THE NEW SINGLE

BRICK

"CAN YOU IMAGINE?"

D.I.D. RECORDS - ITALY - Telex 550498

Toulouse-based band Gold (WEA)

Thierry Pastor with his Musiques Noires; although his tribute to black music is catchy and well done, the single is perhaps a bit too typical French to chart outside of France.

The French record company Carrere is always very active in acquiring the rights of foreign productions. It has its own local artists (Gilbert Montagne), but the last few months it scored well with productions like those of Moti Special (the group centered around the Rumanian-born Michael Cretu who scored hits on his own and produced the Eurocross-over hit Maria Magdalena for Sandra), Two Of Us (Blue Night Shadow, a big European hit), Phyllis Nelson, no. 1 in the UK with Move Closer and the Italian Finzy Kontini, who does well in France with Cha Cha Cha, one of our earlier Eurocross-over tips.

A lot of new projects are lined up for Carrere. Phyllis Nelson will have her new single released entitled I Like You and the recordings for her new album have just been finished. Moti Special will come up with an album in one week's time and Kazino (who had a good Eurohit with Around My Dream) have just finished the recordings for their first album entitled Sahara- Woman. Single with the same name has just been released and continues the line of Around My Dream and it could be their next Eurohit. Special mention should be given to Debbie Bonham, the sister of the late John Bonham drummer of Led Zepelin who died five years ago. We very much like the single Sanctuary and it was already our tip two weeks ago.

JE MARCHE SEUL

Jean-Jacques Goldman is already for weeks and weeks France best played single both on AM and FM radio. His Je Marche Seul (Epic) was released outside of France but until now this dynamic pop-song didn't do anything abroad although it certainly deserves a far better treatment.

Barclay will come out this month with one of the most exciting products we heard since long coming from France. The band Passion Fodder centered around singer/violinplayer Theo Hakola makes exciting new-wave music with one big advantage: the lyrics are all sung in English. The album Hard Words From A Soft Mouth is excellent and the single Peter O' Toole deserves to get a lot of attention from you! Another quality product for Barclay is Patrick Bruel's Comment Ca Va Pour Vous; a rocky and solid pop tune convincingly sung by Bruel. Other current Barclay products include jazz/blues musician Don Cherry and rock singer Vincent Palmer.

RCA is very strong on solo artists; they have the legendary Leo Ferre under contract, who is together with Jacques Brel and Georges Brassens the only big 'chansonnier' in France that is still alive. Ferre is by origin a musician but also gained much popularity as a director and composer. His strongest works are the poems of Verlaine and Rimbaud set on symphonic music (Avec Le Temps).

TRIBUTE TO KIM WILDE

Other popular RCA solo artists are Pierre Bachelet (singer/composer, two albums released of which he already sold 1,500,000 copies; his singles sales reached the 4,000,000 mark. He further composed the musical scores for Emanuelle and Histoire d'O), Yves Simon (current single L'Abyssinie) and one of the 'Grandes Dames De France' Styvie Vartan.

Laurent Voulzy had a big hit last year together with Veronique Jannot (Desire Desire) a beautiful song that strangely enough never was released outside the rest of Europe. This single was released on Virgin but Voulzy's solocareer is with RCA, where he is having a lot of success lately with Les Nuits Sans Kim Wilde.

Other French productions worthwhile mentioning include Jeanne Mas with Coeur En Stereo on Pathe Marconi (Mas scored a modest hit in Europe with the translation of her Toute Premiere Fois-Into The Night), Elizabeth Anais (Intimide on Trema), Jesse Garon's Nous Deux, David Koven's Afrique (both on Polydor) and the experimental new-wave band Eskimo (interesting band on the independent Devine, distributed by Madrigal).

ADDITIONAL QUALITY

The above article tries to give a fairly comprehensive view of the present French popular products; products that have the additional quality of a potential cross-over. Although France has until now not yet reached the same high levels of crossover as markets like Italy, Germany and the Benelux, things might change at a fast rate with the continued exposure of foreign products on FM and AM radio. This is not to say however that we advocate a denial of the common French product, not in the least! But if French product wants to cross borders again like it did in the Seventies, it should take American and European sounds into account. In this way it could accomplish an interesting cross-breed of the traditions of the French chanson with those of the modern contemporary pop/rock song.

