The $64,000 Challenge:

CAN LIGHTNING STRIKE TWICE?

10c

BILL FOX
"CHALLENGE"
EMCEE

Seen On The Video-Radio Scene

MRS. VERNON E. HOBACK of Garden Grove wanted to be glamorous for her husband and six children. And she got the full treatment when she appeared on KABC-TV on the Jack McCoy Glamour Girl show.

▲ THIS IS REALLY A NEW TWIST. George Wolfe, Panorama Pacific's feature editor, had a delightful assignment not too long ago—interviewing Tracey Roberts, actress, in a bath tub. It was all for a show in which she was appearing then.

Dear Sue,

I promised. The long and short of it is - everybody loves scones.

The Topsy-Turvy Show with the "Upside Down" Emcee

That's the best way to describe Panorama Pacific host Red Rowe and his Get-Together program on KNXT, Chan. 2.

RED ROWE describes his life these days as "everything is upside down."

The easy-talking host of KNXT's Panorama Pacific and the star of his own Get-Together program, is not complaining. With an exclusive TV and radio contract with CBS (he's sticking strictly to TV so far), the Iowa-born redhead has never had it so good.

"But it's rough," the weary-eyed emcee explained during a coffee break between his two Channel 2 shows. "I'm up at four every morning and retire around nine or ten o'clock. A regional show such as Panorama Pacific requires a dress rehearsal. That usually takes place around five in the morning at the KNXT studios. After the show is over, I have to prepare for our Get-Together program. Later in the afternoon, we have to begin discussing plans for the following day."

Although the hours of Red's work—give or take a few—are the same as an average laboring man's, it's something entirely different for the one-time bandleader and disc jockey.

"For years, I was accustomed to quitting work at two or later in the morning, and then getting up at around noon. Now it's almost just the opposite."

After over three years of this "upside down" living, it would probably be Red's "luck" to land a late night show. If so, it will be just as tough for him to get back to "normal" again.

➡ EVEN WHEN crooner Red and pulchritudinous Lucyann Polk join tonsils for a duet, they wouldn't think of doing it straight. They need appropriate props: such as a pretty parrot. (CBS-Ted Holmes photos.)

▲ ON KNXT'S Panorama Pacific, and especially the afternoon Get Together program, Red Rowe features an amazing number of guests, stunts and audience-participation gimmicks. A perfect example: Red interviews an unusual guest at Palos Verdes' Marineland.

▼ STRESSING INFORMALITY, Red's Get-Together is a topsy-turvy affair which has been described as the "free-wheelingest show on TV." When an actress such as Linda Cristal comes on the program she not only plugs her last film, "Comanche," but literally demonstrates to Red just what she means.

The $64,000 Challenge—

THE MOOT question about The $64,000 Question is—can lightning strike twice in the same place?

Last year the predecessor to the new CBS-TV-KNXT show. The $64,000 Question, was the sensation of TV. It was almost inevitable, then, that some kind of sequel would come along. After much discussion and even more rumors, Louis G. Cowan, who produced the Question, announced that The $64,000 Challenge would be given birth. On top of that, some of the same gimmicks would be employed—the isolation booth, the sealed questions, and the money running from $64 to $64,000.

But no show can coast along being just a carbon copy. Cowan is too astute a showman to make that mistake, so he added a few extra slants of his own. The big difference is that on his show the most noted and successful contestants on the Question are pitted against challengers who believe they possess as much information as—if not more than—Gino Prato, Joyce Brothers, Capt. Richard McCutcheon, and Myrt Power who are the experts for Challenge.

Sonny Fox

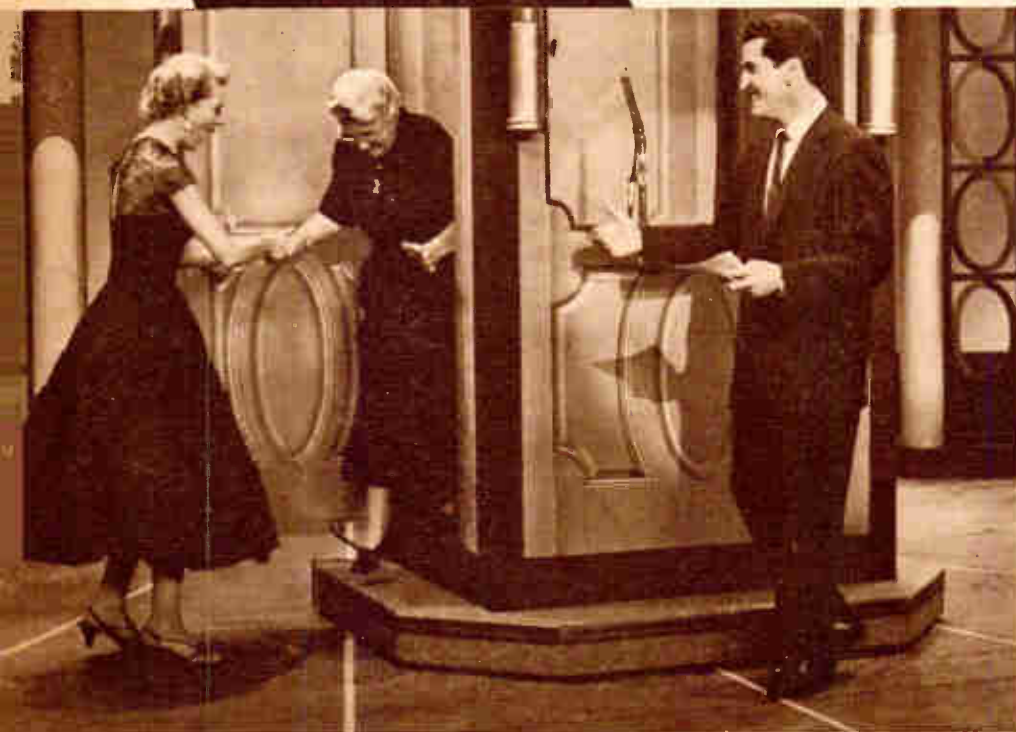

By now, of course, the workings of the new show are pretty familiar to all. Emcee Sonny Fox, whose name was changed to Bill for this program, is not such a familiar face.

When Sonny (Bill) was in Hollywood doing his last stint on his previous CBS-TV assignment, Let's Take a Trip, he was cornered for a few opinions about Challenge. He had his views all right but he was still wondering how he ever got the job.

