

Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems

The most popular singles and tracks, according to radio audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems, sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan, and playlists from select non-monitored radio stations.

Nielsen SoundScan

Main Billboard Hot 100 chart table with columns for Rank, Title, Artist, and various performance metrics.

Songs with the greatest airplay and/or sales gains recorded this week. Greatest Gainer/Sales and Greatest Gainer/Airplay are awarded, respectively, for the largest sales and airplay increases on the chart.

CAREY FEELS AT HOME IN TOP 10

Mariah Carey grabs the 25th Billboard Hot 100 top 10 of her career as "Don't Forget About Us" takes Greatest Gainer/Airplay, leaping 12-7.

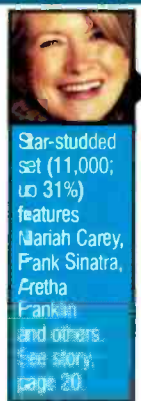

It is the first track to hit the top 10 here without digital sales since that data became Song pulls in 157.9 million audience impressions, the most for any artist's debut single in chart's history.

New York native's track gains 15 million audience impressions and enjoys a 77% digital sales bump to 26,000 downloads.

Track, released digitally in advance of rapper's hits collection, makes biggest jump on the chart. Title debuts at No. 17 on Hot Digital Songs with 17,000.

No. 1 title on billboard.biz's Gospel Songs list is first track from that 8-month-old chart to reach the Hot 100.

Title is the first since November 2003 to enjoy return trip to No. 1 on Modern Rock chart.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS silvio@billboard.com LOCKE RIDES HIGH IN AC'S YULE TIDE

As an abundance of AC switches to all-holiday mode, only three songs inside the format's top 20 receive bullets, and two of those are holiday titles.

largest move into the top five in the chart's history.

Three other new seasonal recordings debut: MercyMe's "Silent Night" (No. 19), Brian Wilson's "Silver Bells" (No. 22) and Carly Simon's "Let It Snow" (No. 24).

Singer snares biggest gain of "American Music Awards" performers. He is up 173% (+17,000)

Def, MF Joom and Jean Grae. Also enters Rap Albums at No. 14.

His $59.98 boxed set of personal favorites and archival tracks enters with 11,000. Begins solo tour Jan. 10 in Jacksonville, Fla.

Set also bows at No. 4 on Electronic Albums with 14,000. First time since July 2002 that top four titles on that list surpass 10,000.

Up 54% after two AMA wins and performance. Latest single, "My Old Friend," bullets at No. 16 on Hot Country Songs.

plus CD's availability in Starbucks stores helps 67% increase.

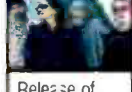

Two retrospectives—the second at No. 187—enter with 8,000 and 7,000 respectively. Debut Def Jam studio set d.l.s. in early 2006.

Hits set shifts 7,000. First "Gold" title to chart on Billboard 200 since UMe launched series in January.

Album up 10% a wake of "Saturday Night Live" clip or Nov. 12. Band's "DOA" single holds at No. 1 on Modern Rock.

Release of "Vertigo" DVD on Nov. 15 (No. 2 on Music Videos; 56,000) spurs 30% jump for CD.

Group's album is the only non-debut in The Billboard 200 top 10 to post a sales increase (up 8.5%).

One of three male artists (with Chris Brown and Young Jeezy) enjoying his first trip into the chart's top 10.

Of the three new tracks on Destiny's Child's "#1's," this is the only one credited to just Beyoncé.

Song tops Billboard Radio Monitor's Triple-A airplay chart. First debut single by a band to top that list since Nickel Creek in August 2003.

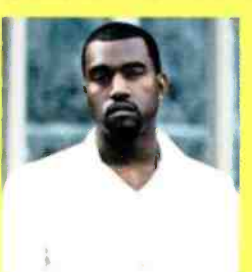

"American Idol" champ at No. 48 also claims the top debut at No. 23 on Hot Digital Songs. Country stations account for 97% of airplay as another track, "Some Hearts," is serviced to pop radio.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS silvio@billboard.com DIGITAL LEAD KEEPS WEST ON TOP

Kanye West's "Gold Digger" fends off Chris Brown's "Run It!" yet again to mine its 10th week atop The Billboard Hot 100.

West's advantage on Hot Digital Songs (49,500 downloads to 32,500) is enough to offset Brown's 21 million listener lead on Hot 100 Airplay.

West is the third artist, after 50 Cent and Eminem, with two tracks in the Hot Digital Songs top five. "Jesus Walks," which peaked at No. 11 on the Hot 100 in July 2004, moves 11-4. It is featured in the "Jarhead" movie and trailer.

Track, which tops Hot 100 Airplay with 138 million listener impressions, is poised to make run for Hot 100 peak next issue.

Song hits No. 1 on Pop 100 Airplay, Clarkson's second chart-topper on that list this year.

Former No. 1 AC hit jumps to new Hot 100 peak in its 17th week on the chart.

Band holds at No. 2 on Modern Rock chart and nearly cuts its spin deficit behind front-runner Nine Inch Nails in half.

No. 46 debut of "Tequila" on Hot Digital Songs (8,000 downloads) is a shot to song's Hot 100 rank. Nichols' bows at No. 2 on Country Albums and No. 7 on The Billboard 200 mark his best sales week (56,000).

Chris Brown's "Run It!" is the biggest move on the Pop 100 (92-45). Song was a recent subject of MTV's "Making the Video."

Song enjoys its best digital sales week (32,000 downloads). A second track from Simpson's No. 1 album enters the Hot 100 at No. 78.

No Doubt singer's fifth charting song from her solo debut. She also enters at No. 97, on Pharrell's latest single.

Shakira's song at No. 74 is the first radio single from her Nov. 29 English-language set, "Oral Fixation, Vol. 2."

The country legend's 20th Hot 100 appearance. Track moves 17-16 on Hot Country Songs.

MADONNA DIALS UP LOFTY DEBUT

With her highest start on The Billboard Hot 100 since "Ray of Light" in 1998, Madonna previews her upcoming "Confessions on a Dance Floor" with a No. 20 entry for "Hung Up."

The title claims 79% of its chart points from its No. 6 debut on Hot Digital Songs, selling 29,500 downloads.

At radio, the track accumulates 15.5 million listener impressions in its first full week of airplay, good enough for a No. 73 ranking on the Hot 100 Airplay chart.

WICKED
Only the 10th cast album to exceed 500,000 sold since Nielsen SoundScan era began in 1991.

Aveged Sevenfold (pictured), Mudvayne, Thursday and Rise Against contribute to the Showtime series set, which moves 7,000.

"Niki FM" video ranks No. 13 at MTV2. Album nabs its fourth straight gain (10,000, up 9%).

Singer's fourth straight gain (up 2%). Latest single spends a sixth week in top 10 on Hot Country Songs.

At No. 191, Eminem sees first increase since July, thanks to exposure from his new Apple iTunes TV ad.

Song tops Adult Top 40, the band's second No. 1 on that chart.

Atlanta group D4L makes the chart's biggest move (70-30). Title is also the top debut on Hot Digital Songs at No. 26 with 11,500 paid downloads.

Usually beer chases tequila, but in this case McCoy's song is out in front—one of four alcohol titles on the chart from our country music friends.

Song moves 17-10 on Adult Top 40; band's 10th top 10 ties it with Sheryl Crow and Matchbox Twenty for most top 10s on that chart.

Band's Hot 100 bow is also its first top 20 hit on Hot Country Songs, where it moves 21-19.

Group's first Hot 100 appearance since 2001. Its new album is expected to debut in the top 10 of The Billboard 200 next issue.

Album release slated for Nov. 22; bonus CD features nine extra songs and a remix of "Belly Dancer."

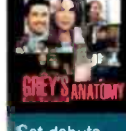

The singer/songwriter's U.S. tour wrapped Oct. 21. She begins the European leg Nov. 2 in Ireland.

Film opened at No. 3 with North American box office of $10.6 million; CD jumps shopping $77%.

Singer also bows atop Blues Albums with 6,000, marking her second No. 1 on that chart.

Set debuts with a 171% increase. The popular TV series touted its soundtrack at close of Oct. 9 and Oct. 16 episodes.

With its digital sales almost doubling to 19,000, the track climbs 38-13 on Hot Digital Songs.

Track is top Airplay gainer for second straight week (up 22 million listener impressions) and moves to No. 1 on Hot Singles Sales.

Rand's song re-enters the chart at new peak after digital-sales growth spurred by release of its second set. "Want" also takes biggest jump on the Pop 100 (89-47).

One of three new songs to be stripped onto Nov. 15 reissue of Carey's "The Emancipation of Mimi." Track is Hot Shot Debut on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs at No. 70.

This preview of band's third studio set (due in January) jumps 33-25 on Modern Rock chart.

BEST INXS BOW HAPPENS IN 'VEGAS'

INXS sees the highest Billboard Hot 100 debut of its career as "Pretty Vegas" enters at No. 37. With new singer J.D. Fortune at the helm, the band sells 21,000 downloads and debuts on Hot Digital Songs at No. 9. Fortune won the recently concluded competition "Rock Star: INXS" to become the group's new frontman. Digital sales account for 94% of the chart points for "Pretty Vegas," as it is just starting to build at radio, gaining 1 million impressions for a total audience of 3 million. INXS' first Epic album, "Switch," arrives Nov. 29. —Silvio Pietrolungo

CROW TAKES ROOT ON HOT 100

As her album "Wildflower" enters The Billboard 200 at No. 2 with 140,000 units, Sheryl Crow returns to the Hot Digital Songs chart at a lofty No. 30 with "Good Is Good." The song, which spent one week on the list at No. 74 in the Aug. 27 issue, resurfaces with a stellar sales week of 10,000 units.

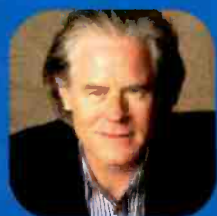

The Digital take enables "Good Is Good" to make the biggest jump on The Billboard Hot 100 (90-64). Some 80% of the song's 10 million listener impressions comes from airplay at Adult Top 40, good for "Good" to move 9-8.

Track takes airplay gainer award for fourth straight week. Hits No. 1 on Hot 100 Airplay chart.

Goo Goo Dolls debut at No. 57, the band's best entrance since 1998's "Slide."

Song reaches top 10 on Hot 100 Airplay (15-8) with gain of 8 million listener impressions.

Artist's first Hot 100 hit in four years is the first ever for his new label, Sanctuary.

Singer's 30th Country chart hit, but only his second appearance on this list and first since 1994.

'PHOTOGRAPH' INCREASES EXPOSURE

Nickelback's "Photograph" explodes on the chart that is Kanye West's "Gold Digger" by Billboard Hot 100 with a 25-4 jump and makes 8,500 units.

On the Hot 100, the band is looking to equal the No. 1 peak of its 2001 smash, "How You Remind Me," which remains the last rock song to top the chart.

New duets album bows at No. 36 (2E,000). It is the legend's fifth set of debut on the chart in the past 13 months.

Metal band's fourth album scores first in on chart, biggest sales (E,000) and No. 1 entry on Heatseekers.

Title track is Adult R&B chart's Greatest Gainer, one of his two bullet songs on that list.

Her hits set, "Collection," is due Nov. 5. It features 9 tracks, including a cover of Seal's "Crazy."

Rapper's P&C group bows at No. 10 with 62,000. Also enters R&B/Hip-Hop Albums at No. 4.

Mississippi rapper earns his first Hot 100 top 10. Album "Certified" should bow in Billboard 200's top 10 next issue with his biggest sales week.

Lifehouse band debuts at No. 3 on The Billboard 200 with 131,500 units sold. Only one-third of the airplay comes from Christian stations.

At No. 14, Lifehouse climbs back to No. 1 on Adult Top 40; it is the first track to return to No. 1 on that list since the band's "Hanging by a Moment" was displaced by Train in 2001.

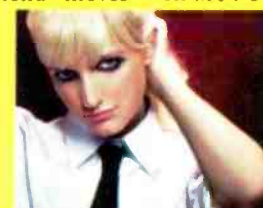

Mayer, joined by Steve Jordan and Pino Palladino, is in the midst of a tour that includes three dates opening for the Rolling Stones. Title debuts at No. 38 on Hot Digital Songs.

Bow of same-named made-for-DVD movie stars 40% gain (10,000). Set enters Top Soundtracks

Trio sells 6,000 copies, sees first chart ink since 1996. Always Love To Me at KOLD Los Angeles

His second indie CD has five hits and new studio recordings. 30ws at No. 10 on independent Albums.

Collaboration set gives Calexico (pictured) its first chart entry. The two acts begin touring Oct. 15.

As single "Held" climbs 27-25 on Adult Contemporary, set gains 16% (7,000) with best sales since July.

Song takes airplay award for second consecutive week and climbs to No. 1 on the Pop 100.

Remix is only new audio track added to special edition of "The Massacre." Its 20,000 first-week sales earn top debut (No. 8) on Hot Digital Songs.

Song holds at No. 1 on Adult Top 40 list for a fifth week by the slimmest margin (two spins) the chart has seen since March 2004. It's No. 1 run is the longest by a female artist since Avril Lavigne's "I'm With You" in spring 2003.

Dallas resident makes his Hot 100 debut with a track that bowed on local stations KHKS and KZZA in the first quarter of the year.

The singer's best-selling non-hits album since 1994. And on Top Heatseekers, her son Ben Taylor bows at No. 26.

Best sales week for the band (8,000), which also debuts atop Heatseekers. A 62-date tour, visiting all 50 states, begins Sept. 18.

The fifth chart debut for Victory this year, a record for the label. Set opens with 8,000, giving the band its best week ever.

Sale pricing at Circuit City helps lift CD 14% (5,000). Its single "Gotta Go Gotta Leave (Tired)" is No. 1 at six U.S. radio stations.

Jazz man hits chart for the first time since 1994. Promotions at Borders and Circuit City stir 22% gain among chain stores.

Songstress is first female artist to replace herself at No. 1 on Hot 100 Airplay chart as track posts 145.5 million listener impressions.

One of three bulleted titles by the band on Hot Digital Songs.

Performance of track by Latin star at MTV VMAs helps song grab biggest percentage gain (125%) on Hot Digital Songs among non-debuting titles.

MTV VMA exposure pushes track 32-13 on Hot Digital Songs and to a new Hot 100 peak after lingering in the 70s for the past six weeks. Sales of 26,000 downloads more than doubles previous one-week best.

Singer's remake of Extreme's 1991 Hot 100 No. 1 will be added to next pressing of his gold album "The One."

BETWEEN THE B JLETS silvio@billboard.com WEST DIGS UP A NO. 1

Kanye West grabs his first No. 1 as a lead artist on The Billboard Hot 100 as "Gold Digger" makes a gargantuan leap (19-1). Mariah Carey's "Shake It Off" was the anticipated successor to her own "We Belong Together," but West gold-rushed his way to the top with a record-setting week of digital sales. Thanks to 80,500 downloads, "Gold Digger" debuts at No. 1 on Hot Digital Songs while making the Hot 100's biggest radio gain (20 million impressions, 7-4 on Hot 100 Airplay). The song's digital sum shatters the prior one-week record of 61,500 for Gwen Stefani's "Hollaback Girl."

Elliott's album returns to iTunes after a technical glitch, boosting the song 155% in digital sales and matching its prior Hot 100 peak.

At No. 61, Kelly Clarkson makes the biggest jump in rank, with airplay up 50%. She snagged two MTV Video Music Awards.

The track, a preview of the Scottish band's upcoming album, is the top debut on Hot Digital Songs at No. 38 with 10,000 downloads.

Urban's fourth single from double-platinum "Be Here" set takes Airpower and Greatest Gainer honors on Hot Country Songs at No. 15. He co-wrote the song with Hot 100 vet Richard Marx.

OUTDOING HERSELF?

As "Shake It Off" jumps to No. 2 on The Billboard Hot 100 and grabs the chart's top airplay gain (14.5 million listener impressions), Mariah Carey could end her own 14-week No. 1 run for "We Belong Together." If so, "Belong" would fall two weeks shy of the Hot 100 record: the 16-week reign of Carey's 1996 pairing with Boyz II Men. "Belong" holds at No. 1 for a 16th week on Hot 100 Airplay, which ties it for second all-time with No Doubt's 1996 hit, "Don't Speak." Goo Goo Dolls' "Iris" holds the chart mark with 18 weeks at the top.

Stefani's track at No. 13 jumps 15-8 on Adult Top 40, becoming her first solo top 10 at that format.

One of two bulletted Peas songs on this list. Group also has three tracks climbing the Pop 100.

West Virginia native's best Hot 100 showing. Its download sales of 14,500 (No. 25 on Hot Digital Songs) have been bested by only one other country song: Tim McGraw's "Live Like You Were Dying."

Track also takes top debut honors on Hot Digital Songs at No. 6 with 28,500 downloads. It's the first Duff song to top 5,000 in one week.

Thomas, at No. 54, becomes first solo artist to simultaneously place two songs in the top five at Adult Top 40, as track moves 6-4 on that list.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS silvio@billboard.com DIGITAL SALES CLICK FOR CLICK FIVE

The Click Five moves 4-1 on Hot Digital Songs with "Just the Girl" as sales jump 41% with 43,000 downloads. The spike comes in the same week that the act's debut enters The Billboard 200 at No. 15. "Girl" soars 21-11 on The Billboard Hot 100 with 88% of its points coming from digital sales. Almost all of its airplay is from mainstream top 40 radio outlets. On the Pop 100, which uses mainstream top 40 airplay as its sole radio source, the Click Five jumps 16-8.

Elliott's tune dropped 72% in digital sales as her "Cookbook" songs vanish from iTunes (see Inside Track, page 80).

New set headed for top of Country list next week (and may top big chart) with his best sales

As single rises, his album posts second straight gain (up 4%, No. 90 on The Billboard 200).

At No. 49, Green Day leaps 149% on Hot Digital Songs (12,000). Clip hit major video outlets during tracking week.

