Foreword

THE Television industry continues to expand, and with that expansion the International Television Almanac continues to keep pace. Here in its Tenth Annual Edition, the recognized reference book has come to share the position of reputability which for so many years has been enjoyed by its companion volume, the International Motion Picture Almanac. Since some of the executive and much of the talent personnel work in both media of expression and communication, the notable Who's Who section is again usefully common to both books. All the rest of the Television Almanac concerns itself with a body of valued information pertinent especially to Television. As in the case of its older sister publication, the Television Almanac hews to the tradition which has made its name a byword in the industry it serves.

HAVE YOU SEEN WHO'S CHECKING IN AT ABC?

Richard Basehart, Walter Brennan, George Burns, Bing Crosby, Tony Franciosa, Carolyn Jones, Robert Lansing, Dorothy Malone, Elizabeth Montgomery, Kathy Nolan, Mickey Rooney and Connie Stevens, are all going to unpack great new shows this Fall on the ABC Television Network. Here's what to look for.

Bing will be a family man. Mickey will own a marina. George will own an apartment house, with Connie his favorite tenant. Dorothy will live in Peyton Place. Richard will live in a submarine. Kathy will be a Wave. Walter will be a tycoon. Tony will be a playboy. Elizabeth will be a witch. Carolyn will be John Astin's not-so-typical wife in "The Addams Family." Robert Lansing will fly B-17's in "12 O'Clock High." And ABC will be the better for all of them.

Not to mention John McIntire, Vincent Edwards, Vic Morrow, Rick Jason, Ernest Borgnine, Patty Duke, Gene Barry, Jimmy Dean, Fred Flintstone, and the two stars viewers chose as their favorite new television performers, David Janssen and Inger Stevens.

But the "regularly scheduled" stars are only part of the story. ABC is also going to present a number of big stars in special programs. Dinah Shore will do seven—four in prime time and three, especially for the ladies, in daytime. Sophia Loren will conduct a tour of Rome with Vittorio de Sica and Marcello Mastroianni. Gordon and Sheila MacRae will do three 60-minute variety specials. "Hollywood Palace" will continue to book a glittering array of emcees like Borge and Chevalier.

Of course, you're also going to see some people on ABC this Fall who aren't so well known—yet. Like Sammy Jackson, who'll star in "No Time for Sergeants," Mia Farrow, who'll play Allison MacKenzie in "Peyton Place," and a new animated adventure hero, "Jonny Quest."

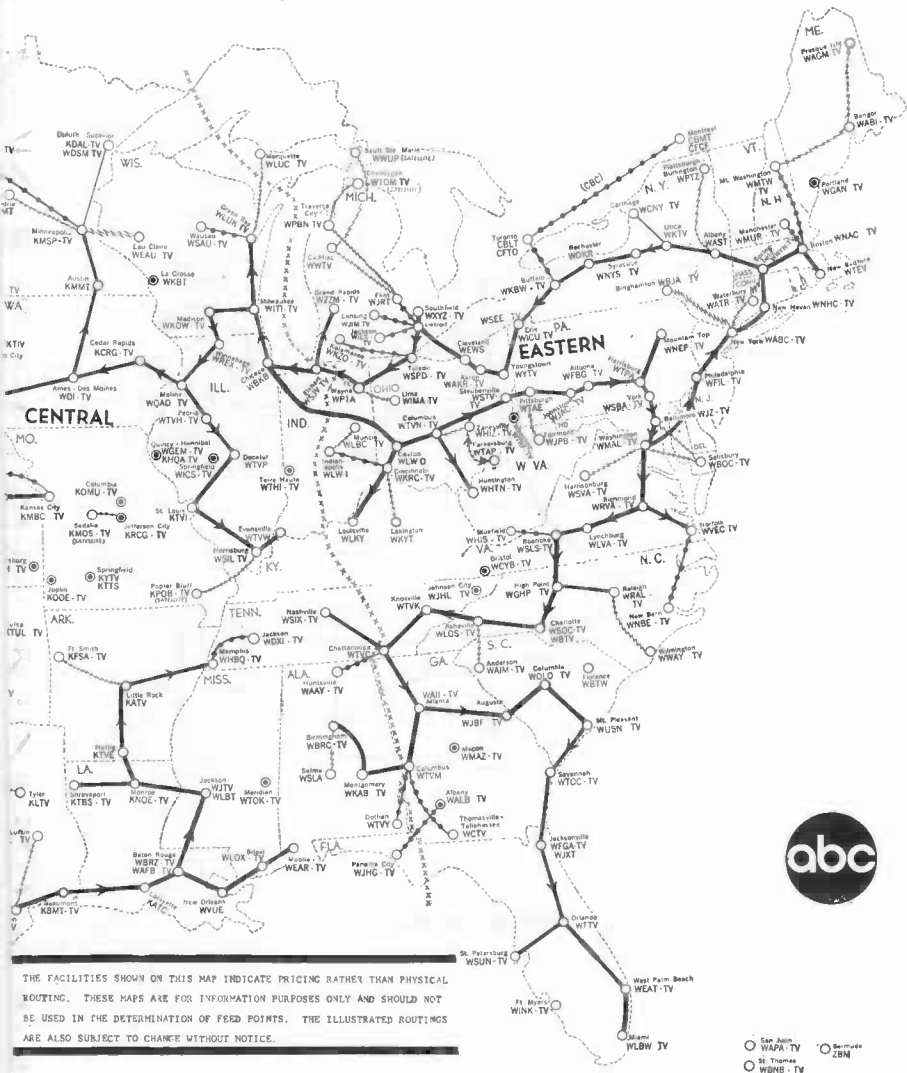

But if ABC has a way of helping make new stars, it has a way of keeping its established stars happy, too. Ozzie and Harriet Nelson have raised their family on ABC. Lawrence Welk has been with us for nine years. Donna Reed for six. Fred MacMurray for four. And they'll all be part of ABC's lineup again this Fall, a diversified schedule that includes comedy, drama, adventure, variety—and lots and lots of stars.

The number of homes using television during an average minute in 1963 showed increases over 1962 in all three day parts. The weekday afternoon segment recorded the highest percent increase, an eight percent gain over 1962, and the highest numerical increase, just over 900,000 homes. More significantly, all three day parts recorded upturns in the percentage of television homes viewing during the average minute. In the evening segment, the upturn reversed a long-standing downward trend.

ASCAP'S 50th Anniversary

The Music of America 1914-1964

1964 marks the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

Organized in 1914 by Victor Herbert and his colleagues, ASCAP has always been an unincorporated, non-profit, membership association which today numbers 10,000 outstanding men and women who write and publish our nation's musical works.

Members of ASCAP represent every phase of musical literature:

the popular songs of today, the standards of yesterday, the Broadway and motion picture hits, the finest symphonic, concert and religious works, jazz, folk, country and band music.

The Society serves the American public by encouraging musically creative talent. It also serves the public by making it possible for every user of copyrighted music to obtain, quickly and reasonably, the right to perform that music publicly for profit through a single ASCAP license.

TV Channel Allocations

On April 13, 1952, the Federal Communications Commission announced lifting of the "freeze" on new television station construction which had been in effect since September 30, 1948. In so doing, it also made public the allocation of the new ultra-high frequency channels and some changes in the existing very-high frequency bands. Theoretically, allocation of the ultra-high frequency channels makes possible 2,053 new stations in 1,291 communities. This included 242 exclusive educational outlets and was in addition to the 108 TV stations then on the air. As of June 30, 1962, there were 612 TV stations on the air. Of these 508 were VHF and 104 were UHF. Of the VHF channels, 464 were commercial and 44 were non-commercial. Of the UHF channels, 84 were commercial and 29 non-commercial. Following is the complete list of cities and the channels assigned to each. The population of each community is given in parentheses. The (*) preceding a channel number indicates a frequency reserved for educational use.

BRITISH YEAR IN REVIEW

by WILLIAM PAY

London, October, 1964

WITH TV license holders soaring to 13,036,499 in mid-1964, Great Britain has undoubtedly become a "nation of television viewers." There is a total viewing audience of something like 45 million people and 40 per cent of these say that TV is their main or only form of relaxation. It has been estimated that six out of 10 people "look-in" six or seven days a week.

Not surprisingly therefore, with an audience of such dimension, the industry is passing through a period of extensive change and expansion. Already in being is the British Broadcasting Corporation's second programme—BBC 2; the introduction of the first 625-line—as opposed to 405-line—transmissions, and a pay-TV experiment. On the horizon are such developments as a second commercial channel; the beginning of colour TV by 1967, and—because of the public acceptance of "pirate" ship radio stations—there is every likelihood of commercial radio being permitted, at least on a localized basis.

There continues a healthy battle for viewers between the Government-sponsored British Broadcasting Corporation and the Independent Television Authority's 14 programme contractors who are commercial operators sustained by advertising revenues.

After a period of uncertainty brought about by the findings of the Government's Pilkington Committee which were pronouncedly anti-commercial television and pro-BBC, the ITA contractors have had their licenses to operate renewed under the 1964 Television Act for a further three years. This relatively short period was, not surprisingly, criticized by the contractors on the ground that it gives rise to insecurity. Chairman of the ITA, Lord Hill of Luton, replied thus: "It was because of the prospect of a second service that the new programme contractors were limited to a period of three years. Companies with a record for enterprise can hardly fail to be in a better position when new contracts are considered than those which have been content to mark time."

OTHER crosses the contractors have had to bear under the new Act are the introduction of a commercial TV levy on net advertising receipts and the ITA getting power to decide which of the programmes shall be networked, and at what price the originating company shall sell to the recipient companies. Commenting on the levy, which is based on a sliding scale of between 22½ and 45 per cent on all revenue after the first £1,500,000, Sir Robert Renwick, chairman of Associated Television, stated: "The amount of this reprehensible levy, as far as can be judged, amounts to something in the order of £4,500,000 on a full year's trading." On the ITA's powers to decide which programmes shall be networked, Sir Robert said: "It is not too much to say that the new Television Act converts what had hitherto been a free market economy into a state-controlled economy."

This levy, however, was introduced by the Government in order to level off the high profits arising during the present monopoly phase and, it is hoped, will be abolished entirely when companies are in direct competition with one another. It has meant, however, an end to the "boom" days when a commercial TV licence was considered a "licence to print money." Nevertheless, advertising expenditure on television continues to increase and the contractors are, for example, reporting such profits as: Associated Rediffusion, £8,146,205; Associated Television, £5,460,424.

On the "battle for viewers" front, at the time of reporting, the commercial networks had gained ground over the BBC. Of every 100 viewers, 53 were watching ITA programmes against 47 watching BBC. But it is a seesaw battle. Currently, the BBC is suffering from the "resting" of some of its more popular series such as Maigret, Step-tot and Son and That Was the Week That Was. On the other hand, the commercial network's Coronation Street and Sunday Night at the London Palladium go from strength to strength. Also, it is during the Winter months the BBC tends to score with its outside sports programmes.

British programmes continue to dominate on both channels, although this situation is obviously affected by the quota system, which permits only 14 per cent of foreign material to be screened. This trend is a reversal of the earlier preference for American programmes. Today, where they compete, invariably viewers prefer the home product.

AS for the quality of the programmes, a survey conducted by the ITA itself gives a fair summing-up of viewers' likes and dislikes. The nationwide survey showed that 41 per cent of viewers thought it was "very true" that there was too much emphasis on sex. A further 21 per cent thought it was "partly true." ITA was almost exonerated on charges of using bad language, not showing enough serious programmes and interviewers being rude to people. More than half the viewers felt there was no justification for these charges.

American programmes found almost equal favour and disfavour, although some thought there were too many, they were almost equally balanced by others who have no complaint against the number of American imports. The most convincing vote of confidence went to ITA's news programmes. Ninety per cent of viewers thought its news coverage good. Other programmes that found a satisfactory audience on the whole were variety programmes, comedy shows, series and serials, sports, current affairs and programmes of local interest. ITA plays came in for some heavy criticism with only 39 per cent of viewers showing satisfaction with them.

It is early days yet to judge the success or otherwise of BBC 2—the Corporation's second channel setup to provide a "planned alternative." The BBC admits to disappointment at its initial viewing figures but points to the fact that BBC 2 is broadcast on the new 625-line UHF (Ultra High Frequency) system which requires viewers to spend considerable sums of money to receive the programmes. The short answer is that some of its programmes have hit the public's imagination while many haven't. Nevertheless, by this time next year—in the words of its chief of programmes, Michael Peacock—this brave experiment might well prove to be more than a "minority" channel and be hailed as a "flip" rather than a "flop."

