The Ear Inspires the Pen

Mrs. J. M. Carothers, La Jolla, California

Sirs: Van Johnson seems to be a charming person and I can't believe he enjoys the demonstrations the youngsters put on whenever he appears. I can assure you that listeners on the radio find it extremely annoying; in fact, when he appeared on the "Radio Reader's Digest," the ohs and ahs and squeals were very irritating, heard as an undercurrent during the entire performance. Can't they be restrained? Are radio programs for the listeners or the studio audience?

Mrs. J. L. B., South Pasadena, Calif.

Sirs: Can't you do anything about the time for "One Man's Family"? Why should church-goers be deprived of one of the few programs they listen to?

What has become of Charlotte Greenwood? Can't something be done to bring her back on the air? That was such a wonderful family program.

All we can do is to print your letter in hopes that the "powers that be" realize that "One Man's Family" needs a time change and that Miss Charlotte Greenwood is mighty popular.

E. Richard Auger, Huntington Park, Calif.

Sirs: Why couldn't we have pictures of the entire group of Cliffie Stone's "Western Stars"? They are doing a fine job every day from 4:45 till 6:00 p. m.

My whole class at school joins me in this request and we all think western programs are getting more popular every day.

Peggy Kerr, 591 Lillian Way, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: We'd like to thank you sincerely for the fact that your first and among your continuing favorites have been religious program advertisements. These have stressed the "old-time religion" such as the "Haven of Rest" program. They happen to be our favorites, too; in fact, the ones that make Radio Life and radio very worth while.

Sandra Martinsen, 3970 Dalton Avenue, Los Angeles 37, Calif.

Sirs: I'd like to thank you for the swell story and pictures of Bob Graham.

Bob, who is really a swell fellow and a wonderful singer, is becoming popular very fast. I hope he will have a show of his own in the near future instead of one song weekly on the "Baby Snooks Show." Let's hear more about Bob Graham.

Beverly Molden, 2250 27th Street, Santa Monica, Calif.

Sirs: I agree with most listeners that commercials are asinine, senseless and poor, but I want to commend one program for having really fine advertising as well as one of the best comedians (including my one-time favorite, Bob Hope). I refer to Cliff Arquette on "Glamour Manor." I don't know who writes the commercials for this grand little half-hour, but I do know that I don't miss one word of it.

Cliff Arquette as "Mrs. Wilson," "Cap'n Billy" and "Cliff Arquette" is super! While I don't go for the "soap operas," I wouldn't miss Don McNeill, Cliff Arquette or Tom Breneman if I had to. I think the night programs could learn a lot about commercials by listening to any of the above-mentioned.

Mrs. Florence Smalley, 917 East Mountain Street, Pasadena, Calif.

Sirs: We all enjoy "Mayor of the Town" Saturday evening, especially Lionel Barrymore and "Marilly." Could you put her picture in Radio Life?

Radio Life, week of May 12th, carried a story and cover on Agnes Moorehead, who is the "Mayor's" Marilly.

Oscar Doctorow, 347 1/2 North Curson Avenue, Los Angeles 36, Calif.

Sirs: I would like to see some photos and stories on the following two excellent female singers of popular songs. Both are new to radio listeners: Vera Holly on KHJ, Sunday afternoons, and Patsy Bolton, child singer with an adult voice, on Eddie Cantor's program.

Request noted. A story on Patsy is in the June 2nd edition of Radio Life.

Shirley Shapiro, 6730 Colgate Avenue, Los Angeles 36, Calif.

Sirs: For a long time I have been hearing Elliot Lewis on many programs and have commented on his fine acting ability. He doesn't seem to get much recognition though, and I would appreciate a story and a picture of him. Other radio actors that are really good that I have heard are Wally Maher and Eddie Marr, also many whose names are never even mentioned. They play opposite some of the big-name guest stars and don't get any credit. "Stars Over Hollywood" always overlooks them.

In my opinion "The Thin Man" is the best mystery-comedy on the air. I also listen to "Mr. and Mrs. North" but I don't think they begin to compare with "Nick and Nora."

Our whole family rolls in the aisles when "Life of Riley" comes on the air. William Bendix is really terrific.

We appreciate your interest in the unheralded actors of radio. More of the fine radio casts should receive air credit, and Radio Life continually tries to do its best to bring them the recognition they deserve.

Mrs. W. E. Burke, 525 West Orange Grove Avenue, Pomona, Calif.

Sirs: I wish to add my voice to many who are severely criticizing Carlton E. Morse for the way he is ruining what was once a wholesome family story, "One Man's Family." I cannot imagine how the same mind can conceive two such different types of stories: "One Man's Family" as it used to be, and "I Love a Mystery," in which the people seem to kill each other just for the love of bloody murder. Is there anything helpful, uplifting and ennobling in that?

Why can't we have back such stories as "Those We Love" and "Point Sublime"? ("Glamour Manor" is a very poor substitute).

Robert M. Turner, Wilmington, Calif.

Sirs: Why do the fifteen-minute programs have to tell "what happened yesterday", thus giving from six to eight minutes of program? I kept time on the Perry Mason program—there was two minutes given to what happened the day before and six minutes to the regular program. I realize that without the commercial there would be no program, but sometimes they run in an extra commercial!