"I fluffed on my first audition and even gave the answer before the ◆ MYRT POWER, the grandma who knew her baseball, is another who will lend her memory and personality to the Challenge.

Can Lightning Strike Twice?

A lot of your favorites from The $64,000 Question will be back again on this new CBS-TV show. Will it be as big a hit?

question," Fox remarked. "When I heard the audition tape I thought, 'I wouldn't hire me.' After all, I'm not an actor and I can't play a role. I've been a guide on Let's Take A Trip which certainly is a far cry from my present assignment.

"The suspense was terrific, waiting to hear if I got the job. Four weeks elapsed between the first audition and the second and I was sure it was a dead issue until I was called back for a second chance. I was about to leave for the coast to prepare for Let's Take A Trip and had to postpone my departure. The second audition paid off—but even then I didn't get the final confirmation until after I had been on the coast several days.

"I was just plain lucky since I was competing against many well-known and expert emcees. All I can say is that I hope I do as good a job as Hal March has done. I look on Challenge the way Hal does on Question—that the emcee is not the star. The contestants are. And what fast company I'll be in with those champions on the show!

"I'm no expert on any subject myself. I have a lot of extraneous information nobody requires. I know a little about a lot of things and I know enough that I don't know it all. If I were forced to select a category it would be baseball or music but I know I wouldn't go beyond the $2000 plateau."

Fox has, of course, been a fan of the Question for some time, although he viewed it at first with some skepticism. It wasn't long, though, until he was entirely fascinated by the way it built and sustained interest and suspense over a period of weeks. One of the most thrilling moments, to him, was when Captain McCutcheon won the first $64,000. As he said, "I had a feeling he would win the jackpot."

Fox hopes, naturally enough, that the Challenge will be as successful as the Question. He believes the competition between the champion and the challengers should create a lot of interest in the show.

Background

Now that he's on the Challenge he still hopes to appear as host on

May 18, 1956

Let's Take A Trip whenever possible. Being a host is not a new job to him since prior to his CBS assignment he was host and associate producer of The Finder on station KETC in St. Louis. It was one of the most popular educational shows for youth in the midwest. When he left to go to New York the youngsters picketed the station, protesting his departure.

From April 1951 to October 1953 Sonny worked with the Voice of America as special events officer and then as special correspondent in Korea. He reported on the activities of the U. N. troops other than those of the United States, sending back by cable and tape unusual stories about such allies as Thai, Greek, Colombian, and Ethiopian forces.

Prior to this assignment, he was on the production staff of Allen Funt's Candid Microphone series on CBS radio.

A veteran of World War II he spent two years and three months in the infantry and was awarded three battle stars and the Purple Heart. He was a prisoner of war in Germany for three and a half months.

He is six feet two inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has dark brown hair and blue-grey eyes, he was married in Tokyo, May 1, 1953 and he and his wife have one child.

Everyone will be watching now if Louis Cowan can parlay one hit into another. Those who know Mr. Cowan feel he is riding on pretty secure ground. One spokesman in his office said, "This show has everything—big money, known personalities, unknown personalities, and a contest. It has a bigger potential even than The $64,000 Question."

Time will tell whether or not that statement is just optimism or a fact.

ABOVE RIGHT: Capt. McCutcheon proves he not only knows all technical details about cooking but that he can turn out some fancy dishes himself. His family must be a very well-fed group.

GINO PRATO will continue to prove how much he knows about opera on The $64,000 Challenge. ▶

SIX-YEAR-OLD VALERIE WALKER is no different from thousands of other girls, young and old, who idolize tall, dark and handsome Clint Walker, the star of Warner Bros. Cheyenne series on KABC-TV. However, when her daddy starts picking on his guitar, and hits an occasional wrong note, Valerie would much prefer to look than listen. (Warner Bros. color photo.)

He Won't Wear Shoes

CLINT WALKER, the star of Warner Bros. Cheyenne series on ABC-TV, won't wear shoes. At least, not the ordinary kind.

"I wear these cowboy boots all the time now," the six-foot-six handsome, manly looking giant explained, as he stuck the size 13 boot in the aisle of the Warner Bros. commissary. "Usually wear a 14 shoe, you know. But I haven't worn anything except boots since I started in this business."

"This business"—being an actor—is something entirely new for the tanned, dark-haired Clint, who was "discovered," so to speak, by Van Johnson. "I was working a few years ago as a deputy sheriff at the Sands

Hotel in Las Vegas. Johnson took a liking to me and told me to go to Hollywood.

"The wife and I weren't too sure. We wanted to go to either Florida or California. On the highway, one sign pointed East, the other further West.

"The wife tells me, 'I have a sister, Virginia, in California.' That was what decided it."

Walker's background reads like a press agent's story, but it's all the truth. He's been a boatman on the Mississippi and the Great Lakes; a merchant marine sailor; an insurance salesman; a lumber jack; a ranch hand; a cement mixer; a special investigator; carpenter; policeman; bouncer; and probably lots of other things he didn't have the time to tell us in our hour-long, pleasant and even exciting (in a vicarious way) interview.

"I'm in show business for the money," Clint admits. "I want to learn. I know I've got a long way to go."

And when a big hunk of man tells you in a deep husky voice and with penetrating eyes that "I also believe that as long as we're on the earth we should try to contribute to other people's happiness, because we owe it to the Big Man upstairs"—you know he means it.

Keep your eyes on Clint Walker. He's a star now—after only a year in the business—but if he gets any kind of a break he should develop into a great one.

Cart Comes First

This television business certainly does get mixed up. We're on the threshold of summer shows yet the networks have great blanks in their program schedule. They know more about their fall shows than they do about what's going on in June and who's replacing whom.

For example NBC's scheduled the Broadway musical hit High Button Shoes, which starred Nanette Fabray and Phil Silvers, for next fall. Esther Williams and NBC have negotiated for a 90-minute Aqua Spectacle for next season. Similarly, CBS and ABC have plans for the fall but they are still undecided as to their summer programming.

Program-wise the nets are putting the cart before the horse. But what can you expect from this crazy business?

Eurovision

Transatlantic television may be closer at hand than most of us think. Wide Wide World is planning a program for next October which will be a fore-runner of transoceanic video.

