LUCKNOW-ALLAHABAD BAHU BEGUM

A historical play by Lakshmi Kant Verma brings to life a chapter of history during the rule of the East India Company in India. Bahu Begum is a character not too well-known, but one who still captures our imagination. The play will be on the air on April 30 at 2130 hours from Lucknow-Allahabad.

PATNA

PSYCHOLOGICAL NOVEL

The most characteristic aspect of modern fiction has been its inward turning to convey the flow of mental experience—what has been called the 'stream of consciousness'.

AIR Patna is broadcasting a series of four talks discussing some of the important elements of psychological fiction apparent in the novels of Joyce,

More than a hundred literary men from all regions of India came to the Samaroh for a second successive year, bringing with them their treasure and talents. Many ideas were exchanged at the mart. These ideas did not rest with the participants; they took wings and travelled to the far corners of the country. It was a week-end of stories for the radio-minded. Twenty-eight short stories were narrated, and people could not only hear snatches of the voices of the men who wrote them, but also listen to full translations of these stories in the language of their choice. This was not easy to organize; but it was organised.

Proust, Faulkner, Virginia Woolf and others. This week's talk is Point of View, the name given by Henry James to the method of revelation of the story through illumination of the situation and the characters through one or several minds.

The talk goes on the air at 2115 hours on Thursday. The speaker will be Mahendra Pratap, Head of the Department of English, L. S. College, Muzaffarpur.

SOORDAS JAYANTI

On Friday, between 1930 and 2005 hours, AIR Patna will broadcast special programmes on the occasion of Spordas Jayanti. This will include a talk in Hindi entitled Sur Ka Kavya Saundarya followed by a programme of verse and music entitled Ankhan Hari Darshan Ki Pyasi. Its script will be by Ram Chandra Jayaswal. The feature programme can be heard at 1945 hours.

JAIPUR-AJMER

CHITRALEKHA

This is originally a novel by Bhagwaticharan Verma on the interplay of piety and temptation. Yogiraj Kumargiri has overcome his passions. One day, he is visited by Beejgupta, an epicurean prince, in company with Chitrlekha, a court dancer. Being thus brought together by accident, Kumargiri falls in love with Chitrlekha, but Chitrlekha, under his influence, is turned away from the lure of the worldly life.

A radio adaptation of this famous psycho-analytical novel will be broadcast from AIR Jaipur on Tuesday at 2115 hours. The adaptation is by K. N. Dube (Yatindra).

A BRIDEGROOM'S PROBLEM
Marriage in India, even in the most advanced families, is still very largely a matter of arrangement between the elders, the contracting parties themselves having very little to do with the negotiations preceding the alliance. In some of the more orthodox families, the bridegroom hardly gets an opportunity even to see his bride; and many and varied are the ruses employed by enterprising young men to circumvent the irksome restrictions and get a glimpse of their future wives.

Tune into AIR Nagpur at 2130 hours on Tuesday and listen to a feature in Marathi entitled Kanchichi Bhint in which the author Arvind Agashe will describe the exploits of one such plucky bridegroom.

BASAVA JAYANTI

When Hinduism was on the decline due to the powerful influence of Jainism and Buddhism and had become a mere bundle of rites and rituals, it was left to Basaveswara to reinstate the nobler and glorious aspects of Hinduism and revive the religion. On the occasion of Basava Jayanti on May 2 AIR Dharwar has arranged the following special programmes to explain the greatness of Basaveswara and his philosophy:

Wednesday 2125 hours: 'Haralayya Madhuvayya' play in Hindi by R. C. Bhusnurmath.

Thursday 1930 hours: 'Basavanna' Talk in Kannada by V. S. Basavanal.

Thursday 2030 hours: 'Nudidare Muttinahara' Feature based on Basaveswar Vachanas, presented by V. R. Koppal.

All the programmes may be heard on 405.4 metres, and the feature at 2030 hours on May 2 will also be relayed by AIR Bangalore.

