Marjorie Phillips, 118 South Stanford Way, Whittier, Calif.

Sirs: I'd like to enter a plea for so many of my friends and myself for non-musical programs after 10:00 at night. The "Times Information" program on KFI on Tuesdays and "Inside the News" at 10:30 are about all we have now that "So the Story Goes" on KHJ has been discontinued. It's hard to find good classical music and somehow I don't find back-beat boogie very relaxing.

Have you tried KNX, 10:15 p.m., Bob Elson and his interviews from the air terminals; 10:30 p.m., "Longine Symphonette" with its light classics; 11:00 p.m., Nelson Pringle and his slick human interest newscasting? Or KFI, 10:15 "Casa Cugat," 10:45 p.m. "Show Tunes"? "Pacific Story," a fine dramatic show, is heard on KFI at 11:30, Sunday nights, and Paul Carson's organ solos on "Bridge to Dreamland," 11:15 p.m., Sundays on KECA are also very popular. Then on KHJ on Saturday nights at 10:00, the "Chicago Theater of the Air" presents some fine operettas with singing and dramatic stars. How about it, readers, have any of you discovered some more night-owl listening you'd like to share.

Mrs. Henry G. Werth, 353 East 118th Place, Los Angeles 3, Calif.

Sirs: Concerning the . . . peevish about "Twenty Questions" . . . I feel like the other lady—why not tune in to a program that's similar? I like them all.

How about printing another picture of Jack Smith? A person can feel so relaxed to hear him sing. My husband and I never miss him. I hope he stays on the air many years to come and not only fifteen minutes—by all means at least one hour. He's marvelous.

Request noted. If you like Jack's singing style, you'd like Jack Berch on KFI at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Friday. He's got a similar bouncy style.

Dorothy Sparks, 1018 South Marlposa St., Glendale, Calif.

Sirs: I want to register my disappointment at not being able to hear "Cinderella, Inc." . . . It is extremely interesting and educational and I am wondering if there is any possibility of us here in the west being able to hear it again.

Could you also tell me where Perry Ward is now that he is no longer on "What's Doin', Ladies? ". I miss him, too, as he was one of my favorites.

No sign of the program you mention returning at present. We saw Perry recently and he says he's just taken his first vacation in ages, and will probably be back soon with a new type of show. He's looking marvelous, too.

Mrs. G. A. Flores, 1319 Gordon Street, Hollywood 28, Calif.

Sirs: I am a great mystery fan and I follow all the mystery stories I can. On some days there are three mystery stories on at one time. Now take Friday, at 9:00 p.m. there are no mysteries on at all, but at 9:30 p.m. there are three and I like every one of them, "Mystery Theater", "Thin Man" and "Matthew Flynn, Criminologist" . . . It would be so Leona Frala, Santa Ana, Calif.

Sirs: Here's a daytime lineup designed to blackout soap operas, morbidity and audience-show frustration:

"Breakfast Club"—Just part of it. Don't try it every day, either—it palls. Moderation is the word.

"Jack Berch Show"—Good music and zany kidding. Sociable and satisfying.

"Ladies Day Show"—Oh, boy! This is 100 per cent for the listeners. An unpretentious, cockeyed, witty answer to the housewives' moan for entertainment. Get that Bill Stulla!

"Cliff Edwards"—This is neither artistic nor the best. But "Ukelele Ike" can still put over a song.

"Lorenzo Jones"—Like to chuckle? Go ahead.

"Ethel and Albert"—Cute kids. No tears!

After three p.m. I'm all out of programs. Any suggestions? (Nothing with a message, please.) Oh, that Radio Life!

How about the "Fred Waring Show," with Fred Beck, "Glamour Manor," Charlie Hamp, Bill Leyden in your early daytime lineup? And "Art Baker's Notebook," Burrill Wheeler, "Fact and Fable," "Tommy Riggs Show," Norma Young, "Norwood Smith Sings," "That's Life" (Tuesdays), "Backgrounds for Living" (Wednesdays) for your afternoon entertainment? How about you listeners—got a favorite daytime show that fits Mrs. Frala's exacting requirements?

Nancy Christenson, 101 East Magnolia Blvd., Burbank, Calif.

Sirs: Couldn't something be done to change the time of "The Garden School of the Air"? I listen to it every Wednesday evening and enjoy it very much. I don't get a chance to listen to it at 12:45 every day because I'm at school.

That's a shame, Naney. We'll print your letter so the folks at KGER will know how you feel about it.

ON OUR COVER

Helen Forrest, the blonde-tressed, suede-clad miss on our cover, co-stars with Dick Haymes every Thursday evening at six over CBS, and with him, carols "capsule operas," batoned by Gordon Jenkins and orchestra.

Lydia H. Dunbar, 1040 26th Street, San Diego, Calif.

Sirs: . . . I am venturing to ask you whether you could not in some way induce speakers over the radio to enunciate more clearly the last names of people to whom they refer on their broadcasts. Most of them either drop their voices at the end or speak them as fast as first names. So much easier to catch and in my estimation more than half of last names mentioned are not intelligible to their listeners.

They shouldn't need any inducement — isn't that one of the first lessons taught in dramatics?

Mrs. A. M. Owen, 562 East Garvey Ave., El Monte, Calif.

Sirs: Why do we not have radio returned to us? . . .

Such inane noises are made to acquaint us with the fact that the program is on the air, and then proceed to ruin them for us. Now another transcription is added—a squealing female that is fit to burst one's eardrums. "Aunt Jenny" has a lovely serial each day with no such approach—no silly songs, serving no purpose whatever, only to spoil our enjoyment. Why can't we have more of the serials and less of the nonsense?

Raymond M. Arnold, 408 South Spring St., Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: I would certainly vote for elimination of studio audiences or make it a rigid rule no noise permitted during broadcast, except possibly at end of program—when suitable applause. Of course studio participation programs would be exempt, but especially in dramatic skits such as "Gildersleeve", "Ozzie and Harriet", etc., there should not be studio laughter or applause during program.

Al and Net Harris, 843 Hilldale Avenue, West Hollywood, Calif.

Sirs: Tell us what has happened to Cliff Arquette, who was on "Glamour Manor". They sure spoiled the program for us when he did not come back on the air this fall. We think he is a great comedian and hope some sponsor puts him on the air again.

Cliff isn't on the air as we write this. It would be nice to have him back again.

EVERYBODY CALLS HIM "SCHLEPP"

Former Rube Comedian Sam Hearn Was "Schlepperman" So Successfully That Even Pals Call Him That Now

BACK in 1933 Sam Hearn, now featured on "Glamour Manor," was playing the part of Charlie Butterworth's father in a Broadway musical. The show was a hit and so was Sam in his usual character of rube comedian. Everything was fine until a committee getting up the annual entertainment at the Friar's Club, famous actor's organization, tapped Sam Hearn to appear.