FEATURE cinema pictures will play a major part in the launching of the three-year pay-TV experiment which is expected to get under way during 1965. Under sufferance, the film industry has agreed to permit the screening of six-month-old cinema features on pay-TV, providing it is not to the detriment of local exhibitors. Indeed, it is this insistence on safeguards that has held up the issuing of licences to the five prospective pay-TV operators. At this reporting only one of the five, Telemeter Programmes, has been issued with a licence. The principal stockholders and areas of the five are:

CALEDONIAN TELEVISION (Penicull, nr. Edinburgh; Dundee) Sir Tom O'Brien; Horizon Pictures; Loral Relayvision.

CHOICEVIEW (Leicester; London) Rank Organisation; Rediffusion.

PAY-TV (Sheffield: Westminster and Southwark) Associated British Picture Corporation; British Relay Wireless; British Home Entertainment.

TELEMETER PROGRAMMES (Merton, Morden, Mitcham and Wimbledon; Billingham) British Telemeter Home Viewing; Time Inc.; British Lion Films; Granada Group; The Financial News; Paramount Pictures; private investors.

TOLVISION (Luton and Bedford; and a London area) R. Sternberg; Sir Isaac Wolfson; Bentworth Trust (associated with Hambros Bank); News of the World Organisation; Dr. J. Pomeraniec.

British film producers—at all levels—look forward to pay-TV as an additional source of revenue and it is anticipated that many new companies will be formed to produce for the new medium. John Davis, head of the Rank Organisation, even went so far as to declare: "I can see pay-TV as a possible opening for film-making on a scale we have never yet experienced in this country. It could employ all those skills and techniques which have been nurtured in the film industry. Pay-TV will not conveniently vanish merely because people pretend it is not there or try to thwart a fully justified experiment. If the public want it, sooner or later it will come. Obstructionism can, in the long run, do the cinema nothing but harm. Let the trials at least be given a fair chance, so that we can make a reasonable assessment in the light of the facts, not theories."

One development that is a certainty is the interchange of programmes between British and American TV units.

It is the overseas markets, in fact, that are proving more and more important to the British productions and series both for the BBC and commercial TV companies. Associated Television, for instance, through its American subsidiary, Independent Television Corporation, last year increased its Western Hemisphere sales to a figure in excess of £4,600,000.

ONE particularly interesting sale was the £100,000 paid by Embassy Pictures for the scripts of the highly successful BBC comedy series Steptoe and Son. This fee included the cooperation of writers Ray Galton and Alan Simpson in adapting the series for American audiences, where it will be presented with American actors. It was the first sale of its kind and might well open the door for more British television comedy in America.

The decision on Britain's colour TV system awaits the deliberations of a meeting of European experts (CCLR) in April, 1965, when, if that meeting fails to agree on a common system, Britain will adopt the system of its choice. Regardless of this delay, it is confidently expected that a colour service will begin early in 1967.

An early morning satellite relay of the world heavyweight championship fight between Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay attracted an audience of 5,000,000 viewers throughout Britain. A film of the fight shown in the evening drew 20,250,000 viewers.

It's an indication of the possibilities ahead for British TV. As ITA's Lord Hill so aptly sized up the future: "Television is in its early days—just scratching the surface of its possibilities. It must experiment and experiment."

TELEVISION IN CANADA

Toronto, October, 1964

THESE are changes in the wind for the television industry in this country. The results of a study by a three-man Committee on Broadcasting are awaited, and expected in January, 1965. Its study follows that of another troika which undertook a study of broadcast problems at the request of the Government.

The results of the Broadcast Committee, headed by Robert M. Fowler, who was chairman of the Royal Commission on Broadcasting, 1955-57, will set the guideposts for broadcasting in this country for the next decade. Assisting Fowler are Marc Lalonde, a Montreal lawyer, and G. Ernest Steele, Undersecretary of State. They will act as an advisory body to the State Secretary, Maurice Lamontagne, who answers for the industry in Parliament. The studies by the newest committee have been in private, although it is welcoming briefs from all segments of the industry and has made its own investigation of the broadcasting industry in the United States and overseas.

It is working from considerations put before it by an earlier body which included Dr. Andrew Stewart, chairman of the Board of Broadcast Governors which regulates broadcasting in Canada; J. Alphonse Ouimet, president of the state-owned broadcasting system, Canadian Broadcasting Corp., and Don Jamieson, president of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters, to which the operators of independent stations belong.

First change for the industry is the request by Dr. Stewart to be relieved of his post at the end of the year. There has been no word as to who will replace the man who has implemented a policy of competition for the key stations of the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. set by the former Government. It is not known what sort of regulatory body will be set up by the Government following the results of the latest study.

Subjects before the Fowler Committee include looking into the need for amendments, if any, to the Broadcasting Act; the CBC organizational structure; the International Service; the CBC plans for consolidating operations under one roof in Montreal and in Toronto; color telecasting, and the need for alternate TV services in many communities.

The Fowler Commission of 1955-57 recommended the establishment of the BBG as a regulatory body and it replaced the CBC as the over-all authority. The BBG has not objected to the CBC's desire to leave it, but the CAB doesn't look forward with glee to it being the only subject of a future BBG.

An earlier study by the BBG into color resulted in its conclusion that the time had not yet arrived when it could recommend that color TV begin. But lobbying by the equipment manufacturers prompted an announcement of yet another study by the BBG. This was given a hiatus in the light of the activity of the Fowler Committee, much to the chagrin of the manufacturers.

Color telecasts from American cities are received in many Canadian cities, but there has been no public outcry that stations in Canada telecast in color. Key to the operation of any color telecasting in this country would be color operations by the CBC. Color is low on the list of any priorities to be set by the Fowler Committee. Some private stations (although not the private network, CTV) are said to be anxious to experiment with color now, but are prevented by the BBG freeze.

The Fowler Committee is not holding public hearings. It has received briefs. It has held sessions with both the Canadian Association of Broadcasters and the CBC, besides individual broadcasters. It has retained legal and accounting experts to help sift the mass of data the probe is encountering. It is not expected to officiate at the liquidation of the CBC because Fowler is a known proponent of public broadcasting.

Community antenna television is yet another hot issue in this country. The Government imposed a freeze on new outlets last December. Meantime interim measures to insure effective Canadian ownership of outlets established in the future have been imposed. The measures fell short of those proposed in a joint report by the BBG and Transport Department officials.

The Government now has all license applications referred to the BBG. As yet the BBG has no constitutional authority in the area. Community antenna licenses have to be reissued every year. One of the most important approvals was given in the purchase by the Columbia Broadcasting System into Canadian Wirevision Limited, Vancouver. It was approved because the deal originated before the first signs of trouble with the Government.

The Government was to insure that no CATV system can be more than 25 per cent foreign-owned, a regulation now applicable to radio and TV stations. The Government is worried that U.S. ownership of CATV systems will spread and that the growing popularity of TV by cable, and especially the U.S. channels they bring in, will prove a long-range threat to the economic security of regular Canadian commercial stations. The concern reflects the Government's adherence to protectionism, both economic and cultural.

Already there is a barricade, namely the 55 per cent Canadian-content requirement.

This limits the number of canned U.S. shows local stations can import. Since the CATV had not yet come under the BBG, it has not been bound by the content rule and has been free to pipe in all the U.S. channels it wants.

In yet another direction of wired-TV, Teleneter continues its experiment in the suburban municipality of Toronto, Etobicoke. Whereas it began with nearly 6,000 drops, the figure has shrunk, according to best reports, to something over 2,000.

The profit picture is healthy for Canadian TV stations. The latest figures from the BBG show that in 1961, established TV stations had virtually no increase in revenue, while expenses increased 12 per cent, resulting in a severe decline in operating profit. The three-year returns indicate an increase in total broadcast revenue of 14 per cent, 1963 over 1962, and an increase of 46 per cent from 1961 to 1963. In 1961, the aggregate loss of 19 of the 42 established TV stations exceeded the aggregate profit of the remainder. The aggregate net profit of the 42 stations in 1963 was $625,000 and in 1963 was $4,249,000. Seven established stations recorded losses in 1963.

The returns from the 12 stations which began operation after Dec. 31, 1959, showed four with an operating loss for the year. The nine new "second" (stations which began operation in competition with already-established CBC stations) in the major markets have participated in the general improvement in the industry, according to the BBG report. Between 1962 and 1963 total broadcast revenue increased from $19,928,000 to $22,990,000, or 15 per cent.

The Canadian Broadcasting Corp., the state-owned system showed an income of $111,378,000 compared with $104,057,000 the previous year. Cost of programs went up to $74,387,746 from $69,912,265. The Parliamentary grant was up to $78,439,000 from $73,994,000 and is expected to be more than $4 per capita.

Despite the apparent increase in profits and expenditures by both private and public television stations, the market is not a good one for the distributor of programs. Where one might expect considerable competition resulting, such is not the case. An independent attitude is taken by both private and public stations.

Yet with Canadian TV's faults as a potential source of revenue, the cities of Toronto and Montreal have been developed into fine sources of talent. A considerable amount of original production is found in both cities, with Toronto the source of English programming and Montreal the source of French programming.

Film production, too, has become an activity to be reckoned with in the two cities. In Toronto, for instance, Maxine Samuels is working on her third series of Forest Rangers, a kiddie series of half-hours, which not only has a ready market in this country, but also in the United States. She has on the boards yet another series, On the Seaway. These will be hour-long shows, and financing is coming from England.

—Harry Allen, Jr.

ARGENTINA

1964 seems to be definitely the year of expansion of Argentina's TV. Fourteen new channels have been authorized by the Government to perform, though only of these, so far, has really started transmitting regularly. By its own will, it has placed itself in "secondary position," meaning a station of low potency. We refer to Channel 8, of the city of San Juan, owned by Jorge Estornell, well known film distributor in the area.

Another small experimental station has been inaugurated in the city of San Rafael, province of Mendoza, under Channel 6, Government owned, which operates without commercial publicity. The existing channels in Buenos Aires are: No. 7 (State owned and with relay stations in Rosario, Santa Fe, Parana and San Francisco); 9 (Alejandro S. Romay, owned of Radio Libertad); 11 (which is openly competing with the other channels for an audience on a base of costly programs) and 13 (which still maintains its leading position in audience and in sales). Between these four channels an average of 50 hours daily is irradiated condensing all types of programs, alive and filmed.

In Mar del Plata, Argentina's fashionable seaside summer resort, Channel 8 transmits 5 hours daily for an area that comprises 85,000 receivers (An average of 5, 6 persons for each receiver). In the city of Cordoba with over 400,000 inhabitants, two channels exist. No. 10 belonging to the National University of Cordoba and No. 12, privately owned, linked to Channel 13 of Buenos Aires by booking contracts. Between both channels, 18 hours daily are covered in an area that comprises over 100,000 receivers. In the city of Mendoza, at the foot of the Andes, Channel 7 irradiates 12 hours daily.

The new channels which have been authorized but are still not functioning, are: Channel 2 in the city of La Plata; Channels 3 and 5, in Rosario (Second city in importance with 780,000 inhabitants); Channels 7 and 9, in Bahia Blanca, (the latter channel owned by the newspaper "La Nueva Provincia"); Channel 10, second station in Mar del Plata; Channel 7, in Santiago del Estero; Channel 13, in Corrientes; Channel 7, in Neuquen; Channel 9, in Comodoro Rivadavia; Channel 9, in Resistencia and Channel 7, in Jujuy.

AUSTRALIA

In the past 12 months television has grown larger and larger on the Australian horizon. In Sydney and Melbourne the two commercial stations and one national station in each state continue to flourish, with the commercial stations outstripping by far the national station in general appeal. There are now more than a million TV set licenses issued in Australia. A third commercial station (Channel 0) is being erected in Melbourne and will operate officially in August, 1964.

TV also will go to 13 rural areas in Australia in the next couple of years as a result of moves by the Postmaster General's department to call for applications for licences in specified country centres. The A.B.C. will operate one station in each of the 13 areas and more than one commercial station may operate in each area also, a maximum total of 26 licences in these areas is quite possible.