Eurotipsheet will keep a close eye on these developments and will continue to have spotlights on the major French artists.

Michel Jonasz (WEA) with his light-weighted pop melodies

ALEXANDRA'S NEWS CORNER

Hi there, How's life going? Quite a lot to report. Last time I thought it was a bit thin and remember how exhausted one was after struggling through that lot. Let's wait and see how this is turning out ★ TYGERS OF PAN TANG have their new longplayer out, and it's wonderful. More about it in the Hardrock issue, as this was just a taster to get you interested ★ ANDY PRATT had his new single released called The Face I Wear, which is already powerplay on Dutch radio. Well done Andy, hopefully this will draw some more attention to his wonderful LP ★ UFO is just about ready with their album which has been recorded in Hollands Wisseloord studios. Producer was NICK TAUBER. 7th of October sees the release of a single, entitled This Time. The bands UK tour is set for the 2nd half of November ★

And as an absolute Must for all lovers of the more heavier work, KISS had their latest one released. The new album is called Asylum, and yet again produced by STANLEY and SIMMONS. America already issued a single, entitled Tears Are Falling ★

★ HIGHWAY CHILE will play a headliner at Paradiso (Amsterdam) this weekend and I will most likely tell you about that in the Hardrock issue, coming up next week. Well I guess I didn't do that had this time, considering the fact that you're still reading this. Thanx and speak to you soon. ★ Lu'v' Alexandra ★★

TURNTABLE TIPS

JOHN CALE

Artificial Intelligence

John Cale - Artificial Intelligence- Beggars Banquet
Preceded by the excellent single Dying On The Vine ('I've been chasing ghosts, but I don't like it') Cale debuts with an album for English indie Beggars Banquet. Cale's profound vocals are set again sparse and effective arrangements. Although Dying On The Vine remains the best track, other stand-outs are The Sleeper and Black Rose.

Stevie Ray Vaughan & Double Trouble - Soul To Soul- Epic

Extremely talented blues guitarist whose fame rose considerably after being asked by Bowie to play the lead guitarist on Let's Dance. His downright and uncompromising sound shines best in tracks like the slow blues Aint Gonna Give Up On Love, the boogie Say What! and the Willie Dixon penned You'll Be Mine.

Bronski Beat - Hundreds And Thousands- Forbidden Fruit/London

6-Track minialbum produced by Soft Cell producer Mike Thorne. Apart from new re-mix danceversions of tracks like Small Town Boy, Why, Junk, Heatwave and Love And Money the album contains two extra tracks (Hard Rain and Run From Love) fitting in smoothly into the rest of the material and resulting in one long non-stop dance album.

ALLUSIONS

Anticipating our next weeks special on Hardrock, Kiss are this weeks highest entry in the European Albums Top 10. Their latest album Asylum (Vertigo) is already charted in Germany and the UK, but undoubtedly the Beneux and Scandinavian territories will follow soon. Together with the example of Iron Maiden's new single Running Free entering the European Top 100 Singles at 59 it proves that hardrock sells! But more about that next week.

For those of you in favour of some good raw guitarsounds and gritty vocals we recommend the album of Jon Butcher Axis - Along The Axis (Capitol) and the allusion in the album title to Jimi Hendrix (Axis Bold As Love) certainly makes a point; his works do remind of the late great Hendrix, but tracks like Stop, Hearts Running and Along The Axis surely go beyond the point of mere imitation; a real powerful album very suitable for your rockprograms.

Although we spotted the talent of German Metronome act Double already a few weeks ago, it took some time for them to chart. The album has just entered the German charts (40) and the album cautiously debuts at 57 in the Top 100 (as 3rd best entry). In a similar vein, the same applies for Diana Ross. At the moment her album is more successful than the single and shoots up the Top 100 (39-66). With better positions in the UK and Germany to come it will move up even higher next week. The teaming up with the Gibb brothers certainly works. Apart from the title track there are two more undisputable highlights. First of all the modern Motown sounds on Chain Reaction really work and the AOR ballad Experience is an absolute beauty and could even be her second single, we think.

Tom Waits will do a European tour in November and his new album Rain-dogs (Island) even beats the quality of Sword-fishtrumpets of '83: 19 tracks with an amazing range of different styles.

