SPACEMEN 3

Recurring

(Dedicated, c/o RCA, 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036)

There's something almost perverse and voyeuristic in hearing Spacemen 3's fourth and final studio LP. The tawdry circumstances of the band's dissolution and subsequent public bickering have taken on laughable proportions; the two lead players, Sonic Boom and Jason Pierce, were so at odds that they were not even able to record Recurring together. Hence, we're actually treated to two excellent, though distinctly different, solo records in the guise of one Spacemen 3 long-player. "Side Sonic" finds Boom in a positively giddy mood, stretching his usual brilliant, somnambulist drug-eating guitar stupor to embrace not only happier sounds and a noticeable dancefloor swerve (Boom claims Blondie and Kraftwerk as influences, but Pet Sounds looms large as well), but love in all its glory, as song titles like "I Love You" and "Just To See You Smile" bear out. A kinder, gentler Sonic Boom. All six of his contributions to Recurring are staggeringly good, most exceptionally "Big City," "Just To See You Smile" and his intractable cover of Mudhoney's "When Tomorrow Hits." Pierce, whose band, Spiritualized, will have its own domestic release shortly, isn't quite up to the glory of Boom's sextet, but certainly "Sometimes," "Feelin' Just Fine (Head Full Of Shit)" and the perfect "Hypnotized" are suitably blissed-out and suicidal.

La's

(Go!Discs/London, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave. New York, NY 10019)

The La's have made a great album with a timeless quality. They went back to square one of rock—guitar, bass, drums, vocals, sub-three-minute songs and production so discreet by Steve Lillywhite, you'd think he just set up microphones and said, "O.K. lads, play away!" Though their sound and delivery may hark back to some great bands in their infant days, this is not a retro-tribute type thing. The La's show a great deal of promise for the future; their use of acoustic guitar on tunes like "Doledrum" and "Son Of A Gun" lends some true grit and punch, reminiscent of the Kinks at their finest. Nervy vocals and a dollop of distortion evoke the raw energy of early Who on the tremendous "I Can't Sleep," the angry young "Failure" and "Feelin'." You won't be surprised to know (or guess) that they're from Liverpool, as they reach back to the Beatles and their influences (does anyone remember skiffle?). While most bands today that are trying to recapture that Rubber Soul feel wind up sounding more like the Rutles than the Beatles, the La's have squarely hit the mark. Flawless pop songs like "Timeless Melody," and the catchy, sure-fire hit, "There She Goes," will make you want to run screaming to meet them at the airport with "We Love The La's" banners in hand.

THOMAS MAPFUMO

Chamunorwa

(Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10019)

This is Thomas Mapfumo's "chimurenga" music, a spellbinding mixture of Zimbabwean folk styles, rock and reggae that Mapfumo forged when he first emerged onto the African music scene. It's not the frantic, jittery Afropop sound of the cities, or the rustic, acoustic folk of the Guinean and Malian griots; it's not the smooth post-Gabriel pop of Youssou N'Dour or the last Ladysmith Black Mambazo record, but there's something powerful about it you're not likely to hear anywhere else. It's a music of indefinable coolness and restraint in its densely interwoven guitars, percussion, horn riffs and keyboard beds, an inner serenity and calmness beneath the powerful and turbulent subject matter. If Fela Kuti is Africa's James Brown, Thomas Mapfumo's warm, soulful tone could be a more political version of Otis Redding or Sam Cooke—while it's true that on one level, a voice as powerful as Mapfumo's (like Redding's or Fela's) doesn't really need translation, still, lyrics and notes are sorely needed for music as significantly political as Mapfumo's. We've been waiting for a chance to recommend top cuts with titles like these: "Hwa Hwa," "Chitima Ndikature," "Chamunorwa," "Muramba Doro" and "Nyama Yekugocha."

JAMES COTTON

Mighty Long Time

(Antone's, 2928 Guadalupe, Austin, TX, 78705/512-322-0617)

No matter how good some of the current crop of up-and-coming blues talent may be, there's still basically two kinds of bluesmen left in the world: those who learned it second-hand, and those who have a direct link to the first-generation pioneers. James Cotton is definitely of that rarer, vanishing breed of original masters. He learned his harp as a youth playing and traveling with the legendary Sonny Boy Williamson, and he's been a longtime running partner with guitar legend Sumlin; he lent his powerful harmonica sound to the seminal Chess recordings of Muddy Waters from 1954-56. Backed up by such giants as Matt "Guitar" Murphy, Hubert Sumlin and fiery guest appearances by Jimmie Vaughan and Pinetop Perkins on piano, Cotton's voice is often gruff and commanding like Howlin' Wolf's or Muddy Waters', and his harp can pierce with all the gripping, tearing power of Little Walter or Williamson. This is urban blues, not urbane blues as plied by so many flat-footed city-slickers with fancy cars and greasy Hollywood hairdos—this is the real stuff like only the real masters can play it. Potent indeed: "Sugar Sweet," "Black Nights," "Mighty Long Time" and "Call It Stormy Monday."

dictable, interchanging ska beats, Irish jigs and suburban twitch with tales of oppressor and oppressed. Oppression, ignorance and complacency are where X-Tal's lyrical lance is aimed, and with an equally provocative dancefloor bounce, Die is first-class world punk music. Top Cuts: "Zion (Just A Cloud)," "An Old Colonial's Hard Luck Story" and "Goldfish Bowl."

ELLIS MARSALIS Piano In E/Solo Piano (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—If one man could be given credit for literally saving jazz music from near-extinction in the '80s, that man would have to be Ellis Marsalis. He has not only served as proud papa to jazz-active sons Branford, Wynton and Delfayo, but has also played a key role in rescuing jazz from a seemingly downward spiral with his work as an influential instructor at the New Orleans Center For The Creative Arts, the celebrated music school that spawned many of the best young players in the recent jazz boom. Until recently the man's own music remained a bit of an unknown, seldom heard live, with Marsalis preferring his tutorial, nurturing role to one on the concert stage. Recorded at a rare New Orleans concert, Marsalis' elegant and graceful solo piano lies at the very heart of jazz, where European formalism neatly dovetails with African rhythm and improvisation. Even though his style may not always seem particularly dazzling—he doesn't overwhelm with flashy technique—on a basic emotional level, Marsalis' music always cuts simply and deeply to the heart. Whether it's a spirited, lilting New Orleans-rhythmed stride, or a stately and regal processional like "Fourth Autumn," Ellis Marsalis shows himself to be an esteemed teacher and craftsman, and at long last, the master has spoken out.

WINDBREAKERS Electric Landlady (DB, 432 Moreland Ave. N.E. Atlanta, GA 30307/404-521-3008)—Tim Lee and Bobby Sutliff have been songwriting legends of the South for over a decade, creating and playing some of the most well-crafted, elegant pop songs this side of Younger Than Yesterday

Together as the Windbreakers and separately as solo artists, the two are responsible for some twenty records, Electric Landlady being their eighth U.S. release as the Windbreakers. In Byrdian tradition, there's a country lilt and heart-melting harmonies gracing the songs—for the closest Byrds approximation, see "Elayne Lies Looking At The Sky," which was written by their friend John Thomas as a Windbreakers spoof, and the dreamy "The Girl From Washington." Russ Tolman steps in on Landlady as producer, helping to show off the traditional inspiration and sincere playing of the Windbreakers. The album's closer is a moving rendition of "Waltzing Matilda," delicately laced with vibes and harp. The CD version contains the first recordings Bobby and Tim made as the Windbreakers, the Mitch Easter-produced Any Monkey With A Typewriter EP, a crucial nugget of pop history and a dynamic contrast to the relaxed atmosphere of Electric Landlady.

ROGER MILLER Xylyl And A Woman In Half (New Alliance, P.O. Box 1389, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-430-6838)—Whereas Mr. Miller's No Man revamps and reinvests meaning to the term "art rock," this totally separate display of orchestral acumen is closer to a score for an Alvin Ailey dance piece than the less formal compositions he's pulled off on the last few records. Xylyl, its seven parts composing side one, utilizes five players on strings, trumpet, synths and guitar for a motile, though rigidly organized, continuity. As Rhys Chatham uses a central guitar overtone to sculpt a piece, Miller bases his orderly arrangements around a repeated sample as depicted by the segment title (no, they're not P-Funk samples—"House Rock Compost" is the apparent origin for one piece). The clashing emotional hues set off by cozy acoustics vs. impersonal electronic devices are suitable distraction from the rather particular, combined complexity of the pieces. "Lamp-

REBIRTH BRASS BAND ReBirth Kickin' It Live! (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Okay, so you've got your Dirty Dozens, you've got your Nevilles and your Dr. Johns, but if we want to really get down to a little brass band shuffling and strutting, we're just as likely to fall into the second-line and swirl our parasols behind the young and feisty horns of the Rebirth Brass Band. The RBB is among the leaders of the new school of brass bands playing these days at Mardi Gras revelries, jazz festivals, and in the cheering sections at Saints games; and in the spirit of youth and adventure, they've helped revitalize the entire genre by virtually throwing the rule book on brass bands out the window. They're just as capable of incorporating reggae or rap influences into their music as they are the century-old Nawlins brass band tradition. There's a steaming plate of divine etouffe waiting in heaven for the amazing Mark Bingham (whose past live recordings include the Dirty Dozen Live At Montreaux album and field recordings of Mardi Gras Indian rehearsals in New Orleans), whose skillful and loving engineering captured this Mardi Gras revelry in all its sassy, brassy glory. Strut this stuff: "Kidd Jordan's Second Line," "Freedom," "Talk That Shit Now" and "Ain't No Shame In My Game."

DIZZY GILLESPIE AND THE UNITED NATION ORCHESTRA Live At The Royal Festival Hall (Enja, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, 209 E. Alameda Ave., Suite 101, Burbank, CA 91502/818-841-8585)—With his trademark upturned trumpet bell, John Birks "Dizzy" Gillespie shows no signs of letting up after over five decades of pioneering innovation. His latest ensemble, bringing together 15 players from six countries in the Americas and Caribbean, also features 10 bandleaders in their own right. Recorded in 1989 at London's Royal Festival Hall, Dizzy and crew blaze through nearly 75 minutes of flawless sounds on many Gillespie classics, all incorporating a combination of Afro-American, Cuban and Latin rhythms with the Gillespie-spearheaded bebop evolutions. Virtuosity abounds, from Paquito D'Rivera's clarinet and alto sax on his Peruvian waltz "Seresta" segued to his Carmen McRae tribute, "Samba For Carmen," to the scating of Brazil's Flora Purim on "Tanga" (check out Ignacio Berroa's explosive drum solo midway through), to Steve Turre's ingenious conch shells on "Dizzy Shells," to the exciting and stunning solo tradeoffs on cuts such as "And Then She Stopped" and the fitting closer, the panoramic "A Night In Tunisia." At age 73, Dizzy Gillespie is still showing the youngbloods who's boss, and at the pace he's going, a whole new generation will be blessed with his extraordinary gift.

