JIMMY DEAN'S VIEW

'Pure' Country Music to Play Powerful Role in Network TV

By PAUL ACKERMAN

NEW YORK—Country music, currently at the peak of its popularity in the record business, may soon move into a position of influence and power on network TV.

The vehicle seen as paving the way for this development is "The Jimmy Dean Show," the ABC-TV Thursday night airtel which in recent weeks has been increasingly country flavored.

The emphasis on country acts and country songs has not been accidental. Jimmy Dean, whose knowledge of the country field is profound, is a firm believer in the power of this material on TV if properly programmed.

"It is the most powerful vein of song material in the land," Dean stated in an interview last week while indicating he would pursue the program policy of bringing to the network audience the best in country music and country artists.

Not unmindful of the success of "The Beverly Hillbillies," Dean nevertheless indicated that his approach would be a broader and different one. He is opposed to a "tongue-in-cheek" treatment of country music. He believes it is best presented in its pure, authentic form.

"The show still reaches more homes than any other program on the station, or any other competing programs," said Deane. "I'm well aware that the show is not as powerful today as it was six years ago. However, I do understand, too, the many problems that WJZ's management has had in connection with the show that seem unresolvable in this market," he said.

Keep It Pure

"Dress it up, yes, but retain its purity," the star stated. In connection with this philosophy, it is known that Dean is presently studying the country repertoire and available lists of country talent—with a view toward integrating in his ABC-TV show virtually the entire spectrum of the country field—ranging from the great traditional period which reached its peak in the late 1940's and early 1950's during the era of the late Hank Williams—to the modern era of today, a period wherein country

Victor Wants Its New Artists to Have Longer Market Run

NEW YORK — RCA Victor has blueprinted its 1964 marketing and advertising philosophy around the concept of giving "new artists and recent catalog additions a longer run in the marketplace." Harry Jenkins, division vice-president, Marketing, noted that traditional industry practice has been to advertise new packages for a brief period after their release and then leave them — along with catalog merchandise — "to generate their own sales momentum."

He added that the 1964 concept will be "to place advertising and promotion emphasis on product with proven sales potential, as well as on newly-introduced artists, for as long a period of time as that product sustains its market appeal."

Details of the planning include the following points: (1) A 50 per cent increase in local advertising on a nationwide basis; (2) added sales, advertising and promotion incentives on new releases, and (3) a continuation of the current pricing structure on catalog merchandise.

The Billboard understands that the discount to distributors on catalog merchandise is 10 per cent—which is a continuation of the pricing structure enunciated at RCA Victor's Greenbriar meeting last August. Obviously, a larger discount will be applicable on new releases. No formula has been set for the latter discounts, as these will be designed to fit the needs of the individual product releases.

Jenkins added that throughout the year, campaigns will be initiated to promote product by new artists. Ethel Ennis' package, "This Is Ethel Ennis" will receive this treatment. Similarly, "follow-up" campaigns on relatively new artists, as Sergio Franchi and John Gary, will be implemented.

Within this marketing-advertising program, the label's artists with proven sales success will be backed by intensive nationwide advertising, promotion and publicity. This backing or support will apply to their current and catalog product and will continue month after month, as long as sales action justifies each individual campaign.

"Each RCA Victor record . . . that indicates a significant sales potential, will be supported more heavily than ever before in our history . . ." Jenkins concluded.

Csida Heads New Dep't

NEW YORK—Billboard Publisher Hal B. Cook last week announced the formation of a special projects development department to explore and create new services to aid the music-record industry. Cook appointed Andy Csida as general manager of the new department. Csida had served Billboard as its sales director for the past several years.

Cook named Pete Heine, Bill-

Wants Pay, Pension Boosts, Penalty Fee

By JACK MAHER

NEW YORK—The American Federation of Musicians (AFM) presented its new contract demands to the recording industry at special manufacturer-union meetings held here Wednesday (11) and Thursday (12). The union is asking higher wage scales, an increase in the pension fund percentage, penalties for late payment of musician recording fees, and double time for premium time recording sessions, among other stipulations.

The first two sessions, held Wednesday and Thursday of last week, were preliminary meets in which the AFM first made formal presentation of its requests and then, on the following day, held question and answer periods with major and independent labels represented by the Recording Industry Association (RIAA). Manufacturers held an informal meeting Wednesday at the Hotel Warwick following formal presentation of the new contract demands. Actual bargaining will begin this week.

The AFM is asking for an accelerated wage scale increase for its members for the next three-year contract period. The union wants the minimum scale for recording musicians raised from the present $56 to $61 for a three-hour session effective January 1, 1964. The AFM then wants that scale moved up to $65 in 1965, and $69 in 1966.

In connection with this, the union also wants a 10-minute break for recording musicians for each hour they are on a date. This would hike the total time of breaks from the current 20 minutes per three-hour session to 30. Therefore, actual recording time would run 2 hours and 30 minutes for the prescribed three-hour session.

Premium hour pay, as outlined in the union manifesto, would be paid for all dates conducted on holidays, Sundays, and any recordings made between the hours of midnight and 9 a.m. Premium pay, of course, is double time for all scale musicians.

NOBODY TALKS ON AFM PACT

NEW YORK—Manufacturer reaction to the American Federation of Musicians proposals made Wednesday (11) was guarded. None of the industry spokesmen contacted at press time would comment for publication, pending further study of the proposals. Almost all off-the-record comment, however, was critical of the proposals. Many thought the demands were excessive and were only a basis for further negotiations. A few industry leaders were critical of the penalty assessments for late payment of fees.

Also included in the AFM proposals are a hiking of pension fund payments made by record companies from 8 to 10 per cent.

Penalty Costs

The union is also demanding penalty assessments for late payment of musician fees. The union is asking for recognition of a 5 per cent penalty for payments made later than five days and 10 per cent if the fees come in later than 30 days.

It is also expected that the AFM will ask for an adjustment of fees for classical recording, these currently are below payments made for pop music dates. There is the distinct possibility that the union will ask for a different formula of payment, bringing the longhair fees up closer to those paid for pop dates.

New proposals are being formulated by the AFM for the impending contractual negotiations with network TV companies. The AFM contract with NBC, CBS and ABC expires February 1, 1965, and it is known that the union will push for new contract stipulations covering the employment of staff and free-lance musicians on network TV shows.

Columbia Signs Robert Horton

NEW YORK—Robert Horton, star of the new Broadway musical, "110 in the Shade," has been signed by Columbia Records, according to his personal manager, Norman Rosemont. Horton, who broke into professional singing working in the summer tent circuit in such musicals as "Carousel," "Oklahoma" and "Brigadoon," after leaving the TV series, "Wagon Train," received top notices for his singing in the Broadway vehicle.

ANDY WILLIAMS' YULE MARK: TOPS 2 CHARTS

NEW YORK—Columbia's Andy Williams gave the label a first place in both the singles and albums derby, according to Billboard's special Christmas sales recap last week. For the first time in the Christmas listings Williams scored with his "White Christmas" single and his "Andy Williams Christmas Album."

In the album running, Columbia held the top position with eight of the 25 packages listed, including three in the top 10. Victor took second honors with four on the parent label and two others on its low-priced Camden line. Capitol placed third with three Christmas best sellers. On the chart with one album each were Decca, Mercury, 20th Century-Fox, London, Liberty, Philips, MGM and Argo.

In the singles area, Decca and Capitol tied with four listings each out of 16 records reported showing healthy sales on this week's best selling Christmas singles chart. Liberty placed two on the list (both by the Chipmunks) while Columbia, 20th Century-Fox, King, Mercury, Epic and Warner Bros. landed one each on the list.

The CBS Talking Fence will continue with its current display through the holidays, after which time those albums which are specifically geared to Christmas will be replaced by more general product. Schuyler Chapin, vice-president of creative services for Columbia Records, noted that more than 110,000 persons picked up telephones in first week. Display serves as double function. Each phone registers the number of times receiver is lifted which could amount to a popularity poll. Artists represented include Andy Williams, Tony Bennett, Barbra Streisand, Dion DiMucci, Mahalia Jackson, Dave Brubeck, Miles Davis, Vladimir Horowitz, Igor Stravinsky, Glenn Gould, Eugene Ormandy and the late Bruno Walter.

Baltimore Station Drops Deane Show

BALTIMORE—The record industry loses another powerful showcase for records and talent with the dropping of the Buddy Deane show January 4 from the schedule of WJZ-TV in Baltimore.

WJZ-TV official reasons for dropping the Deane show were outlined as "a design to broaden the appeal of the Channel 13 program schedule, hence enable the station to better serve more of its potential audience... his (Buddy Deane) appearance have been altered appreciably in six years. During this period of time the tastes and viewing habits of WJZ-TV viewing audience..."

Bobby Weiss Quits Warners

PARIS—Bobby Weiss has resigned as international director of Warner Bros. Records, effective December 31, to launch his own world-wide record and music business agency. The new Weiss operation, titled the International Holding Company, Ltd. (IHC), will start in January 1964.

Weiss' IHC will be a consultation service for, and international representative of, American and foreign record labels; IHC will also co-ordinate American and foreign motion picture music activities, and will engage in independent record production. Other activities will include TV film purchases and sales in behalf of American and foreign companies; management of artists and handling their world-wide bookings, and acquisition of products allied to the entertainment field for international marketing.

Weiss stated there is now a definite need for someone to negotiate foreign licensing agreements and act as liaison for American and European interests.

After Testing, Col. to Still Scrap Cut-Outs

NEW YORK—Columbia Records, after a nine-month test of scrapping cut-outs, has decided to continue destroying deleted product rather than dumping it on the market, Billboard learned last week. It was also learned that Epic, not included in its sister label's test, also will start scrapping its cut-outs.

Bill Gallagher, Columbia's marketing vice-president, told Billboard that the label's test proved that the elimination of its cut-outs from the market substantially strengthened the appeal of its current product. Also, it is apparent that this was a necessary step in Columbia's drive toward its price stabilization goal.

Gallagher estimated scrapping cut-outs will lose Columbia approximately $500,000 per year in recouped manufacturing costs it could pocket by dumping this product on the market. He feels this loss is more than offset by preserving the label's firm price image and the elimination of its own cut-rate competition with its current product.

NARM to Meet in N.Y.

NEW YORK—Board of directors of the National Association of Record Merchandisers, Inc., will meet on January 13 and 14 at the Summit Hotel here, according to Jules Malamud, NARM executive director. While announcing the meeting, Malamud also stated that the board had accepted the resignation of Edward M. Snider, founder of Edge, Ltd., and a charter member and past president of NARM. Edge, Ltd., has been bought by Cecil H. Steen of Recordwagon, Inc., Woburn, Mass.

John Billinis, of Billinis Distributing Company, Salt Lake City, was elected by the board

2 More Distribs Fold On Coast; 7 This Year

LOS ANGELES—Pico Boulevard—the West Coast's record row—continues to lose its distributor clientele. Two distributors have just gone out of business, making a total of seven firms which have closed this year.

The newest additions to the attrition list are Buckeye and Melrose distributors. One month ago Cosnat became Cleff in an ownership switch, two months ago Milton's closed, four months ago Angelus folded, six months ago Limax closed and Sun State switched over to a one-stop operation.

Ted Distributors has replaced Melrose, with Ted Ray as head and handling several indie lines. Buckeye's owner was Dorothy Freeman, who also owns Dot Distrib. Angelus was formerly owned by Ed Mason and Jay Lasker, who are now involved in rack jobbing and disk manufacturing, respectively, for Record Racks and Vee Jay. Limax was closed by Max Firetag, who continues with Limax Music and Flip Records.

The old Cosnat outlet was sold by Jerry Blaine to Ray Shevin who changed the name to Cleff.

"This rather large turnover is indicative of what's happening to the business," remarked Jack Lewerke, head of Merit Distributing, which recently bought the two Sam's jazz retail stores.

"The distributor today has one more job that he didn't have 10 years ago," he said, "and that's financing. Today's distributor has to help finance many of his large users. Not many distributors have this financial backing, which means that we'll end up with fewer and fewer companies, but those that survive will be larger and able to handle all their billings."

Reprise in Distrib Moves

HOLLYWOOD—Reprise has made eight distributor appointments effective immediately. Commercial Music is the new distrib in St. Louis; Gerber in Buffalo; Tell in Milwaukee; Alpha in New York; Laredy in Newark, N. J., and Arnold in Charlotte, N. C.

In El Paso, Bill Davis' Denver firm is handling both Reprise and Warner Bros. while Los Angeles' Hart handles both lines in the Phoenix, Ariz., market.

to complete Snider's term as director.

Steen, NARM president, stated that foremost on the agenda will be the FTC's upcoming phonograph industry trade practice conference. The board will meet with Albert A. Carretta, attorney and FTC specialist, recently retained by NARM.

Plans for the Sixth Annual NARM Convention, April 19-23, 1964, at the Eden Roc Hotel, Miami Beach, will be blueprinted. In addition to Steen,

Memorials to Pres. Kennedy Carry Weight in LP Market

By REN GREVATT

NEW YORK—Albums memorializing the late President John F. Kennedy are having a heavy impact on the pre-Christmas disk market place. At week's end, manufacturers were claiming virtually around-the-clock pressing activity "trying to keep up with orders." This condition was in marked contrast to that obtaining in connection with various single records containing material related to the recent death of the President.

Three of the fastest-moving of the Kennedy albums are out on budget (99-cent) lines and these appear to be getting the heaviest retail action at the moment. These are available through Premier Albums, Pickwick International and Ambassador (Diplomat label). Twentieth Century-Fox has an album out at $3.98 and a new firm Documentaries Unlimited also released a full price set, though it's understood the latter is now selling for $1.98 in some locations. Decca is also in the race with the sound track to the BBC-TV memorial show, "That Was the Week That Was," and claims strong action.

Premier got out first and was actually shipping five days after the event, according to the firm's president, Phil Landwehr. He said that currently, 16 pressing plants are turning out the LP's, which he indicated have now been shipped in quantities approaching 1,000,000.

Benefit LP

Premier and WMCA have agreed to turn over their royalties to the Joseph Kennedy Jr. Foundation for Mental Retardation. He added that arrangements are now being made to bring out a full-price ($3.98) companion to the current 99-cent item, which will contain the news coverage of the Dallas tragedy by a different New York station.

A spokesman for Ambassador Records, which has a 99-cent Diplomat label LP containing a number of Kennedy speeches and comments, declined to reveal actual sales figures. "It's just fantastic and that's all they'll let me say right now," he commented.

Close to 1,000,000 copies of the Pickwick-produced LP have been shipped in the first six days of its release, according to the firm's president, Cy Leslie. He said that shipments are going out from four depots now and nine pressing plants are in action.

"We didn't get into this thing until last week, because we didn't want to see anybody get into it. But when others did, we felt we had to go," said Leslie. . . . "We're replenishing supplies at the rate of about 150,000 a day. There is one difficulty, however. Many dealers are now going into a sort of panic or shock that they won't be able to get a supply. So some of them are duplicating or even tripling orders—the same orders. In other words, when one order is filled, they cancel the others, so you can have a certain inflation factor."

Solid Action

At 20th Century-Fox, which has issued a $3.98 list LP with numerous of the Kennedy speeches,

ABC-PARA SETS DISTRIB MEET

NEW YORK — ABC-Paramount Records has scheduled its first distributor meeting of 1964 at the Eden Roc Hotel, Miami Beach. The meeting will take place January 9. The firm will introduce the biggest group of albums in its history, a total of 30 LP's, including material from its Impulse jazz subsidiary.

SILENT REVOLUTION

Disks Dent Red Jazz Barrier

By ELIOT TIEGEL

HOLLYWOOD — The silent revolution to break jazz loose in Russia has been aided decisively by the phonograph record. This is the opinion of composer-conductor-disk artist Elmer Bernstein, who professes amazement at the great amount of modern jazz he heard being played in Moscow while a delegate to the recent Moscow Film Festival.

Bernstein said that all the players looked under 30 and were serious in their intent to play "progressive" jazz. "The kindest thing any American going to the Soviet Union could do, would be to bring along a stack of jazz records," Bernstein said.

He explained that the Russian jazzmen were only imitating that which they have heard on American jazz recordings, probably listened to illegally in the past over the powerful Voice of America.

Jazz, which is not officially sanctioned by the Russian government, is more or less tolerated, Bernstein said.

"Jazz represents a new-found freedom to these young people which their parents didn't have," the composer of the jazz-based score for "Man With the Golden Arm" said.

Bernstein said he heard progressive jazz, as he calls it, at a special club set up for the Festival delegates at the Moskva Hotel and at a press club gathering.

When he saw a trumpeter with a horn bent exactly in the fashion used by Dizzy Gillespie, Bernstein recalls walking over to the man and asking "Gillespie?"

"Yeah," answered the Russian who could not speak any English.

The fact that he heard no jazz on Moscow radio leads Bernstein to believe that the music is not being fostered by the government but is simply being tolerated.

Only 'Progressive'

The young musicians aren't interested in Dixieland or swing era figures, Bernstein revealed. They're fascinated by the works of Miles Davis and John Coltrane.

"All the musicians wanted to know was who I knew," he recalled wryly. While he was able to speak with several in English, he relied heavily on an assigned tourist interpreter. He had gone as a U. S. representative for the film "The Great Escape" for which he'd written the music.

"We found that the older people and the interpreters had very little to say about jazz. There is no doubt, however, that a significant segment of the Russian population is interested in jazz.

"The musicians are playing reasonably sophisticated American jazz standards such as 'Lullaby of Birdland,' but once they've enough command of the music, they may try to blend their own cultures into jazz. Right now they're just copyists."

Network Airs '63 Grammy Winners

NEW YORK—Some of the better record industry product had a showcasing Sunday night (8) on the NBC television 60 special, "Best on Record."

Sponsored by Timex, the show spotlighted the 1963 National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences' Grammy award winners. Star performers were: Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme, Peter, Paul and Mary, Tony Bennett, Diahann Carroll, Henry Mancini, Homer and Jethro, Connie Francis, New Christy Minstrels and Mahalia Jackson. Also on hand to introduce the performers were other record industry illuminaries—Frank Sinatra, Bob Newhart, Les Brown (who also served as musical director for the show), Allan Sherman, Richard Rodgers, Jose Jimenez, Eddy Arnold and Dean Martin.

A highlight of the show was the presentation of an achievement award—to be called the Bing Crosby Award in the future—to Crosby himself for having sold more records than any other artist (well over 20,000,000).

Dot Records Sells Another Franchise

HOLLYWOOD — Dot Records has sold its franchise to Southland Distributors in Atlanta, marking a return to the indie distributor which had been Dot's outlet prior to opening its own branch there in 1960. Atlanta thus becomes the sixth Dot-franchised distributor in the nation.

Three years after opening its own Atlanta branch, the diskery closed it (May 11, 1963) and used its wholly owned Nashville operation to cover the territory.

The new franchise is called Dot Records Distributors-Southland, with Gwenn Kessler as sales manager, and Rod Bankston as salesman. Friedman, owner of Southland, flew to Hollywood to negotiate the deal with Dot's president, Randy Wood, with the label's credit manager, Larry Welk, flying to Atlanta to finalize the move.

Last October, label closed its New York branch and gave the franchise to Cosnat. Company's other franchised distributors are in Cleveland, Philadelphia, Newark and St. Louis.

In addition to Nashville, Dot's wholly owned branches are in Boston, Dallas, Miami, New Orleans and San Francisco.