Govindrao Kale was in the consulate of the Nizam and was noted for his outstanding ambassadorial work. When Mahadaji Shinde returned to Maharashtra to meet the Peshwa, Maharashtra resounded with his exploits in the North. The letters written by Nana Phadnis to Govindrao Kale besides describing the bravery of Mahadaji Shinde, are a rare specimen of the art of letter-writing. They are living pages of Marathi history.

The veteran, historian Govind Sakharan Sardesai will discuss these letters in a talk in Marathi entitled Govindrao Kale's letters from AIR Poona on Saturday at 2015 hours.

MADRAS

KALANGARAI VILAKKAM

The lighthouse is a sign of hope to a mariner and an object of attraction to a visitor. Lighthouses have also a fascination for the author, because they symbolise romance and drama.

Umachandran's play in Tamil Kalangarai Vilakkam centres round the story of an old watchman of a lighthouse, whose charming daughter falls in love with a young visitor, much against the wishes of her father.

The play can be heard at 1930 hours on May 4 from Madras 'A'.

TAPESTRY OF LIFE

AIR Madras has planned a series of four talks in English entitled The Tapestry of Life on some interesting problems of life and livelihood. The first in the series will be a talk in English by S. K. Chettur, I.C.S., on Serving the People. It can be heard on May 2 at 2115 hours from Madras 'B'.

ANCIENT TAMIL POETS

Ancient Tamil literature abounds in works by eminent poets like Nakkirar, Gnana-sambandar, Appar, Sundarar and Arunagiri, known for the simplicity of diction and straightforwardness in presentation. Of them, the poet Nakkirar, who wrote about two thousand years ago, contributed much to Tamil literature and is remembered with respect by Tamil scholars. Legend has it that he maintained his ground even against Lord Siva over the measuring of a particular stanza.

10 KW SHORT WAVE TRANSMITTER FOR GAUHATI

All India Radio, Gauhati, enters a new phase of listening range, when the new 10 KW short wave transmitter goes on the air at 1630 hours on May 4. The new studio buildings of the Station will also be opened the same day.

Broadcasting was first introduced in the State with a pilot station at Gauhati with 1 KW medium wave transmitter and 50 watts medium wave transmitter at Shillong on July 1, 1948. In 1953, the 1 KW transmitter at Gauhati was replaced by a 10 KW medium wave transmitter. The Shillong transmitter was removed. The auxiliary studios at Shillong continued to feed the Gauhati transmitter on trunk telephone lines.

Assam is a land of various cultures. Here the Austro-Asiatics rub shoulders with the once mighty Ahoms. In this land, besides the Assam valley people live numerous tribes, with their rich and colourful traditions and cultures. The dialects spoken by them are also varied. Some trace their origin from Tibet, some from China and many from Burma. Right in the heart of Lohit Frontier Division in N-EFA, one's gaze is met by beautiful and magnificent Buddhist stupas, built in ancient times. The Garos attract one with their beautiful songs about their Tibetan days. The Mishmis, the Apatanis, the Daflas, the Noktes, the Nagas and scores of other tribes, not only offer anthropologists a great field for study, but give us a chance of knowing them fully in their original tribal democratic set-up, which the Government is still maintaining.

Exploitation of their rich talent has now become possible with the introduction of new short wave transmitter in Assam. It will carry programmes for all the tribes living in the N-EFA area.

TRIBAL MUSIC

The picturesque States of Manipur and Tripura also fall within the listening range of new transmitter. Special composite programmes will also be put out for them. There is not an inch of land in and around Assam which the radio waves would miss. The recording unit of All India Radio, Gauhati, has collected a huge variety of tribal music to feed these programmes.

The new transmitter will radiate in the following frequencies and meter bands:—

I. Transmission on Sundays 0645 to 0900 hours on 42.11 metres (7125 kc/s) and other days from 0645 to 0830 hours.

II. Transmission on Saturdays 1230 to 1400 hours on 31.33 metres (9575 kc/s) and other days from 1300 to 1400 hours.

III Transmission from 1600 hours to 1830 hours on 31.33 metres (9575 kc/s).

III Transmission from 1845 hours to Close Down on 42.11 metres (7125 kc/s).

