How Long Will "King" Cooley Reign?

By Ted Hilgenstuhler

HIS NAME is Cooley. Most folks just call him plain "Spade."

Pretty soon they may change the name to "King."

"King" Cooley. That's what they should call him. Because that's just what he's been for the past three years as far as the TV fans of Southern California are concerned.

Ever since his first remote telecast from the Santa Monica ballroom, which incidentally was the first video program to be beamed away from the station, and also the first "live" band show, the Spade Cooley Show has been right on top in the video ratings.

Lots of people have lots of different viewpoints on just why "King" Cooley reigns supreme in the TV world. Some say the show is easy to watch; it's good entertainment and relaxing. Some say it's the idea of Western music which Californians seem to go ga-ga over. (Spade admits he's a hillbilly when it comes to music, but his band includes some of the most capable all-around musicians in the country.) Others say it could have happened only in Southern California, the land where the unorthodox thrive, and the orthodox perish.

Big Reason

Say what they may, there's one major reason for this KTLA super-success story. That reason is the "King" himself. The former stand-in for Roy Rogers eats, sleeps, and lives for his Saturday night program.

When he says "I live for my show," he means it, and his daily life proves it. He works constantly creating and writing skits. When someone anywhere in Southern California makes news, Spade makes sure he gets that "someone" on his program. During his three years on TV, he has had every big name available in show business—and in many other fields—before the KTLA cameras.

Although he appears quite calm and at ease on the TV screen, Spade is by nature the nervous type. Even when talking in his comfortable, pool-equipped home, he can't sit still for more than a few moments.

Straight Shooter

After spending several hours chatting with Spade, there's one lasting impression you have of the man—and it's probably as good a reason as any for his phenomenal success. Spade Cooley plays straight.

He treats his people right. For just a few nights' work, his band members make more money than some other topnotch bandmen who have to play five and six nights a week. When it comes to getting a good act for his program, he makes an agreement to get the act, and then he asks the price.

Also, in his conversation, Spade lays his cards right on the table. Some Spade specials:

"Radio ain't dead; it's just a little weak."

"Sure, I'm a hillbilly when it comes to music. All my family's been hillbilly. Why, my father would turn over in his grave if he knew that I just had one horn in my band."

"Los Angeles is the toughest TV market in the country to play to. Much tougher than New York."

"I'll tell you why I've got a good show. It's 'cause I get something for everybody. And I believe that the key word to success in TV is 'sincerity.'"

"I'm the most disinterested person there is as far as network TV is concerned. There's no such thing as a network for me. I'm happy where I am."

And why shouldn't he be? When it comes to TV, he's "King" out here in Southern California. And it looks as if it'll be quite a while before he's forced to abdicate.

THE POPULAR AND CONTROVERSIAL PRIVATE DICK CONTINO made his last TV appearance with "King" Cooley before going overseas. Spade not only has top entertainment on his hour-long program, but his guests include many big names in the news, which provides real variety for a "variety show." (KTLA photos.)

"I KNEW you were coming, so baked a cake," Klaus Landsberg, KTLA bossman, seems to be saying during Spade's fourth anniversary.

OLE LEATHER BRITCHES himself, Dick Lane, corners Cooley for a few thousand words about violins, anniversaries and such.

"N" Is for Normal

Watchword of the Nelsons

▲ THAT POPULAR COUPLE, Ozzie and Harriet, have re-created their radio series for TV this fall. They are still carrying on with radio as well, making a full schedule for themselves and sons, David and Ricky.

By Evelyn Bigsby

▼ YOUNGER OF THE TWO Nelson boys, Ricky, "takes after" his mother in looks and disposition, while fifteen-year-old David resembles Ozzie and, like him, is wrapped up in sports.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD Ricky Nelson finished his scene for the Nelsons' TV film and sauntered off the set. A few seconds later he cinched the buckles on his roller skates and clomped off to get a double-deck ice-cream cone at the studio lunch counter.

Meanwhile, fifteen-year-old David Nelson, waiting his turn to go before the TV film cameras, was juggling a football and playing catch backstage with his stand-in. Much has been written about Ozzie and Harriet Nelson and their two sons who have been a successful radio family for eight years. Ozzie has been admired for his athletic ability, musical background, legal degree, and fine sense of showmanship. Harriet has been applauded for her charm, singing and acting talents and her success as a homemaker. David and Ricky, who started playing themselves on the Nelson radio show four years ago, have been credited with nice manners, wholesomeness and all-round ability.

However, after watching the four Nelsons go before the cameras for a TV film, a reporter is impressed most of all with their naturalness. "N" in Nelson stands for normalcy.

Instances

When David and Ricky went on the air show it was decided at the outset that they would play themselves and grow up in the script. In their family life the boys have always been treated as average American boys. And now that they have ventured into television, this same strain of normalcy runs through the entire production. Ozzie, David and Ricky wear no make-up whatsoever on the set. Harriet uses just enough to give her face proper highlights, but refuses to smear her hands and arms with make-up, for the minute she does she starts feeling awkward and self-conscious. The very way the Nelsons are doing their TV show is on the conservative side. Because theirs is a pure situation comedy and not so-called "broad" comedy like "I Love Lucy" or "Our Miss Brooks," the television shooting is done without an audience. It takes them two days to film a half-hour TV sequence. Later on, according to Ozzie, the cast may run through the program for a live audience in order to include laughter on the sound track. But this decision is still up in the air.

▲ THE NELSON BOYS WEAR NO MAKE-UP for their TV films. Their "wardrobe" consists mostly of plaid shirts and jeans. Mother Harriet finds herself responsible for her own clothes and also those of her three menfolk.

▲ HANDSOME MOVIE ACTOR DON DeFORE has been signed as the Nelsons' neighbor, "Thorny." The loquacious little neighbor, "Nancy Baker," is being played by Eileen Janssen.

Shows like "I Love Lucy" and "Our Miss Brooks" rehearse for several days and then shoot the TV film before a live audience. To facilitate the production, sets are small and converge toward the back. Very few or no windows are used, as the actors and actresses are usually in the center of the stage and play directly to the audience.

Different

The Nelsons, however, with a different type of comedy, feel that naturalism and realism are absolutely necessary. Hence, they use elaborate sets which reproduce not in detail but in general feeling the Nelsons' own home. In fact, the outside of the TV house is a replica of the family's Hollywood abode.

Ricky and David, in true boy fashion, have very simple wardrobes for the TV film—jeans and plaid shirts. Harriet is finding it rather difficult to get "believable" clothes for her TV role. Many of the dresses the average housewife might wear could easily photograph as dull attire. On the other hand, care has to be taken that Harriet's clothes aren't too dressy or some women lookers are going to see her in a party frock and sheer apron and say, "What's she doing like that bending over the kitchen sink?"

"I've never worked so hard in my life," capable Harriet answered when asked how she liked TV. She has assumed the role of wardrobe mistress, has to check to be sure Ricky's face is clean, learn her lines, help the boys learn their lines and consult with the set designer. On the days when the Nelsons are shooting the TV film, Harriet usually gets up at 5:30 in the morning and works through till 8:00 at night. But TV has its compensations, for all the Nelsons find it extremely stimulating. Budget for each TV program is $27,500, and by the time the Nelsons were on their fourth episode of the fall series they were rapidly learning tricks to keep costs down. Proudly Ozzie stated that the first three shows had been brought in well below budget. He can take a low bow for a large part of this accomplishment, for although the head of the Nelson family seems to be able to do anything he turns his hand to from script writing to playing a leading role, he is still practical enough to hire technicians for the TV filming, consult them, and heed their advice.