I am eighty years old and can get no work. Of course, I do not have to listen to the radio, but I do like the programs though they are too short. Can you not do something about it?

All we can do is print your protest. Perhaps the programs want those who have to miss a chapter or two each week to be able to follow the continuity.

Maude Parsons, San Pedro, Calif.

Sirs: Before daylight time change the time of "One Man's Family" was bad enough, but one could go to church and get out at 12:15 and still hear the program if they had a radio in their car. But 11:30 a. m. is just too much. I wish the public could put in enough protests to get it changed—so here's hoping for the best.

Nelle P. Miller Hemenway, 1527 North Avenue 49, Los Angeles 42, Calif.

Sirs: I've been an ardent listener to "One Man's Family" for years, and it's like losing an old friend to have it on at 11:30 a. m. Could we have the script or a resume of it so we won't lose all the continuity until Daylight Saving goes off? Why not a rebroadcast like Jack Benny's?

Listeners' objections to the "One Man's Family" time change are being brought to the attention of the program's sponsor. We shall hope for the best.

Mrs. W. H. Little, 501 East Manchester, Inglewood, Calif.

Sirs: Have you noticed the recent trend of so many otherwise fine radio actors to yell "Shut up!" at the slightest provocation? When my four-year-old grandson told me to "shut up" the other day, I went into a tall spin, whereupon he blubbered, "You laughed when Red Skelton's 'Junior' said it." Even Charles Laughton has this habit. For the sake of the younger generation with very big ears, I believe it should be stopped.

To the scribes who put the dialogue in radio comedians' mouths: "Shut up!"

Anna E. Bentley, 61 South Coronado Street, Ventura, Calif.

Sirs: I get so amused about the many people that complain to you about the commercials on the different programs. I enjoy them, for without them we are not likely to have any radio music or drama and I am surprised that the general public is not aware of this.

I pass your magazines on to a hospital where some of our boys are stationed and they sure enjoy them with me.

Pat Botsford, 1227 West 51st Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: I had to stay home this week because of illness and I received a pleasant surprise. I tuned in KXLA at 2:30 p. m. and out came the "Sons of the Pioneers" for fifteen whole minutes!

It's a pleasure to turn on a radio on a week-day and not hear soap opera drivel. I picked 11:30 a. m., KNX, as a likely time when the air would be free of "you-know-what" and Burritt Wheeler came on. What

TALL, LANKY WARREN WEEKS, Kansas born and bred, pursues an interesting and lucrative hobby when he isn't busy with his KECA announcing job. Warren turns out beautiful hand-made furniture. He also collects books, etchings, symphonic records and finds time to make model aeroplanes. After many years of voice and theatrical training, his radio experience began when he held such jobs as staff announcer, actor, newscaster, news editor and producer at KGW, Portland, Oregon.

HUSKY, JOLLY ROBERT E. CUMMINGS, better known to his KECAssociates as "Bob", is a native of Gary, Indiana. Most exciting and serious moment in Bob's life was the attack on Pearl Harbor. He was working at station KGMB, Honolulu. His wide background of summer stock and later announcing work on radio stations KGMB, Honolulu; KTYW, Yakima, Washington, and KGB, San Diego, makes him fully qualified for his KECA position.

DECIDING ON AN ACTING career at an early age, Rudi Gruhn soon discovered that eating was mighty important. In the jump from clerkship in a law firm to radio, Rudi flew planes, played in summer stock, pumped gas in a filling station, sold men's clothes, worked for a railroad, taught driving and ended up delivering everything from jeeps and weapons carriers to prime movers and cranes to the Army. He was on the staff of WABY, Albany, N. Y., before joining KECA.

ANNOUNCERS AT PLAY! YOU'VE WONDERED WHAT announcers do between those station breaks? Well, this will give you some idea. Here are KECA announcers Jim Butters (center) and Mel Hunt (right) trying their skill at the electric organ, while Rudi Gruhn (also of the announcing fraternity at KECA) looks on amused.

➤ RALPH LANGLEY was working as an engineer in Safford, Arizona, when a friend decided to build a radio station . . . KGLU. Adaptable Langley helped in the station's construction and remained to become its Program Director, doubling as emcee and newscaster. Now Langley starts his work day on KECA at 5:30 a. m., with his popular eye-opener, "Cousin Ralph's Musical Clock", remains to fill his regular staff announcing shift.

➤ LOU COOK IS A NORTHWEST-ERNER, and top golfer on KECA's staff . . . born in Roseburg, Oregon, he began his radio career on KHQ, in Spokane, Washington, after graduating from the University of Oregon. Arriving in Southern California, Lou worked as announcer on the old KECA-KFI staff, joining the KECA organization when that station was purchased by American Broadcasting Company. One of the highlights of his career was interviewing Father Flanigan of Boys' Town.

➤ FROM MEDICINE TO RADIO is a big jump, but James M. Butters made it. After one year of pre-med in college, Jimmie decided that acting was his forte. One summer he traveled with a vaudeville show on the Fox West Coast Circuit, playing a bazooka! Before coming to KECA, he was affiliated with KENO, Las Vegas, Nevada, KSUB, Cedar City, Utah, and KMPC, Hollywood, where he participated in several dramatic shows. An outdoors man, he prefers golf, skiing and tennis and builds model aeroplanes in his spare time.