Philly NBC Station Quietly Takes on 1st Negro Jockey

PHILADELPHIA — Without any fuss and fanfare, WRCV, local NBC-owned station, engaged its first Negro disk jockey. Though news leaked to the local columns did not identify the newcomer—Reggie Levong—as a Negro, his addition to the staff came on the heels of action being taken by the local NAACP in getting its fire ready for aim against local stations. Already threat of boycott and picketing has been directed by the NAACP against Storer's WIBG. Letters are going out to sponsors this week, according to George Woods, NAACP executive board member.

Though Levong is identified as coming here from New York, he has until recently been identified with WHAT, local Negro-oriented station. Levong is slated for the evenings and during his period eschews Negro-oriented gab and groovings. He keeps to the commercial cuttings of standards in keeping with the "lively sound" image station seeks to create. His chatter is greatly subdued—a far cry from the free-wheeling platter jive that characterizes WHAT dialing.

In another staff move, WRCV announced the resignation of Dick Paisley, station manager, who has been identified with the station's unsuccessful attempt during the past few years to bring back the big bands. The station recently dropped its "Big Band Sound" for less specific programming fare.

The racial issue on Levong's selection was nixed by Raymond Wellpot, general and executive vice-president of the NBC-owned radio stations. "His race had nothing to do with his selection for the job," said Wellpot. "It was simply a matter of hiring the best man available, and in our opinion Levong was that man."

The first Negro engaged in that capacity by a major local station, it is reported Levong's salary reaches $8,500 a year plus talent fees for commercials.

In an editorial heard four times daily, Negro-oriented WDAS here commended WRCV and NBC for the hiring breakthrough.

What effect the gigantic switching of properties soon to take place between WRVC AM-TV and RKO's WNAC AM-TV, Boston, will have on Levong—and all station personnel at both properties—remains to be seen.

Dylan Thomas LP Gets Push By Caedmon

NEW YORK — Caedmon Records has launched a substantial promotion to tie in with the 11th anniversary of its first recording, an LP by Welsh author Dylan Thomas. Since two 22-year-olds, Marianne Mantell and Barbara Holdridge, started their spoken word diskery with that LP, a series of 11 packages have sold an aggregate of more than 500,000.

Though Thomas died in 1953, all his LP's are in print and all continue to sell. The biggest seller continues to be the first, which contained the short story, "A Child's Christmas in Wales." According to label spokesmen, this has sold 250,000 to date.

The New York Times book review section of last November 3 carried a discussion of Thomas' contribution by William Moynihan, an English pro-songs and country artists have the broadest acceptance in the over-all music business.

JIMMY DEAN'S VIEW

Dean's range of programming will be so formulated as to provide opportunity to present for TV exposure the different categories of country material—including the great ballads or "weepers," male and female vocals, instrumentals, folk-oriented songs such as "The Ballad of New Orleans" and others associated with such artists and writers as the late Johnny Horton, Jimmy Driftwood, etc.

He is also mulling over possible presentation of some of the great country duets, answer songs, comedy material, the great country waltzes, etc. Much of this material, to a network TV audience, is likely to have fresh, dramatic impact—just as it had in the record business when, years ago, a.&r. executives like Mitch Miller scored big pop hits with country material.

Dean rattled off some examples: "'Cold, Cold Heart' was a smash for Tony Bennett, 'Half as Much' for Rosemary Clooney (both by Hank Williams), Stuart Hamblen's 'This Ole House,' Tennessee Ernie's 'Sixteen Tons' and Jo Stafford's version of Hank Williams' 'Jambalaya'—there's no end to cases in point."

JIMMY DEAN

The Greats

As he talked about his programming philosophy, Dean made continued references to the art of some of the great country stylists—such as Floyd Tillman, Lefty Frizzell, Margaret Whiting and Jimmy Wakeley and others.

Dean, of course, while a powerful pop attraction, has roots which are deep in the country tradition. Like the great country acts, he is also a songwriter, and his recording of his own tune, "Big Bad John," released about two years ago on Columbia, achieved a sale of nearly 3,000,000 records.

The increasing use of country talent on Dean's show is mirrored in the following bookings. On October 31 he presented the Willis Brothers, an ABC-Paramount record act. On November 7 the Liberty artist Molly Bee made her first appearance. She has appeared several times since and is set for several more. Miss Bee is likely to become a semi-regular on the show. On December 5 Dean presented one of the greatest country performers—Eddy Arnold, whose RCA

RECORD SALES MANAGER WANTED

by Leading Manufacturer

This label has an outstanding record of success in both singles and lp's, built on a strong foundation of experienced management, name artists and a creatively oriented a & r staff.

It adds up to an outstanding opportunity for an experienced record man, well groomed in the basics of sales and management—either with a record manufacturer of stature, or a successful record distributing organization.

The man for this job must be a willing and hard worker who has the capacity to develop a strong loyalty for the company he represents and for the policies under which it operates. He must be honest, reliable and trustworthy. In addition, he must possess all or most of the following characteristics and experience:

- STRONG CONTACTS in the wholesale record business, with personal or working relationships among a high number of the principals in this area of the business;
- A THOROUGH KNOWLEDGE of record selling practices at distributor, sub-distributor and retail sales levels;
- A WORKING KNOWLEDGE of record promotion and standard record promotion channels—plus the creative ability and know-how to develop new areas of promotion and merchandising;
- A WELL-ROUNDED familiarity with the workings of a record company, from a & r and artist relations right through to production and distribution;
- THAT RARE BUT valuable ability to work with people and to make people want to work with you . . . to stimulate and enthuse . . . to help others to produce at maximum.

Earnings commensurate with performance. Write supplying full details, previous experience, references and expected earnings. All details will be held in strictest confidence.

LESLEY GORE

RUN BOBBY RUN (Helios, BMI) (2:24)—YOU DON'T OWN ME (2:16)—This two-sider figures to be another big winner for the lass, who's just coming off a smash with "She's a Fool." First up is a neat medium-beater with dual tracking and reverb to set it off. Flip is a pulsating ballad done for equal effect. Watch both.

ETTA JAMES

BABY WHAT YOU WANT ME TO DO (Conrad, BMI) (2:45)—WHAT I SAY (Progressive, BMI) (2:23)—Two great sides, both cut live in a Nashville night club by Miss Peaches. Gal gets great soul into the pop effort, a solid Jimmy Reed tune with typical r.&b. guitar support. Flip is the Ray Charles rouser that could also click. Crowd lends plenty of atmosphere.

DIANE RAY

SNOW MAN (Davilene-Raleigh, BMI) (2:18) — Here's the "Life Guard" gal with a cute, bright ditty about making a snowman into an image of her boyfriend. Lots of good vocalizing here with backing to match. Could step out. Flip is "Just So Bobby Can See" (Wood, ASCAP) (2:13).

Andy Csida Named To Head New Dep't

board's international and domestic sales manager, to succeed Csida as sales director, thus placing Heine in complete charge of the publication's world-wide advertising sales operation.

Csida, a 20-year veteran with The Billboard Publishing Company has served the firm in various capacities, including its sales promotion department, its subsidiary High Fidelity magazine, and various executive posts in Billboard's sales operation. As head of the new department, he will be responsible for all phases in the development of such projects as Billboard's gift catalog for disk dealers.

In making the announcement of Csida's promotion during the Billboard's annual general staff meetings held here last week, Cook disclosed that a number of similar diversified projects were in the wings to be introduced by Csida's department during the forthcoming year.

Victor disks, such as "Bouquet of Roses," "Cattle Call," etc., made record history. On Thursday (12) Homer and Jethro made a scheduled appearance. And there have been a number of lesser acts such as the Crum Brothers, Roger Price and Mort Marshall and others.

Audience Likes It

The audience reaction to this country programming emphasis has been very strong, Dean indicated—hence his desire to amplify this segment of the show.

The Dean show during the next couple of months will be watched with intense interest by broadcasting and agency execs, and, of course, the country music world. The impact of the country field on records, of course, is a fait accompli. The country field has also made strong progress in radio—for more than 2,000 stations now program c.&w. for two hours or more per day. Television is the next major exposure medium to be achieved in a big way. That is why a lot of hopes are riding with Jimmy Dean's ABC-TV Thursday night shot.

Bob Banner, executive producer of "The Jimmy Dean Show," summed up his view succinctly: "We intend to make country music acceptable—to the point where it is good fare for the listening audience." Engaged with him in this enterprise, in addition to Dean, are producer Julio Di Benedetto and associate producer Tom Egan.

Csida's operation also will embrace the dealer aids services headed by Marty Klein, sales manager.

Heine, a veteran in the disk and sound equipment industries sales field, joined Billboard several years ago. He has headed Billboard's international sales, later becoming its sales manager. In his new post, Heine will report directly to Cook, as does Csida.

Close Fax Label Before Its Sale

HOLLYWOOD — Fax Records, party time label, whose owner Bill Door was murdered here November 19, has closed down prior to being put on the block, attorney Mervin Glass reveals.

Glass, who is expected to be named executor of the label, told Billboard his accountant was presently analyzing the firm's books to ascertain the company's worth.

Label's catalog was comprised of spicy party disks and the last product released was a de luxe package titled "Ballad of Fanny Hill."

Alan Mink To Head Up Smash Promo

CHICAGO—Alan Mink, for the past two years Midwestern regional manager of Smash Records, was last week named the label's first national promotion manager. He'll headquarter in Smash's Chicago office.

The promotion marks what Charles Fach, Smash head, describes as the label's rapid growth which in the three years of its existence has turned Smash into a million-dollar business. Fach added that Mink's appointment is in accord with Smash's policy of promoting from within.

Previously, Doug Moody was promoted from the field to a.&r. director. Mink has spent some seven years in the record business. Prior to joining Smash, he was a Cleveland disk jockey for three years, then a promotion man in the same city for two years.

'OPEN END'

To Discuss Pop Sound

NEW YORK—"Record Charts and the Pop Record Sound" is the general subject matter to come up for an airing on Open End, the national TV panel discussion show, on Sunday, January 5. Advance reports from the scene of the taping, MGM Telestudios here, indicate that it'll be one of the wildest verbal free-for-alls in the history of the seg.

Appearing with emcee, David Susskind, will be a notable entourage of panelists including Phil Spector, an indie record manufacturer representing the youth market; William B. Williams, for the old school of deejays; Murray (The K) Kaufman, for the Top 40 deejay group; Aaron (Goldie) Goldmark, for the music publisher-producer fraternity; songwriter Jack Keller; and pop artists Lesley Gore and Bobby Vinton.

Reportedly the session wound up with Susskind and Williams, who questioned the "dumb sounds" of today's pop disk hits being swarmed under by the rebuttals of the others. The session lasted two and a half hours.

L.A. Ad Leads to Store Discount

HOLLYWOOD—When Columbia Records placed a 20-page color ad supplement in the Sunday (8) Los Angeles Times, the Discount Center Stores congratulated the diskery in its own ad while announcing that all products shown in the special section would be sold at 33 1/3 per cent off the regular list price.

Gene Block, label's regional sales manager, said the 33 1/3 per cent figure was a tribute to the company's year-round pricing announced last July because there were other ads citing much higher discounted lines. Citing this figure as being low in comparison with what other labels were being discounted for, Block noted that dealers today can not discount Columbia product as much as they had in the past, due to the stabilization policy.

Label's Los Angeles distributor, Ted Rosenberg, had co-oped the ad with the three-store chain in line with the expanded policy of giving coin to retail outlets for consumer advertising. Diskery is not allowed to tell the retailer what price he may charge the consumer, only what price he must pay for the merchandise.

The one-week special cited regular $3.98 mono LP's selling for $2.65 and such high priced items as a $17. stereo set going for $11.34. The most expensive package listed was a $29.98 set selling for $19.99.

Joe Carlton Adds New Folk Label

NEW YORK—Joe Carlton, president of Carlton Records, has announced the formation of a new, additional label, titled Coffee House Records. The new line will be a vehicle for folk-oriented singles and albums. First single was cut by the Vassar Guitar Stringers and is titled "Run Boy Run" b-w "Two Brothers."

The label will be distributed separately from Carlton Records. Overseas, however, the Carlton licensees will handle the new label.

Carlton plans to release two or three singles monthly on the new label, plus occasional albums. He feels that for the next 10 years, the college population group will be the most influential buying group, and the burgeoning folk trend ties in with this group.

Limelitters Cutting 1st Victor Album

HOLLYWOOD—The reorganized Limelitters have begun cutting their first album together for RCA. Tunes will include several original compositions penned by Ernie Sheldon,

INT'L REPORTS NOW ALL OVER

NEW YORK—To provide broader coverage of the international record scene, Billboard has eliminated its special category previously called "International Reports." From this issue forward, Billboard will spread its international coverage throughout each week's issue. The growing importance of foreign records and songs in the U. S., and the competitive situation as far as American product, artists and material overseas are concerned, has necessitated greater space for international stories. This space will now become available through all the general music pages of the paper. Hits of the World charts, however, will still be grouped together under that designation. Those charts from around the world can be found on page 20 in this week's issue.

replacement for Glenn Yarbrough, and several adaptations by Lou Gottlieb and Alex Hassilev, remaining two members. Titled "More of Everything," the LP is scheduled for a March release.

CHRISTMAS RECORDS

CHRISTMAS ALBUMS

Christmas LP's continue to show heavier sales activity than Christmas singles. When these charts appear, there will be only eight shopping days left before Christmas; and, this period is the heaviest sales period for Christmas product. This chart will run for two more weeks and will continue to expand as Christmas record sales increase. Since the heaviest sales period for Christmas product has not been reached, some new Christmas product has not yet had sufficient time to necessarily be reflected here.

Disk Artists Play the Gate In Yule Show

NEW YORK — The Village Gate in Greenwich Village presents a holiday show diverse in the presentation of recorded singing groups and artists. Featured in the show are the Irish and folk figures, the Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem, the jazz singers Lambert, Hendricks and Bavan and folk balladeer Leon Bibb.

The show begins Tuesday (17) and runs through December 31. It racks up as one of the feature presentations in the city and brings together strong recording talent with the Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem on the Columbia label; L. H. & B., RCA Victor, and Leon Bibb, Columbia Records. Show is being called "Holiday Songfest."

TALENT TOPICS

SAN FRANCISCO

The San Francisco Symphony Association opened its 1963-1964 season in what has been described as a brilliant opening in the style of the opera.

The occasion was the local debut of maestro Joseph Krips as conductor of the orchestra, now starting its 52d season. A new acoustical shell on the stage of the Opera House is considerably reducing the acoustical problem of the theater. . . . In the night clubs, Pat Suzuki is on top, topographically speaking, having begun last week a three-week engagement in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel on Nob Hill. . . . Chris Ibanez has brought his trio to the At the Beach on Broadway. . . . The Vi Redd Quartet is entertaining in the Sugar Hill next door. . . . Frankie Laine is currently at the Nugget in Sparks, near Reno, December 11, and will be followed there by Ray Bolger. . . . Earl (Fatha) Hines opened on December 6 at the CrossRoads in Jack London Square, Oakland. . . . Comedian Mel Young opened at Bernie Kahn's Tin Pan Alley in Redwood City. Young has been in shows with Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jr. . . . A comedian of longer duration, George Jessel, is now talking to his mother from a telephone booth at Harrah's South Shore at Lake Tahoe. . . . Tito Puente and his band have just

NIGHT CLUB REVIEW

Wayne Newton a Smash at Copa

Wayne Newton, young Capitol Records recording artist, scored strongly in his Copacabana opening last Thursday (5) in New York. The chanter played to a packed house during the dinner show and literally had to beg off.

Newton presented a broad range of material, including, of course, his Capitol Records hits, "Danke Schoen," folk-oriented tunes and such Dixieland-tinged items as "When the Saints Go Marching In." Wayne, a Bobby Darin protege, is backed by the Newton Brothers, who contribute string and vocal accompaniment — but the Brothers never really intrude. The act is all Wayne.

The singer's demeanor is youthful and cherubic; his personality is ingratiating and he rapidly develops a rapport with the audience. There is much of the "belter" in the vocal style, and he often winds up with—as they say—all flags flying.

As yet, Wayne has not developed the subtleties of the veteran club performer. This will come with the experience of the years. He is likely to go quite far, based on his reception at the Copa.

PAUL ACKERMAN

played a one-week engagement at the Off Broadway in San Francisco. . . . The Nob Hill Trio have begun to play for nightly dancing at the new Sheraton Villa Motor Inn in suburban San Mateo.

DALLAS

Rommie Bryan's Trio, currently at the Bali Hai, have cut a record which is titled "Rommie Sings" and will be available at the club for guests. . . . Recording artist and vocalist Julius La Rosa has closed an engagement at the Caravan Club in Austin. . . . Eddie Barnes has opened an engagement at the King's Club. . . . Local entertainers Phil Marquin and Diane Wisdom have opened a stand at the Gaylife Club. The Norman Grant Trio also featured. The Theater Lounge featuring Billy Lee in the comic spotlight. . . . Breck Wall and Joe Peterson, presenting their fourth revue at the Hotel Adolphus Century Room, have been signed to take their "Bottoms Up" revue to the Continental Houston Hotel in Houston.

In Houston, Van Johnson, the Hollywood film star, has opened a two-week stand at the Cork Club. He recently toured in the hit musical "The Music Man" and was also in the London production. Johnson is a veteran song and dance entertainer. The Mel Arvin orchestra supplies the music. The show also features the George Arnold Dancers.

Folk singers and Warner Bros. recording stars Peter, Paul and Mary had their local concert rescheduled at the Music Hall and turned over all proceeds to the family of J. D. Tippit, the Dallas police officer. The stars turned over the proceeds of other Texas concerts to the same worthy cause.

The Continental Houston's French Quarter has reopened after being closed for several days, the Stylers being featured. . . . Recording star accordionist Dick Contino has opened a stand at the International Club's Continental Room. . . . Rex Van, veteran entertainer and now

Herbie Mann Has Full Show At Vanguard

NEW YORK—Herbie Mann is now fronting a full-fledged stagershow at the Village Vanguard. The Atlantic hit recording star is currently producing and starring in a show at the Greenwich Village night club that not only features his recording group but dancers and an augmented ensemble. He will be on stage at the club through December 31.

Mann's two one-hour shows at the Vanguard feature his regular working combo along with Chief Bey and two dancers, two trumpets, two Afro-Latin drummers and the star himself on flute. Guitarist Attila Zoller is featured as one of the instrumental stars.

The jazz flutist has been signed by the William Morris office to a tour of concerts during the winter-spring season. He has and will continue to use expanded versions of this show as the basis for such concert and theater engagements.

Mann arrived at the idea for the show by analysis of the usual jazz programs which very often feature two or three jazz acts unrelated to one another. He felt the need for excitement and continuity in jazz night club presentations and hit on this scheme through theater and concert engagements presented over the last few months across the country.

manager of the Las Vegas Club here, has returned to work following a recent heart attack. He has booked Ronnie David for an indefinite stand.

Ruth Wallis has opened a two-week engagement at the Tidelands with the Freddie Noble orchestra on the bandstand. . . . Larry Grayson, entertainment director for the Continental Houston Hotel, has booked the Breck Wall and Joe Peterson "Bottoms Up" revue which is currently at the Century Room of the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas for an engagement, opening after the first of the year.

