Stars of the Radio Theatre

TOMMY HARRIS, "Little King of Song," KPO

TOMMY HARRIS, "Little King of Song" has resumed his radio reign. After a plucky fight against serious illness, "Tommy" is back again with his radio friends. But that is just like Tommy.

He was only ten years old when he played hookey from school and climbed upon the stage of the Granada Theater in San Francisco to try out in a singing contest. He won the contest. Determined on an entertainer's career all the persuasion of his father, who wanted him to follow in the paternal footsteps, availed not. He cut so many classes of high school in order to appear at vaudeville houses in and around San Francisco that at seventeen his tired family finally agreed to let him discontinue school.

At eighteen he had his own dance orchestra on the President Wilson, and he and the orchestra sang and played their way around the world, visiting Italy, India, China, and Egypt. When he returned, he was offered a place on the staff of a San Francisco radio station, and has been before the microphone ever since, doing everything from comedy rôles to ballads, until illness intervened. But Tommy is back again, and we are all glad.

Special Events

His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, will be heard over combined NBC nation-wide networks on Easter Sunday, April 21, at 3:30 a. m., P. S. T., when he imparts his blessings to the crowd which gathers annually in the square before St. Peter's in Rome.

It will mark the first time that the impressive Easter ceremony, from the Loggia of St. Peter's, is heard in this country. The words of His Holiness will be short-waved across the Atlantic through the cooperation of EIAR, Italy's broadcasting service.

Impressive music of the benedictory services at St. Peter's also will be heard during the half-hour broadcast, which will be released in the West over a network headed by KPO

John Charles Thomas, famous American baritone, will return to the air as the star of a new radio dramatic serial with music in which he will both sing and act, beginning Wednesday, April 24, at 6 p. m., P. S. T.

Our Home on the Range, as the new series will be known, will feature the celebrated operatic star as a singing ranch owner, and will be on the air from Radio City studios over a nation-wide network for forty-five minutes each Wednesday.

The noted baritone will be supported in Our Home on the Range by William Daly's orchestra, and a large cast of actors and assisting vocalists now being assembled. There will be two or three soloists in addition to Thomas, and one or more vocal groups. A dramatic story of life on the range, with a strong love interest and comedy relief, will link the weekly broadcasts together. The broadcast will be heard over stations KPO KHQ KOMO KGW KFI and KDYL.

The current series of the "Church of the Air" programs will continue on the Columbia network until June 9 and present nine leading churchmen during the spring months. These broadcasts will conclude the fourth consecutive season.

Speakers scheduled, beginning Easter Sunday:

April 21—Rabbi Barnett R. Brickner, Cleveland, Ohio (Jewish).

April 28—Dr. Edgar Franklin Romig, New York, N. Y. (Dutch Reformed).

May 5—Rev. Daniel Lord, S. J., St. Louis, Mo. (Catholic).

May 12—(A prominent Mormon speaker.)

May 19—Rabbi Joseph Rauch, Louisville, Ky. (Jewish).

May 29—Rev. John M. Cooper, D. D., Washington, D. C. (Catholic).

June 2—William G. Biederman, Washington, D. C. (Christian Science).

June 9—Monsignor Frank A. Thill, Cincinnati, Ohio (Catholic).

British Radio Dramas by Radio Guild

James Hilton's radio adaptation of his novel, "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," will be heard from 11 a. m. to 12 noon, P. S. T., on Monday, April 29.

Three other radio scenarios, presented with success by the British Broadcasting Corporation, will be given their American premieres by the Radio Guild during April and May. "Pas Seul," by Laurie and Tom Devine, April 22; "Squaring the Circle," by Valentine Kataev, on May 6, and Edén Phillpotts' "Old Bannerman," on May 27.

Following is the Radio Guild schedule for April and May:

Monday, April 22—"Pas Seul," by Laurie and Tom Devine.

Monday, April 29—"Goodbye, Mr. Chips," by James Hilton and Barbara Burnham.

Monday, May 6—"Squaring the Circle," by Valentine Kataev.

Monday, May 13—"Cyrano de Bergerac," Part I, by Edmund Rostand.

