GINGER ROGERS

Nazi Spies in Hollywood?

News Commentator Wythe Williams Analyzes the Future

Movie-Radio Guide Applauds:

Hedda Hopper's Junior Symphony

HEDDA HOPPER is known far and wide for her sparkling radio program about Hollywood. Also for her penchant for eye-opening hats. But for her interest in the youth of America she deserves low bows and hearty cheers. In Los Angeles she has fostered the California Junior Symphony, one hundred high-school boys and girls, directed by Peter Merenblum. They have appeared in films. Their work has been praised. For her vision and generosity MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE applauds Miss Hopper!

A REGULAR ATTENDANT at rehearsals, Hedda works closely with Peter Merenblum, organizer and conductor of the group, which he rehearses here at Plummer Park, a Los Angeles recreation center

The Editors' Note:

HOLLYWOOD'S first lady of the screen is the glamorous, versatile Ginger Rogers, whose Technicolor portrait, snapped by John Miehle, RKO color photographer, graces this week's cover. It was only a few years ago that the Academy Award winner changed her technique from a dancing star in musical-comedy roles to an emotional actress to win the most coveted prize of Filmtown

A READER writes: "Of late years I have almost given up listening to the radio because of the terrible commercial announcements. Some of them are an insult to the average listener's intelligence. If the sponsors had to listen to the radio every day for a whole month, they would know exactly what I mean. Can't something be done to rid the airwaves of these boresome announcements?"—Mrs. K. M.

Can something be done? It would certainly seem that something should be done, for the writer of the above isn't the only person who feels that a large number of the announcements heard on the airwaves are missing the bus. In proof of this there are hundreds of letters reposing in Movie-Radio Guide's files.

The trouble with a good many radio announcements is that they belong to another era of radio. They might have been extremely effective selling agents when radio was young, but I'm afraid they just don't fit in the present-day broadcasting.

Despite the fact that radio has grown up, we still have "horse-and-buggy" era copy writers who daily dash off announcements which are liberally sprinkled with high-powered adjectives and verbal cliches to sell the listener. However, the plain truth is that many listeners consider such announcements to be only annoying.

One of these days writers of commercial radio announcements are going to discover that superlatives such as amazing, wonderful and sensational no longer overwhelm the listener. They would discover it today if they could only realize that the present-day listener is not gullible.

And that reminds us, there is a manner of announcing which is extremely annoying. It is known as the "staccato attack," wherein by the use of a rapid-fire delivery the announcer attempts to impress the listener with the advisability of dropping everything and rushing out to buy the product in question—presumably before it is too late. Instead of that sort of delivery, how much better it would be if the announcer toned down his message a bit—ridded his voice of its hysteria—and did a little more of the direct, friendly type of selling.

Listeners report that they will buy the sponsor's product just as quickly by a calm announcement as by one that is shouted. They will perhaps buy it even more quickly, for if the announcer will but maintain a calm, friendly attitude, then the listener won't be apt to turn him off, and so will get a chance to know something of the product he is selling.

NEXT WEEK: Although Laraine Day is seen most often on the screen in a nurse's uniform, her color portrait on next week's Movie-Radio Guide cover will reveal the warmth of this lovely and talented actress' beauty and character. Laraine's current vehicle is "The People vs. Dr. Kildare."—The Editors.

Stars Prove They Are Good Neighbors

HOLLYWOOD'S NEWS EVENT OF THE WEEK

COOPERATING with the government's program to build up the good-neighbor policy, more than three hundred leading Hollywood stars and motion-picture officials paid tribute to visiting chiefs of the naval general staffs of Latin-American republics at a luncheon at M-G-M Studios and at a dinner-dance at Ciro's recently. At the luncheon the importance of movies in promoting good-will among South and North American nations was stressed by Y. Frank Freeman, president of the Motion Picture Producers' Association, in a speech of welcome. Cesar Romero presided as master of ceremonies. Stars provided the entertainment. Norma Shearer was hostess at the dinner dance.

LAVISHLY entertained, chiefs of the naval general staffs of Latin-American republics were thrilled by Judy Garland singing "God Bless America"

CARY GRANT, probably Hollywood's champion good neighbor for his quarter of a million dollars in contributions to the unfortunate who are suffering during present world crisis, was among the stars who entertained the distinguished visitors. Above: Cary between two of Hollywood's prettiest—Joan Bennett and Ann Sothern

NEWLYWED Deanna Durbin set a perfect example of good fellowship, entertaining Lieut. Col. Francisco Tamayo Cortes, chief of naval general staff of Colombia LOVELY Loretta Young (above) is enchanted by Admiral Carlos Rotalde of Peru, chief of naval staff. Or—is it vice versa?

PROVING herself a good neighbor by talking shop to Vice Admiral Julio Allard of Chile, Rita Hayworth went into great detail to explain Hollywood's maneuvers

STIRLING HAYDEN

THIS six feet five inches and 212 pounds of muscle, wavy blond hair and blue eyes made the feminine hearts of the nation add quite a few beats when they first saw him in "Virginia" making love to Madeleine Carroll when Fred MacMurray wasn't looking. "Virginia" was Stirling Hayden's first picture, and it meant the end for him of as colorful a seagoing career as any Hollywood leading man, not excluding Errol Flynn, can lay claim to. Hayden really worked at the old-salt business and has held master's papers. Flynn did not, and thereby hangs a feud. Hayden was America's youngest licensed captain for vessels up to eight thousand tons. Sailing from Gloucester to Tahiti in 1938, per of the brig Florence C. Robinson. When Flynn heard about the nautical accomplishments of Hayden, he scoffed, "What's a Stirling Hayden—some island?" If that feud ever reaches the fisticuff stage, boys and girls, lay your life savings on the left and right of this twenty-six-year-old specimen of virile American manhood. You'll probably win.

TEAMED AGAIN are Stirling Hayden and Madeleine Carroll, lovely blond star, in "Bahamas Passage." In this Technicolor Paramount picture, Stirling will demonstrate a bit of his sailing experiences gained on cruises which have taken him to many lands CLAIMING descent from "Applesed Johnny" Chapman, father of American apple orchards, lovely Marguerite Chapman was minding her own business as a model in New York City when along came Howard Hughes, producer-director, and placed her in the movies. Before discovered, Marguerite had never acted. In high school she was a member of the dramatic society—an understudy. She became a hat-designer, but a wise boss urged her to become a model. While riding up the elevator in the building where John Powers, leading model agent, is located, a man stared at her. Promptly she was ushered into John Powers' office and hired as a model. It was while demonstrating advantages of finger-nail polish that Hughes saw her, and the first thing she knew she was in Hollywood. Marguerite Chapman and the five other girls pictured here are a sextette in Warner's forthcoming "Navy Blues."

ONE of America's most-photographed girls, luscious, long-legged Katherine Aldridge, is a blond version of Kay Francis. Currently cast in "Navy Blues," Katherine, a former Powers model, was introduced to the movies by Elsa Maxwell. Born on a plantation near Richmond, Va., Katherine worked alongside colored help in the best Scarlett O'Hara tradition to keep the old place in the family. She attended a girls' seminary and then went to work in a Baltimore bank. John Powers models she met at a West Point dance urged her to seek out the agent. Carrying her three dresses and six dollars, she walked into Powers' office, got a job. The next two years she was America's most-photographed girl. Now Warner Bros. has ideas to place her in important roles. Here is your chance to play talent-scout. Pick your favorite of this sextette, clip the ballot on page 10 and mail it to MOVIE - RADIO Guide Talent Department, Hollywood, California.

