towers.

Transmitter/Antenna Remote Control

TMCS-1 TRANSMITTER/ANTENNA REMOTE CONTROL SYSTEM – Provides digital readout and control of the DAM-1 and transmitter over a single voice channel. Other systems available: DAMR-1/DAML-1 for digital readout and control of the DAM-1 only; DAMH-1 for use where the remote control point is close enough to the monitor to permit hardwired inter-connection.

TMCS-2 TRANSMITTER/ANTENNA REMOTE CONTROL SYSTEM – Controls and monitors the AAM-1 analog antenna monitor and up to 30 transmitter functions – digital readout on both units.

Measurement/Test Instruments

OIB-1 OPERATING IMPEDANCE BRIDGE – For antenna system measurements under transmitter power. May also be used as a conventional bridge.

RG-1B RECEIVER/GENERATOR – Two-watt signal generator with a tracking detector. Built-in rechargeable battery power supply for full portability in making low power impedance measurements. For use with OIB-1 or other RF bridges.

CPB-1 COMMON POINT IMPEDANCE BRIDGE – Monitors common point impedance continuously. Designed for permanent installation.

TCT-( ) TOROIDAL CURRENT TRANSFORMER – Provides accurate, stable R.F. samples for phase and amplitude measurements. Available in three sensitivities. Also available: TCTR-1 Compensated Rectifier Circuit to provide DC voltage for remote current measurement when used with TCT-( ).

TCA RF AMMETER – Uses toroidal transformer and separate precision meter-rectifier unit. Replaces base and common point thermocouple meters. Single and dual ranges up to 80 amperes.

MJ-50 METER JACK – A make-before-break in line jack assembly that permits "hot" insertion of OIB-1 Bridge or Ammeters.

Video Switchers... Tape Editing Systems... Automation... Central Dynamics!

Recognized Throughout The World for Leadership in Television Broadcast Equipment

CD 480 The Smart Switcher

A revolutionary and modular switcher with unprecedented production power . . . and is extremely easy to operate with CDL's unique Sequential Effects (SFX) Amplifier. Two models available that offer every production feature plus a variety of optional modular accessories.

VSP-1260S Production Switcher

A dual Mix/Effects Switcher with 20 inputs, 6 buses, encoded chroma keyer and bordered keys.

VS-14 Production Switcher

Self-contained and Remote models available with separate Effects, Mix and Title Amplifiers; hard or soft keys, wipes, split screens & spotlights; positioner, and color black and matt generator.

VS-10 Production Switcher

An 8 input switcher with Mix and Wipe/Key Amplifiers.

AFM-10 Audio Mixer/Switcher

Audio mixer/remote controlled switcher with twin outputs, compressor-limiter, and switchable Mix/Line sensitivity on all 7 inputs.

PEC-120 Video Tape Editor

A computer editing system with an easily operated control panel and CRT display for rapid and precise control of VTR's & switcher. CDL's unique Self Learning Cueing Software Program is a new feature.

EDS-200 Video Tape Editor

A two machine Time Code microprocessor Editor that interfaces to Quad, Helical or Sony VO 2850 cassette VTR's.

DK-2160 Title Keyer

Titles non-sync sources. Can Dissolve/Cut titles and fade to black. Inputs for 4 key sources and dual character generator inputs. Colored borders are optional.

VG-2210 Digital Sync Decoder

A programmable source of precisely timed standard pulses derived from a single reference signal input.

Master Control Switchers

Ranging from CDL's new CD 480 MC to a 2 Bus MCS-829 or a 3 Bus MCS-770. PTS-121 17 event memory available on MCS-829 & MCS-770. All 3 can be interfaced to System 100 Technical Automation System.

System 100 Automation

Computer controlled automation system for Technical Operations that communicates directly with a Business Computer System, and stores and retrieves the schedule with entry error checking, makes automatic time corrections, performs complicated audio/video switching sequences, assigns machines, verifies material, and prints the "As-Aired" log.

Also a complete line of production and TV Terminal Equipment including:

- SMPTE Time Code Generator and Reader
- Video and Pulse Distribution Amplifiers
- Chroma Keyers: RGB and Encoded
- Processing Amplifiers
- Audio/Video Routing Switchers
- Pulse Assignment Systems
- Machine Control Systems

“The real disaster is when your ENG camera doesn’t work.”

Talk with a broadcast TV news cameraman and that’s what he’ll tell you. And that’s why more TV news teams use Ikegami ENG cameras than all others combined. When you get only one chance to cover a news event, a dependable Ikegami is the one ENG camera to use.

The reason: The prime features built into Ikegami ENG cameras are dependability and colorimetry. Everything else is icing on the cake. And the Ikegami combination of dependability with ruggedness, light weight, image stability, and simplified controls, is why all three networks used the Ikegami HL-33 and HL-35 ENG cameras at the 1976 Democratic and Republican Conventions. And why they were used at the 1976 Summer Olympics.

Now we have two cameras that are even better: the Ikegami HL-77 and HL-37. In the HL-77 we’ve done away with the 26½-lb backpack and tucked its functions inside the camera body—and still reduced the HL-77’s weight (less lens, but with viewfinder) to a pound less than the HL-35 head alone. The HL-77 weighs in at 13½ lb. In the HL-37 we’ve split the package so the head weight (without lens) is even less, and the shoulder-sling process pack comes to 6½ lb.

Both cameras use three ¾-inch Plumbicon* pickup tubes, and f/1.4 prism optics. The viewfinder is 1½ inches. And everything else that made the HL-33 and HL-35 the real winners at the conventions is still there—just smaller and lighter.

Both the new HL-77 (the Ike) and the HL-37 (the Mini-mate) produce broadcast-quality coverage with good color, brightness, stability, high sensitivity even in low light, and reduced lag due to bias light. Both can feed video and audio to a local or remote video tape recorder, or via microwave transmitter receiver for remote pickup.

For microwave transmission from our HL-33 and HL-35 ENG cameras to a remote pickup point, we offer the Ikegami PFM-091 portable microwave relay system. This backpack unit transmits the video signal on the 13-GHz microwave band; audio and command signals on the 950-MHz uhf band. Maximum range is about 1800 feet with omni antenna, 3700 feet with 60-degree horn, two miles with a 20-degree horn.

For the sound portion of the program, the Ikegami PFM-091 wireless microphone system is used to transmit program audio and receive intercom audio. It includes a compact transmitter and receiver worn on the belt, a miniature condenser microphone, and a small headset/whip antenna.

We’ve got the specs on all this dependable portable equipment. Just write for them, or ask for a demonstration. And because we have distributors in every major area across the country, you can get fast delivery and service. If you want dependability, you get it from Ikegami. More people do.

... THE NAME TO REMEMBER ...

STEREO STUDIO-TRANSMITTER LINKS INTER-CITY RELAY

Stereo - Mono 950 MHZ FM - AM

STL Transmitter

The Stereo STL with "Built-in Backup."

Dual Channel System (Stereo) $4160.00
Single Channel System (Mono) $2290.00

Antenna or Transmission line cost not included.

FEATURES: • All Solid-State • Direct FM Modulator • Field Proven Varactor Final • Plug-in Modular Construction • Solid-State Ovens • Hi-Accuracy Crystals

Why STL?

1. No "lost air" time due to cut, wet or electrically charged telephone lines.
2. Better Sound Quality Than a Class AAA telephone line.
3. EVENTUAL COST REDUCTION in operating expense.
4. Complete control of entire broadcast system.

Why Dual Channel?

1. A Dual-Channel costs less than a Composite.
2. Better Reliability than a Composite. "Built in Backup."
3. Greater Channel Separation than a Composite.
4. Less Signal Drive Required to Receivers means additional system Fade Margin.
5. Less Test Equipment Necessary and more Positive System Diagnosis.
6. Stereo Generator is away from Studio and Unauthorized Tampering.
7. Stereo Generator and Broadcast Transmitter Compatibility without Interface.
8. Having a Dual-Channel STL is like having a Spare Link.
9. Two Remote Control and Two Sub-Carrier Capability.

Why MARTI?

1. Channel Separation more than 65 db.
2. Channel Response matched to 0.25 db.
3. Distortion less than 0.5%.
4. All Solid State.
5. A Simple, True Direct FM Plug-in Modulator.
6. Complete accessibility to modules without removal from rack.
7. The Marti System Delivers Top Performance with Transmitter manufacturer's Stereo Generator.
8. Marti STL Systems Log over TWO MILLION (2,000,000) Broadcast Hours each Year.
9. AVAILABLE FROM STOCK.