On May 23, NBC brass met with heads of the European Broadcasting Union (Eurovision) in Italy to plan an "Autumn in Europe" segment for WWW. Eurovision links together, by means of live television facilities, Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Monaco and Luxembourg.

The WWW program will be shot

Ampex Demonstration

The first demonstration for advertisers of the new Ampex video tape recorder system will be made by CBS at the 10th Annual ANA (Association of National Advertisers) West Coast Meeting at Pebble Beach on Wednesday, May 16.

This new tape recorder system records both the picture and sound on a single magnetic tape two inches wide traveling at only fifteen inches per second. Programs can be recorded directly from a television camera, from a TV network line, from a microwave relay system or even from a television receiver.

CBS expects to use these recorders as soon as the units can be delivered. William B. Lodge, engineering v.p. for the net, stated recently: "We hope that use of this new equipment to overcome the three-hour east-west time differential will improve the technical quality of CBS-TV programs and will enable our affiliated stations on the West Coast to deliver better quality pictures in the home."

Cleo Eyes TV

Cleo Moore has asked for and received her release from Columbia Studios and plans to concentrate on television. The star has formed her own company, MYCO, with the intention of hosting and occasionally starring in a dramatic anthology. Writers David Mathews and Arthur Orloff are preparing properties. —M.R.

Second Glances (Critical Comment)

Point With Pride

. . . to Noel Coward for his video adaptation of "The Happy Breed" (Star Jubilee, CBS). Portraying the life of an "average" family doesn't always make the most exciting dramatic fare, but Mr. Coward's excellent production executed by a top-notch cast made "Breed" a notable video drama. The talented playwright dropped his smart sophistication for the role of a serious-minded father, displaying his flawless acting ability. Edna Best, co-starring as his wife, Ethel, gave an outstanding performance.

. . . to Kim Stanley and Bert Freed for their absorbing dramatics in "Death Is a Spanish Dancer" (Kraft Theater, NBC). Playing the roles of crippled daughter and over-protective father they captured and held the viewers' interest throughout the play. Miss Stanley's yearning to be independent of her well-meaning but domineering father motivated the plot. The dance sequences were authentic and sadly beautiful.

Ear, Eye Inspire the Pen

Mr. Eusebe Gaspard, 124 Forman St., Westwego, La.

I am the new Dom Frontiere Fan Club prexy and would appreciate it very much if you mention the club in TV-Radio Life.

P. M. A., Long Beach, Calif.

During my seven months in the hospital, the first three or four months I listened to the KXLA programs most of the time. Having exhausted my appetite for western music only I started on the popular music. Listen to both now. I have found the music I like best is a half-breed style. A mixture of popular and western styling. I find the most fascinating of all is Elvis Presley on the Dorsey Bros. Stage Show.

Mrs. W. P., Perris, Calif.

Let's don't have so many stories on Gobel. I think lots and lots of people are sick of him. I know we are. The same way with Roberta Linn.

M. F., Costa Mesa, Calif.

Will you please write a story on James Arness of Gunsmoke? Also please tell me what has become of Joan Barton of Western Varieties?

We had a story on Jim and the show last September and will have another in the July 6 issue. Joan Barton had been substituting for Carolina Colton, who was ill but is now well and back on the show.

Mrs. P. L., Chino, Calif.

I think the program Climax! "Pale Horse, Pale Rider" was a very good program and I hope to see more of John Forsythe (who wouldn't?) I thought that he was perfect to star with the dramatic part played by Dorothy McGuire. I think Norma Gilchrist is a high class person and even though I can't afford some of the clothes she shows, I enjoy seeing them and as far as her own dresses are concerned, let her dress as she chooses. She pays for them.

H. R., Los Angeles, Calif.

You recently published an article on prizes given on radio and TV shows in which someone from CBS or NBC stated income tax must be paid on all prizes over $600 in value. The Internal Revenue Department had just verified my understanding that tax must be paid on every cent of prize winnings which I have always done.

B. H., Altadena

Would you please tell me if Doye O'Dell is married and does his little girl live with him now? He has a wonderful personality and is a fine man and certainly deserves happiness after the tragic death of his first wife.

Sorry to say Doye's recent marriage did not work out.

C. J. H., Torrance

I have also become acquainted with many performers of Town Hall Party and I couldn't ask for better friends. I do not think that anyone has the right to criticise these decent people until they have come to know them as I do.

M. E. D., Maywood

In reference to a recent gripe from H.J.N., Inglewood, some years ago I heard Merle Travis explain what H.J.N. calls "fancy pants." He said that the cowboy clothes were the uniform for Western performers. Many have never been near a horse or claim to. There are good and not so good singers in every category. O.K. H.J.N.?

Mrs. W. E. C., Los Angeles

I like Sheriff John almost as well as my two youngsters, but may I ask why—if he has such a wonderful show—why those awful atrocious cartoons? I am tempted daily to turn to another station when they begin. Even my children and their friends make a dash for the kitchen or toys in the middle of one. Why doesn't Channel 11 splurge and buy some real cartoons and not show those corny imitations?

W. F. C., Ontario

I would like to suggest that some sponsor get the studios to dig out a few of the old Will Rogers pictures. Also some of those of Shirley Temple as a child. I should think there are some sponsors who would be glad to have these pictures run, rather than repeat those horse operas or dramatic plays every few weeks.

... in good taste!

HOLLAND'S TUNNEL

DUG BY JACK HOLLAND

The Los Angeles Times' editorial blast at KTTV's George Putnam points up one thing—George wasn't kidding when he said he was given complete freedom about what he said on TV. Most newscasters in this town would like this kind of freedom. It would seem to this tunnel that George's recent blasts at civic officials aren't being done for the sake of sensationalism. He must have some loaded facts or he wouldn't have gone out on such a limb. In the past, when he has gone on a crusade he's usually had facts to back him up. At any rate, KTTV is to be commended for its policy of letting George give his views. Everyone will be watching the result of this surprising hassle. Want to bet on who wins?

According to all the so-called ratings, Noel Coward's "This Happy Breed" got trounced. This may be so, but everyone I talked to had seen the show and loved it. To this department, it was a moving, impressive production from start to finish. It had heart, laughs, warmth—it was a stand-out. Noel Coward and Edna Best were only terrific, and if this kind of show can't make the grade on TV, we might as well go back to wrestling for our entertainment.