Monday, May 20—"Cyrano de Bergerac," Part II.

Monday, May 27—"Old Bannerman," by Edén Phillpotts.

KGO and KDYL broadcast the Radio Guild productions.

KJBS Adds More Hours

Beginning April 29, KJBS will again extend its operating schedule, and will be on the air at 9 o'clock, P. S. T. Recently the station started broadcasting their evening sessions at 10 o'clock.

Tom Mitchell Dies

NBC folk are mourning the loss of a singing voice and a friendly laugh, stilled forever when Tom Mitchell, beloved songster of the microphone, died suddenly at his home at 1835 Vallejo Street, San Francisco, on April 9.

Tom Mitchell

Death interrupted the baritone singer, one of the most popular figures on the NBC artists' staff, just as he was preparing to leave for a morning broadcast. It apparently came without notice, and was instantaneous. The singer, although suffering from a heart ailment, had not shown signs of illness. He and Mrs. Mitchell attended the wedding of Miss Eleanor Wobber and James Leonard Hanley of San Francisco the evening previous; Mitchell was the soloist, and sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because."

Tom Mitchell was born in Bradford, Yorkshire, England, forty-four years ago. The son of a well-known musical family, he turned naturally to music, and when his parents came to the United States to live, Tom became a choir boy at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Boston, where his voice attracted much attention. He studied music in Boston, and before he was twenty was traveling on the Keith Vaudeville Circuit. Vaudeville and musical comedy in the East held him for the next few years; he scored a success in "The Three Twins" and other productions.

One of the first stage singers to become interested in radio, he chose the microphone in 1923 and sang before it in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle, and other Pacific Coast cities during the last ten years.

In addition to his wife, the singer leaves two children, Marlyn, seven, and Tom, Jr., ten, and a sister, and two brothers in Boston.

Mario Chamlee to Play Humorous Air Rôle

Tradition has it that Mario Chamlee was the first member of the Metropolitan Opera Company to sing over the radio. That was in 1922. Now he is the first operatic star to turn radio humorist.

In the new air serial, "Tony and Gus," to have its premiere April 29, Chamlee will portray the first name rôle—that of a romantic Italian youth with a consuming desire to sing in opera. Frankly humorous, the characterization contains an underlying vein of rich realism, but the script is so designed as to permit Chamlee also to sing at each broadcast.

KTAB Dedicates New Studios

In a full hour show, KTAB officially opened their new studios in San Francisco atop the Russ Building, Thursday evening, April 11. In his dedicatory remarks, Phillip G. Lasky set forth a program of expansion and service for the veteran station, on its tenth birthday. Mr. Lasky enjoys a wide reputation as one of the country's most progressive radio executives, coming to KTAB from KDYL, Salt Lake City.

The station remains under the same ownership, with Wesley I. Dumm heading the organization, and with Mr. Lasky as general manager.

Well wishers who broadcast felicitations included His Honor, Mayor Rossi, of San Francisco, and Chief of Police Quinn.

Captain Bill Royle, as master of ceremonies, introduced Don Vinton's orchestra, Jean Wakefield, Bettye Baird, Frank Galvin, Gertrude Ahearn, Chubby Coleman, and others.

Seattle Easter Service

Millions of radio listeners throughout the United States will be "tuned in" as Seattle worshippers gather this year on the slopes of Washelli for the Seventh Annual Easter Sunrise Service. The entire service will be broadcast over KOMO and a nation-wide network.

A fifty-piece symphonic orchestra, under the baton of Lloyd Solberg, will accompany the singing of the hymns by the audience as well as the choral numbers by the Amphion Society and the massed choirs of the North End churches. The latter group will sing the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's "The Messiah," as a climax to the service.

The Rev. Dr. Peter W. Erickson, pastor of the University Presbyterian Church, has been selected by the committee in charge to deliver the Easter message. Assisting clergymen will be Brig. James Dee, Divisional Commander of the Salvation Army; the Rev. B. P. Richardson, pastor of Queen Anne Baptist, and the Rev. Ernest Barber, pastor of Trinity M. E.

The Easter service will be on the air from 5:00 until 6:00 a.m., Pacific Standard time, Easter Sunday, April 21.