RMC-20 DIGITAL REMOTE CONTROL

RMC-20T Transmitter Unit

Features: • Fully Digital Command and Telemetry (FSK) • Single Push-Button Channel Select • Telemetry Accuracy 0.1% for Directional Antenna Monitoring. RMC-20S Does Not Require Operator to Calibrate Each Time Data Taken • Channel Capacity 5, 10, 15 or 20 Channels • 10 Amp 120 VAC 5 Amp 240 VAC UL Recognized Relays • Test Meters Built-In for Setting Levels and Test. • Quartz Clock Synchronized • Radio Link or Wire Line Operation • Large Digital LED Readout at Both Studio and Remote Unit • Decimal Point Location Can Be Selected for Each Channel.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION The Marti RMC-20 Digital Remote Control, Telemetry and status*/limit alarm system provides the ultimate in accuracy, simplicity, and speed of operation. Channel selection is accomplished simply by pressing a single button. The data for the selected channel is then read from the large digital panel display. Raise/Lower commands can be given for the selected channel by pressing the Raise or Lower button.

Advanced digital concepts are applied throughout the system to achieve the greatest accuracy and reliability. Channel selection and commands are switched with high current 220 volt AC rated relays, which greatly reduces the time and material necessary in remote control installations.

This system is the most technically advanced on the market, yet is the easiest and simplest to install and maintain. Both local control and remote units have built-in test meters for checking all power supplies and communications signal levels. A test jack and switch is provided for checking the digital clock frequency, the FSK demodulator center frequency and the FSK modulator mark and space frequencies. The units are designed for easy access to all boards for maintenance. Extensive shielding and filtering of all inputs and outputs has been provided.

RADIO REMOTE PICKUP 150 - 450 MHZ

RPU
Transmitter

$975.00 (150 MHZ)

$1145.00 (450 MHZ)

FEATURES: • All Solid-State • Direct FM Modulator • Broadcast Quality — Continuous Duty • Four Audio Mixing Channels • Plug-in Modular Construction • I.F. Crystal Filter • Taut Band Meters

Radio Remote Pickup Equipment is versatile, dependable and an entree to profitable radio broadcasting. That is the acclaim given to Marti RPU Equipment by American Radio Broadcasters. "How did we ever operate a radio station without it?", is the comment most often heard after equipment has been purchased and put into service.

The progressive minded, community spirited broadcaster, can find many uses for Remote Pickup Equipment. He will do many more remotes than he is presently doing, simply because the equipment is available at a moment's notice. To coin an old cliché, "It doesn't cost — it pays."

Add Color to Your Remotes . . .

PORTABLE BROADCAST REMOTE PICKUP TRANSMITTER

Model RPT-1

$495.00 (150 MHZ)

FEATURES: • Portable operation on internal rechargeable nickel-cadmium battery. Total weight only 5¼ lbs. • All Solid-State • Built-in battery charger • Dual frequency operation (One crystal included) • Meter indicates battery condition and modulation • Whip antenna mounted directly on unit • Broadcast-quality Compressor/Limiter handles toughest remote pickup conditions • Two microphone inputs (one push-to-talk) and one Hi-Level input each with individual mixing gain control

Bob Helbush, Chief Engineer, making a quality control check using a 681 cartridge.

WKLS, Atlanta, broadcasts 100% disc-to-air. That's why it uses Stanton's 681 series...exclusively

Top notch broadcasters who capture a large share of the listening audience, are critically aware of the necessity to achieve a superior quality of sound. Station WKLS is just such a station.

As Bob Helbush, chief engineer, states: "We broadcast 100% disc-to-air except for some commercials. So, for maximum quality sound and phase stability, we use the Stanton 681 SE for on-the-air use. We consider it the ideal answer for that application. And our program director uses Stanton's 681 Triple-E for audioing new releases before we air them".

And Don Waterman, General Manager, added: "Today, every station in the SJR Communications group . . . all eight of them, all in Major Markets . . . use Stanton 681 cartridges on every turntable".

There are good reasons for this vast acceptance. Stanton's 681 Calibration Series cartridges offer improved tracking at all frequencies. They achieve perfectly, flat frequency response to beyond 20 Kc. And the top-of-the-line, superb 681 Triple-E has an ultra miniaturized stylus assembly with substantially less mass than previously, yet it possesses even greater durability than had been thought possible to achieve.

Each 681 Series cartridge is guaranteed to meet its specifications within exacting limits and each one boasts the most meaningful warranty. An individually calibrated test result is packed with each unit.

Whether your usage involves recording, broadcasting or home entertainment, your choice should be the choice of the professionals . . . the STANTON 681.

Need "Towers"? Think STAINLESS!

For TV, AM/FM, microwave, radar or any kind of tower you can think of; towers to keep your systems functional in the most adverse environments; towers built to four basic criteria—long life, low maintenance practical cost and reliability . . . think STAINLESS!

We use the latest technology to do a better job—from design through completion. Our modern computers help select materials, compute stress factors and analyze performance data. Our automated fabricating systems keep costs lower and production on schedule.

When there's a better way to build towers, you can bet we'll use it.

So if you need towers—think first of Stainless.

We build to last.

There is more to picture quality than one Volt and 75 Ohms.

Setting your video at One volt across 75-ohms is just the beginning of the process of achieving picture quality. That's why there are Television Field Engineers to help you with products to time, test, measure, correct and display the composite video signal. These Field Engineers are experienced in the day-to-day use of our Television Products and they can be especially helpful when you need assistance with a tough application. To get assistance from these highly qualified people, call the nearest Tektronix office in the listing in this section. # Now! Remote transmitter control ## is this simple.

Now there's an all digital system that gives you direct, positive on/off control and status monitoring of remote AM, FM and TV transmitters. We call it the X-14, and there's nothing else like it.

Fourteen toggle switches give you direct on/off control of up to 14 different functions like: filament voltage, plate voltage, main power, overload reset, tower lights and program source selection. No longer do you have to dial them in one-at-a-time.

In addition, fourteen status channels, each with its own, independent LED indicator, monitor such go/no-go functions and/or alarms as: power, voltages, temperatures, intrusion, VSWR and tower lights. You see a complete display of status and alarms, at-a-glance.

Besides all this, the X-14 is an economical way to add capability to an existing analog remote control system. It meets the FCC control failsafe requirements, and gives you a fully digital command system as backup to your analog operation. So, the direct control switches on the X-14 can be used for critical "key" functions while, at the same time, you're using the analog system to read other transmitter parameters. With our optional Line Multiplex Filter, both the X-14 and your analog system will operate on the same phone line.

Exceptional data integrity is another advantage of the X-14. Both control and status information are updated every 400 MS, and a unique "double check" logic system virtually eliminates data errors. There are also fewer operator errors because there's no dialing and knob twisting. Each switch is labeled for a specific function. The X-14 is also ATS-compatible.

The X-14 is just one of the many new ways TFT is applying digital techniques to simplify and improve broadcasting remote control. For a demonstration, call or write. In Canada: Orange County Associates, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Here's the hardest hitting eight pounds in the business. That's right! Just eight pounds for an ultra-miniature, three-Plumbicon®, broadcast-quality color TV camera head, complete with lens and viewfinder.

The associated electronics pack weighs only another three pounds and can be worn on the battery belt. Miniaturization has reduced power consumption to 22 watts, which means a full hour of operation is possible from a 2½ pound battery pack. A two line vertical image enhancer and comb filter are included as standard equipment.

MICROCAM® will go anywhere, capture anything, live or on tape. It will revolutionize studio programming and remote operations for news, sports, commercials, and special events.

MICROCAM® also costs less than its heavyweight competitors. Meet the new champ — a broadcast-quality color camera at half the size, half the weight, with half the power consumption.

At last. A color monitor that sounds as good as it looks.

All too often, the sound portion of video production is overlooked. Not on purpose, but because it wasn't being heard very well in the first place. Because most monitors offer only tiny speakers and under-powered electronics.

We thought it was about time someone paid more attention to the sound you get from a monitor.

Typical speaker and JVC Heavy-Duty speaker

So we've incorporated a large, heavy-magnet speaker and a powerful audio amplifier section in our new 19" Color Monitor, the 7860UM.

Of course, this new monitor also gives you accurate, flawless color pictures, too, thanks to JVC's special in-line black stripe picture tube. There's also a Scene Control that adjusts brightness and color to improve contrast and avoid that "washed out" look when background and fore-

*Measured diagonally. Picture simulated

Easily-accessible front panel controls for all adjustments ground colors merge. An automatic aperture control (APACON) that can be adjusted for soft, standard or extra-clear picture definition, A Picture Tune button to automatically set color, tint, brightness and contrast. And an AFC circuit in the tuner section.

Should the new JVC 7860UM ever need servicing, the job's an easy one, since the entire electronics section of the chassis consists of five quickly-changeable circuit boards.