While we're in a complimentary mood, I'd like to toss a few bouquets in Patti Page's direction. This young lady who has her own show on KRCA and who is to sub for Perry Como this summer, is a model for all ambitious youngsters. She is now at the Coconut Grove and doing a whale of a job, in spite of practically being blasted out of the room by the orchestra. I talked to Patti after the show and it is great to see a young person upon whom success has rested so gracefully. There is real humility in this girl, an utter lack of pretense, a sincerity that is the stamp of all fine performers. She has that attitude of being amazed when she does a good job. She is one of the prime worriers of all time, and yet you'd think she had nothing to be concerned about. It's not often you run into a person like Patti Page. Let's hope TV hangs on to her!

The prospects for summer fare on TV look bleak indeed. Most of the things scheduled are re-runs and movies with their endless amount of spot commercials. The summer would be an excellent time for networks to develop new talent, but this apparently won't be the case this year any more than it has been in the years past.

More on the Silvers business—and what a hornet's nest we stirred up on this one! C. L. Skelley writes: "I endured 10½ years of Marine Corps life

(?) and from what I've seen of Army training, strategy, etc., Bilko isn't funny enough to caricature their many off-screen antics. As for ridiculing the brass hats, how can such case-hardened individuals possibly be moved—one way or another? No, it doesn't lower the estimation of the Army in the eyes of the viewing public—just makes them more aware of the blunders that certain ill-organized segments of the Army are capable of performing. . . . Bilko simply points out these discrepancies where the actual soldier on duty cannot." And Robb Edmonds writes: "What's so unusual about a monkey getting into the Army? Many were drafted during WW II for Officers' Candidate School. Ask any former G.I." He then adds, in answer to a previous letter accusing the tunnel of being jealous because of all the awards Phil got, "How could a columnist be 'jealous' of an 'actor's' award? That's tantamount to a sports writer being 'jealous' of Swaps winning a horse race."

And from Burt Metgger: "In my opinion his (Phil's) writers must be the best in the business and Silvers' portrayal of Bilko could be labeled as close to genius. Bilko is the personification of the wishful thinking of all ex-servicemen. As far as Army officers being made to look ridiculous by not noticing that a monkey is being inducted, don't you believe that it is possible that the monkey could be an improvement over some inductees and even an improvement over some magazine writers, particularly in the TV-Radio field?"

And so we ring down the curtain on the drama of Bilko.

Label Talk

By TERREA LEA

Well, how are you label savers doing? Do you have a lot of labels on deposit or are you stacking them under the bed and in all available drawers? You know, you really should send them in to Label Bank and let them be put in your account—then you don't have to worry about them. Just sort and count them—put them in an envelope or box, and bring or mail them to the Label Bank office, and everything will be handled just like making a deposit of money in the bank. Makes it easier for you and the product members are always happy to know that you are buying their products and saving the labels.

Now I told you I was going to have some new products to announce, and here they are. Instant Folger's Coffee labels are now worth points. The two-ounce is two points, four-ounce is four points, and the six-ounce is six points. The wrappers from Red-Top Napkins and Penthouse Napkins are worth four points. The labels from Golden Crown Brand Fruit Punch Base are worth two points. The caps from No-Cal Beverages are worth two points, and last, but certainly not least—the labels from the entire line of Iris Fancy Foods are worth one point. And there is going to be a contest for clubs and organizations very soon, concerning Iris Foods. I'll tell you about that at a later date.

I hope you folks will try these new products. I'm sure many of you are using them right now—and you be sure to save the labels. With these new brands, Label Bank now offers you close to 1000 individual products with labels that count toward those valuable premiums. So if you use only a few of the products, it won't be long until you have earned that premium—but, if you use all of the products you can earn that premium in a matter of weeks. So try those Label Bank products if you aren't already buying them, and I know you'll continue to use them. You pay no more, you get top quality, and the labels are valuable.

And here's a reminder to tune in to the radio show. Monday through Friday nights—10:30 to 11:00 p.m. on KABC—790 on your dial. I'll keep you up to date on the latest news of Label Bank, sing some songs and play some records.

More Label Talk next week. 'Bye now!

TV-RADIO

Lifelines

BY EVELYN BIGSBY

I'M GETTING SUCH SUGGESTIONS as to what Danny Thomas should do about losing his TV wife, Jean Hagen. Mrs. Feller of Long Beach tells Danny, "At last you have a blessing in disguise! Next year with Jean Hagen out of the way you can have a little variety in your program. She continues:

AFTER MUCH THOUGHT, here are a few ideas:

1. Mrs. Williams passes on doing some heroic deed.
2. Next year have two weeks alone with the children.
3. Then Aunt Bessie, from the Middle West, who has never seen New York, comes to stay with the children and you. My suggestion would be "Hilda" on the December Bride program. She is tops!! Of course the children would love her and the situations you two could get into would be hilarious.
4. Half way through the series have Aunt Bessie and your kids trying to get a wife for you. Introduce several—not all good, of course. Then have Barbara Hale (if you like her) be your steady and just before the end of the season announce your engagement.
5. In the 1957-58 season be married to her.
6. Let's have your second wife be a widow with a child. Lots of problems could be worked out from that angle.

LIFELINER THINKS MRS. FELLER has neatly taken care of everything for Danny. Maybe she should put in a pitch to write for TV!

MRS. MOON OF SOUTH GATE echoes the sentiments of the lady who suggested that "Mrs. Williams" be killed in an auto accident, "since it is true, every year many people are taken that way. Maybe it will make some people think, who very much need to."

SHE CONTINUES: The show stresses Daddy, it is built around him. And how many situation comedies have developed from a man or woman with children seeking a new mate? Letting the public in on some of the courting of the new "Mrs. Williams" and possibly even the wedding would give them a feeling of being in on the "beginning." The children will surely add to the general fun.

LIFELINER GETS THE IMPRESSION that some of Danny's feminine fans crave more romance on the program!

COMPLAINTS ARE COMING TO my desk about the plethora of current reruns. Folks, it's that time of year, but I, for one, can't understand why this season should be any different from any other.