To get a commercial licence local independent companies have to show that they are not associated with metropolitan stations and that they can provide a service comparable to that available to city viewers.

TV is having its first setback with insurance premiums on TV sets being increased drastically because of thefts of sets and racketeering by certain repair servicemen.

Despite agitation by Actors Equity, the bulk of material on TV—certainly the most popular programmes—is American filmed shows. It is not likely that there will be any change of policy on the part of TV station managers to grant more time to local talent at the expense of imported material.

AUSTRIA

The Austrian government-owned-and-operated television is still in a situation of expansion and improvement and is steadily gaining ground throughout Austria.

Austrian TV, which has the highest tax in Europe ($2 per month per set) should now be able to considerably improve its programming as well as its inadequate operating facilities since tax revenues are increasing steadily and rapidly. However, Austrian government-owned TV is part and parcel of Austrian government-owned broadcasting. Since the latter has recently found itself in grave financial difficulties, these—though behind the scenes to be sure—also reach deeply into the television administration.

Spots for commercials at $28 per second have caught on and can now be purchased for the time between 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. Occasionally they even fill intermission time during stage plays. In the first quarter of the year a total advertising time of 45 minutes was sold and transmitted, whereas this figure has increased sharply. The quality of programs has improved somewhat. Live TV plays have reached an excellent level and live transmissions from the legitimate stage are shown more frequently.

The program breakdown is as follows: 23.2% news and sports, 15.2% movies, 13.4% educational, 12% musical and quiz shows, 2.7% serious music, 6.8% TV plays and 26.7% are participation programs in Eurovision or programs taken over directly from neighbouring Germany. Transmission time is from 7:30 to 10:30 P.M.; nightly with transmissions from Germany at times lasting until 11:00 P.M.

BRAZIL

There are now 34 television stations operational in Brazil. It is estimated, based on requests for channels from the Government licensing board, that by the end of 1964 between 45 to 50 stations will be on the air in Brazil.

Although there are actually only 1,500,000 receivers in the country, local manufacturers are hard pressed to keep up with the demand, the existing stations can reach 80 percent of Brazil's 70 million population, and national hookups can, and have already, linked Rio Grande in the south with Belem in the north, along over 4.5 thousand miles of coastline, going inland to include the cities of Brazilia, Goiania and Belo Horizonte.

Brazilian law requires that all owners of radio or TV stations be of Brazilian nationality. A further law stipulates that all foreign films shown on TV be dubbed and that no station may transmit more than 22 half-hours of foreign films for each 72 hours of weekly transmission time. Stations which transmit less than 12 hours per day have a corresponding lower quota.

Seven sound studios, four in Rio de Janeiro and three in São Paulo take care of the dubbing of all the American and some Italian, Argentine and Mexican films that come into the country. An attempt has been made to produce TV serials in Brazil, but up to now it has been cheaper to import and dub them. This may change in the near future, owing to the instability of the Brazilian currency and the restrictions on profit remissions. Another aspect which may restrict the importation of film serials is a rising nationalism and a move to return to a law passed by ex-President Janio Quadros, which severely restricts the exhibition of foreign film serials on TV.

This law was modified when the President took office, but how long this modification is going to stand up under the strain, no one can tell. It is, however, generally considered that the first American producers who bring their know-how of TV serial productions to Brazil will make a fortune.

CHINA (Communist)

The Broadcasting Administration, Peking, operates 23 TV stations and 6 relay stations but more are planned to serve this huge nation. Some of the stations serve only a few sets but these are located in communal gathering places and none are owned privately except in the case of high Communist officials.

Though TV broadcasting began in 1958, sets now total only some 25,000 located mostly in certain key cities such as Peking, Tientsin, Shanghai, Canton, Changchun, Harbin and Shenyang. It is estimated that a 9-inch set would cost a skilled worker the equivalent of seven months wages. Most stations are on the air only three hours a day and those which are classed as experimental stations even less.

No Western imports are shown and trade between American citizens and Communist China is forbidden by American law.

CHINA (Taiwan)

Since 1962 Taiwan TV Enterprise Company has been broadcasting to an audience now estimated at about 18,000 sets. Annual license fee is $1.50.

CAMBODIA

Since a fire destroyed the experimental station run by Radio Cambodge-Television in 1962 there have been no TV broadcasts but plans are under way for a new station.

DENMARK

Total number of receivers in Denmark: 700,000 (June 1, 1963).

Total number of commercial TV stations: None.

Total number of Government stations: 1.

Total coverage: 100% of population.

With the opening in the middle of June, 1960, of a transmitter covering the island of Bornholm, the Government station now has seven transmitters covering 100% of the population.

Television has increased rapidly, with a remarkable effect on the film trade. Four years ago 4,000 receivers were going.

A new television house, based upon an architect competition now finished, is about to be built during the next years. The work started last Autumn, and the first part it is estimated to be finished in two years. The whole house, with seven studios, is expected to be finished within 10 years. The sending hours, now about 19 per week, will gradually be increased. The Government station is at present operating with two studios, two reporting vans, two films vans and two video tape machines. The station has 12 news correspondents in Denmark, and the film department has 11 photographers producing about 600 bigger and smaller films for TV per year. In order to compete with German television, a complete film group has been stationed in the south of Jutland.

It is still prohibited for organized distributors to sell films to television which, however, hitherto have succeeded in obtaining feature films from other

Taxation on television receivers is 15 per cent of the wholesale price, plus a tax of kr.3.15 per tube in each receiver. The license to the state is d.kr.75.—per year as against d.kr.22.—for radio sets.

Television and Danish sports unions have reached an agreement according to which each sports union is free to negotiate with television, which always offers to pay an estimated loss for showing the special event on TV. Until now comparatively few sports events have been shown on TV.

Television is controlled by the state, and there is no advertising in the programmes.

FINLAND

During April, 1957, tests began for the new Finnish TV. Ordinary TV programs began in the autumn of 1957—officially, Southern Finland can see programs from Soviet-Estonia; the Southwest Finland from Stockholm; and the east of Finland from Leningrad, USSR. A television set owner in Helsinki can now see TV programs every day in the week,—without paying any licenses. The Finnish radio plans to build a TV-network. Then shall the whole of Southern Finland—with the half of the population of the country—2,000,000—see the Finnish TV. Part of the programs shall be sponsored, the Finnish Radio Network will sell some of the TV-time to interested companies.

FRANCE

The number of TV sets in France rose from 3,512,935 in 1962 to 4,600,000 in 1963 including 16,573 in cafes and public places. The most important development is the Second Chain which will start putting out programmes in the Paris and Lille areas in April, 1964. The Second Chain, as it was at first suggested, will not be "high brow" but will include a wide variety of programmes.

It is estimated that here are at least 100,000 clandestine TV sets in France which do not pay tax. The Second Chain will use two studios for direct broadcasts, and one for films. The existing chain has eight studios for direct broadcasts and seven for films. During the year experiments were carried out in colour.

One important change to be recorded is that the structure of French Radio and TV has been modified by act of Parliament. Now known as the Office of Radio and TV it is run by a governing board presided over by a Director General and named by the Government.

In principal, this Board, which includes representatives of public bodies as well as TV and representatives of Ministries is supposed to be independent but the influence of the Government is not likely to be lessened.

The Government has the right to use TV as it wishes on condition that the public is informed that the Government is responsible for such announcements and programmes.

In the new Statutes advertising has no place but the Government refused to guarantee that if the question did arise Parliament would be given to opportunity of discussing the question.

French TV prefers to produce its own films but over the past year it has entered several co-production agreements with Tele-Hachette and Pathé.

GERMANY

Television has made progress in Germany in the past year.

The number of registered receivers, which passed the million mark in November 1957, was up to 9,534,866 as of October, 1964, including West Berlin. Thus Germany is holding its second place in Europe, after Great Britain.

Under the auspices of the ARD (Arbeitsgemeinschaft der Rundfunkanstalten Deutschlands), a public corporation for sound and television broadcasting, a combined television programme is presented daily in the Federal Republic of Germany. In conjunction with the undermentioned Länder or State Broadcasting Corporations this programme is televised simultaneously by all television stations in the Federal Republic including West Berlin: Bavarian Radio/BR, Munich 2, Rundfunkplatz 1, Hessian Radio/HR, Frankfurt a. Main, Bertramstrasse 8, North German Radio/NDR, Hamburg 13, Rothenbaumchaussee 132/34, Radio Bremen/RB, Bremen, Heinrich Hertz-Strasse 13, Saarland Radio/SR, Saarbrücken, Schloss Halberg, Free Berlin Radio/SFB, Berlin 19, Masurenallee 8-14, South German Radio/SDR, Stuttgart, Neckarstrasse 145, South West Radio/SWF, Baden Baden-Hans Bredow-Strasse 16, West German Radio/WDR, Cologne, Wallrafplatz 5.

Programmes are compiled monthly at joined programme conferences which are attended by representatives of the abovementioned broadcasting corporations. The official Programme Compiler of the ARD acts as Chairman at these conferences. According to a fixed percentage each of the said corporations contributed its share towards the programme and is responsible for its own production, programme contributions and for the contents of such contributions as well as for the transmission thereof. The whole structure of these combined programmes is subject to a programme scheme.

Programme contributions received, are compiled by the Coordination Section of the ARD with the co-operation of the representatives of the State Broadcasting Corporations in accordance with this scheme. On the other hand the said broadcasting establishments have to review these programme contributions, see to the supply of programmes and the employment of staff. The Programme Compiler is also in charge of programmes which are kept in reserve in case of emergency.

Apart from these combined programmes, the State Broadcasting Corporation also televise regional programmes on week-days between 6.15 p.m. and 8.00 p.m. for the areas within their television range. In the same areas private companies cater for commercial television. It consists of advertisement slogans phrased by advertising agencies and may not exceed 20 minutes per day in terms of a ruling by the Minister-Presidents of the said states and have to be televised before 8.00 p.m. No transmissions are made in respect of sponsored programmes over either commercial television, combined programmes or regional programmes by the ARD.

All the State Broadcasting Corporations are represented by the ARD in regard to mutual matters concerning foreign countries.

The ARD is a member of the European Broadcasting Union where it represents German Television in matters concerning departmental boards and committees. The International exchange of programmes, especially the Eurovision and commitments towards foreign countries outside the sphere of regional programmes, all form part of the programme-coordination of German Television.

The Second Programme of German Television, abbreviated ZDF for Zweites Deutsches Fernsehen, which was started during 1961/62 in terms of a State-Agreement by all the German States, is also a public corporation with its headquarters in Mainz, Grosse Bleiche. The ZDF is centrally administered, acts independently from the ARD and since the 1st April, 1963 it transmits programmes on Band IV/V. The "Intendant" (general manager) of this ZDF is Professor Dr. Karl Holzamer and their program director Ulrich Grahlmann.

There is an Agreement of Co-ordination between the ARD and the ZDF to eliminate the overlapping of programmes.

In the fall of 1964, some stations started a third program, which are telecasted on a regional basis. Other stations will follow.

In the Soviet Zone of Germany there are today 1,600,000 television receivers, an increase of roughly 350,000 in the past year. Some 15 different types of television sets are offered by the four television equipment producers in the Soviet Zone.

GREECE

There is no television service as yet in this country. The negotiations which the Government had started last year had not reached the final conclusion so no progress has been made as regards the plans set forth in 1963.

The general intention is to develop the first TV network so as to be launched in 1966. The second stage which will cover the country nationwide will be ready for operation in 1971 with 14 stations but only one channel.

The estimated budget for the whole project is about $7,000,000. It is understood that this TV network will be a state monopoly like the sound broadcasting and the responsibility of this service also will be vested in the National Broadcasting Organisation.

The reason for the TV lag until now was mainly the geographical layout of this country which would make nationwide service extremely expensive.

GUAM (U.S. Possession)

Kuam Television operates one station on this remote Pacific Island and serves an estimated 45,000 sets in the hands of Americans and natives.

HOLLAND

On a total population of 12 million people the approximate number of more than 1,750,000 sets is very high compared with the situation in other countries, and still the influence of TV is sharp. It means a very strong competition to motion picture theatres. There is not yet any commercial TV.

