MEET THE FAB FIVE

BY CHUCK TAYLOR

AH, THE ALLURE of a brand-new year. Like a slate wiped clean, a blackboard with no chalky residue. The year gone by saw radio endure a host of tenacious tussles, from off-putting spot-loads and fleeting audience shares to competing technologies that matured to the point of shooting flames at terrestrial radio's own homeland security.

But there is much to anticipate this year at top 40. Following is our list of the five people, places and things likely to make top 40 radio shimmer in 2005.

PERSONALITY: ROMEO, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WHTZ (Z100) NEW YORK

If ever there was a successor to radio personality turned multimedia icon Ryan Seacrest, Z100 evening jock Romeo is the guy we would put our chips on.

On the air, he's a teenager's best friend: familiar, energized, youthful and provocative enough to approach the edge without actually crossing it. Face to face, Romeo (born Tim Herbster) is a charmer too, with a poise that lends him unaffected star quality.

The Pennsylvania native started in the business running religious programs overnight at a station in St. Marys, Penn. From there, he worked in Erie, Penn.; Johnstown, Penn.; Nashville; Salt Lake City; and Detroit.

By the time he got to Detroit, he had the skills to be named assistant PD/assistant MD at top 40 WKQI (Q95.5), and in 2001, he served as interim PD. That put him in daily touch with Clear Channel senior VP of programming Tom Poleman, who was impressed enough to handpick Herbster for Z100's 7 p.m.-10 p.m. shift. Romeo (a name chosen by Poleman's wife, Ginny) was born.

"I still don't know how I got the gig at Z100," he says. "I can think of 50 jocks who I think are better than me for nights. I was very fortunate. Everything about working at Z100 is great, from getting in for 9 a.m. meetings until I get off the air at 10 p.m. Being involved in Z100's programming brain trust is my favorite part of the day."

"Romeo on the Radio," with sidekick Niko, has propelled the jock to further heights: his own videogame on egamingzone.com, which launched last February. Players guide Romeo from his apartment to the Z100 studios atop the Empire State Building, maneuvering him past rats and pigeons, cops and fans. "Romeo on the Run" is currently the second-most-popular game on the company's Web site. How many jocks can boast a cartoon alter ego?

"Who wouldn't think that's cool?" Romeo says. "Our listeners got free entertainment in the form of our brand; the client was hand-delivered No. 1 18-24 ratings and a ton of hits on their site. And anything that can keep you on the top of your listeners' minds when you're off the air is gold."

Romeo also participated in the first live webcast of New Year's Eve from Times Square, hosting an all-night celebration on msn.com.

"This was the toughest gig I've ever done," he says. "We were live for 6½ hours in front of a camera. I'm suspecting that's how I landed the gig—no TV personality wanted it. The local TV anchors and all the network folks were looking at us like we were crazy. They would cut in once or twice an hour and head back to the warmth of their trailers. It was magical for me, though. And getting e-mails from every corner of the world and realizing that we were ringing in the New Year with millions kept us warm."

Romeo's efforts have not gone unnoticed. In both 2002 and 2003, he won the New York AIR Award for best night show. Now, he's focused on the future.

"This is going to be a great year for Z100," Romeo says. "Personally, for 2005, I want to grow in the programming department, make myself available for more projects and have No. 1 numbers across the board."

STATION: WRZA (NINE) CHICAGO

WRZA Chicago is doing something brand-new: It's behaving like top 40s used to.

The heralded and admittedly experimental Nine (99.9) launched in June 2004 with a mantra that pretty much wipes the floor with current programming philosophy: "We play anything."

The station's catalog of more than 3,500 songs blends hits from the past three decades with currents. Its first-week 2005 playlist included Jimmy Eat World, Big & Rich, Eric Clapton, Dido, Elton John, Keane, Goo Goo Dolls and the Killers. Imagine—a radio station that touts variety and means it.

"I have never seen such rabid reaction from the press and fans alike," PD Sky Daniels says. "We have been the subject of no less than 14 articles in Chicago papers, including a front-page feature in the Chicago Tribune and [being] named most promising station by the Sun-Times and Illinois Entertainer. We are generating a much more passionate response from listeners—y younger and older—than I ever saw when we launched WLUP or KFOG."

Daniels adds that the station didn't have to work hard to explain to listeners what it's all about; they just seem to get it.

"Listeners have stated, with determination, 'Finally, someone who plays a little of everything,'" he says. "On that level, we are a throwback to the early '70s. Some rock, hip-hop, alt, pop. We get listeners 18-54 saying that they have always wondered why radio plays the same thing over and over. These are not left-of-center extremists, either. Some turn around and request Kelly Clarkson, or U2, or Snoop. Or all three."

While Daniels thinks a Nine-like station would draw as much attention in other markets, he credits Chicago with demanding more creative radio.

"This station would be even bigger in New York or L.A., and it would humiliate stations in a lot of markets, but Chicago demands greatness," he says. "Radio matters here—more than, say, New York or L.A. Hell, I came back to this market after 20 years, and people had named their kids after me."

TREND: MELODY

There is a good reason why the top three live acts in 2004 were Prince, Madonna and Celine Dion. All three artists are known for a trusty stable of singable songs that have become a soundtrack for people's lives.

Over the past several years, mainstream top 40 has increasingly put its trust in a parade of hip-hop acts whose gimmicky chants tend to lack melodic substance—thus, few stand a chance at earning slots in a station's valuable gold catalog. Witness Will Smith's tirade of sample-packed novelty songs that pervaded the airwaves in the late 1990s: How many of those records can most listeners stand to hear now?

It's a trend that radio at last began to depart from in 2004. Top 40 actually nurtured a staple for itself in Maroon5, whose hits have given the format a signature act and a handful of indelible songs that will serve the airwaves for years to come. But we're hoping that this year will demonstrate a marked improvement in the return of pop melodies to radio.

"The sign of a reinjection of pop hits over the past year from artists like Britney Spears, Justin Timberlake, JoJo, Jessica and Ashlee Simpson may be an indication that we're emerging out of the doldrums of the past few years," says Guy Zapoleon, president of top 40 consultant Zapoleon Media Strategies. "And that makes total sense, as the rebirth period for top 40—over the past 60 years of rock'n'roll cycle history—always begins somewhere in the middle years of the [decade]."

"This is all very good news for the music industry and radio," Zapoleon adds, "since even with a wider acceptance for what were once termed the more extreme styles—hip-hop and edgier alternative—the biggest hits that are accepted by the masses are more pop. And formats that feature a balance of pop have more massive ratings."

PROGRAMMER: CHRIS SHEBEL, KNGY (ENERGY 92.7) SAN FRANCISCO

Chris Shebel is a PD on the move. In fact, during the past decade, he has crisscrossed the country no fewer than six times.

"My motto has always been 'Radio is fun.' As long as I feel that way, I stay in," he says. "Besides, I don't have any other appreciable skills."

Jokes aside, Shebel takes the business of radio seriously. In his first PD job, at WDJX Louisville, Ky., he was named

SOME TRULY SOUND REASONS WHY YOUR 2005 WILL BE GREAT

Billboard's small-market top 40 PD of the year in 1993 and 1994. From there, he moved to programming gigs in Providence, R.I.; Pittsburgh; Chicago; Raleigh, N.C.; and West Palm Beach, Fla.

In October, he took the PD post at upstart KNGY (Energy 92.7) San Francisco, an independently owned dance hits station. Shebel regards the job as his biggest challenge yet.

"San Francisco has a long history of being in dance, and my goal is to make Energy a strong representation of the best of dance music and become part of the community," he says. "With strong gay, Latino and Asian populations, dance can be a strong position in the city."

"We're also an independent station owned by our GM, Joe Bayliss, so we hope to do some things a little different, whether it be reduced spotloads—only six units an hour right now—or a commitment to diversity that I hope will be reflected on our airwaves and in the streets."

That indie status also gives Shebel some breathing room to grow the station specifically for the marketplace.

"I've worked in a variety of formats, and the one thing I have learned is patience," he says. "You don't build things overnight, and you also have to adapt to whatever environment you are in. Chicago was a great experience, because the signals were suburban, and we had to focus on superserving small regions of the metro if we were going to make a mark in Arbitron. We have the opposite here, where we have to superserve the city, but many of the tactics are the same."

And it looks like this time he may be staying in town for a good while. "There is nothing better than doing something you love," Shebel says. "On New Year's Eve, our E-Team was in the Castro collecting money for tsunami relief. It's really neat when people come up to your staff and tell them how great it is to have a station like Energy to listen to. It's nice to be appreciated."

TECHNOLOGY: DIGITAL SOUND

In the past 35 years, music media has staged a revolution, from vinyl to 8-track to cassette to CD to MP3. In that same span, radio broadcasting has delivered FM stereo and . . . well, a lot of broken promises.

First, there was the debacle of AM stereo; then the unfulfilled advance of text-enabling Data Broadcasting Service; then the deflation of an in-band, on-channel upgrade. So, while sound has graduated to digital quality across most of the spectrum, broadcasters have been held back in elementary audio school.