➤ NEW YORKER IRVING HOWARD, possessor of a very infectious smile, says one of his chief ambitions is to find out if "Life Can Be Beautiful". Howard, newest member of KECA's announcing staff, has a background of network radio in New York and Chicago. Since migrating to the Coast, he's been heard on local stations in Pasadena, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. His theatrical experience includes three years at Pasadena Community Playhouse and summer stock.

➤ NATIVE ANGELENO TED BENTLEY of KECA's announcing staff was the first announcer to be heard over the new KECA, when that station moved into its studios in Hollywood, in May, 1945. In addition to his announcing duties, Bentley and his wife, Katherine, write short stories, recently completed a full-length mystery novel. Ted came to radio via dramatic school and numerous community theaters. He worked on several Los Angeles stations before joining KECA.

➤ MOST AMUSING INCIDENT in Mel Hunt's life was trying to cover up a mistake on a mystery show. The sound man was to supply twelve strokes of the clock. Thirteen strokes were heard, which convulsed everyone in the studio. Mel stepped in with the commercial and didn't "break up." Though Mel majored in chemistry, he went immediately into radio. He was on KFXM, KMPC, KFVB and KFI before joining KECA's staff. His secret passion is reading lurid, futuristic planet stories such as "Astounding", "Amazing" and "Science Fiction."

RADIO LIFE had been trailing handsome, suave, but oh, so evasive Frank Morgan for weeks and finally trapped him in his own NBC dressing room just as he started rehearsal for his summer show (replacing Benny). We emitted a happy sigh of victory and forced Mr. Morgan into the corner—but the gentleman presented a weak smile and appeared reluctant to talk about himself. The prevaricator par excellence is a shy man!

That well-known "white tie and tails" brand of levity which has become Morgan's trademark is absent from his off-mike self. He's quiet, modest and looks like a page from Esquire. Although his wonderful sense of humor never deserts him, his off-stage anecdotes are told only for the amusement of a few auditors. Morgan dislikes exhibitionism.

↑ FRANK MORGAN and Kraft Music Haller, Eddy Duchin, look over a song for a guest shot Morgan is doing. Note Morgan's brightly colored tie. He's rarely without one.

"He can be compared to the character he created on the air and screen," prefaced friend-agent, Wayne Griffin, "in the fact that Frank is enthusiastic about everything. He's eager to know something about everything and possesses more than an active interest in sports. He's limping now from a basketball injury he received last week.

Sailing Enthusiast

"He's crazy about hunting and belongs to a gun club up north, which he visits at every opportunity. Sailing, of course, is his favorite pastime"—whereupon Frank, himself, wandered into his crowded dressing room, and perceptibly brightened at the word "sailing."

He cheerfully answered all questions about his two-masted schooner,

▲ IN ANOTHER BRIGHTLY-COLORED TIE, Frank listens to directions with friend, Ken Carpenter. On Morgan's new summer show, he portrays a new type of character requested by his fans.

▲ A CAMERA STUDY OF THE ACTOR catches him in the midst of one of his tall tales. It's easy to imagine that Morgan the Great is about to come through again!

Dolphin II, which, at present, is back East. This summer the star won't be able to take his usual Eastern jaunt, but, instead, is sending for his boat. When Griffin related an anecdote about Morgan, the sailor, the latter smiled modestly and stated he'd better leave the room.

To his friends, Frank is known as the "Indestructible Morgan." This is how it happened. On a past excursion, friends James Cagney and Ralph Bellamy accompanied Morgan. Leaving port in perfect sailing weather, they were suddenly caught in a heavy storm. The Dolphin tossed madly about, causing its crew great discomfort—that is, with the exception of Morgan, who stood on the bridge, his admiral's cap cocked at a rakish angle, a cigarette burning in his long holder, and shouting, "Hmm, h—l of a night!"

"Oh," grinned Frank with a trace of the Morgan Morganisms, "that was a night!"

When quizzed about his new summer show, the actor spread out his hands apologetically.

"It's something we've wanted Frank to do for a good many years," explained Griffin. "Sort of in answer to many requests for a half and half Morgan. He'll be more than a versatile juggler of words, he'll combine a little drama with his comedy. But it definitely will be a comedy situation show, built around a new character Frank will create."

As Morgan was called back to rehearsal someone commented on his performance in the eleven-year-old musical, "Naughty Marietta."

"That still playing around?", Morgan grinned.

"And there," smiled Griffin, as the door closed behind Morgan, "goes Frank. His friends take him at face value, and contrary to reports, don't expect him constantly to weave tall tales."

"Of course nobody was the least bit surprised," he concluded, "when Frank got lost on the Constellation's first trip to New York. After four wonderful days, the plane was set to return to California—except for Morgan. Nobody could find him. But he turned up at the last moment without an explanation, and away they flew. Nobody knows to this day what happened to him and they probably never will because when Frank won't talk, he won't talk."

My regards to a program called "Concert Encores". They always play the best in music and there is no tiresome advertising along with it. Without your swell magazine I never would have found out about it.

Mrs. J. Shelton, 3845 Wavell Drive, Los Angeles 41, Calif.