MARK GERMINO & THE SLUGGERS Radartown (Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-468-4200)—Mark Germino's songwriting and playing spring from the time-honored tradition of the American singer-songwriter, but there's more to his vision than just blue bandannas, jeans and T-shirts—like the buried irony in most of Springsteen's "message" songs, there are similar levels of craftsmanship and buried meanings at work here. One can see much of Germino's historical, personal odyssey on his pre-music-career journeyman's path and its influence—for a time he served in the Navy, drove a truck, wrote poetry and the like, and his attitudes gained from these non-nonsense experiences are reflected strongly now in what he calls his "neo-renaissance rock and roll poetry." Turning a keen lyrical eye on the land of the free and the brave, Germino echoes other American heroes of the guitar-and-pen persuasor from Dylan to Springsteen and even John Cougar Mellencamp, but with a more discerning and literate temperament than the usual jock and roll Americana. Mixing dulcimer and mandolin with the twin-guitar attack lends a more rural, rustic feel to many of Germino's tales of life and love and death. Songs like "LeRoy And Bo's Totalitarian Showdown," "Unionville" and "She's A Mystery" are tales of life told with gripping realism and literary detail.

X-TAL Die Monster Die (Alias, 374 Brannan St., San Francisco, CA 94107/415-546-1863)—It's a wiser and angrier X-Tal that graces our sterc this year, these San Francisco-reared citizens matching a carnival of instruments with a torrent of well-enumerated opinions on everything from ganja to old, paunchy rock stars. Extinct is the sad-toned reflective X-Tal of Reason Is 6/7 Of Treason, their arrangements and imaginations fired up by philosophical coffee-house brawls and an influx of Gaelic, African and Appalachian migrant musics, all brandished with a college student's indignant gleam. Matching up snarl and swing, the band fits the Young Fresh Fellows' whiny wit with a Mekons-tinged, violin-fortified ease of rhythm. Their pan-cultural instrumental smorgasbord stays fast and punchy, lest the verbal sentiments get too weighty and pre-base," "Palmsandr" and "Pecan Box Lope" especially connote physical movement in a classically grand and symphonic manner. A Woman In Half, the soundtrack that lays sprawled across side two, is a subtly involving undersea world unto itself, electric piano and synthesizer dueting with slow poise under an ocean of calm.

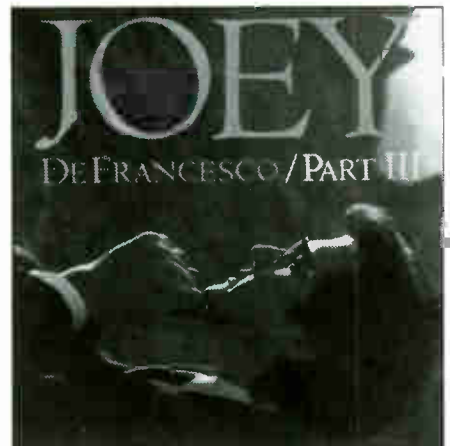

JONAS HELLBORG The Word (Axiom, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—The Word, bassist extraordinaire Jonas Hellborg's latest recording, takes an unusual assemblage of instrumentation and personnel, resulting in a most compelling and significant recording. Jonas Hellborg first came to the attention of American audiences through his dazzling bass work with John McLaughlin's briefly reunited Mahavishnu Orchestra circa 1984. On The Word, Hellborg, utilizing an acoustic bass guitar, is joined by drummer Tony Williams and the Soldier String Quartet. This recording succeeds on many levels, the first one being conceptual: virtuoso musicians create a new musical context to focus their instrumental expertise away from the notion of technique as an end in itself. Second are the notes and constructs therein, a concoction of Bartok-like harmonies, Middle Eastern forms and some inspired drumming by Tony Williams. Produced by Bill Laswell, The Word features seven original compositions by Hellborg and two tunes co-written by Hellborg and Tony Williams. Pay particular attention to Hellborg's stirring cover of Hendrix's "Cherokee Mist."

HARM FARM Nice Job, Einstein (Alias, 374 Brannan St., San Francisco, CA 94107/415-546-1863)—An amalgam of Camper-style folk, endearingly goofy lyrics and snappy pop song lovability, the sound of Harm Farm is an uncommon composite of familiar sounds. The CVB relationship goes beyond a spunky bluegrass flavor; original violinist Morgan Fichter now plays with the Campers and drummer Melanie Clarin used to play with CVB-offshoot Donner Party. Also, Oliver DiCicco, knob twiddler behind the Monks of Doom, John Zorn and Henry Kaiser, handles the production work here, bringing Noah Chasin's violin up front in the mix and creating an immediately accessible sound comprised of beautiful layers. A good starting point is "Daisy, I'm..." which is what a psychedelic jamboree would sound like on the green slopes of the Irish Isles—the vocals, guitars and violin chasing each other around in frenzied circles. After repeated listenings, it's clear that Chasin's violin, whether it be sorrowful, festive or backwards, is the critical thread tying this album together, as it soars and dips through the songs like a seasoned vocalist. Other picks: "Crawdads," "Taunting The Drowsey," the instrumental "Ed's Bait Shop" and "Annie MacNaught."

JOEY DeFRANCESCO Part III (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Ever since Hammond B-3 organs first began rolling off assembly lines, the jazz and blues idioms have enjoyed a long string of virtuoso geniuses tickling the keys of that trembling, soulful instrument. And even though he's only an unbelievable 19 years old, Joey DeFrancesco is already proving his skill as one of the most bristling, electrifying jazz organists of recent memory. In a similar, but decidedly less flashy style than fellow child prodigies like Harry Connick Jr. or Wynton Marsalis, DeFrancesco also keeps on reaching and stretching his prodigious talents to almost implausible extremes. Now Joey has decided that he wants to take on the trumpet, and the multi-talented boy wonder shows he can blow in a soulful tone that ominously recalls his former employer, Miles Davis. The current whiz kid of the Hammond B-3 will make you dizzy with his whirling organ fills—and when he hits that high, warbling E-note at the end of one of his solos, it's almost enough to make you fall right out of your chair. He even takes on his dad as sparring partner in a musical cutting contest with dueling Hammonds on "Gut Bucket Blues"—it's almost as if no one's safe from the talents of Joey DeFrancesco.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Latino Latino—Music from The Streets Of L.A. (Rhythm Safari, c/o Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-487-0151)—Latino Latino is the result of producer Tom Regis' exploration of the hot salsa/Latin jazz milieu found in Los Angeles. Those who think that fine salsa brew can only be found in Manhattan better check your sources again. The richness in Latino music, drawing its sources from Andalusia to Nigeria, is finely showcased in this seven-band compilation. Some highlights include Cuban expatriate Francisco Aguabella's (who can be heard displaying his bravado conga with Eddie Palmieri) "Pronto Salsa"; Colombian percussionist Louis Perez's "Rako" and the sensational Colombian vocalist Vivian Ara mixing her Latin/African roots in "Mandela." With recordings by Daniel Ponce and Arturo Sandoval just recently released, and now with Latino Latino, one hopes that radio can find a niche and respect that this rich music so urgently deserves.

BONE

FISHBONE "Sunless Saturday" (5") (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—With the never-ending hype swirling around, and release date after release date getting pushed around, it makes you wonder if the upcoming Fishbone LP will ever be completed and released. Well the latest hint from the forthcoming LP, The Reality Of My Surroundings, is here in the form of "Sunless Saturday." You'll be sweating after just one listen to the dense layering of high-powered guitars that wind and scream endlessly, Angelo Moore's glorious vocals pushing through a massive wall of sound that punches a hole in your soul.

POUNDING BIRDS A Perfect Language (EP) (Heyday, P.O. Box 411332, San Francisco, CA 94141-1332/415-864-8768)—Twentysomething crisis music for sensitive males and females. Alienation and useless lives in a hollow world are the lyrical obsessions here, with most of the five songs here about dead love and scratching at the ensuing open wound. Ben Melnick and Simon Brown combine acoustic and electric guitar for a clean, earthy and altogether bleak sound, the songs stomachfuls of bitter, old-folky melody (the one upbeat song is called "Drinking Poison"). Wallowing halfway between Chris Cacavas' lonesome C&W cries and American Music Club's delicately articulated stupor, "Tear Something Down" and "Another Coat Of Paint" are hearty and plainspoken trips to the abyss.

STEEL POLE BATH TUB "Arizona Garbage Truck" (7") (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/213-423-0281)—Steel Pole, caught in the rapid evolution of dissonance to its next and more frayed level, cause one to stop and consider what would've happened had Pussy Galore been a secret metal band instead of a secret blues band. "Arizona" is much woolier and deliberately less cohesive than neighbors the Melvins, but it sinks a big weighty hole in your chest just as methodically.

HOLLOW HEYDAY Verge (EP) (Tanttrum, P.O. Box 657, Cambridge, MA 02238/617-739-2023)—Verge is a jump-started historical look at Boston's Hollow Heyday, as it features the two songs which made up the band's debut 7" and two songs from the upcoming LP Grate. All four songs are about sorting out angst, using brash guitars and jerky melodies as tools. The older two take a more melodious tack while the two new ones hint at a darker, more twisted side of the band. Favorite picks are the tinny pop of "Stop It" from the "Jaded" (older) side, and the manic "Tussle" from the "Hyper" side.

METAL FLAKE MOTHER Metal Flake Mother (7" EP) (Moist, P.O. Box 3597, Chapel Hill, NC 27515/919-929-2417)—Pretty and twerpy and just tough enough to keep from being pushed around. This new band (the accompanying note says they were signed after four shows) have four perplexingly good songs; perplexing because they avoid lethal college cliches, and have a tres quirky vocalists and mincing, perfectionist pop sensibility (the note also mentioned the Pixies and we'll agree), and guitars that tend to politely decorate the song, then rip into a classic harebrain (as opposed to egghead) rock gesture.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

TUMOR CIRCUS'S "Swine Flu" is a caustic and brutally honest concoction of a couple ex-Beatnigs, a Jello Biafra at-large and a metallic-funk downward flush that's got all the urgency of a late-night pounding at the door (with mega-apocalyptic bass and sampling for that extra knee in the groin) (Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 11458, San Francisco, CA 94101/415-541-5305)... Sympathy, where rust never sleeps: MONSIEUR JEFFREY EVANS & LA FONG present Music From Binghamton (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/213-423-0281), whooping it up with a Collins Kids and a Bill Haley cover, somewhere between the A-Bones and the Gibsons in terms of authenticity and lucidity... The HUMPERS are from the untamed zone of Fullerton, and motor through "Baby '89" with the chainsaw force of, say, the Devil-dogs with rabies, and their infatuation with the Ann Arbor axis actually improves their attack (Sympathy, address above)... WHITE FLAG & TONY ADOLESCENT slouch and snarl through a Rich Kids ("Young Girl") and a Saints ("Demolition Girl") cover, not adding much new insight, but maintaining a young-spirited, loud and snotty high pitch (Sympathy, address above)... For those in the Cruz fan club, BIG DRILL CAR and CHEMICAL PEOPLE take on major legends (Cheap Trick and Kiss, respectively) and basically update the power-pop crispness of "Surrender" and "Getaway" (Cruz, P.O. Box 7756, Long Beach, CA 90807/213-424-8281).