"The deal was," explained Sam as he related the story to us, "everyone who was asked to entertain had to JEANNE TATUM, known in wartime as the G. I.'s "dream girl", (she was WAC in 2nd Service Command) here broadcasts as a civilian on "Warriors of Peace", heard over ABC.

JUST IN CASE you didn't realize it, you are a radio sponsor. Uncle Sam is in the radio field for the purpose of getting voluntary enlistments in the Army and you have a stake in the deal. Some of the most outstanding radio fare is being sponsored by the United States Army Recruiting Service. The programs are "Sound Off With Mark Warnow" and "Warriors of Peace". Also broadcasts of many football games on Saturdays, over MBS and ABC, and according to information at presstime, a new Guy Lombardo show.

Voluntary enlistments are surprisingly good and there is no doubt that the medium of radio can be credited with much of the success of the recruitment program. Millions of people hear the Army-sponsored programs every week and these programs are considered in the radio trade to be among the finest on the air. For example, the "Sound Off With Mark Warnow" show was started as a summer replacement program on CBS, but met with such great response from the trade and the public that it has been continued for an indefinite period on Mutual.

"Warriors of Peace" is produced and directed by Earle McGill. "Sound Off With Mark Warnow" moved to Hollywood last month, is being produced by Charles Herbert and is featuring special guests such as Ginny Simms, Dinah Shore, Judy Garland.

(Please Turn to Page 15)

AMONG NOTED GUESTS to make appearances on the "Warriors of Peace" program was John B. Kennedy, former ambassador to Russia.

HARRY WISMER, sports director of ABC, is sportscaster for all official Army games.

"SOUND OFF" has noted maestro Mark Warnow as musical director and Lyn Murray, left, as choral director.

"A Star at Home"

Jim and Henny Backus Kid Fan Magazine Layouts (and Is Our Face Slightly Red?)

By Coy Williams

HE'S AN AVID COLLECTOR OF ART OBJECTS

HE LOVES TO CURL UP WITH A GOOD BOOK

IF YOU READ the fan magazines, you know that Joe Gloop, the handsome movie star, is a swell cook, loves his wife and bounces his beautiful children on his knee, and that Mamie Mushroom, the radio chanteuse, is the picture of glamour even with soapsuds in her eyes.

Maybe Joe actually beats his wife and can't stand those brats of his ... and Mamie possibly looks a holy fright until she's been run through the Westmore assembly line.

But do you, the magazine reader, see those things in pictures? Mercy, no! The press agents gotta make a living, and Joe and Mamie would not glow at observing in print such unvarnished and unrehearsed truth.

We at Radio Life have wondered about it more than once as we thumbed through the stacks of photos that pictured the stars in idyllic surroundings, doing all the things every day that you and I wish we could do just once in a while.

Then we met Jim Backus. (You've met him on the radio many times—as Hubert Updyke III, the snooty playboy on the Alan Young show; as Byron Swinburne, the wolfish bus-boy on the Don Ameche show; as Bob Burns' no-good brother-in-law, and many other characters.) We learned that Jim had been looking at those magazine pictures, too. He'd noticed how the rhapsodic captions were almost bromidic in their stereotyped sameness.

Willing Subjects

So Jim and his good-looking wife, Henny, whose talents combine radio and stage acting with sculpting, volunteered to pose for a layout satirizing "A Star at Home." The captions are those you usually see . . . but the pictures are what Jim thinks actually happens when the photographer isn't around.

HE EXCELS AT SPORTS

Backus makes a good living and has lots of fun kidding the pompous show-offs, the unimaginative Babbitts and the humorless bores.

A Hubert Updyke, who drips with wealth and exclusiveness ("Please get me another chair. That one looks as if it's been used"), and as Byron Swinburne, who upon being introduced to a glamour girl breathes hotly down her neck, "I love you madly! Meet me at midnight and we'll fly away together," Backus caricatures both the upper-crusty set and the Hollywood wolf.

He gets the same delight out of writing personal letters to the sales department of the Encyclopedia Britannica when they send him stuffy form notes reminding him that a payment is due: "I thought your last letter sounded a trifle petulant and I worried about it. Didn't you rest well last night? Why don't you take an aspirin, go back to bed, and then write me again in the morning. HmMMMM?"

Such buffoonery, on and off the air, has caused a lot of talk about Backus in radio circles. Robert S. Stephan, eminent Cleveland critic, labels Jim as one of the top comedians. Recently the radio editor of the San Francisco Chronicle clambered out on a limb and proclaimed that for his dough Hubert Updyke was the funniest character in radio today, and should be nominated the best newcomer of the 1946-47 season.

Backus confesses that Hubert is not entirely a creature of his imagination. He once knew a chap almost as stuffy about his money and position and with a Hahvahd accent t h a t thick.

To perfect the accent Jim says he hung around the Harvard Club in New York, talking like the rest of them through clenched teeth.

With "The Boys"

Backus grew up in Cleveland, attended the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York, and then returned to Cleveland to work in stock companies. He was doing fine until an attack of appendicitis forced a retirement for several months. Needing to stay quiet, but needing money more, he started doing radio bits. His first job was with Lum 'n' Abner in Cleveland.

In 1936 he moved to New York and spent the next eight years working on practically every program on the air. For some time he did fourteen broadcasts a week. He had his own program for a year on CBS.

During this period he appeared in two Broadway stage productions with Keenan Wynn.

In 1944 he joined the Alan Young show and moved to Hollywood with the program early in 1946—where he has since become one of the most sought-after comedians.

His wife, Henny, is a well-known sculptress as well as stage and air actress. Her caricatures in stone, glass and metal of such personages as Katherine Hepburn, Orson Welles, Clifton Webb, Greta Garbo, Rudy Vallee and others are much prized by collectors.

interviewers and emcees who populate the dials from coast to coast. Parks and Warren don't get their laughs by insulting or embarrassing their guests. The humor comes naturally, a combination of adroit questioning by the boys and the native wit of the folks with the answers.

Our favorite "Vox Pop" program was the recent one on which Parks and Warren interviewed the people who live on Bedloe's Island in New York. Bedloe's Island, as most Americans know, is the tiny piece of land on which the Statue of Liberty rests. The simple patriotism of the handful of people who live on the Island, guards and caretakers of the Great Lady, was more thrilling than the sound of the "Star-Spangled-Banner" played by a symphony orchestra. We had tears in our eyes throughout most of the show and we'll never see a picture of the Statue of Liberty without recalling the little Cuban caretaker on the Island who wept unashamedly when he tried to tell Parks how he felt about her.