Sirs: I think special mention should be given Ralph Edwards for the grand work he is doing. His program last Saturday night (April 27) was no doubt the grandest thing ever on the air. No doubt many a tear was wiped away for sheer happiness, as people listened to the marvelous future outlined for the happy boy in Birmingham Hospital.

Jean Rollins, 2420 Chariton Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: Would you kindly run a story about the "Sunrise Salute" program?

There is one person I especially enjoy on the program. His name is Bob Franklin and I think his quips with Bert Wheeler are a source of enjoyment and laughter to start my day off right. I think he's a pixie!

Sirs: My, my, are we glad to see some of our old favorites back from the wars? Take for instance, hen-pecked "Wallace Wimple" on the "Fibber McGee" program. We Jolly Boys of the Orange Rotary Club are now wondering if he is not a nephew of Adin Wimple, newly-elected president of our Club.

LISTENING PLEASURE

RADIO: West ★ National and International

Radio Crime

District Attorney Howser stated last week his intention to prove radio crime programs are a contributing cause to juvenile delinquency. Howser declared: "Repeatedly we have evidence that the inspiration for crime comes from the radio to which boys and girls listen hour after hour," and he added, "But they get more than inspiration if they are really looking for something more. They get the actual training from those programs, which announce that they are based on the crime as it was committed. Fact by fact the whole procedure is built up for the listening student."

Howser said that, with the help of the grand jury, parents and teachers, he will bring a test case into the courts.

Substitute

Richard Greene graciously stepped into the guest-star role on last Thursday's NBC Dinah Shore program, to substitute for his friend, David Niven, whose appearance was cancelled following the sudden accidental death of his wife.

Surprise

Radio Life had a surprise visitor the other afternoon in the person of Billy Idleson. Listeners will remember him well as "Rush" of the "Vic and Sade". NBC's "One Man's Family" audience will now hear him as "Pinky" (while Dix Davis is away in the Army).

Information

In case, like us, you wondered about it that really was Joan Davis playing the violin and Harry von Zell playing the piano on Joan's CBS broadcast of May 20th.

Turning Builder

When Bob Burns' NBC airshow vacations for the summer, Leo Gorcey, Bob's babbling Brooklynite, plans to devote his time to directing construction of a two-story medical building on a lot he recently bought in San Fernando Valley. Office leases are now being signed though ground is not broken.

Nice Story

A number of weeks ago, Ge Ge Pearson of NBC's Red Skelton show was looking for a maid. She called an employment agency which soon sent out a girl. The girl worked as Ge Ge's maid for three days, then the actress hired a new maid. But no, the first girl wasn't fired. Ge Ge has made the girl her ward and is financing a college education for her.

The girl is 21-year-old Valerie Zaggan, a Rumanian war refugee whose relatives were killed in the war.

Portland's Hospitality

Who says the South has a monopoly on hospitality? Did you hear what Portland, Oregon, is doing in honor of its favorite program, Mutual's "Queen For A Day"? Jack Bailey and company are arriving on Friday, June 7th, to hold court on behalf of the state's annual rose festival.

In order that would-be "Queens" and spectators can attend the broadcast in the civic auditorium without missing any of the major events of the day, the start of the floral parade will be delayed half an hour, until after "Queen" show time.

From New York

Dorothy Claire, Betty Hutton-ish songstress who was Tony Martin's guest on his CBS airtel of May 25th, was star of her own airshow in New York—a program entitled "Dorothy Claire Sings". Upon her arrival on the west coast, Dorothy occupied a coveted guest spot with Bing Crosby and introduced a catchy new tune called "They've Got Lots of Coffee in Brazil". Have you heard it?

Joined the Ranks

KFWB's new disc jockey, Bill Anson, and his pretty wife have joined the ranks of brand new Californians with no place to live. "It's a lovely place," said Bill, "but I'll bet it would be even lovelier if we had a place to hang our hats. Besides, there's a pretty year-and-a-half-old miss in Chicago who's waiting for us to find her a home so she can join us!"

Welcome Home

Nineteen-year-old Eric Burtis, three weeks out of the Navy, rang us up the other afternoon to let us know he was back at the microphone again. Dialers will remember his frequent appearances on many of Hollywood's top airshows.

New Night Show

"Mirth and Melody", new record show heard on KLAC every Saturday night at 11:10 p. m., continues a three-way partnership begun during school days. Writer Dick Pedicini and co-emcees Earl Lamm and Phil Norman were fellow college students when they conceived the idea for their record show. Though military service interrupted their plans for several years, the trio picked up their work on returning to Hollywood. Unique feature of the show is a "G. I. Gripecase" during which a returning G. I. airs his particular peeve.

Ouch!

Madge Evans on KHJ's "Leave It To the Girls" round-table, got no more back-talk from recent guest Ben Grauer (Walter Winchell's announcer) when he asked, "Why is it that women gossip more than men?"

And she answered: "I'll rest my case after having heard a certain Sunday night program with which you are connected!"

On the Safe Side

We know vocalist Amy Arnell of the NBC Abbott and Costello show is a very resourceful young lady who will never be left in the "lurch"—if she forgets the lyrics of her song, that is. Amy has a plastic cigarette case in which she carries a card with the lyrics of her song typed on it. In case she forgets a word, a quick glance through the transparent case puts her back on the beam.