TV in Holland is organized by the Nederlandse Televisie Stichting (NTS), under governmental control, with five sub-divisions: a Roman-Catholic section, a Protestant section, a political (social democratic) section, another Christian division and a neutral section. The broadcasting companies, K.R.O., N.C.R.V., V.A.R.A., V.P.R.O. and A.V.R.O., represented by these divisions, want to keep their influence on TV.

The approximate cost of a TV set, antennae included, is from fl. 650.—to fl. 1,800.—($1 is fl. 3.60). A yearly contribution of fl. 36.—is due by the owners of a set, to be paid to the government.

Feature films are programmed once a week, on Monday night. These pictures are old ones though of post war vintage. A number of Rank pictures and some 20th-Fox and French films are among them, also Italian films, pictures of four to seven years ago. The Dutch trade organization does not permit new pictures to be televised.

Quality of programs is average. Competition to motion pictures is obvious, though the Dutch trade organization is following the development closely.

The purchase of TV sets by installment buying is still popular, otherwise the increase of the number of sets could not have been effected. The Dutch TV station is in Bussum.

Philips is a big manufacturer of TV sets.

—PHILIP DE SCHAAP

HONG KONG

Since 1957 Rediffusion (HK) Ltd. has operated closed circuit TV for a limited number of subscribers in English. This service will be augmented by a Chinese language service. Regular TV service is planned in the future by the British Government authorities. Sets estimated at 20,000.

INDIA

Television has still not made any commercial progress, and is confined entirely to the Delhi region, where about 300 sets are used almost exclusively for educational purposes in the schools. Philips of Holland appears to have a lead as far as TV in this country is concerned. Prospects of development of TV in other parts of the country are dim, at least in the foreseeable near future, and at any rate, until the emergency created by the Chinese threat on the northern border is resolved.

—V. DORISWAMY

INDONESIA

One station, RRI-TV, Jakarta, is on the air an average of two hours daily. Sets are estimated at 10,000.

IRELAND

Telefs Eireann is the official name of the television service in Ireland.

Television, like sound broadcasting, is run as an independent State Statutory body and responsibility for both services is vested in Radio Eireann, the Broadcasting Authority. This Authority, appointed by the Government, consists of nine members serving on a part-time basis under a chairman selected by the Government. The present chairman is Eamonn Andrews, an Irishman who has had wide experience in British television and radio.

The Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, who is responsible for the autonomously operated Authority, reserves to himself the duties of fixing and collecting license fees from domestic viewers, licenses transmitting stations, and has a veto on the appointment and conditions of the Authority's top executive, the director general, who is employed full time. Kevin McCourt, is currently director general.

Telefs Eireann opened in January, 1962, with one transmitter in the Dublin area serving an estimated population of 1,200,000 people. It now has five transmitters sending the one national programme. The transmitters are situated in Dublin, Sligo, Co. Clare, Co. Cork and Co. Carlow. The first two both transmit on 625 and 405 lines, the rest use 625 line standard.

The Authority, which has the responsibility to provide programmes of suitable cultural and national content, began with 45 hours a week but now transmits between 43 and 44 hours, of that 22 to 24 hours are home originated programmes, the rest imported from Britain and the United States.

There are over 275,000 receiving sets in operation and about 150,000 of these are able to receive programmes from Britain's BBC-TV and Independent TV stations as well as Telefs Eireann.

Already Telefs Eireann is earning a substantial revenue from the sale of spot advertising time to commercial interests, but still remains dependent on State funds support.

ISRAEL

There is still no television service in this country. However, negotiations have been held with various foreign organizations with the view to eventually establishing a TV service, as a result of which instructional TV will be established in the near future.

—ALBERT de MATALON

ITALY

Italian television is entering its eleventh year. It is operated by RAI (The Italian Radio Broadcasting System), which is now known as RAI-TV. There are main offices in Rome, Turin and Milan, but all contracts for programs, films, live talent, etc., are finalized in the Rome Office.

The number of sets at the end of 1962 numbered 3,500,000. There are two channels, but only 1,500,000 sets are equipped for both channels. The regular shows run from 3 P.M. to 12, but on certain mornings there are children's shows and adult education programs. The sets are more thickly distributed through North and Central Italy, while there are fewer in Southern Italy and the Islands (Sicily and Sardinia). Despite the predominantly mountainous nature of the Italian Peninsula, reception is excellent in all areas due to a system of 400 relays.

The Italian TV programs are basically similar in variety to the American programs: films, drama, quizzes, news, sports events and broadcasts of special events. Advertising takes up about 20 per cent of the time. There is a 12,000 lira (about $20) yearly tax for subscribers.

Both the Radio and TV systems are considered among the best in Europe from a technical viewpoint. Eurovision and Telstar connections are perfect. From a survey conducted by RAI-TV, there are 15,000,000 TV spectators between 9 P.M. and 10 P.M. (This includes spectators in public places). The TV vs. movie problem has been to some extent eased in Italy with the recent ANICA-RAI-TV (1963) accord whereby not more than two full length features on each of the two channels may be shown weekly. Furthermore, films may not be broadcast on Thursdays, Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays.

With radio and TV subscriptions, plus advertising, RAI-TV's revenue is very high.

During election campaigns, all political parties are allowed the same amount of time on all stations.

JAPAN

Japan has come from one television station in 1953 to the present total of 375 stations and relays, and it is estimated that in a few years the number will exceed 900, "over-blanketing" a nation which now claims 87% coverage.

Whether the total of sets is now 16 million or closer to 17 million is just an educated guess since figures are based on the reports of the collectors for the quasi-governmental Nippon Hoso Kyokai (NHK) which operates the 65% segment of the stations and relay stations which do not accept advertising. Set owners being what they are the world over, it may well be that many have not reported their sets in order to avoid the 92¢ monthly fee which NHK insists on even if the set owners claim that they listen only to commercial stations.

NHK operates two nation-wide networks: one for general patronage and the other as educational. The private stations and their affiliates, though some describe themselves as educational outlets, stick to the commercial brand of TV with all the gimmicks to the trade, including singing commercials.

Imported TV features, comprising about 3% of NHK's total time and 12% of all commercial stations' time, are almost invariably dubbed in Japanese. Full length cinema films are comparatively scarce on Japanese TV; what there are is mostly ancient American features or European films of a somewhat later vintage. Up to the present the Japanese studios have enforced a ban which allowed few Japanese movies to be shown on TV. There are reports that this ban has been rescinded in some quarters and more Japanese full length films will soon make their appearance.

Fiscal policies for the import into Japan of TV features and cinema films for showing on TV are subject to changes and various interpretations of the rules. Generally speaking, an imported 30-minute is kept within the $1,000 to $1,500 boundary while efforts are made to keep a 60-minute show to a $2,500 ceiling (with no mention of the number of showings authorized. Efforts are also made to keep full length cinema films to the $2,500 prescribed limit. The rules are also somewhat modified by the requirement to receive automatic approval for imports and for approval to remit payment for the purchase, since "bargain" prices well below the above limits seem to be granted approval more easily.

What this boils down to is that Japan is seeking bargains in TV entertainment since the prescribed prices are very low for such features when the huge Japanese audience is taken into consideration. In fact, the prices for the imports are so low that they are well below the cost of a Japanese production even when the much smaller wages for performers and technicians are taken into account. The fact that sympathetic producers abroad were willing to give TV bargains to Japanese buyers has not earned any gratitude or goodwill for them; on the contrary, the easing of financial restrictions found the Japanese fighting harder than ever for low prices with threats of cutting down on imports and the mounting of more domestic shows.

Actually, the Japanese audience is now pretty well hooked on a number of American TV shows and it is unlikely that the Japanese buyers could stop them completely without repercussions. The popularity of some American shows has been so great that the Japanese buyers have brought some of the performers to Japan on profitable personal appearance tours. The performers themselves have admitted that they never received adulation in America as they did in Japan.

On the other hand, the Japanese have themselves developed some very popular shows with wide audience appeal. To be sure, they are not fit for export; in fact, except for a few travelogues and cartoons Japan has sold no TV product abroad.

The Japanese have been luckier in other fields: their TV sets, both regular and transistor, have been sold abroad in huge quantities at prices well below the prices charged in Japan, and they are not only exporting TV broadcasting equipment but also setting up whole stations, networks and relay stations abroad.

Color sets are still limited in Japan by their high cost and it is not expected that relaxed import restrictions for American color sets will make much difference. Japan uses the same line system as American TV broadcasters but American sets must be altered to take care of different cycles and somewhat decreased voltage makes a transformer necessary for most imported sets.

Commercial stations are expected to pass the government networks in gross receipts; the former are estimated to take in about $14 million a year in fees from set-owners.

Most sales of imported TV shows are handled by middlemen but information regarding addresses and affiliations of commercial stations may be had by contacting National Association of Commercial Broadcasters in Japan, Daimi Namiya Building, 2, 7-chome Nishi Ginza, Tokyo. Address of the government networks' headquarters is Nippon Hoso Kyokai, NHK Building, 2-3 Uchisaiwai-cho, Minato-ku, Tokyo. The address of commercial networks can be found in the World TV Broadcasters list in this almanac.

Japanese commercial broadcasters average 50% film and 50% live or videotaped; NHK about 50% videotaped, 40% live and 10% film. At present virtually all receivers in Japan are domestic products with most having only 14-inch screens or less.

Japanese commercial TV billings in 1963 were $249 million.

KOREA (South)

Television was introduced into South Korea in 1956 by the commercial station HLKZ-TV operated by Daehan Broadcasting Co. but a fire wiped out the venture in 1959. Meanwhile in 1957 the United Nations Command, United States Forces Korea, established AFKN-TV to provide entertainment for the armed forces.

In 1961 the Government-owned Korean Broadcasting System's KBS-TV went into operation, and soon there were 40,000 sets in the Seoul area alone in civilian hands. The present regime has discouraged growth of civilian studios. Plans to develop relay stations to serve points not covered by the Seoul stations are under consideration.

LEBANON

A television broadcasting service was launched in Lebanon in May, 1959. Programs are scheduled for three to four hours daily. In addition, Lebanese viewers are able to pick up broadcasts from Cyprus and some European stations. Lebanese National Television, the new company, is owned by shareholders and directed by technicians who studied in the U.S. and Europe.

In 1960 a second station started operations. This is government-owned and operated. There are no government controls on the formation of TV broadcasting companies.

TV receivers are expensive, the average price being $300 a set. Sets now on the market come from U.S., England and Germany. By 1962 considerably more than half the population owned sets.

—IBRAHIM H. ZEIN

MALAYSIA

TV Singapura went on the air in Singapore in 1963 and sets in the city are estimated at over 100,000. TV Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur is also on the air now and there are plans for one additional station in both cities.

MEXICO

Private surveys indicate that Mexico has approximately two million television receivers in operation, with at least half of these located in and around Mexico City.

In the last few years, TV broadcasting has expanded to cover a large part of the country, with local stations programmed through videotape and many in network hookups with the Telesistema organization of Mexico City, which dominates the industry from their headquarters in Telecentro, the "TV City" of this country.

Television started in Mexico in 1950 and has grown by leaps and bounds, with 28 stations listed on government records, including one non-commercial station, an educational broadcaster operated on Channel 11 by the National Polytechnic Institute, a university-level government school in Mexico City.

In addition there are six other stations in Mexico City, including the re-broadcast stations that carry Channel two and channel four programs. Channels seven, nine and three are hooked up permanently in a network with Channel two.

Applications are pending for additional stations, including one in the "Chamizal" area, formerly of El Paso, Texas, which has been ceded to Mexico in accordance with treaties with the United States; as well as for Channel Eight, which would be independent of the Telesistema group, and Channel 16 (XHCT-TV), designed to broadcast commercially exclusively in color. At present, Channel Five broadcasts experimentally in color one hour a day.

At least twenty of Mexico's 29 states and two territories now enjoy television programs, served by the Channel Two and Four networks and by ten local stations affiliated with Telesistema. The local stations are in Torreón, Monterrey, (2), Guadalajara, Hermosillo, Mexicali, Tijuana, Tampico, Nuevo Laredo and Merida.

The relay stations in the network are located at Paso de Cortez, Zamorano, Tepatitlan, and Guadalajara, serving the states of Mexico, Morelos, Guerrero, Oaxaca, Hidalgo, Puebla, Veracruz, Tlaxcala, Queretaro, Guanajuato, Michoacán, San Luis Potosí, and Jalisco.