Singles Guide

The biggest surprise this week on airplay level is the enormous impact the new Simple Minds single Alive And Kicking made on the European airwaves. It is the major hot addition on nearly all European stations and before we even got the time to listen to it, it came straight into the European Airplay Top 50 at 9. The highest entry a single made this year in the Airplay Top 50 was UB 40's I Got You Babe: straight in at no. 5. Alive And Kicking is together with Springsteen's Glory Days and Bowie's This Is Not America the 2nd highest airplay entry.

The other hot additions on European radio happen much lower in the airplay charts. Depeche Mode (It's Called A Heart) is new at 30 and Elton John's brand new song Nikitta is new at 37 (from his forthcoming album Ice On Fire, set for a November release).

The airplay on Diana Ross still has to happen. The Bee Gees connection has helped many in their careers (Barbra Streisand, Dolly Parton and Kenny Rogers) and it will surely be a matter of 1 or 2 weeks before Eaten Alive will shoot up the Airplay charts.

The airplay on Kool & The Gang's Cherish is continuing and the single again jumps up 4 notches and is in it's 10th week now at 4.

IF I WAS NO. 1

New in the Airplay Top 10 is the Stevie Wonder arranged and produced She's So Beautiful (Cliff) and this weeks fastest movers include Modern Talking (Cheri), Lloyd Cole, Madonna's Angel (while Groove is still at 8, Angel jumps to 16-from 26), Midge Ure (no. 1 in the UK this week!), Falco's Vienna Calling, Two Of Us (Blue Night Shadow) and Matt Bianco's reworking of the Georgie Fame tune Yeh Yeh.

In our special on Dutch Delight (no. 35) we already wrote about the extremely popular Dutch singer Gerard Joling. His career is now fully blossoming and with his first single Love Is In Your Eyes still getting good airplay in the UK, his follow-up, the beautiful ballad Ticket To The Tropics, is the major addition in the Benelux and even gets some tips from Germany. Try this one out, you will not regret it; it is bound for MOR radio (on WEA).

ALRIGHT!

Of all the Euro-crossover samples that are starting to come in, we chose as our 2nd Eurocross-over hit, the single by the Anglo-German band Lake; Alright! is a very nice, catchy and somewhat innocent popsong but it sticks into your head after hearing (Polydor Hamburg). The band used to have an American hit in '77 on CBS but is now ready to conquer Europe.

Mr. Workaholic himself, Phil Collins has teamed up with the singer Marilyn Martin of whom we will hear a lot in the coming months. Their sultry duet Separate Lives continues the line of Against All Odds and is yet another filmtheme (from the motion picture soundtrack White Nights on Atlantic). Most probably the new and long awaited Sade single The Sweetest Taboo (Epic) and One Of The Living by Tina Turner (the 2nd single from Mad Max) will also be the major hot additions in Europe next week. See you then!

- Highlights -

UNITED KINGDOM

If I Was is this week no. 1 in the UK (from 4) and also is best played single! The success in the other Euro-markets still has to take off for the sympathetic Ultravox frontman Midge Ure.

The German production The Power Of Love by Jennifer Rush (CBS) even beats the success of Baltimore: jumping from 15 to 2 this week!

The 4 new major additions on the English stations include Style Council's The Lodgers (although receiving lots of plays last week, this week it gets the major number of additions), Depeche Mode's It's Called A Heart, the new Simple Minds single Alive And Kicking and the new Elton John Nikitta.

GERMANY

Bowie & Jagger back on top having best played single (73 plays) followed by Stevie Wonder, Tina Turner, Modern Talking and Madonna. The airplay on Sandra's Maria Magdalena fell back a bit, although sales are still very good (still no. 1 in the charts). Strong increase in airplay for the Stevie Wonder arranged and produced She's So Beautiful by Cliff Richard as well as for the Norwegian band A-Ha with the sleeper Take On Me and Pat Benatar's Invincible (although the latter has not yet entered any major European hit-parades).

Strong contenders for next weeks entries in the airplay charts include the new records by Depeche Mode, Diana Ross and Mink DeVille (I Must Be Dreaming).