If all goes as planned, however, 2005 will be the year that terrestrial radio takes tremendous strides, offering consumers the kind of audio quality they are accustomed to everywhere else.

High-definition radio promises to turn FM into a CD-quality listening experience—with the potential for surround sound in the future—and AM into stereo, while eliminating the static, hiss and pops associated with analog radio. The technology features wireless data and text streams, too.

The year is off to a promising start with the Jan. 5 announcement at the Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas that 21 of the nation's radio groups are banding together with developer iBiquity Digital to accelerate the conversion of 2,000 AM and FM stations to HD. Considering the 500 stations already on their way, HD will be available in all of the top 100 U.S. radio markets. In addition, 309 public radio stations have committed to the technology.

While these are rewarding numbers, Omnia Audio's Frank Foti, a driving force behind the technology, warns that creating consumer demand for HD radio is the other half of the battle.

"Yes, we're seeing more broadcasters announce that they're tooling up for HD radio—they're ordering and installing what is needed," he says. "But equally important is that broadcasters need to promote this medium in order to create consumer interest."

Foti says FM stereo succeeded when it was new because radio stations promoted the fact that they were broadcasting in stereo. "They did cross-promotions with audio shops and stores to help create awareness of FM stereo, and it helped sell radios," he says. "We need to do this again with HD radio, like '100.7 WMMS, FM-surround.'"

"The key element to making a difference is the wow factor," Foti continues. "HD radio has the capability to do this, but it won't come solely by means of just going digital for the sake of going digital. It will happen by leveraging the digital transom with killer applications like 5.1 surround sound for FM. The HD AM system already offers a wow factor, due to the improved frequency response of 15 kHz and, finally, stereo."

"HD radio alone won't save AM/FM," Foti stresses. "Killer apps that utilize the technology will. Consumers want something that excites them. Look at the iPod . . . Does the consumer need an iPod? Probably not. But they want it."

Peter Smyth, president/CEO of Greater Media, is confident that once it's ready, HD radio is going to be a winner for consumers.

"I have HD radio in my car, and it's just amazing when the music surrounds you. It's a whole new quality of experience," Smyth says. "Superior sound, coupled with the information that we can display on the dashboard, will allow us to [provide] listeners with vastly improved entertainment, and we do it for free. We encourage receiver manufacturers to put HD radio in every car in the country."

ROCK RADIO: STERN, THE OTHER STERN...

BY BRAM TEITELMAN

The biggest story of 2005 at rock radio actually started in 2004, when Howard Stern announced in October that he was leaving terrestrial radio for Sirius at the end of 2005. While much of the chatter last year centered on who his inevitable replacement(s) will be a year from now, some stations have wasted no time in making changes.

Claiming they were tired of him promoting Sirius, the four Citadel stations that air Stern first began pulling him off the air at 10 a.m., then replaced his two-week "best of" stretch with different programming, most notably fellow radio exiles Opie & Anthony at active WAQX (95X) Syracuse, N.Y.

Meanwhile, just months after signing back on in Miami, Beasley sports/talk WQAM has also dropped Stern. While the move was ostensibly made to put an afternoon jock in mornings, the fact that Beasley knows Stern will be off the station by year's their 2002 departure from WNEW New York, viewed their two-week stint as a test run for their eventual return.

Anthony Cumia says that hearing Stern incessantly promoting Sirius pushed Suleman to the breaking point. "When Howard went to 'best of,' [Suleman] decided he was going to pull him off and pop us on there," he says. "The whole way the thing worked out was pretty informal. It was sort of a testing ground for putting us back on terrestrial radio."

Cumia says the duo would "absolutely" be interested in replacing some of Stern's affiliates if the situation was right. "When we were over at WNEW doing afternoons, we shared Howard's audience, and I think it's a no-brainer to pop us in, especially some of those markets that we were really big in. I think they would be very happy with the result."

"We don't want to compromise what we're doing now, and we're pretty happy with the show right now," Cumia continues. "It's quite a lot of freedom when you don't have to worry about

WKQX (Q101) Chicago morning man Mancow Muller is another personality who would like to pick up some new affiliates. In fact, he signed a three-year deal with the Talk Radio network last year to represent him. "I think the time has come for all of America to hear 'Mancow's Morning Madhouse,'" he said on his show in November.

Q101 PD Mike Stern supports his morning man's efforts to expand past his handful of affiliates. "Would I love a 100% local morning show? Yes," he says. "But there's a lot of 100% local morning shows that don't bring the sheer amount of show and entertainment value that Cow brings every morning. I think the show's phenomenal, and I'm rooting for him."

"I want him to grow. It benefits him and us in that the more markets he's on and the more power he has, the more stars and bands and guests are going to want to be on the show, and it will increase the star power of the show."

"He has got a track record of 10 years of dominating males 18-40 in Chicago, which is hard to do. When you look around after Stern for your next option, I think there's a viable thing here, especially where the show is today."

ANOTHER STERN EXTENDS HIS REACH

Speaking of Q101 and Mike Stern, he has had a year to fine-tune the station since arriving from active WLZR (Lazer 103) Milwaukee. However, Emmis' purchase of heritage rock WLUP (the Loop) from Bonneville, and Stern's subsequent promotion to VP of programming for Emmis/Chicago, gives him two stations to oversee. How Stern adjusts the two stations to complement each other, and how he makes changes to the heritage signal without alienating its longtime listeners will be something many in the rock industry will be watching in 2005.

"Like good broadcasters, we're going through learning about the property," Stern says. "We're doing all the necessary market research, getting to know the staff, working our way through the strengths and weaknesses of the station and building the strategic plan to revitalize the Loop. It's a great brand name, it's a big heritage radio station in Chicago, it's one of the best rock brands in America, but it's kind of been end undoubtedly played a part in its decision.

For his part, Stern is taking Citadel's actions in stride. In a worst-case scenario, he'll be on Sirius in a year's time. But with the machinations of Viacom and Sirius, along with a raft of lawyers and negotiations, it could well be before then. Meanwhile, Citadel chairman/CEO Farid Suleman has given him something else to talk about on his show. And while Stern has toned down his enthusiastic endorsements for Sirius during his show, any fan of his knows which company he's going to and when he'll be there.

Infinity, for its part, has continued to back its biggest biller and appears to be allowing Stern to do his show without much increased interference.

It'll be well over a year from now by the time all the pieces settle from Stern's move to satellite radio. But rock radio would be hard pressed to find a story in 2005 with more ramifications than this one.

OPIE & ANTHONY, OTHERS?

The fact that Opie & Anthony wound up as replacements for Stern for several weeks on WAQX is evidence of how uncertain the morning radio landscape is following news of Stern's defection to Sirius. Citadel's logic in putting satellite radio personalities on the air to defy Stern for promoting satellite radio is a bit shaky. But the duo, seemingly exiled from terrestrial radio after the [Federal Communications Commission] on you. We wouldn't want to compromise that to get back into terrestrial radio. But we think and other people think that there is a way to do this that would put us on, even live, and not compromise what we're doing with satellite. That has still got to be hashed out with whoever we decide to work with."

Among the options Cumia mentions is talking about more risqué subject matter on XM during terrestrial commercial breaks, or having a long delay that would allow stations to punch out of material they might find offensive.

Obviously, Opie & Anthony probably aren't for everyone, especially since they were pulled from Infinity in 2002. But there's plenty of other air talent that would love to pick up some affiliates as well. "I really think Infinity's going to pull a rabbit out of a hat and surprise us with something compelling for their large markets," DeMers Programming Media Consultants president Alex DeMers says. "But as you move past Infinity and into medium markets, I think that Lex & Terry are poised to grab some markets. John Boy & Billy and Bob & Tom are choices in certain situations, but there are competitive issues in a lot of markets."

"Looking at the syndicated shows out there, I think Lex & Terry fill some of the spice that Howard has. I'm sure it's something that people are considering. But there are some good shows that are under a rock that you'll see start to emerge."

a background radio station, and we need to move it back to being more of a foreground rock station.”

One of the first things Stern did was drop WLUP's existing wakeup team, the Spike Manton-led Loop Morning Guys, moving night jock Byrd to mornings for an all-request show. “Their show had only been on for a year, and you can certainly argue that's not enough time to break in a show, but we hadn't seen the indicators we were looking for,” Stern says. “It may not be a fair assessment because it was early, but we thought it was the right move to make.”

Fine-tuning the music has also taken precedence during Stern's first month overseeing WLUP. “We think we've focused it a little more,” he says. “We thought the first step to bringing the Loop back to its prominence was focusing and establishing the music position on the station.”

The Loop will still play rock from the '70s on, from artists like Van Halen and AC/DC and Pearl Jam, as well as currents by bands like Velvet Revolver and Audioslave. Stern says what's more noticeable is the music that the station is not playing, adding that the tweaking he has done has involved more subtraction than addition. Among the artists no longer heard on the station are Styx, Foreigner and Supertramp.