IF I WERE RUNNING RADIO AND TV, I would do it on a year-around basis of four 13-week periods. During the year, each program would vacation for one of these three-month segments, but at all times there would remain a preponderance of fine programming. In other words, the comings and goings of the top shows would be dove-tailed so that listeners and lookers would always be assured Grade A fare. The whole mistake of thinking that summer is a poor TV and radio time, hence deserves reruns and second-class programming, is an antiquated notion which has crystallized into a vicious circle. If you don't agree, ponder Ed Sullivan and how he stayed on live all summer of 1954 to cop the top 8 p.m. lead and has stayed there ever since, despite NBC's frantic efforts. And again, mull last summer's $64,000 Question and the phenomenal peak which it attained at a time when shows just aren't supposed to pull a respectable audience. Need any more proof?

NO MORE TV REPAIRS ?

Transistors are now replacing all receiving tubes with good results in newly designed radios of various sizes, including all transistor car radios which reportedly will be used in most of the 1957 car models.

Designers of TV sets are also experimenting with transistors and it is believed that they will be used in color TV sets at a later stage but not in black & white sets.

The advantage of using transistors is primarily to reduce the breakdown ratio. It is a fact that some day all tubes in TV sets will be replaced with transistors, all tubes except the picture tube. But no matter how advanced our future TV sets may be they will always present a maintenance problem.

The wise thing to do now is to make sure that YOUR present TV set is in good operating condition. It is better to be safe than to be sorry.

Call Television Industries at RI-9-0301. They will inspect your set without obligation and write a parts warranty for only $15.00 per year, on a two-year basis, covering all parts, tubes, transformers, channel selector unit, speaker, and of course, the large picture tube up to and including a 24-inch screen, regardless of make or age.

This warranty also incorporates a service agreement which provides that all labor charges are to be limited to a fixed price. All house calls for repair are charged at a flat rate of $3.50 per call. This is not an hourly rate but a fixed price.

Television Industries covers all districts of Greater Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside, Pomona and nearby communities, Monday through Saturday, six days a week.

For further information simply call RI 9-0301 or mail coupon below to Television Industries, 4031 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 5, Cal.

MORE RELIGIOUS PROGRAMS

Because of increased demand for religious telecasts, a second group of Christian Science TV films are being released. Locally, the programs are seen on KABC-TV, Channel 7, Sundays, at 3:45 p.m.

Over 160 television stations have broadcast the initial 13 programs in the series How Christian Science Heals since they were first released last September.

Heavy response from viewers throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska, and Hawaii gives evidence "of an increasing thirst in this atomic age for religious values," explained Will B. Davis, manager of Christian Science Committee on Publication.

Documented examples of the solution of character, business, health, and other problems are described in the 15-minute programs by the men and women who actually had the experiences.

Radio programs of the denomination—which also carry the series title How Christian Science Heals—will continue to be broadcast over 800 stations throughout North America and overseas.

CARSON HUMOR

Jack Carson told his CBS audience: "I ran across a 20-page booklet entitled: 'What Men Know About Women.' And you know something, when I opened the cover all the inside pages were blank."

Pick of the Pix

By Aubrey Dahl

This week I'm jampacked with info, so stick with me.

"The Commandos Strike at Dawn." (11) May 20, 6:00. 1942. Producer-Director John Farrow has provided this film with an impressive air of authenticity by filming it in Canada (where it resembles Norway) and using British troops in actual stages of combat training. The commando raid, you see, is on Norway, where Paul Muni's daughter is held by the Nazis. Paul, a meteorologist, leads the raid, which is a vicious, realistic bit of action that provides the main reason for the picture. Cedric Hardwicke is a British admiral, Anna Lee is the girl who loves Paul and Lillian Gish is the matriarch of the village objective. You want a little action? You'll get it here.

"Adventure in Washington." (5) May 20, 7:30. 1941. Gene Reynolds was a pretty good young actor who decided he'd rather write and so we don't see much of him any more. In this he plays a boy from the socially unacceptable section of the community (my English teacher would have said, "Make it simple . . . make it 'wrong side of the tracks'." See how far I've got in life by ignoring his advice?) who is befriended by Senator Herbert Marshall and is taken to Washington to serve as a pageboy. He is a recalcitrant little rascal at first, but radio commentator Virginia Bruce takes him in tow and soon has him using the right fork. Then he is accused of eavesdropping by another senator, is dropped by Marshall and vengefully tells a newspaperman of a secret bill. When Marshall is about to be impeached for leaking information, Gene returns and . . . This is a tight little movie that extols the more admirable aspects of Washington.

"Bride By Mistake." (9) Beginning May 22, 9:00. 1944. Laraine Day is the proud owner of billions of dollars and she loves Alan Marshall, who flies airplanes. The question seems to be

It will not make a sound.

whether he loves her for herself, alone, or for her money. In order to find out, Laraine changes places with her secretary, Marsha Hunt, and there follows much foofaraw about who loves whom. Two capable comics, Slim Summerville and Allyn Joslyn, fun around quite a bit and I'm told this movie has a laugh a minute.

"Sign of the Ram." (11) May 22, 7:30. 1947. This was Susan Peters' return to the screen after her ultimately fatal accident and it serves as an adequate showcase for her particular talents. She plays a woman who has become embittered by an accident that has confined her to a wheelchair, and the only pleasure she gets from life is in dominating her family, nominally headed by husband Alexander Knox. She breaks up the romances of her children in order to keep them under her thumb and generally indulges herself in an orgy of selfish despotism (sorry, professor). This one is quite definitely a melodrama.

"Pardon My Sarong." (13) May 22, 8:30. This is Abbott and Costello. You like? You watch. I only wanted to tell Channel 13 that I thought they did a wonderful job of presenting "Brief Encounter" last week. There were only one or two brief cuts and they were minor and intelligently handled. Also thanks to Harbor Lincoln-Mercury (I mentioned them when I panned them so it's only fair etc., etc.) for just two commercials during the film. It was a nice job all round. As for Abbott and Costello . . . they've made millions.

"Sign of the Ram." (11) etc. Right there, Van Brocklin, on the dotted line.

"Hard to Be Good." (7) May 25, Noon. Well, then, just be better.

Radio in Review

For Love o' Mike (General Comment)

Radio Ramblings

Fred Beck's new book "To H... With Golf," will be released next fall. KABC's Beck has had two previous best-sellers, "Second Carrot From the End" and "Seventy-three Years In A Sand Trap."... KPPC's Walter Schaub covers the United Nations activities in his Sunday night airer.