TV is going to make the four Nelsons who were already busy people extremely busy people. Sadly, they have put their Laguna Beach home, which they have had only three years, on the market. "We got to use it only two days last summer," bemoaned Harriet. The Nelsons have no idea of giving up their radio program, so with it and TV, spare time will be a precious commodity in their household. One of the biggest problems, now that school has started, is shooting the TV show without interfering with David's and Ricky's schooling. David, who is a sophomore at Hollywood High, takes after his father and is quite a football player. As the Nelsons want him to lead as normal a life as possible while also developing as a fine show-business personality, they have planned accordingly. "We're shooting our TV programs around the Hollywood High School football schedule," Harriet laughingly pointed out.

▼ TYPICAL "OVER-THE-FENCE" SCENE finds "Thorny" and Oz with their heads together. Exterior of the Nelsons' own Hollywood home has been duplicated for the TV series; the interior sets, for which Harriet was consultant, do not copy the Nelsons' own rooms but do have the same flavor.

George Putnam Finds Out What It's Like

George Putnam classifies himself as a news reporter. That is as distinguished from a news analyst—or a commentator. He believes in finding out for himself what it's like to make news.

For instance, the Brew 102 Reporter found out for himself and his viewers what it's like to wash windows seventy stories above Manhattan; what it's like to be blind; and what it's like to land a plane on top of an automobile.

George Putnam

Never Again

After he perched suspended high up on the outside of the Empire State Building, he decided a window washer's job can be reserved for window washers. George feels that the fellow who makes his living that way can't feel as George did about the job. He's frank about its being a completely frightening sensation, and one not to be repeated.

Deciding to find out what it's like to be blind, George Putnam had himself blindfolded and spent one entire afternoon roaming New York with the aid of a seeing-eye dog. He climaxed the experience by taking a train to Long Island.

He was first to describe for an audience the dubious thrill of landing an airplane on top of a moving automobile. Putnam had been a passenger in a Piper Cub which descended to rest on top of a standard Ford sedan.

Another time Putnam wanted to give his television audience some first-hand information on what our English and German neighbors thought about world economic, political and social problems. So he went out and gathered data between broadcasts.

Long Hop in Record Time

One broadcast was on Friday, one on Sunday, about fifty-two hours apart. But Putnam traveled 10,000 miles to Britain and Germany and back in this time. Accompanied by a photographer, Putnam and his toothbrush left La Guardia Field at 7:00 in the evening to secure a series of "pocket interviews" with some of the little people of the European nations. He arrived in England at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, and immediately interviewed a typical British family right at Heathrow Airport. A couple of interviews and an hour later they took off by plane for Frankfurt, Germany. At 8:00 p.m. the flying newsman was just in time to dine with the Rudolph Weber menage for some conversation anent world affairs from the German viewpoint.

Before enplaning for Shannon, Ireland, a little after noon on Sunday, Putnam queried German workers and students as well as refugees and D.P.'s. He and his toothbrush were receiving the stamp of approval from a United States customs officer at La Guardia at 1:35 p.m. Sunday night.

He rushed to the studio and from copious notes gave his viewers reactions straight from the hearts and minds of neighbors abroad.

On another occasion the reporter who prepares his telecasts with such care found out what it was like to report without benefit of any notes of any kind! The launching of the S. S. America was a scheduled event. The gale that launched the script out of his hands was unscheduled! George Putnam had to describe the action completely ad lib.

This Week in TV

In & Out of Focus (General Comment)

Let's You Ask Us About

Red Skelton: You will see his NBC-TV show on film until those already in the can run out. Then comes a new comedy-line format with Red playing chief fall guy. Failing that, comes a variety bill with Skelton as emcee. One will get you ten that some place along the line Red comes up to the old Skelton snuff.

Red Skelton

Jack McCoy: Yes, he's off KTTV's "How Did We Meet?" No, little Audrey, it wasn't because he couldn't stand the panelists' guff, it was because his radio "Breakfast in Hollywood" duties are full time.

Kraft TV Theater: The sound accompanying the big birth scene that made "Long Night at Forty Mile" such a long night was a theremin, not a howling Husky, as you may have suspected; and the sound, we assume, was an arty bit of symbolism, just as was the flickering lamp whose flame shot higher as the baby made its entrance into a world full of arty bits of symbolism.

Second Glances (Critical Comment)

We View With Alarm

The camera treatment given an hour of entertainment as elaborate and girl-and-star-studded as the CBS-TV Jackie Gleason Show. Having been informed that Gleason's gals are hand-picked for their pins, pipes and pretty faces, we hankered a look at what is reputedly New York's finest line. The camera men took care of that for us, neatly. Possibly the long shots that defeat a good look at almost anyone on the show rest on the premise that just a little look brings people back for more. If our eyes recover from the strain, we may go back for another look—but it will still be with a mental comparison of the good work done in presenting "Show of Shows," and what we are seeing on Gleason's expensive big offering.

"A Table at Ciro's," during which the guest of the evening had to carry the ball almost unaided by any pre-show briefing. The young lady had been named "Miss Steeltown" by a group of admirers some place. Her host, Paul Coates, first of all suggested the wrong year of this title earning. That was corrected. He then suggested that the dubbing took place in Pittsburgh. No, it turned out to be Fontana, California. The host then suggested that his guest had gone to Warner Bros. under contract. Woops, wrong again. It was Universal. The guest's later offering of a libation to interviewers Herman Hoyer and Paul Coates gave this viewer pause to wonder whether it was a brew from Borgia—and we don't mean Joe, out on Ventura. We mean Lucrezia.

What seemed to us a complete lack of poise on the part of late-movie-show host Scott Douglas, on Channel 2, the night columnist Paul Price, a flip, but not unkindly so, columnist paid a call on camera. Even the most touched of columnist-interview subjects don't fall to blubbing with joy in plain sight of some thousands of viewers—or do they? Or was it all just a sort of grand little game we didn't dig? Usually Scott is so entertaining and gracious.

ly written and ill-cast characters whose antics last year left us about as chilled with fear as would the efforts of a kitten at play. It seems to us his vacation did Bellamy, his writers and the production crew a world of good, and "Man Against Crime" has emerged this winter as lively, engrossing TV fare.

... To the camera work on nearly all the NCAA football games carried by NBC-TV via Channel 4. Whether the frays are picked up in East or West, the local station camera men have turned in excellent shots over the two- and three-hour coverages, with goal-line shots hitting the same happy medium (between far-away and too-close-up coverage) that the fifty-yard-line plays got.

... To a commercial that interested us from beginning to end. It occurred on a now-cancelled political show called "First-Time Voters," seen on

KNBH Sunday nights. Rather than blat about beer, the announcer played a fast charades game that had at least this particular segment of the audience interestedly guessing the words of the message concerning the greatness of Bulldog Ale. A quick bit of wit that refreshed old eyes weary of pretty much the same sort of spiling.