CLAIRE JAMES invaded Hollywood as the result of a tap-dancing contest. She had won over 1,800 contestants and was awarded a trip to visit the studios. Her beauty made its mark in the film capital, so upon her return she soon found herself a decorative part of musicals at Warner Bros., Paramount and M-G-M. She was Earl Carroll's unqualified selection as "Miss America" for the New York World's Fair. Brown and Bigelow, the big calendar manufacturers, call her "The most beautiful girl in the world." Claire is strikingly suggestive of blond and vibrant Lana Turner. Born in Minneapolis, Minn., she developed a proficiency in all branches of dancing while attending high school. With her equally lovely sister, Lois, she started in small vaudeville acts early in life. Both girls appeared in "Artists and Models," "Fast and Furious," "Strike Up the Band," and "Ziegfeld Girl." "Navy Blues" marks her first real break.

TAPPED on the shoulder by Louella Parsons while dancing in the Stork Club, Peggy Diggins, the daughter of a trial lawyer, shortly found herself in pictures. Her sylph-like beauty is somewhat like that of Hedy Lamarr. Peggy's present ambition is to become a fine actress. Born in New York, none of her people were actors. School dancing led to night-club work and at the same time Peggy became a professional model for Walter Thornton. She has made a promising start with roles in "Honeymoon for Three," "Santa Fe Trail," "Lady with Red Hair," "High Sierra" and "Affectionately Yours." Outside of acting she is interested in governmental and economic problems, politics, sketching, playing piano and designing dresses. She plays golf, tennis, badminton, rides and swims. Her indoor diversions are bridge, ping-pong, bowling. She likes to watch football, tennis, hockey. She can cook but doesn't.

CLASSIFYING her theatrical career in Lincoln, Nebr., up to the age of fifteen as undistinguished, Lorraine Gettman, redhead, began her movie career shortly after her father entered her in Hollywood High School. Lorraine became a model, appeared on a magazine cover or so and, presto, came to the attention of the screen. In high-school plays she played Portias and Juliets. Her family has no theatrical background, but a lot of them were musicians, and Lorraine would like to be a singer. She credits her motion-picture opportunity to Tom Kelly, a photographer. His picture of her in Stage magazine turned the trick for her. Her favorite stars are Vivien Leigh, Laurence Olivier and Brian Aherne. Lorraine sketches, paints, plays the piano, likes to whistle. She is a close edition of Myrna Loy. An alarmingly pretty girl, she was selected for a part in "Ziegfeld Girl," then was signed to a Warner Bros. contract.

DISCOVERED by Buddy De Sylva in a restaurant on her first trip to New York, Georgia Carroll is another of those girls who are making Texas famous for its beauties. Brought to Filmtown by Warner Bros., she appeared in "Mr. and Mrs. Smith" and "They Met in Argentina." Neither was made by Warners, but her work was noticed by Warner executives and they offered her a long-term contract. She was one of the most-photographed girls in the country and appeared on many magazine covers. Music, painting, photography and ballet interest her most outside of acting. Designing and interior decorating occupy a good deal of her spare time. Georgia's father, Roger Carroll, is a sheep-raiser. His financial success enabled Georgia to travel extensively. If Georgia is your favorite, clip the ballot on page 10, check her name and mail it to the MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE Talent Department in Hollywood, California.

GLORIA SWANSON

IN 1927, Gloria Swanson, toast of Hollywood, was lying in her golden bathtub, a "tired woman of almost thirty," according to a biographer of that day. In 1934, the "tired woman" wound up her screen career with "Music in the Air" and turned industrial tycoon. Yes, the lady who set all of Hollywood's styles when she was queen devoted her virile attention to a profitable company known as "Multipriests, Inc.," which, no fooling, is making more money than ever since it manufactures plastics which only now are coming into their own. However, Gloria agreed to make one more picture, "Father Takes a Wife," a hilarious comedy of married life, for the RKO studio. She will be co-starred with Adolphe Menjou, who will play the screen role of her multimillion-dollar husband, but she's so good that she'll have a hard time getting away this time. Like most screen actresses of early days, she is an ex-Mack Sennett bathing beauty. Despite her wide shoulders, she stands but five feet one inch and is as trim as she was twenty years ago—not bad at all for a "tired woman" of 43!

VIVID AND GLAMOROUS as ever, Gloria Swanson returns to the screen in the comedy "Father Takes a Wife," with Adolphe Menjou (above). Top picture: Gloria at Coconut Grove. Diamond-and-plastic bracelets and earclips are new style note

Deanna After the Honeymoon

Miss Durbin continues romance as Mrs. Paul

To Feature Desk:

DEANNA DURBIN is the happiest girl in Hollywood. I know, because I talked to her when I was making these exclusive MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE pictures of her when she paid a visit to her home lot at Universal Studios right after she and Vaughn Paul returned from their honeymoon. Temporarily, Deanna and Vaughn are living in a rented Beverly Hills home until they complete the building of their own dream home. Meantime, Deanna told me that she has left her many beautiful wedding gifts ("People were so generous to Vaughn and me") at the home of her parents so that they will be fresh and spick and span for the new house, which they hope will be ready real soon.

Before Her Marriage

As I walked about the movie lot with Deanna, everyone had a cheery greeting for the young married lady. It is easy to see that she is the most popular person at Universal Studios. She seemed to radiate joy and happiness, and everyone caught the spirit. Deanna made it seem just like Christmas, although it was ninety-two degrees in the shade the day of her pleasant visit.

She told me that she thought the recent MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE cover of her was beautiful. "When I picked up that issue I was so surprised," Deanna remarked, "to see your lovely spread of pictures of our wedding. Why, you had it on the newsstands while Vaughn and I were still on our honeymoon!"

On the Honeymoon

It was thoughtful of her to remember, after going about and visiting her working friends, to write a sweetheart note and put it on the wheel of her husband's automobile. The steering-gear was their Cupid's mail-box all throughout their courtship, and you can see the romance goes on.

Deanna and Vaughn first met when he became second assistant director on Miss Durbin's first hit picture, "Three Smart Girls," in 1936.

As you read this, Deanna will be back at work making her next picture, tentatively titled "Almost an Angel." That "almost" is not fair. They should call Deanna's picture "An Angel" and be right about it.—J. A.

After the Honeymoon

1. DEANNA DURBIN stepped jauntily along the Universal Studios streets as she returned to home lot after her honeymoon. She passed by hubby Vaughn Paul's office, but didn't disturb his conference with screen writers

3. THE PRETTY young married lady's face was aglow with happiness as Movie-Radio Guide's cameraman caught her arriving at the studios in the gleaming new automobile Vaughn and she bought for their wedding trip

2. AS DEANNA was passing the office of Joe Pasternak, producer of all her pictures, he shouted to her: "Hey, you! What are you guys doing?" So Deanna stopped and chatted with her producer

4. RODNEY BICKEL, who has sold Deanna ice cream and candy for three years, made another sale as Old Sol sent mercury up to 92

5. LEFT: Woman-like, Deanna is interested in fashions, so she called upon Mary Van Doren, in wardrobe, for the last word in clothes

6. RIGHT: Before leaving she wrote a note—as has been her custom for several years—and stuck it on wheel of Vaughn's car

Nazi Spies in Hollywood?

To News Desk

Dead ringer for Hess, this man is a respected actor

MORE THAN ONCE annoyed by smear propaganda of Nazi stooges operating in Hollywood, Warner Bros. continues to make hard-hitting anti-Nazi films. Quickly cashing in on the fantastic story of the flight of No. 2 Nazi Rudolph Hess to England, Warners has included a sequence in the forthcoming picture, "Underground," showing Hess haranguing the Reichstag, escaping to Britain. To portray Hess, they used actor Frank Wilcox. The three shots above show Wilcox as Hess, bearing striking resemblance to the real Hess, whose photos are shown at left and right

—International News, Longworth

ARE there Nazi spies in Hollywood? My investigation revealed some eye-opening stories. Consider first:

Case 1: In San Fernando Valley there is a restaurant operated obviously by a German management. The attitude of one arrogant waiter aroused the suspicion of an actor, who decided to "cover" the spot. He did, and noted boxes of "vegetables" being delivered late at night. That seemed unusual, so the actor concealed himself in the basement and pried into a couple of the vegetable crates. They were filled with guns and ammunition! He turned the story over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. "We know all about that place," he was told. "We've had it under surveillance for months and are tracing the higher-ups."