The TV network "umbrella" covers viewers in the following cities, in addition to those mentioned in the local stations:

Toluca, Ixtapan de la Sal, Ozumba, Atlacomulco, Chilapa, Ixtlahuaca, Acambay, Tlanepantla, Texcoco, Amecameca, Cuautla, Teloloapan, Acapulco, Huajuapán de León, Pachuca, Actopan, Huichapan, Ixmiquilpan, Ozumbilla, Taxquillo, Puebla, Tehuacan, Tenango, Atlixco, Tlaxco, Teziutlán, Izúcar, Tecamachalco, Amozoc, Tepeaca, Tlacoatepec, Veracruz, Tuxpan, Cordoba, Perote, Jalapa, Fortín, Tlaxcala, Apizaco, Huamantla, Tequisquiapan, San Juan del Río, Queretaro, Caderetay, Colón Celaya, Sa. Ivatierra, Jaral, Cortazar, Victoria, Valle de

Santiago, Salamanca, Irapuato, Silao, León, San Francisco del Rincon, San Luis de la Paz, Dolores Hidalgo, Abasco, Comonfort, Escobedo, Penjamo, San Miguel Allende, San Felipe, Puruandiro, Abaro, Zamora, Zacapu, Morelia, Yurecuaro, San Luis Potosí, Río Verde, Limón, Ciudad Valles, and La Piedad.

Following is the official list of television stations operating in Mexico, as recorded at the Ministry of the Interior: Mexico City—XEQT, Channel 9; XewTV, Channel 2; XEBTV, Channel 3; XHTV, Channel 4; XHGCTV, Channel 5; XEXTV, Channel 7; XIPN, Channel 11.

Other cities: Ciudad Juárez—XEJT, Channel 5; XEPMTV, Channel 2; Monterrey—XETV, Channel 6 and XEBFTV, Channel 3; XHXTV, Channel 10; Tijuana—XEVT, Channel 6; XEWTTV, Channel 12; Guadalajara—XEWOTV, Channel 2; XHGTV, Channel 4; XHTTV, Channel 6; Tampico, XHGOTV, Channel 7; Nuevo Laredo, XEFETV, Channel 2; Hermosillo, Sonora, SEWHTV, Channel 6; Merida, SHYTV, Channel 3; Mexicali, XHBCIV, Channel 3; Colima, XHCCIV, Channel 5; Nogales, XHFATV, Channel 2; Veracruz—XHPMTV, Channel 2, and Ensenada, XHSTV, Channel 23.

At Telecentro, more than 1000 technicians work 24 hours a day to broadcast 300 hours of live programming to the 23 stations in the network, with ten videotape machines in Mexico City and 25 in other cities. More than 150 hours of videotape programs originate in Mexico City each week, and are sent also to provincial stations and abroad. Two kinescope machines prepare ten programs weekly for areas without videotape facilities.

A nationwide hook with microwave relay transmitters was completed in 1963 and has brought several special TV programs to Mexican audiences, including full coverage of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22, 1963, Eventually big league baseball, top boxing matches and other world-interest sports events will be carried. It is expected.

Mexico is continuing to cultivate markets for packaged programs in Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Central America, Peru, Colombia, Ecuador, Buenos Aires and Chile, but the biggest foreign outlet continues to be the United States, through Spanish International Broadcasting Company, which operates Channel 41 in San Antonio, Texas, and Channel 34 in Los Angeles, on UHF, with about 70 programs a week going to each station.

NEW ZEALAND

Some considerable progress has now been made in the sale and installation of T. V. Sets and the grand total for New Zealand as at the end of April 1964 was 183,785 sets. This comprises a distribution as follows: Auckland 72,309; Wellington 31,203; Christchurch 28,756; Dunedin 11,410 and the provincial towns 40,107.

Sales are expected to proceed at a fairly vigorous rate for a while yet as booster stations are being installed in many of the provincial areas in order to relay programmes from the main telecasting stations which are situated in Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch and Dunedin.

The New Zealand Broadcasting Corporation which controls both radio and television is gradually increasing the hours on which televised programmes are available and has also now introduced a few feature films as a trial to see whether or not the general public want them. The programmes are interspersed with advertising and every viewer is charged a license of £6.10.0 per annum (18 dollars). Whilst there has been a slight drop in the price of television sets they are considerably higher than in other parts of the world.

There is still a lot of dissatisfaction in regard to the quality of the programmes but it is very evident that the working class in particular are buying sets, mostly on time payment and the effect of this is that whilst the set is being paid off they are staying away from the pictures and unfortunately getting themselves out of the habit of going out for a good nights entertainment. Many smaller theatres are feeling the draught and there have been large number of closures over the past several months with quite a number more expected between now and the end of the year.

Large crowds of people are still being drawn to the big stage shows and outdoor attractions and combined with the very high standard of living in New Zealand plus the personal mobility that most families have as New Zealand now possesses practically one car to every household, all make the lot of the small subsequent run exhibitor a very hard one indeed. The really big films are still performing particularly well in the centres and the major provincials, but in many cases there is not a great deal of business left for them in the small subsequent run cinemas.

NORWAY

TV in Norway has been operating since the Fall of 1960, programmes having increased from six to eight hours per week to around 16. Present number of TV licences is around 350,000. As the TV is Government controlled and cinemas are municipal, it is the same interests prevailing in both media. If cinemas should be hurt by TV, the Finance Department and the municipalities would have to pay. An agreement has therefore been established for the procedure and policy of TV in order to hurt the cinemas as little as possible. TV will use special TV-produced shorts, cultural and documentaries, comparatively few features and preferably so late in the evening that at least the two first shows per day in the cinema should not be too much affected. Since March this year 35mm films can be sent against earlier only 16mm films.

—FINN NYMANN

OKINAWA (Ryukus)

Broadcasting began 1959 by Okinawa TV System and later joined by Ryuku Hoso Network. Two stations and a relay station serve the estimated 350,000 sets owned by Okinawans. The U. S. Government broadcasts programs in English for some 16,000 Americans who are set owners.

PERU

Television is one of Peru's fastest growing industries. There are four channels in Lima (4, 7, 9, 13).

Channel 7 is non-commercial and is operated by the Ministry of Education. It operates only a few hours a week on an erratic schedule and has few viewers. Channel 4 (Radio America) is the oldest station, working since 1958. There is a fourth operating channel in the country, channel 2 in Arequipa; it is associated with Lima's channel 13 (Radio Panamericana).

Television has a strong appeal to people of all social classes. Even in the barriadas (slums) one finds TV antennas. It is the practice there for owners to charge one sole admission to watch nightly TV. There are said to be 65,000 sets in operation in the Lima area with an average viewing audience (according to McCann Erickson, the advertising firm) of 4.5 persons per set. This would give a potential total audience of about 300,000 persons. Others place the figure higher.

Programming depends greatly on Westerns and mystery (detective) shows from the United States that have been Spanish-dubbed in Mexico. There are also many motion pictures from the United States that are either dubbed or with titles. Film programs are preferred to live because of the cost factor. There are a number of live programs—amateur talent reviews, discussions, etc. Stations prepare their own news programs using live and film sections.

A minute spot at prime time (8-10 P.M.) costs about 700 soles ($26). However, as many as 10 spots are grouped together, lessening impact.

Nevertheless, prime time is sold out. A 15-minute spot costs 200 soles ($7.41) and a half-hour show costs between 6,000 and 8,000 soles ($200-$300 approximately). The stations are working very close to the break-even point, and channel 9 failed.

PHILIPPINES

Broadcasts begun 1953 by DZAQ-TV owned by Alto Broadcasting. At present 11 stations are on the air for commercial broadcasting and one government station; of these 7 are located in Manila. Number of sets estimated at 180,000. In addition to Alto Broadcasting operators include Associated Broadcasting, Chronicle Broadcasting, Metropolitan Broadcasting, Philippines Broadcasting, Radio Mindanao Network and Republic Broadcasting. More provincial outlets are planned.

PUERTO RICO

There are about 200,000 television sets in Puerto Rico, for a population of 2,300,000. Most of the public places such as restaurants, clubs, have television sets for their patrons and the medium is available in local hotels upon request.

Even though most Puerto Ricans know English, and the number of persons who will acquire a working knowledge of English will increase considerably through intensification of English instruction in public schools and the migration of Puerto Rican families to the United States, and workers who come back from the States with more knowledge of English, television programming is in English and Spanish. WKAQ-TV, owned and operated by the newspaper El Mundo, on channel 4, has 30 per cent programs in English of which 10 per cent have Spanish sub-titles.

Kinescope versions of top North American television shows are represented on both stations.

American manufacturers of cigarettes, electric appliances, soaps, detergents, and other products which use television widely have increased their budgets for this type of advertising medium.

SCOTLAND

Lack of a formula for local programming is expected to be met during 1965 when both the British Broadcasting Corporation and the Independent Television Authority (with three regional stations in action) get going after a marking-time period. Strikes, lack of funds, and a general warming-up process have been the delaying tactics. There is no doubt that a busy time is ahead for producers, writers and artistes, and that new ideas are needed for programming.

The popularity of ITV programs was shown even during the few brief days of a recent technicians' union strike, when viewers, though on summer vacations, complained of the absence of such favorites as "Coronation Street," etc. Among Scottish programs that are popular, the news-magazines, with their local slant and parade of local personalities and people-in-the-news, continue to have high ratings. In comedy "The Adventures of Francie and Josie," a situation series starring two comedians, Rikki Fulton and Jack Milroy, has family appeal, and has been networked to several other regions of Britain. The BBC register with documentaries and "The White Heather Club," and hold a strong quality readership, while ITV, on the other hand, has most appeal to the man-in-the-street and wins with its liveliness and its energetic newscasting.

Regional stations at Carlisle, in north-west England (covering South Scotland as well as North-West England), and at Aberdeen (covering North-East Scotland) have a lively regional appeal, and give generous scope to local news and features, as well as folk-song from the area. Both are now making a profit.

In Central Scotland, the heavily-populated area, Lord Thomson's Scottish Television Ltd., which pioneered commercial television in Scotland, claims to be transmitting now to over 1,000,000 television sets. Television Audience Measurement Ltd. say that 1,001,000 homes are now receiving independent television programs. There has also been a reported spurt in sales of sets, the figure rising from 968,000 homes in January 1964 to 1,001,000 in June 1964, thus meaning that Scottish Television goes into 76 per cent of homes in Central Scotland.

BBC plans to bring BBC-2 television to Scotland remain for the end of 1965, and a new high-power ultra-high-frequency television station for 625-line transmission to Central Scotland, to be sited at Black Hill, Lanarkshire, is due to be operating by the end of 1965. It is one of 17 new UHF stations approved in the U. K.

Under new plans, the three ITV stations and the BBC headquarters in Glasgow are likely to be contributing more programs in documentaries, comedy and drama to the national network before December 1965.

SOUTH AFRICA

South African Minister of Posts and Telegraphs Dr. Albert Hertzog persisting in his adamant stand against the introduction of television into this country.

The South African Broadcasting Corp. held contracts with Agence France Presse and other organizations for the supply of news films for showing overseas, and, in fact, its small film unit has already supplied Agence France Presse and United Press International with newsclips for foreign TV.

One of the SABC's senior directors, Mr. Norman Filmer, the man who toured Australia and New Zealand on TV research, and later made a European visit on SABC business, said that these newsclips were available to any agency that wanted to avail itself of the opportunity.

Minister for Education, Senator Jan de Klerk, who has done much for film exhibitors in overruling Censor Board decisions in certain instances where appeals had been made by the distributors concerned, said that the recently formed National Film Board had no plans for making television films.

And yet, the South African Information Department, as well as the South African Tourist Corporation, both official Government bodies, each with its own film division, had been producing documentaries and other films for overseas television release before their film divisions were absorbed as part of the now unified National Film Board. And, despite denials, the NFB have been allegedly advertising for qualified TV staff in Rhodesia.

Every official move made points to TV preparation one way or another.

On February 6th, 1964 the Copyright Bill was introduced into Parliament. This Bill provides, among other things, for a fifty year copyright on any television broadcasts made by the SABC.

Closed circuit television had been banned, today, permission has been granted to 54 Government, Provincial, Commercial, Industrial, Mining and other authorities for its use.

Two senior officials had been sent overseas on a probe as a result of which, according to the Administrator of the Transvaal, Mr. F. H. Odendaal, on May 21st. last, closed circuit television may be introduced into Transvaal schools.