Oooh, Ben!

Experts on Mutual's "Lady Be Beautiful" show sometimes wish that emcee Ben Alexander weren't quite so flip with the answers. When Ben asked famous hat designer Josephi to describe a recent contestant's chapeau, Josephi announced it was a togue.

Ben came back with, "That's no togue, son!"

What He Said!

La Cienega's famed eatery, the House of Murphy, has been running some pretty startling commercials on its KHJ "Diamond Edition of the News" recently, but the customers love it. Such as: "It's a very simple place to find if you remember it's at What's new on ABC this week? Let's see... On Sundays, starting June 2nd, you'll hear the views of Sam Pettengill, well known news commentator, who starts his own quarter-hour program over ABC-KECA at 11:45 a.m. The new commentary series will be sponsored by America's Future, Inc... Bowling fans attention! Also on June 2nd, ABC's highly successful new audience participation program, "Right Down Your Alley," gets a sponsor... the Hastings Manufacturing Company. Program, which originates in the Roxy Bowling Center in Manhattan, is emceed by Bill Slater, outstanding sports announcer. There's a riot of fun as contestants bowl for prizes, which are determined by the number of pins knocked down. "Right Down Your Alley" is heard over KECA at 12:30 p.m. Sundays.

That long-time popular commentary series, "Layman's Views of the News," featuring Alvin Wilder, starts its run over the Pacific Coast network of ABC, on Wednesday, June 5th. To be aired by KECA at 8:15 p.m., Wilder will discuss up-to-the-minute news and world affairs. His Wednesday night series will be in addition to his current Monday thru Friday programs on KECA at 4:30 p.m.

... ALWAYS GOOD LISTENING ON 790 ...

Something new in honored guests... Four couples whose married lives totaled 207 years of happiness were recent guests on ABC's "Bride and Groom" show (KECA at 3:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday). Emcee John Nelson interviewed one Santa Ana couple who were celebrating their 57th wedding anniversary, and three other couples who were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversaries... There's a new time and day for ABC's psychological drama, "Retribution." Starting June 4th at 7:30 p.m., the plays will be extended to half-hour length... Also moving to a new day is KECA's popular "Prevention Preferred," which will be heard on Thursdays at 6:15 p.m. hereafter.

... ALWAYS GOOD LISTENING ON 790 ...

The producers of "Take It From There" have devised a novel stunt for their Saturday afternoon ainer, ABC-KECA at 2. Have you ever looked for a needle in a hay stack? Well, the chances are you may have... if you have attended "Take It From There" recently. Fifteen silver needles and one of gold are lost in a stack of hay, then some patient soul is chosen from the studio audience to search for them. The search goes on through the half-hour show... and believe it or not, many of the needles are found! The silver needles pay off in merchandise prizes and the gold needle is worth $25 to its finder... So if you want to put the old proverb into practice, plan to attend the show. Write "Take It From There," care of KECA for your free tickets... Speaking of stunts and such... Johnny Olsen has revamped his "Ladies, Be Seated," and now the ABC audience participating program is a daily riot of fast-paced comedy and laughter. New stunts and new gags are the order of the day on this 12:30 Monday thru Friday ainer.

Johnny Olsen

ing a movie at Columbia... George Hicks' famous D-Day broadcast has been waxed for sale to the public by Crown Records... Hicks is currently heard as the voice of U. S. Steel on "The Theatre Guild on the Air," Sundays at 6 p.m. on ABC-KECA... The three "best band leaders" from three corners of the U.S. have been chosen for the free trips to Hollywood to participate in finals of Sammy Kaye's "So You Want to Lead a Band" contest, which will be held at the Palladium, Wednesday, June 5th... Hear it over KECA at 6:30 p.m.

NEXT WEEK

If you've wondered what Jack Carson's "Hubba-hubba Girl," Randy Stuart, looks like, you'll have a chance to view the pretty lady on our cover. No wonder Jack drools on his CBS airshow, "She's a honey!"... Bob Burns has been accused so often of telling a tall tale in lieu of a real tale, that he swears on a stack of Radio Lives that "It's the Truth!" His list of true experiences are as amusing as his list of radio happenings... Remember "The Kid"? Of course — and he's still the same lovable, laughable Jackie Coogan. Only he's grown up and taken to the air in more than one way... Another Academy Award Winner, Donald Crisp, has joined the list of radio regulars. We meet him and introduce him to you... Number Three of a Series, "Little Women Behind Big Men," and another in the series of "Voices You Hear," will be continued... Radio Life says thank you to the recipients of our yearly awards who have said thank you to us... and on a most serious note, radio combats the accident death toll with a gripping airshow that pulls no punches, "Design for Death"... Don't miss this interesting issue.

BURNS, THE POET

Colette Burns, the girl Friday of Richfield Reporter Editor Wayne Miller, recently won a top prize in a national poetry contest.

ATTENTION LADIES!!! HERE ARE TWO GENTLEMEN WHO HAVE YOUR INTERESTS AT HEART — BUT DEFINITELY. THEY'RE HEARD ON "LADIES' DAY" MONDAY THROUGH SATURDAY AT 4:00 P. M. OVER KFI.