Case 2: There's a beauty shop on Vine Street near NBC. The network girls and actresses don't have their hair waved there any more. The reason: Besides being good beauty operators, the employes are skilled Nazi propagandists and artists in the technique of pumping their patrons for defense information.

Case 3: Another actor entered a cafe near his Hollywood home. He heard bar talk centering on the war and detected ardent German sympathy. So he posed as an isolationist favoring the German cause. Before he could stop the bartender, the actor had almost been signed up for the Bund! But when the neighborhood Quislings came in to talk to the actor, he told them off in no uncertain terms. In the brawl which started, the actor wound up with seven fractured ribs—and the FBI now has its men covering the spot, the bartender and the Quislings.

Case 4: Harry Warner, of Warner Bros. Studio, was annoyed a year ago when Nazi handbills of a vile sort, belittling American movie producers, were distributed widely over Hollywood, throughout every studio, and even in Harry Warner's car. He called a mass meeting of employes of every studio, requested them to bring along their wives, and pointedly asked them, "What is wrong with America?" No one had an answer to that, and although the Nazi-sympathizing handbill circulators were not ferreted out, no more were distributed.

In retaliation, Warner Bros. has been brutal with the Nazis in its films. Their most recent jab at Hitler is the inclusion in the anti-Nazi film "Underground" of scenes showing the "great" Rudolph Hess fleeing to England. Shown herewith are stills from those scenes showing actor Frank Wilcox portraying Hess.

Likewise shown are a series of pictures of character actor Charles Arnt, an American, who asks, "Would you know a spy if you saw one?" Take a look at his "disguises" and answer "No!" But don't think, just because a new neighbor wears a beard, that he is a foreign agent. He may only be hiding a weak chin.

Are there Nazi spies in Hollywood? Yes, and probably in every other community of size in America!

—E. P.

Famed actor shows how spies can disguise themselves

Baby Sandy---Glamour Girl

A touch of mascara, says Sandy, can be applied wherever you happen to want it

Lips should have that pouty look—to go with tears Sandra has tried on her parents

Go easy on the powder, warns Sandy, hardly suiting her action to her words, however

PEOPLE have been wondering about Baby Sandy. Winning stardom as a baby—diapers and all—in Bing Crosby's "East Side of Heaven," Sandra Lee Henville has been the baby star of five films, but now, at three, she's getting to be a big girl. Will she be able to bridge this, her first "awkward age"? Her next picture, "Bachelor Daddy," should supply the answer, so MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE went over to see Sandy at Universal Studios, discovered an ambitious little glamour girl. Given powder and paint, Sandy got busy, with the results pictured on this page. Even as a baby, this lucky daughter of a Los Angeles milkman exhibited a love for perfume, powder and pretty dresses. It's growing on her. Glamour girl or not, however, her acting in "Bachelor Daddy" with Edward Everett Horton proves she's still box-office. Next crisis for Baby Sandy probably will come a few years later when she reaches her second "awkward age" (the age which recently has been bothering Shirley Temple). And MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE can't see that far.

"WHAT'S MARLENE DIETRICH got that I haven't got?" asks Baby Sandy, claiming she's been chucked under the chin oftener than Dietrich. To see what happened when the three-year-old star went in for glamour, consult these pictures starting at top right

A daring perfume helps. Sandy, though, is sure center of attraction without it

Surveying her finished artistry in mirror, Sandy's ready for a heavy date—or a nap

But Sandy's smart enough to know what really counts is personality. She has it!

GENERAL

Tierney Parents Disapprove

The elopement June 1 of Gene Tierney, nineteen, socialite-actress starring in the 20th Century-Fox production "Belle Starr," to Nevada with Oleg Cassini, twenty-eight, dress designer, was greeted coldly by her parents, the Howard S. Tierneys of New York, both of whom voiced disapproval of the match. Said her father: "I wish she had stuck to her own standards instead of getting married in that abrupt fashion . . . I was sorry to hear she'd gone Hollywood." Said her mother: "Gene is just a misguided child. She has been carried away by this—this suave man of the world." Said the bride: "I have my own life to live. I am sorry that my parents disapprove of my choice, but I love my husband sincerely." After the parental word-battle, Mrs. Tierney flew west to visit daughter and smoothed over the situation. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE is interested in the use of the title Count by many newspapers when referring to Cassini. A careful search of the Almanach de Gotha, blue-book of European titles, for the past four years does not show any listing of a Count Oleg Cassini. Nor was the Tierney affair "new." It has been going on for many months.

Wayne Morris to Navy

Actor Wayne Morris, called to active service June 6 as ensign in the Naval Reserve, has been assigned to duty with the aviation selection procurement division of the Naval Base at Long Beach, Calif. On plea from Warners, the Navy gave him until June 26 to complete his part in a nearly finished picture, "The Smiling Ghost," after which he will don his navy blues for "the duration." Disappointed fiancée was Patricia Stewart, whose engagement

Joan Carroll Returns

To Hollywood again last week, like a conquering hero, came pert nine-year-old Joan Carroll, star for nine months of "Panama Hattie" to report to the RKO lot to work in "An Obliging Young Lady." Resembling facially the Shirley Temple of four years ago, Joan, tiny for her age, was proud of the jewelry and bangles she had acquired during her run with the Broadway musical. She sat next to your reporter at an RKO press luncheon and explained, "Miss (Ethel) Merman gave me that—and that—and that." Indeed, it seemed that all Joan's jewelry, except a Kappa Sigma fraternity pin from her dad, had come from Miss Merman. Spying Phyllis Brooks, also from "Panama Hattie," at an adjoining table, Joan excused herself and dashed to kiss "Phyllis." Her big thrill of the day: Meeting Edgar Bergen and learning all about Charlie McCarthy.

During the same week, hazel-eyed, brunet Carolyn Lee, scene burglar of "Virginia," completed work in Paramount's "Birth of the Blues" with Bing Crosby and had a party on her seventh birthday. Whereupon Carolyn and her mother packed to return to Martins Ferry, Ohio, where her dad is an engineer in a steel mill and a radio "ham" hobbyist, until her next picture call.

Screen Courts Latins

In a more earnest attempt to satisfy South American audiences as well as and better than the Nazi-made films do, Warner Bros. are recording extra sound tracks in Spanish and Portuguese for musical numbers used in their pictures. American singing actors now learn phonetic Spanish and Portuguese lyrics so that the selections make sense to the Latin audiences. First films marking the innovation are "Million Dollar Baby," "Manpower" and "Navy Blues."

Boycott Mickey Mouse

"The studio will stay open," Walt Disney, animated cartoon film king, told his twelve hundred employees May 26 on the eve of the A. F. L.

Screen Cartoon Guild strike. "Full and adequate protection will be given those of you who wish to continue working." Studio representatives said that A. F. L. promoters threatened to fine anyone going through the picket line one hundred dollars and forbid them to work in the studio "when the A. F. L. wins the bargaining right." As of May 30 the A. F. L. put into effect a secondary boycott against Disney and theaters showing Mickey Mouse or other Disney films.

THE WAR

Pat Knowles Discharged

Given an honorable discharge by the Canadian Royal Air Force, actor Patric Knowles returned to Hollywood last week to resume his screen career and immediately was assigned to an important part in "How Green Was My Valley." Nine months ago, he quietly left town to become a Canadian flier. He had risen to the rank of instructor when a crash, caused by a student, disabled him with a vision defect from shock. The eye ailment will not show nor interfere with his acting.

Mitch Leisen's clever new "Mary and Billy" revue at the Cocoanut Grove brought out the glowing Vaughn Pauls (Deanna Durbin) with the Bob Cummings, and Rudy Vallee had a great big table occupied only by himself and Mary MacBride . . . Bruce Cabot is giving a big play to Virginia Kent Catherwood, the Atwater Kent heiress . . . From here it would seem that Allen Nixon is number one man with Marie (Click's Cuddles) Wilson.