CAREY KEEPS SHAKING THE CHARTS

For the first time since 1996, Mariah Carey has two titles inside the top 10 of The Billboard Hot 100 concurrently. "We Belong Together" holds at No. 1 for a 12th week, while new single "Shake It Off" vaults 12-6 as the week's Greatest Gainer for airplay.

In the April 6, 1996, issue, Carey's "Always Be My Baby" was the Hot Shot Debut at No. 2, while former No. 1 "One Sweet Day" slipped 7-9. If "Shake It Off" makes it to No. 1, it will be her 17th chart-topper.

"Shake It Off" recently became Carey's 17th top 10 on the Rhythmic Top 40 airplay chart, the most for any female artist. —Patrick McGowan

At No. 55, the album version of 50 Cent's track enters Pop 100 (No. 93) mostly from digital sales (4,500). The remix, which is radio's preference, has yet to hit digital stores.

Boston quintet flies 18-4 on Hot Digital Songs as sales almost double to 31,500 downloads. Group's debut album, "Greetings From Inme House," hits retail Aug. 16.

Track is a combination of the world's most downloaded ringtone and Harold Faltermeyer's 1985 top five hit of the same name. Song has topped the charts in a multitude of countries and is still No. 1 on this week's Eurochart.

Jason Mraz's "Wordplay" is a combination of the world's most downloaded ringtone and Harold Faltermeyer's 1985 top five hit of the same name. Song has topped the charts in a multitude of countries and is still No. 1 on this week's Eurochart.

TV PAVES JOURNEY'S CHART TREK

Following a surprising No. 36 debut on Hot Digital Songs, Journey's top 10 Billboard Hot 100 hit "Family Guy" also featured in a recent airing of Fox's animated series. Journey's "Greatest Hits" also benefits: It grows 21% (10,000 units) and moves 9-4 on Top Pop Catalog. That is the album's biggest sales week since February and its highest chart position since it hit No. 3 in May 2001.

Island Def Jam Music Group holds the top two spots for a third straight week, the longest such stretch in the label's history.

Robbins Entertainment has its first top 10 since DJ Sammy's "Heaven" in 2002.

British artist jumps into the top 10 of Hot Digital Songs (15-9) with 15% sales spike. Expect U.S. debut to enter the top 40 of The Billboard 200 next issue.

No. 1 track on radio-based Hot Country Songs is also top-selling country title on Hot Digital Songs (No. 39, 9,000 sold).

Mariah Carey's latest at No. 19 (up 16 million impressions) is pacing better than her current No. 1, which was only No. 30 in its third chart week.

A LONG JOURNEY FOR LIFEHOUSE

In its 26th week on The Billboard Hot 100, "You and Me" by Lifehouse finally makes its way to the top 10 (13-8). That is the longest climb to the top 10 since Sean Paul's "Gimme the Light" ended a 29-week jaunt in November 2002.

"You and Me" started strongly on the Hot 100, jumping 92-28 with a digital sales spike in its second week (Feb. 19 issue) before dropping off the list for a week in March. With a steady increase in radio airplay since then, digital sales rebounded; the track posts single-week highs by both measures this issue (52.9 million listeners and 29,000 sales).

Chicago quartet Fall Out Boy jumps 55-31, aided by a 17-8 move on Hot Digital Songs. Its video is the third-most-played at MTV and a nominee in the MTV2 category of the Video Music Awards.

All-American Rejects make a second Hot 100 appearance, at No. 87. The song is in the top 10 at video network Fuse and climbs 57-38 on Hot Digital Songs. Their previous Hot 100 hit re-enters the digital chart at No. 75.

Universal Music Group recently picked up an album on the Tuff Gong label by the son of legend Bob Marley.

A newly released remix featuring Jay-Z spurs "Diamonds" 54-18 on Hot Digital Songs with a 138% sales increase.

DOLLED UP TO LEAD HOT 100

"Don't Cha" by the Pussycat Dolls featuring Busta Rhymes moves to the top of the Pop 100, ending the three-week run of Mariah Carey's "We Belong Together."

"Don't Cha" moves 5-2 on Hot Digital Songs and sits at No. 5 on the Pop 100 Airplay chart. It ascends to No. 1 on the Pop 100 because it is the only song in the top five available as a CD single. Without its 15,500 retail sales, "Don't Cha" would have been No. 5 on the Pop 100.

The Pussycat Dolls also move 4-3 on The Billboard Hot 100, a new peak, and climb to No. 1 on Hot Dance Airplay. —Silvio Pietroluongo

Christian singer's set posts its 10th consecutive gain (up 9%); single "Held" impacts AC radio Aug. 15.

As Lambert's single "Bring Me Down" rises 35-33 on the Country Songs album, she made 9% gain (up 15%).

Two-CD set is the 16th in Sony's "Essential" line to reach chart, moving 8,000 for the week with little publicity.

One position below his idyl Michael Jackson, Usher moves his set past the $1 million mark this week.

Album re-enters the chart after a two-month absence; band's new single makes 8-2 on Christian Singles.

Moving 6-1 on Hot Digital Songs (up 4,500 units) and 9-4 on Hot 100 Airplay (up 11 million impressions) helps track earn double Gainer awards and its fourth airplay gainer triumph in the last six weeks.

Band hits a career high at Adult Top 40 with 4-3 climb, besting the No. 4 peak of "Clocks."

Song reaches its highest rank since its second week on the chart. The act's album does the same on The Billboard 200 with an 18-14 jump, which is accompanied by Greatest Gainer honors.

Crooner earns first No. 1 hit as track climbs 2-1 on Adult Contemporary list. His album, "It's Time," holds at No. 1 for a 22nd week on Top Jazz Albums with a 12% sales spike.

DIGITAL SALES REVIVE RELIENT K

Quintet Relient K debuts on The Billboard Hot 100 at No. 88 with "Be My Escape." The track, which has received some airplay at various top 40 and Christian radio stations since October, posts the highest percentage gain (56%) and second-best unit gain (up 4,000 downloads) on Hot Digital Songs, rising 65-31 on that list. An appearance on "The Tonight Show With Jay Leno" (July 11) and the song's recent ranking among the top 10 on MTV's "TRL" help spur the track's sales, prompting Capitol to re-service the song to top 40 radio outlets. —Silvio Pietrolungo Cover tune moves 8-1 in second week on Hot Digital Songs with 43,000 downloads.

Band earns second No. 1 on Adult Top 40. Previous chart-topper was its debut, "Hanging by a Moment," in 2001.

Gwen Stefani's "Cool," at No. 64, makes the chart's biggest jump. It is also the top debut on Hot 100 Airplay at No. 62 with a 33% audience gain.

Album release on digital sites spurs chart rebound for the five-chapter opus. The final episode is the best-selling of the individual tracks.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS silvio@billboard.com LIVE 8 PUTS MCCARTNEY ON CHARTS

Paul McCartney hits The Billboard Hot 100 for the second time this decade as his Live 8 performance with U2 of "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" takes Hot Shot Debut honors at No. 48. McCartney immediately bests the No. 71 peak for "Pepper" that the Beatles achieved in 1978, 11 years after the band's album of the same name arrived. With 22,000 in digital sales, "Pepper" enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 12 and the Pop 100 at No. 36. Another song McCartney performed, "Long and Winding Road," enters the digital chart at No. 64 and the Pop 100 at No. 68. —Silvio Pietrolungo

With her "American Idol" debut to block her path, Carey ascends to the top of The Billboard Pop 100.

Rappers album could bow in the top three of The Billboard 200 next issue with first-week sales of 150,000-plus.

Song holds at No. 1 on the Modern Rock chart. It's the band's third to top that list, a streak set by the leadoff track from each of its last three albums.

Track tops the Adult Top 40 chart for a 10th week, the most by a male solo artist. Including his work with Matchbox Twenty and on Santana's "Smooth," Thomas has six of the 23 No. 1s to reach double-digit weeks.

At No. 34, Backstreet Boys tie Faith Hill for the most top 10s on the AC chart by any act this decade with their sixth (10-8).

FILLING BIG 'BOOTS'

Jessica Simpson scores her highest Billboard Hot 100 debut, as her remake of Nancy Sinatra's "These Boots Are Made for Walkin'" enters at No. 33.

With "Boots" still building at radio, this lofty debut mainly stems from first-week digital sales (No. 8 on Hot Digital Songs, 26,500 sold).

From the forthcoming "Dukes of Hazzard" movie, Simpson's Daisy Duke portrayal (and wardrobe) in the track's video has propelled it to No. 1 on AOL Music's and Yahoo's Video Streams lists.

Four albums into its career, a limited-edition CD/DVD gives Throwdown its best sales week (7,000) and first charting set.

Devildriver debuts with its highest sales week (10,000). Rock act also bows at No. 1 on Top Heatseekers. On tour with Throwdown.

Set featuring Darryl Worley aptly earns chart's largest percentage gain (64%) the week before July 4 holiday.

Set spikes 18% in the wake of a $7.98 sale price at Target; band plays WNOR's Lunatic Luau July 28 in Norfolk, Va.

Child-friendly album of inspirational songs also debuts at No. 2 on Top Kid Audio (8,000).

Carey's song is the first to surpass 200 million audience impressions (202 million).

The same week they debut in the top 10 of The Billboard 200, Fat Joe and Foo Fighters snag the top gainers on Hot Digital Songs. The Foo's take the largest leap, 82%, while the Bronx, N.Y., rapper improves by 49%.

Rob's 14-10 jump on Rhythmic Airplay makes Upstairs Records the only indie label besides TVT to hit that chart's top 10 during this decade.

This Chicago-based band's first Hot 100 appearance comes seven weeks after it debuted at No. 9 on The Billboard 200 with its first major-label release. The album, which climbs 42-40, has sold just north of 200,000 units.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS silvio@billboard.com NEW 'IDOL' TOPS THREE CHARTS

Carrie Underwood debuts at No. 1 on The Billboard Hot 100 and the Pop 100 as "Inside Your Heaven" takes the top slot on Hot Singles Sales (130,000 units) and the No. 4 slot on Hot Digital Songs and the 40,000 paid downloads. Underwood joins Kelly Clarkson, Clay Aiken and Fantasia as an "American Idol" finalist who has topped the Hot 100 with the song performed during his or her season finale. Underwood has the lowest-scanning retail start of any "Idol" winner, but with digital sales added, her total of 170,000 outpaces Fantasia's 2004 opener of 142,000 retail singles for "I Believe."

THREE SUCCESS STORIES. ONE THING IN COMMON.

Each quarter, AOL Music handpicks new artists and crowns them AOL® Breakers, introducing them to our 24 million* music fans. With that kind of starting fan base, it's no surprise John Legend, Sugarland and The Game have soared to the top of the charts. Now meet this summer's breakout stars.

Peas move to No. 1 on Hot Digital Songs with an increase of 12,000 downloads. Album track "Pump It" is top debut on Pop 100 at No. 53 and enters this list at No. 36.

Dolls' stay at No. 1 on the Singles Sales chart will come to a halt next issue as Carrie Underwood's "Inside Your Heaven" is expected to scan more than 80,000 units.

Band holds at No. 2 on the Modern Rock list, just two spins behind No. 1 Nine Inch Nails, for the chart's tightest battle since the July 26, 2003, issue.

San Diego rapper's first Billboard Hot 100 appearance. He made his chart debut in 2002 with "The Album," which peaked at No. 94 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and at No. 40 on Top Independent Albums.

PBS pledge-drive reruns of the group's TV show results in 68% spike and 6-1 rise on Heatseekers.

In the wake of its Tony Award win for best musical, cast album jumps 43%. Year's biggest Tony winner, "The Light in the Piazza," (six) enters at No. 189 with 31% gain.

His jazzy covers set of rock songs jumps in with 9,000 sold and debuts at No. 2 on Top Jazz Albums. Sales aided by June 8 stop on "Letterman."

Compilation featuring Lindsay Lohan, Hilary Duff and Christina Aguilera debuts at No. 3 on Top Kid Audio (5,500).

Chart re-entry follows 255% gain thanks to venue sales at band's Texas concerts.

BETWEEN THE BELLETS

CLARKSON CLICKS AGAIN

New "American Idol" winner Carrie Underwood faces a long road to match the success of inaugural champ Kelly Clarkson. The latter's "Behind These Hazel Eyes," her fifth top 10 on The Billboard Hot 100 (8-6), wins the Greatest Gainer/Digital trophy with an increase of 4,700 downloads. Underwood takes her first crack at the upper region of the Hot 100 with the June 14 retail release of her single "Inside Your Heaven."

Smith's biggest hit since "Wild Wild West" in 1999 reaches top 10 on the Hot 100.

Song builds on its exposure in iPod commercial to nearly triple its digital sales for the week. Debut by Daft Punk at No. 87 is also featured in Apple's commercial.

Song hit No. 1 on country chart in March and was finally released digitally May 10. Sells 6,500 downloads in the tracking week.

band's album debuts at No. 1 on The Billboard 200, digital sales still increase by 30%. First single from that set climbs 16-11 on Hot Digital Songs.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS HOT 100 CROWN BELONGS TO CAREY
Mariah Carey returns to a very familiar place as "We Belong Together" surmounts on The Billboard Hot 100, her 16th No. 1 on that list.
The song's audience total of 157.5 million is almost 100 million more than Carey's prior best of 66.7 million impressions, attributed to "Heartbreaker" in October 1999.
The audience total is also the largest ever for a song at Island Def Jam Music Group.
—Silvio Pietrolungo

The most popular songs & tracks, according to all-format audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. Group's first top 10 since 2003's "Where Is the Love." With 37,500 paid downloads, "Heart" moves to No. 2 on Hot Digital Songs.

Song joins "Since U Been Gone" in top three of Pop 100 Airplay chart. Clarkson is the first female to simultaneously place two songs in that region of the chart.

Marriage to Renée Zellweger spurs 235% digital sales gain for his 1999 No. 1 country hit, "You Had Me From Hello." Title phrase was made famous by Zellweger in the 1996 film Jerry Maguire.

Nelly appears in upcoming picture "The Longest Yard" and lands the top debut (No. 55) with the lead song from the soundtrack. It also enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 21 with 15,000 sold.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS CAREY 'BELONGS' ATOP RADIO LIST

"We Belong Together" by Mariah Carey wins the top spot on Hot 100 Airplay with a massive 26.7 million listener impressions. The track's move is so forceful it leapfrogs Ciara's "Oh" despite the latter's substantial gain of 8 million impressions. "Belong" is Carey's first No. 1 on the airplay chart since her 1995 collaboration with Boyz II Men on "One Sweet Day." —Silvio Pietroluongo

The WB recently announced that McEntire's sitcom will return for a fifth season this fall.

DeGraw will play WHTZ New York's Zootopia concert May 22. He begins a tour with Avril Lavigne Aug. 11.

Keen also enters Top Heatseekers at No. 1 and Top Country Albums at No. 21 (8,000 units).

The band's frontman is none other than recent "American Idol" castoff Constantine Maroulis. The set also opens at No. 2 on Top Heatseekers.

Following Lee's May 6 performance on "Conan," the album jumps 28% (7,000 units). He'll play "Today" on June 2.

NIVEA SCORES HOT SHOT DEBUT

As Mariah Carey returns to No. 1 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and at No. 80 on The R&B/Hip-Hop Albums (up 3% at core stores),

Nivea bows at No. 9 with her second effort, "Complicated." The set enters The Billboard 200 at No. 37; current single "Okay" (featuring Lil Jon and Youngbloodz) peaked at No. 14 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. Her debut album peaked at No. 35 on Top

R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and at No. 80 on The Billboard 200 in 2003. Nivea delivered a baby girl May 10; her pregnancy likely hampered promotional duties for the album. The singer says she will be back on the road this summer after the family—including husband and producer Terius "the Dream" Nash—settles in. —Keith Caulfield

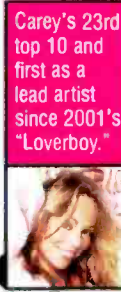

The most popular songs & tracks, according to all-format audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. Greatest Gainer/Digital and Greatest Gainer/Airplay are awarded, respectively, for the largest digital sales and airplay increases on the chart. Carey's 23rd top 10 and first as a lead artist since 2001's "Loverboy."

Track makes it to No. 1 on Adult Top 40, a familiar position for Thomas, who has topped that chart a record four times with Matchbox Twenty.

Debut position surpasses band's previous No. 22 peak with "The Space Between" in 2001. Track enters Hot Digital Songs at No. 3 with 31,000 paid downloads.

Foo Fighters' "Best of You" debuts at No. 51 on the Hot 100 and climbs 12-6 on Modern Rock. It's their 11th top 10 and lead singer Dave Grohl's 18th, counting the seven he notched as drummer for Nirvana.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS CIARA KEEPS '1, 2' PACE WITH 'OH'

"Oh" by Ciara Featuring Ludacris moves 3-1 on the Hot 100 Airplay chart, her second topper on that list and her third straight top two track. "Goodies" spent seven weeks at No. 1 starting in September 2004, followed by a No. 2 peak for "1, 2 Step" in January. Ciara is the first artist to start a career with three straight top two songs on the Hot 100 Airplay chart since the radio panel was expanded in December 1998 to include all formats. —Silvio Pietrolungo

PBS aired the Irish quintet's concert special in key markets, sparking the album's 41% increase. It holds at No. 1 on Top World Albums for an once at the Billboard Latin Music Awards, Juanes' album jumps 18%.

It's the album's third-highest sales week since its release in June 2004.

Major distribution deal with Sony BMG helps Bronx, N.Y.-based act land its first top 10 on Top Latin Albums.

Track takes airplay gainer honor for the second straight week.

Matchbox Twenty leader could top The Billboard 200 next week with 225,000 copies.

"Karma" comes around to new peak position. Also hits top 10 of Pop 100 for first time.

Lead singer of Yeah Yeah Yeahs provides vocals on Mr. Clean-produced track: featured in Adidas TV spot.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'IDOL' COVERS STIR DOWNLOAD SALES

For the second time this month, a song covered by an "American Idol" finalist generates enough interest to impact Hot Digital Songs.