BOSTON

Gypsy Rose Lee, starting a series of one-night stands, will come into the Pleasant Valley Country Club in Millbury next week in her one-woman show titled, "A Curious Evening with Gypsy." Most curious thing about it is that the only thing she sheds is her gloves. . . . Folk singing satirists Brown and Dana came back to their alma mater, Tufts University, to show the undergrads just how they do it. . . . Keely Smith will headline the big pre-Christmas show at Blinstrub's Village.

Clubs are reporting business better than any time all year, and the Framingham Monticello is booked to near capacity for the engagement of Patricia Morison. . . . Hub theaters are on the upswing again. Robert Preston has scored a triumph with "Nobody Loves an Albatross," heading in two weeks for Broadway. . . . The Colonial has an excellent advance for Margaret Leighton in "The Chinese Prime Minister," while "Funny Girl," with Barbra Streisand, will have no trouble filling seats for the three-week pre-Broadway showing of the musical based on the life of Fanny Brice.

BROOKS O'DELL
(Gold) PM: Modeen Donzell

HOME TOWN: Philadelphia. BACKGROUND: Brooks' early experience with singing began in his home town church choir. He continued to sing throughout his years in high school and college. In college his major interests were religion and music. His first professional experience was with a group called the Commanders. Brooks was the feature singer. The group toured Canada and finally Europe, causing quite a stir in Paris, Rome and Milan. When Brooks returned Stateside, he formed his own group, the Majestics. While working in Philadelphia he was noticed and signed by Luther Dixon to a recording contract. The resultant effort, "Watch Your Step," is making steady progress on Billboard Hot 100. The single, on the gold label, is distributed by Amy-Mala.

LATEST SINGLE: "Watch Your Step," is No. 81 on Billboard's Hot 100 this week.

Peebles Unit To Show at Neb. State Pen

LINCOLN, Neb. — The Christmas holiday season for the 2,000 inmates of the Nebraska State Penitentiary is going to be made a little brighter and happier, according to Warden Marrice Siegler, through the efforts of Harry (Hap) Peebles, Wichita, Kan., music promoter.

Peebles will present a show inside the penitentiary Sunday afternoon, December 29, featuring Ernest Tubbs and the Texas Troubadours, the Duke of Paducah, Little Jimmy Dickens, George Morgan, Autry Inman, and Johnnie Lee Wills and His Western Swing Band.

This is the second time in the 100-year history of the prison that a "name" show has been presented for the inmates, the warden said. Peebles presented a show with Tex Ritter, Country Music Association prexy; Lonzo and Oscar, Johnnie Lee Wills and band, and Hank Snow and His Rainbow Ranch Boys a year ago.

Peebles' holiday tour will include stops at Topeka, Kan., December 27; Sioux City, Ia., 28; Lincoln, 29; Omaha, 31; Kansas City, Mo., January 1; St. Joseph, Mo., 2; Salina, Kan., 3, and Wichita, 4.

Buster Doss Sets Nashville Office

WACO, Tex. — The Buster Doss Enterprises, which comprises a booking agency, Wizard Records and Buster Doss Music, is moving its main offices to Nashville soon after the first of the year. The firm will continue to maintain a branch here. The company was formed here by Buster Doss seven years ago.

With the move, Doss will take with him to Nashville artists Kay Arnold, heard on the Liberty label; Smilin' Jerry Jericho and the Cactus Kid. Doss says he has signed a personal-management pact with three major "Grand Ole Opry" artists. For business reasons he is withholding their names until after the move is made.

Patrick Robinson Reps Bill Clifton On English Trek

LONDON — The Patrick Robinson Agency has finalized arrangements to manage bluegrass artist Bill Clifton for the duration of his tour in Great Britain. In addition to live performances throughout the British Isles, Clifton will augment his activities with television and radio appearances.

Clifton made his debut on the BBC via the "Tonight" show, which enjoys some 10 million viewers each night. On December 8, Clifton appeared on ABC's "Hullabaloo" with Rory McEwen and a variety of top folk performers. The "Hullabaloo" show is televised through the facilities of ITV, the independent network.

Decca Records, for whom Clifton records, will issue a new single featuring a topical song and a standard mountain ballad. The release is expected later this month.

COUNTRY MUSIC CORNER

By BILL SACHS

Tillman Franks has taken over the management of the Kimberleys, with Norman Petty continuing to handle them on recordings. . . . David Houston is currently appearing with Tillman Franks and the Cedar Grove Three. They appeared Saturday (7) at the Coliseum, Corpus Christi, Tex., with the promotion handled by Mel Ammerman and Jimmy Bell, of KROB radio, Robstown, Tex. Comprising the Cedar Grove Three with Franks are Country Johnny Mathis and Tommy Tomlinson, the last named of the team of Tom and Jerry. . . . Ernest Tubbs and the Texas Troubadours and George Morgan wind up the year with dates at Topeka, Kan., December 27; Sioux City, Ia., 28; Lincoln, Neb., 29, and Omaha, 31. . . . June Carter is set in Las Vegas through December 16.

Hitt Attractions, Dallas, has set Liberty Records' Joe Carson with his band on a return engagement at Panther Hall, Fort Worth, December 28; Altus, Okla., December 31, and Oklahoma City, January 4. He follows as a single with Colorado Springs, Colo., January 8-9. . . . Hal Smith's Artists Productions, Goodlettsville, Tenn., has Ernest Tubbs and His Texas Troubadours set for Topeka, Kan., December 27; Sioux City, Ia., 28; Lincoln, Neb., 29, and Omaha, 31. For the December 15-22 period, the unit is set on one-nighters in California. Same office has Mac Wiseman booked for Richmond, Va., December 28-29.

Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs and their bluegrass aggregation are set for a repeat appearance on ABC-TV's "Hootenanny" in February and March. They are also slated for return concerts at Carnegie Hall, New York, April 3, and Jordan Hall, Boston, April 4. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tyler are celebrating the arrival of a daughter born December 1. Father is a veteran country artist and songwriter.

As might be expected, Lefty Frizzell's new Columbia release, "Saginaw, Michigan," is reported going like a house afire in Michigan. Don Wayne and Bill Anderson are the co-writers of the tune, but Colum-

SINGLES REVIEWS

SPOTLIGHT WINNERS OF THE WEEK

Pop single spotlights are those singles with sufficient sales potential, in the opinion of Billboard's Review Panel, to achieve a listing in the top 50 of Billboard's Hot 100 chart. Spotlight winners in the country music and rhythm and blues categories are selected to achieve a listing on the Country Music or R.&B. charts. Spotlight winners in other categories are selected on the basis of their potential to become top sellers in their respective areas.

SINGLES REVIEW POLICY

Every single sent to Billboard for review is heard by Billboard's Review Panel, and its sales potential is rated within its category of music. Full reviews are presented for Spotlight Picks or Special Merit Picks. All other singles are listed in their respective categories.

POP SPOTLIGHT

RICK NELSON

FOR YOU
(Witmark, ASCAP) (2:15)

THAT'S ALL SHE WROTE
(Four Star, BMI) (2:17)—Decca 31574

Two more powerhouse sides from Rick. First up is a bright reading of the standard in reverberant style. The second is a medium tempo tune, again with reverb, that smartly tells a tale of woe that's self-explanatory.

POP SPOTLIGHT

THE ROCKY FELLERS

BYE BYE BABY
(Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI) (2:27)—Scepter 1263

Swinger from the lead singer and the lead singer and the group that has a good chance. The side should go a long way for the group and score with the kids. The flip is "She Makes Me Wanna Dance" (Mellin-Chapter, BMI) (2:12).

POP SPOTLIGHT

BRIARWOOD SINGERS

HE WAS A FRIEND OF MINE
(Yorkville, BMI) (2:19)—United Artists 686

Touching folk tune sung with reverence and taste that tells of sorrow and loss of a leader who was a friend to all. The flip is "Bound for the Freedom Land" (Derby, BMI) (2:02).

POP SPOTLIGHT

KIRK HANSARD

WIDOW MAKER
(Martin, BMI) (2:23)

JOHNNY TERESA
(Martin, BMI) (2:59)—Columbia 42935

Two mighty fine items from the new powerful new country-oriented talent here. The first is a story of a truck driver who dies a hero's death. The flip is in the Tex-Mex mode and tells the tragic story of Johnny Darango and his Mexican Love.

POP SPOTLIGHT

THE CASHELIES

OUTSIDE CITY LIMITS
(Painted Desert, BMI) (2:31)—Decca 31575

This is a tight, swingy item that has the power to go all the way. Smart backing has xylophone and piano licks that make it a smart one. The flip is "Pretend" (Interval, BMI) (2:20).

POP SPOTLIGHT

CATHY JEAN

DOUBLE TROUBLE
(Trio, BMI) (2:23)—Philips 40143

Cathy Jean had a hit with a group known as the Roommates sometime back and here's her first new effort in a spell. It's a strong solo performance of a swinging ditty with a good, hand-clap beat and solid arrangement. Side could be big. Flip is "Believe Me" (Swarthmore-Marble, BMI) (2:40).

POP SPOTLIGHT

GILBERT BECAUD

WHAT NOW MY LOVE
(Remick, ASCAP) (2:39)
(Trio-Silverbell, BMI) (2:58)—Kapp 566

Beaud, a Frenchman, is the writer of the first of these, once a hit for Jane Morgan, and he gives it a slow, but building performance to a bolero tempo. A strong side. The flip is a Leiber-Stoller tune that has a haunting quality and it's done neatly. Both should be watched.

NOVELTY SPOTLIGHT

JIGGLES AND THE ZANIES

I WISH I'D STAYED IN BED
(Lowery, BMI) (2:07)—Dore 693

Here's a wild, bright novelty that's out of the publishing firm that handles Ray Stevens' material and it's much in the typical Stevens novelty groove. Group and the lead with the nutty Southern style give it a great ride. Flip is "Get Your Good Good Lovin' From Me" (Hillary-Maverick, BMI) (2:05).

C.&W. SPOTLIGHT

JUDY LUNN

THE CALM BEFORE THE STORM
(Glad, BMI) (2:31)

I MAKE EXCUSES
(Glad, BMI) (2:22)—United Artists 674

Two more winning sides from the fine country thrush and the material is strong in the heartbreak ballad groove. Both are good and either or both could go. Watch 'em.

C.&W. SPOTLIGHT

KITTY LOU

THAT'S WHERE I CAME IN
(Lonzo and Oscar, BMI) (2:25)—Clark 210

A winning new country thrush here and she has a solid piece of weeper ballad wax. Good traditional arrangement, too. She makes the message come alive and the side could go. Flip is "The Night a Fool Cried" (Lonzo and Oscar, BMI) (2:55).

The group motored to Dawson City, Yukon, then flew north of the Arctic Circle via DC-3. Some of the jumps were made by dog team and bombardier, visiting places such as Inuvik, Aklavik and Tuktoyaktuk, the most northerly town in Canada on the Arctic Ocean.

The Adams Talent Agency, under the command of Anita (Ralph) Adams, has moved into new quarters at 726 16th Avenue, South, Nashville. The office recently routed Rusty (Ko Ko) Adams through Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, and has him set at Monroe's Inn, Kansas City, Mo., December 18-21. He returns to Nashville to appear on the Bobby Lord show December 23. Adams will be off again after the first of the year to play Omaha, January 3-4, and to appear on a package show headlined by Leroy Van Dyke, Webb Pierce and Carl and Pearl Butler at Quincy, Ill., January 17, and Indianapolis, January 25. Also appearing with Adams on the aforementioned package will be Cindy Joyce, Kathy Dean, O'Dell Jackson and Ramsey Kearney, all set by the Adams office. . . . Tom Cash, director of Johnny Cash Music, Nashville, typewrites: "A month ago we stated that we were in the market for original material, dubs and lyrics. Since that article appeared in your magazine, we've been flooded with material. We hate to disappoint anybody, but in fairness to them—we just can't use any more."

IN NEW ZEALAND:

Firms Can Buy Only TV Spots

AUCKLAND, N. Z.—Disk companies are confronted with a rather odd promotional problem in getting exposure for their records. The strange set-up here with radio and TV is that although a company can buy half-hour time on radio and present its own show, it cannot buy time other than spot commercial time on TV.

Since TV came in, radio programmers and sponsors have suffered, and many have taken their shows off radio. This loss of revenue for the NZBC is causing some concern and they may allow radio sponsors to take over one or two prime TV shows. The disturbing aspect of all this to the trade is that the decisions on broadcasting and TV policy are made in the head offices in Wellington. Auckland, with very little say, has more TV viewers and licenses than the rest of New Zealand put together. Critics say a minority audience is dictating to a majority. After three years the country still has only one channel in New Zealand and little hope of getting a second for many years yet.

Barish Says Chiffons On a Limb

NEW YORK—Seymour Barish, president of Bright Tunes, charged last week that the Chiffons have affected a breach of contract with him. He further noted that on Tuesday (26), Vee Jay Records wired their distributors that they have signed the group. Barish, who is himself an attorney, stated that "there is absolutely no question that the Chiffons are exclusively under contract to me, and the contract is valid."

According to Barish, he received a letter from the Chiffons some 10 days prior to the Vee Jay announcement "disaffirming their contract with me." It was submitted on the stationery of Stan Allen. (Allen is personal manager for the 4 Seasons.) Barish immediately notified the Chiffons that their contract with him was binding and that to affect this breach would instigate "serious financial repercussions." Similarly, Barish has notified Vee Jay by wire and registered letter.

Bob Schwartz, president of Laurie Records, which distributes the Chiffons for Bright

3 MERCURY HOT SINGLES: 3 COUNTRIES

CHICAGO—Talk about an international flavor to the record business. Three Mercury Record Corporation singles in Billboard's Hot 100 are by an artist from a different country.

"You Don't Have to Be a Baby to Cry," by the Caravelles on Smash, is from England. "Dominique," by the Singing Nun on Philips, is from Belgium, and to round things out, Mercury itself has its All-American gal, Lesley Gore, represented by "She's a Fool."

Mercury President Irving Green credits it all to a "broadening of American musical taste," spurred on by the major technical advancements in communications, coupled with the tremendous upsurge in American travel.

Green said that all three Mercury labels, Mercury, Philips and Smash, are parlaying this trend into added sales.

Philips has been successful with such foreign artists as the Springfields (England), the Swingle Singers (France), and Yves Montand and Jacqueline Franco (both of France).

Tunes, also noted that "not long ago Steve Allen offered the Chiffons to us (Laurie) on an exclusive contract basis, at which time I informed him that my understanding was that their contract with Bright Tunes was good and valid. In fact, I restated this understanding in a letter to Allen the next day." Reached at press time, Stan Allen said: "I prefer to withhold comment at this time."

Presley Cops Silver Again

OSLO — For a 25,000-copy sales of "(You're the) Devil in Disguise," by Elvis Presley on RCA Victor, the artist received the Norwegian silver disk this week. That is the fourth silver disk the American artist has received since it was inaugurated by the newspaper Arbeiderbladet January, 1960. The trophy was received by A/S Nera's Per Normann. Nera represents Victor in Norway.

Elvis Presley's latest single, "Bossa Nova Baby," did not manage to reach the top position on the Norwegian Hit Parade, as compiled by the newspaper Verdens Gang. Presley reached the runner-up position and was all set for the top when Bobby Bare shot by with "Detroit City," also an RCA Victor pressing. "Devil in Disguise," however, stayed five weeks at the top here in Norway.

The current top platter in the U. S., "Dominique," by the Singing Nun, was introduced with a big splash by Norsk Phonogram in Norway this week. Another new record is the Nordisc platter "En Liten Gylden Ring/Twist Little Sister" by the domestic instrumental quartet, the Vanguards. This combo has become very popular in Norway.

English Issue for Sue on Island

LONDON—British independent company, Island Records, has inked a deal to distribute the U. S. label, Sue, here. Sue gets its own label and Island has already rushed out the first release—"Mockingbird," by Inez Foxx. In January further releases will include disks by Ernestine Anderson, Ike and Tina Turner, Barbara George, Baby Washington and Jimmy McGriff, whose "I Gotta Woman" topped the American charts.

Selected Sue material has previously been issued here by Decca on the London label. The Island deal incorporates Sue's companion labels, Symbol and Crackerjack.

RCA Introduces New Dynagroove in Belgium

MECHELEN, Belgium—Inelco started its campaign for the new RCA Dynagroove Records. Some 20 LP's, mono and stereo, are already available. In co-operation with the weekly magazine Zondagsvriend, they also released a Christmas album by the TV "Bonanza" family. A discount of 55 francs is given to every reader of this magazine when he buys the record. The record is available at dealer shops for 195 francs instead of 250 francs, the usual price. Top executives at the introduction were head of the firm, P. J. Goemaere, and his assistants, Yvon DeBie and Willy Roelans.

three-week concert tour in France next January.

The concert tour will cancel Lopez's announced appearance at Basin Street East in New York later this month.

THE (ho, ho, ho, ha, ha, ha) WIT OF AMERICA IS ON

IN PRAGUE:

Western Labels Sold For Foreign Money

By SAM'L STEINMAN

PRAGUE—One label, Supraphon, dominates the entire Czechoslovak disk market, although other Eastern European and Cuban labels are available at the cultural centers maintained by these nations in the capital city. Western labels can be bought only with foreign currency at Tuzex, a government emporium to be found in the nation's principal cities, were imported items are sold.

Supraphon, although essentially interested in the internal market, has its eyes on export through Artia, which controls all export rights in the fields of music and literature. It has its own American subsidiary with the Artia label and has sales offices in West Germany, the Netherlands, England and Italy. In France its products are sold via the Barclay label. Many of the Supraphon disks are produced particularly with an eye on the export market. A jazz LP entitled "The Lights of Prague" with a long commentary in English is an example.

Catalog issued in 1962 with a supplement in 1963 lists 463 classical releases with 59 stereos during the last year. Company boasts of fact that it is first in Europe to issue records using static-free material. Beethoven numbers are tops, but native composers such as Dvorak, Smetana and Janacek are highly popular, as are Verdi and Mozart. Only American name in catalog is that of Paul Robeson. Classical LP's sell for slightly more than $2.50 per record and

Bobby's Books Up Till 21

PHILADELPHIA — Bobby Rydell earned $545,000 before he became 21, a guardian's account in his estate showed. More than half his gross income came from performances on radio and television and appearances in night clubs and other entertainment spots. The rest came from royalties on record sales.

The account shows his gross earnings at about $545,000, expenses came to $376,000, leaving a balance of $169,000—before payment of taxes. Taxes took some $80,000, leaving a net balance of about $90,000 for the singer. A local lad, Rydell, whose real name is Robert Louis Ridarelli, became 21 last April 28. Until then his funds and contracts were handled through a court-appointed guardian, Judith J. Jamison, a former special assistant attorney general.

Her $23,000 commission and attorney's fees of $26,000 for Harold B. Lipsius who represented the guardian are included in the $376,000 expense item. The expenses also include $131,000 for agency and management fees, $135,000 for professional help (including musicians, etc.) and $61,000 for promotion, travel and miscellaneous items.

The accounting was approved by Orphans' Court Judge Harold D. Saylor. He noted that "in view of the size of the gross estate and the complex nature of its administration" the commission and fees . . . "are proper."

Deny DGG Buy Of Norwegian Iversen Firm

OSLO — Egil Monn-Iversen, founder and head of the two indies, Egil Monn Iversen A/S and Nor/Disc A/S, denies the information that his record company, Egil Monn Iversen A/S, is to be sold to the German record company Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft.