To an off-camera crack made by a show-business personality. It seems to reflect a nice, feet-on-the-ground reaction to a lot of popularity: "I'm glad I'm a singer. I always have the greatest writers of all times working for me, from Rodgers and Hart to Stephen Foster. I'd have to louse it up pretty badly to go wrong." These writers have served the speaker, Jimmy Wakely, well in radio, in pictures, on personal appearances (he was the first country-style singer to hit Broadway) and in TV, where he's on every Tuesday night at 8:30 p.m., Channel 2.

For the Record

On page 39 of this issue we refer to Jack McElroy's KNBH "Girl Friday" as Marilyn Breno. Following our interview with Marilyn, she decided to change her name to Mills, for purely euphonic reasons. Just for the record Breno and Mills are one and the same!

TV Previews

TIME CHANGES

Friday, November 14—KNBH'S PEANUT CIRCUS, (4), 6:00 p.m. daily. Nutsy the Clown's fans formerly saw him, his contests and guests fifteen minutes later.

Saturday, November 15—SPACE PATROL, (7), 11:00 a.m. The popular space epic is now seen before noon, rather than at the old evening time.

WHAT'S NEW

Sunday, November 16 — OMNIBUS, (2), 1:30 p.m. The premiere broadcast of the big new hour-and-a-half "Omnibus" presents Maxwell Anderson, one of the great playwrights of the English-speaking theater, when his "Trial of Anne Boleyn" is telecast. Also William Saroyan's one-act play "The Bad Men" is shown.

WHAT'S BACK

Sunday, November 16—MR. PEEPERS, (4), 7:30 p.m. Wally Cox as "Peepers" is back, literally by public demand.

WHAT'S PLAYING

Saturday, November 15—NCAA FOOTBALL, (4), 1:15 p.m., Georgia Tech vs. Alabama.

Sunday, November 16—Professional Football, (7), 11:30 a.m. Los Angeles Rams vs. Chicago, seen live from Chicago.

Friday, November 14—SCHLITZ PLAYHOUSE OF STARS, (2), 8:00 p.m. Robert Hutton and Coleen Gray co-star in "House of Pride," Jack London's story of romance in the Hawaiian Islands at the turn of the century.

Saturday, November 15—NCAA FOOTBALL, (4), Alabama vs. Georgia Tech, 11:00 a.m. Seen "live" via microwave.

Wednesday, November 19—KRAFT TELEVISION THEATRE, (4), 9:00 p.m. "Melody Jones" is the story of a poetic, happy-go-lucky fifteen-year-old high-schooler preparing for her first junior

PICK of the PIX

by Aubrey Dahl

Lets get on with it.

"7 Days to Noon" (13) Nov. 17, 10:00. This excellent British film, an Academy Award winner for best original story, is predicated on an extremely provocative idea: An eminent atomic scientist becomes convinced that the discoveries of science are being misused by government, steals an atomic bomb and threatens to blow up the city of London. The picture isn't able to make much of a case against the scientist and his viewpoint, and, indeed, finally characterizes him as a madman, but in its scenes depicting the evacuation of London and the gradual encirclement of the quarry, well played by Barry Jones, it generates a most exciting suspense.

"The Story of G.I. Joe." (5) Nov. 15, 3:45. Burgess Meredith, as the noted war correspondent, Ernie Pyle, and Robert Mitchum, as the commander of an infantry company, are aptly cast as the principals in this tribute to the American infantryman and his courageous fight up the boot of Italy. The film, for the most part, is uncompromisingly realistic, and actual combat scenes from the battle of Cassino are incorporated into the action by director Lewis Milestone.

"The Outsider." (5) Nov. 16, 3:15. The life of a poor boy is sometimes pretty difficult in a British public (that is, private) school, according to this picture. Richard Attenborough is just right as the young fellow who wins a scholarship, suffers the indignities of freshmanhood, and, due to his high form in the lower form, becomes a leader among boys.

"The Hairy Ape." (2) Nov. 16, 11:00. This is adapted from the famous play by Eugene O'Neill about the ship stoker played by William Bendix, who becomes miffed because a lovely lady refers to him in terms uncomplimentary. The film dispenses with most of the play's social and psychological overtones and arranges a quite unjustified happy ending, but manages, nevertheless, to be entertaining. With Susan Hayward.

"Strictly Honorable." (5) Nov. 18, 10:00. Pat O'Brien and Broderick Crawford are a couple of fast-talking lawyers who spend most of their time trying to unmask a fellow with the regrettable habit of inserting knives into persons repugnant to him. The movie has a surprise ending, but I'll tell you who the murderer is if you'll send a self-addressed stamped envelope, together with ten dollars to cover mailing.

Contests

AND OFFERS

KTTV's "Sheriff John" (John Rovick), always on the alert to bring home to Southland youngsters the importance of safety, recently opened a new six-week "Safety Slogan" contest on his daily program, "Cartoon Time With Sheriff John," seen on Channel 11 from 5:30 to 6:00 p.m.

The Monthly Kiddie "Handy Hints" contest is under way, and Dorothy Gardiner and Ken Graue host Channel 5 viewers Wednesdays at 6:45 p.m. Youngsters have until November 30 to send in their entries to be eligible to compete for "Handy Hints" prizes. Among the exciting prizes for the best hint sent in by any youthful viewers from one to fourteen years of age are an English bicycle, a life-sized, rideable BMC tractor, a plastic swimming pool, a Doye O'Dell cowboy outfit and boots, and a Jet Skeeter.

"Bridal Show," a new giveaway show on KLAC-TV, will have emcee Dick Rand interviewing girls about to be married. Guests will receive a number of fine gifts. The 5:00-p.m.-Sunday show will give details, beginning November 23.

Handy Hints

By Dorothy Gardiner and Ken Graue, stars of KTLA's "Handy Hints," Monday through Friday, 6:45 p.m.

Here is the winner: Mrs. Dorothy Hazard, 8429 Keokuk Ave., Canoga Park, Calif.

The hint is: USE A DISCARDED CANISTER SET IN THE CHILDREN'S ROOM FOR SMALL ASSORTED TOYS. Use the large can for tinkering toys, the next size for small toy cars, next one for marbles, and the smallest can for crayons. The cans may be painted and decorated with decals or labeled. BRIGHTEN THE CORNER... Skirts of the same material as your kitchen curtains will brighten your work area when snapped on your canisters with elastic. This will also serve to increase the life of a canister set that would otherwise be discarded.

KERNEL ROBERTA LINN

Roberta Linn, the singer with Lawrence Welk's band on KTLA, now rates a salute—at least from Iowa-born Southern Californians. The little gal from Gravity, Iowa, this week received a handsome certificate naming her a Kernel of the Iowa Tall Corn, in recognition of her Iowa-ism in singing "That's Where the Tall Corn Grows."

Fine motion pictures, combined with the emceeing of personable JACK NARZ, add up to great afternoon viewing entertainment on...

WHAT DID YOU THINK OF TV and its part in the recent political campaign? Did you snap off the set on election night and say to yourself, "It's been wonderful following this contest all the way from the nominating conventions in June until President-elect Eisenhower just spoke."