LLAMASAURUS Llamasaurus (Snatch-O-Matic, P.O. Box 718, East Northport, NY 11731/516-261-3418)—Though the '60s never really went away, nostalgia has given way to a full-blown Happening Scene that threatens to permeate all aspects of '90s living, from

F.Y.I.

At long last, a band that manages to mix not just the '60s with the '90s, but the '70s with the '80s, '80s with '60s, '90s with '70s paper dresses to Posies to someone using the word "Dionysian" for the millionth time this month. Amongst the hoopla and outer trappings of grooviness, there's been a good lot of bands that tuned to the '60s inner vibe and channeled into the spirit of freedom, experimentation and feedback salvation. Llamasaurus, mainly an outlet for axe-monster Barry Walker, filters a psychedelic guitar meltdown through winding tunnels of the past 10 years of eccentric pop and flailing hair. Aided by pals and Futures peers Jim Allen and Ed Graham of the Pranksters, the bi-guitar, lazy day-glo pulsations elevate ballads (that sound like Opal once in awhile and Rain Parade usually) and rockers (that sound like the Flaming Lips) alike, drenching impeccable pop instincts in a liquid slide wash that compares to the Outskirts Of Infinity's wilder moments. Like the Smashing Pumpkins, the band is strong enough to go full tilt on distortion toys without clouding up a double whammy of songwriting and playing know-how, and out of six songs, five are fully levitational (esp. "Pound" and "Remember Me?").

and so on. FERTILE CRESCENT (c/o Eric Sanko, 40 Harrison St., Apt. 15J, New York, NY 10013/212-619-5118) manages to capture the humor and craftsmanship of Jellyfish without ever seeming boffish or resorting to donning silly hats, adroitly employing tricks of the pop trade from Beatle-y harmonies and skillful layers of guitars, reminding us of the catchy pop of bands like School Of Fish, What Is This or even ancient Queen (stuff like "Tenement Funster," not "Under Pressure"). FC is rich-sounding for a three-piece—there's more ideas zinging around inside this hook-happy five-songer than in most band's albums, and we hesitate to list any faves out of the five, simply because they're all equally extraordinary... On the reggae front, lately we've been undergoing spring thaw with the new demo from BOMB SHELTER, whose Human Rights cassette (contact Courtney Logan at 609-877-7840 or write to Total Sound Production, 118 Plumtree Lane, Willingboro, NJ, 08064) jumps and pops with solid-but-loose, breezy reggae energy. Originally hailing from Jamaica, this rock-solid five-man band builds their sound on the solid ground of a firm reggae base, but beef up the mix with elements like complex keyboard fills and spacy high-flying guitar solos (if you ever heard Donald Kinsey play with Peter Tosh, you know what we mean), turning their sound into a current and distinctly modern one. —D.I.Y.

JACKPOT!

ALEX CHILTON 19 Years: A Collection Of Alex Chilton (Rhino, 2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404)—Okay, imagine you've just been given the most thankless, impossible task in the world: It's your job to put together an Alex Chilton comp. spanning the '70s and '80s. The highs are high, even the middling tracks are often downright ecstatic, and the lows are, well, painfully atrocious if not utterly incomprehensible, and you're basically damned no matter what you do. Henceforth, whenever people you meet at parties or in clubs find out that "you're the one who did that Chilton thing," you'll be instantly beswarmed by disgruntled fans demanding to know why on earth "O Dana," "The Singer Not The Song" or stuff from Bach's Bottom wasn't on there, or even worse, why "Volare" made it but "Dalai Lama" didn't. The key word to this compilation is the first one in the title, "A," so before you get all testy and critical, let's just remember that after all, nobody's claiming this is "definitive" or even "best" by any stretch. It's A Collection Of Alex Chilton (they count the ambiguous 3rd LP as a solo), and on its own terms, it's a pretty darn good one—even the return of out-of-print stuff from his love-him-or-leave-him Big Time period stands up fairly well considering it's on the same disc as "Kanga Roo" or "Nighttime." It'd be easy for us to list our faves that didn't make it, but instead we'll just offer a simple and respectful suggestion to the good Rhino folks: Simply throw together everything else that isn't here, and presto, roll out volume two! We're waiting.

LEFTY FRIZZELL The Best Of Lefty Frizzell (Rhino, address above)—When you form a mental image of what a country music legend such as Lefty Frizzell is supposed to look like, you tend to picture a weather-beaten, world-weary countenance, someone who's seen it all, for better or for worse. When Lefty Frizzell recorded his first side for Columbia in 1950, the classic "If You've Got The Money I've Got The Time," he was all of 22 years of age, and the single became one of the fastest selling records in country music history. Frizzell's success in the early '50s was equaled only by Hank Williams, and the two were undeniably the most influential country music singers of their generation, and along with Jimmie Rodgers, quite possibly of all time. While the unparalleled Bear Family label in Germany has Frizzell's complete recordings available via a massive box set, Rhino's 18-track collection will do most fans just fine, and the label's continued support of country music giants (other superior packages are devoted to Wanda Jackson, Ernest Tubb and Merle Travis) remains undiluted and comprehensive. Best Of naturally contains Frizzell's most-beloved standards such as "Saginaw, Michigan," "Long Black Veil" and "Give Me More, More, More (Of Your Kisses)," but also dusts off some more obscure gems from the Lefty archives, most notably "How Long Will It Take (To Stop Loving You)" and "I Love You Mostly." Historically significant and musically essential.

JULIE LONDON Time For Love: The Best Of Julie London (Rhino, address above)—The deep, sultry come-hither of the stand-up bass and the sad, lonely strum of the electric guitar set the mood, a noirish scene of smoke, booze, and guys and dolls, lonely people needing some company for an evening. And then this chanteuse takes the spotlight, poured into a dress that hugs her curves like a Porsche hugs the road. But it's that voice, and that style, that make the men madly desirous and the women decidedly jealous. A voice like crushed velvet, all breath and allure and romance, deep and self-assured, yet with the slightest hint of doubt. The song is "Cry Me A River," Julie London's first and biggest hit from 1955, and a legendary torch number. Rhino has collected the best of London's early recordings, previously available only on assorted import pressings (worth their price for the full-color cover shots of the voluptuous London), 18 tracks in all, each one an invitation for l'amour. London was at her best in a small, supper-club musical setting, her sultry vocals augmented by the barest of accompaniments, although on numbers like the Thelonious Monk standard "Round Midnight," the orchestral backdrop brings to mind the exquisite Nelson Riddle arrangements of Francis Albert's finest moments. Let love rule.

Column coordinated by Craig Marks

GOLDEN PALOMINOS Thundering Herd: The Best Of The Golden Palominos (Oceana, 2700 N. 29th Ave., Suite 200-S, Hollywood, FL 33020)—The Golden Palominos could well be the most misunderstood "band" of the last decade: Basically a loose aggregation of studio musicians revolving around the nucleus of drummer Anton Fier, GP has included the following key players: Bill Laswell, Bernie Worrell, Michael Stipe, Jack Bruce, Johnny Lydon, Richard Thompson, Syd Straw, Nicky Skopelitis, John Zorn, Chris Stamey, Matthew Sweet, T-Bone Burnett, Arto Lindsay and Fred Frith. Admittedly, a two-disc set from a band with only four albums might initially seem a little strange, but when one realizes that those albums were stretched over almost a decade, a retrospective seems a little more in order—and considering some of the great musicians and recordings associated with the Palominos, one could argue that the Palominos just may be near tribute-album status as well. Taking into account the Golden Palominos' past problems with distribution and availability, with a little luck this double disc distillation of Palomino history may be setting the stage for the sadly-too-low-profiled Fier and company to take the center spotlight they've deserved for a long time. And when that happens, the record company can match the unbelievably cheesy cover art with an equally cheesy title like Palomino Gold or Golden Hits.

THE SKINNY ON ZIMMY

By now, you've probably heard/read something about the upcoming Bob Dylan box set. Titled The Bootleg Series, Volumes 1-3 (Rare & Unreleased), 1961-1991, the three-CD/cassette set is set for a release date of March 26. Fifty-eight never-released-before tracks, from a recording of "Hard Times In New York Town" taped live in a Minnesota hotel room in 1961, to "Series Of Dreams," a wonderful outtake from last year's Oh! Mercy. Other cool junk to seek out: an oversized poster of vintage hep Dylan; the video for "Series Of Dreams," with loads of never-before-seen footage; and a syndicated radio special featuring music from the box set with commentary from Bob himself. Call Josh Rosenthal at (212) 445-5095, and let him know that Dylan is more than "that old guy in the Traveling Wilburys."

Many of the releases reviewed in Flashback can be ordered through Midnight Records. For a free catalog, write to 255 W. 23rd St., New York, NY 10011 or phone 212-675-2768.

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Urge Overkill: Shaking martinis with Dave Kendall

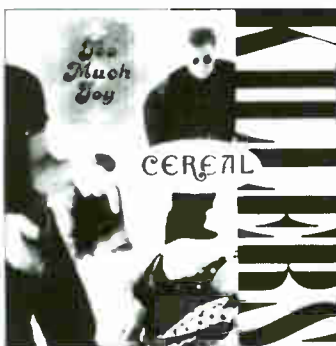

Divinyls: Sticky fingers

That's Me In The Corner: Despite its leap into the top spot (9-1), R.E.M. only edged Jesus Jones (1-2) by a tiny margin, and the success of the R.E.M.sters is not across the boards... yet. The Athens quartet grabs the #1 Audience Response slot, the Top Cut ("Losing My Religion," which is unavoidable on MTV), but only tops one regional chart, the East, with a low again in the South (#5). Each region is blowing its own horn: Screaming Trees (4-6 overall) tops the West; Dinosaur Jr. (3-4 overall) tops the South; and Jesus Jones tops the Midwest. Meanwhile, Eleventh Dream Day finally breaks into the Top 5 (6-5) on its eighth week on the chart. The Feelies are the only new Top 10 entry (13-9), which isn't a surprise after two straight weeks topping the Adventure Picks chart (and at #2 this week). Throwing Muses (30-14) and Morrissey (34-18) should be going Top 10 next week.