"I have had an offer from DGG," Monn-Iversen said, "but I have also had offers from other diskeries. The board has not discussed the offer from DGG and as far as I know a sale will not take place."

Iversen went on to say "We reckon our label will have more than 50 per cent of sales of domestically produced records this year."

The Iversen diskery, which is run by Jorg.-Fr. Ellersten, was founded seven years ago by the four members of the vocal quartet the Monn Keys and its leader, Egil Monn-Iversen. These five people split income 20 per cent of the shares for each.

The company reached its heights through representation of Dot, whose leading singer, Pat Boone, has been extremely popular in Norway together with Billy Vaughn. With the affiliated Nor/Disc, AS, the firm also represents ABC-Paramount, California, Reprise, Impulse, Prestige, Metronome, Karussell (recently bought by DGG), Sonet, Cadence, Warner Bros., Cameo-Parkway, Kapp and others.

This year the company has

German Row Intense Over Copyright Law

By OMER ANDERSON

BONN—A row has broken out between GEMA, the West German performing rights society, and the Bundestag, the lower house of the German parliament, in connection with a new copyright law just introduced into the Bundestag by the government.

GEMA is irate because the draft law, while tightening up the copyright provisions generally for musical works, specifically exempts the tape recording of music for private use.

The vision of levying performing rights fees against the owner of every tape recorder in the land is a project dear to GEMA's leadership, and one it has been relentlessly pursuing through the courts for the last several years.

Draft Law Strong

Instead, the draft law now before the Bundestag would strengthen the right of private enjoyment of copyrighted works.

Members of the Bundestag sharply criticized GEMA for its aggressive pursuit of royalties. While agreeing that "creative talent" must be fostered, the Bundestag rapped the knuckles of GEMA for its "intrusion into the private sphere."

Thunderous applause greeted Hermann Duerr, deputy of the Free Democratic Party, when he told the Bundestag:

"The GEMA is not popular and its business methods are not such that it can expect popularity."

The new law, which has been under constant attack by GEMA, specifically authorizes the private taping of broadcast music or music played from phonograph records. It is thus a blow at German diskeries as well as GEMA.

Legal Sanction

The diskeries have protested bitterly the taping of music from phonograph records, blaming private taping for declining disk sales. The draft law is calculated to stimulate taping but giving the practice express legal sanction.

At present the legal status of private tape recording is in a twilight zone, with those taping doing so at their own risk. In fact, GEMA has managed to win several court decisions against private taping of music, and a legal precedent seems to have been established which would require, in time, the payment of a modest copyright fee by the purchaser of each tape recorder.

GEMA has won court sanction for a fee of $2.50 a year, payment of which would entitle the tape recorder owner to tape music at will. Now the draft law would nullify these rulings.

There is little in the draft law, however, for the diskeries, the phonograph operators and the

Sleeve Pushes Epic Yule Disks

NEW YORK—Epic Records, in order to get Christmas product going early this year—before air play could normally be expected—resorted to a special merchandising device, in connection with Bobby Vinton material.

The new Vinton single, "There I've Said It Again," now a smash, is being used not only for its own sale but as bait for a Vinton Christmas EP.

When the customer buys the single, says Epic's general manager, Len Levy, "He sees our special Christmas EP counter display and buys the EP too." The record sleeve of the EP is designed for gift-giving. The success of the effort so far, has been accomplished with virtually no play for the Christmas EP, Levy noted.

Ketty Lester To Join Victor

HOLLYWOOD—Herb Newman, head of Era Records, has sold Ketty Lester's contract to RCA Victor, jointly with ACM Productions. In her two years with Era, Ketty had seven releases including the single hits "Love Letters" and "But Not for Me." Newman negotiated the deal with Neely Plumb, Victor's West Coast a.&r. chief.

Billboard

Pop LP Spotlights are those albums with sufficient sales potential, in the opinion of Billboard's Review Panel, to achieve a listing on Billboard's Top LP's charts. Spotlight winners in other categories are selected on the basis of their potential to become top sellers in their respective areas.

POP SPOTLIGHT RICK NELSON SINGS FOR YOU

Imperial LP 9251 (M)

Rick Nelson has come up with a new single hit recently, from his old Imperial vault material in "Today's Teardrops." The label follows this with a brand-new packaging of items that have been out in the past, including this current hit, plus "Lucky Star," "One of These Mornings," "I'll Make Believe" and "Excuse Me, Baby." There are a lot of good efforts here.

POP SPOTLIGHT ROMANTICALLY

Johnny Mathis. Columbia CL 2098 (M); CS 8898 (S)

Johnny Mathis fans will find this LP irresistible, as will the lovers of romantic ballads. Don Costa backs Mathis with lush strings and a full chorus. Each of the 12 songs are standard blockbusters—perfectly suited for Mathis. "It's Only a Paper Moon," "Friendly Persuasion" and "Moonlight in Vermont" are samples. Fine wax.

POP SPOTLIGHT THAT WAS THE WEEK THAT WAS

Various Artists
Decca DL 79116 (S)

Decca offers here the unique, critically acclaimed BBC telecast tribute to the late President Kennedy. The great taste with which the British verbalized their profound sorrow and shock over the assassination is a moving document to that tragic moment in history. Prominent among the cast are Lame Sybil Thorndike and Millicent Martin.

POP SPOTLIGHT I REMEMBER BUDDY HOLLY

Bobby Vee. Liberty LRP 3336 (M); LST 7336 (S)

Bobby Vee has done well on the charts previously with his albums tying in with earlier hits by Buddy Holly and the Crickets, and here's a salute by Vee to the late great Holly. Included are Vee's own treatments, with an assist from the Eligibles vocal group of such Holly hits as "That'll Be the Day," "Peggy Sue," "True Love Ways," "Raining in My Heart" and "Maybe Baby," among others. Should go over big.

POP SPOTLIGHT JOHN F. KENNEDY, THE PRESIDENTIAL YEARS 1960-1963

20th Century-Fox TFM 3127 (M)
Here, from the library of Fox Movietone News, are highlighted tapes of the late President Kennedy's years in the White House and just prior to that time. There are bits of his nomination acceptance speech, his inauguration speech, the complete Cuban emergency address and many more.

POP SPOTLIGHT YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A BABY TO CRY

Caravelles. Smash MGS 27044 (M); SRS 67044 (S)
The new British girl duo with something of the Patience and Prudence sound offer their smash hit (the title tune) here on their first album, plus a pair of former P & P hits, "Tonight You Belong to Me" and "Gonna Get Along Without You Now," and such others as "My How the Time Goes By" and the country classic, "I Really Don't Want to Know." Good listening.

POP SPOTLIGHT JACK JONES' WIVES AND LOVERS

Kapp KL 1352 (M)
Jack Jones continues to build as an artist with his current "Wives and Lovers," a long-time resident on the singles charts. That's included here, along with some slick items like "Toys in the Attic," "Angel Eyes," "Fly Me to the Moon" and a neat teaming with pianist Roger Williams on the new movie theme, "Charade." Strong wax and the last-named item could get much play.

POP SPOTLIGHT I WONDER WHAT SHE'S DOING TONIGHT

Barry & the Tamerlones
Valiant 406 (M)
The trio has an attractive sound and their current smash on the singles chart becomes the title tune of this, their first album. In addition there are numerous listenable ditties in their distinctive style, including "Katrine," "Butterfly," "The Beginning of the End" and "Lucky Guy." Pleasant wax that could go places.

POP SPOTLIGHT DOWN AT PAPA JOE'S

Dixiebelles
Sound Stage 7 SSM 5000 (M)
With their hit single, "Down at Papa Joe's" riding high on the chart, the gals are back with 11 rockin' Dixie tunes. One of the brightest LP's to come along in quite a while and there isn't a dull second on any cut. It's up-tempo all the way with tunes such as "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans," "Rock, Rock, Rock," "Swanee River" and "Telling Lies." Has all the earmarks of a solid smash.

POP SPOTLIGHT CHARADE

Henry Mancini & His Ork. RCA Victor LPM 2755 (M); LSP 2755 (S)
The warmth and excitement of Paris is captured in 12 songs written and conducted by Academy Award winner Henry Mancini. Included is the current single release "Charade" from the motion picture, which was also scored by Mancini. The Mancini touch coupled with a strong motion picture tie-in should hurl this one on the best seller list in short order.

POP SPOTLIGHT 20 ORIGINAL GOLDEN OLDIES, VOLUME 4

Various Artists
Mr. Maestro 1112 (M)
There's plenty of swinging nostalgia in this LP, with 20 ool'den oldies featured, as sung by the artists that made them hits. A few of the spotlighted tunes are: "Loop De Loop," by Johnny Thunder; "Hey Little Girl," Dee Clark, and "Ya Ya," as sung by Lee Dorsey. A natural for deejay programming too. Cover is a real eye catcher.

POP SPOTLIGHT ALL-STAR HOOTENANNY

Various Artists. Columbia CL 2122 (M); CS 8922 (S)
A hard-to-beat get-together of top folk artists and top folk tunes. There's something for everyone... hand clappers like "This Train," by the Brothers Four; soulful ballads such as "Where Have All the Flowers Gone," as sung by Pete Seeger; "ome rollicking bluegrass," "Worried Man Blues," performed by Flatt and Scruggs with Mother Maybelle Carter. There's more, all great entertainment!

POP SPOTLIGHT BIG HOT ROD HITS!

Various Artists. Capitol T 2024 (M); ST 2024 (S)
That hot West Coast sound is offered in a sure-fire package. Four tracks are from the Beach Boys' current hit LP, "Little Deuce Coupe." Dick Dale offers three strong tracks from his LP "Checkered Flag," and there are other tracks by the Cheers, Jimmy Dolan and the Super Stocks. A strong program, designed for heavy sales.

CHILDREN'S SPOTLIGHT THE LITTLE ENGINE THAT COULD

Various Artists. MGM CH 507 (M); CHS 507 (S)
This is only one of a series of such LP's that feature such tales as "Peter and the Wolf," "Peter Pan," "Mother Goose Nursery Rhymes," to name a few. The stories are dynamically told in voice and effective sound effects—all projected in stereo. Individually or as a group, these children's stories in stereo motion are first rate.

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT BEETHOVEN: STRING QUARTET NO. 13 IN B-FLAT MAJOR, OP. 130

The Budapest String Quartet. Columbia ML 5784 (M); MS 6384 (S)
Since the Budapest String Quartet released their complete set of the Beethoven "Late Quartets" last year, Columbia has broken the package to make these exquisite performances available separately. This set may go down as the group's finest effort.

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT THE BRAHMS SYMPHONIES (4-12")

L'Orchestre de la Suisse Romande (Ansermet). London CMA 7402 (M); CSA 2402 (S)
This four-LP package features the "Tragic Overture," "Variations on a Theme of Haydn" and "Academic Festival Overture." The expert L'Orchestre De La Suisse Romande is under the direction of Ernest Ansermet. The performances add up to a first-class package.

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT BRAHMS: SONATAS FOR VIOLIN & PIANO

Isaac Stern/Alexander Zakin. Columbia ML 5922 (M); MS 6522 (S)
A rich treat for classical music lovers. Brahms' "Sonata No. 1 (Rain)" is among his most beautiful compositions—and most popular. Violinist Isaac Stern's interpretation is, as expected, near perfection. An outstanding performance is also produced by pianist Alexander Zakin on No. 3.

LOW PRICE POP SPOTLIGHT THE SONGS OF THE SINGING NUN

Susan Stein. Golden LP 115
The album represents the first English version of all the songs sung by Soeur Sourire, in what is indicated as the only "authorized version." They are effectively sung by Susan Stein, who accompanies herself on the guitar. Priced at $1.98, this album should do particularly well on racks, though the English version should also stimulate a good amount of general consumption.

POLKA SPOTLIGHT DANCING 'ROUND THE WORLD

Frankie Yankovic & His Yanks. Columbia CL 2095 (M); CS 8895 (S)
The polka king, Frankie Yankovic and His Yanks, present a delightful musical romp around the world with an extensive collection of folk dances, waltzes and polkas. There's much dancing and listening pleasure. Highly recommended.

FOLK SPOTLIGHT
WHERE I'M BOUND
 Bob Gibson, Elektra EKL 239

This is a fine, tasteful item for the pop and folk markets. The set features Gibson singing and playing 12-string guitar. Most of the tunes are of his own devising. The material has a poignant simplicity and directness that's bound to appeal to college and folk students. "Where I'm Bound," "Farewell My Honey," "Cindy Jane," "Some Old Woman" and "Wastin' Your Time" are some first-rate tracks.

COUNTRY SPOTLIGHT
LORETTA LYNN SINGS
 Decca DL 4457 (M); DL 74457 (S)

Miss Lynn sings up a storm on this fine new album, on songs by both herself and various other good country writers. The ballad material, much of it steeped in the traditional heartache groove, includes such titles as "The Other Woman," "A Hundred-Proof Heartache," "Color of the Blues," "Lonesome 7-7203" and "The Girl That I Am Now." It's powerful stuff, ably sung, and it can sell well.

FOLK SPOTLIGHT
THE LIFE I'M LIVING
 Carolyn Hester, Columbia CL 2032 (M); CS 8832 (S)

When better folk songs are sung, Carolyn Hester may be the one who sings them. The simplicity and directness of her singing makes a powerful impact here. There's a haunting subtlety to her voice that carries such folk tunes as "Sally Free and Easy" and "I Want Jesus" to maximum effect. The lass could score with this one.

ALBUM REVIEW POLICY

Every album sent to Billboard for review is heard by Billboard's Review Panel, and its sales potential is rated within its category of music. Full reviews are presented for Spotlight Picks or Special Merit Picks, and all other LP's are listed under their respective categories.

SPECIAL MERIT PICKS

Special Merit Picks are new releases of outstanding merit which deserve exposure and which could have commercial success within their respective categories of music.

POP SPECIAL MERIT
WE GIVE A HOOT!
 The Womenfolk/The Villagers
 RCA Victor LPM 2821 (M); LSP 2821 (S)

Here are two new folk groups from the West Coast in their recording debut. The Womenfolk are a fast-moving folk entry composed entirely of female singers. They deliver in accepted folk tradition a variety of familiar folk items as well as some original tunes. The Villagers are a male vocal group who add humor and rousing singing to their material.

POP SPECIAL MERIT
THE YOUNG BEAT
 Les Brown
 Columbia CL 2119 (M); CS 8919 (S)

If you can't beat 'em, join 'em, and Les has done just that with this upbeat grouping. The modern twist-a-beat pervades every tune, accentuated with massed brass. It should be scooped up by those who like their music on the rocks with a twist of sophistication. The titles include: "Sally Go 'Round the Roses," "Cotton Fields," "Washington Square" and "On Broadway." Package is great for programming too!

POP SPECIAL MERIT
SELECTIONS FROM SOUND TRACKS AND FILM SCORES
 Various Artists, Ascot UM 13500 (M)

Here's a large economy size package of motion picture sound-track material that's bound to hit all picture fans well. The label has culled selections from the UA catalog track material from "Exodus," "Some Like It Hot," "The Apartment" and "Odds Against Tomorrow," and assembled a neat package with good poster-type artwork from each pic to dress up the cover. Could be a solid rack item.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT
BARNEY KESSEL'S SWINGIN' PARTY
 Contemporary M 3613

A new side of Barney Kessel, perennial poll-winner, and one of the all-time great jazz guitarists, is heard on this dynamic album. Barney appears here before a "live" audience and the enthusiastic response seems to inspire him and his group. The selections: "Bluesology" (Milt Jackson), "New Rhumba" (Ahmad Jamal), "Now's the Time" (Charlie Parker), "Miss Memphis" (Marvin Jenkins), "Joy Spring" (Clifford Brown) and "Lover Man," featuring pianist Jenkins doubling on flute.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT
DRUMMIN' MAN (2-12")
 Gene Krupa, Columbia C2L 29 (M)

Here's a fine album for the jazz collector. The historically minded will really find this a treasure trove of fascinating recordings made by the Gene Krupa band through the 1940's and early 1950's. Anita O'Day, Roy Eldridge, Charlie Ventura and a flock of other first-rate sidemen of former years appear.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT
JAZZ ET JAZZ
 Andre Hodeir
 Philips PHM 200073 (M); PHS 600073 (S)

French critic-musicologist-composer Andre Hodeir is represented in this fascinating collection of "jazz experiments," most of which have served as background music to French films. They are imaginative and thoroughly musical. Most impressive are the extended pieces, such as "Jazz Cantata," which features the familiar voice of Christian LeGrande, one of the sopranos on the "Bach's Greatest Hits" LP. Her performance is matched only by that of such prominent jazz names as Martial Solal, Kenny Clark and Pierre Michelot, heard here.

BREAKOUT ALBUMS

NATIONAL BREAKOUTS
FUN IN ACAPULCO
 Elvis Presley, RCA Victor LPM 2756 (M); LSP 2756 (S)

KATE SMITH AT CARNEGIE HALL
 RCA Victor LPM 2819 (M); LSP 2819 (S)

NEW ACTION LP'S
 These new albums, not yet on Billboard's Top LP's Chart, have been reported getting strong sales action by dealers in major markets.

JACK JONES WIVES AND LOVERS
 Kapp KL 1352 (M); KS 3352 (S)

A PORTRAIT OF ARTHUR PRY SOCK
 Old Town LP 2006 (M); LP 2006 S (S)

CHARADE
 Henry Mancini & His Ork, RCA Victor LPM 2755 (M); LSP 2755 (S)

HAVE YOU HEARD
 Duprees, Coed LPC 906 (M); (No Stereo)

I'M LEAVING IT UP TO YOU AND 11 OTHER HIT SONGS
 Dale & Grace, Montel MLP 100 (M); MLP 100 (S)

WALKING THE DOG
 Rufus Thomas, Stax 704 (M); (No Stereo)

FRANK SINATRA SINGS THE SELECT JOHNNY MERCER
 Capitol W 1984 (M); DW 1984 (S)

GENE PITNEY MEETS FAIR YOUNG LADIES OF FOLKLAND
 Musicor MM 2007 (M); MS 3007 (S)

TAKE TEN
 Paul Desmond, RCA Victor LPM 2569 (M); LSP 2569 (S)

THE BEST OF JUDY GARLAND
 Decca DXB 172 (M); DXSB 7172 (S)

TREASURY OF GOLDEN HITS
 Sammy Davis Jr., Reprise R 6096 (M); R9-6096 (S)

ON STAGE
 Mary Wells, Tamla 611 (M); (No Stereo)

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT
BETHOVEN: SYMPHONY NO. 4 IN B FLAT MAJOR, OP. 60
 Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra (Furtwangler). Deutsche Grammophon LPM 18742

Conductor Furtwangler has achieved an outstanding reputation as a master improvisationist. His inspired interpretations of two Beethoven works provide interesting and exciting listening. Furtwangler and Beethoven's music is excellent coupling. The maestro asserts his individuality without damaging the composer's. Strong wax.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT
VIENNA, MY CITY OF DREAMS
 Richard Tucker
 Columbia ML 5937 (M); MS 6537 (S)

This album is a first for Tucker, who sings a program of Viennese favorites in English. No matter what the language of the songs, Tucker's voice is incomparable. Franz Allers ably backs him with the Columbia Symphony Orchestra. Listening to the romantic songs will no doubt conjure up memories of the "good old days" of splendor and chivalry that marked Vienna at the turn of the century. Highly commercial wax.