OR DID YOU SAY TO YOURSELF, "Thank goodness, that's over! I'll be glad to get back to a regular looking and listening schedule!" The reason I'm bringing up the matter is that some persons with whom I post-mortemed last week frankly stated that long before election night they had had their fill of the political hassle. And these unhappy individuals were not necessarily those whose candidates did not get elected.

AN IDEA OCCURRED TO ME THAT perhaps TV can do almost too good a job for a national event such as the one we have just experienced. For generations, the two political parties have held their conventions in the early summer to allow ample time to reach the voters before November election. In past days, candidates had to cover the territory personally, stumping indefatigably to put their message across to "the people." A quarter of a century ago, radio entered the picture and made it possible for the voters to hear what prospective office-holders had to say. This year, for the first time generally, however, the political parties had a brand-new tool. Its power and very personal appeal have been demonstrated almost daily for the past few months.

THAT TV WAS SOMEWHAT MIS-USED AND ABUSED during the recent campaign is a fact I won't deny. However, I believe that by the time another election rolls around, different approaches with it will probably have been worked out. It seems to me that with judicious use of radio and TV, it might not be necessary at all for candidates to wear themselves out rushing around the country. The whistle-stop could be replaced by the dial twist. Money spent for tours could be channeled into radio and TV and the precious energy of important candidates could be conserved for the jobs awaiting their occupancy. In fact, with the impact of modern media, why need a campaign be so prolonged? If men were nominated in September and campaigns conducted by radio and TV for six or eight weeks, wouldn't it be better?

DURING RECENT WEEKS, a few persons have objected to seeing and hearing so much "politics." Although I agree in a way, I still feel that it has been a wonderful experience for the American people as a whole to get close to their government. But even the most disgruntled lookers and listeners I talked with have had nothing but praise for certain programs which were put on specifically to help voters think and make decisions. They also admit that a few of the coast-to-coast hook-ups were splendid. I guess we all go along with the idea that TV and radio are used advantageously when used discriminatingly. When surfeit occurs, listeners and lookers grow sick—and tired.

It is the general feeling that overall election coverage was commendable and that both media accomplished fine coverage. Only minor complaints: sometimes things were too long drawn out . . . some outlets might have done better by not trying so hard to make something out of nothing . . . some might have pleased more by not making such a production of an event already important. For this was a story—a great story with all the elements of conflict, patriotism, deep issues, even glamour; and a story like this is better told simply. Lots of persons, however, liked having the election given a production treatment and consequently were happy lookers and not like the TV-radio star who told me, "All I wanted to know was who was ahead and how much!"

COLOR TV

Since we first started advertising in this magazine, thousands of people have purchased Great Western's TV-Color Filter. Many of those people have re-ordered and sent this filter to friends and relatives. To those of you who have not purchased a filter, this is what it is: Made on Eastman Kodapak film, this 3-color filter is easily attached to your TV set by means of scotch tape, and can be just as easily removed. This TV color filter gives the ILLUSION of color (green, yellow and blue) and is a temporary answer to the Government's ban on the manufacture of TV color sets. Great Western's TV color filter will do this for you: reduce "snow" and "ghosts"; make the picture clearer, improve "fringe area" reception; eliminate glare and eyestrain. Send check or money order for $2.00 in an envelope addressed to: Great Western, Dept. 1114, c/o TV-Radio Life, 6361 Selma Ave., Hollywood 28, Calif. We'll put your filter in the mail within 48 hours. Please allow one week for delivery. Specify screen size with order—sizes 8" to 21". Send your order today. Sold on money-back guarantee.

San Diego
DIAL DATA ●

By Maurine Skinner

SAN DIEGO—(Special)—Big things are planned for December 12 for KFMB radio when the station switches networks. More details on the big event will be forthcoming but in the meantime hang on to your hats—even Santa Claus has consented to take a back seat.

Longines-Wittenauer will do it again—for the fourth consecutive year they will bring you the Thanksgiving Festival Hour of Music which makes for excellent watching and listening and especially on Thanksgiving Day. KFMB-TV will carry it from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Looks like the below-the-border TV will open as an independent station rather than network. . . . The TV set count in this area has jumped again with a conservative check showing more than 155,000 sets. The potential viewing audience on a count such as that is about three people per set—makes a nice little figure for an audience, eh?

To the people of San Diego the growth of this city has been no secret but KFMB and KFMB-TV decided to let everyone know about it by running full-page ads in the N. Y. Times, the Wall Street Journal and the Los Angeles Times. Received an inquiry from St. John's, Newfoundland, in regard to the ad which had appeared in the International Edition of the N. Y. Times.

Howard L. Chernoff, General Manager for KFMB-TV and KFMB radio, and Mrs. Chernoff are off on a two-week vacation to Honolulu via Transocean Airlines. . . . The Sav-A-Way food plan company sponsoring the hour-and-a-half wrestling show a couple of weeks ago obtained some fabulous results from the live commercial which Channel 8's announcer, Larry Shields, gave—by the next day the company had on hand 300—that's right—300 names and addresses of prospective customers who had phoned in and asked to be called on by a company salesman. All the result of this commercial. Since assuming the responsibilities of Program Director for KFMB radio, Jerry Lee Pecht has been plagued by the illness of his staff—and just before election too! What with one of his announcers on more than familiar terms with the hospital, the wives of two other announcers were in the hospital or expecting to be—and what happens? You won't believe it, but the day before election his Chief Engineer turns up with the gout!

Radio in Review

For Love o' Mike (General Comment)

Radio Ramblings

ABC's "Defense Attorney," Mercedes McCambridge, moves to New York, from whence her show emanates until next summer. . . . Don McNeill's "Breakfast Club" has found a permanent berth in the Terrace Casino of the Morrison Hotel in Chicago. . . . Gene Autry is on the move again. He opens his fifth annual tour in Texas next week. . . . KECA's Bill Balance substitutes for CBS's vacationing Hawthorne. . . . CBS's "Rocky Jordan" was once a five-a-week sudser titled "A Man Named Jordan." . . . AFRAN Jack Moyles has played the title role in both versions. . . . Jean Hersholt will receive an honorary doctor's degree in appreciation of his more than fifteen successful years as radio's country doctor. . . . "Club 15" exits from the airlines in January unless a new sponsor foots the bill. Campbell soup people are earmarking their budget for TV.

Children's Programs

In all fairness we must take issue with radio for its dearth of suitable radio programs for children. Television shows for the younger set are abundant. We recognize their quantity but will not dwell on their quality at the moment, because selective viewing can control that situation to a degree. However, radio has neither quantity nor quality programs for the moppet set. We took a survey of the situation and present the following cross-section of programs designated as listening fare for your children by stations KHJ, KNX, KFI and KECA, respectively:

Mutual-Don Lee

"Clyde Beatty," Sunday, 1:30 p.m.

Bobby Benson

The adventures of this world-renowned animal trainer and hunter as he relives exciting episodes from his experiences in both the jungle and big top.

"Bobby Benson," Monday, 5:00 p.m.

MDL's cowboy kid heads the riders of his B-Bar-B Ranch as they hunt down desperadoes in the Big Bend Country of Texas.

"Wild Bill Hickok," Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 5:30 p.m.

Guy Madison is starred as "Wild Bill" and Andy Devine and his deputy, "Jingles," in these stories of that legendary two-gun hero.