Re-entering the list at No. 45 is Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody," performed on the April 12 "Idol" by Constantine Maroulis (left). The Queen song posts 8,500 sales, its high sum to date. Three weeks ago, Carrie Underwood's rendition of "Alone" propelled Heart's original to No. 51.

Influence the Influencers

"Billboard is the only industry magazine that I trust – because it's truthful and honest."

Antonio "L.A." Reid
Chairman, Island Def Jam Music Group

Island Def Jam's roster features such best-selling, chart-topping, award-winning megastars as Ashanti, Bon Jovi, Mariah Carey, Melissa Etheridge, PJ Harvey, Hoobastank, Ja Rule, Jay-Z, the Killers, LL Cool J, Ludacris, Christina Milian, the Bravery, 112, Sum 41, and Kanye West.

Who reads Billboard? It's people like Island Def Jam Chairman L.A. Reid – the imaginative minds and savvy businessmen and women who create buzz, build brands and start trends. In fact, according to Harvey Research, 73% of all Billboard readers influence consumer purchasing decisions such as what CDs to buy, what clothes to wear and what concerts to see.

With 71% of all readers in a management position or higher, the revamped, re-energized and redesigned Billboard gives advertisers access to an affluent and elusive group of thought leaders—artists, media, marketers, executives, trendsetters, retailers and consumers who can help create the tipping point for your brand.

And stay tuned for the relaunch of Billboard.com & Billboard.biz and the birth of Billboard Mobile.

introducing the new... Billboard

After two straight weeks of radio declines, song turns around to reach new peak in audience. Rotation of video increases at BET and VH1 Soul.

Rapper earned six Billboard Music Awards during Dec. 6 telecast, including artist of the year.

At No. 51, song reaches new peak as album sees only its second sales increase on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums since it bowed at No. 15 in the Oct. 8 issue.

After a week off the list, song re-enters with surge in retail sales and 51% gain in audience.

SKAGGS FAMILY KINDLES YULE MOOD

Snowflakes fall on Top Bluegrass Albums as "A Skaggs Family Christmas, Volume One" opens at No. 3 with more than 1,000 copies sold.

Although bluegrass kingpin Ricky Skaggs is the lead artist, the holiday package features various artists, including his wife Sharon White, her family group the Whites and several extended family members.

The Dec. 10 prime time premiere of "Christmas Time Is Here: A Skaggs Family Celebration" on CMT should give the album a sales spurt on next week's charts. The one-hour show features Alison Krauss, who is the subject of another premiere immediately preceding the Skaggs show on CMT.

On Top Country Albums, Trace Adkins' "Songs About Me" hooks Greatest Gainer honors (13-9) after his Dec. 3 bow as a host on the televised portion of the WSM Grand Ole Opry.

BABYFACE PADS HIS ADULT R&B MARKS

Babyface grabs his 13th top 10 on the Adult R&B chart as "Grown & Sexy" climbs 11-10. Babyface leads all with 39 top 10s, including 19 airplay chart as "Grown & Sexy" climbs 11-10. No. 1s, which is also tops. That ties him with his former protégé and LaFace first lady Toni Braxton for third on the all-time list. His "Grown & Sexy" album opened at No. 10 on The Billboard 200, his best first week in almost 10 years. This week the set bullets on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums for the first time in three weeks with a 10% gain. —Raphael George

McENTIRE'S FOURTH HITS SET SOARS

Reba McEntire scores her 11th consecutive top five non-seasonal Nielsen SoundScan-era debut on Top Country Albums (and her 30th entry on that list) with "Reba #1's."

The hits set, which is No. 12 on The Billboard 200, scans 117,000 copies, surpassing the first-week sales of "Greatest Hits Volume Two" and "Greatest Hits Volume III—I'm a Survivor." McEntire's second best-of title moved 74,000 copies in the Oct. 16, 1993, issue, and the third installment rang 60,000 in the Nov. 10, 2001, issue. Her platinum-selling "Greatest Hits" was released in May 1987, four years before Billboard converted its charts to point-of-sale data from Nielsen SoundScan.

"Reba #1's" has two new tracks, including "You're Gonna Be (Always Loved By Me)," which peaked at No. 33 on Hot Country Songs in the Nov. 19 issue.

B.I.G. TRIBUTE SET SPAWNS AIRPLAY

The Notorious B.I.G. proves there is life after death as "Nasty Girl" enters Top R&B/Hip-Hop Songs at No. 75. The latest single from the all-star tribute to the fallen rap star—"Duets: The Final Chapter" streets Dec. 20—almost doubles in spins over last survey. With Diddy, Nelly, Jagged

Edge and newcomer Avery Storm adding vocals to this previously unreleased track, it hits the list just shy of 4 million in audience. "Nasty" could be the first of consecutive b/w's for the Notorious B.I.G., as "Whatchu Want" featuring Jay-Z rises fast. With only one-third of the stations, "Whatchu" trails by less than a half-million in audience. —Raphael George

CMA TELECAST DELIVERS THE GOODS

Country volume takes a 32% uptick following an unprecedented level of media exposure during the 39th annual Country Music Assn. awards, which took place Nov. 15 on CBS.

Carrie Underwood (No. 1) and Big & Rich (No. 3), and Greatest Gainer applause for Martina McBride's "Timeless" (up 30,000 units).

The trade association took its awards gala to New York, and celebrates a win in its Tuesday-night time slot. Nielsen Media Research reports an 11.1 rating and a 17 share (17.73 million viewers).

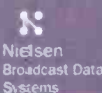

Benefactors include hefty debuts by performers

Pacesetter honors go to the CMA album of the year, Lee Ann Womack's "There's More Where That Came From" (up 356%). Show hosts Brooks & Dunn leap 158% (No. 15), and entertainer of the year Keith Urban swings up 110% (No. 6). —Wade Jessen

'HONKY TONK' GIVES ADKINS JUICE

Trace Adkins makes an eye-popping leap with "Songs About Me," taking the Pacesetter flag with a 30% increase (13-5).

The album jumps back into the top 10 for the first time since its first two chart weeks in April. The most obvious factor is airplay for the quirky "Honky Tonk Badonkadonk," which hops 18-16 on Hot Country Songs. The pulsating song about bar-room lust earns 15.8 million radio audience impressions during the tracking week while logging 85 video detections, according to Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems. VH1 Country rolled the clip 50 times, followed by 25 at CMT and 10 at Great American Country.

Veterans Day holiday spins for previous single "Arlington" also drive demand. It peaked at No. 16 in August, but has doubled its audience penetration to more than 2 million this week. Adkins performed the sobering ballad on Veterans Day during a memorial ceremony at New York's Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum. —Wade Jessen

RAY J FULFILLS 'WISH' WITH PEAK

At No. 7, his best showing ever on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, Ray J shines with Greatest Gainer Airplay honors.

also soars five spots to No. 7 at rhythmic radio for Ray J's first top 10 in that format.

Closing in on 40 million in audience, "One Wish" betters Ray J's last jaunt to the top 10, when "Wait a Minute" peaked at No. 8 in 2001. The ballad

With added exposure from his recurring role on UPN's "One on One," his "Raydiation" set improves by 18%, its first gain in six weeks on The Billboard 200 (109-96). Ray J is in the midst of a radio promo tour stopping in Miami, Detroit and Houston.

DUO'S HITS SET DRAWS CHART INK

Montgomery Gentry gets its second-biggest sales week with "Something to Be Proud Of: The Best of 1999-2005," which moves 41,000 copies to start at No. 2 on Top Country Albums and No. 20 on The Billboard 200.

The hits package sports two new tracks: the title song, which led Hot Country Songs for two weeks starting in the Oct. 8 issue, and "She Don't Tell Me To," which rises 35-30.

The new set is the duo's second-highest bow on The Billboard 200, and matches the No. 2 country start of "You Do Your Thing," which moved 58,000 copies in the June 5, 2004, issue, bowing at No. 10 on The Billboard 200.

"Life Goes On," the sixth set of new songs by Terri Clark, starts at No. 4 with 34,000 copies. She has scored one week with bigger numbers, when "Greatest Hits 1994-2004" sold 62,000 units in 2004.

Singer (at No. 36) performs Hurricane Katrina benefit single with Michael McDonald and Wynonna Judd at Game Three of the World Series.

Song's rise is aided by its No. 6 boy on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Singles sales and earns largest gain of all singles available at retail.

Downing's 13th entry on this chart since '98, but only his second this decade. New album opened on The Billboard 200 at a career-best No. 85.

Hits No. 1 on Top Gospel Songs his first summit at the format since billboard.com added the chart in April.

ANOTHER ENTRY FOR BUSY BLIGE

Marking her 12th charted single—the most by any female in the Nielsen SoundScan era—Mary J. Blige starts at No. 47 with "Be Without You."

The song flies with airplay at 46 monitored stations, including top 10 rotator at WAMO Pittsburgh.

It will be included on a new studio set, "The Breakthrough," expected to arrive Dec. 20. Also expected at some point in the next year is a hits set titled "Reminiscence." Blige performed Nov. 1 on "25 Strong: The BET Silver Anniversary Special." She will receive a lifetime achievement honor Nov. 12 at the Vibe Awards. —Raphael George

IT'S OFFICIAL: CASH A 'LEGEND'

The prodigious influence of Johnny Cash reverberates more than two years after his death, this time with a 21-track career overview.

With more than 50,000 scans, "The Legend of Johnny Cash" starts at No. 3 on

It is Cash's highest chart perch since "American IV: The Man Comes Around" flew to No. 2 on the country list and No. 22 on the big chart the week after his death on Sept. 12, 2003.

Top Country Albums and rides onto The Billboard 200 at No. 11. That represents Cash's highest debut on both charts in the 14-year-old Nielsen SoundScan era and his biggest one-week sum in that time.

Look for the Nov. 18 domestic release of the biopic "Walk the Line" to heat up demand in the coming weeks. The film premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival in September.

Captures Greatest Gainer Airplay honors for fourth straight week on Hot 100. New single recently leaked to radio; airplay due Nov. 29.

Song debuts with 5 million in audience. Climbs 13-10 on Hot 100 for reggae star's first solo top 10 since 2002's "Get Busy."

Climbing a notch at Adult R&B song is her second No. 1 on that chart. After 27 weeks, it is the longest trip to the top of that list in two years.

Common, at No. 54, recently left Kanye West's tour and will make his film debut with Alicia Keys next year.

'TIMELESS' HIT FOR MCBRIDE

Martina McBride captures her biggest Nielsen SoundScan week and her third straight No. 1 on Top Country Albums.

"Timeless," which covers 18 cherished classics, moves 185,000 copies. The McBride-produced album easily tops her previous best week when "Martina" debuted with 123,000 units in 2003.

At No. 3 on The Billboard 200, "Timeless" also beats McBride's prior No. 5 peak, for "Greatest Hits," in 2001. "Martina" and "Greatest Hits" bowed at No. 1 on the country list.

McBride performed Oct. 22 on a history-making televised hour of the Grand Ole Opry program on the Great American Country network. Never before in the venerable radio show's 80 years had it turned an entire segment over to a single artist. McBride's update of Lynn Anderson's 1970 hit, "(I Never Promised You A) Rose Garden," bullets at No. 23 on Hot Country Songs.

At No. 49, Kanye West notches the highest debut of his 15 charted singles. His first album bullets on The Billboard 200 with a 22% increase (No. 167).

His 12th appearance on the chart this year, more than any other artist. Song is from soundtrack to his film debut, "Get Rich or Die Tryin'," due Nov. 8.

From his "In My Mind" release, due Nov. 15. As part of the Neptunes he has produced the most singles on this chart, 70, since 2000.

Carey enters Rhythmic Airplay chart at No. 28 as she eclipses Janet Jackson for the most appearances, 26, by a female at that format.

FRANCHIZE BOYZ LOG FIRST TOP 10

With an 11-7 jump, Dem Franchise Boyz earn their first top 10 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs with "I Think They Like Me." The song first appeared on the act's self-titled Universal debut from last year. Now remixed with Jermaine Dupri, Da Brat and

Bow Wow, it soars on triple-digit sales increases for a second consecutive week. The single gains 8.2 million in audience with heavy rotation at 30 radio outlets, and sits in the top five on BET's "106 & Park." —Raphael George

ALLAN 'TOUGHS' CHART HIGHS

Gary Allan celebrates his biggest Nielsen SoundScan week to date, his first No. 1 on Top Country Albums and a new career high on The Billboard 200 with "Tough All Over," which scans 100,000 copies.

Allan's first retail chart-topper bests his previous high on the country list, set when "See If I Care" popped on at No. 2 in the Oct. 18, 2003, issue. That 57,000-unit debut also logged his previous best one-week sum and prior high on the big chart at No. 17.

Allan's sixth set of new songs is pushed by lead single "Best I Ever Had," a Beatles-esque ballad that steps 16-15 in its 21st week on Hot Country Songs. It has an aggregate audience tally of 219 million impressions since it entered the chart in the June 11 issue. —Wade Jessen

The most popular singles and tracks, according to R&B/Hip-Hop radio audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data from a subset panel of core R&B/Hip-Hop stores compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. Greatest Gainer/Sales and Greatest Gainer/Airplay are awarded, respectively, for the largest retail sales and airplay increases on the chart. The rapper's first No. 1. It is Island/Def Jam's fourth this year, the most by any label.

Common, at No. 59, sees sales double and radio audience impressions gain 3 million after his Oct. 7 visit to "Live With Regis and Kelly."

Her best showing on this chart. Album bows at No. 11 on The Billboard 200 with 77,000 units for a career-high rank and sales week.

Received five Vibe Awards nominations. Ceremony scheduled to air Nov. 15 on UPN.

At No. 47, Kirk Franklin bowed last week on Top Gospel Albums with street-date violations; he rockets to No. 1 this week with 66,000.

KEYS COULD LEAD MULTIPLE CHARTS

Alicia Keys continues to make noise with "Unbreakable" as it climbs 14-13 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. The first single from her "Unplugged" album also soars 57-48 and gains a half-million in audience on The Billboard Hot 100. At adult R&B radio, Keys is on track for her sixth No. 1 as the single crosses the top 10 barrier after five weeks. At that pace, "Unbreakable" either equals or bests the path that four of her prior chart-toppers set at the format. First-day sales from the new album's Oct. 11 arrival suggest it will open at 175,000 or more, giving Keys a solid shot to lead The Billboard 200 for the third time in her short career. —Raphael George

EVANS 'FINE' IN HIGH PLACES

With approximately 125,000 units, Sara Evans deftly scores her biggest Nielsen SoundScan week to date with "Real Fine Place," her first No. 1 on Top Country Albums and her loftiest perch on The Billboard 200 (No. 3).

Evans' fifth album of new songs more than doubles her prior frame, set when "Born to Fly" sold 46,000 copies during Christmas week 2000. Her "Restless" album notched Evans' previous high on both charts when it peaked where it bowed: at No. 3 on the country list and at No. 20 on the big chart in September 2003.

The title track from "Real Fine Place" fattened the Missouri native's No. 1 count to four when it spent two weeks atop Hot Country Songs last month. The album's second single, "Cheatin'," hit programmers' in-boxes this week. —Wade Jessen

This week marks the first time rap songs have owned this portion of the chart since Aug. 21, 2004.

Third single from debut album is the singer's top ranking yet on this chart. She is set to tour with Kanye West this fall.

The No. 52 spot is Busta Rhymes' third appearance this year, but his first as a lead artist. Song is from "Big Bang," which is tentatively set for a December street date.

Album opens at No. 4 with 114,000 on The Billboard 200, her best opening sales week since "The Heat" arrived in 2000.

CHERRYHOLMES BLOSSOMS

Family ensemble Cherryholmes makes its first national chart appearance, bowing at No. 3 on Top Bluegrass Albums. With 1,200 copies sold, "Cherryholmes" also starts at No. 74 on Top Country Albums.

Cherryholmes is the first act in the 20-year history of the International Bluegrass Music Assn. to be nominated in both the emerging artist and entertainer of the year categories.

The awards will be handed out Oct. 27 in Nashville. Banjoist Cia Cherryholmes is also nominated in the female vocalist category.

Also on Top Country Albums, a media-heavy setup for "Her Story: Scenes From a Lifetime" hurls Wynonna to No. 2 (36,000 copies), following visits to "The Oprah Winfrey Show," ABC's "Good Morning America" and an hourlong CMT special.

Song is also No. 1 on the Rhythmic and R&B/Hip-Hop Airplay charts after bouncing Bow Wow's "Like You" from the top of all three lists.

This four-member rap group features Big Boi of OutKast (pictured); the song is the first release from his partnership with Virgin Records.

Earth, Wind & Fire has best showing on this chart in more than a decade at No. 76. Album bows at No. 32 on The Billboard 200, the act's highest debut since 1983.

Sean Paul's song at No. 20 takes the biggest jump on the Hot 100 (60-26). His album is expected to open in the top 10 of The Billboard 200 next issue with his best sales week to date.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS rgeorge@billboard.com FUGEES REUNION PROVES 'EASY'

After an eight-year absence, the Fugees return to the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart, claiming Hot Shot Debut honors with "Take It Easy" at No. 59. Awards in June. They are working on their first album since 1996's "The Score," which has sold close to 6 million copies. During the group's hiatus, the members recorded nine solo albums between them, the biggest seller being Lauryn Hill's 1998 set, "The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill," which notched more than 6.5 million units. —Raphael George

DOUGLAS' TALENT NO 'SECRET'

Detro master Jerry Douglas, who also regularly performs as a member of the Alison Krauss + Union Station band, makes his second top 10 start on Top Bluegrass Albums with "Best Kept Secret," his debut project for Koch's Nashville operation.

The new set arrives at No. 4, topping his prior peak with "Lookout for Hope," which appeared at No. 10 on the very first installment of the bluegrass list in the July 20, 2002, issue. That set also peaked at No. 5 on Top New Age Albums one month before Top Bluegrass Albums launched.

