Number 2

January 10
1968

A central graphic element featuring a vertical stack of eight black and white portraits of pop stars, flanking a central column of bold, stacked text. The text reads: 'YOUR FAVE POP STARS' HOPES DESIRES VICES & AIMS FOR 1968'. The portraits include a man with long hair, a woman with bangs, a man with sunglasses, a woman with a bob haircut, a man with a mustache and sunglasses, and a man with a beard. The overall aesthetic is high-contrast and graphic.

Not the debased legal issue it has become today I would love to see this issue go as low as the marriage issue.

DRUGS
The views and attitudes, plus laws governing this subject will become clearer when a true awareness of the good and bad, is evident. This would stem from a more honest appraisal of the situation.

MARRIAGE
Manage to me a union of the minds and bodies of two people. Consequently achieving a more honest appraisal of the situation.

WILD CHERRIES

My kind of good, credible, Gurs' extremely tasteful, both to listen to and to play with. As a group they have a special purpose. Such a good voice deserves an equally good personal contact with him.

SEX

A deeply involved set and thought no matter what you're into...

MARIAHSHI YOGI

I would like to believe more acquainted with his ideas as the lecture only served to increase my desire to know more about him and his ideas...

RELIGION

Something we all have within ourselves. Definitely doesn't need a label or a community worshipping shed for it to happen. And something that will always be argued about until people find it in themselves.

WILD CHERRIES

My kind of good, credible, Gurs' extremely tasteful, both to listen to and to play with. As a group they have a special purpose. Such a good voice deserves an equally good personal contact with him.

SMILES

Nobody with two lips could make out on them. And all those with only one lip had the best man age hair a smile.

SKA'S JIM SLADE

I hope that by now you are all recovered from the New Year's Eve celebration. I know a few people who were still recovering from the New Year's holiday. I would expect Victor Harbour to be a little more recovered than the rest of the country.

THE SCENE

● The crowd at Melbourne's Catcher on New Year's Eve, balloons and all

● "Wow! Is it a bird? Is it a plane? It certainly isn't super-man!" Alan and "Influence" of the James Taylor Move, are either looking at one of the fabulous birds that frequent Lily's restaurant, or GO-SET's zany photographer Jim — both would deserve the same reaction!

● The Gibb brothers in their penthouse suite, on the 13th floor of the Chevron Hilton, in Sydney. They flew to Australia with their manager Robert Stigwood, for a brief Christmas visit

● Robert Stigwood, manager of the Bee Gees and other top-line international stars, relaxes at Sydney's Chevron Hilton

● Jim Keays, and Steve Hopgood (Masters Apprentices) and their road manager, Neil McCabe, talk to Robbie Kemp, real, live D.J. from the Trip disco. And Lily too, it was at her restaurant

● Lynne Randell prepares for her super duper performance at OPUS. Lynne doesn't smoke, she's got a hair pin in her mouth, she always wears them there

● Christopher Nicolby Action, at The Catcher, on New Year's Eve

● The Groop, and some most adoring fans at OPUS on last night of the old year

● St. Louis Union at Lord John's Disco, (would you believe) New Year's Eve

● The Golden Apples of the Sun at TOM FOOLERY DISCO DANCE

● Ray Hoff and the Offbeats at LORD JOHN'S. Look at the photo above — something fishy going on there!

BEE GEE ROBIN GIBB

PHOTOGRAPHY GRANT MUDFORD

MAX ROSS (THE GROOP)
Resolution: To cut down on the drinking.
Hope: For The Groop to be successful in England.

RICHARD WRIGHT (THE GROOP)
Resolution: To increase my consumption of alcohol.
Hope: That Johnny Walker isn't too expensive in England.

RONNIE CHARLES (THE GROOP)
Resolution: To drink less grog.
Hope: That The Groop doesn't get booted in England, and that the pop writers are kinder than those in Australia.

DOUG TREVOR (CHEROKEES)
Resolution: To get fatter and shave my moustache.
Hope: For the group to go to America.

LYNNE RANDELL
Resolution: To weigh seven stone, and stay that way permanently.
Hope: To be the number one girl singer in the world, so Lily Brett won't be a liar.

ROSS D. WYLIE (UPTIGHT)
Resolution: To stop saying "fabulous".
Hope: That Uptight goes national.

PETER WILLIAMS (GROOVE)
Resolution: To sell some records in Tasmania, Adelaide and Perth.
Hope: To be as successful in '68 as we were in '67.

ROB TAYLOR (JAMES TAYLOR MOVE)
Resolution: To give The Twilights a sweet and sour award for '68.
Hope: That all the repossessed Marshall amps pop off.

RUSSELL MORRIS (SOMEBODY'S IMAGE)
Resolution: Not to mean about things.
Hope: That our next record is as successful as "Hush".

LES GILBERT (WILD CHERRIES)
Resolution: To give it a great deal of thought before next new year, so that I can think of something to make a new year's resolution about.

STARS' NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS for 1968

JOHNNY FARNHAM
Resolution: Not to kill any more kangaroos.
Hope: To mop up the scene in '68.

JIM KEAYS (MASTERS APPRENTICES)
Resolution: To perfect my hair straightening technique as well as Ronnie Burns has.
Hope: That our fans will stick with us in '68 in the same way they did throughout '67.