FRANCE

Baltimore stays safe at the no. 1 spot, the competition from the numbers 2 and 3 (Gold vs. Opus) is not strong enough. Apart from Gold, Jean-Jacques Lafon is best selling local product in France at the moment. His sultry Le Geant De Papier is new in the top 5 (4-12). Other strong moves for Carrere act Century with Lover Why and the H-NRG song Don Quichotte from Magazine 60.

International acts like Matt Bianco (More Than I Can Bear) and Simple Minds (Don't You) still fare very well in the French sales charts despite the fact that the UK already released new records by these same artists.

Jean-Jacques Goldman remains best played artist in France though this week with a complete other single. The AM stations still play Je Marche Seul (13th best played single) but his latest single Je Te Donne Tout (Epic) is straight after it's release best played single on AM level.

Other popular French products on AM include Johnny Halliday's Rock 'n' Roll Attitude, Ethienné Daho's Tombe Pour La France and Jean-Pierre Mader's Un Pied Devant L'Autre. The only major international addition on AM is Cock Robin's When Your Heart Is Weak.

HOLLAND

We already wrote about him last week: Gerard Joling, he continues to have the best played single in Holland with Ticket To The Tropics. While a lot of UK stations still play his debut single (Love Is In Your Eyes), the Benelux market shows very strong sales reaction on Tropics (currently at no. 5 in the Dutch charts).

All the Dutch stations have added the new Simple Minds, it is therefore second best played single. Other favourite singles on the Dutch airwaves are Cliff Richard's She's So Beautiful, Huey Lewis's Power Of Love and the new Dolly Dots single Only The Rain.

SPAIN

Apart from the duet by Julio Iglesias & Pedro Vargas (Felicidades) the Spanish top 10 is completely taken by international productions with Opus on top followed by Madonna, Modern Talking, Duran Duran and Eurythmics. There are only three local acts making it in the top 25 including Hombres G. (Venezia) Radio Futura (No Tocarte) and Ivan (Baila).

These artists however are more successful in the Spanish album charts and although Dire Straits and Madonna are still on top Julio Iglesias is 3rd followed by local singer Louis Cobos (Mas Zarzuela), Hombres G. and Radio Futura (De Un Pais En Llamas).

ITALY

The most popular international sales items in the Italian hitparade (as compiled by Eurotipsheet) are Madonna's Groove, Hardcastle's 19, the Bowie & Jagger duet and Simply Red's Money's Too Tight. Of the local productions Righeira (L'Estate Sta Finendo) and the duet between Marcella & Gianni Berta (L'Ultima Poesia) are still the most favourite ones.

Together with Germany, Italy is the only country in Europe where T.X.T's Girls Got A Brand New Toy is charted.

A typical sleeper song which still could do well in other countries.

AUSTRIA

The same as in Germany: Bowie & Jagger on top as best played single. Just like the UK the Austrians do like Dire Straits' Money For Nothing, it is second best played single on the national channel OE3. Where Laura Branigan had such a big success in Europe in '84, success stayed a bit behind this year. Looking at the Austrian playlist however, it might become a sales success over there; 3rd best played single this week.

Other singles receiving steady amounts of airplay include Kool & The Gang, Modern Talking, Sandra, Tina Turner and (where does this record suddenly come from?) Agnetha Faelt-skog's One Way Love.

POLAND

Although an established single/album market does not exist in Poland, the Polish radio (Polskie Radio) has its own charts and playlists based on listeners requests and programmers preferences. Obviously the Madonna Mania has also infected Poland and she is Poland's hottest international female artist. The Eurythmics rule the Polish charts with There Must Be An Angel and Opus continues to be favourite with Live is Life. The biggest powerplays get Modern Talking You Can Win and You're My Heart, New Order's Perfect Kiss, OMD's Secret and acts like Foreigner, UB 40, Alphaville, Paul Young, Sting, Bryan Adams, Men At Work and Chris Rea remain all very popular.

The most featured and probably best sold album is Springsteen's Born In The USA and German Nena could do well with her latest album Feuer Und Flamme. It is interesting to note that so many Italian groups are faring well in Poland; Ricci & Poveri, Al Bano & Romina Power, Righeira and Adriano Celentano.

Local Polish bands ready for cross-over are pop-rockers Lady Pank (who recently did a much acclaimed American tour), Lombard and Maanam. (Our thanks go out to Beata Przedpelska for supplying these figures).