Anthony Ellis has been named producer for CBS Radio Workshop's Hollywood originations. . . . Gale Storm and husband Lee Bonnell have just returned from a vacation in Jamaica. Gale plans another recording session with Dot label as soon as she can fit it into the filming schedule of her new TV series Oh, Suzanna.

Stu Wilson sends KBIG listeners a daily yarn from his Hawaiian Islands vacation spot. . . . NBC carries the Bobo Olson-Sugar Ray Robinson fight on May 18 at 7:00 p.m. Les Paul and Mary Ford cut "Cimarron" and "San Antonio Rose" for Capitol. . . . Queen For A Day salutes the women in our Armed Forces on their May 18 broadcast.

Musicologist Percy Faith operates his own elaborate miniature railroad on the grounds of his Long Island home. . . . Billy Liebert and his orchestra become regulars on KNX's Matinee. Billy has been musical director for the Tennessee Ernie and Curt Massey shows.

The Woolworth Hour has been renewed on CBS for another 52 weeks. . . . Recently, Bob Turnbull completed his 500th script for Marvin Miller's KHJ airer. . . . Lutheran Hour, formerly broadcast on Mutual, moves over to NBC in its 26th year of broadcasting.

Rudy Wissler, young singer who had been subbing for Gary Crosby on the Bergen show, is now working in the KNXT Press Department. M.R.

Freberg Cited

Stan Freberg received the Down Beat plaque in that magazine's annual disc jockey poll for the best novelty disc of 1955, The Yellow Rose of Texas. The Capitol recording artist has been seen recently on NBC's Comedy Hour.

National Radio Week

In recognition of National Radio Week, May 13-19, special programs are being beamed throughout the week in the industry-wide observance. The major networks will be stressing the importance of radio as a news, information, service and entertainment medium.

According to the Radio Advertising Bureau there are 121,000,000 radios in use in the United States or one for every person over nine years of age. Civil Defense authorities recommend that a battery-operated portable radio be part of every home's emergency kit.

Perhaps the observance of National Radio Week will help unconfuse Peter Lind Hayes' 7-year-old son who grew up with TV and thinks radio is the newer medium.

Bergen Back

Edgar Bergen is back at work doing his radio show after a trip to New York and Chicago where he was honored in celebration of his 20th year on Radio. Mr. Bergen also made the historic Los Rancheros Visitadores horseback ride from Santa Barbara through the Santa Inez Valley before returning to the studio.

PCC Contract

Contracts were signed between the Pacific Coast Conference and the Columbia Pacific Radio Network last week for an exclusive two-year pact calling for complete and unprecedented exclusive radio coverage of all football and basketball games as well as other sports at the Conference universities.

Institutions involved are the UCLA, USC, Stanford, California, University of Oregon, Oregon State College, University of Washington, Washington State College and the University of Idaho.

New contract goes into effect with the 1956 fall semester.

Art's Corner

By ART GLEESON

With the 1956 baseball season under way, it is a pleasure for me, of course, to be associated with Mutual-Don Lee's Game of the Day baseball broadcasts. This will be the seventh year that KHJ Radio and the Mutual-Don Lee network will air baseball to fans coast to coast and around the world. The games this year will be heard LIVE every Saturday and Sunday.

Many changes have taken place since I first started on the Game of the Day back in 1950 with Al Helfer. Three of the baseball clubs have moved their franchises, great stars of the game have retired, many clubs have seen fit to make managerial changes, great young stars have hit the baseball headlines; and, of course, there have been several changes in our announcing line-up on Game of the Day.

This gives me the opportunity to introduce two new members of our broadcasting crew for 1956. Bob Neal, who joined the network last year, will again handle the western assignment and his new partner will be Rex Barney. Many of you baseball fans will remember Barney when he was a member of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

On September 9, during the closing weeks of the 1948 season, Barney pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the New York Giants and found his name in baseball's record books alongside Cleveland's great righthander Bob Lemon. Barney and Lemon were the only pitchers during the year to receive the thrill of throwing a no-hitter. Towards the end of the 1950 season Barney fractured his leg and retired from active play. Choosing the radio field, Rex has worked baseball from Oshkosh, Wisconsin; Vero Beach, Fort Pierce and Daytona Beach, Florida, and last year handled the broadcasts for Charleston, West Virginia, in the American Association.

Art Gleeson

As Barney would say, "It's great to be back in the major leagues again" and I know you fans across the nation will look forward to hearing the big righthander.

On the Eastern seaboard, it will be my pleasure to work with a Yankee who turned to the South to make a name in the sports broadcasting field. John MacLean, born in Lynn, Massachusetts, has handled sports and baseball assignments in Atlanta, Rome and Columbus, Georgia; in Jacksonville, Florida. For the past four years MacLean has been broadcasting baseball, football and basketball in the great city of Baltimore. John is starting his fifteenth season in the radio sports field.

The baseball announcer today finds himself in a rather peculiar role. Through the activity of baseball's "Little League," naturally more youngsters and their mothers are taking interest in the national pastime. They write in to ask for the announcers to give more color about the players even down to the number of the uniforms. They also request more explanation on the rules and various plays which crop up during the games. All of this is sometimes annoying to the old-time fans who thoroughly understand the game, so it's up to the announcers to find the happy medium.

Many fans have written to ask what has been my greatest thrill in sports broadcasting and going back over the past 22 years it is difficult to say. Broadcasting the 1948 Olympic Games was a thrill I'll always remember but my greatest thrill in baseball happened back in 1951 when I had the opportunity of announcing both of the no-hit, no-run games pitched by the great Yankee righthander Allie Reynolds. On July 12 of 1951, Reynolds held the Cleveland Indians hitless as Gene Woodling's homer off Bob Feller gave the Yankees a 1 to 0 victory. Then on September 28, Reynolds pitched his second no-hitter against the Boston Red Sox. In the top of the ninth with the Yankees ahead 8 to 0 and with two men out, Reynolds had to face the great Ted Williams.

I forget the exact count, but Williams lifted a high pop foul just behind the plate and all of the fans thought it was all over, but Yogi Berra, catching Reynolds that day, tried for the catch but never even got his glove on the ball. However, on the next pitch, Williams again sent a towering high foul toward the Yankee dugout and Yogi, the great catcher that he is, handled it perfectly and Allie Reynolds wrote his name in the baseball record book.