Not content to give you pictures that are great looking and audio that's great sounding, we've also incorporated a number of nice little extras.

Like dual earphone jacks and a full-detent UHF tuner section. Plus both 75 and 300-ohm antenna inputs, and all normal monitor connectors.

All these features are yours in a color monitor that's hard to beat in its price class. We suggest that you see (and hear!) the new JVC 7860UM at your JVC video dealer soon. Or send us the coupon below for more information.

Satellites

Several companies offer domestic satellite communications services with rates depending on type of service and whether service is part time, full time, scheduled or unscheduled. The companies—American Satellite Corp.; RCA American Communications and RCA Alaska Communications; Western Union Telegraph Co.; and a joint venture between AT&T and GTE Satellite Corp.—are using Westar, Satcom and Comstar satellites. Backup time can be leased from Canadian Anik satellites. Terrestrial links connect the various earth stations scattered across the country with regional carrier operation centers, from which customer feeds originate. In addition, Satellite Business Systems plans a domestic operation to provide such services as voice, data and facsimile.

American Satellite Corp. (A wholly-owned subsidiary of Fairchild Industries Inc.) 20301 Century Boulevard, Germantown, Md. 20767. (301) 428-6040. TWX 710-828-0489. Emanuel Fthenakis, pres; John D. Jackson, VP & gen mgr; John A. Keys, VP-mktg; Dr. Eugene Cacciamani, VP technical.

American Satellite provides private line voice, data facsimile and wideband communications services to broadcasters, business, industrial, financial and government agencies. Nationwide service is provided via satellite with operating centers at Los Angeles, New York, Dallas, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Houston, San Francisco, Washington and Atlanta.

INTELSAT provides in-space facilities for international public telecommunications systems operating on commercial principles and available on a non-discriminatory basis to all areas of the world. There are 95 member countries in INTELSAT, with COMSAT representing the U.S. Service is provided by a combination of INTELSAT IV-A and INTELSAT IV satellites. The INTELSAT IV-A satellite has a capacity of 6,000 voice circuits plus 2 television channels, while the INTELSAT

IV satellite has 4,000 voice circuits plus 2 television channels. Planning is well advanced for an INTELSAT V satellite which will have a capacity of over 11,000 voice circuits plus 2 television channels. Deployment of the INTELSAT V systems is expected to begin in late 1979. The INTELSAT system is the only transoceanic telecommunication facility capable of providing all forms of service, including television on an instantaneous basis. Currently, there are some 150 antennas in some 80 countries directly utilizing the INTELSAT system.

Western Union owns and operates two 12-transponder satellites, Westar I and Westar II. Five earth stations serve New York, Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas and Los Angeles. Audio, video, data and facsimile service is available.

Satellites

Comstar I, Comstar II The first two of three 24-transponder satellites were launched and began operating in 1976, with the third scheduled for a May 1978 launch. Comsat General Corp. owns and operates the satellites, leasing full time to AT&T, which in turn leases to GTE Satellite Corp. Specialized non-telephone uses are prohibited for the first three years of operation by FCC order, except for government communications traffic throughout the country and television transmission between Hawaii and the mainland.

Satcom I, Satcom II Both RCA satellites began operation in 1976. Each provides 24 transponder capability serving all 50 states.

Westar I, Westar II Owned and operated by Western Union, each satellite provides 12-transponder capability. Both satellites were launched and began operating in 1974, with broadcast transmissions beginning in July 1975. Service is available in all 50 states.

Anik I, Anik II, Anik III Telesat Canada's three Anik satellites each have 12-transponder capacity. The Canadian Broadcasting Corp. uses video and audio circuits on the satellite systems. The first Anik was launched in November 1972. Satellite service is provided over all Canada.

GIVE TOWERS 24-HOUR PROTECTION WITH STROBE-GUARD

TV and radio towers are instantly identified around the clock with the installation of EG&G's STROBE-GUARD High Intensity Obstruction Lighting Systems.

Structures may be equipped with three or more lights per tier to afford full 360° coverage with automatic switching to reduce twilight and nighttime illumination levels.

Initial and continued painting costs associated with "candy-striped" red light beacon systems are eliminated.

Low power requirements of the FAA-approved STROBE-GUARD System substantially reduce electric bills.

Weatherproof, stainless steel housings provide long life and reduced replacement expenses.

PLC-4A

The most efficient, reliable and silent
16mm 400 ft. (120m) magazine available!

- All-new take-up assembly provides steady, positive film tracking.
- Sound dampening material specially fitted into each magazine door effectively reduces system noise. The PLC-4A is a truly quiet operating magazine.
- Improved spindle system in both film chambers allows easy film loading — permitting both supply and take-up core adapters and daylight-load spools to be locked securely during filming, preventing rattle and wobble.
- Corduroy liners fitted in both film chambers ensure a clean, "fuzz-free" film magazine.
- Made of extremely lightweight, glass-filled Lexan®, a material with greater impact strength than magnesium.
  - Compatible with all 16mm cameras which accept standard 400 ft. magazines.

Broadcasters:
Before you blow thousands of dollars on transmission troubles, check this out.

Interference from tower guywires can mess up the finest transmitting system.

So before you look for expensive solutions, check out Shakespeare Saf-Glass® guy insulators.

These high strength fiberglass insulators isolate your antenna from guywire interference, while maintaining the stability of your tower.

Guy insulator lengths up to 20'. Strength ratings from 15,000 to 35,000 lbs. For further information, write or phone Lewis Mitchell, Special Products Group, Shakespeare Electronics and Fiberglass Division, P.O. Box 246, Columbia, S.C. 29202 (803) 779-5800.

TWO WAYS
TO MIX 30 INPUTS
10 WAYS...

S-21 Ten Mixer Dual Mono Console

One way is the new LPB S-21 Signature II dual mono audio console. Its stereo companion, the S-20, is the other. Either way, you get 30 inputs for 10 mixers.

The S-21, with plug-in capability for up to 30 mics, is ideal for mono broadcast and other professional sound uses, while the S-20, with standard features others offer as options, boasts dual stereo program channels plus mono mixdown. Engineered to satisfy the most exacting broadcaster, both are perfect as the centerpiece for the custom designed, wood-grained Dj® 10 studio furniture.

There are two ways of finding out about these and all the other LPB products available . . .

ITC's 750 Series open-reel recorder/reproducer

PROFESSIONAL IN ALL BUT PRICE

MONO
$1800

STEREO
$1950

A marvel of simplicity, yet built like a tank. ITC's 750 Series record/playback equipment compares in cost to semi-professional or consumer-type machines. But it's so quiet, so dependable and so flexible in operation that you can use it daily in live studio work and heavy production and editing operations. Many of its features are normally found in only the most expensive open-reel machines.

- Monitor control with automatic meter switching
- Play/Record Synchronization system
- Motion sensing and start memory
- Flip-top head cover
- Straight-line tape threading
- Manual tape lifter defeat
- And much more . . . all backed by a complete 2-year warranty on all parts and factory labor, plus ITC's famous 30-day money-back guarantee of satisfaction

How can you lose? For more details on the "professional" 750 Series recorder/reproducer, phone ITC collect at 309/828-1381.