New Afternoon Dramatic Series

Donald Wilding brings his Neighborhood Playhouse to KJBS for a series of domestic comedy skits each Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock.

The program is best described as a domestic conversation which shows that portion of the life of a married couple generally ignored by playwrights. Portia Bradley and Donald Wilding are the sole players.

Seasoned Showmen Aiding the Amateurs

RAY PERKINS (1), whose cheery banter on the "National Amateur Night" program encourages his "finds." MAJOR EDWARD BOWES (2), veteran radio showman and good friend to hundreds of now well-known radio artists. His hour for Amateurs requires a special telephone exchange (4) to handle audience votes. "ROXY" (3), who discovers talent and develops them into stars. ARNOLD JOHNSON (5), with the president of the newly organized National Association of Amateurs.

THE amateurs have gone and done it! It is a long time since any radio idea has so quickly and so definitely become a national craze. At first, many of the shows were pretty sour. The main idea for a time was a big laugh at the expense of the "boob." In fact, "boobs" were preferred. But with the entry of seasoned showmen into the picture, cruel, vulgar methods gave way to constructive methods.

There are many highly diverting amateur hours on the air, ably presented. But it is well to define the meaning "amateur," as applied to worth-while program possibilities.

Every professional is a radio amateur in a sense, until microphone experience is attained. Every person who can claim the right to aspire to professional radio standing, based upon a real ability—undeveloped perhaps—is an amateur.

No one is really an amateur painter, musician, or writer, until ability or talent approaches very closely to professional standards. Experience, polish and study alone turns the possessor of "talent" into an "artist."

Among the able impresarios aiding the amateurs to find their opportunity, are Major Edward Bowes, S. L. Rothafel (Roxy), and Ray Perkins. These showmen recognize the possibilities of discovering genuine talent among the inexperienced.

The methods of these men are closely akin to that of consultants. They give of their experience and theatre wisdom and at no time tolerate the pitiful writhings of a deluded aspirant in public.

Out of today's crop of aspiring amateurs, if properly encouraged, or repressed, there may spring the spectacular star of stars of tomorrow.

All who are interested in making good on the air, will do well to study the methods of the seasoned showman in presenting the amateur.

There is no diploma that will take the place of experience. If you think you are an entertainer, don't try it out on your friends, but on those who do not care particularly for your feelings. Try out in amateur theatricals, small radio stations; but before even that, get the advice of a competent teacher, preferably one who will not accept pupils below a certain talent standard.

It's All In Fun

Intellectual Note

One of the girls in Phil Spitalny's "Hour of Charm" orchestra was discussing her last boy friend. "He was handsome and a snappy dresser," she summed up, "but when I discovered that he was a moron I gave him up." "I don't blame you!" a little blonde chirped. "I wouldn't want to share a husband with half a dozen wives, either."

Ψ

Why Not Add T-N-T?

A popular New York bar is now offering a new cocktail called the "Buck Rogers." "One drink and you feel as if you were in the 25th Century," is the way the bartender describes it.

Ψ

Pity the Census Taker

Two full breaths are needed to pronounce the real name of Don Mario, Spanish tenor of the Penthouse Serenade. The complete monicker is Jose Francisco Antonio Ildeberto Israel Alvarez Del Rio Loyola. The first five names are those of saints whose feast days coincided with the date of Mario's birth. Alvarez is his father's name, Del Rio is his mother's family name and Loyola, his grandmother's.

Ψ

Credit "Bill and Coo" Account

Whispering Jack Smith, who maintains a large aviary at his home in upper New York, presents engaged and newlywed radio artists with a pair of love birds.

Ψ

Bell-hop Goes Berserk

The Revelers while on tour through Iowa found themselves the victims of a vandal. When they started to dress for their performance in Davenport they discovered that someone had drawn crude sketches in pencil on their dress shirts. Investigation disclosed that it was the work of a bell-boy who resented the fact that he had written on three occasions requesting that they sing a certain number for him, and that they had failed to do so.