On Top Country Albums, Muzik Mafia members Gretchen Wilson, Big & Rich and Cowboy Troy all benefit from a Sept. 22 appearance on CMT's "Top Twenty Countdown."

That show was taped in New York's Union Square. It pushes Wilson's "Here for the Party" back into the top 10 for a 70th week (a 2% jump). Big & Rich's "Horse of a Different Color" gains 12% (16-14), and Cowboy Troy's "Loco Motive" gets a 13% bump (36-28). —Wade Jessen

BETWEEN THE BULLETS wjessen@billboard.com YEARWOOD RETURNS TO NO. 1

Trisha Yearwood inks her third No. 1 debut on Top Country Albums and her second-largest Nielsen SoundScan week to date with "Jasper County." Its sales of more than 117,000 copies are good enough for a No. 4 entry on The Billboard 200. Her rank on the big chart matches her prior best, set in 1997 when "(Songbook) A Collection of Hits" began with 126,000, Yearwood's biggest one-week sum. "Jasper County" ends her longest gap between sets of new songs: "Inside Out" entered the country list at No. 1 in the June 23, 2001, issue.

Lead single "Georgia Rain" bullets at No. 17 on Hot Country Songs, and has made 235 million radio audience impressions since it entered the chart in the April 30 issue. VH1 Country, CMT and Great American Country are on the song, too.

She played "Today" Sept. 16, but a Sept. 21 stop on "The Tonight Show With Jay Leno" was postponed by the death of her father.

DREAMING BIG WORKS FOR SHUPE

With Hot Shot Debut honors at No. 13 on Top Country Albums (10,000 units), Ryan Shupe & the RubberBand bypass Top Heatseekers, as "Dream Big" enters The Billboard 200 at No. 87.

A Salt Lake City-based acoustic jam band that plays mostly inspirational fare, the group released four albums independently before signing with Capitol's Nashville operation. It gained valuable early exposure at a high-profile performance for programmers during the annual Country Radio Seminar convention this spring.

With more than 92 million total audience impressions since it first bowed on the country radio chart 23 weeks ago, the title track logs 860,000 more impressions per week at KEEY Minneapolis and KMPS Seattle. KMLE Phoenix and WKIS Miami each add more than half a million in audience.

The videoclip has run 193 times to date on Great American Country and 146 times on CMT.

RIHANNA BACK IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Reggae-influenced Rihanna has much to celebrate as a 21% radio audience gain causes her lead single to regain its bullet on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs at No. 32. single also peaked at No. 2 on The Billboard Hot 100 for the best showing by a reggae artist since 1970.

"Pon De Replay" is also No. 2 at dance radio and remains in the top 10 at Hot Digital Songs after wrapping up a five-week stint at No. 1 three weeks ago. The Sean Paul joined Beyoncé on "Baby Boy" in 2003.

The singer's debut album, "Music of the Sun," debuts in the top 10 this week on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Albums (No. 6) and The Billboard 200 (No. 10).

IBMA NODS STIR BLUEGRASS

Press coverage of the International Bluegrass Music Assn. awards nominations (Aug. 19) lists several titles on Top Bluegrass Albums, led by a 31% increase for "Marbletown" (7-6), the album by multiple nominee Blue Highway. The group has seven nominations, including nods for vocal group and album of the year.

Also picking up seven nominations is Doyle Lawson & Quicksilver, whose "You Gotta Dig a Little Deeper" gains 25% (holding at No. 8) and is also a contender for album of the year.

Other awards-related gains include nominees Rhonda Vincent & the Rage (12%, 6-7), the Grascals (3%, re-entering at No. 12) and Ricky Skaggs & Kentucky Thunder (4%, re-entering at No. 14).

The awards are slated for Oct. 27 in Nashville, and will be carried live on Sirius Satellite Radio and in radio syndication in 300 U.S. markets.

Over on Top Country Albums, Brooks & Dunn grab their fifth No. 1 bow with "Hillbilly Deluxe," which scans more than 111,000 copies.

With credit at No. 1 Ciara has 17 chart-toppers since 1990 more than any other producer in that span. He produced four other titles currently on this chart.

Longest current stint of any song on the chart. Title begins bullet after a 100% surge.

Track returns to No. 1 on Hot Gospel Songs on 11th week atop that list.

No. 53 song sees second increase in as many weeks, thanks to radio air featuring Lauryn Hill.

BOW WOW PUTS RAP BACK AT NO. 1

After spending eight weeks with two singles in the runner-up position, Bow Wow ends Mariah Carey's record-tying streak at No. 1 on R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. "Like You," featuring the rapper's girlfriend Ciara, also ends a 19 week hip-hop drought in the top slot that dates back to the April 23 issue, when the Game held court with "Hate It or Love It." R&B's streak included 14 weeks for Carey's "We Belong Together," one week for Amerie's "1 Thing" and four by Bobby Valentino's "Slow Down." Bow Wow's lead single, "Let Me Hold You," lasted at No. 2 for seven weeks, the longest stretch without reaching the summit since Usher's "U Don't Have to Call" in 2002.

TWO ACTS SEE FASTEST STARTS

Two country acts nab their biggest one-week sums to date, led by Trick Pony's "R.I.D.E.," which takes Hot Shot Debut honors on Top Country Albums at No. 4.

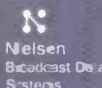

The trio's 34,000 scans top its "On a Mission" set, which sold 23,000 copies in November 2002. Trick Pony also hits a new Billboard 200 peak (No. 20), but its self-titled 2001 debut started higher on the country chart (No. 12).

The lead single, a remake of Bonnie Tyler's 1978 crossover hit "It's a Heartache," peaked at No. 22 on Hot Country Songs in the July 30 issue. Second single "Ain't Wastin' Good Whiskey on You" bows at No. 54.

Not far below is Neal McCoy's "That's Life," which arrives at No. 8 on the country list and No. 32 on the big chart. Both are new high-water marks for McCoy on those charts. His "Billy's Got His Beer Goggles On" bullets at No. 23 on Hot Country Songs with 10.3 million audience impressions, his highest-charted song since January 1998. —Wade Jessen

CAREY ADDS ANOTHER CHART FEAT

With 14 weeks at No. 1 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, Mariah Carey's "We Belong Together" ties the all-time mark for most consecutive weeks at No. 1. Carey is no stranger to all-time reigns. Her 2005 collaboration with Boyz II Men, "One Sweet Day," holds The Billboard Hot 100's record with 16 weeks.

Since this chart's launch in 1958, only Deborah Cox's "Nobody's Supposed to Be Here" had ruled that long, from the Nov. 7, 1993, issue through Feb. 6, 1999.

She might have one more chart-topper on the way, as "Shake It Off" vaults to No. 1 with Greatest Gainer Airplay honors

PAISLEY RACES TO HIS BEST WEEK

With his biggest one-week total to date, Brad Paisley claims his second No. 1 debut on Top Country Albums and a new career high on The Billboard 200 with "Time Well Wasted," entering the latter at No. 2.

Driven by lead single "Alcohol," Paisley's third set of new songs moves 192,000 copies. That more than doubles his previous one-week best, logged when "Mud on the Tires" debuted with 86,000 scans in 2003.

The plodding but humorous "Alcohol" has been the most-swapped country track this summer, according to BigChampagne, a good indicator that "Wasted" would have a stellar opening week. With the fattest top 10 gain on Hot Country Songs, "Alcohol" makes 30 million audience impressions (up 719,000) and bullets at No. 5.

VH1 Country tops video play with 57 detections during the tracking week, followed by 37 plays at GAC and 26 at CMT. —Wade Jesse

'EXTRAVAGANZA' PRIMES FOXX SET

Academy Award winner Jamie Foxx makes his fifth appearance on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs as "Extravaganza" bows at No. 77. The single, which is top 10 at WCCJ Chicago, marks the actor's third collaboration with Kanye West. The pair already shined with the No. 3 track on this chart.

Foxx's chart career dates back to 1994, when two singles from his solo debut album, "Peep This," spent 23 weeks on this list. J Records has not set a firm date for Foxx's "Southern Gentleman" album, which is due in November.

NICKEL CREEK CATCHES 'FIRE'

After bowing early because of a street-date snafu, acoustic trio Nickel Creek grabs its second-largest one-week sum (41,500 copies), vaulting 5-1 on Top Bluegrass Albums with "Why Should the Fire Die?"

also competed on Top Country Albums, but the new title is permeated by a decidedly more progressive acoustic pop sound, and thus is not being worked to country radio.

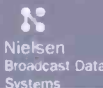

The trio's best sales week occurred when its album "This Side" began with 51,000 in 2002, but the new one establishes a higher peak, at No. 17, on The Billboard 200, and opens at No. 1 on Top Independent Albums. Two earlier sets Country video outlets are onboard for lead track "When in Rome," which ran 72 times during the tracking week on VH1 Country, according to Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems. It also ran 21 times on CMT, six times on Great American Country and three times on VH1. —Wade Jesser.

Most-played song at MPGC Washington, D.C. With hit single at No. 2, becomes the fourth rapper this year to place two songs in the top 10.

Song climbs 12 spots on Rhythmic Airplay, becoming singer's 7th top 10 on that chart and tying her with Ludacris as all-time tops.

Her second track to chart in a month. Lil' Kim is slated to perform Aug. 20 at KGBT Los Angeles Summer Jam, only 29 days before she begins serving one-year jail sentence.

Owens singles at No. 15 (with Boyz n Da Hood) and No. 16. Young Jeezy becomes first rap artist since 50 Cent in April to hold No. 1 spot on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums for consecutive weeks.

ADULT PLAY STIRS BENÉT'S RETURN

With the shadows of a very public divorce and an aborted album behind him, Eric Benét bows at No. 74, his first appearance in four years on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. "I Wanna Be Loved" soars 36-20 at Adult R&B, the largest jump on that chart since Anita Baker's "You're My Everything" leaped 25-9 in July 2004. "Loved" comes from "Hurricane," which entered Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums at No. 27 in the July 9 issue.

Benét spent two weeks at No. 1 in 1999 with "Spend My Life With You," featuring Tamia, and hit No. 9 with "Love Don't Love Me" in 2001. —Raphael George

CMA SPECIAL LIFTS ALBUM SALES

Faith Hill's No. 1 debut with "Fireflies" and ABC's Aug. 2 "CMA Music Festival" fuel a 58% increase in volume on Top Country Albums. Even without Hill's new album, unit sales on the chart are up 2.5% from the prior week.

"CMA" performers, including Rascal Flatts, Dierks Bentley, Big & Rich, Sugarland and Gretchen Wilson, benefit from the second annual Country Music Assn.-sponsored show, which ran on CBS last year. It is the first CMA show on ABC under a recent agreement that also will move the annual CMA Awards to that network Nov. 15.

Rascal Flatts' "Feels Like Today" grabs the Greatest Gainer cup with an increase of more than 6,000 copies, while Wilson's "Here for the Party" and Big & Rich's "Horse of a Different Color" each improve by 24%.

Street-date woes cause an early bow for Nickel Creek's set, "Why Should the Fire Die?," at No. 5 on Top Bluegrass Albums. It should top that chart next week.

Song moves to No. 1 on Rhythmic Airplay chart, the Atlanta rapper's first chart-topper at that format.

Debut album is on target for sales of more than 40,000 in first week. Video is aired most-played at BET.

Art's second single is off to a fast start; it is in the top 10 at five radio stations including WEDR Miami.

First single from new album "The Day After," due Oct. 11. Track already has spins at 29 R&B/hip-hop stations.

At No. 49, Toni Braxton has her first top 10 on Adult R&B since 2000; she plays K&BT Los Angeles Summer Jam Aug. 20.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS orgeorge@billboard.com WEST, FOXX SPRINT INTO TOP 5

Kanye West earns his fifth top 10 on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart as "Gold Digger," the fastest-climbing single so far, reaching the top 10 in just five weeks, compared with eight weeks for "All Falls Down."

Foxx becomes the first male actor-turned-singer to score two top 10s on this chart since Eddie Murphy notched one in 1985 and another in 1989. Foxx's solo album arrives later this year. —Patrick McGovern

ALDEAN'S A HOT SHOT (DEBUT)

Newcomer Jason Aldean's self-titled set nabs the Hot Shot Debut on Top Country Albums at No. 6 (29,000 copies).

Aldean's arrival—which also claims a No. 4 start on Top Independent Albums and a No.

37 opening on The Billboard 200—marks the sixth album by a rookie to log a top 10 start so far this year, compared with four such debuts during the same window in 2004.

Although the chart has seen more newcomer debuts (and slightly higher ranks) in 2005 than last year, the average number of units those titles sold in their first week tells a different story. The average sum this year is approximately 35,000; the 2004 average was 85,000 copies.

Last year's average was bloated by the 227,000-unit start by Gretchen Wilson in May 2004, a feat that has not yet been repeated this year. The largest rookie debut since New Year's Day was Cowboy Troy's "Loco Motive," which moved 51,000 copies in the June 4 issue.

Bow Wow's best chart position since 2000. His next single, at No. 21, is also the Hot Shot Debut at No. 63 on The Billboard Hot 100.

Song spent seven weeks atop Adult R&B, the longest run for a male artist on that list since Gerald Levert in 2003. Second single climbs 79-73 this week.

Only weeks after their new album hit stores, the Twins will release a "chopped and screwed" version of "U.S.A.: United State of Atlanta" on Aug. 3.

At No. 24, Rihanna's "Pon De Replay" is the first reggae song to reach No. 1 or Hot Digital Tracks in that chart's two-year history.

LUDACRIS FLOWS TO TIE WITH JAY-Z

Ludacris has more to celebrate this week than his co-starring role in a major motion picture. His latest title on the Hot R&B, Hip-Hop Albums chart, "Pimpin' All Over the World," maintains its bullet at No. 5. He ties Jay-Z for the most top 10 singles by a rapper (17). To add to his resumé, his fourth platinum set, "The Red Light District," pulls Greatest Gainer honors on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums tally, and the DVD of the same name bows at No. 3 on the Billboard Top Music Video Sales list. Ludacris co-stars in the new film "Hustle & Flow," which earned $8 million at the box office in its opening weekend.

KEITH REGAINS CLASS CROWN

With Greatest Gainer applause for a 3,500-unit gain (8%), Toby Keith's "Honkytonk University" moves back to the head of the class on Top Country Albums after hovering inside the top five during George Strait's three-week reign for "Somewhere Down in Texas."

Keith's set crowned the chart for six weeks after opening at No. 1 in the June 4 issue. "Honkytonk University" has posted gains during three of its 10 weeks on the chart, but none of those increases has occurred in consecutive weeks.

An aggressive $9.98 price at Target during the tracking period helps push "Honkytonk" back to the summit, as does a third straight week of dominance on Hot Country Songs. Keith's "As Good As I Once Was" makes 40.6

million audience impressions, the most that chart has seen since August 2004.

The Pacesetter trophy this week goes to SheDaisy's "Sweet Right Here" for the trio's 9% hike (36-35).

The fourth top 10 from current album "Destiny Fulfilled" marks trio's first record to accomplish the feat.

Song took 12 weeks to reach this rank, the slowest climb to the top 10 by any G-Unit member.

"Gotta" is the highest-charting song from the rapper/executive as a solo artist (see Beats & Rhymes, page 34).

At No. 53, Hayes and company are the first group to reach No. 1 on Hot Gospel Tracks; the other chart-toppers were solo artists or duos.

NEW FEAT IN CAREY'S CHART LORE

After spending two weeks in the runner-up position, Mariah Carey takes over No. 1 at Adult R&B on the first time in her career with "We Belong Together."

The track maintains its chart-topper status at Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, Rhythmic Airplay and Billboard Radio Monitor's Mainstream Top 40 chart, becoming the first song to concurrently lead all four lists since Boyz II Men's "On Bended Knee" in 1994.

Carey's chart onslaught continues with her next single, "Shake It Off," which in just two weeks is already No. 21 on Rhythmic Airplay and No. 54 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs.

NELSON VEERS TO REGGAE LIST

On a list of perennially relevant artists who have challenged Nashville's status quo and become a reassuring presence amid the gusty winds of change, Willie Nelson is indeed an imposing figure. Those dual virtues appear in big, bold headlines this issue as sales of 21,000 copies park Nelson's reggae/country fusion "Countryman" at No. 6 on Top Country Albums while also crowning Top Reggae Albums (see story, page 16, and chart, page 58).

The video for lead track "I'm a Worried Man" (with Toots Hibbert) aired 12 times on CMT during the tracking week, and the album was featured July 15 on NBC's "Today." No spins are detected at country radio.

Nelson's arrival is his fourth top 10 bow on the country albums chart since early in 2002. He has managed one top 10 start in each year of that span, including "The Great Divide" (No. 5, 2002), "Live and Kickin'" (No. 4, 2003) and "Outlaws and Angels" (No. 10, 2004). —Wade Jessen Track is No. 1 on the billboard.com Hot Rap Tracks chart. Album is expected to sell at least 115,000 its first week.

First single from the rapper's fall release. She is scheduled to begin serving a jail sentence Sept. 13.

Young Jeezy is a member of Bad Boy rap group Boyz n Da Hood, who appear at No. 15 on this list.

Akon re-enters the chart, thanks to special pricing at Tower Records.

WILSON FILLS GAP WITH NEW SONG

With a couple of recent collaborations under his belt, Charlie Wilson now goes solo with the title track to his Aug. 23 set, "Charlie: Last Name Wilson."

The R. Kelly-produced track jumps 41-30 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, boosted by a 42% increase since the last issue, the highest gain for any song in the top 50.

Wilson is no stranger to chart success. He earned a No. 1 song with Snoop Dogg and Pharrell on "Beautiful" in 2003 and reached No. 19 with Snoop and Justin Timberlake on "Signs" earlier this year. Wilson's tenure with the Gap Band adds four R&B No. 1s to his resumé.

