LEADING RADIO PROGRAM OF THE PACIFIC COAST

Announcing A Greater Service To Radio Listeners

BEGINNING in this issue, general program listings will be supplemented by a "Topical Feature Log," enabling listeners to find, at a glance, available major programs according to Topical Interest.

Time of broadcast, station source, character of program, and outstanding features will be shown.

Ambiguous or misleading titles, miscellaneous phonograph records, and indefinite "fill-in" broadcasts will not be listed.

With this improved service, pioneered by BROADCAST WEEKLY, you may find from day to day favorite types of programs that are available at any given moment. There will be a place for every program, and every program will be in place.

Do not miss a single issue. Subscribe or renew your subscription now, at the temporary low subscription price of $1.50 per year.

Thank You, Mr. Sponsor

ON behalf of the readers of BROADCAST WEEKLY, who voiced their disappointment when "One Man's Family" was changed from an evening to a late afternoon hour, we say to the sponsor, for them, "Thank You!"

This universally loved portrayal of the Barbour Family has been restored to the hearts and homes of Pacific Coast listeners, beginning Sunday, the last day of March, at 9:30 p. m., Pacific Standard Time. In keeping with the traditions of March, the storm of protest that came in like a lion, is subdued, going out like the proverbial lamb.

For a feature to win such wide and loyal following is a rare distinction. It is likewise a fine thing for a sponsor to so promptly and pleasantly respond to the expressed interests of the listening public.

The year after year Sunday concert by the New York Philharmonic Society is a magnificent gift to the entire country. It is only a comparatively few years ago, enjoyment of the masterpieces of Symphonic Music was considered the birthright of the few. Today it is taken as a matter of course, perhaps too much so, and the growing girls and boys of the country enjoy a cultural advantage of tremendous importance.

The weekly Music Appreciation Hour, presided over by the genial dean of American symphonic music, Dr. Walter Damrosch, is today part of the educational scheme of things.

The German Requiem, by Johannes Brahms, as conducted by Arturo Toscanini recently, was a musical event of almost international importance. Works of the scope and grandeur of the Brahms Requiem are heard but rarely. To hear them is an opportunity that may come but once in a decade.

There is no decline, on the radio, of inspiring music, drama and art, education and inspiration. It is steadily increasing in variety, scope and artistic excellence. The job is to find out about it in time to assure its enjoyment. In this connection, the next issue of BROADCAST WEEKLY institutes a new feature among the many scheduled to enable radio listeners to enjoy their radio to the full. It is a popular and non-technical series of short articles on Musical Appreciation. This feature will be authentic and authoritative as to fact, and interpretation of great musical works. Notes, and the basis of the composer's inspiration will be given concerning works scheduled currently, so that you may listen to a symphony, tone poem, or opera, with a clue to its poetic and dramatic, as well as its musical significance. This new feature will start with the first April issue of BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Many of the so-called "Amateur Hours" now flooding the ether insult the intelligence of the listening public. A wave of listener protest is assuming proportions that will force such exhibitions of bad taste off the air.

Nothing is more heartless than to publicly bring ridicule upon the crudities of inexperienced but sincere aspirants for a chance to express themselves. To inflict their suffering upon the listening public is to degrade radio broadcasting.

The place for the amateur to "try out" is in the audition room. By all means, seek out new talent and afford the opportunity that is merited, but in a way to stimulate the interest of the listening public.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Consternation reigned supreme during a recent broadcast of the Mobil Magazine over KHJ. The usually letter perfect sound-effects department pulled a "brodie" and instead of the desired smashing and crackling noise as called for by the script, when a door was supposedly broken in, the doleful wail of a police siren was emitted from the phonograph on which all sound effects are recorded prior to the broadcast. Bill Goodwin, assistant production manager of the station, proved the "man of the hour" when he dashed across the studio and in one movement had silenced the machine, broken a handy piece of crating over his knee and jumped up and down on the remainder of the crate; attempt to create the desired effect. Listeners afterwards said that it was impossible to notice anything wrong with the scene. But Bill was a physical wreck for the rest of the evening.