FOLK SPECIAL MERIT
GOIN' DOWN TO TOWN
 Peter Morse, Philips PHM 200059 (M); PHS 600059 (S)

The current craze for folk music has brought with it a proliferation of new talent. Peter Morse may be ranked among the more promising of the new lot. He approaches each tune with a fervent gusto that bestows genuine feeling for the songs he is singing. Peter is equally proficient with the guitar. A few cuts are "Freight Train," "Delia's Gone" and "Come Along Julie." Good listening and programming.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT
EILEEN FARRELL SINGS FRENCH AND ITALIAN SONGS
 Columbia ML 5924 (M); MS 6524 (S)

Eileen Farrell's range of artistry is by no means limited. She is a consummate musician and can readily adjust her normally large soprano to the refinements required of the art song. Her performance here is thoroughly planned and sensitively executed, as she sings works by Respighi, Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Debussy and Faure. Though the program may have somewhat limited appeal, it is a special bon-bon in Farrell's recorded work.

CHRISTMAS SPECIAL MERIT
HEY! IT'S CHRISTMAS
 Benny and His Pal Joe O'Brien, United Artists UAL 3324 (M); UAS 6324 (S)

Joe O'Brien, the morning deejay on New York's WMCA, has a buddy named "Benny," who is actually a speeded-up voice version of O'Brien himself. Here the familiar Benny voice is heard on a flock of typical holiday ditties like "Rudolph," "Jingle Bells" and "Frosty the Snowman," which he does with chorus help. Album could grab a good bit of attention, particularly on the New York front.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT
MOZART: COMPLETE WIND MUSIC, VOLS. 1 THROUGH 5
 London Wind Soloists, London CM 9346 (M); CS 6246 (S)—CM 9350 (M); OS 6350 (S)

This is one of six albums of Mozart's Wind Music as performed by London Wind Soloists directed by Jack Brymer. This LP spotlights only one Mozart work, "Serenade in B Flat, K. 361." The other five LP's feature three to four different Mozart works. Each LP is handsomely presented in a sleeve picturing a scene of the Germany so closely associated with the great composer. Individually, or as a group, the performances are first rate and will be appreciated by the lovers of Mozart, wind music and the classics.

COUNTRY SPECIAL MERIT
CUTTIN' GRASS OSBORNE BROTHERS STYLE
 MGM E 4149 (M); SE 4149 (S)

The Osborne Brothers continue to turn out splendid albums with a great, authentic bluegrass, high-pitched shout vocal touch with some of the sharpest banjo and guitar pickin' to be found. Beyond that, the set has an unusually good quality of recorded sound. The lads offer "Sweet Thing," "Ruby, Are You Mad," "Sour Wood Mountain," "Jed Clampett," "Worried Man Blues" and "White Lightning." Strong wax for the field with pop sales possible.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT
THREE CONTEMPORARY CANADIAN COMPOSERS
 Columbia ML 5921 (M); MS 6521 (S)

Here are three beautiful compositions by contemporary Canadian composers, unfamiliar to most Americans, but absolutely deserving of attention. Harry Somers, Murray Adaskin and Jean Papineau-Couture are the composers, and the works have melodic accessibility and a sophisticated sense of humor in common. There is a temptation to compare them with the schools of Aaron Copland and Leonard Bernstein. Performances are first rate, under the baton of Walter Susskind.

COUNTRY SPECIAL MERIT
THE COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME (2-12")
 Various Artists, Starday SLP 256

Here's another bonanza package (volume three in the label's Hall of Fame series) with countless of the great old performances by the biggest names. Just for example, the set has sides by Patsy Cline, Hawkshaw Hawkins, Lulu Belle and Scotty, Rex Allen, Cowboy Copas, Jimmie Skinner, Flatt and Scruggs, and many others. Obviously, much of this is older material, but much of it is good just the same and collectors of authentic will want it.

FOUR-STAR ALBUMS
 The four-star rating is awarded new albums with sufficient commercial potential in their respective categories to merit being stocked by most dealers, one-stops and rack jobbers handling that category.

POPULAR
RUSTY DRAPER'S GREATEST HITS, VOLUME I
 Monument MLP 8005 (M)

MUSIC AS WRITTEN

NEW YORK

Andres Segovia received an honorary doctorate from the University de Compestela, Spain. He is an exclusive Decca artist. . . . Burl Ives recording in Nashville early this month. . . . A series of 10 half-hour programs on the roots of jazz is being planned by the National Educational Television producer Karl Genus. . . . Nostalgia notes have trombone innovator Bill Haris (with the Woody Herman band more than a decade ago) back in the big leagues with the Pee Wee Russell clan. Group taped a TV seg for Canadian TV CBC. Phil Napoleon has also resumed his career after a lengthy lay-off. . . . Still another nostalgia bit has Georgie Auld back on disk for Philips.

Calboy Records' "What's a Matter Baby," by Wendy and Joey, won a "Battle of the Sounds" on CHUM, Toronto. . . . Same firm reports Tommy Boyce has resigned as partner in its publishing firm. . . . Bob Thompson, national promo manager for Columbia Records, and wife Adrienne have a new heir. The newcomer, a girl, is named Carolyn Louise. . . . Tamla artist Stevie Wonder is currently working in an American International Studios flick, "Muscle Beach Party." He went to the Olympia Theater, Paris, December 11, where he will work through Christmas. . . . Folk singers Addis and Crofut entertained at the Dutch Treat luncheon Tuesday (3). . . . Carnegie Hall Christmas Show December 22 stars Woody Allen, Mel Torme and the Basie band. . . . Lalo Schifrin is on the Coast. . . . Tony Bennett interested in doing some Schifrin-Gene Lees tunes in forthcoming LP. . . . Stan Getz has a version of "Charade" coming in forthcoming Verve LP. Set also features unusual version of "Blowin' in the Wind." JACK MAHER

PITTSBURGH

Liberace, who was scheduled to play 16 nights at Holiday House in his debut there, played exactly one performance before a reported ear illness forced him to cancel and to check into St. Francis Hospital instead. Later, his illness was diagnosed as a virus and he was scheduled to fly to his California home for further treatment by his own doctor. His latest diagnosis is a kidney ailment which may require surgery.

Meanwhile Holiday House owner John Bertera has set the Joe Williams Quartet to fill out the Liberace date. . . . The Three Suns, headed by Artie Dunn, are the draw at the Twin Coaches following the New Christy Minstrels. . . . Leonard Mendlowitz, veteran Billboard reporter here, returns to his post following a siege at West Penn Hospital in Pittsburgh. . . . The piano duo team of Ferrante and Teicher, both native sons, returned home for a Sunday (8) concert. . . . Bill Landy, former singing emcee at the Ankara, has returned home after a month at the West Penn Hospital with a heart attack.

LEONARD MENDLOWITZ

SAN FRANCISCO

Little Johnny Taylor's "Part Time Love" on Galaxy has reached the half-million mark, adding up to the biggest seller the parent company, Fantasy, has ever had. Curiously, the LP containing Taylor's big number is off to a slow start. . . . Speaking of Fantasy, the firm has a solid January jazz release lined up for its Debut series. Included are items by Brew Moore, Cecil Taylor, the late Oscar Pettiford and the late Charlie Parker. . . . A new afterhours spot, the Geary Breakfast Club, opened November 28 with Lou Rawls, Jimmy McCracklin and Jay Payton, among others. . . . Odetta's November 30 concert in Berkeley drew a fair house of 1,000 despite many cancellations following the President's death. . . . Tito Puente and orchestra opened for one week at Off Broadway December 2.

Raising memories of Norman Granz's Jazz at the Philharmonic concert packages, brother Irving Granz brings a big jazz show to the Masonic Temple Auditorium here December 13. On the bill are the Jimmy Smith Trio, Dakota Staton, the Oscar Peterson Trio, Coleman Hawkins, Zoot Sims, Sonny Stitt, Wynton Kelly and Paul Chambers, as well as possible late starters Gerry Mulligan, Stan Getz, Harry Edison and J. J. Johnson. . . . Lu Watters' new recordings will be issued on 45-r.p.m. singles by Fantasy. The trumpeter was planning to cut "Dallas Blues" but dropped the tune in view of recent developments in that city. . . . John Coltrane has been enjoying excellent response at the Jazz Workshop, where he and his quartet opened November 26. . . . The local classical music set is excited over prospects for the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, now that Josef Krips has assumed leadership. Krips became the orchestra's new conductor in late November.

Tom Maley of H. R. Basford, Columbia distributor, reports above-average yule trade this year. Strong seasonal sets by Andy Williams and Robert Goulet, fast-moving Broadway show packages such as "Here's Love" and regional response to Ernie Heckscher's initial Columbia issue are leaders. . . . The off-Broadway club, happy with the business Trini Lopez brought in last month, has booked the singer and his group for 10 more nights, starting December 27. Tito Puente and orchestra put in a week at the club in early December and Woody Herman's herd is set February 14. . . . Barbra Streisand's concert at the Masonic Auditorium and Joan Baez's at the University of San Francisco, December 6 were sellouts.

Singer Don Washington, who made a good impression at the hungry i not long ago, is now working at the Interlude on Nob Hill. . . . On December 3 the Oakland Symphony premiered Darius Milhaud's new work honoring the late John F. Kennedy, called "Murder of a Great Chef of State." The composer completed the piece in one day and air-mailed it to Oakland from Paris. . . . Two recording stars of the 1920's and 1930's have settled in the Bay Area recently: Elmer Snowden and Arthur Schutt. . . . Joe Sullivan, Muggsy Spanier, Darnell Howard and Pops Foster recorded a video tape at KQED December 6. The program, one of a series moderated by critic Ralph Gleason, will be shown around the country on educational TV outlets. . . . Last-minute changes in Irving Granz's December 13 "Jazz a la Carte" show were the omission of Oscar Peterson's trio and the addition of saxophonists Gerry Mulligan and Al Cohn. DICK HADLOCK

GEMA Planning Red Royalty Tab

MUNICH—West Germany's composers' organization—GEMA—is laying the groundwork for the eventual collection of royalties in the non-Communist world, including the United States and Canada, on the works of authors and composers whose royalty rights are controlled by the Communist bloc.

This could be one of the biggest copyright coups in decades, a coup which would make GEMA the primary collecting agency in the non-Communist world for the Communists.

First steps toward negotiation of such a pact have just been taken by GEMA's general director, Dr. Erich Schulze. Schulze has just returned from wide-ranging discussions in Budapest with the Hungarian performing rights society, Bureau Pour La Protection des Droits d'Auteurs, which is under state control.

The main item of business was Hungary's complaint that Western countries have "pirated" the works of Bela Bartok, who died in 1945. Bartok has tremendous vogue at the moment with the Communists. The composer, pianist and collector of folk music (which greatly influenced his own compositions) is depicted by the royalty-hungry

Hungarian Communist regime as a national asset.

The fact that most of his works were composed during the regime of royalty does not deter the Budapest Red regime from trying to collect the royalties. Dr. Schulze's meeting in Budapest was conducted with proper capitalist indignation on the part of Hungarian copyright society for the alleged infringement of Bartok's copyrights in the West.

The Hungarian society controls all Bartok rights for the Communist countries (although the society did not furnish any accounting of the royalties, if any, it has received from the Communist countries). The plan is for GEMA to administer the Bartok rights outside the Communist bloc.

In an interview Schulze said he hoped such an arrangement might take effect from 1965 on at the latest. If so, Schulze proposes to make royalties from Bartok's music in the United States and Canada retroactive to 1961.

Sees Upheaval

Dr. Schulze returned from Budapest convinced that an upheaval is occurring in the Communist attitude toward royalty payments to Western composers and authors.

No longer do the Communists dispute the validity of copyright agreements. On the contrary, they are patently eager to start collecting in the West on the works of their own artists. Moreover, there is no longer a uniform position of "party line" throughout the Communist bloc on performing rights agreements.

Each country is obviously free to negotiate its own arrangements on copyright matters, and, as is illustrated by the Bartok negotiations, the satellites are hastening to do so.

GEMA believes that in time Western authors and composers will find a new market for their music in the Communist countries, and that reasonably satisfactory royalty arrangements can be worked out.

If so, this could be a tremendous coup for GEMA, which under Dr. Schulze's aggressive direction, is pressing a relentless campaign to expand performing rights collections.

San Remo Trims To 24 Tunes

ROME—Final elimination of San Remo entries reached a difficult point and the list of 30 was shaved by six to bring the actual entries to 24 instead of the projected 20. In addition to new singers chosen in the special competition at Castrocaro, the singers who are now certain to appear are Paul Anka, Domenico Modugno, Claudio Villa, Milva, Gino Paoli, Tony Dallara and the Cetra Quartet among top names.

Others reasonably certain to participate are Laura Villa, Bobby Solo, Nicola Arigliano, Robertino, Piero Focaccia, Mexico's Los Hermanos Rigual, Pino Donaggio, Remo Germani, Little Tony, Giorgio Gaber, Tony Renis (currently in uniform for his year's military service), Fausto Cigliano, Fabrizio Ferretti and France's Francoise Hardy.

SINGAPORE BREAKS OUT

HONG KONG—As evidence of the growing strength of the Singapore market, the Diamond Music Company announced this week that it is opening a wholesale department in Singapore. This new office, situated at 35 Jalan Lada Puteh, Singapore, will handle distribution of the following labels: United Artists, Liberty, Dot, Cadence, Cameo-Parkway, Kapp, Congress, ABC-Paramount and Diamond. Ren da Silva, managing director of the company, recently returned from Singapore where he supervised the organization of this new branch office. He spoke in glowing terms of the singles market in Singapore which he stressed was "very much larger than the market in Hong Kong." LP sales there, however, were on par with Hong Kong.

'Hammer' Nails Down Title

By JAN TORFS

MECHELEN, Belgium — As the record industry begins to total up sales here for year-end, figures indicate that "If I Had a Hammer" and "America" by Trini Lopez were the biggest hits of 1963. For awhile it was believed that the title might go to Adamo for his "Sans toi, mamie," but extremely heavy sales from the Lopez disk over the last few weeks have given the American disk the edge. With the few weeks left for sales in the year, it is highly unlikely that any other record will soar up in sales to take the title away from Trini Lopez.

Incidentally, to date the publishers have barred the song to artists for any British release. Decca has issued a tribute instrumental titled "The Kennedy March" which "Telstar" man Joe Meek penned and led the orchestra for—royalties will be sent to Jacqueline Kennedy to donate to charity.

Plans first revealed in this column November 2 for London label representatives to fly here from America to visit British Decca's headquarters have now been finalized. The party of 30 or more reps will arrive here January 6 and the following day will visit Decca House in the morning and the company's factory at New Malden. The day after that (8) the reps will attend a product meeting at the Decca studios and hear the new Phase Four Stereo recordings made by Tony D'Amato for principally U. S. release.

This Is Life in the Big City

By GIL FAGGEN

NEW YORK — It was an ironical twist of fate that took me to the facilities of Radio Press International on East 50th St., and its flagship station WMCA, for a story on Friday, November 22.

There could be no more dramatic and graphic way to demonstrate the workings of a crack news setup than the breaking of a news story that would test the best any organization had to offer.

RPI's special bulletin system alerted the more than 101 North American subscriber stations over an open line to the fast-breaking news events in Dallas. Reports were fed from the RPI affiliate in Dallas, KIXL, to stations from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, to Scranton, Pa. Later, as the epic story unfolded, RPI's full time bureau in the Nation's Capital took over the reins. Supplementary reports were fed from RPI's correspondents based in the key news centers of Europe, Asia, Latin America, Australia and Africa.

That eventful afternoon of November 22 and during periodical air checks by me through Monday night, the effectiveness and thoroughness of RPI was ably demonstrated.

RPI also covers pre-scheduled news events (President Johnson's address to the joint session of Congress last Wednesday, space shots, and presidential news conferences). The audio news service also produces an array of feature programs such as: "From the People," a half-hour panel discussion of current affairs taped in Washington; "World in Review," a report in depth of global news; "Wall Street," a program which defines various aspects of investing and finance for listeners, and other similar programs varying in length from three and a half to 30 minutes. RPI furnished its affiliates last Friday with a quarter-hour documentary, "John F. Kennedy — His Profile in Courage," a profile and biographical report on the late President.

Modern Radio Formated

Radio Press International was established in 1958, and acquired by R. Peter Straus, president of the Straus Broadcasting Group (WMCA, New York), a year later. The news service represented an answer to modern independent radio's news problem.

The launching of independent, modern, tight-formated radio posed some serious problems for those stations not affiliated with a network. While some of the indies had superlative records in covering local affairs, their facilities for gathering national and world news simply were not on a par with the news facilities of the networks: a severe failing in view of growing public dependent for news from independent radio broadcasters.

The managements of these primarily pop formated stations were increasingly sensitive to the news problem. RPI jumped into the vacuum with a format to convey the excitement of the news and hold the attention of the local station's modern fast-moving audience.

"Radio audiences today demand news techniques that involve more than deep-voiced young men reading copy meant for the eye rather than the ear," said Michael J. Minahan, vice-president and general manager of RPI. "Listeners expect immediacy, and the flavor of events

RADIO PRESS INTERNATIONAL'S control center in New York City is manned 24 hours every day, servicing more than 120 independent radio subscribers around the world.

Harrisburg Station Takes Exception to Rival's Claim

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Staffman Pete Wambach of WCMB here has taken sharp exception to several of the claims made by the rival station, WFEC.

Wambach disagrees that Harrisburg is the nation's 21st largest market—doubting the validity of the figure even with the inclusion of York and Lancaster. The story indicated that York and Lancaster were included (according to SRDS and the U. S. Budget Bureau the area ranks as 21st. The City of Harrisburg ranks 69). Wambach's letter further indicates that WFEC's 1,000-watt signal at 1400 on the dial does not "reach effectively more than 10 miles from the city, and cannot be heard in York and Lancaster."

A Billboard story attributed the statement that "true station has moved into first place in less than a month" to a WFEC spokesman.

In summarizing the rating picture in the Harrisburg market, Wambach wrote that "WCMB remains strongly No. 1, WHP, is No. 2, WFEC, No. 3 and WKBO in fourth position—sharing that spot with WSBA in York and sometime Carlisle's WHYL."

DJ's Moral Force in Community

By BILL GAVIN
Contributing Editor

DURING THE DAYS that followed President Kennedy's death, I was privileged to talk with many people in radio, in many different cities. Without exception, they expressed shock, grief and even shame that such a thing could happen in the United States of America. Many spoke with pride of the manner in which their stations responded to the tragic events and of the loyal, unselfish co-operation of their program staffs.

All stations, of course, abandoned their regular formats of popular records, substituting different kinds of serious music. All advertising was canceled until the morning of Tuesday, November 26. Even after that date, many stations were cautiously slow in returning to their full complement of current hit records. In a few cases, it was reported that even though the regular playlist was once more in effect, disk jockeys simply would not program the more raucous sounds.

The entire response of American radio during those difficult days was a mark of innate good taste and respect for listeners' feelings on the part of radio people.

THE QUESTION has been asked by many—and answered by none: Will the sobering reflections of our national tragedy bring about a new trend in programming?

Some things are fairly certain: shock wears off; memories of sorrow grow dim; time erodes the sharp edges of a newly aroused national conscience. It is a part of living that there should be music and laughter and entertainment. No one would want it otherwise.