“We're trying to make the Loop back into a mainstream rock station,” Stern says. “I don't think it's ever going to be playing extreme stuff like Korn, but this should be Chicago's mainstream rock station. The positioner for the station is ‘Chicago's rock station.’ That's what it is, and that's what it should be. So when you take new Judas Priest and new Mötley Crüe and add Velvet Revolver, Kenny Wayne Shepherd and Collective Soul, suddenly you've got a pretty good collection of current music for a mainstream rock station. We're going to embrace that, and that's where we belong. But it's not going to be 50% current, and extreme-type stuff doesn't belong there.”

MAINSTREAM GETS A BLAST FROM THE PAST

2004 began with a genuine movement at modern rock as classic modern gained steam. Stations like KNDD (the End) Seattle, KIDL/KDLE (Indie 103.1) Los Angeles, KITS (Live 105) San Francisco and KBZT (FM 94/9) San Diego had either recently signed on or adjusted their formats over time to accommodate music that deviated from the mainstream. By the end of 2004, bands championed by these stations like Modest Mouse, Franz Ferdinand and the Killers had become the mainstream.

While no real movement can be seen in the early days of 2005, it seems to be shaping up as a good year for mainstream rock stations like WLUP, as they have new music from old favorites to play. While it's less a movement than a coincidence, the reunions of Mötley Crüe and Judas Priest have brought new music from each band, which active and heritage rock stations have eagerly embraced.

If the top 10 status of the Crüe's “If I Die Tomorrow” and the high debut of Priest's “Revolution” prove anything, it's that when bands that peaked in the '80s reunite with their original singers after an absence, their music will be in demand. It also helps that the two bands are core acts for just about every mainstream rock station, as well as “classic rock that rocks” outlets.

“The viability of mainstream rock making a comeback might be something to look for this year,” DeMers says. “You're seeing stations that are built more on the old AOR model of a fairly conservative current list with a solid gold base, but not pure classic rock, starting to emerge. The ray of hope for rock is bands like Velvet Revolver and Audioslave that are putting out really great down-the-middle rock records. Unfortunately, because of the declining audience base for rock, because we haven't exposed the younger end to rock, they're big hits but they're not as massive as one would hope.”

THE BIGGER PICTURE: IS ROCK SHRINKING?

DeMers says fewer people are listening to rock radio. While the media choices available to the younger end (Internet and satellite radio, iPods, videogames, etc.) aren't a new phenomenon, they're more widespread than they've ever been. But beyond that, new formats have cropped up, some stations have gone away, and there are fewer monitored modern stations than there have been in some time.

The modern rock panel comprises only 81 reporters; it had 87 this time last year. Although several stations were dropped from the panel as a result of their cumes, others have changed formats, among them KTZO Albuquerque, N.M. (classic hits); KHRO El Paso, Texas (Hispanic); and KLEC Little Rock, Ark. (oldies).

Things are looking up for active rock, with 62 stations on the panel, as opposed to 57 this time last year. Several active stations, like WZZN (the Zone) Chicago, flipped to active from modern.

Two formats to watch that might have an effect on rock are the triple-A/classic hits hybrid “Bob”/“Jack” and Hispanic. The “we play anything” format, imported from Canada, hasn't existed in America long enough to show any breakout success stories, but there have been some stations, including KTZO, that have switched to the format. While there are several varieties of the format, some play a mix of classic rock with a smattering of hair metal just like many heritage and classic rock stations. So in addition to signals flipping to the format, if it continues to catch on, it could easily take audience share away from more mainstream rock stations.

Spanish-language is one of the fastest-growing formats in radio, and Clear Channel's commitment to the format has already resulted in the loss of two heritage stations, KLOI Houston and KSJO San Francisco. Moving into 2005, Clear Channel may use its Spanish-language initiative to flip rock signals it feels are underperforming.

FIVE CEOs TO WATCH IN '05

BY PAUL HEINE

Mel Karmazin

MEL KARMAZIN, SIRIUS SATELLITE RADIO

Having built his reputation guiding advertising-based businesses into leadership positions, Wall Street's most famous radio darling now finds himself working with a fundamentally different business model—one predicated on subscriptions. Already, analysts wonder if, at some point, he'll be tempted to at least add sponsorships (à la public radio) to the satcaster's commercial-free music channels. Others predict Karmazin will seek to merge Sirius with XM.

Known for cutting costs, adding sellers and pushing bottom-line growth, Karmazin helms a company expected to lose north of $400 million this year. Adapting to the extreme climate change could be as challenging for him as his hard-driving, demanding management style is for some of his new reports. But with Howard Stern, the NFL and Ford on its side, Sirius has a great deal of momentum and exceeded its 2004 subscription target. Karmazin says the enthusiasm will continue this year and has promised to double the number of subscribers before Stern starts in January 2006.

JOEL HOLLANDER, INFINITY BROADCASTING

Currently president/COO, Karmazin's former protégé is poised to land in the driver's seat at Infinity with the imminent departure of CEO John Sykes. Hollander has the enormous challenge of presiding over the selection of Howard Stern's replacement (or replacements)—the fortunes of several of Infinity's crown jewels hinge on the decision. "It's a huge opportunity for the industry," Edison Media Research president Larry Rosin says.

Sumner Redstone, Hollander's boss at Infinity parent Viacom, has publicly groused about Infinity neglecting its stations and has pledged to reinvest in the properties. Hollander will oversee those efforts. With a national programming infrastructure in place—a concept never embraced by the decentralized-minded Karmazin—Infinity recently recruited a high-ranking research executive who supports electronic audience measurement. The company is slowly beginning to stream some of its stations, has expanded into the exploding Hispanic radio market and is contemplating selling stations outside the major markets. This is a company in transition, in an industry under siege. Hollander is the boss who will steer the ship through the choppy waters.

STEVE MORRIS, ARBITRON

Nielsen Media Research hasn't yet committed to a joint venture with Arbitron on the Portable People Meter—it says it needs until the second quarter to decide. Radio One and Cox have, thus far, refused to participate in crucial, looming PPM tests. This year, it's sink or swim for Arbitron's $80 million-and-counting investment in electronic audience measurement. Coupled with the Radio Advertising Bureau's forthcoming economic impact study, the Houston PPM test will be 2005's second-biggest radio story, right behind whatever the industry does to fill the Howard Stern void.

Despite the enthusiastic endorsement of many radio groups and the Arbitron Advisory Council, the PPM may have more support among advertisers than broadcasters. Radio still has significant concerns that the Houston test must resolve. Arbitron is making slow, steady progress in winning over the unconverted—witness the addition of former holdout Infinity to the Houston test. And it has just pulled the seasoned and affable Pierre Bouvard back in to help seal the PPM deal with U.S. radio.

BOB STRUBLE, IBIQUITY DIGITAL

The number of iPod users in the United States is approaching 10 million. More than 4 million Americans have bought satellite radios. The mobile phone companies are clamoring to get a piece of the digital mobile music market. Yet only 250 of the country's 13,000 radio stations are broadcasting digitally. Someone has his work cut out for him and his name is Bob Struble, the executive leading the broadcaster-owned company that is making digital terrestrial radio a reality (see story, page 9).

"The competition is real," Struble tells Billboard Radio Monitor. "The broadcasters have been extremely prudent in understanding that to compete in the new digital world, they have to upgrade their infrastructure." Give Struble credit for convincing 21 of radio's biggest groups to commit big bucks to high-definition radio. "You've got a bunch of fierce competitors coming together, launching technology with very aggressive spending before there's any kind of mass of radios in the marketplace," he says. HD radio has the potential to level the sonic-quality playing field with satellite and usher in a host of new services and streams that could revitalize radio, just when it needs it the most.

DAVID FIELD, ENTERCOM COMMUNICATIONS

No one seems more irked by the brutal beating radio has taken at the hands of a press love-struck by satellite radio than Field. He was the first and only CEO to wage an on-air counterattack at radio's space invaders, and he will play a pivotal role in a sweeping PR campaign aimed at turning around radio's damaged image.

One of radio's earliest supporters of upgrading to digital broadcasting, Entercom began high-definition broadcasts in Boston and Seattle last year and plans to convert 80% of its stations in the next four years. Field was on hand in Las Vegas earlier this month for the formation of radio's historic 21-company digital coalition and serves as vice chairman of the National Assn. of Broadcasters Radio Board. A vocal supporter of programming innovation—at his own company and at others—Field has deployed frequencies to such uniquely formatted stations as triple-A/classic rock hybrids KQMT (the Mountain) Denver and WLKK (the Lake) Buffalo, N.Y., and WOLI-AM Greenville-Spartanburg, S.C., which combines "positive country music and contemporary Christian music." ■■■

FIVE FORMATS TO WATCH IN '05

BY PAUL HEINE

COUNTRY

While it hasn't returned to 1992's stratospheric level, country is rebounding, buoyed by a bumper crop of high-quality new music from established artists (Toby Keith, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Alan Jackson) and innovative upstarts (Gretchen Wilson, Big & Rich). In a relatively flat year for the music industry, country sales were up 12% in 2004, according to Nielsen SoundScan, with three albums in the year's top 10. According to Billboard Boxscore, Kenny Chesney's 2004 tour drew 1.1 million fans, making it second only to Prince in attendance. In an exclusive poll of country programmers conducted by Billboard Radio Monitor, an overwhelming majority said the format is in better shape than it was one year ago. Most cited strong new music as the primary reason. "The youth is newly energized and the core revitalized by the feeling of the format," one medium-market PD said.