It is AIR's privilege and responsibility to explore and exploit the rich and varied culture of Assamese to present it in a series of programmes for the people of the valley and of the hills. Since 1948, the twin Stations of Shillong and Gauhati have served this region, mostly immediately around these two centres as the available transmitters did not reach far.

BROADCASTS IN DIALECTS

Now, more powerful short and medium wave transmitters have been set up at Gauhati which can cover the whole of Assam. New studios have also been constructed and provided with the latest equipment for broadcasting and recording. With the new studios and transmitters AIR Gauhati, now takes the next step in its historic development. In addition to the programmes in Assamese and in Khasi, Jaintia and Garo dialects which it broadcast so far, AIR Gauhati will now broadcast in 15 additional dialects spoken in the NEFA divisions and in the Hills Districts. This will be a unique experience for AIR both in planning and presenting a programme in so many dialects many of which have neither a written script nor literature of any kind. The recruiting of the necessary programme personnel speaking these dialects was a problem in itself. For collecting authentic material recording centres will be set up at Jorhat, Tuensang and Manipur. Here, the best in local music and spoken word would be transferred to the tape which would be flown to Gauhati for broadcast to the whole area.

In addition to these programmes for the NEFA and Hills Districts, programmes for Manipur and Tripura will also commence.

The details of these new services from Gauhati are as follows:—

THE NEFA PROGRAMME

For listeners in the Subansiri, Siang, Lohit and Tirap Frontier

Divisions. A composite programme of news interviews, commentaries, discussions, music and other items in the dialects with linking announcements in simple Hindi:

Time of broadcast 1600-1630 hours.

THE NAGA PROGRAMME

For listeners in the Naga Hills District and Tuensong Frontier Division. A composite programme of news, interviews, commentaries, discussions, music and items of entertainment in Ao, Angami, Sema, Lohta, Yim-singar, Chhang and Sangtam dialects with linking announcements in simple Hindi.

Time of broadcast: 1650-1730 hours.

THE ASSAM HILLS PROGRAMMES

For listeners in the Hill Districts of Khasi and Jaintia, Garo, Mikir and North Cachar and Lushai. A composite programme of news, music and Spoken word items in Khasi, Jaintia, Garo, Mikir, Bodo and Lushai dialects.

Time of broadcast: 1730-1830 hours and 1845-1900 hours.

THE MANIPUR AND TRIPURA PROGRAMMES

VIJAYAWADA

NETI EKANKIKALU

The one-act play is as old as Sanskrit Drama in India. Bharata, author of the Natya Sastra, has classified drama into ten types of which some are one-act plays. Bhasa, one of the foremost of Sanskrit dramatists, has to his credit five one-act plays which are as good as his other and longer plays. Unfortunately Telugu poets who have translated Sanskrit plays have almost neglected the translation of Sanskrit one-act plays, preferring to turn to the plays from Western countries. Nevertheless, there are some good one-act plays in Telugu, some suitable for staging while others are only for the study-room.

The special stage arrangements required and other aspects of the production of one-act plays will be discussed in a talk in Telugu, entitled Neti Ekankikalu by Y. Madhava-charyulu in our Rasamayi programme scheduled for broadcast on Sunday at 2130 hours.

Three talks have been arranged on the ship-building industry of Andhra giving a review of past history, reconstructing the old ports and the future of the industry.

The talk entitled Revula Uddharana by K. Poorna Mallikarjuna Rao can be heard on Saturday at 1930 hours from AIR Vijayawada, Madras and Hyderabad.

TRIVANDRUM— KOZHIKODE

SANGEETHA SAGARAM

The first issue of the Musi Magazine programme in Malayalam, Sangitha Sagaram which will be on the air from AIR Trivandrum-Kozhikode at 2130 hours on Sunday, will begin with a demonstrative item on the birth of a raga. This will be followed by a short talk highlighting the life and work of K. C. Kesava Pillai, one of the greatest composers of Kerala. Songs of the Soil is the title of the next item, which will consist of a few choice, characteristic folk songs of the region. The next item presenting a dramatized reconstruction of the circumstances of the composition of the Kriti Nenendu Vedakudura by Thyagaraja should be of great interest. This is followed by an illustration of mood music under the title Bhava Prakasika. The concluding item is Question-Box in which questions relating to all aspects of music, simple and subtle, received from listeners will be discussed.