• • • If you ask Rudy Vallee's tailor, business is just dandy. When the outfitter called at the NBC studios the other day to show the busy maestro some samples of new fabric, Rudy looked them over, passed them critically between his fingers and said casually: "I'll take one like that in blue; one like this in gray and one like this in brown. Thanks for calling. Good afternoon."

• • • Joe Twerp, tongue-twirling comic on "Sunday Night Hi Jinks" (KFWB), has appeared in six consecutive films, and is being considered by MGM as a contract player.

• • • Listeners will be glad to learn that Paul Tremaine and the band from Lonely Acres have returned to the air over KGGC in a specially recreated program. This band has long been a mystery to fans. In 1931, at the height of its popularity, it left a nationwide network for parts unknown. No information has ever been available. In bringing Paul Tremaine back to the air, KGGC will release the program on Wednesday nights at 9:30, featuring the noted Tremaine arrangements of the old negro spirituals.

• • • Tony Wons announces a new addition to his House by the Side of the Road program in Joan Kay who was heard for the first time on this NBC network feature Sunday, March 10. Although but twenty-two years of age, Miss Kay has a long list of professional engagements to her credit. Her dramatic talents will be displayed in the skits which are a part of the program, in which Wons is featured in the rôle of John Whitcomb.

• • • To become a successful radio singer one must have a good voice, must be willing to work hard, to take plenty of criticism and, last but by no means least, be able to take plenty of praise. That's the recipe for fame that Virginia Verrill, popular KHJ songstress, plans to follow. When Dick Powell, star of the Hollywood Hotel broadcast over the Columbia network, asked Virginia what was needed to attain success over the ether lanes, pert Miss Verrill lost no time in stating the above fact to the Warner Brothers star.

• • • Increasing their power 43 per cent. XEMO (865 kc.) Tijuana, Mexico, is now operating on a power of 5,000 watts and reaching into many remote and distant parts of the world, as evidenced by the DX mail recently received. A special DX broadcast is given every Saturday night at midnight (P. S. T.) lasting one hour, and featuring Jose Rubio and his Foreign Club orchestra.

• • • A strange new language is being heard at KFRC these days. The Three Rhythm Kings—Woody Newbury, Chuck Lowrey and Hal Hopper—are exchanging an amazing, amusing and strange gibberish among themselves which has the rest of the studio artists gaping in perplexity. The Three Kings started this strange new language while in high school, and with the years have added to their vocabulary. Even their wives don't know what they are talking about.

• • • Each week Station Manager Jerry King personally sends a program log to the sailors aboard the United States Navy Ship Melville? The sailors requested the log because they could tune in KFWB more easily than any other local station while at sea.

• • • Jane Pickens, of NBC's Pickens Sister trio, was a classmate of Helen Jepson, new operatic sensation, at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. Jane studied for an operatic career and still nurses a desire to sing arias. She has a vocal range from low F to high C.

• • • That pie Eddie Cantor threw in Harry (Parkyakakas) Einstein's face the other night wasn't a sound effects pie. Eddie actually had a pie in his hand, actually let fly with it, and his comedian-aim was perfect, as Einstein will avow.

• • • A harmless cello has again kept Virginia Rea and her husband, Edgar Sittig, from going aloft together. On a concert trip to Palm Beach, Sittig, a concert cellist, tried to have the instrument placed in the plane.

The rules didn't cover cellos, so the couple took the train. On the return to New York, Sittig actually got the instrument into the ship's cabin but the airplane people said no again. And so Sittig and Miss Rea came back on the train. They still haven't ridden together in the air.

• • • Ted Bindner, chief technician at station KROW, has a government permit that he values highly among his "radio career" souvenirs. It is a permit to operate—with-out entertainment, etc.—a radio transmitting station at Seattle, Washington. The station was 7HQ, of 500 watts. The certificate is numbered 199 and is dated 1920. A real souvenir.