While country remains the most programmed U.S. radio format, with 2,019 stations as of December, according to M Street, it actually lost 52 stations in 2004. The question this year: With the format in a hot cycle, will its audience share grow enough to attract new entrants?

NEWS/TALK

No. 1 in audience share in Arbitron's 94 continuously measured markets, news/talk is second only to country in number of stations programming some version of it. While country lost stations last year, N/T bulked up, adding 73 new outlets—the biggest addition of any format. N/T typically gets a share boost in the fall survey, and with last year's heated, down-to-the-wire presidential election, that trend is expected to play even more in the format's favor as the fall 2004 Arbitron's roll in. The challenge in 2005 will be finding A-level talk topics to replace the election.

Another N/T trend to watch this year: the growth of liberal-talk radio. Epitomized by North Dakotan Ed Schultz, who has been with KFGO-AM Fargo since 1996, and the relatively new Air America network, liberal talk has found a radio home in more than 40 markets and has a national presence courtesy of XM and Sirius. Look for it to grow more in the larger markets this year. Also keep an eye on the satcasters picking up more talk talent from terrestrial radio, with Dr. Laura Schlessinger and G. Gordon Liddy as the latest examples.

HISPANIC

Spanish-language is radio's fastest-growing format, both in revenue and audience, so rocket science isn't required to forecast more blue skies ahead for Hispanic radio. The sacrifice of 30-year rock fixtures KLOL Houston (for Clear Channel's innovative new "hurban" top 40 format) and the Bay Area's KSJO (for "La Preciosa") may be only the beginning. In the next year, recently recruited senior VP of Hispanic radio Alfredo Alonso plans to flip 20 to 25 stations to Hispanic formats customized for the markets they will serve, which go well beyond the locales typically associated with the format. Infinity, too, is turning to the Hispanic market to help satisfy Wall Street's unquenchable thirst for growth.

With newcomers joining Spanish Broadcasting System, Entravision and Univision in this space, the Hispanic market could ultimately become oversaturated. "Mainstream programmers who do not know Hispanic radio need to be careful jumping with both feet into the format," warns Larry Rosin, president of Edison Media Research. "While it's growing, it's growing from a small revenue base. A lot of mistakes will be made. It's not so easy."

ROCK

Look for continued rock contraction in 2005. After the early- to mid-'90s country boom, many markets ended up with one country station too many. Subsequent defections helped foster better format equilibrium. A similar rock shakeout is likely this year, especially in markets with both active and modern outlets. Rock's ratings and revenue aren't what they used to be. America's demography and musical tastes have drifted away from it. And the situation will not be helped by the terrestrial disappearance of Howard Stern.

In 2004, active struggled with a dearth of compelling new music, relying, once again, on stalwarts like Ozzy, Guns N' Roses and AC/DC to stay alive. The shortfall was less pronounced at modern, where newcomers Franz Ferdinand, Modest Mouse and the Killers breathed new musical life into the format.

'JACK' AND 'BOB'

Three years after sprouting in Canada, the "Jack," "Bob" and other "playing what we want" derivatives in the United States number between 20 and 25 stations. This musical intersection of classic rock, '80s and adult top 40 has been embraced by Clear Channel, Infinity, Cumulus, Citadel, Entercom and other companies and is top five 12-plus in Austin and top seven in Phoenix. "The format is about wide variety and tongue-in-cheek presentation," says Edison Media Research VP of music and programming Sean Ross, who has closely followed the format since its inception.

2004 was a turning point for "Jack" and "Bob." "It's beginning to change the traditional architecture of radio," away from the test-the-music, play-300-songs, do-a-morning-show, hold-contests model, Jacobs Media president Fred Jacobs says.

The questions this year, Ross says, center on how big "Jack" can get, and whether its success is sustainable. ●●●●●

STRUBLE OUTLINES DIGITAL RADIO TIMETABLE

HOW LONG WILL IT BE before the 2,000 radio stations that 21 broadcasters have committed to high-definition futures are actually beaming digital signals? In an interview with Billboard Radio Monitor from the Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, iBiquity Digital CEO Bob Struble said the goal is to convert 1,000 stations within three years and all 2,000 within five to seven years. Clear Channel, which plans to adapt 1,000 of its 1,200 stations, is digitizing four to six stations per week.

Presumably, there was heavy lifting involved in convincing 21 groups to make the sizable investments required to bring radio into the digital age. "I'm not aware of any broader coalition that has ever been put together," Struble told Monitor. "An announcement like this hasn't been seen in broadcast history. These are guys who compete fiercely on a daily basis. The industry is united."

So far, only pricey, top-of-the-line after-market HD receivers for the car are available, and from only three manufacturers. That will change this year, Struble promised. "You'll see many, many more units out there in many segments," anywhere from 15 to 20. Automakers will offer factory-installed HD radios by the end of the year.

The wider choice of receivers, Struble added, will be accompanied by a "radical reduction in prices" of at least 50% from current amounts. By year's end, HD radios will be available for less than $200, the "magical" price point for hitting the mass market. Struble said HD is "very much on schedule for a typical consumer electronic product launch."

The iBiquity chief said the industry consensus is that digital radio's "killer app" is the ability to multicast up to eight signals, though most stations will likely start with just one additional stream. National Public Radio is leading the charge on supplemental audio channels, but commercial broadcasters are also embracing it, attracted by the lure of offering greater content diversity, competing more effectively and opening up a new revenue source.

Leveraging its own transmitter power, radio will launch an "extensive promotional campaign to build consumer awareness," Struble added, one different from what the satellite companies have done. "In many ways it will be more effective," he said of a campaign expected to include extensive on-air promotion, billboards, promotional events, radio giveaways and DJ chatter.

"The fun starts now," Struble said. "The initial challenge was always to get the infrastructure in place. We've checked that box. Now the great minds of the industry will turn to all the cool stuff we can bring to our listeners to increase our competitive position and generate some more revenue."

COUNTRY COUNTRYDOWN

FIVE THINGS THAT COULD CHANGE YOUR LIFE (MAYBE)

BY PHYLLIS STARK

FOR COUNTRY RADIO, 2005 IS EXPECTED to be a year of continued growth and optimism, as the format builds on the sizable gains it made last year.

Expect to see more innovation from labels and radio, with the format's top executives and programmers getting their sea legs back after several years of downward trending.

On the label front, 2005's biggest news likely will be the fallout from last year's merger of Sony and BMG. While it is known that the Sony staff will move into the BMG building later this year, it is unclear what other impact the merger will have on the five labels the combined entity runs on Music Row.

The industry also will be keeping a close eye on Warner Bros. Records' Nashville operation. Long an also-ran in the country game, the label is being revitalized thanks to new leader Bill Bennett and last year's breakthrough success of Big & Rich.

On the radio front, the industry will continue to monitor the progress of programmer John Sebastian's Nashville experiment at WSM-FM (the Wolf).

CMT will continue to be an important force in breaking new acts and exposing music to the masses under the continuing leadership and innovation of Brian Philips.

Programmers will be introduced to dozens of talented new artists this year, including one—Epic's Miranda Lambert—who would appear to have a better-than-average chance of success.

But the biggest change in the landscape of the country music industry this year will result not from a person, but from a policy. Read on.

THE SLOW AND PAINFUL DEMISE OF INDEPENDENT PROMOTION

In yet another blow for the now-struggling independent promotion business, Nashville-based RCA Label Group this month severed its ties with indies. It is likely that other labels will follow suit.

Last November, radio chains Infinity Broadcasting and Entercom barred their employees from having any business dealings with indie promoters. Those moves came a year-and-a-half after Clear Channel instituted a similar policy for employees of its approximately 1,200 stations.

The moves by Infinity and Entercom came on the heels of New York State Attorney General Eliot Spitzer's campaign against payola. Last year Spitzer's office sent subpoenas to record labels, independent promoters and New York radio stations seeking information about the promotion of records.

Given RLG's size and power on Music Row, its recent indie ban sets the tone for the future. RLG comprises the RCA, BNA and Arista Nashville labels. Its roster includes such country superstars as Kenny Chesney, Alan Jackson, Brooks & Dunn and Martina McBride.