"Vox Pop" has continually searched for authentic "Americana"—and found it from coast to coast. Cigar store Indians, covered bridges, barbershop quartets are among the many subjects they've covered in their search into our lore.

There's only one thing we hold against the program. Because it is so good and has been so successful for so long, it's given rise to numerous bad copies. It was the first show to use the quiz format, first to give away money on the air, first to give gifts, first to tour the road, etc., etc. You can see what Parks Johnson started!

No mention of "Vox Pop" is complete without reference to the gifts given on the show. Not only are they luxurious, they are chosen with nice taste and originality. We understand that it's Mrs. Parks Johnson who does the selecting, and for that she's a very important part of a good show. Last week (Dec. 3) a lady was gifted with a fitted handbag which contained a round trip ticket to Mexico City. That's what we call fitted!

"Hollywood Players"

When Bette Davis, John Garfield, Gregory Peck, Joan Fontaine, Paulette Goddard, Gene Kelly, Claudette Colbert and Joseph Cotten got together to form "Hollywood Players", we looked forward to some fine drama. All in all we've been very well satisfied. Their scripts have been chosen from screen plays that haven't been done too often on the air. The performances have been uniformly good—Paulette Goddard has been an especial surprise in her sprightly roles in "Kitty" and "Standing Room Only".

This radio stock company was really formed by the stars named above. Bette Davis, who champions many worthy ideas, was the guiding hand behind its organization. We're looking forward to Bette's return to the air after the birth of her baby, and hope that we'll be hearing her in the long-promised "Elizabeth, the Queen".

In addition to the stars mentioned, many other fine performances have been given by motion picture people. Louise Allbritton, John Lund, Rosemary De Camp, Rex Harrison. Radio-ites come in for their share of the spotlight, too. Tom Collins was featured in "Kitty" with Paulette. Lurene Tuttle's role in "Nothing Sacred" was pre-eminent over Joe Cotten's. Francis X. Bushman, Herbert Rawlinson and Gerald Mohr are other regulars on the show. It's nice to hear AFRA-ites getting billing with the big name movie talent, too.

On December twenty-fourth the "Hollywood Players" are fulfilling one of their ambitions. An unknown starlet, Janet Leigh, will be starred, while Peck, Garfield, Cotten and Kelly will play supporting roles in an original radio drama. It will be Miss Leigh's first network appearance, and with such support she should soon be taking her place among the movie famous.

We especially like Bernard Katz's music on the show. It's on the high par with Russ Hughes' adaptations of the scripts and Don Clark's production. Frank Bingham is the show's announcer.

We're looking forward to the day when the "Hollywood Players" can fulfill another acting ambition—appear together on one program!

"Dark Venture"

If you have a liking for air fare like "Suspense" and "The Whistler", it's pretty much of a cinch that you'll sit back and listen with considerable enjoyment each week to ABC's "Dark Venture".

This is another psychological thrill show that presents stories of ordinary people—like you and me—who become involved in dire difficulties. The theory of the program is that every person, at one time or another in his life, stands on the brink of a "dark venture"—a journey into the paths of terror and wrong-doing. The show dramatizes the plight of those who are unable to turn away from these ominous fates.

The emotions which motivate the people whose stories are told are, of course, the elemental ones of love, hate, jealousy, pity and greed—qualities which are part of us all and therefore, strike the listeners' minds with power and effectiveness.

Sunday's a day (and we won't rhyme it by saying . . . on KECA) when we point with pride to the periods of "good listening" music, spotted throughout the day . . . music planned to satisfy every taste . . . music that's just downright easy listening.

For instance, if you're an early getter-upper, there's a program of familiar hymns to start your Sabbath right . . . the station's opener at 7 . . . "Church in the Wildwood", followed by a half-hour with those long-time network favorites, the Southernaires.

Allan Jones

Latest among the big-time stars of the musical firmament to join the ABC constellation is Allan Jones whose tenor voice is equally as well known to concert and film audiences as to radio listeners. Jones has joined the regulars on "Hollywood Music Hall" heard on Sunday afternoons, KECA at 4:30, which features the orchestra under the baton of Basil Adlam, and Vic Perrin's interesting behind-the-scenes Hollywood stories.

Allan's story is a typical "boy makes good" tale . . . for it was the faith of two thousand coal miners in his ability which started him on the road to success. They came out of the pits to attend the young singer's debut in his home town, Scranton, Pa. With the money contributed by the throng, Jones went to Europe to study and so another career was launched.

... Always A Best Dial Bet . . . 790 . . .

More songs on Sunday are heard from baritone Johnny Thompson for whom the Sabbath is anything but a day of rest. Johnny has his own quarter-hour song-session at 10 o'clock on Sunday mornings, and he shares the vocal spotlight on the five o'clock Paul Whiteman Hour with that vivacious young songstress, Eugenie Baird.

Two other long-time favorites with the listeners also come to you on Sundays . . . Sammy Kaye and Wayne King . . . You hear that man Kaye with his "swing and sway" music every Sunday morning at 10:30, and in the afternoon at 3:30, the man who is still America's "Waltz King" . . . Wayne King, his orchestra and soloists with tunes old and new in his own distinctive style . . . Another in the "tops for music" column is Sunday Evening Party which features Louise Carlyle, Phil Hanna, and the music of Phil Davis and his orchestra every Sunday afternoon at 3, over KECA.

... Always A Best Dial Bet . . . 790 . . .

Toward the end of the listening day (Sundays at 9:30) KECA presents that well-known young disc-jockey, Gene Norman and his "Serenade" . . . a half-hour of records, highlighting the best and very latest releases, as well as interviews with composers, bandleaders, and others prominent in the musical world. Gene's guest list reads like a who's who of music . . . Victor Young, David Rose, Al Sack, Ferde Grofe, and many others. On Dec. 15th, Gene adds another illustrious name to his guest register when Dmitri Tiomkin pays him a call . . . Then there's dance music by such prominent bands as Freddy Martin's, Eddie LeBaron's and others . . . and last but not least, the real oldtimer of coast radio . . . the Bridge to Dreamland, now an ABC-KECA feature from 11:15 until midnight . . . organ melodies by that master organist, Paul Carson.

... Always A Best Dial Bet . . . 790 . . .