Radio Influences Youth

Network television and radio do an excellent job of presenting and explaining the world's problems and our concern with them. Unfortunately, very little of the networks' news and commentaries ever reach the school-age population. The majority of the teens and pre-teens prefers listening to pop radio. Pop records are its entertainment and disk jockeys are its heroes.

THERE ARE DISK JOCKEYS who claim to "identify" with teen-agers. What some of them mean is that they accept and condone teen attitudes and behavior. What is implied is often the d.j.'s apparent approval of the lowest common denominator of juvenile morality. The d.j. is the acknowledged leader in the field of records for youth; he too often neglects his opportunities to lead in the direction of more enduring values.

Many radio stations, with their well-publicized "personalities," are held in far higher esteem by their young listeners than are their schools, their churches, or even their homes. It is time, I think, for such prestige to be used to reinforce, rather than to ignore, the basic values of human living.

Isn't it time that radio stood for something besides competition and profit?

Listeners the Final Answer?

HOUSTON — The pros and cons of going directly to the listener for programming decisions have been illustrated by KTRH and KXYZ here, WNMP-FM, Chicago, and KBTR, Denver, during the past year.

The most recent report comes from Chicago where officials at WNMP-FM discovered that asking your audience for opinions is not a bad way to make a programming decision. The station, which specializes in a "Good music" format broken by an hourly newscast, decided to discontinue a midafternoon hour of classical music.

As an afterthought, station manager Ben Scott decided to ask for listener sentiment, WNMP simply made 10 spot announcements over a five-day period, and the results were astounding. More than 850 pieces of mail came in—mostly in favor of keeping the program.

Not only that, many of the letter writers made other comments regarding the station's programming — all of which were compiled into an informal "study." As an example, WNMP listenership appears to be almost 100 per cent adult, in the case of women from single family homes, and among men from the professions. The male-female percentage was split 50-50.

WNMP, which operates out of Evanston at 1,000 watts, consulted direct mail specialists who told the station that a return of less than 1 per cent would be the best expected from such a general broadcast appeal. Taken on that basis, the station projects its afternoon listenership at some 75,000 home and/or cars.

Houston Stations

One of the most energetic approaches to the concept was undertaken nearly a year ago when KTRH, Houston, purchased a full page ad in The Houston Chronicle listing 1,000 music selections. The tunes carefully compiled from a list of million sellers, great standards, current popular favorites and best selling albums, was called "Music - Selector," by KTRH's general manager Frank Stewart.

The station then invited listeners and everyone else in its coverage area to check from the huge listing their own personal favorites. The lists were mailed to the station for tabulation and evaluation.

Result: station abandoned the survey two months later because of "listener apathy," and is offering "total information" and virtually no music programming.

In an effort to meet with FCC license renewal requirements, Houston's KXYZ launched a similar survey through Houston newspapers, which resulted in no significant programming changes at the station.

On two separate days KXYZ placed questionnaires in two Houston dailies and within a week more than 2,000 responses were received—with a majority concurring, coincidentally, with the station's format.

Take Your Pick

The newspaper questionnaires listed 13 program categories, ranging from classical music to humor shows, and asked readers to indicate whether they wanted "more," "less" or the same kind of programming fare.

KXYZ adopted a slogan "the station that listens to its listeners." Apparently this was not hard to do as no changes were recommended, reports indicate.

KBTR, Denver, inaugurated a while ago a 90-day "Operation: Public Opinion" in which 500,000 audience questionnaires were distributed in order to determine the outlet's programming course. The station awarded cash prizes to respondents whose names were used on the air.

Life in Big City

 which voice news convey," he said.

RPI's director of news, Bill Scott (who was on hand in Dallas last week) is providing a modern, reliable, excitingly paced news service for independent radio stations that want the best of national and international reporting without the encumbrance of network affiliation.

Sold only to one station in a market, RPI charges are based on market size. Among the many prominent RPI subscriber stations are: WQXI (Atlanta), WFBR (Baltimore), WHDH (Boston), WGN (Chicago), the Storer stations, WIBC (Indianapolis), WHB (Kansas City, Mo.), KMPC (Los Angeles), WJRZ (Newark, N. J.), WMCA (New York), WBBF (Rochester), KSFO (San Francisco), CKEY (Toronto), WWDC (Washington), WKBN (Youngstown), WSBA (York, Pa.), KEX (Portland, Ore.) and ELBC (Monrovia, Liberia). More than 30 Australian stations receive the RPI service.

On Monday, December 2, RPI extended its service to some 10 million additional listeners and viewers in Australia and the South Pacific.

RPI's first transmission to the area came as part of the opening of the new 13,000 mile Commonwealth Pacific Cable, the world's longest broadcast line. Over 30 key stations in the coast-to-coast Australian Major Network have already signed for RPI service.

RPI news "will eventually be extended to the Philippines, New Zealand and throughout the South Pacific," according to General Manager Minahan.

READY-TO-GO PROGRAMMING

Program directors and disk jockeys will find this material a ready source from which to build weekly programming periods. All that's needed are the disks from the station's record library.

Sylvania Consoles Selling Twice Stereo Portable Rate

NEW YORK — Sylvania is currently selling twice as many consoles as portable stereo equipment, according to George C. Connor, senior vice-president of the firm. Connor's remarks were delivered on the occasion of the opening of the company's new, modern home entertainment center here Monday (9).

The center will be devoted to the display of radio, TV and stereo high fidelity equipment from Sylvania Electric Products, a division of General Telephone and Electronics Corporation.

Connor, speaking at a news conference following ceremonies dedicating the new center, said that current stereo sales are running 35 per cent ahead of 1962. He added that in August and September, the company enjoyed the highest stereo unit sales rate in its history.

Participating in the dedication ceremonies, in addition to Connor, Alfred C. Viebranz, also a senior vice-president, and Eastern regional manager, Leon Schachere, was Y. A. Tittle, star quarterback with the New York Giants. Tittle greeted guests on the floor and autographed souvenir footballs and photos.

Ampex Posts Record 1st Half Sales

REDWOOD CITY, Calif.—The Ampex Corporation has reported record first-half sales, earnings and incoming orders for the first half of fiscal 1963 ending October 31, according to William E. Roberts, president.

Sales of $48,217,000 up 12 per cent from last year were reported. Earnings before taxes were up 14 per cent over the same period in 1962, although earnings after taxes were exactly the same on a per share basis—28 cents—as last year.

Incoming orders for the first half of $50,175,000 were up slightly over last year, while the order backlog at the end of the second quarter of $37,000,000 represented a 4 per cent increase over last year. Roberts said the company expects the year as a whole to show a 10 per cent increase in sales and net earnings

3-M Brings Out New Cabinet

ST. PAUL—A new cabinet has been designed by the 3-M Company to accommodate custom installation deck models of the firm's Revere stereotape cartridge system. Cabinet is finished front and back in oiled walnut, and is pegged at $36. It's designed to accommodate, by drop-in mounting, either the Revere M-20 or M-30 stereo tape cartridge decks, according to A. G. Conley, national sales manager for the Revere cartridge systems.

5 New 'Victrola' Phonos Highlight Victor Sales Meet

NEW ORLEANS—Five new Victrola phonographs, five radios, 10 color TV models and a full line of black and white portable TV were introduced by RCA Sales Corporation here at a special RCA distributors sales meeting over last weekend. The TV portion of the line represents the largest midyear product release in the firm's history.

Raymond W. Saxon, president of the RCA Sales Corporation, said the new line of models "will add even further impetus to the industry's anticipated record sales achievements in 1964. Increased demand has necessitated an expanded selection with emphasis on styling as well as engineering advances."

Taking note of the fact that portable TV has assumed the character of a year-round business, Victor has introduced seven new portable black and white sets, starting with the 16-inch Carry-ette with a nationally advertised price of $129.95.

The color TV line starts with a low-priced ($449.95) table model known as the Burbank. The Nichols console model lists at $499.95, while selected other step-up models carry list prices up to $650. The Cheerleader 16-inch portable at $139.95 carries a special earphone for private listening. The black and white line ranges up to $550 for a combination unit.

SYLVANIA'S NEW HOME entertainment center in New York is a 1,700-square-foot location on the ground floor of the General Telephone Building. The center will display radio, TV and stereo phono equipment five days a week from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., except Thursday, when the salon will be open until 8 p.m.

News Briefs...

Stanley L. Abrams has been named a director of Emerson Radio and Phonograph Corporation, according to Benjamin Abrams, president. As assistant to the president since 1959, Abrams has been responsible for the operation of Emerson's Quiet Kool Division. . . . Philco has changed its servicing policies to give authority to branch distributor service managers to act on their own in matters of warranty and customer service. Formerly, Philco service district representatives were responsible for final approval.

All future Music Industry Trade Shows will be held during the last week in June. According to polls conducted by the National Association of Music Merchants, music dealers and manufacturers have expressed a preference for this period. In other years the conventions have been held as late as the last week in July. Specific dates for the upcoming 1964 show are June 28 to July 2, at a new site in Chicago, the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Emerson Radio and Phonograph Corporation has produced its 22 millionth unit. The set, a 16-inch portable TV, model 1840, was presented to Benjamin Abrams, president of Emerson, by Martin Richmond, vice-president of manufacturing, and other officials of the manufacturing division. A plaque was also presented to Abrams during the brief ceremony.

Next Year the Key One for 3M Tape

By DAVID LACHENBRUCH
Contributing Editor
(Editorial Director, Television Digest)

NEXT YEAR WILL BE A DECISIVE YEAR—perhaps the decisive year—in Minnesota Mining's drive to put its tape cartridge changer concept across. This is the impression we get from Darrell H. Boyd, marketing manager for 3M's Revere-Wollensak Division.

With the close of the old year, 3M has completed Phase 1 of its program. According to Boyd, the recorder-changers are being featured in nearly 600 retail outlets now from coast to coast, in between 70 and 80 markets, including every market area with a population of over 100,000. Sales of the recorder have been better than anticipated, he said.

Since the introduction of the first model late in 1963, a self-contained combination recorder at $450, the price has been reduced to $399, and several new models have been introduced (tape player, record-play deck, player deck), with prices as low as $269 (for the player deck).

The 3M's very next step is an attempt to get more pre-recorded cartridge tapes into circulation. As reported last week in Billboard, it has gone into the tape distribution business, handling tape-cartridge versions of stereo albums under ABC-Paramount and Westminster labels, in addition to Warner Bros.' Bing Crosby "I Wish You a Merry Christmas" album. Further licensing deals are expected to be announced soon.

THE OBVIOUS REASON for this move is to get the tapes where the recorders are, and, according to Boyd, "these cartridges will go to many outlets not commonly serviced by record distributors. We don't expect record distributors to invest time in pioneering this new market." Columbia Records and Musictapes are, however, distributing 3M cartridge versions of their albums. They're going, of course, to the outlets which sell the 3M cartridge tape changer.

The firm has the only facilities for duplicating the 1/7-inch-wide, 1 7/8-inch-per-second tapes and assembling them in cartridges. It does this for Columbia and Musictapes on a custom basis, and obviously would like to interest other labels and distributors.

HOW HAS THE NEW RECORDER STOOD UP under regular consumer use? "We had minor problems like any new product," Boyd told us. "As a result, we made a couple of feature changes—but these are modifications which can be made at the warrant station. Except for these couple of minor bugs, the performance track record has been excellent."

The 3M pricing policies on the cartridge changers have caused some comment in the industry—particularly from those who believe such a device has its major appeal in the lower-priced non-audiophile market. Explains Boyd: "Our marketing approach has been to get acceptance of quality music at this speed and in this cartridge concept. One of our next steps will be to broaden the line."

Does this mean lower-priced automatic cartridge changers this year? Boyd was noncommittal as to timing. "After thorough research on the results of our first year, we know we must break the $200 barrier, and then come close to the $100 barrier. This obviously will call for different recorders designed for these lower-priced markets." Also being studied is the possibility of single-play recorders and decks for use in cars and boats. 3M is also pursuing the original equipment market, and Boyd feels that the tape-changer deck will show up in the so-called "packaged component" class of merchandise before it appears in mass-market stereo units. Equipment manufacturers have been sampled with the cartridge-changer decks.

The firm will not lay low in its promotion after Christmas. "We don't believe the selling season is over then. We're going to start a big program the day after Christmas, built around the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament, which, incidentally, will be our first national TV advertising for the tape cartridge system. We will have Bing Crosby tie-in displays in the campaign."

BEST SELLING

PHONOGRAPHS, RADIOS & TAPE RECORDERS

These are the nation's best sellers by manufacturers based on results of a month-long study using personal interviews with a representative national cross-section of record-selling outlets (only) that also sell phonographs, radios and/or tape recorders. A different price group is published in the space each week. Each category appears approximately every 14 weeks.

The percentage figure shown for each brand is its share of the total number of weighted points derived from all dealer responses. Point tabulations are based on the rank order of manufacturers' sales at each dealer, and weighted by size of outlet. Only manufacturers earning 3 per cent or more of the total dealer points are listed below.

PHONOS LISTING FOR OVER $500

This Issue	POSITION		BRAND	% OF TOTAL POINTS
	9/21/63 Issue	6/22/63 Issue
1	1	1	Magnavox	45.6
2	2	2	Fisher	13.8
3	—	5	Pilot	11.9
4	5	4	RCA Victor	9.6
5	3	—	Zenith	6.1
6	—	5	Electrohome	3.8
			Others	9.2

Since this chart is based on the previous month's sales, it is conceivable that certain brands will appear at one time and not at another because of many influencing factors. Thus it does not indicate that the above ranking applies for any period other than the previous month. Those brands that appeared in previous issues for this category and do not happen to merit a listing above are shown below with their rank order in the issue indicated in parenthesis.

9/21/63 Issue: Curtis-Mathes (4); Packard-Bell (6).

6/22/63 Issue: Curtis-Mathes (3).

reel machines as well as tape cartridges—and we asked him to give his views on the current so-called tape recorder slump.

"We have shopped thousands of stores," Boyd told us, "and we have found that most dealers are afraid of tape recorders—so they shy away from them. The responsibility, like it or not, goes back to the manufacturer. We must make it an important enough part of the dealer's business—and our business—so he will spend time demonstrating and selling recorders. We have been tackling this problem by spending time with store sales personnel, holding meetings, working in the store. We do this with both cartridge and reel-to-reel recorders. This Christmas season, we have our own men working in stores daily, including evenings and weekends. By showing an interest in the retailer, we give him confidence, as well as instruction in selling recorders."

Boyd believes one reason retailers are complaining about poor recorder sales is that the business is "spread so thin"—among both dealers and manufacturers. It's his opinion that 3M's selective direct-to-dealer distribution policy for its Revere and Wollensak lines makes available to it better and more aggressive dealers—dealers who will promote and demonstrate its products.

Now involved in "the largest single national recorder promotion in history," 3M feels it's doing more than fighting other recorder makers for the business. "We're competing with our future competitors," explains Boyd. "Our attitude has to assume that the major brown goods manufacturers are going to be in this market, and we must be prepared to compete toe-to-toe with them." When these home electronics giants enter the recorder market in earnest, Boyd believes there will be a big shake-out of present recorder makers. "Some of the stack is going to fall."

Big 3M—the giant of the tape business, and now a major factor in the recorder industry through Revere and Wollensak—is building firm foundations to face the hurricane to come in the turbulent recorder field.

Anka Poland Hit, But Records Off

WARSAW—Paul Anka's recent tour of Poland was a great personal success, but it turned out to be a financial flop for the private firms turning out post-card disks. These post-card disks featuring such top artists as Elvis Presley, Paul Anka and Cliff Richard are bought mainly by teen-agers. They wanted to hear Anka in person, but since ticket prices were high the youngsters didn't have the money to see the show and buy the disks both. The post-card disk firms say that their sales dropped by 50 per cent during Anka's tour.

The artist was such a hit here that he immediately signed a contract with the Polish Artists Agency to make another tour in February 1964.

show December 8 at New Orleans. . . . Lewis and Cannon played the Goodfellows' Christmas benefit show in Memphis the next night, along with RCA's Charlie Rich and others.

Marguerite Piazza sang the national anthem at memorial services November 24 at the Auditorium for the late President Kennedy. . . . Joe Cuoghi, president of Hi Records, is working with Bill Black's combo on a new single for January 1 release. Single not yet named. . . . Folk singer Jimmy Driftwood of Mountain View, Ark., demonstrated to a banquet audience in Memphis how to play a crude bow and string like a mouth harp.

label topper Norman Weiser, said: "We've shipped 315,000 with no guarantees and no allocations. We've received a great response from Schirmer's in New York and the whole Sears chain has come through nicely."

Weiser said he understood the Handleman racking operation alone had accounted for 75,000 orders through its wholly owned Arc distributorship in Detroit.

Decca, which grabbed the original TV sound track to the BBC-TV, "That Was the Week That Was," memorializing Kennedy, also reports strong demand for its $4.98 list album. Decca, which like most of the other labels with a Kennedy package, is turning over a goodly share of its proceeds to charity, got a big column break from Dorothy Kilgallen Monday (9).

Since that time, the company's New York branch in Woodside, Queens, has been running orders all over the city by station wagon, while other majors orders are being flown around the country. A spokesman estimated a possible sale of up to 250,000 albums by the first of the year.

Meanwhile, the activity on singles of the song "In the Summer of His Years," appeared to be uncertain due to lack of any full-scale radio support for any of the disks. Versions now available are by Connie Francis, MGM; Millicent Martin, ABC-Paramount; Toni Arden, Decca; Kate Smith, RCA Victor; Mahalia Jackson, Columbia, and Hettie London, Palace.

Late in the week, two other memorial singles appeared. One of these was by the Briarwood Singers, a folk-based vocal group on United Artists, who offered "He Was a Friend of Mine." At the same time, British actor-singer Tony Newley wrote and recorded his own tribute to Kennedy on his own A Capella label.

price is uniform throughout the country.

Top-selling artists are Prague Symphony directed by Vaclav Smelacek, Eva Pilarova and Valdomar Matuska, singers and three jazz groups, Karel Krautgartner, S and H Jazz Quartet and Gustave Brom Jazz Ensemble. Latter has recorded with Edmund Hall, American clarinetist, who is popular in Czechoslovakia. Jazz groups are particularly admired because they have won prizes at festivals in England, Belgium and Sweden.

Many merchandising plans popular in the West are also used in Czechoslovakia. One is the record club which offers subscribers a choice from 50 records with four purchases a year required and a premium record offered for each purchase. Premium records cannot be purchased by the general public for one year giving them a certain note of exclusivity. Supraphon operates a "Theater of Music" with 150 seats in which two programs a day of recorded music are offered at a low admission charge. Imported recordings are often advertised as special attractions on such occasions.

The American Artia records are manufactured in the U. S. from Czech tapes and may be sold only in the U. S. and United Kingdom. Export plans for special albums are always on tap and at present two series, one of 18th Century Czech music and one of modern music, are being issued in special album series with an eye to the export market. A one-hour disk film, "The Audition," has also been made with a view to promoting record sales.

At the foreign sales counter of Tuzex, most popular sellers appear to be Italian imports on RCA Italiana label with Mario Lanza one of the best selling artists. Considerable sales are racked up at the cultural centers and Poland's Musa label seems to be one of the better sellers. Cuba puts out most of its disks with the familiar Victor dog on the RCA Victor trademark with the addition of Cubana above the title.