In a statement, RLG executive VP Butch Waugh said,

"Nashville has a strong belief in our artists, staff and our relationships at radio. We will continue to support our artists and work to create as much awareness of our music as possible. We have a talented staff whom we hired to communicate with radio one-on-one. This way we not only take advantage of the strong relationships we enjoy, but we strengthen those relationships by building even stronger lines of communication and working to connect our artists and their music with the consumers."

In a recent poll conducted by Billboard Radio Monitor, the majority (58.8%) of programmers surveyed said the practice of independent promotion is on the way out. And 64.7% of those programmers agreed that the ban on independent promotion by Clear Channel, Infinity and Entercom will benefit the radio industry.

WARNER BROS. NASHVILLE EXECUTIVE VP BILL BENNETT

Last fall, former Geffen and Maverick Records president Bill Bennett took the helm at Warner Bros., succeeding the label's longtime leader, Jim Ed Norman.

He came at a good time. The label had long been known for having only one superstar, Faith Hill, amid a roster of B acts. But by the time Bennett arrived, Warner Bros. was well on its way to the platinum breakthrough of Big & Rich.

Bennett plans to capitalize on that momentum at Warner Bros. and to build a boutique label, Raybaw Records. He will also devote resources to comedy imprint WBR/Jack Records, which Warner Bros. Nashville launched late last year.

Having spent most of his career in Los Angeles, Bennett says what he immediately noticed about the Nashville music community is that "the level of musicianship is incredibly better . . . than in Los Angeles." Beyond that, he says, on Music Row "people are pretty much upbeat. Business-wise, it's probably a little more conservative than I found it in Los Angeles, but [people on the Row are] so friendly and open to new ideas."

Another plus for Nashville is "how accessible the talent is. The artists just walk into your office—no entourage, no special parking place, no clearing out the room. It's refreshing."

He also likes the experience of going out to see talent in local clubs. "There's no velvet rope, no valet parking, and beer is $3."

One highlight of his new job has been working with Big & Rich. Bennett says John Rich and Big Kenny Alphin are "exciting just to be around, and they put a lot of the spirit in this business."

The duo will get its own imprint this year. Raybaw Records will be a home for fellow members of the Muzik Mafia coalition of musicians. Rich and Alphin will run the label, along with Jon Nicholson (also a Warner Bros. artist) and Cory Gierman. Raybaw's first release is expected to be from bilingual rapper Cowboy Troy. Bennett describes Cowboy Troy's work-in-progress album as "very musical and very country."

Asked how he plans to make his mark on Nashville, Bennett responds, "I don't think we're planning on making a mark, as much as we plan on being a successful business and a place artists want to be. We're going to be adventurous and embrace new technology. And we're going to sign some acts that may or may not fit into the traditional Nashville mold."

CMT EXECUTIVE VP/GM BRIAN PHILIPS

We last caught up with Brian Philips in July 2004, when CMT was in 75 million homes. Since then, the network's household penetration has risen to 77 million homes, and it had an all-time-high come of 45 million viewers in November.

"CMT's growth really coincides with the strengths of the industry," Philips says. "Obviously, the music of the moment gives us all kinds of opportunity. There is a great convergence of new stars emerging and the established stars rising to the moment."

But the network's innovative programming accounts for much of its growth and will continue to do so this year. For example, new series "Muzik Mafia TV" debuts this week. The show follows hot new stars Gretchen Wilson and Big & Rich on their American Revolution tour.

"That's definitely one of our favorite projects for 2005," Philips says. He calls "Muzik Mafia TV" a "snapshot of CMT's view of the range of possibilities within country."

"Our shows will continue to reflect the range and diversity within the music," Philips continues. "CMT is wide open to the possibilities of country, and we hear great country music everywhere. We love the Muzik Mafia stuff and the Texas guys, and our audience rewards us for being open to those different flavors. We see music in a larger context, and I think our viewers do as well. People who are passionate about music find something they like on CMT."

"Country music," he adds, "is part sin and part redemption, and that makes for great television."

WSM-FM (THE WOLF) NASHVILLE DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMMING JOHN SEBASTIAN

Last September, Cumulus' country WSM-FM relaunched as 95.5 the Wolf under new director of programming John Sebastian. The station remained country but broadened its scope to include country-influenced rock acts including the Eagles, John Mellencamp and Bob Seger, as well as independent country artists like John Stone and Keni Thomas, alongside today's country stars. Sebastian previously experimented with a similar formula at KZLA Los Angeles.

During the Wolf's launch party, Sebastian described the station as “edgy, aggressive, creative and unique.” He also promised less talk, fewer commercials and more music than the market’s other two FM country stations, WKDF and WSIX.

Miranda Lambert

Asked if he has made any changes to the programming since its launch, Sebastian says he has made “thousands. I make tweaks and changes every day.”

The station has made incremental ratings gains in its first four months, but Sebastian is already declaring it a success. “The concept is really working,” he says, citing recent trends and feedback from listeners.

That concept, he says, is to be a “rebellious, no-boundaries, break-all-the-rules country station.” In country music, Sebastian adds, “there are a lot of rules. Some of them make sense, and some of them . . . when you dig deep, you find there are better ways.”

While the cuts from non-country artists are what set the Wolf apart, the station rarely spins more than one per hour. “It’s just a little paprika in the salad,” Sebastian says. “It’s enough to make people go, ‘Man, that’s cool,’ and it’s just enough to make them think we’re unique.”

Asked if he still feels the eyes of the industry on him, Sebastian says he gets calls all the time from other programmers seeking “free consulting advice. So I do think a lot of people are watching, because if it works the way I think it’s working, it could be a template for a new way to do country across the U.S.

“When I tried a version of this at KZLA,” he adds, “people said, ‘Well, that’s just L.A.’ But here we’re doing it in the mecca of country music.”

EPIC ARTIST MIRANDA LAMBERT

The first major exposure for Miranda Lambert came on the debut season of USA Networks’ “Nashville Star” series in 2003. The Lindale, Texas, native ended up in third place behind winner Buddy Jewell and John Arthur Martinez, but her talent was undeniable, eventually netting her a record deal with Sony.

Now 21 years old, Lambert is looking forward to her major-label debut, “Kerosene,” due March 15. Lambert wrote 11 of the 12 songs on the album, which was produced by Frank Liddell. She tied a country chart record for the highest debut for a first single when “Me and Charlie Talking” opened at No. 42 on the country airplay chart last October. The single is currently No. 35.

“I loved Miranda from the start on ‘Nashville Star,’” KSOP Salt Lake City assistant PD/MD Debby Turpin says. “She is the real deal. She has the voice, she has the songs, and she has the look that ties it all together . . . One listen to [“Kerosene,”] and you are hooked. She needs to hook up with a big tour and let country music fans see her live. Anyone who sees her perform and hears her music will become a believer too.”

Lambert was 17 when she started writing the songs that will appear on “Kerosene”; at the time, she admits, “I really hadn’t lived much. I had one boyfriend break my heart.”

But she knew how the world worked. Her parents are both private investigators, and through their work, Lambert says, “I’ve seen a lot of broken relationships.”

“I think sometimes I have to put myself in character to write the kinds of songs I do,” she continues. “It’s just from growing up and hearing the dinner conversations about cheating and broken homes. I’ve seen and heard so much in my life.”

But plenty of her music comes from direct experience, too. “If you make me mad, you’re definitely going to hear about it in my songs,” she promises.

As for the boyfriend who broke her heart, well, they’re back together, but he still has the potential to inspire her songwriting. When Lambert recently complained to him that she didn’t have a lot to write about lately because she has been focusing on the business end of her career, her boyfriend kindly offered to break up with her again.

CAN YOU SAY 'COMPETITION'?

FIVE IN '05

ARTIST/LABEL EXECUTIVE: JAY-Z, PRESIDENT, DEF JAM RECORDINGS

You can call him Mr. President.

Ten years ago Jay-Z was a rapper on the brink. He had emerged from the Marcy Projects in Brooklyn, paying for his music career by hustling during his teens and working an array of jobs through his early 20s. But his talent and energy saw him release his debut album in 1996, setting him on the road to enormous success.

Jay-Z (real name: Shawn Carter) is all about change, and as the newly installed president of Def Jam, he is a perfect fit as one of Billboard Radio Monitor's "Five to Watch in '05." His approach to radio is expected to be aggressive and offer surprises in the format throughout the year.

Jay-Z reports to Antonio "L.A." Reid, chairman of Island Def Jam Music Group, which is part of Universal Music Group. He will continue to run his record company, Roc-a-Fella. The brand has embraced everything from clothing to films, including "Fade to Black" and "State Property."

Hot 97 has dominated the valuable 18-34 demographic in the Arbitron books, but a fresh challenge from Power is looming.

Dimick has a history of success in pitting smaller companies like Emmis Communications against such behemoths as Clear Channel and Infinity.

In his last post he was director of programming and operations for Jefferson-Pilot in San Diego.

"After an exhaustive nationwide search, we have found the right person to lead Hot 97 and continue our level of excellence," Emmis/New York senior VP Barry Mayo said in announcing Dimick's appointment. "John is passionate about grooming top talent and building successful morning shows. He understands that radio today is about great talent, and that's what makes, and keeps, great radio stations great."