HOSPITALIZED

Appendicitis Epidemic

Two Warner Bros. actresses, Brenda Marshall and Lucia Carroll, were laid up last week with threatening appendices. Both were given ice-packs and, unless complications result, will attempt to avoid immediate surgery.

Joan Leslie's Sis Weds

Mary Brodel, nineteen-year-old sister of Joan Leslie, also a Warner Bros. starlet, announced June 5 to friends that she and musician Richard Russum, twenty-six, had wed secretly and

NEWS SCOOP PHOTOS

TRAILING the elusive but exclusive Hollywood scoop photographs of the week, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's cameramen submit these pictures as evidence of their success. Right: (1) Robert Cummings, a right-armed kisser, has to alter his technique to make a scene for the 20th Century-Fox film, "Miami," with beautiful, blond Carole Landis. She too is a right-armed kisser—but it's still good. (2) Pretty, little Joan Carroll, with her favorite doll, arrives in Hollywood for RKO's picture, "An Obliging Young Lady." Joan is the only screen child ever to be called from the film capital and given a leading role in a Broadway musical ("Panama Hattie"). She has light-brown hair, hazel eyes, weighs sixty-four pounds. (3) Here's an honest-to-goodness predicament—when John Wayne (Republic contract star who has made a name for himself on loan-outs, such as to Paramount for the new film "Shepherd of the Hills") laughs his nose itches, and when he scratches it, it tickles and he laughs. Result: A vicious circle of laughs. Right: His wife Josephine.

HONORS

Degree for Eddy

Nelson Eddy no longer can be called an ignorant singer, for, on Saturday, June 7, he was awarded a Master of Music degree by the University of Southern California in recognition of his work in pictures.

Mayor Marian Marsh

Marian Marsh was reelected mayor of Chatsworth for her third term last week. The former actress abandoned a screen career to devote her time to farming her 320-acre ranch there.

Install Mix Legion Post

Tom Mix Post No. 583 of the American Legion was installed May 27 with Mrs. Tom Mix as guest of honor and Monte Blue and Vince Barnett as masters of ceremonies. Dr. John R. Lechner, executive director of the Americanism Educational League, spoke on "Building the Internal Defense."

Sailors Honor Jane Withers

Jane Withers, elected their "sweet-heart," blushing spoke May 25 to the four hundred youths of the first graduating class of the radio and signal school of the Navy and Marines at San Diego.

Young Stars

Republic's newest acquisitions are eight-year-old Babs Savage for "Ice-Capades" and Betty Kean, New York stage singer and dancer, for "Yokel Boy." Court approval is sought by

SPEAKING OF HATS

STYLES in men's as well as ladies' hats are well modeled by this charming couple (1) at Hollywood Park race-track. Certainly the gentleman is Vaughn Paul, but let's lift the brim (2) and see—ah, it's his pretty actress-wife, Deanna Durbin. (More about Deanna on page 4.) Also conspicuous at the track in her novel headgear (3) and (4) is Phyllis Ruth with Bert Wheeler, reportedly her fiance, although Franchot Tone is now "cutting in"

RKO-Radio for the contract of Frances Neal, twenty, which will pay her $150 weekly for six months, then $175 for the next six. Her first role is in "Lady Scarface." Warner Bros. have signed Aline McMahon.

CONTRACTS

Bob Hope Re-Signs

Worried faces of Paramount Studios executives relaxed last week when Bob Hope removed the cap from his fountain pen and wrote his name on a new contract with the lot. Hope, now considered one of the biggest names in show business—perhaps the biggest—remembered that Paramount had given him his first chance and acted accordingly. Coming assignments for the comedian are "Louisiana Purchase," "The Murder Farm" and "The Road to Morocco."

Abbott-Costello to M-G-M

The hot, new screen twosome which has shown a handsome profit for Universal Studios—Bud Abbott and Lou Costello—will be permitted to make one picture a year when not on call by their home lot. Their first outside venture will be "Rio Rita" at Metro.

HOLLYWOOD HARPOON Relatively Speaking

"Hollywood," defined an actress who sends out plenty of remittance checks each week, "is a place where the only member of your family you can lose with ease is your husband!"

Movie-Radio Guide CRITICS' REPORT

MOVIE VIEWS by Carl A. Schroeder

Dear Public:

THERE is something truly inspiring about the spirit in which our English movie-making friends are carrying on these days. It is always possible that in the midst of a highly emotional love scene the hero's passionate moment with the heroine may be punctuated suddenly by a bomb that will bring the entire studio down on their heads.

We don't know whether the English prop-boy who last week wrote us a letter is alive today or not, but this is what he had to say: "I used to think we had tough days sometimes in Hollywood. That place, with its petulant stars who frequently 'collapse from overwork,' seems like another world now. The fear of being bombed isn't so bad. We are more annoyed than anything else by the air-raid alarms that stop production at the most inconvenient moments.

"Then, too, some of us work at being air-raid wardens at night or on similar jobs and it's no joke to get on the set in the morning after not more than two hours' or so sleep a night for some weeks."

We quote this letter not to chide Hollywood, which is hardly to blame for not having the war in its back yard, but to point up a fact: When you see an English-made picture now you are getting double your money's worth in behind-the-scenes drama.

No one can convince us, for instance, that the low rumble which can be heard during portions of George Bernard Shaw's "Major Barbara" is not the sound of distant bombardment or bombing. This does not detract from the film, rather it adds to the whole effect of a stirring war-time message.

Our amateur movie critics' corner is going full blast. Next week we will reveal some mighty interesting comments made by readers. In the meantime mail your comments to MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE Critics' Report, 9059 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, Calif.

Why not go to a movie tonight, if your MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE indicates a good one showing at your favorite theater?

COMING ATTRACTION

Reviews

"Out of the Fog"

Cast: Ida Lupino, John Garfield, Thomas Mitchell, Eddie Albert, George Tobias, John Qualen, Robert Homans, et al. A Warner Bros. melodrama; produced by Henry Blanke and directed by Anatole Litvak. Screen play by Robert Rosson, Dick Macaulay and Jerry Wald from Irwin Shaw's play, "The Gentle People."

AN EVEN half-dozen stellar acting performances—by Lupino, Garfield, Mitchell, John Qualen, George Tobias and Robert Homans—in this screen adaptation of "The Gentle People" make the characters portrayed stand out spontaneously alive. For that reason alone, discounting the excellence of the drama itself, "Out of the Fog" is good entertainment.

Funniest scene: George Tobias, mourning his bankruptcy in a Turkish bath.

VERDICT: Fathers of adolescent daughters who have ambitions beyond their means will find "Out of the Fog" helpful in their problem. This is adult fare of the best stripe. —C. S.

"Time Out for Rhythm"

Cast: Rudy Vallee, Ann Miller, Rosemary Lane, Allen Jenkins, Joan Merrill, et al. A Columbia musical; produced by Irving Starr and directed by Sidney Salkow. Screen play by Edmund Hartmann and Bert Lawrence. Novelties by Glen Gray's band, the Three Stooges, Six Hits and a Miss, Brenda and Cobina.

DEAR Rudy Vallee: Three weeks ago I was sorry to have to write you a negative review of your "Too Many Blondes." After looking through this one, "Time Out for Rhythm," over, I must say that you were your best ever.

This romantic musical is great stuff, you are good, Ann Miller is tops with her singing and especially her dancing, Rosemary Lane is a believable villainess—and the Glen Gray music, etc., all are just about right.

VERDICT: This romantic musical story about two gents who get into the talent-agent business is good, fast-moving screen fare for the entire family. Glen Gray and Vallee fans, don't miss. —E. P.