• • • Those who entertain are used to getting requests for certain favorite musical selections from their admirers. But those watching Frank Castle during a recent broadcast over KFRC and the Columbia-Don Lee network from a San Francisco night spot, were given an added thrill and a few guffaws as well.

The request number was Ravel's "Bolero." Castle sat down at the piano and began to play. Those familiar with the selection know that it starts off very softly and builds up gradually to a very loud ending. Well, to get that loud drum effect Castle used his elbows on the keys. This time he used them a bit too enthusiastically and with disaster.

The last loud bang with his elbow knocked a leg from under the piano—and bang, the piano, Castle, music, et al—went tumblin' to the floor. Yes, the piano's loose limb has since been repaired, but Castle is still limping about.

• • • Beginning about April 1, KFVB, the Hollywood Warner Bros. station, will present a series of educational broadcasts emanating from the music department of Whittier College. A thirty-piece orchestra, conducted by Ruth Haroldson; a string quartette; and solos by Miss Haroldson will be heard.

• • • A special studio, to be used exclusively as a workshop for NBC artists, was officially dedicated recently in Radio City. Situated on the fifth floor of the RCA Building and christened "Artists' Service Studio," the studio is now available as an "idea hatchery," where NBC artists may work out new ideas with complete broadcasting equipment—except for the audience.

This latest step in Artists' Service expansion program assures every artist with a new idea of a suitable "laboratory" to experiment. An engineer and production man will be available at all times and there is plenty of space in the control room for friends or clients to listen to sample broadcasts. In addition, this new studio is hooked up with all the remote control loudspeaker units throughout NBC offices.

• • • Week before last during the Wednesday night prizefight broadcast, an amusing incident took place between the KROW staff on duty there. It seems that Ted Bindner, chief technician, was sitting between Scott Weakley and "Duke" Chamberlin. Scott was pulling for one fighter, and Duke for the other, so Ted started to "holler" for the referee. Bill Meyer was handling the microphone work and got a laugh out of it. Between rounds Scott laughingly asked Bill who he was "hollering" for. And without a second's hesitation Bill replied—"For the sponsor of the broadcast, you dumbbell."

• • • When that O'Keefe person signs off with "This is Mike O'Keefe's son, Walter," he is not spoofing. The father, Michael O'Keefe, resides in Whittier, Calif., and will, if encouraged, register appropriate parental pride.

• • • Jimmie Fidler, NBC commentator, who offers Hollywood's latest news each Wednesday night has aroused a storm of comment in the film capital with his unusually frank reviews of current pictures. While most reviewers bestow only praise on films they preview, Fidler doesn't spare the bad ones. His practice of selecting "the best picture" each week, and of denoting the quality of the film by ringing four bells for a good one, and so on down to no bells for a bad one, has created a great deal of interest among Hollywood players and producers.

• • • Armand Girard, NBC basso who was a member of the NBC staff in San Francisco before he went to Radio City, sang for a distinguished audience the other day. He and Donald Novis were summoned to the White House, where they gave a recital for President Roosevelt—with "Home On the Range," the presidential favorite, as the principal number among Armand's songs.

• • • Joe Cook, comic in "Circus Night in Silvertown," draws a weekly salary running into four figures for his broadcasts over the NBC network, but 'twas not always thus. Once he earned $2 for a week's work with Dr. Johnson's medicine show, and the good doctor, for whom he had "barked" a whole week paid him off with three bottles of "Elixir of Life," which made him deathly sick and made him miss a whole week of school.

• • • You'll never see Barry McKinley, heard thrice weekly over NBC, in a night club. The youthful Ohio baritone tried 'em when he first came to New York. In the first one, he lost his hat; in the second, he didn't get anything to eat; in the third, he stopped to talk to some friend and the waiter spilled soup down his neck. It was three times and out with Barry and he's never visited a "hot spot" since.