And, referring back to the French telefilm contracts, Parliamentary Opposition Party member and its chief protagonist for TV, Etienne Malan is quoted as reporting that the Agreement disclosed that the SABC would retain the rights on the films for two years from the date on which television was introduced in South Africa, and that the "First Showing" would be when the films were telecast over the whole television network of S. A.

The Agreement also provided, for some of the films having only one showing "over the telecasts" of S. A. and that there could be a first showing at no charge during the trial period when S. A. television was being started. Full payment would be made when the TV networks of the SABC come into normal operation.

The fog of repetitive and strong arguments for and against television in this country is still there, it is bound to be—keep any commodity in short supply and see what forms uppermost discussion, but it is lifting. It appears from current events that even those who oppose it, are beginning to admit and realize, though reluctantly, its advent.

Whether by change of policy or for any other reason, it is a fairly safe bet to proclaim that S.A.T.V. will see its first transmission before the end of 1968.

SOUTH KOREA

Korea Broadcasting System (KBS), government-owned, has been broadcasting through its Seoul station since 1961 and plans a network to cover the whole nation. Though monthly fees of 80¢ are collected from set-owners, commercials are also accepted. An earlier commercial station was burnt out and did not resume broadcasting, but Tongyang TV Company is planning a new privately-owned station. Receivers estimated at 55,000, mostly Japanese-made. The United Nations military command also operates a number of TV stations to entertain the troops.

SWEDEN

The Swedish TV began in the autumn of 1956. One station was organized in Stockholm and one in Gothenburg. An ordinary TV week in Stockholm sees about 14 hours of "live" programmes and six hours of film. Swedish, French, American (USA), British and Soviet pictures have been shown on TV and series like "The Perry Como Show", "20th Century", "Perry Mason", "Hitchcock Presents", "Gunsmoke", "Disneyland", "Robin Hood" (British) and "Colonel Flack".

The future for the Swedish TV seems very promising. As of January 1, 1963, Sweden had about 1,200,000 TV sets and about 30 transmitters.

—GOESTA ERKELL

SWITZERLAND

As of May 1, 1964 there were 426,677 TV sets in operation in Switzerland 46 transmitters and boosters on the air, 25 in the German-speaking part of Switzerland, 12 in the French-speaking part and nine in the Italian-speaking Tessin.

The French and German language stations schedule about 28 hours of programming a week each; the Italian language transmitters about 24 hours weekly.

All telecasting in Switzerland is government-controlled. There are no commercial operations. The PTT administration is responsible for the transmitters and technical equipment, while the Swiss Broadcasting and Television Corporation handles all programming. Annual licences cost 84 francs for private sets and 168 for public sets.

THAILAND (Siam)

Thai Television Co., Ltd. began broadcasting 1955, now has five stations supervised by public relations department of Thai Government. Thai Army TV also operates one station and the Thai Navy plans a station. No licensing fees for sets which are estimated at about 175,000. Programs dubbed in Thai language but English-speaking viewers may get English dialogue separately from special arrangement with local radio station in Bangkok.

TURKEY

The T.V. transmitter of the Technical University of Istanbul is on the air every Thursday from 17 to 19 hours. The programme includes English lessons according to official announcements. Philips will start running shortly their own T.V. station located at their factory at Levent. German, British and American firms are interested for the construction of T.V. stations in various cities of Turkey as Ankara, Izmir and Istanbul.

In the meantime operators of various T.V. stations are visiting Turkey and interviewing the people of various subjects.

The Turkish government has received offers for T.V. stations from Japanese and other foreign firms.

—PHEDON NAZLOGLOU

UNITED ARAB REPUBLIC

A TV Arab department under the direction of the general manager, Hassan Helmi, is advisor of The General Egyptian Organization for Motion Picture, Radio and TV, attached to the Ministry of Culture and National Guidance.

A central station in Cairo of about 160 hours transmission a week through three channels covering most of the U.A.R. areas with the exception of Asswan and Luxor which is covered by a local independent transmission station of three hours transmission daily.

M. A. R. TV follow the European technical transmission with an image of 825 scansions.

The TV receivers in use number 350,000. The Arabic TV department shoots a movie news review weekly and it is sent to 35 TV stations all over the world with which Arab TV exchanges cultural and documentary materials. TV in U.A.R. arranges for an annual TV festival to be held every year. The third international festival will be held on the 20th of August, 1964 at Alexandria, for the period of one week only.

VENEZUELA

There are three commercial television stations in Venezuela:

1. Radio Caracas Television: managing director, Amable Espina, Channels 2, 3, 7 and 10. RCA equipment. This is by far the best station, with very little unsold time. It is operating about 16 hours a day.

2. Vene-Vision, Channels 4 and 9. Managing Director Valeriano Humpierrez, Marconi Equipment. This station is the previous Televisa and was completely reorganized and revamped at the beginning of 1961. It has a strong A.B.C. interest. Operating seven hours daily.

3. Ondas del Lago Television. This is the only channel in Maracaibo. Managing Director—Nicolas Vale Quintero. Operating an average of five hours daily.

There is also one Government-owned station, Televisora Nacional, channel 5, operating about four hours every evening and admitting no advertising. The programs are mostly cultural, news and documentary.

All television equipment used in Venezuela is imported, mostly from the U.S.A. No statistics are made concerning the number of sets sold or used in the country. The number of sets is privately estimated at 350,000.

The legislation ruling television permits certain percentage of total time to be used for imported filmed programs. No difficulties have arisen in selling any imported programs because of the legislation. Two new channels have been authorized, Channel 8 owned by Juan Lorenzo Mendoza (Cedesa) and Channel 11 Radio Valencia TV of which Diego Cianeros is one of the shareholders.

YUGOSLAVIA

The Yugoslav television network entered with 1964 its sixth year of so-called experimental program. The regular operation of Yugoslav television, which claims to have about 200,000 receiving sets, has been postponed for another year.

The television has already completed several relay towers which helped the programs from Belgrade, Zagreb and Ljubljana, the three complete T.V. studios, reach considerable parts of Yugoslavia, especially in Macedonia, Bosnia and Dalmatia. The three big towers completed on the Bosnian and Macedonian mountains added another two to three million people being able to receive the national programs, from any of the three television studios.

After several relay towers, including on the hill of Avala, near Belgrade, when completed soon will be 211 metres high, with a nice restaurant on its top. This one and two important in Macedonia will be completed in the course of this year.

The Yugoslav Government lifted the protection customs on imported television sets because the domestic production (under licences) cannot possibly meet the local demands. Two Yugoslav factories producing the television sets increased the production from about two hundred thousand last year to nearly three hundred thousands, but the high price remained the same—about two thousand dinars (300 dollars), which still can be bought on installment plan.

The advertisement services on Yugoslav television have increased greatly and have been modernized, with much more time devoted daily to advertisements, from Belgrade, Zagreb, Ljubljana and all other big towns and industrial towns.

All federal republics, except Montenegro, to which no Yugoslav television program has so far reached, pay thousand dinars monthly (1.33 dollars) fee, and that will remain until Yugoslav television begins regular program operations.

With the improvement of relations between Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia normalized the relations with other members of the Russian block—the Eastern Europe—and by now the Yugoslav television concluded exchange arrangements of television films thus considerably improved the quality of the programs which last at an average 4 hours daily.

The Television Code

The Television Code

A NEW CODE of standards and practices for the television industry went into effect March 1, 1952 following a series of developments almost a year in the making.

The code is an aftermath of a meeting held in Washington in June, 1951 at which NBC made public a code of its own. Set up as a standard of operations in television, this code bore an essential resemblance to the instrument earlier adopted by the same network for radio broadcasting. Both NBC codes, a Code of Standards adopted for radio by the National Association of Broadcasters—predecessor organization of the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters—in Atlantic City in 1947 and now the industry-wide TV code, drew upon the Motion Picture Production Code for their pattern.

Four subcommittees were active in preparation of the television code throughout the summer of 1951. Their tentative draft was approved by the NARTB board in September and a final polishing job undertaken in Washington shortly before the text was ratified in Chicago, October 19, 1951.

The TV code provides for a review board consisting of five members of the NAB. This board is empowered to enforce the rules governing programming and advertising. There will be issued a Seal of Approval, available to subscribing members whether affiliated with NARTB or not. While the power to hold in check unfair and unscrupulous acts will be vested in the Review Board, the common impression in television is that this will be largely an unwritten power. The Review Board was increased to seven members in June, 1959, effective January 1, 1960.

In those phases that deal with programming and its approaches, the code bears striking similarity to the Motion Picture Production Code, conceived and formulated in 1929 by Martin Quigley, and ratified by the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors Association of America, Inc. which became the Motion Picture Association of America, Inc. late in 1945 when Eric Johnston was named president.

Meeting in Bandera, Tex. in February, TV board members of NAB approved a review board of five and adopted a plan for financing administration of the code as well as an operating budget of $40,000 for the first year of operations.

There have been various revisions of the code over the years. This most recent edition, the ninth, is dated April, 1964.

Under the financing plan, each subscribing TV station pays an annual fee based on the highest hourly rate quoted on its rate card, up to a maximum of $1,500. If it is an NAB member, $250 of this is credited against NAB dues, leaving the balance for defraying code.

The Code is copyrighted by the National Association of Broadcasters. The Code Authority maintains offices in Washington, New York and Hollywood. Howard H. Bell is director, with offices in Washington.

Text of the revised code follows:

Preamble

Television is seen and heard in every type of American home. These homes include children and adults of all ages, embrace all races and all varieties of religious faith, and reach those of every educational background. It is the responsibility of television to bear constantly in mind that the audience is primarily a home audience, and consequently that television's relationship to the viewers is that between guest and host.

The revenues from advertising support the free, competitive American system of telecasting, and make available to the eyes and ears of the American people the finest programs of information, education, culture and entertainment. By law the television broadcaster is responsible for the programming of his station. He, however, is obligated to bring his positive responsibility for excellence and good taste in programming to bear upon all who have a hand in the production of programs, including networks, sponsors, producers of film and of live programs, advertising agencies, and talent agencies.

The American businesses which utilize television for conveying their advertising messages to the home by pictures with sound, seen free-of-charge on the home screen, are reminded that their responsibilities are not limited to the sale of goods and the creation of a favorable attitude toward the sponsor by the presentation of entertainment. They include, as well, responsibility for utilizing television to bring the best programs, regardless of kind, into American homes.

Television, and all who participate in it are jointly accountable to the American public for respect for the special needs of children, for community responsibility, for the advancement of education and culture, for the acceptability of the program materials chosen, for decency and decorum in production, and for propriety in advertising. This responsibility cannot be discharged by any given group of programs, but can be discharged only through the highest standards of respect for the American home, applied to every moment of every program presented by television.

In order that television programming may best serve the public interest, viewers should be encouraged to make their criticisms and positive suggestions known to the television broadcasters. Parents in particular should be urged to see to it that out of the richness of television fare, the best programs are brought to the attention of their children.

Advancement of Education and Culture

1. Commercial television provides a valuable means of augmenting the educational and cultural influences of schools, institutions of higher learning, the home, the church, museums, foundations, and other institutions devoted to education and culture.

2. It is the responsibility of a television broadcaster to call upon such institutions for counsel and cooperation and to work with them on the best methods of presenting educational and cultural materials by television. It is further the responsibility of stations, networks, advertising agencies and sponsors consciously to seek opportunities for introducing into telecasts factual materials which will aid in the enlightenment of the American public.

3. Education via television may be taken to mean that process by which the individual is brought toward informed adjustment to his society. Television is also responsible for the presentation of overtly instructional and cultural programs, scheduled so as to reach the viewers who are naturally drawn to such programs, and produced so as to attract the largest possible audience.

4. The television broadcaster should be thoroughly conversant with the educational and cultural needs and desires of the community served.

5. He should affirmatively seek out responsible and accountable educational and cultural institutions of the community with a view toward providing opportunities for the instruction and enlightenment of the viewers.

6. He should provide for reasonable experimentation in the development of programs specifically directed to the advancement of the community's culture and education.