Ψ

"No Oom-pah Career," Says Gus

An over-anxious father wanted to get his son in Gus Haenschen's orchestra. He finally got Gus to listen to the boy while he played in a five-piece band. "No," Gus shook his head. "I can't use him. He doesn't keep time. He's way ahead of everyone in the band." The father looked at Haenschen with an annoyed expression: "And since when is it a fault to be ambitious?" he demanded.

Adventures of Gracie

Gracie buys a $500 gown so she can attend a lecture on economy to be given by her father, but she hates to spend a nickel on a telephone call to let him know she is accepting his invitation.

Ψ

Gracie's brother has such an appetite that the only thing he cannot eat for dinner is his breakfast and lunch, but he still insists on adding three hundred feet of spaghetti.

New Musical Series

Augmenting its daily musical broadcasts, KNX will present Adolph Valesco conducting his string quartette from the Russian Eagle Cafe in Hollywood, in a schedule which includes two programs on Saturday, 1:45 to 2 p. m., and 10:30 to 10:45 p. m. Valesco, at one time concert artist and member of the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, has toured Germany, Austria, France and Cuba, as director of musical groups, and in Hollywood has played for such motion picture hits as "The Merry Widow" and "The Scarlet Empress." Valesco's quartette, composed of violin, piano, cello, and bass, will specialize in Gypsy, Hungarian, and Russian music. The quartette will also be heard Monday and Wednesday at 1:45 and 10:30 p. m., Thursday at 10:30 p. m., and Friday at 1:45 p. m.

Amateur Winner Gets Own Series

For one lucky amateur, at least, the amateur hour has proved the magic carpet to success.

The lucky person is Wyoming Jack who first appeared on Major Bowes' amateur hour on March 24, and who was soon signed to broadcast daily for a week over a nationwide network, substituting for Johnny Marvin, cowboy singer.

This Chap Wanted Wings

This announcement was made in introducing an episode in the new KJBS-KQW serial, Heroes of the Air:

"WANTED—Experienced airplane pilot to volunteer for testing newly designed parachute capable of landing fully loaded airplane with passengers and mail. Pilot must have unlimited nerve, prepared for any consequences, and familiar with conditions over Tracy Airport. Apply at once."

The announcement was barely completed, when an adventurous listener telephoned the station and pleaded for the job. Could he have delayed phoning only a moment longer, he would have heard that Mickey Mckeon accepted the job years ago and that the "wanted" announcement was merely an introduction of the chapter which followed.

◆ FANFARE ◆

By J. LESTER MALLOY

Concerning columnists: Mrs. Winchell's talkative little boy succumbed to the lure of the air lanes—or was it the lure of sponsored air lanes—long ago. Now, another Call-Bulletin columnist has visited us via our radio. And in a very dramatic manner, at that. For, the other evening we heard Bob Hall, none other, emoting in a KTAB skit called "Love Flies Out the Window." A most unhappy vehicle, but a most happy performance. Attention, sponsors!

oOo

We can pardon a Swedish accent when it is done the right way . . . and we don't mean the usual burlesqued and deliberate "aye tank aye" way. We mean the appealing Scandinavian comedy of "Jennie Jensen," as served to KFRC's Happy-Go-Lucky audience last Monday. Since then we have listened for her again, but in vain. Whoever you may be, "Jennie Jensen," we hope you read this. Also, we hope you'll return . . . and soon!

oOo

From rhumba-land comes Chiquita, bringing a radiant radio personality and a radiant radio voice to add zest to Walter Beban's KYA broadcasts, heard nightly over KYA. If the composer in Walter is looking for new song inspiration . . . well, how about "Chiquita" for a title? Or has the name been used before. Anyway, those Mexican eyes rhyme with lots of nice things and could be set to music.

oOo

"Hush mah mouth if ah ain't goin' South," said two gentlemen from the North. And promptly proceeded to come San Francisco way. Only their mouths refused to be hushed. Because KPO-KGO have two new announcers, in the garrulous persons of Archie Presby (KGW-KEX, Portland) and Art Lindsay (KOMO-KJR, Seattle).

oOo

What a difference a Day made at KPO. In fact, what a delectable difference Nola Day would make for any broadcasting system. Her voice has that pulsating persuasiveness of rich rhythm, which she uses to the best of advantage in her distinctive delineation of popular melodies. Just the same, we harbor the sneaking suspicion that Miss Day could skip buckety-buckety (apologies, Bea Lillie) from "Clouds" to "Carmen" with no more effort than it takes Charlotte Greenwood to scale the backyard fence.