NEWS and COMMENT

While Amos 'n' Andy are vacationing and continuing their nightly broadcasts at Palm Springs, California, they are working from one of the world's most unique radio studios, a tower perched perilously above the swanky El Mirador Hotel.

A tiny stairway requires the boys to climb four stories from the roof of their postage-stamp studio, which is sound-proofed with several thousand dollars worth of Navajo rugs. The boys, in fact, scoured all Palm Springs and borrowed nearly every heavy and expensive rug in the town. From the slits of windows they can view the entire district including the hundreds of sun-bathers. It's because of this view that the tower has been barred to visitors, and Amos 'n' Andy are the first to scan the countryside therefrom.

Outside their studio, balancing precariously on rafters, is William Bowen, the NBC technician, who sits with one hand on the dial, and the other hanging on for dear life.

Bill Hay, back in Chicago, may be envying the boys their rest, they admit, but add that at least Hay doesn't have to run up four flights of stairs several times a day, and steep stairs at that.

Al Pearce has said good-bye to the West. After six years of continual daily broadcasting, the idol of millions of afternoon radio listeners has definitely deserted the western air to accept an offer in New York. He hopes, however, that his eastern programs will also be released in the West.

When Al Pearce began his afternoon, impromptu style of entertainment in 1929, it was the first of its kind. He built up such a huge following it enabled him to smash box-office records in dozens of Coast theaters. He has played his gang of entertainers in the major cities of seven western states and British Columbia.

His afternoon programs during the six years became a radio institution.

Pacific Coast followers of One Man's Family will be able to hear the new series of broadcasts of this program at a more convenient hour because of arrangements just completed to present a second production of the weekly chapters over a western NBC network on Sunday nights at 9:30 p. m., Pacific standard time, beginning March 31, in addition to the Wednesday transcontinental NBC release at 5 p. m., Pacific standard time, starting April 3.

Listeners west of the Rockies thus will hear each episode the Sunday before it is heard by dialers in the East. They will also be able to listen to the plays on Wednesdays, since the western network, headed by KPO, will continue to release the Wednesday nation-wide broadcasts in addition to the Sunday night programs. This duplication of broadcasts each week in the West will enable children as well as adults to follow the famous Carlton E. Morse serial of American family life. The Wednesday broadcasts are being kept on the air in the West primarily for the sake of the young folk for whom the Sunday night period will be too late.

Acting upon the insistent demands of radio listeners that Hazel Warner remain on the Pacific Coast, the popular radio contralto of Al Pearce's Gang has been signed to an exclusive contract which will keep her in San Francisco.

Miss Warner will be featured in the songs that have won for her the reputation of "the Songbird of the West." She will be heard on the program with Martha Meade on Tuesdays and Thursdays and on the Sperry Sunday Special.

When Miss Warner's many loyal followers learned that she expected to go East with Al Pearce's Gang, NBC was deluged with thousands of letters and telephone calls asking that she be kept in the West. One letter came in the form of a petition signed by 2,000 listeners.

One of the outstanding figures in Australian radio circles will arrive in San Francisco late in April in the person of A. E. Bennett, managing director of 2GB, Sydney, and present president of the Australian Federation of Broadcast Stations.

Mr. Bennett will spend an entire month on the Coast visiting radio stations and transcription studios before journeying East.

A baton which directed the waltzes to which San Franciscans glided shortly after the Civil War has become one of the most highly prized possessions of Josef Hornik, NBC orchestra conductor.

It was presented to him recently by Frank Beutler, eighty-six years young, and an admirer of Hornik's.

Beutler, a youthful-looking chap, who has watched the San Francisco pageant for more than three-quarters of a century, was a mere sprig, hardly fifty-one years old when the baton's owner, Franz Stohr, famous orchestra leader of his day, presented it to his father.

