Radio One buys modern rock Y100 in Philadelphia for $80 million. Alfred Liggins, who runs the country's largest African-American-managed group, says he'll keep the alternative format as long as it makes economic sense and run it out of the same Jenkinson, PA address where he's got young urban WPHI. $80 million is the richest price ever paid for a station in Philly. (Beatley sold WDAS-FM for $103 million in 1996, and Jim Duncan's allocations for WIP and WYSP in the Infiniti-Westinghouse deal of 1996 are both higher). But until last week WPLY owner Dan Lerner had spurned all offers. He's in his 70s and Radio One hit him at the right time with the right offer. (Was at least one other local owner weighing a bid?) Peter Handy of Star Media Group brokered. Some facts about the deal - Media Group's estimated 2000 cash flow is $80 million is 16.66 times the estimated 2000 cash flow says Radio One. (Liggins figures stick value in the Philadelphia market is now $70 million to $75 million.) WPLY's on track to be $9 million this year and $10.8 million next year - helped by the recent flip of "Max" WXUM to rhythmic, offices and a surge in revenue aided by modern rock's affinity for "dot-com" business. Radio One will lease tower space from Lerner's Greater Media Radio, but not the current studios in Media, PA. Note that THIS Greater Media Radio is different from the Greater Media that owns stations in Philly, Boston & Detroit. WPLY, Media, PA (100.3 MHz) is a directional Class B facility that protects AMFM Inc.'s "Z100" in the New York market. (WHTZ, Newark, NJ is also at 100.3 MHz.) Dan Lerner is the principal owner of WPLY, and it's his only station. Consultant (and WPLY exec) Scott Shannon and at least one employee have smaller pieces of equity. Y100 moved 3.1 to 3.5 12+ total week in the Summer Arbitron. In the 18-34 demo, it jumped 6.7 to 7.4 - double its 18-34 share just one year earlier. Radio One says the deal will add 10 cents to its after-tax cash flow in 2000. Radio One stock ("ROA") gained 1/4 to $68. Still in Liggins' sights: some Clear Channel spinoffs.

Clear Channel concentrates 100% of its rep business at Keltz. Interep's Ralph Guido - who's losing the billing of 225 stations - calls it a "practical business decision" by Clear Channel. MStreet picked up speculation about the swing last month (November 11th Daily). Turns out they were negotiating terms all the time. Now it's come to pass: The Interep-owned Clear Channel Radio Sales will fold as Clear Channel deposits all its rep business with Keltz, which it's acquiring along with AMFM Inc. The change happens soon: this Friday, December 10, the day as the big NYM/RAD Christmas Party in New York. Some of the drinking will be of the sad variety). Interep's sales staff are free to either move to Keltz or stay at the Entercom business. Things swing both ways: Last month...

The contest winner passed out in the bank vault. After grabbing $79,806 during 4 minutes and 20 seconds at Astoria Federal Savings, Victor Nevargic hyperextended, blacked out and had to be rushed to the hospital in an ambulance. The good news: he's okay (says the New York Times). And WPLY added another $20,000, since Nevargic had 40 seconds to go in his five minutes of time.