ABOUT TOWN: Have you noticed the pictures of lovely Loretta Young around town . . . and her statement in which she says, "Lately I find more and more shows I like on 7901"? You'll agree with the beautiful film star of the Hal B. Wallis production, "The Perfect Marriage" at Paramount . . . if you get the 790 habit!

the explosive "Mr. Monahan" on "The Eddie Bracken Show," used to be a soda jerk. As a boy he worked behind the counter of a St. Paul drugstore where chats with actors from the theatre next door inspired his stage career. He started in vaudeville circuits as a cellist and later worked a comedy routine into the act. "The Eddie Bracken Show" is heard on KNX at 6:30 P.M. Sunday.

has been composing fine music for years, but few people knew it until he sent his "Tableau Russe" to the MGM music department to have it recopied. When the musicians there saw it they insisted that it be given a public presentation. It was played at the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the Hollywood Bowl, and is now a standard work in symphony libraries. On December 21st Barrymore will portray "Scrooge" in Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" for the eleventh year. He stars in "Mayor Of The Town" Saturday at 8:30 P.M.

Gene Autry

reported to be the first cowboy to make phonograph records, the first singing cowboy on radio, the first cowboy to make singing western pictures, the first cowboy from pictures to head the Madison Square rodeo and the first motion picture star to have a town named for him. "The Gene Autry Show" is on KNX Sunday at 4:00 P.M.

sistently good job. The production is competently handled by Leonard Reeg. John Lake is narrator, Harry Walstrum is announcer, Dean Foosler supplies organ effects. Bill Verdier is soundman, Jimmy Banks, engineer.

Playbacks (Critical Comment)

Tommy Riggs

Our hats are off to the "Tommy Riggs Show" gang as the hardest working people in radio. A half-hour comedy variety show five days a week is more than most radio folks care to tackle. Ask the man who does one a week. Just consider, five are the equivalent of a two-and-one-half hour show.

That's why we're sure that the high standard of comedy set by Tommy in his previous air chores suffers in comparison with his new one-a-day. Tommy's as clever as ever (we still don't understand how it's done) and his "Betty Lou" voice is still one of radio's most enchanting sounds. In fact, the best antidote for noisy announcing is a session spent listening to "Betty Lou". We like her best when she's being particularly childish, sometimes lately she's sounded a little too wise.

Wally Maher, Frank Nelson, Arthur Q. Bryan, Verna Felton and singer Piene Woods supply excellent support as always. Ray Whittaker and his boys furnish pleasant musical support. Paul Masterson is the announcer. Producer Earl Simms and writers Eddie McKim and Dick Woollen deserve credit for the large task they undertake in supplying the afternoon audiences with big-time variety entertainment, and we hope that when they get the show really in the groove they can prove that though it's a large order on a five-day-a-week basis, they're the boys who can do it.

On Mike (About Studio Happenings)

The Foggy, Foggy Dew

Thirty-five hundred people sat in the stands at Gilmore Stadium Friday night (Nov. 29) watching the Whittier College-Loyola game. Only they didn't see it—the fog; remember? It seems that the fog was so dense the poor spectators hadn't the foggiest idea what was going on down on the field.

The rim of the stadium contains the commentator's booth, which on this particular night was as far away from the game as if it were in downtown Pasadena. Sportscaster Bill Welsh, covering the game for station KFOX, resourcefully grabbed a portable mike attached to a fifty-foot cord, went down on the field with the players and, following them at a distance of fifteen or twenty yards, described the action to the listeners.

Commentator Ed Chandler of KMPC sat in the radio booth wearing ear-phones and giving from his notes the color description of the game he wasn't even seeing.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Welsh put his mike in the middle of the huddle and for the first time a radio audience heard football signals being called over the air. Another first for football was the fact that an official gave a ruling on a play which was also broadcast.

Anyway, this is one instance where the folks at home were in reality closer to the game than the spectators.

Off Mike (Personalities)

For "O.M.F." Fans

For weeks now, we've watched with growing curiosity the movements of our nearby neighbors, producer-writer Carlton E. Morse and his assistant "Buddy" Twiss, of NBC's "One Man's Family". We've observed them arriving and departing each day with armful of interesting-looking papers and parcels.

Now, at last, the latest Morse mystery has been solved. A "One Man's Family" record album has been unveiled!

In direct response to the wishes of you "One Man's Family" listeners, this book of three records containing memorable excerpts from the show's broadcasts, is now available for purchase.

Included in the album are the following: "We Are Proud", the voice of Paul delivering the stirring prose poem about America which was first heard on the broadcast of September 29, 1940; "Father Barbour's Prayer for Peace", first given on the program of August 19, 1945, during National Prayer of Thanksgiving Week following the final defeat of our enemies; "Eulogy", which the Rev. Dr. McArthur, pastor for the Barbour family, spoke on the occasion of Irene's funeral on February 3, 1946; "Now It Is November", which was written and quoted by Paul in 1940, and was so loved by Father Barbour that he has used it over and over; "Golden Wedding Anniversary", the words said by Nicholas Lacey on the Family broadcast of May 12, 1946, on the occasion of Mother and Father Barbour's Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary! "No Wall", a poem written by Nicky and read by Claudia — the poem which brought the Laceys together again after their near-separation; and "Conversation Piece", intimate dialogue between Hazel and her young daughter, Margaret.

If you are interested in obtaining this lasting memento of "One Man's Family"—for yourself and as Christmas gifts for friends and members of your family—send a money order or check for $3.65 each to Carlton E. Morse, c/o Radio Life, 1558 N. Vine Street, Hollywood 28, California.

How's That Again?

CBSongstress Dinah Shore was told last week that she came in first of the feminine carolers in a nationwide Juke Box Poll, which determined by mechanical tabulation, the artists whose waxings were played the most.

When we asked Dinah what she said when she was told the news, she beamed, "I made 'em repeat it three times!"

Radio Lifelines

By Evelyn Bigsby

EX-EDITOR OF RADIO LIFE, Johnny Whitehead, who always seems to be doing nice things for nice people, is working on one of the best. Remember Mary Jane MacConnell, the young paralytic, who sang on "Tune Out Time" four years ago? Radio Life interviewed Mary Jane from her wheel chair, subsequently did a story in which she voiced two wishes: to walk again and to sing on the air.

Johnny, ever on the alert to help, appealed to KFI's musical director, Claude Sweeten, who arranged an appearance for Mary Jane on his "Sweeten Segue" program. After that, she was signed by the Globe, Arizona, radio station for her own fifteen-minute weekly show.

Mary Jane's back in Southern California now—more hopeful than ever that both her dreams will come true. And helping are Johnny and his little missus, Randy, who are leading the procession of MacConnell fans wanting and working for Mary Jane's own quarter-hour song-show. Anybody know a sponsor who wants to turn a dream into reality?

CONGRATULATIONS to Janet Waldo, usually heard in gushy girl friend and frothy adolescent roles, for the fine dramatic performance she turned in as Cathy in "Wuthering Heights" on Bullock's "Favorite Story"

... Bill Conrad was well cast, too ... Missed your "Romance of the Ranchos" narrator, Pedro de Cordoba? He's been in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital following traffic injuries ...