"Sergeant Preston of the Yukon," Tuesday and Thursday, 5:30 p.m.

Adventures of the Northwest Mounted Police as they face danger and death keeping law and order in the wilds of the Canadian North.

"The Cisco Kid," Wednesday and Friday, 7:30 p.m.

These adventures, which are based on O. Henry's fa-

CBS-KNX

"Let's Pretend," Saturday, 8:00 a.m.

Nila Mack's playhouse for the younger set. Dramatizations of fairy tales and children's folk stories.

"Hopalong Cassidy," Saturday, 6:30 p.m.

The hero of Clarence Mulford novels brought to life by William Boyd.

"Tarzan," Saturday, 6:00 p.m.

Adaptations of Edgar Rice Burroughs's jungle stories. Adventures appeal to kids from six to sixty.

Gene Autry

"Gene Autry," Saturday, 8:30 p.m.

The singing cowboy rides to victory no matter what.

ABC-KECA

"Space Patrol," Saturday, 9:30 a.m.

Buzz Corry and Happy, Carol and Tonga ride the airplanes in their space ships firing the imaginations of the small fry.

"Lone Ranger," Monday, Wednesday, 7:00 p.m.; Saturday, 8:00 p.m.

The masked Ranger and his friend Tonto catch the villain on all counts.

"Silver Eagle," Tuesday, Thursday, 7:00 p.m.

Here's one we'll have to listen to, but we'll wager it's a cowboy-and-Indian formula.

We Point With Pride

... To Jimmy Stewart and the entire cast who substituted for the absent Bing Crosby on last week's airer. Thanks also go to the regular scripters of the Crosby show, Bill Morrow and Murdo MacKenzie, for putting together top-rate musical fare on such short notice.

Off Mike (Personalities)

Early Plans for Coronation Coverage

June 2, 1953, is almost a year away, but CBS broadcasters are making plans for Queen Elizabeth's Coronation coverage now. Because of the necessity for making arrangements far in advance, the British Government has asked the broadcasters for their earliest cooperation.

Robert Trout

Edward R. Murrow, Lowell Thomas and Robert Trout will join CBS Radio European Chief Howard K. Smith for this momentous broadcast. Murrow, Thomas, and Trout will meet for their second coronation. The trio covered the coronation of George VI in London in 1937.

"Amos 'n' Andy's" 10,000th Broadcast

On November 16, "Amos 'n' Andy" will commemorate their 10,000th broadcast with a special program highlighting events over the years. Through the show will parade the most famous of the more than 190 characters they have created... characters that have become as much a part of American folklore as Paul Bunyan and Uncle Remus. Over the past twenty-five years "Amos 'n' Andy," otherwise known as Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, have captured the hearts of the American people.

Despite the announcement of their intentions to quit radio at the close of the current season, people in the trade are convinced that the pair will be back again next season. Radio and "A & A" were made for each other.

Ear, Eye Inspire the Pen

Diane Ranson, 7418 Dalton Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

Are Ed Kemmer (Buzz Corry) and Virginia Hewitt (Carol) of "Space Patrol" married? I disagree very much with the reader who said "Space Patrol" shouldn't have romance. I think it should. I am twelve years old.

Ed is married; Virginia is single.

Jimmy Britt, Hollywood, Calif.

Is Jack Webb on "Dragnet" as gruff in private life as he sounds on the program? Sometimes he gives me goose lumps.

Which speaks well for Jack's acting abilities. In private life, he is a personable, well-mannered gentleman and a very proud papa.

Jessie Jones, Los Angeles, Calif.

I am past seventy-seven years old. I do not go out very much, so my big hobby is wrestling. I see the wrestlers so much it seems as if I know them all.

Jack Webb

Mrs. B. Robbins, 5412 Briercreech Ave., Lakewood, Calif.

It's too bad one of the best TV programs, "Foreign Intrigue," hasn't a better time.

Diane Jensen, 1625 Morada Pl., Altadena, Calif.

Could you please tell me how to get pictures of TV stars?

Unfortunately, we cannot supply individual requests for glossy prints of the stars. Our suggestion is to write to them personally at the individual stations.

Mrs. Rowe, 929 E. Third St., San Bernardino, Calif.

Could you tell me where the rest of the article "My Proudest Moment as an American" appeared? The story started in your October 17 issue.

The story was continued in our October 24 issue on Page 22.

Donnette Nair, 9406 Maple Ave., Pacoima, Calif.

We agree with you wholeheartedly that "Mr. Peepers" is just too good to lose. The show was always full of laughs and the casting was excellent. I wrote NBC and hope lots of others did too.

We won, too! "Mr. Peepers" returned to our screens on November 2 on KNBH.

Dorothea Jones, 427 W. 63rd Pl., Los Angeles, Calif.

Sorry to see a fine person like Monty Margetts with her jovial, good personality go off Channel 4.

Mrs. N. Beitler, 2154 Hill St., Ocean Park, Calif.

In my opinion the advertisers during the film presentations are violating one of the most fundamental laws of psychology of advertising: by cutting the films on the most interesting point they arouse in the people who are watching films the adverse and negative feelings and emotions toward every object which is advertised.

Miss Maryann Piert, Huntington Park, Calif.

I certainly agree with the recent letters about Bob Olah, formerly with the Lawrence Welk band. He was a fine musician with a lot of talent and I wish that he was back with the band.

Mrs. M. Brown, 2052 Jeanette Pl., Long Beach, Calif.

My family enjoys "Webster Webfoot" and Jimmy Welton very much. Could you write a story about them soon?

We have just finished interviewing "Webster" and Jimmy, and a feature on these new KLAC-TV personalities will appear soon.

Florence K. Boehme, 1836 W. Compton Blvd., Gardena, Calif.

There is one person on TV that I think is very sarcastic and that is Bill Welsh. Could be that it's "just an act"?

It is the privilege of every viewer to form an opinion about various TV personalities. However, we can say that in our personal contact with Bill we have always found him pleasant, cooperative, and very sincere and appreciative about his TV career.

Bill Welsh

Diane Steinman, 613 N. Alta Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif.

Scott Douglas is a great guy and has the most original movie TV program that was ever put on TV.

Burr Passenheim, 1145 24th St., San Diego, Calif.

I am ten years old. "Space Patrol" is a show for kids like myself, and speaking for all children I say romance spoils a kids' show.

G. D., San Jacinto, Calif.

I think KTLA made a great mistake by cutting the only good amateur hour, "Hollywood Opportunity," down to a half hour.

M. Brewer, Bell, Calif.

I agree there are too many commercials on KLAC and a few others. I like the cute way Channel 11 brings on commercials on "101 Theater." Actually look for it.

Mrs. Shirley Pike, 10411 Harbor Blvd., Anaheim, Calif.

I used to watch KNXT news especially for Bob Hudson's weather report. Could you tell me what happened to Mr. Hudson?

Mr. Hudson has not been on the program now for several months, and it is believed he is doing independent research at the present time.

Tony Conte, 136 E. Penn Ave., San Diego, Calif.

Is George Putnam related to the Putnam who was married to Amelia Earhart, the flyer?
No, no relation.

Mrs. Wallace Pratt, Rt. 1, Box 14, Perris, Calif.