Sub Pop-ping Up All Over: The indie story this week is the success of the two Sub Pop records, Tad (39-27) and Beat Happening (36-31). Both groups have leads in their (and the label's) home base, the West, with Beat Happening at #12 and Tad at #17 there. Other independent releases having a strong week include Alias' Hypnolovewheel (57-45), Rhino's Tame Yourself compilation (114-56), Touch And Go's Silverfish (90-68), TwinTone's Ween (86-75; previous peak at #34), SST's Leaving Trains (106-78), Play It Again Sam-Caroline's Legendary Pink Dots (#84 debut) and Fire's Perfect Disaster (116-100). Why have the Butthole Surfers (12-12) and Bongwater (21-24) albums peaked so soon?

Break On Through: The #1 Breakthrough comes from college radio faves the Hoodoo Gurus, whose single, "Miss Freeloze '69," debuts at #61. Other singles breakthrough include the new Simple Minds tune (#88 debut; #3 Breakthrough), EMF (65-48), Spacemen 3 (149-107), Chris Connelly (130-113) and School Of Fish (#145 debut).

While it's on at 45 stations, there is considerable airplay in the upstate NY area (WHRW, WICB and WITR) and even a couple #1s (WSYC and WWSP). Don't miss the song dedicated to Jill Maxick called "Long-Haired Guys From England."

There's absolutely Too Much Joy on this record. There's a tribute to someone named "William Holden Caufield," an ode to the "King Of Beers" and even a soppy "Crush Story." The only thing they don't do on this Alias/Giant-WB release is murder your Rice Krispies. Cerebral Killers is the third opus from this Scarsdale, NY, group; it's already found joy at radio, with a 120-67 leap, good for the #6 Radio Breakthrough.

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

We knew R.E.M. would capture the top spot instantly, but we didn't know it would be so monstrous! Seventy-one percent—120 of the 169 reporting stores—reported Out Of Time at #1! The album easily overtook Morrissey, who only held down the #1 spot for one week, and cut in on Dinosaur Jr.'s top In-Store Play reign. Enigma also moves up this week (4-3), while Dinosaur Jr. is bumped down (2-4) and Jesus Jones moves down (3-5). The Doors soundtrack (10-11) and Daniel Ash (9-15) exit the Top 10, making way for R.E.M.'s entry; Sire's Throwing Muses captures the highest debut this week at #10.

Other impressive debuts this week were made by Wax Trax's Revoluting Cocks "Beers, Steers & Queers" 12" remix at #34, Slash-WB's Blasters collection at #37, Epic's Godfathers LP at #41 and Jive-RCA's Boogie Down Productions live LP at #46. Modest gains were made by Epic's Screaming Trees (26-21), Island's Drivin' N' Cryin' (29-26), Mute-Elektra's Meat Beat Manifesto (34-28), Mercury's Material Issue (35-30) and Columbia's C & C Music Factory (40-33).

On the indie front, Rough Trade and Sub Pop each have two records on the chart. Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers are down 5-8 but holding on to their Top 10 stature and Nova Mob, at 49-50, hasn't surpassed its peak of #47. Sub Pop's Tad holds onto a respectable 18-19 while Beat Happening moves up 44-40. Shimmy-Disc's Bongwater (22-24) and Alternative Tentacles' Jello Biafra With Nomeansno (25-27) each move down two notches, and Touch And Go's Jesus Lizard moves down 21-29. Import-wise, Creation's My Bloody Valentine EP, which has just been released by Sire-Reprise domestically, moves down 36-57, while Creation's new Ride EP debuts at #59. ZTT's new 808 State album also debuts at #72. (RETAIL REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

FRESH!

ED O.G. & DA BULLDOGS Life Of A Kid In The Ghetto (PWL, c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—When people look back on the 1991 rap scene, one of the groups that will stand out as one of the strongest and most promising new acts of the future will surely be Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs. After the out-of-the-box success of "I Got To Have It," Ed O.G. (Every Day, Other Girls) and his Bulldogs (Black United Leaders Living Directly On Groovin' Sounds) take us on a tour of life in the inner cities on their debut, Life Of A Kid In The Ghetto. Produced by the Awesome 2 team (Special K and Teddy Ted), Ed O.G.'s Puba Maxwell-sounding delivery throws down clear, penetrating stories and realities of the street over raw sampling, melodic harmonies and always challenging beats that steer a smooth flowing course. Ed's diversity is apparent as he is able to speak on serious issues as well as comical ones. With "I'm Different" creating an identity for himself, other tracks such as "Speak Upon It" and "Dedicated To The Right Wingers" show a more persistent side to his talent. "Feel Like A Nut" and "Bug-A-Boo" (translates: anyone who is annoying) are more soft-hearted jams, while throughout the rest of the LP, Ed shows us how to handle the ladies on songs like "Gotta Have Money" and "Let Me Tickle Your Fancy" but nicely contrasts it with the powerful "Be A Father To Your Child." Two snaps up for Ed!

ON THE CHART

OK, OK, we get the idea! There is just no budging EPMD (1-1), which is spending its seventh week at the top spot. But you don't have to look far for a contender—Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs (2-2) have a better than average chance in dethroning the reigning champions. Also holding position is L.L. Cool J (3-3) and Digital Underground (4-4) while Gang Starr (6-5) and New Jack City (10-6) make gains. 12" singles on the run include Nikki D's "Daddy's Little Girl" (20-11) and Another Bad Creation's "Ieshia" (27-16). There is an "X" convention happening down the chart as Movement Ex, Mantronix, Professor X and Terminator X are bunched down at the 34-37 positions. This week's highest debut goes to the righteous sister, Yo-Yo, and her latest 12", "You Can't Play With My Yo-Yo." Watch for some serious chart action from the just-released Boogie Down Productions live LP in coming weeks. This week's Adventure Picks as chosen by programmers: 1) Definition Of Sound; 2) EPMD; 3) Boogie Down Productions; 4) Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs; 5) Nikki D; 6) K-9 Posse; 7) New Jack City; 8) Dream Warriors; 9) Run-D.M.C.; 10) Big Daddy Kane. DEF 12

L.L. COOL J "Mama Said Knock You Out" [108 BPM] (Def Jam/RAL, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—After shifting the spotlight in his direction with the mega-successful "Around The Way Girl" single, L.L. Cool J is ready to please his street audience with the release of the best and hardest-hitting cut from the album, "Mama Said Knock You Out." With a handful of remixes from Marley Marl and Bobcat, L.L. shows this slammer with some interesting new faces. After getting through a long and short version of the LP mix, you're treated to a "For Steering Pleasure" mix that takes on a Public Enemy/Hank Shocklee bent. The B-side offers a long and short "Hot Mix"—a flimsy dance mix showing L.L. softening up his delivery and attempting to please those turned on by "Around The Way Girl." The honorable "7 A.M. Mix" closes the 12" with L.L. knockin' you out with a house mix. Watch for L.L.'s film debut in The Hard Way.

STEP UP TO THIS

One of the better and more overlooked groups of the past year, UNITY 2, has recently released "Buckwheat The Rebel" [116 BPM] (Reprise, c/o Warner Bros.,

3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505). Weaving this song around some futuristic dance beats and samples, with the inclusion of a house and Steve "Silk" Hurley mix, this 12" could easily become a club standard. Also included is an intoxicating remix of "Brooklyn Story" by MC 900 Ft. Jesus' DJ Zero. . . O.C.U.'s (Organized Crime Unit) "Penitentiary Bound" [88 BPM] (Kapone, 60 E. Chestnut, Suite 267, Chicago, IL 60611/312-568-9134) drops a serene, steady groove with the the five-man crew rolling off violent street stories along with their gangster images and attitude. . . After nearly three years off, WHODINI is returning with "Freaks" [104 BPM] (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608). With bouncy wordplay from Ecstasy and Jalil Hutchins and production that stirs up early '80s funk, the trio should recapture earlier gold and platinum status. Look for new their LP, Bog-A-Trix. . . People like Malcolm X, Nelson Mandela and Marcus Garvey are described by DOUBLE XX POSSE as being part of the "Executive Class" [112 BPM] (Big Beat, 37 W. 20th St., Suite 310, New York, NY 10011/212-691-9877). This rap jam displays a righteous delivery and a great jazz trumpet sample in the mix. . . Karen Bernod and Pierre Salandy, a.k.a TRIBAL HOUSE, please the feet with a crossover-capable club hit, "Mainline" [124 BPM] (SBK, 1290 Ave. of the Americas,

New York, NY 10104). The slippery groove on this cut features some intricate vocal arrangements that help spice up the song. By the way, the animal skins they wear are imitation. . . Other singles whose future depends on you include: STEREO MC'S "Elevate My Mind" (4th & Broadway, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012) and an interesting dance mix of the BUCK PETS "Libertine" (Island, see address above).

JOB OPPORTUNITY

If you're a college kid with nothing but time on your hands, and you're looking to get your feet wet in the wonderful world of college promotion, SOUL Records is currently looking for regional college representatives. Whether you're freezing your ass off in Anchorage or sunning your ass in Miami, give Adairo Strange a call for further information at 212-274-0001.

ON THE CHARTS

HALLELUJAH! A song of praise goes out as the skies of our Loud World finally open! After five months of having one of the same two records at #1, Motorhead lets the sunshine in, taking undisputed command of the Loud 100's pinnacle. Megadeth slips to #2, but still comes in at #1 at the Commercial and Audience charts, while Wrathchild America moves to #3 and captures the College chart. Queensryche and Mind Funk reign the top of the Retail and Adventure realms (respectively), while a big ol' block of bold is moving up the charts below the Top Five: Saigon Kick (8-6), Alice In Chains (9-7), Agony Column (10-8), Dark Angel (11-9) Cyclone Temple (23-11), Bulletboys (37-11), Mind Funk (36-18) and Ignorance (38-22) look to be the big names of the next few months, while Hall Aflame captures the Top Debut at #40. JACKPOT!