CBS' Washington correspondent, our favorite Bill Henry, is coming home for the holidays and broadcasts from Hollywood until December 27 ... Another hospital patient—Foy Willing of Riders of the Purple Sage, at Queen of the Angels. Maybe his heart ...

Dinah Shore and George Montgomery celebrated their third wedding anniversary last week. Will never forget when Dinah, just bursting into starhood, arrived in Hollywood to broadcast and amazed about thirty luncheon guests by recalling all their names after only casual superficial introductions ...

Bob Hope gag writer, Roger Price, who yearns to be a comedian, opened the other night in Billingsley's Bocage and rated a good reception. Maybe those who worry about where the new crop of comedians is coming from should investigate the guys who write the jokes. Then all we'll have to do is worry more than we do where to get writers.

WASN'T HENRY MORGAN'S TAKE-off on Hollywood jokes (Sunset & Vine, La Brea Tar Pits, etc.), terrific? Ditto his imitation of Benny's "hm-m-m," Hope's "Thank you, I thought that deserved a laugh" and Skelton. What a great performance Durante turned in on Bing's show! Hear we can anticipate a second helping—Jimmy will host Crosby on Durante-Moore program in January.

CONGRATS TO KGFJ. License has been renewed until Feb. 1, 1949.

Also to KECA for putting "Design for Death" back on the air and Clyde Scott for the station's special campaign of personal safety messages which will be heard at a time when driving hazards will be at their maximum. Real public service.

WE'VE BECOME IMMUNE to most spot announcements but the ones utilizing church carols to plug Christmas shopping, we think, are not in good taste.

AND GETTING BACK to traffic: One of the network gals accepted an invitation to go flying, then got scared as the plane taxied down the field and said to herself: How in the world did I let myself in for this? Imagine her relief when the plane was flagged from taking off on account of the fog. Instead, the gal and pilot decided to take a drive. Guiding the vehicle in traffic (and expertly, too, she thought) she was jolted from her chauffeuring when her companion clutched his head and yelled: "Take it easy. These things can kill you, you know!"

Diggin' Discs

With JACK LAWSON

So far there doesn't seem to be a new "White Christmas" on the music horizon, but most major companies are pressing a plentiful supply on the old favorite for the forthcoming holiday season.

Decca, for example, is spotlighting twelve new albums of stories and carols made by such cinemartists as Ingrid Bergman, Ronald Colman, Orson Welles, Charles Laughton, Walter Huston, Fredric March, and Bing Crosby.

RCA-Victor, who pioneered the kiddie field with educational discs dating back to 1921, will put out seven holiday albums, headed by Sterling Holloway's "Peter and the Wolf" and Dame May Whitty's, "Rumpelstiltskin."

Gene Kelly and Basil Rathbone are among Columbia's album diskers and Capitol will have Margaret O'Brien, Tex Ritter and the Great Guildersleeve.

So much for the big companies, but the smaller, newer outfits are contributing their share to the Christmas counters, too.

Manor, for example, boasts, "The American Passion Play" and Lew Lehr's "Fairy Tales"; National will issue Gatemouth Moore's "Christmas Blues" in the jive vein; Coronet has Al Trace and his Silly Symphonies on wax.

The big hit of last year, "Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow!" written by Jule Styne and Sammy Cahn will no doubt get a good play, especially on the juke boxes, as will "I'll Be Home for Christmas."

Speaking of "Let It Snow!" Vaughn Monroe, who popularized the tune last year, has a new broken-record title to his credit, name of "Hold Me, Hold Me, Hold Me." ... Manuel De Falla, the noted Spanish composer, died at the age of 70 last month in Argentina ... Tex Beneke and the Glenn Miller band drag down an all time high take at the 400 Club in New York ... Victor will wax the Paul Cavanaugh Trio ... When will Claude Thornhill, the supreme stylist, be back on platters?

land and Suzanne Ellers of the Durante-Moore show.

The army has a new star on its hands—ex-sergeant Arno Tanney, who is making quite a reputation as the famed personality known as "The Chant." Tanney has a peculiar vocal inflection which he uses to fine advantage in calling out the benefits of the Regular Army. He opens each "Sound Off" broadcast with the famous "Sound Off Chant," the lyrics to which change weekly.

Here is a typical one:
 "Since Uncle Sam stopped all the fighting
 A soldier's life is more exciting
 He gets more pay and time to spare
 And gets to travel everywhere.
 And if he goes to occupy
 A foreign land his P-A-Y
 Goes up by twenty big per cent
 To makes the soldier glad he went."

Top Production

"Sound Off" is a fast-paced musical-dramatic series calling on the talents of the Lyn Murray singers and outstanding radio actors. The program is designed to entertain GIs of the past, present and future. It is no flag-waving, platform-shouting show. The Army is using discretion in its presentation and the program can compete successfully with lavish productions costing fabulous sums.

The dramatic portion of the program is actually a very subtle commercial for the Army. By dramatizing the accomplishments of the Regular Army, the program not only affords pleasant entertainment, but gets across to the audience a vital message which reveals ultimately that the Army is a great career.

On the "Warriors of Peace" dramatic series such Army projects as the current tests in Alaska called Operation Williwaw to determine the practicability of arms and material in the Arctic Region, and the story of the WAC contribution in the war and in peacetime add up to exceptionally good dramatic sketches which have a definite purpose—recruiting.

The Army is in radio because radio is proving to be one of the most effective methods of telling the Army story to the greatest number of people. Although there are no cases on record of volunteers who rushed out to their recruiting stations saying, "I want to join up. I just heard an Army Show," there is no doubt that the combination of entertainment via radio with Army recruiting messages is being received where it really matters.

When you dial any of the Army programs, you are using one of this country's best weapons for peace.

 Comedian Jack Carson, who is one of radio's indefatigable golfers, wants his five-year-old son, John, to tee off in his footsteps. Jack recently gave the youngster a complete matched set of little clubs as a birthday gift. Jack's thorniest problem now is to get the boy to shout "Fore!" when a window obstructs his playroom "fairway."

HARD WORK

Mutual Don Lee's fire-fighting theme on "Crimes of Carelessness" undoubtedly heightens interest in the show, but the sound effect men are quite unhappy. The various fires dramatized on the show use a variety of sound effects unequalled in any other radio drama.

RADIO WORKSHOP

The "AFRA Refresher Course Workshop", dramatizations by young radio actors formerly in the service and now brushing up on their radio technique with the assistance of the American Federation of Radio Actors, is heard each Wednesday from 3:30 p.m. to 4:00 pm station KFVD.