GAVIN WEBB (MASTERS APPRENTICES)
Resolution: To prove to the world that my sideboards are real.
Hope: To become the first Australian bush-ranger.

RONNIE BURNS
Resolution: To put a lot more work into my records and really strive for a number one and to keep on smiling.
Hope: That Ian Meldrum returns safely from England.

PETER TINDAL (CHEROKEES)
Resolution: To find inner peace and become a more beautiful person.
Hope: To go to America with the group and make lots of money.

GLEN SHORRICK (TWILIGHTS)
Resolution: To make less stage appearances and to have a different act for each one.
Hope: For the TV show to be a success and for the group to make it in America.

JON BLANCHFIELD
Resolution: To get along better with David Joseph and AMBO.
Hope: To do a Monkees tour of Australia and have a number one hit.

FRED WIELAND (MIXTURES)
Resolution: To become the act of the year of stage that everyone thinks is the best, throwing away the top hat and the blanket that hides the real Fred.
Hope: That all the pop magazines will print records.

JAZZ DISTURBS CONVICT GHOSTS

Port Arthur

Highlight of the recent 22nd Australian Jazz Convention at Hobart, was the Saturday barbecue at the ruins of Port Arthur.

This somewhat painful day of convention among the Tasmanians 130 musicians and 1000 visitors, provided a most enjoyable and profitable day of the convention before the final rehearsal on the New Year's eve when many musicians and visitors are still recovering.

Suddenly? If twelve months of frenzied activity by the Secretary and a handful of willing helpers to get things going in conventions when the emphasis was on a good time for musicians and delegates rather than concern for making a profit.

FOLK

WITH FRANK TRAYNOR

Marie Laforet - French folk singer

W & G have recently released an L.P. by the French singer Marie Laforet (W&G 43115).

Originally recorded the Festival de France this record is an inspired and inspired piece of high quality. As the best on this market in quality or French folk music importance that there are no doubt that we can't read them any more.

It is of interest to note here that Marie Laforet does an interesting version of Ewan MacColl's 'Ballad of the Carpenter' (The Good Song).

MacColl is well known as a traditional folk collector and it is not often that we hear his work in a language other than English.

MARGARET SMITH RETURNS

Melbourne folk singer Margaret Smith has made a very welcome return to the Melbourne folk scene after several months absence. She and her husband have made a new addition to their folk singing duo - a baby boy.

Front cover competition

There were so many brilliant entries to this competition, that we have been unable to choose just one winner. We have decided to award L.P. to the people whose entries are printed below. Each winner should ring or write to Go-Set, and state the L.P. of their choice. As for the outright winner, the decision was hard, and we could not separate the entries by Ian McCausland of Avenue Rd., Mosman, N.S.W., and J. B. Pownall of Milton Street, Elwood, Victoria. Congrats J. B. (you don't say whether it's Mr. or Miss) and Ian, you win TWO L.P.'s each and we may use your work on the front cover soon!

Equal First prize winner: J. B. Pownall, 8/28 Milton St., Elwood, 3184.

Equal First prize winner: Ian McCausland, 1/46 Avenue Rd., Mosman, 2088.

Darrods and Twiggy

Over the last few weeks, Go-Set has been running some weird and wonderful competitions. Apart from the normal "Win an L.P." type of thing, we've had panties in cans (for the birds only, of course), and we've asked you to design a front cover suitable for Go-Set.

Darrods One-Up shop were kind enough to supply

The other day we visited the office of one of the Darrods' bird boys. These guys were on this page show you what happened! That's Go-Set's Timothy there in the DARRODS office with the hundreds of entries. But don't get too worried, they're not really judging the thing by chucking the lot in the air and catching a handful of winners. If you look at this page you can see the correct answer to Q&A. (L.A.R. P.O. Box 120, Box Hill)

By the way, talking of competitions, don't miss next week's Twiggies ad in the middle pages! They are about to announce the biggest competition ever in Go-Set, with enormous prizes to be won! Watch for it.

TWIGGY COMPETITION WINNERS

Here are the 100 winners in the TWIGGY competition. They will be notified by mail. If you wish to see their names, visit our office at 15 Princes Gate, Melbourne. Miss Susan O'Sullivan, 4 Victoria Ave. Mr. Ross A. Miss Robin Perry, 2 Douglas St. Melbourne. Miss Eva Karkul, 10 Westmoreland Rd. Northcote. Miss Anne Perry, 10 Westmoreland Rd. Northcote. Miss B. AT 431 REOPENING! BECAUSE

Wild things are happening at fabulous 431 this year! Firstly, we've been completely floored into getting a new floor for you to groove on, which means the 431 will temporarily move on Friday nights to famous Ormond Hall for a few weeks. Saturday night 431 will be temporarily closed until February 3. So keep it in mind — and groove to 431 this Friday at Ormond Hall and make it a date for 431 on Saturday, February 3rd.

I would like to apologise to those who attended Lord John's Discotheque on Saturday, 30th December.

Due to a discrepancy on time I was not allowed to go on stage.

I would also like to apologise to the St. Louis Union who worked so hard rehearsing my songs and never got the chance to play them.

Sincerely,
LYNNE RANDELL