How about some sewing shows or making things on TV? There is so much cooking, I don't see why we can't have some sewing, too. We get tired of cooking and more cooking.

If you wish to have a sewing class on TV, drop a line to "Sewing Class," TV-Radio Life, 6361 Setna Ave., Hollywood 28, Calif.

Mary Williams, 13285 Montague, Pacoima, Calif.

We enjoy "Hometown Jamboree" very much. Recently we went out for the TV program. Our favorites are the McQuade twins. They were on the TV program, but left right after. What was the reason for this?

The McQuade twins have been signed to appear just on the TV show, and are not obligated to appear with Cliffie Stone during the rest of his Saturday night show.

Mickey O'Brien, 6200 10th Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

Tennessee Ernie

We think Garth Andrews of the Lawrence Welk show is terrific. Mr. Welk should feature him more. I have five younger sisters, and believe it or not, they all keep quiet when Garth has a song. That's an accomplishment.

Mrs. Ralph Millerd, 8840 California Avenue, Arlington, Calif.

How about an article about our favorite on TV? It is Tennessee Ernie. He is the best. He can sing any kind of a song and make it sound wonderful.

L. T., Pasadena, Calif.

We saw Leo Garibaldi on Juke Box Jury the other night and thought he was marvelous. He really stole the show.

Georgia Jaeger, 1216 S. Hicks Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

Our favorite program on TV is "Hometown Jamboree" and our favorite performers are the McQuade Twins.

G. Ward, Box 17093, Foy Station, Los Angeles, Calif.

Can you identify the music used on the "Silver Eagle" program every Tuesday and Thursday night over KECA radio at seven o'clock? This is quite important to me.

The music is "Winged Messenger," from the Chappell Record Library, London, recorded by the Queen's Hall Light Symphony Orchestra and conducted by Sidney Torch. The composer is unknown.

Lew Kohn, 107 S. Poinsettia Pl., Los Angeles, Calif.

The coming of the microwave relay and thus transcontinental TV has actually made the kinescope situation here in the Southland much worse. There isn't a single network TV show originating in Hollywood which is seen here live. The Sunday late-afternoon hours on radio have always been filled with excellent entertainment. Not so on TV. Except for "This Is Show Business" at 4:30, there is not one good program on in the late afternoon on Sunday—live, filmed, or kinescoped.

E. L. C., San Diego, Calif.

We think "Carson's Cellar" is the funniest half-hour show on today. Mr. Carson is really terrific!

Barbara J. Coombs, 1119 Louise St., Santa Ana, Calif.

I would like to know what happened to Ish Kabibble, who used to play in Kay Kyser's band. Is he on the Lawrence Welk show?

As we've reported several times before, Rocky Rockwell is the gentleman appearing on Mr. Welk's program. Ish Kabibble can be seen on The Williams' show on KNBH at 3 p.m. Sunday.

USC or UCLA?

Who has the better team, USC or UCLA?

Instead of twisting your TV-radio dials trying to find out the various sportscasters' opinions on the subject, here they are in a nutshell:

Mark Scott, KFWB: "Team for team, coach for coach, both teams are even—until you come to a boy named Paul Cameron. USC doesn't have anyone to match him. Also, the deception employed by UCLA gives them the edge."

Bob Kelley and Jim Healy, KMPC: "We both like UCLA. Better coaching gives the Bruins the edge."

Bill Welsh, KTTV: "UCLA is my choice. SC has a superior defense, but UCLA has too many offensive guns for the Trojans."

Sam Balter, KLAC: "On the basis of what I've seen so far, especially in their game against a common foe, California, I have to go along with UCLA."

Hank Weaver, ABC: "On December 28, 1951, I picked UCLA to play in the Rose Bowl on January 1, 1952. I still have not changed my mind."

Looks like a landslide for UCLA! Strangely enough, all this Bruin ballyhoo should make Jess Hill of USC nothing but happy. (Jess himself recently picked UCLA as the number-one team in the nation.)

Comes the afternoon of November 22, when the two teams clash at the Coliseum, Mr. Hill will have everything to win and nothing to lose.

Wrestling Is My Business

by Jules StrongBow

WHO Will Win Rocca-Thesz Match?

This week the world's heavyweight wrestling championship goes on the block with Champion Lou Thesz meeting Challenger Argentine Rocca at the Olympic Auditorium Wednesday night. When Lou met Baron Michele Leone in May for the world title I predicted the outcome. Like so many people who guessed the outcome of the presidential race, I was wrong. When Thesz won, it wasn't the first time I had been wrong, but it was a very bad time to be wrong.

So now I am sticking my neck out again but, first, I thought the opinions of some of the wrestlers would be enlightening.

Bobby Managoff picks Lou Thesz to retain his title because he believes Lou has more strength and wrestling knowledge. Bobby holds one of the four defeats Lou claims during his entire career. He beat Lou for the Canadian heavyweight championship in 1947 and has a tremendous respect for the lanky St. Louis champ. Bobby is a scientific stylist himself and figures that Lou will wait out Rocca's spectacular type of combat.

Rito Romero, another clean type of matster, although different than Managoff, picks Rocca to win Wednesday. Rito is perhaps the wrestler best qualified to predict the outcome as he has tangled with both Thesz and Rocca. Rita can boast of holding Lou to a one-hour draw, the only man under 200 pounds to be able to do so.

Although Lou is reputed to be the fastest big man in the ring, Rito believes Rocca is faster. His astounding variety of holds will keep Lou on the defensive. Romero points to the non-title meeting of Rocca and Thesz in which Rocca was the aggressor all the way.

Kripler Karl Davis believes there will be a new world's champion this week. "Stinky" may not be at the top of anybody's hit parade or in the top ten wrestlers, but fans must agree that anyone who beats Davis has had his night's work cut out for him. He is a hard-fighting, rough-going bruiser who has wrestled both Thesz and Rocca three or four times.

Stinky may be biased in his opinion because he is the boring-in type and somewhat in awe of the elusive tactics of Rocca. Lou's type is something Davis can get his hands on but Rocca presents a moving target very difficult to get ahold of.

My interview with Mr. Moto was a waste of time as he said neither man was good and that Mr. Moto was best.

I am backing the champion to beat the flashy South American on the basis of Lou's strength and experience. Lou came along at the time I had been wrestling for several years, in fact I wrestled him in one of his first professional matches. There has never been a more perfect athlete in wrestling than Thesz. He has the size to match pound for pound with the big fellows and speed to match the junior heavyweights. He has cunning, rich experience and ability to store his knowledge—everything necessary to a great champion.

Rocca possesses many of these attributes—and more—but I believe that Lou's experience will be too much for Rocca. It will be a close race and could go either way—but this is my guess.

Still Not Ready for the Mill

Phil Harris Will Be on TV This Year, But the Cagy Showman Says There's a Big Difference Between Doing Eight Shows and Making Eight Appearances

▲ GLIB-TONGUED, HANDSOME Phil Harris has handled himself in a masterful fashion as popular maestro, movie actor and radio star. But he still insists that a full TV schedule isn't for him—he's "not prepared." Being unprepared in the same way Harris is should happen to a lot of chaps from coast to coast. (NBC-Holloway photo.) Below, shots of Harris as he looked on the tube when he helped Jimmy Durante and Margaret Truman launch an "All-Star Revue" for NBC-TV. (NBC-Smith photos.)

