REBORN

Just like the Singles Guide we have changed the letter printing of this column to make it easier to read. Another improvement could be the bold printing of the artist names.

European radio is anticipating the new Dire Straits album, Brothers In Arms. While the single So Far Away sticks at 45 in the singles Top 100, the album is sure to blow a hole in the album charts the coming weeks.

The departure of Roger Hodgson didn't hurt Supertramp too much; their album Brother Where You Bound (A&M) makes up a bit for the disappointment of the Famous Last Words album. The band seems to be reborn and the album has a quality and accessibility which will definitely led to an acceptance all over Europe.

Radio can work with tracks like Better Days, the extended 16-minutes title track (featuring David Gilmour on guitar) and Still In Love.

Stay tuned in because there is so much more to enjoy... Jules Shear 'returns' after so many years with an album full of pop music in the truest sense of the word. Delightful tunes like Steady (co-written with Cyndi Lauper), Change and If She Knew What She Wants all proves Shear's ability as a songwriter.

While Rick Springfield's superb single Celebrate Youth is finally getting the attention it deserves, his album Tao moves further up to no. 38. A lot of European dj's report good reactions on the track Dance This World Away, a heavy funky track with some very strong backing vocals. Another favourite is Written In Rock.

Motown boss Barry Gordy comes up with another ambitious project entitled The Last Dragon. A very commercial soundtrack containing new songs from Stevie Wonder, Rockwell, Vanity and of course DeBarge's latest Euro-smash Rhythm Of The Night. Especially Stevie Wonder's groovy track Upset Stomach is recommended. To be continued!

Singles Guide

As you can see, we have changed the lay-out of our weekly Radio Guide, to make it more readable and to enhance its clarity.

The whole issue around the singles policy on the Prince album seems to be solved: Europe goes with the Sgt. Pepper influenced Paisley Park, while the US has decided upon Raspberry Beret. We are eager to find out what will happen with the European release, we personally are more fond of the American choice. The debut album of the L.A. based band Lone Justice was one of our album tips last week, we are therefore very pleased that Ways To Be Wicked is released as a single. This powerful track is a never-before-recorded Tom Petty tune where vocalist Maria McKee sounds as the Janis Joplin of the Eighties!

The fastest mover in the European Airplay this week is Paul Hardcastle with his reflections on the war in Vietnam. The major new entries in the European Airplay Top 50 this week include Supertramp (17), Bobbysocks (18), Duran Duran (21), Wind (Germany's entry for the Eurovision Song Contest at 34), Style Council (35) and Phil Carmen on 40 (American born artist currently living in Switzerland and signed through Metronome Records in Germany). While Bowie's new single Loving The Alien is just released on the European market, his cooperation with Pat Metheny is moving up to no. 10 this week due to continuous airplay in Germany, France and Austria.

While the Simple Minds are enjoying a no. 1 in the US at the moment (their first real big success although with a song not written by the band) the Don't You single moves from 6 to 2 due in the Top 100 Singles to sudden strong moves in Germany and new entries in Sweden and Denmark.

BORN TO CHART

Freddie Mercury's latest single is undoubtedly 'born' to chart; it is this week's second strongest mover in the European Top 100 Singles (from 50 to 9). Dead Or Alive follow closely with an upward movement from 55 to 12, but Depeche Mode, UK's most successful export band, are hitting really hard; they shake up from 94 to 16 only in its second week due to placings in UK, Germany and Denmark.

Duran Duran's theme to the new Bond movie is new at 48 (sofar only charted in the UK and Ireland but other countries soon to follow), while the new Marillion single Kayleigh is new at 60. And although the band still operates in the vein of Genesis, the song is an absolute beauty and deserves more chart positions than the UK alone!

COOL VOICES

Moving to the Euro-Crossover lists, there must be enough for you to choose from. First of all from Italy comes the original version of Around My Dream, by Silver Pozzoli currently at 54 in the Top 100 Singles (another competing version by Kasino is picking up strong sales in France and Belgium as well). Another of our choices is for U Bahn X, a 3 piece band from Dusseldorf (West Germany's industrial heartland). Their single Young Hearts Of Europe has a definite Euro-feel and features cool voices over a lot of synthesizers in the best Kraftwerk-tradition (on EMI).
