Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

FARM PROGRAMMING

*Another Special Feature
To Provide a Shortcut in Buying Radio Time*

To aid users of the monthly edition of Spot Radio Rates and Data who are particularly concerned with reaching the farm audience, SRDS has a section devoted especially to farm radio programming. Check the contents page for its location.

This section enables time buyers to locate more easily those radio stations that devote part of their program time to shows for the farm audience.

Information given for all or most of these stations includes the total number of hours of regularly scheduled farm programs per week. Stations are listed alphabetically by state and city.

Once the desired stations have been located in this section, the user can turn to the stations' regular listings in Spot Radio Rates and Data, for rates and other data.

A similar section, on farm television programming, appears in Spot Television Rates and Data.

Would Western Electric waste its time?

Not for a minute.

If you're trying to sell Baltimore without WBAL Radio, you're wasting your time.

And time is precious... especially to Western Electric... the Company that spends its radio dollars on WBAL Radio in Baltimore.

WBAL Radio is the only full power 50,000 watt station in Maryland. Not only do we blanket the state, but we deliver a bonus audience in 4 neighboring states.

Local advertisers don't have any time to waste either. That's why better than one out of every four local radio advertising dollars* is invested in WBAL Radio. The results are amazing. And who can argue with results?

If you want to make your mark in Baltimore, call 301-467-3000. Do it now. There's no time to waste.

WBAL Radio, Baltimore...

makes every minute count.

A media buyer's view of media advertising

Some spokesmen for media tell us information makes poor advertising . . . that common sense is a drab motive for which advertisers grudgingly give up their cash . . . that there is no use insisting on formulae for copy which do not appeal to the emotions.

If a medium insists on appealing to this human weakness to the exclusion of telling something useful about the space or time for sale, it greatly underestimates the intelligence of SRDS subscribers.

We users of SRDS publications are not opposed to the emotional appeal in advertising. Our lives are largely guided by emotion.

We do not deny that some of our purchases are and will continue to be influenced by emotion. We do not deny the right of media nor of ourselves to employ within the limits of good taste and honesty an emotional appeal that will sell advertising or goods or services at minimum cost.

But to say that the sum total of advertising is the emotional appeal is like saying that the sum total of woman is her beauty appeal. Advertising, as well as some women, would have a hard time qualifying if that was all there was to the argument.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

TOP CAT but NEVER FAT CAT

Detroit's our town, and we are proud to be the TOP CAT. The housewives' favorite... the guys' in-car radio companion... and very "PAW-PULAR" with the teens. You might say we're a member of the family. Now, when you're welcome in that many households and by so many attentive ears—the word might get around that you're a FAT CAT. Not so! Never! Never!

We've been around a long time and seen the rise and fall of many a FATCAT leader, who FORGOT his responsibilities. TOPCAT, CKLW is just as anxious to please you, today, as we were before we achieved our long standing dominant position.

Things are purring along for us, because we're doing what's expected.

TOP CATS DON'T PUSSY FOOT AROUND. AGREED?

For Busy Media Buyers:
MORE INFORMATION
IN LESS TIME

In half a century of publishing a large service for the people who exercise advertising's media-buying function, SRDS has learned a lot about the information that media buyers want and need. And one of their needs is Service-Ads.

The agency media director, space buyer, account man, and advertising manager, all want to know what they're buying. It's impossible to keep all the information they need in their media files, and they can't afford to waste time or make errors. When they're looking for information they want it—fast! Consequently, they need complete-information ads.

SRDS catalogs are current and timely. The Service-Ads are not "puffs"; they are as concise and to the point as you would have them. They are up-to-date, qualitative information about media to aid you in your comparisons and selections.

Service-Ads and the regular listings offer a "double exposure." The regular listings give the quantitative information, while the Service-Ads give the needed information relative to editorial trends, current market trends, circulation and distribution, and other qualitative data which may not be in the regular listings. Service-Ads work with the regular listings—they give you the information you need, when you need it.

Use the Service-Ads in SRDS

PROTECTING YOUR MEDIA SELECTION, SRDS HOLDS FIRM ON A POLICY OF ACCEPTING ONLY VERIFIED RATING INFORMATION

Our responsibility to present objective, authentic rating information, which in no way misleads or misrepresents, has resulted in a strictly enforced copy acceptance policy.

For all copy referring to or incorporating ratings . . .

- 1) rating claims must be fully identified as to rating service, title and date of report.
- 2) exact market areas of the rating service must be identified, and
- 3) competing stations must be referred to as stations "A," "B," and "C," not by call letters.

Trained SRDS personnel carefully check all advertising copy submitted, and reserve the right to turn down any advertising which doesn't meet these rigid requirements.