LATE LAST SEPTEMBER, one hot afternoon, the stage of Hollywood's El Capitan Theater was a scurrying, lighted and confused looking patch of people hustling about different bits of business and shouting at one another.

At the rear of the darkened auditorium fidgeted a tall, well-groomed man with a mahogany-hued face and curly hair. The two main stars of the show, who displayed no nervousness, were Jimmy Durante and Margaret Truman. The man who had come to the studio every day in the week to watch all day, then rehearse for his own four-minute spot, was on pins and needles. But that's Phil Harris.

He was to do a four-minute spot, rather than co-star, by his own positive choice. He was nervous because Harris can no more stand still than he could show up dressed like a bum.

A year ago Phil announced to the readers of TV-Radio Life that he wasn't going into TV until he was ready for it. He wanted to look around . . . not make a good many mistakes that he had seen made by show people as hep as he. He wanted what was best for Phil. and plunging before a camera with Alice and possibly "the kids" in tow wasn't the way to find what's best.

Insiders as well as outsiders might wonder how Phil gets the sort of carte blanche from NBC, to whom he is under contract, to allow him to do only eight shows a year, with each show appearance running just a few minutes. What's to keep them from ordering him to get on the ball and get a show on the road?

For one thing, Phil isn't about to get himself into a contract of that sort. "I risked not working at all to work out a plan like I have, but why would NBC want me to do something all wrong for me and kill myself and my show for the public? They'd be worse losers than I am . . ." is Phil's sensible explanation.

NBC knows from Phil's complete success in other mediums that he's on the ball, all right, and will get a show on the road when he's got the right show doped. And Phil, knowing NBC from long years of work there, respects the network mightily.

"For every spot I do on a show, I have plenty of time to figure out what's right for the particular star of that show. Can you imagine running on stage when Durante was there and ordering him . . . 'Back to the box, Jack! Step aside and let me show you how I operate!?' I've done that sort of thing on my shows, and it gets a big laugh for the Harris character, but you don't do that with Durante. He's one of the immortals that another characterization just doesn't push around."

Phil's first series of TV rehearsals taught him a good many other things too, one of which was evidenced when he began his rehearsal song.

No Spare Time

"Cut that beginning from eight to four" was all he said. It means cut the eight-bar introduction from eight bars to four. That spelled less time of just standing before the cameras waiting till his actual vocal began. For Phil, things have to move. He has a clock in his showman's brain that signals loudly when a waste bit of time appears—and out go the two seconds or two minutes. It has guided him handily for many years.

"But the best actual training I had for TV was this summer when we swung through the Midwest for six weeks." Phil played a couple of state fair dates and many rounds of golf with the country's top players during this pleasant time.

"There are your critics! Those people spend more time at their TV sets than any of the Hollywood experts ever do. They see all the shows, all the stars, and they know what they want."

"I talked to people in every town we stopped, asking them what they liked. Almost to a person they were tired of pie in the face or a guy falling in a bucket of water. They don't talk sharp, and they don't have the patter down, so they say they have seen all the 'acts.'

"These are the people that keep TV alive . . . not the people around Vine Street, who know that you refer to an 'act' as a 'bit' these days. We're just the manufacturers around here. These people are the buyers, and, brother, if you don't please the customer, whether you're selling soap or TV, you're dead!"

It was noticeable that when Phil flew across the footlights to share the stage with Margaret Truman and Jimmy Durante, he needed no coaching for his lines. Every word was pat. Came song time, and no pianist was there to play the difficult, Gatling-gunned sort of novelty in which Phil specializes. Annoyed? Not Phil. He breezed through the difficult, oddly rhymed and rhythmical lines without music, so the producer could get the time on it.

Back from his song, Phil continued weighing the values of suggestions he'd picked up from his personal poll. . . .

"We all live in our own little world, and every once in a while we forget that the guy who spends all his time at a TV set is in a better position to know what's stacking up than the guy who sits in the Brown Derby and hopes a lot of people will forget that he was still in college two years ago.

"And don't think those people in the Middle West aren't smart. They don't say a lot, but just try and sell them something and see how you come out with those horse traders! That's why Mrs. Harris's boy Philip isn't going to try and sell them until he's got something real good to let go of!"

"Parlor Politics"

By Donna Scott

Test Your Political Knowledge Along With the Experts

BY THE TIME this story appears, the Presidential elections will be over, but since this is the season for politicking and since politicians come and go, KECA has determined to continue broadcasting "Parlor Politics" indefinitely.

"Parlor Politics," one of the few shows to outlive the Presidential campaigning hoopla, has a solid foundation and a competent moderator. It has long been established that gossip and politics are the foremost conversation pieces whenever friends and family gather. Consequently, KECA's Public Affairs Department, in cooperation with the Los Angeles League of Women Voters, formulated a program capturing the spirit of a parlor discussion. With astute, award-winning newsman Chet Huntley at the helm, the discussions never resolve into family quarrels. Mr. Huntley keeps the show moving at a lively pace. His indispensable wealth of information greatly enhances the nonpartisan program.

Entertaining

Not only is the program informative, but it is also entertaining. To lighten the mood of the program, a political quiz is integrated with the discussion portions of the broadcast. Identifying melodies and their political significance and recognition of excerpts from speeches are some of the devices used to stump the experts.

"Parlor Politics" has aired the pros and cons on incalculable subjects. Representative topics discussed were "Living Cost," "Why Civil Service?," "Discrimination in Employment," and "Sex Education in the Schools." A deviation from stimulating political discussions perhaps, but after all, our elected officials legislate these prosaic matters.

Sleeper

What started out as a "sleeper" has become a radio network show with possibilities of a television version. Whether Chet Huntley will moderate both shows is a moot point at the moment. However, he is one of our ace reporters on the West Coast, who has been quoted as saying, "The only thing I'm prejudiced about is prejudice." With his broadminded approach, it isn't any wonder that "Parlor Politics" changed from sleeper to eye-opener.

RED ACE NEWSMAN CHET HUNTLEY'S only prejudice is against prejudice. Award-winning Huntley has been cited for his reportorial talents.

What Stu Wilson Learned From Socks and Shirts

↑ OFFICIALLY LISTED as production manager and special-events director for KBIG, Stu Wilson also has two musical shows on the Catalina station, "Are Ya Listenin'?" and "Sweet and Sentimental."

THERE'S NO BUSINESS like show business. One day you're a somebody; the next day a nobody; and the following day—who knows?

Stu Wilson, KBIG's new "discovery," is one gent who can readily convince you of the vicissitudes of show business.

Everyone, especially people in the trade, knows the name of Stu Wilson. They should.

Since 1934, he has been one of the most successful and popular mikes on the Hollywood scene. A local product and a UCLA alumnus, he has been heard on more than thirty different and long-standing radio programs, and some fifteen TV shows.

On Top

All went well for slim Stu for many, many years. For him, for "good ole Stu," there was always the glad handshake, the robust slap on the back, and all the rest of the buddy-buddy routine that Hollywood oodles with.