Trichur P. Radhakrishnan will edit and present the Magazine.

SOCIETY OPENS EYES

SMALL INDUSTRIES

The growth of the small-scale industries depends on the arrangements for supply of raw materials and co-ordination of research and training. These technological aspects will be discussed in a talk in Telugu scheduled for broadcast from AIR Hyderabad at 1930 hours on Monday.

BHARATENDU MANDAL

Bharatendu Harischandra, an epoch-maker in the history of Hindi literature, was a dynamic figure, and was at once a poet-maker, playwright, actor, editor, humorist and organiser of a band of young, enthusiastic, creative litterateurs who were pledged to dedicate their lives for the revival of Hindi and the wider Indian culture. A play in Hindi written by Dr. Ram Kumar Verma highlighting the various activities of this re-

BANGALORE

LIGHT VARIETY

Bangalore broadcasts every month a variety programme of 45 minutes, consisting of light music, sketches, stories, playlets, and so on. This programme entitled Tarangaranga will be broadcast on Friday at 2115 hours. A talk in the lighter vein on the age-old art of borrowing money gets the pride of place in the Tarangaranga on May 3. Seva Nemirajamalla will tell you about the tricks he has observed. Also in the programme is a skit on that most skilful section of the underworld, the pickpocket. This is by S. Anantanarayana. Then there are two other skits, Hasyalahari by N. ##### BANSHADHAR: Play had a belief that he had royal blood in him. He consulted lawyers to regain his property, as heir to the royal family. As he could not collect the lawyers' fees, he sent his brother to study law and dreamt of being in possession of great wealth, with the help of his lawyer brother. But his brother realised the absurdity of his claim and left him. Gangagobinda ruined himself by reckless spending and ultimately turned mad.

A play entitled Banshadhar adapted from the above story by Bimal Mitra will be broadcast from AIR Calcutta on May 3, and can be heard at 1955 hours from Calcutta A.

SHANKHA-SHILPA

Conch-shells play an important part in the life of our people. Conchs have been blown since the earliest times on auspicious occasions. In Bengal, bangles made of conch-shells are an essential ornament for women whose husbands are living. Many beautiful things besides bangles are made from conch-shell and the art goes back to ancient times. A talk in Bengali entitled Prachin Bange Shankha-Shilpa will be broadcast from AIR Calcutta on May 4 and can be heard at 2115 hours on both Calcutta A & B Services.

BIRAJ BOU

NATIONAL PROGRAMME

MUSIC

A pupil of the late Ustad Abdul Waheed Khan, Hirabai Barodekar is one of the best known exponents of the Kairana School today. A classicist by training, she has also earned a reputation for her rendering of songs of a lighter variety.

Saraswati Rane, Hirabai's younger sister, is gifted with a fine voice. Equally at home in Khayal, Thumri and Marathi Pad, Saraswati Rane's style has been influenced by her sister from whom she had the greater part of her musical training.

Hirabai Barodekar and Saraswati Rane can be heard in the National Programme on May 4, at 2130 hours.

PLAYS & OPERAS

SATYA HARISHCHANDRA

Bharatendu Harishchandra is styled as the father of Hindi Drama. By his tireless efforts, he established the Hindi Stage. Although he followed the tradition of Sanskrit Drama in matters of technique, in all his plays, he directly or indirectly voiced the feelings of his own age. Broadly speaking his plays can be put in two classes viz., historico-mythological plays and socio-political plays. In his historical and mythological plays, he upheld the ideals of Indian culture and in his social and political plays he bitterly criticised and ridiculed the conditions of his day. Present-day Hindi Drama is broadly proceeding on these lines.

In his Satya Harishchandra, Bharatendu has portrayed the well-known mythological devotee of truth. In his personality, Bharatendu realised his own ideals. It can be said to be his most representative work. In the National Programme of Plays and Operas, listeners will hear a radio adaptation of Satya Harishchandra, on May 2, at 2130 hours. The adaptation has been done by Satyendra Sharat.