ANOTHER VOICE

When Walter Craig, tagged "The Voice" by Columbia pictures studio because they frequently use him to dub in the famous voice of President Truman among others, isn't working for the radio audience, he can be found at the movie studios working as a dancer, actor or skater.

FAMOUS ARRANGER

Country Washburn, who leads the band on NBC's "Roy Rogers Show", is responsible for the arranging of many of Spike Jones' most famous recordings, among them "Cocktails for Two" and the "Nutcracker Suite". Country is also a composer of the war-time hit, "One Dozen Roses".

ARTFUL BUSINESS

When Frank Sinatra, starred on CBS' "Songs by Sinatra" Wednesday nights, was breaking into the business, he used a shrewd method to assure himself of plenty of singing engagements, so necessary to the development of poise before an audience. He acquired the best set of orchestrations he could get, and when a band wanted to rent the arrangements for a school dance or some similar event, Frank would make a double deal, selling both the music and his services as soloist . . . From his profits, he bought a public address system, which gave him three commodities to sell.

do something entirely different than he had ever done before. If you were a dancer, you sang; dramatic actors did comedy skits and so forth. Only I didn't know what to do. I even tried to get out of it, but J. C. Flippen, who was head of the committee, just said, 'Aw, you'll think of something!'

Sam fretted about it until a few days before the deadline. Finally, when his wife suggested he tell dialect stories the way he did for his friends, he saw the light. He dreamed up a sketch about a downtrodden little musician. The night of the performance Sam stopped the show, and the character famous now as "Schlepperman" became Sam's ticket to air fame. Jack Benny was a member of the audience and Sam's portrayal had given him an idea for his show. On Jack's following Sunday broadcast Sam portrayed "Dr. Watson" to Benny's "Sherlock Holmes."

Originates Greeting

"Schlepp's" opening line on the show was "Good evening, everybody." Sam thought it sounded too cold and formal. "Don't you think it would sound better if I said, 'Hello, everybody'?" he asked Benny. Jack said it was all right with him. But later Sam decided that "Good evening, stranger" sounded more natural—and would Jack mind if he changed the line? Jack said it didn't matter, change it if he liked "Good evening, stranger" better. "But it still didn't sound right to me," laughed Sam. "Shortly before air time I went to Jack and asked him if I could just change the line to 'Hello, stranger.' By this time Jack didn't care what I said as long as I stopped bothering him about what I was going to say." Both Benny and Sam were amazed at the laugh that greeted "Schlepp's" now famous opening line. Sam has used it ever since and audiences still react in the same delighted manner.

For seven years Sam was a member of the Benny gang. He never portrayed his rube character again. "In fact," he smiled, "I guess nobody thinks of me as Sam Hearn—even people who know me call me 'Schlepp'."

"What comedians make you laugh?" we wanted to know from a man who has made so many other people laugh.

"To tell you the truth," Sam replied, "I don't laugh at comedians—I laugh at their stooges. 'Mr. Wimple' on 'Fibber McGee and Molly,' 'Herschel Twing' on Edgar Bergen's program and Jim Backus who plays 'Updyke' on the Alan Young program just kill me. 'Titus Moody', 'Claghorn' and 'Mrs. Nussbaum' on Allen's program are wonderful, too." Sam doesn't like cruel humor. We mentioned a current comedy rave and while Sam admitted that the comic was clever, he averred that he didn't listen to the fellow's program because he "sounds mean". (No, it isn't Fred Allen. Sam says Fred is "from heaven".)

Asked to relate his idea of "Schlepperman's" real character, Sam said, "Schlepp is calm, he runs from excitement. He sympathizes with everyone, is always willing to help and he's terribly anxious to make friends." As Sam described "Schlepp" his mild blue eyes looked so sincere that it seemed as if he were speaking of a very dear old friend. In fact "Schlepperman's" genial affability matches Sam's own. The amazing dissimilarity between the character and his creator is the fact that Hearn's own well-modulated speaking voice is so totally different from "Schlepp's" high-pitched accent.

Though Sam started in show business as a concert violin prodigy, his first chance to play his violin on the air came on a recent "Glamour Manor" broadcast. At the age of sixteen he had soloed with a symphony but his comedic talents have overshadowed his music.

Trick Musician

"Did you know," he smiled, "that I'm the only violinist in the world who can give the impression of playing three violins at the same time?" We said no, we didn't know and begged to know the secret.

"It's just one of those freak things," he explained, "I play two-part harmony on the violin and hum the third part. It amazes musicians—it even amazes me!"

Sam loves his work on the "Glamour Manor" program. He admires the talents of his fellow players tremendously and appreciates the good scripting that aids him in portraying "Schlepp".

Sam and his wife live on a hilltop in Laurel Canyon and he loves California as only a reformed New Yorker can.

He prizes a crested cigarette lighter given to him by Prime Minister MacKenzie King of Canada in commemoration of a performance by the Benny troupe during their long camp show tour. "It's a nice lighter," he exclaimed, "but it has to be filled so often that it's not very practical. Once when I was playing a camp show in this country, I pulled it out to light a cigarette. A G.I. asked me about it and I told him the story, adding that it was pretty, but impractical. He went back to his barracks and came back with this." Sam showed us a plain little lighter that blazed like a torch. "The G.I. handed it to me and said, 'Here, Mr. Schlepperman, if the Prime Minister of Canada can give you one, I can too!'"

▲ THIS, OF COURSE, is a gag shot—but not as much so as you might think. The dog has been used on occasion when Rate wished to get in touch with a phone-less actor!

RATE-- RADIO'S BY-WORD

By Shirley Gordon

When Someone Needs an Actor in a Hurry, HI. 0101 Is the Number to Call, and Lew Lauria the Man to Credit for the Service

ON A SEPTEMBER afternoon of 1939, a radio actor was being interviewed for a role on the "Lux Radio Theater." During the interview, the producer expressed a wish that there were pictures and information on actors available for directors to peruse when preparing to cast a show. At the interview's conclusion, the enterprising actor, Lew Lauria by name, walked out, and in his own words, "right then and there, started the Radio Artists Directory, with the assistance of Edward Arnold and Hanley Stafford."

In 1941 he made the Directory national, and in conjunction with it started the Radio Artists Telephone Exchange, familiar to everyone in radio as "Rate."

Today, Lauria informed us, Rate is the third largest radio actors' telephone exchange in the country, and the largest in Hollywood. Four hundred active radio people are registered with Lauria's organization, including such familiar microphone performers as Sara Berner, Gloria Blondell, Hanley Stafford, Vyola Vonn, Janet Waldo, Arthur Q. Bryan, Barbara Luddy, Tommy Cook and Herbert Rawlinson, plus top-name Hollywood luminaries like Helmut Dantine, John Hodiak, Edward Arnold and Dane Clark.