BOOKS FOR BROADCASTERS

- 403. AM-FM BROADCAST STATION PLANNING GUIDE by Harry A. Elkin. A comprehensive guide to planning, building, and operating a radio broadcast facility—AM, FM, or combined operation. Based on a lifetime of experience and intimate association in broadcasting. 8½ x 11", illustrated. $12.95
- 404. THE ANATOMY OF LOCAL RADIO-TV COPY by William A. Peck. Leading station executives have called this book the one that sets the standard for radio-TV copy at the local level. Loaded with hundreds of ways to increase station billing with sales-proven copy. 146 pages. $5.95
- 405. BROADCAST STATION OPERATING GUIDE by Sol Robinson. This comprehensive reference encompasses every level of broadcasting. The secret to success in broadcasting, as in any other business, is knowing what to do and how to do it. This book tells it like it is. 256 pages. $12.95
- 406. THE BUSINESS OF RADIO BROADCASTING by Edd Routt. How to operate a station as a profitable business and serve the public interest as well. This is the first text to deal with broadcast station operation from beginning to end. Clearly explains proven techniques to follow, and cautions to observe. 400 pages, illustrated $12.95
- 417. GUIDE TO PROFESSIONAL RADIO & TV NEWSCASTING Robert C. Siller. A practical, self study guide for those who want to get started or get ahead in broadcast journalism. 224 pages, illustrated. $9.95
- 418. HANDBOOK OF RADIO PUBLICITY & PROMOTION by Jack Macdonald. This handbook is a virtual promotion encyclopedia—includes over 250,000 words, over 1500 on-air promo themes adaptable to any format; and over 350 contests, stunts, station and personality promos! One idea alone of the hundreds offered can be worth many times the small cost of this indispensable source-book. 372 pages, 8½ x 11" bound in long-life 3-ring binder. $29.95
- 420. HOW TO PREPARE A PRODUCTION BUDGET FOR FILM & VIDEO TAPE by Sylvia Allen Costa. A complete guide to determining finances for any video tape or film production, from TV commercials to feature-length films. Jammed with facts covering every aspect of estimating costs. Tells how to estimate every cost associated with any size production, including the production location, cameras and accessories, sound equipment, light gear, raw film stock or video and sound recording tape, lab developing, printing and processing fees, personnel—(creative, technical, and talent), scenic elements, location expenses, surveys of remote shooting locations, film and tape editing, optical effects and animation, plus a host of miscellaneous expenses such as writer fees, animals, special effects requirements, and insurance. Also included are typical rate listings and eight sample budgets, representing TV commercials, documentaries, and feature-length films. 192 pages. $12.95
- 421. HOW TO SELL RADIO ADVERTISING by Si Willing. The right formula for sales depends on the individual and the prospective advertiser. Therein lies the secret as Si Willing illustrates it by theory and by practice. You'll hear all sorts of objections (including a few you haven't heard!) and how they've been successfully countered. From the dialog between salesman and prospect you'll learn the approaches and the clinchers, how to use available sales tools to the best advantage and how to deal with competition. You'll learn ways to sidestep objections, how to recognize the "opportunity moment," and how to convert a "No" to a "Yes." 320 pages. $12.95
- 426. MODERN RADIO BROADCASTING: Management & Operation In Small To Medium Markets by R. H. Coddington. A comprehensive guide to successful practices of radio stations in small-to-medium-sized markets. 288 pages, illustrated. $12.95
- 434. RADIO PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES by Jay Hoffer. Here's an all-round book for everyone in radio—performers, producers and directors, and sales and engineering personnel. Covers every phase of radio production from announcements to the overall station "sound"—in fact, every creative aspect of today's radio... with special emphasis on sales. Tells how to produce results for an advertiser, and how to develop production expertise, and how to use the elements of pacing and timing in every production. Covers record screening, jingle use, news, on-air promotion, public service, contests, public affairs, remotes, talk and farm shows, etc. Practical data on sales includes idea development, writing, and how to create more effective commercials. 240 pages, illustrated. $12.95
- 437. RADIO STATION SALES PROMOTIONS by Jack Macdonald. 300 merchandise-moving ideas! A compendium of creative selling ideas designed exclusively for radio stations—sales tools that work. A vast supply of ready-to-use ideas for producing sales in 43 categories, from air conditioners to washing machines. 72 pages, 8½" x 11" $10.00

The finest multi-core studio and field camera system ever produced by Philips.

Which means the finest multi-core studio and field camera system ever produced.

In the decade since Philips re-invented color with the Plumbicon® tube, its PC-60 and PC-70 have successively stood as the reference standard for broadcast performance. Behind Philips leadership, that standard has steadily improved to today's ultimate—the LDK-25.

That Philips has again leapfrogged the competition can surprise no one who knows broadcast cameras...since we created Plumbicon® technology. After a decade of refinement and improvement Philips is still the only company that manufactures all of the critical picture determining components—computer-matched yokes, beam splitting prism, deflection circuitry and Plumbicon® tubes. The only company that can design each component for optimum performance of the entire camera system. These advantages, of superior Philips design and in-house component availability, offer you unsurpassed stability, picture quality and value.

Further, at Philips, we offer you options that are options. The LDK-25 you buy is a custom unit, equipped with the automatic features you select...not a 'loaded' factory package.

But you can't just read about the LDK-25...you've got to experience it.

Only a demonstration can show you how our anti-comet-tail Plumbicon® tubes handle highlights up to 32x normal peak-white level without blooming or streaking—and without loss of our famous color rendition and resolution. 'Live' is the only way to learn what our Color Line-Up Equipment (CLUE) can do for ease of balance... what electronic color temperature control, auto white balance, flexible auto iris and contrast compression mean in use.

Only after you've seen it all—after you've actually handled this remarkable camera—will you understand why the Philips name is a guarantee of incomparable stability...why no one else can match our 1000-hour performance.

To get your hands on an LDK-25 or to get more information, call us today at (201) 529-5900; (201) 529-3800, or write: Broadcast Products, Philips Audio Video Systems Corp., 91 McKee Drive, Mahwah, N.J. 07430.

Did somebody once believe in you?

Think about it. Would you be where you are right now—professionally, financially, physically, mentally, you name it—if at some strategic point in your development there wasn't someone who "believed in you?" Somebody who came forth and said, "Hey man, you can do it—I know you can do it."

Chances are good that there was. And, as you think back you realize that it was a selfless act on his part, probably requiring only a minimum of time and energy. But look at the impact it had. On you. Because you went out and did it. And kept on doing it to get where you are today.

Right now, there is at least one person within your sphere of influence who needs his or her "believer." Needs someone to say, "Hey friend, this is one great way to go—and I believe you can get there."

You can help this individual right now by advising him or her to write to the address below. The person you believe in will then receive an audio-visual program produced by the U.S. Office of Education which expounds on the most wide-open opportunity available in the country today. Technical schools.

Entitled "You Can Be More Than You Are," the program includes a record and color brochure featuring Tony Orlando and Dawn, who convey the technical school phenomenon in an unbiased and entertaining manner. They talk about facts. Like the fact that millions of lives have already been improved as a result of technical schools. And the fact that there are still an estimated one million challenging and rewarding technical job opportunities available in the country right now. Our TV stars even talk with real life "stars" who actually became much more than they were as a result of technical school training.

So give our address to someone you believe in—today. After all, you really owe it to "yourself".

Men of action. Men of experience. Men of their word.

The transfer of broadcast properties is a sensitive business. Whether the dollars involved are modest or major, the transaction requires a deep understanding of the communications industry, financial know-how, and the ability to deal with the human factors that pervade the sale and purchase.

The men of The Keith W. Horton Company, Inc., bring all these qualities to each assignment. Whether you ask them to represent you as buyer or seller, you will be certain they maintain total confidentiality and act professionally in your best interests.

Books

Shorecrest, 1966. 448 pp. $5.95 (Bonanza reprint).

Detailed coverage of network television programs, arranged by genre, and consisting almost entirely of pictures and captions on personalities, music shows, comedy, specials, drama, action-adventure, westerns, quiz shows, daytime programming, and news. Unfortunately a decade out of date, this is still the best television pictorial review available. (A chronological version going up to 1972 appeared as The Television Years in a Popular Library paperback for $1.50 in 1973).

Organization and Economics

Coleman, Howard W. Case Studies in Broadcast Management. New York: Hastings House, 1970. 95 pp. $4.95.

Studies of 13 broadcast management decisions taken from actual experience.

Heighton, Elizabeth J., and Don R. Cunningham. Advertising in the Broadcast Media. Belmont, Calif.: Wadsworth, 1976. 349 pp. $12.95.

The first broad book-length overview of this subject published since 1959, this book includes chapters on the development of broadcast advertising, structure of the industry, objectives and strategies, marketing research and media planning, talent, producing and evaluating commercials, buying and selling time, and questions of social responsibility in advertising.

Accounting Manual for Broadcasters, edited by the Institute for Broadcasting Financial Management, Suite 308, 360 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago 60601. $20. 1972.

Indexed heavy duty sheets in vinyl covered hard binder. Prepared in cooperation with Ernst & Ernst 50 pages text and guidelines, plus financial reporting forms. Covers depreciation and amortization, intangible assets, film contracting accounts, operating income accounts, accrued music license fees. (See also the Accounting Manuals for both radio and television issued by the NAB for its members)

Johnson, Joseph, and Kenneth K. Jones. Modern Radio Station Practices. Belmont, Calif.: Wadsworth, 1972 [a revised edition is due in 1977]. 268 pp. $7.95.

Sections on programming (with special chapters on both music and news), promotion, sales, research, governmental and nongovernmental controls, and the physical and operational plant. Supplemented with 14 station profiles providing in-depth analysis of issues discussed earlier.

Koenig, Allen E., ed. Broadcasting and Bargaining: Labor Relations in Radio and Television. Madison: University of Wisconsin Press, 1970. 344 pp. $8.

The only book of its kind, this reviews the development and effect of unions in radio-TV, arbitration in broadcasting, and problems of specific kinds of employees and unions, with a look at the likely future.