Ether Jottings

Dick Webster, songster with the Jimmie Grier band at the Biltmore Bowl, Los Angeles, has donned makeup for a part in the new Fox production "Black Sheep."

Webster's orchestra pals claim he will play the title rôle, but Webster dismisses the accusation with a sliding motion of a finger across the throat.

Ferde Grofe, new musical director of the program starring Gracie Allen and George Burns, was met by a brass band in the persons of Gracie, George and a great noisy welcome, when he arrived on the West Coast for his first broadcast with the program.

When Gracie Allen learned that Al Jolson's program would be rebroadcast for Pacific Coast audiences on Monday nights after the eastern broadcast on Saturdays, the zanyesque zanyess blamed it on the difference between the four times zones.

Isham Jones' small son, Davie, now four, is being started on piano lessons by his famous father.

The Radio Tattler

• • • Playing in a Broadway night club, in addition to the strenuous weekly schedule of rehearsals for his Variety Hour, makes Rudy Vallee one of the busiest men on the Great White Way. His only recreation during the day comes from 6 to 7 at night. He eats a light snack, then wanders, hatless, from one restaurant to another, sitting a moment at this table and that, to chat. Then having enjoyed his busman's holiday, he goes back to his own restaurant.

• • • Walter Winchell has signed a contract to broadcast under the same sponsorship next year. The Broadway reporter will be off the air during the summer, but will come back in the fall for thirty-nine weeks.

• • • When Werner Janssen was honored the other night at the Lotus Club by a big cut of the town's bigwigs, it was Helen Jepson who was called upon to provide the entertainment. Helen's songs received stirring rounds of applause, giving the Broadway columnists another chance to praise the beautiful lyric soprano, who proved the hit newcomer of the current "Met" season.

• • • Pauline Holden, versatile young radio star heard over KNX, is "living like regular people" for the first time in three years. For the past three years, Pauline, as a member of Bill Sharples' Breakfast Club Gang, had to get up at five o'clock seven days a week, to make that early morning broadcast. Now her earliest program is at 9:15, when she and Buddy Bumpkin call the "Whopper Club" to order three mornings a week. Her next broadcast is at 12:15 p. m., with the Venus Melody Masters. Pauline says she still gets a thrill at having breakfast when other folks do.

• • • Buddy Bumpkin may be "just a kid" to his radio audience, but in North Hollywood he's a theatrical director, in capital letters, having founded the North Hollywood Little Theater, and as director, cracked the whip over the aspiring members of the group. In a year and a half, Buddy has directed and produced thirty-eight one-act plays, nine three-act plays, and two musical comedies. On April 10, the group is presenting a three-act mystery drama at the Soldiers' Home in Sawtelle.

• • • Chuck Lowry, who is one of KFRC's "Three Rhythm Kings," is none too happy to confess that his mischievous son Jimmy, celebrated his birthday of six months, by crashing the Three Rhythm King's latest recording "Just Once Too Often," into tiny bits.

• • • Francis Mullins, commercial representative of KOMO-KJR in Seattle, has a new daughter, Sharon Lou, and Leo Moen, announcer, is the proud papa of a baby boy.

• • • John Pearson, KOMO--KJR announcer, who entertains thousands of radio listeners in Seattle and the Northwest every Thursday night with his characterizations of "True Stories of the Northwest Mounted Police," is not going to join the army, but he is going to be all dolled up in a fancy uniform just the same. If television were further advanced, you could see Pearson next Thursday night in the complete uniform of the Canadian Mounties.

Sergeant Peter Ballard, a former member of the famous organization, now living in Kirkland, was so impressed with the authenticity of the stories that he has sent his uniform to Pearson to wear during the broadcast.