The charge for Rate's service is seven dollars a month, if the actor is not registered in the National Radio Artists' Directory, or twenty-eight dollars for four months, if he wishes to receive Rate's phone service and also be registered in the Directory.

Rate's office is equipped with fifteen trunk lines—ten incoming and five outgoing, with as many as three operators on duty at the boards at one time, handling an average of some 1000 calls a day. Rate's phone bill averages $400 a month.

Actors Appreciative

"When I first started the Directory and Exchange," Lauria recalled, "some of the actors were against it, on the theory that it would increase the competition and decrease their jobs. But it's proven otherwise, and those same actors have since given me testimonials declaring the benefit the service has been to them.

"Directors say they're never without the directory," Mr. Lauria continued, "and performers tell me time and time again, that they owe their biggest jobs to having been registered in the Directory and with the Exchange.

"Louise Erickson, for instance," he specified, "will tell you that she owes her start in radio to the Directory."

The National Radio Artists' Directory is a "coast to coast casting guide," which contains actors' photos, a listing of their particular experience and abilities, and the telephone numbers at which they may be reached. If they are registered for Rate's service, the number is HI 0101, and at that number they may always be reached in double-quick time.

"Even if they don't have a home phone—or aren't at home," Lauria grinned. "We've gotten calls through to actors under almost any condition."

He related several instances.

Once, when actress Ann O'Neill was wanted for a part on "Forecast" with Bert Lahr, the show's producer couldn't locate her. He called Rate, and although Miss O'Neill wasn't registered for Rate's phone service, the Lauria organization went to work and, in record time, located the actress on vacation in a trailer camp!

Another time, actress Sara Berner had left word with Rate that she was Catalina-bound and would be out of reach for three days. A big part came up for her, however, and Lauria called a personal friend on the island and asked that a motorboat be sent out to the yacht on which Sara was cruising off the coast. P. S.: She got the part.

For the actors who live at Malibu Beach and have no phone service, Rate employs everything from a police squad car to a well-trained canine to get the message through. When actor Bob Bailey was sunning down on the beach one day, he looked up to see a dog approaching. Around the animal's neck hung a sign that announced: "Bailey—Call Rate."

"Now we've contracted with an airport," Lauria added, "for further service to our phoneless clients. The plane will fly over the area of the actor's residence with a 'Call Rate' banner streaming in its wake."

Super Sleuths

On other occasions, a Rate operator has found a client in a hurry merely by looking out of the office window to see the wanted actor servicing his car at the gasoline station across the street! The Hollywood Rate office is located on Selma, near Cahuenga.

Rate operators must be as alert and resourceful as sleuths. Once, actor Tony Barrett was wanted immediately for an important role. The quick-thinking operator put in a series of calls which located Barrett in front of an out-of-the-way cleaning shop where his car had broken down!

One of the most novel services Rate has been called upon to render was the time Joan Crawford asked the phone exchange to call her every three hours. The screen actress was ill and alone in the house, and wanted to be awakened at regular intervals to take sulfa.

To conduct the business of Rate and the National Directory, Lauria and his wife make three round trips across the country each year, spending intervals of two months each on both coasts. Lauria has made a total of forty-five coast-to-coast trips to build the National Radio Actors Directory, traveling some 130,000 miles since 1941. The employees of his organization number fourteen.

"Count me in twice," put in Mrs. Lauria good-naturedly. "I've never worked so hard in my life. But the laugh is that, on Rate's printed list of actors registered with the service, my name got left out—and I'm the gal who sometimes spends day and night at the switchboard!"

Mrs. Lauria, whose professional name is Maybelle Prindaville, was, until her marriage in 1945, the heroine of radio's popular "Road of Life" serial, and a busy thespian on many other top airshows.

The background story of Mr. Lauria's professional career begins when he participated, at the age of seven, in an amateur night at a Waterbury, Connecticut, theater.

"I was a complete flop," he recalled. "I came in fifth, only because I was cute."

But eleven years later he returned to play the same theater as a successful professional performer. After that he toured with the circus, and as a "water clown" under the Big

RADIO ACTOR Lew Lauria is founder of RATE. He is married, to air actress Maybelle Prindaville, former heroine of daytime serial "Road of Life."

Top, he did things like high-diving off seventy-foot ladders into tiny tanks of water.

He recalled that in those days his prized possession was a loud English tweed suit. He was too self-conscious to wear it, however, so he sold it to a fellow comic for twelve dollars—three dollars down, and the rest when possible. The comic handed him the three dollars down, then disappeared. Lauria didn't see him again until 1935.

"The next time I saw him he was a star in New York," Lew reminisced. "His name was Joe Penner."

After his circus days, Lauria toured in stock, and in 1928 did his first radio work. He has also appeared on the screen—"mostly as mugs," he laughed. In addition, he has also scripted for such airshows as the Joe E. Brown program and the "Calling All Cars" series.

A short time ago Mrs. Lauria, after reading "The Hucksters," commented to her husband, "You should write a book about radio." Lauria estimated that it would take him three months, and his wife declared that she would take care of his business for that period if he would do the book—upon which agreement, Mr. Lauria sat himself down and turned out a full-length novel in a record ten days!

It is a book about radio entitled "Let the Chips Fall," and is dedicated by its author as follows: "To my wife, Maybelle Prindaville, without whom this book would not have been, and about whom, it is not."

"I insisted on that last line," smiled Maybelle.

Sixty per cent of the characters in the book, according to its writer, are called by their real names, but the identities of the leading figures of the story are necessarily hidden.

"It presents both sides of this business," claimed its author, "—its virtues and its sins."

"Solid Sender"

KGFJ's Popular "High Time" Rates High With Its Teen-Aged Following

Saturday, 3:30 p.m.
KGFJ

ONE teen-ager confessed to us that in this era of commercialized radio, it was a relief to find a program produced, presented for and aimed at the aforementioned age group. This makes it a "solid sender." Such a title, it seems, belongs to KGFJ's "High Time," which airs locally on Saturday afternoons.

"High Time," conceived by bandman Tommy Dorsey for the pleasure and information of his teen-age following, offers specially invited students a chance to voice their views on popular music. Featuring the orchestra leader currently appearing dy Howard, who scored a hit with his recording of "To Each His Own". Above he chats with a high school interviewer.

at Casino Gardens, the aircer is emceed and produced by Ted Lenz, who presents it transcribed the following afternoon on his KGFJ "Variety Hall."