Noll, Roger G., Merton J. Peck, and John J. McGowan. Economic Aspects of Television Regulation. Washington: Brookings Institution, 1973. 342 pp. $8.95.

The current situation and prospects for change in commercial television, pay TV, cable television, public TV, new television technology, and what policies should be developed for improving television. This is a detailed and annotated scholarly analysis.

Jack Beebe, and Willard Manning Jr. Television Economics. Lexington, Mass.: Lexington Books, 1974. 218 pp. $15.

The first part explores economics of television programming while the second reviews other questions of public policy toward television. Both parts suggest a variety of policy options based on data presented.

Quaal, Ward L., and James A. Brown. Broadcast Management: Radio, Television. New York: Hastings House, 1975. (2nd ed.). 464 pp. $16.50/8.95.

A totally rewritten version of the 1968 book, this now has sections on principles of management, the management of personnel, the audience, programming, broadcast sales, managing for profit, broadcast engineering, the manager and regulation, and lengthy essays by the authors as to the likely future.

Routt, Edd. The Business of Radio Broadcasting. Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.: TAB Books, 1972. 400 pp. $12.95.

The role of the radio station in the community, sales, programming, administration, technical operations, and legal aspects including licensing, fairness, etc.

Law and Regulation

Ashley, Paul P., in collaboration with Camden M. Hall. Say it Safely: Legal Limits in Publishing, Radio, and Television. Seattle: University of Washington Press, 1976 (5th ed.). 238 pp. $9.50.

First issued under this title two decades ago, this book has become a standard introduction to a changing and complicated field. Coverage is updated on libel, quotations and ads, privilege, comment and criticism, pictures, the right of privacy, political broadcasts, a new chapter on pornography, free speech and fair trial, copyright, etc.

Emery, Walter B. Broadcasting and Government: Responsibilities and Regulations. East Lansing: Michigan State University Press, 1971 (2nd ed.). 569 pp. $12.50/8.50.

A revision of the 1961 edition the book covers the scope of government controls, character, classification and utilization of radio frequencies, problems of going on the air etc. Appendices include many basic FCC papers including the Communications Act of 1934 plus revisions up to date, a study of FCC-FTC relations, regulations on fairness, a report on the 1960 programming inquiry and other pertinent matters.

Francois, William E. Mass Media Law and Regulation. Columbus, Ohio: Grid Inc., 1975. 470 pp. $13.50.

With 100 pages devoted to specific problems of broadcasting, this volume offers a broader media context in discussing libel, privacy, free press vs. fair trial, newsmen's privilege, advertising etc. The result is a good mixture of journalism and law, stressing recent important cases, decisions and trends.

Friendly, Fred W. The Good Guys, the Bad Guys, and the First Amendment: Free Speech vs. Fairness in Broadcasting. New York: Random House, 1976. 268 pp. $10.

A narrative and analysis of the Red Lion and other cases that have shaped the fairness doctrine, this book concludes that the issues are not clear-cut, making it difficult to tell the good from the bad guys.

Jones, William K. Electronic Mass Media: Radio, Television and Cable. Mineola, N.Y.: Foundation Press, 1976. pp. $9.75.

After brief overview of issues in Chapter I, book consists of case and decision excerpts on comparative proceedings, concentration of control, network practices, regulation of programming, cable television and subscription (pay) services.

Kahn, Frank J., ed. Documents of American Broadcasting. New York: Appleton-Century-Crofts (now published by Prentice-Hall), 1973 (2nd ed.). 684 pp. $10.95.

Collected cases, decisions, and other documents of the FCC, Congress and various courts on regulation of broadcasting, program controls, freedom of expression, broadcast journalism and the public interest. Each section offers an updated reading list.

Levin, Harvey J. The Invisible Resource: Use and Regulation of the Radio Spectrum. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press, 1971. 432 pp. $12.

The book is divided into four parts. One, the spectrum system—including the major users of the spectrum. Two, alternatives in the allocation and management of the spectrum. Three, the level of spectrum development. Four, the potential of competition as a means of preserving resources of the spectrum.

Schmidt, Benno C. Jr. Freedoms of the Press vs. Public Access. New York: Praeger Special Studies, 1976. 296 pp. $17.50/6.95.

Compares the differences between print media and broadcasting from a regulatory point of view. Not easy reading, but the discussion and analysis is comprehensive on the questions of libel and access, fairness in broadcasting, and Tornillo vs Red Lion.

Shapiro, Andrew O. Media Access: Your Rights to Express Your Views on Radio and Television. Boston: Little, Brown, 1976. 297 pp. $8.95.

Chapters deal with political broadcasts, radio-TV news, fair coverage of public issues, advertising and fairness, personal attacks, editorials, and complaints—with the present legal status in each area.

Toohy, Daniel W., Richard D. Marks, and Arnold P. Lutzker. Legal Problems in Broadcasting: Identification and Analysis of Selected Issues. Lincoln, Neb.: Great Plains National Instructional Television Library, 1974. 203 pp. $8.75/5.95.

This book combines description and analysis with about 100 case studies showing specific legal problems and their resolution. Covered is freedom of expression, (including libel, fairness, political broadcasting, violence), and business aspects of programing (copyright, lotteries, income taxes, etc.).

Broadcast Journalism

Ashmore, Harry S. Fear in the Air: Broadcasting and the First Amendment—the Anatomy of a Constitutional Crisis. New York: Norton, 1973. 180 pp. $6.95.

A discussion of the major pressures on broadcasting, especially in news and special events programming. Mr. Ashmore believes the major problem is a public feeling that broadcasters are somehow to blame for many of the nation's problems.

Bagdikian, Ben H. The Information Machines: Their Impact on Men and the Media. New York: Harper & Row, 1971. 359 pp. $8.95/2.95.

A Rand Corp. study on the organization and operation of print and broadcast journalism which projects likely future technological developments and their impact on news and society. Discussion shows inter-relationships between economics, news problems, audience needs, and the business operation of the news media.

Chester, Edward W. Radio, Television and American Politics. New York: Sheed and Ward, 1969. 342 pp. $7.50/3.95.

The standard history of the subject, related in chronological order covering first radio and then television, mainly as campaign aids, but also dealing with other political applications through the 1968 election.

Diamond, Edwin. The Tin Kazoo: Television, Politics and the News. Cambridge, Mass.: MIT Press, 1975. 269 pp. $9.95.

Deals with news formats and the audience and, more specifically, with the content of public news. Mr. Diamond focuses on several case studies of TV news, including the Vietnam war coverage, the Pentagon Papers, several chapters on former President Nixon (including Watergate coverage) and TV as a political tool.

Epstein, Edward Jay. News From Nowhere: Television and the News. New York: Random House, 1973. 321 pp. $7.95/1.95.

A highly critical analysis of the network evening newscasts as the author surveyed them in 1968-69, focusing on the organization and process and how they effect the news product.

Fang, Irving E. Television News. New York: Hastings House, 1972 (2nd ed.). 478 pp. $12.50/7.50.

An expanded and revised edition of a standard text first issued in 1968. Deals with the problems of TV news, how to handle them, editorials and fairness, election coverage, libel, access, section 315, privacy etc. New are a glossary, reference notes and a bibliography. Examples and illustrations throughout.

Gilbert, Robert E. Television and Presidential Politics. Quincy, Mass.: Christopher Publishing House, 1972. 335 pp. $7.75.

An analysis of the role of TV in presidential policies. The book deals with the increasing role of television in making presidential elections a truly national effort. Chapters deal with the visual medium's function in obtaining a major political nomination, trends in campaign expenditures and giving more detailed information in particular campaigns concluding with the Nixon-Humphrey campaign in 1968. The author believes that since 1952 television has dominated the political scene.

Hall, Mark W. Broadcast Journalism: An Introduction to News Writing. New York: Hastings House, 1971. 159 pp. $6.95/4.95.

Discussions, of news writing, sources of news, police and criminal news, disaster and civil disturbance coverage, libel and slander, good taste. An appendix discusses style and writing errors.

Kraus, Sidney, and Dennis Davis. The Effects of Mass Communication on Political Behavior. State College: Pennsylvania State University Press, 1976. 308 pp. $16.50/7.95.

The most recent review of research and industry findings on print and broadcast coverage of campaigns and other political events, this volume offers sections on the role of the media in supplying political information, media and the political process, and media and the electoral process.

Mickelson, Sig. The Electric Mirror: Politics in an Age of Television. New York: Dodd, Mead, 1972. 304 pp. $8.95.

The former head of CBS News reviews the past two decades' TV reporting and advertising and analyzes Compiled with the assistance of Christopher H. Sterling, department of radio-television-film, Temple University.