STAR OF THE WEEK

ANN MILLER: This comely miss steps out nimbly in many dance routines, and in addition sings pleasantly, acts like a finished actress in Columbia's "Time Out for Rhythm." Ann's fine performance will win her many new fans. Here's a bow to a triple-threat girl

BRIEF Picture Guide

Outstanding "A" Pictures

A WOMAN'S FACE: Joan Crawford crime drama. (Adults.)

BILLY THE KID: Thrilling, beautiful Technicolor western starring Robert Taylor. (Family.)

BLOOD AND SAND: Beautiful screen classic in color. Tyrone Power in Valentino's shoes. (Adults will appreciate most.)

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT: Bob Hope ducks being an Army selectee by enlisting by mistake. Laughs galore. (Family.)

IN THE NAVY: Abbott and Costello cut loose with one of Uncle Sam's battleships. Slapstick and rollicking. (Family.)

MAJOR BARBARA: Semi-war play by George Bernard Shaw. (Adults.)

SHINING VICTORY: Drama on medical research. Well performed; Thomas Mitchell at best. (Adults.)

Recommended "B" Pictures

MILLION DOLLAR BABY: Cute story of girl who inherits million. Priscilla Lane, May Robson. Travelogue features. (Adults appreciate most.)

PEOPLE VS. DR. KILDARE: Another in fine medical series. (Family.)

Aviation

I WANTED WINGS: Above any air film produced in recent years. Should be seen by all to inspire Americans with the high traditions of U. S. Army Air Corps. (Family.)

Educational

CHINA FIGHTS BACK: Chiang Kai-shek starring for March of Time. (Adults.)

Western

CYCLONE ON HORSEBACK: Tim Holt gets 'em. (Family.)

DESERT BANDIT: Gun-smuggling vs. Texas Rangers. (Family.)

SINGING HILL: Gene Autry rides again. (Family.)

Other Offerings

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles unique drama. Brand-new technique. (Limited adult appeal.)

MEN OF THE TIMBERLAND: Ranger Dick Arlen and Andy Devine slug the lumberjacks. (Family.)

NAVAL ACADEMY: Freddie Bartholomew prep-school story. Weak. (Children.)

ONE NIGHT IN LISBON: Has a war background, but is breezy stuff from start to finish and is in tempo with time. (Family.)

SUNNY: Anna Neagle, Roy Bolger—singing, dancing. (Family.)

THE DEVIL AND MISS JONES: It has a love interest for old folk as well as young. Good. (Family.)

THE RELUCTANT DRAGON: As good as any one of Disney's Mickey Mouse or Donald Duck cartoons and shows how they're made. (Family.)

TIME OUT FOR RHYTHM: Ann Miller, Rudy Vallee, Glen Gray in film musical. (Jitterbugs maybe.)

TOO MANY BLONDES: That's it—with Rudy Vallee. (Adults.)

NEW YORK.—Jay Jostyn, heard in the title role of "Mr. District Attorney," had appropriate reason to celebrate last week. He never fails to have his life threatened at least once on each program, and, more to his credit, he never fails to reach the end of the show unharmed. Cause for celebration recently was his 100th "escape from death."

AUSTIN, TEX.—The Texas legislature remained in session two hours longer than usual the other day when H. V. Kaltenborn, who was expected to discuss current events before them; was delayed on his way in by plane from New York

NEW YORK.—A letter from his mother in England, states Boake Carter, reveals she has moved from her home in Crowborough to one in Chichester, another English town. Move was undertaken because the home next to hers was completely demolished by an incendiary bomb. Carter has expressed the belief that her new residence will be no safer than the old one.

MUSIC NOTES: This Sunday
Sir Thomas Beecham will again conduct the Columbia Broadcasting Orchestra. Sir Thomas' first guest appearance was on June 1.
Speaking of his first appearance,
John Tasker Howard, intermission commentator, told the following story to illustrate Sir Thomas' fabulous memory: It seems that Sir Thomas Beecham, deciding to conduct the performance of an opera company which he had formed, wired the manager that he would arrive the same evening. Arriving late and leisurely, he informed the manager that he was tired, upon which the conductor seated himself in a soft chair and began to smoke a cigar. With increasing nervousness the manager told Sir Thomas that it was already past certain time. Putting down the cigar, the conductor walked to the wings before entering the stage, turned and asked, "By the way, what opera are we doing tonight?" ... Teresa Sterne, thirteen-year-old wonder child of the piano, appears as piano soloist this Saturday. She will play the Concerto in D minor by Mozart with the Columbia Concert Orchestra under the direction of Howard Barlow.

RADIO VIEWS

by Martin Lewis

Today in Radio

Morton Downey obtains divorce;
comedienne and commentator die from "the representative of a leading chain" that many Senators and Representatives had been denied radio time to talk against intervention in the war. Tobey's action is similar to that of Senator Wheeler, who a few months ago had the networks submit scripts of speeches on the lease-lend question.

Downey Wins Divorce

BRIDGEPORT, CONN.—Morton Downey won an uncontested divorce June 4 from his wife, Barbara Bennett, sister of Connie and Joan. Downey also received custody of their five children, one of whom is an adopted son. Except for occasional guest appearances, the veteran tenor has not been heard on the networks for a few years, having concentrated on night-club work. Since the divorce the former Mrs. Downey has eloped with Addison Randall, cowboy film star.

HOW many fan letters have been written to radio stars since broadcasting began? Nobody knows, but just to give you an idea of the widespread nature of this curious habit, more than fifteen million letters and cards are sent annually to NBC sponsors and artists alone.

That's a whopping big pile of mail for your Uncle Samuel to deliver. But what is even more important, it represents a cross-section of the thoughts and emotions of many millions of people. Fan letters have admittedly done much to make radio the sort of thing it is today. In no other field of entertainment is the "public" so feared, so despised and so devotedly worshipped.

History doesn't say who wrote the first fan letter. The practise probably began when our caveinan ancestors learned that they could convey a message by carving a series of pictures upon a piece of whalebone. Fan mail largely came into prominence when the "matinee idol" of the theater reigned supreme. It later advanced as an art when the films supplanted the theater as America's greatest entertainment medium. Unable to see their idols in person, film-goers turned to letter-writing as a means of expressing their appreciation. But neither the theater nor the movies have managed to pull the number of fan letters which radio receives. "In radio," says Lowell Thomas, "the sounds that wing their way on the ether waves are the supreme incitement of that peculiar form of epistolary art called fan mail."

When you write a fan letter to, say, Young & Rubicam, Inc., who are the agency representatives for quite a number of important air shows, what happens to your letter?

One thing you may be sure of, it is read. The first thing the readers look for is adverse criticism. If the number of letters indicates that the disapproval of a certain portion of the program is general, then that portion is eliminated. Picture requests are usually referred to the star, who in most cases will send one. All questions are answered promptly and every effort is made to please the writer.

Thus the millions of letters pouring in every year serve a useful purpose. By these letters program producers are enabled to discover what pleases more than sixty million daily listeners. True, some are trivial, some are exasperating and some are just plain boring, but the greater majority have been interesting, heartening and instructive. Radiomen, more so than any others, freely acknowledge the debt they owe to fan mail. It is their only link with the listener.

War Talks Scanned

WASHINGTON.—Radio stations throughout the country have been asked by the Federal Communications Commission to send copies of all talks on the "war issues" to the commission. This request was made at the direction of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, at the suggestion of Senator Tobey of New Hampshire, who said he had information

JIM JORDAN (Fibber McGee), recently named outstanding father in radio for 1941, gets help at home solving puzzle from wife Marian (l.), daughter Kathryn, twenty, son Jim, Jr., seventeen

SAMMIE HILL, star of "Home of the Brave," signs check to finance dramatic training for restaurant cashier Marion Thompson

BOB HOPE'S beautiful wife smiled when they sat down at the table—but Bob insisted the figure twenty-three on his birthday cake was correct. The cake was given by George Murphy as a gag when the comedian and his wife celebrated Bob's birthday, May 29, at the Mocambo in Hollywood

GORDON JENKINS admires gold cigarette case given by Jack Benny for conductor's music-scoring for Jack's tenth anniversary

"Bubbles" Kelley Dies

HOLLYWOOD.—Mary Kelley, forty-seven, beloved stage and radio comedienne known as "Bubbles," died June 7 at her home from a heart attack following a year of ill health. Her last broadcast was with Jack Benny, who thought the world of her. Gracie Allen and George Burns were perhaps her best friends. She was largely responsible for their marriage. She is survived by her husband, Ray Myers.