FRENCH MEDIA IN TURMOIL

RADIO FORMATS CHANGING

If one takes a look at the major territories in Europe, France still takes a rather unique position. Where markets like the UK, Germany, Italy and the Benelux are able to make local productions suitable for cross-over, the number of such productions in France is still relatively low.

This is not to say, however, France lacks such a talent; it is more a matter of how the French are willing to translate their musical resources into Pan-European sounds. With the rise of FM stations the last few years, the French audience is more and more exposed to international repertoire which in turn can influence French producers and record companies to make more international sounding products.

Traditionally the AM stations were sole rulers on the French airwaves and carefully mixed talkshows with music programs during daytime. With these formats they were able to maintain their audiences and at the same time building the careers of a lot of French local artists.

But from 1982 on the number of FM stations in France rose considerably and they were able to start a revolution in the media and change the tastes of the audience and music industry. Most of these new young American styled FM stations filled the gap that the AM stations left: the programming of progressive, international music. They reduced the amount of talking in between records, they kept a close eye on foreign musical developments and worked with flexible and dynamic playlists as opposed to those of the AM stations who remained static over a long period of time.

With the loosening of advertising rules and the general de-regulating of state monopoly over French media, the FM's had more chances to establish themselves and the number of them has grown enormously. Recent ratings (Ipsos/BVA) only confirmed the FM dominance especially in the agegroup of 12 to 34. With the system of franchizing, FM stations like NRJ have build up chains of radiostations around France.

However, the growing importance of FM did not remain unnoticed by the AM channels as they started fighting back recently. Major AM's like RTL and Europe 1 have changed their way of programming with more emphasis on international productions (especially in the evening and on weekends) although they still remained loyal to local artists.

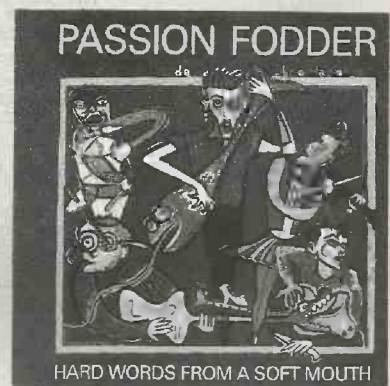

Obviously this all led to a situation where the French audience became accustomed to foreign productions and where local French artists sometimes even took the unusual step of recording in the English language. Although the number of French productions charting abroad is still not that spectacular, the climate is definitely changing and gradually France is losing its image of a 'closed' community.

REVERSED PROPORTION

Studying the AM and FM playlists (the airplay of most of the major stations is checked weekly by the Mediacontrol organization based in Strassbourg) some things immediately strike; where local products take 2/3 of the AM playlists in comparison with international material, this proportion is almost reversed by the FM stations. Also, AM playlists remain

Laurent Voulzy (RCA) ... tribute to Kim Wilde...

Barclay artists Passion Fodder: english lyrics...

Kazino (Carrere): Sahara-Woman: next Euro-hit?

Pierre Bachelet (RCA), musical scores for Emmanuelle and Histoire d'O...

unchanged for a long period while those of the FM's are more in turmoil. Comparing the AM playlists over the year 1985 it is interesting to see that it takes less time for international productions to enter than was the case earlier this year.

Records like those of Bowie & Jagger, Sting, Madonna and Stevie Wonder were quite soon accepted on AM level and put into programming. Through this much greater exposure to foreign 'product' France will undoubtedly develop more successful productions able to do well abroad.

In our spotlight on the French media earlier this year (no. 17 - April 29th) we already highlighted some of the French productions aimed at the worldmarket. In this weeks special spotlight we will, on the basis of a list containing the twenty most recommended French singles suitable for cross-over, take a closer look at the major French record companies and their most successful artists.

FRESH FRENCH FLAVOURS

Most recommended current French productions with cross-over potential to other markets.