Despite the monopolistic nature of the business there is no difficulty in finding record stores where novel displays are used to whet the public appetite for disks. Center of Prague has many such establishments which feature everything from 45s to complete opera albums. A similar situation was noted in the nation's second city, Brno, which, like Prague, is a recording center. In Prague Supraphon uses its own studios and in Brno those of the radio.

employers of performing artists. The law makes a fetish of extending across-the-board protection to "creative talent" generally, including performing artists.

The draft bill now goes to committee.

outlets by disk engineer Walt Heebner.

Music City is the first chain to obtain the first 46 LP's, titled "The Welte Legacy of Piano Treasures" on the Recorded Treasures label.

The rolls were all cut in Germany by Edwin Welte, who invented the "vorsetzer," a machine which attaches to a piano and plays the original rolls. Richard Simonton, an associate with Heebner in the project, bought the rolls in 1948 after they had been hidden in the Black Forest.

The LP's will sell individually for $12.50. Ninety-eight rolls are yet to be transposed.

Final Concert Series on for Miss Anderson

NEW YORK—On Thursday (12) Sol Hurok presented Negro contralto Marian Anderson to the press to announce her farewell concert tour next season. The tour, which will commence in October, 1964, in Washington, D.C., will continue in major cities of North and South America, Europe and Asia. Her farewell U. S. concert will be held at Carnegie Hall on Easter Sunday, April 18, 1965.

RCA Victor, which has had Miss Anderson under contract for nearly 30 years, announced that during the coming months she will record five albums for release contiguous with her farewell tour. One of the albums will be a "live" performance of her Washington, D.C. concert next October. The others will be recorded from now through next May.

ience have appeared to have changed considerably."

The station has revamped its entire afternoon schedule from 3:30 to 7:00 p.m. The Deane show is aired 3:30 to 5 p.m., six days a week. WJZ-TV has also announced changes in its morning and Saturday program offerings.

It is understood from sources close to Deane that two sharply opposing points of view pervaded within the Group W (Westinghouse Broadcasting Company) station regarding integrated dancing on the show among Negro and white.

Informed sources indicated that although the show's rating has softened slightly over the past two rating periods, the underlying reason for dropping the dance show was the decision that the station would air no dance show if it were not integrated.

Kennedy-Adenauer-Erhard Disks Cue Rise of Spoken Word Disks in Germany

HAMBURG — Deutsche Grammophon reports that its record of President Kennedy's speeches delivered on his visit to West Germany last spring is a run-away best seller.

The Kennedy disk was selling big even prior to the President's assassination. Since then the disk has been sold out all over Germany and new pressings have had to be ordered.

Grammophon is still unable to keep up with the demand. The diskery, in line with long-standing policy, will release no sales figures. But trade sources say the record is the largest selling text disk pressed in this country since the war. Sales are expected to reach the million mark by the year's end. This despite the fact that it is priced at $10.

Trade experts believe that Grammophon is prospecting a rich lode in pursuing the spoken word disk at least for the German market. The first text disk was a collection of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's speeches.

These were hardly gripping by American trade standards, but they racked up astonishing sales. The present Chancellor, Ludwig Erhard, at the time economics minister, then went on wax, and he too sold well, although his speeches were long-winded and rather dry dissertations on economics.

and lived in European countries for 11 years, planes to New York December 9 for a three-week stay at the Hotel Roosevelt, during which time he will meet record and film and TV execs, talent agents, etc., to firm up deals. One of his initial clients is the Tokyo Broadcasting System. Weiss has also inked pacts to represent leading diskeries in France, Italy, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Austria, etc. He will check on the availability of American catalogs for foreign distribution through these companies, in addition to broadening the distribution of foreign catalogs here.

Weiss, who developed Warner Bros. foreign distribution, thanked Mike Maitland and Herman Starr, top Warner execs, for their co-operation. He also announced opening IHC offices in Paris and Tokyo, which will be focal points for coverage of the Continent and the Far East. While in the States he will firm up offices in New York and Hollywood.

A veteran of the international record market, Weiss has been European manager of Capitol and International Manager of E. H. Morris. He joined Warner Bros. in 1959 and personally concluded that company's licensing agreements covering 75 countries and markets.

Mike Maitland, Warner Bros. president, stated: "We're very grateful for the past five years of unselfish and tireless devotion Bobby has given our company and I'm truly sorry to know of his decision to leave. . . . He has been a genuine asset."

fessor at the University of Connecticut, wherein prominent mention was given to the Caedmon disk library of Thomas. Beyond this, additional publicity has been obtained, particularly on the latest repackaging of Thomas readings of his own and other works.

In a statement, the Misses Mantell and Holdridge explained the reasons behind the "phenomenal sales of Caedmon's recordings of Dylan Thomas over the past 11 years." Among these were "the eloquence of the voice itself," the "position of Thomas as one of the great poets of this or any century," the "romantic legend of the man himself," the "amazing diversity of the recordings," the "special place held by 'A Child's Christmas in Wales,'" and the "continued flourishing condition of the arts in America, fostered especially under the Presidency of the late John F. ## Verve Calls 4 Regional Meetings

NEW YORK — MGM-Verve will hold special combined regional distributor, salesman and promotion men meetings in New York, Chicago, New Orleans and Los Angeles.

Kick-off will be in New York at the Hilton Hotel, Friday, December 27 at 9 p.m. Arnold Maxin, president of MGM Records, and Morrie Price, director of marketing, will make the keynote addresses.

Next scheduled meet will take place Saturday, December 28 at 10 a.m. at the Essex Hotel in Chicago with top brass from the label making the scene. Meeting will be held simultaneously at the Royal-Orleans Hotel in New Orleans under the guidance of Tom White, Lenny Scheer, Irv Stimlee and Frank Mancini.

The final confab has been rostered for the Beverly Hilton Hotel, Sunday, December 29 at 10 a.m. with Morrie Price and Sol Greenberg presiding.

DGG meetings have also been scheduled to coincide with the MGM-Verve meetings and have been set for Thursday, December 26 at 8 p.m. at the New York Hilton; Friday, December 27, 8 p.m. at Chicago's Essex Hotel and the Royal-Orleans Hotel in New Orleans, and Sunday, December 29 at 5 p.m. at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles.

Freddy Coming to U. S. This Month

NEW YORK — German recording ace, Freddy, will visit the United States and Canada beginning December 27.

Freddy, who's waxing of "Heimeh" is reported to have sold more than two million disks in Europe, will arrive first in Montreal to tape a TV show, appear in concert January 1 at Toronto's Massey Hall and then on to New York for promotional work.

MGM Records will release the singer's album "Heimweh Nach St. Pauli" in which he sings songs from the musical based on his life story. The album was recorded by Deutsche Grammophon, and released on the Polydor label. MGM will also release his first single this week, "Son, Won't You Come Back" coupled with "Why Can't I Ever Be Lucky."

Exports Top Last Year Again

NEW YORK—For the eighth straight month, U. S. exports of automatic phonographs and amusement machines topped comparable figures of a year ago.

According to information released this week by the U. S. Department of Commerce, coin machine exports for August—not including vending machines—were valued at $3,325,736, as compared with $2,072,207 in August 1962.

Game exports accounted for all of the increase, with unit shipments jumping from 4,983 to 7,733 and value soaring from $926,988 to $2,200,656.

New phonograph shipments increased only slightly—from 1,356 units valued at $943,306 to 1,369 units valued at $985,058. Used phonograph exports actually declined—from 754 units valued at $201,913 to 462 units valued at $140,022.

30 per cent of the total coin machine exports. Last August, they accounted for some 65 per cent of the total.

Foreign buyers, particularly Europeans, are depending less and less on U. S. phonographs, while their reliance on American games is increasing, if anything.

While U. S. sales of new phonographs are holding up, used phonograph sales are nose-diving. European operators are still buying new U. S. equipment for their top locations, but on other stops they're depending more and more on the local product. This means that used U. S. juke boxes are getting squeezed out.

On games it's another matter. The European game manufacturing industry still hasn't got off the ground, and the Americans will probably continue to dominate this field at least until the end of the decade.

MOA Looks Outside Trade

CHICAGO — Music Operators of America is staying with its previous policy of recruiting someone from outside the industry to serve as its executive secretary.

The decision came following a hurried conference call set up by the MOA executive committee following the surprise resignation last week of Robert H. Blundred, managing director for some 18 months.

The "outside - the - industry" rule was first applied when Blundred came in to serve the association in 1962. The previous managing director was E. R. Ratajack, who was an executive with the then AMI manufacturing company.

Previously, George Miller, one of MOA's founders, served in the dual role of president and managing director for some 12 years.

The thinking behind the "outside-the-industry" concept is that such a person is able to come into the organization without any previous industry animosities or prejudices to overcome.

Lou Casola, MOA president, said the executive committee was screening applications now and would begin interviewing in January. An MOA director meeting is slated for January 17 and the executive committee is planning on arriving a day early to screen applicants.

Presumably a decision would be arrived at prior to the end of the January director meeting. In the interim, the MOA office is being managed by Miss Bonnie York, Blundred's assistant, who has indicated she would stay on as long as wanted.

Casola noted that the 30-60 day absence of a managing director would not create any undue problems since most business is usually slow over the holidays.

Casola noted he had already reviewed the resumes of all the previous applicants (received when Blundred was hired) and had received applications of some five or six new men. All are from the ranks of professional association management.

The decision to hire an "outsider" kills the speculation that arose immediately after Blundred's resignation. A number of industry people felt that someone from within the coin machine industry would be best equipped to handle MOA's problems.

MOA leadership however felt that the thinking which led to the original hiring of Blundred was still applicable and that an outsider could continue to bring new life to MOA.

Under Blundred's leadership, MOA increased its membership to nearly 1,000 members and the association was able to hold its most successful annual convention in years last spring.

Bally Novelty Item, Star Jet, Offers Blast-Off Feature

CHICAGO — "Extra balls with extra action sums up the exciting new 'blast-off' feature built into Star Jet," Bally's new two-player novelty pinball game, according to Bill O'Donnell, Bally president.

O'Donnell said "Players shoot to place balls in the two blast-off holes to 'load up' for future scoring power. Then when trigger targets are hit by skill, captive balls are released with the mightiest megatons of action in pinball history—with up to three balls on the playfield at the same time."

The blast-off feature is also one of the strongest repeat play attractions ever designed into a flipper field, said O'Donnell. The ball-lifter always delivers each player his full count of balls, but balls in blast-off holes remain captive from game to game. Star Jet can be operated with five or three balls, with or without a match feature.

United's New Bowl Game Can Give Score of 1,000

FUTURA

CHICAGO—Futura, United's de luxe new long bowler, has the same 1,000-scoring feature as the firm's companion shuffle-alley, Skippy. Regulation and Regulation Champ score in the hundreds, as do the traditional bowling games they are patterned after.

However, Dual Flash, Flash and Advance have scoring up in the thousands, and Futura has a special four-reel scoring to accommodate the high scores.

Futura is completely redesigned and has a number of servicing extras. A key on the top of the back box releases the front glass and trip-out mechanism without pulling the machine away from the wall.

Blackpool Show Draws Crowd From Continent

BLACKPOOL, England — Hundreds of coinmen from the United Kingdom and the Continent visited the third annual Amusement and Coin Machine Exhibition here Tuesday through Thursday (3-5), with some 36 manufacturers, importers and distributors displaying their wares.

The show is a major prelude to the annual Amusement Trades Exhibition, set for London late next month.

Showing here for the first time, Loewen Automaten bowed the new Serenade juke box, accumulates up to 80 credits on the selection accumulator. The 100-selection model has 10 angled speakers with a 30-watt output.

Eltec Display

Another German firm, Eltec, showed console and wall model juke boxes. Gainsmead of Reading is the United Kingdom distributor.

The third German firm, Th. Bergman & Company, Hamburg, showed the new model of the Symphony juke box and the Arizona gun. The firm is represented here by Symplay, London.

Filmbox Equipment Company displayed the Italian-made Cinebox, with a new color film library and color slides which can be used to carry advertisements.

Pachinko Shown

Major-Matics, London, displayed the Japanese Pachinko. Hal Eldridge, Major-Matics major domo, said that Tokyo's 1,800 arcades average 300 Pachinkos each. Players buy metal balls at 40 cents a hundred, with winning score paid off in merchandise.

Halel Enterprises displayed the Mills Bell-o-Matic fruit machines, a line that hasn't been represented here since 1960.

EUROPEAN NEWS BRIEFS

Apres-Ski Bowling

CHAMONIX, France — French winter resorts are giving record play this season to bowlers.

Virtually every French resort has bowling games, which suddenly have become the chic apres-ski sport with the international set.

The bowling boom extends throughout the French provinces and encompasses every major snow area. Some of the gold-plated luxury spots are even featuring bowlers with gold-tinted pins.

Paris fashion houses have designed bowling clothes for winter resort wear, including a slacks outfit trimmed in leopard.

Moppet Market

PARIS—The French trade is focusing on the moppet market, not only because it is the appropriate season but also because surveys indicate the possibility of developing a much larger year-round juvenile trade than now exists on the Continent.

For example, baby soccer is currently the small-fry rage. The juvenile version has even been approved for orphanages and children's homes operated by convents.

Automobile driving games are being produced in juvenile versions, the theory being the games not only entertain the children but train them in practical traffic problems.

Another small-fry standout game in France is the kiddie ride Indian Scout, manufactured by All-Tech Industries of Hialeah, Fla.

JFK Tribute

MUNICH—West Germany's juke box operators reacted quickly with programming changes upon word of President Kennedy's assassination. In consequence, German operators managed to hold collections to nearly normal levels.

This was done by substituting largely solemn music and special memorial records. Some alert operators programmed extensively from Deutsche Grammophon's disk of President Kennedy's speeches delivered on his visit to this country last June.

The operators were quick to recognize that President Kennedy's immense popularity in Germany made his assassination as much a tragedy for this nation as for the United States.

In fact, the period of mourning in Germany closely paralleled that in the U. S.

Mutual Benefits

COLOGNE—West German phonograph operators are seeking ways to strengthen co-operation between the operators and the diskeries.

The Central Organization of German Coin Machine Operators (ZOA) is stressing the mutual benefits to be gained by close operator-record company co-operation.

The plan favored by a majority of operators is for the assignment of a liaison representative by the disk companies to the operator trade. The model in this respect is EMI in Britain, which has a full-time man assigned to the coin trade.

The majority of German operators seem to feel that the diskeries have the option of increasing contacts to the operators or of encouraging operators to turn to the smaller independents catering to the phonograph trade.

Seek Mergers

VIENNA—Austria's coin machine trade is seeking to encourage operator mergers which will consolidate the present large number of small operators into a reasonable number of large and moderately large enterprises.

The operating trade is now so fragmented that it lacks resources to finance new equipment and to expand locations. Moreover, the present proliferation of operators is encouraging the trend to location ownership.

Latest figures show that Austria has around 1,100 operators disposing of a total of 4,000 machines. In effect, operating on BUFFALO—Applications for 40 coin operated pool tables were turned down by Police Commissioner William H. Schneider here last week. Schneider said the devices are illegal because of their "convertability" to gambling devices. Just how anyone could convert a pool table to a gambling device was not explained.

Coin Games at Low In Czechoslovakia

Ed. Note: Information on the coin machine industry in Eastern Europe has been fragmentary, and, at times, contradictory. The following article, an eyewitness report on conditions in Czechoslovakia, was submitted by Billboard's Budapest correspondent.

By PAUL GYONGY

PRAGUE — Czechoslovakia is a virtual coin machine desert, with not more than 10 automatic phonographs in the entire country and no coin games.

A bar-hopping survey of Prague revealed only one juke box and a few cigaret machines, although I did see some automat-type machines vending cake and cold milk.

Government policy is dead set against juke boxes. Officials claim that they deprive musicians of their livelihoods. Games—and this includes football, flippers and shuffle alleys—are considered gambling devices.

Some hope exists that the situation will ease up, though. The Czech consulate in Vienna has begun granting weekend visas to Austrian citizens to visit Brno, Bratislava and surrounding communities.

On the third weekend this policy went into effect, some 8,000 Austrian tourists crossed the border.

If what has happened in Hungary is indicative, the influx of tourists with hard cash to spend may mean the beginnings of a coin machine industry here.

In Hungary, where tourists are now flocking to the luxury hotels in the Lake Balaton area, arcades housing billiard and soccer games have been opened.

Recently, West Germany signed long-term commercial and reciprocal payment agreements with Hungary, Poland and Rumania. This step is expected eventually to lead to consular agreements between West Germany and the three Eastern European countries.

West Germany will be represented at the Budapest International Fair in May, and there is a strong possibility that coin machine manufacturers will exhibit at the show.

Japan will exhibit at the Budapest Fair for the first time, and rumors that the United States also will exhibit are current. As juke boxes, amusement machines and vending devices are not under the U. S. embargo, Eastern Europeans are hoping that Western coin machines will be displayed.

Distributors either sell or rent machines to the clubs. Machines costs range from $280 for a re-conditioned unit to $1,260 for the most expensive new model. Rentals vary from $11.20 to $330.60 a week. The average machine nets the club about $140 a week.

No club may have more than two machines on locations, and the profits must go into the club treasury. Most machines are imported from the United States, Japan and Australia.

Ops Using MOSS 5-Pack Wisely

WICHITA, Kan.—While music machine operators throughout the nation are using the stereo single five-packs issued by Music Operators Stereo Service (MOSS) as programmed, coinmen here are exercising a little imagination in placing the disks on location.

Mark (Pete) Blum, head of United Distributors, local Wurlitzer distributor, has been repacking the MOSS five-packs for local operators to meet the needs of specific locations.

Each five-pack contains balanced programming taken from leading stereo albums, with a four-color album miniature with each disk.

For many locations, the five-pack, as received, will do the trick. But for other locations, stereo programming of a more specialized nature is required.

For example, many locations in the area are country-oriented. Blum will accommodate operators with these stops by assembling a country package from his MOSS inventory.

However, many Kansas operators are assembling their special packs from MOSS material. With 55 new singles now available, the programming latitude is somewhat limited, but with each new five-pack release it expands.

With releases coming out at the rate of 10 singles a month, operators here figure that it won't take too long to build up a basic library, with ample selectivity in all categories.

As all the MOSS material is standard, no matter what the category, year-old disks can be shifted from one location to another and still pull as well as on their first day of play.

Background Music Important Phase of Atlantic-N.Y. Operation

By SOLOMON R. KUNIS

NEW YORK—Atlantic-New York, local Seeburg distributor, has moved strongly into the background music field, both as an operator and as a distributor.

The firm entered the background music field 10 years ago with the Seeburg unit and since then has provided music for hundreds of banks, restaurants and supermarkets in the New York - New Jersey - Connecticut area.

The firm is headed by Meyer Parkoff, and its general manager is Murray Kaye. Background music sales and customer relations are handled by Stanley Lindon, and service by Tom Borsella.

In addition to servicing its own background music locations, Atlantic acts as a distributor, wholesaling the Seeburg service to a number of smaller operators in the New York area. All of them are juke box or vending machine men, who have made background music operation into a lucrative sideline.

Subsidiary Service

According to Lindon, a number of juke box operators are now offering background music as a subsidiary service in their regular locations. In some cases an operator may even offer to provide background music service in order to secure or retain a coin music account. Such a deal, which may cover the cost of installing the playback equipment, is often more effective than offering loans or other inducements to a location.