Buyers are assured of truthful statements to back their station evaluations. Therefore, every station is encouraged to use current and authoritative data as a valuable service to buyers of time.

If you need skilled workers, try some unemployed coal miners.

Nautilus Industries did.

Nautilus needed skilled metal-workers in an area where the natives were coal miners, mostly unemployed. So they trained the coal miners. Now they have skilled metal-workers.

Nautilus solved its own problem by helping out with the problems of others. Many other companies—large and small—are doing the same. So can you.

There's no profit in poverty.

The WJEF Countryropolitans

The Joneses try to keep up with them

Today's WJEF Countryopolitan family is setting a fast pace.

Typically, they're under thirty, own their own home, have two cars and three children. If they live in Kent County they have a family income of approximately $10,117. Ottawa County Countryropolitans have an average family income of $9,193. This makes them solid citizens, with buying power to get what they want.

WJEF-ers may be bankers, businessmen or farmers. But more likely, they're among the 70 thousand or so working in the area's 380 manufacturing plants, which provide a solid base for an ever-expanding economy accounting for $902,087,000 in retail sales.

Ask Avery-Knodel how you can keep up or catch up with the WJEF Countryropolitans.

INFLATION IS ONE THING MONEY CAN BUY.

But money can also buy stability. The choice is yours. You and thousands of other businessmen can have a say in our economy.

It happens every time an employee purchases a U.S. Savings Bond through a company-sponsored Payroll Savings Plan.

It happens every time you reward a person for good work or good work habits through an incentive program based on Bonds.

U.S. Savings Bonds foster thrift through systematic installment-plan saving. "When you don't see it, you don't spend it" is the time-honored success formula of the Payroll Savings Plan. And today, Savings Bonds offer 4.25% when held to maturity of seven years, and Freedom Shares — offered only in combination with Series E Bonds — pay 5% when held to maturity of 4½ years.

Promote Bonds — and you'll be promoting stability. For information on how to set up a Payroll Savings Plan in your plant, write to The Department of The Treasury, Savings Bonds Division, Washington, D.C. 20226.

In your plant... promote the PAYROLL SAVINGS PLAN for U. S. Savings Bonds

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. It is presented as a public service in cooperation with The Department of The Treasury and The Advertising Council.

No pages are missing!

Should you detect a break in the continuity of page numbers between this page and the succeeding one, you need not be concerned. There have been no pages omitted—only page numbers. The break in page numbers is the result of a production procedure designed to step up the production of Spot Radio Rates and Data, so it will reach you at the earliest possible moment after its forms close.

Similar breaks in page numbers will occur at about this point in future issues. It will not indicate that any pages are missing.

We think you will agree that the contents and the cutting of production time of Spot Radio Rates and Data are far more important to you than maintaining the continuity of page numbers.

Note that, in this issue, the first page after number 468 is page number 501.

No pages are missing!

Should you detect a break in the continuity of page numbers between this page and the preceding one, you need not be concerned. There have been no pages omitted—only page numbers. The break in page numbers is the result of a production procedure designed to step up the production of Spot Radio Rates and Data, so it will reach you at the earliest possible moment after its forms close.

Similar breaks in page numbers will occur at about this point in future issues. It will not indicate that any pages are missing.

We think you will agree that the contents and the cutting of production time of Spot Radio Rates and Data are far more important to you than maintaining the continuity of page numbers.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