PRICE IS RIGHT TO LIFT TWO SETS

Sale-pricing at a pair of big-box retailers helps Sugarland earn its biggest one-week sum (45,000 copies) to date.

With Greatest Gainer honors for the 10,000-unit gain, a $7.99 tag at Best Buy and Target pushes "Twice the Speed of Life" 5-4 on Top Country Albums and 26-16 on The Billboard 200. This week's handsome total tops the trio's previous best one-week sum of 35,000, scored last issue.

Demand is also spurred by "Something More," Sugarland's second radio track, which bullets at No. 3 on Hot Country Songs.

"Twice the Speed of Life" started with more than 5,000 units in the Nov. 13, 2004, issue.

An aggressive $9.98 price at Target also helps lift Dierks Bentley's "Modern Day Drifter" 20%, good for Pacesetter honors and a return to the chart's top 10 (17-9) for the first time in a month.

Song is No. 1 at Adult R&B. Fantasia becomes first "Idol" winner to top the same chart twice with two songs from a debut album.

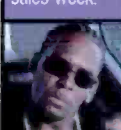

This remix version comes from a reissue of 50 Cent's "The Massacre." The special edition, due Sept. 6, will include a DVD and unreleased material.

The original version of Dr. Charles G. Hayes' gospel song (No. 55) has been the daily opening selection of a syndicated morning radio show since 1999.

Street-date violations put R. Kelly's album on R&B/Hip-Hop chart a week early. Set is destined to top The Billboard 200 next issue, possibly with his best-yet sales week.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS george@billboard.com BUSY WEST LANDS HOT SHOT DEBUT

Kanye West caps off a busy 2 1/2-week schedule by laying claim to the Hot Shot Debut at No. 53 on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart.

West wrapped up the whirlwind pace by shooting the video for latest single "Gold Digger," risked a lawsuit for canceling a performance to appear on the Philadelphia bill of Live 3 and earned two trophies for male hip-hop artist and video for "Jesus Walks" at the June 28 BET Awards.

"Gold Digger" adds the vocals of Academy Award winner Jamie Foxx to a sample from Ray Charles' "I Got a Woman." —Raphael George

APPLE PIE SETS ROOKIE RECORDS

With 18,000 copies sold on its self-titled debut, Hot Apple Pie shatters a pair of chart benchmarks with a No. 6 bow on Top Country Albums. Bypassing the Heatseekers list with a No. 60 start on The Billboard 200, the group inks the fastest opening sum and highest starting rank by a new country group in the Nielsen SoundScan era. Both newly minted benchmarks top the No. 12 arrival, with 17,000 units, by Trick Pony's self-titled debut in the March 31, 2001, issue. Led by former Little Texas member Brady Seals, Hot Apple Pie drives its noteworthy debut with lead single "Hillbillies," which rises 35-33 on Hot Country Songs in its 18th chart week. Video play is likely a bigger factor than radio: VH1 Country has aired the clip 959 times, followed by 221 at CMT and 194 at Great American Country. —Wade Jessen

BLUEGRASS ACTS GAIN GROUND

Since the chart's launch in July 2002, Top Bluegrass Albums has been heavily populated by various-artists collections, but has seen more single-act sets bow during the first half of this year than during comparable periods in either 2003 or 2004.

HILLMAN

With the No. 9 start by former Byrds member Chris Hillman, the chart counts as many artist-driven debuts scanned during the first half of this year (18) as the chart saw all year in 2004. Ten of those 18 occurred during the January-June frame. During the first half of 2003, 13 such albums entered the list, with a total of 25 by year's end.

With plenty of high-profile releases slated during the coming months, including the Del McCoury Band (July 12) and Nickel Creek (Aug. 9), the year-end artist tally is shaping up to meet or beat that of two years ago.

Fantasia's song spends a third week at No. 2 at Adult R&B. It's now 33 spins away from No. 1, the song's closest margin.

Song from Atlanta-based female trio samples Salt-N-Pepa's "Push It." Track is also No. 8 on Hot Singles Sales.

First act from Sean Combs' Bad Boy South should clear at least 100,000 units on next issue's album charts. Single remix featuring T.I. and the Game now at radio.

At No. 76 Stevie Wonder lands his 74th chart appearance with the second single from his upcoming album. With set's initial track at No. 72, he owns multiple listings on the chart for the first time since 1995.

'STAR' SHINES ON TEEN ERIKA JO

USA Network's "Nashville Star" winner Erika Jo is the third rookie to debut in the top 10 of the Top Country Albums chart within the first six months of the year. That's one more than the chart saw during the same window in 2004.

Erika Jo's self-titled debut starts at No. 5 (36,000 units). She joins a No. 1 debut by 2004 "Star" finalist Miranda Lambert and a No. 2 arrival by rapper Cowboy Troy as the highest bows for new artists in 2005. In the same span of last year, Gretchen Wilson (at No. 1) and Julie Roberts (at No. 9) were the only fresh faces to start in the top 10.

Radio has been slow on Erika Jo's "I Break Things": It spent one week on Hot Country Songs (No. 53) in the May 14 issue. This week, the single garners 691,000 audience impressions with spins detected at 44 monitored stations. But Erika Jo made up the difference with stops at NBC's "Today" (April 28) and Great American Country's "Grand Ole Opry Live" (May 21) and "Country Request Live" (June 16), as well as having a clip on CMT's "Insider" (June 18).

Carey keeps up her record-breaking ways as track holds at No. 1 on the Rhythmic Airplay chart with 5,420 detections, an all-time high.

At No. 51, Damian Marley (youngest son of reggae legend Bob), is working with Nas and the Roots on his upcoming album.

G-Unit member has the biggest chart move of the week. Song leaps 13-3 on R&B/Hip-Hop Singles Sales with a radio audience gain of 50%.

The Neptunes-produced song comes from Q-Tip's debut album for Motown. It's his first appearance on the chart as a lead artist since "Breathe and Stop" reached No. 21 in January 2000.

FAT JOE SINGLE KEEPS 'POPPIN'

Fat Joe teams with Nelly on his latest single "Get It Poppin'," which jumps 13 positions to No. 21 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. The track is No. 5 on billboard.com's Hot Rap Airplay list, Joe's fourth top 20 on that chart.

"Poppin'" is the first single from Joe's June 14 release, "All or Nothing." The set also features guests Jennifer Lopez, R. Kelly and Mashonda, plus a remix of "Lean Back," which had a seven-week run last summer for Joe's group Terror Squad. The Bronx, N.Y., rapper recently concluded a two-week radio tour, visiting stations in Boston, Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and Atlanta.

PEAS DON'T 'MONKEY' AROUND

The Black Eyed Peas earn their first No. 1 album as "Monkey Business" debuts on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums chart. The quartet's prior peak on the chart was No. 23 with its last set, "Elephunk," in 2003.

First single "Don't Phunk With My Heart" holds at No. 25 on billboard.com's Hot Rap Air-play chart while bulleting

5-3 on The Billboard Hot 100. Release-week stops on "Late Show With David Letterman," "Late Night With Conan O'Brien," "The Ellen DeGeneres Show" and MTV's "TRL" also help the Peas earn a new Billboard 200 peak at No. 2 and its best Nielsen SoundScan week (291,000 copies).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

SUGARLAND EXPRESS

New trio Sugarland continues to grow, as "Twice The Speed of Life" bullets at No. 4 with an 8% gain (34,000 units). Of the 399,000 it has sold since October, 348,000 were rung this year, ranking 14th among the top-selling country albums of 2005.

That makes the trio the only truly new act in this year's top 20, since rookie sets by Gretchen Wilson and Big & Rich both hit pay dirt last year.

The year's top-selling country release is Kenny Chesney's "Be As You Are: Songs From an Old Blue Chair" (936,000).

The top 20 country albums this year have sold 9.4 million, up 2.4% over the same period of 2004. Miranda Lambert (157,000) and Blaine Wilson (135,000) are among the new artists bubbling under the year-to-date top 20.

Carey's ninth No. 1 on this chart breaks a tie with Janet Jackson for most No. 1s by a female artist since 1990. Song also tops The Billboard Hot 100 and Rhythmic Top 40 charts.

Fantasia's 10th top 10 places her first among modern-day female groups. En Vogue, TLC, SWV and Xscape are left trailing.

Universal recently picked up promotion and distribution for Houston's album "Naked," which is set to chart next issue.

Miranda, at No. 56, also debuts at No. 2 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Sales.

Common, at No. 48, could sell 230,000 or more of his new album in its first week. Should bow at No. 1 on op R&B/Hip-Hop Albums next issue.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

FANTASIA SETS ADULT R&B RECORD

Last issue, Fantasia became the first female artist to have three of the top three songs on that chart, as "Truth Is" holds at No. 2 while "Free Yourself" climbs 5-3.

Since the inception of the Adult R&B list in 1994 in Billboard Radio Monitor, no artist—female, male, duo or group—has ever been represented in two of the top three titles.

To the surprise of some, Kem's "Album II" opens at No. 1 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums. He base that was clearly eager for Kem's new set at No. 5 on The Billboard Awareness was helped by Kem's adult-200 with 140,000 copies, by bows at No. 5 on The Billboard far his best sales week.

The Motown artist's debut set, "Kemistry," peaked at No. 14 on the R&B list and No. 90 on the big chart. That 2003 album (600,000 units and counting) built a solid fan

R&B hit "I Can't Stop Loving You," as well as a May 17 profile on NPR's "News & Notes With Ed Gordon." The jazzy singer, who is often compared to Al Jarreau, starts a tour June 8 with Fantasia and Rashaan Patterson.

WWE CHAMP PINS HOT SHOT BOW

World Wrestling Entertainment champion John Cena, along with Tha Trademarc, bows at No. 10 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums with "You Can't See Me." R&B and hip-hop stations have practically ignored the rap set, but the WWE's avid fan base helps slam debuts at No. 15 on The Billboard 200

(43,000 units) and No. 3 on billboard.biz's Top Rap Albums chart. The music video for track "Bad, Bad Man" aired on the WWE's various TV shows. Cena also made a number of in-store and in-ring promotional appearances during release week.

Art's highest-charting single since "Peaches & Cream" peaked at No. 2 in June 2001.

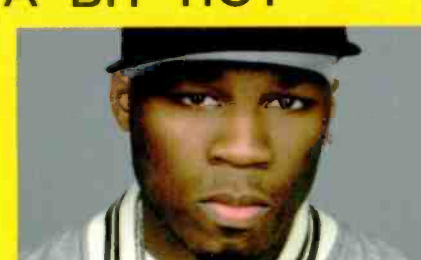

Version of track by Tori Amaze peaked at No. 53 last month and jumps to No. 70 this issue.

Album cut continues to climb with unsolicited airplay. Trio's "official" radio single, "Girl," rises to No. 15.

The fastest-climbing song of his career. Track previews West's forthcoming album, "Late Registration."

BETWEEN THE BULLETS
50 CENT MORE THAN A 'BIT' HOT
 50 Cent's "Just a Lil Bit" rises 14-6 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, becoming the fourth track from his multi-platinum "Massacre" to hit the chart's top 10 in the past three months.
 "Bit" earns the chart's Greatest Gainer/Airplay award with a 50% increase in listener impressions, for a total audience of 41.5 million at R&B/hip-hop radio outlets.

ROOKIE TOPS R&B/HIP-HOP LIST

Bobby Valentino bows at No. 1 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums with his debut solo effort, "Disturbing Tha Peace Presents Bobby Valentino." The singer enjoyed nearly 30% of his sales (180,000 units) at the R&B/hip-hop panel's core stores. This marks the sixth No. 1 on this chart for Disturbing Tha

Peace, following three Ludacris sets, a compilation and the "2 Fast 2 Furious" soundtrack. Valentino also enters The Billboard 200 at No. 3. The set was preceded by the single "Slow Down," which holds at No. 1 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs for a second week.

—Keith Caulfield

The most popular singles and tracks, according to R&B/Hip-Hop radio audience impressions measured by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems and sales data from a subset panel of core R&B/Hip-Hop stores compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. HAPPY VALENTINO DAY

The first R&B artist signed to Ludacris' DTP imprint follows in his leaders footsteps, as Bobby Valentino's "Slow Down" advances to pole position on For R&B/Hip-Hop Songs. Mair timing his crown on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Airplay chart, the Atlanta native increases his audience reach by nearly 10 million impressions at R&B signals.

"Slow Down" also moves into the top 10 of Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Singles Sales, with an increase at core stores earning it Greatest Gainer Sales. His self-titled set debuted April 26 and will make a formidable entry on next week's charts.

JUST WHO IS MIKE JONES?

Houston-based rapper Mike Jones earns the Hot Shot Debut on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and Rap Albums charts with "Who Is Mike Jones?," which enters at No. 1 on both lists. Jones has previously released three underground solo albums, appeared on the compilation "The Day Hell Broke Loose" and collaborated with indie artist Magno on "Is Round Draft Picks."

The lead single from his major-label debut on Warner Music Group's incubator label Asylum, "Still Tippin'," features Slim Thug and Paul Wall. It peaked at No. 25 on Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs, while the follow-up, "Back Then," makes an entry this issue at No. 71. Jones is best-known for asking what his name is and repeating it, along with his phone number, on his songs. —Minal Patel

BETWEEN THE BULLETS AMERIE BEATS VALENTINO TO SUMMIT

AMERIE EARNS her first No. 1 on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart with "1 Thing" despite losses in airplay and sales. Hot on her heels is Bobby Valentino's "Slow Down," with a radio gain of 7 million listeners.

Albums with the greatest sales gains this week. Catalog albums are 2-year old titles that have fallen below No. 100 on The Billboard 200 or reissues of older albums. Total Chart Weeks column reflects combined weeks title has appeared on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Catalog Albums. Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) certification for net shipment of 500,000 album units (Gold). RIAA certification for net shipment of 1 million units (Platinum). RIAA certification for net shipment of 10 million units (Diamond). Numerical following Platinum or Diamond symbol indicates album's multi-platinum level. For boxed sets, and double albums with a running time of 100 minutes or more, the RIAA multiplies shipments by the number of discs and/or tapes. RIAA Latin awards: C Certification for net shipment of 100,000 units (Oro). Δ Certification for net shipment of 200,000 units (Platino). * Asterisk indicates LP is available. Most tape prices, and CD prices for BMG and WEA labels, are suggested list prices, and all other CD prices, are equivalent prices, which are projected from wholesale prices. Greatest Gainer shows chart's largest unit increase. Pacesetter indicates biggest percentage growth. Heatseeker Impact shows albums removed from Heatseekers this week. [M] indicates past or present Heatseeker title. © 2005, VNU Business Media, Inc., and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. All rights reserved.

● Albums with the greatest sales gains this week. Catalog albums are 2-year old titles that have fallen below No. 100 on the Billboard 200 or reissues of older albums. Total Chart Weeks column reflects combined weeks title has appeared on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Catalog Albums. ● Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) certification for net shipment of 500,000 album units (Gold). ▲ RIAA certification for net shipment of 1 million units (Platinum). ◆ RIAA certification for net shipment of 10 million units (Diamond). Numerical following Platinum or Diamond symbol indicates album's multi-platinum level. For boxed sets, and double albums with a running time of 100 minutes or more, the RIAA multiplies shipments by the number of discs and/or tapes. RIAA Latin awards: ○ Certification for net shipment of 100,000 units (Dro). △ Certification of 200,000 units (Platinum). △ Certification of 400,000 units (Multi-Platinum). *Asterisk indicates LP is available. Most tape prices, and CD prices for BMG and WEA labels, are suggested lists. Tape prices marked EQ, and all other CD prices, are equivalent prices, which are projected from wholesale prices. Greatest Gainer shows chart's largest unit increase. Pacesetter indicates biggest percentage growth. Heatseeker Impact shows albums removed from Heatseekers this week. [M] indicates past or present Heatseeker title. © 2005, VNU Business Media, Inc., and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. All rights reserved.

Dash Sets Goals For Life After The Roc

BY GAIL MITCHELL

Despite all his success, entrepreneur Damon Dash says he can't afford to slow down given the current music business climate.

"There's a lot of competition out there," he says. "Only the strong survive, and that's who will come out the winner."

Dash knows a little something about winning. He is the former CEO of Roc-a-Fella Records, the label he launched with Jay-Z and Kareem "Biggs" Burke in 1995. Late last year, Island Def Jam Music Group, which owned 50% of Roc-a-Fella, acquired the remaining half and appointed Jay-Z president/CEO of Def Jam Recordings (Billboard, Dec. 18, 2004).

Now Dash and Burke are back with the Damon Dash Music Group (billboard.biz, Jan. 27). The first test for the Universal Music Group joint venture is "The B. Coming" by incarcerated rapper Beanie Sigel, released March 29 on Roc-a-Fella/Def Jam, marketed by the Damon Dash Music Group.

Dash is not letting Sigel's one-year federal sentence for gun possession impede the marketing push behind the rapper's third album. The executive is doing the promotional stumping himself at radio and—wearing clothes from Sigel's State Property line—at BET's "106 & Park" and "Rap City" and MTV's "Direct Effect."

In early March, AOL Music's First Listen program exclusively streamed the album track "Don't Stop" for 24 hours. The Neptunes-produced tune, featuring Snoop Dogg, appears alongside production contributions by Just Blaze, Buckwild, DJ Scratch, Boola and Chad "Wes" Hamilton. "The B. Coming," on which the streetwise Sigel ruminates about paranoia, regret and hope, includes cameos by Cam'ron and Jay-Z.

Then there is the film tie-in. "State Property II"—the sequel to the 2002 "State Property"—co-stars Sigel, Dash (who also directed), Omillio Sparks and rapper N.O.R.E. The Dash Films/Lions Gate Films project goes nationwide April 13. Dash Films also produced two documentaries about Sigel that aired recently on BET ("The Trial: Beanie Sigel") and MTV2 ("The Truth: Beanie Sigel").

FOR THE LOVE OF MUSIC

Sigel wrapped the movie and the album and shot five videos in five days before he entered a Philadelphia prison Nov. 8. Will it all pay off?