DIZZY GILLESPIE AND THE UNITED NATION ORCHESTRA Live At The Royal Festival Hall (Enja, c/a Mesa/Bluemaan, 209 E. Alameda Ave., Suite 101, Burbank, CA 91502)/ ARTURO SANDOVAL Flight To Freedom (GRP, 555 W. 57th St., New York 10019)—For hundreds of years before the birth of jazz, the trumpet was a regal instrument, the herald of royalty. These two exciting new jazz recordings herald neither racial nor class divisions but rather the oneness of humanity and the universality of jazz rhythm. Trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie, at 73, this country's most eminent ambassador of culture and good will, heads a 15-piece big band captured live at London's Royal Festival Hall in 1989. The United Nation Orchestra, an ongoing project, is indeed a global aggregation, consisting of three Cubans, three Brazilians, six Americans, a Panamanian, a Puerto Rican and a Dominican; and not just any musicians—10 of these players (including reedmen Paquito D'Rivera and James Moody, trombonist Steve Turre, brassman Claudio Roditi, percussionist Airto Moreira and singer Flora Purim) also lead their own bands. The common language is swing. Buoyed by the snappy, undulating patterns and pulses of a six-man rhythm section (traps, two hand-drummers, piano, bass and guitar), Gillespie and his soloists kick into high gear from the outset of the 10-minute "Tin Tin Deo" and never let up, though the tempos and dynamics vary considerably, until they adjourn after an 18 1/2-minute "A Night In Tunisia." Gillespie and Sandoval share more than a common instrument: The Cuban-born Sandoval, a Gillespie protege who co-led an album with the master for Pablo in 1982 (To A Finland Station), performs with high-note alacrity and rhythmic surety on Royal Festival Hall. While touring with the United Nation Orchestra in 1990, he defected during a stopover in Rome. Now settled in Miami, the onetime hotshot of the Cuban group Irakere has made the most of his newfound freedom, having appeared on Dave Grusin's Havana soundtrack and now his own GRP CD as a leader. Joined by saxist Ed Calle on the front line, Sandoval burns high and bright in the conjunto tipico tradition with backing by a crack rhythm section of drummer Dave Weckl, bassist Anthony Jackson, guitarist Rene Luis Toledo and (on three cuts) pianist Chick Corea. Thankfully, playing supersedes high-gloss production here, though the sound is superb. There are a few commercial touches on the slower, softer numbers, as one would expect on a GRP recording, but the rhythms are genuine, the bop and Afro-Cuban lines sizzling with excitement. An assured spontaneity—the result of musicians playing together, literally and figuratively—infuses most of this recording. Live At The Royal Festival Hall and Flight To Freedom—play 'em together, play 'em often.

ON THE CHART

It wasn't quite a year ago yet, but remember when Novus-RCA ruled this chart with records by Carmen McRae, Marcus Roberts, Roy Hargrove and Christopher Hollyday? Well, it looks like the beginnings of deja vu. For the fifth week, Marcus Roberts sits atop the mountain; Carmen McRae soars 21-4 in her second week on the chart; and new records are on the way from Hargrove and Hollyday, and they won't disappoint. Two wonderful Rounder releases are putting their five cents in, though. Ellis Marsalis leads the debuts with his solo piano offering (#7) and the Rebirth Brass Band comes in not too far behind (#13 debut). Other records to keep an eye on are the steadily rising Steve Lacy And Mal Waldron duet (14-11), reedman Vincent Herring (25-14) and the wonderful new Dizzy Gillespie live date with his United Nation Orchestra (#19 debut). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

ODDS 'N' ENDS

For his debut album as a leader, Wide Open Spaces (Enja, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, address above), the well-traveled contrabassist MICHAEL FORMANEK stitches together 15 of his own pieces into a rhythmically engaging suite-like tapestry. The presence of alto and soprano saxist Greg Osby on the front line leads one to presume that the insidious M-BASE modus operandi (sidelong, crab-like funk rhythms) is at work here, but that's not the case. The leader's bass, teamed with the violin of Mark Feldman and the electric guitar of Wayne Krantz, propels a strong rhythmic charge that is abetted by the drums of Jeff Hirshfield. One can't be sure how much the influence of Formanek's past bosses (Joe Henderson, Stan Getz, Freddie Hubbard, Gerry Mulligan) is manifested on Wide Open Spaces, but one thing's for certain—this is string-driven improvisation of the highest order, a headlong, sometimes skittering amalgam of funk, free and straight-ahead jazz. Play it loud!... DAVE STRYKER, an increasingly visible guitarist on the downtown New York avant-jazz scene, has come out with his debut as a leader, First Strike (Someday Of Mugen Music (Japan), c/o 1037 38th St., Brooklyn, NY 11219). A fleet-fingered plectrist with bop in his blood, Stryker is neither daunted by torrid tempos nor haunted by the white-boy blues complex. Having done his bluesy bop and soul-jazz duty in the bands of organist Jack McDuff and tenorist Stanley Turrentine, respectively, Stryker steps out on his own with an eight-song CD consisting of seven originals and a delicate rendition of Wayne Shorter's ballad, "Fall." Recorded in New York City in 1989, First Strike finds Stryker surrounded by pros who veer in and out as the tunes dictate—soprano and alto saxist Steve Slagle, pianist Marc Cohen, bassist Ron McClure and drummer Billy Hart... Speaking of fresh, young players, be sure to check out the playing of young alto saxist Jesse Davis on Yours And Mine, a superb new quintet offering on Concord from the fivesome led by drummer AKIRA TANA and bassist RUFUS REID. Despite the shortsighted packaging—from the front and back covers of the CD one assumes this is a duo album—Yours And Mine is quintessential bop from a blistering group that includes Ralph Moore on tenor and soprano and Rob Schneiderman on piano. Tana/Reid, as the group is called, builds from the bottom up before branching out melodically and harmonically. At 63 minutes, and with several originals by the co-leaders plus renditions of Jimmy Heath's "New Picture" and Duke Ellington's "Warm Valley," Yours And Mine is an invigorating date that turns the tables on what has become a standard recording procedure in recent years: Take a young, gifted but relatively inexperienced hornman and team him as a leader with a much older, battle-tested rhythm section. On Yours And Mine, the reverse is true: The rhythm-making leaders are experienced and road-tested while one of the key soloists is getting his first major taste. Concord, by the way, has scored a coup by signing the New Orleans-bred Davis to a recording pact. A must-hear... The New Orleans clarinetist DR. MICHAEL WHITE, who appeared on the Wynton Marsalis recordings The Majesty Of The Blues and the Tune In Tomorrow soundtrack, takes center stage on Crescent City Serenade, a second-line delight, due from Antilles May 7. He's joined, as expected, by trumpeter Marsalis (among several other trumpeters and a trombonist) and a rhythm section featuring Marsalis-men Reginald Veal (bass) and Herlin Riley (drums).

JACKPOT!

CHEB KADER From Oran To Paris (Shonachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860)—"The Elvis of rai"? Well, the pundits are scraping for descriptions these days, but no matter. Ignore the stupid promo raps and enjoy some great music. This recording by long-time Parisian Kader takes rai into newer and better places. Gone is the dependence on either "authentic" instruments or completely programmed tedium. There is dynamite electric guitar playing under everything. Rock 'n roll rules the kick-drum heavy percussion to augment the synthesized stuff, and a pulsating bass-line booms out the bottom. The violin and synthesizers add some local color, but this is, first and foremost, big city pop music for a young, danceclub crowd, and it delivers. I urge you to segue "Worries" with any hard rock record you can think of. The combination of power chords and sliding violin will match anything in your arsenal. Kader's voice is not necessarily one of the greats, but his delivery is determined and in this context, damn good. There are a few gratuitous moments of orchestral hits and syntho-trash, but most of the time Kader and his producer know their roots well enough to know when to keep close to the ground, and when to sever those roots and soar. Fasten your seat belts.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Lotino Lotino—Music From The Streets Of L.A. (Rhythm Safari, c/o Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—Here's a collection that, while from the studios and not the streets of L.A., certainly offers a broad taste of contemporary music from salsa, dance, pop and even experimental Latino bands and singers from Southern California. The title cut opens things up with a straight-ahead number a la Puente, with lots of timbales and conga, piano and torrid trumpets from Orquesta Siva. A singer named Trinidad stands out as the best vocalist in the lot. Her voice is thick and deep and wonderful. Salsa and pop-crossovers dominate the set, but my favorite cut has to be Louis Perez' "Rako," a roaring wave of Santana-style rock and Central American folk. It blends pop drive with shakers, quena and marimba (most of these, I suspect, are synthesized) and eerie chanting from the chorus. It's high-tech rain forest music that you can dance to. This set is a good intro to a lot of new names, some of whom you'll want to hear more of. My one problem with the whole collection is its lack of identification of the players and singers on many of the cuts. But then, here is a company that wants to get their Latin music heard on non-Spanish language radio. I have tried for years to get new releases for airplay from all the great companies in Miami, only to be rebuffed for not being a Spanish program. Thanks to the producers of Lotino, Lotino, for seeing beyond this.

JAN GARBAREK I Took Up The Runes (ECM, c/o PLG, 810 Seventh Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Well, I have finally found the ultimate musical cross-connection, from indigenous North America through Scandinavia and down

ON THE CHART

Beneath the almighty Bob Marley, fierce competition continues amongst those vying for the runner-up slots, namely Bunny Wailer and Aswad, with Niney The Observer now entering the fray as a fierce competitor in our Top 5. Other names of note on these pages this week include Culture, Ali Farka Toure and a resurgence from the Mighty Diamonds, back strong on our chart at #8. Further down, Papa Levi, Ali Akbar Khan and the Mahotella Queens all bow onto the scene—look for the possibility of even higher numbers from these potent three in the weeks to come. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) into Hungary. "His Eyes Were Suns" has the rhythm of Musikas, the voicing of northern Plains Indians and the language of Laps of Norway. There must be an actual racial connection in there somewhere, but the sound is unmistakable, and remarkable. The creative genius that brings this to the fore is Jan Garbarek. The band that he has assembled for this project is equally international in scope and sound: Manu Katche (drums), Eberhard Weber (bass), Nana Vasconcelos (percussion) and Rainer Bruninghaus (piano), and the previously mentioned Lap vocalist Ingor Antte Ailu Gaup. Garbarek's music always runs very close to the edge of that "ECM sound," a little too produced, a little too slick. At times he can be downright boring. But when he finds the right musicians and the right groove, he can take those same disadvantages and turn them around. From breezy jazz to austere folk, I Took Up The Runes is smooth, melodic and yet still challenging and different.

MUSICA DO BRASIL!

PLG (address above) is starting to dig into their back catalog, and they've made some excellent choices. Top of the list is The Free Music Of Hermeto Paschoal. This 1973 album by HERMETO PASCHOAL, the king of experimental tropicalismo, is weird, loose and rootsy. He manages to take the sappy sentimentality of bossa nova, the rhythmic flair of forro and the complexity of modern jazz and mold them into something curiously "paschoalian." These pieces are as much from the school of Mingus and Getz as from Brazil, and over the years Hermeto Paschoal has influenced and been influenced by most of the modern jazz giants. . . MILTON NASCIMENTO is certainly one of the most familiar voices of Brazil, making dozens of albums and hundreds of guest appearances over the years, and has fluctuated from smooth beauty to sleazy schmaltz in regular cycles. Sentinelo (PLG, address above) is one of his milestone recordings. This 1980 set manages to pull together his many disparate tastes into a dynamic whole. "Little Fish Of The Sea" is rich and colorful, driven by the unusual windy rhythms of the Uakti ensemble. Orchestra, acoustic guitar, native instruments and lots of sonic noodling drift underneath his lush singing in the very strange "A Scratch On The Scalp, Man, I'd Even Let The Monkey Do It." All through the album, even in its most overproduced and overblown moments, producer Mazola and singer/director Nascimento pull on the roots of Brazil in a way that rarely works with lesser talent. Talent abounds here, too: Wagner Tiso, Paulhino Carvalho, Mercedes Sosa, Ricardo Silveira, Toninho Horta, Uakti are just a few of the hands that bring to this music something more than mere notes and vibrations.

for DADDY FREDDY—the world's fastest toaster (so says the Guinness book). The first 12" will be out in early April; it's called "Daddy Freddy's In Town" and it's an amalgamation of dancehall, industrial and Led Zeppelin! Unique? Just a bit. Other 1991 releases to await: INTO PARADISE Churchtown LP, WORLD PARTY EP, the best of the WATERBOYS, new BLUE AEROPLANES LP, LAURIE FREELOVE and FOLLOW FOR NOW. Saw Liza Minnelli at the PETA/Rhino record release party for Tame Yourself—my parents were impressed. Along with k.d. Lang, Chrissie Hynde, Nina Hagen, Lene Lovich and some B-52's, Liza leaped on stage to join Raw Youth in performing the title track. To my dismay, River Phoenix stayed upstairs during the jam. A PETA party at a restaurant (Hard Rock Cafe) whose specialty of the house is a "pig" sandwich... Makes sense to me.