Former Dr. I. Q. Sued

CHICAGO.—Grant Advertising, Inc., has a suit pending against Lew Valentine to prevent him from possible exploitation of his former job as emcee of the "Dr. I. Q." quiz show in any future public appearances he may make in the entertainment field. Valentine was replaced by Jimmy McClain as Dr. I. Q. several months ago.

PERSONAL

Hopper Surprise Party

HOLLYWOOD.—A most surprised Hollywood gossip was Hedda Hopper when, following her broadcast of June 2, several score radio and screen stars rushed into her CBS studio to give her a party on her fifty-first birthday. She had had no inkling of the affair. John Barrymore broke the ice when he actually crashed her program just as it was about to sign off.

Their Kids Recovering

CHICAGO.—Recent hospital news in Chicago has involved the children of several radio artists. Don McNeill's son Tommy, after spending several weeks in the hospital and more weeks with his leg in a cast because of a mere scissors prick in his knee, is now recovered to the extent of exercising his leg to prevent stiffness.

Happy Jack Turner's son has recuperated from an emergency appendectomy. Harold Spencer, five-year-old son of Tim Spencer, one of Uncle Ezra's Sons of the Pioneers, is recovering from cuts and bruises sustained when a car struck him near his home.

Commentator's Sons in Army

NEW YORK.—Wythe Williams, who gives listeners news, analyses and spectacular prophecies over MBS, has contributed two sons to the Army. Ian Wythe, his twenty-three-year-old son born in Paris, arrived in America May 28. The following day he volunteered for army service and asked that he be placed in the 207th Coast Artillery at Camp Edwards, Falmouth, Mass., where his brother David Irwin serves. The request was granted.

PROGRAM

Ameche Starts Soon

HOLLYWOOD.—Don Ameche, now under exclusive radio contract to Crosby's "Music Hall," will begin a long series of consecutive appearances July 17 as that program's master of ceremonies during the vacations of Crosby and Burns. Ameche will carry on until the middle of October.

SIDELIGHTS

Baton Waits for Button

NEW YORK.—The day Sir Thomas Beecham conducted the Columbia Symphony Orchestra, thousands of music-lovers had to listen to a nervous announcer stall for time through an unusually long intermission. The conductor had lost his collar button while changing his shirt. A CBS page-boy finally rushed his collar button into the breach to save the day.

—Maurice Seymour
CAPT. E. D. C. HERNE, British-born, naturalized American commentator of both MBS and NBC, died in a Chicago hospital June 8 after operation. He had been war, commercial and sky-writing pilot

Good Investment!

NEW YORK.—On a motorcycle trip through the Southwest Richard Maxwell's son Bob wired for $5. In return for the money tenor-philosopher Maxwell requested that his son write him all about his experiences on the trip. When Maxwell showed the letters from Bob to the editors of the Christian Herald, they offered $50 for publication rights. Thus Richard Maxwell's "Good Neighbor" philosophy brought nine hundred percent returns in his own family affairs!

Show "Puts on (Bull) Dog"

NEW YORK.—Showmanship seldom is stressed in radio studios. One show which is staged with elaborate theatrical effects is Mutual's "Bulldog Drummond." With the flash of the "on the air" sign the studio is darkened, except for a spotlight beaming down on the announcer, who stands before a black curtain. When the curtain rises, Bulldog Drummond appears, followed by the remainder of the cast. The production men and sound-effects crew remain in the wings in order not to detract from the illusion of realism.

SHORTS

Richard Williams, math and geography wizard, has appeared on "Quiz Kids" twenty-three times, setting up a record for the other kids to shoot at . . . The "Quiz Kids," by the way, defeated five University of Chicago pros in an Alumni Day feature battle recently . . . There are rumors and denials of rumors that Major Bowes will retire from broadcasting after this summer . . . Russ Young, announcer-director of "Bachelor's Children," and his actress-wife, Laurette Fillbrandt, have a new baby daughter, Victoria Scott Young. The physician, by the way, was Dr. C. C. Doherty, husband of Bernardine "Sade" Flynn . . . Mervyn Bogue, Kay Kyser's Ish Kabibble, and wife expect their third child in September . . . Rudy Vallee and John Barrymore have been named honorary members of the National Dunking Association—with privileges of full insignia, including spots on vests.

Next Week's Cover

Laraine Day is most familiar to moviegoers in the gleaming white nurse's uniform of her "Dr. Kildare" role. On MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's cover next week Miss Day is seen in a different costume, but she's just as lovely. And you won't want to miss a side-tickling page of pictures inside next week's issue of Jack Benny dressing for his new picture. "Charley's Aunt." Get your copy today.

Lowdown on Berlin Propagandists

Edited by Charles A. Morrison
President, International DX'ers Alliance

GENERAL ELECTRIC'S three short-wave stations, already among the most powerful in the world, will be made even more effective by new transmitting equipment now being installed in Schenectady and San Francisco.

WGEA, Schenectady, and KGEI, San Francisco, formerly operating at 25,000 and 20,000 watts respectively, are both being increased to 50,000-watt power. WGEO, Schenectady, New York, licensed for 100,000 watts and long famous as the most powerful short-wave broadcasting station in the western hemisphere, is also receiving new equipment to increase further its effectiveness.

It is expected that the new WGEA transmitter in South Schenectady will may be called into use any day for emergency communication during flood, fire or hurricane. This year as never before there is a grimmer note to somewhat dampen the ardor of the festivities, since amateurs are pondering the national situation and speculating as to whether before another Field Day rolls around these portable transmitters may be in use for military purposes.

News Room Has Distinguished Speakers

The WBOS News Room of the Air program, a radio newspaper, inaugurated on June 1, may now be heard Sundays from 7:00 to 7:30 p.m. EDT over WBOS (11.87), Boston.

Included in this unique program each week are: The latest bulletins of the hour; the news of the week in review; the news of tomorrow; the human-interest story of the week, and the feature page interview. For the feature page interview, a leading authority on the international situation is invited to give his views. Thus far, William Elliot, Professor of Government at Harvard University, and Roland Hall Sharp of the Christian Science Monitor have been guest speakers on the program.

Goebbels Gabblers to Be Exposed

Goebbels' staff of trained propagandists, heard nightly over the Berlin short-wave station, has been augmented by the addition of two women commentators, Jane Anderson and Ray Beveridge. Regular listeners are familiar with the usual crew of Goebbels gabblers, consisting of Lord Haw Haw, Paul Revere, E. D. Ward, Fred Kaltenbach and Prof. Otto Koischwitz. Nazi propagandists are intensifying their efforts day by day as America moves ever closer to the brink of war. These Berlin speakers are wily and clever agents who are definitely trying to influence and mold American public opinion now as never before. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE will soon start a series of frank and lucid articles, each one dealing with one of these commentators, giving the lowdown on his or her background, explaining their methods of operation and the falsity in the seeming logic that each presents.

Program Notes

Xavier Cugat's orchestra, heard Thursdays at 10:15 p.m. EDT over WRCA (9.67), is now featuring a new young vocalist, Lina Romay, daughter of a Mexican consular official and hailed as the "Girl With the Petty Legs" . . . New: American News in Review, a review of news of the western hemisphere in its relation to the United States and a presentation of the progress of American defense industries, is now beamed to England, Fri. at 1:45 p.m. EDT, WNBI (11.89).

