We found the key to Dallas'
 heart. It's the new sound of KVIL.

KVIL contemporary radio offers listeners in Dallas a new kind of sound.
 Not the raucous, twangy kind of
 sound that appeals to teeny boppers. Not the kind, either, that tries to appeal only to the
 string quartet set.
 The new sound of KVIL is a cross-section of what's happening in today's music.
 It's a comfortable kind of sound and it's the only sound
 like it in Dallas.
 But there's more to the new
 KVIL than just music.
 There's our exclusive ABC
 Contemporary Network News.
 There are the weather reports.
 And Howard Cossell for the sports fans.
 We have commercials, too. But fewer than most stations in our market and a limited number at that. We plan to keep it that way. It makes your commercial just that much more meaningful.
 Get your message to the heart
 of things on KVIL.
 It's the key to success in Dallas.

KXYZ Radio delivers the 25 to 49 year old adults in Houston. The latest Pulse and ARB* reports show KXYZ's primary audience is this select, hard-to-reach adult age group. But it's no accident—since KXYZ is the only station in Houston that programs beautiful music, news and sports 24 hours a day.

Advertisers who want quick delivery—at lowest cost—of this very special, big-spending 25-49 year old market want KXYZ Radio—Houston's Bright and Beautiful Music Station.

Are You Sure of Reaching ... the Right People ... the Right Area?

Let's suppose your budget is small, and results are essential through a limited advertising program. You have a product that appeals primarily to farmers and people in rural areas. You have to be mighty sure that the media you select are going to do a sure-fire selling job for you.

This is your problem, but Standard Rate & Data Service wants to help you solve it. That's why you'll find reliable up-to-date market statistics and market maps every month in these Standard Rate Catalogs:

Spot Radio Rates and Data
Spot TV Rates and Data
Newspaper Rates and Data

Of course, media selection cannot be 100% guaranteed by anyone, but certain steps can be taken to make the best possible choice and to definitely put the odds in your favor. The buyer of media who does a careful job of research—making a thorough study of these averages and percentages—knows when he has made his decision that it is justified. He knows that his product is being presented to the people who want it and who can afford to purchase it.

Whether your budget is large or small, whether your product appeals to city dwellers or rural folk, you have something to sell and results are essential. You'll get those results by using the market data made available to you by Standard Rate & Data Service.

Helping you to arrive at final decisions in the selection of the best possible media to reach the people you want to reach is just one of the many ways Standard Rate seeks to help you.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

If you don't have cancer, read this.

You've taken an important step in the right direction by starting to read this. Tragically, many people will not.

There is a feeling among many people that cancer is incurable. That a diagnosis of cancer is a death sentence. This is far from true. In fact there are over 1,300,000 Americans alive today who are cured of cancer.

And yet, every year over 90,000 people die of cancers who might have been saved. They die because they go to their doctors too late. Because they don't give medical science a chance to treat and cure what is curable.

By simply going to your doctor once a year for a health checkup, you are doing something essential for your own protection. Early detection and prompt treatment of cancer can make the difference between life and death. For example, a simple, painless examination called the "Pap" test could prevent nearly all deaths from uterine cancer in women.

Through early detection, one out of two of all cancer cases could be cured with what science knows today. But because some people delay seeing their doctors, their cancers are detected too late and doctors are now able to save only one out of three patients.

What about cancers that cannot yet be cured?

Every day research centers throughout the country come a little closer to the answers to cancer's many remaining riddles. Research teams probe for answers to the question of virus causation of cancer. The question of cures by chemotherapy. The question of why some people get cancer and others don't. Your dollars have already bought some answers. But many, many more questions remain. The price for the answers comes very high. They must be paid for. Without these answers, cancer will never be entirely conquered. Do your part. Fight cancer with a checkup. And a check.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

A NEW POLICY ON

RATING INFORMATION

... has become a matter of concern among firms and service organizations who produce and distribute rating data.

At SRDS we are also concerned because it is our responsibility to present objective information, to protect our subscribers from statements which misrepresent, mislead or are otherwise contrary to fact.

To live up to this responsibility, to serve the best interests of those who buy spot time, SRDS has instituted a new policy which is a requisite for acceptance of advertising in SRDS:

For all advertising copy referring to or incorporating ratings, SRDS requests...

- 1) rating claims be identified as to the actual date of rating report, stating time periods covered and also the specific month(s) and year upon which the information is based,
- 2) exact terminology of the rating service be employed, and
- 3) competing stations be referred to as stations "A," "B" and "C," not by call-letters.

KOMO COVERAGE EXPLODES AT NIGHT

In the daytime, KOMO's 50,000 watt signal blankets Western Washington. At night, it shoots out in all directions. Letters come from the Atlantic Coast, Hawaii; the Arctic, Mexico—even from Scandinavia. Hundreds of listeners write from California. KOMO's 24-hour programming is popular wherever it's heard... AND MOST OF ALL IN SEATTLE AND WESTERN WASHINGTON. See a Katz man for all the facts.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Media Director Says SRDS Publications Are 'Timely and Accurate'

An agency media director writes:

"The tremendous scope and changing nature of the information required for media selection places severe limitations on the usefulness of personal media files.

"Every day my desk is swamped with new literature. I can't possibly read all of it or file it away. And in some cases within a month the literature may be old and not usable.

"That is why I'm a regular subscriber to SRDS publications. I constantly use the SRDS publications and keep them here on my desk at all times. They are timely and accurate, well organized and concise. The hundreds of Service-Ads in the SRDS books are factual and current, they give me the information I need, when I need it most.