7. It is in the interest of television as a vital medium to encourage and promote the broadcast of programs presenting genuine artistic or literary material, valid moral and social issues, significant controversial and challenging concepts and other subject matter involving adult themes. Accordingly, none of the provisions of this code, including those relating to the responsibility toward children, should be construed to prevent or impede their broadcast. All such programs, however, should be broadcast with due regard to the composition of the audience. The highest degree of care should be exercised to preserve the integrity of such programs and to ensure that the selection of themes, their treatment and presentation are made in good faith upon the basis of true instructional and entertainment values, and not for the purposes of sensationalism, to shock or exploit the audience or to appeal to prurient interests or morbid curiosity.

Responsibility Toward Children

1. The education of children involves giving them a sense of the world at large. It is not enough that only those programs which are intended for viewing by children shall be suitable to the young and immature. In addition, those programs which might be reasonably expected to hold the attention of children and which are broadcast during times of the day when children may be normally expected to constitute a substantial part of the audience should be presented with due regard for their effect on children.

2. Such subjects as violence and sex shall be presented without undue emphasis and only as required by plot development or character delineation. Crime should not be presented as attractive or as a solution to human problems, and the inevitable retribution should be made clear.

3. The broadcaster should afford opportunities for cultural growth as well as for wholesome entertainment.

4. He should develop programs to foster and promote the commonly accepted moral, social and ethical ideals characteristic of American life.

5. Programs should reflect respect for parents, for honorable behavior, and for the constituted authorities of the American community.

6. Exceptional care should be exercised with reference to kidnapping or threats of kidnapping of children in order to avoid terrorizing them.

7. Material which is excessively violent or would create morbid suspense, or other undesirable reactions in children, should be avoided.

8. Particular restraint and care in crime or mystery episodes involving children or minors, should be exercised.

Community Responsibility

1. A television broadcaster and his staff occupy a position of responsibility in the community and should conscientiously endeavor to be acquainted fully with its needs and characteristics in order better to serve the welfare of its citizens.

2. Requests for time for the placement of public service announcements or programs should be carefully reviewed with respect to the character and reputation of the group, campaign or organization involved, the public interest content of the message, and the manner of its presentation.

General Program Standards

1. Program materials should enlarge the horizons of the viewer, provide him with wholesome entertainment, afford helpful stimulation, and remind him of the responsibilities which the citizen has towards his society. The intimacy and confidence placed in Television demand of the broadcaster, the network and other program sources that they be vigilant in protecting the audience from deceptive program practices.

2. Profanity, obscenity, smut and vulgarity are forbidden, even when likely to be understood only by part of the audience. From time to time, words which have been acceptable, acquire undesirable meanings, and telecasters should be alert to eliminate such words.

3. Words (especially slang) derivative of any race, color, creed, nationality or national derivation, except wherein such usage would be for the specific purpose of effective dramatization such as combating prejudice, are forbidden, even when likely to be understood only by part of the audience. From time to time, words which have been acceptable, acquire undesirable meanings, and telecasters should be alert to eliminate such words.

4. Racial or nationality types shall not be shown on television in such a manner as to ridicule the race or nationality.

5. Attacks on religion and religious faiths are not allowed. Reverence is to mark any mention of the name of God, His attributes and powers. When religious rites are included in other than religious programs the rites shall be accurately presented. The office of minister, priest or rabbi shall not be presented in such a manner as to ridicule or impair its dignity.

6. Respect is maintained for the sanctity of marriage and the value of the home. Divorce is not treated casually as a solution for marital problems.

7. In reference to physical or mental afflictions and deformities, special precautions must be taken to avoid ridiculing sufferers from similar ailments and offending them or members of their families.

8. Excessive or unfair exploitation of others or of their physical or mental afflictions shall not be presented as praiseworthy. The presentation of cruelty, greed and selfishness as worthy motivations is to be avoided.

9. Law enforcement shall be upheld and, except where essential to the program plot, officers of the law portrayed with respect and dignity.

10. Legal, medical and other professional advice, diagnosis and treatment will be permitted only in conformity with law and recognized ethical and professional standards.

11. The use of animals both in the production of television programs and as part of television program content, shall at all times, be in conformity with accepted standards of humane treatment.

12. Care should be exercised so that cigarette smoking will not be depicted in a manner to impress the youth of our country as a desirable habit worthy of imitation.

13. Criminality shall be presented as undesirable and unsympathetic. The condoning of crime and the treatment of the commission of crime in a frivolous, cynical or callous manner is unacceptable. The presentation of techniques of crime in such detail as to invite imitation shall be avoided.

14. The presentation of murder or revenge as a motive for murder shall not be presented as justifiable.

15. Suicide as an acceptable solution for human problems is prohibited.

16. Illicit sex relations are not treated as commendable. Sex crimes and abnormalities are generally unacceptable as program material. The use of locations closely associated with sexual life or with sexual sin must be governed by good taste and delicacy.

17. Drunkenness should never be presented as desirable or prevalent. The use of liquor in program content shall be de-emphasized. The consumption of liquor in American life, when not required by the plot or for proper characterization, shall not be shown.

18. Narcotic addiction shall not be presented except as a vicious habit. The administration of illegal drugs will not be displayed.

19. The use of gambling devices or scenes necessary to the development of plot or as appropriate background is acceptable only when presented with discretion and in moderation, and in a manner which would not excite interest in, or foster, betting nor be instructional in nature.

20. Telecasts of actual sport programs at which on-the-scene betting is permitted by law should be presented in a manner in keeping with Federal, state and local laws, and should concentrate on the subject as a public sporting event.

21. Exhibitions of fortune-telling, occultism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading and numerology are acceptable only when required by plot or the theme of a program, and then the presentation should be developed in a manner designed not to foster superstition or excite interest or belief in these subjects.

22. Quiz and similar programs that are presented as contests of knowledge, information, skill or luck must, in fact, be genuine contests and the results must not be controlled by collusion with or between contestants, or any other action which will favor one contestant against any other.

23. No program shall be presented in a manner which through artifice or simulation would mislead the audience as to any material fact. Each broadcaster must exercise reasonable judgment to determine whether a particular method of presentation would constitute a material deception, or would be accepted by the audience as normal theatrical illusion.

24. The appearances or dramatization of persons featured in actual crime news will be permitted only in such light as to aid law enforcement or to report the news event.

25. The use of horror for its own sake will be eliminated; the use of visual or aural effects which would shock or alarm the viewer, and the detailed presentation of brutality or physical agony by sight or by sound are not permissible.

26. Contests may not constitute a lottery.

27. Any telecasting designed to "buy" the television audience by requiring it to listen and/or view in hope of reward rather than for the quality of the program, should be avoided.

28. The costuming of all performers shall be within the bounds of propriety and shall avoid such exposure or such emphasis on anatomical detail as would embarrass or offend home viewers.

29. The movements of dancers, actors, or other performers shall be kept within the bounds of decency, and lewdness and impropriety shall not be suggested in the positions assumed by performers.

30. Camera angles shall avoid such views of performers as to emphasize anatomical details indecently.

31. The use of the television medium to transmit information of any kind by the use of the process called "subliminal perception," or by the use of any similar technique whereby an attempt is made to convey information to the viewer by transmitting messages below the threshold of normal awareness, is not permitted.

32. The broadcaster shall be constantly alert to prevent activities that may lead to such practices as the use of scenic properties, the choice and identification of prizes, the selection of music and other creative program elements and inclusion of any identification of commercial products or services, their trade names or advertising slogans, within a program dictated by factors other than the requirements of the program itself. The acceptance of cash payments or other considerations in return for including any of the above within the program is prohibited except in accordance with Sections 317 and 508 of the Communications Act.

33. A television broadcaster should not present fictional events or other non-news material as authentic news telecasts or announcements, nor should he permit dramatizations in any program which would give the false impression that the dramatized material constitutes news. Expletives (presented aurally or pictorially) such as "flash" or "bulletin" and statements such as "we interrupt this program to bring you . . ." should be reserved specifically for news room use. However, a television broadcaster may properly exercise discretion in the use in non-news programs of words or phrases which do not necessarily imply that the material following is a news release.

34. Program content should be confined to those elements which entertain or inform the viewer and to the extent that titles, teasers and credits do not meet these criteria, they should be restricted or eliminated.

Treatment of News and Public Events

News

1. A television station's news schedule should be adequate and well-balanced.

2. News reporting should be factual, fair and without bias.

3. A television broadcaster should exercise particular discrimination in the acceptance, placement and presentation of advertising in news programs so that such advertising should be clearly distinguishable from the news content.

4. At all times, pictorial and verbal material for both news and comment should conform to other sections of these standards, wherever such sections are reasonably applicable.

5. Good taste should prevail in the selection and handling of news:

Morbid, sensational or alarming details not essential to the factual report, especially in connection with stories of crime or sex, should be avoided. News should be telecast in such a manner as to avoid panic and unnecessary alarm.

6. Commentary and analysis should be clearly identified as such.

7. Pictorial material should be chosen with care and not presented in a misleading manner.

8. All news interview programs should be governed by accepted standards of ethical journalism, under which the interviewer selects the questions to be asked. Where there is advance agreement materially restricting an important or newsworthy area of questioning, the interviewer will state on the program that such limitation has been agreed upon. Such disclosure should be made if the person being interviewed requires that questions be submitted in advance or if he participates in editing a recording of the interview prior to its use on the air.

9. A television broadcaster should exercise due care in his supervision of content, format, and presentation of newscasts originated by his station, and in his selection of newscasters, commentators, and analysts.

PUBLIC EVENTS

1. A television broadcaster has an affirmative responsibility at all times to be informed of public events, and to provide coverage consonant with the ends of an informed and enlightened citizenry.

2. The treatment of such events by a television broadcaster should provide adequate and informed coverage.

Controversial Public Issues

1. Television provides a valuable forum for the expression of responsible views on public issues of a controversial nature. The television broadcaster should seek out and develop with accountable individuals, groups and organizations, programs relating to controversial public issues of import to his fellow citizens; and to give fair representation to opposing sides of issues which materially affect the life or welfare of a substantial segment of the public.

2. Requests by individuals, groups or organizations for time to discuss their views on controversial public issues, should be considered on the basis of their individual merits, and in the light of the contribution which the use requested would make to the public interest, and to a well-balanced program structure.

3. Programs devoted to the discussion of controversial public issues should be identified as such. They should not be presented in a manner which would mislead listeners or viewers to believe that the program is purely of an entertainment, news, or other character.

Political Telecasts

1. Political telecasts should be clearly identified as such. They should not be presented by a television broadcaster in a manner which would mislead listeners or viewers to believe that the program is of any other character.

(Ref.: Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Secs. 315 and 317, and FCC Rules and Regulations, Secs. 3.654, 3.657, 3.663, as discussed in NAB's "A Political Catechism.")

Religious Programs

1. It is the responsibility of a television broadcaster to make available to the community appropriate opportunity for religious presentations.
2. Telecasting which reaches men of all creeds simultaneously should avoid attacks upon religion.
3. Religious programs should be presented respectfully and accurately and without prejudice or ridicule.
4. Religious programs should be presented by responsible individuals, groups and organizations.
5. Religious programs should place emphasis on broad religious truths, excluding the presentation of controversial or partisan views not directly or necessarily related to religion or morality.
6. In the allocation of time for telecasts of religious programs the television station should use its best efforts to apportion such time fairly among the representative faith groups of its community.

General Advertising Standards

1. This Code establishes basic standards for all television broadcasting. The principles of acceptability and good taste within the Program Standards section govern the presentation of advertising where applicable. In addition, the Code establishes in this section special standards which apply to television advertising.
2. A commercial television broadcaster makes his facilities available for the advertising of products and services and accepts commercial presentations for such advertising. However, a television broadcaster should, in recognition of his responsibility to the public, refuse the facilities of his station to an advertiser where he has good reason to doubt the integrity of the advertiser, the truth of the advertising representations, or the compliance of the advertiser with the spirit and purpose of all applicable legal requirements.
3. Identification of sponsorship must be made in all sponsored programs in accordance with the requirements of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission.
4. In consideration of the customs and attitudes of the communities served, each television broadcaster should refuse his facilities to the advertisement of products and services, or the use of advertising scripts, which the station has good reason to believe would be objectionable to a substantial and responsible segment of the community. These standards should be applied with judgment and flexibility, taking into consideration the characteristics of the medium, its home and family audience, and the form and content of the particular presentation.
5. The advertising of hard liquor (distilled spirits) is not acceptable.
6. The advertising of beer and wines is acceptable only when presented in the best of good taste and discretion, and is acceptable only subject to Federal and local laws.
7. The advertising of cigarettes should not be presented in a manner to convey the impression that cigarette smoking promotes health or is important to personal development of the youth of our country.
8. Advertising by institutions or enterprises which in their offers of instruction imply promises of employment or make exaggerated claims for the opportunities awaiting those who enroll for courses is generally unacceptable.
9. The advertising of firearms and fireworks is acceptable only subject to Federal and local laws.
10. The advertising of fortune-telling, occultism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, numerology, mind-reading, character reading or subjects of a like nature is not permitted.
11. Because all products of a personal nature create special problems, such products, when accepted, should be treated with especial emphasis on ethics and the canons of good taste. Such advertising of personal products as is accepted must be presented in a restrained and obviously inoffensive manner. The advertising of particularly intimate products which ordinarily are not freely mentioned or discussed is not acceptable. (See Television Code Interpretation No. 4)

12. The advertising of tip sheets, race track publications, or organizations seeking to advertise for the purpose of giving odds or promoting betting or lotteries is unacceptable.