Dimick, a Utah State University graduate, logged stints at KBLQ-AM-FM Logan, Utah; KERN-FM Bakersfield, Calif.; KISN-FM Salt Lake City; KPLZ-FM Seattle; and WNCI-FM Columbus, Ohio, before arriving in San Diego in 1998. He started at Hot 97 last month.

sound effects of a woman screaming and a crash while reporting the death of R&B artist Aaliyah, who died in a plane crash, and then repeating the sounds four more times after co-host Miss Jones stormed out of the studio. They also publicly denounced Jennifer Lopez after she used the n-word in one of her songs, even though Star had also used the same word in his criticism of a Hot 97 employee, according to allhiphop.com. — Katie Hasty

RADIO BOSS: E.J. "JAY" WILLIAMS JR., PRESIDENT, AMERICAN URBAN RADIO NETWORKS

With more than 300 shows nationwide, from "CrunkRadio" with Lil Jon to "Bobby Jones Gospel Countdown," American Urban Radio Networks' E.J. "Jay" Williams Jr. has much to brag about. AURN is the only African-American-owned radio network, with more than 475 syndicates.

"We're bigger than CNN," Williams says. That's no lie. His network's programming has more than 25 million listeners.

Williams helped craft the 1991 merger between Sheridan and National Black Network that created AURN and, after becoming president in 1999, turned three AURN outlets into the top-rated trifecta of RADAR-measured networks (out of 46 for the black non-Hispanic 12-plus audience). This includes the successful, new STRZ Weekend Entertainment network.

"Just wait 'til this year," Williams says. In 2005, AURN has special programming lined up for Valentine's Day, Black History Month and Black College All-American Awards and will bring back its "Wedding in Paradise" promotion. Citing VP of entertainment programming Ron Atkins as a huge catalyst to 2004's success, Williams feels he has all the right players in place to face the increase in competition within the urban network landscape.

"The new guys don't offer any new additional services," he says, "just commercial time to advertisers. We have involvement with the programming."

This year, Williams hopes to realign the network's entertainment programming by increasing its emphasis on its short-form shows. While it is the sole African-American news network for radio, he says it is AURN's entertainment that will boost advertising. AURN has a brand that sells itself.

"Everything we do are firsts. Just watch us this year," he says. "We're going to blow your mind with firsts." — Katie Hasty

PROMOTIONS EXECUTIVE: KEVIN BLACK, VP OF RAP PROMOTION, INTERSCOPE RECORDS

Big, bold and brash. No one will ever walk away from Kevin Black confused about what he has told them. He's straight to the point, refuses to suffer fools and is bent on success.

But he also shares. He shares ideas, he shares his experience, and he shares his common-sense approach to life. He also shares smiles. Lots of them.

This man who moves at what seems like a million miles an hour is a juggler. An hour in his office is like an hour trapped inside a revolving door. He works his records to radio based on relationships. He knows the PDs and MDs on the other end of the phone well enough to know when he's wasting everyone's time and when he's not.

Credited with breaking Eminem, Black has pushed harder than most to get where he is. Years ago, he was reportedly a luggage boy for Run-DMC.

The Los Angeles-based Black has successfully strategized the promotional campaigns of such acts as 50 Cent, Dr. Dre, Eve and Limp Bizkit.

"I take a simple management style, I think, from the executive suites to every corner of the streets," Black was reported as saying after receiving one of the many awards showered upon him by the music industry over the years. ●●●

CHANGING TUNES, CHANGING ATTITUDES AND MILLIONS OF DOLLARS ALL COLLIDE TO MAKE 2005 COME ALIVE IN THE WORLD OF R&B AND HIP-HOP

In San Diego, Dimick oversaw KSON-FM (No. 1 country station), KIPM-FM (No. 1, 25-54, smooth jazz) and KBZT-FM (No. 1 alternative rock station).

Dimick took over from Tracy Cloherty, who had been with Hot 97 for 15 years and remains a consultant to the station.

ON-AIR: STAR & BUC WILD, MORNING SHOW, WWPR (POWER 105) NEW YORK

"I've been deified in a sense, but let's not get it twisted... upon this return to New York many things will be put in perspective, but only by way of vapor trails will those things be dealt with."

Apparently, New York is about to see an abundance of vapor trails. The deity in question is Star, aka Trio Troian, who addressed on his Web site his return with Buc Wild to mornings in the Big Apple. After a rocky departure from Emmis' WQHT last year, the duo bows Jan. 17 on WWPR to begin a new year for their controversial show.

Exiled to Hartford, Conn.'s WPHH during the interim, Star & Buc Wild and new employer Clear Channel have been in non-compete negotiations, lawsuits and indecency queries with Emmis since last fall, with Emmis ultimately facing the struggle of having to compete against its former morning duo in New York.

With their youth-centered hip-hop show, Star & Buc Wild gave Howard Stern a run for his money while they were at Hot 97, becoming the first morning show to knock the King of All Media from his No. 1 spot in the market. Stern and the self-described "haters" will now square off again, with Star & Buc Wild's mix of interviews, celebrity slaughter and listener call-ins ready to reshape mornings, particularly with Stern's departure at the end of 2005.

Star, who has hosted shows on MTV and written a column for The Source, has made a career from a sharp tongue and the banter between his co-host Buc Wild and show members like Crossover Negro Reese and White Trash Helene.

Star & Buc Wild gained national attention when Star played the

Jay-Z

Though Jay-Z announced his "retirement" as an artist last year, he continues to perform and his collaboration "MTV Ultimate Mash-Ups Presents Jay-Z/Linkin Park: Collision Course" (Warner Bros.) debuted at No. 1 last month on The Billboard 200.

- His nickname was originally Jazzy because he liked to dress well
- He once worked at Kentucky Fried Chicken
- He attended the same high school as Busta Rhymes and the Notorious B.I.G.

PROGRAMMER: JOHN DIMICK, PD, WQHT (HOT 97) NEW YORK

He has jumped coasts, jumped formats and jumped into a heated battle for ratings. John Dimick is the new PD at WQHT (Hot 97) New York.

Dimick has spent a quarter century in the radio industry and arrives at the potent hip-hop station with a reputation for being something of a giant killer. The giant he faces in Gotham is Clear Channel-owned WWPR (Power 105).

NEWS/TALK'S

NEXT BIG THING:

WHO AND WHAT TO WATCH FOR IN 2005

FIVE IN '05

BY TONY SANDERS

News/talk radio continues to grow steadily—there are now 1,316 commercial stations in the format—but there's a real concern among industry professionals that the strength and depth of the talent pool is too thin.

Where is the next generation of talk personalities going to come from? This has been a concern for many years, but the possibility of another major personality making a satellite-exclusive deal sends shivers down the spines of some major-market PDs.

Also worrisome is the amount of syndicated talk programming in medium and small markets. The concern is that running too much syndicated programming, instead of investing in and developing local talent, is a short-term solution but a long-term mistake.

Simply put: What would happen if Rush Limbaugh left for a satellite-only deal with XM or Sirius? Talk radio wouldn't collapse. Someone would step in to fill the void. But how many personalities can command the same audience?

PERSONALITIES

Howard Stern has just under one year left on his over-the-air-radio contract, but groups like Citadel and Beasley Broadcast Group are already taking him off the air. Citadel chairman/CEO Farid Suleman is the former CFO for Infinity and has plenty of insight into negotiating a contract for Stern. Who will Citadel put on instead of Stern?

Tom Joyner's Reach Media is now part of the Radio One corporate family. It will be interesting to see how many affiliate switches will be made by his new chief executives. There were a few switches to Radio One O&Os during the latter part of 2004. Will that continue?

Joyner's weekly come is the highest for any syndicated morning-drive personality, according to Billboard Radio Monitor's research. Reach Media co-founder David Kantor told Monitor late last year that Joyner's weekly come is 8 million 12-plus—definitely higher than Stern's come, which Monitor puts at 6 million-7 million.

Ed Schultz is the newest talk personality to watch. Schultz has been a local talk star on KFGO-AM Fargo, N.D., since 1996. But at the beginning of last year, and in just under 12 months, Schultz had gone from being a voice in an isolated small market to a personality with more than 70 affiliates.

Jerry Springer. Yes, the TV talk-meister is set to launch his own radio talk show this month, and the rumors have him doing it on Clear Channel's WSAI Cincinnati, which now programs oldies. Here's how one of our contributors described the Springer situation:

"Most liberal talkers are on [station] signals shaped like airplane propellers—sort of a tin-can on a string. That's because very few companies risk a big signal on experimental formats. This may be the best test in the country of liberal talk as a format: a good signal, a very conservative populace, but with the twist of a very popular local star."

LIBERAL TALK

The growth in Schultz's affiliate roster partly stems from the rise—some would say rebirth—of liberal-talk radio, as embodied by Air America, Schultz and Stephanie Miller. Schultz and Miller are distributed by Jones Radio Networks.