Bill Stulla

BILL STULLA writes the show, programs the music, gathers the information and delivers the goods via the mike on "Ladies' Day". Personally, he's a very friendly guy with a wonderful sense of humor.

Bob Mitchell

BOB MITCHELL'S superb musicianship is shown through the medium of the piano and the electric organ — with all numbers aimed to please the "Ladies". Also featured on the program on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday is the lovely tenor voice of BILL SHIRLEY.

FOR "LADIES' DAY" DIAL 640.

NEW ARRIVAL

Bill Lally, former Yankee Network announcer of Boston, Mass., has joined the KGFJ announcing staff. Lally was formerly overseas with a combat photographic unit and served in the States as a narrator with a motion picture unit.

YOUNG "OLDSTER"

Ann Pickard, youngest member of Columbia's "Pickard Family" is a veteran of seventeen years in radio—and she's only twenty-one. Ann made her radio debut at the age of four—and had to stand on a chair to reach the microphone.

COLLABORATORS

According to the credits listed over the air, Jack Harvey, Jay Sommers and Si Wills write the CBS "Joan Davis Show". But the list of names on the door of the writers' office include two other pretty good scribblers—Joe Miller and William Shakespeare.

HENRY'S PROMOTED

Henry Blair, "Little Beaver" on Mutual's "Red Ryder" series, plays his version of the "Red Ryder" stories with the neighborhood kids on week-ends. Only difference is that on Saturday afternoons he's "Red Ryder"—the role of "Little Beaver" falls to the youngest member of the gang.

CONCERT PASTELLE

The question of Swing, Jive, Classical or other types of music for Teen-Agers has had Ed Stoddard, announcer of KGFJ's "Concert Pastelle", 8 to 9 a. m. daily, out on the familiar limb. Recently, he played several heavy concert selections on "Concert Pastelle" and was kept busy answering calls from Teen-Age voices interested in improving their record collections and praising the hour of fine music.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION

Art Gilmore is celebrating both his birthday and tenth anniversary in radio. The announcer-narrator is currently heard on "Dr. Christian," "Red Ryder," "Stars Over Hollywood" and the "Bullock's Show," and has movie acting assignments in "Rendezvous 24" and "One Life too Many."

ALL FOR ALLMAN

The entire cast of the CBS Durante-Moore show greeted Elvia Allman with open arms when she turned up as "Mrs. Ponkdennis Penshmooster" on a recent Rexall show. Incidentally, this was her first appearance on the program since her recent marriage.

NEW ADDITION

Howard Flynn is the latest veteran from the AAF to join KGFJ's announcing staff. Flynn, a native Angeleno, was a New York announcer for NBC, CBS, Mutual and American before joining the armed forces.

NEW CANDIDATE

CBS' Tommy Riggs (Betty Lou's friend) has become a candidate in the honorary mayoralty race in Encino, California.

TRIED EVERYTHING

Although Bartlett Robinson plays a newspaperman, "Walter Manning" in NBC's "Portia Faces Life," in real life he's done just about everything except that. During the depression years, Robinson was a cab driver, gardener, clerk and door-to-door salesman.

WHODUNT FAN

NBC announcer Ken Carpenter confesses to being an avid mystery fan. Besides his other reading, he estimates he manages to read about four mystery stories a week.

A RECORD?

On June 4th, Jimmy Scribner, creator of Mutual's "Johnson Family," will celebrate his five thousandth broadcast!

FASHION EXPERT

Renie, RKO fashion designer heard as guest expert on Mutual's "Lady Be Beautiful," is a tennis enthusiast. Combining both talents, she is currently working on a design for a smart tennis dress that you can really play tennis in!

★ BEA-BOP

Bea Benadaret, who plays Gloria, the maid, on CBS's "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet," was the first member of the cast signed for the show—and without an audition. Ozzie and Harriet had both worked with Bea on the Red Skelton program several seasons ago and appreciated her talents.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

"This is Los Angeles," a new quarter-hour radio program now being broadcast over KFWB every Sunday at 2:30 p. m., is the latest effort on the part of the L. A. Chamber of Commerce to inform Southern California residents about their own expanding metropolis. Producer Ted Gifford brings prominent L. A. business men before the KFWB microphone each Sunday.

★ THERE'S A DIFFERENCE?

If you've been using the words "conductor" and "bandleader" interchangeably—you're wrong, according to Lloyd Shaffer, maestro of NBC's "Supper Club" series. He maintains that the boy who fronts a dance band is a "leader" since he merely beats time. A conductor not only beats time, but changes tempo and directs every movement of the orchestra.

★ BOMB GROUP

Raymond Gram Swing, Clete Roberts, Frederick B. Opper and Larry Tighe will comprise the ABC group covering the forthcoming atomic bomb tests—"Operation Crossroads"—to be held in mid-Pacific this summer.

★ ONCE A GAGMAN—

Vance Colvig, who writes gags for ABC's "Breakfast in Hollywood," gained his first comedy experience at the age of six when he was featured in many of the Buster Brown, Mickey Maguire and other two-reel kid comedies.

★ CHARM CLINIC

"Charm Clinic of the Air," presented on KMPC Friday afternoons at 1:45 p. m., is conducted by Virginia Barnelle, former model and actress.

★ FORMER PIANIST

Tommy Riggs, heard on CBS with alter ego, "Betty Lou," began his radio career as half of a piano team on Station KDKA, Pittsburgh.