Doug Schoemer, First Warning Records, New York, NY (212) 925-7220

Hello. We have just received from our manufacturer a very limited number of special CLOCKHAMMER 7" singles which we will be sending out shortly. They should be in the mail by late March, so please look out for them and take special care, we only had a few hundred made, so when these guys are on the road with Metallica in a couple of years, this will be a dearly expensive collector's item. Clockhammer will be playing at South By Southwest, with Wreck and Pocket Fishmen, on the final bill of the conference Sunday, March 24, so if you're in Austin, hang out 'til Sunday, play some softball and check them out (we also have several other dates in the South, so call if you're interested). Call me sentimental, but I can't wait for the new R.E.M. record. Goodbye.

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

Before you listen to Spacemen 3's Recurring, check out the interview with Jason and Sonic Pete in NME. As far as family feuds go, this one ranks somewhere below the Redgrave sisters and somewhere above Wayne Hussey and Andrew Eldritch... Every time I'm in the mood to call Todd Bisson and bury the hatchet I discover he's already got a huge axe-handle protruding from his skull. A long time ago, Todd implied there was something fishy about being associated with a major label. Since he failed to ever state just what was so strange and/or unethical about this situation, I felt compelled to remind Todd that a person's credibility does not rest solely upon who their employer is or isn't (that's when I mentioned Warrant). For the second time, Todd has howled about "a major label with misogynist acts," failing for the second time to mention any Island or PolyGram artists whom he considers to be misogynists (smart move, Todd, you never know who you might send a resume to someday). Funny, I always thought Todd's treatment of female music directors was a bit of a misogynistic act in itself... Anyway, I'm not trying to pick on a struggling young band like Warrant. For Todd to be associated with the Darling Buds, Toad The Wet Sprocket or Poi Dog Pondering (none of whom we can accuse of paying his salary) should provide just as much embarrassment... Doug Schoemer really knew how to cut Susanna Hoffs down to size. Too bad she's not nearly as talented as Donette Thayer... Chin-a-P. says I always have my Dialogues published on time and she's right. That's because I don't actually write any of them—taking a tip from Mark Kostabi, a team of eager youngsters, earning minimum wage, carefully prepare each Dialogue under my watchful eye. I merely sign my name on the bottom.

Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 430-2077

The cover art on the split-single seven-inch of two cover tunes by BIG DRILL CAR ("Surrender") and CHEMICAL PEOPLE ("Getaway") is almost as cool as the sounds on the ugly yellow vinyl itself. Look for both of these SoCal bands to do some smooookin' shows locally before they hit the national trail this summer... ALL is takin' a brief break from that same trail in Brookfield, MO. They'll be stoppin' in at Buck & Don's for a trim before touring the rest of the U.S. and Canada straight through August as they pound out songs from their latest, Allroy Saves... SKIN (Two Fucking Words) YARD are plowing through some new material as they prepare for a West Coast swing this spring, so kids, get ready for a serious thrashing from Seattle... Peace, Love & Cross-Pollination.

Beatrice Pullam, Boomerang Productions, New York, NY (212) 941-0147

I think it's great that stations like WSYC will be playing more "black" music. However, I still have a problem with ghettoizing at any level. If a record is good, it should be played, period. C'mon, why must listeners wait until Thursday from 5-7 or whatever, to hear a new "black" release. Before patting ourselves on the back because we think we've done our part, we should think about how much we rely on specialty shows to get the job done, and if that is a positive thing. Brainstorm and get creative! Anyway, here's some great music for you: the FRAZIER CHORUS Ray album; EMF "Unbelievable" ("I Believe," the second single, ships in two weeks); MATERIAL ISSUES's Top 10 smash International Pop Overthrow; BIG DISH's Satellites album; and the "Let Freedom Ring" single from Zoo Entertainment's MARK GERMINO AND THE SLUGGERS.

Several notable hipsters (WVKR, WCDB, WXYC, WXDU, KZSC, WRFL and their friends) immediately responded to the GANG STARR CD I sent them. (They said, and I quote: "This is dope shit." They added it, they like it and they're playing it.) So far it looks as if Chrysalis' first foray into the rap arena is a strong one. (Gang Starr's Step In The Arena has already sold over 100,000 copies off "Just To Get A Rep." The second single and video out now is "Who's Gonna Take The Weight.") So now we're ready to take the big leap forward into another Chrysalis first—dancehall! (Ragamuffin, if you prefer.) Get ready that got one wore theirs to the Gavin Convention! You gotta admit that it's still a cool jacket (even if 27 other people are wearing it in the same room at the same time...). Oh, by the way, we're really tired of hearing "there's nothing really that new and great out there that we feel the need to play." You've got to remember that for every R.E.M. or Cure there's many, many developing bands that will sound great on the radio. So stop whining and do something about it!... OK—BIG NEWS—DANIELLE DAX is now confirmed as the opening artist on the Sisters Of Mercy Tour!!!! It is her very first tour in America! Now—if you're not playing her, what's up? Give a serious listen to our new track, "Big Blue '82." It's sexy, rocking and truly progressive! Play this talented artist now and superheat this tour!... R.E.M. is huge, next... The ROYAL CRESCENT MOB—we will "Konk" your noggin' if you don't get this one!... JUDYBATS—same thing, dudes! All dayparts, all ears, "Native Son" will work for your station!... THROWING MUSES—"Counting Backwards" is their strongest single to date! Check out Diane Tameecha's write-up this week in Album Network—she speaks the truth! The Real Ramona is a sharp record!... TOO MUCH JOY—have you listened to "Crush Story" yet? Wot are you waiting for? It's a terrifically swell modern-pop song with a hook that'll kill a shark!... DINOSAUR JR.—wanna be the coolest station on the dial? Wanna be truly "cutting edge"? Wanna watch this thing go through the roof at retail? Play Dinosaur Jr.... The GOO GOO DOLLS—live or not, "Just The Way You Are" will rock your existence... JULEE CRUISE—wanna watch your phones explode? Play this stylin' hip-hop remix of "Rockin' Back Inside My Heart," written by David Lynch. So cool it's hot!... Watch for the new MY BLOODY VALENTINE EP this week. Check out the track called "Swallow." Yeah, we do have a lot of records, but they are all pretty darn good. We don't expect you to play everything this instant—that's what artist development is all about.

Greg Dubrow, Sky Records Inc., Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759
I finally saw a Replacements show that rocked from beginning to end. After four so-so shows in the last six years, they did deliver, with impeccable song selection ("Little Mascara," "Color Me Impressed") and playing. The new stuff sounded great, with more punch than on the record. My years of patience paid off... LE MYSTERE DES VOIX BULGARES loosely translates to "lots of voices doing strange, wonderful things," or so my rusty high-school French indicates... I could be wrong. In any event, this compilation of Bulgarian Women's Choir Music is available now on PolyGram, on CD only. There were some initial mailing problems so if you didn't get it, call us. Segue nicely with Mouth Music or the Enigma album... Keep playing SPOONER, the CHILDREN and CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES. The CD single from PYLON that we've sent you includes an interview aired on CBC's "Brave New Waves" program, and you are free to play as much as you want. FLAT DUO JETS will be out in a few weeks, with tour dates to follow. Call me toll-free (see above) or Mike Kondo at 800-442-3142 if you need anything.

Dragstrip Riot, the brand new double LP from the fresh and ferocious FLESH

EATERS is tearing up lotsa ears on the wireless. A recent record release party at Club Underwear in Hollywood for Chris D. and his latest Flesh Eaters crew was a serious roof ripper. More California dates to come but while you wait try a taste of "Agony Shorthand," "Soul Kiss" and a Mott The Hoople cover, "Moon Upstairs"... Also gearing up for a few L.A. gigs are the LEAVING TRAINS before they embark on a European tour in support of their best record of love songs yet, Sleeping Underwater Survivors. Falling James promised us that he'll be much nicer to the German border police this time around... The "Whamon The USA" tour by NO MAN is underway and headed all over the states. Don't miss this power duo that gets such a full-on live and shreddin' sound that you'll be tailgating Roger and Russ across the continent... Damn. HR is throwin' down an absolutely righteous rasta-rock sound inna stylee that won't be found anyplace on this earth except for the stage he and Human Rights sets foot upon mon. See HR live on the West Coast Charge tour (which includes a date in Rosarito Beach, B.C., Mexico) and you will agree and groove all the way home... Peace, Love & Spicy Fish Tacos.

Hey, check out ELVIN BISHOP doing the Letterman show on either March 27 or 28 and you'll see that everything I've been telling you about the man is true and then some! "You Gotta Rock 'Em" is the cut you should be fixating on. It's gotta be the only blues/rap tune out there, so play the damn thing. LITTLE CHARLIE AND THE NIGHTCATS are out and reaffirming their status as road warriors. Catch them live 3/22-23 in Salt Lake City, 3/26 in Garden City, KS; 3/27 in Lincoln, NE; 3/28 in Kansas City; 3/29 in Ames, IA; 3/30 in Dearborn, MI; 4/9-14 in NYC; 4/17 in Amagansett, NY; 4/18 in Washington, DC; 4/19 in Philly; 4/20 in Pittsburgh; and 4/22 in Durham, NC. If you need tickets, giveaways or interviews, give me a call! Warming up in the 'Gator bullpen are new ones from those outrageous ladies, SAFFIRE—THE UPPITY BLUES WOMEN, and a reissue from OTIS RUSH. Until next time, Go, Go Cubs.