Watching the great stars such as Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Bobby Doer, Joe Gordon and Bob Lemon play on the sandlots gave me a great thrill and I hope there will be many more like them coming up to the majors to thrill the millions of baseball fans.

Erik Paige: The Stars' New Announcer

ERIK PAIGE had to wait a few years for what he wanted, but he's finally landed the job as the full-time play-by-play announcer of the Hollywood Stars baseball games.

Before coming to Hollywood, Erik worked side by side with Mark Scott in the Piedmont League in Virginia. In 1952, Scott became the Hollywood announcer. A year later, Erik also came West to work as Mark's assistant.

For a short time Scott and Paige parted company after some individual differences of opinion.

However, all's well that ends well. During the past winter Scott announced he was moving up to the big leagues to take over the announcing chores at Cincinnati.

That's when Paige took over as the Director of Sports at KFVB and the play-by-play announcer of all the Hollywood Stars baseball games.

In some ways it's a double break for Erik because this season—with no TV on any of the Hollywood games—Stars fans will have to listen to Paige to keep up with their favorite team.

GENE MAUCH, peppery Angel infielder, shows Erik and a group of Little Leaguers how to "handle a hot one."

HY COHEN, Angel pitcher, (lower right) then demonstrates to the prospective big-leaguers how to "throw that high, hard one." (Bernard Zwilling photos.)

AT GILMORE FIELD, Erik chats with Joe Bass and Bobby Bragan (center). Bobby, of course, has moved up to the big-time at Pittsburgh after successfully piloting the Stars for two seasons.

TALK OF the industry, and one of its real pioneers, although a relatively young man today, is Don Fedderson, the man who originally put Liberace on TV, and who now produces such highly popular programmers as The Millionaire, Life With Elizabeth, and the latest quiz sensational, Do You Trust Your Wife?

In launching the latter on the CBS air channels early in January, Fedderson gave the industry something new to wonder about. The new giveaway series, with Edgar Bergen as quizmaster, and Charlie McCarthy, Mortimer Snerd and Effie Klinker as hecklers, was an instantaneous success. It won immediate acclaim from press and public, and by mid-February it had reached the upper-10 category, in national popularity, according to the official surveys. The Millionaire series, after one year on the airwaves, is likewise listed among the top 10 in public favor, being the only strictly drama show in that enviable classification.

Fedderson has the showmanship flair which is making TV history. He has the foresight, the know-how, and the courage of his convictions. He not only seems to sense, in advance, what the public will like, but he has the enthusiasm, and the creative and organizational ability which it takes to convert ideas into video series which are immediately successful, and which sustain their popularity indefinitely.

It was against the advice of friends and associates that he introduced Liberace on TV. But look at the candelabrist now. And it was under his persuasion that ventriloquist Bergen, after resisting pressure for six years to emcee a regular weekly TV program, consented to conduct the Do You Trust Your Wife? series.

Fedderson entered the field of television after nearly a decade of prominence in radio work, here and previously in San Francisco. He personally financed the original production costs of both The Millionaire and Do You Trust Your Wife? teleseries, indicating what confidence he has in his own judgment on public preferences.

He was born in Beresford, S. D., and his wife, Tido, hails from Tipton, Mo. The influence of these two small towns on his later life is reflected in the name, John Beresford Tipton, which he gave to the eccentric, unseen billionaire who gives away a million dollars each week on The Millionaire telecast.

Genesis of The Millionaire was Fedderson's long-held belief that one of the most fascinating of ambitions among Americans is to be a millionaire. Many months before he originated and got The Millionaire on the airwaves, he asked all his friends, and many strangers whom he met in his travels, "What would you do if you had a million dollars?" And he and his writers used the replies as framework for their pre-production story confabs.

The immediate, and sustained popularity of The Millionaire, proved the efficacy of this practical form of research. Fedderson and his writers are still garnering replies to this question by mail, or by personal inquiry, as basis for the series. Actual replies from Joe Public provide better story material than anything his writers might dream up, according to the producer.

Before he whipped up Do You Trust Your Wife?, Fedderson had come to the conclusion that the audience-participation-type of show had, and would continue to have for some time to come, greatest popularity appeal. He is convinced that the cycle of quiz shows has not yet reached its peak, with sponsors jacking up the cash pots to entice viewing audiences away from their rival advertisers.

Another element of popular appeal wherein the quiz shows have an advantage over other types of TV entertainment, according to Fedderson, is the constant parade of fresh faces and interesting personalities who comprise the contestants. The public, he points out, often tires of the same faces used repeatedly on the drama and comedy hours.

Fedderson maintains offices at Republic Studios, in Beverly Hills, and in Hollywood, where he recently took over an entire office building as headquarters for The Millionaire and Do You Trust Your Wife? production staffs. He lives in the exclusive Brentwood district, near Beverly Hills, and the Feddersons have four children: Monya Lee, 17; Michael, 14; Gregg, 6; and Darr, 2 years old.

Does Life Begin at 52?

It did for Fred Shields who after a rude awakening grew up emotionally to face the realities of life.

By Mildred Ross

AFTER TWO unsuccessful marriages and a promising career that nosedived announcer-actor Fred Shields did some penetrating soul-searching to discover the underlying reasons for his apparent failure in life.

"When I was still in my teens I escaped into the fantasy living of show business because reality was so baffling and incomprehensible to me," he explains. "Now, after 28 years in the business, I find the reverse true. Reality is simpler and more satisfying compared to the meaningless dream world I used to live in.

"After 52 years of living I came to the conclusion that most of us never grow up emotionally because we won't accept reality. At last I'm not kidding myself anymore. I realize the mistakes I've made and it is my hope that through my KFI program, You Are the Doctor, that I can awaken the public to the dangers of emotional immaturity. Yet it is not my intention to assume the role of counselor, preacher or philosopher for anyone because I am not trained in these fields.

Family Life

"Marriage and family life are the keystones of our culture. If you destroy the family life, as we are today, with our high rate of divorce, you must replace it with something else. So far there has been no acceptable substitute.

"Too many mature people enter marriage with an infant concept and thus are not equipped for adult institutions or domestic life. My goal is to help strengthen the family unit and thus cut down on divorce. I believe that if divorce continues at the present rate we will jeopardize our families of the future."