★ QUIZ MISTRESS

KFOX's quiz mistress, Betty Allen, invades the Long Beach "She Salon" to quiz and comment with the lady guests.

★ BUSINESS BUREAU

"Special Investigator," heard on KHJ each Sunday at 5:30 p. m., is a dramatized account of America's profiteers. The Los Angeles Better Business Bureau cooperates in the production of the show.

★ FOR WESTERN FANS

Spade Cooley and his gang, heard on KFVD, have recently recorded sixteen sides for Columbia records.

RADIO WEST

Fourth and La Cienega . . . right across the street from Eaton's Restaurant." And: "Ceiling prices have been a boon to a great many people, particularly those people who dine at the House of Murphy. They are very pleased ceiling prices exist because they've noticed Mrs. Murphy is wearing a new mink coat." And: "Ordinarily we would tell you at this point that the House of Murphy is the only New York chop house west of New York, but today being Tuesday, and Tuesday being the day the House of Murphy is closed, we suggest you go eat at another restaurant on Restaurant Row."

That's what the man said, that's what he said!

★ ★ HOWARD FLYNN ON KGFJ

Howard Flynn is the latest veteran from the AAF to join KGFJ's announcing staff. Flynn, a native Angeleno, went to New York in '36, where he did announcing stints over NBC, CBS, Mutual and the Blue Network before joining the armed forces in 1942.

★ "BEAVER" BLAIR

Henry Blair, thirteen-year-old radio veteran who portrays "Little Beaver" in Mutual's "Red Ryder," has appeared in over 300 broadcasts and 30 movies since first appearing before the mike in a "Silver Theater" show in 1944.

★ CAREER-BABIES

Michael Douglas, singer on NBC's "Kay Kyser Show," is proud that his thirteen-months-old twins, Michele and Christine, have been chosen to appear in a movie featurette. Michael hopes eventually that the girls become singers and musicians.

★ NEW AWARD

Jean Hersholt, CBS' "Dr. Christian," received yet another award recently, this time "in recognition of exceptional and meritorious service in the cause of the nation's health." The citation was presented by the Tuberculosis and Health Association.

★ MORE TEEN-AGERS

Every Saturday from 12:45 p. m. until 5:00, Hal Shjdeler holds open house at station KGER for all teen-agers. The kids are invited to bring their own records for "Record Party," and cokes and potato chips are on the house.

★ TINTINNABULATION

NBC's Alec Templeton is extremely fond of the sound of tinkling music and bells, and his home is full of music box surprises.

Cantor's Gotta New Gal

By Tod Fredricks

*She's Cute, Fourteen-Year-Old
Patsy Bolten, Who Is the Latest
Cantor "Cinderella" Discovery*

Wednesday, 5 p. m.
NBC—KFI, KFSD

LOOKEE," exclaimed 14-year-old Patsy Bolten, "I gotta letter from a soldier who wants a picture of me in a bathing suit!"

"You're going to be a pin-up girl," we assured this newest discovery of Eddie Cantor.

"Who me?" she grinned. "I'm too fat."

"What about your fan mail?" we quizzed. Is it fun being hurled into the spotlight of success and getting lots of letters from fans all over the United States?

"Gosh, yes," enthused Patsy. "I want to answer them all by hand."

"How about getting a typewriter, honey?" asked the singer's sister and guardian.

"Huh uh," retorted Patsy, "I'd rather do it by hand. And besides, I can't type."

When the time for Patsy's duet (her first) with Mr. Cantor arrived, we followed and listened. It was amazing, we agreed, that the four-foot eight-inch singer possessed such a versatile range. And many a grown-up sister could take a lesson in poise from this little miss. "She's marvelous," averred Cantor, "there doesn't seem to be a nerve in her body."

Patsy came bounding back full of excitement. "Mr. Cantor liked my dress. I'm so glad."

Likes Pinafores

Patsy's pretty sister confided that her kid sis has become clothes conscious. Perky, a Sunset Strip dress designer, is responsible for the youngster's becoming pinafores. For that night's performance she was wearing a yellow silk trimmed with a white eyelet apron.

"I adore cologne," confided Patsy, with a watchful eye upon her sister as she sprinkled a small dab on her neck. "It makes you smell so nice."

What about school? "Oh, that," explained the child in an off-hand way, "is fun. I go to the Hollywood Professional School and I'm in the ninth grade."

"Oh, the most wonderful thing happened today!" she exclaimed. "Mitzie Steiner started a fan club for me. Isn't that nice? I haven't seen her for three years. You'd like her."

It was through Cantor's pianist, Bee Walker, that Patsy was discovered. Since she was four, her talents had been encouraged by her elder brothers and sisters. She headed for Hollywood from Pittsburgh last winter and for a while sang on a daytime sustaining program. Upon hearing her audition a few months later, Cantor immediately wrote her into his own show. Now she is deluged with tempting offers, but has decided to take Mr. Cantor's advice and "take it easy."

Great Book Worm

Patsy's not much of an outdoor girl. She'd much rather read. She continually amazes her family with her knowledge of current affairs. It has been her constant reading which has enabled her to deliver her lines on the Cantor show in a thoroughly professional way.