Fellow incarcerated rapper Shyne sold 433,000 copies of his most recent album, 2004's "Godfather Buried Alive" (Def Jam), according to Nielsen SoundScan. After nine weeks, Sigel's somber lead single, the Heavy D-produced "Feel It in the Air" featuring Melissa, is No. 63 on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Singles & Tracks chart. His previous albums, "The Truth" from 1999 and "The Reason" from 2001, have scanned 664,000 and 560,000, respectively.

Dash declares that he is more motivated by love for music than by album sales. "I'm in a place now where I wasn't at before," he says. "I'm not desperate for money. I have jewelry, clothes and movies to keep me occupied. I'm doing this because I genuinely love music. I'm putting out music when I want to and how I want to. Whether Beanie's album sells a lot or not, we'll know we gave 150%."

Dash plans to apply the same dedication to Ol' Dirty Bastard's posthumous album "A Son Unique," due in May. It is being released in association with the Wu-Tang Clan.

He also waxes enthusiastic about DDMG's other umbrella projects. These include the Dream Factory, a partnership with producer 7 Aurelius; reggaeton label Militain Musica, with N.O.R.E.; and a venture with rap act M.O.P./the First Family. The Dream Factory's first release will be by R&B singer Nicole Wray.

"I haven't done anything but hip-hop before," Dash says of breaking Wray's forthcoming record. "It's time for the music business to have a breath of fresh air."

Wray was initially signed to Dash's Roc Music division (Billboard, Nov. 8, 2003), which focused on R&B, rock, alternative and pop. Also moving over from Roc to DDMG are Rell and Melissa. In addition, Dash consults for rapper Joe Budden.

Dash has plenty of interests outside of music and movies as well. Besides the Rocawear clothing line, there is Armadale Vodka, the magazine America and Manhattan hot spot NA. On the horizon is a credit project ("to empower the community") and a venture in the mobile sector.

"Everything that has happened, I knew was going to happen, so I was prepared," Dash says. "People think Jay-Z and I are against each other and try to put a negative spin on it. But he chose to go corporate; I chose to go independent. And now I want to take my independent spirit and empower other people."

Winans' Golden City Grows

Mario Winans' nearly 2-year-old Yellow City joint venture with St. Petersburg, Fla.-based Big3 Records has ended, but he is ramping back up with label and management company Golden City Entertainment. The songwriter/producer's plans include adding a gospel imprint to Golden City.

He and Big3 chairman Bill Edwards remain friends, Florida-based Winans says, but he is excited about "making a fresh start."

The Yellow City roster included Latino singer/songwriter Lil Eddie. His debut album, "Nobody's Fool," had been slated for release last year. "Though I'm back to square one with Eddie," Winans says, "I now have a better understanding of how to get him out there the right way."

In the meantime, Winans' production slate keeps him busy. Previously signed to Bad Boy Management, Winans is now managed through Golden City, whose roster includes four other producers under the City Squad banner. Recent Winans collaborations include Faith Evans, 112, Frankie J, Mary J. Blige, Musiq, Jamie Foxx and—for the first time—his aunt CeCe Winans. You can also catch him on the remix of Stevie Wonder's "So What the Fuss." So what about Winans' singing career, which took root with the 2004 crossover hit "I Don't Wanna Know"?

"I'm just waiting to see what's happening with Bad Boy," Winans says. Formerly with Universal Music Group, Sean Combs' label has segued to Warner Music Group, according to sources.

"I don't want to disappoint people when it comes to a new album. But I'm really enjoying where I am right now. I understand things take time. But I don't want to be the gray-haired best new solo artist," Winans says with a laugh.

MUSICAL NOTES: Production and management firm Hip Hop Since 1978—whose roster includes Kanye West and producer Just Blaze—has extended its Atlantic Records pact. The firm's principals, G. Roberson and Kyambo "Hip Hop" Joshua, have been appointed senior VPs of urban A&R at Atlantic.

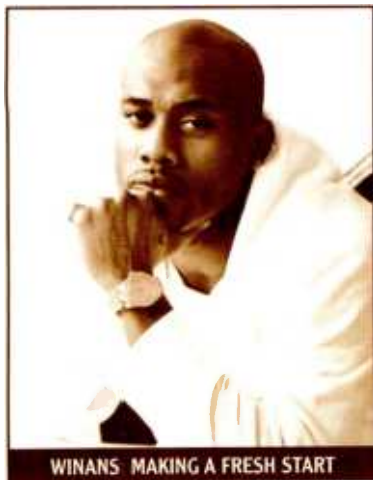

The pair is currently working with rappers Saigon and Shawn Mack. Saigon comes to Atlantic via Just Blaze's Fort Knocks Entertainment. His forthcoming debut is titled "The Greatest Story Never Told."

According to sources, Artemis has signed ex-MCA artist Jaguar Wright. Her intriguingly titled album "Divorcing Neo to Marry Soul," is due in June. First single is "Free."

KEEP AN EAR OUT FOR: Carlton Blount, a "Showtime at the Apollo" winner, backup and jingles singer (Patti LaBelle, Pepsi, Miller), and former member of the Main Ingredient, applies a four-octave range to his brand of soulful adult R&B. Blount co-wrote many of the songs on his self-produced Magnatar Records debut, "(From) a Man's Point of View," which arrived Feb. 22 via 33rd Street Records/Bayside Entertainment Distribution. The set is gaining momentum, thanks to such songs as the tender "My Wife" and the uplifting, biographical "Just Believe."

"Everybody talks about the adult market not having anything to buy because everything's geared to the younger audience," Blount says. "I wanted to do something that had today's sound from a technical standpoint. At the same time, however, I wanted to achieve some of the things that people listened for back in the day: songs with heart, passion and feeling."

Rapper Vico C Rides Reggaetón's Wave

BY LEILA COBO

In a world where reggaetón increasingly rules the urban Latin landscape, there is also space for more lyrical rap and hip-hop.

Witness "Desahogo," the March 1 release by Puerto Rican rapper Vico C, which debuted at No. 8 on the Billboard Top Latin Albums chart. While it is not a No. 1 title like reggaetón artist Daddy Yankee's "Barrio Fino," it's a strong showing for an artist with little airplay—the single "Se Escaman" is No. 33 on the Billboard Tropical Airplay chart and hasn't entered Hot Latin Tracks—and a serious message in his music.

"Our intention isn't so much to be No. 1 in radio, but to sell Vico's album and to have him playing a lot," says Jorge Pino, president/CEO of EMI Music U.S. Latin.

However, he adds, the reggaetón boom helps the 33-year-old Vico C, who is widely respected as an elder statesman of urban music in Puerto Rico.

"It's the best moment for him to come out with an album like 'Desahogo,' as there's great appetite for this genre," Pino says. "Vico doesn't have erotic or sexual lyrics, but his message is very strong and aggressive and socially aware."

HIS OWN BRAND OF MUSIC

Vico C's affinity with and distance from reggaetón can be seen in his choice of collaborators for the album, which was also released as a CD/DVD set that includes a making-of segment. Guests range from reggaetón artist Ivy Queen on the track "Echale" to salsero Gilberto Santa Rosa on "Lo Grande Que Es Perdonar" and reggae/rap act Cultura Profética on "Te Me Puedo Escapar."

The notion, Vico C says, is that while reggaetón is part of what he does, it isn't everything.

"I do reggaetón, hip-hop, fusion; I deal with strong subjects and strong melodies," says Vico C, who writes "in my house on my little piano."

"Reggaetón is defined by a rhythm; a rhythm that I use," Vico C says. "And I don't use it the way most people do. [Unfortunately] the less variety there is in the music, the more people limit the word 'reggaetón,' and that limits his message, which ranges from attacking popular culture to talking about family and taking control over one's life.

"This album is opening a new stage in my career," says Vico C, a born-again Christian and former drug addict who spent several months in jail in 2002 for parole violations associated with his drug use.

With his previous album, 2003's "Con Honor a la Verdad," recorded partly while he was in prison, "I closed a stage in my life," says Vico C, who on this album includes one song from that period, "Mami," which he wrote for his mother.

"This album represents a revolution in me in terms of action. It's what I have thought and felt for years, but now I have the intention of putting my words into action and having an effect. That's my priority. To have an effect on people."

To that aim, much of Vico C's current promotion is geared toward live performance.

"Desahogo" was launched as the first "Unplugged" special for MTV Puerto Rico. The episode will also air on MTV Español in the United States. The network promoted the special and the album weeks prior to the event, and, together with EMI, created bobblehead dolls for fans.

VICO C: DOING REGGAETÓN HIS WAY

our ability to expand on it. Reggaetón isn't a concept based on sexual content or on specific lingo associated with a country."

Vico C believes reggaetón is often associated with sexually explicit lyrics when, as he stresses, it is really a rhythm that can be applied to various lyrics and themes.

Therefore, he uses reggaetón, among other rhythms, to convey

Now, the artist is preparing a performance and promotional tour that will take him to the States and Puerto Rico as well as other markets, including Spain and Colombia, where his music is heard but where he hasn't performed.

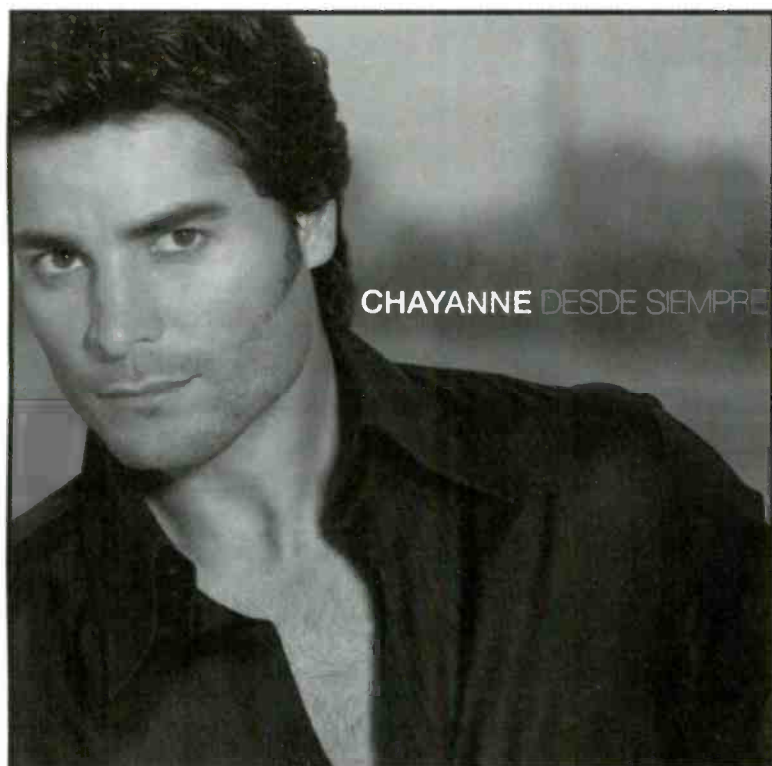

Vico C has a new management team, headed by Luis González, who previously worked with Tego Calderón, and a new publicist, Angela Rodríguez of AR Entertainment in Miami.

EMI is taking a different strategy with the marketing of "Desahogo."

Promotion-wise, the Vico C single is a departure. The A-side features the more hip-hop-leaning title track, and the B-side is the more reggaetón-tinged "Se Escaman," which features Eddie Dee. The release also includes instrumental and a cappella versions for club DJ remixes.

Short and unassuming, the youthful-looking Vico C doesn't fit the image of the tough rapper who has led a rough life.

"I want to define myself as the spokesperson of justice, love, the word of God. I don't want to show off things many people can't have, because I lose contact. It bothers me to wear a lot of gold or platinum around my neck. The way I see it, it makes people lose contact with me or see me as unreachable," the artist says. "And just because I want to create a large image, I don't want to be unreachable. For me, the priority is the message in the album."

Aguilar Plans One-Two Punch

Singer Pepe Aguilar will begin recording two simultaneous projects this month. The first, a predominantly mariachi album, is geared for release in the United States and Mexico possibly next year.

The second project, however, is the real surprise. Aguilar is planning an all-Italian pop album, for release in Argentina, Chile, Spain, Italy and other markets. He hopes the disc will be ready by year's end.

"It's going to be a turning point," says Aguilar, who is best-known for his stylized blend of pop and ranchera and his velvety tenor voice. "Whether it's good or bad, it's going to be a turning point."

The notion of an Italian album stemmed from a duet Aguilar recorded with Italian star Tiziano Ferro for Mexican reality show "Big Brother 2005." The track, "Mi Credo," was written by songwriter Fato and produced and arranged by Aguilar.

"This is the first duet I have made in my life," Aguilar says. "And it's the first song Tiziano performs that he hasn't written. So I'm very, very happy."

suddenly came and said he wanted to record a duet, of course I'd do it."

PUBLISHING MERRY-GO-ROUND: It has been a month of heavy activity for songwriters. Most prominently, Mexican singer/songwriter Aleks Syntek has signed with SESAC Latina for representation in the United States and Puerto Rico.

Syntek's most recent album, "Mundo Lite" (EMI Latin), is up for three Billboard Latin Music Awards. The artist is also featured in the Spanish-language version of the film "Robots." He voices the character Rodney and performs the movie's theme song, "Un Héroe Real."

Mexican authors' society SACM formerly administered Syntek's performance rights worldwide. Now it will handle his rights outside the States and Puerto Rico.

Syntek's publishing is through Warner/Chappell Music.

Also on the publishing end, Famous Music is making a bid for versatility with a roster of new signings that, according to senior

In Mexico, "Mi Credo" will appear on the "Big Brother" soundtrack on EMI Mexico. In the United States, EMI Latin USA will include it in a compilation, "Big Hits," due April 5.

"I'm not into duets," Aguilar admits. "I don't like them very much. But [with] Tiziano, it's something different. And, of course, I have my other exceptions. If Joaquín Sabina

• Albums with the greatest sales gains this week. Catalog albums are 2-year old titles that have fallen below No. 100 on The Billboard 200 or reissues of older albums. Total Chart Weeks column reflects combined weeks title has appeared on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Catalog Albums. • Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) certification for net shipment of 500,000 album units (Gold). • RIAA certification for net shipment of 1 million units (Platinum). • RIAA certification for net shipment of 10 million units (Diamond). Numerical following Platinum or Diamond symbol indicates album's multi-platinum level. For boxed sets, and double albums with a running time of 100 minutes or more, the RIAA multiplies shipments by the number of discs and/or tapes. RIAA Latin awards: • Certification for net shipment of 100,000 units (Dro). • Certification of 200,000 units (Platino). • Certification of 400,000 units (Multi-Platino). *Asterisk indicates LP is available. Most tape prices, and CD prices for BMG and WEA labels, are suggested lists. Tape prices marked EQ, and all other CD prices, are equivalent prices, which are projected from wholesale prices. Greatest Gainer shows chart's largest unit increase. Pacesetter indicates biggest percentage growth. Heatseeker Impact shows albums removed from Heatseekers this week. [M] indicates past or present Heatseeker title. © 2005. VNU Business Media, Inc., and Nielsen SoundScan, Inc. All rights reserved.

La Secta Calls On Telephone Co. For Support

BY RANDY LUNA

Promotional budgets for Latin alternative acts are nothing to brag about these days. But the integration of corporate dollars into the equation is balancing the odds for several acts.

Such is the case with Puerto Rico's premier rock band, La Secta. The group is releasing its fifth album, "Consejo," on Universal Music Latino, with strong marketing and promotional support from Verizon Wireless PR, a division of Puerto Rico Telephone Co.

This is La Secta's first release with a major label, but the band's association with Verizon goes back nearly three years. This time, the parties will be more closely associated than before.

An extensive promotional campaign is centered on the May 3 release of the album. The promotion runs from March 11 to May 3 and includes point-of-purchase materials (posters, banners, postcards, countertops) announcing the release date in Verizon Wireless PR's 80-plus stores and concessionaires.

A cross-promotional agreement with wholesaler Distribuidora Nacional will extend the campaign to the 55 stores that company owns under the La Gran Discoteca and Music Authority banners.

LA SECTA: RINGING IN A RELATIONSHIP WITH VERIZON WIRELESS PR

"We don't associate ourselves with everybody," explains Irmarié Cervera, director of communications for Puerto Rico Telephone.

But with La Secta, she says, "their image and the positive message of 'Consejo' makes for a perfect mix to reach a young audience. We saw that the quality of the songs goes with the company's image, and the band definitely has the appeal."

As part of the promotion, store employees of Verizon Wireless PR, La Gran Discoteca and Music Authority will wear shirts and badges promoting the album a month prior to release. The efforts also include a special telephone number that Verizon Wireless PR customers can call and listen to a message from band members while hearing a preview of "Consejo." A two-week TV and radio campaign will also promote the album.

"This is a solution to the problem we have had traditionally in which, by being independent, we haven't enjoyed an organized release," says the band's manager and attorney, Enrique Castellanos. "This is helping us tell our fans the actual release date of our album, which is very important to establish the momentum needed for commercial success by creating a snowball effect."

For the band, the association represents the payoff after 14 years of hard work, in which it self-released its first three albums on its No Little Fish label.

"It validates what we are doing, that we are going in the right direction and that we have been making the right decisions," La Secta drummer John Lengel says. "It gives us comfort" to work with such large companies as Verizon.

A SMART HABIT

This isn't the first time La Secta has paired with a major corporation in an attempt to reach a niche audience. The group's last album, 2003's "Tunel," was promoted through an agreement with Budweiser (Billboard, July 5, 2003). The beer company helped push the album with an extensive POP and billboard campaign and by absorbing the production cost of a video and two concerts at Roberto Clemente Coliseum in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Working with sponsors, Castellanos says, has become a habit.

"Even though this album belongs to Universal, I am not going to stop working. We continue to develop new ideas to help the album. Managers have to understand that they have to work in conjunction with labels," he adds.

For Verizon Wireless PR, the association is more of a way to reach a target audience; it means aligning its efforts to outdo the competition by differentiating itself from the pack.