MONTANA

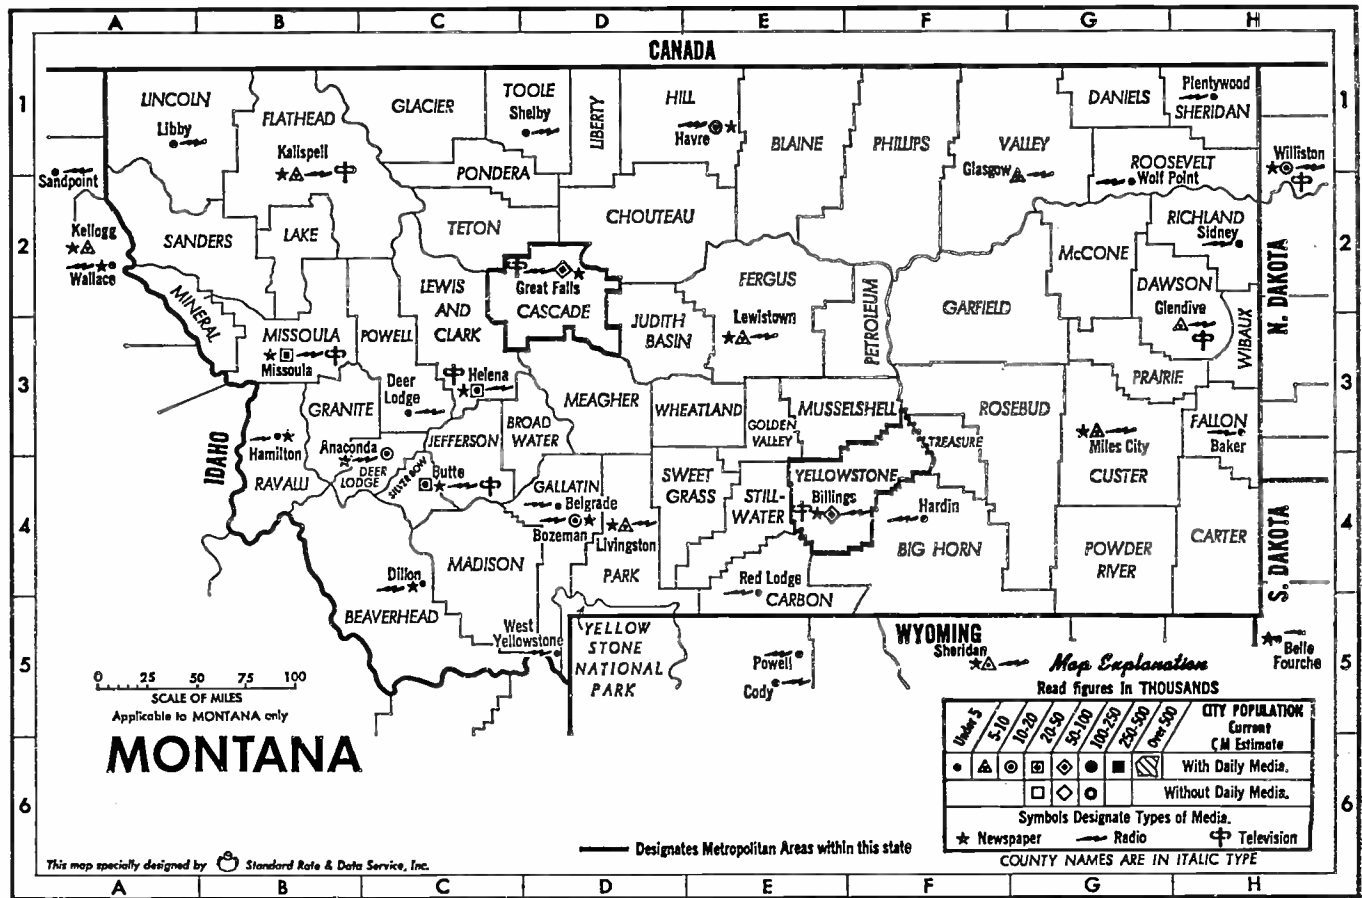

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

NEVADA

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

How would it be if your income paid only 1/3 of your expenses?

It would be like running a college.

Because tuition pays only about 1/3 of what it costs a college to educate a student.

The other 2/3? It must come from other sources — including you.

Give to the college of your choice.

Published as a public service in cooperation with The Advertising Council and the Council for Financial Aid to Education.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

Radio Household Data

NOTE: County-by-county estimates of Radio Household Data no longer appear in SRDS. With the advent and wide-spread use of the transistor, Radio Household Penetration has reached at least 95% with little variation on a county-by-county basis. There is no way at present to estimate transistor radio ownership — thus SRDS believes further publication of Radio Household Data is meaningless.

We're offering a revolutionary marketing report that matches radio listeners to specific product users. It will cost you nothing. Unless you don't use it.

The unique WABC/Brand Rating Index report is now available.

It is the most comprehensive report ever published on who is buying what products (yours is certainly included) on a local basis. And the number of product users reached by the major radio stations in the New York market.

This information will now give you a total picture of your customers by both product category and brand name. The WABC/BRI report is your definitive package that ties together all the bits and pieces of data previously used to determine radio buys.

What it means to you is the educated guess is now permanently retired. It also means your job is easier.

If you want precise information about which radio station reaches your market, call John Britten, Research Director, or your WABC account manager at LT 1-7777. Or fill in the coupon and we'll get the information right back to you.

It will cost you nothing. Unless you don't use it.

If you're looking for a new plant site, try the nearest ghetto.

IBM did.

IBM leased an old warehouse in the center of Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant slums, and is converting it into a computer cable factory. Hiring starts soon, with the slum residents getting first choice. IBM is meeting its own requirements and, at the same time, helping out with the problems of others. Many other companies are doing the same. So can you.