Patsy is filled with ambition—"Golly, I've got so many"—and intends to slim down for screen purposes. But the immediate worry on her young mind was how to answer the soldier's request for a bathing suit picture.

At the suggestion of sending the young man in question a picture of herself in an old-fashioned swimming suit, Patsy smiled broadly. "That's what I'll do. Oh, I ought to go find my sister and ask her if I can." And away she flew.

"That Patsy," smiled Cantor. "Her little mind flits from one thing to another with lightning speed. But mark my words, she'll be one of the biggest stars in radio within two years."

And Cantor ought to know!

HERE'S THE STORY so many of you Radio Lifers have requested for so long... a schedule and pictures of your midnight to dawn radio show favorites.

The accompanying pictures are representative of air fare from 12:00 to 6:00 a. m. Majority of this time is devoted to platter spinning, with informal comment. News is sprinkled throughout the small hours.

If you like this "spread", let us know and we'll start assembling a similar one on the "early bird" programs from 6:00 to 8:00 a.m.

BY THE TIME this reaches print, newscaster Bob Garred will be a newlywed, the happy husband of Miss Frances Lawler of Westchester County, New York. At the time of our interview, this coming event was the big thing in the youthful newsman's life, though he smilingly dwelt only briefly on the subject. He told us about the house he had acquired in Westwood, describing it as "dinky" and furnished with just "four nondescript chairs". "Frances will do the furnishing," he assured us—and himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Garred met a year and a half ago in Washington, D. C., when both of them were in the Navy. Back in civvies and at his CBS newscasting post for several months now,

He Was There

By Lynn Roberts

Bob tallied his time in service as exactly "three years, six months and twenty-three days". When released, he carried the rank of lieutenant commander. He served as an Air Combat Intelligence Officer, with two years' active service in the Pacific theater.

Just Like Hollywood

"I met some other radio people while I was out there," Garred reminisced. "Had lunch with Art Gilmore on Guam, also saw Ben Alexander, and the Bob Hope troupe."

After the armistice, Garred was assigned to Japan where, with the U. S. Strategic Bombing Survey, he examined the extent of damage done by American bombing missions (the atom-splitting ones included) and interrogated high-ranking Japanese naval officers—among them, Captain Omae and Captain Fushida of the Nipponese Imperial Navy who, respectively, planned and led the air attack on Pearl Harbor, and the Jap lieutenant commander who dive-bombed the Hornet.

Asked about the attitude of the whipped Nips, the newsman related that, to them, having lost the war seemed to be like "turning off a faucet". "We found them cooperative," he continued, "and the information they gave us honest. Of course, they fully realized that we were able to check up on all they said. Those who were branded as 'war criminals' were the most hesitant and nervous. The others, matter-of-fact.

"Tokyo," he went on, "we found about fifty-five per cent destroyed. One thing, incidentally, seemed quite amazing to me—the fact that any of us could walk around Tokyo, in the darkest alleys and dirtiest districts, after dark, alone and unarmed, and never have the slightest fear. We were never molested in any way. I wouldn't think of trying that right here in L. A."

In response to our further queries,

GARRED, ON THE JOB at CBS in the early dawn, has to be awakened by two alarm clocks and a phone call from the studio. Navy life didn't destroy his tendency to oversleep.

Bob Garred Is Now Back at Newscasting Post, Reminisces over War Experiences in Pacific And Japan, Beams over New Newlywed Status

the newscaster said that he had learned enough Japanese "to get by", and informed us that the Japanese table delicacies are "quaint but good". Sweet potatoes, he related, are the country's chief staple. The other assorted Japanese tummy-tempters Mr. Garred named shouldn't even be mentioned in the same breath (let alone eaten) as they are, mildly speaking, a good deal less reasonable (let alone appetizing) than potatoes—dishes such as raw fish ("garnished until it's good") and boned pre-hatched sparrows served on a toothpick!

Drink Soup

"Soup was puzzling," recalled Bob, "considering that we had to eat with hashi (chopsticks), until I watched the natives and found that they set aside their hashi, tipped the bowl to their mouths and drank the soup! Simple, huh?"

Garred remarked that his pet peeve while out in the Pacific was the "armchair expert" back home. "Don't get me wrong, though," he grinned. "Most of my best friends are commentators."

The newscaster declared his belief that television has a big place in radio news reporting. "There's a six-hour newsreel television service already in operation in New York," he pointed out. "The split-image is employed, with the audience viewing the newscaster on one side, and on the other, an on-the-spot movie of the event about which he is talking!"

"Also, of course," he said further, "the newsman will be able to make use of maps and charts. Television will make radio still more effectively instructive. It will be a wonderful thing!" Then he grinned, "Take 'Aunt Jenny', for instance. She'll be yah-tah-ing on one side of the screen, and mixing up a cake batter on the other! Won't it be wonderful!"

Away from the teletype and microphone, tall (six feet, two), husky, curly-haired, boyish-faced Garred likes to play golf and tennis, work around the house—and cook! His biggest trouble is getting up in the morning. "I seem to have a great tendency to oversleep," he confessed, "which isn't good, when I have a 7:30 a.m. broadcast and have to drive from Westwood to Hollywood in time! It takes two alarm clocks and a phone call from CBS to get me there!"