The Seeburg background music system distributed by Atlantic provides locations with a choice of three different programs. The basic library, designed for offices, banks and stores, consists of show tunes and popular music played at a generally medium tempo. The mood music library, featuring pops and semi-classics in a medium-slow tempo, provides atmosphere in night spots and certain restaurants. The industrial library puts the emphasis on lively popular music, polkas and marches, and is intended to spur production in factories.

In the New York area about 60 per cent of the locations receive the basic library, 35 per cent subscribe to mood music, and the remaining 5 per cent take the industrial program, Lindon reports. Most of his customers are restaurants, who take either the basic or mood library.

Next come banks, offices, stores and factories, in the order given.

Unlike wired background music systems which transmit their programs from a central studio, Seeburg music originates at the location where it is heard. Each of the three libraries consists of 25 microgroove records, nine inches in diameter, played at 16 2/3 r.p.m. Each record contains 40 selections or an hour and a half of music on the two sides, and the total playing time for the complete library is nearly 40 hours.

The disks are played on special Seeburg equipment designed for background music installations, which reproduce both sides of each record and then automatically restacks them after the 25th disk has been played.

Initial Library

Like all Seeburg distributors, Atlantic furnishes its subscribers with the initial background music library of 25 records and installs the record player and supplementary amplifiers and loudspeakers which may be required. In addition, each customer's library is refreshed every 90 days by removing five of the records and replacing them with five brand-new disks, containing 200 new selections. A different set of refresher disks is provided for each of the three libraries offered by Seeburg.

Changeover dates are April 1, July 1, October 1 and December 26. In addition, a special Christmas library of five records is provided for all subscribers about December 1. This permits the location to intersperse Yuletide tunes with regular background music during the holiday season.

Two types of timers supplied by Seeburg for use with its playback equipment permit any location to modify the programming of the background music library. The first is a 24-hour clock, which turns the record player on and off automatically at predetermined times. The second timer can be set to provide any desired combination of playing and non-playing segments—such as 18 minutes on and 12 minutes off—in each half hour of time.

Atlantic's subscribers pay a monthly fee for the Seeburg music service, which covers ASCAP, BMI and other music royalties. Routine preventive maintenance of the equipment, such as changing the stylus, is also included in the monthly charge. However, repairs to playback equipment is not covered unless the units have been rented from the distributor.

Seeburg entered the background music field shortly after World War II with a library of 78-r.p.m. records. Because of the limited playing time the programs met with little success. About 1950 Seeburg changed over to a 45-r.p.m. system, which provided eight hours of continuous background music and proved much more popular with subscribers. The present 16-r.p.m. disk was introduced five years ago and has caught on so well that Seeburg is now the second largest background music company in America.

In addition to building the playbacks, amplifiers and speakers used at customer installations, Seeburg programs and records its own background music libraries on special disks not available for any other use. Much of the music is taken from Broadway hits, and often the songs are recorded before the shows open. The show tunes as well as other selections are given special arrangements by Seeburg to adapt them to one or more of the background music libraries.

Seeburg distributors visit their locations every 90 days to refresh their libraries, but Lindon makes it a point to call on his subscribers at least once a month. "We feel that personal contact with our customers is very important," he explained. "We hear their complaints and suggestions, and make adjust-

Yule Disks Fill Chi Air, Chalk Up Sales

CHICAGO—Christmas music is starting to fill the air waves and juke box operators are programming their machines to follow suit. Here in the Windy City, three Christmas disks are starting to chalk sales.

According to a spot check at Singer One-Stop, operators are buying two versions of "Little Drummer Boy," one by the Harry Simeone Chorale on 20th Fox and the other by Johnny Mathis on Mercury. Rounding out the trio is "What Are You Doing New Year's Eve," by Nancy Wilson on Capitol.

Fred Sipiora, Singer head, noted, however, that Christmas sales are off from last year.

Sipiora blames the generally poor business conditions for the slump. "People still don't seem to have recovered from the recent assassination of President John Kennedy," he said.

In addition to Christmas material, some half dozen pop tunes are garnering sales. On the r.&b. side, operators are buying "Tell Him," by the Drew-Vels on Capitol. Getting good teenage action is "Surfin' Bird," by the Trashmen on Garrett.

Three good all-around records are: "Java," by Al Hirt on RCA Victor; "Love Them All," Jane Morgan's first disk for Colpix, and "As Usual," Brenda Lee's 'as usually good' performance on Decca.

HE TAKES AIM AT WIFE'S DISK

TURIN, Italy—Selection of juke box numbers can be a deadly serious matter with some people. When a client gave Grazia Jerino, wife of a bartender, a coin and asked her to choose a number, her choice was a French song, but her husband took exception because he preferred Domenico Modugno. In the altercation which followed he shot her three times. Fortunately, she will live to make other juke box selections in the future.

WE LOVE YOU!
xxx

Sincerely,

Partly it's because of all the nice things you said about us when we recently unveiled the new Rowe AMI Tropicana phonograph.

You said such flattering things as "Great engineering" . . . "That stereo sound is just right" . . . "So is the three-in-one flexibility" . . .

"The price is right, too" . . . "There's a new leader in coin-operated phonographs—The Tropicana."

Mostly, though, we love you because of what you did rather than what you said. You bought in quantities unprecedented in our history, far greater than our expectations. See your Rowe AMI distributor.

L. A. Vending Tax Relief Seen

LOS ANGELES—The year 1964 is expected to show the culmination of two years' work by the Western Vending Machine Operators Association here to obtain more equitable licensing in numerous municipalities of Los Angeles County, Eugene Zola, Beverly Hills attorney and secretary-treasurer of the association, said.

Zola has conducted virtually a one-man battle against what he described as unfair and discriminatory license fees. Though he worked primarily for the association's members, all operators in the county benefit from his victories.

The battle started late in 1961 when Zola joined forces with the association as a taxation representative. From the time he was employed until 1962, Zola made a study of municipal assessments and mapped his strategy. He found there were two purposes in city government licensing: 1) raise revenue, and 2) regulate and control certain types of inter-transitory business operating in their incorporated areas.

Harmful to Business

Zola's opinion is that the license becomes primarily a regulatory one, harmful to small businesses such as bulk operators because the monetary returns from licensing this category is infinitesimal compared to some other businesses on the same level.

Zola was asked what operators could expect in the way of relief from these licenses in 1964. Here are his answers in a taped interview.

"I hope and look forward to the cities of El Segundo, Whittier, Gardena, and, even one of the most stubborn ones, Redondo Beach, where the city council said it was a revenue-raising matter and that they would not budge, to change. I believe after a full reflection and study of the matter, the councils will grant the operators the relief they have requested. When Redondo Beach took its adamant stand, many

3 N. Y. Firms Knock Out Glen McPhail

NEW YORK—Glen McPhail, doing business as Beaver of America, has been placed in involuntary bankruptcy by three New York firms—Eppy Charms, Karl Guggenheim, Inc. and Buy-more Vending. The two first-named companies are charm manufacturers. The third had been the Beaver distributor here.

The action took place in the U. S. District Court in Detroit, headquarters of Beaver of America.

McPhail's brother, Ken McPhail, was head of the Beaver Vending & Casting Corporation, Toronto. The Canadian firm has gone bankrupt, with the assets acquired by Hitchcock Vending in Nashville. The Tennessee firm is making bulk vending machines using Beaver tools, dies and patents.

Heat Treatment for the Nuts

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — If a route of service station locations for peanuts, cashews, pistachios and similar nuts goes sour there is an ideal solution, according to M. A. Johnson, bulk operator covering Alexandria, Arlington, and other suburbs of Washington.

Johnson simply applies heat—by switching over from standard non-headed bulk-vending machines to electrically heated units which provide just the right temperature for American and Spanish peanuts.

All of these machines are somewhat on the vintage side, many of them, in fact, over 25 years old, but all have been treated to new heating electrodes, thoroughly sanded down and repainted.

Heat Important

Heated peanuts are particularly important during the chill winter, Johnson points out, when the person who drops a coin in is more likely to be interested in the heat than what he vends to himself. In fact, Johnson often triples his peanut sales with the application of heat, simply because chilly motorists want something to snap them up a bit while driving.

Incidentally, Johnson doesn't advocate heating of cashew nuts. His experience has been that cashews too often acquire a soapy flavor, particularly if the heat is cut off and the nuts allowed to cool to room temperature. All types of peanuts, however respond very well to electrical heating in this way, and often their flavor goes undisturbed, even where the vender has been accidentally cut off and the electrical cord plugged in again.

This is a common problem, incidentally, in service stations, where clean-up personnel are likely to move the vending machine while mopping or sweeping, forgetting that it is plugged into the wall. Johnson carefully uses plugs which can be easily removed, to prevent damage to cords, and the frequent need for replacement.

Cost Factor

Naturally, when Johnson first broached the idea of heated nut venders to his service station location owners, there was a certain amount of grumbling about the cost. All were willing to go along, however, on a test basis, to determine what extra amount of sales the heated units would produce.

In every case the increase was so marked that no location owner has suggested that the commission be altered, or that the operator pay any sort of fee

Eppy Woos Doll Market With Accessory Charms

JAMAICA, N. Y. — Eppy Charms, Inc., has developed a new market for bulk venders—dolls. In a new mix recently released, Eppy has produced a line of doll accessories—shoes, travel case, lunch boxes and swim flippers, which will fit certain nationally advertised dolls. Asserting that the doll population in America now exceeds 30 million, Eppy has prepared these items (both plated and plastic) for use in two mixes—a Doll Accessory Mix and a penny charm mix bag which features a mixture of the doll accessories and de luxe gold charms.

Attractive four-color merchandising display cards are available with each purchase.

Other Eppy items currently in release include 10 Puzzle Games, a series of 10 different puzzles designed to vend in any penny charm machine. A two-color label is supplied free with each thousand purchased.

Lucky Charm Key Chains are also available from Eppy Charms as a 10-cent capsule item. Twenty assorted key chains, including Plated Rabbits Feet, Horseshoes, Loving Cups, Pendants, Horse Heads, Binoculars, Watches and Footballs are available in capsules. Four free merchandise displays are available with each thousand purchased.

G'heim Releases Mr. Satan and Golden Knights

JAMAICA, N. Y.—Karl Guggenheim, Inc., this week introduced Mr. Satan, a devil's head charm, with glass eyes and a fierce expression on the face. A loop in the back makes it usable as a charm or a button.

Another Guggenheim release features Golden Knights, a series of armored knights in various battle poses replete with spears, shields, swords and arrows. Molded of flexible, golden colored plastic, the miniature knights are similar in concept to the U. S. combat soldiers previously released by the firm.

Both charm items are available with merchandising labels.

Wis. Operators Set Discussion On Vending Law

MILWAUKEE — Wisconsin vending machine operators are invited to a discussion of the State's new vending law and the current tobacco-health controversy to be sponsored by the Wisconsin Automatic Merchandising Council at the Forum Room of the Milwaukee Inn, Tuesday (17), 1:30 to 3:30.

Also to be discussed is a major reorganization of the WAMC board of directors. Dave Hartley, legal counsel of the National Automatic Merchandising Association will speak on the State's new law. Walter Reed, public relations director of NAMA, will discuss the cigaret controversy.

Dorn discussed problems and solutions with Mrs. Celia G. Hodge, president; Charles V. Several operators have dropped by to see Charles V. McDowell, general manager of Southern Amusement Company, to try to talk him into rejoining Memphis Music Association. McDowell hasn't rejoined yet. Southern's resignation may mean there will be more competition in the future in obtaining some locations, some operators speculate.

Coin Machine Break-Ins On the Rise as Yule Nears

MEMPHIS — Coin machine break-ins have increased sharply in the pre-Christmas week as thieves seek money to buy Christmas gifts, Assistant Police Chief Charles Young said last week.

Young said his men have caught a gang of seven youths who had admitted a total of 21 burglaries of drink, cigaret and candy machines.

Young said his squad cars have been alerted to increase their vigil of outdoor coin machines during the holiday season for thieves, ironically, steal more at that time of year than any other.

Young said the young burglars were caught when an alert lieutenant spotted a freshly burglarized cigaret machine, began patrolling the area and spotted a car with two youths in it.

They sped away, he followed and on questioning them discovered some loot in the car. They confessed and implicated the other five. All, aged 11 to 16, were turned over to Juvenile Court.

Young said exact amount of money stolen from the machines could not be determined. He said, however, "the biggest loss was in damage to the machines."

Operators know this only too well. Break-ins had increased so tremendously a few years ago that Memphis Music Association formed a committee to work with police to catch coin burglars and prevent as many break-ins as possible.

The increased patrolling and watching of locations reduced burglaries by about one third. Police and the association have managed to keep them down, but occasionally they spurt up again.

of the operators pulled their machines from locations within that city. This cut off revenue to the city from this business category. This is only one way to effectively fight such rulings."

Where licenses are the highest, do you find the city council(s) lack understanding of bulk vending operations?

"Yes. The council thinks only of a vending machine, per se. The members do not break it down as to bulk, package, etc. When they vote on vending, they think only of big business vending—big operations. They think of the big 10-cent candy machines, 30-cent cigaret machines and others that might easily gross a couple of hundred dollars a month, not a peanut machine with a monthly gross in pennies.

No Equity

"So, they set a fee of $5 for a 'vending machine' and as a bulk vender is smaller they decide it should be $2. There is no equity between a machine assessed at $5 and has 10 to 15 kinds of candy and a $2 machine that vends a single product and operates on pennies."

Are some city councils sympathetic to bulk vending?

"The answer is definitely 'yes.' Let's not overlook the fact these councils are, in the main, those who are successful in their own businesses. Many of them, like the operators, are small businessmen. They also have children. These councilmen do not want to force children to have to put several pennies into a machine to cover the license. A number also realize that bulk machines are the only remaining place where merchandise can be bought for a penny."

What was the license situation at the close of 1962?

"At the close of that year, we had switched the city of Inglewood to a $30 per year flat fee from a $1 per nickel machine license. We also contracted Santa Monica which had a license structure of 50 cents for a penny machine and $2 for nickel ones and obtained a $20 per year license for the first 50 machines and 25 cents per machine for those in excess of that figure."

What was the trouble in Buena Park and what was accomplished there?

Disturbing Call

"We received a very disturbing call from one of the operators with machines in that city to the effect that the license of $6 for penny and $9 for nickel machines was to be enforced with all machines on locations and for which the license had not been paid to be tied up or confiscated.

"After various discussions and negotiations with the city attorney's office and the licensing administrator, we were able to get a stay of action. I have been informed recently that Buena Park is revising its entire business license structure and it will also apply to bulk vending machines. In the meantime, no penalties have been imposed upon the operators on locations there.

"We were successful also in getting Baldwin Park to change from $1 per machine to a flat rate of $24. Pico Rivera amended its ordinance to a rate of $2 per machine up to $25. Whittier and Gardena gave assurance that during the next year (1964) license changes benefiting the operators will be made."

Were you successful in all of your contacts?

"No, but we have a good record, I think. We contacted the city of Oxnard (Ventura County) at the request of Len-Art Vending in that city. The matter was taken into consideration but the council voted against any change. Seal Beach, where we worked upon the request of Joe Arguelles of Joe's Vending Service, is on the fence and can go either way. The matter is being studied and I am to be advised of the disposition.

What is your policy for working on a license problem?

"When an operator member of the association brings to light that licenses are severe in an area in which he has machines, the association votes the action to be taken. If the majority want me to investigate and work on the problem, then we send a letter two or three pages long explaining the operator's side of it. We also point out the inequities and unfairness of the assessment. A hearing is requested and the matter presented in person. We also point out the alternatives which may be taken to give this operator some relief."

What is your goal in license procedure?

"Vending is a merchandising business and there is no difference between a man who takes a number of machines into a city and services them from his headquarters via truck and the man who opens the door to his store each morning. The selling is there, the method varies.

The merchant, however, may pay $25 and do $150,000 a year. The bulk operator may have to pay $25 also and he can only dream of a $150,000 gross. Here is the inequity. We try for a flat license or one based upon gross receipts. These, in my opinion, are fair:

ments in their programming. Unlike the wired music programs, ours is a flexible service which we can always modify to meet a subscriber's needs."

According to Tom Borsella, Atlantic's service manager, maintaining and repairing playback equipment at the locations is a minor problem. The Seeburg units are designed for rugged operation and seldom give trouble even in locations operating on a 24-hour basis.

The biggest problems for Borsella and his crew come on changeover days, when hundreds of subscribers must have their background music libraries changed virtually overnight. The biggest headache of the year will come in a few days—on December 26 to be exact—when the Christmas music inserts must be cleared out of every library in the area.

On this day the entire service and installation force, and even the office help, are pressed into service to still the sound of Christmas past for another 11 months.

toward the cost of electricity.

Johnson by now has enough hot-nut machines to replace all of his cold-temperature models, many of them located merely by culling through the equipment rooms of his contemporary operators in the Washington area.

Wherever the old machines turned up there were usually one or two which he could buy at an attractive rate, replacing the electrodes with some of his own design, originally manufactured for use in electric irons.

Johnson feels that he could use from 50 to 75 more such machines this winter, and is currently advertising and co-operating with other operators throughout the Washington area in search of such equipment.

either one or the other. Los Angeles has a gross receipts tax."

What would you advise operators in other sections to do regarding unfair licenses?

"In this day of population explosion and incorporation of municipalities, I would suggest that they contact the license administrator when the city government is being formed. The point is to keep the ordinance off the books. It is easier to keep it off than to remove it once it has been recorded. Then, of course, present the operator's side. I think they will find nearly all city councils willing to listen, at least.

HOW SWEET IT IS: On January 14, one of the songs Frank Fontaine sings on the Jackie Gleason Show will be a new one, written by Gleason and Irving Caesar, entitled "How Sweet It Is." An ABC-Paramount single by Fontaine is ready for release and will also be included in his forthcoming LP. No musical slouch, Gleason has nearly 30 albums available on Capitol.

ANKAS AWAY: Paul Anka has just concluded his fifth international tour (this one included invitational performances for the Polish government) and is shown here as he docked in New York harbor last week with his beautiful wife Anne. They returned on the S.S. New Amsterdam.

GRECO IN GERMANY: French singing star Juliette Greco recently gave two concerts in Hamburg and two in Berlin. She is pictured here with singer Peter Beil and Wolfgang Kretschmar of Philips Ton. Come January, Juliette will appear in a new stage play by Francoise Sagan in Paris.

HALE AND HARDY: Francois Hardy, singing star who has scored mightily in France, Belgium, Italy and other European countries, added another nation to her string of victories last week by winning the popularity contest sponsored by the Spanish disk jockey "Discomania." Miss Hardy beat out a constant former winner, Connie Francis, as most popular foreign female singer in Spain.

JANE, JANE, MOST UNPLAIN: Voluptuous Jane Mansfield is leading lady to Germany's ace recording star, Freddy, in current album, "Heimweh Nach St. Pauli" (Memories of St. Paul), a musical based on the life of the saint. Album will be released here by MGM Records, which will also issue Freddy's first single (to the U. S. market), "Son Won't You Come Back," coupled with "Why Can't I Ever Be Lucky." Is he kidding???

NASHVILLE SESSION: Country vocalist Judy Lynn is shown during her initial recording session in Nashville. She is seen here with H. W. (Pappy) Daily, veteran producer for United Artists Records.

SEEGER IN TOKYO: Folk artist Pete Seeger, during recent tour of Japan and Far East, makes an appearance on NHK-TV, Tokyo. He is shown here with moderator and translator.