"Just imagine the confusion that would result if all the information in the SRDS publications was sent individually to the media buyers — the time consumed in looking for what I had to know would start me wondering whether it DID pay to advertise."

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

TELL-ALL UNIT

Eight column spread unit, or multiples thereof, consisting of ad and listing, with the listing starting at the top of the first column on the left-hand page. A tell-all unit is a complete eight column spread devoted exclusively to the advertiser's listing and advertisement.

To figure the space available, add up the number of inches of listing (ten inches per column) and subtract the total from 80. The number of inches left over should be devoted to advertising space, with a minimum charge based on at least 45 inches of advertising space where one listing appears in the tell-all. If two or more listings appear, the minimum charge is based on 50 inches of display space. In any case, the space left over after the listings are provided for is subject to advertising. Colors and bleed, when used, at rates shown under those headings.

BUYERS' SOURCE PUBLICATION

Spot Radio is used daily as the source book of radio advertising by buyers whose one common concern is an active responsibility in media selection.

In advertising agencies, the users of Spot Radio are the time buyers, media directors, account executives and agency principals who participate directly in the evaluation of individual market and media opportunities. In advertising departments of national and regional advertisers, the users of Spot Radio are the advertising managers and the sales managers who concern themselves directly with the selection of individual media.

NEW SRDS USER STUDY

A recent study by Statistical Tabulating Corp. presents a realistic evaluation of effective spot radio buyer coverage by Standard Rate & Data Service.

This survey is about BUYERS . . . regardless of job titles

It establishes the importance of SRDS to agency buyers of media time and space.

validation To make certain those who responded to the questionnaire were truly people who participated in or influenced spot radio time purchases we asked—

QUESTION: "Do you ever participate in the selection of stations for advertising campaign? In Spot Radio? If so, how often?"

ANSWER: 96.1% of the 1,116 respondents reported a positive job responsibility as buyers of spot radio. Their frequency of participation is charted below.

	TOTAL 1116 answers = 100%	AGENCY 972 answers = 100%	ADVERTISER 144 answers = 100%
participating total	1072 96.1%	940 96.7%	132 91.7%
regularly	794 71.2%	709 72.9%	85 59.0%
occasionally	208 18.6%	174 17.9%	34 23.7%
rarely	70 6.3%	57 5.9%	13 9.0%

How many qualified buyers of spot time use SRDS and with what frequency?

QUESTION: "Do you ever use or refer to the Spot Radio Section of SRDS? If so, how often?"

ANSWER: Answers of all qualified buyers—96.1% of the respondents—and their frequency of use are charted here. Most people who participate in spot buying use SRDS with regular frequency.

	TOTAL Base—Radio Participants (1072 = 100%)	AGENCY Base—Radio Participants (940 = 100%)	ADVERTISER Base—Radio Participants (132 = 100%)
daily	31.8	35.1	7.6
weekly	58.5	63.4	22.8
monthly	72.0	76.4	40.2
total using SRDS	88.8	91.2	72.0

Is there an additional use value to be obtained from SRDS?

Agency-client meetings are oftentimes "pay dirt" situations; where positive decisions on spot radio purchases are made; where basic planning is agreed upon; where approvals of the buying plan are given, etc. Since the use of SRDS at such meetings clearly affords added value, this question was asked of agencies only.

QUESTION: "Do you ever have occasion to refer to SRDS during meetings in clients' offices?"

ANSWER: 927 respondents said they refer to SRDS during meetings in clients' offices.

At agency-client meetings SRDS is referred to by most buyers with significant frequency.

TIME IS OUR GREATEST CONCERN

PAST . . . performance—for half a century—has proved that Standard Rate & Data Service deserves its reputation for accuracy and completeness. But, would you as a buyer of media consult one of those old issues, and use that information to guide your decisions? Assuredly not! Yet you do the same thing when you consult—and rely upon—a Standard Rate book that is perhaps only a month or two old. Media changes appear so frequently that SRDS finds it necessary to edit and publish monthly 5 of its 11 catalogs. Thousands of changes are made in those publications every month. You can be sure your information is correct when you use only current copies of SRDS.

PRESENT . . . data — which change without notice — are relayed to you immediately through Rate Bulletins which are issued several times a month for each monthly rate and data book. Changes in rates, and other important media-buying factors received too late for inclusion in the regular books are announced to all subscribers through bulletins preceding the issue and again in interim bulletins after the issues are published. These changes are incorporated into the next regular issue.

FUTURE . . . changes too, are considered in Standard Rate's Future Rate Page feature. Each SRDS monthly publication lists changes in rates and other data effective at a future date. When such changes are imminent, a box in each listing calls attention to this page. Thus SRDS enables you to plan your advertising accurately months ahead.

NOW . . . Be sure you have the latest information — your own subscription is your guarantee.

ABC INTRODUCES A NEW MEDIUM: LOVE

LOVE is a whole new way to reach people who think, feel and buy in the same way. These people are into the new music and social thinking. They're the LOVE lifestyle.

To reach this large and affluent LOVE lifestyle, you must be part of the LOVE environment. At the ABC FM stations, we do it with progressive rock in stereo and related comments that express care and understanding.

That's why the LOVE lifestyle is listening, believing and becoming totally involved with our new kind of radio. If LOVE seems like a meaningful medium for your message, we'll be glad to share it.