Stohr was the orchestra leader at The Fountain, noted restaurant of the seventies, which was located at the corner of Sutter and Kearny streets, and Beutler's father was one of his best friends. Beutler has kept the baton all these years, but decided the other day to present it to the viennese conductor whose melodies, heard over the NBC Woman's Magazine of the Air, are his favorite radio fare. Hornik says he will use the baton on special occasions only.

They said it was one of Rudy Vallee's best Variety Hours, but few knew what the maestro went through that day before the show finally went on from the NBC studios.

Only the night before the broadcast the Six Spirits of Rhythm, whose hot Harlemesque harmonies were to be a feature of the program, lost all their instruments in a fire that destroyed the club at which they appeared nightly. But the show went on—with borrowed instruments, including a paper-wrapped suitcase which a drummer whacked with a couple of whiskbrooms.

On the same program, Ted Howard and George Sheldon, the comics, went to the microphone without their script. In introducing them, Rudy announced that a good half of what they would say that night would be extemporaneous. "It's bad for our timing," he said, "but watches have no soul."

And then, a few hours earlier, during dress rehearsal, a production director almost precipitated a small riot. The Yale glee club was waiting its turn at the microphone when the production man stepped on stage and asked loudly, but innocently, "Pardon me, but is this the Harvard glee club?"

A series of trans-Atlantic programs over National Broadcasting Company networks during the spring and summer months will bring listeners an imposing array of educational and entertaining broadcasts from Italy.

Included in the series will be the first broadcast from a gondola in Venice, music and descriptions of two of Italy's famous festivals, and the first broadcast ever made from the fiery crater of Mount Vesuvius.

The Festa del Redentore, annual celebration each August of the "Saviour's feast" by Venetian gondoliers, will be described over an NBC network, marking the first broadcast in this country from Venice. Songs of the gondoliers as they gather in front of St. Mark's Square with their gaily illuminated boats will be included in the broadcast.

On April 30 NBC listeners will hear description and music from the so-called "Calendimaggio," at Assisi, Italy. This is a celebration held every year the night of April 30, to usher in the month of May with songs in the streets and public squares. The festival dates back to medieval times.

Some time during May, NBC microphones will pick up the hiss and rumble of boiling lava in the crater of Vesuvius and will send the voice of the volcano to American audiences by short wave. Special radio equipment has been constructed which will accompany a party of scientists into the heart of the volcano's fiery crater.

Portions of the famous music festival at Florence, Italy also will be heard during short-wave broadcasts over NBC networks during May.

During June, Arturo Bonucci, famous cellist, will be heard in a concert from Rome.

A pickup from the observatory at Monte Rosa, headquarters for research work for many prominent European scientists, also is planned. The entire series is under the direction of Max Jordan, NBC director for Continental Europe, who will serve as commentator during the programs, which are being planned in cooperation with EIAR, Italian broadcasting service.

KNX (Hollywood) and KMJ (Fresno) are California outlets for Harry A. Earnshaw's "Radio Short Stories," a transcription series.

In the cast are George Fifeild, Elvia Allman, John McIntire, Margaret MacDonald, and Lindsay MacHarrie.

Beatrice Lillie, whose initial radio series has attracted wide attention with its satirical comedy, will continue to be starred over an NBC nation-wide network each Friday night at 6 p. m., Pacific standard time, through the spring and early summer. The famous comedienne has just renewed her contract to continue broadcasting until at least the end of June.

Re-signed with "Baby Beatrice," who is the only female funster to have her own program, are Lee Perrin's orchestra and the Cavaliers Quartet. The Lillie broadcasts are giving Perrin, a well-known theatrical musician, his first opportunity as a radio conductor. The Cavaliers are one of the oldest harmony groups on the kilocycle.

Warren Hull, musical comedy leading man, will remain on the program as master of ceremonies and chief "stooge" to the Lillie.

Characterizing it as the greatest honor and thrill of her life Grace Moore acknowledged the recent bestowal upon her of the annual fellowship gold medal of the Society of Arts and Sciences.