This bibliography supplements other listings published in previous Yearbooks. It is intended to briefly organize and annotate a selective list of the most useful currently-available titles on general broadcasting, history of radio and television, organization and economics, law and regulation, broadcast journalism, entertainment programming, public (non-commercial) broadcasting, the broadcast audience, cable television, world broadcasting, production and performance guides, and technical books.

Prices and publication data are as of October 1976. Titles are listed only once. Annotations are intended to be descriptive rather than evaluative.

General Reviews

Bogart, Leo. The Age of Television. New York: Ungar, 1972 (3rd ed.). 549 pp. $14.50.

Update of the 1956 and 1958 edition of the best early book on TV's role, programming, patterns of viewing, radio listening in the TV age, and TV's relationship to effect on reading, movies, sports, etc. This edition adds 125 pages of notes keyed to text, plus new introduction and appendix on broadcast research (with bibliography) for the 1958-71 period.

Brown, Les. Television: The Business Behind the Box. New York: Harcourt, Brace Jovanovich, 1971. 365 pp. $8.95/2.95.

Somewhat dated but frequently cited view behind the scenes at network-level programming decisions by the then broadcast editor of Variety (now with the New York Times), focusing on the inter-relationship of management and programming.

Chester, Giraud, Garnet Garrison, and Edgar Willis. Television and Radio. New York: Appleton-Century-Crofts (now published by Prentice-Hall), 1971 (4th ed.). 613 pp. $11.95.

Revision of work first issued in 1950, with first half devoted to description and analysis of broadcasting, and second to production and performance practices.

Head, Sydney W. Broadcasting in America: A Survey of Television and Radio. Boston: Houghton-Mifflin, 1976 (3rd ed.). 629 pp. $16.

Single volume history, description and analysis (often critical) of the industry, complete with detailed and chart-supported discussions of the physical basis of radio-TV, with a review of the economics and regulation of broadcasting, and the industry's influence on the nation. Supplemented with more than 100 pages of annotated and subject-divided bibliography.

Hilliard, Robert L. ed. Radio Broadcasting: An Introduction to the Sound Medium. New York: Hastings House, 1974 (2nd ed.). 312 pp. $10.95/6.95.

Revision of 1967 work, this contains sections on the development and analysis of broadcasting, studio and operating facilities, program formats, writing for radio, management, producing and directing, and performing. A good introduction for those seeking their first job in the field.

Mayer, Martin. About Television. New York: Harper & Row, 1972. 433 pp. $10.

Readable and sympathetic survey of the industry including a major emphasis on programming on both local and network levels, ratings, selling time, industry organization and operation, etc. Somewhat broader in coverage than Brown (above) with its material on local and noncommercial broadcasting.

Stanley, Robert H., ed. The Broadcast Industry: An Examination of Major Issues. New York: Hastings House, 1975. 256 pp. $13.50/7.95.

The most recent of several books from this publisher based on sessions of the International Radio and Television Society, this book offers addresses and discussion on television news, broadcast regulation, short- and long-range economic questions, public television and license renewal.

History of Broadcasting

Barnouw, Erik. A History of Broadcasting in the United States. New York: Oxford University Press, 1966, 1968, 1970. 344 pp., 391 pp., and 396 pp. $11 each. Entitled A Tower in Babel (to 1933), The Golden Web (1933-1953), and The Image Empire (from 1953), this is a standard history of the industry and its content, written in a flowing fashion tying broadcasting to related societal events.

Tube of Plenty: The Evolution of American Television. New York: Oxford University Press, 1975. 518 pp. $14.95.

A condensation of the series above (and an updating for the early 1970's), but covering only television, this is an illustrated social history of the medium dealing more with the news and documentary content of television than with entertainment.

Buxton, Frank, and Bill Owen. The Big Broadcast: 1920-1950. New York: Viking Press, 1972. 301 pp. $12.95/3.95.

An alphabetical listing of network radio programs providing program type, key personalities, program opening and closing and sometimes bits of scripts. Some include the network and year the program started and some description of the programs carried. There is also information on announcers, reporters, interviewers, comedy shows, soap operas, sound effects etc. About 150 photos of radio personalities are included as is an extensive index with more than 5,400 entries.

Campbell, Robert. The Golden Years of Broadcasting: 50 Years of Radio and Television on NBC. New York: Scribner's, 1976. 275 pp. $16.95.

A pictorial history with heavy emphasis on programs and personalities.

Lichty, Lawrence W., and Malachi C. Topping, eds. American Broadcasting: A Sourcebook on the History of Radio and Television. New York: Hastings House, 1975. 723 pp. $26.50/15.

A collection of nearly 100 articles (many contemporary with the events described) on the technical development of radio, stations, networks, economics, employment, programming, audience and regulation. Each section concludes with several tables of historical statistics and illustrations, and the book offers bibliography and index.

McMahon, Morgan E. Vintage Radio: 1887-1929. McMahon's Vintage Radio (Box 2045, Palos Verdes Peninsula, Calif. 90274), 1973 (2nd ed.). 263 pp. $10.95/8.95.

An illustrated guide to early radio receivers and parts thereof, divided by manufacturer, and showing model years and original prices along with many period advertisements. Directory of early receivers, a brief historical overview, and index are included.

A Flick of the Switch: 1930-1950. McMahon's Vintage Radio (address above), 1975. 312 pp. $10.95/8.95.

A continuation of the book above, this volume includes television receivers of the first (1930's) and second (1940's) generations. Brief historical overview material and a wealth of illustrations, but this one lacks an index.

Metz, Robert. CBS: Reflections in a Bloodshot Eye. Chicago: Playboy Press, 1975. 428 pp. $13.50.

A chronology of CBS's almost 50 years of development. Mr. Metz, reporter for the New York Times, presents a series of vignettes stressing the roles of various individuals in CBS's past and present. With chapters on the creation of the network, the development of TV.

Passman, Arnold. The Deejays. New York: Macmillan, 1971. 320 pp. $7.95.

A somewhat disorganized history of music on radio from the beginning to the late 1960's. The author knew many of his subjects and this lends a lighter and more interesting air to his treatment of the subject.

Settel, Irving. A Pictorial History of Radio. New York: Grosset & Dunlap, 1967 (2nd ed.). 210 pp. $6.95.

Arranged by decades, this pictorial account stresses programs and personalities, with many script excerpts.

William Laas. A Pictorial History of Television. New York: Grosset & Dunlap, 1969. 209 pp. $7.95.

A sequel to the book above, this is also arranged chronologically with more than 70 pages dealing with the pre-1950 period.

Shulman, Arthur, and Roger Youman. How Sweet It Was: Television, a Pictorial Commentary. New York:

the medium's key problems in politics. A chapter deals with the use of TV abroad, one is on political debates, one on costs and one on the relations between government and television.

Miles, Donald W. Broadcast News Handbook. Indianapolis: Howard W. Sams Co., 1976. 397 pp. $7.95.

A guide to radio station news operations on the scene, during civil disorders, involving fairness to minorities, the police beat and courtrooms, searches and rescues, government and politics, the style of the newscast, and the industry and the profession.

Roult, Edd. Dimensions of Broadcast Editorializing. Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.: TAB Books, 1974. 204 pp. $8.95.

One of the few books on this subject (see also Vainowski). The text explores the differences between print and broadcasting, discusses FCC rules, ways and means of editorializing. Sample station editorial practices in varied-sized markets are included.

Small, William. To Kill a Messenger: Television News and the Real World. New York: Hastings House, 1970. 302 pp. $7.95.

Mr. Small, now the senior vice president of CBS News, was CBS news chief in Washington when he wrote this book covering in detail news problems from the television newsmen's point of view.

Vainowski, Robert. In Our View. Belmont, Calif.: Tregatos Enterprises, 1976. 176 pp. $12.95.

Broadcast editorials, from a general overview and history to nuts-and-bolts techniques on developing ideas, writing, airing the finished product and providing time for rebuttals, are discussed by the former editorial director of KCBS(AM) San Francisco.

Entertainment Programing (see also section on history)

Adler, Richard, ed. Television as a Social Force: New Approaches to Television Criticism. New York: Praeger Special Studies, 1975. 171 pp. $15.00/3.95.

Eight essays on the role of television programing in American life.

Television as a Cultural Force. New York: Praeger Special Studies, 1976. 199 pp. $15.00/4.95.

Sequel to the book above, this offers nine essays focusing on entertainment programing of various types, along with a brief bibliography.

Cantor, Muriel G. The Hollywood TV Producer: His Work and His Audience. New York: Basic Books, 1972. 264 pp. $7.95.

Only study of its kind, this is based on a scholarly survey of television series producers, exploring their working conditions, views of the audience, and how these things effect their product—TV entertainment.