Meet: J. L. Hodson

James Lansdale Hodson, a regular speaker on London's program, "Britain Speaks," aired daily at 8:30 p.m. EDT over GSD (11.75), is the son of a Lancashire cotton-mill manager. A talent for writing dialect verses was his passport to Fleet Street. He joined the staff of the London Daily Mail in his early twenties.

But his journalistic career was interrupted by the outbreak of the last war. He joined up in September, 1914; after serving with the King's Liverpool Regiment, he was eventually seconded to the Ministry of Munitions as a special intelligence officer.

Hodson returned to the newspaper world immediately after the war. For eleven years he was Manchester news editor of the Daily Mail. Later he joined the Daily News and was sent to investigate and report unemployment conditions in Europe during the great depression. More recently his name has become widely known as a writer on social problems. He is also the author of many successful novels and plays.

He is at present an accredited war correspondent with the British Army. In his capacity he has already been twice evacuated from France. He may be recalled for duty at any time.

SPECIAL FEATURE:

What Do YOU Want?

By Wythe Williams

The author is a hard-hitting newspaperman who scored in World War I, on the Versailles Treaty, the battle of Verdun and other important stories. Thus far on World War II he has claimed impressive air scoops on the starting date of the war itself, the capitulation of France, the attack on Denmark and most recently the Russo-Jap negotiations. His electrifying comment on America's role in the world today is presented here.—The Editors.

law to convert our nation into the arsenal of democracy has been your choice.

But now, and as proved by recent and present events, this is not enough. YOU must submit to further realization and consequent readjustment, namely, that OUR civilization can be made secure only by engaging the full strength and power of this nation in common cause with the British Empire. Only with all of our resources can the danger to our liberty be overcome.

Every day of delay makes your peril greater and brings closer to these shores a war that certainly will take its grim toll not only of gold but of blood. Without evasion or reservation but only with prompt action can this danger be overcome. This means that YOU must now assume a full share of sacrifice in the united defense.

Assuming that YOU want to save the United States of America from the line-up of slave nations chained to the wheel of a conqueror's chariot, it is clear that now you join in the following demands upon our national government:

1. The Navy and air force to safeguard our lifeline with the British Isles.
2. Real aid to China. Real embargo against Japan. Definite declaration to Japan of our intention to prevent the conquest of Singapore and the Dutch Indies.
3. Freezing of Axis assets, and the stamping out of subversive propaganda and sabotage within our gates.

This, of course, may lead to open war. But, according to Hitler, we are already his enemy. If it suits his purpose, he will attack us with or without provocation, whenever and however he chooses. In the path of Hitler's designs the choice is never war or peace. It is submission to his will or resistance to the death.

Adolf Hitler has one great fear that he has often expressed to his intimates, namely, the potential power of the United States. Nothing on earth can resist that power—if it is unleashed on time. However, if Great Britain goes down, Hitler will have the great advantage that then the United States will stand as the last in the line of his enemies—and we will stand ALONE.

What do YOU want?

RADIO'S NEWS PICTURE OF THE WEEK

Jack ("Charley's Aunt") Benny Studies His Form

WITH Hollywood Park's summer racing season in full swing this month, there is the normal out-cropping of Racing Forms in Hollywood. Most unusual racing fan seen about the studios was radio star Jack Benny, photographed above while awaiting his next scene in 20th C-Fox' "Charley's Aunt." Which explains Benny's costume. He is Charley's aunt—not Whistler's mother! The pretty young lady disinterestedly reading at left is Arleen Whelan, one of the principals in the picture. While Jack's film version of the perennially side-splitting comedy promises to be his best to date, it will not feature radio rival Fred Allen. Fred, however, say Fox officials, has been commissioned as artist to illustrate advertising for Jack Benny's picture, is seen working on the assignment (right).

—Cosmo-Sileo

FRED ALLEN hasn't decided how he'll do Jack Benny's portrait to plug his rival's new film. No common art form, he says, quite fits the subject. Considering outlining portrait with dum dum bullets, he feels this doesn't quite hit the mark

Stars Do Their Bit for Defense

TO THE patriotic, important task of keeping the men in our armed forces laughing and happy, broadcasters these days are bending every effort. Many stars and their casts have traveled to Army and Marine camps, upset their elaborate schedules to broadcast under difficult conditions. Because they are ardently interested in national defense they've plunged into the job enthusiastically, without complaint. Patriotic sponsors have unstintingly paid heavy traveling expenses and charges for added wire facilities. To show how valuable radio can be in keeping up morale of new recruits, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE presents these photographs of stars at camp.

For safety's sake sailors put Charlie in the "brig"

NO SOONER HAD the Bergen-McCarthy show arrived at San Diego naval base for May 11 broadcast than Charlie was locked up in the brig. Poor Bergen finds him, above, in amazement reads list of charges. The worst: Heaving rocks at skipper!

"CHARLIE, CHARLIE," admonishes Bergen, "what have you done!" Borrowing a line from Abbott and Costello, who clown on the Bergen show, Charlie replies, "They say I'm a bad boy!"

AFTER GUARANTEEING Charlie's conduct Bergen gets a parole. Actually, Charlie was really in the brig from Saturday until Sunday at airtime. There was no safer storage place for him

Bob Hope and company get a workout at March Field

BOB HOPE was a hit at March Field, as listeners who heard soldier boys applaud can testify. After broadcast, above, perspiring Bob shakes hands, hands out dozens of Hope autographs

BRENDA (Blanche Stewart), of the Brenda and Cobina team, took a great interest in anti-aircraft machine-gun on this high-speed reconnaissance car. "Betcha I could get a man with this outfit," said she

ON HOMEWARD-BOUND BUS, Hope announcer Art Baker leads community sing with cast, which had labored long and hard to give air corps and anti-aircraft battery recruits a good time. Bob and Jerry Colonna join in lustily

Kyser donates a mascot kid—gets kidded at naval base

REGULAR FELLOW Kay Kyser brought his show—and a mascot—to San Diego. Here, with Ginny Simms, he presents mascot, a Nubian goat

NAMING THEIR MASCOT "Kid Kay Kyser," the rookie sailors returned the favor when three torpedo students purposely mistook the Professor for "Tin Fish," loaded him in torpedo tube

TRAINEES honored songstress Ginny Simms by naming life-boat after her, having her christen it. This was the Kyser show's second junket to San Diego

"Battle of the Sexes"

ONLY one thing draws a bigger, more-excited audience than a fight. That's a male-female fight. Radio's case in point: "Battle of the Sexes" (NBC) has feminine and masculine contestants, spectators and listeners squared off good-humoredly but spiritedly every Tuesday. Co-handlers Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit sic 'em on, keep the battle spirit high. Specific case was their recent quiz-struggle between sons and daughters of noted entertainers.

BANDSTAND NOTES

By ARTHUR MILLER

Pinch-hitting for vacationing Maurice Granger

WHEN Bob Chester's new song soloist, Bill Reynolds, started his professional career, he overlooked an age-old habit—that girls marry young. About a year ago Bill left George Washington University in St. Louis, a diploma in one hand and a sheet of music in the other. He was ready to embark on a career as singer with a dance band—as many other lads would like to do at this time. Credit him with being different; he joined a new band composed entirely of girls! They toured the country. And the girls met a lot of men. They not only met them, they married them! By the time the remaining unmarried girls reached New York with Reynolds, there weren't enough to go on Major Bowes' program as a trio. Bill's low finances forced him to take a job as usher at the Roxy Theater. Hearing that Bob Chester was seeking a vocalist, Bill turned in his gaudy uniform, entrained for the audition in a Pennsylvania town, and now has a reliable outfit behind him.

Raymond Scott—Idea Man

Raymond Scott abounds with new ideas for orchestras and song titles. In the orchestral department, he is rehearsing a band which he calls "The Secret Seven." This much is known: It will actually have seven men. That's strange for Scott, because his old "quintet" had six men! And the first specialty number the band is working on is an original by Scott, which he calls "Invisible Ink."