Coakley Orchestra Goes East

"Coast-to-Coast with Coakley" will become a caravan rather than a radio announcement when Tom Coakley and his orchestra bow out of San Francisco's Palace Hotel for an invasion of the East.

With the Coakley finals set for Saturday night, May 4, plans have been completed for the biggest farewell party ever staged, a grand tribute to these "local boys who have made good." A series of one-night appearances in California will take the Coakley group into Texas and across the southern route, with Chicago set as the first goal.

Ben Klassen Going East

Ben Klassen, NBC tenor heard on the Carefree Carnival, Waltz Time and other popular programs, is about to take Horace Greeley's advice—in reverse form.

The tall, blond, good-looking lad who came to radio from the business world and developed within a few years into one of the most interesting figures before the microphone, leaves the NBC staff in San Francisco on May 4. He and Mrs. Klassen will go to New York, where Klassen's voice has created much attention through transcontinental broadcasts on which he has been heard. His last broadcast from the NBC studios in San Francisco probably will be Waltz Time, Saturday night, May 4.

Klassen is the sixth western personality to try his fortunes in Radio City within the last year or so. Tim Ryan and Irene Nobilette, Armand Girard, and Nelson Case, all formerly with the NBC in San Francisco, scored instant success in the East, as did Tommy Harris, whose career was cut short by a sudden illness from which has just returned to the air.

KNX to BroadcastColiseum Easter Services

At sunrise Easter morning, April 21, KNX will broadcast an Easter sunrise service, sponsored by the Federated Church Brotherhoods of California, backed by civic leaders and organizations such as the Chamber of Commerce, the Girl Scouts, Parent-Teachers Association, and broadcast from the Los Angeles Coliseum.

A magnificent pageant, directed by Grace Gerrish Andrews, with music directed by S. Earle Blakeslee, is to be given with a cast of 3,000 people and an orchestra of 150 pieces.

Among the groups participating in the event will be 1,000 mother singers of the Parent-Teachers Association, 400 Job's Daughters, 1,000 girls from the Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and Girl Reserves, and choral groups including the Latter Day Saints, Chaffey Junior College, Vermont Square Church, United Methodist Church, Macsmen Male Chorus, and the Glendale Male Chorus. A 150-piece orchestra will provide the music for the services.

With J. Farrell MacDonald, motion picture actor and professor of cinemaphotography at the University of Southern California, as narrator of events, the entire impressive Easter service from the Coliseum will be broadcast over KNX, Hollywood, starting at 4:30 a. m.

Better Homes in America

The first national convention of "Better Homes in America" will be held by means of radio over the Columbia chain on Monday, April 29, in conjunction with the National Better Homes Week and will be heard on the Pacific Coast between 12:00 and 12:30 p. m., P. S. T. The principal speaker on the program will be Herbert Hoover, honorary chairman of "Better Homes in America."

CBS Star Observes Help with Derby

Bob Trout and Westbrook Van Voorhees, well known for their exceptional handling of CBS special features and public events, have been chosen to assist Thomas Bryan George in creating word pictures of Kentucky Derby which will be broadcast over the Columbia network on Saturday, May 4.

"The Answer"

At two o'clock on the afternoon of Easter Sunday, April 21, KVI will present a radio dramatization of "The Answer," a special play written by Georgia Backus, nationally known radio writer.

The play, based upon the events at the time of the Resurrection of Jesus, is a beautiful presentation of the Easter Story. The cast for the play includes Ruth Moline, Coe Norton, Salem Nourse, Morris Summers, Merle Benedict, and Harry Kane. Special music for the program will be furnished by a concert orchestra directed by George Johnson. The half-hour production is under the direction of Maurice Webster, program director of KVI.

"The House of Glass" Starting May 1

Billy Artzt's orchestra has been selected to furnish the music on Gertrude Berg's new radio serial, "The House of Glass," which makes its debut over a KPO network on Wednesday, May 1, at 7:30 p. m.

In "The House of Glass," the human story of people at a summer hotel in the Catskills. Artzt's orchestra will become the "hotel orchestra," providing the instrumental music each week. Some vocal music also will be introduced in the half hour program.

Stations in the West broadcasting this program are KPO KHQ KOMO KGW KFI KDYL.