David, Nina. TV Season 74-75. Phoenix, Ariz.: Oryx Press, 1976. 201 pp. $13.95.

The first of what is planned as an annual reference volume covering all network, syndicated, and public broadcasting programs aired in the season. This indexed volume lists more than 1,200 entertainment series, movies, special and documentary programs, etc., providing for each full credits, time and network.

Johnson, William O. Jr. Super Spectator and the Electric Lilliputians. Boston: Little, Brown, 1971. 237 pp. $6.95.

Based on a five part series in Sports Illustrated, this is an overview of how television has effected and covered professional sports in America.

Newcomb, Horace. TV: The Most Popular Art. New York: Anchor Books, 1974. 272 pp. $2.50.

Dissects and analyzes the major kinds of popular network television programing, concentrating on prime-time examples, with chapters on comedies, westerns, mysteries, doctors and lawyers, adventure shows, soap operas, news sports and documentaries.

ed. Television: The Critical View. New York: Oxford University Press, 1976. 314 pp. $4.

Twenty essays on particular shows, program genres, the role of television in our culture, and the esthetics of television content.

Parish, James Robert. Actors' Television Credits: 1950-1972. Metuchen, N.J.: Scarecrow Press, 1973. 879 pp. $18.50.

Listed in alphabetical order by name, then chronological order by program series, with specific episode and network as well as date noted.

Sharp, Harold S., and Marjorie Z. Sharp. Index to Characters in the Performing Arts: Part IV, Radio and Television. Metuchen, N.J.: Scarecrow Press, 1973. 700 pp. $15.

The fourth and final work of a series, the index covers some 2,500 programs and about 20,000 characters. As a research aid it is invaluable since by knowing one character in a drama the research may trace down everyone else who took part. A guide to the characters, not to the actors who played each character.

Smith, Robert R. Beyond the Wasteland: The Criticism of Broadcasting. Falls Church, Va.: Speech Communication Association, 1976. 105 pp. $5.

Two parts deal with the process of criticism, and then specific issues in broadcast criticism (journalism, cable, social effects, etc.).

Whitfield, Stephen E., and Gene Roddenberry. The Making of Star Trek. New York: Ballantine Books, 1968. 414 pp. $1.95.

Useful as a behind-the-scenes analysis of the development, design, and production of a network television series.

Public (Noncommercial) Broadcasting

Brown, James W., ed. Educational Media Yearbook: 1975-76. New York: R. R. Bowker, 1975. 559 pp. $21.95.

The third volume of an annual review series that includes extensive bibliographies and reference material on the status of public broadcasting and instructional media as well.

Carnegie Commission on Educational Television. Public Television: A Program for Action. New York: Harper & Row/Bantam Books, 1967. 254 pp. $4.95/1.50.

The basic document that brought forth the Public Broadcasting Act and the current structure of what was renamed public television.

Nyhan, Michael J., ed. The Future of Public Broadcasting. New York: Praeger Special Studies, 1976. 372 pp. $18.50/6.95.

Eighteen articles on all aspects of current public broadcasting make this an important policy-oriented overview of public television and radio today, including instructional broadcasting, financing, specialized audiences, program trends, patterns of control, and an annotated bibliography.

The Broadcast Audience

Bower, Robert. Television and the Public. New York: Holt, Rinehart & Winston, 1973. 205 pp. $7.95.

Based on a national 1970 survey, this is an updating of the 1963 book by the late Gary A. Steiner. The People Look at Television. About a third of the questions used were the same for both surveys. The basic conclusion is that people are watching more television, but are also somewhat more critical of what they see.

Comstock, George, et al. Television and Human Behavior. Santa Monica, Calif.: Rand Corp., 1975. Three volumes, $27.

The first volume is a large, unannotated but subject-divided guide to the literature on television's effects, the second deals in annotated abstracts of selected key studies, and the third reviews what we know now, and research efforts now going on and projected for the future. A comprehensive guide to post-1960 research.

Davison, W. Phillips, and Frederick T. C. Yu, eds. Mass Communication Research: Major Issues and Future Directions. New York: Praeger Special Studies, 1974. 248 pp. $13.50/5.95.

A summary of what is known about uses of mass communication by individuals, media and socialization, functions of media for groups, media and the state, media and the political system, professional personnel and organizational structure in media, media management, new information technology and areas of needed research.

Kline, F. Gerald, and Phillip J. Tichenor, eds. Current Perspectives in Mass Communications Research. Beverly Hills, Calif.: Sage Publications, 1972. 320 pp. $15/7.50.

Despite the similarity in title and purpose, there is little overlap here with the book above. Sections cover research on gatekeeping, information diffusion, the interpersonal context of mass communication, socialization and media, media in political campaigns, the communication environment of the urban poor sex and violence, and environment and communication.

Lessor, Gerald S. Children and Television: Lessons from Sesame Street. New York: Random House, 1974. 291 pp. $10.00.

The development, planning, production, and research about effects of the Children's Television Workshop program, with a stress on the apparent results of the series.

Liebert, Robert M., John M. Neale, and Emily S. Davidson. The Early Window: Effects of Television on Children and Youth. Elmsford, N.Y.: Pergamon Press, 1973. 193 pp. $9.50/6.50.

The three authors were active on the surgeon-general's research program on TV and Social Behavior and much of what is reported comes from that massive research. The result is an attempt to explore all such research and chapters include the overall growth process, production and content in TV today, TV and aggression, the prosocial effects of TV, the commercial interests, government and industry role and an overview.

Melody, William. Children's Television: The Economics of Exploitation. New Haven, Conn.: Yale University Press, 1973. 139 pp. $7.95/1.95.

This Action/Children's Television-sponsored study deals with industry structure, the development of children's television and its unique characteristics, and offers chapters of analysis on the effects and likely public policy.

Noble, Grant. Children in Front of the Small Screen. Beverly Hills, Calif.: Sage Publications, 1975. 256 pp. $15.

An international overview of research on and concern about all aspects of children's television and its effects. Emphasis is on reviewing television as an escape, child development and television, media definitions of roles, TV and violence and delinquent behavior, etc.

Cable Television

Baer, Walter S. Cable Television: A Handbook for Decision-Making. New York: Crane, Russak, 1974. 241 pp. $11.

A reprint of a Rand Corp. study, this overview discusses cable technology, cable system economics, ownership options, local planning for a cable system, cable franchising considerations, making public access effective, and public services on cable.

et al. Cable Television: Franchising Considerations. New York: Crane, Russak, 1974. 294 pp. $13.50.

Combines five Rand Corp reports: a guide to the technology of cable, the process of franchising, technical considerations in franchising, citizen participation in planning, and citizen participation after the franchise.

Carpenter-Huffman, Polly, Richard C. Kletter, and Robert K. Yin. Cable Television: Developing Community Services. New York: Crane, Russak, 1975. 274 pp. $12.75.

Reprints Rand Corp. reports on making public access effective, cable applications for municipal services, cable's uses in education, and a cable guide for education planners.

Committee for Economic Development. Broadcasting and Cable Television: Policies for Diversity and Change. New York: CED, 1975. 120 pp. $4/2.50.

Based on studies begun in late 1971 by a research and policy committee consisting of people inside broadcasting and cable as well as outside observers, critics and researchers. The report contains an introduction and summary of recommendations and sections on the public responsibilities of commercial broadcasting, a policy for public broadcasting, the potential of cable and organizing regulation for change.

Hollowell, Mary Louise, ed. Cable Handbook 1975-1976. Washington: Communications Press, Inc., 1975. 303 pp. $6.95.

Sixteen sections deal with technology, regulation, cable development models, cable world-wide, the many different public services potentially available through cable, and local origination and funding. There is also a glossary and bibliography.

Le Duc, Don R. Cable Television and the FCC: A Crisis in Media Control. Philadelphia: Temple University Press, 1973. 289 pp. $15.

Description and critical analysis of the development of cable and FCC cable regulation through the 1972 rules.

Rivkin, Steven R. Cable Television: A Guide to Federal Regulations. New York: Crane, Russak, 1975. 371 pp. $16.

Books, Colleges, Universities

Reprints the Rand Corp. study which analyses in detail the current FCC cable rules and regulations and adds some 200 pages of relevant FCC cable documents and legal cases.

World Broadcasting

Green, Timothy. The Universal Eye: The World of Television. New York: Stein and Day, 1972. 276 pp. $10.00.

A travelogue of television, reviewing the status of television in the early 1970's in most countries of the world.

Hale, Julian. Radio Power: Propaganda and International Broadcasting. Philadelphia: Temple University Press, 1975. 196 pp. $12.50.