So visibly moved that tears streamed from her eyes and words caught in her throat, the golden-haired operatic star thanked the donors for the medal for distinguished service in the arts and sciences.

Miss Moore is the second woman to be so honored by the society, Eva LaGallienne, for her contribution to the drama, being the other. Others who have received the award are Thomas A. Edison, Frank Damrosch, John Phillip Sousa, Robert A. Millikan and Governor W. J. Kohler.

The medal of the society will be presented to Miss Moore on May 22 in New York.

JOAN BLAINE is more than one of those rarities, an actress who first studied law. She is a lawyer whose only legal practice was carried on before she received her law degree.

The former stage and movie actress, who takes the title rôle in NBC's Story of Mary Marlin, was serious about becoming a lawyer while attending Northwestern University. Shortly before she completed her course she visited in Tiger, Colorado, where her parents had an interest in a gold mine.

As soon as the superintendent of the mine learned Joan was a law student, he placed her in charge of the mine's legal department. She handled the affairs so skillfully the superintendent persuaded her to drop out of college for one year to remain on the job.

In her spare moments Joan also acted as supervisor of the Tiger school, which boasted three teachers and 150 pupils. When an influenza epidemic swept the camp, putting nearly two hundred miners and members of their families in the Tiger hospital, improvised in the camp dining hall, the lawyer-teacher became head nurse of the makeshift institution.

At the height of the epidemic a cave-in injured a dozen men and these, too, were brought to Joan's hospital. The future actress did not lose a patient. After eighteen months she returned to finish her law course and was presented with a large gold nugget in recognition of her services.

No sooner did she receive her bachelor of law degree, than Joan forgot all about law, and has never opened a law book since. The lure of Broadway interrupted her legal pursuits. Joan is heard daily except Saturday and Sunday at 9 a. m., P. S. T., over an NBC coast to coast network, in the Story of Mary Marlin.

FORMERLY a singing partner of Donald Novis, when both were members of the Pasadena High School Glee Club, and having studied voice under the same teacher, Allen Ray Carpenter, who taught the golden-voiced Novis, Bob Snyder, KHJ staff tenor, is rapidly winning a large following among coast listeners and bids fair to equal the popularity of his ex-singing mate.

Born in Riverside in 1905, Bob is strictly a local product and has lived all his life in the sunny southland. He attended Pasadena High, going from there to Caltech, from which he graduated in 1929. He literally "sang his way through school," serving as a member of the glee club in both high school and college. It was during this time that he got his first taste of radio work, appearing over KHJ with "Uncle John" when the station was located in the Tower of the Times.

He has been active in work at the Pasadena Community Playhouse, graduating from the Playhouse of the Theatre School, and taking part in more than fifty shows, both musical and dramatic, at that institution.

His only hobby, so he says, is the theatre, viewed from backstage. Due to his courses at Caltech, the creation of unique lighting effects holds a special appeal to him and he devotes most of his spare time to a study of these effects for use in the theatre.

Standing five feet ten inches, and weighing 180 pounds, brawny Bob is at present heard over KHJ on such programs as "Morning Musicales," on which he alternates with Marshall Sohl and Nadine Connor every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, from 8:45 to 9 a. m.; "Boleros" on Tuesdays, 7:45 to 8 p. m., and with the Grenadiers' Quartette, a featured group on numerous local and network programs.

New Topical Featurelog

The purpose of the "New Topical Featurelog" is to enable listeners to select programs by type and character. Available programs under the various group headings are listed in the order broadcast during the current week. Consult the regular day-by-day schedules for all additional programs. The "Featurelog" will be corrected and enlarged each week until all available guaranteed features are covered.—EDITOR.