At KHJ "good ole Stu" was a staff announcer for eight years, a supervisor for three years, and a producer for three more years. He was also with KFI for two years, and with KFAC and KFWD for one year each. Just a few of the shows he emceed included "Quiz of Two Cities," "Surprise Party," "Breakfast in Hollywood," "People Are Funny," "Pay-Day Quiz," "Bombardier Quiz," and "Time Out."

For more than eighteen years, Wilson and work went together like ham and eggs.

One day in September, 1951, however, "good ole Stu" turned into "poor ole Stu." He was jobless.

It seemed to be a strange twist of fate (as so often happens in show biz), but suddenly there was nothing available for Stu at any of the various TV or radio stations.

Stu Explains

"I wasn't completely broke, or on my last legs," Stu recalls. "During the years I had made good money. Besides my home in Sherman Oaks, I had made several sound investments. But I couldn't see sitting around waiting for something miraculous to happen.

"I know of several individuals in show business who, during a slack season, would actually be afraid to go out and work temporarily at some other job. They thought it might hurt their prestige or reputation. But I didn't figure it that way."

Shortly before the Christmas season, Stu started to work in the men's department on the lower street floor of the Broadway-Hollywood.

"And please," Stu smiles, "don't ever dare to refer to it as 'the basement.' It's the lower street floor, always."

No matter what the name, this was the place where Stu Wilson sold socks and shirts, and later, as head floor man, approved checks and bills for hundreds of customers each day.

He finally left on April 15, 1952, when he began his new position as announcer, production manager, and special-events director for KBIG.

"It was a magnificent experience for me. Frankly, it was a time for soul-searching in the life of Stu Wilson. It wasn't easy for me taking that job. I could have loafed around town living on my savings account and waiting for something to break.

"As a matter of fact, two weeks salary (at $1.25 an hour, minus withholding tax) wasn't enough to pay the pool payments for my house.

"But I had my health. So why shouldn't I go out and work the same as anyone else? Sure, I had to swallow my pride a little, but there weren't any jobs available at the moment in the TV and radio field, so what was I going to do?

"It's funny, but I had the hardest time convincing people that I really was looking for work, and not at a fabulous salary either.

"So I sold socks and approved checks at the Broadway-Hollywood. I can remember several times when I would sign a slip for the store, and then turn right around and sign an autograph for one of my old fans.

"All in all, it was a magnificent experience. It taught me to understand many things about myself and people which I had never known before. It taught me humility.

"As a matter of fact, I may return there a few weeks each year, in order not to forget the things I did learn."

Yes, Stu Wilson is back but BIG in show business again. A little older, perhaps; a little heavier (stopping smoking has helped him to gain weight); and a great deal wiser.

Girl Fridays

*We Salute the Harassed
Unsung Heroes of TV*

▲ SMILING AT THEIR RESPECTIVE "BOSSSES" BELOW are Girl Fridays Kay Whitehall (Chef Milani), Bingo Piver (Mary McAdoo), Marilyn Breno (Jack McElroy) and Lorna Jones (Bill Stulla). They seem to thrive best when working under pressure, yet none of them would willingly swap their "Friday-ing" for anything they deemed prosaic. (NBC-Ball photo.)

THE WINSOME QUARTET above are sometimes called "Girl Fridays." They possess the valuable faculty of turning chaos into order.

Since television has usurped radio's corner on the ulcer industry, these TV Girl Fridays go about their business in a determined state of placidity with intelligence and efficiency. The multitudinous details that befall them would drive most people off their rockers. We have no scientific proof, but are willing to wager that their intake of vitamins is excessive and that their basal metabolism is rapid. Here's the story on four typical KNBH Girl Fridays.

Bingo Piver

Statistics: Age twenty-two — five feet six and a half inches — 130 pounds—black hair, green eyes.

She was christened Florence Jean but Bingo has been her name ever since she was two years old. At that time "Bingo" was a popular expression around the Piver household. Whenever anyone would pat our Girl Friday on the head and ask, "What's your name, little girl?" her reply would invariably be "Bingo," and so it has been ever since.

After college, Bingo canvassed the radio stations showing her USC sheepskin. Although she majored in radio, she lacked practical experience, and settled for a secretarial job at ABC-TV, where she met Mary McAdoo.

Mary and Bingo moved to KNBH, where they have been busily engaged in the "Mary McAdoo at Home" tele-show. Interruptions are Bingo's pet gripe: "The minute I get started doing something I'm interrupted by the telephone, or it's time for the rehearsals or something." The happiest moment of my day is when the director signals that we are off the air. Only then can I relax."

Bingo's favorite hobby is golf. She is a newlywed who has started her married life with the proper approach. She has an understanding husband who likes late dinners and can even cook one if necessary.

Kay Whitehurst

Statistics: Age twenty-four — five feet six and a half inches—116 pounds —brown hair—gray-green eyes.

It seems that Kay was on hand at the psychological moment when an opening occurred on the Chef Milani Show. Kay takes the ups and downs of her job in her stride. "After all," she says, "when you have a swell bunch like the Chef, Mama and Dusty it makes working fun. As the Chef says, 'We're just one big happy family.'"

Kay and the staff are always sure of eating on this job. It's amazing and amusing how fast the food disappears after each tele-show.

She hopes to learn the ropes from the position of Girl Friday on up to that of assistant TV producer. Kay's always had a yen to work on a musical show.

Sports and television head Kay's list of hobbies. Her Saturday mornings are well occupied with the ABC-Ruggles Men's Softball Team. (What, the whole team?) "I'm assistant manager for them this year," she hastened to explain. She's also secretary for the Radio and Television Softball League. When not preoccupied with ball teams, Kay plays a fast game of tennis.

Marilyn Breno

Statistics: Age twenty-two — 117 pounds—black hair, brown eyes.

Marilyn's vacation cinched her vacation. She met Jack McElroy while visiting her uncle and aunt and remained in Hollywood to become Jack McElroy's Girl Friday.

Truthfully Marilyn is still too much of a novice at her job to find any fault with it. The most pleasant task she performs is mopping Jack's brow during the show. Her goal is just to be able to do a good job regardless of the chore—singing, dancing or Girl Friday-ing.

Youth and frankness go together, and Marilyn says: "I never had it so good! Believe me, it's the greatest." When Marilyn comes down from the clouds she likes to swim and play golf. Her most gratifying experience, thus far, is knowing that the entire staff is rooting for her.

Lorna Jones

Statistics: Age, twenty-seven—five feet eight inches—130 pounds—brown hair, brown eyes.

Lorna prefaced her position as Girl Friday to Bill Stulla by being executive secretary to Bud Cole, KNBH Program Manager. She set her sights for TV production and maneuvered into that spot on the Stulla show.

The most annoying part of her job is dealing with the upset mamas who didn't make arrangements soon enough to appear on the telecast. The most rewarding part of her job is working with so many wonderful people, the children. She also finds choosing all the prizes lots of fun.

Lorna aspires to become a full-fledged television producer. She finds it very satisfying working with such a talented and interesting person as Bill Stulla. "He is never at a loss for words, even in the face of the direst production tragedy, and I'm learning a lot from him."

Dancing, riding, swimming and music are Lorna's hobbies. She is single but definitely "available." She derives a great deal of satisfaction from her association on the Stulla show, because she feels it brings pleasure to so many people.