Historical review and current analysis of radio broadcasting between nations in all parts of the world, comparing among other things, the Nazi, Communist, American and BBC models.

Head, Sydney W. Broadcasting in Africa: A Continental Survey of Radio and Television. Philadelphia: Temple University Press, 1974. 453 pp. $23.

A country-by-country survey by a score of scholars, with discussion as well of cross-system functions and international services, foreign aid, religious broadcasting, training, educational uses of radio and television, technical problems, etc.

Namurois, Albert. Structures and Organization of Broadcasting in the Framework of Radiocommunications. Geneva: European Broadcasting Union Monograph 8, 1973. 211 pp. $5.

Highly organized outline of the different ways world broadcasting systems are arranged, financed and operated, with a stress on comparative analysis.

Paulu, Burton. Radio and Television Broadcasting on the European Continent. Minneapolis: University of Minnesota Press, 1967. 290 pp. $7.50

Best current analysis of broadcasting in Western Europe (excluding United Kingdom) arranged by topic: facilities, structure and organization, finances, information and entertainment programs, etc.

World Communications: A 200-Country Survey of Press, Radio, Television, Film. New York: Unipub (Unesco), 1975. 533 pp. $21.

The standard comparative description of major media, by region of the world, and by country, first issued in 1950, and last revised in 1964. Wealth of data.

World Radio & TV Handbook. New York: Billboard Publications, annual. Pagination and cost varies.

Standard guide to the hours, frequencies and programs of international shortwave and television broadcasting.

Production and Performance Guides

Hilliard, Robert L. Writing for Television and Radio. New York: Hastings House, 1976 (3rd ed.). 461 pp. $16.50.

A standard writing text first published in 1962, this is arranged by type of program from commercials, news and sports, features and documentaries, talk programs and game shows, to music and variety, children's shows, women's programs, minority and ethnic features, educational programs, and drama. Many script examples.

Hyde, Stuart. Television and Radio Announcing. Boston: Houghton-Mifflin, 1971 (2nd ed.). 400 pp. $9.95.

Revision of a standard first published in 1959 with the first part providing guidance, and the second giving practice assignments.

Lévitán, Eli L. An Alphabetical Guide to Motion Picture, Television and Videotape Production. New York: McGraw-Hill, 1970. 797 pp. $24.50.

Illustrated guide to facilities and procedures.

Lewis, Colby. The TV Director/Interpreter. New York: Hastings House, 1969. 225 pp. $8.95/5.95.

Illustrated practical advice to broaden the perceptual role of the television director.

Millerson, Gerald. The Technique of Television Production. New York: Hastings House, 1970 (3rd ed.). 440 pp. $14.50/7.20.

One of the best standard guides to the overall production process (another is Zettl), this offers more than 1,100 diagrams to supplement a detailed text.

The Technique of Lighting for Television and Motion

Pictures. New York: Hastings House, 1972. 366 pp. $17.95.

Standard book on the subject (see also the same author's shorter version TV Lighting Methods from the same publisher for $7.95).

Nisbett, Alec. The Technique of the Sound Studio for Radio, Television and Film. New York: Hastings House, 1972 (3rd ed.). 557 pp. $14.50/10.50.

The standard and most detailed book on all aspects of audio (part of the information is presented in simpler form in the author's The Use of Microphones from the same publisher).

Oringel, Robert S. Audio Control Handbook for Radio and Television Broadcasting. New York: Hastings House, 1972 (4th ed.). 192 pp. $10/6.50.

A photo-illustrated guide to the basics of audio, written in a clear and readily understandable fashion.

Spottiswoode, Raymond, ed. The Focal Encyclopedia of Film and Television Techniques. New York: Hastings House, 1969. 1,100 pp. $37.50.

Monumental gathering of alphabetically arranged information (with symbols to show application to either film or television), which combines equipment, history, production methods, facilities use, etc. Clear diagrams supplement often technical text.

Willis, Edgar E. Writing Television and Radio Programs. New York: Holt, Rinehart & Winston, 1967. 372 pp. $10.

One of the basic how-to-write-for-broadcasting texts, this focuses heavily (the first 200 pages) on dramatic writing, and then offers shorter chapters on other program genres.

Zettl, Herbert. Television Production Handbook. Belmont, Calif.: Wadsworth, 1976 (3rd ed.). 534 pp. $12.95.

Heavily revised and updated revision of standard task first published in 1962, this book now relies on photos rather than diagrams. Includes portable TV equipment, up-to-date videotape equipment, and small-format television. This (with Millerson above) is a standard source.

Sight Sound, Motion: Applied Media Aesthetics. Belmont, Calif.: Wadsworth, 1973. 399 pp. $18.95.

Unique work providing heavily illustrated discussions of use of light, color, area, depth and volume, time and motion, and sound, as well as inter-related use of all of these.

Technical Books

Bartlett, George, ed. Engineering Handbook. Washington: National Association of Broadcasters, 1975 (6th ed.). 540 pp. $45.

Standard loose-leaf volume of technical information for both radio and television operations.

Costigan, Daniel M. FAX: The Principles and Practice of Facsimile Communication. Philadelphia: Chilton Book Co., 1971. 270 pp. $10.

Includes history, how it works, transmission standards, quality, economics, standards, and a survey of commercial hardware and systems as of 1970.

DeMaw, Doug, ed. The Radio Amateur's Handbook. Newington, Conn.: American Radio Relay League, annual. Pagination and price varies.

Standard guide of technical and legal information for "hams" and others.

Etkin, Harry A. AM/FM Broadcast Station Planning Guide. Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.: TAB Books, 1970. 192 pp. $12.95.

Chapters are offered on planning, frequency search and channel allocation, preparing engineering data for Form 301, basic floor plans, transmitter plant, wire and power needs, towers and antenna systems, studio and monitoring equipment, program automation, mikes, preventive maintenance tips, proof-of-performance tests and description of some sample operations. Many diagrams accompany the text.

Fink, Donald G., and David M. Lutyens. The Physics of Television. New York: Doubleday Anchor Science Series, 1960. 160 pp. $1.95.

Chapters on communication process, light, electricity, etc. lead to specific and chart-illustrated descriptions of the American standards for both black and white and color television.

Knecht, Kenneth. Designing and Maintaining the CATV and Small TV Studio. Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.: TAB Books, 1976 (2nd ed.). 281 pp. $12.95.

Writing in non-technical terms, although dealing with technical subjects this is a helpful book for those entering this field with little experience. Chapters include study of the studio pulse system, switching systems and video effects, cameras and lighting equipment, RF and video monitors, video terminals, distribution systems, audio mixing consoles, audio program sources, maintenance shop etc.

Kiver, Milton S., and Milton Kaufman. Television Simplified. New York: Van Nostrand Reinhold, 1973 (7th ed.). 612 pp. $15.95.

Most recent edition of a standard reference work for more than 25 years—covers all aspects of television operation and transmission.

Marsh, Ken. Independent Video: A Complete Guide to the Physics, Operation and Application of the New Television. San Francisco: Straight Arrow Books (order from Simon and Schuster in New York), 1975. 212 pp. $7.95.

A vividly clear diagram-illustrated exposition on electronics basics, AM-FM optics, acoustics, the camera, VTRs, color video, sound systems, cables, switching and generators, the production process, etc. Though aimed at community video types, this book is solid and offers much to anyone concerned with the technical background of broadcasting.

Martin, James. Future Developments in Telecommunications. Englewood Cliffs, N.J.: Prentice-Hall, 1971. 413 pp. $14.95.

Text and diagrams by an IBM scientist look to the near and distant future of cable TV, other means of transmission, tie-ins to computers, spectrum use changes, satellites, mobile radio transceivers, etc.

Sessions, Kendall W. 2nd Class FCC Encyclopedia. Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.: TAB Books, 1975. 604 pp. $10.95/7.95.

Coverage of FCC exam elements 1-2-3 and 9 in question and answer format with over 400 illustrations and a 5,000 word index with cross-references.

Swearer, Harvey F. Commercial FCC License Handbook. Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.: TAB Books, 1971. 432 pp. $9.95/5.95.

Material, including illustrations and sample questions, for FCC 1st, 2nd, and 3rd class phone licenses.

Television News Gathering. Scarsdale, N.Y.: SMPTE, 1976. 168 pp. $12.50.

One of the first detailed discussions of the technical requirements for the operation of an ENG newsroom with details on equipment, set-up of facilities, etc.

Woram, John M. The Recording Studio Handbook. Plainville, N.Y.: Sagamore Publishing Co., Inc., 1976. 496 pp. $35.00.

Information on the basics (decibels, sound), microphones and loudspeakers, signal processing devices, magnetic recording, noise and noise reduction, recording consoles, recording techniques and several appendices.