13. An advertiser who markets more than one product should not be permitted to use advertising copy devoted to an acceptable product for purposes of publicizing the brand name or other identification of a product which is not acceptable.

14. "Bait-switch" advertising, whereby goods or services which the advertiser has no intention of selling are offered merely to lure the customer into purchasing higher-priced substitutes, is not acceptable.

Presentation of Advertising

1. Advertising messages should be presented with courtesy and good taste; disturbing or annoying material should be avoided; every effort should be made to keep the advertising message in harmony with the content and general tone of the program in which it appears.
2. The role and capability of television to market sponsors' products are well recognized. In turn, this fact dictates that great care be exercised by the broadcaster to prevent the presentation of false, misleading or deceptive advertising. While it is entirely appropriate to present a product in a favorable light and atmosphere, the presentation must not, by copy or demonstration, involve a material deception as to the characteristics, performance or appearance of the product.
3. The broadcaster and the advertiser should exercise special caution with the content and presentation of television commercials placed in or near programs designed for children. Exploitation of children should be avoided. Commercials directed to children should in no way mislead as to the product's performance and usefulness. Appeals involving matters of health which should be determined by physicians should not be directed primarily to children.
4. Appeals to help fictitious characters in television programs by purchasing the advertiser's product or service or sending for a premium should not be permitted, and such fictitious characters should not be introduced into the advertising message for such purposes.
5. Commercials for services or over-the-counter products involving health considerations are of intimate and far-reaching importance to the consumer. The following principles should apply to such advertising:
  - a. Physicians, dentists or nurses, or actors representing physicians, dentists or nurses shall not be employed directly or by implication. These restrictions also apply to persons professionally engaged in medical services (e.g., physical therapists, pharmacists, dental assistants, nurses' aides).
  - b. Visual representations of laboratory settings may be employed, provided they bear a direct relationship to bona fide research which has been conducted for the product or service. (See Code, X, 10.) In such cases, laboratory technicians shall be identified as such and shall not be employed as spokesmen or in any other way speak on behalf of the product.
  - c. Institutional announcements not intended to sell a specific product or service to the consumer and public service announcements by non-profit organizations may be presented by accredited physicians, dentists or nurses, subject to approval by the broadcaster. An accredited professional is one who has met required qualifications and has been licensed in his resident state.
6. Advertising copy should contain no claims dealing unfairly with competitors, competing products, or other industries, professions or institutions.
7. A sponsor's advertising messages should be confined within the framework of the sponsor's program structure. A television broadcaster should avoid the use of commercial announcements which are divorced from the program either by preceding the introduction of the program (as in the case of so-called "cow-catcher" announcements) or by following the apparent sign-off of the program (as in the case of so-called trailer or "hitch-hike" announcements). To this end, the program itself should be announced and clearly identified, both audio and video, before the sponsor's advertising material is first used, and should be signed off, both audio and video, after the sponsor's advertising material is last used.

8. Since advertising by television is a dynamic technique, a television broadcaster should keep under surveillance new advertising devices so that the spirit and purpose of these standards are fulfilled.

9. A charge for television time to churches and religious bodies is not recommended.

10. Reference to the results of bona fide research, surveys or tests relating to the product to be advertised shall not be presented in a manner so as to create an impression of fact beyond that established by the work that has been conducted.

Advertising of Medical Products

1. The advertising of medical products presents considerations of intimate and far-reaching importance to the consumer because of the direct bearing on his health.

2. Because of the personal nature of the advertising of medical products, claims that a product will effect a cure and the indiscriminate use of such words as "safe", "without risk", "harmless", or terms of similar meaning should not be accepted in the advertising of medical products on television stations.

3. A television broadcaster should not accept advertising material which in his opinion offensively describes or dramatizes distress or morbid situations involving ailments, by spoken word, sound or visual effects.

Contests

1. Contests shall be conducted with fairness to all entrants, and shall comply with all pertinent laws and regulations. Care should be taken to avoid the concurrent use of the three elements which together constitute a lottery—prize, chance and consideration.

2. All contest details, including rules, eligibility requirements, opening and termination dates should be clearly and completely announced and/or shown, or easily accessible to the viewing public, and the winners' names should be released and prizes awarded as soon as possible after the close of the contest.

3. When advertising is accepted which requests contestants to submit items of product identification or other evidence of purchase of products, reasonable facsimiles thereof should be made acceptable unless the award is based upon skill and not upon chance.

4. All copy pertaining to any contest (except that which is required by law) associated with the exploitation or sale of the sponsor's product or service, and all references to prizes or gifts offered in such connection should be considered a part of and included in the total time allowances as herein provided. (See Time Standards for Advertising Copy.)

Premiums and Offers

1. Full details of proposed offers should be required by the television broadcaster for investigation and approved before the first announcement of the offer is made to the public.

2. A final date for the termination of an offer should be announced as far in advance as possible.

3. Before accepting for telecast offers involving a monetary consideration, a television broadcaster should satisfy himself as to the integrity of the advertiser and the advertiser's willingness to honor complaints indicating dissatisfaction with the premium by returning the monetary consideration.

4. There should be no misleading descriptions or visual representations of any premiums or gifts which would distort or enlarge their value in the minds of the viewers.

5. Assurances should be obtained from the advertiser that premiums offered are not harmful to person or property.

6. Premiums should not be approved which appeal to superstition on the basis of "luck-bearing" powers or otherwise.

Time Standards for Advertising

1. Prime Time [Programs]

Definition: A continuous period of not less than three evening hours per broadcast day as designated by the station. Commercial material, including total station break time, in prime time shall not exceed 17.2% (10 minutes and 20 seconds) in any 60-minute period. Not more than three announcements shall be scheduled consecutively. Commercial material in prime time includes billboards, public service announcements, promotional announcements (except those for the same program) and "below the line" credits as well as commercial copy.

2. All Other Time [Programs]

Definition: All time other than prime time. Commercial material, including total station break time, within any 60-minute period may not exceed 27.2% (16 minutes and 20 seconds). Individual programs of 5 minutes duration may include commercial material not in excess of 1 minute and 15 seconds and individual programs of 10 minutes duration may include commercial material not in excess of 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Not more than three announcements shall be scheduled consecutively. Commercial material in all other times does not include public service announcements, promotional announcements and opening and closing billboards which give sponsor identification.

3. Station Breaks

Definition: Station breaks are those periods of time between programs, or within a program as designated by the program originator, which are set aside for local station identification and spot announcements. In prime time a station break shall consist of not more than two commercial announcements plus non-commercial copy such as station identification, public service or promotional announcements. Total station break time in any 30-minute period may not exceed 1 minute and 10 seconds. In other than prime time individual station breaks shall consist of not more than two commercial announcements plus the conventional sponsored 10-second ID and shall not exceed 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Station break announcements shall not adversely affect a preceding or following program.

4. Multiple Product Announcements

A multiple product announcement is one in which two or more products or services are presented within the framework of a single announcement. (1) Only those multiple product announcements which meet the following criteria shall be counted under the Code (Section XIV, 1, 2, 3) as a single announcement: (a) The products or services are related in character, purpose or use; and (b) The products or services are so treated in audio and video throughout the announcement as to appear to the viewer as a single announcement; and (c) The announcement is so constructed that it cannot be divided into two or more separate announcements. (2) Multiple product announcements not meeting the criteria of 4(1) above (commonly referred to as "piggybacks") shall be counted as two or more announcements under this section of the Code. (3) Multiple product announcements of retail or service establishments are exempted from the provisions of (1)(a) above.

5. Prize Identification

Reasonable and limited identification of prize and statement of the donor's name within formats wherein the presentation of contest awards or prizes is a necessary and integral part of program content shall not be included as commercial time within the meaning of paragraphs 1 and 2, above; however, any aural or visual presentation concerning the product or its donor, over and beyond such identification and statement, shall be included as commercial time within the meaning of paragraph 1, above. (See Television Code Interpretation No. 6.)

6. Care should be exercised in the selection, placement and integration of non-program material in order to avoid adversely affecting the program content or diminishing audience interest.

7. Programs presenting women's services, features, shopping guides, fashion shows, demonstrations and similar material with genuine audience interest provide a special service to the viewing public in which what ordinarily might be considered advertising material is an informative and necessary part of the program content. Because of this, the Time Standards may be waived to a reasonable extent and limited frequency. The Code Authority will evaluate each such program on its own merits.

8. Except for normal guest identifications, any casual reference by talent in a program to another's product or service under any trade name or language sufficient to identify it should be condemned and discouraged.

9. Stationary backdrops or properties in television presentations showing the sponsor's name or product, the name of his product, his trade-mark or slogan may be used only incidentally. They should not obtrude on program interest or entertainment. "On Camera" shots of such materials should be fleeting, not too frequent, and mindful of the need of maintaining a proper program balance.

10. Each opening and closing billboard, regardless of the number of sponsors, shall not exceed 10 seconds in program periods of one half-hour or less, or in the ratio of 10 seconds of opening and closing billboard per 30 minutes of program time in periods exceeding 30 minutes, provided that a billboard for any one sponsor at no time shall exceed 20 seconds in programs exceeding 30 minutes.

11. Billboard language may not include a commercial message and should be confined to the sponsor's name, product and established claim or slogan. Billboards should not mention contests, premiums, offers or special sales.

THE TELEVISION CODE

Interpretation No. 1

June 7, 1956, Revised March 3, 1960, March 15, 1962

Integrated and Piggyback Announcements

Note: Interpretation No. 1 has been replaced by amendment to the Code. See Section XIV, Paragraph 4, Time Standards for Advertising.

Interpretation No. 2

June 7, 1956, Revised June 9, 1958
"Pitch" Programs

The "pitchman" technique of advertising on television is inconsistent with good broadcast practice and generally damages the reputation of the industry and the advertising profession.

Sponsored program-length segments consisting substantially of continuous demonstrations or sales presentation, violate not only the time standards established in the Code but the broad philosophy of improvement implicit in the voluntary Code operation and are not acceptable.

Interpretation No. 3

June 7, 1956

Hollywood Film Promotion

The presentation of commentary or film excerpts from current theatrical releases in some instances may constitute commercial material under the Time Standards for Advertising. Specifically, for example, when such presentation, directly or by inference, urges viewers to attend, it shall be counted against the commercial allowance for the program of which it is a part.

Interpretation No. 4

June 7, 1956

Non-Acceptability of Particularly Intimate Products

Paragraph 10 of the Advertising Standards reads in part. "The advertising of particularly intimate products which ordinarily are not freely mentioned or discussed is not acceptable."

Products for the treatment of hemorrhoids and for use in connection with feminine hygiene are not acceptable under the above stated language.

Interpretation No. 5

January 23, 1959

Prize Identification

Aural and/or visual prize identification of up to ten seconds duration may be deemed "reasonable and limited" under the language of Paragraph 5 of the Time Standards for Advertising. Where such identification is longer than ten seconds, the entire announcement or visual presentation will be charged against the total commercial time for the program period.

Note: From time to time the Code Authority issues advertising guidelines expanding on provisions of the Code. Subjects now covered are alcoholic beverages, arthritis and rheumatism remedies, weight reducing products and toys. Other guidelines will be issued in future. Copies may be obtained from the Washington Code Authority Office.