There are lots of people looking for an adventure out there! Many have found it with Rhythm Safari's first two releases, The Best Of Juluka and The Best Of World Music. Have you?? Being from an infant label, it is very nice to find so much enthusiasm and support. Already on it... CHUO, KABF, KCMU, KHSU, KMSA, KNWD, KUGS, KVYN, KWLC, KZUM, WARG, WFPR, WTHS, to name a few. Have you received these wonderful releases? If you haven't, but would like to, just call! We'd love to hear from any stations that are supportive of world music! So, in other news... I finally saw Jellyfish! They're so fun! Recently Greg Dubrow of Sky came out to the wilds of L.A... Many congratulations to Jerry Rubino at Rough Trade for being the indie label god of the year... See you at South By Southwest!!

How would you like a good dose of life? Just pop in DON HENRY's Wild In The Back Yard and experience a true look at "Artsy-Fartsy Tourists On Parade." The album contains material for every kind of music lover. A MUST!... In stores April 9th... along with Hitchhiker Exemplar 2, an alternative sampler packed full of awesome cuts by: INDIGO GIRLS, MARY-CHAPIN CARPENTER, CHET ATKINS/MARK KNOPFLER, ROSE-

ANNE CASH and DON HENRY... just to name a few. Hitchhiker Exemplar 2 will be "priced low to go" on CDs and cassettes, so pick up a hitchhiker today! Later.

Hey all you graduating MDs... I just saw an ad for this new Fox show called Fantasy Park where you call a 900 number and you could win lots of great prizes like millions of dollars, new cars, cool vacations, or get this, "a job as a record company executive!" It's never been easy to run a major label. All it takes is two bucks (per call) and a dream... I thought I'd pass it on since I know none of you (except Bill Pearis) watch as much TV as I do.

- Five very important things!
- 1) THE LEGENDARY PINK DOTS The Maria Dimension out now...
 - 2) A SPLIT SECOND "The Parallax View" remixes CD out now...
 - 3) NAKED RAYGUN on tour through your town soon...
 - 4) ACTION SWINGERS, GUMBALL and MONSTER MAGNET on Primo Scree Records...
 - 5) New YOUNG GODS, the OVERLORDS, LA MUERTE soon...

Hmm... wasn't it Mr. Stipe who declared many moons ago that he would never lip-synch in a music video?... Hopefully now you've had time to sink your teeth into the DREAM WARRIORS single "My Definition Of A Boombastic Jazz Style." The full LP (w/ "Wash Your Face In My Sink") will hit in mid-April... Positively Phranc is a collection of folk-pop nuggets that displays her growth as a songwriter while tipping her hat to Jonathan Richman, the Beach Boys and (even) Heart... YES!!!! We are putting out the highly anticipated double-LP by JULIAN COPE. The first single "Beautiful Love" will ship soon... By now, you should also have the full LP from TONY D. as well as the BUCK PETS 12" for "Libertine" (remixed by the Dust Brothers). If not please call me... And if you haven't seen The Doors movie then save your money, it's just the classic rock version of Sid & Nancy.

Sue Patel, Nettwerk Productions, Universal City, CA (818) 508-3130

I've been talking about the new MANUFACTURE record, Voice Of World Control (produced by Greg Hawkes from the Cars). This record continues to be categorized and described as an "industrial" ("industrial" being an extremely overused and diluted term) record. In fact, the term "industrial music" is hardly representative of the actual bands and music that are stereotyped and categorized under this heading. So, take a chance, put aside all stereotypes and preconceptions and just take a listen. Music is music is music. It doesn't need to be stereotyped and segregated. I remember a time when rap and hip hop continued to be segregated into specialty airplay (and at some stations it still is). Suddenly this "genre" of music has been attributed a new significance—it's finally been recognized as a serious art form (as opposed to a passing trend in the ghettos of America) and it's finally being taken seriously... Speaking of so-called "industrial" music, SKINNY PUPPY will be returning with a new remix of "Spasmolydic" in early April (Nettwerk/Capitol)... Also, on its way is the second release from San Francisco's CONSOLIDATED, Friendly Fascism. Look for the first single "Brutal Equation," on April 9 (Nettwerk/I.R.S.).

Wow—my 15 moments of fame so nearly realized: I was almost on the new AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB record. Seems my, ahem, "ebullient" nature (which causes me to jump up and down with little or no provocation) was creating less than desirable recording conditions in the studio downstairs where Everclear is being finished. They called and asked that I restrain myself. Sheeze... HYPNOLOVEWHEEL (or as some of you refer to them—Hypnolovemobile, Technolovewheel or Humungoidlovethang) is the only thing making your pathetic piece-of-shit life worth living. You can lie to yourself and say it's not true, but you know I'm right... To all the stations who played the Posies, Jellyfish and Material Issue but felt the SNEETCHES just didn't fit their format, you can suck my

Lori Teitler, National Director College Promotion, Virgin Records,

It has recently come to my attention that there are a number of stations out there who have been trying to reach me, who leave messages at my office, and get no return call. Well, to put an end to all that, I'm going to list my private line: 212-206-5211. This line goes directly to my office, no receptionist will pick up, you will not have to leave a message. I will answer this line... Peter Wohelski (WMNF, Tampa) said to me, "If stations can play Meat Beat Manifesto, they should absolutely play BASS-O-MATIC." I would have to agree with him. Bass-O-Matic is William Orbit's latest venture into the realm of tripping-ambient, funk-filled, dance music. Most swell indeed! Be sure to check out: "In The Realm Of The Senses," "Fascinating Rhythm" and "Zombie Mantra"...

RAINTREE CROW a.k.a. David Sylvian, Mick Karn, Richard Barbieri and Steve Jansen—who used to be in a band called Japan—will have a new record out on April 14. This is their first record together in nine years! Recorded in France, Italy, England and Ireland, the album was written as a result of group improvisation. There were no pre-rehearsals, and much of the finished music contains original elements from first-run performances. I imagine that the music in heaven sounds a lot like this... Have a swell day!

David Weigel, Promotion, Juggler Records, Portland, OR (503) 223-9419

Satyricon... The Album could be the #1 compilation of the year but some of you would rather watch that old Divinyls chick touch herself. If you're into touching, listen to Walt Curtis, who happens to be the authority on this age-old pastime. You will find Walt and his pal Marty spewing forth on this and other issues on Satyricon. We should, however, advise the squeamish in the audience to look the other way when Satyricon appears, because there just might be "... Something enigmatic nestling within the (vinyl)... " Something called the Portland music scene... "Oh my Ghaud!" Satyricon is a club in that other city in the Pacific Northwest... Ya know, or don't ya. Well, you might know some of the famous bands from PDX that appear on Satyricon... The Album who in fact may be performing in a club near you. The DHARMA BUMS are on an 18-city tour which will bring them "Blissfully" through a variety of East Coast dates. POISON IDEA will be dropping its "Plastic Bomb" on the European club scene through March and April. SWEATY soon will be exposing their NIPPLES and Walt Curtis will be appearing at a supermarket near you. Special thanks to KBOO, KWCW, CITR, KRUX, KDVS, KHSU, KSJS, SKLC, KZUU, KCOU, WNUR, KBVR, WXDR, WRPI, KRRC, KAOS and my old station KLC for pushing Satyricon to the Top 10! And, psssssst, TBH are coming.

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

Saw the Goo Goo Dolls this weekend (thanks Lori!)—very cool show! For once a band that deserves all the hype they're getting... Things are getting pretty exciting here at Merkin. We're scouting locations for possible West Coast and European offices, and several of our bands will be embarking on national tours this summer. That's right, some of us might actually be moving to sunny California, which sounds great as it's below 60 degrees in the office right now! If you're interested in hooking up your college/city/town on the BUTT-STEAK summer tour, call Dave Baker at Open Booking (301) 234-0049... The response to the Buttsteak CD has been really hot. It's climbing up many a chart at this very moment. If you still don't have it at your station, please give me a call...

the girl to produce The Rolling Stones—The Movie. Imagine, Madonna as Marianne Faithful, Sting as Brian Jones, Jeff Pachman as Charlie Watts, Jack Nicholson as Keith Richards (Nikki, Dave or the Black Crowes are way too obvious) and starring Val Kilmer, of course, as Mick Jagger. What a cast, what a concept. What a hangover I have today. Seeing Oliver's movie really made me want to drop acid and recite poetry. Instead I had to settle for cheap wine and industry gossip. Which lends itself to one tremendous headache, but at least I didn't show up for work today wearing tie-dye and turquoise. UNCLE TUPELO and TEXAS INSTRUMENTS are both performing during SXSW in Austin this month. Also be on the lookout for a new Texas Instruments record titled Crammed Into Infinity, a brand new SHONEN KNIFE song on a single and a GOVERNMENT ISSUE rarities record called Beyond.

Almost as captivating as Val Kilmer's swagger: Bongwater's The Power Of Pussy, Yo-Yo's Make Way For The Motherlode and the Leaving Trains' Sleeping Underwater Survivors. I think I'll cast myself as Bianca. Call us, we're in need of constant entertainment.

Staring you back in the face or lost in the music department shuffle somewhere, is the new and censor-approved ANDY PRIEBY single "Montezuma Was A Man Of Faith." Yeah, Yeah. We know it's a track currently available off his LP . . . Upon My Wicked Son, that's why we also included two new tracks "Send In The Drugs" and "Where I'm Calling You From." And, yes, Andy couldn't help but dabble with the talents of Johnette Napolitano on their cover of "Whole Lotta Love." . . . CADILLAC TRAMPS are the most recent signing for Doctor Dream and have carved a new niche for themselves and the label with their explosive edge sound. The LP should be well over your welcome mat by now and it's nothing like you've ever heard on the label. . . WALKING WOUNDED are hot off the press with their third LP of yearning American rock entitled Hard Times. Guaranteed to enact you socially, and, at times, politically, Hard Times is foreshadowing in a nation undergoing social change.

Hey, I've actually been getting some calls from stores because they've read my Dialogue. Maybe these things really do work. Anyways, the new LEGENDARY PINK DOTS is finally out and winning over fans of the psychedelic both young and old. Break out the lava lamp, fire up the banana peels and check it out. "The Parallax View" 12" from A SPLIT SECOND is getting some heavy duty club action. The NAKED RAYGUN tour is under way and going well. Look for KINGHORSE playing around the South and East throughout April. Still plenty of BAD BRAINS Rock For Light posters for displays, so give me a ring if you're interested. We're also doing a poster for the Megaforce comp., Deeper Into The Vault, so look for that soon. Upcoming spring releases: SPRINGHOUSE, CHUCK TREECE, SMASHING PUMPKINS and BLOODY STOOLS. If your store has any Thor stuff, we really need to talk.