Bea Wain revealed at the farewell party members of the "Hit Parade" cast tendered her that she quit the program exactly two years to the day she left Larry Clinton's orchestra. And two years ago, when she embarked on a vaudeville tour, she opened at the Earle Theater in Philadelphia. That's the same place she began her latest theater tour on May 30.

Purely Personal

Jive is plentiful at a spot on Route 9-W in Englewood Cliffs, N. J., where the Four King Sisters reside in a twenty-one-room house . . . Dinah Shore and Cesar Romero still talking about the fun they had in Hollywood while he was in New York for a guest appearance on the Cantor show . . . Loulie Jean of "Basin Street" working hard for a part in a new George Abbott musical . . . Alyce King, of Alvino Rey's outfit, was on the verge of merging when the UN-lucky fellow was drafted . . . but her sister Donna is more hopeful; she's carrying on a city-to-city courtship with "Frenchy" Bordagaray of the New York Yankees.

Vocalists

Al Kavelin's boys find it difficult keeping their eyes on the music now that Vivian Blaine's "up front" . . .

RECORD MENDED

DECCA: Pat Harrington's "You're in Love with Every One"; Hildergarde's "Darling, Je Vous Aime Beaucoup" and "You Will Remember Vienna."

COLUMBIA: Billie Holiday's "Romance in the Dark"; Danny Kaye's "It's Never Too Late to Mendelsohn"; Alec Templeton's "Tea for Two"; John Kirby's "Cutting the Campus." VICTOR: Marian Anderson's "Love, Come Aid My Weakness"; Toscha Seidel's "Brahmsiana of Bakaleinikoff"; John Charles Thomas' "Softly and Tenderly." BLUEBIRD: Dick Todd's "Maria Elena."

Roberta Louise is the latest link in Raymond Scott's chain of singers . . . Two new song groups, The Bob-o-Links and The Quintones, are working for Bob Crosby and Charlie Barnet respectively . . . Diana Courtney, formerly "Honey" of Waring's "Three Bees and a Honey," is on her own now—on NBC . . . Xavier Cugat's niece is singing with his band. She's Marguerita Bolado, known to moviegoers as Margo.

Bandata

The "Three Debs" is the new vocal unit with Charlie Spivak . . . Tommy Dorsey's latest shift in his sax section gives Johnny Mince's job to Mannie Gershman . . . Lend a musical ear to the new Harry James style, which features three violins . . . Bob Crosby is due in New York about this time, after fifteen months in Chicago and Hollywood . . . Enoch Light's description of his novel swing arrangements: "Whispering Swing."

Songstuff

After having heard all those songs dedicated to Dad on June 15, it might be of interest to know that the official one was "Daddy, This Is Your Day," and you probably didn't even hear it! . . . Sammy Kaye's hit, "Daddy," despite the title, isn't in keeping with that day . . . News commentator Wythe Williams' secretary is writing lyrics for a song which she'll call "My Sources"—his most quotable phrase . . . "Dixie Girl" will get plenty of airings. Song was written by Kent Cooper, head of the Associated Press.

Band Bookings

Claude Thornhill rounds out his stay at the Surf Beach Club in Virginia June 30 . . . Ted Weems begins a two-week stay at the Blue Moon in Wichita, Kans., on June 21 . . . Jimmy Dorsey gets set for four weeks at the Sherman Hotel in Chicago June 27 . . . Skinnay Ennis has been one-nighting since June 17 en route to Chicago from Hollywood. He'll arrive June 28.

Patriotic Prizes

Dear Sirs:
I think all of the radio programs that give awards, especially the quiz shows, should change the awards to government bonds, defense savings stamps or something of that sort to help our country as well as provide good entertainment and prizes.
May V. Choate, Pecan Island, La.

● This procedure has been adopted by at least one program. "March of Games," Sunday quiz program for children, now awards defense savings stamps as prizes. "Quiz Kids" has since its inception presented the participating youngsters one-hundred-dollar government bonds on each show.—The Editors.

Wanting Wallace

Dear Sirs:
I, like many others, miss the program "Keep Fit to Music." What can I do now to keep slim and avoid having my breath reduced to short pants! Health is a precious thing these days, and Wallace performed a real worthwhile service. Will he be back?
Mrs. Elmer Ashley, Owosso, Mich.

● The many who have written to this department concerning the discontinuance of Wallace's "Keep Fit to Music" program should address inquiries to the Mutual Broadcasting System in Chicago.—The Editors.

Continued

Dear Sirs:
"Stop, look and hiss 'em!" I mean the people who dare to throw brickbats instead of bouquets at the daily radio serials. The criticisms seem to be that they are packed full of unnatural and ultra-dramatic situations. I listen to these serials every day and I believe the average listener would rather have the episodes packed full of punches than just maudlin, sickeningly sentimental, every-day happenings. For instance, take the movie serials. What would happen if they weren't packed full of wild happenings and suspense? Nobody would bother to follow them through! So it is with these "soap-and-cereal" dramas. If they weren't exciting and suspense-filled, who would want to listen? Not me! Housewives like myself live commonplace lives, and we need to be jolted out of the rut of daily routine occasionally.
Mrs. Muriel E. Eddy, Providence, R. I.

● Many other listeners believe that if you are—to borrow a phrase from the letter—"jolted out of the rut" continued, continually and continuously, the jolting makes the so-called rut seem like a haven of relief.—The Editors.

Lighter Side

Dear Sirs:
In these times of death and destruction we listeners need plenty of radio's lighter side. I, for one, am grateful to the comedians for clean, entertaining fun, and to the jolly quiz programs.
Mrs. R. S. Bradway, San Diego, Calif.

Hamburger and Swim Party

AN AFFAIR which many a young male would have given his right arm to attend was the hamburger-splash party comedian Al Pearce threw recently at his hillside home—for CBS starlets. Above, Al (l.) and announcer Wen Niles of his show greet girls

HOME

LEFT: It may not be polite to throw one's host into his own swimming-pool, but these CBS mermaids decided to ignore Emily Post in this instance. And, at right, Wen Niles demonstrates technique of the bully who likes to duck helpless females. Pretty starlet Kathleen Fitz is the cocky announcer's victim

What would it mean to you to get up to $100.00 a month if you were sick or are hurt in an accident, or to receive up to $150.00 a month when confined to a hospital. Expenses piling up at such a time mean trouble, embarrassment and worry. Why take the chance when only 3c a day will prevent it? You may feel perfectly well today, but tomorrow—the next day—or next week—who knows? Every minute—someone—somewhere is a victim of unexpected sickness or accident. Automobile accidents or falls, while at work or around the house, and other everyday accidents exact a deadly loss of life, limb and income. Thousands of illnesses, both serious and common, cause great suffering and expense. If YOU should be laid up, will you have the money to pay for doctor, hospital, nurse, and medicine—will you have money to keep yourself and your family going all the weeks, maybe months that you are unable to work? Or, in the event of death would your loved ones be able to meet sudden expenses? The answer is simple and sensible with Sterling's New-Improved Sickness and Accident Policy.

PAYS BENEFITS FROM VERY FIRST DAY OF DISABILITY

This policy covers and pays graded benefits for all sicknesses common to both men and women, whether house confined or not, and all accidents, both big and small, that happen every day in every way. Benefits payable from FIRST DAY of disability, as provided. It does not skip the first 7 or 14 days as many policies do. It also pays generous benefits for loss of limbs or sight—PROTECTION FOR YOUR LOVED ONES in case of accidental death—and many other liberal benefits as you will see when you examine your policy.

Direct Mail Plan Saves You Money

Because we deal direct by mail and have no collectors, or expensive branch offices to maintain, we can pass tremendous savings on to you. The Sterling Sickness and Accident Policy gives you the MOST PROTECTION FOR LEAST MONEY. It is one of the most outstanding Insurance Bargains in America.