"In the world of marketing and advertising, it has become difficult to stand out because of saturation. For La Secta, this represents a nontraditional way to promote their music while we reach consumers. It is the direction many companies and industries will take in the future," Cervera says.

Struggling To Pick The Song

"They're playing our song." Those words are, quite literally, music to the ears of songwriters, producers, radio DJs and record executives, all looking for that elusive hit. But what, exactly, are the qualities of a great song? Not just a good song, but a great one, the kind you can't stop humming and can't get out of your mind.

That was the question posed to nine people, myself included, who were asked to judge the International Songwriting Competition held at the recent Viña del Mar Festival in Chile (Billboard, March 5).

Our task was to listen to 10 live performances over the course of six nights and determine which of these previously unrecorded pieces merited the "song of the year" title and a $30,000 cash prize. Keeping in mind that the song was king, the top performer got a lesser award, of $10,000.

It was a knowledgeable group of jurors, including producer/composer Humberto Gatica, Latin Recording Academy president Gabriel Abaroa and artists Obie Bermúdez, Fey, Eduardo Gatti and Luciano Pereyra. I was there as a representative for Billboard who could also draw from experience as a classically trained pianist.

But there was no one song that satisfied our collective experience or individual expectations of what constitutes a "great" song. And, however purist we tried to be, we faced the quandary so often faced by executives and the public alike: It is difficult to divorce the song from the singer or from the arrangement. And even when music is tailor-made, the tailor may not have the best taste.

So, our preferences were fragmented. Some went for the song with simple, ingenious lyrics and inventive melody, even though its arrangement was too syrupy and its interpreter—the author—did it more harm than justice.

There was the solid but unremarkable song whose interpreter was gutsy, vivacious and, to top it all, had a great voice. There was an eclectic trio with a contemporary sound, a strong singer, but a not-so-memorable melody.

And finally, there were two ballads with strong hooks, good melodies, contemporary arrangements and lyrics with universal appeal. They were aptly performed by their two authors—each a powerful tenor—but they had something even more important going for them: We could easily imagine both of them sung by a variety of artists, beyond their countries of origin.

This turned out to be a decisive point. The winning song, many judges argued, should have the capacity to transcend the festival and even its author and performer.

The majority of votes went to "Mi Alma Entre Tus Manos," the song from Peru, written by its performer, Jorge Pardo (who also won in that category) with Jessica Sarango and Andrés Landavere.

The runners-up were "Tú No Me" (Continued on page 32)

Chile Fest Still Satisfying In Its 46th Year

BY MARCELO FERNANDEZ BITAR

VIÑA DEL MAR, Chile—Broader international exposure and newfound credibility for its songwriting competition marked the 2005 Viña del Mar International Song Festival, which came to a close Feb. 21.

The six-day event, now in its 46th year, boasted a lineup of 24 local and international acts, including such marquee names as Marco Antonio Solís, Paulina Rubio, Juanes, La Ley, Miguel Bosé, Julieta Venegas, La Oreja de Van Gogh and Diego Torres.

The stellar roster is in line with those of past years. Viña del Mar has long been regarded as Latin America's premier pop music fest and an important launch pad for new acts.

This year's edition also had its first foreign host, Venezuelan singer Ricardo Montaner.

His presence, alongside his co-host, Chilean singer Myriam Hernández (both artists are on EMI), drew even more international press to the event.

SONGS GET SPOTLIGHT

The songwriting component of the festival, which has long been regarded almost as a side attraction to the main shows, was given more relevance with an international jury that included Grammy Award-winning engineer/producer Humberto Gatica (Michael Bublé, Michael Jackson);

Latin Recording Academy president Gabriel Abaroa; artists Obie Bermúdez, Fey and Luciano Pereyra; and Billboard Latin bureau chief Leila Cobo.

"We are in a plan of frank expansion," said Ricardo de la Fuente, general direc-tioning the careers of Julio Iglesias, Sandro, José Luis "El Puma" Rodríguez, Miguel Bosé, Luis Miguel and Soda Stereo. Although the festival sometimes seems synonymous with romantic, soft-spoken ballads, it has tor of the Viña del Mar Festival. "We are looking for major sponsorships and distribution deals with top-of-the-line networks worldwide."

The festival is broadcast in 18 countries through networks that include Univision in the United States and Televisa in Mexico. De la Fuente plans to add Europe next year.

The fest has always provided the best continental exposure for new acts, with an impressive track record of pro-put together an intelligent mix of classic crooners, pop stars and popular rock bands.

For example, a typical night during this year's edition included Chilean rock stars La Ley, Mexican pop/alternative singer Venegas, Brazilian crooner Alexandre Pires and eclectic Mexican rock band Café Tacuba. The 2005 installment of the "all Chilean" night, which was established in 2000, included singer/songwriter Alberto Plaza and rock act Lucybell.

"The festival has more international [reach] than people think," says Jesús López, chairman of Universal Music Latin America/Iberian Peninsula. In addition to bringing a handful of acts to this year's fest, Universal held its Latin American Market Meetings in Viña del Mar the week of the festival.

"For developing acts, this is an important platform," López says. "For big acts, it's a platform for stardom."

In Chile, the festival's impact is based on the success of its nightly live transmission on Channel 13, which aired 10 p.m.-3:30 a.m. from the 15,000-seat Quinta Vergara amphitheater. During its six-day run, the festival attracted approximately 39% of Chile's TV-viewing population. Viewership peaked during Solís' closing-night performance, which pulled in about 62% of all viewers, the highest viewership percentage reached by the festival in the past five years.

According to Time Ibope, which measures TV viewers in Chile's major metropolitan areas, nearly 4 million people tuned in to watch Solís in those areas alone.

Beyond the music, the Viña del Mar Festival has a mix of vaudeville elements, including comedy acts and big dance numbers.

In the middle of all this is the competition. Each night, more than a dozen singers from around the world—most of them up-and-comers, although some have established careers in their native countries—sing one song each to compete for a Silver Seagull award and a cash prize of $30,000 in the international and folk categories.

The folk competition was won by Chile's Camila Mendez, a former contestant on TV talent show "Rojo," with a song by Isabel Parra. In the international competition, the winner was Peru's Jorge Pardo, singing "Mi Alma Entre Tus Manos," which he wrote with Jessica Sarango and Andrés Landavere.

The featured acts also compete for audience response awards. The notoriously picky festival audience is known as "the monster," since a thumbs-down reaction may truncate a promising career. Decades ago, audience members lit their programs and waved the torches in approval, demanding an encore. Thus, the current awards—silver and gold torches—were born. Silver Seagull awards are also given out for the audience's favorite performances.

This year, no one received a thumbs-down from the audience, although Rubio had to convince a skeptical crowd with her hits and dance steps.

Festival highlights included performances by La Oreja de Van Gogh, Bosé, Raphael, La Ley and Café Tacuba. Most impressive was Solís' two-hour set to a standing crowd that continued chanting his name for an hour after he left the stage.

Gatica Producing Albums For Bocelli, Cuevas

Grammy Award-winning Chilean producer Humberto Gatica (Celine Dion, Josh Groban) is working on a new album of romantic Italian- and Spanish-language fare for Andrea Bocelli. Repertoire will include such Latin standards as "Somos Novios" (performed as a bilingual duet) and "Bésame Mucho" (penned by the recently deceased Mexican songwriter Consuelo Velazquez).

Gatica is working with David Foster, with whom he has produced and arranged for years, going as far back as the music for the 1985 film "St. Elmo's Fire."

The Bocelli project is expected by year's end.

Gatica's recent credits include Michael Bublé; he is also producing the solo debut by Beto Cuevas, frontman of Chilean rock band La Ley. Gatica has produced past albums by the group, but he says this one presents a particular challenge.

"Beto is Beto," he says of Cuevas, whose face and voice are well-known among Latin listeners. "The idea is to make something completely different from La Ley."

Cuevas has long discussed a solo side project, which is not an indication that La Ley is disbanding. The album is set to come out on La Ley's label, Warner Music Latina.

SEEN & HEARD AT VIÑA DEL MAR: Artists and fans gathered at the recent Viña del Mar festival in Chile (see story, this page).

Mexican singer Fey, who is currently promoting her album "La Fuerza del Destino" (EMI Latin), said she is preparing to launch a tour in late spring that will take her to Mexico, the United States and Central America. This will be Fey's first tour in nearly four years. A full itinerary is yet to be determined.

Obie Bermúdez and girlfriend Jennifer Peña were heard singing "No Sé Nada de Tí" on "El Show de Christina" on the Univision network. The song was originally recorded as a duet for Bermúdez's recent EMI Latin release, "Todo el Año," but a solo version appears instead. Bermúdez said he wanted audiences to hear the duet as well.

MISROLAS ON A ROLL: Joining the slim ranks of Web sites dedicated to Latin music downloads is misrolas.com ("mis rolas" loosely translates to "my tunes"). The bilingual site launched earlier this year and focuses on Latin content from independent labels in the United States and elsewhere.

The company was founded by COO Hugo González, Scott Wied and CEO Grant Goad, who will be based in Los Angeles, and Mauricio Delgado, who is based in Mexico. The site is financed by private investors.

González, who was previously creative manager at Univision Music Publishing, says the site aims to serve a niche market hungry for independent product. In addition to unsigned bands, he says, "there are many acts who at one point or another were signed to a major but were let go because they didn't sell a certain number of albums. But those numbers are good for the indie market."

Already on misrolas.com are the catalogs of alternative Mexican labels Discos Antídoto and Discos Corasón and such acts as Enemigo and Alejandro Marcovich. Content from major labels, González says, is not a priority, as distribution deals have to be negotiated for each territory. The site seeks to provide worldwide distribution for its acts.

GATICA: WORKING WITH LA LEY'S SINGER

In addition to offering tracks and full albums for downloads, the site will include chat rooms and contributions from music writers worldwide.

Other sites that exclusively offer Latin music downloads include emusiclatino.com and emepe3.com.

Soraya Reveals A Different Side On New Set

BY LEILA COBO

MIAMI—When Soraya won the 2004 Latin Grammy Award for best singer/songwriter album, she was caught off guard.

The artist was up against some of Latin music's most venerable songwriters, including Joan Manuel Serrat, Joan Sebastian and León Giecco.

But Soraya prevailed with her self-titled album, which was released on EMI Latin after her much publicized recovery from breast cancer.

"I was incredibly surprised," Soraya says six months later, speaking at Crescent Moon Studios here, where she recorded her new album, "El Otro Lado de Mí." The new set, due March 1 on EMI Latin, showcases a different side of Soraya, one more in sync with the image of a politically minded Latin singer/songwriter.

"This album is a progression," she says of the harder-rocking project. "When something happens to people, something traumatic happens in your life, you go one of two ways. You either get all down, or you go, 'I'm going to do what I want to do.' And that's what happened with this record."

"Soraya" has sold 38,000 copies,

SORAYA: A HARDER-ROCKING NEW ALBUM

according to Nielsen SoundScan, and climbed to No. 25 on the Billboard Top Latin Albums chart. The single "Sólo Por Tí" peaked at No. 18 on Hot Latin Tracks in October 2003.

While its sales weren't strong, "Soraya" served as a comeback for the singer, whose last album for her previous label, Universal, had gone largely unnoticed because her illness coincided with its release. Then she became a prominent figure on the benefit circuit, as a spokeswoman for the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

"There are few artists who, like Soraya, have permanently flirted with success, lightly touching it without fully embracing it," says Manolo Diaz, who now heads EMI Spain but was previously head of PolyGram and then Universal Music Latin America. Diaz signed Soraya to her first major-label deal with PolyGram in the late 1990s.

"This rare type of artist usually lasts for a long time because they never bore you," Diaz adds. "But after listening to Soraya's new album, I'm afraid the relationship between her and success will end in a wedding. It's a formidable album."

Soraya's new release signals EMI's continued commitment to the artist.

"Soraya's previous self-titled album was an inspiration; it marked her return to the music scene," says Jorge A. Pino, president/CEO of EMI Music U.S. Latin. "For this album, her second with EMI, we were determined to make a musical impact."

Soraya shares production credits with Sebastian Krys (Carlos Vives, Gloria Estefan, Obie Bermúdez). The album includes the romantic, personal pop tracks that Soraya is known for, and it features distinctly Colombian elements in the instrumentation. It also includes two socially conscious tracks, the result of working with various musicians in Soraya's native Colombia.

Most notable is "Alma de la Calle," named after the pen name of Maria Amparo Amaya, a poet who shines shoes on the streets of Bogota.

Soraya met Amaya after reading an article about her in Miami's Spanish-language daily paper El Nuevo Herald.

Moved by the story of a woman who had won a national poetry contest but toiled on the streets without recognition, Soraya called the reporter who wrote the article. "I told him, 'I'm going to Colombia. Help me meet this woman,'" Soraya says. Originally, she notes, her plan was to find Amaya and play a song she had written for her.

Now Soraya is working with Colombian authorities to help Amaya fulfill a lifelong dream of building a library for the community.

The Amaya track appears on Soraya's new album, and it features the poet reciting her own work.

The album's first single, "Llévame," was serviced to radio in January. Soraya describes the track as "totally in your face and very aggressive."

Soraya is managed by Joyce Fleming at Focus Management. Her songs are published by Yami Music (BMI), administered by EMI Music Publishing.

Trevi On Comeback Trail

Five years in prison have not slowed Gloria Trevi. Released from jail last year after an acquittal (Billboard, Oct. 2, 2004), she got right to work on her comeback album, "Como Nace el Universo" (Sony BMG). Now, the singer/songwriter, at one point referred to as the "Mexican Madonna," will announce a U.S. tour during a press conference Feb. 14.

The Trevolution tour will kick off April 8 at an as-yet-undisclosed Texas location and will hit more than 40 arenas and mid-sized venues. Tickets will go on sale nationwide immediately after the press conference.

The tour is booked and produced by Guillermo Rosas of Rosas Entertainment in Los Angeles. Trevi is handled by John Regna of World Entertainment in Orlando, Fla.

Tickets are already on sale for a May 6 show in Puerto Rico. More than 1,000 tickets were sold in the first three days.

Rosas is optimistic about the tour. Aside from major Latin markets such as Los Angeles, Miami and Chicago, Rosas has booked stops in secondary markets like Cleveland and Detroit.

WHO'S THE BIGGEST OF THEM ALL?: That's the big question at the end of what has been one of the most successful retail weeks for Latin music.

Feb. 1 marked the release of studio albums by two regional Mexican superstars, Conjunto Primavera (Fonovisa) and Grupo Montez de Durango (Disa).

Ending up on top, as expected, was Grupo Montez de Durango, with "Y Sigue la Mata Dando." The album scanned more than 32,000 copies in its first week, the biggest number for a regional Mexican album in recent record for a Latin non-crossover act. AGENCY ACTIVITY: Mexican superstar Juan Gabriel has signed a worldwide representation deal with Jorge Pinos of the William Morris Agency.

The agreement doesn't include Mexico, where Juan Gabriel will represent himself.

It is not the first time the two have worked together. Pinos previously represented Juan Gabriel from 1982 to 1985.

Juan Gabriel, who frequently fills U.S. arenas, just finished a series of concerts he had to perform for promoter Hauser/CIE as part of a settlement reached in 2003.

With the Hauser/CIE deal behind him, WMA has booked Juan Gabriel for three shows in April in Texas.

Also recently signed to WMA is EMI Latin artist Obie Bermúdez. Pinos is booking Bermúdez for stops at the House of Blues clubs in Anaheim, Calif., and Las Vegas and the El Rey theater in Los Angeles.

In related news, Vicente Fernández has once again signed with Hauser Entertainment to promote his 2005 U.S. tour. This is the 21st year in which Fernández will tour with Hauser.

PERFECT IMAGE EXPANDS REACH: Perfect Image Film and Video Production in Miami has partnered with Bela Broadcasting to produce a two-hour music show that targets the Latin urban market.

"LA Mix" will air on Bela-owned stations KBEH-TV Los Angeles and KMOH-TV Phoenix. The show will air weekdays at 4 p.m. PST and will cover all contemporary Latin genres.

Another Perfect Image-produced show, "Jamz," which airs on the Mun2 network, is set to bow on the two stations in March.

Shift To U.S. Signings Drives Disa's Sales

BY LEILA COBO

Disa Records has long been regarded as a powerful force in the regional Mexican marketplace. But since 2002, the label has seen its sales grow and its market share rise to unprecedented levels.

In 2004, according to Nielsen SoundScan, Disa's share of the U.S. Latin music market was 13.05%—higher than majors like Warner, BMG and EMI—and up dramatically from its 8.45% share in 2003.

Disa executives say the label is continuing its growth, fueled by the Feb. 1 bow of Montez de Durango's new album, "Y Sigue La Mata Dando," as well as March and April releases by Horóscopos de Durango and Patrulla 81.

All of these groups are part of the duranguense movement that Disa has spearheaded, and all have been instrumental in the label's nearly 80% increase in sales during the past year. Duranguense (which is, literally, music from the Mexican state of Durango) is a danceable mix of acoustic banda elements and synthesizers.

Foremost among other factors fueling Disa's growth is Univision Music Group's acquisition of 50% of the company in 2001. (Univision is slated to buy the remaining 50% in 2006.)

Since the sale, Disa has continued to function autonomously with its own marketing, promotion, A&R and sales departments, although the two companies are in constant communication.

The sale also placed Disa under the Universal Music & Video Distribution banner and gave the label a budget for TV campaigns on Univision-owned networks.

"TV has been very important," says Domingo Chávez, who heads Disa's U.S. operation. "Those groups we signed initially, to have a spot [say], 'Montez de Durango, creators of [dance step] El Pasito Duranguense,' that starts to have an impact. I think it had a big influence."

Disa was founded in Monterrey, Mexico, and continues to have offices there. It has been owned and operated by Chávez and his siblings. In the United States, the label was first distributed by EMI Latin, which was then headed by current Univision Music Group president/CEO José Behar. Chávez describes his relationship with Behar and Univision as "flexible, with excellent communication."