Fred is dedicated to the ideals of emotional growth, understanding and self-acceptance. He believes he can stimulate these concepts with concrete action. Because there are not enough doctors in the country to handle emotionally disturbed people Fred advocates group therapy where people can sit down and discuss their problems much in the same way a family gets together for the purpose of settling problems and clearing the air of any misunderstandings. He sincerely believes these groups can be expanded to become a dynamic national organization.

"About four years ago I formulated my ideas for the program, You Are The Doctor, and I spent a great deal of time on research and study. I'm convinced the answer to our problems lies locked within each of us. If we can help one another unlock these answers we are truly practicing brotherhood of man. After all, aren't we totally responsible for the world we leave to our children?"

The new Fred Shields is a happy man, happier now than he's ever been but it took him half a century to find himself. How long is it going to take you?

◀ PORTRAIT OF MAMA fifty years ago.

She's My Mama

Mama Weiss' favorite recipe: determination mixed with humor and a dash of philosophy.

WHAT KIND of a woman is rotund, jolly Mama Weiss who mixes banter with her batter?

Next fall, she celebrates five years of telecasting on KHJ-TV and she's still going strong. This sets some kind of a record since most culinary shows usually fall by the wayside in a hurry. Mama's middle son, Milt, who works with her on the show, is perhaps best qualified to paint a portrait of his Hungarian-born mother.

"Mama has always been a woman of great determination," he boasts. "She wanted to come to America and did, landing in New York with the grand sum of $13.00. She accepted the first job offered her, that of a cook for a wealthy Long Island family.

"Many years later she and papa decided they wanted to live in Southern California so they moved to the Coast and tried their hands in the upholstery business. It flopped and it looked as though the family was destined to return to New York. But Mama was determined to remain in California. Always a remarkable cook, she struck upon her restaurant idea.

Business

"She possessed all the kitchen talents necessary. As a matter of fact she had everything except the money. But this didn't deter her. Mama managed to scrape together $35.00 which she used as a down payment on tables and chairs and dishes. She decided to open shop in her own home and so she auctioned off the living room furniture and installed the new restaurant facilities. The restaurant became a family affair

... we were all pressed into service, waiting on tables, helping in the kitchen, and typing menus.

"Mama canvassed the neighborhood for customers. She just wouldn't take no for an answer. She persevered and her delectable meals caught on with the patrons she solicited. Mama makes the best cheese blintzes in the world.

Humor

"One of Mama's outstanding characteristics is her wonderful sense of humor. No matter how heavy a heart she may have the moment she gets in front of an audience, she starts smiling. Mama loves to sing and she breaks into song at the slightest provocation during the television program. She used to do the same thing for our customers when we had our restaurant.

"Mama is a complete individualist. Who else but Mama would raise carrots and parsley in the front yard of a home on Canon Drive in Beverly Hills? Mama also lets few things throw her. On many occasions she's in the midst of cooking something only to learn that a certain condiment is missing from her TV kitchen cabinet. Instead of getting flustered she slips a note to a floor manager requesting that he run across the street to the market and purchase the missing spice. The show goes on as smoothly as silk and when the floor man returns with the spice, she off-handedly remarks 'Oh, I forgot to tell you to add a dash of ginger.'

"If anyone has a more even temper than Mama I'd like to know who it is. Even when we were children she never scolded us and there are three boys in the family. She won our obedience with understanding and love.

"Mama has a wonderful philosophy. She believes that dreams come true if you keep wishing hard enough. When she was a young girl she dreamt of becoming an actress. She didn't make this goal, but she certainly has found the answer to a full and happy life. Isn't that the dream we all have?"

"HE-MAN"

At home, Brian Keith is like an ordinary husband, father, with two pets and a lot of yard work to do. On TV he's a tough, rough and ready reporter involved in adventure.

BRIAN KEITH, star of CBS-KNXT's Crusader series, keeps in shape for his rugged show by sawing wood on occasions at his Bel Air home. Yes, there are men in Bel Air who do this sort of work.

AT HOME Brian's life centers around his wife Judy and year-old Mike. The Keiths are certainly a contented trio.

BRIAN KEITH is a rugged, two-fisted free lance reporter in his character of Matt Anders on Crusader (CBS-TV—KNXT) but when he wipes off the grease paint and walks through the door of his Bel Air home, Brian becomes the average, typical husband and father.

He has a wife, the former Judy Landon; an eight-month-old son, Michael; a dog, Briggs, who "plays" the piano; and a cockateel named "Baby Doll."

And, like so many other husbands and fathers, he's always got that yard work staring him in the face "when he can find time to get around to it."

"Filming of Crusader keeps me pretty limited as far as spare time is concerned," he says, "but I've got a big project going at our place. I'm going to remove some orange trees and shrubs so we can eventually have a swimming pool. The job keeps nagging me and I'm going to get it done one of these days."

Brian's wife, Judy, is practically a native Californian, having lived here in Los Angeles since she was three years old. She was a dancer with Billy Daniels and also the Civic Light Opera until she decided on a career as a wife and mother.

Brian was almost literally born in a trunk. His father, Robert Keith, is a veteran stage performer and former leading man while his mother is the former Helen Shipman, who retired from the stage several years ago to open a gift shop in New York.

Keith has a budding career in movies, too. His latest is "Storm Center" in which he costars with Bette Davis. He starred with Ginger Rogers in "Tight Spot" and also starred in "Five Against The House."

After serving with the Marines as a flying machine gunner in the South Pacific, Keith turned to the stage and appeared in "Mr. Roberts" with Henry Fonda, "The Moon Is Blue" with Maggie McNamara, "Darkness at Noon" with Claude Rains and several other productions before coming to Hollywood.

And how did Keith happen to be selected as Matt Anders for Crusader?

Richard Lewis, producer of the series, tells the story, "The William Esty Advertising Agency and I worked out the idea for Crusader and we were looking for a real rugged individual—the guy with the broadest shoulders in Hollywood.

"We saw Brian in two movies in which he played rugged roles, 'Five Against the House' and 'Tight Spot' with Ginger Rogers and that decided us. Brian Keith was our boy for the role."

Keith is a firm believer in television. "This is an excellent entertainment medium which gives new talent the opportunity it deserves," he says enthusiastically. "Before television came along, new talent could easily be overlooked. Not today. Television, because of its very magnitude, is always searching for talent."