Approximately twenty students are invited each week to be the guests of the Gardens for dinner and an evening of dancing. Students from high schools all over the state have participated, with many more awaiting their turn. The most popular portion of the half-hour session is a student-conducted interview with the bandleader and his guest of the evening.

"This is the kids' favorite," explained Lenz. "They love being able to question the bandleaders on any subject with all queries welcomed.

Our bandmen have included Dorsey, Eddy Howard and Will Osborne. Last week's guest was talented vocalist Sherry Sherwood."

"We've had full cooperation from the students," Lenz continued, "for which we are grateful. And as long as they derive pleasure from a meeting with the band world, we're happy to arrange the session."

Enviably Collection

Popular disc jockey Lenz, with his complete knowledge of today's sweet, swing and hot, is the perfect host for "High Time." At one time he was the possessor of seventeen hundred platters, many of which he disposed of during war years to boost bond sales. Recently Der Bingle chanced to be listening to Ted's daytime show, and upon hearing many of his oldest and rarest records, called Lenz and asked if he would be interested in selling them to Bing, who had lost his collection in the Crosby home fire.

Lenz, always abreast of the latest trends in popular music, is a great jazz fan, but admits he enjoys the sweeter bands as well. An avid air enthusiast, he owns and flies two planes, a PT-19 and a Piper Club, which he lends to his equally aviation-minded secretary, Kay Miller.

In spite of the strenuous schedule of putting on twenty-one shows a week, Lenz always takes time to help the infant aircer, "High Time," over the hurdles. "Gee," he wistfully sighed, "they never had anything like this when I was in school."

OF THE 125 HIGH SCHOOLS IN LOS ANGELES COUNTY, sixty have participated with many more eagerly awaiting their turn. In addition to Howard, leader Will Osborne and lovely vocalist Sherry Sherwood have aided Lenz on the other side of the microphone.

The Pied Pipers

Records, Radio, Film Chores and What-Have-You Keep the Pied Pipers on the Go — "But," Affirm The Foursome, "We're Always Having a 'Ball'!"

By Lynn Roberts

CBS-KNX

BEING back with Frank is a "ball," grinned the "Pipers"—the Pied Pipers to you, who, except when they're singing, are always having a "ball". "It's swell working with Sinatra again," they repeated. "We're all Tommy Dorsey alumnae, you know."

That was back in 1940 and '41, when the T. Dorsey aggregation boasted among its members Frank Sinatra and the Pipers quartet, which then included Jo Stafford.

The Pied Pipers' personnel now consists of Hal Hopper, Chuck Lowry (its two original members), Clark Yocum and blonde five-footer June Hutton, who has to stand on a box when she sings at the microphone with the boys—as she does on the Sinatra show each Wednesday evening over CBS.

Besides their radio stint, the Pipers make movies ("Make Mine Music", "Tin Pan Alley Tempos", "DuBarry Was a Lady", "Sweet and Lowdown", etc.), wax top-selling discs ("Dream", "The Trolley Song", "Candy", "Personality", "Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe"—the latter with Johnny Mercer, with whom they're featured in a new Capitol record album), and win polls (1944 and 1945's "Downbeat" award as the best and most popular singing group). In between, they spend at least two hours every day rehearsing their intricate vocal arrangements, and keep numerous stage and radio dates. Their average record output alone is two million platters a year.

"In fact," grinned Lowry, "that's the only time we're really serious—when we're doing a recording date."

"Most of the time," put in June, "they're crazy. So we get along swell." June joined the Pied Pipers about two and a half years ago and she refers to the boys, with a grin, as "my brothers".

"We're her protectors," smiled the masculine members of the quartet. "Whenever June has a new romantic interest, she has to bring him around to us. We pass judgment on him. The new one's still on probation."

Banter Revealing

Lunching with the "Pipers" at Lyman's, we listened to their good-natured bantering back and forth, and gathered interesting tid-bits of information about them.

"June can't read music," said Hal. "But we're teaching her slowly," added Clark.

"Yeah," concluded Chuck, "now she can read the words!"

"Let's talk about my fat horse," interpolated June, changing the subject. "She's a pinto named Princess."

"Awwww," commented Clark, "she's never won a race."

"She's not a race horse," retorted

June dryly, but added wistfully, "I wish I had a race horse."

"She has a car," Chuck informed us, "but she's so small she can't see out of it."

"I have to sit on a lot of pillows," confirmed June. "But then I have trouble reaching the pedals."

Horseback-riding is the song-stress' pet sport, reading mystery stories her favorite pastime. "And movies!" she beamed. "I like 'em all!"

"The boys are partial to golf," she told us, "and baseball—and horses."

"Yeah," they agreed, but added, "what's happened to that thing called 'spare time'?"

Besides the extensive musical activities already listed, the Pied Pipers are also owners of two local music shops—one at 7811 Melrose, the other at Manchester and Sepulveda. In addition, Hal Hopper of the Pipers is adept at whipping up top popular tunes, such as "There's No You", and "With All My Heart, I Give My Heart to You", which the quartet recently recorded—"and which I predict to be another 'Dream'," insisted June with enthusiasm.

Other new waxings by the Pied Pipers are "Make Me Know It", "Either It's Love or It Isn't", "Walking Away With My Heart", and "Triskaidekaphobia".

"That means fear of the number thirteen," Clark grinned, "and I think that's how you spell it!"

The Pied Pipers were originated when Chuck Lowry and Hal Hopper met at Lincoln High School in L.A. They sang in a trio while in school, but in those days Hal was taking violin lessons and Chuck was an ace guitar player, and they both aspired to be professional instrumentalists.

Tired of Line

The Pipers might never have been organized if Chuck Lowry didn't have such a strong aversion to standing in line. One afternoon he went out to enroll at the University of Southern California. The line of aspiring students was so long that he never did get to the window, but got weary and went home. That night, he received an offer to sing with a band then playing in Phoenix, Arizona. He phoned his pal, Hal, and the two left that same night to begin their first professional engagement.

Clark Yocum became a Piper when he met Lowry and Hopper while he was singing and playing guitar for Tommy Tucker and his orchestra.

Lowry is a native Angeleno, Hopper hails from Oklahoma City, Yocum from Sunbury, Pennsylvania, and Miss Hutton from Chicago.

June sang professionally for the first time when she was sixteen years old, as vocalist with her sister, Ina Ray Hutton's band. "No, I didn't do much performing before then," she demurred. "I was sort of shy." She still suffers from severe mike fright, but like the other Pipers, she's partial to radio, too.

↑ JUST BEFORE SHOW TIME, Smilin' Ed and circus performer Patricia Scott put Maizy the elephant through her paces. McConnell seemed to enjoy the affair as much as any youngster, eating hot dogs and other customary circus fare.