Behar calls the Chávez family "very talented people. They are one of the most dedicated music business families, and they have a great knack for discovering new talent. That's why it was so enticing for us to buy half the company."

Following the Univision acquisition, several things changed for Disa. First, Chávez moved to the United States, the first family member to be based state-side. Second, the label, which had relied on home-grown Mexican talent, began to actively seek U.S.-based artists.

"We had seen sales go down and down in Mexico, and go up in the United States," says Chávez, who cites rampant piracy and economic woes as the culprits for the sales decline in his homeland. "Things were the opposite from five years ago, where you sold three copies in Mexico for every copy sold here. We had to come with the idea of finding talent here."

Chávez discovered a gold mine in Chicago, where several groups, including Montez de Durango, had loyal followings but had not been exploited elsewhere. "Attention was centered on Los Angeles and Miami," he says. "And Chicago was forgotten, even though there are many Mexicans there."

Following Montez de Durango's success in 2003, other duranguense groups broke out of Chicago. And while other labels joined the movement, Disa was particularly successful with Montez de Durango, Horóscopos de Durango and Patrulla 81.

Now, Chávez says, a majority of his new acts are from the United States and 50% of his roster is based state-side.

"U.S. groups are the ones people see, dance to and listen to here. We release them here first, make them hit here first and then take them to Mexico," Chávez says.

While Chávez is the first to acknowledge that the duranguense movement has been instrumental to the label's recent growth, other elements have been involved. Disa is in many ways a traditional company—it has yet to explore digital downloads or ringtones, for example—but it is also progressive and adaptable.

The company counts some 200 employees and 70 acts on its roster. It has savvy A&R, along with its own publishing arm, which, according to Chávez, is nearly as profitable as the label. While Disa artists aren't required to sign with Disa Publishing, most do.

Disa cuts costs dramatically by recording, mixing and mastering most of its albums in its Monterrey studios. Production and design are handled in Mexico, further lowering costs.

At a sales level, Disa keeps its prices low: the average album sells for $7 to retailers. The company sets its prices in Mexico on par with those in the States, to avoid parallel imports.

According to Disa executive VP of sales and marketing Jeff Young, all elements have contributed to increased sales for all of the label's accounts, from independent one-stops to mass merchants.

"The Wal-Mart and Kmart customer is the Disa customer," Young says, citing the affordability of the albums.

Will 2005 be another good year? Disa is banking on its established duranguense stars for hefty sales. But it is also pushing several new acts in the tierra caliente subgenre, which is similar to duranguense. They include duo Toño y Freddy, whose album is due in March.

Anthony Likely To Enjoy Big Grammy Night

The Latin Grammy Awards, held in September, had 43 categories in which to celebrate Latin music. Following that presentation, it is a bit disconcerting to see so many different styles of Latin music seemingly haphazardly mashed together in the Latin field for the mainstream Grammys, which will be presented Feb. 13.

Here, rap dukes it out with alternative and edgy pop in the best Latin rock/alternative album category. Ranchero plays against grupero and norteño in the maddeningly broad best Mexican/Mexican-American album category. And the best Tejano and best traditional tropical album categories are largely repositories for albums few people have even heard of, let alone listened to.

By the same token, it's worth noting that two non-Latin categories, best traditional world music album and best contemporary world music album, are dominated by Latin (including Spanish) titles.

But, in keeping with tradition, Latin Notas will stick with the Latin categories in doling out our take on who should win and who will win.

BEST LATIN POP ALBUM: Should win: A tie between Diego Torres' "Diego Torres: MTV Unplugged" (BMG) and Carlos Vives' "El Rock de Mi Tierra" (EMI Latin). The first for being one of the finest "MTV Unplugged" sets in recent memory—a blend of taste and good commercial music. As for Vives, he may not have sold as well as expected, but "El Rock" shows that there are no boundaries within a genre. I wouldn't have placed this vallenato/rock album in a pop category, but even here, it stands out.

Will win: Marc Anthony's "Sin Mentiras" (Sony) vacillates between shining moments and run of the mill. But the vocals are as glorious as only Anthony can make them. And his name is more widely recognized than anyone else's.

BEST LATIN ROCK/ALTERNATIVE ALBUM: Should win: Like Carlos Vives in the pop album category, urban/regional pioneer Akwid went the extra mile with its "Komp 104.9 Radio Compa" (Univision), an album that blends grit and musicality.

Will win: Juanes' "Mi Sangre" (Surco/Universal) may not be particularly innovative, but it boasts strong songs and shines with poetic lyricism. And he's a Grammy favorite.

BEST TRADITIONAL TROPICAL LATIN ALBUM: Should and will win: In a sea of quaintness and little-known names, we have to go with bassist Israel Lopez Cachao's "Ahora Sí!" (Univision). No one else in this bunch has Cachao's name recognition (just think Andy Garcia) paired with the musical credibility. In addition, unlike his competitors, Cachao had the virtue of including his own, new compositions, as opposed to rehashing old Cuban material.

BEST SALSA/MERENGUE ALBUM: Should win: This category hasn't been this exciting in years. These are all top albums. But my favorite is Gilberto Santa Rosa's "Travesía" (Sony), a thrilling mix of tropical styles elevated by the artist's fine voice.

Will win: Marc Anthony's "Valió La Pena" (Sony), thanks to his vocals and Sergio George's salsa arrangements, which in many cases improve upon the originals found in the pop category.

BEST MEXICAN/MEXICAN-AMERICAN ALBUM: Should win: An even toss between Intocable's "Intimamente" (EMI) and Los Temerarios' "Veintisiete" (Fonovisa). The former went out on a limb by recording a regional Mexican album in an acoustic setting. An unusual concept, and it works. The latter has released what may be the group's best album ever.

Will win: Perennial favorite Ramón Ayala y Sus Bravos del Norte with "Títire En Tus Manos" (Freddie Records), who are just as consistent and worthy as well.

SALUTE TO SANTANA: Carlos Santana will be honored as a BMI Icon at the 12th annual BMI Latin Awards, slated for April 21 at the Four Seasons Hotel in Las Vegas.

This marks the first time an Icon award—given in recognition of "unique and indelible influence on generations of music makers"—will be presented during the Latin Awards. Past Icons include Chuck Berry, James Brown and Dolly Parton.

The awards honor the songwriters and publishers of the most-played Latin songs on U.S. radio and TV. Awards given out include Latin song, songwriter and publisher of the year.

Albums with the greatest sales gains this week. Catalog albums are 2-year-old titles that have fallen below No. 100 on the Billboard 200 or reissues of older albums. Total Chart Weeks column reflects combined weeks title has appeared on the Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Catalog Albums. ● Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) certification for net shipment of 500,000 album units (Gold). ▲ RIAA certification for net shipment of 1 million units (Platinum). ◆ RIAA certification for net shipment of 10 million units (Diamond). Numerical following Platinum or Diamond symbol indicates album's multi-platinum level. For boxed sets, and double albums with a running time of 130 minutes or more, the RIAA multiplies shipments by the number of discs and/or tapes. RIAA Latin awards: ○ Certification for net shipment of 100,000 units (Oro). △ Certification of 200,000 units (Platino). ▲ Certification of 400,000 units (Multi-Platino). * Aster

A Nueva Generation Hits The Road

BY LEILA COBO

MIAMI—A new tour that seeks to target a young, diverse regional

VILLARREAL: ONE OF SIX ACTS GOING ON THE ROAD

Mexican audience is set to kick off Feb. 25 in Oakland, Calif.

The Gira Nueva Generación 2005 (New Generation Tour 2005), which will be announced at a Jan. 11 press conference in Los Angeles, will feature performances by Univision TV host Sissi, A.B. Quintanilla & Kumbia Kings, Alicia Villarreal, Joan Sebastian, Rogelio Martínez and Pablo Montero. Sissi has recorded her first album to coincide with the tour, which will visit midsize venues and arenas.

All six acts will perform at each of the tour's 20 stops. Rosas Entertainment, an entertainment/marketing firm based in Los Angeles, booked the tour. The trek ends April 24 in Sacramento, Calif.

"The notion was to find diverse talents who could reach different audiences," says Guillermo Rosas, CEO of Rosas Entertainment. "It's regional Mexican music but with innovative elements."

Villarreal, recently nominated for a Latin Grammy Award for "Cuando el Amor Se Cruza" (Universal), says she is using the tour to debut a new stage production, in which husband Cruz Martínez (of Kumbia Kings) is heavily involved.

"It's very Mexican, but very [universally] Latin," says Villarreal, who will perform new material as well as tracks from her Límite days. "We're also changing the look, the outfits, the lighting. It will be something very special."

At the same time, having an established artist like Sebastian on the tour gives it a different dimension, Rosas says. Sebastian will be the last one to perform each night before a grand finale incorporating all the acts.

Gira Nueva Generación will feature a talent contest at each stop organized by a local radio station. Each winner will get to perform in his or her city.

A final winner will be chosen once the tour ends. The grand prize will be a record deal (on a label to be determined), with the debut album featuring songs written by Sebastian and produced by Quintanilla and Martínez.

identity, the tour is sponsored by El Mexicano, a brand of food products, and by cable network Azteca America.

Azteca says it will air a national TV campaign, as well as a special on the talent contest. As for El Organizing all aspects of the tour, Rosas admits, has been a "logistical nightmare," given that 130 people will travel to each of the stops.

Also, in a departure, Gira Nueva Generación does not have any major mainstream brand names behind it. Instead, in keeping with its Mexican Mexicano, Rosas says this is his second major partnership with the company, which also sponsored Alejandra Guzmán's U.S. tour last year.

Rosas also hopes to snag a major beverage company for support.

Tickets for Gira Nueva Generación go on sale Jan. 11.

Bermúdez's 'Year' Already Hot

Last November, when Obie Bermúdez released the album "Todo el Año" (All Year Long), Jorge Pino, president/CEO of EMI Latin USA, promised that by year's end audiences would be "breathing and seeing Obie Bermúdez."

This week, the title track from the album notches its second consecutive week at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot Latin Tracks Chart. The song was penned by Bermúdez and Elsten Torres and produced by Sebastian Kryz and Joel Somellian.

"It's basically a story about a guy who breaks up with a woman," Bermúdez says. "There are times when he's OK, and there are months where he's not doing much and he has a hard time."

The title refers to the passing months of the year. "It's very emotional. And when it's all over, he comes back to January and everything starts all over again," he says.

"Todo el Año" is getting airplay on pop and tropical formats.

Bermúdez's No. 1 ends the 12-week reign of Juanes' "Nada Valgo Sin Tu Amor," the first single from his album "Mi Sangre" (Surco/Universal). The song drops to No. 3 this issue on Hot Latin Tracks. Another Universal artist, Paulina Rubio, is at No. 2 with "Dame Otro Tequila," from her 2004 album "Pau-Latina."

Rising quickly on the charts are singles from two powerhouse albums due in February. Grupo Montez de Durango is at No. 9 with "Quiero Saber De Ti," and Intocable is at No. 15 with "Invisible."

Intocable's "X," due Feb. 15, commemorates the band's 10th anniversary. The two-CD release includes a new studio album and a disc featuring guest artists performing Intocable's songs.

ESTEFANO GOES SOLO: Producer/singer/songwriter Estéfano, whose 2004 album credits include Marc Anthony's "Valió la Pena," has signed a solo deal with Universal Music Latino.

Estéfano's last stint as an artist was as part of the duo Donato & Estéfano (with Donato Poveda) in the 1990s. That relationship yielded a handful of successful albums for Sony, and the duo became a household name throughout Latin America.

Three years ago, Poveda released a solo album with BMG. Estéfano has spoken about returning to his recording career for a couple of years. His new album is due in March.

PUTUMAYO'S LATIN MOVE: Leandro Herbstein has been promoted to the newly created position of director of Latin and Caribbean promotion at Putumayo World Music. He was previously the label's publicity manager. In his new post, Herbstein will oversee all Latin publicity, media, events and Web promotion in the United States and Latin America.

The position reflects Putumayo's increased interest in the Latin marketplace, within the United States and in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Herbstein says Putumayo's sales rose 92% from 2003 to 2004 for all Latin accounts, including U.S. Latin. Last year, the label began distribution in Brazil, Argentina, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Bolivia and Belize. Putumayo product can be found in all Latin countries, except for El Salvador, Honduras and Cuba.

For 2005, Herbstein says, "we expect to grow our Latin sales by 30% to 50% both in the U.S. and Latin America."

Putumayo's four top-selling catalog titles are Latin. Its top seller is "Cuba," first released in 1997.

Of the approximately 12 CDs Putumayo plans to release in 2005, so far, three of them are Latin-themed. The first, "Acoustic Brazil," is due in February.

GOOD DEEDS: Shakira visited two schools Dec. 26 in Bogotá, Colombia. The trip was funded by her Pies Descalzos Foundation.

Shakira met with children from the Gabriel García Márquez School and from a new school being built in Altos de Cazucá, a Bogotá neighborhood known for its growing population of rural residents fleeing Colombia's war-torn countryside. The school is slated to open in February and will house 380 children.

Shakira's foundation provides tuition, food and psychological services to 2,600 underprivileged children in five Colombian schools.

Pies Descalzos operates in Colombia with support from the International Migration Organization, USAID, Los Andes University and local organizations.

Tito Nieves Embarks On Losing Mission

Salsa singer Tito Nieves has embarked on a campaign to lose. Nieves—whose most recent single, “Fabricando Fantasías,” hit No. 1 on the Billboard Tropical Airplay chart last year—has announced that he plans to lose a whopping 100 pounds.

So committed is he to the endeavor that he announced it on Univision’s popular TV show “Don Francisco.” Additionally, Nieves is scheduled to have regular on-camera weigh-ins. When he is done with the program, he says, he will write a book about his experience.

All proceeds from the book’s sales will go to the Omy Nieves Foundation at New York’s Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. The foundation was created in memory of Nieves’ eldest son, Omy, who died last year of Ewing’s sarcoma at the age of 24. Donations to the foundation can be made through titonieves.com.

Nieves’ “Fabricando Fantasías” also deals with the death of his son.

In addition to losing weight and writing (by the way, no publisher for the book has been secured yet), Nieves will be celebrating his 30th anniversary in show biz next year. Wife Irma, who acts as his manager and booking agent, is planning an anniversary U.S. tour of performing arts centers.

Also in the works is a calendar, which will feature Nieves—before he sheds his pounds—modeling the hip clothes for which he’s known.

MOCK & ROLL EXPANDS: Indie label/promotion/marketing company Mock & Roll is going through a renovation of sorts to kick off 2005.

Founded as a label in 2001 by Francisco Villanueva and Rogelio Macín, Mock & Roll has added two partners: Fernando Ramos, who will head the company’s new operations in Puerto Rico, and George Major, who will head its independent promotion arm.

Mock & Roll will continue to have offices in Los Angeles and Miami, in addition to the Puerto Rican operation.

Ramos, Macín and Major worked together under Villanueva when he was managing director of BMG U.S. Latin in the late 1990s.

“What’s interesting is the combination of elements,” says Villanueva, who manages such artists as Melina León. Mock & Roll also handles independent promotion for acts from other labels.

Mock & Roll, the label, continues to grow, Villanueva says. It focuses on compilations and such niche genres as cumbia sonidera and bachata.

“For a long time, we worked catalog,” Villanueva says. Now, with steady income flowing from that catalog, “we can go try to break acts. The business model of being a company where one star pays all the bills doesn’t work for me.”

Mock & Roll label acts include Los Telez and El Gringo de la Bachata.

NEW VENTURE: In a departure from its traditional role, Universal Music Publishing Group’s Latin division has ventured into artist development.

Salsa singer Jay Lozada, whom Universal signed as a songwriter in 2000, has just released an album financed by the publishing company.

“Jamás Pensé,” which arrived Dec. 7, 2004, was licensed to indie label Loudes 68, which is distributed through Universal Music Latino. Loudes will be in charge of marketing and promoting “Jamás Pensé.” Lozada wrote all the tracks except “Me Patina El Coco,” a tropical/reggaetón song co-written with El Boodah, who is featured on it.

Loudes owner Oscar Guitián has a second label, Guitián Brothers, in partnership with Universal Music Latino. El Boodah is signed to Guitián Brothers.

Although UMPG has had a recording studio in its Miami offices for a little more than a year, this is its first official endeavor in that arena.

“This is the first time we finish[ed] a product and licens[ed] it,” says Iván Alvarez, senior VP for Latin America at UMPG, which owns the recording’s master. Future projects, he adds, will depend on the success of this one.

“Our goal is be a full-service operation for our songwriters and see how we develop,” he says.

UMPG is not the first Latin publishing company to venture into the recording arena.

Last summer, Peermusic recorded the debut album by tropical/pop duo Bachá, whose two members are signed to Peermusic as songwriters. The album was released on Sony.

NIEVES WILL WRITE A BOOK ABOUT HIS QUEST TO LOSE 100 POUNDS

RUBEN BLADES HONORED: ASCAP will celebrate its 13th annual Latin Music Awards—El Premio ASCAP—April 5 at the Hammerstein Ballroom in New York.

The event will honor the songwriters and publishers of ASCAP’s most-performed Latin songs of 2004.

This year’s recipient of the ASCAP Founders Award will be Rubén Blades. The Founder’s Award, ASCAP’s most prestigious honor, is given to songwriters who have made “pioneering contributions to music by inspiring and influencing their fellow music creators.”

Blades, an actor, songwriter and singer with successful careers in Hollywood and Latin music, is also minister of culture for Panama.

LOZADA: UNIVERSAL MUSIC PUBLISHING GROUP FINANCED HIS ALBUM ‘JAMÁS PENSÉ’

Gloria Trevi’s “Como Nace el Universo” (Sony Discos) debuted at No. 4 on the Billboard Top Latin Albums chart last month. The set marks her return to recording after spending almost five years behind bars. Trevi is pictured during an in-store appearance at a Ritmo Latino outlet in East Los Angeles. Nearly 1,000 fans showed up to get their albums signed.