Air America is on 42 stations, and liberal talk as a format also grew steadily last year. That trend will certainly continue in 2005.

SPANISH NEWS/TALK

This format subcategory is one to watch in 2005. The M Street Format Monitor shows 669 Spanish-formatted stations, but does not break out the number of N/Ts within the category. A preliminary survey by Monitor shows a healthy number of Spanish N/T stations are showing up around the country. Miami has five, Los Angeles has three, and Fresno, Calif., has two. New York, San Francisco, Dallas and Chicago each have one.

FM TALK

There's a difference of opinion on the direction FM talk should take. Some say the best move is to simulcast an AM's programming on FM. Others say that's the wrong idea, that neither audience size nor demographics will grow—the total numbers will stay the same, they will just be divided between different bands.

The real option, some say, is to develop genres of talk programming, each targeting a different demographic, with several FM stations in the same market. There are now well over 100 commercial FM talk stations.

NEWS/TALK'S CONSISTENT NO. 1 WINNERS AND HERITAGE STATIONS

When the fall Arbitron survey is published, KGO-AM San Francisco will most likely celebrate its 106th consecutive book as the market's No. 1 station 12-plus. That's more than 26 years as the top-rated station in San Francisco. Jack Swanson has been the PD at KGO for most of those years. His first 10-year stint as PD began in 1980. He then took a five-year break to try his hand as a GM for King Broadcasting in Seattle but was enticed back to KGO in 1995 by Mickey Luckoff with the promise that he could also program KSFO. Last week, Swanson told Monitor, "The best thing that could happen to me is if KSFO could someday beat KGO as No. 1."

KMOX-AM St. Louis has had a 115-book streak at No. 1. PD Steve Moore has been at the helm since 2000 and has inherited and developed a strong blend of local talk talent, including Charlie Brennan (9 a.m.-11 a.m.), who has been at the station since 1990, and Paul Harris (2 p.m.-6 p.m.), who joined the lineup in July 2004.

THE REST OF THE BEST

BASED ON MONITOR'S ROSTER and an informal survey of N/T consultants, industry execs and other experts, here, in no particular order, are the people and stations to keep an eye on this year.

DOWNLOADS FIVE THINGS TO WATCH FOR IN 2005

When my more than understanding editor asked for a "top five things to watch for" column, I was struck by two thoughts: First, how could I be less of a buzz kill for the major labels in 2005, and second, I get dizzy counting above 4. So here goes . . .

1) Spin for All You're Worth: The greatest achievement by the industry in 2004 was its unparalleled ability to suspend disbelief and convince itself that everything is going to be alright despite not one single economic condition having changed. It was much better than the deus ex machina, "Something always saves us. Remember grunge?" baseless hoping of years prior. This time, the mass delirium came without the benefit of any plausible candidate for savior.

And you know what? Things did seem to improve somewhat until midyear, when it came horribly apart and sales made a breath-stealing freefall. We needed a 53rd week of sales accounting to show much in the way of gains at all, and that's if we ignore the eroding price point—which we were all more than happy to do.

Of course, the reason there were even momentary gains is that the Recording Industry Assn. of America, by suing Granny and Muffy and Bubba and Santa (if he hasn't figured out how to disable sharing), finally convinced the thieving public (now more than 60 million strong in the United States alone) to go to iTunes or Napster or whichever industry-endorsed 99 cent store and get legit. Except, like sales being up, that scenario was also completely false.

In fact, peer-to-peer file sharing again showed double-digit percentage growth, with song transfers topping 1 billion per month. The RIAA, sensing the ripe opportunity to publicly hallucinate, pronounced that the real goal all along in suing consumers was not to stop P2P downloading (heavens no). The real goal was to make people aware that downloading is wrong.

Uh, OK, mission accomplished.

Now what? If people know they're afool of copyright law and continue to download more than ever, what did this achieve again? Let me answer that for you: It means they don't care. It means suing people hardened them to commit piracy. It also means you can forget about getting online piracy under control. They've been "educated" and they know the industry doesn't like it, but they just keep downloading anyway. This is incredibly crucial, because 2005 is likely to be the year that Warner Music Group and Sony BMG Entertainment attempt IPOs. And one of the deepest challenges each company faces is convincing Wall Street that its assets have ongoing value and will show steady growth.

Unfortunately, the industry has been on a five-year crying jag about how online piracy is decimating the business. Bad decision. Especially now that there's no plausible argument to be made that the industry exercises any control whatsoever in containing the problem.

Equally bad is that Wall Street analysts are inherently critical thinkers. The analysts I spoke to last week understand two things very clearly: The war against the consumer has been a huge failure, and unbundling the core product (thereby potentially reducing the margin by 12 times on average) without providing for a subscription or statutory rate scheme to fill the shortfall is probably the biggest problem of all. My guess is, 2005 will be the year the financial community becomes activist about pursuing a business solution to P2P. Can't wait to hear how this one gets spun . . .

2) Click a Mouse, Go to Jail: Just before the holiday break, one of my good friends at a major label group called to yell at me (again) for not being a "team player" in the mass delusion that P2P is on the run. After I did a poor job of trying to convey that my job was about reality and not "pick your favorite perception," he warned me that the P2P party would be over as soon as file sharing was criminalized, and he felt fairly confident that would happen in the next congressional session.

So now the thought is, if consumers can't be intimidated by civil litigation, maybe if we throw a few music fans in jail it will stop. While this plan has worked wonders in the war on underage drinking, I'm hesitant to believe that cuffing Granny and Muffy and Bubba will get them back to the record store.

Meanwhile, if you're counting on the cops to crack your customers' heads when they don't do things the way you want them to, make sure Officer Cleveland Thomas of Opelousas, La., isn't among them. Thomas just got snared in the latest round of "John Doe" lawsuits. Apparently the education effort didn't work so Wilson's 9th Circuit Court of Appeals decision. In that case, Wilson notably observed, "You don't solve it by calling it 'theft.' You have to show why this court should extend a statutory monopoly to cover the new thing. That's your problem. Address that, if you would. And curtail the use of abusive language." And I thought they only spoke to me in that tone of voice.

What most fail to recognize is that even if the Supreme Court found for the plaintiffs, nothing would change for P2P users. Oh, sure, the commercial opportunity for Grokster and Morpheus would probably come to an end, but since P2P users almost never use the native client software to access artist received an iPod for Christmas and immediately joined Napster so she could download music for her iPod and pay artists at the same time. The only problem is that Napster doesn't sell any music file format that works with the iPod. So she now has $20 worth of songs she can't play on her new toy. Of course, if all the 99 cent stores backed off their bizarre commitment to proprietary formats and sold the consumer-standard MP3, my friend could buy all the music and pay all the artists she wants. Instead, she now buys MP3s from a site in Russia that claims to be licensed and to pay artist royalties (average price per song = 4 cents). She says she now knows why so many people buy well on him—he didn't know "possessing" downloaded music was illegal. Don't bet on criminalization any time soon . . .

3) Take It to the Supremes: In a way, the RIAA's one real legal victory (in the Napster case) is kind of like when my beloved St. Louis Rams won the Super Bowl in 2000: No one is really sure how it happened, but it never happened before and it sure hasn't happened again. Maybe it was one of those millennium bugs. Otherwise, for the RIAA, it has been one nasty legal trouncing after another.

In the last year alone, the RIAA lost a landmark case against Morpheus and Grokster (essentially legalizing P2P software), lost to Internet service providers Verizon and Charter in regard to having to turn over their users' identities, and has not "won" a single case against any of the consumers it has sued. A few have settled, but most are unresolved. But that hasn't stopped the RIAA from taking the Grokster case to the Supreme Court in an attempt to overturn Judge Stephen P2P networks—opting instead for free open-source software (which is under no one's control or administration)—getting people to quit their incessant downloading would have to be a door-to-door effort asking individuals to stop. Maybe they could "package" such an effort with the next census. In short, the Supreme Court ruling may seem big, but any outcome is all but ceremonial . . .

4) I Want My MP3: Remember, the reason the iPod even exists is because the RIAA lost its lawsuit against Diamond Rio's groundbreaking MP3 player in 1999 (I think the Rams were 4-12 that season). Anyway, now that millions have one, the underlying fallacy of the iTunes Music Store is coming home to roost. That is, how can a $400 item cost $10,000 to fill with music? It can't, it won't, and so the consumer is faced with a seriously unworkable situation—and that's if they even realize you can only buy music for the iPod through Apple Computer.

To illustrate, one of my friends who is married to an prescription drugs from Canadian Web sites.

My guess is, most of the other frustrated consumers headed immediately for morpheus.com—the legal P2P solution. Look for a movement toward universal MP3 adoption . . .

5) Biggest Pop Star in the World Decides to Get an Education and Pursue DREAM JOB SHE SAW ON TV! Britney Spears will make a bold career move.

