(5) Network, audio news service, rep and programing. The WOF national affiliate is ABC Entertainment Network, regional is Mountain State. The station subscribes to an audio news feed from Associated Press Radio. Sales representatives are also listed—national rep first, then regional. The WOF program format is part middle-of-the-road, part country and western, with three hours weekly of special programing in Spanish.

(6) Personnel.

(7) Advertising rates. The prices the station charges for a 12-times-a-week, one-minute spot are shown for each of four day-parts:

6 a.m.-10 a.m.; 10 a.m.-3 p.m.; 3 p.m.-7 p.m.; 7 p.m.-midnight in that order. If a day-part is inapplicable, a dash (—) replaces the rate.

Co-owned FM. WOF-FM has the same ownership as WOF(AM), and the FM listing contains only information different from the AM. Co-owned AM and FM stations are always listed together, even when they have dissimilar call letters.

(8) Frequency in megahertz, effective radiated power, and antenna height above average terrain. WOF-FM broadcasts in stereo.

(9) Programing. WOF-FM duplicates WOF programs 50% of the time and has a C&W format.

(10) Co-owned TV. WOF-TV has the same licensee as WOF-AM-FM.

Listings for independent FM stations follow the format of AM station entries.

An asterisk (*) indicates noncommercial stations.

AMERICAN RADIO IS BMI TERRITORY

BMI, the world's largest music licensing organization continues to provide American radio with most of the music it programs. In fact, nearly 60% of the music Americans listen to was written and published by many of the 47,000 writers and publishers who have entrusted their performing rights to BMI.

The American broadcasting industry first gained access to the broad variety of music it programs today when BMI was formed in 1940. Because BMI recognized long neglected creators of popular, country and western, rhythm and blues, jazz, concert, Latin and gospel, Americans can turn their dials to all kinds of music.

Today, and for most of its 38 year-long past, BMI writers and publishers provide America with most of its hits, and radio with most of its music.

Policy

By law, the Voice of America, a part of the U.S. Information Agency, operates under the following directive: "The long-range interests of the United States are served by communicating directly with the peoples of the world by radio. To be effective, the Voice of America must win the attention and respect of listeners. These principles will govern VOA broadcasts:

"1. VOA will serve as a consistently reliable and authoritative source of news. VOA news will be accurate, objective and comprehensive.

"2. VOA will represent America, not any single segment of American society, and will therefore present a balanced and comprehensive projection of significant American thought and institutions.

"3. VOA will present the policies of the United States clearly and effectively, and will also present responsible discussion and opinion on these policies."

To implement this directive, these broadcasts present news and news-related items of American and world events, news analyses, commentaries, correspondents' reports, editorial roundups, and feature material such as documentaries, roundtable discussions, interviews and special events all of which provide overseas audiences with a balanced and accurate concept of the many facets of American life and clear information regarding U.S. policies.

Facilities

The Voice of America has a network of 109 transmitters: 41 in the continental United States and 68 overseas. These are short and medium wave stations ranging in power from 35 kw to 1,000 kw. The largest transmitter complex is at Greenville, N.C. There, 1B transmitters relay programs received via microwave from the Washington studios to audiences and relay stations abroad over 73 directional antennas. Total power at Greenville is 4,800 kw. Other domestic facilities are at Bethany, Ohio; Marathon, Fla. (MW); Delano and Dixon, both California.

Overseas relay stations are at: Munich, Germany; Kavala and Rhodes, Greece; Tangier, Morocco; Monrovia, Liberia; Tinang and Poro, The Philippines; Woolerton, England; Colombo, Sri Lanka; Bangkok, Thailand. These include short and medium wave transmitters, among which are three one-megawatt transmitters. VOA's total power is now 21,840,000 watts.

Local Placement

Many VOA tapes, music recordings and script materials are furnished by U.S. Information Agency offices overseas for local distribution and broadcast. Other relays and rebroadcasts are made through arrangements with local broadcasters in West Europe, Africa, the Near East, South Asia, the Far East and Latin America. For example, VOA's Spanish-language correspondents feed of 90 minutes, Mondays-Fridays, is rebroadcast by more than 800 Latin American radio stations.

Jamming

USSR jamming of VOA vernacular language broadcasts to the USSR and East Europe began in 1948 and continued until 1963. Other East European countries began jamming in 1950. Except for Poland (which stopped jamming in 1956) and Bulgaria (which continued to jam until September 1974), Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Romania ceased jamming VOA broadcasts shortly after the USSR stopped. Coincident with the invasion of Czechoslovakia (Aug. 21, 1968), the Soviet Union resumed jamming of VOA's broadcasts in Armenian, Georgian, Russian and Ukrainian. When VOA broadcasts in Uzbek began in September 1972, jamming also was instituted on these programs. In September 1973 all Soviet jamming of VOA broadcasts again was stopped without explanation.

The People's Republic of China began jamming the VOA Chinese-language broadcasts in 1956. At the present time (September 1976) it is the only country continuously jamming VOA programs.

Radio Billings 1935-1976

Figures for the years 1935 through 1967 are net time sales by stations and networks after all frequency and promotional discounts but before deduction of commissions to agencies and representatives. Figures from 1969 on were computed under a new formula and represent total amounts paid by advertisers for the use of broadcast facilities. They include commissions paid to advertising agencies and representatives and payments for broadcast time and programs, materials, facilities and services supplied by broadcast stations and networks in connection with the sale of time. Figures are based on FCC data.