Rita Mitsouko- Marcia Baila (Virgin)
 Passion Fodder- Peter O' Toole (Barclay)
 Michel Jonasz- La F.M. Qui S'Est Specialisee Funky (WEA)
 Indochine- Canary Bay (Ariola)
 Finzy Kontini- Cha Cha Cha (Carrere)
 Gold- Plus Pres Des Etoiles (WEA)
 Jean-Pierre Mader- Un Pied Devant L'Autre (WEA)
 Jeanne Mas- Coeur En Stereo (Pathe Marconi)
 Jean-Jacques Goldman- Je Marche Seul (Epic)
 Kazino- Sahara-Woman (Carrere)
 Telephone- Un Autre Monde (Virgin)
 Alain Delon & Phyllis Nelson- I Don't Know (Carrere)
 Patrick Bruel- Comment Ca Va Pour Vous (Barclay)
 Jean-Jacques Lafon- Le Geant De Papier (Ariola)
 Thierry Pastor- Musiques Noires (Flarenasch/WEA)
 David Koven- Afrique (Polydor)
 Jesse Garon- Nous Deux (Polydor)
 Laurent Voulzy- Les Nuits Sans Kim Wilde (RCA)
 French-African Artists- Tam Tam Pour L'Ethiopie (Phonogram)
 Marc Seberg- Le Gents Des Terres (Virgin)

Rita Mitsouko (Virgin): best bet for Euro-cross-over

The atmospheric sounds of Marc Seberg (Virgin)

BEST BET

Rita Mitsouko, we will not stop talking about them; they are France best bet for Eurocross-over we think and it's still a riddle why this swinging and contagious synthesizer backed song has until now failed to make impact outside France. The avant-garde duo will appear this week in the popular weekly German pop-program Formel Eins, so perhaps things will finally change... Apart from Rita Mitsouko Virgin France has many more interesting artists to offer. It is the company in France having the most progressive pop- and rockrepertoire as the other companies mainly concentrate on 'chansoniers' or MOR artists.

Somehow or another the French audience seems to prefer solo-artists to groups. There are hardly any French groups that have made an impact in other markets. Virgin act Telephone is therefore, according to many, the only true rockband in France. They have played on various open-air festivals around Europe this summer and their '84 Glyn Johns produced album Un Autre Monde has an exciting hard-driving rocksound that can easily compete with other European rockbands. Although the album and the single of the same name were released in '84 it's success in France stretched into '85 and the album is still one of our French faves.

Another Virgin act about to pick up major airplay is Marc Seberg with the song Le Gents Des Terres where the band offers strong and sometimes atmospheric sounds reminiscent of Big Country and U2. With the inclusion of some songs with English lyrics on their repertoire (Don't Fail Me) this group is easier to digest for non-Frenchmen.

But Virgin has more product; like the obvious example of popular male French singer Julien Clerc, who had a strong following in the early Seventies and is now trying to come back with English titles (I Don't Ever Want To Go Away). Before the summer he had a big French hit with Melissa, a nice poppy song with Caribbean overtones. Probably best selling Virgin product outside France was Valerie LaGrange, who's single La Folie and album Les Trottoirs De L'Eternite (produced by Barry Reynolds, who's production credits include a.o. Marianne Faithful) received many praising reviews and even resulted in some steady sales.

CANARY BAY

Ariola can be proud of their new-wave band Indochine. The single Canary Bay from the album Indochine III was a huge hit in France and the group will tour at the end of this year through Europe with the major number of dates in the Scandinavian countries where they are quite popular. It is a bit of a weird step from the rough new-wave sound of Indochine to the romantic sounds of Jean-Jacques Lafon, but it is Ariola's best selling product at the moment. Currently at no. 4 in the French charts, this melodramatic song might do well in the Benelux and Germany.

Another very popular male artist is Michel Jonasz on WEA. Jonasz was already established as a successful live artist and a good lyricist but real succes came with his album Unis Vers L'Uni selling ten times as much as his previous albums. His latest single La F.M. Qui S'Est Specialisee Funky combines light-weighted popmelodies with a strong jazz-rock influenced backing. He already did two extremely successful 'tournees' in the Palais Des Sports and a third one will be added in October.

MUSIQUES NOIRES

After a silence of 3 years French singer Veronique Sanson (famous for her ex-marriage with Stephen Stills) is back with a new album and she will play the Olympia the whole month of November. Until now her international career has not yet blossomed but she maintains her position as leading French female artist. The latest signing of WEA is Toulouse-based band Gold who already sold over 700.000 copies with their single Plus Pres Des Etoiles, currently at no. 2 in the French charts. Our last WEA tip is for