"It sounds ridiculous, but she has been inspired by TV's 'Crime Scene Investigation,' which shows scientists solving crimes," according to a source quoted by Britain's Daily Mirror. Who wouldn't love Britney as public servant and smarty-pants cop? Her first assignment: investigate rumors of booing the World's Biggest Lip-Syncher during the recent Orange Bowl halftime show.

See? I can keep it light anytime I want.

THE CHARTS

THIS WEEK IN DATA. For complete charts, there's always more at www.BillboardRadioMonitor.com

LEGEND TO CHARTS

Charts are ranked by detections except for Latin, Christian and Country charts which are based on audience impressions, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data.

● Songs showing an increase in detections

(audience for Latin, Christian and Country) over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections (audience for Latin, Christian and Country) does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. Exempting the Country chart, a song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections (audience for Latin, Christian and Country). Country titles which decline in audience but increase in detections will also receive a bullet if the total audience erosion for the week does not exceed 3%.

◎ AIRPOWER: awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Airpower awards do not appear on the Latin and Christian charts.

↑ GREATEST GAINER: awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections (audience for Latin, Christian and Country).

⊕ MOST AIRPLAY ADDS: awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week.

TIES: A song with a gain in detections (audience for Latin, Christian and Country) over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections (audience for Latin, Christian and Country) or each losing detections (audience for Latin, Christian and Country), the song being played on more stations is placed first.

RECURRENT RULE:

Songs below the top 20 (top 15 for adult top 40, AC, modern AC, adult R&B, heritage rock and dance) become recurrences and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks. Country titles move to recurrent after 20 weeks if they rank below No. 15 and are losing audience.

● Nielsen BDS certification for airplay of 100,000 detections on all monitored stations, including satellite and national networks, across the U.S. and Canada. Numeral following symbol indicates multiple level of 100,000 detections.

★ Indicates title earned Hit Predictor status in research data provided by Promosquad.

Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys.

A+ AIRPLAY ADDS denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.

IMPACT! Songs at Airpower level and below with a gain in detections or with a percentage loss in detections equal to or better than the monitored downtime in the format.

★ INITIAL IMPACT: Indicates a song's first appearance on the Impact! page.

THE SPIN

LUCK OF DeGRAW AT MAINSTREAM TOP 40

In its 15th week on the mainstream top 40 chart, Gavin DeGraw's "I Don't Want to Be" (RMG) overtakes the formerly unmovable force that was "Over and Over" by Nelly Featuring Tim McGraw (UMRG) at No. 1.

DeGraw's single, which originally gained prominence in fall 2003 when it became the theme song of the then-fledgling WB series "One Tree Hill," first charted on the adult top 40 chart in March 2004 and peaked at No. 9 the following August after taking 22 weeks (a male artist record) to hit the top 10 of that list. The last track to migrate from an initial appearance at adult top 40 to the No. 1 slot at mainstream top 40 was "This Love" by labelmate Maroon5 in April 2004.

DeGraw is the first male artist to take his debut charting effort to No. 1 at mainstream top 40 since Lou Bega had his 15 minutes of fame with "Mambo No. 5 (A Little Bit Of . . .)" in October 1999.

"Over and Over" ends its No. 1 reign after 11 chart-topping weeks, which places the track in a four-way tie for the second-longest-running No. 1 in the history of the mainstream top 40 list. "Over" shares the honor with "Torn" by Natalie Imbruglia (1998), "One Sweet Day" by Mariah Carey & Boyz II Men (1996) and Donna Lewis' "I Love You Always and Forever" (1996). Only "The Sign" by Ace of Base in 1994 has lasted longer at No. 1, with 14 weeks.

'LIFE'-ALTERING CHANGE AT NO. 1 ON COUNTRY LIST

Darryl Worley reaches the peak of the country chart with "Awful, Beautiful Life" (DreamWorks), which also takes the Greatest Gainer award with an increase of more than 4.4 million audience impressions. Worley's 3-1 hop ushers in his third chart-topping single, preceded by seven weeks at No. 1 with "Have You Forgotten?" in 2003 and one week at the top with "I Miss My Friend" in 2002.

Though Worley's new single amasses 34.9 million impressions, that isn't his fattest audience total. During his seven weeks at No. 1 with "Forgotten," Worley almost hit 50 million impressions during his third week atop the chart (Billboard Radio Monitor, April 11, 2003) when that track scored 49.4 million. At that time, the country radio panel consisted of 26 more monitored stations than its current 122-station count.

Scott's In Familiar Territory

Jill Scott returns to the top 10 on the adult R&B chart with a 13-7 move for "Whatever" (SUM). Since she first appeared on that chart with "Gettin' in the Way" in 2000, all five of her subsequent singles have hit that portion of the list. The distinction puts Scott in a select group with Babyface and Brandy as the only artists to have at least their first six charting titles at the format hit the top 10. Babyface, who had seven consecutive top 10s from the chart's inception in September 1993, obviously has a recording history that predates the format.

Elsewhere at adult R&B, Chaka Khan returns to the chart for the first time since May 1999 with "To Sir With Love" (Sanctuary Urban). Originally recorded by LuLu in 1967, "Sir" was the title track from the motion picture starring Sidney Poitier. Khan's version appears on her recently released "Classikhan."

Incidentally, Khan's first showing on the adult R&B chart was also a remake: "My Funny Valentine" from the "Waiting to Exhale" soundtrack, which peaked at No. 22 in May 1996.

GREEN DAY ROLLS A SEVEN

Green Day's "Boulevard of Broken Dreams" (Reprise) extends its run at No. 1 on the modern rock chart to seven weeks, equaling the group's longest visit to the top spot. Ten years ago this week the trio was in the third week of its seven-week stay at No. 1 with "When I Come Around."

It's a safe bet that "Boulevard" will remain at pole position for at least one more week, since its lead over the No. 2 track, Crossfade's "Cold" (Columbia), exceeds 1,000 detections for a fourth consecutive week.

At active rock, Judas Priest makes its debut Monitor appearance as "Revolution" (Epic) enters the chart at No. 37. "Revolution" is the lead track from "Angel of Retribution," the first Judas Priest album of new material featuring singer Rob Halford since 1990's "Painkiller." That album spawned the group's last airplay chart appearance in sister publication Billboard when "A Touch of Evil" peaked at No. 29 on the album rock tracks chart in December 1990.

BDS CERTIFICATIONS DECEMBER 2004

The following are singles recently recognized by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems for certified airplay of 100,000 or more spins. The detection totals account for all spins on Nielsen BDS' monitored panel of more than 1,200 radio stations in 128 markets across the United States and Canada, as well as airplay on monitored satellite stations and radio networks. The totals below cover the period from a title's release through Dec. 31, 2004.

LIST CONTINUES ON PAGE 20.

BDS CERTIFICATIONS DECEMBER 2004

The following are singles recently recognized by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems for certified airplay of 100,000 or more spins. The detection totals account for all spins on Nielsen BDS' monitored panel of more than 1,200 radio stations in 128 markets across the United States and Canada, as well as airplay on monitored satellite stations and radio networks. The totals below cover the period from a title's release through Dec. 31, 2004.

Wow! I freakin' LOVE it!
I took it home and read it cover to cover. What a turnaround.
I really, really love the change! - Mike O'Brian, PD, KUSS San Diego

Songs are blind tested online by PromoSquad using multiple listens and a nationwide sample of carefully profiled music consumers. Songs are rated on a 1-5 scale; final results are based on weighted positives. Songs with a score of 65 or more are judged to have Hit Potential, although that benchmark number can fluctuate per format based on the strength of available music. For a complete and updated list of current songs with Hit Potential, commentary, polls and more, please visit www.hitpredictor.com. © 2005. HitPREDICTOR column

OMARION SCORES this week at rhythmic top 40 with "O," taking the previous R&B/hip-hop HitPredictor (his first) to another format. Nelly's "N Dey Say" enters that chart as well, possibly turning in yet another multiformat hit, as the track has already landed at top 40. Rounding out rhythmic is Chingy, no stranger himself to the HP charts. This time he makes it with "Don't Worry."

Crooner John Legend's "Ordinary People" hits at R&B/hip-hop this week. Also on the chart, Fabolous returns and earns HP status with his latest single, "Baby."

Jet turns the volume down for some adult top 40 success with

Singer's R&B/Hip-Hop HP Title 'O' Draws Attention At Rhythmic Top 40

"Look What You've Done." This is the first time the hot rock group has debuted a song on the HitPredictor charts in this format.

Another first is actor-turned-teen-heartthrob Jesse McCartney earning high points at adult top 40 with "Beautiful Soul."

The Goo Goo Dolls follow the recent trend of pulling classic songs out of the closet for a modernized run. Their latest, a cover of the Supertramp hit "Give A Little Bit," lands on the mainstream AC HP chart. Richard Marx does it again in that same format with "Ready To Fly."

Finally, the unstoppable Green Day lands another track from its "American Idiot" rock opera on the chart. The act debuts this week at modern rock with "Holiday."