Melissa White, Music Director, WKGC, Panama City, FL (904) 769-5242

Greetings to all!!! I am writing to you as I'm sitting down here in sunny Florida anxiously awaiting the start of yet another spring break season. Although this year they have added a new twist—MTV. Yes folks, that's right, MTV has decided to do a remote from our beautiful beaches. So we all get to find out if Dave Kendall's accent is real and if Adam Curry's hair is real!!! If I could bitch and complain for a moment. . . I am really sick and tired of this Warner Bros. problem I have inherited along with this job. I have called and written, begged and pleaded. I guess we'll never get service. Our people are crying for some new R.E.M.—I suppose we'll go buy it. Anyway, on the new music front, I'm really into THE HIGH; I also like ELEVENTH DREAM DAY, the BUCK PETS, the 360'S, URBAN EDGE, and the new FEELIES release is a gift from God. I still love my all-time faves, KMFDM and BUFFALO TOM. Special thanks to Glenn at Island Recs. for accidentally calling me and turning me on to the Buck Pets (who I might add are EXTRAORDINARY live).

Good luck to Tod Elmore. We're going to really miss you down here! Keep in touch. Keep the Peace.

Peter Banchieri, KCPR, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 756-2965

Hello there, Earth Day is fast approaching. We here at KCPR are trying to round up stations for what we are calling the College Radio Environmental Network. The idea is that stations will devote 24 hours of airtime April 26 (the Friday before Earth Day) to the sounds of the Earth. The programming will consist of a constant bed of the sound of waves, rain forests and the like with occasional environmental messages thrown in as well. We did it here last year and it was very successful. It is easy to put together and was well received by the community. We will provide, to all stations who would like to join, the recorded messages, live copy and the recordings of Earth sounds. Our hope is to provide this at no cost to the stations. Well there you have the spiel. Please pass it along to your PD. It is a real positive event and we hope you can get involved. Give us a call at the station and ask for Peat, Kevin or Mike Funk. Take care.

Themis Hronopoulos, Music Director, KSJS, San Jose, CA (408) 924-4547

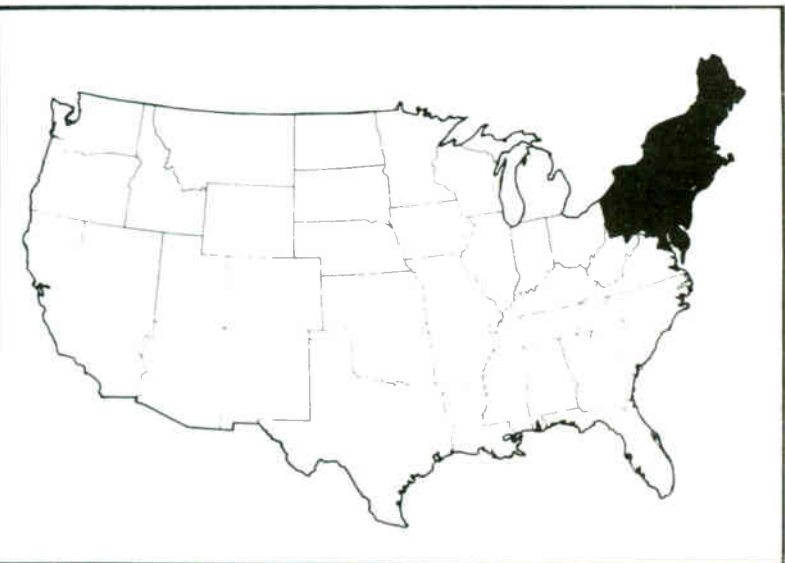

O.K. Office hours on Wednesdays 8-10 a.m., and Fridays 3-5 p.m. PDT. In the last CMJ issues there has been some discussion about college radio's coverage of the war. I understand that KQAL and a few more stations did a good job, but generally speaking college radio covered this war as much as any Top 40 station; like shit if any at all. Once again the only real alternative coverage came from the Pacifica Network affiliates, and now one can just blow the whole argument in pieces by rightly asking "in what aspect is college radio alternative to be in the news?" In any case, from the stations that I listened to (including mine), and from discussions that I had with people across the nation, college radio once again lost the boat. Even Gerard didn't mention that (I just threw your name to say hi), and Mr. Glaser or whoever, please stop re-writing my stuff; the originals are bad enough already. After all wasn't the war that made the Charlatans U.K. fall from number one in the chart?

[The above is exactly, letter for letter, the Dialogue as sent in by Themis Hronopoulos.—Ed.]

Dexter, WBRU, Providence, RI (401) 272-9550

Comments: Another quick reminder for those of you who want to come to sunny Providence on March 23 for a killer FEELIES show at Club Babyhead—call me and reserve your tickets now. Thanks to all who have been helping out with promo stuff to give away at that show, I'm very psyched about this event. Also, thanks to those of you who have worked extra hard to get your alternative bands to play in the Providence market. Lately we've been skippe'd by many tours and this does not help us to sell records for you. We at WBRU appreciate the efforts you've been making. A super big thank you to Bridgette at Virgin for hooking me up last minute with fix for BOB (3 letters, just like God) MOULD playing an acoustic set at Nightstage. This may very well have been the best show I've ever seen. The vibe at the club was incredible as a cozy number of Bob's biggest fans sat on the floor mesmerized by his brilliance. Bob was friendly and more talkative than I've ever seen him before. He worked in a most casual manner, with no set list, sitting down, taking requests, chatting with the crowd, etc. His set was two hours and included all that his most devoted fans could ask for. I left with the feeling that Bob had come to my living room and played just for me. Very cool. Thanks again Bridgette.

TRIPLE X, MOJO RISIN'

Mojo Nixon and Triple X Records have announced the formation of a new record label called Triple Nixxon Records. Mojo will be responsible for signing and overseeing production of the artists he discovers, and Triple X will handle the promotion and distribution of the records. The first releases will be from Tucson-based band Fish Karma, whose first LP, Teddy In The Sky With Magnets, is set for release this month. The second act signed to Triple Nixxon is the Dick Nixsons, who will be recording their debut album with producer Jim Dickinson, known for his work with the Replacements, Alex Chilton and Toots And The Maytals.

R.E.M. LOSES "RELIGION" CLIP IN IRELAND

R.E.M.'s video for "Losing My Religion" is causing some controversy in Ireland due to its religious imagery. The country's national station, RTE, has found the imagery, particularly the crucifixion scene, unfit for broadcasting.

CHICAGO BLUES FESTIVAL DATES ANNOUNCED

This year's Chicago Blues Festival will be taking place June 14-16 on the city's lakefront. Featured this year will be special tributes to Alligator Records and the legacy of Robert Johnson. Last year nearly 500,000 fans attended the event. The windy city also hosts the Chicago Gospel Festival on June 8-9.

BEATLES TOP GOLDMINE SINGLES LIST

An article in the April 19 issue of Goldmine magazine will list the 100 most valuable rock 'n roll 45s, based on the accumulated opinions and observations of various music collectors and dealers. The top-valued single listed is the Beatles' "Ask Me Why"/"Anna" promotional 45 from 1964, valued at $7,000. Three other Beatles singles were listed in the Top 10, along with two from Elvis Presley and one by the Rolling Stones.

WILL THEY LET PETE ROSE IN?

The First Annual Rap Hall Of Fame Awards took place on March 7 in New York City, honoring radio stars DJ Red Alert (WRKS) and DJ Marley Marl (WBLS), as well as Ralph McDaniel and Lionel Martin, producers of Video Musicbox. The awards were hosted by MC Lyte, radio personalities Mike Love, Lady B (WBLS) and Jeff Fox (WRKS), and video host Chris Thomas (Rap City). Performers included Biz Markie, K-Solo, Kwame, Brand Nubian, Redhead Kingpin and Candy Man. Proceeds for the event went of the T.J. Martell Foundation for Leukemia, Cancer & Aids Research. The event was conceptualized by Daniel Glass and Virgil Simms of SBK Records and Cynthia Horner of Right On! magazine.

NIPON COLUMBIA ACQUIRES SAVOY

Nipon Columbia, a Tokyo-based company best known in the U.S. for its Denon jazz label and classical recordings, has purchased the catalog of the legendary Savoy Jazz label and will be re-issuing some 300 recordings, including extra tracks, extensive liner notes and an improved digitized sound. The Savoy Jazz catalog includes some of the first recording sessions from bop artists Charlie Parker, Dexter Gordon and Miles Davis from the '40s and '50s, as well as some isolated free-jazz sessions from the early '60s by Sun Ra, Bill Dixon and Archie Shepp.

OOPS!

The label for the 360's album, reviewed in issue #227, should have read Link instead of Link-Hollywood. You can contact Link at 121 W. 27th St., Suite 401, New York, NY 10001, phone (212) 924-2929.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

On his upcoming album Life's Too Short, Marshall Crenshaw covers "Face Of Fashion" by New Zealand artist Chris Knox. Apparently Crenshaw heard the song on WMFU in East Orange, NJ, and bought the record at Pier Platters in Hoboken, NJ... Big Dipper has been dropped from Epic's roster.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Morgan Creek Music Group has named Matthew Aberle as an A&R representative and Monica Froeber as coordinator of marketing and sales. Both previously held positions at Enigma Entertainment... Portland-based Juggler Records has announced the appointment of David Weigel as promotion associate, handling primarily radio and video promotion, and Sarah Othman as executive assistant.

FUGAZI/BEAT HAPPENING Maxwell's, Hoboken, NJ, March 6

Fugazi and Beat Happening are probably tied together more by their motivation and ideals than by the sound of their music, but together they can produce a night of inspiring live music. Beat Happening's music has the juice of musical rebellion running through it—no bass guitar, constant instrument shuffling among band members, off-key vocals—but the finished product is one of the most richly suggestive we've ever heard. Live, BH's simple beats and sweet melodies serve as a sweet-tart backdrop for most-of-the-time singer Calvin's deep croon and jerky, new wave dancing. As the ultimate pearl of the DC hardcore scene, Fugazi is everything they should be, and louder. Squawking guitars, caustic lyrics, funky riddims and melodies drifting in and out of songs that have, by default, become fervent anthems for a post-punk generation. There's a spark, a searing sonic assault of Thurston 'n Lee proportions, that's missing from the studio versions of songs like "Two Beats Off" and "Reprovisional" that shines fiercely under the glaring white light of Fugazi's live performance.

MIND FUNK Limelight, New York City, March 10

Anyone with any contact with our mag as of late should be fairly aware of the band at hand on this evening—if not, take note because they'll surely be here tomorrow. After the somewhat ritualistic arse-lickin' record release party, the band attacked the stage with a raw energy that their brilliant self-titled Epic debut hides in glossy production—not that the LP suffers any loss of heaviness, but their live set is fuckin' HEAVY. Bassist John Monte took control with a performance that is more acrobatic than rock, although rock-solid he was, while the rest of the band set the pace with a savage groove that can only be described as a cross between late-era Black Flag and Santana. Front/handsome man Pat Dubar shed the hardcore past of his previous Uniform Choice situation and proceeded to exude a raw sex-drive stage presence that had the girls ga-ga and the guys suffering from masculinity complexes. Precious few bands burn with the intensity that these Jersey-ites presented tonight, and fortunately, it seems they'll only improve with time.