The LISTENER'S NOTEBOOK

RADIO STAGES "BIG TOP" SHOW

Circus Night in Silvertown
NBC-KPO Network, Friday
Evening, 8:30

A glittering array of talent with a "big tent" background intent. This new feature permits a pleasant use of the cheery line—"hometown girl and boy make good in big city," for Tim Ryan and Irene Noblette ("Tim and Irene" to you) are co-starred with Joe Cook, B. A. Rolfe and orchestra, soloists and the Modern Choir.

Tim and Irene will be remembered for their antics on the Carefree Carnival and other West Coast programs.

It is pleasant to welcome B. A. Rolfe back to the evening hours. For many years a runner-up with Paul Whiteman for rhythmic honors, Rolfe has a stirring style all his own.

As for Joe Cook, here is hoping his delightful idiocies will find as responsive a medium in the air theatre as that of foot-lights and asbestos curtain.

The Modern Choir, billed as the Silvertown Singers, have established a niche in radio's hall of fame in an incredibly short time. This program should prove a most welcome addition to Friday's all-star features.

PROGRAM CHANGES FOR WEEK MARCH 24-30

Programs not scheduled include "The Opera Guild," tabloid operas, NBC, Sunday, 5 p. m.; Lawrence Tibbett, NBC, Tuesday, 5:30 p. m.; "Metropolitan Opera House," NBC, Saturday, 11 a. m.; "The Gibson Family," NBC, Saturday, 6:30 p. m., and Billy Batchelor in Wheatonville, CBS, Tuesday to Friday, afternoon, inclusive.

Among the new programs is the "Major Bowes' Amateur Hour," NBC, 5 p. m., Sunday.

Complete program to be presented by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, Sunday, March 4, is under classification No. 12, in the New Featurelog. It is proposed to announce all principal works to be played by symphony orchestra scheduled.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

G. J. N., San Francisco.—Current issue carries first step in development you refer to. Look for article in near future on "Radio's Old Friends."

J. C. M., Benson, Ariz.; F. C. T. and friend, Monterey, Calif.; J. B., Fresno; Mrs. E. E. S., Empire, Calif.; E. J. S., Eldridge; Mrs. L. K., V. S., Tacoma; E. C. Y., St. Helena; M. F. S.,

San Francisco.—We are pleased to note your wishes have been realized, as you will see by reading pages 3 and 6 of this issue.

Mrs. T. M., Sacramento.—Photographs requested will be published at first opportunity. Thanks for your appreciation of BROADCAST WEEKLY. Your favorite program will be listed in the new Topical Featurelog in this issue.

Mrs. J. R. T., Reno, Nevada, likes the Shell Show as it was with Rush Hughes, Yahbut and Cheerily. Would also like to have more of Horace Heidt's entertainment, and Alice King, with Horace playing the piano once in a while. * * *

EDUCATIONAL INFLUENCE OF RADIO

To attempt to belittle the educational influence of radio is to ignore the world we live in, according to Merrill Denison, whose study of "The Educational Program" has just been issued by the Radio Institute of the Audible Arts.

"With thousands of different programs broadcast daily it is impossible for radio to exert tremendous cultural and educational influences," he says. "How important this influence has been to date it is impossible to estimate, but it is safe to say that the average American is better informed on current affairs, has a wider general knowledge and is a more cultivated person than ever before."

While radio has given education a new medium, Dr. Denison believes that it has also presented it with an overwhelming challenge, calling for the abandonment of time-honored traditions of the classroom and campus, among which he includes "the professor's sacred right to be dull."

Educational programs must be entertaining if they are to hold their audience, he believes, and the educator must learn to present his material in popular form. Tedious detail, redundant exposition, weighty hair-splitting must all be renounced; and clear diction, good pronunciation, intelligence, and an imaginative grasp of the nature of broadcasting must be cultivated.

"In spite of its commercialism, radio in America is more genuinely at the service of the public than in any country in the world," he concludes. "Educational bodies have only themselves to blame if they fail to grasp the inestimable opportunities offered them."

Program listings are correct when published by Broadcast Weekly, but sale of time by stations and network and national emergencies often cause deviations which the stations cannot foresee.
